Throughout my 33-year career as a police officer, I have dedicated a significant amount of time and energy toward the goals of many groups and organizations including Special Olympics of Maine, our local Maine Police Athletic League (PAL) Organization, and many other charitable causes along the way. A large part of our work in municipal policing involved direct community contact and mentoring of youth through a variety of community-based scenarios, like Movie Nights, which were held many times for many years during the summer months, Halloween Trunk or Treat events, and Memorial Rides and Runs, etc.

I also played hockey for my entire career on our Lewiston Police Department's hockey club. Through that, I played in countless tournaments, all of which had a component of monetary donation toward various selected causes such as the Dempsey Center of Lewiston (assistance to those impacted by Cancer), the ASPCA (Maine Animal Coalition), Boys and Girls Club of Lewiston and Auburnthe Sexual Assault Crisis Center, Safe Voices, among many others.

Additionally, the Lewiston Police Department has its own Community Resource Team which promotes many of the previously mentioned organizations and others.
