I have been a volunteer coach for at-risk youth for many years, the majority of that time coaching football. I started coaching with the “Paul Young Football League” in Muskogee in the 90’s. We would pick underprivileged children up from housing projects and transport them to and from practices and games. This led to eventually coaching at the high school. I have also attended and assisted with Special Olympics programs in Muskogee. Events such as Cops and Kids Christmas shopping for underprivileged children, as well as Camp Out for Kids events collecting toys for the Salvation Army. I have also been involved with the “Walk a Mile in Her Shoes” events to bring awareness to domestic violence. Additionally, I have also volunteered for many church camps and youth mission trips.
