MEMORANDUM FOR:

All Field Office Directors

All Special Agents in Charge

All Chief Counsel

FROM:

John Morton

Director /

SUBJECT:

Civil Immigration Enforcement: Guidance on the Use of Detainers

in the Federal, State, Local, and Tribal Criminal Justice Systems

Purpose

This memorandum provides guidance on the use of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) detainers in the federal, state, local, and tribal criminal justice systems. This guidance applies to all uses of ICE detainers regardless of whether the contemplated use arises out of the Criminal Alien Program, Secure Communities, a 287(g) agreement, or any other ICE enforcement effort. This guidance does not govern the use of detainers by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP). This guidance replaces Sections 4.2 and 4.5 of the August 2010 Interim Guidance on Detainers (Policy Number 10074.1) and otherwise supplements the remaining sections of that same guidance.

Background

In the memorandum entitled Civil Immigration Enforcement: Priorities for the Apprehension, Detention, and Removal of Aliens, issued in June 2010, ICE set forth clear priorities that guide its civil immigration enforcement. These priorities ensure that ICE's finite enforcement resources are dedicated, to the greatest extent possible, to individuals whose removal promotes public safety, national security, border security, and the integrity of the immigration system.

As ICE's implementation of these priorities continues, it is of critical importance that ICE remain focused on ensuring that the priorities are uniformly, transparently, and effectively pursued. To that end, ICE issues the following guidance governing the use of detainers in the nation's criminal justice system at the federal, state, local, and tribal levels. This guidance will ensure that the agency's use of detainers in the criminal justice system uniformly applies the principles set forth in the June 2010 memorandum and is consistent with the agency's enforcement priorities.

National Detainer Guidance

Consistent with ICE's civil enforcement priorities and absent extraordinary circumstances, ICE agents and officers should issue a detainer in the federal, state, local, or tribal criminal justice systems against an individual only where (1) they have reason to believe the individual is an alien subject to removal from the United States and (2) one or more of the following conditions apply:

- the individual has a prior felony conviction or has been charged with a felony offense;
- the individual has three or more prior misdemeanor convictions;<sup>2</sup>
- the individual has a prior misdemeanor conviction or has been charged with a misdemeanor offense if the misdemeanor conviction or pending charge involves
  - o violence, threats, or assault;
  - o sexual abuse or exploitation;
  - o driving under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance;
  - o unlawful flight from the scene of an accident;
  - o unlawful possession or use of a firearm or other deadly weapon;
  - o the distribution or trafficking of a controlled substance; or
  - o other significant threat to public safety;<sup>3</sup>
- the individual has been convicted of illegal entry pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1325;
- the individual has illegally re-entered the country after a previous removal or return;
- the individual has an outstanding order of removal;
- the individual has been found by an immigration officer or an immigration judge to have knowingly committed immigration fraud; or
- the individual otherwise poses a significant risk to national security, border security, or public safety.<sup>4</sup>

&lt;sup>2</sup> Given limited enforcement resources, three or more convictions for minor traffic misdemeanors or other relatively minor misdemeanors alone should not trigger a detainer unless the convictions reflect a clear and continuing danger to others or disregard for the law.

Revised Detainer Form

To ensure consistent application of this guidance, ICE will revise the DHS detainer form, Form I-247. The revised detainer form, which should be used in all cases once it is issued, will specifically list the grounds above and require the issuing officer or agent to identify those that apply so that the receiving agency and alien will know the specific basis for the detainer. The changes to the form will make it easy for officers and agents to document the immigration enforcement priorities and prosecutorial discretion analysis they have completed leading to the issuance of the detainer.

Prosecutorial Discretion

This guidance identifies those removable aliens in the federal, state, local, and tribal criminal justice systems for whom a detainer may be considered. It does not require a detainer in each case, and all ICE officers, agents, and attorneys should continue to evaluate the merits of each case based on the June 2011 memorandum entitled Exercising Prosecutorial Discretion Consistent with the Civil Immigration Enforcement Priorities of the Agency for the Apprehension, Detention, and Removal of Aliens and other applicable agency policies.

Six-Month Review

ICE Field Office Directors, Chief Counsel, and Special Agents in Charge should closely evaluate the implementation and effect of this guidance in their respective jurisdictions for a period of six months from the date of this memorandum. Based on the results of this evaluation, ICE will consider whether modifications, if any, are needed.

NOTICE TO THE DETAINEE

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has placed an immigration detainer on you. An immigration detainer is a notice from DHS informing law enforcement agencies that DHS intends to assume custody of you after you otherwise would be released from custody. DHS has requested that the law enforcement agency which is currently detaining you maintain custody of you for a period not to exceed 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) beyond the time when you would have been released by the state or local law enforcement authorities based on your criminal charges or convictions. If DHS does not take you into custody during that additional 48 hour period, not counting weekends or holidays, you should contact your custodian (the law enforcement agency or other entity that is holding you now) to inquire about your release from state or local custody. If you have a complaint regarding this detainer or related to violations of civil rights or civil liberties connected to DHS activities, please contact the ICE Joint Intake Center at 1-877-2INTAKE (877-246-8253). If you believe you are a United States citizen or the victim of a crime, please advise DHS by calling the ICE Law Enforcement Support Center toll free at (855) 448-6903.

Report: Beware of Unlicensed Drivers

WASHINGTON, July 13

One in every five fatal car crashes in the United States each year involves a driver who does not have a valid license or whose license status is a mystery to law enforcement, according to a study released Wednesday.

The report, "Unlicensed to Kill," sponsored by the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety, said that 8,400 people die on average each year in crashes with unlicensed drivers. It also found that 28 percent of the lawbreaking drivers had received three or more license suspensions or revocations in the three years before their fatal collision.

"It's like a revolving door. These people are being suspended and suspended again, and still, they're driving," said researcher Lindsay I. Griffin of the Texas Transportation Institute at Texas A&M University.

The researchers did not know the total number of unlicensed drivers on U.S. roads today, but said they believe those drivers are involved in an inordinate number of fatal crashes.

Griffin and colleagues studied five years of data from the Department of Transportation's Fatality Analysis Reporting System, 1993 through 1997. They studied 278,078 drivers involved in 183,749 fatal crashes.

Among the drivers, 13.8 percent, or 38,374, had a license that was suspended, revoked, expired, canceled or denied; had no license at all; or, in some cases, were a mystery because they were hit-and-run drivers, or law enforcement officers could not determine their license status for other reasons.

Among the crashes, 20 percent, or 36,750, involved such a driver.

The researchers found some common characteristics among illegal drivers in fatal crashes:

- One-third were younger than 20.
- They were more likely to be male.
- They were more likely to drive during late night or early morning hours.

Among those with a suspended license, they were about three times more likely to be drunk in the opinion of the investigating officer than properly licensed drivers. Those who had a revoked license were about four times more likely to be drunk.

— They were more than five times as likely to be hit-and-run drivers than legal drivers, in cases where the drivers were identified.

"These are not people who just managed to slip up one time and now they're suspended. They seem to be more of a chronically aberrant group," Griffin said.

Unlicensed drivers pose a particular problem in the West, the researchers found, but the study could not explain the geographic disparity. In New Mexico, nearly a quarter of all fatal accidents involved illegal drivers, making it the state with the highest percentage.

Other high-risk jurisdictions were the District of Columbia, Arizona, California and Hawaii. Maine had the lowest incidence of deadly crashes involving illegal drivers, 6.4 percent.

Lt. Patrick Burke, traffic coordinator for the D.C. police department, said mild penalties are partly to blame.

"If I were to, let's say, arrest a 17-year-old this afternoon who doesn't have a driver's permit, never had a driver's permit, that 17-year-old could pay $75 at the local police station and be on the street in a car an hour later," he said.

The researchers said a California policy of impounding the vehicles of unlicensed drivers and technology being developed, such as "smart cards" that would prevent an illegal driver from taking the wheel, shows promise in preventing fatalities.
