

Dr. Doug Logan Jr.

Dr. Doug Logan, Jr., serves as the President of Grimké Seminary in Richmond, Virginia.

Where he also serves as the Dean of the Grimké School of Urban Ministry. He is the Associate Director and Co-Director of Church in Hard Places with the Acts 29 Network. He also serves as the Pastor for Church Planting at Remnant Church in Richmond, Virginia. Doug coaches several urban church planters primarily across the United States. He also preaches across the world, training church planters and consulting churches on developing diverse pastoral and leadership teams and churches.

He formerly served as Senior Pastor of Epiphany Camden in New Jersey, a church founded under his leadership in 2011. Doug has earned his Masters Degree in Church Planting and received a Doctorate of Divinity Degree at Lancaster Bible College in Pennsylvania where he serves on the Corporation Board. Doug is President and Founder of the On the Block Collective, an urban ministry resource collaborative. He is the author of On the Block: Developing a Biblical Picture for Missional Engagement. Doug and his wife, Angel, have been married since 1996 and have three adult sons and three grandchildren.
