ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

President Bush's executive order implementing the Presidential Records Act establishes clear and sensible procedures to facilitate the expeditious release of the records of former Presidents. The order also complies, as it must, with the Supreme Court's landmark 1977 decision in which the Court ruled, in an opinion by Justice Brennan, that former Presidents retain the constitutional right to review their records and, if they choose, to assert constitutional privileges (subject to court review) to prevent release of certain sensitive, privileged records.

Some have argued that most or all records of a former President should be released after some defined certain period of time. In fact, President Bush's order will ensure, consistent with the Act, that a large category of Presidential records are released no later than 12 years after a Presidency. As to sensitive Presidential records that are within the scope of a constitutional privilege, President Bush's order establishes procedures in accord with the Supreme Court's ruling that former Presidents retain the constitutional right to assert privileges over such records. Although some would like to ignore that Supreme Court ruling, neither President Bush nor Congress has the power or authority to do so. In the end, it is clear that most criticism of President Bush's order is, in reality, misdirected criticism of the Supreme Court decision guaranteeing the rights of former Presidents.

Importantly, President Bush's order does not expand the scope of any privilege available to the former President, nor does the order in any way encourage former Presidents to assert privileges. On the contrary, the order states that it does not purport to indicate "whether and under what circumstances a former President should assert or waive any privilege."

Some have expressed fear that former Presidents will abuse the rights guaranteed to them by the Supreme Court. But history proves that fear largely unfounded. Before the Presidential Records Act took effect in 1981, former Presidents were under no legal obligation to disclose any records, yet most former Presidents released the vast majority of their records. Those who visit the Kennedy Library or the Ford Library or the Carter Library, for example, know the rich and valuable array of historical materials that are available. President Bush anticipates that this tradition will continue. At a minimum, there is no logical basis for presuming that former Presidents subject to the Presidential Records Act will exercise their constitutional and statutory authority to seek withholding of privileged records more aggressively than earlier Presidents -- from President Washington to President Carter -- exercised their plenary and far broader authority to withhold all records.

HEADLINE: Taliban determined to fight on during Ramadan: report
DATELINE: DOHA, Nov 3

BODY:
Afghanistan's ruling Taliban militia is determined to fight on during the Muslim fasting month of Ramadan, an official close to the Islamist militia's supreme leader Mullah Mohammad Omar told Qatar's Al-Jazeera TV Saturday.

"We see this war as a jihad (holy war). We have not asked for a halt to the fighting -- this is up to the United States," said Mullah Omar's chief of staff, Mohammad Taieb al-Agha. "Jihad is a religious duty, and it does not violate (the tenets of) Ramadan," which starts on November 17.

"Protecting Sheikh Osama bin Laden is a religious duty. The Afghan people have expressed readiness to sacrifice themselves to defend bin Laden. They will not capitulate to the United States or to any other infidel force," Agha added.

On Friday, US President George W. Bush said the United States "won't rest" the war on terrorism during Ramadan, but left day-to-day decisions about strikes on Afghanistan throughout the Muslim holy month to the military.

"The enemy won't rest during Ramadan and neither will we. We're going to pursue this war until we achieve our objectives," he said.

"As to the specific times and dates, we'll let the military speak to that.
They're in charge of this operation. This is not a political campaign, this is a war," he said.

Asked to clarify the president's remarks, an administration official who requested anonymity told AFP that on "how to take into account sensitivities with regard to Ramadan, or specific days during Ramadan, there hasn't yet been a decision."

Ramadan is the ninth month in Islam's lunar calendar, and Muslims believe that it was during Ramadan that God first revealed the Koran to the prophet Mohammad.

It is a special time of worship, Koran reading, charitable acts and individual reflection and purification. In particular,
Muslims are obliged to shun eating, drinking, smoking and sex each day from dawn to dusk.

Several Muslim countries, notably Indonesia and Pakistan -- a crucial ally of the US in the campaign against Afghanistan -- have called for a halt to the bombing during Ramadan.

Bush ordered the attacks October 7 after the Taliban refused to hand over bin Laden, the Islamist militant he blames for September 11 terror strikes on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

^Saudi minister warns teachers against extremism
DUBAI, Nov 8 (Reuters) - Saudi Arabia's minister of Islamic affairs has cautioned Saudi school teachers against extremism and its effect on youth views of dissident Osama bin Laden, a newspaper reported on Thursday .
``During this crisis you might have heard some teachers
praising
Osama bin Laden and this is a faulty understanding of Islam,'' the daily
Al Riyadh newspaper quoted Sheikh Saleh al-Sheikh as saying.
``Or they reflect the current situation as if it were an aggression by crusaders against Islam and Muslims. This of course means that there is a zealotry...which does not serve our youth now,'' Sheikh told reporters.
Saudi-born bin Laden, Washington's prime suspect in the September
11 attacks on the United States, and other radical Islamists have denounced
U.S.-led retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan as a new Christian crusade against Islam.
Sheikh called for more attention to be given to the training
of teachers, especially those in the field of Islamic studies.
Saudi Arabia, the birthplace of Islam, has come under fire in Western media over religious extremism in the kingdom after Washington named several Saudis among the suspected hijackers who carried out the attacks on U.S. landmarks.
Bin Laden, now based in Afghanistan, was stripped of his Saudi citizenship in 1994 for his activities against the royal family.

^Saudi minister warns teachers against extremism
DUBAI, Nov 8 (Reuters) - Saudi Arabia's minister of Islamic affairs has cautioned Saudi school teachers against extremism and its effect on youth views of dissident Osama bin Laden, a newspaper reported on Thursday .
``During this crisis you might have heard some teachers
praising
Osama bin Laden and this is a faulty understanding of Islam,'' the daily
Al Riyadh newspaper quoted Sheikh Saleh al-Sheikh as saying.
``Or they reflect the current situation as if it were an aggression by crusaders against Islam and Muslims. This of course means that there is a zealotry...which does not serve our youth now,'' Sheikh told reporters.
Saudi-born bin Laden, Washington's prime suspect in the September
11 attacks on the United States, and other radical Islamists have denounced
U.S.-led retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan as a new Christian crusade
against Islam.
Sheikh called for more attention to be given to the training
of teachers, especially those in the field of Islamic studies.
Saudi Arabia, the birthplace of Islam, has come under fire
in Western media over religious extremism in the kingdom after Washington named several Saudis among the suspected hijackers who carried out the attacks on U.S. landmarks.
Bin Laden, now based in Afghanistan, was stripped of his Saudi citizenship in 1994 for his activities against the royal family.

^Saudi minister warns teachers against extremism
DUBAI, Nov 8 (Reuters) - Saudi Arabia's minister of Islamic affairs has cautioned Saudi school teachers against extremism and its effect on youth views of dissident Osama bin Laden, a newspaper reported on Thursday .
``During this crisis you might have heard some teachers praising Osama bin Laden and this is a faulty understanding of Islam,'' the daily Al Riyadh newspaper quoted Sheikh Saleh al-Sheikh as saying.
``Or they reflect the current situation as if it were an aggression by crusaders against Islam and Muslims. This of course means that there is a zealotry...which does not serve our youth now,'' Sheikh told reporters.
Saudi-born bin Laden, Washington's prime suspect in the September 11 attacks on the United States, and other radical Islamists have denounced U.S.-led retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan as a new Christian crusade against Islam.
Sheikh called for more attention to be given to the training of teachers, especially those in the field of Islamic studies.
Saudi Arabia, the birthplace of Islam, has come under fire in Western media over religious extremism in the kingdom after Washington named several Saudis among the suspected hijackers who carried out the attacks on U.S. landmarks.
Bin Laden, now based in Afghanistan, was stripped of his Saudi citizenship in 1994 for his activities against the royal family.

^Saudi minister warns teachers against extremism
DUBAI, Nov 8 (Reuters) - Saudi Arabia's minister of Islamic affairs has cautioned Saudi school teachers against extremism and its effect on youth views of dissident Osama bin Laden, a newspaper reported on Thursday .
``During this crisis you might have heard some teachers praising Osama bin Laden and this is a faulty understanding of Islam,'' the daily Al Riyadh newspaper quoted Sheikh Saleh al-Sheikh as saying.
``Or they reflect the current situation as if it were an aggression by crusaders against Islam and Muslims. This of course means that there is a zealotry...which does not serve our youth now,'' Sheikh told reporters.
Saudi-born bin Laden, Washington's prime suspect in the September 11 attacks on the United States, and other radical Islamists have denounced U.S.-led retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan as a new Christian crusade against Islam.
Sheikh called for more attention to be given to the training of teachers, especially those in the field of Islamic studies.
Saudi Arabia, the birthplace of Islam, has come under fire in Western media over religious extremism in the kingdom after Washington named several Saudis among the suspected hijackers who carried out the attacks on U.S. landmarks.
Bin Laden, now based in Afghanistan, was stripped of his Saudi citizenship in 1994 for his activities against the royal family.

^Saudi minister warns teachers against extremism
DUBAI, Nov 8 (Reuters) - Saudi Arabia's minister of Islamic affairs has cautioned Saudi school teachers against extremism and its effect on youth views of dissident Osama bin Laden, a newspaper reported on Thursday .
``During this crisis you might have heard some teachers praising Osama bin Laden and this is a faulty understanding of Islam,'' the daily Al Riyadh newspaper quoted Sheikh Saleh al-Sheikh as saying.
``Or they reflect the current situation as if it were an aggression by crusaders against Islam and Muslims. This of course means that there is a zealotry...which does not serve our youth now,'' Sheikh told reporters.
Saudi-born bin Laden, Washington's prime suspect in the September 11 attacks on the United States, and other radical Islamists have denounced U.S.-led retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan as a new Christian crusade against Islam.
Sheikh called for more attention to be given to the training of teachers, especially those in the field of Islamic studies.
Saudi Arabia, the birthplace of Islam, has come under fire in Western media over religious extremism in the kingdom after Washington named several Saudis among the suspected hijackers who carried out the attacks on U.S. landmarks.
Bin Laden, now based in Afghanistan, was stripped of his Saudi citizenship in 1994 for his activities against the royal family.

C-ATTACK-SAUDI-EDUCATION
^Saudi minister warns teachers against extremism
DUBAI, Nov 8 (Reuters) - Saudi Arabia's minister of Islamic affairs has cautioned Saudi school teachers against extremism and its effect on youth views of dissident Osama bin Laden, a newspaper reported on Thursday .

``During this crisis you might have heard some teachers praising Osama bin Laden and this is a faulty understanding of Islam,'' the daily Al Riyadh newspaper quoted Sheikh Saleh al-Sheikh as saying.

``Or they reflect the current situation as if it were an aggression by crusaders against Islam and Muslims. This of course means that there is a zealotry...which does not serve our youth now,'' Sheikh told reporters.

Saudi-born bin Laden, Washington's prime suspect in the September 11 attacks on the United States, and other radical Islamists have denounced U.S.-led retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan as a new Christian crusade against Islam.

Sheikh called for more attention to be given to the training of teachers, especially those in the field of Islamic studies.

Saudi Arabia, the birthplace of Islam, has come under fire in Western media over religious extremism in the kingdom after Washington named several Saudis among the suspected hijackers who carried out the attacks on U.S. landmarks.

Bin Laden, now based in Afghanistan, was stripped of his Saudi citizenship in 1994 for his activities against the royal family.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

REV_00318498

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.
President's Approach:	Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.
President's Approach:	Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.
President's Approach:	Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.
President's Approach:	Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.
President's Approach:	Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.
President's Approach:	Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Commerce Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.
President's Approach:	Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.
President's Approach:	Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.
President's Approach:	Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.

President's Approach: Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.

President's Approach: Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.

President's Approach: Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.

ACTION NEEDED NOW TO HELP WORKERS & ECONOMY

Today's Action

- On November 7, the Labor Department announced that America's productivity during the third quarter rose at an annual rate of 2.7% -- the best performance in over a year. Productivity normally slumps during economic slowdowns, so these new productivity figures are a positive sign for the underlying strength and long-term health of our economy.

- Now is the time for decisive action to help the economy return more quickly to its growth potential. President Bush has asked Congress to enact worker relief and economic stimulus legislation to help America's workers and America's economy to recover from the effects of the September 11 attacks.

- Unfortunately, some members of the Senate Finance Committee are directing their efforts to a partisan, spending-focused grab bag that will do little to help unemployed workers and even less to help create jobs through economic growth.

- The President urges the Senate to work together across party lines to pass a responsible package that will provide immediate help to workers who have lost their jobs or who are concerned about their job security. The Senate will miss an opportunity to help America's economic recovery by engaging in dilatory partisan actions that do not bolster the economy or help workers who need assistance now.

The President's Back to Work Relief Package

- ☑ Temporarily extends unemployment benefits by 13 weeks for Americans who lost their jobs as a direct result of the terrorist attacks.
- ☑ Provides $3 billion in special National Emergency Grants that would be available immediately to help displaced workers maintain health coverage, supplement their income and receive job training. For example, funds could be used to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
- ☑ Expedites the ability of states to use $11 billion that is available now, including $3 billion scheduled to revert to the Treasury this year and next, to help low-income workers and their families receive health insurance.
- ☑ Encourages displaced workers to take advantage of more than $6 billion in existing federal programs that provide job search services, including job training and placement.

Why the President's Approach Makes More Sense For Displaced Workers Than The Baucus Bill

Baucus/Democrat Bill: Requires the federal government to create an entirely new federal program – including securing Congressional authorization, developing a formal regulatory process and establishing oversight mechanisms with states – a process that could take 6 months or more.

President's Approach: Delivers immediate health care assistance to workers in need through an additional $3 billion in the National Emergency Grants program at the Department of Labor. The NEG program is an established, effective program that requires no new rulemaking or legislative action by states. Funds could be available to states within a few weeks.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS (202) 456-2777
FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PRESIDENT'S INITIATIVES PLEASE VISIT WWW.WHITEHOUSE.GOV

Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Creates a costly and unprecedented federal mandate on states to expand the unemployment insurance program. The annual cost of this expansion will exceed $10 billion per year, which amounts to a one percentage point increase in the unemployment payroll tax.
President's Approach:	Does not impose new taxes on employers or costly new mandates on states. Provides temporary and complete federal funding to assist states in dealing with extraordinary economic circumstances brought on by the events of September 11.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Imposes large mandatory increases in the share of workers' earnings that are replaced by unemployment insurance and structures benefits in a way that would increase unemployment. Numerous studies have found that very high unemployment benefits lead to significantly higher unemployment rates. The vastly increased duration and amounts of unemployment benefits available under all circumstances would create disincentives to take jobs – raising unemployment rates by 5% to 10% or more.
President's Approach:	Provides reasonable extensions of unemployment benefits and support for health insurance costs to help unemployed workers as they transition to new jobs. For example, the President's plan provides an extension of more than 3 months beyond the current 6-month unemployment benefit limits, and allows states to use NEG funds to pay up to 75% of health care premiums covered by COBRA for up to ten months.
Baucus/Democrat Bill:	Focuses on increased government spending on unemployment benefits with little emphasis on job creation or economic stimulus to help unemployed Americans get back to work.
President's Approach:	Focuses on providing immediate help to unemployed workers during times of need, but strongly emphasizes economic growth incentives to restore consumer and business confidence to help create new jobs and lower unemployment levels.

- President Bush's Back to Work Relief Package and his economic stimulus principles are the right way to help American workers and America's economy to recover from the September 11 attacks.
