- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have not served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

- v. Whether you have held any judicial office, including positions as an administrative law judge, on any U.S. federal, state, tribal, or local court and if so, please provide the name of the court, the jurisdiction of that court, whether the position was appointed or elected, and the dates of your service.

I have not held any judicial office.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

Following my clerkship for Judge Garrard, I have been employed by the Office of the U.S. Attorney as an Assistant U.S. Attorney since 1994.

In 1999, I was selected to serve an approximately six-month detail/fellowship with the U.S. Sentencing Commission, but for all times except for that short period I have practiced law in the Central District of Illinois.

My practice has changed over the years. From 1994 until 2007, I did not have any management responsibilities or at least limited responsibilities. During those thirteen years I prosecuted and handled a wide variety of cases (bank robbery, Hobbs act robbery, narcotics, child pornography, mail and wire fraud, identity fraud, immigration, insurance fraud, arson). I would estimate that I tried over 25 felony cases before juries, and in a typical week that I was not in trial I would appear in Court several times every week for change of pleas, sentencings, supervised release revocations, initial appearances and detention hearings.

In 2007, U.S. Attorney Rodger Heaton asked me to serve the office as the Criminal Supervisor in the Springfield Division and I served in that position until 2010. While Criminal Supervisor I maintained a full caseload and continued to appear in Court regularly.

In 2013, U.S. Attorney Jim Lewis asked me to serve the office as the Civil Chief of the District and I served in that position until 2015. In addition to supervising the Civil Division, I handled a limited civil case load of False Claim Act, Qui Tam, and Forfeiture cases.

In 2018, U.S. Attorney John Milhiser asked me to serve the office as the Criminal Chief of the District. While Criminal Chief, the majority of my time was devoted to supervision, but I did maintain a limited criminal case load handling mainly supervised release revocations and I appeared in Court weekly.

In 2021, U.S. Attorney Greg Harris asked me to serve the office as the First Assistant U.S. Attorney, and in that role all of my time was devoted to supervising and managing the office. Other than empaneling a new Grand Jury and conducting Grand Jury returns, since 2021 I have not appeared in Court or been directly involved in litigation. Since Greg Harris retired from the Office on January 2, 2025, I have served the District as the Acting U.S. Attorney.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

I have significant contact with law enforcement agents and officers and earlier in my career with civilian witnesses and victims.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

Please see 14(b)(i) above.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- 1. federal courts: 100%
- 2. state courts of record: 0%
- 3. other courts: 0%
- 4. administrative agencies: 0%

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- 1. civil proceedings: 5%
- 2. criminal proceedings: 95%

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I would estimate that I have tried 25 – 35 cases to verdict, all before Federal Judges and other than approximately five, all before juries. During my first two years as an Assistant U.S. Attorney (“AUSA”) another AUSA from my office served as a mentor and tried jury trials with me. After those first two years I tried cases as lead counsel except when I served as a mentor/co-counsel to other AUSAs.

i. What percentage of these trials were:

1. Jury: 95%
2. non-jury: 5%

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have not practiced before the Supreme Court of the United States.

15. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

Criminal Case No. 07-CR-30058
United States District Court for the Central District of Illinois
The Honorable Jeanne E. Scott
April 2007

This was an identity fraud case that arose out of a law enforcement raid of the Cargill pork processing plant in Beardstown, Illinois. Local officers became aware that numerous citizens' identities from around the United States had been stolen and were being used by illegal aliens working at the plant which led to an Immigration and Customs Enforcement worksite operation on April 7, 2007. The theft of citizens' identities caused severe credit problems for those whose identities were stolen and used. Over 2,000 people were employed by Cargill at the Beardstown plant at the time of the raid. This operation, reportedly the largest immigration law enforcement raid in the Midwest, resulted in over 60 criminal prosecutions for aggravated identity theft, identity theft and fraudulent employment documents, and I was sole counsel for the government. Dominguez-Chacon pled guilty to aggravated identity theft and aiding and abetting aggravated identity theft and was sentenced to 38 months in prison.

List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

I have not pursued any legal activities outside my role within the U.S. Attorney's Office. Two case examples of my participation in cases in which I did not personally litigate are the prosecutions of U.S. v. Christiansen, 17-CR-20037 and U.S. v. Banta, Sheffler and Hedden, 19-CR-30067. Christiansen raped, murdered and dismembered University of Illinois student Yingying Zhang and the members of the senior management team had extensive discussions and input regarding the decision to seek the death penalty. Christiansen was spared the death penalty by the jury and was sentenced to life in prison. Banta, Sheffler and Hedden were Illinois Department of Correction Officers that beat inmate Larry Earvin to death. The team had extensive discussion concerning the separate trials of Banta and Sheffler concerning trial strategy, cooperation and ultimately sentencing recommendations concerning the three defendants. Hedden pled guilty and testified at Banta and Sheffler's trials. Banta and Sheffler were both sentenced to 20 years in prison and Hedden was sentenced to six years in prison.

17. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. 19. Outside Commitments During Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

None.

20. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

Please see my OGE-278 as provided by the Office of Government Ethics.

21. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

22. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, affiliations, pending and categories of litigation, financial arrangements or other factors that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

During the nomination process, I consulted with the Department of Justice's ethics office and Designated Ethics Officer to identify any potential conflicts. If I am confirmed, I will continue to consult with that office and will recuse myself from any matter in which recusal is required.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If I am confirmed, any potential conflict of interest will be resolved in accordance with the terms of an ethics agreement that I have entered with the Department's designated agency ethics official. If confirmed, I will continue to consult with the Department of Justice's ethics office and will recuse myself from any matter in which recusal is required.

23. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each. If you are not an attorney, please use this opportunity to report significant charitable and volunteer work you may have done.

It is not possible for me to provide pro bono work in my area of expertise, federal criminal law. In 2006, I received approval from U.S. Attorney Heaton and DOJ to do pro bono legal work in Sangamon County Circuit Court. Associate Circuit Judge Esteban Sanchez presided over family court at that time and appointed me as a Guardian Ad Litem but due to multiple conflicts with court schedules and other work-related conflicts that pro bono work was not productive and after my appointment, I did not seek further appointment. My assistance to the disadvantaged has been limited to the donation of money to organizations that assist the disadvantaged.
