Charles:

Julian called & I told about this - he said to ask you to check with BWE &
then go ahead & write up what he wants. OK?

Dear Sir:

Formal consultation procedures for threatened and endangered species are in process of completion at Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. Biological opinions rendered under Public Law 93-205, the Endangered Species Act of 1973, as amended, are being implemented for the protection of threatened and endangered species.

Implementation of these biological opinions should be reflected in the Cooperative Plan which is enclosed and is forwarded for your review. Mr. Randy Wilson, Wildlife Biologist, North Carolina Wildlife Resources Biologist in District Two, and Mr. Don Harke, State Supervisor, U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, have recently reviewed the enclosed updated Cooperative Plan.

If the plan meets with your approval, please sign and return to the following address:

Director, Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs
Base Maintenance Department
Marine Corps Base
Camp Lejeune, NC 28542

Your office will be provided an official copy upon receipt of all required signatures.

Sincerely,

F. H. Mount
