I have not served as a judicial officer.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

I have spent my entire legal career in governmental service, first for the federal government, then for the State of New Hampshire.

Beginning in 2010, I spent the first nine and a half years of my career as a criminal prosecutor. I was a subject matter expert in terrorism and weapon of mass destruction cases and traveled to districts around the United States to assist different U.S. Attorneys' Offices.

In 2020, I spent one year in senior positions in federal executive branch agency management, first with the U.S. Department of State, then returning to the U.S. Department of Justice.

During 2021 and 2022, the next two years, I was a federal legislative staffer working in the area of crime policy.

From 2023 through 2025, the last two years of my career, I have served as the only attorney for the judiciary of the State of New Hampshire, primarily pertaining to administrative matters and intergovernmental relations.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

My clients have always been governmental: federal executive, federal legislative, and state judicial.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

In my first position as a prosecutor, I appeared in court occasionally. I assisted U.S. Attorneys' Offices with their terrorism and weapon of mass destruction cases. This typically involved providing subject matter expertise to the Assistant U.S. Attorneys who represented the U.S. in court, during the investigation and through litigation. For some cases, particularly in districts where national security cases have been uncommon, I appeared directly in the litigation. I was also a Special Assistant U.S. Attorney twice, in two different districts: the Eastern District of Virginia and the District of Nevada.

I did not litigate as part of my executive management roles at the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Justice. I did not litigate as a legislative staffer.

As General Counsel of the New Hampshire Judicial Branch, I frequently worked on litigation defending the Branch from suit, with the New Hampshire Department of Justice. I also appeared directly in litigation in state court and before a state administrative agency on the Branch's behalf.

i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| 1. federal courts: | 90% |
| 2. state courts of record: | 9% |
| 3. other courts: | |
| 4. administrative agencies: | 1% |

ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| 1. civil proceedings: | 9% |
| 2. criminal proceedings: | 91% |

d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

Four. I was chief counsel in one and associate counsel in three.

i. What percentage of these trials were:

- | | |
|--------------|------|
| 1. Jury: | 100% |
| 2. non-jury: | 0% |

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have not practiced before the Supreme Court of the United States.

15. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

We obtained pleas in related cases. (A later trial of other co-defendants, in which I was not trial counsel, resulted in a dismissal due to evidence that was not provided to prosecutors for disclosure. The convictions of one defendant convicted at trial in which I was counsel were reversed on appeal due to a trial ruling by the judge, and the case was not retried.)

6. United States v. Richard Holzer
1:19-cr-00488-RM
Honorable Raymond P. Moore

U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado
Assisted in the case in 2019

As part of my work as Domestic Terrorism Coordinator for the Department of Justice, I collaborated with the U.S. Attorney's Office in Colorado and the Civil Rights Division to combine national security and civil rights tactics and tools to interdict a hate-based violent extremist who was attempting to bomb a synagogue. This was a useful model for subsequent cases. The defendant ultimately pleaded guilty and was sentenced to over 19 years of imprisonment.

7. United States v. Jorge Torrez
1:11-cr-00115-LO
Honorable Liam O'Grady
U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia
Assisted in the case in 2011

I assisted in investigation and overcoming challenges to charging a capital case involving a serial killer who killed children and a Navy servicemember, including by marshaling evidence that a parent of one of his victims had falsely confessed to the murder committed by the defendant. The defendant was later convicted and sentenced to death at trial.

8. Kratzenberg v. New Hampshire Supreme Court, et al
1:24-cv-00205-JL-TSM
Honorable Joseph Laplante
U.S. District Court for the District of New Hampshire
Assisted in the case between 2024 – 2025

I represented the State of New Hampshire Judicial Branch as client and we successfully obtained a finding of legislative immunity for New Hampshire Supreme Court rulemaking. Because of New Hampshire's unique constitutional structure, the Supreme Court passes rules which have the force of law. Typically, cases involving judges are decided based on judicial immunity. This ruling protected the New Hampshire Supreme Court's legislative function as well.

1:18-cv-01039-LM
Honorable Landya B. McCafferty

U.S. District Court for the District of New Hampshire
Assisted in the case between 2023 – 2024

I represented the State of New Hampshire Judicial Branch as client and we successfully obtained dismissal of a complaint regarding the state courts' involuntary emergency admission process. Had the case not been dismissed, there may have been significant federal management of a process committed to the state's responsibility, raising federalism concerns.

10. Doe v. Weaver, et al
217-2024-CV-257
Honorable Daniel St. Hillaire
State of New Hampshire, Merrimack County Superior Court

Assisted in the case in 2024

I represented the State of New Hampshire Judicial Branch as client and we successfully obtained dismissal of an action constraining judicial application of a statute. Had the challenge been successful, it could have created a precedent for declaratory judgments that are advisory opinions on the scope of different statutes, where there is no active case or controversy.

16. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

As a national security prosecutor, I frequently worked on investigations and interdictions that did not become public, as well as cases that did not go to trial for resolution. For example, I was for years the Counterterrorism Section Trial Attorney on United States v. Adam Gadahn, the only modern treason indictment, for an American member of Al Qaeda. Mr. Gadahn was killed in a drone strike.

Over time in my role as a Trial Attorney, I developed significant expertise in various areas and often produced reference materials, gave trainings, or acted as a resource as prosecutors from around the country reached out about litigation options. I was asked to serve as a Domestic Terrorism Coordinator and a Weapons of Mass Destruction Coordinator. A coordinator is a career subject matter expert within the Department.

As an Associate Deputy Attorney General, I advised the Deputy Attorney General on all matters pertaining to national security, assisted the Deputy Attorney General to oversee the National Security Division of the Department of Justice and the National Security Branch of the FBI, and managed the Department's participation and engagement with the National Security Council.

As a legislative staffer, my focus was primarily in seeking to advance bipartisan solutions in the area of crime policy. During my tenure as Chief Crime Counsel for the Ranking Member of the Senate Judiciary Committee in the 117th Congress, five bipartisan crime-related bills led by my member became law. This included an expansion of the war crimes statute and bills providing additional resources to victims of crime.

As the lawyer for the New Hampshire Judicial Branch, I have collaborated with our citizen legislature on court-affecting bills. I have advised the Branch on internal matters, such as those related to employment issues. This has included internal investigations. I have also superintended litigation on the Branch's behalf, some personally and some in coordination with the New Hampshire Department of Justice.

17. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

The George Washington University Law School, Scholarly Writing
Adjunct Professorial Lecturer at Law, International Law Review, August 2012 – May 2015

I instructed and assisted second-year law students to write their scholarly notes in the area of international law for the George Washington University International Law Review. A copy of the syllabus from my first year of teaching the course is supplied.

University of Maryland-College Park, Criminology & Criminal Justice
Adjunct Professor, International Criminal Law, January 2011 – May 2011

I instructed upper-level students on the legal regimes for the detection and suppression of genocide, torture, terrorism, war crimes, piracy, organized crime, drug trafficking, human trafficking, espionage and treason. We also focused on comparative criminal law, American assistance to foreign criminal justice systems, extradition and mutual legal assistance, and alternatives to prosecution.

A copy of the syllabus is supplied.

During my time at the Department of Justice, I taught internal courses, including at the National Advocacy Center. I also taught foreign partners about collaborating with U.S. law enforcement, in Morocco and Malta. In one instance, I was a panelist at the U.S. Judicial Conference Committee on International Judicial Relations regarding differences between the civil and common law systems. I do not have copies of these materials as everything I produced would be in the archived records of the Department of Justice.

18. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

I have federal and State of New Hampshire retirement accounts.

19. Outside Commitments During Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

No.

20. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

Please see my OGE-278 as provided by the Office of Government Ethics.

21. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

22. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, affiliations, pending and categories of litigation, financial arrangements or other factors that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

During the nomination process, I consulted with the Department of Justice's ethics office and Designated Ethics Officer to identify potential conflicts. If I am confirmed, I will continue to consult with that office and will recuse myself from any matter in which recusal is required.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If I am confirmed, any potential conflict of interest will be resolved in accordance with the terms of an ethics agreement that I have entered with the Department's designated agency ethics official. If confirmed, I will continue to consult with the Department of Justice's ethics office and will recuse myself from any matter in which recusal is required.

23. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each. If you are not an attorney, please use this opportunity to report significant charitable and volunteer work you may have done.

I have spent my entire career in public service. When serving at the Department of Justice, I participated in approved pro bono programs. While in law school, I volunteered with the Federal Public Defender.
