- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have not served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

- v. Whether you have held any judicial office, including positions as an administrative law judge, on any U.S. federal, state, tribal, or local court and if so, please provide the name of the court, the jurisdiction of that court, whether the position was appointed or elected, and the dates of your service.

I have not held any judicial office.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

After law school, I clerked on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit for Judge Albert Diaz. In that capacity, I reviewed appellate briefs, prepared bench memoranda, prepared the Judge for oral arguments, authored draft judicial opinions, and generally counseled on appellate cases assigned to Judge Diaz.

After my clerkship, I was an associate for the Washington D.C. law firm Covington & Burling. My work spanned multiple practice areas of litigation and government enforcement, but I principally worked on legal analysis, fact development and review, and witness interviews.

I joined the Department of Justice in 2015 as a federal prosecutor. In that role, I led and supervised over a hundred criminal investigations in which I managed multi-agency investigative teams, strategized how to build a federal prosecution, conducted extensive grand jury investigations, applied for and obtained search warrants, interviewed witnesses, and other investigative actions. These investigations concerned numerous subject matters, including public corruption, racketeering, national security, narcotics trafficking, fraud, and import/export controls.

I also prosecuted various categories of federal crimes in multiple United States Attorney's Offices, appearing in court regularly for preliminary proceedings (initial appearances), contested detention hearings, evidentiary hearings, suppression hearings, and trials. As Deputy Chief of Appeals for the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Maryland, I supervised, managed, and reviewed criminal appeals for the United States Attorney's Office and also served informally as ex officio general counsel to the United States Attorney for the District of Maryland.

During my tenure at the Department of Justice, I also served as Senior Counsel to the U.S. Deputy Attorney General and Counselor to the U.S. Attorney General. In both roles, I was on detail from the United States Attorney's Offices for the District of Maryland and for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. In these roles, I served as an advisor to the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General on various matters pursued by the Department, helped the Department formulate and implement its programs and policies as assigned, and served as a liaison for numerous United States Attorney's Offices.

In 2022, I went in-house to serve as corporate counsel to Amazon, where I defended the company against government investigations and enforcement actions brought by foreign, federal, and state regulators. This work involved structuring the compliance of multiple business lines, managing legal teams to gather facts, advocating the company's defenses directly to government attorneys, and negotiating settlements. I served in this capacity until I was appointed as the Interim United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania in March 2025. In this capacity, I am the chief federal law enforcement officer for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and I supervise and oversee all federal criminal prosecution and civil litigation in the district.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

During my tenure at the Department of Justice, my client was the United States. I represented the United States as an Assistant United States Attorney prosecuting various federal crimes.

At Covington & Burling, I represented various corporate clients. My work spanned multiple practice areas of litigation and government enforcement, and I principally worked on legal analysis, fact development and review, and witness interviews.

I represented Amazon while serving as in-house counsel. In this role, I defended the company against government investigations and enforcement actions brought by foreign, federal, and state regulators.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

While serving as a federal prosecutor (2015-2019; 2020-2022), I appeared in court weekly for initial appearances, arraignments, detention hearings, evidentiary hearings, plea hearings, suppression motions, and/or trials. While serving as a junior associate at Covington & Burling (2013-2015), as well as recently as Amazon corporate counsel (2022-2025), I did not appear in court.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1. federal courts; 100%
2. state courts of record; <1% (one appearance in spring 2014)
3. other courts; 0%
4. administrative agencies: 0%

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1. civil proceedings; 10%
2. criminal proceedings: 90%

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I have tried five cases to verdict, judgment or final decision. I was the primary prosecutor on each case.

- i. What percentage of these trials were:

1. jury; 100%
2. non-jury: 0%

- e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have not practiced before the United States Supreme Court.

15. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

1. Federal Trade Commission v. Amazon.com, Inc.

Case No. 2:23-cv-0932

United States District Court for the Western District of Washington

The Honorable John H. Chun

2023-2025

My legal team managed and oversaw the representation of Amazon in the ongoing landmark consumer protection case brought by the Federal Trade Commission alleging billions of dollars in damages. The case is regarded by some as the most significant consumer protection enforcement action in the history of ecommerce, and its importance will define permissible commercial marketing and subscription practices for years to come. The lawsuit spans several years and all aspects of the Amazon Prime business. In sum, the FTC alleges that Amazon knowingly deceived customers into enrolling into their Amazon Prime subscription program and then improperly thwarted customers from cancelling subscriptions. I supervised and directed the legal strategy and factual development of the defense of the company.

Case No. 17-cr-223
United States District Court for the District of Maryland
The Honorable George L. Russell III
2017-2020

I represented the United States in the prosecution of the Old York Money Gang, a Baltimore street gang responsible for murder, robbery, and drug trafficking. The case attracted significant notoriety as it originated from a horrific and infamous killing of a three-year-old child named Mackenzie Elliott. I led the investigation into the organization through a proactive targeting of the gang responsible with racketeering charges, and brought a comprehensive prosecution against nine defendants comprising the gang for various charges, including contract murder and the killing of Mackenzie Elliott. The killer of the child, Terrell Plummer, pled guilty and received a sentence of 25 years in prison. Most of the other defendants also pled guilty. The two leaders of the gang, Trevon Beasley and Darrin Mosley, were responsible for multiple murders and were convicted by a jury after a five-week trial. Beasley received a sentence of life imprisonment, while Bosley received a sentence of thirty years' imprisonment.

The Honorable Richard D. Bennett

I represented the United States in the prosecution of a robbery of a Federal Firearms License dealer in east Baltimore by an organization who subsequently sold the assault rifles and firearms on the streets of Baltimore. The case remains one of the most violent and destructive robberies of a FFL in the history of the Department of Justice as measured by firearms stolen, as the defendants locked one of the owners in a safe and left her to die. I led the investigation into the conspiracy, which led to arrests of all five defendants and the seizure of a majority of the firearms they took. I prosecuted and convicted five separate defendants under various robbery and firearm charges. All defendants were convicted and received sentences ranging from 12-20 years in prison.

The Honorable Richard D. Bennett
2018-2020

I represented the United States in the prosecution of a nineteen-defendant violent fentanyl trafficking organization in west Baltimore (Pratt & Calhoun) responsible for operating an open-air drug market and numerous killings and violent crimes.

All nineteen defendants pled guilty. The most culpable members of the gang received sentences in excess of ten years' imprisonment.

As a federal prosecutor for several years at multiple United States Attorney's Offices, I led and supervised dozens of criminal investigations in which I managed investigative teams consisting of federal agents from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Drug Enforcement Administration, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, and Homeland Security Investigations. The investigations involved strategizing how to build a federal prosecution, conducting extensive grand jury investigations, applying for and obtaining search warrants, interviewing witnesses, and many other investigative techniques. These investigations concerned numerous subject matters, including public corruption, racketeering, national security, narcotics trafficking, fraud, and import/export controls.

3. In-House Counsel: Amazon.com, Inc. (2022-2025)

As corporate counsel for Amazon, I defended the company against government investigations and enforcement actions from foreign, federal, and state regulators. This work involved structuring the compliance of multiple business lines, managing legal teams to gather facts, advocating the company's defenses directly to government attorneys, and negotiating settlements.
