b. Describe the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

I am currently a Partner at Hogan & Hartson LLP in Washington, DC, where I head the firm's Internet practice group. This practice provides full service assistance to companies doing business globally, including providing advice on antitrust, privacy, business planning and corporate governance, intellectual property, and general liability issues.

Prior to joining Hogan & Hartson LLP, I served as a Federal Trade Commissioner from 1994 to 1997. I was highly involved in the government's effort to examine privacy issues in the information age, resulting in congressional and agency hearings, proposed industry standards, and increased government enforcement of laws protecting privacy.

Prior to becoming a Federal Trade Commissioner, I was an Assistant to the President and Secretary to the Cabinet. I was the primary point of contact for the 20-member Cabinet. I was responsible for the overall coordination of several major issues and initiatives between the White House and various agencies.

Before joining the Clinton Administration, I practiced law with Hogan & Hartson LLP from 1991-1993. In addition, I served as Chief Counsel to the Clinton/Gore Campaign (1991), General Counsel to the 1992 Presidential Inaugural Committee, and General Counsel to the Democratic National Committee from 1989 to 1992.

Prior to this, I was an attorney at Pierson, Semmes & Finley in Washington, DC from 1986-1989. I was also a Law Clerk at the following law firms in Washington, DC: Wender, Murase & White (1985), Fulbright & Jaworski (1985), Clifford & Warnke (1985), and Surrey & Morse (1984-1985)

(Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

My practice is focused on Antitrust and Consumer Protection. I regularly counsel clients on compliance with all relevant laws. I also represent companies in merger investigations conducted by the Department of Justice, Federal Trade Commission, and State Attorneys General. In addition, I represent companies under investigation for compliance with consumer protection laws. These engagements generally involve representing companies when the FTC or State Attorneys General investigate various practices of my clients. To the best of my knowledge, all matters where I have represented a company that is a subject of either an antitrust or consumer protection investigation have concluded in no action or a settlement; none has gone to litigation. In addition, I have represented companies who may be witnesses in litigated matters.

From 2001-2006, I was a registered lobbyist for the Online Privacy Alliance. In that capacity, I appeared several times as a witness at various Congressional hearings.

- 18. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. I have not taught any courses.

Please describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

1. Hogan & Hartson LLP will pay me a lump sum upon my departure of approximately $877,546. That amount represents a return of my capital, payment of future pension discounted to present value, and the quarterly earnings I will have accrued prior to my departure, if confirmed.

2. See Appendix 1.

20. Outside Commitments During Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service in the position to which you have been nominated? If so, explain.

I do not have any outside plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment.

21. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, patents, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (If you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here.)

See Appendix 1.

22. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See Appendix 1.

23. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

a. Identify any affiliations, pending litigation, financial arrangements, or other factors that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest during your initial service in the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

In connection with the nomination process, I have consulted with the Office of Government Ethics and the Department of Justice's designated agency ethics official to identify potential conflicts of interest. Any potential conflicts of interest will be resolved in accordance with the terms of an ethics agreement that I have entered into with the Department's designated agency ethics official.

b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

I will follow all relevant rules concerning conflicts of interests and, if confirmed, will be guided by the determinations of ethics professionals at the Department of Justice. With respect to matters for which I know conflicts exist, I would inform relevant personnel that I am recused from such matters. As future matters arise, if I become aware that a potential conflict exists, I would consult with DOJ ethics professionals to determine the appropriate action and will be guided by their determinations.

24. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each. If you are not an attorney, please use this opportunity to report significant charitable and volunteer work you may have done.

I have devoted in excess of 40 hours of legal services annually to the various pro bono projects offered by my employer, Hogan & Hartson LLP. I spent a large portion of this time working with the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization, to protect and promote voter rights.
