iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have not served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

b. Describe:

i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

From 2004 to 2005, I served as an Assistant Attorney General in the Open Records Division of the Office of the Texas Attorney General. I focused on research and advice to our Legislature regarding Texas's government transparency laws as well as researching and advising agency officials on special issues under the oversight of then-Deputy Attorney General for Legal Counsel Don Willett.

From 2006 to 2008, I served as a Fellow and Assistant Solicitor General at the Texas Office of the Attorney General, first under Ted Cruz and then under James C. Ho. My practice was almost exclusively appellate in nature, where I represented Texas in state and federal courts. That representation also ranged from cases that only I argued to large-scale litigation handled by sizable teams.

From 2008 to 2011, while at King & Spalding LLP, I handled complex commercial litigation and appellate matters. I helped manage litigation and discovery, drafted critical motions, and drafted appellate briefs on behalf of major clients.

From 2015 to 2016, I served as Deputy Attorney General for Legal Counsel at the Office of the Texas Attorney General. In that role, I managed four divisions of transactional lawyers: the Opinion Committee (responsible for issuing 245 attorney general opinions under General Paxton), the General Counsel Division (responsible for advising agency lawyers and approving outside counsel contracts), the Open Records Division (responsible for issuing roughly 30,000 letter rulings per year), and the Public Finance Division (responsible for reviewing roughly 1,700 bond packages per year). I also managed our Grants Administration Division (responsible for awarding state and federal grant funds to local governments and nonprofits) and Special Litigation Division (responsible for constitutional litigation). In that role, I advised on a wide range of statutory and constitutional issues under state and federal law and oversaw significant litigation.

From 2016 to present, I have served as Deputy First Assistant Attorney General at the Texas Office of the Attorney General. In that role, I oversee our civil litigation divisions (300 lawyers handling 30,000 cases), the Office of the Solicitor General (handling appellate litigation including 12 Supreme Court cases from 2015 to present), the criminal litigation divisions (that assist in criminal prosecutions and defend habeas cases) and our law enforcement division (approximately 180 commissioned peace officers in addition to the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit). In that role, I continue to advise on a wide range of statutory and constitutional issues under state and federal law and oversee significant litigation.

ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

From 2004 to 2005, 2006 to 2008, and 2015 to present, while in the Office of the Texas Attorney General, I represented the State of Texas. From 2004 to 2005, my practice was specialized in advising on government transparency laws and other general counsel type lawyering. From 2006 to 2008, my practice was specialized in appellate law, but my cases covered a broad spectrum of issues and areas. From 2015 to present, my practice has covered a wide array of legal work on all issues affecting Texas government.

From 2008 to 2011, while at King & Spalding LLP, I represented various companies in litigation. I handled (or helped handle) all aspects of litigation from the drafting of complaints, to discovery, critical motions, depositions, and appellate briefs.

c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

From 2006 to 2011 and from 2015 to present, I have appeared in court frequently.

From 2004 to 2005, my practice did not include court appearances.

i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | | |
|----|--------------------------|-----|
| 1. | federal courts: | 70% |
| 2. | state courts of record: | 30% |
| 3. | other courts: | 0% |
| 4. | administrative agencies: | 0% |

ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | | |
|----|-----------------------|-----|
| 1. | civil proceedings: | 90% |
| 2. | criminal proceedings: | 10% |

d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I tried seven cases to verdict, judgment, or final judgment and was co-counsel in each matter.

i. What percentage of these trials were:

- | | | |
|----|-----------|-----|
| 1. | jury: | 29% |
| 2. | non-jury: | 71% |

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

1. Texas v. United States, 328 F.Supp.3d 662 (S.D. Tex. 2018) (Hanan, J.).

The question in this case was whether the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program is lawful. I represent a 10-state coalition and have worked on all aspects of the case, from drafting the complaint and preliminary injunction motion to arguing the preliminary injunction hearing. The district court held that the plaintiff states were likely to prevail on the merits but refrained from issuing a preliminary injunction of an existing government program. The case remains pending in the district court.

The question in this case was whether Texas's law prohibiting sanctuary cities was lawful. The district court administratively consolidated three separate lawsuits with separate causes of action. I co-led the defense of the challenges in the district court and argued law and took a witness at the evidentiary hearing. I assisted in the appellate briefing. We obtained a stay of a significant portion of the injunction in the Fifth Circuit. We ultimately obtained a reversal of all but one application of one word on appeal.

The primary question in this case was whether a guidance letter from federal agencies that sex discrimination in Title IX included gender identity discrimination was lawful and binding. I helped draft the complaint and preliminary injunction motion and supervised our trial team that represented 13 states. We obtained a preliminary injunction in district court. Before the Fifth Circuit heard argument in the appeal of the preliminary injunction, the new administration rescinded the guidance letter and the Fifth Circuit dismissed the appeal.

Ct. 2198 (2016).

The question in this case was whether the University of Texas at Austin's admissions policy complied with the Fourteenth Amendment. I worked on aspects of the preliminary stage of the case from drafting responsive briefing to working on discovery and witness preparation for summary judgment before I left the Office of the Texas Attorney General. We prevailed at the summary judgment stage. The Fifth Circuit initially held the policy to be unlawful. The Supreme Court held that the Fifth Circuit applied the wrong standard and remanded in an opinion by Justice Kennedy, with Chief Justice Roberts and Justices Scalia, Thomas, Breyer, Alito, and Sotomayor. Justices Scalia and Thomas concurred, and Justice Ginsburg dissented. Justice Kagan did not participate in the case. On remand, the Fifth Circuit affirmed the summary judgment in favor of the University. The Supreme Court reviewed the case again and affirmed, in an opinion from Justice Kennedy, with Justices Ginsburg, Breyer, and Sotomayor. Chief Justice Roberts, Justice Thomas, and Justice Alito dissented. Justice Kagan did not participate in the case.

The plaintiffs challenged Texas's photo-ID voting law as an unconstitutional poll tax, an undue burden on the right to vote, enacted with an unconstitutional racial purpose, and a violation of the results test under section two of the Voting Rights Act. The district court ruled in favor of the plaintiffs. Texas briefed and argued its appeal before a Fifth Circuit panel and the Fifth Circuit sitting en banc. The Fifth Circuit ultimately reversed and rendered judgment for Texas on the poll-tax claim, dismissed the substantial-burden claim, vacated and remanded on the discriminatory-purpose claim, and affirmed results-based liability under section two of the Voting Rights Act while remanding on the remedy. On remand, the district court found liability on the purpose claim and entered an injunction that covered the Texas's new voting law, enacted in 2017. Texas appealed, and the Fifth Circuit stayed the district court's injunction and ultimately reversed it. The plaintiffs did not seek certiorari. Since joining the Texas Attorney General's Office in 2015, I have assisted in Texas's briefing and preparation for oral argument as well as advising the Texas Legislature on its 2017 legislation that ultimately ended the lawsuit.

6. Texas v. United States, No. 7:15-CV-00151-O (N.D. Tex. Mar. 5, 2018 and Aug. 21, 2018) (O'Connor, J.).

The question in this case was whether the imposition of a tax on state Medicaid managed care organizations under the Affordable Care Act was lawful. I researched the background, helped draft the complaint for the six-state coalition, and oversaw the litigation through a partial win at summary judgment and an order of equitable disgorgement of approximately $839 million for our state coalition. The case is in the final stages of district court litigation.

7. Texas Tech Univ. Health Scis. Ctr. v. Ward, 280 S.W.3d 345 (Tex. App. Amarillo 2008) (Quinn, C.J., Campbell, and Pirtle, JJ.).

The question in this case was what constitutes a condition or use of tangible state property, such that a claim falls within Texas law's waiver of sovereign immunity. I took over the case on interlocutory appeal for Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center when the trial court denied our plea that raised sovereign immunity on behalf of a state agency. On appeal, I argued that a doctor's misuse of properly functioning state property requires the plaintiff to sue the doctor, while the use of defective state property would have required the plaintiff to sue the state instead. The Amarillo court of appeals agreed, reversed the trial court, and rendered judgment for my client. The Texas Supreme Court denied the petition for review.

8. In re Office of the Attorney General, 257 S.W.3d 695 (Tex. 2008) (per curiam).

The question in this emergency mandamus was whether state court orders requiring the Office of the Attorney General to remit child support payments to a third-party company for tracking and enforcement violated state procedural rules. Such re-routing of payments in violation of federal law threatened federal funding for Texas's child support program. I helped craft appellate strategy and draft the emergency filings in the Texas Supreme Court, which resulted in a swift win for the state.

9. Newman v. Texas Parks & Wildlife Dept., No. 4:16-cv-02626 (S.D. Tex. Aug. 10, 2018) (Elrod, J., sitting by designation).

The question in this case was whether Texas Parks & Wildlife Department termination of a game warden's employment was retaliation for his testimony in a co-worker's Title VII case or instead was for performance related issues. I assisted in the four-day trial of the case, where we obtained a complete defense verdict on multiple theories of liability (but-for causation as well as cat's paw liability with multiple alleged bad actors).

The question in this case was whether a state prison guard used excessive force on an inmate, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The plaintiff's case survived summary judgment, and I participated in the jury trial of the matter, where the jury found excessive force but no damages. On appeal, the Fifth Circuit found no evidence of damages but modified the judgment to allow nominal damages of $1 to comport with the excessive force finding.

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

I presently serve as Deputy First Assistant Attorney General to Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton. I previously served as General Paxton's Deputy Attorney General for Legal Counsel. In those capacities, I have overseen the work of the Opinion Committee, which has assisted General Paxton in issuing 245 attorney general opinions. I also oversee our Criminal Prosecutions Division, which worked with the Department of Justice and California Attorney General's office to shut down Backpage.com and obtain criminal pleas that were favorable for government. I review bills introduced by the Legislature and provide legal counsel to General Paxton and his staff. I also work with members of the Legislature on bills that have constitutional implications. I give speeches in Texas on topics that are priorities for the Attorney General, including statutory interpretation, the rule of law, and the Constitution.

From 2008 to 2011, I was an associate practicing commercial and appellate litigation at King & Spalding, LLP. We had a number of cases settle before trial or not resolve before I left the firm. These cases included litigation over an unconsummated merger of electric retail companies as well as cases representing owners and contractors over significant construction disputes.

I have never acted or registered as a lobbyist.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

None.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

Based on my years of service with the Texas state government, I expect to receive a deferred-retirement pension, payable monthly from my age of eligibility until death, through the Texas Employees Retirement System.

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment; with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

I have no plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached Financial Disclosure Report.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

If confirmed, I will recuse myself in any litigation where I have ever played a role. I will also recuse myself for a period of time from any case in which my current employer, the Office of the Texas Attorney General, represents a party. I will also recuse myself from any case where, due to a current or past professional or personal relationship with a party or attorney involved, my impartiality might reasonably be questioned. Should any other conflicts arise, I will adhere to the Code of Conduct for United States Judges and other applicable law.

b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If confirmed, I will carefully review and address any real or potential conflicts by reference to 28 U.S.C. § 455, Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, and any and all other laws, rules, and practices governing such circumstances. I will likewise use any conflict-screening system provided by the court to review each case assigned to me for potential conflicts.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

I have spent most of my career in public service, where I have been unable to serve private clients. However, during my public and private service alike, I have actively mentored law students for over a decade through my roles on the Steering Committee and Board of Directors for the Texas Review of Law & Politics. I also serve the legal community through speeches, debates, and panel discussions as well as facilitating speeches and debates by assisting the Austin Lawyers Chapter of the Federalist Society.

26. Selection Process:

a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

On February 16, 2017, I applied to Texas's Federal Judicial Evaluation Committee. On March 17, 2017, I interviewed with the Committee in Dallas, Texas. On April 28, 2017, I interviewed with Senators Cornyn and Cruz and their counsels in Washington, D.C. On July 10, 2018, Senator Cornyn and Cruz's offices informed me that the Senators had submitted my name to the White House for consideration. On July 23, 2018, I interviewed with the White House Counsel's Office and the Office of Legal Policy of the United States Department of Justice. I have also been in contact with officials from the White House Counsel's Office and the Office of Legal Policy at the Department of Justice.

Throughout this period, I have been in periodic contact with attorneys with the Office of Legal Policy and White House Counsel's Office.

b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
