 15 My question is a little more direct, and 16 it's innocent. That is: As you sit here today, are 17 you confident that you've located everything?
 18 A. I'm confident that we've made every effort
 19 to do so.
 20 Q. I understand you've made efforts. Are you
 21 confident that those efforts have been successful?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. And what's the basis of that confidence
 24 given the fact that tranche one didn't work, tranche
 25 two wasn't the end of it, tranche three wasn't the end

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 of it?
 2 MR. KLAPPER: Objection, argumentative.
 3 You can answer.
 4 THE WITNESS: Again, go back to my earlier
 5 answer, which is: We have made various efforts,
 6 strenuous efforts, to locate the universe of
 7 tapes, and I believe we've done so.
 8 BY MR. BYMAN:
 9 Q. Did anyone ever task you with finding the 10 most expeditious way of finding out what the content of 11 the tapes that you located was?
 12 A. Could you restate the question?
 13 Q. Sure. My understanding is your role in this
 14 was to locate tapes that may contain e-mail; is that a
 15 fair characterization?
 16 A. No, that's not a fair characterization.
 17 Q. What's unfair about that?
 18 A. I believe that our responsibility was for 19 the tapes that Morgan Stanley had from previous 20 backups, that we would manage the storage and the 21 production of those tapes to various parts of the 22 business.
 23 Q. So you were tasked with producing backups
 24 that contained e-mail; is that right?
 25 A. Among other things, yes.

031504

1 Q. But you were not tasked with actually
 2 searching those e-mails for content?
 3 A. That's correct.
 4 Q. Do you know who was tasked with that
 5 responsibility?
 6 A. Could you be more specific about the 7 searching, like the specific function you're looking 8 for?
 9 Q. Sure. I mean, what you delivered was data
 10 which contained e-mails; is that right?
 11 A. What we provided was DLT tapes that
 12 contained backups of data from Morgan Stanley systems.
 13 Some of those contained e-mail.
 14 Q. And some of those e-mails might have related 15 to the college basketball betting pool or they might 16 have related to CPH versus Morgan Stanley, right?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. Some of them would have been totally 19 irrelevant to this litigation; some of them might have 20 been relevant?
 21 A. Sure.
 22 Q. Someone would have to perform some sort of 23 search to determine which was which, right?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. And you were not that someone?

1 A. Well, since we, Morgan Stanley, created an
 2 e-mail archive and had it inhouse and then went to the 3 further length of getting information that was prior to 4 its existence, prior to 2003, and getting that
 5 information uploaded into said e-mail archive system,
 6 I'd say, no, I'm unaware of any vendor that was capable
 7 of this, which is my understanding of why the firm
 8 decided in the early 2000s to go ahead and create such
 9 a system at considerable expense.
 10 Q. I understand that nobody had the ability to 11 search the entire Morgan Stanley archive without having 12 access to the entire Morgan Stanley archive. My 13 question is a little more specific.
 14 Let's take just the last tranche, for 15 example, the 169 DLT tapes. It is possible, is it not,
 16 to segregate e-mails from those tapes, put those
 17 e-mails on a searchable database apart from the Morgan
 18 Stanley archive system and search them for key word
 19 searches, is it not?
 20 A. That's possible.
 21 Q. And an outside vendor could do that, right?
 22 A. It's possible.
 23 Q. Does Morgan Stanley have the inhouse
 24 capability of doing that?
 25 A. I would say that other than the archive, the

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

45

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

47

1 A. No.
 2 Q. Do you know who that someone was?
 3 A. Can you be specific about the time frame?
 4 Q. At any time.
 5 A. The players have changed over time.
 6 Q. I'm interested in the evolution.
 7 A. It would help me to know when you want to 8 start.
 9 Q. Start with the first time when you were
 10 tasked with anything having to do with the e-mail
 11 archiving system anytime after this lawsuit, which I
 12 believe was sometime in 2003.
 13 A. So my general understanding of the search
 14 process was that a combination of Arthur Reil's group
 15 and IT security were responsible for carrying out
 16 searches in the e-mail archive to look for discoverable
 17 documents in such a case as this.
 18 Q. You never had any of that responsibility?
 19 A. That's correct.
 20 Q. If somebody had asked you to do it, was it
 21 something that you had the ability to do?
 22 A. No. Neither myself nor my teams have any
 23 access to these systems.
 24 Q. Would you have had the ability to do it
 25 through the use of an outside vendor?

1 comprehensive archive that we created, I would say that
 2 we do not have the ability to do that.
 3 Q. Is that something you could create?
 4 A. In the past, previous to our experience with
 5 and our relationship with NDCI, National Data
 6 Conversion Institute, we did attempt to do some ad hoc
 7 restores. And I believe that -- I'm not sure who was 8 doing the searching capability at that time, but I can
 9 tell you that our efforts to quickly and accurately
 10 restore data, even in small amounts of tapes, seemingly 11 small numbers of requests, they were not successful.
 12 And, in fact, when we took those same set of tapes, we
 13 went to an external vendor. They were much more
 14 successful after they had tried.
 15 Q. The outside vendor was much more successful?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. Do you have any knowledge one way or the 18 other whether sending -- and again, let's talk about 19 the fourth tranche, the 169 tapes. If you were to send 20 that quantity of information to an outside vendor to 21 restore and put into some sort of searchable database,
 22 would that take more or less time than it does to
 23 restore the tapes, load them into the Morgan Stanley
 24 archive and then search them?
 25 A. So -- that information is outside of my area

031505

46

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 of expertise and I couldn't answer.
 2 Q. So you don't know one way or the other?
 3 A. No.
 4 Q. Mr. Saunders, in front of us is a stack of 5 documents bearing production numbers 112286 through
 6 113899. And I'll represent to you, sir, that with the
 7 exception of what I just marked as Exhibit 427 and a
 8 series of documents that we marked as Exhibits 420
 9 through 424 --
 10 MR. KLAPPER: Could you repeat that Bates
 11 range?
 12 MR. BYMAN: 112286, 113899.
 13 BY MR. BYMAN:
 14 Q. And I'm sorry, we've now lost the train of 15 my question, so I'm going to start over.
 16 The stack of documents that I've just
 17 identified by Bates range, with the exception of what
 18 we marked as Exhibits 420 through 424 and 427,
 19 constitute the universe of materials that were provided
 20 to us pursuant to the court's order of February 3rd,
 21 which require that Morgan Stanley give us all documents
 22 that might be used or related to the testimony that 23 they expect to give at the hearing scheduled for next 24 Monday.
 25 I'd like you to just look at the physical

49

1 stack, sir, and tell me whether or not any of these
 2 documents are documents that you provided to counsel so
 3 that they could be provided to us.
 4 And while you do that, I suggest that the
 5 rest of us take a little short break.
 6 (A recess was taken.)
 7 BY MR. BYMAN:
 8 Q. Mr. Saunders, I see you've now taken about 9 15 minutes to go through this entire stack. Were any 10 of these materials materials that you supplied to 11 counsel so they could be supplied to us?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. Were any of these materials documents that 14 you have seen before today?
 15 A. A few of them.
 16 Q. Which ones?
 17 A. I saw a document in there which had to do
 18 with a discussion of the finances around what NDCI was 19 charging us, a renegotiation. It was an e-mail, Diane
 20 Kennelly, myself, Wray.
 21 Another document in there which was a kind
 22 of a project plan with a description of a list of 23 actions to take and how much time it would take. And 24 that was in Excel format with kind of variation of 25 colors that Glenn put together for another effort.

50

1 And the rest of it I'm generally aware of,
 2 which is communications between NDCI, my staff and
 3 many, many, many pages of Excel spreadsheets with
 4 respect to tapes and states of tapes, e-mails coming
 5 off of tape, duplicated and deduplicated -- or rather
 6 unique and nonunique.
 7 Q. When you say you're generally familiar, you
 8 mean you've seen things like this as opposed to these
 9 particular documents?
 10 A. That's right.
 11 Q. Do you know if you've seen any of these
 12 particular documents?
 13 A. I don't recall.
 14 Q. And I really don't want to burden the record
 15 with thick documents. So I want to just show you
 16 something. If we need to actually mark it, we will.
 17 Bates ranges 0012353 through 112493. This is 18 apparently a 141-page document that has a long list of 19 things on it. Would this be representative of the type
 20 of things you saw that simply detailed a quantity of 21 tapes by numeric description and dates as to when it
 22 was imported and restored?
 23 A. To be quite honest, I'm not familiar with 24 this document. I'm also not -- I mean, I'm familiar
 25 with lists of tapes, but in terms of the information in

1 the third and fourth columns, I couldn't really tell
 2 you what it's about. And there's really very little
 3 context around this document.
 4 MR. KLAPPER: Let me know, are you going to 5 be marking that as an exhibit or just
 6 referencing the Bates range?
 7 MR. BYMAN: I think just referencing the
 8 Bates range is sufficient. Unless you have
 9 stock in a paper company.
 10 MR. KLAPPER: Not yet.
 11 BY MR. BYMAN:
 12 Q. Let me, again, just reference by Bates range
 13 a document with production numbers 0112672 through 14 2796.
 15 This document -- and it was produced to us
 16 clipped in this way -- but it includes some e-mails.
 17 It includes lists of what appear to be tapes by 18 numbers. It also has some invoices towards the very 19 end of it. Is this one of the documents you would have 20 generally reviewed?
 21 A. Well, so, to be clear, your question is:
 22 Did I generally review these documents in the past,
 23 yes?
 24 Q. Yes.
 25 A. The answer is no, I would not have reviewed

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

031506

1 documents like this in the past. My earlier testimony
2 was some of my work with counsel over the past few
3 months I've seen documents like these, but it was not
4 my practice to review communication between NDCI and my
5 staff or to check into the details of the financing and 6 the funding -- or rather the financing, paying of 7 bills, as you indicated at end of this document.

8 Q. So I may have misunderstood you in your
9 earlier question. When you said that you have seen
10 documents like this before, you mean in the last couple 11 of months with counsel as opposed to at the time they 12 were generated?

13 A. So to be specific, I have seen documents,
14 Excel spreadsheets, that contain tapes with various 15 information about those tapes. The documents that are 16 before me, such as e-mails or invoices or discussions
17 between various parties and NDCI where I am not copied,
18 I have not been reviewing them, nor would I have seen
19 them.

20 So of this I would say somewhere around 10
21 inch pile of paper, I would say I'm familiar with less
22 than 1 percent of the information there. You know,
23 specifically personally having reviewed it before.

24 Q. And the 1 percent that you have reviewed
25 before would have been either e-mails addressed to you

1 something about the contents of a particular container
2 by looking at the number?

3 A. I know that there is a nomenclature. I'm
4 not aware of how it works. To answer your question, I
5 would guess that the person who knows the code would 6 know how to interpret this.

7 Q. Do you know who that person would be?

8 A. I would guess the back up and restore team.

9 Q. Somebody that reports to you?

10 A. A team that's under my -- in my area, yes.

11 Q. Would Mr. Seickel be one of those people who 12 might know?

13 A. He might know.

14 Q. Returning to the four tranches that we've
15 identified. Did any of those tranches include
16 information on a storage medium other than magnetic
17 tape?

18 A. Could you be more -- I guess I don't
19 understand the question.

20 Q. Are DLT magnetic tapes?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. They're not optical tapes?

23 A. No.

24 Q. And are they read by a particular reader?

25 Is there a name of a device that's used to read those

1 or invoices from NDCI?

2 A. So I was not -- I have not been reviewing
3 the NDCI invoices, so I've not seen those. I think I
4 mentioned earlier two documents that I did see in the 5 pack that I had seen.

6 Q. All right. Let me return your attention to
7 Exhibit 427.

8 Do you have any understanding of what
9 Mr. Pamula was referring to by containers? And there
10 are four numbers under the heading these containers are 11 in.

12 A. My guess, not having spoken to John about 13 this document, is that he's talking about containers of
14 tapes.

15 Q. And by container, are we talking about a box
16 that has tapes in it?

17 A. I believe so, yes, a box of tapes.

18 Q. Is there any standard nomenclature for a
19 container, that it contains X number of tapes?

20 A. My general knowledge is that a box of tapes
21 could contain up to about 60 tapes, but does not have 22 to contain 60 tapes.

23 Q. Is there any protocol you're aware of for 24 the numbers system for containers? In other words,
25 would somebody who had the code be able to tell

1 tapes?

2 A. Yes. And actually, in the tranches there
3 are a couple of different types of magnetic media of
4 tapes. And for each of those tape types, there is a
5 type of -- a physical device that would read that tape.

6 Q. And that's what I'm driving at. For all of 7 the tranches I'd like to know what the universe is of 8 the types of media and the types of hardware you would 9 need to read them.

10 A. Okay.

11 Q. Can you tell me that?

12 A. Do you want to walk me through the tranches?

13 Q. Tranche one, the 35,000 tapes that were 14 originally assembled as the universe.

15 A. My understanding is those are DLT tapes, and 16 they are read with a DLT drive. We use storage tech
17 jukeboxes, and a juke -- jukeboxes range from a single 18 tape drive, which could read a single tape all the way,
19 up to essentially a refrigerator-sized jukebox, which 20 could contain 10 to 20 drives, a robotic arm, and an
21 ability to store and manipulate hundreds of tapes,
22 upwards of 700, 800 tapes in a single jukebox.

23 Another word that you'll hear me use is
24 silo. So jukebox and silo is interchangeable.

25 Q. Silo means it stacks the tapes, retrieves

031507

1 them, and puts them into the player?
 2 A. That sounds right.
 3 Q. Are the players for these kinds of DLT tapes
 4 standard hardware that people can get on the market?
 5 They're not proprietary to Morgan Stanley or your 6 vendor?
 7 A. No, DLT is a standard. DLT tapes and DLT
 8 drives are industry standard.
 9 Q. Let's move to the second tranche, the 1423
 10 DLT tapes that were found in the Brooklyn security
 11 area. Are those the same -- are they read by the same
 12 kind of hardware?
 13 A. I believe they're also DLT tapes.
 14 Q. And read by the same hardware?
 15 A. I believe so.
 16 Q. The third tranche is the 700 or so
 17 8-millimeter tapes. Is that a different type of 18 magnetic storage?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. And you physically described a DLT tape as 21 being about two-thirds the size of a VHS cassette. Can 22 you physically describe an 8-millimeter tape?
 23 A. I believe, and, again, this is general
 24 knowledge, that an 8-millimeter tape is roughly the 25 size of an old school audio tape.

57

1 Q. Audio cassette?
 2 A. Audio cassette.
 3 Q. The kind that play in people's cars?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. What kind of reader is required to read an
 6 8-millimeter tape?
 7 A. 8-millimeter tape drive.
 8 Q. Is that also standard hardware that's 9 available?
 10 A. I would say it used to be standard hardware.
 11 It's pretty much been out of spec for a number of years
 12 now, over five years. I would say it's not currently 13 industry wide available. I would guess it was fairly
 14 difficult to get now.
 15 Q. It would be if you didn't already have one?
 16 A. That's correct.
 17 Q. But if you already had one, it would work as 18 long as it was functioning?
 19 A. To be honest, in certain cases -- and part 20 of my responsibilities is for hardware maintenance, we 21 maintain the storage and the peripherals -- I would not
 22 be surprised if 8-millimeter tapes are no longer
 23 serviced and that it was very expensive and very few
 24 vendors would provide that.
 25 Q. NDCI has that kind of readers?

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

58

1 A. Yes. I would say forensic data firms would
 2 obviously specialize in not just current, but Legacy
 3 media types and their support and infrastructure. My
 4 guess is that's their core business.
 5 Q. Any vendor that holds itself out as a
 6 restoration service is likely to get their hands on
 7 that kind of equipment if they don't already have it?
 8 A. I would guess that to be true.
 9 Q. The fourth tranche was 169 DLT tapes found
 10 in the last few months. Are those the same kind of DLT
 11 tapes, readable in the same kind of hardware as we've 12 described for tranches one and two?
 13 A. To my knowledge they are the same as 14 described in tranche one and two, yes.
 15 Q. Is there any storage medium for any of the 16 tranches other than DLT and 8-millimeter?
 17 A. No.
 18 Q. In terms of your back up storage system, you
 19 mentioned the Legato system -- and I probably lost some 20 of the other words to describe it -- but is there any 21 other system that's used by Morgan Stanley for the back
 22 up of its e-mail archives?
 23 A. Can you please be more specific about the 24 time frame, because obviously some products come into
 25 use and are decommissioned and then are no longer used.

59

1 Q. As to the universe now that comprises the
 2 e-mail archive of Morgan Stanley, was that derived
 3 solely from Legato or from some other system?
 4 A. So to be specific -- and I apologize,
 5 because I'm going to have to be very clear here -- are
 6 you asking about what is inside -- what was the origin
 7 of the information inside the archive?
 8 Q. Yes.
 9 A. So my knowledge of the information that's
 10 inside the archive is as of January 1st, 2003, e-mails
 11 that were sent within the firm and to and from 12 externally from the firm. So new mails going forward.
 13 And then we entered into an effort in 2003
 14 and through 2004 to take the universe of tapes prior to 15 that time frame and take that information, restore it,
 16 deduplicate it and then enter that into the archive.
 17 So to my knowledge those are the two types
 18 of information that are in the archive.
 19 Q. And does that relate to any particular type
 20 of back up system?
 21 A. So the tapes, the pre-2003 tapes are Legato
 22 based. And Legato is -- Legato is a company. The 23 software product, the enterprise back up software
 24 product that we used was called LegatoNetworker, one
 25 word. And it's a piece of software that runs on

031508

1 servers and also on clients that you would use to
2 manage backups for many, you know -- for an enterprise
3 scale type of infrastructure of an enterprise scale
4 UNIX plant.

5 Q. With respect to the e-mail archive itself,
6 what is the total amount of data that's currently on
7 it?

8 A. I am not aware of that information.

9 Q. Is it correct that approximately 14
10 terabytes of data were restored for pre-2003 e-mails?

11 A. Again, I couldn't speculate as to that 12 information. I would direct you to Allison Gorman for 13 that type of information.

14 Q. Let me just ask you to look at Exhibit 425.
15 And on each of these pages there seems to be a format
16 that it talks about under restore status. E-mails
17 restored. Total size of e-mails restored. And then it 18 goes on.

19 And I'm looking at the last page of it,
20 which I presume would be as current as we get, at least 21 in this document of September 9, 2004. Does that 22 indicate that restored e-mails numbered approximately 23 320 million and the total size of the restoration was 24 approximately 14 gigabytes, 14 terabytes?

25 A. According to this document. But, again, I

1 stated I don't have a general knowledge of this.

2 Q. With respect to the data that was in tranche
3 one, the 35,000 tapes, did those tapes contain any
4 information other than stored e-mails?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. What other information did they contain?

7 A. I do not have a specific knowledge of what
8 those tapes contained.

9 Q. Do you have any general knowledge?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What is your knowledge?

12 A. My general knowledge is that the universe of 13 the Legato tapes, the pre-2003 tapes, were UNIX server
14 backups from the period of the 2000 time frame forward
15 to the end of 2002.

16 Q. And what were they backing up?

17 A. They were backing up UNIX servers in North
18 America. So there were e-mail servers. There were 19 Sybase, so database backups. There were trade
20 histories. There were production -- production market
21 data server information. Information of that type.

22 Q. To put this in English that a juror might 23 understand, does that mean it would include internal 24 spreadsheets analyzing individual companies that were
25 being used in Morgan Stanley's day-to-day work?

1 A. So the UNIX infrastructure contains -- does
2 have certain file servers within it. And certain
3 trading business units, fixed income and equities
4 specifically, those users would have both a UNIX home
5 directory where they could store files. They also had
6 a Windows based directory where they could also store
7 their files.

8 From my general knowledge, those traders
9 were basically not of a mind to be able to move
10 documents between a Windows and a UNIX work station, so
11 they would be filing their Excel, Word type documents
12 in their Windows file server space, but they would not
13 go anywhere near their UNIX file server space.

14 Q. Was there a back up for individual users
15 Windows' files?

16 A. As long as those files were stored on the 17 network drive -- and network drive and their home
18 directory is synonymous -- they were Windows based 19 backups. And obviously Windows and UNIX are two 20 separate. So there were back ups.

21 Q. Were any of those Windows backups contained
22 on the 35,000 tapes in tranche one?

23 A. My understanding is no.

24 Q. Can you give me an example of what types of 25 files other than e-mail files would actually be

1 contained on the 35,000 tapes?

2 A. So specifically a database, a Sybase
3 database, in order to back that up, the contents, the 4 row by row contents of that database would be dumped
5 into a text file, that text file would be written to a
6 system on the UNIX server, often it would be the same
7 Sybase server, and the LegatoNetworker back up server
8 would back up to that text file. And that would be the 9 Sybase information.

10 I also mentioned a couple of other data
11 types, market data logs, system log, each of these 12 servers has an operating system. And there would be 13 logs of the operation of that system. They would be 14 backed up.

15 I can go further if necessary.

16 Q. If an individual business person were doing
17 spreadsheets that were too complex or too voluminous to 18 be used with Excel, would those be backed up on the 19 UNIX type server?

20 A. To my knowledge we do not have any
21 UNIX-based spreadsheet capabilities. And, again, I'm 22 outside of my space here, because I'm more
23 infrastructure and not really desktop or business
24 application aligned.

25 But to my knowledge, no, the user base

031509

1 information was in large part stored in the Windows
 2 user drives.
 3 Q. Did anyone ever ask you or your team to do
 4 any restoration to enable a searchable format for
 5 information other than e-mails?
 6 A. Could you rephrase the question?
 7 Q. I'm sorry. That was awkward.
 8 The 35,000 tapes were specifically -- and I
 9 don't know if manipulated is a fair word, but I don't
 10 mean it pejoratively.
 11 A. Say it again.
 12 Q. Manipulated. They were manipulated or 13 migrated or something was done to them in order to put 14 it in a searchable database?
 15 A. Restored.
 16 Q. Did anyone ever ask you to restore any other
 17 types of files in a similar fashion other than e-mail
 18 files?
 19 A. My team was not asked to perform any 20 restores other than e-mail restores off of the Legato
 21 tapes.
 22 Q. To your knowledge was anyone else's team
 23 asked to do that?
 24 A. I have a general awareness of when in 25 matters like these, where relevant discoverable

65

1 information is requested that requests go to
 2 appropriate business parties to provide relevant
 3 documents in a timely fashion to help these matters
 4 move forward.
 5 Q. Do you know if that was done with these
 6 35,000 tapes?
 7 A. Could you be more specific?
 8 Q. That for anything other than e-mails, was 9 somebody asked to restore them into a searchable
 10 format?
 11 A. I am not aware of anyone asking for that.
 12 Q. Do you have any knowledge with respect to 13 what types of e-mail systems were used by Morgan
 14 Stanley from 1997 through the year 2000?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. What systems were used?
 17 A. My recollection is that in the late '90s,
 18 specifically in the pre-'98 time frame, that the 19 majority of the firm's e-mail was located on mainframe
 20 based systems, and there was the APL system and the EMC
 21 system.
 22 There was also a smattering of users that
 23 were using different types of mail servers. I believe
 24 that investment banking and equity research were using 25 CC Mail, which was a Lotus product.

66

1 There were also some pilots for some newer
 2 e-mail products, which then led to an effort to get the
 3 firm to consolidate. I believe there were seven e-mail
 4 platforms at that time that were consolidated down to
 5 two in the '99, 2000 time frame.
 6 Q. What were the seven and the two?
 7 A. I hope I can come up with them.
 8 So APL, EMC. Those were mainframe based.
 9 Z Mail, which is a UNIX based product. And
 10 I believe that investment management or Morgan Stanley
 11 asset management was on Z Mail.
 12 CC Mail, which was investment management,
 13 banking and equity research.
 14 Pop Mail. So Pop Mail users, there were 15 many different clients, so what we know of now as 16 Netscape Mail, that was one back in the day.
 17 That's five.
 18 Simeon, which was iMap Mail, and that was --
 19 Simeon was a client, but iMap Mail was the back end.
 20 Q. Bloomberg?
 21 A. Bloomberg was -- I have no knowledge of 22 Bloomberg Mail back at that time frame. But that's 23 also not an inhouse Morgan Stanley product. That's a
 24 third-party product. Until recently it was their own
 25 proprietary box.

1 I'll let my behind brain work on the
 2 seventh. But I can't think of it right now.
 3 Q. What were the two that you came down to?
 4 A. So eventually between business management
 5 and IT management, it was decided that the firm would
 6 consolidate to two platforms; that was iMap back end,
 7 which was a UNIX-based platform with Netscape Navigator
 8 as the client. And then Lotus Notes. Those were the 9 two platforms.
 10 Q. And did that remain constant through today,
 11 or has there been some other evolution?
 12 A. Yes, there's been another evolution in the 13 early 2000, as now in the mid 2000s, that an effort was 14 taken to move the firm to Microsoft Exchange.
 15 Q. Is that finished?
 16 A. That has happened in large part. I believe
 17 we're 98 percent complete as a firm at this point.
 18 MR. KLAPPER: Just a sense time-wise? Do
 19 you think you've got a half hour, two hours?
 20 Are we going to be taking a lunch break?
 21 MR. BYMAN: I'm sure we'll be done before
 22 lunch.
 23 (A discussion was held off the record.)
 24 BY MR. BYMAN:
 25 Q. With respect to the first tranche of tapes,

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

031510

1 the 35,000 universe, what e-mail services or platforms
2 were included in that database?

3 A. Well, to be specific, it's not a database.
4 It was individual tapes.

5 Q. I'm sorry. That set of data?

6 A. Right. That set of data would contain -- so
7 the time frame we're talking about here is the 2000
8 through 2002 time frame. So it would contain
9 UNIX-based data, which would mean you would have iMap
10 servers, so you would have the Netscape iMap mail. And 11 Lotus Notes was also UNIX based. So you would have 12 that type of e-mail.

13 And it would not -- it would obviously not 14 contain any Microsoft Exchange e-mail, because that was 15 Windows based. And I believe there were pilots going 16 on, but there wouldn't be any exchange information in 17 there, to my knowledge.

18 Q. If somebody wanted to find backup tapes for 19 any Windows-based e-mail or other Windows-based 20 documents, where would they go look?

21 A. If you could be more specific with the 22 question, because I think you asked about both tapes
23 and information. Which is it?

24 Q. It's information I really care about.

25 A. So Windows-based documents?

1 Q. Yes.

2 A. Within Morgan Stanley we have file servers,
3 you know, enterprise scale file servers, that contain
4 both group shares of information, where a team would
5 share documents, a document repository, and also be
6 individual user directories, as I indicated previously.

7 The firm's practice is to keep those
8 documents in perpetuity. So if a user placed a file in 9 their home directory and they took no action upon that 10 file, the system itself would also take no action, and 11 that document would sit there in perpetuity.

12 We do have an ability to search through that
13 information, you know, kind of crawling the data from a
14 name perspective. So that information is available
15 online.

16 Q. Do you know if those -- and do we call this 17 a disk?

18 A. Sure. It's disk. It's a file server which 19 has got a very large disk with multiple files on it.

20 Q. Do you know if those disks were searched in 21 this litigation?

22 A. I do not know if they specifically were or
23 not.

24 Q. That would have been outside of your area?

25 A. Right. Legal would work with IT security to

1 perform such a search, or as I previously testified,
2 legal would ask the relevant business units, please
3 search your files for relevant discoverable
4 information.

5 Q. With respect to the second tranche, the 1423
6 tapes, what e-mail platforms were contained in that set
7 of data?

8 A. So -- I know that there's been a great deal
9 of effort over the last several months to get the 10 information extracted from those tapes. I am not
11 specifically aware at this time of what was on there,
12 whether that was UNIX data or not UNIX data.

13 Q. What about the 8-millimeter tapes, the third
14 tranche?

15 A. The 8-millimeter tapes, I do understand that 16 there was e-mail on a subset of those tapes, and that 17 has been extracted.

18 Q. Do you know what e-mail platforms were 19 extracted?

20 A. I do not know.

21 Q. With respect to the fourth tranche, the 169
22 DLT tapes, do you know what e-mail platforms were on 23 that data?

24 A. I do not specifically know.

25 Q. Is there any significance to the fact that

1 some of this data is on 8-millimeter tape versus DLT
2 tape?

3 A. The significance is that the 8-millimeter
4 tapes are significantly older than the DLT tapes.

5 Q. So it would be older data?

6 A. Logically, yes.

7 Q. Do you know when 8-millimeter tape back up
8 was phased out?

9 A. My general knowledge is somewhere in the '98
10 or '99 time frame is when 8-millimeter was phased out.

11 Q. Do you know of any locations that continued
12 to use 8-millimeter tape for back up after 1998?

13 A. Could you be more specific? Within Morgan
14 Stanley? Outside Morgan Stanley?

15 Q. Within Morgan Stanley.

16 A. I'm not aware of Morgan Stanley continuing
17 to use 8-millimeter tape in general after the '99 time
18 frame.

19 Q. Do you know what quantity of material was 20 extracted from the 8-millimeter tapes in terms of data?

21 A. I do not know.

22 Q. Do you know what quantity of data was 23 extracted from any of the tranches, two, three or four?

24 A. No, I do not.

25 Q. Even in a ballpark range? Are we talking

031511

1 about a gigabyte? 10 gigabytes? 100 gigabytes?
 2 A. I'm really not generally aware of how much
 3 was extracted. I'm not even generally aware of how
 4 much was extracted.
 5 Q. Does the fact that the 8-millimeters tapes
 6 were discovered suggest that somehow they did not get 7 reused or destroyed after one year, as had been the 8 case for other backups prior to the 2003 project?
 9 A. Would you mind restating the question?
 10 Q. Yes. I'm having trouble understanding what
 11 I meant by that, too. So let me start over.
 12 The 8-millimeter tapes by definition, since
 13 they're an old, phased-out format from 1998, probably 14 include old data; is that a fair assumption?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. At least as of the year 2000 it was Morgan
 17 Stanley's practice to recycle backup tapes after one
 18 year; is that correct?
 19 A. That's correct.
 20 Q. Somehow these 8-millimeter tapes did not get
 21 caught up in that general practice, right?
 22 A. That would seem to be the case. Again, I
 23 don't have -- I don't have general knowledge of the 24 practice prior to my stint in this group. And that 25 time frame predates my being in this group.

1 Q. Mr. Saunders, I'm going to make a
 2 representation to you that I don't know to be a fact,
 3 but people that I believe in have told me that some
 4 time in the November time frame of last year
 5 approximately 8,000 pages of e-mails were produced to 6 us in discovery in this case.
 7 Are you aware of a quantity of e-mails that
 8 were identified and produced in the latter part of last
 9 year?
 10 A. Are you asking if I have knowledge of what 11 has been produced by Morgan Stanley for this case?
 12 Q. Yes.
 13 A. Okay. I have no knowledge of that.
 14 Q. Then I take it you have no knowledge as to 15 from which tranche those 8,000 pages would have come?
 16 A. That's correct.
 17 Q. When was the first time that Morgan Stanley
 18 knew that tranche two, the 1423 DLT tapes, contained
 19 e-mail?
 20 A. Could you be clear as to what you mean by
 21 Morgan Stanley?
 22 Q. Well, first of all, let me start with when 23 was the first time you knew.
 24 A. I believe -- per my previous testimony, I
 25 believe I was made generally aware of it in the

73

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

75

1 Q. Do you have any understanding or explanation
 2 for how those 8-millimeter tapes survived until the
 3 present time?
 4 A. I do not.
 5 Q. Was it an accident or did somebody
 6 consciously try to save them?
 7 A. I have no knowledge of that.
 8 Q. And I apologize. You may have told me this
 9 already. But when did Morgan Stanley first discover
 10 that it had these 700 8-millimeter tapes?
 11 A. I believe my testimony is I'm not aware when 12 they were found.
 13 Q. Or by whom?
 14 A. Or by whom.
 15 Q. Or where?
 16 A. Or where.
 17 Q. Who would know the answers to those
 18 questions?
 19 A. I believe Glenn Seickel would be more
 20 knowledgeable about that than I would.
 21 THE WITNESS: Why don't we go ahead and take
 22 a five-minute break.
 23 MR. BYMAN: That would be great.
 24 (A recess was taken.)
 25 BY MR. BYMAN:

1 May/June time frame. I can't speak anymore
 2 specifically than that.
 3 Q. You were generally aware in the May/June
 4 time frame that someone had located unlabeled tapes in
 5 the Brooklyn security room. Did you also know whether 6 or not there was e-mail on those tapes?
 7 A. No, I had no knowledge of what was contained
 8 on those tapes or if anything was contained on those
 9 tapes.
 10 Q. My question is: When was the first time
 11 that you were aware that there was e-mail on those
 12 tapes?
 13 A. My guess would be somewhere in the last two
 14 to three months.
 15 Q. And from what source did you get that
 16 information?
 17 A. I believe that in general I would have
 18 received that knowledge from Glenn Seickel.
 19 MR. BYMAN: I'm going to mark for 20 identification as CPH 428 a document with 21 production numbers -- the first page is cropped
 22 off, and, in fact, it was cropped off in the 23 production that we got, I think.
 24 But the second page is 0112324 through 2330.
 25 (Plaintiff's Exhibit 428 was marked for

1 identification.)

2 MR. KLAPPER: Was this used during
3 yesterday's deposition, or is this a new
4 exhibit?

5 MR. BYMAN: No, this is new.

6 BY MR. BYMAN:

7 Q. This is a document that was in the stack of 8 things that you looked through earlier this morning,
9 Mr. Saunders. So you have seen it, at least a few
10 minutes ago.

11 But take a moment and take a look
12 specifically at it and see if you have any recollection
13 seeing it before this morning.

14 A. Is there a specific page you would like me
15 to refer to?

16 Q. Yes, actually the third page, 0112327, which 17 has the text of an e-mail that I'm interested in.

18 A. Not to quibble, but it appears in mine that
19 that Bates number is page 5.

20 Q. Okay. You're correct. I had my finger on 21 the wrong place. But it's the number that matters.

22 A. Which section of this page specifically?

23 Q. "Hey, Arthur, we looked at found tapes. We 24 were able to restore, and 90 of them have mail."

25 A. Ah. Okay.

77

1 Q. Did anyone ever report to you that on July
2 2nd, 2004 NDCI had reported to Mr. Reil and to others
3 that some of the found tapes, which I'll represent to
4 you are the Brooklyn security tapes, contain mail?

5 A. I have no knowledge of being notified of
6 that.

7 Q. In the e-mail chain in these documents
8 there's another address that we haven't talked about,
9 ECMGR-NA. Do you recognize that address group?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Are you a member of that group?

12 A. I am a member of that group.

13 Q. So you would have received this chain of 14 e-mail at the time?

15 A. Honestly, the document I'm looking at right
16 now, I cannot perceive it as a chain. It looks almost 17 as though -- I can't tell if it's a chain or if it's 18 mails that are end to end or a thread, to be honest. I
19 wouldn't be able to represent that this is, in fact, a
20 real thread. Doesn't look like anything I've seen
21 before as a thread, at least printed out.

22 Q. Does this jog your memory in any way that in 23 July of 2004 you were aware that the found tapes
24 included mail?

25 A. No, this does not give me any sort of -- it

78

1 does not jog my memory whatsoever.

2 Q. There's also a reference to cataloging of 3 the 8-millimeter tapes and that some of the dates on 4 those tapes are June 16, 1998 and June 6th, 1998. Were 5 you ever aware that some of the mail found in the 6 8-millimeter tapes dates back to that period of time?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did Mr. Stewart report to you in July of 9 2004?

10 A. No, he did not.

11 Q. Was he on any of the teams you were a member
12 of in 2004?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What teams was he a member of that you were 15 also a member of?

16 A. Wray's position, he reported to a colleague
17 of mine, Adrien Salageanu, S-A-L-A-G-E-A-N-U, who was 18 the Windows operations manager. So I'm UNIX and he's 19 Windows.

20 Wray continued being the liaison with NDCI
21 and continued working with the restoration projects as 22 a legacy of work he had started in 2002 under my
23 previous boss, Bill Hollister. So his job was twofold;
24 one was project manager working under Adrien Salageanu,
25 and the second was liaising with my team and Glenn

79

1 Seickel with NDCI.

2 Q. So he was part of the e-mail archive restore
3 project?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Have you ever met Bruce Buchanan?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did you ever have any conversations with 8 Mr. Buchanan in the summer of 2004 about what he was 9 finding on the tapes that he was restoring on behalf of 10 NDCI?

11 A. No, I did not.

12 Q. Did Mr. Reil ever report to you -- and I
13 don't mean to use the word report in any formal
14 sense -- did he ever say to you in the summer of 2004
15 that he was aware that the tapes found in the Brooklyn
16 security area contained e-mail?

17 A. No, he did not.

18 Q. Did anyone ever tell you that?

19 A. No.

20 Q. So reading this is the first time that 21 you're aware that someone from Morgan Stanley knew that 22 in July of 2004?

23 A. That would be accurate.

24 Q. Have you ever asked any of the members of 25 your team, Mr. Stewart, or anyone else on the teams

03/15/13

1 that you belonged to, when they first learned that
 2 tranches two, three, or four contained e-mail?
 3 A. I did not.
 4 Q. Do you have any understanding of how much
 5 e-mail was found on tranches two, three, and four?
 6 A. I believe previous to my earlier testimony,
 7 that, no, I have no specific knowledge.
 8 Q. Let me show what you I'm going to mark as 9 Exhibit 429 for identification, bearing production
 10 numbers 0112888 and 889.
 11 (Plaintiff's Exhibit 429 was marked for
 12 identification.)
 13 BY MR. BYMAN:
 14 Q. Again, that's within the stack of the things
 15 you looked at this morning. Other than looking at it
 16 this morning, do you have any recollection of seeing
 17 either of these two pages before?
 18 A. Please give me a moment to take a look at 19 this.
 20 Q. Of course.
 21 A. Okay. I've reviewed the document.
 22 Q. Have you ever seen this before this morning?
 23 A. I have not.
 24 Q. There's a reference to IIM exchange mail
 25 tapes. Does that term mean anything to you?

81

1 A. My general knowledge of the subject is that,
 2 I don't know when, but Arthur was also asked to take
 3 some Legacy mail tapes from the investment management
 4 area of Morgan Stanley and to work with NDCI to
 5 essentially do the same process that we've been doing
 6 for the other institutional securities group Legacy
 7 tapes, to extract the e-mails, deduplicate the e-mails,
 8 put them on SDLTs, send them to Morgan Stanley, put
 9 them on disk, and then upload them into the archive.
 10 My understanding is that my team had very
 11 little to do with this, because it's a completely
 12 different area with Morgan Stanley. In fact, I think 13 in terms of legal entity, investment management is 14 separate from institutional securities group for which
 15 I work and my team's work.
 16 Q. Is IIM an acronym that has to do with 17 institutional investment management?
 18 A. That's correct. Which it's also known as 19 IM. So there's a couple names. IIM is one. IM is 20 another.
 21 So to finish my statement. My team was 22 really, to my knowledge, not involved with this. That
 23 the tapes were shipped from whoever, from the IT group
 24 within IM, and that was shipped to NDCI for the same
 25 process to occur that had been going on with the DLT

82

1 tapes. Arthur responsible for that. And I don't
 2 know anything about the timing, the content, you know,
 3 the directives with respect to prioritization.
 4 Q. If you'll look briefly again at Exhibit 425.
 5 There's a reference in these sets of minutes -- and
 6 don't lose 429, because we're not done with that yet.
 7 There's a reference in pending item number 6
 8 to IMM 2200?
 9 A. Could you be clear about which page?
 10 Q. The very first.
 11 A. The very first, okay.
 12 Q. So that appears to be the IMM tapes that
 13 were within Mr. Reil's purview?
 14 A. This does look like what we have just been 15 speaking about.
 16 Q. I'll represent to you that there's a
 17 continued reference to the IMM tapes in the next set of 18 minutes on the next page. And then they appear to have 19 dropped that from pending items.
 20 A. Is there a question you'd like me to
 21 address?
 22 Q. No, I'm directing you to that. And then I'd 23 like to go back to Exhibit 429.
 24 Do you know why Mr. Stewart would have been
 25 involved with this IMM restoration project if it wasn't

1 part of what your team was doing?
 2 A. So my understanding of Wray's
 3 responsibilities were to record the minutes from those
 4 meetings as a way of keeping people informed generally
 5 about what was going on with the effort. And that
 6 while he was not materially involved with the IM tapes,
 7 that he recorded at the meeting that such an event was
 8 going on, and that it was part of the effort overall.
 9 Q. Are you familiar with the term "EDB files"?
 10 A. I am not.
 11 Q. So you don't know what this reference is on 12 the first page of Exhibit 429 to EDB files?
 13 A. I do not.
 14 Q. On the second page of Exhibit 429, there's 15 an e-mail from Mr. Buchanan to Mr. Stewart dated July 16 16, 2004 referring to the Brooklyn found tapes. And 17 let me, again, represent to you that I believe the 18 Brooklyn found tapes refers to your -- the 1423 tapes
 19 located in Brooklyn.
 20 By the way, have you ever heard of those
 21 1423 tapes, what we've been calling the second tranche,
 22 referred to as Brooklyn found tapes?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. And Mr. Buchanan reports that at least as of 25 that date a total of 2,183,031 total unique messages

031514

1 were found in the Brooklyn found tapes and written to
2 SDLTs.

3 Does that help refresh your recollection
4 about the quantity of e-mail messages that was found?

5 A. It doesn't help refresh my memory. It
6 informs me. I don't believe I've ever been in 7 possession of that knowledge.

8 Q. But you have no knowledge that is contrary
9 to what's expressed here, I take it?

10 A. I have no knowledge about this. You're
11 correct.

12 Q. Were you involved in negotiating with NDCI
13 the charges for the restoration work?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Who was?

16 A. At what period of time?

17 Q. At any period of time.

18 A. I believe that Wray Stewart and Diane
19 Kennelly were involved with negotiating rates with
20 NDCI.

21 Q. Did NDCI propose different rates given
22 different levels of resources that might be applied to 23 the project?

24 A. I have a general knowledge that would lead
25 your statement to be true, that efforts that were more

85

1 intensive that might require 24-by-7 type efforts
2 rather than efforts that could be done 9 to 5 during
3 business hours were different charges. I'm not sure
4 what those charges were or how they were 5 differentiated.

6 Q. In addition to expanding beyond a single
7 shift and going to 24/7 shifts, were there also
8 alternatives proposed by putting more hardware or more
9 platoons of people on the project?

10 A. I'm really not more specifically aware than 11 what I just indicated. I do know there was kind of a
12 standard body of work and a time frame and that there
13 were accelerated time frames, but further than that, I
14 couldn't say.

15 Q. Which did Morgan Stanley go with, the 16 standard or the accelerated?

17 A. I think depending on different efforts we 18 would make choices as to which type of service we would 19 require.

20 Q. Are you aware of any particular service for 21 any of the four tranches in which the accelerated
22 approach was accepted?

23 A. I'm not specifically aware of what level of 24 service we asked for, but I know that in the last 25 several months -- and certainly in the wake of the

86

1 disruption caused when Arthur Reil left, was no longer
2 part of the e-mail archive and kind of head got cut off
3 of the body -- that there were efforts to expedite
4 getting the information off of these tapes and back to 5 Morgan Stanley. But specifically I can't speak to what
6 choices were made and when.

7 Q. Who would know that?

8 A. Counsel would know. I'm not sure if you can
9 ask them questions.

10 Q. I can ask them. They just won't answer.

11 A. Glenn Seickel is someone you could ask;
12 although, I'm not sure what level of detail he would 13 know about how much was asked for and by when.

14 Q. On the February 4th hearing before the court
15 on which you participated by phone, at least according 16 to the transcript, you referred to a third-party
17 vendor, Forensic and Heat Restoration. Who is Forensic 18 and Heat Restoration?

19 A. I've not -- I've reviewed my -- I'm not sure
20 if it was testimony or what the appropriate word is,
21 but I reviewed my statement.

22 Q. You said it to the judge, so it better be
23 accurate.

24 A. I reviewed my statements this morning, but 25 I've not been asked to amend my statements as I did in

87

1 my previous deposition a year ago. That sentence makes
2 very little sense. I believe I was misunderstood over
3 the phone. What I was trying to get at was a forensic
4 and tape investigation over the phone.

5 Q. Was there a firm other than NDCI that you
6 were referring to?

7 A. No.

8 Q. So you were basically just describing --

9 A. I was speaking in general about those types
10 of firms. I know that NDCI is not alone in the 11 universe.

12 Q. So you were simply describing generically
13 the type of vendor you would use. Your specific vendor
14 was and is NDCI?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. What other forensic restoration firms are 17 out there besides NDCI?

18 A. I'm not specifically aware of any others
19 other than a company called Renew, which I believe you
20 guys asked us to work with, or rather that we delivered
21 tapes to this past week.

22 Q. Have you ever done any investigation into
23 what other vendors are out there in case NDCI is too
24 busy to help you or you need to go to a different firm?

25 A. NDCI's performance over the last several

031515

1 years has been timely. They have been excellent
2 partners. And in terms of our relationship with them,
3 it's been satisfactory, very satisfactory. I have not
4 personally gone out and done any investigation into
5 alternative vendors for reasons of not having a need.

6 Q. Let me show you what I'm going to mark as
7 Exhibit 430 for identification.

8 (Plaintiff's Exhibit 430 was marked for
9 identification.)

10 BY MR. BYMAN:

11 Q. Let me represent to you that this is a
12 two-page fax that was addressed to one of my partners,
13 Deirdre Connell, from one of Mr. Klapper's partners,
14 Mr. Clare, on February 8, 2005. And it involved the 15 contract with Renew that the parties were trying to 16 mutually arrive at.

17 Mr. Clare's e-mail suggests a change in 18 paragraph 1-B to the then draft to the agreement,
19 struck out a reference to the 2300 tapes, and then
20 inserted something that talks about Morgan Stanley and 21 Co. believes do not contain e-mail or in some cases
22 contain e-mail that has already been culled onto 23 original tape media.

24 Do you have any understanding as to the 25 meaning of that phrase?

1 A. This is the first time that I'm seeing this
2 document. I wasn't involved in this transaction other
3 than supplying tapes and having them delivered to Renew
4 after our attorneys instructed us that it was time to 5 execute on that.

6 I'm really not sure what this is saying at 7 all, either the original document or the addition by 8 whoever you said made the addition. I couldn't really
9 speculate.

10 Q. The things that you delivered, was there a
11 batch of 120 tapes and another batch of 2300 tapes?
12 And these are approximate numbers.

13 A. Yeah, these numbers are not -- I'm really 14 not sure exactly what they're referring to, to be quite 15 honest. There's really not a lot of context here.

16 What I know as to what we delivered was all
17 of the original tapes, the raw DLT tapes, and the raw
18 8-millimeter tapes. Those were to be delivered. My
19 understanding is that number, I think in total, and I
20 think I did the math afterwards, was 2330 tapes. Those 21 are the original 8-millimeter and DLT tapes.

22 In addition, I believe that your -- the 23 plaintiffs requested not just those, but also the 24 deduplicated and unique -- well, the deduplicated SDLTs
25 that were the product of NDCI.

1 So what we were to provide was the originals
2 and the product of NDCI, which was the SDLTs.

3 Q. Okay. Let me see if I can parse that into 4 pieces.

5 NDCI took the 2330 DLT and 8-millimeter
6 tapes and extracted from those tapes things that they
7 believe to be e-mail content and put them onto
8 approximately 120 SDLT tapes?

9 A. No, that's not my knowledge. I don't know
10 how many SDLTs were the result of the 2330.

11 Q. Putting aside the number, 2330 is the 12 universe that they had to work with from franchises two,
13 three, and four?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. They put them on some number of SDLT tapes?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And that number might be 120, or it might be 18 some other number?

19 A. Sure.

20 Q. And you don't have any other number that you
21 can offer as a better estimate of that number?

22 A. I do not.

23 And the other point I want to make is, when
24 I talked about deduplicated e-mails, NDCI has a
25 database, and part of their core value add of their

1 projects of restoring the tapes prior to January 1st,
2 2003, they have a record of every single tape and every
3 single e-mail by unique ID that has been restored as
4 part of the project in order to make sure that motor
5 Morgan Stanley was not uploading multiple copies, that
6 we have an efficient archive, so those SDLTs will not
7 contain every single e-mail that is on that original
8 universe of the raw 2330.

9 I made that statement to our counsel last
10 week.

11 Q. And when you talk about deduping, you dedup,
12 you know, things that are identical, you take out
13 duplicates that are identical, but you don't take out
14 something that's contained in a lighter e-mail chain,
15 do you?

16 A. That's correct. So if an e-mail contains
17 multiple -- if it's a long thread with multiple replies
18 back and forth, that multiple thread is the unique
19 e-mail. Affirming your statement, you would not go and 20 remove those thread pieces and just retain the last
21 answer. It would contain the full text of the e-mail
22 thread.

23 Q. So if I sent you an e-mail, you replied, I
24 forwarded it to Mr. Klapper, he forwarded it to 25 Mr. Jones, who then forwarded it back to everybody

031516

1 else, that would be six separate e-mails, it wouldn't
 2 be just one?
 3 A. That's correct.
 4 Q. And that would be true even if all of that
 5 forwarding and replying had no new information on it
 6 other than just forwarding it and replying it?
 7 A. That's correct.
 8 Q. So that you would at least get the chain of 9 who had seen the e-mail?
 10 A. That's right.
 11 Q. So we now know that the number of tapes that 12 were in tranches two, three, and four, if we add them
 13 all up, is 2330?
 14 A. According to me and only me.
 15 Q. But you're a pretty good authority on that 16 subject?
 17 A. I would say I'm one of the authorities.
 18 Q. We know that 1423 of those 2330 was tranche
 19 two, right?
 20 A. Say that again.
 21 Q. Tranche two was 1423 DLT tapes?
 22 A. I believe that's correct.
 23 Q. And we know that tranche four was 169 DLT
 24 tapes?
 25 A. That's right.

1 Q. The first page at the bottom.
 2 MR. KLAPPER: You've not used this document
 3 in today's deposition, correct?
 4 MR. BYMAN: That's right.
 5 MR. KLAPPER: Do you happen to have an extra
 6 copy?
 7 MR. BYMAN: I don't think I do, Tony. I'm 8 just asking him to look at the bottom of the 9 first page. There's a reference to "we have 10 experienced restoring brick level backups, and
 11 quite frankly, it is not an easy or reliable
 12 process using standard procedures."
 13 BY MR. BYMAN:
 14 Q. I'm just asking if that helps put into 15 context or refresh your recollection, sir, about the 16 term "brick level"?
 17 A. I'll take a moment to look at this first and 18 second page as you requested.
 19 Q. Sure.
 20 A. Okay. I've reviewed the first page and the 21 top of the second page, so the e-mail from Bruce
 22 Buchanan regarding the brick level back ups to Wray and 23 Glenn.
 24 Q. And does that help you recall any
 25 understanding of the term "brick level"?

93

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

95

1 Q. So if we add those two numbers and subtract
 2 them from 2330, we would get the number of 8-millimeter
 3 tapes?
 4 A. And I would guess it would be reasonably
 5 accurate.
 6 Q. If you'll forgive long addition, I'll do
 7 that. I get 1592 by adding 1423 and 169. Would that
 8 leave 738 for the 8-millimeter tapes?
 9 A. That sounds about right.
 10 Can I also get the word "Yahtzee" on the
 11 record?
 12 Q. Are you familiar with the term "brick level"
 13 as used in the restoration business?
 14 A. I'm sorry?
 15 Q. Brick level?
 16 A. I don't believe so.
 17 Q. Let me show you what we marked yesterday as 18 Exhibit 426. I'm sorry. I don't think I have that 19 handy.
 20 MR. KLAPPER: That's fine.
 21 THE WITNESS: This is a pretty long
 22 document. Would you like me to review it all,
 23 or would you like to direct my attention to a
 24 certain page?
 25 BY MR. BYMAN:

1 A. It does not. I have no knowledge of this
 2 terminology or of this event. This is the first time
 3 I've seen this thread, and it's the first time I've
 4 heard of this particular topic.
 5 Q. Were you aware that Mr. Buchanan and NDCI
 6 were reviewing a total of 3,030 IMM tapes -- I'm
 7 sorry -- IIM tapes?
 8 A. Previous to -- my previous testimony, I was 9 aware that many tapes became a matter of the project
 10 during the summer and that NDCI was going to be working 11 with them at Arthur's direction. I'm not aware of the 12 number of tapes or any of the issues, the technical
 13 issues with respect to that part of the project.
 14 Q. So I take it that you have no knowledge with 15 respect to the 293 SDLT tapes and 500 DLT tapes on 16 which some sort of e-mail appears?
 17 A. If the question is, do I have any knowledge
 18 of the 293 or the 500, the answer is no.
 19 Q. I take it none of those are part of any of 20 the four tranches we've been talking about today?
 21 A. No. Again, and if we want to call this the 22 fifth tranche, this is again the investment management
 23 tapes that Arthur Reil was directed to as part of the 24 effort to restore the information and get it into the 25 archive. My team really played very little role in 031517

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

94

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 this.

2 And it appears that Bruce Buchanan had a

3 conversation with them about the data and about his

4 feelings as to whether or not it was valid, these

5 backups were going to result in valid data.

6 Q. Are you able, as you sit here today, to

7 exclude the possibility that these 793 tapes that

8 contain e-mail have e-mail that is relevant to this

9 litigation?

10 A. Could you restate the question?

11 MR. BYMAN: Could you read it back?

12 (A portion of the record was read by the 13 reporter.)

14 THE WITNESS: The question is: Am I able to 15 exclude the possibility?

16 MR. BYMAN: Yes.

17 MR. KLAPPER: Let me interject an objection.

18 Vague and ambiguous and calls for speculation.

19 You can answer.

20 THE WITNESS: Investment management -- per

21 my previous testimony, investment management and

22 institutional securities are two separate

23 entities. Knowing what I know today and knowing

24 what I knew then, I would say it's very unlikely

25 that this has anything to do with the Coleman

1 matter whatsoever.

2 BY MR. BYMAN:

3 Q. And that's because they're different

4 divisions of Morgan Stanley?

5 A. Absolutely. Different servers, different

6 communication rooms, different procedures, different IT

7 staff.

8 Q. I think you even said at one point that IM

9 might be a different legal entity. Do you know what

10 the entity is?

11 A. Right. So I probably shouldn't speculate.

12 But I know that it is a separate entity other than 13 institutional security. And I know that in my previous

14 testimony they were asking what MS & Co means. I'm not

15 sure. Or either ISG and IM are part of that.

16 Q. Is the investment banking company of Morgan

17 Stanley in institutional securities?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Is Morgan Stanley senior funding within

20 institutional securities or IM or some other area?

21 A. Could you restate the question?

22 Q. Are you familiar with an entity called

23 Morgan Stanley senior funding?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Do you know what division or entity within

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

98

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 the Morgan Stanley family does bond underwriting?

2 A. I believe that's within institutional

3 securities.

4 Q. Do you know what entity within the Morgan

5 Stanley family does capital loans?

6 A. I do not know that answer.

7 MR. BYMAN: Let me have a moment to check

8 with my colleague, but I think we're nearing the 9 end.

10 (A discussion was held off the record.)

11 MR. BYMAN: Actually, I think we're going to 12 say we're done.

14 p.m.)

 18 MR. BYMAN: The record should reflect that 19 this is a deposition taken pursuant to the 20 court's order dated February 3rd, 2005 and 21 the designation by Morgan Stanley and

 25 BY MR. BYMAN:

CERTIFIED COPY

031521

1 Q. Mr. Seickel, would you state your full name
 2 for the record.
 3 A. Glenn Charles Seickel.
 4 Q. How old are you, sir?
 5 A. 44.
 6 Q. What's your educational background?
 7 A. My highest education is college. I've 8 completed, you know, normal education through the 9 public schools. I had a certificate degree with 10 Hofstra University in computer programming. And I
 11 think that's it other than some certified classes and
 12 professional classes that Morgan Stanley offers.
 13 Q. Your certificate degree in computer
 14 programming is in addition to your BA or BS?
 15 A. Correct.
 16 Q. What is your degree in?
 17 A. Accounting.
 18 Q. When did you receive your degree and from 19 what institution?
 20 A. It's 1984 from Queens College.
 21 Q. When did you receive your computer
 22 programming certificate?
 23 A. I believe it was '93, summer of '93.
 24 Q. Did you ever sit for the certified public
 25 accountant's exam?

5

1 A. No.
 2 Q. Have you ever practiced public accounting?
 3 A. No.
 4 Q. Since 1984 how have you been employed?
 5 A. Since 1984 I started after college with Marsh
 6 McLennan, worked there for about a year and a half,
 7 maybe a little less. I then worked for Intercounty
 8 Mortgagee on Long Island. That company wound up
 9 getting bought by Northstar Bank, then merged with 10 Fleet Bank. And I was there until, I believe, '95.
 11 Mellon Bank then subsequently bought our division, and 12 I wound up working for Mellon Bank for two years and 13 then coming to Morgan Stanley.
 14 Q. When did you arrive at Morgan Stanley?
 15 A. November '98.
 16 Q. Prior to arriving at Morgan Stanley can you
 17 just tell me briefly what kinds of jobs you held
 18 within the institutions you've described?
 19 A. Okay. With Marsh McLennan, I was a corporate 20 accountant for about -- for the time being, for the 21 time I was there. When I left there I went to work
 22 for Intercounty Mortgagee. I was a mortgage loan
 23 processor. I subsequently became involved with sales
 24 and then processing mortgages and servicing mortgages.
 25 And that's with --

6

1 Q. Does that take us through November of '98?
 2 A. No. Let me think. '98. Yes, it does take
 3 you through '98. I was also, after I took the
 4 certificate program with Hofstra I was also employed
 5 for, I think, three years part time for a small
 6 company writing and debugging software programs.
 7 Mostly database.
 8 Q. What was that company?
 9 A. I think it was called Program Management
 10 Services.
 11 Q. What kinds of databases were you working 12 with?
 13 A. FoxPro.
 14 Q. Is that an off-the-shelf database?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. Can somebody buy it?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. What sort of programming and debugging were 19 you doing on FoxPro?
 20 A. It was mostly for printing. They would do a
 21 lot of certificate printing for a pharmacist where 22 they would issue the certificates and test the 23 pharmacist and issue certificates for credits, I think
 24 certification credits that they had to maintain.
 25 Q. I thought I heard you say you're doing

7

1 database programming. Is FoxPro database programming?
 2 A. Correct.
 3 Q. Then what does it have to do with printing
 4 certificates?
 5 A. That's what the programming, that's what the 6 programming surrounded. In other words, the
 7 programming that I did and debugging was centered
 8 around printing certificates for this company.
 9 Q. So a portion of the database that you were 10 working on?
 11 A. Correct.
 12 Q. In November of 1998 when you came to Morgan
 13 Stanley, for what job were you hired?
 14 A. I was hired a Distributor Command Center
 15 shift manager's position.
 16 Q. What does that mean in English?
 17 A. In English basically I supervised three or 18 four people on a shift for either three or four days a
 19 week.
 20 Q. And what was it you were --
 21 A. The service that we did?
 22 Q. Yes.
 23 A. We monitored the servers for North America.
 24 We had an application that basically told us if there
 25 was issues with a particular server. We would then

031522

1 evaluate the problem and also involve other people in
 2 resolving the issue. In addition to that, the
 3 Distributor Command Center was involved in monitoring
 4 backups for North America.
 5 Q. Backups of what kind of data?
 6 A. For a UNIX data.
 7 Q. Did you have anything to do with any Windows
 8 data backups?
 9 A. Not at that time, no. There was a separate
 10 group that ran the Windows backups.
 11 Q. For the UNIX backups that you were working 12 on, was that firmwide or for some particular division
 13 within Morgan Stanley?
 14 A. Repeat that question. I'm sorry.
 15 Q. Sure. It was for all of Morgan Stanley or 16 for some business unit within Morgan Stanley?
 17 A. It was all of North America.
 18 Q. For all of Morgan Stanley's North American
 19 operations?
 20 A. Correct.
 21 Q. When we say Morgan Stanley, the actual party
 22 to this litigation is Morgan Stanley & Company,
 23 Incorporated. Are you aware of other Morgan Stanley
 24 entities other than that particular legal entity?
 25 A. I'm not sure. No.

11

1 Q. Do you know what entity pays your paycheck
 2 now?
 3 A. Institutional is the division that I fall
 4 under, Morgan Stanley Institutional. I'm not sure if
 5 that falls into the category you're saying.
 6 Q. Have you ever heard of an entity called
 7 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding?
 8 A. No.
 9 Q. Do you know how that fits into the corporate
 10 structure of Morgan Stanley?
 11 A. No.
 12 Q. All right. That was the job you were hired
 13 for in November of '98. Did your job title or 14 responsibilities ever change between then and now?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. Take me through each change that you've had
 17 within Morgan Stanley.
 18 A. So I was hired in November '98. I stayed in 19 that position until January of 2001. At that time I
 20 became the manager of the Distributor Command Center.
 21 Q. So you were in the same area, but you had a
 22 promotion and more responsibility?
 23 A. Correct.
 24 Q. Now you were supervising a group of 25 supervisors?

10

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 A. Correct.
 2 Q. Other than that were your duties and
 3 responsibilities the same?
 4 A. Yeah, they were -- no. They were basically
 5 the same in that my supervisory duties took me further
 6 away from actually doing the work.
 7 Q. When you were the manager -- I'm sorry. Was 8 that a division? What do we call that?
 9 A. Group.
 10 Q. When you were the manager of the group, to
 11 whom did you report?
 12 A. I reported to -- when I was a manager of the
 13 group?
 14 Q. No, when you were promoted in '01.
 15 A. When I was promoted in '01 who did I then 16 report to?
 17 Q. Yes.
 18 A. I reported to Robert Saunders and
 19 Bill Hollister.
 20 Q. And who had you reported to prior to that 21 promotion?
 22 A. Prior to that promotion I reported to Zender
 23 Morales and also Wray Stewart.
 24 Q. After your promotion did you become at the 25 same level as Wray Stewart? In other words, you used

1 to report to him. Now you're reporting to
 2 Mr. Saunders. What happened to Mr. Stewart?
 3 A. Mr. Stewart went on to do other things in the 4 company. I'm not sure at that time what he did.
 5 Q. Did you have any further promotions or
 6 changes in job duties since January of '01?
 7 A. Yes. In December of '03 I relinquished the
 8 management position of the Distributor Command Center,
 9 and I fell under a group called Distributed Storage
 10 reporting to Robert Place.
 11 Q. When you say "relinquished," what does that
 12 mean?
 13 A. The group was being outsourced. My
 14 responsibilities had ended for that group, and I moved
 15 over to the Distributor Storage to focus on things
 16 concerning storage directly.
 17 Q. Was that a lateral move? A promotion?
 18 A. A lateral move.
 19 Q. And it's because the thing that you were 20 running before was becoming outsourced and wasn't
 21 going to exist anymore?
 22 A. Yes. And also I wanted to focus myself on 23 distributed -- on storage.
 24 Q. And when you say "storage," what do you mean?
 25 A. Anything regarding where you can save data or 031523

1 store data.
 2 Q. Were you still working strictly on UNIX data,
 3 or were you also responsible for Windows data?
 4 A. As part of the migration into what we call
 5 net backup, an application that we do backups with,
 6 that also became Windows backups.
 7 Q. And you reported as of December of '03 to 8 Mr. Place?
 9 A. Correct.
 10 Q. Do you know to whom he reported?
 11 A. Robert Saunders.
 12 Q. So since at least January of '01 you have 13 reported either directly or indirectly to 14 Mr. Saunders?
 15 A. Correct.
 16 Q. Have you had any further promotions,
 17 demotion, lateral moves since December of '03?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. So you are still in Distributed Storage?
 20 A. Correct.
 21 Q. Do you have a title?
 22 A. No. The best thing I can give you is storage
 23 specialist.
 24 Q. Do you have a business card? Do you know
 25 what it says on your business card?

13

1 A. Glenn Seickel.
 2 Q. And an address?
 3 A. Pretty much.
 4 Q. Do you have a title within Morgan Stanley?
 5 Are you an officer?
 6 A. I'm an associate.
 7 Q. And in the Morgan Stanley hierarchy...
 8 A. That's the lowest rung.
 9 Q. There's nothing wrong with being at the 10 lowest rung.
 11 Mr. Seickel, in front of us is a stack of 12 documents that has been produced to us pursuant to the 13 court order, which also has produced you to us. They 14 bear a production range of 112286 to 113899. I'd like 15 you to take a moment to look through the stack. And 16 when I say "a moment," take as many moments as you'd 17 like.
 18 A. It's a big stack.
 19 Q. I'm going to ask you a series of questions
 20 about your familiarity with the stack when you're 21 done, but what I'm interested in, and at the risk of 22 making this a compound question --
 23 MR. KLAPPER: I won't object.
 24 MR. BYMAN: Thank you.
 25 MR. KLAPPER: You're welcome.

14

1 BY MR. BYMAN:
 2 Q. I'm going to want to know, A, did you provide
 3 any of these documents so that they can be provided to
 4 us; B, have you seen any of these documents before;
 5 or, C, are they documents with which you are familiar
 6 by description. So as you go through the stack, we 7 can give you some post-it notes or you can put it into
 8 piles of things you have seen and things you haven't
 9 seen, and then I'll have a more focused question.
 10 A. Okay. This pile or this pile or both?
 11 Q. This pile.
 12 A. I was hoping for the smaller one.
 13 MR. KLAPPER: I guess if we're on the 14 record, the Bates range that you
 15 articulated reflects these documents in
 16 this big stack on the table. Are there
 17 other documents that we produced that's 18 not in this stack that was part of the 19 production? Because I know we got a bunch
 20 of stuff that's been marked separately as 21 Exhibits.
 22 MR. BYMAN: Let me make sure that's 23 clear, Tony, since you weren't here
 24 yesterday. We received three, I'll use
 25 the word tranches since Mr. Saunders used

1 it, three tranches of production from
 2 Kirkland & Ellis with respect to the
 3 February 3 order. At approximately noon
 4 on Tuesday we received the set of things
 5 that Mr. Seickel is now looking through.
 6 MR. KLAPPER: Right.
 7 MR. BYMAN: Later in the day we received
 8 additional documents which we marked
 9 Exhibits 420 through 424.
 10 MR. KLAPPER: And those were marked
 11 during Allison Gorman's deposition?
 12 MR. BYMAN: Right. And sometime today
 13 we received a fax which included one piece
 14 of paper we marked as Exhibit 427.
 15 MR. KLAPPER: Okay.
 16 THE WITNESS: There's some stuff stuck
 17 together that -- some of which I'm
 18 familiar with and some I'm not.
 19 BY MR. BYMAN:
 20 Q. Put aside the stuff --
 21 MR. KLAPPER: He's saying it's connected.
 22 MR. BYMAN: We'll sort that out when we
 23 look at individual things. That's how it
 24 was produced to us.
 25 MR. HIRSCH: So put it with the stuff

031524

1 that looks familiar.
2 THE WITNESS: Anything that has some
3 familiarity I'm putting in one file.

4 MR. HIRSCH: Okay.
5 (A recess was taken from 1:43 p.m. to
6 2:00 p.m.)

7 BY MR. BYMAN:
8 Q. Okay. Let's go back on the record.
9 You've had a chance now over the last
10 approximately 20 or 25 minutes to actually look at 11 this big thick stack that we showed you. And I see
12 it's now in two piles.

13 A. This is -- let me just look to make sure I
14 used...

15 MR. KLAPPER: There's no rush. So,
16 seriously, take your time if you have to 17 do more looking.

18 THE WITNESS: If I don't know what it
19 applies to, then I'm putting it -- this is 20 the only thing I don't think I have any 21 idea of what it applies to specifically.

22 BY MR. BYMAN:
23 Q. And by "this," we're looking at MS-113 --
24 well, we're looking at MS-113450-113500 which is a
25 sheet saying intentionally left blank, so it simply

17

19

1 means those 50 pieces of paper got assigned a number,
2 but we didn't get anything for it other than this
3 T-shirt.

4 Then we have 113501 through 113899, which
5 I take it you do not have any familiarity with?

6 A. I'm not -- based on what I see there I'm not 7 sure what it applies to.

8 MR. KLAPPER: And let me just -- I don't
9 know if the Bates numbers are consecutive
10 within that pile. I guess that's my only 11 question. With that caveat -- you're
12 going to give me that job, huh? Let me
13 take a quick peek before we move on.

14 MR. BYMAN: While you're looking at it,
15 Tony, for the record, I'll say this is the 16 third of the three witnesses that we've 17 been given to tell us what this stack of 18 documents is all about. Ms. Gorman had 19 never seen that document before.
20 Mr. Saunders, if I recall his testimony
21 correctly, didn't have anything to do with
22 that document and said that he'd only seen
23 one percent of the entire stack, which
24 would be 16 pages. So I guess we're 25 wondering why it's in the stack if

18

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 Mr. Seickel doesn't know what it's all
2 about.

3 MR. KLAPPER: I can't say exactly why
4 they're in the stack, but I believe the
5 reason they're in the stack is because it
6 was responsive to the order. So, you
7 know -- we'll move forward with the
8 questions.

9 MR. BYMAN: The order said you're
10 supposed to give us anything that these
11 three witnesses were going to testify
12 about. I'm just making sure we are not 13 missing something. If it got put in by 14 inadvertence, that's fine, but we don't 15 want to be sandbagged at the hearing if
16 there's something you're not telling us
17 about that document.

18 MR. KLAPPER: I don't know the details
19 of what the first witness said about these
20 documents, and I don't know if we walked
21 through in as organized a fashion with the 22 last witness, Mr. Saunders, what he had
23 seen or had not seen. I know he generally
24 talked about having recalled two
25 documents, et cetera. There's no

1 intention to sandbag you.

2 Sitting here right now, I don't know
3 what, if anything, any of these three
4 witnesses will do with respect to these
5 documents and if they rely upon them. If 6 it becomes an issue, certainly at the 7 hearing, where you feel that our -- the
8 witnesses' reliance upon these documents,
9 if this is the subset, whatever it might
10 be, that none of the three could
11 articulate having some knowledge about
12 those documents, then raise the objection
13 at that point. We're certainly not trying
14 to sandbag you. Sitting here right now, I
15 don't know. We can discuss this off the 16 record if you'd like at some future point
17 to sort of try to figure out if there's a
18 way to parse through this. But sitting
19 here now, I can't do that.

20 MR. BYMAN: Okay. All I'm trying to 21 do, Tony, is make sure somebody doesn't
22 say, gosh, you had a chance to ask a
23 question about it; you didn't.

24 MR. KLAPPER: I know. But I did
25 recognize with the last deponent,

031525

1 Mr. Saunders, that we hadn't gone through
2 this sort of two-pile in/out dichotomy.
3 It was a little rougher in terms of the 4 line of questions. And I'm not trying to
5 suggest that, you know, you didn't close
6 him out on that issue or you did. I don't
7 know. We didn't go through the clear
8 demarcation that certainly exists right
9 now with Mr. Seickel.

10 MR. BYMAN: I'm confident with his 11 one-percent estimation with a guy as
12 careful as Mr. Saunders that he wouldn't
13 have overlooked a document that thick.

14 MR. KLAPPER: That may be the case. I
15 don't know. But I know he referenced
16 documents that he had familiarity with,
17 and I don't know if he was referencing
18 this collection or not. But the record
19 will speak for itself.

20 MR. BYMAN: I think that's enough tap
21 dancing for now. Why don't we get back to
22 Mr. Seickel.

23 MR. KLAPPER: That's fair enough. If
24 you could indulge me just for a second, I
25 just want to finish thumbing this. I'm

1 but I don't see where.

2 Q. What was the documents that you provided
3 yesterday?

4 A. It was a document from John Pamula that
5 basically described the circumstances of the 169
6 tapes.

7 Q. Is that what we've marked as Exhibit 427?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. We'll get back to that later. Other
10 than that one piece of paper did you provide anything
11 in response to any request in connection with this
12 litigation?

13 A. Yes. I submitted e-mails. I don't recall if 14 any specifically are in this pile.

15 Q. What you supplied was done electronically I
16 take it.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you have any idea what quantity you
19 supplied would comprise in paper once it was printed
20 out?

21 A. If you're asking me to guess as to the end
22 number, I would say 10 or 12.

23 Q. E-mails or pages?

24 A. Yeah, e-mails.

25 Q. With attachments?

1 almost done. All right.

2 MR. BYMAN: All right.

3 MR. KLAPPER: Yes. I'm fine.

4 BY MR. BYMAN:

5 Q. With the exception of the approximately 6 two-and-a-half-inch, three-inch thick document that
7 Mr. Klapper has now verified have consecutive Bates
8 numbers that you haven't seen, you have got some
9 familiarity with the rest of the stack; is that right?

10 A. I have some familiarity with a portion of 11 each of the pieces of this stack.

12 Q. Okay. To your knowledge, were you the person
13 that segregated and identified the documents in this
14 stack so that they could be produced to us?

15 A. I'm not sure what you mean specifically.

16 Q. Did you have any input in compiling this
17 stack of documents for us?

18 A. I may have. I don't recall.

19 Q. Were you asked to compile any documents in 20 connection with this case?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And what did you do to respond to that 23 inquiry?

24 A. I supplied them a document yesterday. And I
25 don't see it. This pile. Not that it's not there,

1 A. I don't recall. Maybe.

2 Q. What I'm trying drive at is if you printed
3 out what you gave them, would it be something like
4 this six-inch stack that we have left?

5 A. I didn't print out anything.

6 Q. I know. I'm just saying if you did, can you
7 estimate would it have been a six-inch stack? Would
8 it have been a two-foot stack? Would it have been a
9 one-inch stack?

10 A. I would estimate it would be less than one
11 inch.

12 Q. Why don't you take us through each of the 13 documents in this stack, tell us for the record what 14 the Bates numbers are, and then tell us what it is 15 about each document that you've seen before.

16 A. Where is the Bates number?

17 Q. It's the production number on the bottom.

18 A. Oh, this number right here?

19 MR. KLAPPER: Yes. And "this" referring,
20 just because there was a little ambiguity
21 with stacks, "this" referring to the stack
22 that is in front of him in the deposition
23 today.

24 BY MR. BYMAN:

25 Q. Yes. What we're talking about is from the 031526

1 universe of the first set of things that were produced
2 to us by your law firm, Tony, Mr. Seickel segregated
3 out the things that you've never seen before. We
4 still have about six inches of it. And now I want you
5 to tell me what in those six inches you've seen and 6 what it is.

7 A. Okay. This is document Bates document
8 0112887.

9 Q. And what's the last number in the range at 10 the last page?

11 MR. KLAPPER: If you turn to the last page
12 and see the number...

13 THE WITNESS: 0112895.

14 MR. KLAPPER: And I would just suggest when
15 you thumb through to make sure the numbers
16 are consecutive. I'm sure they are, but
17 just to make sure.

18 THE WITNESS: 91, 92, 93, and 95...
19 Yes, they are consecutive.

20 BY MR. BYMAN:

21 Q. Okay. What is that document?

22 A. This first document is an e-mail from
23 somebody named Bezak (phonetic) at NDCI.com to Wray
24 Stewart. And then -- actually, it also includes an 25 e-mail from -- it's like a CC or forwarded from an

1 earlier mail to Bruce Buchanan from Wray Stewart.

2 Q. Okay. And what in that set of documents have
3 you seen before?

4 A. Discussion about 112 tapes, number that had 5 mail data.

6 Q. What page are you referring to?

7 A. I'm referring to page three or 0112889.

8 Q. Okay. This is referring to the Brooklyn
9 found tapes?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Is that a term that's familiar to you?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Does that refer to the 1,423 tapes that were
14 located in Brooklyn?

15 A. I believe so.

16 Q. And this is an update in July of 2004 talking
17 about what NDCI had found on the found tapes; is that
18 right?

19 A. Um-hum.

20 Q. You have to answer audibly for the reporter.

21 A. I'm sorry. Yes.

22 Q. And what they had found as of July 2004 was 23 that there were in excess of 2,183,000 total unique
24 e-mail messages; is that right?

25 A. Okay.

1 Q. Is that right, sir?

2 A. It's saying it here. I don't know that for a
3 fact.

4 Q. Do you have any information that what was
5 reported to you by NDCI was inaccurate?

6 A. I have no reason to believe that.

7 Q. You're not copied on this particular e-mail,
8 but do you have a recollection of it being forwarded
9 to you or shared with you?

10 A. Just in conversations.

11 Q. With Mr. Stewart?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. With anyone else?

14 A. Just with legal counsel.

15 Q. Did you have a conversation with Mr. Stewart
16 in July of 2004 about the contents of this tape?

17 A. I don't recall. It's possible.

18 Q. Well, when is the first time you recall being
19 aware that the Brooklyn found tapes contained e-mail?

20 A. The last recall I have was being involved
21 with it in October of this year.

22 Q. You mean of last year?

23 A. I'm sorry. Of last year, 2004.

24 Q. I'm not asking you for the last recall.

25 When's the first time you knew that the Brooklyn found

1 tapes had e-mail on them?

2 A. That's what I meant.

3 Q. So you had a conversation with Mr. Stewart in 4 October of this year?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Did he tell you that he knew that they
7 contained e-mail in July?

8 A. I don't recall if he said that to me, no.

9 Q. Well, when you saw this e-mail that's dated
10 July 16, 2004, did you go back to him and say, hey,

11 Wray, you must have known in July that these files had 12 e-mail or words to that effect?

13 A. I don't remember having a conversation like
14 that with him.

15 Q. By the way, I'm going to mark as CPH 31 what
16 I think is the document that you're actually looking
17 for or looking at there.

18 A. Yes. Do you want this document back?

19 Q. Keep the one with the Exhibit on it.

20 MR. BYMAN: And did you get his yes in 21 answer to my question?

22 BY MR. BYMAN:

23 Q. Have you ever actually seen the e-mail that 24 is 112889 prior to today)?

25 A. I don't recall. It's possible, but I don't 031527

1 recall.

2 Q. What were the circumstances in October of

3 last year that caused you and Mr. Wray to talk about

4 the subject of e-mails being on the found tape?

5 A. We were pursuing getting those, the 112 tapes

6 processed by NDCI, and uploaded to our system.

7 Q. What was it about October that made you

8 pursue it at that point?

9 A. I don't know. That was when it was brought

10 to my attention.

11 Q. Who brought it to your attention?

12 A. Wray Stewart.

13 Q. What did he say?

14 A. He said we have these tapes that we have to

15 process.

16 Q. Did he say that he had just found out about

17 it, or did he say that he had known about it for 18 sometime?

19 MR. KLAPPER: Objection; asked and

20 answered.

21 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.

22 BY MR. BYMAN:

23 Q. Did you ever attempt to find out when he

24 first knew that there were 112 tapes that needed to be

25 processed?

29

1 A. I did not ask him that.

2 Q. Was there anybody else present during the

3 conversation you had with Mr. Stewart?

4 A. I don't think so.

5 Q. Was he directing you to do something about

6 the processing, or was he simply saying, hey, we've

7 got to do it, and he was going to have somebody else

8 do it or he was going to do it?

9 A. I think they would be processed as part of 10 the e-mail archive tapes as we would do any other

11 tapes.

12 Q. Well, what was your role in processing the

13 tapes?

14 A. I managed John Pamula who runs the group that

15 handles the tapes, and I helped coordinate his

16 activity to do so.

17 Q. And what I'm trying to drive at,

18 Mr. Seickel -- And it may just be a language problem,

19 and I may not be speaking your language here. I'm

20 trying to find out why it was October that he was 21 doing this.

22 A. I don't know.

23 Q. Was it because he had just received them,

24 because he had just realized that he had received them

25 a long time ago and he should have done it sooner?

30

1 Was it because he got some direction? You just don't

2 know?

3 MR. KLAPPER: Objection. Asked and

4 answered, but you can answer.

5 THE WITNESS: If you want me to guess as

6 to why it was October --

7 MR. KLAPPER: He's not asking you to 8 guess.

9 BY MR. BYMAN:

10 Q. I want you to give me your best understanding

11 as to why you were asked to do this then.

12 A. I don't know.

13 Q. What specifically did you do after

14 Mr. Stewart and you had your conversation?

15 A. The tapes were processed by NDCI, meaning

16 they gave us the e-mails on tapes of the 112. Well,

17 they wrote to the tapes and processed them as quickly

18 as they could, sent them to us, and we -- or my

19 understanding is that they were then uploaded to the 20 e-mail archive sometime late last year.

21 Q. So in October when you had your conversation

22 with Mr. Stewart, had these 112 tapes containing

23 e-mail been extracted from the raw tapes?

24 A. When I had my conversation, I believe at that

25 point the raw data was already moved.

31

1 Q. Moved into SD --

2 A. SDLT's.

3 Q. And did Morgan Stanley have possession of the 4 SDLT tapes?

5 A. I believe so, yes. I believe so to the best

6 of my knowledge.

7 Q. What's the basis of your belief?

8 A. Conversations with Wray Stewart.

9 Q. Let me make sure I understand the mechanics

10 of how this works. The raw tapes are the 1,423 tapes

11 that were found in Brooklyn, right?

12 A. (Nodding head).

13 Q. You have to answer audibly for me.

14 A. Okay. Yes. Sorry.

15 Q. The raw tapes gets shipped to NDCI?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Where is NDCI located?

18 A. Manhattan.

19 Q. So when we say "shipped," we just mean across

20 the river?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Then NDCI extracts information from the raw

23 tapes and puts the extracted information on and SDLT

24 tape; is that correct?

25 A. Correct.

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

031528

1 Q. And they ship the SDLT tape over to you at
 2 Morgan Stanley?
 3 A. Correct.
 4 Q. Once Morgan Stanley has the SDLT tape, it
 5 loads it onto a hard disk on its mainframe computer;
 6 is that right?
 7 A. Slightly incorrect.
 8 Q. All right. What is correct?
 9 A. It's not a mainframe.
 10 Q. What is it?
 11 A. It's a UNIX or a LINUX based system with 12 storage attached to it and a tape drive attached to
 13 it.
 14 Q. And once it is loaded onto disk what is the 15 next step in order to make it searchable?
 16 A. The e-mail archives, the people governing the 17 e-mail archive application are notified there's data
 18 in the staging area and they have to process it.
 19 Q. And how do they process it?
 20 A. I'm not exactly sure.
 21 Q. Do you understand that a script has to be run
 22 against the data?
 23 A. I'm sure, yeah, from that level.
 24 Q. To your knowledge, does NDCI have the ability
 25 to put the data it extracts from raw tapes into some

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

33

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

35

1 sort of searchable database?
 2 A. I'm not aware of it.
 3 Q. Are you aware that they do not have that
 4 capability?
 5 A. No.
 6 Q. So they may or may not have that capability?
 7 A. Correct.
 8 Q. To your knowledge, were they ever -- were 9 they ever asked if they had that capability?
 10 A. I don't know.
 11 Q. To your knowledge, were they ever asked to 12 perform any searches of the data that they were 13 extracting?
 14 A. I don't know.
 15 Q. So in October when you and Mr. Stewart had 16 your conversation, NDCI had already sent back the SDLT
 17 tapes to Morgan Stanley; is that correct?
 18 A. I believe so, yes.
 19 Q. Did you have anything to do, then, with 20 loading those tapes onto the UNIX hardware that you
 21 were talking about?
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. Who did?
 24 A. John Pamula and his team.
 25 Q. And when did he complete that task?

34

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 A. I don't know.
 2 Q. He was reporting to you at that time, right?
 3 A. He's -- yeah, he reports to me.
 4 Q. Did he ever tell you and you've just
 5 forgotten or he just never told you?
 6 A. No, those communications were dealt with with
 7 Wray Stewart.
 8 Q. Did Mr. Stewart ever tell you when it was
 9 done?
 10 A. No. In other words, not that I recall.
 11 Q. And whether it was loaded then in a day or a
 12 week or a month, it still had to have the scripts run
 13 against it in order to become searchable; is that
 14 right?
 15 A. I don't know. I'm not sure.
 16 Q. Okay. So you don't know when it was loaded
 17 and you don't know when it became searchable?
 18 A. Correct.
 19 Q. Let me show you a document previously marked
 20 as Exhibit 425. And I don't know if we've gotten to 21 that point in these piles, but is that something that 22 you've seen before?
 23 A. Yeah. These are meeting minutes that Wray
 24 would send out.
 25 Q. Were you copied with them on the -- at the

1 time?
 2 A. I believe so because one of the groups that
 3 are CC'd on it I'm in.
 4 Q. Is that DSMGR-NA?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. Are you also in the group ECMGR-NA?
 7 A. No.
 8 Q. Do you know who is in that group? Have you
 9 ever heard of that group?
 10 A. I'm not sure.
 11 Q. So you believe you would have seen anything
 12 that was addressed to DSMGR-NA more or less in 13 realtime?
 14 A. I would have received it in my e-mail box.
 15 Q. So you knew that the Brooklyn found tapes had 16 been found at least as of May 6, 2004; is that right?
 17 A. That sounds about right.
 18 Q. This, I'll represent to you, is the earliest
 19 that I was able to find in this stack of documents
 20 referring to the Brooklyn found tapes. Do you have 21 any recollection as to when the actual date of finding 22 was?
 23 A. No.
 24 Q. Would it have been shortly before May 6th or 25 some period of time before May 6th?

031529

1 A. It sounds about right. I'm not sure to be
 2 honest.
 3 Q. Who actually found them?
 4 A. From what I recall in conversations with
 5 John Pamula, that he was alerted to it by facilities,
 6 one of the facilities workers there that there were
 7 tapes that had to be removed or moved, and he, as a
 8 result of that, he alerted both myself and Wray
 9 Stewart in conversations.
 10 Q. According to the first page of Exhibit 425,
 11 Wray and you were to investigate the origin on the 12 tapes. Do you see that under bullet paragraph number
 13 two?
 14 A. Yes, I see it.
 15 Q. Did you do anything to investigate the origin
 16 of the tapes?
 17 A. The only thing I recall is that we decided to 18 make it a part of the e-mail archive project to ensure 19 that we were not missing anything.
 20 Q. And when you say "we decided," who is the we?
 21 A. The group, the e-mail archive group that were
 22 meeting on a weekly basis.
 23 Q. The attendees shown on this, Kay Gunn,
 24 Bruce Buchanan, Annaline Dinkelman, John Pamula,
 25 Wray Stewart. I take it you were also a member of

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

37

1 that group.
 2 A. Yeah. I was one of the attendees from one
 3 time to the other. I was invited to these meetings on 4 a weekly basis.
 5 Q. Invited, or were you actually part of the
 6 group?
 7 A. I was part of the group that I was supposed
 8 to attend the meetings.
 9 Q. And then who else other than the persons
 10 identified and yourself was a member of the group?
 11 A. Kay Gunn, Bruce Buchanan, Annaline Dinkelman,
 12 John Pamula, Wray Stewart. Other than these members
 13 there was Arthur Riel, Don Haight, and over time it
 14 changed somewhat. Annaline Dinkelman. I'm trying to 15 think if there's -- Robert Saunders.
 16 Q. Allison Gorman?
 17 A. Allison Gorman. Deb Speyer. I'm not sure
 18 who else.
 19 Q. Mr. Seickel, were you aware that litigation
 20 between Morgan Stanley and CPH, the case that has you
 21 here today, was underway as of May of 2004?
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. When was the first time you heard about this
 24 lawsuit?
 25 A. Recently within the last week, I'd say,

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

38

1 something like that.
 2 Q. Were you aware that as part of his duties
 3 Mr. Riel had certified that production of responsive
 4 documents was complete in this case sometime in 2004?
 5 A. I wasn't aware of that.
 6 Q. Are you aware of that as you sit here today,
 7 or did you just hear about it for the first time from
 8 me?
 9 A. What you just said I heard for the first
 10 time. The general case I've heard about for the past
 11 week.
 12 Q. Had anybody told you prior to the time that 13 you heard about this lawsuit that there was an 14 obligation on Morgan Stanley to produce documents in 15 connection with litigation, e-mail documents?
 16 A. Can you be more specific? I'm not sure what 17 you're asking.
 18 Q. Let me back up a moment. The archive project
 19 that you were a member of this group for was designed
 20 for the ongoing business of Morgan Stanley, right?
 21 A. (No response).
 22 Q. You have to answer audibly.
 23 A. I'm still trying to understand what the 24 question is.
 25 MR. KLAPPER: Objection; vague.

39

1 MR. BYMAN: If he doesn't understand it, by
 2 definition, it's vague.
 3 BY MR. BYMAN:
 4 Q. What was the business purpose, if you know,
 5 of the e-mail archive group?
 6 A. The e-mail archive group was to congregate or
 7 gather people with different areas of either expertise
 8 and/or responsibility to eventually migrate all the 9 e-mail messages from tape that existed into this
 10 e-mail archive system.
 11 Q. And that was for all of North America?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. And what was the business purpose for doing
 14 that?
 15 A. My understanding is that it would make it
 16 easier to respond to requests for information.
 17 Q. And would that be requests for use in the 18 business or for some other reason?
 19 A. Again, my understanding is in relation to 20 litigation requests and business requests.
 21 Q. So this was going to be something that Morgan
 22 Stanley would use for a variety of purposes; is that 23 fair to say?
 24 A. I'm not sure.
 25 Q. Did anybody ever explain to you why this

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

031530

1 group was assembling on a weekly basis to undertake
2 this project?

3 A. Again, my understanding is to make sure that
4 the e-mails were migrated to this e-mail archive
5 product to preserve the data.

6 Q. Right. That's the task. What was the 7 reason for the task? Did anybody ever explain that to
8 you?

9 A. No.

10 MR. KLAPPER: Let me state the objection.

11 Objection; asked and answered.

12 BY MR. BYMAN:

13 Q. In any of the conversations you had with 14 Mr. Stewart about the need to process these tapes, did
15 he say anything about specific dates of tapes that 16 were of particular significance?

17 A. Not that I recall.

18 Q. Did he say anything about trying to find old
19 e-mails from the 1998 period of time?

20 A. No, he did not.

21 Q. When, if ever, was the first time that you
22 learned that the found tapes included e-mails that
23 might date back to 1998?

24 A. I think this is the first time.

25 Q. You mean with my question?

41

43

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Were you also aware that in addition to the 3 found tapes there were other groups of tapes that
4 contained e-mail that were discovered by Morgan
5 Stanley?

6 A. Repeat that question. I'm sorry.

7 Q. Sure. Let me back up a bit, and I'm going to 8 make a representation to you. During Mr. Saunders'
9 deposition this morning, we identified actually five 10 tranches of --

11 A. It's a Saunders word.

12 Q. It's not actually his word, but he adapted it
13 for this. It actually is a word, I think. But the 14 five groups of things that we talked about included,
15 number one, something like 35,000 raw tapes of 16 pre-2003 e-mails. Number two was the 1,423 tapes that 17 we've been calling the found tapes from the Brooklyn
18 security area. Number three was 728 eight-millimeter
19 tapes that were located some place else. Number four
20 was 169 DLT tapes found in the last few months that I
21 take it is the subject of Exhibit 427. And number
22 five was 169 -- approximately 2,200 exchange DLT tapes
23 that are referred to on --

24 A. Can we go back a second? Because I think I
25 might have misstated something. You asked me how did

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

42

1 the 1,400 came to your attention.

2 Q. Yes.

3 A. And I think I misstated because I was
4 thinking of the eight-millimeter tapes. The 1,400
5 tapes were in a security room in Brooklyn, and just in
6 conversations I believe sometime in the summer of 2004
7 we had -- well, somebody had an epiphany, I don't
8 recall who, and thought that this security room may
9 have had -- and it was a locked room held by IT
10 security -- had these tapes. And that's how they came 11 to be found.

12 Q. Okay. So let's back up and make sure that 13 we're clear. As to the found tapes, the 1,423, that 14 was somebody's epiphany, and that epiphany occurred
15 just prior to May 6, 2004?

16 A. Yeah, correct.

17 Q. And as to Mr. Saunders' third tranche, the 18 eight-millimeter tapes, how were those located?

19 A. Those were located, as I testified to 20 previously, they were something Facilities would have
21 alerted John Pamula's group that there were tapes
22 there. He then alerted myself and Wray Stewart, and 23 the group decided to then act on those tapes.

24 Q. And what facility alerted Mr. Pamula?

25 A. Facilities. They're a building -- there are

1 certain building people, maintenance people, workers
2 that it was my understanding that one of them alerted
3 them to these tapes.

4 Q. Where were the tapes physically located?

5 A. They were in a com rom in 1221 Avenue of the 6 Americas.

7 Q. In Manhattan?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Did anyone attempt to find an explanation of 10 why they had not been located sooner?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. Mr. Saunders told us that by the very fact
13 that these are eight-millimeter tapes they would tend 14 to be older tapes because it's an older technology.
15 Is that consistent with your understanding?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Was anything done after the discovery of the 18 728 eight-millimeter tapes to make sure that there
19 weren't others, other similar tapes located in other
20 com rooms somehow?

21 A. It was my understanding based on conversation
22 with John Pamula that he would have himself and his
23 employees do a thorough search of not only the com
24 rooms but any storage areas that he had access to.

25 Q. And when was the first time that Morgan

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

031531

1 Stanley knew what was actually on the eight-millimeter
2 tapes?

3 MR. KLAPPER: Objection; foundation. You
4 can answer.

5 THE WITNESS: Last week or a week
6 before that, something like that.

7 Recently.

8 BY MR. BYMAN:

9 Q. How did you come to know what was on the
10 tapes?

11 A. NDCI reported it to us and I was one of the 12 recipients.

13 Q. What did they report?

14 A. They reported a certain number of e-mails on
15 those tapes.

16 Q. Do you remember what number of e-mails?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Is that report in this stack of documents?
19 Did you see it?

20 A. I didn't see it. I don't recall seeing it.

21 It doesn't mean it's not there. I just didn't recall
22 seeing it.

23 Q. Who else was copied on that report?

24 A. I'm not sure, but definitely myself,

25 Wray Stewart. Beyond that, I can't recall. I would

1 collection of documents produced documents
2 that are responsive unless, of course,
3 they were privileged and in that case
4 would have been placed on the log.

5 MR. BYMAN: Well, that's a pretty fancy
6 way of saying you don't have any way of 7 answering my question.

8 MR. KLAPPER: No, I think I answered
9 your question.

10 MR. BYMAN: I guess the record will reflect
11 that. I'm just asking you if that
12 document that Mr. Seickel just described,
13 the reporting, was on the 728 tapes that
14 have been produced to us, and you don't 15 know the answer to that I take it. You
16 just know if it was privileged, you would
17 have claimed the privilege.

18 MR. KLAPPER: I think I already gave you
19 the answer to the question. So sitting
20 here today, do I know whether or not it
21 was produced? No, I don't know whether or 22 not it was produced. If it was supposed
23 to be produced and -- and existed, I'm 24 sure it would have been produced or placed
25 on the privilege log if there was a

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

45

47

1 say also that it was reported to legal counsel as soon
2 as we found out. I just can't recall the specific
3 e-mail addresses on it.

4 Q. Do you recall the date of that report?

5 A. No.

6 Q. But it was within the last week?

7 A. If was fairly recently.

8 Q. Well, fairly recently can mean different
9 things to different people.

10 A. It was, I would say, within the last two 11 weeks. That's what I recall. I don't recall to be 12 honest with you. I'm just guessing. But it was 13 recent.

14 MR. BYMAN: Tony, if that document is in
15 that stack, I haven't been able to locate
16 it and identify it. Are you aware of 17 anything being withheld from the 18 production that would constitute the 19 report that Mr. Seickel has described?

20 MR. KLAPPER: I don't know if legal
21 counsel is copied on it and, therefore,
22 would be referenced on a privilege log.

23 Sitting here today, I don't know one way
24 or the other. Certainly there's no --
25 there was no attempt to keep out of this

1 communication with counsel.

2 MR. BYMAN: Well, with all due respect,
3 you better take another look at what
4 constitutes privilege. The mere fact that
5 it's addressed to you doesn't make it
6 privileged.

7 BY MR. BYMAN:

8 Q. What do you recall the report disclosing?
9 Was it one e-mail they found? A million e-mails? A
10 zillion e-mails?

11 A. There was definitely more than one e-mail.
12 Beyond that, I can't speculate.

13 Q. Was there anything about the content of the 14 e-mails disclosed in the report?

15 A. Just that I believe it was broken down to 16 type, like the two types that we have are iMap and 17 notes most notably on UNIX.

18 Q. So by type you're just talking about what 19 platform the e-mails are on; is that right?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. I take it that NDCIS was never asked to 22 actually search for and identify individual e-mails so
23 they wouldn't be in a position of talking about the 24 subsequent content of an e-mail; is that correct?

25 A. I believe that is correct.

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 Q. In addition to their report, did you also get
2 some sort of electronic medium from them that included
3 the extracted e-mails they had identified?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Have you gotten those yet?

6 A. Wait. Rephrase that again. I'm sorry.

7 Q. Well, they have --

8 MR. KLAPPER: Let me just direct him. Take
9 your time. Make sure you guys are
10 communicating. If you don't understand
11 the question -- just make sure you
12 understand the question.

13 BY MR. BYMAN:

14 Q. And I second that. I don't want you
15 answering questions you don't understand, sir. You
16 have 728 eight-millimeter tapes that you've sent to 17 NDCI, right?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. A week or two they reported back to you we 20 have confirmed that those tapes contain e-mails in one
21 or more e-mail platforms; is that right, sir?

22 A. Correct.

23 MR. KLAPPER: My objection -- allow me to 24 object. I don't know if he testified the 25 time frame was one or two weeks or he

1 A. No.

2 Q. And who actually made the receipt of those
3 tapes from NDCI?

4 A. John Pamula.

5 Q. What, if you know, did Mr. Pamula do with
6 those tapes when he received them?

7 A. It was my understanding that he had one of 8 his subordinates upload the tapes, the data from the 9 tapes onto the e-mail archive staging area.

10 Q. And how long did that take?

11 A. I think that was completed either Friday or 12 Saturday.

13 Q. So it is possible to load three SDLT tapes in
14 a day or two?

15 MR. KLAPPER: Objection. Vague and 16 ambiguous.

17 BY MR. BYMAN:

18 Q. Whether possible or not, was done between 19 your receipt on Friday and Friday or Saturday; is that
20 right?

21 A. Well, the -- I'm not -- I don't know -- I'm 22 not sure what your whole question is. Are you saying
23 that -- Well, I'll let you explain it.

24 Q. All right. Let me again do this in small 25 pieces. Let's say you get one full SDLT tape which

1 wasn't sure about the time frame.

2 BY MR. BYMAN:

3 Q. Whatever it was you've just gotten done
4 telling us about when you saw this report.

5 A. Um-hum.

6 MR. KLAPPER: Or based on your prior
7 testimony. You may answer.

8 BY MR. BYMAN:

9 Q. In addition to simply reporting to you, we 10 have identified that there are e-mails. Have they 11 also sent back to you either a SDLT tape or some other 12 type of electronic medium that says here, they are?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And when did you receive those?

15 A. We received them all by the end of last week,
16 which was, I believe, Friday was the last tape for the 17 eight-millimeters.

18 Q. And what quantity of electronic medium did
19 you receive representing those 728 eight-millimeter
20 tapes?

21 A. Three SDLT tapes.

22 Q. Were those three SDLT tapes full?

23 A. I don't know.

24 Q. Do you know what quantity of data was on
25 those tapes?

1 holds approximately 150 gigabytes; is that right?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. How long would it take on the assumption that
4 you had nothing else to do, that you could assign all
5 of your resources to do nothing except process that 6 one tape, how long would it take to do the upload that 7 you've been talking about?

8 A. The best estimate I can give you is one day.

9 Q. 24 hours?

10 A. Probably less than -- a business day, like
11 eight hours.

12 Q. All right. And if you got three tapes at the 13 same time and had nothing else to do, no other demands
14 on your resources, would it take three eight-hour
15 shifts, or could you do some of that in parallel?

16 A. If there was no restraint on resources, then
17 you should be able to do them in parallel.

18 Q. What restraints on resources might there be?

19 A. We had two SDLT drives, three tapes. Also 20 two of the tapes were received on Wednesday or 21 Thursday. One of them was received after that.

22 Q. What I'm trying to drive at -- and this is 23 starting to sound like one of these things you get in 24 airline magazines that say you have three ducks and 25 two row boats, and how do you get them across the 031533

1 river, but would it take one SDLT drive eight hours to
2 upload one full SDLT tape?

3 MR. KLAPPER: Let me just object. This is
4 really unclear to me if we're talking
5 about a tape that is working properly, a
6 tape that has problems, any tape or the
7 particular tapes -- Are you asking him
8 about the particular tapes that came from 9 the eight-millimeter or any tape that may 10 or may not have problems? I just --

11 BY MR. BYMAN:

12 Q. I like my question. Unless you don't 13 understand it, why don't you try answering it. Would 14 you like to hear it again.

15 Let me see if I can simplify this,
16 Mr. Seickel. What I'm trying to find out is in an 17 optimum environment, assume no problems with the 18 tapes, assume that the tape is full, though, so that 19 we know what the maximum amount of time it would take 20 to do it, assume that you have just one tape and one
21 driver. How long would it take to upload the 22 information onto your disk?

23 A. Less than one business day.

24 Q. So less than eight hours?

25 A. (Nodding head).

1 we sit here today or not; is that correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. No one has told you whether or not they've
4 been migrated into searchable form?

5 A. I did receive mail, I believe yesterday,
6 saying that they processed the tapes. I have no idea
7 what that means.

8 Q. So by processed you don't know if that means
9 searchable?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Or labeled or something else?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Has anyone told you that they've been able to 14 determine what the content, the substantive content of 15 those processed tapes are?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Have you ever been advised that someone at 18 Morgan Stanley was aware in early July 2004 that those 19 728 eight-millimeter tapes contained e-mail dating
20 back to June of 1998?

21 A. Repeat the question.

22 (The record was read as requested.)

23 THE WITNESS: No.

24 BY MR. BYMAN:

25 Q. By the way, I've just been advised it's 738,

1 Q. I need an oral answer. I'm sorry.

2 A. Yes, I'm sorry.

3 Q. So if you have two drivers and two full tapes
4 and two people to load them, you could get two of 5 those taken care of in less than one business day; is
6 that right?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. And if you had three tapes, two drivers, and 9 it doesn't really matter how many people at this
10 point, it would take something more than one business
11 day but less than two business days; is that right?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. With respect to the three tapes you actually
14 received, you received some of them on Wednesday or 15 Thursday, the last one on Friday, and they were all
16 fully loaded by Saturday; is that correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Once they're loaded do you know how long it
19 takes to migrate them into some sort of searchable
20 form?

21 A. No, I don't.

22 Q. That's something that is in Ms. Gorman's
23 bailiwick?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. So you don't know if they are searchable as

1 not 28. When I've been saying 28 or 38, we both
2 understand we're talking about the universe of
3 eight-millimeter tapes that were found as you earlier
4 described, is that okay?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Let me show you what we previously marked --
7 MR. KLAPPER: It's your call, your call if
8 we need to take a bathroom break. Is this
9 a good breaking point?

10 THE WITNESS: Sure. We can take a
11 bathroom break.
12 (A recess was taken from 2:48 p.m. to
13 2:58 p.m.)

14 BY MR. BYMAN:

15 Q. Mr. Seickel, I'm going to show you what we 16 marked earlier as CPH 428. Have you ever seen the 17 e-mail from Mr. Buchanan to Mr. Riel dated July 2,
18 2004 before?

19 A. Before today?

20 Q. Yes.

21 A. No.

22 Q. Has either Mr. Pamula or Mr. Haight or 23 Mr. Stewart ever told you that they were aware on or
24 about July 2nd, 2004 that the eight-millimeter test
25 tapes included e-mail and that the dates on some of 031534

1 those e-mails went back to June of 1998.

2 A. No.

3 Q. So reading this --

4 A. I don't recall anything being told to me

5 regarding that.

6 Q. I'll take that back.

7 MR. KLAPPER: What Bates number?

8 BY MR. BYMAN:

9 Q. Okay. I think we wrestled Exhibit 431 to the 10 ground. And what's the stack that you've seen before?

11 Let me identify it for the record as 112672 through

12 796. Would you describe that and what your previous

13 involvement in it was.

14 A. The only part that I recognize at all is and

15 just in general terms from the time periods that I see

16 are the eight-millimeter tapes.

17 Q. And you're referring to the printout of --

18 A. And I'm referring to specifically 0112676

19 where the subject states eight-millimeter tapes.

20 Q. I'm sorry. What specifically on page 676 are

21 you referring to?

22 A. The subject areas that say eight millimeters.

23 Just that I know that there were eight-millimeter

24 tapes. That's the only thing that's familiar.

25 Q. So just the words "eight-millimeter tapes"

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

57

1 sounds familiar?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. What about the page after page of listing of 4 tapes? For example, 112690?

5 A. 112690. Not specifically. I mean,

6 nothing...

7 Q. So you didn't create this listing, I take it.

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. You're not even sure you ever reviewed it?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And other than the fact that the word

12 "eight-millimeter tapes" appears somewhere in the body

13 of that document, you don't know anything else about

14 its substance?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Okay. Then let's put this one aside. The 17 next one is 112896 through 969.

18 MR. KLAPPER: Have we established on the

19 record what he's looking at, the full

20 Bates range?

21 MR. BYMAN: I think I just gave those

22 numbers.

23 MR. KLAPPER: I just want to make sure

24 it's a consecutive range. Let me just

25 quickly look.

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

58

59

1 THE WITNESS: My familiarity with it,

2 again, is that I believe I contributed to

3 some, like the work flow product that was

4 put together and how the tapes were being

5 processed.

6 BY MR. BYMAN:

7 Q. Are you referring to a specific page?

8 A. I'm referring to 0112935.

9 Q. And that's a flow chart schematic diagram of 10 the work?

11 A. Yeah. I believe I was in one of the meetings

12 that discussed this because it looks familiar.

13 Q. Did you actually prepare the flow chart?

14 A. No, I did not.

15 Q. If we were to look at that flow chart, is one

16 of the boxes or diamonds or circles an area in which

17 you fit?

18 A. I don't recall exactly what my contribution

19 was to it.

20 Q. Or whether you're part of the process now

21 that the flow chart has been identified?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Other than that flow chart that you've

24 identified is there anything else about the document?

25 A. Just that it talks about 35,000 DLT tapes and

1 eight-millimeter tapes.

2 Q. Other than the fact that you recognize some

3 of the terms or concepts, did you prepare any of these

4 documents?

5 A. I don't believe so, no.

6 Q. Did you receive any of the documents

7 contemporaneously?

8 A. I don't think so. It could be. I don't

9 recall.

10 Q. Let's put that aside. The next set of 11 documents is 113416 through 113449. Would you tell me

12 what the significance of that document is?

13 A. Okay. On 418 -- Can I just refer to the last

14 three digits?

15 Q. Sure.

16 A. This is in regarding the 169 tapes that were

17 recently found. There's some communication between me

18 and Bruce and in re: discussing what we were doing

19 with the 169 tapes.

20 Q. May I see that page a moment?

21 A. Sure.

22 Q. If I understand this chain correctly -- And I

23 apologize. This is the only copy of this that I have

24 with us here today. On January 12th, 2005, you send

25 an e-mail to Mr. Buchanan at NDCI saying, "We've

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

031535

1 reviewed your website and found that there are several
2 that they are not on your list as processed. Can you
3 please double-check?" Is that correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Now was there some sort of intranet that you
6 could get on so that you could check his work in
7 progress over the Internet?

8 A. They have a website that tells us what 9 certain information is. Now I have never accessed the 10 website to look at the data. Wray has from time to 11 time to verify what tapes have been processed. I'm 12 not sure what additional information is on the 13 website. I just don't recall.

14 Q. Is it your understanding, though, that they
15 have some sort of secure site so that they can monitor
16 their work in progress?

17 A. Correct.

18 MR. KLAPPER: Just for the record and for
19 my benefit, if you don't mind, is there a
20 Bates number or an Exhibit Number?

21 MR. BYMAN: Yes, he's identified 113418.

22 BY MR. BYMAN:

23 Q. And then approximately a little over two
24 weeks later he gets back to you on January 28th, hey,
25 Glenn, attached is spread sheet with header dates for

1 of last Friday; is that right?

2 A. Um-hum.

3 Q. When did you get the SDLT tapes from the 169
4 tapes?

5 A. We received two on Thursday of last week, and
6 the final one we did not receive until, what is today?
7 Today is --

8 MR. KLAPPER: The 10th.

9 BY MR. BYMAN:

10 Q. Wednesday. I'm sorry. Thursday. Time
11 flies.

12 A. I believe we received the tape Monday.
13 Tuesday or Monday. Tuesday. The final tape for the 14 169, the SDLT. No, I'm sorry. We received it
15 Wednesday and had it uploaded yesterday.

16 Q. Yesterday was Wednesday.

17 A. Yeah. We received it Wednesday and had it
18 uploaded Wednesday.

19 Q. Let me make sure again that I understand.
20 For the 738 eight-millimeter tapes, you received three
21 SDLT tapes, all of which were uploaded by Saturday?

22 A. Saturday.

23 Q. Of last week? Last Saturday?

24 A. This past Saturday.

25 Q. For the 169 DLT tapes you received, was it

1 the 169 tapes. Do you see that?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Now I'm looking at the pages that were
4 produced immediately after that, and they appear to be 5 invoices.

6 A. Correct. I didn't see those. Those usually
7 went through Wray Stewart.

8 Q. And then after the invoices starting at page
9 113426 there does appear to be a listing of tapes.

10 A. Um-hum.

11 Q. Is that the attached spread sheet that he was 12 referred to by Mr. Buchanan?

13 A. I don't -- I don't know if those apply to the 14 169 tapes. I just don't recall.

15 Q. Might be; might not?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. And then you respond to him about 18 minutes
18 later saying when will you have the SDLT's with the 19 mail, do you see that?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And that's what he eventually responded to?

22 A. I think so, yeah. We were obviously trying
23 to get the SDLT's with the data from the 169 tapes.

24 Q. Now we know that the 738 eight-millimeter
25 tapes, you eventually got all of that on SDLT tape as

1 two or three SDLT's?

2 A. Total of three.

3 Q. And all of those have been uploaded as of
4 yesterday?

5 A. As of late yesterday, yes.

6 Q. The last of which was not loaded until
7 yesterday; is that right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And I've asked you all these questions with 10 respect to the three SDLTs for the 738
11 eight-millimeter tapes. As to the three SDLT's for 12 the 169, have those been processed into searchable
13 form yet?

14 A. I don't know.

15 Q. So your answers would be the same, you don't 16 know what happens once they get uploaded?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. Or what the time table is for having them
19 into searchable form?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. While we're on the subject, how were these 22 169 DLT tapes discovered?

23 A. We discovered them at our offsite vendor,
24 Recall.

25 Q. And how was it that you discovered them?

031536

1 A. We were doing a search for a database that we
2 were trying to restore for a particular server. As
3 part of that, I created a list of tapes for
4 John Pamula to then identify the boxes that they were
5 in and to send them to NDCI. As a result of that,
6 NDCI – Recall, sorry, was able to locate most of the 7 boxes except for a finite amount of them.

8 John Pamula, after processing the boxes
9 that they could find, went back and looked at what
10 they keep as a tape database, a manually maintained
11 database of the location of tapes. According to the 12 database, Recall should have had those boxes. We 13 first did an exhaustive search to try to locate -- my 14 understanding is he did an exhaustive search for those 15 boxes on Morgan Stanley sites to confirm that we 16 didn't have them. He subsequently escalated the issue
17 to a manager at Recall to attempt to locate the boxes.

18 We subsequently obtained those boxes from 19 Recall. In those boxes -- well, number one, those 20 boxes did not have labels that were consistent with 21 boxes that were processed by NDCI, and he brought that 22 to my attention. John Pamula brought it to my 23 attention and to Wray Stewart's attention. We then 24 had confirmed, went ahead and confirmed with 25 Bruce Buchanan, meaning I confirmed with

1 A. I would say sometime in the first two weeks
2 of January.

3 Q. You didn't know whether or not they had
4 e-mail on them at the time?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And was any priority placed on finding out if
7 they had e-mail?

8 A. What do you mean by priority?

9 Q. Well, let me make sure that we're clear on 10 the dates. You found out that they had e-mail last
11 week; is that right?

12 A. I found out, yeah, Thursday or Friday when 13 they sent me the spread sheet that they had -- I think
14 it was Thursday or Friday that they had, some of them
15 had e-mail on them.

16 Q. So it was two, two and a half weeks after you
17 discovered that you had these 169 tapes that you
18 discovered that they had e-mail on them?

19 A. Yeah, because they had -- NDCI had processed
20 the tapes.

21 Q. It doesn't take two and a half weeks to take 22 a look at a DLT tape and find out if it has e-mail on 23 it, does it?

24 A. It depends. And I'm not sure what your 25 question means.

65

67

1 Bruce Buchanan that there were tapes in that -- of
2 which in those boxes were not processed by NDCI.

3 We alerted -- at that time we alerted
4 legal counsel that that was the case, that we had
5 additional tapes that were found and that we were
6 going to process them as part of the e-mail archive
7 project.

8 Q. And when was it that you notified legal
9 counsel?

10 A. I believe it was the same day or within a day
11 or two of finding out, which I believe was like the 12 second week in January.

13 Q. How long was the process between figuring out
14 that these 169 tapes existed and notifying legal
15 counsel?

16 A. I don't recall. It was a day. Maybe a day,
17 two days tops. I don't recall exactly.

18 Q. When did you first find out that the 169
19 tapes that had been located contained e-mail?

20 A. That they had e-mail? I learned of that when
21 I got the first spread sheet on the 169 tapes, which I
22 believe I received on Thursday or Friday of last week.

23 Q. So you found out about these tapes in 24 January, the first week or two in January; is that
25 right?

1 Q. Well, in other words, when you sent these to
2 NDCI, it was as part of the e-mail archive project,
3 wasn't it?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You suspected that they had e-mail, didn't
6 you?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. By that time you were sensitive to the fact
9 that there was some legal consideration involved in 10 making sure that these things got produced, right?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. That's why you contacted legal counsel within 13 a day or two?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. So why didn't you when you sent these to NDCI
16 in mid January say, we really have to know right away
17 if they have e-mail; don't do this in ordinary course;
18 tell us tomorrow; tell us yesterday?

19 A. I can't -- I can only reply to you what NDCI
20 gave to me. There is a process that they may have to 21 go through to process the tapes, so I can't -- I can't 22 give you information to that. All I can tell you is 23 when I received information on those tapes.

24 Q. I understand that, Mr. Seickel. What I'm
25 driving at is when you told NDCI you had these 169

031537

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

66

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 tapes that you wanted processed, did you say process
2 them, period? Did you say process them as slowly as
3 possible, or did you say process them quickly?

4 A. As I recall, Bruce Buchanan asked me what
5 priority. He goes -- and I said, "The typical 6 priority." And he responded, "Yesterday," meaning as 7 soon as possible. And that's how I believe the 8 conversation went almost word for word.

9 Q. Has it ever taken NDCI as much as two and a
10 half weeks to tell you what the content of a
11 particular tape was before?

12 A. I can't recall. You're asking me for a
13 specific instance. If I would have sent them one tape
14 and said process this tape, I would have a framework
15 to answer your question. But I have no framework to 16 answer that question. Do you understand what I'm 17 saying?

18 Q. You could have done a test on them, right?
19 You sent them 169. You could have said take five or 20 ten of them and test them, right?

21 A. We didn't do that.

22 Q. Any reason why not?

23 A. We wanted them all to be processed, so I
24 don't know how to answer that.

25 Q. Let's move to the next document. This is

1 Q. Okay. And how are you familiar with this?

2 A. It was in discussions with legal and -- legal
3 counsel in regard to this whole project.

4 Q. May I see the page you're looking at? Okay.
5 So this spread sheet was sent to you on or about
6 October 2004; is that right?

7 A. Yeah, if that's the date, yes.

8 Q. And other than it being sent to you, did you
9 have any involvement with it?

10 A. The only involvement was that John Pamula was 11 the one -- these tapes pertained to the population of 12 35,000 tapes or thereabouts that were sent to NDCI for 13 processing.

14 Q. Okay. So this was just a routine report from 15 that process?

16 A. This is one of the reports from that process
17 it looks like.

18 Q. Is there any other significance to the report
19 that you're aware of?

20 A. Nothing really. Some of it was just mundane
21 communication regarding an extension number change.
22 Just it seems like normal communication back and forth
23 other than that.

24 Q. May I see that again? Sorry.

25 A. Sure.

1 113209 through 113415. What's the significance of
2 that document?

3 MR. KLAPPER: Just let me do my little
4 check on the Bates range. And, again,
5 take your time and refresh your memory
6 about the entire stack if necessary.

7 THE WITNESS: Okay. The first page
8 refers to tapes -- it says -- and I'll
9 refer to it as 209, document 209.

10 "Attached spread sheet containing the bar
11 codes numbers from all tapes from the 12 original job that contain no mail data at 13 all."

14 MR. KLAPPER: Slow down for the court
15 reporter.

16 THE WITNESS: "This excludes any error,
17 read error tapes, IIM tapes or any tapes
18 that had no unique mail output. I'm 19 familiar with this --

20 THE COURT REPORTER: IIM?

21 THE WITNESS: IIM. It says, "...any
22 read errors, IIM tapes or any tapes that 23 had unique mail output."

24
25 BY MR. BYMAN:

1 Q. Did receipt of this document on or about
2 October 25, 2004 cause you to consult counsel?

3 A. Cause me to consult counsel?

4 Q. Yes.

5 A. I don't recall. I don't know if it was the 6 cause or the discussion -- I don't recall.

7 Q. Well, did something in October of 2004 cause
8 you to consult counsel?

9 A. Well, just be aware, we consult counsel
10 fairly regularly regarding the e-mail archive project.

11 Q. Was there something in October of 2004
12 relating to finding additional e-mail backup tape that
13 caused you to consult counsel?

14 A. Repeat that. I'm sorry. I just don't
15 understand the question.

16 Q. Sure. Actually, let me represent to you,
17 sir, that in a filing in this case James Doyle -- Are 18 you familiar with Mr. Doyle?

19 A. James Doyle, yeah, he works for Morgan
20 Stanley.

21 Q. He's a Morgan Stanley in-house lawyer?

22 A. I believe so.

23 Q. Mr. Doyle filed a declaration, and I'm going
24 to quote from it. "At the end of October 2004 I
25 learned that additional e-mail backup tapes had been

031538

1 located within Morgan Stanley and that the data on
2 those tapes had not been restored or searched prior to
3 Morgan Stanley's May 14, 2004 e-mail production."

4 Were you the source of information of
5 Mr. Doyle in 2004?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Do you know who was?

8 A. I'm not sure.

9 Q. Did you have any communications with
10 Mr. Doyle in October of 2004?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did you have any communications with any 13 lawyer who you know reports to or works with 14 Mr. Doyle?

15 A. In October?

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. I don't think so.

18 Q. Do you recall the names of any Morgan Stanley
19 in-house lawyers that you did have communications with 20 in 2004? And I only want their names. I don't want
21 to know what you talked to them about.

22 A. Soo-Mi-Lee and Zachary Stern.

23 Q. Was there any event in October 2004 relating 24 to the discovery of e-mail backup tapes that had not
25 been previously located?

73

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

75

1 A. Be more specific.

2 Q. Okay. Going back to our tranches, the 1,423
3 tapes we know were discovered back in May --

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. The 738 eight-millimeter tapes were
6 discovered when?

7 A. Eight-millimeter tapes were discovered
8 sometime in 2002, I believe.

9 Q. Okay. So way before May of 2004?

10 A. (Nodding head).

11 Q. You have to answer "yes" or "no."

12 A. Yes. I'm sorry. Bad habit.

13 Q. The 169 tapes that we were talking about 14 recently were discovered when?

15 A. In January of 2005.

16 Q. Were there any discoveries of previously
17 undiscovered backup tapes containing e-mail around the 18 October 2004 time frame?

19 A. No.

20 Q. And, in fact, the closest --

21 A. Other than those, no.

22 Q. And those, the closest one to October would 23 have been the one in May or earlier?

24 A. Yeah. Yes.

25 Q. Let's move on to the next document. We have

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

74

1 an intentionally left blank page with the numbers
2 112970 through 113068 and we have 113069 through
3 113208. And I'm assuming that Mr. Klapper wants to 4 make sure I haven't misread the numbers.

5 MR. KLAPPER: It's not meant to suggest
6 that you're trying to misread. Are these
7 two separate? Because the chain that you
8 gave, you ended 113068 and then 113069.
9 You said two different numbers, two
10 ranges. At the end of the first range you
11 went to the beginning of the second range.

12 MR. BYMAN: Tell you what. Rather than 13 debate what I said, let me just say it
14 again. Give it to me again.

15 MR. KLAPPER: Actually, hold on a
16 second. I thought you said -- I see what 17 you're saying. You don't need to.

18 That's fine. We're on the same page.

19 BY MR. BYMAN:

20 Q. What's the significance of that document?
21 And I presume the intentionally left blank you don't 22 know about.

23 A. (Shaking head).

24 Q. Again, you have to answer audibly for the 25 reporter.

1 A. No. I have to get out of that habit.

2 070, it was communication in regard to
3 this database restored that I was referring to 4 earlier. He needed sequencing information for the 5 restorers. I believe this refers to it. And he also 6 needed the exact client that we were looking for.

7 Q. May I see the page you're referring to?

8 A. Sure.

9 Q. This is 113070. There's an e-mail chain that 10 involves you dated December 2004.

11 A. Um-hum.

12 Q. And what, sir, is the significance of this 13 e-mail chain?

14 A. The significance of it was that he needed
15 certain information. We were doing a database
16 restore, and he needed certain sequencing and server
17 information for the restorers to commence.

18 Q. He being Mr. Buchanan?

19 A. Mr. Buchanan at NDCI.

20 Q. Other than that page and that reference is 21 there anything else in that inch-thick bundle of 22 documents?

23 A. Well, just to finalize the significance --

24 Q. Sure.

25 A. -- that was the initiation of the process was

031539

1 for -- in getting these restorers helped us to
 2 discover the 169 tapes.
 3 Q. It was the beginning of the process because 4 you were trying to reconcile?
 5 A. Before we started reconciling I provided a
 6 list of tapes that I needed restored to John Pamula.
 7 He identified the boxes. This was the process that 8 started this.
 9 Q. Okay. But at this point you hadn't
 10 discovered there was something missing?
 11 A. Correct.
 12 Q. All right.
 13 A. No.
 14 Q. There's nothing else of significance there?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. Next document is 112819 through 112886.
 17 A. This e-mail on page 819 or document 819 looks 18 like it reflects the same thing that was on the 19 previous one.
 20 Q. So it's just a dup?
 21 A. It looks like it because it's from -- it's 22 from December 15th. I don't remember the date on 23 that, on the previous one.
 24 Q. It was 070, right?
 25 A. Yes. What's the date on this?

1 may have been an inadvertent production as
 2 the e-mails and issues referenced therein
 3 apparently relate to a non-public
 4 investigation that either occurred or may
 5 still be occurring. I'm not sure of the 6 context. So with that, you know, we're
 7 going to instruct him not to answer any
 8 substantive questions about this document.
 9 MR. BYMAN: And that would be the entire
 10 document?
 11 THE WITNESS: No --
 12 MR. KLAPPER: I asked you to look at it
 13 and see if there's a way to segregate it.
 14 THE WITNESS: Yes. I mean some of it
 15 related to the database restore I was 16 talking about regarding the finding the
 17 169 tapes.
 18 BY MR. BYMAN:
 19 Q. Okay. Where is that?
 20 A. That's on 799 as well. That's the bottom
 21 part.
 22 Q. So the same page includes things that I can't 23 ask you about.
 24 A. Correct.
 25 Q. And things that I can?

1 Q. This one says the 13th.
 2 A. The 13th. Let me just see what -- but this
 3 one is the 15th. Yeah, it's the same date.
 4 Q. Okay. So this is just a duplicate?
 5 A. This particular page. I just want to look
 6 through the rest of it to see. Yes, a lot of it looks
 7 like it's a duplicate. So let me look through the
 8 rest of it to make sure. Yes, this one looks like a
 9 duplicate of the previous one.
 10 Q. Okay. Next we have 112797 through 112818.
 11 A. Some of these mails, and I'll refer to it as 12 798 -- Wait. The bottom of 798 and going to 799 refer
 13 to another project that we were working on.
 14 Q. It's a project unrelated to e-mail archive?
 15 A. It's a project -- well --
 16 MR. KLAPPER are you looking at me? Is 17 this getting into attorney-client issues?
 18 THE WITNESS: Yes.
 19 MR. KLAPPER: Okay. Let's confer.
 20 (A recess was taken from 3:37 p.m. to
 21 3:47 p.m.)
 22 MR. KLAPPER: Okay. I don't know what the 23 last question is, but questions relating 24 to this document I'm going to instruct the 25 witness not to respond to. I believe this

1 A. Correct.
 2 Q. Except that there's nothing for you to add to
 3 the things that I can because you already told us
 4 everything you know about the 169 tapes?
 5 A. Correct.
 6 Q. Is there anything on this document that
 7 relates to something I haven't asked you about?
 8 A. I don't think so.
 9 MR. BYMAN: Okay. And for the record,
 10 Tony, my view is that all of these
 11 documents have been inadvertently produced
 12 because apparently nobody is ponying up to 13 a reason why they're going to be used at 14 the hearing on Monday. So I'm happy to 15 move on.
 16 MR. KLAPPER: I'm sorry. What is your
 17 point?
 18 MR. BYMAN: You said this document was
 19 inadvertently produced. As near as I can
 20 tell from the testimony of these three
 21 witnesses, two of the witnesses have never
 22 seen most of these documents. Mr. Seickel
 23 has seen only small tiny portions of thick
 24 documents, and to the extent that he's 25 seen them, he just says, yep, those relate

2 trouble figuring out why we have these 600
3 pages -- excuse me -- 1,600 pages of
4 documents because it's my job to make sure
5 we don't get surprised on Monday.

6 MR. KLAPPER: I don't think you'll be
7 surprised. But these documents were only
8 produced --

9 MR. JONES: Bob, you're inviting further
10 conversation, but I didn't interpret it
11 that way. I didn't know.

12 MR. BYMAN: I'm inviting you to tell me
13 what the significance of these 1,600 pages
14 are so we can either stop wasting our time
15 or you can not sandbag us. Because either
16 we're being sandbagged or we're wasting
17 our time. I can't think of any other
18 reason why we've had these 1,600 documents
19 given to us.

20 MR. KLAPPER: We're going to go off the 21 record for a second. I don't know if we
22 are on the record.

23 THE COURT REPORTER: Off the record.

1 Q. Next go to the next document, 112633 through
2 112671. What's the significance of that document,
3 Mr. Seickel?

4 A. 633 is just a process by which we are
5 retrieving the certain data from -- and I'm not clear
6 as to specifically which tapes. And I believe that 7 because of the time frame and what we were doing with
8 the database restores that it relates to the database
9 restores that we were doing, the database restores
10 that lead to finding the 169 tapes.

11 Same thing, same thing.

12 Q. You're flipping pages and saying same thing.

13 A. Meaning that each subject seems to relate to 14 the same thing I just spoke to you about. Do you want
15 me to relate each one?

16 Q. If all these documents do is say, yep, they 17 have words that relate to a subject we're talking
18 about --

19 A. Then we can skip them. Should I just say no,
20 no additional?

21 Q. I just want to know if they add something to 22 your knowledge of the 169 issue or some other issue
23 that you've testified to or if they simply contain --

24 A. No, it doesn't add anything. From what I can 25 see, there's nothing in this one that adds to what

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

82

2/11/2005 1:49 PM

1 we've already discussed.

2 Q. All right. Does it help refine anything?

3 Does it help you pin down any dates in any way?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Does it change any of the substantive
6 testimony you've given about the 169 tapes?

7 A. Not that I can see.

8 Q. Okay. Let's move to the next document. This 9 is 112602 to 112632.

10 A. 605 -- 605 seems to relate to communications
11 with NDCI regarding read errors, tapes that were 12 identified with read errors that had to be redone.

13 Q. And what's the significance of that?

14 A. The significance, as in my mind, would be 15 giving an idea of the processing time for the project.

16 Q. Is there anything from that document that 17 allowed you to tell how much processing time was 18 consumed as a result of read errors?

19 A. Not -- no. You couldn't quantify it. Just 20 that it would give you an idea of the -- an 21 explanation of it.

22 Q. So it would let you know that that was a
23 potential issue, but you couldn't quantify the issue?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Is there anything in the document that allows

1 you to quantify it?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Is there anything else of significance in
4 that document?

5 MR. KLAPPER: And I just encourage you to
6 take a close look at it, make sure that 7 you're comfortable knowing what the
8 document says to be responsive.

9 THE WITNESS: I don't see anything
10 additional that would add to.

11 BY MR. BYMAN:

12 Q. All right. Thank you. Next we have 112593
13 through 601. And actually I think we've marked that
14 very document as an Exhibit 426. What significance do
15 you attach to that document?

16 A. The first page, which is 593 --

17 Q. Um-hum.

18 A. -- this was a question that came up in 19 discussions with Wray Stewart and Bruce Buchanan the 20 week I was sick, which was about two weeks ago, two 21 and a half weeks ago where they were processing these 22 IIM tapes, and they were normally -- these are 23 exchanged backups, backups of exchanged servers, mail
24 servers. And normally we do them as a database, but 25 for some reason there was a period of time where they

031541

1 weren't done as a database. They were done as a
2 mailbox level, which he's referring to as brick level.
3 And the reason why it came to Bruce's attention was
4 because as he was processing the tapes, these IIM
5 tapes, he was finding a low return of e-mails on those
6 tapes.

7 So they did some investigative work to
8 see, because they knew there was data on the tapes to 9 see what was going on, and they found that there was a
10 period of time that they had switched. And I'm not 11 sure if it was earlier part or later part, they had 12 switched the type of backup they were doing for these 13 e-mail servers. So -- and that's basically it. Just 14 a discussion of what he had to do and that he was 15 going to make sure that he was checking the tapes for 16 both.

17 Q. Is this an example of something that might
18 have slowed down NDCI's work?

19 A. Could you be more specific in relation to the 20 overall project or specific parts of the project?

21 Q. Well, suppose somebody had said to NDCI, and
22 I'm not suggesting they did, but suppose somebody said
23 to them, we need to produce all e-mail relevant to the 24 Morgan Stanley CPH lawsuit, and that means we need to 25 make sure --

1 that was duplicative?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Anything else of significance?

4 A. No. A couple of these e-mails look like they
5 were duplicated in one of the others. It was just
6 discussing the list that I sent them of the 169 tapes
7 and getting back a list from him of the creation dates
8 of those tapes. Other than that, no.

9 Q. The next?

10 A. I think there was another one under here.
11 Oh, maybe it's a copy.

12 Q. It's a copy of the same thing?

13 A. Do you want these back as well?

14 Q. Yes, please. We'll keep them together. The 15 next group of documents is production number 0112286
16 through 112493. I'll represent to you, sir, that the 17 thing that I earlier showed you as CPH 425 is a few
18 pages taken within that range that I culled out from 19 this group of documents as the minutes that were 20 produced of the e-mail archive group. But other than 21 those, I'd like you to tell me if there's anything of 22 significance in this package when your attorney has 23 had a chance to look at it. DLT's.

24 MR. KLAPPER: While the question is 25 pending, this is an instruction and

1 A. I don't think it's relevant. That's my
2 personal perspective on it. I don't believe that
3 these -- this piece of the project had anything to do
4 with it.

5 Q. Either for or against it?

6 A. I believe so.

7 Q. Okay. In part because the IIM tapes had 8 nothing to do with the investment banking side of the 9 business, right?

10 A. I think so.

11 Q. Is there anything else of significance in
12 Exhibit 426?

13 A. This is just confirming what we were doing --
14 not really. We had processed a couple of boxes. We 15 had retained boxes, two boxes of duplicate tapes from 16 NDCI prior to the e-mail archive project. So we were 17 doing another project prior to that. They supplied us
18 with duplicate tapes which we used instead of -- at 19 that point we were using DLT's instead of SDLT's, and 20 so we still had those tapes. Those were the two boxes
21 we sent to them to just have them review them to make 22 sure what was on the tape, on those tapes. Even 23 though we thought we knew what they were, we wanted to 24 make certain.

25 Q. So that was just a double-check of something

1 somewhat of an objection. It relates to
2 what you mean by significance, so I'll
3 object to vagueness as a general matter.

4 If you understand what that means, you can
5 answer the question.

6 THE WITNESS: I can't add any more as
7 far as this is, no, nothing notable in 8 addition.

9 BY MR. BYMAN:

10 Q. With respect to the minutes of the e-mail
11 archive group, which we separately culled out of that 12 last document and marked as Exhibit 425, there are,
13 and I may not have counted them accurately, but I
14 think minutes of nine meetings in that set. They 15 don't seem to be on any regular basis, and they seem 16 to skip gaps. For example, they go from May 20th to 17 June 18th, and then there's one on June 25th. How 18 regularly were these meetings held?

19 A. Typically they were scheduled for once a
20 week.

21 Q. Was there any week that stands out in your
22 mind as a week in which the meeting was cancelled?

23 A. Not that I recall. However, I didn't attend
24 every meeting.

25 Q. I understand. But you were copied on the 031542

1 distribution list for every meeting, right?
 2 A. I believe so.
 3 Q. Do you recall when the meetings began?
 4 A. The closest approximation would be in June,
 5 July time frame of 2003.
 6 Q. And do the meetings still continue to this
 7 day?
 8 A. No.
 9 Q. When did they stop?
 10 A. I don't recall.
 11 Q. Was it sometime in 2004?
 12 A. That would be a guess, but, I think that's 13 accurate.
 14 Q. Well, was there a meeting this year?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. And we know that there were meetings in 2004
 17 so it had to be sometime in 2004 if not this year,
 18 right?
 19 A. I agree.
 20 Q. Was it sometime after September of 2004,
 21 which is the last one we have in this group Exhibit?
 22 A. It sounds possible, but I'm not sure. I'm
 23 not absolutely sure.
 24 Q. Do you know if there's anyone charged with 25 actually maintaining the full set of minutes?

1 your previous testimony?
 2 A. No.
 3 MR. KLAPPER: Let him get the question out
 4 and let me get an objection in. The
 5 objection is vague and ambiguous.
 6 BY MR. BYMAN:
 7 Q. And your answer is no?
 8 A. No.
 9 Q. No, there's nothing else of significance?
 10 A. Correct.
 11 Q. Mr. Seickel, do you have any understanding as 12 to why Mr. Riel is no longer associated with the 13 e-mail archive project?
 14 A. No.
 15 Q. Do you have any understanding of whether he
 16 left amicably or was dismissed?
 17 A. Explain further what you mean by that.
 18 Q. Well, let me represent to you, sir, that 19 Ms. Gorman testified that he was placed on 20 administrative leave by Morgan Stanley and that he was 21 removed from his position in charge of this project
 22 both because of questions of integrity and competence.
 23 You don't have to accept her testimony. I'm just 24 representing to you that that's what she said.
 25 A. I do know that the ownership of the e-mail

 3 (Telephonic interruption)
 4 MR. KLAPPER: Could you -- I'm sorry. I
 5 was distracted by the cell phone
 6 (The record was read as requested.)
 7 BY MR. BYMAN:
 8 Q. The last, and I'm very happy to use the word
 9 the last set of documents in this stack is production
 10 number 0112494 through 112592. After your attorney
 11 has had a chance to look at it please tell me what the 12 significance of that document is.
 13 A. I mean, the only significance of 494 is that 14 we're paying our bills. Well, actually the bottom of 15 the page on that 494 just relates to the communication
 16 with NDCI/Bruce Buchanan who works for NDCI that a
 17 list was sent to him, and it relates to the 169 tapes.
 18 And I think we've covered that already, so that's not
 19 really significant.
 20 Q. Does this add anything --
 21 A. Let me go through the rest.
 22 Q. I'm sorry.
 23 A. Just let me go through the rest.
 24 Q. While we're on the subject of the 169, does
 25 anything you have looked at add to delete or modify

1 archive was transferred to Allison Gorman. That's
 2 what I know for a fact.
 3 Q. And you don't know of any other reasons for
 4 it?
 5 A. No.
 6 Q. Have you had any contact with Mr. Riel since
 7 August of 2004?
 8 A. I'm not sure -- I know I have not had contact
 9 with him for at least six or seven months, since
 10 before September of '04. I'm not sure if that was 11 August or much earlier.
 12 Q. What was your last contact with him?
 13 A. Any contact that I would have had with him
 14 would have been in the e-mail archive meeting, and it
 15 would be the last one we both attended.
 16 Q. So it would have been a business contact?
 17 A. Correct.
 18 Q. Do you have any idea where Mr. Riel is today?
 19 A. No.
 20 Q. Do you have any understanding as to whether
 21 he's still a Morgan Stanley employee?
 22 A. No, I don't.
 23 Q. Mr. Seickel, what steps, if any, are you
 24 aware of that Morgan Stanley has made to make sure
 25 that there are no more as yet undiscovered backup

1 tapes that contain e-mail?
2 A. It's my understanding working with
3 John Pamula that he's performed an exhaustive search
4 of everything on site at Morgan Stanley, on Morgan
5 Stanley premises, and he's requested everything from
6 Recall, and Recall has complied with our request.
7 That's the extent.

8 Q. And when did Mr. Pamula undertake that job?

9 A. As part of the e-mail archive process he
10 started it, but we, again, reiterated it with Recall
11 recently in regard to the 169 tapes.

12 Q. And that was done in mid January?

13 A. In January, correct.

14 Q. I'm sorry. Mid January?

15 A. Correct.

16 MR. BYMAN: Thank you, Mr. Seickel. That's 17 all I have.

18 THE WITNESS: No problem.

Subject: Email archive meeting minutes 5/8/04

Attendees: Kay Gunn, Bruce Buchanan, Annaline Dinkelman, John Pamula and Wray Stewart

Restore status:

- Emails restored – 307,427,169
- Total size of emails restored – 13,671.5 GB
- Email data archived – 3.666 TB Compressed

- Tapes shipped to NDCI – 34,291
- Tapes processed – 32,832
- Output (SDLT) tapes received – 124 SDLT
- Output (SDLT) tapes restored – 114 SDLT

- Number of tapes not containing any user mail – 9,107 DLT
- Number of DLT tapes with read errors – 1,519 DLT

Pending Items:

1. Seventy broken DLT tapes were reported by NDCI. Glenn Seickel to follow-up with Bois to see if those tapes can be repaired.
2. 1024 unlabeled tapes were found in the Brooklyn security room. Wray Stewart/Glenn to investigate the origin on the tapes.
3. 150 DLT tapes have conflicting internal and external labels. NDCI will process tapes using the internal labels and change the external to reflect the internal label.
4. Per Arthur Riel, we will start processing the IIM DLT tapes after the Veritas DLT tapes are complete. The 8mm tapes will be processed after the IIM DLT tapes.
5. Arthur Riel requested a restore of all NA emails for three dates in 2003. Kay Gunn and John Pamula to provide timeframe for identifying the required tapes and performing the restores. Per Donald Haight, EI should begin the restores when the 1999-2002 email restore project is complete. In the interim, EI will complete a test restore of data against one of our test servers.
 - 2/26/04 the following dates were requested:
 - 1) 2/15/03 - 2/18/03 – Full backup
 - 2) 5/22/03 Incremental backup
 - 3) 10/30/03 Incremental backup
 - 3/4/04 Due to space issues, the tape restores will be placed on hold until the 1999-2002 email archive is complete, so that we may leverage the NetApp to restore the data.
5. NDCI is receiving more read errors than expected on the DLT tapes and have purchased a DLT tape cleaning and retention unit to help address this issue. NDCI will run each error tape through the DLT tape cleaning and retention device for free, but will charge an additional fee of $150 to extract all readable data from each DLT error tape not addressed by the cleaner and retention unit. Error tapes will be addressed after the 1999-2002 email archive project.
6. IIM has 2,200 Exchange DLT tapes to restore. NDCI has provided a cost estimate of $150 per tape. This project is scheduled to start after the 1999-2002 email archives in completed. MER 9MEV191 was approved for this project.

Restore status:

- Emails restored – 310,613,395
- Total size of emails restored – 13,922.64 GB
- Email data archived – 3.82TB Compressed

- Tapes shipped to NDCI – 34,415
- Tapes processed – 33,920
- Output (SDLT) tapes received – 139 SDLT
- Output (SDLT) tapes restored – 120 SDLT

- Number of tapes not containing any user mail – 9,732 DLT
- Number of DLT tapes with read errors – 1,755 DLT

Pending Items:

1. NDCI reported that 70 DLT tapes are missing their leaders. NDCI will provide the cost to repair and restore each tape.
2. A few 2002 emails were archived without their message body. Donald Haight to provide John Pamula and Wray Stewart with the list of the SDLT tapes to rescan.
3. 1,421 DLT tapes were found in the Brooklyn security room. John Pamula to ship tapes to NDCI for processing.
4. Per Arthur Riel, we will start processing the IIM DLT tapes after the Veritas DLT tapes are complete. The 8mm tapes will be processed after the IIM DLT tapes.
5. Arthur Riel requested a restore of all NA emails for three dates in 2003. Kay Gunn and John Pamula to provide timeframe for identifying the required tapes and performing the restores. Per Donald Haight, EI should begin the restores when the 1999-2002 email restore project is complete. In the interim, EI will complete a test restore of data against one of our test servers.
 - 2/26/04 the following dates were requested:
 - 1) 2/15/03 - 2/18/03 – Full backup
 - 2) 5/22/03 Incremental backup
 - 3) 10/30/03 Incremental backup
 - 3/4/04 Due to space issues, the tape restores will be placed on hold until the 1999-2002 email archive is complete, so that we may leverage the NetApp to restore the data.
5. NDCI is receiving more read errors than expected on the DLT tapes and have purchased a DLT tape cleaning and retention unit to help address this issue. NDCI will run each error tape through the DLT tape cleaning and retention device for free, but will charge an additional fee of $150 to extract all readable data from each DLT error tape not addressed by the cleaner and retention unit. Hey Arthur

We looked at the "found" tapes we were able to restore and 90 of them had mail. We got the label (internal) off 4 of them and the dates are 5/12/99, 5/14/99, 8/03/99, and 2/18/01. Obviously there is pre 2000 mail.

We also catalogued 2 of the 8mm test tapes we have and the dates on those are 6/16/98 and 6/7/98 so again there is pre 2000 mail there.

If you need any more info please let me know.

We are now extracting "PSTs" from the "EDBs" and converting the "PSTs" to "IMAP" messages which seems to be working. Obviously this required changing all the setups and processing steps and some programming changes.

We probably lost about 3 weeks on the "IIM" tapes due to this program's inability to perform what it is purported to do. As of yesterday we started processing again. Naturally we backed out all tapes we had processed as there was no way to know which were affected and which weren't.

Wray, Please let me know if you require further information or would like me to discuss in more detail.

Subject: Brooklyn "found" tapes

Hi Wray,

Following is information requested at yesterday's meeting regarding the "Brooklyn found" tapes.

Attached is a spreadsheet showing which output SDLTs contain mail from these tapes and which session they are on the tapes. (They were not written to a single SDLT).

Numbers:

Number of tapes processed - 448

Number that had mail data - 112

Total messages processed - 16,822,791

Total unique messages written to SDLTs - 2,183,331

Number of tapes with read errors (final) - 124

Also, the tapes that were damaged have been sent to you. I will e-mail you later regarding the "IIM" exchange tape problems we had.

Let me know if you need anything further,
Have a nice weekend!

- Number of tapes not containing any user mail – 11,209 DLT
- Number of DLT tapes with read errors – 1,948 DLT

Attendees: Bruce Buchanan, Annaline Dinkelman, John Pamula and Wray Stewart.

Pending Items:

1. NDCI experienced issues while processing the IIM Exchange mail tapes, which caused ~3 weeks in processing time. They have refined their process to get around the issue and are currently processing.
2. NDCI reported that 70 DLT tapes are missing their tape leader. Imitation requested that we ship the tapes to their site for repair.
3. 738 8mm tapes are scheduled to be processed after the IIM tapes.
4. 1,423 DLT tapes were found in the Brooklyn security room. Tapes were shipped to NDCI to be processed.
 - Arthur Riel has requested that we provide emails restore from the 1,423 DLT tapes on a separate SDLT tape.
5. Arthur Riel requested a restore of all NA emails for three dates in 2003. Per Donald Haight, EI should begin the restores when the 1999-2002 email restore project is complete. In the interim, EI will complete a test restore of data against one of our test servers.
 - 2/26/04 the following dates were requested:
 - 1) 2/15/03 - 2/18/03 – Full backup
 - 2) 5/22/03 Incremental backup
 - 3) 10/30/03 Incremental backup
 - 3/4/04 Due to space issues, the tape restores will be placed on hold until the 1999-2002 email archive is complete, so that we may leverage the NetApp to restore the data.
6. 1,947 DLT tapes are still reporting errors that were not addressed by the DLT tape cleaning and retention device. NDCI will charge an additional fee of $150 to extract all readable data from each of the error DLT. Error tapes will be addressed after the 1999-2002 email archive project.

IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY,
FLORIDA

COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS, INC.,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CASE NO: CA 03-5045 AI

MORGAN STANLEY & CO. INCORPORATED,

Defendant.

MORGAN STANLEY'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Defendant Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ("Morgan Stanley"), by and through its attorneys, respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.350(b), compelling Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. ("CPH") to produce MAFCO's non-financial statements and general ledger entries reflecting the "accounting value" or "book value" that MAFCO placed on its Sunbeam investment. Morgan Stanley has only recently learned of the existence of such documents, which are highly relevant to CPH's estimate of its damages in this case and have been subject to an outstanding discovery request for over a year and a half. CPH, has steadfastly refused to produce the documents. Accordingly, Morgan Stanley respectfully requests that the Court enter an order compelling production.

In support of its motion, Morgan Stanley states as follows:

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. On July 14, 2003, a little over two months after the Complaint was first filed, Morgan Stanley served its first set of discovery requests upon CPH. (See July 14, 2003 Morgan Stanley's 1st Req. for Prod. of Docs. to Plf. (Ex. 1).) Amongst these initial requests, Morgan Stanley specifically requested "[a]ll documents reflecting, referring, or relating to the value of Sunbeam securities." (Id. at Req. 9)

68854

NOT A CERTIFIED COPY

031584

2. Initially, CPH attempted to “interpret” this request so as to narrowly focus on “the market valuation of Sunbeam securities.” (See Aug. 15, 2003 CPH’s Resp. to Morgan Stanley’s 1st Req. for Prod. of Docs. (Ex. 2).) Morgan Stanley objected, noting that this limitation would of course “exclude ... other valuations of Sunbeam’s securities, such as CPH’s internal valuations.” (See Aug. 27, 2003 Letter from K. DeBord to M. Brody at 2 (Ex. 3) (emphasis added).) Morgan Stanley asked CPH to reconsider the objection and inquired as to whether CPH had withheld any documents based on it. (Id.) In response, CPH represented that it was investigating its production regarding this request, and over a month later, agreed to produce documents responsive to the request without regard to the previous objection. (See Sept. 12, 2003 M. Brody Letter to K. DeBord (Ex. 4); Oct. 8, 2003 M. Brody Letter to K. DeBord (Ex. 5).)

3. Subsequently, over a year later, Morgan Stanley learned that MAFCO maintained non-public financial statements with general ledger entries for Sunbeam investments that reflected MAFCO’s estimation of the “accounting value” or “book value” of those investments, which had been audited by Coleman’s auditors at Ernst & Young. For example, at the deposition of Lawrence Winoker, Morgan Stanley learned that CPH had recorded a $41.7 million accounting value on its non-public financial statements for the Sunbeam settlement warrants as part of a December 1998 audit even though a MAFCO executive had previously testified under oath that such shares were worthless. (Nov. 18, 2004 Winoker Dep. at 51 (Ex. 6).) Mr. Gittis confirmed this fact and explained that the financial recognition of Sunbeam investments would “always go[] up to the parent” and be reflected in MAFCO’s non-public financial statements. (Nov. 19, 2004 Gittis Dep. at 188-90 (Ex. 7).)

4. Soon thereafter, Morgan Stanley’s counsel requested that CPH immediately remedy its failure to produce these documents in response to its longstanding requests. (See

Nov. 22, 2004 K. DeBord Letter to M. Brody (Ex. 8).) CPH provided a general ledger entry specifying the value that MAFCO had recognized for the Sunbeam settlement warrants, but refused to produce the non-public financial statements and failed to provide any general ledger entries for the Sunbeam shares it had originally received. (See Nov. 24, 2004 CPH's Resps. & Objs. to Morgan Stanley's 8th Req. for Prod. of Docs. (Ex. 9).)

5. After it became apparent that CPH's experts would offer opinion testimony as to the value of the Sunbeam shares and that CPH also likely had general ledger entries for those shares (as it did with the warrants), Morgan Stanley requested that CPH remedy its ongoing discovery failure and produce the requested documents immediately. (See Feb. 3, 2005 L. Bemis Letter to M. Brody (Ex. 10).) Without challenging the existence or obvious relevance of such documents, CPH refused to produce any additional responsive documents. (See Feb. 11, 2005 M. Brody Letter to L. Bemis.)

ARGUMENT

6. MAFCO's non-financial statements and general ledger entries reflecting the "accounting value" or "book value" that MAFCO placed on its Sunbeam investment during the relevant time period are properly discoverable and highly relevant to CPH's claim for billions of dollars of damages as a result of the Sunbeam fraud. Indeed, the value of the 14.1 million Sunbeam shares that CPH received as part of Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman is one of the most significant damages issues in this case. "In cases involving a fraudulent sale of stock," under either an out-of-pocket or "benefit-of-the-bargain" measure of damages, CPH "must prove the actual value" of the Sunbeam shares it received. Totale, Inc. v. Smith, 877 So. 2d 813, 815 (Fla. 4th DCA 2004) (internal quotations & citation omitted). Moreover, if the "benefit-of-the-bargain" measure of damages applies, CPH must establish the expected value of the Sunbeam shares at the time of the acquisition. Accordingly, the value that MAFCO placed on its Sunbeam shares at the time of the transaction, after the Sunbeam fraud was revealed, and up to and through the bankruptcy is directly relevant to damages issues in this case.

7. Moreover, the expeditious production of the requested documents would impose little to no burden upon CPH. From the general ledger entries for the Sunbeam settlement warrants previously produced, it appears that CPH was able to simply run a report with specified parameters in its financial database to generate a printout of the requested information. The report was run at 4:00 p.m. on November 23, 2004, and CPH was able to produce it to Morgan Stanley less than 24 hours later. There is no reason that CPH could not simply generate another report for the value of the Sunbeam shares it received and produce the results within a similar amount of time.

CONCLUSION

Morgan Stanley respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.350(b), compelling Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. to produce MAFCO's non-financial statements and general ledger entries reflecting the "accounting value" or "book value" that MAFCO placed on its Sunbeam investment during the relevant time period. Moreover, as a result of CPH's failure to produce these documents for over a year and a half, Morgan Stanley should be awarded its attorney fees and costs, pursuant to Rules 1.350(b); 1.380(a)(1), (4), incurred in presenting this motion.

Defendant.

MORGAN STANLEY & CO. INCORPORATED'S FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS TO PLAINTIFF

Pursuant to Rules 1.280 and 1.350 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ("MS & Co.") requests that plaintiff produce the documents and things referred to in the following specific requests. The specific requests are preceded by Instructions and Definitions which shall govern the specific requests. Documents and things responsive to these requests should be produced to counsel for Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated at the law firm of Carlton Fields, P.A., 222 Lakeview Avenue, Suite 1200, West Palm Beach, FL 33401, within the time required by Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.350(b) or as otherwise agreed to by the parties or specified by the Court.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The connectives "and" and "or" shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.

26. "Synergies" means post-acquisition gains through increased revenue and/or decreased cost.

27. The terms "you" or "your" means "CPH" as defined in Definition 7.

DOCUMENTS TO BE PRODUCED

1. All documents concerning the negotiation, signing, and implementation of the February 27, 1998 Agreements.

2. All documents referring or relating to the Coleman Transaction.

3. All documents reflecting, referring, or relating to communications between CPH and MS & Co. regarding the Coleman Transaction.

4. All documents reflecting, referring, or relating to communications between CPH and its Advisors regarding the Coleman Transaction.

5. All documents referring or relating to the December 1997 Meeting.

6. All documents supporting your allegation that MS & Co. knew about accounting irregularities at Sunbeam.

7. All documents supporting your allegation that MS & Co. developed a "strategy" to "conceal" Sunbeam's accounting fraud.

8. All documents referring or relating to Arthur Andersen's 1996 and 1997 audit of Sunbeam, including without limitation any review, investigation, analysis, and due diligence of the audit conducted by CPH personnel or its Advisors.

9. All documents reflecting, referring, or relating to the value of Sunbeam securities.

10. All documents referring or relating to the January-February 1998 discussions between representatives of CPH and MS & Co. referred to in your complaint.

CPH'S RESPONSE TO MORGAN STANLEY & CO. INCORPORATED'S FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Plaintiff Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. ("CPH"), by its attorneys and pursuant to Florida Rules of Civil Procedure 1.280 and 1.350, hereby responds and objects to Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated's ("Morgan Stanley") First Request for Production of Documents to Plaintiff ("Requests for Production") dated July 15, 2003:

INITIAL OBJECTIONS

1. CPH objects to the Requests for Production, including all Definitions and Instructions, to the extent that they purport to impose upon CPH any requirements that exceed or are inconsistent with the requirements of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure or any other applicable rule or court order. For example, CPH will not comply with Instructions Nos. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 16 or Definitions Nos. 9 and 15 to the extent that they purport to impose on CPH obligations that are not required by Florida rules and case law. CPH will comply with the applicable rules and law.

RESPONSE: Subject to and without waiving the foregoing Initial Objections, CPH will produce documents responsive to this request.

REQUEST NO. 7: All documents supporting your allegation that MS & Co. developed a "strategy" to "conceal" Sunbeam's accounting fraud.

RESPONSE: Subject to and without waiving the foregoing Initial Objections, CPH will produce documents responsive to this request.

REQUEST NO. 8: All documents referring or relating to Arthur Andersen's 1996 and 1997 audit of Sunbeam, including without limitation any review, investigation, analysis, and due diligence of the audit conducted by CPH personnel or its advisors.

RESPONSE: CPH objects to this request as overbroad. CPH interprets this request to seek documents relating to any review, investigation, analysis, and due diligence by CPH personnel or CPH's advisors of Arthur Andersen's 1996 and 1997 audit of Sunbeam. Subject to and without waiving this objection or the foregoing Initial Objections, and consistent with CPH's interpretation of this request, CPH will produce documents responsive to this request.

REQUEST NO. 9: All documents reflecting, referring, or relating to the value of Sunbeam securities.

RESPONSE: CPH objects to the phrase "reflecting, referring, or relating to the value" as vague and ambiguous. CPH interprets this request to seek documents referring or relating to the market valuation of Sunbeam securities. Subject to and without waiving these objections or the foregoing Initial Objections, and consistent with CPH's interpretation of this request, CPH will produce documents responsive to this request.

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc.
MSSF v. MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings Inc. et al.

Dear Mike:

I write regarding your responses and objections to MS & Co.'s and MSSF's First Request for Production of Documents, which were served on August 15, 2003.

I first address your responses and objections to MS & Co.'s Request for Production. I then address your responses and objections to MSSF's Request for Production, to the extent that those responses and objections are unique to MSSF.

Initial Objections to MS & Co.'s First Request for Production of Documents:

1. Initial Objection 1.

You stated in your Initial Objection Number 1 that you would not comply with MS & Co.'s and MSSF's instructions 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 16 to the extent that they exceed or are inconsistent with applicable law. You objected, for example, to MS & Co. and MSSF's instruction number 11, which states: "[i]f the requested documents are maintained in a file, the file folder is included in the request for production of those documents." Likewise, instruction 16 directs that "[u]nless otherwise specified, this Request calls for the production of documents created, delivered, distributed, sent, received, accessed or modified up to the date of your response to this Request." Do you intend to withhold documents (or copies of file folders) based on your objections to any of the enumerated instructions? If so, please inform us promptly what documents you plan to withhold.

In addition, you objected to Definitions 9 (defining "documents") and 15 (defining "identify") to the extent they impose requirements that exceed or are inconsistent with the applicable rules. Do you intend to withhold documents based on your objections to these definitions? If so, please inform us promptly what documents you plan to withhold.

2. Initial Objection 3.

You narrowed MS & Co. and MSSF's definition of the "Coleman Transaction" to exclude "all related communications, agreements, and transactions, including the February 27, 1998 Agreements and the March 30, 1998 closing." We do not accept this limitation and ask you to reconsider.

Responses and Further Objections to MS & Co.'s First Request for Production

1. Request No. 1.

You objected to Request No. 1 on the grounds that the term "implementation" is vague and ambiguous, and you construed "implementation" to refer to the closing of the transaction by which CPH transferred its interest in the Coleman Company to Sunbeam. Your objection is unclear. "Implementation" means "to put into effect," and we are not sure what, if any, documents you are withholding based on your construction. Please inform us if you intend to withhold documents based on your objection.

2. Request No. 8.

Request No. 8 asks for all documents referring or relating to Arthur Andersen's 1996 and 1997 audit of Sunbeam. You construed this request as seeking only those documents relating to any review, investigation, analysis, and due diligence of Arthur Andersen's audit by CPH personnel or advisors of CPH. MS & Co. does not accept your limitation, which excludes documents created by non-CPH entities concerning Arthur Andersen's audit that are equally relevant to this litigation. We ask you to withdraw your objection and limitation. In addition, have you withheld documents based on this objection from your production?

3. Request No. 9.

You construed this request, seeking all documents reflecting, referring or relating to the value of Sunbeam securities, as seeking only those documents referring or relating to the market valuation of Sunbeam securities. This limitation excludes other valuations of Sunbeam securities, such as CPH's internal valuations. Furthermore, your own requests 13 (in the MS & Co. action) and 47 (in the MSSF action) seek "[a]ll documents concerning any valuation of Sunbeam or Sunbeam securities," and yet you object to our request -- seeking the very same types of documents -- as "vague and ambiguous." We ask you to reconsider. In addition, have you withheld documents based on this objection from your production?

031602

4. Request No. 15.

Request 15 seeks "All documents referring or relating to any review, investigation, analysis, or due diligence of Sunbeam conducted by CPH or its Advisors..." You limited this request to seek only those documents referring or relating to any review, investigation, etc. concerning the valuation of Sunbeam or Sunbeam securities. This limitation changes the substance of this request and would exclude documents relating to any investigation, analysis, etc. of Sunbeam not necessarily related to the valuation of Sunbeam or Sunbeam Securities. In addition, your own requests 3 (in the MS & Co. action) and 43 (in the MSSF action) are virtually identical to our request. We ask you to withdraw your objection to this request and your limitation of this request. In addition, please inform us if you have withheld documents from your production based on your objection.

5. Request. No. 16.

You limited this request to the due diligence performed by CPH or its Advisors in connection with the transfer of CPH's interest in The Coleman Company to Sunbeam and CPH's general due diligence guidelines or policies. We ask that you also produce to us all due diligence-related materials provided to you by your financial advisors (including general due diligence guidelines or policies). In addition, please inform us if you have withheld documents from your production based on your objection.

7. Request No. 28.

You state in your objection to this request that, due to the manner in which Morgan Stanley has chosen to define "your," there are no documents responsive to this request. Please explain what this means. In addition, your objection to this request for organizational charts limits your production to documents sufficient to show the ownership relationship among CPH and its corporate subsidiaries at the time of the February 27, 1998 Agreements. We object to this limitation, which would exclude documents showing your organizational structure, your corporate relationship, and the reporting relationships within your corporation prior to and post February 27, 1998. We ask you to withdraw your objection and limitation. In addition, please inform us if you have withheld documents from your production based on your objection.

8. Request 31.

You limited our requests for the calendars and dayplanners of "Ronald Perelman, Howard Gittis, William Nesbitt, Lorelie Borland, Steve Fasman, and James Maher from December 1997 through March 1998" to calendar entries that also relate to the "transaction by which CPH transferred its interest in The Coleman Company to Sunbeam." We do not accept this limitation and ask you to withdraw your limitation and objection. In addition, please inform us if you have withheld documents based on your objection.

9. Request No. 32.

With regard to your objections to and enumerated limitations of this request, do you intend to withhold documents otherwise responsive to this request? If so, what documents?

10. Request No. 33.

12. Request No. 35.

With regard to your objections to and enumerated limitations of this request, do you intend to withhold documents otherwise responsive to this request? If so, what documents?

13. Request No. 40.

With regard to your objection to producing documents relating to the settlement agreement between CPH and Arthur Andersen, please provide to us the provisions specifying the circumstances under which the terms of the settlement agreement can be disclosed.

Initial Objections to MSSF's First Request for Production of Documents

2. Initial Objection No. 3

I refer you to Initial Objection No. 3 in the MS & Co. action discussed above.

3. Initial Objection No. 6.

MSSF defined "MAFCO" to mean "MacAndrews & Forbes and any of its officers, directors, former or present employees, representatives and agents." You objected to this definition as "vague and ambiguous" and limited the definition of "MAFCO" to "MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings Inc." You made this limitation despite the fact that you have rejected our efforts to narrow your own definitions of corporate entities and despite the fact that your own requests define "MAFCO" to mean "MacAndrews & Forbes or any of their present and former officers, directors, employees, representatives, and agents." We ask you to withdraw this objection and limitation.

Responses and Further Objections to MSSF's First Request for Production

1. Request No. 1.

I refer you to Request No. 1 in the MS & Co. action discussed above.

2. Request No. 6.

There appears to be a typographical error in your response to Request No. 6. Please confirm that, subject to your objections, CPH and MAFCO will produce all documents referring or relating to the December 1997 meeting.

3. Request No. 8.

I refer you to Request No. 15 in the MS & Co. action discussed above.

4. Request No. 9.

Request 9 seeks "All documents referring or relating to any review, investigation, analysis, or due diligence of Sunbeam conducted by MAFCO or its Advisors..." You limited this request to seek only those documents referring or relating to any review, investigation, etc. concerning the valuation of Sunbeam or Sunbeam securities. This limitation changes the substance of this request and would exclude documents relating to any investigation, analysis, etc. of Sunbeam not necessarily related to the valuation of Sunbeam or Sunbeam Securities. addition, your own Request 3 (in the MS & Co. action) and Request 43 (in the MSSF action) is virtually identical to our request. We ask you to withdraw your objection to this request and your limitation of this request. In addition, please inform us if you have withheld documents from your production based on this objection.

5. Request No. 15.

Your response to this request is ambiguous. Do you intend to withhold documents responsive to this request? If so, please identify those documents.

6. Request No. 22.

You construed this request, seeking all documents reflecting the value of Coleman stock, as seeking only those documents reflecting the market valuation of Coleman stock. This limitation excludes other valuations of Coleman stock, such as internal CPH valuations. Furthermore, your own requests 15 (in the MS & Co. action) and 49 (in the MSSF action) seek "[a]ll documents concerning any valuation of Coleman or Coleman securities," and yet you object to our own request -- seeking the very same types of documents -- as "vague and ambiguous." We ask you to withdraw your objections to and limitations of this request. In addition, please inform us if you have withheld documents based on your objection.

7. Request 30.

Your objection to this request for organizational charts limits your production to documents sufficient to show the ownership relationship among CPH and its corporate subsidiaries the time of the February 27, 1998 Agreements. We object to this limitation, which would exclude documents showing CPH and MAFCO's organizational structure, CPH and MAFCO's corporate relationship, and CPH and MAFCO's reporting relationships prior to and post February 27, 1998. We ask you to withdraw this objection and limitation. In addition, please inform us if you have withheld documents based on your objection.

In addition, of the boxes of documents that you "made available" to us for review, we found that very few of those boxes of documents actually contained CPH or MAFCO documents. The overwhelming majority of those documents were our own documents, third-party documents, or documents from the prior litigations and other related actions. Will your next production include more CPH/MAFCO documents? When can we expect your next production?

Re: *Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co.
Morgan Stanley Senior Funding v. MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings Inc., et al.

Dear Kathryn:

I write in response to your letter of August 27, 2003 concerning CPH's objections and responses to Morgan Stanley's first requests for production of documents and CPH's and Mafco's objections and responses to MSSF's first requests for production of documents.

Objections and Responses to Morgan Stanley's Requests For Production

Initial Objection 1. CPH and Mafco produced to Morgan Stanley and MSSF over a million pages of documents within 30 days of receiving your documents requests. We have made every effort to provide complete and accurate responses in accordance with the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. To the extent Morgan Stanley seeks to impose additional burdens or requirements that exceed or are inconsistent with the Florida Rules, we advised you that CPH and Mafco will not comply with your additional demands. Morgan Stanley has lodged many of the same objections to our document requests, including its General Objections Nos. 3, 5, 8, and 10.

You have inquired whether we intend to withhold documents based upon our objections to your instructions and definitions. To the extent your requests call for the production of documents protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine, we intend to withhold documents that otherwise would be responsive, as we state in our Initial Objection 2. We will comply with the stipulation entered by the court regarding the production of privilege logs. We stand on our objection that Instructions 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 16, and Definitions 9 and 15 (Morgan Stanley) and 11 and 17 (MSSF) go beyond the requirements of applicable law. We will address these in turn.

Instructions No. 3 and 8: CPH and Mafco will produce all documents in their possession, custody, or control as required by the Florida Rules. We have produced documents originally in the possession of CPH's prior counsel. We note that Morgan Stanley is willing to produce documents in the possession of certain of its counsel, but not others. You have been unwilling to explain your inconsistent position with respect to documents in the possession of third parties.

031610

Kathryn R. DeBord, Esq.
September 12, 2003
Page 2

JENNER & BLOCK

See Brody to Clare letter, August 20, 2003. CPH and Mafco will not withhold documents on the basis of these objections.

Instruction No. 4: In response to specific document requests, we have identified ambiguities in your requests and have provided the construction we used in our responses to those ambiguous requests. Unless noted in response to a specific request, CPH and Mafco will not withhold documents on the basis of this initial objection.

Instruction No. 5: We will produce a privilege log in accordance with the Florida Rules and in the manner stipulated to by the parties, as entered by the Court on September 4, 2003.

Instruction 6: We object to the production of documents where production would be unduly burdensome. We have not interposed this objection in response to any of your specific requests and therefore will not withhold any documents on the basis of this objection.

Instruction 7: We will produce documents in redacted form when necessary to prevent the production of privileged communications, work product, or non-responsive information in accordance with the Florida Rules. CPH and Mafco will not otherwise withhold documents on the basis of this objection.

Instructions 9 and 10: CPH and Mafco have not withheld documents on the basis of these objections.

Instruction 11: This instruction seeks the production of documents protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine. CPH and Mafco will not produce file folders that were created by Jenner & Block, and which therefore constitute work product.

Instruction 16: This instruction is exceptionally broad, and seeks documents over a longer time frame than is encompassed by Morgan Stanley's or MSSF's responses. We invite you to propose a reasonable time frame for your requests.

Morgan Stanley Definition 9 / MSSF Definition 11: CPH and Mafco stand on their objection to the definition of "documents" to the extent the definition is inconsistent with their obligations under the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. CPH and Mafco will not withhold any documents based on these objections.

Morgan Stanley Definition 15 / MSSF Definition 17: We objected to your definition of "identify," and your August 27 letter does not offer any explanation of the term. We note, however, that this term, although defined, is not used in your document requests.

Initial Objection 3. We remain unwilling to accept Morgan Stanley's definition of "Coleman Transaction." You have defined that term to mean "Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman Company, Inc. from CPH," which did not occur, and further to include other "related agreements and transactions," which we do not understand. In our objection, we explained that we would 031611

Kathryn R. DeBord, Esq.
September 12, 2003

produce documents concerning the transaction that actually took place. What more are you interested in receiving?

Morgan Stanley Request No. 1. We objected to the use of the term "implementation." We explained that we would construe that term to mean the closing of the transaction. We further explained that if you meant the term to mean the actual integration of the companies, those documents were encompassed by your Request 26, which seeks "all documents concerning potential or actual integration of Coleman, First Alert, and/or Signature Brands with Sunbeam . . ." Your attempt to clarify your Request by defining "implementation" to mean "to put into effect" is unhelpful and does not allow us to further respond to this Request. Based on our construction of Requests 1 and 26, we believe we have fully responded to your requests.

Morgan Stanley Request No. 8. CPH stands on its objection and response to this Request. CPH will not withhold documents based on this objection.

Morgan Stanley Request No. 9. We are investigating our production regarding this request, and we will respond under separate cover.

Morgan Stanley Request No. 15. This Request sought information concerning due diligence, which we agreed to provide. It continues to state: "including without limitation" documents reflecting all "Financial Information" CPH ever obtained about Sunbeam. As we understand your definition, the request for "Financial Information" is broader than the request for due diligence information, in which it is supposedly encompassed. We have not withheld any documents responsive to what we understand this request to seek – due diligence. The further request, for all Financial Information, is overbroad.

Morgan Stanley Request No. 16. In this request, you sought various due diligence materials. We agreed to provide exactly what you have agreed to provide: documents relating to due diligence for this transaction, and general due diligence materials. We are not providing (nor are you) due diligence materials from other transactions. Why are you entitled to receive documents you are not willing to produce to us? Do you intend to modify your prior response to our Request No. 43?

Morgan Stanley Request No. 28. In response to this request, we offered to produce more documents than you requested. Morgan Stanley's definition of "your" was limited to "CPH." CPH does not have an organizational chart or a chart of reporting relationships, and therefore there are no documents responsive to this Request. Nonetheless, we responded by voluntarily producing documents sufficient to show the relationship of CPH with its corporate parent at the time of the February 27, 1998 Agreements. We specifically refer Morgan Stanley to the 10-Ks filed by the Coleman Co., Inc. in 1997 and 1998, which we produced, which explain the relationship between CPH and its parent and subsidiaries at all relevant times. We have also provided a written response describing corporate structure. CPH stands on its objections and response to this Request.

031612

Kathryn R. DeBord, Esq.
September 12, 2003

JENNER & BLOCK

Morgan Stanley Request No. 31. CPH produced redacted calendars responsive to this Request that include relevant entries. You apparently want calendar entries that have nothing to do with Coleman or Sunbeam. We invite you to explain what other information from these calendars you believe you are entitled to receive, and why.

Morgan Stanley Request Nos. 32-35. In response to these requests, we outlined precisely what we were producing. We are not producing documents that reflect attorney-client communications or work product from other litigation arising from the Sunbeam transaction. We invite you to explain what other documents you believe you are entitled to receive that we are not providing in our responses.

Morgan Stanley Request No. 40. As we explained in our response, CPH would be in violation of the terms of the settlement agreement between CPH and Arthur Andersen if CPH disclosed any of the terms of the settlement agreement. We therefore are unable to agree to your request to produce a portion of the agreement. We invite you to explain why you believe you are entitled to any portion of the settlement agreement and the legitimate purpose that would be served by disclosure of the terms of the settlement agreement.

Objections and Responses to MSSF's First Request for Production

Certain of the issues you raise relating to the MSSF requests are duplicative of the same issues you raise with regard to the Morgan Stanley requests. I will not repeat the discussion below of items I have already addressed.

Initial Objection No. 6. We objected to MSSF's definition of "MAFCO," because it is incorrect. CPH and Mafco will construe the definition to refer to MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings Inc. and any of its officers, directors, former or present employees, representatives, and agents. We are not withholding any documents based upon this definition, as corrected.

MSSF Request No. 6. Our response to Request No. 6 contained a typographical error. The response should read: "Defendants object to the multiple false premises contained in the request. Subject to and without waiving these objections and the foregoing Initial Objections, including without limitation defendants' objection to the term 'Schedule of Synergies,' CPH and Mafco will produce documents referring or relating to the December 1997 meeting."

MSSF Request No. 9. See our discussion of Morgan Stanley Request No. 15 above.

MSSF Request No. 15. We stand by our objection to this request. There was never any "decision" to make any such "representation," and therefore there are no documents responsive to this Request.

MSSF Request No. 22. We are investigating our production regarding this request, and we will respond under separate cover.

031613

Kathryn R. DeBord, Esq.
September 12, 2003

JENNER & BLOCK

MSSF Request No. 30. We have fully responded to this request. We have produced documents, as you request, sufficient to show the corporate relationships between the relevant entities at the relevant time. CPH and MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings Inc. do not have any organization charts of internal reporting relationships. Please advise me if you believe you are entitled to additional documents.

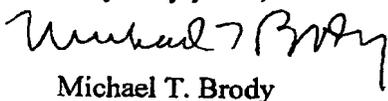

MSSF Request Nos. 37-42. In response to these requests, we outlined precisely what we were producing. We are not producing documents that reflect attorney-client communications or work product from other litigation arising from the Sunbeam transaction. We invite you to explain what other documents you believe you are entitled to receive that we are not providing in our responses.

* * *

Finally, you complain that we have not produced enough documents from CPH or Mafco. CPH and Mafco produced an extraordinary number of documents and other discovery materials to Morgan Stanley and MSSF. As we have advised you on several occasions, a majority of the documents in our production are documents we received from third parties arising from Sunbeam's fraudulent practices and related litigation. We have produced documents from our clients' files relating to the relevant topics. In stark contrast, Morgan Stanley and MSSF, two global financial and investment institutions, have produced a small number of documents and Morgan Stanley has been afforded almost four months to respond to our requests.

Please contact me if you would like to discuss any of these issues.

Very truly yours,

Michael T. Brody

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc.
*Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc. v. MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings Inc., et al.

Dear Kathryn:

I write in response to your letter of October 6, 2003. You request our position regarding documents concerning (1) the value of Sunbeam securities, (2) Financial Information, and (3) unredacted calendars.

1. Further to my September 12, 2003 letter to you, we have investigated Mafco's and CPH's productions and will produce additional documents responsive to Morgan Stanley's Request No. 9 (value of Sunbeam securities) and MSSF's Request No. 22 (value of Coleman stock).
2. As stated in my September 12, 2003 letter, Morgan Stanley's request for all Financial Information, as defined by you, is overbroad and goes beyond the documents sought in Request No. 15. CPH advised you in its document responses and in my prior letter that CPH has produced documents that are responsive to Request No. 15, which should resolve this issue.
3. We remain of the view that your request for unredacted calendar entries is an unwarranted invasion of privacy in search of documents that have no bearing on the issues in this case. Nonetheless, we will produce the unredacted calendar pages, subject to the protective order in this case. Our willingness to produce these documents stands in contrast to your refusal to produce the information we seek about the Morgan Stanley personnel who worked on the Sunbeam engagement. Notwithstanding your demand that we produce calendars of Mafco executives pertaining to events that are unrelated to the issues in this case, you have refused to produce documents showing whether the Morgan Stanley employees who worked on this deal were disciplined or rewarded for their actions, among other documents.

Very truly yours,

Michael T. Brody

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc.

Dear Mike:

Mr. Winoker and Mr. Gittis testified last week that, as of December, 1998, CPH valued the warrants it received from Sunbeam pursuant to the August 12, 1998 Settlement Agreement at $41.7 million. Mr. Winoker and Mr. Gittis also testified that CPH's $41.7 million valuation is reflected on CPH and/or MAFCO's non-public financial statements for the period ending December 1998. These financial statements are responsive to numerous document requests, including Morgan Stanley's First, Third, and Sixth Requests for Production. Please produce those documents immediately.

Sincerely,

Kathryn R. DeBord

IN THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS INC.,
Plaintiff,

CASE NO. CA 03-5045 AI

vs.

MORGAN STANLEY & CO., INC.,
Defendant.

COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS INC.'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO MORGAN STANLEY & CO. INCORPORATED'S
EIGHTH [SIC] REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. ("CPH"), by its attorneys, and pursuant to Rules 1.280 and 1.350 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and the Court's October 14, 2004 Order, objects and responds to Morgan Stanley & Co. Inc.'s ("Morgan Stanley's") Eighth [sic] Request for Production of Documents ("Requests for Production") as follows:

INITIAL OBJECTIONS

1. CPH objects to the Requests for Production, including all Definitions and Instructions, to the extent that they purport to impose upon CPH any requirements that exceed or are inconsistent with the requirements of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure or any other applicable rule or court order.

2. CPH objects to the Requests for Production to the extent that they seek the production of any documents or information protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, doctrine, immunity, or rule. CPH reserves the right to assert any and all privileges to which CPH is entitled under the law. CPH will provide a log of documents withheld from production on the basis of the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, doctrine, immunity, or rule.

3. CPH objects to Instruction 3 to the extent it purports to require CPH's counsel, consultants, and/or experts in this litigation to produce documents. CPH interprets Instruction No. 3 to exclude CPH's counsel, consultants, and experts in this litigation.

4. CPH objects to Definition No. 7 as vague, ambiguous, and overbroad insofar as it purports to include "where applicable" a party's "officers, directors, employees, partners, corporate parent, subsidiaries or affiliates." CPH will interpret the term "plaintiff" to mean CPH and "defendant" to mean Morgan Stanley.

5. CPH objects to the extent that any Request for Production seeks documents that are in the public domain and accessible to all parties. In responding to the Requests for Production, CPH will produce publicly-available documents to the extent that copies exist in CPH's files of otherwise non-public information responsive to these requests.

6. CPH objects to the definitions of "CPH" and "MAFCO" to the extent they include CPH's counsel in this litigation. CPH interprets these definitions to exclude Jenner & Block LLP and Searcy Denney Scarola Barnhart & Shipley P.A., and their respective attorneys.

7. By stating that CPH will produce documents responsive to a particular document request, CPH does not represent that any such documents exist. Rather, CPH is responding that to the extent such documents are located, they will be produced.

8. By stating that CPH will produce responsive documents, CPH does not concede the relevance of any of the produced documents to the subject matter of this litigation or to the admissibility of those documents at trial.

9. CPH's objections and responses are based on a good-faith search for documents within CPH's possession, custody, and control. CPH expressly reserves the right to amend and/or modify its objections and responses.

10. CPH responds to Morgan Stanley's document requests without waiving the Initial Objections. CPH incorporates, as though fully set forth therein, these Initial Objections into each of its responses.

FURTHER OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES

Request No. 1. All documents not previously produced or provided by CPH that are responsive to any Request for the Production of Documents that Morgan Stanley has served upon CPH in the above captioned cases.

RESPONSE: CPH has not located any documents in its possession responsive to this request.

Request No. 2. All documents concerning any proposed sale of CPH's interest in Coleman, including without limitation all documents concerning communications with potential buyers and investment bankers, between January 1, 1997 and March 31, 1998.

RESPONSE: CPH objects to this request as overbroad and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. CPH previously has produced all non-privileged documents in its possession responsive to this request.

Request No. 3. All documents from January 1, 1996 to March 31, 1998 concerning the valuation of Coleman, including without limitation all documents concerning any valuation of Coleman performed by Chase Securities and all studies done to support all valuations.

RESPONSE: CPH objects to this request as not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. CPH further objects to this request as overbroad as to the time period requested. CPH further objects to this request as containing an implicit untrue assumption in that CPH is not aware of any valuation of Coleman performed by Chase Securities on behalf of CPH. CPH previously has produced all non-privileged documents in its possession concerning valuations of Coleman prepared in connection with Sunbeam's acquisition of CPH's interest in The Coleman Company, Inc.

Request No. 4. All documents concerning the value of the warrants and other consideration that CPH received from Sunbeam pursuant to the August 12, 1998 Settlement Agreement between CPH and Sunbeam.

RESPONSE CPH objects to this request to the extent that it calls for the production of documents protected by the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, and the accountant privilege. CPH further objects to this request to the extent that it calls for the production of "all documents" concerning the value of the warrants. CPH further objects to this request as overbroad and as not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence to the extent that the request is not limited as to time. CPH further objects to this request as vague and ambiguous in its use of the term "value," which is susceptible to different meanings. CPH further objects to this request as vague and ambiguous to the extent that it refers to "other consideration" received by CPH pursuant to the August 12, 1998 Settlement Agreement. Subject to and without waiving its Initial or Further Objections, CPH will produce documents reflecting the journal entries that show how CPH recorded the warrants on CPH's books and records.

Dated: November 24, 2004

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated

Dear Mr. Brody:

I write to follow-up on CPH's production of documents relevant to its damages experts' testimony.

Morgan Stanley has long had outstanding requests for CPH to produce documents relating to the value of the Sunbeam shares it received as part of the Transaction. For example, as far back as July 15, 2003, Morgan Stanley requested "all documents reflecting, referring, or relating to the value of Sunbeam securities." See Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated's First Request for Production of Documents to Plaintiff (July 15, 2003). At the time, CPH attempted to limit this request to the "market valuation of Sunbeam securities." See CPH Response To Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated's First Request for Production of Documents (Aug. 14, 2003). After Morgan Stanley noted that "[t]his limitation excludes other valuations of Sunbeam securities, such as CPH's internal valuations" and asked whether CPH withheld any documents based on this limitation. See August 27, 2003 Letter from Kathryn R. Debord to Michael T. Brody. After initiating promising to investigate this request, CPH agreed to withdraw its limitation and produce additional documents responsive to this request. See October 8, 2003 Letter from Michael T. Brody to Kathryn R. DeBord. Based on this representation, Morgan Stanley accepted and understood that CPH would make a complete production of all materials responsive to this request.

Over a year later, at the deposition of Mr. Winoker, CPH revealed for the first time that MAFCO had recorded an "accounting value" for the Sunbeam stock warrants received as part of the Sunbeam settlement agreement on its general ledger. See Deposition of Laurence Winoker (November 18, 2004). Subsequently, CPH agreed to produce the general ledger entries where this "accounting value" was recognized.

Given this recent production, and the fact that CPH's recently disclosed multitude of experts opine on both the expected and actual value of the Sunbeam shares CPH and MAFCO received, please confirm in writing that CPH has in fact produced all documents responsive to Morgan Stanley's longstanding request for such documents. Did CPH or MAFCO ever assign an "accounting value" to the Sunbeam shares it received on its general ledger? Did CPH or MAFCO ever assess the value of its Sunbeam shares as part of the December 1998 audit mentioned by Mr. Winoker? Is it CPH's position that CPH or MAFCO never recognized a value anywhere on its books or elsewhere for its Sunbeam shares at any point in time? Please investigate these questions, and if any such documents exist, please supplement your production immediately.

If we do not receive a response by close of business tomorrow, Morgan Stanley will file a motion to compel and for sanctions.

Very truly yours,

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co.

Dear Larry:

I write in response to your letter concerning CPH's accounting treatment of the Sunbeam stock that CPH received in connection with Sunbeam's acquisition of CPH's interest in Coleman. We disagree with your characterization of the discovery record. We carefully have reviewed all of the prior discovery requests, objections, and correspondence, and do not believe that the documents you now seek should have been produced previously. Discovery is now closed, and we decline to produce additional documents.

MORGAN STANLEY'S SUBMISSION OF TRANSCRIPT
CITATIONS REQUESTED BY THE COURT

Pursuant to the Court's request to provide transcript citations for the statements of Morgan Stanley's counsel at yesterday's hearing, Morgan Stanley submits the following:

Counsel said:

MR. DAVIDSON: We did have testimony on the stand about the process. We know it was uploaded from the storage area. We know that some of the materials from the Brooklyn tapes --

THE COURT: Tell you what, tomorrow morning I want the portion of the transcript you're relying on for that factual assertion.

MR. DAVIDSON: Okay.

(February 14, 2005, Pretrial Conf., Volume III, 302:13-20)

At the end of the hearing, the Court repeated its request for the information.

THE COURT: And then also we're going to isolate for tomorrow morning the portion of the record from today that tells me what those 8,000 pages are, right?

MR. DAVIDSON: Actually, the question I think was that the documents go from the staging area into the archives and that we know that the materials that are sitting there came from the staging areas, because --

031650

1285N

THE COURT: Please understand, I thought there was a representation from you all that that November 18th production was the stuff from the staging area.

MR. DAVIDSON: Yes.

(February 14, 2005, Pretrial Conf., Volume III, 340:12-341:3)

During the evidentiary hearing, witnesses described the process of how tapes are sent to an outside vendor for storage, and then to a different vendor for processing (NDCI), and from there to the staging area to be uploaded into the archive. As Mr. Saunders described the process, “[NDCI] would make a copy of the SDLT, keep one inhouse at NDCI. They would ship us the other copy where my team would load that into an SDLT drive, a drive that could read it. Where we would copy it on to a disk, which is the graphic with the server in light in the box, which is indicating, that’s what we call the staging area. This is where my team’s responsibility would end and the e-mail archives team, the e-mail archive team would work to process the data into the e-mail archive.” (February 14, 2005 Hearing Tr. Volume I, 121:18-122:2 (Robert Saunders).)

Ms Gorman also described the process: “ So as part of the tape restoration process, the Enterprise Computing Group, which is the group that Bob Saunders, for example, is a part of, will get the tapes and load it on a fast disk, which we just refer to as staging. And from there make it available to my team that that we run scripts against that data to do the insertion.” (February 14, 2005 Hearing Tr. Volume I, 49:7-14 (Allison Gorman).) She testified that from the staging area, data then goes into the archive,

MR. JONES: So the staging is data that had been on backup tapes at some point on the archiving and you’re waiting to put it into searchable form?

MS. GORMAN: Yes.

(February 14, 2005, Pretrial Conf., Volume I, 49:15-18)

There was no testimony from any witness that data could get into the archive in any way other than through the staging process.

There is no dispute that Morgan Stanley ran searches of its archive in April of 2004 that resulted in the production of documents in May of 2004. There is also no dispute that Morgan Stanley later ran searches of its archive in November of 2004 that resulted in the production of additional email (the 8,000 pages). Given the above process, the November materials (the 8,000 pages), which came from the archive, would have been material uploaded into the archive, from staging between April and November of 2004.

As for the Brooklyn tapes, Mr. Saunders testified that "my understanding is that we made Arthur Reil aware of the fact that there were some tapes in Brooklyn that had been found. They were sent to NDCI for processing." (February 14, 2005, Pretrial Conf., Volume I, 127:15-18) According to Ms. Gorman's testimony, at least a subset of this data was in staging when she took over for Mr. Reil.

MR. BYMAN: And the Brooklyn found tapes, which were found as of May 6th, 2004, were among the 600 gigabytes of data that you inherited in mid August 2004?

MS. GORMAN: Yes, at least a subset of them.

(February 14, 2005, Pretrial Conf., Volume I, 61:23-62:1)

No more specificity can be provided because, as Ms. Gorman described, once data is in the staging, it is difficult to trace it to any particular tapes:

MR. JONES: Let me ask a different question.

Would there have been a way for the data that was in staging, if somebody had said to you -- one of the questions that were asked by opposing counsel, somebody had said to you: Go into the staging area and from this 600 gigabytes, figure out what part of that comes from Brooklyn tapes, would you have been able to do that?

031652

MS. GORMAN: I don't think so. We lose that association -- the data gets really merged together as it moves through the process, so certain distinctions, like what original DLT tape it came from, get sort of lost in the translation.

LEGAL ARGUMENT IN SUPPORT OF MORGAN STANLEY'S PRIVILEGE LOG

Defendant Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ("Morgan Stanley"), by and through its attorneys, respectively submits this legal argument in support of Morgan Stanley's claim of privilege over certain documents identified on its February 8, 9, and 10, 2005 privilege logs.

Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. ("CPH") has challenged Morgan Stanley's privilege assertions regarding communications to and from third-party Information Technology ("IT") professionals retained for the purpose of restoring e-mails relevant to this litigation. These documents are quintessential examples of the types of communications protect by Florida Evidence Code 90.502 and Florida Rules of Civil Procedure 1.280(b)(3), and Morgan Stanley's claim of privilege should be upheld.

First, communications between Morgan Stanley's in-house and IT professionals which contain counsel's thoughts, impressions, and legal advice regarding the e-mail restoration process are protected under Florida's attorney-client privilege as codified in section 90.502 of the Florida Evidence Code. Section 90.502(2) states:

A client has a privilege to refuse to disclose, and to prevent any other person from disclosing, the contents of confidential communications when such other person learned of the communications because they were made in the rendition of legal services to the client.

The communications by Morgan Stanley's in-house counsel to the IT professionals deal with e-mail restoration and were made by Morgan Stanley's in-house counsel in connection with the provision of legal services to Morgan Stanley. Thus, such communications fit squarely within the confines of section 90.502 of the Florida Evidence Code.

Second, the communications at issue are also protected by Florida's work product privilege as codified in Rule 1.280(b)(3). It is of no moment that the IT professionals are outside consultants rather than Morgan Stanley employees. "Documents and tangible things prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for a party or by or for that party's representative, including his attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer or agent, are a party's work product and, therefore, subject to qualified immunity from discovery." Procter & Gamble Co. v. Swilley, 462 So. 2d 1188, 1192-93 (Fla. 1st DCA 1985) (emphasis added) (citing Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.280 and Burlington Industries v. Exxon Corp., 65 F.R.D. 26, 41-42 (D. Md. 1974) (stating that work product includes as protected material those materials which are prepared by non-attorneys so long as the preparation is in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial, and noting that documents should not be denied the protection of work product merely because they documents include technical data)).

The e-mails and spreadsheets for which Morgan Stanley claims privilege were prepared either by or for IT professionals in the face of ongoing litigation. Consequently, such documents are protected by the work product privilege. Lifshutz v. Citizens & Southern National Bank of Florida, 626 So. 2d 252 (Fla. 4th DCA 1993) (holding that materials contained in a party's investigator-consultant's report were subject to work product privilege if claims by or against party were pending at time consultant gathered information in question, litigation was anticipated with respect to those claims, and information was gathered in anticipation of those claims)

The documents at issue here, communications between in-house counsel and IT professionals regarding ongoing litigation, clearly fall within the purview of Florida's rules regarding privilege. Morgan Stanley's claim of privilege should be upheld.

Material Redacted Without Prior Determination of Protectability by Court

MORGAN STANLEY'S MOTION FOR SANCTIONS AND ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY CONCERNING PLAINTIFF'S IMPROPER
CONCEALMENT OF THE VALUE OF THE SUNBEAM WARRANTS

CPH settled its claims against Sunbeam in August 1998 for Sunbeam warrants. A critical element of any damages assessment in this case (assuming CPH can prove liability) is the offsetting value of these Sunbeam warrants. CPH withheld documents on this issue, despite repeated discovery requests, and maintained that the warrants never had any value. CPH ultimately forced Morgan Stanley to depose a CPH corporate representative, who revealed that CPH valued the warrants at .¹ Under dogged questioning, CPH's witness repeatedly testified that this was the "only" pre-Sunbeam bankruptcy valuation CPH ever calculated. As pretrial discovery continued and closed, CPH stood by this lone valuation.

On Sunday, February 20, 2005, CPH finally produced documents showing that its parent MAFCO's internal financial statements estimated that the Sunbeam warrants were, in fact, valued at _____ when the warrants were issued in August 1998. CPH's prior concealment of this fact began to unravel when, on February 17, the Court ordered CPH to produce all documentation on the valuation of its Sunbeam securities. In response to that Order, CPH produced a collection of heavily redacted financial statements and ledger entries. After Morgan Stanley challenged the redactions and pressed CPH for further disclosure, CPH produced what it had "redacted" in its initial production: the _____ valuation appearing on MAFCO's internal financial statements for the years ending 1998 and 1999.

Morgan Stanley vigorously pursued this evidence for over a year and a half. And CPH withheld full disclosure at every turn, even after the Court ordered production on February 17. CPH meanwhile represented that it had provided Morgan Stanley everything and that _____ was the most CPH had ever valued the warrants. By concealing the _____ valuation, CPH was prepared to mislead this Court and Morgan Stanley to the tune of _____ in applying an offset — even more given the effect of any pre- and post-judgment interest that CPH has indicated it will request. Sanctions are indeed warranted for this willful concealment and non-disclosure of relevant, material evidence. Morgan Stanley therefore requests that the Court impose monetary and evidentiary sanctions against CPH and order CPH to produce any and all additional documentation that it may be withholding, along with a certificate of compliance, and to re-open pertinent depositions to explain the reasons for this concealment.

In support of its position, Morgan Stanley states as follows:

I. MORGAN STANLEY SOUGHT DOCUMENTS ON THE SUNBEAM WARRANTS' VALUATION, AND CPH RAISED NO SPECIFIC OBJECTION.

1. On July 15, 2003, Morgan Stanley served its First Request for Production of Documents. Request No. 39 sought “[a]ll documents referring or relating to the settlement agreement between CPH and Sunbeam.” (See 7/15/03 Morgan Stanley’s 1st Req. for Prod., Req. 39.)

2. On August 14, 2003, without reciting any specific objections, CPH responded that it would produce documents responsive to Request No. 39. (See 8/14/03 CPH’s Resp. to Morgan Stanley’s 1st Req. for Prod., Resp. 39 (Ex. 2).)

3. On October 13, 2003, Morgan Stanley served its Third Request for Production of Documents. Request No. 2 sought “[a]ll documents referring or relating to any consideration received by CPH in exchange for CPH’s promise not to sue Sunbeam in connection with the Coleman acquisition or the Settlement Agreement between Sunbeam and CPH, including without limitation all documents related to the warrants received from Sunbeam pursuant to the Settlement Agreement ... [and] relating to the valuation of the warrants received by CPH pursuant to the Settlement Agreement” (See 10/13/03 Morgan Stanley’s 3d Req. for Prod., Req. 2 (emphasis added).)

4. On November 12, 2003, again without reciting any specific objections, CPH responded that it would produce documents responsive to Request No. 2. (See 11/12/03 CPH’s Resp. to Morgan Stanley’s 3d Req. for Prod. at 2-3 (Ex. 3).)

5. On January 5, 2004, in response to Morgan Stanley’s request to clarify the scope of CPH’s production, CPH confirmed that it “produced all non-privileged documents responsive to [Morgan Stanley’s Third Request for Production of Documents]” and that it did not limit its request to “CPH” documents but rather included “all Mafco documents.” (See 1/5/04 M. Brody Letter to K. DeBord (Ex. 4).)

032726

II. AFTER CPH FAILED TO PRODUCE ANY VALUATION OF ITS WARRANTS, MORGAN STANLEY CHALLENGED THE COMPLETENESS OF CPH’S PRODUCTION AND SOUGHT A RULE 1.310(b)(6) DEPOSITION.

6. On January 23, 2004, Morgan Stanley informed CPH that CPH’s production related to Request Nos. 2 and 39 was “woefully inadequate, despite assurances that CPH ‘will produce documents responsive to [these] requests.’” (See 1/23/04 K. DeBord Letter to M. Brody (Ex. 5).) Morgan Stanley noted that “CPH has failed to produce any documents that indicate how CPH or MAFCO recorded the warrants received as part of the Sunbeam Settlement Agreement in their financial records or Statements” and asked CPH to “produce documents responsive to these requests by January 30, 2004.” (Id.)

7. On January 29, 2004, CPH stated that it was “puzzled” by Morgan Stanley’s claim that it had failed to produce documents responsive to the two requests and stated that it will “continue to search for responsive documents, and will produce any additional, non-privileged documents that we locate.” (1/29/04 M. Brody Letter to K. DeBord (Ex. 6).)

8. CPH never produced any further documentation, so Morgan Stanley ultimately served a Rule 1.310(b)(6) deposition notice on “[t]he value of the warrants and other consideration that CPH received from Sunbeam pursuant to the August 12, 1998 Settlement Agreement between CPH and Sunbeam.” (See 11/3/04 Morgan Stanley’s Am. Notice of Dep., 1st Topic (Ex. 7).)

III. CPH’S CORPORATE DESIGNEE TESTIFIED THAT THE ONLY VALUATION EVER PERFORMED FOR THE WARRANTS WAS FOR

9. On November 18, 2004, CPH produced Lawrence Winoker, Senior Vice President, Controller and Treasurer of MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings, Inc., as the corporate designee on the topic of CPH's valuation of the Sunbeam warrants. (11/18/04 Winoker Dep. at 5:17-6:10, 11:15-12:3 (Ex. 8).) Mr. Winoker's duties include reviewing MAFCO's internal financial statements, and these were his duties at the time of the CPH-Sunbeam settlement in August 1998. (Id. at 19:21-22:3.)

10. Mr. Winoker testified that

(Id. at 51:2-22.) He further testified, in his capacity as a corporate representative, that

(Id. at 52:15-25.)

11. Morgan Stanley's counsel asked Mr. Winoker to clarify whether, in December 1998, CPH wrote down the value of the warrants from the time CPH received the warrants in August 1998. He responded that

12. On November 22, 2004, Morgan Stanley, in a follow-up letter, requested documentation of the valuation referred to in Mr. Winoker's deposition. (See 11/22/04 K. DeBord Letter to M. Brody (Ex. 9).)

13. Also, a month before the deposition, on October 25, 2004, Morgan Stanley had served its Eighth Request for Production of Documents. Request No. 4 sought "[a]ll documents concerning the value of the warrants and other consideration that CPH received from Sunbeam pursuant to the August 12, 1998 Settlement Agreement between CPH and Sunbeam." (See 10/25/04 Morgan Stanley's 8th Req. for Prod., Req. 4 (Ex. 10).)

032729

14. On November 24, 2004, CPH produced a two-page database print-out indicating that . (11/24/04 CPH Resp. & Objs. to Morgan Stanley’s 8th Req. for Prod. (attaching CPH2011835-36) (Ex. 10).) In its responses and objections served therewith, CPH stated that it “will produce documents reflecting the journal entries that show how CPH recorded the warrants on CPH’s books and records.” (Id. at Resp. 4.) CPH also, for the first time, raised a “vagueness” objection to the terms “value” and “other consideration.” (Id.)

IV. THE COURT ORDERED CPH TO PRODUCE ALL VALUATIONS OF ITS SUNBEAM INVESTMENT.

15. On February 15, 2005, Morgan Stanley filed a Motion to Compel Production of Documents, seeking internal financial statements and general ledger entries reflecting MAFCO’s valuation of its Sunbeam investment. (2/15/05 Morgan Stanley’s Mot. to Compel Prod. of Docs.)

16. On February 17, 2005, the Court ordered CPH to produce all documents reflecting its internal valuation of Sunbeam stock:

The Motion is hereby Granted. Plaintiffs shall produce for inspection and copying by MS & Co. by 12 noon Feb. 18, 2005 all documents within the care, custody, or control of it or any related entity reflecting the accounting value, book value, balance sheet value, or internal valuation of the Sunbeam stock received by CPH in the transaction, produced during or reflecting a value at any time between the date the transaction closed and the date Sunbeam first sought bankruptcy protection.

(2/17/05 Order on Morgan Stanley’s Mot. to Compel Prod. of Docs.)

V. CPH INITIALLY “REDACTS” AND THEN, UNDER PRESSURE FROM MORGAN STANLEY, REVEALS THAT IT VALUED THE WARRANTS AT

17. CPH already had the documents at issue in their possession and could have produced them immediately. (2/1705 Pretrial Conference Hr’g Tr. Vol. 8 at 996:23-997:2.) But

032730

CPH waited until the last minute before the Friday deadline to produce the documents — on the eve of a three-day Court holiday weekend. CPH ultimately produced 20 pages of heavily redacted documents. (2/18/05 M. Brody Letter to T. Clare (attaching CPH2012092-111) (Ex. 11).)

18. Morgan Stanley pressed for more disclosure. (2/18/05 T. Clare Letter to M. Brody (Ex. 12).) On February 20, 2005, CPH produced additional heavily redacted documents — half of which (38 out of 81 pages) were nothing more than a blank page containing the single word “REDACTED.” (2/20/05 J. Solovy Letter to T. Clare (attaching CPH2012112-193) (Ex. 13).) Buried in this second production were various duplicate documents that were produced on February 18. But, this time, two of the re-produced documents revealed a previously-redacted

(Compare CPH2012130-31 (unredacted version revealing warrant valuation) with CPH2012110-11 (redacted version concealing warrant valuation).) The valuation appears on financial statements dated December 31, 1998, and December 31, 1999. (See CPH2012130-31.)

19. The documents Bates-stamped CPH2012130 and CPH2012131 contain an admission that CPH spent over a year and a half concealing and contradicting:

(CPH2012130-31; see MS 96 (Ex. 14).) Notably, this document — or at least the information contained therein — was apparently reviewed by Ronald O. Perelman himself. (See CPH2012130 () .)

NOT A CERTIFIED COPY

032731

20. Incidentally, on the very same day Mr. Winoker first disclosed the figure in deposition testimony, Mr. Perelman testified under oath that the Sunbeam warrants were valued “close to zero” at the time of the settlement:

Q. Did you attempt to value the warrants or the settlement as a whole at the time you entered into the settlement with Sunbeam?

A. Yes.

Q. What did you value the warrants at?

A. Close to zero.

Q. You settled MacAndrews & Forbes, or, as the case may be, Coleman (Parent) Holdings’ claims against Sunbeam for next to zero?

A. Yes. There was nothing to get.

(11/18/05 Perelman Dep. at 539:20-540:7 (Ex. 15).)

21. CPH’s redaction of the valuation appears to be a conscious decision to conceal key evidence that, based on all prior discovery requests and the Court’s Order compelling production, Morgan Stanley was certainly entitled to receive. The fact that CPH was able to produce this evidence so easily in response to the Court’s Order compelling production is telling. Indeed, notations in the production indicate that CPH printed the documents from a database as early as February 9, 2005, a week before Morgan Stanley even filed its motion to compel. (See CPH2012092 (“Date 02/09/2005”); CPH2012095-097, CPH2012100-101, CPH2012108 (same).)

NOT A CERTIFIED COPY

032732

WHEREFORE, Morgan Stanley requests that the Court sanction CPH for its failure to produce non-privileged, responsive, and highly material documents — despite its repeated representations to that it had produced all such documents — by precluding CPH from offering any evidence or argument that the warrants it received in the Sunbeam settlement were worth less than . See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.380(b)(2)(B) (allowing a court to bar the offending party from introducing designated matters into evidence after the violation of an order); see also Rose v. Palm Beach County, 361 So. 2d 135, 136 n.3 (Fla. 1978) (recognizing courts’ “inherent powers” to administer justice).

Morgan Stanley further requests monetary sanctions, including costs and attorneys’ fees in an amount to be determined later, for all time devoted to CPH’s discovery violations in this instance. See id. 1.310(b)(2) (authorizing courts to require the payment of reasonable expenses, including attorneys’ fees, as a sanction for discovery abuse); see also Weiss v. Rachlin & Cohen, 745 So. 2d 527 (Fla. 3d DCA 1999) (affirming imposition of sanctions where party failed to produce accounting records despite years of requests); Nordyne, Inc. v. Florida Mobile Home Supply, Inc., 625 So. 2d 1283, 1288 (Fla. 1st DCA 1993) (holding that monetary sanctions are appropriate where a party deliberately fails to produce relevant damages documents that are within the perimeters of the other party’s production requests).

Morgan Stanley further requests that the Court (i) order CPH to produce immediately all documents (unredacted other than for privilege) pursuant to all document requests referenced herein seeking documentation of the valuation of CPH’s Sunbeam warrants and Sunbeam stock; (ii) order CPH to certify that it has provided a full and complete document production in compliance with the Court’s Order; (iii) permit Morgan Stanley to inspect CPH’s responsive documents in their native electronic form; (iv) order CPH to produce a corporate representative to be deposed on the issue of CPH's valuation of the Sunbeam warrants, including the previously concealed valuation; and (v) re-open the deposition of Mr. Perelman for the purpose of examining what he knew about the valuation of the warrants, as reflected by handwritten notations on the belatedly-produced documents.

RESPONSE OF PLAINTIFF COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS INC.
TO DEFENDANT MORGAN STANLEY & CO., INC.'S
THIRD REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Plaintiff Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. ("CPH"), by and through its attorneys and pursuant to Florida Rules of Civil Procedure 1.280 and 1.350, hereby responds and objects to Defendant Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc.'s ("Morgan Stanley") Third Request for Production of Documents to Plaintiff ("Requests for Production") dated October 13, 2003:

INITIAL OBJECTIONS

1. CPH incorporates by reference the Initial Objections set forth in its written response to Morgan Stanley's first request for production of documents.
2. CPH objects to Instruction No. 3 to the extent it purports to require CPH's counsel, consultants, and/or experts in this litigation to produce documents. CPH interprets Instruction No. 3 to exclude CPH's counsel, consultants, and experts in this litigation.
3. CPH objects to Definition No. 6 as vague and ambiguous. CPH will interpret defendant's definition of Mafco to mean "MacAndrews and Forbes Holdings Inc. and any of its officers, directors, former or present employees, representatives and agents."

032744

4. CPH objects to Definition No. 10 as vague, ambiguous, and overbroad insofar as it purports to include "where applicable" a party's "corporate parent, subsidiaries, or affiliates." CPH will interpret the terms "plaintiff" and "CPH" to mean CPH, which is the only plaintiff to this lawsuit.

5. CPH objects to Definition No. 16 as overbroad and inconsistent with the statement in Definition No. 10: "This definition is not intended to impose a discovery obligation on any person who is not a party to the litigation." Mafoo is not a party in this lawsuit. Accordingly, CPH will interpret the terms "You" and "Your" to mean CPH.

RESPONSES AND FURTHER OBJECTIONS

REQUEST NO. 1: All documents from the personnel files of any CPH or MAFCO employee or former employee in so far as they relate to Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman; to Coleman Company's financial performance; or to any employee's responsibility for or performance of due diligence for any transaction.

RESPONSE: CPH objects to Request No. 1 on the ground that it seeks information related to employees, current and former, who were not involved in the transaction by which Sunbeam acquired CPH's interest in The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman"). CPH further objects to Interrogatory No. 1 to the extent that it seeks information concerning Coleman's financial performance, which is not relevant to the litigation nor reasonably calculated to the discovery of admissible evidence. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing Initial Objections and Further Objections, CPH will produce documents responsive to this request.

REQUEST NO. 2: All documents referring or relating to any consideration received by CPH in exchange for CPH's promise not to sue Sunbeam in connection with the Coleman acquisition or the Settlement Agreement between Sunbeam and CPH, including without limitation all documents related to the warrants received from Sunbeam pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, all documents related to any exercise of those warrants; documents relating to the negotiation of the Settlement Agreement; documents relating to the valuation of the warrants received by CPH pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, including any reports issued by The Blackstone Group; and for the period June 1, 1998 to the present, documents relating to statements made by Sunbeam or CPH/MAFCO

to any public agency or body, asking that the Settlement Agreement be implemented without seeking shareholder approval.

RESPONSE: Subject to and without waiving the foregoing Initial Objections, CPH states that it will produce documents responsive to this request.

REQUEST NO. 3: All documents relating to MAFCO/CPH's acquisition of the Coleman Company, Inc.

RESPONSE: CPH objects to Request No. 3 on the grounds that it seeks information that is not relevant to the litigation nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, in part because The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman I") acquired by Mafco/CPH is not the same company as The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman II") that Sunbeam acquired. CPH further objects to this request on the ground that Coleman I was acquired by public tender offer in 1989 and the request is therefore overbroad and unduly burdensome because it requires CPH to locate and produce "all documents" associated with a public transaction that took place approximately 14 years ago.

REQUEST NO. 4: Documents sufficient to show the quarterly revenue, sales, and profits or losses of Coleman Company from the date that it was acquired by MAFCO/CPH until the date that it was acquired by Sunbeam.

RESPONSE: CPH objects to Request No. 4 on the grounds that it seeks information that is not relevant to the litigation nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, in part because The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman I") acquired by Mafco/CPH is not the same company as The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman II") that Sunbeam acquired. CPH further objects to Request No. 4 as overbroad and unduly burdensome, particularly because it seeks approximately 10 years worth of documents, many of which are publicly available from the Securities and Exchange Commission.

032746

documents reflecting communications between and among Ronald Perelman, Howard Gittis, Donald Drapkin, Barry Schwartz, James Maher, William Nesbitt, Todd Slotkin, Jerry Levin, Paul Shapiro, Bobby Jenkins, Lorelei Borland, Irwin Engelman, Bruce Slovin, Joram Salig, James Conway, and other Coleman and/or MAFCO employees, on the one hand, and Albert Dunlap, Russell Kersh, David Fannin, or other Sunbeam employees, on the other, for the period November 1, 1997 to June 13, 1998, when Mr. Dunlap was fired by Sunbeam. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing Initial Objections and Further Objections and consistent with its interpretation of this request, CPH will produce documents responsive to this request.

REQUEST NO. 17: All documents referring or relating to the restatement of Sunbeam's 1996, 1997 or 1998 financial statements and the related work performed by any Sunbeam employee, advisor or auditor.

RESPONSE: CPH objects to Request No. 17 on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous insofar as it fails to define "the related work" to Sunbeam's restated financial statements. Subject to and without waiving the foregoing Initial Objections and Further Objections, CPH will produce documents referring and relating to the restatement of Sunbeam's 1996, 1997, and 1998 first quarter financial statements.

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co.
Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc. v. MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings Inc., et al.

Dear Kathryn:

I write in response to your letter of December 22, 2003 regarding CPH's responses to MS & Co.'s Third Request for Production of Documents.

Instruction No. 3: CPH did not exclude from its production any "otherwise responsive materials generated by or relied upon by testifying experts." Please explain the basis for your contention that we are obligated to produce information or materials generated by consulting experts.

Definition 16: CPH has produced all non-privileged documents responsive to your requests. Given the persistent course taken by Morgan Stanley of limiting definitions in order to exclude documents under its control from production, CPH's objection to the definition of "you" assigned by Morgan Stanley in its request was appropriate. Despite this objection, CPH has produced all non-privileged documents available to it, which includes all Mafco documents. CPH expects that Morgan Stanley will amend its prior responses and do the same.

Request 1: Your letter is correct that we are at an impasse. CPH does not intend to withdraw its objections.

Requests 3 and 4: CPH's objections are well grounded. Your request that we locate and produce documents relating to a transaction from 14 years ago asks CPH to find the proverbial needle in a haystack relating to a matter wholly irrelevant to these proceedings. Consequently, CPH's objection is appropriate. Morgan Stanley's request for financial information is objectionable due to its scope in time and because Coleman Co. Inc.'s financial information is publically available. CPH already has produced several financial statements of Coleman Co. Inc. Moreover, despite your contention that the distinction between "Coleman I" acquired by Mafco/CPH 14 years ago and the "Coleman II" sold to Sunbeam is irrelevant, the differences between them confound any attempt to group them together and make your request more burdensome. If Morgan Stanley is more specific about which financial statements it is interested in, and why its requests are relevant to the issues in this case, CPH will reconsider the request.

032750

Kathryn R. DeBord, Esq.

Page 2

Request 5: CPH has produced all non-privileged documents responsive to this request under its control, including documents prepared by Mafoo, CPH and/or Coleman. Again, we request that Morgan Stanley amend its responses to and do the same.

Requests 6 & 10: CPH has not withheld any non-privileged documents in its possession or control responsive to these requests.

Request 11: Your clarification of this request has narrowed it considerably. As redrafted, CPH is unaware of any non-privileged documents responsive to this request that have not already been produced.

Requests 13, 14 & 15: Beyond what has already been produced, CPH is unaware of any non-privileged documents responsive to these requests.

Very truly yours,

Michael T. Brody

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc.
MSSF v. MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings Inc. et al.

Dear Mike:

I write in regard to CPH's production of documents pursuant to Request No. 39 of MS & Co.'s First Request for Production and Request No. 2 of MS & Co.'s Third Request for Production.

CPH's production related to these requests has been woefully inadequate, despite assurances that CPH "will produce documents responsive to [these] request[s]." For example, no documents have been produced that relate to the negotiations of the Sunbeam Settlement Agreement. Likewise, CPH has failed to produce any documents that indicate how CPH or MAFCO recorded the warrants received as part of the Sunbeam Settlement Agreement in their financial records or statements.

Such documents would invariably fall under Request No. 39 of MS & Co.'s First Request for Production ("All documents referring or relating to the settlement agreement between CPH and Sunbeam."), and Request No. 2 of MS & Co.'s Third Request for Production ("all documents related to the warrants received from Sunbeam pursuant to the Settlement Agreement"). Please produce documents responsive to these requests by January 30, 2004.

Sincerely,

Kathryn R. DeBord

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co.

Dear Kathryn:

I write in response to your January 23, 2004 letter regarding CPH's production of documents relating to the settlement agreement between CPH and Sunbeam (Request No. 39 of Morgan Stanley's First Request for Production), and documents relating to the warrants received from Sunbeam pursuant to that settlement (Request No. 2 of Morgan Stanley's Third Request for Production).

We are puzzled by your claim that "no documents have been produced that relate to the negotiations of the Sunbeam Settlement Agreement." CPH has produced numerous documents relating to those negotiations, the warrants, and the ultimate settlement. See, e.g., CPH 1409305-1409344, CPH 1394092-1394107, CPH 1410558-1410566, CPH 1410567-1410599, and CPH 1409401-1409427. In addition, CPH's privilege log identifies several responsive documents that are privileged. See, e.g., Privileged Documents 113, 241, 265, 268, 335, and 341.

It is our understanding that we have produced non-privileged documents that are responsive to Request Nos. 39 and 2. That said, however, we will continue to search for responsive documents, and will produce any additional, non-privileged responsive documents that we locate.

Very truly yours,

Michael T. Brody

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc.

Dear Mike:

Mr. Winoker and Mr. Gittis testified last week that, as of December, 1998, CPH valued the warrants it received from Sunbeam pursuant to the August 12, 1998 Settlement Agreement at $41.7 million. Mr. Winoker and Mr. Gittis also testified that CPH's $41.7 million valuation is reflected on CPH and/or MAFCO's non-public financial statements for the period ending December 1998. These financial statements are responsive to numerous document requests, including Morgan Stanley's First, Third, and Sixth Requests for Production. Please produce those documents immediately.

Sincerely,

Kathryn R. DeBord

Re: Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. v. Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated

Dear Mike:

I write to address the serious deficiencies in CPH's response to the Court's Order requiring production of documents responsive to Morgan Stanley's motion to compel. As you know, CPH was required by the Court to produce by noon today "[a]ll documents reflecting, referring, or relating to the value of Sunbeam securities," including MAFCO's non-financial statements and general ledger entries reflecting the "accounting value" or "book value" that MAFCO placed on its Sunbeam investment. Instead of a full and complete production of the documents required by the Court's Order, we received only 20 heavily redacted pages with little or no identifying information.

We intend to follow up with a more detailed letter, but CPH's obviously deficient production raises many questions that require immediate correction.

First, as CPH previously (and successfully) argued to the Court, there is no basis to redact any information other than on grounds of privilege. See February 19, 2004 Hearing Transcript at 19-20. The financial documents you produced are obviously not privileged. We are entitled to complete and unredacted copies. Unredacted copies of these documents must be produced before 6:00 p.m. tonight. If you are claiming privilege over these redactions, where is your privilege log?

Second, it appears that many of the documents were generated from electronic sources. Several appear to be Excel spreadsheets and other documents that we are entitled to in electronic form, together with all metadata, document profiles, and document histories. Please produce these electronic documents immediately.

Third, many obviously responsive documents are missing from the production. Where, for example, are the financial statements reflecting the values reflected in the ledger entries that were produced? Where are the documents underlying MAFCO's $450 million adjusted valuation for its Sunbeam investment? Does CPH now represent that "[a]ll documents reflecting, referring, or relating to the value of Sunbeam securities" have been produced? Did CPH do a new search in response to the Court's order? Were all relevant files checked? Were electronic sources investigated? We find it difficult to believe that these 20 pages are the sum total of documents responsive to this request.

Finally, how long have you had these documents in your possession?

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Clare

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY,
FLORIDA

CASE NO: 2003 CA 005045 AI

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL FURTHER DISCOVERY REGARDING MORGAN STANLEY'S DESTRUCTION AND NONPRODUCTION OF E-MAILS

Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. ("CPH") respectfully seeks leave to conduct certain discovery relating to the willful failure of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ("Morgan Stanley") to make full production of responsive e-mails, as it falsely certified it had done prior to June 23, 2004. CPH seeks this discovery not to buttress the record supporting the pending motion for sanctions relating to Morgan Stanley's failure to produce e-mails, but to obtain information for use at trial. The record as to the former issue is complete and justifies the immediate entry of a default judgment as to liability. But as explained below, this discovery is warranted to ascertain the full magnitude of the e-mail problem, which in turn can inform the jury's determinations about liability (if the Court does not grant a default judgment) and about the award of punitive damages.

Specifically, CPH asks that the Court (1) order Morgan Stanley to produce the 46 documents listed on Morgan Stanley's February 10, 2005 Privilege Log (Priv. Nos. 486-524), as well as any other documents reflecting when and how Morgan Stanley agents or employees, including in-house and outside counsel, learned about the existence and discovery of all electronic data storage sources potentially containing e-mail-related discovery materials, the failure to make complete production of e-mail-related discovery materials, and when and how Morgan Stanley's agents and employees responded; (2) order Morgan Stanley to make available for deposition in the next two weeks key personnel who were parties to attorney-client communications involving the production of e-mails in this case, including but not limited to Thomas A. Clare, James P. Cusick, James F. Doyle, Grant Jonas, Soo-Mi Lee, Arthur Riel, Zachary Stern, and Wray Stewart; and (3) bar Morgan Stanley from asserting attorney-client privilege to justify withholding documents or instructing deponents not to answer questions about Morgan Stanley's retention, destruction, production, or nonproduction of e-mails or backup tapes, based on the crime/fraud exception recognized in FLA. STAT. ANN. § 90.502(4)(a) (West 2004). For the reasons stated below, Morgan Stanley — which owns and repeatedly has invoked the attorney-client privilege — should no longer be permitted to assert the privilege to hide the fraud it has perpetrated upon this Court and CPH.

CPH needs the opportunity to inquire into these matters to establish the magnitude and seriousness of Morgan Stanley's repeated and egregious violations of the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order — the latest of which was revealed just this weekend when Morgan Stanley once again advised CPH that it had located yet another batch of backup tapes that have not yet been searched. See Ex. A (February 19 e-mail advising CPH that "Morgan Stanley has located additional boxes of backup tapes"); see also Ex. B (CPH's proposed order presenting a menu of possible sanctions). In recent days, Morgan Stanley has sought to minimize the severity of its misconduct by arguing (1) that Arthur Riel, the former head of Morgan Stanley's e-mail archive project, was a renegade employee who for some unknown reason orchestrated a fraudulent discovery scheme on his own; and (2) that counsel took every appropriate step to address the problem when they learned about it in October. MS Supp. Opp'n at 2-3, 6. Neither argument, however, is supported by any record evidence, and Morgan Stanley has used assertions of privilege to block CPH from inquiring into these matters, both in depositions and in open court. Moreover, as explained below, there are multiple reasons to doubt the veracity of these assertions — reasons that fully justify revoking the protections of privilege in view of Morgan Stanley’s failure to satisfy its discovery obligations even today, despite having certified its full compliance eight months ago.

BACKGROUND

As the Court is aware, it is only as a result of CPH’s persistence that Morgan Stanley has begun taking steps in the direction of compliance with the April 16, 2004 Order, eight months after Morgan Stanley certified that it already had fully complied. How close Morgan Stanley now is to full compliance and whether it will ever reach the Court-ordered destination remain unsolved mysteries. If CPH had not made an appropriate motion, it is highly unlikely that Morgan Stanley ever would have located multiple sets of additional, unsearched tapes or would have done anything beyond processing an incomplete set of tapes on its own schedule, at its own pace. See, e.g., Ex. C at 187, 195 (Mr. Clare testifying that he learned only after CPH filed its January 26, 2005 motion that the “Brooklyn found” tapes had been discovered before the certification on June 23); id. at 202 (Mr. Clare testifying that he only recently learned that Ms. Gorman had “been instructed [in October] that the processing of these tapes was to be given a higher priority than it had previously”); Ex. D at 155-56 (Mr. Saunders testifying that his deposition inspired additional searches that turned up another 243 tapes); Ex. E (February 16, 2005 notice revoking Morgan Stanley’s June 23, 2004 certificate of compliance).

But the problems continue. Remarkably, just this weekend, Morgan Stanley once again revealed that it was still finding additional backup tapes that have never been analyzed or searched. On Saturday afternoon, Morgan Stanley's counsel, Mr. Thomas A. Clare of Kirkland & Ellis LLP, sent CPH's attorneys an e-mail message stating, in full:

We have been informed that Morgan Stanley has located additional boxes of backup tapes in a security room. Morgan Stanley is working to catalog the tapes and determine their contents. We will provide you with this information when it becomes available. As of this morning, however, Morgan Stanley has identified four (unlabelled) DLT tapes among the collection. Those four tapes will be sent to NDCI for further analysis.

Ex. A (e-mail sent at 12:54 p.m. on Saturday, February 19, 2005).¹ This message arrived only days after Morgan Stanley's Robert Saunders twice testified under oath that he was "confident" all tapes had already been located. Ex. D at 152-56 (Saunders's testimony at February 14, 2005 hearing, recounting his February 10, 2005 deposition testimony).

The Court already has determined based on evidence presented at the February 14 hearing that Morgan Stanley's failure to make a complete and timely production of e-mails in compliance with the Court's Order was willful. But the full magnitude of the effort to commit fraud on the Court and on CPH remains unknown. Morgan Stanley continues to assert (1) that this problem was originated by one employee, Mr. Riel, who was subsequently placed on "administrative leave" for incompetence and lack of integrity; and (2) that Morgan Stanley acted appropriately and with dispatch when its legal department learned of the issue in October. MS

Supp. Opp'n at 2-3, 6. This motion seeks a way to test those assertions for purposes of establishing the truth, which can in turn be disclosed at trial.

A review of the chronology of key events reveals why additional discovery is justified and why Morgan Stanley no longer should be allowed to invoke privilege to hamper that discovery:

- On May 14, 2004, Morgan Stanley made what purported to be a complete production of e-mails pursuant to the Agreed Order, based on electronic searches run in April.
- But two years earlier, hundreds of eight-millimeter tapes had been discovered (but not uploaded or searched), and by no later than May 6, 2004 (a full week before the May 14 production), the Morgan Stanley employee responsible for this project, Arthur Riel, knew there were other backup tapes (the "Brooklyn tapes") whose contents also had not been uploaded to the archive and searched. Ex. F, MS 112286 (May 6 minutes). He also knew that Morgan Stanley's vendor, NDCI, had not yet completed processing all of the original 35,000 backup tapes in order to allow them to be uploaded. See MS Supp. Opp'n at 8-9 (noting that, as of May 6, 2004, NDCI had yet to process more than 2,000 of the original 35,000 tapes).
- Despite that knowledge, on June 23 Mr. Riel falsely certified in writing that Morgan Stanley had fully complied with the Agreed Order.
- By July 2, Mr. Riel learned that there were potentially responsive e-mails on the tapes still being processed. Ex. G, MS 112327 (July 2 minutes).

032546

But according to Morgan Stanley, no one in the legal department had any knowledge until late October that the May 14 production was not complete and that the June 23 certificate was therefore false. There are several reasons to doubt this story.

First, it is inherently implausible. No reason is suggested why Mr. Riel would take it upon himself to orchestrate a fraud not only on CPH but on Morgan Stanley's own counsel. Certainly there must have been multiple communications between counsel and Mr. Riel in April, May, and June 2004 about this very topic.

Second, Morgan Stanley has not offered any actual evidence of this story — instead offering only a carefully phrased declaration by Mr. Doyle stating that he learned in late October “that additional e-mail backup tapes had been located within Morgan Stanley, and that the data on those tapes had not been restored or searched prior to Morgan Stanley's May 14, 2004 e-mail production.” Ex. H. Mr. Doyle, who was present but not called as a witness at the February 14 hearing, says nothing in his declaration about whether he was otherwise aware that the May 14 production was incomplete, nor does he describe any inquiry he made of other counsel at Morgan Stanley about when they acquired such knowledge.

Third, and even more glaringly, Morgan Stanley's latest privilege log lists a June 7, 2004 e-mail from Mr. Riel to two in-house Morgan Stanley attorneys, James Cusick and Soo-Mi Lee, “seeking legal advice regarding [the] status of [Morgan Stanley's] e-mail restoration process.” Ex. I (privilege log, entry no. 490). The timing of that June 7 request for legal advice is disturbing, as it came after Mr. Riel oversaw the May 14 production of e-mails but before he signed the June 23 certificate stating that Morgan Stanley had fully complied with the Agreed Order, which he knew at the time was false. Morgan Stanley's attempt to portray Mr. Riel as a renegade employee is undercut by the fact that he affirmatively sought legal guidance from

032547

Morgan Stanley's counsel before affixing his name to the knowingly false certificate. On the one hand, if in June 2004 Mr. Riel or his staff revealed to Morgan Stanley's counsel that certain backup tapes had not yet been searched, that could serve to establish that Mr. Riel conspired with attorneys at Morgan Stanley to conceal the falsity of Morgan Stanley's certificate and thereby to defraud both this Court and CPH. That misconduct should trigger the crime/fraud exception to the privilege, under FLA. STAT. ANN. § 90.502(4)(a) (West 2004). On the other hand, if Mr. Riel or his staff manipulated counsel to keep them ignorant and thereby to perpetrate a fraud on CPH and on this Court, that too should trigger the crime/fraud exception, as it is the client's knowledge — not the attorney's — that matters for purposes of the exception.

CPH should be allowed to depose both Mr. Riel and the in-house counsel (Mr. Cusick and Ms. Lee) from whom Mr. Riel sought legal advice on June 7, 2004. But the discovery also should go further, to include other key inside and outside counsel and information-technology professionals whose names appear repeatedly on Morgan Stanley's recent privilege log. Roughly half of the 46 documents on that log date from October or November 2004, when there was a flurry of communications about the e-mail production situation. At some point, a decision was made to produce 8,000 pages of e-mails and to tell CPH that these were a first installment of production from "additional e-mail backup tapes" that Morgan Stanley allegedly had discovered "since [its] e-mail production in May 2004." Ex. J (November 17, 2004 letter from Thomas A. Clare to CPH's counsel); see id. (referring to "newly discovered tapes"). But Morgan Stanley's own witnesses at the February 14, 2005 hearing testified that the data from the DLT tapes found in Brooklyn and the 8-mm tapes found in Manhattan were not put into searchable form until January 2005. Ex. K at 52, 65, 68-69 (Gorman). Morgan Stanley's false claim that the November production came from "newly discovered" backup tapes apparently was designed to conceal the fact that not all of the 35,000 original tapes stored at the Recall facility in New Jersey had been searched in April 2004. CPH should be allowed to take discovery on the genesis of this cover story. CPH and this Court should learn the full story, under oath, with all witnesses fully subject to all the penalties for providing false testimony.

So far, CPH's efforts to learn that full story have been stymied by Morgan Stanley's repeated assertions of privilege. See, e.g., Ex. L at 63-64 (invoking the privilege during Ms. Gorman's February 14, 2005 in-court testimony); Ex. M at 181-82, 196 (invoking the privilege during Mr. Clare's February 14, 2005 in-court testimony); Ex. N at 47, 63-65 (invoking the privilege during Ms. Gorman's February 9, 2005 deposition); Ex. O at 23-27 (invoking the privilege during Mr. Saunders's February 10, 2005 deposition). Those assertions of privilege might have been appropriate if there had been a record here of good faith. But the opposite is the case. Representation after representation of complete production has proved false, as carefully worded declarations obfuscate the truth and leave more questions than answers. The privilege log reveals the fingerprints of counsel on these clumsy, false representations. It is time for the full facts to be aired, under oath and under penalty of perjury.

ARGUMENT

The crime/fraud exception recognizes that the attorney-client privilege "ceas[es] to operate at a certain point, namely, where the desired advice refers not to prior wrongdoing, but to future wrongdoing." United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 562-63 (1989). Under Florida law, the crime/fraud exception bars any party from claiming as privileged any communications with a lawyer when the lawyer's services "were sought or obtained to enable or aid anyone to commit or plan to commit what the client knew was a crime or fraud." FLA. STAT. ANN. § 90.502(4)(a) (West 2004) (emphasis added); see Butler, Pappas, Weihmuller v. Coral Reef of Key Biscayne

032549

Developers, Inc., 873 So. 2d 339, 342 (Fla. 3d DCA 2004) (requiring showing that communication was part of effort to commit fraud, and party sought attorney's advice in order to further fraud); First Union Nat'l Bank v. Turney, 824 So. 2d 172, 187 (1st DCA 2001) (requiring showing that communication with counsel was "in order to obtain advice or assistance in perpetrating what the client knows to be a crime or fraud"). It does not matter whether the lawyers knew of the fraud, so long as the client knew and used its lawyers to commit (or plan to commit) a fraud. First Union Nat'l Bank v. Turney, 824 So. 2d at 187. As this Court put it, even counsel's sincere belief that it acted in good faith does not "absolve[] its client of the consequences of any of the client's bad acts. . . . [S]ometimes the [sins] of a client come back and visit the client." Ex. P at 618-19.

Florida law has long recognized "fraud on the court," a species of fraud designed to "produc[e] a judicial act by fraudulent representations to the Judge." State v. Burton, 314 So. 2d 136, 137 (Fla. 1975). Furthermore, "fraud on the court" encompasses abuses not only in open court, but also in pretrial discovery. Thus, in Medina v. Florida East Coast Railway, L.L.C., 866 So. 2d 89 (Fla. 3d DCA 2004), where the plaintiff had repeatedly lied under oath at his deposition, the appellate court reaffirmed the principle that a Florida trial court, after giving the plaintiff an opportunity to be heard, has "the inherent authority to dismiss an action when it finds that a plaintiff has perpetrated a fraud on the court." Id. at 90.

Courts in Florida and elsewhere have not hesitated to apply the crime/fraud exception to frauds on the court, including discovery abuses, destruction of evidence, and obstruction of justice. See, e.g., Volcanic Gardens Mgmt. Co. v. Paxson, 847 S.W.2d 343, 348 (Tex. Ct. App. 1993) ("[U]nder the crime/fraud exception to the lawyer-client privilege, 'fraud' would include the commission and/or attempted commission of fraud on the court or on a third person," as when a “client seeks the assistance of an attorney in order to make a false statement or statements of material fact or law to a third person or the court for personal advantage.”).

In Gutter v. E.I. DuPont de Nemours, 124 F. Supp. 2d 1291 (S.D. Fla. 2000), a Florida federal court applied the crime/fraud exception when DuPont’s counsel made false and misleading statements to the court regarding privilege logs. Although the court could identify no single lawyer at DuPont who knew all the facts behind the misstatements, there was “ample evidence that DuPont itself had the requisite knowledge and intent” for a finding of fraud on the court. Id. at 1313. The parallels to the present case are striking: Certain of the defendant’s lawyers knew that certain documents could be produced (and had been in other litigation), but the defendant withheld the documents and informed the court that the documents could not be produced. See id. at 1302. When the pieces were fit together, the defendant’s fraud was revealed.

Such discovery misconduct triggers the crime/fraud exception because the destruction of records eviscerates “the court’s ability to ascertain the truth.” In re Sealed Case, 754 F.2d 395, 401 (D.C. Cir. 1985); see id. (invoking the crime/fraud exception where a party “perpetrated a continuing fraud connected with, but not limited to, the actual destruction of records”). The destruction of evidence is every bit as troubling with electronic documents as with traditional paper documents. As this Court put it on February 15, “This is a case of fraud. And electronic data is the functional equivalent of a paper trail.” Ex. P at 614-15.

For these reasons, courts do not hesitate to deny the protections of privilege when circumstances suggest, for example, that a party and its lawyers were overseeing the destruction of e-mails and other documents while anticipating litigation. See Rambus, Inc. v. Infineon Techs. AG, 220 F.R.D. 264, 283, 287-88 (E.D. Va. 2004). In Rambus, a suit involving counterclaims of fraud, the defendant sought discovery of documents, including attorney-client communications, relating to the plaintiff's document-retention program, on the theory that the document-retention program resulted in the intentional spoliation of relevant documents, and therefore the crime/fraud exception to the attorney-client privilege applied. In response to the plaintiff's claim that it had destroyed documents to reduce the potential cost of discovery in future cases, not to suppress evidence in this particular case, the court held that even if the plaintiff "did not institute its policy in bad faith, if it reasonably anticipated litigation when it did so, it is guilty of spoliation." Id. at 286. The court concluded that "the crime/fraud exception extends to materials or communication created for planning, or in furtherance of, spoliation." Id. at 283; see also State Farm Fire & Cas. Co. v. Superior Court of Los Angeles County, 54 Cal. App. 4th 625, 648-49 (Cal. Ct. App. 1997) (applying the crime/fraud exception to discovery abuses).

When parties engage in discovery misconduct and abuse the attorney-client privilege, Florida courts similarly have not hesitated to reject those parties' claims of privilege and to require production of documents that otherwise would have been protected from disclosure. See, e.g., Metabolife Int'l, Inc. v. Holster, 888 So. 2d 140, 140-41 (Fla. 1st DCA 2004) (holding that defendant's failure timely to file a privilege log waived its claims of privilege and required production of documents that otherwise would have been subject to attorney-client and work-product privileges); General Motors Corp. v. McGee, 837 So. 2d 1010, 1032 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002) (holding that defendant's misconduct during discovery justified a finding that defendant had waived its privilege claims); Omega Consulting Group, Inc. v. Templeton, 805 So. 2d 1058, 1060 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002) (affirming the trial court's order requiring corporate defendant to disclose three e-mails, and rejecting the corporation's claims that the communications were protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege).

032552

This Court's April 16, 2004 Order gave Morgan Stanley one full month to produce all responsive, nonprivileged e-mails. Today, more than 10 months later, Morgan Stanley has yet to comply with that Order. And for almost the entire period of delay, up until a few days ago (when Morgan Stanley finally revoked its certificate of compliance, see Ex. E), Morgan Stanley insisted on telling CPH and this Court that it had complied with the Order. The time has come for this Court to stop accepting Morgan Stanley's blanket claims of attorney-client privilege and to acknowledge that Morgan Stanley has used its lawyers to "carry[] out [its] misrepresentations and concealment." American Tobacco Co. v. State, 697 So. 2d 1249, 1257 (Fla. 4th DCA 1997).

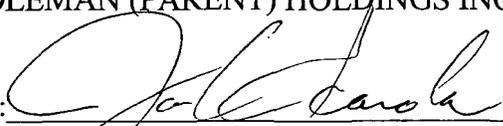

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, this Court should invoke the crime/fraud exception to order Morgan Stanley (1) to produce the 46 documents listed on Morgan Stanley's February 10, 2005 Privilege Log (Priv. Nos. 486-524), as well as any other documents reflecting when and how Morgan Stanley agents or employees, including in-house and outside counsel, learned about the existence and discovery of all electronic data storage sources potentially containing e-mail-related discovery materials, the failure to make complete production of e-mail-related discovery materials, and when and how Morgan Stanley's agents and employees responded; (2) to make available for deposition in the next two weeks key personnel who were parties to attorney-client communications involving the production of e-mails in this case, including but not limited to Thomas A. Clare, James P. Cusick, James F. Doyle, Grant Jonas, Soo-Mi Lee, Arthur Riel, Zachary Stern, and Wray Stewart; and (3) not to assert attorney-client privilege as a basis for withholding documents or when the deponents are asked questions about Morgan Stanley's retention, destruction, production, or nonproduction of e-mails or backup tapes.

THE WITNESS: I do.

EXAMINATION BY

MR. CHORVAT:

Q. Would you please state your name for the record, sir.

A. Christopher Whelan.

Q. Mr. Whelan, have you ever been deposed before?

A. No, I have not.

Q. Okay. Then let me just explain to you how this will work, though you may already understand it.

Over the course of today, I will be asking you a series of questions, and the court reporter will be taking down a transcript of my questions, your answers and any objections that your counsel makes.

There will also be a video record being made of this.

It is important, because the transcript is being made, that you answer

018228

1 audibly, instead of simply nodding or using
 2 some sort of a gesture.
 3 If at any point I ask you a question
 4 that you don't hear, let me know that and I
 5 will try to repeat it.
 6 If at any point I ask you a question
 7 that is unclear or you don't understand, let
 8 me know that and I will try to rephrase it.
 9 Any questions about the process?
 10 A. No.
 11 Q. Are you currently employed?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. With whom?
 14 A. Morgan Stanley.
 15 Q. Do you know which Morgan Stanley
 16 entity is your employer?
 17 A. I am not exactly sure, but it is
 18 probably Morgan Stanley & Co.
 19 Q. What position do you hold with
 20 Morgan Stanley?
 21 A. I am the executive director in the 22 credit department.
 23 Q. Do you work in New York?
 24 A. Yes, I do.
 25 Q. Would you summarize, please, your

1 Q. During the time that you were vice
 2 president in the credit department, what were
 3 your responsibilities?
 4 A. At that time the department was
 5 called the credit and rating advisory services
 6 group, and my responsibilities were primarily
 7 to cover existing accounts that Morgan Stanley
 8 had credit exposure to, whether it was lending
 9 exposure, derivative exposure, commodities
 10 exposure, um, and I covered certain
 11 industries.
 12 I covered consumer products. I
 13 covered real estate. I covered lodging and 14 gaming. And my job, primarily, was to provide 15 unbiased credit analysis to determine whether 16 the firm should take credit exposure with 17 certain counterparties.
 18 My other major function was to 19 provide rating advisory services to 20 prospective clients and existing clients, when 21 these clients were in the process of dealing
 22 with the major rating agencies.
 23 Q. When you say "rating advisory
 24 services," was that predicting what rating a
 25 particular offering would achieve?

1 education since high school.
 2 A. Yes.
 3 I received a Bachelor's at Colby
 4 College in economics in 1988.
 5 Then I went to work at Bank of New
 6 York in the credit training program, after 7 graduating from college.
 8 I left Bank of New York in 1991,
 9 joined Morgan Stanley in July of 1991, and I
 10 have been there ever since.
 11 Q. Briefly describe your employment
 12 track at Morgan Stanley, since 1991.
 13 A. I came in at Morgan Stanley as 14 associate in 1991. I was promoted to vice
 15 president at the end of 1995 -- sorry, the end
 16 of 1996.
 17 I was then promoted to what used to 18 be called principal at the end of 2000, but
 19 after the merger with Dean Witter they changed
 20 the principal title to executive director, and 21 that is what I am today.
 22 Q. Have you been in the credit
 23 department throughout your history with Morgan
 24 Stanley?
 25 A. Yes.

1 A. That is correct. That was part of
 2 the job, yes.
 3 Q. What else?
 4 A. Just a big part of it was advising
 5 clients on how to tell their story to the 6 rating agencies, um, dealing with certain --
 7 quite frankly, putting together presentations,
 8 effectively large road show presentations, if 9 you will, to the rating agencies, so the 10 clients could tell the story and then coach
 11 clients on how to handle certain strengths and 12 credit issues that the rating agencies would 13 want to get more information on.
 14 Q. You mentioned that you also were
 15 responsible for providing unbiased credit
 16 analysis. How did you go about doing that?
 17 A. How so?
 18 Q. Describe that part of your job.
 19 A. Well, I mean, simply, if it was a
 20 public company, we would use public filings to 21 analyze the public financial statements.
 22 And, many times, having
 23 conversations with senior management to
 24 understand what the strategy was, comparing a
 25 particular client to the competitive dynamics

018229

1 out there.
 2 Looking at equity research. Looking
 3 at fixed income research. Talking to the 4 rating agencies.
 5 It really just depended on which
 6 situation you were looking at.
 7 Q. The credit analysis was designed for
 8 use by people within Morgan Stanley?
 9 A. The credit analysis was strictly
 10 internal to determine whether Morgan Stanley
 11 should grant credit to a particular client.
 12 Q. How have your responsibilities
 13 changed, if at all, since you have become a
 14 principal or an executive director?
 15 A. Well, the groups changed a bit. Now
 16 it is just called the credit department.
 17 The rating advisory aspect of it has 18 been taken out of my group and put into
 19 investment banking.
 20 Currently we, my group, reports to
 21 Steve Crawford, who used to be the CFO but now
 22 is head of, basically head of strategy.
 23 And my particular job now is, I
 24 still cover certain industries, but mostly
 25 what I do now is I determine whether to extend

1 reported to someone other than Leslie
 2 Bradford?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. Explain the structure of the 5 department then, please.
 6 A. Well, the way the department worked
 7 is, we had Rick Felix ran the department, who
 8 was then an MD. Leslie Bradford was an MD
 9 under Rick Felix. And anyone who was dealing 10 with industrial corporate accounts reported to 11 Leslie Bradford. Okay.
 12 There was another MD in the
 13 department who is still there, named John
 14 LaMountain. He oversaw, effectively, a number
 15 of people who were in charge of our
 16 counterparty derivatives trading credit
 17 functions, so to speak.
 18 So, for instance, John LaMountain
 19 would have a vice president who had a product,
 20 whether it is foreign exchange or commodities,
 21 or whatnot, and if that particular product
 22 person had a prospective account that fell in 23 my industry bucket, they would come to me and 24 ask for a credit overview or a preliminary 25 rating.

1 credit or not, to all companies in North
 2 America, depending on geography.
 3 Q. Are there other executive directors
 4 in the credit department?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. How many?
 7 A. Worldwide? Worldwide, probably ten.
 8 Q. In New York?
 9 A. Um, probably six.
 10 Q. When you were vice president, to
 11 whom did you report?
 12 A. I reported directly to Les Bradford.
 13 Q. Was that true the entire period from
 14 '96 to 2000?
 15 A. Yes, it was.
 16 Q. Were there other vice presidents at 17 the same time who also reported to 18 Ms. Bradford?
 19 A. Yes, there were.
 20 Q. How many in New York?
 21 A. Probably about six, seven. Sorry,
 22 report directly to Leslie Bradford? Somewhere
 23 between four and six, give or take.
 24 Q. Were there other vice presidents in 25 the credit and rating agency department that

1 I would give it to that person, and
 2 then that person would structure the
 3 derivative or commodity transaction, or
 4 foreign exchange transaction, depending on 5 what I told them about the nature of the 6 credit.
 7 Q. During the 1997, '98 time frame, was
 8 your compensation structured as base pay plus
 9 at least the possibility of a bonus?
 10 A. Yes, it was.
 11 Q. During that period of time, was your 12 compensation in any way related to the Sunbeam
 13 financing?
 14 A. No, it was not.
 15 Q. Describe your compensation package
 16 in 1997 and 1998, please.
 17 A. Um, it is -- you know, off the top
 18 of my head, I am guessing. You know.
 19 Can I -- can I give an estimate?
 20 MS. BROWN: Yes.
 21 MR. CHORVAT: We are looking for
 22 your best estimate.
 23 A. Okay. My base was probably
 24 somewhere in the $125,000 range. My bonus was 25 probably in the -- probably in the $100,000

018230

1 range.
 2 Q. Would it be correct for both years,
 3 1997 and '98?
 4 A. Probably the base stayed about the
 5 same. The base could have been a little less
 6 and the bonus was probably a little more.
 7 Q. Sorry, which --
 8 A. In 1998. The 125 is really a guess.
 9 I can't remember what it was.
 10 But it was probably, total
 11 compensation was probably in the 225 range in 12 1997, and probably a little bit higher in 13 1998.
 14 Q. Do you recall why it would have been
 15 a little higher in 1998?
 16 A. I can't, quite frankly, now that I
 17 think of it, it could have been a little 18 lower. I don't remember what kind of year we 19 had that year, so.
 20 Q. Who would have evaluated your
 21 performance in 1997 or 1998?
 22 A. Well, I would have received a
 23 performance evaluation by Leslie Bradford.
 24 Q. Anyone else?
 25 A. No.

1 Q. What, if anything, have you done to
 2 prepare for today's deposition?
 3 A. I met with an attorney yesterday.
 4 Q. Aside from meeting with the
 5 attorney, have you done anything else to
 6 prepare for the deposition?
 7 A. No, sir.
 8 Q. Who did you meet with?
 9 A. I met with Ms. Brown.
 10 Q. How long did that meeting take?
 11 A. Um, about four -- four and a half to 12 five hours.
 13 Q. Have you spoken to anyone else who
 14 has been deposed in connection with this case?
 15 A. Yes, I have.
 16 Q. Have you spoken to any of those
 17 individuals about the topic of their
 18 depositions?
 19 A. No, I have not.
 20 Q. Have you reviewed any documents that 21 refreshed your recollection about any of the 22 events surrounding the Sunbeam matter?
 23 A. Other than some documents yesterday?
 24 No.
 25 Q. What documents have you reviewed at

1 any time that refreshed your recollection with
 2 respect to Sunbeam?
 3 A. Um, again, some documents yesterday.
 4 I can't remember exactly what those documents
 5 were, but some documents yesterday.
 6 Q. Can you describe them in any way?
 7 A. Um, they were various, you know,
 8 internal documents, by and large. Some
 9 perhaps, perhaps some public press releases.
 10 Some financial statements.
 11 Q. Anything else that you can recall?
 12 A. Um, no.
 13 Q. What role did the credit and rating
 14 agency department play in connection with the
 15 Sunbeam financing?
 16 A. Well, we were responsible for 17 determining, first and foremost, whether the 18 transaction that Morgan Stanley was looking to 19 undertake, meaning providing a capital
 20 commitment for the bank financing to close the 21 acquisitions, was a viable credit going
 22 forward.
 23 It was a very large exposure to
 24 Morgan Stanley.
 25 Our job as in the credit department

1 is to make sure that the capital base of
 2 Morgan Stanley is protected. That was our
 3 first and foremost job.
 4 The second part was to help Sunbeam
 5 get through the rating process with a fair
 6 outcome on the ratings on the bank department,
 7 and by default the ratings on the notes.
 8 Q. In connection with the first part of 9 your answer, how did the work that the credit
 10 group or the credit and rating agencies group,
 11 how did that fit together with work that other
 12 departments or groups at Morgan Stanley were
 13 doing?
 14 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 15 Q. When your counsel objects like that,
 16 you can go ahead and answer the question. The 17 objection is preserved for the record.
 18 A. Okay, can you repeat the question?
 19 Q. Sure. How did the work that the
 20 credit and rating agencies group at Morgan
 21 Stanley fit in with or work together with
 22 groups that, work that other groups at Morgan
 23 Stanley were doing in connection with the 24 Sunbeam transaction?
 25 MS. BROWN: Same objection.

018231

1 A. Well, let me say that we were an
2 independent group, okay, that worked along
3 with a deal team to put together a proposal
4 for the firm's senior managers to determine
5 whether this was a transaction that Morgan
6 Stanley should undertake.

7 There are lots of things that go
8 into that teamwork analysis, so to speak.

9 So, I am not so sure that, you know,
10 if that, I am not so sure if that answered
11 your question.

12 Q. Let me back up a bit.
13 You described the Sunbeam
14 transaction as involving the financing of the 15 acquisitions.

16 Did you have any involvement with
17 Sunbeam at a time prior to its proposed
18 acquisitions of Coleman and the other
19 companies?

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. Did you have any involvement in a
22 potential transaction involving the
23 acquisition of Black & Decker?

24 A. I don't recall.

25 Q. Do you recall how you first came to

1 A. Probably more.

2 Q. Probably more than 25?

3 A. Well, when you say 25, what exactly
4 are you talking about? 25 what?

5 Q. 25 other transactions that require
6 material amounts of your time.

7 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

8 A. Um, I am not so sure about material.

9 Q. Anything more than a cursory amount
10 of your time?

11 MS. BROWN: I continue the
12 objection.

13 A. Yes. I am not so sure --

14 Q. I will step back and try it again.
15 Can you describe what your work load
16 was like, the sorts of matters that you were
17 working on in the spring of 1998.

18 A. Um, I can't describe specifically
19 what I was working on.

20 There were probably a number of 21 situations where I would get called and be
22 asked to opine on a potential equity
23 underwriting in the sense of we have a
24 potential client, they are thinking about 25 issuing some equity, what happens to their

1 be involved with Sunbeam?

2 A. No, I do not.

3 Q. What percentage of your time did you
4 devote to the Sunbeam transaction at the 5 highest point?

6 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

7 A. "Highest point" meaning?

8 Q. I assume that there were times
9 during the period that you worked on the 10 Sunbeam matter when sometimes you would work
11 on it more on some days, and other days you
12 would work on it less; would that be fair?

13 A. That is fair.

14 Q. Would there be days where the
15 Sunbeam transaction would be the predominant
16 thing that you would work on?

17 A. Perhaps, but I don't recall.

18 Q. At a given -- in the spring of 1998,
19 other than the Sunbeam transaction, how many 20 other matters would you have been working on 21 at the same time?

22 A. It is hard to say.

23 Q. Would it be more or less than ten?

24 A. Probably.

25 Q. Probably more or probably less?

1 public rating. Okay.

2 Something like that takes a very
3 little time. Okay.

4 I had other transactions probably,
5 but again, I don't recall where I could have
6 been having some back and forth advisory work
7 with one or two, three clients, again, that
8 took very -- the existing clients that were 9 already rated.

10 Sunbeam was a little different, in
11 the sense that it was not rated, and it was a
12 big transaction.

13 Q. When you say that "it was a big 14 transaction," how did Sunbeam fit in the 15 spectrum of transactions that you worked on at
16 that point in time?

17 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

18 A. Can you --

19 Q. Sure. I will do it this way. You
20 mentioned that Sunbeam was a big transaction.
21 What do you mean by that?

22 A. What I meant was, it was a, the 23 dollar amount that Morgan Stanley was
24 committing in terms of the capital commitment
25 was, at that time, the largest transaction

1 that I had looked at.
 2 Q. The Sunbeam transaction involved a
 3 senior debt piece and also a convertible
 4 security.
 5 Did your work focus on one or the
 6 other of those elements?
 7 A. I was primarily, almost actually,
 8 almost entirely working on the senior debt
 9 piece.
 10 Q. What role, if any, did Rick Felix
 11 have with respect to the Sunbeam transaction?
 12 A. Well, Rick, as the head of the 13 credit, department, and as a -- I believe he
 14 was co-chairman of the leveraged finance
 15 commitment committee, and he was responsible,
 16 he had the final credit authorization, so to 17 speak, for the transaction. So, he ultimately 18 approved the deal.
 19 Q. You mentioned the leverage finance
 20 commitment committee.
 21 What is that?
 22 A. Well, it doesn't exist anymore in 23 its present form, but it was a committee of 24 very senior managers within the firm, business
 25 unit heads, who were responsible for,

1 ultimately, approving whether to undertake
 2 capital commitments or not.
 3 Q. Would the leveraged finance
 4 commitment committee have been involved in
 5 both the senior debt piece and the convertible
 6 security?
 7 A. No.
 8 Q. Just the senior debt piece?
 9 A. Correct.
 10 Q. To your knowledge, did Mr. Felix
 11 have a role in connection with the Sunbeam
 12 transaction, other than an approval function?
 13 MS. BROWN: Objection. Speculation.
 14 Foundation.
 15 A. Yes. I can't recall.
 16 Q. What role, if any, did Leslie
 17 Bradford play in connection with the Sunbeam
 18 transaction?
 19 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
 20 A. Can you rephrase the question?
 21 Q. Sure. At the time you worked on 22 Sunbeam, you reported to Ms. Bradford;
 23 correct?
 24 A. Correct.
 25 Q. Did Ms. Bradford have a role in

1 connection with the leveraged finance
 2 commitment committee?
 3 A. Yes. She was also a member.
 4 Q. And you were not; is that correct?
 5 A. That is correct.
 6 Q. Beyond being a member of the 7 leveraged finance commitment committee, are
 8 you aware of whether Ms. Bradford did anything
 9 else in connection with the Sunbeam matter?
 10 A. No, I am not aware.
 11 Q. In connection with Sunbeam did you
 12 work with someone named Jason -- is it
 13 Kunreuther --
 14 A. Kunreuther, yes.
 15 Q. Who is he?
 16 A. He was an analyst, a two-year
 17 analyst who worked in our department, worked
 18 for myself and other officers in the credit
 19 department.
 20 Q. And he reported to you?
 21 A. Um, he did not report directly to 22 me. I don't remember who he reported to, but 23 he reported to someone else in the department.
 24 Q. What did Mr. -- could you say that
 25 again.

1 A. Kunreuther.
 2 Q. What did Mr. Kunreuther do in
 3 connection with the Sunbeam matter, to your
 4 knowledge?
 5 A. Specifically, I don't recall.
 6 Q. Do you recall whether he did
 7 anything in connection with the Sunbeam
 8 matter?
 9 A. He was involved -- I do remember him
 10 attending some diligence meetings with me.
 11 Um, and he -- he most likely spread some 12 financial statements for me, into our 13 database; so, it is easy to understand the 14 financials.
 15 Other than that, I don't recall.
 16 Q. Other than Mr. Felix, Ms. Bradford
 17 and Mr. Kunreuther, is there anyone else from 18 the credit group that you can recall having
 19 done work in connection with the Sunbeam
 20 matter?
 21 A. No.
 22 Q. Was there, at the time, something
 23 called the credit committee?
 24 A. Credit committee? Um, I am not so
 25 sure what you mean by that.

018233

1 Q. Well, in 1997 or 1998, was there an
 2 entity called the credit committee at Morgan
 3 Stanley?
 4 A. We had a, and still have an internal
 5 credit committee in the credit department, but
 6 it was not called the credit committee.
 7 Q. What was it called?
 8 A. I believe it was called the
 9 industrial credit committee.
 10 Q. Did the industrial credit committee
 11 play any role in connection with the Sunbeam
 12 transaction?
 13 A. I don't recall.
 14 Q. What work, if any, did you do in
 15 connection with ratings or potential ratings
 16 with respect to any Sunbeam offerings?
 17 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 18 A. Can you be a little bit more
 19 specific.
 20 Q. Did you do any rating work in
 21 connection with Sunbeam?
 22 A. Yes, I did.
 23 Q. Please describe what you did.
 24 A. Um, well, I was responsible for 25 providing expected ratings to the deal team,

1 time you mean.
 2 Q. Let me step back.
 3 Over what period of time did you do
 4 rating work in connection with Sunbeam?
 5 A. Um, I don't recall exactly. Um,
 6 probably somewhere between sometime in the --
 7 with the company itself or with the team?
 8 Well --
 9 Q. Either one.
 10 A. Probably sometimes towards the end
 11 of 1997, where I was providing some 12 preliminary views on the ratings, and then
 13 more so in the, you know, the early part of 14 1998.
 15 And then through, really, June.
 16 Q. So, both before and after the
 17 acquisition of Coleman closed?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. Would that time frame that you
 20 described from late 1997 through June of '98,
 21 would that apply to both the senior debt piece
 22 and the convertible security or just one or 23 the other?
 24 A. I don't recall.
 25 Q. Are you familiar with a rating that

1 so that they could try to provide cost
 2 analysis to the client, because the big part
 3 of the cost on the bank debt is related to, is
 4 tied to ratings.
 5 And at that time, again, Sunbeam was
 6 not rated.
 7 Um, and then I also was responsible
 8 for working with the Sunbeam management, in 9 preparing them for the meetings with the 10 rating agencies and helping them along with 11 some other team members, put together a rating
 12 agency presentation that they would walk
 13 through with the rating agencies at the
 14 meeting.
 15 And then I was involved in some
 16 follow-up conversations with the rating
 17 agencies after those meetings.
 18 Q. Did you do rating work in connection
 19 with both the senior debt piece and the
 20 convertible security?
 21 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 22 A. Not directly.
 23 Q. What rating work, if any, did you do
 24 in connection with the convertible security?
 25 A. At what time? I am not sure what

1 would be written B1/B plus?
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. How would you describe that rating?
 4 A. Well, on a scale -- on -- I mean, it
 5 is hard to describe it, as you word it that
 6 way, but the highest possible rating at S&P is
 7 a triple A, all the way down to single D.
 8 And the highest possible rating at
 9 Moody's is an A double -- also a triple A.
 10 And so, you have all the way from
 11 triple A down to D, basically, both agencies.
 12 You know. A B1 B plus rating, it
 13 depends on what security you are talking
 14 about. Because that will impact the rating.
 15 It could go higher or could go lower.
 16 Q. What sort of rating would be
 17 required to be considered investment grade?
 18 A. Triple B minus, B double A3.
 19 Big B little A, little A3.
 20 Q. So, would a B1 B plus rating be 21 considered investment grade?
 22 A. No, it would not.
 23 Q. You mentioned, a couple times in 24 your testimony, I think you used the phrase
 25 "deal team."

018234

1 A. Correct.
 2 Q. Who are you referring to by that?
 3 A. Um, specifically, I don't recall
 4 everyone on the deal team, but members
 5 probably came from M&A, corporate finance,
 6 fixed income research. Um, debt capital
 7 markets, which probably, at that time,
 8 included the bank loan group.
 9 That's it.
 10 Q. Who were the consumers of the 11 information that you generated in connection
 12 with Sunbeam?
 13 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 14 A. Can you be -- when you say
 15 consumers --
 16 Q. Sure. When you performed an
 17 analysis in connection with the Sunbeam
 18 matter, to whom did you provide that analysis?
 19 MS. BROWN: Same objection.
 20 A. I guess it would depend on the 21 situation.
 22 Q. Well, is there a set of people that,
 23 in connection with the entire Sunbeam matter,
 24 that would constitute the people to whom you
 25 provided your analysis?

1 A. I don't recall.
 2 Q. Did you provide your analysis to
 3 Ms. Bradford or Mr. Felix?
 4 A. I am sure I did, but I don't recall
 5 to who, if it was both, one or the other. But
 6 I am sure I did.
 7 Q. Would you have also have provided
 8 your analysis to people on the deal team?
 9 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 10 A. Again, I don't recall if I did or
 11 not.
 12 Q. What involvement, if any, did you
 13 have in formulating the amount of senior debt
 14 that would be extended to Sunbeam?
 15 A. None.
 16 Q. What involvement, if any, did you
 17 have in formulating the terms on which the 18 senior debt would be extended to Sunbeam?
 19 A. None.
 20 Q. What involvement, if any, did you
 21 have in formulating the amount of the 22 convertible security that Sunbeam would issue?
 23 A. None.
 24 Q. What involvement, if any, did you
 25 have in formulating the terms of the Sunbeam

1 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 2 A. Provide my analysis? Which
 3 analysis?
 4 Q. You said that you performed credit
 5 analysis.
 6 A. Correct.
 7 Q. What was the purpose for which you
 8 performed that credit analysis?
 9 MS. BROWN: Asked and answered.
 10 A. Um, the purpose was, again, to make
 11 sure that Morgan Stanley, as a firm, was 12 making a proper capital commitment, because
 13 again, our job primarily in the credit
 14 department is to protect the capital base of 15 the firm itself.
 16 Q. And it was not, ultimately, your
 17 decision, as a vice president in the credit
 18 department, as to whether or not that capital
 19 commitment would be made; was it?
 20 A. That is correct.
 21 Q. So, the analysis that you performed
 22 in connection with deciding whether or not
 23 Morgan Stanley should make the capital
 24 commitment, to whom did you provide that
 25 credit analysis?

1 convertible security?
 2 A. None.
 3 Q. Would it be fair to say that you
 4 really took the proposed terms and then
 5 analyzed whether those were a sound credit
 6 decision?
 7 MS. BROWN: Objection to the form.
 8 A. I am not so sure I understand.
 9 Q. Well, your role, as you described
 10 it, was that you performed an analysis to 11 protect Morgan Stanley's interest in extending 12 capital to Sunbeam; is that right?
 13 A. That is right.
 14 Q. And in performing that function
 15 would it be fair to say that you took the 16 proposed terms of the capital that would be
 17 extended as a given and then you evaluated
 18 whether those terms were worth pursuing from 19 Morgan Stanley's perspective?
 20 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 21 A. I am not so sure, when you say
 22 pursue those terms, I am not so sure what you
 23 mean.
 24 Q. You testified that you did not have
 25 a role in setting the terms of the financing

0182835

1 or capital to be extended to Morgan Stanley.
 2 I am trying to ask you, as the flip
 3 side of that, is it correct that you took the 4 terms of the capital that would be extended to
 5 Morgan Stanley as given, and then analyzed
 6 whether an extension of capital on those terms
 7 was in the interest of Morgan Stanley or not?
 8 A. Well, in the interest of Morgan
 9 Stanley -- are you talking about from a credit
 10 standpoint whether it was an acceptable
 11 credit?
 12 Q. Yes.
 13 A. I think that is a fair statement.
 14 Q. Are you familiar with the term
 15 "Sunbeam corporation working group" at Morgan
 16 Stanley?
 17 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 18 A. Not specifically. I am not so sure
 19 what --
 20 Q. All right. In connection with
 21 Morgan Stanley's work on different matters,
 22 are there working groups established?
 23 A. There was a team that was part of 24 the, you know, what we would call the working
 25 group.

1 but there are, there could have been certain
 2 people on the working group that I never spoke
 3 with.
 4 Q. What does working group mean in the
 5 context of a matter like the Sunbeam
 6 transaction?
 7 A. Um, it most likely would include
 8 everyone at Morgan Stanley who was associated
 9 with the transaction in some form.
 10 It would also include members of
 11 Sunbeam senior management team.
 12 It would also include, potentially,
 13 and I don't recall, but it could potentially
 14 include members from other capital providers,
 15 law firms, accounting firms, consulting firms.
 16 It would include a lot of different entities.
 17 Q. The deal team that you referred to 18 would be a smaller, like a subset of that
 19 group?
 20 A. That is fair to say.
 21 Q. Who would be part of the deal team?
 22 MS. BROWN: Objection, asked and
 23 answered.
 24 A. Well, it could be -- people from my
 25 department, people from fixed income research,

1 Q. Is "team" another word for working
 2 group, or is there a team within the working
 3 group?
 4 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 5 Q. What do you mean by your last
 6 answer?
 7 A. Um, --
 8 MS. BROWN: Objection. Compound.
 9 A. I guess what I meant was a team, you
 10 know -- how I used it as -- yes, team could be 11 a subsection of the working group, so to 12 speak. They are not always interchangeable,
 13 is what I am trying to get at.
 14 Q. Did the working group in connection
 15 with Sunbeam ever meet as an entire group?
 16 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
 17 A. Um, well, again, working group, I am
 18 not so sure, when you talk about working
 19 group, what we are talking about.
 20 Q. So, is it your testimony that you
 21 are not familiar with any application of the 22 term working group to the Sunbeam matter?
 23 MS. BROWN: Objection to the extent
 24 it mischaracterizes.
 25 A. I am familiar with a working group,

1 people from M&A, people from corporate
 2 finance.
 3 Um, that is pretty much it.
 4 Leveraged finance.
 5 Q. Was there a particular leader of the 6 deal team in connection with the Sunbeam
 7 transaction?
 8 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 9 A. Yes. I am not so sure what you mean
 10 by "leader."
 11 Q. Was there a particular person who 12 was, would have been in charge of or primarily 13 responsible for the deal team?
 14 MS. BROWN: Same objection.
 15 A. Yes, again, I don't know -- I am not 16 so sure what you mean by "in charge."
 17 Q. Please describe how the deal team
 18 functioned in connection with the Sunbeam
 19 matter.
 20 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 21 A. It is kind of a broad question. I
 22 am trying to, I am not so sure what you mean.
 23 Q. Well, I am trying to get a sense of 24 how the team functioned and how you worked
 25 with others, and so -- I am looking for a

018236

1 fairly, I am looking for your best description
2 of how this organization, this deal team
3 functioned.

4 A. I don't recall specifics, but again,
5 there was usually a number of people involved
6 from different areas of the group, or
7 different areas of the deal team, again, from 8 my department, from fixed income research,
9 from leverage finance, from corporate finance,
10 and from -- from M&A.

11 In terms of how the deal team
12 worked, it just depended on where we were in 13 the process.

14 Um, normally there was someone in 15 corporate finance who was kind of um, um, in 16 charge of or responsible for making sure that 17 all of the constituencies -- meaning myself,
18 and fixed income research and leverage
19 finance, etc. -- were all kind of working
20 together.

21 Q. Do you consider that you were part
22 of the deal team with respect to Sunbeam?

23 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

24 A. Um, again, it depends on what time
25 you are talking about.

1 Q. When, if ever, were you part of the
2 deal team in connection with Sunbeam?

3 A. Probably very preliminarily towards
4 the end of 1997, and then more so, probably,
5 in the February, March time frame of 1998.

6 Q. Were there any particular events
7 that led you to become part of the deal team
8 or led you to no longer be part of the deal
9 team?

10 A. Well, I don't recall exactly, but
11 there is no specific event that I can recall
12 that got me involved in Sunbeam.

13 In relation to your second question,
14 um, once Sunbeam had dismissed Mr. Dunlap and 15 it was clear that Mr. Perelman's constituency
16 was going to take over, at that point I was no
17 longer involved.

18 Q. Why was that, if you know?

19 A. Well, at that time we had just hired
20 someone from another institution to monitor
21 and see through distressed situations and I
22 did not have that experience, and he
23 effectively took over, once things transpired
24 as they did.

25 Q. To whom are you referring, in your

1 last answer?

2 A. His name?

3 Q. Yes.

4 A. Morgan Edwards.

5 Q. Did you have occasion to deal
6 directly with any individuals at Sunbeam?

7 A. I am sure I did, but I don't recall
8 specifics.

9 Q. You can't recall any specific
10 individuals that you talked with at Sunbeam?

11 A. Individually or --

12 Q. In any context, individuals that you
13 would have spoken with.

14 A. I had spoken with Russ Kersh. I had 15 spoken with Ron Richter. I had spoken with Al
16 Dunlap.

17 I can't recall any other specific
18 individuals.

19 Q. With respect to Mr. Kersh, did you
20 speak to him in person, on the telephone, or 21 both?

22 A. Both.

23 Q. Did you have one-on-one
24 conversations with Mr. Kersh?

25 A. I believe I did.

1 Q. Did you speak to Mr. Kersh just once
2 or twice, or was it something that, was
3 Mr. Kersh someone with whom you spoke more
4 frequently?

5 A. One on one?

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. No. It was one time.

8 Q. You said that you met Mr. Kersh in
9 person, as well as over the telephone?

10 A. Yes. That's right.

11 Q. On how many occasions?

12 A. I don't recall.

13 Q. More than one or two?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. With respect to Mr. Richter, did you
16 speak with him in person, on the telephone, or 17 both?

18 A. Both.

19 Q. Did you have one-on-one
20 conversations with Mr. Richter?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Just once or twice, or more than
23 that?

24 A. Um, I don't recall.

25 Q. With respect to Mr. Dunlap, did you

018237

Page 42

1 speak with him on the telephone, in person, or
 2 both?
 3 A. No. That was only in person.
 4 Q. Was that a one-on-one conversation?
 5 A. No, it was not.
 6 Q. Part of a larger meeting?
 7 A. That is correct.
 8 Q. Is this just one occasion that you
 9 were to meet with Mr. Dunlap, or was it more
 10 than one?
 11 A. It was more than one.
 12 Q. Can you recall how many occasions
 13 you would have attended a meeting with 14 Mr. Dunlap?
 15 A. No, I can't recall.
 16 Q. More or less than ten?
 17 A. Definitely less than ten.
 18 Q. Can you recall any specific meetings
 19 at which you and Mr. Dunlap were both present?
 20 A. Um, I recall being at a meeting with 21 Mr. Dunlap. I believe it was an equity
 22 analysts meeting, sometime in the spring of 23 1998.
 24 I was at another meeting with Mr.
 25 Dunlap again, and I don't recall the primary

Page 43

1 reason for being at the meeting, although I
 2 know that he was signing copies of his book.
 3 There may have been a couple of
 4 times, actually, thinking about it, on the 5 phone, as part of diligence, but, quite
 6 frankly, I can't recall. But I remember those
 7 two specific times with Mr. Dunlap in person.
 8 Q. At the in-person meetings with
 9 Mr. Dunlap that you mentioned, did those both
 10 take place after the Coleman acquisition
 11 closed?
 12 A. When was the date of the Coleman
 13 acquisition?
 14 Q. March 30th.
 15 A. Um, I believe they were, yes.
 16 Q. Can you recall having any
 17 conversations with Mr. Dunlap prior to March
 18 30th, 1998?
 19 A. Again, I believe, um, I can't recall
 20 specifics, but I believe there were a couple
 21 of phone calls with senior management of
 22 Sunbeam and some of the targets where, I
 23 believe, Mr. Dunlap was available by phone.
 24 Q. Were these calls in which Mr. Dunlap
 25 was actually on the call or was he available

Page 44

1 to participate; if needed?
 2 A. I don't recall.
 3 Q. With respect to Mr. Kersh, did the
 4 conversations that you had with him take place
 5 before March 30th, after, or both?
 6 A. Both.
 7 Q. What did you talk to Mr. Kersh
 8 about?
 9 A. I don't recall.
 10 Q. With respect to Mr. Richter, do you
 11 recall whether your conversations with him
 12 were before or after March 30th, or both?
 13 A. I believe they were after.
 14 Q. Did they have to do with rating
 15 matters?
 16 A. Perhaps, but I don't recall.
 17 Q. Is there someone that you would
 18 describe as your primary contact at Sunbeam?
 19 A. No.
 20 Q. Other than Mr. Kersh, Mr. Richter
 21 and Mr. Dunlap, is there anyone else at 22 Sunbeam that you can recall talking to?
 23 A. Specifics? No.
 24 Q. Would there be other people, but you
 25 just can't remember their names?

Page 45

1 A. I think that is fair.
 2 Q. Had you heard of Mr. Dunlap prior to
 3 your work for Sunbeam?
 4 A. Ah, I don't recall.
 5 Q. In connection with your work did you
 6 say that the consumer products industry was
 7 one of the areas in which you focused?
 8 A. It was one of them. However, at the
 9 time, and I cannot remember the specifics, a
 10 woman who I worked with, uhm, we had 11 overlapping industry portfolios and there was 12 some changing and she was on maternity leave;
 13 so, I believe, at the time of the Sunbeam
 14 transaction, consumer products was my, part of 15 my portfolio.
 16 Q. In connection with your work with 17 the consumer products area, did you have 18 occasion to learn about Mr. Dunlap's work with 19 Scott Paper?
 20 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 21 A. No, I did not.
 22 Q. At the time that you began work on 23 the Sunbeam matter, did you have an
 24 understanding of Mr. Dunlap's reputation?
 25 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

018238

1 A. I don't recall.
 2 Q. You don't recall what Mr. Dunlap's
 3 reputation at the time may have been?
 4 A. I don't.
 5 Q. Have you, subsequently, come to have
 6 an understanding of Mr. Dunlap's reputation?
 7 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 8 A. I am not so sure what you mean by
 9 "reputation."
 10 Q. Did you have any understanding of 11 how Mr. Dunlap is thought of in business
 12 circles?
 13 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 14 A. I can't -- I can't speculate. I
 15 don't know how he is thought of.
 16 Q. I am not asking you to speculate. I
 17 am asking you, based on your work with Sunbeam
 18 and your following of the consumer products
 19 industry, do you have any understanding of how
 20 Mr. Dunlap is viewed, as a matter of general
 21 reputation?
 22 A. Um, well, um, nothing other than 23 what I have, I guess, I have read in the 24 papers.
 25 Q. What can you recall having read in

1 A. I don't recall.
 2 Q. In connection with your Sunbeam work
 3 did you have occasion to speak with any
 4 individuals at the Bank of America?
 5 A. Again, I don't recall.
 6 Q. In connection with your Sunbeam work
 7 did you have occasion to speak with any
 8 individuals at Coleman?
 9 A. I believe there was a senior person
 10 from Coleman that we spoke to, as part of the 11 transaction, but I don't remember that
 12 person's name.
 13 Q. Do you remember their function,
 14 their title?
 15 A. No, I do not.
 16 Q. Is it someone that you spoke with 17 just once, or twice, or more often?
 18 A. It was -- it was a one-time meeting,
 19 um, as part of a larger group.
 20 Q. Was the meeting in New York or
 21 somewhere else?
 22 A. I don't remember. I don't recall.
 23 Q. More generally, did you have
 24 occasion to travel away from New York in 25 connection with the Sunbeam matter?

1 the papers?
 2 MS. BROWN: Objection. Time frame.
 3 A. Um, I guess, yes, it depends on what
 4 time frame we are talking about.
 5 Q. What can you recall having read at 6 any time?
 7 If it has changed over time, then
 8 please indicate that.
 9 A. Um, I -- specifics, obviously, I
 10 can't give, but, you know, obviously, there
 11 was a lot of bad press regarding Mr. Dunlap,
 12 um, um, right -- again, I can't recall a
 13 specific time, but sometime probably in the,
 14 you know, springtime of 1998, probably in the,
 15 well, it was in the May time frame of 1998.
 16 And then, subsequently, after his
 17 dismissal, of course, there was a lot of press
 18 about Mr. Dunlap, following his dismissal.
 19 Q. In connection with your Sunbeam work
 20 did you have occasion to speak with any
 21 individuals at Arthur Andersen?
 22 A. Um, I don't recall.
 23 Q. In connection with your Sunbeam work
 24 did you have occasion to speak with any
 25 individuals at First Union?

1 A. I don't recall if I did or not.
 2 Q. Do you remember if you ever attended
 3 any meetings in Florida?
 4 A. Um, no, I have never been to Florida
 5 in regards to Sunbeam.
 6 Q. Do you remember if you traveled to 7 Kansas or anywhere else in connection with
 8 Sunbeam?
 9 A. I have never been to Kansas in
 10 connection with Sunbeam.
 11 Q. So, it would be fair to say that the 12 in-person meetings that you recall with 13 respect to Sunbeam took place in New York?
 14 A. From -- I don't recall. Most
 15 likely, was in New York.
 16 Q. In connection with Sunbeam did you
 17 do any on-site due diligence in any place
 18 outside of Morgan Stanley's offices?
 19 A. Off-site? Did you say "off-site due
 20 diligence"?
 21 Q. I said "on-site." I basically
 22 mean -- is there something that you are able 23 to -- is your work for Sunbeam something that 24 you are able to do from your office or --
 25 A. It could have been. It could have 018239

1 been.

2 Q. In connection with your Sunbeam work

3 did you have occasion to speak with anyone at

4 MacAndrews and Forbes?

5 A. No, I did not.

6 Q. In connection with your Sunbeam work

7 did you ever, are you aware that an offering

8 memorandum was issued?

9 A. Um, yes, I am aware.

10 Q. What role, if any, did you play in

11 preparing the offering memorandum?

12 A. None.

13 Q. Did you review drafts of the 14 offering memorandum?

15 A. No, I did not.

16 Q. Do you recall discussing the 17 offering memorandum with anyone?

18 A. I don't recall.

19 Q. Please describe the work that you

20 did in connection with Sunbeam prior to the 21 end of 1997.

22 A. Um, the only work I would have done,

23 at the end of 1997, would have been to provide

24 preliminary rating estimates on the

25 transaction.

1 its acquisition of Coleman?

2 A. No, I don't recall specifically, no.

3 Q. If that were the beginning of March

4 of 1998, does that sound right to you?

5 A. That sounds correct.

6 Q. Do you recall what work, if any, you

7 did in connection with Sunbeam, prior to the

8 issuance of the Coleman press release?

9 A. No, I do not specifically recall.

10 Q. Do you recall reviewing the Sunbeam

11 press release announcing the potential

12 acquisition of Coleman?

13 A. That wouldn't have been, that would

14 not have been my job function.

15 Q. In connection with Sunbeam's

16 potential acquisition of Coleman, what is the 17 first thing that you remember doing?

18 A. Um, providing, again, rating

19 estimates on this transaction.

20 Q. Do you recall whether or not you

21 would have participated in an organizational

22 conference call, on or about March 3rd, 1998,

23 in connection with the Sunbeam matter?

24 A. I don't recall participating, but as

25 a matter of course, that is something that our

1 Q. When you say "the transaction," you

2 are referring to the senior debt piece of the

3 convertible, or the convertible piece, or were

4 those even settled at that point in time?

5 A. It wasn't, I don't remember what

6 was, you know, how the capital structure

7 was -- I don't remember.

8 Q. Do you remember what preliminary

9 rating opinions you provided in 1997?

10 A. No, I don't.

11 Q. Moving from 1997 to the first part

12 of 1998, say January and February of 1998,

13 please describe what work, if any, you did in

14 connection with Sunbeam during that period of

15 time.

16 A. Um, I don't remember specifically.

17 Um, I don't remember specifically in January

18 or February, um -- what work I did.

19 Q. Do you recall when press releases

20 were issued concerning Sunbeam's potential

21 acquisitions of Coleman and the two other

22 companies?

23 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

24 Q. Do you recall when it was that

25 Sunbeam issued a press release with respect to

1 group normally would not be involved in.

2 Q. Why is it that that would be

3 something that your group ordinarily wouldn't

4 be involved in?

5 A. Again, because we were not really

6 part of the client interaction. Our first

7 priority was really -- my client was Morgan

8 Stanley, the capital base of Morgan Stanley.

9 So, we normally did not get involved

10 in organizational meetings, because it really

11 had nothing to do with our department, other

12 than potentially some ratings issues.

13 But normally, as a matter of course,

14 we were not involved in those meetings.

15 MR. CHORVAT: I will mark this as an

16 exhibit.

17 (CPH Exhibit 249, fax, marked for

18 identification as of this date.)

19 Q. I will hand you what has been marked

20 as CPH Deposition Exhibit 249.

21 This is a two-page document bearing

22 Bates numbers Morgan Stanley 36633 and 36634.

23 Can you identify Exhibit 249?

24 A. Well, this is a fax from me to Karen

25 Eltrich, who, I believe, at the time, was 018240

1 working in fixed income research. And it
 2 looks like a, some type of due diligence
 3 agenda for Coleman.
 4 Q. Why is it that you sent this fax, on
 5 or about March 5th, 1998?
 6 A. I don't recall.
 7 Q. Is the second page of this fax
 8 something that you prepared?
 9 A. I don't recall.
 10 Q. In the course of your work as a vice 11 president in the credit group, did you have 12 occasion to prepare due diligence review
 13 agendas?
 14 A. As a matter of course, yes, I did.
 15 Q. When you would prepare a due
 16 diligence review agenda, is that a sort of a
 17 standard form document that you would just
 18 apply to a particular transaction, or is it
 19 something that you would draw up from scratch?
 20 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 21 Go ahead.
 22 A. From my standpoint, there is no
 23 standard. Every situation is different.
 24 Every credit is different.
 25 So, from my standpoint, no, there is

1 A. Um, well, from a credit standpoint,
 2 I would describe it as credit due diligence.
 3 And, again, the purpose of our credit due
 4 diligence was to analyze the strengths and
 5 weaknesses of a particular company, to make
 6 sure that Morgan Stanley was going to get its
 7 money back on a capital commitment.
 8 Q. You used the term "credit due
 9 diligence." Were you using that in contrast
 10 to some other kind of due diligence that 11 someone else might be doing?
 12 A. Um, yes.
 13 Q. What other sorts of due diligence
 14 might someone else at Morgan Stanley have been
 15 doing, in connection with the Coleman --
 16 A. I really can't say.
 17 Q. Other than credit due diligence,
 18 what other sorts of due diligence are you
 19 aware of?
 20 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 21 A. I can't say. I was not -- I was not
 22 part of other forms of due diligence.
 23 Q. When you used the phrase "credit due 24 diligence," what were you distinguishing
 25 credit due diligence from?

1 no standard form.
 2 Q. So, each time you prepared a due
 3 diligence review agenda, you would sit down
 4 and determine what to include for that
 5 particular matter?
 6 A. That is correct, for things I wanted
 7 answers to. That is correct.
 8 Q. But you don't recall whether or not
 9 you prepared this particular due diligence
 10 review agenda for Coleman?
 11 A. I don't recall preparing this.
 12 Q. Do you recall whether there was 13 someone else in the credit group who might
 14 have prepared this due diligence review agenda
 15 for Coleman?
 16 A. There would have been no one else.
 17 Q. What function does a due diligence
 18 review agenda like this serve?
 19 A. What do you mean by "due diligence"?
 20 Q. Well, you mentioned that, in the 21 course of your work as a vice president in the 22 credit group, you would have cause to prepare
 23 due diligence review agendas?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. Why did you do that?

1 A. I guess, I am talking about things
 2 that I am concerned about. It is kind of the 3 way I look at the situation. That is all that
 4 I care about.
 5 Okay. So, there could be, perhaps,
 6 someone in M&A that did some due diligence,
 7 you know, that had no bearing on my credit due
 8 diligence, so to speak.
 9 Q. When you said that the due diligence
 10 work that someone else may or may not have
 11 done had no bearing on your credit due
 12 diligence, would your inquiry proceed on a
 13 separate track from any other due diligence
 14 inquiry that someone else might be doing?
 15 A. It could. It could.
 16 Q. When you say "it could," does that
 17 mean that there might also be interaction?
 18 A. Um, yes. There could be
 19 interaction.
 20 Q. In connection with Sunbeam do you
 21 recall whether your credit due diligence
 22 proceeded separately from any other due
 23 diligence work that anyone else at Morgan
 24 Stanley did, or whether there was interaction?
 25 A. I am sorry, can you repeat the 018241

1 question.
2 Q. Yes. In connection with your work
3 for Sunbeam in connection with the Coleman
4 acquisition, do you recall whether your credit
5 due diligence work proceeded separately from
6 any other work that anyone else at Morgan
7 Stanley might have done?

8 A. Um, I think, I believe there was 9 overlap. There were different -- again, I was
10 part of a team, so to speak, and just from a
11 resource standpoint, it was part of the 12 process where I could be part of a larger
13 group of people conducting "due diligence." I
14 was there to conduct credit due diligence.

15 But, at the same time, um, most
16 likely, I was part of um, um, separate
17 diligence that was not part of the team.

18 Q. Outside of the credit group, who 19 else would have been in this larger group of 20 people who were doing due diligence work in 21 connection with Sunbeam and Coleman?

22 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.

23 A. Um, again, specifically, I don't
24 remember individuals, but some people from 25 corporate finance, some people from debt

1 certain diligence topics.
2 Q. It is correct that you don't have
3 any recollection of any specific overlap or 4 meetings of the sort that you described in
5 your last answer in connection with Sunbeam
6 and Coleman?

7 A. Not specifically individuals, no, I
8 do not.

9 Q. In connection with your credit due
10 diligence with respect to Sunbeam, what
11 sources of information did you utilize?

12 A. We relied on the public filings of 13 Sunbeam and the financial statements of the 14 companies that they were acquiring.

15 We relied on information provided to
16 us by Sunbeam management and also management
17 of the target companies.

18 And I don't recall specifics;
19 however, in a situation like this, I probably 20 used some fixed income research reports on 21 some other consumer products companies that we
22 researched -- reports, rating agency reports.
23 That is probably it.

24 Q. You mentioned information from
25 management of Sunbeam and the target

1 capital markets, people from fixed income
2 research, people from my department.

3 People from leverage finance.

4 Q. A moment ago you used the term
5 "overlap" to describe what, I take it, were 6 some interaction between yourself and
7 individuals who were doing, in other groups,
8 that were working on the Sunbeam Coleman
9 matter.

10 Please describe the overlap that you
11 referred to.

12 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

13 A. Um, well, again, specifically, I
14 can't remember specific times or persons who 15 were there, but, generally speaking, when we 16 undertake a commitment for a bank loan, there
17 is a credit component, because Morgan Stanley
18 is providing a capital commitment and there
19 is, therefore, someone from that product
20 group, being the bank loan group would also be 21 involved in doing due diligence, as an
22 example.

23 So, there may be overlap or a kind
24 of a common diligence session with myself and 25 someone from the loan product group to cover

1 companies.

2 What sorts of information did you
3 request from management?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. Are there types of information that
6 you normally would request from management,
7 beyond what would be in the filings or
8 financial statements?

9 A. Perhaps. But every situation is
10 different.

11 Q. In this instance you don't recall?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Other than public filings, financial 14 statements, or information that you would
15 specifically request, can you recall any other
16 sources of information in connection with your
17 credit due diligence reviews for Sunbeam?

18 MS. BROWN: Could I hear the
19 question back, please.

20 (Record read.)

21 MR. CHORVAT: I will ask that again.

22 Q. In addition to public filings,
23 financial statements from the target companies
24 or information that the management of Sunbeam
25 or the target companies provided to you, do

018242

1 you recall any other sources of information
 2 that you utilized in connection with your
 3 credit due diligence review?
 4 MS. BROWN: Objection. It
 5 mischaracterizes the prior answer.
 6 A. Specifically, no, I don't.
 7 Q. Did you have occasion to contact any
 8 customers of Sunbeam?
 9 A. I may have, but I don't recall.
 10 Q. What sorts of reviews or analyses
 11 did you perform with the information that you
 12 obtained with respect to Sunbeam?
 13 A. Specifically, I don't recall.
 14 Most of the analysis that I did,
 15 again, was focused on the fundamentals of the 16 business, the strengths and weaknesses, trying
 17 to determine whether a company with this type
 18 of capital structure was creditworthy --
 19 using, you know, various assumptions which I
 20 don't recall.
 21 Q. What, if anything, do you recall
 22 about the conclusions you reached with respect
 23 to whether or not Sunbeam was creditworthy?
 24 A. Well, based on the information that
 25 we had, and based on the best of my ability,

1 committee meeting.
 2 Q. Did your due diligence work with
 3 respect to Sunbeam essentially end with the
 4 meeting of the leveraged finance commitment
 5 committee?
 6 A. No.
 7 Q. What work in connection with your
 8 credit due diligence review can you recall
 9 doing after the meeting of the leveraged
 10 finance commitment committee?
 11 A. Well, I don't recall specifics, but 12 again, there was a long time between the 13 leveraged finance commitment committee meeting
 14 and the time that the company was presenting 15 to the rating agencies. It was about, I
 16 think, three months.
 17 So, there was ongoing, you know,
 18 work to be done to get the company ready to 19 meet with the rating agencies.
 20 Q. During that period of time after the
 21 meeting of the leveraged finance commitment
 22 committee would you consider your work, did it
 23 continue to be credit due diligence or did it
 24 sort of shift gears to something else?
 25 A. I really -- I can't say. I don't

1 um, I thought that Sunbeam was a creditworthy
 2 entity. Um, um, and would receive a double B,
 3 BA2 rating by the rating agencies.
 4 Q. Do you recall at what point in time
 5 you reached that opinion?
 6 A. Not specifically, no.
 7 Q. Is that prior to the closing of the
 8 acquisitions?
 9 A. Um, I don't recall when those -- I
 10 don't recall -- I don't recall.
 11 Q. With respect to the information that
 12 Sunbeam management provided to you, did you do
 13 anything to challenge or look into the 14 dependability of that information?
 15 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 16 A. Um, I can't -- I can't say. I don't
 17 recall.
 18 Q. Over what period of time did you
 19 perform your credit due diligence with respect
 20 to Sunbeam?
 21 A. Um, again, I don't remember specific 22 times, but it was probably sometime, based on 23 this document that you have shown me here,
 24 sometime between the beginning of March and up
 25 until the time of the leveraged finance

1 recall.
 2 Q. During the course of your credit due
 3 diligence review with respect to Sunbeam, did
 4 you take notes or record the work that you
 5 were doing in some fashion?
 6 A. I am sure I did.
 7 Q. What sorts of notes do you normally
 8 take in connection with the credit due
 9 diligence review?
 10 A. It depends on what's being asked and
 11 what's being said.
 12 Q. Do you recall what was being asked
 13 or being said in connection with the Sunbeam?
 14 A. Not specifically, no.
 15 Q. Do you, typically, take notes on a
 16 pad of paper, like a legal pad?
 17 A. Um, you know, it is a piece of 18 paper, but I don't remember what form it was 19 in.
 20 Q. Do you know what has happened to any 21 notes that you would have prepared in
 22 connection with the Sunbeam --
 23 A. No, I do not.
 24 Q. Do you still have any notes in
 25 connection with Sunbeam?

018249

1 A. No, I do not.
 2 Q. Do you recall whether you utilized
 3 any e-mail in 1997 or 1998 with respect to
 4 Sunbeam?
 5 A. I don't recall.
 6 Q. Did you ever come to believe that
 7 any information that you had been provided in
 8 connection with Sunbeam was false or
 9 misleading?
 10 A. Um, no, I do not.
 11 Q. Did you ever come to believe that
 12 any information that you had been provided in 13 connection with Coleman was false or
 14 misleading?
 15 A. I am sorry -- can you repeat the
 16 last question?
 17 Q. The first one was Sunbeam, the
 18 second one was Coleman.
 19 A. Was the question, have you come to 20 believe or -- or did you believe?
 21 Q. Have you come to believe, at any
 22 point in time.
 23 A. Oh. Well, yes. At a point in time
 24 I have come to believe that some of the 25 information provided to us was misleading.

1 I will ask more specifically.
 2 Were you referring to Sunbeam's
 3 performance in the first quarter of 1998 or
 4 something else?
 5 A. No. I was talking about basically
 6 what happened after, you know, after the 7 company basically collapsed.
 8 Q. So, you are talking about
 9 information post dating Sunbeam's acquisition
 10 of Coleman?
 11 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 12 Q. Sorry. I want to clarify your last
 13 answer. When you say the company's collapse,
 14 what period of --
 15 A. Sorry.
 16 Q. Please just elaborate on your
 17 answer, if you would, please.
 18 A. I guess what I am trying to say is 19 that it became clear to myself, um, that after 20 Mr. Dunlap was dismissed, and subsequently to 21 that, in the following months, that even
 22 though we did what, I believe, was the best
 23 due diligence to our ability, that we did not
 24 have all of the facts, given that Sunbeam
 25 eventually, you know, um, declared bankruptcy.

1 Q. With respect to Sunbeam, what
 2 information have you come to believe was
 3 misleading?
 4 A. I don't recall specifics.
 5 Q. Do you have a general recollection
 6 that --
 7 A. Um, um, not really. I mean, you
 8 know, again, it has been quite a while, but I
 9 don't specifically remember what was, you
 10 know, what the fact pattern was after the 11 fact.
 12 But I do believe that yes, there was
 13 information that, you know -- it seemed like
 14 we did not have all of the information or did
 15 not have the whole story.
 16 Q. When you say you did not have all of 17 the information or have the whole story, are 18 you referring to information about Sunbeam, or
 19 about Coleman, or something else?
 20 A. Yes, I don't recall. I don't
 21 recall.
 22 Q. A moment ago, you said that you had
 23 come to believe that some information that you
 24 had been provided was misleading. Were you
 25 thinking about Sunbeam information?

1 Q. Is it your recollection that you did
 2 not come to believe that information that had
 3 been provided to you was false or misleading
 4 until sometime after Mr. Dunlap was fired?
 5 A. Yes, I think that is -- yes.
 6 MS. BROWN: Could we take a break?
 7 MR. CHORVAT: That is fine.
 8 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 10:56
 9 a.m. and this completes tape number 1.
 10 (Recess.)
 11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Stand by.
 12 The time is 11:09 a.m. and this
 13 begins tape number 2.
 14 BY MR. CHORVAT:
 15 Q. Mr. Whelan, in connection with your
 16 credit due diligence review in the Sunbeam
 17 matter, did you ever place a phone call, just 18 yourself, to the management of Sunbeam to 19 request information?
 20 A. I don't recall.
 21 Q. In connection with the Sunbeam
 22 matter were you ever denied access to any
 23 information that you wanted to review?
 24 A. I don't recall, but -- I don't
 25 believe that would happen as part of, you

018244

1 know, my responsibility.
 2 Q. Why is it that you don't believe
 3 that that would happen?
 4 A. Um, well, again, the job of
 5 extending credit lay, ultimately, with the 6 credit department, and not having that
 7 information would not be acceptable.
 8 However, I will, it depends on what
 9 information we are talking about. Okay.
 10 But there should be no reason why
 11 the credit department wants some information
 12 that the client should be willing to give them
 13 that information.
 14 Q. At the time that you did your due
 15 diligence work in connection with Sunbeam, did
 16 you believe that you had information
 17 sufficient to do your job?
 18 A. Um, to the best of my knowledge,
 19 yes, I thought I had all of the information
 20 that I needed.
 21 Q. Did you have sufficient time to
 22 review that information?
 23 A. Um, again, I don't remember the time
 24 frame -- specifically. I think it was perhaps 25 about a month, maybe a little less. But,

1 MR. CHORVAT: I will show you what
 2 previously has been marked as CPH Exhibit
 3 129.
 4 Q. Is Exhibit 129 a document that you
 5 are familiar with?
 6 A. I am familiar with this document.
 7 Q. What is Exhibit 129?
 8 A. It looks like it is an equity
 9 commitment committee memo to the equity
 10 commitment committee.
 11 Q. What is the equity commitment
 12 committee?
 13 A. I honestly couldn't tell you exactly
 14 what it is, because I have never been to one.
 15 I have never been part of one.
 16 Q. Do you have an understanding as to 17 what role the equity commitment committee
 18 played in connection with Sunbeam?
 19 A. No, I do not.
 20 Q. Do you know whether the equity
 21 commitment committee would have been involved
 22 with the convertible security, as compared to 23 the senior debt?
 24 A. Again, I was not part of it, but my
 25 understanding is that they would, most likely,

1 looking back on it, I don't feel like I, I
 2 feel like, yes, I had enough time, based on
 3 the information that I had.
 4 Q. Would you characterize your due
 5 diligence work in connection with Sunbeam as 6 thorough?
 7 A. Um, again, to the best of my
 8 ability, I thought it was.
 9 Q. Are you familiar with the term
 10 "selling memorandum"?
 11 A. Yes, I am.
 12 Q. What's a selling memoranda?
 13 A. It is, generally, a memorandum that 14 is used to the sales force, depending, of 15 course, on what type of instrument we are
 16 selling, to kind of give an overview of a
 17 particular company and/or transaction.
 18 Q. Did you have any role in preparing
 19 any selling memorandum in connection with
 20 Sunbeam?
 21 A. No, I did not.
 22 Q. Would you have reviewed or commented
 23 on any selling memorandum in connection with
 24 Sunbeam?
 25 A. No, I would not.

1 review the convertible offering.
 2 Q. Your name appears here on the first
 3 page of Exhibit 129, among the many others,
 4 after "from" and then a colon.
 5 What role, if any, did you play in
 6 preparing Exhibit 129?
 7 A. None.
 8 Q. Do you know who would have prepared
 9 Exhibit 129?
 10 A. No, I don't.
 11 Q. Would you have reviewed Exhibit 129
 12 before it went to the equity commitment
 13 committee?
 14 A. No, I would not.
 15 Q. In the course of your work on
 16 Sunbeam, did you review Exhibit 129?
 17 A. I don't recall if I actually -- I
 18 don't recall.
 19 Q. On the second page of this document
 20 there is a reference, in the first full
 21 paragraph, the longest paragraph on that page,
 22 to a rating on the zero coupon convertible
 23 security of not more than B1, B plus; do you
 24 see that?
 25 A. Aha.

018245

1 Q. Do you know who would have come up
 2 with that expected rating?
 3 A. That would be me.
 4 Q. Do you recall what factors led you
 5 to conclude that the convertible security
 6 would be rated not more than B1, B plus?
 7 A. Not specifically, no.
 8 Q. Do you have a general recollection?
 9 A. No.
 10 Q. Would a rating of B1, B plus, what
 11 effect, if any, would that have on the 12 marketability of a zero coupon convertible
 13 security like the one that Sunbeam was to 14 issue?
 15 A. I couldn't answer that.
 16 Q. For what purpose did you come up
 17 with the B1, B plus rating with respect to the 18 zero coupon convertible offering?
 19 A. Um, I was -- I was -- I guess I was 20 asked that since we were going to be doing a
 21 convert along with a senior debt piece. The 22 senior debt piece was also going to be rated.
 23 The rating agency eventually would rate the 24 convert, even though the convert was getting
 25 done prior to. Sunbeam had no rating, prior

1 would affect Morgan Stanley's position, if at
 2 all.
 3 A. By "position," what do you mean?
 4 Q. The risk that Morgan Stanley was
 5 taking in the transaction.
 6 A. That was not something that I really
 7 would opine upon. It was an underwriting. I
 8 was not involved.
 9 I was never involved in the 10 underwriting process. It was not deemed to be 11 a capital commitment; so, therefore, that is 12 not something that I would opine on.
 13 Q. Is it fair to say that the B1, B
 14 plus rating that you predicted or opined on in 15 connection with the convertible piece was done
 16 as an accommodation to others at Morgan
 17 Stanley or someone else in the transaction?
 18 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 19 A. I am not -- I am not so sure what
 20 you mean by "accommodating."
 21 Q. Why is it that you came up with that
 22 rating?
 23 A. Again, I don't recall. I think I
 24 said I was guessing someone had asked me to 25 come up with a rating just because they knew

1 to the bank deal financing.
 2 I was, again -- again, I can't
 3 recall specifically, but I was, most likely,
 4 asked by someone on the deal team to give a
 5 preliminary view on what we thought the rating
 6 on the convert would be, if it got rated.
 7 Q. The rating of the convertible
 8 security would affect the interest rate that 9 Sunbeam would have to pay on that security; is
 10 that correct?
 11 A. I couldn't say.
 12 Q. How, if at all, would the rating on 13 the convertible security affect Morgan
 14 Stanley's position in connection with the
 15 Sunbeam financing?
 16 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 17 A. Can you repeat the question, please.
 18 Q. Sure.
 19 You testified earlier that your role
 20 with respect to the Sunbeam transaction was to 21 protect Morgan Stanley's interest in making a
 22 capital contribution.
 23 A. Aha.
 24 Q. And my question is just how a rating
 25 determination on the convertible security

1 that eventually this convert would probably
 2 get rated once the senior piece got rated.
 3 So, I don't remember exactly who or
 4 under what circumstances I was asked to
 5 provide that rating.
 6 But this rating is a function of the 7 senior rating; and so, since we were looking 8 at a senior rating, the rating agencies always
 9 notch two notches below the senior implied
 10 rating, at that time; so, that is probably why
 11 I came up with the B1 B plus, but I can't
 12 remember exactly why.
 13 Q. Providing the rating on the
 14 convertible piece was not part of your credit
 15 due diligence function in the Sunbeam
 16 transaction, or was it?
 17 A. I would not say it was part of the 18 credit function, per se. It was part of a
 19 function I performed as part of rating
 20 advisory, but it was not part of the credit
 21 function.
 22 Q. Is your recollection that the way
 23 that you got to the B1, B plus rating for the 24 convertible security was that you provided a
 25 rating for the senior debt piece and then went

018246

1 down two notches?
 2 A. Again, that would have been the most
 3 likely situation. I don't remember
 4 specifically the timing and whatnot.
 5 And, a lot of times, we would be
 6 providing -- you know, ratings are, they are 7 not a science. They are not always easy to 8 predict.
 9 You are trying to predict what a
 10 committee of people, not the rating agencies,
 11 are trying to assess in terms of a credit
 12 risk.
 13 So, but, yes, normally we would,
 14 when we come up with a senior implied rating,
 15 we would come up with a, if there was another
 16 piece of paper in the capital structure, it
 17 would just be kind of, it would just fall into
 18 place, as a matter of fact.
 19 MR. CHORVAT: Let me show you what
 20 previously has been marked as CPH Exhibit
 21 145.
 22 Q. Are you familiar with Exhibit 145?
 23 A. Um, it looks like the leverage
 24 finance commitment committee memo for the
 25 Sunbeam transaction.

1 Q. Either way.
 2 A. I don't recall -- I don't recall
 3 specifics in terms of drafting the memo. I do
 4 recall, to a certain extent, talking about a
 5 downside scenario for this transaction, and
 6 getting comfortable even in the downside
 7 scenario that this was still a worthy, a
 8 viable entity.
 9 Q. What do you recall the downside
 10 scenario for Sunbeam was like?
 11 A. You know, I don't recall. But I do
 12 recall discussing it, um, at committee, but
 13 the specifics of it I don't recall.
 14 Q. You said "discussing it at 15 committee." Did you attend the meeting with 16 the leveraged finance committee?
 17 A. I don't believe I was -- I believe I
 18 was there telephonically.
 19 Q. Did that meeting take place on or
 20 about March 20th, 1998?
 21 A. Um, most likely. I mean, it is
 22 dated March. They usually are dated the day
 23 of the committee.
 24 Q. Were you present telephonically for 25 the entire meeting or just a part?

1 Q. I will just ask, on the first page
 2 here, do you recognize the handwriting?
 3 A. No, I don't.
 4 Q. On the second page, which also looks
 5 sort of like a cover page, your name is
 6 listed, among many others --
 7 A. Yes.
 8 Q. -- as from.
 9 What role, if any, did you play in
 10 preparing Exhibit 145?
 11 A. I had no direct role. Again, I did
 12 not author this document.
 13 I was, most likely, asked to read
 14 and make sure that I was okay with some of the 15 statements in the document -- really, more so
 16 to the strengths and weaknesses of the credit.
 17 Obviously. The rating, this probably is a
 18 view of the rating, per se. That was my view.
 19 And then, again, I had some input into the 20 financial model in the back.
 21 Q. Can you recall any particular
 22 thoughts or comments that you would have had 23 that would have contributed to this
 24 memorandum?
 25 A. Um, verbally or -- or -- written?

1 A. I don't recall. It was, I am sure,
 2 for a very good portion of it.
 3 I don't recall, back then,
 4 whether -- for instance, today, we have a
 5 committee that has replaced this committee,
 6 and once the deal team has gone through the
 7 deal and everyone's questions are answered, it
 8 goes to a kind of core committee, and I don't 9 remember whether they had that back then or
 10 not.
 11 If they did, I was not there for the 12 entire meeting. If they did, I was on for the 13 entire deal team part of the meeting and then
 14 hung up when they went to core committee --
 15 THE REPORTER: Excuse me.
 16 A. -- after we were done.
 17 MS. BROWN: He said, when they went
 18 to core committee.
 19 Q. Would the leveraged finance
 20 committee meeting have been a meeting entirely
 21 devoted to Sunbeam or would there have been
 22 other matters, as well?
 23 A. Um, I don't recall. There could
 24 have been an agenda. Um, if you are asking
 25 were other names discussed on this day -- at a

018247

1 different time -- there could have been, but
 2 there were no other names discussed during the
 3 Sunbeam transaction.
 4 Q. Do you recall how long the
 5 discussion of the Sunbeam transaction lasted
 6 at the leveraged finance committee meeting?
 7 A. No, I do not.
 8 Q. You mentioned that you recall there
 9 being discussion of the downside.
 10 Are there other topics that you can
 11 recall being discussed?
 12 A. Um, not specifically, no.
 13 Q. Do you recall anything that you
 14 said, either in specific words or general
 15 topics?
 16 A. No.
 17 Again, my function, I think, was to
 18 discuss the rating generally and the rating,
 19 the senior rating. And, again, someone either
 20 had questions or had given a brief overview of 21 the downside case.
 22 Q. Do you recall whether you made a
 23 presentation, or answered questions, or
 24 something else?
 25 A. Um, I don't recall, again, if

1 rating for the pro forma Sunbeam is expected
 2 to be BB/BA 2," and that is in brackets.
 3 Is that the rating that you were
 4 talking about?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. That is the rating that you would
 7 have developed?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. Do you know why it is in brackets?
 10 A. No.
 11 Q. Would the brackets signify that
 12 rating was still tentative or to be discussed?
 13 A. Definitely not.
 14 Q. By the time that the leveraged
 15 finance commitment committee had met, would 16 you have pretty much settled in on your
 17 opinion as to what the rating would be?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. Was it the role of the leveraged
 20 finance commitment committee to give final
 21 approval to Morgan Stanley's participation in
 22 the senior debt piece with respect to Sunbeam?
 23 A. Yes, it was.
 24 Q. After the leveraged finance
 25 committee -- well, I will ask this.

1 someone asked me some questions and I answered
 2 them or I just -- I was asked to walk through
 3 the downside case, and I did that, in a, you
 4 know, you know, perhaps two- or three-minute
 5 time frame.
 6 Q. Anything else that you can recall
 7 about the leveraged finance -- is it leveraged
 8 finance committee or leveraged finance
 9 commitment committee?
 10 A. You know, back then it seemed 11 like -- on the first page it says "leveraged
 12 finance commitment committee." On the next
 13 page it says "leveraged finance committee."
 14 Everyone was calling it different things back
 15 then.
 16 So, I think it was LFCC; so, I think
 17 it was leveraged finance commitment committee.
 18 Q. Anything else that you can remember
 19 about the LFCC meeting with respect to
 20 Sunbeam?
 21 A. No.
 22 Q. On the page that is the next page,
 23 with the number 2 at the bottom, in the 24 paragraph just under the top box, it says
 25 that: "The anticipated senior-most credit

1 Did the leveraged finance committee
 2 approve participation in the Sunbeam senior
 3 debt piece at its meeting on or about March
 4 20th, 1998?
 5 A. Um, again, I don't remember
 6 specifics. I did not hear anyone say that
 7 they approved this transaction, but I assume
 8 that they did.
 9 Q. Why is it that you assume that?
 10 What's the basis for that?
 11 A. Well, we went forward with the
 12 financing.
 13 Q. After the leveraged finance
 14 commitment committee would approve a
 15 transaction like Sunbeam, what else is left to 16 do before closing?
 17 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 18 A. Can you clarify that?
 19 Q. Sure. In your experience in the 20 credit group, once the leveraged finance
 21 commitment committee approved a transaction,
 22 what was the process like between that time
 23 and when the transaction would actually close?
 24 MS. BROWN: For the credit group?
 25 MR. CHORVAT: His understanding of 018248

1 what the process would be.
 2 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 3 A. You know, again -- in this specific
 4 situation, I don't remember, and every
 5 situation is, every situation is different.
 6 I mean, there are timing issues.
 7 There are -- you know, there are a lot of 8 variables that can get you from commitment to 9 closing.
 10 And I don't recall, in this specific
 11 situation, how that would transpire.
 12 And, again, there is no standard
 13 format, so to speak.
 14 Q. Do you recall whether you continued
 15 to do credit due diligence between the time of 16 the leveraged finance commitment committee
 17 meeting and the closing?
 18 A. When was the closing?
 19 Q. The Coleman acquisition closed on 20 March 30th. I think some other pieces closed
 21 on March 27th.
 22 A. No, I don't recall if I did or I did
 23 not.
 24 Q. Did there come a time when you
 25 became aware of an issue as to whether or not

1 Most of the part -- the information was done
 2 on annualized numbers.
 3 So, um, I don't remember
 4 specifically about a particular quarter.
 5 Q. In connection with your --
 6 A. Sorry, in terms of a projection
 7 model like the ones that are in this memo.
 8 Q. Yes, and I don't know exactly how
 9 this is going on the tape, but I guess, my 10 guess is if your hands are here, (indicating)
 11 they may not be picking everything up.
 12 A. Okay.
 13 Q. In the course of your credit due
 14 diligence work with respect to Sunbeam, did
 15 you have cause to look at sort of Street
 16 expectations as to Sunbeam's performance
 17 during 1998?
 18 A. No. That wouldn't concern me.
 19 Q. Why not?
 20 A. Because I don't -- I don't rely on 21 what The Street was saying. Remember, we --
 22 um, do our own analysis internally. And
 23 whether a company, um, is above or below
 24 analysts' expectations is nothing, you know --
 25 depending on the situation, again, but it is

1 Sunbeam would fail to meet projections or
 2 expectations for its performance in the first
 3 quarter of 1998?
 4 A. Did there come a time when? I
 5 mean -- I am not so sure what you mean.
 6 Q. Okay. During the course of your
 7 credit due diligence work, with respect to 8 Sunbeam, did there come a time when you became 9 aware of an issue as to whether or not
 10 Sunbeam's performance for the current quarter
 11 was falling below what had been anticipated?
 12 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 13 A. Um, can you clarify that a little
 14 more?
 15 Q. Okay. What part of it is unclear?
 16 A. You said, in the last part,
 17 "anticipated."
 18 Q. Okay.
 19 In the course of your credit due
 20 diligence work on Sunbeam, did you look at 21 Sunbeam's projections for how they were going
 22 to do in the first quarter of 1998?
 23 A. Um, I don't recall specifically.
 24 Um, however, um, it would be a little, um,
 25 unusual to look at, um, a quarterly number.

1 something that I wouldn't necessarily pay a
 2 whole lot of attention to.
 3 Q. When you did your credit due
 4 diligence work, was that based entirely on
 5 Sunbeam's historical performance, or did you
 6 also look at projections for future periods?
 7 A. I am certain it was both.
 8 Q. At any point in time, did you become
 9 aware that Sunbeam's performance in the first
 10 quarter of 1998 fell below its equivalent
 11 performance for 1997?
 12 A. Um, at some point, I believe, I did
 13 find out about that. I don't recall exactly
 14 when that was.
 15 Q. Do you recall whether or not it was
 16 before the closing of the Coleman acquisition?
 17 A. Um, again, when was the closing
 18 acquisition?
 19 Q. March 30th.
 20 A. I don't recall specifically. Um,
 21 but I believe -- I recall that there was 22 something that came out before the end of the 23 quarter.
 24 Q. What, if anything, do you recall
 25 about the information that came out before the 018219

Page 90

1 end of the quarter?

2 A. Um, again, specifics, I don't recall

3 specifics, but I know that their sales were

4 going to be potentially below expectations, or

5 something like that.

6 Q. Do you recall how you learned that?

7 A. I don't recall that, no.

8 Q. What, if anything, did you do when

9 you found that out?

10 A. I don't recall.

11 Q. Did the fact that Sunbeam's

12 performance was going to be below expectations

13 in the first quarter of 1998 have any effect

14 on your credit due diligence work?

15 MS. BROWN: Objection, to the extent

16 that his question mischaracterizes the

17 testimony.

18 A. Um, sorry. Can you repeat the

19 question?

20 (Record read.)

21 MS. BROWN: My objection stands.

22 A. You know, I don't recall.

23 Q. Is it fair to say, in general, that

24 if a company's performance falls short of the 25 projections upon which you based your analysis

Page 91

1 to a given point in time, that would be a fact

2 that you would want to know?

3 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

4 A. Can you be a little bit more

5 specific or clarify.

6 Q. Okay. It is correct, is it not,

7 that the risk that Morgan Stanley would be

8 exposed to in providing money to Sunbeam would

9 be affected by Sunbeam's actual performance?

10 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

11 A. Um, I think it depends on what

12 you -- you know, how you define "performance."

13 Q. Is it fair to say that the risk that

14 Morgan Stanley would be taking in extending

15 financing to Sunbeam would be affected by the 16 level of sales that Sunbeam would achieve?

17 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

18 A. No. Not necessarily.

19 Q. Why not?

20 A. Well, there are a lot of things that

21 impact on the creditworthiness. Sales is one

22 of several dozen.

23 Uhm, for instance, a company with

24 declining sales could generate more free cash

25 flow because the company, in simple terms,

Page 92

1 with sales declining, is actually collecting

2 receivables and inventory, um, all things

3 being equal.

4 Um, so, that would bring in a level

5 free of cash flow greater than a company that

6 is growing very quickly.

7 So, that is just one possible

8 variable.

9 So, if a company's -- you can't look

10 at one metric and say, um, that is a, you

11 know, a concern.

12 Q. Do you recall, in connection with

13 Sunbeam's performance in the first quarter of

14 1998, whether the sales shortfall that it

15 experienced was a positive or negative

16 development?

17 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

18 Characterization.

19 A. Can you repeat the question.

20 (Record read.)

21 MS. BROWN: My objection stands.

22 A. Yes. Can you clarify positive from

23 negative, from what standpoint.

24 Q. From your standpoint, in reviewing

25 the risk that Morgan Stanley would be taking

Page 93

1 in extending credit.

2 A. I don't recall.

3 Q. What do you recall about Sunbeam's

4 performance in the first quarter of 1998?

5 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

6 A. When you say "performance," are you

7 talking about earnings? Are you talking about

8 sales? Are you talking about cash flow?

9 Q. Sales, earnings. If you want to

10 talk about cash flow, whatever you recall.

11 That's what I am trying to establish.

12 A. I mean, I do recall there was an,

13 um -- um -- again, it is vague, but there was

14 an issue in terms of sales performance, the

15 first quarter of 1998 versus the first quarter

16 of, I think, the first quarter of 1997.

17 But I don't remember the exact

18 specifics, you know, at the time. I don't

19 recall the exact specifics of what was

20 happening at the time.

21 Q. Beyond the exact specifics, do you

22 recall, generally, whether there had been a

23 substantial shortfall in sales for the first

24 quarter of 1998?

25 A. No, I do not.

018250

1 Q. Is it fair to say, then, that you
2 don't have any recollection of coming to the 3 conclusion that Sunbeam's performance was at 4 variance from what you had expected in putting
5 together your ratings conclusion?

6 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

7 A. At the time, I don't recall.

8 Q. Are you familiar with the term
9 "comfort letter"?

10 A. Um, I believe I am familiar with it,
11 but I am not exactly sure, you know, in what
12 context.

13 Q. Well, what is your understanding of 14 what a comfort letter is?

15 A. Um, it is a letter between two 16 parties providing comfort in certain
17 situations.

18 Q. In the course of your work on the 19 Sunbeam matter did you ever have cause to 20 review any letters from Arthur Andersen with
21 respect to Sunbeam?

22 A. I don't recall.

23 Q. I will show you what was previously
24 marked as CPH Exhibit 17.

25 Is that a document that you are

1 review of Sunbeam?

2 A. I can't recall this specific
3 document, no.

4 Q. Do you recall whether Sunbeam's
5 performance for the first quarter of 1998 was
6 a topic that was discussed at the leveraged
7 finance commitment committee meeting on or
8 about March 20th, 1998?

9 A. Um, I can't recall.

10 Q. Is it your view that a press release
11 from Sunbeam indicating that its net sales for 12 the first quarter of 1998 may be lower than 13 the range of Wall Street analysts' estimates
14 for that quarter, is not something that would
15 be relevant to your credit due diligence work
16 with respect to Sunbeam?

17 A. As stated here?

18 Q. Well, I did quote from there, yes.
19 That is the basis for my question.

20 A. Oh. It wouldn't, I would not be
21 overly concerned with it, no.

22 Q. This is not information that you
23 would have wanted to know?

24 MS. BROWN: Objection,
25 mischaracterizes.

1 familiar with?

2 A. Um --

3 MS. BROWN: And, for the record, the
4 witness will, whenever you ask him about
5 documents, exclude any documents that he
6 observed during his preparation for this,
7 that he hasn't already testified about.

8 A. So -- no, this is not a document
9 that I am aware of.

10 Q. This is not a document that you saw
11 during your credit due diligence work with 12 respect to the Sunbeam matter?

13 A. Not to my recollection, no, it is
14 not.

15 Q. Okay. Do you recall whether Sunbeam
16 issued a press release in 1998 concerning its
17 performance in the first quarter?

18 A. Um, again, I don't recall the 19 specifics, no.

20 Q. I will show you what was previously
21 marked as CPH Deposition Exhibit 14.

22 Are you familiar with Exhibit 14?

23 A. Again, no, I am not.

24 Q. This is not something that you can
25 recall seeing during your credit due diligence

1 A. Um, based on what the press release
2 says, um, it is -- again, it is not something
3 that would give me a lot of concern.

4 Q. Why is that?

5 A. Um, because the way it is, the way
6 it is worded, it is very -- it is, again --
7 one, there is a lot more to sales growth or
8 declines from a credit standpoint; and two, it
9 talks about how it is unclear, it is unclear
10 as to whether they are going to miss at all.

11 Q. So, is it fair to say that, in your
12 view, there would be multiple possible
13 explanations and multiple possible effects of 14 the information that is contained in this
15 press release?

16 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
17 Mischaracterization.

18 A. Um, can you be a little bit more
19 specific?

20 Q. Sure. Is it fair to say that, in
21 your view, the information that is contained
22 in this press release is not necessarily a bad
23 thing?

24 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

25 A. I would say, based upon what I am

018251

1 reading, it is not necessarily a bad thing.
 2 Q. If you were aware of the information
 3 contained in this press release, during your
 4 credit due diligence review, would it have
 5 been something that you would have done to
 6 contact management of Sunbeam and ask
 7 follow-up questions to determine whether or
 8 not this was a bad thing?
 9 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 10 A. Again, based on my experience and 11 based on my judgment, if I thought it was 12 something that I would need to follow up on, I
 13 would do that directly.
 14 Q. Did you call anyone at Sunbeam to 15 ask them about this press release or the 16 information that is contained in it?
 17 A. I don't recall.
 18 Q. Do you recall whether you were aware
 19 of the information contained in this press
 20 release prior to the time that the leveraged
 21 finance commitment committee met?
 22 A. I don't recall.
 23 Q. Do you recall whether you were aware
 24 of the information in this press release prior
 25 to the time that the Coleman acquisition

1 aware of during your credit due diligence work
 2 in connection with Sunbeam?
 3 A. I don't recall.
 4 Q. Is that information that would have
 5 been relevant to your credit due diligence
 6 review?
 7 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 8 A. Not necessarily.
 9 Q. Why not?
 10 A. Well, again, as I said before, there
 11 are a lot of factors that can impact the 12 credit. Sales is just one of many.
 13 And there could be a number of 14 explanations as to why these numbers are
 15 different.
 16 Q. If there are a number of possible
 17 explanations for these numbers, wouldn't it be 18 relevant to your inquiry to know the numbers,
 19 so that you could seek those explanations?
 20 A. Um, well, as these numbers are 21 presented, it certainly would excite my 22 curiosity as to what was happening and would,
 23 most likely, require some follow-up.
 24 Q. On their face, these are numbers
 25 that reflected -- deteriorating performance;

1 closed?
 2 A. Um, again, I can't recall that.
 3 Q. I will show you what has been
 4 previously marked as CPH Exhibit 112.
 5 Are you familiar with Exhibit 112?
 6 In particular, the middle two pages.
 7 A. No, I am not.
 8 Q. Is Exhibit 112, is that something
 9 that you saw during your credit due diligence
 10 work for Sunbeam?
 11 A. I don't recall.
 12 Q. On the second page of the letter,
 13 which is the third page of this exhibit, there
 14 is a little chart towards the top of the page
 15 showing Sunbeam's net sales and net income for 16 the roughly first two months of 1998, as 17 compared to 1997; do you see that?
 18 A. Yes, I do.
 19 Q. And the net sales number is down
 20 from 143,499,000 to 72,018,000.
 21 And the net income has gone from a
 22 positive 9,765,000 to a negative 41,190,000.
 23 Do you see that?
 24 A. Yes, I do.
 25 Q. Is that information that you were

1 is that right?
 2 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 3 A. Again, not necessarily. The
 4 company -- well --
 5 Q. Sorry.
 6 Explain, please, what you mean by
 7 "not necessarily."
 8 A. Well, again, a lot of things, a lot
 9 of things can happen.
 10 And again, I don't recall the 11 specifics, but, you know, the company could 12 have sold a major part of its business in the 13 first part of the prior, the last part of the 14 prior year.
 15 Q. Did that happen with Sunbeam?
 16 A. I don't recall.
 17 Q. Do you recall contacting anyone at
 18 Sunbeam for an explanation of the performance
 19 figures that are contained in Exhibit 112?
 20 A. No, I don't recall that.
 21 Q. Do you recall why you did not?
 22 A. Recall why I did not contact them?
 23 Q. Yes.
 24 A. I just don't remember.
 25 Q. Turn back to Exhibit 14 for just one

018252

1 more moment.
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. Were you involved in any discussions
 4 as to whether or not to issue any press
 5 release from Sunbeam?
 6 A. Absolutely not.
 7 Q. Did you have occasion to visit the
 8 global financial press in connection with the
 9 Sunbeam transaction?
 10 A. What's the global financial press?
 11 Q. Financial printer.
 12 A. No, I did not.
 13 Q. In connection with Sunbeam did you
 14 ever have occasion to hear about any
 15 conversations about Sunbeam or its performance
 16 that took place at the global financial press?
 17 A. No, I am not aware of that.
 18 Q. Are you aware of whether or not the 19 Sunbeam transaction closed as scheduled or 20 whether there was any advance or delay in the 21 closing?
 22 A. That doesn't -- I don't recall that
 23 happening, no.
 24 Q. Were you involved in any
 25 conversations as to when to close any aspect

1 A. Sorry, can you repeat the question?
 2 I did not hear it.
 3 (Record read.)
 4 A. Can you be a little bit more
 5 specific?
 6 Q. Sure.
 7 Are you familiar with the word
 8 "synergies" in connection with corporate
 9 acquisitions?
 10 A. Sure.
 11 Q. Are synergies something that you
 12 look at from time to time in your work?
 13 A. To evaluate credit? Yes.
 14 Q. Why is that?
 15 A. Well, depending -- again, every
 16 situation is different, but depending on the 17 size of the synergies and the nature of the 18 synergies, it could have an impact on the 19 credit strength or weakness of the company.
 20 Q. In connection with Sunbeam's
 21 acquisition of Coleman or First Alert or
 22 Signature, did you look at any synergies -- I
 23 guess that is the end of the question. Did
 24 you look at any synergies?
 25 A. Again, specifically, I don't

1 of the Sunbeam transaction?
 2 A. No.
 3 Q. I will show you what has been
 4 previously marked as CPH Deposition Exhibit
 5 36.
 6 Is that a document that you are
 7 familiar with?
 8 A. No, this is not a document that I am
 9 familiar with.
 10 Q. To the best of your recollection,
 11 this is not something that you saw in 12 connection with your work on the Sunbeam
 13 matter?
 14 A. Well, you know, again, you know -- I
 15 may have seen this in the past six years, but
 16 I don't recall seeing it.
 17 Q. You were not involved in any
 18 discussions as to whether or when to issue a 19 press release containing the information in 20 the Exhibit 36?
 21 A. No, I was not.
 22 Q. In connection with your work on
 23 Sunbeam, did you have occasion to consider
 24 potential synergies in Sunbeam's acquisitions?
 25 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

1 remember the dollar amounts, but I am sure
 2 that we were, at least my analysis entailed
 3 some type of synergies for the transaction.
 4 Q. Do you recall what source of
 5 information you used in considering potential
 6 synergies?
 7 A. Again, not specifically, but -- I am
 8 almost positive that almost all of the sources
 9 of the synergies came from either Sunbeam
 10 directly or their consultants -- I think it
 11 was Coopers & Lybrand.
 12 Q. Did you have cause to work with 13 Coopers & Lybrand in connection with this
 14 matter?
 15 A. I don't remember having any direct
 16 contact with them, no.
 17 Q. Do you know what Coopers & Lybrand
 18 did in connection with this transaction?
 19 MS. BROWN: Foundation, form.
 20 Objections.
 21 A. Can you be a little bit more
 22 specific?
 23 Q. What understanding, if any, do you
 24 have as to the work that Coopers & Lybrand did
 25 for Sunbeam?

018253

1 A. Specifically, again, I am not, I
 2 can't recall, but I believe they were hired to
 3 analyze potential synergies for the
 4 transactions.
 5 Q. Let me ask you to turn back to
 6 Exhibit 129, which would be in your stack
 7 there.
 8 A. Aha.
 9 Q. If you would turn to the page
 10 numbered 17 at the bottom.
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. There is a question, number 5 in the 13 middle of the page, that deals with synergies.
 14 A. Aha.
 15 Q. Is that something that you would
 16 have reviewed at the time?
 17 A. For this document?
 18 Q. Yes.
 19 A. No.
 20 Q. At the bottom of the response to
 21 number 5, there is a sentence that says:
 22 "They informed the Sunbeam board of directors
 23 that the synergies are likely to be in the 225
 24 million to $275 million pre-tax range. Do you
 25 see that?"

1 Q. During the period that you were
 2 doing credit due diligence with respect to the 3 Sunbeam matter.
 4 A. No, I don't recall that.
 5 Q. If we extend the time period to
 6 include after the closing of the acquisitions
 7 and moving towards the rating presentations,
 8 do you recall whether the synergy estimates
 9 grew or shrank over that period of time?
 10 MS. BROWN: Asked and answered. And
 11 mischaracterizes.
 12 A. Again, I don't recall over that time
 13 frame.
 14 Q. Would you look at Exhibit 145, and
 15 look at page numbered 13 at the bottom,
 16 please.
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. The third bullet point there, under 19 Roman 8, says that: "Synergies were also 20 reduced on the MS base case."
 21 Do you have an understanding of what
 22 "MS base case" is?
 23 A. Yes. That is the Morgan Stanley
 24 base case.
 25 Q. Who developed that?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. Do you know who generated that
 3 estimate of synergies?
 4 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
 5 THE WITNESS: Sorry, can you read
 6 the question again.
 7 (Record read.)
 8 A. No, I do not.
 9 Q. Did you do any work in estimating
 10 synergies from the acquisitions of Coleman,
 11 Signature and First Alert?
 12 A. I may have. I don't recall. Again,
 13 as part of our credit process it is something,
 14 it is one of the main things that we would 15 look into.
 16 Q. Do you recall doing anything to 17 assess the achievability of any synergy
 18 forecasts?
 19 A. Specifically, I don't recall.
 20 Q. Do you recall whether the estimated
 21 synergies grew over time, or were reduced over
 22 time, or changed in some other way?
 23 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 24 A. When you say "grew over time," what
 25 time period are you talking about?

1 A. I don't recall.
 2 Q. Someone at Morgan Stanley, other
 3 than yourself?
 4 A. Again, I don't recall the specifics,
 5 but I am sure it was myself along with some
 6 other members of the team.
 7 Q. So, when it says that synergies were 8 also reduced on the MS base case, is that an
 9 adjustment that someone at Morgan Stanley
 10 would have made?
 11 A. Um, yes. Yes.
 12 Q. The reference, later in that
 13 sentence, to management case, those are
 14 projections that came from Sunbeam management?
 15 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 16 Mischaracterizes the previous testimony.
 17 A. Again, I can't be exact here, but it
 18 says from management case; so, you know.
 19 Q. In ordinary usage, "management case"
 20 would refer to the case developed by 21 management; is that right?
 22 A. That is correct.
 23 Q. Do you have any recollection of 24 reducing synergies in projections from the 25 management case?

018254

1 A. I don't have any specific
2 recollection, but that is pretty much standard
3 operating procedure from the credit
4 standpoint.

5 Q. How do you go about deciding what
6 synergies to put into a Morgan Stanley case?

7 A. Again, you know -- every situation
8 is different. A lot of factors go into it.

9 I don't remember why we assumed the
10 40 percent reduction, but I am sure there was 11 some, you know, statistical data behind it, in 12 some fashion or another.

13 Q. What sorts of information do you
14 look at in evaluating synergies?

15 A. Um, well, again, a lot of things.
16 One is, are they cost synergies or
17 revenue synergies. Generally speaking, cost
18 savings are easier to generate than revenue
19 synergies.

20 It depends on the, um, the nature of 21 the overlap between, perhaps, some of the 22 businesses that are being folded into the 23 company, um, the factor would be management's
24 past history of achieving synergies.

25 Um, and, you know, there are other

1 haircut. And how you come up with the haircut
2 depends on the situation that you are involved
3 with.

4 But that is, you know, I think any
5 credit analyst, you know, or any rating agency
6 person or any person would take that kind of 7 haircut.

8 Q. Is it fair to say that companies'
9 managements tend to be optimistic in
10 predicting synergies from a transaction?

11 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

12 A. "Companies' managements." Can you
13 be more specific?

14 Q. Sure.

15 You explained in your testimony why,
16 in looking at a glass half empty, you often
17 reduce synergies. I just wanted to take a
18 little different perspective on that.

19 In your experience, is it fair to 20 say that the management of a company looking 21 at an acquisition or a transaction will often
22 be optimistic about the synergies that can be
23 generated from that transaction?

24 A. Not necessarily, no. There are
25 plenty of times that I can't -- management has

1 things probably, too, that I can't think of
2 off the top of my head.

3 Q. Do you recall if any of those
4 factors came into play with respect to
5 Sunbeam?

6 A. No, I can't.

7 Q. You mentioned, a couple answers ago,
8 that it was, I think you said standard, or 9 common, in any event, to reduce synergies from 10 what management has suggested. Why is that?

11 A. Well, from a credit standpoint we 12 always view synergies as something where --
13 well, for a lot of reasons, from a credit
14 standpoint, we would view the glass as half
15 empty.

16 And to just assume that a company is
17 going to achieve everything that they say they 18 are going to achieve I don't think is all that 19 prudent, regardless of track record.

20 And, also, synergies can happen over
21 a period of time.

22 And folding those in at different
23 time periods is very hard to do.

24 So, again, from a credit standpoint,
25 it is pretty standard to take some type of

1 exceeded synergies. It has happened.

2 Q. In your experience, is it equally
3 likely that a company will exceed previous
4 expectations as to synergies, as it will be to
5 fall below those expectations?

6 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

7 A. Again, purely from a credit matter,
8 um, it is hard to say, just because, again,
9 you know, things change over time. And the 10 synergies get factored in at potentially
11 different points in time.

12 So, you know, it is hard for me to 13 sit here and categorically say that companies,
14 you know, generally are better or worse than 15 what they originally anticipate in terms of 16 projections. It is just, it is really a
17 case-by-case example. It depends on what
18 industry you are talking about.

19 It depends on the experience of the 20 management team.

21 It depends on what they are buying.

22 I just, I can't give that a, any
23 kind of a kind of blanket answer from an
24 experience standpoint.

25 Q. I will show you what was previously

018255

Page 114

1 marked as MS Deposition Exhibit 78.
 2 Is this a document that you reviewed
 3 in connection with your Sunbeam work?
 4 A. It doesn't look familiar, no.
 5 Q. In connection with your Sunbeam
 6 work, did you become familiar with a gentleman
 7 named Andrew Conway?
 8 A. I believe he was the equity analyst
 9 for Morgan Stanley for beverage companies, I
 10 think. I can't really remember.
 11 Q. Do you recall any work that Andrew
 12 Conway did in connection with synergies in
 13 connection with Sunbeam?
 14 A. No, I do not. I don't recall that.
 15 Q. Do you recall any conversations with 16 Mr. Conway with respect to Sunbeam?
 17 A. No, I do not.
 18 THE WITNESS: Could I take a recess?
 19 MR. CHORVAT: Yes.
 20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 12:16
 21 p.m. and we are going off the record.
 22 (Recess.)
 23 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Stand by. The
 24 time is 12:24 p.m. and we are back on the 25 video record.

Page 115

1 BY MR. CHORVAT:
 2 Q. Again, with reference to Deposition
 3 Exhibit 145, which, I think, you have in front
 4 of you, on page 13.
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. There are references there to the MS
 7 base case and MS downside case, and there is
 8 also a Morgan Stanley financing base case.
 9 First of all, is the Morgan Stanley
 10 financing base case, is that the same as MS
 11 base case?
 12 A. I don't know. Where did you see "MS
 13 financing"?
 14 Q. The first sentence of the first
 15 bullet point.
 16 A. Well, as it is worded here, they
 17 would seem to be the same, because there is 18 only one clarifier. So, the second sentence
 19 is clarifying the first.
 20 So, I am assuming, it seems like
 21 they are the same.
 22 Q. And in the fourth bullet point there
 23 is a reference to an MS downside case.
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. What is a downside case, as compared

Page 116

1 to a base case?
 2 A. Again, I don't recall specifics, but
 3 usually a downside case would be, perhaps, a
 4 one in 10 or, you know, one out of four
 5 possibility of something that could go
 6 differently, negatively of course, compared to 7 our base case.
 8 Just to show how much flexibility
 9 there is from a credit standpoint to make it
 10 through a potential downside event, if you
 11 will.
 12 Q. Who at Morgan Stanley would have
 13 generated the MS downside case in connection
 14 with Sunbeam?
 15 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
 16 A. Again, at the time -- it is done a
 17 little differently now, but at the time it
 18 was, most likely, myself, fixed income
 19 research and, perhaps, corporate financing,
 20 and/or the leverage product group.
 21 Q. In a couple of these bullet points
 22 on page 13 is the acronym CAGR. Is that
 23 compound annual growth rate?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. And in the second bullet point it

Page 117

1 notes that the CAGR for sales was reduced from
 2 almost 14 percent in the management case to
 3 9.4 percent in the MS base case.
 4 Do you know why that was done?
 5 A. Specifically, no, I do not.
 6 Q. In general, was it typical in your
 7 work in preparing projections to alter sales
 8 growth rates from what management had
 9 projected, if you found that to be warranted?
 10 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 11 A. Well, that could be one factor that 12 we could, I mean -- that we could change, or 13 we would really call synthesize.
 14 It could be sales. It could be
 15 EBITDA margin. It could be inventory turn.
 16 It could be, you know, the company generates
 17 certain amount of free cash flow, how much of 18 that cash flow goes towards back into the 19 business, versus paying down debt service.
 20 I mean, there are a lot of different
 21 assumptions that we can make here. I don't
 22 recall why we just looked at sales.
 23 There could be other assumptions in 24 the downside case that just aren't highlighted
 25 in this case, overview of the assumptions, but

1 I don't recall exactly why we chose sales.
 2 Q. As set out in the fourth bullet
 3 point on page 13, the downside case still
 4 assumes that sales will grow on an annual rate
 5 of 4.4 percent, rather than 9.4 percent on the 6 base case; is that correct?
 7 A. Well, sorry, where does it say that?
 8 Yes. Yes.
 9 Q. And then, the other difference that 10 is laid out here between the downside case and 11 the base case is that in the downside case
 12 Morgan Stanley has assumed no synergies from 13 the transaction, as compared to the synergies
 14 that we talked about earlier that are in the 15 third bullet point in the base case; is that
 16 right?
 17 A. Aha.
 18 Q. Did there come a time when Morgan
 19 Stanley worked to syndicate any portion of the 20 Sunbeam financing?
 21 A. Um, well, I am not in the
 22 syndication group and I never was. I can't, I
 23 am not really sure that I can answer that
 24 question.
 25 Q. I will ask it a different way.

1 recall if he was there or not.
 2 Q. Do you recall when that meeting
 3 occurred in relation to Sunbeam's issuing of 4 its first quarter results for 1998?
 5 A. No. I don't know when they issued
 6 the first quarter results.
 7 Q. Other than the folks that you
 8 testified to as being there for Morgan Stanley
 9 for Sunbeam, how many other people were there?
 10 Roughly.
 11 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 12 A. I can't say, really.
 13 Q. Was it held in a conference room or 14 an auditorium?
 15 A. I don't recall. I don't recall how
 16 big the room was.
 17 Q. What was the purpose of the 18 analysts' meeting on May 11th, 1998?
 19 A. I don't recall at this time.
 20 Q. You have been to analysts' meetings
 21 before?
 22 A. Yes, I have.
 23 Q. Is there, typically, a reason why
 24 management will meet with analysts in a
 25 meeting like that?

1 What role, if any, did you play in
 2 any attempted syndication of any of the
 3 Sunbeam financing?
 4 A. None.
 5 Q. After March 30th, 1998, when is the
 6 next time that you can recall participating in
 7 a meeting with respect to Sunbeam?
 8 A. I can't recall.
 9 Q. Do you recall whether you
 10 participated in a meeting with analysts on or
 11 about May 11th, 1998?
 12 A. I believe I was at that meeting,
 13 yes.
 14 Q. Where did that meeting take place?
 15 A. I believe it took place at the 16 Equitable building on 7th Avenue, I believe.
 17 Q. Do you recall who participated in 18 that meeting from Morgan Stanley?
 19 A. No, I do not.
 20 Well, I was there, and I believe my
 21 analyst Jason Kunreuer was there.
 22 Q. Can you recall who was there for
 23 Sunbeam?
 24 A. Um, Al Dunlap was there. I can't
 25 recall if Russ Kersh was there, but I can't

1 A. There could be a number of reasons
 2 why they meet with the analysts. There is no
 3 one specific.
 4 Q. What are the reasons that you can
 5 think of?
 6 A. It could be to announce the
 7 transaction.
 8 It could be to announce a -- it
 9 could be just kind of a luncheon to kind of 10 give an update on performance.
 11 It could be a follow-on to an
 12 earnings announcement.
 13 It could be, you know, probably, a
 14 lot of other things that I am thinking about.
 15 Q. You don't recall which, if any, of 16 those it was in the case of Sunbeam in May of 17 1998?
 18 A. No, I do not.
 19 Q. Do you recall why you were there?
 20 A. Um, no, I don't recall why I was 21 there, other than that it was right down the 22 street from my office and it was convenient to 23 go, but I can't recall exactly why I was
 24 there.
 25 Q. You were continuing to do some work

018257

1 for Sunbeam at that point?
 2 A. Um, well, of course, we were
 3 still -- you know, we still had to meet with
 4 rating agencies at the beginning of June.
 5 Q. Is it fair to say that your credit
 6 due diligence work had concluded by that
 7 point?
 8 MS. BROWN: Objection, to the extent
 9 that it mischaracterizes the prior
 10 testimony.
 11 A. Um, it is hard to say in what light.
 12 Q. Well, as of May 11th, 1998, the 13 acquisitions had already taken place and the 14 closings had taken place on the financing; and 15 so, were you continuing to do credit due
 16 diligence at that point?
 17 MS. BROWN: Asked and answered.
 18 A. Um, again, if it was -- most likely,
 19 any credit work was most likely related to the 20 credit rating agencies, who are concerned
 21 about credits because that is why, how they 22 rate bonds. So, it was, most likely, in that 23 regard.
 24 Q. In connection with your work in
 25 advance of the rating agency meetings, what

1 A. Um, I believe Al Dunlap did. I know
 2 he was there, but I can't recall who actually
 3 spoke.
 4 Um, um, I can't -- I believe -- I
 5 believe Michael Price may have been there, but
 6 I can't remember if that was that meeting or
 7 not.
 8 Q. Who is Michael Price?
 9 A. Well, at the time, I believe,
 10 Michael Price was a large shareholder in
 11 Sunbeam.
 12 Q. Can you recall the tenor of the 13 meeting, whether it was upbeat, or tense, or
 14 something else?
 15 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 16 A. You know, I really can't recall the 17 length or the mood of the meeting.
 18 Q. I will show you what has been
 19 previously marked as CPH Deposition Exhibit
 20 195.
 21 Are you familiar with Exhibit 195?
 22 A. I don't recall it, no.
 23 Q. In connection with the May 11th
 24 analysts' meeting, did you play a role in 25 preparing any hand-outs or materials, written

1 was it that you were doing? What was your
 2 role?
 3 A. Um, specifically, you know, I don't
 4 recall; but, generally, it would be helping
 5 the client put together, effectively, a
 6 presentation to the rating agencies to tell
 7 the story.
 8 And, as was said before, the rating
 9 presentation is more of a larger road show
 10 presentation, so to speak. It is much more
 11 detailed. And so, that would be one aspect of
 12 it.
 13 The other aspect would be scheduling
 14 the meetings with the constituencies at the 15 S&P and Moody's, walking them through any 16 potential issues they may have or things that 17 they would like to hear about more
 18 specifically, so it is a more effective
 19 meeting.
 20 And then, also, speaking with
 21 management and dealing with potentially some 22 of the issues that the rating agencies may 23 have.
 24 Q. Do you recall who spoke at the May 25 11th analysts' meeting?

1 materials?
 2 A. For this meeting?
 3 Q. Yes.
 4 A. No, I did not.
 5 Q. Did you review any written materials
 6 before the meeting?
 7 A. No, I did not.
 8 Q. Would you have seen any written
 9 materials that were handed out when you were
 10 actually there at the meeting?
 11 A. Are you asking me, if this was 12 handed out at the meeting, would I have seen
 13 it?
 14 Q. Yes.
 15 A. If they handed it out, I would have
 16 seen it.
 17 Q. Let me ask you to turn to the page
 18 that has the Bates number 40250, also 3546.
 19 There are two Bates numbers.
 20 A. 402 --
 21 Q. 250, cost savings and synergies.
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. It says "original estimate of 150
 24 million and actual of 291."
 25 Do you know where either of those 018258

1 numbers come from?
 2 A. No, I do not.
 3 Q. Do you know whether the $291,000,000
 4 actual number is a number that was based on
 5 any input from you?
 6 A. The 291, I had nothing to do with
 7 that number.
 8 Q. Do you know if that is a Coopers &
 9 Lybrand number?
 10 A. I have no idea where that number
 11 came from.
 12 Q. Do you recall any discussions with 13 anyone about the $291,000,000 synergy number?
 14 A. Not to my recollection, no.
 15 Q. Do you have any understanding of the 16 model upon which that was based or the 17 assumptions on which that was based?
 18 A. No, I do not.
 19 Q. Do you have any understanding as to 20 why the original estimate of cost savings and 21 synergies would have increased from 150
 22 million to 291 million by May 11th, 1998?
 23 A. No.
 24 Q. In connection with your rating
 25 agency work for Sunbeam, did you have cause to

1 discuss synergies with anyone at Sunbeam?
 2 A. I can't recall specifics, but I
 3 probably did in due course.
 4 Q. It would be a fairly normal topic to 5 come up, but you don't recall any specific
 6 discussions?
 7 A. Again, the rating agencies are
 8 credit people, and I am assuming that if this 9 was a big part of the story, that they would 10 want to have a lot of details as to how the 11 synergies were going to be achieved.
 12 I think that is a fair statement.
 13 Q. Can you recall discussing synergies
 14 with anyone at Coopers & Lybrand in connection
 15 with Sunbeam?
 16 MS. BROWN: Objection, asked and
 17 answered.
 18 A. No, I can't recall that.
 19 Q. At any point, did you review the
 20 basis for any synergies estimates that Coopers
 21 & Lybrand generated in connection with
 22 Sunbeam?
 23 MS. BROWN: Sorry, could you read
 24 that back.
 25 (Record read.)

1 MS. BROWN: Objection to form and
 2 foundation.
 3 A. Sorry, could you read that again.
 4 (Record read.)
 5 A. I can't recall.
 6 MR. CHORVAT: I am handing you what
 7 has been marked as CPH Deposition Exhibit
 8 250.
 9 Can you identify Exhibit 250?
 10 (CPH Exhibit 250, memorandum,
 11 marked for identification as of this
 12 date.)
 13 A. Yes. This is a memorandum that I
 14 put together in preparation for the -- it is 15 really just a brief itinerary of the meeting
 16 that Russ Kersh and Ron Richter were going to 17 have with the rating agencies on, I guess,
 18 June 3rd.
 19 Q. These are the meetings that you have 20 mentioned from time to time in your prior
 21 testimony; is that right?
 22 A. Yes. That's right.
 23 Q. Were you involved in drafting the 24 materials to be shared with the rating
 25 agencies at those meetings?

1 A. Yes, I was involved.
 2 (CPH Exhibit 251, documents Bates
 3 Nos. 5547 to 5599, marked for
 4 identification as of this date.)
 5 MR. CHORVAT: I am handing you what
 6 has been marked as CPH Deposition Exhibit
 7 251, which is a fairly lengthy document
 8 which bears Bates stamps MS, Morgan
 9 Stanley 5547 through 5599.
 10 Q. Can you identify Exhibit 251?
 11 A. Yes. This is the rating agency
 12 presentation that Sunbeam gave to the rating
 13 agencies.
 14 Q. Do you know whether this is a final
 15 version or a draft?
 16 A. I don't know.
 17 Q. Exhibit 250 discusses rating agency
 18 meetings on June 3rd. Were there also
 19 meetings on or about May 25th; do you recall?
 20 A. No. There wouldn't have been other
 21 meetings. There was only one set of meetings,
 22 one day of meetings.
 23 Q. Were there drafts of the 24 presentation materials prepared prior to the 25 actual rating agency meetings?

018259

1 A. I am sure there were.
 2 Q. What role did you play in preparing
 3 Exhibit 251?
 4 A. Um, well, I did not physically put
 5 the document together. It was put together
 6 in, just as a matter of, that's how we did it
 7 in terms of efficiency, by the documentation,
 8 or whatever you wanted to call it, that was
 9 part of IBD.
 10 But I -- based on what I knew, the 11 strengths of the company weren't what the 12 concerns of the rating agencies were going to 13 be that crafted this document, to go over what 14 we thought would be the salient points of what
 15 they would want to hear.
 16 Q. The documentation group in IBD that 17 you mentioned, that is a group within Morgan
 18 Stanley?
 19 A. Yes. It is, like, word processing.
 20 As a matter of fact, if you -- you
 21 know, there is a date on this document that
 22 says April 15th. I think that is the April
 23 15th --
 24 Q. If this document were prepared on or 25 about April 15th, then it would be -- the May

1 Q. Other than yourself, who else at
 2 Morgan Stanley would have contributed to the
 3 substance or presentation of Exhibit 251?
 4 A. Specifically, I can't say, but it
 5 would have been probably certain key members
 6 from corporate finance and leveraged finance.
 7 Q. Do you recall who any of those would
 8 have been in connection with Sunbeam?
 9 A. Specifically, or -- just general
 10 people who were involved in the deal?
 11 Q. As specifically as you can recall,
 12 with respect to Sunbeam.
 13 A. Well, I can't recall anyone being
 14 involved in this book. I am sure someone was,
 15 but I can't tell you if someone on the deal
 16 team had a comment on a certain page.
 17 Q. Would this have circulated to the 18 entire deal team from the March transaction?
 19 A. The recipients would have been
 20 myself, corporate finance -- leveraged
 21 finance, and perhaps fixed income, and that's
 22 it.
 23 Q. I will ask you to turn to the page
 24 that bears the Bates number 5551.
 25 A. Executive summary.

1 25th date on the cover would be sort of a
 2 projected date for the meeting, the analyst
 3 meeting?
 4 A. It could have been.
 5 We could have -- you know, a lot of
 6 times these things are fluid and there could
 7 have been a scheduling conflict that we had to
 8 move the meeting to June 3rd, or something
 9 like that, either from a company standpoint,
 10 or from my standpoint, or from the rating --
 11 most likely, the rating agencies.
 12 Q. With respect to the substance of 13 Exhibit 251, what sources of information would 14 you have drawn upon in connection with your
 15 contribution to this document?
 16 A. Again, we would have relied on the
 17 information provided to us by the Sunbeam
 18 management team, along with the management
 19 team of some of the targets that they had 20 purchased, the historical financials.
 21 Obviously, let's say in the
 22 projection model, which is the management's
 23 projection model, so predominantly this
 24 information comes in some form through
 25 management.

1 Q. Executive summary.
 2 In the second bullet point it says:
 3 "Synergies are projected to be at least $150
 4 million annually."
 5 A. Aha.
 6 Q. Do you know where that number came
 7 from?
 8 A. No, I do not.
 9 Q. This is not something that you,
 10 personally, prepared?
 11 A. No, it is not.
 12 Q. The prior sentence in that bullet
 13 point talks about the acquisitions of Coleman
 14 Signature Brands and First Alert.
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. Do you know whether the
 17 $150,000,000 number is the combined synergies
 18 of all three acquisitions?
 19 A. I can't say, for certain.
 20 Q. If you turn to the page Bates
 21 numbered 5556.
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. It is a summary of acquisitions?
 24 A. Yes. Yes.
 25 Q. Under "Coleman" it says "$2.2

018260

1 billion aggregate value"; do you see that?
 2 A. Aha.
 3 Q. Do you know what the source of that
 4 information was?
 5 A. No, I do not.
 6 Q. That is not something that you did,
 7 personally?
 8 A. No. I had nothing to do with that.
 9 Q. So, in instances like this, you and
 10 others at Morgan Stanley would have taken
 11 information that came from a management
 12 source, and then Morgan Stanley put it into 13 the form of this document?
 14 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 15 Mischaracterizes.
 16 THE WITNESS: Can you read the
 17 question back, please.
 18 (Record read.)
 19 MS. BROWN: Also, objection to form.
 20 A. Um, I think most of the information,
 21 it is fair to say -- I haven't gone through 22 the document -- is information that has been
 23 provided by management.
 24 Q. With respect to the $2.2 billion
 25 valuation of Coleman, do you know if that

1 (CPH Exhibit 252, rating agency
 2 presentation, marked for identification
 3 as of this date.)
 4 Q. Can you identify Exhibit 252?
 5 A. Again, it looks like a Sunbeam
 6 rating agency presentation with a later date.
 7 Q. It looks like a little footer is
 8 dated May 31st, 1998.
 9 A. Yes. That looks to be right.
 10 Q. What role, if any, did you play in
 11 preparing Exhibit 252?
 12 A. Um, the same as I indicated before.
 13 It was more to help collect thoughts on the 14 strengths and weaknesses of the company and 15 issues that I knew the rating agencies would 16 want to focus on.
 17 Q. I will ask you to turn to the page
 18 that has the Bates number 19641.
 19 There is some handwriting; do you
 20 recognize that?
 21 A. No, I do not.
 22 Q. That is not your handwriting?
 23 A. I don't believe it is. It is hard
 24 to read, but I don't believe it is.
 25 Q. This document bears Bates numbers

1 number came from Sunbeam management or some
 2 other source?
 3 A. Yes. I don't know where that came
 4 from.
 5 Q. I will ask you to turn to page 5571.
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. "Coleman synergies rationale $122
 8 million."
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. Do you know who came up with the 11 $122 million number?
 12 A. No, I do not.
 13 Q. There is a whole list of
 14 considerations that seem to go into that. Do
 15 you know who generated those considerations?
 16 A. No, I do not.
 17 Q. Do you know whether it was
 18 management or Coopers & Lybrand?
 19 A. I don't recall who came up with
 20 these figures.
 21 Q. It was not you?
 22 A. Absolutely not.
 23 MR. CHORVAT: I am handing you what
 24 has been marked as CPH Deposition Exhibit
 25 252.

1 19638 through 19725.
 2 Let me ask you to turn to page
 3 19651.
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. And here, under "Sunbeam acquisition
 6 rationale," the second bullet point says that 7 "cost savings/synergies are approximately
 8 $290,000,000 annually." Do you see that?
 9 A. Aha.
 10 Q. Do you know why that number had 11 increased from 150 million in the draft we
 12 were looking at a moment ago to about 290?
 13 A. No, I can't. I can't give you an 14 answer to that.
 15 Q. Do you know who prepared the
 16 $290,000,000 estimate?
 17 A. No, I do not.
 18 Q. Do you recall any discussions of 19 synergies in the range of $290 million with 20 anyone at Sunbeam?
 21 A. Not specifically, no.
 22 Q. How about anyone at Coopers?
 23 A. No.
 24 Q. How about anyone during the 25 analysts' meeting in May?

018261

1 A. Again, I did not specifically have,
 2 I did not have any conversations with anyone
 3 at the analysts' meeting.
 4 Q. Do you recall whether synergies was
 5 a topic that was discussed at that meeting?
 6 A. I don't recall. I can't recall.
 7 Q. Can you recall any discussion of
 8 synergies during the meetings with the rating
 9 agencies in June?
 10 A. Um, I can't recall specifically, no.
 11 But, you know, like I said, I am sure it was a
 12 topic of conversation.
 13 Q. There were two rating agencies
 14 meetings in early June; is that correct?
 15 A. Yes. That is correct.
 16 Q. What can you recall about the 17 Standard & Poors meeting?
 18 A. Um, nothing really. It was a
 19 non-event.
 20 Q. When you say a non-event --
 21 A. It was not any -- to me, I had gone
 22 to so many of these things in my career, it
 23 doesn't really -- there is nothing that comes
 24 to my mind.
 25 Q. Do you recall who attended?

1 gentleman named Rob McCreary.
 2 Q. Who was Mr. McCreary with?
 3 A. He was with Moody's.
 4 Pam Stump was not there; so, he was
 5 there in her place, I believe.
 6 Q. And Messrs. Kersh and Richter for
 7 Sunbeam?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. And yourself, on behalf of Morgan
 10 Stanley?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. How long did that meeting last?
 13 A. Again, probably a couple hours.
 14 Q. What, if anything, can you remember
 15 about that meeting?
 16 A. I do remember that being a little
 17 contention between Mr. Kersh and 18 Mr. McCreary. I can't remember specifically
 19 what about, but, quite frankly, that was
 20 pretty much the standard operating procedure
 21 with Mr. McCreary and pretty much anyone that
 22 was brought in to see Moody's.
 23 Q. Do you recall whether synergies were
 24 discussed during that Moody's meeting?
 25 A. I don't recall specifically, no.

1 A. I believe the people on this page,
 2 and I can't recall specifically, but I believe
 3 on this page attended.
 4 Q. When you say "the people on this
 5 page," the people on behalf of Sunbeam would
 6 have been Mr. Kersh and Mr. Richter?
 7 A. Yes. That's right is there.
 8 Q. And yourself, Morgan Stanley?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. And then, the three individuals who
 11 are listed under Standard & Poors under 11A M?
 12 A. Correct.
 13 Q. Is there anyone else at that meeting
 14 that you can recall?
 15 A. Jason Kunreuther, my analyst, but I
 16 can't recall him specifically being there.
 17 Q. You can't recall any particular
 18 topics of conversation?
 19 A. No, I cannot.
 20 Q. How long did the meeting last?
 21 A. I don't recall. A couple hours,
 22 probably.
 23 Q. With respect to the Moody's meeting,
 24 who attended that meeting?
 25 A. Kevin Kusniak (ph) was there, and a

1 Q. What about Sunbeam sales
 2 performance?
 3 A. Not specifically.
 4 Q. The acquisitions?
 5 A. Sorry.
 6 Q. The acquisitions?
 7 A. Well, again, not specifically, but I
 8 am sure that is why they were there.
 9 Finance, I am sure, was part of the
 10 conversation.
 11 Q. How long does it, typically, take
 12 after a rating agency meeting for the agencies
 13 to develop a rating?
 14 A. Um, an official rating or 15 preliminary rating?
 16 Q. I take it the preliminary one comes
 17 first; right?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. How long does that take?
 20 A. It could take less than a day or so.
 21 Q. Did you get preliminary ratings from 22 Standard & Poors or Moody's?
 23 A. Yes, I did.
 24 Q. What did they have to say?
 25 A. They both said double B, BA2 senior.

018262

1 Q. Did they, also, rate the convertible
 2 piece?
 3 A. They did not have to, but I knew, by 4 default, that it would be rated, because,
 5 again, it is always two notches below that;
 6 rating; so, it would have been B1, B plus.
 7 Q. And did those preliminary ratings
 8 become official at some point?
 9 A. No, they did not.
 10 Q. Why is that?
 11 A. Well, after the rating meetings,
 12 June 3rd, I don't know, it was probably the 13 following weekend when Mr. Dunlap got fired,
 14 along with Mr. Kersh.
 15 Or, I think -- I don't know where he
 16 was, but -- and, obviously, put the whole
 17 syndication, or whatnot, in kind of disarray,
 18 or kind of suspended syndication process; so,
 19 S&P Moody's had different policies at the
 20 time.
 21 S&P basically said they are not
 22 going to rate it, they are not going to rate
 23 anything, they don't normally rate converts
 24 unless there is another reason to rate.
 25 At the convert meeting they had

1 June 3rd, did you have any further work in
 2 connection with Sunbeam?
 3 A. Um, well, as I said, I had some
 4 follow-up conversations with the rating
 5 agencies.
 6 And I may have, you know, relayed
 7 some of that information to some of the team
 8 members.
 9 But, other than that, I can't
 10 remember -- I can't remember, you know, when 11 it stopped.
 12 Q. Other than relaying that sort of
 13 rating agency information, had you done
 14 anything else with respect to Sunbeam since
 15 June of 1998?
 16 A. Since June of 1998?
 17 Q. Yes.
 18 A. Um, you know, I can't remember
 19 exactly the date, but it was probably the end
 20 of June where I was pretty much done with the,
 21 done with the company.
 22 Q. Did you continue to monitor
 23 Sunbeam's performance after that?
 24 A. No, I did not.
 25 Q. Did you have any involvement in any

1 something on a piece of paper, like the bank
 2 debt. Since the bank debt was not going to
 3 get rated -- because there was no syndication
 4 at the time, there was no reason to rate the
 5 converts. Okay.
 6 Um, Moody's, on the other hand, the
 7 initial reaction, they were going to rate the 8 bank debt, but when I told them that, look,
 9 there are three holders of the bank debt -- we 10 do not need a rating on it because we are 11 holding it -- us, being they and, I think,
 12 First Union.
 13 We did not need the rating. And so,
 14 however, Moody's had this policy that there
 15 was a convert out there, and they were 16 claiming that they were getting inquiries
 17 about a rating; and so, they gave it a rating.
 18 Q. How long does it, typically, take to 19 get an official rating after the rating agency
 20 meetings?
 21 A. It depends, but in this situation,
 22 it is probably a couple weeks.
 23 Q. Is that fairly typical?
 24 A. I would say so.
 25 Q. After the rating agency meetings on

1 reserves established or write-downs or
 2 write-offs in connection with Sunbeam?
 3 A. No, I did not.
 4 Q. Have you had any cause to monitor
 5 American Household or Morgan Stanley's
 6 holdings in American Household, as a result of 7 its Sunbeam position?
 8 A. I recently, probably in the last
 9 year or so, received some financials on 10 American Household, but I don't cover the 11 industry anymore, and I believe I gave them to 12 the person that covers the industry.
 13 But it is not really a name that we
 14 follow from a portfolio management standpoint.
 15 Q. Who is the person that you gave that 16 information to?
 17 A. I believe I gave it to a woman named
 18 Tina Trinkle, or I just let her know that we 19 got these and filed them in our system, but --
 20 I did not look at them.
 21 Q. What group is Ms. Trinkle with?
 22 A. She is in my group.
 23 Q. Are you aware of anyone at Morgan
 24 Stanley who monitors American Household?
 25 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

018263

1 A. No, I am not aware.
 2 Q. Are you aware of anyone at Morgan
 3 Stanley who would have valued Morgan Stanley's
 4 interest in American Household?
 5 A. I am not aware of anybody.
 6 Q. You have not?
 7 A. I certainly have not.
 8 Q. Just to step back for a second to
 9 March of 1998.
 10 Were you involved at all in the road
 11 show in connection with the Sunbeam financing?
 12 A. No, I was not.
 13 Q. Did you attend any meetings or
 14 lunches that were part of the road show?
 15 A. I may have, but I don't recall.
 16 Q. Did you attend a lunch in Boston
 17 with respect to the road show?
 18 A. No, I did not.
 19 Q. Can you recall attending any meeting
 20 in New York with respect to the road show?
 21 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 22 A. Again, I recall being at a meeting
 23 with Mr. Dunlap, and he was, you know, signing
 24 books, but -- so, you know, that could have
 25 been the road show. I don't know.

1 THE WITNESS: Sorry, can you read
 2 back the question.
 3 Q. I will try it again. It was a
 4 little sloppy.
 5 I take it that during the time that
 6 you were working on Sunbeam you had some
 7 working files or papers that related to the 8 matter that were in your possession?
 9 A. That's right.
 10 Q. At some point, did those documents
 11 come to be no longer in your possession?
 12 A. Um, once I, uhm, once I was, once we 13 brought Morgan Edwards on to cover our 14 distress portfolio, I effectively gave them my 15 entire file.
 16 Q. You did not keep anything, at that
 17 point?
 18 A. Not that I can recall, no, I did
 19 not.
 20 Q. Would you also have transferred to 21 Mr. Edwards any computer files that you had,
 22 related to Sunbeam?
 23 THE WITNESS: What was the question,
 24 "could have"?
 25 (Record read.)

1 Q. Is there anything else that you can
 2 recall about that meeting?
 3 A. Actually, no.
 4 Q. Do you recall who else was there?
 5 A. Um, I know, again, Jason Kunreuther
 6 with there with me, but other people, no.
 7 Q. Do you know whether anyone else from 8 Morgan Stanley was present at that meeting?
 9 A. I can't recall.
 10 Q. At any point, have you been asked
 11 whether you have any documents that relate to
 12 this litigation?
 13 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 14 A. Um, I don't recall.
 15 Q. At any point, have you looked for 16 any documents or electronic files that might
 17 relate to this litigation?
 18 MS. BROWN: Same objection.
 19 A. Um, again, you know, I was -- I was 20 probably contacted several years ago for some 21 documents, but I don't remember what those
 22 documents were, and whatnot, so.
 23 Q. What is your understanding of what
 24 happened with respect to any working files
 25 that you had with respect to Sunbeam?

1 A. I don't recall.
 2 Q. At the time that you were working on
 3 Sunbeam, the spreadsheets, word processing
 4 files, other kinds of computer files, those
 5 would have been on your computer; is that
 6 right?
 7 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 8 A. I suppose it is possible, but
 9 anything that I would have had he would have 10 had access to through his, through the L-drive
 11 at Morgan Stanley.
 12 Q. Is it fair to say that you use a
 13 different computer today than you used in 14 1998?
 15 A. Yes, I think that is a fair
 16 statement.
 17 Q. Do you know whether there are any
 18 files relating to Sunbeam on your current
 19 computer?
 20 A. I don't know.
 21 Q. Do you have cause to look?
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. Do you know whether anyone else has 24 looked at your computer with respect to
 25 Sunbeam?

018264

1 A. Not that I am aware of.
 2 Q. Are you aware of any document
 3 retention policy at Morgan Stanley with
 4 respect to papers or computer files like what
 5 you would have had in your possession relating
 6 to Sunbeam?
 7 A. No, I am not aware of what, if any,
 8 what the policy is.
 9 Q. Sorry, as you sit here today, you
 10 don't know where any of the Sunbeam-related 11 documents that you once would have had or had 12 access to are today?
 13 A. I have no idea.
 14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Five minutes left
 15 on the tape.
 16 MR. CHORVAT: If we can break for a
 17 couple minutes, I think I am just about
 18 done.
 19 MS. BROWN: Okay.
 20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 1:12
 21 p.m. and we are going off the video
 22 record.
 23 (Recess.)
 24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Stand by. The
 25 time is 1:18 p.m. and we are back on the

1 Q. The same question with respect to
 2 Exhibit 252.
 3 A. The same thing. You know.
 4 Management, along with certain team members,
 5 put together the slides and then, you know, in 6 hand form. And then they were, obviously, put 7 together by the word processing group at
 8 Morgan Stanley.
 9 Q. These were prepared in connection
 10 with Morgan Stanley's work in preparation for 11 the rating agency meetings?
 12 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 13 A. I think that is fair.
 14 MR. CHORVAT: Thank you, Mr. Whelan,
 15 that is all that I have.
 16 MS. BROWN: No questions.
 17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 1:20
 18 p.m., and this completes tape number 2
 19 and also the videotaped deposition of 20 Mr. Christopher Whelan.

 2 BY MR. CHORVAT:
 3 Q. With respect to Exhibits 251 and
 4 252, I will just ask you again about these
 5 footers that are on the lower left column.
 6 Those are generated by a Morgan
 7 Stanley computer system; is that right?
 8 A. I believe so.
 9 Q. And so, these documents were
 10 generated by someone at Morgan Stanley; is
 11 that right?
 12 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 13 A. Can you be a little bit more
 14 specific.
 15 Q. With respect to Exhibit 251,
 16 describe, to the best of your understanding,
 17 the process by which this document came to 18 exist.
 19 A. Well, it was put together through a
 20 collaborative effort between management of the 21 company, certain members of the deal team who 22 put the slides together, and then it was 23 created in a word document, so to speak, by
 24 the word, I guess it is called the word
 25 processing group at Morgan Stanley.

4 a Notary Public, was examined and
5 testified as follows:
6 EXAMINATION BY
7 MR. MARKOWSKI:
8 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Perella.
9 A. Good afternoon.
10 Q. Mr. Perella, would you please state
11 your full name for the record, please?
12 A. Joseph, middle initial R. Perella.
13 Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Perella?
14 A. New York City.
15 Q. And by whom are you currently
16 employed?
17 A. Morgan Stanley.
18 Q. Do you have a title?
19 A. Chairman of Institutional
20 Securities.
21 Q. And to whom do you report in that
22 capacity?
23 A. Phil Purcell.
24 Q. Are there any other individuals at
25 Morgan Stanley who report to you?

Page 7

1 A. Two.
2 Q. And who are they?
3 A. Judy Foscale, F-o-s-c-a-l-e, and
4 Ann Johnston, J-o-h-n-s-t-o-n.
5 Q. What is Mr. Purcell's position at
6 Morgan Stanley?
7 A. Chief Executive Officer.
8 Q. He's the top person in the company?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And Judy Foscale, what is her
11 title?
12 A. She's one of my two assistants.
13 Q. And Ann Johnston?
14 A. The other assistant.
15 Q. Do they have other administrative
16 responsibilities, other than assisting you?
17 A. No.
18 Q. As the chairman of Institutional
19 Securities what are your responsibilities?
20 A. As Chairman of Institutional
21 Securities my role is really a client-
22 oriented role. Some people refer to me as 23 the senior client person in the firm. That's 24 opposed to a line manager. So I have 25 responsibility for leading the client effort,

Page 8

1 for being the senior banker on certain
2 important accounts of the firm, and for -- I
3 would say just as a general statement it's
4 more of a leadership role, not a managerial
5 role.
6 Q. You joined Morgan Stanley in 1993?
7 A. Correct.
8 Q. Could you briefly review for me the
9 course of your employment at Morgan Stanley,
10 the various positions you've held?
11 A. I joined in November '93. I was a
12 manager/director. I had no line
13 responsibilities, as a senior client person.
14 Approximately 18 months later I was asked to 15 become the head of the corporate finance
16 department, which is in an industrial sense
17 the sales arm of the investment bank. 18
18 months after that --
19 Q. I'm sorry, 18 months after you
20 joined in November of '93 would have been
21 late 1995?
22 A. Early 1995.
23 Q. Thanks.
24 A. Well, spring of 1995.
25 Q. Spring of '95?

Page 9

1 A. Approximately 18 months later I was
2 asked to become the head of the investment
3 banking division. I -- I held that -- I was 4 in that function for -- until approximately
5 October of 2000.
6 And in October of 2000 I became
7 Chairman of Institutional Securities and
8 Investment Banking, which we shorten really
9 for ease of description, and simply say
10 Chairman of Institutional Securities.
11 I also was on the management
12 committee of the firm from the time I joined,
13 and still am on the management committee of 14 the firm.
15 So that that's basically the
16 11-year -- 11 years I've been at Morgan
17 Stanley.
18 Q. What were your responsibilities as
19 the head of Corporate Finance?
20 A. To run the corporate finance
21 department.
22 Q. What does that consist of? What
23 are the functions of the corporate finance
24 department at Morgan Stanley?
25 A. As I said, it's the -- the 018270

Page 10

1 marketing arm and, in an industrial sense,
2 the sales arm of the investment bank, to
3 interface with the client world, and in a
4 sense, the general practitioners who
5 interface and are the first line of contact
6 with companies, and so that group was under
7 my direction for 18 months.
8 Q. And as the head of Corporate --
9 excuse me. As the head of the investment
10 banking division --
11 A. Um-hm.
12 Q. -- what functions within Morgan
13 Stanley are subsumed within that group?
14 A. The head of Investment Banking
15 oversees the investment banking division that
16 consists of corporate finance department,
17 which consists of about half the resources of 18 the division, Human Resources, the merger and 19 acquisition department, the what was then
20 Debt Capital Markets and Equity Capital
21 Markets groups. They've since been combined
22 to form a Global Capital Markets group, and 23 the real estate department. So in effect, at 24 the time I was the head of Investment
25 Banking, that would be I believe six

Page 11

1 departments reporting to the head of
2 Investment Banking.
3 Q. In your capacity as the head of the
4 investment banking division to whom did you
5 report?
6 A. The -- I have to think about that
7 for a second, because there were some changes
8 in management. As the head of Investment
9 Banking, my best recollection is that I
10 reported to Peter Karches, who was the head
11 of Institutional Securities, and while I
12 think that's -- during the period I was the 13 head of Investment Banking, I reported to 14 him. He resigned in early September, and in 15 the month between then and the time I became
16 Chairman of Institutional Securities I
17 reported to John Mack, because that would be
18 September of the year 2000.
19 Q. You're represented by counsel here
20 today; are you not, Mr. Perella?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Mr. Yannucci's representing you
23 today, and Mr. Claire and Mr. Doyle.
24 A. Um-hm, yes.
25 Q. Did you have an opportunity to

Page 12

1 prepare for the deposition today by meeting
2 with them?
3 A. I met with them, yes.
4 Q. To prepare for your deposition
5 today?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. You've been deposed previously?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Approximately how many times?
10 A. Well, I started working on Wall
11 Street in 1972, so I don't think I could
12 recall the number, but significant in terms
13 of number.
14 Q. You know Bill Strong?
15 A. Do I --
16 Q. -- know Bill Strong?
17 A. I certainly do.
18 Q. How long have you known Mr. Strong?
19 A. Since 1993.
20 Q. When you first joined the firm?
21 A. Correct.
22 Q. Did you review Mr. Strong's
23 personal -- personnel evaluations to prepare
24 for today?
25 A. I was shown them, but I -- I don't

Page 13

1 -- it would depend on what you meant by
2 review. I looked at some parts of them, but
3 I didn't review them from front to back.
4 Q. Do you know what years you saw?
5 A. I'm -- I'm not confident I could be
6 accurate in telling you what years that I
7 looked at.
8 Q. You've seen Mr. Strong's personnel
9 evaluations previously, correct?
10 A. Previous to?
11 Q. Previous to preparing for today's
12 deposition.
13 A. Well, I was his evaluation
14 director, so by -- by definition, I would
15 have seen them during the evaluation process.
16 Q. Are you aware, sir, that Morgan
17 Stanley opposed our request to take your
18 deposition today?
19 A. I'm not familiar with the details
20 of this lawsuit.
21 Q. You're not aware that we had to get
22 a court order for today's deposition --
23 MR. YANNUCCI: Objection,
24 relevance.
25 Q. -- to move forward?

018271

Page 14

1 MR. YANNUCCI: What's relevance is
2 that to his facts you want to get from
3 him?
4 A. As I said, I'm not really familiar
5 with the details of this lawsuit.
6 Q. Mr. Perella, is it fair to say that
7 Morgan Stanley today takes its personnel
8 evaluation process very seriously?
9 A. Today?
10 Q. Yes.
11 A. Today and always, yes.
12 Q. That was my next question.
13 That was true in the 1990s as well,
14 when you first joined Morgan Stanley,
15 correct?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Can you estimate for me in any way,
18 whether it's in terms of time or money, the 19 amount of effort each year expended by Morgan
20 Stanley in connection with the personnel
21 evaluation process that the firm engages in?
22 A. Well, I -- I -- I couldn't do it in 23 terms of money, because I have no basis for 24 being able to build that model. I never 25 asked the question.

Page 15

1 In terms of time, I would say it's
2 a significant amount of time in that it --
3 and, of course, it depends on whether you're
4 talking about formal evaluation or informal
5 evaluation. Informal evaluation, what I mean
6 by that is people are encouraged to provide
7 feedback on a regular basis. One of the 8 things people like about the securities
9 industry is that it's an instant feedback
10 kind of business in that the market provides 11 feedback to companies in terms of their
12 performance. If they are performing well,
13 their stocks go up. If they are not
14 performing well, their stocks go down.
15 Our professionals are encouraged to 16 provide advice to their teams as they're
17 going along working on projects. If they see 18 something that needs correction, they should 19 do it on the spot, hopefully in private, and 20 not in front of colleagues. That's what I
21 mean by informal, the informal part of the
22 process.
23 Because there -- there isn't a book
24 that teaches you how to be an investment
25 banker. It's a profession where you

Page 16

1 basically learn on the job.
2 The formal part of the evaluation
3 process begins -- and I'm not using months,
4 because our fiscal month has changed several
5 times in the 11 years I've been here, but
6 just to set the example for you, in a fiscal
7 year-ended November 30th the formal
8 evaluation process probably begins sometime
9 in September and concludes in early December,
10 and that evaluation process is for every
11 person in the firm, so in an institutional
12 securities unit that has had in the 13 neighborhood of 10,000 people in it in the 14 period of time that I've been involved with 15 Morgan Stanley, if you just extrapolate the 16 amount of time and the number of people,
17 that's a significant commitment to the
18 evaluation and development process.
19 Q. It'd be tens of thousands of hours,
20 I take it.
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. You took your own involvement in
23 the evaluation process seriously; did you
24 not, sir?
25 A. Yes.

Page 17

1 Q. Could you review for me the formal
2 evaluation process as it existed at Morgan
3 Stanley in the period from 1993 to 1998, and
4 if there were any significant changes in that
5 time frame, if you could identify them for
6 me, I'd appreciate it.
7 A. Well, I'll qualify what I say by
8 the fact that I joined in November I believe
9 in a fiscal year that ended either February
10 1st or February 28th of the following year,
11 so as to the 1993 process, as a newcomer I
12 wouldn't really be familiar with the '93
13 year, so as to -- and these are general
14 comments that I make, because these things
15 are fine-tuned from year to year. In the 16 human resource area it seems like people are 17 always trying to make it better every year.
18 They don't think they ever get it right, so
19 they always like to fine-tune the forms. And 20 so I can't really give you an answer as to,
21 for example, how the evaluation development
22 summary might have changed from year to year,
23 or how the evaluation form might have changed
24 from year to year. I'm pretty sure they've 25 changed, but I just can't tell you how and 018272

Page 18

1 when.
2 But let me try and at least give
3 you a general description of the process.
4 Each individual, from Dick Fisher and John
5 Mack, who were running the firm when I came
6 here, down to the most junior associate is
7 evaluated. They are evaluated by peers,
8 subordinates and superiors. The process
9 begins by the individual requesting an
10 evaluation of their performance, and that 11 form, the evaluation request form, goes to 12 the evaluation director for approval. The 13 evaluation director reviews the form and
14 ensures in their mind that it has a good
15 cross-section of evaluators, and since it's 16 someone who's responsible -- their
17 responsibility is for the evaluation of that 18 employee, they take some time and effort to 19 make sure it's complete to make sure that
20 someone is not -- we have an expression --
21 gaming the system. In other words, they just 22 put their friends on it. I would say that's 23 not been a problem, because people understand
24 that, you know, they wouldn't look good if 25 they did that.

Page 19

1 So the evaluation director reviews
2 it for completeness, approves it, and then
3 the request for an evaluation of that
4 employee goes out to those group of
5 evaluators. They do the evaluation. The 6 human -- that all goes in to the human
7 resource department.
8 There was a time when this was done
9 let's call it manually, meaning not on line,
10 not direct into a computer, and -- and I
11 think over the years it has migrated to be a
12 totally electronic system.
13 So the -- all of these evaluations
14 are then put together into what we call the 15 package for that employee that goes to the 16 evaluation director, and then the evaluation
17 director reviews the package and prepares an 18 evaluation development summary. And
19 subsequent to that the evaluation development
20 summary is reviewed by a committee of 21 partners, and a presentation is made to that
22 committee on the summary and on the package,
23 and that person is -- is giving -- given an
24 overall assessment.
25 And where people feel that the

Page 20

1 evaluation development summary might not
2 accurately reflect the package, it could be
3 amended, and then the EDS, Evaluation
4 Development Summary, is reviewed with the
5 employee by their evaluation director,
6 they're given a copy. During the review the
7 package is reviewed in depth with them.
8 Excerpts are read to them from the package,
9 and then the individual signs the Evaluation
10 Development Summary indicating they've 11 received it. If they have any comments, they 12 can indicate it on the form. And that pretty
13 much ends the formal part of the process.
14 And that's given at the end of, as 15 I said, the fiscal year. And we try to get
16 people to focus on the developmental issues,
17 and it's I think a process of awareness, self
18 -- self-improvement and in a sense trying to 19 harness the human potential that exists in 20 the organization by -- I guess the concept is 21 that every day we come to work, we try to do
22 better than we did yesterday, and if you're
23 able to do that with a 2,000-person division
24 better than the competition, that's a
25 competitive advantage. So we always viewed

Page 21

1 our evaluation system as a competitive
2 advantage.
3 Q. I've heard the term 360 review --
4 A. Um-hm.
5 Q. -- used to describe the Morgan
6 Stanley formal evaluation process. Is that a
7 term you're familiar with?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. What does that refer to?
10 A. I think I mentioned that in the 11 early part of my rather long answer to your 12 question, and that is the peer, subordinate,
13 superiors, so 360 means the full spectrum of 14 people that you would interface with.
15 Q. What is the reason for having
16 junior people review their bosses?
17 A. Well, in that model, if you want to 18 call it the Renaissance model that I
19 described, where you learn from someone who's 20 more experienced in the art of investment
21 banking, the ability to teach and lead by
22 example is just as important as the ability
23 to follow direction from a superior, and in 24 the evaluation of a person as a complete
25 professional we look at not only what people

018273

Page 22

1 you're reporting to think of your
2 performance, not only what your colleagues
3 think of your performance, but also people
4 who are in a sense under you, junior to you
5 in experience level in the firm think of your
6 performance. So it's designed to be a
7 complete feedback loop rather than a partial
8 one.

9 Q. What use is made of the formal
10 evaluations by the firm?

11 A. I think I answered that question.

12 Q. Well, you indicated that you
13 provide feedback to the employee. Is it used
14 for other purposes by the firm, setting
15 compensation, promoting someone, demoting
16 someone, terminating someone?

17 A. The -- well, let's just --

18 THE WITNESS: Could you repeat his 19 question? Because he used several 20 words.

21 A. (Continuing) Your question is
22 pretty clear to me. I just need to answer
23 them in the sequence that you asked them.

24 Q. Let me rephrase it for you --

25 A. You used a few things.

Page 23

1 Q. -- and break it down.
2 In addition to providing feedback
3 and direction to the person whose performance
4 is being evaluated --

5 A. Um-hm.

6 Q. -- does Morgan Stanley use the
7 formal evaluation process for other things?

8 A. Well, I like the fact that you were
9 being specific about what you think these
10 other things might be. The -- the -- the --

11 MR. YANNUCCI: You want to have
12 that question read back?

13 THE WITNESS: That's really the 14 most helpful, because I think I could 15 answer that.

16 A. (Continuing) And I think I answered
17 it in the sense that the goal is development,
18 growth, and harnessing the human potential in 19 a division and of the firm. Most of the 20 evaluations end with goals for next year, for 21 example. So they point the individual in the 22 direction of things they need to work on.

23 And the beginning of the form tends
24 to state -- usually says how did you do
25 vis-a-vis your goals, for example, in the

Page 24

1 self-evaluation. Excuse me. I forgot that
2 part. Part of the evaluation package that I
3 described earlier is a -- every individual
4 fills out a self-evaluation, which is part of 5 the package the evaluation director gets in
6 doing the summary. Now, if the reporter
7 could read back that original question, then
8 I could address one by one the points that
9 you ticked off.

10 Q. Let me try to address them one by 11 one.

12 A. Okay.

13 Q. Does Morgan Stanley use the formal
14 evaluation process in connection with setting
15 compensation?

16 A. Well, the answer to that is yes and
17 no, and I don't mean -- I mean that in --
18 very sincerely. It's intentionally separate
19 from the comp process, because if -- what we 20 don't want is people to focus on comp at the 21 end of the year; we want them to focus on the 22 developmental messages. So nowhere in the 23 process do we talk about money and the comp.
24 By money I mean the compensation. The focus
25 is on the developmental message, the

Page 25

1 strengths, and the things that employees need
2 to work on.

3 Now, in the course of the people in
4 charge evaluating people, they have usually
5 read the packages of all the managing
6 directors, for example, so they will have in
7 their mind impressions from those packages,
8 which have to filter into their determining
9 comp, but it -- but -- but the reason I say
10 -- that's the reason why I said yes and no.

11 But the no is when they're doing
12 comp, they don't sit there with the 13 evaluation package. That's not in the room.
14 It's not -- it's really they're -- they're
15 two separate processes in the firm's let's
16 say broadly speaking HR function.

17 Q. What is the process for setting
18 compensation for managing directors? Let me
19 focus again on the time period that I'm most 20 interested in, the mid to late 1990s.

21 A. Well, it's really -- this -- this
22 is something I -- I would have to answer with 23 general statements, and -- and it would be as 24 follows. First of all, compensation depends
25 on how well the firm does. It depends on,

018274

Page 26

1 within the context of how well the firm does,
2 how well the business unit, the division
3 does, and then it depends on how well or what
4 -- what an individual contribution to that
5 overall effort was. So it's a combination of 6 things that enter into sort of the 7 determination of compensation levels.
8 The -- so within the -- the sort of
9 you want to call it budget that gets created
10 by performance of the enterprise, the 11 managers make a determination of what the 12 total reward should be to the employee -- and 13 that is generally done by a very small group
14 of partners in the business unit -- that is 15 then reviewed by the individual or 16 individuals that that unit reports to, and
17 then would be signed off on by the person
18 ultimately responsible or persons ultimately 19 responsible for the firm, and then finally 20 reviewed -- well, approved by the 21 compensation committee of the board of
22 directors.
23 Q. What role does revenue generation
24 play in determining bonus compensation to the 25 managing directors?

Page 27

1 MR. YANNUCCI: I'm going to object
2 to the general nature of the question,
3 ask you if you could focus on the -- I
4 thought the evaluation we're concerned
5 about, Mr. Strong.
6 Q. Okay, can you provide me a general
7 answer, sir, or is that too difficult a
8 question?
9 A. Let me -- if I recall your 10 question, what role does revenue play in 11 determining comp?
12 Q. Bonus compensation, yes.
13 A. Well, it's an important ingredient
14 in determining compensation. And while I was 15 in a position to determine compensation, what
16 -- one of the things I stressed was that I --
17 first of all, my philosophy of investment
18 banking is you don't pay investment bankers
19 like traders, number one. Number two, that 20 is the traders, you know, could have a very
21 big year, and their compensation can spike.
22 I believe investment bankers, being let's say
23 a more -- more of a let's call it profession,
24 should be paid --
25 (Interruption at the door.)

Page 28

1 (Mr. Schwartz joined the
2 proceedings.)
3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Take a brief break.
4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are going off
5 the record. The time is 3:41.
6 (Discussion off the record.)
7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back
8 on the record. The time is 3:42.
9 A. (Continuing) So I was sharing with 10 you my philosophy of compensation while I was 11 in a managerial post.
12 I think revenue contribution was an
13 important ingredient, but what I -- I
14 stressed was the development of relationships
15 and growth of the professional revenue over
16 time. I didn't want, particularly since we 17 were hiring new people into the firm that
18 hadn't begun their careers at Morgan
19 Stanley -- Morgan Stanley was a private firm
20 up until 1986, and in that environment it
21 tended to grow its own talent, and when it
22 went public -- and this is not a pattern
23 that's unusual for firms on Wall Street --
24 when it went public, it began to hire people
25 from other firms. So when you come into a

Page 29

1 culture that's home grown, I didn't want the
2 people to feel like they had to be instantly
3 successful and productive, and I stressed
4 that we would be looking at revenue over
5 time.
6 So what we look at is what I would
7 call overall athleticism, and that is -- and
8 I don't think any different in banking than 9 it would be in the law, for example -- you
10 get a sense, when you're around a
11 professional over a period of time, you know,
12 that certain people have more potential than 13 others. So I would say overall athleticism.
14 A person could have a very bad revenue year
15 but be a good athlete. They're not going to 16 be penalized in our system.
17 A person could have a spectacular
18 revenue year, but we're not going to pay them
19 like a trader, because what we try to do is 20 bring people along. I think if you pay a
21 younger person a lot of money early on in
22 their career because they pay -- they do
23 something spectacular, it creates a -- a
24 system that's to me out of kilter with what I
25 call true banking culture.

018275

Page 30

1 So revenue played a part, but in my
2 mind it's just one part of determining
3 overall compensation, salary plus bonus, of 4 our professionals, while I was running the
5 division.
6 Q. Just to refer back for a moment to
7 the formal evaluation process.
8 A. Hm.
9 Q. As I understand your answer, the 10 process culminates in the development of the 11 Evaluation Development Summary?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. And that's shared with the
14 employee -- correct? -- who actually receives
15 a copy of that to keep.
16 A. But it's reviewed by that committee
17 of partners before it's shared with the 18 employee.
19 Q. It goes through a process of being 20 vetted by people in addition to the 21 evaluation director.
22 A. Correct.
23 Q. And those people have an
24 opportunity to comment on it or revise it if 25 they see problems with the evaluation

Page 31

1 summary, correct?
2 A. If they don't think it reflects
3 what's in the package.
4 Q. Is it fair to say that -- that at
5 the end of that process the Evaluation
6 Development Summary reflects a considered
7 judgment of firm management with respect to 8 the employee's performance in that time
9 period?
10 MR. YANNUCCI: Object to the form of
11 the question.
12 You may answer.
13 A. I -- I think to say it reflects
14 firm management is -- is not accurate,
15 because that implies that Dick Fisher and 16 John Mack would somehow have their stamp of 17 approval on that. I think it -- it reflects
18 the -- it's the output of a process that goes
19 on in a division with 2,000 people, and it
20 tries to synthesize the input from usually
21 somewhere between 15 and 30 evaluators so
22 that it can be summarized in a -- in a way
23 that feedback's provided to the employee
24 while at the same time protecting the source
25 of the information, because you can't share

Page 32

1 the package with the employee, because that's
2 got everyone's name there, and the whole
3 point is that, you know, you want it to be
4 let's call it a transparent process, one
5 where the people -- people's views are
6 expressed without fear of retribution, and,
7 you know, in an open and constructive manner.
8 Q. Did I understand you to say, Mr.
9 Perella, that when you served as evaluation
10 director that you would read excerpts from 11 the package to the person who was being 12 reviewed?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. How would you decide what material
15 to read from a package?
16 MR. YANNUCCI: I'm going to object
17 both to relevance and I don't know that 18 he can generalize when he would or when 19 he wouldn't.
20 But go ahead and answer if you can.
21 THE WITNESS: Restate the question.
22 (Record read.)
23 A. Well, one way you can do it is you
24 can read the whole package to the person.
25 That would eliminate the -- the need to pick

Page 33

1 and choose. What I tried to do was basically
2 read some portion of every evaluator's
3 comments, so I -- I didn't sort of
4 self-select. You know, if a person had 15
5 evaluators, they heard comments from all 15,
6 because of -- you know, in my mind, if a
7 person is asked to do an evaluation, and
8 they've spent so much time on someone, they
9 deserve to have their view shared.
10 Q. Was there a time, Mr. Perella,
11 where you had managerial responsibility for 12 Bill Strong?
13 A. Yes. When I was head of Corporate
14 Finance Bill would have been under -- you
15 know, in my department.
16 (Coughing) Excuse me.
17 Q. And that time period was 18 approximately the spring of 1995 through
19 early 1997?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. When you became head of Investment
22 Banking did you have any managerial
23 responsibility for Mr. Strong?
24 A. Well, he was no longer a direct
25 report, so he -- he -- he was not under my 018276

Page 34

1 direct reporting line; that when I became the
2 head of Investment Banking my direct reports
3 were the six division heads -- excuse me,
4 department heads running those departments
5 that I mentioned in I think the first early
6 part of your questions.
7 Q. So when you were head of Corporate
8 Finance Bill Strong reported directly to you;
9 is that correct?
10 A. He was one of the individual -- one
11 of the managing directors in Corporate
12 Finance under my jurisdiction. It's -- when 13 you say reported directly to you, it wasn't 14 like he -- he was picking up the phone and
15 telling me what he was doing every day. I
16 mean there were maybe a hundred managing
17 directors in Corporate Finance at the time.
18 I'm saying a hundred -- I don't know the 19 exact number -- as opposed to ten, just to 20 sort of order -- give you the sense of 21 magnitude. So, you know, to say that all
22 hundred reported to me would -- you know, I
23 didn't function like that. So -- but they 24 were -- you know, they were under my
25 supervision and in my department.

Page 35

1 Q. And then after that Mr. Strong
2 remained in Corporate Finance, which was one
3 of the departments that you had overall
4 responsibility for, correct?
5 A. Correct.
6 Q. Now, you've already indicated, sir,
7 that you were involved in Mr. Strong's
8 evaluations, his formal evaluations.
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And what I'd like to show you and
11 have you identify for us today are a set of 12 exhibits that I've prepared. They've been
13 marked by the court reporter as CPH
14 Deposition Exhibit numbers 371 through 376.
15 A. Um-hm.
16 Q. I give you those as a stack and ask
17 you if you can identify each one of them for 18 us, for the record.
19 A. Well, why don't I do it as I go
20 along.
21 Q. Yes. That would be good.
22 A. This appears to be 1993 performance
23 evaluation package for Bill Strong.
24 Q. And you're referring to
25 Exhibit 371, correct?

Page 36

1 A. Yes.
2 372 is 1995 performance evaluation
3 package for Bill Strong.
4 373 is 1996 performance evaluation
5 for Bill Strong.
6 374, 1997 performance evaluation
7 package for Bill Strong.
8 1998, Exhibit 375, performance
9 evaluation for Bill Strong.
10 Q. I'm sorry, sir, you said 375 is the 11 1998 --
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. -- evaluation package?
14 A. And there's for some reason -- I
15 was going through all these to make sure
16 there was an EDS. (Perusing documents).
17 There's 376, which appears to be
18 some other document, and I'm not so sure -- I
19 mean it says "1998 IBD Evaluation and
20 Development Summary," but it's not a package,
21 it's just three pieces of paper, all -- and
22 it's 376.
23 Q. Are you familiar with the form of 24 Exhibit 376, sir?
25 A. I -- I --

Page 37

1 Familiar with the form?
2 Q. Yes.
3 It's referred to in its title as an
4 "IBD Evaluation and Development Summary."
5 Are you familiar with that form of document?
6 A. Well, I -- you're going back now
7 six years in time, so, you know, if this came
8 out of our system, you know, it's what it is.
9 I just -- you know, as I said, these things
10 have changed from year to year, so I'd have
11 to -- it appears to the EDS from -- for Bill
12 Strong, but for some reason there's two of 13 them in here, one in 375, called "Firm-Wide
14 Performance Evaluation," and the other one
15 says "1998 IBD," so I -- I don't know whether 16 they're the same summary on two different
17 forms or whether the forms changed in the 18 middle of the process, so I'm -- I'm a little 19 puzzled as to why there are two.
20 Q. Now, in 1996 or, excuse me, sir,
21 1995, Exhibit 372, you served as the
22 evaluation director for Mr. Strong's
23 evaluations; is that correct?
24 A. 1995? Yes.
25 Q. And you played that same role again

018277

Page 38

1 in 1996, correct?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And in 1997 you again played that
4 role, correct?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And in 1998 you were co-director of
7 Mr. Strong's annual formal evaluation,
8 correct?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And in that year Robert W. Jones
11 was the primary director?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. How did you come to have the 14 responsibility as the evaluation director or 15 co-director for Mr. Strong's annual
16 evaluation?
17 MR. YANNUCCI: Objection, asked and
18 answered.
19 A. Could -- I -- I -- I lost track of 20 the question. I'm sorry.
21 Q. I can restate it.
22 How did you get the responsibility
23 to serve as the evaluation director or
24 co-director for Mr. Strong?
25 A. For each of these years you've

Page 39

1 given me?
2 Q. Yes.
3 A. Well, as we discussed earlier, in
4 '95 and '96 I was the head of -- and for part
5 of '97 the head of Corporate Finance, and I
6 was the evaluation director for many managing
7 directors during that period of time, and --
8 and so that would basically -- I would have
9 the responsibility for being ED.
10 Q. Because of your response -- because 11 of your managerial responsibilities of the 12 firm?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Now, you've generally described the 15 responsibility of Evaluation Director. Is 16 that a fair characterization of the role
17 you've played with respect to Mr. Strong's
18 own evaluations?
19 A. That I was his evaluation director?
20 Q. And that you played the role that
21 you've described previously as the role that
22 Evaluation Director plays generally at Morgan
23 Stanley in the annual formal evaluation
24 process.
25 A. Sure.

Page 40

1 Q. Did you personally undertake to
2 draft initially the summary of the evaluation
3 comments?
4 MR. YANNUCCI: In any year?
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: In the years that
6 we're looking at here for Mr. Strong.
7 A. As opposed to?
8 Q. Have someone else do it for you.
9 A. No, this is not something I
10 delegated.
11 Q. So you would personally draft the 12 summary statement?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Do you know, sir, who other than
15 yourself in the years that we're talking
16 about here, 1995 through 1998, had input into
17 Mr. Strong's evaluation summaries?
18 A. The summary's the responsibility of 19 the evaluation director. I indicated that
20 there's a review process wherein the package
21 is reviewed and the summary is included in 22 the package and reflected on by that what's
23 called a committee, so if you want to call
24 that input, that's fine. I just wouldn't be 25 able to remember whether as a result of

Page 41

1 Bill's review in any year a sentence was
2 added, taken out. So when you use the word
3 input, it sort of has0, you know, it could
4 have a broad meaning in -- in developing an
5 answer to your question.
6 Q. Do you know as you sit here today
7 the names of any other people that reviewed
8 your summaries before they were finalized and 9 provided to Mr. Strong in the years we're
10 speaking?
11 A. No. I couldn't remember that now.
12 Q. Is it fair to say, Mr. Perella,
13 that the evaluation summaries that are 14 contained in Exhibits 372 through 375, where 15 you were involved in preparing or serving as 16 the evaluation director, reflect your
17 considered views of the comments that were
18 made by those who evaluated Mr. Strong?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. In some of the evaluations -- and
21 we'll get to them in some detail shortly,
22 sir, but in some of the evaluations, in some
23 packages you personally evaluated Mr. Strong
24 based on your own experiences with him. Do
25 you recall doing that?

018278

Page 42

1 A. Doing?
2 Q. Providing your own personal
3 comments about Mr. Strong in the course of 4 the evaluation process.
5 A. In the 11 years I've been here I've
6 -- I get -- I've probably done between 50 and 7 a hundred of these. I get requests from 8 people to do an evaluation of them, not as 9 their director but as a -- one of the
10 evaluators, so somewhere around 75 to a
11 hundred, so I -- I -- Bill was one of the 12 ones that I would have done during that
13 period of time, but as to specifically
14 remembering sitting down and doing it, no.
15 Q. I assume that --
16 A. The only reason I went on about
17 that is because I'm not doing just -- if it
18 were just one or two that I was doing, I'd 19 probably remember it, but when you're doing a
20 hundred, I think it's a little bit difficult
21 to remember the specific circumstances around
22 which you wrote it.
23 Q. If you lacked a sufficient basis to 24 make a comment in a particular year, what
25 would you do, sir?

Page 43

1 A. If I -- I'd say --
2 If I lacked the specific --
3 Q. -- sufficient basis to make a
4 comment, what would you do?
5 A. I'd say I'd be unable to evaluate
6 the person.
7 Q. If the evaluation packages contain
8 summaries or a statement of your personal
9 evaluation of Mr. Strong, I assume it's the 10 case that you made an effort to be fair and 11 accurate in your comments. Is that correct?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Did you have any reason during the 14 time period that we're addressing, sir, 1995
15 to 1998, to exaggerate criticisms of Mr.
16 Strong?
17 A. Me exaggerate criticisms?
18 Q. Yes.
19 A. No.
20 Q. Do you have any reason to
21 believe --
22 Do you know Robert Scott?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Do you have any reason to believe
25 that Robert Scott would have had a reason to

Page 44

1 exaggerate criticisms of Mr. Strong?
2 A. No.
3 Q. Do you know Terry Meguid?
4 A. Meguid.
5 Q. Meguid? Excuse me.
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Do you have any reason to believe
8 that in the time period we're addressing
9 today, 1995 through 1998, that Mr. Meguid
10 would have had any reason to exaggerate
11 criticisms of Mr. Strong?
12 A. No.
13 Q. What was Mr. Scott's position at...
14 Morgan Stanley in the -- in this time period;
15 do you recall, sir?
16 A. The time period?
17 Q. 1995 through 1998.
18 A. Bob Scott was -- preceded me as 19 head of Corporate Finance, became -- and
20 became head of Investment Banking, so he
21 preceded me also as the head of Investment
22 Banking and then he became Chief Financial
23 Officer of the firm.
24 Q. And ultimately ended up a member of 25 the board of directors, correct?

Page 45

1 A. When John -- yeah, I guess he did,
2 when John Mack resigned from the firm in
3 2001.
4 Q. What was Mr. Meguid's position in
5 this time period, nineteen ninety --
6 A. He was my deputy.
7 Q. Mr. Meguid was your number two
8 person in --
9 A. Correct.
10 Q. -- Investment Banking?
11 A. And in Corporate Finance.
12 Q. In both positions.
13 A. Correct.
14 Q. He moved with you?
15 A. Most of the time, yeah.
16 Q. Is Mr. Meguid someone you worked
17 with closely then for a number of years?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Do you respect his judgment?
20 A. Yes!
21 When you say number of years, I met
22 him when I joined Morgan Stanley. He was not
23 employed at any of my previous employers.
24 Q. Thank you.
25 A. I think he's been at Morgan Stanley

018279

Page 46

1 his whole career.
2 Q. You respect Mr. Meguid's ability --
3 ability to evaluate personnel?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Bill Strong was hired -- let me ask
6 you the question.
7 Do you know when Bill Strong joined
8 Morgan Stanley?
9 A. No.
10 Q. It was before you; is that correct?
11 A. I don't know when he joined.
12 Q. You're not certain that he was here
13 when you joined the firm?
14 A. I don't know when he joined. I
15 think he preceded me.
16 Q. Do you know what Mr. Strong's
17 responsibilities were when you first joined 18 the firm in late '93?
19 A. No. I wouldn't --
20 Q. Are you --
21 A. -- be familiar with that.
22 Q. Mr. Strong did have administrative
23 responsibilities when you were running --
24 when you were running the corporate finance
25 department; is that correct?

Page 47

1 A. Well, I don't know the time
2 sequence, but there -- there was a point in
3 time when Bill had oversight for regional
4 offices, but the exact start-end date of
5 that, I'm not familiar with.
6 Q. The regional offices you're
7 referring to are what, sir?
8 A. Offices outside of New York, in the
9 United States, and that might have included
10 Canada, although I'm not positive.
11 Q. There came a point where Mr. Strong
12 ceased having that administrative 13 responsibility for the regional offices; is
14 that correct?
15 A. I'm -- I'm -- I'm sure that's true,
16 but I'm not clear on the timing, because 17 there was an interim attempt by the firm to 18 -- when Bob Scott got elevated to head of 19 Investment Banking I was not immediately made
20 head of Corporate Finance. They actually had 21 a three-person, if you believe it, head of 22 Corporate Finance, one in Europe, one in New
23 York and Bill in the region, and John Mack
24 sort of lived with that for all of a few
25 months maybe and decided that a three-headed

Page 48

1 corporate finance department really wasn't
2 working well, and it might have been Bob
3 Scott involved in that process, too, because
4 they one day called me up and asked me to do
5 it. But that was a very, very short period
6 of time. I think it was -- you know, I might 7 have even been an interim solution, because
8 when Scott got taken out of the job at 9 Corporate Finance to become the head of IBD
10 having one (sic), they didn't immediately
11 come up with a solution. They asked me to do
12 it a few months later. So that there was a 13 period of time there where they had
14 tri-heads, so during that period of time, I
15 can't be sure that Bill continued to, quote,
16 run the regions, unquote.
17 And then there -- there -- there
18 probably was a time when they transitioned
19 that job to a younger person, which is kind
20 of a typical pattern here of management.
21 (Discussion off the record.)
22 Q. What -- I want to make sure I
23 understand the timing, sir.
24 Is it the case that there was a
25 period of time where you had responsibility

Page 49

1 for the corporate finance department while
2 Mr. Strong continued to serve as head of the 3 regional offices?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. How -- how long a period of time do
6 you believe that was?
7 A. Well, the most it could have been
8 was 18 months.
9 Q. One of Mr. Strong's
10 responsibilities as head of the regional 11 corporate finance department offices was 12 generating revenue through those offices; is
13 that correct?
14 A. I don't know if I would
15 characterize his responsibility was
16 generating revenue.
17 Q. He was given goals of increasing
18 the revenue at the regional offices that he 19 was responsible for, correct?
20 A. Well, everyone at the firm thinks
21 that it's their responsibility to try and
22 enhance our revenue base. I mean it's --
23 it's sort of everyone's responsibility. So
24 when -- I -- I didn't quite understand the 25 question, you know, that it was his

018280

Page 50

1 responsibility.
2 Q. Well, as the person who is at the
3 head of the management of the regional
4 offices, Mr. Strong was told to make efforts
5 to increase the revenues generated by the
6 offices under his supervision --
7 MR. YANNUCCI: Objection.
8 Q. -- correct?
9 MR. YANNUCCI: Lack of foundation.
10 A. I never told him that.
11 (Counsel confer off the record.)
12 Q. I want to ask you, sir, to -- do --
13 do you have Exhibit 374, sir, in that stack?
14 It's the 1997 evaluation package.
15 1997 was a year in which you served
16 as Mr. Strong's evaluation director; is that
17 correct?
18 MR. YANNUCCI: Asked and answered.
19 It's also on the front page of the
20 document.
21 A. Yeah.
22 Q. Let me direct your attention to the
23 page -- there are numbers in the right-hand
24 corner of the pages, sir. The last three 25 digits of the page I'd like to direct your

Page 51

1 attention to are 470. It's the first page of
2 the evaluation summary, I believe.
3 A. (Perusing document) Got it.
4 Q. Under "1997 Performance Summary"
5 the first two sentences read "Bill has
6 continued to enhance the MS franchise.
7 Regional offices achieved a record with
8 market-by-market share improvements." Do you
9 see those two sentences, sir?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Was Mr. Strong's performance at 12 least in part judged by the amount of 13 revenues generated by the regional offices
14 under his supervision?
15 A. Well, that -- that would be one
16 factor in, you know, assessing his
17 performance, yes.
18 MR. YANNUCCI: Just for the record,
19 it says "Summarize the individual's
20 performance relative to the objectives
21 set for the year," end of quote.
22 Q. Let me -- let me direct your
23 attention to page 455 in the same document,
24 sir.
25 A. 455?

Page 52

1 Q. That's correct.
2 A. Yeah.
3 Q. This is a portion of Mr. Strong's
4 annual self-evaluation; is that correct?
5 A. It appears to be, yes.
6 Q. And Mr. Strong states at the top of 7 that first page "I am very pleased with my
8 performance in 1997. 1997 is the best year
9 that I've had with the firm since joining in 10 January of 1993. The regional offices for 11 which I am responsible, Chicago, Houston,
12 Los Angeles, San Francisco and Toronto
13 achieved record revenue in 1997."
14 A. Um-hm.
15 Q. "The regional offices have achieved
16 affirmed revenue of 130 million, 205 million,
17 276 million, and will incur revenue in the 18 range of from 375 to 400 million in 1994 and 19 '95, '96 and '97 respective" --
20 "respectively."
21 A. Um-hm.
22 Q. Do you see those statements, sir?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Mr. Strong in his annual 25 self-evaluations would take credit for the

Page 53

1 revenue accomplishments of the regional
2 offices under his supervision, correct?
3 A. Take credit for the
4 accomplishments? Is that what you said?
5 Q. In -- in discussing his own
6 accomplishments for the year.
7 A. Well, he obviously has.
8 Q. Did you consider Mr. Strong, Mr.
9 Perella, as someone who generated significant
10 revenues for Morgan Stanley?
11 A. Are you referring to any particular
12 year or just in general or --
13 Q. During the time period when you
14 were serving as his evaluation director.
15 A. Well, we had a lot of, you know,
16 significant producers here at the firm, and
17 he was one of them.
18 (Telephone interruption.)
19 Q. And you referred to a significant
20 producer. Significant producer of revenue?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Are you familiar with the term
23 rainmaker, sir?
24 A. I've heard it, yeah.
25 Q. What does it mean to you?

018281

Page 54

1 A. We don't use it that much around
2 here.
3 Q. What does the term mean to you?
4 A. On Wall Street?
5 Q. Whatever your source of
6 understanding is.
7 A. Well, I read a lot about it. I
8 guess you hear it in the press. It's I guess
9 a term that people use when referring to 10 someone who has the ability to generate
11 revenue for his or her firm.
12 Q. Did you consider Mr. Strong to be a
13 rainmaker, given that definition?
14 A. As I said, we don't use that firm
15 -- that phrase around here that much.
16 Q. But given your definition of it,
17 would you consider Mr. Strong to meet that
18 definition?
19 A. Bill Strong was a significant
20 revenue producer, and has been at Morgan
21 Stanley for quite some time.
22 Q. Is that still true today, to your
23 knowledge?
24 A. What is?
25 Q. Is it still true today that Mr.

Page 55

1 Strong continues to generate substantial
2 revenues for the firm?
3 A. I believe he does, yes.
4 Q. Does Morgan Stanley have a system
5 for tracking fee credits or business
6 origination?
7 A. Fee credits?
8 Q. Somehow --
9 A. You mean revenue?
10 Q. Yes.
11 A. What -- we track revenue according
12 to Managing Director's area of 13 responsibility, and it's -- because we try to 14 emphasize teamwork, we generally attribute
15 the revenues to more than one person.
16 Therefore it's -- when you talk about
17 rainmaker, there -- there's this sort of 18 impression that one person's doing everything
19 himself. This firm doesn't run like that.
20 It's antithetical to the culture of Morgan
21 Stanley. So the revenue -- tracking revenue
22 is allocated and distributed to the team
23 members that are a part of an effort to --
24 that were part of the team that -- that
25 worked on the particular business or deal

Page 56

1 over time.
2 Q. Is there a tally of some sort kept?
3 A. Well, as I said, there -- there --
4 somewhere in the administrative function they
5 keep track of firm-wide revenues and
6 attribute it to individuals that are working
7 on the deals.
8 Q. Let me refer you again to Mr.
9 Strong's self-evaluation --
10 A. Um-hm.
11 Q. -- for 1997. It's a few lines
12 farther down from where I was just reading.
13 There's a sentence that begins "My personal
14 firm revenue has been 70 million, 73 million
15 and will exceed 90 million in 1995, 1996 and 16 1997 with respect" --
17 A. I haven't found where you're
18 reading here.
19 MR. YANNUCCI: It's right here
20 (indicating).
21 A. (Continuing) Oh, further down.
22 Q. Yes.
23 Do you see it, sir?
24 "My personal firm revenue has been
25 70 million, 73 million and will exceed 90

Page 57

1 million --
2 A. Yeah.
3 Q. -- for 1995, 1996 and 1997
4 respectively."
5 A. Yeah.
6 Q. Do you know what those figures
7 consist of?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Do you know how Mr. Strong kept
10 track of those numbers?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Would Mr. Strong be provided some
13 form of a report by the firm, that identified
14 for him the revenue that was attributed to
15 him?
16 A. I don't really know the answer to
17 that question.
18 Q. As his -- as the director of Mr.
19 Strong's evaluation for 1997 would you have 20 seen such a report?
21 A. At some point, but exactly when, I
22 don't know. If I wanted to see it.
23 Q. You personally considered Mr.
24 Strong, sir, as someone who is aggressive in 25 pursuing business for Morgan Stanley; did you

018282

1 not?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. There were some people within
4 Morgan Stanley who thought Mr. Strong was too
5 aggressive -- is that the case? -- in
6 pursuing business.
7 A. There were some people at Morgan
8 Stanley that thought Bill was too aggressive?
9 Q. In his pursuit of business.
10 A. Well, that's -- you know, that's a
11 judgmental thing. That's a subjective
12 statement.
13 Q. Did anyone express to you, sir, the 14 point of view that they believed that Mr.
15 Strong was overly aggressive in his pursuit
16 the business or revenue for the firm?
17 A. Well, you're using adjectives like
18 overly. I don't know that I could confirm
19 that word.
20 But, you know, Bill Strong is a
21 high achiever kind of person, and, you know,
22 he doesn't sit still too long, but we have a
23 lot of people around here like that.
24 Q. Did Mr. Meguid ever tell you that
25 Bill Strong, in his personal view, was overly

Page 59

1 aggressive in his pursuit of revenue?
2 A. Overly aggressive? Did he tell me?
3 Q. In words -- in those words or in
4 substance?
5 A. Well --
6 MR. YANNUCCI: Object to the form
7 of the question.
8 A. -- I -- I -- he might have. I
9 don't have specific recollection of it
10 sitting here now.
11 Q. Let me direct your attention to
12 page 458 of Mr. Strong's 1997 evaluation --
13 A. Yeah.
14 Q. -- Exhibit 374.
15 A. Page 458?
16 Q. Let me make sure.
17 A. Is that what you said?
18 MR. YANNUCCI: Yeah, that's what he
19 said.
20 A. It says "Phil is a great team
21 player and does as good a job of" (inaudible)
22 as anyone in the firm."
23 Q. It's actually --
24 A. Is that what you're talking about?
25 Q. No. It's actually on the next

1 page, sir.
2 A. Oh.
3 MR. YANNUCCI: 459?
4 THE WITNESS: (Reading).
5 Q. Are you on page 459, sir?
6 A. I was reading page 458.
7 Go ahead.
8 Q. Do you see Mr. -- there's a -- it's
9 the -- I believe the -- one, two -- the third
10 comment down under "Colleague"? It's the 11 first comment --
12 A. Well, there's seven people
13 commenting on this page. Which one are you
14 referring to, which comment?
15 Q. The first comment under "Colleague
16 Comments"?
17 A. Yeah, but which individual?
18 Q. The first one, Tarek?
19 A. Tarek Meguid?
20 Q. Meguid.
21 A. Yeah, I read that. That's under
22 "Downward Comments." So all the comments on 23 this page to from -- well, no. That's 24 "Downward." These are "Colleagues." Okay.
25 Yeah.

Page 61

1 Q. These are Mr. Meguid's, the first
2 comment under "Colleague Comments"; is that
3 correct, sir?
4 A. Yeah, but I'm trying to determine
5 what -- all right. Go ahead.
6 Q. Could read Mr. Meguid's comment out
7 loud for the record, please?
8 A. "Bill" --
9 You want me to read it?
10 Q. Yes, out loud.
11 A. "Bill is an extremely commercial
12 banker and a tenacious competitor. He is 13 highly focused on money-making opportunities
14 sometimes to a fault. He is incredibly
15 energetic, very diligent, very strong
16 commercial results."
17 Q. Let me direct your attention to 18 page 460, two pages farther into the
19 document.
20 A. Yeah.
21 MR. YANNUCCI: 460?
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: 461.
23 A. (Continuing) Right.
24 Q. There's another comment by Mr.
25 Meguid on that page --

018283

Page 62

1 A. Right.
2 Q. -- do you see that, sir --
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. -- in the center?
5 Would you read that out loud?
6 A. Yes. "Bill can be overly
7 aggressive in terms of trying to capture
8 transitional opportunities. Makes some
9 judgments which are sometimes very close to 10 if not over the line. A number of 11 individuals have had experience which" -- 12 "have had experiences which I have had to 13 deal with on conflicts, et cetera, which 14 reflect this."
15 Q. You personally considered Mr.
16 Strong to be something of a self promotor;
17 did you not, sir?
18 A. I don't recall saying that.
19 Q. Let me direct your attention to
20 your own comment at the bottom of page 461.
21 A. Yeah.
22 Q. Would you read that out loud,
23 please?
24 A. "Bill should engage less in self
25 promotion and focus more on developing a team

Page 63

1 approach, giving credit to others. The one
2 problem I continue to have with Bill is that
3 you never seem to get the whole story unless
4 you probe very hard. There are very few
5 people at Morgan Stanley that give me that
6 impression."
7 Q. And those were your views of Mr.
8 Strong in 1997 correct, sir?
9 A. That was a comment I wrote in 1997.
10 That doesn't reflect my entire point of view
11 on the gentleman.
12 Q. But that was --
13 A. I -- I wrote this in 1997, yes.
14 Q. And you were trying to be fair and 15 accurate in that observation, correct?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Morgan Stanley set a high revenue
18 objective for Mr. Strong in 1997, did it not,
19 sir?
20 A. I don't know what you mean by that.
21 Q. Well, Mr. Strong was given a -- in 22 his -- in a summary of his evaluation for 23 1997 given a revenue objective for 1998; do
24 you recall that?
25 A. No.

Page 64

1 Q. Let me direct your attention to the
2 last page of --
3 A. Um-hm.
4 Q. -- Exhibit 374.
5 A. Right.
6 Q. Under "Business Goals"?
7 A. Yup.
8 Q. Would you read the first sentence?
9 A. "Maintain revenue contribution at
10 or above currently level of 90 million.
11 Provide support for continued improvement in 12 the regional offices. All this will require
13 continued commitment of the kind Bill has 14 demonstrated to all. However, he should try
15 and relax once in a while."
16 Q. That reference to $90 million there
17 is the reference to the revenue that Mr.
18 Strong should personally attempt to generate
19 for the firm, correct?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Do you recall that the Sunbeam
22 engagement was a significant part of Mr.
23 Strong's business backlog at the end of 1997?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Let me refer you to the first page

Page 65

1 of the summary.
2 A. Back to the first page?
3 Q. Of the summary.
4 MR. YANNUCCI: For '97.
5 Q. (Continuing) Just the page before
6 it.
7 MR. YANNUCCI: Before '97?
8 MR. MARKOWSKI: 470.
9 A. Yeah.
10 Q. Do you see the -- it's the third
11 sentence under "Performance Summary"?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Self-evaluation states "Personal
14 revenue contribution at 90 million with 15 excellent backlog, including the Sunbeam
16 mandate."
17 A. Right.
18 Q. Do you recall that Mr. Strong
19 considered to be -- considered the Sunbeam
20 engagement to be one in which he had obtained
21 a -- a fee arrangement for the firm that was 22 higher than the firm's usual fee, fee
23 structure?
24 A. Do I recall that? No.
25 Q. Let me direct your attention to 018284

Page 66

1 page 455 of the exhibit. This is --
2 A. Self-evaluation.
3 Q. Yes. It's immediately after the
4 sentences that we'd been previously focusing
5 on in this page.
6 Mr. Strong states "Highlights from
7 that backlog include the sale of Sunbeam,
8 market capitalization 3.7 billion, signed
9 engagement letter with success fees" --
10 excuse me, "with success fees above fee
11 scale."
12 A. Yeah. It goes on to state a whole
13 bunch of other things that he said he was 14 working on, too.
15 Q. Does this refresh your recollection
16 that Mr. Strong characterizes the Sunbeam fee
17 arrangement as being above scale?
18 A. It says here "the sale of Sunbeam."
19 Is that what you're referring to?
20 Q. I'm referring to the statement that
21 Mr. Strong makes concerning --
22 A. In his self-evaluation?
23 Q. Yes.
24 A. Well, what it says is that the 25 engagement letter has a success fee above fee

Page 67

1 scale. That's what it says.
2 Q. Do you have any recollection as you
3 sit here today, sir, whether that was true or
4 not?
5 A. No. It wouldn't be unusual for
6 that to be the case, because some fees are
7 above fee scale and some fees are at fee
8 scale and some fees are below fee scale.
9 Q. Let me direct your attention to Mr.
10 Strong's 1998 self-evaluation. It's
11 Exhibit --
12 A. '98?
13 Q. Yes.
14 -- Exhibit 375.
15 A. '98. Yup.
16 Q. We -- we've seen, sir, in '97 that
17 Mr. Strong's summary set a revenue objective
18 of $90 million for Mr. Strong for 1998; do
19 you recall that?
20 We just looked at it.
21 A. Could you repeat that question?
22 Q. Do you recall that Mr. Strong's
23 revenue objective given to him in his 1997
24 evaluation was to generate 90 million or more
25 in revenue in 1998?

Page 68

1 A. Yeah. That was stated as a
2 business -- one of his business goals.
3 Q. I'd like to refer you to page three
4 -- excuse me, 475 of Exhibit 375.
5 A. 475. "Bill Strong 1998."
6 Q. This is Mr. Strong's
7 self-evaluation -- -
8 A. Yeah.
9 Q. -- of his performance in 1998?
10 A. Right.
11 Q. And my questions at this point,
12 sir, relate to the first paragraph. If you
13 would take a moment to review that to
14 yourself.
15 A. Well, it's a pretty long paragraph.
16 (Reading) Yeah, I've read it.
17 It's pretty impressive.
18 Q. Mr. Strong recounts his success in 19 generating revenue in 1998, correct?
20 MR. YANNUCCI: I'm going to object
21 to that characterization.
22 THE WITNESS: Right.
23 A. It's -- it's an answer to the 24 question "Describe your performance relative
25 to your business goals and to the relative

Page 69

1 performance criteria. Your comments should
2 not exceed the space provided." So it's a --
3 it's a description of his commercial
4 accomplishments during that period of time,
5 yes. And it's quite extensive.
6 Q. And the among the things Mr. Strong
7 reports is his successes in generating
8 revenue for Morgan Stanley, correct?
9 A. Well, that's where he worked.
10 Q. That's what he's commenting on, his
11 success in generating revenue.
12 A. I think it's a little more than
13 that.
14 Q. But he is commenting on his success
15 in generating revenue --
16 A. He's commenting on a lot of thing.
17 It's -- it's a long paragraph. Must have
18 three or four hundred words in it.
19 Q. Do you disagree with me, sir, that
20 Mr. Strong in that paragraph is recounting
21 his success in generating revenue in 1998 for
22 Morgan Stanley?
23 A. He is in the course of commenting
24 on his performance, talking about the 25 aggregate revenue of the regional offices for 018285

Page 70

1 which he oversaw, with hundreds of people in
2 it, and the revenue growth, his commitment to
3 Toronto. I mean this is a very long
4 sentence, and included in here are several
5 references to "revenue." Yes, "revenue" is
6 stated a number of times.
7 Q. Mr. Strong's success in generating
8 revenue, correct?
9 A. It -- you're making it sound like
10 it's one person did all of this. This -- the 11 regional offices consist of hundreds of 12 people, and they're referred to $600 million
13 of revenue and six years in a row of record
14 performance. That is the result of a lot of 15 people doing a lot of work. Bill was 16 overseeing all that. That would be like me
17 saying that I had, you know, $5 billion of 18 revenue because I had a -- I was the head of 19 the investment banking division. So it's -- 20 it's -- it's his area of responsibility, and 21 these were the revenues generated in those 22 areas.
23 Q. In addition to talking about the 24 performance of the offices, Mr. Strong in 25 this paragraph also recounts his own personal

Page 71

1 success --
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. -- in generating revenue, correct?
4 A. His own personal success? Let me
5 see here. I think he does.
6 (Reading) As I said, it's a long
7 paragraph. I'm looking for reference -- "My 8 personal revenue production has exceeded the 9 previous year," right.
10 Q. Right.
11 A. This year. "My personal revenue
12 production each year at Morgan Stanley has 13 exceeded the previous year. At this point in 14 the year my TSW revenue exceeds $100 million,
15 which exceeds the comparable number from 1997
16 by over 30 percent."
17 Q. And then Mr. Strong goes further
18 into details what makes up that hundred
19 million dollars by identifying specific
20 transactions.
21 A. Yeah. There's a long -- long --
22 there's a -- quite a long narrative here of 23 the different companies that he was involved
24 in.
25 Q. And he references Sunbeam on three

Page 72

1 different occasions, correct, sir?
2 A. I don't know. I didn't count them.
3 Q. There's first --
4 A. "The result includes successful
5 solicitation and execution of IPOs, capital
6 trusts," Silestico (ph.), "LaSalle Hotel,
7 Midway Airlines, Steelcase, True North,
8 Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman, First" --
9 Q. First Alert.
10 A. -- "Alert and Signature Brands 13
11 and a half million convertible secondary
12 follow-on equity transactions, Fort James,
13 Omniquip, Sunbeam," again Fort Meyer -- "Fred
14 Meyer." I mean there -- and it continues to 15 talk about a lot of other companies,
16 "Allstate, Cargo, Price List," et cetera, et
17 cetera.
18 Q. He identifies a 13 and a half
19 million-dollar M&A fee for Sunbeam's
20 acquisition of Coleman, First Alert and
21 Signature Brands, correct, sir?
22 A. Sunbeam -- well, what it says is
23 "Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman, First
24 Alert" --
25 (Discussion off the record.)

Page 73

1 A. -- "and Signature Brands 13.5
2 million," close paren.
3 Q. And then it refers to a 18.2
4 million-dollar Sunbeam fee relating to
5 convertible debt offering, correct?
6 A. I don't know what it relates to. I
7 can't tell from that.
8 Q. It's behind the phrase "secondary
9 and follow-on equity transactions," correct?
10 A. Well, but it refers to Fort James,
11 and that's a different company, "10.6, Hollow
12 Industries 1.1, Omniquip 2.2, Sunbeam 18.2,"
13 so --
14 Q. And then farther it refers to 15 another 4.9 million-dollar revenue generated
16 by Sunbeam, correct?
17 A. "High yield and senior bank
18 transactions Omniquip 1.6, Scotsman 2.0,
19 Sunbeam 2.9, Focal Communications 1.4." Yes.
20 Q. You have a hundred million dollars
21 that Mr. Strong claimed credit for in this
22 self-evaluation for his personal revenue
23 contributions for the firm. There are three 24 Sunbeam pieces, 13.5 million-dollar fee of 25 revenue, a 18.2 million-dollar revenue and a

018286

Page 74

1 4.9 million-dollar revenue, correct, sir?
2 MR. YANNUCCI: I'm going to object.
3 A. Well, you used the word personal.
4 He's talking about his involvement, yes, with
5 -- with revenue relating to the Sunbeam
6 account.
7 Oh, yeah, he does say "my personal
8 revenue," right. So you -- you used his 9 word, "my personal revenue production." He's 10 referring to each year at Morgan Stanley.
11 And then he includes the result with a
12 listing of those names, so Sunbeam would be
13 in that total, I presume.
14 Q. And the Sunbeam total is --
15 A. I don't know what the total is.
16 Q. -- something in excess of
17 $35 million, correct, sir?
18 A. Well, if it's 13 plus 18 plus five,
19 around $35 million, yeah.
20 Q. About a third of personal revenue
21 that Mr. Strong was claiming credit for in 22 this self-evaluation, correct?
23 A. It's -- it's a third of -- it's a
24 third of a hundred million. Yes.
25 Q. What is TSW revenue; do you know?

Page 75

1 Are you familiar with that phrase that Mr.
2 Strong uses, sir?
3 A. I believe that's the internal
4 document that tracks revenue.
5 Q. Do you know what the -- what the
6 letters TSW stand for?
7 A. I think it stands for -- well, Mr.
8 Meguid would know better -- transaction
9 summary work sheet perhaps?
10 Q. Mr. Strong was a highly ambitious
11 person, was he not, sir, at Morgan Stanley?
12 A. Was Mr. Strong highly ambitious?
13 Well, I guess it depends on -- on how you see 14 it. Some people might have thought he was 15 highly ambitious, yes.
16 Q. Did you consider him to be
17 ambitious?
18 A. It depends on what you mean by
19 ambitious.
20 Q. I'm asking if you consider --
21 A. I thought of him as a high
22 achiever. Some people might call that
23 ambitious.
24 Q. Within two years of joining the 25 firm he announced that he wanted to be some

Page 76

1 day a member of the Morgan Stanley board of
2 directors.
3 A. Uh-huh.
4 Q. Do you recall that?
5 A. (Laughing) Do I recall it?
6 Q. Yes.
7 A. I -- I -- I had no recollection of 8 it up until very recently.
9 Q. What reminded you of it?
10 A. I went over in preparing for my
11 deposition.
12 Q. You saw in these documents that Mr.
13 Strong --
14 A. Yeah.
15 Q. -- declared his objectives of
16 becoming a member of the Morgan Stanley board
17 of directors?
18 A. Right.
19 Q. And he did that in 1995.
20 A. Yeah.
21 Q. Do you consider that to be highly
22 ambitious, sir?
23 A. My guess is there probably were at 24 the time several hundred people who would
25 like to have been on the board of Morgan

Page 77

1 Stanley, just about every MANAGING DIRECTOR
2 that was reporting to me.
3 Q. Excuse me. Did they all put it in
4 their self-evaluations?
5 A. No.
6 Q. Mr. Strong constantly in his annual
7 self-evaluations complained about the fact
8 that he was not being given more or greater
9 management responsibility for the firm's
10 business; do you recall that, sir?
11 MR. YANNUCCI: I'm going to object
12 to the form of the question and the
13 characterization.
14 A. Yeah, you -- you -- you -- you --
15 you like to characterize what he was doing.
16 He was doing what he was doing. He was 17 saying what he was saying. Bill is a very,
18 you know, direct individual. It's not
19 surprising if he wanted to be on the board,
20 he would put it on his self eval. Other
21 people may not be as direct and honest, quite 22 frankly. They may harbor desires to be on 23 the board but never express it, but they 24 nevertheless would do what they could to get 25 there. We've -- you know, that's just not in 018287

Page 78

1 the cards for employees.
2 Q. How many insiders at Morgan Stanley
3 are on the Morgan Stanley board of directors?
4 A. One. One.
5 Q. That's the chief executive officer.
6 A. Right. At the time -- remember
7 what I said. Morgan Stanley was going
8 through a transition when Bill arrived here.
9 Now you've refreshed my memory by referring
10 to his self eval as January of '93. Private 11 ownership to public ownership. As a private
12 firm, whatever you might refer to as a board
13 were all insiders, and as it went into public
14 ownership, they added outside directors. And 15 in the early years the head of the investment
16 banking division was on the board of
17 directors, and then as we became more like a
18 public company, fewer and fewer insiders were
19 on the board, and it evolved. So as people
20 dropped off, they weren't replaced. When
21 Matchalot (ph.) went off the board, he was --
22 because he was replaced as the head of 23 Investment Banking by Bob Scott, Bob Scott at 24 the time did not go on the board. When I
25 took over as the head of Investment Banking I

Page 79

1 did not go on the board.
2 So what he's reflecting in his
3 aspiration is something that was in a sense
4 going out of existence, because we were
5 making a transition. And here we are today
6 with only Phil Purcell on our outside board.
7 Q. Do you recall, sir, that Mr. Strong
8 complained each year that his management
9 capabilities were being underutilized by the 10 firm?
11 MR. YANNUCCI: Object to the
12 characterization.
13 A. I -- I -- I don't recall
14 specifically complaining. There may be some 15 reference to wanting to do more, in his
16 evaluation, in his self-evaluation, in terms
17 of goals and objectives.
18 Q. You recall that Mr. Strong wanted
19 to be relocated from Chicago?
20 A. I -- I -- I have -- you know, if 21 you put something in front of me that would 22 indicate what it is that you're aiming at,
23 then I could comment on it, but asking me,
24 who has evaluated hundreds of people over the 25 11 years, to sort of talk about what

Page 80

1 individuals wanted to go where and when is
2 kind of difficult.
3 Q. I appreciate that, sir.
4 Let me refer you to Mr. Strong's
5 1997 self-evaluation. It's Exhibit 374.
6 A. Seven, right?
7 Q. 374
8 A. Or '97 you said.
9 Q. Yes, 1997.
10 A. Page -- self eval?
11 Q. Yeah. It's page 457 of the
12 document.
13 A. Yeah, I've got that page.
14 Q. And there's a section at the bottom
15 of that page that starts with the phrase
16 "What skills and abilities would you put to 17 greater use"; do you see that?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And would you read Mr. Strong's --
20 this is Mr. Strong's statement.
21 A. Okay. So under the question --
22 under the section "Goals and Objectives" in 23 the self-evaluation, which is at the front of 24 the document, on the third page, it says "In 25 addition to developing business and

Page 81

1 professional goals," it says "what skills and
2 abilities would you put to greater use?
3 Describe training or other support that would
4 leverage your effectiveness," and "What are
5 your long term career goals at Morgan
6 Stanley?"
7 And Bill writes "As mentioned in
8 prior years, I continue to aspire to 9 positions of increased responsibility within 10 the firm. I continue to believe that my 11 managerial skills are underutilized. Further
12 and as mentioned last year, at the right time
13 and only if it serves the firm's interests I
14 would like to return to London or New York."
15 Q. Does that refresh your memory that
16 Mr. Strong made those requests?
17 A. Well --
18 MR. YANNUCCI: Object to the
19 description of the request.
20 A. It's written here.
21 THE WITNESS: Right.
22 A. (Continuing) It's written here. He
23 never rang me up and said, hey, I want to 24 move to London, or, hey, I want to come to 25 New York. He's still in Chicago.

018288

Page 82

1 Q. That was my question. Why is he
2 still in Chicago?
3 A. Well, first of all, people are
4 generally working in our firm where they want
5 to work.
6 I think he had a family he was
7 raising there. I think they've since grown
8 up. He's Chairman of the Chicago Symphony
9 Board of Directors. He has become a name
10 brand, if you will, in the community. And I
11 think he has a comparative advantage, because 12 continuity in our business is very valuable.
13 So once you kind of weave yourself into the 14 fabric of a community --
15 Goldman had a partner named Jim
16 Gorda there, who for many years that we all,
17 you know, were kind of like always trying to 18 catch in my old firm, First Boston, and even
19 at Wastein Perella (ph.), because he was so
20 interwoven into the community.
21 Now, you know, having worked in
22 London I think for a prior employer, and
23 probably New York, you know, he developed a
24 -- a love of those two cities. Having said
25 that, I think as time went on, you know, Bill

Page 83

1 really became the senior-most person in that
2 part of the world doing investment banking
3 business. So I would -- this is a
4 presumption on my part at this point -- think
5 that his -- you know, his value added has
6 never been higher, because of the continuity
7 and the time and grade.
8 And, you know, some company -- now,
9 for example, Boeing moves from Seattle to 10 Chicago. We started doing business with 11 Boeing for the first time when that happened
12 thanks to Bill being there and having a
13 senior person to pursue that business.
14 We had a problem with Eli Lilly as 15 a company. They stopped doing business with 16 Morgan Stanley. Having Bill -- we took it
17 away from New York, gave it to Bill, and we 18 started doing business with Eli Lilly again.
19 So --
20 Let me say something else. You
21 know, people express desires and interests.
22 Bill is not the only one who would say, you
23 know, hey, some day I'd welcome the
24 opportunity to work in London, and if it
25 serves the firm's purpose, we would try and

Page 84

1 accommodate that, but, on the other hand, if
2 we think they're a value added at hire
3 somewhere else, we wouldn't do it.
4 And in looking at the whole
5 situation, you know, if you take Bill out of 6 Chicago, then you've got to answer the next
7 question: Who's going to do it? Who's going
8 to run Chicago? And, you know, there wasn't 9 anyone of his stature there who could have
10 filled his shoes that quickly, and so I think
11 his highest and best use was to remain in 12 Chicago, which was where he is, in despite of 13 his from time to time mentioning that, you
14 know, if the opportunity arose, he'd love to 15 be back in London and New York again.
16 Q. Do you know if Mr. Strong has
17 stopped asking to be moved out of Chicago?
18 A. I'm still his evaluation director,
19 and I would have to say in all of years I've 20 been Bill's ED he has never called up and
21 complained about working in Chicago,
22 verbally. I mean he might have written this
23 in his package, but -- I think if I called 24 him up and say, hey, how would you like to 25 move to London, he'd say let me go home and

Page 85

1 talk to my wife and see what she thinks.
2 I mean we have these conversations
3 with our people all the time. It's a little
4 bit easier to get them to do that than say
5 how about moving to Tokyo.
6 Q. We're running out of tape. Why
7 don't we take a short break.
8 A. Okay.
9 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This marks the
10 end of tape number one in the videotaped
11 deposition of Mr. Joseph Perella. We 12 are going off the record. The time is 13 4:57.
14 (Recess taken.)
15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This marks the
16 beginning of tape number two in the
17 videotaped deposition of Joseph Perella.
18 We are now back on the record. The time
19 is 5:07.
20 Q. Mr. Perella, during the time period
21 that we've been focusing on here this
22 afternoon, 1995 to 1998, when you served as
23 Mr. Strong's evaluation director there were a
24 number of people that raised concerns during 25 the course of the formal evaluation process

018289

Page 86

1 about Mr. Strong's lack of candor in dealing
2 with his colleagues; were there not?
3 A. I am sure if you asked the
4 question, there must be a reference to it
5 somewhere in his files, so I'll just follow
6 your lead and take it wherever it goes in the 7 -- in the package, if you want to go there.
8 Q. Well, as you sit here, before we go
9 into the documents, do you recall that as 10 being the case, that a number of people, when
11 you were serving at Mr. Strong's evaluation
12 director, raised during the course of the 13 formal evaluation process concerns that they 14 had about Mr. Strong's lack of candor in 15 dealing with his colleagues at Morgan
16 Stanley?
17 A. Well, what I recall is the fact
18 that each and every year Bill Strong got
19 evaluated by at least 20 people, and there
20 were people from year to year who had
21 developmental messages for him that included
22 comments about being aggressive, that
23 referred to what I referred to, the word you
24 used, candor, you know, difficulty getting 25 information, and a number of developmental

Page 87

1 messages which exist in each and every
2 professional's package here. Otherwise it's
3 not a credible package.
4 So the general answer to your
5 question is yes, there -- there -- there were
6 comments in there, and if you want to refer
7 me to specific comments, I'm happy to focus
8 on them.
9 Q. Well, let's do that. Let me refer
10 you first to one of your own comments. It's 11 in the 1997 evaluation package.
12 A. Yes?
13 Q. Do you have that in front of you?
14 A. Yes, 374.
15 Q. 374?
16 And at page 461, at the bottom
17 there's a comment that you made relating to 18 Mr. Strong.
19 A. (Reading).
20 Q. Do you see your own comment there,
21 sir?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Would you read that out loud for 24 us?
25 A. I read it before. "Bill should

Page 88

1 engage less in self promotion and focus more
2 on developing a team approach, giving credit
3 to others. The one problem I continue to
4 have with Bill is that you never seem to get
5 the whole story unless you probe very hard.
6 There are very few people at Morgan Stanley
7 that give me that impression."
8 Q. Mr. Meguid also had concerns about
9 Mr. Strong's lack in condor in dealing with 10 his colleagues; do you recall that, sir?
11 A. No, not specifically, but I'm sure
12 there's a comment in there.
13 Q. Well, let me direct your attention:
14 to the first comment on the following page.
15 Do you see Mr. Meguid's comment at 16 the top of 462, sir?
17 A. Oh, I'm on the wrong page. I was 18 reading his comment on the other page.
19 Page 462?
20 Q. Yes.
21 A. Let's see where we are.
22 Q. Mr. Meguid's comment is the first
23 one on that page.
24 A. I'm just trying to see where we are 25 here. (Reading) Yeah.

Page 89

1 Q. Do you see that?
2 A. I see a comment on page 461.
3 Q. Would you read --
4 462, sir.
5 A. Oh, sorry.
6 Q. Top of 462?
7 A. Yeah.
8 Q. Would you read Mr. Meguid's
9 comments?
10 A. "Bill continues to suffer the
11 consequences of less than a straightforward
12 approach. Gives people, including me, the
13 impression that he is not completely up
14 front. This needs to improve. There are 15 numerous approaches to me from very credible
16 people on the issue."
17 Q. Do you have any reason as you sit
18 here today to doubt the accuracy of Mr.
19 Meguid's characterization of the -- of his
20 views of Mr. Strong or his comment concerning 21 the approaches to him from other people on 22 the same subject?
23 A. Well, I don't think they reflect
24 his total view of Mr. Strong, but I have no
25 reason to doubt that on this point it

018290

Page 90

1 reflected Terry's view at the time.
2 Q. And that it reflected his report on
3 communications that he had had with others
4 within the firm.
5 A. That other people had commented to
6 him about this developmental issue, yes.
7 Q. Did you ever speak to Mr. Meguid
8 about this comment?
9 A. About this specific comment?
10 Q. Yes.
11 When you were serving as the
12 evaluation director for Mr. Strong did you go
13 to Mr. Meguid and say, Terry, tell me what 14 causes you to say this, and tell me what
15 you're hearing from these other credible
16 sources?
17 A. I -- I think it's important for you
18 to understand the nature of the relationship
19 I have with Mr. Meguid. First of all, in 20 terms of proximity, he's in an adjacent 21 office. Secondly, for all the time I was at 22 Morgan Stanley in a managerial post for most 23 of the time he served as my deputy. And so
24 in the course of the period from April of 25 1995 to today, you know, I have had literally

Page 91

1 thousands of conversations with Terry Meguid
2 about people at the firm, and discussed the
3 careers of all of our professionals, for that
4 matter, who are let's say at the MD level,
5 and so it's difficult for me to say, aha, on
6 this very specific comment I walked across
7 the hall to Terry Meguid's office and said X,
8 Y or, okay? But, you know, I think it's fair
9 to say that Terry and I have had
10 conversations over the years about all of our 11 senior managing directors, and the
12 development of their careers at the firm.
13 Q. This is not the first time in the
14 formal evaluation process that Mr. Meguid
15 raised concerns about the manner in which Mr.
16 Strong was dealing with his colleagues.
17 MR. YANNUCCI: Is that a question?
18 Q. (Continuing) Do you recall that,
19 sir?
20 A. I -- not specifically, but I'm sure
21 you probably have similar comment in another
22 year.
23 Q. Let me turn you back to 1996.
24 A. Right.
25 Q. Exhibit 373.

Page 92

1 A. 373.
2 Page?
3 Oh, oh, oh, Exhibit 373.
4 Q. Correct.
5 A. I'm looking for the page number.
6 Q. Page number 442.
7 A. 442, Bill Strong. One, two, three,
8 four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten --
9 there's 25 evaluators.
10 Yeah?
11 Q. Are you on page 442, sir?
12 A. Not yet.
13 I am now.
14 Q. Do you see Mr. Meguid's comment
15 that -- I think it's the third comment on the 16 page?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Would you read that out loud, sir?
19 MR. YANNUCCI: Excuse me. I'm just 20 going to object to using the witness as 21 a human highlighter. If you want to ask
22 him what he remembers about these
23 issues, I certainly understand that, but
24 I don't know why you're asking just read
25 verbatim these statements.

Page 93

1 Go ahead.
2 A. "His colleagues seem to be wary of
3 his motives generally. I believe," comma,
4 "because the manner in which he deals with
5 certain external and client matters, i.e.
6 with greater shrewdness" -- that's a
7 parenthetical statement -- "is interpreted as 8 the way in which he deals with his
9 colleagues."
10 Q. In other words, that Mr. -- Mr.
11 Meguid was raising the concern that Mr.
12 Strong's colleagues were concerned that he
13 was being shrewd in dealing internally with 14 people at Morgan Stanley, correct?
15 MR. YANNUCCI: Object if you're
16 asking him to interpret what Mr. Meguid
17 thought other people thought about this
18 individual.
19 Q. Is that how you read that comment,
20 sir, as the person who served as Mr. Strong's
21 evaluation director?
22 A. Look, you know, Bill Strong's
23 getting evaluated by 25 people this year. I
24 counted them before I turned to that page.
25 And the thing you have to understand is what 018291

Page 94

1 I said earlier, and I probably felt it as
2 much as Bill did. When you come into a firm
3 like Morgan Stanley, Morgan Stanley had been
4 a home grown culture, okay? Terry Meguid,
5 for example, who's my deputy, had never
6 worked anywhere else. Possible Scott retired
7 33 years at the firm. Just about everyone
8 you come in contact with when you come into 9 this firm as an outsider in the early 90s was
10 a home grown Morgan Stanley person. Morgan
11 Stanley had an inheritance, almost a sense of 12 entitlement, in my opinion, which I
13 considered to be a negative, that somehow the 14 world owed them a living, and I think one of 15 the good things that happened when John Mack
16 took over is he believed in hybrid vigor, and 17 believed in bringing in people from outside
18 the firm to give it sort of new blood. And
19 people like myself and like Bill Strong
20 tended to stand out, because they had worked
21 in places where they had to fight to get
22 their market share, they were outside the 23 bus, knocking on the bus to get in, and 24 Morgan Stanley was inside the bus, okay? So
25 when Bill Strong comes to Morgan Stanley

Page 95

1 there are going to be people -- I mean he's
2 going to stick out, and so is Joe Perella for
3 that matter, and other lateral hires.
4 And also I think there is a strong
5 feeling on the part of people that they're
6 sort of, you know, not on display. What's
7 the right word? They're being tested, and --
8 and so there's a lot of conflicting emotions
9 here. I think the old guard is kind of not 10 used to this new blood, so they're -- they're 11 not used to the style. I mean these are 12 people who -- you know, they referred to one
13 another "He was in my training class." Well,
14 whose training class was Bill Strong in?
15 Whose training class was Joe Perella in? So
16 they came into the firm, and I think one of 17 the reasons John brought -- you know, these 18 -- these -- these people in was to kind of 19 give it a transfusion or a shot of adrenalin.
20 And I think from time to time people are 21 going to have problems with the style of 22 these outsiders, okay?
23 So Bill's style is a lot different
24 than Bob Scott's. I don't know if you took 25 Bob Scott's deposition, but you would see

Page 96

1 that instantaneously if the two guys were
2 before you. And I think mine would be a
3 little different than Bob Scott's.
4 Over time, you know, we I think
5 grew to appreciate one another, but I think
6 in the early -- in this period of transition
7 there -- there were a lot of conflicting
8 styles at work in the firm. But I would have 9 to say, you know, that, you know, we took all
10 the comments seriously, and we transmitted
11 them to whoever the evaluatee was. Bill
12 wasn't treated any differently than anyone
13 else.
14 I think if this kind of thing rose
15 to the level of concern where we thought
16 someone shouldn't be at the firm, we would
17 have done something about it, but I -- I --
18 in the total package and the sort of the 19 evaluation of overall performance that was 20 not the case with Bill. There were other
21 managing directors I had greater concerns
22 about than Bill Strong.
23 Q. Well, you yourself said that Bill
24 Strong was one of the few people at Morgan
25 Stanley that you had a problem with with

Page 97

1 respect to --
2 A. No, I didn't say I had a problem
3 with him.
4 Q. Excuse me.
5 -- with respect to trying to get
6 the full story from him, that you had to 7 probe very hard to get the full story from 8 Bill Strong, and that in your experience, as
9 an outsider coming into Morgan Stanley --
10 A. Um-hm.
11 Q. -- that he was one of the few
12 people that you had that experience with;
13 isn't that right?
14 Isn't that what you said in 1997
15 about Mr. Strong?
16 A. Oh, no wonder. This is 1996. I'm
17 looking in the wrong place.
18 Q. It's Exhibit --
19 A. Well, I remember --
20 Q. -- 374 --
21 -- the comment you're referring to.
22 Q. -- page 461.
23 You said about Mr. Strong "The one
24 problem I continue to have with Bill is that
25 you never seem to get the whole story unless

018292

Page 98

1 you" --
2 A. Okay.
3 Q. -- "probe very hard."
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. "There are very few people at MS
6 that give me that impression." That was you,
7 Joe Perella, saying that.
8 A. Fine, I said it.
9 People in our business are -- have
10 it beaten into them from the time they come
11 in to the firm about being careful with 12 information, okay? And so at the same time I
13 had made it a goal, when I took over
14 corporate finance and investment banking
15 later, that I thought internal communication
16 at Morgan Stanley was inadequate or
17 insufficient or less than what it should be
18 in what I would called a well-oiled
19 investment banking machine. So I had gone on 20 record with the division and with the 21 department that my number one goal was to 22 improve internal communication. And I said
23 there's some people here who can't spell
24 communication, there's some people here who 25 could give a course in it, and there's some

Page 99

1 people here that need improvement. So you
2 have this internal tension, if you will,
3 sharing information on the one hand and
4 protecting information that's privileged, and
5 on the other hand wanting to have the
6 division operate better by having better
7 communications. And everyone, you know,
8 deals with that tension in different ways.
9 And what I was reflecting, I
10 believe, in my comment was that, you know,
11 Bill was --
12 What did you say the page was, 469?
13 Q. I think it's 461.
14 A. Oh, okay. No wonder I couldn't
15 find it.
16 Q. "The one problem I continue to have 17 with Bill is he never seems" --
18 MR. YANNUCCI: He was in the middle
19 of finishing his answer.
20 Q. (Continuing) I'm sorry.
21 A. So with Bill, he was more
22 protective of the information he had than
23 some other people, so I had to work harder --
24 I've had to work hard to get him to be a
25 better communicator.

Page 100

1 Q. That's what you say you're
2 referring to on that page?
3 A. Well, that's part of it, isn't it?
4 Getting the whole story, you have to ask, you
5 have to probe, so you have to ask questions,
6 so that's -- that's to me part of
7 communication.
8 Q. Well, let's take a look at the 9 summary for 1997.
10 A. Sure.
11 Q. And see after going through the 12 review process --
13 A. All right.
14 '97 EDS?
15 Q. This is an evaluation summary that
16 you prepared.
17 A. Right. '97.
18 Q. And it was vetted by a group of 19 others within the firm, correct, sir?
20 A. Correct.
21 MR. YANNUCCI: Asked and answered.
22 Go ahead.
23 Q. Let me -- let me direct your
24 attention to the section
25 entitled "Development Needs" --

Page 101

1 A. Correct.
2 (Discussion off the record.)
3 Q. -- on page 470.
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Do you have that in front of you?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Read the three comments made.
8 A. Which ones?
9 Q. "Balance." Beginning with
10 "Balance."
11 A. "Developmental needs client skills
12 business development"?
13 Q. Yes.
14 A. Because there's a column marked
15 "Suggestions to Improve."
16 Q. I'm talking about the left-hand
17 column.
18 A. Okay. "Client Skills. Business
19 Development. Balance," colon, "overly
20 aggressive at times in trying to capture
21 transactions so as to miss possible negative
22 impact on resource usage for the franchise.
23 Two" --
24 Sorry. You want me to read the 25 second one?

018293

Page 102

1 Q. Yes, please.
2 A. "Prone to exaggeration. Can cause
3 skeptical reaction from client and loss of
4 credibility with teammates. Also a tendency
5 to overcommit clients on certain items which
6 are not in Morgan Stanley's area of
7 expertise. Three, straightforwardness.
8 People have the impression he is not being
9 completely up front. Also certain product
10 areas think he should consult with them
11 before racing to answer a client question.
12 Some suggest he still manages by intimidation
13 or setting artificial deadlines."
14 Q. And next to that the suggestion to 15 improve was what, sir?
16 A. You want me to read those, too?
17 Q. Well, you can, sure.
18 MR. YANNUCCI: Yeah, I'm going to 19 object to having this -- taking the 20 witness' time just to read comments that
21 there's no dispute over.
22 I also for purposes of completeness
23 I'm going to state that this on the same
24 page as or right above it, "Primary
25 Strengths." You're just selecting

Page 103

1 certain quotes out of this document and
2 asking him to read them out load on the
3 record, and I think that's highly
4 inappropriate.
5 A. Well, I indicated that, you know,
6 this is a summary, and it's a summary of the 7 comments reflecting 22 people, that were
8 shared by other partners in the firm.
9 MR. YANNUCCI: But it's only the 10 negative comments that he wants you to 11 read.
12 THE WITNESS: I know that, but I'm
13 happy to answer -- to -- to do whatever
14 he likes.
15 A. (Continuing) "Try to be more
16 selective in pursuing business. If there are 17 doubts, seek advice from colleagues. Also,
18 try not to get into details. Your time is 19 better spent. Resources are not endless to 20 prioritize what is important before making
21 requests for work."
22 Q. The next suggestion?
23 A. "Don't oversell. You don't have
24 to. As your stature grows, your salesmanship
25 must mature."

Page 104

1 Q. And the suggestion to improve, next
2 to the comment about straightforwardness?
3 A. "Need -- "Needs to work on being
4 more open and transparent with colleagues."
5 Q. And those were the comments you
6 delivered to Mr. Strong during his 1997
7 evaluation, correct, sir, you personally?
8 A. He got a written copy of this.
9 Q. And you personally delivered those
10 comments to him, correct?
11 A. Well, I handed him the page, and I
12 read comments from the package backing up the 13 performance summary, including the many 14 positive things that were said about him that
15 year.
16 Q. And you told him about these 17 specific things, these are things he should 18 improve on, correct?
19 MR. YANNUCCI: Asked and answered.
20 A. Yes, I said that.
21 Q. Let's take a look at 1998, then.
22 A. Yup.
23 Q. Let's start with Mr. Meguid's
24 comment on page 480. This is in Exhibit 375.
25 A. Four --

Page 105

1 Q. I'm sorry, it's Exhibit 375, page
2 480.
3 Have you found page 480, sir?
4 A. Yup.
5 Q. Would you read Mr. Meguid's
6 comment?
7 MR. YANNUCCI: 'M going to object
8 again.
9 Go ahead.
10 A. "Bill can be overly aggressive in
11 terms of trying to capture transactional
12 opportunities. Makes some judgments which 13 are sometimes very close to if not over the 14 line. I continue to hear comments about his 15 greater general concerns for his own people
16 business unit relative to the firm's best
17 interest."
18 Q. That's almost word for word the
19 criticism that Mr. Meguid made of Mr. Strong
20 in his 1977 (sic) evaluation correct, sir, on 21 that subject?
22 A. '97?
23 MR. YANNUCCI: '77?
24 Q. 1997, excuse me.
25 A. I don't know. I haven't compared 018294

Page 106

1 it.
2 Q. Let's do that. Pull out --
3 MR. YANNUCCI: I'm going to object.
4 A. Why don't you ask Mr. Meguid the
5 question?
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: If the witness
7 would like to compare, I'm content to 8 have him do that.
9 A. Sure.
10 Q. That's Exhibit 374, page 461.
11 A. Right. (Reading).
12 Q. Mr. Meguid reiterates the comment
13 again in 1998, correct, sir?
14 MR. YANNUCCI: Your question was 15 before, I think, it was almost word for 16 word the same.
17 MR. MARKOWSKI: I'm content with
18 that question.
19 A. Mr. Meguid has made a comment in 20 each year, yes.
21 Q. Mr. Meguid repeats the substance of 22 his 1997 criticism in 19 -- his 1998 comment
23 in almost exactly the same words, correct,
24 sir?
25 A. (Reading) Yes.

Page 107

1 Q. Let me direct your attention to
2 page 481.
3 A. Which year?
4 Q. This is in the 1998 evaluation
5 summary.
6 A. Eight. Yes?
7 Q. Mr. Meguid makes another comment at 8 the top of the page?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Would you read that, please?
11 A. "Bill continues to suffer the
12 consequences of less than a straightforward
13 approach. Gives people including me the
14 impression that he is not completely up
15 front. I have heard fewer negative comments
16 this year than in the past."
17 Q. That again is almost exactly the 18 same comment that Mr. Meguid made in 1997,
19 correct?
20 A. Where is that?
21 Q. Page 462 of Exhibit 374.
22 A. Well, in 1997 it says at the end
23 "this needs to improve," and at the end in 24 1998 it says "I have heard fewer negative
25 comments this year than in the past."

Page 108

1 Q. Mr. Meguid continued in 1998 to say
2 that Mr. Strong continued to suffer the
3 consequences of a less than straightforward
4 approach, correct, sir?
5 MR. YANNUCCI: Objection, asked and
6 answered.
7 A. Yeah, no, you're right, he uses the
8 same words in both years.
9 Q. Let's take a look at the summary in 10 1998.
11 A. EDS 1998.
12 MR. YANNUCCI: It's the page on the
13 back.
14 Q. Before we get there --
15 You were co-director of Mr.
16 Strong's evaluation in 1998, sir; is that
17 correct?
18 MR. YANNUCCI: Asked and answered.
19 A. We answered that about two hours
20 ago.
21 Q. Right.
22 What role would you have played in 23 preparing the summary for 1998, given the 24 fact that you were serving as co-director?
25 A. The -- the -- the -- the correct

Page 109

1 answer to that is I -- I wouldn't recall, but
2 if -- as a generalization? The -- the 3 primary director would probably do the
4 write-up and share it with the co-director.
5 Q. Do you remember there being any
6 disagreement between you and Mr. Jones in
7 1998 concerning Mr. Strong's evaluation
8 summary?
9 A. Don't recall.
10 Q. Let me direct your attention to the 11 development needs section, page 492 of the 12 1998 evaluation summary.
13 A. Um-hm.
14 Q. Would you read the first one into
15 the record, please?
16 MR. YANNUCCI: I'm going to object
17 again, because you're just again taking
18 his comments out of context, you're not 19 reading the entire -- you're just 20 picking certain sections.
21 But go ahead.
22 A. Well --
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: I'm going to pause
24 for a second. Mr. Yannucci, I have been 25 patient. Florida procedure provides the 018295

Page 110

1 opportunity to object to the form of my
2 questions without a speaking objection,
3 and I'd appreciate it if you would limit
4 your comments so that you're not
5 influencing the witness' testimony.
6 MR. YANNUCCI: I don't think I am,
7 counsel, and I would appreciate it if
8 you would conduct the deposition as you
9 should, and not waste the time of the 10 witness to have him read statements that 11 aren't -- aren't in dispute. You have 12 him sit here and just read these
13 documents.
14 Go ahead.
15 A. Well --
16 Q. Would you read --
17 A. -- I will read the ones you want me
18 to read, you know, recognizing, as I'm well
19 aware, that they reflect -- that these
20 packages reflect the thoughts of 25 people,
21 and this is a summary of the developmental
22 needs, which are in everyone's package.
23 "Client skills business
24 development. Overly commercial," colon, "can 25 be overly aggressive in terms of trying to

Page 111

1 capture transactional opportunities. Makes
2 some judgments which are sometimes very close
3 to if not over the line. Needs to avoid
4 overcommitting and maintaining" -- "needs to
5 avoid overcommitting and maintain the
6 efficacy of M&A fee scale. Intense style.
7 Has a very intense style which can be
8 off-putting to some clients. Professional
9 and execution skills. Management teamwork.
10 Communication. Although he has made progress
11 and is acutely aware of the concerns he
12 continues to suffer the consequences of less
13 than a straightforward approach. Some
14 colleagues feels" -- "feel he gives people
15 the impression that he is not completely up
16 front and uses information selectively.
17 Oftentimes does not disclose information
18 which others may view important or will 19 disclose some information on a subject but 20 not all. Also there is the perception that 21 he does not properly balance the issues of 22 the people -- of his people," slash, "his 23 region with the best overall interest of the 24 firm. Management. Should let his junior
25 professionals manager" -- "manage the

Page 112

1 day-to-day relationships with his clients at
2 the more junior levels. Connects very well
3 with the officers, but needs to spend more
4 time with the associates and analysts in the
5 office."
6 Q. At the time that evaluation summary
7 was prepared, sir, the effort was made to be
8 fair and balanced in reporting to Mr. Strong
9 the results of his evaluation, correct?
10 A. Absolutely.
11 Q. I asked you some questions
12 generally, sir, about Morgan Stanley's
13 compensation structure for managing
14 directors. Do you know -- let me ask this
15 question.
16 When Bill Strong was first hired to
17 join Morgan Stanley from Salomon Brothers, do
18 you know if he was given an employment
19 contract?
20 A. No.
21 Q. You don't know?
22 A. I do not know.
23 Q. Do you know what percentage of Mr.
24 Strong's compensation in the time period that
25 we've been focusing on, 1995 through 1998,

Page 113

1 was bonus-based compensation as opposed to
2 salary?
3 A. I don't know, but I know the
4 pattern of our compensation, which is at
5 least 90 percent, probably -- well, somewhere
6 between 80 and 90 percent bonus.
7 Q. Do you know what Mr. Strong's total
8 compensation was during the time period we've 9 been focusing on?
10 A. No, I don't know.
11 Q. Do you know what influence Mr.
12 Strong's -- let me take a step back.
13 Were you personally involved in the 14 process of setting Mr. Strong's bonus in this 15 time period?
16 A. From?
17 Q. '95 through '98?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Do you know what influence Mr.
20 Strong's personal success in generating
21 revenue had on the size of his bonus in those
22 years?
23 MR. YANNUCCI: Objection, asked and
24 answered.
25 A. I think over sometime in the last

018296

Page 114

1 few hours I answered the question about --
 2 that you asked about what role revenue plays
 3 in comp, and I think that was a pretty
 4 comprehensive answer --
 5 Q. I asked --
 6 A. -- if I'm not mistaken.
 7 Q. I'm sorry to interrupt you.
 8 I had asked a general question.
 9 Now I'm asking specifically about Mr. Strong.
 10 A. Well, the -- the -- I said that 11 person's compensation is based on a number of 12 factors, revenue being one of them, and I
 13 said also revenue over time, not revenue in a
 14 specific year, or not wanting to have
 15 investment bankers' comp spike.
 16 It -- it's -- there are some firms
 17 who have -- and I think it's worth
 18 mentioning, since you seem to be focused on 19 comp. There are some companies who pay
 20 people purely on their revenue production in 21 a given year. There are some people who like
 22 to be paid that way. We don't have that kind
 23 of system, and whenever a person has come to 24 a point in their career here where they feel
 25 that's the kind of system they want to be on,

Page 115

1 they inevitably are told if they're not happy
 2 here, they can leave, which has happened in
 3 the fast. Some of our biggest producers
 4 wanted to be paid just on revenue less heat,
 5 light, and power, 50 percent for me, 50
 6 percent for you. Firms that have done that
 7 have generally created firms within firms,
 8 created a lot of friction, they blow up. The 9 most famous of those is Mike Milken, where
 10 people get paid based purely on their revenue
 11 sheet and nothing else. We've never had that 12 system here.
 13 And so that's why when I say
 14 revenue is just part of it, it's -- it's --
 15 it's one of the factors that's taken into 16 account in determining comp. And that was 17 the case with Bill as well. And whenever 18 people have -- and so when we sit down to 19 determine comp, we look at all those things
 20 that I talked about that determine the 21 revenue pool, the comp pool, and then take
 22 all those factors into account in coming up
 23 with that person's comp.
 24 So no one here at the firm has a
 25 deal where they get paid in the investment

Page 116

1 banking division a percentage of the
 2 revenues, okay? When someone wanted that
 3 here once, I was in an office that same year
 4 that you're referring to, Bob Scott -- the
 5 guy wrote a written proposal, and Bob Scott
 6 took the proposal, said "Is there anything in
 7 this proposal, anything in your plan that you
 8 want to say that's not in the -- in the 9 write-up," and the person said no, and he
 10 went like this right in front of him
 11 (indicating), in the garbage pail. Okay?
 12 The biggest producer, the highest paid person
 13 in my department in 1996, and the person left
 14 and went to another firm that gave him that 15 package, and when his contract expired two
 16 years later another firm gave him the same
 17 package. And you know who that person is if
 18 I tell you, because he's now indicted.
 19 That's all I've got to say about revenue and 20 compensation at Morgan Stanley.
 21 Q. I have a few more questions about
 22 it, so let's see.
 23 Mr. Strong --
 24 A. Excuse me. Convicted, not 25 indicted.

Page 117

1 Q. Mr. Strong had had success in
 2 generating substantial revenues for Morgan
 3 Stanley over a period of years; had he not,
 4 sir?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. And he was valued by Morgan Stanley
 7 for his ability to generate substantial
 8 revenues for the firm, correct?
 9 MR. YANNUCCI: Objection --
 10 A. Among other things.
 11 MR. YANNUCCI: -- to form of the
 12 question.
 13 A. (Continuing) Among other things.
 14 REQ MR. MARKWSKI: Mr. Yannucci, we
 15 have not received, I'm confident, copies
 16 of the TSW sheets that the witness has
 17 identified today as tracking the fee
 18 credits that Mr. Strong received in
 19 connection with the Sunbeam transaction
 20 or in connection with his evaluation
 21 process generally. I'd ask you to 22 search Morgan Stanley's files and
 23 produce those documents to us.
 24 Q. Sir, you did not personally have
 25 any involvement in the work that Morgan

018297

Page 118

1 Stanley did for Sunbeam, did you?
2 A. None whatsoever.
3 Q. Were you aware that in -- I'll set
4 the time for you, sir. This is not a matter
5 that's in dispute. But Sunbeam acquired my
6 client's 82 percent interest in the Coleman
7 company in March of 1998. Prior to that
8 transaction closing Sunbeam issued a press
9 release. I'll show you a copy of that. It's
10 been previously marked as CPH Exhibit
11 number 14.
12 A. So you were saying -- what is this?
13 Q. This is a press release that
14 Sunbeam issued on March 19, 1998, about ten
15 days or so before Sunbeam closed on the 16 acquisition of my client's interest in the 17 Coleman company. I'd like you to take a
18 moment to read it.
19 A. You want me to read this?
20 Q. Yes, just to yourself.
21 A. (Reading).
22 Q. Have you had an opportunity to read
23 it, sir?
24 A. I read it.
25 Q. Did anyone --

Page 119

1 A. For the first time.
2 Q. Okay. Did anyone working on the
3 Sunbeam transaction at Morgan Stanley, Mr.
4 Strong or anyone else on the Morgan Stanley
5 team, come to you to discuss issues relating
6 to Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 performance
7 or the press release that's Sunbeam issued on
8 March 19th?
9 A. No.
10 Q. Ruth Porat is another person at 11 Morgan Stanley who worked on the Sunbeam
12 transaction.
13 Do you know Ruth Porat?
14 A. I do know Ruth Porat.
15 Q. She works in the equity capital
16 markets part of the firm?
17 A. Not today, no.
18 Q. She did back in 1998.
19 A. She did work in Equity Capital
20 Markets, if that was the period.
21 Q. Ruth Porat didn't come to talk to 22 you about the circumstances leading to the 23 issuance of the March 19th press release to 24 ask for counsel from you concerning what
25 Morgan Stanley should do, did she?

Page 120

1 MR. YANNUCCI: Objection, asked and
2 answered.
3 A. I think I can cut through a lot of
4 this for you, if it makes a difference, and
5 simply say that in my capacity at Morgan
6 Stanley and whatever role I was playing
7 during the period of time that this
8 transaction developed and was done I had zero
9 involvement, zero involvement in work,
10 conference calls or anything you would refer
11 to as work at Morgan Stanley. So it -- it is 12 my belief that this was one of the many 13 things going on at the firm that I read about
14 when it transpired, and I had no involvement
15 at all on any aspect of the deal, consulting,
16 input, anything. So everything you would be 17 asking me about the deal I'd be hearing for 18 the first time, other than what I learned
19 subsequent to the deal: It was announced. I
20 bumped into Jimmy Maher. I see him. I see
21 Howard Giddis. I see Don Drapkin, or
22 whoever. Okay? You know, we worked on 23 something together. I had -- I didn't even 24 know it was going on when it was going on.
25 But that's not difficult to

Page 121

1 understand, I think, if you have 2,000 people
2 in the division working on hundreds of
3 transactions at any given point in time.
4 What I'm familiar with are the things that I
5 was specifically working on or being
6 consulted on, or where issues came to my 7 desk.
8 But the way our system works, which 9 is -- you know, there is a process set up at 10 Morgan Stanley for things to get done, and 11 they don't all flow through the head of the 12 division or the head of the department's 13 desk. If they did, it would be the 14 definition of a bottleneck.
15 Q. If someone working on the Morgan --
16 on the Sunbeam deal for Morgan Stanley did
17 have a concern and sought your counsel with 18 respect to it, what would you have done?
19 A. Tried to help them out.
20 Q. Sir, do you recall being
21 interviewed for an article that the New
22 Yorker in 1999 about Mary Meeker?
23 A. Mary Meeker?
24 Q. Yes.
25 A. Our research analyst?

018298

Page 122

1 Q. Yes.
2 A. Not specifically, no.
3 Q. Mary Meeker is an employee of
4 Morgan Stanley, a managing director of Morgan
5 Stanley, correct?
6 A. Yeah, in good standing 500,000
7 e-mails later.
8 Q. I want to just show you a quote
9 that's attributed to you in this article.
10 MR. YANNUCCI: This is in the New 11 Yorker?
12 MR. MARKOWSKI: Yes.
13 We'll mark it as -- that will be
14 CPH Exhibit 377.
15 (CPH Exhibit 377, 4/26/99 Mary
16 Meeker article in The New Yorker, marked
17 for identification, as of this date.)
18 (Discussion off the record.)
19 MR. MARKOWSKI: The date of the 20 article is April 26th, 1999.
21 Q. And there doesn't appear to be a
22 page number, but the quote I'm going to be 23 asking you about is on the fifth page of the 24 exhibit. There's a paragraph that begins in 25 the left-hand column.

Page 123

1 A. There's only one column on the
2 page.
3 MR. YANNUCCI: Let me show him my
4 page.
5 A. (Continuing) Oh, I'm on the wrong
6 page.
7 Q. I think it's the fifth page.
8 A. Let me start all over. "The Woman
9 in the Bubble," is that the title of the 10 article?
11 Q. Correct. And it's the fifth page
12 of the exhibit.
13 A. This is in which magazine?
14 Q. The New Yorker.
15 A. The New Yorker. Not New York
16 Magazine.
17 Q. No, the New Yorker.
18 A. Okay.
19 Q. You can see in the upper right-hand
20 column of the --
21 A. Three, four, five. Okay, I'm on
22 the fifth page.
23 Q. -- there are two columns there?
24 And do you see the -- there's a new
25 paragraph that begins in that left-hand

Page 124

1 column?
2 A. "Morgan could have"?
3 Q. Yes.
4 It reads "Morgan could have made
5 more money by being selective, but Meeker and 6 her colleagues say that big money investors
7 tend to rely on the firm's seal of approval."
8 Quote, "If Morgan Stanley has its name on 9 it," comma, "investors assume it's greater
10 than Schlock Incorporated," comma, close
11 quote, "Joe Perella, the head of Morgan:
12 Morgan's corporate finance department mused."
13 Do you see that?
14 A. Yes, I certainly do.
15 Q. Do you recall making that statement
16 to the New Yorker?
17 A. No.
18 MR. YANNUCCI: Are you assuming
19 that the quote comes from an interview
20 to the New Yorker, or just was a quote
21 elsewhere?
22 Q. Well, do you recall making that
23 statement, that Morgan Stanley -- if Morgan
24 Stanley has its name on it, investors assume
25 it's better than Schlock Incorporated?

Page 125

1 A. I don't recall making that specific
2 statement, no.
3 Q. What does Schlock Incorporated mean
4 to you, sir?
5 MR. YANNUCCI: Object to the
6 relevance of this, but --
7 A. What does it mean to me?
8 Q. Yes.
9 A. Something that's not of high
10 quality.
11 Q. Do you -- do you agree, sir, that
12 if Morgan Stanley has its name on a deal,
13 investors will assume it's something of
14 quality?
15 MR. YANNUCCI: Object to the
16 relevance.
17 A. I think that our firm has very high
18 standards. We have a motto here, first class
19 business in a first class way. We have a
20 tremendous system of checks and balances, a
21 process that people have to go through to vet
22 things, to get things done.
23 For example, in the -- in the case
24 of the -- let's say the bubble, the Internet,
25 Mary was always of the opinion that 90

018299

Page 126

1 percent of the companies were going to fail,
2 that you'd only remember who was number one
3 or two, and you'd forget all the rest of the 4 companies. Because she was the leading
5 analyst, everyone wanted her imprimatur. And
6 so I think consistent with, you know, the
7 standards of the firm, we tried to pick firms
8 to work for that we thought were winners in
9 that particular era.
10 Secondly, institutional investors I
11 think believe that we have higher standards
12 or let's say the highest standards on Wall
13 Street, and I think they believe that if we 14 -- they believe that if we put our name on an
15 underwriting, that we've done due diligence
16 at a very high standard, and that we work for 17 quality companies.
18 I think -- and you heard me make
19 the statement 500,000 e-mails later no one
20 has been asked to leave our firm from the 21 research department or the investment banking
22 division. In all of the scandals that have
23 rocked Wall Street, and Elliot Spitzer's
24 investigation for the last I don't know how 25 many years, 500,000 e-mails later our name is

Page 127

1 not on Adelphia, it's not on Enron, it's not
2 on WorldCom, it's not on Global Crossing,
3 okay? So they're -- all those, Tyco, Quest.
4 And that I think has a lot to do with the
5 fact that a lot of these companies that were 6 at least 50 percent of business model, and
7 the rest, Omnicom, have passed a very
8 rigorous test to get through the Morgan
9 Stanley system, and when people know you have 10 that kind of rigorous test, a lot of times
11 they don't even have ask you to even go
12 through it; they go somewhere else. And it
13 wasn't because we couldn't have done business
14 with these companies. We wanted to.
15 So, you know, you ask me about what
16 Schlock, Inc. means. It's -- it's -- it's 17 something we don't like to be associated
18 with. We like to be associated with first
19 class companies and do business in a first 20 class way, and try every day to -- to live to 21 that standard.
22 Q. I take it, sir, although you can't
23 recall making the statement to New Yorker
24 reporter, that you'd agree that if Morgan
25 Stanley has its name on it, investors assume

Page 128

1 it's better than Schlock Incorporated.
2 MR. YANNUCCI: Object to the
3 relevance.
4 A. I -- I -- I -- I assume that if
5 Morgan Stanley has its name -- I think
6 investors believe that Morgan Stanley has its
7 name on something, that we've done enough
8 work on it, and that it's passed through our
9 system to get to where it is, and we have a
10 very rigorous capital commitment process
11 here, a very rigorous equity commitment
12 process here that is made up of a
13 cross-section of people who are not
14 interested in the particular deal of the 15 moment.
16 Q. Just a moment.
17 A. Yeah.
18 (Counsel confer off the record.)
19 MR. MARKOWSKI: I have no further
20 questions.
21 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you very
22 much.
23 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: That's it?
24 This marks the end of tape number
25 two in the videotaped deposition of

Page 129

1 Joseph Perella. We are going off the
2 record. The time is 5:56.
3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Actually, let's
4 stay on the record. If you can go back
5 on for a second.
6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on
7 the record at 5:56.
8 MR. MARKOWSKI: I just want to make
9 sure that Morgan Stanley has no
10 questions, and that the deposition is
11 concluded.
12 MR. YANNUCCI: If we do, we'll let
13 you know, but not at this time.
14 MR. MARKOWSKI: The deposition's
15 closed then.

16 R U T H P O R A T, resumed as a witness,
17 having been previously sworn by the
18 Notary Public, was examined and testified
19 further as follows:
20 EXAMINATION BY
21 MR. MARKOWSKI:
22 Q. Ms. Porat, you understand you're
23 still under oath, do you not?
24 A. Yes, I do.
25 Q. Ms. Porat, how do you feel today?

Page 227

1 A. Fine, thank you.
2 Q. Did you do anything to prepare for
3 the resumption of your deposition today?
4 A. I briefly scanned the prior
5 deposition.
6 Q. Did you do anything else?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Did you meet with counsel?
9 A. Just briefly to -- very briefly
10 yesterday.
11 Q. How much time did you spend with 12 counsel preparing for today?
13 A. Fifteen minutes maybe.
14 Q. In reviewing your transcript, did
15 you notice anything that you wish to change
16 or correct?
17 A. No. I scanned it pretty quickly.
18 I saw one typo that may have a confusing
19 reference which I will find for you, but
20 other than that, no.
21 Q. Is there anything that in reviewing
22 that transcript you believe you now recall
23 that you could not recall at the time you
24 gave your testimony on November 23?
25 A. No.

Page 228

1 Q. Let me show you what we marked as
2 CPH Exhibit 378. It's a copy of the
3 deposition transcript from your November 23
4 testimony. You said you found a typo. Can
5 you locate it for me?
6 A. I don't remember where it is. I
7 can spend the time to do it now or call you
8 back; whatever you prefer.
9 MR. CLARE: I think we can do it
10 through the errata portion of it.
11 MR. MARKOWSKI: That's fine.
12 Q. There are a couple of things I
13 wanted to bring to your attention, to see if 14 we can clear them up. If you can turn to 15 page 167. You're at page 167 of the 16 transcript, ma'am?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. You see at the, bottom beginning at
19 line 21, you begin to read from Exhibit
20 CPH 17. It's a copy of the Arthur Andersen
21 November 19, 1998 comfort letter?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Do you see on line, 25 and
24 continuing to line 1 on page 168, the text
25 reads: "From November 29, 1997 through

Page 229

1 March 1, 1998, which were $72,018,000 as
2 compared to $43,499,000 for the corresponding
3 period of the preceding year." Do you see
4 those words?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And I don't know if you misspoke,
7 or the court reporter took it down
8 incorrectly, but that reference to 9 $43,499,000 should be $143,499,000, shouldn't
10 it?
11 MR. CLARE: Do you want to share a
12 copy of that?
13 MR. MARKOWSKI: I can --
14 Q. But do you recall that?
15 MR. CLARE: Why don't you -- let me
16 show her a copy of the document, so she 17 can know what she was reading from.
18 Q. Let me show, you Ms. Porat, what we
19 previously marked as CPH Exhibit No. 17.
20 It's the Arthur Andersen March 19, 1998
21 letter to Morgan Stanley, and you were
22 reading from paragraph C at the top of page,
23 number five of the exhibit, I believe.
24 A. You're correct. It should have
25 been $143,499,000.

2 (Pages 226 to 229)

018304

Page 230

1 Q. So that's either a typographical
2 error, or you misspoke, correct?
3 A. Correct.
4 Q. Let me direct your attention to one
5 other item that I caught in scanning over the 6 transcript, at page 142 and 143. This time
7 it really says something I said.
8 You see at the bottom of page 142,
9 I asked you a question relating to whether
10 Mr. Tyree had told you that, during the due
11 diligence call with Arthur Andersen on
12 March 12, that Arthur Andersen had advised
13 Morgan Stanley that in Arthur Andersen's view
14 Sunbeam had used a number of aggressive
15 techniques to enhance its 1990 sales revenue.
16 Do you see that?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And your answer was "I don't recall
19 hearing that," correct?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. Did you understand, when I asked
22 that question, that I was asking you about
23 Sunbeam's 1997 sales revenue?
24 A. That would have been the proper
25 comparison.

Page 231

1 Q. Right. And I don't know if I
2 misspoke, or the court reporter took it down
3 incorrectly, but you understood me to be
4 asking about 1997, correct?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Were either of those the items
7 that --
8 A. Unfortunately not, but I will find
9 it.
10 Q. You can do that at a later time.
11 Do you recall that immediately --
12 let me take a step back. You attended the 13 Sunbeam February 27 board meeting where the 14 Sunbeam board voted to approve the 15 acquisition of my client's interest in
16 Coleman Company, correct?
17 A. I recall being at a board meeting,
18 and I don't recall when that board meeting
19 was, but it was a board meeting at which
20 financing was discussed. And I don't recall
21 whether the acquisition was approved at that
22 board meeting.
23 Q. Let me show you the minutes of the 24 Sunbeam February 27 board meeting, just so we 25 have that point of reference clear.

Page 232

1 A. Okay.
2 Q. Let me show you, Ms. Porat, what we
3 previously marked as CPH Exhibit 206. These
4 are the minutes of the February 27, 1998
5 Sunbeam board meeting. I think we covered
6 this in your -- the last session of your
7 deposition, but I believe it's in the second
8 paragraph here that identifies you as a
9 participant or as an attendee at the board
10 meeting. Do you see that?
11 A. Yes I do.
12 Q. You don't need to read the minutes,
13 but I will represent to you that's the board
14 meeting where Sunbeam voted to approve the 15 acquisition of Coleman Company; the Sunbeam
16 board did.
17 Do you recall that immediately
18 after the February 27 board meeting you met
19 with Sunbeam's outside public relations firm?
20 A. I don't recall that.
21 Q. Sunbeam had engaged Hill & Knowlton
22 to act as its public relations firm in 23 connection with the announcement of these 24 acquisitions. Do you recall that?
25 A. I don't recall that.

Page 233

1 Q. Let me show you a document that we
2 will be marking for the first time today. It
3 will be CPH Deposition Exhibit 379 I guess.
4 (Plaintiff's Exhibit CPH 379, Copy
5 of an April 28, 1998 letter from Skadden
6 Arps to Michael MacPhail, marked for
7 identification, as of this date.)
8 Q. CPH Exhibit No. 379 is a copy of an
9 April 28, 1998 letter from Skadden Arps to 10 Michael MacPhail at the Securities and
11 Exchange Commission. Just take a look at it
12 briefly, Ms. Porat, and tell me whether 13 you've seen it before?
14 A. I don't believe I've seen it
15 before.
16 Q. Let me direct your attention to
17 page 17 of the attached chronology. Do you
18 see an entry there that reads February 28 -
19 March 1, 1998?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And that entry states
22 Messrs. Dunlap, Kersh, Fannin, Goodis of 23 Sunbeam and Messrs. Kits, Fuchs and Porat of 24 Morgan Stanley met with Mauri Hope of 25 Hill & Knowlton to discuss the public

019305

Page 234

1 relations aspects of the transactions. Do
2 you see that?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Do you recall participating in
5 discussions with that group of people
6 relating to the public relations aspects of
7 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 acquisitions?
8 A. I don't. I don't remember that
9 name Mauri Hope, either.
10 Q. Do you believe that this is 11 erroneous?
12 A. I have no basis for judging. I
13 just don't remember this meeting or that
14 name.
15 Q. Hill & Knowlton is a public
16 relations firm. You're familiar with that,
17 correct, ma'am?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Do you recall any involvement on
20 your part with Hill & Knowlton at any point
21 relating to the public relations aspects of
22 the acquisitions that Sunbeam made in the
23 first quarter of 1998?
24 A. I don't recall. They may have been
25 there and I didn't know it, but I don't

Page 235

1 recall Hill & Knowlton; meeting Hill &
2 Knowlton.
3 Q. Do you recall participating in a
4 series of discussions relating to the
5 development of responses that Sunbeam
6 management might consider making to inquiries
7 relating to the transactions?
8 A. I remember meeting with Mr. Dunlap
9 at one point in his apartment on a weekend
10 with Bob Kitts to talk about some questions
11 and answers, but I don't recall whether they
12 were related to the acquisition specifically
13 or the financing. I do remember a Q-and-A
14 discussion, though.
15 Q. Let me show you a calendar for 16 February and March of 1998 just so you can
17 get the timing clear in your mind. I don't 18 think we need to mark this as an exhibit, but
19 let me show you a 1998 calendar. The minutes
20 I showed you from the Sunbeam board meeting
21 were from February 27. Do you see that
22 February 27 was a Friday in 1998?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And March 1 -- excuse me. March --
25 February 28 and March 1 are Saturday and

Page 236

1 Sunday, correct?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. So it would be consistent with your
4 recollection of meeting with Mr. Dunlap on a
5 meeting, about a weekend, for you to have met
6 with Mr. Dunlap on March 28 and March 1, or 7 on one or the other of those days, to discuss
8 inquiries that may be made of Sunbeam
9 management relating to the first quarter
10 acquisitions?
11 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.
12 A. Or it could have been March 7th or
13 8th.
14 Q. Do you think the meeting would have 15 occurred prior to the public announcement of 16 the acquisitions so that Mr. Dunlap would be 17 prepared for inquiries immediately upon the 18 first announcement of the public that the 19 acquisitions were taking place?
20 A. As I said, I don't recall whether 21 it was about the financing or whether it was 22 about more than the financing, so I don't
23 know when it occurred. All I remember was it
24 was a weekend.
25 Q. But you do have some recollection

Page 237

1 of participating in a meeting in Mr. Dunlap's
2 apartment on a weekend to discuss questions
3 that might be put to Mr. Dunlap relating to 4 -- by people in the public relating to
5 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 acquisitions, or 6 relating to the financing concerning those
7 acquisitions, correct?
8 A. Just to make sure I'm answering it
9 clearly enough, my involvement would have
10 been as it related to a road show
11 presentation, so what would have been covered
12 are any questions or answers that we thought
13 might have been raised in the context of a
14 road show.
15 That's why I'm not sure whether it
16 was the weekend you asked me about, or the 17 following weekend immediately preceding the 18 road show.
19 Q. Ms. Porat, I'm going to show you
20 four different exhibits. They're numbered
21 CPH Exhibit 140, 141, 142 and 143. I would 22 like you to look at them for a moment and 23 tell me whether or not you have seen one or
24 more of those documents previously.
25 A. I don't remember these documents.

018306

Page 238

1 Q. They relate to questions concerning
2 the first quarter 1998 acquisitions, correct?
3 A. Correct.
4 Q. And these draft documents, or these
5 documents contain potential answers to the
6 questions concerning those transactions,
7 correct?
8 A. Correct.
9 Q. You have no recollection of
10 participating in the preparation of these
11 documents?
12 A. I don't recall.
13 Q. You have no recollection of
14 commenting on these documents?
15 A. I don't recall seeing a document
16 like this. I may have, but I just don't
17 recall it.
18 Q. There's handwriting on each of the 19 exhibits, I believe. Do you recognize any of 20 the handwriting on Exhibit 140?
21 A. I don't recognize it. I know it's
22 not mine, but I don't recognize it.
23 Q. Do you recognize any of the
24 handwriting on Exhibit 141?
25 A. No. Same answer.

Page 239

1 Q. Do you recognize any of the
2 handwriting on Exhibit 142?
3 A. No. Same answer.
4 Q. I don't see any handwriting on 143.
5 Does looking at these documents
6 refresh your recollection concerning whether
7 your meeting with Mr. Dunlap related to the
8 road show, or to questions that Mr. Dunlap
9 might receive upon the announcement of the 10 acquisitions?
11 A. No.
12 Q. I think we touched on it briefly
13 when we were together last, but do you recall
14 that the debenture offering relating to the 15 financing of the Sunbeam acquisitions
16 required the approval of Morgan Stanley's
17 Equity Commitment Committee?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And the committee received a
20 written presentation, do you recall that?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Let me show you a copy of 23 CPH Exhibit 129. This document is dated
24 March 10, 1998?
25 A. Correct.

Page 240

1 Q. And it's a memorandum to the Morgan
2 Stanley Equity Commitment Committee?
3 A. Correct.
4 Q. You're identified as one of the 5 authors of the document?
6 A. I am identified as one of the 7 authors.
8 Q. In fact, a number of individuals
9 who are involved in Morgan Stanley's work for 10 Sunbeam are identified as author of this
11 document, correct?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. Is this the formal presentation to 14 the Equity Commitment Committee relating to 15 the Sunbeam debenture offering?
16 A. I'm sorry?
17 Q. Is this the formal presentation,
18 the written presentation, to the Equity
19 Commitment Committee relating to the Sunbeam
20 convertible debenture offering?
21 A. Yes, this looks like the document
22 that would have been distributed to the
23 Equity Commitment Committee.
24 Q. Were you involved in preparing this
25 document?

Page 241

1 A. I don't recall if I was.
2 Q. Would you have at least reviewed it
3 before it was presented to the Equity
4 Commitment Committee?
5 A. Yes, I think I would have.
6 Q. You would have reviewed it to 7 verify the accuracy of the things that you at 8 least had knowledge of?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Do you know who was involved in
11 preparing this written document?
12 A. I don't remember who wrote it.
13 Q. It was prepared by the Morgan
14 Stanley team working on the Sunbeam
15 transaction though, correct?
16 A. Correct.
17 Q. Mr. Strong, Mr. Kitts and
18 Mr. Stynes are among the individuals who are 19 identified as the authors of this document,
20 correct?
21 A. Correct.
22 Q. All three of them had been working
23 on the Sunbeam transaction for -- the Sunbeam
24 engagement for some period of time by this
25 point, correct?

Page 242

1 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. It
2 calls for speculation.
3 You can answer.
4 A. I don't know when each of them
5 began to work on it, but I knew they were all
6 involved in working on it.
7 Q. It was your understanding that they
8 were involved from the outset of Sunbeam's
9 engagement of Morgan Stanley?
10 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.
11 A. No. As I just said, I know they 12 were all involved. I don't know when they 13 each became involved.
14 Q. It was your understanding that
15 Mr. Strong was involved from the outset, in 16 any event, correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Did you attend the Equity
19 Commitment Committee meeting?
20 A. I believe I did. I don't
21 specifically remember it.
22 Q. Did the committee meet on the date
23 of this memorandum, on March 10, or at some 24 later date?
25 A. I have no idea.

Page 243

1 Q. Is there any practice with respect
2 to the date of the preparation of the written
3 report to the committee and the time of the 4 committee's meeting?
5 A. The memo oftentimes would be
6 written and distributed before the meeting,
7 although not always. And I was just looking
8 at the calendar because I think the committee
9 met on Tuesdays, and this happens to be a
10 Tuesday, so I don't know when this was 11 prepared or circulated, and whether this date
12 referred to a committee date. I have no
13 recollection of all those dates; specific
14 dates.
15 Q. Your recollection is that you
16 attended the meeting whenever it occurred,
17 correct?
18 A. I think that's right.
19 Q. Did anyone during the course of 20 the -- let me ask a background question. Who 21 else do you recall attending who was involved
22 in performing work on the Sunbeam engagement?
23 A. I'm sorry?
24 Q. Who else do you recall from the 25 Sunbeam team, the Morgan Stanley Sunbeam team

Page 244

1 other than yourself attending the Equity
2 Commitment Committee meeting?
3 A. I don't actually remember the
4 details of the Equity Commitment Committee
5 meeting so I don't know.
6 Q. Do you know if Mr. Strong was
7 there?
8 A. I don't know.
9 Q. Mr. Strong was the relationship
10 officer, I believe is the term some have used
11 to describe his responsibilities for Sunbeam;
12 is that correct?
13 A. Correct.
14 Q. Would it have been typical for the
15 Morgan Stanley relationship officer to attend
16 the Equity Commitment Committee meeting
17 relating to a transaction such as this?
18 A. He could either have attended,
19 dialed in, or not attended, because there
20 were enough other people who could present
21 the issues.
22 Q. Would the Equity Commitment
23 Committee expect to hear from Mr. Strong
24 before approving the transaction?
25 MR. CLARE: Objection to the extent

Page 245

1 you're asking Ms. Porat to speak for the
2 committee. Calls for speculation.
3 You can answer.
4 Q. Based on your experience?
5 A. I don't know. I think it varied by
6 case.
7 Q. Do you recall anyone during the
8 course of the Equity Commitment Committee
9 where the Sunbeam convertible debenture
10 offering was presented to the committee
11 advising the committee members that Sunbeam
12 was having problems with respect to its first
13 quarter 1998 sales performance?
14 A. I don't remember, as I said, the 15 meeting itself, but I do know that the first
16 time I heard about any problem with first
17 quarter was much later towards the New York
18 road show, so your question doesn't actually
19 hold for me, because I don't know what
20 happened to the committee. I don't remember
21 that, as I said a couple of times. But I do
22 know when I first remember hearing about a
23 sales problem that was much later.
24 Q. So you know that the committee
25 wasn't advised at the meeting to approve the 018308

Page 246

1 Sunbeam convertible debenture offering that
2 there was a problem with respect to Sunbeam's
3 first quarter performance, correct?
4 MR. CLARE: Objection, that
5 misstates her testimony.
6 A. I didn't know that there was, and
7 as I've said I don't remember this meeting.
8 So you're interpreting -- I think that's an 9 extension. I don't know, is the short way of 10 putting it.
11 Q. Let me try to parce through this.
12 You believe you attended the Equity
13 Commitment Committee meeting where the 14 Sunbeam convertible debenture offering was 15 presented to the committee, correct?
16 A. I believe so, but I can't say it
17 specifically.
18 Q. That's your belief, correct?
19 A. Right.
20 Q. You did not learn personally that
21 there was a problem with respect to Sunbeam's
22 first quarter 1998 sales until, I believe you
23 just said, some time significantly after the 24 Equity Commitment Committee had approved the 25 convertible debenture offering, correct?

Page 247

1 A. Correct.
2 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. You
3 can answer.
4 A. Correct.
5 Q. So if in fact you were an attendee
6 at the March 10 1998 Equity Commitment
7 Committee meeting, or whatever date that
8 meeting took place concerning the Sunbeam
9 convertible debenture offering, you didn't
10 hear anyone advise the participants in that
11 meeting that there was a problem with respect
12 to Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales,
13 correct?
14 A. If I was there, I didn't hear it.
15 Q. Take a brief look, Ms. Porat, at 16 the written report that was provided to the 17 committee. Let me ask this question. You've 18 testified that you didn't learn that there
19 was a problem with respect to Sunbeam's first
20 quarter 1998 sales until sometime
21 significantly after March 10, correct?
22 A. It was -- just to make sure I'm 23 clear on what "significantly" means -- it was 24 in that couple of days prior to pricing, so
25 it was within a week that it was -- I don't

Page 248

1 remember hearing it until right prior to
2 pricing.
3 Q. You first heard it, according to
4 the testimony you gave at your last
5 deposition session, at the end of the road
6 show, correct?
7 A. Right.
8 Q. And the Equity Commitment Committee
9 meeting occurred before the beginning of the 10 road show, correct?
11 A. Correct.
12 Q. And you didn't have any knowledge
13 before the road show began that there was a
14 problem with respect to Sunbeam's first
15 quarter 1998 sales, correct?
16 A. Correct.
17 Q. Based on that, are you comfortable
18 saying that there is nothing in this March 10
19 report that alerts any reader of it to a
20 problem with respect to Sunbeam's first
21 quarter 1998 sales, or would you like to take
22 a moment to look at it?
23 MR. CLARE: Objection to the form
24 of the question.
25 A. I would assume there is not.

Page 249

1 Q. Well, just take a moment to look at
2 it.
3 A. Can you just tell me?
4 MR. CLARE: Well, the document says
5 what it says.
6 A. I'm assuming there's not, but you
7 know the answer. I will assume there's not.
8 Q. If there had been a problem known
9 to you with respect to Sunbeam's first
10 quarter 1998 sales, is that something you
11 would have brought to the attention of the 12 participants in the Equity Commitment
13 Committee meeting relating to the debenture
14 offering?
15 MR. CLARE: Objection to form and
16 hypothetical. You can answer.
17 A. I believe I would have brought it
18 to their attention.
19 Q. And you didn't do that, correct?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. We spent some time when we were
22 together last talking about the series of 23 conversations that you were involved in when 24 you did first hear about a problem with 25 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales, correct?

Page 250

1 A. Correct.
2 Q. And one of the -- you testified
3 that you received a one-page summary of
4 Sunbeam's sales situation in the first
5 quarter, correct?
6 A. From the company.
7 Q. Correct.
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Let me show you CPH Exhibit 16
10 again, just to have that in front of you.
11 CPH Exhibit No. 16 is the one-page document
12 that you received from the company on 13 March 18, correct?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Did you receive any other written
16 materials from the company on March, 18 or at 17 any time prior to Sunbeam issuing its press
18 release on March 19th, relating to Sunbeam's
19 first quarter 1998 performance?
20 A. I don't recall seeing anything
21 other than this and the draft press release.
22 Q. Do you see the list of companies
23 under the heading "Potential Orders"?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. What did you understand that to be

Page 251

1 a reference to?
2 A. As I recall, the names of companies
3 and the potential orders in dollars that were 4 expected to come from those companies by the
5 end of the quarter.
6 Q. Those were not orders that Sunbeam
7 had in hand at that point, correct?
8 MR. CLARE: Objection. Calls for
9 speculation.
10 Q. Based on your understanding at the
11 time?
12 A. Right. As I read it, it was -- the
13 way it was described, as I recall, is there
14 were verbal -- they had verbal indications
15 that those orders would come in, and that 16 they would come in prior to the end of the 17 quarter.
18 Q. But Sunbeam wasn't describing those
19 to you as orders that had in fact been made
20 at that point, correct?
21 A. No, they were very adamant -- let
22 me just step back. They were not booked yet.
23 They hadn't occurred. They hadn't shipped,
24 which is what the potential orders meant.
25 As I recall a lot of the debate the

Page 252

1 evening we were doing due diligence is the
2 company was extremely adamant that those
3 orders would come in, that they had been
4 verified. They knew they would, and that
5 they would not slip. And that was a lot --
6 by that I mean they would come in within the 7 first quarter and not slip over even a day or
8 two into the next quarter.
9 Q. Do you see that this document draws
10 a distinction between open orders and 11 potential orders?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. What did you understand open orders
14 to mean?
15 A. I don't recall sitting here today
16 the difference between the two, but there was 17 a lot of discussion about every line item on 18 here, and the reason I'm making this point
19 about this list of companies having orders
20 that would close, or would be shipped, or
21 closed, or properly accounted for by the end
22 of the quarter, that was a big part of the 23 debate that we had about -- and question we 24 had about company's confidence that there was 25 no question that those orders would occur in

Page 253

1 the first quarter.
2 So to simply answer your question,
3 I can't remember the difference between that
4 prior line and the next set of lines.
5 Q. But that's something that someone
6 would have explained to you in the course of 7 your conversations about this document?
8 A. I believe that's right.
9 Q. The total for potential orders is
10 $86 million, correct?
11 A. Correct.
12 Q. The company told you that day that
13 that $86 million was gross sales, not net
14 sales?
15 A. I don't recall sitting here today.
16 Q. Did you ask that question, whether
17 these were gross numbers or net sales
18 numbers, under the heading Potential Orders?
19 A. I don't recall.
20 Q. You understand the difference
21 between net sales and gross sales, do you
22 not, ma'am?
23 A. I've heard that term used and seen
24 that term in many contexts that something --
25 there's some kind of deduction between a

018310

Page 254

1 gross and a net. It can vary by company.
2 Q. The size of the deduction can vary?
3 A. The size and the reason and a whole
4 host of things.
5 Q. Do you see the references at the
6 bottom of this page, there is a No. 1 in
7 parenthesis, and a number 2, estimated
8 waterfall of 7 percent, estimated waterfall
9 of 10 percent?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Was that explained to you?
12 A. I don't recall if it was. I don't
13 recall what it is sitting here today.
14 Q. What involvement Ms. -- before we
15 move on, is there anything else that you can
16 recall other than what you've previously
17 testified to relating to the activities you
18 were engaged in on March 18 concerning
19 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales
20 performance?
21 A. I don't think so.
22 Q. What involvement did you have,
23 Ms. Porat, after March 18 in monitoring
24 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 performance?
25 A. I don't recall having involvement.

Page 255

1 Q. Is it your belief you had no
2 further involvement at that point in
3 communications with the company about its
4 first quarter performance?
5 A. I don't recall communications with
6 the company.
7 Q. That you were involved in?
8 A. That I was involved in.
9 Q. Do you recall any -- do you recall
10 whether you monitored Sunbeam's performance
11 through conversations with others at Morgan
12 Stanley?
13 A. The only thing I recall is very
14 generally there was a bring-down due
15 diligence session, but I don't remember the 16 details of that.
17 Q. Did you participate in it?
18 A. No.
19 Q. What's a bring-down due diligence
20 session?
21 A. It's just a -- between pricing and
22 closing, it's a further due diligence
23 discussion.
24 Q. Between pricing and closing what,
25 ma'am?

Page 256

1 A. Of the securities that were sold.
2 Q. So before Morgan Stanley closed on
3 the debenture offering, there was a final set
4 of due diligence activities?
5 A. I wasn't involved in it. I just 6 vaguely recall there was -- bring-down was
7 done. I don't remember the details of it.
8 Q. Whose responsibility was it to do
9 that?
10 A. That would have been John Tyree.
11 Q. Did you have any responsibility for
12 it?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Did you have any responsibility for
15 making sure it happened?
16 A. Not really. No.
17 Q. Did you have any responsibility for 18 consulting with Mr. Tyree to hear what he had 19 been told in connection with his bring-down
20 due diligence activities?
21 A. I don't think so, no.
22 Q. Did Mr. Tyree make any report to
23 you?
24 A. I don't recall.
25 Q. Were you involved in any

Page 257

1 conversations with Arthur Andersen at any
2 point in 1998 relating to Sunbeam's first
3 quarter 1998 performance?
4 A. I don't recall ever being on a call
5 with them, but whether they were on a
6 conference call and I didn't know it, I
7 couldn't say.
8 Q. As far as you know Arthur Andersen
9 was not involved in any of the conversations
10 you had with respect to Sunbeam's first
11 quarter 1998 performance?
12 A. Yes. If they were I don't recall
13 that they were.
14 Q. Let me show you, Ms. Porat, what we
15 previously marked as CPH Exhibit 33. It's a
16 one-page document dated March 19th, 1998 on 17 Morgan Stanley stationery from John Tyree and 18 Johannes Groeller to Bob Gluck, Alan Dean and 19 Greg Femicola, subject bring-down due
20 diligence?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Take a moment to look at that
23 document, ma'am. Have you seen it before?
24 A. I believe I have, but it may have
25 been in the prior deposition. I don't

Page 258

1 recall.
2 Q. Do you see what the first bullet
3 point is?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Could you read that?
6 A. "Top and bottom line outlook for
7 first quarter, first half and the year."
8 Q. What does that relate to, top and 9 bottom line outlook?
10 MR. CLARE: Objection to form and
11 calls for speculation.
12 Q. Are you familiar with those terms,
13 ma'am?
14 A. I would assume it refers to -- top
15 refers to revenues, and bottom would probably 16 refer to net income. But depending on the 17 context could refer to operating income, or 18 operating income before depreciation
19 amortization. It could be a number of 20 different types of references to earnings.
21 Q. In general, it's a reference to the 22 company's sales performance and revenues and
23 its earnings, correct?
24 A. Correct.
25 Q. And this indicates that there will

Page 259

1 be an inquiry about Sunbeam's outlook for the
2 first quarter, the first half and for the
3 full year, correct?
4 A. Correct.
5 Q. Were you involved in preparing the
6 bring-down due diligence checklist?
7 A. I don't recall if I was.
8 Q. Do you recall having any
9 involvement in the preparation of this
10 particular document?
11 A. I don't recall being involved in
12 the preparation of this document.
13 Q. Let me show you what we previously
14 marked as CPH Exhibit No. 34. It's a
15 document dated the next day from
16 CPH Exhibit 33. CPH exhibit 34 is a Morgan
17 Stanley memorandum, dated March 20, 1998. Do
18 you see, that, ma'am?
19 A. Yes, I do.
20 Q. And the authors of this document
21 are identified as Ruth Porat, Brooks Harris,
22 John Tyree and Johannes Groeller, and the 23 subject is bring-down due diligence?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Did you have involvement in the

Page 260

1 preparation of this document?
2 A. I don't recall being involved in
3 the preparation of this document.
4 Q. You indicated to me a few moments
5 ago that you had no involvement personally in 6 the bring-down due diligence activity,
7 correct?
8 A. I don't recall. I should have
9 said -- I may have said I don't recall
10 whether I was involved in the bring-down.
11 Q. Does this document change your
12 testimony?
13 A. It does not.
14 Q. So even seeing CPH Exhibit, 34 the 15 March 20, 1998 memorandum regarding 16 bring-down due diligence, your testimony is 17 that you personally had no involvement in 18 that activity, correct?
19 MR. CLARE: Objection. That
20 misstates the testimony.
21 A. No. My testimony was that I don't
22 recall if I had any involvement.
23 Q. And this document doesn't change
24 that recollection?
25 A. It does not change the

Page 261

1 recollection.
2 Q. Do you see that there is a -- you
3 see that the first bullet point from the
4 March 19th memorandum, "top and bottom line
5 outlook for first quarter, first half and
6 year," does not appear in CPH Exhibit No. 34,
7 the March 20 version?
8 A. That sentence does not appear in
9 the second.
10 Q. In fact, there is no reference in
11 the March 20 version of the bring-down due
12 diligence document to making any inquiry
13 relating to Sunbeam's expectations for the 14 first half of 1998; isn't that correct?
15 A. It looks like they had more detail
16 in the first, quarter and they still look at 17 the full year, versus the prior one which had 18 one sentence on first quarter, first half and 19 the year.
20 Q. So the specific inquiry concerning
21 the first half of 1998 that was included in 22 the March 19 due diligence checklist has been
23 dropped from the March 20 version of the 24 bring-down due diligence checklist, correct?
25 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.

018312

Page 262

1 A. Those two words, "first half," are
2 not on this second checklist.
3 Q. And there is no reference in the 4 March 20 version of making any inquiry about
5 the second quarter, correct?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. Do you know why that was dropped?
8 MR. CLARE: Objection. Foundation.
9 Calls for speculation.
10 A. I do not.
11 Q. Your name is on the March 20
12 version of the bring-down due diligence
13 checklist, correct, Ms. Porat?
14 A. Correct.
15 Q. Were you involved in preparing this
16 document, CPH Exhibit 34?
17 A. I think I previously said I don't
18 recall one way or the other.
19 Q. Do you know why your name would be 20 included on this document if you weren't
21 involved in it?
22 A. Unfortunately it happens.
23 Q. What do you mean, "unfortunately it
24 happens"?
25 A. At times people put team members on

Page 263

1 even when they're not involved in the
2 preparation of the document.
3 Q. Did you give any instruction to
4 Mr. Tyree in connection with his bring-down
5 due diligence activities to drop the inquiry
6 into the company's expectations for the
7 second quarter of 1998?
8 A. I don't recall doing it, and I
9 don't believe I would do it.
10 Q. Do you think that would have been 11 an inappropriate thing to drop under the
12 circumstances?
13 MR. CLARE: Objection to form and
14 incomplete hypothetical.
15 A. Just to put this in context, this
16 is an outline for a broader discussion, so I
17 guess I objected to your question which 18 implied trying not to review issues, when in 19 fact this second list appears to be a more
20 detailed outline that would guide a fuller
21 discussion.
22 So I don't recall the preparation
23 of it, but I just want to make sure the 24 context in which it is typically used is a
25 bit more clear.

Page 264

1 Q. I'm only inquiring about what I can
2 read in the documents, ma'am, and I'm trying
3 to understand the reasons for the
4 differences.
5 CPH Exhibit 33, the March 19th
6 version, indicates that there would be a
7 specific inquiry relating to Sunbeam's
8 expectations for the first half of 1998,
9 correct?
10 A. Correct.
11 Q. And CPH Exhibit No. 34 doesn't
12 contain that same specific reference,
13 correct?
14 A. Correct.
15 Q. And you can't explain that today,
16 correct?
17 A. Correct.
18 Q. Let me show you CPH Exhibit 35,
19 Ms. Porat. CPH Exhibit No. 35 is a March 23
20 1998 Morgan Stanley memorandum from John
21 Tyree, Johannes Groeller and Shanj Boone,
22 subject Sunbeam bring-down due diligence. Do
23 you see that?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Have you seen this document

Page 265

1 previously?
2 A. I don't recall if I have.
3 Q. Now, your name is not included in 4 the list of authors on this version of the
5 bring-down due diligence checklist, correct?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. Can you explain that?
8 A. No, I can't explain it.
9 Q. The March 23 bring-down due
10 diligence checklist does not include any
11 reference to making an inquiry of Sunbeam
12 relating to its expectations for the first
13 half of 1998, does it?
14 A. It does not.
15 Q. And it doesn't contain any
16 reference to making an inquiry concerning
17 Sunbeam's expectations for the second quarter
18 of 1998 either, does it?
19 A. I don't see the reference; a
20 reference to the second quarter.
21 Q. You may have just answered this,
22 and if you did I apologize. Have you seen
23 CPH 35 previously?
24 A. I don't recall if I have.
25 Q. Do you recall any involvement in

Page 266

1 its preparation?
2 A. I don't recall any involvement in
3 its preparation.
4 Q. Does seeing CPH 33, 34, or 35
5 refresh your recollection, Ms. Porat,
6 concerning your own personal involvement in
7 due diligence activities after the March 19th
8 press release was issued by Sunbeam?
9 A. No it doesn't change my
10 recollection.
11 Q. Ms. Porat, let me show you what we
12 previously marked as CPH Exhibit No. 112.
13 CPH Exhibit 112 is a letter from Arthur
14 Andersen to Morgan Stanley & Company Inc.
15 dated March 25, 1998. Do you see that?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Do you recognize this document?
18 A. No.
19 Q. March 25, 1998 is the date on which
20 the debenture offering closed, correct?
21 A. If you're telling me it did. I
22 don't recall when it closed.
23 Q. Ms. Porat, let me show you what I
24 will have the court reporter mark as CPH 380.
25 It is a three-page document bearing Sunbeam

Page 267

1 Bates No. SB 251292 to 94 and it's entitled
2 Sunbeam for immediate release, Sunbeam
3 Corporation announces successful private
4 placement of 750 million dollars of
5 convertible debentures.
6 (Plaintiff's Exhibit CPH 380,
7 Three-page document bearing Sunbeam
8 Bates No. SB 251292-94 entitled Sunbeam
9 For Immediate Release, marked for
10 identification, as of this date.)
11 Q. I'm only showing you this at the 12 moment, Ms. Porat, to establish the date of 13 the closing of the debenture offering. This
14 press release announces that the debenture
15 offering closed on March 25, 1998, correct?
16 A. Correct.
17 Q. The date of the Arthur Andersen
18 letter that I just provided you is March 25,
19 1998, correct, Ms. Porat?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. Would it be consistent with Morgan
22 Stanley's procedures to receive a bring-down
23 comfort letter from Sunbeam's auditors dated 24 as of the date of the closing of the 25 debenture offering?

Page 268

1 A. I actually don't know.
2 Q. Do you recognize CPH No. 112 as a
3 bring-down comfort letter?
4 A. It looks that way.
5 Q. What is a bring-down comfort
6 letter, ma'am?
7 A. It is something the auditors would
8 provide at the time of bring-down due
9 diligence prior, you know, in conjunction
10 with a pricing or a closing of a transaction.
11 Q. Among other things, the bring-down
12 comfort letter brings information relating to 13 the company's financial performance current 14 to the date of the closing of the 15 transaction, correct?
16 A. Correct.
17 Q. Let me direct your attention to the
18 second page of CPH Exhibit 112. This letter
19 reports Sunbeam's sales and earnings
20 performance through the first two months of 21 1998, does it not, Ms. Porat?
22 A. I'm sorry. Where are you?
23 Q. The second page of the letter.
24 A. Right.
25 Q. There is a table at the top. Do

Page 269

1 you see that?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And that table reports Sunbeam's
4 financial performance through the first two
5 months of 1998, correct?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. And it reports that Sunbeam's net
8 sales through March 1, 1998 are $72,018,000,
9 correct?
10 A. Correct.
11 Q. And it reports that Sunbeam's net
12 income for the first two months of 1998 is a
13 loss of $41,190,000, correct?
14 A. Correct.
15 Q. And those numbers compare to sales
16 of $143,499,000 through the first two months
17 of 1997, correct?
18 A. Correct.
19 Q. And earnings of $9,765,000 through 20 the first two months of 1997, correct?
21 A. Correct.
22 Q. So Sunbeam's sales for the first
23 two months of 1998, according to this letter,
24 are about half of what they had been in the 25 first two months of 1997, correct?

018314

Page 270

1 A. Correct.
2 Q. And its earnings have declined by
3 approximately 50 million dollars, correct?
4 A. Correct.
5 Q. From a profit of $9.7 million to a
6 loss of a little over $41 million, correct?
7 A. Correct.
8 Q. Now, the comfort letter identifies
9 one component of that $41 million loss in the 10 following paragraph, correct?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. It indicates that the company has
13 incurred a $30.2 million compensation charge
14 in February 1998 relating to new employment
15 agreements with certain officers of the
16 company?
17 A. Correct.
18 Q. Eliminating the effect of that
19 one-time expense, Ms. Porat, according to 20 this document Sunbeam had still lost
21 approximately $10 million in the first
22 quarter of -- first two months of 1998,
23 correct?
24 A. Correct.
25 Q. Compared to a profit of about 9.7

Page 271

1 million in the first two months of 1997,
2 correct?
3 A. Correct.
4 Q. A negative change of about $20
5 million in net earnings, correct?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. Were you aware of those facts at 8 the time the debenture offering closed on
9 March 25?
10 A. I don't recall if I was.
11 Q. Did you talk to Mr. Tyree or anyone
12 else to confirm that Morgan Stanley had 13 received a bring-down comfort letter from
14 Andersen?
15 A. I don't recall specifics around
16 that.
17 Q. Did Mr. Tyree report to you the
18 information contained in Arthur Andersen's
19 bring-down comfort letter relating to 20 Sunbeam's financial performance in the first
21 two months of 1998?
22 A. As I said, I don't recall
23 specifics.
24 Q. Was that a subject that you had 25 interest in, given your participation in the

Page 272

1 telephone conferences on March 18 leading to
2 the March 19th press release?
3 A. I'm sorry?
4 Q. Was that a subject in which you had
5 interest given your participation in the 6 events of March 18 that led to the issuance
7 of Sunbeam's March 19th press release?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. But as you sit here today you have
10 no recollection of being advised that Arthur
11 Andersen had informed Morgan Stanley on 12 March 25 that Sunbeam had lost approximately 13 $41 million in the first two months of the 14 quarter?
15 A. I don't recall being advised that a
16 problem -- there was a problem. And I don't
17 recall the specifics behind the discussion.
18 Q. You told me when we were together
19 last time, Ms. Porat, that you made it your
20 business on March 18 to gather the facts
21 relating to Sunbeam's sales situation in the 22 first quarter, correct?
23 A. Correct.
24 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of
25 the question.

Page 273

1 Q. You agree with me that's something
2 that you took upon yourself, correct?
3 A. Correct.
4 Q. After March 18 did you consider
5 yourself to have no further interest in that
6 issue?
7 A. I don't remember thinking about it
8 that way.
9 Q. Why didn't you make it your
10 business to find out what Sunbeam's
11 performance was after the -- after the 12 issuance of the March 19th press release and 13 prior to the closing of the debenture
14 offering on March 25?
15 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.
16 A. Because we had a due diligence team
17 that was proceeding to prosecute the business
18 the way corporate finance and execution teams
19 do.
20 Q. You left those matters in the hands
21 of other people then?
22 A. Yes. As I said it was not my
23 responsibility to be doing the due diligence.
24 Q. Do you have the March 25 Sunbeam
25 press release in front of you, CPH No. 380?

018315

Page 274

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. Take a moment to read it to
3 yourself, ma'am. Have you had an opportunity
4 to do that?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. This press release relates to the
7 part of the Sunbeam engagement that you were
8 personally involved in, correct?
9 A. It relates to the part that I was
10 personally? Yes.
11 Q. Did you have any involvement in 12 reviewing this press release before it was
13 issued?
14 A. I don't recall reviewing it.
15 Q. Do you believe you did not see this
16 press release before it was issued?
17 A. I don't recall if I did or I
18 didn't.
19 Q. You don't recall one way or the
20 other?
21 A. No I don't.
22 Q. There's nothing in this press
23 release, is there, Ms. Porat, relating to 24 Sunbeam having incurred a loss of something
25 in excess of $40 million in the first two

Page 275

1 months of 1998?
2 A. No, there's not.
3 Q. Would you agree with me that the
4 statements attributed to Mr. Dunlap continue
5 to be bullish with respect to the company's
6 performance and prospects?
7 MR. CLARE: Objection to form and
8 foundation.
9 A. Can you repeat your question?
10 Q. Would you agree with me the 11 comments attributed to Mr. Dunlap in the 12 March 25, 1998 press release continued to be 13 bullish with respect to the company's
14 performance and prospects?
15 MR. CLARE: I renew my objections
16 to form and foundation.
17 A. As I sit here and read it today, he 18 seems bullish about his vision, but I was 19 reading it to see if there was something more
20 specific.
21 Q. You agree with me there is nothing
22 negative in Mr. Dunlap's comments in this
23 press release, correct?
24 MR. CLARE: Same objections.
25 A. I don't see negative comments by

Page 276

1 Mr. Dunlap in this.
2 Q. Mr. Dunlap -- the press release
3 notes that the size of the debenture offering
4 has been increased to $750 million from the 5 originally planned 500 million offering,
6 correct?
7 A. Correct.
8 Q. And Mr. Dunlap cites that as
9 support for the public's view, investors'
10 view, of Sunbeam's success, correct?
11 MR. CLARE: Objection. Calls for
12 speculation as to -- other than what the 13 statement is on the page.
14 Q. Do you agree with me?
15 A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat your
16 question?
17 Q. Mr. Dunlap cites as evidence of the 18 public's support for Sunbeam's success the 19 fact that the debenture offering was 20 increased from $500 million to $750 million?
21 MR. CLARE: Same objection.
22 A. As I just said the last time you
23 asked me that, I think you're basically
24 confusing the term vision and prospects.
25 What he says here is a high level

Page 277

1 of confidence in Sunbeam's strategic
2 direction. It's not a comment about
3 financial performance.
4 Q. And its prospects for the future,
5 correct?
6 A. Right.
7 Q. And Mr. Dunlap cites the fact that
8 the debenture offering was oversubscribed,
9 correct, as the reason why the size of the 10 offering was increased from 500 million to 11 $750 million?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. And he refers to that as the
14 overwhelming response of the investment
15 community to the offering, correct?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. And he states that that
18 overwhelming response reflects a high level
19 of confidence in Sunbeam's strategic
20 direction and its prospects for the future,
21 correct?
22 A. Correct.
23 Q. No reference to the fact that
24 Sunbeam had lost $40 million in the first two
25 months of 1998, correct?

14 (Pages 274 to 277)

018316

Page 278

1 A. Correct.
2 Q. No reference to the fact that
3 Sunbeam's sales in the first two months of 4 1998 were half of what they had been in the
5 first two months of 1997, correct?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. Morgan Stanley knew those facts at 8 the time this press release was issued,
9 correct?
10 MR. CLARE: Objection. Foundation.
11 There is none.
12 You can answer if you can.
13 A. Well, based on the bring-down
14 comfort letter from Arthur Andersen, people
15 within Morgan Stanley were aware of the sales
16 trends, et cetera, and from the diligence
17 discussion then that we had had prior to the 18 pricing, we were aware of the sales trends
19 even beyond what was in this letter.
20 Q. Morgan Stanley knew based on, if
21 nothing else, the March 25 letter it received
22 from Arthur Andersen that Sunbeam had lost
23 approximately $41 million in the first two
24 months of 1998, correct?
25 MR. CLARE: Same objection;

Page 279

1 foundation.
2 A. When you keep using the term Morgan
3 Stanley as a blanket I'm uncomfortable. I'm
4 not sure what implication that has. As you
5 said, as I said, the team members involved in
6 bring-down diligence were aware of this.
7 Q. They were aware that Sunbeam, if no
8 other source than this March 25 letter from 9 Arthur Andersen, had lost in excess of
10 $40 million in the first two months of 1998,
11 correct?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. The members of Morgan Stanley's
14 Sunbeam team knew that, correct?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. You don't recall personally being
17 aware of it, correct?
18 A. I don't recall.
19 Q. You may have been; it's just that
20 you're not certain today?
21 A. That's correct.
22 Q. Between the closing of the 23 debenture offering on March 25, Ms. Porat,
24 and the closing of Sunbeam's acquisition of 25 my client's interest in Coleman Company on

Page 280

1 March 30, did you have any involvement in any
2 aspect of any work being done by Morgan
3 Stanley for Sunbeam?
4 A. I don't recall having involvement.
5 Q. Ms. Porat, do you recall whether on
6 March 18 or March 19th, or any date before
7 the closing of the debenture offering on 8 March 25, participating in any discussions at 9 Morgan Stanley concerning whether it would be 10 prudent to postpone the closing of the 11 debenture offering?
12 A. I don't recall a discussion about
13 postponing the closing.
14 Q. Did you raise that as a possibility
15 with anyone at any point?
16 A. I don't recall raising it.
17 Q. Do you believe you did not?
18 A. I don't think I did. I don't
19 recall doing it.
20 Q. Did anyone suggest that as an 21 alternative that Morgan Stanley should
22 consider in your presence?
23 A. I don't recall a discussion about a
24 postponed closing.
25 Q. Did Mr. Strong ever raise that as a

Page 281

1 possibility?
2 A. I don't recall if he did.
3 Q. Is that something that occurred to
4 you as something to consider?
5 MR. CLARE: Objection. Asked and
6 answered.
7 Q. It's a different question. I want
8 to make sure I'm clear if Mr. Clare didn't
9 perceive the difference.
10 I asked you previously whether or
11 not you made the suggestion to anyone, and 12 I'm asking you now not whether you made the 13 suggestion, but whether you considered it?
14 A. I don't recall considering it.
15 Q. So you gave no consideration to
16 Morgan Stanley postponing the March 25
17 closing of the debenture offering despite the 18 information that came to your attention
19 during the course of the conversations you
20 were involved in on March 18?
21 MR. CLARE: Objection. Misstates
22 the testimony, and argumentative.
23 Q. Is that correct?
24 A. As I have said, I don't recall
25 whether I considered postponing the closing.

010317

Page 282

1 Q. In any event, you don't believe you
2 made that suggestion to anyone, correct?
3 A. I don't believe I did, but I don't
4 honestly recall.
5 Q. Ms. Porat, let me show you what we
6 previously marked as CPH Exhibit 36. The 7 cover page is a fax to William Strong, James
8 Stynes, Robert Kitts and John Tyree from
9 David Fannin at Sunbeam, and it attaches a
10 Sunbeam press release dated April 3, 1997.
11 Actually -- I read it correctly. It is dated
12 April 3, 1997, but I believe that the record
13 will show it was issued on April 3, 1998.
14 A. When there is a convenient break
15 point, if we could break.
16 Q. If you want to take a break before
17 we spend a little time with this exhibit,
18 that would be fine with me.
19 A. As you prefer.
20 Q. That's fine.
21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is
22 2:27, and we're going off the record.
23 (Recess taken.)
24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
25 2:38, and we are back on the record.

Page 283

1 Q. Ms. Porat, I do have Exhibit CPH 36
2 in front of you?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And you see the first page is a fax
5 cover page from David Fannin dated April 3,
6 1998, and it's directed to four people at 7 Morgan Stanley: William Strong, James
8 Stynes, Robert Kitts and John Tyree.
9 Correct?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. And in the fax cover sheet
12 Mr. Fannin advises Mr. Strong, Mr. Stynes,
13 Mr. Kitts and Mr. Tyree that the company will 14 be issuing a press release shortly, and he
15 attaches a copy of that press release. Do
16 you see that?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Did Mr. Strong or Mr. Stynes or
19 Mr. Kitts or Mr. Tyree share this fax with 20 you when they received it from Mr. Fannin on 21 April 3?
22 A. I don't recall if they did. I
23 don't recall one way or the other.
24 Q. Did you at some point see Sunbeam's
25 April 3 announcement?

Page 284

1 A. I believe I did.
2 Q. Among other things, the April 3
3 announcement advises that Sunbeam now expects
4 that its first quarter 1998 sales will be,
5 quote, somewhat below 1997 levels, close
6 quote. Do you see that?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And it also indicates that the 9 company now expects to realize a loss in the 10 first quarter of 1998. Do you see that?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Do you know what analysts'
13 expectations were as of March 31, 1998 for 14 Sunbeam's first quarter earnings?
15 A. I don't recall.
16 Q. That's something you would have
17 been aware of at the time correct?
18 A. Probably.
19 Q. You testified previously that it
20 was important to the debenture offering that 21 Sunbeam continued to hit its numbers in the 22 first quarter correct?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. I'm sorry, did you tell me at some
25 point you saw Sunbeam's announcement?

Page 285

1 A. I believe I did.
2 Q. How did you see it?
3 A. I remember an announcement. I
4 can't remember if it was this one or some
5 subsequent news that -- across the tape. I
6 don't remember receiving a document like
7 this, but I remember, when there was some bad
8 news, being very surprised.
9 Q. What did you do?
10 A. I don't recall one way or the
11 other. I just remember being surprised.
12 Q. At that point did you have any
13 continuing work-related responsibilities
14 concerning Sunbeam?
15 A. I don't believe I did.
16 Q. After you saw some Sunbeam
17 announcement that surprised you with its bad
18 news, do you recall doing anything?
19 A. I don't recall.
20 Q. Do you recall having any
21 conversations with any members of the Sunbeam
22 team at Morgan Stanley concerning the bad
23 news that you saw?
24 A. I don't recall one way or the
25 other.

018318

Page 286

1 Q. Did you have any conversations with
2 anyone within Morgan Stanley management
3 relating to the bad news announcement that 4 you saw?
5 A. I don't recall discussions.
6 Q. Who was your boss at the time?
7 A. Richard Kauffman.
8 Q. Did you have any conversations with
9 Mr. Kauffman?
10 A. I don't recall.
11 Q. You did have a conversation, you
12 testified to previously I believe, that you
13 had a conversation with Mr. Kauffman before
14 the March 19th press release was issued,
15 correct?
16 A. Correct.
17 Q. You don't recall any subsequent
18 conversation with him when Sunbeam announced
19 the bad news that you referred to?
20 A. I don't recall.
21 Q. Were you angry when you saw the 22 Sunbeam announcement that you just referred
23 to?
24 A. It's probably a fair description.
25 Q. What did you do about it?

Page 287

1 A. I don't recall.
2 Q. Did you complain to anyone at
3 Sunbeam?
4 A. As I said, I don't recall.
5 Q. As you sit here today you can't
6 remember having any conversations -- let me
7 ask a broader question.
8 Do you recall that there was a
9 series of bad news announcements that Sunbeam
10 made after the closing of its acquisition of 11 my client's interest in Coleman Company?
12 A. No. I was careful when I answered
13 this. I don't remember what specifically I
14 was referring to when I said I remember some 15 bad news crossing the tape. So I don't 16 recall if there were others -- if there was 17 something other than this.
18 Q. Do you recall that by June 15 the 19 Sunbeam board had terminated Al Dunlap?
20 A. I recall at some point they did.
21 Q. Do you recall that during that 22 period of time from the closing of the
23 acquisition of my client's interest in
24 Coleman Company until the termination of 25 Mr. Dunlap in the middle of June 1998, that

Page 288

1 Sunbeam's stock price took a precipitous
2 drop?
3 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of
4 the question.
5 A. I don't recall.
6 Q. Were you paying any attention to
7 Sunbeam's stock price during that period of
8 time?
9 MR. CLARE: Same objection.
10 A. I assume I was, but I don't recall
11 what happened.
12 Q. You don't recall Sunbeam's stock
13 price dropping substantially from March 30 or 14 March 31, 1998 until the time that Mr. Dunlap
15 was terminated?
16 MR. CLARE: Same objection.
17 A. I just answered it.
18 Q. I'm sorry, your answer is what?
19 A. I don't.
20 Q. Were you involved in any internal
21 discussions at Morgan Stanley at any time
22 between the closing of Sunbeam's acquisition
23 of my client's interest in Coleman Company
24 and Mr. Dunlap's termination by the board of 25 directors of Sunbeam Corporation to --

Page 289

1 concerning what was going on at Sunbeam
2 Corporation during that time period?
3 A. I don't recall if I was, but that's
4 not to say that I wasn't. I don't recall.
5 Q. Do you remember being given any
6 responsibility to try to gather facts
7 relating to those circumstances?
8 A. I don't.
9 Q. Do you remember being briefed by
10 anyone at Morgan Stanley relating to those 11 circumstances?
12 A. I don't recall.
13 Q. During that time period, did you
14 field any complaints from investors that had
15 purchased the Sunbeam convertible debentures?
16 A. I don't recall getting complaints
17 directly to me.
18 Q. Do you know if there were
19 complaints?
20 A. I don't know.
21 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley took
22 any actions during that time period or 23 subsequently to appease investors who
24 purchased the Sunbeam convertible debentures?
25 A. I don't know.

018319

Page 290

1 Q. You don't know one way or the
2 other?
3 A. I don't know one way or the other.
4 Q. Did anyone make it known to you at
5 some point, Ms. Porat, that investors in the 6 convertible debenture offering were unhappy
7 about their investment?
8 A. I don't recall any discussions.
9 I'm not saying they didn't. I just don't
10 recall.
11 Q. Did anyone advise you that the
12 purchasers of the Sunbeam convertible
13 debentures -- any of them were unhappy with
14 Morgan Stanley?
15 A. I don't recall hearing that.
16 Q. Morgan Stanley was the underwriter
17 of that offering, correct?
18 A. Correct.
19 Q. The sole underwriter, correct?
20 A. I believe that's right.
21 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley
22 repurchased any of the debentures from anyone
23 who complained after the problems at Sunbeam
24 began to emerge?
25 MR. CLARE: Objection. Foundation.

Page 291

1 A. I don't know.
2 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley paid
3 any money to any of the debenture investors?
4 A. I don't know if they did.
5 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley
6 offered to give them anything else of value
7 to appease their unhappiness?
8 MR. CLARE: Same objection.
9 A. I don't know.
10 Q. Ms. Porat, at any time before the
11 closing on March 30, 1998 of Sunbeam's
12 acquisition of my client's interest in
13 Coleman Company, did you suggest to anyone
14 that any of the factual information being
15 shared with you or with others at Morgan
16 Stanley relating to the problems that Sunbeam
17 was experiencing in the first quarter of 1998
18 be shared with my client?
19 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.
20 A. I don't recall any discussions.
21 Q. You don't recall making that
22 suggestion to anyone?
23 A. I don't recall.
24 Q. Did anyone make that suggestion in 25 your presence?

Page 292

1 A. I don't recall hearing that.
2 Q. Mr. Strong never made that
3 suggestion to you, I take it?
4 MR. CLARE: Objection. Asked and
5 answered.
6 Q. Is that correct?
7 A. I said I didn't recall any
8 conversations along those lines.
9 Q. Ms. Porat, after the convertible
10 debenture offering closed on March 25, 1998,
11 what did you do with materials that were in 12 your possession at that point relating to 13 that transaction?
14 A. I don't recall Sunbeam
15 specifically, but what I have done my entire
16 career is when a transaction is priced, I
17 retain only maybe the selling memo and the 18 prospectus. But if there was anything else,
19 I never would keep it, because there was no
20 need to.
21 Q. You would throw anything else you
22 had away?
23 A. Consistently. So I don't recall on
24 this one, but I would assume I did what I
25 always do.

Page 293

1 Q. So it's your best recollection that
2 as of March 19th, when the Sunbeam
3 convertible debenture offering was priced,
4 that you would have thrown away any materials
5 you had relating to your involvement in that
6 transaction except for the offering
7 memorandum?
8 MR. CLARE: Objection. Misstates
9 the testimony. You can answer.
10 A. I don't recall specifically on this
11 one. All I was giving you is what I do at 12 the completion of any transaction, is when 13 it's priced, throw everything out other than 14 the offering memorandum and maybe the selling
15 memo.
16 Q. Was there a point in this case --
17 was there a point, Ms. Porat, when you were 18 asked by someone at Morgan Stanley to gather
19 any materials that you had relating to the 20 work you were involved in concerning Sunbeam?
21 A. I hate to speculate, but I would
22 assume so. But I don't remember it.
23 Q. Do you remember if you had anything
24 other than the offering memorandum?
25 A. If I did, anything I would have had 018320

Page 294

1 would have gone directly to legal.
2 Q. But, consistent with your practice,
3 it's likely that the only thing you would
4 have had at that point, if you followed your
5 practice, is the offering memorandum?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. Ms. Porat, in connection with the
8 work that you were doing on the debenture
9 offering, did you read any analyst reports
10 concerning Sunbeam?
11 A. I don't recall if I did.
12 Q. Would you have, during the time
13 period where the transaction was under way,
14 and before the closing, made it your business
15 to obtain any available current analyst
16 reports concerning Sunbeam, or is that
17 something you wouldn't typically do?
18 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.
19 A. Not necessarily.
20 Q. Well, that was a good objection,
21 then, because now I don't know what your
22 answer means. So let me rephrase it. I
23 asked a poor question.
24 Would it have been your practice,
25 in connection with the work you were doing

Page 295

1 relating to the Sunbeam convertible debenture
2 offering and the marketing of those
3 securities, to monitor any analyst reports
4 that were then being issued relating to
5 Sunbeam; issued during that time period?
6 A. Not necessarily, I think is the 7 right response.
8 Q. After the March 19th press release
9 was issued -- that's a press release that you
10 were involved in reviewing before it was 11 released, correct?
12 A. That's the date of the press
13 release you showed me last time?
14 Q. Yes. I can show it to you again if 15 you would like.
16 A. That's fine. If it's the one press
17 release we discussed last time, if that was 18 the date, then yes.
19 Q. After the press release was issued,
20 did you review the analyst reports that were 21 issued concerning that press release?
22 A. I don't recall if I did.
23 Q. Ms. Porat, I would like to take a
24 short break and we may be done with this
25 portion of your job here today.

4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
5 3:03, and we are back on the record.
6 Q. Ms. Porat, I'm going to show you a
7 document that we've previously marked as
8 CPH Exhibit 377. It's an April 26, 1999
9 article from the New Yorker magazine
10 entitled, "The Woman in the Bubble, How Mary
11 Meeker Helps Internet Entrepreneurs Become 12 Very, Very Rich," by John Cassidy.
13 You've seen that article before,
14 have you not, Ms. Porat?
15 A. Yes I have.
16 Q. It talks about you, does it not?
17 A. It does.
18 Q. Let me direct your attention to the
19 fifth page of the exhibit. Are you there?
20 There is a paragraph that begins in the 21 left-hand column with the words, "Morgan
22 Stanley could have," do you see that?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. I'll read a couple of sentences to 25 you, ma'am. It reads, quote, "Morgan Stanley

Page 297

1 could have made more money by being less
2 selective, but Meeker and her colleagues say
3 that big-money investors tend to rely on the
4 firm's seal of approval." Quote, "If Morgan
5 Stanley has its name on it, investors assume
6 it's better than Schlock Incorporated," close
7 quote, "Joe Perella, the head of Morgan's
8 Corporate Finance Department, mused."
9 Do you see that statement?
10 A. I do.
11 Q. Do you agree with Mr. -- the quote
12 attributed to Mr. Perella?
13 MR. CLARE: I object to the form of
14 the question.
15 A. I agree that if Morgan Stanley has
16 its name on it, investors assume it's better
17 than Schlock Incorporated.
18 Q. That's your personal feeling,
19 correct?
20 A. Yes.
21 MR. MARKOWSKI: I have no further
22 questions for Ms. Porat.
23 MR. CLARE: I don't have any
24 questions for Ms. Porat.
25 MR. MARKOWSKI: The personal

 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
 3 3:05, and that concludes the deposition,
 4 and we are off the record.

1 BLAINE V. FOGG, having been
2 first duly sworn by the Notary Public,
3 testified as follows:
4 EXAMINATION BY
5 MR. BEMIS:
6 Q. Good morning, Mr. Fogg. My name is
7 Larry Bemis. I'm with the law firm of
8 Kirkland & Ellis, and I represent Morgan
9 Stanley. Sitting on my right is Kathryn
10 DeBord-Rothman, hyphenated, just recently
11 married. And she will be assisting me in the 12 deposition. She's also an attorney in my
13 office.
14 Would you state your full name for 15 the jury, please.
16 A. Blaine V. Fogg.
17 Q. And where do you live, Mr. Fogg?
18 A. Right now, I live in Paris.
19 Q. Where do you live in Paris?
20 A. I live at 6, Rue, R-U-E, D-E,
21 L'Abbaye, L, apostrophe, A-B-B-A-Y-E, 75006
22 Paris, France.
23 Q. Which arrondissement is that in?
24 A. Sixth.
25 Q. Do you have a residence in New York

Page 7

1 as well?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And what is your address in
4 New York?
5 A. 1185 Park Avenue.
6 Q. What is -- what is your ZIP code
7 there?
8 A. 10128.
9 Q. Are you employed today by the law
10 firm of Skadden Arps?
11 A. I am.
12 Q. And how long have you been employed
13 by Skadden Arps?
14 A. I started at Skadden Arps in 1966.
15 I was employed until I became a partner. Then
16 I was a partner until October 1st of this
17 year.
18 Q. Are you of counsel to the firm now?
19 A. I am.
20 Q. Do you maintain a business address
21 in Paris?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And where is that?
24 A. That's 68, Rue Du, D-U, Faubourg,
25 F-A-U-B-O-U-R-G, St.-Honore, H-O-N-O-R-E. And

Page 8

1 that is in the eighth arrondissement.
2 Q. Do you plan to have an office here
3 in New York, being of counsel to Skadden Arps?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And what is your office address here
6 in New York?
7 A. 4 Times Square, in this very
8 building.
9 Q. As I understand, then, you have been
10 of counsel since October of this year?
11 A. Correct.
12 Q. Would that be October of 2004?
13 I wanted to ask you to step back a
14 few years from 2004 and turn to 1997 and 1998.
15 Can your memory go back that far for me?
16 A. I'll try.
17 Q. In 1997, were you a partner resident
18 in the New York office of Skadden Arps?
19 A. 1997? Yes, I was.
20 Q. When did you take up residency in
21 Paris?
22 A. In Paris?
23 Q. Yes.
24 A. This year, October.
25 Q. Just this year in October?

Page 9

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. In 1990 -- withdrawn.
3 You're familiar with the
4 Coleman/Sunbeam merger transaction, aren't
5 you, sir?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. In that transaction, did Skadden
8 Arps act as an attorney for Sunbeam
9 Corporation?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. And what was your position
12 relative -- withdrawn.
13 Were you the lead attorney for
14 Sunbeam in that transaction?
15 A. I was the lead mergers and
16 acquisitions attorney, yes.
17 Q. And tell the jury what mergers and 18 acquisitions is. 018338
19 A. Companies buying other companies.
20 Q. And selling other companies?
21 A. And selling other companies and
22 merging with other companies.
23 Q. You --
24 A. And doing joint ventures with other
25 companies. It takes in a lot of territory.

Page 10

1 Q. You, in your capacity as an attorney
2 for Sunbeam Corporation, addressed the board
3 of directors of Sunbeam Corporation at the 4 time the merger agreements were approved by
5 the board of directors, correct?
6 A. I don't think that's correct.
7 Q. Did you attend the board of
8 directors meeting of Sunbeam Corporation when
9 the merger was approved?
10 A. I did.
11 Q. And did you -- and is it your
12 recollection you did not speak at the meeting?
13 A. I honestly don't recall. I probably
14 did, but I don't recall.
15 Q. Would the minutes, in your view, if
16 they reflected that you spoke, be an accurate
17 reflection of what transpired?
18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
19 A. I don't recall, so I don't know how
20 to answer that question.
21 Q. Okay. We'll get to it a little bit
22 later.
23 Setting aside the meeting, you were
24 involved, as well, in the issuance of a press
25 release of Sunbeam Corporation dated on or

Page 11

1 about March 19, 1998, were you not?
2 A. I was involved in the events leading
3 up to the issuance of that press release, yes.
4 Q. And you -- at the time that you were
5 involved in those events, you were
6 representing Sunbeam Corporation, correct?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Following the issuance of the 9 March 19th, 1998 press release, you were also 10 involved with the -- an investigation of
11 events at Sunbeam Corporation following
12 Mr. Dunlap's termination, were you not?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. And did you participate in the 15 investigation and the eventual preparation of 16 a report to the board of directors of Sunbeam
17 Corporation about those events?
18 A. I'm not sure what you mean by 19 participate. I certainly reviewed it and 20 drafts of it. I was not one of the 21 draftspersons of it.
22 Q. But you did see the report before it
23 was finally issued; is that fair?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. And you did attend board meetings of

Page 12

1 Sunbeam Corporation in 1998 while this
2 investigation was ongoing, did you not?
3 A. I did.
4 Q. Is there any part of -- withdrawn.
5 Did you have any participation in
6 the debenture offering that was part of the 7 financing of the Sunbeam transaction
8 debenture? Let me withdraw the question. It
9 was a little too broad.
10 Skadden Arps did represent Sunbeam
11 as counsel in connection with Sunbeam's
12 debenture offering in 1998; is that right?
13 A. Correct.
14 Q. And that -- did you participate as 15 an attorney in any of the drafting of the 16 documentation for the debenture offering?
17 A. I don't believe I did, no.
18 Q. Did you review any of it before it
19 was finalized?
20 A. I don't believe I did, but I don't
21 specifically recall.
22 Q. If you -- who at Skadden Arps was --
23 withdrawn.
24 Was there one attorney, one partner
25 at Skadden Arps who had responsibility for

Page 13

1 Skadden's work in connection with the Sunbeam
2 debenture offer?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Who was that?
5 A. Greg Fericola, F-E-R-N-I-C-O-L-A.
6 Q. My understanding is that you have
7 been deposed on at least one occasion in your
8 life; is that fair?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And you were deposed in this action,
11 I think, during the arbitration proceeding
12 involved Mr. Dunlap and Mr. Kersh?
13 MR. MALLOY: Object to the form.
14 A. Not this action.
15 Q. I may have misspoken.
16 You were involved in an arbitration
17 proceeding relating to Mr. Dunlap and
18 Mr. Kersh, were you not, as a witness?
19 A. I was deposed in that proceeding,
20 yes.
21 Q. Right. In preparation for your 22 deposition today, did you review your
23 transcript in that proceeding?
24 A. I did read it, yes.
25 Q. When did you do that?

018339

Page 14

1 A. I read it in Paris about a week or
2 10 days ago.
3 Q. Let me show you a copy of the
4 transcript that I have and ask if that's a
5 transcript of the proceeding -- of your
6 deposition.
7 A. The copy that I read in Paris had
8 some missing pages.
9 Q. I think mine --
10 MR. MALLOY: Sounds like I might be
11 in trouble.
12 THE WITNESS: No.
13 Q. Let me hand you what the reporter
14 will mark for me as Morgan
15 Stanley Exhibit 529.
16 (Defendant's Exhibit 529, Transcript
17 of deposition of Blaine V. Fogg taken on 18 6/16/20, marked for identification, as of
19 this date.)
20 Q. I've handed you, Mr. Fogg, a copy of 21 what I understand to be your deposition taken
22 on June 16, 2000 in what I referred to as the 23 arbitration proceeding.
24 Do you have that in front of you?
25 A. I do.

Page 15

1 Q. Now, is this a copy of the
2 deposition transcript, albeit, I hope, with
3 all of the pages that you reviewed in Paris
4 before you came here for your deposition?
5 A. It appears to be the same document.
6 Q. At the time that you gave your
7 deposition on June 16th of 2000, did you
8 review it after -- after it was taken -- well,
9 withdrawn.
10 After your deposition was taken on
11 June 16, 2000 and before you did your review
12 in Paris for your deposition here, did you
13 read the deposition for corrections or errors
14 or transcript changes?
15 A. I believe so, yes.
16 Q. Did you make any changes in the 17 deposition, that you can recall?
18 A. I don't remember.
19 Q. In your review of the deposition in 20 Paris before you came here for your deposition
21 in New York, did you find any errors in the 22 transcript?
23 A. I honestly read it rather quickly,
24 but, no, I didn't find any -- nothing jumped
25 out at me.

Page 16

1 Q. At the time that you -- at the time
2 you gave your deposition on June 16, 2000, the
3 transcript reflects that you were under oath;
4 is that correct?
5 A. I believe I was.
6 Q. The same oath, in effect, that you
7 took here today, right?
8 A. I believe it was substantially
9 similar, yes.
10 Q. In preparation for your deposition,
11 other -- in preparation for your deposition,
12 did you read any other documents -- well,
13 withdrawn.
14 Did you read your deposition, Morgan
15 Stanley Exhibit 529, to refresh your 16 recollection about events in 1997 and 1998 and 17 even thereafter?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And did it help you?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Did you look at any other documents
22 in preparation for your deposition here today?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And did they help you refresh your
25 recollection about events at that time period?

Page 17

1 A. I'm trying to remember what
2 documents I saw.
3 MR. MALLOY: He's entitled to ask
4 you which documents actually refreshed
5 your recollection. But, otherwise, he's 6 not entitled to inquire into what you
7 looked at. So, just limit your answer
8 with that concept in mind.
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Please tell me what documents you
11 reviewed that refreshed your recollection.
12 A. Well, I do recall reviewing a draft
13 of the Sunbeam March 19, 1998 press release
14 which refreshed my recollection.
15 Q. Now, did the draft -- did the draft
16 of the press release that you reviewed in 17 preparation for your deposition have any 18 indication on whether it had been prepared at 19 Skadden Arps' offices, such as a footer at the 20 bottom indicating a word processing source?
21 A. I didn't notice. I don't remember.
22 Q. Okay. We'll get to that later.
23 Did you -- what other documents did
24 you review that refreshed your recollection?
25 A. That refreshed my recollection?

018340

Page 18

1 MR. MALLOY: Meaning that it caused
2 you to recall something that you hadn't
3 previously recalled.
4 A. I saw some documents that I hadn't
5 seen before and, therefore, they didn't
6 refresh my recollection.
7 MR. MALLOY: He's not entitled to
8 know what those were.
9 THE WITNESS: I understand.
10 MR. BEMIS: Okay. Could I
11 respectfully not have a -- I'm not -- I
12 understand what you're doing, but not
13 have dialog. If there's an objection,
14 put it on --
15 MR. MALLOY: You're probing into
16 privileged areas, and I'm making sure
17 that the witness answers appropriately.
18 MR. BEMIS: I'm sure you had an 19 opportunity to prep Mr. Fogg before he 20 came today and I don't want to get
21 contentious, I know we have a short
22 amount of time to get this done, so we'll
23 try to get it done.
24 A. I don't really recall whether any of 25 the documents I looked at refreshed my

Page 19

1 recollection or not. I really can't say,
2 sitting here today.
3 Q. Did you see the -- did you see, for 4 example, the merger agreements between
5 Sunbeam, Coleman and the various MacAndrews &
6 Forbes companies?
7 MR. MALLOY: Are you asking if he
8 saw them and they refreshed his
9 recollection, or are you asking if he saw
10 them? Because I'm going to instruct him
11 not to answer the question if it's the 12 latter.
13 MR. BEMIS: Let me rephrase the
14 question.
15 Q. Did you see -- did you see the 16 merger agreements between Sunbeam, Coleman and 17 the MacAndrews & Forbes entities and various 18 other corporations in the course of your
19 preparation, and did you -- did they refresh
20 your recollection about events of the matter?
21 MR. MALLOY: Well --
22 A. The answer is no.
23 THE WITNESS: Sorry.
24 Q. Did you review -- withdrawn.
25 Did you see the complaint in this

Page 20

1 action that's been brought against Morgan
2 Stanley?
3 A. No, I didn't.
4 Q. Did you read -- see any deposition
5 transcripts from other witnesses who have been 6 deposed either in this proceeding or in
7 earlier proceedings involving Sunbeam?
8 A. No, I didn't.
9 Q. In preparation for -- withdrawn.
10 Have you given any interviews, other
11 than to your attorneys, about the matters in 12 controversy between Morgan Stanley and the 13 MacAndrews & Forbes companies that we are here
14 about today?
15 A. No.
16 Q. You've not spoken to anybody at
17 Mr. Solovy's office, for example?
18 A. No, no one.
19 Q. Have you spoken to anyone, other
20 than your attorneys, about the lawsuit that 21 you are here giving a deposition on?
22 A. I mentioned it to my wife.
23 Q. We'll exclude your wife.
24 A. I don't think so.
25 Q. Okay. I know you do maintain a

Page 21

1 residence in Paris and you told us you have
2 one in New York. You are still a U.S.
3 citizen, right?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And where do you -- where -- are you
6 registered to vote in the United States?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. In what state?
9 A. New York.
10 Q. Do you -- do you have a driver's
11 license in the United States?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Where is that issued?
14 A. New York.
15 Q. And how much time do you spend --
16 how much time do you spend -- well, withdrawn
17 Recognizing that you only moved to 18 Paris, I understand, in October, not a very 19 long period of time, how -- how do you plan on 20 allocating your time between the United States
21 and New York?
22 A. Well, I have no plan. I mean, I
23 will be where I need to be when I need to be
24 there.
25 Q. How often have you come back to the 018341

Page 22

1 United States since you went to -- went to
2 Paris in October of 2004?
3 A. Twice.
4 Q. Twice.
5 Is this the second time?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Does your wife reside with you in
8 Paris?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And does she reside with you in 11 New York when you come to New York?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. And do you -- one last question on
14 this. Do you -- do you pay -- do you pay
15 income taxes in the state of New York?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Do you pay city income taxes?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Do you receive -- do you receive
20 mail at your address in New York City?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Where do you consider your -- to be 23 your legal residence, or if you prefer, your 24 domicile today, New York or Paris?
25 MR. MALLOY: Calls for a legal

Page 23

1 conclusion. You can ask him the facts
2 about his -- what you seem -- about
3 his --
4 MR. BEMIS: He can answer the
5 question.
6 MR. MALLOY: -- domicile and you
7 seem to have done that.
8 MR. BEMIS: Well, I'm trying to --
9 he can answer the question subject to 10 your objection, of course.
11 DI MR. MALLOY: He's not here to answer
12 legal questions, so I'll instruct him not
13 to answer.
14 MR. BEMIS: Well --
15 Q. Just so we can get this clear, I'll
16 only ask it one time. If counsel tells you
17 not to answer a question, Mr. Fogg, are you
18 going to follow those instructions?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Now, if I understood you correctly,
21 you started work at Skadden Arps in 1966, I
22 think you said; is that right?
23 A. That's correct.
24 Q. Did you go -- did you join the firm
25 right out of law school?

Page 24

1 A. No.
2 Q. What did you -- where did you go to
3 law school?
4 A. Harvard Law School.
5 Q. And when did you graduate?
6 A. 1965.
7 Q. And what did you do between 1965 and
8 when you started at Skadden?
9 A. I worked for another law firm.
10 Q. And then -- have you continuously
11 worked for Skadden, then, since 1966?
12 A. Yes, I have.
13 Q. And how long -- withdrawn.
14 When did you become -- I forgot to 15 ask you, how old are you?
16 A. 64.
17 Q. When did you become a partner at
18 Skadden?
19 A. I believe it was 1971.
20 Q. And --
21 A. Maybe '72. I'm just -- '71 or '72.
22 Q. It won't make a difference today
23 whether it's '71 or '72. Either one is fine.
24 During -- during your practice as a
25 partner, has your area of practice been

Page 25

1 mergers and acquisitions, as you described it
2 earlier?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Has that been true -- was it true
5 continuously from 1971 even up until today?
6 A. Yes, pretty much.
7 Q. Even though you are of counsel
8 today, do you -- do you work a full -- a
9 full-time schedule for the firm?
10 A. I work full-time.
11 Q. In 19 -- in 1997 and 1998, did you
12 consider yourself a specialist in mergers and
13 acquisitions?
14 A. In 1997 and 1998?
15 Q. '98.
16 A. '98.
17 Q. The time of the Sunbeam/Coleman
18 transaction we'll be talking about today.
19 A. Yes. Specialist?
20 Q. Specialist.
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Did you consider yourself highly
23 respected in the field of mergers and
24 acquisitions?
25 A. I hope so, yes.

018342

Page 26

1 Q. When was the first time that you met
2 Mr. Dunlap, Albert Dunlap, former chairman and
3 chief executive officer of Sunbeam
4 Corporation?
5 A. To the best of my recollection, it
6 was in the 1980s, probably the first half of 7 the 1980s.
8 Q. What were the circumstances under
9 which you met him?
10 A. He went to work for a client named
11 Sir James Goldsmith, for whom I did a lot of 12 work.
13 Q. And could you just tell the jury
14 very briefly who Sir James Goldsmith was?
15 A. He was -- he's now deceased. He was 16 a European entrepreneur, who, during this time
17 period, acquired several U.S. companies
18 through a holding company of his.
19 Q. And what was -- what was -- what 20 were the circumstances precisely under which 21 you met Mr. Dunlap in connection with 22 Mr. Goldsmith?
23 A. I don't have a precise recollection
24 of a circumstance in which I met Mr. Dunlap,
25 but it was -- he was hired by Mr. Goldsmith

Page 27

1 following Goldsmith's acquisition of Crown
2 Zellebach, a Forest Products company, based on
3 the West Coast.
4 Q. What, if anything, did you do --
5 well, strike that.
6 Did you do any legal work for
7 Mr. Dunlap while he was working for Mr. Sir
8 James Goldsmith?
9 A. For him personally?
10 Q. No, no. In his capacity as an
11 employee of Mr. Goldsmith.
12 A. Yes, I did do work for Goldsmith or 13 his holding companies in which Mr. Dunlap has 14 worked.
15 Q. What kind of work?
16 A. Transactions in which -- I
17 represented Goldsmith and his companies in 18 transactions in which we sold off -- he sold
19 off pieces of Crown Zellebach.
20 Other transactions including a
21 transaction in which he swapped some assets
22 for a big stake in the equity of a company
23 called Hanson Industries, I believe.
24 Subsequent transactions which never
25 took place but which Goldsmith and other

Page 28

1 parties tried to take over a British company
2 called BAT. Mr. Dunlap was involved in that
3 aborted effort.
4 MR. MALLOY: If I could just
5 interrupt briefly. I'm sure Mr. Bemis
6 doesn't want you to testify about any
7 confidential matters you might have
8 worked on for Sir James Goldsmith or 9 Mr. Dunlap. Just keep that in mind when
10 you're describing this for him.
11 A. Yes, all the above-mentioned
12 transactions were publicly known at the time.
13 And there may have been others. I
14 just don't have precise recollection.
15 Q. Did you work with Mr. Dunlap in 16 connection with a company called General
17 Oriental?
18 A. General Oriental was the Goldsmith
19 holding company I alluded to earlier.
20 Q. And it was through General Oriental
21 that Crown Zellebach was acquired, correct?
22 A. Correct.
23 Q. And then through a series of
24 transactions various assets of Crown Zellebach
25 were sold off or liquidated in some fashion,

Page 29

1 correct?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. And you provided legal -- legal
4 advice in connection with some of these
5 transactions, I take it?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Did you ever represent Mr. Dunlap
8 personally at any time in your career?
9 A. No.
10 Q. Did -- to your knowledge, did the 11 law firm of Skadden Arps ever represent
12 Mr. Dunlap personally?
13 A. No, although I do know that he 14 claims we did, in a shareholder loss, put an
15 appearance on his behalf.
16 Q. I take it, he was a -- he was sued
17 along with other officers and directors --
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. -- of the company and Skadden
20 represented all the parties in the case?
21 A. Yes, up to a point. I mean --
22 Q. All right. We'll set that aside.
23 In addition to -- well, withdrawn.
24 Did there come a time when you
25 worked with Mr. Dunlap after he had left

018313

Page 30

1 Mr. Sir James Goldsmith's companies?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And when was that that you worked
4 with Mr. Dunlap?
5 A. I can't put a precise time frame on
6 it. It was after the Goldsmith attempt --
7 aborted attempt to take over BAT, which I
8 believe was in the late 1980s. Not too long
9 after that.
10 Q. Did you work at all with Mr. Dunlap
11 while he was the chief executive officer of 12 Scott Paper?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. And in what -- what was just the 15 general nature of the work that you did with 16 Mr. Dunlap while he was the CEO of Scott
17 Paper?
18 A. Well, the principal transaction that 19 I recall was Scott Paper's merger with 20 Kimberly-Clark. There was a previous
21 transaction in which Scott Paper sold its 22 interest in a paper company, the name of which 23 is escaping me, to another company which was 24 principally handled by one of my partners.
25 Q. And was -- was Scott Paper a Skadden

Page 31

1 client -- drawn.
2 Was Scott Paper a Skadden Arps
3 client at the time that you performed this
4 work, or did Mr. Dunlap personally retain you
5 to represent Scott Paper?
6 A. Scott Paper had been a Skadden Arps
7 client for a number of years before Mr. Dunlap
8 went to Scott Paper.
9 Q. The surviving entity in the merger
10 that you described with Scott Paper and 11 Kimberly-Clark was Kimberly-Clark, correct?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. And is it your understanding that
14 Mr. Dunlap's next job -- withdrawn.
15 When you worked with Mr. Dunlap
16 on -- while he was employed by Scott Paper, he 17 was the chief executive officer, correct?
18 A. He was, yes.
19 Q. And was he, at that time, to your
20 knowledge, largely hailed as turning around
21 Scott Paper?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Or is restructuring a word that was 24 used in connection with Mr. Dunlap's work at 25 Scott Paper?

Page 32

1 A. I don't specifically recall, but he
2 was regarded as the darling of Wall Street for
3 having turned around Scott Paper and made the
4 shareholders a lot of money.
5 Q. And was the next -- when did you
6 next work with Mr. Dunlap after the merger of 7 Scott Paper and Kimberly-Clark?
8 A. After he joined Sunbeam Corporation.
9 Q. Was -- at the time that Mr. Dunlap
10 joined Sunbeam Corporation, I think the record
11 will fairly reflect it was in 1996 -- did you,
12 that is Skadden Arps, represent Sunbeam
13 Corporation?
14 A. Sunbeam Corporation was a client for 15 a period of time before Mr. Dunlap joined 16 them.
17 Q. Were you -- were you one of Sunbeam
18 Corporation's attorneys before Mr. Dunlap
19 became the chief executive officer of Sunbeam?
20 A. No.
21 Q. Had you done any work for Sunbeam
22 Corporation before Mr. Dunlap became Sunbeam's
23 chief executive officer?
24 A. I had personally not done any work
25 for Sunbeam.

Page 33

1 Q. Now, after -- after Mr. Dunlap
2 became the chief executive officer, did you
3 begin to do work for Sunbeam Corporation?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And tell the jury how that came
6 about.
7 A. Well, I'm not specifically -- I
8 don't specifically recall, except somebody
9 from Sunbeam called me. I don't know whether
10 it was Mr. Dunlap or someone else.
11 Q. And about when was that after 12 Mr. Dunlap joined Sunbeam?
13 A. I honestly don't recall.
14 Q. What was your first -- what was your
15 first legal assignment for Sunbeam Corporation
16 after -- after you got a call?
17 A. I have to stop here and think about
18 privilege and discuss it with my lawyer.
19 Q. Let me ask the question a little
20 simpler. Maybe I can avoid it for you. If I
21 can't, Mr. Malloy --
22 A. I understand Sunbeam Corporation,
23 which is now called American Household, has
24 not waived the privilege.
25 Q. I'm not --

018344

Page 34

1 A. Therefore, I have to respect
2 Sunbeam.
3 Q. I'm not trying to get into any of
4 these privileged conversations, at least at
5 this point.
6 And just, in general terms, what was
7 the first legal matter that you recall
8 addressing on behalf of Sunbeam Corporation,
9 without getting into specific communications
10 with the client?
11 MR. MALLOY: If you want to break
12 and talk about that, we can. Maybe we 13 should. Let's -- let's go off the
14 record.
15 (Discussion off the record.)
16 MR. BEMIS: Do we need the question
17 reread?
18 THE WITNESS: No.
19 MR. MALLOY: Sure.
20 MR. BEMIS: I need the question
21 reread, even if you remember it.
22 (Record read.)
23 MR. BEMIS: Would you, please, read
24 it back and show it repeated in the 25 transcript.

Page 35

1 (The following record was read:
2 "Q. I'm not trying to get into
3 any of these privileged conversations at
4 least at this point.
5 And just, in general terms, what was
6 the first legal matter that you recall
7 addressing on behalf of Sunbeam
8 Corporation, without getting into
9 specific communications with the 10 client?")
11 A. I was asked to look at a number of 12 possible acquisition candidates, without 13 naming names.
14 Q. And when did this occur?
15 A. I wouldn't put a time frame on it.
16 It was after he arrived in 1996. It could
17 have been late '96 or early '97 or sometime
18 thereafter. I just don't recall.
19 Q. Let me show you a document that has
20 been marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 109.
21 MR. BEMIS: We have a copy problem.
22 We don't have one copy. Is it possible,
23 Chris, we can take a short break and have
24 a copy of this made?
25 MR. MALLOY: Sure.

Page 36

1 (Recess taken.)
2 MR. BEMIS: Please mark Exhibit 109,
3 Ms. Reporter, and give it to the witness.
4 (Defendant's Exhibit 109, Skadden
5 chronology, marked for identification, as
6 of this date.)
7 Q. Mr. Fogg, do you have in front of
8 you Exhibit MS 109?
9 A. I have it in front of me.
10 Q. Have you --
11 MR. MALLOY: I instruct him not to 12 answer with his mouth full.
13 Q. Have you ever seen this document
14 before?
15 A. I don't remember.
16 Q. Did you assist at all in the -- in 17 the preparation of a chronology to the 18 Securities And Exchange Commission in the 19 spring of 1998 concerning certain matters
20 related to Sunbeam Corporation?
21 A. Apart from this document, I have no
22 independent recollection.
23 Q. Having reviewed the document, does
24 it, in any way, refresh your recollection of 25 whether you did have a part in the preparation

Page 37

1 of a chronology to the Securities And Exchange
2 Commission?
3 A. Doesn't really refresh my
4 recollection.
5 Q. Looking at the document, can you, if
6 you want to -- if you turn to -- I'm using the 7 page numbers which are Bates numbers on the
8 lower right-hand side. Looking at page CPH
9 1042291, will you tell me when you are there?
10 A. I'm there.
11 Q. There are entries -- there is an
12 entry in March or April of 1997. And do you
13 see that?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Would you, please, just read it to
16 yourself.
17 (Witness reading document.)
18 A. I did.
19 Q. Did you have -- did you participate
20 in any matters for Sunbeam relating to a
21 possible sale of Sunbeam as referred to in
22 that paragraph to the SEC?
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could you read the
24 question back for me, please.

1 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
2 MR. MALLOY: Do you understand the
3 question?
4 THE WITNESS: Yes
5 A. The answer is I believe I did.
6 Q. Just, in general terms, what did you
7 do? What work -- withdrawn.
8 In general terms, what was your
9 participation?
10 A. I don't specifically recall, but I
11 do recall in this time frame Morgan
12 Stanley was retained by Sunbeam to explore,
13 among other things, the possibility of a sale
14 of Sunbeam.
15 Q. Did you have any -- withdrawn.
16 When you started working for
17 Sunbeam, as you've described for us, had you
18 had any discussions with Morgan Stanley about 19 Sunbeam's interest in a possible sale of the
20 company?
21 THE WITNESS: Could you read the
22 question back.
23 MR. BEMIS: It's all right. I don't
24 know if it's the noise or -- is the noise
25 bothering you?

Page 39

1 THE WITNESS: No.
2 MR. BEMIS: Okay. Sometimes it's
3 hard -- it is hard to hear.
4 (Record read.)
5 MR. BEMIS: Let me ask the question
6 again.
7 Q. Did you have any discussions with
8 Morgan Stanley at the same -- about the time
9 that you were working with Sunbeam in the 10 manner you've described about a possible sale
11 of Sunbeam?
12 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
13 A. I participated in at least one
14 meeting where Morgan Stanley people and 15 Sunbeam people were present, and that
16 possibility was discussed.
17 Q. Was this meeting that you just 18 described your first face-to-face meeting with 19 Sunbeam -- Sunbeam and Morgan Stanley at which 20 a possible sale of Sunbeam was discussed?
21 A. Together?
22 Q. Yes.
23 A. I believe so.
24 Q. And where -- where was this meeting?
25 A. It was at -- it was at Sunbeam in

Page 40

1 Del Rey Beach, Florida.
2 Q. Who was present at the meeting?
3 A. Well, I remember Messrs. Dunlap,
4 Kersh and Fannin all being there for Sunbeam.
5 And the principal guy from Morgan Stanley was
6 Bill Strong. I don't remember who else.
7 Q. Did you know Bill Strong at that
8 time?
9 A. I knew Bill from before, yes.
10 Q. How long had you known Bill Strong?
11 A. I don't really remember. A number
12 of years. We worked on things together.
13 Q. At the time -- at the time of this
14 meeting in Del Rey Beach -- withdrawn.
15 Looking at the chronology that I put
16 in front of you that was on the Skadden
17 letterhead, MS 109, can you pinpoint the date
18 of the meeting or the month of the meeting?
19 A. I can't really pinpoint it.
20 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
21 A. No.
22 Q. Were you -- withdrawn.
23 How long did this meeting last in 24 Del Rey Beach?
25 A. I recall being there the better part

Page 41

1 of the working day.
2 Q. Were there any other attorneys from
3 Skadden Arps, other than yourself at the
4 meeting?
5 A. Rich Easton was there.
6 Q. Was Mr. Easton, at the time of this
7 meeting, a partner at Skadden?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Other than the people you've 10 identified for us, Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh and 11 Mr. Fannin for Sunbeam, Mr. Strong from Morgan
12 Stanley and yourself and Rich Easton, did
13 anyone else attend this meeting?
14 A. I think there were other people from 15 Morgan Stanley, but I don't remember who they
16 were exactly. I don't remember if anyone else
17 from Sunbeam was there. I kind of doubt it,
18 but I'm not sure.
19 Q. And you believe that the meeting
20 took the better part of a working day?
21 A. Yes. I remember starting in the 22 morning and we had lunch and it went on into 23 the afternoon.
24 Q. Were there documents used at the
25 meeting?

018346
94816

Page 42

1 A. I don't recall.
2 Q. Let me show you a document and ask
3 if either this document -- if this document
4 was used at the meeting.
5 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, could you
6 mark this document as MS 541.
7 (Defendant's Exhibit 541, Project
8 Laser Discussion Materials for September
9 11, 1997 conference call, marked for
10 identification, as of this date.)
11 THE WITNESS: What's the question?
12 Sorry.
13 Q. I think the question -- there was no
14 question pending.
15 I've handed you a document we've
16 marked as Morgan Stanley 541. Do you have
17 that in front of you?
18 A. I do. 541, I have it, yes.
19 Q. Have you seen that document before?
20 A. I don't remember.
21 Q. And in looking at this document,
22 does that, in any way, refresh your
23 recollection of whether you reviewed a
24 document at the time of your meeting in Del
25 Rey Beach, as you described it?

Page 43

1 A. No, it doesn't.
2 Q. Is any of the handwriting on this
3 document yours?
4 A. I haven't looked at every single
5 page, but the handwriting on the first page is 6 certainly not mine. I don't see my
7 handwriting on any of it.
8 Q. Okay. You can hand it back to me.
9 Did you -- let me show you another
10 document which we're going to mark as Morgan
11 Stanley Exhibit 543.
12 A. I would note this is a document
13 which purports to be for a conference call.
14 Somebody wrote the names of the participants
15 in the upper right and didn't include Skadden.
16 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, could you
17 mark that, please, ma'am.
18 (Defendant's Exhibit 543, Memorandum
19 dated 7/25/97, from Fannin to Strong,
20 marked for identification, as of this
21 date.)
22 Q. I've handed you what's been marked
23 as Exhibit 543. Do you have that in front of
24 you?
25 A. Um-hum.

Page 44

1 Q. Would you -- you have to answer yes
2 or no, just for writing down purposes.
3 Do you have it in front of you?
4 A. I have it, yes.
5 Q. Okay, sir --
6 A. Sorry.
7 Q. -- this meeting -- this document
8 refers to a possible meeting with you and 9 Mr. Easton in, it looks like, either July or 10 the early part of August of 1997.
11 Do you -- do you recall -- have you
12 ever seen this document before?
13 A. I don't recall.
14 Q. Does this, in any way, refresh your 15 recollection of when your first meeting was
16 with Sunbeam?
17 A. Actually, I think it does. The
18 reference to a July date brings back memories
19 of how hot and muggy it was when we had the 20 meeting. So, the summer would probably have 21 been the time frame when we had the meeting.
22 Q. Okay. So, the meeting you're
23 referring to is the meeting where Morgan
24 Stanley was present as you've identified,
25 correct?

Page 45

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. Now, with that time frame in mind,
3 July, perhaps, of 1997, could you tell us
4 what -- just the general subject matter of the 5 meeting that took the better part of a working
6 day?
7 A. The general subject matter was
8 reviewing the strategic alternatives available
9 to Sunbeam.
10 Q. How did the meeting progress, that 11 is, you know, how did it start and what was 12 the general manner in which the business was 13 discussed throughout the day?
14 A. Let me just ask my counsel something
15 about a privilege.
16 (Discussion off the record.)
17 MR. MALLOY: I think we would
18 consider that to be a privileged
19 conversation to the extent it involved
20 communications related to legal advice.
21 So --
22 MR. BEMIS: Morgan Stanley was at
23 the meeting.
24 MR. MALLOY: Yes, they were acting
25 as Sunbeam's financial advisors, which 018347

Page 46

1 doesn't break the privilege. I'm sure
2 Morgan Stanley takes that position as
3 well.
4 But, subject to that, I think the
5 witness can testify generally about what
6 occurred at the meeting, but not as to 7 the specific conversations that he was
8 involved in, if he recalls any.
9 MR. BEMIS: So, you're going to take
10 the position in this deposition that, if
11 he had a conversation with Morgan Stanley
12 where Morgan Stanley was present --
13 MR. MALLOY: Depends on the nature
14 of the conversation.
15 MR. BEMIS: We're not going to go
16 forward with the deposition if that's the 17 position you're going to take.
18 MR. MALLOY: And the capacity in 19 which Morgan Stanley was serving at the
20 time.
21 MR. BEMIS: Well, let's just get a
22 clear record. You're going to instruct
23 the witness not to answer --
24 MR. MALLOY: It depends on what the 25 question and what his -- and what is it

Page 47

1 that would be the subject of his
2 testimony.
3 MR. BEMIS: What was the last
4 question that was pending, ma'am, before
5 we hit the point of an objection?
6 MR. MALLOY: My point is, to the 7 extent Morgan Stanley was present when
8 communications between Sunbeam and
9 Mr. Fogg occurred, we don't believe that
10 that would break the privilege. And I
11 think that's fairly elementary.
12 MR. BEMIS: What was the question
13 that was pending, ma'am?
14 (Record read.)
15 MR. BEMIS: Let me ask -- let me ask
16 a fresh question so we can get an
17 objection if we're going to get one.
18 Q. First of all, did Morgan Stanley --
19 did Morgan Stanley speak at the meeting?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Did you speak at the meeting?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Did Mr. Dunlap speak at the meeting?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. How did the meeting begin?

Page 48

1 A. I don't recall specifically how it
2 began.
3 Q. Now, by that I don't mean
4 pleasantries. I mean, generally, how did the
5 meeting by topic, if you will, begin?
6 A. As I said before, it was a meeting
7 to discuss strategic alternatives. I don't
8 know what particular alternative was discussed
9 first, second or third. But the whole range
10 of alternatives was discussed from the sale of 11 the company to buying another company,
12 et cetera. And it was a -- I'm probably 13 volunteering, it was sort of a free-for-all
14 discussion. It wasn't a formal Morgan Stanley
15 presentation of a book and slide show and
16 everything. It was -- we were sitting around
17 a conference room table just brainstorming.
18 Q. And was there one strategic 19 alternative as opposed to another that 20 predominated the conversation during the 21 working day?
22 A. I don't -- I don't recall. I
23 believe it was Sunbeam management's preference
24 to see if they could find a buyer for the 25 company. That had been Mr. Dunlap's modus

Page 49

1 operandi before.
2 Q. What do you mean by that had been
3 his modus operandi before?
4 A. Well, at Scott Paper he came in,
5 sold off chunks, fired people, got the stock
6 price up and then sold it to Kimberly-Clark.
7 I don't think it was any secret that's what he
8 was hoping to do with Sunbeam.
9 MR. BEMIS: Could you read his
10 answer back. I'm sorry. You trailed off
11 a little bit.
12 (Record read.)
13 Q. Did he say that at the meeting?
14 A. I don't remember.
15 Q. Did it -- was there any discussion
16 of buying companies at the meeting?
17 A. There was a discussion of buying
18 companies. I don't know if it was this
19 meeting or a different meeting. I just don't
20 recall.
21 Q. Did Mr. Dunlap say anything about
22 buying other companies?
23 A. I'm sure he did. But I don't have a
24 recollection, sitting here today, what he
25 said.

018348

Page 50

1 Q. Did you --
2 A. If I did, I probably wouldn't be
3 able to tell you because it's privileged.
4 Q. Did Mr. Strong say anything at the
5 meeting?
6 A. Oh, I'm sure he did, yes, but I
7 don't recall -- I don't recall who said what,
8 really.
9 Q. So, with regard to anyone --
10 withdrawn.
11 With regard to other Morgan Stanley
12 people who you believe were there, do you
13 recall anything that they said?
14 A. No, not really.
15 Q. And do you recall anything that you
16 or Mr. Easton said?
17 A. No, I don't really recall exactly
18 what we said.
19 Q. Do you recall any of the general
20 substance of what you said without --
21 recognizing that you might not remember your
22 exact words.
23 A. I really don't. I really don't.
24 Q. How was the meeting -- how was --
25 strike that.

Page 51

1 As I understand your testimony,
2 there wasn't a booklet of materials, for
3 example, that you recall being handed out?
4 A. There may have been, but I don't
5 recall.
6 Q. And do you recall overhead slides
7 being discussed?
8 A. I recall they were not used.
9 Q. So, this was -- was this more of a
10 working session, as you put it, I think
11 earlier?
12 A. Brainstorming.
13 Q. Brainstorming session?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. There was no written formal agenda --
16 well, strike that.
17 Was there a written formal agenda,
18 that you recall?
19 A. Not that I recall.
20 Q. How was the meeting left at the end
21 of the working day?
22 A. I don't really remember.
23 Q. I take it that you and Mr. Easton
24 did fly back to New York after the meeting was 25 over?

Page 52

1 A. I flew back to New York. I don't
2 know where Rich went. He works in our
3 Delaware office. I don't remember if he flew
4 back with me or somewhere -- or with somebody
5 else.
6 Q. What's the next thing that you
7 recall happening after this first meeting
8 which -- with Sunbeam and Morgan Stanley that
9 you've placed in July of 1997 or thereabouts?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
11 A. I mean, the next specific
12 recollection I have was a call I received from 13 Mr. Fannin, general counsel of Sunbeam,
14 sometime in late 1997, but I know there were a
15 lot of stuff happened between July and
16 December that I don't specifically recall.
17 Q. And just, in general -- withdrawn.
18 You said you got a phone call from 19 Mr. Fannin?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And when did you say that was, late
22 December?
23 A. I said it was late 1997, probably in
24 December.
25 Q. And what was the subject matter of

Page 53

1 the phone call, without telling me exactly
2 what Mr. Fannin said or you said in the call,
3 just the subject matter?
4 MR. MALLOY: Generally.
5 A. Generally? How general -- excuse
6 me. I don't know what my counsel means by
7 generally.
8 MR. MALLOY: Then let's --
9 THE WITNESS: I need to talk about
10 privilege again.
11 MR. BEMIS: Okay.
12 (Discussion off the record.)
13 MR. BEMIS: Okay. Can you answer
14 the question?
15 A. Mr. Fannin called me to say that
16 Sunbeam was thinking of acquiring Coleman.
17 And that was the subject of the call.
18 Q. Were you asked to do anything?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. What were you asked to do?
21 A. Well, Mr. Fannin knew that we had
22 represented MacAndrews & Forbes, which owned
23 Coleman. And he wanted to make sure that we
24 could represent Sunbeam in the transaction, so
25 we talked about getting a waiver from 018319

Page 54

1 MacAndrews & Forbes.
2 Q. Now, at the time that you had this
3 first meeting in Del Rey Beach that you
4 described earlier where Morgan Stanley was
5 present, I think the brainstorming meeting,
6 did Skadden represent MacAndrews & Forbes?
7 A. We've represented them for some
8 time, yes.
9 Q. To your --
10 A. To my knowledge, we represented them
11 before that meeting and after that meeting.
12 Q. To your knowledge, does Skadden
13 still represent MacAndrews & Forbes?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Are they presently a client of the 16 firm?
17 A. Yes.
18 (Mr. Schwartz entered the deposition
19 room.)
20 Q. All right. Did you proceed, then,
21 to get -- to get a waiver?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Who did that?
24 A. I called my partner, Frank Gittis,
25 who is the partner who interacts most directly

Page 55

1 with MacAndrews & Forbes, and we talked about
2 it. And he said he would speak to them and
3 see if they had a problem.
4 Q. Did you eventually obtain a waiver?
5 A. Frank said he obtained their
6 approval, but he didn't put anything in 7 writing.
8 Q. All right. Using the December 1997
9 benchmark that you've just given us and then
10 going back to the July brainstorming meeting,
11 what, if any, involvement did you have with 12 Sunbeam and potential strategic alternatives
13 during that time period?
14 A. I don't have a specific recollection
15 of much, except my partner Rich Easton and I
16 looked at several potential acquisition
17 candidates, without naming names, and rendered
18 advice with respect to that.
19 Q. Was this Black & Decker and Maytag
20 that you testified to earlier in your earlier
21 deposition?
22 THE WITNESS: Can I answer that
23 question?
24 MR. MALLOY: Yes, you can.
25 A. Yes.

Page 56

1 Q. Did you have any communications with
2 Morgan Stanley between the date of the
3 brainstorming meeting which you placed in July
4 of 1997 up to the date that Mr. Fannin called
5 you in December of 1997?
6 A. I'm certain that I did, but I don't
7 recall when or the substance of them.
8 Q. Do you recall during that same time
9 period receiving any documents from Morgan
10 Stanley?
11 A. Sitting here today, I don't recall.
12 Q. Do you recall anything at all
13 unusual or out of the ordinary that, in 14 your -- in that time period that involves
15 Morgan Stanley?
16 A. Not really.
17 MR. MALLOY: I'm just wondering if
18 there's a way to move this along. You
19 seem to be rehashing a lot of what he's 20 already testified to.
21 MR. BEMIS: Well, if I thought there
22 was a way to just use his other
23 deposition in the other proceeding, that
24 might have been an option, but I'm not
25 sure how we would do that.

Page 57

1 Would you, please, mark this,
2 Ms. Reporter -- excuse me -- this has
3 been previously marked.
4 Q. Let me show you what's been marked
5 as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 82. Excuse me. I
6 misspoke. It's CPH Exhibit 82.
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Do you have a copy
8 of that for us, Mr. Bemis?
9 MR. BEMIS: After you see that,
10 Mr. Markowski, can I have it back. I
11 only have three of these big ones. It's 12 one of your exhibits. You probably have
13 it in your box.
14 MR. MARKOWSKI: I don't have it
15 memorized.
16 MR. BEMIS: I don't have it
17 memorized either. But I assume you have 18 it in one of your boxes. If you don't,
19 I'll give you another copy.
20 Q. Do you have a copy of CPH Exhibit 82
21 in front of you?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Have you ever seen that document
24 before?
25 A. I don't remember.

018350

Page 58

1 Q. There's a cover memorandum right
2 behind page 1.
3 A. I see it.
4 Q. Page --
5 A. I'm cc'd on it.
6 Q. Yes, you are, sir.
7 Let me put the page number on the
8 record so it's clear. CPH 0469478. And, yes,
9 you are cc'd.
10 Does -- and after having reviewed
11 the document, do you remember any portion of 12 the document?
13 A. How long is the document?
14 MR. MALLOY: Do you want him to flip
15 through every page, or is there specific
16 issues you want to direct his attention
17 to?
18 MR. BEMIS: I want to have him just
19 take a general review of the document to 20 see if it, in any way, is going to 21 refresh his recollection about whether he
22 participated in any of the information
23 inside of the document.
24 Q. Just let me know when you're done.
25 A. You've asked a question that forces

Page 59

1 me to look at every page.
2 Q. Okay. Well, let me withdraw the
3 pending question and let me see if we can move
4 it along for you.
5 Having looked -- having looked at
6 the document and whatever pages you flipped
7 through, does it, in any way -- did you have,
8 at any point, a role in preparing what is
9 referred to as an information memorandum?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
11 A. I don't recall.
12 Q. In the period between -- in the 13 period between this July 1997 meeting, the 14 brainstorming meeting and the time Mr. Fannin
15 called you in late 1997, did you receive
16 anything from either Sunbeam or Morgan Stanley
17 in the nature of an information memorandum
18 such as you have in front of you, CPH 82?
19 A. I don't specifically recall.
20 Probably, it's possible. I don't --
21 Q. Have you seen documents like this
22 before in the course of --
23 A. Many.
24 Q. -- mergers --
25 A. Many.

Page 60

1 Q. What are they called?
2 A. Various things. Selling memorandum,
3 whatever. That's what this appears to be. I
4 do not recall right here today whether I
5 participated in this preparation or whether --
6 if I saw it.
7 Q. Is it customary, based on your many
8 years of experience, to have something in the 9 nature of a selling memorandum when a company
10 is considering a strategic alternative or 11 option of selling the company?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Is it, likewise, similar to have an
14 information memorandum in the nature of CPH 82
15 if the company is interested in making an
16 acquisition?
17 A. Not really.
18 Q. You can hand that back to me. All
19 the way up -- withdrawn.
20 I'd like you now to move toward to 21 the end of 1997 around the time of
22 Mr. Fannin's telephone call.
23 Did Skadden Arps put together an
24 internal team to work on a possible
25 acquisition by Sunbeam of Coleman?

Page 61

1 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could you read the
2 question back, please.
3 (Record read.)
4 A. I don't recall whether we did so at
5 that time, because I was informed pretty soon
6 thereafter that the deal was dead.
7 Q. Who told you the deal was dead?
8 A. Mr. Fannin.
9 Q. Was this in a face-to-face
10 conversation or a telephone call?
11 A. No, he called me.
12 Q. And do you recall this being before
13 the -- before year-end 1997?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. What did Mr. Fannin say to you
16 about -- and what did you say about the deal
17 being dead?
18 MR. MALLOY: Are you asking him to 19 disclose this conversation with Sunbeam's
20 general counsel?
21 MR. BEMIS: Well, he just said that
22 Mr. Fannin said the deal was dead. I'm
23 just asking what he said about the deal
24 was dead. I'm not asking him for legal
25 advice. At this point, it seems like a

018351

Page 62

1 fact statement that he's already
2 disclosed.
3 (Discussion off the record.)
4 A. He told me that the principals had
5 met and they could not reach a meeting of the 6 minds on price, and they had parted company.
7 Q. Was -- strike that.
8 Did he identify who the principals
9 were?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Who?
12 A. It was Mr. Dunlap, and I'm not sure
13 if anyone else was there from Sunbeam. I
14 think, probably, Kersh and Fannin were there,
15 but I couldn't swear to it. And Mr. Perelman
16 from MacAndrews, Mr. Goudis from MacAndrews.
17 I'm not sure if anyone else was there from 18 MacAndrews. But those were the principal
19 people.
20 Q. Did you ever talk to anyone at
21 MacAndrews & Forbes about this meeting?
22 A. Ever?
23 Q. Yes, ever.
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Who?

Page 63

1 A. I remember talking to Howard Goudis
2 about it.
3 Q. When did you speak to Howard Goudis?
4 A. Much later, after -- much later,
5 after Sunbeam had acquired Coleman, after
6 Mr. Dunlap had been removed from his position,
7 after the events that thereafter unwound.
8 Q. Did Mr. Fannin tell you anything
9 else about the meeting that -- other than what
10 you have told me?
11 A. I think he told me Michael Price was 12 there. I'm not sure.
13 Q. Did he tell you -- did he tell you
14 anything else about the meeting? And, again,
15 now I'm referring to the meeting with
16 Mr. Perelman and Mr. Goudis.
17 A. I think he told me the meeting was 18 quite heated.
19 Q. What did he say about that?
20 A. I don't remember.
21 Q. What did you say to Mr. Fannin?
22 A. I said, okay, too bad, I think.
23 Q. Anything else that you recall?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Did you exchange any documents or

Page 64

1 correspondence about the meeting that
2 Mr. Fannin was describing for you?
3 A. Not that I recall.
4 Q. And you said some time later,
5 Mr. Goudis, he gave you some information about
6 this meeting between Mr. Dunlap and
7 Mr. Perelman, correct?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. What did he tell you?
10 THE WITNESS: This is not
11 privileged, right?
12 A. He told me he was afraid Mr. Dunlap
13 was going to have a heart attack. He got so
14 angry and incensed at Mr. Perelman's suggested
15 purchase price. Then he said that he had told
16 Al to calm down. This is, you know, something
17 you shouldn't get this excited about.
18 Q. Anything else?
19 A. No.
20 Q. What did you say?
21 A. I pretty much listened. I didn't
22 say much of anything, that I recall.
23 Q. Now, in the -- this conversation
24 that you had with Mr. Goudis, this was in 25 reference to the Sunbeam offer to purchase

Page 65

1 Coleman, correct?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And it was in connection with,
4 indeed, the transaction that Mr. Fannin had
5 called you about earlier, correct?
6 A. Yes, it was about the meeting that
7 he told me had taken place where the parties
8 couldn't come to a meeting of the minds.
9 Q. Did you -- withdrawn.
10 Up to the time of the meeting with 11 Mr. Perelman -- if it helps you, it was
12 December 18, 1997, based on prior testimony --
13 had you participated in the preparation of any 14 term sheets for a transaction between Sunbeam
15 and Coleman?
16 A. Not that I recall.
17 Q. Had you reviewed any, even if you
18 didn't participate in their preparation?
19 A. I don't remember.
20 Q. At the time -- withdrawn.
21 At the end of the year, that is
22 1997 -- withdrawn.
23 Have you ever heard the term data
24 room?
25 A. Have I what?

18352

Page 66

1 Q. Heard the term data room?
2 A. Certainly.
3 Q. What is -- tell the jury what a data
4 room is.
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
6 A. A data room is a -- used to be a
7 physical location in a lawyer's office or an 8 accountant's office for a company seeking to 9 be acquired, they would deposit non-public
10 information about itself to be inspected by 11 potential buyers under -- usually under a
12 confidentiality agreement.
13 Now there are such things as
14 electronic data rooms, but that's not what
15 we're talking about in those days.
16 Q. Had a data room been set up by
17 Sunbeam, to your knowledge, by year-end 1997?
18 A. I have no idea.
19 Q. Was a data room set up at some
20 point?
21 A. I don't remember. By Sunbeam, I
22 don't remember.
23 Q. I'm going to hand you what's
24 previously been marked as Morgan Stanley
25 Exhibit 418. Do you have that exhibit in

Page 67

1 front of you, sir.
2 A. Um-hum, yes.
3 Q. Have you ever seen it before?
4 A. I don't remember it.
5 Q. Did you have any role in drafting
6 any press releases -- withdrawn.
7 Did you have a role in drafting this
8 draft of a press release?
9 A. I don't remember.
10 Q. Okay. Can you hand it back.
11 After the deal was announced dead by
12 Mr. Fannin in late December, I think you said,
13 1997, did you discuss that fact with
14 Mr. Dunlap at any point?
15 A. I don't believe I did.
16 Q. What's the next thing that -- well,
17 withdrawn.
18 There comes a point in time when the
19 deal is no longer dead, right?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. When did you first have knowledge
22 that discussions were, at least, resuming
23 between the parties?
24 A. I believe it was sometime in early
25 1998, but I couldn't pinpoint it.

Page 68

1 Q. Now, and what were the circumstances
2 under which you learned the discussions were
3 on again?
4 A. I don't remember who called to let
5 me know. I just don't --
6 Q. What was your next involvement in
7 the Sunbeam/Coleman transaction?
8 A. Well, I know that I got Rich Easton
9 involved and he, in turn, got Allison Amorison
10 involved, both from our Delaware office. I
11 had not previously worked with Allison. I
12 know we looked at a lot of public documents
13 about Coleman, analyzed its indebtedness, did
14 that kind of analysis. I don't recall all of 15 the specifics of that.
16 MR. MALLOY: I don't think he's 17 asking you for the specifics of the work
18 that was performed.
19 A. Well, Skadden did that work and I
20 was involved in it and so was Rich Easton and 21 so was Allison. There was -- agreements were
22 drafted pursuant to which the acquisition
23 would be made, negotiated.
24 Q. Before the agreements were drafted,
25 did you have any role in the drafting of the

Page 69

1 confidentiality agreements between the
2 parties?
3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
4 A. I don't remember.
5 Q. Let me show you -- strike that.
6 You did participate in the drafting
7 of the merger agreements, correct?
8 A. In the negotiations, I did
9 participate. I'm not sure if I put pen to 10 paper or not.
11 Q. Did you read them before they were 12 signed?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Did you read them carefully?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Let me show you -- let me show you
17 first an exhibit which has previously --
18 (Discussion off the record.)
19 (Recess taken.)
20 Q. I'm going to hand you what's been
21 marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 93 in
22 previous depositions. I only have two clean
23 copies of this, so I'm sorry but that's all I
24 have. Mr. Markowski may have a copy in his
25 box, I don't know.

018353

Page 70

1 MR. MARKOWSKI: We'll share.
2 MR. BEMIS: Or you can share, if you
3 could. I don't have many questions on
4 it.
5 Q. Do you have the Exhibit MS 93 in
6 front of you?
7 A. I do.
8 Q. Did you look at -- strike that.
9 When was the last time you looked at
10 this agreement?
11 A. I looked at it very briefly
12 yesterday.
13 Q. Okay. And you did that in
14 preparation for your deposition?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Morgan Stanley Exhibit 93 is one of 17 the two mergers agreements that were part of 18 the Coleman/Sunbeam transaction, correct?
19 A. Yes, there were two.
20 Q. And this is one of the documents
21 that you reviewed carefully before they were
22 executed by the parties, correct?
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Look at, if you would, page 18 and

Page 71

1 19. And I'm going to address your attention
2 briefly to section 6.7.
3 A. 18 and --
4 Q. Pages 18 and 19, section 6.7 --
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. -- is entitled, "access to
7 information, confidentiality."
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Do you see that?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. At the end of that section, there's
12 reference to two confidentiality agreements.
13 Tell me when you are there.
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Did you -- do you see the reference
16 to the agreements dated February 4, 1998 and
17 February 23, 1998?
18 A. I see the reference.
19 Q. Did you have any participation in 20 the drafting of those agreements as referenced
21 in section 6.7?
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
23 A. The confidentiality agreements?
24 Q. Yes, sir.
25 A. I don't remember.

Page 72

1 Q. At the time that you reviewed the
2 merger agreement, MS 93, that you have in
3 front of you, did you take any steps to verify
4 that these two agreements as identified in
5 section 6.7 had been executed by the parties?
6 A. I don't recall.
7 Q. What would be the normal practice?
8 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
9 A. The normal practice?
10 Q. Yes, sir.
11 A. I'm not sure I know what you mean.
12 Q. Well, as counsel for one of the 13 parties, you were reviewing, as an attorney,
14 the documents here, the merger document,
15 you're reading it carefully. What would be 16 your normal practice to determine, for 17 example, whether the agreements referred to 18 had, indeed, been executed?
19 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
20 A. My normal practice?
21 Q. Your normal practice, right, sir
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objection.
23 A. Not the normal practice?
24 Q. We'll start with your normal
25 practice.

Page 73

1 MR. MARKOWSKI: Excuse me. Same
2 objection.
3 A. My normal practice would be to
4 assume that they had been executed and that
5 someone had made sure of that.
6 Q. And when you say someone had made
7 sure of that, that would be someone on the
8 Skadden team representing Sunbeam?
9 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
10 A. Someone on the Sunbeam team. Could
11 be Skadden, could be Fannin, could be somebody
12 working for the company. But somebody had 13 made sure they were executed.
14 Q. Have you ever -- withdrawn.
15 Have you ever been told by anyone
16 that either of the two agreements, that is,
17 the February 4th or the February 23rd, 1998
18 confidentiality agreements referenced in 6.7,
19 were not executed by the parties?
20 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
21 A. Not in a non-privileged setting.
22 Q. Were you -- were you told something
23 in a privileged setting?
24 MR. MALLOY: You're not asking him
25 to --

Page 74

1 MR. BEMIS: Yes or no.
2 MR. MALLOY: You're not asking him
3 to discuss what was --
4 MR. BEMIS: No.
5 MR. MALLOY: -- discussed in his
6 prep sessions. So, excluding that.
7 MR. BEMIS: Well, you may have
8 answered the question, then. That makes
9 it --
10 Q. Can you answer my question? Were 11 you told in a privileged setting, just yes or 12 no?
13 A. Told what?
14 Q. Whether there was any evidence --
15 whether these agreements had or had not been
16 signed.
17 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
18 MR. MALLOY: Yes or no?
19 THE WITNESS: Could I have the
20 question read back.
21 MR. BEMIS: Fair enough.
22 (Record read.)
23 Q. Have you been told, in what you
24 referred to as a privileged setting, whether 25 there was any information to the effect that

Page 75

1 the confidentiality agreements, either one of
2 them, had been signed?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And when was this?
5 A. Recently.
6 Q. Recently during a session with your
7 attorneys in preparing for the deposition?
8 A. Yes.
9 MR. MALLOY: Now, I assume going
10 forward you're not going to -- you can --
11 the witness can understand that nothing
12 that you're asking is asking questions
13 about what he learned or discussed
14 yesterday. So, we can --
15 MR. BEMIS: I'm not asking anything
16 about what he --
17 MR. MALLOY: For your purposes, you
18 can get a cleaner record and we don't
19 have these sort of digressions.
20 MR. BEMIS: I'm not asking about any 21 conversation with you.
22 THE WITNESS: Okay.
23 MR. BEMIS: And I have not tried to 24 do that.
25 MR. MALLOY: You can exclude those

Page 76

1 altogether from your --
2 THE WITNESS: Expunge them from my
3 memory, yes.
4 Q. Let me show you Exhibit 117. And,
5 again, I apologize but I only have two clean
6 copies of that one as well.
7 Do you have Exhibit MS 117 in front
8 of you?
9 A. I do.
10 Q. Is this one of the two merger
11 agreements that you reviewed as part of the 12 Sunbeam/Coleman transaction?
13 A. It appears to be, yes.
14 Q. And did you review it in the same
15 degree of detail that you reviewed
16 Exhibit MS 93?
17 A. I would have reviewed them both the 18 same -- the same degree of detail.
19 Q. If you would turn to page 29,
20 section 7.2.
21 A. I'm there.
22 Q. All right. In that section, sir,
23 there is, again, a reference to the two
24 confidentiality agreements dated February 4,
25 1989 and February 23, 1998. Do you see that?

Page 77

1 A. I do.
2 Q. Do you understand that the
3 confidentiality agreements that is referenced
4 in section 7.2 of this exhibit, MS 117, are
5 the same confidentiality agreements referred
6 to in MS 93, what we discussed just a moment
7 ago?
8 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
9 A. I have no understanding of that
10 issue, except that the documents speak for 11 themselves and say they are the same.
12 Q. Well, did anyone come to your
13 attention in your review of the merger
14 agreements, and in particular here MS 117, to 15 suggest that the documents are different, that
16 is, it's a confidentiality -- that's a
17 terrible question. Let me withdraw it and try
18 again.
19 In your review of the merger
20 agreements, MS 117, did anything come to your
21 attention that the confidentiality agreements
22 referenced in section 7.2 were different from
23 those referenced in Exhibit MS 93?
24 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
25 A. No.

Page 78

1 Q. You can hand that back to me.
2 You said in your practice you
3 assumed that someone would have checked to
4 determine whether the confidentiality
5 agreements had been executed; is that correct?
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
7 A. I don't think that's exactly what I
8 did say.
9 Q. Then tell me exactly what you did
10 say, because I don't want to misstate what you
11 said.
12 A. I said it was my practice to assume
13 that -- assume that somebody else did.
14 Q. Was there a person on the Skadden
15 team that -- in particular that you would
16 identify as being the person, if it was a
17 person at Skadden, who would have seen these
18 documents were executed?
19 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
20 A. I don't -- I don't know. I don't
21 believe so. I just don't know. I don't
22 recall.
23 MR. BEMIS: Please mark the
24 following document as Morgan Stanley
25 Exhibit 533.

Page 79

1 MR. MALLOY: I think Mr. Fogg has a
2 clarification to his answer to the last
3 question.
4 Q. Okay.
5 A. Well, the clarification --
6 Q. Please.
7 A. The clarification is simply that
8 confidentiality agreements have become so
9 standardized that it is not infrequently the 10 practice to have the company or the company's
11 in-house attorneys or even the investment
12 bankers deal and write the confidentiality
13 agreements without outside lawyers like
14 Skadden Arps even being involved.
15 Q. Not even being notified?
16 A. Right.
17 Q. Okay. Please look at Morgan Stanley
18 Exhibit 533, which the court reporter is 19 marking now
20 (Defendant's Exhibit 533, Letter
21 dated 2/3/98, from Fannin to Shapiro,
22 marked for identification, as of this
23 date.)
24 A. Um-hum. I have it in front of me.
25 Q. Thank you, sir.

Page 80

1 Did you receive a copy of this -- of
2 this letter from Mr. Shapiro dated February 3,
3 1998 from Mr. Fannin?
4 MR. MARKOWSKI: Excuse me.
5 THE WITNESS: Sorry.
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: I think you
7 misspoke, Mr. Bemis.
8 MR. BEMIS: What was the question?
9 (Record read.)
10 MR. BEMIS: I did misspeak. Thank
11 you.
12 Q. Did you receive a copy of this
13 letter from Mr. Fannin dated February 3, 1998
14 to Mr. Shapiro, the executive vice president
15 general counsel of the Coleman company?
16 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
17 A. It's indicated that a copy was sent
18 to me. I'm listed as a cc.
19 Q. Other than that, do you --
20 A. Apart from a reference, I have no
21 recollection.
22 Q. Okay. You may hand it back to me.
23 Having looked at Morgan Stanley
24 Exhibit 533, does it, in any way, refresh your 25 recollection whether you had any involvement

Page 81

1 at all with the drafting of the
2 confidentiality agreements?
3 A. The substance of that document
4 suggests that I did not.
5 Q. Does the substance of that document
6 suggest that you, at least, saw one or more of 7 the confidentiality agreements?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. As you sit here today, do you have 10 any independent recollection of seeing any of 11 the confidentiality agreements referenced in 12 the merger agreements, MS 117 and 93? Let me
13 finish. Go ahead.
14 A. I have no independent recollection.
15 Q. You mentioned in your -- in a prior 16 answer that it was customary to have
17 confidentiality agreements. Did I hear you
18 correctly?
19 A. It was -- it is and was customary.
20 Q. So, it was customary in 1998?
21 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
22 A. In this kind of transaction?
23 Q. Yes.
24 A. Absolutely, yes.
25 Q. Why is it absolutely, yes, customary

018356

Page 82

1 in transactions such as the Coleman/Sunbeam
2 merger?
3 A. Because each party wants to find out
4 everything they can about the other party.
5 Sunbeam, because it's acquiring Coleman.
6 Coleman, because it's taking part of the 7 purchase price in Sunbeam's stock. The only
8 way to find out information is to get the 9 company to turn over all its information to 10 you, and the only way the company will do that
11 is if you agree to keep it confidential.
12 Q. In the -- at any time either --
13 strike that.
14 At any time either before the 15 execution of the merger agreements or 16 thereafter, other than a conversation with 17 your attorney, did you ever come to -- come to 18 hear from any source that either party, that
19 is, either the Sunbeam side of the transaction
20 or the MacAndrews & Forbes side of the 21 transaction, had refused to execute
22 confidentiality agreements?
23 A. No, I did not.
24 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could you read that
25 back for me, please.

Page 83

1 (Record read.)
2 MR. MARKOWSKI: I object to the
3 form.
4 A. No, I did not.
5 Q. Did you review drafts of the merger
6 agreements as they were being prepared by the 7 parties' attorneys? Let me rephrase the
8 question.
9 We've looked at two of the merger
10 agreements, MS 93 and MS 117. Did these 11 documents go through drafts?
12 A. Certainly.
13 Q. And that's customary, correct?
14 A. Customary, yes.
15 Q. Did you review -- did you review
16 drafts of the documents -- withdrawn.
17 Did you review drafts of the merger
18 agreements as they were being negotiated,
19 drafted and circulated?
20 A. I believe so.
21 Q. Do you ever remember a -- withdrawn.
22 At the closing of the merger
23 transactions which took place on March 30,
24 1998, was there someone at your firm, at
25 Skadden, that was responsible for a closing

Page 84

1 checklist, if you will, of the documents that
2 needed to be executed as part of the
3 transaction?
4 A. It would have been normal practice
5 to do a closing checklist, but I don't recall
6 anything about it in this case.
7 Q. Do you -- withdrawn.
8 Was there a person at Skadden on the 9 Sunbeam -- representing the Sunbeam side of 10 the transaction that was responsible for a
11 closing checklist?
12 A. Same answer, I don't -- I don't
13 really recall.
14 Q. Did you have anything to do with the 15 actual closing of the transaction itself?
16 A. I don't remember if I was even
17 there. I just don't remember.
18 Q. Let me show you what's been marked
19 as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 344. Do you have
20 that in front of you, sir?
21 A. I do.
22 Q. One of the attorneys that you
23 mentioned earlier was Allison Amorison,
24 correct?
25 A. Amorison.

Page 85

1 Q. Amorison. I apologize for
2 mispronouncing her name.
3 She -- am I correct that she worked
4 with Mr. Easton on the -- on the transaction?
5 A. Correct.
6 Q. She also worked with you?
7 A. Correct.
8 Q. And now, this document which has
9 been identified in another deposition as a --
10 is a closing checklist -- as a checklist by 11 title. Do you see that on page 2?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Is this -- is the type -- withdrawn.
14 Does this, in any way, refresh your
15 recollection whether there was a closing
16 checklist prepared by Skadden with regard to 17 the closing of one or -- the first merger
18 transaction, which is MS 93?
19 A. Independent of this document, even
20 after reviewing it, I do not recall anything
21 about a closing checklist. This document
22 would seem to indicate on its face that
23 Wachtell Lipton did the closing list and not
24 Skadden.
25 Q. Or Wachtell had a closing checklist,

018357

Page 86

1 not -- is there anything on the face of the
2 document that -- strike that -- there -- that
3 this is the only closing checklist?
4 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
5 A. I don't -- I don't know. I just
6 don't know.
7 Q. In your practice, sir, in a
8 transaction such as this Coleman/Sunbeam
9 transaction and a closing on one of the merger
10 agreements, in this case MS 93, would it be 11 customary for the two principal law firms to 12 have just a single closing checklist?
13 A. Yes, it would be customary for there
14 to be an agreed closing checklist. One of 15 them, yes, one.
16 Q. Is it customary for one of the firms
17 to be assigned the task of preparing the
18 closing checklist?
19 A. One of the firms has to draft it and 20 the other one comments on it and, hopefully,
21 they reach an agreement.
22 MR. BEMIS: We need to take a short
23 break so the reporter can change the 24 cable on her computer.
25 (Recess taken.)

Page 87

1 Q. Am I correct, sir, that, as you sit
2 here today, you do not recall attending the
3 actual closing of the first merger agreement,
4 MS 93; is that correct?
5 A. I don't recall.
6 Q. All right. Up to the time -- I want
7 you to focus now on the period before
8 February 28th, 1998, which is the date the 9 merger agreements were signed, MS 93 and 117.
10 Are you with me time period-wise?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. All right. Can you tell me --
13 withdrawn.
14 In the time period up to
15 February 28, 1998, are you aware of any due
16 diligence of Sunbeam that was done by Coleman
17 or MacAndrews & Forbes-related companies?
18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
19 Lack of foundation.
20 A. Am I aware of any?
21 Q. Yes, sir.
22 A. I believe some was done, but I don't
23 have any awareness, other than that.
24 Q. And what is it -- strike that.
25 What is it that causes you to

Page 88

1 believe that some was done?
2 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objections.
3 A. Just that it would be highly unusual
4 for none to have been done.
5 Q. Highly unusual in a transaction of
6 this magnitude?
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
8 A. Highly unusual in a transaction of 9 this magnitude, yes.
10 Q. Would it be highly unusual in a
11 transaction of this magnitude in which one of 12 the parties was receiving stock as
13 consideration in the transaction?
14 A. In a transaction in which one of the 15 parties is buying a company, the other party
16 is receiving stock as part of the 17 consideration, it would be highly unusual if 18 they didn't both do due diligence on the
19 other.
20 Q. Are you aware of, as you sit here
21 today, of any financial due diligence done of 22 Sunbeam by MacAndrews & Forbes-related
23 companies?
24 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form
25 and lack of foundation.

Page 89

1 A. Not other than what I just answered.
2 Q. Are you aware of any legal due
3 diligence done of Sunbeam by MacAndrews &
4 Forbes-related companies?
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objections.
6 A. Same answer, I don't really recall.
7 Q. Was -- I'm sorry. I interrupted
8 you.
9 A. I don't really recall.
10 Q. Okay. Was there anyone on the 11 Skadden team representing Sunbeam that acted
12 as the main point of contact, if you will, for 13 due diligence requests, if any, by MacAndrews
14 & Forbes?
15 A. I don't remember.
16 Q. Do you remember there being any
17 disagreements, if you will, about due
18 diligence matters before February 28th, 1998?
19 A. I don't recall any.
20 Q. Do you recall Sunbeam ever declining
21 to provide MacAndrews & Forbes any information
22 before February 28th, 1998 pursuant to a due
23 diligence request by MacAndrews & Forbes?
24 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form
25 and lack of foundation.

018358

Page 90

1 A. I don't recall any such instance.
2 Q. Did you receive -- withdrawn.
3 Did you receive from York --
4 withdrawn.
5 Your counterpart legally was
6 Wachtell Lipton, correct?
7 A. Um-hum, yes.
8 Q. And the attorney that you dealt
9 there was Adam Emmerich?
10 A. Correct.
11 Q. Do you recall any correspondence or 12 communications from Mr. Emmerich to the effect
13 that Sunbeam was not cooperating with any due
14 diligence requests from MacAndrews & Forbes in 15 connection with the merger agreements?
16 A. I don't recall any such
17 correspondence.
18 Q. Did you, in the course of your
19 representation of Sunbeam, have any
20 communications either directly or through
21 people who worked with you on the transaction
22 from the accounting firm of Ernst & Young?
23 A. I don't recall any.
24 Q. Again, in the time period up to and 25 including February 28, did you have any

Page 91

1 communications with the investment banking
2 firm of Credit Suisse First Boston in
3 connection with due diligence of Sunbeam?
4 A. I don't recall any.
5 Q. Do you remember the Wachtell Lipton
6 firm making any requests of you directly, or 7 one of the people working with you, for 8 matters related to legal due diligence by
9 MacAndrews & Forbes?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
11 A. I don't recall any.
12 Q. Up to February 28th of -- strike
13 that.
14 Do you know -- withdrawn.
15 Was there any type of log or record
16 kept, to your knowledge, of any due diligence
17 that was performed by MacAndrews & Forbes up
18 to the signing of the merger agreements on
19 February --
20 A. I don't know.
21 Q. Do you have -- you never saw such a
22 document?
23 A. No, I didn't.
24 MR. MALLOY: Mr. Bemis, you're sort
25 of beating a dead horse here, aren't you?

Page 92

1 Q. Let's move forward now from
2 February 28th to March 30th.
3 During that time period, did you,
4 personally or through your team, receive any
5 requests for due diligence from MacAndrews &
6 Forbes up to the point of closing on March 30,
7 1998?
8 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form
9 and lack of foundation.
10 A. I don't recall any. In fact, I
11 don't recall anything about due diligence.
12 Q. You don't recall anyone doing due
13 diligence, do you, after February 28th and up
14 to March 30th?
15 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
16 A. I don't remember whether they did or 17 they didn't.
18 Q. I would ask you some questions about
19 the period before February 28th, and I think I
20 understand your testimony is you have no
21 recollection of due diligence from any source,
22 correct?
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
24 A. Due diligence was not on my radar
25 screen. I don't recall anything about due

Page 93

1 diligence.
2 Q. Was it supposed to be on somebody's
3 radar screen?
4 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
5 This obviously --
6 Q. Could you tell me who was on your
7 side of the transaction?
8 A. No, I can't. I don't know. Sitting
9 here today, I can't answer that.
10 Q. There comes a point in time in March
11 where you said you were involved with the 12 March 19, 1998 press release, correct?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. When was the first time -- when was 15 the first time that you had any information
16 about a potential earnings shortfall at
17 Sunbeam?
18 A. March 18th --
19 Q. What happened --
20 A. -- 1998.
21 Q. And what happened on March 18th,
22 1998?
23 MR. MALLOY: I think this may
24 involve some privileged conversations, so
25 I would ask the witness to limit his 018359

Page 94

1 testimony to a very general description
2 of what occurred.
3 A. That's what I'm thinking about.
4 Group of people congregated in my office at
5 Skadden to discuss the results for that -- of
6 Sunbeam for that quarter, that first quarter
7 of 1998, trying to find out what the facts
8 were, to try to figure out whether some
9 disclosures should be made publicly about
10 those facts. And then to prepare such a
11 disclosure.
12 Q. Well, if I understand you correctly,
13 you edict and people congregating in your
14 office at some point; is that right?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. Is that on March 18th?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. And how did this congregation come
19 into existence?
20 A. I got a call from David Fannin
21 saying he was coming over to see me. He was 22 in New York.
23 Q. So, the first thing that happens on 24 March 18th is a telephone call; is that fair
25 to say?

Page 95

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. And it was Mr. Fannin calling you?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Was this phone call from
5 Mr. Fannin -- withdrawn.
6 Did Mr. Fannin tell you that he was
7 calling you about this earnings shortfall?
8 THE WITNESS: I have to discuss
9 privilege issues with my counsel.
10 Q. Well, a lot of this you've already
11 testified to. This --
12 MR. MALLOY: I don't think he
13 testified about this conversation.
14 MR. BEMIS: Well, he -- according to
15 his deposition testimony, he learned it
16 directly from Mr. -- he learned it
17 directly from Mr. Fannin on that phone
18 call on that day, just what he said just
19 now.
20 MR. MALLOY: But he didn't discuss
21 what was said during the conversation.
22 MR. BEMIS: He said -- according to
23 his testimony, he learned of an earnings
24 problem from Mr. Fannin in his prior
25 testimony.

Page 96

1 MR. MALLOY: Can you testify that
2 far?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. What did Mr. Fannin say to you in
5 this phone call?
6 DI MR. MALLOY: I instruct you not to
7 answer the question on the grounds of
8 attorney/client privilege.
9 Q. When did Mr. Fannin -- strike that.
10 What time of day did Mr. Fannin call
11 you on March 18? For example, was it the 12 morning, afternoon?
13 A. It was in the morning.
14 Q. In the morning.
15 And what was the -- the substance of 16 the phone call, without telling me what he 17 said to you or you said to him, what was the 18 subject matter of the phone call?
19 MR. MALLOY: He's already testified
20 to that.
21 A. If there -- the substance was --
22 MR. MALLOY: Let's take a break for
23 a minute --
24 A. -- the first quarter results for
25 Sunbeam and whether there had to be some

Page 97

1 public announcement about that.
2 Q. What happened -- what happened next?
3 A. Mr. Fannin came to my office -- it
4 was in a conference room, not my office at
5 Skadden. We were there at 919 Third Avenue.
6 I got Greg Fernicola to join us. And I got a
7 fellow named Mark Shehan to join us. Mark is 8 no longer with the firm.
9 Q. Could you spell his name?
10 A. Mark, M-A-R-K.
11 Q. That one I had.
12 A. S-H-E-H-A-N, one E.
13 Q. Thank you.
14 A. And the four of us met. That was 15 the first meeting.
16 Q. How long did you meet?
17 A. That first little session? I can't
18 remember. Not that long. Thereafter, we had 19 several conference calls, some involving
20 Morgan Stanley people and Davis Polk people
21 and company people, other than Fannin. Some
22 involving just Skadden and company people.
23 And this all lasted several hours into the 24 afternoon, perhaps took up the better -- it
25 took up the better part of my working day.

018360

Page 98

1 Q. What is the next thing that happened
2 in this sequence after the meeting in your
3 office with Mr. Fannin, Mr. Fernicola,
4 Mr. Shehan and yourself?
5 A. I believe that Mr. Fannin called
6 people at the company, a guy in charge of 7 sales, Don Uzzi, U-Z-Z-I, I believe. And he
8 had somebody else with him. There was a brief
9 discussion and we, also, spoke -- I, also,
10 spoke to Morgan Stanley, Bill strong and 11 Ruth Porat, P-R-O-R-A-T, I believe.
12 Q. P-O-R.
13 A. P-O-R, Porat. Sorry, Ruth. And
14 Davis Polk. And then all of the above got on 15 a big conference call to try to figure out
16 where Sunbeam's first quarter was.
17 Q. Could we step back, again focusing
18 on the very first thing you remember
19 happening. I understand things run together
20 and, please, tell me if they do. Stepping
21 back to the meeting that you had with 22 Mr. Fannin and Mr. Fernicola right after the 23 phone call, what is the next thing that
24 happened in the sequence of events?
25 A. I -- sitting here today, six and a

Page 99

1 half years later, I'm not sure I can answer
2 that question.
3 MR. BEMIS: Let's take a break.
4 (Recess taken.)
5 Q. Let me put a question to you so that
6 we have a clear record. Is the next thing
7 that happened after the meeting where
8 Mr. Fannin was in your office following the 9 phone call a series of conference calls with 10 other people?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. What's the first conference call
13 that you can -- that you can remember today?
14 A. To the best of my recollection, it
15 involved the people sitting in my office,
16 Fannin, Fernicola, Shehan, myself, people from 17 Morgan Stanley, I believe Strong and Porat and
18 one or two or three people from Davis Polk
19 representing Morgan Stanley. A fellow named
20 Deitz, I believe, Alan Deitz.
21 Q. Alan Deitz, yes.
22 A. And a couple of other people. I
23 don't recall who.
24 Q. So, there was a conference call?
25 A. I believe that's the next thing that

Page 100

1 happened, best of my recollection.
2 Q. Was this call placed from your
3 office?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And how long did that group of
6 people speak on the conference call from your
7 office?
8 A. It wasn't a long call, I don't
9 believe.
10 Q. Who was on the phone representing
11 Mr. Fannin -- well, strike that.
12 Was there anyone else on the call,
13 other than Mr. Fannin, representing Sunbeam?
14 MR. MARKOWSKI: When you say
15 "representing" --
16 MR. BEMIS: Sunbeam's management.
17 MR. MARKOWSKI: Employed by Sunbeam?
18 MR. BEMIS: Yes, Sunbeam management.
19 A. Not on that call, I don't think.
20 Q. How did the conference call get
21 initiated? I don't mean dialing. Who called 22 who?
23 A. We called Morgan Stanley or Davis
24 Polk -- or I don't know. I don't know if we 25 used a dial-in number or we just plugged

Page 101

1 people in. I don't remember.
2 Q. What was -- strike that.
3 Have you ever seen any notes of the
4 telephone call, this first conference call?
5 A. I don't remember.
6 Q. Did you see -- I take it, then, you
7 didn't see any in your deposition preparation?
8 A. I thought we weren't asking about
9 that.
10 MR. MALLOY: Yeah, we're not asking
11 about that.
12 MR. BEMIS: Well, if he saw notes in 13 his deposition preparation and he doesn't
14 remember anything, then I want to know
15 about it.
16 MR. MALLOY: I'm not sure I follow
17 you. You already asked him whether there
18 were any documents that refreshed his
19 recollection. Having testified --
20 MR. BEMIS: Why don't you just 21 instruct -- look, just instruct him not
22 to answer, Chris.
23 MR. MALLOY: I just want to -- I'm
24 trying to understand what you're asking
25 him.

018361

Page 102

1 MR. BEMIS: I'm asking whether he
2 ever saw any notes of the meeting. If he
3 did not, he did not. Now if he's
4 segregating out something he saw
5 yesterday, I want to know whether the
6 notes exist, that's all. I suspect they
7 do not and we're just going to move right
8 on.
9 Q. So, the question is: Have you ever
10 seen any notes of the conversation at this
11 first conference call at any time?
12 A. I don't believe so.
13 Q. Okay. There we go. That was easy.
14 Now, what do you recall being said
15 by the people who were on the conference call?
16 And as best you can tell me, who said what?
17 A. I can't give you a who said what. I
18 can give you the gist of it.
19 Q. All right. If that's the way you
20 recall it.
21 A. The gist of it --
22 Q. Please.
23 A. -- was there was information
24 indicating that Sunbeam's sales for the 25 quarter were going to be below the range of

Page 103

1 analyst estimates. How far below, no one
2 seemed to know on that call. But we needed to
3 find out what the true facts were and decide
4 after we did that whether or not we had to
5 issue a press release.
6 And that was pretty quickly decided
7 on the call. And then we segued into the next
8 call.
9 Q. Well, what was the source of the
10 information that Sunbeam's first quarter sales
11 might not meet analyst expectations?
12 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
13 It mischaracterizes the witness's
14 statement.
15 A. I'm not sure I pinpointed that at 16 the time. Fannin told me that's what the 17 company was telling him. I don't know
18 anything more than that.
19 Q. So, as you sit here today, as you
20 recall it --
21 A. And Morgan Stanley knew it, too.
22 Now, exactly how they found out, I don't know
23 either.
24 Q. How is it -- withdrawn.
25 Can you tell me how you know that

Page 104

1 Morgan Stanley knew about it -- withdrawn.
2 Are you saying that Morgan Stanley
3 knew about it at the time of the conference
4 call?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And how did you come to the
7 conclusion that they knew it?
8 A. Well, I mean, they were -- they were 9 taking the position, we got to find out what
10 the facts are. And we know there's this 11 shortfall and let's find out what they are and 12 what, if anything, we have to say about it.
13 Q. Who spoke on behalf of Morgan
14 Stanley?
15 A. I can't put particular words in 16 particular people's mouths. I think both
17 Bill Strong and Ruth Porat spoke. I know that 18 the people at Davis Polk spoke. I spoke.
19 Greg Fericola spoke. Fannin spoke. I don't 20 recall who said what.
21 Q. Was -- before this first conference
22 call, had you spoken to anyone at Sunbeam's
23 management, other than Mr. Fannin, about the 24 sales shortfall issue?
25 A. I don't believe so.

Page 105

1 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley in
2 this first coverage call object to finding out
3 what the facts were?
4 A. No, not at all.
5 Q. What happened next in the sequence
6 of events on March 18th?
7 A. Well, we had determined that the way
8 to find out what the facts were was to call
9 the guy at Sunbeam who was in charge of sales,
10 see where the sales were for the quarter.
11 And that's -- so, I -- then I
12 believe there was a call to people in my 13 office and Mr. Uzzi at Sunbeam. And he had 14 somebody with him, Deborah McDonald, I think,
15 to sort of tell him that the next call was 16 coming involving Morgan Stanley and Davis Polk
17 and we needed to get to the bottom of this. I
18 think that was a pretty short call.
19 Q. Who was on this next conference --
20 withdrawn.
21 Was there a call to Sunbeam? I
22 believe, you're referring to Mr. Uzzi that 23 there was going to be another call and --
24 A. Yeah.
25 Q. Let's set a time for it.

018362

Page 106

1 A. With Morgan Stanley. And are you
2 available, and let's do it promptly, and
3 scheduling it, yes.
4 Q. So, the second call is in the nature
5 of, let's schedule a time and here's what
6 we're going to discuss?
7 A. It's a heads up of what is going to 8 happen and scheduling.
9 Q. Now, was this call -- was anyone
10 from Morgan Stanley on this call?
11 A. This particular -- no, I don't think
12 so.
13 Q. So, the next call -- is the next
14 call the first time that you spoke directly
15 to -- well, withdrawn.
16 When did the next conference call or
17 phone call take place on March 18th?
18 A. Promptly after that one.
19 Q. Who was on the line? And, if I can,
20 I'll refer to this as the third call. Who was 21 on the line?
22 A. Uzzi, McDonald, Fannin. I couldn't
23 swear where -- Fernicola was in and out. I
24 think Mark Shehan. He may have been in and
25 out. I just don't recall. Fannin and I

Page 107

1 certainly. Bill Strong, Ruth Porat and the
2 people from Davis Polk were all on the big
3 call.
4 Q. Was this -- were the people from
5 Morgan Stanley at their offices?
6 A. I don't know. I don't remember.
7 Q. Fair question. What I was -- let me
8 try again.
9 You were in your office with -- was
10 there anyone from Skadden besides yourself on 11 this call, the third call?
12 A. As I just indicated, I don't recall
13 whether Fernicola -- Fernicola was in and out.
14 Shehan was in and out. I don't recall which 15 particular things they were in for and which 16 particular things they were out for.
17 Q. Was Mr. Fannin with you?
18 A. Yeah, Mr. Fannin was anchored in a
19 chair in front of my desk. I don't think he 20 left there for hours.
21 Q. So, we have now representatives of
22 Sunbeam in Florida on the phone call, Mr. Uzzi
23 and Ms. McDonald, as you recall it; is that 24 fair?
25 A. Yes.

Page 108

1 Q. And then yourself and Mr. Fannin in
2 your office and then Morgan Stanley and the
3 people at a location or locations that you
4 don't know for sure?
5 A. Correct.
6 Q. How long does this third conference
7 call last?
8 A. Quite a while. I can't put a time
9 frame on it, but it could have been an hour or 10 more. I just don't recall.
11 Q. Did you have any documents at this
12 third call that you used as a basis for 13 questions or answers -- questions to anyone?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Describe the document that you had.
16 A. I think it was a one-page or two --
17 possibly a two-page document prepared by 18 somebody at Sunbeam, presumably Uzzi, but I'm 19 not sure or somebody working for him, which
20 purported to show where Sunbeam stood in terms
21 of sales for the first quarter of 1998, what 22 was already booked and then sort of -- they 23 went down a list of major accounts and 24 indicated potential additional sales to those 25 accounts, I think.

Page 109

1 Q. Did you --
2 A. I don't know when we got that
3 document. It was --
4 Q. That my next question. When did you
5 get the document?
6 A. I'm only -- I can't speculate, but
7 I -- I don't remember. I don't think Fannin
8 had it with him when he came over. I believe
9 we got by fax during the day. I just don't
10 remember.
11 Q. Did the people that were not in your
12 office, did they have a copy of the document?
13 A. I believe they did. I think, maybe,
14 we faxed it to them. I don't recall. I'm 15 pretty sure they did. We were all working on 16 the same page.
17 Q. And did Mr. Uzzi, based on your 18 recollection of the phone call, have a copy of 19 the document when he spoke?
20 A. I think so. I think it was prepared
21 by him or somebody working for him, yes. I
22 think he did, but I couldn't swear to it
23 because I wasn't with him, so --
24 Q. But you and Mr. Fannin had a copy of 25 the document?

018363

Page 110

1 A. Yeah, yes.
2 Q. Let me show you what been marked as
3 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 411.
4 (Defendant's Exhibit 411, Sales
5 Buildup, marked for identification, as of
6 this date.)
7 Q. Mr. Fogg, I have handed you what has
8 been marked as -- by the reporter, as Morgan
9 Stanley Exhibit 411.
10 Do you have that in front of you?
11 A. Yes, sir.
12 Q. Now, I'm not representing to you
13 that the handwriting on the document is -- was 14 on the document originally. So, for the time
15 being, I'd just ask you to disregard the 16 handwriting.
17 First of all, with -- excluding the 18 handwriting, is this the document that you had 19 in front of you when you spoke to Mr. Uzzi,
20 Ms. McDonald in this third conference call?
21 A. I believe it was, yes.
22 Q. When was the last time that you saw
23 this document?
24 A. Yesterday.
25 Q. And did it refresh your recollection

Page 111

1 about the events of March 18th?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Is this the same document that you
4 testified to in your deposition in August --
5 excuse me -- June of 2000 that you had in
6 front of you when you spoke to Mr. Uzzi on 7 this conference call?
8 A. I don't remember that testimony,
9 but --
10 Q. It's not a trick question. It
11 wasn't identified in your transcript and
12 that's why I ask you. Let me try it a
13 different way.
14 Do you recall receiving only one
15 document from Mr. Uzzi on the -- on
16 March 18th?
17 A. I don't remember. I think so, but
18 I'm not -- I couldn't be 100 percent sure.
19 Q. All right. Is any of the 20 handwriting on Exhibit MS 411 yours?
21 A. Doesn't appear to be, no, none of
22 it.
23 Q. All right. Could you, as best you
24 can, take me through the conference -- the 25 conference call with Mr. Uzzi which we've

Page 112

1 identified as the third conference call.
2 A. Well, again, I'm not sure I can give
3 you a who said what in any great specifics.
4 But the focus of the call was, okay, what
5 sales are already in -- have been booked?
6 What do those add up to? What sales are in 7 the works that probably will be booked? And 8 where does that leave Sunbeam for the quarter
9 compared with the analyst estimates and with
10 the first quarter of 1997?
11 And we discussed all of that at
12 great length. A large part of the call
13 related to going down this list of potential
14 orders and hearing from Uzzi primarily --
15 McDonald didn't say much, as I recall -- from 16 Uzzi why he thought these orders were going to 17 be booked for each of these major accounts.
18 And he was very optimistic they
19 would be booked. He said he talked to the 20 people out in the field, the sales force. And 21 he was just very confident that this was going
22 to happen.
23 And he was pretty optimistic that
24 this was going to come within the range of 25 analyst expectations and ahead of last

Page 113

1 year's -- first quarter of 1997.
2 Q. Did I hear you say -- sorry.
3 A. And all us questioned him on each of 4 these items. And what makes you so sure of 5 this and that and the other thing, at great
6 length. I don't know how long the call went
7 on, but it was quite a while.
8 And the Morgan Stanley people asked
9 questions, the Davis Polk people asked
10 questions. I asked questions, Fannin asked
11 questions. And that was it.
12 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley ask
13 questions?
14 A. I just said so, yes.
15 Q. Who on behalf of Morgan Stanley
16 asked -- asked questions?
17 A. I believe both -- I recall both
18 Bill Strong and Ruth Porat asking questions,
19 saying things on the call. I can't, as I
20 indicated earlier, give you a who said what,
21 when. I just can't do that after six years or 22 six and a half years.
23 Q. Was Mr. -- strike that.
24 Did Mr. Uzzi express confidence that
25 he -- that he -- withdrawn.

018364

Page 114

1 Was -- withdrawn.
2 Did Mr. Uzzi express confidence in
3 this third call that Sunbeam would meet
4 analyst expectations for Sunbeam sales in the
5 first quarter of 1998?
6 A. He did.
7 Q. Did he express even more confidence
8 that Sunbeam would meet, at least, sales for
9 Sunbeam's first quarter of 1997?
10 A. I'm -- I'm not sure about my earlier
11 answer. I think he was quite confident they 12 were going to beat the first quarter of 1997.
13 I don't know -- and he was very confident on 14 that basis, on that.
15 I'm not sure that he was -- how
16 confident he was about the analyst expect --
17 estimates, meeting those or beating those.
18 But I think he was -- felt there was a good
19 shot at doing so.
20 Q. How would you describe Ms. Porat's
21 questioning?
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
23 A. As I sit here today, I can't -- I
24 can't really characterize what she said, as 25 opposed to what I said, as opposed to what --

Page 115

1 I don't recall who said what.
2 But everyone on the call who was
3 sitting in my office, as well as the Morgan
4 Stanley people and the Davis Polk people,
5 asked a lot of questions. They were, you
6 know, challenging questions, probing
7 questions. How can you possibly think that,
8 this, so forth?
9 Q. You described in your earlier
10 deposition Ms. Porat, in effect, quote,
11 hammering at a point. Do you recall that
12 testimony?
13 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
14 A. I don't really recall that 15 testimony, but it sounds like her.
16 Q. Why do you say that?
17 A. She's -- she's a strong person.
18 Q. Well, in your deposition on
19 June 16th, 2000, you were asked the following
20 questions and gave the following answers. And 21 this is on page 73, sir, line 12 through 24:
22 "Q. When Uzzi was going through
23 the numbers on your summary report, did
24 anyone voice the opinion that they didn't
25 believe those numbers?

Page 116

1 "A. Well, I think that Morgan
2 Stanley's people, especially Ruth Porat,
3 was of the view that this is all very
4 good, Mr. Uzzi, but there is a real
5 chance you are not going to make these
6 high end numbers the analysts are
7 projecting, isn't there?
8 She was hammering at that point. He
9 finally had to admit yes. He was trying
10 to convince us that all he was -- all he 11 was going to do to make the numbers."
12 Was that testimony accurate at the
13 time you gave it, sir?
14 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
15 A. When I testified under oath, what I
16 say is what I believe, so the answer is yes.
17 Q. And your -- your description of --
18 strike that.
19 I think you described Ms. Porat as a
20 strong person?
21 A. Very strong person, yes, capable
22 person.
23 Q. Have you dealt with her -- had you
24 dealt with her before this phone call with 25 Mr. Uzzi?

Page 117

1 A. No, no.
2 Q. Do you recall anything --
3 A. I'm sorry. I had.
4 Q. And what was that?
5 A. I think she was involved, at the 6 time of the Sunbeam board meeting, when the 7 merger -- the Coleman and the other two
8 acquisitions were approved and the financing
9 of them was discussed, I believe. I'm not
10 sure, but I believe.
11 Q. Do you recall anything that
12 Mr. Strong said?
13 A. Not specifically, no.
14 Q. Do you recall anything that
15 Mr. Fannin said?
16 A. I'll say it again. I don't recall
17 who said what specifically and when. I just 18 recall the gist of the whole thing.
19 Q. Sometimes when you talk through 20 these things, some things come back. And 21 that's why I'm asking. I'm not trying to make 22 it any longer, but occasionally you do
23 remember something.
24 Is it -- how was the telephone --
25 the third telephone conference left on 018365

Page 118

1 March 18th after you went through the items on
2 MS 411?
3 A. Well, the bottom line was that we
4 weren't confident that there was 100 percent
5 sure we were going to make the analyst
6 estimates. Pretty -- we were pretty confident
7 that we were going beat the first quarter of 8 '97. But since the analysts' estimates were 9 out there and since probably the analysts had
10 reached their estimates based on company
11 information, that we ought to correct it,
12 better put out a press release that accurately
13 gives the best picture of where we are.
14 So, a public disclosure of some kind
15 was -- was decided upon. And --
16 Q. Was there any dissent -- I
17 interrupted you. I apologize.
18 Was there any dissent at the 19 conference call amongst those who were in your
20 office or in the Morgan Stanley locations
21 about the wisdom of issuing a press release?
22 A. No dissent.
23 Q. Was the issue of issuing a press
24 release discussed directly with Mr. Uzzi in 25 this phone call?

Page 119

1 A. I don't recall -- I really don't
2 recall.
3 Q. Given the consensus that a press
4 release should be issued, was someone assigned
5 the task of taking pen to paper and drafting a
6 press release?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Who?
9 A. Well, it was not so much an
10 assignment, but Fannin, I guess, grabbed a
11 yellow pad in my office and started writing.
12 He produced a draft. We had it typed. People
13 in my office looked at it. I don't recall the 14 specifics of what it said versus what the 15 final thing said.
16 And I believe we circulated it to
17 the other people who were on the previous call
18 and discussed it with them. Except I don't
19 think -- I don't think I ever called any -- I
20 had any other discussion with Uzzi or McDonald
21 on this subject.
22 I do recall discussing the press
23 release with the Morgan Stanley people and the 24 Davis Polk people. I'm not sure if we faxed
25 it to them or read it to them or what, but we

Page 120

1 did discuss it.
2 Q. Stepping back, Mr. Fannin then --
3 Mr. Fannin started the drafting process, as 4 you remember it?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And then you -- your office had the 7 press release typed up; is that fair?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. I will now hand you what has
10 previously been marked as Morgan Stanley
11 Exhibit 504. Do you have that in front of
12 you, sir?
13 A. I do.
14 Q. If you care to, please, take a
15 moment and look at it. And, please, look at 16 the footers on the document and in 17 particular --
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Is this document, Morgan Stanley
20 Exhibit 504, a draft of the March 18th
21 press -- or March 19th press release?
22 A. Yes, that's what it appears to be.
23 Q. And on the lower right-hand corner
24 of both pages, it has draft March 18, 1998.
25 And I believe it says 11:12 p.m.; is that

Page 121

1 correct?
2 A. That's what it says.
3 Q. Now, does that -- does that date
4 indicate that this is the date that it was
5 prepared and printed at your office?
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
7 Q. Let me ask it a different way. I'll
8 withdraw the question.
9 What does that date mean?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the lack
11 of foundation.
12 A. I believe it means that document was 13 emitted from our word processing equipment on 14 March 18, 1998 at 11:12 p.m.
15 Q. And does the left-hand footer, which
16 has the number 203024.01-New York server 3A,
17 refer to a server here at Skadden -- at 18 Skadden Arps?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Now, am I correct, then, based on
21 the -- looking at -- well, withdrawn.
22 Is this, then, a draft of the press
23 release that started with Mr. Fannin's pen to 24 paper, as you described it, and then went
25 through some process of review by others?

018366

Page 122

1 A. I believe so.
2 Q. Let's -- let me move forward from
3 the point that Mr. Fannin drafted something.
4 I understand that you did look at
5 what he drafted after it was typed up,
6 correct?
7 A. I, among other people, yeah.
8 Q. Did you make any changes that you
9 can identify for the jury today?
10 A. I don't recall.
11 Q. And who were the -- who were the 12 others at Skadden Arps that reviewed the press
13 release?
14 A. I believe Fernicola and Shehan.
15 Q. Both of these gentlemen were in or
16 in and out of the conversation with Mr. Uzzi
17 we've identified as the third call, correct?
18 A. Correct.
19 Q. Did they make any changes?
20 A. I don't remember.
21 Q. You said that you believed that the
22 draft was also sent or read to Morgan Stanley
23 and Davis Polk. Do you recall that?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Starting with Davis -- let's start

Page 123

1 with Davis Polk. Do you have any
2 recollection, as you sit here today, of
3 speaking to anyone at Davis Polk?
4 A. I don't recall.
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: You're focused on
6 commenting on the press release because
7 he's testified about conversation with
8 Davis Polk.
9 MR. BEMIS: He said he may have sent
10 it to Davis Polk. I'm now asking whether
11 he had discussions -- I'm now asking
12 about any conversations he had with Davis
13 Polk.
14 Q. Let me put a question to you so
15 we're -- do you recall having any conversation
16 with Davis Polk about a draft of the press
17 release, assuming that you sent one over to 18 them? Or you read it to them on the 19 telephone, if that may be the case?
20 A. I don't recall the gist of any such 21 conversations, or with Morgan Stanley. I just
22 don't recall.
23 Q. So, as you sit here today, you don't
24 recall any -- withdrawn.
25 Did you discuss the press release

Page 124

1 with anyone outside -- withdrawn.
2 Did you discuss the press release
3 with Mr. Dunlap?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Did you do it -- did you do it
6 before or after the press release was drafted?
7 A. I don't remember.
8 Q. Did you have more than one
9 conversation with him before the press release
10 was issued, about the press release?
11 A. I don't remember.
12 Q. What did you say -- withdrawn.
13 Did you speak to Mr. Dunlap in a
14 face-to-face conversation or were you on the 15 telephone?
16 A. Telephone.
17 Q. Where was Mr. Dunlap, as far as you
18 know?
19 A. Somewhere in New York, but I'm not 20 sure where.
21 Q. Was the subject matter of the phone
22 call the issuance of the press release?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. What did you say to Mr. Dunlap and
25 what did he say to you?

Page 125

1 A. This may be privileged.
2 MR. MALLOY: Can we establish who
3 else was on the call?
4 MR. BEMIS: Sure. Did you want to 5 talk to him about it or --
6 MR. MALLOY: Can you establish who
7 else was on the call?
8 MR. BEMIS: I didn't hear you.
9 Q. Was anyone else on the telephone?
10 A. I believe it was Fannin, myself,
11 Kersh and Dunlap.
12 Q. So, this was a conference call?
13 A. Yeah.
14 Q. And did you place it from your
15 office?
16 A. I believe so.
17 Q. When had you made contact with
18 Mr. Kersh about the press release -- well,
19 withdrawn. Let me try it a different way.
20 Had you spoken to Mr. Kersh about
21 the press release before this conference
22 call --
23 A. No.
24 Q. -- you had with Mr. Dunlap?
25 A. No, I don't think so.

018367

Page 126

1 Q. Did Mr. -- to your knowledge, based
2 on your participation in these events, was
3 Mr. Kersh aware there was an issue of whether 4 a press release was going to have to be
5 issued?
6 A. I'm not sure. I'm not sure.
7 Q. What happened in this phone call
8 between Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fannin --
9 withdrawn.
10 What was said in this telephone
11 call?
12 MR. MALLOY: Well, let me take a
13 break with the witness to discuss a
14 privilege issue.
15 (Recess taken.)
16 THE WITNESS: Can I have the
17 question read back.
18 (Record read.)
19 A. Mr. Dunlap very strongly took the
20 position no press release. Mr. Kersh seconded
21 that motion. Fannin and I tried to explain to 22 them they had no choice. We had to do it and,
23 finally, sort of -- sort prevailed.
24 Q. Having gone through the 25 conversation, at least in your own mind, was

Page 127

1 Bill Strong on this call?
2 A. I don't remember.
3 Q. You don't remember one way or the
4 other?
5 A. No.
6 Q. Okay. Given that Mr. Dunlap and
7 Mr. Kersh's position is counter poised, if you
8 will, by yourself and Mr. Fannin, did you
9 receive instructions as to what you were to
10 do?
11 A. Not really. I mean, the -- the 12 instructions were that the press release was 13 going to be issued. But Fannin, I thought,
14 was going to talk further with them about it.
15 But that we had -- we had to issue a press
16 release, Sunbeam had to issue a press release.
17 Q. At the time you spoke with 18 Mr. Dunlap, did you have a draft of the press
19 release reduced to writing?
20 A. I don't really recall, but I think
21 so.
22 Q. What was -- did -- can you recall
23 anything in -- in particular that Mr. Dunlap
24 said?
25 A. Well, he used very colorful

Page 128

1 language. He said we were -- never mind.
2 He -- he was very strong and said, the quarter
3 is not over, you can't release a press
4 release. We dont know what the quarter is
5 going to do. How can you possibly do that?
6 You guys are disloyal, et cetera, et cetera,
7 et cetera.
8 Q. You started to tell us what language
9 he used, and I -- it may be inappropriate in
10 other circles, but in these proceedings I
11 would ask you to tell us what he did say.
12 What you remember he said, what language did
13 he use?
14 A. I mean, his language was punctuated
15 with expletives of all kinds.
16 Q. How about Mr. Kersh, did he say
17 anything, other than echo his agreement with 18 Mr. Dunlap on whether a press release should 19 be issued?
20 A. Pretty much echoed.
21 Q. In the sequence of phone calls, this
22 would be the fourth call that you've told me
23 about.
24 Can you tell me what happened next
25 after the telephone call with Mr. Dunlap and

Page 129

1 Mr. Kersh?
2 A. Well, I think Mr. Fannin left and --
3 with a draft of the press release, and that
4 was the last I heard of it until after it was
5 issued, I think.
6 Q. Did you have any further
7 conversations with anyone from Morgan Stanley,
8 that you can remember, other than what you've
9 told me about so far?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: On that day?
11 MR. BEMIS: On that day, yes,
12 March 18th.
13 Q. Let me re-ask the question again.
14 On March 18th, did you have any
15 additional phone calls or face-to-face
16 meetings with Morgan Stanley about the press
17 release?
18 A. Not that I recall.
19 Q. Did you have any more telephone
20 conferences or face-to-face meetings with 21 anyone at Sunbeam, whether it be Mr. Dunlap,
22 Mr. Fannin, Mr. Uzzi, Ms. McDonald, anyone?
23 A. I told you everything that I recall
24 of that day.
25 Q. Were you satisfied -- strike that.

018368

Page 130

1 In these conferences and
2 face-to-face meetings as you've described them
3 for us, you -- you were acting as legal
4 counsel to Sunbeam, correct?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Did you believe at the time, as
7 their legal counsel, that the press release
8 was accurate?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Based on the information that you
11 had at the time?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Was there anyone, other than 14 Mr. Dunlap -- withdrawn.
15 Did you ever speak to Mr. Goudis
16 before the press release was issued about the 17 subject of the press release?
18 A. I don't recall.
19 Q. Do you recall sending Mr. Goudis a
20 copy of the press release by facsimile?
21 A. I don't recall.
22 Q. Was there anyone on the Skadden Arps
23 team that reviewed the press release, and
24 you've identified Mr. Fernicola and Mr. Shehan
25 as well as yourself, that echoed -- or I

Page 131

1 should say expressed any question about the
2 content of the press release --
3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection.
4 Q. -- before it was issued?
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Excuse me. Object
6 to the form.
7 A. Anybody on the Skadden team?
8 Q. Yes. Let me put the question to you
9 again since there was an objection. I don't
10 know what it was, but let me ask it one more
11 time.
12 Was there anyone on this Skadden
13 team of lawyers, which I believe you've 14 identified as Mr. Fernicola, Mr. Shehan and 15 yourself, who participated in these calls who 16 questioned the truthfulness of the press
17 release as it was issued on March 19th?
18 A. I don't believe so.
19 Q. Other than Mr. -- strike that.
20 As to -- in the group that you've
21 identified or whether it be Morgan Stanley,
22 whether it be Mr. Fannin, whether it be people
23 at Skadden, was there anyone in that group at 24 any point that expressed any dissent as to the 25 need to issue a press release?

Page 132

1 A. The group consisting of Fannin,
2 Skadden, Morgan Stanley, and Davis Polk?
3 Q. Yes, sir.
4 A. No dissent, that I recall.
5 Q. Did anyone within that -- withdrawn.
6 Let me show you now what has
7 previously been marked as Morgan Stanley
8 Exhibit 39.
9 THE WITNESS: Do you need to mark
10 this?
11 MR. BEMIS: That has been previously
12 marked, sir.
13 Q. Sir, I've handed you what has 14 previously been marked as a copy of the 15 Sunbeam press release issued on March 19th,
16 1998. Have you seen that before, the press
17 release?
18 A. I probably saw it, yes. I don't
19 recall specifically.
20 Q. After the press release was issued,
21 did you have any communications with anyone
22 about the contents of the press release --
23 withdrawn.
24 Between March 19th and March 30th,
25 1998, did you have any communications with

Page 133

1 anyone from MacAndrews & Forbes about the
2 press release?
3 A. MacAndrews & Forbes?
4 Q. MacAndrews & Forbes, yes. And I
5 would include within that Coleman.
6 A. I don't recall.
7 Q. Did you have any -- any
8 communications with anyone between March 19th
9 and March 30th, 1998 with anyone at Wachtell
10 Lipton, the attorneys for Coleman and
11 MacAndrews & Forbes?
12 A. I don't recall.
13 Q. Between March 19th, 1998 and the 14 closing on March 30th, did you have any
15 communications with anyone from Credit Suisse
16 First Boston about the press release?
17 A. I don't recall.
18 Q. Between March 19, 1998 and March 30,
19 1998, did you have any communications with
20 anyone from Arthur Andersen about the press
21 release?
22 A. I don't recall any such
23 communications.
24 Q. Did you have any communications
25 during that same time period with anyone

018369

Page 134

1 representing Ernst & Young, Coleman's
2 auditors?
3 A. I don't recall any such
4 communications.
5 Q. Did anyone -- withdrawn.
6 Did you have any further
7 communications with anyone at Sunbeam between
8 the issuance of the press release on March 19,
9 1998 and the closing on March 30th?
10 A. Concerning the press release?
11 Q. The press release, yes, sir.
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. With who?
14 A. Mr. Dunlap.
15 Q. When did you speak to Mr. Dunlap
16 next about the issuance of the press release
17 which we've marked as MS 39?
18 A. It was either on March 19th or
19 shortly thereafter.
20 Q. Was this a face-to-face call -- or
21 withdrawn.
22 Was this a telephone call or a
23 face-to-face meeting?
24 A. He called me.
25 Q. Were you in your office?

Page 135

1 A. I believe so, yes.
2 Q. Did he tell you where he was?
3 A. No, I don't recall.
4 Q. Was anyone else on the line?
5 A. No, not -- not on my end.
6 Q. How long did the two of you speak?
7 A. Very shortly, very, very brief.
8 Q. What was the subject matter of the 9 call, the press release?
10 A. He chewed me out for having forced
11 him to make a press release.
12 Q. Did he use colorful language in 13 chewing you out?
14 A. Not as colorful as on other
15 occasions, although he did tell me that I was 16 disloyal, that he could never rely on me in 17 the future. And that I had sold him out down
18 the river.
19 Q. What did you say to him?
20 A. I said, you're wrong, you had no
21 choice, put it behind you and move on, or
22 words to that effect.
23 Q. Was that the end of the 24 conversation?
25 A. Yes.

Page 136

1 Q. Did you ever have any other --
2 withdrawn.
3 Did you ever have again a
4 conversation with Mr. Dunlap about the
5 March 19th press release?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. When was that?
8 A. I remember it was at a board meeting
9 later on.
10 Q. A board meeting of Sunbeam?
11 A. A board meeting of Sunbeam, yes.
12 Q. Was --
13 A. After the first quarter had been
14 completed and the results -- or the 15 then-purported results thereof had been 16 publicly announced --
17 Q. Was --
18 A. -- in which I inquired --
19 Q. Excuse me.
20 A. -- of Mr. Dunlap in front of the 21 board what was the reason for the first
22 quarter being so poor.
23 And he responded by blaming the 24 press release of March 19th saying that the 25 press release of March 19th caused all his

Page 137

1 customers to believe that Sunbeam was in a
2 desperate position and they could take all
3 kinds of advantage of it, of Sunbeam.
4 Q. Obviously, this was a board meeting
5 before Mr. Dunlap was terminated?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Was this -- was this the May board
8 meeting in advance of the annual shareholders
9 meeting on -- I think it was May 12th?
10 A. I don't remember which -- what date
11 it was or --
12 Q. Did you respond at all to 13 Mr. Dunlap's reasoning?
14 A. I didn't say a word after that about
15 that subject.
16 Q. Was this statement made in front of 17 the other board members?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Did any of the other board members
20 say anything?
21 A. I think Russell Kersh echoed Al's
22 views, but nobody else said anything, I don't
23 recall.
24 Q. Was the -- withdrawn.
25 Was this your last face-to-face

018370

Page 138

1 conversation with -- as one-sided as it was,
2 with Mr. Dunlap about the March 19th press
3 release?
4 A. Face-to-face?
5 Q. Yes.
6 A. Yes, I think so. I can't recall any
7 others.
8 Q. You were on the phone -- you were --
9 withdrawn.
10 You were at the board meeting when
11 Mr. Dunlap was terminated, correct?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. He -- but when the actual 14 termination took place, he was on the 15 telephone, correct?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Let's go to -- from the press
18 release now to the -- to -- I have a couple of 19 questions I'd like to ask you on the
20 debentures.
21 Did you see the offering memorandum
22 for the debentures?
23 A. Ever?
24 Q. Fair question. Did you see the 25 offering -- withdrawn.

Page 139

1 Did you see the offering memorandum
2 for the debentures before the actual purchase
3 of the debentures by Morgan Stanley, which I
4 believe the closing, if it helps you, is
5 March 25, 1998.
6 A. I don't recall, but I believe a copy
7 was sent to me before the closing.
8 Q. And a copy of the March 19th press
9 release was -- withdrawn.
10 Let me show you a document marked in
11 a previous deposition as CPH Exhibit 122.
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Sir, have you -- you've seen this
14 before, correct?
15 A. I don't recall.
16 Q. Did you review the disclosure of the 17 information in the press release as -- before
18 it was put in the offering memorandum under 19 the caption, I believe it's "recent 20 developments"?
21 A. I don't believe so.
22 Q. Now, according to -- withdrawn.
23 These footers that appear on the 24 document on both the left and the right-hand
25 side, do you see those?

Page 140

1 A. Um-hum, yes.
2 Q. And now, this -- although they're
3 slightly different numbers, do these numbers
4 indicate to you that this document was printed
5 from the server and on a Skadden Arps printer
6 at your office here in New York?
7 A. Yes, they do.
8 Q. And do you know whose handwriting
9 this is that appears on the document?
10 A. No, I don't. It's not mine.
11 Q. Did you see the offering --
12 withdrawn.
13 You were aware that -- you were
14 aware that the press -- the press release, in 15 substance, was -- included the offering
16 memorandum for the debentures, right?
17 A. I was aware of it when I saw the 18 offering memorandum after the fact. I don't 19 know if I was aware of it at the time or 20 before the offering memorandum was finalized.
21 I'm not sure I focused on it at that point.
22 Q. Okay. Why don't you hand me that
23 back and I'll just stick it back in the file.
24 Thank you very much.
25 Did you attend any of the road shows

Page 141

1 for the debentures?
2 A. No.
3 Q. Did anyone from Skadden, to your
4 knowledge, attend any of the road shows?
5 A. Not to my knowledge.
6 Q. There was a -- a due diligence call,
7 sometimes referred to as a bring-down due
8 diligence call, on or about March 24, 1998.
9 Did you participate in that call?
10 A. I don't recall.
11 Q. Did you discuss the call with 12 anyone?
13 A. I have no recollection of doing so.
14 Q. Let me show you a document we'll
15 mark as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 611.
16 (Defendant's Exhibit 611, Memorandum
17 dated 3/23/98, from Tyree, Groeller and
18 Boone to Kersh, Fannin, Kelly, Uzzi,
19 Gluck, Dean and Fernicola, marked for
20 identification, as of this date.)
21 Q. Mr. Fogg, the reporter has handed
22 you what's been marked as MS 611. Do you have
23 that in front of you?
24 A. I do.
25 Q. If you would take a moment and look

018371

Page 142

1 at it. You're not shown as being copied on
2 the document or being from you, but I'd just
3 like you to, please, review it and then I have
4 only a few questions.
5 (Witness reading document.)
6 A. Yeah, okay.
7 Q. Now, I know you're not on the
8 document, but have you ever seen this document
9 before?
10 A. I don't recall.
11 Q. Did you -- did you ever hear from
12 anyone such as, for example, Mr. Fernicola
13 about what occurred at the bring-down due
14 diligence call?
15 A. I don't recall.
16 Q. If you don't remember, you don't
17 remember. Hand it back to me.
18 Did you ever have any conversations
19 with anyone, prior to March 30th, about 20 whether Sunbeam was still comfortable with the 21 statements in its March 19th press release?
22 A. I don't recall.
23 Q. If you had been told -- if you --
24 withdrawn.
25 We covered before that Skadden did

Page 143

1 represent Sunbeam in the -- in the debenture
2 offering, correct?
3 A. Correct.
4 Q. And the offering memorandum for the
5 debentures was something that was drafted by
6 Skadden Arps, correct, for Sunbeam?
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
8 A. Yes, Skadden Arps or Sunbeam or
9 both.
10 Q. Or both.
11 Let me show you what the reporter
12 will mark as MS 530, which is an -- it's a
13 portion of about a 1,000-page document, which 14 is the closing binder for the debentures. For 15 example, we didn't put the entire debenture
16 offering memorandum in here, but we did
17 include the entire tabs.
18 (Defendant's Exhibit 530, Sunbeam
19 Corporation Zero Coupon Convertible
20 Senior Subordinated Debentures Due 2018,
21 dated 3/25/98, marked for identification,
22 as of this date.)
23 Q. All right. Do you have Exhibit
24 MS 530 in front of you?
25 A. Yes.

Page 144

1 Q. And was this document prepared by
2 Skadden Arps? I recognize that I did not give
3 you the full 1,000 pages, but everything
4 behind the tabs and the indexes is complete.
5 A. The footers on the pages would
6 indicate no, it wasn't.
7 Q. And who -- who would it indicate
8 prepared it based on the footer?
9 A. I have no idea.
10 Q. Okay. Did -- there is -- if you
11 will -- if you will look at -- I'm going to 12 have to give you a page number here. First of 13 all, you were -- you are, by definition,
14 issuer's counsel, correct?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. And if you look at page -- if you
17 look at page CPH and then -- the last -- the 18 last three digits will be 379. Just look for 19 379 through 82.
20 A. 379.
21 Q. Through 82.
22 A. Through 82, yes.
23 Q. Now --
24 A. Wait a minute. Oh, yes, sorry.
25 Yes.

Page 145

1 Q. This Schedule B is a list of
2 documents that were to be -- which were to be
3 delivered by the issuer, and the issuer in
4 this case would be Sunbeam, correct?
5 A. Sunbeam is the issuer, yes.
6 Q. According to the -- the documents to 7 be delivered, if you look at items -- item 9,
8 it says "comfort letter from the accountants."
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Do you see that?
11 A. Yes, I do.
12 Q. And does -- am I correct that that
13 indicates that an original copy of the comfort
14 letter was to be provided to the issuer, and 15 that is Sunbeam, right?
16 A. Original --
17 Q. As opposed to a copy?
18 A. Was to be provided to the issuer?
19 Q. Yes. Is that right?
20 A. And the issuer's counsel.
21 Q. Which would be?
22 A. And Morgan Stanley.
23 Q. And Morgan Stanley?
24 A. And Davis Polk.
25 Q. Let me ask the question again if you

018372

Page 146

1 didn't get it.
2 Am I reading this correctly, sir,
3 that a copy of the accountant's comfort
4 letter, an original copy was to be provided to
5 the issuer, which is Sunbeam; the issuer's
6 counsel, which is Skadden Arps; the initial 7 purchaser, which was Morgan Stanley; and the
8 purchaser's counsel, which was Davis Polk?
9 A. That's what the document says.
10 Q. Now, did -- did -- at the time of
11 the closing, which is shown as March 25, 1998,
12 did Skadden Arps receive a copy of the 13 accountant's comfort letter?
14 A. I don't know.
15 Q. Who would know? Would it be
16 Mr. Fernicola?
17 A. Mr. Fernicola or Mr. Deitz.
18 Q. Attached to -- let me get the right
19 page number for you. Just give me one second
20 here. Turn to the page CPH 0628849.
21 A. It -- what's the last three?
22 Q. The last three digits are 849.
23 A. 849.
24 Q. It also has Skadden Arps Bates No.
25 SASMF 03665.

Page 147

1 A. I have it.
2 Q. Now, this is the -- this is the
3 comfort letter referred to in the index.
4 Did you -- did you ever see a copy
5 of the comfort letter from the auditors that's
6 in the closing binder for the debentures?
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form.
8 A. Yes
9 Q. When did you first see it?
10 A. I saw it yesterday, but I don't
11 recall whether I saw it before that or not.
12 Q. Now, Mr. -- do you recall any
13 discussions with Mr. Fernicola between 14 March 25th, 1998, the date of the closing of 15 the debentures, and March 30, 1998, about the 16 Arthur Andersen comfort letter that we've just
17 identified in the closing binder, MS 530?
18 A. I don't recall.
19 Q. Do you recall any internal
20 discussions at all at Skadden Arps about the 21 contents of the comfort letter, which is
22 attached to the March 25th, 1998 closing
23 binder?
24 A. I don't recall.
25 Q. Am I correct, sir, that

Page 148

1 Mr. Fernicola would be the person at Skadden
2 Arps who would be the most knowledgeable and
3 the most -- about the debenture -- debenture
4 closing and your -- Skadden's role as issuer's
5 counsel for the debentures?
6 A. Mr. Fernicola and/or Mr. Alan Deitz.
7 Q. Who is the senior -- the most senior
8 of those two gentlemen?
9 A. Mr. Fernicola.
10 Q. Mr. Deitz, at that time, reported to 11 Mr. Fernicola, correct?
12 A. Correct.
13 MR. MARKOWSKI: Can I ask a question
14 about how the document was put together?
15 There's a page before this document. It
16 has a No. 11 on it.
17 MR. BEMIS: Correct.
18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Is that the tab?
19 MR. BEMIS: It is. And the index is 20 off by one.
21 MR. MARKOWSKI: Okay. This is --
22 your understanding is that's a copy of 23 tab 11?
24 MR. BEMIS: It is correct. It was
25 produced to us. I think they mis-indexed

Page 149

1 it, is what happened.
2 MR. MARKOWSKI: Because the index
3 does not tie to the tab in the document.
4 MR. BEMIS: It's off by one for that
5 document or, maybe, off two at one point.
6 But it is in the manner in which it was
7 produced to us.
8 Q. If I -- if I've asked you this, I
9 apologize. Mr. Fernicola, is he still with 10 the firm?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Is he in this office in New York?
13 A. Um-hum, yes.
14 Q. Would you look at the handwriting on 15 the first page, which appears to be Nick S.
16 Do you see that?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Do you know who that is?
19 A. Nick S.?
20 Q. Yes.
21 A. I know a Nick S., but I don't know
22 if it's him.
23 Q. Okay. Who is it -- who is the 24 Nick S. that you know?
25 MR. MALLOY: If you know a Nick S.

018373

Page 150

1 A. Nick Saggese.
2 Q. And who is that? Can you spell that
3 for us?
4 A. S-A-G --
5 THE WITNESS: Two Gs?
6 MR. MALLOY: I don't know.
7 A. S-A-G-G-E-S-E, I believe. He's a
8 partner in our Los Angeles office.
9 Q. Is he --
10 A. I don't know why his initials would
11 be -- why his Nick S. would be on the cover
12 page. I have no idea.
13 Q. Is he still in the Los Angeles
14 office --
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. -- of Skadden Arps?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Do you have any reason to believe,
19 based on your review of the closing binder
20 which was produced by Skadden in this case,
21 that your firm did not have possession of the 22 comfort letter from Arthur Andersen which
23 we've identified -- withdrawn.
24 Do you have any reason to believe
25 your firm did not have a copy of the comfort

Page 151

1 letter which we identified in MS 530 as of the
2 date of the closing, March 25, 1998?
3 A. No reason to believe one way or the
4 other.
5 Q. Is it customary as -- is it
6 customary to prepare closing binders for
7 something as -- like a debenture offering of a
8 $2 billion face amount of securities?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Is it customary for your law firm to 11 prepare the closing binder in the manner --
12 with the indexes such as we have looked at in 13 MS 530?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Is it customary in a closing binder
16 for a debenture offering, in which auditors
17 issue comfort letters, to include the comfort
18 letters within the closing binder?
19 A. I don't know, since I don't work on
20 those kinds of things, but I would think so.
21 Q. Would you, please, look at the pages
22 identified with the Bates numbers ending --
23 well, I'll tell you what. I'll use the 24 Skadden Bates numbers. They will be a little
25 shorter. Please look at the page beginning

Page 152

1 with the Skadden Arps Bates number 03767.
2 A. 03767, yes.
3 Q. 03767. Are you there?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. If you'll turn to the -- this --
6 this is a letter to Morgan Stanley addressed
7 to Morgan Stanley in Skadden's capacity as
8 special counsel to Sunbeam, right?
9 A. Yes, it's an opinion letter.
10 Q. It's an opinion letter, right?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. And it's signed at the end, and the 13 last page I see is 03775.
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. I have to confess the photocopy is
16 pretty bad here, but is that signed Skadden
17 Arps, just the firm's name? Is that how it's 18 signed?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Is that the traditional manner in 21 which your opinion letters are provided?
22 A. I believe so, yes.
23 Q. Now, according to -- who would have 24 been responsible for preparing this opinion
25 letter to Morgan Stanley?

Page 153

1 A. Greg Fernicola and his team.
2 Q. Okay. Would you ever view this
3 letter before it was signed by Skadden Arps?
4 A. I might have, but I don't recall.
5 Q. Please turn to the page marked
6 03774, again, using the Skadden Arps Bates
7 numbers.
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. If you'll look at the first -- the 10 first paragraph, not the first full paragraph,
11 but the --
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Is -- there is language midway down
14 that begins, "No facts." Would you please
15 turn your attention to that.
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Now, that language reads as follows:
18 No facts have come to our attention that have
19 led us to believe that the offering memorandum
20 as of its date and as of the date hereof
21 contained or contains an untrue statement of 22 material fact or omitted or omits to state a
23 material fact necessary in order to make the 24 statements therein, in light of the 25 circumstances under which they were made, not 018371

Page 154

1 misleading, except that we express no opinion
2 or belief with respect to the financial
3 statements, schedules or other financial
4 information -- excuse me -- financial and
5 statistical data included therein or excluded
6 therefrom.
7 Do you see that language?
8 A. I do.
9 Q. Is that language a customary
10 language for an opinion letter of this type,
11 assuming that nothing has come to your
12 attention?
13 A. In my limited experience, yes. It's
14 known as a 10(b)(5) opinion.
15 Q. That was my next question. Thank
16 you.
17 All right. You may set this aside.
18 MR. BEMIS: It's 5 o'clock and we
19 said we would break at 5:00. And I will
20 easily finish tomorrow within the time
21 frame that we have.
22 MR. SOLOVY: Whoa, whoa, whoa, say
23 it a little louder.
24 MR. MALLOY: Yes.
25 MR. SOLOVY: You will easily finish?

Page 155

1 MR. BEMIS: I will finish within the
2 time frame allotted for us tomorrow.
3 MR. SOLOVY: What does that mean?
4 MR. BEMIS: Well, without getting
5 into an argument, you asked for one-half
6 of the time.
7 MR. SOLOVY: Yes.
8 MR. BEMIS: We reserved a full day
9 today. I've gone four hours.
10 MR. SOLOVY: Okay.
11 MR. BEMIS: So, therefore, I will 12 finish within the allotted time that was 13 given to me.
14 MR. SOLOVY: Well, let's do a little
15 math, okay?
16 MR. BEMIS: I'm not going to do math
17 with you.
18 MR. MALLOY: I want to hear the 19 math.
20 MR. SOLOVY: Come on.
21 MR. MALLOY: You're going to finish
22 in --
23 MR. SOLOVY: Give us a break here.
24 MR. MALLOY: We've given you a day
25 and a half, and you agreed to take half

Page 156

1 of it, right?
2 MR. BEMIS: I didn't agree to that,
3 but I'm not going to take more than that.
4 MR. MALLOY: It was represented to 5 me that both parties could finish this
6 deposition in a day and a half.
7 MR. BEMIS: We will -- we're going
8 to finish it in a day and a half with me
9 taking no more --
10 MR. MALLOY: Both parties.
11 MR. BEMIS: Well, I can't speak for
12 them. I will take no more than one-half.
13 MR. SOLOVY: Well, let's figure out
14 what the one-half is.
15 MR. BEMIS: Well, you figure it out
16 and I may agree with you. But I will not
17 take any more -- I'm not going to argue
18 with you.
19 MR. MALLOY: Well, why don't you
20 tell me when you expect to --
21 MR. BEMIS: What time are we going
22 to start tomorrow, at 9 o'clock?
23 MR. SOLOVY: 9 o'clock, we're
24 supposed to start.
25 MR. BEMIS: And I would expect -- I

Page 157

1 would expect to be done by 11 o'clock at
2 the absolute latest tomorrow, which
3 leaves you with six hours, Mr. Solovy, if
4 my math is a correct.
5 MR. SOLOVY: Assuming everybody
6 starves and doesn't eat lunch. Or we
7 work past 5:00. That's what my math
8 tells me.
9 Well, Mr. Malloy, you know, I
10 address this issue to you. I mean, if we 11 can go past 5:00 -- and that assumes, of 12 course, that you'll have no redirect.
13 MR. BEMIS: We'll be done on time.
14 Thank you very much, Mr. Fogg. It's nice
15 to meet you finally.
16 MR. SOLOVY: Well, we're not
17 satisfied with the way this is left,
18 Mr. Malloy.
19 MR. BEMIS: You know, what would you
20 like me to do?
21 MR. SOLOVY: I'm saying on the
22 record, Mr. Bemis, to Mr. Malloy we're
23 not satisfied with the way this is left
24 in terms of treating us fairly.
25 MR. MALLOY: It's between you guys.

018375

1 MR. SOLOVY: Correct. But it's on
2 the record. But you understand the
3 Court's order that, if it's not done,
4 it's their responsibility to reproduce
5 the witness.

6 MR. BEMIS: I don't necessarily
7 agree with any of that, but we are
8 finished for the day.

9 MR. SOLOVY: Well, there's a court
10 order. And the court order says what it
11 says.

1 BLAINE FOGG, having been first
2 duly sworn by the Notary Public,
3 testified as follows:
4 EXAMINATION BY
5 MR. BEMIS:
6 Q. Good morning.
7 A. Good morning.
8 Q. Let me hand you MS 530 again, which 9 is the closing binder abstract for the 10 debentures that we looked at yesterday.
11 A. Yes, sir.
12 Q. I only have one question, and that
13 is: Is that your handwriting, "Nick S," at 14 the top?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Do you know whose it is?
17 A. No, I don't.
18 Q. Did Seggese -- is that correct?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Did Mr. Saggese work at all on the
21 Sunbeam Coleman transaction?
22 A. Not to my knowledge. That is why I
23 am surprised to see that on there.
24 Q. Let me show you a document that the 25 court reporter, well, that we already have 018379

Page 167

1 marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 616, but I
2 ask the court reporter to initial this.
3 Would you take that, sir.
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Do you have Exhibit 616 in front of
6 you?
7 A. I do.
8 Q. Is that your handwriting? Below
9 memo from Finn Fogg.
10 A. It honestly doesn't look like it.
11 It says memo from Finn Fogg, but that does not
12 look like my handwriting.
13 Q. Were you working with Mr. Saggese on 14 any matter around March 29th of 1998?
15 A. I have no recollection.
16 Q. All right. Can you hand that back
17 to me.
18 A. March 29th was my birthday.
19 Q. I would say happy birthday, but it's
20 not the 29th.
21 At any time after March --
22 withdrawn. We looked at the audit comfort
23 letters yesterday in the context of the 24 closing binder for the debentures, MS 530. I
25 am now going to hand you a separate copy which

Page 168

1 has previously been marked as MS 9. That is
2 the comfort letter dated March 19th, 1998.
3 A. Yes. I have it in front of me.
4 Q. Have you seen, have you ever seen --
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Do you have a copy
6 for me, Mr. --
7 A. Yes.
8 MR. BEMIS: Yes, I am getting it for
9 you.
10 Q. Have you ever seen that document
11 before?
12 A. I saw it two days ago.
13 Q. You have never seen it at all in the 14 course -- strike that. Did you ever see the 15 document at any time before March 30th, 1998,
16 the closing date?
17 A. I don't recall.
18 Q. Did you ask to see it?
19 A. I don't recall.
20 Q. All right. Let me show you what has
21 previously been marked, and would you hand
22 those back to me. We are done with it.
23 MR. MALLOY: All right.
24 BY MR. BEMIS:
25 MR. MALLOY: I want to keep copies.

Page 169

1 Q. I will show you what has been marked
2 as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 10. Do you have
3 that exhibit in front of you?
4 A. I do, sir.
5 Q. This is the March 25th, 1998 comfort
6 letter, also included in MS 530, that we
7 discussed yesterday. Have you seen this March
8 25th, 1998 comfort letter?
9 A. I don't recall.
10 Q. Did you see it in your preparation
11 yesterday or the day before?
12 A. I don't recall.
13 MR. MALLOY: I think -- oh, we are
14 not going to get into his prep session.
15 MR. BEMIS: He told me what he
16 looked at just a moment ago. As to the 17 other ones, I think it is an appropriate
18 question, but he answered it.
19 Q. At any point before March 30th,
20 1998, did you see Morgan Stanley Exhibit 10,
21 the March 25th, 1998 comfort letter?
22 A. I don't recall.
23 Q. At any time after March 30th, 1998,
24 did anyone ask you or, to your knowledge,
25 anyone at Skadden for a copy of either MS 9 or

Page 170

1 MS 10, the two comfort letters that we just
2 looked at?
3 A. I don't recall.
4 Q. As you sit here today, your
5 recollection is that the first time that you
6 saw MS 9, which was the comfort letter of
7 March 19th, was in your deposition
8 preparation; is that correct?
9 A. That is the only time I recall
10 seeing it.
11 Q. As you sit here today, you don't
12 ever recall seeing MS 10, the comfort letter
13 dated March 25th, 1998; correct?
14 A. My recollection is, I don't have any
15 recollection of seeing it, before today.
16 Q. Okay. You can hand it back to me.
17 Thank you.
18 Following the closing, did you
19 review a press release that Sunbeam issued on 20 April 3rd of 1998 announcing some of its first
21 quarter results?
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
23 form.
24 Q. You can answer.
25 A. I have seen a lot of Sunbeam press

018380

Page 171

1 releases. I can't say that I did not review
2 it. I can't say, sit here today and say that
3 I did. If you show it to me, it may refresh
4 my recollection.
5 Q. Let me show you what has been marked
6 as MS 58. This is a press release dated April
7 3rd, 1998. The press release is attached
8 behind the cover sheet.
9 A. Yes, I believe I have seen this
10 before.
11 Q. Did you see it before it was issued?
12 A. I believe I did, yes.
13 Q. Please tell me what the 14 circumstances were under which you saw the 15 press release MS 58.
16 A. Well, I believe it was the night
17 before this, and I was at home. It was, like,
18 9 or 10 o'clock at night, and David Fannin
19 called me.
20 MR. MALLOY: Just, I caution you not
21 to reveal the substance of that
22 conversation, other than generally.
23 A. David Fannin called me to tell me
24 more about events at Sunbeam.
25 Q. Did he discuss with you the press

Page 172

1 release attached to MS 58?
2 A. I believe he did. He may have even
3 faxed a copy to my home. I don't recall.
4 But, yes, I believe he did.
5 Q. Did you discuss the fax release, on
6 the telephone -- withdrawn. Did you discuss
7 the press release in your telephone call with
8 Mr. Fannin, the night before April 3rd?
9 A. I believe we discussed what's in the 10 press release, the substance of what's in the 11 press release. Whether we discussed the 12 actual press release, I don't know. I don't
13 recall.
14 Q. Was anyone else on the telephone
15 call, other than yourself and Mr. Fannin?
16 A. Just the two of us.
17 Q. What did you say to Mr. Fannin and 18 what did he say to you on the subject of the
19 press release?
20 MR. MALLOY: I will instruct the 21 witness not to answer on the grounds of
22 attorney/client privilege.
23 Q. Did you discuss the April 3rd press
24 release with anyone else, either in its draft
25 form, as you looked at it on April 2nd, or in

Page 173

1 the form that it was eventually issued on
2 April 3rd?
3 MR. MALLOY: Ever?
4 MR. BEMIS: Yes. Ever.
5 A. I believe that night, after I spoke
6 to Fannin, I called Rich Easton, my partner in
7 Delaware, and told him about it.
8 I remember, after it was issued,
9 Bill Strong called me and we discussed it.
10 Q. This is Bill Strong from Morgan
11 Stanley?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. Who else did you speak to about the 14 April 3rd press release, other than Mr. Easton
15 and Mr. Strong and Mr. Fannin?
16 A. Those are the three conversations
17 that stand out in my mind. I may have spoken
18 to other people, I just don't recall.
19 Q. When did you speak -- withdrawn.
20 My understanding is that you did
21 speak to Mr. Easton that evening -- that is, the 22 evening of April 2nd?
23 A. I believe so, yes.
24 Q. Who was on the call, besides
25 yourself and Mr. Easton?

Page 174

1 A. Just the two of us.
2 Q. How long did you talk?
3 A. I think it was pretty short.
4 Q. Did you send Mr. Easton a copy of
5 the press release that Mr. Fannin had sent to 6 you, as you --
7 A. I did not. Not that evening, I
8 don't think.
9 Q. Did you read it to him what you had?
10 A. I don't recall if I -- I don't
11 recall whether or not I had the actual draft
12 of the press release. I told him about the 13 events.
14 Q. The events including the termination
15 of Mr. Uzzi?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. What did you say to Mr. Easton and
18 what did he say to you?
19 DI MR. MALLOY: We would consider that
20 to be a privileged conversation, as well.
21 Q. When did you speak to --
22 MR. BEMIS: You are instructing him
23 not to answer?
24 MR. MALLOY: Yes.
25 Q. When did you speak to Mr. Strong?

018381

Page 175

1 A. I believe it was sometime in the
2 afternoon of the day of the press release,
3 which was April 3rd.
4 Q. Did you speak to him in person or on
5 the telephone?
6 A. No. He called me.
7 Q. Did he call you at your office or
8 your home?
9 A. Yes. At my office.
10 Q. How long did the two of you speak?
11 A. It may have been 15 minutes, maybe
12 less. I can't really say.
13 Q. Was anyone else present on the 14 telephone call, other than yourself and
15 Mr. Strong?
16 A. Just the two of us, I believe.
17 Q. Would you believe this call took 18 place on or about April 3rd, right after the
19 issuance of the press release?
20 A. Sometime after the press release,
21 and I believe on the same day of the press
22 release.
23 Q. What did Mr. Strong say to you when
24 he called you, on or about April 3rd?
25 A. In substance, and I can't quote him

Page 176

1 because it is, I don't remember exactly what
2 he said, but he was saying that the press
3 release has caused the marketplace to go
4 crazy, and everybody thinks Sunbeam is in
5 disarray, having put out a prior press release
6 about the quarter and now, just two weeks plus
7 later, having to announce that that was an
8 inaccurate estimate.
9 The fact that Uzzi has been fired.
10 And I also think that, and I don't
11 know if it is in the press release or not,
12 that Rich Goudis had left Sunbeam. He was 13 urging me to urge Dunlap to have an analyst
14 conference call to quiet the marketplace and 15 explain Sunbeam is still a viable company, et
16 cetera, et cetera.
17 I told him that I thought such a
18 message to Dunlap would carry more weight if
19 it came from Bill Strong rather than from me.
20 Q. Did you say anything else at all in 21 the call?
22 A. I don't remember.
23 Q. Were you concerned about the April
24 3rd press release?
25 A. Concerned?

Page 177

1 Q. Yes.
2 A. Um --
3 Q. I will withdraw the question.
4 Did Mr. Strong appear concerned
5 about the April 3rd press release?
6 A. Absolutely, yes.
7 Q. I think you used the term, he said
8 the market was "in disarray"?
9 A. Yes. We were both concerned. I was 10 concerned -- not about the press release, but 11 about the company, what was really going on.
12 Q. Before April 3rd, did you have any
13 foreshadowing of the results that were going
14 to be announced on April 3rd?
15 A. None whatsoever.
16 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
17 form.
18 A. David Fannin call the night before,
19 hit me out of the blue, and I was in shock to 20 hear this.
21 Q. You referred to "this." Are you
22 referring to Sunbeam's results for the first
23 quarter?
24 A. That, the firing of Uzzi and, I
25 believe, the leaving of Goudis.

Page 178

1 Q. Based on your telephone call with
2 Mr. Strong and the tone of voice that you
3 heard from Mr. Strong, did you conclude that
4 Mr. Strong was of the same state of mind?
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
6 form.
7 A. Yes. I was concerned, as I
8 previously testified, that this press release
9 was causing havoc in the marketplace, ah, and 10 he wanted to see if that situation could be
11 addressed.
12 Q. What if -- withdrawn. Is there
13 anything else that you can recall today, as 14 you sit here, about the telephone call with 15 Mr. Strong, on or about April 3rd?
16 A. No. Not really.
17 Q. Did you make any notes of the phone
18 call?
19 A. I don't remember.
20 Q. Did you create any memoranda about
21 the phone call at a later time?
22 A. I don't recall.
23 Q. Did you make any follow-up phone
24 calls to anyone, or after the April 3rd call
25 with Mr. Strong? For example, you called 018382

Page 179

1 Mr. Easton, earlier -- when Mr. Fannin called
2 you --
3 A. Nothing stands out in my mind today.
4 I don't recall. I may have called Fannin. I
5 may have called Easton. I may have called
6 both of them, but I don't really remember.
7 Q. Did you call Mr. Dunlop?
8 A. No, I did not.
9 Q. Did he call you about the April 3rd
10 press release -- that is, Mr. Dunlap?
11 A. I don't recall. I don't recall
12 speaking to him about it, but I may have.
13 Q. Did you speak to anyone else at
14 Morgan Stanley about the April 3rd press
15 release, other than Mr. Strong, in this call
16 on April 3rd?
17 A. I remember the morning of April 3rd
18 noticing that the press release hadn't been 19 issued, the stock was trading, as the day went 20 on.
21 Um, I spoke to Rich Easton. We both
22 got very nervous that this information should 23 be out.
24 MR. MALLOY: Wait a minute.
25 THE WITNESS: I am sorry.

Page 180

1 A. I spoke to Easton and Fannin about
2 the fact that the press release, that there
3 seemed to be some delay in the issuance of the
4 press release.
5 Q. Was it ever, did the presses
6 release, at some point, get issued on April
7 3rd?
8 A. I believe it did.
9 Q. Did you ever hear from any source as 10 to the reason there was any delay in issuing
11 the presses release?
12 MR. MALLOY: In a non-privileged
13 context.
14 MR. BEMIS: Just Yes or No at this
15 point.
16 MR. MALLOY: You are asking him for
17 the substance of a --
18 MR. BEMIS: I asked him if he
19 learned the reason, not what the reason
20 was, not who said it to him, not when,
21 but whether he knows, Yes or No, and then
22 I will follow up on that.
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. When did you learn the reason?
25 A. Sometime in April 3rd, in a

Page 181

1 conversation with David Fannin.
2 Q. Was anyone else on the call?
3 A. No. I don't think so.
4 Q. Did Mr. Fannin give you the reason
5 for the delay?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. What time of day was the press
8 release issued?
9 A. I don't remember.
10 Q. How late in the day was it?
11 A. I believe it got out, I don't
12 remember -- I am not even sure that it made it
13 out in the morning. I don't recall.
14 Q. What did Mr. Fannin say about the 15 reason for the delay in issuing the press
16 release?
17 DI MR. MALLOY: I instruct you not to 18 answer that question on the grounds of
19 attorney/client privilege.
20 Q. Was Mr. Fannin seeking your legal 21 advice in telling you the reason for the 22 delay?
23 A. No.
24 Q. What did Mr. Fannin say to you about
25 the delay in issuing the press release?

Page 182

1 MR. MALLOY: Let me talk to the
2 witness.
3 MR. BEMIS: No. I don't want you to
4 talk to him. I object to you talking to 5 the witness in the middle of an
6 examination when the witness has just
7 said he wasn't giving legal advice.
8 MR. MALLOY: I need to be satisfied
9 of that before he answers the question on 10 the record.
11 MR. BEMIS: All right. I don't
12 agree with it, but obviously you are his 13 attorney and you can speak to him.
14 Off the record.
15 (Discussion off the record.)
16 MR. MALLOY: I will stand by my
17 instruction.
18 A. I must clarify a prior answer. It
19 was in the context of my giving legal advice.
20 Q. After the -- withdrawn.
21 Was the conversation that you had
22 with Mr. Strong before or after the press
23 release was issued on April 3rd?
24 A. Was my conversation with --
25 Q. With Bill Strong.

018383

Page 183

1 A. It was after the press release was
2 issued, I believe.
3 Q. Did you speak to anyone at Sunbeam,
4 other than Mr. Fannin, after the press release
5 was issued -- withdrawn.
6 Did you speak to anyone else, other
7 than Mr. Fannin, about the reason for what you
8 referred to as the delay in issuing the April
9 3rd press release?
10 A. I believe I spoke to Rich Easton
11 about it.
12 Q. Other than Mr. Easton, anyone else?
13 A. I don't recall any such
14 conversation.
15 Q. Did you speak to anyone at Wachtel
16 Lipton about the April 3rd press release,
17 either before or after it was issued?
18 A. I don't recall.
19 Q. Anyone at MacAndrews & Forbes?
20 A. I don't recall.
21 Q. Anyone at Credit Suisse First
22 Boston?
23 A. I don't recall.
24 Q. Anyone at Arthur Andersen?
25 A. I don't recall.

Page 184

1 Q. Did you ever speak to Mr. Uzzi again
2 after the phone call on March 18th?
3 A. I don't recall any such
4 conversation.
5 Q. Did you ever speak to Deborah
6 McDonald again, after the phone call on March
7 18th?
8 A. I may have, but I am not sure.
9 Q. After the April 3rd press release,
10 did you ever receive from anyone at MacAndrews
11 & Forbes a request for any information
12 concerning Sunbeam's results of operations for
13 the first quarter of 1998?
14 A. I am not sure how to answer the
15 question.
16 There were many, many discussions
17 involving people at MacAndrews & Forbes about 18 Sunbeam's operations, including the first
19 quarter of 1998, which took place at a later
20 time than what we are talking about.
21 Q. Is this after the change in
22 management at Sunbeam in June of 1998?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. Let me focus the time period and may
25 I, I would like to use June 15th, just as a

Page 185

1 marker point for us for the point, the change
2 of management. Is that a fair date for you to
3 use?
4 A. The record would show what date it
5 was. Is that the date of the board meeting?
6 Q. The board meeting, I think, was on
7 June 13th, and I think -- that is when
8 Mr. Dunlap was terminated, and I think
9 Mr. Levin was hired, I think, on June 14th and 10 15th. Within a day.
11 A. That is a Sunday? That is the right
12 day.
13 Q. We will use that day, subject to
14 correction. I will just ask you a question,
15 posted between March 30th, and June 15th,
16 1998. Did you ever speak to anyone at 17 MacAndrews & Forbes on the matter of any
18 request for financial information about 19 Sunbeam's operations in the first quarter of 20 1998?
21 A. I have no recollection of any such
22 conversation.
23 Q. The same question with regard to
24 Wachtel Lipton.
25 A. I don't recall.

Page 186

1 Q. And the same question with regard to
2 Credit Suisse First Boston.
3 A. I don't recall.
4 Q. Ernst & Young?
5 A. I don't recall.
6 Q. During that same, period March 30th,
7 1998, up to and including, say, June 15th,
8 1998, did you ever receive any request for 9 information about Sunbeam on any subject from 10 MacAndrews & Forbes, whether it be financial
11 information, who is who in management?
12 A. I don't recall.
13 Q. The same question with regard to
14 Wachtel Lipton.
15 A. I don't recall.
16 Q. The same question with regard to
17 Credit Suisse First Boston.
18 A. The same answer: I don't recall.
19 Q. The same question with regard to
20 Ernst & Young.
21 A. I don't recall.
22 Q. After your conversation with
23 Mr. Strong, on or about April 3rd, 1998,
24 following the issuance of the press release,
25 did you have any further communications with

018384

Page 187

1 him, say, up through June 15th, about Sunbeam?
2 A. I don't remember.
3 Q. Any communications with anyone at
4 Morgan Stanley in that time period, between
5 April 3rd and June 15th, 1998, about, again,
6 Sunbeam?
7 A. I really don't remember. I am
8 trying to remember. There was a, there was an
9 analyst meeting at some point at which Sunbeam
10 executives made presentations and I am, I
11 don't know if Morgan Stanley -- I can't
12 remember if Morgan Stanley was there or not,
13 or if I talked to them or not. It is very
14 possible. I don't remember.
15 Q. Are you referring to the analyst
16 meeting on May 11th, 1998 that you attended?
17 A. I am referring to analyst meeting in 18 the time frame previously indicated, um, which
19 I attended, and I don't remember the date
20 specifically.
21 Q. Did Mr. Dunlap speak at this analyst
22 meeting?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Is this the only analyst meeting
25 that you can recall taking place in the period

Page 188

1 between April 30th, 1998 and June 15th, 1998?
2 A. It is the only one I attended.
3 Q. Okay.
4 Short of the analyst -- excuse me,
5 withdrawn.
6 Excluding this analyst meeting, do
7 you have any recollection of any communication
8 of any kind with anyone from Morgan Stanley,
9 whether it be written or oral or electronic,
10 between April 3rd, 1998 and June 15th, 1998?
11 A. I don't have any recollection.
12 Q. Do you have any recollection of
13 anyone at Skadden Arps having any such
14 communication with Morgan Stanley, even though
15 you did not, personally, have it?
16 A. I don't have any recollection.
17 Q. Do you have any recollection, as you
18 sit here today, of MacAndrews & Forbes, at any
19 period during the negotiations of the merger
20 agreements and up to the closing on March
21 30th, 1998, requesting copies of Sunbeam's
22 interim financial statements for any period in
23 the first quarter of 1998?
24 A. I don't have any recollection.
25 Q. Do you have any recollection --

Page 189

1 strike that.
2 To your knowledge, did anyone from
3 Credit Suisse First Boston make any request
4 for the interim financial statements of
5 Sunbeam for any period in the first quarter of 6 1998 during the negotiation of the merger
7 agreements and up to and including their
8 closing on March 30th, 1998?
9 A. I don't know.
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection. Lack of
11 foundation.
12 MR. BEMIS: What was his answer?
13 (Record read.)
14 Q. To your knowledge, did any
15 representative of Ernst & Young, the 16 accounting firm, make any request that you are 17 aware of for Sunbeam's interim financial 18 statements for any period in 1998 during the 19 negotiations of the merger agreements, up to 20 and including their closing on March 30th,
21 1998?
22 A. I don't have any. I don't recall.
23 Q. Did anyone from the law firm of 24 Wachtel Lipton make any request that you are 25 aware of for copies of Sunbeam interim

Page 190

1 financial statements for any period during the
2 first quarter of 1998, either during the
3 negotiations of the merger agreements or in
4 the period up to and including their closing
5 on March 30th, 1998?
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
7 form.
8 A. I don't recall.
9 Q. What, if any, involvement did you
10 have with Sunbeam -- strike that.
11 You did continue to represent
12 Sunbeam after the April 3rd, 1998 press
13 release; correct?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. What was your involvement, if any,
16 with Sunbeam between the April 3rd, 1998 press
17 release and the analyst meeting, which, for 18 the record, fairly shows was May 11th, 1998?
19 A. I don't remember what I did for
20 Sunbeam during that period. I believe -- I
21 mean -- at some point in that general time
22 frame there was a big meeting with Sunbeam
23 people and their consultants from one of the 24 accounting firms.
25 Q. Coopers & Lybrand?

018385

Page 191

1 A. I think it was Coopers. And I was
2 invited to that all-day meeting, which was for
3 the purpose of talking about restructuring
4 Coleman, the other companies Sunbeam had
5 acquired, et cetera. An all-day meeting,
6 management presentations, consultants
7 presentations.
8 I said and did very little at that
9 meeting. There was also a board meeting
10 somewhere in that time frame. I just can't
11 pinpoint it, sitting here today.
12 Q. Let me show you what has been marked
13 as Morgan Stanley 535, first.
14 A. Thank you. I have it, yes, I have
15 read it.
16 Q. Did you receive a copy of this
17 memorandum, as shown on the CC lines at the 18 bottom-left-hand corner?
19 A. I probably did, yes.
20 Q. There are several meetings referred
21 to in this memorandum.
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Let me ask you: Do you recognize
24 this as being a document received from David
25 Fannin, based on the signatures that appear at

1 the left top?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. There are several meetings referred
4 to, and one is a meeting concerning some
5 presentations by Coopers & Lybrand; do you see
6 that?
7 A. I do.
8 Q. You did refer to a meeting
9 concerning Coopers & Lybrand, that Coopers &
10 Lybrand appeared at and there were
11 presentations. Is the meeting that you were 12 testifying to the meeting that is identified
13 in MS 535?
14 A. Um, the first meeting that is
15 identified in MS 535 is a meeting of the board
16 of directors of Sunbeam to be held on May 6th.
17 Q. Correct.
18 A. 1998. There was a prior meeting.
19 Not a board meeting, but a prior meeting with 20 Sunbeam management and Coopers & Lybrand, at 21 Coopers & Lybrand, which I attended, previous 22 to the board meeting.
23 Q. And then there was also a board
24 meeting; correct?
25 A. Yes.

Page 193

1 Q. And after the board meeting --
2 withdrawn.
3 Was the board meeting on May 6th,
4 1998, as reflected in MS 535?
5 A. To the best of my recollection, it
6 was -- yes, somewhere around there. I think
7 the record speaks for itself.
8 Q. I have the minutes of the meeting,
9 so I will not -- it is not a guessing contest.
10 The Coopers & Lybrand meeting preceded the 11 board meeting, as best you recall?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. And then, following the board
14 meeting, there was the analyst meeting?
15 A. Yes. Three meetings. I attended
16 all three.
17 Q. Did you attend the annual meeting of 18 the stockholders of Sunbeam on May 12th?
19 A. I don't remember.
20 Q. All right. Focusing now on the --
21 A. Excuse me. If as this document
22 indicated it was in South Florida, I don't
23 believe I did.
24 Q. Okay. Focusing on the Coopers &
25 Lybrand meeting, first in the sequence, did

Page 194

1 anyone from Morgan Stanley attend that
2 meeting?
3 A. I believe so, but I don't recall
4 specifically who.
5 Q. Do you recall if anyone did attend,
6 and what, if anything, the Morgan Stanley
7 representative said?
8 A. No. I don't remember who said what
9 at that meeting.
10 Q. Were the results of Sunbeam's
11 operations for the first quarter, that is 12 financial results discussed at this meeting?
13 A. I don't recall. The focus of the 14 meeting was how can we restructure Sunbeam and 15 these acquired companies, position the company
16 for moving forward, et cetera. The focus of 17 the meeting was on the future.
18 Q. Did Mr. Dunlap speak at the meeting?
19 A. Oh, yes.
20 Q. Where was this meeting?
21 A. At Coopers, I believe.
22 Q. It was at Coopers.
23 A. In New York.
24 Q. In New York. Who attended on behalf
25 of Sunbeam, besides Mr. Dunlap?

018386

Page 195

1 A. There were a lot of people. Russ
2 Kersh was there. David Fannin was there. I
3 remember a fellow name Frank Ferako was there.
4 He had just been hired.
5 There were a bunch of other people,
6 and I don't remember exactly.
7 Q. Did anyone from Skadden Arps attend.
8 Other than yourself?
9 A. I think I was a Lone Ranger at that
10 meeting.
11 Q. Do you remember any of the 12 individuals from Coopers & Lybrand who were at
13 the meeting?
14 A. There was a whole troop. I don't 15 remember the guy's name who was in charge, but 16 he was Al Dunlap's go-to guy for 17 restructuring.
18 Q. Does Bennett ring a bell?
19 A. Who? It doesn't ring a bell.
20 Q. How long did this meeting last?
21 A. It was, like, all day.
22 Q. Were there any -- were there
23 documents that were handed out at the meeting?
24 A. I think there were all kinds of
25 documents.

Page 196

1 Q. Slides, decks?
2 A. I don't remember slides or decks,
3 but there were all kinds of documents.
4 Q. What was your role at the meeting?
5 A. I had no idea why I was invited to
6 the meeting. I sat there and listened.
7 Q. How did the meeting come to a
8 conclusion?
9 A. They decided to move forward and
10 presented to the board some kind of a
11 restructuring plan, the details of which I no
12 longer recall.
13 Q. Did you attend the board meeting
14 where those details were presented?
15 A. I did.
16 Q. Let me show you the minutes of the
17 board of directors meeting, which we will mark
18 as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 614. I handed you
19 what the reporter has marked for us as Morgan
20 Stanley Exhibit 614. Do you have that in
21 front of you?
22 A. I do.
23 Q. Okay. Have you seen this document
24 before?
25 A. Probably, but I don't have any

Page 197

1 specific recollection of having done so.
2 Q. While you represented Sunbeam, was
3 it customary for you to receive copies of the 4 board of directors minutes?
5 A. Um, not all of them. I mean,
6 sometimes I did and sometimes I did not.
7 Q. You are shown as being in attendance
8 in the second paragraph of the minutes of May 9 6th, 1998. Do you see that?
10 A. I was there.
11 Q. You were there.
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Did you attend the entire meeting?
14 A. I was there from the opening gavel
15 until the board said let's adjourn. Yes.
16 Q. On page 5 --
17 A. Faith Wittlesey was late.
18 Q. Why is it that you remember that?
19 A. Because when she walked in maybe 20
20 minutes late, Mr. Dunlap dressed her down in 21 front of the whole board and said that if she 22 couldn't come on time, she should leave the 23 board.
24 Q. Did she respond?
25 A. Not really.

Page 198

1 Q. Did any of the other directors
2 respond?
3 A. I don't think anybody said anything
4 at that point. Burnett, not Bennett, Burnett,
5 that is the guy.
6 Q. I apologize. I thought that is what
7 it was after I told you Burnett.
8 A. You told me Bennett.
9 Q. Excuse me. We were both close.
10 A. Right.
11 Q. Turn to page 5, please, under the 12 heading "first quarter."
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Did Mr. Kersh make a presentation to 15 the board of directors about the results of 16 Sunbeam's operations for the first quarter,
17 including an analysis of the reason for any
18 shortfall in the results?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Do you remember his presentation,
21 other than what is written in the minutes?
22 A. No.
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
24 form.
25 Q. Do you remember anything at all that 018387

Page 199

1 Mr. Kersh said about the first quarter
2 operations of Sunbeam?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. What do you remember that he said?
5 A. Let me just pause for a minute. Is 6 this privileged?
7 MR. MALLOY: Can you read back the
8 question.
9 (Record read.)
10 THE WITNESS: Actually, I testified
11 about it yesterday.
12 Q. Not only that, the minutes reflect
13 that, if it was privileged, it would have been 14 redacted like the rest of the minutes were 15 redacted. I am not your lawyer. I think you
16 did --
17 MR. MALLOY: I think you are on safe
18 ground.
19 A. Well, I remember asking the question
20 as to why, wasn't it a fact that the first
21 quarter was bad because the customers weren't
22 buying the product. And both Dunlap and Kersh
23 responding by saying that press release on 24 March 19th put us in a terribly weak position
25 and the customers took advantage of us.

Page 200

1 Q. This is the conversation, I believe,
2 you related to us yesterday?
3 A. Yes. Correct.
4 Q. Do you recall Mr. Dunlap saying
5 anything else?
6 A. No.
7 Q. I believe yesterday you said that
8 Mr. Kersh echoed Mr. Dunlap; is that correct?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Do you recall Mr. Kersh saying
11 anything else?
12 A. No. Not really.
13 Q. Did the board of directors say
14 anything in response to Mr. Dunlap's
15 explanation?
16 A. I don't recall.
17 Q. Did you say anything else?
18 A. No, I don't think I did.
19 Q. Do you recall anyone else at the 20 meeting making any other comments or asking
21 any questions about the first quarter results,
22 other than what you have described to us?
23 A. I don't recall.
24 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley make
25 any statements at the meeting that you

Page 201

1 remember?
2 A. Not that I recall, no.
3 Q. Did you have any discussions, at or
4 about the time of the meeting, with anyone
5 from Morgan Stanley? Again, about the matters
6 of the meeting.
7 A. I don't recall.
8 Q. Was the Coopers & Lybrand meeting
9 and the discussion of the restructuring
10 efforts discussed with the board of directors?
11 A. I believe so, yes.
12 Q. What was discussed on that subject?
13 A. I believe the general parameters of 14 the restructuring plan proposal was presented
15 to the board by Coopers & Lybrand.
16 Q. Did the board ask any questions?
17 A. I believe that they did, yes, but I
18 don't recall what they were.
19 Q. All right.
20 A. Or who asked them specifically.
21 Q. Mr. Easton is shown in the minutes
22 as attending the meeting.
23 A. He was there.
24 Q. Did you, at the meeting, provide any 25 legal advice to the company?

Page 202

1 A. I don't recall doing so.
2 Q. Did Mr. Easton provide any legal
3 advice?
4 A. I don't recall him doing so.
5 MR. BEMIS: You may hand that back
6 to me. Thank you.
7 MR. MALLOY: Off the record.
8 (Discussion off the record.)
9 THE REPORTER: Is this confidential?
10 MR. MALLOY: Yes. We are 11 designating yesterday's transcript as 12 confidential, as well.
13 MR. BEMIS: We are going to 14 challenge that, since we are on the
15 record.
16 Q. I am handing you what has been
17 marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 115 at an 18 earlier deposition. Do you have that in front
19 of you, sir?
20 A. I do.
21 Q. Have you seen this document before?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. What were the circumstances under
24 which you first saw the document?
25 A. It was -- in which I first saw it.

018388

Page 203

1 I don't remember. But I did see it before it
2 was issued. And I discussed it with Rich
3 Easton and I discussed it with David Fannin
4 and I discussed it with the people at the PR
5 firm of Sard Verbinnen.
6 The first word is S-A-R-D, George
7 Sard and Maureen Bailey.
8 Q. Did you draft the press release?
9 A. I don't believe so.
10 Q. Do you know who drafted it?
11 A. No. But I think it was somebody at 12 the company and/or George Sard's firm.
13 Q. How did you first -- withdrawn.
14 Did I hear you correctly that you
15 believe you saw a draft of it before it was 16 issued?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. How did you receive the draft?
19 A. I don't remember.
20 Q. Did you speak to Mr. Easton alone
21 about the press release?
22 A. I believe Rich and I discussed it
23 before we talked to Fannin and Sard and 24 Bailey.
25 Q. Did you talk to --

Page 204

1 MR. MALLOY: I would just note that
2 we consider those conversations to be
3 privileged.
4 Q. Did you --
5 MR. MALLOY: I will caution the
6 witness not to go into the substance of
7 those conversations.
8 THE WITNESS: I am sorry, I need a
9 clarification. The substance of all of
10 those conversations?
11 MR. MALLOY: We will let Mr. Bemis
12 establish the nature of the 13 conversations, and then we will take a --
14 we will take them one by one.
15 A. Okay.
16 Q. Are we all set?
17 You spoke as to Mr. Easton first
18 about the draft of Morgan Stanley 115; right?
19 A. I did, yes.
20 Q. Just now I want to go through the 21 sequence, so that I understand who was 22 present. You then had a -- did you then have 23 a conference with Mr. Fannin and Maureen
24 Bailey?
25 A. I believe Easton and I then spoke

Page 205

1 probably with Fannin alone first, and then
2 with Fannin and George Sard and Maureen
3 Bailey, and it may be that Dunlap and/or Kersh
4 were at Sard Verbinnen and in the room for
5 that call. I don't remember. All of these 6 were phone calls.
7 Q. Was the conversation with Mr. Easton
8 a phone call?
9 A. Correct. Yes.
10 Q. When you spoke to Mr. Easton, did
11 you have a draft of the press release?
12 A. Yes. We both did.
13 Q. Okay.
14 When you spoke to Mr. Fannin, he had
15 a draft of the press release, as well?
16 A. He was at Sard Verbinnen and they
17 were creating a press release there, as I
18 recall.
19 Q. But you did speak to him separately
20 before you spoke to the larger group,
21 Mr. Fannin, Ms. Maureen Bailey --
22 A. That is my recollection, yes.
23 Q. And possibly Mr. Dunlap and
24 Mr. Kersh; correct?
25 A. Yes.

Page 206

1 Q. What did you and Mr. Easton say to
2 each other when you first spoke about the
3 press release?
4 MR. MALLOY: I will instruct you not
5 to answer that question on the grounds of
6 attorney/client privilege.
7 Q. Were you asked -- had you been asked
8 to review the press release?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Were you asked to give legal advice
11 about the press release?
12 A. I was asked to comment on it.
13 Q. Were you asked to comment on legal
14 matters, as opposed to business matters?
15 A. Yes. I think the text of the press
16 release is both business and legal.
17 Q. This was now, at least the third
18 press release that you identified that you
19 either reviewed or helped create, correct,
20 because you looked at the March 19th press
21 release, you helped write the March 19th press
22 release, and you also assisted in some fashion
23 with the April 3rd press release; correct?
24 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
25 form.

018389

Page 207

1 MR. MALLOY: I object to that
2 question. It mischaracterizes his
3 testimony.
4 A. I would correct that in that, yes,
5 with respect to the March 19th press release,
6 as I testified at great length yesterday, I
7 was involved in the creation of that press
8 release.
9 Q. Okay. You also --
10 A. With respect to the April --
11 Q. Excuse me.
12 A. With respect to the April 3rd press
13 release, my involvement simply was to get a
14 phone call to Mr. Fannin at home, the night
15 before it was issued, telling me --
16 MR. MALLOY: Well --
17 A. Here is what happened and here is
18 what is being issued.
19 Q. You were asked to comment on it?
20 A. I was.
21 Q. You asserted an attorney/client
22 privilege to your conversation with
23 Mr. Fannin; correct?
24 A. Correct.
25 Q. You refused to tell me what was

Page 208

1 said?
2 MR. MALLOY: He was instructed not
3 to answer.
4 A. I was asked not to comment on it.
5 Q. You met with your counsel out in the 6 hall and came back in and said you would not
7 tell me what was said; is that correct?
8 A. I do remember that.
9 Q. Let's move forward -- let's go
10 forward to the April -- excuse me, the May 11 11th press release, 1998, and your testimony
12 is that you are giving both business and legal
13 advice to Sunbeam; correct?
14 A. No. I give legal advice.
15 Q. All right. I thought I heard you
16 say that you were, your advice was both
17 business and legal.
18 MR. MALLOY: He did not say that.
19 Q. If I misheard him, I misheard him.
20 I don't wish to suggest otherwise.
21 A. I believe I said that the press
22 release is both a business matter and a legal
23 matter.
24 Q. You were giving legal advice to
25 Sunbeam on the contents of their press release

Page 209

1 of May 11th; correct?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. All right. You did that first in a
4 conversation with Mr. Easton; right?
5 A. Mr. Easton and I -- we got our
6 comments together on the press release.
7 Q. These were your legal comments?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. All right. And then, the next thing
10 that happens is -- well, just so we can close
11 the record on this -- what did you and 12 Mr. Easton say to each other?
13 MR. MALLOY: I have instructed him
14 not to answer that question already.
15 MR. BEMIS: Okay.
16 Q. Let's move on, then, to the next
17 telephone call on -- and that is between you
18 and Mr. Fannin.
19 A. And Mr. Easton, I believe.
20 Q. I did not realize that he was on 21 that call. Sorry.
22 A. I think so.
23 Q. Again, was this on May 11th, the 24 same day? Withdrawn.
25 Were all these conversations on May

Page 210

1 11th, or were they before May 11th?
2 A. I don't remember. I think they were
3 before May 11th.
4 Q. But close to May 11th?
5 A. Yes. Between the board meeting and
6 the issuance of the press release sometime.
7 Q. What did you say to Mr. Fannin in
8 this three-way call between yourself,
9 Mr. Easton and Mr. Fannin?
10 MR. MALLOY: I will instruct you not
11 to answer that question, on the grounds
12 of privilege.
13 Q. What did Mr. Easton say?
14 MR. MALLOY: Same instructions.
15 Q. What did Mr. Fannin say?
16 MR. MALLOY: Same instruction.
17 Q. And then, after this conversation
18 between Messrs. Fannin, Easton and yourself,
19 there was another phone call which you have 20 identified with the Maureen Bailey and --
21 Sard, is it Michael Sard?
22 A. George Sard.
23 Q. George Sard. Sorry. George Sard.
24 And possibly Mr. Dunlap and Mr. Kersh;
25 correct?

018390

Page 211

1 A. Correct.
2 Q. How long did that conversation last?
3 A. It was not a long conversation.
4 Q. On the press release again; correct?
5 A. Yes, correct.
6 Q. What did you say in the telephone
7 call?
8 DI MR. MALLOY: Same instruction. I
9 instruct you not to answers on the 10 grounds of privilege.
11 Q. Were you on this telephone call
12 providing legal advice to George Sard and 13 Maureen Bailey and Mr., Messrs. Fannin, Dunlap
14 and Kersh?
15 A. Yes, we were.
16 Q. Was Mr. Easton, by the way, on this
17 call?
18 A. Yes, I believe he was.
19 Q. How long did the six of you speak?
20 A. I am not sure that Dunlap and Kersh
21 were involved in the phone call. I am not
22 sure that they were at Sard Verbinnen.
23 I think I heard. I think one of 24 them said something, but just with that
25 amendment. The call was not a long call,

Page 212

1 maybe ten minutes.
2 Q. Was your legal advice followed?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Did you and/or you and Mr. Easton
5 make specific legal recommendations as to the 6 text of the press release which we have
7 identified as MS 115?
8 DI MR. MALLOY: I will instruct him not
9 to answer that question on the grounds of
10 privilege.
11 Q. What was the general subject matter
12 of the advice that you gave them at the 13 meeting, without telling me what the specific
14 advice was that was rejected?
15 A. Generally, it was about the text of 16 the press release.
17 Q. Did Sunbeam accept any of your
18 recommendations?
19 MR. MALLOY: You can answer that Yes
20 or No.
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. And they rejected others?
23 A. Other.
24 Q. Other. Did you document in any way
25 in your files the legal advice that was

Page 213

1 rejected by Sunbeam?
2 A. I don't recall doing so.
3 Q. Was anyone at Morgan Stanley on any
4 of these calls leading up to the issuance of
5 the May 11th press release?
6 A. Not to the best of my recollection.
7 Q. Did you consult with anyone at
8 Morgan Stanley about the legal advice that you
9 gave Sunbeam in these various phone calls
10 concerning MS 115?
11 A. I don't recall doing so.
12 Q. Was there any delay in issuing the
13 March, excuse me, May 11th press release,
14 similar to what you recall of the April 3rd --
15 A. I don't recall any such delay.
16 Q. Did you then attend the May 11th
17 analyst meeting that Mr. Dunlap spoke at?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Did you attend the entire meeting?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Did you say anything at the analyst
22 meeting?
23 A. Nothing.
24 Q. How would you describe the meeting?
25 A. It was a typical analyst meeting.

Page 214

1 Management, Dunlap, Kersh and others made
2 presentations and the analysts asked
3 questions.
4 Q. Anything unusual about the questions
5 or the answers?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. What?
8 A. There was one analyst who asked some
9 very pointed questions and Mr. Dunlap got 10 very, very heated and dressed him down and 11 called him irresponsible in front of the whole
12 group.
13 I don't think I have ever seen that
14 before or after in an analyst conference.
15 Q. Who was the analyst; do you know?
16 A. I don't recall, sitting here today.
17 I think it was Andrew-something.
18 Q. Andrew Shore?
19 A. Andrew-something.
20 Dunlap kept pointing a finger at
21 him, saying, Andrew you don't know what you
22 are talking about, you are irresponsible,
23 etc., etc.
24 Q. Did you have any discussions with
25 Mr. Dunlap about the analyst meeting after it

018391

1 took place?
2 A. I don't recall doing so.
3 Q. Did you witness any confrontation
4 between Mr. Shore and Mr. Dunlap at the end of
5 the meeting?
6 A. I saw it from a distance, that the 7 two of them were engaged in what appeared to
8 be an argument, but I did not really witness
9 it.
10 Q. Did you hear about it?
11 A. I think so, but I don't remember who 12 told me what or when.
13 Q. Attached to the press release of 14 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 111 are the -- are the 15 results as presented?
16 A. 115 or 111?
17 Q. I may have misspoke. Let me look
18 here. 115. Let me ask the question again.
19 Do you have Exhibit 115 in front of
20 you?
21 A. I do.
22 Q. If you would turn to the last three
23 pages, as certain condensed consolidated
24 financial information.
25 A. Yes.

Page 216

1 Q. Do you see it?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Did you see that information in the
4 draft press release that you reviewed before
5 May 11th?
6 A. I don't remember.
7 Q. Referring to specifically the third
8 to the last page, bearing the Bates number
9 0063809, would you look at that, please.
10 A. Yes, sir.
11 Q. The net sales figures that appear at
12 the top under the headings March 31st, 1998,
13 and March 30th, 1997, do you see that?
14 A. I do.
15 Q. When was the first time that you --
16 strike that.
17 Had you seen these figures before?
18 A. I don't remember. The April 3rd
19 press release addressed, in general, this
20 topic. But I don't think it had the figures
21 in there.
22 Q. Okay. You may set this document
23 aside. We are done with it. You can hand it
24 back.
25 MR. MALLOY: Are you going to wrap

Page 217

1 up now?
2 MR. BEMIS: Shortly.
3 Q. Did you see the article that
4 appeared in the June 6th, 1998 Barron's
5 magazine?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. What were the circumstances under
8 which you saw it?
9 A. I think Mr. Fannin called me.
10 Q. Had you seen the article at the time
11 that Mr. Fannin called you?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Let me show you a copy of the
14 document, just so that you have it, the
15 letter -- the one that I will show you is a
16 printout, because the large copy doesn't
17 photocopy very well. I will hand you what has 18 been previously marked as Morgan Stanley
19 Exhibit 74.
20 A. Yes, sir, I have it in front of me.
21 Q. At the time you had spoken to 22 Mr. Fannin, had you seen the article in 23 Barron's, MS 74?
24 A. No. He called and told me about it.
25 Q. Did he send it to you or did you go

Page 218

1 out and buy a copy?
2 A. I think I wandered over to my
3 nearest newsstand and picked it up. It was a
4 weekend, if I recall.
5 Q. What did Mr. Fannin say to you about
6 the article when you spoke to him on the
7 telephone?
8 A. He said it is a damaging article and
9 I aught to see it.
10 Q. Not having seen it, what did you
11 say?
12 A. I said that I will go get a copy.
13 Q. Did your read the article after you
14 purchased the Barron's?
15 A. As soon as I bought it.
16 Q. Did you speak to Mr. Fannin or
17 anyone else at Sunbeam after that?
18 A. Sure. Yes.
19 Q. Did you speak to Mr. Easton about
20 it?
21 A. I believe so. I don't recall
22 exactly whom I spoke to and when I spoke to
23 them, but there were a lot of conversations
24 about that article.
25 Q. Did you have a conversation,

018392

Page 219

1 conversations with people at Sunbeam?
2 A. Other than Mr. Fannin, I don't
3 believe so.
4 Q. Did you attend the board meeting on
5 June 9th, 1998, at which time the Barron's
6 article was discussed?
7 A. I did.
8 Q. Were you asked to attend the board
9 meeting by Mr. Fannin?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. I will show you a copy of the 12 minutes of that meeting, which have been
13 previously marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit
14 605.
15 Now, you -- I think you said that
16 the article, that Mr. Fannin said that the 17 article in Barron's MS 74 was quite damaging.
18 Did I hear you correctly?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And what was your reaction to the
21 article in Barron's when you read it?
22 A. It seemed quite damaging.
23 Q. Is it fair to say that you agreed
24 with Mr. Fannin' assessment?
25 A. Yes.

Page 220

1 Q. Was it is board meeting -- strike
2 that.
3 You did attend the board meeting,
4 and I have now handed you the minutes of that
5 meeting, MS 605, for June 9th, 1998.
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Have you seen the minutes of the 8 meeting, MS 605, before that are signed by
9 Mr. Fannin?
10 A. Probably, but I don't recall when.
11 Q. Did the minutes of the meeting,
12 based on your attendance of the meeting,
13 fairly and actually summarize the meeting?
14 A. Let me read them.
15 Q. Please do so.
16 A. Yes. But, with respect to the stuff
17 on page 2, I was not there during that portion
18 of the meeting; so, I can't comment on whether 19 that is an accurate summary or not.
20 Q. All right. Let's limit --
21 A. I was told that that is what
22 happened. The earlier part, in very broad
23 outlines, appears to be an accurate summary.
24 Q. You were there with your partner
25 Mr. Easton; right?

Page 221

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. And at this meeting there is also
3 shown in attendance Phil Harlow of Arthur
4 Andersen; is that correct?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Did you understand or -- did you
7 know who -- withdrawn.
8 Did you know who Mr. Harlow was?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Who was he?
11 A. I am not sure if I had met him
12 before, but I knew he was the partner in 13 charge of the Sunbeam audit at Arthur
14 Andersen.
15 Q. When you saw the partner in charge,
16 is that like you being the partner in charge
17 of the Sunbeam account here at Skadden at the 18 time for the Coleman transaction?
19 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
20 form.
21 A. I don't know. I -- I don't know
22 what exactly the partner in charge of an audit
23 does; so, I can't really answer that.
24 Q. Did Mr. Harlow use the term "partner
25 in charge," or how did you --

Page 222

1 A. No. I just -- I used the term, that
2 is what I thought of him as, um, and I don't
3 know that he ever said it to me, he was the
4 point man at Arthur Andersen with respect to
5 Sunbeam.
6 Q. Did he speak at the meeting?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. He is reported to have stated in the 9 third paragraph, from the bottom of the 10 minutes: "Mr. Harlow stated that after having 11 reviewed the Barron's article and management's
12 position, Arthur Andersen stood by its opinion
13 with respect to the corporation's 1997 audited
14 financial statements." Do you see that 15 sentence?
16 A. I do.
17 Q. Do you recall Mr. Harlow saying
18 that?
19 A. Yes, I do.
20 Q. Was there any hesitation in his 21 voice when he said that?
22 A. None whatsoever.
23 Q. Did you sense any hesitation in his
24 body language at the meeting?
25 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the 018393

Page 223

1 form.
2 A. No. He was unequivocal.
3 Q. Did you have any reason to believe
4 that Arthur Andersen was going to later,
5 within weeks, withdraw its opinion as to
6 Sunbeam's 1997 financial statements?
7 A. Not at that time.
8 Q. What was your reaction when Arthur
9 Andersen withdrew its opinion as to Sunbeam's
10 1997 financial statements?
11 A. I was quite surprised.
12 Q. Were you shocked?
13 A. I am not sure I would characterize
14 it as shocked. I was surprised.
15 Q. Did the board ask any questions of 16 Arthur Andersen and Mr. Harlow at the meeting
17 of June 9th?
18 A. Yes, I think so.
19 Q. It refers to numerous questions
20 being asked.
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Did you recall any of the questions
23 being asked of Mr. Harlow?
24 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
25 form of the question.

Page 224

1 A. I believe I recall the areas of some
2 of the questions.
3 Q. What were the areas?
4 A. The gist of some of the questions.
5 Q. What were the gist of the questions
6 that you recall?
7 A. Um, well Mr. Harlow, what about bill
8 and hold, was that appropriate. That was one
9 area that they talked about.
10 Q. What did he say?
11 A. He was responded in the affirmative.
12 Q. Any other questions that you recall?
13 A. Not specifically, but there were 14 numerous questions. I don't remember who 15 asked them or exactly what they were, but --
16 Q. Were they questions that tracked
17 some of the allegations in the Barron's
18 article, MS 74?
19 A. I don't recall.
20 Q. Did you ask any questions of
21 Mr. Harlow?
22 A. I don't recall.
23 Q. Did Mr. Easton?
24 A. I don't recall. There were a lot of 25 questions by a lot of people, and I don't know

Page 225

1 if I chimed in or Rich chimed in. I just
2 don't remember.
3 Q. Do you recall anyone from Morgan
4 Stanley being present at the meeting?
5 A. No, I don't.
6 Q. Did you leave the meeting after the
7 discussion of the Barron's article?
8 A. Um, there was a discussion of the 9 Barron's article. There was a discussion with 10 Harlow about the 1997 audited statements.
11 There was a discussion about the second
12 quarter brief discussion -- and that, after 13 that, I believe the outsiders were asked to 14 leave, nonboard members. The board members
15 and Fannin stayed and the rest of the people
16 were excused.
17 Q. What do you recall about the
18 discussions of the second quarter?
19 A. I recall myself asking Dunlap and 20 Kersh and whoever else were, management was 21 there, how the second quarter is going.
22 Q. What did they say?
23 A. I believe Mr. Kersh said it is a
24 little soft. And no one followed up on that.
25 Q. Was there any discussion of

Page 226

1 Sunbeam's -- withdrawn.
2 Was the next board meeting that you
3 attended of Sunbeam, the board meetings that
4 took place over the weekend, I believe the
5 second week of June, where Mr. Dunlap and
6 Mr. Kersh were terminated?
7 A. Mr. Kersh was not terminated over
8 that week, only Mr. Dunlap.
9 Q. Then I misspoke. Is that -- is the 10 meeting where Mr. Dunlap was terminated the 11 next meeting that you attended?
12 A. Yes. The next meeting of the board,
13 yes.
14 Q. Between the June 9th, 1998 board
15 meeting and Mr. Dunlap's termination, what was 16 your next involvement with Sunbeam?
17 A. I remember a telephone conversation,
18 telephone conversations with Fannin and with 19 Peter Langerman.
20 Q. When was this?
21 A. Between those dates that you just 22 gave.
23 Q. What was the subject matter of those 24 telephone conversations?
25

018394
468810

Page 227

1 MR. MALLOY: Generally.
2 A. Generally, I think one of them told
3 me or -- I don't remember who or maybe both of 4 them told me.
5 MR. MALLOY: I caution you not to
6 get into who said what, because we
7 consider this to be a privileged
8 conversation.
9 MR. BEMIS: Just right now, tell me
10 generally what they were about.
11 A. Generally what had happened at the 12 board meeting of June 9th, after the outsiders
13 were excused.
14 Q. You subsequently learned that
15 Mr. Dunlap offered to resign after you left
16 the meeting?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Were you asked to do anything on 19 behalf of Sunbeam in these phone calls with 20 Mr. Langerman and Mr. Fannin?
21 A. I don't really recall, other than to 22 come to the meeting on the 13th.
23 Q. The meeting, the board meeting of 24 the 13th?
25 A. Yes. Ah, yes.

Page 228

1 Q. Is this the board meeting in which
2 Mr. Dunlap was terminated?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Following Mr. Dunlap's termination
5 and the change in management at Sunbeam, did
6 you participate in a --
7 A. I believe I was asked by one of them
8 to look at the employment contracts of 9 Messrs. Dunlap and Kersh.
10 Q. Did you do that?
11 A. I believe so, yes.
12 Q. Did you look at the provisions in 13 the contracts involving termination?
14 DI MR. MALLOY: I instruct him not to 15 answer questions regarding the nature of 16 his review.
17 Q. All right. Following the board
18 meeting when Mr. Dunlap was terminated, did 19 you participate, either yourself or
20 indirectly, -- withdrawn.
21 Following Mr. Dunlap's termination,
22 did Skadden Arps assist Sunbeam in conducting
23 an investigation of the events of Sunbeam,
24 including its, including financial transaction
25 matters that had occurred since Mr. Dunlap was

Page 229

1 hired?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. What was your role in that
4 investigation?
5 A. Well, the investigation was
6 primarily conducted by Bob Zimet, the very
7 able Chris Malloy, and others from the
8 litigation group here at Skadden, and I
9 reviewed drafts of the report.
10 Q. Was a final report prepared?
11 A. I believe so.
12 Q. Was it presented to the board of
13 directors?
14 A. I believe it was presented to the 15 audit committee.
16 Q. The audit committee.
17 A. I believe.
18 Q. Of the board of directors of
19 Sunbeam?
20 A. Yes. Correct. That is my
21 recollection.
22 Q. You have to be a director to be on
23 the audit committee; right?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. In the report was Morgan Stanley

Page 230

1 identified as having been responsible for any
2 wrongdoing at Sunbeam?
3 DI MR. MALLOY: I will instruct the
4 witness not to answer the questions
5 regarding the substance of the
6 investigation or the report.
7 Q. Was Morgan Stanley mentioned in the
8 report?
9 DI MR. MALLOY: Same instruction.
10 Q. When was the last time that you saw
11 this report?
12 A. I don't remember.
13 Q. Do you know who received copies of
14 the report?
15 A. Do I, personally, know who received
16 copies? No. I assume the audit committee
17 received copies.
18 Q. Did you receive a copy yourself?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. What did you do with your copy?
21 A. I don't remember.
22 Q. Did you ever discuss the audit
23 committee -- strike that.
24 Did you ever discuss this report
25 with anyone at MacAndrews & Forbes?

018395

Page 231

1 A. I don't really remember. I mean,
2 there were all kinds of discussions with
3 MacAndrews & Forbes about what went wrong at
4 Sunbeam, and whether the report was discussed
5 with them, I just don't recall.
6 Q. Did you have discussions with
7 MacAndrews & Forbes over what went wrong at
8 Sunbeam?
9 A. Following Mr. Dunlap's termination,
10 there were numerous meetings, telephone calls
11 with people like Howard Gittes, Barry
12 Schwartz, others at MacAndrews & Forbes about
13 Sunbeam, about the whole situation.
14 Q. Did you participate in these
15 conversations?
16 A. A lot of them, yes.
17 Q. Can you separate one conversation
18 from another?
19 A. No. They all sort of meshed
20 together in my mind.
21 Q. What did you tell them about what
22 went wrong at Sunbeam?
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
24 form.
25 MR. MALLOY: Well, you will have

Page 232

1 to -- many of these conversations were
2 privileged and you will have to parse it
3 out.
4 MR. BEMIS: He said he can't
5 separate one conversation from another.
6 MR. MALLOY: I will instruct him not
7 to answer.
8 MR. BEMIS: These people are not
9 your clients, MacAndrews & Forbes.
10 MR. MALLOY: Mr. Gittes was a
11 director.
12 MR. BEMIS: Mr. Schwartz wasn't a
13 director.
14 MR. MALLOY: I think you have
15 already gotten a report on that; so, I
16 stand by the instructions.
17 Q. What did you tell, did you tell,
18 what did you tell Mr. Schwartz -- about what
19 went wrong at Sunbeam?
20 A. I don't think I told him anything.
21 Q. Was that discussed?
22 A. I previously testified that there
23 were numerous meetings, telephone
24 conversations which I participated in and
25 people from MacAndrews & Forbes participated

Page 233

1 in about the whole Sunbeam situation, and not
2 just the past, but the present and the future,
3 and I can't separate out in my mind any of
4 those with a couple of exceptions.
5 Q. What are the exceptions that you can
6 separate out?
7 A. I remember Howard Gittes taking
8 Peter Langerman and me aside and having a
9 conversation about the situation.
10 Q. When was this?
11 A. Sometime after Mr. Dunlap was 12 terminated, and I don't recall when.
13 Q. What did he say and what did they
14 say?
15 A. Mr. Gittes said that MacAndrews &
16 Forbes has big fraud claims against Sunbeam
17 for having failed to make full disclosure when 18 they issued the stock to them to pay for
19 Coleman, and that it was an intolerable
20 situation for him to be sitting on the board,
21 for other MacAndrews & Forbes people to be
22 involved, ah, while they had these claims.
23 And we had to resolve the situation,
24 one way or the other. The two alternatives he 25 presented to Mr. Langerman and to me were

Page 234

1 either we rescind the Coleman transaction or 2 we reach some kind of settlement of the 3 claims.
4 Q. What did you say?
5 A. I said, I don't know -- I don't
6 recall, but I think Peter Langerman and/or I
7 said, it is not really in Sunbeam's interest
8 or practical to even think about rescinding
9 the transaction.
10 In terms of the settlement, at some
11 point I told Mr. Gittes and/or Mr. Langerman
12 that Skadden couldn't represent either party
13 in that, if there are to be settlement
14 negotiations between MacAndrews & Forbes and
15 Sunbeam.
16 Q. What did Mr. Gittes respond?
17 A. I don't recall exactly, but he, I
18 think he wanted us to stay involved and to 19 represent either Sunbeam or MacAndrews, but 20 I took the position that we really couldn't.
21 Q. You said you did remember this
22 conversation. I thought you said that you
23 remembered another one or more than -- perhaps
24 even more than one, or a specific
25 conversation.

918396

Page 235

1 A. That is the one that I -- I may have
2 misspoke. That is the one that really stands
3 out in my mind.
4 Q. I thought you said several
5 conversations stood out in your mind. I asked
6 you what was the first.
7 A. We can go back and have the
8 transcript -- I believe I said one or two.
9 Q. If you only remember one, that is
10 all you remember. I don't want to quarrel
11 with you about your words. You may have 12 misspoken.
13 A. That is really the one that I
14 remember, now -- I remember sitting in the 15 MacAndrews & Forbes board room with the 16 beautiful Roy Lichtenstein mural, having all
17 kinds of conversations, but I don't recall all
18 of the substance of those conversations.
19 Q. Did Morgan Stanley ever come up in
20 those conversations?
21 A. I don't recall.
22 MR. MALLOY: You said at the
23 beginning that you would go an hour or an 24 hour and a half. It has been an hour and 25 a half.

Page 236

1 MR. BEMIS: I know. I am almost
2 finished.
3 MR. MALLOY: I understand your
4 reluctance to reveal your strategy here.
5 MR. BEMIS: I don't have an overall
6 strategy, but --
7 MR. MALLOY: We really do need to
8 know that you will end today and when
9 your examination will end; so, why don't 10 you tell us how much you will have.
11 MR. BEMIS: As soon as I am done, I
12 will be done --
13 MR. MALLOY: Are you almost done?
14 MR. BEMIS: Yes.
15 MR. MALLOY: Tell us how much more
16 you have, then tell us that you are 17 almost done.
18 MR. BEMIS: I am reviewing my notes.
19 Calm down. Calm down. This is just
20 business.
21 MR. MALLOY: No, you need to wrap
22 up, and you need to not --
23 MR. BEMIS: I need to finish my
24 examination and I intend to do so and I
25 intend to do so properly. Calm down.

Page 237

1 (Pause.)
2 MR. BEMIS: I think I am finished,
3 but why don't we take five minutes and I
4 will check with my associate.
5 THE WITNESS: All right. I have to
6 make a phone call.
7 MR. MALLOY: Off the record.
8 (Recess.)
9 MR. BEMIS: Thank you. I have no
10 further questions at this time.
11 MR. MARKOWSKI: I have some
12 questions.
13 EXAMINATION BY
14 MR. MARKOWSKI:
15 Q. Good morning, Mr. Fogg.
16 My name is Bob Markowski, and I
17 represent Coleman (Parent) Holdings in the 18 litigation against Morgan Stanley.
19 Mr. Fogg, do you have a general
20 understanding of the nature of the litigation
21 that my client has brought against Morgan
22 Stanley?
23 A. I have not seen the complaint, but I
24 have a general sort of understanding, yes.
25 Q. In general terms, what's your

Page 238

1 understanding of the nature of the litigation?
2 A. That somehow Morgan Stanley
3 participated in a deception of your client in
4 connection with the Coleman transaction.
5 Q. And the Coleman transaction that you
6 are referring to is the transaction by which
7 my client sold its stock in the Coleman
8 Company to Sunbeam in the first quarter of
9 1998; correct?
10 A. Correct.
11 Q. My client, at that time, had an 82
12 percent, approximately, interest in the
13 Coleman Company; is that correct?
14 A. Something like that. I don't recall
15 exactly the percentage.
16 Q. About 44 million shares, I think the 17 record will show.
18 You were a partner at Skadden Arps
19 in the first quarter of 1998; correct, sir?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. You are now of counsel to the firm;
22 correct?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. You now work primarily in Paris?
25 A. Yes.

018397

Page 239

1 Q. In the first quarter of 1998 you
2 worked in the New York office; correct?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. You joined Skadden in 1996?
5 A. Yes.
6 MR. BEMIS: Objection. This is all
7 asked and answered.
8 Q. Excuse me. You joined Skadden in 9 1966?
10 A. 1966.
11 Q. In 1998, sir, you acted as Sunbeam's
12 lawyer in connection with the transaction by 13 which my client sold its stock in Coleman
14 Company to Sunbeam; correct?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. Mr. Dunlap was the person
17 responsible for bringing you into that
18 transaction; is that correct? As Sunbeam's
19 counsel.
20 A. Me, personally?
21 Q. Yes.
22 A. Yes, I would guess that he was the
23 one that got me involved in the Sunbeam
24 account, yes.
25 Q. At the time Skadden was also

Page 240

1 representing MacAndrews & Forbes in other
2 matters; correct?
3 A. I believe so, yes.
4 Q. Unrelated to the Sunbeam
5 transaction; correct?
6 A. I believe so, yes.
7 Q. That was your understanding at the
8 time?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. In this transaction, though, Skadden
11 Arps only represented -- by "this transaction"
12 I mean the Coleman Sunbeam transaction --
13 Skadden Arps only represented Sunbeam's
14 interests; correct?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Skadden did not represent MacAndrews
17 & Forbes' interest in that transaction in any
18 way; correct?
19 A. Correct.
20 Q. Skadden Arps did not represent my 21 client Coleman (Parent) Holdings' interest in 22 that transaction, in any way; is that correct?
23 A. That is correct.
24 Q. You were responsible for
25 representing Sunbeam's interests as its

Page 241

1 attorney; is that correct?
2 A. That is correct.
3 Q. The Coleman deal was not the only
4 thing that Skadden Arps was doing for Sunbeam
5 in the first quarter of 1998; is that correct?
6 A. That is correct.
7 Q. What other things were you doing?
8 A. There were two other acquisitions.
9 Q. Can you name those?
10 A. Um, Sunbeam was seeking to acquire
11 Mr. Coffee and First Alert. I don't remember
12 the corporate names of those.
13 Q. Does Signature Brands ring a bell?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Signature Brands was the owner of 16 Mr. Coffee; correct?
17 A. Right. First Alert was the company,
18 the other company that they were seeking to 19 acquire.
20 Q. In the first quarter of 1998 Sunbeam
21 was seeking to acquire Coleman Company, First
22 Alert and Signature Brands; correct?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Skadden Arps was representing
25 Sunbeam in each of those transactions?

Page 242

1 A. Correct.
2 Q. And you were, personally, involved
3 in each of those transactions as Sunbeam's
4 counsel; correct?
5 A. Correct.
6 Q. Skadden Arps was also involved in
7 doing certain other things for Sunbeam
8 relating to those transactions in the first
9 quarter of 1998; correct?
10 A. Correct.
11 Q. What were those things?
12 A. Financing transactions.
13 Q. There were two of those; correct?
14 A. Bank financing and a high yield
15 financing.
16 Q. The high yield financing that you
17 referred to is sometimes called the debenture
18 transaction?
19 A. Correct.
20 Q. It was an issuance of zero coupon
21 debentures by Sunbeam; correct?
22 A. Correct.
23 Q. Convertible debentures?
24 A. Convertible, yes.
25 Q. And Skadden Arps was acting as 018398

Page 243

1 Sunbeam's lawyer in connection with those two
2 transactions; correct?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And you were involved in those two
5 transaction, as well?
6 A. Not very much involved, no.
7 Q. But you were acting as Sunbeam's
8 lawyer to the extent that you were involved in
9 those transaction; correct, sir?
10 A. The firm was acting as Sunbeam's
11 lawyer, yes. I was not really very much
12 involved with the bank financing or the 13 debenture offering. I am an M&A lawyer.
14 Q. To the extent that you had any
15 involvement in it, it was as Sunbeam's
16 counsel?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Skadden Arps was also hired in the
19 first quarter of 1998 to draft new employment
20 agreements for Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Fannin, and
21 Mr. Kersh; correct?
22 A. I know that there were new
23 employment agreements, but I don't recall
24 exactly when those were to be drafted or 25 whatever.

Page 244

1 Q. Do you recall that before the
2 announcement of the transaction involving the
3 sale of my client's interest in Coleman
4 Company to Sunbeam there was an announcement
5 that Mr. Dunlap had entered into a new
6 three-year employment agreement with Sunbeam?
7 A. Yes. I think it was before the
8 Coleman deal was announced, yes.
9 Q. And Skadden Arps drafted that
10 employment agreement; is that correct?
11 A. I believe we did, yes.
12 Q. Do you recall getting a call from 13 Mr. Fannin asking you to do that; don't you?
14 A. I do, yes.
15 Q. At the time, sir, in addition to the 16 three transactions that Sunbeam had underway
17 and the three acquisitions, excuse me, that 18 Sunbeam had underway, in the first quarter of 19 '98, the acquisition of my client's interest
20 in Coleman, the acquisition of Signature
21 Brands, and the acquisition of First Alert,
22 Mr. Dunlap had also made public statements
23 indicating an invitation to make yet still 24 more acquisitions at some future point; is
25 that correct?

Page 245

1 A. I don't recall that.
2 Q. You don't recall Mr. Dunlap
3 indicating a plan to engage in further
4 consolidation of the consumer products
5 business, as part of the long-range strategic
6 plan of Sunbeam?
7 A. I really don't recall.
8 Q. Mr. Dunlap was somebody known for
9 making deals; correct, sir?
10 A. I guess so. He had done the Scott
11 deal. I guess so.
12 Q. He had done the Scott deal after 13 being there for a relatively short period of 14 time; correct, sir?
15 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
16 A. I don't remember how long he was
17 there.
18 Q. The Scott deal that you are 19 referring to is the sale of Scott Paper to 20 Kimberly Clark; correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Mr. Dunlap had been the chief
23 executive officer of Scott Paper; correct?
24 A. He had, yes.
25 Q. He had retained you to assist him in

Page 246

1 the sale of Scott Paper to Kimberly Clark;
2 correct, sir?
3 A. To assist Scott, yes.
4 Q. Yes. Sir, I would like to show you
5 a document that has been produced to us by
6 your firm in connection with your deposition.
7 I understand these, sir, based on what we have 8 been told about them, to be a printout of the 9 time records that Skadden Arps maintained for 10 the work being done by the firm on behalf of 11 Sunbeam in the first quarter -- excuse me,
12 March of 1998. I would like to ask you a
13 couple questions about that.
14 MR. MARKOWSKI: Let's mark this as
15 CPH Exhibit 384.
16 (CPH Exhibit 384, documents Bates
17 Nos. 19645 to 687, marked for
18 identification as of this date.)
19 Q. I will ask you some very specific
20 questions about this. You don't need to look
21 at entire document at this point.
22 Have you looked at this document as 23 it has been produced to us before this -- just
24 now?
25 A. Yes.

018399

Page 247

1 Q. I will direct your attention to page
2 5 of the document. It is labeled page 543 at
3 the bottom.
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Are you there?
6 A. Yes. I am there.
7 Q. There are some time entries for you
8 on that page. Do you see that, sir?
9 A. At the bottom?
10 Q. Yes.
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Do you see those?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Under "personnel type," the column
15 to the left of your name -- do you see that 16 the words "of counsel" appear?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. That was not your position at the 19 firm in the first quarter of 1998; correct,
20 sir?
21 A. No.
22 Q. You were --
23 A. A partner.
24 Q. Let me direct your attention to
25 another reference here that caught my eye,

Page 248

1 actually on the first page. There is a
2 reference to an Al Morrison, towards the
3 bottom, or towards the top, as well, actually.
4 Do you see that?
5 A. She was not a partner at that time.
6 Q. That is correct. She was associate?
7 A. She was associate and --
8 Q. She is a partner now?
9 A. She is a partner now.
10 Q. Does this indicate to you that the 11 personnel type designations reflected on this 12 document are those that people hold today at 13 Skadden Arps, as opposed to those that these
14 individuals held back in March of 1998?
15 A. Well, in those two cases, surely.
16 Q. Perhaps your counsel can clarify
17 that for us at some point, and determine
18 whether that is the case.
19 MR. MALLOY: That is the case. This 20 was a, this was run recently at your
21 request and it includes the -- is -- I
22 couldn't hear you.
23 This was run recently at their
24 request and it includes on the personnel
25 type the current designations.

Page 249

1 Q. The only other thing I want to cover
2 right now with you, sir, concerning this
3 document, are the matter names.
4 There are a series of matter names,
5 and I think they are in sequence here. And I
6 would like you to go through with me each one
7 of the matter names listed here and have you
8 describe, to the best you can, the general
9 nature of the matter that is the subject of 10 these descriptions.
11 Do you see that the first matter
12 name on the first page of the exhibit is 13 "corporate advice"?
14 A. I do, yes.
15 Q. In general terms, what was that
16 matter to be used for?
17 A. Basically, anything that did not fit
18 into the other specific matters.
19 Q. It was a catchall for corporate
20 work?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. And then, beneath that, the first
23 change in matter name is on the fourth line;
24 do you see that?
25 A. Yes. Shareholders' meeting.

Page 250

1 Q. There was a special file created for
2 a shareholders' meeting for Sunbeam?
3 A. That's what it would appear to be,
4 yes.
5 Q. Are you familiar with the nature of
6 the work that was to be billed to that matter?
7 A. I don't have any independent
8 recollection, other than this document, since
9 all of the work appears to have been done in
10 March.
11 Q. This time record only relates to --
12 A. Only relates to March.
13 Q. I don't want to confuse you.
14 A. It had to do with work in connection
15 with the shareholders' meeting.
16 Q. Do you know which shareholders'
17 meeting?
18 A. It must have been the 1998 meeting.
19 I don't see why work in March would have
20 related to any other shareholders' meeting.
21 Q. Was there a point in time when there
22 was some thought that a shareholder meeting of 23 some sort might be required in connection with 24 any of the three acquisitions?
25 A. Probably a shareholder meeting of 018400

Page 251

1 Coleman.
2 Q. Not to speculate, but can you
3 recall?
4 A. I don't recall that the three
5 acquisitions were subject to the Sunbeam
6 shareholder group.
7 Q. As you sit here, you are not sure
8 what this relates to, what time it was billed
9 to?
10 A. No. Not really.
11 Q. The next matter name that appears is 12 on the fourth box from the bottom.
13 A. Averdesian.
14 Q. Do you know what that related to?
15 A. I have not a clue.
16 Q. And the next matter, after that, is 17 "strategy"; do you see that?
18 A. I do.
19 Q. And there are several pages of 20 entries here relating to strategy. I think 21 those entries run through page 17 of the 22 document. Do you see that, sir?
23 A. Well, yes. I have not looked at all
24 17 pages, but --
25 Q. But if you --

Page 252

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. Page to page 17, you will see that
3 it continues to that page.
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. In general terms, what was the
6 nature of the Skadden work activity that was
7 to be billed to the strategy matter?
8 A. I think that was the Coleman
9 transaction.
10 Q. The strategy is in reference to
11 Coleman?
12 A. I believe so.
13 THE WITNESS: There is other stuff
14 in there. I am sorry. I am looking at 15 my own entries.
16 A. My own entries indicate Coleman.
17 Also some other stuff, other than work on that
18 transaction. But it is mostly Coleman, I
19 think. I can't say that either.
20 Joe Nisa's time has some First Alert
21 and Signature in it.
22 Q. Does it appear to relate generally,
23 perhaps, to the three acquisitions?
24 A. I thought that there was a separate
25 matter.

Page 253

1 Q. I will take you through each of
2 them, sir, perhaps it will become more clear
3 to you. On page 17.
4 A. Yes, sir.
5 Q. The matter names shift from strategy
6 to --
7 A. Creditor.
8 Q. Creditor. Do you know what that
9 matter related to?
10 A. Not really, but most of the time it
11 is by Greg Galardi, who is a bankruptcy or 12 restructuring lawyer in Delaware.
13 And I don't really know what this 14 is. I can only speculate. I will do so if my 15 counsel lets me.
16 Q. In addition to the work that Skadden
17 was doing for Sunbeam in the first quarter of 18 1998 relating to the transactions of the 19 financing and the employment agreements, was 20 Skadden also doing other corporate work for
21 Sunbeam?
22 A. Yes. There was the creditor matter,
23 for example.
24 Q. This appears to be an example of
25 that?

Page 254

1 A. It appears to be an example of that.
2 Q. Beneath creditor at the bottom of
3 page 17 there is a matter name --
4 A. Boston.
5 Q. -- that appears there, it is
6 Boston; correct, sir?
7 A. Correct.
8 Q. What did the Boston matter relate
9 to?
10 A. I believe that was supposed to have
11 captured the time dealing with the Signature
12 Brands and First Alert acquisitions -- the 13 so-called Boston, because those companies were
14 owned by funds established by Tom, Thomas Lee
15 Lee & Company, based in Boston.
16 Q. There are quite a few entries for
17 Boston; correct, sir?
18 A. Quite a few.
19 Q. They continue until it looks like
20 the bottom of page 22; correct?
21 A. Correct.
22 Q. It is possible, sir, is it not, that 23 in matters such as this, that people would
24 sometimes bill time to the wrong matter?
25 A. Yes.

1018401

#976

Page 255

1 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
2 Q. The next matter --
3 A. It is not only possible, it is
4 inevitable, in my experience.
5 Q. It is your experiences here.
6 At the top of page 23 there is a new
7 matter.
8 A. Bank financing.
9 Q. What did that matter pertain to?
10 A. The bank financing for the three
11 acquisitions.
12 Q. The three acquisitions, again, are 13 Coleman Company, Signature Brands and First
14 Alert; correct?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Beneath that, I think beginning at 17 page 34 -- there are quite a few entries for 18 bank financing here, as well, sir?
19 A. Correct.
20 Q. The bottom of page 34, sir, you see
21 towards the bottom there is a matter named,
22 that is called rule 144A; do you see that?
23 A. Yes, I do.
24 Q. What does that matter pertain to?
25 A. The debenture offering.

Page 256

1 Q. The debenture offering also related
2 to obtaining funds to be used by Sunbeam, at
3 least in part, in connection with the three
4 acquisitions; correct, sir?
5 A. Correct.
6 Q. And there are quite a few entries
7 for the 144A matter; correct, sir?
8 A. There are, yes.
9 Q. Those continue to page 43 of the 10 time printout?
11 A. That is the end. Well, yes.
12 Q. And then, there are a few, there are 13 two other matters on page 43 that have a
14 relatively small number of entries; do you see
15 those?
16 A. Mercer and MD Corp.
17 Q. The Mercer matter related to what,
18 sir?
19 A. I don't recall, except since it is 20 Barbara Rubell's time, mostly, it must have 21 had to do with the product liability matter.
22 Q. You see a reference to Hank
23 Marshall; do you see his name?
24 A. Who?
25 Q. Hank Marshall, it is --

Page 257

1 A. Hank Marshall.
2 Q. Do you know Hank?
3 A. No.
4 Q. He is a partner at Sidley & Austin,
5 Sidley Austin Brown?
6 A. I don't know Hank.
7 Q. All right. Do you see the matter,
8 the last matter listed in this record, MD
9 Corp., at the bottom?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. At the bottom of page 43.
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. MD Corp. related to what, sir? I
14 see you billed a little bit of time to them.
15 A. I don't recall. I don't recall.
16 Q. Sir, Skadden Arps was paid about
17 $3,000,000 for its work on the three
18 acquisitions and the related financings?
19 A. I don't remember.
20 Q. I would like to have the court
21 reporter mark, as CPH Exhibit Number 384, a --
22 385, excuse me, a two-page document. It bears
23 Bates number SAS MF 19691 to 692. It says
24 "Skadden Arps invoice" dated April 27th, 1998.
25 (CPH Exhibit 385, document Bates

Page 258

1 SAS MF 19691 to 692, marked for
2 identification as of this date.)
3 Q. Do you have Exhibit 385 in front of
4 you, sir?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. You have seen this before; correct?
7 A. I don't recall, but I am sure I did.
8 Q. Would you have been the person
9 responsible for billing Sunbeam for the work
10 related to --
11 A. No.
12 Q. To the first quarter transactions?
13 A. No.
14 Q. There was another person at Skadden
15 that did that?
16 A. Rich Easton.
17 Q. Rich Easton was one of the partners
18 that you brought into in to assist you in 19 connection with the work that needed to be
20 done?
21 A. Not exactly. Rich Easton is a
22 partner in our Delaware office, was then and 23 still is. He had represented Sunbeam for some 24 time before Mr. Dunlap got involved and before
25 I got involved.

018402

Page 259

1 So, he stayed on the account, and he
2 knew Mr. Fannin from before. He had a good
3 relationship with Mr. Fannin. And so, I came
4 in and we worked together. But he remained
5 the billing partner.
6 Q. This invoice reflects $3,000,000 in
7 charges for professional services; is that
8 correct, sir?
9 A. Yes, it does.
10 Q. And it indicates that $900,000 had 11 previously been paid by Sunbeam; correct?
12 A. It does.
13 Q. And that $2.1 million remained due;
14 correct, sir?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. It also indicates that the firm was 17 billing Sunbeam for slightly less than 18 $120,000 in charges of disbursements; correct?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And these fees and expenses all
21 relate to the three first quarter acquisitions
22 and the related financings; correct?
23 A. Those are the five matters listed on 24 page 1, yes.
25 Q. It doesn't relate to any other work

Page 260

1 that Skadden Arps was doing for Sunbeam?
2 A. It doesn't seem to be, no.
3 Q. These amounts, sir, are not, at
4 least precisely based on the firm's hours;
5 correct?
6 A. Um, not sure in this case. I don't
7 know what our hours were.
8 Q. They are all rounded numbers;
9 correct, sir?
10 A. Yes. But they could have been close
11 to the hours and to the hourly time charges
12 and just rounded. I don't recall.
13 Q. That was going to be my question.
14 Was there some agreement with Sunbeam in 15 advance that the firm would be paid a certain 16 amount of money for the work or was the 17 agreement that the firm would be paid based on 18 the hours, or was it something else?
19 A. I don't recall.
20 Q. In any event, the invoice here is 21 for $3,000,000 for the work; correct?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Do you know whether this represents
24 the entire charge to Sunbeam for professional
25 services relating to the three first quarter

Page 261

1 acquisitions and the related financings?
2 A. It purports to. I don't -- I
3 don't -- I don't know any reason to think that
4 there were other charges for these five
5 matters.
6 Q. Your involvement with Sunbeam had
7 started -- had started several months earlier
8 than the first quarter of 1998; correct, sir?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. You indicated yesterday it was, at
11 least as early as the middle of 1997 that you
12 received a call from Sunbeam requesting your 13 involvement in assisting the company in 14 connection with various strategic
15 alternatives; correct?
16 A. Correct.
17 Q. And that work, at least partially,
18 culminated in the transactions that occurred
19 in the first quarter of 1998; correct, sir?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. In 1997, sir, did Skadden Arps bill
22 Sunbeam for any out-of-pocket costs or fees
23 incurred in connection with the services that
24 were being performed at that time?
25 A. What time is this?

Page 262

1 Q. 1997. The period before the
2 transactions of the first quarter of 1998.
3 A. I don't remember.
4 Q. You don't remember whether the firm,
5 whether you were charging your time to
6 Sunbeam?
7 A. Before the first quarter of 1998?
8 Q. Yes. You testified that --
9 A. I charged some time to Sunbeam
10 before that.
11 Q. Okay. Is it your understanding that
12 that was being billed to Sunbeam?
13 A. I don't recall. I don't recall
14 whether that is included in this bill or not.
15 Q. You are just uncertain about that?
16 A. I don't know.
17 Q. It could have been --
18 A. I don't know. Our records would 19 certainly reflect that.
20 Q. During the work that was being done
21 in the 1997 time period, you were involved in 22 doing various things; correct, sir?
23 You were involved in 1997 in doing
24 various things relating to assisting Sunbeam
25 in connection with assessing strategic 018403

Page 263

1 alternatives; correct?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. Other than yourself, were others at
4 Skadden Arps involved in that activity?
5 A. Rich Easton was involved.
6 Q. Anyone else?
7 A. I am not sure. I don't know.
8 Q. You were involved in at least -- let
9 me take a step back.
10 You had various meetings and
11 conversations with Sunbeam in connection with 12 that activity in 1997; correct, sir?
13 A. Correct.
14 Q. And Morgan Stanley was involved in 15 at least some of those meetings and 16 conversations; correct?
17 A. Correct.
18 Q. And Bill Strong is a person that you
19 recall being involved in that activity for 20 Morgan Stanley; correct, sir?
21 A. Correct.
22 Q. In 1997, sir, when you first became
23 involved, it was your understanding that
24 Mr. Dunlap's preference was to have Morgan
25 Stanley find a firm willing to acquire

Page 264

1 Sunbeam; correct?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. That was his strong preference; is
4 that correct, sir?
5 A. I believe so.
6 Q. Did Mr. Dunlap ever say that in your
7 presence to any representatives of Morgan
8 Stanley, such as Mr. Strong?
9 A. I don't remember.
10 Q. Do you recall Mr. Dunlap, at any 11 point, ever being critical of Mr. Strong for 12 Morgan Stanley's inability to find a company
13 willing to acquire Sunbeam?
14 A. I don't really recall. I am sure he
15 would be. He was critical of everyone else.
16 Q. Mr. Dunlap was a very demonstrative
17 person; correct, sir?
18 A. Very.
19 Q. You had known him, by this point,
20 for a better part of 15 years?
21 A. I am not sure that I ever knew him.
22 I had worked for companies in which he was
23 involved back into the mid-'80s.
24 Q. You were familiar by 1997 with the 25 manner in which Mr. Dunlap communicated with

Page 265

1 people; correct, sir?
2 A. I had seen him communicate with
3 quite a few people, yes.
4 Q. He was often quite blunt; correct,
5 sir?
6 A. Often blunt. Yes.
7 Q. As you sit here today, you can't
8 recall any circumstances where Mr. Dunlap was,
9 to use that phrase, "quite blunt" in
10 expressing his disappointment that Morgan
11 Stanley had been unable to find a company
12 willing to acquire Sunbeam?
13 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Asked and
14 answered.
15 A. I really don't recall.
16 Q. You have just mentioned that you had
17 first became involved in doing corporate work,
18 where Mr. Dunlap was also involved in some 19 way, back in the mid-1980s; correct, sir?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. I think you testified yesterday,
22 sir -- well, let me -- it would be faster if I
23 let you do it.
24 Could you go through,
25 chronologically, for me, sir, the transactions

Page 266

1 where you were involved as counsel to
2 accompany where Mr. Dunlap was employed as an
3 executive, beginning with the first
4 transaction that you can recall and then
5 taking us right through the time when you got 6 the call in 1997 to become involved in
7 Sunbeam.
8 A. First, a series of transactions in
9 which Skadden and I represented Sir James
10 Goldsmith and his holding company, General
11 Oriental, and I don't specifically remember
12 all of the transactions, but they took place
13 after Goldsmith had acquired Crown Zellerbach,
14 and it involved, generally, selling off parts
15 of Crown Zellerbach.
16 I remember one very complicated
17 transaction involving James River Corporation,
18 and there were others.
19 Q. You had assisted Sir James Goldsmith
20 in the acquisition of Crown Zellerbach; is
21 that correct?
22 A. I have.
23 Q. Mr. Dunlap was not involved in that
24 activity?
25 A. No. He was hired by Mr. -- to the 018404

Page 267

1 best of my recollection, he was hired by
2 Mr. Goldsmith after that acquisition.
3 Q. And then -- what was Mr. Dunlap's
4 role in connection with the transactions
5 relating to the sale of various Crown
6 Zellerbach assets?
7 A. Sir James Goldsmith had the whole
8 staff of people involved in those
9 transactions. Mr. Dunlap was not, at that
10 point, a transaction person, he was a
11 restructuring person. He would come in and 12 fire people and, more than actually
13 handling the transactions themselves. But he 14 was involved in that way.
15 Q. Do you recall his position or his
16 title?
17 A. No, I don't.
18 Q. You had personal contact with him in 19 connection with the legal work that you were
20 doing?
21 A. Yes. Although I had much more
22 contact with Sir James Goldsmith himself and 23 other people working for him.
24 Q. This is just the circumstance in 25 which you first became, in which you first met

Page 268

1 Mr. Dunlap; correct?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. And can you recall, approximately,
4 sir, how many of these sale transactions there
5 were and over what period of time they
6 occurred?
7 A. There was the James River
8 transaction, which was the principal one, and
9 I don't recall whether Dunlap was involved
10 with that at all.
11 There was another transaction that
12 we sold, a leveraged buyout, this was somebody
13 represented by somebody in Chicago. I am very 14 vague on this.
15 There was a transaction in which, I
16 think this was the final transaction in which
17 Sir James Goldsmith swapped his Crown
18 Zellerbach, maybe, other Timberlands, for a
19 big chunk of Hanson.
20 Dunlap was involved in that one.
21 That's all I remember about the Crown
22 Zellerbach exit transactions.
23 Q. Do you think there may have been
24 more?
25 A. It is possible.

Page 269

1 Q. Do you recall over what period of
2 time these transactions took place?
3 A. Not really. Probably a couple of
4 years.
5 And the next time I encountered
6 Mr. Dunlap was in London. Still he was
7 working for Sir James Goldsmith and his
8 holding company, and Sir James Goldsmith was
9 teaming up with two other colorful
10 entrepreneurs, Lloyd Jake Rothschild in London
11 and Kerry Packer in Australia, to try to take
12 over a U.K. public company called BAT,
13 represented by Cravath. This was a hostile
14 bid, and Dunlap was part of the Goldsmith team
15 on site in London.
16 And the whole team, including
17 merchant bankers and British lawyers and 18 myself and one of my partners, Goldsmith, and 19 Dunlap, would meet every day to strategize
20 about how to proceed.
21 Q. Is it fair to say that you had more
22 direct contact with Mr. Dunlap in connection
23 with that transaction than you had previously?
24 A. Um, I saw more of him.
25 In these meetings in London he did

Page 270

1 not have a lot to contribute.
2 Q. Do you recall when this was?
3 A. The late '80s. That's about the
4 best time frame that I can put on it.
5 Q. What happened in that transaction?
6 A. Um, the group Goldsmith, Rothschild,
7 Packer, formed a company called Hoylake, which 8 made a hostile tender offer for BAT, which was 9 unsuccessful
10 Because BAT had a big U.S. insurance
11 company, Fireman's, and the state insurances
12 regulators in the United States refused to 13 approve the takeover, which killed the deal,
14 but that went on for months.
15 Q. Did you spend a great deal of time
16 on that?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. What do you recall next?
19 A. Next, I recall that, at some point,
20 Dunlap left Goldsmith, and I am not sure if he
21 left on his own accord or he was pushed, I
22 just don't know.
23 And he went to work for Kerry Packer
24 in Australia, one of the Goldsmith partners on 25 the BAT take over.

018405

Page 271

1 And I had one, I did one
2 transaction, or the firm did one transaction
3 for a Packer-controlled company in which
4 Mr. Dunlap was involved. It was a U.S.
5 company called Balassis Communications, and it
6 wanted to, they wanted to take it public.
7 So, we did an initial public
8 offering called Balassis Communications,
9 principally handled by my corporate finance
10 partner, Phyllis Korff.
11 And I was involved in the beginning
12 of that transaction, with Mr. Dunlap and 13 others, in negotiating with the management of 14 Balassis over their employment, what piece of 15 the equity that they would get, et cetera, et
16 cetera.
17 Q. How did Skadden Arps come to be 18 involved in representing Kerry Packer in that
19 transaction?
20 A. Dunlap called.
21 Q. What do you recall next?
22 A. Scott Paper. Dunlap was named CEO
23 of Scott Paper, which -- it was a pre-existing
24 Skadden client, for whom we had been, had done
25 quite a bit of work, and the Scott Paper team

Page 272

1 at Skadden at that time was headed by my
2 partner Peter Atkins, and Peter and I went
3 down to visit the new management team at
4 Scott, outside of Philadelphia, um, and met
5 with Dunlap, Kersh and the general counsel
6 whose name escapes me.
7 And, thereafter, Dunlap or the
8 general counsel called me, I can't remember
9 who, to see if we would represent Scott in
10 selling off, I think it was Hammermill Paper,
11 some division of Scott, and my partner Bob
12 Pincus in Delaware handled that transaction
13 pretty much by himself. I did not get much
14 involved.
15 Q. The call for that transaction came
16 in to you either from Mr. Dunlap or the 17 general counsel?
18 A. Yes.
19 And then the Kimberly Clark sale,
20 which Bob Pincus and I, and others,
21 represented Scott Paper in selling out to
22 Kimberly Clark.
23 Q. The sale of Kimberly Clark to Scott
24 Paper was a defining moment in Mr. Dunlap's
25 career; was it, sir?

Page 273

1 MR. BEMIS: Objection to the form.
2 A. Defining moment? I don't know.
3 Q. He was given, I think you referred
4 to him yesterday, sir, at least as of 1997,
5 1998, as a darling of Wall Street; correct?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. And the Kimberly Clark transaction
8 was certainly an important part of Mr. Dunlap
9 becoming, in your opinion, one of the darlings
10 of Wall Street; correct?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. You indicated yesterday that that
13 transaction made a lot of money for the 14 Kimberly Clark shareholders; correct?
15 A. Not -- for Scott.
16 Q. For the Scott. Mr. Dunlap was
17 working at Scott.
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And Kimberly Clark acquired Scott;
20 correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. In connection with that sale you
23 represented Scott?
24 A. Scott.
25 Q. And the Scott shareholders, in

Page 274

1 connection with that transaction, you said
2 yesterday, made a great deal of money;
3 correct?
4 A. Yes. Scott's stock during
5 Mr. Dunlap's tenure there went way up.
6 Q. Mr. Dunlap was given a great deal of 7 credit for turning Scott Paper around and
8 capitalizing on the sale and the benefits of 9 that turnaround by selling the business to 10 Scott Paper; correct?
11 A. Yes. He became a --
12 Q. Selling the business to Kimberly
13 Clark.
14 A. He became a legend in his own mind,
15 yes.
16 Q. He also became something of a legend
17 on Wall Street; is that correct, sir?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. What was the nature of Skadden Arps'
20 involvement in that transaction, sir?
21 A. Kimberly Clark?
22 Q. Yes.
23 A. We did everything. I mean, we -- we
24 drafted and negotiated the merger agreement.
25 Drafted and negotiated the SEC documents, the 018106

Page 275

1 whole thing. We did the whole transaction.
2 Q. You worked extensively in that
3 transaction personally; correct?
4 A. I certainly did, yes.
5 Q. Mr. Dunlap, personally, made a
6 substantial amount of money as a result of the 7 sale of Scott Paper to Kimberly Clark;
8 correct, sir?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Mr. Dunlap held a substantial amount
11 of Scott Paper stock in options; correct?
12 A. That is my recollection.
13 Q. Do you recall that Mr. Dunlap made
14 something in the neighborhood of $100,000,000
15 as a result of the sale of Scott Paper to
16 Kimberly Clark?
17 A. I couldn't fix a precise amount on
18 it, but that doesn't seem unreasonable.
19 Q. I think you indicated, sir, that you
20 did recall that Skadden Arps prepared a new 21 employment agreement for Mr. Dunlap at 22 Sunbeam, sometime before the three
23 acquisitions were announced in the first
24 quarter of 1998; is that correct, sir?
25 A. Yes.

Page 276

1 Q. Let me show you the employment
2 agreement.
3 MR. MARKOWSKI: I will mark this as
4 CPH Exhibit 386, sir. It is a document
5 entitled "employment agreement by and
6 between Sunbeam corporation and Albert J.
7 Dunlap" effective as of February 1st,
8 1998.
9 (CPH Exhibit 386, employment
10 agreement, marked for identification as
11 of this date.)
12 Q. Do you have CPH Exhibit 386 in front
13 of you, sir?
14 A. Yes, sir.
15 Q. This is a copy of the employment
16 agreement that Skadden Arps prepared; is that
17 correct?
18 A. It purports to be, but there is
19 nothing on here to indicate that it came out
20 of our word processor. Yes, there is, on the 21 last page. Sorry.
22 Q. This is the document that Skadden
23 Arps prepared, the employment agreement that
24 Skadden Arps prepared for Sunbeam relating to 25 Mr. Dunlap's employment as chief executive

Page 277

1 officer of the company; correct, sir?
2 A. That is what it purports to be, yes.
3 Q. It is effective as of February 1st,
4 1998; is that correct?
5 A. That is what it says.
6 Q. If you turn to the second page, sir,
7 executed according to the document, on
8 February 20th. Do you see that?
9 A. That is what it says.
10 Q. All right. Do you recall that 11 the -- we will get to it later, I am sure, but
12 actually I think you saw some documents
13 already -- that the acquisition agreements
14 relating to the sale of Coleman Company to 15 Sunbeam were dated as of February 27th.
16 A. Right.
17 Q. Do you recall that, sir?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. So, this agreement is dated about a
20 week before the agreement was entered into 21 between my client and Sunbeam relating to the 22 acquisition of Coleman Company; correct, sir?
23 A. That's what it says, yes.
24 Q. And the term of this agreement, sir,
25 is the employment period, is through January

Page 278

1 31st, 2001; correct?
2 You will see that at the bottom of
3 page 2, in the paragraph entitled "Employment
4 Period."
5 A. That's what it says.
6 MR. BEMIS: Objection to the form.
7 He is highlighting the document.
8 He doesn't have any personal
9 knowledge of this. Objection to the
10 form.
11 Q. Sir, do you recall that Morgan
12 Stanley advised Sunbeam that it was important,
13 in connection with the announcement of the 14 three acquisitions and the related financings,
15 that Mr. Dunlap's employment period be 16 extended?
17 A. I don't recall that.
18 Q. You don't recall that becoming a
19 subject of conversation?
20 A. No.
21 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Asked and
22 answered.
23 Q. Do you recall that Mr. Dunlap's
24 employment contract was scheduled to expire in 25 mid-1998, prior to the February 1st, 1998

018407

Page 279

1 agreement?
2 MR. BEMIS: Objection. No
3 foundation.
4 A. I don't recall.
5 Q. Do you recall that when the
6 acquisitions were announced, that Mr. Dunlap
7 made it a point to say that he had just signed
8 a new employment agreement and intended to 9 stay with the company to restructure the three
10 companies that were being acquired?
11 A. I don't recall. I have some vague
12 recollection of it, that that was known, but I
13 don't recall specifically saying that.
14 Q. Sir, do you recall that Mr. Dunlap
15 wrote a book?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Mean Business?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. You bought quite a few copies of the 20 book; do you recall that, sir?
21 A. Yes, I do.
22 Q. About a thousand?
23 A. Not me, personally. The firm did.
24 Q. I was going to ask that question. I
25 had seen an indication that you bought 1,000

Page 280

1 copies of the book.
2 A. The firm.
3 Q. Skadden Arps bought the book, the
4 1,000 copies?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. How did that come about?
7 A. Mr. Dunlap instructed me to do that.
8 Q. When did he do that?
9 A. I don't remember.
10 Q. Did you actually take delivery of 11 1,000 copies of his book?
12 A. I believe so.
13 Q. What did you do with them?
14 A. I think I stuck them in the library
15 for anyone who wanted a free copy. There were 16 a lot left over. I don't know what we did
17 with those.
18 Q. Let me show you a document that we
19 are going to mark as CPH Exhibit 387.
20 (CPH Exhibit 387, documents Bates
21 Nos. 598 to 99, marked for
22 identification as of this date.)
23 A. Thank you.
24 Q. Exhibit 387, sir, is a document,
25 two-page document that bears Bates number

Page 281

1 HK SOC 598 to 599. I will represent to you,
2 sir, that this was a document that was first
3 produced by Hill & Knowlton.
4 A. All right.
5 Q. Do you see your name there, sir?
6 A. I do.
7 Q. And next to your name it indicates,
8 actually written in hand beneath your hand is 9 written the number 1,000; do you see that,
10 sir?
11 A. Yes, I do.
12 Q. 1,000 is the number of copies of 13 Mr. Dunlap's book, Mean Business, that you
14 recall acquiring?
15 A. I don't specifically recall, but it
16 sounds like it is right.
17 Q. Okay.
18 Do you see, on the bottom of this
19 second page, sir, there is the date September
20 5th, 1997?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Does that refresh your recollection
23 that you were approached about buying a large
24 number of copies of Mean Business sometime in 25 the latter part of 1997?

Page 282

1 A. Not really, but -- it sounds right.
2 Q. Do you recall that it was during the
3 time period when you were working for Sunbeam?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. So, sometime before Mr. Dunlap was
6 terminated; correct, sir?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And do you recall it was before the 9 acquisitions took place in the first quarter
10 of 1998?
11 A. I believe so.
12 Q. Why did the firm buy 1,000 copies of 13 the book?
14 A. To please a CEO of a good client.
15 Q. You did not, personally, pay for 16 them, I take it?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Sir, Morgan Stanley was a client of 19 Skadden Arps in 1998; correct?
20 A. I believe so. Yes.
21 Q. Are they a client of the firm today?
22 A. I believe so, although I don't know
23 what we are doing for them.
24 Q. In connection with the work that
25 Morgan Stanley -- do you have an 018408

Page 283

1 understanding, sir, of, in general terms, of
2 the various things that Morgan Stanley was
3 doing for Sunbeam that related to the first
4 quarter of 1998 acquisitions?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Could you tell me what your
7 understanding is.
8 A. They were financial advisers with
9 respect to the acquisitions, which included
10 giving fairness opinions or fairness advice to 11 the Sunbeam board with respect to the 12 acquisition. On the one hand.
13 On the other hand, they were to 14 provide or raise the money needed to finance
15 the acquisitions.
16 Q. And in connection with the
17 fundraising activity that Morgan Stanley
18 itself was involved in, sir, what's your 19 understanding of what Morgan Stanley did to 20 accomplish that? In very general terms.
21 A. Well, there are two pieces of 22 financing. There was a bank financing.
23 Morgan Stanley provided a piece of that and 24 brought other banks into, with respect to the 25 rest of it. On the debenture offering they

Page 284

1 placed the debentures.
2 Q. They underwrote the debentures;
3 correct, sir?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And then they marketed them; is that
6 correct?
7 A. Yes. Correct.
8 Q. Morgan Stanley was being paid
9 substantial amounts for its activity both as 10 financial adviser to Sunbeam and as the senior
11 lender and as the underwriter of the debenture
12 offering; is that correct?
13 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form,
14 foundation.
15 Q. Was that your understanding, at the
16 time?
17 A. I believe they did get significant
18 fees in connection with those activities, yes.
19 Q. Is it your understanding, at the 20 time, sir, that if the transactions did not go
21 forward, if for some reason the three 22 acquisitions did not occur, and if the 23 financings were unnecessary, that Morgan
24 Stanley would not be paid those fees?
25 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form,

Page 285

1 foundation.
2 A. I don't recall the nature of their
3 engagement letter.
4 Q. Is it your understanding, based on
5 your involvement in transactions such as this,
6 sir, that the fees that the investment banker
7 typically will be paid are contingent on the 8 transactions actually occurring?
9 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form,
10 foundation.
11 A. It is customary that all or part of 12 the investment banking fees are success fees,
13 contingent on the successful completion of the
14 transaction.
15 Q. That was your understanding, as of 16 the time these transactions were occurring in 17 the first quarter of 1998; correct, sir?
18 A. Correct.
19 Q. Sir, you have never been involved in 20 representing Coleman (Parent) Holdings,
21 personally; have you?
22 A. No.
23 Q. You have never been involved in 24 representing any MacAndrews & Forbes entities;
25 is that correct?

Page 286

1 A. I don't believe I have.
2 Q. When you testified earlier, sir,
3 about the first call that you got from
4 Mr. Fannin, relating to the possibility of
5 Sunbeam acquiring Coleman, the telephone call,
6 I think you placed in late 1997 --
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Do you recall that testimony,
9 generally?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. You told Mr. -- or maybe it was 12 Mr. Fannin telling you that he was aware that
13 Skadden Arps, at least sometimes, represented
14 MacAndrews & Forbes entities; correct?
15 A. We both were aware, yes.
16 Q. Mr. Fannin was aware of that when he 17 placed this call?
18 A. I believe so.
19 Q. You certainly were aware of it;
20 correct?
21 A. I certainly was aware.
22 Q. And if Mr. Fannin was not aware of 23 it, you told him during that first telephone
24 call?
25 A. Yes.

018409

Page 287

1 THE WITNESS: But I do think he knew
2 of it before we even started talking
3 about it.
4 Q. There was no doubt about the fact
5 that Mr. Fannin was aware of that
6 relationship; correct?
7 A. No doubt.
8 Q. And when Mr. Fannin raised with you
9 the possibility of Skadden Arps becoming
10 involved in the representing of Sunbeam, in 11 connection with the possible acquisition of 12 Coleman Company, you knew that there was a
13 conflict presented by that engagement,
14 potential engagement; correct?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And Mr. Fannin understood that, too;
17 correct?
18 A. Yes.
19 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
20 Q. It was your understanding that
21 Mr. Fannin, in your conversation with him, was 22 aware of that; correct?
23 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. And did you tell Mr. Fannin at that

Page 288

1 time, sir, that for you to become involved in
2 representing Sunbeam, in connection with the
3 possible acquisition of Coleman Company, you
4 would need to obtain a conflict waiver from
5 MacAndrews & Forbes?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Could you explain, sir, everybody in
8 this room, I think understands, but could you
9 explain for the jury what this conflict
10 situation involved, in your mind?
11 A. Well, the ethical rules that govern
12 our profession, as you know, state that a
13 lawyer shall not represent a client in a
14 matter where the interests of another client
15 are adverse.
16 And, therefore, we could not,
17 without the consent of the clients involved,
18 undertake the representation of either Sunbeam
19 or MacAndrews in this transaction between the 20 three of them.
21 Q. That is because the interests of 22 Coleman (Parent) Holdings or MacAndrews &
23 Forbes were adverse to the interests of 24 Sunbeam in connection with this transaction;
25 is that correct, sir?

Page 289

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. And Skadden Arps couldn't be both
3 representing the interests of Sunbeam and
4 MacAndrews & Forbes in that transaction;
5 correct?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. And Skadden Arps couldn't become
8 involved in representing Sunbeam in that
9 transaction, even though it was representing
10 MacAndrews & Forbes in unrelated matters
11 without getting the consent of my client;
12 correct?
13 A. Correct.
14 Q. You followed up to speak to one of 15 your partners with respect to obtaining such a
16 waiver; correct, sir?
17 A. I did.
18 Q. And that person's name, again, is 19 what?
20 A. Frank Gittes.
21 Q. What did you tell Mr. Gittes?
22 THE WITNESS: Is that okay?
23 MR. MALLOY: Well --
24 Q. I will rephrase the question.
25 What did you tell Mr. Gittes that

Page 290

1 you wanted him to do?
2 A. I called Frank. Frank and I are
3 good friends -- and I said Frank, I have just
4 learned that your client MacAndrews & Forbes
5 was talking to my client Sunbeam about selling
6 Coleman to Sunbeam, and I told him that
7 Sunbeam wanted us to represent them, and did
8 he think that that would be okay with
9 MacAndrews & Forbes and that he could get
10 their approval.
11 He thought that he could.
12 Q. Did you ask him to do that?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Do you know if he did?
15 A. He told me he did, later.
16 Q. When did he tell you that?
17 A. I couldn't put a time frame on it,
18 but it was not a long period.
19 Q. The reason why you made that call to 20 your partner was you wanted to become involved
21 in representing Sunbeam in connection with
22 this transaction; correct, sir?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Sunbeam had asked you to become
25 involved; correct?

017810

Page 291

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. You had been doing some work with
3 Sunbeam on this general -- in this general
4 area of strategic options for some months;
5 correct?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. And you had previously done a number
8 of transactions for Mr. Dunlap or other
9 companies that he had been involved in;
10 correct, sir?
11 A. For companies, but not for him,
12 personally.
13 Q. Correct. And I think you testified
14 previously that one of the reasons you bought
15 the firm bought 1,000 copies of Mean Business
16 is that you considered him to be a CEO of an
17 important client; correct?
18 A. Correct.
19 Q. And you wanted to be in a position
20 to provide Mr. Dunlap and Sunbeam, an 21 important client, with the services that they
22 wanted in connection with the possible
23 acquisition of Coleman Company; correct?
24 A. Correct.
25 Q. And that is why you called

Page 292

1 Mr. Gittes; correct?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. I want to skip ahead a little bit
4 and see if you have any knowledge of certain
5 things.
6 There has been a lot of testimony in
7 this case about a meeting that took place on
8 February 23rd, 1998 at the offices of Morgan
9 Stanley. That is about four days before the 10 acquisition agreements relating to Coleman
11 were executed. Do you have that time period
12 in your mind?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Do you recall whether you were
15 present at that meeting at Morgan Stanley on 16 February 23rd, where there was a meeting of 17 Morgan Stanley representatives, Coleman
18 representatives, Sunbeam representatives, and
19 representatives of my client?
20 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
21 A. I don't have any specific
22 recollection of that meeting.
23 Q. Do you have any recollection of
24 being at a meeting at the offices of Morgan
25 Stanley about four days before the Coleman

Page 293

1 merger agreements were executed where
2 Mr. Kersh, Mr. Goudis, perhaps others, made
3 presentations to First Boston, my client,
4 Coleman Company representatives, concerning
5 Sunbeam's strategic plan?
6 A. I don't recall being -- I don't
7 recall.
8 Q. You have no recollection of being at 9 such a meeting; correct, sir?
10 A. I don't.
11 Q. Let me show you a copy of an exhibit
12 that has been identified as a strategic plan
13 presentation that Mr. Kersh and others made at 14 that meeting. It has previously been marked
15 as CPH Exhibit Number 238.
16 I will ask you to take a look at the 17 document, sir, at least sufficiently to see
18 whether it refreshes your recollection about
19 whether you were present at a meeting about
20 four days before the Coleman merger agreements
21 were signed where Mr. Kersh, or perhaps
22 someone else from Sunbeam presented this
23 information to my client.
24 A. No, it doesn't.
25 Q. Looking at this document, sir, does

Page 294

1 it lead you to believe that you were not
2 present at this meeting?
3 A. It doesn't provide any basis for me
4 to recall whether I was or wasn't. I doubt
5 that I was there.
6 Q. Have you ever seen this document
7 before, sir?
8 A. I don't recall.
9 Q. If you can exclude the handwritten
10 notes. There are a few handwritten notes.
11 A. I don't recall seeing it, no.
12 Q. Do you see, towards the end of this
13 document, sir, it is a page that has Bates
14 number 332, the last three digits of the Bates
15 number at the bottom. The bottom right-hand
16 corner. Three or four pages.
17 A. My Bates numbers are five --
18 Q. If you turn the page this way, the 19 way that I have it, the bottom --
20 A. Sorry. 332. Yes.
21 Q. Do you see that page is entitled
22 "long-range strategic objectives - earnings
23 from continuing operations"; do you see that?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Have you ever seen this before?

117810

Page 295

1 A. I don't recall.
2 Q. I will show you a copy of what we
3 previously marked as CPH Exhibit Number 9,
4 sir.
5 It is a document entitled "Sunbeam
6 Corporation discussion materials, February
7 1998," and it has, it is on Morgan Stanley
8 stationery. You will see on the bottom
9 right-hand corner of each page.
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. There has been testimony, sir, that 12 this document was the, was delivered to my 13 client and to the other participants in the 14 February 23rd meeting at Morgan Stanley.
15 MR. BEMIS: Objection to the form.
16 Foundation.
17 Q. Does this document refresh your
18 recollection about whether you participated in 19 the February 23rd meeting?
20 A. No, it doesn't.
21 Q. Have you seen this document
22 previously?
23 A. I don't recall.
24 One of the documents -- I was shown
25 yesterday -- has some pages that look like

Page 296

1 this, but I don't --
2 Q. I want you to exclude for this
3 purpose, sir, seeing this in connection with
4 your preparation.
5 A. I don't recall seeing this.
6 Q. Were you aware that Morgan Stanley
7 presented this document to my client, sir?
8 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form.
9 Foundation.
10 A. I don't have any awareness, one way
11 or other.
12 Q. Did anybody from Morgan Stanley
13 describe to you, sir, the information that was 14 being provided to my client in connection with 15 its due diligence?
16 A. I don't recall.
17 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form,
18 foundation.
19 Q. Is that something that you would
20 have had interest in?
21 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form,
22 foundation.
23 Q. Was that outside of what you were
24 doing?
25 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form.

Page 297

1 Foundation.
2 MR. MALLOY: When you say that, what
3 are you referring to?
4 Q. You said that you don't recall being
5 told what Morgan Stanley provided to my client
6 in connection with my client's due diligence;
7 correct, sir?
8 A. Correct.
9 Q. And I think inartfully, just trying
10 to understand whether you viewed that as 11 something that really did not relate to the 12 activities that you were responsible for.
13 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form,
14 foundation.
15 A. I guess the answer to that is Yes.
16 Q. There has also been testimony, sir,
17 that there was an accounting due diligence
18 call that Morgan Stanley undertook in 19 connection with the three acquisitions where 20 representatives of Morgan Stanley spoke with 21 the outside auditors for the Coleman Company,
22 Signature Brands and First Alert.
23 Do you have any knowledge about the 24 substance of the accounting due diligence
25 conversations that Morgan Stanley had with the

Page 298

1 outside auditors for my client?
2 A. No, I don't.
3 Q. Do you have any understanding, sir,
4 of knowledge concerning the information that
5 Morgan Stanley received in connection with its
6 accounting due diligence calls with Sunbeam's
7 outside auditor, Arthur Andersen?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Let me show you a document to see if
10 it refreshes your recollection on that, sir.
11 It is a document that has been previously
12 marked as CPH Exhibit Number 31. It is a
13 document dated March 7th, 1998, on Morgan
14 Stanley letterhead from John Tyree, to the 15 Sunbeam financing team, subject accounting due
16 diligence call.
17 Do you have Exhibit 31 in front of
18 you, sir?
19 A. I do.
20 Q. Do you see that it refers to a
21 planned series of conference calls with the 22 outside auditing firms --
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. -- on March 12th, 1998?
25 A. Yes.

018412

Page 299

1 Q. That is after the agreement, the
2 merger agreements were signed relating to the
3 acquisition by Sunbeam of Coleman Company;
4 correct?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And this indicates that one of the 7 participants in the scheduled accounting due
8 diligence conference calls was Arthur
9 Andersen; do you see that, sir?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. There is a reference to a Larry
12 Bornstein next to the name Arthur Andersen; do
13 you see that?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Did you participate in the
16 accounting due diligence call on March --
17 A. I don't believe I did.
18 Q. -- on March 12th?
19 A. I don't believe I did.
20 Q. Did you, personally, ever have any
21 conversation with Larry Bornstein?
22 A. I don't recall any.
23 Q. For this purpose, sir, I am focusing 24 on the period before the closing of the 25 transaction, with my client, on March 3rd. Do

Page 300

1 you recall that during that time --
2 A. I don't recall any conversations
3 with Larry Bornstein ever.
4 Q. Did anyone report to you, sir, about
5 the substance of the conversations that Arthur
6 Andersen had with representatives of Morgan
7 Stanley relating to Morgan Stanley's
8 accounting due diligence inquiries?
9 A. I don't recall any such report.
10 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley
11 report to you, sir, that in connection with 12 its conversations with Arthur Andersen, as 13 part of its accounting due diligence, that 14 Arthur Andersen advised Morgan Stanley that,
15 in Arthur Andersen's view, Sunbeam had taken a
16 number of aggressive actions in the fourth
17 quarter of 1997 to enhance its net sales
18 revenue?
19 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form,
20 foundation.
21 A. Could I hear the question back.
22 (Record read.)
23 A. I don't recall any such --
24 Q. Do you know John Tyree, sir, the 25 author of this document?

Page 301

1 A. I know the name. I am sure I met
2 him, but -- I -- I am not sure I can pick him
3 out of a lineup.
4 Q. Do you recall Mr. Tyree ever
5 advising you about the substance of his
6 conversations with Arthur Andersen?
7 A. No, I don't.
8 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
9 Foundation.
10 Q. You participated in the February
11 27th Sunbeam board meeting, correct, sir, that 12 is the meeting where the board approved the 13 acquisition of Coleman Company?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. And there were representatives of 16 Morgan Stanley present at that meeting;
17 correct?
18 A. Yes. I believe the meeting was at
19 Morgan Stanley.
20 Q. Do you recall that Mr. Strong was
21 there?
22 A. I believe he was.
23 Q. Do you recall, at that meeting, that
24 Morgan Stanley advised the Sunbeam board that 25 it considered the Coleman acquisition terms

Page 302

1 fair to Sunbeam?
2 A. Yes. From a financial point of
3 view, I believe they did advise them.
4 Q. That was important to the Sunbeam
5 board; correct, sir?
6 MR. BEMIS: Objection to the form.
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Why is that important to the Sunbeam
9 board?
10 A. It supports their decision to do the 11 deal.
12 Q. In what way, sir?
13 A. In what way?
14 Q. Yes.
15 MR. BEMIS: Objection to the form.
16 Q. In what way did the Morgan Stanley
17 fairness opinion support the board's decision
18 to go forward about the deal?
19 MR. BEMIS: Objection to the form.
20 A. It told the board that in the 21 professional opinion of Morgan Stanley the
22 deal was fair to Sunbeam.
23 Q. When you say from a financial point
24 of view, what does that mean?
25 A. Financial point of view. The 018413

Page 303

1 financial terms are favorable.
2 Q. What does that mean, the financial
3 terms?
4 A. The price.
5 Q. The price that is being paid for my
6 client's stock; correct, sir?
7 A. Yes. It is a fair price to pay for
8 the asset.
9 Q. That's what Morgan Stanley was
10 saying to the Sunbeam board on February 27th;
11 correct?
12 A. In effect. You would have to look
13 at -- I don't know if there was a written
14 fairness opinion. You have to refresh my 15 recollection on that, but the terminology used
16 by the banker is fair from a financial point
17 of view.
18 Q. I just want to --
19 A. Those are the traditional, customary
20 words used.
21 Q. What that relates to, for lay
22 people, is to the price that is being paid;
23 correct, sir?
24 A. Correct.
25 Q. Do you recall that, in connection

Page 304

1 with the Sunbeam board's meeting on the 27th,
2 that Mr. Strong, or perhaps others from Morgan
3 Stanley, addressed the subject of financing?
4 A. I believe they did, yes.
5 Q. Do you recall that Morgan Stanley,
6 at the February 27th board meeting, assured
7 the board that financing for the acquisitions
8 could be obtained?
9 A. I would not sure that I would use
10 the word "assured," but they certainly 11 indicated that, in their judgment, the 12 financing could be obtained.
13 Q. And that Morgan Stanley was willing 14 to play a lead role in connection with 15 arranging that financing; correct?
16 A. Correct.
17 Q. Do you recall, sir, that there was 18 no financing contingency in the Coleman
19 agreement?
20 A. I do.
21 Q. In other words, the agreement was
22 binding and there was no out for Sunbeam if it
23 couldn't arrange financing; correct?
24 A. Correct.
25 MR. MARKOWSKI: I am about to go

Page 305

1 into an area that is fairly lengthy. If
2 you want to break now for lunch, we can
3 do that. It is noon. Rather than break
4 up this.
5 MR. MALLOY: It is a little early
6 for lunch. Did you need to take a break
7 for something?
8 THE WITNESS: I am not sure. I
9 don't know when they are setting up
10 there. I would just assume, keep going.
11 MR. MARKOWSKI: We can do that.
12 MR. BEMIS: Could we take a short
13 break?
14 MR. MARKOWSKI: Yes.
15 (Recess.)
16 Q. Mr. Fogg, you indicated that you
17 received a telephone call from David Fannin on 18 March 18th, indicating that he wanted to come
19 over to meet with you; correct?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. That is the day before Sunbeam
22 issued its press release on March 19th;
23 correct?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Did Mr. Fannin indicate in his

Page 306

1 initial call to you that he was coming over to
2 discuss issues relating to Sunbeam's first
3 quarter performance?
4 MR. MALLOY: You can answer that Yes
5 or No.
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Was that the first indication that
8 you had had, sir, of any sort, that there was 9 any issue with respect to Sunbeam's first
10 quarter 1998 performance?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. You had not heard previously that
13 Sunbeam's first quarter sales were in any way
14 behind plan?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Or that its net income for the 17 quarter was somehow behind plan?
18 A. No.
19 Q. By March 18th, Sunbeam's first
20 quarter was almost over; correct?
21 A. January, February, 18 months of
22 March -- 18 days of March were over, there
23 were 13 days left.
24 Q. And, actually, I do not know if you
25 recall this, sir, but Sunbeam was not on a

114814

Page 307

1 calendar year fiscal year; do you recall that?
2 A. A calendar year?
3 Q. Right. Sunbeam's first quarter was
4 going to close on March 29th or 30th.
5 A. Well, okay.
6 Q. Do you recall that?
7 A. Towards the end of March, correct.
8 Q. Do you recall that Sunbeam was not
9 on a December 31st fiscal year?
10 A. Right.
11 Q. And that Sunbeam's first quarter was 12 going to close slightly a few days before
13 March 31st?
14 A. It sounds right.
15 Q. And, in any event, Sunbeam's first
16 quarter was -- January was gone, February was 17 gone and a substantial part of March was gone
18 at that point; correct?
19 A. Correct.
20 Q. And this is the first indication
21 that had been brought to your attention that
22 there was any issue with respect to Sunbeam's
23 first quarter performance?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Let me show you, I think we have the

Page 308

1 time record, sir, for your activity that day,
2 CPH Exhibit 384. Do you have that in front of
3 you? It should be in the stack of documents,
4 probably the first one.
5 A. Here it is.
6 Q. Let's see if I can find it for you.
7 Would you turn to page 38 of 43.
8 A. 38?
9 Q. Yes.
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Do you see your time entry for March
12 18th, 1998?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. And it is billed to the rule 144A
15 matter; correct, sir, that day?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. And the entry, could you read the 18 description, the narrative that is --
19 A. The first quarter problem.
20 Q. That is how you described your work
21 that day; correct?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And how much time did you bill that 24 day to --
25 A. 8 and a half hours.

Page 309

1 Q. As you sit here today, is that
2 consistent, in your mind, with the amount of
3 time that you spent on March 18th?
4 A. Yes, it is.
5 Q. When Mr. Fannin arrived in your
6 office, Mr. Fogg, he described in some more
7 detail the first quarter issue than he had
8 during the phone call?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And the two of you then began to 11 call others; is that correct?
12 A. That is right.
13 Q. And one of the telephone calls you
14 made, and one of the telephone calls you made
15 after speaking to Morgan Stanley was to 16 Sunbeam; correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. You made a call and spoke to Don
19 Uzzi; correct?
20 A. Yes. A lot of people were on the 21 phone.
22 Q. I think you indicated that there
23 were two telephone calls to Don Uzzi; correct?
24 A. Yes. There was an initial call, for 25 just the people in my office calling Uzzi, to

Page 310

1 sort of set up a subsequent call.
2 Q. That is the first call that I want
3 to spend a moment on.
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. The initial call that is made to
6 Mr. Uzzi that day from your office.
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. How far into the discussions you
9 were having that day on this issue do you
10 believe that call took place?
11 A. I couldn't really put a time frame
12 on it. I think it was probably the first
13 third of the day, but I am not sure.
14 Q. It was one of the earlier events;
15 correct, sir?
16 A. Yes. It was the -- first Fannin
17 arrived, then Fernicola and Shehan joined us.
18 Then I think we spoke to Morgan
19 Stanley and Davis Polk, and then the next
20 thing I remember was the people in my room
21 calling Uzzi.
22 Q. The purpose of the call to Uzzi was 23 to essentially give him a heads-up; correct,
24 sir?
25 A. To tell him that we were going to 517810

Page 311

1 have a call later on with Morgan Stanley and
2 Davis Polk and to schedule it and make sure
3 that he was available, et cetera.
4 Q. And to give him a chance to prepare
5 for that call; correct?
6 A. I don't know what. I don't know.
7 Q. Was he told, in general, what the 8 subsequent call was going to deal with?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Do you recall what he was told about 11 what the second call would deal with?
12 A. Where things stand for the first
13 quarter.
14 Q. Now, you have testified, I think,
15 just now, and then earlier, that the Skadden
16 personnel in your office participating that 17 day in these issues were Mr. Fernicola and 18 Mr. Shehan, in addition to yourself; correct?
19 A. Mark Shehan. Not to be confused
20 with Bob Shehan; yes.
21 Q. Is Greg Fernicola and Mark Shehan?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. The Skadden personnel involved that
24 day with this issue were the three of you;
25 correct?

Page 312

1 A. Correct. And I am not sure -- I was
2 the only one of the three who was there all
3 the time. It was in my office, except to go
4 to the men's room. The other two, I think
5 left for periods and came back, but I don't
6 remember. They were doing other things.
7 Q. Was there anyone else from Skadden
8 Arps that day, that you can recall, involved
9 in dealing with this issue?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Mr. Fernicola and Mr. Shehan had 12 already been involved in doing work for 13 Sunbeam in connection with the first quarter
14 transactions; correct, sir?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. That is why they were in the room?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Mr. Shehan, at the time, was
19 associate, sir; is that correct?
20 A. Yes. Or maybe he was counsel -- he
21 was not a partner.
22 Q. He was either associate or of
23 counsel?
24 A. Not of counsel. We have another
25 category called counsel.

Page 313

1 THE WITNESS: Is that right?
2 MR. MALLOY: Yes.
3 Q. But in any event, he was not a
4 partner; correct?
5 A. He was not.
6 Q. He was not of counsel?
7 A. No, he was not. He was a senior
8 corporate lawyer and I don't remember his
9 title. I think it was, I think it was 10 associate. Maybe it was counsel.
11 Q. When you say he was a senior
12 corporate lawyer, he was still associate or 13 counsel, correct, sir, he was not a partner?
14 A. He had been there many years, right,
15 but he was not a partner. I worked with him
16 on many, many occasions.
17 Q. What was Mr. Shehan doing before
18 this on the Sunbeam matter; do you recall,
19 generally?
20 A. Yes. I mean, Mark was one of the 21 guys I had working on one of the lead
22 transactions, I forget whether it was
23 signature or First Alert, but one of them was 24 his.
25 Q. Anything else that you can remember

Page 314

1 him doing?
2 A. No.
3 Q. Was he involved in the rule 144A
4 matter?
5 A. No.
6 Q. That is the debenture offering;
7 correct?
8 A. Correct.
9 Q. Mr. Shehan wasn't involved in the 10 debenture offering?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Mr. Fernicola was?
13 A. Yes.
14 THE WITNESS: The reason I called
15 Mr. Shehan was because I had worked with 16 him in the past. He was very 17 experienced, and I always find that on 18 difficult issues it is better to have 19 more smart people in the room rather than 20 fewer.
21 Q. You testified earlier that
22 Mr. Dunlap adamantly opposed the issuance of a
23 press release when the question was put to 24 him; correct, sir?
25 A. Yes, sir.

Page 315

1 Q. Did that come as a surprise to you?
2 A. Um, certain aspects of it surprised
3 me, yes.
4 Q. Did you expect Mr. Dunlap to
5 immediately embrace the idea of issuing a
6 press release?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Why do you believe that Mr. Dunlap
9 was so adamant in his opposition to the 10 issuance of a press release?
11 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
12 Foundation.
13 Q. Let me make sure that I ask the
14 question that I intended to ask.
15 I will withdraw the question.
16 At the time, back in the first
17 quarter of 1998, why did you believe that 18 Mr. Dunlap was being so adamant in his
19 opposition to issuing a press release?
20 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
21 A. I did not ask him why so he did not
22 tell me why. So, I would only be, have been 23 speculating at the time, which I did. And my 24 speculations were that he was very concerned
25 about doing anything that would throw a monkey

Page 316

1 wrench into his deals, and he thought the
2 press release might do that.
3 I must add that I would probably
4 have expected any client in the circumstance,
5 similar circumstances to at least push back on 6 the lawyers to at least get them, you know, to 7 challenge their thinking and make sure that
8 they weren't taking the easy way out.
9 Q. Mr. Dunlap did a little bit more
10 than push back; correct, sir?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. And you already testified that
13 Mr. Dunlap can be very demonstrative in 14 expressing his point of view; correct, sir?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. He was doing that on this occasion,
17 too?
18 A. He was.
19 Q. Your belief, at the time, was that
20 Mr. Dunlap was being driven here by concerns
21 that a press release would throw a monkey
22 wrench into his deals?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And the deals you are referring to,
25 sir, are what?

Page 317

1 A. The financing and, without the
2 financing, the acquisitions.
3 Q. And Mr. -- your belief was that
4 Mr. Dunlap was concerned that public
5 disclosure of a first quarter problem at 6 Sunbeam could have an adverse effect on those
7 transactions; correct?
8 A. Correct.
9 And, in addition, I speculated that
10 it might, he was afraid that it might, ah,
11 adversely affect his status as a darling of 12 Wall Street who had never missed a quarter.
13 Q. The debenture offering was scheduled
14 to be priced just the following day; correct?
15 A. I believe so, yes.
16 Q. On March 19th?
17 A. I believe so, yes.
18 Q. Sunbeam, along with Morgan Stanley,
19 had been out on a road show marketing the 20 debentures; correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. And that road show was coming to --
23 A. I am not sure. I am not sure. I
24 don't know when the timing of the road shows
25 took place.

Page 318

1 Q. Do you recall, sir, that Mr. Fannin
2 that day was at the New York road show, that
3 is why he was in town?
4 A. I honestly don't recall. I knew
5 they were all in town having something to do
6 with the financing, and whether it was a -- a
7 New York road show or a bank meeting or what
8 the hell it was, I don't remember.
9 Q. Okay. But, in any event, your
10 recollection is that, at the time, you
11 understood that the financing was going to be 12 the debenture offering was going to be priced
13 on March 19th, the day after the 14 discussions -- that were taking place that 15 day; correct?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Now, the acquisition of my client's
18 interest in Coleman Company hadn't closed at 19 that point; is that correct?
20 A. The what?
21 Q. The acquisition of my client's
22 interest in Coleman Company had not closed at 23 that point; correct, sir?
24 A. Correct. We just went through the 25 fact that this is taking place on March 18th,

010417

Page 319

1 and that deal did not close until March 30th.
2 Q. Correct. Do you recall previously
3 saying, sir, that you thought that Mr. Dunlap
4 opposed the issuance of a press release
5 because he did not want to "screw up his
6 financing"?
7 A. I think I testified to that in the
8 arbitration. That's a different way of saying
9 throw a monkey wrench into it; isn't it?
10 Q. Did you ever hear, sir, anyone from 11 Morgan Stanley who was involved in the 12 debenture offering say to Mr. Dunlap, or 13 anyone else at Sunbeam, that it was important
14 in connection with marketing the debentures
15 that Sunbeam continue to hit its numbers?
16 A. I don't recall any discussion like
17 that, no.
18 Q. In connection with the conversation
19 that you had with Mr. Uzzi, you have testified
20 that you got a one-page piece of paper that 21 had some numbers on it; correct?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. I will show you another copy of 24 that, this time, with our Exhibit Number on
25 it.

Page 320

1 A. All right.
2 Q. Let me show you, sir, what we
3 previously marked as CPH Exhibit Number 16.
4 A. All right.
5 Q. Do you recognize that as the
6 document that you had, excluding the 7 handwriting on it, the documented that you had
8 in front of you during the conversation that
9 you had that day with Mr. Uzzi and others
10 about where Sunbeam was at as of March 19th,
11 1998?
12 A. Yes. And this is a copy including
13 the handwriting of the same document I saw
14 yesterday.
15 Q. You see the fax numbers in the upper 16 corner, sir?
17 A. I do.
18 Q. Next to the -- there are three names
19 up there, route, Allen and David. Do you see 20 those?
21 A. Yes, I do.
22 Q. Next to David, is that your fax
23 number?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. I would like to spend a moment --

Page 321

1 A. Not my current fax number, but my
2 then fax number.
3 Q. That was what I was interested in,
4 sir. Thank you.
5 A. No.
6 Q. I would like to spend a moment with
7 you on the numbers in the document, sir.
8 Do you see, in the upper right-hand
9 corner, the first line indicates "January
10 consolidated net sales actual"; do you see
11 that?
12 A. I do.
13 Q. And the number there is 29; do you
14 see that?
15 A. Yes, I do.
16 Q. Do you understand that to be $29
17 million?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. The second line is "February
20 consolidated net sales actual"; do you see
21 that?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And next to that, next to that typed
24 number is the number 43; do you see that?
25 A. Yes.

Page 322

1 Q. Did you understand that, at the
2 time, to be a reference to $43 million in net
3 sales in February?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Somebody has done the math, I think,
6 next to those two numbers for us, but those
7 two numbers total $72 million; correct, sir?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. By the way, that is not your
10 handwriting; correct?
11 A. No.
12 Q. And then do you see, beneath that:
13 March international net sales through March
14 15th, 1998"?
15 A. I do.
16 Q. And the number 6.9 appears there;
17 correct, sir?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. $6.9 million in net sales,
20 international sales through March 15th;
21 correct?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. That's what you understood that to 24 be?
25 A. Yes.

018418

Page 323

1 Q. And then, skipping down two lines,
2 do you see a reference to March domestic net
3 sales through March 17th?
4 A. I do.
5 Q. And that number is $22.7 million; do
6 you see that?
7 A. I do.
8 Q. The total of those four numbers,
9 sir, for the actual net sales in January,
10 February and international net sales for the 11 first two weeks of March and March domestic 12 net sales through March 17th is approximately
13 $100,000,000; is that correct?
14 A. Do you want me to do the math?
15 Q. Sure. It is 72 plus 6.9.
16 MR. MALLOY: Here is a fresh page.
17 A. 72, 6.9. And 22.7. Is that right?
18 Yes. Right?
19 Q. I believe so.
20 A. 101 million point 6.
21 Q. So, this document advised the people
22 who received it that, as of mid-March, 1998,
23 Sunbeam had total net sales of a little less
24 than $102 million; correct?
25 A. That is what it purports to show,

Page 324

1 yes.
2 Q. And the other numbers on this page
3 all relate to sales that have not taken place
4 yet; correct, sir?
5 A. Um, yes, the line March
6 international net sales forecast was a
7 forecast number.
8 The rest of March.
9 International. And March domestic
10 open orders. I guess they are open orders,
11 yes.
12 Q. And then-- the column for potential
13 orders?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Those orders hadn't even occurred
16 yet; correct?
17 A. I don't know. Potential orders.
18 Yes. Correct.
19 Q. It was being represented that those 20 were orders that the company was expecting or 21 hoping to get, but had not actually?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Had actually not been made yet;
24 correct?
25 A. Correct.

Page 325

1 Q. The reason for this meeting that day
2 was that Wall Street analysts had been led by
3 the company to expect that Sunbeam would
4 achieve sales in the first quarter of 1998 of
5 something in the neighborhood of 285 to 295
6 million dollars; correct, sir?
7 MR. BEMIS: Objection to the form of
8 the question. No foundation.
9 Q. That was your understanding.
10 MR. BEMIS: Objection to the form of
11 the question. No foundation.
12 A. I only would quibble with a couple
13 parts of the question.
14 And that is led to believe, I don't 15 know who led what to whom.
16 I don't know if the analysts arrived
17 at this based on their own analysis or to what 18 extent it was the company information that 19 they had put out. I don't know. But the 20 analysts did have an estimated range, which, I
21 think, was in the neighborhood that you
22 mentioned, but I can't -- I think.
23 Q. Let's see if we can pin that down,
24 sir, and we will move on. I will show you the 25 March 19th press release.

Page 326

1 A. All right.
2 Q. You have already seen this. But
3 this is our version of it, March -- the CPH
4 Exhibit 14. Do you see in the first sentence,
5 sir, it states that --
6 A. It refers to the range of -- analyst
7 estimates 285 million to 295 million, yes.
8 Q. That is something that you would
9 have known at the time that these discussions
10 had taken place, leading up to the issuance of 11 the press release; correct, sir?
12 A. I would have known that at that
13 time, yes.
14 Q. So, as of the time that the people
15 are speaking about where Sunbeam stands in the 16 first quarter of 1998, Sunbeam is about 185 to 17 $195 million short of Wall Street's
18 expectations for first quarter sales at that
19 point; correct?
20 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
21 A. Yes. Correct.
22 Q. With about 12 days, or so, left in
23 the quarter; correct, sir?
24 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
25 A. Yes.

018419

Page 327

1 Q. A question, sir, for you about the
2 column entitled potential orders.
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Do you see that?
5 A. I do.
6 Q. It sums up at the bottom to 86; do
7 you see that?
8 A. To 86 or 88? I can't -- if you say
9 it is the 6, I will take your, it is a 6, I
10 will take your word for it. I can't.
11 Q. It is either 86 or 88, that is the 12 way you are reading it?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. My question doesn't relate so much
15 to the number, as to what the number reflects,
16 sir.
17 You indicate that there were probing
18 questions to Mr. Uzzi that day, relating to 19 this document; correct?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Do you recall being told that the
22 list of potential orders was a gross sales
23 number, not a net sales number?
24 A. I don't recall.
25 Q. You know the difference between

Page 328

1 gross sales and net sales, sir?
2 A. Um, probably varies from company to
3 company. I don't specifically recall.
4 Q. Gross sales would be the amount that
5 customer pays; correct?
6 A. That would be, yes, right.
7 Q. And net sales would be some amount
8 less than that that includes some expenses
9 that the company deducts in calculating its 10 net sales; correct?
11 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
12 Foundation.
13 A. Yes. Some expenses, I don't know
14 which ones.
15 Q. And in this case the Wall Street
16 analysts' estimate was a net sales estimate of 17 285 to $295 million; correct?
18 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
19 Foundation.
20 A. I don't recall, except that is what
21 the March 19th press release says; so, that
22 must have been what it was.
23 Q. The focus that day was on what net
24 sales Sunbeam would achieve in the first
25 quarter of 1998. That was the exercise;

Page 329

1 correct?
2 A. I believe so.
3 Q. You can't recall, as you sit here
4 today, whether you were alerted to the fact
5 that this $86 million number was a gross
6 number?
7 A. I don't recall.
8 Q. But it is put in terms of orders,
9 not net sales; correct, sir?
10 A. It says "orders," yes. Potential
11 orders.
12 Q. The total, sir, of all of the 13 numbers that are on this page came to -- well,
14 let's -- there are two numbers that I can 15 focus your attention on, sir. Do you see the 16 grouping of numbers on the top of the page,
17 Janet sales, February, March --
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. International. That total, group of 20 sales totaled to $168.7 million; correct? Do
21 you see that there?
22 A. Yes. That's what it says.
23 Q. Potential orders totals $86 million;
24 correct?
25 A. Yes. Okay. It is a 6; right.

Page 330

1 Q. And the total of those two numbers
2 is something in the neighborhood of $255
3 million; correct?
4 A. Correct.
5 Q. Something significantly short of 285
6 to $295 million; correct?
7 A. Correct.
8 Q. There is no other detail on this
9 page that explains how the company might get
10 from this group of numbers to 285 to $295
11 million; correct?
12 A. It doesn't seem to be.
13 Q. Did anyone in the course of the 14 conversation that you had with Sunbeam that 15 day, sir, claim that Sunbeam, at any point in 16 the past, had ever accomplished sales of
17 something in the neighborhood of 280 to $290
18 million in the last 12 days of the quarter?
19 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
20 Foundation.
21 A. I don't recall. There is an
22 indication on this document, at the bottom, of 23 a low and a high, and I am trying to figure
24 out what that means. But I don't recall.
25 Q. There are no entries in here

018420

Page 331

1 supporting a number higher than $255 million
2 or so; correct, sir?
3 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
4 Foundation.
5 A. Well, the numbers next to low and
6 high are higher, and I don't know what, I
7 don't know how they got to them.
8 Q. There is nothing?
9 A. I don't recall.
10 Q. There is nothing in the document
11 that explains that; correct, sir?
12 A. I don't know what these percentages
13 are next to those numbers, 5.3 and 15.6. I
14 just don't recall.
15 Q. And my question, sir, is simply:
16 There was nothing in the document that 17 explains how they got to those higher numbers;
18 correct?
19 A. I don't see anything.
20 Q. Do you recall, sir, that, as of this
21 time, mid-March, 1998, that Wall Street
22 analysts were expecting Sunbeam to realize a
23 significant first quarter profit, net profit?
24 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form,
25 foundation.

Page 332

1 A. I don't recall.
2 Q. Was there any discussion on March
3 18th, sir, relating to where the company stood
4 with respect to net earnings in the first
5 quarter of 1998?
6 MR. MALLOY: Are you referring to
7 the March call that included Morgan
8 Stanley, or a different call?
9 Q. I am asking, generally: Was there
10 any discussion on March 18th that you were 11 privy to, sir, where the subject of where 12 Sunbeam stood with respect to its first
13 quarter net earnings --
14 A. On the large call involving Morgan
15 Stanley, Uzzi, Davis Polk, Fannin, myself,
16 etc., there was something discussed about
17 that, but I don't know, I don't recall the 18 substance.
19 Q. There is nothing on CPH Exhibit 16
20 that relates to net earnings; correct?
21 A. Right. There is nothing in the 22 press release either.
23 Q. As you sit here, you can't recall --
24 A. I can't recall. I am sure it was 25 discussed, I just can't recall what was

Page 333

1 discussed.
2 Q. There is no warning in the press
3 release that Sunbeam may fall short of
4 analysts' expectations for first quarter net
5 earnings; correct?
6 A. There is no statement in the press
7 release about net earnings.
8 Q. Do you agree, sir, that the more
9 negative the press release that Sunbeam issued
10 on March 19th, the greater the risk that the 11 press release might throw a monkey wrench into 12 the first quarter deals?
13 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
14 MR. MALLOY: Objection.
15 Speculation.
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. That was your understanding at the
18 time; correct, sir?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Do you have the March 19th press
21 release in front of you, sir?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. CPH Exhibit 14.
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. The press release issued on March

Page 334

1 19th, does not state that Sunbeam would fall
2 below Wall Street's expectations of 285 to
3 $295 million for the first quarter net sales;
4 does it, sir?
5 A. No.
6 Q. The March 19th press release doesn't
7 disclose that Sunbeam would fall short of Wall
8 Street's first quarter net earnings estimates,
9 either; does it?
10 A. Nothing in there about earnings.
11 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Asked and
12 answered three times.
13 Q. The March 19th press release doesn't
14 disclose that Sunbeam had net sales of just 15 two $9,000,000 in January; does it?
16 A. No.
17 Q. It doesn't disclose that Sunbeam had
18 net sales of just $43 million in February;
19 does it?
20 A. No.
21 Q. It doesn't disclose that Sunbeam had
22 net sales of about $102 million as of the date
23 of the press release; correct?
24 A. No.
25 Q. The press release doesn't disclose

018421

Page 335

1 that Sunbeam's net sales for the first two
2 months of 1998 were about half of the net
3 sales that Sunbeam had realized in the first
4 two months of 1997; does it?
5 MR. MALLOY: I think the press
6 release speaks for itself.
7 A. It doesn't say anything about that.
8 Q. Were you aware of that, sir, that
9 Sunbeam's net sales through the first two
10 months of 1998 were about half of Sunbeam's
11 net sales in the first two months of 1997?
12 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form,
13 foundation.
14 A. I know that on the large call, and
15 on the discussion with Uzzi, we discussed
16 prior quarters, and how "back end loaded" they
17 were, as opposed to this one. We discussed
18 that. And I don't recall any of the details
19 about that.
20 Q. Do you remember anyone from Morgan
21 Stanley, during the call, saying, um, the net
22 sales numbers through January and February are
23 only about half of what Sunbeam's net sales
24 had been in the year ago quarter?
25 A. I don't specifically recall that,

Page 336

1 no.
2 Q. The March 19th press release did not
3 disclose that Sunbeam had lost about
4 $40,000,000 in the first two months of 1998;
5 does it, sir?
6 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
7 Foundation.
8 A. It doesn't say anything about losses
9 or earnings.
10 MR. MALLOY: You are wasting our
11 time with this at this point.
12 Q. Sir, on March 20th --
13 A. March 20th.
14 Q. We will move to the day after the 15 press release, the press release issued on 16 March 19th; correct, sir.
17 A. To the best of my recollection, yes.
18 Q. And one of the things that you did
19 on March 20th was monitor Wall Street's
20 reaction to the press release. Do you recall
21 that?
22 A. Monitored Wall Street's reaction to
23 the press release?
24 Q. Do you recall doing that?
25 A. I am not a monitor. No, I don't

Page 337

1 think I did that.
2 Q. Let me show you a time entry that I
3 am basing the question on, sir.
4 Do you have Exhibit 384 in front of
5 you, sir?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Let's see if I can find it. It is
8 page 38 of 43 again --
9 A. Excuse me.
10 Q. Page 38 of 43. The page we looked
11 at a minute ago.
12 A. Yes, March 20th.
13 Q. Do you see your March 20th time
14 entry?
15 A. Yes, I do.
16 Q. This time entry is billed to the
17 rule 144A matter; correct, sir?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And that is the debenture offering;
20 correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. And would you read the time entry
23 that you wrote that day.
24 A. "TC," that means telephone calls,
25 "with Fernicola, Goudis, Kelly," that is Janet

Page 338

1 Kelly, who worked for David Fannin; Fannin.
2 "Review Dow Jones and Bloomberg stories,
3 advice on disclosures."
4 Q. Does that refresh your recollection,
5 sir, that one of the things that you did on
6 March 20th was review Wall Street's reaction
7 to the March 19th press release?
8 MR. MALLOY: The question?
9 Q. Did it refresh your recollection?
10 A. The prior question was whether I
11 monitored Wall Street's reaction. I don't
12 think I monitored anything. Did I read media
13 coverage of the press release? Obviously, I
14 would have, yes.
15 Q. That's what that time entry relates
16 to on March 20th; correct?
17 A. Part of it.
18 Q. Mr. Goudis was, do you remember Rich
19 Goudis? You referred to him earlier this
20 morning.
21 A. Yes, he was the PR guy.
22 Q. He was the investor relations
23 person.
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Do you remember your conversation

018422

Page 339

1 with Mr. Goudis that day?
2 A. I do not, no.
3 Q. Do you recall if Mr. Goudis was
4 reporting to you what he was hearing from Wall
5 Street analysts?
6 A. I don't recall.
7 Q. Did you have any conversations with
8 Mr. Goudis where he reported to you what he 9 was hearing from Wall Street analysts relating 10 to the --
11 MR. MALLOY: Well.
12 Q. -- relating to the March 19th press
13 release?
14 DI MR. MALLOY: I will instruct him not
15 to answer questions regarding the 16 conversations that you had with
17 Mr. Goudis.
18 Q. I am not asking about the substance,
19 at this point, as opposed to whether there was 20 such a conversation.
21 MR. MALLOY: You asked whether there
22 was a conversation about particular
23 substance. You are calling for him to 24 reveal the substance of conversations.
25 MR. MARKOWSKI: Are you instructing

Page 340

1 him not to answer?
2 MR. MALLOY: Would you read back the
3 question.
4 A. I have no recollection; so, it
5 doesn't matter.
6 Q. Do you see the statement there, sir,
7 at the end of your time entry that, relating
8 to advice on disclosures?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Do you recall what that subject
11 related to?
12 A. Not really, no.
13 Q. Do you recall that analysts, do you
14 recall the analyst reaction to the press
15 release, sir?
16 A. No.
17 Q. I will show you two or three 18 analysts' reports to see if it refreshes your
19 recollection.
20 A. I recall it was not positive. Do I
21 recall precisely what they said? No.
22 Q. I will show you what I will ask the 23 court reporter to mark as CPH Exhibit Number
24 388, and it is a two-page document bearing
25 Bear, Stearns' production number 51 and 52.

Page 341

1 And it is a research equity, research report
2 issued by Connie Maneaty at Bear, Stearns,
3 relating to Sunbeam.
4 (CPH Exhibit 388, documents Bates
5 Nos. 51 to 52, marked for
6 identification as of this date.)
7 Q. Do you have CPH Exhibit 388 in front
8 of you?
9 A. I have it, yes.
10 Q. This is a report issued by Connie
11 Maneaty at Bear, Stearns on March 19th, 1998,
12 Orelating to Sunbeam; do you see that?
13 A. Yes, I do.
14 Q. And the headline of it states:
15 "Sunbeam SOC - 45 - buy"; do you see that?
16 A. I do.
17 Q. And the headline below that reads:
18 "4-and-one-half point drop unwarranted, buy
19 reaffirmed, one year target remains 60
20 dollars"; do you see that?
21 A. I do.
22 Q. Do you recall seeing this document
23 in connection with your review of Wall Street
24 reaction to the March 19th press release?
25 A. I don't recall it, no.

Page 342

1 MR. BEMIS: I would like to show you
2 what we will mark as CPH Exhibit Number
3 389. This is a two-page document that
4 bears Bates number CPH 1393262 to 263.
5 This is a Goldman, Sachs investment
6 research report issued on March 20th,
7 1998, relating to Sunbeam.
8 (CPH Exhibit 389, documents Bates
9 Nos. 3104 to 05, marked for
10 identification as of this date.)
11 A. I have it.
12 Q. Do you recall seeing this document,
13 sir?
14 A. Not really.
15 Q. Do you see the first bullet point
16 underneath the financial information?
17 A. Yes, I do.
18 Q. It states: "Continue to recommend 19 purchase of SOC"; do you see that?
20 A. Yes, I do.
21 Q. Do you see that, further into that
22 paragraph, excuse me, in the second bullet
23 point, you see that Ms. Fontenelli is 24 adjusting her expected net sales target for 25 Sunbeam's first quarter?

018423

Page 343

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. And that she indicates that her
3 range previously had been 285 to $295 million;
4 do you see that?
5 A. Aha.
6 Q. You have to answer Yes or No, sir.
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And that she is adjusting her range
9 down to 275 to $280 million, based on the 10 press release; correct?
11 A. Yes.
12 MR. BEMIS: I move to strike that
13 entire section of questioning. There is 14 no foundation. You are asking the 15 witness to read from a document that he
16 has never seen or never saw before.
17 Q. Mr. Fogg, Morgan Stanley had an 18 opportunity to comment on the press release
19 that was issued on March 19th, before that 20 press release was finalized; correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. At the time that the press release
23 was issued, was it your understanding that
24 Morgan Stanley had signed off on it?
25 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.

Page 344

1 Foundation.
2 A. It was my understanding that
3 everyone on the large call had been, had come
4 to an agreement on what we should say, yes.
5 Q. Morgan Stanley was part of that
6 group; correct?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And was it your view, sir, that
9 Morgan Stanley was in the driver's seat with 10 respect to what Sunbeam would say in that
11 first quarter 1998 -- excuse me, the March
12 19th, 1998 press release?
13 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
14 Foundation.
15 A. "The driver's seat"? No, I would
16 not use that term.
17 Q. If Morgan Stanley wasn't satisfied
18 with the disclosures made in the March 19th
19 press release that Morgan Stanley would have 20 declined to proceed with the pricing of the 21 debenture offering the next day, you
22 understood that, sir; right?
23 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form,
24 foundation.
25 A. Yes.

Page 345

1 Q. And Sunbeam wanted that debenture
2 offering to proceed; correct?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. It was important to Sunbeam's
5 ability to complete the three acquisitions
6 that the debenture offering proceed; correct?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. If Morgan Stanley took the position
9 that the disclosures in the March 19th press
10 release were inadequate, Morgan Stanley was in 11 the position not to proceed with the pricing
12 of the debenture offering; correct?
13 A. Yes.
14 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
15 Foundation, argumentative.
16 Q. That was your understanding at the
17 time; correct, sir?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. The debenture offering proceeded to 20 pricing the next day; correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. And do you recall, sir, that the
23 plan had been to issue debentures sufficient
24 to raise about $500 million?
25 A. I wish I had a perfect recollection

Page 346

1 of that. If you say that is what it was, I
2 can't quibble with you. I don't recall.
3 MR. MALLOY: He is just asking you
4 what you remember.
5 A. I don't recall exactly how much it
6 was supposed to raise.
7 Q. Do you recall that, at the end,
8 after the March 19th press release was issued,
9 the size of the debenture offering was
10 significantly increased?
11 A. I recall that it was oversubscribed.
12 Q. And the size of the offering was,
13 therefore, increased; do you recall that?
14 A. Correct.
15 Q. Were you involved in the
16 conversations on March 19th, where Morgan
17 Stanley and Sunbeam representatives discussed
18 pricing of the debentures?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Were you involved in any discussions
21 relating to increasing the size of the 22 debenture offering on that day?
23 A. I don't recall being involved in
24 any, no.
25 Q. Did the company seek advice from you

018424

Page 347

1 with respect to the advisability of increasing
2 the size of the debenture offering?
3 A. I don't recall any such request to
4 me.
5 Q. Sir, do you recall that after, and
6 we have seen a time entry for you relating to 7 this general subject on March 20th; correct?
8 A. March 20th? Yes.
9 Q. The review of reports relating to
10 reaction to the press release; correct?
11 A. The entry talks about Dow Jones and 12 Bloomberg reports, yes.
13 Q. Your understanding, your
14 recollection today is that that entry related
15 to reviewing matters concerning the March 19th
16 press release; correct?
17 MR. MALLOY: I don't think he
18 testified that he recollected work on 19 that day at all.
20 Q. Do you recall?
21 A. I think I testified that I am sure
22 that I would not have ignored the reaction to
23 the press release.
24 Q. Your belief is that that March 19th,
25 or, excuse me, the March 20th entry related to

Page 348

1 reviewing those kinds of reports; correct?
2 A. That's my belief.
3 Q. Do you recall that after that day,
4 after March 20th, you stopped performing work
5 on the Sunbeam transaction for several days?
6 A. No, I don't recall.
7 Q. Let me show you a couple things and
8 see if they refresh your memory. I will show
9 you what we will mark as CPH Exhibit Number
10 390. It is a two-page document, and it is a
11 Skadden Arps fax cover sheet and a March 20th,
12 1998 memorandum from Blaine V. Fogg to Adam
13 Emmerich, re Sunbeam/Coleman.
14 (CPH Exhibit 390, documents Bates
15 Nos. 55 to 56, marked for
16 identification as of this date.)
17 Q. I will also give you your calendars,
18 so that you can have that next to this
19 document.
20 MR. MALLOY: It is 1 o'clock, now.
21 We would like to take --
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could I have three
23 more minutes on this and we will be at a
24 breaking point.
25 MR. MALLOY: Yes.

Page 349

1 MR. MARKOWSKI: Would you mark this
2 as 391.
3 (CPH Exhibit 391, documents Bates
4 Nos. 19637 to 644, marked for
5 identification as of this date.)
6 Q. Mr. Fogg, can you identify for us
7 what exhibits 390 and 391 are?
8 A. Um, 390 appears to be a one-page
9 memo that I faxed to Adam Emmerich at Wachtel
10 Lipton on March 20th, 1998.
11 391 appears to be a copy of some 12 pages from my appointment calendar starting in 13 late February of 1998 and continuing on into 14 March. Yes.
15 Q. And in your March 20th memorandum to 16 Mr. Emmerich, sir, in the last paragraph --
17 would you read that to us, please.
18 A. "In my absence next week Allison
19 Amorison will be handling these matters, as 20 well as other matters which may arise between 21 now and the closing."
22 Indicating I was going someplace for
23 a week.
24 Q. Ms. Amorison was an associate
25 working on the transaction; correct, sir?

Page 350

1 A. Correct.
2 Q. Do you recall -- I do not know if
3 this is at all helpful to you, sir, but your
4 calendar doesn't contain any, I guess it has
5 a, there is something reacted, I hadn't
6 noticed that. There is a redaction from your
7 calendar for the week of March 23rd; do you
8 see that?
9 A. I do.
10 Q. Do these documents assist you in
11 recalling where you were between March 20th
12 and March 30th?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Does this refresh your recollection
15 that there was a hiatus in your involvement in 16 these transactions between shortly after the 17 time the press release was issued, until
18 approximately the day in which Sunbeam's
19 acquisition of my client's Coleman stock
20 occurred?
21 A. It would appear from these documents
22 that there was a hiatus, perhaps even a
23 vacation, but I don't recall.
24 Q. You don't recall what it was.
25 Okay.

018425

1 sir, that an offering memorandum on a
2 transaction like this is finalized promptly
3 after the pricing takes place?
4 A. I am not sure I have enough
5 experience to answer that question. I know of 6 another situation for a client where I was
7 involved. I don't get involved much in the 8 financing aspects. But, actually,
9 Mr. Fernicola and I handled another
10 transaction for a client, within the last year
11 or so, where we did not have the offering
12 memorandum finalized for days after the deal
13 was priced.
14 Q. In this case the offering memorandum
15 was finalized promptly after pricing; was it
16 not?
17 A. I don't know.
18 Q. Do you recall that two Skadden Arps
19 associates were at the printer of Global
20 Financial Press on the night of March 19th,
21 the day the press release was issued?
22 A. I don't recall who the printer was.
23 I don't recall --
24 MR. MALLOY: He is just asking if
25 you recall that fact.

3 BLAINE FOGG, having been
4 previously sworn, resumed the stand and
5 testified further as follows:
6 CONTINUED EXAMINATION
7 BY MR. MARKOWITZ:
8 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Fogg.
9 A. Good afternoon.
10 Q. Mr. Fogg, between the time the press
11 release was issued and these events that we
12 have spent a little time on on March 20th --
13 A. The March 19th --
14 Q. The March 19th press release. Thank
15 you.
16 -- and the review you did of news
17 stories related to the press release on the 18 20th, the pricing took place with respect to 19 the debentures; do you recall that?
20 A. My understanding, yes.
21 Q. And in connection with the pricing,
22 the offering memorandum for the debentures was
23 finalized.
24 A. It would have been, yes.
25 Q. It is standard practice, is it not,

Page 354

1 A. I don't recall.
2 Q. Do you have Exhibit 384 in front of
3 you, sir, the --
4 A. 384, yes.
5 Q. -- the printout of Skadden Arps' big
6 records for March 1998, relating to the
7 Sunbeam transaction?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Let me direct your attention to page
10 35 of 43. There is an entry towards the 11 bottom of the page for A.S. Deitz.
12 A. Adrian Deitz.
13 Q. On March 19th.
14 A. On March 19th. Yes.
15 Q. Mr. Deitz spent 22 hours that day
16 working on Sunbeam's rule 144A offering,
17 correct, according to this record?
18 A. That's what it says.
19 Q. Do you see the statement at the end
20 of his time record for that day, the last
21 three sentences, begins with the words "attend
22 printers"?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Attend?
25 A. "Attend printers to print final OM,

018426

Page 355

1 discuss press release, pricing due diligence
2 call."
3 Q. Who is, or who was Adrian Deitz in
4 March of 1998?
5 A. Adrian Deitz, at that time, was
6 associate here in the New York office. He is
7 now a partner in the London office.
8 Q. In March of 1998 he was an
9 associate?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. I will direct your attention to page
12 40 of Exhibit 384. Do you see the reference
13 to a T.E. Freed?
14 A. Todd Freed.
15 Q. On March 19th.
16 A. Yes. At the printer.
17 Q. Mr. Freed billed 15 hours that day
18 on Sunbeam's 144A offering?
19 A. Yes. Associate then and associate
20 now. I am not saying that it did not happen,
21 I just don't recall it.
22 Q. So the record is complete,
23 Mr. Freed's entry for that date states
24 "drafting and revising offering memorandum at 25 the printer for the Sunbeam corporation debt

Page 356

1 offering"; do you see that?
2 A. That's what it says.
3 Q. That doesn't refresh your
4 recollection that that took place that night?
5 A. No. But obviously it did.
6 MR. MALLOY: He just wants to know
7 your recollection.
8 Q. I will refer you to your time entry
9 for March 19th, sir.
10 A. Where's that?
11 Q. Let's see if I can find it for you.
12 It is on page 38.
13 A. Dinner, et cetera.
14 Q. Yes. Do you recall -- I will show
15 you your calendar, also. Perhaps it will 16 flesh it out.
17 A. I recall the dinner.
18 Q. You do.
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. There is a little more detail
21 relating to this?
22 A. Mr. K's.
23 Q. That is what your calendar says?
24 A. A Chinese restaurant near the 25 Waldorf.

Page 357

1 Q. This time that dinner was billed to
2 the 144A offering; correct, sir?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Who was present for the dinner?
5 A. Um, Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fannin -- Ruth
6 Porat, several other Morgan Stanley people.
7 Maybe Bill Strong. I don't remember. It was 8 sort of a dinner to celebrate the pricing of 9 the offering.
10 Q. Was there discussion that night
11 relating to the press release, the March 19th
12 press release, during the dinner?
13 A. I don't recall much discussion about 14 it. It was more a social occasion than 15 anything.
16 Q. Can you recall any business
17 discussion relating to the Sunbeam
18 transactions that took place that night, at 19 the dinner?
20 A. I remember they were very happy that 21 the offering was going to be a success. They 22 had oversubscribed. Other than that, I don't
23 recall much of anything.
24 Q. Who is the "they," sir, both Morgan
25 Stanley and Sunbeam?

Page 358

1 A. Yes.
2 Q. Other than celebrating the fact that
3 the debenture offering was moving forward, can
4 you recall anything else?
5 A. I don't really recall anything else.
6 Q. Do you recall, sir, that Mr. Freed
7 was a first-year associate at this time?
8 A. I don't remember.
9 Q. Did you receive any calls the night
10 of March 19th, Mr. Fogg, from the Skadden
11 lawyers present at the printer that night
12 working on finalizing the offering memorandum,
13 Mr. Freed or Mr. Deitz?
14 A. I don't recall any. I may have, but
15 I don't know.
16 Q. At any time, sir, did anyone report
17 to you, either that night or subsequently,
18 about the events that took place that night at 19 the printer?
20 A. Other than talking to Mr. Malloy and
21 preparing for the deposition, I don't recall
22 any discussion.
23 Q. Did anyone report to you, excluding
24 Mr. Malloy -- in connection with your 25 preparation for today, did anyone report to 018427

Page 359

1 you, sir, that in connection with the activity
2 that night relating to finalizing the offering
3 memorandum for the debentures, that the Arthur
4 Andersen representatives present that night
5 objected to including the press release
6 language in the offering memorandum?
7 A. I don't recall hearing that.
8 Q. Let me direct your attention back to 9 Exhibit 384, the time entry for Mr. Deitz that 10 day, page 35.
11 A. Yes. The time for the 19th.
12 Q. March 19th. It states: "Attend
13 printers to print final OM. Discuss press
14 release." Do you see that? Do you see the 15 entries?
16 A. Yes, I do.
17 Q. Do you know what the entry in 18 Mr. Deitz's time entry on March 19th relating 19 to discussion of the press release related to?
20 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
21 Foundation.
22 A. No. No. Other than what the three
23 words are, "discuss press release," I don't.
24 Q. The press release had been issued on 25 March 19th; correct?

Page 360

1 A. It had.
2 Q. Mr. Deitz wasn't involved in
3 preparing it; was he?
4 A. No.
5 Q. The entry here wouldn't related to
6 work that Mr. Deitz engaged in in the
7 preparation or issuance of the press release;
8 right?
9 A. Correct.
10 MR. BEMIS: Objection, form.
11 Foundation. Calls for knowledge of a
12 person other than the witness.
13 Q. Your answer, sir?
14 A. That is correct.
15 Q. Did anyone report to you, sir, that
16 there was any upset that night at the printer
17 between the Arthur Andersen personnel present
18 and the Morgan Stanley personnel present?
19 A. I do not recall getting any such
20 report.
21 Q. As you sit here today, you don't
22 recall any report relating to the events of 23 that night; correct?
24 A. I don't recall any report about what
25 happened at the printers, no.

Page 361

1 (Pause.)
2 Q. Mr. Fogg, let me show you what has
3 been previously marked as CPH Exhibit 112.
4 It is a copy of the March 25th, 1998
5 letter from Arthur Andersen to Morgan Stanley.
6 A. All right.
7 Q. Is it your testimony, sir, that you
8 don't recall seeing this prior to March 30th,
9 1998?
10 A. I don't recall, yes.
11 Q. Do you believe that you did not, or 12 is it --
13 A. I have no recollection.
14 Q. One way or other?
15 A. One way or the other.
16 Q. Let me direct your attention to the
17 second page of the document, sir.
18 A. All right.
19 Q. Do you see the financial information
20 reported at the top of the page?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. It reports that Sunbeam's net sales
23 for the period December 29th, 1997 through
24 March 1st, 1998, are $72,018,000; correct?
25 A. That's what it says.

Page 362

1 Q. And that its net sales for the
2 comparable period in the first quarter of 1997
3 were $143,499,000; correct?
4 A. That is what it says.
5 Q. So, this document would have put the 6 reader of it on notice that Sunbeam's sales in
7 the first two months of 1998 were about half
8 of what they had been in the first quarter of 9 the prior year; correct?
10 A. That's what it says.
11 Q. And this also states that Sunbeam
12 had suffered a loss of $41,190,000 through the 13 first two months of 1998; do you see that,
14 sir?
15 A. I do.
16 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
17 Q. And that compared to a profit of 9
18 point -- 9,765,000, in the first two months of 19 1997?
20 MR. BEMIS: Same objection. You are 21 just reading documents that the witness
22 hasn't seen.
23 A. That is what it says.
24 Q. Did anyone advise you, sir, prior to 25 the closing of Sunbeam's acquisition of my 018428

Page 363

1 client's interest in the Coleman Company, the
2 Coleman Company, that Sunbeam had a $50
3 million swing, negative swing in its net
4 earnings in the first two months of 1998?
5 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form and
6 foundation.
7 A. Prior to the closing --
8 MR. MALLOY: Can you read back the
9 question.
10 A. I don't recall.
11 MR. BEMIS: Also misleading, the 12 special charge of $30 million reflected
13 there.
14 (Record read.)
15 MR. BEMIS: Same objections.
16 A. I don't recall receiving any such
17 advice. I don't believe I did receive any
18 such advice because, as I previously
19 testified, Fannin called me a few days later
20 and hit me like a ton of bricks and I was 21 totally shocked that the first quarter had not
22 been as good as the March 19th press release.
23 Q. Let me show you, sir, a document
24 that has previously been marked as CPH Exhibit
25 Number 380. This is a press release dated

Page 364

1 March 25th, 1998, issued by Sunbeam
2 Corporation, that bears the headline "Sunbeam
3 Corporation announces successful private
4 placement of $750 million of convertible
5 debentures."
6 I would like you to take a moment to
7 look at that press release, sir, and tell me
8 whether you can recall seeing it previously.
9 A. I seem to recall having seen it at
10 some point.
11 Q. Do you know whether Skadden Arps was 12 consulted with respect to this press release
13 before it was issued, sir?
14 A. I don't recall.
15 Q. Do you recall whether you were?
16 A. I don't really recall. Probably,
17 but that is only speculation.
18 Q. Well, let me remind you, sir, that 19 we went through some documents right before we 20 broke at lunch that indicated that you were 21 away from your office between March 20th and 22 March 30th. Do you recall that?
23 A. Well --
24 MR. BEMIS: He was away?
25 A. We went through some documents that

Page 365

1 said that, I told Adam Emmerich that I was
2 going to be away. I guess I was away. I
3 don't recall.
4 Q. Do you have any recollection of
5 being consulted about the debenture offering
6 press release while you were away from your
7 office?
8 A. I don't recall.
9 Q. There is nothing in this press
10 release, is there, sir, relating to Sunbeam's
11 first quarter performance?
12 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
13 Foundation. Argumentative.
14 A. It doesn't appear to be.
15 Q. There is nothing in here about
16 Sunbeam suffering a loss of $41 million in the 17 first two months of the quarter; is there?
18 A. There doesn't appear to be.
19 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Form.
20 Foundation. Misleading.
21 Q. Sir, I want to go back to the
22 conversation that you described this morning
23 in your testimony, relating to a conversation
24 that you had with Howard Gittes and, I
25 believe, Peter Langerman; do you recall that

Page 366

1 testimony?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. That is one of the conversations
4 that you say that stood out in your mind;
5 correct, sir? That took place after the 6 closing of Sunbeam's acquisition in -- of my
7 client's interest in the Coleman Company?
8 A. It is one of them, yes.
9 Q. Why does it stand out in your mind,
10 sir?
11 A. I don't know.
12 Q. What do you recall Mr. Gittes --
13 Who initiated the conversation; do
14 you recall?
15 A. It was Gittes.
16 Q. How did he do that?
17 A. He said, -- we were at MacAndrews &
18 Forbes offices here in New York, and he asked
19 Peter Langerman and me to step out and go into 20 a smaller conference room.
21 Q. There was a larger group of people
22 congregated that day?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. What was the purpose for that larger
25 meeting?

019129

Page 367

1 A. I don't recall. It was Sunbeam.
2 Q. And Mr. Gittes asked that you and
3 Mr. Langerman meet with him privately; is that
4 correct?
5 A. That is correct.
6 Q. What do you recall happening next?
7 A. You can read back my prior
8 testimony.
9 MR. BEMIS: Objection. Asked and
10 answered.
11 Q. I want to make sure that the record
12 is complete with respect to your recollection.
13 A. Mr. Gittes, who had been named to 14 the Sunbeam board, said that it is an
15 intolerable situation for me to be on the 16 Sunbeam board, for other representatives of 17 MacAndrews & Forbes to be involved on behalf
18 of Sunbeam, while at the same time we have big
19 claims against Sunbeam, MacAndrews & Forbes
20 has big claims against Sunbeam, for duping us
21 into taking Sunbeam's stock in connection with
22 the Coleman acquisition.
23 We have to resolve this somehow.
24 The only way we can do it is either to rescind
25 the Coleman deal or reach some kind of a

Page 368

1 settlement. Whereupon, Langerman and/or I,
2 said, Jesus, we don't think it is possible, or
3 in the best interest of Sunbeam to rescind the 4 Coleman deal.
5 Um, so, that is off the table.
6 Settlement we can discuss.
7 Q. For a layperson --
8 A. Then we went on and I said, but I
9 can't represent either of you guys in this
10 transaction.
11 Q. For a layperson, sir, what does it
12 mean to rescind this transaction?
13 A. It means to undo it and put it, put 14 the situation back in the place it would have 15 been if the transaction had never occurred.
16 Q. Mr. Gittes was saying that it would
17 be acceptable to MacAndrews & Forbes if 18 Sunbeam returned Coleman Company's stock to 19 MacAndrews & Forbes; is that what Mr. Gittes
20 was proposing?
21 A. He was proposing a rescission. He
22 did not elaborate as to what that was, but
23 what I thought it was, was Sunbeam gives 24 Coleman back to MacAndrews & Forbes, and 25 MacAndrews & Forbes gives back to Sunbeam that

Page 369

1 which it received for Coleman. Stock and
2 cash.
3 Q. And that conversation, either you or
4 Mr. Langerman, or both of you, said, we are 5 not prepared to discuss rescission, that is
6 not on the table?
7 A. Right.
8 Q. What do you recall Mr. Gittes
9 saying?
10 A. Well, we've got to settle somehow.
11 Q. Do you recall anything else about
12 that private conversation that day?
13 A. No. Well, yes, as I testified
14 earlier, that I told them that Skadden
15 couldn't represent either Sunbeam or
16 MacAndrews in that situation.
17 Q. Right. You have already described
18 that to us. There is nothing else that you
19 can recall?
20 A. I don't recall anything.
21 Q. Do you recall when that took place,
22 how close in time to the closing of the 23 acquisition by Sunbeam of my client's Coleman
24 stock?
25 A. It was after Dunlap was terminated,

Page 370

1 which took place in the middle of June. It
2 was after a bunch of us, including Jerry
3 Levin, trooped down to Sunbeam on the next
4 day, and we spent sort of a week down there
5 trying to get our hands around where the hell
6 the company was, what was going on. And it
7 took place, it would have to be, I don't know,
8 after June of 1998, certainly.
9 Q. Just so the record is complete with
10 respect to this, Mr. Langerman, at that time,
11 was a member of the Sunbeam board of 12 directors; correct?
13 A. At the time of that conversation he 14 was a chairman of the Sunbeam board of
15 directors.
16 Q. When Mr. Dunlap was terminated,
17 Mr. Langerman replaced him as chairman of the 18 Sunbeam board; correct?
19 A. Correct.
20 Q. I will show you what we previously
21 marked as CPH Exhibit Number 211. CPH Exhibit
22 211, sir, is a fax, the first page is a fax
23 transmittal to James Lurie, Heather Stack and 24 Adrian Deitz, care of Global Financial Press,
25 and it is dated March 19th, 1998; do you see

018430

1 that, sir?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And attached to it is a draft
4 document; do you see that?
5 A. Yes, I guess it is a draft.
6 Q. And the document is entitled "zero
7 coupon convertible senior subordinated
8 debentures, due 2018, purchase agreement."
9 A. Yes. I see that.
10 Q. Do you have an understanding what
11 the purchase agreement is, sir?
12 A. Generally, sure.
13 Q. Can you describe that for us?
14 A. It is the agreement pursuant to
15 which Morgan Stanley agrees to buy the bonds
16 that Sunbeam is issuing, subject to certain
17 terms and conditions, representation and 18 warranties. It is like an underwriting
19 agreement.
20 Q. The way this transaction was
21 structured, Morgan Stanley was the initial
22 pusher of the Sunbeam debentures?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And Morgan Stanley then resold those
25 debentures to other parties; correct?

Page 372

1 A. Correct.
2 Q. I will direct your attention to --
3 did you see this document, not necessarily
4 this particular version of it, but did you see
5 the purchase agreement, either in final or
6 draft form?
7 A. I don't remember it specifically.
8 Q. I direct your attention to page 5.
9 A. Page 5, yes.
10 Q. You see paragraph L, on page 5?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. There is some language that is 13 underlined in paragraph L; do you see that?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Can you read that, sir? Out loud.
16 A. "It being understood that the
17 information set forth in the company's March 18 19th, 1998 press release shall not, in and of 19 itself, constitute any such material adverse
20 change or prospective material adverse
21 change."
22 Q. Do you have an understanding why, do
23 you have any knowledge why that language was 24 being added to the draft purchase agreement on
25 March 19th?

Page 373

1 A. I know why a lawyer representing
2 Sunbeam would have --
3 MR. MALLOY: He is asking you for
4 your recollection.
5 A. No. He did not ask that.
6 MR. MALLOY: I assume you are asking
7 for his understanding based on his
8 knowledge at the time, you are not asking
9 him to formulate an opinion here.
10 BY MR. MARKOWITZ:
11 Q. Do you recall, at the time, sir, any 12 discussion about adding language like this to 13 the purchase agreement?
14 A. No, I don't.
15 Q. Do you know what purpose it serves?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Can you explain that?
18 A. So that the facts set forth in the 19 March 19th, 1998 press release cannot serve as 20 a basis for Morgan Stanley deciding not to 21 close.
22 Q. Morgan Stanley and Sunbeam together
23 were agreeing that the information set forth
24 in the press release could not be used by 25 Morgan Stanley as a basis for declining to

Page 374

1 close the purchase of the debentures; correct?
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. Do you know, was there any
4 discussion during this time period, sir, or at
5 any time prior to the closing of Sunbeam's
6 purchase of my client's interest in Coleman
7 Company, of raising with my client the 8 question whether my client would view the
9 information known to Morgan Stanley as a
10 material adverse change?
11 MR. BEMIS: Objection to the form of
12 the question.
13 A. I don't have any recollection.
14 Q. In your presence, sir, did you ever
15 see a, hear a Morgan Stanley representative
16 suggest to Sunbeam that Sunbeam should
17 disclose to my client the information
18 contained in the sheet that was the subject of 19 Mr. Uzzi's report to Sunbeam -- excuse me, to 20 Morgan Stanley, about the status of Sunbeam's
21 first quarter sales? CPH Exhibit 16.
22 A. I don't recall.
23 Q. Don't have any recollection of 24 Morgan Stanley saying to Sunbeam, this 25 information needs to be disclosed to 018431

Page 375

1 MacAndrews & Forbes, the information in
2 Exhibit CPH 16?
3 A. I don't recall any such statement.
4 Q. Do you recall, sir, that one of the
5 activities that -- let me ask a background
6 question, sir. You previously testified that
7 there were two merger agreements relating to
8 the Coleman Company acquisition; correct?
9 A. Correct.
10 Q. One was an agreement with my client;
11 correct?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. And what was the second agreement?
14 A. I don't recall.
15 Q. Do you recall that it related to the 16 acquisition of the publicly traded Sunbeam
17 stock?
18 A. I don't recall. I would have to
19 look at the agreements again.
20 Q. Let me show you. While we are 21 getting the document, sir, do you recall that
22 Sunbeam was acquiring 100 percent of Coleman
23 Company in connection with the first quarter
24 transactions?
25 A. In two steps.

Page 376

1 Q. The first step was the acquisition
2 of my client's stock; correct?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And my client had approximately 82
5 percent of Coleman Company stock?
6 A. Correct.
7 Q. The rest of it was held --
8 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
9 Q. Excuse me. The rest of it was held
10 by whom; do you recall?
11 A. It looks like public shareholders, I
12 think.
13 Q. I will show you what we will mark as
14 CPH Exhibit 392.
15 A. I believe the two documents were the 16 first step document with your client and then
17 the second step merger.
18 MR. MARKOWITZ: CPH Exhibit 392,
19 sir, is a document that bears Bates
20 number Morgan Stanley 8011 through 8066.
21 It is entitled "Agreement and plan of
22 merger, among Sunbeam Corporation Camper
23 Acquisition Corp., and the Coleman
24 Company," dated as of February 27th,
25 1998.

Page 377

1 (392 Exhibit 392, agreement ,
2 marked for identification as of this
3 date.)
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Can you identify for us, sir, what
6 the CPH Exhibit 392 is?
7 A. The agreement and plan of merger,
8 among Sunbeam Corporation and the Camper
9 Acquisition Corp and the Coleman Company,
10 dated as of February 27th, 1998. --
11 Q. What was the purpose of this
12 agreement, sir; do you know?
13 A. I'd have to read it to tell you what 14 the purpose was.
15 (Pause.)
16 A. I believe this was for the second
17 step merger.
18 Q. The acquisition of the publicly
19 traded Coleman stock?
20 A. Yes, I believe that is right.
21 Q. As part of the consideration that 22 the public shareholders were to receive under
23 this agreement, sir, Sunbeam was to issue
24 registered shares of Sunbeam stock; is that
25 correct?

Page 378

1 A. That is my recollection. Is that
2 what it says?
3 Q. You can look, sir, but is that your
4 recollection of --
5 A. My recollection.
6 Q. And Skadden Arps was involved in the
7 activities relating to Sunbeam's registration
8 of the shares necessary to complete the second
9 stage of the Coleman Company acquisition;
10 correct?
11 A. Yes, sir.
12 Q. That registration was not, did not
13 become final for quite some period of time
14 after this agreement; correct?
15 A. Absolutely right.
16 Q. Why is that?
17 A. Because in the -- first of all --
18 In the interim period, before we
19 could get it filed and/or effective, a lot of 20 things happened, like Arthur Andersen pulling 21 its opinion for 1997 and the situation at
22 Sunbeam unraveled.
23 Q. Do you recall that it was some
24 period of time before Sunbeam was in a
25 position to restate its 1997 financial

018432

Page 379

1 statements?
2 A. Yes, I recall it.
3 Q. And that was one of the impediments
4 to registering the --
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. -- the stock to be issued to the
7 Coleman shareholders; correct?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. And do you recall that the Sunbeam
10 restatement was completed in late 1998?
11 A. In that general time frame, yes. I
12 don't recall when exactly.
13 Q. Do you recall that it was almost
14 another year, perhaps even a little bit more,
15 before the registration statement was
16 finalized and became effective?
17 A. I know that it was a long time.
18 Q. Do you know what the impediment was 19 to that, after Sunbeam filed its restated
20 financial statements?
21 MR. MALLOY: I caution the witness
22 that if any knowledge that you have on 23 the subject comes from conversations with
24 Sunbeam management, that you should break
25 and talk about it to determine whether

Page 380

1 there was a privilege issue.
2 THE WITNESS: I don't think so.
3 Q. One impediment was that your client
4 was taking the position that it had a claim
5 against Sunbeam and there was a settlement of 6 that claim, pursuant to which your client was
7 getting some additional consideration and it
8 was thought advisable, maybe even necessary,
9 to include, to give that same additional
10 consideration to the public shareholders.
11 So, we sort of had to wait for the 12 settlement to get finalized.
13 Um, there was a hang-up with the
14 SEC, I know.
15 Q. Are you familiar with that?
16 A. I was involved in some of that, yes.
17 Q. Let me show you a document and see
18 if it helps focus this for us. This is a
19 document that we will mark as CPH Exhibit 393.
20 It bears the Bates number Morgan Stanley
21 confidential 14766 to 14775. It is a
22 memorandum from Steve Daniels to Steve Isko
23 dated July 30th, 1999, re Sunbeam S4 comments.
24 A. I seem to recall that there was also
25 litigation brought by the, I think Coleman

Page 381

1 shareholders, that wanted to settle or
2 something. I don't remember specifically.
3 (CPH Exhibit 393, document Bates
4 Morgan Stanley confidential 14766 to
5 14775, marked for identification as of
6 this date.)
7 Q. You do remember that there were also
8 some issues at the SEC after all of that was 9 taken care of?
10 A. I remember one that --
11 Q. Sir, do you have Exhibit 393 in 12 front of you?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Have you seen either this document,
15 the July 30th, 1999 memorandum, or the 16 attached August 3rd, 1999 letter from Skadden
17 Arps to the SEC?
18 A. I am sorry?
19 Q. Have you seen either the July 30th,
20 1999 cover memo or the attached August 3rd,
21 1999 letter from Skadden Arps to the SEC?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. The August 3rd letter is signed by
24 you; correct?
25 A. Well, that is not my handwriting.

Page 382

1 Somebody signed it on my behalf.
2 Q. You did see the letter before it was
3 signed?
4 A. Yes, I believe I did.
5 Q. Does this correspondence relate to
6 the registration statement, sir?
7 A. Just let me -- there is also a
8 letter here having to do with the S1, which 9 was the registration statement relating to the 10 debentures, but I guess you are not asking me
11 to look at that one.
12 Q. I am focused on the public stock
13 deal.
14 A. The Coleman, back-end merger deal?
15 Q. Yes.
16 A. What was the question?
17 Q. My question is whether these
18 documents relate to the registration statement
19 relating to that stock.
20 MR. BEMIS: Which documents in this
21 package are you referring to?
22 MR. MARKOWITZ: The cover memo and
23 the August 3rd document that I
24 referred --
25 A. The first, the two-page cover memo

018433

Page 383

1 that I am cc'd from Mr. Daniels does relate to
2 that.
3 And then the two-page letter to the
4 SEC, dated August 3rd, 1999, from me, signed
5 by someone on my behalf, does relate to this.
6 Q. Your August 3rd letter to the SEC,
7 sir, seeks, asks that the SEC do whatever it
8 can to expedite receipt of the staff comments
9 relating to the S4; correct?
10 A. Correct.
11 Q. Do you remember there being 12 frustration with getting the SEC's comments on 13 the draft S4?
14 A. I just remember a need to get it
15 done and the SEC was holding us up, and some 16 frustration there.
17 Q. Was there a desire on Sunbeam's part
18 to move as quickly as possible to get this
19 registration statement on file and effective?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Why was that?
22 A. They wanted to complete the 23 acquisition of Coleman and own 100 percent of
24 it.
25 Q. And Skadden Arps was doing whatever

Page 384

1 it could to expedite that; correct?
2 A. We were trying to move it through
3 the SEC, yes.
4 Q. Do you recall that Sunbeam was
5 incurring penalties under the merger agreement
6 as a result of the delay in registering the 7 stock?
8 MR. BEMIS: Objection to form.
9 A. I don't think there was a merger
10 agreement. I don't recall any penalties on 11 the merger agreement.
12 Q. Do you recall that there were other
13 penalties that Sunbeam was incurring because 14 of the delay?
15 A. Not as a result of that registration
16 statement, but there were penalties under the 17 debentures as a recall for the failure to get
18 the debenture registration statement --
19 registration statement, effectively --
20 Q. You said you could recall one
21 significant SEC issue that delayed final
22 approval of the S4 registration statement, for 23 the stock to be issued to the Coleman public
24 shareholders.
25 A. Right.

Page 385

1 Q. What was that issue?
2 A. It was an issue that is under SEC
3 rule 13E3, which relates to going private
4 transactions, which says that the board of the 5 acquiring company, in this case Sunbeam, has 6 to take a position as to whether or not the
7 deal is fair to the shareholders of Coleman.
8 The Sunbeam board was reluctant to do that.
9 MR. MALLOY: I caution you not to
10 get into communications with counsel.
11 A. I told the SEC that the Sunbeam
12 board was reluctant to do that under the 13 circumstances. And they insisted, and we 14 somehow -- and I don't recall exactly how we 15 resolved the issue.
16 Q. You don't recall?
17 A. We did put in some recommendation.
18 Q. Ultimately, it was resolved and the 19 registration became effective in late 1999?
20 A. Right.
21 Q. And the second stage of the 22 transaction, then, closed in the first part of 23 the year 2000; correct?
24 A. Right. Well, I don't remember where
25 exactly, when it closed, but it closed. It

Page 386

1 closed.
2 Q. I take it, sir, that Skadden was
3 doing whatever it could to expedite, as best
4 it could, the activities that needed to take
5 place for that transaction to close; correct?
6 A. Yes.
7 MR. MARKOWITZ: We will take a short
8 break. I think I may be completed.
9 MR. MALLOY: Off the record.
10 (Recess.)
11 MR. MARKOWITZ: Thank you. I have
12 no further questions.
13 MR. BEMIS: I have no redirect.
14 Thank you. I have no further
15 questions.

Summary and Investment Conclusion

We have listed the Coleman Escrow 1st & 2nd Priority Discount Notes as Strong Buys as we believe the company is on the brink of an impressive turnaround. After an earnings stumble in 1996, a new management team, lead by Mr. Jerry Levin, is refocusing the company on profitability while attempting to revitalize the industry through increased advertising and new product innovations. The first tangible result from these initiatives appeared in the second quarter of 1997, when the company reported a 30 basis point improvement in their EBITDA margin. With the majority of Mr. Levin's restructuring plan now in place, we are expecting positive earnings comparisons for the last half of 1997 and a return to full earnings momentum in 1998.

Our investment case is not solely based on management's case for a turnaround. Our own research has shown there is an inherent value in Coleman's franchise which cannot be damaged by one year of poor performance. The components of this value are Coleman's dominant marketshare (see exhibit 13), its breadth of distribution, the overall health of the camping industry (see exhibits 10-12) and the equity existing in the Coleman brand name. It is a name that has been around since the 1900's and equates value, quality, reliability and camping to the consumer.

We believe Coleman's turnaround efforts will produce 1997 EBITDA of $123.7 million and 1998 EBITDA of $162.1 million. Applying a conservative multiple of 12.0x EBITDA which is below the median take-out multiple of 13.4x EBITDA for consumer products (see appendix 1), we derive a 1998 equity valuation of $25 per share for Coleman stock, providing equity coverage of 2.3x and 5.9x for the accreted value of the 1st and 2nd Priority issues respectively. Given the historical pricing correlation between the Coleman Escrow issues and Coleman stock, we have set a one year spread target of 350 basis points for the 1st Priority Issue and 450 basis points for the 2nd Priority Notes.

With our Strong Buy opinion, we are placing particular emphasis on the 2nd Priority issue, which we feel trades at a spread to the 1st Priority that is disproportionate to the associated risk. Although we recognize that if earnings continue to deteriorate the value of this issue will decline exponentially (see exhibit 5), we do not foresee any risk of a liquidity crisis at the company, and furthermore view the weighting of the tranches to be favorable to the 2nd Priority issue. Currently, the greatest upside potential exists in this tranche where we view a more appropriate spread between the two issues to be closer to 100 basis points.

In our valuation, we apply a 12.0x multiple of EBITDA, which is well below the industry median of 13.4x (see appendix 1). We believe our valuation is conservative given Coleman's strong market share and growth prospects. We have not done a downside valuation in the case of a liquidity crisis as we do not perceive this to be a risk at any time in the near future. Even at its current depressed EBITDA levels, Coleman's operating company has interest coverage of 1.8x and revolver availability of $174 million, providing ample liquidity to the company should they not deliver a turnaround in the expected time frame.

Getting Back to Basics

The key credit issue for Coleman is whether or not the company will be able to successfully complete a turnaround. The company experienced a period of growth through acquisition, without creating the infrastructure necessary to channel this growth into profits. The inefficiencies associated with this management error manifested themselves into a 46% decline in EBITDA in 1996. Mr. Levin took the position of Chairman and CEO in February of this year, and although he has been very active in making changes at Coleman, investors are yet to see these efforts translated into positive earnings momentum.

We are believers in Mr. Levin's ability to turn Coleman around. Moderate earnings appreciation will occur in the second half of 1997 as the company begins to receive the benefits of their cost savings plan. Our spread to treasury targets for the end of 1997 are 400 and 600 basis points for the 1st Priority and 2nd Priority issues respectively. The company will have a full return to earnings momentum in 1998 as the full impact from cost savings initiatives are felt coupled with earnings growth from their acquisitions and new products.

Our expectations for 1998 EBITDA are $160 million, representing a 16% increase over the company's 1995 historic high EBITDA of $137 million. The company's performance in the first half of 1998 will demonstrate to investors the untapped strength of the Coleman brand and the newly formed existence of an operating base that is exceptionally well-positioned for the growth of the Coleman franchise. This prospect of stable earnings going forward will produce spread to treasuries of 350 basis points for the 1st Priority Notes and 450 basis points for the 2nd Priority Notes, which is in line with comparable consumer product companies.

Our investment hypothesis is based on the overall health of the camping industry, the opportunities associated with this health which are yet to be exploited, the enduring strength of the Coleman brand name and Mr. Levin's ability to bring operational discipline to a neglected infrastructure.

Investment Strengths

- Coleman is the leading brand name in the camping industry with nearly four times the market share of their nearest competitor.
- The Coleman brand name is widely recognized by consumers and is associated with quality and value.
- The camping industry has shown impressive growth over the past 10 years.
- The industry remains highly fragmented with several opportunities for further consolidation.

- Prior to new management, Coleman was run with growth for growth's sake versus a strategy of profitable growth. This has left new management with several opportunities for cost-cutting.
- Coleman exceeds the industry in terms of distribution: selling in mass merchandisers, sporting goods stores, wholesale clubs, sports specialty shops, food and drug chains, catalogue showrooms, home center stores and military exchanges. This is in contrast to their competitors whom generally focus on two or three channels. (Canvas & Camping Equipment, The U.S., Market, September 1996; Euromonitor International).
- Coleman has an advantageous relationship with retailers due to their breadth and scope of product offerings, strong brand recognition and high advertising expenditure. An example of the benefits of this relationship is when Coleman entered the camping accessory market, several retailers removed the market leader, Coughlan's, from their shelves to make room for Coleman.

Investment Weakness

- The camping industry is vulnerable to performance downturns in the event of poor weather
- The industry is highly seasonal, with the majority of sales occurring in the spring and summer seasons.
- The U.S. government has been gradually cutting the budget of the National Park Service, making the maintenance of these parks more difficult and limiting their accessibility. Backlogs in maintenance and reconstruction of trails for the USDA Forest Service are estimated at over $300 million, while the National Park Service puts its maintenance deficit in the billions of dollars. (1997 State of The Industry Report, The Outdoor Recreation Coalition of America and The Sporting Goods Manufacturers Association).
- The Japanese market, which represents an estimated 10% of Coleman's sales has had poor economic conditions with no expectation of a recovery.
- During 1996 and the first half of 1997, Coleman has reported deteriorating earnings results. New management is currently undertaking a turnaround strategy but it is yet to produce positive earnings comparisons.
- The equity sponsor of Coleman is perceived by some in the high yield market as lacking credibility after a stumble in a Marvel Comics investment. Although this situation was unique and bears no relevance to Coleman, it leaves Coleman securities vulnerable to "sympathetic trade-offs".

Nature's First Green is Gold

According to Jim Lyons, assistant U.S. Secretary of Agriculture for Natural Resources and Environment, recreation has replaced mining, grazing and timber harvest as the most important use of U.S. Forest Service Land. The total contribution of Forest Service Land to the U.S. economy is $130.7 billion. Of this, recreation contributes $97.8 million, Fish & Wildlife $12.9 million, mineral production $10.1 million and timber, $3.5 million (National Forest Service).

A clear indication of this new popularity is attendance levels in the National Parks. With the most popular parks rivaling the attendance at Disneyworld (which offers year-round entertainment versus seasonal) it is little wonder these parks require reservations for guaranteed spaces during peak seasons.

Fueling this growth is a heightened awareness of America's natural beauties, a desire by families for vacations in child-friendly environments, and a "back to nature" movement attracting the baby boomer generation.

This new breed of campers, which extend beyond the usual backpackers, are not willing to sacrifice the comforts of home in order to experience nature. This has produced an opportunity for Coleman to capitalize on.

Campers are no longer satisfied with a backpack, tent and sleeping bag. They require the amenities of home which include comfortable, warm sleeping bags, larger tents, high-tech cooking equipment and everything must be lightweight and compact. This class of consumer is willing to frequently upgrade their existing equipment if the new product is worthwhile and pay more for added convenience and luxury.

New products and innovations also have the ability to draw new users into the category, by increasing consumer awareness and broadening the appeals of camping.

To date, however, manufacturers have failed to fully take advantage of the favorable trends affecting the camping industry. There has been an overall lack of innovation and advertising by manufacturers. Coleman has been cited to us as an exception to this rule by industry observers and in the past year has introduced two exceptional products to appeal to the family camper, the Quick Bed™ air mattress, which inflates in less than three minutes and the 3-person Fast-track™ tent, which is designed to set up in only 60 seconds. Coleman, however, has not yet fully developed their own potential in this category and we expect it to be a source of further growth in the coming years.

Coleman dominates the camping equipment industry. The company has nearly four times the market share of their nearest competitor and is the only camping equipment and hardware manufacturer that offers retailers a broad spectrum of products. Historically they have aimed primarily at the middle income consumer, but their acquisition of Camping Gaz has successfully positioned the company in all segments in both Europe and America.

Given its fragmented nature, the industry has undergone a great deal of consolidation over the past 10 years, with Coleman being a very active participant in this trend. The second and third largest players, American Recreation Equipment manufactures with a 10.1% share and American Camper, holding an 8.4% share have also been active on the acquisition front. American Camper's parent Brunswick, was rumored to have been in talks to purchase Coleman in 1995.

A Period of Growth

When MacAndrews & Forbes first acquired Coleman in 1989, he hired Mr. Levin to serve as Chairman. Mr. Levin immediately lowered debt and improved profitability by selling several non-core divisions. Mr. Levin served as chairman from, 1989 to 1991. After his departure, several leaders served in the intervening period with the final being Mr. Michael Hammes as Chairman and CEO. During this period Coleman underwent a strategy of growth through acquisition. Given the high fragmentation of the industry, and the strong Coleman brand name, the reasoning behind these acquisitions was not unsound. These acquisitions included:

- Eastpak - a leading designer, manufacturer and distributor of branded daypacks, sports bags and related products
- Sanborn Manufacturing Company - a manufacturer of a broad line of portable and stationary air compressors
- Seatt Corporation - a leading designer, manufacturer and distributor of smoke alarms, thermostats and carbon monoxide detectors. The reasoning behind this product extension was the sector would leverage Coleman's reputation for providing safe and reliable products.

- Active Technologies, Inc. - a manufacturer of technologically advanced lightweight generators and battery charging equipment
- Sierra Corporation of Fort Smith, Inc. - a manufacturer of portable outdoor and recreational folding furniture and accessories.
- Camping Gaz - a leader in the European camping equipment market.

Although each of these acquisitions were good strategic fits, where management made their mistake was in failing to create an infrastructure able to profitably manage the new divisions and maximize the synergies.

All of these mistakes became apparent in 1996, after the acquisition of Camping Gaz. Operating company debt ballooned to $740 million from $640 million in the year ago period. EBITDA dropped to $98.6 million from its 1995 high of $127.6 million and the company's stock dropped from a high of $26 in early 1996 to a low of $12.125 at the end of that year. It was at this time Mr. Levin was asked to return as Chairman and interim CEO.

Returning Home

In returning to Coleman, Mr. Levin is facing several of the challenges seen at Revlon in 1991. Fundamentally, the company lacks a management infrastructure conducive to organic growth and profitability. Strategically, Coleman has neglected the wants of consumers for a prolonged period of time. While it is the leader in a growing market, the company's products are often regarded as commodities. Many consumers still use the same Coleman products they purchased decades ago. Coleman has remained the category leader and continues to offer products that are top-of-the-market in quality, price-points, durability, convenience and safety. But this message has gotten lost - especially with retailers.

The first phase of Mr. Levin's turnaround plan has been to initiate operational improvements to drive profitability.

- In March, Coleman announced plans to leave the company's Golden, Colorado headquarters and sell the corporate jet - legacies of the previous management.

Mr. Levin made the decision to move back to Wichita, Kansas, where Coleman was founded in 1902. Wichita is currently home to Coleman's largest workforce and core operations. Wichita, Sedgewick County and Kansas are providing a combined $500,000 in economic development funding for the relocation. In addition to closing the Golden, Colorado headquarters, the company closed its regional headquarters in Geneva Switzerland. The international operations will now be run out of Coleman's New York offices. Eastpak's headquarters will remain in Boston.

We believe this move proved to benefit the company twofold. The first is the obvious cost savings associated with the closure of the pricey Colorado headquarters. More importantly, however, we view the company's decision to return to Wichita, Kansas as an important symbolic action to employees and retailers that Coleman is returning to its roots and remains a focused company committed to its legacy.

- The company closed and consolidated one international and three domestic factories and cut its workforce of 7,000 by approximately 10%. These factories included the Hastings Nebraska, New Ulm, Minnesota and Manchester, UK factories. This legacy of a bloated infrastructure appears to have been the result of previous management neglecting to rationalize product lines and factories as new acquisitions were made.
- The company is in the process of eliminating unprofitable products, representing 1/3 of their SKUs. This has removed approximately $100 million in low or no-profit revenue. Coleman has exceptional manufacturing capabilities which has always been a source of pride for the company. When a retailer would ask for a product to be manufactured in a new color, Coleman was able and willing to comply. This accommodation was done without undergoing a cost-benefit analysis, causing a proliferation in SKUs. At the end of 1996, Coleman had over 6,000 SKUs, with 1500 of those SKUs being added in one year.
- Liquidity will be improved by $100 million through reductions in working capital. During the first quarter, inventory was flat despite this quarter being the building period before the peak summer season. By the second quarter of 1997, Coleman had lowered year-over-year inventory and accounts receivables by $100 million, well ahead of our expectations for timing.
- Coleman plans to sell their pressure-washer business, which historically has been a drag on earnings. Through management's recent operational improvements, this division has since turned around, creating more value, but also creating the possibility that it will no longer be sold. If sold, the net proceeds are estimated to equal the cash restructuring charges, creating a neutral cash flow affect for the year.

MORGAN STANLEY DEAN WITTER

- Mr. Levin is rebuilding the team around him that will redirect Coleman to profitable levels in both corporate and divisions. In general, he is hiring individuals he or Mr. Perelman have worked with before. Most recently, he hired Joseph Page as Chief Financial Officer. Since 1993, Mr. Page has served as EVP and CFO of Andrews Group, a wholly owned subsidiary of MacAndrews & Forbes. Mr. Page has also served as CFO of New World Communications Group, a company that was previously controlled by MacAndrew & Forbes Holdings.

David Ramon was appointed President of the Outdoor Recreation Group, which represents the core brands and business for Coleman. Mr. Ramon was most recently President and Chief Operating Officer of New World Television Inc.. Prior to joining New World Communications, Mr. Ramon was EVP and CFO of Gillett Holdings, Inc., where he successfully managed and directed the restructuring of Gillett Holdings in three distinct and profitable businesses (Vail Associates, Packerland Packing Co. and New World Television Inc.).

To date, the company has put into place over $50 million of annualized cost savings against the 1997 plan from reductions in personnel, production facilities and administrative overhead combined with improved productivity and working capital management.

The second phase of Levin's strategy is to change the way in which Coleman does business. This includes establishing a corporate culture that encourages communication, increasing Coleman's profile with the consumer, bringing new excitement to the industry through product innovations, creating global unity through the Coleman brand names, seeking international growth and managing the company as one operation thereby maximizing synergies between divisions.

Employee Development. With the removal of the corporate headquarters to Colorado, Coleman lost touch with one of its most important resources - its employees. Mr. Levin has long recognized the importance of a corporate culture for the long-term success of a company. At Revlon he created an environment which fostered employee development, communication and teamwork while rewarding individual achievements.

We are expecting similar actions to be taken at Coleman. Already, Mr. Levin has accelerated efforts in training and development and has created a new incentive system for management that rewards performance against defined profit, cash flow and globalization goals.

Increased advertising. Coleman's greatest advantage is their brand name. With three times the market share of their nearest competitor, Coleman has the highest consumer brand awareness level of any camping manufacturer. Mr. Levin intends to exploit this advantage with increased advertising and exposure. With the exception of Jansport, the rest of the industry players lack the scope or scale to advertise on a large-scale basis and historically have not attempted to do so.

Traditional advertising for camping equipment has been magazines such as Camping Magazine, Camping Today, Field and Stream, Outdoor Life, Outdoor Retailer and Backpacker (Canvas & Camping Equipment, The U.S. Market, September 1996; Euromonitor International). We are expecting Mr. Levin, however, to broaden Coleman's reach into television advertising such as ESPN, ESPN2 and MTV in an effort to tap one of the lowest penetration age groups for camping, the 18-24 year old bracket. Mr. Levin is hoping to increase Coleman's sales through both existing users and new ones.

Product innovation. Camping is not a mature market, it is a growth area and there are new users entering every day. Levin hopes to attract these new users to the Coleman name while enticing old users to update existing products through the excitement of innovations, with these new products being supported by the afore mentioned increased advertising. Mr. Levin has stated his intention to increase Coleman's commitment to Research and Development in order to meet these goals.

The camping market is hungry for new products as the industry has neglected the changing demographics occurring in today's camping population (see appendix 4). Seeking an economical and child-friendly vacation in the splendor of the outdoors, today's campers are older and more likely to have a family. These segments of the population are more inclined to require comfort, convenience and consistency in their camping experience. They are willing to pay more for the added-luxury and to update existing products. This represents a currently untapped sales opportunity for Coleman to develop.

This does not mean Coleman plans to ignore the needs of campers and backpackers who do like to "rough it". These campers also present sales opportunities with product innovations as they are always seeking new products which are lighter, more reliable and mobile. This market also has the added benefit of dedicated press coverage through consumer interest magazines such as Camping Today, which provides a higher consumer profile for Coleman.

Examples of product innovations with large growth potential that Mr. Levin has identified already in Coleman's repertoire include:

1. The Quick Bed™ air mattress which inflates in less than three minutes.
2. A 22 pound, gas-powered electrical generator that is about one-third the weight of competitive products, the Coleman® Powermate® 1000 Generator. This portable generator weighs 40 pounds less than its nearest competitor.
3. The Peak 1® X-Series™ collapsible backpacking stoves. These stoves won the 1997 Editors's Choice Award from Backpacker Magazine.
4. The Liquid Fuel (propane/butane mix) patent pending withdrawal mechanism and patent pending interconnection devise used in the Peak 1® X-Series™ collapsible backpacking stoves. This innovation will also be used in future Coleman Family products.
5. The 3-person Fastrack™ tent, with its attached pre-assembled frame, is designed to set up in only 60 seconds.

Brand Globalization. Levin will be applying his packaged goods to Coleman's strong repertoire of brands, focusing on the core brands of Coleman, Camping Gaz, Powermate and Eastpack. His strategy to maintain and grow Coleman's leadership position in the worldwide outdoor recreation business will be expanding and globalizing the brands with a distinct and uniform image throughout the world.

The obvious operational benefits to this strategy are the significant cost savings to be realized. By globalizing the products, packaging and advertising of these brand names Coleman will be able to further consolidate purchasing, production and marketing. Mr. Levin instituted these measures at Revlon, producing significant operating leverage the company is still benefiting from today.

Overall, we view the globalization of the brands as an important measure in the building of an infrastructure that is conducive to profitable growth. This new structure will enable management to have a greater level of focus with their time, a fundamental that appeared to be lacking previously.

International

International operations currently represent approximately 25% of sales, with the majority of these sales derived from Europe and Japan.

The company plans on growing their presence in emerging markets - believing that to be an investment in the future growth of the company. Currently in Asia, the company has a presence in Hong Kong, South Korea, Indonesia and the Philippines. The main goal in these markets is to increase distribution and establish Coleman as the pre-eminent camping brand. It is not expected to be a major contributor to earnings for the next few years.

One of Coleman's larger international markets, Japan, has suffered recently in the past years. A poor economy, which has shown no indicators for improving, has hampered sales. Management is working to alleviate some of the problems in this difficult operating environment, but a recovery is not expected soon.

The greatest problem the company has had to face is inventories - retailers had never adjusted the levels to reflect the lower sales levels being experienced. Mr. Levin and his team this year have gone in and lowered inventories with wholesalers. This has been a painful process which harmed second quarter earnings for the company, but management believes the majority of reductions have been taken, with little impact expected going forward.

Japan is a large camping market. About 14.6 million people (4 million households) engage in camping, with this number growing by 4-5% per year. There are 3,000 campgrounds in Japan today, with an average occupancy rate of 14%. This compares to the U.S. occupancy rate of 45%. (Chamber World Network, International U.S. & Foreign Commercial Service).

The lower usage rate can be attributed to the lack of amenities provided at these campgrounds, most of which don't offer hot showers, sufficient sanitation facilities or organized out-door leisure programs for campers. Only 900 campgrounds actually allow campers to drive to their sites, the remaining ones require campers to park in a central parking area from which the tent must be carried to the campsite. This lack of user-friendliness makes it difficult for campers to spend more than 2-3 days "roughing it" and is a very large obstacle for families camping. In recognition of the dearth of organization in the Japanese camping industry, the U.S. Recreational Vehicle Industry Association, the U.S. Recreational Park Trailer Industry Association and the Commercial Service of the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo filed a joint appeal to the Government of Japan to form a new regulatory framework for the industry (Chamber World Network, International US&FCS).

The first step in formulating this new regulatory framework occurred in March of this year, when the Ministry of Construction issued a notice relaxing the BSL regulations for trailers used in campgrounds for destination camping purposes. Although the wording was highly ambiguous, the notice should suffice to give developers the ability to undertake 10-20 campground upgrades every year. (Chamber World Network, International US&FCS).

We believe this upgrading of camping facilities could be a potential boon to Coleman in the future. With the lack of improvement in the Japanese economy we believe more families would turn to camping as a frugal vacation alternative - were it more user-friendly and convenient.

In Europe, the new management team has made the important step of integrating the acquisition Camping Gaz into Coleman's distribution system. The increased presence this will give Camping Gaz coupled with the synergies will create earnings appreciation in 1998.

Camping Gaz is the leading camping manufacturer in Europe but has a similar problem to Coleman, the brand has been taken for granted. Consequently, Camping Gaz required a face-lift. The brand has been the same to consumers since its introduction and needed a new look to serve as a reminder of the higher technology products the company offers. In September, management introduced a new image for the brand to retailers during the Spoga trade show in Cologne, Germany. This is the first step in what management hopes is a rejuvenation of the brand in Europe.

The Coleman Company Financial Forecast

1997 is an unusual year in sales for Coleman, with the elimination of the $100 million in SKUs, the reduction of inventory in Japan and the exiting of the pressure washer business (approximately 8% of sales). The overall affect should be roughly flat sales, year over year. We are forecasting 1998 sales growth of 7.0%, which we view as conservative given Coleman's many marketing initiatives. Currently, the company is not focused on acquisitions and does not expect to make any unless an opportunistic acquisition were to present itself.

Gross margin will continue to appreciate as the company benefits from their SKU reduction program. In 1998, we expect further appreciation from the globalization of Coleman's brands. This will produce significant savings in procurement, packaging and manufacturing.

Selling General & Administrative Expenses as a % of sales are also expected to continue to improve as Coleman realizes the cost savings associated with their reduction in workforce and a new focus on cost savings by managers. These savings will be partially offset by increased advertising and research expenditures, which should in turn increase sales and operating leverage for the company.

We are being very conservative with regards to Coleman's capital structure. The company will be generating significant cash flow and we expect continued deleveraging to occur in 1998.

17 EXAMINATION BY

18 MR. BRODY:

19 Q. Good morning, Ms. Haycox-Eltrich.
20 As introduced, my name is Mike Brody. I
21 represent Coleman (Parent) Holdings. I'll be
22 asking you questions today. The address you
23 just gave, is that a home address or work
24 address?

25 A. Home address.

18457

1 Q. Do you go by names other than the
 2 one you used to introduce yourself?
 3 A. Frankly, it's mainly Karen Eltrich.
 4 Q. Have you ever been deposed before?
 5 A. No, I have not.
 6 Q. Let me tell you a little bit about
 7 the process. You've just taken an oath. It's
 8 the same oath you would take for this case
 9 were you testifying live in front of a judge
 10 or a jury. I will ask you questions, and it
 11 will be your job to answer them to the best of 12 your ability. If you don't understand any of 13 my questions, let me know, and I'll try to 14 rephrase them. If you need to take a break,
 15 just say so. And even though it's being 16 videotaped, when I ask you questions, it will 17 be important to give an oral answer rather
 18 than a non-verbal method of communication so
 19 the court reporter can take it down. Are all
 20 those rules acceptable to you?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. You indicated you've never been
 23 deposed. Have you ever testified under oath
 24 in any circumstance?
 25 A. No, I have not.

1 A. No, I do not.
 2 Q. Do you remember what you provided?
 3 Did you provide documents?
 4 A. Absolutely. It wasn't much. I mean
 5 I gave my Coleman model. I gave whatever
 6 notes I had had from my Sunbeam very limited
 7 due diligence, but nothing else. It was
 8 probably like, you know (indicating) -- sorry,
 9 you can't for the camera, for you -- about
 10 half an inch thick of documents. There was 11 not a lot that I had been involved in.
 12 Q. When you refer to your Coleman
 13 model, what do you mean?
 14 A. I had covered Coleman in the 15 secondary market as a high yield research
 16 analyst, so I had, obviously, forecasts, etc.,
 17 and it was something even after the deal that
 18 it's not like I delete the model. So it
 19 wasn't an updated model, but it was the 20 historical perspective.
 21 Q. Was it maintained on a computer?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. Do you know what program the model
 24 was generated in?
 25 A. I'm assuming Excel.

1 Q. Do you remember ever providing any
 2 affidavits or other sworn written testimony?
 3 A. No, I do not.
 4 Q. As you undoubtedly know from talking
 5 to your counsel, this case involves certain
 6 work you did while at Morgan Stanley. What
 7 were the approximate dates of your employment
 8 at Morgan Stanley?
 9 A. I was at Morgan Stanley from
 10 October 1995 to May 2001.
 11 Q. During that time period were you
 12 ever asked to collect documents relating to 13 the work that you did at Morgan Stanley
 14 insofar as it related to Sunbeam or Coleman or 15 the litigation that's before us?
 16 A. Once I was, yes.
 17 Q. When was that?
 18 A. Couldn't tell you. I don't recall.
 19 Q. Can you approximate with reference
 20 to your days of employment?
 21 A. Obviously it was after the event,
 22 but no, I really couldn't tell you when it
 23 happened.
 24 Q. Do you remember who asked you for
 25 documents?

1 Q. That's what you used at the time?
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. We'll be talking further about the
 4 research you did. I'll ask you more questions
 5 about the model later on.
 6 A. Okay.
 7 Q. But aside from providing the model,
 8 you said you provided some documents relating
 9 to Sunbeam due diligence?
 10 A. It would have been notes I may have
 11 taken or just -- I mean as a research analyst,
 12 you kind of keep whatever you have just in 13 case it ever takes another life or form. And 14 I couldn't tell you what I had. But it's just 15 basically any documents that had been given to 16 me regarding Sunbeam would have gone to them.
 17 And it, frankly, probably wasn't a lot because
 18 I wasn't that involved in the due diligence
 19 because I was high yield and there was 20 actually no high yield bonds issued.
 21 Q. Okay. Do you remember what attorney
 22 or other person asked you for these documents?
 23 A. No.
 24 Q. Do you remember who you gave them
 25 to?

1 A. No. It was someone internal from
 2 Morgan Stanley. That's all I know.
 3 Q. Internal legal?
 4 A. Don't know.
 5 Q. Are you represented by counsel
 6 today?
 7 A. Yes, I am.
 8 Q. By Ms. Brown.
 9 A. Yes, I am.
 10 Q. And you know that her firm is 11 Kirkland & Ellis?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. When did you retain them to 14 represent you?
 15 A. It was about two months ago, I would
 16 say, six to eight weeks ago.
 17 Q. Is that when you first learned that 18 there might be a deposition?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. Are you paying for their services?
 21 A. No, I am not.
 22 Q. Do you understand Morgan Stanley to
 23 be paying for their services?
 24 A. Yes, I do.
 25 Q. Did they initially contact you or

1 law department?
 2 A. It was definitely in the legal
 3 department, yes.
 4 Q. Since you left Morgan Stanley and
 5 prior to today, have you had any contact with
 6 people from Morgan Stanley about this
 7 deposition?
 8 A. Absolutely not.
 9 Q. So you haven't spoken with any
 10 in-house attorneys?
 11 A. No, I have not.
 12 Q. Do you have any continuing
 13 involvement in any deals with Morgan Stanley?
 14 A. No.
 15 Q. You don't have continuing
 16 compensation or --
 17 A. I own stock in the company, but
 18 that's it.
 19 Q. Do you maintain professional
 20 contacts with anyone from Morgan Stanley?
 21 A. No professional, but a lot of
 22 personal.
 23 Q. Just people you worked with?
 24 A. People I worked with who are
 25 friends, but there is no professional contact

1 did --
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. -- you initially contact them?
 4 A. Well, given that you asked to depose
 5 me, they kind of contacted me.
 6 Q. But it wasn't the sort of thing
 7 where someone from Morgan Stanley called and
 8 told you. The first call came from Kirkland &
 9 Ellis?
 10 A. Yes, it did. Actually, I'm sorry,
 11 the first call came from Goldman Sachs,
 12 because they contacted Goldman Sachs, and then
 13 it was our Goldman Sachs legal representative
 14 who contacted me. But it was, yes, Kirkland.
 15 Q. And is Goldman Sachs your current
 16 employer?
 17 A. Yes, they are.
 18 Q. So you learned of the possibility of 19 a deposition in this case from someone at 20 Goldman Sachs?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. Do you remember the name of the
 23 person who talked to you?
 24 A. No, I don't.
 25 Q. Do you know if it's someone in the

1 whatsoever.
 2 Q. Have you discussed the Sunbeam or
 3 Coleman matters with anyone at Morgan Stanley
 4 since you left?
 5 A. No, I have not.
 6 Q. So you haven't discussed this
 7 litigation with anyone?
 8 A. No, I have not.
 9 Q. What did you do to prepare for
 10 today's deposition?
 11 A. Yesterday we met and she showed me
 12 some of the documents that had my name on it,
 13 but that would probably be about it.
 14 Q. Do you remember what documents you
 15 saw?
 16 MS. BROWN: Objection. I instruct
 17 the witness not to answer.
 18 Q. Did any of those documents refresh
 19 your recollection about events in this case?
 20 A. Vaguely, but not really.
 21 Q. Well, which ones even had a vague
 22 effect on refreshing your recollection?
 23 A. Honestly, just reading the press
 24 release that they were missing sales. You
 25 have to understand I was eight and a half

018159

1 months pregnant when all of this happened, so
2 it wasn't the core focus that I had. And so
3 it was more of just kind of figuring out the 4 time line. I mean obviously I remember the
5 events, but I don't necessarily remember the 6 time line in which they happened. And I would
7 say that was probably all it gave me.

8 Q. Okay. You said you were eight and a
9 half months pregnant. When was your child
10 born?

11 A. March 25th, 1998. A girl. Thank
12 you.

13 Q. Congratulations. That allows us to 14 place this a little bit in time. I think the 15 question I asked you that got us into that was 16 whether any of the documents refreshed your 17 recollection. Which were the documents, if 18 any, that had your name on it that may have 19 refreshed your recollection?

20 A. No.

21 MS. BROWN: Objection. I'm going to
22 instruct the witness not to answer.
23 She's already testified to what refreshed
24 her recollection, and it wasn't anything
25 that relates to the question that you

1 moment. We'll come back to that. I believe
2 you testified that in preparation for the
3 deposition you met with Ms. Brown?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Approximately how long did you meet
6 with her?

7 A. Two and a half hours.

8 Q. And that was yesterday?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Aside from reviewing documents, did
11 you speak with anyone else --

12 A. No.

13 Q. -- besides Ms. Brown? Did you
14 review any testimony that others had given?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did you look at any videotapes of
17 testimony?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Have you ever spoken with anyone
20 connected with the New York Stock Exchange or 21 the SEC about the events at Sunbeam or
22 Coleman?

23 A. No, I have not.

24 Q. And I believe I may have asked you
25 this, but have you discussed the substance of

1 just asked.

2 MR. BRODY: Well, I don't think
3 that's exactly right.

4 Q. But which things that you saw
5 yesterday had any effect in refreshing your
6 recollection?

7 A. Exactly as I said. It was more of a
8 time line incident. It was more of a time
9 line issue versus an events issue, and it was 10 the document which basically said that they
11 were going to miss their sales, the sales
12 forecast that the research analyst had.

13 Q. Ms. Eltrich, I'm handing you what
14 has been previously marked as Exhibit 14.
15 When you referred to a document that helped
16 you place this in time, I think you said it
17 was an indication that they were going to miss
18 their sales, were you referring to the 19 document that's been marked as CPH Exhibit 14?

20 A. Yes, I was.

21 Q. Did you see that back in March of 22 1998?

23 A. I saw it when it was released to the 24 Street, yes, I did.

25 Q. Okay. You can put that aside for a

1 this testimony, the testimony you're giving
2 today, with anyone other than Ms. Brown?

3 A. No, I have not.

4 Q. Before we focus on the events at
5 Sunbeam, I would like to address your
6 background a little. Could you describe for 7 us your education after high school.

8 A. I went to NYU Stern School of
9 Business and graduated in 1994 with a bachelor
10 of science in economics and finance.

11 Q. Any other postgraduate education?

12 A. No.

13 Q. While at the Stern School, did you
14 have any concentration within economics and 15 finance? Was there an area that you studied
16 more than any other?

17 A. No.

18 Q. And that was an undergraduate degree
19 from the Stern School?

20 A. Yes, it was.

21 Q. After graduating from the Stern
22 School, did you become employed?

23 A. I became employed in August of '94
24 with Advest as a research assistant.

25 Q. How long were you at Advest?

094810

1 A. A little less than a year. It was
 2 -- actually, it was a little more than a year.
 3 Q. What was your next job?
 4 A. Then I was at Morgan Stanley.
 5 Q. Now, focusing on your position at
 6 Advest, you said you were a research analyst?
 7 A. Research assistant.
 8 Q. I'm sorry. Research assistant.
 9 What were the responsibilities of a research
 10 assistant at Advest?
 11 A. It was a hybrid between being a
 12 secretary and being a research analyst. There
 13 was one analyst who had me make haircut
 14 appointments for him, and there was another
 15 analyst who had me build his models for him.
 16 So it was a combination between the two.
 17 Q. What types of businesses did you
 18 analyze?
 19 A. It was financial institutions. It
 20 was large cap banks primarily with a few small
 21 caps.
 22 Q. Did anyone report to you?
 23 A. No.
 24 Q. You left Advest in late 1995?
 25 A. It was October, October of 1995,

1 were you an analyst or were you an associate?
 2 A. I was an associate.
 3 Q. And do you know when you became a
 4 vice president?
 5 A. I believe it was either '99 or 2000,
 6 but I couldn't tell you exactly which date
 7 unless I honestly saw my records.
 8 Q. I understand. And you remained a
 9 vice president until you left in May of 2001?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. Returning to the position you held
 12 as an analyst at Morgan Stanley in the high
 13 yield research group, was there a particular
 14 area that you covered?
 15 A. I covered several sectors. I was 16 working with Jake Foley, who was my senior
 17 analyst, and under him we covered
 18 supermarkets, food and beverage, and
 19 restaurants, and occasionally special retail.
 20 On my own at that point I was covering
 21 consumer products as the lead analyst.
 22 Q. You called that consumer products?
 23 A. Um-hmm.
 24 Q. And Coleman fit within consumer
 25 products?

1 which is when I joined Morgan Stanley.
 2 Q. What was your first position at
 3 Morgan Stanley?
 4 A. I was an analyst. I believe I came
 5 on as a second-year analyst in the high yield
 6 research group.
 7 Q. Describe for us what the high yield
 8 research group analyzed, what types of 9 issuances?
 10 A. Junk bonds, bonds related -- bonds
 11 that were below investment grade status.
 12 Q. How long were you in the high yield
 13 research group?
 14 A. Up until May of 2001.
 15 Q. That's when you left?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. What positions did you hold aside
 18 from analyst?
 19 A. Analyst, associate, vice president.
 20 Q. When did you become an associate?
 21 A. When did I become an associate.
 22 Q. Well, let me ask it a little
 23 differently if you don't remember the date.
 24 The events we're looking at in this case are 25 in late '97 into early 1998. At that time

1 A. Yes, it did.
 2 Q. Did Sunbeam fit within consumer
 3 products?
 4 A. It did, but it was not under my
 5 universe of coverage.
 6 Q. At the time you were covering
 7 Coleman did anyone report to you?
 8 A. No.
 9 Q. And you reported to Mr. Foley?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. Do you remember what his title was
 12 at the time?
 13 A. He was a principal.
 14 Q. Principal, is that the next position
 15 up from vice president?
 16 A. Yes, it is.
 17 Q. At the time you were an associate
 18 did you continue coverage of the same areas?
 19 A. Yes, I did.
 20 Q. It was just a promotion, but you
 21 covered the same fields?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. How about when you were vice
 24 president?
 25 A. Same. Well, when I was vice

018461

1 president, Jake had left the firm, so I
 2 assumed coverage of all the sectors. Or I
 3 should say Jake had left the group. Sorry.
 4 Q. But after Mr. Foley left the group,
 5 you were still covering supermarkets, food and
 6 beverage?
 7 A. Restaurants, retail.
 8 Q. Restaurants, specialty retail?
 9 A. Sorry. Not retail. Specialty
 10 retail. Thank you.
 11 Q. What does specialty retail mean?
 12 A. It's small, very small little
 13 specialized companies. Really it was like one
 14 name, mother's work.
 15 Q. I'm sorry?
 16 A. Mother's work, which is maternity
 17 wear, versus covering the true retail
 18 spectrum.
 19 Q. And you continued in that position
 20 until you left in May 2001?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. Why did you leave Morgan Stanley?
 23 A. Do I really have to put this on the 24 record? I left Morgan Stanley because I was 25 very happy under John Mack's leadership. I

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. And that was in the high yield
 3 research group?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. Was the high yield research group
 6 part of another group?
 7 A. High yield.
 8 Q. Who was in charge of the high yield
 9 group?
 10 A. Dwight Sipprelle and Mike Rankowitz.
 11 Q. The high yield research group that 12 you were associated with, what was its 13 business? What did it do?
 14 A. It was several functions. Our 15 primary goal was to cover bonds in the 16 secondary market.
 17 Q. Any other functions?
 18 A. We also did do proprietary trading,
 19 so obviously we assisted the trading desk in 20 their investment decisions.
 21 Q. Trading in high yield bonds?
 22 A. In high yield bonds.
 23 Q. Anything else?
 24 A. And we would as a very third front,
 25 we would assist the investment banking group

1 was less happy under Phil Purcell's
 2 leadership. And Goldman Sachs presented a
 3 great opportunity to me.
 4 Q. And you left Morgan Stanley to go to
 5 Goldman Sachs?
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. What position were you hired into at
 8 Goldman Sachs?
 9 A. Exactly the same position, vice
 10 president covering the same sectors adding on 11 full retail. And, actually, now I did have 12 consumer products.
 13 Q. And when you say you added full
 14 retail, what types of companies did that 15 include?
 16 A. Petco, PCA, Pay Less Shoe Source.
 17 Just retail.
 18 Q. What position do you now have at
 19 Goldman Sachs?
 20 A. I am still vice president.
 21 Q. Now, I'm going to focus on the 1997
 22 to 1998 time frame and your employment at
 23 Morgan Stanley during that time frame. You
 24 were a research analyst, and then I guess in 25 '97, '98, you were an associate?

1 in the underwriting of bonds. But, again, it
 2 wasn't really -- I shouldn't say assisting.
 3 It was working with the investment banking
 4 group to protect our group from what I would
 5 call bad deals, because we live with the bonds
 6 in the secondary, so we were involved in
 7 making the decision of whether or not
 8 something should be underwritten.
 9 Q. And when you say you live with the 10 bonds, what do you mean by that?
 11 A. I mean bonds on average have a
 12 ten-year life, and I have to cover it in a
 13 secondary, and if I recommend it to my
 14 investor, I want to have that recommendation
 15 and know all the risks.
 16 Q. And that was the business of the 17 high yield research group. The high yield
 18 research group reported to Mr. Sipprelle and 19 Mr. Rankowitz as high yield group?
 20 A. Correct.
 21 Q. And the high yield group, did they
 22 do the underwriting of high yield issuances?
 23 A. No, we do not.
 24 Q. What did the high yield group do?
 25 A. We trade the bonds in the secondary.

018462

1 We obviously assist in the primary in terms of
 2 our sales force placed the bonds with clients.
 3 But our primary function was trading bonds in 4 the secondary.
 5 Q. Now, are you aware that in the
 6 Sunbeam deal that Morgan Stanley was involved
 7 in, there was a subordinated debenture
 8 offering?
 9 A. The convertible?
 10 Q. Yes.
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Would that be considered a high
 13 yield issuance?
 14 A. No, it was not a high yield
 15 issuance. Some high yield hybrid investors
 16 purchased it, but no. Our sales force was not 17 as involved.
 18 Q. I'm sorry. Not as involved? What
 19 do you mean?
 20 A. I mean one or two salespeople sold
 21 it to their accounts, but, in general, it was 22 sold off the convert desk, not the high yield
 23 desk. And it was recognized on their P&L, not 24 ours.
 25 Q. Meaning if Morgan Stanley had gains

1 particular Morgan Stanley funds, or was it
 2 just undifferentiated Morgan Stanley money?
 3 A. No. It was our book. We were
 4 allocated a certain amount of capital with
 5 which to invest.
 6 Q. And by "us" you mean the high yield
 7 group?
 8 A. The high yield group, which included
 9 emerging markets and bank loans.
 10 Q. What do you mean by bank loans?
 11 A. Leveraged bank loans.
 12 Q. That was considered part of the high
 13 yield group?
 14 A. It was, but they were private. We 15 were public. So although it was part of our
 16 P&L, there was not as much interaction.
 17 Q. Are you familiar with an entity
 18 known as Morgan Stanley Senior Funding?
 19 A. Not really, no.
 20 Q. Do you understand that to be a part
 21 of Morgan Stanley that made bank loans?
 22 A. That would be my assumption, but I
 23 can't confirm.
 24 Q. Do you know where the entities
 25 within Morgan Stanley that made bank loans got

1 or losses on the sale of those bonds, it was
 2 not attributable to your division? Is that
 3 what you mean?
 4 A. Meaning the underwriting fee we did
 5 not get an allocation of.
 6 Q. You referred to proprietary trading.
 7 What do you mean by that?
 8 A. Meaning we would take positions in
 9 bonds. It was like having your own investment
 10 fund where if we truly believed in a bond, and 11 it was primarily bonds we underwrote, we would
 12 take a position.
 13 Q. And when you refer to "we," who do
 14 you mean by "we"?
 15 A. Meaning the trader, the group. The
 16 sales force is not involved in that decision.
 17 It's research and trading who makes the 18 decision of whether or not they think a bond
 19 is undervalued and there is an investment
 20 opportunity.
 21 Q. When a trader took a position in a
 22 bond, a high yield bond, whose money would
 23 that trader be investing? Morgan Stanley's?
 24 A. Morgan Stanley's.
 25 Q. Do you know if that money came from

1 their money?
 2 A. No, I don't. I would assume from
 3 Morgan Stanley.
 4 Q. So just so I understand the
 5 structure, was the issuance of bank loans by 6 Morgan Stanley considered to be part of its
 7 high yield group?
 8 A. Yes. If it was a levered loan, yes.
 9 Q. What do you mean by levered loan?
 10 Was there a leverage ratio that qualified it?
 11 A. No. It's your investment rating.
 12 Again, if it's below investment grade.
 13 Q. Do you know if there was a bank loan
 14 to Sunbeam in connection with this
 15 transaction?
 16 A. There was, yes.
 17 Q. Was that considered a levered loan?
 18 A. It was off of -- honestly, I cannot
 19 remember what the ratings were, but it was off
 20 of our P&L, so it was from our leveraged
 21 finance group, yes.
 22 Q. So just so I understand, the loan
 23 made to Sunbeam was considered a loan made by 24 the high yield group?
 25 A. Yes.

018163

1 Q. So any profits or losses on that
2 loan were attributed to the high yield group?

3 A. Yes, it was.

4 Q. And that was the group that at the
5 time was being headed up by Mr. Sipprelle and
6 Mr. Rankowitz?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. Do you know who made the investment
9 decisions for those bank loans?

10 MS. BROWN: Object to form.

11 Q. If you know.

12 A. I only know a few names, but the way
13 it worked at Morgan Stanley was it was always 14 -- it was always a consensus, so there was 15 several parties involved. There was
16 investment banking, and there was bank loans,
17 there was high yield. You had equity having 18 to talk about it. So there was not any one
19 party who made the decision. It was, as I
20 say, it was a commitment committee with 21 consensus.

22 Q. So let me see if I can rephrase your 23 answer. Was the decision to make the loan or 24 not make the loan made by a committee?

25 A. Yes.

1 think you have. Did they jointly hold the
2 position?

3 A. Yes, they did. Mr. Rankowitz was
4 primarily head of emerging markets, while
5 Dwight was head of the high yield, but they
6 ran the group together.

7 Q. I understand. You've referred to
8 emerging markets. What does that mean?

9 A. It's countries who are yet to attain
10 an investment grade rating, and we traded
11 their bonds in the secondary.

12 Q. So international bonds?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Bonds of other countries?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Also traded by your group?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you know a gentleman by the name
19 of Andrew Conway?

20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. Do you remember Mr. Conway's
22 position in '97 and 1998?

23 A. He was the beverage analyst for
24 Morgan Stanley.

25 Q. Was he within the high yield group?

1 Q. I've seen reference to a leveraged
2 finance commitment committee. Is that the
3 committee?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And they would decide however they
6 would decide, but they were the ones who made
7 the decision?

8 MS. BROWN: Object to form.

9 Q. The decision would be made by that
10 group; is that right?

11 A. The decision is made by the group
12 with a strong veto voice by anyone who 13 objects.

14 Q. Okay. I understand, I think. You
15 referred to Mr. Foley. Did Mr. Foley report
16 to Mr. Rankowitz or Mr. Sipprelle?

17 A. We had a head of research at the 18 time. I can't remember who it was because we 19 turned so often. But there was a head of 20 research, and then there was Dwight and Rank,
21 yes.

22 Q. Dwight and Rank? That's Mr. --

23 A. Yes. Sorry. That's Mr. Sipprelle
24 and Mr. Rankowitz.

25 Q. And I've referred to them, as I

1 A. No.

2 Q. What group was he within?

3 A. He was in equity research.

4 Q. How did equity research and high
5 yield research relate to one another?

6 A. It would depend on if we covered a
7 name together. In the case of Sunbeam, we
8 would compare notes, but, again, I wasn't
9 covering Sunbeam, so it was more of I could
10 add value to them on Coleman, but it was a
11 completely separate entity. They're analyzing 12 a completely separate asset class than we are.

13 Q. At the time you were covering
14 Coleman's bonds, was there someone covering
15 Coleman's equity?

16 A. No, there was not.

17 Q. And you referred to Mr. Conway. Do
18 you know if Mr. Conway ever initiated coverage
19 of Sunbeam's stock?

20 A. I cannot recall.

21 Q. Do you know if there was anyone that
22 issued coverage of Sunbeam's debt?

23 A. I don't think so, but I cannot
24 recall.

25 Q. Do you know if that was ever under

Page 34

1 consideration?
 2 A. No, I do not.
 3 Q. Now, in 1997 and 1998 were you
 4 compensated on a base pay and bonus basis?
 5 A. Yes, I was.
 6 Q. Who made the decisions about what
 7 you were to be paid?
 8 A. Frankly, I'd like --
 9 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
 10 Q. Do you know?
 11 A. No. I would like to know, but no, I
 12 don't know.
 13 Q. Who told you what you were being
 14 paid?
 15 A. My head of research.
 16 Q. That would be Mr. Foley?
 17 A. No. It would have been whoever was 18 head of research at the time, which would have
 19 been either John Irish or Ann Short, but I
 20 can't recall who was the head of research at 21 that time.
 22 Q. And head of research includes both
 23 high yield and equity and other areas of 24 research?
 25 A. No, it does not. It is only high

Page 35

1 yield research.
 2 Q. What were the names of those
 3 individuals you mentioned?
 4 A. John Irish or Ann Short. It was
 5 most likely Ann Short.
 6 Q. Did Mr. Foley report to either
 7 Ms. Short or Mr. Irish?
 8 A. Yes. He reported to them as well.
 9 Q. Okay. I understand. Do you know
 10 how your bonus was determined?
 11 A. No.
 12 Q. Do you know if your pay related in 13 any way to returns on the instruments that you
 14 followed?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. Roughly as a percentage of your
 17 compensation, do you know how much your bonus
 18 was in 1997 and '98?
 19 A. No.
 20 Q. Are we talking more than 50 percent,
 21 less than 50 percent?
 22 A. It was probably more than
 23 50 percent.
 24 Q. And --
 25 A. But just to give you a frame of

Page 36

1 reference, 1998 was the Russian crisis. It
 2 wasn't a good bonus year period.
 3 Q. Particularly given that your
 4 department had emerging markets, among other
 5 things?
 6 A. Among other things.
 7 Q. Do you know if your -- and this may
 8 be related to the question I just asked, but 9 do you know if your bonus had any relation to 10 the returns on the proprietary trading that 11 you assisted with?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. Were you ever told that it did?
 14 A. No.
 15 Q. Do you know if any Morgan Stanley
 16 funds invested in Sunbeam?
 17 A. No.
 18 Q. Do you know if any Morgan Stanley
 19 funds invested in Coleman?
 20 A. No. Sorry. My own trading desk had
 21 invested in Coleman, so yes, in that sense.
 22 Q. And that was on the high yield side,
 23 not the equity side?
 24 A. Correct.
 25 Q. Do you know if anyone within Morgan

Page 37

1 Stanley invested in Coleman equity?
 2 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 3 A. Individuals that I know, yes, but
 4 not as a firm, no.
 5 Q. What do you know about individuals
 6 who invested in Coleman? What do you
 7 remember?
 8 A. A couple of my friends, because I
 9 had been covering the bonds, thought the stock
 10 was cheap, so they bought the stock.
 11 Q. And they told you that?
 12 A. Oh, yes.
 13 Q. Did they do well as a result of 14 their purchase?
 15 A. No.
 16 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 17 Foundation.
 18 Q. Did they make money or did they lose
 19 money?
 20 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
 21 Q. Do you know?
 22 A. They lost money because we were
 23 restricted in the period that the stock ran up
 24 because we had done the deal.
 25 Q. Do you remember who or what group

018465

1 within Morgan Stanley made investment
2 decisions for the Morgan Stanley and Morgan
3 Stanley Dean Witter funds?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Do you ever remember receiving
6 inquiries from any of those funds about
7 Coleman?

8 A. I don't recall, no.

9 Q. Now, I think you testified in
10 response to an earlier question that you
11 assisted investment banking in some work. Can 12 you describe the work that you assisted 13 investment banking in?

14 A. If we were looking at a deal, if we 15 were mandated to do a deal, we were always
16 brought in not to do investment banking's due
17 diligence, but to do due diligence for the 18 trading desk and to do due diligence for our 19 clients, because, again, if we're going to 20 bring a deal to market, if we felt there was 21 imminent danger to bankruptcy, we had the
22 power to turn down a deal. If we felt there
23 were certain risks that should be communicated
24 to our clients, we had the power to 25 communicate those risks to our clients. And

1 make an assessment of a company. And the
2 thing of high yield versus equity is as long
3 as you pay our coupon, we're happy. It's not
4 like equity where the company needs to be a
5 star performer. We just need them to pay
6 their coupons. So it basically is just you
7 assess varying degrees of what is their
8 ability to pay their coupon.

9 Q. So the research that you did would
10 look to the ability of the company to satisfy
11 its high yield obligations?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Not its equity obligations?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. In connection with the Sunbeam and
16 Coleman transaction, did you look at Sunbeam?
17 MS. BROWN: Object to form.

18 Q. You personally.

19 MS. BROWN: Object to form.

20 MR. BRODY: Fine.

21 Q. You can answer.

22 A. I was eight and a half months
23 pregnant, so my ability to do due diligence
24 was highly limited, and it was not a high
25 yield underwriting. So really my only -- my

1 our goal, our job, was to surface those risks
2 so that the bond would be priced accordingly.

3 Q. You referred to being mandated to do
4 a deal. What do you mean by that?

5 A. Meaning that a contract was signed
6 whereby Morgan Stanley would underwrite a bond
7 for a company.

8 Q. So you signed an underwriting
9 agreement?

10 A. Exactly.

11 MS. BROWN: "You" being Morgan
12 Stanley?

13 MR. BRODY: Yes. Exactly.

14 Q. You referred to you'd look at the 15 deal to see if there was imminent risk of 16 bankruptcy; is that correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. What other risks would you be 19 looking for?

20 A. As a research analyst, there's many
21 risks you look for. You know, is there a
22 liquidity crunch, what is the competitive
23 pressures, can the company make their numbers,
24 what is the quality of management. There is 25 many different elements you look at, but you

1 only involvement was my expertise in Coleman.

2 Q. Okay. We'll go into this in greater
3 detail I think when we talk about Coleman, but
4 what research, if any, do you remember doing
5 into Sunbeam as opposed to Coleman?

6 A. I have very vague recollections of a
7 couple of conference calls, but it really,
8 again, was more to see how the company would
9 relate to Coleman than me actually doing due
10 diligence on Sunbeam.

11 Q. Do you remember who was on those 12 calls?

13 A. No, I do not.

14 Q. We'll come back to that and see if
15 you remember any details. Do you know an 16 entity within Morgan Stanley known as the 17 client service group?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. What was the business of the client
20 service group?

21 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.

22 A. If memory recollects, the client
23 service group, it's either one or two things.
24 Either they were related to private clients of 25 the bank, or it was our actual investment

018166

Page 42

1 banking clients of the company. I can't
 2 remember if it was individuals or companies.
 3 Q. Do you know what work, if any, you
 4 did with people in the client service group?
 5 A. No, I do not recall.
 6 Q. Do you know a gentleman by the name
 7 of John Tyree?
 8 A. No, I do not recall.
 9 Q. Andy Savarie?
 10 A. Do not recall.
 11 Q. Within the high yield area is it
 12 correct to say that your research group would
 13 support the traders?
 14 A. That was our primary function, yes.
 15 Q. And by supporting the traders, you
 16 would assist them in making trades that would 17 be profitable for Morgan Stanley and its 18 clients?
 19 A. Ideally, yes.
 20 Q. That was your goal?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. Didn't always work that way?
 23 A. Did not always work that way.
 24 Q. Were there metrics by which the high
 25 yield group's performance was measured?

Page 43

1 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
 2 A. Only thing I ever heard was a
 3 year-end P&L.
 4 Q. Were Mr. Rankowitz and Mr. Sipprelle
 5 responsible for maintaining the year-end P&L?
 6 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 7 Foundation.
 8 A. I don't know.
 9 Q. In 1997 do you know if the year-end
 10 P&L for the high yield group was a profit or 11 loss?
 12 A. It was a profit.
 13 Q. What about 1998?
 14 A. I don't know, but I know it was less
 15 than '97.
 16 Q. Were you circulated documents or
 17 emails showing how well the high yield group
 18 was doing?
 19 A. No, we were not.
 20 Q. Did you hear about it?
 21 A. Can't recall.
 22 Q. If I wanted to obtain the P&L for 23 the high yield group, who would I talk to?
 24 A. I don't know.
 25 Q. Did you ever receive an evaluation

Page 44

1 from the people you worked for for the work
 2 you did on Coleman or Sunbeam?
 3 A. No, I did not.
 4 Q. Were you personally evaluated based
 5 on how well your research turned out?
 6 A. There is something called the
 7 Institutional Investor Report, which are
 8 Institutional Investor rankings which would 9 measure what your clients thought of your 10 research. But one of the hardest things of 11 being a research analyst is most of what we do
 12 is subjective.
 13 Q. Sure. Now, the Institutional
 14 Investor rankings, I think that's what you
 15 called it?
 16 A. Um-hmm.
 17 Q. Was that a Morgan Stanley document?
 18 A. No. It's a magazine, Institutional
 19 Investor, and they poll your clients, and they 20 rank you.
 21 Q. Do you ever remember anyone after
 22 the fact looking back and, you know,
 23 critiquing your research, saying, well, this 24 turned out to be right, this turned out to be
 25 wrong? Was that done?

Page 45

1 A. No.
 2 Q. Now, I believe that you talked
 3 earlier about the kinds of documents that you
 4 would hold on to. When you were at Morgan
 5 Stanley, what was your practice or policy for
 6 maintaining copies of the documents that you
 7 worked with?
 8 A. It varied with the technology. As 9 more and more things got filed on the web and 10 SEC, you had to hold less. But at the time of 11 this, obviously there was less technology, so
 12 you just held on to whatever you were given,
 13 because it could be value added at some point.
 14 Q. Where did you keep it?
 15 A. File cabinets.
 16 Q. And was it in that file cabinet when
 17 you left Morgan Stanley in 2001?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. Do you remember what sorts of things
 20 you kept about Sunbeam and Coleman?
 21 A. No, I don't.
 22 Q. Do you remember anything that you
 23 kept?
 24 A. The most I could remember is a
 25 prospectus.

Page 46

1 Q. Did you keep notes of things that
 2 you did?
 3 A. I don't know.
 4 Q. When you put together a research
 5 report, I assume you generated drafts?
 6 A. Well, it's on a computer, so it's
 7 always the same draft. You just type over it.
 8 Q. You wouldn't print out copies and
 9 keep them?
 10 A. No, I would not.
 11 Q. In connection with putting together
 12 a research report, you would gather a variety
 13 of pieces of paper and so on that they were 14 based on, wouldn't you?
 15 A. No. Most of my research is done on 16 the web.
 17 Q. Even in 1997 and '98?
 18 A. Even in 1997.
 19 Q. Now, in '97 and '98 did you use
 20 email?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. Did you use email to communicate
 23 with people about Coleman and Sunbeam?
 24 A. I don't recall.
 25 Q. On the Sunbeam deal, there were a

Page 47

1 variety of people working on that deal from
 2 offices other than your high yield office; is
 3 that correct?
 4 A. I don't recall, but probably.
 5 Q. Do you remember communicating with
 6 any of them by email?
 7 A. I don't recall.
 8 Q. Did you communicate at all with 9 people from Sunbeam, the company, in 10 connection with the work that you did?
 11 A. I don't recall, but highly unlikely.
 12 Q. What about with people from Coleman?
 13 A. While I was covering Coleman, I
 14 communicated frequently with the company to 15 get updates on how the business was doing.
 16 Q. In what form did you do that?
 17 A. Primarily through the telephone.
 18 Q. Did you keep notes of your calls?
 19 Did you make notes of your calls?
 20 A. No, not really. Probably not.
 21 Q. You wouldn't write stuff down?
 22 A. During a conference call I would
 23 take notes, because I tend to give very great
 24 detail. But in a conversation where your life
 25 and death is resting on whether or not they

Page 48

1 meet your numbers, you don't need to write
 2 that down. You remember it.
 3 Q. When did you first hear of the fact
 4 that there was litigation surrounding the
 5 Sunbeam deal? I don't mean this case. I mean
 6 any litigation.
 7 A. I can't recall.
 8 Q. You were at Morgan Stanley at the
 9 time?
 10 A. I don't -- I don't remember.
 11 Q. Well, let's focus on the coverage
 12 that you did of Coleman. You are aware of the 13 Coleman Company?
 14 A. It was six years ago, but yes, I'm 15 aware of the Coleman Company.
 16 Q. And what do you understand their
 17 business to be in 1997 and 1998?
 18 A. They were primarily camping goods.
 19 Q. You covered the high yield debt of 20 Coleman's parent?
 21 A. I covered the escrow bonds.
 22 Q. You didn't have anything to do with 23 covering the stock?
 24 A. No, I did not.
 25 Q. And I believe you said that Morgan

Page 49

1 Stanley did not cover the stock?
 2 A. To my recollection, we did not have
 3 coverage of the stock.
 4 Q. Fair enough. Now, in connection
 5 with the work you did for Coleman covering the 6 escrow bonds, who did you have contact with?
 7 MS. BROWN: Object to
 8 characterization, but go ahead.
 9 A. At the company?
 10 Q. Yes.
 11 A. Mark Shiffman was my primary
 12 contact.
 13 Q. Do you know where Mr. Shiffman was 14 located?
 15 A. He started out in New York, and he
 16 ended up in Florida.
 17 Q. Do you understand whether
 18 Mr. Shiffman worked for MacAndrews & Forbes or
 19 for Coleman?
 20 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
 21 Go ahead.
 22 A. He worked for Coleman, but the rumor
 23 was he was dating Perelman's daughter, so it's 24 kind of a blurry line.
 25 Q. Did you ever talk to him about that?

1 A. No. Just behind his back.
 2 Q. What did it mean to cover the escrow
 3 bonds? That's the security you covered?
 4 A. Yes. It means that those were the
 5 two bonds which I had a recommendation on. I
 6 did not have opinions on other parts of the 7 capital structure.
 8 Q. When you covered a company, when you
 9 covered Coleman, you made recommendations as 10 to those bonds?
 11 A. Yes, I did.
 12 Q. And recommendations about whether to 13 buy or sell or hold?
 14 A. Correct.
 15 Q. At the time did Morgan Stanley have
 16 certain categories of ratings for securities?
 17 A. We did, but I couldn't tell you what
 18 they were. It changes all the time.
 19 Q. If I were to tell you that I've seen
 20 research reports referring to a strong buy, do
 21 you ever remember there being a rating higher
 22 than a strong buy?
 23 A. No. There was no rating higher than 24 a strong buy.
 25 Q. I assume there were ratings lower?

1 had very bad management, very disappointing
 2 year. We had Jerry Levin come in from Revlon,
 3 who was highly respected, and by our research
 4 we felt that it was a great brand and a
 5 potentially strong cash flow-generating
 6 company.
 7 Q. When you say the bonds were
 8 oversold, what do you mean?
 9 A. They were trading at a significant
 10 discount to par.
 11 Q. So you expected them to go up?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. To increase in value?
 14 A. Yes. And plus you were getting --
 15 again, this is off of memory, but you were 16 getting like a ten, eleven percent yield. So
 17 your total return potential was very high.
 18 Q. Now, when you say you made the
 19 decision to do this, you looked at the bonds,
 20 how was it that you happened to notice this?
 21 A. I don't remember.
 22 Q. At the time you noticed this
 23 investment opportunity, could you then just 24 issue the research report, or did you need to 25 get approval from others?

1 A. Yes, there were.
 2 Q. Hold, sell, sell right away?
 3 A. Well, no. At Morgan it was more
 4 very strong buy. But no. I don't -- there
 5 was a hold and a sell, but I can't remember
 6 what the exact terminology was. But in
 7 general, there's only three or four ratings
 8 categories.
 9 Q. And the top one was strong buy?
 10 A. Yes, it was.
 11 Q. Before you covered the bonds that
 12 you covered, was there anyone at Morgan
 13 Stanley covering anything for Coleman?
 14 A. Not that I recall, no.
 15 Q. How was it that Morgan Stanley
 16 decided to initiate coverage of the Coleman
 17 bonds?
 18 A. Because of me. I looked at them and
 19 I thought that there was an investment
 20 opportunity.
 21 Q. What do you mean by investment
 22 opportunity?
 23 A. I can't recall the exact parameters
 24 at the time, but I felt the bonds were 25 oversold. If memory serves correct, they had

1 A. I did not need to get approval from
 2 others. Obviously there are certain channels
 3 you go through. I would confer -- before I
 4 started doing work on the company, I would
 5 confer with my trader to make sure that there
 6 were bonds to be traded. And then obviously
 7 before you write a report, it has to go
 8 through legal to ensure that we're not
 9 violating any Morgan Stanley procedures.
 10 Q. Do you know who the trader was on
 11 the Coleman bonds?
 12 A. Michael Lily.
 13 Q. Do you remember discussing the
 14 Coleman bonds with Mr. Lily?
 15 A. I don't recall specifically.
 16 Q. Yes.
 17 A. But we obviously did discuss it,
 18 yes.
 19 Q. Do you remember anything about that
 20 conversation?
 21 A. No.
 22 Q. And then you said you also had to
 23 get approval from legal?
 24 A. Whenever you draft a report, it has 25 to go through legal compliance before it can

018169

1 be published.

2 Q. Was there a person that you dealt
3 with?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. Do you remember if there was a
6 person or a function responsible for reviewing
7 those research reports?

8 A. It was all done by my secretary, so
9 I really don't know.

10 Q. Do you remember if you showed your
11 report to Mr. Foley before it issued?

12 A. I probably did, but I couldn't tell
13 you exactly.

14 Q. Now, once coverage is initiated, did
15 you continue to monitor the performance of 16 those bonds?

17 A. Yes. We did quarterly updates. And
18 if we had the opportunity to see the company
19 on a one-off basis, we would publish on that.

20 Q. You're going to have to -- there is 21 a lot of terminology that goes with this
22 field, and I think I got most of it, but
23 you're going to have to describe it. Now, you
24 said you would do quarterly updates of your
25 research?

1 A. Basically when they report numbers,
2 and we would report on how they did versus our
3 estimates.

4 Q. And then I think you also referred
5 to a one-off?

6 A. For example, Coleman presented at 7 our high yield conference I believe it was in 8 1997, so we would do a written update on that.

9 Q. Did there come a time when you
10 stopped covering the bonds?

11 A. I stopped covering the bonds when
12 the Sunbeam deal was announced. I immediately
13 became restricted.

14 Q. What do you mean by that?

15 A. Meaning Morgan Stanley was handling
16 the deal, and so, consequently, we will not 17 publish research when we're involved on the 18 investment banking side.

19 Q. Got it. Would you then issue
20 something saying, hey, we're not going to 21 cover it anymore?

22 A. No. We just stop publishing. The 23 client base -- our client base is private
24 clients. Sorry. Are institutional clients.
25 So they understand.

1 Q. You're aware that the reports that
2 you issued could have an effect on the market
3 for the securities?

4 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
5 Foundation.

6 A. I disagree with that. As I just
7 said, our clients, our institutional clients,
8 they're extremely sophisticated, and they use
9 our work to help them make their decision, but 10 we don't actually make their decisions for 11 them. It's very rare that a high yield
12 research report will move markets unless they
13 have some truly new information.

14 Q. Did you ever personally buy or sell
15 any securities in Coleman?

16 A. I did not.

17 Q. I don't know if you were allowed to.
18 Were you allowed to under the Morgan Stanley
19 rules?

20 A. No, I was not.

21 Q. But I believe you testified that
22 Morgan Stanley and its traders took positions
23 in the Coleman bonds?

24 A. Morgan Stanley trading did, yes.

25 Q. Did Morgan Stanley make a market --

1 A. Yes, we did.

2 Q. -- in these bonds?

3 A. Yes, we did.

4 Q. In addition to making a market, did
5 it take a long position in the bonds?

6 A. Yes, we did.

7 Q. And by taking a long position, that
8 means that Morgan Stanley held them expecting
9 them to go up in value so they could make
10 money on the bonds?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Now, when you do a coverage report,
13 what information do you typically consider?

14 MS. BROWN: Object to form.

15 A. It varies so much company by company
16 and it varies by how much information was 17 already out there. In the case of Coleman, we 18 obviously did what we thought -- you know, we
19 gave the company's investment strengths,
20 weaknesses. The report also included a very
21 comprehensive study of the camping industry
22 and its potential growth and how we felt
23 Coleman was a leader. But there is no
24 template whatsoever to a research report.

25 Q. Okay. I guess I'm not asking the

1 question right. I'm trying to get at the
2 types of information you would consider rather
3 than what the report would look like. Were 4 there types of information you typically
5 considered?

6 MS. BROWN: Object to form.

7 A. As a high yield research analyst,
8 your number one consideration is their
9 ability, as I said, to pay the coupons. So
10 every research report will include a capital
11 structure, your amortization schedule, your
12 model, financial forecast, your free cash
13 flow. That's much more of the financial 14 consideration which every report will contain,
15 but then everything else is far more
16 subjective in terms of, okay, we know this is 17 what they have to pay down their bonds, what 18 is the likelihood based on the fundamentals of 19 the company that they can do that.

20 Q. I guess I'm not asking the question
21 right.

22 A. Okay.

23 Q. I'm focusing less on what the report
24 looks like and more on the information, the 25 raw material that you would use to generate

1 A. You go to a Target. You go to a
2 Wal-Mart.

3 Q. So you would go and look?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did you ever buy any of their
6 products?

7 A. I live in New York City,
8 unfortunately not a big occasion for camping.

9 Q. Hey, people in New York camp, too.
10 I know it happens. Would you participate in 11 conference calls with management?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Would you talk to management aside
14 from the regularly scheduled conference calls?

15 A. Only Mark Shiffman.

16 Q. And Mr. Shiffman was the director of 17 investor relations?

18 A. He was. And he was extremely 19 well-informed and very accessible, so he 20 worked -- he was very, very good in that
21 function.

22 Q. Did you speak to other analysts,
23 other people that were covering Coleman?

24 A. Only on the buy side, not on the 25 sell side.

1 it. You would look at financial statements,
2 for example; correct?

3 A. We look at publicly filed SEC
4 filings, yes.

5 Q. Okay. What else?

6 A. We actually went to the -- I can't
7 remember the name now, but we went to some 8 park conservation, national wildlife park to 9 see what their camping numbers were. We
10 commissioned a study from one group to see
11 what camping demand was and the quality of the 12 Coleman name. But I obviously primarily look
13 at financial statements, and, ideally, if you
14 can, you talk to retailers and say, okay, what
15 is the quality of this brand for you.

16 Q. Do you remember if you did talk to 17 retailers about Coleman?

18 A. No, I did not. I did not have those
19 contacts at that time. For us it was more
20 going into the retail channels and seeing the 21 shelf space that they had.

22 Q. And you did that?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. How did you do that? Do you do that 25 yourself, or do you have --

1 Q. Okay. You're going to have to
2 explain what that means.

3 A. Meaning clients who were investing
4 in the bonds, buying bonds from us, versus
5 other shops that were potentially selling the 6 bonds in the secondary.

7 Q. So you would talk to people who were
8 interested in buying the bonds?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. To see what they were looking for or 11 looking -- what they saw to be value in
12 Coleman?

13 A. No. It's the reverse. They were
14 asking me why I saw value in Coleman.

15 Q. Did you read the reports of other
16 analysts?

17 A. No, I did not.

18 Q. Of Goldman Sachs or someone else?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. Do you know if other people covered
21 the Coleman bonds?

22 A. I don't recall.

23 Q. Did you track related companies,
24 that is, other companies in the same field?

25 A. Yes, I did.

018471

Page 62

1 Q. What companies?
 2 A. Well, within consumer products, but
 3 no other camping companies.
 4 Q. Okay. And you obviously tracked
 5 consumer product companies for other purposes.
 6 Did you track them for purposes of comparing
 7 them to Coleman?
 8 A. There is two answers to that is yes,
 9 on the bond spread basis, and, second, we
 10 would look at where equity comparables were 11 trading on a total enterprise value, TEV, to 12 EBITDA basis to get a downside multiple
 13 valuation for Coleman in the event they went 14 bankrupt.
 15 Q. Okay. We're going to do those one
 16 step at a time. You said you would look at 17 the bond spread?
 18 A. Meaning I would look at what total
 19 debt to EBITDA, EBITDA to interest and yield
 20 was for varying companies within the sector.
 21 Q. Do you remember what companies you
 22 looked at?
 23 A. No, I do not.
 24 Q. Okay. And on the equity side you
 25 said you looked at the ratio between total

Page 63

1 enterprise value --
 2 A. Total enterprise value to EBITDA.
 3 Q. How would you determine total
 4 enterprise value?
 5 A. That's total debt plus the market
 6 equity cap.
 7 Q. And you would compare that to the
 8 company's EBITDA?
 9 A. You would divide -- you would put
 10 that over EBITDA, yes.
 11 Q. And you would compare Coleman's
 12 ratio to the ratio of other companies?
 13 A. No. I would see what the ratio of 14 other companies were, and I would see what
 15 Coleman's total debt to EBITDA was, and see
 16 what my recovery value was for the bonds.
 17 Q. Okay. In the event of bankruptcy?
 18 A. In the event of bankruptcy.
 19 Q. Now, in connection with the work you
 20 did looking into Coleman, did you ever talk to
 21 Mr. Levin?
 22 A. I don't recall. I mean obviously I
 23 heard him on the conference calls, but I don't
 24 recall if I ever had a one on one meeting with 25 him.

Page 64

1 Q. Did you ever speak to Mr. Page?
 2 A. I don't recall.
 3 Q. Do you know Joe Page, or do you know
 4 who he is?
 5 A. Don't recall.
 6 Q. Did you ever speak to Mr. Shapiro?
 7 A. I don't recall. The name is vaguely
 8 familiar, but I don't recall.
 9 Q. I believe you identified
 10 Mr. Shiffman. Do you remember anyone else at 11 Coleman that you spoke with?
 12 A. No, I don't.
 13 Q. And you're aware that 82 percent of 14 the common stock of Coleman was owned by a
 15 MacAndrews & Forbes entity?
 16 A. Yes, I was aware.
 17 Q. Did you speak with anyone at 18 MacAndrews & Forbes about Coleman?
 19 A. No, I did not.
 20 Q. In connection with the coverage you
 21 did of Coleman, did you ever visit a Coleman
 22 facility?
 23 A. No, I did not.
 24 Q. And I believe you said you went to 25 the retail outlets and looked how their

Page 65

1 products were placed; is that correct?
 2 A. Yes, it is.
 3 Q. Did you talk to retailers?
 4 A. No, I did not. I did not have those
 5 connections.
 6 MS. BROWN: Let's take a break
 7 before we start using the exhibits.
 8 MR. BRODY: Yes. That's fine. We
 9 can take a break now.
 10 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time on the
 11 monitor is now 10:35, and we are off the
 12 record.
 13 (Recess)
 14 (Initiation of coverage for
 15 Coleman marked CPH Exhibit 272 for
 16 identification, as of this date.)
 17 (Document Bates stamped Morgan
 18 Stanley Confidential 23225-23229 marked
 19 CPH Exhibit 273 for identification, as
 20 of this date.)
 21 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time on the
 22 monitor is 10:44, and we're back on the
 23 record.
 24 Q. While we were off the record,
 25 Ms. Eltrich, we marked two exhibits, and I'm 018472

1 going to show you the first of the two. It's
 2 been marked as Exhibit 272. Do you recognize
 3 that document?
 4 A. Yes, I do.
 5 Q. And what is it?
 6 A. I believe it was my initiation of
 7 coverage for Coleman.
 8 Q. And this is a document that you
 9 wrote?
 10 A. Yes, it is.
 11 Q. Did you prepare this document in the 12 ordinary course of your business at Morgan
 13 Stanley?
 14 A. Yes, I did.
 15 Q. It's dated October 9th, 1997. Is 16 that the date on or about the time you created
 17 it?
 18 A. I couldn't recall.
 19 Q. Did you issue this document on or
 20 about October 9th, 1997?
 21 A. It was published on October 9th.
 22 Q. Okay. "Published" is the word you
 23 prefer?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. And then thereafter was a copy of.

1 can't recall the details.
 2 Q. And it's dated August 7, 1997; is
 3 that correct?
 4 A. It appears to be, yes.
 5 Q. And that would be about the time
 6 that a company like Coleman would issue its
 7 second quarter earnings?
 8 A. It would appear so, yes.
 9 Q. Is Exhibit 273, the earnings
 10 document, one of the documents you considered
 11 in connection with issuing the report that is 12 shown as 272?
 13 A. I don't recall specifically, but I
 14 would assume so.
 15 Q. In any event, though, you would have 16 read earnings announcements such as
 17 Exhibit 273 before doing the research report
 18 or as part of doing your work?
 19 A. Yes, I would.
 20 Q. Now, at the time you issued your
 21 first research report in October of 1997, did
 22 you understand that Coleman was in the process
 23 of a turnaround?
 24 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 25 A. To the best of my knowledge, that

1 this document kept in the files of Morgan
 2 Stanley?
 3 MS. BROWN: Object to foundation.
 4 A. I don't know.
 5 Q. Did you keep a copy of it?
 6 A. I believe I kept a copy with my own
 7 personal files.
 8 Q. When you prepared this document,
 9 were you acting within the scope of your
 10 authority at Morgan Stanley?
 11 MS. BROWN: Object to the extent
 12 he's calling for a legal conclusion.
 13 MR. BRODY: I'm not.
 14 A. To my knowledge, I was.
 15 Q. And I would also like to show you
 16 what has been marked as Exhibit 273. Do you
 17 recognize that document?
 18 A. I don't recall.
 19 Q. Your name appears at the top. Do
 20 you see that?
 21 A. Yes, I do.
 22 Q. Do you recognize this as a document
 23 faxed to you or faxed from you?
 24 A. Faxed to me. It basically looks
 25 like a second quarter earnings update, but I

1 was my assumption.
 2 Q. What did you understand that to
 3 mean?
 4 A. To the best of my recollection, it
 5 was that the numbers had been extremely
 6 disappointing, the company had become highly
 7 leveraged, but under new management I felt
 8 that the company could regain its bearings and 9 service its debt.
 10 Q. Did you understand that the company
 11 had adopted a strategy to improve its
 12 financial performance?
 13 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 14 A. To the best of my recollection, yes,
 15 they had.
 16 Q. If you look at Exhibit 273, the 17 earnings announcement that shows that it was 18 sent to you, the first paragraph refers to 19 success in its turnaround strategy; correct?
 20 A. Yes, it does.
 21 Q. And that's the sort of thing that
 22 you would have read and analyzed in connection
 23 with doing a research report?
 24 A. One part of it, yes.
 25 Q. Of course. Other things as well. I

018473

1 understand. If you turn to the next page, the
2 first full paragraph, the one that begins, "We
3 were able to show dramatic progress." Do you
4 see that?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. And the last sentence of that
7 paragraph says, "Our turnaround strategy has 8 provided us with a strong foundation on which 9 to build Coleman's future." Do you see that?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. Do you understand that Coleman had 12 started its turnaround but had not finished
13 its turnaround?

14 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.

15 A. I don't recall where we were in the 16 process.

17 Q. Well, do you remember reading this
18 document?

19 A. No, I don't recall.

20 Q. But you don't doubt that you did?

21 A. To the best of my recollection, I
22 read this document.

23 Q. If you look at the research report
24 that you drafted and issued --

25 MS. BROWN: Published.

1 sign off or make approvals of that?

2 MS. BROWN: Object to form.

3 A. To the best of my recollection, at 4 the time it was the autonomy of the analyst to 5 make that conclusion.

6 Q. Now, at the time you issued this
7 report, were you aware that Sunbeam had
8 retained Morgan Stanley to assist it as its 9 investment banker?

10 A. I had no idea whatsoever.

11 Q. Were you aware of any interest of 12 Sunbeam in Coleman?

13 A. None whatsoever.

14 Q. Now, the securities that you're
15 analyzing are the Coleman Escrow I and Coleman
16 Escrow II securities. You understand those to 17 be the first and second priority discount
18 notes?

19 A. To the best of my recollection, yes.

20 Q. Well, if you look at the first line
21 of your summary and investment conclusions,
22 that's how it refers to them.

23 A. I believe they were zeros, yes.

24 Q. And by zeros, you mean a zero coupon
25 bond?

1 Q. Published. Do I keep saying
2 "issued"?

3 A. Published.

4 Q. I'll try to use "published." Let me
5 withdraw that. Let's look at the research
6 report that you published. Better?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. It lists yourself and Mr. Foley;
9 correct?

10 A. Yes, it does.

11 Q. Do you understand that it's listing
12 the two of you as authors?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 Q. But I believe your testimony is that 15 this is something that you were the primary
16 drafter of?

17 A. That is correct, with Mr. Foley
18 supervising my work.

19 Q. Do you remember if Mr. Foley made
20 any changes or suggestions?

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. The recommendation strong buy, was
23 that your conclusion?

24 A. That was my conclusion.

25 Q. Do you know if anyone else had to

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And you understand that the bonds
3 were not issued by the operating company
4 Coleman, but by one of its parents?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And did you recall that those bonds
7 were secured by stock in Coleman?

8 A. Vaguely to my recollection, yes,
9 that was the case, if it was -- particularly
10 if it was akin to the Revlon structure.

11 That's how Perelman typically did it.

12 Q. You mentioned the Revlon structure.
13 Did you look at the Revlon structure?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. Did you provide research coverage of 16 Revlon?

17 A. Yes, I did.

18 Q. Who did you do that with?

19 MS. BROWN: Object to form.

20 A. Can't recall, but it was probably
21 primarily myself.

22 Q. Now, you earlier identified the 23 types of companies that you did work on.

24 Would Revlon be a consumer products company?

25 A. Yes, it was.

018474

1 Q. What research do you remember
2 issuing on Revlon?

3 MS. BROWN: Object to form. Go
4 ahead.

5 A. I remember issuing research on the
6 zeros that were subsequently refinanced prior
7 to 1998, but -- and, actually, I'm sorry. I
8 shouldn't say -- I remember recommending them
9 to my trader, but I'm not sure if we ever
10 published on them. I can't recall.

11 Q. Aside from that issuance, do you
12 remember any other securities that you
13 provided research on?

14 A. I can't recall. I can't recall what
15 I published on. We watched the company, but I
16 can't recall what I published on.

17 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley took
18 positions in Revlon?

19 A. We did for the first zero coupon
20 note. And, unfortunately, 1998 we took
21 positions in the stock.

22 Q. Were you long on both?

23 A. Again, the zero coupon, I can't 24 remember when it got refinanced, but it was 25 well ahead of 1998. And then in 1998 I do

1 turnaround, did you understand that to be true
2 at the time you issued it?

3 A. I believe so.

4 Q. Published it. Thank you. I'm going
5 to get this issue, publish before we're done.
6 I apologize for that mistake in language. The 7 next paragraph refers to the earnings stumble
8 in 1996. That's the downturn in earnings you
9 had talked about already?

10 A. I believe so, yes.

11 Q. And then it says, "A new management
12 team led by Mr. Jerry Levin is refocusing the 13 company on profitability while attempting to 14 revitalize the industry through increased
15 advertising and new product innovations."

16 You believed that to be correct when
17 you published it?

18 A. I believe so, yes.

19 Q. And what do you recall, if anything,
20 to be the basis for that statement?

21 A. I can't recall specifically.

22 Q. Do you remember anything?

23 A. I remember an SKU reduction. I
24 remember investments in associating Coleman
25 more with the outdoors, of being the premier

1 very vividly remember having a position in the
2 stock when they preannounced that they were
3 stuffing the trade.

4 Q. When you refer to zeros, you mean
5 zero coupon bonds?

6 A. Yes. They had a discount holding
7 note very similar to Coleman.

8 Q. Now, returning to Exhibit 272, could 9 you just read to yourself what you wrote on 10 the first page of those four paragraphs in 11 italics, then I'll ask you about them.

12 You've had a chance to read it?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Thank you. Turning to the first
15 paragraph, you start by saying, "We have
16 listed the Coleman escrow first and second
17 priority discount notes as strong buy as we 18 believe the company is on the brink of an 19 impressive turnaround." You start by saying
20 "We have listed." Does that indicate that 21 this is the first coverage?

22 A. Yes, it is.

23 Q. And your statement that you believe
24 the company is on the brink of a strong
25 turnaround -- excuse me, an impressive

1 brand of choice, and expanding distribution,
2 for example, into Target, but I don't recall
3 any other specifics.

4 Q. But those are things you recall the
5 company had done?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. The last sentence in that paragraph
8 reads, "With the majority of Mr. Levin's
9 restructuring plan now in place, we are 10 expecting positive earnings comparisons for 11 the last half of '97 and a return to full 12 earnings momentum in 1998." You believed that 13 to be correct at the time you published it?

14 A. I believe so, yes.

15 Q. And what do you mean by positive
16 earnings comparisons for the last half of '97?

17 A. I believe what I meant was that
18 EBITDA would be up year over year.

19 Q. So the second half of '97 would be 20 better than the second half of '96?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And then the next phrase, "and a
23 return to full earnings momentum in 1998."
24 What do you mean by that?

25 A. I believe what I meant was that the 018475

1 full year 1998 would have positive comparisons
 2 to the full year 1997.
 3 Q. Okay. The next paragraph says, "Our
 4 investment case is not solely based on
 5 management's case for a turnaround. Our own
 6 research has shown there is inherent value in
 7 Coleman's franchise which cannot be damaged by 8 one year of poor performance." You believed
 9 those statements to be correct when you
 10 published them?
 11 A. I believe so. I believe so, yes.
 12 Q. And what research are you referring 13 to there?
 14 A. I believe this is what I had 15 referred to earlier where we contacted -- we 16 hired a consultant to get a brand equity
 17 evaluation, and we talked to people within the 18 park industry, the camping, you know,
 19 wildlife, conservation park industry to see
 20 what kind of demand they were seeing.
 21 Q. Do you remember the name of the
 22 consultant you used?
 23 A. I should, but I don't.
 24 Q. Did those consultants produce to you
 25 a written report of some kind?

1 Q. And you believed that to be correct
 2 when it was published?
 3 A. I believe so, yes.
 4 Q. Now, where did the 123.7 million and
 5 162.1 million estimates of '97 and '98 EBITDA
 6 come from?
 7 MS. BROWN: Objection. Asked and
 8 answered.
 9 A. I couldn't recall specifically.
 10 Q. And the multiples of 12 times and 11 13.4 times, do you remember where you got 12 those multiples?
 13 A. I can't tell you where I came -- how
 14 I derived 12.0 because that was an assumption,
 15 but the 13.4 was the median of all the 16 takeouts of consumer products which had
 17 happened over probably two to three years.
 18 Q. What do you mean a takeout?
 19 A. Meaning companies that had been
 20 transacted, their TEV to EBITDA at the time.
 21 Q. Okay. So companies that had been
 22 bought or sold?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. Their ratio of total enterprise
 25 value to EBITDA reflected that multiple?

1 A. Yes, they did.
 2 Q. Is that the sort of thing that you
 3 would keep in your files?
 4 A. I would assume so, yes.
 5 Q. The next paragraph states, "We
 6 believe Coleman's turnaround efforts will
 7 produce '97 EBITDA of 123.7 million and '98
 8 EBITDA of 162.1 million." Did you believe
 9 that to be correct when you published it?
 10 A. I believe so, yes.
 11 Q. What do you understand to be the 12 basis for that?
 13 A. I can't recall.
 14 Q. And it continues by saying,
 15 "Applying a conservative multiple of 12.0
 16 times EBITDA, which is below the median
 17 takeout multiple of 13.4, times EBITDA for 18 consumer products (see Appendix 1), we derive 19 a 1998 equity valuation of $25 per share for 20 Coleman stock, providing equity coverage of 21 2.3 times and 5.9 times for the accreted value
 22 of the first and second priority issues,
 23 respectively." That's something that you
 24 published in '97?
 25 A. It's on here, so I assume so, yes.

1 A. Correct.
 2 Q. And so you're saying that using a
 3 12.0 multiple as opposed to the 13.4, which
 4 was the comparable, was conservative?
 5 A. I can't recall what my thought
 6 process was at the time.
 7 Q. But it was you that chose the 12.0
 8 multiple?
 9 A. It was most likely me who chose the
 10 12.0, yes.
 11 Q. Now, the equity valuation of $25 per 12 share, was that your prediction or estimate of 13 what you thought Coleman stock would be worth
 14 in 1998?
 15 A. I believe so, yes.
 16 Q. And then the next ratios, that shows
 17 the coverage of Coleman's earnings to pay for 18 the debt service on the bonds?
 19 A. No. The next ratio of the 2.3 and 20 5.9 is because the escrow was secured by the 21 stock. It was our determination -- and,
 22 again, the bonds had been accreted. It was
 23 not for face value. It was the zero accreted
 24 value. And it was our estimation at $25 per 25 share what your collateral was worth and how 018476

1 many times it covered you.
 2 Q. So if the stock is worth $25 a share
 3 and Coleman Escrow or whoever had issued the 4 bonds sold the stock, they would be able to
 5 cover 230 percent of the value of the first
 6 bonds?
 7 A. It's one way of looking at it, but
 8 as a high yield analyst, the way you looked at 9 it is if the company were to go bankrupt, and 10 as the escrow you get first claim of the 11 stock, what is the enterprise value that 12 covers you.
 13 Q. Okay. The last sentence on this
 14 page reads, "Currently, the greatest upside 15 potential exists in this tranche," referring 16 to the second priority notes, "where we view a
 17 more appropriate spread between the two issues
 18 to be closer to 100 basis points." What does
 19 that mean?
 20 A. It means that right now as you see
 21 in this report, the first escrow is yielding
 22 10.41, the second escrow is yielding 13.31,
 23 which is roughly a 300 basis point spread. We 24 felt it should have been closer to 100 basis
 25 points.

1 not going to remain on the capital structure?
 2 A. To my best recollection, yes.
 3 Q. Exhibit 4 identifies as a source
 4 company financials and Morgan Stanley
 5 estimates. You see that?
 6 A. Yes, I do.
 7 Q. Do you know what Morgan Stanley
 8 estimates you were referring to?
 9 A. I can't recall.
 10 Q. In looking at these documents,
 11 excuse me, in looking at Exhibit 4, can you
 12 tell me which of those numbers came from the 13 Morgan Stanley estimates as opposed to which 14 came from the financials?
 15 A. No, I cannot.
 16 Q. Can you explain what Table 5 shows,
 17 what that means?
 18 A. Table 5 is your collateral value of 19 the stock based on the varying prices. So you
 20 have your first priority coverage, second
 21 priority coverage, and, again, I can't recall
 22 the exact numbers, but you had X number of 23 stock, theoretically, covering your bonds in 24 the event of a downside, so at what stock
 25 price what your collateral was. So it's a

1 Q. So you're saying that the return on
 2 the seconds was really a good return?
 3 A. If I recall correctly, that was,
 4 yes, our favorite in terms of total return.
 5 Q. Turn to the third page of the 6 document. The Exhibit 3 references the
 7 Coleman escrow capital structure, and it says
 8 you obtained that from the company financials?
 9 A. I believe so, yes.
 10 Q. By "company financials" you mean
 11 just the public published financials?
 12 A. It would be the SEC filings, yes.
 13 Q. And in that item there is a
 14 reference to the Lyons, L-y-o-n. Do you see
 15 that?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. Do you have a recollection of what
 18 the Lyons were?
 19 A. Not specifically, no. I remember
 20 they were in the capital structure, but,
 21 again, as you read the footnote, assumes
 22 redemption of these issues. If memory serves
 23 best, they did something to redeem these 24 issues.
 25 Q. Okay. So you understood those were

1 varying degree of that.
 2 Q. So correct me if I'm wrong, but does
 3 this mean that if the stock price was nine,
 4 there was enough collateral in the stock to
 5 cover the first priority notes?
 6 A. Correct.
 7 Q. And if the stock price was between
 8 ten and eleven, there would be enough to pay
 9 the second priority notes?
 10 A. If it was at eleven, yes.
 11 Q. Somewhere between there?
 12 A. Towards eleven, yes.
 13 Q. Turn to the next page. After 14 Exhibit 7 there is a paragraph that refers to 15 the 12.0 multiple.
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. See that?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. Is this something that you published
 20 at the time?
 21 A. I believe so, yes.
 22 Q. And at the time you understood it to 23 be correct?
 24 A. I believe so. Well, no, no, no. At
 25 the time I believed it to be a fair

018177

1 assumption.
 2 Q. Okay. This was your best
 3 understanding of the multiple to use?
 4 A. It was my best estimate.
 5 Q. Okay. Your text reads, "We believe
 6 our valuation is conservative given Coleman's
 7 strong market share and growth prospects. We
 8 have not done a downside valuation in the case
 9 of a liquidity crisis as we do not perceive
 10 this to be a risk at any time in the near 11 future." Is that something you wrote?
 12 A. I believe so, yes.
 13 Q. What do you mean by a liquidity
 14 crisis?
 15 A. Meaning they run out of cash and
 16 they're unable to service their debt.
 17 Q. Why did you not think that to be a
 18 risk at the time?
 19 A. I can't specifically recall what the 20 circumstances were.
 21 Q. Exhibit 8, the valuation based on 22 1997 forecasted EBITDA, is that something that
 23 you did?
 24 A. I believe so, yes.
 25 Q. And, again, you believed that to be

1 Q. The next paragraph refers to the
 2 overall health of the camping industry. Is
 3 that something that you learned based on the
 4 consultant that you hired?
 5 A. It was through the consultant, and
 6 it was through doing research on the web.
 7 Q. Now, the next section of the report
 8 reads, "Nature's First Green is Gold,"
 9 starting on the next page.
 10 A. Um-hmm.
 11 Q. And it's an analysis of the camping
 12 industry. Is that something that you
 13 prepared?
 14 A. It is something that I researched,
 15 yes.
 16 Q. And did you draft this section of
 17 the report?
 18 A. Yes, I did.
 19 Q. Beginning on Page 7 under the
 20 heading "A Period of Growth" and continuing
 21 for the next couple of pages, there is a
 22 description of Coleman's acquisitions and
 23 Coleman's plans. Do you remember what the 24 basis was for these statements?
 25 A. No, I do not.

1 a correct calculation at the time?
 2 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 3 A. I believe it was my best estimation
 4 at the time.
 5 Q. And, likewise, Exhibit 9 is
 6 something that you did as well?
 7 A. It was something I did, yes.
 8 Q. And you believed that to be the best
 9 estimation at the time?
 10 A. I believe it was my best estimation,
 11 yes.
 12 Q. Okay. The next page of the 13 document, I believe it's Page 5 of the report,
 14 contains some text about the performance of 15 Coleman. Do you know what the basis, your 16 basis was for this?
 17 A. No. I can't recall.
 18 Q. The third paragraph refers to the 19 expectations for 1998 EBITDA. Could you just 20 read that to yourself.
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. After having read that, does that
 23 refresh your recollection as to where that 24 $160 million number came from?
 25 A. No, it does not.

1 Q. But these are statements that you
 2 made and published in this report?
 3 A. I believe so, yes.
 4 Q. And you understood them to be
 5 correct when you issued them?
 6 A. I believed them --
 7 MS. BROWN: Object to the form.
 8 A. I believed them to be my best
 9 estimate.
 10 Q. Turn to Page 11 of the report and
 11 read to yourself the Coleman Company financial 12 forecast. Just let me know when you've 13 finished reading that.
 14 A. Okay.
 15 Q. And it concludes with the statement,
 16 "We are being very conservative with regard to 17 Coleman's capital structure. The company will 18 be generating significant cash flow, and we 19 expect continued deleveraging to occur in 20 1998." By that you mean Coleman would be 21 paying off even more of its debt?
 22 A. I believe so, yes.
 23 Q. That's what deleveraging means?
 24 A. Yes, it does.
 25 Q. Do you believe the statements

0181478

1 contained in that Coleman company financial
 2 forecast to be your best understanding at the
 3 time you wrote them?
 4 A. It was my best estimate, yes.
 5 Q. The next page, the next two pages
 6 are financial forecasts for 1997 and 1998.
 7 And if you look at the bottom of those tables,
 8 they say, "Source: Company financial and 9 Morgan Stanley estimates." Do you know what
 10 Morgan Stanley estimates went into this?
 11 A. I couldn't tell you specifically.
 12 Well, just basically the third, fourth quarter
 13 in the year were our estimates.
 14 Q. And when you say "our estimates,"
 15 were they estimates that you did or estimates
 16 that you obtained from others?
 17 A. Estimates that I did.
 18 Q. The EBITDA number for the year end
 19 1997 is 123.7 million. Do you know how you
 20 derived that number?
 21 A. I can't recall, no.
 22 Q. And, likewise, if you turn to the
 23 next page, you'll see the year end 1998 EBITDA
 24 is 162.3 million. Is that a number you
 25 derived?

1 Q. What do you mean by a secondary
 2 company?
 3 A. Meaning a company that published
 4 financials, etc. There was no one else. It
 5 was our own. We had the autonomy to determine
 6 our estimates.
 7 Q. Do you remember discussing your
 8 estimates of EBITDA for '97 or '98 with anyone
 9 else at Morgan Stanley?
 10 A. I don't recall, no.
 11 Q. Do you think you might have
 12 discussed them with Mr. Foley?
 13 A. I don't recall.
 14 Q. Turn to the next document.
 15 MS. BROWN: Page?
 16 MR. BRODY: I'm sorry. It's
 17 Page 14.
 18 MS. BROWN: Turn to the next page.
 19 Q. Page 14 and 15. It's Appendix 1;
 20 "Prices Paid for Recent Consumer Product
 21 Transactions." Is this a compilation that you
 22 prepared?
 23 A. No, it is not.
 24 Q. Where did you get it?
 25 A. I got it from the investment banking

1 A. I believe so, yes.
 2 Q. Do you remember how you derived it?
 3 A. No, I couldn't tell you.
 4 Q. But having looked at this document,
 5 do you recognize that to be your best estimate
 6 of 1998 EBITDA?
 7 A. I don't recognize it, but to my best
 8 recollection, it would have been my best
 9 estimate.
 10 Q. You wouldn't have put it in there if 11 you had some other number?
 12 A. Correct.
 13 Q. Was there a protocol or methodology
 14 or model that you followed to derive numbers
 15 such as that?
 16 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 17 Q. At the time?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. Did you receive any guidance or
 20 instruction at Morgan Stanley as to what
 21 estimates to use or what predictions to make 22 for companies of this type?
 23 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 24 A. For a secondary company like this,
 25 absolutely not.

1 division.
 2 Q. Do you know who at investment
 3 banking?
 4 A. I do not recall. And, actually, I
 5 should specify. It was either investment
 6 banking or equity research. I'm not sure
 7 which one.
 8 Q. There are some indications for
 9 footnotes. For example, after aggregate value
 10 it has a little footnote two, and after-
 11 premium price it has a little footnote three,
 12 but I don't see the footnotes. Do you know
 13 what that's there for?
 14 A. I can't recall.
 15 Q. Do you have an understanding of what
 16 premium price means?
 17 A. I believe -- no, I can't recall
 18 specifically.
 19 Q. What is your belief?
 20 A. I would believe it's the price over
 21 where the stock was trading at the time.
 22 Q. And if you look at the bottom of
 23 this table, which is found in the next page,
 24 the mean premium price is just under
 25 50 percent, and the median is just over

018479

1 50 percent?
 2 A. That's what it would appear to say,
 3 yes.
 4 Q. And this is the information that you
 5 included in the report that you published;
 6 correct?
 7 A. I believe so, yes.
 8 Q. Now, if you look at the bottom lines
 9 on Page 15, the mean and median numbers, the 10 aggregate value column, there is a revenue
 11 column, an EBITDA column, an and EBIT column?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. And there is that 13.4 number. Do
 14 you see that?
 15 A. Yes, I do.
 16 Q. Is this the source of the 13.4
 17 multiple that is referenced earlier in the 18 paper?
 19 A. I would assume so.
 20 Q. And that reflects that for these
 21 transactions in the consumer product field,
 22 the median multiple of revenue was 2.0, the 23 median multiple of EBITDA was 13.4, and median
 24 multiple of EBIT was 17.6?
 25 A. That's what it would seem to say,

1 report?
 2 A. No, I do not think so.
 3 Q. And looking back, do you look back
 4 on this and say, oh, gee, I don't think that
 5 was right?
 6 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 7 A. I don't have the -- I don't have --
 8 Coleman's done, so I don't have the 9 perspective with which to answer that.
 10 Q. Okay. Well, that answers the
 11 question. I appreciate that. Now, after you
 12 published this report, did you discuss it with 13 anyone at Morgan Stanley, that you remember?
 14 A. Not specifically, but you would
 15 obviously discuss it with your sales force,
 16 your traders, and your clients.
 17 Q. Was there a particular trader that
 18 was responsible for Coleman?
 19 A. Michael Lily.
 20 Q. And he remained responsible for
 21 Coleman throughout the period?
 22 A. Yes, he did.
 23 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 24 Q. The '97, '98 time frame?
 25 A. Yes, he was.

1 yes.
 2 Q. For a financial analyst such as
 3 yourself, would you prefer to use the median
 4 or the mean?
 5 A. In general, we use the median.
 6 Q. Why is that?
 7 A. Because it rules out the absolutes.
 8 Q. Meaning the outliers?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. Having looked at this document and
 11 now having really gone through the whole
 12 thing, do you remember any other sources of 13 information that you used to prepare this 14 other than the ones you've talked about 15 already?
 16 A. No, I do not.
 17 Q. Is there anything in here that you
 18 believe to be incorrect?
 19 A. I couldn't recall.
 20 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 21 Q. Let me state that a little
 22 differently. I think I've asked you this in a
 23 number of places. Is there anything in here
 24 that you didn't believe to be correct or your 25 best estimate at the time you published the

1 Q. Do you remember any discussions with
 2 Mr. Lily?
 3 A. Not specifically, no.
 4 Q. Do you remember any general topics
 5 of conversation with him?
 6 A. Yes. Whenever earnings came out,
 7 and Coleman, frankly, disappointed a lot, we
 8 would have to have conversations on that.
 9 Q. Do you remember any discussions with 10 the sales staff?
 11 A. Not specifically, no.
 12 Q. You referred to earnings coming out.
 13 I would like to show you what I'll mark as an
 14 additional exhibit.
 15 MR. BRODY: Mark this as 274.
 16 (Earnings announcement of Coleman
 17 marked CPH Exhibit 274 for
 18 identification, as of this date.)
 19 Q. I've given you what has been marked
 20 as Exhibit 274. Do you recognize that as an
 21 earnings announcement of Coleman?
 22 A. Yes, I do.
 23 Q. And that was earnings for the third
 24 quarter announced in November of 1997?
 25 A. Appears to be, yes.

018180

1 Q. And it shows that it was sent to
 2 you?
 3 A. Yes, it was.
 4 Q. Is this an earnings report from
 5 Coleman?
 6 A. It appears to be, yes.
 7 Q. Were you on a regular circulation
 8 list that you would receive these documents?
 9 MS. BROWN: Object. Foundation.
 10 A. To my knowledge, I was.
 11 Q. Do you know how that happened, how
 12 you got to be on that?
 13 A. I requested to be on their
 14 distribution list.
 15 Q. You requested that of Coleman?
 16 A. Yes, I did.
 17 Q. If you turn to the fourth page of 18 this document, there are some financial 19 numbers, and on the bottom there appears to be 20 some handwriting?
 21 A. Um- hmm.
 22 Q. Do you recognize the handwriting?
 23 A. It may be mine, but I'm not sure.
 24 Q. Do you have any understanding as to 25 what it refers to?

1 reports after this date?
 2 A. I can't recollect.
 3 Q. If I were to tell you that the
 4 acquisition of Coleman by Sunbeam, Sunbeam
 5 being a Morgan Stanley client, was publicly
 6 announced at the beginning of March 1998,
 7 would you believe that you would have done
 8 another research report after this one?
 9 A. No, I would not have been allowed
 10 to.
 11 Q. So if the facts I just told you are
 12 correct, and I believe them to be, you believe
 13 this to be your final research report?
 14 A. I can't recollect.
 15 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 16 Q. Looking at Exhibit 275, is that a
 17 document that you drafted?
 18 A. I believe so, yes.
 19 Q. And at the time you drafted it, you
 20 did so in the course of your responsibilities
 21 at Morgan Stanley?
 22 A. I believe so, yes.
 23 Q. And the document was published by 24 Morgan Stanley to the recipients of its 25 research reports, its high yield research

1 A. No, I don't.
 2 Q. After you received this report, did
 3 you modify the research that you put out
 4 there?
 5 A. I couldn't recall.
 6 MR. BRODY: Mark this, please, as
 7 Exhibit 275.
 8 (Research report dated January 26
 9 issued by Ms. Eltrich marked CPH
 10 Exhibit 275 for identification, as of
 11 this date.)
 12 Q. Ms. Eltrich, I'm showing you what
 13 has been marked as Exhibit 275. Do you
 14 recognize that as another research report that 15 you issued?
 16 A. Yes, I do.
 17 Q. That you published?
 18 A. Yes, I do.
 19 Q. And it's dated January 26th?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. Now, the prior one was dated
 22 October 9th, 1997. Are you aware of any
 23 research reports between those two dates?
 24 A. I can't recollect.
 25 Q. And can you recall any research

1 reports?
 2 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 3 A. It was distributed on a distribution
 4 list to our clients.
 5 Q. Okay. That's a better way of
 6 stating it. And it was sent to those clients
 7 in the ordinary course of Morgan Stanley's
 8 business?
 9 A. To my knowledge, yes.
 10 Q. Did you keep a copy of this document
 11 in your file?
 12 A. I don't recall.
 13 Q. Do you believe you did?
 14 A. Probably not.
 15 Q. It wasn't your practice to keep
 16 copies of research reports that you issued?
 17 A. It was kept in my computer, not on 18 file.
 19 Q. So it was kept in electronic form?
 20 A. Correct.
 21 Q. And was it the ordinary course of
 22 your business to keep copies of the research
 23 reports you issued in electronic form on your
 24 computer?
 25 A. It was the firm's practice, yes.

181810

1 Q. In this report dated January 26,
 2 1998, you continued to recommend a strong buy
 3 for the Coleman Escrow I and Coleman Escrow II
 4 zero coupon notes; correct?
 5 A. It appears to be, yes.
 6 Q. At the time, January 26, 1998, were
 7 you aware that Sunbeam, counseled by Morgan
 8 Stanley, was in conversations with Coleman
 9 about acquiring Coleman?
 10 A. I did not know.
 11 Q. Do you know when you learned that
 12 fact?
 13 A. When it was announced.
 14 Q. Have you had a chance to review this 15 document recently?
 16 A. Not really, no.
 17 Q. Okay. Well, we'll go through it a
 18 bit at a time. If you look at the summary and 19 investment conclusions, I'll ask you to read
 20 that first paragraph to yourself.
 21 A. Um-hmm.
 22 Q. You've had a chance to read that
 23 paragraph?
 24 A. Yes, I have.
 25 Q. And those are statements that you

1 A. I believe so, yes.
 2 Q. And you believed them to be correct
 3 at the time you issued them?
 4 A. I believe so.
 5 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 6 Q. You published them?
 7 A. I believe so, yes.
 8 Q. If you turn to the document that
 9 bears the page number four of the document,
 10 "Coleman Company 1997 Summary Financial 11 Forecast"?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. Again, that's a financial forecast
 14 that you derived?
 15 A. I believe so, yes.
 16 Q. Some of the numbers are historical
 17 and some of them are estimates that you
 18 created?
 19 A. It appears to be, yes.
 20 Q. And, likewise, the following page is 21 a similar set of estimates for 1998, some of 22 which were historical and others reflect work
 23 that you did?
 24 A. I believe --
 25 MS. BROWN: Object to form. You

1 published in January of 1998?
 2 A. To my recollection, yes.
 3 Q. And you believed them to be correct
 4 at the time?
 5 A. I believe so, yes.
 6 Q. Turn to a couple of paragraphs later
 7 that begins, "At the end of 1996." Do you see
 8 that paragraph?
 9 A. Um-hmm.
 10 Q. And about two-thirds of the way
 11 through the paragraph there is a sentence that 12 reads, "Fundamentally, Coleman is in its best
 13 position in nearly five years."
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. You wrote that?
 16 A. Yes, I did.
 17 Q. And you believed that to be true
 18 when you wrote it?
 19 A. I believe so, yes.
 20 Q. Turn to the next page. There is a
 21 listing of investment strengths and
 22 weaknesses. See that?
 23 A. Yes, I do.
 24 Q. Again, those are statements that you
 25 made?

1 said historical for 1998.
 2 MR. BRODY: Well, the document is
 3 entitled 1998, but it contains 1997
 4 numbers, among other things. Let me
 5 start over.
 6 Q. Page No. 5, it's entitled "Coleman
 7 Company 1998 Summary and Financial Forecast."
 8 It contains some historical numbers from 1997?
 9 A. Yes, it does.
 10 Q. And it contains some estimated
 11 numbers for 1997 and 1998?
 12 A. It appears to, yes.
 13 Q. And those estimates are estimates
 14 that you created?
 15 A. I believe so, yes.
 16 Q. And at the time you published these
 17 numbers, you believed them to be the best
 18 estimates that you could come up with; is that
 19 correct?
 20 A. To the best of my recollection, yes.
 21 Q. Now, there is no reference in here,
 22 as best I can tell, to multiples of EBITDA,
 23 the 12.0 and the 13.4 numbers, for example,
 24 that we saw in Exhibit 272. Any reason to 25 believe that you thought that those had

019482

1 changed between October of 1997 and January of
 2 1998?
 3 A. I cannot recall.
 4 Q. You cannot recall any reason?
 5 A. Cannot recall.
 6 Q. At the time you published this
 7 report, you believed it to be true and the
 8 best estimate of what you expected to happen?
 9 A. I believe so, yes.
 10 Q. Did you continue to follow Coleman
 11 after this date?
 12 A. I can't recall.
 13 Q. Did you ever come to learn that any
 14 of the statements that you made in the report
 15 we've marked as Exhibit 275 were incorrect?
 16 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 17 A. Not to my recollection.
 18 Q. Now, when you wrote one of these
 19 documents and they were published, do you know
 20 to whom they were sent?
 21 A. No, I do not.
 22 Q. Do you know how many of them were
 23 sent out?
 24 A. No, I do not.
 25 Q. Can you estimate hundreds or

1 mentioned Coleman.
 2 Q. What do you remember of that
 3 conversation? Who was it with?
 4 A. Bob Kitts.
 5 Q. What do you remember Mr. Kitts
 6 asking you?
 7 A. Do you have any good consumer
 8 product companies in high yield that you feel
 9 could be takeover candidates?
 10 Q. And what did you tell him?
 11 A. I remember Coleman was on the list
 12 and probably Playtex.
 13 Q. Did you cover Playtex?
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. Besides those two companies, any
 16 others that you remember?
 17 A. I can't recall.
 18 Q. Do you remember when this
 19 conversation was with Mr. Kitts?
 20 A. No, I do not.
 21 Q. Do you remember giving him copies of 22 your reports?
 23 A. No, I do not.
 24 Q. Do you know if he had them?
 25 A. He would have had access to them,

1 thousands or any idea?
 2 A. I can safely say less than a
 3 thousand, but that's about all I can give you.
 4 Q. Do you know if it was more than a
 5 hundred?
 6 A. No, I don't.
 7 Q. Now, I believe you testified in
 8 response to an earlier question that you first
 9 learned of the possible transaction between
 10 Sunbeam and Coleman when the deal was publicly
 11 announced; is that correct?
 12 A. That's correct.
 13 Q. Do you know how it was that you came
 14 to learn of it?
 15 A. No, I don't remember.
 16 Q. Prior to that date, that 17 announcement date, do you remember anyone from 18 any other division within Morgan Stanley
 19 asking you for information about Coleman?
 20 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 21 A. No one asked me directly about
 22 Coleman, no.
 23 Q. Did people ask you indirectly?
 24 A. There was one time when I was asked
 25 for potential acquisition targets, and I

1 yes.
 2 Q. How?
 3 A. We're the same firm, and it's all on
 4 a -- it's all on a portal.
 5 Q. Okay. So someone in investment
 6 banking could call up your reports on a
 7 computer portal?
 8 A. Correct.
 9 Q. After that conversation with
 10 Mr. Kitts, did you have any follow-up
 11 conversations with him?
 12 A. No, I did not.
 13 Q. And then when the deal was 14 announced, did you have further conversations
 15 with Mr. Kitts?
 16 A. I don't recall who -- no, I don't
 17 believe I did directly.
 18 Q. Do you know a Morgan Stanley
 19 employee by the name of Bill Strong, William
 20 Strong?
 21 A. Yes, I do.
 22 Q. Did you ever work with Mr. Strong on 23 the Coleman or Sunbeam transaction?
 24 A. Not directly, no.
 25 Q. Did you work with him indirectly?

018483

1 A. Indirectly, yes.
 2 Q. In what way?
 3 A. They had me look at the transaction
 4 from -- basically giving what I knew about
 5 Coleman during that due diligence process.
 6 Q. Can you explain what you mean by
 7 that?
 8 A. In terms of as they were looking at
 9 Coleman as an acquisition target, what I
 10 thought of the company, could I verify
 11 statements by management.
 12 Q. Who did you work with?
 13 A. The only name I can remember
 14 directly is Chris Whelan.
 15 Q. In connection with that work, did
 16 Mr. Whelan or others show you financial 17 analyses that the investment bankers had
 18 prepared about Coleman?
 19 A. I don't recall.
 20 Q. Well, we'll go through that in a
 21 bit. And you understand Mr. Whelan to be
 22 working in Mr. Strong's organization?
 23 A. No, he was not. Chris Whelan worked
 24 for credit, which is -- they worked with the 25 rating agencies to determine what rating a

1 A. Yes, I do.
 2 Q. Ms. Eltrich, I'm handing you what
 3 has previously been marked as Exhibit 89. And 4 up at the top it says "Preliminary Draft," but 5 I believe the testimony is this is as final as
 6 it got. And there is some handwriting there,
 7 Tyrone Chang, on the first page. Do you know
 8 a Mr. Tyrone Chang?
 9 A. Not to my recollection.
 10 Q. There are some things in here I may 11 ask you about, but the first thing I'm going
 12 to ask you about this document is have you
 13 ever seen it before?
 14 A. Not my recollection.
 15 Q. Well, that's going to make the other
 16 questions go a little faster. I will
 17 represent to you that this is a presentation
 18 to the board of directors of Sunbeam about 19 Coleman. The title is, "Presentation to the 20 Board of Directors Camper," but it's not to 21 the Coleman board. It's about Coleman. And I
 22 would ask you to turn to the page bearing
 23 number two. It's got the production number in 24 the corner ending with 64. And it's entitled
 25 "Strategic Rationale Camper." Have you ever

1 bond will be issued with.
 2 Q. What do you mean by saying this was
 3 indirectly from Mr. Strong?
 4 A. Because we're the same firm and it
 5 was the same deal.
 6 Q. Did you understand Mr. Strong to be
 7 in charge of the deal?
 8 A. No.
 9 MS. BROWN: Object to the form.
 10 Q. Ms. Eltrich, were you aware that
 11 Morgan Stanley advised the board of directors
 12 of Sunbeam about the Coleman transaction?
 13 A. I was aware, yes.
 14 Q. Are you aware that Morgan Stanley
 15 made a presentation to the Sunbeam board of
 16 directors?
 17 A. I was not directly aware, no.
 18 Q. Did you ever, to your knowledge, see
 19 a presentation that they made?
 20 A. Not to my knowledge, no.
 21 Q. Were you aware that Morgan Stanley
 22 issued a fairness opinion?
 23 A. Not directly, no.
 24 Q. Do you know what a fairness opinion
 25 is?

1 seen that before?
 2 A. Not to my recollection.
 3 Q. If you turn to Page 16 of the
 4 document, it ends with the production number
 5 82. It's entitled "Summary of Camper
 6 Evaluation Analyses." Do you see that?
 7 A. Yes, I do.
 8 Q. And what is contained therein is a
 9 trading analysis, a precedent transaction
 10 analysis, a discounted cash flow, and an 11 estimated value of synergies. Do you see
 12 those numbers?
 13 A. Yes, I do.
 14 Q. Prior to this deposition had you
 15 seen those numbers before?
 16 A. Not to my recollection.
 17 Q. If you look at the trading analysis
 18 at the beginning, there are various multiples
 19 of EBITDA and EBIT contained therein, among 20 other things. Do you ever remember having
 21 consultations with anyone at Morgan Stanley
 22 about what was the appropriate multiple to
 23 use?
 24 A. No, I do not think I did.
 25 Q. And in the precedent trading

01814
781810

1 analysis, do you remember discussing those
 2 multiples or the appropriate transactions to
 3 use as precedents with anyone at Morgan
 4 Stanley?
 5 A. Not to my recollection.
 6 Q. The last item refers to estimated
 7 value of synergies. Do you remember ever
 8 performing any analysis of synergies that
 9 would or could result from this transaction?
 10 A. Not to my recollection.
 11 Q. If you turn to the appendix of this
 12 document, it's Page 54. It ends Page 22, 022.
 13 There is a description of various premiums
 14 paid in consumer and sporting goods
 15 transactions. Do you see that?
 16 A. Yes, I do.
 17 Q. And it goes on for a couple of 18 pages. Have you ever seen this before?
 19 A. Not that I recall, no.
 20 Q. Now, when we were looking at 21 Exhibit 272, your initiation of coverage for 22 Coleman, at the end of the document you had 23 various other transactions that you compared 24 Coleman to.
 25 A. Yes.

1 A. No, I have not.
 2 Q. Do you know if you were ever asked
 3 questions about the fairness of the
 4 transaction to the shareholders of Sunbeam?
 5 A. To my recollection, no.
 6 Q. Now, the record reflects that Morgan
 7 Stanley was retained by Sunbeam to assist it
 8 in the fall of 1997. I'll just state that for 9 you. You don't have to believe me, but I
 10 believe that's what the record will reflect.
 11 And I believe your testimony is you first 12 learned of the Coleman transaction in March of 13 '98?
 14 A. To my recollection, yes.
 15 Q. Between the fall of '97 and March of 16 98, did you receive any other questions, other
 17 than the ones from Mr. Kitts about potential
 18 takeover candidates, relating to the work that 19 Morgan Stanley did for Sunbeam?
 20 A. No.
 21 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 22 A. Not that I recall.
 23 Q. Did you have any knowledge of what
 24 Morgan Stanley was doing for Sunbeam?
 25 A. Not that I recall.

1 Q. Do you believe that the source for
 2 your information was a document such as the
 3 one we're looking at here, Page 55, 56?
 4 MS. BROWN: Objection to form
 5 A. I can't -- like I said, I don't know
 6 if I got it from banking or equity. I don't
 7 know who kept track.
 8 Q. Okay. And this doesn't look
 9 familiar to you?
 10 A. It's the same format as the firm
 11 uses, but, again, I don't know who the source
 12 is.
 13 Q. Okay. When you received that
 14 information from either banking or equity, did
 15 you keep a copy of it in your files?
 16 A. I can't recall.
 17 Q. Do you know if you received it in
 18 hard copy form or electronic form?
 19 A. It would have been electronically.
 20 Q. In addition to making the 21 presentation we've seen that's been marked as 22 Exhibit 89, Morgan Stanley prepared a fairness
 23 opinion or a fairness opinion letter relating 24 to this transaction. Have you ever seen that
 25 before?

1 Q. And I understand you've never worked
 2 in the investment banking division of Morgan
 3 Stanley?
 4 A. No, I have not.
 5 Q. Do you know what they were doing or
 6 what their duties were for Sunbeam?
 7 A. Not that I recall.
 8 Q. At some point Morgan Stanley was
 9 looking for a company to acquire Sunbeam. Did
 10 you have anything to do or were you asked any 11 questions about efforts to find a company to 12 acquire Sunbeam?
 13 A. Not that I recall.
 14 Q. And obviously at some point Morgan
 15 Stanley was looking for a company for Sunbeam
 16 to buy, and I believe you testified about your 17 conversations with Mr. Kitts prior to the 18 announcement. Do you have any other
 19 involvement or knowledge of the work that 20 Morgan Stanley did on the buy side?
 21 A. No, I did not.
 22 Q. Are you aware that Morgan Stanley's
 23 chairman was a gentleman by the name of Al
 24 Dunlap?
 25 MS. BROWN: Excuse me? Object.

018185

1 MR. BRODY: I misspoke. Let me
 2 withdraw that.
 3 Q. Are you aware that Sunbeam's
 4 chairman was an individual by the name of Al
 5 Dunlap?
 6 A. I am now, yes.
 7 Q. Were you aware of that prior to the
 8 announcement of this deal?
 9 A. No. I didn't know who he was.
 10 Q. Between the announcement of the deal
 11 and its closing, did you have anything to do
 12 with Mr. Dunlap?
 13 A. As memory recollects, I listened to 14 one of his earnings conference calls, but I
 15 can't recall what direct due diligence I had
 16 with him.
 17 Q. Do you believe that earnings
 18 conference call was between the announcement
 19 and the closing?
 20 A. Actually, I shouldn't -- I don't
 21 know if -- I think it was actually the 22 announcement conference call. I don't think
 23 it was in an earnings conference call. I'm 24 sorry. It was the actual announcement call.
 25 Q. The announcement of the deal?

1 Paper?
 2 A. I don't recall.
 3 Q. Is it correct that at the time of 4 this deal, the announcement of this deal,
 5 Morgan Stanley did not cover Sunbeam?
 6 A. I don't recall.
 7 Q. Do you recall any coverage that it
 8 provided?
 9 A. I don't recall any coverage, no.
 10 Q. Were you ever asked to consider
 11 covering Sunbeam securities?
 12 A. It was an investment grade company,
 13 so no.
 14 Q. Do you know if others within the 15 company were asked to cover --
 16 A. Not to my recollection.
 17 Q. I believe I asked you this before.
 18 You understand that Mr. Conway, Andrew Conway,
 19 was an equity analyst?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. Did you ever have any conversations
 22 with Mr. Conway about Sunbeam or Coleman?
 23 A. Not that I recall. Actually, his
 24 junior, Jim Dormer, was going to do most of 25 the work if they were to initiate coverage.

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. We'll get to that. Have you ever
 3 covered any other companies or investigated
 4 covering any other companies that Mr. Dunlap
 5 was involved in?
 6 A. Not that I recall.
 7 Q. Do you know a company by the name of
 8 Scott Paper?
 9 A. I've heard of the company, yes.
 10 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley
 11 covered Scott Paper?
 12 A. I don't know.
 13 Q. Did you?
 14 A. No, I did not.
 15 Q. So you didn't do any work on Scott
 16 Paper?
 17 A. No, I've never done work.
 18 Q. Have you ever heard it suggested by 19 anyone that Mr. Dunlap's turnaround of Scott
 20 Paper was not real?
 21 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 22 A. No, I have not, can't recollect.
 23 Q. Do you remember any conversations
 24 with anyone at Morgan Stanley about whether
 25 Mr. Dunlap had accomplished anything at Scott

1 Q. Did you have any conversations with
 2 Mr. Dormer?
 3 A. I'm sure I did, but I don't recall
 4 them specifically.
 5 Q. Do you have any general recollection
 6 of items that you discussed with Mr. Dormer?
 7 A. No, I do not.
 8 MR. BRODY: Why don't we go off the
 9 record for a minute. We need to change
 10 the tape.
 11 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now
 12 11:39. We've reached the end of tape
 13 number one, and we are off the record.
 14 The time is now 11:41, and this is 15 tape number two, and we are back on the
 16 record.
 17 (Document Bates stamped CPH
 18 251099-251122 marked CPH Exhibit 276
 19 for identification, as of this date.)
 20 Q. In prior testimony you've talked
 21 about how you learned of the Sunbeam Coleman
 22 transaction through an announcement; is that
 23 correct?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. I'm going to show you what the court

987810

1 reporter has marked as Exhibit 276, and if you
 2 turn to the page ending with the number 119,
 3 there is a list of participants and a number
 4 -- I'll wait until you're there.
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. And at number 257 is your name. And
 7 if you turn to Page 115, it describes that
 8 that's a list of participants, too. And it's 9 about a conference call on March 2, 1998. See
 10 that?
 11 A. Yes, I do.
 12 Q. Have you ever seen this document
 13 before?
 14 A. No, I have not.
 15 Q. There is some handwriting on the 16 first couple of pages of the document. Do you
 17 recognize that handwriting?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. The very beginning.
 20 A. Oh. No, I do not recognize the
 21 handwriting.
 22 Q. There is evidence in the case that
 23 the deal was publicly announced on March 2nd.
 24 Do you recognize this as a list of people who
 25 participated in a conference call on March 2,

1 Q. What do you remember discussing with
 2 him?
 3 A. That we just made a lot of money.
 4 Q. Why is that?
 5 A. Because the Coleman bonds were going
 6 to be taken out.
 7 Q. How did you know that?
 8 A. I believe -- this is to my
 9 recollection, but I believe they announced
 10 that plan in the -- or it may have been our 11 own speculation, but either way the bonds were 12 getting taken out or the bonds would be 13 investment grade because Sunbeam was 14 investment grade, so they would appreciate in 15 value.
 16 Q. Your idea was that there would be a
 17 reduced risk of loss on the bonds with Sunbeam
 18 as the ultimate owner?
 19 A. Correct.
 20 Q. Do you know if the bonds were, in 21 fact, taken out?
 22 A. To my recollection, yes, the bonds
 23 were taken out.
 24 Q. Do you know why they were taken out?
 25 And by "taken out" you mean they were

1 1998?
 2 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
 3 A. I couldn't tell you.
 4 Q. You believe you learned of the deal
 5 from participating in a conference call; is
 6 that correct?
 7 A. No, it is not.
 8 Q. How did you learn of the deal?
 9 A. I believe it was when it was 10 publicly announced on the press wire.
 11 Q. Then did you thereafter participate
 12 in a conference call?
 13 A. I can't specifically recall, but I
 14 believe so.
 15 Q. After the deal was publicly
 16 announced on the press wire, did you do
 17 anything?
 18 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 19 Q. In relation to the deal?
 20 A. I can't recall.
 21 Q. Do you remember discussing the
 22 announcement with anyone?
 23 A. I discussed it with my trader.
 24 Q. That's Mr. Lily?
 25 A. Yes.

1 redeemed?
 2 A. Correct.
 3 Q. They were sold or --
 4 A. They were paid back.
 5 Q. Paid back. Do you know why they
 6 were redeemed?
 7 A. I can't recall specifically what the 8 capital structure decision was on that.
 9 Q. Do you know who was involved in that
 10 capital structure decision?
 11 A. No, I do not.
 12 Q. Did your trading operation, the high
 13 yield group, in fact, make money on these 14 bonds?
 15 A. Yes, we did.
 16 Q. Do you remember how big a position
 17 you had?
 18 A. No, I don't remember.
 19 Q. But are we talking millions or?
 20 A. I don't remember.
 21 Q. Aside from the conversation with
 22 Mr. Lily about the fact that you would make 23 money on the bonds, do you remember any other
 24 conversations you had after the announcement?
 25 A. All I remember talking to 018487

1 specifically is Chris Whelan.
 2 Q. And that was the conversation you
 3 referred to earlier?
 4 A. There were multiple conversations,
 5 and I couldn't recall any of them
 6 specifically.
 7 Q. Mr. Whelan worked in the credit
 8 group?
 9 A. Correct.
 10 Q. Was his office near yours?
 11 A. It was in the same building.
 12 Q. Where was that?
 13 A. 1585 Broadway. He may have been in 14 a different building, but he was within 15 blocks.
 16 Q. What do you remember being your
 17 first conversation with Mr. Whelan about this?
 18 A. I don't remember.
 19 Q. Do you know why Mr. Whelan and the 20 credit group were involved in the transaction?
 21 A. The credit group's function is to 22 get a rating from the rating agency. So his
 23 function was to get a rating for the converts.
 24 Q. Did Mr. Whelan, to your knowledge,
 25 prepare a rating agency presentation?

1 Q. Sometimes face to face?
 2 A. I don't recall.
 3 Q. Sometimes on the phone?
 4 A. Most likely, yes.
 5 Q. And I believe you testified that
 6 Mr. Whelan asked you questions about Coleman;
 7 is that correct?
 8 A. Most likely, yes.
 9 Q. Do you remember any of the specifics
 10 he asked you about Coleman?
 11 A. No, I do not.
 12 Q. Do you remember any of the areas or 13 topics he asked about?
 14 A. No, I do not.
 15 Q. Ms. Eltrich, I'm showing you what
 16 has been marked as Exhibit 9 in a prior
 17 deposition, and like the other big one I gave 18 you, I'm just going to first ask you if this
 19 is something you've ever seen before.
 20 A. Not to my recollection, no.
 21 Q. In connection with any of the work
 22 that you did for Morgan Stanley beginning on 23 the date of announcement and going forward, do
 24 you know if you were ever shown any of the 25 discussion materials or presentation books

1 A. I wouldn't have been involved in
 2 that.
 3 Q. I believe you testified that
 4 Mr. Whelan asked you some questions and asked
 5 you to verify certain statements that they
 6 were making; is that correct?
 7 A. To my recollection, yes.
 8 Q. Do you remember what sorts of things
 9 Mr. Whelan asked you about?
 10 A. No, I don't.
 11 Q. Did you communicate with him face to 12 face or on the telephone?
 13 A. I don't recall.
 14 Q. Do you know if you sent emails back
 15 and forth to Mr. Whelan?
 16 A. I don't specifically recall.
 17 Q. What do you think?
 18 A. I would say most --
 19 MS. BROWN: Objection. Speculation.
 20 A. Pure speculation would be most
 21 likely, yes.
 22 Q. Most likely yes emails?
 23 A. Yes. Well, did we email, yes. Was 24 that the primary form of the communication, I
 25 don't recall.

1 that Morgan Stanley prepared for use in its
 2 efforts on behalf of Sunbeam?
 3 A. Not that I recall.
 4 Q. If you turn to the page ending in
 5 290, it's very early in the document, it's
 6 about the fifth or sixth page of the document
 7 entitled "Investment Rationale."
 8 A. Um-hmm.
 9 Q. Got it?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. Is that a document you've ever seen
 12 before?
 13 A. I don't recall.
 14 Q. The first bullet point refers to
 15 Sunbeam being an attractive growth story. Did
 16 you ever see that phraseology contained in
 17 Morgan Stanley presentations or materials?
 18 A. I don't recall specifically.
 19 Q. Do you recall generally that people
 20 discussed Sunbeam as an attractive growth
 21 story?
 22 A. I don't recall.
 23 Q. The next item refers to the profound
 24 transformation at Sunbeam. Do you recall any 25 discussions within Morgan Stanley or with

16div 10488

1 Sunbeam about this profound transformation?
 2 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 3 A. I can't specifically recall
 4 anything.
 5 Q. Do you recall generally?
 6 A. Commitment committee. That would be
 7 it.
 8 Q. Were you at the commitment
 9 committee?
 10 A. I was at meetings. Again, I was --
 11 I can't remember the exact time frame because,
 12 again, I was eight and a half months pregnant,
 13 but I was definitely in meetings discussing
 14 the bridge loan, but I can't remember if it
 15 was -- most likely it was the commitment
 16 committee, but I can't recall.
 17 Q. Okay. We'll get to that in a
 18 moment. The next item refers to tremendous
 19 intrinsic value in the company. Do you recall
 20 any discussions within Morgan Stanley about
 21 that?
 22 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 23 A. None that I directly participated
 24 in.
 25 Q. Do you remember any discussion about

1 early March 1998 and until the first stage of
 2 the Coleman transaction closed, which I'll
 3 state was on March 30th, 1998, in that March
 4 time frame, and I know you were only there for 5 part of it, what did you work on relating to 6 the deal?
 7 A. Very little.
 8 Q. Well, if anything, what do you
 9 recall?
 10 A. All I recall is a couple of 11 conference calls for due diligence on
 12 different parts of the varying acquisitions
 13 and one for -- I believe one for Sunbeam. But 14 I would clarify I was not really doing the due
 15 diligence role. It was more just to verify
 16 statements on Coleman.
 17 Q. Now, when you referred to the 18 different parts of the acquisition, by that do
 19 you mean First Alert --
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. -- Signature Brands, and Coleman?
 22 A. Correct.
 23 Q. So you were on conference calls
 24 about those companies?
 25 A. Correct.

1 the intrinsic value of Sunbeam?
 2 A. No.
 3 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 4 A. I don't recall.
 5 Q. Are you aware that Mr. Dunlap had
 6 published a book?
 7 A. No, I was not aware.
 8 Q. You have not seen his book Mean
 9 Business?
 10 A. Not that I'm aware of, no.
 11 Q. Nobody ever gave you a copy?
 12 A. No. I have plenty of other bad CEOs
 13 who have given me books, so...
 14 Q. Not that one?
 15 A. Not that one.
 16 Q. Were you involved in any efforts at 17 Morgan Stanley in preparing materials to go to 18 the public or to go to investors in Sunbeam
 19 about this transaction?
 20 A. No, I was not.
 21 Q. So you weren't involved in any
 22 announcements, any press statements or public
 23 statements about the announcement or the deal?
 24 A. I believe I was not.
 25 Q. Now, after the deal was announced in

1 Q. And you were also on, you believe, a
 2 conference call about Sunbeam?
 3 A. If memory serves correct, yes.
 4 Q. And then you had some role in the
 5 events leading up to the leveraged finance
 6 credit committee?
 7 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 8 A. I did not have roles in that, no.
 9 Q. But you participated in the meeting?
 10 A. I was at the meeting, again, to 11 provide my knowledge on Coleman.
 12 Q. Anything else that you remember
 13 doing in that time frame?
 14 A. No.
 15 Q. Now, you had a daughter?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. Your daughter was born when?
 18 A. March 25th.
 19 Q. Did you work up until she was born?
 20 A. Pretty much, yes.
 21 Q. So you were probably, I don't know
 22 what day of the week it was, but were you in 23 the office on the 24th?
 24 A. No.
 25 Q. Were you there on the 23rd?

018489

1 A. I don't recall.
 2 Q. Okay. Then I think it's safe to
 3 assume after she was born, you weren't around
 4 for a while?
 5 A. That is correct. I took I believe
 6 twelve or fourteen weeks.
 7 Q. So you didn't come back until
 8 sometime in the summer?
 9 A. I came back the day Al Dunlap was 10 fired.
 11 Q. June 15th.
 12 A. There you go.
 13 Q. So between sometime around the 14 25th-ish of March until June 15th or 15 thereabouts you weren't around?
 16 A. Correct.
 17 Q. And during that time frame did you
 18 get stuff at home? Did you do anything
 19 relating to Sunbeam?
 20 A. I did not.
 21 Q. So let's focus on the time period
 22 between the announcement and the 25th or so of 23 March when you ceased working for the time
 24 being. Was there a team or group of people
 25 that was put together to work on this deal?

1 listed. Do you know what Mr. Foley did on the
 2 transaction?
 3 A. I don't think he was that involved,
 4 but I can't recall specifically.
 5 Q. Fair enough. If you turn to the
 6 beginning of this document, Page 3 of the fax,
 7 it describes a number of individuals at 8 Sunbeam. It goes on for two pages. I would
 9 like you to tell me if you recall speaking
 10 with any of those individuals.
 11 A. No, I do not recall.
 12 Q. If you turn to Page 4 of the 13 document, the first name listed there is Bob 14 Gluck. Do you recognize Mr. Gluck to be the 15 controller or senior accounting officer at
 16 Sunbeam?
 17 A. It's what's listed here. If this is 18 correct, then yes.
 19 Q. Do you know if Mr. Gluck was on the 20 Sunbeam call that you participated on?
 21 A. I can't recall.
 22 Q. And any of these other names, do you
 23 remember them being involved in that call?
 24 A. I really can't recall.
 25 Q. The next several pages are

1 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 2 A. I would assume so.
 3 (Revised Working Group List for
 4 Sunbeam Corp. marked CPH Exhibit 277
 5 for identification, as of this date.)
 6 Q. Ms. Eltrich, I've given you what has
 7 been marked as Exhibit 277. And the subject
 8 of the memorandum is "Revised Working Group
 9 List for Sunbeam Corp." Do you see that?
 10 A. Um-hmm.
 11 Q. And you were listed as a recipient
 12 on this memorandum?
 13 A. Yes, I am.
 14 Q. And if you turn to Page 11 of the 15 fax, it bears the Bates number Morgan Stanley
 16 Confidential 4683.
 17 A. Um-hmm.
 18 Q. There is a list of Morgan Stanley
 19 participants, including yourself; correct?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. Do you recall if you received this
 22 working group list?
 23 A. I don't recall, no.
 24 Q. Mr. Conway and Mr. Dormer are listed
 25 there, who we've spoken about. Mr. Foley is

1 individuals from Morgan Stanley. And I'm
 2 going to ask you just to go through them.
 3 We'll go through it a page at a time, but I'm 4 just going to ask you if you remember having
 5 any communications, conversations, phone
 6 calls, face to face, email, or otherwise with 7 these individuals about the Sunbeam deal or
 8 about Coleman.
 9 The first page has Mr. Fiedorek,
 10 Mr. Strong, Mr. Savarie, Mr. Stynes. Do you
 11 remember them, working with them?
 12 A. I remember Bruce Fiedorek, I
 13 remember Bill Strong, but I don't recall any
 14 specific conversations on Sunbeam or Coleman.
 15 Q. Do you remember Mr. Fiedorek and 16 Mr. Strong from the Sunbeam transaction or
 17 just from being at Morgan Stanley?
 18 A. Just from being at Morgan Stanley.
 19 Q. The next page identifies Mr. Kitts,
 20 and you've spoken about your conversation with 21 Mr. Kitts.
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. Do you remember any other
 24 conversations with him?
 25 A. I don't.

067810

1 Q. We've spoken about Mr. Chang. There
 2 is Alexander Fuchs. Do you remember any
 3 conversations with him?
 4 A. No, I do not.
 5 Q. Or Mr. Yoo?
 6 A. No, I do not.
 7 Q. The next page identifies the client
 8 services group. Do you remember any 9 conversations with them or communications of 10 any kind with them about Sunbeam?
 11 A. No, I do not.
 12 Q. The next page identifies equity
 13 capital markets. Likewise, do you remember
 14 any conversations with them?
 15 A. No, I do not.
 16 Q. Do you know Ruth Porat?
 17 A. I know her through the firm, yes.
 18 Q. You don't remember her from the 19 Sunbeam deal?
 20 A. No, I do not.
 21 Q. Likewise, Mr. Harris, do you know
 22 him?
 23 A. Actually, I don't recall him.
 24 Q. The next page identifies Mr. Whelan,
 25 and you've testified about him. Do you

1 Q. Likewise, Mr. Burchill or Mr. Seth?
 2 A. I don't recall them.
 3 Q. Next page we've spoken about. The
 4 next page, Page 12, is for a law firm Davis
 5 Polk & Wardell. Did you ever deal with
 6 lawyers on this deal?
 7 A. Not that I recall.
 8 Q. Two pages later there is a listing
 9 of even more lawyers from Skadden Arps. Did
 10 you have any dealings with them?
 11 A. Not that I recall.
 12 Q. Page 16 of the document refers to 13 Coopers & Lybrand. Did you have any dealings
 14 with Coopers?
 15 A. Not that I recall.
 16 Q. Do you know what Coopers did on this
 17 transaction?
 18 A. No. I was not involved in that.
 19 Q. The next two pages, Ernst & Young,
 20 do you know what they did?
 21 A. I was not involved in that.
 22 Q. Ernst & Young were auditors for 23 Coleman. On the conference call you were on 24 about Coleman, do you know if the auditors
 25 were on the call?

1 remember any conversations with
 2 Mr. Kunreuther?
 3 A. No, I do not.
 4 Q. Turn to the next page, it identifies
 5 leveraged finance. And do you understand them
 6 to be the organization within Morgan Stanley
 7 that was making the loan?
 8 A. Correct.
 9 Q. Did you have any dealings with any
 10 of these individuals?
 11 A. I dealt frequently with Rom Smith
 12 and Michael Hart.
 13 Q. Did you have dealings with them on
 14 this deal?
 15 A. I'm sure at some point we had
 16 conversations on it.
 17 Q. You said you frequently dealt with 18 Mr. Smith and Mr. Hart. What about?
 19 A. Because a lot of companies that have 20 high yield also have bank debt, so we would
 21 compare notes on the market, etc.
 22 Q. Do you remember comparing notes with 23 either of those individuals on Coleman or
 24 Sunbeam?
 25 A. No, I do not.

1 A. I don't know.
 2 Q. We're going to skip a couple of
 3 pages and ask you to turn to Page 22 of the
 4 document, and you see the listing for Arthur
 5 Andersen?
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. And it continues for a couple of
 8 pages. It lists Mr. Harlow, Mr. Bornstein,
 9 and then some other individuals?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. Did you have any conversations with 12 those gentlemen?
 13 A. Not that I recall.
 14 Q. Do you remember if there were
 15 accountants from Arthur Andersen on the due
 16 diligence calls or the conference calls that 17 you participated in?
 18 A. I can't recall.
 19 Q. After the listing of Arthur
 20 Andersen, there is a listing for Bank America
 21 followed by First Union. Do you know what
 22 roles those entities played?
 23 A. I believe they were also
 24 participating in the bridge loan.
 25 Q. Did you have any conversations with

018491

1 them, with individuals from those companies?
 2 A. Not until after the deal fell apart.
 3 It was after I came back from maternity leave.
 4 Q. And when you refer to the deal
 5 falling apart, what do you mean?
 6 A. Meaning Sunbeam preannouncing that
 7 they were missing numbers, and we were not
 8 able to syndicate the bridge loan.
 9 Q. Were you involved in the efforts to 10 syndicate?
 11 A. No, I was not.
 12 Q. You indicated that you were on a
 13 number of conference calls. Do you understand
 14 those calls to be part of the due diligence
 15 process?
 16 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 17 A. To my recollection, I believe so.
 18 Q. What does the term "due diligence"
 19 mean to you?
 20 A. From a research perspective, due
 21 diligence for the available information that 22 we get is to learn as much as you can and to 23 identify the risk accordingly so that you can
 24 convey them to your investors.
 25 Q. Do you remember the purpose for your

1 instructional meetings where people told you
 2 how to do this kind of investigation or
 3 research?
 4 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 5 A. The primary source of learning was
 6 through, as a junior, sitting with the senior
 7 analysts and seeing what they did, and then
 8 within our research group, we tended to invoke
 9 best practices of here's a mistake I made, you
 10 don't make it. And one of my senior analysts
 11 that I worked with kept a due diligence
 12 checklist of questions for different
 13 industries that you should always ask. But 14 it's not something that you learn in a day.
 15 It's primarily done through experience.
 16 Q. You referred to best practices. How 17 are those communicated to other people within
 18 your group or within Morgan Stanley?
 19 A. Through research meetings.
 20 Q. Were they communicated in writing or 21 just --
 22 A. I don't recall.
 23 Q. Do you ever remember getting a memo
 24 or some other --
 25 A. I don't recall. I don't recall.

1 involvement in these various due diligence
 2 calls?
 3 MS. BROWN: Objection. Asked and
 4 answered.
 5 A. It was more to relate on how they --
 6 it was more to provide knowledge on Coleman
 7 than anything else.
 8 Q. When you participated in the 9 conference calls about Signature Brands and
 10 First Alert, did you say anything?
 11 A. To my recollection, no, I did not.
 12 Q. I take it nobody asked you anything?
 13 A. To my recollection, no.
 14 Q. Do you remember anything that was
 15 said in those conference calls?
 16 A. I really don't recall.
 17 Q. At Morgan Stanley or at Advest where 18 you had worked before, had you received any 19 training in how to do the investigation into 20 the risks that you just described?
 21 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 22 A. Describe what you mean by
 23 "training."
 24 Q. Well, had there been any within the 25 firm seminars or written materials or

1 Q. -- some other writing describing
 2 best practices?
 3 A. I don't recall.
 4 Q. You indicated that a colleague of
 5 yours had a due diligence checklist?
 6 A. He did, for example, for financial
 7 institutions, because I subbed for him when he
 8 was in Hong Kong for the summer, and he had 9 kept a checklist.
 10 Q. Who was that?
 11 A. Emil Costa.
 12 Q. Did you keep a copy of that after
 13 you stopped subbing for him?
 14 A. I did at Morgan Stanley. I was not
 15 able to take my files, obviously, to Goldman
 16 Sachs.
 17 Q. Of course. So while you were
 18 working at Morgan Stanley, you had this 19 checklist of the sorts of things to look for?
 20 A. For financial --
 21 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 22 Q. For the sorts of things to look
 23 into?
 24 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 25 A. For financial institutions.

018492

1 Q. Did you use that checklist when
 2 looking at companies that were not financial
 3 institutions?
 4 A. Maybe a couple. I mean to the best
 5 of my recollection, maybe a couple of the 6 bullet points. But every company is
 7 different, and the amounts of information you
 8 get for each company is different. So there
 9 is no cookie-cutter way of looking at due
 10 diligence.
 11 Q. I understand. I understand your 12 testimony. Aside from what you've just 13 described, do you remember there being any 14 documents or manuals on how to do due
 15 diligence?
 16 A. Within research, not that I recall.
 17 Q. Do you recall them being elsewhere
 18 in Morgan Stanley?
 19 A. I would not be aware.
 20 Q. Now, you participated in a number of 21 conference calls. Aside from the conference
 22 calls, were you ever told what else Morgan
 23 Stanley had done to investigate Sunbeam,
 24 Coleman, First Alert, or Signature Brands?
 25 A. Not that I recall.

1 A. To my recollection, yes.
 2 Q. Do you remember anything that was
 3 said in that call about First Alert?
 4 A. No, I really don't remember.
 5 Q. Signature Brands, that was another
 6 company that Sunbeam was acquiring?
 7 A. Yes.
 8 Q. And you participated in the call
 9 about Signature Brands?
 10 A. To my recollection, yes.
 11 Q. What do you remember about the call?
 12 A. I don't remember anything.
 13 Q. Again, did you dial into that call,
 14 or were you in a room with others?
 15 A. To my recollection, I dialed in.
 16 Q. Do you know anyone else who was on
 17 the call?
 18 A. I don't recall.
 19 Q. Do you remember anything that was
 20 said?
 21 A. No, I don't. I should clarify the
 22 only person I know who would have been on the 23 call with me is Chris Whelan.
 24 Q. Okay. Do you remember Mr. Whelan
 25 being on the calls or --

1 Q. So your knowledge of the
 2 investigation that was done is limited to
 3 those calls?
 4 MS. BROWN: Object to form and
 5 characterization.
 6 A. I couldn't recall specifically, but
 7 yes, I would say to the best of my
 8 recollection, my knowledge was confined to the 9 calls.
 10 Q. I would like to deal with each of 11 the calls individually. There was a call
 12 about First Alert?
 13 A. I believe so.
 14 Q. Do you remember anything about it?
 15 A. I really don't.
 16 Q. Do you know who was on it?
 17 A. No, I don't.
 18 Q. Do you know how long it lasted?
 19 A. No, I don't.
 20 Q. Do you remember participating on 21 your own phone, or were you in a room with 22 others speaking on the speaker phone?
 23 A. I believe I was on my own phone.
 24 Q. Was it a type of thing where you
 25 would dial in to a call?

1 A. I don't remember specifically, but I
 2 know he would have been on the calls.
 3 Q. The call about Sunbeam, do you
 4 remember when that took place in relation to
 5 the announcement or the closing?
 6 A. No, I do not.
 7 Q. Do you remember who was on the call?
 8 A. No, I do not.
 9 Q. Were there people other than Morgan
 10 Stanley people on the call?
 11 A. I don't recall.
 12 Q. Do you remember what was said?
 13 A. No, I don't.
 14 Q. Do you recall if you said anything?
 15 A. I don't recall.
 16 Q. Now, for these three calls, the
 17 First Alert, Signature Brands, and Sunbeam
 18 calls, did you take notes?
 19 A. I don't recall.
 20 Q. Would it have been your custom or
 21 practice to take notes?
 22 A. If it was a bond underwriting, yes.
 23 But as this wasn't a bond underwriting and I
 24 wouldn't have to convey the facts to 25 investors, not necessarily.

018493

1 Q. Do you remember if there was an
 2 agenda for the calls?
 3 A. I don't recall specifically.
 4 MS. BROWN: Let's just take a ten or
 5 fifteen-minute break and I'll just grab a
 6 snack and we'll start up again.
 7 MR. BRODY: That's fine with me if
 8 it's okay --
 9 THE WITNESS: Yes.
 10 MR. BRODY: Okay. We're off the
 11 record.
 12 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 12:01,
 13 and we're off the record.
 14 (Recess)
 15 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time on the 16 monitor is 12:23, and we are back on the
 17 record.
 18 Q. Ms. Eltrich, when we broke we were 19 talking about the due diligence calls and what 20 you remembered from them.
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. And I think we talked about
 23 Signature Brands, First Alert, and Sunbeam.
 24 Now I would like to talk about the call about
 25 Coleman.

1 A. I couldn't specifically recall.
 2 Q. If you would look at the fax tag
 3 line at the top, it indicates that it was sent
 4 from Morgan Stanley 212-761-0687 to 0590. Do
 5 you recognize 0590 to be the last digits of 6 your fax number?
 7 A. I can't remember.
 8 Q. Pull out Exhibit 277. It's the 9 working group list. It would be that
 10 document. And go to Page 11 of the document.
 11 It lists your fax number. That's your fax
 12 number, isn't it?
 13 A. If this document is correct, yes.
 14 Q. You don't have any reason to doubt
 15 it, do you?
 16 A. No.
 17 Q. If you turn to the second page of 18 the document that's been marked as
 19 Exhibit 249, it's a due diligence review
 20 agenda for Coleman Company. Do you ever
 21 remember looking at that or seeing that?
 22 A. I don't recall.
 23 Q. Do you know if those topics were 24 discussed in the conference call that you were 25 in?

1 A. Okay.
 2 Q. You were on a call in which Coleman
 3 was discussed as well?
 4 A. I believe so, yes.
 5 Q. Do you remember who was on the call?
 6 A. No, I do not.
 7 Q. Do you remember what was discussed?
 8 A. Not specifically, no.
 9 Q. Were you asked any questions on the
 10 call?
 11 A. Not that I recall.
 12 Q. Do you remember anything that you
 13 said on the call?
 14 A. No, I do not.
 15 Q. Anything said by others?
 16 A. Not that I recall, no.
 17 Q. Let me show you what previously has
 18 been marked as I believe Exhibit 249 in a
 19 prior deposition. Do you recognize that as a
 20 fax sent by Mr. Whelan to yourself?
 21 A. I believe so, yes.
 22 Q. And it's sent on March 5th, 1998?
 23 A. It appears to be, yes.
 24 Q. Do you believe that you received
 25 this fax on or about March 5th, 1998?

1 A. I don't recall.
 2 Q. Does this refresh your recollection
 3 at all about what was said?
 4 A. No. It really doesn't.
 5 Q. Do you remember individuals from
 6 outside of the Morgan Stanley companies that
 7 were involved in the Coleman due diligence
 8 call?
 9 A. I don't recall.
 10 Q. Do you know if there were
 11 accountants or Coleman people?
 12 A. I don't recall.
 13 Q. Do you remember taking notes of the
 14 call?
 15 A. I don't recall.
 16 Q. Had you taken notes, are those the 17 sorts of things you would have kept?
 18 A. On my computer. If I had taken
 19 notes, there would be notes on my computer.
 20 Q. Was it your practice at the time
 21 when you took notes to take them on the
 22 computer?
 23 A. Yes, it was.
 24 Q. What happened to your computer when 25 you left?

018491

1 A. I don't know.
 2 Q. The notes that you took on the
 3 computer, were they backed up to a network, or
 4 were they just kept on your computer?
 5 A. I don't recall. You basically had
 6 both drives, a network drive and your own
 7 drive, and I don't know which one I used.
 8 Q. Did you have a custom or a practice
 9 at the time?
 10 A. No, I don't recall.
 11 Q. Do you remember anything about what
 12 was said or not said on this Coleman due
 13 diligence call?
 14 A. No, I don't recall.
 15 Q. Did you participate in any efforts
 16 by Morgan Stanley to look at Sunbeam's
 17 reserves?
 18 A. No, I did not.
 19 Q. To contact any of Sunbeam's
 20 customers?
 21 A. Not to my recollection.
 22 Q. To investigate Sunbeam's current
 23 sales or budgets?
 24 A. Not to my recollection.
 25 Q. To look at how sales were made or

1 term loan was worth, our bridge loan was
 2 worth. It was putting that in context.
 3 Q. In connection with your
 4 investigation of Coleman, either to do your
 5 published research reports or to assist
 6 investment banking in doing due diligence,
 7 prior to the closing of the deal do you know
 8 if people from Morgan Stanley looked at
 9 Coleman's level of sales?
 10 A. I wasn't involved in that.
 11 Q. Or how Coleman made its sales to its
 12 customers?
 13 A. I was not involved in that.
 14 Q. Any conversations with Coleman's
 15 senior or junior management?
 16 A. With regard to their sales?
 17 Q. With regard to anything, aside from 18 your conversations with Mr. Shiffman.
 19 A. That's all I'm aware of.
 20 Q. Do you remember any communications
 21 with Coleman's accountants?
 22 MS. BROWN: Asked and answered.
 23 Objection.
 24 A. I was not involved.
 25 Q. And did you ever visit any of

1 revenue was recognized?
 2 A. Not to my recollection.
 3 Q. Did you participate in any
 4 conference calls or communications of any kind
 5 with people at Sunbeam other than senior
 6 management?
 7 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 8 A. Not that I recall.
 9 Q. Did you have any conversations or
 10 communications that you know of with Sunbeam's
 11 inside accountants or auditors?
 12 A. Not that I recall.
 13 Q. Did you personally -- I assume you
 14 weren't traveling much at the time. Did you
 15 ever visit Sunbeam's offices?
 16 A. Not in the month of March, no.
 17 Q. Did you visit thereafter?
 18 A. I can't recall if I went to the 19 offices. We did tour a couple of plants
 20 after.
 21 Q. After June?
 22 A. After June, yes.
 23 Q. Do you know what purpose you were 24 doing that for?
 25 A. It was in terms of seeing what our

1 Coleman's offices or facilities?
 2 A. I don't recall so, no.
 3 Q. I'm going to show you a series of
 4 documents that have been marked in other
 5 depositions. And on each of them my first
 6 question is going to be have you ever seen
 7 this before.
 8 A. Okay.
 9 Q. And then we'll see where we go from 10 there. The first document I'm showing you has 11 previously been marked as Exhibit 28. Have 12 you ever seen this before?
 13 A. I don't recall.
 14 Q. I take it this is not a document you
 15 prepared?
 16 A. I don't think so, no.
 17 Q. I'm next showing you what has been 18 marked as Exhibit 27. Have you ever seen this
 19 before?
 20 A. I don't think so, no.
 21 Q. There is a reference to fast track
 22 due diligence. Do you remember anyone ever
 23 referring to fast track due diligence?
 24 A. Not to my recollection.
 25 Q. You don't know what that means?

564810

1 A. I don't think so.
 2 Q. I show you what has previously been
 3 marked as Exhibit 31. Have you ever seen that
 4 before?
 5 A. I don't think so, no.
 6 Q. It gives information for calling in
 7 to various conference calls and indicates that
 8 there will be a conference call with the 9 Coleman auditors at 11:30, the Sunbeam
 10 auditors at 12, the Signature Brand auditors
 11 at 12:30, and the First Alert auditors at one.
 12 Does that refresh your recollection about
 13 whether you participated in any conference
 14 calls with accountants?
 15 A. No, it does not.
 16 Q. That doesn't ring a bell?
 17 A. No.
 18 Q. I'm showing you what has previously
 19 been marked as Exhibit 128. And it says,
 20 "Attached are the agendas for the due
 21 diligence conference calls with First Alert
 22 and Signature Brands." And I believe you
 23 testified that you were on certain calls with 24 or about First Alert and Signature Brands.
 25 I'm asking first if you've ever seen this

1 as Exhibit 33. It refers to a bring-down due
 2 diligence call. Are you familiar with the 3 concept of bring-down due diligence?
 4 A. I am not, no.
 5 Q. Are you familiar with the idea that
 6 sometimes shortly before a closing, the 7 parties will have a follow-up due diligence
 8 call to see if anything has changed since the 9 last time they talked?
 10 A. I'm aware of the concept, but I'm
 11 not involved in that side of the business.
 12 Q. Do you remember if one of these
 13 calls that you participated in was a
 14 bring-down call, served that purpose?
 15 A. Not to my awareness.
 16 Q. Document 33 that I've shown you,
 17 have you ever seen this before?
 18 A. This, no, I have not.
 19 Q. I've got one last one in this
 20 series, Ms. Eltrich. It's labeled Exhibit 34.
 21 Have you ever seen that document before?
 22 A. I don't recall so, no.
 23 Q. Do any of those documents refresh
 24 your recollection about what was said in the 25 due diligence calls?

1 before.
 2 A. I don't recall.
 3 Q. And second, do the agendas attached
 4 to this document refresh your recollection
 5 about what was discussed?
 6 A. No, it does not.
 7 Q. Okay. You can put that aside. I'm
 8 now showing you what has been marked
 9 previously as Exhibit 32. And it's entitled
 10 "Accounting Due Diligence." And it's topics
 11 one through 18. Have you ever seen that
 12 before?
 13 A. Not to my recollection.
 14 Q. If you look at item eight it says,
 15 "How aggressive is the company in its 16 accounting policies?" Do you remember any 17 conversations with Coleman or Sunbeam about 18 that topic?
 19 A. No, I do not.
 20 Q. And item 16, "Company is 21 conservative and leans to full disclosure?"
 22 Do you remember any conversations with either
 23 company about that?
 24 A. I do not recall any, no.
 25 Q. I'm showing you what has been marked

1 A. No, it does not.
 2 Q. In connection with the calls that
 3 you were on, did you learn at any time prior 4 to the closing on March 30th, 1998, that
 5 Sunbeam had accelerated sales from 1998 into 6 1997?
 7 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 8 A. I don't recall so.
 9 Q. Had you heard any discussion about
 10 that?
 11 A. I don't recall any discussions on
 12 that.
 13 Q. When you came back to the company in 14 June, are those things that you looked into or 15 were made aware of?
 16 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 17 A. I believe so, yes.
 18 Q. Prior to the closing on March 30th,
 19 1998, were you aware that Sunbeam had used
 20 bill and hold sales techniques to increase its 21 revenue in 1997?
 22 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 23 A. To my recollection, I was not aware.
 24 Q. Was that a topic that you recall
 25 being discussed at all?

018496

1 A. I do not recall that being
 2 discussed?
 3 Q. In any of the work that you did in
 4 connection with the deal, do you remember
 5 anyone looking at or asking about Sunbeam's
 6 sales in the first quarter of 1998?
 7 A. Yes.
 8 Q. What do you recall being discussed
 9 about Sunbeam's sales in the first quarter of 10 '98?
 11 A. I can't tell you the event, or I
 12 should say when it happened, but my
 13 recollection, which is vague, is that it came
 14 to our attention that Sunbeam would fall short
 15 of analyst estimates. And so from our 16 perspective in terms of underwriting the 17 bridge loan, the banker, who I believe at the 18 time the person called upon was Bill Strong,
 19 was asked to validate his client and stand up
 20 for his client and say should Morgan Stanley
 21 underwrite this loan on behalf of your client.
 22 Q. And what happened?
 23 A. Again, it's my recollection Bill
 24 Strong did verify his client and did believe
 25 that the credit still stood, that the company

1 I validate this?
 2 MS. BROWN: Object to form. It's a
 3 mischaracterization.
 4 MR. BRODY: Let me withdraw the
 5 question.
 6 Q. Were you there when Mr. Strong
 7 responded to the concern that you just
 8 expressed?
 9 A. To my memory, I was, yes.
 10 Q. Does that suggest to you that it was 11 the commitment committee meeting?
 12 A. If I had to -- if I had to make a
 13 guess, I would say yes, it was commitment
 14 committee for the bridge loan.
 15 Q. Right. I'm not asking you to guess.
 16 You don't know one way or the other?
 17 A. I don't know one way or another.
 18 Q. Do you know when the meeting was 19 held?
 20 A. No, I do not.
 21 Q. Obviously before March 25th?
 22 A. It would be, yes.
 23 Q. Because that's when --
 24 A. Correct.
 25 Q. You were gone by then?

1 was still strong.
 2 Q. I believe you said that it came to
 3 Morgan Stanley's attention that Sunbeam would
 4 fall short of analysts' projections. Is that
 5 what you said?
 6 A. I don't remember exactly the context
 7 it was put in, but I know obviously after the 8 fact that that was the concern.
 9 Q. How did it come to your attention?
 10 How did it come to Morgan Stanley's attention?
 11 A. I don't know.
 12 Q. Do you remember this being discussed
 13 in a particular context?
 14 A. That's -- I can't remember
 15 specifically what context. I remember a
 16 meeting on it, but I can't tell you if it was 17 commitment committee or if it was a sidebar
 18 meeting.
 19 Q. What do you mean by a sidebar
 20 meeting?
 21 A. Meaning a non-formal meeting.
 22 Q. Okay. Who do you remember speaking
 23 in the meeting?
 24 A. I can't recall specifically.
 25 Q. Were you there when Mr. Strong said,

1 A. Correct.
 2 Q. On maternity leave. You said the
 3 fact that Sunbeam would fall short of the
 4 analysts' sales projections came to Morgan
 5 Stanley's attention in some way. Do you
 6 remember who it was who said that at the
 7 meeting?
 8 A. No, I do not.
 9 Q. In response to that, was Mr. Strong
 10 asked questions?
 11 A. To my memory, yes, he was.
 12 Q. Who did the asking?
 13 A. I don't recall.
 14 Q. Do you remember in words or
 15 substance what they asked?
 16 A. I don't recall specifically.
 17 Q. Generally, do you remember what was 18 discussed or what was asked of him?
 19 A. The only specific thing I remember
 20 was, you know, can you vouch for your client's
 21 integrity. And after six years, that's what 22 stood out most as the crux of what they cared
 23 about.
 24 Q. What do you mean by "integrity"?
 25 A. In terms of, you know, it happens.

018497

1 Companies miss numbers. And that's what they
 2 wanted to say, is this a one-time blip, or is
 3 this a trend we need to be aware of?
 4 Q. And this question was put to
 5 Mr. Strong?
 6 A. To my memory, yes.
 7 Q. Do you remember what Mr. Strong said
 8 in response?
 9 A. My memory is that he stood by his
 10 client.
 11 Q. Do you remember in words or
 12 substance what he said to communicate that?
 13 A. No, I do not.
 14 Q. Do you remember any follow-up asked
 15 of Mr. Strong, why do you stand by your 16 client, what is your basis, that sort of
 17 thing?
 18 A. I would not have been involved in
 19 those conversations.
 20 Q. In the meeting that you were at do
 21 you remember any follow-up?
 22 A. I can't recall specifically.
 23 Q. Do you remember anything else being 24 said in that meeting about the fact brought to
 25 Morgan Stanley's attention that Sunbeam would

1 Q. Okay. Well, that's a better answer
 2 than what I asked. I was focusing on that
 3 meeting. Thank you.
 4 Aside from that conversation, do you
 5 remember any other conversations about
 6 Sunbeam's first quarter performance prior to
 7 the closing?
 8 A. None that I recall.
 9 Q. Do you remember any conversations or
 10 communications about whether Sunbeam's
 11 announced turnaround was real?
 12 A. None that I recall.
 13 Q. Do you remember any conversations or 14 communications, written or oral, about whether 15 Sunbeam's announced turnaround was 16 sustainable?
 17 A. None that I recall.
 18 Q. Do you remember any conversations
 19 within Morgan Stanley prior to the closing
 20 about Sunbeam's earnings per share from the 21 first quarter of '98 or earnings more
 22 generally?
 23 A. None that I recall.
 24 Q. Now, we've spoken about your
 25 conversations with Mr. Shiffman at Coleman.

1 fall short of its numbers?
 2 MS. BROWN: I'm going to object to
 3 the extent it mischaracterizes. Go
 4 ahead.
 5 A. I don't recall anything else.
 6 Q. Okay. Do you remember anything
 7 discussed or communicated orally or in writing
 8 after that meeting about the same topic?
 9 A. I don't recall.
 10 Q. Did you take notes of this leveraged
 11 finance meeting?
 12 A. No, I would not have taken notes.
 13 Q. You testified earlier that sometimes
 14 you took notes on your computer. If you
 15 didn't have your computer with you, did you
 16 ever take notes on paper?
 17 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 18 A. If I'm with a company, yes, I'll
 19 take notes.
 20 Q. Meaning if you're with a company
 21 that you're covering?
 22 A. Correct.
 23 Q. But I mean at a Morgan Stanley
 24 meeting, was it your practice to take notes?
 25 A. Not at a commitment committee.

1 Did you ever have any conversations with
 2 anyone else at Coleman other than perhaps
 3 participating in a conference call where you
 4 listened to Mr. Levin?
 5 MS. BROWN: Objection. Asked and
 6 answered.
 7 A. What time frame are you talking
 8 about?
 9 Q. Prior to the closing.
 10 A. Only conference calls.
 11 Q. And broadening the question to other
 12 individuals within MacAndrews & Forbes,
 13 Mr. Perelman, Mr. Guinness, some of those 14 individuals, did you ever have any
 15 conversations with any MacAndrews & Forbes
 16 people?
 17 A. I don't recall so, no.
 18 Q. Did you have conversations with 19 Mr. Levin and others at MacAndrews & Forbes at 20 Coleman after you came back in June?
 21 A. Yes, I did.
 22 Q. About what topics?
 23 A. About Sunbeam and Coleman and --
 24 because Mr. Levin had taken over the company.
 25 Q. Okay. We'll get to that in a

018498

1 moment. Ms. Eltrich, I'm showing you a
 2 document that's been previously marked as
 3 Exhibit 238, and I'm going to ask you if
 4 you've seen it before. Now, first let me do
 5 the easy question. There is some handwriting
 6 on this document. Do you recognize it?
 7 A. No, I do not.
 8 Q. Okay. Then ignoring the
 9 handwriting, is this a document you recall
 10 seeing?
 11 A. I do not recall.
 12 Q. Return, please, to page ending with 13 32, CP 022332. There are two sets of numbers
 14 on here. Which number are you using?
 15 A. I'm sorry. I was using this one.
 16 Q. Okay. Well, using that one, it's
 17 CPH 1412567.
 18 A. Okay.
 19 Q. There is some handwriting on there.
 20 You don't recognize that; is that correct?
 21 A. I do not recognize that.
 22 Q. Well, then, ignoring the 23 handwriting, do you recall ever seeing this
 24 page before?
 25 A. I don't recall.

1 A. I don't remember the name.
 2 MS. BROWN: Sayt (phonetic).
 3 MR. BRODY: It's pronounced Sayt?
 4 Thank you.
 5 Q. The fax number that's shown there is 6 the same fax number we previously saw as being
 7 your number. Do you have any reason to doubt
 8 that you received this document?
 9 A. No, I have no reason.
 10 Q. Having seen this document now having
 11 been sent to you, do you have any recollection
 12 of getting it or doing anything with it?
 13 A. No, I don't.
 14 Q. If you turn to the third page of the 15 document, the Bates number is Morgan Stanley
 16 Confidential 100. There is some handwriting.
 17 Do you recognize that?
 18 A. No, I do not recognize it.
 19 Q. If you turn to page Morgan Stanley
 20 108, there is some different handwriting. Do
 21 you recognize that?
 22 A. It looks like my handwriting.
 23 Q. Can you read into the record what
 24 those things say?
 25 A. "Primarily private label. Three to

1 Q. Do you recall any conversations
 2 about Sunbeam's long-range strategic plan?
 3 A. I don't recall.
 4 Q. Were you ever at meetings where
 5 Sunbeam's long-range strategic plan was
 6 presented or discussed?
 7 A. I don't recall specifically.
 8 Q. Let me show you one additional
 9 document.
 10 (Document Bates stamped Morgan
 11 Stanley Confidential 36700-36720 marked
 12 CPH Exhibit 278 for identification, as
 13 of this date.)
 14 Q. Ms. Eltrich, I'm showing you what
 15 has been marked as Exhibit 278. There is a
 16 cover page. Then there is a copy of the 17 long-range strategic plan that is similar but 18 somewhat different than the one I just showed 19 you. And the cover page reflects it was faxed
 20 from Mr. Seth to you. Do you recognize the 21 cover page as Mr. Seth's handwriting?
 22 A. I couldn't tell you. I couldn't
 23 answer.
 24 Q. Do you remember doing any work with 25 Mr. Seth on this deal?

1 400 million blankets. Five to 600 million
 2 carpets. Do not have leading market share in
 3 Europe or Asia."
 4 Q. And having seen that, does that
 5 refresh your recollection that you had
 6 conversations about this?
 7 A. It does not.
 8 Q. Does this refresh your recollection
 9 that you were at a meeting where this was 10 presented?
 11 A. No, it does not. I may have been on 12 a phone call for it, but I don't think I was 13 in any meetings.
 14 Q. If you turn to page Morgan Stanley
 15 Confidential 114, there is a description of 16 Sunbeam's long-range strategic plan earnings
 17 per share numbers '98 through 2000. Do you
 18 recall having seen those numbers prior to the 19 closing?
 20 A. No, I do not recall.
 21 Q. Do you recall doing anything with
 22 them?
 23 A. No, I do not recall anything.
 24 Q. Turn to the last page of this
 25 document. There is a description of Sunbeam's

018499

1 earnings, net sales, gross margin, operating
 2 profit, earnings, then earnings per share,
 3 actual and plan for 1998, and this is a first
 4 quarter statement. Do you remember any
 5 discussions about Morgan Stanley's view of
 6 Sunbeam's earnings for the first quarter?
 7 A. No, I do not.
 8 Q. There was a 32 cent per share number
 9 for 1998. Do you remember any discussions
 10 about that number?
 11 A. I do not recall, no.
 12 Q. You can put that document aside. In 13 connection with the work that was done by 14 Morgan Stanley, Morgan Stanley did a merger
 15 consequences analysis. Did you have anything
 16 to do with the merger consequences analysis?
 17 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 18 A. I don't recall we did, I did, no.
 19 Q. Do you remember ever seeing any
 20 documents that showed whether this merger
 21 would be accretive or dilutive of Sunbeam's
 22 financial performance?
 23 A. I don't recall being part of any of
 24 that.
 25 Q. Do you remember being shown copies

1 generally discussed?
 2 A. Based on some of the sheets that
 3 you've shown me, I believe it was probably
 4 discussed.
 5 Q. Well, aside from what you now see in 6 the papers, do you remember participating or 7 being involved in any discussions in which
 8 synergies numbers were raised?
 9 A. I don't recall any.
 10 Q. And just so we're talking about the 11 same thing, can you just tell us what your 12 understanding is of the term "synergy" as used
 13 in a merger consequence?
 14 A. Cost savings.
 15 Q. So it would be a savings to the 16 combined company by combining the two
 17 companies?
 18 A. Correct.
 19 Q. And you didn't perform any analyses
 20 of whether there would be savings?
 21 A. I don't recall doing any, no.
 22 Q. And you don't remember discussions
 23 with others about whether there would be?
 24 A. I don't remember any, no.
 25 Q. Now, the transaction, aside from the

1 of a merger model or an estimate of what the
 2 merger would do?
 3 A. I don't recall.
 4 Q. Ms. Eltrich, I've given you what has
 5 been marked as Exhibit 61. And given your
 6 prior testimony, this one may go quickly.
 7 Have you ever seen this before?
 8 A. Not that I recall.
 9 Q. If you turn to the first page
 10 containing numbers, the second page of the 11 document, there is a form of financial
 12 analysis that has a pro forma income
 13 statement. Prior to the closing did you see 14 any pro forma income statements for the 15 combined company?
 16 A. I can't recall specifically.
 17 Q. Why don't we put this one aside,
 18 although we may come back to this. Did you
 19 participate in any discussions that you recall
 20 in which anyone discussed whether the deal,
 21 the combination of Sunbeam and Coleman, would
 22 produce synergies?
 23 A. I cannot recall any specific
 24 conversations.
 25 Q. Do you remember that topic being

1 merger, also involved a financing piece that
 2 Morgan Stanley was involved in?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. And you've testified about what you
 5 referred to as the bridge loan?
 6 A. Yes. Actually, it wasn't a bridge
 7 loan. It was a term loan.
 8 Q. Okay. And do you remember the 9 dollar value of that loan?
 10 A. I remember it was over 600 million.
 11 Q. Do you understand that to be Morgan
 12 Stanley's piece or the whole loan?
 13 A. The whole loan.
 14 Q. And then there were also the
 15 convertible debentures?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. And I believe your testimony is that 18 you were not involved in the convertible
 19 debentures?
 20 A. That is correct.
 21 Q. And so focusing now on the term
 22 loan, what was the nature of your involvement
 23 in that loan?
 24 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 25 A. It was very limited. It really was 018506

1 only, again, with respect to Coleman.
 2 Q. The loan was ultimately approved by
 3 a committee at Morgan Stanley?
 4 A. To my recollection, yes.
 5 Q. And as you understand the procedures
 6 at Morgan Stanley, a loan of this type would
 7 have to be approved by a committee?
 8 A. To my recollection, yes.
 9 Q. And also as you understand the way
 10 things worked at Morgan Stanley, would there
 11 be a collection of materials presented to the 12 committee to assist it in deciding whether to 13 approve the loan?
 14 A. To my recollection, yes.
 15 Q. Did you have anything to do, that
 16 you recall, in preparing those materials?
 17 A. To my recollection, no, I did not.
 18 Q. The committee that approved the 19 transaction, was that the leveraged finance
 20 commitment committee?
 21 A. I can't recall specifically.
 22 Q. And I believe you testified that you
 23 attended a meeting at which the loan was 24 discussed, and it may have been the commitment
 25 committee meeting?

1 Q. What do you recognize it as?
 2 A. As a commitment committee memo.
 3 Q. And what is a commitment committee
 4 memo?
 5 A. It is what you referred to earlier
 6 as materials submitted to a commitment
 7 committee to aid them in their investment
 8 decision.
 9 Q. And this one relates to the 10 investment decision for Sunbeam?
 11 A. It appears to, yes.
 12 Q. The first page is from Mr. R.B.
 13 Smith. Is that Brom Smith?
 14 A. I believe so, yes.
 15 Q. And it identifies the fact that 16 there is going to be a commitment meeting on 17 March 20th at 7:30 in the morning?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. Having seen that, does that refresh
 20 your recollection whether you, in fact, were 21 at that meeting?
 22 A. It doesn't.
 23 Q. Do you have a calendar or some
 24 document where you would have written down
 25 whether you were there or not?

1 A. That is correct.
 2 Q. Let me show you what has previously
 3 been marked --
 4 MR. BRODY: Can we go off the record
 5 for a second.
 6 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 12:54,
 7 and we are off the record.
 8 (Discussion off the record)
 9 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 12:55.
 10 We're back on the record.
 11 (Commitment Committee memo marked
 12 CPH Exhibit 279 for identification, as of 13 this date.)
 14 Q. Ms. Eltrich, I'm giving you what has
 15 been marked today as Exhibit 279, and I will 16 state for the record I thought I had brought 17 the marked copy. This document has been 18 marked in another deposition bearing a
 19 different number.
 20 A. Okay.
 21 Q. That's something for the lawyers to 22 straighten out at some later point, but I'll
 23 just state that for the record. Do you
 24 recognize Exhibit 279?
 25 A. I vaguely recognize it.

1 A. Morgan Stanley would have kept
 2 record, obviously, but no, I don't necessarily
 3 mark it -- now I do, but back then, no, I did
 4 not have electronic measurements to know where 5 I was.
 6 Q. You said Morgan Stanley would have
 7 kept track. Was there some record of who
 8 attended these meetings?
 9 A. No. They would have kept track if I
 10 was in the office or not. And if I was in the 11 office, most likely, yes, I would have 12 attended it.
 13 Q. I understand. Towards the bottom
 14 there is a distribution of a variety of 15 people. Do you recognize who all of those 16 people are?
 17 A. Not all of them.
 18 Q. I'm going to go through these names
 19 and ask you first, if you know the individual,
 20 and then, second, if you recall if they were 21 at the meeting that you remember participating
 22 in.
 23 A. Um-hmm.
 24 Q. Mr. Sipprelle?
 25 A. I know him. I believe he was at the 018501

1 meeting.
 2 Q. And that was the meeting at which
 3 the loan was discussed?
 4 A. I can't confirm that.
 5 Q. Mr. Rankowitz?
 6 A. I know him. I can't confirm if he
 7 was at the meeting.
 8 Q. Mr. Kourakos?
 9 A. I know him. Can't confirm if he was
 10 at the meeting.
 11 Q. Mr. Felix?
 12 A. I know him. Can't confirm if he was
 13 at the meeting.
 14 Q. Mr. Smith?
 15 A. I know him, and I believe he was at
 16 the meeting.
 17 Q. Mr. Newhouse?
 18 A. I know him. I can't confirm he was
 19 at the meeting.
 20 Q. I don't know if it's a Mr. or Ms.
 21 A. It's Leslie. Leslie Bradford.
 22 Q. Is that a man or woman?
 23 A. Woman.
 24 Q. Was she at the meeting?
 25 A. I believe she was, yes.

1 at the meeting. But whether it was in person
 2 or via phone, but I believe he was in
 3 attendance.
 4 Q. I understand. Now, if you look at
 5 the cover page here, there is some
 6 handwriting. Do you recognize that
 7 handwriting?
 8 A. No, I do not.
 9 Q. Turn to the next page of the 10 document. This is the memorandum to the 11 committee about the loan; correct?
 12 A. Correct.
 13 Q. And it shows that it's from a large
 14 number of people; is that correct?
 15 A. Appears to, yes.
 16 Q. And one of the people that it shows
 17 that it's from is K. Eltrich. Do you know if 18 you drafted any portion of this document?
 19 A. Not to my recollection.
 20 Q. Do you know if you saw drafts of 21 this document before it was sent out?
 22 A. I don't recall.
 23 Q. Do you recall seeing this document
 24 at any time prior to today?
 25 A. I don't recall.

1 Q. I don't know again Mr. or Ms.
 2 Feldman?
 3 A. Joel Feldman. I know him. I can't
 4 confirm if he was at the meeting.
 5 Q. S. Brown?
 6 A. I don't know.
 7 Q. You don't know him?
 8 A. Him or her, yes. I don't know them.
 9 Q. I believe it's Mr. Pellicchio?
 10 A. I don't know them.
 11 Q. Bunger?
 12 A. I know him. I can't confirm if he
 13 was at the meeting or not.
 14 Q. Is the next individual Mr. Abdel
 15 Meguid?
 16 A. Terry Meguid, I believe. I know
 17 him, but I don't know if he was at the
 18 meeting.
 19 Q. Sanders?
 20 A. Don't know them.
 21 Q. Is that Ann Short?
 22 A. Yes, it is. And I don't know if she
 23 was at the meeting.
 24 Q. And then Mr. Strong?
 25 A. Know him, and I believe, yes, he was

1 Q. As you understand Morgan Stanley's
 2 procedures at the time, do you understand this
 3 to be the document that the leveraged finance
 4 committee would consider in deciding whether
 5 to approve the loan or not?
 6 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 7 A. I don't know the full process. I
 8 wasn't involved in that side.
 9 Q. Do you know if documents in addition
 10 to this one were circulated to the committee?
 11 A. I don't know.
 12 Q. Turn to the second page of the 13 document. Below the box there is a paragraph 14 that starts, "While Morgan Stanley seeks the 15 committee's approval." Do you see that?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. And about the second or third to
 18 last sentence in that paragraph is the phrase
 19 "due to the accelerated timing of the 20 transaction, it is MSSF's intention to first 21 close the transactions at the end of March and 22 then syndicate its position." Did I read that
 23 correctly?
 24 A. Except you said something instead of 25 "acquisitions," but otherwise, yes.

018502

1 Q. Okay. Do you remember any
2 discussions about the accelerated timing of
3 the transaction?

4 MS. BROWN: Object to form.

5 A. I do not recall, no.

6 Q. The document indicates the
7 transactions will be closed at the end of 8 March and then the loan syndicated. Is that
9 customary to close first and syndicate later?

10 A. I don't work in the bank debt world,
11 so I really couldn't give you a good answer on
12 that.

13 Q. The next box, the expected
14 economics, do you have an understanding of 15 what that means?

16 A. I have a vague understanding.

17 Q. And what is that understanding?

18 A. I believe it's reconciling -- for 19 this it looks like what you would make in 20 terms of fees specifically to the bank loan.

21 Q. So these are bank loan fees to
22 Morgan Stanley?

23 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation.
24 Mischaracterization.

25 A. I couldn't answer specifically.

1 the document. Under the category
2 "Restructuring," the second sentence reads,
3 "The restructuring portion of the plan has 4 been substantially completed with only the
5 final refinement stage remaining."

6 And the last sentence in this
7 paragraph reads, "Cost reductions are expected
8 to result in annual savings of $225 million,
9 most of which were already realized in 1997."

10 Do you remember any discussion
11 within Morgan Stanley about how much of 12 Sunbeam's restructuring plan had been 13 completed?

14 A. No, I don't recall.

15 Q. Or the amount of cost savings
16 realized to date or expected to be realized in 17 the future?

18 A. I don't recall.

19 Q. Turn to Page 10. Page 10 contains a
20 description of Coleman. I would like you to 21 look at that and tell me if there is anything
22 that you recall drafting.

23 A. I don't recall being involved in 24 this.

25 Q. In looking at this document today,

1 Q. Well, when you talked about the
2 fees, whose fees were you talking about?

3 A. I would assume for the bank loan,
4 but, again, I don't know if it's for the
5 entire facility or if it's just for Morgan
6 Stanley.

7 Q. I understand your distinction. Turn
8 to Page 4 the document, the category under 9 heading number four there is a reference to
10 due diligence, and I'll ask you just to read
11 that, and when you're done, I'll ask you some 12 questions about it.

13 A. Okay.

14 Q. It describes certain due diligence
15 done on this deal. Does that refresh your 16 recollection about any involvement you may
17 have had in due diligence?

18 A. I believe I was on the calls.

19 Q. That you've already testified about?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Aside from that?

22 A. No. I don't think I had any -- to
23 my recollection, I didn't have other
24 involvement.

25 Q. Okay. Turn, please, to Page 7 of

1 is there anything in here that you think is in
2 any way incorrect?

3 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
4 Foundation.

5 A. I couldn't answer that based on the 6 information I have.

7 Q. If you would turn, please, to Page
8 13, there is a description of projections and
9 assumptions, and then four items under there.
10 It talks about the Morgan Stanley financing
11 base case and the downside case and the 12 management case. Did you have anything to do
13 with -- I'm sorry. Are you on the same Page
14 13?

15 A. No, I'm not. Sorry. Which? 15?

16 Q. 13.

17 A. 13. Okay. Oh, I see. Sorry.

18 Okay. Yes.

19 Q. I would just like you to read those.
20 My question is going to be, did you have
21 anything to do with developing any of those
22 cases or commenting on them?

23 A. I don't recall being involved, no.

24 Q. Do you know who did?

25 A. No, I don't know.

018503

1 Q. Turn to the next page. It's a
 2 "Pro Forma Capitalization for 1997" is what
 3 it's entitled, and then it continues
 4 thereafter; is that correct?
 5 A. I believe so, yes.
 6 Q. Do you see the line entitled
 7 "Pre-Tax Synergies"?
 8 A. Yes, I do.
 9 Q. And it shows synergies from 1996,
 10 '97, '98, and thereafter?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Did you have anything to do with 13 selecting that number or --
 14 A. I don't believe so, no.
 15 Q. Do you know where it came from?
 16 A. No, I do not.
 17 Q. If you look down at the balance
 18 sheet data at the bottom and the reference to 19 the debt, this set of projections would 20 reflect that Sunbeam would be free of both the 21 bank debt and the zero coupon debt by some
 22 point of 2002?
 23 A. That's what it appears to indicate,
 24 yes.
 25 Q. Do you remember any conversations at

1 Sunbeam. So I'm not a rating agency, so I
 2 could not -- I couldn't say one way or
 3 another. I disagree with them frequently.
 4 Q. Okay. Fair enough. Do you know if
 5 the rating agencies ever rated this debt?
 6 A. To my knowledge, I believe they did,
 7 yes.
 8 Q. Did they rate it after Mr. Dunlap's
 9 termination?
 10 A. I don't know.
 11 Q. Do you know if they rated it before
 12 his termination?
 13 A. I don't know.
 14 Q. Turn to the next page, Page 16,
 15 there is an item that says, "Coleman synergies
 16 rationale, 118 million." Do you see that?
 17 A. Yes, I do.
 18 Q. Do you remember any discussions
 19 about the items contained under that heading?
 20 A. No, I do not recall.
 21 Q. You don't remember that being
 22 discussed at the meeting that you attended?
 23 A. I don't recall.
 24 Q. If you turn, please, to Page 18,
 25 there is a description of Sunbeam among

1 the leveraged finance commitment committee
 2 about how long it would take Sunbeam to clear
 3 itself of this debt?
 4 A. No, I don't recall.
 5 Q. Do you remember any discussions
 6 about whether the debt would be repaid from 7 earnings or repaid from asset sales or other
 8 sources?
 9 A. I don't recall.
 10 Q. Do you remember Mr. Strong being 11 asked about that?
 12 A. I don't recall.
 13 Q. Turn to the next page, Page 15,
 14 there are some credit statistics, and it's
 15 various debt coverage ratios.
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. Do those debt coverage ratios
 18 reflect the coverage you would expect for a
 19 high yield loan or an investment grade loan?
 20 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 21 A. It's very much a qualitative 22 decision, because you can't just look at the 23 numbers. The rating agencies also look at the 24 scope and the scale of the company, which I
 25 think was taken into consideration for

1 investment considerations, and the last item
 2 is as follows: "Conservatively estimated
 3 synergies of $150 million from combination."
 4 Do you see that?
 5 A. Yes, I do.
 6 Q. Do you remember any discussion about
 7 those items?
 8 A. No, I do not recall.
 9 Q. It continues on to the following
 10 page, just in case that refreshes your
 11 recollection.
 12 A. No, it does not.
 13 Q. And then at the bottom of Page 19
 14 carrying onto Page 20, there is a description
 15 of Coleman and the Coleman acquisition. I
 16 would ask you to read that, please.
 17 A. Okay.
 18 Q. Did you provide any of the material
 19 that's contained here?
 20 A. I don't recall anything, no.
 21 Q. Do you remember any discussion about
 22 this either at the committee or before?
 23 A. No, I don't recall.
 24 Q. There is no mention in here of the 25 fact that Coleman is in the process of 018504

1 restructuring. Do you remember that being
 2 discussed at the commitment committee?
 3 A. I don't recall.
 4 Q. Would you please turn to Page 23.
 5 There is an item entitled "Ability to attain
 6 synergies." I would like you just to read
 7 that to yourself, and let me know when you've 8 finished it.
 9 A. Okay.
 10 Q. Did you have anything to do with 11 drafting this?
 12 A. I don't recall so, no.
 13 Q. Do you remember any discussions
 14 about it?
 15 A. No, I don't recall.
 16 Q. It starts by saying that Morgan
 17 Stanley and Coopers & Lybrand, special
 18 acquisition consultants to Sunbeam, have had
 19 extensive discussions, and so on. Did you
 20 participate in any discussions with Coopers &
 21 Lybrand about potential synergies?
 22 A. I don't recall any.
 23 Q. At the end of this paragraph it says
 24 that Mr. Conway has modeled 150 million in 25 synergies in '98, and he feels that there

1 through this model, but do you have a
 2 recollection of the difference between the
 3 base case and the downside case?
 4 A. I know one's better than the other,
 5 but --
 6 Q. I think I know that, too.
 7 A. But other than that, specifically,
 8 no.
 9 Q. Okay. Well, that's all I needed to
 10 know. You can put that document aside. Now
 11 having seen this document and going through 12 the things that we've gone through, does that 13 refresh your recollection further about the 14 conversation that you previously testified
 15 about in which Mr. Strong was asked to stand
 16 behind Sunbeam?
 17 A. No, it does not.
 18 (Document Bates stamped Morgan
 19 Stanley Confidential 18885-18942 marked
 20 CPH Exhibit 280 for identification, as
 21 of this date.)
 22 (Document Bates stamped Morgan
 23 Stanley Confidential 59244-59266 marked
 24 CPH Exhibit 281 for identification, as
 25 of this date.)

1 could be upside to this figure. Do you
 2 remember that being discussed?
 3 A. I don't remember that, no.
 4 Q. You know Mr. Conway?
 5 A. I know him, yes.
 6 Q. Do you remember if he was at the
 7 meeting?
 8 A. I don't remember.
 9 Q. Do you remember any discussions
 10 Mr. Conway had or participated in about
 11 synergies?
 12 A. I don't remember, no.
 13 Q. If you turn to the next page and 14 largely for the remainder of this document are 15 financial numbers, and it's entitled "Based 16 Financing Case." You didn't have anything to 17 do with preparing that document; is that
 18 correct?
 19 A. I don't think I did, no.
 20 Q. And if you turn, please, to Page 40
 21 of the document, it's entitled "Credit
 22 Downside." Did you have anything to do with 23 preparing that downside case?
 24 A. I don't think so, no.
 25 Q. I'm not going to ask you to go

1 Q. Ms. Eltrich, the court reporter has
 2 marked as Exhibits 280 and 281 some additional
 3 copies of this document, and I suspect you're
 4 not going to have to turn past the cover page
 5 on either one.
 6 A. Okay.
 7 Q. Do you recognize the handwriting on
 8 either one of them?
 9 A. No, I do not.
 10 Q. You testified that you recall a
 11 conversation in which Mr. Strong was asked
 12 about Sunbeam's first quarter performance. Do
 13 you recall any conversations after that date
 14 to ask how Sunbeam was doing, whether
 15 Mr. Strong's representation was correct?
 16 MS. BROWN: Objection to the extent
 17 that mischaracterizes the testimony.
 18 A. I was not -- to my recollection, I
 19 was not involved in any conversations.
 20 Q. Have any been related to you?
 21 A. Not that I recall.
 22 Q. Subsequent to the closing, you've
 23 come to learn that Sunbeam, in fact, did not 24 meet their numbers for the first quarter of
 25 1998; is that correct?

O 18505

1 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 2 A. I know I learned it at some point.
 3 I couldn't tell you when.
 4 Q. And have you come to learn that one
 5 of the reasons for that was that Sunbeam had
 6 accelerated sales from 1998 into 1997?
 7 MS. BROWN: Objection to form.
 8 A. I learned it at some point, but,
 9 honestly, it took us a while to figure out --
 10 from my memory, it took us a while to figure
 11 out exactly what they had done.
 12 Q. And I think we've established that
 13 you went on maternity leave between the 20th
 14 and the 25th of March?
 15 A. Correct.
 16 Q. And you returned on June 15th?
 17 A. Correct.
 18 Q. When you refer to the figuring out
 19 of what Sunbeam had done, was that after
 20 June 15th or before March 25th?
 21 A. From my own figuring out, it was
 22 after June.
 23 Q. Now, in connection with the 24 financings, the convertible debenture
 25 offering, are you aware that Morgan Stanley

1 compares roughly the same month in two
 2 different years. The first column is
 3 basically sales in January of '97, and the
 4 second column is basically sales in January of
 5 '98; is that correct?
 6 A. It appears to be.
 7 Q. And it shows that January '97 sales
 8 were about 73 million, and January '98 sales
 9 were about 29 million. Were you aware of that 10 fact when you were at the leveraged finance
 11 credit committee?
 12 A. I don't recall.
 13 Q. Do you remember if that was 14 discussed at the meeting?
 15 A. I don't recall.
 16 Q. If you turn to the next page,
 17 Paragraph 6-B, just read that to yourself.
 18 A. Okay.
 19 Q. Prior to the closing had you seen
 20 that language?
 21 A. I don't recall.
 22 Q. You can put that one to the side.
 23 Earlier in this deposition I showed you a
 24 press release that was issued by Sunbeam. And 25 I believe it's in front of you. It's been

1 received comfort letters from Sunbeam's
 2 accountants?
 3 A. I was not involved in that process.
 4 Q. Whether you were involved in the
 5 process or not, are you aware that Morgan
 6 Stanley, in fact, obtained comfort letters
 7 from Arthur Andersen?
 8 A. I'm not in a position to verify
 9 that.
 10 Q. Okay. So you don't know?
 11 A. I don't know.
 12 Q. To your knowledge, have you ever
 13 seen the comfort letters that Morgan Stanley
 14 received?
 15 A. To my knowledge, no, I have not.
 16 Q. Ms. Eltrich, I'm giving you what has
 17 been marked as Exhibit 17 in a prior
 18 deposition. It's a letter to Morgan Stanley
 19 dated March 19th, 1998, from Arthur Andersen.
 20 Have you ever seen this before?
 21 A. I don't recall.
 22 Q. Now, if you turn a couple of pages
 23 into it, Paragraph 5, it's on Page 3 of the 24 letter, in item 5-B there at the bottom of the 25 page it describes Sunbeam's net sales, and it

1 marked CPH Exhibit 14.
 2 A. Um-hmm.
 3 Q. Were you aware of that press release
 4 on or about the date it was issued?
 5 A. I vaguely remember it being issued.
 6 Q. Did you have anything to do with its
 7 issuance, you personally?
 8 A. I don't believe I did, no.
 9 Q. Were you aware it was going to be
 10 issued before it was issued?
 11 A. I can't recall.
 12 Q. Do you remember whether the press
 13 release was discussed at the leveraged finance
 14 commitment committee?
 15 A. I don't recall.
 16 Q. Do you know if any disclosure other
 17 than Exhibit 14 was made to the public about
 18 Sunbeam's first quarter sales?
 19 A. I don't recall.
 20 Q. Do you remember if any disclosure
 21 was made to the public about Sunbeam's first
 22 quarter earnings prior to the closing on
 23 March 30th?
 24 A. I don't recall.
 25 Q. In connection with the work that you

1 did for Morgan Stanley, did you do any
 2 investigation or digging into any of the facts
 3 that are addressed in the press release?
 4 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 5 A. To my recollection, I was not
 6 involved in that part of the process.
 7 Q. Are you aware of the efforts that
 8 Morgan Stanley went through to attempt to sell
 9 the convertible notes to investors?
 10 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 11 A. To my recollection, I was not
 12 involved in that process.
 13 Q. So there was a road show you didn't
 14 attend?
 15 A. I do not recall attending the road
 16 show.
 17 Q. Do you remember attending a lunch in 18 New York, it was part of the road show, but it
 19 was not just a road show presentation, at 20 which the deal was discussed?
 21 A. I don't recall.
 22 Q. Now, after the leveraged finance
 23 commitment committee meeting, do you recall
 24 doing anything else on this deal prior to
 25 closing?

1 Q. Aside from what's contained in the
 2 research reports we've talked about, would
 3 there be anything else out there that would
 4 reflect the work you did that would have this
 5 implied price, implied value for the stock?
 6 MS BROWN: I'm sorry. Can I hear
 7 that back.
 8 MR. BRODY: Let me withdraw it and
 9 ask it again.
 10 Q. Aside from the two research reports
 11 that we've addressed, are you aware of any
 12 documents that were published by Morgan
 13 Stanley reflecting your work that would 14 contain an implied price for the equity in
 15 Coleman?
 16 A. To my knowledge, there was nothing
 17 else.
 18 Q. Now, are you aware that Morgan
 19 Stanley opined to Sunbeam that the acquisition
 20 price of Coleman was fair to the Sunbeam
 21 shareholders?
 22 MS. BROWN: Objection. Asked and
 23 answered.
 24 A. I was not involved in that process.
 25 Q. Did you ever hear anyone express a

1 A. I don't recall.
 2 Q. Do you know if anyone at Morgan
 3 Stanley did any further digging after the
 4 commitment committee meeting into Sunbeam's
 5 first quarter performance or Sunbeam's sales
 6 or Sunbeam's earnings?
 7 MS. BROWN: Objection to form and
 8 foundation.
 9 A. I wasn't involved, so I really
 10 can't --
 11 Q. You don't know.
 12 A. I can't comment.
 13 Q. Now, the analysis you did of Coleman
 14 primarily addressed its debt structure, the 15 debt issuance it had made; correct?
 16 MS. BROWN: I'll object to form.
 17 A. It was specifically on the escrow
 18 notes.
 19 Q. Did you ever prepare an analysis of 20 the stock value of Coleman, what you thought
 21 the stock should be trading at?
 22 A. Within our research report we put a
 23 valuation on the company, which gave an 24 implied stock value, but I never put an
 25 opinion or direct valuation on the stock.

1 view that the transaction was not fair to
 2 Sunbeam?
 3 A. To my recollection, I never heard
 4 anything to that nature.
 5 Q. Now, you left on maternity leave a
 6 few days before your daughter was born on the 7 25th of March; is that correct?
 8 A. I believe so, yes.
 9 Q. And then you returned, you said, you
 10 think the day that Mr. Dunlap was removed?
 11 A. No. I remember the front page of 12 the Wall Street Journal. It was the day that 13 Mr. Dunlap was removed.
 14 Q. Okay. After you returned, what work
 15 did you do in connection with Sunbeam?
 16 A. What I remember is touring a couple
 17 of facilities, and I think they were primarily
 18 distribution and manufacturing for Sunbeam
 19 specifically, and I remember a couple of 20 meetings with Mr. Levin where he was giving
 21 updates as he kind of sorted through the mess.
 22 Q. Do you remember when these facility
 23 tours were?
 24 A. I do not recall.
 25 Q. Do you remember when your meetings

1 with Mr. Levin were?
 2 A. I do not recall.
 3 Q. Can you place them in connection
 4 with your return to the company?
 5 A. No, I really cannot.
 6 Q. When you met with Mr. Levin, was it
 7 just Morgan Stanley people, or was it
 8 representatives of other banks as well?
 9 A. There were representatives of other
 10 banks.
 11 Q. Do you know who was there from
 12 Morgan Stanley?
 13 A. I remember Brom Smith, but that's 14 it. And I can't say he was at all the 15 meetings. I just remember him being at one.
 16 Q. Do you know why you participated in 17 these meetings, why you were invited?
 18 A. Because I was the consumer products
 19 analyst.
 20 Q. Do you remember what Mr. Levin said?
 21 A. No, not specifically.
 22 Q. Do you remember generally what he
 23 addressed?
 24 A. He addressed some of the 25 inefficiencies throughout the company, but

1 support to the bank group in trying to decide
 2 how the company should proceed?
 3 A. I don't recall any, no.
 4 Q. You're aware that at some point
 5 Sunbeam declared bankruptcy?
 6 A. I was aware, yes.
 7 Q. Were you at Morgan Stanley at the
 8 time?
 9 A. I don't remember.
 10 Q. Do you remember being consulted or 11 advised about the bankruptcy?
 12 A. I don't recall anything.
 13 Q. Do you remember any further
 14 conversations with Mr. Smith or others from 15 the bank group at Morgan Stanley about the 16 loan?
 17 A. I don't remember any.
 18 Q. Do you remember if you or your group
 19 were ever asked to analyze the value of
 20 Sunbeam?
 21 A. I don't remember.
 22 Q. Now, you indicated that in 23 connection with the work that you do for 24 evaluating the risk of high yield notes, you
 25 look at the risk of bankruptcy?

1 that's all I can generally state to you. He
 2 was on a steep learning curve as well,
 3 obviously, as he tried to figure out what was 4 going on.
 5 Q. Okay. So does this indicate to you
 6 that these meetings were probably early in
 7 Mr. Levin's tenure?
 8 A. To my recollection, yes, they were.
 9 Q. Do you remember anything else that
 10 was said at those meetings?
 11 A. I remember Levin saying that Sunbeam
 12 should be able to work, that he should be able 13 to fix it, that it was a great brand, and that
 14 the category, if you look at what Cuisinart
 15 had done, he felt there was something to be 16 done there. But that was very preliminary,
 17 obviously.
 18 Q. Do you remember anything else that
 19 was said at the meetings?
 20 A. I don't specifically remember
 21 anything, no.
 22 Q. Thereafter did you play any
 23 additional role in connection with Sunbeam?
 24 A. I don't recall any.
 25 Q. Do you remember providing any

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. Did you ever perform a bankruptcy
 3 risk analysis for Sunbeam?
 4 A. To my recollection, no, I did not.
 5 Q. Do you know if anyone at Morgan
 6 Stanley did?
 7 A. I don't know.
 8 Q. In connection with the bank loan,
 9 Sunbeam made various communications to Morgan
 10 Stanley about its performance. Were you ever
 11 asked to analyze any of those estimates or 12 projections?
 13 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 14 A. To my recollection, no, I was not.
 15 MR. BRODY: Let's go off the record.
 16 I may just have a few minutes.
 17 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 1:27, and
 18 we are off the record.
 19 (Recess)
 20 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now 1:30,
 21 and we are back on the record.
 22 MR. BRODY: I have no further
 23 questions. Thank you for your time and 24 your cooperation.
 25 MS. BROWN: I just have a couple of 018508

1 quick questions.
 2 THE WITNESS: Okay.
 3 EXAMINATION BY
 4 MS. BROWN:
 5 Q. First referring to CPH Exhibits 272
 6 and 275, which were the analysis or analyses
 7 that you published.
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. Referring to the first one, which is
 10 dated October 9th, 1997, and marked CPH
 11 Exhibit 272, you answered a number of 12 questions from Mr. Brody concerning the 13 estimates or estimations that you had placed 14 into this document. Do you know whether
 15 Coleman met your estimates?
 16 A. To my recollection, they did not
 17 meet my initial estimates.
 18 Q. And referring to CPH Exhibit 275,
 19 which is dated January 26, 1998, do you recall
 20 one way or the other whether Coleman met the 21 estimates that you had published in that
 22 document?
 23 A. I don't remember.
 24 Q. When you spoke about the meeting
 25 that you were at where Mr. Strong stood by his

1 Q. So when you spoke about the word
 2 "integrity," were you referring to a moral
 3 integrity or financial integrity?
 4 MR. BRODY: Object to the form.
 5 A. I was referring to a moral
 6 integrity.
 7 Q. And the point of this meeting was to 8 determine whether or not Morgan Stanley would
 9 make a loan to Sunbeam; is that correct?
 10 A. To my recollection, yes, it was.
 11 Q. What was the consequence to Morgan
 12 Stanley, as you understood it, if Sunbeam
 13 failed to honor its obligations under the 14 loan?
 15 A. We would lose over $600 million.
 16 Q. Do you know whether Morgan Stanley
 17 actually lost money on that loan?
 18 A. I believe we lost the entire loan,
 19 yes.
 20 Q. And very early in your testimony you
 21 referred to the fact that Revlon had
 22 preannounced in 1998?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. You were referring to the fact that
 25 they had preannounced that they didn't expect

1 client, and you mentioned that he was asked to
 2 vouch for the integrity of his client, can you
 3 explain what you meant by the word
 4 "integrity"?
 5 A. Meant by do you believe in your
 6 client, is this a client that is what Morgan
 7 Stanley will represent. It's hard to exactly
 8 -- I mean it encompasses many different
 9 things. Is this a quality value client that 10 we trust, that we are willing to represent for 11 our investors. And that's what I mean by
 12 integrity.
 13 Q. At the time of this meeting was 14 there any concern raised that you recall with 15 regard to Sunbeam's accounting practices?
 16 A. To my recollection, there was
 17 nothing raised.
 18 Q. Do you recall any questions
 19 concerning Sunbeam's accounting practices
 20 discussed within Morgan Stanley prior to the 21 close of the deal in March of 1998?
 22 A. I don't recall any.
 23 Q. Do you remember having any concerns?
 24 A. I don't remember having any 25 concerns, no.

1 that they would meet earnings estimates?
 2 A. That is correct.
 3 MR. BRODY: Object to the form.
 4 A. Actually, I'm sorry. That is not
 5 correct. They actually outright missed
 6 numbers in October of 1998. They did not
 7 preannounce. They simply completely missed
 8 their forecast.
 9 Q. And you referred to something called
 10 "stuffing the trade"?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Could you explain what you were
 13 referring to?
 14 MR. BRODY: Object to form.
 15 A. The process that they had undergone
 16 was they had incentivized the channel to 17 over-order for what they could sell, and 18 thereby artificially increasing their sales in 19 the previous quarters, and then when the third
 20 quarter came, the channel had too much product
 21 and did not reorder, and consequently they
 22 missed their numbers.
 23 Q. And when you say "they," you're
 24 referring to Revlon?
 25 A. I am referring to Revlon.

1 Q. And this occurred in 1998?
 2 A. Yes. This was in October of 1998
 3 that they missed.
 4 Q. And at the time Revlon was owned in
 5 large part indirectly by Mr. Perelman;
 6 correct?
 7 MR. BRODY: Object to form.
 8 A. It was to my knowledge, yes.
 9 MS. BROWN: I have no further
 10 questions.
 11 MR. BRODY: I just have a couple.
 12 BY MR. BRODY:
 13 Q. I think you testified that Morgan
 14 Stanley lost their entire loan?
 15 A. To my knowledge, they had, yes.
 16 Q. Okay. You weren't at Morgan Stanley
 17 when the bankruptcy was resolved, were you?
 18 A. I don't think I was.
 19 Q. Are you aware that as a result of 20 the bankruptcy, Morgan Stanley became the 21 largest shareholder of Sunbeam?
 22 A. I'm not aware.
 23 Q. Have you followed Sunbeam after that
 24 to see what's happened to it since then?
 25 A. I have not.

1 MR. BRODY: I have nothing further.
 2 Thank you.
 3 THE WITNESS: Thank you.
 4 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is now 1:35,
 5 and this ends the deposition, and we are
 6 off the record.

Subscribed and sworn to before me
 this day of , 2004.

1 Q. So you don't know what Morgan
 2 Stanley's investment in Sunbeam has returned
 3 to them?
 4 A. I only know anecdotally from people
 5 that I know that are still at the firm who
 6 have complained about it.
 7 Q. But that's nothing from your
 8 personal knowledge?
 9 A. Nothing from my personal knowledge.

 20 DIRECT EXAMINATION
 21 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 22 Q. Good morning, Mr. Harlow.
 23 A. Good morning.
 24 Q. You've been deposed before; is that correct?
 25 A. Many times.

018511

1 Q. You understand that you have to give verbal
2 answers in response to all my questions?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And I'd ask if you don't understand a
5 question of mine that you ask me to rephrase it, and
6 I'll do my best to do that. You understand that?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And is it fair for me to assume that if you
9 don't ask me to rephrase it, you understood my
10 question?
11 A. If I -- if I hear you correctly, that's --
12 yes, that's my understanding.
13 Q. What did you do in preparation for today's
14 deposition?
15 A. Just flipped through a couple past
16 depositions and looked at a couple of memos, and that 17 was it.
18 Q. What memos did you look at?
19 A. Looked at a memo from our work papers on 20 discussions with your client, Morgan Stanley.
21 Q. Who wrote that memo?
22 A. That memo was written by Larry Bornstein.
23 Q. Do you know when it was written?
24 A. Sometime in 1998.
25 Q. Do you know when in 1998?

1 A. No, I don't.
2 Q. Was it after March of 1998?
3 A. Yes, after March.
4 Q. Was it in the summer of 1998?
5 A. Somewhere around there, I would guess.
6 Q. What other documents did you review?
7 A. I reviewed an Answer to a Complaint. I don't
8 remember which one it was. And it was just cursory --
9 cursory review. Nothing -- didn't read it in detail.
10 Q. Do you know who, which party was making that
11 answer?
12 A. I don't remember.
13 Q. You don't remember that it was Arthur
14 Andersen or Morgan Stanley?
15 A. I think it was Arthur Andersen, but -- I've 16 seen so many documents over the past six years that I
17 just lose track.
18 Q. Where did you get that Answer?
19 A. From my attorneys.
20 Q. Did you review any other documents in 21 addition to the memo from Mr. Bornstein and the Answer
22 to the Complaint?
23 A. I just looked at a few other things, but I
24 just don't recall where they were.
25 Q. And why did you review these documents?

1 A. Because it's -- you know, so much time has
2 transpired since whatever you want to talk about today
3 has taken place. I've got, you know, lots to do and
4 lots on my mind, and I don't think about Sunbeam much
5 anymore.
6 Q. Did anybody suggest that you review these
7 documents?
8 A. My attorneys thought that I should try to 9 refresh my memory.
10 Q. Did you review any documents that your
11 attorneys did not recommend you to review?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Did you meet with anybody in preparation for
14 today's deposition?
15 A. No one other than my attorneys.
16 Q. Have you met with anybody from Jenner & Block
17 before today?
18 A. Not that I can recall.
19 Q. Have you ever --
20 A. Well, let me think about that. Years ago
21 when I was in Chicago we used to do work with Jenner &
22 Block. They were one of the top firms that my firm
23 worked with, and I worked on transactions with Jenner
24 & Block people. So to answer your question correctly,
25 I would have to say yes.

1 Q. Have you met with anybody from Jenner & Block
2 in connection with this litigation?
3 A. Other than this morning?
4 Q. Yes.
5 A. No.
6 Q. Have you spoken with anybody from Jenner &
7 Block on the phone in connection with this litigation?
8 A. Not to my knowledge.
9 Q. Have you spoken with anybody other than your
10 attorneys about this litigation that -- the case
11 between Coleman and Morgan Stanley?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Have you met with anybody from Coleman
14 regarding this litigation?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Where do you work, Mr. Harlow?
17 A. I'm an office furniture salesman now.
18 Q. And where were you working in March of 1998?
19 A. Arthur Andersen.
20 Q. How long had you been with Arthur Andersen at 21 that point?
22 A. Well, I don't know. If I've got to do math
23 without coffee, that may take a while. I started in 24 1971, so, you know, I guess 27 years maybe. '98 to 25 '71.

1 Q. And in March of 1998 were you part of the
 2 Sunbeam audit team?
 3 A. Well, we completed the audit by then. I --
 4 you know, we had auditors working on various things at
 5 Sunbeam, so I guess you would say yes.
 6 Q. What was your position in the Arthur Andersen
 7 Sunbeam audit team?
 8 A. I was an engagement partner.
 9 Q. Was that the most senior position in the 10 audit team?
 11 A. I really don't know. I mean, we had all
 12 kinds of senior partners at Arthur Andersen that would
 13 technically be more senior than me.
 14 Q. No, I didn't mean if anybody at Arthur
 15 Andersen was more senior than you. I'm asking if you
 16 were the most senior member of the Sunbeam audit team.
 17 A. No, I would say that Bill Pruitt was more
 18 senior than I was, and he was a member of the audit
 19 team.
 20 Q. What was his position?
 21 A. He was the managing partner of our Florida
 22 practice, and he was the concurring partner that I
 23 would concur with on issues.
 24 Q. Did there come a time in 1998 when you began
 25 to do work in connection with the Sunbeam acquisition

1 Q. When was this meeting in Kansas City?
 2 A. I don't remember the exact date, but it was
 3 prior to the transaction.
 4 Q. Do you remember whether it was in March or
 5 February of 1998?
 6 A. Well, I think, I think the transaction was 7 announced sometime early March, so it probably was the 8 latter half of February.
 9 Q. Who else attended the meeting?
 10 A. I had Mr. Gluck was with me who is the 11 controller of Sunbeam. And I don't remember the 12 engagement partner from Ernst & Young from Wichita.
 13 You know, I could look in records, but I just don't 14 remember his name. That's who we met. And we spent
 15 basically time looking at their audit work papers.
 16 Q. Did you other than the Kansas City meeting
 17 did you meet with Ernst & Young any other time in 18 connection with the acquisition?
 19 A. Which acquisition now?
 20 Q. Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman.
 21 A. Of Coleman. We're not talking about 22 other -- any other acquisition, just Coleman. Not to 23 my knowledge.
 24 Q. Okay. Did you meet with Ernst & Young in 25 connection with other Sunbeam acquisitions?

1 of Coleman?
 2 MR. MOSCATO: Object to the form. You
 3 can answer.
 4 THE WITNESS: Yes, very very limited
 5 work, yes.
 6 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 7 Q. What work did you do?
 8 A. We spent a day in a Kansas City meeting with 9 Ernst & Young. We were told we couldn't go to Wichita
 10 to the actual Coleman facility because they didn't 11 want outsiders coming in to take a look at the 12 company. And so we spent a grand total of a day
 13 looking at the Coleman acquisition, just meeting with 14 their outside auditors, no one with the company. And 15 that was, you know, apparently to help the company do
 16 some due diligence on the transaction.
 17 Q. To help who do due diligence?
 18 A. The company, Sunbeam. We were retained by 19 Sunbeam for that work.
 20 Q. Did Sunbeam have anybody else helping them do
 21 due diligence on Coleman?
 22 A. My understanding Morgan Stanley did a
 23 tremendous amount of work on that acquisition.
 24 Q. For Sunbeam?
 25 A. For Sunbeam, that's correct.

1 A. I believe I did in earlier years.
 2 Q. Okay.
 3 A. Not Coleman related.
 4 Q. Now you said that you could not go to 5 Wichita?
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. Which is where the Coleman plant was?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. Was that unusual?
 10 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
 11 MR. JOHNSON: Object to form.
 12 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 13 Q. In your experience was that unusual?
 14 MR. JOHNSON: Same objection.
 15 THE WITNESS: You know, over my years I
 16 had done it both ways. I can understand
 17 why public companies want to keep a
 18 pending acquisition somewhat under wraps,
 19 you know, to avoid leakage of information
 20 about a potential merger acquisition.
 21 But, you know, in my professional opinion
 22 it's more helpful for us to be -- you
 23 know, if I'm going to be helping in due
 24 diligence to actually see the facility and 25 be familiar with things from a hands-on

1 standpoint rather than from a distance.
 2 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 3 Q. What do you mean by leakage of information?
 4 A. Well, people leak information all the time.
 5 Pending transactions. You know, someone that works at 6 Coleman could have said, well, Arthur Andersen was in 7 here doing due diligence for Sunbeam asking a lot of 8 questions on accounting. That information could get 9 out to the public, and people could start selling or 10 buying stock based on that information.
 11 Q. So you're referring to information about the 12 existence of the acquisition?
 13 A. Yes.
 14 Q. Not financial information about Coleman?
 15 A. No, no, not at all. Leakage of information
 16 which should not be leaked to the public at that point
 17 in time.
 18 Q. Was it your understanding that you had
 19 complete access to Coleman's financial information
 20 when you conducted the due diligence?
 21 A. No, it was not my understanding at all.
 22 Q. What was your understanding?
 23 A. My understanding was I just had access to the 24 work papers that were provided by Ernst & Young. And 25 they pulled out a lot of work papers and kept a lot of

1 things from us in that review.
 2 Q. Were there things that you requested that
 3 they kept from you?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. What did they keep from you that you
 6 requested?
 7 A. Specifically items related to internal
 8 control issues, conservatism or lack therein,
 9 preparation of financial statements. I think they --
 10 the internal review memos and so forth that were 11 prepared by review partners on the engagement. Those 12 are the things that come to mind.
 13 Q. How did that impact your ability to conduct
 14 the due diligence?
 15 MR. MOSCATO: I object to the form.
 16 You can answer.
 17 THE WITNESS: Well, I -- you know, I was
 18 asked to, you know, spend one day
 19 reviewing work papers and find what I
 20 could find. And, you know, I found a
 21 number of things, a number of issues just 22 based on that. I probably could have
 23 found some more issues.
 24 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 25 Q. Did you report those all to Sunbeam?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. What were the issues that you found that you
 3 reported to Sunbeam?
 4 A. We had issues on reserves not being properly
 5 established. We had, I think, rebates issues that --
 6 were not properly recorded. I think we had some 7 timing on sales issues improperly reported. That was
 8 just based on a review, quick review of the work
 9 papers.
 10 Q. Did you discuss your findings with Sunbeam?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Who did you discuss them with?
 13 A. Mr. Gluck.
 14 Q. And what did you say?
 15 A. Oh, he was there right there with me and we 16 went through them together, so he was nodding his head
 17 yes and taking notes.
 18 Q. How were those issues resolved?
 19 A. Well, you know, the company was aware of 20 them. I don't know if there was any subsequent 21 renegotiation of purchase price as a result, but as 22 far as I know those issues remained at the time the 23 acquisition was done.
 24 Q. Did you encourage Mr. Gluck to ask for more
 25 access to Coleman financial information?

1 A. I think Mr. Gluck -- I think Mr. Gluck was a
 2 pretty astute, you know, CPA. He was an experienced
 3 controller, senior manager at a big eight accounting
 4 firm, Ernst & Young, I guess. And Mr. Gluck pretty
 5 much made up his mind what he wanted to do. And at 6 that time he was conferring with Mr. Rus, Rus Kersh on 7 what should be done.
 8 But I -- I let it be known to Bob that I
 9 thought it was a pretty limited review for this size
 10 of acquisition, but I was assured that there were 11 others that were taking a very close look at the 12 company, including Morgan Stanley, and they were very
 13 involved in due diligence of Coleman.
 14 Q. Who told you that?
 15 A. Mr. Gluck, Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fannin.
 16 Q. Do you know if Mr. Gluck or anybody at 17 Sunbeam pushed for more access to Coleman's financial
 18 information?
 19 MR. MOSCATO: I object to the form.
 20 You can answer.
 21 THE WITNESS: Yes, Mr. Gluck did. I mean,
 22 I was involved in, you know, a number of 23 conversations after the acquisition was 24 done where Mr. Gluck was trying to get 25 more financial information about the

1 company, trying to get his arms around
 2 the, you know, the numbers.
 3 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 4 Q. This is after the acquisition?
 5 A. Yes, yeah.
 6 Q. But before the acquisition do you know if he
 7 pushed for more access to Coleman financial
 8 information?
 9 A. I don't know what he did. He was extremely 10 busy. There were three acquisitions going on at the 11 same time. Again, we were -- like I say, our review
 12 was extremely extremely limited for this type of deal.
 13 Q. Did you do any work in connection with the 14 financing of the acquisition of Coleman?
 15 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 16 THE WITNESS: Well, we didn't basically
 17 design the -- or come up with the 18 structure of the financing. I mean, we 19 just basically were involved in the 20 financial recording relating to documents
 21 that needed to be filed to complete
 22 financing. But we were not involved in 23 the structure of the financing or giving
 24 opinions on any aspect of the financing.
 25 That was totally out of our area of

1 responsibility.
 2 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 3 Q. You did do some work in connection with the 4 debenture offering; is that correct?
 5 A. Debenture?
 6 Q. Yes.
 7 A. Well, we did whatever work was required to 8 prepare the document as it related to financial 9 statements and financial information within that 10 document. But in terms of anything else in that
 11 document, no.
 12 Q. Well, what did that work entail?
 13 A. I don't remember all the details on that. It
 14 was a long time ago. But it was basically doing post
 15 audit review work. I think there was a -- I think
 16 there was a comfort letter in connection with that 17 work that was requested by Morgan Stanley. You know, 18 that was basically it. Review of the documents to be
 19 filed.
 20 Q. I want to go back a second to the work that
 21 you did, the due diligence work you did on Coleman.
 22 Did you ever talk to anybody at Morgan Stanley about
 23 your due diligence work on Coleman?
 24 MR. MOSCATO: I object to the form.
 25 You can answer.

1 THE WITNESS: We had discussions with
 2 Morgan Stanley from time to time. I can't
 3 remember if we talked specifically about
 4 the one-day experience related to Coleman.
 5 We had discussions about, you know, Morgan
 6 Stanley couldn't figure out how to
 7 calculate earnings per share. One of my
 8 staff people had to straighten them out on 9 that. We had, you know, discussions on 10 synergies that they prepared, synergies
 11 related to the acquisition.
 12 But, you know, as far as, you know,
 13 that one day there I don't think I had any 14 discussions. And I didn't think it was my 15 responsibility to report to Morgan Stanley
 16 anyhow, but I did.
 17 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 18 Q. Why is that?
 19 A. It's not my responsibility.
 20 Q. You weren't working for Morgan Stanley?
 21 A. Exactly. I was not working for Morgan
 22 Stanley. I was working for Sunbeam.
 23 Q. Did you ever participate in a due diligence
 24 call with Morgan Stanley?
 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. When was that?
 2 A. I don't remember the date. Sometime in --
 3 sometime in 1998, spring of '98.
 4 MR. WEBSTER: Let's go off the record a
 5 second.
 6 (A discussion was held off the record.)
 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the video
 8 record 9:25 a.m.
 9 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-600 for i.d.)
 10 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 11 Q. Okay. In front of you, Mr. Harlow, is a
 12 document that's been marked Exhibit MS 600. Have you
 13 had a chance to review that?
 14 A. I'm still looking at it here. Okay. I've 15 looked at it.
 16 Q. Does this document refresh your recollection
 17 as to when this due diligence phone call was?
 18 A. I don't remember seeing this document, but 19 this must have been around the time that it took 20 place.
 21 Q. Do you have any reason to doubt that the due
 22 diligence conference call took place on Thursday,
 23 March 12th?
 24 A. No.
 25 Q. Who else participated in the due diligence

1 call?
 2 MR. MOSCATO: You mean who else besides
 3 him or who else besides --
 4 MR. WEBSTER: Who else besides Mr. Harlow.
 5 THE WITNESS: I don't remember all the
 6 names of the people on the call. There
 7 were, you know, several people from Morgan
 8 Stanley, their attorneys, some other
 9 folks. But I did participate in this even 10 though it doesn't have my name on it.
 11 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 12 Q. Who else participated from Arthur Andersen?
 13 A. Larry Bornstein who's indicated in this memo.
 14 Q. Anybody else?
 15 A. I don't believe so.
 16 Q. Did you ever speak to a man named John Tyree
 17 from Morgan Stanley?
 18 A. I understand John was on the -- was on that 19 call. I don't recall ever meeting him face to face.
 20 Q. Was anybody from Sunbeam on the call?
 21 A. I believe Mr. Gluck was on the call.
 22 Q. Were any representatives of Coleman on the 23 call when you participated?
 24 A. I don't believe so.
 25 Q. And when I say representatives, I mean their

1 Q. What questions did they ask? What type of
 2 questions did they ask?
 3 A. I think they asked about things like passed
 4 adjustments that we might have made, you know,
 5 accounting in accordance with GAAP. You know,
 6 generally accounting type issues.
 7 MR. MOSCATO: For the benefit of the 8 court reporter, when he says "passed
 9 adjustments," it's p-a-s-s-e-d, not 10 p-a-s-t.
 11 Sorry.
 12 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 13 Q. Did Morgan Stanley ask any questions about
 14 the first quarter sales of Sunbeam for 1998?
 15 A. I don't recall that on that call at all.
 16 Q. Did you have any idea of what the status of 17 Sunbeam's first quarter sales were for 1998 at the 18 time of this call?
 19 A. At the time of this call I don't think we had 20 done our comfort letter work, and that's when I became 21 aware of it. I think our comfort letter work was done
 22 after this date. So to answer your question, I don't
 23 believe I knew about it at that time.
 24 Q. Did you have any discussions with
 25 Mr. Bornstein in advance of this call to prepare for

1 auditors, Ernst & Young. Do you remember if anyone
 2 from Ernst & Young was on the call?
 3 A. He might have been on the call, but I don't
 4 remember him being announced on the call or speaking
 5 on the call.
 6 Q. Do you remember whether Coleman had any
 7 financial advisors in connection with the acquisition?
 8 A. I don't remember. Don't recall.
 9 Q. Do you remember whether Credit Suisse First
 10 Boston was involved in the transaction?
 11 A. I don't remember.
 12 Q. Do you remember what counsel Coleman had in 13 connection with the transaction?
 14 A. No.
 15 Q. Do you know if there were any attorneys on 16 the phone call?
 17 A. Morgan Stanley's attorneys were. I think
 18 Davis Polk. I don't remember the gentleman's name.
 19 Q. Any other attorneys?
 20 A. Not that I can recall.
 21 Q. What was the purpose of the call?
 22 A. I just asked some questions. Morgan Stanley
 23 had provided kind of an outline as to areas they 24 wanted to discuss. And, you know, it was just an 25 opportunity for them to ask us questions.

1 it?
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. What did you discuss?
 4 A. Well, we discussed the outline that had been
 5 set by Morgan Stanley and appropriate responses to 6 those questions.
 7 Q. Did you discuss the possibility of questions
 8 about first quarter sales coming up?
 9 A. I don't recall anything of that nature, no.
 10 Q. Before this call had you asked Mr. Bornstein
 11 to look into Sunbeam's first quarter sales?
 12 A. Specifically, no, not that I can recall.
 13 Q. And did there come a point in time when you
 14 asked Mr. Bornstein to look into Sunbeam's first
 15 quarter sales?
 16 A. Yes, there came a time when we became very 17 focused on first quarter sales.
 18 Q. When was that?
 19 A. Sometime after this date. I don't remember
 20 the precise date.
 21 Q. What prompted you to begin looking into first
 22 quarter sales for Sunbeam?
 23 A. We were asked to prepare a comfort letter for
 24 Morgan Stanley.
 25 Q. Who asked you to do that?

1 A. I don't recall. We got, one of my team got a
 2 letter from Morgan Stanley or a call. I don't recall,
 3 but, you know, we got a request for a comfort letter.
 4 Q. From Morgan Stanley?
 5 A. From Morgan Stanley, yes.
 6 Q. Had you talked to Sunbeam about the comfort
 7 letter before you got this request from Morgan
 8 Stanley?
 9 A. I don't recall any direct discussion with
 10 Sunbeam.
 11 Q. Do you know if anybody in your team had 12 talked to Sunbeam about the comfort letter before you
 13 got this request from Morgan Stanley?
 14 A. I don't. I don't know of that -- or those 15 conversations, but I would assume that Mr. Gluck at 16 some point in time mentioned to either Larry or, you
 17 know, one of our staff that a comfort letter would be 18 required. But I don't know that for a fact.
 19 Q. Did you talk to anybody on your staff about 20 preparation of this comfort letter before you got the 21 request from Morgan Stanley?
 22 A. I don't recall any discussions before the
 23 request.
 24 Q. Did you anticipate that this request would
 25 come from Morgan Stanley?

1 A. I thought there was a good possibility there
 2 would be one.
 3 Q. Had Arthur Andersen started work on the
 4 comfort letter before this request came in from Morgan
 5 Stanley?
 6 A. No.
 7 Q. Do you remember when the request from Morgan
 8 Stanley came in for the comfort letter?
 9 A. I don't remember that date, but it was 10 sometime later in March. Sometime after this date.
 11 Q. Okay.
 12 A. But I can't recall the exact date.
 13 Q. During the due diligence call, was there any 14 discussion of Sunbeam's refusal to agree to certain
 15 accounting treatments on the '97 financial statements?
 16 MR. MOSCATO: I object. I object to
 17 the form of the question.
 18 MR. WEBSTER: Let me withdraw question.
 19 Let me withdraw the question.
 20 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 21 Q. Your team conducted the audit of Sunbeam's
 22 1997 financial statements; is that correct?
 23 A. That's correct.
 24 Q. And at any point in that audit did you
 25 recommend certain -- that Sunbeam change any

1 accounting treatments on their financial statements?
 2 A. Well, in connection with the 1997 audit we
 3 proposed some audit adjustments which we discussed
 4 with the company, and they had valid reasons for not
 5 wanting to record those. They had a different of --
 6 opinion with, you know, our interpretation of GAAP,
 7 but they were, you know, in our mind immaterial,
 8 insignificant and we passed those adjustments.
 9 Q. So they did not take the adjustments that you
 10 recommended; is that correct?
 11 A. They did not pass -- they did notebook the 12 immaterial adjustments that we proposed, that is
 13 correct.
 14 Q. Was there any discussion of that in the due
 15 diligence call on March 12th of 1998?
 16 A. There was a discussion that passed
 17 adjustments were immaterial, so that would fall within
 18 that category in my opinion.
 19 Q. And who raised that subject?
 20 A. I don't recall. I don't recall who asked the 21 question, because I couldn't put the voices with the 22 faces on the other end of the line.
 23 Q. Did you discuss all of the proposed
 24 adjustments with Morgan Stanley in the due diligence
 25 call?

1 A. I don't recall if we discussed each and every
 2 one. We certainly made the point that we had passed
 3 adjustments which were, in our opinion, immaterial.
 4 Q. Now besides this due diligence call with
 5 Morgan Stanley did you ever have any due diligence
 6 call with Coleman, with Coleman's auditors or
 7 financial advisors?
 8 A. Not that I can recall.
 9 Q. Did Coleman ever make any requests for your
 10 audit work papers from 1997?
 11 A. I don't recall. They may have, but I just
 12 don't recall.
 13 Q. Do you know if Coleman made any requests to 14 discuss the '97 audits with you or anybody else at 15 Andersen?
 16 A. I don't recall. I don't recall any
 17 discussions with Coleman, the representatives, their 18 auditors. I just don't recall any conversation on due
 19 diligence.
 20 Q. All right. Now sometime after Morgan Stanley
 21 asked you to prepare a comfort letter did there come a
 22 time when you learned that Sunbeam's sales for the 23 first quarter of 1998 were lower than expected?
 24 MR. MOSCATO: I'm going to object to
 25 the characterization of the first quarter.

018520

1 MR. WEBSTER: I'll withdraw the
 2 question.
 3 MR. MOSCATO: I think you know what I
 4 mean. I don't want to make -- give a
 5 talking objection.
 6 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 7 Q. Did there come a time after Morgan Stanley
 8 requested the comfort letter that you learned that 9 sales for Sunbeam in January and February of '98 were 10 lower than expected?
 11 A. Can you clarify that question for me as to 12 whose expectations are we talking about?
 13 Q. Sunbeam's.
 14 A. I'm not -- I'm not sure I ever knew what 15 Sunbeam's expectations were.
 16 Q. Well, then the analysts' expectations?
 17 A. I was told that the analysts' expectations
 18 were probably not going to be met based on -- based on 19 the sales at the point in time we were preparing the
 20 comfort letter.
 21 Q. How did you learn this?
 22 A. I learned this through my staff that was 23 doing the work --
 24 Q. Who finished it --
 25 A. -- doing the work on the comfort letter.

1 Q. Was there any discussion about what you
 2 needed to do about this information?
 3 A. Well, at some point, you know, those
 4 conversations turned into need for disclosure. And
 5 any document that's going to go out, you know, --
 6 where -- you know, any documents that were going to be 7 used to sell debentures or, you know, we felt that if
 8 there was an analyst expectation of X and, you know,
 9 the company was not going to meet that expectation,
 10 that needed to be disclosed.
 11 Q. Why?
 12 A. Well, it needed to be disclosed because if 13 you have potential investors, you know, thinking one
 14 thing and then reality is something else, that's 15 exposure for the company and also exposure for, you
 16 know, anyone working with the company.
 17 Q. So the need for disclosure was to protect 18 those people who were going to invest in the
 19 debentures?
 20 A. Well, potentially. That wasn't my
 21 responsibility. That was the company's 22 responsibility. But, you know, we felt we should 23 point it out.
 24 Q. Did you discuss the need to disclose to 25 anybody besides potential purchasers of the

1 Q. Who from your staff told you about this?
 2 A. I believe I discussed it with Mr. Bornstein
 3 and -- certainly Mr. Bornstein and Dennis Pastrana.
 4 Q. Do you remember when you discussed it with
 5 them?
 6 A. It was during the time period in which they
 7 were working on the content of the comfort letter.
 8 Q. Do you remember when that was?
 9 A. It was probably within several days after
 10 receiving the Morgan Stanley request for the company,
 11 but I can't -- I don't recall the exact date.
 12 Q. Did you have these discussions with 13 Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Pastrana over the phone or in 14 person?
 15 A. Both.
 16 Q. So there was more than one discussion?
 17 A. Oh, yeah, more than one discussion, yes.
 18 Q. And what was said about the sales figures?
 19 A. I don't recall specific conversation, but it
 20 was one of, you know, somewhat disbelief that the 21 sales levels were what they were compared to, you
 22 know, prior years you know, prior quarters. We were 23 somewhat surprised that the sales were as low as they 24 were. So that was the gist of that conversation or
 25 those conversations.

1 debentures?
 2 A. We didn't discuss with the -- well, we
 3 discussed with -- you're referring to Morgan Stanley
 4 as a purchaser of the debenture?
 5 Q. No.
 6 MR. MOSCATO: I was going to have a --
 7 I was going to object to that. You
 8 answered too quick. I thought the 9 question was vague. I personally couldn't
 10 understand it.
 11 THE WITNESS: That's why I asked the
 12 question.
 13 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 14 Q. I'll rephrase the question. Did you have any 15 discussions with your team about the need to disclose
 16 these figures?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. Okay. And in your internal discussions with 19 your team did you discuss the need to disclose this 20 information to anyone other than potential investors
 21 in the debentures?
 22 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 23 THE WITNESS: Well, I mean, what do you
 24 mean others? The company -- Sunbeam?
 25 Stanley?

1 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 2 Q. Coleman. Did you discuss the need to
 3 disclose this to Coleman?
 4 A. Well, what we discussed was the need for
 5 disclosure in the documents which all parties
 6 associated with that document would be able to see.
 7 Q. The debenture offering?
 8 A. Um-hum, yes.
 9 Q. Did you discuss, though, the need
 10 specifically to disclose this to Coleman?
 11 A. I don't recall.
 12 Q. Do you recall whether with your Andersen team
 13 you discussed the need to send a letter to Coleman or 14 place a phone call to Coleman to advise them of these
 15 sales figures?
 16 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 17 THE WITNESS: I'm pretty certain I didn't
 18 recommend that because that would have
 19 been way out of bound for us to do.
 20 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 21 Q. Why is that?
 22 A. That's the company's responsibility, not our
 23 responsibility.
 24 Q. Okay.
 25 A. We were retained by Sunbeam, not Coleman.

1 Q. Did you discuss within Andersen whether or
 2 not you felt that Sunbeam had a responsibility to
 3 disclose this information to Coleman?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. What was the discussion?
 6 A. I don't recall the discussion, but we felt
 7 that Sunbeam should disclose this to the world.
 8 Q. Well --
 9 A. Make public disclosure. So that would be
 10 disclosure to everybody.
 11 Q. I'm not asking about generally the world.
 12 Did you focus on the need for Sunbeam to disclose
 13 specifically to Coleman?
 14 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 15 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.
 16 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 17 Q. Now as a result of the discussions with your 18 team did you come to a decision about what course of 19 action you needed to take about this information?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. What was that?
 22 A. We felt it was necessary to discuss with 23 management of the company that it was important that 24 the company disclose, you know, in some fashion. We 25 did not craft any wording or come up with, you know,

1 precise disclosure for the company but disclosed that
 2 the company would not meet the expectations that were
 3 on the street, you know, in some fashion, in some
 4 fashion let that be known.
 5 Q. Were you confident at that time that the 6 company would not meet the expectations of the 7 analysts?
 8 A. I was -- at the time I first saw it I was not
 9 confident. I was not confident at all. And then
 10 after I had discussions with some of the management
 11 team I was -- I still felt it was a real stretch that 12 the company was going to be able to show significant 13 increases in revenues by the end of the month because
 14 they only had at the time we found out 10, 11, 12 days
 15 to go by the end of the month, and they had to make, I
 16 think, in excess of $100 million in sales. And it had 17 not been the company's experience in the past to be 18 able to generate that level of sales in that short
 19 period of time. So I was, I was very skeptical that 20 the company was going to be able to make their
 21 numbers.
 22 Q. But did you ever conclude that they would not
 23 meet the numbers?
 24 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 25 MR. MOSCATO: I object. It's just

1 unclear what numbers.
 2 MR. WEBSTER: The analysts'
 3 expectations for sales for the first
 4 quarter of 1998.
 5 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 6 Q. Did you ever conclude that it wasn't just a
 7 stretch but that they, in fact, would not meet those
 8 analysts' expectations?
 9 MR. JOHNSON: Same objection.
 10 THE WITNESS: Yeah, I concluded at some 11 point on that.
 12 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 13 Q. When was that?
 14 A. When the company -- when the company
 15 concluded.
 16 Q. When was that?
 17 A. Sometime towards the end of March. The 18 company made a statement, made a public statement that 19 they would not meet the analyst estimates. I
 20 concluded at that point.
 21 Q. So after the press release came out?
 22 MR. MOSCATO: Objection to form.
 23 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 24 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 25 Q. Was it after the press release came out that

1 you concluded that they would not meet those
2 expectations?

3 MR. JOHNSON: Same objection. Which press
4 release? There's lots of press releases.

5 BY MR. WEBSTER:

6 Q. Did there come a time when Sunbeam made a
7 press release about these first quarter sales figures?

8 MR. MOSCATO: I'm going to object to
9 that.

10 MR. JOHNSON: I'd object to that.

11 THE WITNESS: There were a number of 12 press releases that the company did put
13 out in, you know, March, April time frame.
14 And some of those press releases talked
15 about sales; some talked about 16 acquisitions. Which ones do we want to 17 talk about?

18 MR. WEBSTER: Can I have MS 39, please?
19 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-39 for i.d.)

20 BY MR. WEBSTER:

21 Q. Okay. Have you had a chance to review that?

22 A. I didn't read every word in this, but I think
23 I've seen this unless some words have been changed in 24 the original document.

25 Q. MS-39 is a press release from Sunbeam on

1 percent confident.

2 Q. And is this is the press release that
3 convinced you that they, in fact, would not meet the 4 first quarter estimates?

5 A. Yeah, when I saw this press release, I
6 concluded that management is saying they're not going
7 to meet 285 million to 295 million sales in the first
8 quarter.

9 Q. Did you participate in the drafting of this
10 press release?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did you discuss the creation of this press
13 release with Sunbeam before it was issued?

14 A. I don't know how to answer that. I think
15 that this press release -- and maybe I'm trying to 16 take too much credit, but I think the reason why this 17 press release even came out was because of the 18 discussions I had with the management team about not
19 being able to meet expectations.

20 Q. So you had discussions with management about 21 the inability to meet expectations before this press
22 release?

23 A. I did. I did, but we did not discuss
24 drafting a press release or exactly what we were going
25 to say in it. But this showed up shortly after my

1 March 19th of 1998; is that correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. And if you could read the first sentence of 4 that, please, in the record.

5 A. Delray Beach, Florida, March 19th, 1998.
6 Sunbeam Corporation New York Stock Exchange SOC said
7 today that it's possible that its net sales for the 8 first quarter of 1998 may be lower than the range of 9 Wall Street analysts' estimates for $285 million to 10 295 million. But net sales are expected to exceed 11 1997 first quarter net sales of 253.4 million.

12 Q. All right. That sentence -- nowhere in this
13 press release does it say that Sunbeam will not meet
14 analysts' expectations for the first quarter of 1998,
15 does it?

16 A. Well, I think, in my opinion, when a public
17 company puts out a statement like this, in my 30 years
18 they're saying they're not going to make it. It's 19 crystal clear in my opinion.

20 Q. The language in the press release does not
21 say they will not meet their expectations, does it?

22 A. It's clear to me. It's clear to me. The 23 company concluded -- anybody -- any investor that
24 would read this would say they're not going to make it
25 and their stock is going to get hit. I'm a hundred

1 conversation with management.

2 Q. Who did you talk to in management about the
3 need for disclosure?

4 A. I talked to Mr. Gluck. I talked to legal
5 department, Janet Kelley, David Fannin and Mr. Kersh,
6 the company CFO.

7 Q. Gluck, Kelley, Fannin and Kersh?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. On more than one occasion?

10 A. I don't recall. Well, let me go one by one.
11 Mr. Gluck, yes, on more than one occasion.

12 Miss Kelley, yes, on more than one occasion.
13 Mr. Fannin, probably once before -- well, I talked to 14 Mr. Fannin on a number of issues, but on this
15 particular issue probably once before the press
16 release was prepared. And, once again, Mr. Kersh, I
17 talked to him from time to time on various issues.
18 But in the time frame we're talking about just a few
19 days prior to the release of this probably once.

20 Q. How many times did you talk to Mr. Gluck?

21 A. I don't recall. Five or six times.

22 Q. And what was said about the need for
23 disclosure?

24 A. Mr. Gluck -- I don't remember precisely the 25 words that he used, but the belief and the feeling

1 that I got in talking to him about this issue is that
 2 he felt that it would be good if the company did have
 3 some disclosure on this issue, but he needed some help
 4 from me to get that done, the work on it.
 5 Q. What do you mean by that?
 6 A. To work on other members of management over
 7 him.
 8 Q. Did he say why?
 9 A. No.
 10 Q. What do you mean he needed you to work on
 11 management?
 12 A. Once again, I don't precisely remember the 13 words, but I had the impression Mr. Gluck had some 14 difficulty in dealing with Mr. Kersh as the CFO. And 15 Mr. Kersh and Mr. Gluck had some difference of opinion
 16 as to disclosure specifically related to this issue.
 17 And Mr. Gluck had recommended or suggested that I talk
 18 to Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin about this issue and my 19 concerns.
 20 Q. And did you, in fact, talk to Mr. Kersh and 21 Mr. Fannin about it?
 22 A. Yes, I did.
 23 Q. What was said?
 24 A. I, in essence, told them that based on where 25 the sales were year to date for the company that we

1 were not going to meet analysts' expectations.
 2 Q. Did you discuss disclosing it anywhere other
 3 than the offering memorandum?
 4 A. I don't recall.
 5 Q. Did you ever discuss a press release with
 6 them before this press release came out?
 7 MR. JOHNSON: Asked and answered.
 8 THE WITNESS: As I say, this press release
 9 kind of appeared after that discussion.
 10 We didn't say press release or when it was 11 going to come out or anything like that,
 12 so...
 13 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 14 Q. There were no discussions about a press
 15 release before this came out?
 16 A. No, not that I recall. There may have been,
 17 but I don't recall.
 18 Q. Did you discuss the degree of disclosure with
 19 Sunbeam?
 20 A. No, just the essence of disclosure, that 21 sales expectations were not going to be met. How that 22 was said and, you know, the specific wording was not
 23 discussed.
 24 Q. Did you discuss with Sunbeam prior to the 25 release of this press release the ability to exceed

1 felt that in connection with this offering statement
 2 there should be some disclosures made in the document
 3 indicating the company was not going to perform as,
 4 you know, outside analysts expected.
 5 Q. This is in -- disclosure in the offering
 6 memorandum for the debentures?
 7 A. Yes.
 8 Q. Was there a discussion about disclosure
 9 anywhere else other than the offering memorandum?
 10 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 11 THE WITNESS: I don't recall. I mean,
 12 I think we were talking in the -- we were 13 talking in primarily the context of the 14 offering memorandum to put disclosure in 15 there because that's what we were working
 16 on at that point in time.
 17 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 18 Q. Did you discuss how it should be disclosed in
 19 the offering memorandum?
 20 A. Not precisely. As far as geography within 21 the document we thought it should be in a prominent 22 section of the document. You know, I don't recall if 23 there was a risk, risk section of that or not. It's 24 been so long. But, you know, there should be a
 25 prominent display of the fact that the company sales

1 the first quarter results for 1997?
 2 A. I don't recall any direct discussion on that.
 3 Q. Did you discuss the ability to exceed '97
 4 first quarter results within your Arthur Andersen team
 5 before this press release came out?
 6 A. I don't remember specific discussions on 7 that, but part of the -- as I recall, part of the 8 comfort letter work was to make comparisons with the 9 prior quarter. So in the context of putting the 10 comfort letter together, that probably was looked at.
 11 May have been discussed. I mean, I think that was 12 specifically reported on the comfort letter. I'd have
 13 to look at a copy to recall, but I think there was a
 14 comparison of prior, you know, prior periods.
 15 Q. Well, you didn't have the full numbers for 16 the first quarter yet, did you?
 17 A. No. Did not have the full -- no. It was 18 short of the first quarter, so there were another 10,
 19 11, 12 days to go before the quarter ended.
 20 Q. Just to be clear, you don't have any
 21 recollection of discussing the ability to exceed '97
 22 first quarter results within the Andersen team?
 23 MR. JOHNSON: This is at any time?
 24 THE WITNESS: Oh, no, it was discussed.
 25 MR. JOHNSON: I object.

12 (Pages 42 to 45)

1 THE WITNESS: We certainly discussed
2 it, yes.

3 BY MR. WEBSTER:

4 Q. What was said?

5 A. Well, it was discussed, clearly it was
6 discussed when this press release came out.

7 Q. Before the press release came out?

8 MR. JOHNSON: That's my objection.

9 MR. MOSCATO: Do you understand the 10 question, Phil?

11 THE WITNESS: I think I do.

12 BY MR. WEBSTER:

13 Q. Well, let me rephrase it just to be clear.
14 Before this press release came out did you discuss
15 with other members of your Andersen team the ability
16 of Sunbeam to exceed their '97 first quarter results?

17 A. I believe there were some discussions on 18 that. Like I say, we were doing work on the comfort
19 letter. And, you know, there were schedules prepared.
20 There was a subtotal of sales through March whatever
21 the date was. We had a schedule of the first quarter
22 from 1997. You know, and I'm sure at some point there
23 might have been some discussion as to the difference
24 in those sales compared to the prior quarter.

25 Q. Did you or anybody else in the Andersen team

1 THE WITNESS: I think we did. I think
2 we did have an indirect discussion. I
3 mean, I didn't come out and say, as I
4 recall -- I mean, I may have. But I made
5 it clear in the discussion that the 6 year-to-date sales for 1998 were
7 substantially less than year-to-date sales
8 in 1997.

9 Now did I say you need to disclose
10 you're not going to make, you know, your 11 1997 number? I don't recall. But we
12 talked about the shortfall. And it could
13 be -- you know, I think any accountant
14 could make that assumption that, hey, you
15 know, we've got to take a look at '97 as 16 well as '98 where we were.

17 BY MR. WEBSTER:

18 Q. The 1998 analyst expectation, that was a
19 higher number than the '97 first quarter number,
20 correct?

21 A. That's correct, that's correct.

22 Q. What was the result of your discussion with 23 Mr. Kersh about the need to made this disclosure about 24 the analysts' expectations?

25 A. You know, once again, I don't remember exact

1 express an opinion about whether Sunbeam would be able
2 to exceed the first quarter of '97 results before this
3 press release came out?

4 A. Before this press release. I don't recall.
5 I don't recall.

6 Q. So did you discuss with Morgan -- not Morgan
7 Stanley. Did you discuss with Sunbeam their ability
8 to exceed '97 first quarter results before this press
9 release came out?

10 A. I don't recall. I mean, what I do recall is 11 saying compared to the prior year your sales are 12 substantially less in 1998 than they were in 1997.
13 Now can that be construed to be discussing first
14 quarter shortfall? I don't know. But I would think a
15 reasonable person could draw that conclusion.

16 Q. Just to be clear, you did -- before this
17 press release came out you did discuss with Sunbeam
18 the need to disclose that first quarter '98
19 expectations of the analysts would not be met; is that
20 correct?

21 A. Yes, that's correct.

22 Q. But you did not discuss with Sunbeam before
23 this press release came out whether or not Sunbeam
24 would exceed the '97 first quarter results?

25 MR. JOHNSON: Object to the form.

1 words that were said, but, you know, the impression in
2 my mind from that conversation was the company is
3 going to work hard to make the sales numbers. They
4 felt pretty confident that there were going to be a
5 lot of late sales reported at the end of the quarter.
6 You know, made statements like, you know, the SEC
7 attorneys were drafting the documents and that's their
8 responsibility, not our responsibility. You know,
9 things like that are in my mind, but exact words I
10 don't recall.

11 Q. Now before this press release came out did
12 you discuss with anybody at Morgan Stanley the need to 13 make disclosures about the ability to meet the
14 analysts' expectations for the first quarter of 1998?

15 A. At some point I had a discussion with some 16 folks from Morgan Stanley, including their legal 17 counsel. I don't remember precisely when that 18 discussion was, but it was about the time this
19 document came out.

20 Q. Do you remember whether it was before or 21 after it came out?

22 A. Well, as I recall, it was -- I think it was 23 right about the time this document came out.

24 Q. So it could have been before; could have been 25 after?

1 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 2 THE WITNESS: Well, I think -- well,
 3 the call was set up by Mr. Bornstein, and 4 it was not a face-to-face meeting. And
 5 Mr. Bornstein was in New York working on
 6 the offering memorandum along with Morgan
 7 Stanley and counsel and, you know, the
 8 whole team up there. And there was, you
 9 know, some kind of heated discussions
 10 about disclosure of this in the document.
 11 And Mr. Bornstein would give me updates on 12 those discussions.

13 And then at some point in time he asked
 14 me to participate in a conference call
 15 with Morgan Stanley and attorneys. And I
 16 think -- I think the company's attorneys
 17 were on that call as well, outside
 18 attorneys, not in-house attorneys. But
 19 things got pretty heated between Arthur
 20 Andersen and Morgan Stanley on disclosure
 21 on this particular issue.

22 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 23 Q. Do you remember was Mr. Bornstein in the same
 24 room, same location with people from Morgan Stanley
 25 when this conference call was held?

1 Q. Okay.
 2 A. You know.
 3 Q. You testified that, I believe -- correct me
 4 if I'm wrong -- that you didn't know about the press
 5 release until it came out; is that correct?
 6 A. That's correct.
 7 Q. And the press release was discussed in this
 8 conference call; is that right?
 9 A. I believe it was.
 10 Q. So --
 11 A. Well, I believe the disclosure of this issue
 12 in the press release was discussed on that conference
 13 call.
 14 Q. Do you remember whether the press release was 15 discussed in the conference call?
 16 A. I don't remember it precisely, but I do
 17 remember talking about this issue, which most likely
 18 would have been generated as a result of the press
 19 release coming out.
 20 Q. Okay. Let's stop for just a second. Someone
 21 is at the door.
 22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the video

 25 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the video

1 A. I had the impression they were in a
 2 conference room. I mean, I was in Florida and they
 3 were in New York. And they were at Morgan Stanley's
 4 office or the printer's office. I don't recall. But
 5 from the -- from the sounds of the conversation it
 6 sounded as if they were on a speaker phone in a
 7 conference room.

8 Q. Did you talk to Mr. Bornstein at all when he
 9 was at the printers?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you don't remember whether this
 12 conference call with Morgan Stanley was when they were
 13 at the printers or at Morgan Stanley's office?

14 MR. MOSCATO: I object. You can
 15 answer.

16 THE WITNESS: I don't recall. It was
 17 one or the other. But they were together
 18 wherever it was.

19 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 20 Q. Do you remember whether the press release had 21 come out when you had this conference call?

22 A. Well, as I say, I think, I think the 23 disclosure of the press release in the document was,
 24 you know, one of the basis for our conversation. So I
 25 think the press release was just freshly out.

1 record, 10:07 a.m.
 2 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 3 Q. Okay, Mr. Harlow, I just want to clarify in
 4 this conference call with Morgan Stanley you did
 5 discuss the need to make the disclosure that's in the 6 press release in the offering memorandum; is that
 7 correct?
 8 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that
 9 characterization.
 10 MR. JOHNSON: Object to the form.
 11 MR. MOSCATO: Misstates his testimony.
 12 THE WITNESS: That's not -- I don't
 13 think I said that. What I said was I
 14 think the contents of this press release
 15 were discussed in that call with Morgan
 16 Stanley. Now how that was -- well, I
 17 think that's what I said.
 18 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 19 Q. The press release was eventually included in 20 the offering memorandum; is that correct?
 21 A. As I recall, it was.
 22 Q. During this conference call with Morgan
 23 Stanley, did you discuss the need to include this
 24 press release in the offering memorandum?
 25 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.

018526

1 MR. JOHNSON: Join.
 2 MR. MOSCATO: You can answer.
 3 THE WITNESS: Well, as I recall, what we
 4 discussed was even more disclosure than
 5 what was in the press release, the need
 6 for more disclosure in the offering
 7 memorandum than what was in here.
 8 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 9 Q. Does that mean that you knew about the press
 10 release at the time of this conference call?
 11 A. Well, I think that's one of the things that 12 generated the call was that press release.
 13 Q. Okay. And what was your opinion about 14 whether anything more than had been disclosed in the 15 press release needed to be disclosed in the offering
 16 memorandum?
 17 A. Well, specifically I had a concern about the 18 last section of that first sentence where the company
 19 made the statement "...but net sales are expected to 20 exceed 1997 first quarter net sales of $253.4
 21 million."
 22 Q. What was your concern?
 23 A. My concern was that they should have put a
 24 period after 285 to 295 and eliminate that statement.
 25 Q. Eliminate that statement from the press

1 A. Exactly.
 2 Q. Did you discuss with Morgan Stanley and
 3 Sunbeam the need to include more information than was
 4 in this press release in the offering memorandum?
 5 A. We discussed having stronger language, making
 6 it clear that -- well, what we wanted to do was to 7 show where the sales were at the point in time the 8 document was being prepared so the reader could see if 9 they had a long way to go to make the number. And 10 there was tremendous kickback from, resistance from,
 11 you know, the other parties up there to do that.
 12 Q. What did they say?
 13 A. I don't recall, but they just thought it was 14 crazy, didn't make sense; we're stupid; we don't know
 15 what we're doing. They made us feel like idiots
 16 basically.
 17 Q. You don't remember who said that?
 18 A. I think it was the Davis Polk guy and the 19 Morgan Stanley guy.
 20 Q. Do you remember their names?
 21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Let me go off the
 22 record.
 23 (A discussion was held off the record.)
 24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the video
 25 record.

1 release or from the offering memorandum?
 2 A. Well, the press release was already out, so
 3 not much I could do about that, but specifically in
 4 the offering memorandum.
 5 Q. Your opinion was that the information in the 6 press release, except for that last clause of the 7 first sentence should be disclosed in the offering
 8 memorandum?
 9 MR. MOSCATO: I object. You can
 10 answer.
 11 THE WITNESS: Well, at a minimum. Oh,
 12 I would have -- I would have loved to make
 13 some editorial changes to this press
 14 release.
 15 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 16 Q. Other than cutting out that information did
 17 you suggest that any more information needed to be
 18 disclosed in the offering memorandum?
 19 A. Yeah, but we didn't wordsmith this particular
 20 press release.
 21 Q. It was already out?
 22 A. Yeah, the press release was -- that was a
 23 done deal.
 24 Q. You were focusing on what should go in the 25 offering memorandum?

1 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 2 Q. Do you remember specifically what you
 3 recommended should be added in the offering memorandum
 4 that wasn't in the press release?
 5 A. The only thing that I specifically remember
 6 was the deletion of the sentence which we discussed
 7 earlier regarding 1997 first quarter net sales. Do I
 8 need to clarify that?
 9 Q. No. You didn't want the whole sentence, just 10 the last part of that first sentence excluded?
 11 A. Just the last part of sentence which I
 12 previously read.
 13 Q. Okay.
 14 A. And I don't -- I don't recall other comments,
 15 you know, that were made relative to this disclosure.
 16 MR. WEBSTER: MS-117, please.
 17 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-117 for i.d.)
 18 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 19 Q. Mr. Harlow, before you is a document marked
 20 MS-117, and the first page indicates it's agreement
 21 and plan of merger among Sunbeam Corporation, Camper
 22 Acquisition Corp. and the Coleman Company, Inc. dated
 23 as of February 27th, 1998. Have you ever seen this
 24 document before?
 25 A. At some point I have. I don't recall when.

1 Q. What is this document?
 2 A. It's an agreement and plan of merger between
 3 Sunbeam and Coleman.
 4 Q. Okay.
 5 A. Dated as of February 27th, 1998.
 6 Q. Could you please turn to page 29 of that
 7 document, which is Bates stamped 0008043? And I'd ask
 8 you to read Section 7.2 to yourself and let me know
 9 when you finish.
 10 MR. MOSCATO: Can you just do me a
 11 favor. Who's Laser?
 12 MR. WEBSTER: Laser?
 13 MR. MOSCATO: Yeah.
 14 MR. WEBSTER: Defined --
 15 MR. MOSCATO: You don't have to show
 16 me. Just tell me.
 17 MR. WEBSTER: Laser is defined as 18 Sunbeam, and the company is defined as
 19 Coleman.
 20 MR. MOSCATO: The company is Coleman?
 21 MR. WEBSTER: Yes.
 22 THE WITNESS: Okay. I'm through.
 23 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 24 Q. Have you ever reviewed this section of this
 25 agreement before, Mr. Harlow?

1 A. No.
 2 Q. What does this Section 7.2 provide for?
 3 MR. JOHNSON: I object to this.
 4 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 5 MR. JOHNSON: He said he's never even
 6 read it before, and he's not a party to it
 7 either.
 8 MR. MOSCATO: I really do object. The
 9 documents speaks for itself.
 10 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 11 Q. The first sentence of Section 7.2 says that 12 the company and Laser shall each afford to the other
 13 and to the other's financial advisors legal counsel,
 14 accountants, consultants and other representatives
 15 full access at all reasonable times throughout the 16 period prior to the company effective time to all of 17 its books, records, properties, plants and personnel
 18 provided that all such access shall be on reasonable
 19 advanced notice and shall not disrupt normal business
 20 operations. And during such period, each shall 21 furnish promptly to the other a copy of each report,
 22 schedule and other document filed or received by
 23 pursuant to the requirements of federal or states
 24 securities laws and all other information as such
 25 other party may reasonably request provided that no

1 investigation pursuant to this Section 7.2 shall
 2 affect any representation or warranties made herein or
 3 the conditions to the obligations of the respective
 4 parties to consummate the company merger."
 5 Is that an accurate reading that have
 6 sentence, Mr. Harlow?
 7 A. I don't know. I had my glasses off, but I
 8 assume you can read.
 9 MR. MOSCATO: I will -- I will say that
 10 that was an accurate reading.
 11 MR. WEBSTER: Thank you.
 12 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 13 Q. Mr. Harlow, did you have an understanding
 14 during March of 1998 that Coleman and Sunbeam had a
 15 right to review all of the other parties' books,
 16 records, properties, plants, et cetera?
 17 A. I don't know what their rights were at that
 18 point.
 19 Q. Okay. Did you during the period of March
 20 1998 have any understanding that Coleman might request
 21 to review Sunbeam's books and records?
 22 A. I assume that was a possibility.
 23 Q. Did you discuss that possibility with
 24 Sunbeam?
 25 A. I don't recall direct discussions, but I'm

1 sure at some point in time it came up.
 2 Q. Did you discuss with -- after you learned
 3 that the sales figures for January and February of 4 1998 were low did you discuss with Sunbeam the
 5 possibility that Coleman might ask to see those sales
 6 figures?
 7 A. I don't recall that discussion. I know they
 8 were Coleman people working with Mr. Gluck. I think
 9 he had their controller down a number of times in his 10 office. And I assumed that they were discussing
 11 results of the company. But that was not my 12 responsibility at all to follow up on that.
 13 Q. During the time that you were discussing with 14 Sunbeam the need to make disclosure about the sales
 15 figures for January and February of 1998, did you
 16 discuss with Sunbeam the possibility that Coleman
 17 might make a request for those figures?
 18 A. I don't recall a discussion, but, you know, I
 19 absolutely assume that they, you know, they were a
 20 pretty sophisticated company, one of Mr. Perelman's
 21 companies, and I'm sure that they look at the numbers.
 22 I was not conducting their due diligence, and I can't 23 tell them what they should and should not look at.
 24 Q. Did anybody from Sunbeam ever express any
 25 concern to you about the possibility that Coleman

1 would ask to see the sales figures for January and
 2 February of 1998?
 3 A. I don't recall. I don't recall that coming
 4 up.
 5 Q. Did anybody from Morgan Stanley ever express
 6 to you a concern that Coleman might ask to see sales
 7 figures for January or February of 1998?
 8 A. Absolutely not.
 9 Q. Was it your understanding that Coleman could 10 have received the sales figures for January and 11 February of 1998 if they had asked for them?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 MR. MOSCATO: Phil, you got to pause
 14 just for a second.
 15 THE WITNESS: That was my assumption.
 16 MR. MOSCATO: I just want to object.
 17 THE WITNESS: Okay. Object.
 18 MR. MOSCATO: Retroactively I will
 19 object.
 20 THE WITNESS: I object to this whole
 21 thing, but doesn't do me any good.
 22 MR. MOSCATO: I can't do that. Well, I
 23 did do that actually.
 24 THE WITNESS: Okay.
 25 BY MR. WEBSTER:

1 letter would be requested?
 2 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 3 MR. JOHNSON: Join.
 4 THE WITNESS: I just don't recall at all.
 5 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 6 Q. Did you ever discuss with Sunbeam the
 7 possibility that Coleman would ask for a comfort
 8 letter?
 9 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 10 THE WITNESS: Don't recall.
 11 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 12 Q. Did you ever -- do you know if Ernst & Young
 13 ever prepared a comfort letter for Sunbeam?
 14 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 15 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.
 16 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 17 Q. Do you know if Ernst & Young ever delivered a
 18 comfort letter to Sunbeam concerning Coleman?
 19 A. I don't know that.
 20 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 21 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 22 Q. And do you know if anyone delivered a comfort
 23 letter to Coleman regarding Sunbeam?
 24 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
 25 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

1 Q. You provided, Andersen provided a comfort
 2 letter to Morgan Stanley; is that correct?
 3 MR. MOSCATO: Go ahead.
 4 THE WITNESS: I was going to give you a
 5 chance to object.
 6 MR. MOSCATO: I'm not objecting.
 7 THE WITNESS: That's correct.
 8 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 9 Q. And that was in connection with Morgan
 10 Stanley's underwriting of the debentures; is that
 11 correct?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. Do you know if any comfort letters were 14 prepared for Coleman or Sunbeam in connection with the
 15 acquisition?
 16 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. You
 17 can answer if you understand the question.
 18 MR. JOHNSON: I'll join.
 19 THE WITNESS: Do I understand --
 20 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 21 Q. Let me rephrase the question. Did Andersen
 22 ever prepare a comfort letter for Coleman in
 23 connection with the acquisition?
 24 A. I don't recall.
 25 Q. Did you ever anticipate that such a comfort

1 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 2 Q. Do you know if the agreement and plan of
 3 merger required Sunbeam to prepare a comfort letter
 4 for Coleman?
 5 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 6 MR. JOHNSON: James, I'm going to
 7 object to this line of questioning. If
 8 you're going to get into questions on
 9 Section 7.3, Morgan Stanley has responded
 10 to requests to admit that are absolutely
 11 judicially binding, and that, I think,
 12 foreclosed a lot of questioning you're
 13 about to engage in. Obviously if you want
 14 to engage in the questioning, you can, but
 15 I want to note my objection.
 16 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry. I don't
 17 understand what you just said. Can you
 18 explain to me?
 19 MR. JOHNSON: Sure.
 20 MR. MOSCATO: Since I'm representing
 21 the witness, I think I have a right to 22 know what's going on.
 23 MR. JOHNSON: Why don't we go off the
 24 record.
 25 MR. WEBSTER: Can we go off the record?

1 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah.
 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the video record

 5 to 10:43 a.m.)
 6 (Defendant's Exhibit # MS-31 for i.d.)
 7 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 8 Q. Okay. Mr. Harlow, before you is a document
 9 marked MS-31. Have you seen this document before?
 10 A. Yes, I have.
 11 Q. And the first page is a printout of an
 12 e-mail; is that correct?
 13 A. It appears to be, yes.
 14 Q. And an e-mail from Mr. Pastrana to you,
 15 Mr. Bornstein, and Mark Brockelman; is that correct?
 16 A. That's correct.
 17 Q. On March 18th, 1998?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. And what is attached to this e-mail?
 20 A. This is a draft of a comfort letter addressed
 21 to Morgan Stanley & Company.
 22 Q. Do you know who created this document?
 23 A. No.
 24 Q. Did you participate in the drafting of this
 25 document?

1 A. I don't recall if I did up to this point. At 2 some point in time I reviewed the final version of the 3 document, but I don't recall if I participated in the 4 drafting of this version.
 5 Q. Do you know why this draft was created?
 6 A. I assume it was to just provide Morgan
 7 Stanley and Sunbeam a copy of our -- of what we
 8 thought would be in the comfort letter at the time it
 9 was to be issued.
 10 Q. Was it intended that this draft would be
 11 circulated to -- outside Arthur Andersen?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. Who did you intend to circulate it to?
 14 A. Well, typically a draft of this letter is 15 sent to the requesting party prior to the issuance
 16 date and also our client.
 17 Q. Who was the requesting party here?
 18 A. Morgan Stanley.
 19 Q. Do you know if this draft was, in fact,
 20 circulated to Morgan Stanley and to Sunbeam?
 21 Actually, strike that.
 22 Do you know if this draft was actually
 23 circulated to Morgan Stanley?
 24 A. I don't know if this draft was. I can't 25 answer that. I can't tell from the -- I can't tell if

1 this draft was.
 2 Q. Do you know if a draft of the comfort letter
 3 was circulated to Morgan Stanley?
 4 A. Yes, I know that a draft was. I don't know
 5 if this draft was.
 6 Q. Do you know when a draft was circulated to
 7 Morgan Stanley?
 8 A. I don't know the exact time or the exact
 9 date, but prior to the issuance date on the letter
 10 there was a draft sent.
 11 Q. Do you know who at Morgan Stanley it was sent 12 to?
 13 A. I don't know that.
 14 Q. Do you know how it was delivered to Morgan
 15 Stanley?
 16 A. I don't know.
 17 Q. Did you offer -- Do you know if Andersen
 18 offered a draft of the comfort letter to anyone
 19 besides Morgan Stanley and Sunbeam?
 20 A. I don't know that.
 21 Q. Do you know if Sunbeam offered a draft of the 22 comfort letter to anybody besides Morgan Stanley?
 23 A. No, I don't know that.
 24 Q. Do you know if anybody requested a copy of 25 the draft of the comfort letter?

1 MR. MOSCATO: Besides Morgan Stanley.
 2 THE WITNESS: And Sunbeam.
 3 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 4 Q. Yes.
 5 A. No, I don't know.
 6 Q. Was this draft comfort letter available to
 7 Coleman upon request?
 8 MR. JOHNSON: Object to the form.
 9 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 10 Q. Do you know if this draft comfort letter was 11 available to Coleman upon request?
 12 MR. JOHNSON: Same objection.
 13 THE WITNESS: I don't know.
 14 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 15 Q. Did you have any expectation about whether
 16 Coleman would request a copy of the comfort letter?
 17 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 18 THE WITNESS: I had no knowledge of that,
 19 no.
 20 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 21 Q. It wasn't whether you had knowledge whether
 22 you had any expectation.
 23 MR. JOHNSON: Same objection.
 24 THE WITNESS: No, I wouldn't expect
 25 Coleman to get this letter.

1 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 2 Q. Why not?
 3 A. Because it's not -- this is a letter that we
 4 have drafted specifically for Morgan Stanley, you
 5 know, to do their thing. And I would not expect this
 6 to go out to any other parties.
 7 Q. And the purpose of the draft is to get
 8 feedback on Morgan Stanley if this is satisfactory for 9 their purposes; is that correct?
 10 MR. MOSCATO: I object. You can
 11 answer.
 12 MR. JOHNSON: Join.
 13 THE WITNESS: Well, we found that
 14 underwriters have -- they like to pay
 15 attorneys lots of money, you know, to 16 cross T's and dot I's, so, you know, we
 17 learned long ago you send these out ahead
 18 of time so there's plenty of time for the 19 attorneys to do their thing and look at 20 these letters and either get happy or
 21 unhappy with it.
 22 So we sent them out well in advance so
 23 that they can look at them and pick them
 24 apart if they don't like them.
 25

1 Q. Did you talk to Mr. Bornstein about the
 2 feedback that he received?
 3 A. I'm sure we did. I just don't remember the 4 details.
 5 MR. WEBSTER: Can I have Exhibit MS-48,
 6 please?
 7 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-48 for i.d.)
 8 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 9 Q. Mr. Harlow, before you is Exhibit MS-48. Is 10 this another draft of the comfort letter?
 11 A. It appears to be.
 12 Q. I'd like you to compare the two drafts we 13 have, MS-31 and MS-48. And specifically I'd like you
 14 to look at paragraph nine in MS-48, and I'd like to 15 ask you whether that was included in MS-31, if that's 16 new language.
 17 A. I don't know if it's new language or old
 18 language. I don't know which draft was prepared 19 first.
 20 Q. Do you know if this --
 21 A. I can't tell by these drafts.
 22 MR. WEBSTER: Well, let's pull out MS
 23 Number 9, then.
 24 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-9 for i.d.)
 25 BY MR. WEBSTER:

1 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 2 Q. What's well in advance?
 3 A. Well in advance of the issuance date.
 4 Q. The issuance of the comfort letter?
 5 A. The issuance of the comfort letter, you know,
 6 the comfort letter requirement for one that needs to 7 be dated.
 8 Q. Do you know how far in advance of the 9 issuance of the comfort letter to Morgan Stanley the 10 draft was sent to them?
 11 A. Oh, this probably, you know, several days at 12 least would be my guess.
 13 Q. Did you review the draft before it was sent 14 to Morgan Stanley?
 15 A. I don't recall.
 16 Q. Did you get any feedback from Morgan Stanley
 17 after they received the draft comfort letter?
 18 A. I personally, I don't think I ever received
 19 feedback, but...
 20 Q. Do you know if Andersen received feedback
 21 from Morgan Stanley?
 22 A. Mr. Bornstein got some feedback from the 23 letter, I think.
 24 Q. Did you discuss --
 25 A. It was my understanding he got some feedback.

1 Q. And before you is Exhibit marked MS Number 9.
 2 Do you recognize this document, Mr. Harlow?
 3 A. Yes, I've seen this before.
 4 Q. Okay. Now the final comfort letter has 13
 5 paragraphs; is that correct?
 6 A. Yes, that's correct.
 7 Q. And MS-48 only has 12, and MS-31 only has 11;
 8 is that correct?
 9 A. That's correct.
 10 Q. One of those new paragraphs, one of those 11 additional paragraphs in the final comfort letter is 12 paragraph 10, which was not in MS-31 if you compare
 13 those two documents.
 14 A. Okay. That appears to be a difference
 15 between those two drafts.
 16 Q. Do you know why that paragraph was added to
 17 the final comfort letter?
 18 A. I have no idea.
 19 Q. Do you know who requested that it be added to 20 the final comfort letter?
 21 A. I don't recall.
 22 Q. All right. Focusing on MS-9, the final
 23 comfort letter, what was the purpose of the comfort
 24 letter?
 25 A. The purpose of a comfort letter is basically

018531

1 to -- for Morgan Stanley to say that they've done a
2 certain amount of due diligence on a transaction and,
3 you know, get a letter from the accountants.

4 Q. And the transaction in this case was the
5 debenture offering?

6 A. In this case that's what it was, yes.

7 Q. And do you know if a comfort letter was
8 prepared by Ernst & Young on behalf of Coleman?

9 A. I don't know that.

10 Q. Did you have any discussions with Morgan
11 Stanley about the preparation of a comfort letter by 12 Ernst & Young?

13 A. I don't recall any discussion of that nature.

14 Q. Prior to this transaction, the acquisition of 15 Sunbeam by -- the acquisition of Coleman by Sunbeam,
16 had you worked on other acquisition transactions for 17 other clients?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And had you worked on other transactions that 20 involved debenture offerings?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And had you prepared comfort letters in 23 connection with those other debenture offerings?

24 A. I had previously prepared a number of comfort
25 letters, yes.

1 A. No, I don't recall that. My clients usually
2 were acquiring -- I worked on -- I don't ever recall
3 working on a seller where I provided a comfort letter.
4 Worked on a lot of buyers, but no sellers.

5 Q. You didn't represent any sellers?

6 A. Not that I can recall.

7 Q. Was it your experience that comfort letters
8 were prepared for the sellers in those transactions?

9 MR. JOHNSON: Object to form.

10 MR. MOSCATO: I object to the whole
11 line. I think it misconstrues what a
12 comfort letter is, but go ahead and answer
13 the question.

14 THE WITNESS: I've never really thought
15 about it. I mean, it's, you know, it's 16 typically an investment banker
17 underwriting the transaction is calling
18 the accountants for a letter that they can 19 put in their file for information they 20 already know. So, you know, it's kind of 21 a cover your ass type of document. But I
22 suppose that could be asked by an
23 investment banker for -- representing a
24 seller. I just don't know.

25 BY MR. WEBSTER:

1 Q. And in those prior representations had you
2 represented buyers in the transaction?

3 MR. MOSCATO: I object to the form.

4 You can answer.

5 BY MR. WEBSTER:

6 Q. Well, in this case the debenture offering was
7 to finance Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman; is that
8 correct?

9 A. That was the purpose of this debenture,
10 right.

11 Q. And in this transaction you were representing
12 the purchaser, which was Sunbeam, correct?

13 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. You
14 can answer.

15 THE WITNESS: Well, I was doing work for 16 the purchasers, that's correct, yes.

17 BY MR. WEBSTER:

18 Q. And you prepared a comfort letter on behalf
19 of the purchaser for Morgan Stanley, correct?

20 A. No, we prepared the comfort letter for Morgan
21 Stanley. The request came directly from Morgan
22 Stanley.

23 Q. And in your previous work on comfort letters
24 had you also represented parties who were selling to 25 another company?

1 Q. There are provisions in the AICPA rule and
2 accounting standards for the preparation of comfort
3 letters; is that correct?

4 A. There is literature related to comfort letter
5 preparation, that's correct.

6 Q. And do you know what the standards are that
7 govern the preparation of the comfort letters?

8 A. I used to, but I don't -- I haven't practiced
9 accounting for sometime, so I would have to refresh my 10 memory.

11 Q. Did you consult any of those accounting
12 standards in connection with the preparation of this
13 comfort letter?

14 A. Personally, probably not, but my staff did
15 consult, you know, with those documents or those 16 necessary references for comfort letters.

17 Q. And those -- was it your understanding that
18 those standards govern the form in which those comfort
19 letters would take and contents of the comfort letter?

20 MR. MOSCATO: I object. You can
21 answer.

22 THE WITNESS: Form is discussed. I
23 don't know if it governs it because I've 24 had comfort letters take a number of 25 different forms. I've had some pretty

1 screwy requests from underwriters in the
 2 past. They want us to opine on
 3 everything, you know, accounting related
 4 or not accounting related. But I assume
 5 there's some standards in there. I'd have
 6 to read it. I just -- I just don't
 7 recall.

8 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 9 Q. Did those -- do you remember if those
 10 accounting standards governed who was entitled to a
 11 copy of the comfort letter?
 12 A. I don't recall.
 13 Q. Was it your understanding that Coleman could
 14 have requested a copy of this comfort letter?
 15 MR. JOHNSON: Asked and answered.
 16 MR. MOSCATO: That's been asked and 17 answered actually.
 18 THE WITNESS: It wasn't my
 19 understanding at all. I wasn't even
 20 thinking about that particular issue. So
 21 I suppose they could ask for anything.
 22 You know, I certainly couldn't provide it
 23 to Coleman without any authorization from 24 my client.
 25 BY MR. WEBSTER:

1 did Andersen get that information?
 2 A. We would have received that from the
 3 company's records. The company would have given that
 4 to us. This was not audited information. This was
 5 merely given to us by the company.
 6 MR. WEBSTER: Can I have MS-44, please?
 7 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-44 for i.d.)
 8 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 9 Q. Have you had a chance to review MS-44,
 10 Mr. Harlow?
 11 A. I've not reviewed everything in it, but I've 12 reviewed it.
 13 Q. What is this document, Mr. Harlow?
 14 A. This is a representation letter to Arthur
 15 Andersen from Sunbeam officials related to the -- our 16 preparation of the comfort letter.
 17 Q. Why was this drafted, do you know?
 18 A. This is received by the auditor preparing the 19 comfort letter because most of the information in the 20 comfort letter is not audited, so we require the 21 company to represent certain things that are disclosed
 22 in the comfort letter.
 23 Q. Is this where Andersen first learned about
 24 Coleman's sales in 1998?
 25 MR. JOHNSON: I think.

1 Q. And where did you get the information that
 2 was in this comfort letter?
 3 MR. MOSCATO: I assume when you say
 4 you, you mean Andersen generally or
 5 Mr. Harlow's specifically?
 6 MR. WEBSTER: Andersen.
 7 THE WITNESS: Well, we started out with
 8 the annual financial statements of the 9 company, which are as of December 28th,
 10 1997, and then we reviewed minutes of the 11 board of directors, and we reported on 12 that in paragraph four. And then in 13 paragraph 4A we looked at certain
 14 unaudited financial statements of the 15 company from the beginning of the fiscal 16 year to February 1, 1998. We talked to 17 company officials regarding accounting
 18 matters.
 19 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 20 Q. Paragraph five of the comfort letter contains 21 information about the sales, about Sunbeam sales in 22 January of 1998 or between December 29th, 1997 and
 23 February 1, 1998; is that correct?
 24 A. Paragraph 5B does, that's correct.
 25 Q. Where did you get that information? Where

1 MR. MOSCATO: I think, number one, you
 2 misspoke. And number two -- you said
 3 Coleman sales.
 4 MR. WEBSTER: I'm sorry. Sunbeam sales
 5 with the first quarter of 1998.
 6 MR. MOSCATO: And even with that
 7 correction I'll object.
 8 MR. JOHNSON: I'll join.
 9 THE WITNESS: Could you repeat the
 10 question?
 11 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 12 Q. Do you know if this is the first time that 13 Andersen was informed about Sunbeam's sales for the 14 first month of 1998?
 15 A. For the first month of 1998? For the month
 16 of January?
 17 Q. Yes.
 18 A. I don't know.
 19 Q. Did you --
 20 A. I mean, I guess I'm not -- I'm not clear on 21 the time frame because are we talking about the 22 representation letter? Because there was --
 23 Q. This is the representation letter, right?
 24 A. This is the representation letter.
 25 Q. It's dated March 16, 1998.

018533

1 A. But this would have been signed and completed
 2 after March 16th, so --
 3 Q. Why do you say that?
 4 A. Well, because.
 5 MR. MOSCATO: Why don't you let him
 6 finish before you interrupt. All right.
 7 THE WITNESS: Because it's almost
 8 always impossible to get all signatures on 9 a representation letter on the day that 10 you want them. To have all four of these 11 people in the office on the same day is 12 probably next to impossible to get done
 13 unless they're having a board meeting.
 14 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 15 Q. This has all four signatures on it, correct?
 16 A. Yes, it does.
 17 Q. Do you have a recollection that this was
 18 received after March 16th of 1998?
 19 A. I don't know. I'm assuming that, you know,
 20 this was received after that date.
 21 Q. Why is that?
 22 A. Just because I don't think we could have 23 physically got all the signatures on this -- on that
 24 particular date.
 25 Q. Other than that, do you have any reason to

1 doubt that you received this on March 16, 1998?
 2 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 3 THE WITNESS: It was probably several days
 4 after because if you read paragraph nine,
 5 it actually covers the period up to
 6 March 16th. And it would have been pretty
 7 difficult to do that work, draft this
 8 letter and get it all signed on the same
 9 date. So there's probably some lag time
 10 between March 16th and when this got
 11 finalized.
 12 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 13 Q. Did you review this letter? Did you ever
 14 receive a copy of this letter?
 15 A. At the time we did the work I don't believe
 16 so. I've seen this letter subsequent to that time.
 17 Q. How long after that time?
 18 A. I have no idea.
 19 Q. Did you see it at any time in March of 1998?
 20 A. I don't recall.
 21 Q. Do you know if this representation letter is 22 the source for the information in paragraph 5B of the
 23 comfort letter?
 24 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 25 MR. JOHNSON: Join.

1 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 2 Q. Again, the comfort letter is MS-9.
 3 A. Okay. Sorry. The question again.
 4 Q. Do you know if this March 16th letter, MS-44,
 5 is the source for the information in paragraph 5B of
 6 the comfort letter?
 7 A. I would highly doubt it, because this letter
 8 is going to be prepared after the comfort letter, so I
 9 think it's the other way around.
 10 Q. Do you know what was the source of the 11 information in paragraph 5B of the comfort letter?
 12 A. The source for that would have been the
 13 company.
 14 Q. Do you know how it was conveyed from the
 15 company?
 16 A. I don't know.
 17 Q. Do you know whether it was orally or any 18 written document?
 19 A. I don't know. I don't know.
 20 Q. In your experience, is the representation
 21 letter typically prepared after the comfort letter is
 22 prepared?
 23 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
 24 THE WITNESS: They are done about the 25 same time, but usually the finalization of

1 the representation letter, you know, lags
 2 the preparation of the comfort letter.
 3 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 4 Q. Do you remember in this case whether you
 5 received the representation letter after you prepared
 6 the comfort letter?
 7 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. I think that
 8 was asked and answered.
 9 THE WITNESS: My opinion is it was
 10 received after for the reasons I stated
 11 before.
 12 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 13 Q. Okay. Now you said that Morgan Stanley
 14 requested the comfort letter from Andersen; is that
 15 correct?
 16 A. That's my understanding.
 17 Q. Did you need approval from Sunbeam before you
 18 could go ahead and deliver the comfort letter to
 19 Morgan Stanley?
 20 A. I don't know. I know we provided them
 21 copy. I know that if the company didn't agree with 22 the comments in there, then we wouldn't issue the 23 letter, so, you know, kind of a back-ended answer to 24 your question is probably we needed Sunbeam's
 25 concurrence on that letter to issue it since all the

1 information in the letter was about the company, and
 2 it had been based on unaudited, much of it unaudited
 3 information.
 4 Q. Did you review the contents in the comfort
 5 letter with anybody at Sunbeam before you issued it to
 6 Morgan Stanley?
 7 A. My staff did.
 8 Q. You did not personally, though?
 9 A. I did not personally, no.
 10 Q. Did your staff report to you about those 11 conversations with Sunbeam?
 12 A. I don't recall.
 13 Q. Other than the comfort letter what other
 14 information, if any, was Morgan Stanley entitled to as 15 the underwriter from you?
 16 MR. MOSCATO: Well, I object to that.
 17 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 18 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I didn't hear
 19 the last part of your question. From who?
 20 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 21 Q. From Arthur Andersen.
 22 A. From Andersen.
 23 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 24 THE WITNESS: I don't know. We had no,
 25 you know, contractual relationship with

1 Morgan Stanley. You know, I don't know
 2 what -- other than the comfort letter,
 3 that's all I know, other than discussions
 4 with Morgan Stanley.
 5 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 6 Q. Did you have any expectations that anybody
 7 else would receive a copy of the comfort letter
 8 besides Sunbeam and Morgan Stanley?
 9 MR. JOHNSON: It's asked and answered
 10 several times.
 11 MR. MOSCATO: I object. You can answer
 12 it.
 13 THE WITNESS: No.
 14 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 15 Q. Did you approve the comfort letter before it
 16 was sent out to Morgan Stanley?
 17 A. As I recall, I did.
 18 Q. Did you discuss the 1998 sales figures with 19 Sunbeam before the comfort letter was sent out to
 20 Morgan Stanley?
 21 MR. JOHNSON: Object to form.
 22 THE WITNESS: Okay. Now are we talking
 23 about a draft of the comfort letter? Are 24 we talking about the final comfort letter?
 25 BY MR. WEBSTER:

1 Q. Before the final comfort letter went out?
 2 A. Before the time the comfort letter went out.
 3 Q. Did you discuss the sales for January and
 4 February of 1998 with Sunbeam?
 5 MR. JOHNSON: Object to form.
 6 MR. MOSCATO: I thought that was asked
 7 and answered, too, but go ahead.
 8 THE WITNESS: Yeah, I mean, it would
 9 have been right around that time, within,
 10 we're talking about within a day or two.
 11 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 12 Q. What was said?
 13 MR. MOSCATO: I object. That was asked
 14 and answered too.
 15 MR. JOHNSON: He's testified in detail
 16 about somebody in personnel he spoke with.
 17 THE WITNESS: Yes, well, as I testified
 18 before I don't remember exact words, but
 19 do we want to go through it again?
 20 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 21 Q. I just want to make sure I've got it.
 22 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that, but go
 23 ahead. Is there anything that you
 24 remember in addition to what you've
 25 already testified to?

1 THE WITNESS: No, nothing additional.
 2 MR. WEBSTER: All right. Can I have
 3 MS-43.
 4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Would this be a good
 5 time to change the tape?
 6 MR. WEBSTER: Yes.
 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the video
 8 record, 11:11 a.m.
 9 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-43 for i.d.)
 10 (a recess was taken from 11:11 a.m.
 11 to 11:15 a.m.)
 12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the
 13 video record. The time is 11:15 a.m.
 14 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 15 Q. Mr. Harlow, before you is a document marked
 16 MS Exhibit 43. Have you had a chance to review the
 17 document?
 18 A. I have flipped through this document.
 19 Q. This appears to be an Arthur Andersen
 20 internal form; is that correct?
 21 A. That's correct.
 22 Q. And what kind of form is this?
 23 A. This is a form that was prepared after 24 completion of post audit review work in connection
 25 with filings the company might be making. The periods

018535

1 after -- look at subperiods after an audit was
2 complete. That was kind of a checklist to make
3 certain certain areas are covered in those reviews.

4 Q. And does this document deal with the post
5 audit review of Sunbeam after their 1997 audit?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Is this form prepared for distribution
8 outside Andersen?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Solely an internal form?

11 A. Well, you have a copy, so it does get outside
12 every once in a while, so -- but the purpose was an 13 internal document.

14 Q. Have you ever seen this document before?

15 A. Well, I signed it at one point in time, so I
16 would have to say yes.

17 Q. Where is your signature?

18 A. It's on the front page.

19 Q. At the bottom of the front page?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. There are two signatures there at the bottom
22 of the front page. Which one is yours?

23 A. The bottom signature.

24 Q. Do you know whose signature that is above
25 yours?

1 A. I believe that's Larry Bornstein's.

2 Q. And what is the date of your signature?

3 A. March '98.

4 Q. Now there's a date above there typed in on
5 the fifth line down that says date to which post audit
6 review completed, and it's dated March 16th, 1998.
7 What does that mean?

8 A. That would have been the date up to which the 9 post audit review was done.

10 Q. Okay. So this means this covers information
11 about Sunbeam up to March 16th, 1998?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. So this form was prepared sometime after 14 March 16th of 1998?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you know when it was prepared?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Do you know who prepared it?

19 A. I don't know, but I'm assuming 20 Dennis Pastrana prepared it since most of the work was 21 completed by him.

22 Q. Do you know if this document was prepared
23 before the comfort letter was issued?

24 A. I don't think it was prepared in its entirety
25 before the comfort letter was issued.

1 Q. Why do you say that?

2 A. It was probably -- well, typically what we
3 would do is prepare this simultaneous with the
4 completion of the comfort letter. But, once again,
5 this is a case where circulating the document and
6 getting the signatures might take several days
7 internally.

8 Q. Now this document, MS-43, says it covers
9 information. I believe you indicated it covers
10 information at Sunbeam through March 16th of 1998; is
11 that correct?

12 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that.

13 THE WITNESS: Well, I think it covers
14 the period of review up through
15 March 16th. Whether all the information
16 in here is precisely up to March 16th, I
17 don't know. I'd have to review it in more
18 detail.

19 BY MR. WEBSTER:

20 Q. Okay. There's also above those signatures --

21 A. Actually, I can say no because item four on 22 page four we're talking about 1998 budget which is 23 going to go beyond March 16th.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. So there's probably a few other items in here

1 which are around that date.

2 Q. Okay. Are there any items which indicate
3 that the information contained herein does not go
4 through March 16th of 1998?

5 A. Well, the 1998 budget is going to cover the 6 entire fiscal year.

7 Q. That would go beyond March 16th of 1998,
8 correct?

9 A. Yes. That's for the entire year of 1998, a
10 budget, which is beyond March 16th.

11 Q. So all the information covered in this
12 document is through March 16th, 1998 or beyond?

13 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that.

14 MR. JOHNSON: Join.

15 THE WITNESS: No, I didn't say that
16 either. I was trying to respond to your
17 earlier question does everything go up
18 through March 16th. My answer to that 19 question was not necessarily. I pointed 20 out one thing, and there's probably some
21 more things in here.

22 On item 4B there's a discussion of a
23 1998 plan does not take into account the 24 effects of recent acquisitions. I assume 25 that plan deals with the entire fiscal

018536

1 year, not just through March 16th. Also,
 2 4A, budget net sales, net income first
 3 quarter 1998, that goes beyond March 16th,
 4 1998.
 5 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 6 Q. Okay. Going back to the first page, there's 7 some handwriting above the signatures. Do you see
 8 that?
 9 A. Below the signature -- below the typed names?
 10 Yes.
 11 Q. Yes. Do you know whose handwriting that is?
 12 A. I don't know.
 13 Q. If you turn to the second page, the remaining
 14 pages of the documents are in a table form; is that 15 correct, columns and rows?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. The second column has a heading saying work
 18 done by, and I assume the initials under there are 19 initials of the individuals that did the work; is that
 20 correct?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. What is the third column?
 23 A. That's work paper reference.
 24 Q. So that column references various work papers
 25 which support the comments and disposition of items

1 that are included in the fourth column?
 2 A. In some cases it would, but really the
 3 purpose is to document where in the work papers
 4 there's documentation to support the first column.
 5 Q. Okay.
 6 A. The work done in the first column. Not
 7 necessarily comments and dispositions. Those might be
 8 elsewhere within the work papers.
 9 Q. If you look at paragraph 2A or box 2A there,
 10 the fourth column discusses a declining sales trend
 11 due to early buy program for outdoor grills which 12 accelerated sales into the fourth quarter and sales in 13 first quarter of 1997 of discontinued SKUs and ENO
 14 inventory in connection with the 1996 restructuring;
 15 is that correct?
 16 A. Yes, that's the comment.
 17 Q. What was your understanding of what that 18 meant?
 19 A. My understanding was the company instituted a
 20 program in which they were attempting to level out the 21 sale of the grills so that they could get orders in 22 earlier and not have the problems that they had in 23 1997 previous year whereby they were not able to 24 deliver grills on a timely basis to some major
 25 customers, including Wal-Mart.

1 So the company instituted a program
 2 whereby they would attempt to get the orders in
 3 earlier. There were incentives given to the customers
 4 to order the grills on an earlier basis, and that was
 5 known as the early buy program.
 6 Q. Did you discuss the early buy program with
 7 Morgan Stanley?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. Did you discuss the early buy program with
 10 Morgan Stanley before the comfort letter was issued?
 11 A. I don't recall exactly when that discussion
 12 took place, but there was some discussion, you know,
 13 when I referred to that conference call with 14 Mr. Bornstein at the printers or Morgan Stanley's
 15 office.
 16 Q. After the press release had been issued?
 17 A. That was in connection with the press release
 18 discussion.
 19 Q. What was said?
 20 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry. I'm sorry.
 21 Can you read back his answer?
 22 (The record was read as requested.)
 23 MR. MOSCATO: Sorry.
 24 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 25 Q. You discussed the early buy program with

1 Morgan Stanley during the conference call after the
 2 press release was issued; is that correct?
 3 A. That's -- yeah, that's my recollection.
 4 Q. And what was -- what was the discussion about
 5 the early buy program?
 6 A. I don't recall what the detail of the 7 discussion was, but it was one of the reasons for the 8 lower sales level for 1998. It was just one of the 9 reasons given. But there wasn't an extensive
 10 discussion as to exactly what it was. But it was 11 given as a result of lower sales level in the first
 12 part of 1998.
 13 Q. Did you discuss whether that should be
 14 disclosed in the offering memorandum?
 15 A. I don't recall. I believe it was -- it was 16 disclosed in the financial statements.
 17 Q. Turn to --
 18 A. And I believe -- I believe it also was
 19 disclosed in the offering memorandum.
 20 Q. Was there any -- did anybody object to 21 disclosing that in the offering memorandum?
 22 A. Not that I recall.
 23 MR. JOHNSON: Object to form.
 24 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 25 Q. Can you turn to page four, specifically

1 paragraph 4A of that document, please.
 2 A. You -- I don't know if you want a full answer
 3 on your previous question or not, but you asked me
 4 about, you know, 2A, and I only talked about the first
 5 item in 2A. I don't know if you wanted me to talk
 6 about the second item or not. We kind of skipped over
 7 that.
 8 MR. MOSCATO: Well let him ask the
 9 questions.
 10 THE WITNESS: Okay. All right. 4A?
 11 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 12 Q. Actually, going back 2A for a second, was --
 13 you said the information about the early buy program
 14 was in the 10-K already?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. And did the offering memorandum contain
 17 anything different about the early buy program than 18 had been disclosed in the 10-K?
 19 A. I don't recall anything different. There
 20 should have been the same disclosure, at least at a
 21 minimum the same disclosure.
 22 Q. Was there any discussion about making more
 23 disclosure in the offering memorandum that had been 24 made in the 10-K?
 25 A. I don't recall.

1 Q. And does the document indicate that the work
 2 described in four and 4A has been completed?
 3 A. Yeah, there's an indication the work was done
 4 and there's a work paper reference.
 5 Q. And do you know who made the comments in the 6 comment box to 4A?
 7 A. I assume Dennis Pastrana made those comments.
 8 I don't know for certain.
 9 Q. And the last sentence in the comments says,
 10 "Through the second period of 1998 the company has net
 11 sales of approximately $72 million and a net loss of 12 approximately $14.8 million; is that correct?
 13 A. That's correct.
 14 Q. What is the second period 1998?
 15 A. The second period would be the second month.
 16 Essentially Sunbeam was on 52, 53-week fiscal year,
 17 and it's -- in essence, would be the month of 18 February.
 19 Q. Okay. So through February the comments
 20 indicate that the company had net sales of 21 approximately 72 million and a net loss of
 22 approximately 14.8 million; is that correct?
 23 A. Yeah. I don't remember the date of the end
 24 of the second period, but it's -- might be
 25 February 28th, might be March 1st. I don't recall.

1 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 2 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 3 Q. All right. Going back to 4A on four, what
 4 does 4A concern?
 5 MR. MOSCATO: I'll object to that.
 6 You can answer if you understand the
 7 question.
 8 THE WITNESS: Well, 4A says, "To read the 9 respective financial information and
 10 inquire as to whether it has been prepared
 11 on the same basis as the audited
 12 historical financial statements; compare
 13 such prospective financial information
 14 with historical results; investigate
 15 significant fluctuations."
 16 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 17 Q. And paragraph four, box four above that
 18 indicates this concerns the latest available forecast
 19 projection budget or other prospective financial data;
 20 is that correct?
 21 A. Yeah, it indicates, "Obtain the latest
 22 available forecast projection budget, including
 23 capital and operating or other prospective financial
 24 data, particular data relating to cash flows. State
 25 the periods covered by such prospective information."

1 Q. Now the comfort letter if you look back at
 2 MS-9 in paragraph 5B, that also contains a discussion
 3 of net sales and net income or net loss for 1990 --
 4 for 1998; is that correct?
 5 MR. JOHNSON: I'm sorry. Can I hear that
 6 again?
 7 THE WITNESS: Yeah. Repeat the question.
 8 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 9 Q. The comfort letter also contains in paragraph
 10 5B information about Sunbeam's net sales and net
 11 income or net loss in 1998; is that correct?
 12 A. That's correct. But this is a different
 13 period than what's in this letter.
 14 Q. That was my next question. Do you know why 15 the comfort letter only goes through February 1st of 16 1998 on net sales and net loss?
 17 MR. JOHNSON: I object to that.
 18 MR. MOSCATO: I have to object to that.
 19 It really -- I can't imagine it's a
 20 deliberately misleading question. I'm
 21 sure it's an inadvertently misleading
 22 question if one looks at paragraph 6C.
 23 THE WITNESS: Yeah, I do know why
 24 there's a difference.
 25 BY MR. WEBSTER:

018538

1 Q. Why is that?

2 A. Because the company did not have financial
3 statements prepared for a period beyond that. And,
4 you know, they cover that in --

5 Q. 6C?

6 A. 6C.

7 Q. Thank you.

8 A. And it clearly states --

9 MR. JOHNSON: It's actually 5C for 10 everyone.

11 MR. WEBSTER: There is no 5C in the
12 comfort letter.

13 MR. MOSCATO: You're looking at the 14 wrong one.

15 MR. WEBSTER: MS-9.

16 MR. JOHNSON: I'm sorry.

17 BY MR. WEBSTER:

18 Q. Mr. Harlow, before the comfort letter was 19 issued did you talk to Morgan Stanley about the sales
20 figures for 1998?

21 A. I don't remember when the exact -- I don't 22 know the exact sequence of the timing of the receipt
23 of the comfort letter draft, the final comfort letter
24 into Morgan Stanley's hands, but during that time
25 frame there was clearly a discussion on sales,

1 and everybody was basically beating him up and giving
2 him a very hard time about the need for disclosure.

3 Q. Did Morgan Stanley ever request that the 1998
4 sales information be excluded from the comfort letter?

5 A. I don't -- I think prior to the press release --
6 I think that was the position that they were taking.
7 The impression that we had was Morgan Stanley wanted
8 to get this done, this deal done regardless of, you
9 know, what did or did not get disclosed on this issue.
10 And, you know, I don't remember if they specifically
11 said -- you know, talked about specifics on 12 disclosure. But my -- my strong feeling was there was 13 significant kickback by them on disclosure on this
14 issue.

15 Q. Disclosure in the comfort letter or 16 disclosure to the public?

17 A. Disclosure in the document.

18 MR. MOSCATO: When you say the 19 document, the offering memorandum?

20 THE WITNESS: The offering memorandum.

21 BY MR. WEBSTER:

22 Q. In the offering memorandum?

23 A. I don't think they had a big problem with the 24 comfort letter, but there was certainly concern about
25 documentation in the offering memorandum.

1 shortfalls related to the first part of 1998 and
2 disclosure of that information in the document. But I
3 can't tell you exactly how that falls relative to
4 comfort letter delivery.

5 Q. You did talk to Morgan Stanley about it,
6 though, in that conference call that we've discussed
7 already, correct?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Is that the first time you talked to Morgan
10 Stanley about the sales shortfalls for 1998?

11 A. That's the first time that I recall that I
12 talked to them about it. Mr. Bornstein had called me
13 several times in frustration because he had had verbal
14 battles with Morgan Stanley and Morgan Stanley's
15 attorney about disclosure, and Larry was very 16 frustrated in their inability to listen to him about
17 the need for disclosure and wanted me to have a
18 discussion with them.

19 Q. But were those phone calls the same day as 20 the conference call that you participated in?

21 A. They were in -- if not the same day -- some 22 of them were the same day, and some of them could have 23 been the previous day. I don't recall. But I can 24 remember Larry called, and he was very upset and just 25 felt like he was a lone wolf on this particular issue,

1 Q. Did they express concern about documenting it
2 in the offering memorandum after the press release was
3 issued?

4 A. As I recall, they were okay with the -- after
5 the press release was issued with having the press
6 release as the disclosure in the document. There was
7 a -- there was a strong resistance to our elimination
8 of the reference to the meeting of the 1990 -- 1997
9 first quarter sales with 1998.

10 Q. When you participated in the calls, would you
11 describe them as -- how would you describe the level
12 of discussion?

13 MR. JOHNSON: Object to form.

14 BY MR. WEBSTER:

15 Q. Contentious?

16 A. Yes, contentious.

17 Q. At any time did you threaten to withdraw as 18 auditors for Sunbeam?

19 A. We discussed it internally. We discussed
20 withholding our opinion, giving the company notice
21 that they could no longer rely on our opinion if there
22 was not some disclosure, but we did not threaten 23 anyone externally, but we did have internal 24 discussions on that issue.

25 Q. When did you have those internal discussions?

1 A. About the time we determined sales levels and
 2 the lack of disclosure in the offering memorandum. So
 3 it would have been mid March.
 4 Q. Before this conference call with Morgan
 5 Stanley?
 6 A. It would have been about that time, within 7 days of that.
 8 Q. Days before or days after?
 9 A. I don't recall. Most likely it would have
 10 been before that call.
 11 Q. Do you remember whether you had internal 12 discussions about withdrawing after the conference
 13 call with Morgan Stanley?
 14 A. Yes, we did.
 15 Q. How many discussions?
 16 A. One or two.
 17 Q. Who participated in those internal
 18 discussions?
 19 A. Mr. Pruitt, Mr. Bornstein, myself. That's
 20 all I can remember.
 21 Q. What was decided?
 22 A. Well, it was ultimately decided that, you
 23 know, the disclosure was okay based on, you know, the 24 company's adamant stance that they could meet those
 25 sales levels, and the company's telling us that there

1 their SEC attorney was 100 percent satisfied with
 2 disclosure, and that basically we're accountants and
 3 not attorneys, and you can't tell the company what to
 4 disclose.
 5 But they told us they had done extensive
 6 work, you know, with their chief sales executive and,
 7 you know, actually prepared a schedule showing
 8 detailed sales by customer on how they were going to 9 meet those first quarter numbers.
 10 Q. Those were documents prepared by Sunbeam?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Did Morgan Stanley prepare any of those
 13 documents?
 14 A. I don't know. I was told they were involved
 15 in discussions, but I was not a party to those 16 internal discussions.
 17 Q. And, in fact, you did not end up withdrawing
 18 from representing Sunbeam, did you?
 19 A. At that point, no.
 20 Q. Did you ever have any discussions with 21 Sunbeam about withdrawing or was it all internal?
 22 A. Oh, at that time it was just internal.
 23 Q. Did you discuss whether you should threaten 24 to withdraw?
 25 A. No.

1 Q. Internally did you discuss whether you should
 2 threaten to withdraw?
 3 A. Oh, internally we did, but not externally.
 4 Q. And you decided that you shouldn't even
 5 threaten to withdraw?
 6 A. Well, at that point in time we decided not
 7 to.
 8 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley took any steps
 9 to review or verify the accuracy of these sales
 10 forecasts that Sunbeam was making?
 11 A. I don't know that for a fact. I was told
 12 they did by the company, but I don't know that.
 13 Q. Who told you that?
 14 A. Mr. Gluck, Mr. Kersh.
 15 Q. What did they say?
 16 A. They said Morgan Stanley is all over the 17 situation, and they've been very involved in due
 18 diligence. They've done extensive work. And I was 19 given the impression that they'd done a heck of a lot
 20 more work than we'd done, so... But I don't know that 21 for a fact.
 22 Q. Now after the press release was issued do you
 23 know if Donald Drapkin from MAFCO ever called 24 Arthur Andersen?
 25 A. Never heard the name.

1 Q. Did Arthur Andersen receive any calls from
 2 Ronald Perelman from MAFCO about the press release?
 3 A. Ronald Perelman calling us directly, not that
 4 I'm aware of.
 5 Q. Do you know if Ronald Perelman called Sunbeam
 6 about the information in the press release?
 7 A. I don't know.
 8 Q. Do you know if Irwin Engelman of MAFCO called
 9 Andersen about the information in the press release?
 10 A. Not to my knowledge.
 11 Q. Do you know if Mr. Engelman called anybody at 12 Sunbeam about the information in the press release?
 13 A. No.
 14 Q. Do you know if Mr. Engelman made contact in 15 any way with Sunbeam about the information in the 16 press release?
 17 A. No.
 18 Q. Did he make contact in any way with Andersen
 19 about the information in the press release?
 20 A. I don't know.
 21 Q. Do you know if Norman -- did Norman Dinstling
 22 ever -- of MAFCO ever call you about the information
 23 in the press release?
 24 A. I never heard the name before.
 25 Q. Do you know if he ever called --

045810
18540

1 A. I have no idea.
 2 Q. -- Andersen?
 3 A. I have no idea.
 4 Q. Do you know if he made any contact with
 5 Sunbeam about the information in the press release?
 6 A. I can't say.
 7 Q. Did you ever have a conversation with
 8 Howard Gittis of MAFCO?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. What about?
 11 A. He was showing me some of his fine cigars one
 12 day and wanted to know if I wanted one.
 13 Q. Is that it?
 14 A. He's a cigar connoisseur. I met him several
 15 times. We just had conversations on other issues.
 16 Q. Did you ever meet with him during March of 17 1998 when this acquisition was going on?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. Did he ever call you or contact you in any 20 way during that period of time?
 21 A. In March? No.
 22 Q. April?
 23 A. I think I met Mr. Gittis for the first time
 24 probably in June of '98.
 25 Q. Okay. Did Jerry Levin call you after the

1 issuance of the press release about information that
 2 was disclosed?
 3 A. No.
 4 Q. Do you know if he contacted --
 5 A. Well, I talked to him after, after.
 6 Q. After what?
 7 A. But, once again, it's not in March.
 8 Q. When did you first talk to him?
 9 A. First talked to him in probably June of '98.
 10 Q. Okay. Do you know if he contacted anybody at 11 Andersen in March or April of 1998 about the 12 information in the press release?
 13 A. Not to my knowledge.
 14 Q. Do you know if he contacted anybody at
 15 Sunbeam about the information in the press release?
 16 A. It was my understanding that he was having
 17 meetings with management of Sunbeam at that time.
 18 What was discussed, I don't know.
 19 Q. How about James Maher, did you ever receive a
 20 phone call from him after the issuance of the press
 21 release?
 22 A. Not to my knowledge.
 23 Q. Do you know if he made any contact with
 24 Andersen after the issuance of the press release?
 25 A. Not to my knowledge.

1 Q. Do you know if he contacted Sunbeam at all
 2 about the information in the press release?
 3 A. I don't know.
 4 Q. How about William Nesbitt of MAFCO, did you
 5 ever receive a phone call, or did he contact you about
 6 the information in the press release?
 7 A. No.
 8 Q. Do you know if he contacted Andersen about
 9 any of the information in the press release?
 10 A. I don't know.
 11 Q. Do you know if he contacted Sunbeam about any 12 of the information in the press release?
 13 A. I have no knowledge.
 14 Q. Joseph Paige of Coleman, did he ever contact
 15 you about information in the press release?
 16 A. Can we just condense all of these?
 17 Q. I just want to make sure --
 18 A. Why don't you just name -- why don't you just 19 give me all the names and the question you want, and I
 20 can take them all in one.
 21 Q. Sure. The other names are Joseph Paige,
 22 Joram Salig, Paul Shapiro, Bruce Slovin, or Barry
 23 Schwartz, all of MAFCO or Coleman. Did you ever hear
 24 from any of them?
 25 A. The only person I heard from is Paul Shapiro.

1 Q. Okay.
 2 A. But, once again, I met Paul Shapiro in June
 3 of 1998, and it was not in the March time frame. The 4 others I have not met or know of no knowledge of any
 5 questions of me, Arthur Andersen or Sunbeam.
 6 Q. Did anyone from Ernst & Young ever contact
 7 you about the information in the press release?
 8 A. I don't recall. I don't believe so.
 9 Q. Do you know if anybody at Ernst & Young
 10 contacted Andersen about any information in the press
 11 release?
 12 A. Not to my knowledge.
 13 Q. Do you know if anybody at Ernst & Young
 14 contacted anybody at Sunbeam about the information in
 15 the press release?
 16 A. Well, I know that -- I know that Mr. Gluck
 17 met with Ernst & Young in connection with the 18 transaction, but I don't know what they discussed.
 19 Q. Do you know if --
 20 A. It was about the time the transaction was 21 consummated.
 22 Q. At the end of March?
 23 A. During the March, late March time frame.
 24 Q. Did anyone at Credit Suisse First Boston
 25 contact you about the information in the press

1 release?
 2 A. Not to my knowledge.
 3 Q. Did anyone at Credit Suisse First Boston
 4 contact Andersen about the information in the press
 5 release?
 6 A. Not to my knowledge.
 7 Q. Did anyone at Credit Suisse First Boston --
 8 do you know if anybody at Credit Suisse First Boston
 9 contacted anyone at Sunbeam about the information in
 10 the press release?
 11 A. I have no knowledge of that.
 12 Q. Did anyone at Wachtell Lipton contact you
 13 about the information in the press release?
 14 A. That name's familiar. I'm just trying to 15 remember the context of it. I just -- I don't
 16 remember. I don't remember who Wachtell represented,
 17 but the name is familiar. I may have seen it on a
 18 letter or something from them.
 19 Q. Do you know if counsel for Coleman contacted
 20 you about the information in the press release?
 21 A. I don't recall.
 22 Q. Do you know if counsel for Coleman contacted
 23 Andersen about the information in the press release?
 24 A. Not that I'm aware of.
 25 Q. Do you know if counsel for Coleman contacted

1 A. Mr. Levin, Mr. Shapiro, Karen Clark, the
 2 whole shooting match.
 3 Q. So that was June of 1998?
 4 A. Um-hum, yeah.
 5 Q. And that was the first time they asked you
 6 about the sales figures for 1998?
 7 A. Um-hum.
 8 Q. After the issuance of the press release --
 9 Strike that.
 10 Was June of 1998 the first time that you
 11 talked to anybody at Coleman about Sunbeam's business?
 12 A. That I can recall. You know, I think I met
 13 Karen Clark prior to June because she would -- she 14 came to Delray to meet with Mr. Gluck to talk about 15 the transition after the transaction was completed.
 16 So I did meet Karen Clark, but that's the only name I
 17 can recall.
 18 Q. That was after the transaction was completed?
 19 A. That was after, probably sometime in April of 20 '98 when I met her.
 21 Q. Did she ask you about the sales for --
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. -- the first few months?
 24 Do you know if anyone from Coleman
 25 contacted Andersen about sales for '98 after the

1 Sunbeam about the information in the press release?
 2 A. I don't know that. I can't count that one
 3 way or the other. Once again, I know they met with
 4 management, but what was discussed, I don't know.
 5 Q. After the issuance of the press release did
 6 anyone from Coleman call you and ask to talk to you
 7 about the sales figures for 1998?
 8 A. Other than the conversation?
 9 Q. Other than what conversation?
 10 A. At the printers? Did you say Coleman?
 11 Q. Coleman. Was Coleman involved in the 12 conversation at the printers?
 13 A. No. I thought you said Morgan. No.
 14 Q. Would you like me to repeat the question?
 15 A. Well, I'm getting tired, so I need coffee.
 16 Q. Let me ask you --
 17 A. I'm starting to hear things.
 18 Q. After the press release was issued did
 19 anybody from Coleman call you or contact you to ask
 20 you about the sales figures for 1998?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. Who?
 23 A. It was the -- pretty much the new management
 24 team that came into Sunbeam.
 25 Q. When was this?

1 issuance of the press release?
 2 A. Not to my knowledge.
 3 Q. Do you know if anybody from Coleman contacted
 4 Sunbeam about sales for '98 after the issuance of the
 5 press release?
 6 A. Once again, I know there were meetings
 7 between Sunbeam and Coleman executives. What they
 8 discussed, I don't know.
 9 Q. Did anybody from Sunbeam ever report to you
 10 that Coleman expressed concerns about the sales
 11 figures?
 12 A. I heard something about that, but I don't
 13 remember the details.
 14 Q. Who did you hear that from?
 15 A. Mr. Gluck.
 16 Q. What did he say?
 17 A. Basically that there were some concerns about
 18 those numbers.
 19 Q. On the part of Coleman?
 20 A. On the part of Coleman.
 21 Q. And this was after the press release came
 22 out?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.

1 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 2 Q. Did he say what Coleman was going to do about
 3 it?
 4 A. No.
 5 Q. Did he ask you to do anything about it?
 6 A. No.
 7 Q. Did he indicate whether any books and records
 8 of Sunbeam were going to be provided to Coleman?
 9 A. Not that I recall.
 10 Q. Do you remember any other details of the 11 conversation?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. Did you have any discussions with Morgan
 14 Stanley after the issuance of the press release about 15 concern on Coleman's part about the sales figures for 16 '98?
 17 A. I don't recall any discussion with Morgan
 18 Stanley about Coleman's concern.
 19 Q. Did anybody from Morgan Stanley indicate that 20 they had inquiries from Coleman about the '98 sales
 21 figures?
 22 A. Not that I'm aware of.
 23 Q. After the issuance of the press release did
 24 anybody at Credit Suisse First Boston contact you or 25 Andersen to talk about the '98 sales figures?

1 figures?
 2 MR. JOHNSON: That's asked and answered.
 3 THE WITNESS: Are we talking about the
 4 due diligence conference call, or are we
 5 talking about the printers' conference
 6 call?
 7 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 8 Q. Printers'.
 9 A. Printers' conference call. I don't recall
 10 Coleman's name coming up in that conversation.
 11 Q. Did Coleman -- was there any -- well, during 12 the due diligence conference call, did you know about
 13 the '98 sales figures yet?
 14 MR. MOSCATO: I think that's been asked
 15 and answered.
 16 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah.
 17 THE WITNESS: As I recall, I didn't.
 18 MR. WEBSTER: Let's look at MS-32.
 19 MR. MOSCATO: Do you want him to focus
 20 on both documents or just one document?
 21 MR. WEBSTER: Both.
 22 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-32 for i.d.)
 23 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 24 Q. Have you had a chance to read the document
 25 yet, Mr. Harlow?

1 MR. JOHNSON: Isn't that asked and
 2 answered?
 3 THE WITNESS: Not that I recall.
 4 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 5 Q. Do you know if anybody at Credit Suisse First
 6 Boston contacted Sunbeam about the '98 sales figures
 7 after the issuance of the press release?
 8 A. I don't know.
 9 Q. Did you have any discussions with Sunbeam
 10 about Coleman inquiring about the '98 sales figures?
 11 A. Yeah, Mr. Gluck brought it up one day. I
 12 don't remember the context of the conversation, but he 13 mentioned it to me. And I don't remember who the 14 individual was. I don't know if it was Mr. Perelman
 15 he mentioned or, you know, somebody in the MAFCO. But
 16 it was in the context, you know, that Coleman was a
 17 little surprised when they heard the information. And 18 that was about the gist of the conversation.
 19 Q. Was there any concern that -- did Sunbeam --
 20 did Mr. Gluck express any concern that Coleman would 21 back out of the deal?
 22 A. I don't recall. I don't recall that he did.
 23 Q. During that conference call with Morgan
 24 Stanley, did anybody express a concern about how
 25 Coleman would react to the disclosure of the '98 sales

1 A. I've just flipped through it. I haven't read
 2 it.
 3 Q. Are you familiar with these documents?
 4 A. I don't know if I've seen these before or
 5 not.
 6 Q. Do you know what they are?
 7 A. Yeah, they're just drafts.
 8 Q. Drafts of what?
 9 A. The comfort letter and also the
 10 representation letter.
 11 Q. Okay. And the first page of the document is 12 a printout of an e-mail; is that correct?
 13 A. It appears to be.
 14 Q. Did you ever receive a copy of these
 15 documents that are attached to the e-mail?
 16 A. I don't remember. I doubt it.
 17 MR. MOSCATO: Your question meant these
 18 particular drafts of the document; is that
 19 right?
 20 MR. WEBSTER: Yeah.
 21 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 22 Q. Now after the initial comfort letter did you
 23 receive a representation letter from Sunbeam?
 24 A. I doubt it.
 25 Q. Let's look at MS-47.

1 A. Are you talking about the draft? Are you
 2 talking about the final? The copy in here?
 3 MR. MOSCATO: Well, let him just show you
 4 what he wants.
 5 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-47 for i.d.)
 6 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 7 Q. Did you get a chance to review that yet,
 8 Mr. Harlow?
 9 A. (Nodding head).
 10 Q. What is MS-47?
 11 A. MS-47 is the signed representation letter
 12 from the company to Arthur Andersen.
 13 Q. What's the date of the letter?
 14 A. This one is dated March 23rd.
 15 Q. Do you know why there's a representation
 16 letter dated March 16th and one dated March 23rd?
 17 A. Well, one's probably relates to the 18 bring-down letter when the deal was funded.
 19 Q. And that would be the latter one?
 20 A. That would be the latter date.
 21 Q. Why was a second representation letter needed
 22 in connection with the bring-down letter?
 23 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. You
 24 can answer.
 25 MR. JOHNSON: Join.

1 THE WITNESS: Because there is
 2 additional information in that letter
 3 typically that's different than the
 4 information in the first letter.
 5 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 6 Q. What is a bring-down letter?
 7 A. Just updates the comfort letter to the later
 8 date.
 9 Q. Okay.
 10 A. Just really an updating of the original
 11 comfort letter.
 12 Q. Okay. Did you have any discussions with --
 13 did you personally have any discussions with Morgan
 14 Stanley about the preparation of the bring-down
 15 letter?
 16 A. I don't recall. I don't recall any
 17 discussions with them.
 18 Q. Do you remember -- did you have any 19 discussions with your team at Arthur Andersen about 20 the preparation of the come-down letter -- bring down
 21 letter?
 22 A. Yeah, we had some discussions. I don't
 23 remember the details of those discussions.
 24 Q. Did you participate in the drafting of the 25 bring-down letter?

1 A. I reviewed it.
 2 Q. But did not draft it?
 3 A. I did not draft it, no.
 4 Q. Do you know who drafted it?
 5 A. It was probably Mr. Pastrana.
 6 Q. Okay. And did Arthur Andersen prepare this
 7 representation letter?
 8 A. The representation letter was most likely a
 9 copy of the earlier representation letter with some 10 modifications. And the client could have made some 11 modifications to this letter. But most likely it's 12 what was -- it was pretty much a draft of the first
 13 representation letter with changes in dates.
 14 Q. Did you discuss this representation letter
 15 with Sunbeam?
 16 A. I did not.
 17 Q. Do you know if -- do you know who in your 18 team discussed this representation letter with
 19 Sunbeam?
 20 A. I don't know who, but, you know, this letter
 21 would have been delivered probably by Mr. Pastrana to 22 Mr. Gluck, and he would have handled the finalization
 23 of that letter.
 24 Q. Did you have any expectation about whether
 25 Coleman would ask for a copy of this representation

1 letter?
 2 MR. JOHNSON: Object to form.
 3 THE WITNESS: Did I have any expectation?
 4 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 5 Q. Yeah.
 6 A. I wouldn't think they'd want this letter.
 7 Q. Why not?
 8 A. I mean, it's not a letter that they would 9 normally receive.
 10 Q. Well, after -- this letter was -- is dated
 11 after the press release; is that right?
 12 A. Which press release?
 13 Q. The March 19th press release.
 14 A. Yes. This date is after March 19th.
 15 Q. Did you have any discussions with Sunbeam
 16 about Coleman requesting copies of the representation
 17 letter or bring-down letter after the press release
 18 was issued?
 19 A. No.
 20 Q. Did you have any discussions internally about 21 the possibility of Coleman requesting copies of these 22 documents after the March 19th press release was
 23 issued?
 24 A. No, not that I can recall.
 25 Q. Do you have an understanding as to whether

018544

1 Coleman had a right to these documents if they
 2 requested them?
 3 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that.
 4 MR. JOHNSON: Join.
 5 THE WITNESS: Well, I'm not an attorney,
 6 and I don't know what the agreements say,
 7 but I would say that Coleman did not have
 8 a right to these letters.
 9 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 10 Q. Why is that?
 11 A. Because this is a letter to Arthur Andersen
 12 in a representation by Sunbeam. I just don't see why
 13 they would have a right to receive these letters. We 14 certainly couldn't give these letters up.
 15 Q. Okay.
 16 MR. WEBSTER: Can I have MS-10, please.
 17 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-10 for i.d.)
 18 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 19 Q. Have you had a chance to review the document?
 20 A. I've reviewed it. I've not read it in
 21 detail.
 22 Q. Do you recognize what MS-10 is?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. What is it?
 25 A. This is the, what's known as the bring-down

1 figures before this letter was issued?
 2 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry. Read back the
 3 question.
 4 (The record was read as requested.)
 5 MR. MOSCATO: I object. The question-
 6 is vague.
 7 MR. WEBSTER: Yeah, I'll rephrase the
 8 question.
 9 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 10 Q. This bring-down letter, Mr. Harlow, contains 11 updated figures on the '98 sales of Sunbeam since the 12 comfort letter; is that correct?
 13 MR. MOSCATO: Well, I object to that.
 14 MR. JOHNSON: Object to form.
 15 MR. MOSCATO: I really do object to
 16 that.
 17 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 18 Q. I'll rephrase it.
 19 This letter updates the '98 sales figures
 20 that were in the comfort letter; is that correct?
 21 MR. MOSCATO: Why don't you take the
 22 comfort letter out, Phil, and compare
 23 before you answer that question.
 24 MR. WEBSTER: The comfort letter is
 25 MS-9.

1 comfort letter that Arthur Andersen issued to Morgan
 2 Stanley on March 25th.
 3 Q. Do you know who requested that this document
 4 be drafted?
 5 A. I assume it was a direct request from Morgan
 6 Stanley, but it could have been a request made through
 7 Sunbeam. I don't know.
 8 Q. Would either a request from Morgan Stanley or 9 through Sunbeam be sufficient for you to draft this
 10 letter?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Did they have to make the request in a
 13 certain way? Did it have to be written, or could an 14 oral request generate the drafting of this letter?
 15 A. Either way. I don't recall how they made the
 16 request.
 17 Q. Who was entitled to receive a copy of this
 18 document?
 19 A. Morgan Stanley and Sunbeam.
 20 Q. Did you discuss the 1998 sales figures that
 21 are in this bring-down letter with Morgan Stanley
 22 before it was issued?
 23 A. This particular letter I personally did not.
 24 Q. Do you know if anybody at Andersen had
 25 discussions with Morgan Stanley about the '98 sales

1 MR. MOSCATO: Look at 6C.
 2 THE WITNESS: Okay. What's the question?
 3 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 4 Q. Does the bring-down letter update the figures
 5 on '98 sales for Sunbeam from the comfort letter?
 6 A. No.
 7 Q. Well, if you look at the second page of the 8 bring-down letter at the bottom of paragraph -- well,
 9 the second page, it includes a figure there for net
 10 loss for Sunbeam for the first two months of 1998; is
 11 that correct?
 12 MR. JOHNSON: Your question was sales.
 13 THE WITNESS: Your question was on
 14 sales.
 15 MR. MOSCATO: Yeah.
 16 THE WITNESS: Not income or loss.
 17 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 18 Q. Well, does it update the net income loss
 19 figures from the comfort letter?
 20 A. Yes, it does, it appears to.
 21 Q. And the net income loss figures that were 22 indicated in the comfort letter was a net loss of 23 $9.510 for the first month of '98; is that correct?
 24 MR. MOSCATO: Objection to form.
 25 That's million. It's in euros.

1018545

1 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 2 Q. Nine million.
 3 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry. There was
 4 confusion.
 5 THE WITNESS: Repeat the question.
 6 MR. MOSCATO: Can you try that again?
 7 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 8 Q. The comfort letter indicates that the net
 9 loss for the first month for '98 for Sunbeam was
 10 $9,510,000; is that correct?
 11 A. Yes, through February 01, 1998.
 12 Q. And the bring-down letter indicates that the 13 net loss for Sunbeam in the first two months of 1998
 14 was 41,190,000; is that correct?
 15 A. Yes, that's for -- yeah, through March 1st,
 16 1998. Another month, yes.
 17 Q. Did you have any discussions with Sunbeam
 18 about including this figure in the bring-down letter?
 19 A. Not that I recall. I mean, these were the --
 20 these were the facts.
 21 Q. Did Morgan Stanley ask any questions about
 22 the updated net loss figures in the bring-down letter?
 23 A. I don't recall having any direct discussions
 24 with Morgan Stanley on the second letter.
 25 Q. Do you know if they contacted anybody at

1 or worry that Coleman might inquire about '98 sales
 2 figures?
 3 A. No, not to my knowledge.
 4 Q. Did anybody from Sunbeam ever express any
 5 concern that Coleman might inquire about financial
 6 information on Sunbeam?
 7 A. From Arthur Andersen? Not to my knowledge.
 8 Q. Did they express any concern that Coleman
 9 would ask Sunbeam itself for such information?
 10 A. No, I never heard anything like that.
 11 MR. WEBSTER: This is a good time to 12 break for lunch.
 13 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the video
 14 record, 12:19.
 15 (A lunch recess was taken from 12:19 p.m.
 16 to 1:11 p.m.)
 17 MR. WEBSTER: Let's make this MS-602.
 18 (Defendant's Exhibit #MS-602 for i.d.)
 19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Back on the video
 20 record. The time is 1:11 p.m.
 21 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 22 Q. Mr. Harlow, you have a document in front of 23 you that has been marked MS-602. Have you had a
 24 chance to review the document?
 25 A. Yes.

1 Andersen about the second letter?
 2 A. I believe Larry had some discussions, but I
 3 was not part of those discussions.
 4 Q. Okay. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley
 5 indicate to you that they were conducting due
 6 diligence on Coleman in connection with the debenture
 7 offering?
 8 A. I don't think I -- I can't recall, you know,
 9 someone from Morgan Stanley saying we're doing due
 10 diligence. I mean, the documents I saw indicated that 11 they were, and the company told me they were. But any
 12 direct discussion with Morgan Stanley about their work
 13 on due diligence, I don't -- I don't remember.
 14 Q. Did anybody at Sunbeam ever discuss with you
 15 or anybody -- Well, strike that.
 16 Did anybody at Sunbeam ever discuss with
 17 you how you should react if Coleman or anybody
 18 representing Coleman inquired about the '98 sales
 19 figures?
 20 A. No.
 21 Q. Did you receive any instructions from Sunbeam
 22 about how you should respond to inquiries for 23 financial information from Coleman?
 24 A. No, not that I recall.
 25 Q. Did anybody from Sunbeam ever express concern

1 Q. Have you ever seen in before?
 2 A. I don't think I've seen this particular
 3 document.
 4 Q. Do you have any idea who created it?
 5 A. I think this was created by Sunbeam. I've
 6 seen a different version of it.
 7 Q. Okay. Do you know if this was part of
 8 Sunbeam's books and records?
 9 A. I don't know.
 10 Q. Okay. And I'm showing you -- Let's mark this 11 as -- What was the last one? 602. -- Let's mark this
 12 as MS-603.
 13 (Defendant's Exhibit MS-603 for i.d.)
 14 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 15 Q. Have you had a chance to review MS-603
 16 Mr. Harlow?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. This appears to be another version of MS-602;
 19 is that correct?
 20 A. It appears to be the same schedule, just 21 different notes, different handwriting than the 22 previous one.
 23 Q. Is this the version of this document that you
 24 saw?
 25 A. I don't think so.

1 Q. There's handwriting in various parts of this
2 document. Is any of the handwriting yours?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Do you have any idea who prepared this
5 document?
6 A. No. Looks like -- well, any idea. I think
7 the typed portion was prepared by Sunbeam, someone at
8 Sunbeam.
9 Q. Why do you think that?
10 A. Because the version I saw at some point in 11 time I was told is prepared by Sunbeam, which was 12 similar to this. As far as the, you know, the 13 handwritten notes, telephone numbers, I don't know
14 whose those are.
15 Q. Do you remember when you saw a version of 16 this document?
17 A. It would have been sometime in 1998, but I
18 don't remember the exact date.
19 Q. Do you remember whether you saw this before
20 the March 19th press release was issued?
21 A. I'm pretty sure I didn't see it before that
22 date.
23 Q. Do you remember whether you saw it in March
24 of 1998?
25 A. I think it was -- I think I saw it after

1 March 1998.
2 Q. After March of 1998?
3 A. Yep. I can remember discussing items --
4 discussing this document but not actually physically
5 seeing.
6 Q. If you look at the top of the document,
7 there's a fax lug line up there. Do you see that?
8 A. Which one?
9 Q. Both, I think. Well, it's crossed out a
10 little bit on 602. If you look at 603, do you see the 11 fax line up at the top?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Do you see where it indicates a date of March
14 19th, '98?
15 A. Yes, um-hum.
16 Q. Does this refresh your recollection as to 17 when you might have seen this document?
18 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
19 MR. JOHNSON: Join.
20 THE WITNESS: Not really.
21 BY MR. WEBSTER:
22 Q. Okay. All right. Mr. Harlow, I want to go
23 back to a topic that we covered at the beginning of 24 the deposition. You indicated that sometime in March
25 of '98 you went to Kansas City to review Coleman work

1 papers; is that correct?
2 A. No. I actually reviewed -- there were Ernst
3 & Young work papers.
4 Q. Ernst & Young work papers?
5 A. Of the audit of the Coleman Corporation.--
6 Q. And was Ernst & Young present?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And did you discuss their work papers with 9 Ernst & Young during that meeting?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Who else went with you to that meeting?
12 A. As I testified earlier, it was Mr. Gluck and 13 Mr. Bornstein.
14 Q. Nobody else from Andersen?
15 A. I don't recall anyone other than myself and 16 Larry from Andersen.
17 Q. Okay. Did you review any records regarding 18 Coleman sales in the first part of 1998 during that
19 meeting?
20 A. Those records were not made available to us,
21 so the answer is no.
22 Q. Did you request them?
23 A. We only requested work papers, and there was 24 no -- well, there was no audit done subsequent to that 25 date, so we were just told we'd have access to their

1 audit work papers, which were actually incomplete at
2 that point in time.
3 Q. Did you request that Ernst & Young or
4 somebody from Ernst & Young be present to talk to you
5 about the work papers?
6 A. They required their presence.
7 Q. Do you know why they did that?
8 A. That's just standard operating procedure for
9 accounting firms.
10 Q. Okay.
11 A. When they allow access to their work papers.
12 Q. Do you know if Ernst & Young ever came to 13 review Arthur Andersen's work papers on the Sunbeam
14 audit?
15 A. I don't recall.
16 Q. Was there any discussion at that Kansas
17 meeting about conducting a similar meeting to review
18 the Arthur Andersen work papers of the Sunbeam audit?
19 A. Not to my knowledge.
20 Q. Did you ever discuss with Mr. Gluck or
21 anybody else at Sunbeam the possibility of Ernst &
22 Young coming to do due diligence on your work, audit
23 of Sunbeam?
24 A. We most likely did, but I just -- I don't
25 recall precise dates and how it was discussed.

1 Q. Do you recall any of the details of those
 2 discussions?
 3 A. I don't. I had the assumption that it might
 4 occur in this type of transaction, but I -- and I
 5 think Mr. Gluck and I may have casually discussed it,
 6 but I don't -- I don't remember the details.
 7 Q. Did Mr. Gluck express any concern about that
 8 occurring?
 9 A. Not to my knowledge.
 10 Q. What was the scope of the due diligence that 11 you performed on Coleman in connection with the
 12 transaction?
 13 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. You
 14 can answer.
 15 THE WITNESS: There was really no scope
 16 defined by the company. It was 17 basically -- basically it was dictated by 18 the amount of time we had at Ernst &
 19 Young's offices. It was a review of their 20 work papers and to identify issues that
 21 Sunbeam should know about that might be
 22 documented in Ernst & Young's work papers,
 23 but there was no formal scope that, you
 24 know, that certain things were going to be 25 reviewed, and this work was going to be

1 done.
 2 It was merely, you know, Andersen fly
 3 out -- we actually flew out with Mr. Gluck
 4 and spent a day looking at the work papers
 5 and come up with what we can and catch a
 6 plane that night, and that's it.
 7 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 8 Q. Was a follow-up meeting discussed at that
 9 Kansas City meeting?
 10 A. I don't recall.
 11 Q. Do you know if you or anybody at Andersen
 12 ever requested an opportunity for a follow-up meeting
 13 or further review of the documents?
 14 A. Well, I didn't request further review of the 15 documents because we basically got everything reviewed
 16 that was made available to us that day. So I
 17 didn't -- I didn't feel another trip to flip through 18 Ernst & Young work papers was going to do anybody any 19 good.
 20 Q. Okay. I want to go back to the conference
 21 call that you had with Morgan Stanley and others right
 22 after the issuance of the March 19th press release.
 23 A. Okay. This is the --
 24 MR. MOSCATO: I object to the --
 25 THE WITNESS: The call at the printers or

1 Morgan Stanley's office or wherever?
 2 MR. MOSCATO: Right.
 3 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 4 Q. Right. That's the conference call where you
 5 discussed what should be disclosed in the offering
 6 memorandum.
 7 A. Okay.
 8 Q. Did it -- during that conference call, did
 9 anyone from Morgan Stanley express surprise at the 10 sales figures for the first part of 1998?
 11 A. I don't recall surprise. I think it was --
 12 it was more -- it seemed to be there was 13 contentiousness about disclosure of those sales
 14 numbers in the document. I don't remember anybody
 15 saying, gee, whiz, I'm really surprised the numbers
 16 are what they are. I just don't recall that.
 17 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley complain that 18 the sales figures hadn't been disclosed earlier?
 19 A. They may have, but I wasn't -- I just
 20 don't -- I don't recall them saying Arthur Andersen
 21 should have disclosed those at an earlier point in 22 time, but...
 23 Q. Did they complain that Sunbeam should have
 24 disclosed?
 25 MR. MOSCATO: Wait. Were you finished

1 with your answer?
 2 THE WITNESS: No, I'm just trying to
 3 recollect. It's possible that there was
 4 some, you know, some disappointment in
 5 Sunbeam in not disclosing that at an
 6 earlier point in time, but I just don't 7 recall, because most of our, most of our
 8 focus and energy was, okay, it is what it
 9 is; let's get it documented in the 10 document as professionals should recommend 11 to their clients. That's where we were 12 coming from.
 13 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 14 Q. And that conference call was the first time
 15 that you talked to Morgan Stanley -- anybody at Morgan
 16 Stanley about the '98 sales figures?
 17 A. Well, it was the second time I talked to 18 Morgan Stanley, but the first time that I recall
 19 talking to them about the year-to-date '98 sales.
 20 Q. The first time you talked to them was the due
 21 diligence call?
 22 A. That was the -- yeah, the earlier discussion
 23 on accounting issues.
 24 Q. And that was before you knew about the '98
 25 sales figures?

018548

1 A. That's right.
 2 Q. Did -- during that March 19th or --
 3 March 19th conference call with Morgan Stanley, did
 4 anybody discuss the possibility of a lawsuit or
 5 litigation in connection with disclosure?
 6 A. Yeah, I think, I believe we brought it up
 7 that there's potential for litigation if you don't
 8 disclose this information.
 9 Q. Litigation by whom?
 10 A. Litigation by the parties harmed as a result
 11 of not knowing that information.
 12 Q. Did you suggest who might sue?
 13 A. No. I don't recall. I don't recall the 14 detailed discussion, but --
 15 Q. What else was said about the possibility of 16 litigation?
 17 A. I mean, I don't remember. We had -- we had 18 attorneys on the call, and they were supposedly the 19 experts on litigation, so they didn't want to hear us.
 20 Q. Who was it that first alerted you to the '98
 21 sales figures for Sunbeam?
 22 MR. JOHNSON: I'm going to object to form.
 23 THE WITNESS: I assume you're asking about 24 the sales figures through first month of 25 January.

1 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 2 Q. Yes.
 3 A. First month of 1998. It would have been
 4 either Mr. Bornstein or Mr. Pastrana. I don't
 5 remember which one. Most likely Mr. Bornstein.
 6 Q. How did they get in touch with you? Were
 7 they a phone call?
 8 A. Probably a phone call because we were in
 9 three separate offices. Mr. Bornstein was in our West
 10 Palm Beach office; Mr. Pastrana was based in our Miami
 11 office; and I ran the Fort Lauderdale office, so a lot
 12 of our conversation on work was over the phone as 13 opposed to face to face.
 14 Q. And that was sometime after the March 12th
 15 due diligence call?
 16 A. Yeah, that would have been most likely after,
 17 yeah.
 18 Q. Was it before the draft comfort letter was 19 sent to Morgan Stanley?
 20 A. It would have been about the time because I
 21 saw the draft about the same time it was sent to
 22 Morgan Stanley.
 23 Q. Had you talked to Mr. Bornstein about the 24 sales figures before you saw the draft comfort letter?
 25 A. I don't recall. I mean, I think -- we had a

1 discussion about the same time I got them. He may
 2 have alerted that they were coming and, you know,
 3 don't be -- don't be surprised when you see it or 4 something to that effect. But it was -- it was very
 5 close to, if he talked to me before I got it, it was 6 very close to the time I received it. And it might
 7 have been a case where he was just notifying me.
 8 Q. You've testified numerous times in the past
 9 about your work for Sunbeam; is that correct?
 10 A. That's correct.
 11 Q. And have you had a chance to review all of 12 the transcripts that were created?
 13 A. Absolutely not. I don't have that kind of 14 time to waste.
 15 Q. Have you reviewed any of the transcripts?
 16 A. Very little. Very little.
 17 Q. In each of those times that you were deposed
 18 did you make an effort to be truthful and accurate if 19 all of your answers?
 20 A. Yes, I did.
 21 Q. Do you have any reason to doubt that any of 22 the answers you gave in those previous depositions
 23 were inaccurate?
 24 MR. JOHNSON: Object to the form.
 25 MR. MOSCATO: I object. You can

1 answer.
 2 THE WITNESS: In reviewing some of the
 3 transcripts, yeah, there are some
 4 inaccuracies in those transcripts.
 5 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 6 Q. I thought you said you haven't. You have
 7 reviewed some of the transcripts?
 8 A. I said in reviewing some -- I haven't -- I
 9 haven't reviewed a lot of those transcripts, but I've 10 got a pile of transcripts that are probably this high
 11 (indicating) on testimony on Sunbeam. And I have gone
 12 back in some cases prior to other depositions and 13 found errors in those transcripts.
 14 Q. Did you alert counsel to any of the errors
 15 that you found in the transcripts?
 16 A. In some cases, I have.
 17 Q. Do you know if Errata sheets were filled out
 18 for any of those transcripts?
 19 A. I don't know what an Errata sheet is.
 20 Q. Do you know if a sheet was filled out
 21 indicating what the errors were that you found
 22 those transcripts?
 23 A. I have no idea. A lot of that litigation is 24 dead litigation and SEC stuff which has been settled,
 25 so I'm not going to worry about it now.

1 Q. Other than those errors that you found, do
2 you have any reason to believe that the transcripts of
3 your previous testimony were inaccurate in any way?

4 MR. MOSCATO: I object. I don't
5 understand the question.

6 MR. JOHNSON: Join.

7 THE WITNESS: I don't know how to
8 answer that. I'd have to identify all the 9 errors, but... Let me see, yeah, it's good
10 testimony as long as I could go through 11 and identify any errors, make those be 12 known.

13 BY MR. WEBSTER:

14 Q. Your counsel has never asked you to go
15 through the transcripts to find errors?

16 A. No.

17 MR. MOSCATO: You know, well, I object
18 to that. That's attorney-client
19 privilege. I'd ask that the answer be 20 stricken.

21 BY MR. WEBSTER:

22 Q. Do you remember how far in advance of 23 March 19th the draft comfort letter was created?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Just sometime between March 12th and

1 March 19th?

2 A. Um-hum. I mean, it was five years ago. No,
3 I don't remember exactly what date it was prepared.

4 Q. Do you know if you saw the first draft of the 5 draft comfort letter?

6 A. I don't know that. Probably didn't see it.

7 Q. Okay.

8 MR. WEBSTER: That's all the questions
9 I have.

10 MR. JOHNSON: I've just got a couple of 11 questions. Now, Mr. Harlow --

12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Did you want to get
13 a microphone?

14 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah, I did. Thanks.

15 THE WITNESS: We need to turn the heat
16 back up so he won't talk too long.

17 MR. JOHNSON: What's that?

18 THE WITNESS: We need to turn the heat
19 back up so you won't have too many
20 questions.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

22 BY MR. JOHNSON:

23 Q. I think I just have a few minutes of 24 questions. Mr. Webster asked you about the printer
25 conference call or the Morgan Stanley conference call

1 on several occasions, and I want to explore that
2 testimony a little bit.

3 Is it your testimony that you preferred a
4 disclosure of the net sales information through the 5 first two months of 1998?

6 A. We preferred disclosure of a level of sales
7 through the date in which was, you know, the effective
8 date -- not effective date but the final printing date
9 on the offering memorandum.

10 Q. So sales through some point in March of 1998?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And why did you or Andersen have that 13 preference?

14 A. Well, it was our feeling that by doing so, it
15 would give the reader of that document an idea as to 16 the magnitude and the gap between the sales as of 17 March 16th or whatever the date was as compared to a
18 prior period.

19 Q. Did you have any concern that the sales
20 situation was inconsistent with the picture of Sunbeam
21 as a turned-around company?

22 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that.

23 MR. WEBSTER: Object.

24 THE WITNESS: I guess it depends on which
25 way you're turning it around, but, I mean,

1 obviously the thought entered my mind, you
2 know, that, you know, for the first two
3 months we really didn't have a company
4 that looked like it was really going and
5 blowing, you know, as purported by the
6 chairman of the company.

7 BY MR. WEBSTER:

8 Q. Did you -- didn't you testify to Mr. Webster
9 that you discussed bill and hold transactions with
10 Morgan Stanley?

11 A. I don't believe that question came up.

12 Q. Then I'll ask it.

13 A. I believe -- I believe he had asked me about
14 the early buy program.

15 Q. Well, let me --

16 A. And I indicated that this been disclosed in 17 the document.

18 Q. Okay. How about bill and hold in particular,
19 did you ever discuss with Morgan Stanley that some 20 people engaged in bill and hold sales?

21 A. I believe that was discussed in the due
22 diligence conference call on the -- whatever date that 23 was, March 10th or --

24 Q. 12th?

25 A. -- 11th or 12th or 13th or whatever.

1 Q. And your view was that bill and hold was a
2 lousy business practice; is that correct?

3 MR. MOSCATO: I object.

4 MR. WEBSTER: Objection.

5 THE WITNESS: I've testified to that in
6 the past. I'm not a proponent of bill and
7 hold transactions, but doesn't mean
8 they're illegal or anything like that.

9 BY MR. JOHNSON:

10 Q. Putting aside the accounting issues
11 associated with it, your view at the time and today is 12 that it's not a good business practice to engage in 13 bill and hold sales?

14 MR. MOSCATO: I'll object to that.

15 THE WITNESS: Well, you know, there could
16 be in some industries it is an accepted
17 practice, a common practice. You know, I
18 think you can go back and look at my
19 previous testimony. It relates to, you
20 know, this particular situation ultimately
21 had a harmful effect on the company.

22 And, you know, I think my testimony, my
23 previous testimony really is based on
24 hindsight to see what happened as a result
25 of bill and hold, not necessarily knowing

1 Morgan Stanley requesting a comfort letter.

2 Q. Did you receive this document on or about
3 March 11th?

4 A. I assume I did. I just -- it's dated
5 March 11th. I'm sure I got it about that time.

6 Q. Okay. In the middle of the second paragraph
7 of see page Exhibit 12, Morgan Stanley indicates that
8 it will be engaged in a review process substantially
9 consistent with the due diligence review process that 10 Morgan Stanley would perform if the placement of 11 securities were being registered under the 33 Act. Do
12 you see that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Did that portion of this letter have any 15 significance to you?

16 A. Well, when I see that, I -- you know, my 17 reaction is that Morgan Stanley is going to be doing a
18 lot of work to make sure that this complies with SEC
19 rules and regulations, and there would be a
20 significant amount of due diligence in connection with
21 it.

22 Q. Let me give out what's been marked previously
23 as CPH Exhibit 36.

24 MR. MOSCATO: Where do you want this to 25 go, right here?

1 what I know today back in January of 1998
2 or February '98 or March '98. But today I
3 would say bill and hold in this particular
4 situation was not a good idea, not a good
5 business practice.

6 BY MR. JOHNSON:

7 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley ask your
8 opinion about bill and hold as a business practice?

9 A. I don't recall.

10 Q. You don't recall that happening?

11 A. I don't recall that question being asked.

12 Q. Let me show you what's been previously marked
13 as Exhibit 12, see if you can identify this for me.
14 I'm more of an environmentalist than Mr. Webster, so I
15 don't have copies for everybody, but I think all the 16 parties should have one.

17 A. Do you need to mark this?

18 Q. It's been marked already.

19 I wonder if you could identify Exhibit 12,
20 CPH Exhibit 12 for me, Mr. Harlow.

21 A. Okay. I'm sorry. Your question again?

22 Q. I just wonder if you can identify that for
23 me.

24 A. This is a letter addressed to Arthur Andersen
25 specifically to my attention dated March 11th from

1 MR. JOHNSON: Right there is fine. One
2 for the witness there.

3 BY MR. JOHNSON:

4 Q. In particular, Mr. Harlow, I want you to have 5 a look at the press release that is contained on the 6 last four pages of Exhibit 36.

7 A. Do you want me to read the entire document?

8 Q. If you'd just be good enough to skim it.
9 Feel free to study it more carefully if my questions
10 call for that.

11 A. All right.

12 Q. This is the April 3 press release relating to 13 Sunbeam's first quarter '98 sales; is that correct?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. Okay. Did you review this press release
16 after it was issued?

17 A. I believe I saw this after, after it was 18 released by the company.

19 Q. Did you have any reaction to this news?

20 A. I've got a lot of testimony on this one. I
21 was -- you know, it was like no big surprise. But I
22 think I called one of their in-house attorneys trying
23 to rub their nose in it a little bit.

24 Q. When you say it was no big surprise, that's 25 because you were of the view that the company would

1 not meet first quarter sales numbers?
 2 A. I was skeptical. As I testified earlier, I
 3 was skeptical at the company's ability to meet their
 4 1997 first quarter sales levels based on what they had
 5 to do in the last ten days of the month of March.
 6 Q. And you turned out to be right?
 7 A. Yeah. I'm not real happy about that, but I
 8 did. I was right.
 9 Q. And you say you called one of the Sunbeam
 10 in-house lawyers, rubbed their nose in it. Is that 11 Janet Kelley?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. Did she --
 14 A. And later Mr. Fannin.
 15 Q. When you say you rubbed their nose in it, can 16 you tell me what you mean by that?
 17 A. Oh, I just -- I'm not a very subtle person,
 18 but I tried to be subtle and just let them know that 19 the wrong decision was made in their previous press
 20 release.
 21 Q. And that was a decision that essentially
 22 ignored Andersen's concerns?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 MR. JOHNSON: No further questions.
 25

1 in the offering memorandum; is that correct?
 2 A. That's correct.
 3 Q. Did you express that preference to Morgan
 4 Stanley?
 5 A. As I testified earlier today, I did.
 6 Q. Had you ever disclosed that kind of detail --
 7 or strike that.
 8 Are you aware of that level of detail ever
 9 being disclosed in a prior offering memorandum in a
 10 transaction you were associated with?
 11 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 12 MR. JOHNSON: Join.
 13 THE WITNESS: I've seen a lot of things
 14 disclosed over the years. You know, I
 15 didn't -- I had not seen precisely that 16 kind of disclosure in an offering
 17 memorandum.
 18 MR. WEBSTER: Thank you.
 19 MR. MOSCATO: Are you finished with 20 your answer?
 21 THE WITNESS: Yeah, that's good enough.
 22 MR. MOSCATO: Okay.
 23 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 24 Q. Did you ever talk to Morgan Stanley about 25 disclosing the bill and hold practice in the offering

1 REDIRECT EXAMINATION
 2 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 3 Q. Just a couple follow-ups. That press
 4 release, the March 19th press release was issued
 5 before you talked to Morgan Stanley about the '98
 6 sales figures; is that correct?
 7 MR. MOSCATO: You being Phil Harlow
 8 personally?
 9 MR. WEBSTER: Phil Harlow.
 10 THE WITNESS: I mean. What's the 16th
 11 (sic) date?
 12 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 13 Q. The 19th is the date of the press release I'm 14 talking about.
 15 A. The 19th was the date.
 16 Q. My question is, the March 19th press release
 17 was issued before you ever talked to Morgan Stanley
 18 about the '98 sales figures; is that correct?
 19 A. Before I personally did, as I recall. As I
 20 testified earlier, I think I talked to Morgan Stanley
 21 the day, it was later in the day, the day that press
 22 release was released.
 23 Q. Right. Mr. -- you indicated a moment ago, I
 24 believe, that you preferred disclosure of the '98 net
 25 sales info through the date of the offering memorandum

1 memorandum?
 2 A. I don't recall. I think it was disclosed in
 3 the offering memorandum.
 4 Q. The CPH Exhibit 36, the press release --
 5 A. Which press release?
 6 MR. MOSCATO: It would be the April 3
 7 press release.
 8 THE WITNESS: April 3.
 9 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 10 Q. April 3rd. April 3rd press release indicated
 11 that the company expected first quarter sales for '98
 12 to be approximately five percent below '97's first
 13 quarter sales; is that correct?
 14 A. That's what it says, that's correct.
 15 Q. Was that degree of shortfall about what you
 16 had expected?
 17 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 18 MR. JOHNSON: Join.
 19 THE WITNESS: I had not calculated a
 20 shortfall percentage to be honest.
 21 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 22 Q. Did you have any expectation about the 23 magnitude of the shortfall?
 24 A. I -- no, I had not targeted a number.
 25 Q. Did it surprise you that they had come within

018552

1 five percent of '97's first quarter sales?
 2 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 3 THE WITNESS: No, I wouldn't say that
 4 surprised me. I mean, I thought it was
 5 going to be below, whether it's five
 6 percent or seven percent, not surprising.
 7 MR. WEBSTER: That's all the questions I
 8 have.
 9 RE CROSS EXAMINATION
 10 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 11 Q. One more follow-up. You indicated,
 12 Mr. Harlow, that the bill and hold sales were 13 disclosed in the offering memorandum; is that correct?
 14 A. Well, I can't remember. I mean, it's been 15 years since I looked at the document. I think the 16 financial statements if they're not a part of it are 17 incorporated by reference. And in the financial 18 statements, 1997 -- or, no -- yeah, 1997 financial 19 statements they were disclosed.
 20 Q. That's the 10-K for 1997?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. And you've previously testified, haven't you,
 23 that the disclosure of the risks associated with bill
 24 and hold in the '97 10-K was not sufficient, haven't
 25 you?

1 Q. June of 1999. You were then asked the
 2 question, "Now in your view is this sufficient
 3 disclosure of the risks of, well, I'll say the 4 negative impact of future financial performance?"
 5 Answer, "No, I think I would suggest
 6 better wording than this."
 7 Do you recall giving that testimony?
 8 THE WITNESS: I don't --
 9 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 10 THE WITNESS: I don't recall.
 11 MR. MOSCATO: Well, let me finish. I
 12 object. I believe that is out of context.
 13 Go ahead.
 14 THE WITNESS: Well, it is out of --
 15 clearly out of context, but, I mean --
 16 MR. MOSCATO: The question is do you
 17 recall the testimony, yes or no.
 18 THE WITNESS: Vaguely. I mean, you
 19 know, I testified 15 days up there. To 20 remember everything I said would be next
 21 to impossible.
 22 MR. MOSCATO: Are you finished?
 23 MR. JOHNSON: I'm finished, yes.
 24
 25

1 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that.
 2 THE WITNESS: Well, I think my -- you
 3 know, where I am on bill and hold and
 4 disclosure on that, you know, we had
 5 discussed with the company to have
 6 additional disclosures. And originally
 7 the company was not going to put anything
 8 relating to bill and hold transactions in 9 the financial statements, and we insisted
 10 that that be done.
 11 And they ultimately put in a discussion
 12 of bill and hold and also quantified the 13 amount of bill and hold in the footnotes
 14 to the financial statements. There was 15 also a discussion in the MDMA section.
 16 You know, is it adequate or isn't
 17 adequate? I don't know. I can't say.
 18 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 19 Q. On your June 8th, 1999 testimony, Mr. Lipman
 20 (phonetic) reviewed the various disclosures in the 21 10-K for 1997 at pages 157 through 160 relating to 22 bill and hold.
 23 A. What year was that testimony?
 24 Q. The testimony was 1999.
 25 A. 1999.

1 REDIRECT EXAMINATION
 2 BY MR. WEBSTER:
 3 Q. To be clear, Mr. Harlow, did you ever
 4 recommend to Morgan Stanley that the offering
 5 memorandum should have more detailed disclosure
 6 regarding bill and hold than was in the 10-K?
 7 A. I don't recall. I don't recall.
 8 MR. MOSCATO: Thank you, everybody.
 9 MR. WEBSTER: Thank you.

22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And before you came to the 24 deposition, did you have an opportunity to 25 meet with Mr. Markowski?

Page 8

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And did you review any documents
4 with him before --
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. What documents did you review?
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: I am going to
8 instruct the witness not to answer.
9 MR. BEMIS: Grounds?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Work product.
11 (DIRECTION NOT TO ANSWER.)
12 Q. You understand that the oath
13 that you took, sir, has the same force and 14 effect as if you were testifying live in 15 front of a jury?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Is there any reason that you can
18 think of today that you can't testify
19 truthfully?
20 A. No.
21 Q. You have been deposed before;
22 haven't you?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And you are an attorney; aren't
25 you?

018551

Page 9

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I am an attorney.
3 Q. Are you still licensed to
4 practice in New York?
5 A. I may be.
6 I don't think I keep my dues up
7 to date but, other than that, I think I
8 probably can practice law, yes.
9 Q. You have been deposed -- you
10 said you have been deposed before. You
11 are then familiar with the process we go
12 through in a deposition, the questions and 13 answers?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. If there is anything that you
16 don't understand when I ask the question,
17 you let me know. Otherwise, I am going to 18 assume that you understand it. Fair
19 enough?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Did you discuss your deposition
22 testimony here today with anyone other
23 than Mr. Markowski, your attorney?
24 A. Yes, Steven Fasman.
25 Q. And would you tell me who

Page 10

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Mr. Fasman is, please?
3 A. He is an attorney for --
4 Q. For MAFCO?
5 A. I believe so.
6 I am not entirely sure who his
7 employment is directly with but, yes, one
8 of the --
9 Q. He is an attorney for one of 10 Mr. Perelman's entities; correct?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. When did you talk to Mr. Fasman
13 about your deposition?
14 A. Yesterday.
15 Q. Was he present when you were
16 being prepared by Mr. Markowski?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. How long were you prepared by
19 Mr. Markowski and Mr. Fasman yesterday?
20 A. Approximately an hour-and-a-half
21 to two hours.
22 Q. Was anyone other than
23 Mr. Markowski and Mr. Fasman present
24 during your preparation?
25 A. No.

Page 11

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. In the course of your
3 preparation, did you review any deposition
4 transcripts that have been taken in the 5 action?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Any deposition transcripts from
8 other actions at all related to the
9 Sunbeam/Coleman merger transaction?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Did you review any partial
12 transcripts?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Any documents where -- that were
15 segregated out by where your name appeared
16 in them?
17 A. I don't believe so.
18 Q. Have you given any written
19 statements to anyone about the subject
20 matter of the litigation you are here
21 giving testimony on?
22 A. No.
23 Q. Have you given any affidavits on 24 the same subject matter?
25 A. No.

Page 12

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Other than being prepared by
3 Mr. Markowski and Mr. Fasman yesterday for
4 your deposition, have you been interviewed
5 by anyone about the litigation you are 6 here testifying on?
7 A. No.
8 Q. You were a member of the board
9 of directors of The Coleman Company at the 10 time that the agreement and plan of merger
11 dated February 27, 1998 was approved by 12 the board; correct?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Let me show you what's been
15 marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 117.
16 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
17 Stanley 117, agreement and plan of
18 merger among Sunbeam Corporation,
19 Camper (phonetic) Acquisition
20 Corporation, and The Coleman Company,
21 dated as of February 27th, marked for
22 identification.)
23 Q. Do you have in front of you
24 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 117?
25 A. Yes.

018558

Page 13

2 Q. Please take a moment and look at
3 it, if you choose, and tell me if that is,
4 indeed, the agreement and plan of merger
5 among Sunbeam Corporation, Camper
6 (phonetic) Acquisition Corporation, and
7 The Coleman Company, dated as of February
8 27th.
9 MR. MARKOWSKI: I object to the
10 lack of foundation.
11 Q. You can answer.
12 A. It states that it is.
13 Q. Is this the document that you
14 approved -- excuse me -- is this a copy of 15 the document that you approved as a member
16 of the board of directors at the meeting
17 of February 27th, 1998?
18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objection.
19 A. It appears to be, (indicating).
20 Q. Now, at the meeting of February
21 27th, 1998 of the board of directors of 22 The Coleman Company, you were present;
23 correct?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. And were you present for the

Page 14

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 entire meeting?
3 A. My recollection is that I was.
4 Q. At any time during that board of
5 directors meeting, on February 27th of
6 1998 of The Coleman Company, did Morgan &
7 Stanley & Co., Incorporated, which I will
8 refer to as "Morgan Stanley" here, appear
9 before the board of The Coleman Company?
10 A. I don't recall.
11 Q. You don't recall, one way or the
12 other?
13 A. That's right.
14 Q. You voted for the merger, did
15 you not?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Did you see the merger agreement
18 before you voted for the merger?
19 A. I don't recall.
20 Q. Did you ever read the merger
21 agreement?
22 A. Uh -- in part.
23 Q. What part did you read?
24 Look at MS 117 and tell me what
25 you read.

Page 15

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I don't recall.
3 Q. You don't even want to take a
4 moment to look at it --
5 A. I have.
6 Q. -- and see --
7 A. I have.
8 Q. Okay.
9 A. I have flipped through every
10 page, and I don't recall reading any
11 specific page at the time, in February
12 1998.
13 Q. Well, did you read any portion
14 of it after February 27th, 1998, after 15 your board voted to approve the merger?
16 A. I don't recall.
17 Q. Well, you voted for the merger
18 on behalf of the public shareholders of 19 The Coleman Company, did you not?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And you also voted for the
22 merger, as set forth in MS 117, on behalf
23 of MAFCO Holdings Inc., which indirectly
24 owned 82.4 percent of The Coleman Company,
25 Inc. common stock; didn't you?

Page 16

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Did you rely on any information
4 in approving the merger that was provided
5 outside of the board meetings?
6 A. I don't recall that I did.
7 Q. Now, there were two board
8 meetings at which the merger was
9 discussed; correct?
10 A. To the best of my recollection,
11 yes.
12 Q. The first meeting was February
13 25th of 1998; correct?
14 A. I believe so, yes.
15 Q. And that meeting lasted
16 approximately an hour-and-a-half?
17 A. I have no recollection of the 18 time that transpired.
19 Q. Well, let me show you the board
20 minutes and see if that helps you.
21 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
22 Stanley 88, true and correct copy of 23 the minutes of the board of directors
24 of The Coleman Company, Inc. held on
25 February 25th, 1998 at 4 p.m., marked

2 for identification.)
3 Q. I show you what's been marked as
4 Morgan Stanley Deposition Exhibit 88, sir.
5 MR. BEMIS: Do you need another
6 copy, Mr. Markowski?
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: (Nodding.)
8 Q. I think I gave you two copies,
9 sir. Let me just see if I did that. I
10 did, I'm sorry.
11 Now, do you have Morgan Stanley
12 Exhibit 88 in front of you, Mr. Slovin?
13 A. Yes, I do -- well -- yes, I did
14 do.
15 Q. Okay. Now, sir, would you
16 confirm for me, sir, that these are -- as 17 a director of the company, that these are 18 a true and correct copy of the minutes of
19 the board of directors of The Coleman
20 Company, Inc. held on February 25th, 1998
21 at 4 p.m.?
22 A. I believe they are.
23 Q. And if you will turn to the last
24 page of the minutes, sir, will you confirm
25 for me, sir, that the minutes reflect that

Page 18

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 the meeting was adjourned at 5:30 p.m.
3 that date?
4 A. Yes, I can confirm that based
5 upon the comment on page 6 of these 6 minutes.
7 Q. So the very first meeting in
8 which the Coleman/Sunbeam merger was
9 discussed at a board of directors meeting
10 of the Coleman Corporation lasted
11 one-and-a-half hours, according to the 12 minutes; correct?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Do you have any reason to
15 dispute that that is the length of that
16 board meeting, sir, based on the minutes
17 that have been presented to you here this 18 morning?
19 A. No.
20 Q. And just to confirm --
21 withdrawn.
22 Now, let me show you what's been
23 marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 119.
24 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
25 Stanley 119, copy of a court document

3 the lawsuit that was brought against
4 Arthur Andersen, LLP and Mr. Philip
5 E. Harlow in the Circuit Court for
6 Palm Beach County, Florida, marked
7 for identification.)
8 Q. Do you have Plaintiff's --
9 excuse me, "Plaintiffs" -- do you have 10 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 119 in front of
11 you, sir?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. This, sir, is a copy of a court
14 document filed by Coleman (Parent)
15 Holdings in the lawsuit that was brought 16 against Arthur Andersen, LLP and
17 Mr. Philip E. Harlow in the Circuit Court
18 for Palm Beach County, Florida, as you
19 will see on the caption.
20 Do you see that, sir?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. And you at one time were the 23 president of (Parent) -- of -- excuse me,
24 of Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.; were
25 you not?

Page 20

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Which company are you referring
3 to?
4 Q. Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.,
5 you were the president of that company at
6 one time.
7 A. I don't have a specific
8 recollection of what title I carried at 9 the time.
10 Q. Well, if -- even if you don't 11 have a specific recollection at a point in 12 time you were president at one time, were 13 you not, sir?
14 A. You are suggesting I was 15 president of a holding company, that
16 held --
17 Q. No.
18 A. -- Coleman?
19 Q. I am suggesting -- I am asking
20 you, really, is what I am asking you, at 21 one time you were the president of Coleman
22 (Parent) Holdings Inc., the Plaintiff in 23 the lawsuit that's captioned in the 24 documents in front of you.
25 A. I actually don't remember --

018560

Page 21

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Okay.
3 A. -- what title I held.
4 Q. But you did hold some title in
5 the company.
6 A. I don't recall precisely what
7 title.
8 Q. No, no, that's not my question.
9 You recall holding a title. If you
10 don't --
11 A. I don't recall holding a title
12 specifically.
13 Q. Well, let me ask you, sir, to 14 turn to page 4 of the filing here by 15 Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. and turn to 16 paragraph 7, which is on page 4, and tell
17 me when you are there; page 4, paragraph
18 7.
19 A. (Pause.)
20 I have read that paragraph.
21 Q. All right, sir.
22 Directing your attention to the
23 third sentence, beginning: "This case
24 involves a transaction". Do you see that?
25 A. Yes.

Page 22

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. The transaction referred to in
3 this document is the Sunbeam/Coleman --
4 Coleman merger, and I will ask you, sir,
5 do you agree that the lawyer's statement
6 on behalf of Coleman (Parent) Holdings
7 Inc. that the transaction was, quote,
8 "negotiated at arm's-length by two large
9 sophisticated and public-traded
10 corporations"?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Would you agree with the next
13 sentence, sir, that: "Each side was
14 represented by prominent highly-paid
15 advisors, Morgan Stanley, Skadden Arps,
16 and Anderson for Sunbeam"? Do you agree
17 with that?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And would you agree with the 20 next portion of the sentence, "and CS
21 Boston and Wachtell, Lipton for The 22 Coleman Company"?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And did you -- would you agree
25 with the following sentence: "Sunbeam

Page 23

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 conducted due diligence of The Coleman
3 Company just like any third-party buyer
4 would do"?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Would you agree with me, sir,
7 that The Coleman Company also conducted
8 due diligence of Sunbeam like any buyer or 9 buyer would do?
10 A. In the particular circumstances
11 of this transaction, yes.
12 Q. Thank you. You can set that 13 aside. You can hand it back to me. Thank
14 you.
15 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, why
16 don't we just take one second and let
17 you mark these, initial these before
18 I forget, and I will try to remember
19 to let you do that as we move along.
20 (Discussion off the record.)
21 Q. Now, I would like now to ask you
22 to direct your attention back to the board
23 of directors meetings on February 27th and 24 February 25th, 1998 of The Coleman
25 Company, Inc.

Page 24

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Are you there, sir, are you
3 thinking, are you with me at that time
4 frame?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Okay. The Coleman Company at --
7 board of directors, was represented by
8 Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz; correct?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And that's a New York City law
11 firm?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. A prominent New York City law
14 firm?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And The Coleman Company was also
17 represented by an investment banking firm;
18 right?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And that investment banking firm
21 was Credit Suisse First Boston; correct?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And, indeed, Credit Suisse First
24 Boston was the exclusive financial advisor
25 to The Coleman Company in the transaction;

018561

Page 25

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 was it not, sir?
3 A. That's my belief, that they
4 were.
5 Q. And, in addition, The Coleman
6 Company, Inc. had auditors; did it not?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And your auditors were -- excuse
9 me, The Coleman Company's auditors were
10 Ernst & Young, LLP at that time?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. And those auditors were, indeed,
13 under the terms of the merger agreement,
14 supposed to provide a comfort letter to 15 Sunbeam with regard to the financial
16 statements of The Coleman Company as part
17 of the merger, were they not, sir?
18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to lack
19 of foundation.
20 A. I have no specific recollection
21 of that.
22 Q. I will ask you to look at
23 Plaintiff's Exhibit 117. Turn to Section
24 7.3 A on page 29. And read that 25 paragraph, please.

Page 26

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Which paragraph are you
3 referring to?
4 Q. Paragraph 7.3, titled Comfort
5 letter, sub-paragraph A.
6 A. Yes. (Pause.)
7 I have read the 7.3.
8 Q. My question was, sir, Arthur --
9 excuse me, Ernst & Young L.L.P., the
10 accountants for The Coleman Company, Inc.,
11 were to provide a comfort letter to Laser,
12 which is a subsidiary of the -- a
13 subsidiary of Sunbeam in connection with 14 the merger pursuant to this paragraph of 15 the merger agreement; correct?
16 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
17 form of the question.
18 Are you asking him whether he 19 recalls that --
20 MR. BEMIS: You can just object
21 to the form of the question --
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: I want to know
23 if you are asking him if he recalls
24 it or whether you are asking him to 25 read this and interpret this. I have

Page 27

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 a different objection --
3 MR. BEMIS: I heard your
4 objection.
5 He can answer the question.
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: I am going to
7 object, then.
8 MR. BEMIS: You did, you said
9 "object to form".
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Excuse me. I am
11 going to object on the grounds that 12 it is a lack of foundation to the 13 extent you are calling for him to 14 interpret it, I object, the document
15 speaks for itself.
16 MR. BEMIS: I have never heard
17 of talking documents, but let's get
18 an answer to the question.
19 A. That's how I interpret the
20 reading of 7.3 sub A.
21 Q. And that's how you would have
22 interpreted it, then, when you reviewed
23 and approved the merger agreement at the 24 board of directors meeting on February
25 27th, 1998 as a fiduciary to the

Page 28

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 shareholders; correct?
3 A. I imagine that's so.
4 Q. All right.
5 At the board meeting, on
6 February 27th of 1998, did Credit Suisse
7 First Boston provide a fairness opinion to
8 the board of directors of The Coleman
9 Company?
10 A. My recollection is that they
11 did, yes.
12 Q. Did you see it and was it given
13 in writing or orally?
14 A. I think both.
15 Q. Let me show you what's been
16 marked as Morgan Stanley 120.
17 A. Excuse me, you were talking
18 about Credit Suisse or Morgan Stanley.
19 Q. Credit Suisse First Boston.
20 A. Yes, I have it.
21 Q. I am going to ask the court
22 reporter to mark that, and I will just
23 have a couple questions for you.
24 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
25 Stanley 120, written fairness opinion

6 Q. I hand you now what I have had
7 marked as Morgan Stanley 120.
8 Do you have that in front of
9 you, sir?
10 A. I do.
11 Q. And can you please confirm for
12 me, sir, that this is the written fairness
13 opinion that was provided to the board of 14 directors of The Coleman Company, Inc. on
15 February 27th, 1998 --
16 A. It appears to be that.
17 Q. And this was provided by your
18 exclusive financial advisor, Credit Suisse
19 First Boston Corporation; correct?
20 A. I believe so.
21 Q. All right. You may set that
22 aside for now.
23 At the board of directors
24 meeting of February 27th, 1998, did you,
25 that is, as a director of The Coleman

Page 30

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Company, receive a fairness opinion from
3 Morgan Stanley & Company, Incorporated?
4 A. I actually don't recall.
5 Q. You don't recall one way or the
6 other?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Well, in preparation for your
9 deposition, did you see a Morgan Stanley &
10 Company, Incorporated fairness
11 opinion --
12 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection.
13 Q. -- directed to the board of
14 directors of The Coleman Company?
15 MR. MARKOWSKI: I am going to
16 object, instruct the witness not to
17 answer, calls for work product.
18 (DIRECTION NOT TO ANSWER.)
19 Do you want to ask him whether
20 he has ever seen one --
21 MR. BEMIS: Well, that may be
22 the next question. I don't need your
23 assistance in telling me what
24 questions --
25 MR. MARKOWSKI: I instruct him

Page 31

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 not to answer that.
3 I made myself clear with respect
4 to asking questions about what he
5 reviewed with me, so why you ask that
6 question I don't understand.
7 Q. Have you ever seen a fairness
8 opinion prepared by Morgan Stanley &
9 Company, Incorporated addressed to the
10 board of directors of The Coleman Company,
11 Inc.?
12 A. I have no specific recollection
13 one way or another of seeing that.
14 Q. Now, am I correct, sir, that the 15 only fairness opinion that was ever
16 provided to The Coleman Company, Inc. is 17 the document that you have in front of you
18 as Morgan Stanley 120?
19 MR. MARKOWSKI: Would you read
20 the question back, please.
21 MR. BEMIS: Let me rephrase the
22 question.
23 Q. Am I correct that the only
24 written fairness opinion that was provided
25 to The Coleman Company by Credit Suisse

Page 32

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 First Boston is Plaintiff's -- excuse me,
3 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 120?
4 A. I do not know.
5 Q. You don't recall one way or the
6 other?
7 A. I do not recall if there were
8 other written documents within the 9 fairness opinion. A legend that was 10 submitted to the board of directors.
11 Q. Did you say "legend"?
12 A. It's an awkward word.
13 The -- I don't know if I saw any 14 other fairness opinions written by First
15 Boston.
16 Q. Other than MS 120 that is in
17 front of you.
18 A. That is my recollection, yes.
19 Q. Now, am I correct, sir, that
20 you, as a member of the board of directors
21 of The Coleman Company, voted to approve
22 the agreement and plan of merger as fair?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And did the other -- were there
25 any dissenting directors, to your

018563

Page 33

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 knowledge?
3 A. Not to my knowledge.
4 Q. All right. When you voted as a
5 director that the agreement and plan of
6 merger was fair, what did you understand
7 "fair" to mean?
8 A. Reasonable, economic
9 relationships.
10 Q. So it was fair to the -- were
11 you finished?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Good, I didn't mean to interrupt
14 you. Sometimes that happens. I will try
15 not to do that.
16 So, in your view, the merger
17 agreement, which we marked as Morgan
18 Stanley 117, it was fair to the public
19 shareholders of The Coleman Company;
20 correct?
21 MR. MARKOWSKI: You are asking
22 him for his view at the time?
23 MR. BEMIS: Yes, as a director
24 when he voted on it.
25 MR. MARKOWSKI: I just wanted to

Page 34

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 know if you are asking him today or
3 when he voted on it.
4 MR. BEMIS: I said -- I think I
5 said when he voted, but if you are
6 confused I will ask him again.
7 A. No, you don't have to ask again.
8 Q. Okay.
9 A. Yes, I thought it was fair to
10 the public shareholders.
11 Q. And you thought that the merger
12 agreement was fair to Coleman Worldwide
13 Corporation?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. By the way, who -- what entity
16 held the shares of The Coleman Company
17 that were owned by Mr. Perelman's
18 affiliates?
19 A. I am not certain.
20 Q. Well, the Plaintiff in one of 21 these cases is Coleman (Parent) Holdings
22 Inc. Did you assume the transaction as a
23 director on February 27th was fair to 24 Coleman (Parent) Holdings?
25 A. Yes.

Page 35

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. And there is another entity that
3 in the chain that we will get to, a
4 company called CLN Holdings, Inc. Are you
5 familiar with that?
6 A. No.
7 Q. You are not familiar with it?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Now, let me ask you a couple of
10 specific questions about the company
11 Morgan Stanley & Co., Incorporated, which 12 is one of the parties to the case, that's
13 its full name, and I will refer to them
14 right now as "Morgan Stanley" just to keep
15 the questions a little shorter. Is that 16 okay with you?
17 A. Perfectly okay with me.
18 Q. Okay. Did you ever attend any
19 face-to-face meetings with Morgan Stanley
20 concerning the Sunbeam/Coleman action --
21 acquisition, excuse me, before it was 22 approved on February 27th, 1998 by the 23 board?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Between the approval of the

Page 36

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 acquisition on February 27th, 1998, and
3 the closing, which I think the record
4 shows was March 30th of 1998, did you
5 attend any face-to-face meetings with
6 anyone with Morgan Stanley?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Now going forward, from the
9 closing, which -- of March 30th of 1998,
10 and say July 1st, 1998, did you have any 11 face-to-face meetings with anyone at 12 Morgan Stanley concerning the Coleman/
13 Sunbeam merger?
14 A. No.
15 Q. Did you ever have any --
16 withdrawn. Did you ever participate in
17 any conference calls with Morgan Stanley
18 concerning the Sunbeam/Coleman acquisition
19 before it was approved by the Coleman
20 board of directors on February 27th, 1998?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Between the approval of the 23 merger on February 27th, 1998 and the 24 closing on March 30th, of 1998, did you
25 participate in any conference calls with

018561

2 Morgan Stanley?
3 A. No.
4 Q. After the closing on March 30th
5 of 1998 and up to July 1st of 1998, did
6 you participate in any conference calls
7 with Morgan Stanley concerning the merger
8 transaction?
9 A. No.
10 Q. Did you as a -- did you,
11 individually, receive any documents from 12 Morgan Stanley concerning the
13 Sunbeam/Coleman merger before it was 14 approved by the board of directors of The 15 Coleman Company on February 27th, 1998?
16 A. I don't recall.
17 Q. Have you seen any such documents
18 in the course of your preparation?
19 A. I don't believe so.
20 Q. After the approval by the board
21 of directors of the Sunbeam/Coleman merger
22 on February 27th, and up to the point of 23 closing on March 30th of 1999 -- 1998,
24 excuse me, did you receive any documents
25 from Morgan Stanley concerning the merger?

Page 38

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I don't recall.
3 Q. Did you see any in your
4 preparation for your deposition?
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: I have got to --
6 let me make it simple. I have a
7 standing objection and instruction
8 not to answer with respect to any
9 questions you have got relating to
10 materials he saw in meeting with me
11 to prepare for this deposition.
12 MR. BEMIS: I prefer you make
13 your objection rather than have a
14 standing objection because I don't
15 think it's proper.
16 MR. MARKOWSKI: If you want to 17 keep asking the question, I will keep
18 instructing him not to answer.
19 MR. BEMIS: You are entitled to 20 do that, I am not quarrelling with 21 you, we will just deal with it later.
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: That's
23 harassment.
24 Q. I am not trying to harass you.
25 MR. BEMIS: If you think I am,

Page 39

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 you can adjourn the deposition and go
3 tell the judge.
4 Q. Did you ever receive any
5 correspondence from anyone at Morgan
6 Stanley concerning the Sunbeam/Coleman
7 acquisition before you voted to approve it
8 at the board of directors meeting on
9 February 27th, 1998?
10 A. I have no recollection.
11 Q. Did you receive any after --
12 withdrawn. Did you receive any
13 correspondence from Morgan Stanley
14 concerning the acquisition after the 15 February 27th, 1998 approval and up unto
16 the point of the closing of March 30th,
17 1998?
18 A. I have no such recollection.
19 Q. After the closing, on March
20 30th, 1998, and up until July 1st, 1998,
21 did you receive any correspondence from
22 anyone at Morgan Stanley concerning the
23 acquisition?
24 A. I have no such recollection.
25 Q. I ask you the same series of

Page 40

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 questions, sir, regarding electronic mail.
3 Did you, for example, receive any
4 electronic mail from Morgan Stanley
5 concerning the Sunbeam/Coleman acquisition
6 up to the point it was approved on
7 February 27th, 1998?
8 A. I don't believe so.
9 Q. After the approval and up to 10 July 1st of 1998?
11 A. I don't believe so.
12 Q. Are you -- one of the --
13 withdrawn. One of the other parties in 14 these cases is Morgan Stanley Senior
15 Funding, Inc. Are you familiar with that 16 entity?
17 A. I believe so.
18 Q. Did you -- did you ever attend
19 any face-to-face meetings with Morgan
20 Stanley Senior Funding concerning the
21 Coleman/Sunbeam acquisition before you
22 voted to approve it on February 27th,
23 1998?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Did you receive -- withdrawn.

018563

Page 41

2 Did you have any face-to-face meetings
3 with anyone from Morgan Stanley Senior
4 Funding between the approval on February
5 27th of the merger and its closing on
6 March 30th, 1998?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Following the closing on March
9 30th, 1998 and up through July 1st of
10 1998, did you have any face-to-face
11 meetings with Morgan Stanley --
12 A. No.
13 Q. Senior-- excuse me, Morgan
14 Stanley Senior Funding.
15 A. No.
16 Q. Okay, thank you.
17 Did you ever participate in any
18 conference calls with anyone associated
19 with Morgan Stanley Senior Funding
20 concerning the Sunbeam/Coleman acquisition
21 before you voted as a director to approve
22 the acquisition on February 27th, 1998?
23 A. Not to my recollection.
24 Q. Between the approval of the
25 merger on the 27th of February and its

Page 42

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 closing on March 30th, 1998, did you
3 participate in any conference calls with
4 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding?
5 A. Not to my recollection.
6 Q. Did you receive any documents
7 from Morgan Stanley Senior Funding
8 concerning the Sunbeam/Coleman merger
9 before you voted to approve it on February
10 27th, 1998?
11 A. I don't recall.
12 Q. You don't recall one way or the
13 other?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. In your preparation, did you see
16 any documents that you believe that you
17 had received from Morgan Stanley Senior
18 Funding in connection with the merger
19 prior to your voting to approve it on
20 February 27th, 1998?
21 MR. MARKOWSKI: Instruct the
22 witness not to answer.
23 (DIRECTION NOT TO ANSWER.)
24 A. I don't believe so.
25 MR. MARKOWSKI: I instructed you

Page 43

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 not to answer on that because he is
3 not entitled to ask you questions
4 about --
5 THE WITNESS: So I should not
6 answer.
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Right.
8 THE WITNESS: I thought I could
9 answer, even if you object.
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Not if I
11 instruct you. Questions he has
12 relating to the materials we reviewed
13 yesterday or discussions we had
14 yesterday, those are privileged
15 communications and he's not entitled
16 to know that.
17 THE WITNESS: Very good.
18 Q. Did you receive any electronic
19 mail from anyone from Morgan Stanley
20 Senior Funding concerning the 21 Sunbeam/Coleman merger before you voted to 22 approve it on February 27th, 1998 at the
23 board meeting?
24 A. I have no such recollection.
25 Q. Did you receive any e-mails from

Page 44

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding between the
3 time of the approval, February 27th, and
4 its closing on March 30th, 1998?
5 A. I have no such recollection.
6 Q. Same question -- withdrawn. Did
7 you receive any e-mails from anyone from
8 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding following
9 the closing on March 30 and up through
10 July 1st of 1998, again concerning the 11 Sunbeam/Coleman acquisition?
12 A. I have no such recollection.
13 Q. As a member of the board of 14 directors, did the board of directors ever
15 authorize the approval of Morgan Stanley
16 to act in any capacity to advise Coleman
17 in connection with the merger agreement
18 dated February 27th, 1998 which we marked
19 as MS 117?
20 A. I have no such recollection.
21 Q. Did The Coleman Company, to your
22 knowledge, authorize or -- any payments to
23 Morgan Stanley in connection with the 24 Sunbeam acquisition of The Coleman
25 Company?

018566

Page 45

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I do not know.
3 Q. Are you aware of any payments
4 being made?
5 A. No.
6 Q. Are you aware of Coleman
7 (Parent) Holdings Inc., the company, one
8 of the Plaintiffs on these consolidated
9 actions, making any payments to Morgan
10 Stanley in association with the
11 acquisition of Coleman?
12 A. I have no such recollection.
13 Q. You are familiar with the
14 company called MAFCO Holdings Inc.;
15 correct?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. You were the president of MAFCO
18 Holdings Inc.; were you not?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. To your knowledge, did MAFCO
21 Holdings Inc. make any payments to Morgan
22 Stanley in association with Sunbeam's
23 acquisition of Coleman as approved by the
24 board of directors on February 27th, 1998?
25 A. I do not recall.

Page 46

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Now, as a -- as a member of the
3 board of directors, and having reviewed
4 and approved Morgan Stanley 117, which is
5 the merger and acquisition agreement, you
6 were aware as a director, were you not,
7 sir, that The Coleman Company had access
8 to Sunbeam's books and records before the 9 merger agreement was approved; correct?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
11 form of the question.
12 Q. You may answer.
13 A. I believe so.
14 Q. And what steps did -- withdrawn.
15 MR. BEMIS: Would you please
16 mark this as Morgan Stanley 210,
17 please.
18 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
19 Stanley 210, press release issued by
20 Sunbeam, marked for identification.)
21 Q. Sir, do you have Morgan Stanley
22 Exhibit 210 in front of you, sir?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. For the record, this is a press
25 release issued by Sunbeam. And I would

Page 47

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 ask you to please take a moment to read it
3 and let me know when you are finished.
4 A. (Pause.)
5 I have read it.
6 Q. Okay. Have you seen this press
7 release before today, sir?
8 A. Yes, I believe so.
9 Q. And would you please tell me
10 when you first saw it?
11 A. My recollection is that I saw it
12 when it was issued and I saw it again with
13 counsel.
14 Q. So when you say when it was
15 first issued, you are referring to March
16 19th of 1998?
17 A. The date that appears on this
18 document someplace.
19 Q. And that is March 19th, 1998;
20 correct?
21 A. It is.
22 Q. Now, sir, when you saw the press
23 release, you were still -- were you still
24 a director of The Coleman Company?
25 A. I believe so.

Page 48

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. And following your receipt of
3 the press release, did you contact anyone
4 at Morgan Stanley & Company, Incorporated
5 and ask them any questions about the press
6 release?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Did you contact anyone at
9 Sunbeam?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Did you contact -- did you
12 contact any members of the board of 13 directors of The Coleman Company that had
14 participated in the February 27th, 1998
15 meeting approving the acquisition?
16 A. I may have.
17 Q. Do you recall one way or the
18 other?
19 A. I believe I did.
20 Q. And who did you contact?
21 A. I don't recall specifically.
22 Q. Did you contact this person
23 by -- in a face-to-face meeting or a
24 telephone call?
25 A. I don't recall.

018507

Page 49

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 Q. Did you have a conversation when
 3 you contacted this person?
 4 A. I believe I did, these persons
 5 or person or persons, I don't recall if I
 6 had one or many conversations with one or
 7 more than one person, but I do believe I
 8 had some conversation concerning this
 9 release.
 10 Q. I would like to limit myself now
 11 to one time period, and that would be
 12 March 19th up until the closing of March
 13 30th of 1998.
 14 Are you with me on the time
 15 period now?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. Okay. Now, just within that
 18 time period, did you discuss the press
 19 release with anyone on the board of
 20 directors of The Coleman Company?
 21 A. I think I did.
 22 Q. Now, what did you -- what did
 23 you say to the person that you talked to 24 or persons that you talked to and what did
 25 they say to you?

Page 50

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 A. I don't have specific
 3 recollection.
 4 Q. Do you have general
 5 recollections?
 6 A. Yeah -- yes.
 7 Q. What are your general
 8 recollections?
 9 A. Just that the (indicating) sales
 10 were reported to be off slightly and that
 11 the company attributed that result to a
 12 reorganization of some customer
 13 inventories, but that the company expected
 14 year results to equal what their
 15 predictions were on a sales basis.
 16 Q. And as a consequence --
 17 withdrawn. As a result of these
 18 conversations, as you have generally
 19 related to them, did the board of 20 directors of The Coleman Company convene
 21 any meetings between March 19th and the 22 closing to reconsider the merger
 23 agreement?
 24 A. Not to my recollection.
 25 Q. To your -- strike that. Between

Page 51

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 March 19th and March 30th, 1998, were
 3 there any further meetings of the board of
 4 directors to discuss the merger agreement?
 5 A. I do not have such a
 6 recollection.
 7 Q. Did -- after receiving the press
 8 release of March 19th, 1998, did any
 9 member of the board of directors request a
 10 comfort letter from Arthur Andersen
 11 concerning the financial statements of
 12 Sunbeam Corporation?
 13 A. I have no such knowledge.
 14 Q. Please turn to Morgan Stanley
 15 Exhibit 117 again, if you would, sir.
 16 It's in front of you. And look at 17 paragraph 7.2 -- excuse me, 7.3 entitled 18 Comfort letters, and sub-paragraph B, and
 19 tell me when you are there.
 20 A. Sub-paragraph B?
 21 Q. Yes, sir, it's on page 30. And
 22 tell me when you are there.
 23 A. (Pause.)
 24 Yes, I have read it.
 25 Q. Sir, following the press release

Page 52

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 of March 19th, 1998, did anyone who was a
 3 director, now of The Coleman Company, make
 4 any request of officers or employees, if
 5 you will, of The Coleman Company, to have
 6 delivered to it a comfort letter from
 7 Arthur Andersen, LLP as set forth in
 8 sub-paragraph 7.2 B of the merger
 9 agreement?
 10 A. I don't have any such
 11 recollection.
 12 Q. When you had these informal
 13 conversations -- withdrawn. When you had 14 your conversations with your other
 15 directors, between March 19th and when the 16 press release was issued and the closing
 17 on March 30th, in the course of those
 18 discussions, did any of the directors say
 19 words to the effect: Gentlemen, under the 20 terms of the merger agreement, we are
 21 entitled to receive from Sunbeam's
 22 auditors, Arthur Andersen, a comfort
 23 letter? Did anyone say that?
 24 A. I don't remember.
 25 Q. Do you think in light of the D18568

Page 53

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 March 19th press release of 1998 it would
3 have been a good idea for the directors to 4 do that, given their fiduciary duties to
5 the public shareholders?
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
7 form of the question.
8 A. I don't know that they did it or
9 didn't do it.
10 There were people who were in
11 our organization who were more intimately
12 involved, and they may have done what you
13 are suggesting, I do not know.
14 Q. Who were --
15 A. I don't remember.
16 Q. I interrupted, I apologize.
17 Who would be the person in the 18 organization, that is, The Coleman
19 Company, you are referring to, who would 20 be intimately familiar with this topic and 21 would have had the responsibility for
22 requesting the comfort letter from Arthur
23 Andersen that they were -- that Sunbeam
24 was obligated to request pursuant to
25 paragraph 7.2 B of the merger agreement,

Page 54

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Exhibit MS 117?
3 A. Jerry Levin was intimately
4 involved, Jim Maher, our lawyers, and our
5 accountants and our investment banking
6 advisors, those are the people who were
7 intimately involved with this transaction.
8 Q. Okay, you can set 117 aside for 9 now, sir.
10 When you acted as a member of
11 the board of directors of The Coleman
12 Company, in 1998, approving the merger,
13 you were acting as a business person and
14 not as an attorney; correct?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. You did not -- strike that.
17 At any point when you were a director of 18 The Coleman Company, did you render legal
19 advice to the company as a lawyer?
20 A. No.
21 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, would
22 you please mark MS 121 for
23 identification, please.
24 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
25 Stanley 121, copy of Mr. Slovin's

3 monthly calendar that Mr. Slovin kept
4 in 1997 and 1998 for the months
5 indicated on the document, marked for
6 identification.)
7 MR. BEMIS: Mr. Markowski?
8 Q. Mr. Slovin, do you have Morgan
9 Stanley Exhibit 121 in front of you?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Is this a copy of your calendar,
12 if you will, plus a printout of a monthly
13 calendar that you kept in the -- 1997 and 14 1998 for the months indicated on the
15 document?
16 A. It appears to be that.
17 Q. Are there any -- well, let me
18 ask you another question.
19 In 1997 and 1998, did you
20 personally keep this calendar which we
21 have marked as Morgan Stanley 121?
22 A. My secretary would have.
23 Q. May I call it your "calendar",
24 is that fair enough, or do you want to
25 call it something else?

Page 56

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. You can call it my "calendar",
3 if you wish.
4 Q. Okay. So your secretary kept
5 your appointments and meetings for you on
6 this electronic calendar?
7 A. It appears she did.
8 Q. Well, you didn't keep it
9 yourself, I take it?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Did you provide this calendar to 12 your legal counsel in this case pursuant
13 to a request for production of documents?
14 A. I imagine we did.
15 Q. Do you have any recollection of 16 when you did it?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Do you have any recollection of
19 why only the months of December of 1997
20 and February of 1998 were produced?
21 A. No.
22 Q. And you have --
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: I'm sorry, you
24 said only December and February?
25 MR. BEMIS: It's December and 018569

Page 57

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 February, that's the only two months
3 I see. Maybe I made a mistake.
4 MR. MARKOWSKI: I have got
5 January in my copy.
6 MR. BEMIS: You know what? I
7 don't have a January front page for
8 it, and that's what confused me. Let
9 me rephrase the question.
10 Q. On the daily planner section,
11 there is just -- there are two dates,
12 December 9th and February 27th. Do you
13 see that? Just take a look at that real
14 quick for us.
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. Are those the only two dates
17 that you had on your daily planner any
18 references to The Coleman Company?
19 A. I do not recall.
20 Q. Do you have -- strike that. Are
21 there any other meetings during the months
22 of December 1997, January and February of 23 1998 that involve The Coleman Company that
24 are not on your calendars?
25 A. I do not remember.

Page 58

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Was your calendar generally
3 accurate, that was kept by your secretary?
4 A. I think so.
5 Q. Okay. Well, one thing that
6 strikes me when looking at your calendar,
7 is you did have a board meeting on
8 February 27th -- excuse me, February 25th
9 of 1998 at 4 p.m., and we marked that
10 as -- the minutes of that, as MS 88, which 11 you have in the pile. Do you recall that?
12 A. Do I recall what?
13 Q. Do you recall that you had a
14 board meeting of The Coleman Company on
15 February 25th of 1998.
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. And when I look at your cal--
18 first of all, you don't have a day planner
19 for that date and you also don't have it
20 on your monthly grid for February, that
21 is, the meeting of the board of directors.
22 Do you see that?
23 A. Yes -- yes.
24 Q. Was the February 25th, 1998
25 board meeting called without any prior

Page 59

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 advance notice to you?
3 A. I have no recollection of that.
4 Q. Do you have any explanation of
5 why it would not appear on your calendar
6 under the date February 25th?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Other than the calendar that we
9 have a portion of in Morgan Stanley
10 Exhibit 121, did you keep any other type
11 of calendar in 1997 and 1998?
12 A. I had a big red book,
13 (indicating) --
14 Q. Like a day planner?
15 A. Yeah, but I think (indicating)
16 this was supposed to reflect what was in
17 the book. This was my secretary's
18 product, and I would jot down from time to 19 time things to do as well as appointments
20 to be met.
21 Q. And what -- when you say "a big 22 red book", it had a red cover on it;
23 right?
24 A. Right.
25 Q. I have seen those, a "day

Page 60

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 planner" book lawyers call them. Do you
3 still have those?
4 A. Do I have it back in '97 and
5 '98? I don't recall, I might.
6 Q. When you were asked to produce
7 documents in this case, did you look --
8 did you produce those red books to the 9 attorneys?
10 A. I don't remember.
11 Q. Okay. Do you have any current
12 plans to, if you do have the 1997/1998 day
13 planners still in existence, do you have
14 any current plans to dispose of them?
15 A. I haven't thought about that in 16 a while.
17 Q. Okay.
18 MR. BEMIS: I would make a
19 formal request of counsel, if such
20 documents exist that they at least
21 not be destroyed until we have an
22 opportunity to see whether they are
23 subject to production. I am not
24 suggesting you would do that, I am
25 just, for the record, making a

2 request.
3 (REQUEST.)
4 Q. In addition to your day -- your
5 red book day planner -- I, by the way,
6 gave those up a long time ago, but I do
7 remember them, and what your secretary
8 kept, did you keep any other type of 9 record of your appointments, business or 10 personal?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Nothing like on a home computer,
13 calendar, or something like that?
14 A. No.
15 Q. Did you use electronic mail in 16 1997 and 1998 in your business?
17 A. I don't believe so.
18 Q. When did you first start using
19 it?
20 A. A few years ago, I think.
21 Q. Was it after you -- withdrawn.
22 Did you use it while you worked for any of 23 Mr. Perelman's companies?
24 A. I don't think so.
25 MR. BEMIS: Why don't we take a

Page 62

2 five-minute break here.
3 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
4 time is 10:10, we are going off the
5 record.
6 (Recess taken.)
7 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
8 time is 10:17, we are back on the
9 record.
10 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, will
11 you mark as Morgan Stanley 127 a
12 document entitled The Coleman
13 Company, Inc. proxy statement, dated
14 May 31, 1996.
15 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
16 Stanley 127, document entitled The
17 Coleman Company, Inc. proxy
18 statement, dated May 31, 1996, marked
19 for identification.)
20 Q. Do you have Plaintiff's Exhibit
21 127 -- I did it again, do you have Morgan
22 Stanley's Exhibit 127 in front of you,
23 sir?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Is this the proxy statement for

Page 63

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 The Coleman Company for the meeting to be
3 held May 31, 1996?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. I am showing you this, sir,
6 because I want to ask you a couple of
7 questions about some companies, and it
8 may help you refresh your recollection, if
9 you so need it, on pages 2 and 3, there
10 are some descriptions, and feel free to 11 look at this.
12 You were the president of a
13 company called MAFCO Holdings Inc.
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. And that company -- was that 16 company, at the time you were the
17 president, owned 100 percent by Ronald O.
18 Perelman?
19 A. I believe so.
20 Q. When were you the president of
21 MAFCO Holdings Inc.?
22 A. I don't recall.
23 Q. Can you give me just a general
24 time period?
25 A. I would say sometime during the

Page 64

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Nineties.
3 Q. Were you the president of MAFCO
4 Holdings Inc. in 1998 at the time the
5 Coleman merger was approved?
6 A. I don't recall.
7 Q. What did you do as the president
8 of MAFCO Holdings Inc.?
9 A. Specifically to that entity, I
10 don't recall.
11 Q. Were you also the -- withdrawn.
12 Were you the president of an entity known
13 as MacAndrews & Forbes Holding Company
14 Inc.?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And when were you the president
17 of that entity, sir?
18 A. In the Eighties and Nineties, I
19 believe.
20 Q. Okay. Were you president in 21 1998 at the time of the Sunbeam/Coleman
22 merger?
23 A. I believe so.
24 Q. Could you just generally give us
25 what your job description was as president

018571

Page 65

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 of that company?
3 A. It was one of the intermediate
4 holding companies and general discussions
5 of the investments of the company, but no
6 specific responsibilities that I can
7 recall.
8 Q. The Plaintiff in one of the 9 cases that you are here testifying to is 10 Coleman (Parent) Holding Inc. You know
11 that company; right?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. You were the president of that
14 company; correct?
15 A. Coleman Holdings, Coleman
16 Worldwide, yes.
17 Q. Now, you were talking when you
18 answered the question, and I want to make 19 sure my question -- you were answering my 20 question. You were the president of 21 Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.; right?
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: I want to make
23 sure the record is clear because he
24 is reading a document.
25 A. I don't see the parentheses.

Page 66

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 The title that is reflected on page 3
3 under my name is Coleman Holdings and
4 Coleman Worldwide, that's my recollection
5 as to those two companies.
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: If you are
7 reading from the document, the
8 reference is to your position as a
9 director.
10 A. As a director, it was Coleman
11 Worldwide and Coleman Holdings.
12 Q. Let's just focus on my question,
13 rather than reading the document. You
14 read the document, if you could, to
15 yourself and it will help the record be a
16 little clearer and just answer the best
17 that you can. If you don't know, you
18 don't know.
19 MR. MARKOWSKI: He is asking
20 that you set the document aside for a
21 moment.
22 Q. You can look at it if you need
23 to refresh your recollection, but I don't
24 need you to read it.
25 My question is, were you the

Page 67

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 president at one point of a company called
3 Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. as I have
4 described it?
5 A. I believe so.
6 Q. And when was that, sir?
7 A. Mid-1990's.
8 Q. And were you the president of 9 the company at the time of the 10 Sunbeam/Coleman merger in 1998?
11 A. I believe I was.
12 Q. What was your general job
13 description as the president of Coleman
14 (Parent) Holdings Inc. in 1998 at the time
15 of the merger?
16 A. I do not recall.
17 Q. Were you the president -- excuse
18 me. Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. was
19 indirectly owned by Mr. Ronald O. Perelman
20 through his other holding companies;
21 correct?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And the same would be true for 24 MacAndrews & Forbes Holding Company;
25 correct?

Page 68

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Now I would like to turn to
4 another company, Coleman Worldwide
5 Corporation. You were the president of 6 that company, as well; were you not?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And what period of time were you
9 the president?
10 A. Mid-'90 -- mid-Nineties.
11 Q. Were you president in 1998 at
12 the time of the merger?
13 A. I believe I was.
14 Q. What was your general job
15 description as president of Coleman
16 Worldwide Corporation?
17 A. The responsibilities of an 18 executive officer, these were intermediate 19 holding companies, to the best of my
20 recollection.
21 Q. Do you recall anything you did
22 on behalf of the company?
23 A. Not specifically, I don't
24 recall.
25 Q. At one time, were you president

018572

Page 69

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 of the Revlon Group, Inc.?
3 A. I believe I was.
4 Q. When was that, sir?
5 A. Sometime late Eighties, early
6 Nineties.
7 Q. Were you president in 1998, at
8 the time of the acquisition?
9 A. I don't recall.
10 Q. Were you president -- withdrawn.
11 Was the Revlon Group, Inc., was it a
12 company owned indirectly by Mr. Ronald O.
13 Perelman through his holding companies?
14 A. I believe it was.
15 Q. And were you also president of a
16 company called Cosmetic Center, Inc.?
17 A. I don't recall.
18 Q. Doesn't recall that one, okay.
19 You were the president of
20 I Eleven Associates; were you not?
21 A. That's my present activity.
22 Q. I remembered that from your
23 business cards.
24 And when did you become
25 president?

Page 70

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Approximately three years ago.
3 Q. What does that company do?
4 A. I Eleven?
5 Q. Yes.
6 A. It handles my private
7 investments.
8 Q. Does Mr. Perelman have any
9 interest in this company?
10 A. No.
11 Q. You are the sole owner of the
12 company?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Were you the president of a
15 company called Hanson, H-A-N-S-O-N,
16 Industries, Inc.?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Did you have any position with
19 that company at any time?
20 A. I was executive vice president.
21 Q. Is that a company indirectly
22 owned by Mr. Perelman?
23 A. No.
24 Q. Does he have any interest in it
25 at all?

Page 71

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Not to my knowledge.
3 Q. What does Hanson Industries do?
4 A. I think it's out of business
5 right now. It was part of an English
6 holding company called Hanson Trust.
7 Q. Is it your understanding the
8 company is out of business today?
9 A. I am uncertain.
10 Q. You said you were an executive
11 vice president. Do you hold any position
12 today in the company?
13 A. No.
14 Q. "No." When did you stop holding
15 a position in the company?
16 A. 1980.
17 Q. 1980?
18 A. (Nodding.)
19 Q. Thank you.
20 Now, let me ask you a couple
21 questions about some other companies in
22 which I believe you were either a director
23 or served on the executive committee.
24 Let me start with the Andrews
25 Group and Corp. Incorporated. Are

Page 72

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 familiar are you familiar with that
3 company?
4 A. Vaguely.
5 Q. Were you a vice chairman of the
6 company?
7 A. I don't recall.
8 Q. Were you a director?
9 A. I believe so.
10 Q. When?
11 A. I think in the late Eighties.
12 Q. What did it do?
13 A. I don't recall.
14 Q. Was it owned by Mr. Ronald O.
15 Perelman directly or indirectly through
16 one of his holding companies?
17 A. I think so.
18 Q. Now, one of the companies we
19 talked about earlier was the Coleman
20 Worldwide Corporation. In addition to 21 being president, were you also a director?
22 A. I believe so.
23 Q. And when were you a director of
24 the company?
25 A. Sometime in the Nineties.

018578

Page 73

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. And you were a director at the
3 time of the 1998 merger --
4 A. I believe so.
5 Q. -- correct?
6 Now, am I correct that you were
7 a director of The Coleman Company, Inc.
8 since about 1993?
9 A. I believe so.
10 Q. And you served as a director
11 until you resigned as a consequence of the 12 merger; correct?
13 A. Yes, I think so.
14 Q. You were -- in addition to being
15 the -- a director of The Coleman Company,
16 Inc., you were also a member of the 17 executive committee; is that right?
18 A. I believe so.
19 Q. And were the other members of
20 the executive committee of The Coleman
21 Company in 1998, at the time of the 22 merger, Mr. Perelman, Mr. Drapkin,
23 Mr. Levin, and yourself?
24 A. I don't have a specific
25 recollection who the other directors were.

Page 74

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. No, not the other directors.
3 Let me rephrase the question, maybe I
4 misspoke.
5 I am referring now to the
6 members of the executive committee of The 7 Coleman Company.
8 A. My answer is the same, I don't
9 recall.
10 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
11 Stanley 129, document, which on page
12 2 lists on the executive committee
13 the names of Ronald O. Perelman,
14 Mr. Drapkin, Mr. Levin,
15 Mr. Hammas, and Mr. Slovin.)
16 Q. Well, do you recall that
17 Mr. -- let me show you what's been marked
18 as Morgan Stanley 129, and by the court
19 reporter.
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Okay. If you will look to page
22 2 of this document. And it lists on the 23 executive committee the names of Ronald O.
24 Perelman, Mr. Drapkin, Mr. Levin,
25 Mr. Hammas -- did I pronounce that

Page 75

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 correctly? Is it Hammas or Hammas?
3 A. Hammas.
4 Q. Hammas, excuse me -- and
5 yourself, Mr. Slovin. Are these the
6 members of the executive committee of --
7 A. I believe so, yes .
8 Q. Okay. And then in addition to
9 the executive committee of The Coleman
10 Company, you were also on the management
11 and stock option committee, according to 12 this document?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. And you served on those
15 committees, did you not, until your 16 resignation from The Coleman Company in 17 1998?
18 A. I believe so.
19 Q. You can set that aside, if you
20 like.
21 Now, when you served as a
22 director of The Coleman Company, Inc.,
23 were you compensated for your services as 24 a businessman?
25 A. From Coleman, no.

Page 76

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Who did compensate you -- were
3 you compensated by someone?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. By whom?
6 A. One of the MacAndrews & Forbes
7 entities.
8 Q. Now when you say the MacAndrews
9 & Forbes entities --
10 A. The holding companies.
11 Q. The holding companies, what was 12 your compensation for attending the board
13 meetings --
14 A. I --
15 Q. In 1998, we will use that.
16 MR. MARKOWSKI: You are focusing 17 on director fees as opposed to his
18 salary.
19 MR. BEMIS: Yes, that's what I
20 am referring to.
21 A. No director's fees.
22 Q. Did you receive any type of 23 compensation at all from The Coleman
24 Company, Inc. in 1997?
25 A. I don't believe so.

018574

Page 77

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. In 1998?
3 A. I don't believe so.
4 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, will
5 you mark, as Morgan Stanley 130, a
6 document entitled Information
7 statement pursuant to Section
8 14 S (f) of the Securities Exchange
9 Act of 1934.
10 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
11 Stanley 130, document entitled
12 Information statement pursuant to
13 Section 14 S (f) of the Securities
14 Exchange Act of 1934, marked for
15 identification.)
16 Q. All right. Do you have that 17 document in front of you, sir?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. All right. Can you, sir,
20 confirm for me, sir, that this is, indeed,
21 the information statement filed with the 22 Securities Exchange Commission pursuant to 23 the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and 24 Section 14 (f) as stated on the front page
25 of the document?

Page 78

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object, for lack
3 of foundation.
4 A. It appears so.
5 Q. Now, if you would turn, sir, to
6 page -- turn to page 17, please.
7 Tell me when you are there.
8 A. I am there.
9 Q. Now, according to this table, in 10 Exhibit MS 130, as of March 30th, and the 11 close of business that day, you owned
12 either directly or in trust for family
13 members for which you disclaim beneficial
14 ownership 52,600 shares of Coleman stock;
15 is that correct?
16 A. Yes.
17 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, would
18 you mark as Plaintiff's -- excuse me,
19 Morgan Stanley 237 a -- go ahead.
20 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
21 Stanley 237, press release, dated
22 March 2nd, 1998, entitled Sunbeam
23 acquires three publicly-traded
24 consumer products companies -

2 Alert, marked for identification.)
3 MR. BEMIS: Before we turn to
4 Exhibit 237, I think I misspoke a
5 minute ago.
6 Q. And let me ask you again if you
7 would look at page 17 of MS 130.
8 The stock ownership of 52,600
9 shares was as of March 3rd, 1998; correct?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Thank you, because I think I
12 misspoke and said March 30th.
13 All right. I have handed you
14 now, and the court reporter has marked as 15 Morgan Stanley 237, a press release, dated
16 March 2nd, 1998, entitled Sunbeam acquires
17 three publicly-traded consumer products
18 companies - Coleman, Signature Brands, and 19 First Alert.
20 Do you have that in front of
21 you?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. If you will turn to the -- first
24 of all, did you see this press release
25 when it was issued?

Page 80

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Most likely, but I don't have a
3 specific recollection.
4 Q. All right. Would you turn to
5 the second page and the penultimate
6 paragraph, beginning: "This is a
7 fantastic situation", and tell me when you
8 are there.
9 A. (Pause.)
10 Yes.
11 Q. The press release reads, quote:
12 "This is a fantastic situation for all
13 Sunbeam shareholders but" -- withdrawn.
14 Do you understand this is a press release
15 that is announcing the merger agreement
16 that the board of directors voted on, on
17 February 27th, 1998; correct?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And under the terms of the 20 merger agreement, holders of Coleman stock
21 were, in part, to receive Sunbeam stock as 22 part of the merger; correct?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. So the 56,000, if you will --
25 excuse me, 52600 shares that you owned, or

018575

Page 81

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 were held in trust for which you
3 disclaimed a beneficial interest, those
4 eventually would have been exchanged in
5 some fashion for Sunbeam stock; correct?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Now, if you will again -- now I
8 would ask you to turn to MS 237 and that 9 penultimate paragraph, which reads as
10 follows, quote: "This is a fantastic
11 situation for all Sunbeam shareholders
12 giving them the opportunity to participate
13 in the wealth that Al Dunlap and his team
14 are building, closed quote, said Ronald
15 O. Perelman, who will become Sunbeam's
16 second largest shareholder after the 17 transaction. Quote Coleman will thrive as 18 a part of Sunbeam's unbeatable family of 19 brands" -- "brands," excuse me, "added
20 Mr. Perelman."
21 Do you see that?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Did you agree with that
24 statement at the time it was made?
25 A. I don't recall.

Page 82

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Did you -- following the
3 announcement on March 2nd, did you dispose
4 of any of the 52,600 shares of Coleman
5 stock that you owned?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. How many did you dispose of?
8 A. I believe all.
9 Q. And you sold those on the open
10 market?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. In fact, you sold them on March
13 4th, 1998; didn't you?
14 A. I believe so.
15 Q. And, so, you made a decision
16 that it was better to liquidate your
17 Coleman stock than receive Sunbeam stock?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Why?
20 A. I thought that I had fair value
21 for my Coleman stock. I held the stock
22 when it was part of the Perelman
23 enterprises and it seemed to me the right
24 financial thing to do.
25 Q. So, as I take it, based on your

Page 83

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 due diligence and your -- as a director of 3 The Coleman Company, and your voting for 4 the merger, you thought financially the
5 best thing to do was to sell your Coleman
6 stock rather than participate in what this
7 fantastic opportunity that Mr. Perelman is 8 quoted in the press release as telling the 9 public; is that correct?
10 A. I made --
11 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
12 form of the question.
13 A. I made a judgment on behalf of 14 my children that it was the -- in their 15 best interest and mine, as well, to 16 liquidate the stock, and I had very little
17 or nothing to do with Mr. Perelman's
18 statement.
19 Q. Well, what did you think of 20 Sunbeam as a company under Mr. Dunlap's
21 tutelage in March of 1998?
22 A. I thought it was a fine company.
23 Q. And he was a fine president?
24 A. Oh, well, I am not a
25 hundred-percent sure of my impression of

Page 84

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Mr. Dunlap at that time, it has fused with
3 later events I am afraid. I know he was
4 an experienced manager, having taken over
5 and improved -- and apparently improved
6 and later sold companies. I know he was
7 an experienced businessman from reading
8 the newspapers.
9 That was my recollection of my
10 thoughts about Mr. Dunlap.
11 Q. Did you ever meet Mr. Dunlap?
12 A. No.
13 Q. To this day, you have never met
14 him?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Did you ever read any of his
17 books?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Have you ever read any books
20 about him?
21 A. I have read snippets about him,
22 yes.
23 Q. Did you read his book "Chain
24 Saw"?
25 A. No.

018576

Page 85

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Or the book "Chain Saw", not his
3 book, the book "Chain Saw".
4 A. I have it, but I have not read
5 it.
6 Q. Have you read "Testosterone,
7 Inc." yet?
8 A. That -- authored by Mr. Dunlap?
9 Q. No.
10 A. I don't think I read that,
11 either.
12 Q. Let's shift gears now from the
13 Coleman -- one last question.
14 As a result of your -- the sale
15 of the 52,600 shares of stock identified
16 in Morgan Stanley 130, at page 17, you no
17 longer, as of March 4th, had any equity
18 interest in The Coleman Company; correct?
19 A. That's my belief, yes.
20 Q. So you had no financial or 21 equity participation in the consequences
22 of the merger; right?
23 A. Except as they affected Mr.
24 Perelman's enterprises, with whom I was 25 employed.

Page 86

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Okay. Well, setting aside your
3 employee relationship, your own
4 personal -- from your personal financial
5 standpoint, you liquidated all of yours
6 and your family's and your trust's
7 interests on March 4th, the day or so
8 after the public announcement and you had
9 no further interest in The Coleman
10 Company.
11 A. No direct financial interest,
12 yes.
13 Q. Are you aware of -- if you would
14 look at MS -- if you look at MS 130 again,
15 and again page 117.
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Are you aware of -- strike that.
18 Do you know whether any of the other
19 individuals listed on page 17 sold their
20 Coleman stock after the public
21 announcement on March 2nd of 1998 of the 22 Coleman/Sunbeam merger acquisition?
23 A. I have no such knowledge.
24 Q. Okay, you can set that aside for 25 the time being, sir.

Page 87

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 You were -- withdrawn. I am
3 going to shift directions now to a
4 different company, so if that helps.
5 Were you an off-- a member of
6 the board of directors of The 7 Coleman -- of Coleman Holdings Inc., no
8 comma?
9 A. I think so.
10 Q. And when was that?
11 A. Mid-Nineties.
12 Q. At the time of the merger?
13 A. I believe so.
14 Q. And you were also a director,
15 were you not, of MacAndrews & Forbes Group
16 Inc.?
17 A. I believe so.
18 Q. And were you an officer of that
19 company, as well?
20 A. I think so.
21 Q. Was that during the time of the
22 merger?
23 A. I think so.
24 Q. What did you do as an officer
25 and director of MacAndrews & Forbes Group

Page 88

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 with a comma Inc?
3 -A. It was one of the holding
4 companies of the Perelman Group, and from 5 time to time you would discuss
6 investments.
7 Q. So you didn't have any specific
8 responsibilities.
9 A. No.
10 Q. Now, one of the other companies
11 we identified earlier is MAFCO, and that's
12 all capital MAFCO Holdings no comma Inc.,
13 you told me you were the president of that
14 company; right?
15 A. I believe so.
16 Q. And that was at the time of the
17 merger; correct?
18 A. I believe so.
19 Q. And you were also a director of 20 that company; were you not?
21 A. I believe so.
22 Q. And was your job as president
23 and director essentially generalized
24 discussions of the holding operations?
25 A. Yes.

018577

Page 89

 2 Q. Are you familiar with a company
 3 called MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings with a
 4 comma Inc.?
 5 A. I think so.
 6 Q. That was one of the holding
 7 companies that -- of Mr. Perelman;
 8 correct?
 9 A. One of the intermediate
 10 companies.
 11 Q. And was -- you know, was the 12 business of these holding companies to do
 13 deals?
 14 MR. MARKOWSKI: You are talking
 15 about all of them?
 16 MR. BEMIS: The holding
 17 companies he has identified as
 18 opposed to an operating company like
 19 Coleman.
 20 A. There was some kind of a complex
 21 structure designed by Mr. Perelman's
 22 advisors for various reasons. You asked
 23 the question whether they were designed to 24 do deals.
 25 Q. Yes.

Page 90

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 A. I don't think that was their
 3 sole purpose. It may have been one of the 4 purposes, assuming many deals were engaged
 5 upon during the time frame you are talking
 6 about.
 7 Q. Now, when I use the term "deals"
 8 and you used the term "deals", were you
 9 comfortable with referring to these as
 10 "mergers and acquisition deals" ?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Of all kinds, whether they are 13 state law mergers, buyouts, almost any
 14 combination you can think of under that 15 caption of mergers and acquisitions?
 16 A. I would say yes.
 17 Q. Okay. Let me show you a
 18 document that we will mark as MS 240.
 19 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, if you
 20 would please mark that.
 21 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
 22 Stanley 240, article entitled "The 23 richest guy in town, the high life
 24 and times of Ron Perelman, master of
 25 Revlon" by Craig Horowitz, marked for

 2 identification.)
 3 Q. I have handed you what has been
 4 marked as MS 420 -- excuse me, 240, I
 5 misspoke, which is an article entitled
 6 "The richest guy in town, the high life
 7 and times of Ron Perelman, master of
 8 Revlon" by Craig Horowitz,
 9 H-O-R-O-W-I-T-Z.
 10 Do you have that in front of
 11 you?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. If you will turn to page -- the
 14 fourth page of the article, right above
 15 the heading, quote: "We will spend 1
 16 billion to put together a real
 17 entertainment company says Perelman top
 18 gun". Tell me when you are there.
 19 A. Oh, I read the headline, yes.
 20 Q. Okay. Below the headline, there
 21 is a paragraph that begins with "But".
 22 Do you see that?
 23 A. "But Perelman is" --
 24 Q. "Monomaniacal", which I wasn't
 25 going to read into the record, but that is

Page 92

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 where I was referring to.
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. Below that, it's read, quote:
 5 "Just because he's" -- referring to
 6 Mr. Perelman -- "done 10 deals or 20 deals
 7 or 30 deals that have been spectacular,"
 8 says Donald Drapkin, Perelman's alter ego
 9 at MacAndrews & Forbes quote doesn't mean
 10 he should slow down or stop. If it was 11 only about having enough money to live, he 12 would have stopped a long time ago, but
 13 this is what we do. We do deals. Big 14 deals, little deals, deals", followed by 15 an ellipsis, closed quote. Do you see
 16 that quotation?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. Do you know Mr. Drapkin?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. Are you a friend of his?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. Do you serve on the board of 23 directors of Mr. Perelman's companies with
 24 Mr. Drapkin?
 25 A. I did.

018578

Page 93

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. You did -- excuse me, before --
3 for four -- a few years ago.
4 Do you agree with Mr. Drapkin's
5 statement that: "This is what we do, we
6 do big deals, little deals, deals"?
7 A. Yes, we were very active in
8 mergers and acquisitions of all types.
9 Q. And this was true in 1998, as 10 well; correct?
11 A. Yes, we were very active.
12 Q. Okay, you can set that aside.
13 And when you did deals, you
14 customarily retained advisors to assist
15 you in the deals; correct?
16 A. The large deals, yes.
17 Q. And when you did -- the Coleman
18 deal was a large deal; was it not?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. $2 billion, roughly?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. And, so, when you did large
23 deals, you would, that is, Mr. Perelman's
24 companies, would retain advisors such as 25 sophisticated law firms; correct?

Page 94

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. In fact, Wachtell, Lipton was a
4 firm that Mr. Perelman's companies had
5 used during the 1990's for his deals;
6 correct?
7 A. One of the firms.
8 Q. What other ones did you use, in
9 big deals?
10 A. I think we used Cravath and we
11 used Skadden, we used Kramer Levin, I
12 believe -- um -- I forgot the name of 13 Judge Rifkind's firm, who passed on --
14 Arthur Liman's firm, I forget the name of
15 it.
16 THE WITNESS: You don't know the
17 name?
18 A. That was another firm, the name
19 just slipped my mind.
20 Q. That's okay. In addition to --
21 would you describe these as all big
22 powerful sophisticated New York law firms?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. In addition to law firms you --
25 when you did deals, big deals, did you

Page 95

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 customarily hire, "retain" may be a better
3 word, a financial advisor?
4 A. When we felt it was necessary,
5 yes.
6 Q. And other than Credit Suisse
7 First Boston, that you identified for me
8 in the Coleman transaction, can you
9 identify any other investment banking
10 firms that you used in these deals?
11 A. I think we employed Goldman
12 Sachs and Lazard.
13 Q. Lazard Freres?
14 A. Yes. I am not certain whether
15 we used Merrill Lynch, but those were --
16 and CS First Boston we used, Morgan
17 Stanley we used, they represented the bulk
18 of our employment of investment bankers.
19 Q. When you needed accounting
20 assistance in these big deals, did you
21 have a preferred accounting firm?
22 A. I don't think we had a preferred
23 accounting firm in the singular. We used
24 Peat Marwick, we used Ernst & Young,
25 primarily.

Page 96

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. And was it -- in these large
3 deals, was it customary for the person --
4 the entity on the other side of the 5 transaction, sometimes there may have been
6 more than one, for those entities to
7 retain their own advisors?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. So they would retain their own
10 law firms?
11 A. The firms on the other side of a
12 buy or sell deal, yes.
13 Q. And would the other -- the 14 person on the other side of the buy or 15 sell deal customarily, again, in these big 16 deals, retain an investment banking firm
17 to advise them?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. And if accountants were needed,
20 would they customarily retain their own
21 accounting firms?
22 A. Surely.
23 Q. At any point in your big deals,
24 did you ever use private investigators as
25 part of your due diligence investigation?

018579

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I don't recall.
3 Q. Were any private investigators
4 used in connection with the Coleman
5 transaction?
6 A. Not to my knowledge, I don't
7 have any such recollection.
8 Q. Okay.
9 A. Paul Weiss was the firm that I
10 couldn't recall.
11 Q. Paul Weiss Rifkind?
12 A. Yes, forgive me.
13 Q. You did miss the judge's name.
14 It went by me, too, I'm sorry.
15 I don't -- I apologize if I
16 asked you this, but were you on the board
17 of directors of a company called M & F
18 Worldwide Corporation, as well?
19 A. I may have been, I don't have a
20 specific recollection.
21 Q. Do you recognize the name as 22 being one of Mr. Perelman's holding
23 companies?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. One of his deal -- companies

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 that did deals --
3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object, lack of
4 foundation.
5 A. I recall it being one of the 6 companies in his structure. Whether that
7 company was employed for deals
8 specifically, I do not know. But it was a
9 company that I recall being in his
10 grouping of companies.
11 Q. Let me show you what's been
12 marked as 128.
13 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, would
14 you please mark, as MS 128, a
15 document entitled Corporations listed
16 on Schedule 1.
17 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
18 Stanley 128, document entitled
19 Corporations listed on Schedule 1,
20 marked for identification.)
21 Q. Do you have Morgan Stanley 128
22 in front of you?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Take a look at it, because you
25 are going to see, towards the end of the

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 document, your signature does appear on
3 one of the first ten pages.
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. You are going to see a Schedule
6 1 of companies where it says board of --
7 and tell me when you are at that page
8 where it says "Schedule".
9 A. I have that.
10 Q. Okay. On Schedule 1, on the
11 left-hand side, there is a name of a
12 corporation and then there is a board or 13 executive committee on the right-hand
14 side.
15 Do you see that?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Now, this document which was 18 provided in discovery in this case is 19 dated as of November 1st of 1996, and the 20 first page has Mr. Perelman's signature
21 and your signature appears on the page
22 immediately before Schedule 1 and it is
23 Bates numbered DPW 0014390.
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Is that your signature, sir?

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Okay. Now, looking at Schedule
4 1, can you just confirm to me, for me,
5 sir, that the companies and -- that list
6 you as either a board or executive
7 committee member, that these are true and 8 accurate, at least as of the date of this
9 document, November 1st, 1996, of positions
10 that you held with the identified
11 companies.
12 A. They appear to be accurate as
13 presented by the MacAndrews & Forbes group
14 of companies.
15 I do not have a specific
16 recollection as to the accuracy of every
17 company in which I am listed as either a
18 board or an executive committee member.
19 Q. (Pause.) By my count, there are 20 79 different companies listed on
21 Schedule 1 and, you know, if I am wrong
22 somebody can re-count them later, but does
23 that seem consistent with the number of 24 companies that were -- that you were aware
25 of in Mr. Perelman's groupings of 018580

Page 101

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 companies about this time?
3 A. I had no knowledge as to the
4 precise number of companies in his
5 grouping of companies. He had many,
6 that's what I recall.
7 Q. (Pause.) Well, I count for you
8 24 companies alone that you were on the 9 board of directors or the executive
10 committee. You served on all those
11 companies at one time, 24 companies?
12 A. Well, there are companies, for 13 example, where you will see that I am
14 involved with an Eric Hanson, those
15 companies related to old companies that
16 were owned at one point by Mr. Perelman's
17 group of companies. They were created, as 18 I said, by his advisors for various
19 reasons. They were not all operating
20 companies by any means. I recall that I
21 was an officer or director or served on 22 the executive committee of many of his 23 companies as being one of a small group of 24 people that worked closely with him.
25 That's all I can recall.

Page 102

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Other than -- withdrawn. When
3 you worked -- when you -- withdrawn. When
4 you were on the board of directors or on
5 the executive committee of the companies
6 that are shown on MS 128, Schedule 1, I
7 mean, were you paid a salary for your
8 work?
9 A. No.
10 Q. How were you paid by
11 Mr. Perelman's companies?
12 A. I was employed --
13 Q. Not how much but how you were
14 paid.
15 A. I was employed by one of the top
16 companies in the holding company chain,
17 biweekly and cash.
18 Q. Was your -- the company on your
19 paycheck MAFCO Holdings no comma Inc.?
20 A. I think so, but I am not 21 certain.
22 Q. And that company was the
23 ultimate holding company, then directly
24 above that was Mr. Perelman; correct?
25 A. I believe so, yes.

Page 103

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. What did you mean you were paid
3 also in cash?
4 A. I didn't say "also in cash".
5 Q. Oh, I'm sorry, I misheard you.
6 A. I was paid by check on a
7 biweekly basis. I used "cash" as being
8 synonymous with a "check". You asked me
9 how I was paid.
10 Q. I misunderstood you. Thank you.
11 And did you receive -- in
12 addition to your biweekly pay, did you
13 receive an annual bonus?
14 A. No.
15 Q. Did you receive any additional
16 compensation, other than your biweekly
17 pay?
18 A. At one point, I had options in 19 Revlon. But, other than that, I don't
20 think I received any other compensation.
21 Q. Were you given opportunities to
22 participate in deals as an investor?
23 A. No.
24 Q. All right. Let's focus, if we
25 could, on the document which I want to

Page 104

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 have the court reporter mark as -- give me
3 one second here, I am trying to move this
4 a little forward. (Pause.)
5 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST:
6 Five more minutes remain on the tape.
7 MR. BEMIS: Okay, why don't we
8 take a break here, so he can change
9 the tape and I will locate the 10 exhibit. Every couple hours we have
11 to change the tapes.
12 (Discussion off the record.)
13 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
14 time is 11:09, this completes tape
15 number one.
16 (Recess taken.)
17 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
18 time is 11:19. This begins tape
19 number two of the videotaped
20 deposition of Mr. Bruce Slovin,
21 Esquire.
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Before I neglect
23 to do it, I would like to designate
24 the deposition as confidential under
25 the terms of the protective order.

018581

Page 105

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 So if you would label the first page
3 appropriately, I would appreciate it.
4 Q. Okay, are you all set?
5 A. Yes, I am.
6 Q. All right, sir. I would like to
7 move to a different topic here, and I am
8 going to ask you some questions, so just 9 organizationally what is the structure of 10 one line of the companies that are 11 involved in this lawsuit, so if you will
12 try to follow along with me. I am going
13 to start at the top and work down to The 14 Coleman Company and, unless it would be 15 easier for you to describe the
16 organizational structure from the bottom
17 to the top. What's easier for you?
18 In other words, Coleman Company
19 is owned by somebody, and we can trace
20 that ownership up all the way to the top
21 or we can start at the top and work
22 downwards.
23 A. I don't think it will make any
24 difference to me.
25 Q. Okay. Well, then let me start

Page 106

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 with The Coleman Company Inc. at the
3 bottom.
4 My understanding, and you can
5 correct me if I am wrong, is that the 6 stock of The Coleman Company Inc. that was
7 owned by Mr. Perelman's affiliated
8 companies was owned by Coleman Worldwide
9 Corporation; is that correct?
10 A. I have no specific recollection
11 of that now. I imagine it's correct but
12 my own knowledge, sitting here today, I
13 don't recall the precise names of the 14 intermediate holding companies.
15 MR. MARKOWSKI: Things like
16 this, he is not asking you to guess
17 at, he is asking you whether you know
18 or don't know.
19 A. I don't know, sorry.
20 Q. I am going to show you a
21 document that was in a public filing, or 22 at least a draft public filing for the 23 company, and we will have you look at that 24 and see if that helps you understand the 25 organizational structure or helps you

Page 107

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 explain it to me, is probably a better way
3 to put it.
4 Just give me one second. I
5 think I can give you a copy of it, without
6 have to get another copy, which I don't
7 want to do. (Pause.)
8 MR. BEMIS: Could you please
9 mark, as Exhibit 241, a document
10 entitled Offering memorandum, dated
11 May 17th, 1997, for $732,035,000,
12 Coleman Escrow Corporation, Bates
13 number -- initial Bates number is
14 CPH 1107884.
15 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
16 Stanley 241, document entitled
17 Offering memorandum, dated May 17th,
18 1997, for $732,035,000, Coleman
19 Escrow Corporation, initial Bates
20 number is CPH 1107884, marked for
21 identification.)
22 Q. Honestly, sir, you are not
23 expected to read all this, unless you wish
24 to spend the weekend with us. So if you
25 look at MS 241, and turn -- and I am going

Page 108

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 to give you a specific page to look at,
3 and the number I am going to give you is
4 going to be the lower right-hand numbers
5 or, actually, I think I can just give you
6 a page number, is page 8 of the document,
7 only eight pages in, please.
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. All right. Just so we are 10 clear on the record, are you at page 8 of 11 MS 241?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. All right. And this document,
14 which is a 1997 Coleman offering
15 memorandum, has been produced to us in 16 litigation, has an organizational chart
17 which is headed on page 8 Ownership of the 18 issuer and the Company.
19 Do you see that?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Okay. For the -- withdrawn.
22 Company, which is capitalized, if you
23 would look on the first page of the 24 document, is defined as The Coleman
25 Company Inc., which is the bottom company

018582

Page 109

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 on the chart. Okay?
3 Now, looking at this chart and
4 working our way up, again this is 1997, at 5 the time you were a director of The
6 Coleman Company; correct?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And you were also either an 9 officer or director of -- or -- of all of 10 the entities I believe in this chain with 11 the possible exception of Coleman Escrow
12 Corporation; is that true?
13 A. I believe so.
14 Q. Now, looking at this publicly-
15 filed document, does it, based on your 16 personal knowledge, represent the 17 structure of The Coleman Company as of May 18 15th, 1997, when you were a director of
19 the company?
20 MR. MARKOWSKI: Now he's asking
21 you not what the document says, he is
22 asking you whether you can remember
23 that, those facts today.
24 A. I don't remember those facts.
25 Q. Well, do you have --

Page 110

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Independent of this document,
3 (indicating).
4 Q. Well, having reviewed the
5 document and given that you were a
6 director of the company, do you have any
7 basis to believe that the representation
8 that you have in front of you, by way of 9 this organization chart, is incorrect --
10 A. No.
11 Q. -- as of the date?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Okay. Now, as of 1998, when you
14 were approving the merger on February
15 27th, can you, as you sit here today based
16 on your personal knowledge as a director,
17 identify any changes in this (indicating)
18 corporate structure as it relates to The 19 Coleman Company and moving up through 20 Mr. Perelman's enterprise?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Now, directly -- the top entry,
23 which is MAFCO Holdings Inc., that company
24 is owned directly by Mr. Perelman 100
25 percent; right?

Page 111

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I believe so.
3 Q. All right. You can set aside --
4 put that exhibit back together, we will
5 put a rubber band on it, and we are
6 all -- we are done with that, for the time
7 being.
8 A. That was good exercise, if
9 nothing else.
10 Q. Look at it this way, it was much
11 faster than going through it one at a
12 time.
13 A. You would have had a corpse on 14 your hand.
15 Q. I don't think so.
16 Now, starting at the top,
17 with -- if you want to look at the chart,
18 I don't think you will need it, MAFCO
19 Holdings Inc., who were the -- do you know
20 who the directors of that company were in 21 1998, when you were the president?
22 A. I don't have a recollection
23 today.
24 Q. Okay. Do you know who the 25 directors of MacAndrews & Forbes Holding

Page 112

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Inc. were in 1998 at the time of the
3 acquisition?
4 A. I thought you (indicating)
5 showed me something along the way that
6 showed officers and directors.
7 Q. It showed some directors and it
8 showed -- or executive committee members,
9 so it's not clear whether they were one or 10 the other or both.
11 A. I have no independent
12 recollection. I could guess at it, but 13 that's not what you are asking me to do.
14 Q. Do you know who the directors
15 were of New Coleman Holdings Inc.?
16 A. No.
17 Q. And all my questions now will be
18 for 1998, okay, so we don't have to go
19 back too far.
20 Do you know who the directors of 21 Coleman Escrow --
22 A. No.
23 Q. -- Corporation were.
24 How about Coleman Holdings Inc.?
25 A. No.

018583

Page 113

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Coleman Worldwide Corporation?
3 A. No.
4 Q. And The Coleman Company Inc.
5 A. The Coleman Company is myself, a
6 man by the name of Sporn, Perelman,
7 Gittis, Drapkin, I believe --
8 Q. Would they be the ones listed in
9 the board of directors minutes; correct?
10 A. Of course.
11 Q. So we won't test your memory on 12 that because we have got a document that 13 tells us.
14 A. Correct.
15 Q. Now, with regard to the -- with
16 the exception of The Coleman Company Inc., 17 on this organization chart we looked at
18 in -- what's the name of it -- MS 241,
19 were all of their offices from MAFCO
20 Holding Inc. all the way down to Coleman
21 Worldwide Corporation, were they in the 22 same building in New York City?
23 A. All the officers and directors?
24 Q. No, "the offices", the physical
25 offices.

Page 114

2 A. The top companies, the
3 MacAndrews companies were. All the
4 Coleman companies may or may not have
5 been. I don't recall where their offices
6 were.
7 Q. Well, let's just start with
8 MAFCO Holdings Inc. Were its offices in
9 New York City in 1998?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. And what was the address?
12 A. 1998, I believe it was 35 East
13 62nd Street.
14 Q. And would that be the same
15 address in 1998 --
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. -- for MacAndrews & Forbes
18 Holding Inc.?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And the same for New Coleman
21 Holdings Inc.
22 A. I am uncertain as to what the 23 office -- what offices existed for those
24 intermediary -- intermediate companies, I
25 am uncertain.

Page 115

2 Q. When you were on the board of
3 directors of The Coleman Company Inc., did
4 you ever meet at any location other than
5 in New York City?
6 A. I believe we met in Wichita,
7 Kansas.
8 Q. Would that be for an annual
9 meeting?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Excuse me.
11 Could you read the question before
12 back that started this.
13 (The record was read.)
14 MR. MARKOWSKI: You are asking
15 about board meetings?
16 MR. BEMIS: Yes, and that was a
17 poor question. Let me rephrase the 18 question, so the record is clear.
19 Thank you for helping me with that.
20 Q. When you were a member of the
21 board of directors of The Coleman Company
22 Inc., did all of the director meetings,
23 board of directors meetings, take place in 24 New York City?
25 A. I don't think so. I think on

Page 116

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 occasion a board of directors meeting
3 would be held in Wichita. I recall annual
4 meetings being held in Wichita and I
5 believe, also, that there were board of 6 directors meetings held in Wichita, as
7 well.
8 Q. Would it be fair to say that the
9 majority of the board of directors
10 meetings during the period you were a
11 director were held in New York City?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. How would you describe your job
14 for all of the companies that you held
15 positions in -- and we counted 28 on that
16 one -- on the exhibit Schedule 1 about a
17 few minutes ago, how would you describe
18 your job?
19 A. Well, I was in the inner circle
20 for many years, from 1980, when I joined
21 Ronald, until the year when I ended, three
22 years ago. We would, you know, consider
23 various subjects that would come up as
24 pertained to that corporation.
25 Primarily, however, my job was 018584

Page 117

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 that of a mergers and acquisition
3 executive. I travelled the world, I
4 bought and sold companies for any number
5 of his companies in the structure that you
6 elaborated a moment ago.
7 I did spend more time on the
8 Coleman side operationally, although I am
9 not an operations person, but I spent more
10 time with Coleman than I did with any of 11 his other companies. Wherever they needed
12 my help, I did what I was capable of 13 doing, but my main function, as a business
14 person, was that of one searching for
15 acquisitions to be made or investments, I
16 should say, broader -- more broadly to be 17 made, helping to negotiate them. I was 18 not terribly much involved on a financial 19 side, that is, to structure the finance of 20 any of these companies, the purchase of 21 these companies, or the continued
22 operations, I was not much involved in 23 that. And when a company needed to be 24 sold, I would most often participate in 25 the negotiations to sell that company,

Page 118

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 whether it was big or small.
3 Towards the middle and the end
4 of -- towards the middle of the 1990's,
5 Jimmy Maher came to work with us, and he
6 took over some of the role that I had in 7 the negotiating and searching for
8 investment opportunities. Donny Drapkin
9 did more and more of that, as did Howard
10 Gittis, but that was my main function.
11 Q. So, if you put one sentence on 12 your job application for your new job
13 instead of your prior work is you were
14 searching out mergers and acquisition
15 candidates, both on the buy and sell side?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. And would that be a fair
18 description of your job, recognizing it's
19 somewhat general, for the entire time you
20 worked for Mr. Perelman's companies?
21 A. I would say yes.
22 Q. Why did you spend more time with
23 The Coleman Company, as you have described
24 it, particularly on operations?
25 A. Well, I don't want to exaggerate

Page 119

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 my involvement with operations.
3 I spent more time with Coleman,
4 they were changing executive management,
5 Mike Hammas came in to be the chief
6 operating officer. I -- Jerry Levin had
7 originally managed Coleman when Ronald
8 bought it, in 1988, and then he stepped
9 away to work with Revlon, and I am
10 embarrassed to say a man by the name of 11 Larry something, the name slips my mind,
12 once again, took over from that role and
13 he was, you know, getting older and wanted
14 to retire, and I was asked to help find
15 his replacement, which I did, also, for 16 Ronald, searching for personnel, senior
17 personnel. And, so, I was asked to engage 18 in that activity, which I did. And 19 inasmuch as Mike Hammas was new to the 20 enterprise, I was asked to involve myself,
21 because there appeared to be a need to
22 stay close to a new employee and observe
23 his activities, which is what I did.
24 During that period, and prior to Mike
25 Hammas's coming, I tried and did expand

Page 120

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Coleman by purchasing companies in Europe
3 and South America, the United States.
4 When I was needed to do
5 something, and Ronald asked me to do it, I
6 would do it. When we took over
7 Technicolor, in 1982, I spent a year
8 working in Los Angeles, selling the 9 companies that we did not believe were to 10 our best interests to hold. We kept
11 certain core companies and sold others.
12 When Ronald took over the banks, in 1988,
13 he asked me to go down to Texas for a year
14 and to observe the management and to try
15 to report back on how I thought things
16 were going. It was a new investment of 17 his, and he thought I could help in the 18 integration of the banks with the home
19 office, which I did.
20 So, when a need occurred, he
21 would ask me to get involved. And as I
22 said, with Coleman, I was helping to buy
23 companies and, also, to work with Mike
24 Hammas and helping to manage what was then
25 a worldwide company.

2 Q. Was there within these holding
3 companies reporting to Mr. Perelman a
4 group of close-knit advisors to him, like
5 yourself, Mr. Drapkin?
6 A. No, I think the -- Howard
7 Gittis, Donald Drapkin, myself --
8 Q. I mispronounced his name, I
9 apologize.
10 A. Apologize to him, it's okay what
11 you call him.
12 Q. Okay.
13 A. But he had legal advisors, he
14 had insurance advisors, he had tax
15 advisors, he had public relations
16 advisors, he had real estate advisors.
17 His enterprise was complex and required
18 specialists of all kinds. And, yes, I
19 mean, he had certain people who he went to 20 more often than others in all aspects of 21 the business world and community, the
22 investment banking community was the same
23 thing.
24 Q. Did you consider yourself in
25 Mr. Perelman's inner circle during this

Page 122

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 period --
3 A. Uh --
4 Q. -- of advisors?
5 A. I was a little bit slipping out
6 of the inner circle when I joined Ronald
7 in 1980. It was just he and I and then
8 Howard came and Donald came and others
9 of -- you know, of -- excellent
10 businessmen. As he got more complicated,
11 he needed other skills. And I think at 12 this time I was not quite in the inner
13 circle that I had been in prior years.
14 Q. By 1998, at the time of the sale
15 of the -- or, the merger of the Coleman
16 companies with Sunbeam, who would you
17 identify as being on Mr. Perelman's inner
18 circle, most trusted confidants?
19 A. I would say Howard Gittis,
20 Donald Drapkin, he was using Jimmy Maher
21 in the M&A side more and more and he
22 became a close confidant. There was a man
23 by the name of Bill Bevins, who no longer
24 works with us, in the entertainment area
25 that was a confidant of his. Certainly

Page 123

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Jerry Ford in the banking business was
3 very close to Ronald. You know, lawyers
4 like Joe Flom and Arthur Liman, Judge
5 Rifkind, accountants at Peat Marwick, a
6 man by the name of Mike Regan was close to 7 him. He had, as I say, special people in
8 tax and public relations, but I would say
9 the inner circle was Gittis and Drapkin,
10 and on the M&A side it became Maher.
11 Q. Based on all the complex deals
12 that I know you have participated in --
13 well, withdrawn. I will withdraw that.
14 When you were the president of MAFCO
15 Holdings Inc., did it have any employees
16 per se?
17 A. MAFCO --
18 Q. Holdings Inc., the company
19 directly below Mr. Perelman.
20 A. I do not know.
21 I did not participate much in
22 the financial structuring of his
23 businesses. He had lawyers and
24 accountants and tax people who helped him
25 much more intensely than I did, and I do

Page 124

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 not recall who were the officers or
3 directors of that company or employees.
4 Q. Let me try this a different way.
5 In 1998, at the time of the 6 merger, if you handed someone your
7 business card --
8 A. Mm-hmm.
9 Q. -- what company name was on your
10 business card? Or maybe you had multiple
11 business cards, I don't know, you tell me.
12 A. No, no, I think it was 13 MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings, I think that
14 was my business card.
15 Q. Okay, which was wholly-owned by
16 MAFCO Holdings Inc.
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Okay. Now, within these holding
19 companies -- withdrawn. Have you ever
20 heard the term "shared resources" used in 21 operating a business when you -- multiple
22 companies under a single umbrella?
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
24 form of the question.
25 Q. You can answer.

018586

Page 125

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. My understanding of a "shared
3 resource" would be a person like myself,
4 where I was working for MacAndrews &
5 Forbes but I did work for MacAndrews &
6 Forbes by assisting its various
7 investments for whatever they needed at 8 the time, but primarily in the area of 9 buying and selling companies and hiring
10 executives.
11 Q. And that's how I am using the
12 term "shared resource", that a person
13 employed by one entity will also provide
14 resource and assistance to other companies
15 within the same holding group of
16 companies.
17 A. Right.
18 Q. And that's how I am using the
19 terms.
20 Is it fair to say that MAFCO
21 Holdings Inc., either directly or through
22 MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings, Inc.,
23 essentially operated at the holding
24 company level using shared resources among
25 the various holding companies?

Page 126

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
3 form of the question.
4 A. Well, there were a group of
5 people that worked for MacAndrews & Forbes
6 Holdings, and they had assignments, and
7 often those assignments would be to be
8 working with other corporations which
9 represented Mr. Perelman's investments.
10 Q. Is that why, for example, you
11 had worked -- you had titles at over 28
12 different companies at one point?
13 A. Well, when you structure a
14 complex enterprise, as Mr. Perelman had at 15 that time, you very often use your key
16 lieutenants to be the officers and
17 directors of companies which serve a
18 rather narrow purpose but, yet, an
19 important purpose, and I think that's why
20 you find me as a director of many
21 companies.
22 I told you a moment before
23 you'll find, in the list of companies you
24 gave me, where Eric Hanson, who was an
25 employee at one time, and I were the sole

Page 127

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 names because those were little boat
3 companies we had under a boat company
4 investment we had and there did not need
5 to be other officers and directors because
6 the purpose was rather narrow, holding
7 certain assets, holding certain licenses,
8 et cetera.
9 Q. Did you -- did the holding
10 companies, either through MAFCO Holdings
11 Inc. or MacAndrews & Forbes Holding Inc.,
12 did it have an analyst function somewhere,
13 financial analyst function in the
14 companies?
15 A. I don't think we had such a
16 title.
17 The financial people would some
18 do work on their side, the business people
19 would do, you know, their aspect of the 20 work, the lawyers the same, public
21 relations people. We didn't have someone
22 called a "financial analyst".
23 At one point, I had some young
24 men working for me who helped me analyze
25 companies and when I was looking at

Page 128

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 acquisitions, but you could call them
3 "analysts" if you wish but they were
4 working specifically for me and helping
5 analyze an acquisition candidate of which,
6 of course, was -- took a good deal of my
7 time.
8 Q. Do you know a man by the name of
9 Elliot Nesbitt?
10 A. Will Nesbitt.
11 Q. Will, I apologize, I get it
12 wrong.
13 A. Yes, he could be called an
14 "analyst".
15 He was working for Jimmy Maher,
16 very bright young guy, and he could be 17 called an "analyst". He helped Jimmy the 18 way other people helped me.
19 Q. And that would be --
20 A. Helping out --
21 Q. -- number-crunching and
22 analyzing the financial consequences of a
23 transaction.
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. And you used to do that

018581

Page 129

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 yourself, as well?
3 A. I did some of it myself, I had
4 other people helping. Maher did it
5 himself, too, Perelman did that, as well.
6 We would read documents, we would try to
7 see what opportunities lay in what fields,
8 you know, whether we could make a good
9 investment.
10 So we all did a little bit of
11 the analysis.
12 Q. Let me ask you something, you
13 know, given your years of experience in
14 M&A, I mean, did you consider yourself a
15 successful man in this field?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. I don't mean to embarrass you,
18 but do you consider yourself a smart man
19 in this field?
20 A. Yeah, I think I am probably 21 smart as most.
22 Q. How about Mr. Perelman, do you
23 think --
24 A. Smart.
25 Q. -- he has been successful?

Page 130

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Has he been successful?
3 Q. Yes.
4 A. By what measure?
5 Q. How do we measure -- how would
6 you measure success?
7 A. Well, are you talking about
8 what -- business?
9 Q. Yes, business.
10 A. Or you want to talk about 11 religious?
12 Q. Yes, business.
13 A. Yes, of course he has been
14 successful.
15 Q. A smart man?
16 A. Very smart man.
17 Q. Good analyst?
18 A. Good analyst.
19 Q. And Mr. Maher, a smart man?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Good analyst?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. Successful in his business?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. And, in fact, this whole group,

Page 131

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 let's take Mr. Drapkin, a smart man?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Successful in his business?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Sharp analyst?
7 A. I wouldn't say that Donny is the
8 type of analyst that Will Nesbitt is, will 9 get into the details, and nor is he as 10 clever analyzing businesses as Ronald.
11 Donny was a lawyer, but in the Wall Street
12 world he's as smart as they come,
13 structuring deals, but analyzing the right
14 or left side of a balance sheet and 15 product lines, that's not really his 16 strength. He is certainly very smart and
17 successful.
18 Q. Taken as a group, the inner
19 circle in 1998, would you categorize them
20 as a smart intelligent group of 21 sophisticated businessmen?
22 A. Yes.
23 MR. BEMIS: Would you please
24 mark a document entitled Notification
25 in report form for certain mergers

Page 132

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 and acquisitions as Morgan Stanley
3 132.
4 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
5 Stanley 132, document entitled
6 Notification in report form for
7 certain mergers and acquisitions,
8 marked for identification.)
9 Q. Do you have Exhibit 132 in front
10 of you?
11 A. Yes, I do.
12 Q. Have you ever seen this form
13 before?
14 A. I don't think so.
15 Q. Not necessarily the particular
16 contents of this form but this type of 17 form, for mergers and acquisitions, a form
18 filed under the Hart Scott Rodino Act.
19 A. Well, I know what the Hart Scott
20 Rodino Act is. I may have reviewed such 21 document in the past. I don't recall this 22 one at all.
23 Q. Do you know what "SIC codes"
24 are, all caps?
25 A. SIC codes.

018588

Page 133

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. SIC codes, right.
3 A. I sort of do, some type of a
4 classification.
5 Q. Standard Industrial, does that
6 make sense, Standard Industrial
7 classification or codes?
8 A. Are you asking me or telling me?
9 Q. I am asking you.
10 A. It sounds right.
11 Q. If you would look at page -- and
12 I am going to give you the CPH number
13 because, unfortunately, this isn't
14 numbered in any way I can see easy to work
15 with, turn to CPH 1414678 and it's
16 entitled item 5 A?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Are you there?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Now, you know, based on, you
21 know, your positions in Mr. Perelman's
22 holding companies, and in the working some
23 of his operating companies, does the list
24 of industries that is reflected here under 25 the name Ronald O. Perelman, starting with

Page 134

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 cigars, at SIC code 2121 and carrying all
3 the way down to 9999, does that appear to
4 be a fairly descriptive list of the
5 various businesses that Mr. Perelman's
6 companies were involved in about 1998?
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object --
8 A. Well --
9 MR. MARKOWSKI: -- to the form
10 of the question.
11 A. I think the answer is yes. I
12 can't say it's exhaustive or complete, but
13 all the items that I looked at now do
14 relate to one or more businesses that he
15 owned or controlled.
16 Q. Okay, you can set that aside.
17 Did you -- withdrawn. When is the first
18 time that you heard from any source that 19 there were discussions ongoing between
20 Mr. Perelman's companies and Sunbeam
21 concerning a possible deal involving The
22 Coleman Company Inc.?
23 A. I think relatively shortly
24 before the board meetings in February.
25 Q. Could you tell me how it is you

Page 135

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 came to learn about these discussions
3 between Mr. Perelman's companies and
4 Sunbeam?
5 A. It could have been Ronald or
6 Jerry Levin or Jim Maher --
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: He -- I don't
8 mean to interrupt, he is not asking
9 you to guess, he is asking whether
10 you can tell him --
11 A. Well, it would have had to have 12 been --
13 MR. MARKOWSKI: Don't guess,
14 when you start out "it would have had 15 to have been".
16 Q. Well, let me put it this way,
17 Mayor Giuliani didn't tell you; right?
18 A. No.
19 Q. All right. So, given the source
20 of people that you work with, what is your 21 best recollection, as you sit here, as to 22 who would have told you or who did tell
23 you?
24 A. I have no specific recollection
25 of any conversation I had, but it --

Page 136

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 shortly before I did know that
3 conversations were taking place, and I
4 can't tell you the individual that
5 mentioned it to me because I have no such
6 recollection.
7 Q. Given the people that you work
8 with, what would be the universe of people
9 who you would have heard this information
10 from?
11 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
12 form of the question, calls for
13 speculation.
14 A. Well --
15 Q. Well, I don't want you to 16 speculate because I don't want you to tell
17 me --
18 A. I only could guess, but it would
19 be one of a few people.
20 Q. Right, that's what I am asking
21 you, who are the few people that you would 22 identify --
23 A. Well, the best guess I would
24 have is that I might have heard it that
25 there were discussions from Maher or Levin

018589

Page 137

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 or Perelman or Gittis or Drapkin. I am
3 really not sure, the people who were in
4 the inner circle who would be
5 participating in such an activity.
6 Q. I take it that, when you heard
7 this, you were aware the discussions were
8 confidential.
9 A. Absolutely.
10 Q. And you didn't tell anybody
11 about the discussions.
12 A. I hope not.
13 Q. Okay. What did you learn --
14 withdrawn. What were you told by one or 15 more of these individuals in the inner
16 circle about a possible transaction?
17 MR. MARKOWSKI: If you can
18 recall. Don't guess.
19 MR. BEMIS: Excuse me, he 20 understands that, you don't need to 21 interrupt --
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: I don't think so
23 because you are asking him what would
24 you have been, it calls for 25 speculation, the way you phrased the

Page 138

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 question.
3 MR. BEMIS: Okay, then object to
4 the form of the question.
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: I am trying.
6 MR. BEMIS: Don't coach the
7 witness.
8 MR. MARKOWSKI: Ask an
9 appropriate question, you are calling
10 for speculation.
11 MR. BEMIS: Then you can object
12 to the form, that's the proper
13 procedure, and you know it and I know
14 it.
15 MR. MARKOWSKI: Ask a proper
16 question, don't call for speculation,
17 we'll get done a lot faster. I don't
18 think it's a worthwhile discovery.
19 MR. BEMIS: Then you make an
20 objection to form and, otherwise, you
21 be quiet.
22 A. (Laughing.) Now we are going.
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: I will make my
24 record the way I make my record.
25 MR. BEMIS: Well, we will see

Page 139

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 how you make your record, whether you
3 can dictate the terms of the
4 deposition.
5 Let's try to get back so we can
6 get the gentleman out of here today.
7 Q. The question I had was, from --
8 what were you told, as best you can
9 recall, by one or more of these members of 10 the inner circle about the discussions
11 concerning The Coleman Company and
12 Sunbeam.
13 A. My vague recollection is that
14 there were negotiations under way to do
15 some deal, a deal, with the Sunbeam
16 Corporation.
17 MR. BEMIS: Can we go off the
18 record for one second, please.
19 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: We
20 are going off the record, the time is 21 11:58 a.m.)
22 (Pause in proceedings.)
23 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
24 time is 12 p.m., we are back on the
25 record.

2 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, could
3 you please give me the courtesy of 4 reading back the last answer.
5 (The record was read.)
6 Q. As a result of these discussions
7 with the inner circle, did you receive any
8 assignment from anyone to do anything in
9 connection with the ongoing discussions?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Following these initial
12 discussions with someone in the inner
13 circle, did you have any further
14 discussions with them or anyone else about 15 the acquisition or discussions about the 16 acquisition before the board meeting on
17 February 25th of 1998?
18 A. I don't recall any such
19 discussions.
20 Q. So, it was the next thing that
21 happened after you had these initial
22 discussions with someone in the inner
23 circle the board meeting on February 25th?
24 A. Well, the "initial discussions"
25 is really mislabeled. I don't think

018590

Page 141

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 "discussions" actually describe accurately
3 these conversations. They were brief,
4 they were short, I was not involved. They
5 could have been more than one. They could
6 have taken place in different days but
7 they led up, ultimately, to the board
8 meetings when we were called to discuss in
9 detail the prospective business
10 arrangement with Sunbeam.
11 Q. Is it fair to say that the first
12 substantive presentation, if you will, as 13 opposed to a conversation that you had 14 about the transaction that becomes the 15 merger, was at the board meeting of
16 February 25th?
17 A. For myself.
18 Q. Yes, sir.
19 A. Yes, for myself.
20 Q. I want to ask you about some 21 individuals and if you know what role they 22 played in the --
23 MR. BEMIS: We are going to go
24 off the record.
25 A. No, no, leave them alone.

Page 142

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. No.
3 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: We
4 are going off the record, it's 12:03.
5 (Pause in proceedings.)
6 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
7 time is 12:03, we are back on the
8 tape, on the record.
9 Q. I'm sorry for the interruption.
10 A. I thought it was rather
11 charming, made my day.
12 Q. We will have to snip that out of 13 the deposition. So let's go back and 14 serious matters here.
15 I would like to ask you some
16 questions now about some individuals
17 within Mr. Perelman's companies and
18 specifically what role they had, if any,
19 that you know about in connection with the 20 merger, discussions that -- ultimately the
21 transaction.
22 Let's start with Mr. Perelman.
23 Do you know what role he had?
24 A. No, not specifically.
25 Q. He did attend the board meeting,

Page 143

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 as I understand, on February 25th?
3 A. Yeah.
4 Q. And he was at the board meeting
5 on February 27th, as well?
6 A. My recollection is yes, but I --
7 honestly, I don't quite recall all those
8 who were in attendance.
9 Q. Did Mr. Perelman have the final
10 authority, the "yes" or "no", on the
11 merger transaction?
12 MR. MARKOWSKI: Which merger are
13 you referring to?
14 MR. BEMIS: The February 27th,
15 1998 Coleman, where The Coleman
16 Company was a party to the
17 transaction, not the second
18 agreement.
19 MR. MARKOWSKI: You are
20 referring to the public shareholder
21 transaction.
22 MR. BEMIS: The one we marked as
23 MS 117, I believe.
24 A. I think the board has the final
25 decision, Mr. Perelman could advise of his

Page 144

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 opinion but it's a board vote.
3 Q. Did Mr. Perelman, by the way,
4 advise the board of his opinion in either
5 the February 25th or the February 27th,
6 1998 board meetings?
7 A. I don't know if he did it in a
8 formal sense. I know that he was for the 9 arrangement, the business arrangement, but
10 I don't know that he held forth a
11 discourse on whether it was the right
12 thing to do, but I know the board made the 13 final decision.
14 Q. Let me ask you now about
15 Mr. Howard Gittis.
16 What was his role in the merger
17 negotiations?
18 A. I can't say that I know, because
19 I don't know.
20 Q. Okay, so you just said you don't
21 know.
22 Mr. Drapkin?
23 A. I don't know, either.
24 Q. Mr. Maher?
25 A. I think Jimmy was involved most 018591

Page 145

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 directly in negotiating the terms of the
 3 arrangement with the representatives of
 4 Sunbeam.
 5 Q. Barry Schwartz?
 6 A. Barry Schwartz is an attorney,
 7 and a senior officer. He would have been
 8 involved in the crafting of the documents.
 9 Q. Did Barry Schwartz work for The
 10 Coleman Company?
 11 A. Was he an officer? He was
 12 certainly not employed by The Coleman
 13 Company. Was he an officer or director, I
 14 do not recall.
 15 Q. Do you know if he worked --
 16 withdrawn. Do you know the names of any
 17 of Mr. Perelman's companies that he held a
 18 position in?
 19 A. Well, (indicating), you had --
 20 MR. MARKOWSKI: The "he" is
 21 Mr. Schwartz?
 22 MR. BEMIS: Mr. Schwartz, yes.
 23 A. The top companies he was
 24 involved in, (indicating), but I have seen
 25 his name in a multitude of companies --

Page 146

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 documents you presented to me.
 3 Q. That's the 1, the Schedule I
 4 where we went through all those companies?
 5 A. Right, I know that he was
 6 involved as an officer or director in many
 7 of the companies.
 8 Q. But your understanding is that
 9 he provided legal services --
 10 A. Yes, he is one of Perelman's
 11 lead counsels, if not the lead counsel.
 12 Q. But he is employed by
 13 Mr. Perelman's companies.
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. And Mr. Nesbitt, you said he was
 16 a financial analyst of sorts?
 17 A. No, a financial analyst of some 18 intelligence, he is a bright kid, and he 19 worked mostly with Jimmy Maher, and he
 20 worked -- employed by one of Perelman's
 21 top companies.
 22 Q. But he did not work for The
 23 Coleman Company.
 24 A. No.
 25 Q. I am going to -- I am going to

Page 147

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 mispronounce this gentleman's name, but
 3 Lenny Ajzenman, A-J-Z-E-N-M-A-N?
 4 A. I don't recall that name.
 5 Q. Okay.
 6 A. Maybe it's your pronunciation.
 7 Q. I thought my spelling was bad.
 8 Mr. Levin, he was the president
 9 of The Coleman Company at the time of the 10 acquisition; correct?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Do you know if he was involved
 13 in the negotiations --
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. -- at all.
 16 Do you know a Paul Shapiro?
 17 A. Paul is a lawyer, as well, but
 18 he had a different role for Ronald. I
 19 am not quite sure of what his
 20 responsibilities were, but I know he was a
 21 practicing lawyer for a long time.
 22 MR. MARKOWSKI: His name is
 23 pronounced "Shapiro".
 24 MR. BEMIS: "Shapiro"? I got
 25 that one wrong, too, but I apologize.

Page 148

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 again.
 3 A. Shapiro is from Philadelphia.
 4 Q. He is from Philadelphia?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. Does he live in Philadelphia?
 7 A. I don't know.
 8 Q. Okay. What was Mr. Ginstling's
 9 role --
 10 A. Tax.
 11 Q. Tax? And did he work for The
 12 Coleman Company Inc.?
 13 A. No, I don't believe so, another
 14 MacAndrews employee.
 15 Q. Glenn Dickes, D-I-C-K-E-S?
 16 A. Lawyer.
 17 Q. He's a lawyer, for one of the 18 MacAndrews companies?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. And did he work on the
 21 documentation?
 22 A. I do not know.
 23 Q. Joram Salig, S-A-L-I-G?
 24 A. Lawyer.
 25 Q. Did he work --

018592

Page 149

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 A. I do not know.
 3 Q. You have to let me finish the
 4 question. I know you are getting ahead of
 5 me. We are getting close to lunch break.
 6 Steven Isko, I-S-K-O?
 7 A. Steven I think is another
 8 attorney.
 9 Q. For one of Mr. Perelman's
 10 companies?
 11 A. Right.
 12 Q. And Mr. Salig is a --
 13 A. Lawyer.
 14 Q. Salig?
 15 A. Joram Salig.
 16 Q. Is he a lawyer for one of
 17 Mr. Perelman's companies?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. Anthony Ian, I-A-N?
 20 A. Insurance, risk management, as 21 they say.
 22 Q. For one of Mr. Perelman's
 23 companies?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. Do you know what role he had in

Page 150

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 the negotiations?
 3 A. No.
 4 MR. BEMIS: Did he answer?
 5 (The record was read.)
 6 Q. Okay, I didn't hear you, I
 7 apologize.
 8 Marvin Schaffer, S-C-H--
 9 A. Tax.
 10 Q. -- A-F-F-E-R. Tax? Did he work
 11 with Mr. Ginstling?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. Did he work for one of 14 Mr. Perelman's holding companies?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. And did he work on the
 17 acquisition?
 18 A. I do not know.
 19 MR. BEMIS: All right. It's
 20 almost -- why don't we break here
 21 before I turn to another topic, and
 22 we will come back. Do you want to 23 come back at 1 o'clock or as close to 24 there as we can?
 25 THE WITNESS: Do you have to go

Page 151

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 through that whole book?
 3 MR. BEMIS: No.
 4 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: We
 5 are going off the record, the time is
 6 12:11.
 7 (Discussion off the record.)
 8 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST:
 9 We are back on the record, the time
 10 is 12:11.
 11 Q. Now, when you have investigated
 12 companies as potential acquisitions in
 13 your mergers and acquisition work, is it
 14 customary during your investigation to 15 sign confidentiality agreements with the 16 companies you are looking at?
 17 A. Often.
 18 Q. Often. Let me show you what's
 19 been marked as MS 133.
 20 MR. BEMIS: Would you please
 21 mark that as MS 133, please.
 22 (Deposition Exhibit MS 133,
 23 document, marked for identification.)
 24 Q. Do you have Plaintiffs --
 25 withdrawn, do you have MS 133 in front of

Page 152

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 you, sir?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. Would you please take a look at
 5 that and will you tell me if that's
 6 Mr. Shapiro's signature that appears --
 7 A. I would not know.
 8 Q. You would not know.
 9 Were you aware that The Coleman
 10 Company Inc., as part of the ongoing
 11 negotiations, had entered into a
 12 confidentiality agreement with the Sunbeam
 13 Corporation?
 14 A. I do not have any recollection
 15 of knowing that fact before this moment.
 16 Q. Well, let me ask you, sir, when
 17 you reviewed the merger --
 18 MR. BEMIS: Let me see the
 19 merger agreement, 113.
 20 I said 113, I meant 117. Thank
 21 you.
 22 Q. Could you take Exhibit 117 out
 23 of the exhibits in front of you, please.
 24 A. (Pause.)
 25 Q. Okay. If you will turn to page

018593

Page 153

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 29, sir, of MS 117, which, for the record,
3 is the February 27th, 1998 agreement plan
4 of merger.
5 Tell me when you are at page 29.
6 A. I have it.
7 Q. Please read Section 7--
8 A. I have.
9 Q. Okay. You knew right where to 10 look.
11 A. Well, it does say
12 "confidentiality" in it's heading, and I
13 did notice it says February 4th, 1998
14 referring to the document named Morgan
15 Stanley 133.
16 Q. So when you read -- when you --
17 even though you did not see in advance
18 Morgan Stanley 133, you knew when you
19 approved the merger agreement, as a member
20 of the board of directors, that a
21 confidentiality agreement had been signed
22 dated as of February 4th, 1998; correct?
23 A. I imagine I did know that. I
24 don't have a recollection of everything I
25 knew back in February of 1998. I presume

Page 154

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 I did know that because it's imbedded in
3 this document and it may have been
4 discussed but I am guessing at my
5 recollection, though, six years ago.
6 Q. But setting -- withdrawn. For a
7 deal of this size, $2 billion, roughly,
8 and given your experience in this -- in
9 mergers and acquisitions, it would indeed
10 be customary for such an agreement to be
11 executed between the buyer and the seller,
12 would it not, sir?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Okay. Let me show you now a
15 document that is dated February 23 of
16 1998, and that I will have the court
17 reporter mark, and I will show that to
18 you.
19 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
20 Stanley 134, document dated February
21 23rd, 1998, addressed to The Coleman
22 Company, marked for identification.)
23 Q. Do you have MS 134 in front of
24 you?
25 A. Yes.

Page 155

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Now, this document is dated
3 February 23rd, 1998 and is addressed to
4 The Coleman Company, and the copy that you
5 have in front of you is not signed, but if
6 you would -- if you will look at the 7 document, please, just very briefly, and
8 tell me when you are done.
9 A. Do you want me to read the pages
10 or just to look at it --
11 Q. No, you can just quickly look at 12 it, as much as you are comfortable with.
13 I don't have a specific question about the 14 contents per se.
15 A. Right now, I don't know what
16 this document is, I must read it --
17 Q. Please do so. And, if you like,
18 you might even want to put MS 133 side by 19 side, because you are going to find that,
20 with the exception of I think one
21 paragraph, they are identical, right down
22 to the spacing.
23 A. "Right down to the" what?
24 Q. To the spacing on the documents.
25 A. And your question is?

Page 156

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Well, first of all, tell me when
3 you have had a chance to look at it.
4 A. All right, I have looked at it
5 now.
6 Q. Now, at the time that you
7 approved the -- well, withdrawn. Have you
8 ever seen MS 134 before today?
9 A. I have no recollection.
10 Q. Okay. When you approved the 11 merger agreement, which we have marked as 12 MS 117, there is a specific reference to 13 approving, or, excuse me, as -- a
14 specific -- withdrawn.
15 When you approved the merger
16 agreement, indeed, told me you read the 17 merger agreement, you saw in paragraph 7.
18 a specific reference to a confidentiality
19 agreement dated February 23rd, 1998.
20 A. Right.
21 Q. Do you see that?
22 A. Yeah.
23 Q. Is it your understanding as a
24 director of the company that such a
25 confidentiality agreement was indeed

018594

Page 157

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 executed by the parties since it's
3 referenced in the merger agreement?
4 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the
5 lack of foundation.
6 A. I think that the language of 7.2
7 suggests that, yes.
8 Q. All right. You may set those
9 documents aside.
10 Can you tell me what steps The 11 Coleman Company Inc. took in terms of 12 doing due diligence of Sunbeam before the 13 merger agreement was approved on February
14 27th, 1998 by the Coleman board of
15 directors?
16 A. I can only speak to my role as a
17 director.
18 We reviewed (indicating) the
19 agreements presented to us, and we
20 listened to the opinions of CS First
21 Boston, in so far as discussing the 22 adequacy of the -- or fairness to the 23 Coleman side. I listened to other people
24 speaking to the deal who were actively
25 involved in the negotiation and the

Page 158

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 analysis of the deal, and I accumulated
3 knowledge of, as presented to me, both
4 orally and in writing, and then voted, as
5 the records indicate.
6 Q. And when you say you accumulated
7 the material presented to you orally and
8 in writing, you are referring to the board
9 meeting information.
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Was -- withdrawn. As I
12 understand your earlier testimony, the 13 February 25th, 1998 board meeting, which 14 started at 4 p.m. in the afternoon, was 15 indeed the first time that you had 16 received oral or written presentations on 17 the merger that results in the merger
18 agreement we marked as MS 117; is that
19 correct?
20 A. In a detailed fashion, yes.
21 Q. And before this board meeting,
22 your discussions had -- or
23 "conversations", if it's a better term,
24 were strictly, as you have described them,
25 with these members of the inner circle of

Page 159

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Mr. Perelman; right?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Did you as a board member,
5 before February 27th, do any independent
6 research at all about Sunbeam or -- at
7 all?
8 A. I knew of the company as a
9 public company, but I didn't do any
10 independent research.
11 Q. Did you read any analyst reports
12 about Sunbeam, for example?
13 A. I might have.
14 Q. But you don't remember as you
15 sit here today?
16 A. No.
17 Q. Okay. Well, let's go, then --
18 let me ask you to look at a couple of
19 documents, and we will start with MS 138.
20 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, would
21 you mark, as Morgan Stanley Exhibit
22 138, a document entitled Household
23 products PaineWebber, Sunbeam, did Al
24 show his hand too soon.
25 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan

Page 160

2 Stanley 138, document entitled
3 Household products PaineWebber,
4 Sunbeam, did Al show his hand too
5 soon, marked for identification.)
6 Q. Do you have MS 138 in front of
7 you, sir?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. This is a report by analyst
10 Andrew Shore, dated February 6, 1998.
11 Have you ever seen it before?
12 A. I don't think so.
13 Q. Did you see -- withdrawn.
14 Following the consummation of the merger,
15 and closing on March 30th, did you ever go
16 back and look at any of -- any analyst
17 reports for Sunbeam that were written in 18 early 1998?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Okay.
21 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, will
22 you mark, as MS 137, a document with
23 the heading MAFCO Consolidated Group
24 Inc., January 30th, 1998, and
25 attached to it is an identical

018595

Page 161

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 document but one -- it does not have
3 handwriting on it as the first page
4 does.
5 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
6 Stanley 137, document with the
7 heading MAFCO Consolidated Group
8 Inc., January 30th, 1998, marked for
9 identification.)
10 Q. Do you have Morgan Stanley
11 Exhibit 137 in front of you, sir?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. This document, which was
14 produced in litigation, has in the upper
15 left-hand corner MAFCO Consolidated Group
16 Inc.
17 Do you see that?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. What is MAFCO Consolidated Group
20 Inc.?
21 A. What is it? It looks like it's
22 some business enterprise.
23 I don't know precisely what it
24 is.
25 Q. Was there someone -- have you

Page 162

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 ever seen this document --
3 A. No.
4 Q. -- before.
5 Were you aware that someone at
6 MAFCO --
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Before you go
8 on, when you say "this document",
9 look at the Bates numbering on this,
10 and it doesn't appear to me that this
11 has been produced in this form. Is 12 this something that was assembled?
13 MR. BEMIS: Yeah, I said that
14 there were two pages attached to it
15 and one has handwriting and one does
16 not, but they are otherwise
17 identical.
18 MR. MARKOWSKI: They were
19 produced in separate pieces of paper.
20 MR. BEMIS: Yes, they were, they
21 were not stapled together.
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: So when you say
23 "this document", you are referring to 24 the first page?
25 MR. BEMIS: I am referring to

Page 163

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 the entire document.
3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Thank you.
4 Q. Have you ever seen either of the 5 two pages of MS 137?
6 A. I don't believe so.
7 Q. Were you aware that someone at 8 MA-- strike that. As a director of The 9 Coleman Company, Inc., and as an employee
10 of Mr. Perelman's company, were you aware
11 that someone at MAFCO Consolidated Group
12 was apparently monitoring analysts'
13 reports of estimates for fourth quarter
14 earnings for Sunbeam?
15 A. I was not aware of that.
16 Q. Okay. You can set that -- you
17 already have, you set that aside. Thank
18 you.
19 Before the board meeting on
20 February 25th, of 1998, had you been told
21 by anyone, or were you aware of 22 indirectly, that one of the MAFCO entities
23 had been doing independent research on
24 Sunbeam Corporation?
25 A. I have no such recollection.

Page 164

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Do you know a man by the name of
3 Michael Katzke, K-A-T-Z-K-E?
4 A. I don't think so.
5 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, would
6 you mark, as MS 144, a document
7 bearing Bates numbers CPH 1392480.
8 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
9 Stanley 144, document bearing Bates
10 numbers CPH 1392480, marked for
11 identification.)
12 Q. Do you have MS 144 in front of
13 you, sir?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. My only question is -- well, put
16 it this way -- withdrawn. My first
17 question is, looking at the handwriting
18 that appears on the first page, which I
19 will tell you is a reproduction of a
20 Post-it note, do you recognize the 21 handwriting?
22 A. No.
23 Q. Which is "Sunbeam Research".
24 Have you ever seen the attached
25 document before?

018596

Page 165

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I have no such recollection.
3 Q. Okay, you may set it aside.
4 MR. BEMIS: Okay, let's break
5 for lunch, it's 12:30, and we will
6 come back about 45, 50 minutes. We
7 are moving along.
8 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
9 time is 12:31, we are going off the
10 record.

2 AFTERNOON SESSION
3 (1:31 p.m.)
4
5 BRUCE SLOVIN,
6 resumed, having been previously duly
7 sworn, was examined and testified as
8 follows:
9
10 CONTINUED EXAMINATION
11 BY MR. BEMIS:
12 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
13 time is 1:23, we are back on the
14 record.
15 Q. Everybody ready?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Thank you very much for getting
18 back on time.
19 Earlier in your testimony, I
20 recall you saying that you had some
21 analysts that worked with you at one time
22 during your career at Mr. Perelman's
23 companies; am I correct?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. What were their names?

Page 167

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Ron Goldstein, Robert Knibb,
3 K-N-I-B-B, Eric Hanson.
4 Q. Did either -- "either" -- did
5 any of those three do any analyst work for
6 you in connection with the Coleman merger?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Did you, while you were working
9 for Mr. Perelman's companies, subscribe to 10 any financial news services?
11 A. I got The Wall Street Journal,
12 The London Financial Times, Bloomberg's
13 programs -- um -- at one time I know we 14 got the Standard & Poor tearsheets but --
15 I think that's what I got.
16 Q. How about UBS Warburg, anything
17 from them?
18 A. UBS --
19 Q. Mm-hmm.
20 A. The investment banking --
21 Q. Mm-hmm.
22 A. -- firm -- well, I would read
23 continuously reports on companies and the 24 like, but whether I had subscribed to a
25 service or not, I am not entirely sure.

Page 168

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Setting aside what you may have
3 subscribed to, did MAFCO or its affiliate
4 company subscribe to any financial
5 services?
6 A. I am not sure.
7 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
8 Stanley 166, offering memorandum for
9 $2,014,000,000 for Sunbeam zero
10 coupon convertible senior
11 subordinated debentures due 2018 with
12 the name Morgan Stanley Dean Witter
13 at the bottom of the March 19, 1998
14 cover page, marked for
15 identification.)
16 Q. Let me show you what's been
17 marked as MS 166 by the court reporter.
18 MR. BEMIS: Thank you.
19 Q. Do you have MS 166 in front of
20 you, sir?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. For the record, this is an
23 offering memorandum for $2,014,000,000 for 24 Sunbeam zero coupon convertible senior
25 subordinated debentures due 2018 with the 018597

2 name Morgan Stanley Dean Witter at the
3 bottom of the March 19, 1998 cover page.
4 Have you ever seen this document
5 before?
6 A. Not to my recollection.
7 Q. So if you haven't seen it before
8 you didn't rely on it in any way in voting
9 for the merger.
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
11 form of the question.
12 A. Did I rely on -- no, I don't
13 think I used this document, which I don't 14 recall seeing, to express my opinion as
15 director on the merger, no.
16 Q. You may set the document aside.
17 My understanding is that the
18 information that you relied upon in voting
19 as you did at the board of directors
20 meetings of Coleman Company Inc. on
21 February 27th was the information
22 presented to you at the board meetings;
23 correct?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. I want to ask you some

Page 170

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 questions, although you might not have
3 actually done it, I want to know whether
4 you know if anyone else did it. So, in
5 that context, do you know if anyone from
6 The Coleman Company, either its advisors
7 or employees, in connection with the due
8 diligence in this transaction interviewed
9 any of Sunbeam's middle management?
10 A. I have no such knowledge of such
11 interviews, I don't know anything about
12 it.
13 Q. The same question with regard to
14 the Sunbeam customers.
15 A. I don't know.
16 Q. Are you a-- do you know whether 17 anyone from The Coleman Company or its
18 professional advisors that it retained met
19 with any analysts that were following
20 Sunbeam?
21 A. I have no specific knowledge as
22 to such meetings.
23 Q. Do you know if anyone at Coleman
24 or anyone who was retained by or -- by 25 Coleman or on behalf of Coleman, visited

Page 171

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 any Sunbeam plants?
3 A. I have no such knowledge.
4 Q. Do you know whether, as part of
5 the due diligence process, anyone at 6 Coleman, or anyone retained by or on
7 behalf of Coleman, interviewed anyone at 8 Arthur Andersen, the accountants for
9 Sunbeam?
10 A. I have no specific knowledge of
11 any such meetings.
12 Q. Do you -- withdrawn. At or 13 about the time of the closing, which is 14 March 30th, 1998, are you aware of any 15 inquiry by Coleman, its board of 16 directors, or anyone retained by or on 17 behalf of Coleman as to whether there were
18 any quote material adverse changes closed
19 quote in Sun-- in or at Sunbeam before the 20 closing?
21 A. I have no such recollection.
22 Q. Are you aware of whether
23 Coleman's board of directors or anyone
24 retained by or on behalf of Coleman made
25 any inquiry at or about the time of

Page 172

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 closing regarding the state of Sunbeam's
3 sales versus projections of its sales?
4 A. I have no such knowledge.
5 Q. I would ask you the same
6 question with regard to revenue
7 projections by Sunbeam.
8 A. No such knowledge.
9 Q. Were you at the closing, by the 10 way?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Where did the closing take
13 place?
14 A. I do not know.
15 Q. I am going to return for a few
16 questions on Credit Suisse First Boston.
17 You had -- my understanding is
18 that you, on behalf of Mr. Perelman's
19 companies, had indeed worked with Credit
20 Suisse First Boston in prior transactions;
21 correct?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. When was the first time that you
24 recall working with them?
25 A. It was a number of years prior 018598

Page 173

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 to this transaction, but I don't have a
3 date or a year in my mind.
4 Q. Do you -- withdrawn. About how
5 many times have you worked with them
6 overall in your career -- on your side of
7 the table as being the person --
8 A. I would say about half a dozen
9 times.
10 Q. What transactions?
11 A. Well --
12 Q. As best you can remember.
13 A. I remember once I was selling a
14 cosmetic line. I think they were involved
15 in some boat deals I did. I can't recall
16 other specifics.
17 Q. Were they involved in the 18 Panavision deal?
19 A. I do not know.
20 Q. How about the Marvel issuance of 21 notes which result--
22 A. I don't recall.
23 Q. Okay. How about the Cal Fed/
24 Golden State merger?
25 A. I don't recall.

Page 174

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. In the Coleman/Sunbeam
3 transaction now, we will go forward to
4 1997/1998, do you know the names of the --
5 any of the personnel who worked on the
6 investment banking side of the advice
7 given to Coleman?
8 A. Gordon Rich --
9 MR. MARKOWSKI: I'm sorry, the
10 advice given to Coleman?
11 MR. BEMIS: To Coleman, yes.
12 A. Gordon Rich, from First Boston.
13 Q. How long have you known
14 Mr. Gordon Rich?
15 A. He's dead now, but I knew him
16 for say about ten years prior to the time
17 of this deal.
18 Q. Did you know him professionally,
19 socially, or --
20 A. I knew him professionally and to 21 a lesser extent socially.
22 Q. Was Mr. Rich the senior person
23 on the CSFB team advising Coleman?
24 A. My understanding is that he was,
25 yes.

Page 175

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Do you know Steve Geller?
3 A. Not that I can remember.
4 Q. Ron Duffy?
5 A. No --
6 Q. Or, I'm sorry, I say Ron, Robert
7 Duffy.
8 A. No, I don't recall.
9 Q. Charles Ward?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Ramish (phonetic) Chakrapani,
12 C-H-A-K-R-A-P-A-N-I?
13 A. No.
14 Q. When was the first time that you
15 spoke to, or were spoken to, by anyone
16 from CSFB about the Coleman transaction?
17 A. I think it was at the board
18 meetings you are referring to.
19 Q. That would then be the February
20 25th board meeting?
21 A. I think so, yes.
22 Q. Okay. At the board meeting of 23 the -- withdrawn. At the February 27th
24 board meeting, did the board approve the 25 retention of CSFB as the investment banker

Page 176

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 for The Coleman Company Inc. in this
3 Sunbeam/Coleman merger?
4 A. I thought they were already
5 engaged.
6 Q. Well, let me show you the
7 minutes of the meeting of February 27th.
8 MR. BEMIS: And I will ask the
9 court reporter if you would please
10 mark as MS 118 the board of directors
11 minutes for February 27th, 1998.
12 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
13 Stanley MS 118, board of directors
14 minutes for February 27th, 1998,
15 marked for identification.)
16 MR. BEMIS: There is a copy for
17 you, sir.
18 Q. Do you have Exhibit MS 118 in
19 front of you?
20 A. Yep.
21 Q. Please turn to page 7 and look
22 under the hiding Engagements. Tell me
23 when you are there.
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Now, would you read that

018599

Page 177

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 paragraph to yourself, sir, if you would?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Now, before February 27th, 1998,
5 had the board of directors in any way
6 approved CSFB as being the exclusive
7 financial advisor to The Coleman Company
8 Inc.?
9 A. I don't think in a formal way
10 that they had done that, no, before this 11 meeting, that's why this resolution is 12 here.
13 MR. BEMIS: I would like the 14 court reporter to mark for us as
15 MS 169 a letter dated December 10,
16 1997 to The Coleman Company,
17 attention Mr. Jerry W. Levin and 18 signed on the third page by 19 Mr. Shapiro, I believe.
20 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
21 Stanley 169, letter dated December
22 10, 1997 to The Coleman Company,
23 attention Mr. Jerry W. Levin, marked
24 for identification.)
25 Q. Do you have that in front of

Page 178

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 you, sir?
3 A. Yeah.
4 Q. Now, when the board of directors
5 approved the retention of The Coleman
6 Company -- excuse me, when the board of 7 directors of The Coleman Company Inc.
8 approved the engagement of Credit Suisse
9 First Boston as its exclusive financial
10 advisor, as set forth in the first
11 paragraph of MS 169, did the board have 12 the engagement letter at the meeting?
13 A. I don't remember.
14 Q. Have you ever seen the 15 engagement letter before today?
16 A. I don't remember.
17 Q. Have you ever seen a similar
18 engagement letter addressed to The Coleman
19 Company issued by Morgan Stanley & Co.,
20 Incorporated for this transaction?
21 A. I don't believe so.
22 Q. Is it your understanding of the 23 transaction that Morgan Stanley & Co. was 24 the financial advisor for Sunbeam?
25 A. It's my understanding.

Page 179

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. And Credit Suisse First Boston
3 was the financial advisor for The Coleman
4 Company and its affiliated companies --
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. -- correct?
7 So you were on opposite sides of
8 the table; right?
9 A. We represented different
10 clients, my recollection, the best that I
11 can tell you.
12 Q. Now, according to the terms of 13 the letter, MS 169, the fee that was to be
14 charged for CSFB services was a $4 million
15 plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.
16 Do you see that?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. As a director of the company,
19 can you tell us whether that $4 million
20 was paid as a result of the consummation
21 of the merger?
22 A. I don't have any such knowledge,
23 one way or the next.
24 Q. Would you have any reason to 25 believe that it was not paid?

Page 180

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. No.
3 Q. There was also attached to
4 MS 169, on the fourth page, a separate
5 document, which is also dated December
6 10th of 1997 which, for lack of a better
7 term, I am going to refer to as an
8 "indemnity agreement". Do you see that
9 page, sir?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Was this page of the engagement
12 letter also approved by the board of 13 directors on February 27th, 1998?
14 A. I have no independent
15 recollection other than if I read the
16 minutes I could tell you.
17 Q. Okay, go ahead and read the 18 minutes if you need to, it would begin on
19 page 7.
20 A. (Pause.)
21 MR. MARKOWSKI: I am not clear
22 on what the question is right now.
23 MR. BEMIS: I thought he said he 24 could answer the question if he
25 reviewed the minutes.

018600

Page 181

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. The best answer -- repeat the
3 question for me, please.
4 Q. Is it your understanding, based
5 on reading the minutes of the board of 6 directors meeting, that the board of
7 directors on February 27th, 1997 approved
8 as part of CSFB's engagement the last page
9 of MS 169, what I call the "indemnity
10 agreement".
11 A. Well, it states in this first
12 resolution that they are -- we authorize 13 the entering of the engagement letter as 14 well as the indemnity arrangements and
15 the -- my answer is yes.
16 Q. You can set that aside for right
17 now.
18 Now, is it your understanding
19 based on the presentations that were made
20 at the board of directors meetings, on
21 both February -- well, withdrawn. CSFB
22 did make presentations to the board both
23 on February 25th and February 27th, 1998;
24 correct?
25 A. I think so, yeah.

Page 182

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. And it was based on those --
3 withdrawn. And is it your understanding,
4 as a director, that CSFB evaluated the
5 financial terms of the merger proposal
6 between Sunbeam and Coleman?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And is it your understanding, as 9 a director, that as a consequence of their
10 evaluation that they then advised The 11 Coleman Company exclusively on the 12 fairness of the transaction?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Are you aware of any facts which
15 suggest that CSFB advised Sunbeam on the 16 fairness of the transaction?
17 A. No.
18 Q. You have to keep your voice up a
19 little bit with the tape. Thank you.
20 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
21 Stanley 76, marked for
22 identification.)
23 Q. Let me show you what's been
24 marked as Morgan Stanley 76, please. It's 25 already been marked.

Page 183

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Do you have MS 76 in front of
3 you?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. There is a table of contents on 6 the second page, it tells you what's
7 included. I know it's a relatively thick
8 document.
9 A. Yep.
10 Q. My question is, have you ever
11 seen MS 76 before in any form?
12 A. I don't remember.
13 Q. Okay, you can set that aside.
14 As you sit here today now, you
15 have looked at the retention letter of 16 December 10th, 1997 for CSFB, and you have 17 taken me up to the board meetings starting
18 February 25th, are you aware of any 19 meetings, even if you might not have been 20 present, between representatives of The 21 Coleman Company or representatives of
22 Sunbeam and CSFB in that period?
23 A. No, I am not.
24 Q. By the way, were you in the 25 United States continuously between

Page 184

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 December 10th, 1997 and February 25th of
3 1998?
4 A. December 10th, it was my
5 birthday so where I was non compas mentis
6 for weeks after --
7 Q. Okay.
8 A. Yes, I was in -- oh, no, I go to
9 Europe, I have a home in Italy, my wife
10 being Italian, so I go to Europe for 11 Christmastime.
12 Q. So, roughly, when were you out
13 of the United States during that time
14 period?
15 A. The last ten days or so,
16 beginning a few days of the new year, ten
17 days to two weeks.
18 Q. And then you were -- were you in 19 the United States after your return from 20 Italy continuously up until, say, the 21 closing of March 30th, 1998?
22 A. I believe I was.
23 Q. Before we turn to the first
24 board meeting, on March 25th, I would like
25 you to focus on, for a second on, some of 018601

976

Page 185

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 the other issues with regard to any
3 investigation that was done of the merger
4 transactions which the board approved.
5 And the first question is, are you aware
6 of any type of accounting due diligence
7 that was done by Coleman's accountants,
8 Ernst & Young, LLP, in connection with the
9 merger.
10 A. I have no specific knowledge of
11 that type of work.
12 Q. Now, when you say you have "no
13 specific knowledge", have you heard
14 whether they did any work even though you
15 didn't see it yourself?
16 A. I don't remember whether I heard
17 that -- what work they did or did not do.
18 I have no recollection of that subject.
19 Q. Did you personally have any
20 communications with Ernst & Young, LLP
21 that in any way were related to the merger
22 transaction approved by the board on
23 February 27th?
24 A. No.
25 Q. At the February 27th board of

Page 186

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 directors meeting, which we have already
3 marked as Exhibit 118, the board also
4 approved the retention of Wachtell, Lipton
5 as its attorneys; correct?
6 A. I believe so.
7 Q. Were you aware, as a director,
8 that Wachtell, Lipton had been retained
9 before February 27th, 1998 to advise The 10 Coleman Company in connection with the
11 Sunbeam/Coleman merger?
12 A. I don't have a specific
13 recollection of when they were first
14 retained.
15 Q. Other than Wachtell, Lipton, was
16 there any other law firm that the Coleman
17 Company retained in connection with the 18 merger transaction?
19 A. I am uncertain.
20 Q. Had you worked with the Wachtell
21 firm before in the merger and acquisition
22 transactions you have been doing over the 23 years?
24 A. I have done some work with them.
25 Q. Had you ever worked with, excuse

Page 187

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 me, Adam Emmerich --
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. -- of the firm.
5 And what other transactions had
6 you worked on with Adam Emmerich?
7 A. I can't remember the specifics,
8 but I do remember working with that firm
9 on some deals, but I don't remember which 10 ones.
11 Q. Did they serve bagels in the 12 morning when you came in?
13 A. Better than yours.
14 Q. Okay. I will take that --
15 A. That's a real New York law firm.
16 Q. I will take that to management,
17 (smiling).
18 Are you aware of any due
19 diligence of any kind that Wachtell,
20 Lipton did in connection with the
21 Coleman/Sunbeam merger that was approved
22 on February 27th, 1998 by The Coleman
23 Company board?
24 A. As I sit here today, I have no
25 specific memory of what specific work they

Page 188

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 did on this transaction other than to do
3 the documents.
4 Q. So, when you say "do the
5 documents", it would be, for example, do
6 the merger agreements?
7 A. Yeah, the various paperwork
8 would be done.
9 Q. The various confidentiality
10 agreements that we reviewed?
11 A. I imagine that would fall in 12 that category.
13 Q. Other than the two board
14 meetings of February 25th and February
15 27th, 1998, when Mr. Emmerich appeared,
16 did you speak with him about the
17 Coleman/Sunbeam merger?
18 A. No.
19 Q. So, did you speak with him at 20 all after the transaction was assigned on 21 February 27th, about this transaction?
22 A. Not to my recollection.
23 Q. So your -- just to close this
24 out, your sole interface, if you will, as 25 a director with the Wachtell, Lipton firm

018602

Page 189

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 in this transaction consisted of the two
3 board meetings.
4 A. To the best of my recollection,
5 that is true.
6 Q. And if Wachtell, Lipton prepared
7 any documents and you saw them, they would
8 have been documents that were presented to 9 you at the board meetings?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
11 form of the question, calls for
12 speculation.
13 A. I am speculating, I could have
14 gotten some documents outside of the board
15 meeting but I have no recollection of 16 getting them.
17 Q. Okay. Well, that's fair, let me
18 ask the question a different way.
19 Wachtell, Lipton did make presentations at 20 both board meetings; correct?
21 A. To my knowledge.
22 Q. And they presented some
23 documents because they are attached to the 24 minutes of the meeting we looked at;
25 right?

Page 190

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I think so.
3 Q. Okay. Now, aside from the
4 documents that are attached to the minutes
5 of the meeting, that are identified as
6 being prepared by Wachtell, Lipton, did
7 you receive any documents in connection
8 with the merger from Wachtell, Lipton?
9 A. Not to my recollection.
10 Q. Okay, we are done with that.
11 I would like to show you now
12 what's been marked as MS 170 -- excuse me,
13 MS 79.
14 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
15 Stanley 79, document, marked for
16 identification.)
17 Q. Do you have MS 79 in front of
18 you, sir?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Have you ever seen it before?
21 A. I do not remember seeing it
22 before.
23 Q. Okay, you may set it aside.
24 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
25 Stanley 78, marked for

Page 191

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 identification.)
3 Q. I show you now what's been
4 marked as Morgan Stanley 78, in another
5 deposition.
6 Do you have MS 78 in front of
7 you, sir?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Have you ever seen the second
10 page of this document before, either in 11 this form or without the handwriting?
12 A. I have no recollection of seeing
13 this document.
14 Q. Did you ever participate in any
15 discussions or meetings concerning
16 potential synergies that were -- could be
17 achieved in a merger of The Coleman
18 Company with Sunbeam?
19 A. No.
20 Q. You know what "synergies" is;
21 right?
22 A. The Oxford Dictionary
23 definition?
24 Q. No, in an M&A usage.
25 A. Yes.

Page 192

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. What is it?
3 A. One and one equals three, that's
4 the M&A definition.
5 Q. So if you put one and one
6 together, you do better than if you just
7 leave them as one and one; right?
8 A. I would say yes.
9 Q. Okay.
10 A. We will publish that together.
11 Q. Slovin and Bemis on M&A
12 synergies, we will sell ten copies.
13 A. Right, if that.
14 Q. If that?
15 MR. BEMIS: Would you please
16 mark this, Ms. Reporter, as MS 178.
17 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
18 Stanley 175, document entitled Laser
19 Corporation Key assumptions, marked
20 for identification.)
21 Q. I have handed you Exhibit
22 MS 175 --
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: I think you said
24 "178".
25 MR. BEMIS: I misspoke earlier

Page 193

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 when I said "178", this exhibit has
3 been marked as 175, paragraph.
4 Q. I am handing you now Exhibit
5 MS 175, entitled Laser Corporation Key
6 assumptions. Do you have that in front of
7 you?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Have you ever seen --
10 A. Not to my recollection.
11 Q. Okay. You can set it aside.
12 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
13 Stanley 82, document, marked for
14 identification.)
15 Q. I will hand you what has been 16 previously marked as MS Deposition Exhibit
17 82.
18 Do you have that in front of
19 you?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Have you ever seen it before?
22 A. No, not to my recollection.
23 Q. You may set it aside.
24 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
25 Stanley 81, document, marked for

Page 194

2 identification.)
3 Q. I will hand you what's been
4 marked as MS 81 at a previous deposition.
5 Do you have that exhibit in
6 front of you, sir?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Have you ever seen it before?
9 A. I don't believe so.
10 Q. All right, you may hand it back
11 and I will just put it back.
12 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
13 Stanley 83, document, previously
14 marked for identification.)
15 Q. I will hand you now what's been 16 previously marked as MS 83.
17 Do you have that in front of
18 you?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. Have you ever seen it before?
21 A. I don't believe so.
22 Q. You can set it back -- oops,
23 thank you.
24 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
25 Stanley 84, document, previously

Page 195

2 marked for identification.)
3 Q. I show you what's been marked
4 previously as MS 84.
5 Do you have that in front of
6 you?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Have you ever seen that document
9 before?
10 A. I don't recall ever seeing this
11 document.
12 Q. Okay. You may hand that back to
13 me.
14 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, will
15 you mark the following exhibit,
16 entitled Sunbeam Corporation table of
17 contents with attachments, as MS 186.
18 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
19 Stanley 186 document entitled Sunbeam
20 Corporation table of contents with 21 attachments, marked for
22 identification.)
23 MR. BEMIS: Oh, you don't need
24 that one, sorry, sir.
25 Q. Have you had an opportunity to

Page 196

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 look at MS 186?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Have you ever seen it before?
5 A. I don't recall ever seeing this
6 before.
7 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, will
8 you mark as MS 188 a facsimile
9 transmittal sheet and attachments for
10 Project Laser Exhibit A: Transaction
11 pricing calculations.
12 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
13 Stanley 188, facsimile transmittal
14 sheet and attachments for Project
15 Laser Exhibit A: Transaction pricing
16 calculations, marked for
17 identification.)
18 Q. Do you have MS 188 in front of
19 you, sir?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. This is a fax from Will Nesbitt
22 to Adam Emmerich at Wachtell?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. With an attachment.
25 Have you ever seen either the 018604

Page 197

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 facsimile cover sheet or the attachment?
3 A. Not to my recollection.
4 Q. Do you understand -- looking at
5 the transaction pricing calculations and
6 the date of this document, do you
7 recognize this as pricing calculations
8 that were used in deciding whether to
9 approve the merger agreement?
10 A. I couldn't say, I do not know.
11 Q. Look at the last -- please look
12 at the last page of Mr. Em-- or Mr.
13 Nesbitt's transmittal, please.
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. And, so, for the record it's
16 Bates numbered CPH 1316962. Are you
17 there?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Third item under Basis of 20 arrangement to convert to cash and stock,
21 do you see that?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. It is: "Deliver as much in 24 laser stock as can be permitted, remainder
25 in cash".

Page 198

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Do you see that?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. At either of the board meetings,
5 was there any discussion of whether the
6 transaction should be structured as a cash
7 transaction as opposed to a transaction
8 that included the common stock of Sunbeam
9 Corporation?
10 A. I just don't have a specific
11 recollection of that -- it may have been a
12 subject, but I just don't have a
13 recollection of it, I'm sorry.
14 Q. You may set that aside, we are
15 done.
16 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST:
17 Five more minutes.
18 MR. BEMIS: Why don't we go
19 ahead and change the tape now.
20 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
21 time is 2:05, this is the end of tape
22 number two.
23 (Pause in proceedings.)
24 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
25 time is 2:08, this begins tape number

2 three of the videotaped deposition of
3 Mr. Bruce Slovin, Esquire.
4 THE WITNESS: "Esquire."
5 Q. Could you locate in your pile
6 there MS 88, which may be towards the --
7 it's the board of directors minutes
8 meetings, Mr. Slovin. And you might want
9 to pull out, as well, the February 27th
10 minutes, which are 118, those two
11 documents will help.
12 188 and 118, they are both board
13 of directors meetings.
14 A. 188 --
15 (Discussion off the record.)
16 Q. I can give you another one --
17 A. No, it's there. Okay --
18 Q. You have got it. Thank you very
19 much, thank you for your help.
20 All right. Let's -- now that
21 you have the two minutes in front of you,
22 MS 88 and MS 118, let's focus now on --
23 exclusively on the board of directors
24 meetings.
25 What did you understand your

Page 200

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 duties to be as a director representing
3 the majority shareholder of Coleman at
4 that meeting?
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the
6 form of the question.
7 Q. And I will limit it in
8 connection with the approval of the
9 merger.
10 A. As the majority shareholder and
11 the public shareholders?
12 Q. I am going to ask you about them
13 later, but right now I want to start as 14 majority shareholder.
15 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objection.
16 A. I don't think my sense of duty
17 would have been any different.
18 I was asked to vote on a
19 proposed transaction. I listened to the 20 experts tell me their conclusions based
21 upon the work they had done. I considered
22 what I had heard and comments made at the 23 table by the directors, and concluded that
24 this was a fair and a reasonable
25 transaction for both, the majority

018605

Page 201

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 shareholder and the public shareholders
3 and, therefore, I voted for the
4 transaction.
5 Q. Now, with regard to the public
6 shareholders, did you understand as
7 minority shareholders in the Coleman
8 organization that you, as a director, owed
9 them a fiduciary duty under Delaware law?
10 A. Absolutely.
11 Q. Now, as part of the -- as part
12 of the transaction, Sunbeam assumed a
13 large amount of Coleman debt; did it not?
14 A. One of The Coleman Company, not
15 Coleman Inc., I don't believe, I believe
16 it was one of those two companies on top
17 of Coleman, on the chart you showed me
18 before, yes.
19 Q. And how much was that debt that
20 was assumed?
21 MR. MARKOWSKI: I am just going
22 to object to the form of the 23 question, at this point, I think it
24 was unclear what entity we are
25 referring to.

Page 202

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. My recollection it was in the
3 hundreds of millions of dollars.
4 Q. So by the assumption of that
5 debt under the merger documents, and
6 related documents, that debt was removed
7 from the companies affiliated with
8 Mr. Perelman and became then the
9 obligation of Sunbeam; correct?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could you read
11 the question back for me, please.
12 (The record was read.)
13 MR. MARKOWSKI: I am going to
14 object to the form.
15 A. I believe so.
16 Q. Now, in terms of the public
17 shareholders, that is, those shareholders
18 not affiliated with Mr. Perelman, there
19 was no similar assumption of debt part of 20 the transaction; correct?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Now focusing specifically on the 23 board of directors meeting on the 25th of 24 February 1998, which is memorialized in 25 the minutes of MS 88, if you would look at

Page 203

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 that. There are documents -- excuse me,
3 three pages of charts, if you will,
4 attached to the back of the minutes.
5 Would you look at those, please?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Now, were you -- strike that.
8 Were these documents -- withdrawn. Were
9 these three pages shown to the directors
10 at the meeting?
11 A. I'm sorry, I have no
12 recollection of whether I saw these three
13 pages at the meeting or not.
14 Q. Well, let's set aside whether
15 the same three pages. Did you see as a
16 part of the presentation by your law firm,
17 Wachtell, Lipton -- when I say "your", I
18 am talking about The Coleman Company --
19 your law firm a presentation on the 20 proposed structure of the merger?
21 A. There was conversation
22 concerning the structure. Whether I saw a
23 chart I cannot tell you because I don't
24 remember.
25 Q. Well, during the meeting which

Page 204

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 we have identified lasting approximately 3 1.5 hours, could you tell the jury how the 4 meeting progressed by presen-- in order of 5 presentation?
6 A. I am afraid I cannot do that. I
7 don't recall the precise presentation, the
8 manner in which it was presented.
9 I believe that Jerry Levin was
10 the chair of the meeting, and he
11 introduced the subject matter and
12 introduced Adam Emmerich, the attorney,
13 and I believe then he introduced Gordon
14 Rich, and we had a discussion, and they 15 talked about the prospective deal and my 16 recollection was that at the end of the 17 meeting they said: We are not asking you
18 to do any voting, they can consider it,
19 reflect on it, and we still have some work
20 to do and we will be back to you fairly
21 shortly with what most likely would be a
22 request to approve or disapprove the
23 transaction.
24 Q. So, if I understand correctly,
25 Mr. Levin spoke first; is that right?

018606

Page 205

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. That's my recollection.
3 Q. Is that your recollection?
4 A. It's reflected by these minutes.
5 This does refresh my recollection a bit.
6 I don't know if I have any independent
7 recollection.
8 Q. The minutes also reflect on page
9 2, in the third paragraph, that Mr. James
10 Maher spoke. Do you recall that?
11 A. Do I recall that? I think I do,
12 yes.
13 Q. Do you recall what Mr. Maher
14 said at the meeting?
15 A. He was talking about the 16 structure of the deal, as I recall, and 17 some of the work he had done and why he 18 thought that was a sensible deal for the 19 Coleman entities.
20 Q. Can you be any more specific in
21 adding what Mr. Maher said, sir?
22 A. No, I cannot. I do not recall
23 his specific comments.
24 Q. Was there a -- withdrawn. Did
25 Mr. Maher give you a history of the

Page 206

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 negotiations with Sunbeam up to the time
3 of the board of directors meeting on
4 February 25th, kind of a blow-by-blow, if
5 you will, of the negotiations?
6 A. I don't recall a blow-by-blow.
7 I do recall some general overview, but not
8 step-by-step.
9 Q. Is it, in your experience, as
10 someone who has done many M&A
11 transactions, is it customary for deals to 12 go back and forth between the buyers and 13 the sellers until they reach a final deal?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. According to the minutes, on
16 page 2, in the third paragraph, it says
17 quote: "Following Mr. Maher's review, the 18 directors asked numerous questions
19 regarding the proposed transaction and a
20 discussion ensued among the directors."
21 Do you see that?
22 A. Where -- I'm sorry.
23 Q. In the third paragraph on the 24 second page, last sentence, sir.
25 A. Yes, I do.

Page 207

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Could you tell the jury what any
3 of the numerous questions were?
4 A. "The jury"?
5 Q. The jury who may watch your
6 tape, yes, sir.
7 A. I don't have a specific
8 recollection of questions, other than they 9 went to the structure of the deal, the 10 consideration of the deal, why it was the 11 right thing to do, in the opinion of 12 Mr. Maher, how he came to the terms that
13 he was working on, those type of general
14 questions, but a specific question I am
15 afraid I can't help you.
16 Q. Do you remember any questions
17 being asked of Mr. Maher concerning why
18 the deal was being structured to take
19 Sunbeam stock, as opposed to cash?
20 A. I do believe there was some
21 conversation to that extent, but precisely
22 what it was I don't remember.
23 Q. Do you remember generally what
24 it was?
25 A. No, I do not.

Page 208

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Did you ask any questions of why
3 the transaction was being structured to
4 take Sunbeam stock rather than an all-cash
5 transaction?
6 A. I think I asked a question or
7 two. I don't know if it was on that
8 particular subject.
9 Q. What questions do you think you
10 asked?
11 A. I don't remember.
12 Q. Okay. There is in the minutes,
13 in that same sentence that we read, after
14 the numerous questions were asked, a
15 discussion ensued among the directors. Do
16 you remember any of the discussion that 17 ensued among the directors after
18 Mr. Maher's presentation?
19 A. Well, it related to the subject
20 of the questions and the answers.
21 Q. I would hope so.
22 A. (Laughing.)
23 Q. Can you be anymore specific than
24 that?
25 A. This was six years ago, my 018607

Page 209

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 memory is really not so good, I don't
3 remember details.
4 Q. All right. Well, after
5 Mr. Levin's presentation and Mr. Maher's
6 presentation, according to the minutes,
7 Mr. Levin then introduced Mr. Emmerich.
8 Is that consistent with your recollection?
9 A. My general recollection.
10 Q. What did Mr. Emmerich say at the 11 meeting to the directors and the visitors?
12 A. He talked about the structure of 13 the deal, why it was composed the way it
14 was, from a legal point of view, what some 15 of the ramifications were from a legal
16 point of view, that sort of thing.
17 Q. What did he say about why the 18 deal was structured the way it was and the 19 legal ramifications?
20 A. Well, he said that this was a
21 serious consideration, a thought, that
22 this was the best interests of the Coleman
23 shareholders and the public and majority
24 shareholder.
25 Q. Did Mr. Maher express the same

Page 210

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 conclusion, that it was in the best
3 interests of the public and private
4 shareholders of The Coleman Company?
5 A. I think he was an advocate of 6 the deal. What his exact terms were and
7 his expressions, I don't remember. But he 8 did tell us about the deal, and my
9 understanding was he, after his extensive
10 work, was an advocate of it going forward.
11 Q. So in addition to Mr. Emmerich
12 and Mr. Maher, let's go back up to
13 Mr. Levin --
14 A. "Levin."
15 Q. I apologize, Mr. Levin --
16 A. Minnesota, Levin.
17 Q. -- did he, as well, express the
18 view that the transaction was in the best
19 interests of The Coleman Company
20 shareholders?
21 A. My recollection was that he did.
22 Q. Now, when the -- withdrawn.
23 (Discussion off the record.)
24 Q. Did Mr. -- I'm sorry, I don't
25 mean to interrupt. Did Mr. Emmerich go

Page 211

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 through any of the additional agreements
3 that are set forth in the merger agreement
4 that -- and if it helps you, that is set
5 forth in Section 7 -- excuse me, Article 7
6 of the merger agreement, MS 117, if you
7 need to look at it.
8 A. I don't remember what other
9 collateral agreements or documents he
10 talked about.
11 Q. Well, one of them was the
12 comfort letters from the -- cross-comfort
13 letters from the two auditing firms.
14 A. Right.
15 Q. Was there any discussion of
16 that?
17 A. My recollection is that -- I
18 have no recollection of specific
19 discussion on that subject. It was a
20 subject that was raised at some point.
21 What level of discussion ensued or who
22 raised the question, what the responses
23 were, I don't remember.
24 Q. But you do remember the subject
25 being raised at one of the board meetings?

Page 212

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I do think so, I do think so,
3 but my recollection is fuzzy, and
4 sometimes the suggestion creates a memory,
5 and I don't really want that to happen,
6 so....
7 Q. So, as you sit here today, you
8 can't remember the specific discussions on 9 the cross-comfort letters but you believe
10 it was discussed at some point.
11 A. I think so.
12 Q. Okay. And, just for the record,
13 the cross-comfort letters I am referring
14 to are those set forth in Section 7.2 of 15 the merger agreement, MS 117.
16 Following Mr. Emmerich's
17 presentation, the minutes reflect that the 18 board asked questions and discussion
19 ensued.
20 Do you recall any of the 21 questions that were asked of Mr. Emmerich?
22 A. I recall that there were several
23 questions, but I don't remember the 24 specific ones.
25 Q. Do you remember any of the 018608

Page 213

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 discussion that ensued following -- the
3 questions that were asked?
4 A. They related to the questions
5 that were asked, but I don't remember the
6 specifics, I'm sorry.
7 Q. Now, turning to the next
8 presentation at the board meeting, it
9 would appear that Mr. Gordon Rich spoke,
10 as you previously identified. Is that now
11 consistent with your recollection?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Did Mr. Rich present any
14 documents at the meeting on February 25?
15 A. I remember reading something in 16 the presentation, I think he passed out
17 some documents.
18 Q. Let me show you two documents,
19 and ask you if those were shown to anyone.
20 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
21 Stanley 112, document, dated February
22 25th, 1998, marked for
23 identification.)
24 Q. The first document I would like
25 you to look at is marked as Morgan Stanley

Page 214

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 112.
3 Do you have Exhibit MS 112 in
4 front of you, sir?
5 A. Yeah.
6 Q. Was this document or any portion
7 of it presented to the board of directors
8 at the May -- "May" -- February 25th, 1998
9 meeting?
10 A. I believe so.
11 Q. Now, is there something in 12 particular that makes you believe that 13 this document was presented, other than
14 it's dated February 25th, 1998?
15 A. Well, it talks to the subject of 16 valuations, and that's what we were all
17 interested in. It talks about, you know,
18 range of values which, again, is something
19 that we were all interested in. These 20 valuations of stock prices and part of 21 consideration are very important, and some
22 are complicated. I sort of remember
23 seeing something like this.
24 Q. Did CSFB use a PowerPoint
25 presentation to present these to you in

Page 215

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 slide form or did you have hard copies
3 handed out?
4 A. I think we had hard copies
5 handed out.
6 I have seen Gordon present with
7 slides, and maybe I am confusing them,
8 because he has made many presentations to
9 us. In this one, I don't recall a
10 PowerPoint slide but I recall a hard copy.
11 Q. Okay. So this document, MS 112,
12 would have been one of the documents that 13 you would have considered in approving the 14 merger?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. On the February 27th; correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Okay. Let me show you one other
19 document, which is MS 197, which is on a
20 cover -- I have with a cover page of 21 Credit Suisse First Boston, and if the
22 court reporter would mark that, as well.
23 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
24 Stanley 197, document with a cover
25 page of Credit Suisse First Boston,

Page 216

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 marked for identification.)
3 Q. Do you have MS 197 in front of
4 you?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Did you see this document at
7 either the February 25th or the 27th board
8 meeting?
9 A. It's hard to say. This is more
10 detail, as it's entitled, it's backup
11 material for the presentation. I am a
12 little confused because what you are 13 showing me in this prior document was 14 draft materials.
15 Q. Right.
16 A. So I am confused whether this
17 was a final version that was presented,
18 the prior one or whether -- I don't recall
19 this backup document, the detail. I don't 20 re-- but you see, some of the material in 21 the backup document is very similar to the 22 material in what is entitled the draft
23 material. So, I remember more receiving
24 this item called Draft materials and I
25 don't remember clearly receiving the 018609

Page 217

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 document called Backup materials.
3 Q. All right. So your best
4 recollection is that you think you saw
5 MS 112, but you don't recall --
6 A. Right.
7 Q. -- whether you saw MS 197;
8 right?
9 A. Right.
10 Q. Okay. All right. You can set
11 those two documents aside in your pile.
12 A. Can I take these home with me?
13 Q. You know, we could probably
14 arrange that.
15 MR. MARKOWSKI: Actually, under 16 the form of our protective order, you
17 can't.
18 Q. We can have you sign Exhibit A
19 and then you can take it home, if you
20 want.
21 MR. MARKOWSKI: Even then you
22 can't, but I am sure you don't want
23 them.
24 THE WITNESS: It's just some
25 humor.

Page 218

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. One of the -- withdrawn. If you
3 will look at the board of directors
4 minutes again. I hope you didn't put
5 those aside. Look at 188, please, and
6 turn to the second page of the minutes,
7 and focus on the third paragraph. And the 8 second sentence of the third paragraph
9 reads: "Mr. Maher reviewed the history of 10 the proposed transaction, including both
11 the course of discussion between the 12 company and Sunbeam and an inquiry made by 13 the company to what the company believed
14 was the most likely potential bidder,
15 which bidder was not interested."
16 Do you see that sentence?
17 A. Yeah.
18 Q. Did Mr. Maher identify, either
19 directly or in response to questions, who 20 the other potential bidder was?
21 A. I don't recall that he did.
22 Q. When CSFB made its presentation,
23 did Mr. -- what did Mr. Rich say about 24 another buyer would likely discount the 25 First Boston estimates as set forth on

Page 219

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 page 4 in the second-to-the-last
3 paragraph? And, again, I am referring to
4 MS 88.
5 A. Which page? Which paragraph?
6 Q. Page 4, next-to-the-last
7 paragraph, and if you would focus on the
8 last sentence, which reads as follows,
9 quote: "Mr. Rich stated that although
10 First Boston did not discount the 1998
11 EBITDA forecast, another buyer would
12 likely discount such estimates resulting 13 in a lower discounted cash flow range of 14 values than those presented by First
15 Boston." Closed quote.
16 What did Mr. Rich say about that
17 topic, other than what's set forth here?
18 A. Well, I think he was suggesting
19 that he thought that this deal perhaps was 20 better valued than another deal might be
21 and because another buyer might be more
22 severe in his discounting the cash flow
23 range, that was, he wasn't sure of that,
24 but he said might be and likely and,
25 therefore, the present deal was likely to

Page 220

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 be better for the Coleman people.
3 Q. So, as I understand it, the
4 First Boston's presentation did not
5 discount the current forecast given by
6 Sunbeam for its 1998 earnings; correct?
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: You are asking
8 whether he knows that?
9 MR. BEMIS: Yes, I am asking
10 that.
11 A. I am not sure. You are asking
12 me things about which I don't remember,
13 I'm sorry. And I don't know how to answer
14 that question. I don't remember.
15 Q. Well, let's turn to the next
16 page of the minutes, on page 5. The first
17 paragraph reads: "Mr. Rich then provided
18 a brief overview of Sunbeam, including
19 Wall Street estimates for Sunbeam's stock
20 price and then reviewed a" -- excuse me --
21 "reviewed a summary of the discounted cash
22 flow analysis." Do you see that sentence?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. What did Mr. Rich --
25 MR. MARKOWSKI: I think that's a

019810

Page 221

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 comma.
3 MR. BEMIS: Is that a comma?
4 Let me start over, you are correct,
5 it is a comma.
6 Q. I would ask you, sir, to direct
7 your attention to the first sentence on
8 page 5 of MS 88, which reads as follows:
9 "Mr. Rich then provided a brief overview
10 of Sunbeam, including Wall Street
11 estimates for Sunbeam's stock price and
12 then reviewed a summary of the discounted
13 cash flow analysis, comparable company
14 analysis and comparable acquisition
15 analysis for Sunbeam."
16 Do you see that sentence?
17 A. Yeah.
18 Q. What did Mr. Rich state, by way
19 of overview, of Wall Street's estimates
20 for Sunbeam's stock price?
21 A. Other than what it says in these
22 minutes, I can't tell you more about what
23 he said because I just don't remember.
24 Q. Was this information, Wall
25 Street's estimates for Sunbeam's stock

Page 222

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 price, information that you considered in
3 deciding whether to vote for the merger on
4 February 27th?
5 A. Yes, I considered everything
6 that they spoke about. Clearly, I was
7 swayed by their conclusions and judgments,
8 not only First Boston but our entire staff
9 of people who worked on the deal and, yes,
10 their words carried weight with me to help
11 me make my judgment.
12 Q. All right. It states at the end
13 of the paragraph we were reading from:
14 "Following Mr. Rich's presentation, the 15 directors asked questions and a discussion
16 ensued."
17 Can you tell us what, if any,
18 questions the directors asked and what
19 discussion ensued?
20 A. You know, other than that it was
21 about the content of Mr. Rich's
22 presentation, I can't help you.
23 Q. Did Mr. Levin, at the end of the 24 meeting, tell you what the status of the 25 negotiations were as of February 25th?

Page 223

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. I think he implied that they had
3 reached a very serious point and that they
4 were ongoing and a serious pace, and that
5 we could expect to hear from him shortly
6 as to what final deal they might be
7 presenting to the board, if a final deal
8 was, in fact, reached.
9 Q. Going back up to the first
10 paragraph again, the reference to "Wall
11 Street estimates", do you see that up
12 there, sir?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Do you understand "Wall Street
15 estimates" to be estimates of analysts who
16 follow the Sunbeam stock?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Such as Mr. Shore, who we looked
19 at earlier from PaineWebber?
20 A. Yeah -- yes.
21 Q. Is that something that, as a man
22 experienced in M&A transactions with the 23 many years that you have described it,
24 that when you are looking at a company you
25 will research and look at analyst reports

Page 224

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 on a company if it's being followed by a
3 brokerage house?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Now, did any of the directors at
6 the -- at that February 25th meeting, ask
7 to see any of the Wall Street estimates
8 such as what Mr. -- we showed you earlier
9 regarding Mr. Andrew Shore, that he had
10 done with regard to Sunbeam, did you ask
11 to see the actual underlying estimates?
12 MR. MARKOWSKI: I am going to
13 object to the form of the question.
14 A. I don't remember.
15 Q. All right. Let's set aside
16 February 25th and move forward to -- one
17 second before -- withdrawn.
18 Do you have the minutes of the
19 February 27th meeting now in front of you?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. That should be MS 118. Okay,
22 good.
23 The minutes reflect, on the 24 first page, that the meeting was called to 25 order at 9:30 a.m.

01811

Page 225

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Do you see that?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. And at the very end of the 5 minutes, it reflects that the meeting had
6 adjourned at 10:30 p.m.
7 Do you see that?
8 A. What page is that?
9 Q. It would be page 11, sir.
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. And did the meeting -- was the 12 meeting continuous from 9:30 in the 13 morning until 10:30 or -- setting aside
14 people taking a quick break for coffee or 15 the restrooms, were you in session for
16 11 -- I mean 13 hours?
17 A. Oh -- hmm -- I don't remember
18 our meeting lasting that long, honestly.
19 I don't remember. It might have. It says
20 it does. There is no reason for me to 21 argue against it. I can't believe that if 22 it lasted that long, that people didn't
23 step in and out of that meeting. Had a
24 lot of old characters on the board, they
25 would definitely be stepping out.

Page 226

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Well, let's start with the
3 people in attendance, starting with the
4 directors again.
5 Based on your recollection, is
6 that an accurate accounting of those
7 directors that attended the meeting?
8 A. I swear I don't remember. I'm
9 sorry.
10 Q. Okay. The others in attendance
11 that are listed on the first page of
12 MS 118, does that appear to be a correct
13 listing of the "quote" "others" who were 14 attending?
15 A. Looked like the cast of 16 characters that would supplement the
17 meeting, other than directors, yeah.
18 Q. Now, I asked you earlier about a
19 Michael Katzke. Do you remember I --
20 A. No, I didn't remember who he
21 was.
22 I see he is one of the attorneys
23 from Wachtell, Lipton.
24 Q. Okay.
25 A. And Richard Duffy, who I didn't

Page 227

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 know was one of the Credit Suisse people.
3 Q. Could you tell me how the
4 meeting progressed, regardless of how long
5 it took, on February 27th of 1998.
6 A. To do so, I would have to look
7 over the minutes themselves. I mean, I
8 would start that Mr. Levin called the
9 minute -- the meeting to order at 10:30,
10 and he then related to us some of the 11 changes that had taken place and the 12 consideration and exchange ratios from the 13 time we met, just two days before, and 14 then again --
15 MR. MARKOWSKI: I ask you to
16 read the minutes.
17 A. But that's the way it would
18 progress.
19 I don't have an independent
20 recollection of -- other than the reading
21 of the minutes, of the manner in which the 22 meeting progressed, who spoke first, who 23 spoke second.
24 Q. Well, according to the minutes,
25 it appears that Mr. Levin spoke, then

Page 228

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Mr. Emmerich spoke, Mr. Rich spoke again,
3 and Mr. Levin then reviewed the
4 transactions, and then various motions
5 were put to the board of directors.
6 That's in the first two pages --
7 A. Yeah.
8 Q. -- of one paragraph.
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Now -- and I am not trying to be
11 facetious, or anything -- is there any 12 reason to believe that it took 13 hours to 13 cover these two pages of the minutes?
14 A. No, I couldn't -- I wouldn't 15 under-- be able to tell you why it would
16 take so long.
17 I -- perhaps there is an error
18 in typing.
19 Q. Well, that's what I am asking --
20 I guess, ultimately, that might be the 21 question, is there an error in the typing
22 "adjourned at 10:30 p.m."?
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: To be fair to
24 the witness, there is an explanation
25 at the end of the minutes, if you

018612

Page 229

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 want to see if it refreshes his
3 recollection.
4 Q. You can look at page 10 at the 5 bottom there.
6 A. Thank you for your help.
7 Oh, thank you, there you go. It
8 sounded like it was postponed for a bit
9 until the Sunbeam people finished their 10 work and then we concluded when they
11 concluded.
12 Q. So, is it fair to say there was
13 a meeting starting at 9:30, it concluded
14 at some point, then there was a break and
15 then you-all came back after a Sunbeam
16 meeting, and then you adjourned again at 17 10:30?
18 A. I didn't recall that, honestly,
19 but thanks to counsel's identifying this
20 last penultimate paragraph -- half-
21 paragraph on page 10, that's what would
22 appeared to have happened.
23 Q. Now, did anyone other than the 24 directors and the advisors, that is, First
25 Boston through Mr. Gordon Rich and

Page 230

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Mr. Emmerich on behalf of Wachtell, Lipton
3 and Mr. Levin on behalf of -- not advisor
4 but was employed by Coleman, did anyone
5 else make formal preparations to the
6 board?
7 A. I don't have any recollection of 8 others presenting in a formal manner.
9 Q. There are some documents
10 attached to the minutes beginning right
11 after page 11. If you will turn to those,
12 please.
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Were these documents presented
15 to the board of directors on February
16 27th?
17 A. Well, this is, once again, those 18 little charts you referred to earlier, and 19 I would have to repeat my remarks, I don't
20 recall.
21 Q. Was there any type of --
22 withdrawn. Was there a PowerPoint or 23 slide presentation given at the meeting on
24 February 27th?
25 A. I don't recall.

Page 231

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Now, having gone through both
3 the meetings on February -- well, strike
4 that. When the board reconvened, after
5 the adjournment and I guess following the
6 Sunbeam meeting, if the minutes are to be
7 believed, what transpired at the second
8 part of the board of directors meeting?
9 A. I'm sorry, I don't remember.
10 Q. Okay. Was the merger agreement,
11 which we have marked as MS 113 --
12 MS. BROWN: 17.
13 Q. Withdrawn. Was the merger
14 agreement, which we marked as MS 117, was 15 that document available to the directors
16 at the board of directors meeting on
17 February 27th, 1998, when they actually
18 voted to approve the merger?
19 A. I don't remember.
20 Q. Would you have approved -- voted
21 to approve the merger without reviewing
22 the merger documents, the merger
23 agreement, MS 117?
24 A. If it was gone over by counsel
25 and those who were responsible for its

Page 232

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 drafting and execution, and they explained
3 it to me, I don't think I would feel
4 obliged in the execution of my fiduciary
5 duties to read each page. I had
6 confidence in the lawyers and our staff.
7 We talked extensively about the terms, and
8 I don't think I had to read it in order to 9 execute my authority.
10 Q. Do you know if any of the 11 directors read the merger agreement,
12 MS 117, before they voted to approve the
13 merger on February 27th, 1998?
14 A. I don't know who did what, as
15 far as reading the entire document, no, I
16 do not remember.
17 Q. With regard to the further
18 responsibilities under the merger
19 agreement, MS 117, such as the cross-
20 comfort letters from the auditors, who at 21 the Coleman Company, whether it be the 22 board or employees, were responsible for 23 seeing that these other items were 24 followed up on?
25 A. Well, the people in charge of 018613

Page 233

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 the transaction had the responsibility to
3 see that all the requirements of the deal
4 were honored by our side as well as by
5 Sunbeam's side.
6 Q. So who is the person --
7 A. I don't --
8 Q. Is there one person?
9 A. I don't think there is one
10 person that has such a responsibility.
11 I think the lawyers have their
12 area of privilege, and the analysts have
13 theirs, and I would think that Jerry Levin
14 was the generalist on this deal, along
15 with Jim Maher, to make sure that 16 responsibilities were honored on both
17 sides.
18 Q. Let me show you now what's been
19 marked as -- withdrawn. One final
20 question. I asked you earlier whether at 21 either of the board meetings anyone from 22 Morgan Stanley spoke. We have now been 23 through all the meetings, and you have
24 told me the course of proceeding. Do you
25 recall anyone from Morgan Stanley ever

Page 234

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 appearing at these board meetings on
3 February 25th or February 27th?
4 A. I'm sorry, but I don't recall.
5 Q. You don't recall them appearing.
6 A. I don't recall either way.
7 Q. Do you see them on the list of
8 attendees under the name Others on either
9 of the board minutes?
10 A. No, no, I do not.
11 MR. BEMIS: So the record will 12 reflect the witness was referring to
13 MS 112 -- excuse me, it's 88 -- you
14 are hiding those -- let the record
15 reflect the witness is referring to
16 the minutes of the board meeting
17 February 25th and February 27th,
18 which are MS 88 and 118.
19 Q. You can set those aside.
20 A. Did you say that was the final
21 question?
22 Q. On that subject. We are doing
23 fine.
24 Do you want to take a break
25 before we get going?

Page 235

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. No, I want to keep going.
3 MR. BEMIS: How are you doing,
4 Ms. Reporter?
5 (Discussion off the record.)
6 MR. BEMIS: Would you please
7 mark this MS 189, please. This is a
8 two-page document.
9 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
10 Stanley 189, two-page document, which
11 is addressed to Will Nesbitt from 12 Alexandre J. Fuchs, Morgan Stanley &
13 Co., Incorporated, and there is an
14 attachment of one page to it, marked
15 for identification.)
16 Q. The court reporter has marked
17 for you MS 189, which is addressed to Will 18 Nesbitt from --
19 A. Fuchs.
20 Q. -- from Alexandre J. Fuchs,
21 Morgan Stanley & Co., Incorporated.
22 MR. MARKOWSKI: And could I have 23 mine?
24 MR. BEMIS: Oh, I'm sorry.
25 Q. And there is an attachment of

Page 236

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 one page to it.
3 Have you ever seen this
4 document?
5 A. Not to my recollection.
6 Q. Okay. You may set that aside.
7 Do you know what a "road-show"
8 is?
9 A. Yes, I do.
10 Q. Okay. Tell the jury what a
11 "road-show" is.
12 A. My understanding of a
13 "road-show" is this arena would be
14 proponents of a deal of some sort, the 15 sale of some financial instrument,
16 representing a particular company, going
17 out on the road to visit various financial
18 institutions to try to sell the product
19 that they were hawking at the time, and 20 they would go from city to city, from 21 financial institution to financial 22 institution and explain why a bond, for
23 example, they were selling, why some stock
24 that they were selling was good value and 25 that the audience ought to consider

018614

Page 237

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 purchasing same.
3 That's what I understand a
4 "road-show" to mean.
5 Q. When you said "hawking", you
6 weren't using that in a pejorative sense;
7 were you?
8 A. Not at all.
9 Q. Could you explain to the jury
10 how in the case of -- say the zero coupon
11 debentures that we looked at earlier that 12 were going to be used as part of the 13 financing of this transaction, how those 14 are underwritten and sold, based on your 15 experience?
16 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could you read
17 that back, please?
18 MR. BEMIS: I will rephrase the
19 question.
20 Q. You remember we looked at the 21 offering memorandum for the zero coupon
22 debentures?
23 A. (Nodding.)
24 Q. I think they are subordinated
25 debentures, that were being offered in

Page 238

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 connection with the Sunbeam acquisition.
3 Do you recall that?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. What is an "underwriter"?
6 A. My understanding is someone who
7 says that -- the financial institution
8 that says that: I will underwrite the 9 success of this deal, whoever doesn't take
10 whatever remains unsold I will see to it
11 that it's taken by our house, if
12 necessary.
13 Q. In this case, when you --
14 withdrawn. Carrying that forward now to 15 the road-show, is it customary for the 16 underwriters to participate in the
17 road-show?
18 A. I think so.
19 Q. Did you attend any of the 20 road-show presentations for the zero
21 coupon notes that were being offered in 22 connection with the financing of the
23 Sunbeam/Coleman transaction?
24 A. No, I did not.
25 Q. Let me just -- I want to show

Page 239

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 you what the court reporter will mark as
3 MS 193.
4 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
5 Stanley 193, on the second page, it's
6 entitled Sunbeam road-show
7 presentation speaking points March
8 15th, 1998, marked for
9 identification.)
10 Q. Do you have MS 193 in front of
11 you?
12 A. Yes, I do.
13 Q. All right, sir.
14 On the second page, it's
15 entitled Sunbeam road-show presentation
16 speaking points March 15th, 1998. I ask
17 you to take a look at this quickly and --
18 or take as much time as you want, and tell
19 me whether you have ever seen this
20 document with or without handwriting.
21 There are some handwritten notes --
22 A. I don't recall ever having seen
23 this document.
24 Q. And have you ever done a
25 road-show?

Page 240

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Have you ever been a presenter
4 at a road-show?
5 A. Did present as the lead
6 presenter? I don't think so, I think I
7 participated.
8 Q. And were you participating along
9 with an underwriter?
10 A. I think the financial
11 institution hired to sell the instrument
12 went along with us, and whether they were
13 underwriters or using best efforts I don't
14 remember, but everybody talked what a good
15 deal was being offered to them and that
16 they should reflect and participate.
17 Q. Well, best efforts is also 18 underwriting, it's a firm underwriting
19 best efforts --
20 A. Fair enough. I was using
21 "underwriting" as a firm underwriting
22 before when I spoke.
23 Q. And I understood that, that's
24 why I wanted to clarify.
25 A. Right.

018615

Page 241

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 Q. But, in your experience --
 3 strike that. You have actually
 4 participated with underwriters whether
 5 they be best efforts --
 6 A. Right.
 7 Q. -- or firm underwriting in a
 8 road-show representing the -- one of the 9 beneficiaries, if you will, of the debt
 10 obligation and if it happens to be that
 11 that was trying to be sold; correct?
 12 A. Right, right.
 13 Q. So in terms of there being a
 14 road-show, if you will, for these zero
 15 coupon notes, you don't find anything
 16 unusual in that, do you, in this case?
 17 A. Unusual? No. Road-shows, you
 18 know, if you are fortunate, you don't have
 19 to go on the road because the document
 20 sells itself mostly, but most often in a
 21 large offering you have to get out there,
 22 you know, and rub elbows with the 23 prospective purchaser, and try to convince
 24 them of the quality of the product. I
 25 don't know if it's -- I don't think it's

Page 242

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 unusual.
 3 Q. And, in this case, the offering
 4 that was being made, underwritten by -- I
 5 think it's Morgan Stanley Senior Funding
 6 was --
 7 MR. MARKOWSKI: That's --
 8 MR. BEMIS: No, I misspoke.
 9 Q. It was being offered by Morgan &
 10 Stanley & Co., Incorporated, being
 11 underwritten by them, was in excess of a
 12 billion dollars; wasn't it?
 13 A. Is the document -- can I --
 14 Q. Go ahead, you can look at it.
 15 A. Was it in excess of a billion
 16 dollars?
 17 Q. Yeah.
 18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Are you
 19 referring to the face value of the 20 note or --
 21 MR. BEMIS: Yes, face value of
 22 the note.
 23 A. $2,014,000,000.
 24 Q. And on a discounted basis, I
 25 think it was approximately $1.2 billion;

Page 243

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 correct?
 3 A. I don't know --
 4 MR. MARKOWSKI: That's not --
 5 A. -- what the discount value --
 6 MR. MARKOWSKI: That's not
 7 correct.
 8 Q. What was the number?
 9 MR. MARKOWSKI: It's actually in 10 the speaking points, if you want to 11 take a look.
 12 MR. BEMIS: No --
 13 A. What's the relevancy of that?
 14 MR. MARKOWSKI: The fourth page.
 15 Q. Just for the purposes of not
 16 forgetting it, the next time I get asked.
 17 MR. MARKOWSKI: Do you see
 18 the --
 19 THE WITNESS: Help him out, give
 20 him the page.
 21 MR. MARKOWSKI: 398, CPH 255398.
 22 A. Can we switch the camera to you
 23 now?
 24 Q. No, can't do that.
 25 MR. MARKOWSKI: Just trying to

Page 244

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 help.
 3 MR. BEMIS: (Pause.)
 4 Yep. (Pause.)
 5 Q. Now, with that help, which is
 6 probably not necessary at this point, but 7 let me go on to another topic with you and
 8 show you one additional document and ask
 9 you whether you have seen that before.
 10 And that is MS -- we will mark
 11 as MS 194.
 12 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
 13 Stanley 194, document entitled
 14 Sunbeam road-show presentation
 15 speaking points March 15th, 1998,
 16 marked for identification.)
 17 Q. I have handed you what has been
 18 marked as MS 194, which is also entitled
 19 Sunbeam road-show presentation speaking
 20 points March 15th, 1998.
 21 Do you see that?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. Now, this -- have you seen this
 24 document or any version of it before --
 25 A. I don't believe so.

2 Q. Okay. You can set that aside.
3 (Pause.)
4 (Discussion off the record.)
5 THE WITNESS: You don't have to
6 go to the Equinox Club after doing
7 all this jumping up and down, you can
8 go home early tonight.
9 MR. BEMIS: I wish. Would you,
10 Ms. Reporter, please mark as MS 208
11 the Form 10-K for Sunbeam Corporation
12 for -- the as-of date, I think I
13 missed this, I want to say February
14 27th, 1998.
15 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
16 Stanley 208, Form 10-K for the period
17 ending December 28, 1997 for the 18 Sunbeam Corporation, marked for
19 identification.)
20 MR. MARKOWSKI: Are you
21 referring to the date when it was
22 filed?
23 MR. BEMIS: No, I was referring
24 to the bottom date, I think that was
25 incorrect, I will correct it as soon

Page 246

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 as I give it to him.
3 Q. I have handed you what has been
4 marked as MS 208, which is the Form 10-K
5 for the period ending December 28, 1997
6 for Sunbeam Corporation.
7 Do you have that in front of you
8 sir?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Have you ever seen that document
11 before?
12 A. I don't remember.
13 Q. Did you look at Sunbeam's Form
14 10-K before you voted to approve the 15 merger on February 27th, 1998 at The 16 Coleman Company board meeting?
17 A. I don't remember.
18 Q. The Form 10-K is a document
19 that, when filed with the Securities and
20 Exchange Commission, is generally
21 considered public information; isn't it?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. You can go -- you can actually
24 go on line now and a program called Edgar
25 and you can print it out without any

Page 247

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 difficulty at all; correct?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Have you done that before?
5 A. No.
6 Q. "No"? You have had other people
7 do it for you?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Okay, set that aside.
10 Did you look at any analyst
11 reports on Sunbeam Corporation after the
12 press release of March 19th, 1998, which I
13 think we previously identified as MS 210.
14 A. You know, I just don't remember.
15 I do do reading, you know, it
16 sounds like I don't read anything. I just 17 don't remember, in answer to your
18 questions, did I read an analyst's report
19 subsequent to the meetings. I may,
20 indeed, have. I just don't remember.
21 Q. Well, let me show -- let me just 22 show you one of these reports. We will
23 look at Mr. Shore's report on March 19th,
24 1998, which I will ask the court reporter
25 to mark as MS 212.

Page 248

2 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
3 Stanley 212, Mr. Shore's report on
4 March 19th, 1998, marked for
5 identification.)
6 Q. Now, I have handed you --
7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Do you have a
8 copy of that?
9 MR. BEMIS: Yes, I'm sorry.
10 Q. The court reporter has handed
11 you what's been marked as MS 212.
12 Do you have that in front of
13 you?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. Do you know who Andrew Shore is 16 at PaineWebber?
17 A. Other than he's the author of 18 this document, so I take it he's some form
19 of analyst.
20 Q. Have you ever read any of his
21 reports on Sunbeam?
22 A. I may have, I don't know for
23 sure.
24 Q. Well, Mr. --
25 MR. MARKOWSKI: Before we go on,

018617

Page 249

2 the page -- the copy I have got isn't
3 complete.
4 MR. BEMIS: Okay, let me look, 2
5 of 3.
6 A. Nor is mine.
7 Q. You are missing the middle?
8 MR. BEMIS: I have got three
9 pages in mine, let me see.
10 Q. How many pages do you have?
11 A. Two.
12 Q. Okay. Well, we have got a
13 problem, here is 2 --
14 MR. BEMIS: Let's go off the 15 record for a second.
16 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
17 time is 3:10, we are going off the
18 record.
19 (Recess taken.)
20 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
21 time is 3:16, we are back on the
22 record.
23 Q. All right. Thank you for your 24 patience, we have now corrected the
25 missing page on Exhibit 212.

Page 250

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Do you have in front of you
3 Morgan Stanley 212?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And, for the record, this is a
6 report entitled Sunbeam Corp. grilled
7 three exclamation marks by PaineWebber
8 Andrew Shore March 1998.
9 A. Right.
10 Q. Would you take a minute and read
11 this, sir, if you haven't seen it before.
12 A. (Pause.)
13 Yes.
14 Q. Now, my question is, having read
15 it, at any point after the signing of the 16 merger agreement up until I showed you
17 this document, have you ever seen it
18 before?
19 A. I don't remember.
20 Q. Well, reading its contents, had 21 you seen it, would you have taken any
22 action, as a director of The Coleman
23 Company, to consult with your other
24 directors as to the consummation of the 25 merger transaction on March 30th?

Page 251

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Would I or did I?
3 Q. Would you have, since you said
4 you didn't see it or don't remember having
5 seen it.
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: I object to the
7 form of the question.
8 A. Well, I mean, this relates to
9 the Sunbeam release which you showed me
10 earlier, saying that the sales were weaker
11 than they expected, and they gave a reason
12 for that, the Sunbeam folks did, that the 13 customers were either restocking or doing
14 something to alter the purchasing of 15 product. Then they go on in the release,
16 I remember, that they would overcome that 17 weakness in the first quarter and they
18 were sticking with their yearly
19 projections. This fellow's going into it
20 in a little more detail than the other --
21 than Sunbeam, but he concludes that, all
22 things considered, he thinks they will get
23 back on track, and he's still recommending
24 the company.
25 Would I, and did I, and would I

Page 252

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 have spoken to -- you know, if I read this
3 before, I might have spoken to one of the 4 people involved, saying: Do you think
5 this is serious? Or: Is it as the 6 release suggests that it's going to be
7 overcome, as Shore suggests, it will be
8 overcome? I might have said something.
9 But that is also hypothetical because I
10 don't remember saying it -- I don't
11 remember if I engaged in any conversations
12 concerning the subject matter of the 13 release or this report by Shore.
14 Q. Okay, you can set it aside.
15 Now, let me show you now what we
16 will mark as MS 213.
17 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
18 Stanley 213, Sands Brothers & Company
19 Limited Investment Bankers document,
20 dated March 19th, 1998, marked for
21 identification.)
22 Q. Do you have MS 213 in front --
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. -- of you.
25 For the record, this is a Sands

2 Brothers & Company Limited Investment
3 Bankers document, dated March 19th, 1998,
4 following the press release of March 19th
5 that we discussed earlier.
6 Have you ever seen this document
7 before?
8 A. I don't believe so.
9 Q. Okay. Do you know Sands
10 Brothers Limited?
11 A. I know of them, yes, a smaller
12 brokerage house -- a brokerage house,
13 investment banking house, I guess.
14 MR. BEMIS: Would you please
15 mark, Ms. Reporter, as MS 214, a CIBC
16 Oppenheimer report, dated March 19th
17 1998, on Sunbeam Corporation.
18 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
19 Stanley 214, CIBC Oppenheimer report,
20 dated March 19th 1998, on Sunbeam
21 Corporation, marked for
22 identification.)
23 Q. Do you have MS 214 in front of
24 you, sir?
25 A. Yes.

Page 254

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Have you ever seen this
3 analyst's report?
4 A. Not that I recall.
5 Q. You may set it aside.
6 Let me show you now a document
7 marked as MS 36 by the court reporter.
8 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
9 Stanley 36, copy of The New York
10 Times article appearing on March
11 20th, 1998, entitled Sunbeam stock
12 falls 9.4 percent on lower
13 projections for revenue, marked for
14 identification.)
15 (Discussion off the record.)
16 Q. Do you have MS 36 in front of 17 you, which is a reprint -- or a copy of 18 The New York Times article appearing on
19 March 20th, 1998, entitled Sunbeam stock
20 falls 9.4 percent on lower projections for 21 revenue.
22 A. Right.
23 Q. Have you seen -- did you see
24 this story in The New York Times?
25 A. I may have.

Page 255

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Well, as a director of The
3 Coleman Company, Inc., who had voted to
4 approve the merger on February 27th, 1998,
5 was the fall in Sunbeam stock of 9.4
6 percent as a result of the March 19th
7 press release a matter of concern to you?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. After seeing that -- I mean,
10 even if you didn't see the article, you
11 were following the price of the stock;
12 were you not?
13 A. No, I knew that Sunbeam came in 14 with a lower first quarter than they
15 anticipated. Whether I read (indicating)
16 any one of these Shore or this fellow from
17 Sands or this fellow from Oppenheimer,
18 whether I read their report, I don't
19 remember, but I do recall being told
20 and -- that this was nothing to worry
21 about, and that the company had adequately
22 explained the fall in sales, that they
23 thought that it was going to recover. The 24 analysts picked that up and agreed. The 25 stock fell, I think, you know, as often

Page 256

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 occurs, there are overreactions, temporary
3 overreactions to news, you see it every
4 day in the paper today, and that doesn't
5 belie value or what something is going
6 to -- the stock is going to be the next
7 day.
8 I did not see that, though, the
9 slight weakness in sales.
10 Don't forget, they didn't talk
11 about earnings weakness, which we would
12 presume would be slightly affected, more
13 affected by the shortfall in sales, but it
14 was still up against the prior year, the 15 momentum still looked like it was carrying 16 forward with the company, and I didn't
17 see, in my judgment, that it was so
18 material. I wasn't happy with it, but not
19 being pleased with an event doesn't
20 require you to act unless it rises to the 21 level of what you conclude or your
22 associates conclude is a "material event".
23 Q. Did you consider the fall in 24 Sunbeam's stock price of 9.4 percent after
25 the March 19th press release, as reported

018619

Page 257

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 by the New York Times on March 20th, 1998,
3 as to be a "material event"?
4 A. I didn't view that as a
5 "material event". I viewed it as an
6 overreaction to an earnings report in a
7 stock that was fairly fully valued.
8 Q. Did you rush in and buy any
9 Sunbeam stock as a result of the price
10 dropping 9.4 percent on March 19th?
11 A. I don't believe I did. I would
12 have to review my stock trends.
13 Q. You can set that aside.
14 By the way, when you said that
15 you were told that by someone, as I recall
16 your testimony, that this was only a
17 temporary event or temporary setback, who
18 was it who told you that?
19 A. One of the participants in the 20 deal on our side.
21 Q. So it would have either been --
22 it would have had to have been one of your 23 inner circle people, if you will, or your 24 investment bankers or your lawyers or your 25 accountants; right?

Page 258

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Yeah, the people with whom I
3 relied upon to take facts and analyze it
4 for us, because they knew the company much
5 better than I and upon whose judgment I
6 relied a good deal upon.
7 Q. Okay. I show you what's been
8 marked as MS 215, which is a reprint of a
9 Wall Street Journal article, on March
10 20th, 1998.
11 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
12 Stanley 215, reprint of a Wall Street
13 Journal article, on March 20th, 1998,
14 marked for identification.)
15 Do you have that in front of
16 you?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. You told me earlier that one of 19 the financial sources that you read is The 20 Wall Street Journal along with the other
21 one was The Financial Times; is that
22 right?
23 A. And The New York Times.
24 Q. And The New York Times.
25 Did you read MS 215, which is a

Page 259

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 reprint from an article of The Wall Street
3 Journal, on Friday, March 20th, 1998?
4 A. I'm sorry, I don't remember if I
5 read this article on March 20th, 1998.
6 Q. Well, if you look at the 7 paragraph, which begins: "While
8 Sunbeam's" -- which is one, two -- five
9 paragraphs down: "While Sunbeam's
10 announcements".
11 Do you see that?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. It says: "While Sunbeam's
14 announcement didn't discuss the company's
15 earnings outlook, analysts said the sales
16 disappointment is bound to affect profits.
17 Sunbeam officials didn't return calls
18 for" -- "calls seeking comment."
19 Do you see that?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Now, that's actually consistent
22 with what you said, right, that if sales
23 fall it was bound to affect their profits;
24 correct?
25 A. Yes.

Page 260

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. So if you had read The Wall
3 Street Journal on March 20th, 1998, you
4 knew at least by that date, ten days
5 before the closing, that not only had
6 there been a downturn announced in their
7 sales but that was bound to affect the
8 company's profits, as well; didn't you?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And the next paragraph, one of 11 the analysts is quoted as saying: "The 12 company has made promises they haven't
13 delivered on and that is certainly being 14 factored into the stock today."
15 Do you see that?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. And if you had seen that, you
18 would have known at least one of the 19 analysts said the company wasn't
20 delivering on promises they had made;
21 right?
22 A. No, they said, if you read it
23 carefully, hadn't in the past, has made
24 promises that they haven't delivered on,
25 and that is certainly being factored into 018620

Page 261

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 the stock today. In other words, they
3 took the stock down, you know, what I
4 viewed as excessive, having, you know,
5 read or been told about the shortfall in
6 sales, which seemed to me fairly slight,
7 it was up against the prior period last
8 year, I still felt that there was momentum
9 in the company, and that they gave a
10 reasonable explanation for the shortfall
11 in sales which, you know, having been in 12 business many years, you do have, every
13 once in a while, your customers
14 rearranging inventory, it has nothing to 15 do with the product acceptance, and often
16 the next quarter or the quarter following
17 picks up on the shortfall.
18 It didn't appear to me -- I
19 wasn't happy with it, but it didn't appear
20 to me to be anything very serious, not the 21 way it was set forth in the release and in 22 the analyst's reviews, which were fairly
23 consistent, saying that they felt that
24 they were going to catch up and that this 25 wasn't a break in the momentum that they

Page 262

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 had built up in the last couple of years.
3 Q. When you said "they felt they
4 were going to catch up", that they felt
5 they were going to do better in the 6 future, is that what you mean by that?
7 A. No, I think that in the Sunbeam
8 release it said that: We had a shortfall
9 in sales -- I mean, if I can find it, but
10 that: For the year, we are still on 11 target to meet the projections for the 12 year.
13 Q. That's --
14 A. So you don't --
15 Q. I'm sorry.
16 A. -- you don't do deals based upon
17 quarterly gyrations in sales, you can't do
18 that.
19 Q. Any projections as to what
20 Sunbeam -- well, withdrawn. What's a
21 "forward-looking statement"?
22 A. A statement about the future.
23 Q. And do you rely on forward-
24 looking statements in doing mergers and
25 acquisition agreements?

Page 263

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Absolutely. How can you walk
3 out of the office here without knowing
4 what or thinking what's going to happen an
5 hour from now? You know, the world
6 doesn't stop at the minute the clock
7 ticks.
8 Q. So, notwithstanding the March
9 19th press release, the analyst's report,
10 to you the world didn't stop and the clock
11 kept ticking and you just proceeded on to
12 the closing?
13 A. Well, did you read the analysts'
14 reports? They seemed fairly uniform, that 15 this would be a problem overcome and that
16 they were still recommending the company.
17 Q. So as long as the analysts were 18 still recommending the company, it was 19 your considered judgment, as a person who 20 does this as a living, that you would
21 proceed with the merger closing?
22 A. Certainly, analysts' views are 23 not to be dismissed lightly. They are
24 intelligent people from the Wall Street
25 community, good houses, who spent a lot of

Page 264

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 time with this particular company. It's
3 their bread and butter.
4 In addition, I relied upon the
5 release of the company -- "relied" is a
6 little bit wrong, but I took into account
7 the words of the release, which was
8 comforting, I spoke to my people who knew
9 much more than I did at the time, and they
10 were not exorcized by it. When I put it
11 all together, I myself was not unduly
12 concerned with the 10 percent fall in 13 sales due to inventory corrections, as I
14 read it.
15 I have seen that happen many
16 times in monitoring businesses, and it
17 didn't seem to be an occasion for too much
18 hand-wringing. No one liked it, but it
19 was one of those events that occur in 20 every business as it moves along from 21 month to month, especially a retail
22 business, where you are depending upon the 23 customer coming every day and you don't 24 know who is going to come in and buy your
25 product. Whether it could be Farrell

018621

Page 265

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 (phonetic) or some other event takes
3 place.
4 Q. And was this the view that you
5 articulated the view of your investment
6 advisor, Credit Suisse First Boston?
7 A. You know, again, I don't
8 remember if I had a specific conversation
9 with Gordon Rich or it was with Maher or 10 Perelman or Gittis or Nesbitt, but the 11 conclusion that I recall reaching, based
12 upon what I had read and what
13 conversations I had, that this was not a
14 terribly negative event.
15 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
16 Stanley 216, report by Goldman Sachs,
17 under the name of Elizabeth
18 Fontanelli (phonetic), dated March
19 20th, 1998, marked for
20 identification.)
21 Q. Let me show you now what's been
22 marked as 216.
23 I have handed you what's been
24 marked as MS 216, which is a report by 25 Goldman Sachs, under the name of Elizabeth

Page 266

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Fontanelli (phonetic), dated March 20th,
3 1998. Have you seen this before?
4 A. I don't recall.
5 Q. You will notice the --
6 withdrawn. Please turn to the last page.
7 A. Yeah.
8 Q. The last sentence reads: "We
9 expect near-term volatility around these
10 fundamental issues until Sunbeam reports
11 earnings in late April".
12 Do you see that?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Do you agree with that
15 statement, that there would be near-term
16 volatility in its stock?
17 A. I don't know.
18 Don't forget, the Sunbeam stock
19 was fairly fully priced at the time, it
20 wasn't a stock that was priced on a skimpy
21 basis, it was a full price, and when you
22 have that, you know, you are bound to get
23 down-drafts from time to time based upon a
24 piece of news that isn't positive. And I
25 also read that they continued to recommend

Page 267

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 the purchase, this is Goldman Sachs, of
3 the various houses that were reporting on
4 the company, it was the most prestigious,
5 and they stayed with their estimate of
6 1999 earnings.
7 So they are saying to you here:
8 Near-term, you can get bounces in the 9 stock. We certainly just had one, if --
10 9.4 percent, as you point out, and that to 11 expect some volatility, but we are
12 sticking with the company, we think
13 momentum is in place, and we are 14 recommending that you purchase it at these
15 levels, and what was the level, $45.38, a
16 pretty good price that Goldman Sachs is 17 recommending to buy it at this price at 18 this time, notwithstanding the weakness in 19 the sales of the first quarter, written by 20 a woman who obviously knew the company and 21 had been following it and analyzing it for
22 a period of time.
23 Q. You can set that aside.
24 MR. MARKOWSKI: I think, before
25 we do that, we may have found the

Page 268

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 page 3 that we were missing on the
3 other exhibit.
4 MR. BEMIS: It's not on mine.
5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Does yours
6 have --
7 MR. BEMIS: We fixed it.
8 THE WITNESS: Yeah, we fixed it.
9 MR. MARKOWSKI: No, you don't
10 want the wrong -- if this is the 11 official exhibit.
12 MR. BEMIS: My copy was okay,
13 maybe that is what happened.
14 That is what happened.
15 A. So for want of page 3, a case
16 was lost. (Laughing.)
17 (Discussion off the record.)
18 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter, will
19 you mark, as Exhibit 218, a Standard
20 & Poor's stock report on Sunbeam
21 Corporation, dated March 20th, 1998.
22 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan

3 Q. Do you have Morgan Stanley --
4 excuse me, do you have MS 218 in front of
5 you, sir?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. And did you or one of
8 Mr. Perelman's affiliates subscribe to the 9 Standard & Poor's stock reports?
10 A. Oh, I did not.
11 I don't know, maybe one of the 12 folks in the office did.
13 Q. Did you see this Standard &
14 Poor's stock report on Sunbeam Corporation
15 on or about March 20th, 1998?
16 A. I do not remember.
17 Q. Do you see that Standard -- what
18 Standard & Poor's had rated Sunbeam stock
19 at this time?
20 A. You mean the three stars?
21 Q. Mm-hmm -- yes, sir.
22 A. Yeah, short-term, six to twelve
23 months, hold.
24 Q. Not buy but hold; right?
25 A. Not sell but hold.

Page 270

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Okay. You can set this aside.
3 I show you now what's been
4 marked as Standard & Poor's -- Standard --
5 withdrawn. Let me show you what the court
6 reporter will mark as MS 219, which is a
7 Standard & Poor's stock report on Sunbeam
8 Corporation, dated March 21st, 1998.
9 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
10 Stanley 219, Standard & Poor's stock
11 report on Sunbeam Corporation, dated
12 March 21st, 1998, marked for
13 identification.)
14 Q. Do you have Exhibit 219 in front
15 of you, sir?
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. Now, this report is dated one
18 day after the Exhibit 218 that we just
19 looked at from Standard & Poor's. And I
20 would ask you to focus your attention now
21 under Valuation 20 - March 1998.
22 Do you see that?
23 A. Recently downgraded the shares
24 to hold from accumulate; right?
25 Q. Right, that's the paragraph I am

Page 271

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 asking you to look at. Are you there?
3 A. I am there.
4 Q. Can you read that sentence --
5 first of all, did you see this report by
6 Standard & Poor's on Sunbeam Corporation
7 which was issued nine days before the
8 closing of the merger?
9 A. I can't tell you that I did, I
10 don't remember.
11 Q. Well, the report notes that,
12 quote: "This would represent the second
13 consecutive quarter that results did not
14 meet projections and suggests more doubt
15 about the company's ability to meet its 16 aggressive financial objectives."
17 Do you see that?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Did you know on February 27th,
20 1998, when you voted to approve the
21 merger, that Sunbeam had missed its 1997
22 fourth quarter earnings estimates?
23 A. I think I did.
24 Q. So you knew that at the time you
25 voted on the merger and then --

Page 272

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Yeah, because I thought that --
3 I still expected rapid growth, 2-99, and
4 that there was a general positive trend
5 should support the price of the stock,
6 even though the near-term trading would be
7 choppy.
8 I mean, this paragraph you are
9 choosing to select portions of it that are 10 negative, but the paragraph ends on a
11 positive note.
12 Q. So, people -- so analysts
13 following this stock, notwithstanding the 14 information that was in the press release,
15 still were acting on a positive note; is
16 that your conclusion?
17 A. Yeah, I mean, I have read all of 18 these reports.
19 As I said to you, the best house
20 that I see analyzing it was Goldman Sachs,
21 and they recommended purchase at
22 forty-five dollars and change. You know,
23 you can't disregard that.
24 I mean, these houses build up
25 reputations, and Goldman Sachs has the

Page 273

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 best reputation of all the companies that
3 we read, although the great majority of
4 them were optimistic.
5 Q. As a result of these press
6 releases that all came out following the
7 March 19th -- excuse me, withdrawn. As a
8 result of these analyst reports that we 9 have been going through following the
10 March 19th press release, did you make any
11 inquiry of anyone at Morgan Stanley at all
12 about Sunbeam's financial performance?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Did you ask -- did anyone from
15 The Coleman Company ask Sunbeam
16 Corporation for any financial update, if 17 you will --
18 A. I don't --
19 Q. -- about its condition, excuse
20 me, following the March 19th press
21 release.
22 A. I do not know.
23 Q. Well, given that under the terms
24 of the -- given that under the terms of 25 the merger agreement, Sunbeam was

Page 274

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 obligated to request and provide to The
3 Coleman Company a comfort letter from
4 Arthur Andersen, wouldn't it have been
5 prudent for the directors of the
6 company -- The Coleman Company, to request
7 a comfort letter from Arthur Andersen as
8 they were -- as agreed to in the merger
9 agreement?
10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Hold on, let me
11 object. I am going to object to the 12 form of the question. I think it's 13 misleading and improper.
14 Q. You can answer.
15 A. I relied on seasoned,
16 experienced people to draw conclusions on 17 what action should be taken given the
18 events that we are referring to now. It
19 was their judgment. I don't know things
20 that they did do, what investigations that 21 they did make to comfort them or
22 discomfort them. I just don't know. And
23 I can't answer your question because I
24 don't know what they had done, you know,
25 to comfort themselves based upon the

Page 275

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 shortfall of sales.
3 Q. My question is, I think, a
4 little bit different than perhaps you
5 understood it, and let me try it one more
6 time.
7 You were a director of The 8 Coleman Company on March 27th with
9 fiduciary duties to not only the public
10 shareholders but the private shareholders
11 of Mr. Perelman's companies; right?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. And on March 19th, you get a
14 press release, the second earnings or
15 sales shortfall where Sunbeam had failed
16 to meet street estimates; correct?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. The stock --
19 (Discussion off the record.)
20 Q. By Sunbeam Corporation.
21 And your answer was "yes";
22 right?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. Okay. And the stock price
25 falls -- the stock price falls 9.7

Page 276

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 percent --
3 A. 4 percent.
4 Q. 9.4 percent, thank you for
5 correcting me -- the stock price of
6 Sunbeam falls 9.4 percent upon the
7 issuance of the press release; correct?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. And then you -- and you, "you",
10 that is Coleman -- had a right to receive
11 from Sunbeam a comfort letter from
12 Sunbeam's auditors, Arthur Andersen,
13 pursuant to Section 7.2 B of the merger
14 agreement; right?
15 MR. MARKOWSKI: I object, the 16 form of the question, it's
17 misleading.
18 Q. You can answer.
19 A. What's the question?
20 Q. Do you want me to try it again?
21 I will ask it again.
22 Under the terms of the merger
23 agreement, Sunbeam, through the subsidiary
24 Laser, as was described in the merger
25 agreement, was required to use its 018624

Page 277

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 reasonable best efforts to cause to be
3 delivered to the company -- company, that
4 is, The Coleman Company, a quote comfort
5 closed quote letters, letters of Arthur
6 Andersen, LLP Lasers, i.e. Sunbeam's
7 independent public accountants; correct?
8 Right?
9 A. Yeah, you are reading from the
10 document.
11 Q. That's right. And that was one
12 of --
13 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could you read
14 the entire sentence, Larry, or did
15 you cut it off?
16 Q. I can continue reading. "Dated
17 the date of the registration shall become 18 effective and as of the date which the 19 information statement is mailed to the 20 company stockholders and addressed to the 21 company and Laser in a form and substance
22 reasonably satisfactory to the company and
23 is reasonably customary in scope and
24 substance for letters delivered by 25 independent public accountants in

Page 278

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 connection with transactions such as those
3 contemplated by this agreement." That's
4 the whole sentence.
5 Do you know the date the
6 information statement was mailed to the 7 stockholders of Coleman pursuant to
8 Section 14 F?
9 A. It was sometime later.
10 Q. No, it wasn't sometime later, it
11 was on March 18th.
12 I can show it to you, if you
13 want.
14 A. So that's the day before.
15 Q. Right, the press release.
16 A. The press release, okay.
17 Q. Now, my question to you,
18 wouldn't it have been prudent, given the 19 information that you had as a director
20 with fiduciary duties to the public
21 stockholders, at a minimum, to have
22 requested from Sunbeam that they deliver
23 the comfort letter that they were
24 obligated to seek using reasonable efforts
25 from Arthur Andersen pursuant to Section

Page 279

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 7.2 B?
3 A. And you are suggesting that we
4 didn't do that?
5 Q. I asked you whether you did it
6 and you said you didn't know.
7 A. I don't know.
8 Q. Now my question is, even if you
9 don't know, wouldn't it have been prudent
10 for you as a fiduciary to ask for the
11 comfort letter.
12 A. And I said I can't answer that 13 because I don't know the other things that
14 the people did do.
15 In some instances, it would be
16 more prudent and less prudent in other
17 instances. What had they done to satisfy
18 themselves that their actions or inactions
19 were appropriate. And I don't know. So,
20 I can't answer that in a vacuum, because 21 it depends on what other things I have
22 done.
23 It's a thing that -- right that
24 you have, do you determine that it's
25 necessary.

Page 280

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Did you make a conscious
3 decision that it wasn't necessary --
4 A. No --
5 Q. -- to get a comfort letter?
6 A. No, because I wasn't involved in
7 those decisions.
8 As a director, I did not follow
9 each portion of the contract to make sure
10 that it was observed by either side. I
11 just assumed that the people that were 12 handling it abided on both sides by the 13 terms of the contract, so all the 14 warranties and representations by both
15 sides were properly adhered to.
16 Q. Well, let me ask the question,
17 then, a different way.
18 In your judgment, as a director
19 and as a fiduciary to the shareholders,
20 would it have been prudent for those
21 responsible for following, if you will,
22 compliance with the merger agreement, to
23 have requested of Sunbeam that they
24 provide The Coleman Company with the
25 comfort letter from Arthur Andersen set

018625

Page 281

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 forth in paragraph 7.2 B of the merger
3 agreement?
4 A. Well, obviously, our people made
5 a decision on a course of action. I don't 6 know what course of action they took and
7 they made a decision based upon an
8 assemblage of facts and circumstances that
9 were satisfactory to themselves. There
10 are a whole range of considerations that
11 go into a final decision in this regard.
12 They made a decision, whatever
13 it was.
14 Q. What --
15 A. And I presume that they were
16 responsible people, because their records
17 indicated that they were. And, you know,
18 if they didn't do it, they probably had
19 good reason because they did other things.
20 I really don't know.
21 Q. Well --
22 A. You are saying why not take
23 advantage of it and, you know, I don't
24 know how to answer you. It's necessary or 25 unnecessary.

Page 282

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 I don't know if it would have
3 been a delaying factor of significance,
4 would it have set people's teeth ajar in
5 some ways? I don't know what
6 considerations went into a determination
7 of their decision, which I don't know what
8 it was, again.
9 So there are lots of -- you
10 can't ask these questions in the abstract
11 and say: Oh, they didn't do something
12 they had a right to do, therefore they are 13 not doing their job, it's impossible to 14 answer it that way.
15 Q. Do you know what a "comfort
16 letter" is?
17 A. I think it's a letter that --
18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Do you know what 19 the comfort letter referred to in 20 that paragraph is? Is that your
21 question?
22 Q. Can you answer, sir, my
23 question?
24 MR. MARKOWSKI: Hold on, let
25 me --

Page 283

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 A. Okay.
3 MR. MARKOWSKI: -- object to the
4 form of the question, it's vague and
5 misleading.
6 A. I think that a "comfort letter"
7 tells you that they know of nothing
8 material that has been other than from the 9 representations and the warranties in the 10 contract, and you ask is everything more
11 or less okay, you know. And I think
12 that's what a "comfort letter" is. And,
13 normally, if something isn't okay with 14 responsible people are going to tell it to 15 you, so they are obliged to do that
16 pursuant to the contract, whether you ask
17 for it or not. If something material and
18 negative has happened, I think they say:
19 Hey, guys, something has happened. They 20 didn't do that, to my knowledge, because
21 they said it wasn't material because it
22 was a blurred little answer, and everybody
23 seemed to agree to that. All the analysts
24 agreed to it that, that it wasn't anything
25 serious. They all were saying that: It's

Page 284

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 going to be choppy, but we are
3 recommending the purchase or hold the
4 stock. And you get an Arthur Andersen,
5 you get a Morgan Stanley, very very
6 responsible people. If something material
7 and negative happened, you know, you
8 expect them to raise their hand and say:
9 Hey, wait a second. They didn't do it.
10 But, once again, I don't know what our
11 guys concluded.
12 You are asking me something in a
13 way that is in the abstract for me,
14 because I don't know the circumstances at 15 the time that led to whatever decision
16 they made.
17 Q. Okay. Are you all done? I
18 don't want to interrupt you.
19 A. (Laughing.)
20 Q. Okay. Let me go back.
21 Do you know what a "comfort
22 letter" is from an auditing firm in the 23 context of this paragraph 7.2 B?
24 A. You know, I am really not that
25 sure.

018626

Page 285

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 I thought I told you what I
3 thought it was, and you are asking me the 4 same question again, and you want me to
5 repeat the -- what I said before?
6 Q. No, I don't need you to repeat
7 what you said before. If that is your
8 answer, that's your answer.
9 A. Yeah.
10 MR. BEMIS: Would you please
11 mark, Ms. Reporter, as MS 220, an
12 Andrew Shore analyst report,
13 dated -- let's see -- April 3rd,
14 1998.
15 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan
16 Stanley 220, Andrew Shore analyst
17 report, dated April 3rd, 1998, marked
18 for identification.)
19 Q. Please look at MS 220, and tell
20 me when you are done.
21 A. (Pause.)
22 Yes.
23 Q. Have you seen MS 220 before?
24 A. I don't know if I have seen it,
25 but I knew of the contents.

Page 286

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. "The contents" being the
3 downgrade by Mr. Shore at PaineWebber?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. How did you learn of the 6 contents?
7 A. I might have read it, someone
8 might have told it to me, but I did know
9 that Coleman reported those bad numbers in 10 April, early April.
11 MR. MARKOWSKI: You said
12 "Coleman".
13 THE WITNESS: Uh --
14 A. Sunbeam.
15 Q. And do you see the initials on 16 the right-hand side, it says "ROP" and
17 then, below there, "DD FYI HG", I think?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Is that Mr. -- is that
20 Mr. Gittis's writing?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Is "ROP" Mr. Perelman?
23 A. I believe, yes, it is, and "DD"
24 is Donald Drapkin.
25 Q. Now, as a result of -- strike

Page 287

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 this. This was -- withdrawn. This
3 report by Mr. Shore of April 3rd, 1998 was
4 just -- what, four days after the closing;
5 correct?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. And did the board of
8 directors -- did the board of directors
9 of -- did the board of directors of 10 any -- withdrawn. Did Mr. -- well,
11 withdrawn.
12 What was your reaction to this
13 downgrade by Mr. Shore on April 3rd and 14 the mentioned press release on the 15 earnings by Sunbeam?
16 A. I was shocked.
17 Q. You were shocked notwithstanding
18 all the other information that you had
19 received in March.
20 A. As I said to you, (indicating),
21 I am going to have to repeat myself again,
22 the great percentage of the analysts and 23 the statement of the company were still
24 upbeat, notwithstanding a small downward
25 turn in the sales with a proper

Page 288

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 explanation. It was not negative.
3 This (indicating) report, and
4 the Sunbeam report, is a hundred and
5 eighty degrees opposite what was stated
6 just a few weeks before. One doesn't
7 follow the next. This came as a rude
8 shock to our side, certainly, and you did
9 not have a hint of the degree of trouble
10 that's articulated here from the report
11 and confirmation of the: Don't worry, we
12 still recommend of the entire Wall Street
13 community.
14 This is (indicating) just
15 opposite. This is terrible. Before:
16 This is nothing so bad, we still love the 17 stock, buy it. Goldman Sachs $53 -- $45,
18 sorry.
19 Q. So, as long as the analysts
20 were --
21 A. No, no --
22 Q. Let me finish.
23 Your view, in March, as long as
24 the analysts were saying you could still
25 buy the stock, you were going to proceed

018627

Page 289

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 with the transaction, notwithstanding any
3 other information you had or had an
4 ability to acquire?
5 A. No, I didn't say that.
6 Q. No, the board of directors of 7 The Coleman Company.
8 A. No, but you said notwithstanding
9 other information out. What other
10 information are you referring to? I don't
11 know.
12 No one told me that this
13 (indicating) was going to happen. I don't
14 think anybody on our side had an inkling
15 that this was going to happen. Why should 16 they? Why would they? They had financial 17 statements audited. They had one of the 18 leading brokerage houses going around --
19 selling the bonds and standing behind the 20 bonds. Why should the company have
21 anticipated this? I don't see it at all.
22 I didn't. There is nothing that have I
23 read or had been told about that would 24 have anticipated this dreadful set of 25 results.

Page 290

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. Well, what is it you are telling
3 me?
4 Are you telling me that Morgan
5 Stanley knew something that they should
6 have anticipated these dreadful results?
7 A. I didn't say that.
8 I said that what we had relied
9 upon was audited statements, was a
10 contract put together by serious
11 representatives, by financial advisors of 12 repute, by our own people and their
13 analysis, and that led us to conclude that 14 the transaction -- notwithstanding that
15 the earnings might not hit the top level
16 of the prognostication, we are still a
17 valid and a good acquisition for the 18 shareholders of Coleman, the small ones
19 and the large one. That was our 20 conclusion. And I think we had every 21 right, based upon what I have read, to
22 come to that conclusion, that this was a
23 good arrangement for us, you know,
24 notwithstanding the fact that Sunbeam was
25 not the General Motors of its time, but it

Page 291

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 was a company that was moving in the right
3 direction and had momentum behind it,
4 everybody that represented them seemed to
5 think that they were very good,
6 that -- the momentum was good and the
7 pricing was good and that, all things
8 together, it was a very reasonable and
9 fair deal for the Coleman people.
10 This statement (indicating)
11 comes out of the blue, you know, it's 12 nothing that you could have -- that we
13 could have -- I don't believe, divined
14 from the work that -- the documents that 15 were presented to us, that were 16 represented, and that the work that we had
17 done.
18 You know, this (indicating) came
19 from someplace that was a rude shock.
20 Q. Do you think it was -- are you
21 aware -- do you think it was a rude shock
22 to Morgan Stanley?
23 A. I have not the slightest idea
24 what was in Morgan Stanley's mind.
25 All I know --

Page 292

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Q. So you -- I'm sorry, go ahead.
3 A. -- Morgan Stanley is a firm of
4 high repute and, you know, you tend to
5 rely on things that they say.
6 I don't think they gave
7 representations and warranties in the
8 contract but, you know, you see them out
9 on a road-show and the like, you know,
10 they are smart guys. You have every
11 reason to believe that things are okay.
12 Q. With regard to the road-show,
13 you didn't attend any of the road-show
14 meetings; right?
15 A. Wasn't Morgan Stanley the
16 underwriter?
17 Q. And Mr. Perelman's companies,
18 they didn't buy any of the zero coupon
19 notes that were the subject of the 20 road-show; did they?
21 A. No, I don't think so, but I was 22 saying that Morgan Stanley was the 23 underwriter here, so they were backing the 24 sale of bonds of this company right at 25 this -- what time was the road-show, right

018628

Page 293

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 around now, or close to it? When was the
3 road-show?
4 Q. March 15th, 1998, before the
5 press release.
6 A. Yeah, two weeks before the press
7 release -- my God, was this a rude shock
8 to Morgan Stanley? I don't know what they
9 knew, and I never talked to any of them.
10 Q. That's right, you never talked
11 to any of them, you never relied on 12 anything they said to you in deciding to 13 approve the merger; did you?
14 A. No. That's not true. Their
15 very presence has a -- as a representative
16 of Sunbeam, gave me some comfort. This
17 was not a small house from some small, you
18 know, backwater town. This was Morgan
19 Stanley.
20 Q. Just like Goldman Sachs was --
21 MR. MARKOWSKI: Don't interrupt
22 him, hold on.
23 Q. I didn't mean to interrupt you.
24 Go ahead.
25 A. I never spoke to Morgan Stanley,

Page 294

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 but their very presence, as a
3 representative of Coleman -- excuse me, of
4 Sunbeam, comforted me.
5 Q. So am I -- so are you telling me
6 and the jury, sir, that the mere presence
7 of Morgan Stanley as an investment advisor
8 for Sunbeam caused you to vote for the
9 merger?
10 A. Did I say "the mere presence"?
11 THE WITNESS: Can you read back
12 my prior statements?
13 A. I am afraid you won't hear that 14 I said that.
15 I said that was a fact that
16 comforted me along with all the other
17 things that we did, as prudent
18 businessmen, to analyze and to make a
19 judgment on the fairness of a deal for our
20 shareholders.
21 Q. Are you aware of -- are you
22 aware of any statement that -- whether
23 orally or by -- in a document that Morgan
24 Stanley made to anyone representing The 25 Coleman Company or its affiliates in the

Page 295

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 transaction that you --
3 A. No.
4 Q. -- contend was false?
5 A. No, I can't tell you, I do not
6 know because I don't have a recollection
7 of all of their statements and
8 representations as the facts bore them out
9 or challenged them as they occurred. I do
10 not remember.
11 Q. But, as you sit here today, your
12 testimony is Morgan Stanley didn't make
13 any statements to you personally --
14 A. Personally?
15 Q. -- as a director of The Coleman
16 Company --
17 A. Right, I don't recall any
18 statements made to me personally from
19 Morgan Stanley. I might have forgotten
20 something but, sitting here today, I don't
21 remember.
22 Q. Following the closing, on March
23 30th, 1998, were you involved with any
24 discussions with anyone about hedging
25 Mr. Perelman's company's stock interests

Page 296

2 in Sunbeam Corporation?
3 A. No.
4 MR. BEMIS: Okay, why don't you
5 give me about five minutes, I think
6 we are about done. I want to go over
7 my notes real quick and check with my
8 colleague here and see if she has
9 anything else. Can you give me about
10 five minutes?
11 A. Should we leave the room?
12 (Discussion off the record.)
13 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
14 time is 4:07, we are going off the
15 record.
16 (Recess taken.)
17 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The
18 time is 4:26, this begins tape number
19 four.
20 MR. BEMIS: Thank you.
21 Q. Would you please, Mr. Slovin,
22 look at MS 220 again. It's the top
23 exhibit. There is a an "X", for a lack of 24 a better descriptor, on the left-hand side
25 of the first page of the document.

018629

Page 297

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Do you see that?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Do you know who put that there?
5 A. No.
6 Q. Do you know what it means? Have
7 you ever seen either Mr. Perelman,
8 Mr. Drapkin, Mr. Gittis use that symbol to 9 mean anything?
10 A. I don't know.
11 Q. Okay, you can set it aside.
12 Outside of board meetings at The
13 Coleman Company, did you ever have any 14 discussions with anyone about whether the 15 merger transaction should be structured to 16 receive cash rather than stock?
17 A. I do recall there was 18 conversations about cash and stock. They 19 were both elements of the transaction and 20 ratios, do you take more or less of what 21 was available from the buyer or your
22 merger partner, but details I have no
23 recollection. And I was not part of the 24 decision-making apparatus. So, I listened
25 to a conversation but didn't participate

Page 298

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 with my advice.
3 Q. When you say you recall
4 discussions about that outside of the 5 board meetings, with whom were those
6 discussions?
7 A. Well, I have to say, once again,
8 which becomes a common theme, it would
9 have been with one of the men that were
10 actively engaged in the negotiations.
11 Q. That would be the people you
12 previously identified, the inner circle,
13 Mr. Maher, et cetera; correct?
14 A. Yeah, those who worked on this
15 transaction.
16 Q. Do you recall anyone affiliated
17 with Mr. Perelman's company suggesting
18 that the deal should be structured as an 19 all-cash offer, as opposed to taking
20 stock?
21 A. I don't remember, I don't
22 recall.
23 Q. Do you remember anyone, again,
24 outside the board meetings, within this
25 group of the inner circle, advocating the

Page 299

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 desire to take stock over cash?
3 A. No. Again, I understood from
4 the beginning, or someplace in the
5 beginning, that this was a cash and a
6 stock deal. What proportions were based
7 upon negotiations, I did not, and I was
8 not -- my opinion was not solicited, and I
9 didn't give it because I did not know
10 enough about the inner workings of the 11 negotiations.
12 Q. When -- strike that. Did you
13 have any discussions outside of board
14 meetings about any potential synergies to 15 be achieved, the one plus one equals three 16 that we talked about earlier, by the 17 combination of Coleman and Sunbeam? And 18 again, I am talking about outside the
19 board meetings.
20 A. Well, it was felt -- and when I
21 say -- when you use the word
22 "discussions", sometimes I use the word
23 "conversations", because they weren't deep
24 discussions, I had no deep discussions on 25 any aspect of this transaction with

Page 300

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 anybody except to an extent at the board
3 meetings when people were raising
4 questions and questions were being
5 answered. But, yes, I think it was felt
6 that we both had consumer products, we
7 sold to similar customers. I don't recall
8 if there were conversations about
9 manufacturing synergies, but sales
10 synergies I think yes. Purchasing the raw
11 materials, yes.
12 Q. Were these discussions with the 13 same group of individuals that --
14 A. You --
15 Q. -- inner circle you described
16 earlier?
17 A. Yes, those that knew the deal.
18 Q. Did you -- strike that. When
19 did you retire, again, in 2001; right?
20 A. Uh -- I retired when I became
21 65, I think was December --
22 Q. December 10th, 2001?
23 A. Good memory, 2001?
24 Q. Yes.
25 A. 2000 -- I was born in '35, 65

018630

Page 301

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 and '35 are 10 -- right -- 2000 I
3 became --
4 Q. So in 2000 --
5 A. I became 65 in 2000, very end of 6 2000.
7 I think I stayed on for some
8 time afterward, not doing very much, and 9 then left his premises and went to work in
10 my own shop, again, as I say, doing
11 private investments for myself in 2001.
12 Q. Did you have -- withdrawn. So,
13 you would have left the offices of 14 Mr. Perelman's companies about the 15 beginning of 2001 based on your --
16 A. Well, I -- my office and his
17 office are one block apart. I can't get
18 away from them. And, so, I shuttled back
19 and forth. But I did very little.
20 You know, I am trying to
21 remember back in an earlier question you
22 asked me that I might have answered
23 incorrectly.
24 I am on one of his boards,
25 still, M&F -- it's a licorice extract

Page 302

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 company, M&F Worldwide, it's a public
3 company, MFW, I think the symbol is, and I
4 do get compensated as a director, an
5 outside director, in that public company.
6 I don't know how I answered the question
7 earlier.
8 Q. I think you answered it
9 correctly earlier, but that's okay.
10 A. Okay.
11 Q. Whatever it is, it's not a big
12 deal.
13 A. But my office is one street away
14 from his, so when I stopped working for 15 him I still stayed in his office. I had
16 to move papers out, and the like, and I
17 had conversations with the people, but 18 very little.
19 Q. Okay. Well, let me just get
20 more focused in regards to when you left
21 the office, did you have any role at all
22 in the decision to bring the lawsuit
23 against Arthur Andersen?
24 A. None whatsoever.
25 Q. And did you have any role

Page 303

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 whatsoever in the settlement of that
3 lawsuit?
4 A. None whatsoever.
5 Q. During the entire time that --
6 withdrawn. During the period of time that
7 you were still employed by Mr. Perelman's
8 companies, did you have any discussions
9 with anyone about bringing a lawsuit
10 against Morgan Stanley?
11 A. I had no such discussions.
12 Q. Did you ever hear or even if you
13 didn't participate in any discussions
14 where Morgan Stanley was --
15 A. I don't have a specific
16 recollection of what action they would
17 take based upon events as they were
18 unfolding.
19 Q. But let me finish the question,
20 because I didn't get it out --
21 A. Forgive me.
22 Q. -- before you answered, and I'm
23 sorry, we are almost done, it's getting
24 late.
25 While you were employed by

Page 304

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 Mr. Perelman's companies, did you ever
3 hear of any discussions, even if you did
4 not directly participate, in bringing a
5 lawsuit against Morgan Stanley?
6 MR. MARKOWSKI: You should
7 exclude from your answer any
8 conversations involving counsel.
9 A. I have no specific recollection.
10 I mean, I know there was a lot of upset
11 about events as they were transpiring.
12 What conclusions were drawn from the
13 feelings of being upset and shocked, I
14 don't really remember.
15 Q. Do you know what "bill and hold"
16 means?
17 A. Yeah, I think I do.
18 Q. What does it mean, as you
19 understand it?
20 A. As I understand it, it generally
21 refers to an effort of a corporation to 22 create sales when the customer really
23 doesn't need it in order to get the sales
24 that -- the profit margins into a
25 particular financial reporting period. So

018631

Page 305

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 they will bill for merchandise bought but
3 they will hold it, either in warehouses
4 outside of their own manufacturing
5 facility or trailers, so they can effect a
6 sale, thereby enhancing the sales line and
7 the earnings line, generally speaking, by
8 the end of a quarter so that they can
9 satisfy Wall Street.
10 Q. Is it your understanding that
11 bill and hold transactions are per se
12 improper under Generally Accepted
13 Accounting Principles or --
14 A. Well, "bill and hold" is a
15 generalized term. It's -- I don't think
16 it's quite a term of art, though it may 17 be, but I don't think it is.
18 I think it depends upon a degree
19 of a bill and hold. If it's an immaterial
20 amount, I think auditors tend to look away
21 from it.
22 If the merchandise didn't leave
23 the warehouse or your warehouse or it's 24 standing, you know, on the factory line, I
25 think they take a dim view of including

Page 306

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 that in the sale. If it's out on the road
3 someplace, sometimes they blink at it. It
4 depends on the dimension of it. It's
5 often engaged in -- it's really trying to
6 bring up to date a sale that really hasn't
7 matured yet.
8 Q. Well, my question, though is, it
9 may have been poorly framed, let me try it
10 one more time.
11 Is it your understanding that
12 bill and hold -- bill and hold
13 transactions, are just per se
14 impermissible under --
15 A. No.
16 Q. -- accounting principles?
17 A. I do not know the answer to that
18 per se, I can't answer that.
19 Q. We have previously marked this,
20 this is Exhibit 208, so you don't have to 21 go back into your pile, just please use
22 that one. This is the Sunbeam 10-K,
23 publicly filed with the Securities and
24 Exchange Commission.
25 I recall that you did not know

Page 307

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 whether you had seen this before; correct?
3 A. That's right.
4 Q. Were you a -- turn to page
5 F -- let's see, what page number here --
6 (pause. If you will turn to page F 7,
7 it's CHP -- "CHP" -- CPH, it's Bates
8 1428862. See the footnotes to the Arthur
9 Andersen financial statements?
10 A. CPH 1428837 --
11 Q. 62, 1428862.
12 A. Okay.
13 Q. Under Revenue recognition?
14 A. Right.
15 Q. Do you see that, find that
16 heading?
17 A. Yes, right.
18 Q. Do you see there that Sunbeam
19 disclosed in its -- Sunbeam disclosed in 20 its 10-K that it did, indeed, engage in 21 bill and hold transactions?
22 A. Right, to a limited extent.
23 Q. So if you had read this, you
24 would have been aware, as a member of the 25 board of directors of Coleman, you would

Page 308

1 Confidential - Slovin
2 have been aware of this; correct?
3 A. Well, I would have been aware
4 that to a limited extent, is it one
5 truckload of a product or is it warehouses
6 full of a product?
7 Q. Well, sir, it says in the last
8 sentence --
9 A. Limited extent.
10 Q. It says -- (inaudible.)
11 That's all right, the court
12 reporter can't take both of us
13 simultaneously, my apologies.
14 If you look at the last sentence
15 here, it says: "The amount of such bill
16 and hold sales is 3 percent of 17 consolidated revenues".
18 A. Right.
19 Q. Let's look at consolidated
20 revenues in the financial statement.
21 A. It's a million one, a million
22 two.
23 Q. It's a billion, those are in --
24 A. Oh, a billion, right, of course.
25 Q. So we have operating --

018632

Page 309

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 A. Three -- 30 million.
 3 Q. So about $30 million.
 4 A. Right, a billion two.
 5 Q. So it's not a truckload is what
 6 we are talking about; right?
 7 Did you ever come -- withdrawn.
 8 In the mergers and acquisition agreements
 9 that you have -- withdrawn. In the 10 mergers and acquisition transactions that 11 you have negotiated and worked on over the 12 years, you have reviewed, I take it, the 13 underlying documents such as the merger
 14 agreement that we looked at in this case;
 15 correct?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. And, you know, you told me
 18 earlier you are a lawyer, you read them at 19 Harvard Law School; right?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. And in the transactions that you
 22 have worked on, have they generally
 23 provided that New York law would be the 24 controlling law in the transactions?
 25 A. It was often the case but not

Page 310

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 uniformly.
 3 Q. You know, other than New York
 4 law, can you give me some examples of some
 5 where it wasn't, transactions where
 6 New York law was not selected as the
 7 controlling law?
 8 A. Companies in Brazil --
 9 Q. Well, let's exclude
 10 international transactions. Let's take a
 11 U.S.-based transaction, U.S.-based
 12 companies.
 13 A. Well, I mean, I sold companies
 14 out of California to California buyers. I
 15 don't know that we used New York law on 16 those. I don't remember.
 17 I mean, it's most appropriate to 18 use New York law if you are dealing with 19 companies in New York or headquarters in 20 New York but not all the time. I mean, I
 21 think in California cases I used New York
 22 law. I think that the deals that Ronald 23 did in the banking world were also not
 24 under New York law, but I am guessing at 25 that, I don't have a specific

Page 311

1 Confidential - Slovin
 2 recollection.
 3 Q. Okay. (Pause.)
 4 Did you have any role in the
 5 negotiation of the settlement with Sunbeam
 6 Corporation as a result of the threatened
 7 litigation by Mr. Perelman's companies
 8 against Sunbeam?
 9 A. No.
 10 MR. BEMIS: That's all I have.
 11 MS. BROWN: Off the record.

AMENDED ORDER ON COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS, INC.'S MOTION FOR ADVERSE INFERENCE INSTRUCTION DUE TO MORGAN
STANLEY'S DESTRUCTIONS OF E-MAILS AND MORGAN STANLEY'S
NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE COURT'S APRIL 16, 2004 AGREED ORDER,
AND MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL RELIEF AND ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
TO COMPEL FURTHER DISCOVERY REGARDING MORGAN STANLEY'S
DESTRUCTION AND NON-PRODUCTION OF E-MAILS

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on February 14, 2005 on Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc.'s ("CPH's") Motion for Adverse Inference Instruction Due to Morgan Stanley's Destruction of E-Mails and Morgan Stanley's Noncompliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order, as modified by CPH's February 14, 2005 ore tenus motion for additional relief, and on February 28, 2005 on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Discovery Regarding Morgan Stanley's Destruction and Non-Production of E-Mails, with both counsel present. Based on evidence introduced, the Court finds:

1. CPH has sued Defendant, Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc. ("MS & Co."), for fraud in connection with CPH's sale of its stock in Coleman, Inc., to Sunbeam Corporation in return for Sunbeam stock. Whether MS & Co. had knowledge of the fraudulent scheme undertaken by Sunbeam in 1997 and early 1998 and, if so, the extent of that knowledge, is central to the case. CPH has sought access to MS & Co.'s internal files, including e-mails, since the case was filed.

2. Though MS & Co. instructed its investment bankers to preserve paper documents in their possession in connection with the Sunbeam transaction in February, 1999, it continued its practice of overwriting e-mails after 12 months, despite an SEC regulation requiring all e-mails be retained in readily accessible form for two years. See 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-4 (1997).

3. On April 16, 2004, the Court entered its Agreed Order requiring MS & Co. to (1) search the oldest full backup tape for each of 36 MS & Co. employees involved in the Sunbeam transaction; (2) review e-mails dated from February 15, 1998 through April 15, 1998 and e-mails containing any of 29 specified search terms such as "Sunbeam" and "Coleman", regardless of their date; (3) produce by May 14, 2004 all nonprivileged e-mails responsive to CPH's document requests; (4) give CPH a privilege log; and (5) certify its full compliance with the Agreed Order.

4. On May 14, 2004, MS & Co. produced approximately 1,300 pages of e-mails but failed to provide the required certification. Finally, on June 23, 2004, after inquiries by CPH, MS & Co. provided CPH with a certificate of full compliance with the April 16 Agreed Order signed by Arthur Riel, the MS & Co. manager assigned this task.

5. As organized by MS & Co., the effort to recover e-mails from any remaining backup tapes had several stages. First, the relevant backup tapes (in various formats, such as "DLT" tapes and eight-millimeter tapes) had to be located by searching the potential storage locations. Second, the tapes were sent to an outside vendor, National Data Conversion, Inc. ("NDC"), to be processed, and the data returned to MS & Co. in the form of "SDLT" tapes. Third, MS & Co. had to find a way to upload the contents of these SDLT tapes into its new e-mail archive. Fourth, MS & Co. would run "scripts" to transform this data into a searchable form, so that it could later be searched for responsive e-mails. MS & Co. personnel used the term "staging area" to describe the stage of the process when SDLT tapes remained in limbo, waiting to be uploaded to the archive.

6. At some point prior to May 6, 2004, Arthur Riel and his team became aware that more than 1,000 backup tapes had been found at a MS & Co. facility in Brooklyn, New York. These 1,423 DLT tapes had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive or searched when MS & Co. made its supposedly complete production on May 14, 2004, and when Mr. Riel certified full compliance with the Agreed Order on June 23, 2004. Aware of the tapes' discovery, Mr. Riel knew when he executed the certification that it was false. He and others on MS & Co.'s e-mail archive team knew by July 2, 2004 that these "Brooklyn tapes" contained e-mail dating back at least to the late 1990's. MS & Co. neither withdrew its certification nor informed CPH about the potential for additional production of e-mails, however. During the summer of 2004, the Brooklyn tapes were processed and sent to the staging area, but they were not uploaded to the e-mail archive so as to be available to be searched until January 2004, at least eight months after they were found.

7. MS & Co. also failed to timely produce e-mails from 738 8-millimeter backup tapes found at a MS & Co. facility in Manhattan, in 2002. These 738 8-mm tapes, like the 1,423 Brooklyn tapes, had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive and searched when MS & Co. made its supposedly complete production on May 14, 2004, and when Mr. Riel certified full compliance with the Agreed Order on June 23, 2004. Mr. Riel and others were told by their vendor, NDCI, by July 2, 2004 that the 8-mm tapes contained e-mail dating back at least to 1998. MS & Co. neither withdrew its certification nor informed CPH about the potential for additional production of e-mails, though. During the summer of 2004, the 8-mm tapes were processed and sent to the staging area. Like the Brooklyn tapes, though, they also were not uploaded

to MS & Co.'s e-mail archive.

8. In August 2004, Mr. Riel was relieved of his employment responsibilities. He and his team were replaced by a new team headed by Allison Gorman Nachtigal.

9. Ms. Gorman testified that she was instructed to describe the circumstances of Mr. Riel's replacement as his having been "placed on administrative leave." That same term appears by interlineation over the original typed description in MS & Co.'s memorandum addressing these issues. The typed language stated: "[Mr. Riel was] dismissed for integrity issues." MS & Co. presented no evidence to explain why Mr. Riel would have been placed on administrative leave rather than terminated. CPH argued that it may have been to deprive CPH of the ability to contact him directly.

10. Upon taking over Mr. Riel's responsibilities, Ms. Gorman did not initially make significant efforts to address the backlog of data in the staging area; indeed, she was not informed of the existence of this litigation until five months later, in January 2005. In October 2004, Ms. Gorman met with a group of MS & Co. attorneys. Following that meeting, Ms. Gorman gave the project somewhat greater priority, although even then it clearly did not move as expeditiously as possible. For example, MS & Co. gave no thought to using an outside contractor to expedite the process of completing the discovery, though it had certified completion months earlier; it lacked the technological capacity to upload and search the data at that time, and would not attain that capacity for months; and it knew trial was scheduled to begin in February, 2005. Even at this point, no one from MS & Co. or its outside counsel, Kirkland & Ellis LLP, gave CPH or this Court any hint that the June certification was false.

11. On November 17, 2004, more than six months after the May 14, 2004 deadline for producing e-mails in response to the Agreed Order, MS & Co. sent CPH a letter revealing that its June 23 certificate of compliance was incorrect. The letter stated:

Morgan Stanley has discovered additional e-mail backup tapes since our e-mail production in May 2004. The data on some of [the] newly discovered tapes has been restored and, to ensure continued compliance with the agreed order, we have re-run the searches described in the order. Some responsive e-mails have been located as a result of that process. We will produce the responsive documents to you as soon as the production is finalized.

The letter also foreshadowed further delays: “(s)ome of the backup tapes are still being restored. To ensure continued compliance with the agreed order, we intend to re-run the searches again when the restoration process is complete and will produce any responsive documents that result.”

12. The next day, November 18, 2004, MS & Co. produced an additional 8,000 pages of e-mails and attachments. MS & Co.’s November 2004 letter stated that the 8,000 pages came from “newly discovered” tapes; but the testimony now makes clear that this statement was false because Ms. Gorman’s team did not figure out how to upload and make searchable the materials from the staging area until January, 2005.

13. MS & Co. has failed to offer any explanation to reconcile the obvious conflict between its assertions at the time of production that the 8,000 pages came from “newly discovered” tapes (i.e., the “Brooklyn tapes”) and the testimony of its own witness, Ms. Gorman, that data from those newly discovered tapes were not capable of being searched until two months later, in January.

14. After a follow-up inquiry by CPH, on December 17, 2004, MS & Co. produced a privilege log and told CPH that “[n]o additional responsive e-mails have been located since our November production.” MS & Co. refused to answer CPH’s questions about whether MS & Co.

had restored all the backup tapes described in its November 17 letter and why the tapes had not been located earlier, however.

15. On December 30, 2004, CPH sought confirmation that MS & Co. had reviewed all e-mail backup tapes and produced all responsive e-mails and, if not, asked when the review would be completed. On January 11, 2005, MS & Co. informed CPH that the “restoration of e-mail back tapes is ongoing. Restoration of the next set of backup tapes is estimated to be completed at the end of January. We intend to re-run the searches described in the agreed order at that time.”

16. On January 19, 2004, CPH wrote asking MS & Co. to explain the circumstances under which MS & Co. located the “newly discovered” backup tapes and to disclose when the tapes were located. CPH also asked MS & Co. to explain why the backup tapes could not be restored sooner.

17. On January 21, 2005, MS & Co. sent CPH a letter that failed to answer CPH’s questions. Instead, MS & Co. described its efforts to restore the backup tapes as “ongoing”; informed CPH that “there is no way for MS & Co. to know or accurately predict the type or time period of data that might be recovered”; and stated that MS & Co. “cannot accurately estimate when all of the tapes will be restored or whether any recoverable data will be found on the remaining tapes.”

18. On January 26, 2005, CPH filed the Motion at issue here, asking the Court to instruct the jury that MS & Co.’s destruction of e-mails and other electronic documents and MS. & Co.’s noncompliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order can give rise to an adverse inference that the contents of the missing e-mails would be harmful to MS & Co.’s defense in this case.

19. Meanwhile, MS & Co. found another 169 DLT tapes in January, 2005, that allegedly

had been misplaced by its New Jersey storage vendor, Recall. Again, MS & Co., chose to provide no specifics to CPH or to the Court.

20. At a February 2, 2005 hearing on CPH's Motion, Thomas A. Clare of Kirkland & Ellis, LLP, representing MS & Co., stated that "late October of 2004...[is] the date I represent to Court is the first time that anyone knew that there was recoverable e-mail data" on the Brooklyn tapes. Hr'g Tr. (2/2/05) at 133-34. The actual date, however, was at least three months earlier, by July 2, 2004. Furthermore, MS & Co. refused to provide the Court with definitive answers about when its e-mail production would be complete, merely stating that it would proceed with "all deliberate speed." Id. at 139. Also at the February 2 hearing, Mr. Clare neglected to inform the Court about the 8-mm tapes that had been located in 2002, and told the Court that the 1,423 DLT tapes had been found in Brooklyn "sometime during the summer" of 2004. The truth of this assertion is belied by the evidence showing that the tapes were found before May 6, 2004.

21. On February 3, 2005, the Court ordered further discovery and set an evidentiary hearing for February 14, 2005. The discovery took place on February 9 and 10, when CPH deposed the three e-mail witnesses identified by MS. & Co.

22. On Saturday afternoon, February 12, 2005, MS & Co. informed the Court that it had, in the previous 24 hours, discovered additional tapes. Also, MS & Co. stated that its recent production omitted certain "attachments" to e-mails. MS & Co. did not attempt to clarify or substantiate either of these statements to CPH or to the Court until the Monday, February 14, 2005 hearing.

23. At the February 14 hearing, none of the witnesses MS & Co. presented was involved in or familiar with the actual electronic searches conducted using the parameters specified in this

Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order, and none explained where the 8,000 pages produced in November, 2004 had come from. MS & Co.'s witnesses did, however, describe three new developments. First, Robert Saunders, a Morgan Stanley executive director in the Information Technology Division, testified that he returned to New York after his February 10 deposition and, concerned about his unqualified assertion that the was "confident" that a complete search for backup tapes had been conducted, decided finally to undertake a personal search of MS & Co.'s "communication rooms," going to the areas he thought most obvious first. By doing so, he and two contractors discovered more than 200 additional backup tapes openly stored in locations known to be used for tape storage. Those discoveries were made on Friday and Saturday, February 11 and 12, 2005. As of the February 14 hearing, NDCI had not yet determined which, if any, of these newly discovered backup tapes contained e-mails. Second, Ms. Gorman reported that on Friday, February 11, 2005 she and her team had discovered that a flaw in the software they had written had prevented MS & Co. from locating all responsive e-mail attachments. Third, Ms. Gorman reported that MS & Co. discovered on Sunday evening, February 13, 2005, that the date-range searches for e-mail users who had a Lotus Notes platform were flawed, so there were at least 7,000 additional e-mail messages that appeared to fall within the scope of the Agreed Order had yet to be fully reviewed by MS. & Co.'s outside counsel for responsiveness and privilege. As counsel for MS & Co. admitted, this problem "dwarf[s]" their previous problems. Hr'g Tr. (2/14/05) at 13. Ms. Gorman indicated she was "90 percent sure" that the problem infected MS & Co.'s original searches in May, which means that even they failed to timely produce relevant materials that had been uploaded into the archive by that point. Id. at 82-83. The bulk of the employees using the Lotus Notes platform in the relevant time period came from the Investment Banking Division, the division responsible for the transaction under review here.

24. On February 19, 2005 MS & Co. informed counsel for CPH that “additional boxes of back up tapes” have been located “in a security room” and that, “(a)s of this morning, Morgan Stanley has identified four (unlabeled) DLT tapes among the collection. Those four tapes will be sent to NDCI for further analysis.” The disclosure did not state when the discovery was made. MS & Co.’s counsel represented to the Court that it was his understanding that about 73 bankers’ boxes of tapes were discovered. No explanation for the late discovery was offered.

25. Throughout this entire process, MS & Co. and its counsels’ lack of candor has frustrated the Court and opposing counsel’s ability to be fully and timely informed.

26. MS & Co.’s failure during the summer and fall of 2004 to timely process a substantial amount of data that was languishing in the “staging area,” rather than being put into searchable form and then searched, was willful and a gross abuse of its discovery obligations.

27. MS & Co.’s failure to time notify CPH of the existence of the DLT and 8-mm tapes, which it had located as early as 2002 and certainly prior to the June 23, 2004 certification, and its failure to timely process those raw backup tapes was willful and a gross abuse of its discovery obligations.

28. MS & Co.’s failure to produce all e-mail attachments was negligent, and it was discovered and revealed only as a result of CPH’s hiring a third-party vendor, pursuant to the Court’s February 4, 2005 Order, to double-check MS & Co.’s compliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order.

29. MS & Co.’s failure to produce all of the Lotus Notes e-mails was negligent, and it was discovered and revealed only as result of CPH’s hiring a third-party vendor, pursuant to the

034916

Court's February 4, 2005 Order, to double-check MS & Co.'s compliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order.

30. MS & Co.'s failure to locate other potentially responsive backup tapes before Saturday, February 12, 2005 was grossly negligent.

31. Given the history of the discovery, there is no way to know if all potentially responsive backup tapes have been located.

32. In sum, despite MS & Co.'s affirmative duty arising out of the litigation to produce its e-mails, and contrary to federal law requiring it to preserve the e-mails, MS & Co. failed to preserve many e-mails and failed to produce all e-mails required by the Agreed Order. The failings include overwriting e-mails after 12 months; failing to conduct proper searches for tapes that may contain e-mails; providing a certificate of compliance known to be false when made and only recently withdrawn; failing to timely notify CPH when additional tapes were located; failing to use reasonable efforts to search the newly discovered tapes; failing to timely process and search data held in the staging area or notify CPH of the deficiency; failing to write software scripts consistent with the Agreed Order; and discovering the deficiencies only after CPH was given the opportunity to check MS & Co.'s work and the MS & Co.'s attorneys were required to certify the completeness of the prior searches. Many of these failings were done knowingly, deliberately, and in bad faith.

It is clear that e-mails existed which were requested by CPH that have not been produced because of the deficiencies discussed above. Electronic data are the modern-day equivalent of the paper trail. Indeed, because of the informalities of e-mail, correspondents may be less guarded than with paper correspondence. In this case, the paper trail is critical to CPH's ability to make out its prima facie case. Thus, MS & Co.'s acts have severely hindered CPH's ability to proceed. The only way to test the potentially self-serving testimony of MS & Co. personnel is with the written record of the events.

The failures outlined in this Order are of two types. First, by overwriting e-mails contrary to its legal obligation to maintain them in readily accessible form for two years and with knowledge that legal action was threatened, MS & Co. has spoiled evidence, justifying sanctions. See Martino v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 835 So. 2d 1251 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003). “The appropriateness of sanctions for failing to preserve evidence depends on: (1) willfulness or bad faith of the responsible party, (2) the extent of prejudice suffered by the other party, and (3) what is required to cure the prejudice.” Nationwide Lift Trucks, Inc. v. Smith, 832 So. 2d 824, 826 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002). Second, MS & Co.’s willfull disobedience of the Agreed Order justifies sanctions. See Rule 1.380 (b) (2), Fla. R. Civ. P. The conclusion is inescapable that MS & Co. sought to thwart discovery in this specific case.

Sanctions in this context are not meant to be punitive. They are intended, though, to level the playing field.

A reasonable juror could conclude that evidence of MS & Co.’s misconduct demonstrates its consciousness of guilty. It is relevant to the issues before the jury. Further, CPH should not be penalized by being forced to divert the jurors’ attention away from the merits of its claim to focus on highly technical facts going to MS & Co.’s failures here, facts that are not reasonably disputed. Evidence of that failure, though, alone does not make CPH whole. Indeed, it can be said it is not a “sanction” at all, but merely a statement of unrefuted facts that the jury may find relevant. Shifting the burden of proof, though, forces MS & Co. to accept the practical consequence of its failures—that some information will never be known. Obviously, this sanction is of consequence only in the marginal case. If there is overwhelming proof of MS & Co.'s knowledge of the fraud and collusion with Sunbeam, CPH would have prevailed on those elements in any event. And, to the contrary, if there is overwhelming evidence MS & Co. did not know of the fraud or conspire with or aid Sunbeam in its commission, it would have prevailed in any event. If the case is close on those issues, though, MS & Co., not CPH, should bear the burden of persuasion. Further, shifting the burden on the fraud issue does not relieve CPH of its obligation to establish the other elements of its claims, most notably reliance, proof of which is independent of the MS & Co. e-mails. Thus, the sanctions chosen are the most conservative available to the Court to address the spoliation of evidence and willfull violation of the Agreed Order.^{1 2}

034918

Finally, the Court notes that CPH has requested the e-mails since May of 2003. MS & Co. was supposed to comply with the April 16, 2004 Order by May 14, 2004. Fact discovery in this case closed November 24, 2004. MS & Co.'s actions have resulted in the diversion of enormous amounts of resources, by both the parties and the Court, into a fact discovery dispute that should have never arisen and which would have long ago been put to bed had MS & Co. timely recognized its obligations to CPH and this Court. Opening argument in this complex case is set for March 21,

¹MS & Co.'s bad acts and pocket book may not be used to gain the continuance it has sought from the beginning. Further, the Court has no confidence that, even if a continuance were granted, MS & Co. would fully comply with discovery in this case.

²The undersigned notes that the sanctions imposed are not enumerated in Rule 1.380 (b) (2), and is aware of the concern expressed in the 2000 Handbook on Discovery Practice, Joint Committee of the Trial Lawyers Section of the Florida Bar and Conferences of Circuit and County Court Judges ("(f)or the trial court to be on solid footing, it is wise to stay within the enumerated orders" [Handbook at p. 4]). However, MS & Co.'s violations involve both the violation of a discovery order and the intentional spoliation of evidence. The sanction imposed is less severe than that provided in Rule 1.380 (b) (2) (B), under which the Court could preclude MS & Co. from presenting evidence of its lack of knowledge of or collusion with the Sunbeam fraud, which the Court finds is the least severe enumerated sanction appropriate to place the parties on a level playing field.

2005. Preliminary jury selection has begun. MS & Co. has controlled the timetable of this portion of the litigation long enough. Consequently, CPH should have the ability to continue to require MS & Co. to attempt to comply with the Agreed Order and the February 4, 2005 Order on Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.'s ore tenus Motion to Participate in Search of Additional E-Mail Back Up Tapes or Appoint Third Party to Conduct Search, or to elect to terminate the e-mail discovery and concentrate on trial preparation.

Based on the foregoing, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. Plaintiff's Motion for Adverse Interference Instruction Due to Morgan Stanley's Destructions of E-Mails and Morgan Stanley's Non-Compliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order and Motion for Additional Relief is GRANTED.

2. MS & Co. shall continue to use its best efforts to comply with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order and shall continue to comply with the February 4, 2005 Order on Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.'s ore tenus Motion to Participate in Search of Additional E-Mail Back Up Tapes or Appoint Third Party to Conduct Search until March 21, 2005 or written notice from CPH, which ever first occurs. Either party shall notify the other in writing of its intention to offer into evidence e-mails actually produced to CPH prior to termination of e-mail discovery in conformity with this Order, within 72 hours of the e-mail's production to CPH. The Court shall hear and determine any objections to use of the e-mails.

3. The Court shall read to the jury the statement of facts attached as Exhibit A during whatever evidentiary phase of CPH's case that it requests. These findings of fact shall be conclusive. See Rule 1.380 (b) (2) (A). No instruction shall be given to the jury regarding inferences to be drawn from these facts. However, counsel may make such argument to the jury in favor of whatever inferences that evidence may support. No other evidence concerning the production of e-mails, or lack thereof, shall be presented absent further Court order.

4. CPH will be allowed to argue that MS & Co.'s concealment of its role in the Sunbeam transaction is evidence of its malice or evil intent, going to the issue of punitive damages. See, e.g., General Motors Corp. v. McGee, 837 So.2d 10120.

5. MS & Co. shall bear the burden of proving to the jury, by the greater weight of the evidence, that it lacked knowledge of the Sunbeam fraud and did not aid and abet or conspire with Sunbeam to defraud CPH. The traditional order of proof shall remain unaffected, however.

6. MS & Co. shall compensate CPH for costs and fees associated with the Motion. The amount shall be determined at an evidentiary hearing to be held after the completion of the trial.

7. Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Discovery Regarding Morgan Stanley's Destruction and Non-Production of E-Mails is Denied.

EXHIBIT A

A federal regulation in effect in 1997 and all times since required Morgan Stanley to preserve e-mails for three years and to preserve them in a readily accessible place for two years. Beginning in no later than 1997, Morgan Stanley had a practice of overwriting e-mails after 12 months. E-mails could no longer be retrieved once they were overwritten. This practice was discontinued in January, 2001. CPH has sought access to Morgan Stanley's e-mails relating to this transaction since the case was filed in May, 2003.

Prior to 2003, Morgan Stanley recorded e-mails and other electronic data on back up tapes. On April 16, 2004, the Court ordered Morgan Stanley to (1) search the oldest full backup tape for each of 36 Morgan Stanley employees involved in the Sunbeam transaction; (2) review e-mails dated from February 15, 1998 through April 15, 1998 and e-mails containing any of 29 specified search terms such as "Sunbeam" and "Coleman", regardless of their date; (3) produce by May 14, 2004 all e-mails relating to this case found by the search I have just described; and (4) certify its full compliance with the Court's order.

On May 14, 2004, Morgan Stanley produced approximately 1,300 pages of e-mails. It did not produce the required certification. On June 23, 2004, after inquiries by CPH, Morgan Stanley provided CPH with a certificate of full compliance with the April 16 Order signed by Arthur Riel, the Morgan Stanley manager assigned this task.

As organized by Morgan Stanley, the effort to recover e-mails from the backup tapes had several stages. First, the relevant backup tapes had to be located by searching the potential storage locations. Second, the tapes were sent to an outside vendor, National Data Conversion, Inc., which I will call "NDCI", to be processed, and the data returned to Morgan Stanley. Third, Morgan Stanley had to upload the processed data into its e-mail archive. Fourth, Morgan Stanley had to run scripts, or pieces of computer code, to transform this data into a searchable form. Finally, Morgan Stanley had to search the data for e-mails related to this case. Morgan Stanley personnel used the term "staging area" to describe the stage of the process when the processed data returned by NDCI remained in limbo, waiting to be uploaded to Morgan Stanley's archive.

034923

At some point prior to May 6, 2004, Arthur Riel and his team became aware that 1,423 backup tapes had been found at a Morgan Stanley facility in Brooklyn, New York. These 1,423 tapes had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive or searched when Morgan Stanley made its production to CPH on May 14, 2004. Aware of the tapes' discovery, Mr. Riel knew when he executed the certification of full compliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Order that it was false. He and others on Morgan Stanley's e-mail archive team knew by July 2, 2004 that these "Brooklyn tapes" contained e-mail dating back at least to the late 1990's. During the summer of 2004, the Brooklyn tapes were processed and the data sent to the staging area. The scripts were not written and tested to permit the search for e-mails relating to this case to begin until the middle of January, 2004. Such a search, even if perfectly done, can take weeks.

Morgan Stanley also failed to timely produce e-mails from 738 backup tapes found at a Morgan Stanley facility in Manhattan in 2002. These 738 tapes, like the 1,423 Brooklyn tapes, had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive and searched by either on May 14, 2004 or June 23, 2004. Mr. Riel and others were told by NDCI by July 2, 2004 that these tapes contained e-mail dating back at least to 1998. During the summer of 2004, the these tapes were processed and sent to the staging area. Like the Brooklyn tapes, though, they also were not searched.

In August 2004, Mr. Riel was relieved of his employment responsibilities. He and his team were replaced by a new team headed by Allison Gorman Nachtigal. At that time, the staging area contained about 600 gigabytes of e-mail data that had not yet been uploaded into the Morgan Stanley archive and had not been searched for e-mails relating to this case.

Upon taking over Mr. Riel's responsibilities, Ms. Gorman did not initially make significant efforts to address the backlog of data in the staging area. Indeed, she was not informed of the existence of this litigation until five months later, in January 2005. In October 2004, Ms. Gorman gave the project somewhat greater priority, although even then it did not move as expeditiously as possible. Morgan Stanley did not consider using an outside contractor to expedite the process.

Morgan Stanley found another 169 DLT tapes in January, 2005, that had been misplaced

by its New Jersey storage vendor. Morgan Stanley discovered more than 200 additional backup tapes openly stored in locations known to be used for tape storage on February 11 and 12, 2005. On February 11, 2005 Morgan Stanley discovered that a flaw in the software it had written had prevented Morgan Stanley from locating all e-mail attachments about the Sunbeam transaction. Morgan Stanley discovered on February 13, 2005, that the date-range searches for e-mail users who had a Lotus Notes platform were flawed, so that additional e-mail messages that appeared to fall within the scope of the April 16, 2004 Order had not been given to CPH. Further, it appears that the problem infected Morgan Stanley's original searches in May of 2004. The bulk of the employees using the Lotus Notes platform in the relevant time period came from the Investment Banking Division, the division responsible for the transaction under review here. On February 16, 2005, Morgan Stanley withdrew its certificate of compliance with the April 16, 2004 Order. On February 19, 2005 Morgan Stanley notified CPH that it had found boxes of additional tapes that have not been uploaded into its archive or searched for responsive e-mails. Morgan Stanley did not tell CPH it had found any tapes that it had not searched until November 17, 2004. Even then, it did not tell CPH how many tapes were found, when they were found, or when they would be searched. MS & Co. did not provide all of this information to CPH until February of 2005. The searches had not yet been completed when this trial was begun, when they were terminated without completion.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR PALM
BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO.: 502003CA005045XXOCAI

COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS, INC.,
Plaintiff,

vs.

MORGAN STANLEY & CO., INC.,
Defendant.

ORDER ON COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS, INC.'S MOTION FOR ADVERSE INFERENCE INSTRUCTION DUE TO MORGAN
STANLEY'S DESTRUCTIONS OF E-MAILS AND MORGAN STANLEY'S
NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE COURT'S APRIL 16, 2004 AGREED ORDER,
AND MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL RELIEF AND ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
TO COMPEL FURTHER DISCOVERY REGARDING MORGAN STANLEY'S
DESTRUCTION AND NON-PRODUCTION OF E-MAILS

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on February 14, 2005 on Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc.'s ("CPH's") Motion for Adverse Inference Instruction Due to Morgan Stanley's Destruction of E-Mails and Morgan Stanley's Noncompliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order, as modified by CPH's February 14, 2005 ore tenus motion for additional relief, and on February 28, 2005 on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Discovery Regarding Morgan Stanley's Destruction and Non-Production of E-Mails, with both counsel present. Based on evidence introduced, the Court finds:

1. CPH has sued Defendant, Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc. ("MS & Co."), for fraud in connection with CPH's sale of its stock in Coleman, Inc., to Sunbeam Corporation in return for Sunbeam stock. Whether MS & Co. had knowledge of the fraudulent scheme undertaken by Sunbeam in 1997 and early 1998 and, if so, the extent of that knowledge, is central to the case. CPH has sought access to MS & Co.'s internal files, including e-mails, since the case was filed.

2. Though MS & Co. instructed its investment bankers to preserve paper documents in their possession in connection with the Sunbeam transaction in February, 1999, it continued its practice of overwriting e-mails after 12 months, despite an SEC regulation requiring all e-mails be retained in readily accessible form for two years. See 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-4 (1997).

3. On April 16, 2004, the Court entered its Agreed Order requiring MS & Co. to (1) search the oldest full backup tape for each of 36 MS & Co. employees involved in the Sunbeam transaction; (2) review e-mails dated from February 15, 1998 through April 15, 1998 and e-mails containing any of 29 specified search terms such as "Sunbeam" and "Coleman", regardless of their date; (3) produce by May 14, 2004 all nonprivileged e-mails responsive to CPH's document requests; (4) give CPH a privilege log; and (5) certify its full compliance with the Agreed Order.

4. On May 14, 2004, MS & Co. produced approximately 1,300 pages of e-mails but failed to provide the required certification. Finally, on June 23, 2004, after inquiries by CPH, MS & Co. provided CPH with a certificate of full compliance with the April 16 Agreed Order signed by Arthur Riel, the MS & Co. manager assigned this task.

5. As organized by MS & Co., the effort to recover e-mails from any remaining backup tapes had several stages. First, the relevant backup tapes (in various formats, such as "DLT" tapes and eight-millimeter tapes) had to be located by searching the potential storage locations. Second, the tapes were sent to an outside vendor, National Data Conversion, Inc. ("NDC"), to be processed, and the data returned to MS & Co. in the form of "SDLT" tapes. Third, MS & Co. had to find a way to upload the contents of these SDLT tapes into its new e-mail archive. Fourth, MS & Co. would run "scripts" to transform this data into a searchable form, so that it could later be searched for responsive e-mails. MS & Co. personnel used the term "staging area" to describe the stage of the process when SDLT tapes remained in limbo, waiting to be uploaded to the archive.

6. At some point prior to May 6, 2004, Arthur Riel and his team became aware that more than 1,000 backup tapes had been found at a MS & Co. facility in Brooklyn, New York. These 1,423 DLT tapes had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive or searched when MS & Co. made its supposedly complete production on May 14, 2004, and when Mr. Riel certified full compliance with the Agreed Order on June 23, 2004. Aware of the tapes' discovery, Mr. Riel knew when he executed the certification that it was false. He and others on MS & Co.'s e-mail archive team knew by July 2, 2004 that these "Brooklyn tapes" contained e-mail dating back at least to the late 1990's. MS & Co. neither withdrew its certification nor informed CPH about the potential for additional production of e-mails, however. During the summer of 2004, the Brooklyn tapes were processed and sent to the staging area, but they were not uploaded to the e-mail archive so as to be available to be searched until January 2004, at least eight months after they were found.

7. MS & Co. also failed to timely produce e-mails from 738 8-millimeter backup tapes found at a MS & Co. facility in Manhattan, in 2002. These 738 8-mm tapes, like the 1,423 Brooklyn tapes, had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive and searched when MS & Co. made its supposedly complete production on May 14, 2004, and when Mr. Riel certified full compliance with the Agreed Order on June 23, 2004. Mr. Riel and others were told by their vendor, NDCI, by July 2, 2004 that the 8-mm tapes contained e-mail dating back at least to 1998. MS & Co. neither withdrew its certification nor informed CPH about the potential for additional production of e-mails, though. During the summer of 2004, the 8-mm tapes were processed and sent to the staging area. Like the Brooklyn tapes, though, they also were not uploaded

to MS & Co.'s e-mail archive.

8. In August 2004, Mr. Riel was relieved of his employment responsibilities. He and his team were replaced by a new team headed by Allison Gorman Nachtigal.

9. Ms. Gorman testified that she was instructed to describe the circumstances of Mr. Riel's replacement as his having been "placed on administrative leave." That same term appears by interlineation over the original typed description in MS & Co.'s memorandum addressing these issues. The typed language stated: "[Mr. Riel was] dismissed for integrity issues." MS & Co. presented no evidence to explain why Mr. Riel would have been placed on administrative leave rather than terminated. CPH argued that it may have been to deprive CPH of the ability to contact him directly.

10. Upon taking over Mr. Riel's responsibilities, Ms. Gorman did not initially make significant efforts to address the backlog of data in the staging area; indeed, she was not informed of the existence of this litigation until five months later, in January 2005. In October 2004, Ms. Gorman met with a group of MS & Co. attorneys. Following that meeting, Ms. Gorman gave the project somewhat greater priority, although even then it clearly did not move as expeditiously as possible. For example, MS & Co. gave no thought to using an outside contractor to expedite the process of completing the discovery, though it had certified completion months earlier; it lacked the technological capacity to upload and search the data at that time, and would not attain that capacity for months; and it knew trial was scheduled to begin in February, 2005. Even at this point, no one from MS & Co. or its outside counsel, Kirkland & Ellis LLP, gave CPH or this Court any hint that the June certification was false.

11. On November 17, 2004, more than six months after the May 14, 2004 deadline for producing e-mails in response to the Agreed Order, MS & Co. sent CPH a letter revealing that its June 23 certificate of compliance was incorrect. The letter stated:

Morgan Stanley has discovered additional e-mail backup tapes since our e-mail production in May 2004. The data on some of [the] newly discovered tapes has been restored and, to ensure continued compliance with the agreed order, we have re-run the searches described in the order. Some responsive e-mails have been located as a result of that process. We will produce the responsive documents to you as soon as the production is finalized.

The letter also foreshadowed further delays: “(s)ome of the backup tapes are still being restored. To ensure continued compliance with the agreed order, we intend to re-run the searches again when the restoration process is complete and will produce any responsive documents that result.”

12. The next day, November 18, 2004, MS & Co. produced an additional 8,000 pages of e-mails and attachments. MS & Co.’s November 2004 letter stated that the 8,000 pages came from “newly discovered” tapes; but the testimony now makes clear that this statement was false because Ms. Gorman’s team did not figure out how to upload and make searchable the materials from the staging area until January, 2005.

13. MS & Co. has failed to offer any explanation to reconcile the obvious conflict between its assertions at the time of production that the 8,000 pages came from “newly discovered” tapes (i.e., the “Brooklyn tapes”) and the testimony of its own witness, Ms. Gorman, that data from those newly discovered tapes were not capable of being searched until two months later, in January.

14. After a follow-up inquiry by CPH, on December 17, 2004, MS & Co. produced a privilege log and told CPH that “[n]o additional responsive e-mails have been located since our November production.” MS & Co. refused to answer CPH’s questions about whether MS & Co.

had restored all the backup tapes described in its November 17 letter and why the tapes had not been located earlier, however.

15. On December 30, 2004, CPH sought confirmation that MS & Co. had reviewed all e-mail backup tapes and produced all responsive e-mails and, if not, asked when the review would be completed. On January 11, 2005, MS & Co. informed CPH that the “restoration of e-mail back tapes is ongoing. Restoration of the next set of backup tapes is estimated to be completed at the end of January. We intend to re-run the searches described in the agreed order at that time.”

16. On January 19, 2004, CPH wrote asking MS & Co. to explain the circumstances under which MS & Co. located the “newly discovered” backup tapes and to disclose when the tapes were located. CPH also asked MS & Co. to explain why the backup tapes could not be restored sooner.

17. On January 21, 2005, MS & Co. sent CPH a letter that failed to answer CPH’s questions. Instead, MS & Co. described its efforts to restore the backup tapes as “ongoing”; informed CPH that “there is no way for MS & Co. to know or accurately predict the type or time period of data that might be recovered”; and stated that MS & Co. “cannot accurately estimate when all of the tapes will be restored or whether any recoverable data will be found on the remaining tapes.”

18. On January 26, 2005, CPH filed the Motion at issue here, asking the Court to instruct the jury that MS & Co.’s destruction of e-mails and other electronic documents and MS. & Co.’s noncompliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order can give rise to an adverse inference that the contents of the missing e-mails would be harmful to MS & Co.’s defense in this case.

19. Meanwhile, MS & Co. found another 169 DLT tapes in January, 2005, that allegedly had been misplaced by its New Jersey storage vendor, Recall. Again, MS & Co., chose to provide no specifics to CPH or to the Court.

20. At a February 2, 2005 hearing on CPH's Motion, Thomas A. Clare of Kirkland & Ellis, LLP, representing MS & Co., stated that "late October of 2004...[is] the date I represent to Court is the first time that anyone knew that there was recoverable e-mail data" on the Brooklyn tapes. Hr'g Tr. (2/2/05) at 133-34. The actual date, however, was at least three months earlier, by July 2, 2004. Furthermore, MS & Co. refused to provide the Court with definitive answers about when its e-mail production would be complete, merely stating that it would proceed with "all deliberate speed." Id. at 139. Also at the February 2 hearing, Mr. Clare neglected to inform the Court about the 8-mm tapes that had been located in 2002, and told the Court that the 1,423 DLT tapes had been found in Brooklyn "sometime during the summer" of 2004. The truth of this assertion is belied by the evidence showing that the tapes were found before May 6, 2004.

21. On February 3, 2005, the Court ordered further discovery and set an evidentiary hearing for February 14, 2005. The discovery took place on February 9 and 10, when CPH deposed the three e-mail witnesses identified by MS. & Co.

22. On Saturday afternoon, February 12, 2005, MS & Co. informed the Court that it had, in the previous 24 hours, discovered additional tapes. Also, MS & Co. stated that its recent production omitted certain "attachments" to e-mails. MS & Co. did not attempt to clarify or substantiate either of these statements to CPH or to the Court until the Monday, February 14, 2005 hearing.

23. At the February 14 hearing, none of the witnesses MS & Co. presented was involved in or familiar with the actual electronic searches conducted using the parameters specified in this

034934

Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order, and none explained where the 8,000 pages produced in November, 2004 had come from. MS & Co.'s witnesses did, however, describe three new developments. First, Robert Saunders, a Morgan Stanley executive director in the Information Technology Division, testified that he returned to New York after his February 10 deposition and, concerned about his unqualified assertion that he was "confident" that a complete search for backup tapes had been conducted, decided finally to undertake a personal search of MS & Co.'s "communication rooms," going to the areas he thought most obvious first. By doing so, he and two contractors discovered more than 200 additional backup tapes openly stored in locations known to be used for tape storage. Those discoveries were made on Friday and Saturday, February 11 and 12, 2005. As of the February 14 hearing, NDCI had not yet determined which, if any, of these newly discovered backup tapes contained e-mails. Second, Ms. Gorman reported that on Friday, February 11, 2005 she and her team had discovered that a flaw in the software they had written had prevented MS & Co. from locating all responsive e-mail attachments. Third, Ms. Gorman reported that MS & Co. discovered on Sunday evening, February 13, 2005, that the date-range searches for e-mail users who had a Lotus Notes platform were flawed, so there were at least 7,000 additional e-mail messages that appeared to fall within the scope of the Agreed Order had yet to be fully reviewed by MS & Co.'s outside counsel for responsiveness and privilege. As counsel for MS & Co. admitted, this problem "dwarf[s]" their previous problems. Hr'g Tr. (2/14/05) at 13. Ms. Gorman indicated she was "90 percent sure" that the problem infected MS & Co.'s original searches in May, which means that even they failed to timely produce relevant materials that had been uploaded into the archive by that point. Id. at 82-83. The bulk of the employees using the Lotus Notes platform in the relevant time period came from the Investment Banking Division, the division responsible for the transaction under review here.

24. On February 19, 2005 MS & Co. informed counsel for CPH that “additional boxes of back up tapes” have been located “in a security room” and that, “(a)s of this morning, Morgan Stanley has identified four (unlabeled) DLT tapes among the collection. Those four tapes will be sent to NDCI for further analysis.” The disclosure did not state when the discovery was made. MS & Co.’s counsel represented to the Court that it was his understanding that about 73 bankers’ boxes of tapes were discovered. No explanation for the late discovery was offered.

25. Throughout this entire process, MS & Co. and its counsels’ lack of candor has frustrated the Court and opposing counsel’s ability to be fully and timely informed.

26. MS & Co.’s failure during the summer and fall of 2004 to timely process a substantial amount of data that was languishing in the “staging area,” rather than being put into searchable form and then searched, was willful and a gross abuse of its discovery obligations.

27. MS & Co.’s failure to time notify CPH of the existence of the DLT and 8-mm tapes, which it had located as early as 2002 and certainly prior to the June 23, 2004 certification, and its failure to timely process those raw backup tapes was willful and a gross abuse of its discovery obligations.

28. MS & Co.’s failure to produce all e-mail attachments was negligent, and it was discovered and revealed only as a result of CPH’s hiring a third-party vendor, pursuant to the Court’s February 4, 2005 Order, to double-check MS & Co.’s compliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order.

29. MS & Co.’s failure to produce all of the Lotus Notes e-mails was negligent, and it was discovered and revealed only as result of CPH’s hiring a third-party vendor, pursuant to the Court's February 4, 2005 Order, to double-check MS & Co.'s compliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order.

30. MS & Co.'s failure to locate other potentially responsive backup tapes before Saturday, February 12, 2005 was grossly negligent.

31. Given the history of the discovery, there is no way to know if all potentially responsive backup tapes have been located.

32. In sum, despite MS & Co.'s affirmative duty arising out of the litigation to produce its e-mails, and contrary to federal law requiring it to preserve the e-mails, MS & Co. failed to preserve many e-mails and failed to produce all e-mails required by the Agreed Order. The failings include overwriting e-mails after 12 months; failing to conduct proper searches for tapes that may contain e-mails; providing a certificate of compliance known to be false when made and only recently withdrawn; failing to timely notify CPH when additional tapes were located; failing to use reasonable efforts to search the newly discovered tapes; failing to timely process and search data held in the staging area or notify CPH of the deficiency; failing to write software scripts consistent with the Agreed Order; and discovering the deficiencies only after CPH was given the opportunity to check MS & Co.'s work and the MS & Co.'s attorneys were required to certify the completeness of the prior searches. Many of these failings were done knowingly, deliberately, and in bad faith.

It is clear that e-mails existed which were requested by CPH that have not been produced because of the deficiencies discussed above. Electronic data are the modern-day equivalent of the paper trail. Indeed, because of the informalities of e-mail, correspondents may be less guarded than with paper correspondence. In this case, the paper trail is critical to CPH's ability to make out its prima facie case. Thus, MS & Co.'s acts have severely hindered CPH's ability to proceed. The only way to test the potentially self-serving testimony of MS & Co. personnel is with the written record of the events.

The failures outlined in this Order are of two types. First, by overwriting e-mails contrary to its legal obligation to maintain them in readily accessible form for two years and with knowledge that legal action was threatened, MS & Co. has spoiled evidence, justifying sanctions. See Martino v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 835 So. 2d 1251 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003). “The appropriateness of sanctions for failing to preserve evidence depends on: (1) willfulness or bad faith of the responsible party, (2) the extent of prejudice suffered by the other party, and (3) what is required to cure the prejudice.” Nationwide Lift Trucks, Inc. v. Smith, 832 So. 2d 824, 826 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002). Second, MS & Co.’s willfull disobedience of the Agreed Order justifies sanctions. See Rule 1.380 (b) (2), Fla. R. Civ. P. The conclusion is inescapable that MS & Co. sought to thwart discovery in this specific case.

Sanctions in this context are not meant to be punitive. They are intended, though, to level the playing field.

A reasonable juror could conclude that evidence of MS & Co.’s misconduct demonstrates its consciousness of guilty. It is relevant to the issues before the jury. Further, CPH should not be penalized by being forced to divert the jurors’ attention away from the merits of its claim to focus on highly technical facts going to MS & Co.’s failures here, facts that are not reasonably disputed. Evidence of that failure, though, alone does not make CPH whole. Indeed, it can be said it is not a “sanction” at all, but merely a statement of unrefuted facts that the jury may find relevant. Shifting the burden of proof, though, forces MS & Co. to accept the practical consequence of its failures—that some information will never be known. Obviously, this sanction is of consequence only in the marginal case. If there is overwhelming proof of MS & Co.'s knowledge of the fraud and collusion with Sunbeam, CPH would have prevailed on those elements in any event. And, to the contrary, if there is overwhelming evidence MS & Co. did not know of the fraud or conspire with or aid Sunbeam in its commission, it would have prevailed in any event. If the case is close on those issues, though, MS & Co., not CPH, should bear the burden of persuasion. Further, shifting the burden on the fraud issue does not relieve CPH of its obligation to establish the other elements of its claims, most notably reliance, proof of which is independent of the MS & Co. e-mails. Thus, the sanctions chosen are the most conservative available to the Court to address the spoliation of evidence and willfull violation of the Agreed Order.^{1 2}

Finally, the Court notes that CPH has requested the e-mails since May of 2003. MS & Co. was supposed to comply with the April 16, 2004 Order by May 14, 2004. Fact discovery in this case closed November 24, 2004. MS & Co.'s actions have resulted in the diversion of enormous amounts of resources, by both the parties and the Court, into a fact discovery dispute that should have never arisen and which would have long ago been put to bed had MS & Co. timely recognized its obligations to CPH and this Court. Opening argument in this complex case is set for March 21,

¹MS & Co.'s bad acts and pocket book may not be used to gain the continuance it has sought from the beginning. Further, the Court has no confidence that, even if a continuance were granted, MS & Co. would fully comply with discovery in this case.

²The undersigned notes that the sanctions imposed are not enumerated in Rule 1.380 (b) (2), and is aware of the concern expressed in the 2000 Handbook on Discovery Practice, Joint Committee of the Trial Lawyers Section of the Florida Bar and Conferences of Circuit and County Court Judges ("(f)or the trial court to be on solid footing, it is wise to stay within the enumerated orders" [Handbook at p. 4]). However, MS & Co.'s violations involve both the violation of a discovery order and the intentional spoliation of evidence. The sanction imposed is less severe than that provided in Rule 1.380 (b) (2) (B), under which the Court could preclude MS & Co. from presenting evidence of its lack of knowledge of or collusion with the Sunbeam fraud, which the Court finds is the least severe enumerated sanction appropriate to place the parties on a level playing field.

2005. Preliminary jury selection has begun. MS & Co. has controlled the timetable of this portion of the litigation long enough. Consequently, CPH should have the ability to continue to require MS & Co. to attempt to comply with the Agreed Order and the February 4, 2005 Order on Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.'s ore tenus Motion to Participate in Search of Additional E-Mail Back Up Tapes or Appoint Third Party to Conduct Search, or to elect to terminate the e-mail discovery and concentrate on trial preparation.

Based on the foregoing, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. Plaintiff's Motion for Adverse Interference Instruction Due to Morgan Stanley's Destructions of E-Mails and Morgan Stanley's Non-Compliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order and Motion for Additional Relief is GRANTED.

2. MS & Co. shall continue to use its best efforts to comply with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order and shall continue to comply with the February 4, 2005 Order on Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.'s ore tenus Motion to Participate in Search of Additional E-Mail Back Up Tapes or Appoint Third Party to Conduct Search until March 21, 2005 or written notice from CPH, which ever first occurs. Either party shall notify the other in writing of its intention to offer into evidence e-mails actually produced to CPH prior to termination of e-mail discovery in conformity with this Order, within 72 hours of the e-mail's production to CPH. The Court shall hear and determine any objections to use of the e-mails.

3. The Court shall read to the jury the statement of facts attached as Exhibit A during whatever evidentiary phase of CPH's case that it requests. These findings of fact shall be conclusive. See Rule 1.380 (b) (2) (A). No instruction shall be given to the jury regarding inferences to be drawn from these facts. However, counsel may make such argument to the jury in favor of whatever inferences that evidence may support. No other evidence concerning the production of e-mails, or lack thereof, shall be presented absent further Court order.

4. CPH will be allowed to argue that MS & Co.'s concealment of its role in the Sunbeam transaction is evidence of its malice or evil intent, going to the issue of punitive damages. See, e.g., General Motors Corp. v. McGee, 837 So.2d 10120.

5. MS & Co. shall bear the burden of proving to the jury, by the greater weight of the evidence, that it lacked knowledge of the Sunbeam fraud and did not aid and abet or conspire with Sunbeam to defraud MS & Co. The traditional order of proof shall remain unaffected, however.

6. MS & Co. shall compensate CPH for costs and fees associated with the Motion. The amount shall be determined at an evidentiary hearing to be held after the completion of the trial.

7. Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Discovery Regarding Morgan Stanley's Destruction and Non-Production of E-Mails is Denied.

EXHIBIT A

A federal regulation in effect in 1997 and all times since required Morgan Stanley to preserve e-mails for three years and to preserve them in a readily accessible place for two years. Beginning in no later than 1997, Morgan Stanley had a practice of overwriting e-mails after 12 months. E-mails could no longer be retrieved once they were overwritten. This practice was discontinued in January, 2001. CPH has sought access to Morgan Stanley's e-mails relating to this transaction since the case was filed in May, 2003.

Prior to 2003, Morgan Stanley recorded e-mails and other electronic data on back up tapes. On April 16, 2004, the Court ordered Morgan Stanley to (1) search the oldest full backup tape for each of 36 Morgan Stanley employees involved in the Sunbeam transaction; (2) review e-mails dated from February 15, 1998 through April 15, 1998 and e-mails containing any of 29 specified search terms such as "Sunbeam" and "Coleman", regardless of their date; (3) produce by May 14, 2004 all e-mails relating to this case found by the search I have just described; and (4) certify its full compliance with the Court's order.

On May 14, 2004, Morgan Stanley produced approximately 1,300 pages of e-mails. It did not produce the required certification. On June 23, 2004, after inquiries by CPH, Morgan Stanley provided CPH with a certificate of full compliance with the April 16 Order signed by Arthur Riel, the Morgan Stanley manager assigned this task.

As organized by Morgan Stanley, the effort to recover e-mails from the backup tapes had several stages. First, the relevant backup tapes had to be located by searching the potential storage locations. Second, the tapes were sent to an outside vendor, National Data Conversion, Inc., which I will call "NDCI", to be processed, and the data returned to Morgan Stanley. Third, Morgan Stanley had to upload the processed data into its e-mail archive. Fourth, Morgan Stanley had to run scripts, or pieces of computer code, to transform this data into a searchable form. Finally, Morgan Stanley had to search the data for e-mails related to this case. Morgan Stanley personnel used the term "staging area" to describe the stage of the process when the processed data returned by NDCI remained in limbo, waiting to be uploaded to Morgan Stanley's archive.

At some point prior to May 6, 2004, Arthur Riel and his team became aware that 1,423 backup tapes had been found at a Morgan Stanley facility in Brooklyn, New York. These 1,423 tapes had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive or searched when Morgan Stanley made its production to CPH on May 14, 2004. Aware of the tapes' discovery, Mr. Riel knew when he executed the certification of full compliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Order that it was false. He and others on Morgan Stanley's e-mail archive team knew by July 2, 2004 that these "Brooklyn tapes" contained e-mail dating back at least to the late 1990's. During the summer of 2004, the Brooklyn tapes were processed and the data sent to the staging area. The scripts were not written and tested to permit the search for e-mails relating to this case to begin until the middle of January, 2004. Such a search, even if perfectly done, can take weeks.

Morgan Stanley also failed to timely produce e-mails from 738 backup tapes found at a Morgan Stanley facility in Manhattan in 2002. These 738 tapes, like the 1,423 Brooklyn tapes, had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive and searched by either on May 14, 2004 or June 23, 2004. Mr. Riel and others were told by NDCI by July 2, 2004 that these tapes contained e-mail dating back at least to 1998. During the summer of 2004, the these tapes were processed and sent to the staging area. Like the Brooklyn tapes, though, they also were not searched.

In August 2004, Mr. Riel was relieved of his employment responsibilities. He and his team were replaced by a new team headed by Allison Gorman Nachtigal. At that time, the staging area contained about 600 gigabytes of e-mail data that had not yet been uploaded into the Morgan Stanley archive and had not been searched for e-mails relating to this case.

Upon taking over Mr. Riel's responsibilities, Ms. Gorman did not initially make significant efforts to address the backlog of data in the staging area. Indeed, she was not informed of the existence of this litigation until five months later, in January 2005. In October 2004, Ms. Gorman gave the project somewhat greater priority, although even then it did not move as expeditiously as possible. Morgan Stanley did not consider using an outside contractor to expedite the process.

Morgan Stanley found another 169 DLT tapes in January, 2005, that had been misplaced

by its New Jersey storage vendor. Morgan Stanley discovered more than 200 additional backup tapes openly stored in locations known to be used for tape storage on February 11 and 12, 2005. On February 11, 2005 Morgan Stanley discovered that a flaw in the software it had written had prevented Morgan Stanley from locating all e-mail attachments about the Sunbeam transaction. Morgan Stanley discovered on February 13, 2005, that the date-range searches for e-mail users who had a Lotus Notes platform were flawed, so that additional e-mail messages that appeared to fall within the scope of the April 16, 2004 Order had not been given to CPH. Further, it appears that the problem infected Morgan Stanley's original searches in May of 2004. The bulk of the employees using the Lotus Notes platform in the relevant time period came from the Investment Banking Division, the division responsible for the transaction under review here. On February 16, 2005, Morgan Stanley withdrew its certificate of compliance with the April 16, 2004 Order. On February 19, 2005 Morgan Stanley notified CPH that it had found boxes of additional tapes that have not been uploaded into its archive or searched for responsive e-mails. Morgan Stanley did not tell CPH it had found any tapes that it had not searched until November 17, 2004. Even then, it did not tell CPH how many tapes were found, when they were found, or when they would be searched. MS & Co. did not provide all of this information to CPH until February of 2005. The searches had not yet been completed when this trial was begun, when they were terminated without completion.

CIRCUIT CIVIL 4

MOTION FOR CORRECTION AND CLARIFICATION OF ORDER ON CPH'S MOTION FOR ADVERSE INFERENCE

Plaintiff Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. ("CPH") respectfully requests that the Court correct and clarify the form of its March 1, 2005 Amended Order On Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc.'s Motion For Adverse Inference Instruction Due To Morgan Stanley's Destructions of E-Mails And Morgan Stanley's Noncompliance With The Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order, And Motion For Additional Relief And Order On Plaintiff's Motion To Compel Further Discovery Regarding Morgan Stanley's Destruction And Non-Production of E-Mails (the "Order").

CPH requests entry of a revised form of the Order to correct a few typographical errors and to ensure that the language of the Order, including the attached statement of facts, is entirely clear. CPH attaches to this motion (1) a marked copy of the Order highlighting the insertions and deletions that CPH proposes, and (2) a clean copy of the revised form of the Order that CPH requests be entered. CPH also is providing a disk containing the clean copy of the proposed revised Order.

CPH does not seek any substantive changes to this Court's findings or to the relief that this Court has granted with respect to the specific misconduct addressed in the Court's order.

COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS INC.
Plaintiff,

vs.

MORGAN STANLEY & CO., INC.,

FURTHER AMENDED ORDER ON COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS, INC.'S
MOTION FOR ADVERSE INFERENCE INSTRUCTION DUE TO MORGAN
STANLEY'S DESTRUCTIONS OF E-MAILS AND MORGAN STANLEY'S
NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE COURT'S APRIL 16 2004 AGREED ORDER,
AND MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL RELIEF AND ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
TO COMPEL FURTHER DISCOVERY REGARDING MORGAN STANLEY'S
DESTRUCTION AND NON-PRODUCTION OF E-MAILS

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on February 14, 2005 on Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc.'s ("CPH's") Motion for Adverse Inference Instruction Due to Morgan Stanley's Destruction of E-Mails and Morgan Stanley's Noncompliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order, as modified by CPH's February 14, 2005 ore tenus motion for additional relief, and on February 28, 2005 on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Discovery Regarding Morgan Stanley's Destruction and Non-Production of E-Mails, with both counsel present. Based on evidence introduced, the Court finds:

1. CPH has sued Defendant, Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc. ("MS & Co."), for fraud in connection with CPH's sale of its stock in Coleman, Inc., to Sunbeam Corporation in return for Sunbeam stock. Whether MS & Co. had knowledge of the fraudulent scheme undertaken by Sunbeam in 1997 and early 1998 and, if so, the extent of that knowledge, is central to the case. CPH has sought access to MS & Co.'s internal files, including e-mails, since the case was filed.

035035

2. Though MS & Co. instructed its investment bankers to preserve paper documents in their possession in connection with the Sunbeam transaction in February, 1999, it continued its practice of overwriting e-mails after 12 months, despite an SEC regulationn requiring all e-mails be retained in readily accessible form for two years. See 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-4 (1997).

3. On April 16, 2004, the Court entered its Agreed Order requiring MS & Co. to (1) search the oldest full backup tape for each of 36 MS & Co. employees involved in the Sunbeam transaction; (2) review e-mails dated from February 15, 1998 through April 15, 1998 and e-mails containing any of 29 specified search terms such as “Sunbeam” and “Coleman”, regardless of their date; (3) produce by May 14, 2004 all nonprivileged e-mails responsive to CPH’s document requests; (4) give CPH a privilege log; and (5) certify its full compliance with the Agreed Order.

4. On May 14, 2004, MS & Co. produced approximately 1,300 pages of e-mails but failed to provide the required certification. Finally, on June 23, 2004, after inquiries by CPH, MS & Co. provided CPH with a certificate of full compliance with the April 16 Agreed Order signed by Arthur Riel, the MS & Co. manager assigned this task.

5. As organized by MS & Co., the effort to recover e-mails from any remaining backup tapes had several stages. First, the relevant backup tapes (in various formats, such as “DLT” tapes and eight-millimeter tapes) had to be located by searching the potential storage locations. Second, the tapes were sent to an outside vendor, National Data Conversion, Inc. (“NDC”), to be processed, and the data returned to MS & Co. in the form of “SDLT” tapes. Third, MS & Co. had to find a way to upload the contents of these SDLT tapes into its new e-mail archive. Fourth, MS & Co. would run “scripts” to transform this data into a searchable form, so that it could later be searched for responsive e-mails. MS & Co. personnel used the term “staging area” to describe the stage of the process when SDLT tapes remained in limbo, waiting to be uploaded to the archive.

6. At some point prior to May 6, 2004, Arthur Riel and his team became aware that more than 1,000 backup tapes had been found at a MS & Co. facility in Brooklyn, New York. These 1,423 DLT tapes had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive or searched when MS & Co. made its supposedly complete production on May 14, 2004, and when Mr. Riel certified full compliance with the Agreed Order on June 23, 2004. Aware of the tapes' discovery, Mr. Riel knew when he executed the certification that it was false. He and others on MS & Co.'s e-mail archive team knew by July 2, 2004 that these "Brooklyn tapes" contained e-mail dating back at least to the late 1990's. MS & Co. neither withdrew its certification nor informed CPH about the potential for additional production of e-mails, however. During the summer of 2004, the Brooklyn tapes were processed and sent to the staging area, but they were not uploaded to the e-mail archive so as to be available to be searched until January ~~2005~~2004, at least eight months after they were found.

7. MS & Co. also failed to timely produce e-mails from 738 8-millimeter backup tapes found at a MS & Co. facility in Manhattan, in 2002. These 738 8-mm tapes, like the 1,423 Brooklyn tapes, had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive and searched when MS & Co. made its supposedly complete production on May 14, 2004, and when Mr. Riel certified full compliance with the Agreed Order on June 23, 2004. Mr. Riel and others were told by their vendor, NDCI, by July 2, 2004 that the 8-mm tapes contained e-mail dating back at least to 1998. MS & Co. neither withdrew its certification nor informed CPH about the potential for additional production of e-mails, though. During the summer of 2004, the 8-mm tapes were processed and sent to the staging area. Like the Brooklyn tapes, though, they also were not uploaded to MS & Co.'s e-mail archive.

8. In August 2004, Mr. Riel was relieved of his employment responsibilities. He and his team were replaced by a new team headed by Allison Gorman Nachtigal.

9. Ms. Gorman testified that she was instructed to describe the circumstances of Mr. Riel's replacement as his having been "placed on administrative leave." That same term appears by interlineation over the original typed description in MS & Co.'s memorandum addressing these issues. The typed language stated: "[Mr. Riel was] dismissed for integrity issues." MS & Co. represented that the reason for the adverse action taken against Mr. Riel was unrelated to any concern about the accuracy of his June 23, 2004 certification. However, MS & Co. presented no evidence to explain why Mr. Riel would have been placed on administrative leave rather than terminated. CPH argued that it may have been to deprive CPH of the ability to contact him directly.

10. Upon taping over Mr. Riel's responsibilities, Ms. Gorman did not initially make significant efforts to address the backlog of data in the staging area; indeed, she was not informed of the existence of this litigation until five months later, in January 2005. In October 2004, Ms. Gorman met with a group of MS & Co. attorneys. Following that meeting, Ms. Gorman gave the project somewhat greater priority, although even then it clearly did not move as expeditiously as possible. For example, MS & Co. gave no thought to using an outside contractor to expedite the process of completing the discovery, though it had certified completion months earlier; it lacked the technological capacity to upload and search the data at that time, and would not attain that capacity for months; and it knew trial was scheduled to begin in February, 2005. Even at this point, no one from MS & Co. or its outside counsel, Kirkland & Ellis LLP, gave CPH or this Court any hint that the June certification was false.

11. On November 17, 2004, more than six months after the May 14, 2004 deadline for producing e-mails in response to the Agreed Order, MS & Co. sent CPH a letter revealing that its June 23 certificate of compliance was incorrect. The letter stated:

Morgan Stanley has discovered additional e-mail backup tapes since our e-mail production in May 2004. The data on some of [the] newly discovered tapes has been restored and, to ensure continued compliance with the agreed order, we have re-run the searches described in the order. Some responsive e-mails have been located as a result of that process. We will produce the responsive documents to you as soon as the production is finalized.

The letter also foreshadowed further delays: “(s)ome of the backup tapes are still being restored. To ensure continued compliance with the agreed order, we intend to re-run the searches again when the restoration process is complete and will produce any responsive documents that result.”

12. The next day, November 18, 2004, MS & Co. produced an additional 8,000 pages of e-mails and attachments. MS & Co.’s November 2004 letter stated that the 8,000 pages came from “newly discovered” tapes; but the testimony now makes clear that this statement was false because Ms. Gorman’s team did not figure out how to upload and make searchable the materials from the staging area until January, 2005.

13. MS & Co. has failed to offer any explanation to reconcile the obvious conflict between its assertions at the time of production that the 8,000 pages came from “newly discovered” tapes (i.e., the “Brooklyn tapes”) and the testimony of its own witness, Ms. Gorman, that data from those newly discovered tapes were not capable of being searched until two months later, in January.

14. After a follow-up inquiry by CPH, on December 17, 2004, MS & Co. produced a privilege log and told CPH that “[n]o additional responsive e-mails have been located since our November production.” MS & Co. refused to answer CPH’s questions about whether MS & Co. had restored all the backup tapes described in its November 17 letter and why the tapes had not been located earlier, however.

15. On December 30, 2004, CPH sought confirmation that MS & Co. had reviewed all e-mail backup tapes and produced all responsive e-mails and, if not, asked when the review would be completed. On January 11, 2005, MS & Co. informed CPH that the “restoration of e-mail backup tapes is ongoing. Restoration of the next set of backup tapes is estimated to be completed at the end of January. We intend to re-run the searches described in the agreed order at that time.”

16. On January 19, 2004, CPH wrote asking MS & Co. to explain the circumstances under which MS & Co. located the “newly discovered” backup tapes and to disclose when the tapes were located. CPH also asked MS & Co. to explain why the backup tapes could not be restored sooner.

17. On January 21, 2005, MS & Co. sent CPH a letter that failed to answer CPH’s questions. Instead, MS & Co. described its efforts to restore the backup tapes as “ongoing”; informed CPH that “there is no way for MS & Co. to know or accurately predict the type or time period of data that might be recovered”; and stated that MS & Co. “cannot accurately estimate when all of the tapes will be restored or whether any recoverable data will be found on the remaining tapes.”

18. On January 26, 2005, CPH filed the Motion at issue here, asking the Court to instruct the jury that MS & Co.’s destruction of e-mails and other electronic documents and MS. & Co.’s noncompliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order can give rise to an adverse inference that the contents of the missing e-mails would be harmful to MS & Co.’s defense in this case.

19. Meanwhile, MS & Co. found another 169 DLT tapes in January, 2005, that allegedly had been misplaced by its New Jersey storage vendor, Recall. Again, MS & Co., chose to provide no specifics to CPH or to the Court.

20. At a February 2, 2005 hearing on CPH’s Motion, Thomas A. Clare of Kirkland & Ellis, LLP, representing MS & Co., stated that “late October of 2004...[is] the date I’m representing to the Court is the first time that anyone knew that there was recoverable e-mail data” on the Brooklyn tapes. Hr’g Tr. (2/2/05) at 133-34. The actual date, however, was at least three months earlier, by July 2, 2004. Furthermore, MS & Co. refused to provide the Court with definitive answers about when its e-mail production would be complete, merely stating that it would proceed with “all deliberate speed.” Id. at 139. Also at the February 2 hearing, Mr. Clare neglected to inform the Court about the 8-mm

tapes that had been located in 2002, and told the Court that the 1,423 DLT tapes had been found in Brooklyn "sometime during the summer" of 2004. The truth of this assertion is belied by the evidence showing that the tapes were found before May 6, 2004.

21. On February 3, 2005, the Court ordered further discovery and set an evidentiary hearing for February 14, 2005. The discovery took place on February 9 and 10, when CPH deposed the three e-mail witnesses identified by MS. & Co.

22. On Saturday afternoon, February 12, 2005, MS & Co. informed the Court that it had, in the previous 24 hours, discovered additional tapes. Also, MS & Co. stated that its recent production omitted certain "attachments" to e-mails. MS & Co. did not attempt to clarify or substantiate either of these statements to CPH or to the Court until the Monday, February 14, 2005 hearing.

23. At the February 14 hearing, none of the witnesses MS & Co. presented was involved in or familiar with the actual electronic searches conducted using the parameters specified in this Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order, and none explained where the 8,000 pages produced in November, 2004 had come from. MS & Co.'s witnesses did, however, describe three new developments. First, Robert Saunders, a Morgan Stanley executive director in the Information Technology Division, testified that he returned to New York after his February 10 deposition and, concerned about his unqualified deposition assertion that ~~he~~he was "confident" that a complete search for backup tapes had been conducted, decided finally to undertake a personal search of MS & Co.'s "communication rooms," going to the areas he thought most obvious first. By doing so, he and two contractors discovered more than 200 additional backup tapes openly stored in locations known to be used for tape storage. Those discoveries were made on Friday and Saturday, February 11 and 12, 2005. As of the February 14 hearing, NDCI had not yet determined which, if any, of these newly discovered backup tapes contained e-mails. Second, Ms. Gorman reported that on Friday, February 11, 2005 she and her team had discovered that a flaw in the software they had written had prevented MS & Co. from locating all responsive e-mail attachments. Third, Ms. Gorman reported that MS & Co. discovered on Sunday evening, February 13, 2005, that the date-range searches for e-mail users who had a Lotus Notes platform were flawed, so there were at least 7,000 additional e-mail messages that appeared to fall within the scope of the Agreed Order had yet to be fully reviewed by MS. & Co.'s outside counsel for responsiveness and privilege. As counsel for MS & Co. admitted, this problem "dwarf[s]" their previous problems. Hr'g Tr. (2/14/05) at 13. Ms. Gorman indicated she was "90 percent sure" that the problem infected MS & Co.'s original searches in May, which means that MS & Co. even then they failed to timely produce relevant materials that had been uploaded into the archive by that point. Id. at 82-83. The bulk of the employees using the Lotus Notes platform in the relevant time period came from the Investment Banking Division, the division responsible for the transaction under review here.

24. On February 19, 2005 MS & Co. informed counsel for CPH that "additional boxes of back up tapes" have been located "in a security room" and that, "(a)s of this morning, Morgan Stanley has identified four (unlabeled) DLT tapes among the collection. Those four tapes will be sent to NDCI for further analysis." The disclosure did not state when the discovery was made. MS & Co.'s counsel represented to the Court that it was his understanding that about 73 bankers' boxes of tapes were discovered. No explanation for the late discovery was offered.

25. Throughout this entire process, MS & Co. and its counsels' lack of candor has frustrated the Court and opposing counsel's ability to be fully and timely informed.

26. MS & Co.'s failure during the summer and fall of 2004 to timely process a substantial amount of data that was languishing in the "staging area," rather than being put into searchable form and then searched, was willful and a gross abuse of its discovery obligations.

27. MS & Co.'s failure to timely notify CPH of the existence of the DLT and 8-mm tapes, which it had located as early as 2002 and certainly prior to the June 23, 2004 certification, and its failure to timely process those raw backup tapes was willful and a gross abuse of its discovery obligations.

28. MS & Co.'s failure to produce all e-mail attachments was negligent, and it was discovered and revealed only as a result of CPH's hiring a third-party vendor, pursuant to the Court's February 4, 2005 Order, to double-check MS & Co.'s compliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order.

29. MS & Co.'s failure to produce all of the Lotus Notes e-mails was negligent, and it was discovered and revealed only as result of CPH's hiring a third-party vendor, pursuant to the Court's February 4, 2005 Order, to double-check MS & Co.'s compliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order.

30. MS & Co.'s failure to locate other potentially responsive backup tapes before Saturday, February 12, 2005 was grossly negligent.

31. Given the history of the discovery, there is no way to know if all potentially responsive backup tapes have been located.

32. In sum, despite MS & Co.'s affirmative duty arising out of the litigation to produce its e-mails, and contrary to federal law requiring it to preserve the e-mails, MS & Co. failed to preserve many e-mails and failed to produce all e-mails required by the Agreed Order. The failings include overwriting e-mails after 12 months; failing to conduct proper searches for tapes that may contain e-mails; providing a certificate of compliance known to be false when made and only recently withdrawn; failing to timely notify CPH when additional tapes were located; failing to use reasonable efforts to search the newly discovered tapes; failing to timely process and search data held in the staging area or notify CPH of the deficiency; failing to write software scripts consistent with the Agreed Order; and discovering the deficiencies only after CPH was given the opportunity to check MS & Co.'s work and the MS & Co.'s attorneys were required to certify the completeness of the prior searches. Many of these failings were done knowingly, deliberately, and in bad faith.

It is clear that e-mails existed which were requested by CPH that have not been produced because of the deficiencies discussed above. Electronic data are the modern-day equivalent of the paper trail. Indeed, because of the informalities of e-mail, correspondents maybe less guarded than with paper correspondence. In this case, the paper trail is critical to CPH's ability to make out its prima facie case. Thus, MS & Co.'s acts have severely hindered CPH's ability to proceed. The only way to test the potentially self-serving testimony of MS & Co. personnel is with the written record of the events.

The failures outlined in this Order are of two types. First, by overwriting e-mails contrary to its legal obligation to maintain there in readily accessible form for two years and with knowledge that legal action was threatened, MS & Co. has spoiled evidence, justifying sanctions. See Martino v. Wal-Mart Stores Inc., 835 So. 2d 1251 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003). "The appropriateness of sanctions for failing to preserve evidence depends on: (1) willfulness or bad faith of the responsible party, (2) the extent of prejudice suffered by the other party, and (3) what is required to cure the prejudice." Nationwide Lift Trucks Inc. v. Smith, 832 So. 2d 824, 826 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002). Second, MS & Co.'s ~~willful~~ willful disobedience of the Agreed Order justifies sanctions. See Rule 1.380 (b) (2), Fla. R. Civ. P. The conclusion is inescapable that MS & Co. sought to thwart discovery in this specific case.

Sanctions in this context are not meant to be punitive. They are intended, though, to level the playing field.

A reasonable juror could conclude that evidence of MS & Co.'s misconduct demonstrates its consciousness of ~~guilt~~ guilty. It is relevant to the issues before the jury. Further, CPH should not be penalized by being forced to divert the jurors' attention away from the merits of its claim to focus on highly technical facts going to MS & Co.'s failures here, facts that are not reasonably disputed. Evidence of that failure, though, alone does not make CPH whole. Indeed, it can be said it is not a "sanction" at all, but merely a statement of unrefuted facts that the jury may find relevant. Shifting the burden of proof, though, forces MS & Co. to accept the practical consequence of its failures-that some information will never be known. Obviously, this sanction is of consequence only in the marginal case. If there is overwhelming proof of MS & Co.'s knowledge of the fraud and collusion with Sunbeam, CPH would have prevailed on those elements in any event. And, to the contrary, if there is overwhelming evidence MS & Co. did not know of the fraud or conspire with or aid Sunbeam in its commission, it would have prevailed in any event. If the case is close on those issues, though, MS & Co., not CPH, should bear the burden of persuasion. Further, shifting the burden on the fraud issue does not relieve CPH of its obligation to establish the other elements of its claims, most notably reliance, proof of which is independent of the MS & Co. e-mails. Thus, the sanctions chosen are the most conservative available to the Court to address the spoliation ~~spoliation~~ of evidence and willful ~~willful~~ violation of the Agreed Order.^{1 2}

Finally, the Court notes that CPH has requested the e-mails since May of 2003. MS & Co. was supposed to comply with the April 16, 2004 Order by May 14, 2004. Fact discovery in this case closed November 24, 2004. MS & Co.'s actions have resulted in the diversion of enormous amounts of resources, by both the parties and the Court, into a fact discovery dispute that should have never arisen and which would have long ago been put to bed had MS & Co. timely recognized its obligations to CPH and this Court. Opening argument in this complex case is set for March 21, 2005. Preliminary jury selection has begun. MS & Co. has controlled the timetable of this portion of the litigation long enough. Consequently, CPH should have the ability to continue to require MS & Co, to attempt to comply with the Agreed Order and the February 4, 2005 Order on Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.'s ore tenus Motion to Participate in Search of Additional E-Mail Back Up Tapes or Appoint Third Party to Conduct Search, or to elect to terminate the e-mail discovery and concentrate on trial preparation.

² The undersigned notes that the sanctions imposed are not enumerated in Rule 1.380 (b) (2), and is aware of the concern expressed in the 2000 Handbook on Discovery Practice, Joint Committee of the Trial Lawyers Section of the Florida Bar and Conferences of Circuit and County Court Judges (“(f)or the trial court to be on solid footing, it is wise to stay within the enumerated orders” [Handbook at p. 4]). However, MS & Co.'s violations involve both the violation of a discovery order and the intentional spoliation ~~spoliation~~ of evidence. The sanction imposed is less severe than that provided in Rule 1.380 (b) (2) (B), under which the Court could preclude MS & Co. from presenting evidence of its lack of

Based on the foregoing, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. Plaintiff's Motion for Adverse Interference Instruction Due to Morgan Stanley's Destructions of E-Mails and Morgan Stanley's Non-Compliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order and Motion for Additional Relief is GRANTED.

2. MS & Co. shall continue to use its best efforts to comply with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order and shall continue to comply with the February 4, 2005 Order on Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.'s ore tenus Motion to Participate in Search of Additional E-Mail Back Up Tapes or Appoint Third Party to Conduct Search until March 21, 2005 or written notice from CPH, which ever first occurs. Either party shall notify the other in writing of its intention to offer into evidence e-mails actually produced to CPH prior to termination of e-mail discovery in conformity with this Order, within 72 hours of the e-mail's production to CPH. The Court shall hear and determine any objections to use of the e-mails.

3. The Court shall read to the jury the statement of facts attached as Exhibit A during whatever evidentiary phase of CPH's case that it requests, These findings of fact shall be conclusive. See Rule 1.380 (b) (2) (A). No instruction shall be given to the jury regarding inferences to be drawn from these facts. However, counsel may make such argument to the jury in favor of whatever inferences knowledge of or collusion with the Sunbeam fraud, which the Court finds is the least severe enumerated sanction appropriate to place the parties on a level playing field.

that evidence may support. No other evidence concerning the production of e-mails, or lack thereof, shall be presented absent further Court order.

4. CPH will be allowed to argue that MS & Co.'s concealment of its role in the Sunbeam transaction is evidence of its malice or evil intent, going to the issue of punitive damages. See, e.g., General Motors Corp. v. McGee, 837 So.2d 10120.

5. MS & Co. shall bear the burden of proving to the jury, by the greater weight of the evidence, that it lacked knowledge of the Sunbeam fraud and did not aid and abet or conspire with Sunbeam to defraud CPH. The traditional order of proof shall remain unaffected, however.

6. MS & Co. shall compensate CPH for costs and fees associated with the Motion. The amount shall be determined at an evidentiary hearing to be held after the completion of the trial.

7. Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Discovery Regarding Morgan Stanley's Destruction and Non-Production of E-Mails is Denied.

EXHIBIT A

A federal regulation in effect in 1997 and all times since required Morgan Stanley to preserve e-mails for three years and to preserve them in a readily accessible place for two years. Beginning in no later than 1997, Morgan Stanley had a practice of overwriting e-mails after 12 months. E-mails could no longer be retrieved once they were overwritten. This practice was discontinued in January, 2001. CPH has sought access to Morgan Stanley's e-mails relating to this transaction since the case was filed in May, 2003.

Prior to 2003, Morgan Stanley recorded e-mails and other electronic data on back up tapes. On April 16, 2004, the Court ordered Morgan Stanley to (1) search the oldest full backup tape for each of 36 Morgan Stanley employees involved in the Sunbeam transaction; (2) review e-mails dated from February 15, 1998 through April 15, 1998 and e-mails containing any of 29 specified search terms such as "Sunbeam" and "Coleman", regardless of their date; (3) produce by May 14, 2004 all e-mails relating to this case found by the search I have just described; and (4) certify its full compliance with the Court's order.

On May 14, 2004, Morgan Stanley produced approximately 1,300 pages of e-mails. It did not produce the required certification. On June 23, 2004, after inquiries by CPH, Morgan Stanley provided CPH with a certificate of full compliance with the April 16 Order signed by Arthur Riel, the Morgan Stanley manager assigned this task.

As organized by Morgan Stanley, the effort to recover e-mails from the backup tapes had several stages. First, the relevant backup tapes had to be located by searching the potential storage locations. Second, the tapes were sent to an outside vendor, National Data Conversion, Inc., which I will call "NDCI", to be processed, and the data returned to Morgan Stanley. Third, Morgan Stanley had to upload the processed data into its e-mail archive. Fourth, Morgan Stanley had to run scripts, or pieces of computer code, to transform this data into a searchable form. Finally, Morgan Stanley had to search the data for e-mails related to this case. Morgan Stanley personnel used the term "staging area" to describe the stage of the process when the processed data returned by NDCI remained in limbo, waiting to be uploaded to Morgan Stanley's archive.

035048

At some point prior to May 6, 2004, Arthur Riel and his team became aware that 1,423 backup tapes had been found at a Morgan Stanley facility in Brooklyn, New York. These 1,423 tapes had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive or searched when Morgan Stanley made its production to CPH on May 14, 2004. Aware of the tapes' discovery, Mr. Riel knew when he executed the certification of full compliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Order that it was false. He and others on Morgan Stanley's e-mail archive team knew by July 2, 2004 that these "Brooklyn tapes" contained e-mail dating back at least to the late 1990's. During the summer of 2004, the Brooklyn tapes were processed and the data sent to the staging area. The scripts for e-mails relating to this case were not written and tested to permit the search for e-mails relating to this case to begin until the middle of January, 2004. Such a search, even if perfectly done, can take weeks.

Morgan Stanley also failed to timely produce e-mails from 738 backup tapes found at a Morgan Stanley facility in Manhattan in 2002. These 738 tapes, like the 1,423 Brooklyn tapes, had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive and searched by either on May 14, 2004, when the Court's order required production, or June 23, 2004, when Morgan Stanley falsely certified that full production had been made. Mr. Riel and others were told by NDCI by July 2, 2004 that these tapes contained e-mail dating back at least to 1998. During the summer of 2004, the these tapes were processed and sent to the staging area. Like the Brooklyn tapes, though, they also were not searched.

In the course of these proceedings, Morgan Stanley represented to the Court that the first time anyone knew that there was recoverable e-mail data on the Brooklyn tapes was in October 2004. That statement was false. The actual date was at least three months earlier than that, no later than July 2, 2004.

In August 2004, Mr. Riel was relieved of his employment responsibilities for reasons unrelated to Morgan Stanley's false certification. He and his team were replaced by a new team headed by Allison Gorman Nachtigal. At that time, the staging area contained about 600 gigabytes of e-mail data that had not yet been uploaded into the Morgan Stanley archive and had not been searched for e-mails relating to this case. 600 gigabytes of data is the equivalent of approximately 30 million printed pages.

035049

to address the backlog of data in the staging area. Indeed, she was not informed of the existence of this litigation until five months later, in January 2005. In October 2004, Ms. Gorman gave the project somewhat greater priority, although even then it did not move as expeditiously as possible. Morgan Stanley did not consider using an outside contractor to expedite the process.

In November 2004, Morgan Stanley produced additional e-mails and attachments to CPH. Morgan Stanley told CPH that those materials came from newly discovered tapes. That statement was false. In fact, Morgan Stanley did not begin searching the materials from the staging area until January 2005.

Morgan Stanley found another 169 DLT tapes in January, 2005, that according to Morgan Stanley had been misplaced by its New Jersey storage vendor. Morgan Stanley later disclosed the existence of ~~discovered~~ more than 200 additional unsearched backup tapes openly stored in locations known to be used for tape storage, which Morgan Stanley claimed to have discovered on February 11 and 12, 2005.

On February 11, 2005 Morgan Stanley discovered that a flaw in the software it had written had prevented Morgan Stanley from locating all e-mail attachments about the Sunbeam transaction. Morgan Stanley also admits ~~discovered~~ on February 13, 2005, that the date-range searches for e-mail users who had a Lotus Notes platform were flawed, so that additional e-mail messages that appeared to fall within the scope of the April 16, 2004 Order had not been given to CPH. Further, it appears that the problem infected Morgan Stanley's original searches in May of 2004. The bulk of the employees using the Lotus Notes platform in the relevant time period came from the Investment Banking Division, the division responsible for the transaction under review here.

Morgan Stanley claims to have discovered defects in the searches on February 13, 2005. The defects in Morgan Stanley's searches were discovered and revealed only as a result of CPH's hiring of a third-party vendor, pursuant to the Court's Order on February 4, 2005, to double-check Morgan Stanley's compliance with the April 16, 2004 Order. On February 16, 2005, Morgan Stanley withdrew its certificate of compliance with the April 16, 2004 Order.

On February 19, 2005 Morgan Stanley notified CPH that it had found boxes of additional tapes that have not been uploaded into its archive or searched for responsive e-mails. Morgan Stanley did not tell CPH it had found any tapes that it had not searched until November 17, 2004. Even then, it did not tell CPH how many tapes were found, when they were found, or when they would be searched. MS & Co. did not provide all of this information to CPH until February of 2005. The searches had not yet been completed when this trial was begun, when they were terminated without completion.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR PALM
BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO.: 502003CA005045XXOCAI

COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS INC.
Plaintiff,

vs.

MORGAN STANLEY & CO., INC.,
Defendant.

FURTHER AMENDED ORDER ON COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS, INC.'S
MOTION FOR ADVERSE INFERENCE INSTRUCTION DUE TO MORGAN
STANLEY'S DESTRUCTIONS OF E-MAILS AND MORGAN STANLEY'S
NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE COURT'S APRIL 16 2004 AGREED ORDER,
AND MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL RELIEF AND ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
TO COMPEL FURTHER DISCOVERY REGARDING MORGAN STANLEY'S
DESTRUCTION AND NON-PRODUCTION OF E-MAILS

THIS CAUSE came before the Court on February 14, 2005 on Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc.'s ("CPH's") Motion for Adverse Inference Instruction Due to Morgan Stanley's Destruction of E-Mails and Morgan Stanley's Noncompliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order, as modified by CPH's February 14, 2005 ore tenus motion for additional relief, and on February 28, 2005 on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Discovery Regarding Morgan Stanley's Destruction and Non-Production of E-Mails, with both counsel present. Based on evidence introduced, the Court finds:

1. CPH has sued Defendant, Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc. ("MS & Co."), for fraud in connection with CPH's sale of its stock in Coleman, Inc., to Sunbeam Corporation in return for Sunbeam stock. Whether MS & Co. had knowledge of the fraudulent scheme undertaken by Sunbeam in 1997 and early 1998 and, if so, the extent of that knowledge, is central to the case. CPH has sought access to MS & Co.'s internal files, including e-mails, since the case was filed.

035052

2. Though MS & Co. instructed its investment bankers to preserve paper documents in their possession in connection with the Sunbeam transaction in February, 1999, it continued its practice of overwriting e-mails after 12 months, despite an SEC regulation requiring all e-mails be retained in readily accessible form for two years. See 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-4 (1997).

3. On April 16, 2004, the Court entered its Agreed Order requiring MS & Co. to (1) search the oldest full backup tape for each of 36 MS & Co. employees involved in the Sunbeam transaction; (2) review e-mails dated from February 15, 1998 through April 15, 1998 and e-mails containing any of 29 specified search terms such as "Sunbeam" and "Coleman", regardless of their date; (3) produce by May 14, 2004 all nonprivileged e-mails responsive to CPH's document requests; (4) give CPH a privilege log; and (5) certify its full compliance with the Agreed Order.

4. On May 14, 2004, MS & Co. produced approximately 1,300 pages of e-mails but failed to provide the required certification. Finally, on June 23, 2004, after inquiries by CPH, MS & Co. provided CPH with a certificate of full compliance with the April 16 Agreed Order signed by Arthur Riel, the MS & Co. manager assigned this task.

5. As organized by MS & Co., the effort to recover e-mails from any remaining backup tapes had several stages. First, the relevant backup tapes (in various formats, such as "DLT" tapes and eight-millimeter tapes) had to be located by searching the potential storage locations. Second, the tapes were sent to an outside vendor, National Data Conversion, Inc. ("NDC"), to be processed, and the data returned to MS & Co. in the form of "SDLT" tapes. Third, MS & Co. had to find a way to upload the contents of these SDLT tapes into its new e-mail archive. Fourth, MS & Co. would run "scripts" to transform this data into a searchable form, so that it could later be searched for responsive e-mails. MS & Co. personnel used the term "staging area" to describe the stage of the process when SDLT tapes remained in limbo, waiting to be uploaded to the archive.

6. At some point prior to May 6, 2004, Arthur Riel and his team became aware that more than 1,000 backup tapes had been found at a MS & Co. facility in Brooklyn, New York. These 1,423 DLT tapes had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive or searched when MS & Co. made its supposedly complete production on May 14, 2004, and when Mr. Riel certified full compliance with the Agreed Order on June 23, 2004. Aware of the tapes' discovery, Mr. Riel knew when he executed the certification that it was false. He and others on MS & Co.'s e-mail archive team knew by July 2, 2004 that these "Brooklyn tapes" contained e-mail dating back at least to the late 1990's. MS & Co. neither withdrew its certification nor informed CPH about the potential for additional production of e-mails, however. During the summer of 2004, the Brooklyn tapes were processed and sent to the staging area, but they were not uploaded to the e-mail archive so as to be available to be searched until January 2005, at least eight months after they were found.

7. MS & Co. also failed to timely produce e-mails from 738 8-millimeter backup tapes found at a MS & Co. facility in Manhattan, in 2002. These 738 8-mm tapes, like the 1,423 Brooklyn tapes, had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive and searched when MS & Co. made its supposedly complete production on May 14, 2004, and when Mr. Riel certified full compliance with the Agreed Order on June 23, 2004. Mr. Riel and others were told by their vendor, NDCI, by July 2, 2004 that the 8-mm tapes contained e-mail dating back at least to 1998. MS & Co. neither withdrew its certification nor informed CPH about the potential for additional production of e-mails, though. During the summer of 2004, the 8-mm tapes were processed and sent to the staging area. Like the Brooklyn tapes, though, they also were not uploaded to MS & Co.'s e-mail archive.

8. In August 2004, Mr. Riel was relieved of his employment responsibilities. He and his team were replaced by a new team headed by Allison Gorman Nachtigal.

9. Ms. Gorman testified that she was instructed to describe the circumstances of Mr. Riel's replacement as his having been "placed on administrative leave." That same term appears by interlineation over the original typed description in MS & Co.'s memorandum addressing these issues. The typed language stated: "[Mr. Riel was] dismissed for integrity issues." MS & Co. represented that the reason for the adverse action taken against Mr. Riel was unrelated to any concern about the accuracy of his June 23, 2004 certification. However, MS & Co. presented no evidence to explain why Mr. Riel would have been placed on administrative leave rather than terminated. CPH argued that it may have been to deprive CPH of the ability to contact him directly.

10. Upon taping over Mr. Riel's responsibilities, Ms. Gorman did not initially make significant efforts to address the backlog of data in the staging area; indeed, she was not informed of the existence of this litigation until five months later, in January 2005. In October 2004, Ms. Gorman met with a group of MS & Co. attorneys. Following that meeting, Ms. Gorman gave the project somewhat greater priority, although even then it clearly did not move as expeditiously as possible. For example, MS & Co. gave no thought to using an outside contractor to expedite the process of completing the discovery, though it had certified completion months earlier; it lacked the technological capacity to upload and search the data at that time, and would not attain that capacity for months; and it knew trial was scheduled to begin in February, 2005. Even at this point, no one from MS & Co. or its outside counsel, Kirkland & Ellis LLP, gave CPH or this Court any hint that the June certification was false.

11. On November 17, 2004, more than six months after the May 14, 2004 deadline for producing e-mails in response to the Agreed Order, MS & Co. sent CPH a letter revealing that its June 23 certificate of compliance was incorrect. The letter stated:

Morgan Stanley has discovered additional e-mail backup tapes since our e-mail production in May 2004. The data on some of [the] newly discovered tapes has been restored and, to ensure continued compliance with the agreed order, we have re-run the searches described in the order. Some responsive e-mails have been located as a result of that process. We will produce the responsive documents to you as soon as the production is finalized.

The letter also foreshadowed further delays: “(s)ome of the backup tapes are still being restored. To ensure continued compliance with the agreed order, we intend to re-run the searches again when the restoration process is complete and will produce any responsive documents that result.”

12. The next day, November 18, 2004, MS & Co. produced an additional 8,000 pages of e-mails and attachments. MS & Co.’s November 2004 letter stated that the 8,000 pages came from “newly discovered” tapes; but the testimony now makes clear that this statement was false because Ms. Gorman’s team did not figure out how to upload and make searchable the materials from the staging area until January, 2005.

13. MS & Co. has failed to offer any explanation to reconcile the obvious conflict between its assertions at the time of production that the 8,000 pages came from “newly discovered” tapes (i.e., the “Brooklyn tapes”) and the testimony of its own witness, Ms. Gorman, that data from those newly discovered tapes were not capable of being searched until two months later, in January.

14. After a follow-up inquiry by CPH, on December 17, 2004, MS & Co. produced a privilege log and told CPH that “[n]o additional responsive e-mails have been located since our November production.” MS & Co. refused to answer CPH’s questions about whether MS & Co. had restored all the backup tapes described in its November 17 letter and why the tapes had not been located earlier, however.

15. On December 30, 2004, CPH sought confirmation that MS & Co. had reviewed all e-mail backup tapes and produced all responsive e-mails and, if not, asked when the review would be completed. On January 11, 2005, MS & Co. informed CPH that the “restoration of e-mail backup tapes is ongoing. Restoration of the next set of backup tapes is estimated to be completed at the end of January. We intend to re-run the searches described in the agreed order at that time.”

16. On January 19, 2004, CPH wrote asking MS & Co. to explain the circumstances under which MS & Co. located the “newly discovered” backup tapes and to disclose when the tapes were located. CPH also asked MS & Co. to explain why the backup tapes could not be restored sooner.

17. On January 21, 2005, MS & Co. sent CPH a letter that failed to answer CPH’s questions. Instead, MS & Co. described its efforts to restore the backup tapes as “ongoing”; informed CPH that “there is no way for MS & Co. to know or accurately predict the type or time period of data that might be recovered”; and stated that MS & Co. “cannot accurately estimate when all of the tapes will be restored or whether any recoverable data will be found on the remaining tapes.”

18. On January 26, 2005, CPH filed the Motion at issue here, asking the Court to instruct the jury that MS & Co.’s destruction of e-mails and other electronic documents and MS. & Co.’s noncompliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order can give rise to an adverse inference that the contents of the missing e-mails would be harmful to MS & Co.’s defense in this case.

19. Meanwhile, MS & Co. found another 169 DLT tapes in January, 2005, that allegedly had been misplaced by its New Jersey storage vendor, Recall. Again, MS & Co., chose to provide no specifics to CPH or to the Court.

20. At a February 2, 2005 hearing on CPH’s Motion, Thomas A. Clare of Kirkland & Ellis, LLP, representing MS & Co., stated that “late October of 2004...[is] the date I’m representing to the Court is the first time that anyone knew that there was recoverable e-mail data” on the Brooklyn tapes. Hr’g Tr. (2/2/05) at 133-34. The actual date, however, was at least three months earlier, by July 2, 2004. Furthermore, MS & Co. refused to provide the Court with definitive answers about when its e-mail production would be complete, merely stating that it would proceed with “all deliberate speed.” Id. at 139. Also at the February 2 hearing, Mr. Clare neglected to inform the Court about the 8-mm

tapes that had been located in 2002, and told the Court that the 1,423 DLT tapes had been found in Brooklyn "sometime during the summer" of 2004. The truth of this assertion is belied by the evidence showing that the tapes were found before May 6, 2004.

21. On February 3, 2005, the Court ordered further discovery and set an evidentiary hearing for February 14, 2005. The discovery took place on February 9 and 10, when CPH deposed the three e-mail witnesses identified by MS. & Co.

22. On Saturday afternoon, February 12, 2005, MS & Co. informed the Court that it had, in the previous 24 hours, discovered additional tapes. Also, MS & Co. stated that its recent production omitted certain "attachments" to e-mails. MS & Co. did not attempt to clarify or substantiate either of these statements to CPH or to the Court until the Monday, February 14, 2005 hearing.

23. At the February 14 hearing, none of the witnesses MS & Co. presented was involved in or familiar with the actual electronic searches conducted using the parameters specified in this Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order, and none explained where the 8,000 pages produced in November, 2004 had come from. MS & Co.'s witnesses did, however, describe three new developments. First, Robert Saunders, a Morgan Stanley executive director in the Information Technology Division, testified that he returned to New York after his February 10 deposition and, concerned about his unqualified deposition assertion that he was "confident" that a complete search for backup tapes had been conducted, decided finally to undertake a personal search of MS & Co.'s "communication rooms," going to the areas he thought most obvious first. By doing so, he and two contractors discovered more than 200 additional backup tapes openly stored in locations known to be used for tape storage. Those discoveries were made on Friday and Saturday, February 11 and 12, 2005. As of the February 14 hearing, NDCI had not yet determined which, if any, of these newly discovered backup tapes contained e-mails. Second, Ms. Gorman reported that on Friday, February 11, 2005 she and her team had discovered that a flaw in the software they had written had prevented MS & Co. from locating all responsive e-mail attachments. Third, Ms. Gorman reported that MS & Co. discovered on Sunday evening, February 13, 2005, that the date-range searches for e-mail users who had a Lotus Notes platform were flawed, so there were at least 7,000 additional e-mail messages that appeared to fall within the scope of the Agreed Order had yet to be fully reviewed by MS. & Co.'s outside counsel for responsiveness and privilege. As counsel for MS & Co. admitted, this problem "dwarf[s]" their previous problems. Hr'g Tr. (2/14/05) at 13. Ms. Gorman indicated she was "90 percent sure" that the problem infected MS & Co.'s original searches in May, which means that MS & Co. even then failed to timely produce relevant materials that had been uploaded into the archive by that point. Id. at 82-83. The bulk of the employees using the Lotus Notes platform in the relevant time period came from the Investment Banking Division, the division responsible for the transaction under review here.

24. On February 19, 2005 MS & Co. informed counsel for CPH that "additional boxes of back up tapes" have been located "in a security room" and that, "(a)s of this morning, Morgan Stanley has identified four (unlabeled) DLT tapes among the collection. Those four tapes will be sent to NDCI for further analysis." The disclosure did not state when the discovery was made. MS & Co.'s counsel represented to the Court that it was his understanding that about 73 bankers' boxes of tapes were discovered. No explanation for the late discovery was offered.

25. Throughout this entire process, MS & Co. and its counsels' lack of candor has frustrated the Court and opposing counsel's ability to be fully and timely informed.

26. MS & Co.'s failure during the summer and fall of 2004 to timely process a substantial amount of data that was languishing in the "staging area," rather than being put into searchable form and then searched, was willful and a gross abuse of its discovery obligations.

27. MS & Co.'s failure to timely notify CPH of the existence of the DLT and 8-mm tapes, which it had located as early as 2002 and certainly prior to the June 23, 2004 certification, and its failure to timely process those raw backup tapes was willful and a gross abuse of its discovery obligations.

28. MS & Co.'s failure to produce all e-mail attachments was negligent, and it was discovered and revealed only as a result of CPH's hiring a third-party vendor, pursuant to the Court's February 4, 2005 Order, to double-check MS & Co.'s compliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order.

29. MS & Co.'s failure to produce all of the Lotus Notes e-mails was negligent, and it was discovered and revealed only as result of CPH's hiring a third-party vendor, pursuant to the Court's February 4, 2005 Order, to double-check MS & Co.'s compliance with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order.

30. MS & Co.'s failure to locate other potentially responsive backup tapes before Saturday, February 12, 2005 was grossly negligent.

31. Given the history of the discovery, there is no way to know if all potentially responsive backup tapes have been located.

32. In sum, despite MS & Co.'s affirmative duty arising out of the litigation to produce its e-mails, and contrary to federal law requiring it to preserve the e-mails, MS & Co. failed to preserve many e-mails and failed to produce all e-mails required by the Agreed Order. The failings include overwriting e-mails after 12 months; failing to conduct proper searches for tapes that may contain e-mails; providing a certificate of compliance known to be false when made and only recently withdrawn; failing to timely notify CPH when additional tapes were located; failing to use reasonable efforts to search the newly discovered tapes; failing to timely process and search data held in the staging area or notify CPH of the deficiency; failing to write software scripts consistent with the Agreed Order; and discovering the deficiencies only after CPH was given the opportunity to check MS & Co.'s work and the MS & Co.'s attorneys were required to certify the completeness of the prior searches. Many of these failings were done knowingly, deliberately, and in bad faith.

It is clear that e-mails existed which were requested by CPH that have not been produced because of the deficiencies discussed above. Electronic data are the modern-day equivalent of the paper trail. Indeed, because of the informalities of e-mail, correspondents maybe less guarded than with paper correspondence. In this case, the paper trail is critical to CPH's ability to make out its prima facie case. Thus, MS & Co.'s acts have severely hindered CPH's ability to proceed. The only way to test the potentially self-serving testimony of MS & Co. personnel is with the written record of the events.

The failures outlined in this Order are of two types. First, by overwriting e-mails contrary to its legal obligation to maintain there in readily accessible form for two years and with knowledge that legal action was threatened, MS & Co. has spoiled evidence, justifying sanctions. See Martino v. Wal-Mart Stores Inc., 835 So. 2d 1251 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003). "The appropriateness of sanctions for failing to preserve evidence depends on: (1) willfulness or bad faith of the responsible party, (2) the extent of prejudice suffered by the other party, and (3) what is required to cure the prejudice." Nationwide Lift Trucks Inc. v. Smith, 832 So. 2d 824, 826 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002). Second, MS & Co.'s willful disobedience of the Agreed Order justifies sanctions. See Rule 1.380 (b) (2), Fla. R. Civ. P. The conclusion is inescapable that MS & Co. sought to thwart discovery in this specific case.

Sanctions in this context are not meant to be punitive. They are intended, though, to level the playing field.

A reasonable juror could conclude that evidence of MS & Co.'s misconduct demonstrates its consciousness of guilt. It is relevant to the issues before the jury. Further, CPH should not be penalized by being forced to divert the jurors' attention away from the merits of its claim to focus on highly technical facts going to MS & Co.'s failures here, facts that are not reasonably disputed. Evidence of that failure, though, alone does not make CPH whole. Indeed, it can be said it is not a "sanction" at all, but merely a statement of unrefuted facts that the jury may find relevant. Shifting the burden of proof, though, forces MS & Co. to accept the practical consequence of its failures-that some information will never be known. Obviously, this sanction is of consequence only in the marginal case. If there is overwhelming proof of MS & Co.'s knowledge of the fraud and collusion with Sunbeam, CPH would have prevailed on those elements in any event. And, to the contrary, if there is overwhelming evidence MS & Co. did not know of the fraud or conspire with or aid Sunbeam in its commission, it would have prevailed in any event. If the case is close on those issues, though, MS & Co., not CPH, should bear the burden of persuasion. Further, shifting the burden on the fraud issue does not relieve CPH of its obligation to establish the other elements of its claims, most notably reliance, proof of which is independent of the MS & Co. e-mails. Thus, the sanctions chosen are the most conservative available to the Court to address the spoliation of evidence and willful violation of the Agreed Order.^{1 2}

035061

Finally, the Court notes that CPH has requested the e-mails since May of 2003. MS & Co. was supposed to comply with the April 16, 2004 Order by May 14, 2004. Fact discovery in this case closed November 24, 2004. MS & Co.'s actions have resulted in the diversion of enormous amounts of resources, by both the parties and the Court, into a fact discovery dispute that should have never arisen and which would have long ago been put to bed had MS & Co. timely recognized its obligations to CPH and this Court. Opening argument in this complex case is set for March 21, 2005. Preliminary jury selection has

² The undersigned notes that the sanctions imposed are not enumerated in Rule 1.380 (b) (2), and is aware of the concern expressed in the 2000 Handbook on Discovery Practice, Joint Committee of the Trial Lawyers Section of the Florida Bar and Conferences of Circuit and County Court Judges ("(f)or the trial court to be on solid footing, it is wise to stay within the enumerated orders" [Handbook at p. 4]). However, MS & Co.'s violations involve both the violation of a discovery order and the intentional spoliation of evidence. The sanction imposed is less severe than that provided in Rule 1.380 (b) (2) (B), under which the Court could preclude MS & Co. from presenting evidence of its lack of knowledge of or begun. MS & Co. has controlled the timetable of this portion of the litigation long enough. Consequently, CPH should have the ability to continue to require MS & Co, to attempt to comply with the Agreed Order and the February 4, 2005 Order on Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.'s ore tenus Motion to Participate in Search of Additional E-Mail Back Up Tapes or Appoint Third Party to Conduct Search, or to elect to terminate the e-mail discovery and concentrate on trial preparation.

Based on the foregoing, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. Plaintiff's Motion for Adverse Interference Instruction Due to Morgan Stanley's Destructions of E-Mails and Morgan Stanley's Non-Compliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Agreed Order and Motion for Additional Relief is GRANTED.

2. MS & Co. shall continue to use its best efforts to comply with the April 16, 2004 Agreed Order and shall continue to comply with the February 4, 2005 Order on Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.'s ore tenus Motion to Participate in Search of Additional E-Mail Back Up Tapes or Appoint Third Party to Conduct Search until March 21, 2005 or written notice from CPH, which ever first occurs. Either party shall notify the other in writing of its intention to offer into evidence e-mails actually produced to CPH prior to termination of e-mail discovery in conformity with this Order, within 72 hours of the e-mail's production to CPH. The Court shall hear and determine any objections to use of the e-mails.

3. The Court shall read to the jury the statement of facts attached as Exhibit A during whatever evidentiary phase of CPH's case that it requests, These findings of fact shall be conclusive. See Rule 1.380 (b) (2) (A). No instruction shall be given to the jury regarding inferences to be drawn from these facts. However, counsel may make such argument to the jury in favor of whatever inferences collusion with the Sunbeam fraud, which the Court finds is the least severe enumerated sanction appropriate to place the parties on a level playing field.

that evidence may support. No other evidence concerning the production of e-mails, or lack thereof, shall be presented absent further Court order.

4. CPH will be allowed to argue that MS & Co.'s concealment of its role in the Sunbeam transaction is evidence of its malice or evil intent, going to the issue of punitive damages. See, e.g., General Motors Corp. v. McGee, 837 So.2d 10120.

5. MS & Co. shall bear the burden of proving to the jury, by the greater weight of the evidence, that it lacked knowledge of the Sunbeam fraud and did not aid and abet or conspire with Sunbeam to defraud CPH. The traditional order of proof shall remain unaffected, however.

6. MS & Co. shall compensate CPH for costs and fees associated with the Motion. The amount shall be determined at an evidentiary hearing to be held after the completion of the trial.

7. Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Discovery Regarding Morgan Stanley's Destruction and Non-Production of E-Mails is Denied.

EXHIBIT A

A federal regulation in effect in 1997 and all times since required Morgan Stanley to preserve e-mails for three years and to preserve them in a readily accessible place for two years. Beginning in no later than 1997, Morgan Stanley had a practice of overwriting e-mails after 12 months. E-mails could no longer be retrieved once they were overwritten. This practice was discontinued in January, 2001. CPH has sought access to Morgan Stanley's e-mails relating to this transaction since the case was filed in May, 2003.

Prior to 2003, Morgan Stanley recorded e-mails and other electronic data on back up tapes. On April 16, 2004, the Court ordered Morgan Stanley to (1) search the oldest full backup tape for each of 36 Morgan Stanley employees involved in the Sunbeam transaction; (2) review e-mails dated from February 15, 1998 through April 15, 1998 and e-mails containing any of 29 specified search terms such as "Sunbeam" and "Coleman", regardless of their date; (3) produce by May 14, 2004 all e-mails relating to this case found by the search I have just described; and (4) certify its full compliance with the Court's order.

On May 14, 2004, Morgan Stanley produced approximately 1,300 pages of e-mails. It did not produce the required certification. On June 23, 2004, after inquiries by CPH, Morgan Stanley provided CPH with a certificate of full compliance with the April 16 Order signed by Arthur Riel, the Morgan Stanley manager assigned this task.

As organized by Morgan Stanley, the effort to recover e-mails from the backup tapes had several stages. First, the relevant backup tapes had to be located by searching the potential storage locations. Second, the tapes were sent to an outside vendor, National Data Conversion, Inc., which I will call "NDCI", to be processed, and the data returned to Morgan Stanley. Third, Morgan Stanley had to upload the processed data into its e-mail archive. Fourth, Morgan Stanley had to run scripts, or pieces of computer code, to transform this data into a searchable form. Finally, Morgan Stanley had to search the data for e-mails related to this case. Morgan Stanley personnel used the term "staging area" to describe the stage of the process when the processed data returned by NDCI remained in limbo, waiting to be uploaded to Morgan Stanley's archive.

035065

At some point prior to May 6, 2004, Arthur Riel and his team became aware that 1,423 backup tapes had been found at a Morgan Stanley facility in Brooklyn, New York. These 1,423 tapes had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive or searched when Morgan Stanley made its production to CPH on May 14, 2004. Aware of the tapes' discovery, Mr. Riel knew when he executed the certification of full compliance with the Court's April 16, 2004 Order that it was false. He and others on Morgan Stanley's e-mail archive team knew by July 2, 2004 that these "Brooklyn tapes" contained e-mail dating back at least to the late 1990's. During the summer of 2004, the Brooklyn tapes were processed and the data sent to the staging area. The scripts for e-mails relating to this case were not written and tested to permit the search to begin until the middle of January, 2004. Such a search, even if perfectly done, can take weeks.

Morgan Stanley also failed to timely produce e-mails from 738 backup tapes found at a Morgan Stanley facility in Manhattan in 2002. These 738 tapes, like the 1,423 Brooklyn tapes, had not been processed by NDCI and thus had not been included in the archive and searched by either May 14, 2004, when the Court's order required production, or June 23, 2004, when Morgan Stanley falsely certified that full production had been made. Mr. Riel and others were told by NDCI by July 2, 2004 that these tapes contained e-mail dating back at least to 1998. During the summer of 2004, these tapes were processed and sent to the staging area. Like the Brooklyn tapes, though, they also were not searched.

In the course of these proceedings, Morgan Stanley represented to the Court that the first time anyone knew that there was recoverable e-mail data on the Brooklyn tapes was in October 2004. That statement was false. The actual date was at least three months earlier than that, no later than July 2, 2004.

In August 2004, Mr. Riel was relieved of his employment responsibilities for reasons unrelated to Morgan Stanley's false certification. He and his team were replaced by a new team headed by Allison Gorman Nachtigal. At that time, the staging area contained about 600 gigabytes of e-mail data that had not yet been uploaded into the Morgan Stanley archive and had not been searched for e-mails relating to this case. 600 gigabytes of data is the equivalent of approximately 30 million printed pages.

Upon taking over Mr. Riel's responsibilities, Ms. Gorman did not initially make significant efforts to address the backlog of data in the staging area. Indeed, she was not informed of the existence of this litigation until five months later, in January 2005. In October 2004, Ms. Gorman gave the project somewhat greater priority, although even then it did not move as expeditiously as possible. Morgan Stanley did not consider using an outside contractor to expedite the process.

In November 2004, Morgan Stanley produced additional e-mails and attachments to CPH. Morgan Stanley told CPH that those materials came from newly discovered tapes. That statement was false. In fact, Morgan Stanley did not begin searching the materials from the staging area until January 2005.

Morgan Stanley found another 169 DLT tapes in January, 2005, that according to Morgan Stanley had been misplaced by its New Jersey storage vendor. Morgan Stanley later disclosed the existence of more than 200 additional unsearched backup tapes openly stored in locations known to be used for tape storage, which Morgan Stanley claimed to have discovered on February 11 and 12, 2005.

On February 11, 2005 Morgan Stanley discovered that a flaw in the software it had written had prevented Morgan Stanley from locating all e-mail attachments about the Sunbeam transaction. Morgan Stanley also admits that the date-range searches for e-mail users who had a Lotus Notes platform were flawed, so that additional e-mail messages that appeared to fall within the scope of the April 16, 2004 Order had not been given to CPH. Further, it appears that the problem infected Morgan Stanley's original searches in May of 2004. The bulk of the employees using the Lotus Notes platform in the relevant time period came from the Investment Banking Division, the division responsible for the transaction under review here.

Morgan Stanley claims to have discovered defects in the searches on February 13, 2005. The defects in Morgan Stanley's searches were discovered and revealed only as a result of CPH's hiring of a third-party vendor, pursuant to the Court's Order on February 4, 2005, to double-check Morgan Stanley's compliance with the April 16, 2004 Order. On February 16, 2005, Morgan Stanley withdrew its certificate of compliance with the April 16, 2004 Order.

On February 19, 2005 Morgan Stanley notified CPH that it had found boxes of additional tapes that have not been uploaded into its archive or searched for responsive e-mails. Morgan Stanley did not tell CPH it had found any tapes that it had not searched until November 17, 2004. Even then, it did not tell CPH how many tapes were found, when they were found, or when they would be searched. MS & Co. did not provide all of this information to CPH until February of 2005. The searches had not yet been completed when this trial was begun, when they were terminated without completion.

PALM BEACH COUNTY, FL
CIRCUIT CIVIL

Material Redacted Without Prior Determination of Protectability by Court

MORGAN STANLEY'S MOTION FOR AN ADVERSE INFERENCE INSTRUCTION

This Court has already found that "Morgan Stanley knew Sunbeam litigation was likely as of March of 1998," and that, accordingly, Morgan Stanley had an "affirmative duty" to preserve its documents as of that date. (Feb. 15, 2005 Hrg. at 613:19-23.) But just as Morgan Stanley had a duty to preserve documents once it reasonably could anticipate litigation, so too did Plaintiff Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. and its affiliates (collectively "CPH"). Yet the record is clear that CPH repeatedly and flagrantly breached its duty by systematically destroying emails and electronic documents relating to the Sunbeam transaction. Indeed, CPH was actually destroying emails and electronic documents at the very same time that it was threatening litigation against Sunbeam and its advisors. As a result, the best evidence of what information CPH knew and relied on during the Sunbeam transaction has been lost forever, and Morgan Stanley's ability to defend itself in this lawsuit has been prejudiced irreparably.

035726

To rectify the fundamental disadvantage at which Morgan Stanley finds itself because of CPH's systematic, intentional and inexcusable destruction of relevant emails and electronic documents concerning Sunbeam, the Court should impose a sanction on CPH that is sufficient to

1529

“level the playing field.” (Mar. 1, 2005 Order on CPH’s Mot. for Adverse Inference Instruction at 11.) Nothing less than an adverse inference instruction — that CPH either did not rely upon representations made by Morgan Stanley or already knew all of the information that it now claims Morgan Stanley wrongfully withheld, and that the jury is entitled to infer from the fact that CPH intentionally destroyed the materials that those materials would have been harmful to CPH’s case — will be sufficient to remedy the prejudice that Morgan Stanley has suffered. Such an adverse inference instruction is especially appropriate here, given that CPH’s spoliation was only part of a larger pattern of discovery transgressions that included its inexplicable withholding, and then unjustifiable redaction, of documents relating to the valuation of the Sunbeam warrants.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Although CPH did not file its Complaint in this case until May 2003, CPH knew or should have known that shortly after the late March 1998 closing, litigation involving its Sunbeam transaction was reasonably likely. The likelihood of litigation became even more clear by June 6, 1998, when Barron’s, a reputable and widely-read financial newspaper, published a lengthy article detailing a laundry list of accounting and other problems at Sunbeam, including “gimmickry,” “shenanigans,” “puffery” and “wizardry.” (Jonathan R. Laing, “Dangerous Games: Did “Chainsaw Al” Dunlap Manufacture Sunbeam’s Earnings Last Year?” Barron’s via Dow Jones, June 6, 1998 (CPH Tr. Ex. 321) (Ex. 1).) By June 30, 1998, the problems at Sunbeam were even more clear to CPH. It was on that date that Sunbeam publicly acknowledged that its financial statements, and the report of Arthur Andersen regarding those statements, “should not be relied upon.” (June 30, 1998 Sunbeam Audit Committee to Conduct Review of Company’s 1997 Financial Statements (MS 511) (Ex. 2).) Indeed, one week later, CPH’s Vice Chairman Howard Gittis actually sent a letter to Sunbeam threatening “

035727

” (July 6, 1998 Gittis Letter to Fannin (MS 232) (Ex. 3).) Not long after, on August 12, 1998, CPH entered into a settlement agreement with Sunbeam. Of great significance to this motion, that August 1998 settlement agreement specifically contemplated future claims against “any financial advisor to Sunbeam” by excluding such litigation from the releases in the agreement. (Aug. 12, 1998 Settlement Agreement between Sunbeam and CPH at 1 (MS 96) (Ex. 4).) Moreover, CPH’s corporate representative on document retention issues, Steven Fasman, admitted at his deposition that CPH was aware of the potential for litigation related to the Sunbeam transaction by 1998. (Sept. 15, 2003 Fasman Dep. at 63:18-64:10 (Ex. 5).)

Despite the fact that CPH reasonably should have anticipated the likelihood of litigation relating to the Sunbeam transaction by shortly after the March 30, 1998 closing, the record is clear that CPH made absolutely no effort to preserve its electronic documents and emails relating to the transaction. Here was the troubling sworn testimony of CPH’s Steven Fasman on this issue:

Q. Were the people who Mr. Golden [CPH’s vice president who was originally charged with CPH’s search for documents] contacted in that instance instructed to provide electronic documents?

A. No.

Q. Were they instructed to search for electronic documents?

A. No.

* * *

Q. In Mr. Golden's collection of documents for the securities litigation did he collect from anyone any electronic documents?

A. No.

(Fasman Dep. at 18:12-17, 99:5-8, 107:12-18; see also Fasman Dep. at 96:5-12, 108:6-10 (admission by Golden that he also failed to search for documents on network servers).)

Indeed, far from taking steps to preserve electronic documents as it was legally obligated to do, CPH instead intentionally and systematically destroyed those documents in accordance with a company-wide policy instructing employees to delete materials. (April 21, 1997 Corporate Email Policy at 3 (MS 62) (Ex. 6); Jan. 21, 2004 Fasman Dep. at 42:3-16 (“2004 Fasman Dep.”) (Ex. 7).) That policy permitted individual CPH employees, without any legal guidance, to use their own discretion about what emails and electronic documents to retain. It further mandated that all emails be _____ from CPH’s computer systems after 30 days:¹

(MS 62 at 3 (emphasis added); see also 2004 Fasman Dep. at 42:3-16.)

This policy, obviously, is flatly inconsistent with CPH’s obligation, once it reasonably anticipates litigation, to preserve all documents relevant to such litigation. CPH should have immediately suspended its aggressive document destruction policy and, instead, preserved all relevant emails and electronic documents. But CPH did not do so. Indeed, it was not until 2001, when CPH filed a Sunbeam-related lawsuit against Arthur Andersen, that CPH finally sent a notice to its employees instructing them to halt their systematic destruction of Sunbeam-related emails and electronic documents. (2004 Fasman Dep. at 163:17-21, 164:8-11.) But at that point, of course, it was too late. Emails and electronic documents relevant to the Sunbeam transaction were irretrievably gone.

As a result of CPH's conduct, CPH has produced less than 60 pages of emails relating to the Sunbeam transaction in this litigation. In sharp contrast, Morgan Stanley has produced more than 13,300 pages of emails related to the transaction.

CPH's systematic destruction of its emails and electronic documents is only the latest example of CPH's conscious disregard of its discovery obligations in this case. As detailed in two recent Morgan Stanley motions,² CPH deliberately withheld, and then unjustifiably redacted, documents relating to the valuation of the Sunbeam warrants that it received in connection with the Sunbeam settlement. When those documents were finally produced in a proper manner, they revealed for the first time that CPH's key witnesses, including Mr. Perelman and CPH's damages expert, had misrepresented the value of the warrants and overstated CPH's damages claim by tens of millions of dollars. CPH's production of these documents is still not complete, as evidenced by its delivery — as recently as 12:15 am on March 8, 2005 — of more documents relevant to these key damages issues. Given CPH's overall pattern of multiple discovery transgressions, its destruction of emails and other electronic documents related to the Sunbeam acquisition is all the more egregious.

² See Feb. 23, 2005 Morgan Stanley's Motion for Additional Discovery Regarding MAFCO'S Internal Valuation of Sunbeam Stock and Feb. 22, 2005 Morgan Stanley's Motion for Sanctions and Additional Discovery Concerning Plaintiffs' Improper Concealment of the Value of the Sunbeam Warrant.

ARGUMENT

I. MORGAN STANLEY IS ENTITLED TO AN ADVERSE INFERENCE INSTRUCTION.

A. CPH Had A Duty To Preserve Sunbeam-Related Emails And Electronic Documents.

As this Court knows from its earlier ruling regarding Morgan Stanley, “[a] party has a duty to preserve evidence they know or reasonably should know to be relevant to a pending or potential case.” Exotic Botanicals, Inc. v. EI DuPont de Nemours & Co., No. 99-12597 CA 23, 2000 WL 34016277, at *5 (Fla. 11th Jud. Dist. Jan. 21, 2000); see also Banco Latino S.A.C.A. v. Gomez Lopez, 53 F. Supp. 2d 1273, 1277 (S.D. Fla. 1999) (noting that there is a duty to preserve documents that “are or may be relevant to litigation or potential litigation”); Telectron, Inc. v. Overhead Door Corp., 116 F.R.D. 107, 127 (S.D. Fla. 1987) (“Sanctions may be imposed against a litigant who is on notice that documents and information in its possession are relevant to litigation, or potential litigation, or are reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and destroys such documents and information.”); Zubalake v. UBS Warburg LLC, 220 F.R.D. 212, 216 (S.D.N.Y. 2003) (a party has a duty to preserve evidence “when the party has notice that the evidence is relevant to litigation or when a party should have known that the evidence may be relevant to future litigation”) (internal quotations & citation omitted).

Here, CPH clearly knew or should have known that its emails and electronic documents related to the Sunbeam transaction were relevant to potential litigation by shortly after the March 30, 1998 closing. It should have been even more obvious to CPH that litigation was likely after Barron's published its scathing report about Sunbeam on June 6, 1998 and, again, after Sunbeam publicly acknowledged that its financial statements, and the report of Arthur Andersen regarding those statements “should not be relied upon.” (MS 511.) That latter event actually prompted

CPH's Vice Chairman Howard Gittis — one of CPH's trial witness in this case — to send a letter to Sunbeam threatening

(MS 232.) Moreover, on August 12, 1998, CPH entered into a settlement agreement with Sunbeam that specifically contemplated future litigation against “any financial advisor to Sunbeam” — a clear indication that CPH recognized the likelihood of litigation with Morgan Stanley, in particular. (See MS 96 at 1.) Similarly, the deposition testimony of CPH's own corporate representative further confirms that CPH was fully aware that litigation related to the Sunbeam transaction was imminent during 1998. (Fasman Dep. at 63:18-64:10.)

B. CPH Intentionally And Systematically Breached Its Preservation Duty.

The evidence is undisputed that despite CPH's duty to preserve evidence related to the Sunbeam transaction, CPH did absolutely nothing at that time to preserve its relevant emails and other electronic documents. Significantly, CPH did not even send its employees a preservation notice instructing them to retain their electronic materials related to the Sunbeam transaction, or suspend its practice of deleting emails and other electronic documents, until it commenced its lawsuit against Arthur Andersen in 2001. This was three years after CPH knew that litigation related to the Sunbeam acquisition was probable. (2004 Fasman Dep. at 160:9-20.) The law is clear that this kind of lengthy delay is unacceptable. “Once a party reasonably anticipates litigation, it must suspend its routine document retention/destruction policy and put in place a ‘litigation hold’ to ensure the preservation of relevant documents.” Zubalake, 220 F.R.D. at 218; see also Linnen v. A.H. Robins Co., Inc., No. 97-2307, 1999 WL 462015, at *10 (Mass. Super. Ct. June 16, 1999) (explaining that once a party is aware of the need to preserve evidence, “the customary recycling of back-up tapes for the electronic mail system should have been suspended.”). CPH did neither of those things and, as a result, its emails and electronic documents relating to the Sunbeam transaction were permanently destroyed.

C. An Adverse Inference Instruction Is Necessary To “Level The Playing Field.”

When a party destroys evidence that it knows or reasonably should know to be relevant to a pending or potential case, “an instruction may be given concerning the inference that the withheld or missing evidence would be unfavorable to the party failing to produce the evidence.” Amlan, Inc. v. Detroit Diesel Corp., 651 So. 2d 701, 703 (Fla. 4th DCA 1995); see also Martino v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 835 So. 2d 1251, 1257 (Fla. 4th DCA 2003) (“an adverse inference may arise in any situation where potentially self-damaging evidence is in the possession of a party and that party either loses or destroys the evidence”). “The appropriateness of sanctions for failing to preserve evidence depends on: (1) willfulness or bad faith of the responsible party, (2) the extent of prejudice suffered by the other party, and (3) what is required to cure the prejudice.” Nationwide Lift Trucks, Inc. v. Smith, 832 So. 2d 824, 826 (Fla. 4th DCA 2002).

Here, there can be little doubt that CPH’s destruction of its emails and electronic documents was done willfully and in bad faith. This conclusion is readily apparent from the fact that CPH was fully aware that it had a litigation-related duty to preserve evidence related to the Sunbeam transaction, yet did nothing to live up to that duty. Indeed, CPH’s own corporate representative testified that he knew that “you have a duty to retain documents that you have reasonable belief might be called for in connection with ... litigation.” (Fasman Dep. at 134:15-20.) But despite this awareness of its obligation to preserve relevant evidence, CPH did absolutely nothing to preserve its emails and electronic documents until more than three years later.

The conclusion that CPH’s destruction of its emails and electronic documents was done willfully and in bad faith is buttressed even further by the fact that the destruction of those materials is only one example of CPH’s conscious disregard of its discovery obligations in this case. As discussed above, CPH deliberately withheld and then unjustifiably redacted documents relating to the valuation of the Sunbeam warrants that it received in connection with the Sunbeam settlement. Given CPH's overall pattern of multiple discovery transgressions, its destruction of emails and other electronic documents related to the Sunbeam acquisition is all the more egregious.³

CONCLUSION

Because CPH's intentional destruction of its emails and electronic documents has severely prejudiced Morgan Stanley's ability to defend itself, the Court should impose a sanction on CPH that is sufficient to "level the playing field." (Mar. 1, 2005 Order at 11.) Nothing less than a suitable adverse inference instruction will be sufficient to remedy the prejudice that Morgan Stanley has suffered as a result of CPH's blatant and intentional spoliation of evidence.

³ Morgan Stanley is mindful that the Court's March 1, 2005 Order granting CPH an adverse inference instruction against Morgan Stanley relied, in part, on the fact that Morgan Stanley had an independent regulatory duty to preserve emails for three years pursuant to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-4 (1997). (Mar. 1, 2005 Order ¶ 2.) As will be set forth more fully in a forthcoming motion, Morgan Stanley believes that the Court's reliance on the SEC regulation was based on a misapprehension regarding the effect that Morgan Stanley's compliance with the regulation would have had on its ability to produce additional emails in this case. Given the fact that CPH did not file its Complaint until May 2003, the oldest emails that Morgan Stanley would then have been under an obligation to preserve under the SEC regulation would have dated from May 2000, more than two years after the events at issue in this case. As such, the only way that CPH could possibly have been prejudiced by the absence of Sunbeam-related emails was based on Morgan Stanley's failure to fulfill its separate duty to preserve evidence relevant to potential litigation. CPH, of course, owed that exact same duty. In addition, it appears that CPH itself may have failed to fulfill its own regulatory obligation when it submitted Sunbeam-related materials to the Federal Trade Commission as part of Hart-Scott-Rodino Premerger Notification before closing of the Sunbeam transaction. CPH was obligated under the law to produce key documents, such as those upon which it relied in deciding whether to enter into the Sunbeam transaction, whether those materials were in hard-copy or electronic form. Those kinds of deal-related documents, had they been preserved, could be critical to Morgan Stanley's defenses here. Sworn testimony from CPH's Steven Fasman that CPH employees were not asked to search for Sunbeam-related electronic documents until the fall of 2001 calls into question whether CPH ever fulfilled its regulatory duty to the Federal Trade Commission.

035734

For the foregoing reasons, Morgan Stanley's Motion for An Adverse Inference Instruction should be granted. The Court should instruct the jury that (1) CPH was required to preserve its emails and other electronic documents; (2) despite its legal obligation, CPH destroyed its emails and other electronic documents; and (3) CPH's actions give rise to the inference that (a) CPH either did not rely upon representations made by Morgan Stanley or already knew all of the information that it now claims Morgan Stanley wrongfully withheld, and (b) the jury is entitled to infer from the fact that CPH intentionally destroyed the materials that those materials would have been harmful to CPH's case.

Dangerous Games: Did "Chainsaw Al" Dunlap manufacture Sunbeam's earnings last year? — By Jonathan R. Laing

Barron's via Dow Jones

Albert Dunlap likes to tell how confidants warned him in 1996 that taking the top job at the small-appliance maker Sunbeam Corp. would likely be his Vietnam. For a time, the 60-year-old West Point graduate seemingly proved the Cassandras wrong. As the poster boy of 'Nineties-style corporate cost-cutting, he delivered exactly the huge body counts and punishing airstrikes that Wall Street loved. He dumped half of Sunbeam's 12,000 employees by either laying them off or selling the operations where they worked. In all, he shuttered or sold about 80 of Sunbeam's 114 plants, offices and warehouses.

Sunbeam's sales and earnings responded, and so did its stock price, rising from $12.50 a share the day Dunlap took over in July 1996 to a high of 53 in early March of this year.

But last month Sunbeam suffered a reversal of fortune that was as sudden and traumatic for Dunlap as the Viet Cong's Tet offensive was to U.S. forces in 1968. After several mild warnings of a possible revenue disappointment, Sunbeam shocked Wall Street by reporting a loss of $44.6 million for the first quarter on a sales decline of 3.6%. In a trice, the Sunbeam cost-cutting story was dead, along with "Chainsaw Al" Dunlap's image as the supreme maximizer of shareholder value. Now Sunbeam stock has fallen more than 50% from its peak, to a recent 22.

And just as suddenly, what was supposed to be an easy sprint, Dunlap's last hurrah as a corporate turnaround artist, has turned into a grinding marathon. Lying in tatters is his growth scenario for Sunbeam, based on supposedly sexy new offerings such as soft-ice cream makers, fancy grills, home water purifiers and air-filter appliances. Many of the new products have bombed in the marketplace or run into serious quality problems. Moreover, Sunbeam has run into all manner of production, quality and delivery problems. It recently announced the closing of two Mexican manufacturing facilities with some 2,800 workers, citing the facilities' lamentable performance. Dozens of key executives, members of what Dunlap just months ago called his Dream Team, are bailing out. And now he faces another year or more of the wrenching restructuring that's needed to mend Sunbeam with its recently announced acquisitions, including the camping-equipment maker Coleman Co., the smoke-detector producer First Alert and Signature Brands USA, best known for its Mr. Coffee line of appliances. These acquisitions will double the size of a company whose wheels are coming off. This may not be Vietnam, but it sure ain't Kansas, Toto.

Sunbeam declined to discuss the company's problems with Barron's. In some ways, Dunlap seems to have morphed into a latter-day Colonel Kurtz of the movie Apocalypse Now, increasingly out of touch with the grim realities of Sunbeam's situation and suspicious of friend and foe alike. For example, Wall Street is still buzzing over a confrontation that Dunlap had with PaineWebber analyst Andrew Shore at a Sunbeam meeting with the financial community in New York three weeks ago. Shore had the temerity to ask several questions that Dunlap deemed impertinent, and Dunlap snarled, "You son of a bitch. If you want to come after me, I'll come after you twice as hard."

Shore, the first major analyst to downgrade Sunbeam's stock in April when word began to circulate of a possible first-quarter earnings debacle, is still upset over the incident. "As far as I'm concerned, Al is the most over-rated CEO in America," he grouses. "He's nothing but a bully who speaks in sound bites and completely lacks substance."

Despite Sunbeam's latest reversal of fortune, don't expect Al Dunlap to be headed for the poorhouse any time soon. Though the swoon in Sunbeam shares has vaporized the value of the options held by most of the company's executives and managers, Dunlap's huge option and stock grants are still worth about $70 million, down from a peak value of over $300 million when the stock was at its high. Moreover, in February Dunlap negotiated a new contract, doubling his annual base salary to $2 million. Under a rich benefits package, Sunbeam even foots the bill for Dunlap and his wife's first-class air fare from Florida, where Sunbeam is headquartered, to Philadelphia so that Dunlap can visit his personal dentist to keep his latest bridge comfy and pearly white. Limo charges and overnights at the Four Seasons hotel are included as well. All this from the self-styled champion of shareholder value.

We can't say we are surprised by Sunbeam's current woes. In a cover story last year entitled "Careful, Al" (June 16), we cast a skeptical eye at Dunlap's growth objectives in the low-margin, cutthroat small-appliance industry. We also pointed out the yawning gap between Sunbeam's performance claims and reality. We took special note of Sunbeam's accounting gimmickry, which appeared to have transmogrified through accounting wizardry the company's monster 1996 restructuring charge ($337 million before taxes) into 1997's eye-popping sales and earnings rebound. But to no avail. Wall Street remained impressed by Sunbeam's earnings, and the stock continued to rise from a price of 37 at the time of the story.

Sunbeam's financials under Dunlap look like an exercise in high-energy physics, in which time and space seem to fuse and bend. They are a veritable cloud chamber. Income and costs move almost imperceptibly back and forth between the income statement and balance sheet like charged ions, whose vapor trail has long since dissipated by the end of any quarter, when results are reported. There are also some signs of other accounting shenanigans and puffery, including sales and related profits booked in periods before the goods were actually shipped or payment received. Booking sales and earnings in advance can comply with accounting regulations under certain strict circumstances.

"We had an amazing year," Dunlap crowed in Sunbeam's recently released 1997 annual report, taking an impromptu victory lap for the profit of $109.4 million, or $1.41 a share, on sales of $1.2 billion. Sunbeam had every incentive to try to shoot the lights out in 1997. Dunlap and crew were convinced they would be able to attract a buyer for the company just as they had done in the second year of their restructuring of Scott Paper in 1995, when Dunlap managed to fob Scott off on Kimberly-Clark for $9 billion. They openly shopped Sunbeam around in the second half of last year, but the offer never came. The rising stock price made the company too expensive, and would-be buyers were also deterred by the nightmares Kimberly-Clark experienced after buying Scott.

Yet, sad to say, the earnings from Sunbeam's supposed breakthrough year appear to be largely manufactured. That, at least, is our conclusion after close perusal of the company's recently released 10-K, with a little help from some people close to the company.

Start with the fact that in the 1996 restructuring, Sunbeam chose to write down to zero some $90 million of its inventory for product lines being discontinued and other perfectly good items. Even if Sunbeam realized just 50 cents on the dollar by selling these goods in 1997 (in some cases, they reportedly did even better), that would account for about a third of last year's net income of $109.4 million.

One has to go to the 1997 year-end balance sheet to detect more of mother's little helpers. One notes a striking $23.2 million drop, from $40.4 million in 1996 to $17.2 million in 1997, in pre-paid expenses and other current assets. There's no mystery here, according to a former Sunbeam financial type. The huge restructuring charge in 1996 made it a lost year anyway, so Sunbeam pre-paid everything it could, ranging from advertising and packaging costs to insurance premiums and various inventory expenses.

The result: Costs expensed for 1997 were reduced markedly, if unnaturally. This artifice alone probably yielded an additional $15 million or so in 1997 after-tax income.

Why did Sunbeam's "Other Current Liabilities" mysteriously drop by $18.1 million and "Other Long-Term Liabilities" fall by $19 million in 1997? The answer is simple, according to folks close to the company. Various reserves for product warranties and other items that were set aside during Sunbeam's giant 1996 restructuring were drained down in 1997, creating perhaps an additional $25 million or so in additional net income for the year.

On top of all that, as part of the 1996 restructuring charge, Sunbeam reduced the value of its property, plant, equipment and trademarks by $92 million. Though some of these charges applied to assets Sunbeam was selling off, the bulk of the charge related to on-going operations. This allowed Sunbeam to lower its depreciation and amortization expense on the 1997 income statement by nearly $9 million. That would create about $6 million of additional after-tax income.

Oddly enough, the figure for net property, plant and equipment on Sunbeam's balance sheet still rose during 1997, to $241 million from $220 million the year before. This is likely an indication that such costs as product development, new packaging and some advertising and marketing initiatives were capitalized or put straight on the balance sheet instead of being expensed in the year they were incurred, as was the previous practice. In this manner, expenses could have been shifted from 1997 into future years, when they can be burned off at a slower, more decorous pace afforded by multi-year depreciation schedules. Why else would Sunbeam's advertising and promotion expense drop by some $15 million, from $71.5 million in 1996 to $56.4 million last year? Particularly when Sunbeam trotted out a splashy national television ad campaign in 1997 to boost consumer demand for its new products. This advertising shortfall alone contributed another $10 million to Sunbeam's 1997 profits.

The company also got a nice boost from a 64% drop in its allowance for doubtful accounts and cash discounts, from $23.4 million in 1996 to $8.4 million in 1997. And this decline occurred despite a 19% rise in Sunbeam's sales last year. The milking of this bad debt reserve in 1997 likely puffed net income by an additional $10 million or so.

Then there's the mystery of why Sunbeam's inventories exploded by some 40%, or $93 million, during 1997. Quite possibly, Sunbeam was playing games with its inventories to help the income statement. By running plants flat out and building inventories, a company can shift fixed overhead costs from the income statement to the balance sheet where they remain ensconced as part of the value of the inventory until such time as the inventory is sold. To be conservative, let's assume this inventory buildup might have helped Sunbeam's profits to the tune of, say, $10 million.

Lastly, there are more than superficial indications that Sunbeam jammed as many sales as it could into 1997 to pump both the top and bottom lines. The revenue games began innocently enough early last year. Sales were apparently delayed in late 1996, a lost year anyway, and rammed into 1997. Likewise, The Wall Street Journal reported several instances of "inventory stuffing" during 1997, in which Sunbeam either sent more goods than had been ordered by customers or shipped goods even after an order had been cancelled. But these are comparatively venial sins that companies engage in all the time to make a quarter's results look better. Besides, Sunbeam gave the plausible excuse at the time that glitches in a computer system consolidation in the first quarter had them flying blind for a time.

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 (the "Coleman Merger Agreement"), by and among Sunbeam, Camper Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam ("Camper Acquisition"), and Coleman, Camper Acquisition is to be merged with and into Coleman (the "Coleman Merger"), with the surviving corporation becoming an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the Holdings Merger, Sunbeam acquired an indirect approximately 82% interest in Coleman (the "Coleman Acquisition"); and

WHEREAS, Sunbeam and Coleman Parent are parties to a Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March 29, 1998 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), pursuant to which Sunbeam agreed to provide certain registration rights to Coleman Parent; and

WHEREAS, following the dismissal by Sunbeam of certain of its executive officers in mid-June 1998, Coleman Parent has made available to Sunbeam certain senior officers employed by members of the Coleman Group to serve as senior executive officers of Sunbeam (the "Senior Executives") and has provided certain other management support to Sunbeam, and Sunbeam desires to continue the service of the Senior Executives and such management support; and

WHEREAS, Coleman Parent and Sunbeam believe it is desirable that Sunbeam put in place as promptly as possible a permanent management team to prevent jeopardizing the ongoing operations and financial viability of Sunbeam; and

WHEREAS, Coleman Parent believes that it possesses legal and equitable claims against Sunbeam arising out of the Coleman Acquisition and out of what it contends were certain breaches of contract and fraudulent and negligent or other misrepresentations and omissions made to Coleman Parent and its representatives in connection therewith (the "Claims"), and Sunbeam disputes such Claims; and

WHEREAS, there are also now pending or may be filed putative class actions in which Sunbeam is named as a defendant and in which Coleman Parent is a class member (the "Class Actions"), and Sunbeam denies liability with respect to and intends to contest the claims that have been asserted in the Class Actions; and

WHEREAS, the accountants who audited Sunbeam's 1997 financial statements, assisted by another firm of accountants, are in the process of reviewing those financial statements, and believe, as has been publicly announced, that it will be necessary to restate those financial statements by reflecting a variety of adjustments the magnitude of which has not yet been determined; and

WHEREAS, Sunbeam and Coleman Parent desire to terminate the disputes between them, and desire to assure one another that Coleman Parent will not prosecute the Claims or any related or potential claims arising out of or relating to the Coleman Acquisition, directly or indirectly in any capacity, against the Sunbeam Group, so as to avoid the substantial burdens and expense of litigation and the interference with the business and operations of Sunbeam and with the work of its management and employees and to obtain the continued services of certain executives and employees of the Coleman Group, and in accordance with the terms and provisions hereof, that Coleman Parent and Sunbeam each forever release, waive and discharge any and all manner of actions, causes of action, proceedings, suits, claims, demands, liens, debts, accounts, obligations, rights, costs, contracts, agreements, promises, controversies, judgments, expenses, demands, damages and liabilities, of any nature whatsoever, in law or in equity, whether or not now first seen, known, suspected, matured, accrued or claimed, and whether or not asserted in litigation, including court costs and attorneys' fees (each an "Action and Liability" and collectively, "Actions and Liabilities"), which any member of the Coleman Group controlling, controlled by or under common control with Coleman Parent (such persons, together with Coleman Parent, the "Coleman Controlled Group") may have against any member of the Sunbeam Group and which any member of the Sunbeam Group controlled by Sunbeam (such persons, together with Sunbeam, the "Sunbeam Controlled Group") may have against any member of the Coleman Group as of the effective date hereof or prior thereto in any manner arising out of or relating to the Coleman Acquisition, irrespective of any present lack of knowledge on the part of either of them of any such possible Action and Liability, but excluding any claim for breach of this Agreement or the agreements and documents entered into or delivered pursuant hereto;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the respective covenants, agreements and conditions hereinafter set forth and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, and intending to be bound hereby, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Issuance of Warrants; Closing.

(a) On the basis of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements and subject to the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted) of the applicable conditions expressly set forth herein, at the closing of the transactions contemplated by this Section 1 (the "Closing"):

(i) Sunbeam shall issue to Coleman Parent certain warrants to purchase shares of Sunbeam Common Stock (the "Warrants") by duly executing and delivering to Coleman Parent a Warrant Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit A hereto (the "Warrant Agreement");

(ii) Sunbeam and Coleman Parent shall enter into an amendment to the Registration Rights Agreement, in the form attached as Exhibit B hereto (as so amended, the "Amended Registration Rights Agreement");

(iii) Sunbeam and Coleman Parent agree to be bound by the releases and covenants set forth in Section 2 of this Agreement;

(iv) Coleman Parent agrees to supply management services of the Senior Executives, and to the covenants and provisions of Section 3 of this Agreement; and

(v) Sunbeam and Coleman Parent agree to be bound by the provisions regarding the restrictions on transfer on the shares of Sunbeam Common Stock received by Coleman Parent in the Holdings Merger and the Warrants set forth in Section 4 of this Agreement.

(b) The Closing shall take place on the first day when all conditions thereto set forth herein shall be satisfied or waived or such other date as Sunbeam and Coleman Parent may agree in writing (the "Closing Date"), but in no event sooner than the tenth day following the mailing of the letter to Sunbeam shareholders contemplated by Section 7. The Closing shall take place on the Closing Date at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, at the offices of Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, 51 West 52nd Street, New York, New York and shall be deemed effective as of the opening of business on the Closing Date.

(c) At the Closing, Sunbeam shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Coleman Parent, in addition to the Warrant Agreement, such other instruments or documents as Coleman Parent may reasonably request.

2. Granting of Releases and Indemnification.

(a) At the Closing, simultaneously with receipt by Coleman Parent of the Warrants, and without any further action by any of the parties hereto, each of the following shall be fully and legally effective:

(i) Coleman Parent shall, on behalf of itself and on behalf of each other member of the Coleman Controlled Group, remise, release and forever discharge the Sunbeam Group of and from all debts, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, accounts, covenants, contracts, agreements, damages, and any and all claims, demands and liabilities whatsoever of every name and nature, both in law and in equity, against any of the Sunbeam Group or any of their predecessors, successors or assigns, which Coleman Parent or any other member of the Coleman Controlled Group has or ever had from the beginning of the world to the Closing with respect to or arising out of the Coleman Acquisition or any alleged misrepresentations and omissions and/or breach of contract by any member of the Sunbeam Group and parties acting on behalf of any member of the Sunbeam Group in connection with the Coleman Acquisition, including with respect to the Actions and Liabilities; provided that neither the foregoing release nor the dismissals or withdrawals described in this Section 2(a) shall apply to the rights of Coleman Parent and any other member of the Coleman Controlled Group under Article IX of the Holdings Merger Agreement, any breach or failure to comply with this Agreement, the Warrant, the Amended Registration Rights Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the transactions contemplated by the Coleman Merger Agreement (including the Coleman Merger), which shall not be terminated or amended in any respect hereby, or shall otherwise affect Coleman Parent's right to enforce this Agreement, the Warrant or the Amended Registration Rights Agreement in accordance with its or their terms.

(ii) In the event any member of the Coleman Controlled Group pursues a claim against any person(s) not released hereby involving the matters that are the subject of the release set forth in Section 2(a)(i) and it is finally judicially determined that such person(s) are entitled directly or indirectly to indemnification or contribution from any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group for any amounts they are required to pay to any member of the Coleman Controlled Group in connection with such claims, or to reimbursement of litigation expenses solely attributable to such claims of any member of the Coleman Controlled Group (each a "Sunbeam Group Indemnification Obligation"), Coleman Parent will indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group against such Sunbeam Group Indemnification Obligation. No member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group will enter into any settlement of a Sunbeam Group Indemnification Obligation without the prior written consent of Coleman Parent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any amounts so paid by a member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group in a settlement so consented to by Coleman Parent shall be treated for purposes hereof as a Sunbeam Group Indemnification Obligation.

(iii) Sunbeam, on behalf of itself and on behalf of each other member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group, shall remise, release and forever discharge the Coleman Group of and from all debts, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, accounts, covenants, contracts, agreements, damages, and any and all claims, demands and liabilities whatsoever of every name and nature, both in law and in equity, against any of the Coleman Group or any of their predecessors, successors or assigns, which Sunbeam or any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group has or ever had from the beginning of the world to the Closing with respect to or arising out of the Coleman Acquisition or any alleged misrepresentations and omissions and/or breach of contract by any member of the Coleman Group and parties acting on behalf of any member of the Coleman Group in connection with the Coleman Acquisition, including with respect to the Actions and Liabilities; provided that neither the foregoing release nor the dismissals or withdrawals described in this Section 2(a) shall apply to the rights of Sunbeam and any other member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group under Article IX of the Holdings Merger Agreement, any breach or failure to comply with this Agreement, the Warrant, the Amended Registration Rights Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the transactions contemplated by the Coleman Merger Agreement (including the Coleman Merger), which shall not be terminated or amended in any respect hereby, or shall otherwise affect Sunbeam's right to enforce this Agreement, the Warrant or the Amended Registration Rights Agreement in accordance with its or their terms.

(iv) In the event any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group pursues a claim against any person(s) not released hereby involving the matters that are the subject of the release set forth in Section 2(a)(iii) and it is finally judicially determined that such person(s) are entitled directly or indirectly to indemnifica-

tion or contribution from any member of the Coleman Controlled Group for any amounts they are required to pay to any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group in connection with such claims, or to reimbursement of litigation expenses solely attributable to such claims of any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group, (each, a "Coleman Group Indemnification Obligation"), Sunbeam will indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Coleman Controlled Group against such Coleman Group Indemnification Obligation. No member of the Coleman Controlled Group will enter into any settlement of a Coleman Group Indemnification Obligation without the prior written consent of Sunbeam, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any amounts so paid by a member of the Coleman Controlled Group in a settlement so consented to by Sunbeam shall be treated for purposes hereof as a Coleman Group Indemnification Obligation.

(v) Sunbeam, on behalf of itself, and on behalf of each other member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group, and Coleman Parent, on behalf of itself and on behalf of each other member of the Coleman Controlled Group, agree to indemnify and hold harmless one another from and against any and all Actions and Liabilities arising from, or in connection with, any action or proceeding, brought by, or prosecuted by, or on the initiative of, either of them, or by any of their predecessors, successors or assigns, contrary to the provisions of this Agreement. It is further agreed that this agreement of indemnity shall be deemed breached and a cause of action shall be deemed to have accrued thereon immediately upon the commencement of any action contrary to this Agreement, and that in any such action this Agreement may be pleaded by either of them as a defense, or either of them may assert this Agreement by way of counterclaim or cross-claim in any such action.

(vi) This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon Sunbeam and Coleman Parent, and to the benefit of and shall be binding upon each person or entity in the Sunbeam Group and the Coleman Group.

(b) Coleman Parent agrees that it shall opt out, as to and only as to any claims against any member of the Sunbeam Group, of any class that may be certified in any of the Class Actions or in any other action that may be certified as a class action with respect to or arising out of any other matter released hereby.

3. Provision of Management Services.

(a) The parties hereto acknowledge that Coleman Parent has caused other members of the Coleman Group to make available to Sunbeam the services of certain employees and Senior Executives and has encouraged such persons to continue to provide services to Sunbeam as employees of Sunbeam.

(b) Coleman Parent agrees that it shall, and it shall use its reasonable efforts to cause the other members of the Coleman Group to, continue to, for a minimum period of 36 months from the date hereof, make available to Sunbeam the services of Coleman

Group's employees who are Senior Executives, or who become Senior Executives, for so long as they remain employees of a member of the Coleman Group and otherwise to continue to provide advice and assistance to Sunbeam in connection with the business and operations of Sunbeam consistent with that provided to date; provided, however, that, other than pursuant to the employment arrangements currently in place between such employees and members of the Coleman Group, no member of the Coleman Group shall be required bear any incremental expense with respect to any Senior Executive in order to comply with the foregoing.

(c) Sunbeam agrees to pay the compensation of any such persons who become employees of Sunbeam in accordance with the terms of the employment arrangements entered into by Sunbeam with such persons. This Agreement shall not prevent any of the Senior Executives from continuing to perform services for members of the Coleman Group to the extent that the provision of such services does not materially interfere with the performance of services by the Senior Executive for Sunbeam under his employment arrangements with Sunbeam.

(d) Coleman Parent agrees to use its reasonable efforts to cause the other members of the Coleman Group to continue, for a period of 36 months from the date hereof, to provide assistance and support to Sunbeam on a basis consistent with the manner in which such assistance and support are generally provided to other companies in which members of the Coleman Group have a substantial interest (and without the payment of additional consideration by Sunbeam to Coleman Parent, other than with respect to the reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses paid to third parties) and of a similar nature to those which have been so provided to Sunbeam from time to time from mid-June 1998 through the date hereof, including as to the following matters:

- (i) financings, and dealings with financing sources and the capital markets;
 - (ii) investor and public relations;
 - (iii) acquisitions, divestitures and other extraordinary transactions;
 - (iv) executive benefits and compensation and other personnel matters;
- and
- (v) compliance, litigation, insurance, regulatory and other legal matters.

4. Restrictions on Transfer of Securities. Coleman Parent hereby agrees not to, directly or indirectly, for a period of three (3) years from the date hereof, Transfer (as such term is defined in Section 7.1 of the Holdings Merger Agreement) (A) any shares of Sunbeam Common Stock received pursuant to the terms of the Holdings Merger Agreement or (B) any of the Warrants or the Warrant Shares (as defined in the Warrant Agreement), in either case in whole or in part, other than to one of its Affiliates (as such term is defined in the Holdings Merger Agreement) who agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this Section 4, except that (A) the holder or holders of such shares of Sunbeam Common Stock may at any time or from time to time Transfer so many of such shares of Sunbeam Common Stock as represent in the aggregate seventy-five percent (75%) of such shares of Sunbeam Common Stock, and (B) the holder or holders of the Warrants or the Warrant Shares may at any time or from time to time Transfer so many of the Warrants or the Warrant Shares as represent in the aggregate fifty (50%) of the Warrant Shares Amount (as defined in the Warrant Agreement). The provisions of this Section 4 shall not be applicable, and Coleman Parent shall be free to Transfer any and all shares of Sunbeam Common Stock, Warrants and Warrant Shares, (i) following any change of control of Sunbeam or (ii) in connection with any transaction in which the holders of all of the outstanding shares of Sunbeam Common Stock have the opportunity to Transfer at least 50% of their shares of Sunbeam Common Stock on the same terms. The provisions of this Section 4 shall supersede any and all other restrictions on Transfer that Coleman Parent or any of its Affiliates may have agreed to with Sunbeam or any of its Affiliates.

5. Representations and Warranties of Sunbeam. Sunbeam hereby represents and warrants to Coleman Parent as follows:

(a) Due Authorization. This Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Sunbeam, and no other corporate actions or proceedings on the part of Sunbeam (including any action on the part of its stockholders) are necessary to authorize this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed by a duly authorized officer of Sunbeam and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Sunbeam enforceable against it in accordance with its terms. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Sunbeam (the "Audit Committee") has expressly approved the transactions contemplated hereby as contemplated by Paragraph 312 ("Paragraph 312") of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") Listed Company Manual and has determined that delay in securing shareholder approval of the transactions contemplated hereby would seriously jeopardize the financial viability of the Company. Upon application duly made by Sunbeam, the NYSE has advised that it has accepted Sunbeam's reliance on the exception to the shareholder approval policy of Paragraph 312 as contained therein in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby (the "Exception").

(b) Due Organization. Sunbeam is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has the requisite corporate power to enter into and perform this Agreement and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted.

(c) No Conflicts. No filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any governmental or regulatory authority is necessary for the consummation by Sunbeam of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than as may be required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act with respect to the exercise of the Warrants. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Sunbeam nor the consummation by Sunbeam of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by Sunbeam with any of the provisions hereof, will (i) conflict with or result in any breach of any provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Sunbeam; (ii) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any material contract or of any material license, franchise, permit, concession, certificate of authority, order, approval, application or registration of, from or with any governmental authority to which Sunbeam is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets may be bound; or (iii) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Sunbeam or any of its properties or assets.

(d) Validity of Warrants and Underlying Shares. At the Closing, the issuance of the Warrants will have been duly authorized and, upon their issuance pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the Warrants will be validly issued and will not be subject to any preemptive or similar right other than the rights and obligations under the Warrant Agreement. All shares of Sunbeam Common Stock to be issued upon the exercise of the Warrants, when issued, will be duly authorized and validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and will not be subject to any preemptive or similar right.

(e) Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of Sunbeam consists of 500,000,000 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock, and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $.01 per share, of Sunbeam. As of the date hereof, (i) 100,860,129 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were issued and outstanding (excluding any shares of Sunbeam Common Stock issued upon the exercise of Sunbeam Stock Options (as defined below) since August 6, 1998); (ii) 7,199,452 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were issuable upon the consummation of the Coleman Merger Agreement; (iii) 13,242,050 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were issuable in accordance with the terms of the Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Subordinated Debentures due 2018 of the Company; and (iv) no shares of Sunbeam preferred stock were issued and outstanding. As of the date hereof, not more than 9,000,000 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were issuable upon exercise of vested and unvested employee and non-employee stock options (the "Sunbeam Stock Options") outstanding under all stock option plans of Sunbeam or granted pursuant to employment agreements (although Sunbeam is contesting the validity of certain of such Sunbeam Stock Options). As of the date hereof, no shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were held as treasury shares. All of the issued and outstanding shares of Sunbeam Common Stock are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. As of the date hereof, except as set forth above, there are no shares of capital stock of Sunbeam issued or outstanding or, except as set forth above, any options, warrants, subscriptions, calls, rights, convertible securities or other agreements or commitments obligating Sunbeam to issue, transfer, sell, redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or securities, or the capital stock or securities of Sunbeam. There are no notes, bonds, debentures or other indebtedness of Sunbeam having the right to vote (or convertible into or exchangeable for securities having the right to vote) on any matters upon which stockholders of Sunbeam may vote.

(f) Brokers. Other than Blackstone Financial Group, which has acted as financial advisor to the Special Committee of the Sunbeam Board, no broker, investment banker or other person is entitled to any broker's, finder's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Sunbeam or any member of the Sunbeam Group.

6. Representations and Warranties of Coleman Parent. Coleman Parent hereby represents and warrants to Sunbeam as follows:

(a) Due Authorization. This Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Coleman Parent, and no other corporate actions or proceedings on the part of the Coleman Parent (including any action on the part of its stockholders) are necessary to authorize this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed by a duly authorized officer of Coleman Parent and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Coleman Parent enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

(b) Due Organization. Coleman Parent is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of State of Delaware and has the requisite corporate power to enter into and perform this Agreement.

(c) No Conflicts. No filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any governmental or regulatory authority is necessary for the consummation by Coleman Parent of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than as may be required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act with respect to the exercise of the Warrants. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Coleman Parent nor the consummation by Coleman Parent of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by Coleman Parent with any of the provisions hereof, will (i) conflict with or result in any breach of any provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Coleman Parent; (ii) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any material contract or of any material license, franchise, permit, concession, certificate of authority, order, approval, application or registration of, from or with any governmental authority to which Coleman Parent is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets may be bound; or (iii) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Coleman Parent or any of its properties or assets.

(d) Acquisition of Warrants for Investment. Coleman Parent is acquiring the Warrants (and will acquire any Warrant Shares upon exercise of the Warrants) for its own account for investment purposes only and not with a view toward or for a sale in connection with, any distribution thereof, or with any present intention of distributing or selling any of such in violation of federal or state securities laws.

(e) Brokers. No broker, investment banker or other person is entitled to any broker's, finder's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Coleman Parent or any member of the Coleman Group.

7. Covenants.

(a) Within one day following the date hereof, Sunbeam shall cause to be mailed to all shareholders of Sunbeam a letter informing them of the transactions contemplated hereby as contemplated and required by Paragraph 312 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual and indicating that the Audit Committee has expressly approved the Exception in light of the Audit Committee's determination that delay in securing shareholder approval of the transactions contemplated hereby would seriously jeopardize the financial viability of the Company and that the NYSE has accepted the Company's reliance on the Exception.

(b) The anti-dilution provisions of the Warrant shall be given retroactive effect to the date hereof.

8. Specific Performance. The parties acknowledge that money damages are an inadequate remedy for breach of this Agreement. Therefore, the parties agree that each of them has the right, in addition to (and not in lieu of) any other right they may have under this Agreement or otherwise, to specific performance of this Agreement in the event of any breach hereof by any other party.

9. Conditions to the Obligations of both Parties. The obligations of each of Sunbeam and Coleman Parent to effect the transactions contemplated hereby shall be conditioned on the non-existence of any order, decree or injunction of a court of competent jurisdiction which restrains the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

10. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing:

(a) by mutual agreement of the Boards of Directors of Coleman Parent and Sunbeam; or

(b) by Coleman Parent if the Warrants to be issued to Coleman Parent pursuant hereto have not been issued or will not be issued at the Closing or if there has been a material violation or breach by Sunbeam of any agreement, representation or warranty contained in this Agreement which has rendered the satisfaction of any condition to the obligations of Coleman Parent impossible and such violation or breach has not been waived by Coleman Parent; or

(c) by Sunbeam if there has been a material violation or breach by Coleman Parent of any agreement, representation or warranty contained in this Agreement which has rendered the satisfaction of any condition to the obligations of Sunbeam impossible and such violation or breach has not been waived by Sunbeam.

In the event of termination and abandonment of this Agreement by Coleman Parent or Sunbeam or both of them pursuant to the terms of this Section 10, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given to the other party and this Agreement shall terminate and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be abandoned, without further action by any of the parties hereto.

11. Expenses. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby will be paid by the party incurring such costs and expenses.

12. Tax Matters. Coleman Parent shall in good faith provide to Sunbeam information concerning the tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), of the transactions contemplated hereby. Sunbeam shall report such transactions for all tax purposes consistent with such information and take no position with any taxing authority inconsistent therewith. Coleman Parent and Sunbeam shall report the Holdings Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Code Section 368(a) for all tax purposes.

13. Best Efforts. Each of the parties hereto agrees to use its best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all action, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In case at any time after the Closing any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, the proper officers and directors of each corporation which is a party to this Agreement shall take all such necessary action.

14. Parties in Interest; Assignments. This Agreement is binding upon and is solely for the benefit of the parties hereto, the Sunbeam Group and the Coleman Group and their respective successors and legal representatives.

15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the agreements to be entered into and delivered pursuant hereto constitutes the entire agreement between Sunbeam and Coleman Parent with respect to the subject matter hereof, and it is expressly understood and agreed that this Agreement may not be altered, amended, modified, or otherwise changed in any respect or particular whatsoever, except by a writing duly executed by authorized representatives of both Sunbeam and Coleman Parent. No party to this Agreement has relied upon any representation or warranty, written or oral, except as expressly included herein.

16. Amendments. This Agreement may not be modified, amended, altered or supplemented except upon the execution and delivery of a written agreement executed by the parties hereto.

17. Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given (and shall be deemed to have been duly given upon receipt) by delivery in person, by telecopy or other standard form of telecommunication, or by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, addressed as follows:

18. Governing Law, Forum.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of law rules.

(b) The parties hereto irrevocably and unconditionally consent to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and/or of the United States of America located in the State of Delaware for any actions, suits or proceedings out of or relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

19. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together shall constitute but one agreement.

20. Effect of Headings. The descriptive headings contained herein are for convenience only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

21. Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to an Article or Section, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation". The words "hereof", "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. References to a person are also to its permitted successors and assigns and, in the case of an individual, to his heirs and estate, as applicable.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

WARRANT FOR THE PURCHASE OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK OF SUNBEAM CORPORATION

ISSUE DATE: August __, 1998

Warrant No. W-1

23,000,000 Warrant Shares

THIS WARRANT AND THE SHARES OF COMMON STOCK PURCHASEABLE HEREUNDER HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR UNDER THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OR OTHER JURISDICTION AND MAY NOT BE SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED OR DISPOSED OF UNLESS REGISTERED OR QUALIFIED UNDER SAID ACT AND APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS OR UNLESS SUCH REGISTRATION, QUALIFICATION OR OTHER SUCH ACTIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED UNDER ANY SUCH LAWS.

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, SUNBEAM CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), hereby certifies that Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc., its successor or permit- ter assigns (the "Holder"), is entitled, subject to the provisions of this Warrant, to purchase from the Company, at the times specified herein, a number of the fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock of the Company, par value $.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), equal to the Warrant Share Amount (as hereinafter defined) at a purchase price per share equal to the Exercise Price (as hereinafter defined).

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS. (a) The following terms, as used herein, have the fol- lowing meanings:

"Affiliate" shall have the meaning given to such term in Rule 12b-2 promulgated under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

"Business Day" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which com- mercial banks in The City of New York are authorized by law to close.

"Certificate of Incorporation" means the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company.

CONFIDENTIAL
SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

166454v11

"Closing Price" on any day means (1) if the shares of Common Stock then are listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. ("NYSE"), the Closing Price on such day as reported on the NYSE Composite Transactions Tape; (2) if shares of Common Stock then are not listed and traded on the NYSE, the Closing Price on such day as reported by the principal national securities exchange on which the shares of Common Stock are listed and traded; (3) if the shares of Common Stock then are not listed and traded on any such securities exchange, the last reported sale price on such day on the National Market of The National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotation System ("NASDAQ"); or (4) if the shares of Common Stock then are not traded on the NASDAQ National Market, the average of the highest reported bid and the lowest reported asked price on such day as reported by NASDAQ.

"Common Share Equivalent" means, with respect to any security of the Company and as of a given date, a number which is, (i) in the case of a share of Common Stock, one, (ii) in the case of all or a portion of any right, warrant or other security which may be exercised for a share or shares of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock receivable upon exercise of such security (or such portion of such security), and (iii) in the case of any security convertible or exchangeable into a share or shares of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock that would be received if such security were converted or exchanged on such date.

"Common Stock" shall have the meaning set forth in the first paragraph hereof.

"Company" shall have the meaning set forth in the first paragraph hereof.

"Convertible Securities" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 7(d).

"Determination Date" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 7(f).

"Exercise Price" means a price per Warrant Share equal to $7.00.

"Expiration Date" means 5:00 p.m. New York City time on August __, 2003 [the fifth anniversary of the date of this Warrant].

"Fair Market Value" as at any date of determination means, as to shares of the Common Stock, if the Common Stock is publicly traded at such time, the average of the daily Closing Prices of a share of Common Stock for the ten (10) consecutive trading days ending on the most recent trading day prior to the date of determination. If the shares of Common Stock are not publicly traded at such time, and as to all things other than the Common Stock, Fair Market Value shall be determined in good faith by an independent nationally recognized investment banking firm selected by the Company and acceptable to a majority of the Holders and which shall have no other substantial relationship with the Company.

"Holder" shall have the meaning set forth in the first paragraph hereof.

"Options" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 7(d).

"Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust, joint stock company, association, joint venture, or any other entity or organization, including a government or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof.

"Securities Act" means the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

"Subsidiary" means, with respect to any Person, any corporation or other entity of which a majority of the capital stock or other ownership interests having ordinary voting power to elect a majority of the board of directors or other persons performing similar functions are at the time directly or indirectly owned by such Person.

"Warrant Share Amount" means 23,000,000 (Twenty Three Million) shares of Common Stock as such number may be adjusted pursuant to Sections 7 and 8.

"Warrant Shares" means the shares of Common Stock deliverable upon exercise of this Warrant, as adjusted from time to time.

SECTION 2. EXERCISE OF WARRANT. (a) The Holder is entitled to exercise this Warrant in whole or in part at any time, or from time to time, until the Expiration Date or, if such day is not a Business Day, then on the next succeeding day that shall be a Business Day. To exercise this Warrant, the Holder shall deliver to the Company this Warrant, including the Warrant Exercise Subscription Form forming a part hereof duly executed by the Holder, together with payment of the applicable Exercise Price. Upon such delivery and payment, the Holder shall be deemed to be the holder of record of the number of Warrant Shares equal to the Warrant Share Amount (or, in the case of a partial exercise of this Warrant, a ratable number of such shares), notwithstanding that the stock transfer books of the Company shall then be closed or that certificates representing such shares shall not then be actually delivered to the Holder.

(b) At the option of the Holder, the Exercise Price may be paid in cash (including by wire transfer of immediately available funds) or by certified or official bank check or bank cashier's check payable to the order of the Company or by any combination of such cash or check. At the option of the Holder, the Exercise Price may in the alternative be paid in whole or in part by reducing the number of shares of Common Stock issuable to the Holder by a number of shares of Common Stock that have a Fair Market Value equal to the Exercise Price which otherwise would have been paid (so that the net number of shares of Common Stock issued in respect of such exercise shall equal the number of shares of Common Stock that would have been issuable had the Exercise Price been paid entirely in cash, less a number of shares of Common Stock with a Fair Market Value equal to the portion of the Exercise Price paid in kind); provided that this option shall be available only with respect to the exercise of this Warrant with respect to not more than one-half of the total number of Warrant Shares. The Company shall pay any and all documentary, or similar issue or transfer taxes payable in respect of the issue or delivery of the Warrant Shares. The Company shall not, however, be required to pay any transfer tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue or delivery of Warrants or Warrant Shares (or other securities or assets) in a name other than that in which the Warrants so exercised were registered, and no such issue or delivery shall be made unless and until the person requesting such issue has paid to the Company the amount of such transfer tax or has established, to the satisfaction of the Company, that such transfer tax has been paid.

(c) If the Holder exercises this Warrant in part, this Warrant shall be surrendered by the Holder to the Company and a new Warrant of the same tenor and for the unexercised number of Warrant Shares shall be executed by the Company. The Company shall register the new Warrant in the name of the Holder or in such name or names of its transferee pursuant to Section 6 as may be directed in writing by the Holder and deliver the new Warrant to the Person or Persons entitled to receive the same.

(d) Upon surrender of this Warrant in conformity with the foregoing provisions, the Company shall, subject to the expiration of any applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act, transfer to the Holder of this Warrant appropriate evidence of ownership of the shares of Common Stock or other securities or property (including any money) to which the Holder is entitled, registered or otherwise placed in, or payable to the order of, the name or names of the Holder or such transferee as may be directed in writing by the Holder, and shall deliver such evidence of ownership and any other securities or property (including any money) to the Person or Persons entitled to receive the same, together with an amount in cash in lieu of any fraction of a share as provided in Section 5, subject to any required withholding.

SECTION 3. RESTRICTIVE LEGEND. Each certificate representing shares of Common Stock issued pursuant to this Warrant, unless at the time of exercise such shares are registered under the Securities Act, shall bear a legend substantially in the form of the legend set forth on the first page of this Warrant.

SECTION 4. RESERVATION OF SHARES. The Company hereby agrees that at all times there shall be reserved for issuance and delivery upon exercise of this Warrant such number of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company from time to time issuable upon exercise of this Warrant as will be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of this Warrant. The Company hereby represents and agrees that all such shares shall be duly authorized and, when issued upon such exercise, shall be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, free and clear of all liens, security interests, charges and other encumbrances or restrictions on sale and free and clear of all preemptive or similar rights, except to the extent imposed by or as a result of the status, act or omission of, the Holder.

SECTION 5. FRACTIONAL SHARES. No fractional shares or scrip representing fractional shares shall be issued upon the exercise of this Warrant and in lieu of delivery of any such fractional share upon any exercise hereof, the Company shall pay to the Holder an amount in cash equal to such fraction multiplied by the Fair Market Value thereof; provided, however, that in the event that the Company combines or reclassifies the outstanding shares of its Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, it shall be required to issue fractional shares to the Holder if the Holder exercises all or any part of its Warrants, unless the Holder has consented in writing to such reduction and provided the Company with a written waiver of its right to receive fractional shares in accordance with this Section 5.

SECTION 6. TRANSFER, EXCHANGE OR ASSIGNMENT OF WARRANT. (a) Each taker and holder of this Warrant by taking or holding the same, consents and agrees that the registered holder hereof may be treated by the Company and all other persons dealing with this Warrant as the absolute owner hereof for any purpose and as the person entitled to exercise the rights represented hereby.

(b) Subject to the requirements of state and federal securities laws, the Holder of this Warrant shall be entitled, without obtaining the consent of the Company to assign and transfer this Warrant, at any time in whole or from time to time in part, to any Person or Persons. Subject to the preceding sentence, upon surrender of this Warrant to the Company, together with the attached Warrant Assignment Form duly executed, the Company shall, without charge, execute and deliver a new Warrant in the name of the assignee or assignees named in such instrument of assignment and, if the Holder's entire interest is not being assigned, in the name of the Holder and this Warrant shall promptly be canceled.

(c) Upon receipt by the Company of evidence satisfactory to it (in the exercise of its reasonable discretion) of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of this Warrant, and (in the case of loss, theft or destruction) of indemnification or security reasonably required by the Company, and upon surrender and cancellation of this Warrant, if mutilated, the Company shall execute and deliver a new Warrant of like tenor and date.

(d) The Company shall pay all expenses, taxes (other than transfer taxes) and other charges payable in connection with the preparation, issuance and delivery of Warrants hereunder.

SECTION 7. ANTI-DILUTION PROVISIONS. So long as any Warrants are outstanding, the Warrant Share Amount shall be subject to change or adjustment as follows:

(a) Common Stock Dividends, Subdivisions, Combinations. In case the Company shall (i) pay or make a dividend or other distribution to all holders of its Common Stock in shares of Common Stock, (ii) subdivide or split the outstanding shares of its Common Stock into a larger number of shares, or (iii) combine the outstanding shares of its Common Stock into a smaller number of shares (which shall not in any event be done without the express written approval of Holders of a majority of the outstanding Warrants), then in each such case the Warrant Share Amount shall be adjusted to equal the number of such shares to which the holder of this Warrant would have been entitled upon the occurrence of such event had this Warrant been exercised immediately prior to the happening of such event or, in the case of a stock dividend or other distribution, prior to the record date for determination of shareholders entitled thereto. An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(a) shall become effective immediately after the effective date of such event retroactive to the record date, if any, for such event.

(b) Reorganization or Reclassification. In case of any capital reorganization or any reclassification of the capital stock of the Company (whether pursuant to a merger or consolidation or otherwise), or in the event of any similar transaction, this Warrant shall thereafter be exercisable for the number of shares of stock or other securities or property receivable upon such capital reorganization or reclassification of capital stock or other transaction, as the case may be, by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock into which this Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such capital reorganization or reclassification of capital stock; and, in any case appropriate adjustment (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) shall be made for the application of the provisions herein set forth with respect to the rights and interests thereafter of the Holder of this Warrant to the end that the provisions set forth herein shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as reasonably practicable, in relation to any shares of stock or other securities or property thereafter deliverable upon the exercise of this Warrant. An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(b) shall become effective immediately after the effective date of such event retroactive to the record date, if any, for such event.

(c) Distributions of Assets or Securities Other than Common Stock. In case the Company shall, by dividend or otherwise, distribute to all holders of its Common Stock shares of any class of its capital stock (other than Common Stock), or other debt or equity securities or evidences of indebtedness of the Company, or options, rights or warrants to purchase any of such securities, cash or other assets, then in each such case the Warrant Share Amount shall be adjusted by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to the date of such dividend or distribution by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock at the record date for determining shareholders entitled to such dividend or distribution, and of which the denominator shall be such Fair Market Value per share less the Fair Market Value of the portion of the securities, cash, other assets or evidences of indebtedness so distributed applicable to one share of Common Stock. An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(c) shall become effective immediately after the effective date of such event retroactive to the record date, if any, for such event.

(d) Below Market Issuances of Common Stock and Convertible Securities. In case the Company shall issue Common Stock (or options, rights or warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock (collectively, "Options") or other securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for shares of Common Stock (such other securities, collectively, "Convertible Securities")) at a price per share (or having an effective exercise, exchange or conversion price per share together with the purchase price thereof) less than the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock on the date such Common Stock (or Options or Convertible Securities), is sold or issued (provided that no sale of securities pursuant to an underwritten public offering shall be deemed to be for less than Fair Market Value), then in each such case the Warrant Share Amount shall thereafter be adjusted by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to the date of issuance of such Common Stock (or Options or Convertible Securities) by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be (x) the sum of (i) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such issuance and (ii) the number of additional Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities so issued multiplied by (y) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to the date of such issuance, and the denominator of which shall be (x) the product of (A) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to the date of such issuance and (B) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such issuance plus (y) the aggregate consideration received by the Company for the total number of securities so issued plus, (z) in the case of Options or Convertible Securities, the additional consideration required to be received by the Company upon the exercise, exchange or conversion of such securities; provided that no adjustment shall be required in respect of issuances of Common Stock (or options to purchase Common Stock) pursuant to stock option or other employee benefit plans in effect on the date hereof, or approved by the Board of Directors of the Company after the date hereof. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (1) no further adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made upon the issuance or sale of Common Stock pursuant to (x) the exercise of any Options or (y) the conversion or exchange of any Convertible Securities, if in each case the adjustment in the Warrant Share Amount was made as required hereby upon the issuance or sale of such Options or Convertible Securities or no adjustment was required hereby at the time such Option or Convertible Security was issued, and (2) no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made upon the issuance or sale of Common Stock upon the exercise of any Options existing on the original issue date hereof, without regard to the exercise price thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made pursuant to this paragraph upon the issuance or sale of Common Stock, Options, or Convertible Securities in a bona fide arm's-length transaction to any Person or group that, at the time of such issuance or sale, is not an Affiliate of the Company (including any possible issuance of Common Stock, Options, or Convertible Securities to the public stockholders of The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman") in connection with the acquisition of their shares of Coleman common stock pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 (the "Coleman Merger Agreement"), by and among Sunbeam, Camper Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam, and Coleman, or otherwise). An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(d) shall become effective immediately after such Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities are sold.

(e) Below Market Distributions or Issuances of Preferred Stock or Other Securities. In case the Company shall issue non-convertible and non-exchangeable preferred stock (or other debt or equity securities or evidences of indebtedness of the Company (other than Common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) or options, rights or warrants to purchase any of such securities) at a price per share (or other similar unit) less than the Fair Market Value per share (or other similar unit) of such preferred stock (or other security) on the date such preferred stock (or other security) is sold (provided that no sale of preferred stock or other security pursuant to an underwritten public offering shall be deemed to be for less than its fair market value), then in each such case the Warrant Share Amount shall thereafter be adjusted by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to the date of issuance of such preferred stock (or other security) by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the product of (i) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such issuance and (ii) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to the date of such issuance, and the denominator of which shall be (x) the product of (A) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such issuance and (B) the Fair Market Value of a share of the Common Stock immediately prior to the date of such issuance minus (y) the difference between (1) the aggregate Fair Market Value of such preferred stock (or other security) and (2) the aggregate consideration received by the Company for such preferred stock (or other security). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made pursuant to this paragraph upon the issuance or sale of preferred stock (or other securities of the Company other than common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) in a bona fide arm's-length transaction to any Person or group that, at the time of such issuance or sale, is not an Affiliate of the Company (including any possible issuance of preferred stock (or other securities of the Company other than common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) to the public stockholders of Coleman in connection with the acquisition of their shares of Coleman common stock pursuant to the Coleman Merger Agreement, or otherwise). An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(e) shall become effective immediately after such preferred stock (or other security) is sold.

(f) Above Market Repurchases of Common Stock. If at any time or from time to time the Company or any Subsidiary thereof shall repurchase, by self-tender offer or otherwise, any shares of Common Stock of the Company (or any Options or Convertible Securities) at a purchase price in excess of the Fair Market Value thereof, on the Business Day immediately prior to the earliest of (i) the date of such repurchase, (ii) the commencement of an offer to repurchase, or (iii) the public announcement of either (such date being referred to as the "Determination Date"), the Warrant Share Amount shall be determined by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to such Determination Date by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the product of (1) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such Determination Date minus the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by the securities repurchased or to be purchased by the Company or any Subsidiary thereof in such repurchase and (2) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Determination Date, and the denominator of which shall be (x) the product of (A) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to the Determination Date and (B) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Determination Date minus (y) the sum of (1) the aggregate consideration paid by the Company in connection with such repurchase and (2) in the case of Options or Convertible Securities, the additional consideration required to be received by the Company upon the exercise, exchange or conversion of such securities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made pursuant to this paragraph upon the repurchase, by self-tender offer or otherwise, of Common Stock (or any Options or Convertible Security) in a bona fide arms-length transaction from any Person or group that, at the time of such repurchase, is not an Affiliate of the Company.

(g) Above Market Repurchases of Preferred Stock or Other Securities. If at any time or from time to time the Company or any Subsidiary thereof shall repurchase, by self-tender offer or otherwise, any shares of non-convertible and non-exchangeable preferred stock (or other debt or equity securities or evidences of indebtedness of the Company (other than Common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) or options, rights or warrants to purchase any of such securities), at a purchase price in excess of the Fair Market Value thereof, on the Business Day immediately prior to the Determination Date, the Warrant Share Amount shall be determined by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to the Determination Date by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the product of (i) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such Determination Date and (ii) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Determination Date, and the denominator of which shall be (x) the product of (A) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such Determination Date and (B) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Determination Date minus (y) the difference between (1) the aggregate consideration paid by the Company in connection with such repurchase and (2) the aggregate Fair Market Value of such preferred stock (or other security). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made pursuant to this paragraph upon the repurchase, by self-tender offer or otherwise, of non-convertible and non-exchangeable preferred stock (or other securities of the Company other than Common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) in a bona fide arm's-length transaction from any Person or group that, at the time of such repurchase, is not an Affiliate of the Company.

(h) Readjustment of Warrant Share Amount. If (i) the purchase price provided in any Option or the additional consideration, if any, payable upon the conversion or exchange of any Convertible Securities or the rate at which any Convertible Securities, in each case as referred to in paragraphs (b) and (f) above, are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock shall change at any time (other than under or by reason of provisions designed to protect against dilution upon an event which results in a related adjustment pursuant to this Section 7), or (ii) any of such Options or Convertible Securities shall have irrevocably terminated, lapsed or expired, the Warrant Share Amount then in effect shall forthwith be readjusted (effective only with respect to an exercise of this Warrant after such readjustment) to the Warrant Share Amount which would then be in effect had the adjustment made upon the issuance, sale, distribution or grant of such Options or Convertible Securities been made based upon such changed purchase price, additional consideration or conversion rate, as the case may be (in the case of any event referred to in clause (i) of this paragraph (h)) or had such adjustment not been made (in the case of any event referred to in clause (ii) of this paragraph (h)).

(i) Exercise Price Adjustment. Upon each adjustment of the Warrant Share Amount pursuant to this Section 7, the Exercise Price of each Warrant outstanding immediately prior to such adjustment shall thereafter be equal to an adjusted Exercise Price per Share determined (to the nearest cent) by multiplying the Exercise Price for the Warrant immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Warrant Share Amount in effect immediately prior to such adjustment and the denominator of which shall be the Warrant Share Amount in effect immediately after such adjustment.

(j) Consideration. If any shares of Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities shall be issued, sold or distributed for cash, the consideration received in respect thereof shall be deemed to be the amount received by the Company therefor, before deduction therefrom of any reasonable, customary and adequately documented expenses incurred in connection therewith. If any shares of Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities shall be issued, sold or distributed for a consideration other than cash, the amount of the consideration other than cash received by the Company shall be deemed to be the Fair Market Value of such consideration, before deduction of any reasonable, customary and adequately documented expenses incurred in connection therewith. If any shares of Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities shall be issued in connection with any merger in which the Company is the surviving corporation, the amount of consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Market Value of such portion of the assets and business of the non-surviving corporation as shall be attributable to such Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities, as the case may be. If any Options shall be issued in connection with the issuance and sale of other securities of the Company, together comprising one integral transaction in which no specific consideration is allocated to such Options by the parties thereto, such Options shall be deemed to have been issued without consideration.

(k) No Impairment. The Company will not, by amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation or through any reorganization, transfer of assets, consolidation, merger, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms to be observed or performed hereunder by the Company, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all the provisions of this Section 7 and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate in order to protect the conversion rights of the Holder against impairment. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company will not increase the par value of any shares of Common Stock receivable on the exercise of the Warrants above the amount payable therefor on such exercise.

(l) Certificate as to Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment or readjustment of the Warrant Share Amount pursuant to this Section 7, the Company at its expense shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance with the terms hereof and furnish to the Holder a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Company shall, upon the written request at any time of the Holder, furnish or cause to be furnished to Holder a like certificate setting forth (1) such adjustments and readjustments and (2) the number of shares of Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other property which at the time would be received upon the exercise of this Warrant.

(m) Proceedings Prior to Any Action Requiring Adjustment. As a condition precedent to the taking of any action which would require an adjustment pursuant to this Section 7, the Company shall take any action which may be necessary, including obtaining regulatory approvals or exemptions, in order that the Company may thereafter validly and legally issue as fully paid and non-assessable all shares of Common Stock which the Holders are entitled to receive upon exercise thereof.

(n) Notice of Adjustment. Upon the record date or effective date, as the case may be, of any action which requires or might require an adjustment or readjustment pursuant to this Section 7, the Company shall forthwith file in the custody of its Secretary or an Assistant Secretary at its principal executive office and with its stock transfer agent or its warrant agent, if any, an officers' certificate showing the adjusted number of Warrant Shares determined as herein provided, setting forth in reasonable detail the facts requiring such adjustment and the manner of computing such adjustment. Each such officers' certificate shall be signed by the chairman, president or chief financial officer of the Company and by the secretary or any assistant secretary of the Company. Each such officers' certificate shall be made available at all reasonable times for inspection by the Holder or any Holder of a Warrant executed and delivered pursuant to Section 6(b) and the Company shall, forthwith after each such adjustment, mail a copy, by first-class mail, of such certificate to the Holder or any such holder.

(o) Payments in Lieu of Adjustment. The Holder shall, at its option, be entitled to receive, in lieu of the adjustment pursuant to Section 7(c) otherwise required thereof, on (but not price) the date of exercise of the Warrants, the evidences of indebtedness, other securities, cash, property or other assets which such Holder would have been entitled to receive if it had exercised its Warrants for shares of Common Stock immediately prior to the record date with respect to such distribution. The Holder may exercise its option under this Section 7(o) by delivering to the Company a written notice of such exercise simultaneously with its notice of exercise of this Warrant.

SECTION 8. CONSOLIDATION, MERGER OR SALE OF ASSETS. In case of any consolidation of the Company with, or merger of the Company into, any other Person, any merger of another Person into the Company (other than a merger which does not result in any reclassification, conversion, exchange or cancellation of outstanding shares of Common Stock) or any sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company to the Person formed by such consolidation or resulting from such merger or which acquires such assets, as the case may be, the Holder shall have the right thereafter to exercise this Warrant for the kind and amount of securities, cash and other property receivable upon such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock for which this Warrant may have been exercised immediately prior to such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer. Adjustments for events subsequent to the effective date of such a consolidation, merger, sale or transfer of assets shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Warrant. In any such event, effective provisions shall be made in the certificate or articles of incorporation of the resulting or surviving corporation, in any contract of sale, merger, conveyance, lease, transfer or otherwise so that the provisions set forth herein for the protection of the rights of the Holder shall thereafter continue to be applicable; and any such resulting or surviving corporation shall expressly assume the obligation to deliver, upon exercise, such shares of stock, other securities, cash and property. The provisions of this Section 8 shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, sales, leases or transfers.

SECTION 9. WARRANT AGENT. At the written request of the Holders of a majority of the outstanding Warrants, the Company shall as soon as is reasonably practicable:

- (i) appoint a warrant agent to act as agent for the Company in connection with the issuance, transfer and exchange of the Warrants and shall enter into an agreement with such warrant agent reflecting the terms and conditions of such appointment, which terms and conditions shall be customary for such appointments, and such other matters as are customarily included in such agreements so as to facilitate the transfer and registration of the Warrants; and
- (ii) use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Warrants to be eligible to be publicly traded, including, without limitation, amending this Warrant to provide terms and conditions necessary and appropriate for the Warrants to be publicly traded.

SECTION 10. NOTICES. Any notice, demand or delivery authorized by this Warrant shall be in writing and shall be given to the Holder or to the Company, as the case may be, at its address (or facsimile number) set forth below, or such other address (or facsimile number) as shall have been furnished to the party giving or making such notice, demand or delivery:

SECTION 11. RIGHTS OF THE HOLDER Prior to the exercise of any Warrant, the Holder shall not, by virtue hereof, be entitled to any rights of a shareholder of the Company, including, without limitation, the right to vote, to receive dividends or other distributions, to exercise any preemptive right or to receive any notice of meetings of shareholders or any notice of any proceedings of the Company except as may be specifically provided for herein.

SECTION 12. GOVERNING LAW. THIS WARRANT AND ALL RIGHTS ARISING HEREUNDER SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE,

AND THE PERFORMANCE THEREOF SHALL BE GOVERNED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

SECTION 13. AMENDMENTS; WAIVERS. Any provision of this Warrant may be amended or waived if, and only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by the Holder and the Company, or in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective. No failure or delay by either party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

SECTION 14. Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Warrant to a Section such reference shall be to a Section of this Warrant unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Warrant, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation". The words "hereof", "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Warrant shall refer to this Warrant as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Warrant. The definitions contained in this Warrant are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. References to a person are also to its permitted successors and assigns and, in the case of an individual, to his heirs and estate, as applicable.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Who would that be?

3 A. Mr. Schwartz and Eric Golden.

4 Q. Anyone else?

5 A. No.

6 Q. What is Eric Goldman's title?

7 A. Golden.

8 Q. Golden?

9 A. Golden.

10 Q. What is Eric Golden's title?

11 A. He is no longer with the company.

12 Q. What was Eric Golden's title at the time

13 that you spoke with him regarding the litigation?

14 A. I believe vice president.

15 Q. Vice president, legal, or vice president

16 any other subtitle?

17 A. I think it was just vice president.

18 Q. Is Mr. Golden an attorney?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Now, you are aware that you are here today

21 to testify as a corporate representative on behalf of 22 Coleman (Parent), correct?

1 Q. Is the collection of documents completed
2 for this case?

3 A. I would believe it's generally complete.
4 There is always the possibility of something
5 additional turning up I guess, but I'm not aware of
6 any specific effort still ongoing to produce
7 documents.

8 Q. When was CPH or MAFCO first aware of the 9 potential for litigation related to the Sunbeam
10 acquisition of Coleman?

11 A. That's too broad for me to answer.

12 Q. In what way is that too broad for you to
13 answer?

14 A. The question in its breadth suggests that 15 you might be asking several different things, and I'm
16 not sure what you are really asking so I can't answer
17 the question.

18 Q. When was MAFCO first aware of potential for 19 litigation against or by anyone as it relates to the 20 Sunbeam acquisition of Coleman?

21 A. Against or by anyone? So that Joe sues Sam
22 over the transaction or in some way related to the

1 transaction?

2 Q. I'm asking when MAFCO was first aware of
3 the possibility for litigation, yes.

4 A. Between any two people?

5 Q. Yes.

6 A. Over any aspect of it?

7 Q. Yes.

8 A. Relating in any way to it?

9 Q. Correct.

10 A. 1998.

11 Q. In 1998 CPH obtained a settlement from
12 Sunbeam, correct?

13 A. I wouldn't characterize anything of which
14 I'm aware in that way.

15 Q. In 1998 there was a settlement agreement
16 between Sunbeam Corporation and Coleman (Parent)
17 Holdings as it relates to the Sunbeam acquisition of 18 Coleman, correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. How is it then that you would not
21 characterize that as a settlement?

22 A. That wasn't what you said.

1 retains or CPH?

2 A. On any subject?

3 Q. Related to the Sunbeam transaction.

4 A. I'm not aware of any, no.

5 Q. When Mr. Golden contacted the individuals
6 in 1999 or 2000 to collect documents for the 7 securities litigation, did he collect any documents
8 from the network servers?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did he search for any documents on the 11 network servers?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Did he search for any documents that had 14 been archived with Pierce-Leahy?

15 A. His search included such document, yes.

16 Q. Were there any documents that had been sent 17 off-site for storage with Pierce-Leahy that were 18 produced in that litigation?

19 A. I don't know.

20 Q. Did the individuals that Mr. Golden
21 contacted search their own files or have their
22 assistant search their files or did Mr. Golden search

1 that the subpoena contained were provided.

2 Q. Do you know which among those three you
3 listed was actually provided as guidance?

4 A. It depends on the individual.

5 Q. In Mr. Golden's collection of documents for 6 the securities litigation did he collect from anyone
7 any electronic documents?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did Mr. Golden collect from anyone any 10 e-mail in soft copy or hard copy?

11 A. I believe, yes.

12 Q. From whom did he collect e-mail?

13 A. I don't know.

14 Q. Why do you believe that he collected
15 e-mail?

16 A. Because I believe e-mails were produced and 17 hard copies of e-mails were produced in connection
18 with that litigation.

19 Q. Were the assistants and secretaries of the 20 individuals that you referred to who Mr. Golden
21 contacted also contacted and instructed to review
22 files?

1 A. To the extent that they were ever taken
2 from the original providers? I don't know.

3 Q. Did CPH or MAFCO retain any sort of record
4 or index of the documents that it provided to 5 Wachtell?

6 A. I think there were some notes kept, yes.

7 Q. Kept by whom?

8 A. Well, I'm thinking of Mr. Golden, but it
9 certainly wouldn't surprise me if in some instances at 10 least the individuals who provided documents would
11 have made some notes of what was given away.

12 Q. Were the people who Mr. Golden contacted in 13 that instance instructed to provide electronic 14 documents?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Were they instructed to search for 17 electronic documents?

18 A. No.
