The Honorable Chuck Grassley
Chair
Senate Judiciary Committee
224 Dirksen Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Chairman Grassley:

I write this letter as strong support for the confirmation of Kasdin Miller Mitchell to serve as a United States District Judge in the Northern District of Texas.

Ms. Mitchell and I are both partners in Kirkland & Ellis LLP. Prior to joining Kirkland, I was the White House Counsel to President Obama from 2014-2017. In that role, I was responsible for the nomination and confirmation of federal judges.

Ms. Mitchell and I have worked on a number of cases together at Kirkland. I have found her to be exceptionally intelligent and highly skilled. She works diligently, communicates with clarity, and develops a thorough command of the facts and the law on every case she handles.

I am confident that Ms. Mitchell would be an outstanding District Judge. To be sure, we are not remotely aligned on our political views. I support her because I think she will serve with integrity, professionalism, and distinction. The federal judiciary would benefit from more judges with her level of talent, dedication, and commitment.

Sincerely,

W. Neil Eggleston
