The Honorable Richard J. Durbin
 Ranking Member, Senate Committee on the Judiciary
 United States Senate
 Washington, DC 20510

Dear Majority Leader Thune, Minority Leader Schumer, Chairman Grassley, and Ranking Member Durbin:

On behalf of the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association (FLEOA) and the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Foundation (FLEO Foundation), we write to express our strong support for the nomination of Todd Blanche to serve as Attorney General of the United States and respectfully urge the Senate to swiftly confirm his nomination.

As the highest-ranking law enforcement officer of the United States, the Attorney General plays a critical role in safeguarding public safety, ensuring the fair and impartial administration of justice, supporting federal law enforcement operations, and providing strategic leadership to the Department of Justice. The Attorney General is responsible for ensuring that investigations and prosecutions are conducted independently and based upon the facts, evidence, and merits of each case, free from improper influence. At a time when our nation faces increasingly complex criminal, national security, and public safety challenges, strong and effective leadership at the Department is essential.

Representing more than 34,000 federal law enforcement officers and agents from over 65 federal agencies, FLEOA works closely with the Department of Justice on issues affecting federal law enforcement personnel, operational effectiveness, officer safety, recruitment and retention, employee wellness, and the resources necessary to protect the American public. Likewise, the FLEO Foundation works to support federal law enforcement officers, their families, and survivors through charitable, educational, and wellness initiatives that strengthen the federal law enforcement community. We are entirely confident in the nominees' commitment to making it safer for those who serve while augmenting public safety.

Mr. Blanche brings extensive legal, prosecutorial, and executive leadership experience to this critical position. As the Deputy Attorney General of the United States, he has led the oversight of day-to-day operations of the Department of Justice and has worked closely with federal law enforcement agencies on some of the most significant public safety, criminal justice, and national security matters facing our nation. His leadership at the Department has demonstrated a commitment to the rule of law, effective law enforcement partnerships, and the fair administration of justice. Prior to his service as Deputy Attorney General, Mr. Blanche served as a federal prosecutor in the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York, where he prosecuted violent offenders, public corruption cases, and other complex criminal matters. Throughout his career, he has earned a reputation for sound judgment, professionalism, and a deep understanding of the challenges facing law enforcement agencies and prosecutors.

Our organizations have had the opportunity to engage directly with Mr. Blanche and members of his leadership team regarding issues impacting federal law enforcement officers and agents. Mr. Blanche appreciates the critical role that frontline officers, agents, prosecutors, and support personnel play in protecting our communities and defending our nation. He has also demonstrated a clear understanding that successful law enforcement requires strong partnerships among federal, state, local, tribal, and territorial agencies. We have been encouraged by his willingness to maintain an open dialogue with law enforcement associations and stakeholders, listen to concerns from the field, and work collaboratively toward practical solutions. His commitment to fostering communication and partnership between Department leadership and the law enforcement community reflects the type of leadership that is essential for the Department of Justice.

We strongly support his nomination to serve as Attorney General of the United States because we believe his leadership will strengthen collaboration across all levels of government and enhance the Department's ability to address the evolving threats facing our country. We therefore respectfully urge the Senate to confirm him to this critical position as swiftly as possible.

Sincerely,

Mathew Silverman
