Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing

ultraviolet

violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Sincerely,

Nita Chaudhary and Shaunna Thomas, Co-Founders, UltraViolet

I'm all In on this one!

—Sandra Rees, Green Valley, AZ

Please do not allow Senator Sessions to become the AG. We need a person that respects all individuals regardless of sex, color, race and sexual orientation to name a few.

—Barbara Wood, Prescott, AZ

Sessions is a fraud and an embarrassment.

—Antonio Bustamante, Phoenix, AZ

Would grabbing a male by his genitals be considered assault? If it wouldn't for women then the same should apply to men.

BE WARNED!

—Claudia Nelson, Tucson, AZ

Another disgusting Trump nominee.

—Peter Curia, Scottsdale, AZ

I am appalled that I even have to sign a petition to teach our country's potential leaders how to behave like human beings! Shame on them!

—Amy Newfeld, Gilbert, AZ

Jeff Sessions, as Attorney General, would be a turd in a punchbowl!

—Robert Van Arsdale, Green Valley, AZ

Ask Jeff sessions about sexu all assault during his confirmation hearing

—Cecilia Sagers Ponder, Mesa, AZ

What might you call it if someone grabbed your wife or daughters by the genitals?

—Austin Kirkbride, Phoenix, AZ

It is a disgrace to vote for Sessions as the nation's AG.

—Manjira Datta, Scottsdale, AZ

Stop the "crazies" I am to young to go back to the 18th century

—Beverly Neff, Phoenix, AZ

No f-ing way should this racist KKK supporter ever be US ATTY General!!

—Stew Schrauger, Prescott Valley, AZ

Rediculous!

—Gene Garrison, Sedona, AZ

As a professional counselor who specializes in domestic violence and sexual assault, I'm well aware of the necessity that anyone in charge of our national programs in this area be duly informed and unbiased. Jeff Sessions is neither and is not qualified.

—Mary Walczak, Phoenix, AZ

Why not ask Trump about his predatory actions while they are at it?

—Sawndra K, Cornville, AZ

Sexual Assault, especially Aggravated Sexual Assault should be a Capital Offense!! Anyone applying for a position in government who does NOT recognize the gravity of this crime, does not belong in government!

—Sue Shimer, Dewey, AZ

Protect Women by denying Jeff Sessions. They highest lawyer in town, ought to know the definition of assault and defend against it.

—Sandra Fischer, Mesa, AZ

Why don't you consider somebody who is a little more in tune with women's rights?

—Concepcion Elvira, Tucson, AZ

This guy is a total racists! He should not even be in government!

—Donna Meiferdt, Bullhead City, AZ

Males do not have control of a woman's body. Any male who thinks he does has the mentality of a neanderthal. Drumpf and most of his selections have the menality of neanderthals.

—Rose Hall, Wittmann, AZ

NOT HIM!!!

—Susan Rodriguez, Scottsdale, AZ

Please don't allow this man to be Attorney General for as long as he allows his little head to make decisions for his big one.

—Vanessa Estrada, Phoenix, AZ

ultraviolet

If you didnt want someone to touch you, it should be considered assault.

—Sylvia Fugmann Brongo, Cave Creek, AZ

Right is right and wrong is wrong! This is America, not a third world country!

—George Fisher, Buckeye, AZ

Please do not confirm this man to the position of AG! He is unfit for the job, an extremely poor choice.

—Lynda Hendrell, Tucson, AZ

This man is NOT qualified to be a dog catcher, let alone Attorney General.

—Harley Armentrout, Chino Valley, AZ

This man had no place in government.

—Barbara Burley, Scottsdale, AZ

How about someone grabbing you by the genitals.....oh, wait, you might consider this as endearing.....N O T
!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Amalia Benson Bodkin, Tucson, AZ

Amazing that this man was even nominated. He is not the right person for the job.

—Jaimie Bruzenak, Pine, AZ

As a survivor of sexual abuse it needs to be called out for what it is, assault.

—Barbara Eisele, Tucson, AZ

This individual's personal biases are paramount to his ability to represent the Nation.

—George Storm, Tucson, AZ

This man is a disgusting human--if he is, indeed human at all!!!

—Jean Oiler, Mesa, AZ

When will women have justice!!! Grabbing a woman's privates is assault. There isn't any wondering about it.

—Katharine Benavidez, Peoria, AZ

Don't let him evade the questions with ambivalent answers!

—Linda C Meade-Tollin, Tucson, AZ

I believe both Jeff Sessions and Donald Trump need to be educated when it comes to women and their rights. No woman should have to put up with any form of sexual abuse, no matter who the abuser is.

—Mary Helen Torres, YUMA, AZ

This man is an evil misogynist who has no business in government at all, let alone as our Attorney General. Approving his appointment will rebound against all of you who vote for him. Please make the effort to remember that women, not men, are in the majority in this country.

—Aileen Lee, Sun City, AZ

Say NO to this racist, misogynist!

—Anne Lane, Tucson, AZ

Totally Un-American Activities, where is McCarthy when we really need him?

—Peter Blankfield, Tucson, AZ

It is assault!!!

—Judith Salzman, Tucson, AZ

So, if I grabbed Jeff Sessions' crotch, that would be OK? Cool! On my way!!

—Marlene Marko, Phoenix, AZ

Really?

—Lucy Smith, Tucson, AZ

This nominee does not even appear to want to be neutral. He must never be the A-G.

—Sue E. Dean, Scottsdale, AZ

Don't confirm this enemy of women!

—Martha Campbell, Tempe, AZ

Is this guy for real??

—Barbara Dennie, Sun City, AZ

Clearly it's quite possible that Mr. Sessions is the worst of all possible people on the entire planet to be selected to this post. If Jeff Sessions gets this appointment, it would be an outrage of unimaginable proportions. This man isn't qualified to lead a girl scout troop across a side street (which I'm sure he'd enjoy doing for the worst of all reasons) let alone be Attorney General. Please stop the insanity.

—Harry Morgan, Tucson, AZ

Senator Sessions is a really poor choice for AG. Although impossible to hope for someone who takes constitutional rights seriously, we should hold out for someone who has shown that he or she can be above the fray and do the right thing.

—Elizabeth Douglas, Laveen, AZ

Sen. Sessions is not only a misogynist, he is also a racist. He is not qualified to be the Attorney General.

—Celeste Rogers, Tucson, AZ

I am a Father of Daughters. I do not trust this guy to protect them and their rights.

—Jerry Wesch, Sedona, AZ

Jeff Sessions is the last person who should be made Attorney General. He has a long record of discrimination and misogyny. It's your duty to the American people to not approve his appointment to be Attorney General

—Susan Benton, Scottsdale, AZ

I won't have a racist, trashy Attorney General that was nominated by a fellow piece of trash!

—Eleanor Navarro, Tucson, AZ

Our Attorney General needs to be someone who believes in and advocates for criminal justice rights and laws protecting sexual assault survivors.

—Sabrina Dobson, Mesa, AZ

Sessions is such a disgrace. Pin him to the wall please and do your job.

—Frederica Adkinson, Tucson, AZ

Ask Jeff Sessions about sexual assault during his confirmation hearing

—Jeryl Black, Scottsdale, AZ

Senator Session's indifference or inured indifference as to what constitutes sexual assault is a damning anecdote that condemns his legitimacy as America's Chief Attorney. Viz.: LIBERTY'S CHARGE To Freedom's beckon we rise and break away shackles of Today: Chained of debts by others' greed our families made to bear; Whilst inhumanity's claim chokes respectful breath to pay, Ensnaring naïfs' aspire in plight of penury, skin, teeth or hair. Realize "We Shall Overcome Today"; spurn injustice's stay: We're not of muck we stumble through and we mustn't quit; This pernicious rue's contrived, and wrought for Evil's sway; It entombs thru nefarious lust and perverts by fiendish writ. Whilst we might fall; righteousness calls: "get back up; Break all that manacle me to ignobility; blight them to dust: Justice: to our lips, hoist your rightly surfeited cup; Our suffering at Evil's summon dooms it's foists for trust!" Hubris reins deceit, fear and vanity by Lucre's creed; Apathy, or long-suffering obeisance here, against Wholesome's heed, is grotesque indeed. ©Copyright George Thompson, Sr. 2015

—George Thompson Sr., Phoenix, AZ

What do other attorneys say about grabbing other people by the genitals? Can we grab Sessions like that, with a hard squeeze, a 360 degree twist & a good yank?? Same as he approves.

—Yvonne Clark, Phoenix, AZ

I was 12 years old when I was sexually molested. I taught school for 30 years and had many girls suffer the same and many women friends who have also been sexually assaulted. It's past due that these crimes be dealt with in the courts and not swept under the rug.

—Janice E Mitich, Tucson, AZ

Expose all the injustice!!!

—Donna Ferguson, Phoenix, AZ

Please actually take the time to listen with respect to some women who have survived sexual assault. Step into their shoes and imagine what life is like when it is considered acceptable to touch women without their permission, and, to rape. I know it was intrusive and traumatic for me when strangers on a sidewalk grabbed my breast, or when a stranger sitting next to me on the bus deliberately rested his hand on my leg. Who says this is okay? Unless you are a woman, you don't know how prevalent this behavior is. What if it were your daughter? I felt assaulted, and obviously what I experienced is nothing to what some women have experienced. Please wake up. I ask our male legislators to imagine how you would feel if you were routinely touched on your genitals without permission while riding the bus, or, heaven forbid, you were raped as you were heading home from Congress at night. Or...if your daughter were beaten by her husband. Please aim for the high standard humanity is capable of. It takes courage to question whether what you've believed for so long about women is really okay. Please have the humility and courage to do so.

—Miriam Axelrod, t, AZ

I have two daughters, and three granddaughters who will have to depend on Jeff Sessions to protect them against sexual predators. His record says he will not do that.

—Karl Leuba, Phoenix, AZ

Do not confirm!

—Patricia Bergen, Tucson, AZ

Women NEED this protection!!! Their bodies are not for ANYONE ELSE to decide whether to grope or not!!!

—Sandy Draus, Phoenix, AZ

Please, please do NOT confirm this man.

—Corinne Beck, Green Valley, AZ

Racist Sexual Perverts DON'T CHANGE THEY GET INTO OUR GOVERNMENT

—Janice Kelsey, Coolidge, AZ

We don't need more perverts and he doesn't respect people of color!

—Ruth Perez, Tucson, AZ

Get rid of Jeff Sessions

—Sharon Visor, Chandler, AZ

Jeff Sessions has an abysmal record on all the issues that he would be dealing with as Attorney General. Reject him!

—Kerry C. Kelso, Sierra Vista, AZ

If you are clueless about what assault is, you are obviously not qualified on this topic. Get out of the way.

—Jessica Matthies, Phoenix, AZ

Sessions is the wrong person for the job!

—Chris H., Oracle, AZ

Might he object if YOU grabbed HIM by his genitals during a face-to-face in the hearing room???

—Walter Pinkus, Mesa, AZ

Senator Jeff Sessions is an abominable choice for the the office of Attorney General. He is a vile, corrupt and hateful man who stands in the way of progress.

—Edder Diaz Martinez, Phoenix, AZ

His career demonstrates many instances of poor moral character and ignorance. Please vet him well, keeping in mind he failed previous vetting.

—Karen, Young, AZ

Ask Sessions about sexual assault.

—Jerome Bresin, Surprise, AZ

Boy, am I sick and tired of having a "good old boy" defining what a woman should or should not consider OK with what happens to HER body. I DECIDE WHO CAN TOUCH ME AND WHERE!!!!!!

—Ms. Ann-Louise Truschel, Buckeye, AZ

Anyone who does this without permission to a lady whom it is not in a relationship should be labeled a sex offender and this certainly should be done in public. Someone once pinched me on the butt in public and I wish I had been able to press charges because this happened in a store and the guy I was with did not even do anything about it.

—Barbara Metzelaar, Apache Junction, AZ

how many scums are we collecting in DC, I can honestly say I'm ashamed of America. so please do the right thing

Degrading women is OVER, dump Sessions.

—Anne Bassett, Jerome, AZ

As a woman, I greatly object to the appointment of Jeff Sessions as Attorney General of the United States. He is not qualified, since he does not know or understand the laws of this country.

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Sincerely,

Nita Chaudhary and Shaunna Thomas, Co-Founders, UltraViolet

We need an AG who supports sexual assault victims - not one who dismisses them.

—R Manina, San Leandro, CA

Confirm in haste, repent at leisure.

—Robert Adler, Santa Rosa, CA

If I were to grab Jeff Sessions's shriveled genitals, would he then consider it sexual assault?? Someone should ask him this very question. Send this misogynistic racist back into the shadows where he belongs.

—Sonia Wilson, Sacramento, CA

I don't like him at all. Find someone else who is not a racist bigot mesoginist.

—Carole Peterson-VanDusen, Sylmar, CA

And if MEN were sexually groped??? Put the shoe on your own foot...

—Patricia Hendricks, San Francisco, CA

Ask Sessions about his stand on sexual assault.

—Sue Vaughn, San Juan Capistrano, CA

Sexual assault OK if committed by white man?

—Ed J. Costello, Santa Monica, CA

The problem with this World we live in, is mental illness. ALL of Nature lives in balance, nothing takes more than it needs to survive. GREED and the Money Hoarders take all they can, sharing as little as possible, letting everything and everyone around them to starve. IT IS what CANCER does....providing nothing, taking all it can...GREED is a CANCER! Happiness and Contentment CAN NOT be bought, but it can be shared with everyone. I am not talking only about Money but also compassion. WE are a COMMUNITY, WE are ONE. We are all connected, when you injure or lack of involvement cause harm to others you harm EVERYONE, including yourself. WHY do you think the world IS in the situation it is IN????? The ONLY power you should SEEK, IS the power to help others. (You/we have that POWER!) It's the little things that matter. Even just a smile or a kind word can make someone's day! We need to help the mentally ill.

—Scott Moats, La Mesa, CA

I am counting on your leadership.

—Susan Swan, Carlsbad, CA

MORE BULLSHIT FROM THIS GROUP OF DIRTY OLD MEN!

—Geraldyn S. Lloyd, Yorba Linda, CA

Please ask Jeff Sessions about his positions on sexual assault and violence against women during his confirmation hearing.

—Candice Weber, Agoura Hills, CA

This man is so unfit to be in charge of our national programs on sexual assaults. Look at him, it is like going back to the '50's, same with Trump he still lives in the 50's.

—Sondra Huber, Cypress, CA

NO END TO THE HORRORS IN STORE FOR US .....

—sheila Owen, Huntington Beach, CA

—Michael Silveira, Burbank, CA

Sessions stated that he wouldn't characterize Donald Trump's boasts about grabbing women by the genitals as sexual assault. He voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013, which expanded services to survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence. He voted multiple times against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. It is IMPERATIVE for women's rights that Sessions be grilled on his abysmal record.

—Alexandra Sokoloff, San Bernardino, CA

If Sessions can't define sexual assault he shouldn't be Attorney General.

—Rick C. Armendariz, Huntington Beach, CA

This is simply not a man fit for this position. This nominee must be denied.

—Michael Mills, Sierra Madre, CA

Ask Jeff Sessions about sexual assault during his confirmation hearing

—Robert Kirschenbaum, Escondido, CA

Sexual assault must stop. We need education and stronger punishment

—Margaret Collier, Los Angeles, CA

We need someone who isn't a relic from the 19th century to be the attorney general.

—Stacey Nozaki, Palos Verdes Peninsula, CA

Jeff Sessions is not qualified! Do not confirm him as Attorney General.

—Sue Howell, Van Nuys, CA

the Attorney General should be chosen by the voters, not by president Grump

—Michael Barb, Fontana, CA

Such behavior is not acceptable! It is obviously an assault without prior consent.

—James caldwell, San Mateo, CA

Unfit to serve given his attitudes on sexual assault and actions to degrade women suffering from attacks.

—Arthur Lane, Arcadia, CA

Unacceptable.

—Paul Mithra, Ventura, CA

Heros stand with the victims of criminal acts!

—Thomas Frazee, Temecula, CA

Since this is the first time in my life I have been relegated to the unnecessary beings heap.. I intend to do all I can to upset the trash heap.. that of men are so afraid of woman's equality, that they try to lawfully denigrate us.

—Nancy Davis, Perris, CA

I am deeply offended, but scarcely surprised that a man as heinously wretched as Mr. Trump would pick someone as equally wretched as Mr. Sessions for this position.

—Kenneth Scott, Playa del Rey, CA

Sexual assault is a critical issue in our society. The AG knowledge and position on this issue must be probed and his responses seriously considered.

—Susan Kornfeld, Los Angeles, CA

Sessions' record on protecting citizens from sexual assault and domestic violence is abysmal. This is a critical issue that needs to be addressed during his confirmation hearing.

—Susan Brooks, Berkeley, CA

Most of these appointees are slimebags appointed to destroy the department they are on!

—Mary Sue Meadsm, Oakland, CA

Jeff Sessions' acceptance of this nomination sends a clear, decisive message that he does not denounce sexual assault. There is no reason to have faith that this man would do any work that would support sexual assault survivors and he should not be confirmed as our Attorney General.

—Haley Webb, Los Angeles, CA

Scary!!!

—Sandra Castro-Nguyen, Milpitas, CA

Anyone who will be in charge of programs related to sexual assault and domestic violence should have a record of actually helping those who have been victims. Sessions is NOT that person. The senate needs to know all the facts about his record before passing him through. If he becomes attorney general, it will be a very sad day for women in the US!

—Jessica Allison, Santa Rosa, CA

Senator Sessions should remain in the Senate. He is an inappropriate chose to serve as Attorney General because his record shows that he does not hold dear the precepts, principles and intent of the US Constitution and its Amendments.

—Jeremy Thomer, Berkeley, CA

This is a horrible choice and I hope the committee will put Sessions on the spot and question his judgement. See if he can take it for 11+ hours...

—Kim Paige, Berkeley, CA

This is but the tip of the iceberg. We don't need this throwback from the Jim Crow south.

—Jeffrey Rider, San Francisco, CA

Sessions is a disgusting bigot! There is no place for him in a legitimate cabinet, and he has o business on the Senate, The Civil War is over and we live by new rules now. Lynchings and the KKK are no longer a part of our everyday life. Do NOT approve him to be in the cabinet!

As a victim of sexual assault I want Sessions to speak to the issue.

—Margaret Schultz, Oakland, CA

We are counting on this Senate Committee to ask the tough questions. We need to have on the record his opinions on sexual assault, violence against women, and how he would carry out present policies.

—Jamie Mitchell, Petaluma, CA

A confirmed racist never should head the national Justice Department.

—Ayana Baltrip, San Francisco, CA

There should be no Senate consent to Jeff Sessions as AG.

—Mary Dean, Walnut Creek, CA

We need an Attorney General that we can trust to protect minorities and women. Jeff Sessions has made clear that he doesn't meet that criteria!

—Thomas D Bostick, Whittier, CA

Jeff Sessions is not qualified to be Attorney General. Surely, Mr. Trump can do better in his search for an AG, than this man whose questionable past should be reason enough to disqualify him.

—Tina Dickason, Cambria, CA

Sessions is a racist, misogynistic fascist. Expose this enemy of American democracy.

—Janis Dolnick, Sebastopol, CA

Senator Sessions is wrong for the post of AG on this and so many other issues.

—Patricia Brenner, Encino, CA

Grabbing a person, any person by the genitals is sexual assault. If Sen. Sessions doesn't understand this minimal definition of sexual assault he has no business being dog catcher never mind the Attorney General of the United States. May be think how he would feel if he was grabbed by another man.

—Kathleen Green, Tustin, CA say no to those sons of bitches.

—eathy Zeltman, Apple Valley, CA

We can not elect a man who has little to no regard for the legal rights of women and people of color to be our next Attorney General. This man cannot be trusted to protect the fundamental rights of ALL Americans.

—Hagar Scher, Berkeley, CA

This can't be allowed to happen. We need to send trump a message that he won't take us backwards without a fight.

—Alex Keir, Los Angeles, CA

Sessions is a completely inappropriate choice for Attorney General. Ask him about sexual assault during his hearing.

—Donna Wintergreen, Pacific Palisades, CA

This man has a horrible record on a host of issues. If you don't ask his record on sexual assault and domestic violence could be overlooked.

—Penelope Sallberg, Pasadena, CA

The nomination of Jeff Sessions to AG of the United States says everything about Trump's agenda. Neither one of them belong in decision-making positions in our diverse nation.

Jeff Sessions is obviously not suitable for our Attorney General, Please do not appoint him.

—Tim Miller, Sonoma, CA

As a rape survivor and one who has been harassed and grabbed by men, I am deeply concerned about Sen. Sessions' record on violence against women. I also am concerned about his record on a host of other issues, but allowing Sessions to interpret--and obstruct--the Violence Against Women Act, anti-discrimination laws, and other programs is unthinkable.

—Judith Kirk, Redwood City, CA

I would also urge Democrats and Republicans alike to vote against Mr Sessions. His selection is merely a knee jerk reaction by Trump to revert to antiquated, nay racist/misogynist/insensitive ways of yesteryear by a campaign that has promised a return to some bygone era rather than focusing on making fundamental progress. No on Mr Sessions, and at the very least grill him profusely on his intolerance in the confirmation hearings. His nomination was once killed by the Senate Judiciary Committee before, lets make sure he strikes out twice.

—Brian Janeczko, Los Angeles, CA

Get an honest answer and he won't be AG

—Doreen McCammon, Nevada City, CA

Ask Sessions about sexual assault during his confirmation hearing.

—Catherine DeMonte, Calabasas, CA

The position of Attorney General should go to someone who understands human rights and has fought to protect them as well as prosecute crime. Senator Jeff Sessions has demonstrated that he is clearly unqualified for this position.

As a survivor of sexual assault and incest, let me assure you that grabbing a woman by her genitals IS sexual assault! If this egregious lack of understanding of Sexual Assault Survivors by Senator Jeff Sessions is not thoroughly highlighted and minutely explored, then the Senate Committee on the Judiciary will be failing the American public who vote and maintain them in office. Rest assured, we will be watching these confirmation hearings and listening intently for the Sexual Assault issue, as well as Senator Session's known disregard for civil rights.

—Robin Schoenfeld, Tarzana, CA

Jeff Sessions is NOT the right person for this JOB!

—Victoria A Reed, San Diego, CA

If a man who is being considered for Attorney General isn't aware that crouch grabbing without consent is sexual assault, how can he be an Attorney General? He should be sent to law school for the next four years. Please question him, investigate and find him unworthy. He does NOT have the trust, and respect of the American people. Thank-you Melissa Peckinpah

What a POS a minority of Americans voted for! And it's proven by his cabinet picks.

—Gerald Sobel, Santa Monica, CA

What a bunch of pigs.

—J E Hammill, Los Angeles, CA

Senator Sessions has an abysmal record on many issues. He's dismissed the ACLU and NAACP as "un-American". He scorned the Voting Rights Act as "intrusive". The Republican-led Judiciary Committee rejected his for a federal judgeship 30 years ago and he hasn't evolved over the years. He voted against reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act, voted to block increased protections for females in the military from sexual assaults and has consistently voted against access to reproductive health services, even opposing funding to combat violence against clinics, which is on the rise. He voted against equal pay for women, against paycheck fairness and against raising the minimum wage, which benefits women the most. He's not the right person to be the Attorney General, a position which has so much power and discretion.

—Valeri L. Stevens, Torrance, CA

Outrageous. Rapists protecting rapists!

—Sherrill Futrell, Davis, CA

I'm survivor. I'll be happy to enlighten him on the various forms of sexual assault.

—Tracy Yates, San Diego, CA

Not so fast, folks. Choosing Senator Sessions as our next Attorney General would be, in its way, an assault on women. Don't make the politically embarrassing, vote-losing mistake of choosing him. The backlash would be...huge. Imagine the headlines. If you ever want women to vote for you again, reject Sessions.

—Mr Roger W Anderson, Pleasanton, CA

Rape has to be understood as a violence that destroys the lives of girls and women.

—Mark Wagner, Talmage, CA

As a survivor of childhood rape and prostitution, I find it unconscionable that Sen. Sessions believes in victim blaming. If that is his stance, if he will not protect his constituents, he is obligated to decline this placement and step down from politics. Should he not, I would like a personal reply by him as to how he can blame a six year old child for being sold into prostitution by her own mother because her mother was/is an addict... (Which is what happened to me.)

—Rilriia Kilurden, Stockton, CA

As one of many citizens deeply concerned about Mr Sessions' record as he moves into this most vital office, I would ask that those who participate in the hearing ask direct questions about this sensitive topic.

One thing to love about DEMOCRACY is that anybody can be elected to public office, which is why we must so very carefully and diligently every moment guard that the true intent of democracy is to protect all the people all the time from the mindsets of people like a "Jeff Sessions" who is not for the protection and freedom of all the people. But we -- the human race -- are complicated beings and must be ruled by logic and common sense AND RESPECT OF ALL OTHERS' BELIEFS AND NEEDS AND INDIVIDUALITY. IF SENATOR JEFF SESSIONS IS CONFIRMED AS OUR NEXT U.S. ATTORNEY GENERAL, that will be a LARGE CONTRIBUTION to the end of DEMOCRACY FOR ALL IN OUR COUNTRY, and there is no "democracy," unless it is for all. p.s. Putting this AG nominee in charge of our national programs on sexual assault and domestic violence makes as much sense as putting the proverbial fox in charge of guarding the henhouse. Ask this nominee what does constitute domestic violence or sexual assault and if he's willing to prosecute anyone (even a Trump supporter) who meets those standards. Also ask him if he is willing to criminally prosecute a woman who seeks an abortion (even in cases of rape or incest) and the man who caused the unintended pregnancy in the first place. These questions are on top of other concerns that I have about this AG nominee including his dismal record on voting rights and race relations, his opinions on mass deportations of undocumented workers and the Muslim ban, and whether he has concerns about Mr. Trump's conflicts of interests between his business interests and U.S. foreign policy especially in relation to Russia or China. IMHO, if this AG nominee can't provide a satisfactory answer to any of these concerns, this AG nominee should not even be voted out of committee.

Please THINK before confirming ...Is this the best person for this role ??

—Marilyn Davey, Oceanside, CA

Sen. Sessions' views on sexual assault, civil rights, women's rights, voting rights, women's equality, etc. are disqualifying for anyone who seeks to hold the office of Attorney General. The AG's office is responsible for not only upholding, but enforcing infractions against these and a large menu of other individuals' rights.

—Sandi Taylor, Citrus Heights, CA

you must ask him why he thinks it is not sexual assault. if a man grabbed his genitals, ask him if that would be sexual assault ,???

When I was 18 years old, one very early dark morning I was waiting at the neighborhood corner, by myself, for the Junior College bus to arrive. Suddenly, a man came walking from behind, grabbed at my sgenitals and pulled me to the ground. I screamed and fought him off. Luckily, he ran off when neighbor lights went on. My parents called the police and the first thing the police asked me was "Did I say or do something to attract him!" I was so mad they asked that first, rather than ask for a description of him or console me! I felt violated twice! Once by the perpetrator, and second by the police! I guess Senator Jeff Sessions would have felt that was an appropriate question to ask a victim!

I'll certainly sign your Petition and will also be forwarding it to everyone on my mailing list!! I'm a retired lawyer with many political contacts, and have been well aware of this Session's trick since the beginning. Your email is one of the most well constructed, well written and thoroughly demonstrates the vitally important details and issues that I've yet to see about this jackass! I want EVERYONE to read it! I pray to God with all of my heart that this appointment can be derailed and stopped cold, along with many other insane ideas Trump has. This is very serious business. I wish all of you the very best, will do all I can to spread the word, and only wish I could donate a huge amount to your organization to help, but unfortunately, can't do so at this time. However, I can and will make calls, forward petitions, and speak to those Republicans I know about Sessions, even though they're already well aware of him and his disturbed libido. They simply don't care. They want control of everything and know they can wrap Trump around each of their little fingers! He's about to be their puppet.

Senator Sessions is credited with referring to the Voting Rights Act as “intrusive legislation.” Please ask him why he thinks the act is intrusive legislation. Does he believe every American’s right to vote needs to be protected? What will he do to ensure that every American can vote and that their vote is accurately counted, recorded and reported? Senator Sessions is credited with labeling the ACLU and NAACP as “un-American” groups who “forced civil rights down the throats of people.” Please ask him why he thinks the ACLU and NAACP are “un-American” groups? Does he believe the civil rights of every American needs to vigorously protected and defended? Does he believe a person of color is more likely to have committed a crime than a white person? Does he believe people of color are more violent and/or dangerous? Senator Sessions voted against the Violence Against Women Act. Please ask him why? Senator Sessions opposed the McCain-Feinstein amendment on torture, which explicitly bans the CIA from using torture. Does he believe torture is an acceptable means of getting information? Does he believe that torture elicits credible information? The report accessed by clicking on the link says “No” - https://www.cgu.edu/pdf/files/s\_bos/costanzo\_effects\_of\_interrigation.pdf . Many groups are submitting questions for the committee on a range of issues, so our community needs to make sure violence against women rises as a priority for Senators. Here are just a few examples of Sen. Sessions' horrendous record the Senators can ask about: He stated that he wouldn't characterize Donald Trump's comment about grabbing women by the genitals as sexual assault.<sup>3</sup> He voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013, which expanded services to survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence.<sup>4</sup> He voted multiple times against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military.<sup>5</sup> If Sen. Sessions is appointed he will be the top law enforcement official setting the tone for how the Department of Justice deals with issues, and he will oversee programs on violence against women. Based on his record, we can't trust him to enforce these programs that, even with a supportive administration, struggle to prevent the epidemic of sexual violence in the United States.

—Eric Lipsitt, Oakland, CA

He should also be asked about voting rights.

—Emilio Verdugo, Los Angeles, CA

He should ask Trump about sexual assault/grabbing and do the opposite of what Trump says.

—Claire Jones, Hanford, CA

I am a rape survivor. Grabbing a woman by the genitals is sexual assault. What kind of lawyer are you?

—Lauren von Bemuth, Venice, CA

Where is your sense of decency? By rubber stamping Trump you are showing the world not only YOUR stupidity but you are in effect making the USA look like neanderthals! Wake up!!

—Linda Gillham, thousand Palms, CA

PLEASE do not appoint this man who has such a poor record on fighting violence against women.

—Marcia, Aptos, CA

LET'S GO GET HIM!

—Dan Dalton, Ventura, CA

Grabbing anyone being assault is obvious. Get educated.

—Nan Singh-Bowman, Ben Lomond, CA

Sessions is a reflection of the man who is Donald Trump.

—Laureen Felton, Redwood City, CA

#SacredResistance

—Susan Russell, Altadena, CA

This man should not be in politics let alone being considered for Attorney General!!

—Janie Bigham, Fresno, CA

Block Sessions!

—Sima Battaglia, Burbank, CA

Stop Sessions he is an enemy of civil rights!! Bill Vela Attorney

—Bill Vela, San Rafael, CA

Do not sign off on assault on women by confirming Sessions. AMERICAN WOMEN ARE AMERICANS.

—Anne Stone, Oakland, CA

This man is not good for our country. His past behavior says his character is acceptable AND IT IS NOT!!!! SHOW TRUMP WE REQUIRE PEOPLE WITH CHARACTER. WE ACCEPT NO ABUSERS, RACISTS OR BIG MONEY THIEVES.

—Norma Lee, Cathedral City, CA

We need a competent person

—Dr A Coronel, Torrance, CA

Senator Sessions is a morally corrupt individual who does not belong in any position of authority.

—John Hogle, Santa Clara, CA

I would be ok with him as AG if he had himself castrated before taking office.

—Ms. Judith S Anderson, Long Beach, CA

Everyone of Trumps choices are a disaster to the people of America

—Patricia Wascher-Allan, San Diego, CA

Jeff Sessions is a caveman throwback. Get someone who is current and will represent everyone failry. He cannot. He is a big and a misogynist and not even self aware enough to know it.

—Lauren Doyel, Ventura, CA

Sessions will be an enemy to women. Ask him about sexual assault, get him on the record.

—Stephanie D Jackel, Vista, CA

I am a survivor of sexual assault. Sen. Sessions is totally unacceptable to me!

—Maureen McGuire, Pacific Grove, CA

I would feel assaulted if someone grabbed me by my private parts. However my granddaughter is trained in the martial arts so I hope Sessions wouldn't be offended when she responded with a good swift kick in an assaulting males balls. Let's clarify the rules for both genders. And be fair.

—Mary R Mcdermith, Mountain View, CA

It makes sense that a man who believes he has full permission to sexually assault women would want an AG who doesn't consider sexual assault a crime. It is up to us all not to buy into this Orwellian version of legal and ethical standards; please ensure that America continues to be/become the country it was intended to be.

—Naomi Prochovnick, San Francisco, CA

Ask about sexual assault during his hearings.

—Joan thirkettle, Riverside, CA

Jeff Sessions is unfit for the position of Attorney General. He has monstrous beliefs, statements and behaviors towards women, people of color, immigrants. Perhaps his most disqualifying characteristic is his diabolical and frankly Anti-American views of U.S. Civil Rights legislation, and freedom-striving entities and organizations, their work for 60+ years. ACLU, NAACP, ADL, SPLC to name but a few. He must not be confirmed for this role. He is only being rewarded for his obsequious acolytic behavior by our new abuser-narcissist-in-chief.

—David Hackett, San Francisco, CA

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Sincerely,

Nita Chaudhary and Shaunna Thomas, Co-Founders, UltraViolet

As a survivor of childhood rape and molestation I implore congress to do better.

—Heather Trainor, Vernon Rockville, CT

Sessions is only one of the choices Trump has made who are antithetical to our American rights and values,

—Sally Bahner, Branford, CT

Grow up

—William J. Rosenfeld, Roxbury, CT

So, if Jeff Sessions thinks its okay to grab a woman by her genitals, would he be surprised if she gave him a good swift kick in his back? Would her kick be justified as self-defense as his was offensive? Would he whine or cry when he was doubled over and she went further after him?

—Sandra Myers, West Hartford, CT

Any laying of unwanted hands on anothers genitals is a crime!

—Elizabeth Greenleaf, New Haven, CT

republican scum has destroyed and looted this country. most of these cockroaches probably belong in prison, NOT in positions of "public service." the very notion of putting such lowlifes in these positions is a slap in the face to the American public. I mean just LOOK at the face of Jeff Sessions. Just LOOK for yourself.

—G Bormes, Monroe, CT

We don't need an AG whose record on sexual assault is so abysmal.

—Phyllis Nauts, West Cornwall, CT

No to Jeff Sessions.

—David Starr, Derby, CT

As him about sexual assault during your hearing.

—Ameen Abdulkareem, Norwalk, CT

This guy is awful in so many ways!!!!

—Mary D'Arcangelo, Thomaston, CT

Such disrespect for women should not be a qualification for Attorney general.

—Al Benford, Manchester, CT

If he doesn't realize that grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault he has no business being Attorney General

—Timothy Brown, New Haven, CT

This is among the many reasons Jeff Sessions should not be our Attorney General. He doesn't believe in Civil Rights, Gay Rights, anything virtually that I hold dear.

—Anne B. Kremer, Lakeville, CT

I urge the Senate to make sure that any candidate for Attorney General shows a proven commitment to protect all the citizens of this country and will not selectively enforce the laws of the nation to the detriment of those who most rely on the protection of rule of law.

—Karen Lankford, Wallingford, CT

A man who doesn't even know if grabbing a woman by the genitals is sexual assault is incompetent for the position of attorney general.

—Charles R. Enz, Torrington, CT

What message does the incoming Administration send to 1/2 of our population that females do not deserve the same protections as every one else in society?

—Michael Rosa, West Hartford, CT

This is too important. This is an issue concerning humanity. Human rights violations. It is too important to ignore. I sign even as someone who fails to see this as a political issue. I think it's a human issue. An issue of humane treatment by civilized and cultivated human beings. Human beings are not beasts. And women are not beasts of burden and blame. It's unfortunate to have to say this.

—K Sypher, Plainville, CT

Also check to make sure he has an actual license to prove he is an actual lawyer. And that he is familiar with the US constitution and is in no way connected to Russia and has no conflicts of interest. Thanks.

—Emily Melnick, Woodbridge, CT

If this man becomes Att. General, then the US becomes the basket and you become the deplorables. We will not forget what you do here.

—Michael D. Ray, Somers, CT

Sexual assault is a very important concern and must be addressed during before a final decision is made regarding Trump's pick for Attorney General. the hearing

—Lawrence Stoler, Stamford, CT

We do not need any more grabbers in Washington.

—Paul A Fleming, Enfield, CT

I believe he is unqualified for Attorney General based on his past racism record as well.

—Nancy Riella, Colchester, CT

We certainly are going backwards instead of forward. Shameful!

—Joan Durant, Mystic, CT

We need someone who knows the difference between right and wrong in this position.

—P Stacey Scott-Durso, New Britain, CT

He doesn't seem to fit the office.

—Jane Mansfield bouvier, Hamden, CT

I am counting on the representatives of 51% of the population to listen to them and ask the hard questions. In case as a Republican you are not aware of this, at least half the population is women. DO THE JOB WITH SOME INTEGRITY!!!!

—monica connor, sharon, CT

It is absolutely outrageous that Jeff Sessions is even being considered. This is an insult to those of us who have struggled long and hard to support justice and equality in our already great nation.

—Kim McClain, Glastonbury, CT

Half of the nation is women. Women must be respected and any person in a government position must be held accountable

—Rebecca Bacigalupo, New Fairfield, CT

With cases like Brock Turner's and women reporting sexual assault by the President-elect himself, we need SPECIFIC and DETAILED guidelines as well tougher penalties.

—Lindsey Anderson, New Fairfield, CT

He is not fit for the job.

—Emily d'Aulaire, Redding, CT

Senator Sessions do you have daughters? Would it be acceptable for someone to grab them by the genitals and would you be okay with that? If not then you and I see eye to eye. If you do you have no business representing America as its top lawyer!

—Dwayne Bell, West Haven, CT

This man is not capable of understanding that he is a servant of the people, and yes, even those he doesn't like because of his bigotry, hatred and ignorance as a southern white bigot.

—Ellen McCormick, Weston, CT

Men should not be allowed to touch any part of a women's body without her consent

—Molly Forrest, Wilton, CT

I wonder if you'd change your tune if your wife, daughter or granddaughter were grabbed by him would that be ok?

—Pat Ochman, Stratford, CT

How can he protect all people's rights when he has voted to not protect women from domestic violence, does not understand what sexual assault means, and was not confirmed by the GOP legislature due to being too racist. Also, why did he not submit a complete record of his votes and public viewpoints. What else is he hiding? Please thoroughly question him.

—Mary Fleischli, West Hartford, CT

—Cory Bernard, Simsbury, CT

Sexual assault is a serious crime and our nation's next Attorney General should recognize that.

—Joanna Flanagan, New Britain, CT

An intelligent, sensible voice concerned with the moral and ethical spine of the people of this country SHOULD BE expected to uphold self-respect and modern, evolved sensibilities, refusing to accept an attitude that women are unable to defend themselves against the dreadful humiliation of sexual assault. Jeff Sessions is not that voice. Someone who is a threat against curing the disease of perpetrating domestic violence is unacceptable in our government.

—Julie Hicks, Westport, CT

Does not have the required common sense for the job.

—David Sales, Fairfield, CT

Let's not put a man in charge of our country's legal battles. Perhaps someone should explain what sexual harassment really is and what it does to those who are victimized.

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

Normal people would commit suicide if they were put on the sex offender registry even if they are innocent. Yet Trump and his buddies are proud to be sex offenders who consider sexual abuse a demonstration on how to be a true man. Don't let him be hired. You wouldn't hire a known sexual predator or someone who is a fan of sexual predators to teach in public or even private school. Why let someone like that enter high office?

—Robert B Vincelette Jr, Houston, DE

This ugly man was rejected as a candidate for a federal judgeship because he was determined not to be qualified for the position. If he wasn't qualified to be a judge how can he be qualified to be the people's top Prosecutor.

So, is grabbing a man's genitals not assault too? Ok who'll be first to grab Jeff by the b***s?

—Richard Paugh, Ocean View, DE

Survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence deserve a champion, not an attorney general who will excuse the criminal behavior of their abusers. This is one of many extremely worrying positions which indicate Sen. Sessions will primarily cater to select subgroups rather than serving all Americans. I ask you to strenuously oppose the nomination of Sen. Sessions to the post of Attorney General.

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing Sen Grassley, you have a moral obligation to protect women and children. DO YOUR JOB and reject Sessions.

—Vince Woolums, Iowa City, IA

this man is a shameful excuse for a human being. He must not be confirmed

—Kathleen Waggoneer, Ames, IA

It is important that our national attorney general have a strong moral grounding. That is NOT Mr. Sessions. Please do not confirm him

—Kathryn Andre, Ames, IA

This is a no-brainer.

—Jason Hoffman, Des Moines, IA

Really? Who thinks this man is qualified for this job? Absolutely not! He needs to be asked about his views on sexual assault and also about the missing years on his record.

—Marla Kelly, Pleasant Hill, IA

HE IS NOT QUALIFIED

What do you think is Sexual Assault? Have you ever been assaulted? Ask the many women and me who have endured these acts and don't brush this off. I work with victims and survivors everyday and see the consequences these acts bring. Don't turn your back on them.

—Julia Davis, Council Bluffs, IA

He should not hold any elected or appointed office!

—Karl Armens, Iowa City, IA

women already fight for jobs, fight for equal pay, fight for help with children, fight to remain above poverty after divorce.

We should not have to fight to have it acknowledged that sexual assault is a crime, a heinous, woman-targeting CRIME.

—lisa Mullen, Urbandale, IA

Any touch is an assault if not welcomed by the woman.

—Sherry Toelle, Atlantic, IA

I grew up both knowing of and witnessing and being a victim of domestic violence. No real man needs to treat a girl or a woman this way. Act like a leader and stand against it.

—Lisa Boyes, Grinnell, IA

If Sessions doesn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault then something is terribly wrong with him. I'm sure if it was a man's genitals that were being grabbed he would consider it an assault. Trump is a man that thinks it's okay to grab a woman in her genitals because he's a celebrity so I'm sure he would agree with Jeff Sessions. Women have fought for so hard for women's rights and protection from sexual assaults that it scares me to think a man like Sessions with those immoral thoughts would be confirmed for this position.

—Sharon K Ullrick, Cedar Rapids, IA

If he doesn't know if grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault, he's not competent to be Attorney General.

—Cecelia Munzenmaier, Des Moines, IA

Women know what sexual assault is!!! Obviously, Jeff Sessions does not!!!!

—Linda Callson Bader, Cedar Rapids, IA

This one is a no-brainer. How could this man NOT be assaulting a woman if he grabs her by her genitals??

—Linda G. Fielding, Iowa City, IA

—LB Holm, Cedar Falls, IA

—Joan Hennigan, Eldridge, IA should be in jail

—Edwin Cole, Liscomb, IA

Senator Sessions, I trust you will listen carefully to the sexual assault survivors. If you do not then ask your new President his reaction to their testimony.

—Brent Hulsebus, Des Moines, IA

This is a serious issue that effects every human being. Ignoring it condones it. Sessions should not be confirmed without being asked about this issue.

—Josephine Sporleder, Belleville, IL

I'd like to know if Senator Sessions would consider himself assaulted were someone to grope for his penis.

—Domenica Moroney, Oak Park, IL

Really???

—Harry Linton Jr, Chicago, IL

Anyone deemed by a Republican congress as "too racist" to be a judge should not be in the running in the first place!

—Dr. Byron Dale, Rockford, IL

As long as women have the right to vote, they have the right to know the nature of the men this administration wants on the cabinet.

—Michael Maxa, Skokie, IL

Sessions CANNOT be confirmed for any cabinet position!!!!!!

—Paul Levin, Woodstock, IL

And the racism and his general lack of qualifications, please.

—Rachel Becknell, Dekalb, IL

Absolutely essential!

—Kori C Mill, Chicago, IL

He NEVER should have been appointed!!!!

—Doris Kraemer, River Grove, IL

This man in not qualified for holding the office of Attorney General.

—Cecelia Samp, Schiller Park, IL

Violence against women should be a priority. We need someone who knows the law; not Sen. Sessions.

—Cecilia kuenis, Chicago, IL

Let me guess: boys being boys, women ask for it & women should be flattered, relax

—KATHLEEN Stevens, Plainfield, IL

This man is completely and utterly unqualified to enforce the laws of the land and furthermore has an inherent prejudice .

FIGHT THIS NOMINATION!!!!

—Nicole Beck, Chicago, IL

If grabbing an unwilling woman by the genitals isn't 1. sexual and 2. assault, what is it? And if Jeff Sessions can't answer that one, does it mean that I'm free to kick him in the balls?

—Treva Rodemaker, North Aurora, IL

this boy needs to answer many questions

—Bruce Burkey, Effingham, IL

This is beyond disgusting. The man should be thrown under the bus.

—Deb Lakin, Wauconda, IL

Ask Jeff Sessions about his thoughts on protecting the rights of sexual assault victims.

—Julie, Gurnee, IL

If you don't know if grabbing a womens' genitals is sexual assault, then at best you're a liar, at worst you're a moron!

—George M Procopio, Lombard, IL

I am opposed to Jeff Sessions becoming our next Attorney General.

—Glen Katoll, Oak Forest, IL

I am tired of Trump appointing people who have no idea about what they are doing. Democracy means civility which no one in the proposed Trump cabinet, especially Trump, has.

—Kathy Goble, Chicago, IL

This is VERY WRONG!!!!!!

—Lisa Sepper, Chicago, IL

Any of you have women in your family?

—M C Kubiak, Bloomington, IL

It's hard to believe with all due respect to President elect Trump that grabbing a woman's genitals could be anything but sexual assault, best regards, Jim DeVoto, Ph.D.

—Jim G DeVoto Ph.D., Chicago, IL

ultraviolet

This is a terrible nomination.

—Carol Adamson, Rockford, IL

The 2nd most incompetent, misogynistic creep in the incoming administration!

—Margaret Jindra, Davis, IL

I'm sickened by his record. This man should be ashamed, and should not be attorney general. Ugh.

—Leslie Simmer, Chicago, IL

We deserve an Attorney General who is not prejudiced of people regardless of they're sexuality, race or their religion. This country needs fairness and honesty for all people....not lies or madeup news.

—Jerry Hicks, Oak Park, IL

what does it take to get through to someone who just doesn't "get it"? the appointment of this man to any position of importance in our government would be a sad mistake, but the attorney general must be compassionate relative to all of the people of this country, and mr. sessions is in this regard an unmitigated disaster! please stop this appointment!

—Gregory Pittsley, Chicago, IL

Unfortunately, he's probably no worse than the rest of Trump's proposed cabinet.

—Errol McCollum, MOLINE, IL

The American people deserve to know the juridical views of a potential attorney general concerning prosecution of sexual assault.

—Regina Buccola, Skokie, IL

Would you want your mother, wife, daughter, or sister to even be in the same room as this man?

—Kortnee quiza, Oak Park, IL

His entire cabinet are just bigots, racists and billionaires. Next 4 years will be the scary.

—Rachel Joseph, Wheeling, IL

Nope.

—Bryant Gambrell, Harvey, IL

Please have the courage to ask the tough questions. Sessions has problems and the whole world knows it.

—Renee Caputo, West Chicago, IL

The man's a dinosaur when it comes to racism and chauvinism.

—Colleen McAbee, Midlothian, IL

why did he vote against the Violence Against Women's Act of 2013?

—Tammy Thurman, Chicago, IL

This appointment is unacceptable in light of this man's track record. Are we evolving or devolving.

—Susan Kleinman, Evanston, IL

The Attorney General should be able to tell right from wrong and be able to identify sexual assault. Sessions seemingly cannot.

—Bruce Anderson, Rolling Meadows, IL

Senator Sessions, your stance on sexual assault is among many other questions you need to answer.

—Andrew White, Evanston, IL

Sessions is a hypocrite and a racist, which makes him unfit for any office.

—Richard Ordenez, Countryside, IL

If that was your daughter, granddaughter or wife how would you feel?

—Anson Bryant, Bolingbrook, IL

As a clinical psychologist I know from my trauma survivor patients how important it is to have their assaults taken seriously and validated so they can have a voice and self respect. Sen. Sessions does not have a history of protecting the abused and vulnerable. Please insist that Sen. Sessions discuss his past decisions and intentions regarding survivors of domestic and sexual abuse and exploitation.

—Elizabeth Feldman Ph.D., Winnetka, IL

If grabbing someone's genitals, male or female, is not a form of sexual assault...then the law against simple assault should not apply. I can't punch anyone I want to without sanctions, NO ONE has the right to touch my genitals without consequence.

—Katina Hardwick, Jacksonville, IL

Women and young girls should be protected from assault under the law. Throughout his career Senator Sessions has acted to diminish and trivialize the basic civil liberties of women. He is abysmally unfit to serve as Attorney General of the United States.

—Amanda M, Chicago, IL

We demand that sexual assault and domestic violence survivors are protected. A white men who cannot define sexual assault should not be in charge of our national programs

—Fatima, Chicago, IL

Pease, do what you know is the right thing!

—Hazel Herzog, Deerfield, IL

Ask Sessions about sexual assault during his confirmation hearing.

—Lisa Langbein, Plainfield, IL

Just another reject in a party full of rejects....Rest my case.

—Charles McNulty, Chicago, IL

Please ask Sessions about his views on sexual assault. Like our President-elect, he seems to be just another sexist old fart, white guy.

—Eric Bollinger, Charleston, IL

This man needs to account for his ideas on how grabbing a woman's genitals is not assault. This stance of his is not what we want in an Attorney General.

—Charlotte Jones, Elmhurst, IL

He is like putting thefox in charge of the hen house . really ?

—Carl Griffih, Chenoa, IL

All the picks have baggage not worth a dam and all of them is basically over the age of common sense 70 plus years they need to go home and play with their wives dumb dumbmer and dumbest all of the pricks

—Diane Hawkins, East Saint Louis, IL

A man who doesn't know what sexual assault is shouldn't be the US AG. Period.

—Jan Churchwell, Winnetka, IL

If you don't agree that grabbing a woman's crotch is assault, think how you'd feel if strange women grabbed you there: hard!

—Alice Hoffman, Chicago, IL

If someone grabbed your wife by the genitals, would she mind? I thought so. It's just as much an assault as punching someone in the nose or punching a male in his genitals.

—Susan Walker, Evanston, IL

He's not qualified

—Judy Chapman, Wheeling, IL

If he doesn't want to do the job he is being selected for he either needs to turn it down or risk losing his licence for violating his oath as a lawyer.

—kevin w.shaffer, collinsville, IL

This is a dismal team. Will anyone save us? Talk about a "rigged system". The beginning of the end of America being Great is upon us. Please help restore some common sense.

—Karen Cook, Peoria, IL

Please ask the following of Jeff Sessions: Sexual assault, civil rights and voter suppression. Thank you,

—Sharon York, Westchester, IL

Jeff Sessions is obviously a bully who seems to think that sexual assault is ok. He's putting girls and women in serious danger. How can anyone allow this? Is it because Trump raped a 13 year old girl and sexually assaults women? We don't need such devilish and evil people ruling over us and putting us in harm's way. This is inhumane and cruel. It isn't fair. Ask Jeff Sessions about sexual assault! He's an insult to the country and a danger to our safety. Whatever happened to safety comes first? Protect us. Jeff Sessions is like some freak out of a horror movie. HE'S BAD!There are lots of great people out there. Don't give the job to Jeff Sessions! Don't ruin this country. Don't hurt us!

—Caroline Mead, Glenview, IL

What would he think if a female family member were touched in this manner? He'd probably file as many assault charges the he possibly could get away with. Obviously he's never personally known any women who were assaulted.

—Kevin Tanaka, Chicago, IL

Hey Dems, stand up to this mess and do not let our country be destroyed

—Lorna Paisley, East Dubuque, IL

Sexual assault is a heinous crime that affects the survivors for the rest of their lives. There is no place in any decent society for this to be excepted.

—Ruth La Sure, Chicago, IL

This man will not protect women's rights or civil rights.

—Ronald Koch, Oak Park, IL

I'm also concerned about Senator Sessions commitment to civil rights. Having a person who doesn't think we need to work on civil rights in American in charge of the Civil Rights division of the Department of Justice is disturbing. Absolutely, it's important to ask him about sexual assault, but we (as women and as survivors of sexual assault) need to stand together with other marginalized groups and demand that their issues be addressed, too.

—Leah Goodman, Warrenville, IL shameful record towards women.

—Sarah Fritz, Wilmette, IL

Grabbing a woman anywhere (let alone by the genitals) is assault. If Jeff Sessions doesn't know that he should not be confirmed.

—Cara Schipkowski, Walshville, IL

these men are despicable human doings, w/their ties & suits making them look ridiculous! such pigs, though i do not want to insult the animal

—Jean Berryman, EVANSTON, IL

This man has no regard for anyone's civil rights.

—Ellen Levy, Highland Park, IL

He's evil!

—Margaret Totleben-Rodriguez, Chicago, IL

Sessions is a disgrace, just like the president-elect "thumbalina."

—jim May, Harvard, IL

My suggestion is to grab him by the balls and squeeze hard, lets see how the shoe fits then.

—Arteshar Lloyd, Chicago, IL

This isn't who I want to make decisions for my daughter.

—steve Bates, Pleasant Plains, IL

Perhaps if Mr. Sessions is grabbed by his genitals a few times, he might better be able to determine whether or not it would be considered sexual assault.

—Lynn J Brenna, Sycamore, IL

Jeff Sessions has an abysmal record when it comes to sexual assault and domestic violence. Do Not Confirm!

—David Sattazahn, Savoy, IL

The GOP is not fooling anyone! Can you say "true colors?"

—Jim Simonis, Chicago, IL

Find someone impeccable to do a job this important.

—Paula Smeltekop, Elmhurst, IL

Sen. Sessions has not demonstrated a concern with ending violence against women or other key issues that should be priorities for an attorney general.

—Lenice Abbott, Glen Ellyn, IL

Confirmation hearing must reveal Sessions' ignorance about sexual assault and domestic violence!

—Diane Percival, Chicago, IL

Nooooooooooooo!!! In my opinion, Trump admitted to crimes and has no business in the WH. What's the matter with the Trump voters?!?!? And Sessions looks like the only way he could get a woman would be to assault her!

—Karen Peeterson, Chicago, IL

Mr. J. Sessions does not deserve to be an Attorney General because he is a BIGOT.

—Leticia J., Chicago, IL

Please!!!!NEVERRRRRRRR!!!!

—Sally Maybrook, Highland Park, IL

Sessions is a shameless man.

—Carol Bergquist, Deerfield, IL

Just ask him if it's assault if anyone grabbed him by his genitals.

—SL Liakouras, Chicago, IL

Ask Jeff Sessions about sexual assault during his confirmation hearing

—Deborah Murphy, Evanston, IL

We need an attorney general who will protect and expand women's rights with regard to sexual assault, which occurs with sickening frequency, not one who doesn't even know what sexual assault is.

—Carol L. Gloor, Savanna, IL

Whenever Trump grabbed a woman by her genitals, he assaulted her.

—Nancy Churchill, Oregon, IL

Please refuse the appointment of Mr. Sessions to attorney general. This is not a good fit for the nation's needs.

—Chris Murphy, Evanston, IL

"And the KKK is okay." So says the honorable Mr. Sessions. We need to keep addled morons like Sessions as far from the levers of power as possible.

—James Bozzelli, Winfield, IL

How is it possible not to know if grabbing a woman by her genitalia is sexual assault? Of course it is!! Senator Jeff Sessions must not be confirmed as Attorney General.

—Mary Roden, Evanston, IL

This man doesn't share the same values that I do. We need to protect women against violence in this country!

—Gwendolyn Kennelly, Rock Island, IL

If the tables were turned, and a woman grabbed you by the genitals, I have no doubt that you would consider that assault.

Because she is a woman, what level of punishment would you levy against her?

—David A Broyles, Belleville, IL

Sessions is an outdated weak man who does not extend simple courtesies to women, much less protect them against male domination of rape or violence. He is a classic misogynist and does not deserve confirmation.

—Diane Vandiver, Bolingbrook, IL

Sessions is almost as unqualified as is Trump for any position of "concern for the common welfare", especially in regards to those who are not white. MLK is spinning in his grave!!!

—Bill Perk, Carbondale, IL

THE inability to speak out against, or even define sexual assault is a clear disqualification for this vital post. Reject Sessions.

—Kieren Ladner, Chicago, IL

Please make public Jeff Sessions perception of sexual assault issues by asking him carefully constructed questions.

—Marilyn Parsons, Urbana, IL

Domestic violence must be taken seriously

—Ann McCabe, Chicago, IL

Terrible choice but not surprising for the orange guy.

—Leslie Beall, Aurora, IL

Grabbing anything in anyway without a person's permission is against the law in the first place. It's called assault, so yes, grabbing a woman or a man by the genitals is most certainly immoral, unethical, illegal and a violation of human rights, dignity and respect for our individual human privacy!

—Ilene Sandman, Chicago, IL

Congress needs to oppose every last thing Trump plans to do, or our republic will fall.

—Daniel Hummer, Carbondale, IL

Lock him up!

—Errole Ross, Chicago, IL

Senator Jeff Sessions is unsuitable for the Attorney General post and his terrible record in woman and racial issues should be scrutinized during his confirmation hearings.

—Gracia Zabala, Urbana, IL

grabbing genitals, male or female is assault. period. We need to get the "good ol' boys" out of office and start fighting for the rights of everyone.

—Kate Huffman, Collinsville, IL

MR. JEFF SESSIONS - you have obviously never been assaulted not had any of your family members or you would know that no matter what level - it lasts a lifetime - even If it is "ONLY" FEELING YOUR BREASTS!!!! Grabbing her genitals is grounds for using the second ammendment to its fullest measure!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

—Alice Barnes, Evanston, IL

Sexual assault and domestic violence should never be swept under the rug. we cannot allow the man to become Attorney General

—Dorothy LaBon-Jackson, Dolton, IL

If he does not know if grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault, then someone should grab him by his dick and yank it off, (if he has one).

—Larriet Veldhuizen, Mokena, IL

Nobody who thinks as he does should be allowed to have the position.

—Barbara S Adams, Peoria, IL

There should be no tolerance for violence against women.

—Arleen Trapani, Chicago, IL

It is time to stop acting like casual comments that are pointed and anti-woman to stop. It is obvious Mr. Trump and his GOP still believe women are property, and that heads should be turned regarding innocent "locker room" talk. Mr. Trump has shown little respect for woman other having a beautiful one on his arm, or rewards those woman who will follow him blindly for their own reward. Please stop this craziness and quit pretending it doesn't happen. Or you will find out how much of an effect woman will make. You will need more phones and support staff because we will not give up. Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Sincerely,

Nita Chaudhary and Shaunna Thomas, Co-Founders, UltraViolet

We need someone as attorney general who will support all Americans, not someone who has no respect for women.

—Holly Robinson, Saint Paul, MN

Ask the hard questions

—Sue Swendsen, Ranier, MN

As a survivor of sexual assault, I am appalled by the utter disregard this man and the administration he aspires to be a part of have for victims. He must be pressed on this issue, with no quarter given for his outdated concepts of gender roles.

—Teresa Manzella, Saint Paul, MN

Slow down and think - we need leaders who understand and think carefully for all people! Do not confirm Jeff Sessions!

—Joanne C Toft, Minneapolis, MN

Thank you, brave survivors!

—Zoe Bird, Minneapolis, MN

He needs to go

—Doug Bredeson, MINNEAPOLIS, MN

Committee: This man should not be in charge of our national programs on sexual assault and violence.

—Charlie hartwell, Minneapolis, MN

there is a lot of missing commitment on the part of these billionaire men!

—Judith Isaacson, Finlayson, MN

The office of Attorney General must protect the rights of all citizens, including women. Women's rights are human rights.

—Laura Louis, Circle Pines, MN

Really? One. We need to sssssloooooowww down these hearings. If we can't get any movement on anything 80% of the citizens of this country want, then the Dems need to be prepared to stop any and all bad business by the GOP. Halt them in their tracks. Stall. Protest. Play games. Whatever it takes! Whatever it takes! Next: I'm sorry, you don't get to make up the law. If it is sexual assault under the law, and you don't know that, then you should not be in a position to make rules and affect how our laws are enforced.

—Holly Robbins, Minneapolis, MN

This man shouldn't even be considered.

—Karin Miller, Minneapolis, MN

This man needs to explain his stand on sexual assault and a person's right to protection and legal recourse.

—Claudia Ripley, Saint Paul, MN

If this man is going to be attorney general, he needs to represent ALL Americans, not just straight, white businessmen.

—Tanya Brody, Mound, MN

the man who could be in charge of our national programs on sexual assault and domestic violence--doesn't know if grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault.

—Mercy Myers, Saint Paul, MN

He should need to give an acceptable answer to this.

—Jennifer Soutor, Brooklyn Center, MN

How can he be attorney general if he doesn't know what sexual assault is?

—Jonathan & Jill Eisenberg, Minnetonka, MN

The passage of time has not gifted this racist with wisdom - it has merely narrowed his perspective & entrenched his convictions that he's right. NOT QUALIFIED TO SERVE!

—Leslie McDonald, Eden Prairie, MN

By all means don't let him off the hook. He needs to be on record setting the strictest example for interpersonal behavior.

Sexual assault is an assault on civil rights.

—Scott Ickes, Saint Paul, MN

Sexual assault has life long devastating consequences for victims. It is also a costly and huge issue for the health of our country.

—Trudee E Able, Minneapolis, MN

This is an issue of critical importance!

—Joan Hernandez Hernandez Lindeman, Rochester, MN

this man is unacceptable in far too many ways!

—Darcy Bergh, Saint Paul, MN

ultraviolet

The Donald Trump administration needs to pay attention to the women who know that sexual assault is a serious crime. We will not support a man who denies the facts, or diminishes the seriousness of sexual assault

—Tracy Pechacek, Marine on Saint Croix, MN

Narcissism should not be in government - words are too important.

—Doug Snaza, Saint Paul, MN

Jeff Sessions has no business running a state or the office of attorney general. Keep this long-term racist and sexual-assault-denier off our civil rights.

—Adam Svec, Minneapolis, MN

please have some one with more sense fill this position,

—John & Ellen Woodruff, Saint Paul, MN

Crotch-grabbing is much more than unwanted indecent behavior exhibited by vulgar men, it is sexual assault!

—Uli Munderloh, Saint Paul, MN

If the law can't protect women against violence, what is the point of laws?

—christine Pierce, Saint Paul, MN

Just a little hard to believe a better candidate cannot be found. Maybe the problem is better candidates don't want to work under the Trump administration?

—Bradly Pepin, Edina, MN

This man as attorney general would be a threat to more than half the U.S. population.

—Jan Shaw-Flamm, Saint Paul, MN

Jeff Sessions has been a very rigid and uncompromising man in my opinion. This just shows how little Trump knows about our political system!

—Roxanne Hagge, Savage, MN

Stop Bigotry! Reject every damn one of Chancellor Drumpf's Reich!

—Franz Kitzberger, New Ulm, MN

He is disgusting

—Laura Carroll, SAINT PAUL, MN

Jeff Session is CLUELESS about SEXUAL ASSUALT & also has a history of NON-enforcement of CIVIL RIGHTS Laws. HE IS UN-Qualified to be Attorney General.

—Lydia Howell, Minneapolis, MN

How dare you fail to protect women!!!

—Mary McGrath, Minneapolis, MN

It's the AG's job to know the law.

—LK Tuominen, Saint Paul, MN

Mr. Sessions : id like to see a big he/she grab YOU by the puss & then ask if you think THAT was assault?! seriously, this man (and I use the term loosely) has NO business being the US AG. he is an evil man. but then, I guess he's in good company.

—Elizabeth Hope, Nerstrand, MN

Sen. Sessions should know the law by now, and if he doesn't, he shouldn't be in charge of the legal system in this country.

—Elisabeth Peterson, Wayzata, MN

Hey folks, This is the year 2017. We are not in the Dark Ages. Grabbing people is a thing of the (very far) past.

—Sharon Fortunak, St paul, MN

Any fool who can't tell whether grabbing a woman by her genitals, or anyplace else, is assault is unfit for any public office, let alone attorney general.

—James C. Fuller, Minneapolis, MN

An extensive review of the record of Sen. Sessions must be made available to the public prior to possible confirmation.

—Judith Hardin, Minneapolis, MN

Shut Sessions Down!

—Renee Larson, Saint Bonifacius, MN

If you don't understand that grabbing a person by there genitals is assault, you can't be a reasonable Attorney General, at any level of the US government.

—Joshua Irish, Saint Paul, MN

ultraviolet

Sexually assault of any form is not acceptable. It doesn't matter if you are of the Good Ole boy group or young bucks! It's unmanly, unchristian and shows ignorance!

—Rhonda Nelson, Long Lake, MN

Ask Mr. Sessions about his views on Sexual Assault - whether he agrees w/Trump or not!!

—Donna Torgerson, Fairmont, MN

Democrats have proved inept. I seriously doubt any (save two) will have the courage or intelligence to formulate needed questions.

—Linville L Doan, Finland, MN

Jeff Sessions is an ignorant hack who could only come from OK. I volunteer to grab him by the you know what and then he can determine if that is assault.

—Jim pounds, Minneapolis, MN

This is 2017 and women still are treated as second class citizens right here in the good ole US of A where we seem to be losing ground by leaps and bounds. Why we would ever want a sexual abuser for attorney general is beyond me. Sessions needs to be questioned about his terrible personal record. Abuse is something that stays with a person a lifetime whether it is domestic abuse or random abuse it is one of the most awful violations.

—Jo-Ann Sramek, Duluth, MN

Sessions is not qualified for this position. Stop him.

—Mary Thacker, Excelsior, MN

Mr. Sessions, grabbing anyones genitalia without consent IS sexual assault. To my Representatives, please question Sessions heavily about his lack of knowledge of sexual assault and his stand on punishment of same. He should not be confirmed to atty general. I survived sexual assault and rape.

—J Greene, New Ulm, MN

Unbelievable that this person would be our Attorney General. The swamp isn't being drained...it's filling up!

—Dale Sneide, Minneapolis, MN

We women need to go forward, not backward in the 21st century.

—Yvette Schultenover, Grand Rapids, MN

As a survivor of sexual abuse, I want this man held to task.

—Joe Lovitt, Minneapolis, MN

Honestly, this man is dishonest on his resume. Not only did he omit his racist slant, he forgot the word misogynist.

—Cindy Sundberg, Eden Prairie, MN

if he was too racist to be a judge how can he be Attorney general?

—Ronald J Weiss, Saint Paul, MN

We need an attorney general who will protect all people's rights, not just the men in power.

—Jana Budke, Victoria, MN

If a woman grabbed a man by his genitals, would that be acceptable? What about if someone assaulted you in that manner? Or your wife, daughter or granddaughter? Would you think that was fine? Because any woman who is sexually assaulted is JUST AS IMPORTANT as your family. If you would approve someone sexually assaulting a member of your family - or anyone else's family - then you should not be acceptable as a candidate for the position of Attorney General of the United States of America.

—Mary Murphy, Saint Paul, MN

As a survivor, I can honestly say that sexual assault can easily destroy a person's life, and it is something that absolutely must be taken seriously. All people have a right to decide whether or not they want to be touched in any way by another person, and it is imperative that you make that part of the laws regarding sexual assault in the US.

—Sarah Taylor, Minneapolis, MN

This is a dishonorable man who has a horrible record. He is the Crocodile in the swamp Trump is supposed to be draining. Trumps poor recommendations are a direct reflection on the type of businessman he really is.

—Carol Pierson, Minneapolis, MN

This man should not be allowed anywhere near our programs on sexual/domestic violence.

—Cecilia Lieder, Duluth, MN

This man is not fit to be Attorney General.

—Patricia Mattos, Minneapolis, MN

ultraviolet

PLEASE support this badly needed petition.

—Cecilia Lieder, Duluth, MN

What a poor choice for this post.

—Dorothy E. Hammer, Northfield, MN

It's time to weed racism out of the criminal justice system, not put racism in charge of it.

—Cathy Crea, Saint Paul, MN

I am a survivor of sexual assault and this topic is critical for every woman that I know of.

—Alejandra (Tobar Tobar, Minneapolis, MN

Only someone who is guilty himself of doing such things would be in denial that these are crimes. Does Jeff Sessions have some ghosts in his closet, too?

—Andrea Meyer, Minneapolis, MN

Sexual assault is absolutely unacceptable and appointing someone with a record similar to Senator Sessions is an appalling standard to set for our country.

—Lucy Hartwell, Minneapolis, MN

If your daughter, mother or sister was grabbed in their genitals, would you consider it assault?

—Jayne Khalifa, Minneapolis, MN

How about women come up to YOU randomly in public and grab your genitals? Would that make it clearer, Sen. Sessions?

—Anne Griffin-Lewin, Minneapolis, MN

He is not fit to protect us and our daughter's. He is not fit for a multitude of reasons and on many issues. He cannot be confirmed!

—Robin Gardner, Saint Paul, MN

Stand up for what's right!

—ERIK VOLDAL, Rochester, MN

Old Jeff sounds like he's a Trump sort of guy.

—James Bodsberg, Saint Paul Park, MN

I have been touched without my consent. It most certainly is assault.

—Desiree Hartson Gold, South Saint Paul, MN

The US Attorney General's job is to defend the law which includes provisions against sexual assault and domestic violence. Sessions' records on these issues need to be brought to light.

—Joan Christensen, Intl Falls, MN

Not only does Jeff Sessions have a poor record on sexual assault and domestic violence, but he has a past that reflects racism.

—Marian Sackett, Hopkins, MN

NOOOOO!!!

—Christine Wisch, Saint Paul, MN

A civilized country does not allow sexual assault.

—Susan Anderson, Saint Paul, MN

YESSS! Grabbing a woman IN *** ***** IS Sexual Assault!!

—Merlene Smith, Rochester, MN

Do not confirm this appointee

—Janet Horvath, Saint Paul, MN

I am a citizen, a taxpayer, and a SURVIVOR. I deserve an ANSWER from Sessions.

—Alice Bowron, Minneapolis, MN

ZeroTolerance.

—Susanna Vessel Franklin, Minneapolis, MN

Considering the complete lack of respect and criminal behavior that Trump has shown to women over his life time, I am VERY concerned about his administrations impact on women's issues, Planned Parenthood and Rowe Wade.

—Linda Gross, Tenstrike, MN

Senator Jeff Sessions will not stand up for women's rights and given his voting record is appointment would be a step backward in the fight against sexual abuse.

—Charles Townsend, Minneapolis, MN

Please, do not let this man have any power that he can use against women?!?!

—Merrill Stringer, Minneapolis, MN

ultraviolet

Protecting women from violence and sexual assault should be a high priority.

—Diane Hellie, Rochester, MN

I did not vote for a sexual predator for office & am appalled by this nomination. Let's stop the rape culture NOW!!! It's 2017 for Gods sake!

—Coleen Elwood, Minneapolis, MN

This guy is one of Trump's worst ideas. Ask him about sexual assault just to watch him mumble and flounder. Then tie a can to his tail and boot him out!

—Lynn Evenson, Ely, MN

Appalling choice. Not my leaders!!!

—Katie Jones, Saint Paul, MN

Please, take this seriously.

—Yasmina Antcliff, Duluth, MN

Mr Sessions is unfit for public office.

—Kara Bray, Bemidji, MN

Our possible new attorney general needs to learn just what acts against women are illegal.

—Nancy Finkenaur, Dassel, MN

Someone who isn't able to acknowledge or recognize a violation against a woman, let alone another human being, does not belong in a position of power.

—Jennifer Mateer, Saint Paul, MN

Absolutely grabbing someone by the genitals if they haven't asked you to is assault!

—Tia Finkenaur, Minneapolis, MN

If you approve Jeff Sessions to the position of AG you will prove that you are Godless men who care nothing for America. I hope you think very seriously about your position on judgement day every time you pursue your anti - American, anti Christian decisions. The gods you worship are power, money and revenge. May God have mercy on your souls!

—Jacqueline Meyer, Saint Paul Park, MN

Please ask him the hard questions. He has no business being Attorney General.

—Susan Myers, Minneapolis, MN

Stop the appointment of Jeff Sessions

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Sincerely,

Nita Chaudhary and Shaunna Thomas, Co-Founders, UltraViolet

We need someone as attorney general who will support all Americans, not someone who has no respect for women.

—Holly Robinson, Saint Paul, MN

Ask the hard questions

—Sue Swendsen, Ranier, MN

As a survivor of sexual assault, I am appalled by the utter disregard this man and the administration he aspires to be a part of have for victims. He must be pressed on this issue, with no quarter given for his outdated concepts of gender roles.

—Teresa Manzella, Saint Paul, MN

Slow down and think - we need leaders who understand and think carefully for all people! Do not confirm Jeff Sessions!

—Joanne C Toft, Minneapolis, MN

Thank you, brave survivors!

—Zoe Bird, Minneapolis, MN

He needs to go

—Doug Bredeson, MINNEAPOLIS, MN

Committee: This man should not be in charge of our national programs on sexual assault and violence.

—Charlie hartwell, Minneapolis, MN

there is a lot of missing commitment on the part of these billionaire men!

—Judith Isaacson, Finlayson, MN

The office of Attorney General must protect the rights of all citizens, including women. Women's rights are human rights.

—Laura Louis, Circle Pines, MN

Really? One. We need to sssssloooooowww down these hearings. If we can't get any movement on anything 80% of the citizens of this country want, then the Dems need to be prepared to stop any and all bad business by the GOP. Halt them in their tracks. Stall. Protest. Play games. Whatever it takes! Whatever it takes! Next: I'm sorry, you don't get to make up the law. If it is sexual assault under the law, and you don't know that, then you should not be in a position to make rules and affect how our laws are enforced.

—Holly Robbins, Minneapolis, MN

This man shouldn't even be considered.

—Karin Miller, Minneapolis, MN

This man needs to explain his stand on sexual assault and a person's right to protection and legal recourse.

—Claudia Ripley, Saint Paul, MN

If this man is going to be attorney general, he needs to represent ALL Americans, not just straight, white businessmen.

—Tanya Brody, Mound, MN

the man who could be in charge of our national programs on sexual assault and domestic violence--doesn't know if grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault.

—Mercy Myers, Saint Paul, MN

He should need to give an acceptable answer to this.

—Jennifer Soutor, Brooklyn Center, MN

How can he be attorney general if he doesn't know what sexual assault is?

—Jonathan & Jill Eisenberg, Minnetonka, MN

The passage of time has not gifted this racist with wisdom - it has merely narrowed his perspective & entrenched his convictions that he's right. NOT QUALIFIED TO SERVE!

—Leslie McDonald, Eden Prairie, MN

By all means don't let him off the hook. He needs to be on record setting the strictest example for interpersonal behavior.

Sexual assault is an assault on civil rights.

—Scott Ickes, Saint Paul, MN

Sexual assault has life long devastating consequences for victims. It is also a costly and huge issue for the health of our country.

—Trudee E Able, Minneapolis, MN

This is an issue of critical importance!

—Joan Hernandez Hernandez Lindeman, Rochester, MN

this man is unacceptable in far too many ways!

—Darcy Bergh, Saint Paul, MN

The Donald Trump administration needs to pay attention to the women who know that sexual assault is a serious crime. We will not support a man who denies the facts, or diminishes the seriousness of sexual assault

—Tracy Pechacek, Marine on Saint Croix, MN

Narcissism should not be in government - words are too important.

—Doug Snaza, Saint Paul, MN

Jeff Sessions has no business running a state or the office of attorney general. Keep this long-term racist and sexual-assault-denier off our civil rights.

—Adam Svec, Minneapolis, MN

please have some one with more sense fill this position,

—John & Ellen Woodruff, Saint Paul, MN

Crotch-grabbing is much more than unwanted indecent behavior exhibited by vulgar men, it is sexual assault!

—Uli Munderloh, Saint Paul, MN

If the law can't protect women against violence, what is the point of laws?

—christine Pierce, Saint Paul, MN

Just a little hard to believe a better candidate cannot be found. Maybe the problem is better candidates don't want to work under the Trump administration?

—Bradly Pepin, Edina, MN

This man as attorney general would be a threat to more than half the U.S. population.

—Jan Shaw-Flamm, Saint Paul, MN

Jeff Sessions has been a very rigid and uncompromising man in my opinion. This just shows how little Trump knows about our political system!

—Roxanne Hagge, Savage, MN

Stop Bigotry! Reject every damn one of Chancellor Drumpf's Reich!

—Franz Kitzberger, New Ulm, MN

He is disgusting

—Laura Carroll, SAINT PAUL, MN

Jeff Session is CLUELESS about SEXUAL ASSUALT & also has a history of NON-enforcement of CIVIL RIGHTS Laws. HE IS UN-Qualified to be Attorney General.

—Lydia Howell, Minneapolis, MN

How dare you fail to protect women!!!

—Mary McGrath, Minneapolis, MN

It's the AG's job to know the law.

—LK Tuominen, Saint Paul, MN

Mr. Sessions : id like to see a big he/she grab YOU by the puss & then ask if you think THAT was assault?! seriously, this man (and I use the term loosely) has NO business being the US AG. he is an evil man. but then, I guess he's in good company.

—Elizabeth Hope, Nerstrand, MN

Sen. Sessions should know the law by now, and if he doesn't, he shouldn't be in charge of the legal system in this country.

—Elisabeth Peterson, Wayzata, MN

Hey folks, This is the year 2017. We are not in the Dark Ages. Grabbing people is a thing of the (very far) past.

—Sharon Fortunak, St paul, MN

Any fool who can't tell whether grabbing a woman by her genitals, or anyplace else, is assault is unfit for any public office, let alone attorney general.

—James C. Fuller, Minneapolis, MN

An extensive review of the record of Sen. Sessions must be made available to the public prior to possible confirmation.

—Judith Hardin, Minneapolis, MN

Shut Sessions Down!

—Renee Larson, Saint Bonifacius, MN

If you don't understand that grabbing a person by there genitals is assault, you can't be a reasonable Attorney General, at any level of the US government.

—Joshua Irish, Saint Paul, MN

ultraviolet

Sexually assault of any form is not acceptable. It doesn't matter if you are of the Good Ole boy group or young bucks! It's unmanly, unchristian and shows ignorance!

—Rhonda Nelson, Long Lake, MN

Ask Mr. Sessions about his views on Sexual Assault - whether he agrees w/Trump or not!!

—Donna Torgerson, Fairmont, MN

Democrats have proved inept. I seriously doubt any (save two) will have the courage or intelligence to formulate needed questions.

—Linville L Doan, Finland, MN

Jeff Sessions is an ignorant hack who could only come from OK. I volunteer to grab him by the you know what and then he can determine if that is assault.

—Jim pounds, Minneapolis, MN

This is 2017 and women still are treated as second class citizens right here in the good ole US of A where we seem to be losing ground by leaps and bounds. Why we would ever want a sexual abuser for attorney general is beyond me. Sessions needs to be questioned about his terrible personal record. Abuse is something that stays with a person a lifetime whether it is domestic abuse or random abuse it is one of the most awful violations.

—Jo-Ann Sramek, Duluth, MN

Sessions is not qualified for this position. Stop him.

—Mary Thacker, Excelsior, MN

Mr. Sessions, grabbing anyones genitalia without consent IS sexual assault. To my Representatives, please question Sessions heavily about his lack of knowledge of sexual assault and his stand on punishment of same. He should not be confirmed to atty general. I survived sexual assault and rape.

—J Greene, New Ulm, MN

Unbelievable that this person would be our Attorney General. The swamp isn't being drained...it's filling up!

—Dale Sneide, Minneapolis, MN

We women need to go forward, not backward in the 21st century.

—Yvette Schultenover, Grand Rapids, MN

As a survivor of sexual abuse, I want this man held to task.

—Joe Lovitt, Minneapolis, MN

Honestly, this man is dishonest on his resume. Not only did he omit his racist slant, he forgot the word misogynist.

—Cindy Sundberg, Eden Prairie, MN

if he was too racist to be a judge how can he be Attorney general?

—Ronald J Weiss, Saint Paul, MN

We need an attorney general who will protect all people's rights, not just the men in power.

—Jana Budke, Victoria, MN

If a woman grabbed a man by his genitals, would that be acceptable? What about if someone assaulted you in that manner? Or your wife, daughter or granddaughter? Would you think that was fine? Because any woman who is sexually assaulted is JUST AS IMPORTANT as your family. If you would approve someone sexually assaulting a member of your family - or anyone else's family - then you should not be acceptable as a candidate for the position of Attorney General of the United States of America.

—Mary Murphy, Saint Paul, MN

As a survivor, I can honestly say that sexual assault can easily destroy a person's life, and it is something that absolutely must be taken seriously. All people have a right to decide whether or not they want to be touched in any way by another person, and it is imperative that you make that part of the laws regarding sexual assault in the US.

—Sarah Taylor, Minneapolis, MN

This is a dishonorable man who has a horrible record. He is the Crocodile in the swamp Trump is supposed to be draining. Trumps poor recommendations are a direct reflection on the type of businessman he really is.

—Carol Pierson, Minneapolis, MN

This man should not be allowed anywhere near our programs on sexual/domestic violence.

—Cecilia Lieder, Duluth, MN

This man is not fit to be Attorney General.

—Patricia Mattos, Minneapolis, MN

ultraviolet

PLEASE support this badly needed petition.

—Cecilia Lieder, Duluth, MN

What a poor choice for this post.

—Dorothy E. Hammer, Northfield, MN

It's time to weed racism out of the criminal justice system, not put racism in charge of it.

—Cathy Crea, Saint Paul, MN

I am a survivor of sexual assault and this topic is critical for every woman that I know of.

—Alejandra (Tobar Tobar, Minneapolis, MN

Only someone who is guilty himself of doing such things would be in denial that these are crimes. Does Jeff Sessions have some ghosts in his closet, too?

—Andrea Meyer, Minneapolis, MN

Sexual assault is absolutely unacceptable and appointing someone with a record similar to Senator Sessions is an appalling standard to set for our country.

—Lucy Hartwell, Minneapolis, MN

If your daughter, mother or sister was grabbed in their genitals, would you consider it assault?

—Jayne Khalifa, Minneapolis, MN

How about women come up to YOU randomly in public and grab your genitals? Would that make it clearer, Sen. Sessions?

—Anne Griffin-Lewin, Minneapolis, MN

He is not fit to protect us and our daughter's. He is not fit for a multitude of reasons and on many issues. He cannot be confirmed!

—Robin Gardner, Saint Paul, MN

Stand up for what's right!

—ERIK VOLDAL, Rochester, MN

Old Jeff sounds like he's a Trump sort of guy.

—James Bodsberg, Saint Paul Park, MN

I have been touched without my consent. It most certainly is assault.

—Desiree Hartson Gold, South Saint Paul, MN

The US Attorney General's job is to defend the law which includes provisions against sexual assault and domestic violence. Sessions' records on these issues need to be brought to light.

—Joan Christensen, Intl Falls, MN

Not only does Jeff Sessions have a poor record on sexual assault and domestic violence, but he has a past that reflects racism.

—Marian Sackett, Hopkins, MN

NOOOOO!!!

—Christine Wisch, Saint Paul, MN

A civilized country does not allow sexual assault.

—Susan Anderson, Saint Paul, MN

—Janet Horvath, Saint Paul, MN

I am a citizen, a taxpayer, and a SURVIVOR. I deserve an ANSWER from Sessions.

—Alice Bowron, Minneapolis, MN

ZeroTolerance.

—Susanna Vessel Franklin, Minneapolis, MN

Considering the complete lack of respect and criminal behavior that Trump has shown to women over his life time, I am VERY concerned about his administrations impact on women's issues, Planned Parenthood and Rowe Wade.

—Linda Gross, Tenstrike, MN

Senator Jeff Sessions will not stand up for women's rights and given his voting record is appointment would be a step backward in the fight against sexual abuse.

—Charles Townsend, Minneapolis, MN

Please, do not let this man have any power that he can use against women?!?!

—Merrill Stringer, Minneapolis, MN

I did not vote for a sexual predator for office & am appalled by this nomination. Let's stop the rape culture NOW!!! It's 2017 for Gods sake!

—Coleen Elwood, Minneapolis, MN

This guy is one of Trump's worst ideas. Ask him about sexual assault just to watch him mumble and flounder. Then tie a can to his tail and boot him out!

—Lynn Evenson, Ely, MN

Appalling choice. Not my leaders!!!

—Katie Jones, Saint Paul, MN

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Sincerely,

Nita Chaudhary and Shaunna Thomas, Co-Founders, UltraViolet

Any man or woman that is subjected to unwanted sexual touching is a victim of sexual assault. And if you believe Trump's unacceptable pussy grabbing is ok you should not represent the citizens of the USA!!!!!!

—Melinda Benson, Clayton, NC

Assaulting women is not a manly thing. Domestic violence is the mark of Satan.

—John Peterson, Mebane, NC

Ask him if grabbing his testicles would be assault.

—Nyal Williams, Greensboro, NC

Senator Sessions is a poor choice for Attorney General! He has a poor record on human rights and women's rights.

—Donald Harland, Candler, NC

You're an asshole of epic proportions and you're old as hell. You will die and we will carry on without your bullshit.

—Alex, Charlotte, NC

Please. This is a horrible choice. People should not put their hands on other people. Period. Men have no right to do that. It is assault. Period. That is how I was raised. That is how I raised my children. Not rocket science. Just white men protecting white men.

—Pam Craig, Raleigh, NC

How about a few sex offenders grab his wife's genitals? You think he'll be able to figure it out then?? A-hole

—Barbara-Jean Mobley, Winston Salem, NC

Jeff Sessions is NOT qualified to be U.S. Attorney General.

—Robert Read, HICKORY, NC

Maybe we need a Webster's spelling out exactly in every detail what sexual assault is and make it mandatory reading.

Beware of those who deny or plead ignorance!

—Edie, Raleigh, NC

Trump prefers mental dwarfs who are easier to deal with.

—Don Richardson M.D., Brevard, NC

This man is dangerous & cannot be allowed to represent our country in any way, shape or form.

—Pam Humienny, Angier, NC

This is totally inexcusable!

—Rebecca Reid, Hendersonville, NC

We do not need "good ol boys" running the US government.

—John T Ward, Raleigh, NC

Please open your mind about assault, not money in your pocket.

—Doris Henry, Asheville, NC

Hey Sessions: How about if we women have a "SESSION" of grabbing you and Trump by your "you-know-whats"?? Let us hear what you have to say after that SESSION, SESSIONS!!

—MEENAKSHI (MEENA) SHANKER, Durham, NC

NO! This person is unqualified to be dogcatcher.

—Barbara Lee Kepley, Graham, NC

We can do better.

—Margaret Akingbade, Greensboro, NC

Senator Sessions is possibly the worst of the terrible Trump nominations for cabinet level gigs given his long and public record of disdain for voting rights and downright opposition to women's reproductive health and associated rights. Do not let this happen.

—Richard Eckberg, Hillsborough, NC

Sessions' record is abysmal and his attitude towards women is archaic. Remove this irresponsible and wholly unsuitable individual from consideration for the post of Attorney General!

—Karen Baird Tinner, Monroe, NC

If Senator Sessions really doesn't think grabbing someone by their genitals is sexual assault, someone needs to grab him by his and THEN ask him again.

—Mary A Kane, Charlotte, NC

Please do your jobs and hold Sessions to definitions of sexual assault and domestic violence that will protect all women he would be charged with protecting.

—Deborah Steiner, Charlotte, NC

ultraviolet

With this appointment we regress rather than progress. What next? Women no longer allowed to vote or serve in government?

—Vicki Wayne, Lumberton, NC

Jeff Sessions should not be the chief lawyer of the US. Does he now think grabbing a woman by her crotch is sexual assault? He has said he is not sure. Women know it is. Do not confirm Sessions for Atty. Gen. Unfit.

—Lynne Kane, Chapel Hill, NC

Totally inappropriate selection. How would you feel if your spouse has been the object of a sexual assault and someone blamed them? Is this the man you want in charge?

—K Thompson, Carrboro, NC

Please ask him his views on sexual assault.

—Gladys Perkins, Kings Mountain, NC

Please get real and get honest about having patriarchal aging white males define sexual concerns for women. It's not just unseemly, it's immoral.

—Levi Gardner, Swannanoa, NC

Just out of curiosity, if someone grabbed Sen. Sessions's genitals (assuming he has any), would he consider that an assault?

—JC Honeycutt, Hertford, NC

Cornelia Hudson: Someone who can't define sexual assault and has a terrible record on race relations should not be the U.S. Attorney General.

—Cornelia K. Hudson, Raleigh, NC

Please do this one thing by asking him about sexual assault.

—Rita Large, Asheville, NC

Jeff Sessions' views on sexual assault are only one aspect of his record that makes him unacceptable as the nominee for attorney general. His views on race and immigration are also abysmal.

—Drew Langsner, Marshall, NC

This man couldn't get confirmed to be a Federal Judge. Surely not Attorney General material!

—Tom Pitts, Charlotte, NC

We can not legalize sexual abuse. We need someone who respects woman and understands the problem.

—Socorro sepulveda, HIGH POINT, NC

It is astounding that Senator Sessions can actually say that uninvited grabbing a woman by her genitals isn't an assault. He certainly isn't qualified to be in charge of any kind of program on sexual assault.

—Barbara J. Hodik, Flat Rock, NC

I met Jeff Sessions several times when I worked in AL...he is beyond dumb in addition to being a racist.

—EdD Eugene W. Thompson, Columbus, NC

Who voted for this womanizer any way?

—Billie Duckworth, Morganton, NC

It is essential that all republican senators be asked for their definition of sexual assault considering Senator Jeff Sessions--the man who could be in charge of our national programs on sexual assault and domestic violence--doesn't know if grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault. Perhaps they all think the same.

—des baker, Pleasant Garden, NC

Specific laws vary by state, but sexual assault generally refers to any crime in which the offender subjects the victim to sexual touching that is unwanted and offensive. - Now you know.

—Amy King, Asheville, NC

Unbelievable that this choice for U.S. Attorney General could be made by a United States President-Elect in the 21st Century. Sen. Sessions' views on what constitutes sexual assault and domestic violence cry out for his being required to undergo intensive mental therapy.

—Pat Montee, Charlotte, NC

Our country absolutely needs to know his beliefs and opinions on sexual assault. If he doesn't believe grabbing a woman by the genital is assault he should not be our Attorney General.

—William Blackley, Elkin, NC

If you do not ask Sessions about sexual assault, I can only assume you don't care about this issue.

—Cameron R Riddle, Lenoir, NC

ultraviolet

This man is unfit to serve as Attorney General or in any other cabinet position! Look at his history dealing with racial issues and his stand on the Ku Klux Klan.

—Frances Ray, Carolina Beach, NC

Any touching without consent is assault. Period.

—C Gelfand, Charlotte, NC

This man does not support women and should not be in a top government position!

—Meredith Constable, Swannanoa, NC

NO more room for alligators in the Trumpswamp...

—James Parzino, Holly Ridge, NC

A man who condones sexual assault is not fit for any public office and particularly Attorney General. But he has been chosen by a sexual predator this is the horror we can expect the next four years.

—Celia Ansley, Brevard, NC

Block the negative appointees, KKK,s etc.,

—Lydia Barber, Winston Salem, NC

Do not enable this man's confirmation without serious questioning of his obvious ignorance of such important issues about dignity and safety of women.

—Lisa Garrett, Asheville, NC

Domestic assault is an indicator of a person to control their anger and/or physical self.

—John Peterson, Mebane, NC

Are grabbing a man's genitals assault? What is loose in this person's head?

—Beverly Brenowitz, Greensboro, NC

If this man doesn't know the basics of sexual assault he has no business as Attorney General!!!!!!

—Donna Wagoner, Woodleaf, NC

SACL Senator Jeff Sessions

—Reginald Hunter, Murphy, NC

Disgusting!

—Erika Stucker, Garner, NC

Obviously, Sessions does not know right from wrong. As such, he is not qualified to be the Attorney General.

—Shoshana Serxner, Raleigh, NC

We need to move forward, not back on these important social issues. Look at this man's record and decide as if you are a woman or African American.

—Dale Sheehan, Flat Rock, NC

To confirm Jeff Sessions as Attorney General is to say that sexual assault and violence towards women is nothing. It invalidates the suffering, fear, damaged lives and deaths of the victims of these crimes. We need someone who will stand for and fight for these victims. Jeff Sessions IS NOT that someone.

—marcia ramirez, Burnsville, NC

He should never be Attorney General! He is not fit to be the leader of the Justice Department.

—Kathy Chapman, Durham, NC

Apparently Senator Sessions' ambition exceeds his common sense. Or perhaps he is just one of those kidding-kind-of-guys who hangs out in Trump's locker room just being one of the guys. It is an interesting time in our history when a locker room buffoon is being considered for the position of Attorney General. Perhaps Senator Session can convince David Duke to take a position in the civil rights division of the Justice Department: Duke can be in charge of protecting the rights of white supremacists, neo-Nazis, and other misunderstood "patriots."

—Jerod Kratzer, Cary, NC

He has pick all the WONG PEOPLE!!!!

—Carol Holliday, Sparta, NC

Jeff Sessions is NOT good for Attorney General as his rulings about Women is horrible.

—Mrs Joan S Parker, Colfax, NC

Wake up Senator Sessions. Sexual assault, sexual harassment, domestic violence are completely unacceptable.

—Anita Moloney, Hillsborough, NC

A man so demonstrably biased against women has no business being Attorney General of the United States.

—Sharon Kanter, Kinston, NC

Sessions is a dangerous man and he should not be confirmed

—Kecia L Kenner, Raleigh, NC

Ask Senator Jeff Sessions how he would feel to know a man grabbed his wife or daughters genitals.

—Wendy Phillippe, Durham, NC

The lifetime cost of medical and psychological care for survivors is astronomical. Sexual assault is not like a sneeze or cough that momentarily disrupts a person from his/her duties. It is a power/control play with lifetime lingering affects including decreased income and ability to work and pay taxes, increased gov spending on healthcare, host of chronic diseases as a result. I recommend that the assault or should start picking up the tab versus the taxpayer and victim/survivor. That also might be a deterrent as well as penile amputations.

—D Bakas, Nakina, NC

Mr Sessions' voting history against protections for women and other minority groups is beyond troubling! How a man of his age cannot decide if sexual assault occurs when an adult man touches / 'grabs' a woman by her genitals WITHOUT HER CONSENT, is beyond me and millions of other women who have no such confusion. It's shocking that Mr Sessions is being considered for a significant role in President-elect Trump's administration. Full evaluation of his voting record and bias MUST be considered during confirmation processes.

—Janie Mac, Chapel Hill, NC

This man does not represent American values. Apparently he does represent Republican values

—Kevin Wright, Rocky Mount, NC

Trump is a disgrace to our nation and his choices are worse.

—Joyce, Raleigh, NC

Sessions cannot be attorney general. He is against the voting rights law. He has made racist comments. He is on Trump's side when discussing sexual assault on women.

—Robert Cubbler, Matthews, NC

Our government is raping and pillaging our country like any ancient pirate. I guess that makes the population fair game as well. What happened to our civilization, that our so called 'leaders' feel so entitled that they would assault others?

—Sharon Dyar-Hopkins, Salisbury, NC

Grabbing a persons "private parts" without consent is assault. If this was done to your mother, sister, wife or daughter you would strongly agree.

—Suzanne, Wake Forest, NC

He's quite obviously a racist too. Sessions is not someone to lead the legal community in our increasingly diverse nation.

—Roger Coates, Charlotte, NC

Signed in honor of four friends and family members who are survivors of sexual assault, and for the countless people who call Durham Crisis Response Center where I volunteer.

—Jennifer Hill, Durham, NC

After all the publicity about how big the problem is, we need someone who will try to deal with it in ways besides shoving it under the rug!

—Denise Shungu, Morrisville, NC

Violence against women is violence against all Americans.

—Anthony Madejczyk, Durham, NC

How can he be considered for Attorney General when he was not qualified to be a Federal Judge?

—B Norman, Lewisville, NC

Sexual assault is assault. It is a crime and I expect it to be prosecuted as such. Women are citizens of this country whose rights will be respected!

—Jenna Collins, Asheville, NC

Jeff Sessions is a disgrace and an affront to our nation, and should not be confirmed as Attorney General.

—Harvey Pollack, Arden, NC

No room for sessions

—Kathleen Dessert, Clyde, NC

Senator sessions is in no way qualified to hold this office.

—Erika Booth, Winnabow, NC

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Sincerely,

Nita Chaudhary and Shaunna Thomas, Co-Founders, UltraViolet

Sessions is completely unacceptable. His history of racism and sexism is reprehensible, despite his timely back-peddling.

—Sue Jones, Wakefield, RI

I guess he enjoys being grabbed there, so doesn't consider it an assault!! Both of them World Class Sleaze!!

—Elsie Collins, Pawtucket, RI

let's take a look at session's record of assault himself

—Deborah Doolittle, Wakefield, RI

an OUTRAGEOUS choice...

—Christopher English Walling, Block Island, RI

We are fast becoming a barbaric country. This man believes women and society at large deserve- no legal and human rights in a country that has fought wars to protect these basic foundations for its citizens, stop this abominable choice for attorney general.

—Nancy Knott, Wakefield, RI

How can it be when a woman ran for President of the US for the first time, when three women sit on the Supreme Court, that male Congressmen don't understand the legal protections for women?

—Mary Jane Pagan, Providence, RI

Wrong man for the job, both Trump and Sessions!

—Arthur Dristiliaris, Providence, RI

He needs to be confronted. Do not let him talk his way out of this.

—Lois Blazer, Warwick, RI

Racist! Lock him up!

—Ernest Laverdiere, North Smithfield, RI

I can't see Sessions enforcing the laws that protect people whose rights and dignity he clearly doesn't respect.

—Rabbi Jonathan Brumberg-Kraus, Providence, RI

Please hold this man accountable. I feel as though we are going backward in time by about 30 years here!

—Janice Dale, Shannock, RI

Do you really think things have changed since the days of Anita Hill? You are asking the "old boys club", some of whom have their own incidences under wraps, to actually define grabbing a woman's genitals as assault. Only by continuing our efforts over the course of time can we hope to change hearts and minds. In my experience, these kinds of assaults by men are nearly a right of passage for one out of four women.

—Sandra Cotnoir, North Kingstown, RI

Look at Jeff Sessions history in an objective manner and then decide if he should be in charge of defending the rights of ALL US citizens. If you decide "yes," then you've already swallowed the Kool-aid and there's simply nothing that would help you decide that he's the wrong choice.

—Barry Brown, Warren, RI

Sounds reasonable to me

—Ellen Lynch, Wakefield, RI

This man cannot become Attorney General of US

—Kate forte, Providence, RI

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Jeff Sessions would have been comfortable in 1817 not 2017. The man's viewpoint is minimal to be generous

—David Peckman, Mt. Pleasant, SC what the heck are you thinking?! if somebody grabbed you by your balls (what little there may be) wouldn't you feel you were assaulted? and what would you do about it???? you are a sick demented jackass just like trump

—Anne Singleton, Clemson, SC

A guy who doesn't know what sexual assault is has no business being the Attorney General.

—Louis M. Smith, Mount Pleasant, SC

He is insane ...II

—Beverly lawson, Mount Pleasant, SC

Get rid of him!!! No respect for living beings!!

—Rev.Marjorie Laird, North Charleston, SC

This may be Trump's worst pick.

—Gary F Hunsberger, Aiken, SC

I've been sexually assaulted.

—Naida Singleton, Bennettsville, SC

It is urgent that you shine a light on Mr. Sessions' ignorance of what constitutes sexually predatory behavior. Please ask the important questions, in clear and concise language, about his views of assault, rape, and sexual harassment. Include his views and record of discounting rape in the military. Please use his own documented remarks in the public questioning. The mothers and fathers of America want to know how he will protect their daughters from assault.

—Elizabeth K. Chamlee, Beaufort, SC

Having lived in Alabama, are you kidding? Give this country a break! This guy is a jerk.

—Judith Cole, Myrtle Beach, SC

Seriously this is scary!

—Jackie Ready, Fort Mill, SC

Indeed; we ust. Thank you.

This man is unfit for this office. Having said that polite response ,this ass clown is a bigot, white supremacist, misogynist, and that's the way the WHITE people of alafuckinbama want it and don't you dare question their belief in Jesus and his AR-15, who will reign down his wrath on the non- believers.

—Donald Perhala, Myrtle Beach, SC

Protecting girls and women against sexual assault and domestic violence is critical to our American values

—ellen Harley, CHARLESTON, SC

Get real, Mr. Sessions. Suppose a female grabbed you by your penis in public. If this isn't assault, then what us?

—Elizabeth S. wheeler, West Columbia, SC

This must not happen.

—Margaret Perakslis, Myrtle Beach, SC

There is no way that Sessions should be confirmed for anything. If what is said here is true he is a 'scum bag' of the first order and he and his name should have nothing whatsoever to do with any of the USA's national - and other - programs. He should be ditched immediately. Scum bags like him, we do not need. Helene Settle

—Helene Settle, Charleston, SC

Jeff Sessions has no respect for women and has repeatedly voted against legislation to protect their rights. He does not have the character needed for major office. Do not confirm him.

—Brenda Drake, Charleston, SC

I am strongly opposed to Senator Sessions being nominated for Attorney General.

How would I be or feel safer under your rule?

—Candyce Drum, Austin, TX

Sessions should never be appointed to any position in the Whitehouse. I know that our country is failing us with his appointment.

—Jamie Moore, Driftwood, TX

A sexual act perpetrated against someone without the ability to consent or when there is a firm dissent is rape. Peri

—Jana Cothren, Houston, TX

Ask him the hard question! His ignorance and lack of knowledge about sexual assault prohibits him from being able to do this job.

—Lindsey Van de Kirk, San Antonio, TX

Women's rights are human rights-

—Kathleen Moss, Weatherford, TX

Stop this appointment

—Johnnie Boswell, Laredo, TX

It's a horrible experience to know that someone is standing in front of you and wants to denigrate and hurt you in the most intimate way possible. This is a fear that very few men know or experience.

—Mary Lou Ramirez, Houston, TX

I too have been manhandled in a surprise "attack ". Anytime a man touches a woman without permission it is an assault. Sen. Sessions cannot hold this important position if he thinks otherwise

—Ann Caito, Houston, TX

Question regarding sessions personal stand on protecting americans from sexual assaults. Check his moral background and personal interest

—Love Duka, San Antonio, TX

Any kind of "grabbing" a women, is assault !!! Are you a Christian? What do you not understand about the word Assault ????

—Darice Whitten, Lake Jackson, TX

Ask Jeff sessions about sexual assault

—Lorena dunlap, San Antonio, TX

Senator Sessions is unqualified to be Attorney General

—Nancy Solana, Dallas, TX

Both of them are dumber than George W.

—Bill Shaw, Austin, TX

Americans deserve someone in the Attorney General office who will serve Justice for all and not just the Old White Men in the Republican Party.

—Georgia Shelander, San Antonio, TX

Two sexual predators, sitting dude by side. WHAT IN THE WORLD!?

—Janelle Ligarde, Austin, TX

He is unfit to be a leader in a modern nation. His views are antiquated and dangerous.

—Gavin Lewis, Houston, TX

Embarrass these bullies.

—Lin Willett, Grapevine, TX

Sessions' ignorance about sexual assault is unacceptable, as is his latent racism.

—James L. McCall, Dallas, TX

He cannot lead law enforcement if he isn't even able to identify what it is. This is scary.

—Eliza Revelett, Austin, TX

there are too many womens lieing on mens and getting away with it nothing is done to that woman this happen to my son she lied and for out he did not have anything to do with it he lost his good job his everything

—shirley mims, Houston, TX

I have been a teacher, prosecutor and now defense attorney. Every woman - every single woman - in our country has sometime or another been sexually groped or violated by a co-worker or boss. But I have never personally known a man who would grab (to use our soon-to-be president's own words) the vagina of a woman. By his own words Mr. Trump laughing admitted to what is known, at least in Texas, as a sexual assault. See Tx Penal Code Section 22.01(a)(1)(A). I have worked with hundreds and hundreds of survivors of rape and domestic violence. Senator Sessions dismal record of protecting those who have survived such violence is unconscionable and frankly, insulting. Lisa Haines

—Lisa Haines, Fort Worth, TX

Sessions AND Trump should be charged with sexual assault!!

—Robb Connors, Houston, TX

He and other gop knuckleheads are a stain on America

—Herman Greene, Gordonville, TX

Grabbing pussy is sexual assault.

—SUSAN HASLAM, Allen, TX

—Tina McClelland, Wichita Falls, TX

—Tina McClelland, Wichita Falls, TX

This gi Uy us a ridiculous pick for this position!!

—Janet Rivers, Floresville, TX

Please do not approve a man to a place of justice when he does not understand the basic definition of assault.

—Sandra Blum, San Antonio, TX

Drop this monster!

—Ken Lauter, Nacogdoches, TX

All of Trumps picks are foxes in the hen houses!!!!

—Laura L. Rea, Arlington, TX

We need an attorney general who will represent all citizens, regardless of sex, religion, or color. Senator Sessions does not appear to be such a man.

—Elisabeth Sommer, El Paso, TX

Ask Sessions if he ever had a mother, wife, sister or daughter, & if so, did he care about them or were they just there to serve a purpose? Does he know what sexual assault is? What does he plan to do about it, if anything?

—Barbara Wiebelhaus, Belton, TX

he is a racist, misogynist small man that should never be given this power

—Annie Henderson, Pottsboro, TX

Ask Sen. Sessions' about his abysmal record on fighting violence against women because it is the right thing to do.

—Frank Daversa, Houston, TX

Disgusting!! Just as disgusting as trump!!!!

—Glory Arroyos, Austin, TX

pitiful excuse for a man.

—David smith, Houston, TX

Wrong for the job and for the people

—Cynthia Caceres Curtis, garland, TX

This is a huge problem Texas has the leading statistics 1out of 4 college students are sexually assulted! The national statistics is 1 out of 5! Wake up we are sacrificing our children!

—Jeanie, Dallas, TX

A large number of women have been sexually assaulted, what can you do to help with that?

—Jane Palmer, Plano, TX

I definitely know that grabbing ANYONE, male or female, by the genitals is sexual assault.

—Linda Wood, Crosby, TX

If Sessions doesn't realize that grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault, imagine that that woman is your wife, daughter, mother, fiancee. Imagine.

—Sue White, Bedford, TX

ultraviolet

He needs to be stopped.

—Theresa, Houston, TX

If it was your daughter or granddaughter.....what would you do. Remember she is the one who will remain when you are no longer alive.

—Kathryn Lindsay CNOR, Denton, TX

As a survivor of sexual assault it is essential that the person who is AG understands the boundaries which should not be crossed and uses the force of the US Judiciary to protect people when others cross those boundaries.

—Faith Chatham, Arlington, TX

Any person who doesn't know what constitutes assault and domestic violence is not fit to be the Attorney General of the United States .

—E. C. Marullo, Fort Worth, TX

He is another sick and disgusting pig chosen by Trump. Grill him as much as you can on ethics and his beliefs. I'm hoping at least a few Congresspersons have a conscience!

—Jeanette Smith, Bedford, TX

Senator Sessions is the wrong choice for AG. His record on civil rights and his recent comments on assault are proof of that. Do not confirm.

—Debra Johnson, Del Valle, TX

Sorry, but I am worried about going backwards regarding equal justice in this country. Please do no vote to confirm Jeff Sessions.

—Lynn Willman, Austin, TX

Sessions is unacceptable. No Jeff Sessions as Attorney General!

—Robin Franklin, Galveston, TX

Not just Jeff Sessions, but also others who have been appointed.

—Deb Field, San Antonio, TX

An Attorney General must protect all Americans, not merely the white males.

—Lori Weber, Austin, TX

This man cannot be relied on to prosecute sexual assault cases when Trump himself has unresolved sexual assaults against women. Is he willing to prosecute and protect women and children from sexual predators including Donald Trump?

—Donna Jones, Del Valle, TX

It is simply reprehensible to have this man approved as Attorney General!

—Stephanie, San Antonio, TX

Jeff Sessions is the worst pick anyone could make. He is an insult to all people.

—David Dodson, Arlington, TX

Never ever should Jeff Sessions be AG; he really shouldn't even be in office.

—Esther Thomas, Cedar Park, TX

Any sexual contact without clear consent is sexual assault. Someone who does not understand this cannot be our country's attorney general.

—Robin Swindle, Grapevine, TX

Yes, it is sexual assault!

—Angelique Black, Arlington, TX

Jeff Sessions is unfit to be Attorney General, a Senator, or hold any other public office. Donald Trump should be ashamed that he nominated him.

—Steven Schafersman, MIDLAND, TX

This is a very bad man. There is no why he should be confirmed.

—Patricia J Somach, San Antonio, TX

Given his record, this is something that needs to be addressed if women are to feel safe and equally represented in this country.

—Annie Gorbet, Houston, TX

We cannot have a sexual predator in charge of national programs on sexual assault.

—Sylvia Harrington, Waco, TX

My family, on both sides, are Alabamans, my father's cousin was mayor of Birmingham. This man is abhorrent on so many levels, and a real throwback. Ask him about his views on sexual assault.

—Robert Vann, Fort Worth, TX

What a horrible man. He should be forced out of his office much less promoted to be the highest ranking person dealing with civil rights. What a sham!!

—Terry Harris, Austin, TX

Men have no idea what it is like to live in the body of a woman, NONE! I have been preyed upon by men since the age of 7..yes, SEVEN - and, by the way it was ALWAYS older white men. When are you all going to take sexual assault seriously? And more importantly, why would you not want to protect women, after all we all come from woman and are, generally, raised by them. How bout showing support, caring and LOVE for us?

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Sincerely,

Nita Chaudhary and Shaunna Thomas, Co-Founders, UltraViolet

Grabbing a woman by the genitals is assault. Geez!

—Diane Brewster, Houston, TX

No to Senator Jeff Sessions

—Tina Nolan, Dallas, TX

Appointing this arrogant and sexist individual to oversee national programs on sexual assault and violence against women is horrific. Why doesn't someone ask this animal if someone grabbed his mothers genitals would be OK? See his response or is that only OK for all the millions of women that are not his direct relative, insufferable, horrific for the rest of us.

—Doreen Hernandez, San Antonio, TX

A lawyer who is not sure if grabbing a woman by her genitals without her consent is assault, has no business being a lawyer, let alone the head of the Department of Justice!

—Harry Hunter, Dallas, TX

The men in positions of power in our country have lost their collective minds!!!!

—R Morgan Jackson, Cleburne, TX

we will go backwards if Sessions is confirmed. Stop Sessions!

—Sandra Fitts, Houston, TX

This man is an absolute joke and has no credibility with anyone who cares about human rights.

—Anglique Jamail, Houston, TX

Please ask him about sexual assault. Also, why should Drumpf produce the TV show if not to keep his previous sexual assault evidence off the air?

—Margaret Waid, Houston, TX

If he isn't fit to be a federal judge he isn't fit to be AG!

—Bruce Ward, Tyler, TX

Would Sessions see differently if it happen to...His...Mother, Sister, Wife are Daughter. Would he tell them... Get use to it because what happened isn't important... You are just a "WOMAN".

We don't need a racist like Sessions the Democratic party had better stick together

—Carl Franklin, Hallettsville, TX

If grabbing women by their 'pussy' isn't sexual assault, then neither is grabbing men by their dicks...

—Rael Nidess M.D., Marshall, TX

Really??? Doesn't he have any female relatives?

—Rick Lane, McKinney, TX

Absolutely not!! Do not confirm this man to ANY position in our government.

—Marolen Mitchell, Longview, TX

Sexual assault is a grave offense and needs to be recognized as such. Don't make this a partisan-good-ol-boy confirmation.

Please recognize our human responsibility to call out criminal behavior. Thank you.

—DL Logan, Pipe Creek, TX

Do the right thing... Please.

—Rick Lane, Plano, TX

Senate Republicans are guided by party loyalty and little else...so is their intent to rush Senator Sessions appointment through a surprise. Shame on them!

—Rosemary Helmick, Fort Worth, TX

Everyone who thinks grabbing women by the genitals isn't assault, better watch out! That shit goes two ways bitch.

Protestors should openly strive to target the genitals of politicians who think this way.

—Marie Palos, San Antonio, TX

Lowest form of life .

—Jon Cunningham, Fort Worth, TX

Senator Sessions needs to come clean about what is really involved in sexual assault and especially when it comes to domestic violence against women

—Eva Cox, Amarillo, TX

If you're uncertain about what sexual assault is, then let the victims of it define it for you.

Why are Senate Republicans (most of whom are men) pushing this misogynist and bigot down our throats? We deserve a highly-respected, politically balanced judicial candidate for this important position. Not Sessions, and not one like we have in TX, who is under at least 2 counts of indictment for fraud . . . How can Americans respect someone like these two??

—Candace Volz, Austin, TX

My wife and I are shocked and outraged about your sexist position concerning sexual assault and domestic violence in our Society. The only redemption seems to be your 100 per cent agreement with the p/...y Grabber-in-Chief. Good Luck with that.

—Barbara Lafreniere, Round Rock, TX

I am a retired school administrator. These kinds of "touches" are addressed in the student code of conduct. Please do the right thing by all of the people of the United States of America. No one should grab or touch you or any person in this manner. It is unlawful and the individual(s) should be prosecuted and held accountable for such behavior. It is not merely, inappropriate physical contact. It is wrong and should be considered as sexual assault.

—Brenda Aldridge, Keller, TX

Sexual Assault is very serious if you don't believe it is your not meant for this job

—Carmen Laffey, Austin, TX

Jeff Sessions is not fit to become our Attorney General. We need an AG who knows the law, including what assault is and racist treatment, too.

—Walt and Melba Doering, Georgetown, TX

This MAN will never be raped and probably never sexully assaulted! Who is HE to make jusdegements about women?!

—Lee Ellen Benjamin, Atlanta, TX

Disgusting person!

—Joyce Grimshaw, , TX

He's the wrong person for the job. It couldn't be more clear he doesn't value women or prioritize protecting them.

—Nicole A., Austin, TX

This man shows disrespect to women and should not hold this high position in our government!

—Tina Caliga, Fort Worth, TX

—Michael Earney, Austin, TX

The reason he doesn't understand that grabbing somebody by their genitals is sexual assault is that he doesn't mind if somebody does so to him. He may even pray somebody, anybody, would grab him by his genitals. But obviously, the only way that would happen is if he were willing to pay for it.

—Joanne Elaine Mershon, Greenville, TX

Sessions appointment is an abomination! This idiot does not even know that "grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault", and he is going to protect women in our national programs! Are you going to be that stupid just because he is? Please protect women and stop this appointment!

—Lisa Shaw, Leander, TX

Are you kidding me!! You don't know what the definition of "sexual assault" is??? You don't belong on the committee for sexual assault and domestic violence!!!

Question regarding sessions personal stand on protecting americans from sexual assaults. Check his moral background and personal interest

—Love Duka, San Antonio, TX

Any kind of "grabbing" a women, is assault !!! Are you a Christian? What do you not understand about the word Assault ????

—Darice Whitten, Lake Jackson, TX

Ask Jeff sessions about sexual assault

—Lorena dunlap, San Antonio, TX

Senator Sessions is unqualified to be Attorney General

—Nancy Solana, Dallas, TX

Both of them are dumber than George W.

—Bill Shaw, Austin, TX

Americans deserve someone in the Attorney General office who will serve Justice for all and not just the Old White Men in the Republican Party.

—Georgia Shelander, San Antonio, TX

Two sexual predators, sitting dude by side. WHAT IN THE WORLD!?

—Janelle Ligarde, Austin, TX

He is unfit to be a leader in a modern nation. His views are antiquated and dangerous.

—Gavin Lewis, Houston, TX

Embarrass these bullies.

—Lin Willett, Grapevine, TX

Sessions' ignorance about sexual assault is unacceptable, as is his latent racism.

—James L. McCall, Dallas, TX

He cannot lead law enforcement if he isn't even able to identify what it is. This is scary.

—Eliza Revelett, Austin, TX

there are too many womens lieing on mens and getting away with it nothing is done to that woman this happen to my son she lied and for out he did not have anything to do with it he lost his good job his everything

—shirley mims, Houston, TX

I have been a teacher, prosecutor and now defense attorney. Every woman - every single woman - in our country has sometime or another been sexually groped or violated by a co-worker or boss. But I have never personally known a man who would grab (to use our soon-to-be president's own words) the vagina of a woman. By his own words Mr. Trump laughing admitted to what is known, at least in Texas, as a sexual assault. See Tx Penal Code Section 22.01(a)(1)(A). I have worked with hundreds and hundreds of survivors of rape and domestic violence. Senator Sessions dismal record of protecting those who have survived such violence is unconscionable and frankly, insulting. Lisa Haines

—Lisa Haines, Fort Worth, TX

Sessions AND Trump should be charged with sexual assault!!

—Robb Connors, Houston, TX

He and other gop knuckleheads are a stain on America

—Herman Greene, Gordonville, TX

Grabbing pussy is sexual assault.

—SUSAN HASLAM, Allen, TX

—Tina McClelland, Wichita Falls, TX

—Tina McClelland, Wichita Falls, TX

This gi Uy us a ridiculous pick for this position!!

—Janet Rivers, Floresville, TX

Please do not approve a man to a place of justice when he does not understand the basic definition of assault.

—Sandra Blum, San Antonio, TX

Drop this monster!

—Ken Lauter, Nacogdoches, TX

All of Trumps picks are foxes in the hen houses!!!!

—Laura L. Rea, Arlington, TX

We need an attorney general who will represent all citizens, regardless of sex, religion, or color. Senator Sessions does not appear to be such a man.

—Elisabeth Sommer, El Paso, TX

Ask Sessions if he ever had a mother, wife, sister or daughter, & if so, did he care about them or were they just there to serve a purpose? Does he know what sexual assault is? What does he plan to do about it, if anything?

—Barbara Wiebelhaus, Belton, TX

he is a racist, misogynist small man that should never be given this power

—Annie Henderson, Pottsboro, TX

Ask Sen. Sessions' about his abysmal record on fighting violence against women because it is the right thing to do.

—Frank Daversa, Houston, TX

Disgusting!! Just as disgusting as trump!!!!

—Glory Arroyos, Austin, TX

pitiful excuse for a man.

—David smith, Houston, TX

Wrong for the job and for the people

—Cynthia Caceres Curtis, garland, TX

This is a huge problem Texas has the leading statistics 1out of 4 college students are sexually assulted! The national statistics is 1 out of 5! Wake up we are sacrificing our children!

—Jeanie, Dallas, TX

A large number of women have been sexually assaulted, what can you do to help with that?

—Jane Palmer, Plano, TX

I definitely know that grabbing ANYONE, male or female, by the genitals is sexual assault.

—Linda Wood, Crosby, TX

If Sessions doesn't realize that grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault, imagine that that woman is your wife, daughter, mother, fiancee. Imagine.

—Sue White, Bedford, TX

ultraviolet

He needs to be stopped.

—Theresa, Houston, TX

If it was your daughter or granddaughter.....what would you do. Remember she is the one who will remain when you are no longer alive.

—Kathryn Lindsay CNOR, Denton, TX

As a survivor of sexual assault it is essential that the person who is AG understands the boundaries which should not be crossed and uses the force of the US Judiciary to protect people when others cross those boundaries.

—Faith Chatham, Arlington, TX

Any person who doesn't know what constitutes assault and domestic violence is not fit to be the Attorney General of the United States .

—E. C. Marullo, Fort Worth, TX

He is another sick and disgusting pig chosen by Trump. Grill him as much as you can on ethics and his beliefs. I'm hoping at least a few Congresspersons have a conscience!

—Jeanette Smith, Bedford, TX

Senator Sessions is the wrong choice for AG. His record on civil rights and his recent comments on assault are proof of that. Do not confirm.

—Debra Johnson, Del Valle, TX

Sorry, but I am worried about going backwards regarding equal justice in this country. Please do no vote to confirm Jeff Sessions.

—Lynn Willman, Austin, TX

Sessions is unacceptable. No Jeff Sessions as Attorney General!

—Robin Franklin, Galveston, TX

Not just Jeff Sessions, but also others who have been appointed.

—Deb Field, San Antonio, TX

An Attorney General must protect all Americans, not merely the white males.

—Lori Weber, Austin, TX

This man cannot be relied on to prosecute sexual assault cases when Trump himself has unresolved sexual assaults against women. Is he willing to prosecute and protect women and children from sexual predators including Donald Trump?

—Donna Jones, Del Valle, TX

It is simply reprehensible to have this man approved as Attorney General!

—Stephanie, San Antonio, TX

Jeff Sessions is the worst pick anyone could make. He is an insult to all people.

—David Dodson, Arlington, TX

Never ever should Jeff Sessions be AG; he really shouldn't even be in office.

—Esther Thomas, Cedar Park, TX

Any sexual contact without clear consent is sexual assault. Someone who does not understand this cannot be our country's attorney general.

—Robin Swindle, Grapevine, TX

Yes, it is sexual assault!

—Angelique Black, Arlington, TX

Jeff Sessions is unfit to be Attorney General, a Senator, or hold any other public office. Donald Trump should be ashamed that he nominated him.

—Steven Schafersman, MIDLAND, TX

This is a very bad man. There is no why he should be confirmed.

—Patricia J Somach, San Antonio, TX

This man is not worthy of the position,

—Robert W Rozell II, Fort Worth, TX

Given his record, this is something that needs to be addressed if women are to feel safe and equally represented in this country.

—Annie Gorbet, Houston, TX

We cannot have a sexual predator in charge of national programs on sexual assault.

—Sylvia Harrington, Waco, TX

My family, on both sides, are Alabamans, my father's cousin was mayor of Birmingham. This man is abhorrent on so many levels, and a real throwback. Ask him about his views on sexual assault.

—Robert Vann, Fort Worth, TX

What a horrible man. He should be forced out of his office much less promoted to be the highest ranking person dealing with civil rights. What a sham!!

—Terry Harris, Austin, TX

Men have no idea what it is like to live in the body of a woman, NONE! I have been preyed upon by men since the age of 7..yes, SEVEN - and, by the way it was ALWAYS older white men. When are you all going to take sexual assault seriously? And more importantly, why would you not want to protect women, after all we all come from woman and are, generally, raised by them. How bout showing support, caring and LOVE for us?

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

Please ask! we can know the future by looking at the past. Domestic violence and sexual assault victims need protection. Sen. Sessions has shown his inability to be leader of these national programs. Change the culture of rape/assault, please do not confirm this rushed appt.

—Meg Randle, SLC, UT

Deplorable

—Thom Filgo, Sandy, UT

Hi, Trump's Attorney General pick, Senator Jeff Sessions--the man who could be in charge of our national programs on sexual assault and domestic violence--doesn't know if grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault. What's worse is Senate Republicans are rushing to push his appointment through. That's why next week, five brave survivors of sexual assault are coming to D.C. to meet with key senators and demand they ask about Sen. Sessions' abysmal record on fighting violence against women. They'll deliver signatures from UltraViolet members in person. Will you sign on too?

Our legal system must not be associated with or led by such a RACIST, anti-Woman disgrace to the profession. We need the BEST and BRIGHTEST not a Good 'ole boy!

—Mark D. Persons, Salt Lake City, UT

Maybe he only views it as sexual assault if a woman grabs a mans genitals!

—Robyn Shaw, Salt Lake City, UT

I am also concerned about him protecting voting rights. He has been racist in the past.

—Judith Scheffres, Salt Lake City, UT

If you don't know what constitutes sexual assault, then you are not the man for the job!

—Karen Elmore, Midvale, UT

This man with his background has no business nor acceptable credentials to be the Attorney General of the US. He has no compassion or empathy for some of our most vulnerable citizens.

Turn about is fair play. Aggressively attack this man down South and observe his reaction; question him if this sexual assault. Tape his reaction. Have a hanky handy...

—Elizabeth Nicholson, Salt Lake City, UT

Please ask! we can know the future by looking at the past. Domestic violence and sexual assault victims need protection. Sen. Sessions has shown his inability to be leader of these national programs. Change the culture of rape/assault, please do not confirm this rushed appt.

—Meg Randle, SLC, UT

—Thom Filgo, Sandy, UT

Hi, Trump's Attorney General pick, Senator Jeff Sessions--the man who could be in charge of our national programs on sexual assault and domestic violence--doesn't know if grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault. What's worse is Senate Republicans are rushing to push his appointment through. That's why next week, five brave survivors of sexual assault are coming to D.C. to meet with key senators and demand they ask about Sen. Sessions' abysmal record on fighting violence against women. They'll deliver signatures from UltraViolet members in person. Will you sign on too?

Senator Jeff Sessions is not is not qualified to by the Attorney General of the United States of America. Please vote no to Senators Attorney General appointment.

—Gray Smith, Sandy, UT

do that to my sister & ...

—Fritz Bachman, Moab, UT

Ask Jeff sessions about sexual assault during his conformation hearing.

—Victoria willard, Saint George, UT

Our legal system must not be associated with or led by such a RACIST, anti-Woman disgrace to the profession. We need the BEST and BRIGHTEST not a Good 'ole boy!

—Mark D. Persons, Salt Lake City, UT

Maybe he only views it as sexual assault if a woman grabs a mans genitals!

—Robyn Shaw, Salt Lake City, UT

I am also concerned about him protecting voting rights. He has been racist in the past.

—Judith Scheffres, Salt Lake City, UT

If you don't know what constitutes sexual assault, then you are not the man for the job!

—Karen Elmore, Midvale, UT

This man with his background has no business nor acceptable credentials to be the Attorney General of the US. He has no compassion or empathy for some of our most vulnerable citizens.

Dear Honorable Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary,

We write on behalf of UltraViolet, a community of over one million people mobilized to fight sexism and expand women's rights.

This community--which includes thousands of survivors of sexual assault and domestic abuse--deeply believes that President-elect Donald Trump's choice for U.S. Attorney General, Senator Jeff Sessions, is unqualified to protect the rights of women.

Just this past October, Sen. Sessions said he didn't think grabbing a woman by her genitals is sexual assault. He has also voted AGAINST the life-saving Violence Against Women Act and the law that would finally address rape in the military.

Please find attached the names of 100,000 people, who strongly oppose the appointment of Sen. Sessions as the next Attorney General and want the Judiciary Committee to ask the Senator at least one of the following questions:

1. In October of 2016 you stated that you did not know whether grabbing a woman sexually without her consent constitutes sexual assault. In fact the definition of sexual assault according to the Department of Justice is "any type of sexual contact or behavior that occurs without the explicit consent of the recipient." How can you ensure survivors of sexual assault that you will take crimes against them seriously? Why should they believe sexual assault will be treated as the grave crime and violation that it is in your Justice Department?
2. You voted against the Violence Against Women Act of 2013. Can you explain your vote? Can you also explain how you plan to enforce those programs and protect women if you become Attorney General?
3. In both 2014 and 2015, you voted against bipartisan legislation to curb the growing epidemic of sexual assault in the military. This legislation narrowly failed both times, and was supported both times by some of the most conservative members of your party. Why should women service members trust that if they do report assault, that their Attorney General will treat it as a grave crime and violation?
4. Following the 1998 murder of Dr. Barnett Slepian, a Buffalo-based abortion provider, a task force was created to protect the safety of abortion providers, including occasionally dispensing federal marshals to protect providers and the women they treat. This has been the responsibility of the Attorney General since. Would you commit to protecting the safety of abortion providers subject to clinic terrorism through the use of federal marshals and other resources of the Justice Department?
5. One of the responsibilities of the Attorney General is to enforce the Freedom of Access to Clinic Entrances Act, or "FACE" Act, through bringing charges against those who obstruct patients seeking abortion care or jeopardize their safety. This has been a practice of past Attorneys General in both Democratic and Republican Administrations. The FACE law has had a clear impact in reducing violence against clinics, providers and patients, particularly blockades. As Attorney General, will you commit to protecting the constitutionally protected right of women to access abortion care, and enforce the FACE Act?

We implore you to use the power of your office to protect millions of women and survivors of violence--a basic obligation to the people you were elected to serve. Do not let Sen. Sessions become the next Attorney General.

If you have any questions, please contact Emma Boorboor, emma@weareultraviolet.org.

Sincerely,

Nita Chaudhary and Shaunna Thomas, Co-Founders, UltraViolet

This man has no business being close to our judicial system!

—Hale Irwin, Montpelier, VT

Is it assault if someone were to grab YOUR genitals? What's with the double standard?

—Susan Detato, Brownington, VT

If you cannot show physical respect or decency to women, how does that qualify you to be in charge of anything? You would be publicly paid official and would not represent more than half the population. If you hire this hack, please be sure women will expect to be grabbed and to grab you back. With force.

—Merida Prudhomme, Brattleboro, VT

We need someone in this position who is sensitive to these issues otherwise the protection of women will be set back to the dark ages!

—Betsy Emerson, Richmond, VT

While people can change their racial attitude over time, Senator Jeff Sessions has not demonstrated a sufficient conversion to ensure equal justice under the federal law to satisfy me. Were I a fellow Senator, based on what I know of Sen. Sessions today, I would vote against his nomination for Attorney General under the Trump Administration.

—Ben A. Boshier Jr., Burlington, VT

Sessions: one of MANY Deplorables in this basket -

—J Scheer, Colchester, VT

This man is unacceptable! Ask him the hard and embarrassing questions at the Senate hearings!

—Joanna Rankin, Burlington, VT

The Attorney General should exemplify the value of the rule of law. Law, not misogyny or racism.

—Alex Brown, East Montpelier, VT

WHAT?

—Deidre Scherer, Williamsville, VT

Senator Jeff Session's disregard for the well-being and privacy of humans on this planet is disturbing and inappropriate in these enlightened times.

—Christine Barnes, Northfield, VT

This man is NOT fit for office!

—John Snell, Montpelier, VT

It is time to throw out Trump's "Cabinet of Horrors".

—Claiborne Coyle, Putney, VT

Women make up the majority of voters in this country. If the Republicans push Sen. Sessions appointment they will be trounced in the midterms.

—Pat Smith, Bethel, VT

Please do not let a man with this sort of record be in this position of power. It is time for Jeff Sessions to be asked the tough questions. Please work to protect the people of this country who are not millionaires.

—Jennifer Boucher, Cabot, VT

The US Attorney General cannot be clueless when it comes to women's rights! Say "NO" to Sessions!

—Sidney Stetson, Northfield, VT

Let us not let the safeguards to protect women slide back to when I was a girl in the 60's!

—Lee E. Larson, Graniteville, VT

I really want to hear what the senator would say about this.

—Linda Elbow, West Glover, VT

Stand support and protect all citizens, women included!

—Amy LePage, Montpelier, VT

This man has a record that should preclude him from serving in any elected office. Trump is oppositional defiant with almost all of his appointments, but this is the worst and fits right in with soon to be President Pence, one of the phonies the pseudo christians on this so called republican team...team ha.

—Dona Jackson, Lyndonville, VT

Sexual Assault is a very real fear and reality for women. I myself experienced a boy grabbing me by my genitals when in jr high. 45 years later I can feel that awful feeling and can still picture his face laughing like it is happening now.

—Tami Koester, Essex Junction, VT

His racial insensitivity, to put it politically nicer than the politicians said about him when nominated for judgeship, is now mirrored by his inability to decide if grabbing a woman's genitals, as described by Trump, is SEXUAL ASSULT. Come on how can any of you even consider him for any cabinet position.

—Georg Kalmar, Hardwick, VT

Shut the door on Jeff Sessions, a disgusting man.

—Rita Pitkin, Wolcott, VT

Have you ever been raped, r. Sessions?

—Toni Sunderland, Charlotte, VT

How bankrupt can the Republicans get?

—David & Marilyn Magnus, Barnet, VT

NO THANKS Jeff Sessions! We need supportive sexually appropriate men at the helm!!!

—PaulaSchultz, West Halifax, VT

Do not confirm Sessions.

—Shayne trubisz, South Burlington, VT

Trump has brought political dialog to a new low, and Sessions is an eager ally.

—Joel Trupin PhD, Marshfield, VT

This man should not even be considered for this post. He is morally bankrupt.

—Gail lilly, Brattleboro, VT

Grabbing a woman by her genitals is assault. Wake up!

—vanessa madden, Enosburg Falls, VT

Sessions is NOT qualified for this position.

—Claudia Gonda, Middletown Springs, VT

It is unthinkable that you could allow a man who does not support victims of sexual assault and domestic violence be put in a position where he would be in charge of programs that address these issues. Someone who condones violence against women has no place in government at all; still less as an Attorney General.

—Karen Gutmann, Middletown Springs, VT

He has a horrifying record. What is going on in our country is a disgrace.

—Meredith ozier, Middletown Springs, VT
