Re: Nomination of Roy Altman as District Judge, United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida

Dear Chairman Grassley and Ranking Member Feinstein,

We write to you and to the Members of the Committee in support of the nomination of Roy Altman to be a District Judge on the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. We are members of the defense bar in the Southern District of Florida and many of us have had the opportunity to litigate cases against Mr. Altman when he served as an AUSA.

We join this letter together to support Mr. Altman's nomination, because we believe him to be highly qualified to serve as a District Judge.

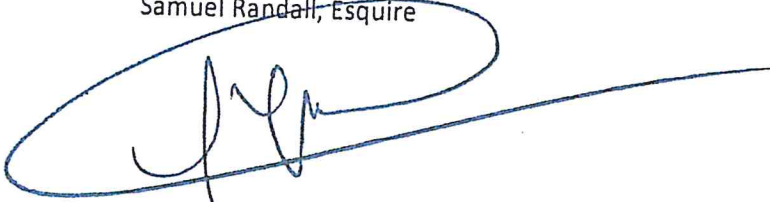

We know Mr. Altman both through personal and professional interactions, as well as by reputation, and as a result we have great respect for his intellect, his work ethic, his talent as a litigator, and his sense of fairness.

A District Judge should be smart, hard-working, respectful and courteous to those that appear before them as litigants, and – above all else – fair. We know that Mr. Altman possessed each of these qualities as an Assistant United States Attorney, and we are confident that he will bring these qualities with him to the District Court.

In our view, Mr. Altman is eminently qualified to serve as a District Judge on the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. We appreciate your consideration of our views.

Sincerely yours,
