COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

WASHINGTON, DC 20510-6275

November 20, 2024

The Honorable Christopher A. Wray
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
935 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Director Wray:

We request that you provide to the Senate Committee on the Judiciary the complete evidentiary file, including all FD-302 forms memorializing interviews, in the closed investigation of former Congressman Matt Gaetz's alleged sex trafficking of minors. As you are aware, President-elect Trump has announced his intent to nominate Mr. Gaetz to be Attorney General. The Senate has a constitutional duty to provide advice and consent on presidential nominees, and it is crucial that we review all the information necessary to fulfill this duty as we consider Mr. Gaetz's nomination.

The grave public allegations against Mr. Gaetz speak directly to his fitness to serve as the chief law enforcement officer for the federal government. The unanswered questions regarding Mr. Gaetz's alleged conduct are particularly significant given that his associate, Joel Greenberg, pleaded guilty to the sex trafficking charge for which Mr. Gaetz was also investigated.<sup>1</sup>

There is substantial precedent for providing such materials to Congress. In fact, during a February 6, 2002 House Committee on Government Reform hearing into impropriety within the confidential informant program at the FBI Boston Regional Office, Dan Bryant, the then-Department of Justice's Assistant Attorney General for Legislative Affairs, acknowledged dozens of prior instances of deliberative documents relating to open and closed investigations being shared with Congress.<sup>2</sup> Since then, the FBI has continued to produce materials concerning both open and closed investigations—such as testimony, memos, communications, and FD-302s—to both chambers of Congress, including:

- More than 2,000 pages of FBI interview summaries to House committees pertaining to the investigation into allegations of improper fundraising by the Clinton/Gore campaign;<sup>3</sup>
- More than 880,000 pages of documents to House committees pertaining to the investigation and decision not to charge Hillary Clinton for her use of a private email server, notwithstanding at least two concurrent federal investigations,<sup>4</sup> including FD-302s for the July 2, 2016 interview of Hillary Clinton and other interviews conducted during the Midyear Exam investigation;<sup>5</sup>
- More than 2,000 pages of unclassified and classified documents relating to the Crossfire Hurricane investigation to the Senate Judiciary Committee and more than 4,000 pages of documents to the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee;<sup>6</sup>
- More than 3,000 pages of unclassified and classified documents to House committees relating to Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act applications involving individuals associated with President Trump’s 2016 presidential campaign or administration;<sup>7</sup>
- Grand jury material to the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce pertaining to an investigation into allegations that the City of Jacksonville had been overcharged in its petroleum purchases during the Arab Oil Embargo;<sup>8</sup>
- Testimony, memos, and evidence to House committees pertaining to allegations that certain oil corporations had engaged in fraudulent fuel pricing and that federal authorities neglected to adequately investigate the matter;<sup>9</sup>
- Interviews, internal reports, and underlying materials to the Senate Judiciary Committee pertaining to the Ruby Ridge matter, notwithstanding an ongoing federal investigation;<sup>10</sup> and
