Importance: High

The judge is presently issuing a class-wide TRO.

Can folks confirm for us if at the moment any individuals subject to the AEA are being staged for removal, or are presently in the air as part of removal (but not yet having landed and disembarked)?

Good morning everyone. Thanks everyone for being on deck last night for the filings. We really appreciate the assist.

In the meantime, following up on several different emails including the below and merging into one place. Can we please get an update on the status of compliance with the injunction, consistent with the earlier emails and guidance from us below? Specifically, can you confirm the status of the three flights referenced below, and the status of the individuals that are on each of the flights? As a reminder our advice here on injunction compliance was to not deplane anyone from these planes who is subject to an AEA removal, although it was permissible to deplane individuals with Title 8 orders, and otherwise return those individuals to the United States. We need to confirm quickly status so we can update the court if necessary.

Relatedly, to the extent conversations on these issues are occurring at a higher level within your leadership and ours, can you please confirm that?

Many thanks,
Erez

Hi Erez,

Have DOJ and DHS leadership coalesced around a strategy of approaching El Salvador to request the release of Abrego into our custody? Are DOJ and DHS leadership asking the State Department to seek assurances on his safety? We want to make sure that everyone is on board with the same strategy before we advise our clients to take those extraordinary steps. They will certainly ask if there's complete agreement within the relevant agencies backing this approach. Or is the strategy to argue that we can't do anything despite the admitted error because he's in another country's custody?

Subject: RE: [EXTERNAL] RE: Abrego Garcia - AEA Return

Attached is Mr. Cerna's draft declaration on the removal for your review. He and I walked through what happened on the ground. It was administrative oversight.

Regarding the five questions:

1. This guy is a leader of MS-13 – So far I have found “verified member,” which is included. I have not found anything indicating “leader,” but I’ll keep looking.
2. His removal was due to a good faith administrative error – This is included at para. 16.
3. We do not believe he is in immediate danger – This gets into country conditions and seems more appropriate for State.
4. We are engaged in multiagency discussions – Robert is aware that discussions are taking place, but since he’s not involved, I don’t know that we should get into who is in them. Perhaps leave this to State as well.

5. Any judicial intrusion is likely to make any subsequent diplomatic discussions with El Sal less successful. – This is well outside his area of expertise and should be left to State.

Please let me know if you have any questions. He's available all day and know that he will have to sign sometime between 2 and 4.

Focusing on Abrego:

There are multiple potential litigation consequences of failing to resolve this without court intervention. First, as you note, we may get an order to return him to the United States. I cannot think of any basis for us to take the position that we can ignore such an order, nor would we at OIL support such a position. Second, we risk making very bad law here that jeopardizes many far more important initiatives of the current administration over one person. Specifically, we risk creating precedent for the notion that El Sal is a contractor for DHS on detention issues, and that courts in the US therefore have habeas jurisdiction to order peoples returns or take other measures. That sort of ruling, far-fetched just two weeks ago, is no longer beyond the realm of possibility. We would certainly recommend appealing such orders depending how they're phrased, but once that domino falls, we'll see dozens of habeas cases across the country in unfavorable jurisdictions advancing this habeas argument. Third, I have not yet heard an explanation as to how we can reopen his order and look for a new country of removal while he is there. Maybe there is a path for that, but then what would be the basis for keeping him at CECOT if no final order of removal?

Subject: RE: [EXTERNAL] RE: Abrego Garcia - AEA Return

We would have to check whether we could say #5 in good faith. We can ask, but first I'd like DOJ to explain the potential consequences in the litigation if we do not return Abrego to the United States. The judge could find that we violated the IJ's withholding order, and then what? He orders us to return Abrego? Do we have arguments for why such an order would not need to be complied with? Or we go with Joe's idea to reopen his withholding claim on the ground that circumstances have changed? Our leadership is going to want to know what the legal consequences are one way or the other so they can weigh the pros and cons of asking El Salvador.

On a separate note: we saw a press release this morning from our Secretary that 17 further individuals were transferred to CECOT, a mix of TdA and MS13. On what ground were the TdAs transferred? If they were Venezuelans, how did we get around the Massachusetts district court's TRO? And if not under Title 8, and not under Title 50 because of Judge Boasberg's TRO, then under what basis were they removed?

I just spoke with S1. I received a verbal waiver such that State can disclose to ElSal for the purposes of obtaining assurances that they will segregate him from any Barrio 18 member. Also, yeah, if the guy voluntarily made this public in a court filing then I'm not sure how it's still confidential. Regardless, we have a waiver.

Yes, our embassy has reported that they do.

On the basis for disclosing, would Abrego Garcia's inclusion of this material in the written public court filing not count as "the written consent of the applicant" for 8 CFR 208.6(a) purposes? And if not, is there a way to disclosure that is "at the discretion of the Secretary" (presumably a confidentiality waiver by S1 as referenced earlier in this thread)?

In addition to any more info you have on the basis for ICE's determination about his MS-13 affiliation, reminder that we also need clearance on some legal theory for the Ambassador to say something about how and why Abrego has a credible fear of violence from Barrio 18 members, in order to explain why the prison should segregate or otherwise protect him.

Thanks. It gives a lot of info on that incident being pulled over in Tennessee that led to no citation, and very little on why he's believed to be a member of MS-13:

Per the Prince Georges County Police Gang Unit, ABREGO-Garcia was validated as a member of the Mara Salvatrucha (MS13) Gang. Subject was identified as a member of the Mara Salvatrucha MS-13, "Chequeo" from the Western Clique a transnational criminal street gang. This information was provided by tested source who has provided truthful accurate information in the past. See Prince Georges County Police Department (Gang Sheet).

Does HSI have that Gang Sheet or other information that goes to why the source thought he was MS-13?

I should clarify: both of those pieces of info will be important to have as soon as you can get them: (1) a legal basis on which to disclose the basis for Abrego's fear; and (2) the source document describing in more detail the basis for his MS-13 designation. Thanks.

can we rely on 208.6(e)(2) to tell the granted withholding? That's the other piece

Can DHS tell us whether 208.6(e)(2) would provide an exception in these circumstances? The theory being that we'd be disclosing the info in order to help protect him from being victimized by other inmates.

Also, [REDACTED], any luck yet finding more details

The Embassy will likely be asked for more him to be a member.

Actually, under 8 CFR 208.6, we cannot

Hi [REDACTED],

Thanks for the email. I think what we want to ask for is an assurance that El Sal will protect him from Barrio 18 while in their custody. There shouldn't be an issue talking about his withholding of removal.

Regarding his status as a member of MS-13, I think [REDACTED] is running down that info. I think the question of whether he was one of the MS-13 members El Sal expressly asked for is a different question, but I could be misunderstanding.

Subject: RE: Abrego Garcia - AEA Return

I agree he should be brought back to the US if El Sal will release him back to us, and we should take steps to help ensure his safety in the meantime. Our Ambassador will need to be able to explain to the Gov't of El Sal why he's asking about Abrego's conditions and MS-13 status. Is it OK to share with the Gov't of El Sal the background here, including that he's subject to withholding of removal to El Sal based on fear of persecution by Barrio 18? I assume so given that it's all in the plaintiff's public filing -- but [REDACTED] or Joe, we wanted to make sure you don't see some problem with that.

Ok, if we can get some evidence that El Sal commits to protecting him from the other gang (State, is that possible?), let's get that process going of reversing this withholding ruling. We should also consider informing the court once we have that evidence in hand about his safety, if we can get it.

I'm with Erez, we want to make sure everyone knows this gentleman is alright if it takes us time to get el sal to send him back.

All-

Although it may take time – weeks or months – and is not a sure thing, it would be worthwhile for OPLA to pursue termination of the alien’s grant of statutory withholding of removal simultaneously with the federal litigation and working to return him to the United States.

There is no express statutory termination process for withholding of removal. Grounds for termination set forth at 8 C.F.R. § 1208.24(b) include:

- Fundamental change in circumstances such that life or freedom would no longer be threatened on account of protected ground;
- Fraud in initial application; and
- Committing an act that would have barred withholding had it occurred prior to grant.

IJs and the BIA may reopen removal proceedings for the purpose of terminating withholding of removal, with the burden on DHS to establish by a preponderance of the evidence the grounds for terminating. 8 C.F.R. § 1208.24(f). The DHS motion to reopen removal proceedings must comply with the motion to reopen requirements, namely presenting material and previously unavailable evidence.

We may be able to meet that standard with evidence from the State Department that the Government of El Salvador would be able and willing to protect him. Perhaps an agreement from the Government of El Salvador to keep him safe?

Also, I am trying to get information on why ICE believes he is MS-13.

Also, if el sal agrees to protect him from Barrios 18, and we can supplement record with that evidence, that can also help alleviate urgency in resolving this as a practical matter. Not sure why the court wouldn't agree.

This may be a State Q. Are there any Barrios

if we can get that info and it is no, maybe we can tell the court we are working this but that the danger as a practical matter is low while we're working a solution.

Joseph-

His claim is that father was a police officer, and he said that he and his family were targeted by the Salvadoran gang Barrios 18. He was granted statutory withholding. He was time barred for asylum, and the IJ found that there were no grounds for exception. The IJ found, however, that he established past persecution based on a protected ground, and the presumption of a well- founded fear of future persecution. DHS was not able to rebut these findings or show changed circumstances, so he was granted withholding under the Act. ERO's system shows MS-13 affiliation.

Of course, please let me know if you need additional information.

Hi [REDACTED],

Before we explore this with clients and the Embassy, is high-level leadership at DHS and DOJ amenable to a solution whereby Bukele releases him from CECOT and he is flown back to the United States? I suspect the Embassy is going to want to know whether this is actually a feasible option before they start having conversations with Salvadoran authorities.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] No one at State, as far as I can tell, knows the answer to this question and it seems critical for determining whether Bukele would entertain a request to release Abrego Garcia.

Best,

Subject: Abrego Garcia - AEA Return

Hi, Connecting the DHS and State teams to discuss our return options for this individual. I am attaching the full set of the briefing here to be sure everyone has all relevant docs.

State friends, I think the first request on the table is for your assessment of the feasibility of asking for Abrego Garcia to be returned to our custody. Could you give us an initial assessment today and then a sense of the timeline for a more vetted response (if not today)?

Re litigation-driven timing, we need to have a sense of where we think this is going by tomorrow afternoon so we can confer with opposing counsel, and we will need to be able to put our position in a brief on Monday.

DHS,

[REDACTED]

Additionally, we have received some inquiries from USAOs regarding potential lawsuits filed by aliens covered by the DVD nationwide TRO. We have informed them of the nationwide TRO, but want to again confirm whether written notice of the terms of that injunction have been circulated to ICE OPLA and ERO offices, in addition to the guidance signed by DHS on third country removals on Sunday.

Thanks,

Subject: DVD Injunction Plaintiff Inquiries

This email is from an external US Government agency.

DHS,

Following up on our prior email with a smaller group.

We have received the below two emails from Plaintiffs' counsel concerning first media reports and subsequently what they say is the removal of one of the named plaintiffs in the GTMO detention litigation.

Can you please let me know if you have any responses to their inquiries? We expect Plaintiffs to file a motion in the next day or so if we do not respond and we expect that DHS will be ordered to respond to some version of these inquiries.

Thank you,

[REDACTED]

Good afternoon [REDACTED],

I am writing to follow up regarding our inquiry as we have received information that at least one of the 17 individuals referred to by Secretary Rubio had a final order and was not a Salvadoran national.

Can you please advise whether Defendants acknowledge his removal was in violation of the district court? If Defendants believe his removal did not violate the TRO, can you please advise if any of the information we have communicated in this email regarding [REDACTED] is not correct or any other basis for asserting this does not violate the TRO?

In addition, we continue to wait for your responses regarding the other 16 individuals as well as confirmation that no one is currently being removed pursuant to the March 30, 2025 Guidance submitted by Defendants in this case.

Thank you for your prompt attention in this important matter. We look forward to following up with you and discussing next steps.

[REDACTED]

Counsel,

A few hours ago, Secretary of State Rubio reposted a tweet from Nayib Bukele indicating that 17 individuals were transferred from U.S. custody to El Salvador. See <https://x.com/SecRubio>. This followed a post from Secretary Rubio to similar effect on the same platform (<https://x.com/SecRubio/status/1906684174020284784>). The State Department has also posted an announcement on its website titled “More Foreign Gang Terrorists Deported Out of America” (see <https://www.state.gov/more-foreign-gang-terrorists-deported-out-of-america/>).

Were all of these 17 people Salvadoran nationals, and if not, can you please provide more information, specifically whether any of them had final removal orders?

In addition, can you confirm that no one is currently being removed pursuant to the March 30, 2025 Guidance?

If any non-Salvadorans among the 17 individuals described in Secretary Rubio’s statements had final removal orders, or if noncitizens are being subjected to removal under the Guidance, that would violate the TRO, and we immediately request a meet and confer.

We look forward to hearing back from you soon.

I believe I told our host we would not violate a court order. I think there is definitely a through line from that meeting to where we are today.
