b. The American Bar Association's Commentary to its Code of Judicial Conduct states that it is inappropriate for a judge to hold membership in any organization that invidiously discriminates on the basis of race, sex, or religion, or national origin. Indicate whether any of these organizations listed in response to 11a above currently discriminate or formerly discriminated on the basis of race, sex, religion or national origin either through formal membership requirements or the practical implementation of membership policies. If so, describe any action you have taken to change these policies and practices.

To the best of my knowledge, none of the organizations listed above currently discriminates or formerly discriminated (with the exception noted below) on the basis of race, sex, religion, or national origin, either through formal membership requirements or the practical implementation of membership policies. The exception is that in the past, the Heathcote Association (my homeowner's association), formally restricted membership to men, though that has not been the actual practice since I became a member and, as I understand it, for several decades. When I became President of the Association in 2022, I led a project to update the Heathcote Association's bylaws, including to remove any such formal restrictions on membership.

12. Published Writings and Public Statements:

a. List the titles, publishers, and dates of books, articles, reports, letters to the editor, editorial pieces, or other published material you have written or edited, including material published only on the Internet. Supply copies of all published material to the Committee.

13. Judicial Office: State (chronologically) any judicial offices you have held, including positions as an administrative law judge, whether such position was elected or appointed, and a description of the jurisdiction of each such court.

I have not held judicial office.

a. Approximately how many cases have you presided over that have gone to verdict or judgment? _____

i. Of these cases, approximately what percent were:

jury trials: _____%

ii. Of these cases, approximately what percent were:

civil proceedings: _____%

b. Provide citations for all opinions you have written, including concurrences and dissents.

c. For each of the 10 most significant cases over which you presided, provide: (1) a capsule summary of the nature of the case; (2) the outcome of the case; (3) the name and contact information for counsel who had a significant role in the trial of the case; and (4) the citation of the case (if reported) or the docket number and a copy of the opinion or judgment (if not reported).

d. For each of the 10 most significant opinions you have written, provide: (1) citations for those decisions that were published; (2) a copy of those decisions that were not published; and (3) the names and contact information for the attorneys who played a significant role in the case.

e. Provide a list of all cases in which certiorari was requested or granted.

f. Provide a brief summary of and citations for all of your opinions where your decisions were reversed by a reviewing court or where your judgment was affirmed with significant criticism of your substantive or procedural rulings. If any of the opinions listed were not officially reported, provide copies of the opinions.

g. Provide a description of the number and percentage of your decisions in which you issued an unpublished opinion and the manner in which those unpublished opinions are filed and/or stored.

h. Provide citations for significant opinions on federal or state constitutional issues, together with the citation to appellate court rulings on such opinions. If any of the opinions listed were not officially reported, provide copies of the opinions.

i. Provide citations to all cases in which you sat by designation on a federal court of appeals, including a brief summary of any opinions you authored, whether majority, dissenting, or concurring, and any dissenting opinions you joined.

14. Recusal: If you are or have been a judge, identify the basis by which you have assessed the necessity or propriety of recusal (If your court employs an "automatic" recusal system by which you may be recused without your knowledge, please include a general description of that system.) Provide a list of any cases, motions or matters that have come before you in which a litigant or party has requested that you recuse yourself due to an asserted conflict of interest or in which you have recused yourself sua sponte. Identify each such case, and for each provide the following information:

I have not held judicial office.

- a. whether your recusal was requested by a motion or other suggestion by a litigant or a party to the proceeding or by any other person or interested party; or if you recused yourself sua sponte;
- b. a brief description of the asserted conflict of interest or other ground for recusal;
- c. the procedure you followed in determining whether or not to recuse yourself;
- d. your reason for recusing or declining to recuse yourself, including any action taken to remove the real, apparent or asserted conflict of interest or to cure any other ground for recusal.

15. Public Office, Political Activities and Affiliations:

a. List chronologically any public offices you have held, other than judicial offices, including the terms of service and whether such positions were elected or appointed. If appointed, please include the name of the individual who appointed you. Also, state chronologically any unsuccessful candidacies you have had for elective office or unsuccessful nominations for appointed office.

District Leader, Republican Party, Scarsdale, New York (approximately 1995 – 1998). I recall that the position was elected but have been unable to obtain any records.

b. List all memberships and offices held in and services rendered, whether compensated or not, to any political party or election committee. If you have ever held a position or played a role in a political campaign, identify the particulars of the campaign, including the candidate, dates of the campaign, your title and responsibilities.

Election Monitoring Volunteer, Bloomberg for Mayor of New York City (Nov. 6, 2001)

President, Princeton College Republicans (1999 – 2000)

Campaign Assistant, Westchester County Republican Committee (Summer 1997 – Summer 1998)

16. Legal Career: Answer each part separately.

a. Describe chronologically your law practice and legal experience after graduation from law school including:

i. whether you served as clerk to a judge, and if so, the name of the judge, the court and the dates of the period you were a clerk;

From 2003 to 2004, I served as a law clerk to the Honorable Samuel A. Alito, Jr. of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

From 2006 to 2007, I served as a law clerk to the Honorable Samuel A. Alito, Jr. of the U.S. Supreme Court.

ii. whether you practiced alone, and if so, the addresses and dates;

I have not practiced alone.

iii. the dates, names and addresses of law firms or offices, companies or governmental agencies with which you have been affiliated, and the nature of your affiliation with each;

Partner (2012 – present)

iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have not served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute proceedings.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

I have a broad based litigation, appellate, and advisory practice. My work has focused mainly on complex litigation, arbitration, and government investigations in the areas of securities law, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, antitrust, bank regulation, contracts, constitutional law, administrative law, and general commercial litigation. I have counseled on a small number of criminal matters as well. I regularly analyze for clients the impact that new laws, regulations, and judicial opinions have on their businesses. I have also maintained a pro bono practice. Since 2012, I have had responsibilities for internal ethics questions within Sullivan & Cromwell.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

My typical clients have included corporations, financial institutions, individuals, and trade associations. I do not consider myself to have specialized with one particular type of client or in any one particular area of law.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

Depending on the year, approximately two-thirds to three-quarters of my client work has been in litigation. I appear frequently in federal and state courts on briefs and from time to time to present oral argument. I also appear in arbitration from time to time.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1.	federal courts:	60%
2.	state courts of record:	40%
3.	other courts:	0%
4.	administrative agencies:	0%

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1.	civil proceedings:	95%
2.	criminal proceedings:	5%

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I was part of the trial team that tried the damages retrial phase of Saint Jean v. Emigrant Bank, 11-cv-02122-SJ (E.D.N.Y.).

I was part of a team that tried a confidential arbitration to judgment.

i. What percentage of these trials were:

- | | |
|--------------|------|
| 1. jury: | 100% |
| 2. non-jury: | 0% |

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

1. People of the State of New York v. President Donald J. Trump, No. 2025-00648 (App. Div. 1st Dep't) (Representation: 2025 – present).

I am a member of the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP team representing President Trump in seeking to overturn on appeal his 2024 conviction in this case. The representation involves seeking (i) removal of the case to federal court under the Federal Officer Removal Statute, and (ii) if the case removal is not granted, simultaneously appealing the conviction through the New York state court system. The Second Circuit recently remanded President Trump's removal motion to the Southern District of New York (Hellerstein, J.) for reconsideration. New York v. Trump, 158 F.4th 458 (2d Cir. Nov. 6, 2025) (per curiam) (Lohier, Carney, Pérez, JJ.). I played a central role in this litigation, developing the legal strategy and drafting briefs and motions in state and federal courts. The state appeal and federal district court litigation remain pending.

I am a member of the team representing President Trump, Donald Trump Jr., Eric Trump, and various entities within the Trump Organization in appealing the decision by a New York State trial court finding them liable for allegedly inflating assets on their financial statements and awarding the State over $464 million in disgorgement and injunctive relief. At the intermediate appellate level, the disgorgement award was reversed and, even though three judges voted to either reverse or vacate the remainder of the trial court's decision, the remainder of the decision was affirmed in decretal. The case is now on appeal to the New York Court of Appeals.

I was a member of the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP team that represented Tesla in its successful appeal of a judgment from the Delaware Court of Chancery voiding Elon Musk's $50 billion all-incentive compensation package and awarding the plaintiff's counsel $345 million in fees. On appeal, the Delaware Supreme Court reversed the Chancery Court's voiding of the compensation package and reduced the plaintiff's attorneys' fees to $54.5 million. *In re Tesla, Inc. 4. Saint-Jean v. Emigrant Mortg. Co., 22-cv-3094 (2d Cir.) (Judges Park, Robinson, Chin) (Representation: 2017 – present).

I am a member of the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP team representing Emigrant Bank and Emigrant Mortgage Company in an action brought by various borrowers alleging disparate treatment and disparate impact discrimination under the Fair Housing Act and

New York State and City laws, as well as violations of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act. S&C joined the case after the liability was determined at the district court, and appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit on various grounds, including on statute of limitations and improper jury instructions grounds. I argued the appeal, which Emigrant lost 2-1. Saint-Jean v. Emigrant Mortg. Co., 129 F.4th 124 (2d Cir. 2025), cert. denied, No. 25-229, 2026 WL 79895 (U.S. Jan. 12, 2026). Emigrant petitioned for certiorari (2025 WL 2491762), including on the ground that the Court should overrule the disparate impact doctrine under Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs v. Inclusive Communities Project, Inc., but the petition was denied. Emigrant Mortg. Co. v. Saint-Jean, No. 25-229, 2026 WL 79895 (U.S. Jan. 12, 2026).

5. State ex rel. Slatery v. Volkswagen Aktiengesellschaft, 2018-cv-00791 (Tenn. Ct. App.) (Judges Clement Jr., Bennett, Dinkins) (Representation: 2017 – 2021).

I was a member of the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP team that defended Volkswagen AG against nationwide lawsuits brought by numerous states and counties alleging that Volkswagen diesel cars violated state and local environmental laws. We argued that these claims were preempted by the federal Clean Air Act. I argued in state trial and intermediate appellate courts in Ohio and Tennessee, and in state court in Missouri. I also helped draft the principal appellate briefs (e.g., 2019 WL 2618308, 2018 WL 4491621). We received split decisions among the courts and the question has not been resolved by the U.S. Supreme Court yet. State ex rel. Slatery v. Volkswagen Aktiengesellschaft, 2019 WL 1220836 (Tenn. Ct. App. Mar. 13, 2019); Volkswagen Aktiengesellschaft v. Ohio, 142 S. Ct. 515 (2021).

I was a member of the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP team defending Goldman Sachs from separate claims by various plaintiffs concerning their purchases of auction rates securities, for which Goldman Sachs was the broker-dealer. I argued successfully in the U.S. Courts of Appeal for the Second and Ninth Circuits that a contractual forum selection specifying federal court overrides default broker-dealer rules requiring claims to be heard in FINRA arbitration. See Goldman, Sachs & Co. v. Golden Empire Schs. Fin. Auth., 764 F.3d 210 (2d Cir. 2014). I also argued successfully in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit to preserve a motion to dismiss decision.

I was a member of the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP team that sued the City of New York on behalf of the New York Bankers Association to invalidate the so-called “Responsible Banking Act,” under which New York City would only deposit its money at banks that complied with the City’s requirements for lending information and practices. We successfully convinced the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York (Failla, J.) to strike down the law as preempted by federal and state banking laws. See New York Bankers Ass'n, Inc. v. City of New York, 119 F. Supp. 3d 158 (S.D.N.Y. 2015). I assisted with developing the legal strategy and writing briefs and motions.

I was a member of the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP team that represented UBS AG in defending against a securities class action seeking billions of dollars in damages. We prevailed at both the trial and appellate levels in establishing that the U.S. securities laws do not cover transactions made outside the United States and also in strengthening securities defendants' positions on issues like the duty to disclose. See City of Pontiac Policemen's & Firemen's Ret. Sys. v. UBS AG, 752 F.3d 173 (2d Cir. 2014). I assisted with developing the legal strategy and writing briefs and motions.

9. Allen v. Credit Suisse Sec. (USA) LLC, 16-cv-3327 (L), 16-cv-3571 (CON) (Judges Jacobs, Leval, Raggi) (Representation: 2016 – 2018)

This case was part of a series of cases concerning the foreign currency exchange ("FX") market. This particular case was a putative class action brought against twelve banks and affiliates alleging breach of ERISA fiduciary duties in connection to FX market transactions. I was a member of the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP team that represented Barclays PLC et al., during plaintiffs' appeal from the Southern District of New York's (Schofield, J.) dismissal for failure to state a claim under Rule 12(b)(6). I assisted with developing the appellate strategy, drafting defendants' principal appellate brief (2017 WL 959034), and participated in oral argument before the Second Circuit. The Second Circuit unanimously affirmed the district court's judgements of dismissal. Allen v. Credit Suisse Sec. (USA) LLC, 895 F.3d 214, 228 (2d Cir. 2018).

10. Grants Pass v. Johnson, No. 23-175 (U.S. Supreme Court) (Representation: 2023 – 2024).

This case concerned the constitutionality of municipal ordinances that imposed fines for sleeping or camping in particular public places. I am a member of the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP team that authored an amicus brief on behalf of Professor John F. Stinneford of Florida Levin College of Law. We argued that the ordinances at issue did not violate the Eighth Amendment as originally understood. The amicus brief (2024 WL 1008641) traced the historical tradition of vagrancy laws and the original public meaning of the Eighth Amendment's Cruel and Unusual Punishments Clause. The Supreme Court cited the amicus brief in upholding the ordinance in a 6-3 decision. See Grants Pass v. Johnson, 603 U.S. 520, 543 (2024).

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

In addition to the matters described above, I have dedicated a significant portion of my practice to advising on the rules of professional conduct for lawyers, including helping issue bar association opinions interpreting the New York Rules of Professional Conduct and proposing changes to those rules. Recently, that work has involved considering the professional ethical issues raised by the advent of artificial intelligence.

In addition, I am regularly asked by clients to advise on the impact on their businesses of new legislation, regulation, and court and regulatory decisions.

I have never acted or registered as a lobbyist.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide copies to the committee.

I have not taught any courses.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

Pursuant to the Sullivan & Cromwell LLP Group Defined Benefit Plan for Partners, I am eligible to receive monthly lifetime retirement payments from the firm at age 55. If confirmed by the Senate, I will remain a participant in this defined benefit plan but will not be entitled to benefits prior to that age (approximately 8 years from now). I also am a participant in the Retirement Plan of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP (a defined contribution plan), which, if confirmed by the Senate, I will transfer the balance from Sullivan & Cromwell LLP to an independent financial institution at the earliest possible opportunity. I also expect to receive a return of capital in Sullivan & Cromwell LLP.

I have no arrangements in the future to be compensated for any financial or business interest.

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

I do not have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during any service with the court.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached Financial Disclosure Statement.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

If confirmed and commissioned, I will recuse myself from any litigation in which I have personally been involved. I will also evaluate any other real or potential conflicts, or relationships that could give rise to the appearance of conflict, on a case-by-case basis, and determine appropriate actions with the advice of parties and their counsel, including recusal where necessary and/or appropriate.

b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If confirmed and commissioned, I will carefully review and address any real or potential conflicts by reference to 28 U.S.C. § 455, Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, and any and all laws, rules, practices, and cases governing such circumstances.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

Throughout my time at Sullivan & Cromwell LLP I have been a member of the New York Presbyterian Hospital Wills Clinic, through which I have provided the pro bono services of drafting and executing wills, powers of attorney, and health care proxies for patients with HIV/AIDS. I have also represented clients in religious discrimination and religious liberty cases, including submitting various amicus briefs on those topics. In addition, I have represented law professors in filing amicus briefs on issues concerning the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution and securities laws.

26. Selection Process:

a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

On March 3, 2026, I received an email from the White House Counsel's office regarding a vacancy on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. On March 3, 2026, an official from the White House Counsel's Office contacted me to arrange an interview for the position of Circuit Judge on the Second Circuit. On March 12, 2026, I interviewed with employees from the White House Counsel's Office and the Department of Justice's Office of Legal Policy at the White House. On April 10, 2026, President Trump called to inform me that he would nominate me to the Second Circuit. That same day, President Trump publicly announced his intent to nominate me.

Throughout this process I have been in periodic contact with officials from the White House Counsel's Office and the Office of Legal Policy at the Department of Justice.

b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
