the first time in the history of the world, the people of the United States have been called upon to make a choice between two opposite ways of life, between two different philosophies, one of which emphasizes freedom and the other of which emphasizes slavery.

The people of the United States have made their choice. They have said in effect: We will not submit to slavery. We will not submit to the denial of our rights as men. We will not submit to the denial of our right to self-government. We will not submit to the denial of our right to equality before the law.

We have made our choice. We have chosen to stand by our principles. We have chosen to stand by our friends. We have chosen to stand by our God.
