- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have never served as a mediator or arbitrator.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

My law practice has focused on litigation. In 1995, my practice began in the Litigation Department of Bingham McCutchen LLP where the bulk of my practice was civil litigation. During my years at Bingham, I spent one month on a rotation at the Plymouth District Attorney's Office as a Special Assistant District Attorney prosecuting criminal cases. When I became a federal prosecutor in 1999, my work changed from civil practice to criminal practice. As an Assistant U.S. Attorney and now as the Deputy District Attorney in Middlesex County, the nature of my legal practice has been almost entirely criminal prosecution. During my time teaching at Boston University School of Law, the curriculum and course was focused on civil litigation practice.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

During my practice at Bingham McCutchen, the bulk of my clients were corporations, directors and officers of corporations and individuals.

During my practice as a prosecutor, I have represented the United States in federal criminal cases and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in criminal matters.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| 1. federal courts: | 80% |
| 2. state courts of record: | 20% |
| 3. other courts: | |
| 4. administrative agencies: | |

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| 1. civil proceedings: | 25% |
| 2. criminal proceedings: | 75% |

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I have tried eleven trials in federal district court or Massachusetts Superior Court. In addition, I also tried three misdemeanor jury trials (and numerous bench trials) in state district court. For all of these trials, I served as sole counsel or co-counsel.

i. What percentage of these trials were:

- | | |
|--------------|-----|
| 1. jury: | 90% |
| 2. non-jury: | 10% |

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have not practiced before the Supreme Court of the United States.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

1. Commonwealth v. Fitzpatrick, Docket No. MICR 2006-1036. Middlesex Superior Court, Justice Kathe M. Tuttmann.

This prosecution involved two counts of first degree murder against the defendant for the homicides of his former lover's husband and a co-worker. I became involved in the case in 2007, after the investigation and indictment. We tried the case to a hung jury in July and August 2008. The retrial in January through February 2009 resulted in a conviction on both counts. I participated in the pretrial preparation and trial of the case. I prepared and argued motions in limine and the opposition to the defendant's motion to dismiss. I conducted examinations of approximately half of the government's witnesses including multiple civilians, law enforcement officers and experts (e.g., mother of the victim who had observed the defendant's interaction with her daughter-in-law, the lead Wakefield detective, the fingerprint expert and a forensic expert in image analysis from the Federal Bureau of Investigation). I also handled the jury charge conference and the numerous legal matters that arose during trial.

My co-counsel was Daniel Bennett, Middlesex County District Attorney's Office, 15 Commonwealth Avenue, Woburn, Massachusetts, (781) 897-8300.

Defense counsel was Randy Gioia, Esq., 151 Merrimac Street, 2nd Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02114, (617) 367-2480.

2. United States v. de la Cruz, No. 01-CR-10118-REK. United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Judge Robert E. Keeton.

The defendant was tried for conspiracy to distribute heroin resulting in an overdose death. I became involved in the case in 2004 and participated in the pretrial preparation of the case and tried this case with co-counsel. The trial began on April 25, 2005 and ran for three weeks. In this jury trial, I conducted the examination of half of the government's witnesses including expert witnesses, cooperating witnesses and law enforcement agents and I gave the closing argument and rebuttal argument. I believe that the defendant's conviction in this case was the first conviction under the Len Bias law for a drug distribution conspiracy resulting in an overdose death in the U.S. District Court sitting in Boston.

My co-counsel was Rachel Hershfang (formerly of the U.S. Attorney's Office), U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission, 33 Arch Street, 23rd Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02110, (617) 573-8987.

Defense counsel was Paul Yee, Esq., 10 Tremont Street, Suite 200, Boston, Massachusetts 02108, (617) 722-4343.

3. United States v. Martinez, Docket No. 00-CR-10172-NG. United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Judge Nancy Gertner.

The charge against this defendant arose out of a long-term wiretap investigation that spanned several states and involved charges against ten other defendants, a number of whom testified against the defendant in this trial. I became involved in this case in 2001 and handled the pretrial motions and arguments and the cooperation agreements, plea hearings and sentencing hearings for the multiple co-defendants. I conducted the pretrial preparation and served as co-counsel for the trial of the lead defendant on a conspiracy to distribute cocaine charge. The trial began on January 27, 2003 and lasted for approximately three weeks. I conducted the examination of witnesses including expert witnesses, law enforcement agents from Massachusetts and Texas and cooperating witnesses and I gave the closing argument and rebuttal argument. The jury convicted the defendant and found that the defendant derived proceeds of $3 million from his participation in the charged drug distribution conspiracy.

My co-counsel was Rachel Hershfang (formerly of the U.S. Attorney's Office), U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission, 33 Arch Street, 23rd Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02110, (617) 573-8987.

Defense counsel was John LaChance, Esq., 463 Worcester Street, Framingham, Massachusetts 01701, (508) 879-5730.

4. United States v. Hughes, Docket No. 99-CR-10405-REK. United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Judge Robert E. Keeton.

In this prosecution, the defendant was charged for his participation in “straw purchases” of firearms. Specifically, the defendant was charged for false statements in a federal firearms application and illegal possession of a firearm. I became involved in the case in 2001 to participate in the pretrial preparation and try the case with co-counsel. The trial began on June 17, 2002, and lasted approximately two weeks. During the trial, I gave the government’s opening statement and conducted the examination of witnesses including several civilians, a firearms expert and law enforcement officers. The jury convicted the defendant on all charges.

My co-counsel was Theodore Chuang (formerly of the U.S. Attorney’s Office), Department of Homeland Security, Washington, D.C. 20515, (202) 282-8830.

Defense counsel was Miriam Conrad, Federal Defender’s Office, Williams Coast Guard Building, 408 Atlantic Avenue, 3rd Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02210, (617) 223-8061.

5. United States v. Patel, Docket No. 01-CR-10020-RCL. United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Judge Reginald C. Lindsay.

I handled the grand jury investigation and presentment as well as the pretrial matters in this arson-for-profit case. I prepared this case for trial twice. The first trial began on September 10, 2001. Our opening statements were interrupted by the news of the attacks on the World Trade Center and the precautionary evacuation of the federal courthouse. In light of the world’s state of affairs at the time, the Court declared a mistrial a few days before we had a chance to begin the presentation of evidence. The retrial began on April 29, 2002 and spanned three weeks. I handled the motions in limine, directed the pretrial preparation and handled the examination of half of the government’s witnesses including the fire cause and origin expert, forensic auditor and multiple law enforcement officers and civilian witnesses. I also gave the closing argument and rebuttal argument. The jury convicted the defendant on all counts.

My co-counsel was Gregory Moffatt (formerly of the U.S. Attorney’s Office), Office of General Counsel, Raytheon Company/Integrated Defense Systems, 50 Apple Hill Drive, M/S T3TQ1, Tewksbury, Massachusetts 01876, (978) 858-9411.

Defense counsel was Ron I. Segal, Esq., Segal Judge & Associates, 23 Central Avenue, Ste. 605, Lynn, Massachusetts 01901. (I believe that Attorney Segal passed away in 2006).

6. United States v. Correia, Docket 00-CR-10246-RWZ. United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Judge Rya W. Zobel.

I became involved in this case in 2001 for pretrial preparation and trial and tried this arson-for-profit trial with co-counsel. The trial began on January 22, 2002 and lasted for two weeks. I gave the government's opening statement and examined a number of the government's experts including an electrical expert, civilian witnesses including the defendant's insurance broker, law enforcement agents and fire department personnel. The jury convicted the defendant on all charges, but the conviction was overturned when the court granted the defendant's post-conviction motion for new trial claiming ineffective assistance of his trial counsel. United States v. Correia, Docket No. 00-10246-RWZ, Memorandum and Order (September 13, 2002), aff'd, Docket No. 02-2313 (1st Cir. October 8, 2003) (unpublished opinion). The case was later retried, but I was not involved in the retrial.

My co-counsel was Gregory Moffatt (formerly of the U.S. Attorney's Office), Office of General Counsel, Raytheon Company/Integrated Defense Systems, 50 Apple Hill Drive, M/S T3TQ1, Tewksbury, Massachusetts 01876, (978) 858-9411.

Defense counsel was James Fagan, Fagan & Goldrick, 26 Dean Street, Taunton, Massachusetts 92780, (508) 824-7000 and William Brown, 112 Milk Street, 2nd Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02109, (617) 482-1001.

7. United States v. Jones, Docket No. 01-CR-10004-WGY. United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Judge William G. Young.

The defendant was charged with being a felon in possession of ammunition. The charge arose out of an incident in which the defendant shot at the boyfriend of a young woman whom the defendant was interested in dating. The firearm was never recovered and the victim and the young woman testified for the government reluctantly. The trial began on September 24, 2001, and lasted approximately one week and ended in a not guilty verdict.

Defense counsel was Martin Richey, Federal Defender's Office, Williams Coast Guard Building, 408 Atlantic Avenue, 3rd Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02210, (617) 223-8061.

8. United States v. Murphy, Docket No. 00-CR-10293-DPW. United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Judge Douglas P. Woodlock.

The charges against the defendant, a vice president of the control division at Putnam Investments, arose out of his theft of funds. We tried him for conspiracy to commit wire fraud and two counts of wire fraud. Trial began on March 19, 2001. I gave the opening statement and examined half of the government's witnesses. After a one-week trial, the jury convicted him on the conspiracy charge.

My co-counsel was Adam Bookbinder, U.S. Attorney's Office, Moakley Courthouse, 1 Courthouse Way, Ste. 9200, Boston, Massachusetts 02210, (617) 748-3112.

Defense counsel was Stephen Jones, Jones, Mulligan & Gerachty, 80 Washington Square, Bldg. K, Norwell, Massachusetts 02061, (781) 871-7600.

9. United States v. Mourad, Docket No. 99-CR-10200-RCL. United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Judge Reginald C. Lindsay.

In this case, the defendant, who owned and operated a low-income housing complex in Boston, was charged with criminal contempt. An investigation revealed that he had been misusing federal funds and as a result, the project went into bankruptcy and a receiver was appointed, thereby removing the defendant. As a result of his disruptive actions during the bankruptcy proceedings, the bankruptcy court issued an order limiting his access to the courthouse. I was the prosecutor assigned to the case and handled all of the pretrial matters and trial preparation. The jury-waived trial began on February 7, 2000, and lasted several days. I also handled the appeal in this matter. The First Circuit affirmed the defendant's conviction. United States v. Mourad, 289 F.3d 174 (1st Cir. 2002).

Defense counsel was Martin Richey, Federal Defender's Office, Williams Coast Guard Building, 408 Atlantic Avenue, 3rd Floor, Boston, Massachusetts 02210, (617) 223-8061.

10. Commonwealth v. Lawler, Essex County Docket No. 9777-CR-2633. Essex Superior Court, Judge Robert A. Barton.

As part of an exchange program between Bingham McCutchen LLP and the Essex District Attorney's Office, I served as a Special Assistant District Attorney for this Superior Court trial. I served as the second-seat of this June 1998 trial of the defendant for breaking and entering and arson of a trailer home located in a campground in Salisbury. I examined numerous witnesses in this trial. The defendant chose to plead guilty on June 11, 1998 before the case was submitted to the jury.

Lead counsel was (formerly an Assistant District Attorney and now the Honorable) Dunbar Livingstone, Justice, District Court, Salem Division, 65 Washington Street, Salem, Massachusetts 01970, (978) 744-4681, ext. 3029.

Defense counsel was Andrew Benson, P.O. Box 386, Amesbury, Massachusetts 01913, (978) 373-1123.

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

While in private practice, I handled complex litigation in various areas including products liability, insurance and labor and employment. These matters most often involved the representation of corporations and/or corporate officers and directors and disputes involving millions of dollars in alleged damages. Most of these matters resolved short of trial, but involved extensive discovery, settlement negotiations, dispositive motions and/or appeals.

As an Assistant U.S. Attorney, I handled pretrial, grand jury, trial, sentencing and appellate matters in the prosecution of numerous cases including but not limited to arson, bank robbery, fraud, firearm offenses and multiple-defendant drug trafficking and importation cases. I also handled the investigation, grand jury presentment and resolution of several large scale matters, a number of which involved multiple Title III wiretaps, multiple search warrants and other investigative means, coordination with law enforcement agents and prosecutors in multiple jurisdictions and resulted in charges against multiple defendants and, in a few cases, several international extraditions. Although I tried some of these cases as discussed above, most of these matters resolved short of trial. In my capacity as Deputy Chief of the Organized Drug Enforcement Task Force, I oversaw other Assistant U.S. Attorneys and reviewed and approved charging documents, initiation of criminal investigations, plea agreements, immunity orders and other matters. During my years at the U.S. Attorney's office, I also served as one of the attorneys working with middle school students in the annual Citizens' School Mock Trial program.

In my current role as Deputy District Attorney, I serve as second in command to the District Attorney and aid the District Attorney in running an office of over 240 employees including over 100 Assistant District Attorneys. I set officewide policy regarding cases and investigations as well as personnel and administrative matters. I oversee the supervisors of Superior Court trial teams, the Appeals and Training Bureau and the office's PACT Unit (a specialized unit that investigates and prosecutes public corruption, organized crime and financial crimes), the officewide grand jury coordinator and both the heads of the office's Victim Witness Bureau and the Cyber Protection Program. I review and approve direct indictment requests, charge breakdowns and other critical case matters and provide legal advice. I also serve as the District Attorney's legal counsel, advising him on a variety of legal matters. Another one of my responsibilities is acting as the office's liaison to the Regional Administrative Justice (for criminal matters) for the Middlesex Superior Court. I also handle cases including a double homicide trial and appellate matters including a recent matter before the Supreme Judicial Court, Commonwealth v. Vick, 454 Mass. 418 (2009), which settled the standard for determining whether convictions stemming from a single criminal episode are duplicative.

In the course of my career as a federal and state prosecutor, I have also handled and briefed twelve appellate matters. Most of these briefs were for the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit, but some were for matters before the Massachusetts Appeals Court and the Supreme Judicial Court. Of the twelve matters that I briefed, I have done the oral arguments in seven of the cases.

I have not performed any lobbying activities.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

I served as an Instructor at Boston University School of Law teaching students in the First Year Legal Writing Program from 2005 to 2007.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

None.

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

I do not have any plans, commitments or agreements to pursue outside employment if I am confirmed as a district judge.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached Financial Disclosure Report.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

Potential conflicts of interest may arise in regard to cases that I handled while I was an Assistant United States Attorney or which I supervised, reviewed or expressed an opinion about as the Deputy Chief of the Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force in the United States Attorney's Office. Since, however, I left the United States Attorney's Office in 2005, I expect that the number of cases that would present this conflict of interest would be small. In addition, there are a number of entities in which I (and/or my husband and children) have a financial interest. Several of these financial interests are in entities to which my husband also has a fiduciary obligation. I would be vigilant about potential conflicts by examining a matter assigned to me to uncover promptly any potential conflicts arising from these relationships.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

I would resolve any potential conflict of interest by adhering to 28 U.S.C. section 455, the Code of Conduct for United States Judges and all applicable policies and procedures of the United States courts. I would recuse myself in any matter in which my spouse or I hold a financial interest or have a sufficiently close connection with counsel or the parties (business or social). In the event of uncertainty, I would err on the side of disqualification.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

During my years in private practice at Bingham McCutchen, I worked on a number of pro bono matters. In the course of my years as a prosecutor, my primary contribution to serving the public interest was my day-to-day work representing the people of the federal District of Massachusetts and now the citizens of Middlesex County. However, even during these latter years, I participated as one of the attorneys working with middle school students in the annual Citizens' School Mock Trial program and served on two boards of organizations that provided pro bono legal services, the Volunteer Lawyers' Project (1998 to 2004) and the Women's Bar Foundation (2000 to 2008).

26. Selection Process:

- a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

In June 2009, the late U.S. Senator Edward M. Kennedy announced that a twelve-person search committee in Boston would consider applications for the vacancy on the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts created by the death of the Honorable Reginald Lindsay. I submitted an application on July 9, 2009. I was interviewed by the search committee on August 13, 2009. On October 21, 2009, the search committee informed me that the committee had voted to forward my name to U.S. Senator John Kerry. On November 30, 2009, Senators Kerry and Kirk interviewed me. On January 17, 2010, Senator Kerry informed me that he was recommending me to President Obama for nomination for this judicial seat.

Since January 18, 2010, I have been in contact with pre-nomination officials at the Department of Justice. On March 5, 2010, I had an interview with Department of Justice and White House personnel in Washington, D.C. I was nominated by the President on April 28, 2010.

- b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
