- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have not served as a mediator or arbitrator.

- v. Whether you have held any judicial office, including positions as an administrative law judge, on any U.S. federal, state, tribal, or local court and if so, please provide the name of the court, the jurisdiction of that court, whether the position was appointed or elected, and the dates of your service.

I have not held any judicial office.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

Since beginning my legal career in 2014, the general character of my practice has centered on civil litigation and trial work, with a particular emphasis on insurance defense, first-party property and complex coverage disputes in both state and federal courts. My early experience at Acosta Law involved managing a high-volume litigation docket, conducting discovery, drafting dispositive motions, and defending depositions in first-party property matters for major insurance carriers.

In 2017, I joined Cole, Scott & Kissane, P.A., as an associate, where my practice broadened to include representation of multiple insurance carriers in both residential and commercial coverage disputes, bad faith claims, and third-party liability actions. Over time, my practice expanded to include complex coverage litigation and appellate issues. In 2017, I was elevated to Partner, assuming supervisory responsibility for the Fort Lauderdale Property Group. In that capacity, I managed and mentored a team of attorneys, paralegals and staff handling an extremely large volume of active litigation. I conducted numerous depositions, mediations, arbitrations, and trials, and presented continuing education seminars on bad faith litigation, Florida Assignment of Benefits (AOB) reform, and hurricane-related coverage issues for both domestic and London market insurers.

From 2021 to 2022, I served as Senior In-House Counsel at People's Trust Insurance Company, continuing my work in property coverage litigation while advising corporate leadership on risk management, claims strategy, and litigation prevention. This role marked a transition from external litigation advocacy to corporate advisory and in-house strategic litigation management.

In 2022, I became In-House Counsel for Donald J. Trump – Save America PAC, where I represented President Trump in a variety of civil and criminal matters across multiple jurisdictions. My responsibilities included litigation oversight, strategic coordination with outside counsel, and advising on legal issues associated with high-profile litigation.

From January 2025 to September 2025, I served as Senior Associate Staff Secretary and Special Assistant to the President. The Office of the Staff Secretary serves as the central clearinghouse for all documents that reach the President's desk, including executive orders, speeches, memoranda, reports, correspondence, and policy papers. In this capacity, I was responsible for reviewing, coordinating, and ensuring the legal and policy accuracy of materials submitted to the President, while managing interagency communication and maintaining the integrity of the presidential decision-making process. This position required a high degree of discretion, organization, legal evaluation, and judgment, and provided direct exposure to the intersection of law, policy and executive governance.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

From 2014 to 2017, while at Acosta Law and later Cole, Scott & Kissane, P.A., my clients primarily consisted of insurance carriers defending first-party property and general liability claims. I specialized in all aspects of litigation, including discovery, motion practice, trial preparation, and early case resolution.

Between 2017 and 2021, as a Partner at Cole, Scott & Kissane, P.A., my client base expanded to include major domestic and international insurers, including those operating in the London market. My specialization during this time included coverage litigation, Special Investigations Unit (SIU) fraud investigations, bad faith defense, and appellate strategy. I also served as lead counsel successfully arguing numerous dispositive motions, as well as conducting trials that resulted in defense verdicts.

From 2021 to 2022, as Senior In-House Counsel at People's Trust Insurance Company, my sole client was the insurer itself. My specialization included litigation oversight, claims management, and strategic risk mitigation, with an emphasis on litigating specific insurance endorsements, through which I successfully argued numerous summary judgment motions.

From 2022 until Inauguration Day, I served as In-House Counsel for Donald J. Trump – Save America PAC, my principal client has been President Trump. My specialization in this period includes complex civil and criminal litigation management, coordination with outside counsel, and legal strategy involving both public and media-facing matters.

In 2025, while serving as Senior Associate Staff Secretary to the President of the United States, my work focused on executive-level legal and policy review. My responsibilities included ensuring the accuracy, clarity and consistency of all materials presented to the President; coordinating closely with the White House Counsel's Office, the Office of Management and Budget, and other Executive Branch departments and agencies to ensure proper legal and policy vetting; and maintaining orderly documentation of the President's decisions and communications. This position deepened my experience in executive governance, interagency coordination, and the legal review of federal policy actions, while requiring the highest standards of discretion and judgment in facilitating the President's decision-making process.

(1) Donald J. Trump v. United States (“Mar-a-Lago / Classified Documents” matter)

Case No.: 9:23-cr-80101-AMC-1

Court: United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida

Judge: The Honorable Aileen M. Cannon

2023 – 2025

I represented former President Donald J. Trump in connection with the U.S. Department of Justice’s investigation into the alleged retention of classified materials at Mar-a-Lago. My work began shortly after the August 8, 2022 search by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and included the preparation of pleadings and motions challenging the search and seeking the return of seized materials.

On September 5, 2022, the Court granted our motion for the appointment of a special master, the Honorable Raymond J. Dearie (Ret.), to review the materials seized by the FBI for potential privilege and classification issues. I coordinated with co-counsel in preparing submissions to the special master, managed privilege review processes, and participated in communications with the Department of Justice and the court regarding procedural frameworks. The Eleventh Circuit subsequently vacated the appointment.

16. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

I volunteered and interned with the Innocence Project in Miami, Florida in 2013, where I assisted in investigating and remedying wrongful convictions. In this role, I participated in case screenings, conducted comprehensive interviews with witnesses, clients, prior counsel, and judges, and evaluated claims of innocence. I also reviewed and analyzed complete case records, contributed to the preparation of post-conviction motions, and supported broader project initiatives through legal research, factual investigation, and case analysis.

This work provided firsthand exposure to the systemic challenges within the criminal justice process and the profound consequences of wrongful convictions. It strengthened my commitment to fairness, ethical practice, and ensuring meaningful access to justice, and it significantly shaped my understanding of the responsibilities inherent in the legal profession.

17. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

I have not taught any courses on a full or part time basis.

18. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

I have no arrangements in the future to be compensated for any financial or business interest.

19. Outside Commitments During Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

None.

20. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here). Please see my OGE-278 as provided by the Office of Government Ethics.

21. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

22. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, affiliations, pending and categories of litigation, financial arrangements or other factors that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

During the nomination process, I consulted with the Department of Justice's ethics office and Designated Ethics Officer to identify any potential conflicts. If I am confirmed, I will continue to consult with that office and will recuse myself from any matter in which recusal is required.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If I am confirmed, any potential conflict of interest will be resolved in accordance with the terms of an ethics agreement that I have entered with the Department's designated agency ethics official. If confirmed, I will continue to consult with the Department of Justice's ethics office and will recuse myself from any matter in which recusal is required.

23. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged.” Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each. If you are not an attorney, please use this opportunity to report significant charitable and volunteer work you may have done.

I volunteered and interned with the Innocence Project in Miami, Florida in 2013. There, I worked to investigate and remedy wrongful convictions. In this role, I participated in case screenings and conducted in-depth interviews with witnesses, clients, prior counsel, and judges to assess claims of innocence. I also reexamined entire case records, helped prepare post-conviction motions, and contributed to broader project initiatives through comprehensive legal research, factual investigation and case analysis. This experience deepened my understanding of the justice system and the profound consequences of wrongful convictions. It reinforced my commitment to fairness, access to justice and ethical responsibility in the practice of law.
