Between 2000 and 2009, I appeared on five or more occasions on a local TV program, "Your Turn – Kathy Fountain Call-In Show." Viewers would call or email comments to the panel for discussion. My comments were typically on general law issues in the news. I have no notes, transcripts, or recordings, beyond the transcript supplied for the July 16, 2009 appearance above.

13. Judicial Office: State (chronologically) any judicial offices you have held, including positions as an administrative law judge, whether such position was elected or appointed, and a description of the jurisdiction of each such court.

I have not served as a judge or held judicial office. As part of my bar service, I served on the Attorney Disciplinary Committee for my circuit from 1993 until 1996. This board reviews disciplinary complaints against lawyers and investigates attorney discipline and misconduct. The board does not try cases or conduct adjudications. The proceedings were confidential like a grand jury. There are no records extant from my service in this capacity. I do not recall any of the matters with any detail.

- a. Approximately how many cases have you presided over that have gone to verdict or judgment? _____

- i. Of these, approximately what percent were:

jury trials:	_____ %
bench trials:	_____ % [total 100%]
civil proceedings:	_____ %
criminal proceedings:	_____ % [total 100%]

- b. Provide citations for all opinions you have written, including concurrences and dissents.
- c. For each of the 10 most significant cases over which you presided, provide: (1) a capsule summary of the nature the case; (2) the outcome of the case; (3) the name and contact information for counsel who had a significant role in the trial of the case; and (3) the citation of the case (if reported) or the docket number and a copy of the opinion or judgment (if not reported).
- d. For each of the 10 most significant opinions you have written, provide: (1) citations for those decisions that were published; (2) a copy of those decisions that were not published; and (3) the names and contact information for the attorneys who played a significant role in the case.

- e. Provide a list of all cases in which certiorari was requested or granted.
 - f. Provide a brief summary of and citations for all of your opinions where your decisions were reversed by a reviewing court or where your judgment was affirmed with significant criticism of your substantive or procedural rulings. If any of the opinions listed were not officially reported, provide copies of the opinions.
 - g. Provide a description of the number and percentage of your decisions in which you issued an unpublished opinion and the manner in which those unpublished opinions are filed and/or stored.
 - h. Provide citations for significant opinions on federal or state constitutional issues, together with the citation to appellate court rulings on such opinions. If any of the opinions listed were not officially reported, provide copies of the opinions.
 - i. Provide citations to all cases in which you sat by designation on a federal court of appeals, including a brief summary of any opinions you authored, whether majority, dissenting, or concurring, and any dissenting opinions you joined.
14. Recusal: If you are or have been a judge, identify the basis by which you have assessed the necessity or propriety of recusal (If your court employs an "automatic" recusal system by which you may be recused without your knowledge, please include a general description of that system.) Provide a list of any cases, motions or matters that have come before you in which a litigant or party has requested that you recuse yourself due to an asserted conflict of interest or in which you have recused yourself sua sponte. Identify each such case, and for each provide the following information:

I have not served as a judge or held judicial office.

- a. whether your recusal was requested by a motion or other suggestion by a litigant or a party to the proceeding or by any other person or interested party; or if you recused yourself sua sponte;
 - b. a brief description of the asserted conflict of interest or other ground for recusal;
 - c. the procedure you followed in determining whether or not to recuse yourself;
 - d. your reason for recusing or declining to recuse yourself, including any action taken to remove the real, apparent or asserted conflict of interest or to cure any other ground for recusal.
15. Public Office, Political Activities and Affiliations:

- a. List chronologically any public offices you have held, other than judicial offices, including the terms of service and whether such positions were elected or appointed. If appointed, please include the name of the individual who appointed you. Also, state chronologically any unsuccessful candidacies you have had for elective office or unsuccessful nominations for appointed office.

I have not held elective office and have not been a candidate for elective office. I was nominated in July 2008 by President George W. Bush to be a United States District Judge. In 2016, I was nominated by President Barack Obama to be a United States District Judge. Both of these nominations expired when Congress adjourned before my nomination was set for hearing.

- b. List all memberships and offices held in and services rendered, whether compensated or not, to any political party or election committee. If you have ever held a position or played a role in a political campaign, identify the particulars of the campaign, including the candidate, dates of the campaign, your title and responsibilities.

I have never played a role in a political campaign, but I served on the Hillsborough County Republican Central Executive Committee from approximately 1998 to 2002.

On May 15, 2009, I co-hosted a (non-fundraising) reception in Tampa for U.S. Senate candidate Dan Gelber, who later ran for Florida Attorney General rather than U.S. Senate.

16. Legal Career: Answer each part separately.

- a. Describe chronologically your law practice and legal experience after graduation from law school including:

- i. whether you served as clerk to a judge, and if so, the name of the judge, the court and the dates of the period you were a clerk;

I served as a law clerk to Judge Gerald Bard Tjoflat on the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, from 1983 to 1984.

I served as a law clerk to then-Associate Justice William H. Rehnquist on the United States Supreme Court from 1984 to 1985.

- ii. whether you practiced alone, and if so, the addresses and dates;

I have not practiced alone.

- iii. the dates, names and addresses of law firms or offices, companies or governmental agencies with which you have been affiliated, and the nature of your affiliation with each.

- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have served as an arbitrator in one case. This was a dispute in Hillsborough County, Florida involving two commercial home builders. The main issues involved the terms of a corporate "break up" or dissolution of the parties' business. The arbitration was connected to an ancillary civil law suit, Number 09-CA-028359 (Fla. 13th Circuit).

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

From 1985 to 1987, I was a litigation associate at Carlton Fields in Tampa. I co-tried one jury trial in circuit court, a "slip and fall" at a Holiday Inn where the plaintiff received a surgical L-4 disc removal, and was seeking damages. I briefed and argued one appeal before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. My duties involved general commercial litigation, depositions, and discovery.

From 1987 to 1993, I was a federal prosecutor in the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida. I conducted grand jury investigations and presentations, tried nearly 40 felony jury trials, and handled appeals in the Eleventh Circuit.

From 1993 to 2000, I was a partner with Anthony K. Black. We conducted all types of litigation, trials and appeals. Our practice was fairly evenly split between criminal and civil. On the civil side, it was primarily defense oriented, but we did some commercial and personal injury plaintiff's work as well. In civil cases, we represented everybody from small local businesses to the Florida Power Corporation.

Since 2000, I have been a partner in Jung and Sisco, P.A. My work comes mainly from referrals by other lawyers. It is all litigation, and is assorted. Nearly half of the practice is commercial civil litigation involving, frequently, attorney malpractice defense cases. The other side of my practice is comprised of criminal defense. This practice is almost exclusively federal, although my partner does quite a bit of state court work.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

As a litigation associate from 1985 to 1987, my clients were generally commercial entities, such as real estate companies and banks. As a federal prosecutor from 1987 to 1993, I represented the United States in criminal cases. As a partner at Black & Jung, P.A. from 1993 to 2000, my clients included small local businesses and large corporations on the civil side, and on the criminal side, various clients, such as health care executives and business persons. Since 2000, my civil litigation clients are assorted. A good portion of my civil practice has been defending lawyers in malpractice cases. The criminal defense clients are often lawyers, physicians, employees of large corporations, or companies themselves. Almost all of my work comes from lawyers referring cases, or the clients are lawyers themselves.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

I appear regularly and routinely in court for clients. When I was a federal prosecutor, it was often daily. Now, I still appear in court, but less frequently.

i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| 1. federal courts: | 80% |
| 2. state courts of record: | 20% |
| 3. other courts: | 0% |
| 4. administrative agencies: | 0% |

ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| 1. civil proceedings: | 40% |
| 2. criminal proceedings: | 60% |

d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I have tried approximately 48 cases to verdict or judgment. I was lead counsel in almost all of them. I was second chair in one or two of them, and was co-counsel in perhaps two or three.

i. What percentage of these trials were:

- | | |
|--------------|-----|
| 1. jury: | 95% |
| 2. non-jury: | 5% |

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

Throughout my career, I have filed several petitions for writ of certiorari, which were all denied. I do not have records of every petition I filed, but I was able to find the following case through searching on the internet:

Petition for Writ of Certiorari, Brown v. Uniroyal, Inc., 118 S. Ct. 339 (1997) (No. 97-394). Copies available at 1997 WL 33557217.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

1. United States v. Farley, et al., No. 15cr133 (M.D. Fla.)

This was an environmental crimes case I defended before Judge Richard Lazzara in the Tampa U.S. District courthouse. The United States filed the indictment in 2015, and my representation ended in 2017. I was the sole counsel for a foreman of a large renovation project involving condominium towers adjacent to the Tropicana baseball dome in St. Petersburg. The indictment alleged that my client and the project owner criminally violated the Clean Air Act by, basically, handling asbestos demolition in a reckless manner – several felonies were charged. This case involved 85,000 pages of discovery. There were multiple experts. Although the case is still pending for others, I was able to accomplish a misdemeanor plea for my client and a sentence of probation.

2. United States v. Farha, et al., No. 08-cr-115-JMS (M.D. Fla.)

This was a criminal jury trial in Tampa's U.S. District Court that stretched from February 2013 to June 2013 before U.S. District Judge James Moody, Jr. after two years of preparation. It was a Medicaid fraud case colloquially known as "Wellcare," the name of the large healthcare company where the defendants worked. I was lead counsel for Wellcare's Director of Medical Economics. Like many health care prosecutions, this case involved a cooperating witness. This person recorded 680 hours of undercover "body bug" recordings so simply reviewing that material, and the three terabytes of discovery produced by the Government, was time-consuming. There were five defendants in the indictment; four went to trial after the fifth defendant was severed for health reasons. In the indictment, the clients were not charged with over-billing, but were charged with overstating costs to reduce a refund obligation.

My client was convicted of the two smallest non-fraud counts, albeit felonies. He was acquitted via verdict or hung jury (and subsequent dismissal) of the other ten counts against him. My client received a sentence of probation, with no prison term. The remaining trial defendants received prison sentences ranging from 12 to 36 months.

3. United States v. Ross, et al., No. 4:10-cr-201 (S.D. Tex.)

My client was the human resources director for a large pallet/container company. I was lead counsel for this defendant, who was charged with two broad-ranging felonies. When Immigration and Customs Enforcement raided the company's 50 plants, a large number of laborers were found to be undocumented workers. Through motion practice we succeeded in reducing the case in impact, and the District Judge (Hon. Gray Miller) ruled against the Government on several pretrial motions. The case was aided by a venue transfer motion I filed, which took the case out of the indicting venue of the Northern District of New York, and sent the case to the venue of the Southern District of Texas, in Houston. Approximately ten employees pled guilty and my client was one of five who went to trial in late 2011. We were about to begin jury selection when the Government permitted each defendant to plead guilty to a no-jail, no-probation petit misdemeanor.

4. United States v. Singer, et al., No. 9:05cr928 (D.S.C.)

This was a case in the U.S. District Court of South Carolina involving “Medical Manager” software and alleged accounting fraud by the publicly-traded company which sold it nationwide. I represented the indicted Assistant General Counsel. The case involved massive discovery, many tapes with my client on them, and lasted several years with many hearings before the district judge. A favorable ruling caused a key count to be dismissed. My work on the case included a day-long hearing on my motion for severance, which resulted in relocating the case for my client from South Carolina (U.S. District Judge David Norton), to Tampa (U.S. District Judge Susan Bucklew). The remaining two defendants were convicted before the federal jury in South Carolina, but U.S. District Judge Norton dismissed that case post-verdict. Our client eventually received a dismissal (in mid-2010) as well.

5. United States v. Scruggs, No. 5:08cr144 (N.D. Cal.)

I have represented four Major League Baseball players in the “steroid era” prosecutions. In Scruggs, I represented a relief pitcher who made a key portion of the case for the Government during the pre-indictment investigation, and helped cause a successful prosecution of a health care practitioner who was involved. I did not participate in the federal trial of this matter, which happened in the Northern California of California. The other steroid cases resolved short of criminal charges or grand jury involvement for my clients.

6. United States v. Whiteside, et al., No. S97-52-cr-FtM-24(d).

This was known as the "Columbia/HCA Healthcare" case, before U.S. District Judge Susan Bucklew in Tampa. I handled all aspects of this ten-week jury trial for my client, a healthcare executive. I also handled the year's discovery and motions that preceded this case. The issue was whether healthcare executives committed fraud in cost accounting for hospitals. Two defendants were convicted by the jury, one was acquitted, and the jury "hung" on my client. After the trial failed to result in the conviction of my client, the Government entered into a pre-trial diversion agreement with my client, and then dismissed his charges outright.

7. United States v. Corces, No. 92-28-Cr-T-17 (M.D. Fla.)

I was the Assistant United States Attorney prosecuting this matter, which ran from 1990 to 1993 in Tampa. In this case we prosecuted a lawyer who had bribed a state prosecutor to "fix" five criminal cases in Hillsborough County. The prosecution arose out of a narcotics "hit" murder that had been "fixed" in state court. The jury trial lasted six weeks before U.S. District Judge Elizabeth Kovachevich, in federal court in Tampa. I handled greater than half of the prosecution's case at trial, including the opening statement, the first closing argument, and most of our direct case. The jury "hung" after a lengthy deliberation when one juror held out for acquittal against 11 for conviction. The defendant was convicted in a retrial a year later after I was in private practice, and the defendant received ten years in prison.

8. United States v. Sigma International Seafood, et al., No. 85-95-Cr-T-24 (M.D. Fla.).

The issue here was the alleged importation of unwholesome seafood, and alleged obstruction by the defendants. I represented the seafood company and handled the entire 11-week jury trial before Tampa's U.S. District Judge Susan Bucklew for my client, the company. Individual defendants were also represented by their counsel at trial. The case involved massive pretrial discovery, several complex hearings, and criminal depositions in India. Although several defendants were convicted by jury, including my client, the case ended up a victory. Trial counsel, including myself, handled the several appeals. Irregular grand jury proceedings uncovered during trial resulted in adverse appellate rulings against the Government, and the case was eventually settled much later, with the individuals' charges being dropped and a win for the defense.

9. United States v. Montagu, No. 95-65-Cr-T-21(e) (M.D. Fla.)

This case involved my defense of a British peer at a jury trial before Hon. Ralph Nimmons in the U.S. District Court in Tampa. Mr. Montagu was a sitting member of the British House of Lords; his title was the Duke of Manchester. He was charged with being part of a conspiracy to swindle promoters of the Tampa Bay hockey franchise. I was sole defense counsel at the five-day jury trial. Our defense was that the more-guilty perpetrators, who were then fugitives, were using the Duke for his name. The Duke was convicted and received 31 months in prison. The case involved several trips to England, and a visit to the House of Lords to meet potential character witnesses.

10. State v. Dorrian, No. 92-F012739-A (13th Judicial Circuit)

This is the only homicide case I ever tried. A young Airman at MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa strangled his wife to death. His first trial, before I was on the case, resulted in a jury "hung" nearly unanimously in favor of second-degree murder. I became the defendant's attorney after that. At a second trial, the jury, Hon. Diane Allen presiding, found my client guilty of manslaughter.

The case involved several difficult issues. First, in order to establish manslaughter and avoid a second-degree murder conviction, the client had to testify. Further, I had to establish adequate provocation to support a manslaughter finding, yet respect the victim and acknowledge the very disturbing facts. Second, I put on a medical/toxicology expert to address a post-arrest statement. The client's mental state at that time was in issue and the expert helped address the prejudicial impact of the statement.

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

I have been active in my local, state, and federal bar associations. I served as Eleventh Circuit Editor to the ABA Appellate Practice Journal, as well as Vice President for the Eleventh Circuit Chapter of the Federal Bar Association.

I also was nominated by the Florida Bar to serve on the Judicial Nomination Commission for my Circuit. This group is ordained under the Florida Constitution to meet and send County and Circuit Court nominees to the Governor for possible appointment. My peers on that Commission elected me Vice-Chair and then Chair.

Further, the judges in the Middle District of Florida have appointed me Chair of their United States Magistrate Judge Nomination Committee for two Magistrate Judge openings recently, as well as Chair of the review panel on the re-nomination of incumbent Magistrate Judge Karla Spaulding. Before my service as Chair on those occasions, I also served as a member of the Magistrate Judge Nomination Committee one time as well.

I have never performed lobbying activities.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

I have not taught.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

None.

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

None.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached Financial Disclosure Report.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated.

If confirmed, I will recuse in any litigation where I have ever played a role. For a period of time, I anticipate recusing in all cases where my current firm represents a party. I will evaluate any other real or potential conflict, or relationship that could give rise to appearance of conflict, on a case-by-case basis and determine appropriate action, including recusal, where necessary.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If confirmed, I will follow the established practices, policies, and procedures established by the Court. I will carefully review and address any real or potential conflicts by reference to 28 U.S.C. § 455, Canon 3 of the Code of conduct for United States Judges, and any and all other laws, rules, and practices governing such circumstances.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

At any given time I usually have open one or more cases from our local pro bono office, Bay Area Legal Services. For several years I have received our Bay Area's "Have a Heart Award" for lawyering for their needy clients. I also received similar commendation letters from the Florida Supreme Court connected to this pro bono service. In 2015, I received a commendation signed by the Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court, Hon. Jorge Labarga.

Our state trial court desired to reduce the local recidivism rate by founding a "First Step Program" to support inmates who are returning to society from prison. This program has been very successful in Pinellas, Lake, and other nearby counties. The state court (Judges Menendez and Black) asked me to set it up and get it going. I did so, and serve as its first Chair. This support group pays for temporary housing, bus passes, work boots, etc. for released inmates. We spend about $600 per month on these items, with me approving the expenditures and signing the checks.

From 2004 to 2007, Senator Mel Martinez appointed me to the regional board to select his nominees to the U.S. Naval Academy. I also served on the statewide, final panel in 2007.

Outside of work, I formerly served as Scout leader for my sons' Cub Scout pack and have coached in many of the sports leagues offered by our local YMCA.

26. Selection Process:

- a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

Florida has a bi-partisan Judicial Nominating Commission that takes input from and involves both Senators. After seeing the opening on our District Court's web site, I filed an application with that Commission in July 2015. The Commission interviewed me in Orlando, Florida in August 2015. Senator Rubio interviewed me by phone on November 6, 2015, and Senator Nelson interviewed me by phone on April 25, 2016. I was then nominated to the District Court by President Obama in April 2016. After the nomination lapsed in January, 2017, Senators Nelson and Rubio kept my name for the District Court slot, and jointly recommended me to the White House by letter from both, in March 2017. I interviewed with personnel from the White House and Department of Justice in that month.

Since March, I have been in contact with officials from the Department of Justice and White House Counsel's Office about providing information for this nomination.

- b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
