b. The American Bar Association's Commentary to its Code of Judicial Conduct states that it is inappropriate for a judge to hold membership in any organization that invidiously discriminates on the basis of race, sex, or religion, or national origin. I have never served as a mediator or arbitrator in an alternative dispute resolution proceeding.

b. Describe:

i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

From 1998 to 2017, I was an attorney in the litigation group of Jones Day, a large private law firm. During this entire period, I worked out of the Firm's office in Columbus, Ohio. Upon making Partner in 2007, I joined the Firm's Issues and Appeals section of the litigation group. Throughout my career at Jones Day, I worked on challenging matters in both the trial and appellate courts. In the trial courts, I focused on the law-driven aspects of the practice, including briefing, arguing motions, and preserving issues for appeal. My appellate practice included briefing and arguing cases in the state and federal appellate courts, most frequently in the Ohio Supreme Court and the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. I also briefed cases in the United States Supreme Court, and I successfully argued before the Supreme Court in McQuiggin v. Perkins. In addition, for many years I served as the Columbus office's representative on the Firmwide Pro Bono and Training Committees. Through these committees, I mentored numerous junior lawyers, including assisting dozens of lawyers in handling their first appellate matters, often on behalf of a pro bono client.

Since January 30, 2017, I have served as the Acting Assistant Attorney General for the Civil Division of the Justice Department. In this role, I have supervisory responsibilities for the over 1,000 attorneys in the Division's six branches (Appellate, Commercial, Consumer Protection, Federal Programs, Immigration, and Torts). As the Acting Assistant Attorney General, I am involved with the litigation aspects of many of the most important cases handled by the Division, including arguing cases in the federal district and appellate courts. I am also responsible for advising the Department's leadership offices and our client agencies on the progress of significant cases.

ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

My practice has included a wide range of legal issues and clients. At Jones Day, I did significant work in the areas of class actions, commercial law, constitutional law, education law, fraud (including health care fraud), government regulation, insurance law, and products liability. Some of my most significant clients included Cardinal Health, Christ Hospital, Chrylser Corp., Donald J. Trump for President, First American Title Insurance Co., First Energy, First Merit Bank, General Motors, Lincoln Electric, Procter & Gamble, Prudential Insurance, RJ Reynolds Tobacco Company, Rogers Group, Sherwin-Williams Co., the United States Chamber of Commerce, White Castle, and various charter schools and charter school-related organizations. In addition to these clients, I consistently dedicated part of my practice to handling pro bono matters, in particular, appellate and habeas corpus proceedings in the federal courts. My pro bono practice included representing clients serving death sentences in Ohio and Oklahoma and life sentences in Michigan and Kentucky, in addition to a host of other pro bono matters.

At the Justice Department, my clients include the United States Congress, all agencies within the Executive Branch, and federal officials sued in their official or individual capacities. My areas of responsibility include all litigation conducted by the Civil Division.

c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

In private practice from 1998 to 2017, my practice consisted almost entirely of handling or supervising litigation, and I appeared in court occasionally early in my career, and more frequently later in my career. In my current role in the Civil Division, my practice also consists almost entirely of handling or supervising litigation, and I appear in court about once every 4-6 weeks.

Over the course of my career, I have briefed hundreds of cases and argued over 25 appeals, including one case in the United States Supreme Court, appearing most frequently in the Ohio Supreme Court and the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. I have also argued many significant motions in federal district courts and state trial courts.

i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1. federal courts: 65%
2. state courts of record: 35%
3. other courts: 0%
4. administrative agencies: 0%

ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:
    1. civil proceedings: 80%
    2. criminal proceedings: 20%

d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

As primarily an appellate lawyer, I have not served as sole or chief counsel in any case tried to verdict or judgment in court. I have served as sole counsel in a matter tried to judgment before an administrative law judge. In private practice, I participated on trial teams in at least five cases tried to verdict, appearing in court to argue pre-trial motions, legal issues surfacing during trial, proposed jury instructions, and post-trial motions, in addition to preparing motions for those cases, advising other trial counsel, and preserving issues for appeal. I have been involved in a number of other cases tried to verdict for which I did not appear in court. As head of the Civil Division, I supervised trials conducted by other lawyers within the Division.

i. What percentage of these trials were:
    1. jury: 70%
    2. non-jury: 30%

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

    a. the date of representation;

    b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and

    c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

    1. McQuiggin v. Perkins, 133 S. Ct. 1924 (2013).

    This case presented the question whether a habeas petitioner's actual innocence, if proven, would be sufficient to circumvent the one-year statute of limitations for petitioners to appeal their convictions to a federal habeas court under the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (AEDPA). The Supreme Court held that where a habeas petitioner makes a credible showing of actual innocence, that showing allows the petitioner to circumvent the AEDPA's statute of limitations. Justice Ginsberg wrote the majority opinion, joined by Justices Kennedy, Breyer, Kagan, and Sotomayor. Justice Scalia, joined by Chief Justice Roberts and Justices Thomas and Alito, dissented. I successfully briefed and argued the case in the Supreme Court, and briefed and oversaw the prior and subsequent proceedings in the Sixth Circuit.

2. Magnan v. Trammell, 719 F.3d 1159 (10th Cir. 2013).

Mr. Magnan was convicted of murder and sentenced to death by an Oklahoma state court. In this federal habeas proceeding, the federal court was asked to decide whether Magnan's crimes occurred in "Indian country," as that term is used in federal law. If his crimes occurred in "Indian country," the Oklahoma state court was without jurisdiction over the crimes. I successfully briefed and argued for Magnan before the Tenth Circuit, which held that the estate where the crimes occurred was in fact "Indian country," because the requirements to extinguish the restrictions placed on Indian lands and convey the property had not been satisfied. The court in turn granted Magnan's petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Briscoe wrote the opinion of the court, joined by Judges Kelly and Hartz.

3. English v. Trump, 279 F. Supp. 3d 307 (D.D.C. 2018).

This case presented the question whether the President was authorized to name an acting Director of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau when the Bureau's Deputy Director was installed in that office by the outgoing Director. Following a hearing on a motion for a preliminary injunction brought by the Deputy Director, Judge Kelly held that the President maintained the authority to name an acting Director under the Federal Vacancies Reform Act. I successfully briefed and argued the opposition to the motion for a preliminary injunction.

   This case presented the question whether Ohio's charter school system, codified in Ohio Rev. Code § 3314, satisfied the Ohio Constitution's requirements for public schools. The Ohio Court of Appeals dismissed some of plaintiff's claims and allowed others to survive dismissal. In a subsequent appeal, the Supreme Court of Ohio affirmed in part and reversed in part, holding that Ohio law regarding the establishment of charter schools was constitutional both on its face and as applied. I successfully briefed and argued the case in the Ohio Supreme Court before Chief Justice Moyer and Justices Resnick, Pfeiffer, Stratton, O'Donnell, Lanzinger, and O'Connor, on behalf of a large coalition of Ohio charter schools, in addition to briefing and arguing the case before the Ohio Court of Appeals (Judges Bowman, Bryant, and Watson).

Cal.).

   These cases, all of which are before Judge Orrick in the district court, represent related litigation between jurisdictions in California and the United States over federal immigration enforcement. The first two cases (the Trump cases) involve challenges to Executive Order 13768 ("Enhancing Public Safety in the Interior of the United States"). The district court enjoined enforcement of the Executive Order, and the government has appealed that decision to the Ninth Circuit. The Sessions cases are ongoing challenges by the State of California and local California jurisdictions to immigration-related conditions incorporated in federal grants. I briefed and argued each case before the district court and the Ninth Circuit.

   At issue in the litigation is the Department of Justice's ability to impose conditions on federal grants awarded to localities across the country, including Chicago. In the district court, Judge Leinenweber issued a nationwide injunction against enforcement of three conditions imposed by the Department of Justice. In an appeal challenging the enjoining of two of the conditions, a Seventh Circuit panel consisting of Judges Bauer, Manion, and Rovner affirmed the district court's granting of a nationwide injunction against enforcing the two conditions. Thereafter, the en banc Seventh Circuit stayed the nationwide-relief aspects of the decision. The trial court subsequently granted a permanent nationwide injunction as to all three conditions, but stayed its decision pending appellate review. I briefed and argued the cases in both the district court and in the Seventh Circuit.

   The plaintiff brought a products-liability action alleging negligent and fraudulent concealment of information by the defendants. A dispositive legal issue was whether the plaintiff's lawsuit was filed within the applicable statute of limitations period. The jury found plaintiff's claims to be time-barred, and the Eleventh Circuit unanimously affirmed that ruling on appeal. In the trial proceedings before Judge Siler (sitting by designation from the Sixth Circuit), I argued all of the legal issues and jury instructions before the court. On appeal, I successfully briefed and argued the case, which was decided by Judges Tjoflat, Rosenbaum, and Reeves (sitting by designation from the Eastern District of Kentucky).

8. Fulcher v. Motley, 443 F.3d 791 (6th Cir. 2006)

A Kentucky state court found Mr. Fulcher guilty of murder, burglary, and robbery, and sentenced him to life in prison. His conviction and sentence were later affirmed by the Kentucky appellate courts. Following Mr. Fulcher's unsuccessful habeas corpus proceedings in the district court, I was appointed by the Sixth Circuit to represent Mr. Fulcher in his appellate habeas proceeding. Before Judges Clay, Cook, and Oliver (sitting by designation from the Northern District of Ohio), I successfully argued that Fulcher's conviction was obtained in violation of his Sixth Amendment Confrontation Clause rights, and that habeas relief was thus warranted.

Chicago Title Insurance Corporation contended that competitor First American Title Insurance Company violated a covenant not to compete and tortiously interfered with an employment contract between Chicago Title and one of its employees. In a case tried before Judge Frost, a jury returned a verdict in favor of Chicago Title for $43 million, including a large punitive damages award. I represented First American on appeal before the Sixth Circuit and briefed the case. The Sixth Circuit, per Judges Daughtrey, Gibbons, and Edmunds (sitting by designation from the Eastern District of Michigan), held that a punitive damages award was inappropriate in the case, vacated the compensatory damages award, and remanded for a new trial on compensatory damages.

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

As noted above, I have briefed and argued cases at all levels, including the United States Supreme Court, the federal courts of appeals, and the Ohio Supreme Court. While the bulk of my career has involved litigation in court, I have also participated in arbitration proceedings and administrative adjudications.

With respect to arbitrations, I litigated on behalf of Chrysler Group in a series of cases filed by former Chrysler auto dealers following Chrysler's successful emergence from Chapter 11 reorganization proceedings. I also participated in two unrelated arbitration matters on behalf of General Motors.

With respect to administrative matters, I litigated successfully two matters for Ohio charter schools, one involving school transportation and the other school testing and performance.

Since 2017, I have served as an ex officio member of the Advisory Committee on Civil Rules. The Committee, consisting of members appointed by the Chief Justice of the United States, is made up of ten federal judges, six practitioners, and one government attorney. The Committee reviews proposed amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and recommends proposed amendments for consideration by the Supreme Court.

From 2012 to 2017, I served as one of 32 members of the Ohio Constitutional Modernization Commission. Twelve members were sitting members of the Ohio General Assembly, and the remaining 20 members were selected from the public at large. Pursuant to Ohio law, the Commission was charged with studying the Constitution of Ohio, promoting an exchange of experiences and suggestions respecting desired changes in the Ohio Constitution, considering the problems pertaining to the amendment of the Ohio Constitution, and making recommendations from time to time to the General Assembly for the amendment of the Ohio Constitution.

I have not acted or registered as a lobbyist.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

    I have not taught a course.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

    Based on my years of service at Jones Day, I will receive a private pension of approximately $39,000 per year, payable monthly from retirement to death.

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

    No.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

    See attached Financial Disclosure Report.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the supplied financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

    See attached Net Worth Statement.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

Cases most likely to present conflict issues would be those related to my current service as a government lawyer or my prior service in private practice. If confirmed, I would recuse myself in any such matter in which, during my government service, I had participated as counsel, adviser, or material witness or had expressed an opinion concerning the merits. See 28 U.S.C. § 455(b)(3). I would also recuse myself in any matter in which, during my time in private practice, either I or a lawyer with whom I was then practicing had participated. See 28 U.S.C. § 455(b)(2).

b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If confirmed, I would evaluate any potential conflicts of interest under the standards set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 455 and Canon 3C of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, both of which address the question whether federal judges must disqualify themselves due to conflicts. In considering those rules, I would further consult any judicial decisions or Judicial Conference opinions applying the rules to particular cases or circumstances.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

Over the course of my career, I have worked on somewhere around 100 different pro bono matters. Most of them involved the direct handling or supervising of appeals on behalf of individuals unable to pay for legal representation. While in private practice, I dedicated an average of about 200 hours per year of my client service time to pro bono matters. Three of the most significant cases, McQuiggin v. Perkins, Magnan v. Trammell, and Fulcher v. Motley are summarized in response to Question 17.

In addition, in Miller v. Miller, 973 N.E.2d 228 (Ohio 2012), I represented the Ohio State Bar Association (OSBA) on a pro bono basis in its amicus curiae participation in an important corporate law matter before the Ohio Supreme Court. Agreeing with the position advanced by the OSBA, the Ohio Supreme Court held that: (1) a corporation cannot avoid its duty to advance expenses to a director under Ohio law by claiming that the director's alleged misconduct, if proven, would amount to a violation of his or her fiduciary duties and would therefore foreclose indemnification; and (2) when a corporation has received from a director the undertaking described in Ohio Rev. Code 1701.13(E)(5)(a), the corporation is required to advance expenses to the director unless the corporation's articles or regulations specifically state that section 1701.13(E) does not apply to the corporation.

In In re Holmes, 821 N.E.2d 568 (Ohio 2004), I served as pro bono counsel before the Ohio Supreme Court on behalf of a father seeking custody of his two minor daughters. An Ohio trial court ordered permanent custody to a local child welfare agency. The father appealed and ordered a complete transcript of proceedings from the court reporter for inclusion in the record, which the appellate court later confirmed was filed. The court of appeals, however, ultimately affirmed the trial court's decision based on the "absence of a complete and adequate record," noting the absence of exhibits identified in the transcript. On appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court, I successfully argued that a court reporter and court employee's misfiling of necessary record documents could not be held against a party, where the party had no opportunity to correct the error.

I have also served as the supervising attorney for dozens of pro bono matters, the most significant of which is Tanner v. Yukins, 867 F.3d 661 (6th Cir. 2017). The Sixth Circuit appointed me to represent Ms. Tanner, a Michigan inmate serving a life sentence for murder. When Tanner's pro se habeas petition was denied, I lead a team of Jones Day lawyers in briefing her appeal to the Sixth Circuit. Following my departure from Jones Day to join the Department of Justice, the case was successfully argued by my former colleagues, with a unanimous Sixth Circuit panel holding that the Michigan Supreme Court improperly applied federal law in affirming Tanner's conviction despite an absence of evidence sufficient to allow a rational jury to convict Tanner of murder. The court granted unconditional habeas relief, freeing Tanner following 17 years of imprisonment.

As a more junior attorney, I appeared as co-counsel in Becker v. Montgomery, 532 U.S. 757 (2001), and State of Ohio v. Fox, No. 92-2019 (Ohio Sup. Ct). In Becker, I supported briefing efforts in a successful challenge to an appellate decision dismissing Ohio prison inmate Becker's pro se appeal on the grounds that he had typed, rather than signed, his name on his otherwise-timely notice of appeal. A unanimous Supreme Court held that a party's failure to sign a notice of appeal does not require the court of appeals to dismiss the appeal, concluding that here the Sixth Circuit should have accepted a corrected notice of appeal from Becker as perfecting his appeal. In Fox, I supported litigation before the Ohio Parole Board and in the Ohio Supreme Court challenging a death sentence imposed upon our client, Mr. Fox. On behalf of Fox, we sought relief based upon an alleged failure to consider all mitigating evidence during the sentencing phase and numerous errors in both the guilt and sentencing phases of trial. We failed in our efforts on behalf of Fox, and he was executed by the State of Ohio on February 12, 2003.

I have also provided pro bono services outside of court, including my participation in a week-long training program for Kenyan lawyers in Nairobi sponsored by Lawyers Without Borders. Working with judges and lawyers from the United States and the United Kingdom, I mentored Kenyan lawyers on trial practice and procedure in the context of mock trials involving application of domestic violence laws that had been recently enacted in Kenya.

26. Selection Process:

a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

In September 2017, an attorney from the White House Counsel's Office asked me to provide a résumé if I wished to be considered for a vacancy on the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. I provided a résumé, and a member of the White House Counsel's Office later contacted me to arrange an interview. On September 27, 2017, I interviewed with attorneys from the White House Counsel's Office and the Office of Legal Policy at the Department of Justice. Since that time, I have been in contact with officials from the White House Counsel's Office. On November 8, 2017, I interviewed with Senator Sherrod Brown and three of his staff members. On November 15, 2017, I interviewed with Senator Rob Portman and one of his staff members. On June 7, 2018, the White House announced that the President intended to nominate me, and on June 18, 2018, the President submitted my nomination to the Senate.

There is no judicial selection commission in Ohio for circuit judges.

b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
