- b. The American Bar Association's Commentary to its Code of Judicial Conduct states that it is inappropriate for a judge to hold membership in any organization that invidiously discriminates on the basis of race, sex, or religion, or national origin. Indicate whether any of these organizations listed in response to 11a above currently discriminate or formerly discriminated on the basis of race, sex, religion or national origin either through formal membership requirements or the practical implementation of membership policies. If so, describe any action you have taken to change these policies and practices.

I believe the Princeton Club of New York previously restricted its membership only to men, until it allowed women to join in 1972, after Princeton University became co-educational in 1969. The Princeton Club of New York currently does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, religion or national origin. To the best of my knowledge, other than the Princeton Club of New York described above, none of the remaining organizations listed in response to Question 11a currently discriminate or formerly discriminated on the basis of race, sex, religion or national origin, either through formal membership requirements or the practical implementation of membership policies.

February 25, 2015, Letter from Legal Momentum to Senator Charles Grassley, Committee on the Judiciary, Senator Patrick Leahy, Ranking Member, Committee on the Judiciary, on Support of Loretta Lynch, Nominee for United States Attorney General. Although, as a Board member, my name appeared on the letterhead, I did not sign the letter, and, to the best of my knowledge, I did not participate or consult in any way in its preparation, and the Board was never asked to vote on or approve its contents. Copy supplied.

- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have never served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

From 1994 to 1997, I served as an Assistant District Attorney in the New York County District Attorney's Office under District Attorney Robert Morgenthau. My practice was primarily criminal litigation, including jury and bench trials, pre-trial hearings, grand jury proceedings, motion practice and writing briefs. I tried approximately 22 jury and bench trials as a first chair litigator.

From 1997 to 1998, I attended Columbia Law School full-time to earn my LL.M. degree.

From 1998 to 2005, I was in private practice in the law firms Fish & Neave LLP (1998 – 2001) and O'Melveny & Myers LLP (2001 – 2005). I handled a variety of civil litigation matters as part of litigation teams. I assisted with one federal jury trial and numerous other litigation matters that settled or were otherwise resolved.

From 2005 to 2010, I served in the Executive Office of the President in the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative as Senior Director for Intellectual Property and Chair of the Special 301 Committee. My practice was primarily focused on international trade, negotiating trade agreements, and other trade policy matters.

From 2010 to present, I have been in private practice. My practice has included primarily corporate, government relations, and policy matters. To a lesser extent, I have handled a few litigation matters during this time. I also have served as outside general counsel to small companies.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

As an Assistant District Attorney, I represented the People of the State of New York and prosecuted cases on behalf of crime victims. At the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, I represented the United States in trade negotiations and trade policy matters. In private practice, my clients have included individuals, small- and medium-sized businesses, trade associations, and major corporations. My work has specialized in the areas of intellectual property and international trade, among other areas.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

Approximately 60% of my practice has been devoted to litigation or litigation-related matters (such as representing clients in pre-litigation negotiations or dispute settlement matters). The remaining approximately 40% of my practice has been in trade policy, counseling clients, corporate law, and government relations. As an Assistant District Attorney at the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, I appeared in court nearly every day and argued hearings in court on a regular basis nearly every day. As an attorney in private practice, I have appeared in court on a more limited basis. I would estimate that I have appeared in court, on average, several times a year for the past five years.

i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| 1. federal courts: | 50% |
| 2. state courts of record: | 50% |
| 3. other courts: | 0% |
| 4. administrative agencies: | 0% |

ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| 1. civil proceedings: | 50% |
| 2. criminal proceedings: | 50% |

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

Over the course of my career, I have tried approximately 25 cases to verdict, judgment or final decision, most of which took place while I was an Assistant District Attorney. As an Assistant District Attorney at the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, I argued approximately 22 jury and bench trials as sole counsel. At Fish & Neave LLP, I was part of a trial team that litigated a patent infringement jury trial in U.S. District Court in the Western District of Texas. I have been a member of other trial teams that have argued cases in which final decisions were rendered (for example, by granting summary judgment and/or preliminary injunctions).

i. What percentage of these trials were:

- | | |
|--------------|-----|
| 1. jury: | 40% |
| 2. non-jury: | 60% |

- e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have not appeared before the Supreme Court of the United States.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

I am unaware of any individuals, family or otherwise, that are likely to present potential conflicts of interest. Cases involving any former clients could present a conflict of interest or create the appearance of a conflict of interest. In such cases, I would refer to 28 U.S.C. § 455, Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, as well as any other applicable canons, rules, and statutes. I would notify the parties of the potential conflict and seek their input, and consult with other judges, if needed. I would take all of these factors into account in determining the appropriate action, including possible recusal.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Since 2010, I have served on the non-profit board of Legal Momentum, which helps disadvantaged women and girls. Issues of importance are domestic violence and workplace discrimination. Since 2010, I have also served on the non-profit board of the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association Law Foundation, which helps law students who are committed to non-profit work. The organization provides scholarships to law students who work for public interest organizations that serve Asian Pacific American communities.

If so, explain fully.

No.
