I have never served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

- b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

After graduation from law school, I worked as the Assistant Solicitor General for the State of Alabama. In that role, I represented the State of Alabama in significant civil and criminal cases in trial and appellate courts. I also provided litigation advice and support to the Attorney General of Alabama. I worked on a wide range of issues involving constitutional law and criminal law.

I then clerked from 2013 to 2014 for now-Chief Judge William H. Pryor Jr. on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. In that role, I drafted bench memoranda, helped prepare for oral argument, and assisted in the preparation of draft opinions.

After my clerkship, I practiced at Maynard Cooper & Gale P.C. (now Maynard Nexsen P.C.), where my practice focused on appellate work and securities litigation, including FINRA arbitrations.

As a law clerk to Justice Clarence Thomas on the U.S. Supreme Court from 2016 to 2017, I drafted bench memoranda, helped prepare for oral argument, and assisted in the preparation of draft opinions.

Since joining Kirkland in 2017, my practice has focused on complex civil litigation at the trial and appellate levels. I have tried several cases to verdict, in both jury and bench trials and in both state and federal court. I also have been involved in all pre-trial stages, including motion practice, fact development, and discovery.

A substantial portion of my practice also involves brief writing at the trial and appellate level. I have filed appellate briefs in every federal court of appeals except one, and I have argued in multiple federal courts of appeals as well as in the Supreme Court of the United States. I have represented clients at all levels of the federal court system and in state trial and appellate courts on a variety of subject matters.

I also advise clients on legal strategy in anticipation of and during litigation as well as advise as part of due diligence for transactions.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

In 2012 and 2013, while the Assistant Solicitor General of Alabama, I represented the State of Alabama in significant civil and criminal cases.

In private practice, I have maintained a general litigation practice representing business organizations, associations, and individuals in complex trial and appellate litigation covering a wide variety of subject matters. My private practice has been primarily civil litigation.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

Most of my practice (approximately 95%) involves litigation. I appear in court occasionally to frequently, with greater frequency in the past five years.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1.	federal courts:	75%
2.	state courts of record:	20%

4.	administrative agencies:	5%

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1.	civil proceedings:	95%
2.	criminal proceedings:	5%

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I have tried seven cases to verdict, two of which I first-chaired and the others of which I served as associate counsel. I have litigated dozens of cases to final judgment through dispositive motions or appeals.

- i. What percentage of these trials were:

1.	jury:	70%
----	-------	-----

2. non-jury: 30%

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have served as counsel of record for either a party or an amicus curiae in the following cases in the Supreme Court:

Bowe v. United States, 146 S. Ct. 447 (2026) (No. 24–5438). The United States Supreme Court appointed me as amicus curiae to defend the ruling by the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. 1. Bowe v. United States, No. 24-5438, 607 U.S. ___ (decided Jan. 9, 2026) (Representation: 2025 – 2026)

The Supreme Court of the United States appointed me to brief and argue Bowe v. United States after the United States Department of Justice declined to defend the judgment of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. The issue was whether the bar on second or successive applications by state petitioners seeking postconviction relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 applies to federal movants seeking postconviction relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2255. I led the merits briefing as Court-appointed amicus and argued the case on October 14, 2025.

On January 8, 2026, the Supreme Court held that 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(1) does not apply to second or successive motions filed under 28 U.S.C. § 2255(h) by federal prisoners challenging their convictions or sentences.

(Representation: 2021 – present)

I represent state prisoner Ricky Johnson pro bono in section 1983 litigation regarding Georgia Department of Corrections officials' failure to provide treatment for his worsening HCV diagnosis. The United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit appointed a Kirkland associate to represent Mr. Johnson on appeal, and I agreed to supervise. We prevailed on appeal, and I first-chaired the trial on remand in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Georgia. We obtained a verdict in favor of Mr. Johnson at trial. Other aspects of the case are currently on appeal; the state did not appeal the jury verdict.

Area Transit Auth.*, 218 F. Supp. 3d 88 (D.D.C. Dec. 8, 2017) (Hon. Amy Berman Jackson) (Representation: 2017 – 2018)

I represented the Archdiocese of Washington in a challenge under the First Amendment and Religious Freedom Restoration Act related to the Washington Area Metro Authority's decision not to allow the Archdiocese to advertise its "Find the Perfect Gift" campaign on metro buses during Advent. I was part of the Kirkland team that litigated the preliminary injunction in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia and on appeal in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. I was not able to participate in the proceedings in the Supreme Court of the United States because I was under a two-year bar from Supreme Court work following my clerkship. The preliminary injunction was denied, affirmed on appeal, and the Supreme Court denied the petition for a writ of certiorari.

Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

If confirmed, I will recuse in any litigation where I personally participated. b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

I devote on average 200 hours per year to pro bono work in private practice. Some of my more significant pro bono work includes the following:

I first-chaired a federal jury trial for state prisoner Ricky Johnson in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Georgia, in which Mr. Johnson sought damages from Georgia Department of Corrections' officials for failure to treat his worsening Hepatitis C virus. I led a team of associates, who conducted witness examinations and argued key motions. At trial, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of Mr. Johnson. I also have served as counsel to Mr. Johnson in two appeals to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

I served as trial counsel in a federal bench trial in the United States Court of Federal Claims for Ministerio Roca Solida, Inc., a church ministry alleging that the federal government caused flooding on their property within the Ash Meadows National Wildlife Refuge. I conducted direct and cross examinations of fact and expert witnesses and argued motions in limine.

I represented the Archdiocese of Washington in its constitutional and statutory challenge to the refusal of the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority to display the Archdiocese's "Find the Perfect Gift" advertising campaign on the sides of metro buses. I interviewed witnesses, prepared testimony, and drafted briefs filed in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia and the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

I also have served as appellate counsel to numerous pro bono clients. For instance, the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit appointed me to brief and argue an appeal for a criminal defendant challenging his sentence as unlawful under Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296 (2004). And in collaboration with the University of California Davis Immigration Law Clinic, I argued an appeal in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, and then drafted a petition for a writ of certiorari in the Supreme Court of the United States, on behalf of an immigrant seeking to derive citizenship from her legal custodian parent. In addition to my own pro bono appeals, I have supervised numerous associates on pro bono appeals and have assisted colleagues in preparing for oral arguments.

In 2024, 2023, and 2017, the D.C. Courts listed me on the Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll, which recognizes the pro bono contributions of D.C. Bar members. And in 2024, I was a finalist for Pro Bono Lawyer of the Year award by the Texas Lawyer.

26. Selection Process:

a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

I submitted an application for a judicial position to Senators Cornyn and Cruz on November 17, 2025. I was invited to interview with Texas's Federal Judicial Evaluation Committee (FJEC) on January 9, 2026. I then interviewed with Senator Cornyn on February 24, 2026, and with Senator Cruz on February 25, 2026. I interviewed with attorneys from the White House Counsel's Office on February 24, 2026. Since then, I have been in contact with officials from the White House Counsel's Office and the Justice Department's Office of Legal Policy regarding the nomination. On May 12, 2026, the President submitted my nomination to the Senate.

b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.
