<<http://cf.heritage.org/events/eventDetails.cfm?EventID=98>> The Judicial Confirmation Crisis
(click title to RSVP)

Featuring

Senator Mitch McConnell
U.S. Senate

Hosted by

Virginia L. Thomas
Director, Executive Branch Relations,
The Heritage Foundation

In 1998, when there were 50 judicial vacancies, Senator Leahy called this a "judicial vacancy crisis." Currently there are 96 vacancies, despite President Bush nominating judges at a record pace. Chief Justice Rehnquist recently wrote that America's present judicial vacancy crisis is "alarming." Nevertheless, Senator Leahy, chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee, has refused to hold hearings or votes for a number of court of appeals candidates whose nominations have been pending for almost a year. Members of the Senate, and others, have accused the Democratic leadership of turning the judicial confirmation process into nothing more than a political game and an ideological affair. Charles Pickering is the most blatant example of a Bush nominee subjected to an ideological litmus test. Judge Pickering had more than enough votes to be confirmed by the full Senate if brought to the floor for a vote. But a floor vote may never occur if the Judiciary Committee's party-line vote holds.

More battles are brewing as other well-qualified nominees - including Miguel Estrada, Priscilla Owen, Brooks Smith and Michael McConnell - are still awaiting hearings promised by Senator Leahy in January. Is all of this a warm-up for future Supreme Court appointments? How can we address this crisis? Please join us at this Heritage Foundation event as Senator Mitch McConnell (R-KY) addresses the need to return to fairness in the confirmation process.

Coddy is in New Orleans, but he will call you about the regional meeting.

Here's my next question-

Ken is flying to Waco on Thursday for the RNC Ranch event (commercial and the RNC is paying). After that, I need to get him to Houston. Is there any way that he could get a ride on one of the private planes that is in Waco for the event? I am trying to find out if there are going to be a private plane there (rather than corporate), but wanted to check to see if it was even a possibility. The commercial flights are somewhat scarce. You have to fly to Dallas before you fly to Houston. He said that he would be willing to pay for the cost of a commercial flight if necessary. (or we could have the rnc pay)

He is paying for his flight from Houston to DC personally. thanks

Terrorism Insurance Backers Upset By Official's Remark

Industry proponents of a federal terrorism reinsurance bill are up in arms over a remark made by an insurance executive this week about the need for legislation and the availability of terrorism coverage. The executive, interviewed by

BestWire news service, was identified as David James, a terrorism underwriter for Ascot

Underwriting

Ltd. Ascot serves as the managing agent for the American International

Group's new

Lloyd's of London syndicate. "It's been frustrating to see a lot of press coverage about the unavailability of terror cover, when in fact, there's a very active and maturing market,"

James was quoted as saying. He also said he did not believe that a U.S.

government-backed terrorism backstop was necessary. The article prompted frantic communications among bill supporters inside and outside the Beltway, sources said, and elicited a swift response

from executives at AIG and Lloyd's, the world's largest and second largest commercial insurers, respectively. In their statement, AIG executives noted, "Ascot Underwriting Ltd. employees are not authorized to speak for AIG." Said AIG Chairman M.R. Greenberg, "While AIG and a number of other insurers have created a limited market for terrorism insurance in the wake of Sept. 11, there is still an urgent need for the federal government to create a reinsurance backstop facility to provide the capacity to cover all businesses that could suffer terror losses." He added that Congress should act quickly to pass terrorism insurance legislation. Lloyd's of London representatives, who sources said were on Capitol Hill this week lobbying on behalf of a reinsurance bill, also distanced themselves from James' remarks, and made clear their support for congressional action. Lloyd's Chairman Sax Riley noted that the limited capacity Lloyd's and other commercial insurers have available, "will not be sufficient in the near term." Lloyd's is the world's third largest reinsurer, with 35 percent of its business coming from the United States. Meanwhile, BI Daily News, a business insurance trade publication, reported this week that risk managers at large corporations are becoming more interested in purchasing terrorism coverage, according to a survey conducted by Boston-based RM Access. Results were based on 45 responses from 150 randomly selected risk managers for Fortune 500 companies surveyed from February through March. RM ACCESS is a risk consulting and insurance brokerage unit of Fidelity Investments. The article quotes John Ryan, senior vice president in Boston for RM Access, as saying 42 percent of the risk managers surveyed are looking at purchasing terrorism coverage, after waiting to see whether the federal government would respond. Also this week, the Coalition to Insure Against Terrorism, a group of U.S. business insurance policyholders, wrote to Senate leaders, urging them to quickly pass reinsurance legislation. * by Pamela Barnett

Brett, I received this for review from Karen's Office and wanted to get your input. (Hence my head in your office just as you were leaving for your speech).

Seems like an appropriate forum and I'm assuming that Karen will not give preferential treatment to only this PAC. Of course, I'm sure Karen knows the no direct solicitation rule and the no request that people give money in her remarks.

The only question in my mind is that Karen's the only draw, which is a little different than the section 2635.808 example where the Secretary of Labor speaks at a fundraiser honoring another distinguished person, who, arguably could be the money draw.

Also, does this go to Office of Political Affairs? Thoughts?

he's flying to Burlington on a commercial ticket (not AF1), correct?
then, yes, if he is flying to VT for personal business he will have to pay

Since Ari is going to be the keynote speaker at the Westchester County Association's Spring Dinner Meeting -- I assume it's official, even though they have offered to pay. He will fly from White Plains to West Point to hook up with the President for the commencement. He will fly from West Point to Burlington, Vermont for his Middlebury class reunion. Does this help?

Cashing In on Terrorism

Monday, April 22, 2002; Page A18

I was astonished to read that Leo V. Boyle, president of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America, would defend open-ended and unlimited punitive damage awards in any future terrorism insurance legislation [letters, April 15].

Because taxpayer money is directly at risk, reasonable limits on liability must be part of any legislation, particularly with respect to punitive damages. Punitive damages should be limited to terrorists and those who help them. Mr. Boyle suggests that if an airline recklessly hires a pilot who is a terrorist, it would always be immune. Nothing could be further from the truth. If the airline had any knowledge that its acts aided and abetted terrorists, punitive damages would be appropriate under legislation already passed by the House.

It is a sad commentary that Mr. Boyle and the organized plaintiffs' bar would pursue pots of gold in cases of terrorism. In the event of another tragedy, dollars must be preserved for those who are injured and need them. They should not be wasted on excessive punitive damage awards.

That is exactly what I was seeking clarification on last week. We are submitting scheduling paper for a Members meeting on the 9th (not event). But it's very important that we have a judges message on law day if we're not doing so on the 9th. Dan, can you confirm the law day issue?

Brett -- Do we need a bullet specifically addressing the trial bar's argument that punitives provide policy holders with stronger incentives to take security measures and perhaps directly address their hypothetical of an airline carelessly hiring a pilot with terrorist ties? those are the arguments I'm hearing most.

Note that I have since added one bullet point under the punitives section.

-- The Federal Tort Claims Act prohibits awards of punitive damages against the United States. In terrorism cases, where the United States may provide a financial backup if damage and liability exceeds a certain amount, it is similarly appropriate to preclude punitive damages.

And I also added the following to the last bullet point under punitives:

-- No one should profit off an act of terrorism by obtaining punitive damages (which, by definition, are beyond what is necessary to compensate the victims) against third parties who did not commit or aid the act of terrorism.

Here is the circulation I would propose for the questionnaire. This is large but still excludes a considerable number of people, and it should be easily defensible as a reasonable, if not generous, approach. Precisely how we would implement the circulation and collection (e.g., direct contact with each person vs. going through office heads) remains to be discussed.

Wow, this is like one-stop shopping for me now...

well, since you are now the travel expert, I've got a Mrs. Bush question for you:

Mrs. Bush flew out to Crawford on a separate plane to meet up with the President for the Easter holiday. Even though his trip was considered "official", Mrs. Bush's trip would be personal, correct? Just wanted to make sure before we bill her for airfare.

Subject: guests on AF1

Linda Gambatesa has requested confirmation regarding the President's financial obligations for personal guests on AF1. It is my understanding that the President is not required to pay airfare costs for personal guests, only meals and other inflight services. I addressed this issue with Airlift Operations and they confirmed that the President is not billed for airfare costs for his guests (official or personal) and that this policy has been in place in previous administrations.

Also, we also want to be sure that our procedures are correct with regards to staff members' guests on AF1. Airlift Ops has informed us that staff members' guests on AF1 have typically not been billed either. The only circumstance in which staff members' guests have been billed is "special missions" (for example, Secretary Card used a DOD aircraft for official travel and was accompanied by his wife. His wife's airfare was billed to his personal account.)

Are we correct in continuing to operate according to these policies or do we need to revisit a "guest policy"? Thanks!

Kim

BMA Says Lack of Terrorism Insurance

Cuts Commercial Mortgage Loans, Bonds

The Bond Market Association announced April 18 that according to a survey of its members who deal in commercial mortgage-backed securities (CMBS), due to the high cost or unavailability of terrorism insurance for property owners, this year large lenders have placed on hold or canceled more than $7 billion in commercial mortgage loans.

In the association's view, the $7 billion in loans on hold or canceled so far this year--which equals about 10 percent of the 2001 large loan volume--likely means that $7 billion less in CMBS will be issued in 2002.

In 2001, the volume of large loans totaled $73.8 billion, $72 billion of which became CMBS, BMA said in a press release. BMA's vice president for legislative affairs, Michael Williams, told BNA in a telephone interview that the roughly 30 firms that responded to the survey represent most of the CMBS market by far.

Call to Congress

The canceled or delayed loans represent lost construction jobs and missed cost savings for property owners hoping to refinance at lower interest rates, the release said. Williams said that the association is renewing the call it made to Congress last fall when it sent letters to lawmakers urging action to form a "federal backstop" for terrorism insurance. He emphasized that BMA is not proposing a way to achieve such a backstop. "The certainty of having the backstop in place would do a great deal for our members in the CMBS market." Last October, according to Williams, a bill addressing the matter--the proposed "Terrorism Risk Protection Act"--was introduced by House Financial Services Committee Chairman Michael Oxley (H.R. 3210). That legislation and a contemporaneous Senate proposal both would have made the federal government--either through loan guarantees or direct payments--a reinsurer of last resort for insurance companies faced with overwhelming terrorism-related claims. The Senate proposal, developed by Sens. Phil Gramm (R-Texas), Christopher Dodd (D-Conn.), and Paul Sarbanes (D-Md.), did not become a bill. The House bill passed the House in late November, Williams said. The House bill was placed on the Senate legislative calendar; however, according to BMA, "[e]fforts to reach a compromise on the legislation last fall ultimately failed." Williams said that BMA did not take a position on the legislative proposals when they were first advanced and still does not take a position on proposals outstanding.

Coalition Exists

BMA, along with insurance companies and banks, is part of the Coalition to Insure Against Terrorism (CIAT), which is asking Congress to shore up the terrorism insurance market. Although CIAT has expressed opinions on programs that would be feasible, Williams said, BMA has not signed on to any of the coalition's letters. Variables Congress must consider in developing a program to protect the terrorism insurance market include, for example, what trigger mechanisms would have to kick in before funds became available and whether or not the funds would be repaid, according to Williams. In its release, BMA explained that most large commercial loans are repackaged as CMBS. As is the case with residential mortgage-backed securities, the principal and interest payments for CMBS flow from mortgage payments. The difference is that CMBS are backed solely by mortgages on commercial buildings.

Investors in this $270 billion market include pension funds, insurance companies, and other institutions, according to BMA.

Coverage Pricey

As with any mortgage, lenders require the owner of the property, which is the loan collateral, to obtain insurance coverage. Prior to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks on New York and Washington, such policies routinely included coverage for losses related to acts of terrorism, BMA noted. In the wake of the destruction of the World Trade Center towers and the damage to the surrounding area in lower Manhattan, most insurers of commercial property either refuse to provide the same coverage, or price the coverage so high that the real estate deal is rendered uneconomical.

Terrorism coverage for many large properties has been difficult to find, according to a General Accounting Office report issued in February. While property owners continue to make mortgage payments that flow through to CMBS investors, the lack of terrorism coverage can place the property owner in technical default on their loans.

This could lead rating agencies that monitor the pools of mortgages underlying

CMBS to downgrade the credit quality of the securities, BMA said. In addition, the lack of terrorism insurance means that institutional investors such as life insurance companies could see their regulatory capital erode if they have large

CMBS holdings, according to the association.

Brett, I thought the focus was going to be on the vacancy crisis. I do not know whether we should be inviting supporters of our nominees. We should be inviting people concerned that a branch of government is not working as it should.

I also do not think law students add much. Rather, I think we should invite (i) selected bar leaders from around the country; (ii) leaders of certain groups that care about this issue; and (iii) bipartisan supporters of the key nominees.

With the exception of Tom Taggart and myself, I understand that everyone in ORM received a notice that they had failed to turn in a certification regarding the Department of Justice inquiry.

Obviously, they will do so if necessary. However, I had assumed that my response was sufficient, based on my memo below.

MEMORANDUM FOR: BRETT KAVANAUGH
COUNSEL'S OFFICE

FROM: TERRY GOOD
OFFICE OF RECORDS MANAGEMENT

REV_00092643

RE: RESPONSE TO INQUIRY FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

In response to the March 18 memorandum from Timothy E. Flanagan, Deputy Counsel to the President, I am attaching my signed copy of certification.

Previously, I have provided to the Office of the Staff Secretary, copies of what may be responsive documents found among those in the custody of the Office of Records Management.

Unless you think otherwise, I would believe that my certification satisfies the requirement for all members of the Office of Records Management.

As discussed in the admin contact meeting this morning, we now have new passes ready for pickup in Room 1. Please pass the word along to those in your office who need to turn in passes and pick up new ones. We notified each person by phone, so this is just a reminder.

Thanks.

I have two boxes by my desk. One has the yes responses because the OAs office is coming in this afternoon because several of their employees sent responses directly to me and not to Sandy Steele. She wants copies of their responses and is going to go through them today. Several of her employees wrote which branch they were from and not which office (ex. mailroom and not OAs office), thus it is hard for us to determine without going through every response and the phone book which ones she needs.

The second box is filled with research I've been doing on the formation of the Department of Energy and Transportation for a legal memorandum I am working on for Brad.

Brett ---

I just talked to Heather and she will be available to get together by phone.

I think a call would be helpful so that we all have a better sense of "the message" for the Hill and where we should go from here. Regarding tomorrow, having someone object (whether its Hatch or Schumer b/c they want more time) appears inevitable, so we're set on that front -- and at least we know we have a little more time.

You mentioned looping Kristen in as well so I've included her on this e-mail.

Let us know WHEN you want to try to do this...

(I have a call I have to do now and then will be on the Hill in mtgs from 3:45pm - 5:30pm).

christine

Brett ---

I just talked to Heather and she will be available to get together by phone.

I think a call would be helpful so that we all have a better sense of "the message" for the Hill and where we should go from here. Regarding tomorrow, having someone object (whether its Hatch or Schumer b/c they want more time) appears inevitable, so we're set on that front -- and at least we know we have a little more time.

You mentioned looping Kristen in as well so I've included her on this e-mail.

Let us know WHEN you want to try to do this...

(I have a call I have to do now and then will be on the Hill in mtgs from 3:45pm - 5:30pm).

Makan (Hatch) has asked that we sit on the letter from State if it has not already been sent. (heather - i think he expressed the same to you earlier today.)
According to John Wood (OMB) it has not yet been sent to the Hill but is likely to be faxed at any minute....

Brett -- I understand you feel strongly that the letter be sent ASAP.
Makan believes we unnecessarily box ourselves in and he wants a chance to informally shop our principles to his other (R) cmte staff.... his view is that we can send the letter but does it have to be "now".
Nancy is out of pocket and having not been involved in this since the beginning (months ago when the letter was first drafted) I don't feel comfortable pulling the plug on my own....so I'll leave that up to you. (& by now it may very well have already gone.)
If you want to stop it -- John Wood says Jim Terry is the contact at State.

Senate Democratic leaders intend to try and bring terrorism insurance legislation to the floor this evening, following completion of the estate tax vote, congressional and industry sources said today. A spokeswoman for Senate Majority Leader Daschle did not confirm the plan. But Daschle has said repeatedly that he wants to try and complete action on the reinsurance measure before the July 4 recess, and has suggested he would be willing to file for cloture if an agreement on the legislation could not be reached. Senate Republican sources said they expect Daschle to file cloture tonight on a Democratic measure pending on the Senate calendar. Sponsors of that legislation include Sen. Christopher Dodd, D-Conn., and Senate Majority Whip Reid, among others. At presstime, the two sides had not reached a consent agreement that would allow for the Senate to go directly to the bill, which the Senate GOP essentially has rejected as an acceptable starting

Senate Clears Way For Vote On Terrorism Reinsurance Bill
The Senate took a small but significant step forward Wednesday evening in its effort to pass terrorism reinsurance legislation, striking an agreement to begin debating the measure today and clearing the way for possible completion of Senate action by the July 4 recess. The Senate failed, however, to reach a procedural agreement to limit amendments or debate time, and Republican senators warned that they would have "lots of amendments" on tap. Nevertheless, having agreed not to filibuster the Democratic motion to proceed, the Republican senators helped avert a cloture vote, which would have yielded neither side any particular advantage, according to observers.

The GOP did make a final, if symbolic, attempt Wednesday to persuade the Democrats to agree to their plan, under which a House-passed reinsurance bill would be brought up and amended with a Republican substitute crafted by Sens. Phil Gramm, R-Texas, and Mitch McConnell, R-Ky. However, the GOP ultimately agreed to a unanimous consent request offered by Senate Majority Whip Reid that allows the Senate to take up and amend a Democratic bill that bypassed committee and was brought directly to the Senate floor last week. Senate Republicans have resisted that course, and reiterated their concerns Wednesday with the Democratic bill on both substantive and procedural grounds. Gramm noted that had the bill gone through normal channels, the amendment process would be simpler. But as it stands, Republicans likely would have to offer "10, 12 or 15 real amendments on the subject," Gramm said. He also emphasized his concerns that Senate Majority Leader Daschle might pull the plug on debate by filing for cloture. Reid assured the GOP senators that Daschle had no intention of ending debate "peremptorily." However, he emphasized the need for a "reasonable" amount of debate time to offer amendments. Sen. Christopher Dodd, D-Conn., expressed concern that "no one intends to filibuster the bill. We need to cut this Gordian knot." Dodd urged the two sides to cooperate, pointing out that whatever the final amended Senate product looks like, it is going to be "substantially different" from the House-passed bill. Insurance Rates Rise In D.C., Soar Downtown (WPost)
Coverage More Limited Since Sept. 11
By Spencer S. Hsu
The Washington Post, June 13, 2002
Property insurance for the firm that manages the office building at 1700 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, one block from the White House, will cost twice as much as last year's $2 million premium.
At George Washington University's downtown campus three blocks west, insurers have cut the school's former $1 billion property and casualty policy in half, raised its premium 160 percent and advised that renewing terrorism coverage would cost 15 times more.
Six blocks north, National Geographic has been dropped by its workers' compensation provider because of perceived threats to large concentrations of employees and has joined the D.C. government's insurer of last resort, fueling talk that less-rooted employers might begin dispersing workers from the city.
The economic effects of September's attacks continue to ripple across metropolitan Washington.
The rising cost of insuring property and employees' safety is the latest evidence of financial concerns about the threat of attacks here and in other cities, anxieties underscored by this week's announcement of the arrest of a U.S. man suspected of plotting to explode a "dirty bomb."
Premiums are climbing for apartment buildings and condominiums, as well as commercial real estate, and being passed on to the area's dominant tenant, the federal government. Single-family residences are seen as less vulnerable to widespread damage from a single event, and homeowners have had smaller premium increases. Still, insurance brokers, policyholders and government officials predict a drag on the economy of tens or even hundreds of millions of dollars a year.
"As we now know, we in the District, like private industry, have to face the possibility of potentially catastrophic losses," said James J. Jacobs, director of risk management for the District. The city received guidance from the federal government this month to seek private terrorism insurance for critical roads, bridges and buildings for the first time. Premiums at showcase properties, large institutions and sites in Washington and New York City's central business districts have climbed 50 percent to 100 percent over a year ago, according to a study by New York City-based Marsh Real Estate Practice cited by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts.

In suburban areas, increases are less but terrorism coverage for properties such as malls, office complexes and critical infrastructure is rising 25 percent, Marsh Managing Director Eric T. Schake said.
Insurance rates were climbing even before Sept. 11. But since that day's insured losses of $50 billion, coverage for acts of terrorism that was included at no cost before September generally has been excluded from policies. When coverage is available, it is priced 10 to 20 times as high as the entire original policy -- as much as $1 million per $100 million of coverage -- often with strict limits, Schake said.
There is no case where a company's inability to get terrorism insurance has caused the federal government to change a lease or contract, "at this very moment," said F. Joseph Moravec, commissioner of the General Service Administration's Public Buildings Service, which handles $8 billion a year in real estate business with private companies.
But Moravec estimated that 70 percent of Washington area commercial casualty and property insurance policies renew at mid-year.
Federal legislation that would shield the insurance industry from losses greater than $10 billion from a terrorist attack has passed the House and is scheduled for debate today in the Senate. The bill has been stalled for months over whether to exempt businesses from liability, a tort reform backed by Republicans and opposed by Democrats.
While the market adapts, policyholders face new challenges. Downtown businesses cite exclusions for chemical and biological attacks, radiation contamination or anthrax -- the kinds of events that have already occurred or been threatened. And post-Sept. 11, insurance carriers are inspecting buildings and asking security-related questions that turn conventional real estate notions about location, high-profile tenants and convenience upside down.
"The important caveats are three: the limits of coverage are fairly low, the cost is extremely high, and there are exclusions from the policies," said Thomas A. Carr, chief executive officer of CarrAmerica, which leases 1700 Pennsylvania Ave. as part of its nationwide portfolio of 40 million square feet of office space, including 18 buildings within eight blocks of the White House.
"They want to know incredible amounts of detail," said Shaun Pharr, vice president of governmental affairs for the Apartment and Office Building Association of Metropolitan Washington, whose members own or manage 185,000 apartment units and 121 million square feet of office space. "How close are you to a Metro stop? . . . Do you have a government tenant? . . . Do you have corporate tenants symbolic of America? Those used to be good things."

Big employers, including The Washington Post, also see new squeamishness about the potential for terrorism to wipe out whole enterprises. By local statutes, families of victims can file workers' compensation claims for more than $2 million.

The Post, which employs 1,600 workers at its Northwest plant on any given day, and National Geographic, which employs 1,400 downtown, were either denied coverage or offered dramatically reduced coverage at much higher prices. As a result, they have joined the District's assigned-risk pool -- the equivalent of auto insurance for bad drivers.

Lawrence H. Mirel, insurance commissioner for the District, said that the market is under pressure but that insurance buyers and sellers seem to be bearing the price increases.

The city is closely monitoring the workers' compensation issue -- where The Post and National Geographic are the first new major entrants to the assigned-risk pool -- and concerns among foreign embassies about getting property insurance. "The only area that now seems to be clearly a problem is workers' compensation insurance," Mirel said.

"Everything else is speculative."

Some consumer groups have expressed concern that insurance companies are raising rates excessively to recoup losses and are also seeking government handouts.

It has been hard to gather evidence of the effects on insurance rates.

Mirel said that when his office sent out 1,000 questionnaires about premiums to agents and brokers this spring at the request of Del. Eleanor Holmes Norton (D-D.C.), about 15 responded.

Senate Rejects Legal Reform Proposal On Terrorism Bill

After months of bickering over process, the Senate today launched into a substantive debate on the merits of terrorism reinsurance legislation that would put the federal government in the temporary role as a backstop for commercial insurance losses related to terrorism. The bill is designed to promote "maximum private sector involvement and to limit the federal role," said Sen. Christopher Dodd, D-Conn., floor manager for the measure. The bill requires insurance companies to pay for damages up to $10 billion, at which point the federal government would step in to cover most losses. The program would sunset after two years. Nevertheless, the bill's fate hung in the balance at mid-day after senators voted 50-46 strictly along party lines to table a Republican amendment on legal reform that was labeled a "compromise" by sponsoring Sens. Mitch McConnell, R-Ky., and Phil Gramm, R-Texas, and Minority Leader Lott. Sen. Rick Santorum, R-Pa., suggested that a bipartisan vote on the measure would be an important gesture of good faith, but no senator crossed party lines on the vote. The vote coincided with OMB's release of a Statement of Administration Policy, which emphasized that the Bush administration "cannot support enactment of any terrorism insurance bill that leaves the nation's economy and victims of terrorist acts subject to predatory lawsuits and punitive damages. Any bill must, at a minimum, contain provisions for an exclusive federal cause of action and a consolidation of all cases arising out of a terrorist event, and exclude punitive damages in such mass tort terrorism cases."

The amendment would have substituted the underlying bill's liability language with a Republican-crafted formula, which, among other things, would ban punitive damages unless the defendant has been convicted of a criminal offense that is related to the plaintiff's injury. The underlying bill does not allow the federal government to be on the hook for punitive damages related to terrorist attacks, but does not ban such damages against U.S. businesses who might have shared some culpability. McConnell charged that the Democratic bill would allow businesses victimized by terrorism to be terrorized "a second time by lawyers." However, Senate Judiciary Chairman Leahy said the GOP proposal was "not fair or just." Leahy said the amendment would exclude "wanton, reckless, even malicious conduct by a corporate wrongdoer and that's a ridiculously high standard [that] immunizes all sorts of bad acts that should be punished and deterred." McConnell said, "If we're interested in making law, and not just playing legislative games, we ought to pass a bill that has some chance of being signed." Sen. Charles Schumer, D-N.Y., pleaded with Republican senators to avoid making the bill a showdown over legal reform. "It will sink this bill," he warned. "[T]his proposal's shoulders are not broad enough to carry that."

Senate Banking Chairman Sarbanes, a cosponsor, applauded the overall legislation, as being "pretty straightforward" and of limited duration. Sarbanes emphasized that a guiding principle in crafting the bill was that "to the extent possible, state insurance law should not be overridden."

Sarbanes said, "We respect the role of state insurance commissioners as the appropriate regulators of policy terms and rates. This bill is not an effort to make any radical change in that existing arrangement." Despite the administration's statement on the bill, White House Press Secretary Ari Fleischer today called terrorism insurance legislation "an important presidential priority" and urged Senate action. * by Pamela Barnett

Subject: Asset Deployment Meeting

Please join us to discuss "Asset Deployment" this coming Monday (17th) at 5:00pm in Rm. 450 of the EEOB. The meeting should last about an hour and several departments (Political Affairs, Cabinet Affairs, Counsel's Office, Strategic Initiatives) will discuss the program with the group. If you are unable to attend, could you send an appropriate representative in your place. Please RSVP to me with your social security number and date of birth so we can wave you into the building for the meeting. If you have any questions, call Adrian at 202-456-5487. Thanks.

Subject: Sen. Leahy

At the SJC markup today, Sen. Leahy made the following statements:

Noted at the beginning that there were more Dem Senators present than GOP Senators; commented on the irony that more Dem Senators there than GOP Senators to help get President's nominees moved to the floor. Said that after today's hearing, SJC will have given hearings to 75 judicial nominees in 11 months -- an all-time record he claimed. Said that he has a publicly-listed phone number in case anyone from the White House ever wants to talk to him about judicial confirmations.

Also, Godbey cleared by voice vote -- so no negative votes were recorded.

Leahy's stats are wrong -- he does not hold the record of holding hearings for the most nominees in any 11-month period. (He said 75 was the record.)

From September 5, 1997 to July 30, 1998, Chairman Hatch held hearings for 79 nominees --- in just under 11 months.

Also, in a different 12-month period, Chairman Hatch held hearings for 85 nominees in just under 12 months--from 10/9/1997 to 10/7/1998 (363 days).

I was told (by Kristen S) that I should look at carpenters union remarks because they may discuss something related to insurance (or she and I may propose adding). I would be happy to swap with Helgi or do both red tags as the fitness run deal will not take much time. Thanks.

Insurance
Democrats 'Guardedly Optimistic' as Cloture Disputes Over Terrorism Bill
Still Unresolved

Senate Democratic leaders believe they have sufficient support to end debate June 18 on terrorism insurance legislation and bring it to a floor vote, a spokeswoman for Majority Leader Thomas Daschle (D-S.D.) told BNA June 14.

Leaders are "guardedly optimistic" about their prospects, another Democratic aide said.

If cloture is invoked, nongermane amendments, such as a bioethics amendment offered by Sen. Sam Brownback (R-Kan.) would "fall away," the Daschle spokeswoman said.

The Brownback amendment slowed progress on the legislation (S. 2600) June 14.

Majority Leader Tom Daschle (D-S.D.) filed for cloture June 14, seeking to end debate on the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act.

The bill, introduced by Sen. Chris Dodd (D-Conn.), would create a temporary backstop of federal funds for insurance companies to stabilize the market following the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks.

Federal funds would cover up to $100 billion in losses to back up insurance policies after companies pay a $10 billion deductible. The backstop could kick in sooner if individual companies experience certain losses, based on market share.

Negotiations on base legislation and tort reform provisions advocated by Republican senators had stalled the bill since a bipartisan compromise broke down late last year.

The bill would not allow federal funds to be used to pay punitive damages. Despite the defeat of an amendment offered by Sen. Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.) June 13, the issue of tort reform and punitive damages has not been put to rest.

Republicans and the Bush administration want to prohibit punitive damages in litigation arising from terrorist acts. McConnell's amendment, a watered down compromise in the eyes of some Republican senators, would have allowed punitive damages only if a defendant had been convicted of a crime in relation to the terrorist attack.

Sen. Phil Gramm (R-Texas) has said he will not vote for cloture on the bill unless there is a bipartisan compromise that will leave American taxpayers with less exposure on terrorism insurance.

Gramm's concern about the taxpayer exposure relates to both punitive damages in litigation arising from terrorist acts and the formula in the bill for per company retention, a Gramm spokeswoman told BNA June 14.

In floor debate June 13, Gramm criticized the bill's formula on a per company retention level. With S. 2600, federal assistance could be triggered for individual companies before an overall industry level of loss is reached, based on companies' market shares.

Gramm prefers an industry wide trigger for federal assistance to encourage companies to share risks.

An insurance industry source said the per company retention formula is important so insurers know "on the front end" how to assess risks, so they can begin writing policies.

Despite the areas of disagreement, there is momentum to get the bill through the Senate and on to conference.

Daschle said June 14 since there are two weeks left in the work period before the July 4 recess, he hopes to complete debate on terrorism insurance soon and move on to consider defense authorization legislation.

On the floor, Minority Leader Trent Lott said there is a real need for the bill, which he said the Senate could finish by June 18 or 19. A Republican aide told BNA June 14 he expects the bill to be finished up June 18.

Industry sources June 14 cited this exchange as an encouraging sign the cloture vote will succeed.

It takes 60 votes to pass a cloture motion, which limits debate to 30 hours.

Heard on the Dungpile? The reaction was not all positive to HOH's item last Thursday about a Senate Democratic aide finding a disk with private political data prepared by top White House aides Karl Rove and Ken Mehlman.

One reader suggested that this column be renamed "Heard on the Dungpile" for falling for an alleged Democratic dirty trick by believing that the disk was found in Lafayette Park. "There aren't three people in America that are dumb enough to believe that crock, and I'm not one of them," e-mailed the reader.

Many conspiracy theorists seem to believe that Democratic operatives - on the eve of today's 30th anniversary of the Watergate break-in - either broke into a White House office or found a mole to leak the disk.

The dungpile theme seemed to dominate. "Oh that is a good one,"wrote another reader. "Great steaming piles of horse manure. That is about as credible as rocking horse dung."

Late Friday, however, Rep. Henry Waxman (D-Calif.) urged Government Reform Chairman Dan Burton (R-Ind.) to launch a probe of the two White House aides using "government time and resources to develop a partisan analysis of Republican prospects in key House and Senate races."

Waxman, ranking member of the panel, noted that this is the type of issue that the committee spent time probing during the campaign-finance probes of the Clinton years.

"This committee spent more than 10 hours deposing former White House Political Director Doug Sosnik and former Deputy Political Director Karen Hancox," Waxman wrote to Burton. "Among the many topics covered in these depositions were the role of the Clinton White House in raising campaign funds, approving the Democratic National Committee's allocation of hard and soft money, formulating advertising strategy and approving pollsters and consultants."

White House Press Secretary Ari Fleischer, however, laughed off any possibility of a probe by sarcastically saying Friday that it was indeed "shocking" that a White House political director had engaged in, well, politics.

Out of the 194 responses that are missing, 29 people on that list are no longer employed with the White House, and 5 are with our office. I've contacted everyone and told them to fax and inside mail their responses by the close of business tomorrow. There are a few people I had a question about. Do I need to get a certification forms from individuals that you interviewed such as Karl Rove (I did not contact his office yet), Elizabeht Stolpe, and Harriet Myers? How about Nick Calio? (Apparently the Legislative Affairs office was under the impression that the certification form only needed to be filled out by Deputy Assistants and above, which explains why I'm missing a good number of their responses. They've been contacted and I should be getting their responses by tomorrow.)

I suspected that was the answer. Dems are passing around the 60 Minutes tape.
I didn't know what it was until now. Is there a way to get a copy so that Alex and I could see it after the Murder Board.

Intel suggests that Leahy will concentrate on all things Money...and how can Feingold resist. Texans also suggested that Cantwell is keen on election related issues.

Manny -- research will certainly reveal (1) a clear correlation between Owen,
TLR and TCJL donors, and (2) many similarities in specific donors among the three.

Leahy will be looking at it in order to show the extent of the tort reform movement in Texas. Exhibit A will be a 60 Minutes profile of "how far the Court has moved in favor of business interests and against consumers, workers, etc (insert case cites).

I have a copy of the 60 Minutes piece if you would like to dub.

Thank you, Steve.

Any answer to this below? And why the Leahy people are looking into it?

What is the connection between Owen and Texans for Lawsuit Reform (larger issue) and the Texas Civil Justice League (smaller)? Is there any coincidence in her donors and theirs?

I believe Steve has a copy of the 60 Minutes piece (which aired almost 15 years after an earlier 60 Minutes piece re. how blindly pro-plaintiff the Texas Supreme Court used to be).

and I could see it after the Murder Board.

Intel suggests that Leahy will concentrate on all things Money...and how can

Feingold resist. Texans also suggested that Cantwell is keen on election related issues.

Manny -- research will certainly reveal (1) a clear correlation between Owen,

TLR and TCJL donors, and (2) many similarities in specific donors among the three.

Leahy will be looking at it in order to show the extent of the tort reform movement in Texas. Exhibit A will be a 60 Minutes profile of "how far the Court has moved in favor of business interests and against consumers, workers, etc (insert case cites).

I have a copy of the 60 Minutes piece if you would like to dub.

Thank you, Steve.

Any answer to this below? And why the Leahy people are looking into it?

What is the connection between Owen and Texans for Lawsuit Reform (larger issue) and the Texas Civil Justice League (smaller)? Is there any coincidence in her donors and theirs?

SNOW: Well, let me switch gears a little bit. You're also on the Judiciary Committee. Priscilla Owens, who is a judge in Texas, a member...

BIDEN: Yes.

SNOW: ... is now under consideration. Do you think, A, she's going to get through the committee and, B, she'll get a vote on the Senate floor?

BIDEN: I think she'll--I don't know if she'll get through the committee. We're having her hearing on Tuesday.

As you know, she's very well-known and, like all well-known judges, left or right, fairly controversial. I have had all kinds--I've read all kinds of things for her and against her.

I'm going to be going to her hearing on Tuesday, and it's hard to tell right now. I wouldn't want to second-guess that. I've voted on over 1,100, almost 1,200 judges, and I've only voted no nine times. And so, you know, it's going to--they're going to have to make the case why she shouldn't be on the court.

HUME: Well, Senator, do you think, based on what you've read and know so far, that this woman appears to have the background, the temperament and the experience to be on that court for which she's been nominated?

BIDEN: Well, she seems to have the intellectual background. The real question, Brit, is her temperament. I have read some of her cases. She seems to reach pretty far, in terms of going beyond what the law states on its face. But again, I think she should have a chance...

HUME: So she's an activist?

BIDEN: I think she should have a chance to make her case before I start making a judgment about her.

SNOW: Do you worry about the tone of some of the attacks on her so far?

BIDEN: I do, but, you know, we went through that for that last--I've been doing this now for a long time. That is, you know, par for the course, on both sides of the aisle.

As some of you may remember, I'm among the few guys that have been beat up by the left and the right, in terms of how we should approach judges. I think we should tone all this down. And I think Republicans should have toned it down too.

But we are who we are. It doesn't surprise me. If your question is am I surprised, no, I'm not surprised.

Helgi. There is a meeting Tuesday at 2:00 (I believe in Larry's office, check with Jeannie at 6-5805) with airline CEOs. They are coming in to provide an update on the industry's finances, and (so we have been led to believe) make the case for how bankruptcies in the industry would be the end of western civilization as we know it. Larry has cleared with NEC principals that our response to such a message is that we will not intervene to support a carrier in bankruptcy, no bailouts, and that the industry's cost structure is its primary problem and a bailout will not solve that problem. At some point sanity must be imposed on this group, and it may take a couple of bankruptcies to do so since nothing else has worked. For example, employee groups at United have secured 25%+ wage increases this year, despite the carrier's having lost $2b last year (and about a $1b so far this year).

United has been very aggressive in this regard, calling me and DOT and letting us know that failure to get the loan guarantee they have pending before the ATSB will lead to a bankruptcy filing and that they will do so in Sept/Oct in order to maximize the political leverage from such a filing. They are dropping Speaker Hastert's name in all of this, making a case that they are too big to be allowed to go chap. 11.

hi there! if you have a chance to sign those summaries today, I'll be eternally grateful. The Airlift Ops briefing is on Thursday and I would like to submit those summaries in time so that they do not show up 'pending' on the monthly report. It's not a necessity but, if you have the time, it would be helpful. Thanks!!

There are two sets of info. packets from the ABA re: evaluative procedures. The faxed version (on top) came from DOJ and is a copy of their handbook--the other copy behind that packet was taken from their web site today. That would appear to be the most recent version, but I provided you with both because of minor differences in language. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Heather --

Manny confirmed earlier today that that only 3 (maybe 4) R senators are confirmed attendees (Hatch, Sessions, McConnell, Kyl).

Bad news: Specter is a NO.

We need as many Rs there as possible (and more from Specter than a yes vote). We expect that almost all Ds will be there, so once again we expect to be out-numbered about two-to-one (or worse).

Heather, can Nick (and Brett, can the Judge) call these MIA R-side offices and lean on them HARD to show up?!?! We need them there.

107TH CONGRESS

H. R. 4600

To improve patient access to health care services and provide improved medical care by reducing the excessive burden the liability system places on the health care delivery system.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 25, 2002

Mr. GREENWOOD (for himself, Mr. COX, Mr. MURTHA, Mr. TOOMEY, Mr. MORAN of Virginia, Mr. PETERSON of Minnesota, Mr. STENHOLM, Mr. LUCAS of Kentucky, Mr. PICKERING, and Mr. WELDON of Florida) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and in addition to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

---

A BILL

To improve patient access to health care services and provide improved medical care by reducing the excessive burden the liability system places on the health care delivery system.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2       This Act may be cited as the “Help Efficient, Acces-
3 sible, Low Cost, Timely Health Care (HEALTH) Act of 4 2002”.

5 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

6       (a) FINDINGS.—

7           (1) EFFECT ON HEALTH CARE ACCESS AND
8 COSTS.—Congress finds that our current civil justice
9 system is adversely affecting patient access to health
10 care services, better patient care, and cost-efficient
11 health care, in that the health care liability system
12 is a costly and ineffective mechanism for resolving 13 claims of health care liability and compensating in-
14 jured patients, and is a deterrent to the sharing of 15 information among health care professionals which 16 impedes efforts to improve patient safety and quality
17 of care.

18           (2) EFFECT ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE.—
19 Congress finds that the health care and insurance
20 industries are industries affecting interstate com-
21 merce and the health care liability litigation systems
22 existing throughout the United States are activities
23 that affect interstate commerce by contributing to 24 the high costs of health care and premiums for 25 health care liability insurance purchased by health
26 care system providers.

1           (3) EFFECT ON FEDERAL SPENDING.—Con-
2       gress finds that the health care liability litigation
3       systems existing throughout the United States have
4       a significant effect on the amount, distribution, and
5       use of Federal funds because of—

6           (A) the large number of individuals who
7       receive health care benefits under programs op-
8       erated or financed by the Federal Government;

9           (B) the large number of individuals who
10      benefit because of the exclusion from Federal
11      taxes of the amounts spent to provide them
12      with health insurance benefits; and

13          (C) the large number of health care pro-
14      viders who provide items or services for which
15      the Federal Government makes payments.

16      (b) PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this Act to imple-
17      ment reasonable, comprehensive, and effective health care
18      liability reforms designed to—

19          (1) improve the availability of health care serv-
20      ices in cases in which health care liability actions
21      have been shown to be a factor in the decreased
22      availability of services;

23          (2) reduce the incidence of “defensive medi-
24      cine” and lower the cost of health care liability in-

1       surance, all of which contribute to the escalation of
2       health care costs;

3           (3) ensure that persons with meritorious health
4       care injury claims receive fair and adequate com-
5       pensation, including reasonable noneconomic dam-
6       ages;

7           (4) improve the fairness and cost-effectiveness
8       of our current health care liability system to resolve
9       disputes over, and provide compensation for, health
10      care liability by reducing uncertainty in the amount
11      of compensation provided to injured individuals; and

12          (5) provide an increased sharing of information
13      in the health care system which will reduce unin-
14      tended injury and improve patient care.

15   SEC. 3. ENCOURAGING SPEEDY RESOLUTION OF CLAIMS.

16      A health care lawsuit may be commenced no later
17   than 3 years after the date of injury or 1 year after the 18   claimant discovers, or through the use of reasonable dili-
19   gence should have discovered, the injury, whichever occurs
20   first. In no event shall the time for commencement of a
21   health care lawsuit exceed 3 years, except that in the case
22   of an alleged injury sustained by a minor before the age
23   of 6, a health care lawsuit may be commenced by or on 24   behalf of the minor until the later of 3 years from the

1 date of injury, or the date on which the minor attains the 2 age of 8.

3 SEC. 4. COMPENSATING PATIENT INJURY.

4 (a) UNLIMITED AMOUNT OF DAMAGES FOR ACTUAL
5 ECONOMIC LOSSES IN HEALTH CARE LAWSUITS.—In any
6 health care lawsuit, the full amount of a claimant's eco-
7 nomic loss may be fully recovered without limitation.

8 (b) ADDITIONAL NONECONOMIC DAMAGES.—In any
9 health care lawsuit, the amount of noneconomic damages
10 recovered may be as much as $250,000, regardless of the 11 number of parties against whom the action is brought or 12 the number of separate claims or actions brought with re-
13 spect to the same occurrence.

14 (c) NO DISCOUNT OF AWARD FOR NONECONOMIC
15 DAMAGES.—In any health care lawsuit, an award for fu-
16 ture noneconomic damages shall not be discounted to 17 present value. The jury shall not be informed about the 18 maximum award for noneconomic damages. An award for 19 noneconomic damages in excess of $250,000 shall be re-
20 duced either before the entry of judgment, or by amend-
21 ment of the judgment after entry of judgment, and such 22 reduction shall be made before accounting for any other
23 reduction in damages required by law. If separate awards
24 are rendered for past and future noneconomic damages

1 and the combined awards exceed $250,000, the future
2 noneconomic damages shall be reduced first.

3 (d) FAIR SHARE RULE.—In any health care lawsuit,
4 each party shall be liable for that party's several share
5 of any damages only and not for the share of any other
6 person. Each party shall be liable only for the amount of 7 damages allocated to such party in direct proportion to 8 such party's percentage of responsibility. A separate judg-
9 ment shall be rendered against each such party for the 10 amount allocated to such party. For purposes of this sec-
11 tion, the trier of fact shall determine the proportion of 12 responsibility of each party for the claimant's harm.

13 SEC. 5. MAXIMIZING PATIENT RECOVERY.

14 (a) COURT SUPERVISION OF SHARE OF DAMAGES
15 ACTUALLY PAID TO CLAIMANTS.—In any health care law-
16 suit, the court shall supervise the arrangements for pay-
17 ment of damages to protect against conflicts of interest
18 that may have the effect of reducing the amount of dam-
19 ages awarded that are actually paid to claimants. In par-
20 ticular, in any health care lawsuit in which the attorney
21 for a party claims a financial stake in the outcome by vir-
22 tue of a contingent fee, the court shall have the power
23 to restrict the payment of a claimant's damage recovery
24 to such attorney, and to redirect such damages to the 25 claimant based upon the interests of justice and principles

1 of equity. In no event shall the total of all contingent fees
 2 for representing all claimants in a health care lawsuit ex-
 3 ceed the following limits:

4 (1) 40 percent of the first $50,000 recovered by
 5 the claimant(s).

6 (2) 33 $\frac{1}{3}$  percent of the next \$50,000 recovered
 7 by the claimant(s).

8 (3) 25 percent of the next $500,000 recovered
 9 by the claimant(s).

10 (4) 15 percent of any amount by which the re-
 11 covery by the claimant(s) is in excess of $600,000.

12 (b) APPLICABILITY.—The limitations in this section
 13 shall apply whether the recovery is by judgment, settle-
 14 ment, mediation, arbitration, or any other form of alter-
 15 native dispute resolution. In a health care lawsuit involv-
 16 ing a minor or incompetent person, a court retains the 17 authority to authorize or approve a fee that is less than 18 the maximum permitted under this section.

19 SEC. 6. ADDITIONAL HEALTH BENEFITS.

20 In any health care lawsuit, any party may introduce 21 evidence of collateral source benefits. If a party elects to 22 introduce such evidence, any opposing party may intro-
 23 duce evidence of any amount paid or contributed or rea-
 24 sonably likely to be paid or contributed in the future by 25 or on behalf of the opposing party to secure the right to

1 such collateral source benefits. No provider of collateral
2 source benefits shall recover any amount against the
3 claimant or receive any lien or credit against the claim-
4 ant's recovery or be equitably or legally subrogated to the
5 right of the claimant in a health care lawsuit. This section
6 shall apply to any health care lawsuit that is settled as 7 well as a health care lawsuit that is resolved by a fact
8 finder.

9 SEC. 7. PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

10 (a) IN GENERAL.—Punitive damages may, if other-
11 wise permitted by applicable State or Federal law, be 12 awarded against any person in a health care lawsuit only 13 if it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that such 14 person acted with malicious intent to injure the claimant,
15 or that such person deliberately failed to avoid unneces-
16 sary injury that such person knew the claimant was sub-
17 stantially certain to suffer. In any health care lawsuit
18 where no judgment for compensatory damages is rendered
19 against such person, no punitive damages may be awarded
20 with respect to the claim in such lawsuit. No demand for 21 punitive damages shall be included in a health care lawsuit
22 as initially filed. A court may allow a claimant to file an
23 amended pleading for punitive damages only upon a mo-
24 tion by the claimant and after a finding by the court, upon
25 review of supporting and opposing affidavits or after a

1 hearing, after weighing the evidence, that the claimant has
 2 established by a substantial probability that the claimant
 3 will prevail on the claim for punitive damages. At the re-
 4 quest of any party in a health care lawsuit, the trier of 5 fact shall consider in a separate proceeding—

6 (1) whether punitive damages are to be award-
 7 ed and the amount of such award; and

8 (2) the amount of punitive damages following a
 9 determination of punitive liability.

10 If a separate proceeding is requested, evidence relevant
 11 only to the claim for punitive damages, as determined by 12 applicable State law, shall be inadmissible in any pro-
 13 ceeding to determine whether compensatory damages are 14 to be awarded.

15 (b) DETERMINING AMOUNT OF PUNITIVE DAM-
 16 AGES.—

17 (1) FACTORS CONSIDERED.—In determining
 18 the amount of punitive damages, the trier of fact
 19 shall consider only the following:

20 (A) the severity of the harm caused by the 21 conduct of such party;

22 (B) the duration of the conduct or any
 23 concealment of it by such party;

24 (C) the profitability of the conduct to such 25 party;

1 (D) the number of products sold or med-
 2 ical procedures rendered for compensation, as
 3 the case may be, by such party, of the kind
 4 causing the harm complained of by the claim-
 5 ant;

6 (E) any criminal penalties imposed on such
 7 party, as a result of the conduct complained of 8 by the claimant; and

9 (F) the amount of any civil fines assessed
 10 against such party as a result of the conduct
 11 complained of by the claimant.

12 (2) MAXIMUM AWARD.—The amount of punitive
 13 damages awarded in a health care lawsuit may be up
 14 to as much as two times the amount of economic 15 damages awarded or $250,000, whichever is greater.
 16 The jury shall not be informed of this limitation.

 18 THAT COMPLY WITH FDA STANDARDS.—

19 (1) IN GENERAL.—No punitive damages may be 20 awarded against the manufacturer or distributor of 21 a medical product based on a claim that such prod-
 22 uct caused the claimant's harm where—

23 (A)(i) such medical product was subject to 24 premarket approval or clearance by the Food
 25 and Drug Administration with respect to the

1 safety of the formulation or performance of the
2 aspect of such medical product which caused
3 the claimant's harm or the adequacy of the 4 packaging or labeling of such medical product;
5 and

6 (ii) such medical product was so approved
7 or cleared; or

8 (B) such medical product is generally rec-
9 ognized among qualified experts as safe and ef-
10 fective pursuant to conditions established by the 11 Food and Drug Administration and applicable
12 Food and Drug Administration regulations, in-
13 cluding without limitation those related to pack-
14 aging and labeling.

15 (2) LIABILITY OF HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS.—

16 A health care provider who prescribes a drug or de-
17 vice (including blood products) approved by the 18 Food and Drug Administration shall not be named
19 as a party to a product liability lawsuit involving 20 such drug or device and shall not be liable to a
21 claimant in a class action lawsuit against the manu-
22 facturer, distributor, or product seller of such drug
23 or device.

24 (3) PACKAGING.—In a health care lawsuit for 25 harm which is alleged to relate to the adequacy of

1 the packaging or labeling of a drug which is required
2 to have tamper-resistant packaging under regula-
3 tions of the Secretary of Health and Human Serv-
4 ices (including labeling regulations related to such 5 packaging), the manufacturer or product seller of
6 the drug shall not be held liable for punitive dam-
7 ages unless such packaging or labeling is found by 8 the trier of fact by clear and convincing evidence to 9 be substantially out of compliance with such regula-
10 tions.

11 (4) EXCEPTION.—Paragraph (1) shall not
12 apply in any health care lawsuit in which—

13 (A) a person, before or after premarket ap-
14 proval or clearance of such medical product,
15 knowingly misrepresented to or withheld from
16 the Food and Drug Administration information
17 that is required to be submitted under the Fed-
18 eral Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C.
19 301 et seq.) or section 351 of the Public Health
20 Service Act (42 U.S.C. 262) that is material
21 and is causally related to the harm which the 22 claimant allegedly suffered; or

23 (B) a person made an illegal payment to
24 an official of the Food and Drug Administra-
25 tion for the purpose of either securing or main-

1           taining approval or clearance of such medical
2           product.

3 SEC. 8. AUTHORIZATION OF PAYMENT OF FUTURE DAM-
4 AGES TO CLAIMANTS IN HEALTH CARE LAW-
5 SUITS.

6           (a) IN GENERAL.—In any health care lawsuit, if an
7 award of future damages, without reduction to present
8 value, equaling or exceeding $50,000 is made against a
9 party with sufficient insurance or other assets to fund a
10 periodic payment of such a judgment, the court shall, at 11 the request of any party, enter a judgment ordering that
12 the future damages be paid by periodic payments in ac-
13 cordance with the Uniform Periodic Payment of Judg-
14 ments Act promulgated by the National Conference of 15 Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

16           (b) APPLICABILITY.—This section applies to all ac-
17 tions which have not been first set for trial or retrial be-
18 fore the effective date of this Act.

19 SEC. 9. DEFINITIONS.

20           In this Act:

21           (1) ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYS-
22           TEM; ADR.—The term “alternative dispute resolution
23           system” or “ADR” means a system that provides
24           for the resolution of health care lawsuits in a man-

1 ner other than through a civil action brought in a
2 State or Federal court.

3 (2) CLAIMANT.—The term “claimant” means
4 any person who brings a health care lawsuit, includ-
5 ing a person who asserts or claims a right to legal
6 or equitable contribution, indemnity or subrogation,
7 arising out of a health care liability claim or action,
8 and any person on whose behalf such a claim is as-
9 serted or such an action is brought, whether de-
10 ceased, incompetent, or a minor.

11 (3) COLLATERAL SOURCE BENEFITS.—The
12 term “collateral source benefits” means any amount
13 paid or reasonably likely to be paid in the future to 14 or on behalf of the claimant, or any service, product
15 or other benefit provided or reasonably likely to be
16 provided in the future to or on behalf of the claim-
17 ant, as a result of the injury or wrongful death, pur-
18 suant to—

19 (A) any State or Federal health, sickness,
20 income-disability, accident, or workers’ com-
21 pensation law;

22 (B) any health, sickness, income-disability,
23 or accident insurance that provides health bene-
24 fits or income-disability coverage;

1 (C) any contract or agreement of any
2 group, organization, partnership, or corporation
3 to provide, pay for, or reimburse the cost of 4 medical, hospital, dental, or income disability
5 benefits; and

6 (D) any other publicly or privately funded
7 program.

8 (4) COMPENSATORY DAMAGES.—The term
9 “compensatory damages” means objectively
10 verifiable monetary losses incurred as a result of the 11 provision of, use of, or payment for (or failure to 12 provide, use, or pay for) health care services or med-
13 ical products, such as past and future medical ex-
14 penses, loss of past and future earnings, cost of ob-
15 taining domestic services, loss of employment, and
16 loss of business or employment opportunities, dam-
17 ages for physical and emotional pain, suffering, in-
18 convenience, physical impairment, mental anguish,
19 disfigurement, loss of enjoyment of life, loss of soci-
20 ety and companionship, loss of consortium (other 21 than loss of domestic service), hedonic damages, in-
22 jury to reputation, and all other nonpecuniary losses
23 of any kind or nature. The term “compensatory 24 damages” includes economic damages and non-

1 economic damages, as such terms are defined in this
2 section.

3 (5) CONTINGENT FEE.—The term “contingent
4 fee” includes all compensation to any person or per-
5 sons which is payable only if a recovery is effected
6 on behalf of one or more claimants.

7 (6) ECONOMIC DAMAGES.—The term “economic
8 damages” means objectively verifiable monetary
9 losses incurred as a result of the provision of, use
10 of, or payment for (or failure to provide, use, or pay 11 for) health care services or medical products, such as 12 past and future medical expenses, loss of past and 13 future earnings, cost of obtaining domestic services,
14 loss of employment, and loss of business or employ-
15 ment opportunities.

16 (7) HEALTH CARE LAWSUIT.—The term
17 “health care lawsuit” means any health care liability
18 claim concerning the provision of health care goods
19 or services affecting interstate commerce, or any
20 health care liability action concerning the provision
21 of health care goods or services affecting interstate
22 commerce, brought in a State or Federal court or 23 pursuant to an alternative dispute resolution system,
24 against a health care provider, a health care organi-
25 zation, or the manufacturer, distributor, supplier,

1 marketer, promoter, or seller of a medical product,
2 regardless of the theory of liability on which the
3 claim is based, or the number of claimants, plain-
4 tiffs, defendants, or other parties, or the number of 5 claims or causes of action, in which the claimant al-
6 leges a health care liability claim.

7 (8) HEALTH CARE LIABILITY ACTION.—The
8 term “health care liability action” means a civil ac-
9 tion brought in a State or Federal Court or pursu-
10 ant to an alternative dispute resolution system,
11 against a health care provider, a health care organi-
12 zation, or the manufacturer, distributor, supplier,
13 marketer, promoter, or seller of a medical product,
14 regardless of the theory of liability on which the 15 claim is based, or the number of plaintiffs, defend-
16 ants, or other parties, or the number of causes of ac-
17 tion, in which the claimant alleges a health care li-
18 ability claim.

19 (9) HEALTH CARE LIABILITY CLAIM.—The
20 term “health care liability claim” means a demand
21 by any person, whether or not pursuant to ADR,
22 against a health care provider, health care organiza-
23 tion, or the manufacturer, distributor, supplier, mar-
24 keter, promoter, or seller of a medical product, in-
25 cluding, but not limited to, third-party claims, cross-

1 claims, counter-claims, or contribution claims, which
2 are based upon the provision of, use of, or payment
3 for (or the failure to provide, use, or pay for) health
4 care services or medical products, regardless of the 5 theory of liability on which the claim is based, or the 6 number of plaintiffs, defendants, or other parties, or
7 the number of causes of action.

8 (10) HEALTH CARE ORGANIZATION.—The term
9 “health care organization” means any person or en-
10 tity which is obligated to provide or pay for health
11 benefits under any health plan, including any person
12 or entity acting under a contract or arrangement
13 with a health care organization to provide or admin-
14 ister any health benefit.

15 (11) HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.—The term
16 “health care provider” means any person or entity
17 required by State or Federal laws or regulations to 18 be licensed, registered, or certified to provide health
19 care services, and being either so licensed, reg-
20 istered, or certified, or exempted from such require-
21 ment by other statute or regulation.

22 (12) HEALTH CARE GOODS OR SERVICES.—The
23 term “health care goods or services” means any 24 goods or services provided by a health care organiza-
25 tion, provider, or by any individual working under

1 the supervision of a health care provider, that relates
2 to the diagnosis, prevention, or treatment of any
3 human disease or impairment, or the assessment of
4 the health of human beings.

5 (13) MALICIOUS INTENT TO INJURE.—The
6 term “malicious intent to injure” means inten-
7 tionally causing or attempting to cause physical in-
8 jury other than providing health care goods or serv-
9 ices.

10 (14) MEDICAL PRODUCT.—The term “medical 11 product” means a drug or device intended for hu-
12 mans, and the terms “drug” and “device” have the 13 meanings given such terms in sections 201(g)(1) and
14 201(h) of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act
15 (21 U.S.C. 321), respectively, including any compo-
16 nent or raw material used therein, but excluding
17 health care services.

18 (15) NONECONOMIC DAMAGES.—The term
19 “noneconomic damages” means damages for phys-
20 ical and emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience,
21 physical impairment, mental anguish, disfigurement,
22 loss of enjoyment of life, loss of society and compan-
23 ionship, loss of consortium (other than loss of do-
24 mestic service), hedonic damages, injury to reputation, and all other nonpecuniary losses of any kind or nature.

(16) PUNITIVE DAMAGES.—The term “punitive damages” means damages awarded, for the purpose of punishment or deterrence, and not solely for compensatory purposes, against a health care provider, health care organization, or a manufacturer, distributor, or supplier of a medical product. Punitive damages are neither economic nor noneconomic damages.

(17) RECOVERY.—The term “recovery” means the net sum recovered after deducting any disbursements or costs incurred in connection with prosecution or settlement of the claim, including all costs paid or advanced by any person. Costs of health care incurred by the plaintiff and the attorneys’ office overhead costs or charges for legal services are not deductible disbursements or costs for such purpose.

(18) STATE.—The term “State” means each of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Northern Mariana Islands, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and any other territory or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof.

1 SEC. 10. EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS.

2 (a) VACCINE INJURY.—

3 (1) To the extent that title XXI of the Public
4 Health Service Act establishes a Federal rule of law
5 applicable to a civil action brought for a vaccine-re-
6 lated injury or death—

7 (A) this Act does not affect the application
8 of the rule of law to such an action; and

9 (B) any rule of law prescribed by this Act
10 in conflict with a rule of law of such title XXI
11 shall not apply to such action.

12 (2) If there is an aspect of a civil action
13 brought for a vaccine-related injury or death to 14 which a Federal rule of law under title XXI of the 15 Public Health Service Act does not apply, then this 16 Act or otherwise applicable law (as determined
17 under this Act) will apply to such aspect of such ac-
18 tion.

19 (b) OTHER FEDERAL LAW.—Except as provided in 20 this section, nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect 21 any defense available to a defendant in a health care law-
22 suit or action under any other provision of Federal law.

23 SEC. 11. STATE FLEXIBILITY AND PROTECTION OF STATES'
24 RIGHTS.

25 (a) HEALTH CARE LAWSUITS.—The provisions gov-
26 erning health care lawsuits set forth in this Act preempt,

1 subject to subsections (b) and (c), State law to the extent
2 that State law prevents the application of any provisions
3 of law established by or under this Act. The provisions
4 governing health care lawsuits set forth in this Act super-
5 sede chapter 171 of title 28, United States Code, to the 6 extent that such chapter—

7 (1) provides for a greater amount of damages
8 or contingent fees, a longer period in which a health
9 care lawsuit may be commenced, or a reduced appli-
10 cability or scope of periodic payment of future dam-
11 ages, than provided in this Act; or

12 (2) prohibits the introduction of evidence re-
13 garding collateral source benefits, or mandates or 14 permits subrogation or a lien on collateral source
15 benefits.

16 (b) PROTECTION OF STATES' RIGHTS.—Any issue
17 that is not governed by any provision of law established
18 by or under this Act (including State standards of neg-
19 ligence) shall be governed by otherwise applicable State
20 or Federal law. This Act does not preempt or supersede
21 any law that imposes greater protections (such as a short-22 er statute of limitations) for health care providers and
23 health care organizations from liability, loss, or damages
24 than those provided by this Act.

1 (c) STATE FLEXIBILITY.—No provision of this Act
2 shall be construed to preempt—

3 (1) any State statutory limit (whether enacted
4 before, on, or after the date of the enactment of this
5 Act) on the amount of compensatory or punitive
6 damages (or the total amount of damages) that may 7 be awarded in a health care lawsuit, whether or not
8 such State limit permits the recovery of a specific 9 dollar amount of damages that is greater or lesser
10 than is provided for under this Act, notwithstanding
11 section 4(a); or

12 (2) any defense available to a party in a health
13 care lawsuit under any other provision of State or 14 Federal law.

15 SEC. 12. APPLICABILITY; EFFECTIVE DATE.

16 This Act shall apply to any health care lawsuit
17 brought in a Federal or State court, or subject to an alter-
18 native dispute resolution system, that is initiated on or 19 after the date of the enactment of this Act, except that 20 any health care lawsuit arising from an injury occurring
21 prior to the date of the enactment of this Act shall be
22 governed by the applicable statute of limitations provisions
23 in effect at the time the injury occurred.

H. R. 4600

To improve patient access to health care services and provide improved medical care by reducing the excessive burden the liability system places on the health care delivery system.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. GREENWOOD (for himself, Mr. COX, Mr. MURTHA, Mr. TOOMEY, Mr. MORAN of Virginia, Mr. PETERSON of Minnesota, Mr. STENHOLM, Mr. LUCAS of Kentucky, Mr. PICKERING, and Mr. WELDON of Florida) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and in addition to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

---

A BILL

To improve patient access to health care services and provide improved medical care by reducing the excessive burden the liability system places on the health care delivery system.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2       This Act may be cited as the “Help Efficient, Acces-
3 sible, Low Cost, Timely Health Care (HEALTH) Act of 4 2002”.

5 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

6       (a) FINDINGS.—

7           (1) EFFECT ON HEALTH CARE ACCESS AND
8 COSTS.—Congress finds that our current civil justice
9 system is adversely affecting patient access to health
10 care services, better patient care, and cost-efficient
11 health care, in that the health care liability system
12 is a costly and ineffective mechanism for resolving
13 claims of health care liability and compensating in-
14 jured patients, and is a deterrent to the sharing of 15 information among health care professionals which
16 impedes efforts to improve patient safety and quality
17 of care.

18           (2) EFFECT ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE.—
19 Congress finds that the health care and insurance
20 industries are industries affecting interstate com-
21 merce and the health care liability litigation systems
22 existing throughout the United States are activities
23 that affect interstate commerce by contributing to 24 the high costs of health care and premiums for 25 health care liability insurance purchased by health
26 care system providers.

1           (3) EFFECT ON FEDERAL SPENDING.—Con-
2       gress finds that the health care liability litigation
3       systems existing throughout the United States have
4       a significant effect on the amount, distribution, and
5       use of Federal funds because of—

6           (A) the large number of individuals who
7       receive health care benefits under programs op-
8       erated or financed by the Federal Government;

9           (B) the large number of individuals who
10      benefit because of the exclusion from Federal
11      taxes of the amounts spent to provide them
12      with health insurance benefits; and

13          (C) the large number of health care pro-
14      viders who provide items or services for which
15      the Federal Government makes payments.

16      (b) PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this Act to imple-
17      ment reasonable, comprehensive, and effective health care
18      liability reforms designed to—

19          (1) improve the availability of health care serv-
20      ices in cases in which health care liability actions
21      have been shown to be a factor in the decreased
22      availability of services;

23          (2) reduce the incidence of “defensive medi-
24      cine” and lower the cost of health care liability in-

1       surance, all of which contribute to the escalation of
2       health care costs;

3           (3) ensure that persons with meritorious health
4       care injury claims receive fair and adequate com-
5       pensation, including reasonable noneconomic dam-
6       ages;

7           (4) improve the fairness and cost-effectiveness
8       of our current health care liability system to resolve
9       disputes over, and provide compensation for, health
10      care liability by reducing uncertainty in the amount
11      of compensation provided to injured individuals; and

12          (5) provide an increased sharing of information
13      in the health care system which will reduce unin-
14      tended injury and improve patient care.

15   SEC. 3. ENCOURAGING SPEEDY RESOLUTION OF CLAIMS.

16      A health care lawsuit may be commenced no later
17   than 3 years after the date of injury or 1 year after the 18   claimant discovers, or through the use of reasonable dili-
19   gence should have discovered, the injury, whichever occurs
20   first. In no event shall the time for commencement of a
21   health care lawsuit exceed 3 years, except that in the case
22   of an alleged injury sustained by a minor before the age
23   of 6, a health care lawsuit may be commenced by or on 24   behalf of the minor until the later of 3 years from the

1 date of injury, or the date on which the minor attains the 2 age of 8.

3 SEC. 4. COMPENSATING PATIENT INJURY.

4 (a) UNLIMITED AMOUNT OF DAMAGES FOR ACTUAL
5 ECONOMIC LOSSES IN HEALTH CARE LAWSUITS.—In any
6 health care lawsuit, the full amount of a claimant's eco-
7 nomic loss may be fully recovered without limitation.

8 (b) ADDITIONAL NONECONOMIC DAMAGES.—In any
9 health care lawsuit, the amount of noneconomic damages
10 recovered may be as much as $250,000, regardless of the 11 number of parties against whom the action is brought or 12 the number of separate claims or actions brought with re-
13 spect to the same occurrence.

14 (c) NO DISCOUNT OF AWARD FOR NONECONOMIC
15 DAMAGES.—In any health care lawsuit, an award for fu-
16 ture noneconomic damages shall not be discounted to 17 present value. The jury shall not be informed about the 18 maximum award for noneconomic damages. An award for 19 noneconomic damages in excess of $250,000 shall be re-
20 duced either before the entry of judgment, or by amend-
21 ment of the judgment after entry of judgment, and such 22 reduction shall be made before accounting for any other
23 reduction in damages required by law. If separate awards
24 are rendered for past and future noneconomic damages

1 and the combined awards exceed $250,000, the future
2 noneconomic damages shall be reduced first.

3 (d) FAIR SHARE RULE.—In any health care lawsuit,
4 each party shall be liable for that party's several share
5 of any damages only and not for the share of any other
6 person. Each party shall be liable only for the amount of 7 damages allocated to such party in direct proportion to
8 such party's percentage of responsibility. A separate judg-
9 ment shall be rendered against each such party for the 10 amount allocated to such party. For purposes of this sec-
11 tion, the trier of fact shall determine the proportion of 12 responsibility of each party for the claimant's harm.

14 (a) COURT SUPERVISION OF SHARE OF DAMAGES
15 ACTUALLY PAID TO CLAIMANTS.—In any health care law-
16 suit, the court shall supervise the arrangements for pay-
17 ment of damages to protect against conflicts of interest
18 that may have the effect of reducing the amount of dam-
19 ages awarded that are actually paid to claimants. In par-
20 ticular, in any health care lawsuit in which the attorney
21 for a party claims a financial stake in the outcome by vir-
22 tue of a contingent fee, the court shall have the power
23 to restrict the payment of a claimant's damage recovery
24 to such attorney, and to redirect such damages to the 25 claimant based upon the interests of justice and principles

1 of equity. In no event shall the total of all contingent fees
 2 for representing all claimants in a health care lawsuit ex-
 3 ceed the following limits:

4 (1) 40 percent of the first $50,000 recovered by
 5 the claimant(s).

6 (2) 33 $\frac{1}{3}$  percent of the next \$50,000 recovered
 7 by the claimant(s).

8 (3) 25 percent of the next $500,000 recovered
 9 by the claimant(s).

10 (4) 15 percent of any amount by which the re-
 11 covery by the claimant(s) is in excess of $600,000.

12 (b) APPLICABILITY.—The limitations in this section
 13 shall apply whether the recovery is by judgment, settle-
 14 ment, mediation, arbitration, or any other form of alter-
 15 native dispute resolution. In a health care lawsuit involv-
 16 ing a minor or incompetent person, a court retains the 17 authority to authorize or approve a fee that is less than 18 the maximum permitted under this section.

19 SEC. 6. ADDITIONAL HEALTH BENEFITS.

20 In any health care lawsuit, any party may introduce 21 evidence of collateral source benefits. If a party elects to 22 introduce such evidence, any opposing party may intro-
 23 duce evidence of any amount paid or contributed or rea-
 24 sonably likely to be paid or contributed in the future by 25 or on behalf of the opposing party to secure the right to

1 such collateral source benefits. No provider of collateral
2 source benefits shall recover any amount against the
3 claimant or receive any lien or credit against the claim-
4 ant's recovery or be equitably or legally subrogated to the
5 right of the claimant in a health care lawsuit. This section
6 shall apply to any health care lawsuit that is settled as 7 well as a health care lawsuit that is resolved by a fact
8 finder.

9 SEC. 7. PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

10 (a) IN GENERAL.—Punitive damages may, if other-
11 wise permitted by applicable State or Federal law, be 12 awarded against any person in a health care lawsuit only
13 if it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that such 14 person acted with malicious intent to injure the claimant,
15 or that such person deliberately failed to avoid unneces-
16 sary injury that such person knew the claimant was sub-
17 stantially certain to suffer. In any health care lawsuit
18 where no judgment for compensatory damages is rendered
19 against such person, no punitive damages may be awarded
20 with respect to the claim in such lawsuit. No demand for 21 punitive damages shall be included in a health care lawsuit
22 as initially filed. A court may allow a claimant to file an
23 amended pleading for punitive damages only upon a mo-
24 tion by the claimant and after a finding by the court, upon
25 review of supporting and opposing affidavits or after a

1 hearing, after weighing the evidence, that the claimant has
2 established by a substantial probability that the claimant
3 will prevail on the claim for punitive damages. At the re-
4 quest of any party in a health care lawsuit, the trier of
5 fact shall consider in a separate proceeding—

6 (1) whether punitive damages are to be award-
7 ed and the amount of such award; and

8 (2) the amount of punitive damages following a
9 determination of punitive liability.

10 If a separate proceeding is requested, evidence relevant
11 only to the claim for punitive damages, as determined by 12 applicable State law, shall be inadmissible in any pro-
13 ceeding to determine whether compensatory damages are 14 to be awarded.

15 (b) DETERMINING AMOUNT OF PUNITIVE DAM-
16 AGES.—

17 (1) FACTORS CONSIDERED.—In determining
18 the amount of punitive damages, the trier of fact
19 shall consider only the following:

20 (A) the severity of the harm caused by the 21 conduct of such party;

22 (B) the duration of the conduct or any
23 concealment of it by such party;

24 (C) the profitability of the conduct to such 25 party;

1 (D) the number of products sold or med-
 2 ical procedures rendered for compensation, as
 3 the case may be, by such party, of the kind
 4 causing the harm complained of by the claim-
 5 ant;

6 (E) any criminal penalties imposed on such
 7 party, as a result of the conduct complained of 8 by the claimant; and

9 (F) the amount of any civil fines assessed
 10 against such party as a result of the conduct
 11 complained of by the claimant.

12 (2) MAXIMUM AWARD.—The amount of punitive
 13 damages awarded in a health care lawsuit may be up
 14 to as much as two times the amount of economic 15 damages awarded or $250,000, whichever is greater.
 16 The jury shall not be informed of this limitation.

 18 THAT COMPLY WITH FDA STANDARDS.—

19 (1) IN GENERAL.—No punitive damages may be 20 awarded against the manufacturer or distributor of
 21 a medical product based on a claim that such prod-
 22 uct caused the claimant's harm where—

23 (A)(i) such medical product was subject to
 24 premarket approval or clearance by the Food
 25 and Drug Administration with respect to the

1 safety of the formulation or performance of the
2 aspect of such medical product which caused
3 the claimant's harm or the adequacy of the 4 packaging or labeling of such medical product;
5 and

6 (ii) such medical product was so approved
7 or cleared; or

8 (B) such medical product is generally rec-
9 ognized among qualified experts as safe and ef-
10 fective pursuant to conditions established by the 11 Food and Drug Administration and applicable
12 Food and Drug Administration regulations, in-
13 cluding without limitation those related to pack-
14 aging and labeling.

15 (2) LIABILITY OF HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS.—

16 A health care provider who prescribes a drug or de-
17 vice (including blood products) approved by the 18 Food and Drug Administration shall not be named
19 as a party to a product liability lawsuit involving
20 such drug or device and shall not be liable to a
21 claimant in a class action lawsuit against the manu-
22 facturer, distributor, or product seller of such drug
23 or device.

24 (3) PACKAGING.—In a health care lawsuit for 25 harm which is alleged to relate to the adequacy of

1 the packaging or labeling of a drug which is required
2 to have tamper-resistant packaging under regula-
3 tions of the Secretary of Health and Human Serv-
4 ices (including labeling regulations related to such 5 packaging), the manufacturer or product seller of
6 the drug shall not be held liable for punitive dam-
7 ages unless such packaging or labeling is found by 8 the trier of fact by clear and convincing evidence to 9 be substantially out of compliance with such regula-
10 tions.

11 (4) EXCEPTION.—Paragraph (1) shall not
12 apply in any health care lawsuit in which—

13 (A) a person, before or after premarket ap-
14 proval or clearance of such medical product,
15 knowingly misrepresented to or withheld from
16 the Food and Drug Administration information
17 that is required to be submitted under the Fed-
18 eral Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C.
19 301 et seq.) or section 351 of the Public Health
20 Service Act (42 U.S.C. 262) that is material
21 and is causally related to the harm which the 22 claimant allegedly suffered; or

23 (B) a person made an illegal payment to
24 an official of the Food and Drug Administra-
25 tion for the purpose of either securing or main-

1           taining approval or clearance of such medical
2           product.

3 SEC. 8. AUTHORIZATION OF PAYMENT OF FUTURE DAM-
4 AGES TO CLAIMANTS IN HEALTH CARE LAW-
5 SUITS.

6           (a) IN GENERAL.—In any health care lawsuit, if an
7 award of future damages, without reduction to present
8 value, equaling or exceeding $50,000 is made against a
9 party with sufficient insurance or other assets to fund a
10 periodic payment of such a judgment, the court shall, at 11 the request of any party, enter a judgment ordering that
12 the future damages be paid by periodic payments in ac-
13 cordance with the Uniform Periodic Payment of Judg-
14 ments Act promulgated by the National Conference of 15 Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

16           (b) APPLICABILITY.—This section applies to all ac-
17 tions which have not been first set for trial or retrial be-
18 fore the effective date of this Act.

19 SEC. 9. DEFINITIONS.

20           In this Act:

21           (1) ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYS-
22           TEM; ADR.—The term “alternative dispute resolution
23           system” or “ADR” means a system that provides
24           for the resolution of health care lawsuits in a man-

1       ner other than through a civil action brought in a
2       State or Federal court.

3           (2) CLAIMANT.—The term “claimant” means
4       any person who brings a health care lawsuit, includ-
5       ing a person who asserts or claims a right to legal
6       or equitable contribution, indemnity or subrogation,
7       arising out of a health care liability claim or action,
8       and any person on whose behalf such a claim is as-
9       serted or such an action is brought, whether de-
10      ceased, incompetent, or a minor.

11          (3) COLLATERAL SOURCE BENEFITS.—The
12      term “collateral source benefits” means any amount
13      paid or reasonably likely to be paid in the future to 14      or on behalf of the claimant, or any service, product
15      or other benefit provided or reasonably likely to be
16      provided in the future to or on behalf of the claim-
17      ant, as a result of the injury or wrongful death, pur-
18      suant to—

19           (A) any State or Federal health, sickness,
20      income-disability, accident, or workers’ com-
21      pensation law;

22           (B) any health, sickness, income-disability,
23      or accident insurance that provides health bene-
24      fits or income-disability coverage;

1 (C) any contract or agreement of any
2 group, organization, partnership, or corporation
3 to provide, pay for, or reimburse the cost of 4 medical, hospital, dental, or income disability
5 benefits; and

6 (D) any other publicly or privately funded
7 program.

8 (4) COMPENSATORY DAMAGES.—The term
9 “compensatory damages” means objectively
10 verifiable monetary losses incurred as a result of the 11 provision of, use of, or payment for (or failure to 12 provide, use, or pay for) health care services or med-
13 ical products, such as past and future medical ex-
14 penses, loss of past and future earnings, cost of ob-
15 taining domestic services, loss of employment, and
16 loss of business or employment opportunities, dam-
17 ages for physical and emotional pain, suffering, in-
18 convenience, physical impairment, mental anguish,
19 disfigurement, loss of enjoyment of life, loss of soci-
20 ety and companionship, loss of consortium (other 21 than loss of domestic service), hedonic damages, in-
22 jury to reputation, and all other nonpecuniary losses
23 of any kind or nature. The term “compensatory
24 damages” includes economic damages and non-

1 economic damages, as such terms are defined in this
2 section.

3 (5) CONTINGENT FEE.—The term “contingent
4 fee” includes all compensation to any person or per-
5 sons which is payable only if a recovery is effected
6 on behalf of one or more claimants.

7 (6) ECONOMIC DAMAGES.—The term “economic
8 damages” means objectively verifiable monetary
9 losses incurred as a result of the provision of, use
10 of, or payment for (or failure to provide, use, or pay 11 for) health care services or medical products, such as 12 past and future medical expenses, loss of past and 13 future earnings, cost of obtaining domestic services,
14 loss of employment, and loss of business or employ-
15 ment opportunities.

16 (7) HEALTH CARE LAWSUIT.—The term
17 “health care lawsuit” means any health care liability
18 claim concerning the provision of health care goods
19 or services affecting interstate commerce, or any
20 health care liability action concerning the provision
21 of health care goods or services affecting interstate
22 commerce, brought in a State or Federal court or 23 pursuant to an alternative dispute resolution system,
24 against a health care provider, a health care organi-
25 zation, or the manufacturer, distributor, supplier,

1 marketer, promoter, or seller of a medical product,
2 regardless of the theory of liability on which the
3 claim is based, or the number of claimants, plain-
4 tiffs, defendants, or other parties, or the number of
5 claims or causes of action, in which the claimant al-
6 leges a health care liability claim.

7 (8) HEALTH CARE LIABILITY ACTION.—The
8 term “health care liability action” means a civil ac-
9 tion brought in a State or Federal Court or pursu-
10 ant to an alternative dispute resolution system,
11 against a health care provider, a health care organi-
12 zation, or the manufacturer, distributor, supplier,
13 marketer, promoter, or seller of a medical product,
14 regardless of the theory of liability on which the 15 claim is based, or the number of plaintiffs, defend-
16 ants, or other parties, or the number of causes of ac-
17 tion, in which the claimant alleges a health care li-
18 ability claim.

19 (9) HEALTH CARE LIABILITY CLAIM.—The
20 term “health care liability claim” means a demand
21 by any person, whether or not pursuant to ADR,
22 against a health care provider, health care organiza-
23 tion, or the manufacturer, distributor, supplier, mar-
24 keter, promoter, or seller of a medical product, in-
25 cluding, but not limited to, third-party claims, cross-

1 claims, counter-claims, or contribution claims, which
2 are based upon the provision of, use of, or payment
3 for (or the failure to provide, use, or pay for) health
4 care services or medical products, regardless of the 5 theory of liability on which the claim is based, or the
6 number of plaintiffs, defendants, or other parties, or
7 the number of causes of action.

8 (10) HEALTH CARE ORGANIZATION.—The term
9 “health care organization” means any person or en-
10 tity which is obligated to provide or pay for health
11 benefits under any health plan, including any person
12 or entity acting under a contract or arrangement
13 with a health care organization to provide or admin-
14 ister any health benefit.

15 (11) HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.—The term
16 “health care provider” means any person or entity
17 required by State or Federal laws or regulations to 18 be licensed, registered, or certified to provide health
19 care services, and being either so licensed, reg-
20 istered, or certified, or exempted from such require-
21 ment by other statute or regulation.

22 (12) HEALTH CARE GOODS OR SERVICES.—The
23 term “health care goods or services” means any
24 goods or services provided by a health care organiza-
25 tion, provider, or by any individual working under

1 the supervision of a health care provider, that relates
2 to the diagnosis, prevention, or treatment of any
3 human disease or impairment, or the assessment of
4 the health of human beings.

5 (13) MALICIOUS INTENT TO INJURE.—The
6 term “malicious intent to injure” means inten-
7 tionally causing or attempting to cause physical in-
8 jury other than providing health care goods or serv-
9 ices.

10 (14) MEDICAL PRODUCT.—The term “medical
11 product” means a drug or device intended for hu-
12 mans, and the terms “drug” and “device” have the 13 meanings given such terms in sections 201(g)(1) and
14 201(h) of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act
15 (21 U.S.C. 321), respectively, including any compo-
16 nent or raw material used therein, but excluding
17 health care services.

18 (15) NONECONOMIC DAMAGES.—The term
19 “noneconomic damages” means damages for phys-
20 ical and emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience,
21 physical impairment, mental anguish, disfigurement,
22 loss of enjoyment of life, loss of society and compan-
23 ionship, loss of consortium (other than loss of do-
24 mestic service), hedonic damages, injury to reputation, and all other nonpecuniary losses of any kind or nature.

(16) PUNITIVE DAMAGES.—The term “punitive damages” means damages awarded, for the purpose of punishment or deterrence, and not solely for compensatory purposes, against a health care provider, health care organization, or a manufacturer, distributor, or supplier of a medical product. Punitive damages are neither economic nor noneconomic damages.

(17) RECOVERY.—The term “recovery” means the net sum recovered after deducting any disbursements or costs incurred in connection with prosecution or settlement of the claim, including all costs paid or advanced by any person. Costs of health care incurred by the plaintiff and the attorneys’ office overhead costs or charges for legal services are not deductible disbursements or costs for such purpose.

(18) STATE.—The term “State” means each of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Northern Mariana Islands, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and any other territory or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof.

1 SEC. 10. EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS.

2 (a) VACCINE INJURY.—

3 (1) To the extent that title XXI of the Public
4 Health Service Act establishes a Federal rule of law
5 applicable to a civil action brought for a vaccine-re-
6 lated injury or death—

7 (A) this Act does not affect the application
8 of the rule of law to such an action; and

9 (B) any rule of law prescribed by this Act
10 in conflict with a rule of law of such title XXI
11 shall not apply to such action.

12 (2) If there is an aspect of a civil action
13 brought for a vaccine-related injury or death to 14 which a Federal rule of law under title XXI of the 15 Public Health Service Act does not apply, then this
16 Act or otherwise applicable law (as determined
17 under this Act) will apply to such aspect of such ac-
18 tion.

19 (b) OTHER FEDERAL LAW.—Except as provided in 20 this section, nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect 21 any defense available to a defendant in a health care law-
22 suit or action under any other provision of Federal law.

23 SEC. 11. STATE FLEXIBILITY AND PROTECTION OF STATES'
24 RIGHTS.

25 (a) HEALTH CARE LAWSUITS.—The provisions gov-
26 erning health care lawsuits set forth in this Act preempt,

1 subject to subsections (b) and (c), State law to the extent
2 that State law prevents the application of any provisions
3 of law established by or under this Act. The provisions
4 governing health care lawsuits set forth in this Act super-
5 sede chapter 171 of title 28, United States Code, to the
6 extent that such chapter—

7 (1) provides for a greater amount of damages
8 or contingent fees, a longer period in which a health
9 care lawsuit may be commenced, or a reduced appli-
10 cability or scope of periodic payment of future dam-
11 ages, than provided in this Act; or

12 (2) prohibits the introduction of evidence re-
13 garding collateral source benefits, or mandates or 14 permits subrogation or a lien on collateral source
15 benefits.

16 (b) PROTECTION OF STATES' RIGHTS.—Any issue
17 that is not governed by any provision of law established
18 by or under this Act (including State standards of neg-
19 ligence) shall be governed by otherwise applicable State
20 or Federal law. This Act does not preempt or supersede
21 any law that imposes greater protections (such as a short-22 er statute of limitations) for health care providers and
23 health care organizations from liability, loss, or damages
24 than those provided by this Act.

1 (c) STATE FLEXIBILITY.—No provision of this Act
2 shall be construed to preempt—

3 (1) any State statutory limit (whether enacted
4 before, on, or after the date of the enactment of this
5 Act) on the amount of compensatory or punitive
6 damages (or the total amount of damages) that may
7 be awarded in a health care lawsuit, whether or not
8 such State limit permits the recovery of a specific
9 dollar amount of damages that is greater or lesser
10 than is provided for under this Act, notwithstanding
11 section 4(a); or

12 (2) any defense available to a party in a health
13 care lawsuit under any other provision of State or 14 Federal law.

15 SEC. 12. APPLICABILITY; EFFECTIVE DATE.

16 This Act shall apply to any health care lawsuit
17 brought in a Federal or State court, or subject to an alter-
18 native dispute resolution system, that is initiated on or 19 after the date of the enactment of this Act, except that 20 any health care lawsuit arising from an injury occurring
21 prior to the date of the enactment of this Act shall be
22 governed by the applicable statute of limitations provisions
23 in effect at the time the injury occurred.

H. R. 4600

To improve patient access to health care services and provide improved medical care by reducing the excessive burden the liability system places on the health care delivery system.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. GREENWOOD (for himself, Mr. COX, Mr. MURTHA, Mr. TOOMEY, Mr. MORAN of Virginia, Mr. PETERSON of Minnesota, Mr. STENHOLM, Mr. LUCAS of Kentucky, Mr. PICKERING, and Mr. WELDON of Florida) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and in addition to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

---

A BILL

To improve patient access to health care services and provide improved medical care by reducing the excessive burden the liability system places on the health care delivery system.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2       This Act may be cited as the “Help Efficient, Acces-
3 sible, Low Cost, Timely Health Care (HEALTH) Act of 4 2002”.

5 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

6       (a) FINDINGS.—

7           (1) EFFECT ON HEALTH CARE ACCESS AND
8 COSTS.—Congress finds that our current civil justice
9 system is adversely affecting patient access to health
10 care services, better patient care, and cost-efficient
11 health care, in that the health care liability system
12 is a costly and ineffective mechanism for resolving
13 claims of health care liability and compensating in-
14 jured patients, and is a deterrent to the sharing of 15 information among health care professionals which
16 impedes efforts to improve patient safety and quality
17 of care.

18           (2) EFFECT ON INTERSTATE COMMERCE.—
19 Congress finds that the health care and insurance
20 industries are industries affecting interstate com-
21 merce and the health care liability litigation systems
22 existing throughout the United States are activities
23 that affect interstate commerce by contributing to 24 the high costs of health care and premiums for 25 health care liability insurance purchased by health
26 care system providers.

1           (3) EFFECT ON FEDERAL SPENDING.—Con-
2       gress finds that the health care liability litigation
3       systems existing throughout the United States have
4       a significant effect on the amount, distribution, and
5       use of Federal funds because of—

6           (A) the large number of individuals who
7       receive health care benefits under programs op-
8       erated or financed by the Federal Government;

9           (B) the large number of individuals who
10      benefit because of the exclusion from Federal
11      taxes of the amounts spent to provide them
12      with health insurance benefits; and

13          (C) the large number of health care pro-
14      viders who provide items or services for which
15      the Federal Government makes payments.

16      (b) PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this Act to imple-
17      ment reasonable, comprehensive, and effective health care
18      liability reforms designed to—

19          (1) improve the availability of health care serv-
20      ices in cases in which health care liability actions
21      have been shown to be a factor in the decreased
22      availability of services;

23          (2) reduce the incidence of “defensive medi-
24      cine” and lower the cost of health care liability in-

1       surance, all of which contribute to the escalation of
2       health care costs;

3           (3) ensure that persons with meritorious health
4       care injury claims receive fair and adequate com-
5       pensation, including reasonable noneconomic dam-
6       ages;

7           (4) improve the fairness and cost-effectiveness
8       of our current health care liability system to resolve
9       disputes over, and provide compensation for, health
10      care liability by reducing uncertainty in the amount
11      of compensation provided to injured individuals; and

12          (5) provide an increased sharing of information
13      in the health care system which will reduce unin-
14      tended injury and improve patient care.

15 SEC. 3. ENCOURAGING SPEEDY RESOLUTION OF CLAIMS.

16      A health care lawsuit may be commenced no later
17      than 3 years after the date of injury or 1 year after the 18      claimant discovers, or through the use of reasonable dili-
19      gence should have discovered, the injury, whichever occurs
20      first. In no event shall the time for commencement of a
21      health care lawsuit exceed 3 years, except that in the case
22      of an alleged injury sustained by a minor before the age
23      of 6, a health care lawsuit may be commenced by or on 24      behalf of the minor until the later of 3 years from the

1 date of injury, or the date on which the minor attains the 2 age of 8.

3 SEC. 4. COMPENSATING PATIENT INJURY.

4 (a) UNLIMITED AMOUNT OF DAMAGES FOR ACTUAL
5 ECONOMIC LOSSES IN HEALTH CARE LAWSUITS.—In any
6 health care lawsuit, the full amount of a claimant's eco-
7 nomic loss may be fully recovered without limitation.

8 (b) ADDITIONAL NONECONOMIC DAMAGES.—In any
9 health care lawsuit, the amount of noneconomic damages
10 recovered may be as much as $250,000, regardless of the 11 number of parties against whom the action is brought or 12 the number of separate claims or actions brought with re-
13 spect to the same occurrence.

14 (c) NO DISCOUNT OF AWARD FOR NONECONOMIC
15 DAMAGES.—In any health care lawsuit, an award for fu-
16 ture noneconomic damages shall not be discounted to 17 present value. The jury shall not be informed about the 18 maximum award for noneconomic damages. An award for 19 noneconomic damages in excess of $250,000 shall be re-
20 duced either before the entry of judgment, or by amend-
21 ment of the judgment after entry of judgment, and such 22 reduction shall be made before accounting for any other
23 reduction in damages required by law. If separate awards
24 are rendered for past and future noneconomic damages

1 and the combined awards exceed $250,000, the future
 2 noneconomic damages shall be reduced first.

3 (d) FAIR SHARE RULE.—In any health care lawsuit,
 4 each party shall be liable for that party's several share
 5 of any damages only and not for the share of any other
 6 person. Each party shall be liable only for the amount of 7 damages allocated to such party in direct proportion to 8 such party's percentage of responsibility. A separate judg-
 9 ment shall be rendered against each such party for the 10 amount allocated to such party. For purposes of this sec-
 11 tion, the trier of fact shall determine the proportion of 12 responsibility of each party for the claimant's harm.

14 (a) COURT SUPERVISION OF SHARE OF DAMAGES
 15 ACTUALLY PAID TO CLAIMANTS.—In any health care law-
 16 suit, the court shall supervise the arrangements for pay-
 17 ment of damages to protect against conflicts of interest
 18 that may have the effect of reducing the amount of dam-
 19 ages awarded that are actually paid to claimants. In par-
 20 ticular, in any health care lawsuit in which the attorney
 21 for a party claims a financial stake in the outcome by vir-
 22 tue of a contingent fee, the court shall have the power
 23 to restrict the payment of a claimant's damage recovery
 24 to such attorney, and to redirect such damages to the 25 claimant based upon the interests of justice and principles

1 of equity. In no event shall the total of all contingent fees
 2 for representing all claimants in a health care lawsuit ex-
 3 ceed the following limits:

4 (1) 40 percent of the first $50,000 recovered by
 5 the claimant(s).

6 (2) 33 $\frac{1}{3}$  percent of the next \$50,000 recovered
 7 by the claimant(s).

8 (3) 25 percent of the next $500,000 recovered
 9 by the claimant(s).

10 (4) 15 percent of any amount by which the re-
 11 covery by the claimant(s) is in excess of $600,000.

12 (b) APPLICABILITY.—The limitations in this section
 13 shall apply whether the recovery is by judgment, settle-
 14 ment, mediation, arbitration, or any other form of alter-
 15 native dispute resolution. In a health care lawsuit involv-
 16 ing a minor or incompetent person, a court retains the 17 authority to authorize or approve a fee that is less than 18 the maximum permitted under this section.

19 SEC. 6. ADDITIONAL HEALTH BENEFITS.

20 In any health care lawsuit, any party may introduce 21 evidence of collateral source benefits. If a party elects to 22 introduce such evidence, any opposing party may intro-
 23 duce evidence of any amount paid or contributed or rea-
 24 sonably likely to be paid or contributed in the future by 25 or on behalf of the opposing party to secure the right to

1 such collateral source benefits. No provider of collateral
2 source benefits shall recover any amount against the
3 claimant or receive any lien or credit against the claim-
4 ant's recovery or be equitably or legally subrogated to the
5 right of the claimant in a health care lawsuit. This section
6 shall apply to any health care lawsuit that is settled as 7 well as a health care lawsuit that is resolved by a fact
8 finder.

9 SEC. 7. PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

10 (a) IN GENERAL.—Punitive damages may, if other-
11 wise permitted by applicable State or Federal law, be 12 awarded against any person in a health care lawsuit only
13 if it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that such 14 person acted with malicious intent to injure the claimant,
15 or that such person deliberately failed to avoid unneces-
16 sary injury that such person knew the claimant was sub-
17 stantially certain to suffer. In any health care lawsuit
18 where no judgment for compensatory damages is rendered
19 against such person, no punitive damages may be awarded
20 with respect to the claim in such lawsuit. No demand for 21 punitive damages shall be included in a health care lawsuit
22 as initially filed. A court may allow a claimant to file an
23 amended pleading for punitive damages only upon a mo-
24 tion by the claimant and after a finding by the court, upon
25 review of supporting and opposing affidavits or after a

1 hearing, after weighing the evidence, that the claimant has
 2 established by a substantial probability that the claimant
 3 will prevail on the claim for punitive damages. At the re-
 4 quest of any party in a health care lawsuit, the trier of
 5 fact shall consider in a separate proceeding—

6 (1) whether punitive damages are to be award-
 7 ed and the amount of such award; and

8 (2) the amount of punitive damages following a
 9 determination of punitive liability.

10 If a separate proceeding is requested, evidence relevant
 11 only to the claim for punitive damages, as determined by 12 applicable State law, shall be inadmissible in any pro-
 13 ceeding to determine whether compensatory damages are 14 to be awarded.

15 (b) DETERMINING AMOUNT OF PUNITIVE DAM-
 16 AGES.—

17 (1) FACTORS CONSIDERED.—In determining
 18 the amount of punitive damages, the trier of fact
 19 shall consider only the following:

20 (A) the severity of the harm caused by the 21 conduct of such party;

22 (B) the duration of the conduct or any
 23 concealment of it by such party;

24 (C) the profitability of the conduct to such 25 party;

1 (D) the number of products sold or med-
 2 ical procedures rendered for compensation, as
 3 the case may be, by such party, of the kind
 4 causing the harm complained of by the claim-
 5 ant;

6 (E) any criminal penalties imposed on such
 7 party, as a result of the conduct complained of 8 by the claimant; and

9 (F) the amount of any civil fines assessed
 10 against such party as a result of the conduct
 11 complained of by the claimant.

12 (2) MAXIMUM AWARD.—The amount of punitive
 13 damages awarded in a health care lawsuit may be up
 14 to as much as two times the amount of economic 15 damages awarded or $250,000, whichever is greater.
 16 The jury shall not be informed of this limitation.

 18 THAT COMPLY WITH FDA STANDARDS.—

19 (1) IN GENERAL.—No punitive damages may be 20 awarded against the manufacturer or distributor of 21 a medical product based on a claim that such prod-
 22 uct caused the claimant's harm where—

23 (A)(i) such medical product was subject to
 24 premarket approval or clearance by the Food
 25 and Drug Administration with respect to the

1 safety of the formulation or performance of the
2 aspect of such medical product which caused
3 the claimant's harm or the adequacy of the 4 packaging or labeling of such medical product;
5 and

6 (ii) such medical product was so approved
7 or cleared; or

8 (B) such medical product is generally rec-
9 ognized among qualified experts as safe and ef-
10 fective pursuant to conditions established by the 11 Food and Drug Administration and applicable
12 Food and Drug Administration regulations, in-
13 cluding without limitation those related to pack-
14 aging and labeling.

15 (2) LIABILITY OF HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS.—

16 A health care provider who prescribes a drug or de-
17 vice (including blood products) approved by the 18 Food and Drug Administration shall not be named
19 as a party to a product liability lawsuit involving
20 such drug or device and shall not be liable to a
21 claimant in a class action lawsuit against the manu-
22 facturer, distributor, or product seller of such drug
23 or device.

24 (3) PACKAGING.—In a health care lawsuit for 25 harm which is alleged to relate to the adequacy of

1 the packaging or labeling of a drug which is required
2 to have tamper-resistant packaging under regula-
3 tions of the Secretary of Health and Human Serv-
4 ices (including labeling regulations related to such 5 packaging), the manufacturer or product seller of
6 the drug shall not be held liable for punitive dam-
7 ages unless such packaging or labeling is found by 8 the trier of fact by clear and convincing evidence to 9 be substantially out of compliance with such regula-
10 tions.

11 (4) EXCEPTION.—Paragraph (1) shall not
12 apply in any health care lawsuit in which—

13 (A) a person, before or after premarket ap-
14 proval or clearance of such medical product,
15 knowingly misrepresented to or withheld from
16 the Food and Drug Administration information
17 that is required to be submitted under the Fed-
18 eral Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C.
19 301 et seq.) or section 351 of the Public Health
20 Service Act (42 U.S.C. 262) that is material
21 and is causally related to the harm which the 22 claimant allegedly suffered; or

23 (B) a person made an illegal payment to
24 an official of the Food and Drug Administra-
25 tion for the purpose of either securing or main-

1           taining approval or clearance of such medical
2           product.

3   SEC. 8. AUTHORIZATION OF PAYMENT OF FUTURE DAM-
4                   AGES TO CLAIMANTS IN HEALTH CARE LAW-
5                   SUITS.

6           (a) IN GENERAL.—In any health care lawsuit, if an
7   award of future damages, without reduction to present
8   value, equaling or exceeding $50,000 is made against a
9   party with sufficient insurance or other assets to fund a
10   periodic payment of such a judgment, the court shall, at 11   the request of any party, enter a judgment ordering that
12   the future damages be paid by periodic payments in ac-
13   cordance with the Uniform Periodic Payment of Judg-
14   ments Act promulgated by the National Conference of 15   Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

16          (b) APPLICABILITY.—This section applies to all ac-
17   tions which have not been first set for trial or retrial be-
18   fore the effective date of this Act.

19   SEC. 9. DEFINITIONS.

20          In this Act:

21               (1) ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYS-
22          TEM; ADR.—The term “alternative dispute resolution
23          system” or “ADR” means a system that provides
24          for the resolution of health care lawsuits in a man-

1       ner other than through a civil action brought in a
2       State or Federal court.

3           (2) CLAIMANT.—The term “claimant” means
4       any person who brings a health care lawsuit, includ-
5       ing a person who asserts or claims a right to legal
6       or equitable contribution, indemnity or subrogation,
7       arising out of a health care liability claim or action,
8       and any person on whose behalf such a claim is as-
9       serted or such an action is brought, whether de-
10      ceased, incompetent, or a minor.

11          (3) COLLATERAL SOURCE BENEFITS.—The
12      term “collateral source benefits” means any amount
13      paid or reasonably likely to be paid in the future to 14      or on behalf of the claimant, or any service, product
15      or other benefit provided or reasonably likely to be
16      provided in the future to or on behalf of the claim-
17      ant, as a result of the injury or wrongful death, pur-
18      suant to—

19           (A) any State or Federal health, sickness,
20      income-disability, accident, or workers’ com-
21      pensation law;

22           (B) any health, sickness, income-disability,
23      or accident insurance that provides health bene-
24      fits or income-disability coverage;

1 (C) any contract or agreement of any
2 group, organization, partnership, or corporation
3 to provide, pay for, or reimburse the cost of 4 medical, hospital, dental, or income disability
5 benefits; and

6 (D) any other publicly or privately funded
7 program.

8 (4) COMPENSATORY DAMAGES.—The term
9 “compensatory damages” means objectively
10 verifiable monetary losses incurred as a result of the 11 provision of, use of, or payment for (or failure to 12 provide, use, or pay for) health care services or med-
13 ical products, such as past and future medical ex-
14 penses, loss of past and future earnings, cost of ob-
15 taining domestic services, loss of employment, and
16 loss of business or employment opportunities, dam-
17 ages for physical and emotional pain, suffering, in-
18 convenience, physical impairment, mental anguish,
19 disfigurement, loss of enjoyment of life, loss of soci-
20 ety and companionship, loss of consortium (other 21 than loss of domestic service), hedonic damages, in-
22 jury to reputation, and all other nonpecuniary losses
23 of any kind or nature. The term “compensatory
24 damages” includes economic damages and non-

1 economic damages, as such terms are defined in this
2 section.

3 (5) CONTINGENT FEE.—The term “contingent
4 fee” includes all compensation to any person or per-
5 sons which is payable only if a recovery is effected
6 on behalf of one or more claimants.

7 (6) ECONOMIC DAMAGES.—The term “economic
8 damages” means objectively verifiable monetary
9 losses incurred as a result of the provision of, use
10 of, or payment for (or failure to provide, use, or pay 11 for) health care services or medical products, such as 12 past and future medical expenses, loss of past and 13 future earnings, cost of obtaining domestic services,
14 loss of employment, and loss of business or employ-
15 ment opportunities.

16 (7) HEALTH CARE LAWSUIT.—The term
17 “health care lawsuit” means any health care liability
18 claim concerning the provision of health care goods
19 or services affecting interstate commerce, or any
20 health care liability action concerning the provision
21 of health care goods or services affecting interstate
22 commerce, brought in a State or Federal court or 23 pursuant to an alternative dispute resolution system,
24 against a health care provider, a health care organi-
25 zation, or the manufacturer, distributor, supplier,

1 marketer, promoter, or seller of a medical product,
2 regardless of the theory of liability on which the
3 claim is based, or the number of claimants, plain-
4 tiffs, defendants, or other parties, or the number of
5 claims or causes of action, in which the claimant al-
6 leges a health care liability claim.

7 (8) HEALTH CARE LIABILITY ACTION.—The
8 term “health care liability action” means a civil ac-
9 tion brought in a State or Federal Court or pursu-
10 ant to an alternative dispute resolution system,
11 against a health care provider, a health care organi-
12 zation, or the manufacturer, distributor, supplier,
13 marketer, promoter, or seller of a medical product,
14 regardless of the theory of liability on which the 15 claim is based, or the number of plaintiffs, defend-
16 ants, or other parties, or the number of causes of ac-
17 tion, in which the claimant alleges a health care li-
18 ability claim.

19 (9) HEALTH CARE LIABILITY CLAIM.—The
20 term “health care liability claim” means a demand
21 by any person, whether or not pursuant to ADR,
22 against a health care provider, health care organiza-
23 tion, or the manufacturer, distributor, supplier, mar-
24 keter, promoter, or seller of a medical product, in-
25 cluding, but not limited to, third-party claims, cross-

1 claims, counter-claims, or contribution claims, which
2 are based upon the provision of, use of, or payment
3 for (or the failure to provide, use, or pay for) health
4 care services or medical products, regardless of the 5 theory of liability on which the claim is based, or the
6 number of plaintiffs, defendants, or other parties, or
7 the number of causes of action.

8 (10) HEALTH CARE ORGANIZATION.—The term
9 “health care organization” means any person or en-
10 tity which is obligated to provide or pay for health
11 benefits under any health plan, including any person
12 or entity acting under a contract or arrangement
13 with a health care organization to provide or admin-
14 ister any health benefit.

15 (11) HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.—The term
16 “health care provider” means any person or entity
17 required by State or Federal laws or regulations to 18 be licensed, registered, or certified to provide health
19 care services, and being either so licensed, reg-
20 istered, or certified, or exempted from such require-
21 ment by other statute or regulation.

22 (12) HEALTH CARE GOODS OR SERVICES.—The
23 term “health care goods or services” means any
24 goods or services provided by a health care organiza-
25 tion, provider, or by any individual working under

1 the supervision of a health care provider, that relates
2 to the diagnosis, prevention, or treatment of any
3 human disease or impairment, or the assessment of
4 the health of human beings.

5 (13) MALICIOUS INTENT TO INJURE.—The
6 term “malicious intent to injure” means inten-
7 tionally causing or attempting to cause physical in-
8 jury other than providing health care goods or serv-
9 ices.

10 (14) MEDICAL PRODUCT.—The term “medical
11 product” means a drug or device intended for hu-
12 mans, and the terms “drug” and “device” have the 13 meanings given such terms in sections 201(g)(1) and
14 201(h) of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act
15 (21 U.S.C. 321), respectively, including any compo-
16 nent or raw material used therein, but excluding
17 health care services.

18 (15) NONECONOMIC DAMAGES.—The term
19 “noneconomic damages” means damages for phys-
20 ical and emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience,
21 physical impairment, mental anguish, disfigurement,
22 loss of enjoyment of life, loss of society and compan-
23 ionship, loss of consortium (other than loss of do-
24 mestic service), hedonic damages, injury to reputation, and all other nonpecuniary losses of any kind or nature.

(16) PUNITIVE DAMAGES.—The term “punitive damages” means damages awarded, for the purpose of punishment or deterrence, and not solely for compensatory purposes, against a health care provider, health care organization, or a manufacturer, distributor, or supplier of a medical product. Punitive damages are neither economic nor noneconomic damages.

(17) RECOVERY.—The term “recovery” means the net sum recovered after deducting any disbursements or costs incurred in connection with prosecution or settlement of the claim, including all costs paid or advanced by any person. Costs of health care incurred by the plaintiff and the attorneys’ office overhead costs or charges for legal services are not deductible disbursements or costs for such purpose.

(18) STATE.—The term “State” means each of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, the Northern Mariana Islands, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and any other territory or possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof.

1 SEC. 10. EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS.

2 (a) VACCINE INJURY.—

3 (1) To the extent that title XXI of the Public
4 Health Service Act establishes a Federal rule of law
5 applicable to a civil action brought for a vaccine-re-
6 lated injury or death—

7 (A) this Act does not affect the application
8 of the rule of law to such an action; and

9 (B) any rule of law prescribed by this Act
10 in conflict with a rule of law of such title XXI
11 shall not apply to such action.

12 (2) If there is an aspect of a civil action
13 brought for a vaccine-related injury or death to 14 which a Federal rule of law under title XXI of the 15 Public Health Service Act does not apply, then this
16 Act or otherwise applicable law (as determined
17 under this Act) will apply to such aspect of such ac-
18 tion.

19 (b) OTHER FEDERAL LAW.—Except as provided in 20 this section, nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect 21 any defense available to a defendant in a health care law-
22 suit or action under any other provision of Federal law.

23 SEC. 11. STATE FLEXIBILITY AND PROTECTION OF STATES'
24 RIGHTS.

25 (a) HEALTH CARE LAWSUITS.—The provisions gov-
26 erning health care lawsuits set forth in this Act preempt,

1 subject to subsections (b) and (c), State law to the extent
2 that State law prevents the application of any provisions
3 of law established by or under this Act. The provisions
4 governing health care lawsuits set forth in this Act super-
5 sede chapter 171 of title 28, United States Code, to the
6 extent that such chapter—

7 (1) provides for a greater amount of damages
8 or contingent fees, a longer period in which a health
9 care lawsuit may be commenced, or a reduced appli-
10 cability or scope of periodic payment of future dam-
11 ages, than provided in this Act; or

12 (2) prohibits the introduction of evidence re-
13 garding collateral source benefits, or mandates or 14 permits subrogation or a lien on collateral source
15 benefits.

16 (b) PROTECTION OF STATES' RIGHTS.—Any issue
17 that is not governed by any provision of law established
18 by or under this Act (including State standards of neg-
19 ligence) shall be governed by otherwise applicable State
20 or Federal law. This Act does not preempt or supersede
21 any law that imposes greater protections (such as a short-22 er statute of limitations) for health care providers and
23 health care organizations from liability, loss, or damages
24 than those provided by this Act.

1 (c) STATE FLEXIBILITY.—No provision of this Act
2 shall be construed to preempt—

3 (1) any State statutory limit (whether enacted
4 before, on, or after the date of the enactment of this
5 Act) on the amount of compensatory or punitive
6 damages (or the total amount of damages) that may
7 be awarded in a health care lawsuit, whether or not
8 such State limit permits the recovery of a specific
9 dollar amount of damages that is greater or lesser
10 than is provided for under this Act, notwithstanding
11 section 4(a); or

12 (2) any defense available to a party in a health
13 care lawsuit under any other provision of State or 14 Federal law.

15 SEC. 12. APPLICABILITY; EFFECTIVE DATE.

16 This Act shall apply to any health care lawsuit
17 brought in a Federal or State court, or subject to an alter-
18 native dispute resolution system, that is initiated on or 19 after the date of the enactment of this Act, except that 20 any health care lawsuit arising from an injury occurring
21 prior to the date of the enactment of this Act shall be
22 governed by the applicable statute of limitations provisions
23 in effect at the time the injury occurred.

Manny's suggestion panned out and the Hill Op-ed will run on National Review Online tomorrow.

sent Charles Lane an email this afternoon with the phone numbers for Hill and Gonzales, the letter from the D who worked for Ann Richards and offering any additional help. haven't heard from him again.

Should Harriet be at the hearing tomorrow morning (it starts at 10)? Heather thinks it a good idea, and others raised it tonight because the Texas crowd that will be in physical attendance at the hearing will be a little thin.

hi there! if you have a chance to sign those summaries today, I'll be eternally grateful. The Airlift Ops briefing is on Thursday and I would like to submit those summaries in time so that they do not show up 'pending' on the monthly report. It's not a necessity but, if you have the time, it would be helpful. Thanks!!

This meeting is scheduled for 5:00 on Tuesday in Jay's office. Jim Wootton, along with Gerald Musarra of Lockheed Martin, will be there. Robert Delahunty, Ed McNally's deputy, will also attend. FYI, here is the meeting request:

"John Schmitz and Jim Wootton (President, U.S. Chamber Institute for Legal Reform), and Gerald Musarra (Lockheed Martin) would like to meet with Jay Lefkowitz to discuss the Burton language on Indemnification -- the tort reform aspects of it -- as part of the Homeland Security bill."

Thanks.

Per discussion today, we need to make sure these cases get to this is great although it does not cover comparative reversal rates for last 5 years; any OLP resources that can dig those stats up Tuesday morning?

Note that I think the first edition of the Harvard Law Review each year has stats summarizing the previous Term that may include these kinds of stats.

Andrew: As I mentioned on the phone, we have two options that we are looking. In each case, Chairman Kittle has a commitment for $10K of plane time to be donated to the state party as an in-kind contribution. We usually only pay for fuel and the pilots. Chairman Kittle wants to call each FBO operator tomorrow to make sure we get the best deal and thinks he can talk them into donating even more for this special occasion.

1. FBO Operator/Company: First Wing Management
Contact: Matt Hagen
Approx. Cost: $7,000 with $6K In-Kind
Type of plane: Commander on hold for us
Ownership of plane: First Wing --- they have planes for timeshare
2. FBO Operator/Company: Indianapolis Aviation
Contact: Tom Auda
Approx. Cost: $7,000 with $6K In-Kind
Type of plane: Commander or King Air
Ownership of plane: Indianapolis Aviation - time share also

Thanks,
Craig

I suggest that we send him a copy of the letter we are drafting from Mitch (or a similar letter) in response to Sen. Lieberman's questions -- they are virtually the same.

Ok- no briefing.. Kevin was not happy, but seemed to understand. Here are some questions that he has that are more fact oriented. Can you all take a look at these and see if we can give him some answers?

Thanks,
Danielle

Subject: Indemnification

Here are some of the fairly straightforward factual questions that I had:

1. Are there any noteworthy examples in which indemnification was provided under PL 85-804?

2. Does anyone have a good understanding as to how PL 85-804 authorizes indemnification when the text doesn't mention indemnification?
3. Is it correct that the Price-Anderson Act has separate indemnification provisions for nuclear facilities and DOE contractors? How does each one work? Where are these provisions located in the code? Can anyone provide examples of where these authorities have been used?
4. Where does the authority exist for indemnification of commercial space launches? Is there a code citation for this?
5. Where does the authority exist for indemnification by the FAA? Code citation? Examples of where it's been used?
6. Congressman Waxman frequently cites the example of the indemnification given to the manufacturer of the Anthrax vaccine. Was this manufacturer indemnified? By whom, and using which authority?
7. Is there any kind of judgement fund or contingency fund that agencies have to put money into when they indemnify contractors?

Thanks.

Leonard/Mercy, below is a list of the participants coming in for the KBH Hispanic event. Leonard, I know you're already working w/Gay on the conference, so I thought I'd just give Gay a shout and ask her to work with you on ideas on how to highlight Estrada at this event. Barbara Ledeen has already independently asked Gay to work with all of us to pull some folks to the side for an Estrada event.

Perhaps we need a conference call early next week specifically on the conference w/SRC and Hatch's folks... let me know how you all would like to handle the Hispanic event coordination on Estrada....

Thanks, Heather

Manuel,
List of registrants we believe will be in town on Sept. 19 based on hotel reservations, as well as list of DC, VA and MD registrants. No one had a Honduran connection in their company name/affiliation.

Hope this helps--please let me know if you are interested in any of these folks.

If Sept. 19 is confirmed, would you like me to include a note about the hearing in the Judicial Nomination issue paper we've prepared for the Summit notebook?

There's a short paragraph on Estrada.

Thanks,

Gay

How about this (on political paper):

Thank you for your letter to ____ expressing interest in the President,s campaign for reelection. At this time, the President has not formed a

FYI, The letter requested a reply by this past Monday so the Senate could consider our input before it resumed debate on the bill next week. I left a message with Lee Ann Bracket (228-3533) of Lieberman's staff earlier in the week letting her know that we were still working on the response (she had called last Friday). I haven't heard back from her.

I was proceeding in the hopes of having the package in a form that it could be signed by COB tomorrow if that is what everyone desires. However, I defer to others on the timing of the letter -- I just didn't want to put us in a position of having no response if we wanted to have something to the Hill before the debate resumes.

Tampa Stadium Loses Its Insurance
Tuesday, Aug 27, 12:46 PM ET

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) - Raymond James Stadium, home of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, has lost its insurance, and heightened terrorism concerns from the Sept. 11 attacks likely will make new coverage expensive.

The stadium's owner and operator, Tampa Sports Authority, received a notice this month stating its insurance policy would not be renewed and has until Oct. 1 to find other insurance for the 65,000-seat stadium.

An independent insurance consultant told the TSA to expect a 30 percent increase in premiums and no guarantee that terrorism attacks will be covered.

"It's a tough bind to be in," TSA executive director Henry Saavedra said.

The $170 million stadium has had the same insurance since it opened in 1998. K&K Insurance Group, based in Fort Wayne, Ind., is the managing general underwriter for the stadium, shifting most of the risk to TIG Insurance in Dallas.

K&K severed its contract with TIG after the company's insurance rating dipped slightly. It then decided to get out of the stadium insurance business because it didn't have the capacity to handle it, according to the companies.

The sports authority paid $266,167 in premiums this year for property, liability and auto insurance at Raymond James and three area golf courses it manages, up 30 percent from the 2000-2001 season.

I am not sure there is a need for a meeting given that I think we know our position on GROC, and the draft letter leaves open room for Arme y and variations of Arme y. I just wanted to get a sense of the timing and get all of your views on the need for any meeting.

Brett,

The rnc would like to send some sort of reminder to the political appointees early next week as followup to the invitation they received for the reception to be hosted by the rnc. Below they proposed either sending a reminder eimail from the white house liaisons or printing up another round of reminder invites and going through the process you Laid out. Is the e-mail reminder ok? If so should someone from our office (on their political account e-mail/contact the liaisons or can someone from the rnc contact them?

We need to do some type of reminder on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. We could print out an additional 1500 invites and put "Reminder" stickers on them or if possible we could have the liaisons do a email invite. What do you all suggest.

ú Multi-million Dollar Decision Against HUD based on Contract
Cancelled by Prior Administration

HUD subsidizes and regulates a large portion of the US multifamily housing industry, and older HUD projects have high energy costs. In 1996, HUD contracted with Energy Capital (EC), to run a new program for energy efficient loans to reduce HUD property energy costs. Due to actions by the previous administration, the contract was abruptly cancelled (this issue was reported in the Wall Street Journal at the time). EC sued and HUD later conceded liability and agreed to pay all of EC,s costs. EC was granted rarely awarded &lost profits" of about $10 million, and on August 14, 2002, the Appeals Court affirmed this &lost profits8 award. It sent the case back to the lower court to recalculate the award (at a rate more favorable to the government, which could reduce the award to about $7 million). Former HUD Secretary Cuomo is expected to be deposed in the lower court proceeding based on his official involvement in this matter.

Subject: Golden Gate Bridge cannot get terrorism coverage

I looked into some of the examples of unavailability of terrorism coverage we used earlier in the year. Many have been able to find some limited coverage, but there is still no private terrorism coverage at all available to the Golden Gate Bridge, according to its manager.

The Wall Street Journal's "Washington Wire" (8/30, Kuntz) reports, "The White House considers retaliation against Senate Judiciary Committee Democrats for their expected rejection of appeals-court nominee Priscilla Owen. Aides talk of barring senators who vote against Bush's fellow Texan from Air Force One and of refusing White House tours for their constituents."

I don't have any problem recommending it (I'll shoot an email to Nick), but I don't know if it'll get approved due to the earlier conversation b/w boden and Andy Card. I'm all for it, though.
Did Judge Gonzales ever reach Feinstein? She's the other target that needs to be approached.

How does approx 9am sound? We can do it immediately after our staff meeting.

If that does not work the other option is 1:00 pm.

These times take into account Timmy's schedule as well.

Do you have any problems with me forwarding these letters to the RNC to handle?

Sorry to bother you but I have two letters and one large package of old RNC mailings that people are asking the President to delete them for all future mailings.

Heidi Marquez about the situation and she suggested that I speak to you. I also know that the RNC would like to have the box full of mailers so that they can take the name off of the correct lists. My question is - can I legally send these over to the RNC? Would you be interested in seeing any of it? Should I send it to your office for transfer to the RNC?

I am still new and don't really know how to proceed. Please advise.
Thank you.

It's back.

The good news: On some days, you will not have to go -- you will just be on call.

The bad news: We now must assign people to be on call on weekends.

The dates below in brackets are weekend days that you are on call.
I will let you know what non-weekend days you are merely on call and need not go.

Jen: Sept. 4-6, [7]
Brad: Sept. [8], 9-11
Kyle: Sept. 11-13, [14]
Helgi: Sept. [15], 16-18
Brett: Sept. 18-20, [21]
Bart: Sept. [22], 23-25

Ken - I invited a fellow named Gene Christensen to the President's Dinner back in June. Gene is a strong supporter of the President's vision for America. Gene asked for a set of Presidential cufflinks, which the NRCC agreed to. However, the NRCC has not yet delivered.

Joe Rachinsky has apparently requested these through your office. If you could have one of your people look up this request and get it handled, I would certainly appreciate it. Sorry to bother you with this, but Gene is kinda' my customer, and I feel responsible for his satisfaction.

Cheers,
Jeff

A Patty Stolmaker (?) from KPMG consulting, representing the Information Technology Association, left a message for me this morning asking for a meeting with Counsel's Office lawyers to discuss indemnification and pass along information and views. She indicated they had already met with OMB. Any views on whether there is any value to having such a meeting and, if so, who should attend?

The Real Estate Roundtable will release a new survey tomorrow morning that will show that there are now $10.5 Billion in projects canceled or on hold due to lack of terrorism insurance legislation. The last survey done on this subject was by the Mortgage Bankers Association (around June) which showed $8 Billion.

I will send the details once I receive.

campaign for reelection. At this time, the President has not formed a campaign committee, but your letter will be kept on file. In the meantime, you may send a resume to the Republican National Committee, 310
First Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003.

Thanks again for taking the time to write.

He wants to change it again! how is this? (on WH paper) We would also use for auction item requests.

On behalf of President Bush, thank you for your letter regarding your campaign for reelection to XXXX.

Because of the many requests the President receives to support outstanding candidates, we rely on the Republican National Committee for recommendations on how best we can help. You may contact John Peschong, Regional Political Director for the Republican National Committee, regarding your efforts. I have copied him on this letter as well. Best wishes in your upcoming election.

Thanks again for taking the time to write.

what about referring them to the RNC? sorry for all the emails, but ken keeps making edits.

On behalf of President Bush, thank you for your letter regarding your campaign for XXX in XXXX.

Unfortunately, the President cannot act upon all the many requests he receives to support outstanding candidates. Instead, you should contact XXXXX at the Republican National Committee who can assist your efforts. Best wishes in your upcoming election.

Brett signed off on these so long as we don not use Ken's name in any of them - if we do want to use Ken's name, we cannot need use the title, and we need to talk about the consequences - since it will definitely make news.

Hoelscher is back in town, so he is taking the lead on pushing these through -

I imagine we are okay without using Ken's name and that these can go out asap.

Doug and Blaise - thoughts?

Subject: 72 hour Task Force Recruitment letters

Brett:

Attached are three letters for your approval.

Each will be sent out as recruitment tools on behalf of RNC's 72 Hour Task Force program, where recipients will be encouraged to take 1-3 weeks and volunteer for key targeted campaigns.

Please note these three separate letters are designated by the universe to which they will be sent, i.e.L

- "72 Hour Letter volunteer (sched c)": will go to sched. c's thru the approved process of WH Liaison hand-delivery (note that Ken does NOT sign this letter).

- "72 Hour Letter volunteer (non-sched c)": will go to Hill staffers and K street workers whom the RNC believes willing to volunteer (note that Ken does sign this letter).

- "72 Hour Letter Elected Officials": will go to GOP elected officials across the country who do not face competitive elections this cycle.

Your guidance when you have a moment... thank you sir (!)

THE GLOBAL MESSENGER

Friday, September 20, 2002

Welcome

The Messenger will publish frequently as Congress and the United Nations weigh the case against Saddam Hussein's regime, and thereafter whenever global events warrant. We aim to be timely, user-friendly, and succinct.

MESSAGE

ú The President is resolved in confronting the threat posed by Saddam Hussein's regime and is asking Congress to support his firm stand.
ú Meanwhile, the UN Security Council must act to enforce its own resolutions. The UN's credibility is at stake as it responds to the President's call for international action to achieve Iraqi disarmament.
ú While asking for UN action, the President is underscoring that this country will do what is necessary, with our friends, to defend US and coalition security interests.
ú Saddam Hussein repeatedly violates 16 UNSC resolutions designed to constrain Iraq's ability to threaten international peace and security.
ú There is nothing to negotiate with Iraq. Saddam's regime must be held accountable for not conforming to the resolutions Iraq agreed to.
ú The President strongly condemns terror and violence in the Middle East, and extended condolences to the families of victims of Thursday's violence.

Today's Schedule

Recent Developments

President Bush on Thursday asked Congress to authorize the use of all appropriate means, including the use of force, to enforce the UNSC Resolutions and defend the national security interests of the United States.

Key Quotes

"If you want to keep the peace, you've got to have the authorization to use force."
President Bush, 9/19/02

"They have used every previous opportunity to wiggle out. This is not the first time they have said they had let inspectors in without conditions."

Secretary of State Powell, 9/19/02

"Well I think the Americans have the right to have doubts about Iraq,s intentions."

Ali Muhsen Hamid, Arab League Ambassador to UK, 9/18/02

? Reality Check

"Our rights, sovereignty, and security should be respected in accordance with international law, we have accepted the return of the inspection teams to Iraq taking into consideration the arrangements that should safeguard these principles."

Naji Sabri, Iraqi Minister of Foreign Affairs, 9/19/02

*****

"Iraq uses the word sovereignty in an effort to thwart the inspectors...in an effort to get around the very resolutions that they have been called on by the world to comply with. That is a code word for deception, for deceit and for thwarting the inspectors."

White House Press Secretary Ari Fleischer, 9/19/02

Can you make a mtg at 3 today on smallpox issues related to the homeland security bill? Lauren will forward the room info.

I know your hands are full, but it's an important issue that cropped up recently in HHS mtgs with hospitals. It relates to planning in the event of a smallpox attack. We would benefit from your attendance.

Subject: Sit ins

Nick wants to know if we can get our Hispanic group friends to do sit-ins in schumer and leahy's offices, and get univision there to tape. Is that something that could be pulled off? Maybe it's even a next week thing if there's already too much going on this week. Anne, could you forward to Mercy... I don't have her email in my blackberry. Also, Brett, any word on the univision idea I ran by you last night?

Brett, I know you were interested in whether or not any Members had introduced a judicial noms protocol that had a timetable. The answer is yes and no: Specter never introduced a bill, b/c his talks w/Biden broke off, but Specter did give a speech on the floor of the Senate after the Estrada hearing on a protocol that would go something like this:

30 days to a hearing w/ a 30 day extension allowed through notice by the Chairman to the Ranking
30 days to exec mark up w/ a 30 day extension allowed through notice by Chairman to the Ranking 30 days to the floor vote w/a 30 day extension allowed (not sure who notices who)
a party line vote in committee that resulted in the nominations being voted down would still go to the floor for a vote; a negative vote in committee that is not a party line vote (defined as just one Member crossing the aisle to vote with the other party) would not go to the floor for a vote. (this is the empower Specter provision that our other Repubs hate).

Given that this proposal is in the public record, even though it's not a bill, I think we need to recognize it in the Q&A.

FYI -- I have spoken to Specter's staff and they say their boss will love this and will stand ready to help us build some bipart support around it after the election.

I know you know all this, but just in case there is one missing . . .

Wash Post -- Charles Lane (or perhaps Mike Allen, but I doubt it)
NY Times -- Neil Lewis
USA Today -- Joan Biskupic
LA Times -- David Savage
WSJ -- [not sure]
Chicago Tribune -- Jan Greenberg
Weekly Standard -- Terry Eastland
National Review -- Byron York

Also, interested columnists would include Stuart Taylor, David Broder, and possibly Bob Novak.

As to ed boards, I can/will be in touch with Ben Wittes, but someone should talk to Paul Gigot at Wall Street Journal. I can do that if you want.

Finally, I think we should do something Anne often would arrange with/through Media Affairs, which is to send out the packet (speech and fact sheet) to all local editorial boards around the country.

Does that mean 100% for Boyden as well? I'll take care of AG and Ted, but can you quickly follow up with the other people being acknowledged so that we can be 100% sure when we pre-brief President. Last thing we want, of course, is for him to acknowledge someone not there or not to acknowledge someone there. Thanks!!

I was slated to appear on a Heritage panel this afternoon starting at 4:30.

I no longer can do it because I have to stick around here for something according to my boss. Can one of you take my place? I think Alex Azar is also on the panel. It's basically a mid-term review of Administration. No prep required and a good group. It is out at Landsdowne Resort. Let me know if any can/want to do it. THANKS.

Al and Tim:

You may want to take a look at Burrus v. Vegliante, 2002 WL 31323812 (SDNY Oct. 15, 2002) (First Amendment and Hatch Act) (Judge Hellerstein), regarding a union's posting Gore v. Bush comparison posters in non-public areas of U.S. Post Offices during the 2000 presidential campaign. Here is the key paragraph from the opening part of the Court's opinion:

I hold, in this dispute between management of the United States Postal Service and officials and employees of the American Postal Workers Union, that the Hatch Act was not intended to curtail normal and traditional methods of communication between the union and its members; that preventing the union from communicating its evaluations of candidates seeking election to public office, by posting such evaluations on dedicated union bulletin boards in non-public areas of post offices, is not required by the Act; and that the communications between the Union and its members is constitutionally protected speech.

I was slated to appear on a Heritage panel this afternoon starting at 4:30.

I no longer can do it because I have to stick around here for something according to my boss. Can one of you take my place? I think Alex Azar is also on the panel. It's basically a mid-term review of Administration. No prep required and a good group. It is out at Landsdowne Resort. Let me know if any can/want to do it. THANKS.

brett,

it's sometimes hard to generate original print coverage of the radio address, but it dawned on me that if media affairs sent out customized state by state lists listing vacancies, pending names etc. it might be effective in generating some pickup beyond the ap and reuters folks at the white house. we used state by state documents effectively at education by working with ap to get the dc writers to flag local materials for bureaus around the country -- the results were lengthy and customized articles that pulled from the best of the white house articles. just a thought --

Brett, as we look forward to next Friday's OLP retreat session on judges, I WARMLY welcome your penetrating, trenchant wisdom on content, topics, flow, format, agenda -- basically anything and everything you can think of to make those 2 hours as fruitful and productive and action-oriented as possible.

Should we invite anyone else from WHCO?

Aside from the OLP judges gang -- there will be no OLP career folks at the judges break-out session, though they will of course be at the retreat -- the outside guests are:

- * you
- * Boyden
- * Ed Haden
- * Manny
- * Alex
- * Oschal

No doubt Election Day results will drive our discussion, but in the meantime I invite your (and others') ideas on format, agenda, content, etc.

Thanks, Brett.

The President mispronounced one of the names, so he needs to re-record today. Is it ok for him to do it at the hotel during his downtime? It is a 800 number, and I am pretty sure that political is paying for everything on this trip.

I am pretty sure that there would be a recording problem if he did it on the plane as well as a legal problem.

Brett,
Can you give me a call about 9/11 families? We have gotten some calls this week regarding one of their lawsuits.

Federal employees are generally permitted to engage in a wide variety of political activity, per the Hatch Act Amendments. That law and the regulations implementing that law also provide that employees in the EOP (and PAS'ers) whose jobs can continue outside normal duty hours and while away from the normal duty post may participate in political activity while on duty and in the office. Example 3 of 5 CFR 734.502 is illustrative. In addition, use of e-mail does not incur any non-incidental, additional cost to the government.

I passed on Brett's suggestion to our NY political person and to Ali Tulbah. As of yesterday I was aware of only three calls to our political office. It is my understanding the State Dept. public liaison office had gotten some calls in the past week and the WH correspondence office has also gotten some correspondence.

Subject: letter from 9/11 families possibly to be published in newspaper

A letter from some 9/11 families may be published in the paper tomorrow. The letter will urge the President, in essence, not to intervene against the plaintiff-families in the suits they have filed against some foreign governments and foreign entities and individuals. All press questions are probably best referred to State if possible. State's public position remains that the United States is aware of these suits, is not a party to them, and has no present intention to intervene. Note, however, that some government departments may be (and likely will be) served with discovery requests, in which case the US would respond appropriately. Also, the United States may be called upon by a court at some point to provide its legal interpretation of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act or the Airline Stabilization Act, in which case the United States would provide its interpretation of the law.

Brett --

Can you do KKLA on the President's judicial proposal on Monday, Nov. 11 @ 7:45 PM ET (4:45 PT)? Host is Warren Duffy, show is Live from LA. You have done this before. This is a conservative show -- it'll be a cake-walk.

DYLAN GLENN STUMPS FOR SAXBY CHAMBLISS

Georgia Republican visits Thomasville, urges Get-Out-The-Vote

ATLANTA*Dylan Glenn, former congressional candidate and a prominent Georgia Republican, will stump for Saxby Chambliss, candidate for the U.S. Senate, at 12:30 p.m., on Mon., Nov. 4, 2002 in Thomasville.

Glenn will meet supporters at the Douglasville GOP Headquarters to encourage area residents to vote for Georgia Republicans, including Saxby Chambliss, a candidate who strongly supports President George W. Bush.

Glenn will urge residents to support candidates, who are committed to working with President Bush, especially candidates who want to make the President,s tax cuts permanent, like Chambliss.

Monday, November 1, 2002:

WHO: Dylan Glenn, former congressional candidate

WHAT: Get-Out-the-Vote Rally

WHERE: Douglasville GOP Headquarters
Jackson Street

WHEN: 12:30 p.m.

What do you two think about timing of Judge's letter? I think it should be sent before we know the results of the elections -- so today or tomorrow. That way, the Judge's letter cannot be attacked as opportunistic (which I view as a more dangerous long-term concern than the short-term and soon-to-be-outdated hit we take for advancing the proposal shortly before an election).

Bolded portion of this probably captures my view:

"Both candidates did well. But Mondale was perhaps the real winner, if only because his expectations were lower. Coleman is a smooth, smart politician who will instantly become a GOP star if he's elected tomorrow. But Mondale demonstrated that he's still sharp and has a solid grasp on the issues."

No, it's a lot of issues we're going to work on. But let me tell you a cutting edge issue, and that is the issue of judges.

AUDIENCE: Yeah!

THE PRESIDENT: We have a got a -- too many vacancies on our federal bench, in spite of the fact that I have sent a lot of names to the United States Senate. The bunch running the Senate up there has done a lousy job with my nominees.

AUDIENCE: Yeah!

THE PRESIDENT: And I want to tell you something, the kind of judges I'm nominating are the kind of judges that you would expect me to nominate and want me to nominate. (Applause.) These are good -- good and honorable people who have got good records; whose records sometimes are being distorted in the Senate; and sometimes can't even get a hearing because they're playing petty politics.

These are good, honorable people who will use the bench not to legislate from, but to interpret the Constitution of the United States of America. (Applause.)

And this should be clear to the citizens -- let me -- I hope to make it clear to the citizens of this state, that if you're interested in a solid judiciary, if you're interested in a judiciary that represents the majority opinion in Arkansas, put Tim Hutchinson back in the United States Senate. (Applause.)

Throughout the day and night, I'll send regular emails updating actual returns, exit polls, and projected final outcomes based on those returns. This is only internal. To start things on the right foot, we are projected to win the Guam Governor's race.

The polls closed at 8:00pm Guam time. (5:00am DC Time) Exit polls show the Republican Team of Felix Camacho and Kaleo Moylan winning 58% to 42% the Governor ship and the Lt. Governor ship. They ran against Congressman Underwood.

The President endorsed the Republican team. A number of voters have stated in the morning radio shows that they voted Democrat in the last election but are voting Republican this time because of our endorsement. Exit polls show the Democrats winning the Congressional delegate race with Madeline Bordallo.

The results should be final between (1:00 am and 3:00 am Guam Time) (10:00 am to Noon DC Time).

I believe we have a date and time that will work for the VCF meeting.
This Friday from 2:30pm to 3:30pm in the Civil Conference Room 3143.

Peter's meeting with Phil and John would follow. Paul hopefully would be available by phone. The weekly meeting with the Special Master would be pushed to next week.

Let me know if this meets with everyone's approval.

In checking Peter Keisler's calendar for this Friday, Peter could meet 8:30-9:30. The other possibility is 1:30-2:30, as Phil and John have a 2:30 meeting with Peter.

Subject: VCF Meeting

The meeting on VCF issues -- tentatively scheduled for this Thursday at 8:30am -- has been cancelled. In speaking with all the proposed participants, it appears as if there is no workable time for everyone (including Brett Kavanaugh, who is not copied on this email) to meet on Thursday.

In light of what needs to get accomplished in the coming days, and the importance of the issues that need to be resolved during that time, I recommend we try to reschedule for this Friday. Those of us at DOJ can push our weekly meeting with the Special Master back to Monday morning.

Let me know your thoughts and availability.

NC: Low early turnout in Democrat precincts in Raleigh and Charlotte

NH: McCain operative John Weaver is apparently doing GOTV recorded calls for Shaheen. The calls are going to independents and Democrats and identify Weaver as having "run the McCain campaign"

MO: Very heavy turnout in the 7th CD-- Roy Blunt's district, and the Republican base of the state. Talent's failure to win this part of Missouri by a bigger margin in 2000 is why he lost the Governor's race.

SD: Thune groundgame looks strong. 100% Republican coverage of precincts by Republican volunteers, 10% Democrat coverage of precincts by Democrat

I'm working on this event and will get back to you. Also, Tim wanted you to handle something for him. Can you talk to Laurie McCord about a question from Sen. Inhofe? He wants the percent of the ethnic minorities at the White House and she's not sure what to tell him. She's expecting your call and her number is 6-5615. Thanks.

Raquel is going to be in charge of the master schedule of all judicial interviews. Please notify her of any interviews you are involved in so that she can add them to the calendar. Also please let her know if she needs to notify DOJ and/or WAVE the interviewee in. She will be emailing out the schedule each week so that you will know if your interviews for the week have been added to the calendar. Thank you!

BK, I warmly welcome your valuable $0.02 on a revised, action-oriented agenda for the Fri. break-out session on how we can best flex our regained majority muscle on behalf of the President's judicial nominees -- topics we oughta be sure to cover, etc. (The previous agenda I had is somewhat kaput now.)

I want to squeeze maximum value from having everyone there together.

Thanks.

And kudos on your political crystal ball.

p.s. also, a brief bio., pls. (i need to give this to Adam by noon)

Not too shabby, young Kavanaugh. You've done alright.

Thanks.

Agenda ideas for Friday in light of our new majority muscle?

I'm aiming for an agenda that sparks spark action, action, action -- no blah, blah, blah, but action.

Yes, there will be a judges meeting at 2 pm today. Abegg was the only one who said he could not make it today.

Actually, this will likely be more of a party than a meeting!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
 We also might bestow our tape measures on Makan, Rena, et al to make sure they get their fair share of space this time.

"What I want to say to my friends in the Republican Party is, eat your heart out. I get faxes from Barbra Streisand, they get faxes from Rush Limbaugh and Pat Robertson."

-- House Minority Leader Dick Gephardt at an L.A. Democratic fundraiser where Streisand came out of retirement and sang nine songs, Sept.29.

Who is "eating their hearts out" now?

Thanks. It would be helpful if we could get a sense of the nature and volume of the documents that EOP/OA intends to produce and whether or not EOP/OA plans to withhold any documents based on exemptions. I'd be happy to call the lawyer there -- Adam Greenstone -- directly, together with the trial attorney on this, to avoid continuing to impose the middleman burden on you, or to continue going through you if you prefer. How would you like to proceed?

Brett--Sorry for this response taking a few days; I had a car accident last Wednesday and I'm catching up. I think we should be prepared to release documents very shortly, probably by the end of the week.

End Original ARMS Header #####

For those of you who may be looking for either another Biblestudy or a study on Wednesday when you can't make the Thursday study - there is a study that has been going on for quite a while. It takes place every Wednesday from 12:15-12:45pm in EEOB 476. We are studying the book of James and would welcome anyone who wants to join us! If you would like to be on the weekly email reminder just let me know! Thanks!

End Original ARMS Header #####

For those of you who may be looking for either another Biblestudy or a study on Wednesday when you can't make the Thursday study - there is a study that has been going on for quite a while. It takes place every Wednesday from 12:15-12:45pm in EEOB 476. We are studying the book of James and would welcome anyone who wants to join us! If you would like to be on the weekly email reminder just let me know! Thanks!

For those of you who may be looking for either another Biblestudy or a study on Wednesday when you can't make the Thursday study - there is a study that has been going on for quite a while. It takes place every Wednesday from 12:15-12:45pm in EEOB 476. We are studying the book of James and would welcome anyone who wants to join us! If you would like to be on the weekly email reminder just let me know! Thanks!

Editorial: Judicial nominations need bi-partisan standards

Look up "partisanship" in the dictionary and the only definition needed is the federal judicial appointment process.

Perhaps no other process is so packed with political poison as the president's responsibility to nominate federal judges.

President Bush, with 79 federal judicial vacancies to fill as of November, has found out the hard way that "reaching out" to U.S. Senate Democrats oftentimes leads to a bare-knuckle brawl when it comes to judicial nominations.

Unfortunately, his predecessor, Bill Clinton, discovered the same thing courtesy of Republicans.

Both parties are guilty of determining a judge's qualifications for office by party labels or simply nixing a candidate for political reasons.

This detestable practice has become an unwelcome tradition and does not serve the best interests of the public, which is more interested in swift and fair justice than political power plays.

Whether he is tired of fighting or simply punch-drunk, Bush has offered a meaningful proposal that could alleviate much of the politics from the judicial nomination process.

The president's proposal includes federal judges providing a year's notice before leaving office. The president would then have 180 days to nominate a replacement, with the Senate judicial committee having 90 days to consider the nomination. The full Senate would have another 90 days to vote for confirmation. Bush also wants to include the American Bar Association in the process.

The proposal has merit in that guidelines would prevent judicial nominees from languishing in the Senate for months on end, a much-used delaying tactic by both sides. The inclusion of the ABA helps reduce at least some of the partisan bickering and contrasts with earlier proposals to remove ABA participation.

Clearly, something has to be done for the federal justice system to be able to function properly without lawmakers creating political obstacles. The president's proposal will speed up the process and is a step in the right direction.

Yesterday, no one was answering the phone in Harkin's office. Tried Harkin again today. The Chief of Staff is on vacation for the rest of the year but is picking up messages. I left a message on her assistant's voicemail that we are planing to go forward with a judicial candidate in Iowa and have been trying to speak to them to see if they had any concerns. Asked her to call me to discuss.

I just got off the phone with Victor - he had called me re resurrecting that old Hatch bill on preventing multiple imposition of punitive damages. I didn't challenge him on his comments on class action - saving that for another day. But he mentioned that Adam Golman (sp?) who he called the "White House liason on these issues" was who he talked to about this punitives bill and that Golman said it met the WH's federalism test. I don't know if the other tidbit about Victor claiming the WH told him class action will not be done in 03 came from that conversation or not, but he may be someone you want to check with. And again - I don't know the validity of the rumor that Victor made these statements to the ATRA board, but I was present at the ACU meeting where he took a pot shot at the class action bill.

I looked at my notes, the statute Victor Schwartz was referring to in claiming that the Class Action bill was unconstitutional (in the meeting I attended with the American Conservative Union - Steve Thayer et al ) - was the 1938 Rules Enabling Act - which as I understand states that the Judicial Conference/Supreme Court- can intiate changes in the Federal Rules, then notify Congress, and if Congress doesn't act within a specified time period ( a few months) they automatically go into effect. You will recall that Rule 11 used to have mandatory sactions, the change to make it discretionary was done through this process and since Congress failed to act, they went into effect. But I don't believe there is anything prohibiting the Congress from acting independently. To think Congress could not act independently in changing the federal rules is ludicrous. But you guys should know what he is up to.

Note, Victor used to lobby for the passage of the class action bill - it certainly appears that his tune has changed depending on if he has his own bill he wants to get done. And the bill he is pushing now is to prevent the multiple imposition of punitive damages (i.e. a company had punitive damages assessed against it in one state court , it should not have punitives for the same behavior assessed in another court). This was part of a bill Hatch did in 1996 (I think it was part of his big Civil Justice Reform bill). Obviously it has merit, but it is certainly disconcerting at the very least that Victor may try to sabotage Class Action reform to get his own bill through. As you know, the ground work is more in place for Class Action than for this mulitiple punitives bill - so what is he thinking? (and who is his client?).

is it possible for Senate staff to get a tour of the White House?

Note - I am out of the office M, T, and Wed of next week, but back on Thurs and Friday - and IMPORTANT NOTE - Senate Judiciary email will be DOWN Sunday through Thursday is my understanding - as we are undergoing the conversion to Outlook. So don't count on being able to email us during that time and keep in mind that some emails sent during that time may be lost. Leave voicemails.

Brett,

Still up for lunch today? Phil convened a 12:30 meeting I need to attend, so I could have an 11:30 or 1:30 lunch, if that works for you.

Thanks,
Daryl

Brett,

Just a reminder, the first of the 2 big packets I sent you is due today at 12 pm.
It has the Chapters on Promoting Growth, Supprot Labor Markets, & Reform of the Income Tax.

Thanks,
Patrick

My friend

Connie Marshner's office is inviting the judge (via Viet and Don W.) to the life forum.

I am not sure this is a forum where the judge wants to speak. We can chat.

Warmly

It was not. Ben has expressed interest, and I told him I would have no say in the matter. I think he assumes he will do it because he lived there, but we all know that may not be how it works out. Since you have an advanced degree in Parskey, perhaps Judge and David will want you to assume responsibility for this highly desirable portfolio . . .

GORDON: What about Charles Pickering, who you backed very strongly, quite frankly...

LOTT: Absolutely, yes.

GORDON: Absolutely...

LOTT: I did back him, because he is a fine man with an outstanding record who actually took risks with his own life to--in actions against the Klan.

GORDON: But you know where I'm going with that question.

LOTT: I do. Sure.

GORDON: You would take another look at him now?

LOTT: I know his heart. He is a good man and is not a racist or a segregationist in any way. The things--many of the things said against him he was not guilty of.

But having said that, you know, I'll have to weigh all of my actions differently and more carefully.

Follow up from staff meeting:

Brad is correct that litigation is ongoing as to whether U.S. Trustees are political appointments. The litigation arose from the removal ("Termination due to change in Presidential Administration.") of the Reno-appointed U.S. Trustee in Region 17. In that litigation, an ALJ recently held that U.S. Trustees may not avail themselves of civil service protections, noting, inter alia, that (1) 28 U.S.C. § 581(c) provides that U.S. Trustees are "subject to removal by the Attorney General" for any reason or no reason and (2) Attorney General Reno issued an order in 1996 stating that the position of U.S. Trustee is of a "confidential, policy-determining, policy-making, or policy-advocating character" and therefore U.S. Trustees are not "employees" who enjoy civil service protections. The case is captioned Stanley v. Department of Justice, docket no. SF-0752-02-0591-I-1 (op. issued Dec. 16, 2002); it is appealable to the Merit Systems Protection Board.

How Many Judges? (WPost)

Editorial

The Washington Post, December 19, 2002

YOU MIGHT NOT expect that the question of how many judges a court needs would become a festering political problem. But how to staff the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit is threatening to become just that -- again. The court, which is one of the most important in the country, has 12 authorized judgeships. But during the Clinton administration, Republican senators blocked qualified nominees to its 11th and 12th seats; its declining workload made additional judges unnecessary, they said. Now President Bush, poised to win confirmation of nominees John G. Roberts and Miguel A. Estrada to the vacant ninth and 10th seats on the court, wants to fill the additional slots as well. An ugly fight could await the nominees, whoever they turn out to be.

It's hard to fault the president for wishing to fill judgeships that have been authorized by Congress. But Democrats argue, reasonably enough, that the court's workload has only declined further since President Clinton's nominees stalled. Why should President Bush get to fill slots denied his predecessor? The White House's problem is compounded by the fact that some Republican senators -- along with U.S. Circuit Judge Laurence H. Silberman -- remain opposed to filling seats they have long regarded as unnecessary. The proper size of the court should be determined before Mr. Bush sends any additional nominees. Not only has the court's caseload continued to drop, but its backlog has been significantly reduced, and it has been functioning without apparent ill effects with only eight judges. Moreover, Judge Silberman is far from the only judge on the court who believes 10 slots to be enough.

A mechanism exists that can offer relatively apolitical guidance on the appropriate size for the court. The Judicial Conference, the administrative arm of the judiciary, has not studied how many judges the D.C. Circuit needs, though it has a committee that studies just such questions. The White House or the Judiciary Committee ought to solicit its input, and the conference ought to conduct some empirical examination of whether judgeships should go unfilled for now or be eliminated altogether. New nominations to the court should await a more comprehensive understanding of its needs.

Friday, December 20, 2002

KEY POINTS

ú The UN Security Council unanimously passed Resolution 1441 requiring Iraq to disarm itself of its weapons of mass destruction and disclose all of its nuclear, chemical, biological and missile programs.

ú The Iraqi declaration fails to meet these requirements. Our experts have found it to be anything but currently accurate, full or complete.

ú The pattern of systematic holes and gaps in Iraq's declaration is not the result of accidents or editing oversights or technical mistakes. They are material omissions that constitute another material breach.

ú On the basis of the evidence before us, our path for the coming weeks is clear:

- o We will continue to audit and examine the Iraqi declaration to understand the full extent of Iraq's failure to meet its disclosure obligations.
  - o Inspectors must be allowed to conduct interviews with scientists and other witnesses outside of Iraq where they can speak freely.
  - o Inspection efforts inside Iraq must be intensified.
- ú The burden remains on Iraq to cooperate fully and prove to the international community whether it does or does not have weapons of mass destruction. We are convinced they do until they prove to us otherwise.
- ú We will continue to consult with our friends, with our allies and with all members of the Security Council on how to compel compliance by Iraq with the will of the international community.

Key Quotes on Iraq,s Declaration to the United Nations

&We are disappointed, but we are not deceived(.We have seen this game again and again; an attempt to sow confusion to buy time, hoping the world will lose interest.8
Secretary of State Colin Powell, in press conference, 12/19/02

&There were a lot of open questions at the end of 1998(these have not been answered by evidence in the new declaration(.[O]ne cannot have confidence that there do not remain weapons of mass destruction.8
UN Chief Weapons Inspector Hans Blix, in press conference, 12/19/02

&This will fool nobody. If Saddam persists in this obvious falsehood, it will become clear that he has rejected the pathway to peace laid down.8
British Foreign Secretary Straw, 12/19/02

In Case You Missed It(

According to the UN High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), Iraqis fleeing religious and political repression have replaced Afghans as the largest single group requesting asylum in industrialized countries.

Iraqis accounted for 36,282 applications filed in Western countries, followed by people from the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (24,330).
