* I was admitted to the United States District Court for the District of Kansas in 2020 because, while in private practice, I was working on matters pending in that court. After leaving private practice in September 2020, I no longer practiced in the court and my membership lapsed in 2021 because I did not pay the annual dues to keep my license active. In 2023, I returned to private practice and sought and received reinstatement. I left private practice again in May 2025 following my appointment to the United States Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. My membership lapsed in July 2025 because I did not pay the annual dues to keep my license active.

 In 2026, my membership in the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri lapsed for almost four months when I did not pay the annual dues while working at the United States Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. I sought and received reinstatement in May 2026.

There have been no other lapses in membership.

b. The American Bar Association's Commentary to its Code of Judicial Conduct states that it is inappropriate for a judge to hold membership in any organization that invidiously discriminates on the basis of race, sex, or religion, or national origin. Indicate whether any of these organizations listed in response to 11a above currently discriminate or formerly discriminated on the basis of race, sex, religion or national origin either through formal membership requirements or the practical implementation of membership policies. If so, describe any action you have taken to change these policies and practices.

Knights of Columbus is a fraternal benefits organization whose membership is limited to men who are practicing Catholics in good standing with the Church. Accordingly, it does limit membership based on sex and religion.

To my knowledge, none of the other organizations listed above currently discriminate or formerly discriminated on the basis of race, sex, religion or national origin, either through formal membership requirements or the practical implementation of membership policies.

12. Published Writings and Public Statements:

a. List the titles, publishers, and dates of books, articles, reports, letters to the editor, editorial pieces, or other published material you have written or edited, including material published only on the Internet. Supply copies of all published material to the Committee.

13. Judicial Office: State (chronologically) any judicial offices you have held, including positions as an administrative law judge, whether such position was elected or appointed, and a description of the jurisdiction of each such court.

In Missouri, the Commissioner of Securities may act in a capacity similar to an administrative law judge for administrative enforcement actions under the Missouri Securities Act of 2003. See Mo. Rev. Stat. § 409.6-604. In 2022, Missouri Secretary of State John R. Ashcroft temporarily appointed me to serve as Acting Commissioner of Securities to issue orders in the following matters:

In re Until Tomorrow Drivetrains, LLC, No. AP-22-02 (Mo. Div. Sec.) (orders supplied);

In re H & Z Enters. Hi, LLC, No. AP-22-13, 2022 WL 16709638 (Mo. Div. Sec. Oct. 12, 2022);

In re Sean A. Brady, CRD # 4365173, No. AP-20-08, 2022 MO. SEC. LEXIS 23 (Mo. Div. Sec. Oct. 31, 2022); and

In re Devcoh, LLC, No. AP-22-10, 2022 WL 17682728 (Mo. Div. Sec. Nov. 3, 2022).

I was appointed because the Commissioner of Securities was recused from these matters. The matters involved enforcement actions under Missouri securities law. As Acting Commissioner, I did not preside over any hearings. To the best of my knowledge, no party ever sought judicial review of the orders that I issued, and so the orders were never reversed by a court. To be sure, the respondents in In re H & Z Enterprises Hi, LLC sought writs of prohibition and mandamus in Cole County Circuit Court to prevent the enforcement action from moving forward and argued, among other things, that Secretary Ashcroft had no authority to appoint me Acting Commissioner. See H&Z Enters. Hi, LLC v. Jacoby, No. 22AC-CC07238 (Mo. Cir. Ct.). But the court never ruled on the merits because the case was voluntarily dismissed with prejudice and the parties entered into a consent order to resolve the enforcement action after I had left the Missouri Secretary of State's Office.

I have not otherwise held judicial office.

- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have not served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

- b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

My practice has focused on complex trial and appellate litigation as well as in-house advice. I have never focused exclusively on any specific substantive area of the law, but I have developed deep experience in a variety of areas over the years.

While practicing with Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner LLP from 2019 to 2020, I managed complex discovery, took depositions, performed legal research, and drafted briefs, pleadings, and motions. I focused on civil commercial disputes litigated in state and federal courts, at all stages of litigation, including successfully briefing and arguing a multimillion-dollar case on appeal.

From 2020 to 2023, I worked in state government. At the Missouri Attorney General's Office, I worked on constitutional and other complex cases in federal and state courts, both at trial and on appeal. I conducted discovery, engaged in pre-trial motions practice, filed briefs, tried cases, and argued appeals. I also supervised the Special Litigation unit that performed these tasks. At the Missouri Secretary of State's Office, I served as the chief legal advisor and managed all legal affairs for the office, providing counsel to the Secretary, senior staff, and division directors on elections, administrative law, statutory interpretation, rulemaking, and other matters under the office's jurisdiction (including business services, securities, records, libraries, notaries, and administrative rules). I was also responsible for overseeing and coordinating litigation (including drafting pleadings and managing outside counsel or coordination with the Attorney General's Office), drafting and reviewing ballot language and summaries for initiative and referendum petitions, reviewing proposed legislation, drafting and reviewing contracts, reviewing and responding to sunshine requests, and ensuring legal compliance across all operations.

I returned to the firm in 2023. From then until 2025, I represented clients in a range of complex litigation matters in state and federal courts, at all stages of litigation. I managed discovery and factual development in sprawling multi-party litigation, negotiated and litigated discovery disputes, worked with expert witnesses, drafted pleadings, motions, and briefs, took depositions, participated in trial proceedings, and handled appeals. My matters covered many substantive areas, including complex statutory issues, constitutional law, commercial litigation, tort law, and election law. Finally, I advised clients on legal issues outside of litigation and managed client relationships.

In May 2025, I joined the United States Department of Justice as Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the Civil Rights Division. I was soon promoted to Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General. In this current role, I serve as the primary advisor to the Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights, helping supervise the Division's overall enforcement of federal civil rights laws. Some of my duties include advising on major policies, aligning section work with Division priorities, developing litigation strategy, representing the Division externally, and coordinating high-level management and strategy across civil and criminal civil rights matters. I also provide counsel on difficult legal and litigation strategy questions and perform high-level review of trial and appellate briefs and other filings in civil and criminal matters.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

Throughout my career, I have focused on complex trial and appellate litigation as well as in-house advice. My practice has been primarily civil, although I have worked on criminal cases as well. I have been and remain a generalist, although I have had areas of particular focus at different points in my career.

While practicing at Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner LLP, I primarily represented businesses involved in commercial disputes in federal and state courts at all stages of litigation.

At the Missouri Attorney General's Office, my client was the State of Missouri and its officials and agencies. At the Missouri Secretary of State's Office, the Secretary was my client.

At the Department of Justice, my client is the United States of America.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

During my time at the Missouri Attorney General's Office, I worked predominantly on litigation, and I regularly appeared in court to argue cases. My work at the United States Department of Justice is also predominantly focused on litigation, but I personally appear in court less often. While in private practice, I occasionally appeared in court and also assisted in trial-level briefing regarding significant evidentiary, instructional, and legal issues to ensure issue preservation for appeal. As in-house counsel for the Missouri Secretary of State's Office, I only went to court if I was observing the agency's counsel.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1.	federal courts:	50%
2.	state courts of record:	50%
3.	other courts:	0%
4.	administrative agencies:	0%

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1.	civil proceedings:	95%
2.	criminal proceedings:	5%

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I have tried five cases to verdict, judgment, or final decision in state and federal courts of record. I was chief counsel for my client in one of those cases, and associate counsel for the remaining four cases.

i. What percentage of these trials were:

- | | | |
|----|-----------|-----|
| 1. | jury: | 20% |
| 2. | non-jury: | 80% |

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have argued one case before the Supreme Court: Biden v. Missouri, No. 21A240. Copy of oral argument transcript supplied.

I have also served as counsel of record or significant co-counsel and filed merits briefs, amicus briefs, petitions, applications, and other documents. Briefs and other pleadings filed in the Supreme Court in cases in which I served as lead counsel or significant co-counsel are identified below. I have not included multistate amicus briefs authored or led by other States that Missouri joined while I was in the Missouri Attorney General's Office, unless I served as lead counsel or significant co-counsel. I also have not included miscellaneous, pro forma documents like motions for extension of time or response waivers.

1. Tangipa v. Newsom, 816 F. Supp. 3d 1081 (C.D. Cal.) (Lee, Staton & Hsu, JJ.), injunction pending appeal denied, 146 S. Ct. 1594 (2026).

Since 2025, I have served as lead counsel for the United States of America, as plaintiff-intervenor, in its challenge to California's mid-decade congressional redistricting map enacted via Proposition 50. The suit alleges some districts were racially gerrymandered, in violation of the Equal Protection Clause and Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act. A three-judge district court panel held a multi-day evidentiary hearing and, on January 14, 2026, denied a preliminary injunction by a 2-1 vote. The original plaintiffs sought an emergency writ of injunction from the Supreme Court pending appeal, and the United States filed a brief in support thereof. On February 4, 2026, the Supreme Court summarily denied the application, allowing the new map to remain in effect. Although the appeal was later dismissed, the case (consolidated with a related challenge) continues in the district court toward further proceedings, including motions to dismiss. I have been responsible for pre-trial and trial strategy and overseeing the drafting of pleadings, motions, briefs, and written discovery. I have also supervised depositions and direct and cross examinations, and I have coordinated with co-counsel and opposing counsel on evidentiary stipulations.

2. UMB Bank, N.A. v. Kraft CPAs, PLLC, No. 23-CV-00268 (W.D. Mo. Apr. 15, 2024) (Bough, J.).

From 2023 to 2024, I represented UMB Bank, N.A. in a diversity negligence action against a Tennessee accounting firm. The bank sought over $16 million in damages.

After the accounting firm removed the case from state court to federal court, it sought dismissal for lack of personal jurisdiction. The district court denied that motion, and it also denied a later motion to transfer the case to Tennessee. The parties eventually settled the case and stipulated to dismissal with prejudice. I substantially drafted pleadings, motions, and briefs throughout the case and conducted pre-trial discovery (including depositions).

In 2023, I represented Tyler Technologies, Inc., a private, third-party contractor, in a putative class action suit brought by Jackson County, Missouri, property owners. They alleged that the contractor had negligently performed its contractual obligations during the 2023 real property assessment process. After the trial court denied the contractor's motion to dismiss the negligence claims, the contractor filed a petition for an extraordinary writ of prohibition to bar the trial court from taking any action other than dismissing the negligence claims with prejudice. After oral argument, a unanimous Missouri Supreme Court granted the petition, and the trial court subsequently dismissed the negligence claims with prejudice. I developed the writ strategy, drafted all motions, pleadings, and briefs at every level of the case, served as appellate preservation counsel at the trial court proceedings, and presented oral argument before the Missouri Supreme Court.

From 2020 to 2022, I represented Missouri officials in a suit brought by the Conservation Commission over the legislature's removal of language authorizing the use of $21 million in appropriated funds for certain purposes, including land acquisition and payments in lieu of taxes. After a bench trial, the court entered judgment in favor of the Commission. The Missouri Supreme Court, in a 4-3 decision, affirmed the judgment. I co-chaired the trial and presented oral argument at the Missouri Supreme Court, substantially drafted motions, pleadings, and briefs at all stages of the case, managed pre-trial discovery, and coordinated with opposing counsel on evidentiary stipulations.

In 2022, I represented Missouri in a challenge brought by the United States Department of Justice over the constitutionality of the Second Amendment Preservation Act (SAPA), which, among other things, prohibited the use of state resources to enforce federal laws that infringed the right to keep and bear arms. I developed the lead defenses to the suit (e.g., lack of standing, lack of a cause of action) and drafted briefs at the motion-to-dismiss and summary-judgment stages of the case. I also handled hearings before leaving the Missouri Attorney General's Office. The district court ultimately held SAPA unconstitutional, and the Eighth Circuit affirmed the judgment. The Supreme Court denied certiorari.

From 2021 to 2022, I represented Missouri as lead counsel in its and Texas's challenge to the Biden Administration's refusal to spend funds appropriated by Congress to construct a physical barrier system along the southwest border, in violation of the 2019 and 2020 Consolidated Appropriations Acts. After the case was consolidated with a related challenge, the district court dismissed the States' suit. That decision was later reversed by the Fifth Circuit. On remand, the district court transferred the case to another district judge, who entered a preliminary injunction in favor of the States. The litigation is ongoing. I developed the legal theories for the case and substantially drafted pleadings, motions, and briefs (including preliminary injunction briefing) and the first round of Fifth Circuit briefing.

From 2021 to 2022, I represented Missouri in its and Texas's challenge against the Biden Administration's decision to terminate President Trump's "Remain in Mexico" policy. The States challenged the termination of the policy as arbitrary and capricious under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) and also brought a statutory challenge. I co-chaired the bench trial, after which the district court held that the termination was unlawful and permanently enjoined the termination decision. Both the Fifth Circuit and Supreme Court then denied the federal government's stay motions. After the Fifth Circuit affirmed the injunction on the merits, the Supreme Court granted certiorari. In a 5-4 vote, the Supreme Court reversed the Fifth Circuit's decision. The litigation is ongoing on remand, where the district court agreed to stay the termination decision pending resolution of the APA claims. I developed the legal theories of the case, substantially drafted pleadings, motions, and briefs at the district court level, coordinated with Texas's counsel in filing and litigating the case in the district court, and shared significant drafting responsibilities with Texas's counsel for briefing in the Fifth Circuit and for emergency-stage, cert-stage, and merits-stage briefing in the Supreme Court.

From 2021 to 2022, I represented Missouri in its and other States' challenge to the Biden Administration's COVID-19 vaccine mandate for healthcare workers. The States contended that the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services lacked statutory authority to enact the regulation imposing the vaccine mandate under the major questions doctrine and other interpretive principles, and that the adoption of the mandate violated the Administrative Procedure Act. I led Missouri's efforts in securing a preliminary injunction at the district-court level and defeating the federal government's request for a stay pending appeal at the Eighth Circuit. After the Supreme Court took the unusual step of granting oral argument on the federal government's stay application (I briefed and argued the case on behalf of Missouri), the Court, in a 5-4 vote, granted a stay of the district court's preliminary injunction blocking the mandate. The lower courts then upheld the validity of the mandate on remand, citing the Supreme Court's decision on the stay motion, and the Supreme Court denied our petition for certiorari to review that merits decision.

In 2021, I represented Missouri officials in a suit that challenged Missouri's early exit from a federal program awarding enhanced pandemic unemployment benefits under the CARES Act. After a hearing, the trial court denied the plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction, finding that the plaintiffs had failed to show a likelihood of success on the merits and that the balance of harms and public interest favored the Governor's policy decision to promote workforce reentry. Following the expiration of the benefits and the Biden Administration's decision to not extend them, the defendants moved to dismiss the suit as moot, which the trial court granted and entered final judgment. The plaintiffs did not appeal the judgment. I handled all hearings and drafted all motions, briefs, and proposed orders that the trial court would eventually adopt as its own.

a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

If confirmed, I will recuse in any litigation in which I have been involved. I also will evaluate any other real or potential conflict, or relationship that could give rise to the appearance of a conflict, on a case-by-case basis and determine appropriate actions with the advice of parties and their counsel, including recusal where necessary.

b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If confirmed, I will carefully review and address any real or potential conflicts by reference to 28 U.S.C. § 455, Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, and any and all laws, rules, and practices governing such circumstances.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged.” Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

While in private practice, I provided pro bono legal services. For example, from 2019 to 2020, I provided pro bono services to Kevin Strickland by performing legal research, pursuing investigative leads, and drafting a habeas corpus petition. In 2021, a Missouri trial judge exonerated Mr. Strickland, who had spent 43 years in prison, and ordered his release. From 2023 to 2024, I was counsel of record for a coalition of eleven state secretaries of state, who submitted an amicus brief before the United States Supreme Court in Trump v. Anderson, 601 U.S. 100 (2024), challenging Colorado’s removal of President Trump from the 2024 ballot.

Having been in government service for most of my career, I have generally been precluded from providing pro bono legal services. Accordingly, I have found other ways to positively contribute to my community beyond my public service. I try to perform as much educational work as possible. I speak at law schools and bar associations, volunteer my time helping moot attorneys who are arguing before appellate courts, and mentor young students and lawyers.

26. Selection Process:

a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

In December 2024, I contacted the offices of Senators Josh Hawley and Eric Schmitt seeking consideration for federal court vacancies in Missouri. Senator Hawley’s staff interviewed me in January 2025 in Washington, D.C. I also spoke to members of Senator Hawley’s judicial advisory committee.

In November 2025, an official from the White House Counsel’s Office invited me for an interview. In December 2025, I interviewed with attorneys from the White House Counsel’s Office and the Department of Justice’s Office of Legal Policy at the Eisenhower Executive Office Building.

In May 2026, and following Judge Greg Kays’s announcement that he would take senior status on the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri, an official from the White House Counsel’s Office contacted me and asked if I wanted to be considered for this vacancy. I confirmed my interest. In June 2026, Senators Hawley’s and Schmitt’s offices interviewed me in Washington, D.C. In July 2026, I was notified by the White House Counsel’s Office that I was still under consideration. Since then, I have been in contact with officials from the White House Counsel's Office and the Office of Legal Policy regarding the nomination.

On August 20, 2026, President Trump called to inform me that he planned on nominating me for a position on the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri.

b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
