RE: Nomination of Antonio Pozos to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania

Dear Chairman Grassley and Ranking Member Durbin:

We write to express our unequivocal and enthusiastic support for the confirmation of Antonio Pozos to serve as a jurist on the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

We are current and former members of the University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School Inn of Court, which is part of the American Inns of Court.[1] The Inn is a non-partisan association of lawyers, judges, legal academics, and law students from all levels and backgrounds who share a passion for professional excellence and the rule of law. The Inn hosts multiple dinners and continuing legal education (CLE) programs throughout the year, providing its membership with the opportunity to meet outside the courtroom or office to discuss legal practice, ethics, and principles.

Tony has been an outstanding member of our Inn. He embodies all the principles the Inn works to advance: professionalism, ethics, civility, and excellence in the legal community. Tony lends his brilliant mind to our robust legal discussions and CLE programs and engages warmly with friends and strangers alike over dinner. He always makes a concerted effort to connect with our law students every year to welcome them into our profession as they begin their legal careers.

We are lucky to count Tony as a member of our Inn and look forward to the day that his membership reflects the change in his position from lawyer to jurist. We are confident that everything else about him will remain exactly the same. The Eastern District of Pennsylvania will
