Page 195 1 Stack 2 Sunbeam who were not present? 3 A. I don't remember. 4 Q. Do you recall any calls being 5 made by anyone to people who were not 6 present, such as Mr. Harlow or Mr. Gluck 7 or people at Sunbeam? 8 A. I don't remember anything 9 specifically. 10 It wouldn't be unusual for that 11 to happen, but.... 12 Q. And do you remember 13 Mr. Bornstein reporting back what others 14 not in the meeting had said about the 15 press release or the deal? 16 A. No, I don't. 17 Q. At the meeting at the printer, 18 do you remember Mr. Bornstein delivering 19 the -- Mr. Bornstein or someone else 20 delivering the final version of the 21 comfort letter? 22 A. I just don't remember if it was 23 delivered that night or not. 24 Q. Do you remember any changes 25 being made to the comfort letter at that	Page 197 1 Stack 2 MR. It appears to have been faxed 15 from Global Financial Press on the night 16 of the printing. 17 Do you see that at the top? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And if you look on the first 20 page, the amount of the offering is 21 changed from 1.3 billion to 2.014 billion. 22 A. Yes, I see that. 23 Q. Page 198 1 Stack 2 the visit to Global Financial Press that 3 the amount of the offering had changed? 4 A. I don't remember discussing 5 that, no. 6 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 17, 7 document, which appears to be the 8 final version of the comfort letter 9 dated on the 19th of March 1998, 10 previously marked for 11 identification.) 12 Q. A draft of a letter -- I have 13 given you what's previously been marked as 14 CPH Exhibit 17. Does that appear to be 15 the final version of the comfort letter 16 dated on the 19th of March 1998 -- excuse 17 me, yes, 1998. 18 A. Yes, that looks like it. 19 Q. And that shows the change to the 20 amount of the offering? 21 A. Yes, it reflects the 2 billion 22 number. 23 Q. And it contains on the last two 24 pages, handwriting and tick marks to 25 reference the items in the offering	Page 200 1 Stack 2 what's previously been marked as 3 CPH Exhibit 114. I think my questions are 4 going to be brief about this. 5 A. Okay. 6 Q. Have you ever seen it before? 7 A. Uh -- no. 8 Q. I'm sorry? 9 A. No -- well, I have seen -- I 10 guess the back page I have seen. 11 Q. I'm sorry, you are correct, that 12 is one we have talked about already. 13 Okay. You can put that document aside. 14 Beginning with the events on the 15 18th of March, and following up until 16 closing, do you remember any discussion in 17 which anyone suggested that perhaps the 18 deal should not go forward? 19 A. Um -- no. I mean, there was 20 discussion that evening on those -- on 21 that series of conference calls on the 22 18th about what we ought to do, and I am 23 sure the possibility of not going forward 24 was brought up, but I think that because 25 we were going to put the information out

Page 202 1 Stack 2 amount of the offering was for 1.3 billion 3 which would result in proceeds to Sunbeam 4 of 500 million? 5 A. Mm-hmm. 6 Q. And you are aware that it was 7 later raised to 2 billion. Do you recall 8 what proceeds would result to Sunbeam from 9 that amount? 10 A. No, I don't. 11 (Deposition Exhibit 10, final 12 offering memorandum, previously 13 marked for identification.) 14 Q. Let me show you what has 15 previously been marked as Exhibit 10. And 16 I apologize for the size of the document, 17 I am not going to ask you to look at much 18 of it, but you recognize this as the final 19 offering memorandum? 20 A. (Nodding.) 21 Q. Is that correct? 22 A. Right. 23 Q. And you see the amount at the 24 top identifies 2.0 billion? 25 A. Right.	Page 204 1 Stack 2 decision was made to increase the amount 3 of the offering? 4 A. I don't. It must have been 5 sometime after we printed the reds, 6 because the reds said 1.3 but I don't 7 remember when that was. 8 Q. Do you remember who, if anyone, 9 was involved in that decision? 10 A. I don't know. 11 MR. If one has 25 handwriting, let me know, but that

Page 211 1 Stack 2 being clear that the press release which 3 we all knew about and participated in 4 making the decision to release isn't going 5 to be -- wouldn't contravene this 6 representation. 7 Q. Do you know who asked for or 8 insisted upon that language? 9 A. I don't know specifically. 10 I assume it came from the 11 company. 12 Q. Pardon me? 13 A. I assume it came from the 14 company or its lawyers. 15 Q. Do you remember anyone 16 expressing the view that, absent this 17 language, someone could interpret the 18 press release as a material adverse 19 change? 20 A. I, again, don't remember 21 specific discussions about this. 22 Q. Okay, you can put that document 23 aside. 24 You have discussed, in general 25 terms, the pricing of the offering. You	Page 213 1 Stack 2 A. I coordinated documents for the 3 closing, so there were lots of 4 deliverables that we needed to get from 5 both sides for the closing, their opinions 6 and, you know, copies of certificates and 7 all that sort of thing, and I coordinated 8 that and coordinated the transfer of the 9 funds and the securities and that sort of 10 thing. 11 Q. Well, when you say you 12 "coordinated" the documents, what does 13 that mean? 14 A. Basically, collected copies of 15 them after they had been finalized from 16 everyone, collected the actual signature 17 pages, had them all laid out on a big 18 conference table for people to review, 19 really coordinated the closing efforts. 20 Q. It doesn't mean that you drafted 21 all of those documents. 22 A. No, no. 23 MR. WISE: (Laughing.) 24 Q. You have described already the 25 work you have done on drafting.

Oh, I'm sorry. 8 Q. Do you remember having seen it 9 before? 10 You may have answered, I just 11 missed it. 12 A. No, I don't remember. 13 Q. And having seen this again, does 14 it refresh your recollection as to whether 15 you participated in any bring-down calls? 16 A. You know, I probably 17 participated, I just don't remember -- 18 Q. Okay. 19 A. -- being on them. 20 Q. The first item here asks for 21 there to be an update on build-up of the 22 first quarter revenues and earnings, and 23 there is some items underneath that. 24 Do you remember having any 25 discussions within Davis Polk or with	Page 220 1 Stack 2 Exhibit 112. 3 Do you recognize this as the 4 bring-down letter? 5 A. Yeah, it looks like the bring- 6 down comfort letter. I don't remember 7 seeing it. 8 Q. Okay. I think you may have 9 answered my next question. Having now 10 seen this, does it refresh your 11 recollection whether you saw it at the 12 time? 13 A. Yeah, I still don't remember. 14 Q. Okay. Do you remember any 15 conversations or work in tracking down the 16 numbers in the bring-down letter? 17 A. I don't remember. 18 Q. Turn to page 2 of the bring-down 19 letter. It refers to some sales numbers 20 and some net income numbers through March 21 of 1998. 22 A. (Nodding.) 23 Q. Do you see that? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Do you recall any discussion
Page 219 1 Stack 2 Morgan Stanley or with anyone else about 3 first quarter revenues and earnings after 4 the 19th of March? 5 A. I don't remember. 6 Q. Are you aware that, in 7 connection with bring-down calls, there is 8 frequently a bring-down letter from the 9 accountants? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Do you know if you saw the 12 bring-down letter in this case? 13 A. I don't remember seeing one, 14 although I am sure that one was delivered. 15 Q. Do you remember any discussions 16 with the accountants or with Morgan 17 Stanley or with Sunbeam about the 18 representations contained in the bring- 19 down letter? 20 A. No, I don't. 21 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 112, 22 bring-down comfort letter, previously 23 marked for identification.) 24 Q. Let me show you one additional 25 comfort letter, previously marked as CPH	Page 221 1 Stack 2 about whether those numbers ought to be 3 disclosed to the public? 4 A. Do you remember if there ever 6 was any public disclosure in any context 7 about the fact that through the first two 8 months of '98 Sunbeam was running at a 9 pretty substantial loss? 10 MR. CLARE: Object to the form 11 of the question. 12 You can answer. 13 A. I guess other than all those 14 calls that we had on the night of the 15 18th, that we have already talked about, I 16 don't remember anymore discussion about 17 this. 18 Q. Okay. Did you participate in 19 any calls with analysts or calls with 20 anyone else outside of the Morgan Stanley/ 21 Davis Polk group about the offering before 22 it went -- before it closed? 23 A. Uh -- no, other than, you know, 24 the company and their counsel during those 25 calls on the 18th.

Page 222 1 Stack 2 Q. Okay. And after the closing, 3 did you participate in any -- do any work 4 on this deal or for Sunbeam -- withdraw 5 that. 6 After closing of the public 7 offering we have been talking about, did 8 you do any work for Davis Polk on behalf 9 of Morgan Stanley in connection with 10 Sunbeam? 11 A. Not that I recall. 12 I may have helped put together 13 sort of the documents for the closing sets 14 and that sort of stuff but -- mmm -- 15 nothing else, no. 16 Q. Are you aware that, shortly 17 after the deal closed, Sunbeam announced 18 that, in fact, it had not made its 19 numbers? 20 A. Yeah, I am aware of that. 21 Q. How did you become aware of 22 that? 23 A. I think I probably -- I remember 24 it happening at the time the press release 25 came out and we were -- I was surprised.	Page 224 1 Stack 2 Did anyone report back to you or 3 did you hear it reported to you what had 4 been discussed at the road-show or any of 5 the road-shows? 6 A. No, not that I remember, no. 7 Q. Are you aware that there was a 8 road-show after the press release came 9 out? 10 MR. WISE: Which press release? 11 MR. Yeah, I guess, I mean, it was 15 the last day of the road-show before 16 pricing, so it's pretty typical there 17 would be a meeting that day. 18 Q. Did anyone report to you, or say 19 in your presence, what had happened at 20 that road-show or statements that were 21 made? 22 A. I don't remember any, no. 23 Q. Do you remember anyone asking or 8 suggesting that Morgan Stanley or Davis 9 Polk could have done something differently 10 after that information came out? 11 A. No, not that I remember. 12 Q. You don't remember anyone 13 questioning or saying: We should have 14 done something differently, or held up on 15 the deal? 16 A. Yeah -- no, I mean, I remember 17 that I was surprised by it, but no, I 18 don't remember discussions about that. 19 Q. Okay. Ms. Stack, I have asked 20 you some questions about the road-show and 21 I believe you said you had no involvement 22 in the road-show. 23 A. No. 24 Q. In connection with the 7 work that you did on this transaction, did 8 you review any documents reflecting -- let 9 me withdraw that. 10 In connection with the work you 11 did on this transaction, did you ever look 12 at any proformas or estimates of what a 13 Coleman/Sunbeam combination would look 14 like? 15 A. I think there are probably some 16 included in the offering memorandum, so I 17 am sure that I saw them. Frankly, as a 18 first-year associate, they would have been 19 a little more complicated than I would 20 have had expertise in, I think, at the 21 time. 22 Q. 1 EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. JOHNSON:

3 Q. Good morning, Mr. Pastrana.

4 A. Good morning.

5 Q. Will you please state your name for the record.

6 A. Dennis Pastrana.

7 Q. And where do you reside?

8 A. 3948 Southwest 60th Court, Miami, Florida, 33135.

9 Q. How long have been at that address?

10 A. Five years.

11 Q. Where are you currently employed?

12 A. Ernst & Young, LLP.

13 Q. How long have you been with Ernst & Young, LLP?

14 A. Since May of 2001.

15 Q. And prior to May 2001, where were you employed?

16 A. With Arthur Andersen, LLP.

17 Q. And are you a CPA in the State of Florida?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. How long have you held a CPA license?

20 A. About 11 years.

21 Q. And do you have a Bachelor's Degree?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. When did you receive your Bachelor's Degree?

24 A. 1991.

25 Q. And did you go to work for Andersen after

1 receiving a Bachelor's Degree?

2 A. I worked for about a year at a local firm and

3 then I went to Andersen in 1993.

4 Q. So you were at Andersen about eight years?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. What are your current responsibilities at Ernst &

7 Young LLP?

8 A. I'm a senior manager in the firm's audit practice

9 where I work -- basically manage audits of various clients.

10 Q. Including public companies?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Can you sketch for us the titles that you've held

13 during your approximately eight years at Arthur Andersen?

14 A. Staff, senior, manager and experienced manager.

15 Q. During what time frame approximately were you a

16 senior?

17 A. Up until 1998 beginning at about 1995.

18 Q. And then you became a manager at some point

19 around 1998; is that correct?

20 A. Correct. I believe it was middle of 1998, July,

21 something like that, August.

22 Q. And when did you gain the title experienced

23 manager?

24 A. In 2000, about the same time, middle of the year,

25 2000.

1 Q. Were you a resident in the Miami office for

2 Arthur Andersen during your entire employment with Arthur

3 Andersen?

4 A. Yes. Excuse me.

5 Q. And performed services for Sunbeam during your

6 work at Arthur Andersen?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. When did you begin doing any work for Sunbeam?

9 A. In approximately October of 1997.

10 Q. And what was the nature of that work?

11 A. My first involvement was in preparing -- or 12 performing the SAS 71 review for the third quarter of 1997.

13 Q. And did you continue to perform services for 14 Sunbeam after completing that review?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. You worked on the 1997 audit; is that correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you devote a substantial part of your work to 19 that audit?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What work did you perform for Sunbeam after the

22 1997 audit?

23 A. I participated or performed the SAS 71 review for 24 the first quarter of 1998. I participated in the 25 performance of post report review procedures and the

1 preparation of a comfort letter in connection with the

2 issuance of some bonds or debt, and subsequent to that also

3 participated in the Andersen's restatement audit work, if

4 you will.

5 Q. And that was in the time frame of summer 1998 and

6 the fall of 1998?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. How is it that you came to work on Sunbeam

9 matters? Was there a colleague that asked you to work out

10 on those matters?

11 A. Really just in the normal course. The engagement

12 senior who was on the job previously on the engagement left

13 the firm and I was assigned just by the normal practice of 14 identifying people and assigning people to engagements.

15 Q. And to whom did you report at Andersen concerning

16 your work for Sunbeam?

17 A. Directly to Larry Bornstein.

18 Q. Indirectly did you report to anyone?

19 A. Pardon me?

20 Q. Indirectly did you report to anyone?

21 A. Indirectly I was kind of accountable to the

22 partners as well which would have been Phil Harlow but most

23 of my day-to-day interaction was with Mr. Bornstein.

24 Q. Did you have any primary contacts with Sunbeam

25 that you dealt with on a regular basis?

Page 9 1 A. Primarily dealt with a man by the name of Don -- 2 I can't remember -- Don Jackson who was accounting manager 3 at the time and also dealt quite a bit with John Gluck who 4 was also in control. 5 Q. In connection with today's deposition, did you 6 review any prior testimony that you've given relating to 7 Sunbeam? 8 A. I did. I read some testimony and reviewed some 9 documents. 10 Q. And you gave testimony to the Securities and 11 Exchange Commission; is that correct? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And you also gave a deposition -- or several days 14 of deposition in various civil litigations; is that correct? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Did you give any other testimony relating to 17 Sunbeam? 18 A. No. 19 Q. And other than any conversations you may have had 20 with Mr. Moscato or family members, have you spoken to 21 anyone about this deposition? 22 A. No. 23 Q. When was the last time you had any conversation 24 with Mr. Bornstein? 25 A. It's been more than two years.	Page 11 1 was the senior on the account in 1997 and when the 2 restatement procedures came up in the summer of 1998 and 3 they were looking for people to work on that engagement, I 4 was a logical choice to participate. 5 Q. When you say "they were looking for people" -- 6 A. "They" meaning the firm. 7 Q. Any particular person within the firm contact you 8 to ask you to work on those procedures? 9 A. No, I was assigned to the account as it was so my 10 time was, you know, in large part already assigned to 11 Sunbeam. 12 Q. Was Sunbeam your most significant client in terms 13 of your work in the 97/98 time frame? 14 A. In terms of me personally, yes. 15 Q. How did you go about performing the additional 16 procedures? Strike that. What additional procedures did 17 you perform in connection with the restatement? 18 MR. MOSCATO: When you say "you," you mean him 19 personally? 20 MR. JOHNSON: Yes. 21 MR. MOSCATO: That's kind of a broad question. 22 MR. JOHNSON: Let's see if he can answer it. 23 THE WITNESS: I mean, I probably have to go back 24 to the restatement report to refresh my recollection. I 25 know I worked on areas related to international sales that
Page 10 1 Q. How about Mr. Pruitt, have you had any 2 conversations with him over the past two years? 3 A. Not related to Sunbeam. I do -- Mr. Pruitt is 4 currently working out of the same office that I work at and 5 we do know each other so we do talk occasionally. 6 Q. But you haven't talked about Sunbeam in any way? 7 A. No, no. 8 Q. Have you had any conversations with Mr. Denkhaus 9 within the last few years? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Let me narrow it down. Did any of those 12 conversations relate to Sunbeam in any way? 13 A. No, not that I can recall. 14 Q. How about Mr. Harlow, have you spoken to him 15 about Sunbeam at any point in the past two years? 16 A. Not that I can recall. I've spoken to him, I 17 would say, infrequently over the past few years and not 18 about Sunbeam that I can remember at all. 19 Q. Now, I believe you indicated that you worked on 20 the additional procedures that led to the restatement of 21 Sunbeam's financial statement, is that correct? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. How did you first get involved in working on 24 those additional procedures? 25 A. I think it just happened naturally. I mean, I	Page 12 1 we were looking at at the time. 2 I did some work in certain areas of the 3 inventory, going back and looking at the historical 4 accounting for capitalized variances. 5 A fairly meticulous part of the additional 6 procedure was tracking numerous adjustments that had been 7 identified over a period of time and kind of tracking those 8 on a quarter-by-quarter basis so I was responsible for that 9 part of the work. Offhand, I don't remember what other 10 areas I worked on. 11 BY MR. JOHNSON: 12 Q. Did you have any responsibility for interviewing 13 Sunbeam personnel? 14 A. Yes, I did conduct interviews of some people, 15 that's right. 16 Q. Do you know who else from Andersen was 17 responsible for conducting interviews? 18 A. I know Mr. Harlow did some interviews, 19 Mr. Bornstein did some and there was generally, as far as I 20 remember, two of us present at each of the interviews, 21 Mr. Denkhaus did some interviews. I don't know who 22 else. Those are the three I can remember. 23 Q. What was the purpose of having these interviews? 24 A. I think just to try to get some information about 25 people's roles, what they might have known about different

1 events that transpired. It's really information gathering.
 2 Q. Why is it that Andersen determined to conduct the
 3 additional procedures in the first place?
 4 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 5 THE WITNESS: I don't know. I didn't make that
 6 decision.
 7 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 8 Q. Had you heard anything concerning potential
 9 frauds at Andersen prior to the commencement of the 10 additional procedures?
 11 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 12 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, wait. You said -- I
 13 think the syntax was a little weird. You said, "Did you
 14 hear anything about potential frauds at Andersen." You
 15 don't mean Andersen committing fraud?
 16 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you. That's correct.
 17 Q. Have you heard in the media or otherwise any 18 reports of potential fraud occurring at Sunbeam?
 19 A. I mean, I had heard general discussion about, you
 20 know, the term "fraud" being used in the context of Sunbeam,
 21 but in terms of any specific area or any specific instance
 22 where something fraudulent was done, I had no knowledge or 23 had not heard anything.
 24 Q. Did you ever read an article in Barron's in 25 approximately June of 1998 relating to Sunbeam's accounting?

1 A. I did actually.
 2 Q. Did you read that at approximately the time it
 3 was published?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. Did you have any discussions about that article
 6 with anyone at Andersen?
 7 A. Yes.
 8 Q. With whom did you have any of those discussions?
 9 A. I can remember having a discussion about that 10 with Mr. Harlow and Mr. Bornstein and, in fact,
 11 Mr. Denkhous as well.
 12 Q. Was that in June of '98?
 13 A. Thereabouts, yes.
 14 Q. And was this a single conversation?
 15 A. It was probably one or two conversations.
 16 Q. And what did each of those individuals say about 17 the article?
 18 A. I don't remember what the specifics were of what 19 was said at this point. You know, we did go through for 20 each of the areas that were identified, see what was in our 21 audit work papers.
 22 Q. Was that article one of the reasons that Arthur
 23 Andersen decided to conduct additional procedures?
 24 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 25 THE WITNESS: I don't know the basis for the

1 decision.
 2 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 3 Q. Do you recall any of the Sunbeam employees that
 4 you interviewed as part of the additional procedures?
 5 A. I do only because I reviewed some of the 6 documents.
 7 Q. Did you review -- I'm sorry, did you finish your 8 answer?
 9 A. Over the weekend I looked at a few of the notes
 10 that I had written so I recall some.
 11 Q. Did you review any of the interview memorandum
 12 that you prepared?
 13 A. Yes.
 14 Q. And was Scott Yales one of the persons that you
 15 interviewed?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 MR. JOHNSON: Let's mark the interview
 18 memorandum. This will be CPH 101. Instead of bringing the 19 entire set down I brought the handful that I'm going to 20 use.
 21 Q. Mr. Pastrana, if you will take a minute to look
 22 at that document. I'm going to ask you a handful of 23 questions about it.
 24 A. Okay.
 25 Q. Is this a memorandum that you prepared to the

1 files dated September 1, 1998?
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. And it concerns an interview with Scott Yales?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. And, for the record, Exhibit 101 has the Bates
 6 stamp CPH 0062693 through 697. Mr. Pastrana, who is Scott
 7 Yales?
 8 A. He, as best I can remember, worked in Sunbeam's
 9 planning and financial analysis function.
 10 Q. And was he employed in the Delray Beach office of 11 Sunbeam?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. Why did you determine to interview Mr. Yales as 14 part of the additional procedures?
 15 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
 16 THE WITNESS: I didn't determine. I mean, he was 17 just one of people I was assigned to interview.
 18 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 19 Q. Someone told you to interview Mr. Yales?
 20 A. Somebody put together a list of who was going to 21 be interviewed and who was going to conduct what interview.
 22 Q. Did you have a role in preparing the list of 23 people to interview?
 24 A. No.
 25 Q. Who prepared that list?

1 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 2 THE WITNESS: I don't know. At this point I
 3 don't remember. I might have been asked questions about who 4 did what function or whatever. I just can't remember the
 5 specifics.
 6 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 7 Q. About halfway down the first page of this exhibit
 8 there's a sentence fragment that states, "Needed to make 9 numbers." The line starting with --
 10 A. Uh-huh.
 11 Q. What does the "Needed to make numbers" phrase
 12 refer to?
 13 A. I think it's this interviewee's sense of the fact
 14 that it was very important at this organization that they
 15 achieve their financial targets for revenues and income.
 16 Q. Is that the same import of the bullet point under 17 Q4 97, the bullet provides, "In Q4 1997 there was a big 18 push" and "push" is underlined.
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. That also signifies a push to make numbers?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. And "numbers" means financial targets?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. Do you recall how long after the interview with 25 Mr. Yales you prepared this memorandum?

1 A. I don't recall.
 2 Q. Do you know who else was present at that
 3 interview, if anyone?
 4 A. I believe Mr. Bornstein was present, and there
 5 was always an attorney that was present, too, usually one of 6 the attorneys from Skadden Arms was also there as well.
 7 Q. If you turn to the second page, the first line of 8 text provides "Profit Assurance Plan"?
 9 A. Yes. And incidentally where you are reading,
 10 "Profit Assurances," says, "LAB showed the schedule to 11 Skadden." That means Mr. Bornstein.
 12 Q. That's what I was going to ask you. Thank you.
 13 The second bullet point under the heading provides, "This is 14 common at all companies but not to the extent that Sunbeam
 15 does it."
 16 A. Uh-huh.
 17 Q. What are you referring to there?
 18 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 19 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. You mean, what 20 was the witness referring to? What was Yales referring to?
 21 MR. JOHNSON: That's exactly right.
 22 MR. MOSCATO: If you remember.
 23 MS. BROWN: I still object.
 24 THE WITNESS: My recollection of this was that 25 the company had a schedule that said, you know, "These are

1 kind of the goals in a number of areas that we need to
 2 achieve in order to make our earnings goals for the year,"
 3 and Sunbeam had one of those that upper management used to 4 manage the business as well, and I think he was saying, the 5 way I read it now, was that this was common at most
 6 companies but, you know, that Sunbeam was fairly aggressive
 7 in applying these goals.
 8 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 9 Q. The next bullet point, "Everyone had their,"
 10 quote, "go gets." Do you know what Mr. Yales is referring 11 to with "go gets"?
 12 A. Everybody had targets that they were responsible 13 for achieving.
 14 Q. And why did you determine that that information
 15 from Mr. Yales was something that ought to be noted in the 16 interview memorandum?
 17 A. You know, as the interview progressed, I pretty
 18 much noted everything he said so I don't think I weeded
 19 stuff out. I think this was everything that was discussed.
 20 Q. So it was Mr. Yales who determined who said that 21 Sunbeam did it -- had profit sharing plans to a greater
 22 extent than other companies?
 23 A. Yes, that was his statement, yes, sir.
 24 MS. BROWN: Objection for the record.
 25 MR. MOSCATO: Was there confusion about that in

1 any of the prior things? My understanding is all of this is
 2 Yales.
 3 MR. JOHNSON: I agree. I don't think there was
 4 confusion.
 5 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 6 Q. Did you attribute any significance to Mr. Yales'
 7 remark about the extent to which Sunbeam has profit sharing
 8 plans?
 9 A. I don't recall if I did or I didn't. I just made
 10 a note of it.
 11 Q. On that same page, there's a sentence that says,
 12 "Certain schedules were not to be shown to anybody." What
 13 schedules is Mr. Yales referring to there?
 14 A. I mean, I really don't know. I know that 15 Mr. Bornstein, as I summarized here, showed him some 16 schedules. I don't know if he was referring specifically to 17 those schedules or if there were other internal management
 18 reports that they had been instructed not to share with 19 people outside the company.
 20 Q. And did Mr. Yales indicate who was instructing 21 him not to share those schedules with people outside the 22 company?
 23 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 24 THE WITNESS: I don't recall at this point. I
 25 didn't include it in the memo.

1 BY MR. JOHNSON:

2 Q. The bullet that provides, "Scott was not the 3 keeper of such schedules," do you have any idea who the 4 keeper was at that time?

5 A. I don't know. I know that Scott reported to a
6 couple of women at the company, Deb McDonald, and I don't 7 remember their title exactly. And Deb's predecessor was 8 this woman, Lisa Dalberth. I don't know if they were the 9 keeper but that's who he reported to.

10 Q. If you look at the next bullet point, it
11 provides, "Lisa was the keeper at that time"?

12 A. Oh, okay.

13 Q. That's Lisa Dalberth?

14 A. I stopped at the first.

15 Q. I asked -- focused you on one bit of --

16 A. Sorry about that. Yes, that refers to Lisa
17 Dalberth.

18 Q. And at that time is that in the first quarter or 19 is that as of September of 1998?

20 A. This would have been prior to September of 1998.
21 I never really knew who Lisa was. I don't remember ever
22 meeting her. I do remember her successor Deb, but this Lisa
23 Dalberth, I never met her. She left the company sometime
24 prior. I don't know if it was in 1997 or in 1998. But by 25 September of 1998, I don't think Ms. Dalberth was there.

1 Q. The third bullet point refers to a schedule that
2 Mr. Bornstein showed to Mr. Yales during this interview; do
3 you see that?

4 A. Uh-huh.

5 Q. Do you know where Mr. Bornstein received that 6 schedule?

7 A. I don't know. I mean, Mr. Bornstein spent, I
8 don't know, several days or longer going through a series of 9 documents that had been gathered from the company and I know
10 he found a number of schedules in that process of going
11 through those documents.

12 Q. So you don't know when Mr. Bornstein first 13 received a copy of that schedule?

14 A. I don't.

15 Q. The last bullet point under that heading
16 provides, "Bob was aware of all this push." Is that Bob 17 Gluck?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And the "push" again is a push to make numbers?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. Under the heading "Troublesome Items," there's a
22 bullet that provides, "Sales waterfall items," what does
23 that refer to?

24 A. Those are deductions from gross revenue to arrive
25 at the net revenue and those would have been -- I'd need to

1 look at a paper to tell you exactly but, for example,
2 cooperative advertising, discounts that are being paid to
3 the client or an allowance for returns or something. Items
4 that are deducted from the gross amount of revenues.

5 Q. You also provide under that section that "Lower
6 returns is a troublesome item." Why is that troubling?

7 MS. BROWN: Objection.

8 THE WITNESS: I think properly -- probably better
9 stated would have been "returns," so achieving a lower
10 returns is what they are trying to do.

11 BY MR. JOHNSON:

12 Q. Now, did Mr. Yales identify these items as 13 troubling or are these items that you determined to be 14 troubling?

15 A. No, all this came from Mr. Yales.

16 Q. So Mr. Yales indicated that lower returns were a
17 troubling item?

18 MS. BROWN: Objection.

19 THE WITNESS: I think Mr. Yales indicated that 20 these were some of the areas of this plan that we were 21 talking about that seemed to make it challenging to achieve
22 the plan or these were some of the more challenging
23 components of that plan.

24 BY MR. JOHNSON:

25 Q. If you flip over to Page 3 of that exhibit which

1 has the Bates stamp CPH 62695, under the heading "Gross
2 Sales," if you would read Number 3 for me.

3 A. "Sales were being pulled forward" --

4 MR. MOSCATO: Wait, wait. You want him to read
5 it out loud?

6 MR. JOHNSON: Either way.

7 THE WITNESS: I beg your pardon. I'm sorry.

8 MR. MOSCATO: Read it to yourself.

9 THE WITNESS: Yes, thanks. Okay.

10 BY MR. JOHNSON:

11 Q. Mr. Yales indicated to you that Sunbeam was 12 pulling forward sales. Is that what this sentence
13 indicates?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Mr. Yales stated that "The VPs and GMs were 16 uncomfortable with the sales targets"?

17 MS. BROWN: Object.

18 BY MR. JOHNSON:

19 Q. Is that correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Do you know how many VPs and GMs Mr. Yales was
22 referring to there?

23 A. No, I don't.

24 Q. In that same numbered paragraph there's a
25 reference to -- and it's italicized, "the untenability" of

1 that. What is the untenability referring to?
 2 A. Honestly, I don't know right now.
 3 Q. Was that a phrase or a word that Mr. Yales used?
 4 A. I believe so, yes.
 5 Q. The same numbered paragraph, "As an example,
 6 pulling Q1, Q2 '98 sales into Q4," is that Q4 of 1997?
 7 A. Yes.
 8 MS. BROWN: Just for the record, I object to 9 this entire line of questioning as Mr. Yales has already 10 been deposed himself.
 11 MR. MOSCATO: He has been deposed in this case?
 12 MS. BROWN: Yes.
 13 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 14 Q. Number 6 under that heading provides, "Everyone
 15 knew that in practice the no-returns policy was," quote, 16 "total BS" and "total BS," that's Mr. Yales' phrase for the 17 no-returns policy?
 18 A. I believe so.
 19 Q. Do you have an understanding of why Mr. Yales
 20 stated that the no-returns policy was total BS?
 21 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 22 THE WITNESS: Yes, I don't know what his frame of 23 mind was.
 24 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 25 Q. Number 5 provides, "Scott was aware of a,"

1 underlined, "stated no-returns policy." Why did you
 2 underline "stated" in this memo?
 3 MR. MOSCATO: If you remember.
 4 THE WITNESS: I don't remember. I think what I'm
 5 saying in the memo or what Mr. Yales is saying that there
 6 was a no-return policy that was communicated within the 7 organization. In other interviews that came out, someone
 8 had said that similar policies had been tried in the past
 9 without success so it seems like he doubted whether it would 10 stick.
 11 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 12 Q. In other words, that Sunbeam was not following
 13 the stated policy?
 14 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 15 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that.
 16 THE WITNESS: I don't think that's what this 17 means. I think what this means is that the policy was being 18 followed. I think there was question as to how long it
 19 would continue to be followed for.
 20 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 21 Q. So the reference to the no-returns policy as 22 being total BS was a matter of how long the policy could 23 remain in force?
 24 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 25 THE WITNESS: I mean, I understood it to mean

1 that they didn't think that could apply permanently.
 2 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 3 Q. In the middle of this page there's a text box
 4 that provides in quotes, "It was known among planning group
 5 that restructuring reserves were being used to benefit our 6 earnings." Who's the planning group that Mr. Yales referred 7 to there?
 8 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 9 THE WITNESS: Yes. I mean, I think this is just 10 a group that he was a part of. He worked for Deb McDonald
 11 and Lisa Dalberth and whoever else was in that department
 12 that they oversaw.
 13 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 14 Q. The last line on this page provides, "By early
 15 February, it was apparent that Sunbeam would not make Q1
 16 numbers." That's the Q1 '98 numbers?
 17 A. Correct.
 18 Q. And then on the next page of this memorandum, CPH
 19 62696, Number 6 on that page refers -- states, "The schedule
 20 was 'absolutely' a reach." Do you know what schedule
 21 Mr. Yales was referring to there?
 22 MR. MOSCATO: You're looking at Number 6?
 23 MR. JOHNSON: Yes.
 24 THE WITNESS: I don't recall Number 5 refers to a
 25 schedule for the first quarter forecast. I would imagine

1 it's that schedule that's being referred to.
 2 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 3 Q. Do you know approximately how many people worked
 4 in Scott Yales' department at Sunbeam?
 5 A. I don't remember.
 6 Q. And then the last numbered paragraph on this page
 7 under the heading "First and Second Quarter 1998," if you
 8 would just read that to yourself.
 9 A. (Reading)
 10 Q. The text J/E; is that journal entries?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Do you know what journal entries were made for 13 profit protection?
 14 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 15 THE WITNESS: I don't know.
 16 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 17 Q. Do you know what this is referring to, this
 18 paragraph?
 19 A. I mean, it sounds like he's saying that some 20 entries were recorded to improve the profits of the company,
 21 but it's just a summary of what he said. I don't know
 22 specifically why entries are being referred to.
 23 Q. Do you know the magnitude of the entries?
 24 A. I don't, no.
 25 Q. Do you know who determined to reverse those

1 entries in March of 1998?

2 MS. BROWN: Objection.

3 THE WITNESS: No.

4 BY MR. JOHNSON:

5 Q. Do you know when in March of 1998 Sunbeam

6 determined that it would not make the numbers for Q1?

7 A. I don't know that either.

8 Q. You interviewed Mr. Kaiser as well; is that

9 correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 MR. JOHNSON: Let's mark this as CPH 102.

12 Q. Mr. Pastrana, could you identify Exhibit 102 for

13 the record?

14 A. This is a memorandum I prepared of a July 21st

15 interview with Kyle Kaiser.

16 Q. And Kyle Kaiser was a Sunbeam employee?

17 A. Yes, he was the director of customer services.

18 Q. Was he in Delray Beach?

19 A. No, he worked in Hattisburg, Mississippi.

20 Q. If you flip to the third page of this Bates

21 stamp, CPH 62690, there's a section called bill and hold.

22 Can you tell us what bill and hold refers to?

23 A. Bill and hold in an accounting transaction refers

24 to a revenue transaction where the seller records a sale and

25 bills the customer but the goods haven't been physically

Page 30

1 shipped to the customers -- directly to the customer's

2 location.

3 Q. They're shipped to a warehouse or third party?

4 A. Could be to a warehouse, third party. Could be

5 segregated within the seller's own warehouse for that

6 customer.

7 Q. There's a sentence under the section that states,

8 "Gluck was being forced. Was not a proponent of it." Did

9 Mr. Kaiser indicate who was forcing Gluck to presumably do

10 bill and hold sales?

11 MS. BROWN: Objection.

12 THE WITNESS: I don't recall if it's not here. I

13 don't remember.

14 BY MR. JOHNSON:

15 Q. And just above that it states, "Decision to do

16 bill and hold was executed abruptly at the end of fourth

17 quarter, 1997." Did you know that Sunbeam was engaging in 18 bill and hold sales at the end of the fourth quarter, 1997?

19 A. We did.

20 Q. There's a reference to "Lack of procedures

21 here." Do you know what that refers to?

22 A. Yes, I believe that prior to the fourth quarter

23 of 1997 the company had not done bill and hold sale

24 transactions before and did not have formal procedures in 25 place for how to handle that type of transaction.

1 Q. Did you ever gain an understanding as to why the

2 company determined to begin engaging in bill and hold sales

3 at that time?

4 A. I did get an understanding or at least I thought

5 I understood what the reason for it was.

6 Q. And what were those reasons?

7 A. The way I understood it --

8 MR. MOSCATO: Go ahead. I'm just making myself

9 comfortable because it's probably going to be a long

10 explanation but go ahead.

11 THE WITNESS: Want me to keep it short?

12 MR. JOHNSON: Answer the question.

13 THE WITNESS: My understanding of it was that in

14 the 1997 season for selling grills, the company missed an

15 opportunity to fill more customer orders because there were

16 certain limitations in terms of the capacity of grills that

17 its plant could produce, so the idea for the 1998 selling

18 season was to start producing the grills earlier, start

19 selling the grills earlier, and hopefully that way have time

20 to produce ultimately a higher number -- larger number of 21 grills and sell more grills.

22 And then what happened was at the time

23 that the company was ready to start selling its grills, that

24 it produced enough grills that the customers didn't have

25 available space at that time for the grills, so the decision

1 was made that the customers would take the inventory --

2 would go ahead and purchase the inventory but that it would

3 be placed in a warehouse until the customers were ready to 4 take delivery.

5 BY MR. JOHNSON:

6 Q. Is the early-buy program at Sunbeam the same as

7 bill and hold?

8 A. I understood the two to be related but not

9 necessarily the same thing.

10 Q. So early buy, a customer could, in fact, take

11 possession of the product?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And bill and hold was not limited to grills, was

14 it?

15 A. As far as I knew at that time, it was limited to 16 grills. As far as I knew at that time. I think I learned

17 subsequently, maybe when we were doing the restatement work,

18 that it might have been applied on a limited basis to other

19 types of goods.

20 Q. Let's flip to the next page of Exhibit 102 for

21 me. That's got the Bates stamp CPH 62691. There's a

22 heading, "Pressure to Make Sales Numbers at End of Q1 98";

23 do you see that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. One of the provisions of that heading states,

1 "They (top management) were planning to close the company.
 2 Anyone hired after October of 1996 were told this is an
 3 18-month deal and when we sell, you will be fully vested."
 4 What is Mr. Kaiser referring to there?
 5 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 6 THE WITNESS: I think he's referring to a
 7 knowledge that he had, that the intention of senior
 8 management was to eventually sell the company.
 9 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 10 Q. "This is an 18-month deal," does that refer to 11 how long the business model needed to be sustained?
 12 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 13 THE WITNESS: Yes, I understood it to mean that,
 14 you know, after kind of Dunlap and the people he brought in 15 got involved that the goal was to restructure the company
 16 and sell it within 18 months.
 17 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 18 Q. When did you first hear that Sunbeam might be 19 sold?
 20 A. I don't recall.
 21 Q. I think you indicated you began working in 22 earnest around October of '97?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. Was the information that Sunbeam might be sold
 25 known to you at that time?

1 A. Not that I can remember.
 2 Q. The next provision under that heading states,
 3 "Kyle: 'Nobody would put up with his bull if not for the 4 options.'" Do you have any idea what Mr. Kaiser was
 5 referring to there?
 6 A. I think he meant that he was under a lot of 7 pressure to do whatever his role was.
 8 Q. And what are the options referred to there?
 9 A. Employee stock options.
 10 Q. If you would flip over to -- I'm sorry. That's 11 all I have on this exhibit.
 12 And Mr. Bloomfield is also one of the 13 employees that you interviewed at Sunbeam during the initial 14 proceedings?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 MR. JOHNSON: Let's mark this Exhibit 103.
 17 Q. Mr. Pastrana, can you identify Exhibit 103 for
 18 the record?
 19 A. This is a memorandum I prepared of an interview
 20 with Bill Bloomfield.
 21 Q. And you interviewed Mr. Bloomfield the same day
 22 you interviewed Mr. Kaiser?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. I take it, then, Mr. Bloomfield is in Mississippi
 25 as well?

1 A. I think we interviewed Mr. Bloomfield in
 2 Mississippi. I'm not sure he was actually based in 3 Mississippi but I don't recall.
 4 Q. Were all of your interviews for the additional
 5 procedures conducted in person?
 6 A. No, one or two of them might have been
 7 telephonic.
 8 Q. Do you remember which ones might have been
 9 telephonic?
 10 A. I know that the interview was an interview of 11 Lisa Dalberth that was telephonic. I don't remember which 12 other ones were.
 13 MR. MOSCATO: If it was telephonic, would you
 14 have said it was telephonic in the interview memo?
 15 THE WITNESS: You know, I think I did in the Lisa
 16 Dalberth memo. I can't say I necessarily would have done
 17 that. I should have but I don't know that I did.
 18 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 19 Q. Turn to the second page of this exhibit, CPH 103,
 20 the fourth line down, fourth text section down states, "Don 21 Uzzi's philosophy - load the pipeline and we'll deal with 22 the customers later." What is Mr. Bloomfield referring to
 23 there?
 24 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 25 THE WITNESS: Just in the context in reading it

1 now, I mean, I understand it to mean that they were taking
 2 sales that -- orders that might have been first quarter
 3 sales and pulling them forward and perhaps shipping them to 4 customers in advance of the customers' desired date for the 5 merchandise. And I think what this statement is referring
 6 to is the fact that these employees were given instructions
 7 to just go ahead and ship that merchandise and then they 8 will deal with the customer complaints on -- you know, when 9 the merchandise comes back or when the customers complain.
 10 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 11 Q. So the pipeline is the shipping --
 12 A. The distribution channel, distribution of goods.
 13 Q. So is load the pipeline, is that the same thing
 14 as stuffing the channel?
 15 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 16 THE WITNESS: I think --
 17 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, I'm a little confused.
 18 Are you asking him whether it's the same in his mind,
 19 whether it's the same in Mr. Bloomfield's mind? I'm not 20 trying to be a pain. It's getting a little fuzzy as to what 21 you're asking.
 22 MR. JOHNSON: That's a fair statement.
 23 Q. Did you understand Mr. Bloomfield to be 24 indicating that Sunbeam was stuffing the channel?
 25 MS. BROWN: Objection.

1 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure that I necessarily
2 correlated this with stuffing the channel. I mean, I
3 think -- I suppose you could interpret those to mean similar
4 things. I really don't know.

5 BY MR. JOHNSON:

6 Q. But you did understand Mr. Bloomfield to be
7 indicating that Sunbeam was shipping product in the fourth
8 quarter despite the customers hadn't ordered the product?

9 A. Correct. Or at least if customers had ordered
10 the product in advance of the targeted delivery date, that 11 the customer had specified.

12 Q. About two thirds of the way down the page
13 there's a provision that provides, quote, "Each quarter it
14 went deeper. Everyone was telling our operating committee
15 this has to stop. Lee Griffith said this can't go on."
16 What was Mr. Bloomfield referring to there?

17 A. I believe this was just the pressure to increase
18 sales at the end of each quarter and in particular to -- 19 you know, to make deliveries in advance of the dates that 20 customers requested. That's what I understood it to mean.
21 So they did some on the fourth quarter and then they had to 22 go a little bit more into the first quarter of '98 and, you
23 know, kind of progressed.

24 Q. And you understood Mr. Bloomfield to be
25 indicating that the purpose of shipping prior to a

1 Andersen's reaction to bill and hold?

2 MS. BROWN: Objection.

3 THE WITNESS: You know, I don't recall. I can
4 remember, when we first learned of the bill and hold, there
5 was concern about it because it's an unusual type of revenue
6 arrangement. I don't recall ever necessarily hearing we had
7 a problem with it provided they had the appropriate
8 documentation to support the transaction.

9 BY MR. JOHNSON:

10 Q. Did you ever hear from anyone whether the SEC
11 wasn't going to like Sunbeam's bill and hold practices?

12 MR. MOSCATO: You mean, this is back when they 13 first found out about it? Is this what you are talking
14 about?

15 MR. JOHNSON: Right.

16 MR. MOSCATO: So back in -- you know, when you
17 are doing the year-end audit, use that as the time frame for 18 his question, if that helps.

19 THE WITNESS: I don't remember anybody -- could 20 you repeat the question just to make sure?

21 BY MR. JOHNSON:

22 Q. And let me put a time frame just so we are all
23 clear as to when you heard this. When Andersen first
24 learned that Sunbeam was engaging in bill and hold sales,
25 did you have any conversations with anyone to the effect

1 customer's desire ship date was to recognize revenue earlier
2 than what Sunbeam otherwise would be able to do?

3 MS. BROWN: Objection.

4 THE WITNESS: It was to recognize revenue on 5 product that otherwise would have been revenue on the 6 subsequent quarter, would have been delivered in a
7 subsequent quarter.

8 BY MR. JOHNSON:

9 Q. So it's accelerating recognition of revenue?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And the last line on this page indicates, "Every 12 quarter there was a significant push to pull forward
13 sales." That's a reference to accelerating the recognition
14 of income?

15 A. That's right.

16 Q. If you would be good enough to flip to the second
17 to the last page of Exhibit 103, CPH 62676, under the 18 heading "The Neosha bill and hold"; do you see that?

19 A. Uh-huh.

20 Q. About two thirds of the way down that section
21 there's a sentence that provides, "Gluck said AA Partners
22 had a problem with B&H and the SEC wasn't going to like it";
23 do you see that sentence?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Was that consistent with your understanding of

1 that the SEC would be disappointed or troubled in any way
2 about those sales?

3 A. No, not at that time.

4 Q. Flip to the next page which is the last page
5 of that memo. At the top it provides, "As early as 6 September 1997 the sales org knew that the stores were 7 stuffed with product, e.g., Wal-Mart had 42 weeks of 8 product. Talked to Chuck Myers." To your knowledge, did
9 anyone at Andersen talk to Chuck Myers about this issue?

10 A. I didn't. I don't know if anyone did.

11 Q. Do you know why Mr. Bloomfield is conveying this 12 information to you?

13 A. I think just in response to our questions, he was 14 giving us his impressions of what he knew.

15 Q. Do you know how many people were in the sales org
16 that Mr. Bloomfield is referring to there?

17 A. I don't know.

18 Q. By the way, did Mr. Bloomfield ever indicate to 19 you that anyone from Morgan Stanley had ever attempted to 20 contact him?

21 A. No.

22 Q. How about Mr. Kaiser, did Mr. Kaiser ever tell
23 you that Morgan Stanley attempted to contact him at any 24 point?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Same question for Mr. Yales, did Mr. Yales ever
2 tell that you Morgan Stanley had attempted to contact him at 3 any point?
4 A. No.
5 Q. Did you interview Jim Job?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Is that Jim Job or Job?
8 A. Job.
9 Q. A difficult name, I'm sure.
10 MR. JOHNSON: Let's mark the Job interview as CPH
11 104.
12 Q. Mr. Pastrana, will you identify CPH 104 for the 13 record?
14 A. This is a memorandum I prepared summarizing an 15 interview with Jim Job on July 20 of 1998.
16 Q. And the interview -- the memo is dated August 30,
17 1998?
18 A. That's right.
19 Q. Did you keep your notes from any of these 20 interviews, by the way?
21 A. No, I did not.
22 Q. The last bit of text on this memo, which is the 23 second page, is in quotes and it states, "I guess they 24 didn't want to receive the goods because they wanted to make 25 the first quarter look as good as possible." What is

1 Mr. Job referring to there?
2 A. I think he's talking about the fact that they
3 were turning away -- his impressions about the company
4 turning away customer merchandise returns at the return
5 locations.
6 Q. So customer sent goods back on the first quarter
7 of 1998 but the company wouldn't accept them; is that
8 correct?
9 A. That's correct.
10 Q. Did you have any understanding as to why the 11 company wanted to make the first quarter look as good as 12 possible?
13 MS. BROWN: Objection.
14 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that.
15 THE WITNESS: Other than trying to achieve
16 guidance that they had given, the market, I didn't know.
17 BY MR. JOHNSON:
18 Q. Do I understand that when unauthorized returns
19 were delivered to Mississippi, they sat in trucks until some 20 point and time?
21 A. That was my understanding.
22 Q. And Sunbeam paid the charges associated with 23 having the trailers stored?
24 MS. BROWN: Objection.
25 THE WITNESS: That was my understanding obtained

1 as part of these interviews that I did.
2 BY MR. JOHNSON:
3 Q. Do you know what volume of returns Mr. Job was
4 talking about?
5 A. I don't know.
6 Q. Toward the bottom of the first page he refers to
7 75 to 100 trucks. Do you have any idea what volume of sales
8 would be contained within 75 to 100 trucks?
9 MS. BROWN: Objection.
10 THE WITNESS: I have no idea.
11 BY MR. JOHNSON:
12 Q. Would it be several million dollars?
13 MR. MOSCATO: I object. Doesn't it kind of 14 depend what's in the trucks?
15 MR. JOHNSON: Within reason, sure.
16 THE WITNESS: Without knowing how full the trucks
17 are, what the nature of the merchandise that's in there, and 18 even at this point I wouldn't know what the value of the 19 truck is of any kind of merchandise.
20 BY MR. JOHNSON:
21 Q. Did you find this information concerning returns
22 significant?
23 MS. BROWN: Objection.
24 THE WITNESS: I mean, the information gleaned in 25 this particular interview, I don't remember this being a

1 very helpful interview, but in general the information that
2 there were -- you know, learned subsequently that there were 3 trucks filled with merchandise that customers were 4 attempting to return, that the company was not accepting,
5 yes, I mean, that was certainly noteworthy from our 6 standpoint.
7 BY MR. JOHNSON:
8 Q. Did Mr. Job ever indicate in any way that Morgan
9 Stanley had attempted to contact him?
10 A. No.
11 Q. You interviewed Mr. Jeffcoat as well?
12 A. Yes.
13 MR. JOHNSON: Exhibit 105.
14 Q. Exhibit 105, Mr. Pastrana, appears to consist 15 of two memoranda.
16 A. Yes.
17 Q. One you authored and one Mr. Harlow authored?
18 A. Uh-huh.
19 Q. Why is it that there are two memoranda?
20 A. I don't know. I was not aware of the one
21 authored by Mr. Harlow or, if I was aware of it, I don't 22 remember being aware of it.
23 Q. Can you tell where these memoranda concern the 24 same interview?
25 A. Yes, I think it's the same interview.

1 Q. Did Mr. Jeffcoat ever tell you that Morgan
2 Stanley had attempted to contact him?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Mr. Jeffcoat refers, according to this
5 memorandum, to the pulling forward of sales?
6 A. Where is that?
7 Q. For example, on Page 1 at 9/97?
8 A. Uh-huh.
9 Q. "Was aware that orders were pulled forward"?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. What is the "pull forward of sales" referred to 12 there?
13 MS. BROWN: Objection.
14 THE WITNESS: This is again accelerating delivery
15 dates on orders that had been placed by customers. Instead 16 of delivering them in the fourth quarter of '97, deliver the 17 order in the third quarter of '97.
18 BY MR. JOHNSON:
19 Q. Now, I believe you told me already but I don't 20 have a good note on this, what particular aspects of 21 Sunbeam's finances were you focused on in connection with
22 the 1997 audit?
23 A. Say that again.
24 MR. MOSCATO: He didn't answer that.
25 ///

Page 46

1 BY MR. JOHNSON:
2 Q. Were there any particular aspects of Sunbeam's
3 financial statements that you focused on in connection with
4 the 1997 audit?
5 MR. MOSCATO: The original audit.
6 THE WITNESS: Yeah. You know, without going
7 back, it's hard to give you a complete list. I did work in 8 a number of different areas. I may not have done all the 9 work in a given area that I would name but, for example,
10 accounts receivable, I did some of the work related to 11 accounts receivable. I did some work related to inventory.
12 I can't remember doing too much related to inventory. Some 13 of the accrued liabilities like the accrual for returns and 14 warranty, cooperative advertising, credits due to customers,
15 the overall analytical review.
16 BY MR. JOHNSON:
17 Q. Now, you say accounts receivable, did that 18 include examination of bill and hold practices?
19 A. Examination of some of the documents related to 20 the bill and hold transactions, yes.
21 Q. And are you familiar with the EPI transaction?
22 A. I am. It's been a while since I've looked at 23 information, but I do recall the EPI transaction.
24 Q. And you looked at that in connection with the 25 1997 audit?

1 A. I think so. I'd have to look at some documents.
2 Q. Let me give you one that might help you.
3 MR. JOHNSON: This will be CPH 106.
4 Q. Mr. Pastrana, could you identify Exhibit CPH 106
5 for us?
6 A. This is a memo I authored entitled "Review of 7 significant sales transactions near year end."
8 Q. And this is one of the documents that you
9 reviewed this past weekend?
10 A. No.
11 Q. Take a minute to review it, if you would please.
12 A. (Reading) Okay.
13 Q. The subject line of this memorandum states,
14 "Review of significant sales transactions near year end."
15 Why were you looking at transactions near year end?
16 A. I mean, it's a standard audit procedure that you
17 perform to look for any kind of unusual large transactions
18 that might take place near the end of a period to search for 19 cutoff issues, issues of sales occurring in one period that 20 maybe should have been sales of subsequent period.
21 Q. And there are three categories of transactions
22 listed in this memorandum; is that correct?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. To whom was this memorandum circulated,
25 Exhibit 106?

1 A. This memorandum was placed in the audit files,
2 the work papers that would have been review by Mr. Bornstein
3 and Mr. Harlow. Let me say, at minimum it would have been 4 reviewed by Mr. Bornstein. It's possible Mr. Harlow might
5 have reviewed it.
6 Q. The memorandum indicates that Andersen proposed
7 an adjustment with respect to the EPI transactions; is that
8 correct?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Did Sunbeam accept that adjustment?
11 A. I think the way I recall it, they decided not to 12 record the adjustment. They waived the adjustment.
13 Q. And the adjustment was for three million dollars;
14 is that correct?
15 A. Correct.
16 Q. And with respect to the Encore, Andersen proposed
17 an adjustment on that transaction as well?
18 A. Correct.
19 Q. And Sunbeam waived that proposed adjustment?
20 A. Correct.
21 Q. To your knowledge, did anyone from Morgan Stanley
22 ever ask anyone at Andersen about any waived or past
23 adjustments?
24 A. Not to my knowledge.
25 Q. Does Sunbeam have access to your work papers

1 during the normal course of an audit?

2 A. No.

3 Q. In the first section of this memorandum
4 concerning bill and hold sales, you distinguish, it appears,
5 between early buy sales and bill and hold sales?

6 A. Uh-huh.

7 Q. Can you tell us again what the distinction
8 between those two type of sales may be?

9 A. Well, early buy is a program -- you know, could 10 be different at different companies. I mean, at Sunbeam,
11 the way I understand it, was a program to encourage 12 customers to purchase their grills early in the season where 13 Sunbeam would offer the company perhaps an incentive in the 14 form of a discount and also allow them to have extended
15 credit terms, so instead of paying in 30 days, maybe pay in 16 90 days. Something like that.

17 The bill on hold was a different
18 arrangement although the two may have happened often in the 19 same transaction, but bill and hold was different where the 20 customer wanted to take advantage of the early-buy program
21 but perhaps didn't have the warehousing space, and then the 22 parties reached agreement to go ahead and sell/purchase the 23 goods on a bill and hold basis.

24 Q. The first paragraph under the bill and hold 25 states, "Pursuant to SEC regulations, said sales are

1 Q. Did you have any other duties with respect to
2 confirming the bill and hold sales?

3 A. Well, I mean, we mailed out the letters,
4 followed up pretty much on a daily basis to see if we had
5 gotten the letters back. I reconciled the responses that
6 came back in those letters to the company's accounting
7 records. I think I prepared a summary of the results of the 8 confirmation requests. And I might have also done some 9 research to determine exactly what conditions needed to be
10 satisfied and needed to be confirmed with the third parties
11 in order to have a valid bill and hold sale.

12 Q. I believe you stated earlier that bill and hold
13 sales were unusual in your experience?

14 A. Well, I had never had experience with them before
15 and I knew it wasn't a common sales practice.

16 Q. Did that, the fact that Sunbeam was engaging in 17 bill and hold sales, cause Andersen to bring a heightened
18 skepticism to its auto work?

19 A. Yes, I believe so.

20 Q. How about the EPI transaction, did that raise any 21 eyebrows, so to speak, at Andersen?

22 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. You don't have to adopt
23 his terminology, Dennis, to answer that question.

24 THE WITNESS: I mean, I think it certainly
25 prompted a response. I mean, The EPI arrangement was a

1 permissible only under a handful of criteria." The last of
2 those listed in the memorandum is that the buyer has a
3 business reason placing the order well in advance of his
4 needs. Would to obtain a price discount be a legitimate
5 business reason for placing --

6 A. I believe that was the research and the 7 conclusion we reached at the time. I think that's right.

8 Q. Were you involved in the confirmation process
9 with respect to the bill and hold sales?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Did you have any in-person or telephonic
12 conversations with any customers relating to the bill and 13 hold sales?

14 A. I did not.

15 Q. Do you know whether anyone at Andersen did have 16 those calls?

17 A. I am aware that Mr. Harlow had some discussions
18 with some of the customers.

19 Q. Your involvement consisted of mailing
20 confirmation requests?

21 A. Correct.

22 MR. MOSCATO: Was the question that his only
23 involvement was mailing or was that among his activities?

24 MR. JOHNSON: The question wasn't specific.
25 Thank you.

1 little bit, again, unusual, involved entering into a
2 contract with this company, EPI. We reviewed the contract
3 and then I know that Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Harlow had 4 specific discussions with members of senior management about
5 that transaction and the existence of any other transactions
6 that might have similar characteristics. That's what I know
7 about it.

8 BY MR. JOHNSON:

9 Q. With respect to these proposed adjustments, are 10 you aware of any conversations between Andersen personnel
11 and Sunbeam personnel with respect to whether these 12 adjustments should be made?

13 A. I didn't participate in any of those 14 discussions. I know that those discussions were had because 15 we summarized our adjustments on a list and then proposed 16 them to senior management.

17 Q. Do you know who was involved in those
18 discussions?

19 A. I don't know. It would be either Mr. Bornstein
20 or Mr. Harlow or both.

21 Q. How about on the Sunbeam side?

22 A. You know, again I don't know. I mean, at minimum
23 it may have been communicated to Mr. Kersh and I would think
24 Al Dunlap as well.

25 Q. Was there anything about the management style or

1 culture at Sunbeam that caused Andersen to bring a
2 heightened skepticism to the audit?

3 MS. BROWN: Objection.

4 THE WITNESS: You know, in the role that I was in
5 and what I was doing, my role at the job at the time, I
6 don't remember anything out of the ordinary in the conduct
7 of the 1997 audit.

8 You know, I knew that the company had 9 undertaken a fairly aggressive restructuring plan and just 10 by "aggressive," I mean involving a substantial amount of 11 change in terms of closing locations, selling of furniture
12 division, reducing employees and things of that sort that I
13 knew certainly impacted the way we designed our audit but to 14 say that it resulted in heightened skepticism or anything of 15 that sort, I think it impacted the way we designed our audit
16 plan.

17 MR. MOSCATO: Dennis, if there comes a time you
18 want a break, just say so.

19 MR. JOHNSON: The same goes for you, Mike.

20 MR. MOSCATO: I know that. I can speak for 21 myself. I'm comfortable. I just want to make sure Dennis
22 is comfortable.

23 MR. JOHNSON: Actually a few more minutes on this
24 topic and I will propose one myself.

25 Q. During the course of any of your audits -- excuse

1 the time frame that you were conducting the audit and answer
2 accordingly.

3 THE WITNESS: At the time I was conducting the 4 audit, I don't remember ever having a problem meeting with
5 someone I wanted to meet with. I wouldn't go knock on Al
6 Dunlap's door to ask him a question about something, but the 7 people were available.

8 BY MR. JOHNSON:

9 Q. Were you aware during the 1997 audit of the 10 company's financial forecast?

11 A. You know, in our audit and our work papers we 12 probably have a forecast or a budget for the following year
13 which we would typically look at. I don't recall being 14 aware, at the time that I was actually conducting the audit,
15 of what that budgeted forecast was.

16 Q. So you didn't have a sense of whether it was a
17 very aggressive forecast or not?

18 A. For the following year, no. I just didn't have 19 that sense.

20 Q. Auditors look retrospectively; is that correct?

21 A. Yes, we are kind of stuck in the past.

22 Q. In connection with the '97 audit, did you become 23 aware at any point during that audit that there was a
24 possibility of Sunbeam being sold to another company?

25 A. What was the time frame again?

1 me. During the course of the your 1997 audit, did you ever
2 receive any information from Sunbeam employees as to
3 Chainsaw Al's management tactics?

4 MS. BROWN: Objection.

5 THE WITNESS: No.

6 BY MR. JOHNSON:

7 Q. Did you hear during the 1997 audit that it was a
8 very high pressure environment?

9 A. There were certainly indications that there was 10 considerable amount of pressure but, you know, honestly, my 11 experience with other companies, there was also pressure to 12 meet earnings, to achieve goals every year and things of 13 this sort so probably at my level of experience, I wouldn't 14 have thought that was necessarily unusual or strange.

15 Q. Did you ever get the sense that anyone at Sunbeam
16 was uncomfortable speaking with you during the 1997 audit?

17 A. No.

18 Q. So, as far as you knew, during that audit
19 employees were available to speak with you and were candid
20 in giving you information?

21 MR. MOSCATO: I object. I mean, you're asking
22 him what he was thinking at the time of the audit, right?

23 MR. JOHNSON: Correct.

24 Q. As far as you knew --

25 MR. MOSCATO: You have to put yourself back to

1 Q. At any point during the 1997 audit.

2 A. You've actually asked me that question before and
3 I said no. I think there was some discussion late in the 4 year. Maybe in December I heard some employees saying
5 something to the effect that management was trying to sell
6 the company, but I can't really state what the timing was of 7 when I learned that idea.

8 Q. Would that cause you to bring any type of
9 heightened skepticism to the audit?

10 A. I don't think so. I mean, I think that our plan
11 was based on our understanding of the company and what had 12 transpired in 1997. I'm not sure that -- and I think it was 13 responsive to what we identified as being the audit risk
14 irrespective of what the plan was to sell the company or 15 not. I don't think so.

16 Q. One more question on this Exhibit 106. What is 17 the scope of the adjustment that was proposed on the Encore
18 transaction?

19 A. When you say what is the scope --

20 Q. I guess the accountant's way of putting it I
21 think is what would be the net effect of that adjustment?

22 A. It seems it would be $500,000.

23 MR. JOHNSON: Do you want to take a short break
24 or do you want to keep going?

25 MR. MOSCATO: Sure.

1 THE WITNESS: Whatever you guys want.
 2 MR. MOSCATO: Let's take a break.
 3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are going off the video
 4 record. The time is 10:37.
 5 (Recess noted: 10:37 a.m. to 10:49 a.m.)
 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the record. The
 7 time is 10:49.
 8 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 9 Q. Mr. Pastrana, during the first quarter of 1998
 10 did you review any of Sunbeam's interim sale results for the 11 first quarter of 1998?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. How is it that you came to do that?
 14 A. Sometime in the first quarter of 1998 the company
 15 decided to purchase several companies of which I think
 16 Coleman was the most significant, and in order to finance
 17 that purchase they were going to be issuing some debt that 18 was going to -- and the document to sell the debt was going
 19 to include the financial statements, that Arthur Andersen
 20 had authored it. So, as a matter of policy or practice, we 21 performed what's called a post-audit review where we 22 reviewed the results of the company subsequent to the date
 23 of the audited financial statements and it was in connection
 24 with that process.
 25 Q. Did anyone in particular at Arthur Andersen

1 direct you to begin those post audit procedures?
 2 A. Sure, it would have been Larry Bornstein.
 3 Q. Do you recall approximately when he asked you to 4 start that work?
 5 A. I really don't remember what the time frame was.
 6 It would have been February, March, something like that.
 7 Q. How did you go about getting the financial 8 information that you needed to conduct those post-audit
 9 procedures?
 10 A. We put together a list usually of the things we 11 need and give it to someone at the company.
 12 Q. And who was your contact person at Sunbeam in 13 connection with those procedures?
 14 A. It would have been either Bob Gluck or Don
 15 Jackson.
 16 Q. And one of the things you asked for is sales,
 17 current sales figures?
 18 A. Right.
 19 MS. BROWN: Object.
 20 THE WITNESS: Yes, revenue. One of the things we 21 would have asked for, if I can back up, would have been the 22 income statement for January and February which would have 23 contained sales and we have may have requested more
 24 information with regard to sales.
 25 ///

1 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 2 Q. Did Sunbeam provide that information to you?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 MR. JOHNSON: Let's mark this as Exhibit 107, I
 5 guess it is.
 6 Q. Mr. Pastrana, giving you a document which has 7 been marked as CPH 107, Bates stamp 0013023 through 027, can
 8 you identify that document for the record?
 9 A. This is the schedule which shows comparative
 10 income statements for Sunbeam comparing the period 1998 to 11 the period 1997 and contains some notation of explanation of 12 reasons for changes from one period to the other in certain 13 amounts, certain line items.
 14 Q. And on the first page of the exhibit on the upper 15 right corner there's a notation "DP 3/98." Does that refer
 16 to you, Dennis Pastrana?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. Are those your handwritten notes on the second
 19 page of the exhibit?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. Can you recall more specifically whether it was 22 Mr. Jackson or Mr. Gluck who provided you this detailed
 23 income statement?
 24 A. I can't tell from here. I can't remember.
 25 Q. And can you tell from this document when it was

1 provided to you?
 2 A. It looks like I got it on or about March 5th of
 3 '98. I think it says '97 but it should say '98.
 4 Q. You are looking at the first page of the exhibit?
 5 A. I'm looking at the first page. I'm just guessing
 6 that that's -- it says R35. Should be '98 again so I assume 7 that's approximately the date it was done.
 8 Q. R means received?
 9 A. R typically stands for review. This wasn't 10 really a review but the post-report review that we were 11 doing in early March.
 12 Q. And this detailed income statement provides
 13 that for January of '97 as compared for January of '98,
 14 sales were down 43 -- approximately $44 million; am I
 15 reading this correctly?
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. And for the period January 1998, Sunbeam was 18 showing an operating loss of over $11 million; is that
 19 right?
 20 A. Correct. Well, at the operating profit line, I
 21 think is where you are looking.
 22 Q. Right.
 23 A. Correct.
 24 Q. And the net loss for the period January 1998 was 25 nine and half million dollars approximately?

1 A. Correct.
 2 Q. Did you share this income statement with anyone
 3 at Andersen?
 4 A. Well, I placed it in the work papers and it was
 5 reviewed.
 6 Q. Did you have any discussions with anyone at 7 Andersen about these figures?
 8 A. I may have. I don't remember right now the 9 specifics of any discussions.
 10 Q. Your handwritten notes, Note A -- I think I can 11 read your writing, but if you could read it for the record,
 12 that would be great.
 13 A. "Decrease mainly due to impact of fourth quarter
 14 early buy grill sales of approximately 50 million. In prior 15 year, these sales occurred in the first quarter."
 16 Q. And Note A on the Income Statement appears on the 17 gross trade sales line; is that correct?
 18 A. Right.
 19 Q. And so that's an explanation as to why gross
 20 sales were less than half in January of '98 than what they 21 were in 1997?
 22 A. Right.
 23 Q. Who provided that explanation to you?
 24 A. Again, I don't know. I think it would have been 25 Mr. Gluck. I'm not certain.

1 Q. Did he have any reaction to that sales
 2 information provided?
 3 A. No, I think it made sense.
 4 Q. The numbers made sense or the explanation made
 5 sense?
 6 A. The explanation made sense.
 7 Q. So but for the early-buy program, these sales --
 8 these $50 million in sales would have been first quarter
 9 sales?
 10 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 11 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
 12 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 13 Q. Is that your understanding?
 14 MR. MOSCATO: Your testimony is that's what was 15 told to you by someone at Sunbeam, right?
 16 THE WITNESS: Correct.
 17 MR. MOSCATO: I don't think this witness has an 18 understanding one way or the other as to what would have 19 happened in that situation.
 20 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 21 Q. So someone at Sunbeam indicated to you that the 22 sales decline was as a result of the early-buy program?
 23 A. Correct. I guess I would say it differently.
 24 Q. How would you say it?
 25 A. The way the early-buy program was done in 1990 --

1 say 1997/1998 period -- I mean, early buy I think existed in
 2 the previous year. Customers, say, the first quarter of '97
 3 purchased grills and had extended terms and had whatever. I
 4 mean, it's still early in the grill season. Not too many
 5 people buy grills in January, but I think it started a
 6 little bit earlier for the 97/98 year, and so that first
 7 wave of sales that took place in the first quarter of '97,
 8 the customers were not ready to replace that yet. That's 9 the way I understood it.
 10 Q. And you understood it that 50 million in sales
 11 occurred in the fourth quarter of '97 that otherwise would 12 have occurred in the first quarter of '98?
 13 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 14 THE WITNESS: Yes. I mean, my understanding was 15 that those orders, correct, that were shipped in the fourth
 16 quarter of '97, had the program not been structured that 17 way, I assume that that's right, they would have been 1998
 18 sales.
 19 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 20 Q. Your Note C provides -- maybe you ought to read
 21 it again. I think I can read it but I'm not sure.
 22 A. Do you want me to read it?
 23 Q. Yes.
 24 A. Oh, I'm sorry. "Decrease due to lower January
 25 grill margins. Standard grill margins are approximately 21

1 percent."
 2 Q. Do I read this income statement correctly that
 3 January '98, margins on all goods were 5.7 percent?
 4 A. Correct.
 5 Q. Did you get any updated sales information from
 6 Sunbeam for the first quarter of 1998 interim periods?
 7 A. Yes, I think we carried this forward at some
 8 point and actually got sales information through February.
 9 MR. JOHNSON: This will be Exhibit CPH 108.
 10 Q. Mr. Pastrana, I've given a document we marked
 11 CPH 108, Bates stamp CPH 1056006 through 6010. Could you
 12 identify that for us?
 13 A. This is similar to the last exhibit we looked at 14 except this is a comparative income statement comparing the 15 year-to-date period ending February of 1998 to the same
 16 year-to-date period of the prior year.
 17 Q. So this is the first two thirds of the first
 18 quarter of 1998?
 19 A. Right.
 20 Q. And this shows that sales for 1998 year-to-date
 21 were almost 71 million less than sales for the same period
 22 in 1997?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. And that as of March 1, Sunbeam was showing a net
 25 loss of approximately $15 million; is that correct?

1 A. That's correct.
 2 Q. And that compared with a profit for the
 3 comparable period of 1997 of almost $10 million; is that
 4 correct?
 5 A. Correct.
 6 Q. Who provided this Profit and Loss Statement
 7 contained in Exhibit 108 to you?
 8 A. Again, somebody at the company. Most likely
 9 Mr. Gluck or Mr. Jackson.
 10 Q. Did you have any conversations with them
 11 concerning the information contained in the Profit and Loss
 12 Statement?
 13 A. I probably would have directed some questions at 14 them concerning some of the changes.
 15 Q. And that would --
 16 A. At them as well as others.
 17 Q. And that would have been the basis of your notes
 18 that's contained in this exhibit?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. We'll look at those in one second. Did you have 21 any reaction to Sunbeam's results for this period?
 22 A. Well, it seem that they weren't doing as well as 23 they had hoped to or anticipated in terms of revenues and 24 profits.
 25 Q. Do you know what Sunbeam had forecast for its

1 first quarter 1998 as a result?
 2 A. I don't know right now.
 3 Q. Do you know whether they forecast to do --
 4 A. I'm sorry, for what period, did you say?
 5 Q. For the first quarter of 1998, were you aware of 6 what Sunbeam's forecasted goals were?
 7 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 8 THE WITNESS: Let me say I'm aware right now from 9 some of the documents I reviewed over the weekend. I don't 10 remember at that time exactly if I was aware of what they 11 were projecting for the first quarter.
 12 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 13 Q. Did you at least have a general sense that they 14 anticipated doing at least as well as the prior year?
 15 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 16 THE WITNESS: I did following reading a press
 17 release which I can't remember if and when I read at that 18 time, so I may have looked at the press release yesterday.
 19 I'm aware of it now.
 20 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 21 Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone at 22 Arthur Andersen concerning the information contained in the 23 Profit and Loss Statement contained in Exhibit 108?
 24 A. I don't recall any specific conversations.
 25 Mr. Bornstein and I worked pretty close on the accounts so

1 we probably had discussions about it.
 2 Q. And this would have been placed in the work
 3 papers as well?
 4 A. Yes, this was placed in the work papers and he
 5 reviewed it.
 6 Q. The first page, upper right again, bears your
 7 initials BP?
 8 A. Uh-huh.
 9 Q. Just above that the initials PBC, it appears to 10 be. What does that refer to?
 11 A. "Prepared by client" so this is a schedule that 12 was given to us by the company.
 13 Q. And again can you give me your best estimate of 14 when this schedule was given to you by the company?
 15 A. Just by looking at these documents, I think it
 16 was about March 13th. It looks like that's when I set it up
 17 and the document actually has a little footer in it that has 18 the same date.
 19 Q. You are looking at Bates CPH 1056009?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. Can you tell from any of the information who at 22 Sunbeam prepared the statement?
 23 A. No, I can't tell.
 24 Q. Did you have any conversations during the first
 25 quarter of 1998 with anyone at Sunbeam relating to whether

1 Sunbeam would be able to improve its financial performance
 2 during that quarter?
 3 A. I don't remember having any discussion with 4 anyone at Sunbeam about that.
 5 Q. Let's look at the notes to the statements which
 6 are at the second page of the exhibit, 1056007. Did you
 7 type these notes up, Mr. Pastrana?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. Note A here indicates that the decrease in first
 10 quarter sales is as a result of early buy and poor weather.
 11 How did you learn that poor weather was one of the reasons
 12 for the sales decrease?
 13 A. I don't remember. I refer in the same note to a
 14 discussion that I had with Lee Griffith and Al Lefevre about 15 their expectation for their sales to recover. I don't 16 remember if it came on the same conversation or if that was 17 a separate conversation with somebody.
 18 Q. Mr. Griffith and Mr. Lefebvre, according to your 19 notes, indicated that the sales were recovered in the second
 20 quarter; is that correct?
 21 A. Right, uh-huh.
 22 Q. Did anyone indicate to you that sales would 23 recover in the first quarter?
 24 A. No, not that I can remember.
 25 Q. Your Note B indicates that Bob Gluck stated that

Page 69

1 the higher freight charges existed despite lower sales
 2 because the company was paying more freight as an incentive?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. Did you have any reaction to that explanation?
 5 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
 6 THE WITNESS: I don't remember. I don't remember
 7 any reaction necessarily.
 8 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 9 Q. Your Note J refers to increase in warehouse and 10 distribution cost, do you see that note?
 11 A. Uh-huh.
 12 Q. Do you understand whether the increase in those 13 costs was associated with bill and hold sales?
 14 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 15 THE WITNESS: I understood it to be due to the 16 production of grill inventory, whether it was inventory that 17 had been segregated for customers or the company's own
 18 inventory. I didn't know what portion of that related to 19 which piece.
 20 Q. To your knowledge, did anyone from Morgan Stanley
 21 ask for either of the interim income statements or Profit
 22 and Loss Statements that are contained in Exhibit 107 and 23 108?
 24 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 25 THE WITNESS: When you say "asked for," nobody

Page 70

1 asked me directly for them. There is certain information
 2 that's derived from there that's delivered to them in a
 3 comfort letter as part of preparation of offering document
 4 or at least our role in that.
 5 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 6 Q. Short of the comfort letter?
 7 A. No, nobody ever asked me.
 8 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: I'm going to change the tape.
 9 MR. JOHNSON: Go ahead.
 10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the end of Videotape
 11 No. 1. We are going off the record. The time is 11:14.
 12 (Tape change)
 13 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record.
 14 This is the beginning of the Videotape No. 2. The time is 15 11:15.
 16 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 17 Q. Mr. Pastrana, are you familiar with a form
 18 AP-187?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. And did you prepare such a form in connection
 21 with your work for Sunbeam?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. I'd like to have you identify that for me, if you
 24 would.
 25 MR. JOHNSON: This will be Exhibit 109.

Page 71

1 Q. Mr. Pastrana, is CPH Exhibit 109 the form
 2 AP-187 that you prepared?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. And what is the purpose of the form AP-187?
 5 A. This is used to document our post report review
 6 procedures.
 7 Q. This indicates that the date of the report is
 8 January 28, 1998 except for certain matters in Note 14. Do
 9 you see that listed on Page 1?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. Is there any reason why the P&L that's contained
 12 in Exhibit 108 which goes through February was not used in 13 connection with this form?
 14 MR. MOSCATO: Huh?
 15 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 16 Q. Let me put it more simply. Why does this report
 17 stop in the middle of January when it appears you may have 18 had a Profit and Loss Statement going through the end of 19 February?
 20 MR. MOSCATO: I think you are misreading the
 21 report.
 22 MR. JOHNSON: Let's let the witness explain.
 23 MR. MOSCATO: Why don't you explain what the date
 24 of order is, Dennis.
 25 THE WITNESS: This is the date on the audit

Page 72

1 opinion that's contained in the 10-K, so the purpose of this
 2 post report review form is to document review procedures
 3 that we performed subsequent to the date of that opinion or
 4 that report. So I mean this would indicate that the 10-K
 5 probably was completed, filed, sometime on or about March
 6 2nd.
 7 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 8 Q. If you flip to the third page of the exhibit
 9 which is Page 2 of the form, as I understand Paragraph 2
 10 indicates that the financial statements -- the interim
 11 financial statements are as of February 1, 1998; is that
 12 correct?
 13 A. Correct.
 14 Q. And I guess that brings me back to the original
 15 question of doesn't the Profit and Loss Statement contained
 16 in Exhibit 108 go through the end of February?
 17 A. It does.
 18 Q. And do you recall any reason why that statement
 19 was not used in connection with this form?
 20 A. Just a second. You know, there are a couple
 21 of -- let me, and without having all the documents I'm not 22 going to be able to explain it to you accurately. There are 23 a couple of post report review procedures that got performed
 24 and they probably were done on a couple of these forms. I
 25 mean, this performance review was completed through March

1 16th -- hold on a second. These financials are dated, what,
 2 March 13? I'm going to stop talking until I figure this 3 out.
 4 Q. Let me point one thing out to you that might help
 5 you answer. If you look at Page 4 of your report.
 6 A. Okay.
 7 Q. Under Paragraph 4-A you refer through -- you
 8 refer to results through the second period of the first
 9 quarter, I believe, and so you appear to be using the later
 10 P&L although you don't refer to it in the preamble of the 11 report.
 12 A. That was my guess. I was just trying to go to 13 the documents and figure it out. We did a couple of these 14 which is why you saw two P&L's, one through January, one
 15 through February. It's possible we used this preliminary 16 using the January report. When they finished closing the 17 month of February, we got the February report and this is 18 updated based on that, and we just did not correct the dates
 19 on that box which I think is what happened.
 20 Q. So this report does include at least some 21 information concerning results through the end of February?
 22 A. Correct.
 23 Q. If you look back again at Page 2 of the report,
 24 under Paragraph 2-A it's indicated that work was done by DP.
 25 Again that's you?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. You indicate there that there's a decline in
 3 sales trends due to, one, early-buy program for outdoor
 4 grills which accelerated sales into the fourth quarter.
 5 Again that's the end of the fourth quarter 1987?
 6 A. Correct.
 7 MR. MOSCATO: Again it continues.
 8 MR. JOHNSON: Sure.
 9 MR. MOSCATO: But that's neither here nor there.
 10 It is what it is but it does give a second reason.
 11 MR. JOHNSON: Thanks.
 12 MR. MOSCATO: You're welcome.
 13 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 14 Q. If you go to Page 4 of the report, Mr. Pastrana,
 15 and read Paragraph 4-A to yourself.
 16 A. (Reading) Okay.
 17 Q. Do you know who provided you with the budgeted
 18 Sunbeam net sales and net income for the first quarter of 19 1998?
 20 A. I don't remember.
 21 Q. And do you know the basis for the statement here,
 22 quote, "such targets may be unattainable"?
 23 A. I believe it's just comparing the 309 million
 24 revenue target or net sales target for the first quarter to 25 the 72 million which, as you said, they had achieved two

1 thirds of that quarter. You know, based on that we thought
 2 it may be that they're not going to achieve those targets.
 3 Q. I guess another way to put the question is the 4 unattainability of those targets Andersen's conclusion or
 5 information that somebody provided to Andersen?
 6 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 7 THE WITNESS: That, to the best of my knowledge,
 8 is Andersen's conclusion or my conclusion written here and,
 9 you know, I don't know that it's a conclusion. It's just a
 10 statement of circumstances.
 11 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 12 Q. And the column heading for the column where that 13 statement is made provides "Comments and Disposition of 14 Items Requiring Consideration." Why did you determine that 15 the unattainability of those sales and income targets were 16 an item needing consideration?
 17 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 18 MR. MOSCATO: I object. I characterize it as 19 possible unattainability. He does say "may be 20 unattainable."
 21 MR. JOHNSON: Sure.
 22 MR. MOSCATO: Go ahead, Dennis.
 23 THE WITNESS: You know, I kind of have to put 24 myself back to what role I played in that process. I mean,
 25 the role that I play as a senior would be to look at the

1 financial statements and look for anything that's unusual,
 2 what changed, big firm, the previous year, what might be an
 3 item worth noting, and then summarize it on this form which 4 I did, and then really -- you know, probably the form should 5 be better titled "Items Potentially Requiring 6 Consideration," but then Mr. Bornstein or Mr. Harlow would 7 review this and determine what action was necessary to take.
 8 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 9 Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone at
 10 Andersen about this form?
 11 A. I may have but I don't recall the specifics of 12 any at this point.
 13 Q. Did anyone suggest any revisions to the form
 14 after you circulated it to them?
 15 A. It's quite possible. That would have been normal
 16 in the process of preparing this.
 17 Q. I take it from your answer you don't recall any 18 specific revisions that were made?
 19 A. I don't recall anything specific. It's six years
 20 ago now? Five years?
 21 MR. MOSCATO: Five.
 22 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 23 Q. The first page of the report, there's some 24 handwriting at the bottom. Can you read that writing?
 25 A. "N17, no consent required in section 144

1 offering. However, post audit review work and AP 187 work
2 done in its entirety with" -- "as the firm's name appears in
3 the" -- in the something "included in this document" --
4 "financial statements included in this document. Work done
5 herein sufficient as if we were to issue our consent."

6 Q. Do you know who's handwriting that is?

7 A. Larry Bornstein. I believe he signed it.

8 Q. And that's Mr. Harlow's signature below
9 Mr. Bornstein?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Although it appears you did all the work that 12 went into the report, if I look at the initials columns.

13 A. All the documentation. I didn't review all that 14 work.

15 Q. I believe you testified earlier that this was 16 prepared in connection with issuing a comfort letter; is
17 that correct?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. Do you know whose initials are on the front of 20 this document, KK in the upper right, Exhibit 109?

21 A. KK is a work paper reference number. It's our 22 initials contained in the KK section of the work papers.

23 Q. Now, did you draft the comfort letter to Morgan
24 Stanley in this case?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And how did you come to do that?

2 A. You know, my job, as I can remember it, was to
3 complete these post review procedures and to draft the form
4 of the comfort letter. And then the form is guided, as you
5 probably know, by a specific statement on auditing standards
6 that governs the form of comfort letters. So I drafted it,
7 probably took an initial pass of customizing any sections
8 that would have had to be customized for the situation, and 9 then I would have just passed it on to Mr. Bornstein and Mr.
10 Harlow to review. That was kind of my role.

11 Q. And were you the keeper of the documents, so to 12 speak, until it was finalized?

13 A. I did keep the draft and made revisions as the 14 drafting process took place, yes.

15 Q. Aside from Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Harlow, did
16 anyone else at Andersen provide comments directly to you?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Do you know whether -- one way or the other,
19 whether anyone in the firm -- in the Andersen firm provided
20 comments to Mr. Bornstein or Mr. Harlow?

21 A. I don't know whether or not, in fact, that 22 happened. I do know that as a matter of practice another
23 partner would also have reviewed the comfort letter.

24 Q. And that's a concurring partner?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And that's Mr. Pruitt on this engagement?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. Do you know when you prepared the first draft of
4 the comfort letter?

5 A. Based on some of the documents I reviewed over
6 the weekend, the first one was done -- I believe dated March
7 13th, something like that, so it would have been probably 8 the week leading up to March 19th that it would have been 9 drafted.

10 Q. When you say the first one, you mean the first --
11 you mean the final comfort letter?

12 A. The main body of the comfort letter was 13 subsequently updated by a short term or bring down comfort
14 letter.

15 Q. Did you include the first quarter '98 sales
16 information that you had in your initial draft of the 17 comfort letter?

18 A. The first quarter sales, yes, through February, I
19 think it was.

20 Q. So you put that in the draft that you prepared
21 before you circulated it to Bornstein and Harlow?

22 A. Yes. In the draft I would have put whatever was 23 available. I assume when I started, February was available
24 but if it would have been January, it would have been 25 January.

1 Q. Was there ever any discussion with Mr. Bornstein

2 or Harlow about whether that was information that should or
3 should not be contained in the comfort letter?

4 A. It's required to be contained.

5 Q. But why do you say that?

6 A. In terms of the net sales? I guess you could say
7 required. The AICPA, statement on auditing standards that 8 govern comfort letters, in this case requires disclosure if 9 there has been decrease in sales during that period
10 following the last audited set of financials, so it's kind
11 of governed by the professional standards more so than firm
12 policy.

13 (CPH 110 was marked for identification.)

14 Q. Let me show you draft the comfort letter, if I 15 could. Mr. Pastrana, could you identify Exhibit 110 for the 16 record please?

17 A. This is a draft of the comfort letter dated March
18 19th.

19 Q. If you look at the fax header at the top of the 20 document for me, that reflects a date of March 17, 1998?

21 A. Uh-huh.

22 Q. Do you know what the SBA, Inc. reference is?

23 A. SBA, Inc. was another of the Andersen clients,
24 SBA Communications, which is also a client of 25 Mr. Bornstein. It could be that, you know, in the review

1 process we just faxed these back and forth to wherever he
2 was.

3 Q. Can you tell in any way whether this is a markup
4 of the first draft that you prepared or a later draft?

5 A. Yes, I can't tell which draft this was. This a
6 draft. I mean, this is kind of the draft. We just kind of 7 were updating it as we went along.

8 Q. If you look at Page 3 of the letter, and, for the 9 record, this exhibit has Bates stamp CPH 0038670 through 10 676. We're looking at 38672. If you look at the bottom of 11 that page, there's some handwriting. It seems to indicate,
12 "We had fire sale of inventory."

13 A. Uh-huh.

14 Q. Do you know who's handwriting that is?

15 A. I don't know. I mean, from the context, it looks
16 like it's Gluck, Bob Gluck, because this draft, for example,
17 doesn't disclose in '97 the company had sold some obsolete
18 inventory. We would have provided a draft of this to 19 Mr. Gluck and he might have made a comment that he wanted to 20 make some clarifying explanation as to the reasons why this 21 was happening which I think was included in the final.

22 Q. Why don't you look at the next page under 6-B.
23 6-B provides an explanation as to the decline in net sales
24 in the '98 time frame as compared with the '97 time frame?

25 A. Uh-huh.

1 Q. Was that information that was contained in the 2 draft comfort letter from its initial draft?

3 A. Again, I don't know if this is the initial 4 draft. I don't know at what point that information got into
5 the comfort letter.

6 Q. But your recollection is that the sales
7 information did go in the first draft?

8 A. Yes, yes. In the prior 5-B, yes, that would have
9 been there from the beginning with whatever sales
10 information was available at that time.

11 Q. And you just don't recall whether 6-B was in the 12 first draft or was added along the way?

13 A. That's correct. Well, 6-B was there, you know.
14 But whether the substance of what the statement says, you
15 know, was there, I don't know. In other words, the standard
16 comfort letter would have a standard 6-B. What it says is 17 guided by the circumstances.

18 Q. Again you noted that sales decreased primarily 19 due to the early-buy program which accelerated sales into 20 the fourth quarter of fiscal 1997?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. Could you look at Page 6 of this letter. I don't
23 know whether you can read. Next to one of the tick marks
24 there's a handwriting in the margin area. Can you read
25 that?

1 A. It looks like "were used."

2 Q. And that's a reference to limited use of
3 unaudited financials for the period indicated, as I
4 understand it; is that correct?

5 A. For a limited use?

6 Q. I guess the question is what does the "where 7 used" signify?

8 A. This is kind of a standard listing of procedures
9 that we would perform and some may not apply in all cases so
10 in the draft I may have listed out all the standard
11 procedures and maybe someone in review pointed out that 12 this one is not being used in the comfort letter, so I don't 13 know if that stayed in or we did use it or ultimately we may 14 have taken it out. It looks like just a reviewer's
15 question.

16 Q. Do you know how many days you spent working on 17 the draft that culminated in the March 19 comfort letter?

18 A. I mean, I really don't. You know, I know that 19 this letter here contains sales prior to February so I think
20 this has the January sales -- right? -- basically through 21 February 2nd. And I know that the February sales
22 information was available on March 13th so I must have 23 started this -- must have been working on this before March
24 13th, I would imagine.

25 Q. Let's look at another draft if we could.

1 Before we get to this next exhibit, one more on
2 110. Do you know whether this comfort letter was provided
3 in draft form to Morgan Stanley at any point?

4 A. I don't know.

5 Q. Could you look at what we've marked as 6 Exhibit CPH 111 and identify that for us?

7 A. This looks like another draft of the same comfort
8 letter.

9 Q. And, for the record, this has Bates stamp CPH
10 0038700 through 706. The top of this document,
11 Mr. Pastrana, indicates that it's from Global Financial 12 Press, New York. Do you know what that is?

13 A. I think that's the printer that they were using,
14 Morgan Stanley, whoever, to prepare the Offering Memorandum
15 and Larry was at the printer so we may have been faxing this 16 back and forth. This looks like his handwriting with 17 comments on it. I can't be sure of that.

18 Q. And this shows a fax date time stamp of March
19 19th at about a quarter to midnight; is that correct?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. Were you in the office at Andersen that night to 22 receive his edits?

23 A. I don't remember. I don't remember.

24 Q. And Mr. Bornstein notes the offering has 25 increased in size from 1.3 billion to $2 billion; is that

1 right?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. He also adds or I should say notes that there's a
4 Paragraph 2 that is new. You see that on Paragraph 2 of the
5 letter?

6 A. Uh-huh.

7 Q. Do you know how that paragraph was added to the 8 letter or at whose suggestion it was added?

9 A. I don't know if he's asking or -- I think he's 10 just asking and what changed between the two drafts is one
11 letter assumes that the earlier draft that we looked at, CPH
12 110 assumes that this is a comfort letter related to an SEC
13 filing.

14 The second one that we're looking at 15 assumes that this is a non-SEC or -- I think it's Section
16 144, basically a private placement, and so the wording of 17 the first two paragraphs is a little bit different. And if 18 you look, the first paragraph changed, the second paragraph 19 changed a little bit in the wording, but I think he was just 20 asking about why did it change, but I think the second one
21 is correct in terms of the professional guidance.

22 Q. And your understanding as to the change is that 23 the updated version reflected that this would be a private
24 placement?

25 A. Correct or that this was -- I don't know if

1 private placement. This was a type of offering that would
2 not require the language that was in the prior letter so
3 this is the type of language that was required, but I think
4 it's referred to as a private placement.

5 Q. And this draft continues to include sales
6 information for January as well as an explanation for the 7 decline in sales; is that correct?

8 A. Right, right.

9 Q. Did you have any discussions with Mr. Bornstein
10 concerning what happened at Global Financial Press?

11 MS. BROWN: Objection.

12 THE WITNESS: No.

13 BY MR. JOHNSON:

14 Q. Do you recall -- I think you indicated that he 15 was at Global Financial Press?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. How do you know that?

18 A. I mean, we communicated a couple of times. I
19 know that he had to travel there. I think he went with 20 someone else from our firm. That's it.

21 Q. Do you know who he went with?

22 A. I think he went with Mark Brockelman.

23 Q. And do you recall Mr. Bornstein calling you from 24 Global Financial Press?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein or Mr. Brockelman ever convey
2 to you anything that happened at Global Financial Press?

3 A. Not that I can recall.

4 Q. And you don't recall whether you were in the 5 office in the evening to receive these changes?

6 A. I'm not sure that this -- received from. Yes, I
7 don't recall whether I received them when they got there or 8 not.

9 Q. This is a document that was previously marked as 10 CPH 17. Could you identify that document for the record,
11 Mr. Pastrana?

12 A. This looks like the comfort letter that we issued
13 on March 19th from Morgan Stanley.

14 Q. So this is the culmination of the two drafts we 15 just looked at, Exhibit 110, Exhibit 111?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And do you know who signed on behalf of Arthur
18 Andersen?

19 A. No, I would imagine Mr. Bornstein and 20 Mr. Harlow. Normally it would be Mr. Harlow who would sign
21 it.

22 Q. Do you know, as between the two of them, who 23 signed it?

24 A. I don't know.

25 Q. Do you know when this letter was, in fact,

1 provided to Morgan Stanley?

2 A. It's usually delivered on the day it's dated. I
3 would imagine March 19th.

4 Q. Do you know how it was transmitted to Morgan
5 Stanley?

6 MS. BROWN: Objection.

7 THE WITNESS: I don't know. I can tell you
8 typically a copy is sent via facsimile and the originals are 9 mailed or next day.

10 BY MR. JOHNSON:

11 Q. Do you recall any discussions with anybody at 12 Arthur Andersen concerning the sales information contained
13 in CPH Exhibit 17?

14 A. No.

15 MR. JOHNSON: 112.

16 Q. Mr. Pastrana, could you identify CPH
17 Exhibit 112 for us?

18 A. It's a copy of the March 25th bring down letter
19 that we prepared.

20 Q. And did you draft this letter as well?

21 A. I believe so, yes.

22 Q. And on the front page of the exhibit, it appears
23 your initials DP3 98; do you see that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Now, this comfort letter provide sales

1 information through March 1 -- strike that. This bring down
2 letter provides sales information through March 1, 1998; is
3 that correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. So it updates the information provided in the 6 March 19 letter?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And it shows that Sunbeam's loss had, in fact,
9 widened between February 1 and March 1?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Did you have any conversation with anyone at 12 Arthur Andersen about the further deterioration of Sunbeam's
13 financial results as reflected in this letter?

14 A. I can't recall any specific conversations. I
15 certainly would have discussed it.

16 Q. Were you troubled by those results?

17 MS. BROWN: Objection.

18 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.

19 THE WITNESS: I mean, to say trouble, I don't
20 know -- I mean, when you look at the widening loss, a
21 significant portion of that widening is this $30.2 million
22 compensation charge that they took related to some 23 restricted stock orders that they gave to the officers, you
24 know. The balance of it or at least a portion of it was due
25 to continue to -- that second or next wave of grill sales

1 seemed to be pushed out. I don't know that I was troubled
2 by it but it certainly heightened our awareness that it was
3 going to be difficult to make this the first quarter sales
4 numbers.

5 BY MR. JOHNSON:

6 Q. Did Arthur Andersen take any steps to guarantee
7 that Sunbeam had a proper close of its first quarter?

8 A. We performed an SAS 71 review in terms of making
9 sure that they had a proper close. We performed a standard
10 SAS 71 review but what we did do in addition to the 11 normal -- which we normally see in this type of review was 12 that we observed the shipping cutoff and we went to several 13 warehouse locations to observe bill and hold inventory that 14 had been segregated for customers. Now, this isn't our 15 first quarter review so now you are talking about the end of 16 March which is a different time period than the letters,
17 right?

18 Q. Well --

19 A. Did I miss the question?

20 Q. No, I think you got the question right but then 21 you added something at the end of it that confused me and 22 let me see if I can clear it up. Let's back up even 23 further. On the bring down letter, were there multiple 24 drafts of that letter?

25 A. There may have been. I don't remember.

1 Q. Do you recall any comments that Mr. Bornstein or
2 Mr. Harlow provided to you relating to the bring down
3 letter?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Did anyone besides Mr. Bornstein or Mr. Harlow
6 provide comments on their bring down letter?

7 A. Not that I can remember.

8 Q. Did you ever speak with anyone outside of 9 Andersen about the need to get either -- any comfort letter
10 or bring down letter finished?

11 A. Anyone outside of Andersen about the need to get 12 a comfort letter. I can't remember any discussions that I
13 had to that effect.

14 Q. So no lawyers from an outside firm ever called 15 you to find out where a copy of a bring down letter was?

16 A. No, not that I can recall specifically.

17 Q. Do you know -- well, that begs the question about
18 general recollection. Do you recall dealing with outside
19 law firms in connection with the work on the debt offer?

20 A. I don't and normally, I mean -- and I think maybe
21 it was because Larry was at the printers and maybe he was 22 dealing directly with them. Normally in this process, if 23 you go back to the original letter that was issued, there
24 are these little procedures that you perform that have these 25 little marks and normally I would have fairly involved

1 discussions with attorneys about what number gets what mark
2 and why didn't you put a mark on this number or that number,
3 whatever, and discussions about, well, what's the status?
4 When are we going to get the comfort letter? I never had
5 those discussions myself and I think it was probably that 6 Mr. Bornstein was having them directly with the people at 7 Sunbeam.

8 Q. Did you ever -- you're assuming Mr. Bornstein had 9 those conversation; is that correct?

10 A. Correct. I don't know that factually.

11 Q. Did you ever have any conversations with 12 Mr. Bornstein about his dealings with outside lawyers in 13 connection with the work on the debt offer?

14 A. No, not that I can remember.

15 Q. You referenced earlier in the testimony today a
16 press release that you saw and you looked at that press
17 release over the weekend?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did you have any occasion to review that press
20 release before it went out?

21 A. Did I review it before it went out?

22 Q. That's correct.

23 A. I don't remember if I did.

24 Q. Did you have any conversations with Mr. Bornstein
25 about the press release either before or after it went out?

1 A. I had discussions with Mr. Bornstein about the
2 contents of the press release. I can't remember if it
3 was -- certainly it was not before it went out. I never saw
4 it before it went out. And I can't remember, you know, what
5 the substance of those discussions was but I became aware of 6 the press release from Mr. Bornstein.
7 Q. Do you recall anything he said about the press
8 release?
9 A. I remember him being concerned about the 10 language in the press release. You know, the press release
11 said something to the effect that they were not going to 12 meet their sales targets. They would still exceed the sales
13 of the previous year for the same period and, you know,
14 based on what they had sold in the quarter up to that point,
15 he had some concern about whether they were going to be able 16 to achieve those sales.
17 Q. Did you share that concern?
18 A. With who?
19 Q. With Mr. Bornstein?
20 A. No, he shared the concern with me.
21 Q. Did you agree with his concerns?
22 A. Yes, I thought it was a legitimate concern, sure.
23 Q. Now, you mentioned that Andersen undertook
24 additional procedures relating to the first quarter with 25 you, that's the dock watching?

1 A. Right.
2 Q. That was not a usual procedure to conduct in
3 connection with the quarterly review; is that correct?
4 A. Right.
5 MS. BROWN: Objection.
6 THE WITNESS: Yes. I mean, in my experience I
7 haven't done that before in a quarterly review. I would
8 characterize it as unusual.
9 BY MR. JOHNSON:
10 Q. Whose idea was it to conduct this additional 11 step?
12 A. I believe it was Mr. Bornstein. You know, the 13 instruction was given to me by him. Whether it was his idea
14 or somebody else's, I don't know.
15 Q. And what did Mr. Bornstein tell you to do?
16 A. He told me to have people standing on the 17 shipping docks at midnight to observe the sales cutoff.
18 Q. And the shipping docks were located in 19 Mississippi, Missouri and Oklahoma; is that correct?
20 A. Shipping docks were in Mississippi and Missouri.
21 Oklahoma I think they had some warehouses that they were 22 using. I don't think -- let me take that back. Maybe they 23 had a shipping facility in Oklahoma. I don't remember if it
24 was a shipping facility.
25 Q. Did you personally attend one of those

1 observations?
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Which one?
4 A. The one in Neosha, Missouri.
5 Q. And who observed -- let me back that up. Did any
6 other Andersen personnel participate in the Neosha
7 observation with you?
8 A. There was another person that was present in 9 Missouri. I think he was at a different warehouse
10 location. He was counting Sunbeam inventory that existed at 11 another warehouse so he was not on the shipping dock at 12 midnight.
13 Q. What is that individual's name?
14 A. It was a staff person in the office.
15 Q. Does Bob Holman ring a bell, Ben?
16 A. Ben, yes.
17 Q. How about Mississippi? Who from Andersen was 18 responsible for watching the docks in Mississippi?
19 A. I don't remember the name of the person. There I
20 think we sent someone from our St. Louis office.
21 Q. I'm going to give you what was previously marked
22 as Exhibit 18 in this case. Mr. Pastrana, could you
23 identify Exhibit CPH 18 for the record?
24 A. Yes, these are some instructions that I prepared
25 to other Arthur Andersen personnel that were going to

1 observe the shipping cutoff or inventory in certain
2 locations.
3 Q. And do you know when you prepared the 4 instructions?
5 A. I don't know exactly.
6 Q. It was after the bringing down letter?
7 A. I would -- that would be my guess. I don't
8 remember factually.
9 Q. It was after the press release anyway, right?
10 A. Right.
11 Q. To whom was -- let me back up. Did you send a
12 draft of this instruction sheet to anyone at Andersen?
13 A. I think I would have given it to somebody to 14 review, probably Mr. Bornstein.
15 Q. Do you recall anyone having any comments on the 16 draft?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Who is the memo sent to?
19 A. The people that were assigned to help on these 20 observations, so the Ben Holman that you mentioned would 21 have been one.
22 Q. And those were assignments that were made by 23 someone else; is that right?
24 A. Correct, we would normally call another office
25 looking for a person of a certain level and experience and

1 they would assign the person.
 2 Q. And if you look at the last page of the document
 3 which is CPH 15113, you request a documentation of the 4 observation to be sent to you.
 5 A. Uh-huh.
 6 Q. Did you, in fact, receive documentation of the 7 observation from anyone?
 8 A. Yes, I believe so.
 9 Q. Let's look quickly at those if we could.
 10 Q. Mr. Pastrana, could you identify Exhibit 113
 11 for us?
 12 A. This is a memo prepared by the Andersen staff
 13 person who observed shipping cutoff at one of the company's 14 warehouses and then counted some of the bill and hold 15 inventory that had been segregated from the warehouse for 16 the customers.
 17 Q. Mr. Holman's memo, Exhibit 113, refers to 18 observation on the evening of March 31st. Your instruction
 19 memo called for observation on March 29. Do you know why
 20 there's that discrepancy?
 21 A. I think that I do recall why there is this 22 discrepancy.
 23 Q. Why is that?
 24 A. I think that they changed their quarter end in 25 March, if I recall correctly.

1 Q. They added two days to the quarter in 1998?
 2 A. That's correct.
 3 Q. And do you know when the decision to do that was 4 made?
 5 A. I thought that was after the Coleman acquisition.
 6 Q. Did you find any of the information that
 7 Mr. Holman is sending to you in Exhibit 13 to be problematic
 8 in any way?
 9 A. Let me take a minute to read this document.
 10 Q. Sure.
 11 A. (Reading) What was your question?
 12 Q. The question is whether anything in Mr. Holman's
 13 letter struck you as problematic in any way.
 14 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 15 THE WITNESS: In terms of my thoughts at that 16 time, I can't really remember. I mean, right now I think we 17 would have done something to address the fact that they 18 apparently had not done a very good job of identifying and 19 segregating the quantities by customers, you know.
 20 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 21 Q. In other words, that the procedures relating to 22 bill and holds weren't completed as of the cutoff?
 23 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 24 MR. MOSCATO: I'll object to that.
 25 THE WITNESS: I think that the inventory was

1 identified systemically. I think that inventory that needed
 2 to be moved was moved. What they hadn't done was completed
 3 the process of the physical segregation that I think
 4 happened within a couple of days later on. I mean, if I
 5 recall, I think we actually went through a process where we 6 looked in detail at all their locations and how they 7 reconciled all that.
 8 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 9 Q. One more document for you which was previously
 10 marked as Exhibit 20. Mr. Pastrana, is Exhibit 20 dated 11 April 1, 1998?
 12 A. Uh-huh.
 13 Q. Did you receive this memo on or about April 1,
 14 1998?
 15 A. I'm not sure. I was probably still in Neosha but 16 shortly thereafter.
 17 Q. Did you have any conversations with Mr. Kistler
 18 before, during or after his cutoff testing relating to the 19 testing procedure or rationales?
 20 A. I don't recall.
 21 Q. Have you ever spoken to Mr. Kistler?
 22 A. Have I ever spoken to him in my life?
 23 Q. That's the question.
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. You just don't recall whether you spoke to him in

1 connection with these procedures?
 2 A. Right. Let me read through this.
 3 Q. Sure, absolutely.
 4 A. Make sure it doesn't answer the question.
 5 (Reading)
 6 Q. And I don't want to interrupt your reading,
 7 Mr. Pastrana, but I'm going to ask you the similar question
 8 I asked on the last memo which is is there anything in this
 9 memorandum that struck you as troubling at the time you
 10 received it?
 11 MS. BROWN: I'll object.
 12 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 13 Q. You can read the memo and let me know when you're 14 finished.
 15 A. (Reading) Okay, and the question is what?
 16 Q. The question is did anything in Mr. Kistler's
 17 memo strike you as troubling when you received this memo?
 18 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 19 THE WITNESS: I don't know. Did I see anything
 20 troubling? You know, there seems to be --
 21 MR. MOSCATO: Dennis, the question was -- he's 22 asking you to remember at the time you received this memo,
 23 is there anything that you recall being troubling to you,
 24 not now, but do you have a recollection of receiving this
 25 and being troubled by anything?

1 THE WITNESS: I wouldn't say troubled by
2 anything. I think there's some things in here that
3 indicates some sloppiness by the company but, I mean, at the 4 end of the day it looks like -- if you quantify everything,
5 it looks pretty small.

6 BY MR. JOHNSON:

7 Q. If you look at Page 2 of this memo, there's some
8 handwriting underneath the paragraph that begins "Overall
9 Inventory Quantities." Is that your handwriting?

10 A. Yes, I think so.

11 Q. Can you read that for me?

12 A. "Considered shipped when sealed and moved off the 13 dock. Ready for carrier to move away."

14 Q. And that's referring to 65 trailers in the yard?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. And those 65 trailers are quantified as just 17 under four million dollars worth of inventory; is that
18 correct?

19 A. Right. Of which, though, of the 65, 40 of them
20 related to this one transaction discussed in the preceding
21 paragraph.

22 Q. That's the Menards transaction?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did you ever -- it indicates here that the bills
25 of lading on the Menards transaction were generated

1 manually. Did you ever learn why that was?

2 A. No, I don't know why but it's common that bills
3 of lading can be generated manually.

4 Q. You indicated that prior to the evening of March
5 31, 1998 you had never previously engaged in any cutoff
6 testing of this sort for a quarterly review?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. Have you in your accounting career since then
9 engaged in a similar type of operation for a quarterly
10 review?

11 A. No. I mean, you know, as a firm I know we do
12 quarterly inventory accounts for Intel which is a client of 13 the firm. I mean, we don't do it out of here but I know
14 that the other office uses our people every quarter to check
15 inventory so I know it's done. I haven't done it.

16 Q. But would you characterize it as a usual
17 procedure to look at shipping docks in the middle of the 18 night at the end of the quarter?

19 MS. BROWN: Objection.

20 THE WITNESS: I wouldn't.

21 MR. MOSCATO: Is the question "usual" or
22 "unusual"?

23 BY MR. JOHNSON:

24 Q. Would you characterize it as a usual procedure
25 and I think you said, "I would not" --

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. -- is that correct?

3 A. Right, I would not characterize it as usual or 4 typical.

5 Q. Now, did you learn at any time after this cutoff
6 testing at the end of the first quarter of 1998 that, in
7 fact, Sunbeam did not reach sales or income figures
8 exceeding the 1997 first quarter results?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. How did you come to learn that?

11 A. I was in Neosha the morning of the first and one
12 of the people there that I was dealing with asked me if I
13 had heard the news and I said, "What news?" and he said,
14 "Oh, we didn't make the sales number and Don Uzzi has been 15 fired."

16 Q. Do you know who in Neosha you had that 17 conversation with?

18 A. No.

19 Q. And what was your reaction to that news?

20 A. I think my reaction was, "Wow, Don Uzzi got 21 fired" but that they didn't make sales was not surprising.

22 Q. *Did you have any conversations with anyone from
23 Arthur Andersen about Sunbeam's failure to make its numbers
24 the first quarter of 1998?

25 A. No, not -- I mean, I can't recall a specific

1 conversation. I'm sure we talked about it.

2 Q. When you say "we," who are you referring to?

3 A. Just the engagement team, Larry and myself and
4 whoever else was involved at the time.

5 Q. Can you recall any general substance of those
6 conversations?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Was anyone at Andersen upset with the company for 9 failing to make its numbers?

10 MS. BROWN: Objection.

11 THE WITNESS: Not that I have any knowledge of.

12 BY MR. JOHNSON:

13 Q. Mr. Bornstein never gave you any reaction to the 14 earnings announcement?

15 A. If he did, I don't remember.

16 Q. Have you ever spoken to anyone from Morgan
17 Stanley relating to Sunbeam?

18 A. Never.

19 Q. Do you know anyone from Morgan Stanley who worked 20 on the debt offering?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Do you believe that anyone at Sunbeam provided
23 you with false information at any time during the 1997 audit
24 or post audit procedures?

25 A. Ask the question again.

1 Q. Sure. Let's have the court reporter read it
2 back.
3 (The record was read.)
4 A. I certainly didn't believe that to be the case at
5 any time during the time I performed those procedures, you
6 know.
7 Q. Now, with hindsight have you concluded that
8 certain individuals at Sunbeam provided you with false
9 information?
10 A. With hindsight, I think we were given false
11 information.
12 Q. Let's focus on you, meaning Dennis Pastrana
13 first, and then we will go on the broader scope. Who 14 provided you individually with false information?
15 A. Well, just focusing on me, the one specific thing
16 that I can remember is in connection with the 1997 audit.
17 One of the things that as a matter of practice we request is 18 a listing of returns -- product returns after the end of the 19 period and I was involved in making that request.
20 I don't remember -- I think I asked Bob
21 Gluck and, you know, he told me that there were no returns.
22 And I said, "What do you mean there are no returns?" He
23 said, "Well, there's a no-return policy" and, you know, I
24 said, "Well, okay. Fine, you have this no-return policy.
25 Can you give me just a list of the return authorizations in

1 the system?" He said, "There are no return authorizations
2 in the system." That was the extent of my discussion.
3 I think Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Harlow
4 followed up further on that and there were no return
5 authorizations, and then after the fact we learned that
6 there was this list of return authorization. It was not a
7 systemic list. It was some kind of manual list but I think
8 it was probably not -- I think it was probably untrue what 9 they told us.
10 Q. So that would be Mr. Gluck relating to return
11 authorizations?
12 A. Correct.
13 Q. Any other specifics instances you can give me
14 where a Sunbeam employee gave you personally false
15 information?
16 A. No.
17 MR. MOSCATO: I just object and would like to say
18 it's a little unfair to ask him to categorize every 19 instance of that. I don't think he has reviewed the 20 restatement work papers, for example, for a number of years
21 and, you know, I just don't want there to be a statement on 22 the record that there were no other instances. Maybe he
23 can't remember any now, and I think the only fair thing
24 would be if he had the opportunity to spend a couple of 25 days looking at the restatement work papers which was not

1 the purpose of this.
2 MR. JOHNSON: I know we would all hate to come
3 back to Florida after having a chance to do that.
4 MR. MOSCATO: We won't all.
5 MR. JOHNSON: And that's a fair clarification,
6 Mike.
7 Q. I'm asking for your recollection as you sit here,
8 and I understand some years have gone by but to the extent
9 you can recall anything else right now that would constitute 10 a Sunbeam employee giving you false information, I'd like
11 to know about it.
12 A. In hindsight and, you know, without going back
13 and rereading everything, that was the only instance that I
14 can recall that I was involved in that I was given
15 misleading information. And Mr. Bornstein may have had 16 other conversations with sales guys about the existence of 17 right to return and things like where I know from 18 conversations that he or others may have had a sense that we 19 were given misleading information. I was not a part of 20 those conversations.
21 Q. So we will ask Mr. Bornstein about this?
22 A. I think so.
23 Q. But to the extent you can recall Mr. Bornstein
24 identifying specific Sunbeam personnel than provided false
25 information, I'd like to know that. Do you recall

1 Mr. Bornstein identifying specific Sunbeam employees who
2 provided false information?
3 A. I think he identified Al Lefebvre and Lee
4 Griffith in discussions he had about the existence of sales
5 transactions. Whether there were other things that might
6 have been considered improper, fraudulent, I can't remember
7 any. I just remember the returns and the sales with rights
8 of return or guaranteed sales.
9 Q. Did Mr. Harlow ever indicate to you that he
10 believes specific Sunbeam employees have given false
11 information?
12 A. Not that I can recall any specific conversation.
13 MR. JOHNSON: I think that's all I've got. Just 14 a second. Yes, that's all I've got.
15 MR. MOSCATO: Don't get excited because she's 16 going to ask you questions probably after lunch or do you
17 want to go forward now?
18 MS. BROWN: It makes sense to take a lunch break
19 and it will go faster that way.
20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Going off the record. The
21 time is 12:31.

1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Good afternoon. We are back
 2 on the record. The time is 1:19 p.m.
 3 EXAMINATION
 4 BY MS. BROWN:
 5 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Pastrana. Again I'm
 6 Zhonette Brown on behalf of Morgan Stanley.
 7 Can you tell me generally what the purpose
 8 of an audit is?
 9 A. The purpose of the audit is to -- for the auditor
 10 to issue a report basically stating that the financials are 11 fairly stated in accordance with GAAP. So an audit is 12 performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing
 13 standards, certain procedures that are defined by the 14 professional standards in order to be able to attest that 15 the financial statements are fairly presented in accordance 16 with GAAP.
 17 Q. And following the 1997 audit that Arthur Andersen
 18 performed for Sunbeam, Arthur Andersen issued opinions to 19 the effect that Sunbeam's financial statements presented
 20 fairly in all material respects the financial position of 21 the company and the results of its operations and cash flow
 22 in conformity with GAAP, correct?
 23 A. Right.
 24 Q. I think you mentioned before but auditors, as you
 25 said, sort of live in the past. They look at past results

Page 114

1 rather than future projections, correct?
 2 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 3 THE WITNESS: Generally speaking we focus on
 4 historical transactions.
 5 BY MS. BROWN:
 6 Q. What incentives are there for an auditor such as
 7 Arthur Andersen in 1997 to perform the audit well?
 8 MR. JOHNSON: I'm going to object to the form.
 9 MR. MOSCATO: I don't understand at all. If you
 10 can answer it, Dennis, go ahead if you can.
 11 THE WITNESS: I mean, incentives. I think
 12 professional standards simply require that we conduct the 13 audit in a particular manner.
 14 BY MS. BROWN:
 15 Q. So there are professional standards that govern
 16 how you conduct an audit require a certain amount of work,
 17 correct?
 18 A. Correct.
 19 Q. If an audit is not performed to those standards,
 20 there's a risk of, for example, liability, correct?
 21 A. There certainly is.
 22 Q. And there are --
 23 A. But, I mean, even when you do perform the audit
 24 in according with the standards, there's a substantial risk
 25 of liability.

1 Q. But that's motivation to perform your job well,
 2 correct?
 3 A. GAAP standards are better.
 4 Q. And there's regulations, SEC regulations and 5 whatnot, that motivate you to perform your job well,
 6 correct?
 7 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 8 THE WITNESS: Correct.
 9 BY MS. BROWN:
 10 Q. And your interest in your professional reputation
 11 motivates you to perform your job well, correct?
 12 A. Correct.
 13 Q. And those motivations existed for you and for 14 Arthur Andersen in 1997 and 1998, correct?
 15 A. Sure.
 16 Q. And then or now you wouldn't knowingly take any 17 risk or action that would expose your employer to liability
 18 or a loss of reputation, correct?
 19 A. Correct.
 20 Q. And you wouldn't knowingly allow anyone else that
 21 would take an action that would expose your employer to risk
 22 of liability or loss of reputation, correct?
 23 A. Correct.
 24 Q. When you're preparing to perform an audit, you
 25 prepare a work program, correct?

Page 116

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. And one of the objectives in planning the work
 3 for the audit is to identify areas of risk; is that true?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. And when you've identified areas of risk, then
 6 you plan steps to account for that risk so that you can
 7 satisfy yourself that the financial statements are fairly
 8 stated, correct?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. And you did that in preparation for the 1997
 11 audit of Sunbeam, correct?
 12 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. When you say "you," do
 13 you mean him personally or Arthur Andersen?
 14 BY MS. BROWN:
 15 Q. Initially I mean Arthur Andersen.
 16 A. Yes.
 17 Q. And you yourself worked on the work program for 18 the 1997 audit for Sunbeam, correct?
 19 A. Right.
 20 Q. And in that process you also identified risks and 21 identified steps to satisfy yourselves that the financial 22 statements were fairly stating the financial position of 23 Sunbeam, correct?
 24 A. Right.
 25 Q. And as an auditor, it's your job, is it not, to

1 apply professional skepticism to the representations and the
 2 statements of your client, correct?
 3 A. That's right.
 4 Q. Indeed, you're trained to have such professional
 5 skepticism when you're performing an audit?
 6 A. Right.
 7 Q. And you applied that professional skepticism to 8 the work that you performed for Sunbeam in 1997 and 1998,
 9 correct?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. You also apply your independent judgment during 12 audit procedures, correct?
 13 A. Yes.
 14 Q. And you apply that independent judgment to the 15 work that you were performing on Sunbeam matters in 1997 and 16 1998?
 17 A. Yes, I mean, to some degree. I mean, independent
 18 judgment with the consultation of others that are also 19 responsible for the engagement.
 20 Q. But independent of your client?
 21 A. As a firm we apply judgment in what we do and how 22 we do it.
 23 Q. And so when an auditor states that they're 24 skeptical of statements made by their client, that's 25 essentially their job, correct?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. You stated previously that you began working on
 3 Sunbeam matters in approximately October of 1997; is that
 4 correct?
 5 A. Right.
 6 Q. And Sunbeam was your principal engagement from 7 that time through some period after the restatement; is that
 8 correct?
 9 A. Yes, I think that's exactly right.
 10 Q. And you were on site at Sunbeam the majority of 11 time from at least October of '97 through late January of
 12 1998, correct?
 13 A. Right.
 14 Q. Were you also --
 15 A. Late January -- yes, yes, that's fair.
 16 Q. Were you also on site at Sunbeam in February and
 17 March of 1998?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. Approximately what percentage or portion of time
 20 were you on site at Sunbeam during those two months?
 21 A. I couldn't say. It's still a substantial amount
 22 of my time. I had one or two other clients that I worked on 23 during that time frame but the majority of the time was 24 spent on Sunbeam.
 25 Q. And was it spent at Sunbeam locations?

1 A. I would say so, yes.
 2 Q. So the majority of your time from October '97
 3 through March of '98 was spent on site at Sunbeam?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. And you yourself personally spent approximately 6 942 hours on matters related to Sunbeam's 1997 financials;
 7 is that correct?
 8 A. I mean, I don't remember the number. If you want
 9 to show me a time detail or if you have a time detail, I'm 10 sure that's right.
 11 MS. BROWN: We'll mark Morgan Stanley 19.
 12 Q. You've been handed what's been marked as Morgan
 13 Stanley Exhibit 19. And I believe this was shown to you, as 14 indicated there, in a prior deposition. Does this refresh
 15 your recollection that you spent approximately 942 hours on 16 issues related to Sunbeam's 1997 financials?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. And, indeed, this shows the time for the 19 engagement team for Arthur Andersen for 1997 financials, and 20 I won't ask you to calculate it but it's more than 3,000
 21 hours; is that right?
 22 MR. MOSCATO: Can't he just take your word for 23 it, that the document says what it says, rather than have 24 him add up all the numbers?
 25 MS. BROWN: He can take my word for it that it's

1 more than 3,400 hours, yes.
 2 THE WITNESS: Okay.
 3 BY MS. BROWN:
 4 Q. Does that seem approximately correct to you?
 5 A. Approximately, yes.
 6 Q. Now, you mentioned that in preparation for an
 7 audit, you perform or you create a work program, correct?
 8 A. Right.
 9 MS. BROWN: Let's mark Morgan Stanley 20.
 10 Q. You've been handed what's been marked as Morgan
 11 Stanley Exhibit 20. Do you recognize this document?
 12 A. Yes, this is the work program from the 1997
 13 audit.
 14 Q. This program is essentially an outline, is it
 15 not, of the work to be performed during the 1997 outline --
 16 1997 audit?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. And the steps that are listed in this document --
 19 which for the record is CPH 0011408 to 468. The steps that 20 are listed here are not a complete listing of all the steps
 21 that were taken during the 1997 audit? The steps actually
 22 performed are greater than those in the outline, correct?
 23 A. Let me say this is a detailed list of the steps
 24 to be performed. There may be tests performed that are not 25 on this listing, so in addition to what's in here, there may

1 be tests on this listing that in the content of the audit
2 are not necessary to perform and, therefore, may not be
3 performed but this is to guide the conduct of the audit,
4 correct.

5 Q. And I think you just sort of mentioned, let me
6 clarify, if you identify additional steps that need to be 7 taken in order for you to give your opinion on the 8 financials, you perform those steps during the audit,
9 correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And, indeed, in 1997 you did identify and perform
12 additional procedures in December of '97 or January of '98
13 in addition to those that are identified in the work
14 program, correct?

15 A. Yes, I think that's right.

16 Q. But just for my own knowledge, there are other
17 documents that are labeled work program that have steps
18 written out and then they list who performed the steps, and 19 those titles in those work programs don't always conform to 20 the work program that is MS 20. Does that indicate that 21 those are additional steps that are not identified here?

22 MR. JOHNSON: Objection.

23 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.

24 THE WITNESS: If I could take a look at the 25 papers again.

1 MS. BROWN: Let's mark this Morgan Stanley 21.

2 Q. You've been handed what has been marked as Morgan
3 Stanley Exhibit 21 and the title of that document is
4 "Sunbeam Corporation Work Program," and then it says
5 "Consolidation and Financial Reporting." And, for the 6 records, the Bates is CPH 0011752 to 54.

7 Now, in Morgan Stanley Exhibit 20 there is
8 subtitles to the work program but there is no subtitle
9 matching the consolidation and financial reporting. So my 10 question for you is whether this is additional steps --
11 additional to those identified in Morgan Stanley 20 that 12 were taken during the 1997 audit of Sunbeam?

13 A. I wouldn't characterize them as additional. I
14 would say that -- I mean, for some reason the steps in MS 21
15 should be in the document that you have at MS 20, and if for 16 one reason or another they weren't included in that 17 document, then I don't know why but -- hold on just a 18 second. I mean, these steps that are on MS 21 would be 19 standard steps that we would performed in any audit.

20 Q. And the fact that there are initials in the 21 right-hand column and a line drawn through the center column
22 indicates that this is work that was actually performed --

23 A. Right.

24 Q. -- along with the signatures on the final page?

25 A. Right, right. And there would be copies of these

1 steps as well with the appropriate signatures and the work
2 paper.

3 Q. "These steps" referring to Morgan Stanley
4 Exhibit 20?

5 A. Yes.

6 MS. BROWN: Mark this Morgan Stanley 22.

7 Q. You've been handed what has been marked Morgan
8 Stanley Exhibit 22. Morgan Stanley Exhibit 22 for the 9 record is a document that begins at Bates CPH 0011144 to 10 52. For the record, could you identify this document?

11 A. What's the last Bates stamp which you referred 12 to?

13 Q. I believe the last one is 52.

14 A. The first document is a memorandum that I
15 prepared summarizing by risk that we identified in planning
16 our audit, kind of the steps that we performed to address
17 those risks. And then the second piece of which you gave me
18 which starts on the Bates stamp CPH 11151 is a summary of 19 our certain reserves that were set up in the '96
20 restructuring charge were utilized during the year. Okay.

21 Q. This document is a document that you -- the 22 first document, the memo-to-file, the document that you
23 created in January of 1998, correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. And if you turn to Bates Page 49 -- ends in 49,

1 it identifies additional steps that you took -- you, Arthur
2 Andersen, took with regard to bill and hold sales under the
3 early buy program, correct?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. So this document, at least in part, identifies
6 additional steps that you took in addition to the original
7 plan steps that are memorialized in Morgan Stanley
8 Exhibit 20, correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And during the audit there was no limitation
11 placed on who you could speak with at Sunbeam, correct?

12 A. I mean, as a firm, yes, we could speak to anybody
13 we wanted to.

14 Q. And there was no limitation -- there was no audit
15 step that you wanted to take that you were not permitted to 16 take; is that correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. When you're performing an audit, you identify, at 19 least initially, a materiality threshold, correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And for the 1997 audit of Sunbeam, as a
22 preliminary matter you had identified a materiality
23 threshold of 11 -- just over $11 million, correct?

24 A. I'd have to see. I don't recall but I'm sure
25 it's probably accurate.

Page 125

1 MR. MOSCATO: Well, don't take anyone's word for
 2 it. Just look at the document.
 3 BY MS. BROWN:
 4 Q. You've been handed what's been marked as Morgan
 5 Stanley Exhibit 23. For the record, that begins on Bates
 6 CPH 0010963 through 971. Mr. Pastrana, could you identify
 7 this document?
 8 A. This is a form that Andersen used to document the 9 calculation of materiality for its audits which I filled out
 10 for Sunbeam, for the Sunbeam engagement.
 11 Q. And the form starts at Bates Page 966, correct?
 12 A. That's right.
 13 Q. And Page 964 is the subsequent calculation that 14 you performed, correct?
 15 MR. MOSCATO: 960?
 16 MS. BROWN: Four. Two pages in advance.
 17 THE WITNESS: Let me take a look at it. It's not 18 really a subsequent calculation. It's just a summary of 19 what results from the information in the form.
 20 BY MS. BROWN:
 21 Q. Do you recall that you performed or Arthur
 22 Andersen had performed a preliminary materiality assessment
 23 and then in January of 1988 a memo was circulated from 24 Mr. Denkhaus clarifying the use of certain tools to 25 calculate materiality and listing scopes?

Page 126

1 A. I have some recollection of that but I'd have to
 2 look at the documents again.
 3 Q. Do you generally recall that when the document
 4 was circulated by Denkhaus, it indicated that during the 5 1997 audit you had actually tested to a scope of a finer
 6 detail than what was required by the Denkhaus clarification?
 7 A. I don't recall that.
 8 Q. Do you recall that you initially -- you, Arthur
 9 Andersen, initially tested to identify errors of $6 million
 10 -- of $1.5 million and subsequently the clarification
 11 indicated that you could have tested to a greater detail or 12 a coarser scope of $6 million?
 13 A. I don't recall. If you have the initial 14 materiality calculation and the Denkhaus memo and this one,
 15 maybe I can just put it all together. I can certainly
 16 recall at the time the firm changing its guidance and there
 17 being some difficulty understanding exactly what that 18 guidance meant and some interpretive guidance that came 19 out. I don't remember specifically how it impacted the 20 findings that we had on Sunbeam.
 21 Q. Do you recall that as a result of the 22 clarification from Mr. Denkhaus you were not required to 23 perform any additional audit procedures?
 24 A. I just don't remember at this point.
 25 MR. MOSCATO: Do you have the Denkhaus memo?

Page 127

1 MS. BROWN: I don't have the Denkhaus memo.
 2 MR. JOHNSON: What transcript are you looking at?
 3 MS. BROWN: I'm looking at the November 15, 2000
 4 transcript in the in re: Sunbeam securities case. I'm not
 5 going to mark it as an exhibit but I'm looking at that
 6 deposition.
 7 Q. I'll hand it to you. I'll refer you to Page 129
 8 of the deposition which is CPH Page 1031672. If you will 9 look at deposition Page 129 and 130, it may refresh your
 10 recollection.
 11 MR. MOSCATO: So you don't have CUB 16 because 12 that's what this -- this note says "Reconciliation of 13 materiality in accordance with revised firm guidance as 14 follows," and it says, "CUB 16."
 15 MS. BROWN: I don't.
 16 THE WITNESS: I remember this now.
 17 BY MS. BROWN:
 18 Q. So does this refresh your recollection that 19 initially when you performed the preliminary materiality
 20 assessments you had designed a work program to test -- to 21 detect error in excess of 1.5 million?
 22 A. That's right.
 23 Q. And subsequently you determined that Arthur
 24 Andersen procedures as clarified by Denkhaus would have 25 allowed you to design procedures intended to detect an error

1 of $6 million?
 2 A. That's correct.
 3 Q. So the work program that you designed for the 4 1997 audit of Sunbeam tested to a finer detail than what was
 5 actually required at the time of Arthur Andersen policy,
 6 correct?
 7 A. That's correct.
 8 Q. And at the conclusion of the 1997 audit after you
 9 had spent several months on site at Sunbeam and the 10 engagement team had spent a few thousand hours on the 1997
 11 financials for Sunbeam, Arthur Andersen had satisfied itself
 12 that Sunbeam's financials were -- fairly represented the 13 results of the company, correct?
 14 A. Right.
 15 Q. And at that time you did not believe that there
 16 were any material misstatements to the financials?
 17 A. Correct.
 18 Q. And at that time you had no reason to question
 19 the integrity of management, correct?
 20 A. Correct.
 21 Q. One of the risks that you had recognized in 22 performing the work for the 1997 audit for Sunbeam in 23 designing the work was the pressure to meet sales and 24 revenue numbers, correct?
 25 A. Right.

1 Q. And you designed work procedures to address the
2 risk that you identified, correct?

3 A. Correct, I would think -- but without seeing some
4 documents, I just need to make sure.

5 Q. You don't recall identifying any risk that you
6 had not addressed, correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And at the end of the first quarter of 1998, you
9 also didn't have any reason to question the integrity of 10 management, correct?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. Even though you had spent an additional three
13 months at Sunbeam and working with Sunbeam personnel, right?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. And at the end of 1997 you had no reason to 16 believe that Sunbeam was stuffing the channel personally,
17 correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. That's also true at the end of -- first quarter
20 of 1998, you had no reason to believe that Sunbeam was 21 stuffing the channel, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And you also performed work for the closing of 24 Sunbeam's first quarter '98 for filing of the 10-Q?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And at that time you had no reason to question
2 the materiality or whether there were any material
3 misstatements to Sunbeam's financials, correct?

4 MR. MOSCATO: I need to hear that again.

5 MS. BROWN: I'll strike that.

6 Q. When you were working on the close of Sunbeam's
7 financials for the first quarter of 1998 and the 10-Q, at 8 that time you had no reason to question the integrity of 9 Sunbeam's management, correct?

10 A. I didn't, no. Not that I can think of.

11 Q. You've already testified, I think, that you
12 didn't have any contact with Morgan Stanley in the first
13 quarter of 1998, correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Did you have any contact with Morgan Stanley
16 prior to 1997 concerning Sunbeam?

17 A. Not that I can remember, no.

18 Q. And you didn't have any contact with Morgan
19 Stanley senior funding in 1997 or 1998 concerning Sunbeam?

20 A. No.

21 Q. You did not have any contact with Davis Polk in 22 1997 or 1998 concerning Sunbeam?

23 A. The name rings a bell, law firm, but I don't
24 remember any specific contact.

25 Q. Davis Polk was underwriter's counsel to Morgan

1 Stanley in 1998. Did you have --

2 A. I don't think I had any direct contact with them.

3 Q. Do you recall having any contact with Skadden
4 Arps, counsel for Sunbeam, in 1997 or '98 concerning Sunbeam
5 prior to the restatement effort?

6 A. No, not prior to the restatement effort.

7 Q. After the bill and hold transactions had been
8 identified at Sunbeam in 1997, those transactions were 9 disclosed in Sunbeam's 10-K that they filed for 1997,
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And I think you testified earlier that 10-K was 13 filed with the SEC in early March of 1998; is that correct?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. And Arthur Andersen was satisfied with the 16 disclosure that Sunbeam had made of the bill and hold?

17 A. That's my understanding.

18 Q. You personally were satisfied with the bill and 19 hold disclosure in the 10-K, correct?

20 A. I read it. Yeah, I thought it was okay.

21 Q. The 10-K for Sunbeam for 1997 also disclosed the
22 early buy program, correct?

23 A. I believe so, yes.

24 Q. And do you recall having any reservation or 25 problems with the way that that was disclosed in Sunbeam's

1 10-K for 1997?

2 A. I don't recall having any.

3 Q. Do you recall Arthur Andersen ever recommending
4 to Sunbeam prior to the restatement that they discontinue
5 bill and hold sales?

6 A. I'm sorry, say that again.

7 Q. Do you recall Arthur Andersen ever recommending
8 to Sunbeam prior to the restatement that Sunbeam discontinue
9 bill and hold sales?

10 A. No, I don't.

11 Q. Do you ever remember Arthur Andersen recommending
12 to Sunbeam prior to June of 1998 that Sunbeam discouraged
13 customers from asking for bill and hold?

14 A. I don't recall anything like that.

15 Q. What are blueback clearance forms?

16 A. Blueback is a term that was used at Andersen to 17 refer to the management letter and those forms are just --
18 if you had a management letter comment, you would write it
19 down on the form. Just gave you something later on to 20 discuss with management and they were suppose to sign off on 21 it. It wasn't a required procedure but it was just a format
22 for communicating management letter comments.

23 Q. I'm handing you what has been marked as Morgan
24 Stanley Exhibit 24. For the record, the Bates is CPH
25 0244904 to 915. Can you identify this document?

1 A. This appears to be a listing of our management
 2 letter comments that I faxed to Bob Gluck on May 21 of '98 I
 3 guess to solicit his responses.
 4 Q. Had these, to your knowledge, blueback clearance
 5 forms been submitted to Sunbeam prior to this date?
 6 A. Not that I'm aware of. I don't know if they were 7 or not.
 8 Q. You're not aware of these forms being transmitted
 9 to Morgan Stanley, correct?
 10 A. I am not.
 11 Q. Ask you to look at what is Page 2 of the memo,
 12 three of the document, Bates ending in 906.
 13 A. Uh-huh.
 14 Q. And there in the last sentence states, "We 15 recommend that management take steps to discourage customers
 16 from placing bill and hold orders," and I encourage you to 17 read the paragraph or the paragraphs before that and my 18 question would be whether that recommendation related to the 19 manual labor involved rather than to concerns about the 20 legitimacy of bill and hold sales?
 21 A. (Reading) Yes, I don't remember exactly --
 22 could you ask the question again please?
 23 Q. Yes. My question was the recommendation that 24 they discouraged bill and hold sales, what the basis for 25 that recommendation was?

1 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. Did you make the
 2 recommendations? Did you write this?
 3 THE WITNESS: I played some role in drafting it.
 4 I don't know if I actually conceived the whole thing.
 5 MR. MOSCATO: Answer to the best you can, if you
 6 can recall.
 7 THE WITNESS: As I read this, I mean, the tone of 8 what's here -- and it's been a long time -- is more that it
 9 requires a lot of effort, causes a lot of system problems,
 10 there's a lot movement and stuff back and forth.
 11 Logistically it's difficult, it's time consuming, it's 12 resource consuming, it doesn't seem to make a whole lot of 13 sense, the tone of this comment, but it also points out that 14 from a kind of a GAAP or SEC compliance standpoint that 15 these transactions are looked at very, how should I say,
 16 skeptically by the SEC.
 17 Q. But at the end of 1997 Arthur Andersen had 18 satisfied itself that the bill and hold sales met SEC
 19 requirements?
 20 A. That's correct.
 21 Q. And in the end of Q1 98 when you observed the 22 cutoff testing in the bill and hold segregation, Arthur
 23 Anderson also was satisfied that those bill and hold sales
 24 were legitimate sales according to SEC guidelines, correct?
 25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And, indeed, even after the restatements you
 2 personally thought that the bill and hold sales met the SEC
 3 guidelines, correct?
 4 A. That's correct.
 5 Q. And no one at Sunbeam during 1997 or the first
 6 quarter of 1998 expressed concern to you concerning about
 7 the legitimacy of the bill and hold sales?
 8 A. Correct.
 9 Q. You testified earlier about the comfort letters
 10 that Arthur Andersen provided to Morgan Stanley in March of 11 1998; do you recall that?
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. What is the purpose of the comfort letter?
 14 MR. MOSCATO: From whose perspective?
 15 MS. BROWN: From the witness' perspective.
 16 MR. MOSCATO: You mean, why does an auditor send 17 the comfort letter? Is that the question?
 18 MS. BROWN: My question is --
 19 MR. MOSCATO: I mean, it could have different
 20 purposes. The receiver could have a purpose for receiving
 21 it. The sender could have a purpose for sending it. I'm 22 just unclear what you mean by "the purpose."
 23 MS. BROWN: Strike that.
 24 Q. What do you understand -- or what did you
 25 understand Morgan Stanley's purpose to be in requesting the

1 comfort letter?
 2 A. My understanding was that -- whatever role Morgan
 3 Stanley played in this deal as the banker, that it's 4 apparent in this offering memorandum that they have
 5 responsibility for performing some level of due diligence
 6 which would include something to satisfy itself that
 7 financial numbers included in the document are accurate.
 8 And as part of that responsibility,
 9 usually the underwriters will request us as the auditors to 10 perform certain procedures to ensure that the numbers
 11 contained in the offering memorandum are accurate and are 12 derived from the financial statements of the company either
 13 that we've audited or reviewed in the past and that's what 14 we document in the comfort letter and deliver to the 15 underwriters or to the bankers.
 16 Q. And you identified in previous testimony certain
 17 steps that Arthur Andersen takes before issuing a comfort
 18 letter. What is the purpose of the steps that Arthur
 19 Andersen takes before issuing a comfort letter?
 20 A. It kind of depends on the situation but the 21 purpose generally of post report review procedures is to 22 gain information about events that have happened after the 23 date of the auditor's report that might indicate that
 24 something either in the auditor's report as it was completed
 25 or in the current document -- the current offering

1 memorandum may be inaccurate or misleading, and, if so, that
2 normally the auditor would not consent -- although I'm not
3 sure that we issued a consent in this case, but if it were 4 misleading, then we would not consent to the inclusion of 5 our report in their document or we would refuse to deliver
6 the comfort letter.

7 Q. So you understood that those -- for example,
8 refusing to deliver a comfort letter was an option available
9 to Arthur Andersen?

10 A. Yes, stepping back, actually I didn't understand
11 that to be an option. I don't know. As far as I know, we 12 could have not delivered the comfort letter.

13 Q. And you mentioned a consent. Even though a
14 consent wasn't required in March of 1998, did you understand
15 that eventually, when there was a registration with the SEC,
16 that Arthur Andersen would have to give its consent to allow 17 its opinion to be used in that registration?

18 A. At that time I didn't understand how that was 19 going to happen so it wasn't my understanding that 20 eventually we would issue a consent, no.

21 Q. You understand, though, that in June of 1998
22 Arthur Andersen actually did withhold its consent from the 23 use of financial statements when Sunbeam was seeking to 24 register file registration with the SEC?

25 A. You refreshed my memory now. Yes, I'm aware of

1 offering memorandum, correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And you understood that the offering memorandum
4 would be distributed to investors?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And you reviewed at least portions of the 7 offering memorandum, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And according to the post-audit review form,
10 others reviewed the offering memorandum at Arthur Andersen
11 as well, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. From your recollection, was there anything in the 14 offering memorandum that you recall being misleading or 15 false?

16 A. No.

17 Q. When you were performing the post audit reviews,
18 you were communicating your findings with Mr. Bornstein on a
19 near daily basis, correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You've been handed what's been marked as Morgan
22 Stanley Exhibit 25. I think it's probably the same as one
23 of the other exhibits you've looked at today. For the 24 record, it's CPH 01300341 to 50. And can you identify this 25 document for the record?

1 that.

2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Excuse me. I need to change
3 the tape.

4 MS. BROWN: We can go off the record.

5 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the end of Videotape
6 No. 2. We are going off the record. The time is 2:04.

7 (Tape change)

8 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record.
9 This is the beginning of the Videotape No. 3. The time is 10 2:05.

11 BY MS. BROWN:

12 Q. So now that you've been refreshed about Arthur
13 Andersen withholding its consent, did you have an 14 understanding in March of 1998 that Arthur Andersen would 15 eventually need to consent to the use of its financial 16 statements in the registration of the notes associated with
17 the offering memorandum?

18 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.

19 THE WITNESS: I do not recall understanding that 20 at the time of March '98. I'm sure that others I worked
21 with understood how this process would work. At that time,
22 I don't think I understood that.

23 BY MS. BROWN:

24 Q. But you did understand that Arthur Andersen's
25 financials and opinions were going to be included in the

1 A. This is a checklist we filled out for one of our
2 post audit reviews in the first quarter of 1998 sometime,
3 similar to the one we spoke about earlier.

4 Q. And if you look at the SEC filing on the second
5 line of the first page of this document, states "10-K"; do
6 you see that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. It's Arthur Andersen's policy, correct, to 9 perform a post-audit review prior the filing of 10-K?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And if you look at the second page, Number 2 and 12 2-A, there's no notation there regarding declining sales,
13 correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And those initials in the first column "Work Done
16 By," those are your initials?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And all the handwriting after the first page, is 19 that your handwriting?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Except for the signature at the end.

22 I'm going to hand you what will be marked Morgan
23 Stanley Exhibit 26. Morgan Stanley Exhibit 26 is the P&L
24 that you looked at earlier today and I think you identified
25 the second two pages of that document or the last two

Page 141

1 pages -- I'm sorry, 26 to 27 were provided to you by
 2 Sunbeam; is that correct?
 3 A. Right.
 4 Q. And, for the record, this document is CPH 0013023
 5 to 27. But you do have a note on the second page of this
 6 document concerning decrease in sales?
 7 A. Uh-huh, okay.
 8 Q. So you were aware as of March 5, 1997 of the 9 decrease in sales at Sunbeam for January '98 as compared to 10 January of '97, correct?
 11 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that.
 12 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question again?
 13 BY MS. BROWN:
 14 Q. Sure. Let me strike it and I'll ask a different
 15 question.
 16 As of March 5, 1998 you were aware of the 17 decrease in sales of approximately a little over $43 million
 18 comparing January of '97 and January of '98, correct?
 19 A. Right.
 20 Q. And you provided this information to
 21 Mr. Bornstein?
 22 A. Right.
 23 Q. Did you provide this information to Morgan
 24 Stanley as of this date?
 25 A. As of March 5th. I mean, I didn't provide it to

Page 142

1 them as of this date. I mean, I would imagine the first
 2 draft of the comfort letter that went that had the January
 3 numbers, the information was provided to them. We reviewed
 4 a draft of a comfort letter earlier that had sales
 5 information in it, and the first draft that was circulated
 6 had January sales information.
 7 Q. Did you personally circulate that draft to Morgan
 8 Stanley?
 9 A. I did not.
 10 Q. Are you personally aware of anyone providing 11 that draft to Morgan Stanley?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. Now, the March 5th, post-audit review that you
 14 performed was for the filing of the 10-K of Sunbeam,
 15 correct?
 16 A. Correct.
 17 Q. And you performed subsequent post audit review
 18 forms after that for purposes of the comfort letter?
 19 A. Correct.
 20 Q. Again this is similar to a document that you
 21 were shown earlier today. For the record, Morgan Stanley
 22 Exhibit 27 is CPH 0012963 to 67. And you testified about 23 this document previously. I'd just like you to look at the 24 second page, Note A. You make reference there to a
 25 discussion with Lee Griffith and Al Lefebvre, correct?

Page 143

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. Notes that "the company expects sales to recovery
 3 in the second quarter." Do you recall that discussion?
 4 A. No, I don't.
 5 Q. Also notes here that "The company has undertaken
 6 an aggressive marketing campaign, radio plus large ads in 7 USA Today." Do you recall being informed by the company
 8 that they had taken steps such as this to address flagging
 9 sales?
 10 A. Other than recalling it by reading what I'm 11 reading here, I don't recall the specific discussion where 12 that information was told to me.
 13 Q. But you believe --
 14 A. I believe this is accurate, yes.
 15 Q. This P&L that's dated March 13, 1998, did you
 16 personally provide this document to Morgan Stanley?
 17 A. I did not, no.
 18 Q. Are you personally aware of anyone else from 19 Arthur Andersen providing this document to Morgan Stanley?
 20 A. No.
 21 MS. BROWN: I'll mark two exhibits, 28 and 29.
 22 Q. You've been handed Morgan Stanley Exhibit 28 and 23 29. For the record Morgan Stanley 28 is CPH 0129926 through 24 936 and Morgan Stanley Exhibit 29 is CPH 0129992 through 25 013. And you testified earlier about an exhibit similar to

Page 144

1 Morgan Stanley 28. This is a post audit review that you
 2 performed in approximately March 16th of 1998 for Sunbeam,
 3 related to Sunbeam, correct?
 4 A. Yes.
 5 Q. And Morgan Stanley Exhibit 29, can you identify 6 what that document is?
 7 A. Appears to be the company's 1998 budget.
 8 Q. This is a document that was provided to you by
 9 Sunbeam; is that correct?
 10 A. Right.
 11 Q. Do you recall who provided you with this 12 document?
 13 A. No.
 14 Q. Looking at the second page of this document under 15 Q1, do you see the company's budget for Q1 of 1998 for net
 16 sales was 308.5 million?
 17 A. Correct.
 18 Q. Now, referring back to Morgan Stanley Exhibit 28,
 19 you testified earlier about the entry that you made on Page
 20 4 of the memo which is at Bates Page 930 of Morgan Stanley
 21 Exhibit 28.
 22 A. Uh-huh.
 23 Q. And the entries there on that last column in 24 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 28, are those entries that you typed
 25 in?

Page 145

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You typed in "Such targets may be unattainable."

3 When you were referring to "such targets" in terms of sales,

4 you were referring to the 309 million, correct?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. You were not referring to the Wall Street

7 analysts' projections for first quarter of 1998 for Sunbeam,

8 correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And you were not referring to the net sales that

11 Sunbeam had achieved in the first quarter of 1997, correct,

12 when you said that such targets may be unattainable?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. These post-audit review forms that you've looked

15 at, Morgan Stanley Exhibit 28 and Morgan Stanley Exhibit 25,

16 those are not documents that you provided to Morgan Stanley,

17 correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And you're not personally aware of anybody else

20 providing it to Morgan Stanley, correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Indeed you would not have expected anybody to

23 have provided those documents to Morgan Stanley, would you?

24 A. No.

25 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, which document are you

Page 146

1 referring to? Are they Andersen work papers?

2 MS. BROWN: The Anderson post-audit review forms

3 that are Morgan Stanley Exhibits 25 and 28.

4 MR. MOSCATO: Okay.

5 BY MS. BROWN:

6 Q. You also drafted the representation letter that

7 Sunbeam management would supply to Arthur Andersen before

8 Arthur Andersen issued its comfort letter, correct?

9 A. I probably did that, that's correct.

10 Q. Who else would have been involved in drafting

11 those letters?

12 A. Mr. Bornstein might have been involved,

13 Mr. Harlow might have reviewed them and provided some

14 comments, but generally I would have drafted the majority of 15 them.

16 Q. Did you yourself provide that draft to Sunbeam

17 for them to then execute of the representation letter from

18 Sunbeam management to Arthur Andersen?

19 A. I can't recall if I provided it to them or if

20 Larry did, Mr. Bornstein, excuse me.

21 Q. Do you recall any discussion letters with

22 Sunbeam -- anyone at Sunbeam concerning the representation

23 letter that they provided to Arthur Andersen in connection

24 with the work that Arthur Andersen is doing for the comfort

25 letters in March of 1998?

Page 147

1 MR. JOHNSON: Can I hear that one back?

2 (The record was read.)

3 THE WITNESS: Was there a question for me?

4 BY MS. BROWN:

5 Q. Let me simplify.

6 A. I don't remember any discussions with anybody

7 about the management letter that we presented them to sign.

8 I think that was the question, right, more or less the gist?

9 Q. You've been handed what has been marked as Morgan

10 Stanley Exhibit 30. For the record, this is CPH 0129687 to 11 89. Can you identify this document?

12 A. This is a copy of the management representation

13 letter that we received in connection with issuing the March

14 19th comfort letter.

15 Q. And one of your previous statements may have been

16 broad but I don't know if you covered this. Do you recall

17 receiving -- did you personally receive this letter from

18 Sunbeam?

19 A. I don't recall if I did or someone else did.

20 Q. Do you recall any discussions internally at

21 Arthur Andersen concerning the representation letter that

22 you received from Sunbeam management dated March 16, 1998?

23 A. No.

24 MS. BROWN: This exhibit will be two documents

25 together.

Page 148

1 Q. You've been handed what's been marked as Morgan

2 Stanley Exhibit 31, which for the record is CPH 0041641

3 through 48. Can you identify this document?

4 A. This is a draft comfort letter, draft of the 5 March 19th comfort letter.

6 Q. And this is a draft that you were e-mailing to 7 Mr. Harlow, Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Brockelman?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. On the second page of Morgan Stanley Exhibit 31

10 there's some text at the top beginning with "This draft is 11 furnished," etcetera; do you see that?

12 A. Uh-huh.

13 Q. And I believe it's the second sentence states,

14 "Based on our discussions with Morgan, it's our

15 understanding that the procedures outlined in this draft are

16 those they wish us to follow." Based on your prior

17 testimony, I take it those are not your discussions with

18 Morgan Stanley, correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And is this text at the top of the second page of 21 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 31 a standard text that goes on a

22 draft?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You don't know, for instance, that this reference

25 to discussions with Morgan Stanley refers to actual

1 discussions that occurred, correct?

2 A. It does refer to discussions. I mean, Morgan
3 Stanley takes a copy of the offering document and circles
4 all the numbers that they want us to comfort and what they
5 want us to do, and then there's a dialogue that takes place
6 about what the auditors can and can't do. So somewhere in 7 the process that discussion was had. I didn't have it but
8 there would have been a discussion. I personally did not 9 have it, right.

10 Q. Did anyone relate to you the contents of such
11 discussion?

12 A. No, other than handing me a copy of the document
13 with the numbers circled to provide comfort on.

14 Q. And when you refer to someone handing you a copy
15 of the document, you are referring to someone handing you a
16 copy of the draft offering memorandum?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. I think you've already testified but you
19 personally did not provide a draft of the comfort memo to 20 anyone outside of -- comfort letter to anyone outside of 21 Arthur Andersen, correct?

22 A. That I can recall. I mean, somebody would have 23 provided a draft to Morgan Stanley in advance of issuing the 24 March 19th letter. That's normal practice, to give the 25 underwriter a draft that would include this language.

1 Whether I delivered it via fax or Larry did or
2 Mr. Brockelman did, or whoever did, you know, I don't know
3 who it was. I don't recall doing it myself but one would
4 have been delivered in advance.

5 Q. You're assuming that, correct? You don't have
6 personal knowledge that that happened?

7 A. I don't have personal knowledge that that 8 happened. I have knowledge that its suppose to happen in 9 the process. It's normal that it does happen. I don't know
10 that it actually did happen.

11 Q. Now, it was your understanding that the work that 12 you had done in the post audit reviews in identifying the 13 decline in sales prompted Arthur Andersen to say that it
14 wouldn't be willing to issue a consent for the note offering
15 if Sunbeam didn't add a recent development section to the 16 offering memorandum, correct?

17 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. I thought he was 18 testifying before that the consent -- that he didn't have an 19 understanding that there was a consent necessary for this 20 part of the offer. That's why I'm objecting to the 21 question. Maybe I heard it wrong. If you want to read it
22 back.

23 (The record was read.)

24 THE WITNESS: Issue a consent to the offering
25 memorandum? What are we talking about now? The offering

1 memorandum was completed without a consent having been
2 issued, right? We agreed the consent didn't have to be
3 issued?

4 MR. MOSCATO: That's why I was objecting.

5 THE WITNESS: Are we in June now of '98?

6 BY MS. BROWN:

7 Q. No, we are talking in March of '98.

8 A. Okay.

9 MR. JOHNSON: What date do you have there?

10 MS. BROWN: April 29, 1999.

11 MR. MOSCATO: Are you going to ask him to -- are 12 you going to refresh his recollection with something in the 13 transcript that's demonstratively wrong because -- based on 14 what we have talked about today? I don't understand where 15 this is going. I mean, we've established that there wasn't 16 a consent necessary. Everyone agrees to that. Now, if he 17 said something erroneously in a prior transcript, I just 18 don't see the point of this.

19 BY MS. BROWN:

20 Q. There wasn't a consent necessary in March of '98,
21 but you do understand that Arthur Andersen withheld the 22 consent in June of 1998, correct?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. And if Arthur Andersen was going to withhold its 25 consent based on what was in the text of the offering

1 memorandum, it would have to inform Sunbeam of that prior to
2 the offering memorandum being published, correct?

3 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that.

4 BY MS. BROWN:

5 Q. If it knew in March of '98?

6 A. I mean, if it knew, Andersen should inform them
7 in March that its going to withhold its consent, but it
8 doesn't have to. I mean, Arthur Andersen can issue its 9 comfort letter and express its opinion and people can go
10 against that opinion. It's up to Arthur Andersen later on 11 whether or not they want to issue a consent, right?

12 Q. But if Arthur Andersen expected, based on what it
13 saw in the offering memorandum in March of 1998, that it
14 could not based on that text issue a consent when the notes
15 were eventually registered, then as a service or courtesy
16 Arthur Andersen would tell Sunbeam that before the offering
17 memorandum was published?

18 A. And maybe they did. Maybe they did and someone 19 decided, well, let's just publish any way and maybe it will
20 never get registered. I don't know. I just don't know
21 about that. If they knew --

22 MR. MOSCATO: You've answered the question.

23 THE WITNESS: I'm done?

24 MR. MOSCATO: Yes. Wait for another question to 25 be posed.

1 THE WITNESS: How about a coffee break?
 2 MS. BROWN: Okay. Let's go off the record.
 3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are going off the record.
 4 The time is 2:32.
 5 (Time noted: 2:32 p.m. to 2:34 p.m.)
 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record.
 7 The time is 2:43.
 8 BY MS. BROWN:
 9 Q. Mr. Pastrana, do you recall a conversation with 10 Mr. Bornstein where he told you that after reviewing the 11 comfort letter -- draft comfort letter and the draft
 12 offering memorandum Arthur Andersen said that there was no
 13 way they would issue a consent unless Sunbeam added a recent 14 events -- recent development section to the offering
 15 memorandum?
 16 A. I do remember a conversation, something to that 17 effect.
 18 Q. And that conversation took place prior to the 19 issuance of the press release by Sunbeam on March 19, 1998,
 20 correct?
 21 A. I don't recall the timing. I believe it was 22 prior to the issuance of the press release.
 23 Q. Do you recall having any discussion after the 24 issuance of the press release to the effect that Arthur
 25 Andersen still intended to withhold its consent from --

1 ultimately for the registration statement because it felt
 2 the offering memorandum was inaccurate?
 3 A. I never heard anything one way or the other,
 4 whether Andersen intended to issue a consent or not issue a
 5 consent.
 6 Q. Do you recall any follow-up conversation
 7 whatsoever to the conversation that you had with 8 Mr. Bornstein where he initially indicated that unless 9 Sunbeam added a recent development section to the offering
 10 memorandum, Arthur Andersen would withhold its consent?
 11 A. I remember no conversation. Could you repeat the 12 question again? I don't understand how that differs from 13 the prior question.
 14 Q. The prior question was you did recall a 15 conversation with -- an initial conversation with 16 Mr. Bornstein, correct?
 17 A. That's correct.
 18 Q. And my question --
 19 MR. MOSCATO: I don't think that was the prior 20 question he was talking about but go ahead.
 21 BY MS. BROWN:
 22 Q. And my question was after that conversation with 23 Mr. Bornstein where he initially said that Arthur Andersen
 24 would hold their consent, was there any subsequent 25 conversation regarding that topic that you recall?

1 A. Subsequent to the press release, I don't recall
 2 any conversation.
 3 Q. And you recall that Sunbeam put the substance of 4 the press release into the offering memorandum?
 5 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 6 THE WITNESS: I recall something was put in the 7 offering memorandum very similar to the wording in the press
 8 release, yes.
 9 BY MS. BROWN:
 10 Q. I think you already said but let me clarify.
 11 There was nothing in the offering memorandum that you
 12 reviewed that you thought was false or misleading, correct?
 13 A. I don't recall anything that was false or
 14 misleading.
 15 Q. And you didn't make any comments on the offering
 16 memorandum other than verifying the numbers, correct?
 17 A. That's right.
 18 MR. MOSCATO: Well, I object to that. I think
 19 there needs to be some clarification. The thing where he 20 verified numbers, I'm not sure was the final offering
 21 memorandum, was it?
 22 MS. BROWN: I was referring to a draft.
 23 MR. MOSCATO: To a draft, okay, that's fine. But 24 for the record, I don't think that draft had the recent 25 developments section but you guys can work that out.

1 BY MS. BROWN:
 2 Q. After the inclusion of the recent development
 3 section with substance or language similar to what was in 4 the press release, you still had the opinion that there was
 5 nothing false or misleading about the offering memorandum,
 6 correct?
 7 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 8 THE WITNESS: In regard to -- like the historical 9 financial numbers that were in there? I mean, I think it
 10 was all accurate.
 11 BY MS. BROWN:
 12 Q. Do you recall anything that you read with regard
 13 to the final offering memorandum that you thought was false
 14 or misleading?
 15 A. Yeah, I mean, management's statement to the 16 effect that they thought they were going to exceed sales for 17 what they had achieved in the previous year. I mean,
 18 whether it's false or misleading, I really didn't know
 19 enough to judge but I certainly thought it was fairly bold
 20 to make that kind of a statement given what the results were 21 at that point of the month but that was their choice.
 22 Q. But you didn't think it was false or misleading?
 23 MR. MOSCATO: Objection to form.
 24 THE WITNESS: I thought they could have worded it
 25 differently. I thought they could have just said, "We're

1 not going to meet our earnings, our targets that we had said
2 or what we had communicated to Emerald" and just leave it at
3 that. I mean, why say --

4 BY MS. BROWN:

5 Q. Did you ever communicate with anyone your opinion
6 concerning --

7 A. I think we had conversations about it internally
8 at Andersen. I never communicated outside of, you know, the 9 people that I was directly responsible to or I reported to,
10 those feelings.

11 Q. Were you aware that Sunbeam provided to Morgan
12 Stanley and then to Arthur Andersen a buildup of sales it
13 expected to achieve at the end of March, 1998?

14 A. I was aware that Larry had gotten something,
15 Bornstein, while he was at the printers to corroborate what
16 management thought they were going to achieve from the sales
17 standpoint, whether it was existing orders or something,
18 some kind of form or something like that.

19 Q. Did you see that document?

20 A. I did not. I did not.

21 Q. Who would be in a better position to know the 22 outstanding orders that Sunbeam had on hand at the end of or 23 toward the end of 1998, Sunbeam or Arthur Andersen?

24 A. I would think Sunbeam.

25 Q. Who would be in a better position to project the

1 date on them. We looked at them a little earlier, and I
2 don't know right now why the February numbers aren't in here
3 unless we weren't given those numbers until after that date
4 at some point and time. There should be a representation
5 letter from management. Do you have that that goes with 6 this? It should be dated -- it should be dated actually
7 March 16th. It may actually be here.

8 MR. JOHNSON: MS 30, I think.

9 THE WITNESS: Actually those February statements
10 that we looked at earlier were not given to us until some 11 time after March 16, the date of our cutoff. I mean, here's 12 a letter signed by management dated March 16th that says,
13 "No consolidated financial statements are available as of 14 any date or for any period subsequent to February 1st,
15 1998."

16 So on March 16th management was still
17 saying that the February numbers were not available. They 18 had not completed their January close yet. So I think
19 that's what we were aware of. Am I wrong about that?

20 MR. MOSCATO: It's very confusing.

21 THE WITNESS: Actually the comfort letter does
22 disclose the sales figure through February which is in Note
23 6-C, so apparently we had some sales information. I don't
24 know if we had full income statements.

25 BY MR. BROWN:

1 sales that Sunbeam was going to make at the end of 1990 --
2 the first quarter of 1998, Sunbeam or Arthur Andersen?

3 A. Sunbeam.

4 Q. And you in this period in March of 1998 had no
5 reason for concern that the 1998 plans with respect to the 6 grill season in particular would not materialize, correct?

7 A. Correct, with regard to the grill season I had no
8 reason to not believe what they were saying.

9 Q. And you understood that Sunbeam still believed 10 that they were going to meet their sales goals for the 1998
11 season, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. I'll hand you what has been marked as Morgan
14 Stanley Exhibit 9. This is the comfort letter that Arthur
15 Andersen issued to Morgan Stanley on or around March 19,
16 1998, correct?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. But Arthur Andersen had the sales numbers for 19 February of 1998 prior to issuing this comfort letter,
20 correct?

21 A. I think that's correct. I'm not certain.

22 Q. Do you know -- did you have any discussions with 23 anyone at Arthur Andersen why those numbers were not
24 included in the March 19th, 1998 comfort letter?

25 A. I did not. You know, the February numbers have a

1 Q. I'm sorry, where were you referring to? Six
2 what?

3 A. 6-C on Page 5 of the March 19th comfort letter.

4 Q. So you think the distinction between Paragraph
5 5-B and 6-C is what? Why the numbers were not placed in 6 Paragraph 5-B?

7 A. Paragraph 5-B relates to the latest available
8 financial statements of the company, so in this particular
9 case it's March 16th and the company is telling us the 10 latest financial they have available are as of February
11 1st. However, even though we don't have financial 12 statements at the end of February, we will still make 13 inquiries or perform other procedures for the period
14 subsequent to February 1st, so one of the steps is to make 15 an inquiry of management and get some information regarding 16 sales and 6-C is what they informed us about sales during 17 that period.

18 Q. So the March 13th and March 16 PARs that we 19 looked at, those were not closed numbers essentially?

20 A. The PARs look at numbers that --

21 MR. JOHNSON: I object to the form of the 22 question but you may answer.

23 THE WITNESS: The PARs were performed on numbers
24 that were closed as of the date of those PARs, so either the 25 January or the February. Whatever closed numbers were

1 available at that time. Does that make sense?
 2 So, anyway, even though on March 16th,
 3 February -- complete February closing was not available,
 4 sales for the period were available, and management provided
 5 that information and we included it.

6 BY MR. BROWN:

7 Q. There were -- as you mentioned, there was a bring
 8 down comfort letter?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And for that bring down comfort letter there was 11 also a bring down management representation letter; is that
 12 correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And you drafted both of those?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. You've been handed what has been marked as 17 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 32, and for the record it's CPH
 18 0041650 to 61. Can you identify these documents for the 19 record?

20 A. This appears to be an early draft of the March
 21 19th comfort letter and then a later draft of the same
 22 letter.

23 Q. Referring to the document that begins on Bates --
 24 ending in 51, that's a draft of the representation letter
 25 from management, correct?

1 Q. Do you recall any of the circumstances
 2 surrounding how that was placed in the draft representation
 3 letter?

4 A. No, I don't.

5 Q. That paragraph is not something that was in the 6 March 16th management representation letter, correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. So it appears as though that was something that 9 was added subsequently; is that correct?

10 A. It appears it was something that was deleted
 11 subsequently.

12 Q. Deleted?

13 A. Did I misspeak? It appears that it's not in the 14 final copy of the letter.

15 MR. MOSCATO: It was added then deleted?

16 THE WITNESS: It was added and then it was not 17 included in the final letter.

18 BY MR. BROWN:

19 Q. The document you are looking at which is Morgan
 20 Stanley Exhibit 32 is attached to an e-mail dated March
 21 21st, 1998, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Which is after management had issued their first
 24 representation letter to Morgan Stanley -- to Arthur
 25 Andersen in association with the comfort letter dated March

1 A. I beg your pardon, you're right. You're right.

2 Q. And then the document that begins on Page 55 is a
 3 draft of a comfort letter, correct?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And these documents are attached to an e-mail
 6 that you sent to Mr. Bornstein; is that correct?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Dated March 21, 1998?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. Turn, if you would, please to the last page of 11 the draft of the representation -- second to the last page 12 of the draft of the representation letter which ends in 13 Bates 53. I refer you there to Paragraph 10 in Morgan
 14 Stanley Exhibit 32. This draft representation letter from 15 management states, "Despite the decrease in net sales
 16 described in the preceding paragraph, management believes
 17 that net sales for the first quarter of fiscal 1998 will 18 exceed the net sales for the first quarter of fiscal 1997";
 19 do you see that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did you place that text in this draft letter?

22 A. It's quite possible.

23 Q. Do you recall anyone directing you to place that
 24 text in the draft management representation letter?

25 A. No, I don't recall.

1 19th, correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 MR. MOSCATO: I object to the last comfort
 4 letter.

5 BY MS. BROWN:

6 Q. Correct, it was after the March 19th, 1998
 7 comfort letter?

8 A. Added after -- are you sure these e-mails goes
 9 with these? I guess so, zero update -- go ahead.

10 Q. There was a subsequent management letter,
 11 correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. I hand you what's been marked as -- what we will
 14 mark as Exhibit 33.

15 You have been handed what's marked as
 16 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 33 which, for the record, is Bates
 17 CPH 0038712 to 15 and this is a document bearing a fax
 18 header of March 23rd, 1998, "Arthur Andersen, Fort 19 Lauderdale"; do you see that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What does that fax header in terms of -- was that 22 sent from Fort Lauderdale or received from Fort Lauderdale?

23 A. Frankly, I don't know.

24 Q. Is it Mr. Harlow that was based in Fort
 25 Lauderdale?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. Now, Morgan Stanley Exhibit 33, which has the fax
 3 date of March 23rd, 1998, also has Paragraph 10 which we
 4 referred to in Morgan Stanley Exhibit 32; do you see that?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. And in Morgan Stanley Exhibit 33 there's a
 7 handwritten edit to the Paragraph 10?
 8 A. Uh-huh.
 9 Q. Do you recognize the handwriting?
 10 A. Yes, I think it's Mr. Bornstein but I'm not 11 certain of that.
 12 Q. Do you recall any discussions concerning this 13 edit?
 14 A. No. Is the cover not available?
 15 Q. I don't believe it is. I don't know. Do you
 16 recall any discussions about that paragraph at any point?
 17 A. I don't.
 18 Q. You've been handed what's been marked as Morgan
 19 Stanley Exhibit 34, and, for the record, it's CPH 0129642 to 20 44. Mr. Pastrana, do you recognize this document?
 21 A. This is the March 23rd management representation
 22 letter.
 23 Q. This letter bears the same date as the fax header
 24 in Morgan Stanley Exhibit 33, correct?
 25 A. That's right.

1 Q. And if you turn to Bates ending in 44, the last
 2 page of Morgan Stanley Exhibit 34, what had previously been
 3 Paragraph 10 in the draft management representation letter
 4 has been deleted or is no longer in the document; do you see
 5 that?
 6 A. Uh-huh. Let me take a look at this just for a
 7 second, okay? (Reading) Okay, correct.
 8 Q. And do you have any understanding as to who it
 9 was that deleted or removed what in Morgan Stanley
 10 Exhibit 33 was Paragraph 10 from the final representation
 11 letter, Morgan Stanley Exhibit 34?
 12 A. No, I don't.
 13 Q. Do you recall any discussion whatsoever about the 14 removal of that paragraph from the management representation
 15 letter?
 16 A. No.
 17 Q. So you don't recall there being any concern that 18 that had been removed?
 19 A. I don't recall any concern or any discussion
 20 about it. I don't know who did it or what the circumstances
 21 were.
 22 Q. In the previous drafts of the management
 23 representation letter, for example, Morgan Stanley 33,
 24 those, to your knowledge, were not provided to Morgan
 25 Stanley, correct?

1 A. Correct. Nor the final one dated March 23rd.
 2 None of these were provided to Morgan Stanley. These are
 3 internal Arthur Andersen work papers.
 4 Q. Do you know whether anyone from Morgan Stanley
 5 told -- strike that.
 6 Do you know whether anyone from Arthur
 7 Andersen told Morgan Stanley that that paragraph had been
 8 deleted from the management representation letter?
 9 A. No, I would have no reason to expect anyone to 10 tell Morgan Stanley that.
 11 Q. Between the post-audit review work that you did
 12 for the first comfort letter -- strike that.
 13 After Arthur Andersen provided to Morgan
 14 Stanley the bring down comfort letter dated March 25th 1998,
 15 did you between that period and the end of -- first quarter
 16 of 1998 have any further conversations with Sunbeam
 17 concerning their expected sales for the first quarter of 18 1998?
 19 A. I don't recall any.
 20 Q. Now, you said with regard to the March 19th press
 21 release that Sunbeam issued, you did not see that press
 22 release before it was issued, correct?
 23 A. Correct.
 24 Q. And you did not discuss that press release with
 25 Morgan Stanley, correct?

1 A. Correct.
 2 Q. You were aware in March of 1998 that the company
 3 had adopted an aggressive marketing strategy?
 4 A. At what period I was aware of that?
 5 Q. March of 1998?
 6 A. What marketing strategy was that?
 7 Q. For instance, it's referred to in the Note A to 8 one of your post-audit reviews -- to one of your P&L
 9 programs?
 10 A. To early buy program?
 11 MR. MOSCATO: No. Are you referring to the 12 business about the radio?
 13 THE WITNESS: Oh, the advertising in the USA
 14 Today ads and stuff like that? Correct, I was informed that 15 the company was undertaking those efforts to improve sales.
 16 BY MS. BROWN:
 17 Q. In March of 1998?
 18 A. Yes, whatever the time frame was on that note;
 19 that's right.
 20 Q. And when the press release was issued, there was 21 nothing in there that you thought was untrue, correct?
 22 A. We're back to the March 19th press release
 23 again?
 24 Q. Correct.
 25 A. You know, untrue? No, I mean, as far as I knew

1 it was true. I mean, I guess management thought they would
 2 achieve the sales of the previous year.
 3 Q. And you didn't know one way or the other whether
 4 Sunbeam was going to make its 1998 budget, correct?
 5 A. That's correct.
 6 Q. And from working at Sunbeam, were you aware that
 7 their sales tended to increase at the end of the first
 8 quarter or at the end of the quarter?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. Now, Sunbeam held inventory in third party
 11 warehouses, correct?
 12 A. Right.
 13 Q. And they held not only their own inventory but 14 then the bill of hold inventory at third party warehouses?
 15 A. Right.
 16 Q. When Sunbeam made a bill and hold sale of 17 inventory that it had in a third party warehouse, in order
 18 to recognize that revenue as Sunbeam had been for bill and 19 hold, they simply had to segregate that inventory in their 20 records and then they would physically segregate it,
 21 correct?
 22 A. Correct. Physically and in the accounting
 23 records.
 24 Q. So, for instance, in order to make their sales at 25 the end of the first quarter of 1998 -- you were aware that

1 Sunbeam was engaging in bill and hold sales in the first
 2 quarter of 1998, correct?
 3 A. Correct.
 4 Q. And in making sales under bill and hold in the
 5 first quarter of 1998, Sunbeam didn't actually have to ship
 6 that product if the product was already at a third-party
 7 warehouse, correct?
 8 A. Correct.
 9 Q. So whatever volume Sunbeam needed to sell in 10 order to make their first quarter 1998 projection, that was 11 not inventory that they actually had to ship out of their 12 own docks if they already existed at third party warehouses?
 13 A. That's correct, provided, of course, they did
 14 these other things. They physically segregated from their 15 own inventory, couldn't be used to fill out their orders,
 16 blah, blah, blah. There were a number of other things they 17 had to do, so to speak, but, yes.
 18 Q. Now, you were aware that the company felt at 19 least -- the company felt in the first quarter 1998 that 20 they were going to achieve their sales goals?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. And you stated when we were talking earlier that 23 Mr. Bornstein had some concern or skepticism as to whether 24 Sunbeam would be able to make that sort of shipment in order
 25 to make their first quarter 1998 sales?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. But at the end -- at that time, it still did not
 3 call into question for Mr. Bornstein, to your knowledge, the 4 integrity of Sunbeam's manage?
 5 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. How can he answer that
 6 question?
 7 BY MR. BROWN:
 8 Q. Mr. Bornstein did not communicate to you that he
 9 had any question about Sunbeam's management?
 10 A. Correct.
 11 Q. And Mr. Bornstein didn't communicate to you in 12 the first quarter of 1998 that he had any concern about 13 fraud at Sunbeam?
 14 A. Not that I can recall.
 15 Q. You had performed cutoff testing for Sunbeam at 16 the end of 1997, correct, Arthur Andersen?
 17 A. Arthur Andersen, correct.
 18 Q. Did you personally have any communications with 19 Morgan Stanley about the fact that you were going to perform
 20 first quarter of 1998 cutoff testing at Sunbeam?
 21 A. No.
 22 MR. MOSCATO: Is that a you, Dennis Pastrana, 23 or --
 24 MS. BROWN: You, Dennis Pastrana.
 25 A. That's correct. Me personally, no.

1 Q. And once you received the memos concerning the
 2 cut off testing that had been observed at the end of first
 3 quarter 1998, there is nothing there that caused you concern
 4 about Sunbeam's cutoff for the end of the quarter, correct?
 5 A. No.
 6 Q. Now, you testified earlier that you're familiar
 7 with the Barron's article that came out in June of 1998?
 8 A. Uh-huh.
 9 Q. In fact, you put together a memo addressing the 10 points in the Barron's article, correct?
 11 A. Uh-huh.
 12 Q. And you said that there were discussions
 13 concerning the Barron's article?
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. At the time that you put together the memo
 16 addressing the points in the Barron's article, did you
 17 personally at that point question the integrity of the 18 management at Sunbeam?
 19 A. I'd have to go back and look at the memo.
 20 Q. The memo that you wrote?
 21 A. Yes, memo, schedule, whatever it was. I remember
 22 that some kind of document was compiled that went through
 23 item by item the items identified in the Barron's article
 24 but I don't remember exactly the results of that.
 25 Q. Do you remember having an impression of being

1 concerned about --
 2 A. Oh, yeah, I mean by that point I think we were
 3 concerned.
 4 Q. By June of 1998?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. But prior to June of 1998, do you recall having 7 any concerns about the accuracy of Sunbeam's financial
 8 statements or the integrity of Sunbeam management?
 9 A. No.
 10 Q. Now, in June of 1998 you were actually -- and I
 11 think you personally, but you were actually working toward 12 the registration of the notes that had been issued in March,
 13 correct?
 14 A. That's probably correct.
 15 MR. MOSCATO: You just said "you," and I think
 16 you personally. I'm assuming and I'm not object. I'm 17 assuming when you say "you," you mean Dennis Pastrana, and 18 if you mean Arthur Andersen, you will say Arthur Andersen.
 19 MS. BROWN: Yes.
 20 MR. MOSCATO: We're clear on that.
 21 BY MS. BROWN:
 22 Q. You personally were not involved in the decision
 23 of Arthur Andersen to withhold its consent in June of 1998?
 24 A. No.
 25 Q. Did anyone have discussions with you as to

1 whether Arthur Andersen should withhold its consent in June
 2 of 1998?
 3 A. No.
 4 Q. In June of 1998, Arthur Andersen learned that
 5 return authorizations had been deleted from the Sunbeam
 6 system during the 1997 audit, correct?
 7 A. Correct. I mean, actually I don't know -- we
 8 learned the return authorizations had been deleted. I don't
 9 know the timing of it but, sure, yes.
 10 Q. And in June of 1998 Arthur Andersen also learned
 11 about additional guaranteed or right of return sales?
 12 A. Correct.
 13 Q. But that's information that was new to Arthur
 14 Andersen and that Arthur Andersen did not have available to 15 it any time prior to the close of the first quarter of 1998,
 16 correct?
 17 A. Correct.
 18 Q. And that's true even though you had spent the 19 majority of your time on-site at Sunbeam throughout that 20 period, correct?
 21 A. Right.
 22 Q. Now, the restatement that took place of Sunbeam's
 23 financials, you were involved in that work, correct?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. And were you aware that Arthur Andersen spent

1 over 10,000 hours on that work?
 2 A. I don't recall being aware of that. I might have 3 been.
 4 Q. If that is in a report to the Sunbeam board,
 5 would you have any reason to disagree with that?
 6 A. No, no.
 7 MR. MOSCATO: Is the 10,000 hour figure Andersen
 8 or Andersen and Sunbeam combined?
 9 MS. BROWN: I think it's Andersen and Sunbeam
 10 combined.
 11 MR. MOSCATO: I thought you had said you would
 12 apply to Andersen 10,000 hours. It doesn't matter. I
 13 should stop interrupting probably.
 14 BY MS. BROWN:
 15 Q. The procedures that you performed during the 16 restatement were much more expansive than anything that you
 17 had performed during the regular audit, correct?
 18 A. Correct.
 19 Q. And you had never seen anything like the level of 20 detail work that was performed during the restatement,
 21 correct?
 22 A. Correct.
 23 Q. And restatement took place over a period of four 24 to five months without regard to materiality, cost or the 25 level of resources that were going to be required, correct?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. And as a result of those unlimited -- well,
 3 strike that. In addition, in June or July of 1998, the SEC
 4 also began an investigation of Sunbeam, correct?
 5 A. Correct. I don't know exactly the timing of when
 6 they started, but, yes.
 7 Q. You were aware that that investigation was 8 ongoing at the time you were performing the restatement?
 9 A. Correct.
 10 Q. And as a result of your work -- Arthur Andersen's
 11 work during the restatement, Arthur Andersen learned
 12 information that had not been available to you during the 13 1997 audit and through the first quarter of 1998, correct?
 14 MR. JOHNSON: Objection, form.
 15 THE WITNESS: I think that's true, yes.
 16 BY MS. BROWN:
 17 Q. As a result of the work that you did -- and I'll 18 refer to you personally now -- during the restatement, are 19 you aware of any information that was withheld from Arthur
 20 Andersen but that was provided to Morgan Stanley?
 21 MR. JOHNSON: Object to the form of that as well.
 22 THE WITNESS: I'm not aware of any information
 23 withheld from Andersen that was provided to Morgan Stanley.
 24 I'm not aware of what was provided to Morgan Stanley, if 25 anything.

1 BY MS. BROWN:

2 Q. That wasn't something is that you were interested
3 in when you were performing the restatement procedures,
4 correct?

5 A. No. That's correct.

6 Q. And despite the hundreds of hours that you
7 performed on the 1997 audit and the work on the Q1 1998
8 financial for Sunbeam, you personally have no fraudulent
9 knowledge of any fraudulent conduct by Sunbeam, correct?

10 A. State that again. As a result of what work?

11 Q. In spite of the hundreds of hours that you had 12 spent at Sunbeam in 1997 and 1998 and the audit work that 13 you performed, you had no personal knowledge of any 14 fraudulent conduct by Sunbeam?

15 A. That includes the restatement work as well.

16 Q. Let's go up to June of 1998 first.

17 A. Correct, I had no knowledge of any fraud.

18 Q. Today do you have personal knowledge of fraud by
19 Sunbeam?

20 A. I don't have personal knowledge but, you know, I
21 have concerns.

22 Q. I'm just asking about your personal knowledge.

23 A. Sure.

24 Q. The restatement work that you performed and that 25 Arthur Andersen performed was conducted after Mr. Dunlap had

1 A. I was not aware of that.

2 Q. Did you have a sense --

3 A. I mean, encourage meaning giving them an
4 incentive for assistance. I mean, people were generally
5 cooperative. It was very difficult but they had somehow
6 been coaxed or incentivised or something to be extra helpful
7 or something like that. I was not aware of anything like
8 that.

9 Q. You weren't aware that they were discouraged in 10 any way from assisting in the restatement, correct?

11 A. Correct, and I was aware that they had absolutely
12 nothing to protect in restating or making adjustments to 13 prior year end financial statements. I mean, it didn't
14 matter to them either way.

15 Q. From your own personal observations from the 16 hundreds of hours that you spent on site at Sunbeam in '97
17 and the first quarter of '98 and then the however many hours
18 you spent to the restatement, did you observe a difference
19 in the corporate culture at Sunbeam between the two 20 managements?

21 A. I mean, there was clearly a change in culture, in
22 the environment and the attitude, but, you know, I was there
23 for such a short period of time after new management came in 24 that I don't know how much of it was just -- I don't know
25 what to attribute the change to necessarily.

1 been fired, correct?

2 A. Yes, that's probably true.

3 Q. After Mr. Kersh had also been fired?

4 A. When were they fired, do you remember?

5 Q. I can provide you documents.

6 MR. MOSCATO: June 25th.

7 BY MS. BROWN:

8 Q. No later than.

9 A. Hypothetically?

10 MR. MOSCATO: Hypothetically June 25th.

11 THE WITNESS: The restatement work was done after
12 that, correct.

13 BY MR. BROWN:

14 Q. And the restatement work was done after Mr. Uzzi
15 had been fired, correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. So all the interviews that you conducted were 18 after there had been a change in management at Sunbeam?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Were you aware of or familiar with what was 21 referred to as an amnesty program that the new Sunbeam
22 management put into place?

23 A. No, I was not aware of that.

24 Q. Were you aware that the new Sunbeam management
25 encouraged its employees to assist in the restatement work?

1 Q. Did you have a sense when you were performing the
2 interviews during the restatement that the employees were
3 relieved by the change in management?

4 A. Yes, I did.

5 Q. Did you have a sense that when you were 6 performing the interviews that the employees felt they could
7 provide you with information that they were concerned about
8 providing earlier?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. When you perform an audit, you assume that the 11 company is being operated properly and that the management
12 has integrity and there is not a conscience effort to 13 misstate or manage their earnings, correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And you believe that those assumptions were 16 correct while you were performing the 1997 audit for
17 Sunbeam?

18 A. Yes, I believed that at the time of the audit.

19 Q. At the time that you were performing the 20 procedures related to Q1 98 for Sunbeam, you still believed 21 that to be correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Now, when you're performing audit procedures, in 24 some instances you do rely upon the information provided to 25 you by management, correct?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. So, for instance, when management told you that
 3 there was a no-return policy, you did not go out and verify
 4 that information with Sunbeam's customers, correct?
 5 A. Correct.
 6 Q. Do you recall performing in first quarter of 1998
 7 some due diligence work on behalf of Sunbeam for an entity
 8 that they were considering acquiring?
 9 A. Yes, I don't remember exactly the time frame.
 10 What quarter did you say?
 11 Q. It was in the first quarter of 1998.
 12 A. Yes.
 13 Q. Do you remember it was related to a Black &
 14 Decker unit?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. The purpose of due diligence is different than 17 the purpose of an audit, correct?
 18 A. Correct.
 19 Q. When you perform due diligence, you don't design
 20 all of the tests and whatnot to test the representations or 21 the financials, correct?
 22 A. Correct.
 23 MR. MOSCATO: Dennis, give her a second and let
 24 me object if I need to. Give me a second before you
 25 answer. It's getting late in the day and I'm not as quick

1 as I once was.
 2 THE WITNESS: Okay.
 3 BY MS. BROWN:
 4 Q. Do you understand the purpose of due diligence to 5 be different than the purpose of an audit?
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. Have you -- other than the due diligence work
 8 that you performed for Sunbeam on the Black & Decker unit,
 9 have you performed due diligence in other context as well?
 10 A. I have not.
 11 Q. That was the only due diligence work that you
 12 performed?
 13 A. Yes.
 14 Q. When you performed the due diligence work, you
 15 also assumed that the management was forthright and had 16 integrity?
 17 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, what management are you
 18 talking about?
 19 BY MS. BROWN:
 20 Q. The management of the company that you are 21 performing the due diligence on.
 22 MR. MOSCATO: I'll let this go for another
 23 question or two but you are not going to try to put him as 24 an expert on due diligence I hope since he's only done it
 25 once in his life.

1 Answer that question and then I'm going to
 2 ask her to move on to another question.
 3 THE WITNESS: What was the question? I'm sorry.
 4 BY MS. BROWN:
 5 Q. When you were performing due diligence on an
 6 entity that was considering -- Sunbeam was considering
 7 purchasing, you also expect or anticipate, assume that
 8 management of the company you were performing the due
 9 diligence on is honest and has integrity, correct?
 10 MR. JOHNSON: I'm going to object to the form of 11 that putting aside Mike's substantive objection.
 12 THE WITNESS: In that process we did not really 13 presume anything. We showed up in a data room and there was 14 information that Black & Decker management had prepared in a
 15 room and we reviewed the information, "we" being Phil Harlow
 16 and I, over the course of -- I don't remember if it was a
 17 day or two days, something of that sort, and we prepared a 18 factual summary of what we observed and observations that we 19 had.
 20 You know, we are not really saying that
 21 it's right or wrong or anything like that, so, you know, I
 22 suppose if Sunbeam were to use that information to make an 23 acquisition, they would be relying on the accuracy of the 24 information that we reviewed but not us. We're not issuing
 25 an opinion on it so the purpose is different.

1 BY MS. BROWN:
 2 Q. And the extent of the work in the due diligence
 3 you performed was less than the extent of the work that you
 4 would do if you were auditing those same financials,
 5 correct?
 6 A. Sure.
 7 Q. And ultimately when you were working on the 8 restatement or at the end of the restatement you did reach
 9 the conclusion, you yourself, that there had been facts that 10 were misrepresented to you during the audit, correct?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. Do you have any reason to believe that Sunbeam,
 13 while they misrepresented facts to Arthur Andersen, was 14 forthright or accurately represented those same facts to
 15 Morgan Stanley?
 16 MR. JOHNSON: Objection, form.
 17 THE WITNESS: I have no knowledge of the 18 communications between Sunbeam and Morgan Stanley.
 19 BY MS. BROWN:
 20 Q. Do you have any reason to think that Sunbeam lied
 21 to Arthur Andersen but they were truthful with Morgan
 22 Stanley?
 23 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 24 MR. MOSCATO: Don't even answer that question.
 25 I'm instructing you not to answer that question.

1 BY MS. BROWN:
 2 Q. When you were performing your restatement work,
 3 did you learn of anything that Arthur Andersen had told
 4 Morgan Stanley that it had not told -- strike that.
 5 When you were performing your restatement
 6 work, did you learn of anything that Sunbeam had told Morgan
 7 Stanley that it had not told Arthur Andersen?
 8 A. As I said, I have no knowledge of the 9 communications between Morgan Stanley and Sunbeam.
 10 Q. So --
 11 A. The answer is no.
 12 Q. During all the time that you were at Sunbeam from 13 October of '97 through the end of first quarter of '98, did
 14 you have any contact with anyone from Coleman or Coleman
 15 (Parent) Holdings?
 16 A. No.
 17 Q. Did you have any contact during that time with 18 anyone from Mathco?
 19 A. No.
 20 Q. Did you have any contact during that -- 21 A. What's the period of time again? I beg your 22 pardon.
 23 Q. Any time in '97 through the first quarter of '98?
 24 A. No.
 25 Q. Have you subsequently had any conversations with

1 they happened?
 2 A. Correct.
 3 Q. Are you aware of any due diligence effort
 4 undertaken by Coleman up to the end of the first quarter of 5 1998 concerning Sunbeam?
 6 A. I'm not aware of any.
 7 Q. Are you aware of any due diligence effort
 8 undertaken by Coleman (Parent) Holdings or Mathco up to the 9 end of the first quarter of 1998 concerning Sunbeam?
 10 A. I'm not aware of any.
 11 Q. Are you aware of any due diligence effort by 12 Credit Swiss First Boston or Wachtell up to the end of the 13 first quarter of 1998 concerning Sunbeam?
 14 A. No.
 15 Q. Have you spoken with anyone representing Coleman
 16 (Parent) Holdings concerning your testimony here prior to 17 your testimony today?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. I'd like to refer you to the exhibits that were 20 marked previously, in particular CPH Exhibits 101 through 21 105.
 22 MR. MOSCATO: These are the interview memos?
 23 MS. BROWN: Correct.
 24 THE WITNESS: It's in my stack.
 25 ///

1 anyone from Coleman (Parent) concerning Sunbeam?
 2 A. No. I mean, during the restatement procedure --
 3 after Dunlap and Kersh were terminated, there were some 4 former members of Coleman or Mathco Management that got 5 involved with Sunbeam and I met them in that process and
 6 interacted with them occasionally but that was it.
 7 Q. So up to the end of the first quarter of 1998,
 8 you had no communications --
 9 A. Correct, none.
 10 Q. And you had no communications with CSFB, Credit
 11 Swiss First Boston concerning Sunbeam?
 12 A. No.
 13 Q. You had no communications up to the end of the 14 first quarter of 1998 with Wachtell Lipton concerning
 15 Sunbeam?
 16 A. No.
 17 Q. You said you personally did not communicate with 18 Morgan Stanley. Were you aware of anyone else from Arthur
 19 Andersen that communicated with Morgan Stanley other than 20 the comfort letters concerning the due diligence that Morgan
 21 Stanley did in 1998?
 22 MR. JOHNSON: Object to form.
 23 THE WITNESS: I'm not aware of any conversations.
 24 BY MS. BROWN:
 25 Q. So you're not aware one way or the other whether

1 BY MS. BROWN:
 2 Q. They should be the first exhibits marked today.
 3 A. Here they are. Okay.
 4 Q. When you performed the interviews of Sunbeam
 5 personnel during the restatement work, did you tell the 6 personnel that you were interviewing that you were only
 7 interested in their personal knowledge?
 8 A. No, I don't recall whether we did or didn't, let 9 me say that.
 10 Q. During the interviews some of the people that you
 11 interviewed and some of what you recorded was conversations
 12 or things that they had overheard, correct?
 13 A. Correct.
 14 Q. For instance, with regard to Mr. Yales and CPH
 15 Exhibit 101, when you interviewed him, you suspected that he 16 was just speculating about things that he had heard from 17 others, correct?
 18 A. Like what, for example?
 19 Q. When you interviewed Mr. Yales, you felt that he 20 didn't have in-depth understanding of the Sunbeam operations
 21 because he was new to the company, correct?
 22 A. I mean, it seemed he had a pretty good
 23 knowledge. I didn't assume that, no.
 24 Q. I'm handing you your testimony from November 21,
 25 of 2000 and if you would look at Page 876.

1 Referring to your testimony on November 21
 2 2000, 876 and going on to 877, and with regard to Mr. Yales
 3 you state there that he didn't have, in your view, an
 4 in-depth understanding of the operations of the company?
 5 A. Yes, I did testify to that before.
 6 Q. And that he really just performed very -- kind of 7 clerical role in budgeting and planning process?
 8 A. I think clerical understates his role. I mean,
 9 he was a financial analyst.
 10 Q. And you stated in your prior testimony that to a
 11 certain extent you thought that he was just speculating
 12 about things that he may have heard from other people or 13 whatever, that he had not been with the company very long.
 14 Do you see that?
 15 A. Uh-huh, yes, I see that in my prior testimony. I
 16 did testify that way before. I mean, reading the memo, and 17 having read it over the weekend, I guess that's not the 18 impression I got from it, but I did testify that way
 19 previously. It's been a while.
 20 Q. You don't recall --
 21 A. My recollection now is different than my 22 recollection was then so.
 23 Q. And your recollection of Mr. Yales -- have you
 24 spoken to Mr. Yales since 2000?
 25 A. No.

1 MR. MOSCATO: Since 2000?
 2 MS. BROWN: Since 2000.
 3 Q. Since your testimony in the last case.
 4 A. I haven't spoken to Mr. Yales since this
 5 interview was conducted that I can remember.
 6 Q. And so your recollection of Mr. Yales was 7 probably more fresh in 2000 than it is in 2004, correct?
 8 A. Probably was, yes.
 9 Q. Now, when you conducted these interviews, you
 10 didn't take them down verbatim as testimony is being taken
 11 today, correct?
 12 A. Correct.
 13 Q. And you took down handwritten notes of what was 14 being said during the interview, correct?
 15 A. Correct.
 16 Q. And then your secretary typed those notes?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. And you discarded the handwritten notes?
 19 A. Correct.
 20 Q. And so what's written here is not verbatim
 21 reports, correct?
 22 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 23 THE WITNESS: Correct.
 24 BY MS. BROWN:
 25 Q. And that's true with regard to CPH Exhibit 101,

1 102, 103, 104 and 105, none of those are verbatim
 2 accounts --
 3 A. Right, those are just summaries.
 4 Q. And the phraseology that's used is not
 5 necessarily the exact phraseology used by the Sunbeam
 6 employee, correct?
 7 A. Correct.
 8 Q. The information -- some of the information at 9 least that was provided to you during these interviews is 10 information that was not available to you during your audit
 11 work in 1997, correct?
 12 A. At least some, sure.
 13 Q. With regard to, for instance, CPH Exhibit 101
 14 where there's notes about "need to make numbers and a big 15 push," it's common, is it not, that public companies want to 16 make their public numbers?
 17 A. Yes.
 18 Q. These headings, for instance, on the second page
 19 of Exhibit 101 where you have troublesome items, that's also 20 not a verbatim bullet provided by the employee that you
 21 interviewed, correct?
 22 A. Correct.
 23 Q. And when all the testimony that you've provided
 24 concerning these interviews the Sunbeam employees gave, do
 25 you, as you sit here today, actually remember those

1 interviews or was your testimony based on what's documented
 2 in these exhibits?
 3 A. I think the testimony is based largely on what's
 4 documented. That's what I think.
 5 Q. Do you have any specific recollection of the 6 interview with Mr. Yales as you sit here today?
 7 A. I mean, I do, I can generally picture him. I can
 8 generally remember where we had it in the building.
 9 Q. Do you have any memory specifically of what was 10 said?
 11 A. No. In terms of the conversation that was 12 exchanged, no.
 13 Q. And you have no specific memory of what was said
 14 during the interview of Mr. Kaiser other than what's 15 documented in CPH Exhibit 102?
 16 A. Correct.
 17 Q. You have no specific memory of what was said by 18 Mr. Bloomfield other than what's documented in Exhibit 103?
 19 A. Correct.
 20 Q. No specific memory of Mr. Jim Job other than 21 what's documented in 104?
 22 A. Correct.
 23 Q. No specific memory of exactly what was said by 24 Mr. Jeffcoat who's interview notes are in CPH 105?
 25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And with regard to each of these, you were asked
 2 previously whether the interviewees told you that Morgan
 3 Stanley had spoken with them, did you ask any of these
 4 people whether Morgan Stanley had spoken with them?
 5 A. No, I did not ask that.
 6 Q. Did anyone that you're aware of ask that in the 7 interview?
 8 A. Not that I'm aware of, no.
 9 Q. Was that something -- was that an objective of 10 the restatement, to determine what Morgan Stanley knew?
 11 A. No.
 12 Q. And none of these people that you interviewed,
 13 Mr. Yales, Kaiser, Bloomfield, Job or Jeffcoat indicated
 14 that they had spoken with Coleman (Parent) Holdings during 15 the '97 or the first quarter of '98, correct?
 16 A. Correct.
 17 Q. Some of what the employees told you were 18 impressions that they had rather than direct factual
 19 experiences that they had, correct? For instance, I refer
 20 you to CPH Exhibit 104, the final sentence.
 21 MR. MOSCATO: Which one is that?
 22 MS. BROWN: Jim Job.
 23 Q. Where it states, "I guess they didn't want to 24 receive the goods."
 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You don't understand that he had personal
 2 knowledge of the decision-making process that went into
 3 whether Sunbeam would accept returns, correct?
 4 A. Correct.
 5 Q. With regard to -- strike that.
 6 Did anyone from Coleman (Parent) Holdings, to
 7 your knowledge, ask anyone from Arthur Andersen in 1998,
 8 first quarter, for Arthur Andersen's work papers from their
 9 work audit?
 10 A. Say the question again. I'm sorry.
 11 Q. Are you aware of anyone from Coleman (Parent)
 12 Holdings requesting Arthur Andersen work papers prior to the 13 end of the first quarter of 1998?
 14 A. No.
 15 Q. With regard to others exhibits, for example, CPH
 16 Exhibit 108 which is the March 13th, 1998 P&L, you were 17 asked previously whether Morgan Stanley had asked for this.
 18 Do you know one way or another whether Morgan Stanley
 19 requested that directly from the company?
 20 A. I don't know. I have no knowledge.
 21 MS. BROWN: If we can take a five-minute break,
 22 I'm probably done.
 23 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Going off the record. The
 24 time is 3:47.
 25 (Time noted: 3:47 p.m. to 3:53 p.m.)

1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record.
 2 The time is 3:53.
 3 BY MS. BROWN:
 4 Q. Mr. Pastrana, I have a couple of more questions.
 5 With regard to the March 19, 1998 comfort letter that Arthur
 6 Andersen provided to Morgan Stanley, did you have any
 7 discussions with Mr. Bornstein or anyone else at Arthur
 8 Andersen concerning the manner in which that letter would be
 9 transmitted to Morgan Stanley?
 10 A. No.
 11 Q. Did you have any conversation with Mr. Bornstein
 12 or anyone else at Arthur Andersen concerning whether the 13 letter would be discussed with Morgan Stanley rather than 14 provided to Morgan Stanley?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. And your prior testimony about whether or when 17 that letter was provided to Morgan Stanley, you don't have 18 any personal knowledge yourself of when that letter was 19 actually provided to Morgan Stanley, correct?
 20 A. Correct.
 21 MS. BROWN: No further questions at this time.
 22 MR. JOHNSON: No questions.
 23 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the end of this
 24 deposition. We are going off the record. The time is 3:54.

EXAMINATION

1 BY MR. JOHNSON:

2 Q. Mr. Pruitt, can I ask you to state your name
3 again for the record?

4 A. William D. Pruitt.

5 Q. And where do you reside?

6 A. 274 Valeros Court, Coral Gables, Florida, 33143.

7 Q. Are you employed today?

8 A. I'm self employed.

9 Q. Do you work as an accountant?

10 A. No, I'm a consultant.

11 Q. And are you affiliated with any consulting firm?

12 A. No, just my own.

13 Q. How long have you been self employed?

14 A. I retired from Arthur Andersen on August 31, 1999
15 so I've been basically self employed since that time.

16 Q. Do you consult on a full-time basis?

17 A. No, part time, although substantially full time
18 now.

19 Q. And how long did you work for Arthur Andersen?

20 A. 33 years.

21 Q. Could you just take me through the various titles
22 you held with Arthur Andersen?

23 A. I started in June of 1966 with Arthur Andersen.

24 I became a partner with Andersen in 1975. I became managing
25

1 partner for Arthur Andersen in South Florida in 1980, and
2 before I retired I was the managing partner for Florida, the 3 Caribbean and Venezuela.

4 Q. Are you a CPA today?

5 A. I'm an inactive CPA.

6 Q. When did you become inactive?

7 A. The year 2000.

8 Q. Were you an active CPA the entire time you were
9 at Andersen?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And were you resident in the Miami office of 12 Arthur Andersen during your entire career with Arthur
13 Andersen?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you were the concurring partner on the 16 Sunbeam engagement for Andersen?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. When did you assume that role?

19 A. Probably around 1995 to 1998 -- actually I'll
20 take that back. Until I retired in 1999.

21 Q. So about four years?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. How did you come to be the concurring partner on 24 that engagement?

25 A. Sunbeam, of course, was a high profile company

1 and the audit division had assigned me to be the concurring
2 partner after another senior partner left the firm and went
3 with another company.

4 Q. And is the audit division head Mr. Denkhaus?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So he assigned you to be the concurring partner?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Who was the engagement partner?

9 A. Phil Harlow.

10 Q. Had you worked with Mr. Harlow before?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. He was in the Miami office as well?

13 A. He was in the Fort Lauderdale office but he was 14 under my direction.

15 Q. And can you tell me as a general matter what the 16 role of the concurring partner is?

17 A. Well, basically you take a cold look at a job.

18 You have to be independent of a job to be the concurring
19 partner. In other words, you can't do the audit work and 20 also be the concurring partner. There are a number of steps
21 you take. You look at the planning for the job. You look
22 at the materiality. When you finish the job, you look at a
23 draft of the financial statements. You look at legal 24 letters on occasion. If you have material issues, they're 25 brought to you and then you either -- well, you concur with

1 the engagement team's decisions on those issues.

2 Q. When you say material issues brought to you, can
3 you tell me what you mean by that?

4 A. Well, if the engagement team believes there's 5 issues that are sensitive that could materially effect the 6 financial statements or even doing the audit, they bring the 7 issues to the concurring partner.

8 Q. And do you recall any of the material issues that 9 were brought to you during the time you served as concurring
10 partner at Sunbeam?

11 A. I'll give you a couple of large ones. There was 12 a restructuring reserve that was set up in 1996 which was a 13 material issue. In 1997 we had bill and hold sales which 14 was a material issue. Those are the two large ones that I
15 recall.

16 Q. Were you involved in the client intake process
17 for Sunbeam?

18 A. Well, since I was managing partner of the firm in 19 South Florida, I did get involved with retaining, firing
20 clients. We went through that once a year.

21 Q. And do you know what the smart form is at Arthur
22 Andersen?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What is that?

25 A. Basically that's a form that you fill out to get

1 Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone from
2 the law firm of Davis Polk & Wardwell?
3 A. Directly, no.
4 Q. Through whom would you have had any indirect
5 conversations with either Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk?
6 MS. BROWN: Objection.
7 THE WITNESS: Well, all of my conversations were 8 with Phil Harlow or Larry Bornstein.
9 BY MR. JOHNSON:
10 Q. Did you at any time see a press release that
11 someone issued on March 19, 1998?
12 A. Not the -- let me see what you have to make sure
13 it's what I'm thinking.
14 Q. This has been marked as CPH Exhibit 14
15 previously. Let me get you a copy for you.
16 A. No, I didn't see this press release before it
17 went out.
18 Q. Do you know whether anyone at Andersen approved
19 this press release before it was issued?
20 A. I'm almost certain we did not.
21 Q. Did you see the press release shortly after it
22 issued?
23 A. Probably not the press release but they printed
24 something like this in the offering memorandum.
25 Q. And did you see drafts of the offering memorandum

1 that included disclosure of that sort?
2 A. Not until after it was issued.
3 Q. Did you have any discussions with Mr. Bornstein
4 or Mr. Harlow about this press release within several days
5 after it issued?
6 A. Yes, we had discussions about it.
7 Q. And you had discussions with both Mr. Harlow and
8 Mr. Bornstein?
9 A. I don't know which one.
10 Q. And what was the substance of those discussions?
11 A. My thoughts were that this is a forward looking 12 statement and I felt like they probably shouldn't have 13 forward looking statements in the offering memorandum, that 14 they should just -- my thoughts were just put the facts in 15 there.
16 Q. So your perspective was the company should not be
17 saying that its net sales for the first quarter of 1998
18 would be expected -- would be expected to exceed the 1997
19 first quarter net sales?
20 MS. BROWN: I'm going to object as vague.
21 THE WITNESS: Well, if I was giving them advice,
22 I would tell them don't give that kind of a statement in the 23 offering memorandum. Just stick to what has happened so far.
24 BY MR. JOHNSON:
25 Q. Did you have any discussions with Mr. Bornstein

1 or Mr. Harlow about the company's ability to, in fact, make
2 sales for the first quarter of 1998 that would exceed sales
3 for the first quarter of 1997?
4 A. Well, before all of this happened and we were
5 talking about disclosure in the offering memorandum, if you
6 look at sales up through the end -- actually to, let's see,
7 it would be first day or two of March, they were having 8 sales of about a million dollars a day, and to exceed or 9 meet expectations, they would probably -- Anderson's
10 expectations they would have to sell probably 10 to 15
11 million a day for the rest of the quarter.
12 Q. So Andersen had serious concerns about its 13 ability to make those sales?
14 MS. BROWN: Objection.
15 MR. MOSCATO: About Sunbeam's ability?
16 MR. JOHNSON: Yes.
17 THE WITNESS: We were skeptical they would be 18 able to do it.
19 BY MR. JOHNSON:
20 Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone at 21 Sunbeam concerning this press release?
22 A. Me personally?
23 Q. Yes.
24 A. No.
25 Q. As concurring partner, did you as a general

1 matter not communicate directly with the client?
2 A. That's correct, concurring partners usually work
3 through the engagement manager.
4 Q. Did you have any conversations with Mr. Bornstein
5 while Mr. Bornstein was in New York to finalized the
6 offering memorandum?
7 A. Yes, I'm pretty sure I did.
8 Q. And what can you tell me about those
9 conversations?
10 A. Nothing. I think he was up there at the 11 printers, you know, looking at changes and trying to get the 12 offering memorandum completed and we had discussions back
13 and forth about disclosure --
14 Q. And that particular disclosure --
15 A. -- following the sales.
16 Q. Concerning first quarter sales?
17 A. No, up through at least March 1st there was a
18 shortfall compared to the prior year, the same timeline.
19 Q. Did you and Mr. Bornstein have any disagreement
20 about what the nature of the disclosure should be?
21 A. I don't recall any disagreements.
22 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein indicate that there was any 23 resistance to including information as to first quarter
24 sales?
25 MS. BROWN: Objection, vague.

1 THE WITNESS: You know, there was a number of
2 conversations so I don't know, you know, whether I was
3 talking to him when he was in New York or if I was talking
4 to Phil Harlow or who, but I know at first the company felt
5 like they didn't need any disclosure and they felt strongly
6 that they could make the quarter.

7 BY MR. JOHNSON:

8 Q. Do you know whether anyone from Andersen voiced
9 Andersen's view that there should not be any statement with 10 respect to the company's ability to meet or exceed 1997
11 results?

12 MS. BROWN: Objection.

13 THE WITNESS: I can't recall that. I think my 14 discussions were more along the line of what we knew at that 15 time. The first couple of months were short compared to the 16 first two months of the last year.

17 BY MR. JOHNSON:

18 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein indicate to you in any way that 19 he had asked anyone at the printer to limit the disclosure
20 to the historical information, as you put it?

21 A. I don't recall that. We were bringing the issue
22 to the company's...

23 Q. If you would look at Paragraph 6-B of Exhibit CPH
24 17 for me.

25 A. (Reading.)

1 strike that.

2 Q. Why did Andersen include the text contained in
3 6-B in the comfort letter?

4 A. This was information that was given to us by the
5 management of Sunbeam as to why the sales were lower in '98
6 as compared to '97 so we were putting that information into
7 this comfort letter for the use of the investment bankers.

8 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein ever have any discussions with 9 you after the offering memorandum was completed concerning
10 what happened during his time in New York?

11 A. I think he wrote a memorandum about it.

12 Q. And did you at any point review that memorandum?

13 A. Yes, I did. I can't recall exactly what it said
14 but I know he wrote one.

15 Q. Let me see if I got it here.

16 MR. JOHNSON: We'll mark this as CPH
17 Exhibit 114.

18 Q. If you would take a minute to read through that 19 memorandum, Mr. Pruitt.

20 A. (Reading) Okay.

21 Q. Did you have any discussions with Mr. Bornstein
22 as to why he prepared the document that's been marked as CPH
23 Exhibit 114?

24 A. I can't recall.

25 Q. Do you recall when you first saw this memorandum?

1 Q. The letter there indicates that "Sales decreased
2 primarily due to the early-buy program which accelerated
3 outdoor grill sales into the fourth quarter of 1997"; do you
4 see that?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Do you think that was information that should be
7 disclosed to persons receiving the offering memorandum?

8 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.

9 MS. BROWN: Objection.

10 THE WITNESS: Well, they had disclosed that in 11 the 10-Q.

12 MR. MOSCATO: You mean the 10-K.

13 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, the 10-K.

14 BY MR. JOHNSON:

15 Q. They disclosed what in the 10-K?

16 A. That the early-buyer program could affect the
17 first quarter of 1998.

18 Q. So do you think that's information that should be 19 included in the offering memorandum to the debt offering?

20 MR. MOSCATO: I object. He's not an expert
21 witness. The offering memorandum was not an Andersen
22 document. There's no basis for asking him his opinion on 23 that question. He's not sitting here as an expert witness.
24 He's sitting here as a fact witness.

25 MR. JOHNSON: That's a fair objection. Let me

1 A. No, I don't recall.

2 MR. JOHNSON: For the record, this is a
3 three-page document dated March 31, 1998, a memorandum from 4 Lawrence Bornstein to the files, West Palm Beach, with Bates
5 stamp Morgan Stanley 002048 through 2050.

6 Q. Look at the last page -- I'm sorry 27048 through
7 27050. Look at the last page of this exhibit, Mr. Pruitt.
8 Have you ever seen that schedule before?

9 A. I believe I have.

10 Q. Do you recall when you first saw it?

11 A. No, I don't recall.

12 Q. Mr. Bornstein states in this memo at several 13 points that it was Arthur Andersen's recommendation to 14 eliminate the statement in the offering memorandum
15 concerning the company's ability to exceed the prior year
16 first quarter sales. Is that consistent with your 17 recollection of the events during the middle of March,
18 1998?

19 MS. BROWN: Objection, vague.

20 THE WITNESS: I just can't recall exact details
21 of our discussions.

22 BY MR. JOHNSON:

23 Q. Is there anything in Exhibit 114 that is
24 inconsistent with your recollection?

25 MS. BROWN: Objection.

1 THE WITNESS: The only thing that I don't believe
2 is correct is it mentions that I talked with him with
3 Mr. Gluck and I didn't. I think just Harlow and Bornstein
4 would have talked to Mr. Gluck. I don't recall talking to 5 Mr. Gluck directly.
6 BY MR. JOHNSON:
7 Q. So the first paragraph where Mr. Bornstein states
8 that Mr. Harlow, Mr. Pruitt and Mr. Bornstein talked to 9 Mr. Gluck on March 16th, you don't believe you were on that 10 conversation?
11 A. I wasn't on that conversation. Obviously I was 12 talking to Bornstein and Harlow and we agreed that's what we 13 were going to do but I don't think I talked to Gluck
14 directly.
15 Q. Anything else in this memorandum that seems
16 inconsistent or incorrect with your recollection?
17 A. No, I don't think so. I think that's basically
18 what happened.
19 Q. Are you familiar with the term "bring down
20 letter"?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Did you look at any drafts for the bring down
23 letter on the March debt offering that we've been talking
24 about?
25 A. I can't swear that I saw it but I'm sure I did

1 but I can't swear that I saw it. I should have.
2 Q. Let's look at that and see if that helps your
3 recollection in any way. Bear with me one minute here. If
4 you go through the stack there, Mr. Pruitt, you'll see a
5 document marked CPH Exhibit 112. If you'll take a minute
6 to look through Exhibit CPH 112 for me.
7 A. Okay.
8 Q. Does that refresh your memory in any way that you
9 saw a draft of this bringing down letter before it was 10 finalized?
11 A. I can't recall. I should have but I can't swear
12 to it.
13 Q. Did you have any discussions with Mr. Bornstein
14 or Mr. Harlow concerning the updated net sales and net
15 income information that's contained on Page 2 of Exhibit 114?
16 A. Well, it's all mixed together with what we've
17 been talking about. We knew that for the first two months
18 sales were short and they had been selling like a million a
19 day for the first two months, and they'd have to sell 15
20 million or 10 million in the last months to meet
21 expectations.
22 Q. Were there any discussions to the specific issue
23 that for the first two months of 1998 the company was 24 showing a loss of $41 million?
25 A. Well, as this letter says, a lot of it was

1 because they had given options to Dunlap and Kersh I guess
2 and had expensed the items because they must have been below
3 market so that was part of it.
4 Q. And another part of the loss would be the decline
5 in sales?
6 MS. BROWN: Objection.
7 THE WITNESS: Let's see what they say here. They
8 give an explanation to some extent.
9 BY MR. JOHNSON:
10 Q. Let me start the question. Putting aside the $30
11 million charge for compensation, the company was still 12 showing a loss of over $10 million for the period; is that
13 correct?
14 A. Yes, roughly.
15 Q. As compared with a profit of almost $10 million
16 for the comparable period 1997?
17 A. That's correct.
18 Q. Did you have any discussions with Mr. Bornstein
19 or Mr. Harlow concerning that fact?
20 A. I can't recall.
21 Q. Did the company, meaning Andersen, continue to 22 monitor Sunbeam's sales progress through the end of March?
23 A. I know sometime the first part of the April 24 obviously the company knew what the sales were and they put
25 out a press release at some point saying they had a

1 shortfall compared to the prior year.
2 Q. So that their results were less than the 1997
3 results?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. And that's despite the press release on March 19
6 indicating that they expected to exceed 1997 results?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. And did you have any reaction to that
9 announcement?
10 MR. MOSCATO: The April 3 announcement?
11 MR. JOHNSON: Correct.
12 THE WITNESS: No, we continued to do significant 13 work on Sunbeam looking at bill and hold and all of those 14 kind of issues because they were working on a registration
15 statement also so we continued to be involved in monitoring
16 Sunbeam.
17 BY MR. JOHNSON:
18 Q. Did you have any discussions with anyone at 19 Andersen concerning the March 3 announcement?
20 MR. MOSCATO: April 3.
21 MR. JOHNSON: I'm sorry. Thank you.
22 Q. April 3 announcement.
23 A. No, I don't recall. I probably did but I don't
24 recall what we said.
25 Q. Do you remember whether the price of Sunbeam's

1 stock fell as a result of that announcement?
 2 A. I don't recall.
 3 Q. Did you have any discussions with anyone at
 4 Andersen concerning whether the actual first quarter 1998
 5 results would result in litigation?
 6 MS. BROWN: Objection, vague.
 7 THE WITNESS: No, I don't recall talking about
 8 that.
 9 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 10 Q. Have you ever talked to anyone at Morgan Stanley
 11 about Sunbeam?
 12 A. Directly, no.
 13 Q. And have you ever talked to anybody at Davis Polk
 14 & Wardwell about Sunbeam?
 15 A. Directly, no.
 16 Q. Did you ever speak directly with any Sunbeam
 17 employees or officers during your time as concurring
 18 partner?
 19 A. You mean, period or --
 20 Q. Period.
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. Let's focus on the 1997/98 time frame. Can you
 23 identify any Sunbeam officers who you spoke to directly?
 24 A. Not before, say, June of 1998.
 25 Q. So prior to June of '98 you didn't have --

1 A. May or June of '98. Prior, no.
 2 Q. So May or June of '98 was the first time in the 3 97/98 time frame that you had any direct contact with
 4 Sunbeam officers or employees?
 5 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 6 THE WITNESS: Except at a football game. I saw
 7 them at a football game and talked to them, nothing about
 8 Sunbeam's financial statement.
 9 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 10 Q. Dolphins?
 11 A. Yes. They lost that day I think.
 12 Q. And in the May, June 1998 time frame, which 13 Sunbeam officers did you speak with?
 14 A. I don't recall but I went up there when -- let's
 15 see. There was an article that came out in Barron's
 16 alleging a number of things and I know that one of our 17 consultants in Chicago called us and they were doing some 18 work for Sunbeam and they indicated that they had discovered
 19 that there was a lot of inventory coming back and then, of 20 course, it progressed to where Dunlap was fired and when 21 that happened I went up to talk to some audit committee
 22 members and officers there at Sunbeam about what should be 23 done.
 24 Q. At that point and time, did you believe that --
 25 strike that. Did you believe those audit committee members

1 were forthright with you during that meeting?
 2 A. I don't know. It was more to find out -- it was
 3 to do a review, an investigation and what we came up with 4 was Don Denkhaus could do this work and they approved it and
 5 thought it was a good idea.
 6 Q. Is it fair to say that no Sunbeam employee or 7 officer ever gave to you directly any false or misleading
 8 information?
 9 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 10 THE WITNESS: Person to person you mean?
 11 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 12 Q. Correct.
 13 A. Yes. I didn't talk to anyone directly.
 14 Q. Did you form the conclusion at any point that 15 some members of Sunbeam's management has provided false and 16 misleading information to Andersen?
 17 A. Well, when we did the investigation, we did a lot
 18 of interviews and some of the employees at Sunbeam started
 19 alleging that they did give false information initially.
 20 Q. And can you identify which Sunbeam employees
 21 provided false information to Andersen?
 22 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 23 THE WITNESS: I can't really recall. There are 24 memos about the interviews and a lady, McDonald -- I think I
 25 remember McDonald and some others but I'd have to go back

1 and look at the work papers.
 2 MR. MOSCATO: And you're not offering to do
 3 that.
 4 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 5 Q. Did Mr. Harlow ever give you his own assessment
 6 of whether Sunbeam had given Andersen false and misleading
 7 information?
 8 A. Well, you know, he believed the people in their 9 interviews. He felt like they were telling us the facts and 10 so.
 11 Q. So you believed that --
 12 A. Yes, that they told us things that weren't true
 13 or hid things from us.
 14 Q. So the information that's contained in the 15 restatement memoranda is accurate information?
 16 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 17 THE WITNESS: Well, I don't know that.
 18 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 19 Q. Let me put it this way --
 20 A. It's believable, I guess.
 21 Q. Did Mr. Harlow believe that the information
 22 obtained during the restatement interviews was accurate?
 23 MS. BROWN: Objection.
 24 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
 25 THE WITNESS: He never said.

Page 37

1 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 2 Q. Did you have any reason to disbelief the accuracy
 3 of any information obtained during the restatement
 4 interviews?
 5 A. I couldn't tell you. So many people were
 6 interviewed and some of them are probably still covering
 7 themselves.
 8 MR. MOSCATO: And you did not participate in the
 9 process?
 10 THE WITNESS: No, I did not.
 11 BY MR. JOHNSON:
 12 Q. You just read --
 13 A. I just read.
 14 Q. You read the restatement interviews?
 15 A. Uh-huh.
 16 Q. When was the last time you spoke to
 17 Mr. Bornstein?
 18 A. Probably, maybe two months ago.
 19 Q. And how did you happen to speak to him two months
 20 ago?
 21 A. Well, we're still friendly with each other and he 22 actually left his job. He was trying to figure out what he 23 wanted to do next and he called me and we talked.
 24 Q. Did you talk about Sunbeam in any way?
 25 A. I don't think so. I don't recall it. Maybe we

Page 38

1 did but I don't recall it.
 2 Q. When was the last time you recall talking to
 3 Mr. Bornstein about Sunbeam in any way?
 4 A. I went up to see him when he was working with 5 American Media and there were a few people in the room. He 6 made a comment about if he hadn't done such a great job at 7 Sunbeam and I hadn't supported him that it probably never
 8 would have been uncovered or something like that. That's 9 about the last thing I remember talking to Mr. Bornstein
 10 about in connection with Sunbeam.
 11 Q. Other than the March 1998 discussions with 12 Mr. Bornstein that we've already talked about, when is the 13 last time you talked to Mr. Bornstein relating to the debt
 14 offering?
 15 A. The debt offer? I can't recall, you know. When 16 we went through all of this investigation, I'm sure
 17 Bornstein and I talked a lot but I don't recall all the 18 details.
 19 Q. But that would have been 1998?
 20 A. Probably.
 21 Q. And --
 22 A. June. Of course, these conversations were in '98
 23 also. It was in March of '98.
 24 Q. Right. Have you had any conversations since 1998
 25 with Mr. Bornstein concerning Morgan Stanley?

Page 39

1 A. Not that I can recall.
 2 Q. Other than Mr. Harlow and Mr. Bornstein, did you
 3 have direct contact with any other members of the Sunbeam
 4 audit team?
 5 A. I may have. I just don't recall.
 6 Q. You had contact with Mr. Denkhous during the 7 restatement process?
 8 A. Yes, and others on the team. I just don't
 9 recall. It was a big team. Pastrana, I'm sure, others.
 10 Q. Have you spoken to Mr. Pastrana about Sunbeam
 11 since 1998?
 12 A. I'm doing a consulting job at Ernst & Young and 13 he works for Ernst & Young so I see him all the time, but I
 14 don't recall us talking to any great extent about Sunbeam.
 15 Q. Did you have a conversation about giving a
 16 deposition today?
 17 A. I knew he was going to because we were switching
 18 dates and so forth to help me out.
 19 Q. Did you talk to him at all about what this 20 lawsuit would be about?
 21 A. No, I didn't talk to him about it.
 22 Q. Did you talk to him about any of the work you did
 23 for Sunbeam in 1998 within the past --
 24 A. Not that I recall.
 25 MR. JOHNSON: Want to switch places?

Page 40

1 MS. BROWN: Want to take a break?
 2 THE WITNESS: Sure.
 3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Going off the record. The
 4 time is 10:10.
 5 (Time noted: 10:10 a.m. to 10:17 a.m.)
 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record.
 7 The time is 10:17.
 8 EXAMINATION
 9 BY MS. BROWN:
 10 Q. Good morning, Mr. Pruitt. My name is Zhonette
 11 Brown. I'm with Morgan Stanley, representing Morgan
 12 Stanley.
 13 A. Okay.
 14 Q. You talked earlier today about the smart form and 15 the smart form that Arthur Andersen uses when looking at an 16 engagement addresses certain risks associated with the 17 engagement, correct?
 18 A. Correct.
 19 Q. And once Arthur Andersen decides to accept the 20 engagement, Arthur Andersen then addresses those risks when 21 it performance the audit?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. And the objective of an audit is to be able to 24 issue an opinion that the company's financials, in this case
 25 Sunbeam, fairly state the company's financial position and

1 its results of operations and cash flows in conformity with
 2 generally accepted accounting principles, correct?
 3 A. Yes.
 4 Q. Now, at the time that you were the concurring
 5 partner for the 1997 audit for Sunbeam, you had been with 6 Arthur Andersen for over 30 years, correct?
 7 A. That's correct.
 8 Q. And you would not knowingly take any steps that
 9 would expose Arthur Andersen to liability, correct?
 10 A. Yes, at least knowingly.
 11 Q. And as concurring partner you would not allow 12 anyone to take steps that would expose Arthur Andersen to 13 liability?
 14 A. That's correct.
 15 Q. Nor would you allow anyone else to take steps
 16 that would expose Arthur Andersen to damage to its 17 reputation?
 18 A. That's correct.
 19 Q. As an auditor, its Arthur Andersen's job and the 20 people on the engagement, its their job to have a skepticism
 21 when approaching their examination of the company's
 22 financial statements?
 23 A. Healthy skepticism is correct.
 24 Q. Auditors are trained to have healthy skepticism,
 25 correct?

1 A. That's correct.
 2 Q. It's part of their job?
 3 A. That's correct.
 4 Q. With regard to the 1997 audit -- and Sunbeam did
 5 more than simply audit the year end -- excuse me, Arthur
 6 Andersen did more than simply audit the year end financials
 7 for Sunbeam in 1997, correct?
 8 A. Well, yeah, we were doing a number of things. We 9 had three acquisitions going on right after year end and, of 10 course, the stuff we talked about, the offering
 11 memorandums --
 12 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, the question was '97,
 13 though, right?
 14 MS. BROWN: Right.
 15 THE WITNESS: Just the year 1997?
 16 BY MS. BROWN:
 17 Q. 1997.
 18 A. I mean, the timeline is '97 or the financials are 19 '97? What are we talking about?
 20 MR. MOSCATO: Can you restate your question
 21 please?
 22 BY MS. BROWN:
 23 Q. In 1997, in addition to doing the audit work for 24 the year-end financial, Arthur Andersen did quarterly
 25 examinations for Sunbeam, correct?

1 A. Yes, the fiscal year end '97, yes. We did
 2 quarterly reviews.
 3 Q. And Arthur Andersen had been engaged by Sunbeam
 4 for a number of years preceding 1997, correct?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. The engagement team spent several hundred or a
 7 few thousand hours on the work that they did for Sunbeam in
 8 1997, correct?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. And as concurring partner you examined planning
 11 documents. Did that include, for instance, the work
 12 program?
 13 A. Probably not the detail work programs but 14 planning. Discussed what should be in the work program to 15 mitigate risk.
 16 Q. And you were satisfied as a result of that that 17 Arthur Andersen was adequately addressing all the risk that 18 they had identified with regard to the Sunbeam financials?
 19 A. The known risk, yes.
 20 Q. And at the end of the 1997 audit, Arthur Andersen
 21 had satisfied themselves that they had met their objective
 22 and that they would be able to give the opinion that 23 Sunbeam's financials were fairly stated, correct?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. And they didn't have any reason -- did you

1 personally have any reason in that time frame, that is
 2 January of 1998 when they signed off on the financials, to
 3 question the integrity of management at Sunbeam?
 4 A. No, we talked about this morning. We knew Dunlap
 5 was domineering and those kind of things but we felt like we
 6 were aware of those risks so when we were ready to sign off,
 7 we felt comfortable signing off.
 8 Q. Dunlap was well known in the business community,
 9 correct?
 10 A. Yes, he was a big name.
 11 Q. At the time of the 1997 audit he was seen to have 12 been successful in the -- as a successful businessman,
 13 correct?
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. He was -- I think you referred to him in prior 16 testimony as a hero in the business community, correct?
 17 A. Yes, he was looked upon as -- yeah, as far as in 18 the business community.
 19 Q. And when the question of bill and hold sales came
 20 up during the 1997 audit, ultimately Arthur Andersen
 21 satisfied itself that those were legitimate sales and the 22 revenue could be recognized in 1997, correct?
 23 A. That's correct.
 24 Q. And up until June of 1998, are you -- Arthur
 25 Andersen had no reason that you're aware of to question the

1 1997 financial statements?

2 A. That's correct. Things started being uncovered
3 subsequent to the audit.

4 Q. Subsequent to the audit being in June of 1998,
5 correct?

6 A. Yes, around June.

7 Q. Arthur Andersen, as you mentioned, continued to 8 do work for Sunbeam in the first quarter of 1998, correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. And during that time period you're not aware of 11 any reason that Arthur Andersen had to question the 12 integrity of the management?

13 A. Not that I can recall. We were obviously --
14 because of bill and hold and other things, we were doing
15 additional work. We were monitoring the situation but we 16 didn't find anything until June that made us believe that 17 they were dishonest or the financials were a problem.

18 Q. And that includes the first quarter of 1998,
19 correct?

20 A. As best I recall, yes.

21 Q. Let's go ahead and look at the CPH Exhibit 23
22 that you looked at a bit earlier this morning. It was the 23 document that included the smart form. That's it right
24 there.

25 A. This one?

1 Q. Yes. And turning to the smart form itself, on
2 Page 2 where you discussed with my colleague earlier that
3 the text in the box that management had set aggressive
4 earnings expectations, "might be inclined to recognize
5 revenue for transaction and events where the earning process
6 is not complete. Also reserves can be expected to be 7 thin." You were satisfied that Arthur Andersen had
8 addressed that issue when it signed off on Sunbeam's 1997
9 financial statements, correct?

10 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.

11 THE WITNESS: Yes, the auditing team was 12 satisfied. Ultimately it's their responsibility, not mine.
13 A concurring partner can give advice and talk about the 14 issues, but ultimately the engaging partner has the 15 responsibility to decide to sign the opinion.

16 BY MS. BROWN:

17 Q. You didn't have any difficulties or reservations
18 about Arthur Andersen signing that opinion?

19 A. Not at that time.

20 Q. On the next page, Page 3, under "Risk
21 Classification" where it says, "Final risk classification
22 high," again the risk classification and each one of the 23 risks identified in this document had been addressed by 24 Arthur Andersen of their audit of the 1997 financials,
25 correct?

1 MR. JOHNSON: Objection, form.

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, that was the idea, to find the
3 risk and try to address the risk as part of the audit. When
4 the team completed their work, they felt comfortable signing
5 the opinion.

6 BY MS. BROWN:

7 Q. And as concurring partner did you concur or sign
8 off before they signed their opinion?

9 A. Yes, I have to concur on certain things like 10 major issues that they bring to my attention, a few things
11 like that, yes.

12 Q. And with the 30 years of experience that you had 13 at that time, you were comfortable signing off with the 1997
14 financial statements for Sunbeam, correct?

15 A. Well, as concurring partner. Again I didn't sign
16 the opinion. It's not my responsibility. But the issues
17 that they brought to me, which was basically bill and hold,
18 by the time we finished with that work I felt the revenues
19 should be in 1997, and I still feel that way probably.

20 MR. MOSCATO: Feel free to respond to questions
21 that aren't asked.

22 THE WITNESS: Yes, I thought I'd throw that in.
23 He was about to fall asleep. That's off the record.

24 BY MS. BROWN:

25 Q. You testified that you had not had any previous

1 discussions with Morgan Stanley during the 1997, 1998 time
2 frame concerning Sunbeam. Did you have any conversations
3 with anyone representing Morgan Stanley senior funding
4 during that period concerning Sunbeam?

5 A. No, not directly.

6 Q. Did you have any conversations prior to June of 7 1998 with anyone from Skadden Arps concerning Sunbeam?

8 A. As part of the investigation, I think they were 9 involved, I believe. I believe, that's the firm. Were they 10 involved in the investigation?

11 MR. MOSCATO: When you say "investigation," you
12 mean the restatement.

13 THE WITNESS: The restatement. I think they were 14 involved. Maybe I said hi to somebody but again I didn't do
15 the work.

16 BY MS. BROWN:

17 Q. And prior to the restatement or the 18 investigation, did you have contact with anyone from Skadden
19 Arps?

20 A. About Sunbeam?

21 Q. About Sunbeam.

22 A. Not that I recall.

23 Q. You were actually on vacation in June of 1998
24 when Arthur Andersen determined that it would withhold its 25 consent from the SEC registration for the notes, correct?

1 A. That's correct.
 2 Q. So you personally were not involved in that
 3 decision or were you?
 4 A. No, I was out of the country and they were
 5 working with a practice director.
 6 Q. Mr. Costello?
 7 A. Yes. You know, I found out about it. I've 8 forgotten whether they left me a message. Somehow they got 9 in touch with me. I was aware of it.
 10 Q. But you weren't involved in making the decision?
 11 A. Not directly.
 12 Q. And as concurring partner, any of the work -- any 13 of the information that you have about the work that was 14 done during the audit is secondhand that you got from 15 Mr. Bornstein or Mr. Harlow, correct?
 16 A. Well, I could look at the work that was done, but 17 again I didn't interact with the client directly.
 18 Q. And you also didn't interact with the client
 19 directly on the restatement procedures, correct?
 20 A. That's correct.
 21 Q. And any information you have about what anyone
 22 from Arthur Andersen may have said to anyone from Morgan
 23 Stanley also would be secondhand?
 24 A. Secondhand.
 25 Q. Prior to June of 1998, did anyone from Arthur

1 Andersen tell you that any representative of Sunbeam had
 2 expressed hesitation about the legitimacy of the bill and
 3 hold sale?
 4 MR. JOHNSON: Could I have that read back?
 5 (The record was read.)
 6 MR. JOHNSON: I'm going to object to the form of
 7 that.
 8 THE WITNESS: I believe it was in June that
 9 Griffith or someone came to us and told us -- or they said
 10 that there could be problems with some of the sales but I'm 11 not even sure it was bill and hold sales any more. We had 12 picked up some sales that were not legitimate sales when we 13 did our investigation of the bill and hold at the audit time
 14 at year end and we had proposed adjustments to reverse the 15 sale.
 16 MR. MOSCATO: What was your question again? Was 17 your question prior to June?
 18 MS. BROWN: My question was prior to June of 19 1998.
 20 MR. MOSCATO: Why don't you restate the 21 question? I don't think it was responsive.
 22 THE WITNESS: It would be May or June. I don't
 23 know. I think it probably had to be in June but I'm not 24 certain. Again I was out of the country. I don't know
 25 exactly what was going on.

1 BY MS. BROWN:
 2 Q. So prior to May of 1998, you're not aware of
 3 anyone from Sunbeam expressing to Arthur Andersen any
 4 concerns about the legitimacy of the bill and hold sales?
 5 A. Not that I can recall.
 6 Q. And the bill and hold sales, you mentioned
 7 earlier, were disclosed in Sunbeam's 10-K for 1997; is that
 8 correct?
 9 A. That's correct.
 10 Q. And, to your knowledge -- let me just ask you
 11 personally. Were you satisfied with that disclosure of the 12 bill and hold sales in Sunbeam's 10-K?
 13 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form, foundation.
 14 THE WITNESS: Yes, I think it disclosed they had 15 bill and hold sales and they had an early-buy program and we 16 had -- I had felt that it had to be disclosed if they were 17 going to put bill and hold sales in their financials in 1997
 18 and they did.
 19 BY MS. BROWN:
 20 Q. So whatever connotations you may feel go with 21 bill and hold sales, those were disclosed in the 10-K,
 22 correct?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. You discussed earlier the comfort letters that 25 Arthur Andersen provided to Morgan Stanley in March of 1998?

1 A. Yes.
 2 Q. And Arthur Andersen performs post audit reviews
 3 prior to providing comfort letters, correct?
 4 A. As part of it, yes. Actually the comfort letters
 5 are requested by the investment banker as part of their due
 6 diligence.
 7 Q. Right, but before Arthur Andersen will provide
 8 that comfort letter, Arthur Andersen itself does post-audit
 9 review procedures, correct?
 10 A. Normally. They can ask for anything. I guess an 11 investment banker -- I've seen them just ask if we're 12 independent, you know, so we don't have to do anything if 13 you don't want to, I guess, given the comfort letter, but 14 normally they ask for things that you need to do some work
 15 on.
 16 Q. So what Morgan Stanley asked for this time
 17 required you to do more than simply state you were 18 independent?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. Now, with regard to the debt offering and the 21 comfort letters that went with that, eventually you were
 22 aware that Sunbeam would want to register with the SEC
 23 concerning the debt, correct?
 24 A. I knew at some point that, yes, they were working
 25 on an S4 registration.

Page 53

1 Q. And in order to file an S4 registration with the
2 SEC, Sunbeam has to get consent from Arthur Andersen to use
3 Arthur Andersen's opinion concerning Sunbeam's financials?
4 A. That's correct. You can ask for it but you don't
5 need it on an offering memorandum.
6 Q. Would Arthur Andersen provide its consent for the 7 S4 registration if it felt that the offering memorandum was 8 false and misleading?
9 A. Well, I know if we felt like the S4 was 10 misleading, we wouldn't give a consent.
11 MR. MOSCATO: Is the question if they thought it
12 was false and misleading when issued? It's a little
13 confusing. You could have a situation where the offering
14 memorandum says something that everyone believes is accurate
15 at the time that it turns out that it's not accurate, say a
16 forward looking statement.
17 THE WITNESS: If you fix it in the S4, I guess,
18 then, if you were satisfied, you could go ahead and give a
19 consent on the S4 if the S4 was correct.
20 BY MS. BROWN:
21 Q. My question is in March Sunbeam was working on 22 the offering memorandum. Arthur Andersen was aware that 23 eventually they would want to file an S4 with the SEC. If 24 Arthur Andersen knew in March that the offering memorandum
25 as of March was false and misleading and that Arthur

Page 54

1 Andersen would withhold -- therefore would withhold its
2 consent, would Arthur Andersen tell Sunbeam that as a matter
3 of courtesy?
4 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
5 MR. MOSCATO: It's so hypothetical. I don't know
6 how he can answer that.
7 If you feel comfortable answering it,
8 answer it. If it's too hypothetical to answer --
9 THE WITNESS: The issue would be known in April
10 anyhow. I mean, you would know what the sales would be in 11 the first quarter. The S4 is not going to be completed
12 before April anyhow, April 1st, so we're going to know the 13 answer by the time the S4 comes around. Either they're 14 right and there's no problem or they're wrong and you know
15 it.
16 BY MS. BROWN:
17 Q. When you read the offering memorandum prior to --
18 you read drafts of the offering memorandum prior to it being
19 published correct?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. As a courtesy or service to Arthur Andersen -- to 22 Sunbeam, if you noticed anything that you felt was false and 23 misleading you would bring that to the attention of Sunbeam,
24 correct?
25 MR. JOHNSON: Objection.

Page 55

1 THE WITNESS: If it was false and misleading, we
2 would bring it to their attention. It's hypothetical.
3 MR. MOSCATO: It was all hypothetical.
4 BY MS. BROWN:
5 Q. You have in front of you or you and your counsel
6 have in front of you a stack of documents that have 7 previously been marked and I'd like to refer you to what was 8 marked yesterday as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 25. Morgan
9 Stanley Exhibit 25 is a post-audit review form that Arthur
10 Andersen uses, correct?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. And turn, if you would, to the last few pages of 13 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 25 and on the last two pages at the 14 end, is that your initials and then your signature?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And it appears as though -- even though this 17 post-audit review is dated March 5th of '98 that your 18 signature is May of '98. Do you know what the circumstance
19 was that you signed it a couple of months later?
20 A. I do remember. They didn't get it to me right at 21 the end of the audit to sign and we were going to get a work
22 paper review and they were going to get jigged for that so I
23 put the right date so they would get jigged.
24 Q. In the text --
25 A. The work was done timely. I guess they didn't

Page 56

1 give me this form in time, so I signed it when they got me
2 the form as opposed to when the work was done.
3 Q. So under "Procedure," for instance, where it says
4 "Read the report to be issued and the related financial 5 statements" and then it has "Done by" and your initials,
6 what's the indication of when that was done? Was that done
7 in March or was that done in May?
8 A. It was done before they filed the 10-K.
9 Q. So you reviewed this document contemporaneously
10 with it being created?
11 MR. MOSCATO: This document or 10-K?
12 THE WITNESS: The 10-K itself was filed March 5th
13 and I did the review and so forth before they filed it.
14 BY MS. BROWN:
15 Q. So you reviewed this document in early March of 16 1998?
17 MR. MOSCATO: You keep saying this document. He
18 thinks you're talking about the 10-K.
19 THE WITNESS: Yes, I'm talking about the 10-K.
20 No, they did not send me this form until March -- I'm sorry,
21 May 29th to review. I did the work but I did not fill out
22 this form until May 29th.
23 BY MS. BROWN:
24 Q. So you reviewed the 10-K in early March of 1998?
25 A. Before it was filed.

Page 57

1 Q. But you did not review this form itself until May
2 of 1998?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. You stated before that you did the work. What
5 does that mean?

6 A. When you say "this form," to be honest with
7 you --

8 MR. JOHNSON: For the record, it's not the form
9 10-K. It's --

10 MR. MOSCATO: It's ARQ, they call it. I may have 11 looked at the front part of this thing but I did not fill
12 this out until May 29th. My part of it I didn't fill in.

13 MR. MOSCATO: When you say you did the work, you
14 mean you read the 10-K?

15 THE WITNESS: The 10-K and did all the other
16 things. I obviously talked to the audit team about bill and 17 hold and all those kind of things. I did all those things
18 before we filed the 10-K. They didn't give me this form on 19 May 29th and I signed it May 29th rather than when I did the 20 work.

21 BY MS. BROWN:

22 Q. You've been handed what's been marked as Morgan
23 Stanley 35. For the record, it's CPH 0129979 through 988.
24 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 35 is another Arthur Andersen
25 post-audit review form, correct?

Page 58

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And at the last couple of pages of Morgan Stanley
3 Exhibit 35 there are also your initials and your signature?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You also stated this document, May 29th of 1998?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. Now, under procedure number one on the second to 8 the last page of Morgan Stanley Exhibit 35 where it states,
9 "Read the report to be issued and related financial 10 statements," what does that refer to?

11 MR. MOSCATO: It says read the report to be 12 reissued.

13 THE WITNESS: To be reissued. Let me look and 14 see. What this is talking about is reissuing our order
15 on -- I think it's December 28th, 1997 opinion in the 16 financial statements and the registration statements.

17 BY MS. BROWN:

18 Q. And the registration statement?

19 A. I don't know what registration they are talking 20 about, to be honest with you. I'm trying to remember what 21 it was for.

22 Q. On Item 2 --

23 A. It may be an S8. I don't know. I don't recall
24 it.

25 Q. On Item 2 --

Page 59

1 A. It should say it. I can't find it. It's so
2 close after the 10-K was filed, it must be an S8 or
3 something. I don't think it's the S4.

4 MR. MOSCATO: Do you have a question, counsel?

5 MS. BROWN: Yes.

6 Q. When you look at Page 9, again the second to the 7 last page of Exhibit 35, under "Reviewed the results of the 8 post-audit review" which is Number 2, what does that refer
9 to?

10 A. Basically this form -- the work is done in this 11 form. There could be work papers that they're preparing in 12 doing the work, but it's basically this work on this form.

13 Q. And so when you initialed there, what does that 14 indicate?

15 A. Well, I read the reissue report and reviewed the 16 results of this post-audit review, and I discussed any 17 significant accounting and auditing issues with the 18 engagement team and I'm satisfied.

19 Q. And you did that work in March of 1998 rather 20 than in May of 1998?

21 A. Yes. This looks like it's some kind of -- it may 22 be an S8 which is like pension plans and stuff like that.
23 It's called -- it could be. I just don't know which 24 registration statement this was, but since it is so soon
25 after we filed the 10-K.

Page 60

1 Q. Look if you would at Morgan Stanley Exhibit 28
2 which was marked yesterday. And Morgan Stanley Exhibit 28
3 is a post-audit review form that Arthur Andersen uses,
4 correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And under SEC filing form Morgan Stanley
7 Exhibit 28 --

8 A. Zero coupon, okay.

9 Q. -- it states sale of 2.014 billion zero coupon
10 senior subordinated debentures due 2018.

11 A. Right.

12 Q. And now when you look at the last two pages of 13 Morgan Stanley 28, again are those your initials and your 14 signature?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Looking at this post audit report when it states
17 that you reviewed -- read the report to be reissued and 18 related financial statements, what does that refer to?

19 A. In this case it's zero coupon -- it's actually
20 the offering memorandum, is what they're talking about, I'm 21 pretty sure.

22 MR. MOSCATO: Just for your edification, read
23 that. See if you can make out the handwriting.

24 THE WITNESS: I can't read it worth a flip but I
25 think they're saying what I just said, that they're talking

Page 61

1 about the work they did on the offering memorandum and they
 2 did this work although this is not an offering.
 3 MR. MOSCATO: I just asked you to read it to 4 yourself. You don't have to discuss it unless she wants to 5 ask you about it.
 6 BY MS. BROWN:
 7 Q. Number 2 on the second to the last page of Morgan
 8 Stanley Exhibit 28, states "Principal Considerations.
 9 Whether that review has revealed any subsequent events or 10 transactions that might affect our report and/or the 11 financial statements being reissued"; do you see that?
 12 A. Give me the page.
 13 Q. It's Page 9 of the PAR, Number 2, "Principal
 14 Considerations"?
 15 A. Okay. Right.
 16 Q. And my question is what does that mean?
 17 A. We didn't find anything that would change the 18 December 28th, 1997 financial statements.
 19 Q. So as of this date, which is March 16th 1998,
 20 Arthur Andersen was satisfied that the financial statements
 21 were still not materially misstated?
 22 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 23 THE WITNESS: Fairly presented, yes.
 24 BY MS. BROWN:
 25 Q. And this was after the additional work that

Page 62

1 Arthur Andersen had done up to March 13th -- March 16th of
 2 1998, correct?
 3 A. Right. And again this is me talking. As 4 concurring partner, I didn't see anything that I felt would
 5 change the December 28, 1997 financial statement.
 6 Q. You stated earlier that you directed either
 7 Mr. Bornsten or Mr. Harlow to speak to Morgan Stanley about 8 what they expected to put in the comfort letter; do you
 9 recall that testimony?
 10 MR. MOSCATO: I'm not sure that's accurate
 11 BY MS. BROWN:
 12 Q. Do you recall testifying this morning that you
 13 directed Mr. Bornstein or Mr. Harlow to tell Morgan Stanley
 14 in advance of getting the comfort letter --
 15 A. What would be in the comfort letter, yes.
 16 Q. Do you have any personal knowledge of that 17 communication taking place? You didn't participate in such 18 communication, correct?
 19 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 20 THE WITNESS: No, I did not directly talk to the 21 investment bankers. I know it was done because Bornstein,
 22 you know, did it, told me he had talked to the investment
 23 bankers.
 24 BY MS. BROWN:
 25 Q. Did he tell you that before or after March 19,

Page 63

1 1998?
 2 A. I don't know what date it was.
 3 Q. Did he tell you that before or after he was in
 4 New York at the press?
 5 A. I don't recall but I think he did talk to the 6 investment bankers when he was in New York.
 7 Q. Do you recall ever saying to anyone from Arthur
 8 Andersen that if Sunbeam did not make a disclosure of the 9 decline in sales, Arthur Andersen would withhold the consent
 10 from registration for the notes?
 11 A. Well, again we were talking about this offering
 12 memorandum when this was all going on and you don't need a
 13 consent so they could tell us to shove it, put out the 14 offering memorandum. They don't need our consent on 15 offering memorandum.
 16 Q. But I'm not sure that answers my question. They 17 would eventually need a consent for the S4 registration,
 18 correct.
 19 A. Yes.
 20 MR. MOSCATO: Let's not argue. She asked the 21 specific question, did you say a particular thing, and you
 22 want an answer to that question.
 23 THE WITNESS: Give me the question again.
 24 BY MS. BROWN:
 25 Q. My question was do you recall saying to anyone in

Page 64

1 March of 1998 that if Sunbeam did not disclosure its decline
 2 in sales, Arthur Andersen would withhold its consent?
 3 MR. MOSCATO: And the answer is yes or no.
 4 THE WITNESS: On the S4 registration? In the 5 registration statement?
 6 BY MS. BROWN:
 7 Q. Yes.
 8 A. Not the offering memorandum? No, I don't recall
 9 saying that.
 10 Q. Do you recall ever conveying that sentiment to 11 anyone at any time prior to June of 1998?
 12 A. I don't recall tying the S4 to this time period
 13 when we were working on the offering memorandum. Again,
 14 before the S4 would be filed we would know one way or the 15 other because the quarter would be over. I mean, it was 16 only a few days left. We'd know one way or the other.
 17 Q. So the answer is no, you don't recall discussing
 18 that with anyone prior to June of 1998?
 19 A. I don't recall. Not June. Did you say June?
 20 Q. Prior to June.
 21 A. Prior to June? I thought we were talking about
 22 March.
 23 MR. MOSCATO: It's all very confusing.
 24 THE WITNESS: This was all going on in March, the 25 first quarter in the shortfall, and we would know by the

1 first part of the April whether they made it or not.
 2 BY MS. BROWN:
 3 Q. But in June --
 4 A. It wouldn't be an issue one way or the other by
 5 the time April gets here because we'll know what the sales
 6 are for the first quarter at that point, so it won't be an
 7 issue any more.
 8 Q. In June of 1998, Arthur Andersen withheld its 9 consent for the registration, right?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. Do you remember discussing that as a possibility
 12 with anyone from Arthur Andersen prior to June of 1998?
 13 A. Withholding the consent?
 14 Q. Yes.
 15 A. No, not that I can recall.
 16 Q. When you talked with Mr. Harlow and Mr. Bornstein
 17 about wanting Sunbeam to make a disclosure about the 18 decrease in net sales in March of 1998, do you recall them
 19 telling you that Sunbeam was resisting making that 20 disclosure because they believed they'd make a their quarter
 21 numbers?
 22 A. Yes. Yes, they resisted the disclosure.
 23 Q. When you told Mr. Harlow or Bornstein to tell
 24 Morgan Stanley what was going to be in the comfort letter,
 25 do you know whether they told Sunbeam first that they were

1 going to convey that information to Morgan Stanley?
 2 A. I don't know who they told first or second.
 3 Q. As a courtesy, would you expect them to have told
 4 the client before they told the underwriter?
 5 MR. MOSCATO: I object.
 6 THE WITNESS: I don't think it would have come to 7 my mind because everybody is working on the thing. They're 8 all in the same room probably.
 9 BY MS. BROWN:
 10 Q. As part of the procedure for providing a comfort
 11 letter, Arthur Andersen gets a representation letter from 12 management before they provide the comfort letter, correct?
 13 A. That's correct.
 14 Q. Do you recall discussing the representation
 15 letters -- management representation letters in March of 16 1998?
 17 A. I don't recall.
 18 Q. I'd like you to take a look at what's been 19 previously marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 30, and if you
 20 would just turn to the last page of Morgan Stanley
 21 Exhibit 30 there are signatures there that purport to be 22 from Mr. Dunlap, Kersh, Fanin and Gluck, do you see that?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. Is this the type of management representation
 25 letter that Arthur Andersen would receive prior to issuing a

1 comfort letter?
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. We might as well get what has been marked as 4 Morgan Stanley Exhibits 32, 33 and 34. You testified that
 5 you recall that there was a bring down comfort letter,
 6 correct?
 7 A. Yes.
 8 Q. And prior to providing a bring down comfort
 9 letter, there would be a subsequent representation letter
 10 from management, correct?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. On Morgan Stanley Exhibit 30, the date of the 13 first management representation letter is March 16th, 1998
 14 and then you're aware that the Arthur Andersen comfort
 15 letter -- initial comfort letter is dated March 19, 1998; do
 16 you recall that?
 17 A. I don't recall.
 18 MR. MOSCATO: We'll stipulate.
 19 THE WITNESS: It may have been it's dated the 20 19th. It goes through the 16th, probably.
 21 BY MS. BROWN:
 22 Q. Now, if you look at Morgan Stanley Exhibit 32,
 23 the first page is an e-mail dated March 21, 1998. And 24 attached to that right after is a draft representation
 25 letter from management. I'd like you to turn, if you would,

1 to the Bates page and the Bates is the little number at the
 2 bottom that ends in 1653.
 3 A. Okay.
 4 Q. And on Morgan Stanley Exhibit 32 there's a
 5 Paragraph 10 there. I'll ask you just to review Paragraph
 6 10.
 7 A. Okay.
 8 Q. What do you understand Paragraph 10 to 9 accomplish?
 10 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 11 THE WITNESS: Since I wasn't involved in, you
 12 know, preparing these comfort letters and letters and all 13 that kind of stuff and the timeline and what they were 14 talking about, I can't answer that, except what it says is 15 that management believes that the sales in '98 will exceed 16 the same time period in '97.
 17 BY MS. BROWN:
 18 Q. Do you recall discussing putting that paragraph
 19 in the management letter?
 20 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
 21 THE WITNESS: Me asking for this or --
 22 BY MS. BROWN:
 23 Q. Do you recall having any discussions about it
 24 being put into the management letter with anyone at --
 25 A. I don't recall, no.

Page 69

1 Q. If you look at the next exhibit which is Morgan
 2 Stanley 33, there's a fax cover -- or fax line at the top
 3 that's dated March 23rd, 1998 and I'd ask you to look at
 4 that same paragraph, Paragraph 10 or Morgan Stanley
 5 Exhibit 33, and now someone has made some handwritten edits
 6 to that paragraph. Do you know whose handwriting that is?
 7 A. No, I don't.
 8 Q. Did you discuss this edit with anyone?
 9 A. I don't recall. I may have.
 10 Q. And I'd like you to please look at Morgan Stanley
 11 Exhibit 34. Morgan Stanley Exhibit 34 is dated March 23rd, 12 1998 and if you will turn to the final page, bears the 13 signatures of Mr. Dunlap, Kersh, Fanin and Gluck. And if 14 you would observe by comparing this final management
 15 representation letter to the previous two drafts represented
 16 in Morgan Stanley Exhibits 32 and 33, you will notice that 17 the paragraph we have been discussing has been removed. Do
 18 you see that?
 19 A. Yes. It's covered somewhere else. When did they 20 put out that press release? What was the date of that?
 21 MR. MOSCATO: March 19. She just asked the 22 question did you notice -- it's pretty self explanatory.
 23 She's asking you if you look at this document, if you
 24 noticed that this paragraph which was in here is not in 25 here.

Page 70

1 THE WITNESS: That's correct.
 2 MR. MOSCATO: Next question please.
 3 BY MS. BROWN:
 4 Q. Did you discuss with anyone the fact that the
 5 Paragraph 10 which previously stated, "Despite the decrease
 6 in net sales described in the preceding paragraph,
 7 management believes that net sales for the first quarter of 8 fiscal 1998 will exceed net sales for the first quarter of 9 fiscal 1997." Did anyone discuss with you the fact that 10 that paragraph had been -- was not in the final management
 11 representation letter?
 12 A. Not that I recall.
 13 Q. Did anyone bring that to you as a concern?
 14 A. They may have but I don't recall.
 15 Q. Now, you stated that from your point of view
 16 management was telling you in March of 1998 that they still 17 expected to make their numbers for the first quarter of 18 1998, correct, indirectly?
 19 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. Can you restate
 20 the question?
 21 BY MS. BROWN:
 22 Q. The information that you had in the first quarter
 23 of 1998 was that the company still expected -- company
 24 Sunbeam still expected to make their numbers for the first
 25 quarter of 1998, correct?

Page 71

1 A. Yes, based on the first two months, the
 2 information that they had at that point, yes.
 3 Q. And did you personally have any reason -- did you
 4 have any sense that Sunbeam was not sincere when they were 5 representing that they believed that they would make their
 6 numbers for the first quarter of 1998?
 7 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 8 THE WITNESS: I have no way of knowing.
 9 Personally, as I said, I was skeptical.
 10 BY MS. BROWN:
 11 Q. But did you have any sense that the company
 12 itself had reservations or did not believe it would make its 13 numbers.
 14 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 15 THE WITNESS: Again I didn't deal directly with 16 them so I can't answer the question.
 17 BY MS. BROWN:
 18 Q. Did anyone from Arthur Andersen tell you that
 19 they felt that Sunbeam would not -- they felt that Sunbeam
 20 itself believed that Sunbeam would not make its numbers for
 21 the first quarter of 1998?
 22 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 23 THE WITNESS: Not that I recall.
 24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the end of Videotape
 25 No. 1. We are going off the record. The time is 11:08.

Page 72

1 (Brief recess)
 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are back on the record.
 3 This is the beginning of the Videotape No. 2. The time is 4 11:12.
 5 BY MS. BROWN:
 6 Q. Mr. Pruitt, you said that you had reviewed or 7 seen the substance of the press release that Sunbeam issued
 8 in March 1998 indicating that they may not meet analysts'
 9 expectations but they still expected to beat first quarter
 10 1997?
 11 A. They had included it in the offering memorandum
 12 and I saw a draft of the offering memorandum but I don't 13 know whether they put the forward thinking information in 14 there and all that stuff.
 15 Q. So you don't recall -- okay.
 16 A. Whatever was in the memorandum is what I saw.
 17 Q. At the time you saw that, you could not say,
 18 based on your own knowledge, that that information was 19 inaccurate, correct?
 20 A. No.
 21 Q. Let me hand you what we will mark as Morgan
 22 Stanley 36. Morgan Stanley Exhibit 36 for the record is 23 Bates CPH 0021819. At the top it indicates "Clippings,"
 24 Arthur Andersen to Phil Harlow, yourself and Mr. Pastrana
 25 from Mr. Bornstein date, March 20, 1998. Do you recall

1 receiving this from Mr. Bornstein?
 2 A. I can't recall.
 3 Q. Do you recall any discussions about the fall of 4 Sunbeam stock after the issuance of the press release in 5 1998?
 6 A. No, I don't recall discussing it. We may have.
 7 I don't recall.
 8 Q. At the time you that reviewed the offering 9 memorandum -- draft offering memorandum that included the 10 substance of the press release, do you recall from your own
 11 review anything that you thought was inaccurate or 12 misleading in the offering memorandum?
 13 A. I don't recall anything I could say was wrong.
 14 Again, as I testified, I was against forward looking
 15 statements.
 16 Q. Is that something you're just generally would be 17 against, forward looking statements in an offering
 18 memorandum?
 19 A. In this situation.
 20 Q. What do you mean in this situation?
 21 A. In this situation I was against it. Maybe in 22 another situation it would be fine. I don't know. It's 23 hypothetical.
 24 Q. But there was nothing that you thought, based on 25 your own knowledge at the time, was inaccurate, correct?

1 MR. MOSCATO: You've asked this question probably
 2 15 different ways in the last half hour. I'm going to start
 3 objecting and I'm going to start instructing him not to 4 answer. He's made his position as crystal clear as a human
 5 being can possibly make that position.
 6 Answer the question one more time and
 7 that's it.
 8 MS. BROWN: Well, strike it. That's fine.
 9 Q. There was no way for you to know on March 19, 10 1998 what was going to happen at Sunbeam by the close of the 11 quarter, correct?
 12 A. That's correct.
 13 Q. And you were previously provided with 14 Mr. Bornstein's memo, CPH Exhibit 114?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. And you just look again at the last page of CPH
 17 Exhibit 114. It was your understanding that this is 18 information that Sunbeam provided to indirectly someone from
 19 Arthur Andersen; is that correct?
 20 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form. Lack of 21 foundation.
 22 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure what this is. I know
 23 that at the time someone put together kind of a schedule of 24 sales to certain clients but I don't know if that's it or 25 not.

1 BY MS. BROWN:
 2 Q. And by someone, you mean someone from Sunbeam?
 3 A. Yes. Uzzi, I believe.
 4 Q. And who would be in a better position to know
 5 what sales Sunbeam had but had not recorded it at the end of 6 February 1998, Sunbeam or Arthur Andersen?
 7 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 8 THE WITNESS: Well, I think Sunbeam.
 9 BY MS. BROWN:
 10 Q. Mr. Bornstein never told you that he was 11 concerned about Sunbeam's ability to physically ship the 12 amount of inventory that they said they were going to be 13 able to ship, correct?
 14 A. I don't recall that conversation at all.
 15 Q. The restatement was much more detailed in scope
 16 than the initial audit; is that correct?
 17 A. That's correct.
 18 MS. BROWN: Let's mark Morgan Stanley
 19 Exhibit 37.
 20 MR. JOHNSON: Is this the same one you marked
 21 yesterday?
 22 MS. BROWN: No.
 23 Q. You have been handed Morgan Stanley Exhibit 37,
 24 which for the record is CPH 0083764 and 65. At the top of 25 the document, Sunbeam Corporation, Arthur Andersen fees and

1 expenses, restatement and other accounting services from
 2 July 1, 1998 through December 15 1998. What services did
 3 Arthur Andersen provide to Sunbeam after the restatement
 4 work had been completed?
 5 A. I know they were trying to file the S4
 6 registration statement and I believe we worked on that after 7 the restatement to get it filed.
 8 Q. Was there anything else?
 9 A. I can't recall. May have been.
 10 Q. But Arthur Andersen, you said, did not do the 11 audit for Sunbeam's 1998 financials?
 12 A. I'm sure we did not. Again I retired in August
 13 of '99 and this was still going on after I retired. What 14 they did afterwards, I don't know.
 15 Q. When you look at Morgan Stanley Exhibit 37, the 16 total hours for July 1, 1998 to December 15, 1998 is 17 16,324. Do you see that on the second page?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. The vast majority of those hours would have been 20 spent on the restatement work, correct?
 21 A. I believe so.
 22 Q. Indeed Arthur Andersen and Sunbeam at a minimum
 23 spent 10,000 hours working on the restatement, correct?
 24 A. I believe so.
 25 Q. During the restatement -- there had been a change

1 in management; I believe you testified to that previously?
 2 A. Yes, they fired Dunlap.
 3 Q. And not today but you've testified previously
 4 that during the restatement there was also an informal SEC
 5 investigation proceeding, correct?
 6 A. Yes, that's correct.
 7 Q. And, in fact, it was your understanding that when
 8 Mr. Bornstein interviewed some of the Sunbeam personnel --
 9 salespersonnel, he informed it was in their best interest to 10 be truthful because of the SEC investigation, correct?
 11 A. That's correct.
 12 Q. That's a fact that did not exist during the 1997
 13 audit, correct?
 14 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 15 THE WITNESS: That's correct.
 16 BY MS. BROWN:
 17 Q. And as a result of the restatement and the 18 thousands of hours and whatever other factors may have 19 existed, Arthur Andersen learned things during the 20 restatement that Arthur Andersen had not been aware of 21 during June of 1998, correct?
 22 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
 23 THE WITNESS: That's correct.
 24 BY MS. BROWN:
 25 Q. You were aware that in the first quarter of 1998

1 Morgan Stanley was conducting due diligence at Sunbeam?
 2 A. I believe I knew it was Morgan. I mean, maybe
 3 there was more than one investment banker doing due
 4 diligence. I don't recall.
 5 Q. Do you have any knowledge personally of anyone
 6 from Coleman (Parent) Holdings doing due diligence at 7 Sunbeam prior to June of 1998?
 8 A. Personally?
 9 Q. Yes.
 10 A. No.
 11 Q. Do you have any knowledge personally of anyone
 12 from Mathco doing due diligence at Sunbeam prior to June 13 1998?
 14 A. No.
 15 Q. Do you have any knowledge of anyone from Credit
 16 Swiss First Boston doing due diligence at Sunbeam prior to 17 June of 1998?
 18 A. Again, I knew that investment bankers were 19 probably doing due diligence but I didn't know who it was.
 20 Q. Do you have any information concerning anyone
 21 from Wachtell Lipton doing due diligence at Sunbeam in 22 1998?
 23 A. Again, I knew law firms were working on the 24 offering memorandum and the registration but I didn't know
 25 who it was. I can't recall who it was.

1 Q. Did you personally have any conversations with
 2 anyone from Coleman, Coleman (Parent) or Mathco prior to
 3 June of 1998 concerning Sunbeam?
 4 A. Directly, no.
 5 Q. Did you personally have any conversations with 6 anyone from Credit Swiss First Boston or Wachtell prior to 7 June 1998 concerning Sunbeam?
 8 A. Directly, no.
 9 Q. Indirectly were you aware of any conversations
 10 that anyone from Arthur Andersen had with any of those 11 entities, Coleman, Coleman (Parent), Mathco, Credit Swiss
 12 First Boston or Wachtell?
 13 A. I don't recall. Again Bornstein and Harlow were 14 having conversations but I don't know who they were talking
 15 to.
 16 Q. You weren't present at Global Financial Press in 17 March 1998, correct?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. And you weren't involved in any discussions
 20 directly with the company in March 1998?
 21 A. No.
 22 Q. Now, Sunbeam moved to Florida and became a client
 23 of the Metro Florida area in approximately 1993, correct?
 24 A. It must have been around 1993, yes.
 25 Q. And Sunbeam at the time was one of Arthur

1 Andersen's largest clients in Metro Florida?
 2 A. One of them. In the top 10.
 3 Q. In 1995 the South Florida Arthur Andersen
 4 practice had lost a number of big clients to merger,
 5 correct?
 6 A. I think we lost Blockbuster. Yes, we lost some.
 7 Q. And do you recall that in 1996 and seven the 8 Metro Florida practice was behind the Arthur Andersen
 9 average for units per share earnings?
 10 A. I don't recall whether we were or not. We could 11 have been because of the loss of Blockbuster and a couple of 12 other things. It's possible.
 13 Q. Do you recall in one of your last evaluations
 14 that you received a reduction in units because of the 15 difference in income for the South Florida office as oppose
 16 to the average Arthur Andersen?
 17 A. Yes, I don't know if that was South Florida or 18 Florida, the Caribbean or all of them. I can't recall.
 19 Probably because I was -- most partners retire from Andersen
 20 at 56 and I didn't so they start reducing your units after 21 56 if you don't retire. I couldn't retire until I was 59
 22 because the guy that was going to take over for me went with 23 our biggest client.
 24 MR. MOSCATO: It's a tough business.
 25 THE WITNESS: But I made plenty of money so I

Page 81

1 can't complain.
2 BY MS. BROWN:
3 Q. You've been handed what's been marked as Morgan
4 Stanley 38 which is Bates CPH 2004703 to 722. Do you just 5 generally recognize this document?
6 A. Yes.
7 Q. Can you for the record identify what it is?
8 A. Looks like an annual review of me by Bob Grafton
9 who was by boss.
10 Q. I just want you to look at the second paragraph
11 on Page 3, states, "Bill understands need for the Metro
12 Florida practice to get its earnings up to the US average.
13 If the office meets its plan for 1997, there will still be
14 approximately $100 per unit behind the US average for audit
15 and approximately $150 per unit behind for tax. And while I
16 do not believe we can get to the US average in 1997, it
17 should be our goal to get there in 1998."
18 A. Okay.
19 Q. Does that refresh your recollection that the 20 Metro Florida practice was behind the Arthur Andersen US
21 average for earnings?
22 A. Yes. Actually the big problem was Tampa and not 23 South Florida. This is Metro Florida which is all of 24 Florida, but, yes, I remember now.
25 Q. And you were responsible for Metro Florida?

Page 82

1 A. Yes, Florida, the Caribbean and Venezuela.
2 Q. Do you recall that in 1997 Sunbeam cut the fees
3 that it was providing to Arthur Andersen?
4 A. Yes. I believe. I believe I recall that they
5 did.
6 Q. Do you recall the fees were cut almost in half?
7 A. I don't recall that. I know that they had big 8 restructuring, got rid of a lot of their businesses. They
9 brought everything to South Florida, consolidated everything
10 so it was a smaller job anyhow, but I don't recall the 11 fees. In fact, in 1996 most of the work was done in 12 Pittsburgh and Mississippi rather than South Florida. We 13 did very little of the work in South Florida in 1996. We 14 just consolidated everything. In 1997 when he got rid of 15 the lot of the businesses and consolidated everything, we 16 did more of the work so it's a different entity really.
17 Q. During the restatement Arthur Andersen had no
18 objective to determine what due diligence had been performed
19 by any of the investment bankers in 1998, correct?
20 A. I can't think of a reason why.
21 Q. Do you personally have any information that would 22 cause you to believe that Sunbeam had provided information
23 to Morgan Stanley that it had not provided to Arthur
24 Andersen?
25 A. No, not that I'm aware of.

Page 83

1 Q. Do you personally have any reason to believe
2 yourself that Morgan Stanley was involved in any way in the 3 accounting improprieties at Sunbeam in 1997 and 1998?
4 MR. JOHNSON: Objection to form.
5 THE WITNESS: Not that I know of.
6 BY MS. BROWN:
7 Q. Do you have any reason personally to believe that
8 Morgan Stanley was aware of those accounting improprieties
9 in June of 1998?
10 MR. MOSCATO: Objection.
11 MR. JOHNSON: I'll join.
12 THE WITNESS: Do I answer?
13 MR. MOSCATO: You can answer.
14 THE WITNESS: Not that I know of.
15 MS. BROWN: No further questions at this time.
16 MR. JOHNSON: Nothing.
17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the end of this
18 deposition. We are going off the record. The time is 19 11:34.

Any present intention to move? 19 A. No. 20 Q. Who do you work for today? 21 A. MacAndrews & Forbes -- I think it's 22 Holdings. The ultimate parent company of 23 MacAndrews & Forbes. 24 Q. And how long have you been employed 25 by MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings? There's an S on	Page 9 1 Drapkin 2 of this action? 3 A. Yes, sir. 4 Q. And did you have an opportunity to 5 consult with Mr. Marmer before your deposition 6 today? 7 A. Yes, sir. 8 Q. Did you have an opportunity to review 9 documents with him that he brought and showed to 10 you? 11 A. Yes, sir. 12 Q. Do you understand, sir, that even 13 though we are not in a courtroom, that the 14 testimony you are giving is under oath, and has 15 the same force and effect as if you were 16 testifying in front of a jury? 17 A. Yes, sir. 18 Q. Is there any reason that you can tell 19 us about today that you could not testify 20 truthfully? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Have you ever been deposed before? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. About many times? 25 A. Less than half a dozen.

Page 10 1 Drapkin 2 Q. Is there -- withdrawn. 3 Have you ever been deposed in any 4 litigation that is in any way connected with the 5 Sunbeam Coleman transaction that we'll be talking 6 about today? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Do you have any residences -- let me 9 withdraw that question. 10 Do you have a residence in Florida? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Have you had since 1997? 13 A. No. 14 Q. You have a driver's license, right? 15 A. Yes, sir. 16 Q. And is it a New Jersey driver's 17 license? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Are you registered to vote in 20 New Jersey? 21 A. Yes, sir. 22 Q. I don't know if you pay state taxes 23 there. I assume you do. Do you pay state income 24 taxes in New Jersey? 25 A. Unfortunately.	Page 12 1 Drapkin 2 checking on you just to speed things along. And 3 I want to ask you a couple of questions about 4 your background before we get to some more 5 substantive matters. 6 When you graduated from law school 7 and passed the bar exam, did you go to work for a 8 law firm? 9 A. Yes, sir. 10 Q. Which one? 11 A. Cravath, Swaine & Moore. 12 Q. And how long were you with Cravath? 13 A. Until January 1, 1977. 14 Q. Then did you go to Skadden, Arps? 15 A. Yes, I did. 16 Q. How long -- what years were you 17 there? 18 A. Until January 1, 1987. 19 Q. Did you have an area of practice that 20 you specialized in as an associate at Cravath? 21 A. Cravath has a rotation system. So as 22 an associate, I worked in, as I recall, three 23 different areas. 24 Q. What were the areas that you worked 25 in at Cravath?

Page 18 1 Drapkin 2 A. It goes to my accountant. I'll add, 3 we only have one shareholder so. 4 Q. And the one shareholder you have is 5 Mr. Ronald O. Perelman? 6 A. That's correct. 7 Q. And he owns all of the companies, 8 either 100 percent or whatever stock is owned of 9 companies owned by these subsidiary companies, 10 correct? 11 A. That is correct. 12 Q. Have you ever held any position in 13 the company that is a Plaintiff in this case, 14 Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc.? 15 A. I believe I was a director. 16 Q. Do you remember when you were a 17 director? 18 A. I don't remember the exact dates, no. 19 Q. Another company involved in this 20 litigation is the Coleman Company, Inc. You were 21 a director of that company, correct? 22 A. That is correct. 23 Q. And did you also serve on the 24 executive committee of that company? 25 A. I believe so.	Page 20 1 Drapkin 2 A. Yes, sir. 3 Q. Reading this paragraph, this is a 4 document that's previously been identified as 5 being filed by Coleman Company, Inc.. It 6 identifies you as a director of Coleman 7 Worldwide, which is short for Coleman Worldwide 8 Corporation. Does that refresh your recollection 9 if you were a director of that company? 10 A. Yes, sir. 11 Q. You can set that aside. 12 Were you -- withdrawn. Did you hold 13 any positions in a company called CLN Holdings 14 Inc.? 15 A. I don't recall. 16 Q. In addition to the companies we've 17 been talking about, and kind of the chain of 18 ownership of the Coleman Company, are you a 19 director in other companies owned or controlled 20 by Mr. Perelman? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Revlon? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. You are a director of that company? 25 A. Yes.
Page 19 1 Drapkin 2 Q. How long were you a director? 3 A. I believe I was a director from when 4 the date we bought the company until we were no 5 longer involved. 6 Q. And when you say no "longer 7 involved," would that be the date that you 8 resigned pursuant to the merger agreement that 9 CLN Holdings was a party to with Sunbeam? 10 A. That is correct. 11 Q. And did you submit -- you submitted a 12 written resignation? Excuse me. 13 A. I don't recall. 14 Q. After you resigned from the Coleman 15 Company, did you ever have any further position 16 with the company? 17 A. Not that I recall. 18 Q. Did you ever hold a position with 19 Coleman Worldwide Corporation? 20 A. I don't recall. 21 Q. Let me hand you a document we 22 previously marked as Morgan Stanley Deposition 23 Exhibit 130. Please look at page 3 and you'll 24 see your name about four paragraphs down, 25 directly below Mr. Perelman's name.	Page 21 1 Drapkin 2 Q. How long have you been a director of 3 Revlon? 4 A. Since we've owned it. 5 Q. And when would that be? 6 A. I don't recall. 7 Q. Do you remember the decade since 8 you've owned it? 9 A. I believe it was sometime in -- 10 actually, let me amend my answer. I was still a 11 lawyer when we acquired Revlon in 1985 and '6. I 12 didn't join the company until '87. So I probably 13 became director sometime in '87. 14 Q. And are Revlon -- is Revlon, Inc. a 15 publicly-traded company? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Are you also a director of a number 18 of its subsidiary companies? And I'll start with 19 Revlon Group, Inc. Are you a subsidiary of that? 20 A. I believe those are not subsidiary 21 companies. 22 Q. What are they? 23 A. I think they are holding companies. 24 Q. Holding companies. Are you a 25 director of Revlon Group, Inc.?

Page 23 1 Drapkin 2 company? 3 A. We own a number of companies, and we 4 buy and sell companies. 5 Q. It's a holding company, isn't it? 6 A. Yes, sir. 7 Q. And when you say you buy and sell 8 companies, would this be in the nature of doing 9 merger and acquisition transactions as you 10 described in your legal practice? 11 A. In some sense. 12 Q. And has that been the business, as 13 you've just described it for us, of MacAndrews & 14 Forbes Holding since you went to work there in 15 1987? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Does it have any business that it 18 operates today? 19 A. Lots. As I said, our business is 20 owning and running companies, as well as buying 21 and selling. 22 Q. What business does MacAndrews and 23 Forbes Holding, Inc. actually operate itself as 24 opposed through another entity? 25 A. None. But I'm not sure I understand	Page 25 1 Drapkin 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Where is its other office -- offices 4 if there's more than one? 5 A. We have spaces in various different 6 locations in New York: 63rd Street -- I'm not 7 exactly sure, but we do have some space at other 8 places in New York. But the main offices are at 9 35 East 62nd. 10 Q. Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc., which 11 is one of the parties to this case, I think you 12 said you were a director of that company? 13 A. I believe so. 14 Q. Where are its offices? 15 A. Where are they today? 16 Q. Yes. Where are they today? 17 A. I have no idea. 18 Q. Are you still a director of the 19 company today? 20 A. I have no idea. 21 Q. What was the -- what did you -- was 22 the -- withdrawn. 23 What was the business of Coleman 24 (Parent) Holdings company the last time you knew? 25 A. To take action with respect to the

Page 27 1 Drapkin 2 (Parent) Holdings have any operating businesses? 3 A. Not to my knowledge. 4 Q. And was its business essentially a 5 holding company directly or indirectly of a 6 common stock of the Coleman Company, 7 Incorporated? 8 A. I believe so. 9 Q. Did it ever have an office in Florida 10 to your knowledge? Again, lets focus on 1998. 11 A. I don't recall. 12 Q. Did it have any employees other than 13 directors? 14 A. I don't know. 15 Q. Did it maintain -- did CPH, Coleman 16 (Parent) Holdings, maintain an office in New York 17 City at the 35 East 62nd Street address? 18 A. I don't know. 19 Q. There's another company, CLN Holdings 20 Inc., that we've been talking about. Going back 21 now to say January 1st of 1998, did it have any 22 operating businesses that you know of? 23 A. I don't recall. 24 Q. Do you know what its business was at 25 all?	Page 29 1 Drapkin 2 Q. Is this something that you would need 3 an organization chart to answer these questions? 4 A. Yes, sir. 5 Q. As of, say, January 1, 1998, did 6 Coleman Worldwide Corporation, of which you were 7 a director, have a business? 8 A. I assume it did. 9 Q. Do you know what it was, sir, as the 10 director? 11 A. I assume its business was owning 12 shares of Coleman Inc. 13 Q. Have you heard of an instrument which 14 is abbreviated LYONs or liquid yield option 15 notes? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Are those sometimes called LYONs, 18 although spelled differently? 19 A. Yes, sir. 20 Q. What are those in the case of -- that 21 you are familiar with? 22 A. It's a -- it was a popular device 23 back in the '90s to issue a form of quasi debt 24 security that could be converted into equity or 25 the holder could demand back cash payment at

Page 30 1 Drapkin 2 somewhat reduced interest rate because he had the 3 option to get stock if he wanted. 4 Q. Were they also sold at a discount 5 from face value like zero -- like the zero coupon 6 debentures? 7 A. I think that would depend on the 8 LYONs. 9 Q. On the LYONs, right? 10 MR. BEMIS: And again, Ms. Reporter, 11 that's L-Y-O-N-S, not L-I-O-N. 12 BY MR. BEMIS: 13 Q. Did Coleman Worldwide Corporation 14 ever issue LYONs? 15 A. I believe we did do a LYON issue. I 16 don't recall the details. 17 Q. I'm going to show you what's already 18 been marked as Morgan Stanley 241. And you are 19 not going to need to read the whole thing. I 20 just want you to look at the second paragraph of 21 the first page of MS 241. Tell me when you're 22 looking at that and I'll direct you to the 23 sentence I want you to look at. Are you with me? 24 A. I'm looking at the first page. 25 Q. First page, second paragraph.	Page 32 1 Drapkin 2 A. Yes, sir. 3 Q. You can set that aside. 4 At any time that you were a director 5 of the Coleman Worldwide Corporation, did it ever 6 have any operating businesses at all? 7 A. Not to my knowledge. 8 Q. Was it to your knowledge an operating 9 -- excuse me, a holding company at all times? 10 A. To my knowledge. 11 Q. Did it hold any material assets other 12 than stocks or securities of some kind? 13 A. Not to my knowledge. 14 Q. Do you know what its principal 15 address was at any time? 16 A. No, sir. 17 Q. Did it have an office at 35 East 62nd 18 Street? 19 A. I don't recall. 20 Q. Do you know any of the directors 21 other than yourself? 22 A. I would be guessing. 23 Q. I won't hold you to it, but what's 24 your best, if you want to call it guess or 25 assumption, as to who the other directors would

Page 34 1 Drapkin 2 Q. Since 19 -- since 1987, how many 3 businesses have -- has MacAndrews & Forbes 4 Holdings, your employer, bought and sold? 5 A. I don't know. 6 Q. You have no idea at all? 7 A. I'd have to sit down and go through 8 all my recollections to see what we owned, what 9 we didn't own, what we sold. What we kept. 10 Q. I understand that -- 11 A. You're asking me right here, do I 12 know how many businesses that we owned or 13 operated or sold. I don't know. 14 Q. Is it more than one? 15 A. Yes, sir. 16 Q. Is it more than 10? 17 A. Maybe. 18 Q. Seriously, are you telling me that 19 you don't know whether it's more than 10 20 businesses that you've bought and sold since 21 1987? 22 A. I don't know the exact number. 23 Q. I'm not going to hold you to an exact 24 number. It's your best approximation under oath 25 in front of the jury what it is.	Page 36 1 Drapkin 2 A. Yes, sir. 3 Q. And some of them private companies? 4 A. Yes, sir. 5 Q. And is this true on both the buy and 6 the sell side, that is you've bought public 7 companies? 8 A. Yes, sir. 9 Q. And you've sold public companies? 10 A. Yes, sir. 11 Q. And MacAndrews & Forbes has bought 12 private companies? 13 A. Yes, sir. 14 Q. And MacAndrews & Forbes, while you 15 were there, has sold private companies? 16 A. Yes, sir. 17 Q. While you were at MacAndrews & 18 Forbes, has that company or any of its 19 subsidiaries issued debt securities, that is 20 instruments that would qualify as securities 21 under the 1933 Act? 22 A. Yes, sir. 23 Q. How many times? 24 A. I don't know. 25 Q. One of them you recalled was the
Page 35 1 Drapkin 2 A. Since I'm under oath and in front of 3 the jury, I don't want to mislead anybody. I 4 don't remember the exact number. If you want me 5 to go back and check, I can go back and check. 6 And we can figure out exactly the right number. 7 Q. Tell me what's your best -- 8 A. I don't remember the dates we owned 9 and sold Technicolor, is it before or after 10 1987. We had lots of smaller companies, bigger 11 companies. I just don't remember. 12 Q. I appreciate you don't remember an 13 exact number. And qualify the number in any way 14 that you want. Give the jury your best estimate 15 since 1987 of how many companies MacAndrews & 16 Forbes Holdings, Inc. has bought and sold. 17 MR. MARMER: Objection; asked and 18 answered. 19 Subject to my objection, the witness 20 may answer again. 21 A. I don't have a good number. It's 22 more than one and less than 50. 23 BY MR. BEMIS: 24 Q. Have some of these been public 25 companies?	Page 37 1 Drapkin 2 LYONS, right? 3 A. Yes, sir. 4 Q. Do you recall any others? 5 A. Yes, sir. 6 Q. What others? 7 A. I mean, we do debt financing all the 8 time. So almost every company we have either has 9 a bank loan, which is a debt security as defined 10 by the 1933 Act, or public debt or 144 debt. I 11 mean, virtually every company in America has some 12 form of debt, and our companies would be no -- 13 excuse me. Would be no exception to those rules. 14 Q. When you say "144 debt," you're 15 referring to Rule 144, correct? 16 A. Yes, I am. 17 Q. Since 1987, in an aggregate amount, 18 how much debt financing has MacAndrews & Forbes 19 Holdings, Inc. done? 20 A. I don't know. 21 Q. Is it in the hundreds of millions of 22 dollars? 23 A. I don't know. 24 Q. Is it in the billions of dollars? 25 A. You're asking me to guess how much

Page 38 1 Drapkin 2 debt we've issued since 1987-- 3 Q. I'm not asking you to guess. 4 A. But it would be a guess, so I can't 5 answer the question. 6 Q. You have no idea at all as a director 7 of the company? And you're the second ranking 8 officer in the company, aren't you? 9 MR. MARMER: Objection. 10 Q. Let me rephrase the question. 11 MR. MARMER: Are you abandoning the 12 question? 13 MR. BEMIS: I said I would rephrase 14 it, so I guess that means I'm abandoning it. 15 BY MR. BEMIS: 16 Q. You are the second ranking officer in 17 MacAndrews & Forbes, are you not? 18 A. We don't rank our officers. 19 Q. Who do you report to? 20 A. Mr. Perelman. 21 Q. Is he the top? 22 A. That's correct. 23 Q. Is it your testimony, as a man who 24 reports to Mr. Perelman, that you do not know 25 even an estimate of the amount of fine debt	Page 40 1 Drapkin 2 Q. Salomon? 3 A. Salomon Brothers was an independent 4 entity for many years, and then merged three or 5 four times. Somewhere in that change, we've used 6 an entity that either owned or was Salomon 7 Brothers. But today it's part of Citigroup. And 8 if you question is did we ever used Citigroup, 9 the answer is yes. 10 Q. Well, I don't remember the date of 11 the merger so. 12 A. I did the merger, so I actually 13 remember it. 14 Q. When was it? 15 A. '82. 16 Q. Let me turn to the -- ask you a 17 couple of questions about -- well, withdrawn. 18 MR. BEMIS: Could you mark this as 19 288 please, Miss Reporter. 20 (MS Exhibit 288, Cigar Afficionado 21 article on Ron Perelman, marked for 22 identification, as of this date.) 23 BY MR. Page 39 1 Drapkin 2 financing that MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings, Inc. 3 or its subsidiaries have done since 1987? 4 MR. MARMER: Object to the form. 5 A. It is my testimony that every single 6 one of our companies has done some form of debt 7 financing. And you're asking me to total that 8 amount for a sixteen year period for up to 50 9 companies and to guess that number. I am not in 10 the business of speculating on that number. 11 Q. When you do debt financings for all 12 of these companies, as you have described them to 13 us, do you -- have you used underwriters? 14 A. In some cases. 15 Q. Who are some of the underwriters that 16 you've used? 17 A. Almost every major name on Wall 18 Street. 19 Q. So, for example, you have used Credit 20 Suisse First Boston? 21 A. Yes, sir. 22 Q. Have you used Morgan Stanley? 23 A. I do not know whether we have ever 24 used Morgan Stanley for a debt financing. I 25 actually think not.	Page 41 1 Drapkin 2 A. Yes, sir. 3 Q. If you turn to Page 18 of 19, there's 4 a second paragraph. And I'd like to direct your 5 attention there, please. You'll see it begins 6 "Perelman." 7 Are you there? 8 A. Yes, sir. 9 Q. You can read the whole paragraph if 10 you like, but I'd like you to direct your 11 attention to the remarks attributed to 12 Mr. Perelman in this article. It states "and 13 then Donald Drapkin, who's been our partner -- I 14 mispronounced your name. I'm sorry. "Who had 15 been our partner at Skadden, Arps, likewise 16 reached a point where he was thinking about a 17 change of career. And I made the same speech to 18 him that I made to Gittis, and he joined us at 19 that time. He's basically our in-house strategic 20 thinker. He's our in-house investment banker.". 21 Do you see that? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Is than an accurate statement of your 24 position at MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings, Inc.? 25 A. Yes.

Page 47 1 Drapkin 2 Q. If you need it, if you'd like to stop 3 and read the minutes, I'm more than happy to let 4 you do that. But most of my questions are not 5 going to be very detailed on the minutes at this 6 point. So, if you need to stop, just tell me and 7 I'll be more than happy to let you review the 8 document. Is that all right? 9 A. Certainly. 10 Q. You have the minutes for the February 11 25th meeting, which is shown as beginning at 4 12 p.m. eastern time. Was this to your knowledge 13 the first time that the Coleman company's board 14 of directors was advised of a proposed 15 transaction whereby the Coleman company would be 16 merged with Sunbeam corporation? 17 A. I don't recall. 18 Q. You don't recall whether it was the 19 first time? 20 A. (Indicating.) 21 Q. You have to answer yes or no. 22 A. I do not recall whether it was the 23 first time. 24 Q. When do you recall the first time the 25 board of directors of the Coleman Company was	Page 49 1 Drapkin 2 Q. When you say "we discuss," who are 3 the "we" that you're talking about? 4 A. Mr. Perelman, Mr. Gittis, at the time 5 Mr. Slovin. Maybe Mr. Levin. 6 Q. Anyone else? 7 A. Mr. Maher might have been there. In 8 that period of time, I'm quite sure Jimmy would 9 have been around. 10 Q. Did this group that you've 11 identified, Mr. Perelman, Mr. Geddes [sic], Bruce 12 Slovin? 13 A. Gittis. 14 Q. Gittis. I'm sorry. Mr. Levin, 15 Mr. Maher. Did this group usually meet in 16 Mr. Perelman's townhouse for breakfast? 17 A. Every morning. 18 Q. And you would meet about 7:30 every 19 morning for breakfast and go over what was going 20 on in the companies wouldn't you? 21 A. No. 22 Q. How often did you meet? 23 A. Every morning. 24 Q. Did I have the time wrong? 25 A. Yes.

Page 50 1 Drapkin 2 Q. What was the time? 3 A. 8:30. 4 Q. Sorry. 5 How long would these meetings usually 6 last for breakfast? 7 A. It varied from day to day. 8 Q. This was a set schedule though, was 9 it not? 10 A. There was breakfast available every 11 morning five days a week for the last 25 years or 12 whatever number of years it is. I guess it's 17 13 years for me. 14 Q. Was it at one of these breakfast 15 meetings at Mr. Perelman's townhouse -- in 16 New York, correct? 17 A. Yes, sir. 18 Q. At his townhouse in New York that you 19 first learned of the potential transaction 20 involving Sunbeam Corporation and the Coleman 21 Company, Inc.? 22 A. I have no idea. 23 Q. If I asked you this, I'm apologizing 24 for asking you again, but do you remember how you 25 first learned as opposed to when you first	Page 52 1 Drapkin 2 A. I believe so. 3 MR. BEMIS: Let me have MS 75, and 4 we'll just make sure we have the right 5 document. 6 A. Can I ask my counsel? 7 BY MR. BEMIS: 8 Q. Let me get a question pending. Let 9 me show you what's been marked as 10 MS 75. And I don't have any questions on it 11 right now, but I just want to find out if that's 12 what you're referring to. 13 A. Well, I don't recognize this. 14 Q. So you don't recall reviewing that in 15 your deposition preparation? 16 A. No, sir. 17 Q. Or seeing it either? 18 A. No, sir. 19 Q. You can hand that back to me. 20 A. But I would ask -- I wanted to ask my 21 counsel a question, because it might have been in 22 a different form. 23 Q. Well, that's probably -- not to be 24 rude, and I'm not trying to be rude to you, it's 25 probably best if we just do question and answer.

Page 54 1 Drapkin 2 A. Not that I recall. 3 Q. Was the February 25th board meeting 4 the first time that the independent members of 5 the board of directors were told of a potential 6 transaction between Sunbeam and the Coleman 7 Company? 8 A. The same answer that I gave you 9 before. 10 Q. You don't know? 11 A. That there was a chronology floating 12 around that was -- prepared more 13 contemporaneously, that would have more accurate 14 information than my recollection. 15 Q. And, again, you did see this 16 chronology during your deposition preparation? 17 A. Again, I saw a chronology. The one 18 that you handed me did not look familiar to me. 19 MR. BEMIS: Miss Reporter, would you 20 mark this as 173, please. 21 (MS Exhibit 173, "Project Laser" 22 chronology, marked for identification, as of 23 this date.) 24 BY MR. BEMIS: 25 Q. Do you have exhibit MS 173 in front	Page 56 1 Drapkin 2 favor of the merger, correct? 3 A. Yes, sir. 4 Q. Was there any -- was there a 5 presentation by an investment banking firm at 6 that meeting? 7 A. I believe Credit Suisse First Boston 8 was at that meeting. 9 Q. And did Credit Suisse First Boston 10 make a presentation to the board members? 11 A. I believe so. 12 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley attend 13 the meeting? 14 A. No, sir. 15 Q. Were there any documents handed out 16 to the directors from Morgan Stanley? 17 A. No, sir. 18 Q. Did the board of directors vote 19 unanimously for the transaction? 20 A. Yes, sir. 21 Q. Were any of the board members to your 22 knowledge told how to vote? 23 A. I don't understand the question. 24 Q. Just that. Did they exercise -- let 25 me try it this way. Did they exercise their own
Page 55 1 Drapkin 2 of you? 3 A. Yes, sir. 4 Q. Is this the chronology that you 5 looked at? 6 A. No. 7 Q. Okay. You can hand that back to me. 8 Do you recall what this chronology 9 looked like at all; how many pages for example? 10 Did it have a heading on it or anything at all? 11 A. I don't recall a heading. It had 12 smaller type. And it was in a different -- it 13 didn't have a letter. Maybe it's the same one as 14 you showed me, but without the letter. 15 Q. Without the letter. 16 Let me go forward now to the second 17 board meeting at which we, I think, placed it 18 February 27, 1998. Do you recall that meeting? 19 A. Yes, sir. 20 Q. And you did attend that as a 21 director, correct? 22 A. Yes, sir. 23 Q. And you -- that was the meeting that 24 the board of directors voted -- withdrawn. On 25 February 27th, the Coleman board did vote in	Page 57 1 Drapkin 2 independent business judgment or were they given 3 instructions how to vote? 4 A. I am not aware of any director that 5 was instructed to vote any particular way. 6 Q. Were you told how to vote? 7 A. Course not. 8 Q. Like Frank Gifford, did you tell him 9 how to vote? 10 A. Course not. 11 Q. How about Ann Jordan, she was there, 12 right? 13 A. Yes. Either there or by phone. I 14 don't recall. 15 Q. Did you tell her how to vote? 16 A. Of course not. 17 Q. Did Mr. Perelman tell anybody how to 18 vote? 19 A. Of course not. 20 Q. So all of the directors, relying on 21 the information that they had, voted using their 22 own independent business judgment whether this 23 was in the best interests of the shareholders of 24 the Coleman Company, correct? 25 A. Absolutely.

 2 Q. At least as to those directors who
 3 were first hearing about the merger at the 4 meeting, the information that they were provided,
 5 was provided by -- withdrawn.
 6 The information that was provided at
 7 both meetings, February 25th and February 27th,
 8 that consisted of information by Credit Suisse
 9 First Boston, correct?
 10 A. There was a presentation by Credit
 11 Suisse.
 12 Q. I think you said there was also a
 13 handout of some kind, correct?
 14 A. Yes, I believe so.
 15 Q. And did you -- strike that. Did the 16 board of directors receive a presentation from 17 its legal advisers?
 18 A. I'm quite sure we did, but I don't
 19 recall it.
 20 Q. Do you recall that the Coleman
 21 Company did have a legal advisor in the 22 transaction?
 23 A. Of course. I just don't remember. I
 24 don't remember if it was Wachtell. I assume it
 25 was Wachtell.

Page 59

1 Drapkin
 2 THE WITNESS: Is that correct?
 3 MR. MARMER: He does not want me to 4 provide the answer --
 5 BY MR. BEMIS:
 6 Q. When you say "Wachtell," you mean the
 7 law firm Wachtell, Lipton?
 8 A. Yes.
 9 Q. Were there presentations --
 10 withdrawn.
 11 At the February 25th meeting -- and
 12 you can look at the minutes if you like -- was 13 there a presentation by an attorney representing 14 the Coleman Company?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. And who was that?
 17 A. Well, assuming these minutes that you
 18 have accurately -- given me are the accurate
 19 minutes, then that would be Adam Emmerich of 20 Wachtell, Lipton.
 21 Q. Were there any presentations by any
 22 attorneys representing Sunbeam?
 23 A. I would think not.
 24 Q. Any presentations by attorneys
 25 representing Morgan Stanley?

Page 60

1 Drapkin
 2 A. I would hope not.
 3 Q. Was -- other than the written
 4 materials that you recalled Credit Suisse First
 5 Boston preparing, do you recall any other written
 6 materials being handed out at the February 25th
 7 board meeting?
 8 A. I don't recall.
 9 Q. Now let's move forward to the 27th
 10 board meeting. Do you recall any legal 11 presentations at that meeting?
 12 A. I'm sure -- I don't have the minutes
 13 in front of me.
 14 Q. Let me give you those. I should have 15 given them to you, I apologize. I have them,
 16 too.
 17 I hand you what has been marked as
 18 Morgan Stanley 118.
 19 And do you have MS 118 in front of
 20 you?
 21 A. Uh-huh.
 22 Q. That's a yes, right?
 23 A. Yes, sir.
 24 Q. Okay. These previously have been 25 identified as the minutes of the board of

Page 61

1 Drapkin
 2 directors of the Coleman Company, Inc. on
 3 February 27, 1998. Have you seen these minutes
 4 before?
 5 A. I might have looked at them.
 6 Q. In your deposition preparation?
 7 A. I might have. I don't recall.
 8 Q. How long by the way did you spend
 9 preparing for your deposition?
 10 A. I don't know, two hours,
 11 two-and-a-half hours. Something like that.
 12 Q. Did you do that yesterday?
 13 A. Yes, sir.
 14 Q. Now in -- at the meeting, now turning
 15 to February 27th, I think the question that was 16 pending when I showed you the minutes, was there
 17 a presentation by attorneys, so --
 18 A. The answer is yes.
 19 Q. Was that the attorneys from Wachtell,
 20 Lipton again?
 21 A. Yes.
 22 Q. And they were the -- still the
 23 attorneys for the Coleman Company, correct?
 24 A. They were the shareholder -- they
 25 were counsel to both MacAndrews and Coleman.

Page 62 1 Drapkin 2 Q. And there was -- was there a further 3 presentation by Credit Suisse First Boston? 4 A. Yes, sir. 5 Q. Were there any written materials 6 handed out at the meeting to the directors? 7 A. Yes, sir. 8 Q. And what materials were handed out to 9 the directors? 10 A. The First Boston presentation, and I 11 imagine that we all would have received copies of 12 the proposed resolutions. 13 Q. When you say "the proposed 14 resolutions," there are resolutions attached to 15 the minutes, do you see those? 16 A. Correct. 17 Q. Is it your understanding -- 18 withdrawn. 19 Is it your recollection that the 20 resolutions in draft form were handed out to the 21 directors at the meeting? 22 A. That would have been standard 23 operating procedure. 24 Q. In advance of the board of directors 25 meeting, was there a package of materials	Page 64 1 Drapkin 2 A. I don't recall. 3 Q. Did you read the merger agreement 4 before you voted to approve it? 5 A. I'm sure I read a synopsis of the 6 merger agreement or scanned the merger agreement 7 myself since I spent many years writing them. 8 Q. Was there a synopsis of the merger 9 agreement prepared for the directors at either 10 meeting? 11 A. I don't recall. There's a summary of 12 the proposed transaction. 13 Q. In writing? 14 A. It's attached to the minutes you 15 handed me. 16 Q. What's attached to the minutes? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Anything beyond that? 19 A. Not that I recall. 20 Q. At the February 27th meeting, and 21 still focusing on that, Credit Suisse First 22 Boston made a presentation for the second time to 23 the board, right? 24 A. Correct. 25 Q. Were there written materials handed
Page 63 1 Drapkin 2 prepared for the directors for them to review 3 when they came to the meeting? 4 A. I don't recall. 5 Q. Is that standard procedure in your 6 experience? 7 A. It is very often the case that we 8 would receive a copy of an agenda and/or proposed 9 resolutions. On the other hand, this was 48 10 hours after the last board meeting and there 11 might not have been time for that. 12 Q. Was there a package of materials 13 prepared for the directors for the February 25, 14 1998 Coleman company board of directors meeting? 15 A. I don't recall. 16 Q. Was the merger agreement that was 17 eventually executed by the Coleman Company, Inc. 18 as one of the parties, was that present at the 19 meeting? 20 A. I would imagine that somebody had it. 21 Q. Well, did the directors have it so 22 they could review it? 23 A. The actual full copy of the merger 24 agreement? 25 Q. Yes, sir.	Page 65 1 Drapkin 2 out by Credit Suisse First Boston at the meeting? 3 A. I assume there was another package, 4 yes. 5 Q. Well, when you say you assume there 6 was, do you have a specific recollection as you 7 sit here today that there was a package? 8 A. I reviewed a document yesterday that 9 looked like the deck of cards that First Boston 10 did. 11 Q. When you say the "deck of cards," you 12 mean by like an eight-and-a-half by eleven piece 13 of paper, like a Power Point presentation? 14 A. Exactly. 15 Q. A/k/a a deck now in our business? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Let me show you what's previously 18 been marked as MS 197, which has a cover page 19 "Credit Suisse First Boston." 20 A. Uh-huh. 21 Q. Is this the deck you're referring to? 22 A. I don't understand the question. 23 Q. Maybe I misunderstood you. I thought 24 you said there was at one of the meetings, and I 25 think you were placing it at the 27th, a deck --

Page 66 1 Drapkin 2 a deck of cards I think you referred to it, that 3 Credit Suisse First Boston prepared. Is this it? 4 MR. MARMER: Object to the form. 5 A. I don't know which meeting -- this 6 says February 25. I don't recall if this was 7 given out at the 25th, the 27th. It is one of 8 the presentations -- it looks like one of the 9 presentations that First Boston would have handed 10 out. 11 Q. Is this document, MS 197, one of the 12 documents that you reviewed yesterday in 13 preparing for your deposition? 14 A. Actually, it doesn't look like the 15 one that I looked at. If you notice also, this 16 says February 25th at 7:41 p.m. 17 That would have been way after the 18 board meeting. So maybe this was the one for the 19 27th. I don't know. 20 Q. That is -- that is an inference one 21 can draw from it, but I'm asking you. I'm not 22 trying to tell you the answers -- 23 A. I don't recall which one is which. I 24 don't see the deal page that shows the ratios. 25 Q. Let me show you what's been marked in	Page 68 1 Drapkin 2 MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings, Inc. or it's 3 subsidiary companies, however the Coleman stock 4 was held at any moment in time as of the date of 5 these meetings, that they would exchange 6 approximately 44.1 million dollars of -- excuse 7 me, not dollars but shares of Coleman stock, for 8 approximately 14.1 million shares of Sunbeam 9 common stock as part of the transaction; is that 10 correct? 11 MR. MARMER: Object to the form. 12 A. I'll take your word for it. 13 Q. Look at the summary of the 14 transaction on page 1. 15 A. That's what it says. 16 Q. And in addition, MacAndrews and 17 Forbes Holdings, Inc. or its subsidiary companies 18 as the case may be, would receive approximately 19 $160 million in cash, correct? 20 A. That's what the document says. 21 Q. Well, you were at the meeting. I'm 22 asking you now as a member of the board of 23 directors. 24 A. I don't remember the exact numbers, 25 but it roughly sounds correct.

Page 71 1 Drapkin 2 second with you. 3 A. Maybe it's the 40, less the cash. I 4 mean, I just it's eight years ago. I don't 5 remember the exact numbers. 6 Q. Well, do you remember that there was 7 an excess of one billion dollars of assumed debt 8 that was part of the consideration flowing to 9 MacAndrews as stated on Page 2 -- excuse me, page 10 1 of MS 112? And I'm looking at the chart -- 11 A. I'm a little confused -- 12 MR. MARMER: Just one moment. I 13 object to the form of the question. 14 A. I'm a little confused because of page 15 2. 16 BY MR. BEMIS: 17 Q. What is your confusion? 18 A. What the total amount of assumed debt 19 was and where it was. I know what the 525 was. 20 I'm a little confused about the 496. 21 Q. What was the 525? 22 A. I assume those were the LYONs. 23 Q. And the first and second notes, 24 weren't those first and second notes -- and I 25 could be wrong on this, but weren't those second	Page 73 1 Drapkin 2 Q. And those are indeed the figures 3 rounded, if you will, that appear in the MS 112, 4 which is the presentation by Credit Suisse First 5 Boston? 6 A. I don't believe that's correct. 7 Q. Where am I incorrect? 8 A. The $525 million was MacAndrews & 9 Forbes' consideration, the assumption of the 10 parent debt. 11 Q. Right? 12 A. I believe the 496 was Coleman, Inc. 13 debt, the operating company. And that was owed 14 by the operating company, which is owned a 15 hundred percent by MacAndrews & Forbes and the 16 rest of the public shareholders, not MacAndrews 17 and Forbes. That's why I was confused when you 18 keep asking me the question. I don't believe the 19 parent holding company had more than 525 million 20 debt. You previously offered me a document -- 21 and I don't mean to be conducting your deposition 22 -- MS 241, which is the LYONs. And the total 23 there was 600 face value, which I assume when 24 this document is referring to the $525 million 25 worth of accreted value, it is referring to this

Page 74 1 Drapkin 2 Coleman escrow LYONs issue. I believe that the 3 balance of the 496 is Coleman Inc. debt, but 4 that's what I'm guessing from the documents that 5 you've handed me. 6 Q. I think that you may be correct in 7 that. So let's go back and see if we can get it 8 fixed, and then we'll take a break. In terms of 9 the consideration that is listed under the 10 MacAndrews consideration and the Credit Suisse 11 First Boston, there is the consideration in the 12 form of the Sunbeam shares, correct? 13 A. Correct. 14 Q. And that's about 14.1 million shares 15 rounded up, correct? 16 A. Plus the cash. 17 Q. And then there's the cash to 18 MacAndrews of $160 million, correct? 19 A. That's what it says here. 20 Q. And then Sunbeam assumes debt of the 21 $525 million, which you believe is the LYONs debt 22 that we discussed earlier, correct? 23 A. Uh-huh. 24 Q. You have to answer yes or no. 25 A. Yes, sir.	Page 76 1 Drapkin 2 A. Once again, turn to page 2. 3 Q. Okay? 4 A. "Total Consideration to be Paid to 5 Coleman Shareholders." There are the shares to be 6 issued, okay? 7 Q. Uh-huh. 8 A. There's the cash to be issued. There 9 are the zero coupon debt, which we now -- now 10 shown to be the accreted value on March 15th, 11 which was I guess the estimated closing date at 12 that time of 525 million; whatever they had to 13 pay out the option holders. So for the common 14 equity they were paying 1,583,000,000, which 15 would included $525 million for the assumption of 16 debt. Then there's net debt underneath that. 17 Q. Right. 18 A. Which is here Coleman's management 19 estimate of the year-end debt of 1997, less 90 20 million they expected from the sale of one of the 21 units. Well, if you add the 440 and the 525, you 22 get very close to the number that you just gave 23 me for the debt assumed by Sunbeam when they did 24 the transaction. But far be it for me to do your 25 homework.
Page 75 1 Drapkin 2 Q. And then there is debt of the Coleman 3 Company, $497 million? 4 A. No, no. I think what this is saying, 5 that the first and second priority notes on 6 November 15, 1997 had an accreted value of 496, 7 which was growing to 525 on May 15, 1998. That I 8 believe is the correct reading of that -- 9 Q. Now I understand. 10 A. And you do not add 496 and 525. It 11 might have been nice for us to get an extra half 12 a billion dollars, and we wouldn't have to have 13 this lawsuit because we would have known all the 14 facts, but in this case, I don't believe those 15 are additive. Sorry. And that's why I was 16 confused. I was just trying to be accurate. 17 Q. Well, then can you explain, I mean, 18 I'm confused then. It does state in the 19 Coleman's Company's statement it filed with the 20 SEC that Sunbeam did assume one billion sixteen 21 million in debt of Coleman and its parent 22 corporations? 23 A. That's correct. 24 Q. Including 497 million debt of 25 Coleman?	Page 77 1 Drapkin 2 Q. Okay. When I say "okay," I hear your 3 explanation. I don't necessarily accept that's 4 what happened -- 5 A. I'm trying to re-create it for you. 6 I'm just trying to be accurate. 7 Q. I appreciate how accurate you're 8 trying to be -- 9 A. This is eight years ago, and I'm 10 trying to put it back together in twenty seconds. 11 MR. BEMIS: Okay. Let's take a break 12 here. 13 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 11:17 14 a.m. and this completes tape number 1. 15 (Recess taken.) 16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 11:33 17 a.m. and this begins tape number 2. 18 BY MR. BEMIS: 19 Q. All right. Back on the record. 20 Would you please look at 241 again. 21 I think that should be right off to your right. 22 A. Yes, sir. 23 Q. Now, the instruments that are 24 referred to in this document, the senior secured 25 first priority discount notes due 2001, and the

Page 86 1 Drapkin 2 A. But MacAndrews & Forbes did not 3 receive $ 980 million. You keep asking that 4 question. 5 Q. Let me try again. Maybe we can't 6 answer it and we have to ask somebody else. 7 Under the terms of the February 28, 8 1998 merger agreement, not necessarily the 9 Coleman agreement but the CLN merger agreement 10 with Sunbeam, the holdings agreement -- 11 A. Got it. 12 Q. Am I correct that Sunbeam assumed the 13 debt of CLN Holdings Inc. as of the date of the 14 closing? 15 A. CLN Holdings and its subsidiaries. 16 Q. And its subsidiaries. 17 A. That's correct. 18 Q. As of at least December 31, 1997, the 19 amount of that outstanding debt, according to the 20 certified financial statements, is 980,000,447 -- 21 excuse me, $980,000,447; is that right? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. In addition to the assumed debt, 24 whatever the final figure was as of the date of 25 the closing on March 30th of 1998 -- you would	Page 88 1 Drapkin 2 A. Ask me the question again. 3 BY MR. BEMIS: 4 Q. As of the date of the closing -- 5 A. March 30, 1998. 6 Q. -- CLN Holdings Inc. or one of its 7 affiliates received consideration of 160 million 8 in cash? 9 A. That is what the First Boston 10 presentation says we were supposed to receive, 11 and I assume that is what happened. 12 Q. And indeed if we were to look at MS 13 93, which is the actual merger agreement, this 14 will get it sorted out and beyond this point -- 15 if you will look at page 8 -- withdrawn. 16 First, let me just make the record 17 clear that you do have in front of you Exhibit MS 18 93 previously marked, correct? 19 A. Yes, sir. 20 Q. And this is the agreement and plan of 21 merger among Sunbeam Corporation, Laser 22 Acquisition Corporation, CLN Holdings Inc. and 23 Coleman (Parent) Holdings, correct? And if you 24 want to check the signatures on the back, I think 25 Mr. Schwartz signed this one.
Page 87 1 Drapkin 2 agree with me that was the date of the closing, 3 March 30, 1998? 4 A. Yes, sir. 5 Q. Was there any, to your knowledge, 6 material adjustment upward or downward in the 7 amount of CLN Holdings Inc.'s consolidated debt 8 as reflected on the financial statements? 9 A. I don't know what you mean by 10 material. They were normal accruals. 11 Q. I mean, was there like a $500 million 12 reduction in the debt between the end of the year 13 1997 and March 30th, anything like that? 14 A. Not to my knowledge. 15 Q. In addition to the assumption of debt 16 then at the closing, which we know was 17 980,000,447,000, at least as of 12/31/97, CLN 18 Holdings or it -- received 160 million in cash, 19 right? 20 MR. MARMER: Excuse me, have you 21 finished? 22 MR. BEMIS: Yeah. 23 MR. MARMER: Is that your question? 24 I object to the question; misstates the 25 record evidence.	Page 89 1 Drapkin 2 A. Okay. 3 Q. Look at page 8. 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Under heading section 3.1 (a) (i), do 6 you see that? 7 A. Uh-huh. 8 Q. You have to say yes or no. 9 A. Yes, sir. 10 Q. The cash consideration paid is shown 11 here as $159,956,765, correct? 12 A. That's what it says. 13 Q. And rounding that up, would you 14 assume that's the $160 million referred to in MS 15 112 by Credit Suisse First Boston? 16 A. I would indeed. 17 Q. All right. Now, the third part of 18 the consideration, it's in addition to the 19 assumption of debt that we've talked about and 20 the cash, was the issuance of Sunbeam shares, 21 correct? 22 A. Correct. 23 Q. And according to Credit Suisse First 24 Boston that was about 14.1 million shares, 25 correct?

Page 94 1 Drapkin 2 answer to your question is yes, there were 3 apparently shares pledged to those notes. 4 Q. Well, as of the date of the -- as of 5 the date of the closing, March 30, 1998, were all 6 or substantially all of these 44.1 million shares 7 of Coleman stock pledged to secure debt? 8 A. I don't know the answer to that. 9 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as 10 MS 239. 11 MR. BEMIS: Ms. Reporter. 12 (MS Exhibit 239, information 13 statement dated 3/38/98, marked for 14 identification, as of this date.) 15 BY MR. BEMIS: 16 Q. Turn to page -- withdrawn. 17 Do you have MS 239 in front of you? 18 A. Yes, sir. 19 Q. This is an information statement 20 dated, if you look at the last page, March 18, 21 1998 -- 22 A. Right. 23 Q. -- by the Coleman Company Inc., which 24 was printed -- I believe it was printed from 25 Edgar, but I'm not positive of that.	Page 96 1 Drapkin 2 say, substantially all of the shares are or from 3 time to time may be. So you're asking me to tell 4 you what they were on that date. I don't know. 5 Q. On that date being March 18, 1998? 6 A. That's the date you asked me, yeah. 7 Q. That's correct. 8 As a result of the transaction, the 9 closing on March 30, 1998, the MacAndrews group 10 did receive Sunbeam stock as we've discussed, 11 right? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And that stock came -- without -- 14 withdrawn. 15 At the time of the receipt of the 16 stock, was that stock in any way pledged to cover 17 any indebtedness? 18 A. I have no idea. 19 Q. Have you ever heard that it was 20 pledged as of that -- as of the date of its 21 receipt? 22 A. I don't recall. We have loan 23 agreements. Could it have been somehow swept 24 into them? I have no idea. 25 Q. I misunderstood your answer. When

Page 98 1 Drapkin 2 on behalf by Sunbeam? 3 A. Certainly not that I'm aware of. 4 You're asking me if it was pledged by your 5 client? 6 Q. Yes. Exactly. 7 A. They're a better person to ask than 8 me. 9 Q. Well, I'm asking you what you know, 10 and you're telling me you're not aware of any? 11 A. No, I'm not. 12 Q. So as far as you know, when 13 MacAndrews group got the Sunbeam stock, it got 14 that stock -- 15 A. Free and clear. 16 Q. -- free and clear, and subject to 17 whatever terms and conditions are in the merger 18 agreement with regard to its future disposition? 19 A. That's not true. 20 Q. How is that not true? 21 A. I don't think that we could have sold 22 the stock the next day. 23 Q. No, I said subject to whatever terms 24 and conditions were in merger agreement 25 concerning the stock's disposition.	Page 100 1 Drapkin 2 Coleman Company for the year-end December 31, 3 1997? 4 A. That is what it purports to be. 5 Q. Look at the financial statements 6 which appear on page F -- 7 A. F 1 at sequence. 8 Q. Yes, sir. And I think the page I 9 want you to turn to is 13, F 13. 10 A. Yes, sir. 11 Q. The financial statements here 12 provide, if you will, a summary of the two years 13 for the periods ending December 31, 1996 and 14 1995, correct? 15 A. This part of this footnote? 16 Q. Yes, sir. 17 A. This is a proforma footnote. 18 Q. I gave you the wrong page. I 19 apologize. Let me get you the right page. I 20 think it may be easier to work off of the 21 selected financial data on page 13, although we 22 can go back to the financial statements as well. 23 A. Back to page 13? 24 Q. Not F 13. 25 A. Oh, page 13?
Page 99 1 Drapkin 2 A. And the security laws of the United 3 States. 4 Q. Which are by the way incorporated 5 into the merger agreement? 6 A. I don't know that sitting here, but 7 if you say so, I agree. We don't violate the 8 law. 9 Q. Now, at the time -- at the time of 10 the -- withdrawn. 11 In 1996, did Coleman Company report a 12 loss for the calendar year from its operations? 13 A. I would have to look at the 1996 14 audited financials to remember. 15 Q. Let me show them to you. I'm going 16 to show you what we'll mark as MS 251. 17 (MS Exhibit 251, Coleman Company 10-K 18 form for the year-ended December 31, 1997, 19 marked for identification, as of this date.) 20 BY MR. BEMIS: 21 Q. Sir, I've handed you what's been 22 identified as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 251. 23 Do you have that in front of you? 24 A. Yes, sir. 25 Q. And is this the form 10-K for the	Page 101 1 Drapkin 2 Q. Right. Uh-huh. 3 A. That is the same as page F 4 in the 4 financial statements. 5 Q. If you want to look at that. 6 A. I don't care. It's your pleasure. 7 But since they're audited, they're identical. 8 Q. So let's just work off of 13, rather 9 than F 13 if it's okay with you. 10 Did the Coleman Company have a net 11 loss for 1996? 12 A. For 1996? 13 Q. Yes, sir. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And what was it? 16 A. The net loss for 1996 would be 17 $41,000,893 -- thousand dollars. 18 Q. And on an earnings-per-share basis, 19 what is the loss? 20 A. Seventy-nine cents. 21 Q. And then for the year-ending December 22 31, 1997, did the Coleman Company have a loss? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. What was it? 25 A. $2,536,000,000.

Page 102 1 Drapkin 2 Q. And on an earnings-per-share basis, 3 what was the gain or loss? 4 A. A nickel. 5 Q. Five cents. Okay. You can set that 6 aside. 7 Just to be clear, the nickel was a 8 loss for the year not a gain, correct? 9 A. Yes, sir. 10 Q. Do you know what the Coleman Company 11 -- strike that. 12 Did the Coleman Company have a gain 13 or a loss for the first three months of 1998? 14 A. I don't recall. I also can't tell 15 from these financials that you've handed me for 16 both 1996 and 1997 where the restructuring 17 charges were taken, which could have -- which 18 would have impacted net earnings. So the company 19 might have shown traditionally higher net 20 earnings had those restructuring charges not been 21 taken in those years. But I don't remember what 22 they were. 23 Q. I'm going to go back now to the board 24 of directors meeting on the 27th. We actually 25 were there when we digressed. We were talking	Page 104 1 Drapkin 2 A. Because I've done thousands of deals 3 and it would be usual to rely on financial 4 statements that Morgan Stanley and Arthur 5 Andersen gave you. 6 Q. Are you saying that Morgan Stanley 7 audited the financial statements of Sunbeam 8 Corporation? 9 A. No. I assume not. You would know 10 that better than I would. But I assume -- 11 Q. Do you have any knowledge that Morgan 12 Stanley audited the financial statements of 13 Sunbeam Corporation? 14 MR. MARMER: We're now embarked upon 15 a little bit of speaking over each other. 16 MR. BEMIS: I agree and I apologize. 17 MR. MARMER: Let's slow the pace down 18 a bit -- 19 BY MR. BEMIS: 20 Q. Do you have any knowledge that Morgan 21 Stanley audited any of the financial statements 22 of Sunbeam Corporation? 23 A. I'm not sure I understand the 24 question. You mean audited in a FASB sense? 25 Q. We'll start there.
Page 103 1 Drapkin 2 about the consideration that flowed from the 3 transaction. 4 And going to the Coleman board 5 meeting that you attended, we had been reviewing 6 the Credit Suisse First Boston materials which I 7 think we identified as MS 112. Its still in 8 front of you. 9 Can you tell me whether there were 10 any materials presented at the board meeting by 11 any other investment bankers other than Credit 12 Suisse First Boston? 13 A. Not that I recall. 14 Q. To your knowledge, did Credit Suisse 15 First Boston in doing its analysis and 16 presentation to the board rely on the audited 17 financial statements of Sunbeam Corporation as 18 prepared by Arthur Andersen? 19 A. You're asking me if Credit Suisse 20 relied on -- 21 Q. To your knowledge. To your 22 knowledge. 23 A. I'm sure they did. 24 Q. Why do you say that "I'm sure they 25 did"?	Page 105 1 Drapkin 2 A. No. I have no knowledge. 3 Q. Do you have any knowledge that Morgan 4 Stanley hired anyone to do an audit of the 5 financial statements of Sunbeam Corporation? 6 A. You mean to check Arthur Andersen's 7 audit? 8 Q. Either that or do another audit? 9 A. I have no idea. 10 Q. And what audited -- what financial 11 statements did Morgan Stanley provide to you 12 personally? 13 A. To me personally? 14 Q. Yeah, you personally. 15 A. None -- well, indirectly. You asked 16 me if they gave them to First Boston and did 17 First Boston rely on them. 18 Q. Are you saying that Morgan Stanley 19 gave audited financial statements to Credit 20 Suisse First Boston? 21 A. I assume they gave them -- 22 Q. Not assume. Do you know? 23 MR. MARMER: We're having the same 24 problem again. 25 A. You're getting me a little confused.

Page 106 1 Drapkin 2 You asked me whether or not Credit Suisse First 3 Boston would have relied on information in the 4 audited financials provided by Arthur Anderson. 5 Q. Let me start over. Let's not worry 6 about what was asked in the past. Let me try 7 again so we can move on and not confuse each 8 other. 9 Is it your testimony that Morgan 10 Stanley provided financial statements of Sunbeam 11 Corporation to Credit Suisse First Boston? 12 A. I have no idea. 13 Q. The Coleman Company at the time of 14 the execution of the merger agreements, dated as 15 of February 28th, had an accounting firm, 16 correct? 17 A. Coleman had an accounting firm. 18 Q. And the accounting firm was Ernst & 19 Young? 20 A. E&Y is my recollection, yeah. But do 21 you want me to check the certificate and make 22 sure I'm right that it was E&Y? 23 Q. Sure, if you would like to. 24 A. Does someone know what page it's on? 25 MR. FASMAN: F 2.	Page 108 1 Drapkin 2 think that's correct. 3 Q. After the merger -- after the merger 4 agreements were signed, and up to the -- which is 5 -- we'll use February 28, 1998 and up through 6 the closing on March 30th, did you ever have any 7 communications with anyone about -- let me 8 withdraw the question and start over again. 9 Between the date of the signing of 10 the merger agreements, which are in the record as 11 MS 93 and MS 117, and the date of the closing, 12 which the first agreement is March 30, 1998, did 13 you have any face-to-face meetings with anyone at 14 Morgan Stanley? 15 A. I don't think so. 16 Q. How about after the closing on March 17 30, 1998 and say up to July 31, 1998, did you 18 have any meetings with anyone from Morgan 19 Stanley? 20 A. With regards to the Coleman 21 transaction? 22 Q. Yes, sir. Not just a casual meeting 23 some place. I realize you may have run into them 24 on the street in your business or -- 25 A. Or they may have pitched us on
Page 107 1 Drapkin 2 A. Yeah, it was E&Y, 3 BY MR. BEMIS: 4 Q. So in connection -- 5 A. My only hesitation by the way is 6 whether it was called E&Y in those days or some 7 other name. 8 Q. Fair enough. 9 In connection with the merger 10 transaction, the Coleman Company and CLN Holdings 11 investment banking advice from Credit Suisse 12 First Boston; is that right? 13 A. Yeah. 14 Q. And it had legal advice from the 15 Wachtell, Lipton firm, correct? 16 A. Correct, yeah. 17 Q. And it had access from an accounting 18 standpoint to its auditors Ernst & Young, 19 correct? 20 A. Certainly. 21 Q. And Ernst & Young had been the 22 auditors for the Coleman Company for a number of 23 years preceding the closing of the merger 24 agreement on March 30, 1998, correct? 25 A. I don't think we changed auditors. I	Page 109 1 Drapkin 2 something. 3 Q. Let's focus on the Coleman 4 transaction. 5 A. I don't believe so. 6 Q. Before the vote of the Coleman board 7 of directors on February 27, 1998 on the merger 8 agreement, which has been identified as MS 117 in 9 this case, did you speak to anyone at Morgan 10 Stanley about the transaction? 11 A. Not that I can recall. 12 Q. Did you receive any documents from 13 Morgan Stanley between the signing of the merger 14 agreements dated as of February 28th and the 15 closing on March 30, 1998? 16 A. Personally? 17 Q. Yes, sir. 18 A. Personally, directly to me? 19 Q. Yes, sir. 20 A. Not that I recall. 21 Q. And did you receive documents from 22 Morgan Stanley through someone else? 23 A. Well, we saw the Sunbeam press 24 release announcing that they might miss their 25 estimates of sales for the quarter, but was going

Page 110 1 Drapkin 2 to make it for the year. That came from 3 somebody, I assume. We didn't just read it off 4 the tape. I assume that Morgan or Skadden would 5 have sent it over to us in the normal course 6 since we were in the middle of a deal. But 7 that's an assumption. And I did see that 8 prosecutes release. 9 Q. Can we refer to that as the March 10 19th press release going forward just for 11 simplicity? 12 A. We can refer to it anything you like. 13 Q. I'd like to do it that way, so that's 14 what we'll do. 15 Other than the March 19th press 16 release, did you see anything -- strike that. 17 Did you receive indirectly from any other source 18 documents that you associated with Morgan 19 Stanley? 20 A. Not that I can recall. 21 Q. Let me ask you the same questions 22 about the correspondence from Morgan Stanley. 23 After the signing of the merger 24 agreements dated as of February 28, 1998 and the 25 closing on March 30th, did you receive any	Page 112 1 Drapkin 2 did you have any conference calls where Morgan 3 Stanley to your knowledge was on the conference 4 call between the execution of the merger 5 agreements dated as of February 28, 1998 and the 6 closing on March 30, 1998? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Any conference calls that you're 9 aware of from the date of the closing through 10 July 1st of 1998? 11 A. That I participated in? 12 Q. Yes, that you participated in. 13 A. Not that I recall. 14 Q. Before February 28, 1998, did you 15 receive any -- did you receive any documents from 16 Morgan Stanley concerning the Sunbeam/Coleman 17 transaction? 18 A. Not that I recall. 19 Q. Before the execution of the merger 20 documents dated as of February 28th, do you 21 recall any correspondence from anyone at Morgan 22 Stanley about the Coleman/Sunbeam transaction? 23 A. Not that I recall. 24 Q. Can you recall -- can you recall any 25 communications with -- from -- withdrawn.

Page 115 1 Drapkin 2 DONALD G. DRAPKIN, 3 resumed, having been previously duly sworn, 4 was examined and testified further as 5 follows: 6 EXAMINATION (Cont'd.) 7 BY MR. BEMIS: 8 Q. Right before we broke, I was asking 9 you some questions about Morgan Stanley. And I 10 want to talk now about Morgan Stanley Senior 11 Funding, the other entity in these cases. 12 At any time between the approval of 13 the merger agreements, which were dated as of 14 February 28, 1998, and the closing on March 30th, 15 did you have any face-to-face meetings or 16 conference calls for example with anyone from 17 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding about the Coleman 18 acquisition? 19 A. I didn't have any contact with 20 respect to the Coleman deal with anybody from 21 Morgan Stanley or any related entity about this 22 deal that I can recall any of this time. 23 Q. And "any of this time frame," that 24 would be, say, February 27th through the date I 25 asked you earlier, which would be July 8th?	Page 117 1 Drapkin 2 Q. I have a couple of questions about 3 this section. If you'd like to read it, please 4 do so and let me know when you're finished. 5 Otherwise, let me know and I'll go ahead. 6 A. I've read it. 7 Q. At any time after the execution of 8 this document, MS 93, as of February 27, 1998, 9 were you ever informed that anyone representing 10 the Coleman Company Inc. or CLN Holdings Inc. had 11 sought to review the "books, reports, property, 12 plans and personnel of Sunbeam"? 13 A. I'm not -- I wasn't working on the 14 transaction, so I can't tell you what the scope 15 of the due diligence that the law firms or First 16 Boston or even us internally did. 17 Q. When you say you weren't working on 18 the transaction, were you working on some other 19 transactions during this period? 20 A. I imagine I was working on a number 21 of them, but I seriously hope you don't ask me 22 what they were. 23 Q. What were they? 24 A. I don't remember. I'm always working 25 on something.

1 Drapkin
 2 Q. But if I understand you correctly,
 3 you did not work on the Sunbeam/Coleman
 4 transaction as an officer or an employee of the 5 MacAndrews group, right?
 6 A. Other than to hear chitchat, it was
 7 not an area of my primary responsibility.
 8 Q. There was -- withdrawn.
 9 Did you ever hear as chitchat as you
 10 put it whether anyone representing the MacAndrews
 11 group, and all of the companies within the chain
 12 that would be related to the acquisition, if they 13 ever reviewed the room of document that had been
 14 set up at Skadden, Arps for due diligence?
 15 A. I don't have any great recollection.
 16 I'm sure we did, but I don't know of my own.
 17 Q. Would you -- at any of the board of 18 directors meetings -- withdrawn.
 19 Were there any board of director
 20 meetings of the Coleman Company after the 21 February 27th meeting and before the closing on 22 March 30, 1998 at which the Sunbeam/Coleman
 23 acquisition was discussed in any way?
 24 A. Not that I recall.
 25 Q. So the last --

1 Drapkin
 2 in the sense -- let me withdraw the question.
 3 The last meeting of the board of
 4 directors of the Coleman Company Inc. that you
 5 attended either in person or by telephone would
 6 have been the February 27th meeting?
 7 A. The last formal all together board
 8 meeting that I recall was then. Could we have 9 signed consents relating to some action or 10 something? That's quite possible, but I don't
 11 recall.
 12 Q. I hand you, sir, what has previously
 13 been marked as Morgan Stanley 39, which is a 14 document. It is I believe what you were 15 referring to as the March 19, 1998 press
 16 release.
 17 First, would you take a look at that
 18 and tell me when you're done reviewing it.
 19 A. Yes, I've looked at it.
 20 Q. Is this the press release that you
 21 referred to earlier as the March 19, 1998 press
 22 release?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. And did you upon receipt of -- strike
 25 that.

Page 121

1 Drapkin
 2 A. There would be minutes. You'd have
 3 to refresh my recollection.
 4 Q. I don't have any, that's why I'm
 5 asking the question.
 6 Do you recall any telephone
 7 conference with directors about any issues after 8 February 27, 1998 and before the closing --
 9 A. Well, remember, some of my cohorts at 10 work were directors. So the conversation would 11 have turned to Coleman a number of times post
 12 February 27th.
 13 Q. I'd like you to focus just on
 14 director meetings as opposed to a conversation
 15 you may have had with someone who also happens to 16 be a director --
 17 A. I'm just trying to be accurate.
 18 Q. And I appreciate that. And that's a
 19 fair question, but now I want to just concentrate 20 on a director meeting, an official director
 21 meeting --
 22 A. Not that I recall.
 23 Q. So the last, if you will, official
 24 meeting of the Coleman board of directors while
 25 it was still an affiliate of the MacAndrews group

1 Drapkin
 2 Do you remember how you received the
 3 press release?
 4 A. No.
 5 Q. Did you discuss it with any other
 6 board members? Now both formally or informally.
 7 A. I don't recall specific
 8 conversations, but it would be impossible for me
 9 not to have discussed it.
 10 Q. So I take it the press release was 11 something that was important to you?
 12 A. Anything with respect to Sunbeam
 13 would be important to me.
 14 Q. Did you -- withdrawn.
 15 Do you have any recollection of who
 16 it is that you spoke to the press release about 17 after you received it, recognizing you didn't
 18 have a formal board meeting?
 19 A. I'll repeat what I said before. I
 20 don't have any specific recollections of any
 21 particular conversation, but I remember the press
 22 release. I remember the interest that it caused,
 23 and it would have been impossible that we didn't
 24 discuss it.
 25 Q. Was it discussed at these breakfast

Page 127 1 Drapkin 2 issuance of the press release, did you -- I 3 recognize you might have been out of town, 4 however -- did you for example see an article 5 we're going to mark as MS 36? 6 A. Actually, could have been Mr. Levin 7 as well. Thinking back, Jerry Levin -- it's very 8 likely Jerry Levin was in contact with whoever 9 his counterpart was at Sunbeam. 10 Excuse me. Actually, Gordon Rich 11 might have called Morgan Stanley as well. 12 Q. Gordon Rich was not with Morgan 13 Stanley. Gordon Rich was with Credit Suisse 14 First Boston. 15 A. I said Gordon Rich might have called 16 someone at Morgan Stanley -- 17 Q. I'm sorry. I misheard you. I'm 18 sorry. 19 Why do you think that might have 20 happened? 21 A. Just would seem like the normal thing 22 to do. 23 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as 24 MS 36m which is what I started to do when we got 25 distracted.	Page 129 1 Drapkin 2 Corporation, correct? 3 A. Yes, sir. 4 Q. Was there any provision in MS 93, the 5 merger agreement, for a renegotiation of the 6 consideration if the price of Sunbeam stock fell 7 or rose between the date of the agreement and the 8 date of the closing, March 30, 1998? 9 A. Not to my knowledge. 10 Q. Are you familiar with the term 11 "collar," C-O-L-L-A-R? 12 A. Yes, I am. 13 Q. Tell the jury what a collar is. 14 A. It's exactly what you just said. In 15 a lot of cases if the price of the stock goes too 16 far one way or the other up or down, the ultimate 17 price is adjusted within that collar. It can 18 work a hundred different ways, but that's the 19 general idea. 20 Q. So in this case with regard to both 21 the agreement -- let me rephrase the question. 22 With regard to MS 93, which is the 23 holdings merger agreement, there was no collar in 24 that agreement to protect the MacAndrews group's 25 Sunbeam stock against a price drop or the benefit

Page 131 1 Drapkin 2 consequence as defined in the document -- 3 A. I didn't parse that through, but if 4 that's so at the time, then okay. 5 Q. Let's go to the Coleman agreement, 6 which is MS 117. I don't know if you have that 7 in front of you, and if you don't, let me pull it 8 out for you. 9 Do you have MS 117 in front of you? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. You can set 93 aside if you like just 12 for a minute. We'll probably come back to it, 13 but just so you don't have so much paper. 14 A. Okay. 15 Q. Was there any provision in MS 117, 16 which is the agreement and plan of merger 17 involving the Coleman Company Inc., that 18 protected the public shareholders from a decrease 19 in the price of the Coleman or the Sunbeam common 20 stock after February 28th -- excuse me, February 21 27, 1998 and prior to closing? 22 A. Sure. 23 Q. Where is it? 24 A. Section 6.3. "Upon obtaining 25 knowledge of any occurrence, company and Laser	Page 133 1 Drapkin 2 question that you're asking, that I'm aware of. 3 Q. So in effect in both the MS 93 and 4 117 there were no collars imposed as of February 5 27, 1998 on the marketplace of Sunbeam's stock? 6 A. No. Of course it wouldn't have 7 mattered, but no. 8 Q. Let me show you another article which 9 we'll mark as MS 215. 10 This was previously marked in 11 Mr. Slovin's deposition. Please take a minute 12 and look at MS 215. 13 Do you have MS 215 in front of you? 14 A. Yeah. I'm reading it. 15 Q. When you're done reading it, just let 16 me know. I just have a couple of questions for 17 you. 18 A. Okay. 19 Q. Do you read The Wall Street Journal? 20 A. Yes, sir. 21 Q. And I'm not trying to be facetious, 22 but when you're on vacation skiing, do you read 23 The Wall Street Journal, if you can get a copy? 24 A. Either I read it if I can get a copy 25 or I read the headlines online.

Page 135 1 Drapkin 2 Q. Would that be a logical thing you 3 would conclude based on your many years of doing 4 deals? 5 A. I mean, certainly if your sales go 6 down, it's possible that your profit would be 7 affected. On the other hand, we're talking about 8 Al Dunlap who patterned himself as being the 9 world's greatest cost cutter. So it's quite 10 conceivable that Al could have been saying -- and 11 I don't know this but if you're asking me on my 12 years of -- did he cut costs in the corner so 13 that his profit would remain fine. Big companies 14 do that all the time. 15 Q. Then the next paragraph -- 16 A. It happened this morning I think to 17 AT&T. 18 Q. The next paragraph reads, "The 19 company has made promises that they haven't 20 delivered on and that is certainly being favored 21 into the stock today." 22 A. "Factored." 23 Q. "Factored." Excuse me. Thank you, sir. 24 "Said R. Scott Graham, an analyst for CIBC 25 Oppenheimer in New York." Do you see that	Page 137 1 Drapkin 2 dramatically post our deal as I recall. I think 3 the stock even after it fell 9.5 percent was 4 still above the deal price on the day we approved 5 the deal. And there were lots of analysts that 6 seemed to be saying this was a short-term 7 problem. So I guess anytime a stock is down 10 8 percent, there's some degree of volatility. 9 Q. My question though is not just a one 10 time drop of 10 percent, but here you have a 11 stock that drops twice 10 percent in less than a 12 two month period based on adverse announcements 13 by the company -- 14 A. But the first time it had recovered 15 erred. 16 Q. My question is: When you see a stock 17 drop 10 percent twice in a two-month period, it 18 may have recovered partially, do you consider 19 that to be in your experience a volatile stock -- 20 A. It more than recovered. It had gone 21 way above. 22 Q. But do you consider it to be a 23 volatile stock -- 24 A. I'm not qualified to answer that 25 question. There are volatility index. You can

Page 150 1 Drapkin 2 that. 3 In your view as a person who's done 4 many deals and been involved in underwriting and 5 is the in-house investment banker, if you will, 6 for Mr. Perelman, is this letter in the customary 7 form of comfort letters? 8 A. Seems to be. 9 Q. And in your experience, sir, are you 10 familiar at least if not as an expert, but just 11 in your practice with the form of comfort letters 12 as articulated by the accounting profession? 13 A. Yes, sir. 14 Q. And are they generally set forth in a 15 statement of auditing standards? 16 A. Uh-huh. Yes, yes. 17 Q. And codified in sometimes what we 18 refer to as the statement of auditing standards 19 with an AU number followed there behind? 20 A. Correct. 21 Q. Have you read those standards at any 22 time in your career? 23 A. Certainly. 24 Q. Would you agree with me, sir, that 25 one of the matters that a comfort letter in the	Page 152 1 Drapkin 2 A. You asked me whether it was negative 3 assurance. 4 Q. No, I said was it a negative 5 assurance. And you know the know the difference, 6 what that is, right? 7 A. Sorry. It is not negative assurance, 8 it is a bring down of sales for that period of 9 time. And I didn't mean to be facetious. It is 10 quite negative. 11 Q. If you look at-- withdrawn. 12 Looking at paragraph 5 (b) of MS 9, 13 which is dated March 19, 1998, which by the way 14 if it's helpful, that's the date of the offering 15 memoranda -- 16 A. I know. 17 Q. -- MS 166. It's also the date of that 18 press release. Would you conclude that this is a 19 material adverse event under either MS 93, which 20 is the merger agreement with CLN, the holdings 21 agreement, or the Coleman merger agreement, which 22 is marked as MS 117? 23 A. I would certainly say that absent 24 some rather elaborate explanation that this would 25 give rise to one's worrying about it being an

Page 154 1 Drapkin 2 experience, both as an attorney in the areas that 3 you practice and as the in-house investment 4 banker in Mr. Perelman's companies, for an 5 underwriter such as Morgan Stanley in a 6 transaction similar to what we've been 7 addressing, the purchase and underwriting of 8 $2,014,000,000 worth of zero coupon debentures to 9 get a bring down letter from the auditors on the 10 date of the actual purchase of the securities? 11 A. Yes, sir. 12 Q. And in your judgment looking at this, 13 would you conclude this is indeed the bring down 14 letter for the zero coupon debenture offering? 15 A. Yes, sir. 16 Q. Looking at paragraph E as in echo, 17 sir, I'd like you to look at the table which 18 appears on Page 2 which has the net sales 19 figures? 20 A. Uh-huh. 21 Q. You have to say yes -- 22 A. Yes, sir. 23 Q. -- or no. 24 Looking at that paragraph and the 25 figures disclosed therein for net sales and net	Page 156 1 Drapkin 2 A. I see that. 3 Q. It provides, "a Laser Material 4 Adverse Effect," that's in initial caps and 5 quotes, "shall mean a material adverse effect on 6 the business results of operation or financial 7 condition of laser and its subsidiaries taken as 8 a whole," correct? 9 A. Correct. 10 Q. My question to you, again based on 11 your experience and based on being the in-house 12 investment banker for Mr. Perelman's companies, 13 is the information in paragraph E of MS 10, in 14 particularly the table 5A and B, is the 15 information there a laser material adverse effect 16 in your opinion? 17 MR. MARMER: Objection; asked and 18 answered. 19 A. I'll answer that, but first I'd like 20 to correct you. I'm not an investment banker. 21 Q. I didn't say you were. I said you're 22 the in-house investment banker. 23 A. That's a magazine eponym that doesn't 24 necessarily mean very much. But as a lawyer, 25 which I am, on page 19 of the same agreement

Page 158 1 Drapkin 2 failure -- and certainly in hindsight it was a 3 material adverse change, but this document on its 4 face, as a lawyer, I would have advised my client 5 they had an affirmative obligation not only to 6 the Laser people, but to the public to correct 7 the March 19th press release, and indeed to tell 8 the bond buyers there was something amiss. I 9 don't know if that answers your question, but. 10 Remember, this is substantially worse 11 than it was just a few days before. 12 Q. We'll get to the question of how 13 substantially worse in a minute, but the focus in 14 my next question is the notice provision, which 15 you've been referring to under section 6.8. 16 My understanding is from your 17 testimony that the MacAndrews side of the 18 transaction, referenced by MS 93, did not receive 19 from Laser a notice of a "laser material adverse 20 effect"; is that correct? 21 A. Not to my knowledge. 22 Q. And it's my understanding that to 23 your knowledge, that no one, not withstanding 24 from -- excuse me. Withdrawn. 25 My understanding of your testimony is	Page 160 1 Drapkin 2 L.L.P. to Morgan Stanley, 243. 3 Do you have in front of you MS 243? 4 A. Yes, sir. 5 Q. Have you seen this letter before 6 which is addressed to CLN Holdings and Morgan 7 Stanley and Co., Incorporated? 8 A. No. 9 Q. Did you see this letter in your 10 preparation for your deposition? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Do you know what it is? 13 A. It looks like a comfort letter 14 addressed to Morgan Stanley relating to the 15 Coleman financial statements. 16 Q. It's also addressed to CLN Holdings, 17 correct? 18 A. Correct. 19 Q. And this is the CLN Holdings Inc. 20 that is the same CLN Holdings that is a party to 21 MS 93, the holdings merger agreement we've been 22 talking about, correct? 23 A. Uh-huh. 24 Q. You have to answer yes or no. 25 A. Yes.
Page 159 1 Drapkin 2 at least to your knowledge, and I understand you 3 didn't work on the deal yourself personally, that 4 you're not aware of anyone on the MacAndrews side 5 of the transaction, notwithstanding the March 6 19th press release, making any inquiry of either 7 Sunbeam, Arthur Andersen or Morgan Stanley as to 8 whether Morgan Stanley had received a comfort 9 letter, and B, the contents of the comfort 10 letter? 11 A. I am not aware. 12 Q. Are you aware of the MacAndrews group 13 purchasing any of the zero coupon convertible 14 senior subordinated debentures that were 15 underwritten by Morgan Stanley pursuant to MS 16 166? 17 A. No, sir. 18 Q. In connection with the Coleman merger 19 and that's MS 117 -- you might pull that out, 20 that merger agreement, sir. 21 A. Sure. 22 Q. There is a -- withdrawn. You can set 23 that aside for right now. 24 Let me show you what's been marked as 25 MS 166, which is a letter from Ernst & Young,	Page 161 1 Drapkin 2 Q. Now, it's customary is it not, sir, 3 before a comfort letter is issued by the auditors 4 in connection with an underwriting such as we've 5 been speaking here, MS 166, for the company to 6 request the audit letter from its accountants, 7 right? 8 A. You've got to repeat the question. 9 Q. Fair enough. Before an auditor 10 issues a comfort letter in connection with an 11 underwriting transaction such as the zero coupons 12 we've been speaking here about that Morgan 13 Stanley underwrote -- 14 A. Right. 15 Q. -- it's customary is it not for the 16 company whose financial statements are the 17 subject of the auditors' work to request from the 18 auditor that they issue such a letter? 19 A. My problem with your question is the 20 "company." In this case if the company you're 21 asking about is Morgan Stanley requesting it from 22 our auditors because the Coleman financials were 23 inside of the registration statement relating to 24 the zero coupons, the answer to your question is 25 yes.

Page 162 1 Drapkin 2 Q. I think we're on the same wave 3 length. Let me try it again because my question 4 probably wasn't clear now that you've pointed it 5 to me. In the instance in which the auditors are 6 attaching the financial statement of for example 7 Coleman to the underwriting offering memorandum 8 which they were, it would be customary for 9 Coleman to request that its auditors issue a 10 comfort letter to Morgan Stanley? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. And indeed that is -- even before 13 that the auditors would request a representation 14 letter from the company whose statements are 15 being audited, right? 16 A. Normally yes. 17 Q. In this -- in the case of Coleman, 18 did Coleman request that Ernst & Young issue a 19 comfort letter to Morgan Stanley in connection 20 with the zero coupon debenture offering 21 represented by MS 166? 22 A. I have no idea. 23 Q. Assuming it was done, who would be 24 the person who would have made the request to 25 Ernst & Young from the Coleman Company?	Page 164 1 Drapkin 2 you, as either the buyer or the seller as the 3 case may be, to declare a material adverse effect 4 if that's the term or consequences that's 5 sometimes used in documents? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. How about the Panavision deal, did 8 you do that? 9 A. Which Panavision deal are you talking 10 about? 11 Q. The Panavision -- the Panavision deal 12 in which you renegotiated the price for what you 13 were going to pay for Panavision? 14 A. When we bought it or? I mean, 15 there's been six Panavision deals. 16 Q. Fair enough. I'll have to pull them 17 out for you because I didn't know there were six 18 of them. 19 A. If you're talking about the original 20 deal that we bought it from whatever. 21 Q. The transaction that I'm referring to 22 was originally signed on December 18, 1997 and 23 then there was an amended transaction that 24 occurred on June 4, 1998. Does that help? I 25 don't have the document. That's the bottom line
Page 163 1 Drapkin 2 A. Probably the CFO. 3 Q. Do you remember who that was in 1998? 4 A. I don't remember. I knew, but I 5 don't remember his name. 6 Q. It was a man? 7 A. I believe so, but I could be wrong. 8 Q. I'm sure we can figure it out -- 9 A. It's in the materials -- one of the 10 materials you gave me listed all of the executive 11 officers of Coleman. 12 Q. We're not going to take your time to 13 do that. We can go back and look for that, if 14 that's the person who would have done it. 15 A. But Jerry could have asked for it, 16 anybody could have asked for it. It's routine. 17 Q. Getting the comfort letters and 18 making the request is routine? 19 A. Absolutely. 20 Q. In your history of doing deals, has 21 there ever been a transaction that you were 22 involved with that after the execution of the 23 definitive merger document -- the transaction 24 documents and the dates of the closing a material 25 adverse event came to your attention which caused	Page 165 1 Drapkin 2 -- 3 A. Who was the deal with? 4 Q. On behalf of -- it was between -- I 5 honestly can't remember which entity it was. I 6 don't have the document, which irritates me. I 7 have five boxes of documents. I don't have that 8 one. Well, I can ask somebody else. 9 A. We bought Panavision. If we 10 renegotiated the price in between, that wouldn't 11 have been particularly startling. It was owned 12 by -- Panavision was owned by Warburg Pincus. It 13 was controlled by Warburg Pincus. 14 Q. Did you work on that deal? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Who handled that deal? 17 A. Mr. Maher. 18 Q. Well, he's the person we should ask 19 that question. 20 A. And he was vice chairman of CSFB. 21 He's a real investment banker. 22 Q. Did you have any involvement with the 23 registration rights agreement for the Sunbeam 24 stock that was issued to CLN Holdings -- let me 25 withdraw that. That is not actually correct.

1 Drapkin
2 Am I correct that you had no
3 involvement whatsoever in whatever due diligence
4 was done by the MacAndrews companies of Sunbeam,
5 regardless of the time that it was done, in
6 connection with the merger agreement?
7 A. That is correct.
8 Q. And the person that you think would 9 have the most knowledge of that would be 10 Mr. Maher?
11 A. Mr. Levin.
12 Q. Or Mr. Levin perhaps. Are those the 13 two people that you would think would be the 14 knowledgeable -- I'm not holding it to you, just 15 your best assumption based on your position in 16 the company.
17 A. Yeah.
18 Q. You did have some meetings with CSFB
19 in connection with this transaction, didn't you?
20 A. Me personally?
21 Q. Yes. Well, there may have been
22 others present, but you personally did attend
23 meetings where they were present?
24 A. I don't recall. You mean other than 25 board meetings?

Page 179

1 Drapkin
2 Q. I want to get the predicate for it
3 and then I want to focus on it.
4 A. Other than the board meetings?
5 Q. Fair question. Yes, other than the
6 board meetings.
7 A. I don't know. It's quite possible
8 they came over when the transaction was 9 originally being discussed, and I sat in on one
10 or two of those meetings. That's possible.
11 Q. Can we see if you have MS 75 there?
12 I have another copy.
13 MR. BEMIS: It should be in the pile
14 over there of yours, Ron. It's the Wachtell
15 chronology. We looked at it pretty early
16 this morning.
17 A. Right.
18 BY MR. BEMIS:
19 Q. If you would look at Exhibit A --
20 A. Uh-huh.
21 Q. -- which is attached there to, sir.
22 There's two entries where your name appears. The 23 first is on December 16th.
24 A. I see that.
25 Q. Do you see that reference? Do you

Page 180

1 Drapkin
2 have any recollection at all of this meeting?
3 A. No.
4 Q. And then there's another meeting on
5 December 17th where you are identified as being 6 present, and the individuals -- some of the 7 individuals there are with CSFB. Do you remember
8 this meeting?
9 A. No.
10 Q. Do you keep a calendar of any kind?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Currently?
13 A. Currently?
14 Q. Yes.
15 A. Yeah.
16 Q. Do you keep the old ones?
17 A. No.
18 Q. When do you throw them out, at the 19 end of the year?
20 A. You have to ask my secretary, but I
21 believe she throws them out when the year is 22 over.
23 Q. Back in 1998 or 1999, did you keep a
24 paper calendar or electronic calendar?
25 A. Always the same.

Page 181

1 Drapkin
2 Q. Was it just a date planner?
3 A. Date planner.
4 Q. Do you keep that yourself or does
5 your secretary keep it?
6 A. My secretary keeps it, but
7 occasionally I'll pencil something in.
8 Q. And in connection with this
9 litigation, were you asked by anyone to locate
10 your old date planners to see whether you still 11 had them going back to '97 or '98?
12 A. I don't know if it was, particularly 13 in connection with this particular litigation,
14 but I saw a piece of paper that purported to be a
15 page from one of my calendars, which is where I
16 think these two dates came from (indicating).
17 Q. A couple of background questions.
18 You know Mr. Gordon Rich, correct?
19 A. Yes, sir.
20 Q. How long -- he's deceased now
21 correct?
22 A. Unfortunately.
23 Q. Would you tell us who he was,
24 please.
25 A. When? I mean, at what period of

Page 182 1 Drapkin 2 time? Or how do I know him? I'm not sure of the 3 question. 4 Q. Well, he worked for CSFB, correct? 5 A. At the time of his demise, yes. 6 Q. Was he an uninvestment [sic] banker? 7 A. Was he an investment banker? 8 Q. Yes. 9 A. Yes, he was. 10 Q. Had you worked with Mr. Gordon Rich 11 on other deals for the MacAndrews group of 12 companies? 13 A. He went to the Harvard Law School and 14 then started at Skadden, Arps. And he worked for 15 me on numerous transactions before he left and 16 went to First Boston. 17 Q. Do you know about how long he was at 18 First Boston before he died? 19 A. I don't recall. A number of years. 20 Q. How many transactions, best you can 21 recall, that he worked on with you at the 22 MacAndrews group? 23 A. I really couldn't say. 24 Q. More than -- more than ten? 25 A. It depends on how you define	Page 184 1 Drapkin 2 A. The more Lipitor you take, the worse 3 it gets. Although, they swear it has no effect. 4 Q. I want you to go back to -- I want to 5 go back to the Coleman board meeting where the 6 merger is approved. And I'd ask you to pull out 7 of the pile, it's probably the thickest one in 8 the pile, MS 279. 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Okay. Pull it out. 11 A. Got it. 12 Q. And I'm going to give you a page 13 number to turn to -- 14 A. Yup. 15 Q. -- to make your lives a little bit 16 easier. 17 Turn to page 40. 18 A. Yes, sir. 19 Q. And I'd like you first to focus on 20 "Terms and Structure of the Transaction." 21 A. Yes, sir. 22 Q. Referring now to the Coleman board of 23 directors, would you read that first paragraph to 24 yourself. I want to ask you a couple of 25 questions about it.
Page 183 1 Drapkin 2 transactions. Gordon Rich was a very bright, 3 very nice guy and he came with ideas all the 4 time. Did we take all of his ideas? No. Did he 5 do work from time to time for companies in other 6 regards? There may have been lots of things that 7 he did. I don't want to mislead you. We did 8 work with him. 9 Q. Was he the lead person on behalf of 10 CSFB in the Coleman/Sunbeam transaction? 11 A. I don't know. 12 Q. Do you know Steve Geller? 13 A. No. I mean, I think I've met him, 14 but if he was here, I couldn't pick him out of a 15 line up. 16 Q. By name, was he subordinate to 17 Mr. Rich -- 18 A. I don't know. 19 Q. Robert Duffy, do you know him? 20 A. I think I've met these guys, but I 21 just don't remember them. This is eight years 22 ago and I sometimes have trouble remembering what 23 I did last month. 24 Q. Did your doctor ever tell you it's 25 going to get worse?	Page 185 1 Drapkin 2 A. Okay. 3 Q. Now my first question is, is that 4 paragraph accurate based on your being a director 5 who voted in terms of the -- withdrawn. 6 My first question is, is that an 7 accurate statement as to what the Coleman board 8 of directors considered, given that you were 9 present at the board of directors meetings in 10 February of 1998. 11 MR. MARMER: Objection; lack of 12 foundation. Objection; mischaracterizes the 13 material. 14 BY MR. BEMIS: 15 Q. You can still answer. 16 A. It's accurate. 17 Q. So with regard to the Coleman merger 18 agreement, which we've identified as MS 117, 19 there was market risk associated with the 20 transaction after the -- after February 27, 1998, 21 right? 22 A. Yes, sir. 23 Q. And with regard to the CLN merger 24 document, there was also market risk in the 25 period between the date of the agreements and the

Page 187 1 Drapkin 2 BY MR. BEMIS: 3 Q. And did CSFB -- 4 A. I'm sorry, B doesn't say that -- 5 Q. My question is, somebody computed the 6 premium of 44.2 percent, correct? 7 A. It's just a mathematical computation. 8 Q. Well, no, this is an implied market 9 price they're referring to in this sentence. 10 A. I don't think so. 11 Q. Well, maybe I'm reading it wrong. 12 A. I think you take the $40 and -- $40 13 625 and 20, 686. You take the cash and whatever 14 the exact percentage was of $40 and 625 each 15 shareholder would get, and that is 44.2 percent 16 higher than $20.68. 17 Q. I think you're correct. I think I 18 did misspoke. It was based on the mathematical 19 calculations of the cash per share, times the 20 fractional share of Sunbeam stock you would get 21 at market price? 22 A. Correct. 23 Q. And when you did that mathematical 24 calculation, which most of us could do I think, 25 the premium was at the time of closing 44.2	Page 189 1 Drapkin 2 Credit Suisse First Boston, and that discussion 3 carries over to the next page. And I think there 4 is a more detailed discussion inside of the 5 document. Would you please read the section on 6 the opinion of Credit Suisse First Boston. 7 A. I read it. 8 Q. And did Credit Suisse First Boston 9 opine at the board of directors meeting on 10 February 27, 1998 that the transaction was fair? 11 A. That is my recollection. 12 Q. In your understanding, what does that 13 mean as a board of director of the Coleman 14 Company? 15 A. That what I as a Coleman shareholder 16 was receiving for my stock was fair. 17 Q. Did you have any Coleman stock? 18 A. Yes, I did. 19 Q. How many shares did you have at the 20 time of the board meeting? 21 A. My recollection is I had about 20,000 22 shares, and my kids had about 10. 23 Q. Following the announcement of the 24 merger transaction, which I think the record will 25 show is March 2nd -- I think that's right, it's

Page 195 1 Drapkin 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. What did you sell your stock at, your 4 20,000 shares? 5 A. I want to say somewhere around $32 6 maybe, 31 or 32. Don't hold me -- I mean, I 7 just -- 8 Q. I won't hold you to it. I'm just 9 asking. You got close to -- 10 A. The Sunbeam stock got over 50 bucks a 11 share. And the date that I sold it, I bet it was 12 about 41. So maybe I got less than 32. I just 13 don't remember. 14 Q. Okay, we can put that exhibit back 15 together. We're done with it for the time 16 being. Why don't we take five minutes here. 17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3:34 18 p.m. We're going off the video record. 19 (Recess taken.) 20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3:44 21 p.m. We're back on the video record. 22 BY MR. BEMIS: 23 Q. In connection with the zero coupon 24 debenture offering that Morgan Stanley underwrote 25 in March of 1998, did you attend any of the road	Page 197 1 Drapkin 2 (MS Exhibit 238, Sunbeam 3 Preacquisition Business Plan, marked for 4 identification, as of this date.) 5 Q. The Court Reporter has handed you MS 6 238. Do you have that in front of you? 7 A. Uh-huh. 8 Q. Is that a yes? 9 A. Yes, sir. 10 Q. Have you ever seen that before? 11 A. No, sir. 12 Q. Okay, you can hand it back to me. 13 There were some meetings between or 14 among the parties concerning a potential 15 synergies that the combined Coleman/Sunbeam 16 enterprise might achieve. Did you attend any of 17 those meetings? 18 A. Not to my knowledge. 19 Q. Did you have any input in drafting 20 any documentation that purported to analyze the 21 dollar amount of those synergies? 22 A. No, sir. 23 Q. Were you involved in any way with the 24 restatement investigation of Sunbeam's financial 25 statements that was undertaken under the

Page 198 1 Drapkin 2 direction of the Sunbeam audit committee in 1998? 3 A. Not that I recall. 4 Q. Did you ever see the results of it? 5 A. I might have. 6 Q. Did you ever investigate what the 7 actual sales short fall was of Sunbeam in the 8 first quarter of 1998 versus the first quarter of 9 1997? 10 A. Did I personally? 11 Q. Yeah. Did you ever determine what it 12 was? 13 A. I think I saw a piece of paper 14 yesterday that actually showed what it was, but I 15 didn't do any investigation on my own. 16 Q. Do you know what piece of paper that 17 you saw? 18 A. No. It was some internal document 19 that showed-- there was one piece of paper that I 20 looked at that actually had the actual number. 21 Q. The actual number of the sales or the 22 shortfall? 23 A. Whatever the first quarter was for 24 Sunbeam. 25 Q. Do you remember what you saw in	Page 200 1 Drapkin 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3:50 3 p.m. This completes tape 3, and also the 4 videotaped deposition of Mr. Donald Drapkin. 5 6 7 DONALD G. Page 199 1 Drapkin 2 terms -- withdrawn. 3 Do you remember what the difference 4 was between what Sunbeam eventually recorded in 5 1998 for its first quarter sales versus its first 6 quarter sales in 1997? 7 A. No, I do not. 8 Q. Did you ever -- strike that. 9 Did you ever see what the difference 10 was in sales between the first quarter of 1997 11 and the first quarter of 1998 on a restated basis 12 as opposed to as originally set forth in the 13 financial statements of Sunbeam? 14 A. Sunbeam (SOC-45) - BUY

4 1/2 Point Drop Unwarranted; Buy Reaffirmed; One Year Target
Remains $60
1998 EPS Lowered to $1.80 to Include Shares Issued in Transaction
No Change to 1999 Estimate of $3.00

Price Drop Unwarranted: We think that yesterday's price drop of over 4 points was an over reaction and we reiterate our buy rating on the shares. Our one year target remains $60 as Sunbeam integrates the acquisitions it has announced and 1999 earnings approach $3.00. At 15x 1999 estimates, the shares are valued at a 30% discount to the market.

1998 EPS Lowered to $1.80 from $2.05: We are lowering our 1998 Sunbeam estimates to $1.80 from $2.05 on the assumption that the three transactions announced at the beginning of the month
(the acquisitions of Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert, with total sales of about $1.6 billion) close in the near future.
As we wrote in our note of March 2, the acquisitions could dilute
EPS by $0.05-$0.07 in 1998. In addition, Sunbeam will issue 19.4 million shares to Coleman shareholders bringing the 1999 share base to 108 million shares (which includes the options tied to Mr. Dunlap's new employment agreement at the current stock price); assuming a mid-year close, the 1998 share base would increase to about 98 million. The combination of the new shares and modest dilution create the estimate reduction; on our new forecast EPS should increase about 30% over the $1.41 recorded in 1997. (Reported EPS will also include the restructuring which is expected to be announced after the transactions close.)

Press Release Spooks the Stock: In conjunction with the pricing of a convertible offering, Sunbeam yesterday issued a press release that said that first quarter sales may be lower than analysts estimates of $285-$295 million. The notice sent the stock price into a tailspin with the suggestion that the tone of business might be weakening. We do not think this is the case. Rather, Sunbeam's order book at this point does not fully cover the growth expectations (12%-15%) that are implied by the estimated sales range. This is not unusual, even at this late stage in the quarter. March is the most important month of the quarter in terms of sales, and orders routinely come in with an expected turnaround time of as little as 72 hours. Sunbeam will continue to get orders and ship through the rest of the quarter and sales should be near the expected range. Nonetheless, we think the timing of the pricing of the convertible deal so close to the end of the quarter, coupled with orders now on the books prompted the company's press release.

Current Tone of Business is Healthy: The press release prompted us to review the current tone of business, and it seems to be in good shape. So far, sales appear to be pretty close to budget. Last year, production did not meet demand in clippers, blenders, blankets and grills. The capacity issues have been solved, and Sunbeam believes that it is able to meet demand with improving levels of service.. Grills are an important component of first quarter sales, and we think they were close to budget until the beginning of March when the weather turned abruptly cooler in many parts of the country. Sunbeam expects healthy grill sales during the last two weeks of March, but it is possible that some sales would slip into April. The cold snap has had a silver lining; electric blankets sold well at retail and there have been no significant returns. The new air and water filters started to ship in volume in March, a bit later than management had expected, and they should pick up steam in the June quarter. To accommodate all the moving pieces, we have lowered our Q1 total sales growth forecast to 12% ($284 million) from 15% ($295 million); our EPS estimate is $0.31, a 29% increase.

William H. Steele (415) 893-9073

We reiterate our Buy rating on Sunbeam, taking advantage of the recent weakness in share price to increase positions. Last week, the company announced that 1Q98 sales MAY fall short of analysts' estimates. We contend that the cautious comment was driven by Sunbeam's legal staff, which worried about potential disclosure problems since Sunbeam's management was talking to investors about a convertible bond issue. It is our opinion that Sunbeam's legal staff decided if there was ANY possibility (no matter how small) that the company could fall short of sales estimates, then it had to be disclosed before the convertible bond issue was priced. We believe these comments were purely cautionary and we continue to project that 1Q98 sales will increase 15%, to $291 million. We are encouraged by the strong orders the company has received over the last five days (which will be shipped in this quarter). However, our 1Q98 EPS estimate has been trimmed $0.01 to $0.30 versus $0.24 last year, due to more conservative margin assumptions. Our operating margin has been reduced 0.5 point, to 15.3%, primarily due to a reduction in projected gross margin. We have re-examined the sales mix in the quarter and given the large percentage that outdoor product sales (which we believe is the company's lowest-margin business) represent, we have reduced our gross margin assumption 1.0 point, to 27.4%. Partially offsetting this decline, we are reducing SG&A as a percent of sales 0.5 point, to 12.1%, recognizing that Sunbeam has gotten significantly leaner in the past year. Despite the $0.01 per share reduction in 1Q98 EPS estimates, our full-year 1998 EPS forecast remains $1.90, our 1999 EPS estimate remains $2.85, and our target price remains $64 per share. Based on our target price, the company has a total return potential of almost 40% -- which is certainly enough to warrant a Buy rating.

- * Continue to recommend purchase of SOC. 1998E reduced to $2.00 fm $2.05. 1999E of $3.00 unchanged. Spoke with company. By our model, potential Q1 revenue shortfall could place Q1 EPS in $0.25 to $0.30 range. New est is $0.28ps v. $0.24, down from previous $0.32 est. We continue to believe the long-term consolidation strategy should create significant value not reflected in SOC shares today. Price target on $3.00 estimate in 1999 is unchanged at $60-$65. We believe short-term issues are far outweighed by the longer-term benefits.
- * Q1:98 revenue estimates were in a range of $285-$295 million, about a 15% increase from Q1:97. Our new revenue target is 10% growth to $275-$280 million. The company stated that Q1 revenue MAY fall below Wall Street estimates of $285 million to $295 million, but should exceed year ago sales of $253.4 million. Reasons for the shortfall IF ANY, would be retail order patterns and inventory management, not point of sale related. March is the most significant contributor to first quarter sales and profits. As such, these last two weeks of the month will be crucial to determining Q1 results.
- * Our rating on Sunbeam has been and remains a U.S. Recommended List rating. Within that rating we have, in the last year and a half, taken long and short-term postures at different points in time. Current events place our rating emphasis on the twelve-month view. We expect near-term volatility around these fundamental issues until Sunbeam reports earnings in late April.

Your testimony is being taken in connection 9 with that case, sir. 10 The sale of Coleman (Parent) Holdings' 11 interest in Coleman to Sunbeam took place in the first 12 quarter of 1998. Do you recall that? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Okay. And at that time, early 1998, Sunbeam 15 was based here in Florida; is that correct? 16 A. That is correct. 17 Q. Do you remember where their office was? 18 A. In Delray Beach. 19 Q. And at that time, in 1998, did Arthur 20 Andersen provide accounting services to Sunbeam? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And, sir, did you work on that engagement? 23 A. Yes, I did. 24 Q. Before we focus on the work you did on that 25 engagement for Sunbeam, I'd like to ask you some	Page 8 1 A. In Milwaukee, Wisconsin. 2 Q. When you graduated from college, did you take 3 a job in the accounting field? 4 A. Yes, I did. 5 Q. And where did you take that job? 6 A. Arthur Andersen. 7 Q. In what city? 8 A. In Chicago, Illinois. 9 Q. Since then, since you graduated from school, 10 have you become certified as a certified public 11 accountant? 12 A. In Illinois. 13 Q. What does one need to do to become a 14 certified public accountant? 15 A. Sit for the examination and have two years' 16 experience. 17 Q. And you passed that examination and had the 18 required experience? 19 A. Yes, I did. 20 Q. You were certified as a CPA in Illinois? 21 A. In Illinois, that's correct. 22 Q. Is that where you were when you sat for the 23 exam? 24 A. That's correct. 25 Q. Now did there come a time after you started

Page 9 1 at Arthur Andersen that you moved to a different office 2 within the company? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. What office did you move to? 5 A. West Palm Beach, Florida. 6 Q. And when did you move to West Palm Beach, 7 approximately? 8 A. Approximately -- let me back up my time frame 9 here real quickly. I believe that was 1996. 10 Q. And did you remain -- let me state that 11 differently. 12 Did you stay in the West Palm Beach office of 13 Arthur Andersen for the remainder of your tenure at 14 Arthur Andersen? 15 A. Yes, I did. 16 Q. You didn't move to any other offices? 17 A. That's correct. 18 Q. Now what was your initial position when you 19 joined Arthur Andersen? What was your job title? 20 A. Staff. 21 Q. And how long approximately were you a staff 22 accountant at Arthur Andersen? 23 A. For two years. 24 Q. So that would be '92 to '94, about? 25 A. That's correct.	Page 11 1 matter in the first half of 1998, were you an audit 2 manager? 3 A. I was a senior at the very beginning of my 4 Sunbeam work. 5 Q. And then you became a manager? 6 A. That is correct. 7 Q. When did you leave Arthur Andersen? 8 A. It was June of 2000. 9 Q. After you left Arthur Andersen, what position 10 did you take? 11 A. Vice-president of finance with American Media 12 Operations. 13 Q. Where is American Media Operations based? 14 A. Our headquarters is in Boca Raton, but I work 15 out of our Delray Beach office. 16 Q. Are you still with American Media? 17 A. Yes, I am. 18 Q. And what is your current position? 19 A. Vice-president of finance. 20 Q. Can you just briefly describe for us what the 21 responsibilities of the vice-president of finance are 22 at American Media? 23 A. Run the day-to-day finance, budgeting and the 24 cash flows of the company, supervise the accounting 25 closes and so forth.
Page 10 1 Q. Were you then promoted? 2 A. Yes, I was promoted. 3 Q. What was the next position you held? 4 A. Senior. 5 Q. What's the difference in responsibility 6 between a staff accountant and a senior accountant? 7 A. A senior will supervise the staff on an audit 8 engagement. 9 Q. And how long were you a senior? 10 A. For three years. 11 Q. Were you then promoted again? 12 A. Yes, I was. 13 Q. To what position? 14 A. Audit manager. 15 Q. And what are the differences of 16 responsibilities for an audit manager as opposed to a 17 senior? 18 A. Audit manager will supervise the entire 19 engagement from the planning to the actual audit 20 procedures to the actual wrap-up of the audit and will 21 report directly to the partner of engagement. 22 Q. Did you remain an audit manager for the 23 remainder of your tenure at Arthur Andersen? 24 A. Yes, I did. 25 Q. At the time you did work on the Sunbeam	Page 12 1 Q. Okay. To whom do you report? What position 2 do you report? 3 A. The CFO of the company. 4 Q. That's the chief financial officer? 5 A. That's correct. 6 Q. Okay. Returning to the work that Arthur 7 Andersen did for Sunbeam back in the 1998 time frame, 8 are you aware that Arthur Andersen performed audit 9 services for Sunbeam? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Did you participate in the audit of -- the 12 audit that Arthur Andersen performed of Sunbeam in 13 1996? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Did you participate in Arthur Andersen's 16 audit of Sunbeam in 1997? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Focusing on the work that Arthur Andersen did 19 for Sunbeam, when did you become involved in that work? 20 A. I'm sorry, can you repeat the question one 21 more time? 22 Q. Sure. When did you become involved in the 23 work that Arthur Andersen performed for Sunbeam? 24 A. It was during the bond offering for the 25 Coleman deal.

Page 13 1 Q. If I were to tell you that the bond offering 2 closed at the end of March, 1998, would that be 3 consistent with your recollection of when you worked? 4 A. That's my recollection. 5 Q. Do you remember how soon before the bond 6 offering you started working on the Sunbeam matter? 7 A. Approximately two months before. 8 Q. And how long did you work on the project? 9 A. Until the close of the bond offering. 10 Q. Okay. With whom did you work? What other 11 accountants at Arthur Andersen? 12 A. Worked primarily with Larry Bornstein. I 13 also worked with Dennis Pastrana, but I reported 14 directly to Larry Bornstein. 15 Q. What projects do you recall working on in 16 connection with the bond offering? 17 A. I helped draft the pro forma financial 18 results which went into the bond offering. 19 I also verified the historical data within 20 the bond offering. 21 Q. Any other projects you remember working on? 22 A. We're just talking about the bond offering at 23 this point? 24 Q. Yes, sir. 25 A. Yes, that's it.	Page 15 1 A. Any information that was in the bond offering 2 that related to historical data, it was verified by me. 3 And also I maintain a file that supported the 4 historical data within the bond offering. 5 MR. MOSCATO: Mark, I just want to clarify, 6 when you say historical information in the bond 7 offering, do you mean in the offering memorandum? 8 THE WITNESS: In the offering memorandum, 9 excuse me, let me rephrase that. Within the 10 offering memorandum. 11 BY MR. BRODY: 12 Q. And just so we're clear, by offering 13 memorandum, you mean the document that was used to sell 14 the securities to the people who bought them? 15 A. That is correct, yes. 16 Q. Now in connection with the work that you did 17 with the bond offering, did you do any work on Arthur 18 Andersen's comfort letter? 19 A. Yes, I did. 20 Q. What is a comfort letter? 21 A. Comfort letter is a letter provided by the 22 auditors in connection with a registration statement. 23 Q. And who do they provide it to? 24 A. It's provided, I believe, if I recall 25 correctly, to the company. And also to the
Page 14 1 Q. In connection with the work you did on the 2 bond offering, did you do any due diligence? 3 A. No, I did not. 4 Q. That was done by others; is that right? 5 A. That's correct. 6 Q. You mentioned the pro formas and said you 7 helped draft the pro formas. 8 Can you explain what a pro forma is? 9 A. Pro forma basically means as if. You take 10 the historical information and adjust them for the 11 transaction at hand. 12 Q. And what is it that you did in working on the 13 pro formas? 14 A. With the help of the Sunbeam company, Bob 15 Gluck actually created a spreadsheet for the various 16 periods, the balance sheets and income statements, and 17 adjusted them for the transactions based on the 18 accounting rules and guidelines. 19 Q. Did those pro forma documents that you worked 20 on find their way into the offering memorandum? 21 A. Yes, that's correct. 22 Q. All right. You also indicated that you did 23 some work in verifying historical data? 24 A. That's correct. 25 Q. What do you mean by that?	Page 16 1 underwriters. 2 Q. Okay. Do you recall what your involvement 3 was in connection with the comfort letter? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. What was that? 6 A. Primarily related to the tick marks that are 7 within the comfort letter. By the tick marks, they are 8 defined work that is performed by the auditors on the 9 actual offering memorandum such as tracing to 10 company-provided documentation. 11 Q. Who else was involved with the comfort 12 letter? 13 A. To my knowledge, Larry Bornstein and Dennis 14 Pastrana. 15 Q. Do you recall when the drafting of the 16 comfort letter began? 17 Do you remember the date on which it began? 18 A. Not exactly. 19 Q. I may show you some documents, sir, that will 20 refresh your recollection. We'll come back to that. 21 Did you provide any of, to your recollection, 22 did you provide any of the information that was put 23 into the comfort letter? 24 A. What do you mean by information? 25 Q. Well, the comfort letter contained data and

Page 17 1 information about the company, didn't it? Do you 2 recall? 3 MR. MOSCATO: Would it be helpful if you saw 4 the comfort letter, Mark, to answer this question? 5 THE WITNESS: Yeah, potentially that may 6 help. 7 BY MR. BRODY: 8 Q. I think that's a good way to go. Let me 9 provide that. 10 Mr. Brockelman, I'm giving you what 11 previously has been marked as CPH Exhibit 17. That's a 12 letter on the letterhead of Arthur Andersen dated 13 March 19. 14 I'm going to ask you just to look at that and 15 tell me if that's a comfort letter. 16 A. Yes, this is a comfort letter. 17 Q. And is this the comfort letter that was sent 18 to Morgan Stanley in connection with the bond offering, 19 to your recollection? 20 A. To my recollection, yes. 21 Q. Sir, is this the final version, the final 22 version of the letter? 23 MR. CLARE: Objection to the form. 24 MR. BRODY: Let me withdraw that. 25	Page 19 1 night at the printer's. 2 Q. And after Mr. Bornstein signed the document 3 at the printer's, do you know what he did with it? Did 4 he give it to somebody? 5 A. Yes, he did. I don't recall who received 6 copies. 7 Q. Do you know if at that time a copy was given 8 to someone for or on behalf of Morgan Stanley? 9 A. Yes, correct. 10 Q. The question that caused me to show you this 11 document related to the date, or information rather, 12 contained in the information. 13 I'd ask you please to turn to page three of 14 the document we have marked as Exhibit 17. 15 For example, paragraph 5A and 5B contains 16 information about the operations of Sunbeam. 17 Do you see that? 18 A. Yes, I do. 19 Q. Is that information that you collected? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Is it information that you were responsible 22 for putting into the document? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Do you know who provided that information? 25 A. Dennis Pastrana.
Page 18 1 BY MR. BRODY: 2 Q. Do you know if any comfort letters were sent 3 after this one? 4 A. Yes, I do know. 5 Q. Was a comfort letter sent in connection with 6 this transaction after the draft that you see as -- 7 excuse me, the version marked as Exhibit 17? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. When was that sent? 10 A. It's called a bring-down letter when it 11 finalizes. I don't know the exact date of that. 12 Q. Okay. We'll come back to that. Thank you. 13 This document is signed by someone on behalf 14 of Arthur Andersen. 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Do you know who put pen to paper and signed 17 the document, do you recall? 18 A. To my recollection, it was Larry Bornstein 19 who had the authorization from the partner, Phil 20 Harlow, to sign on his behalf. 21 Q. Do you know, were you present when 22 Mr. Bornstein signed the comfort letter? 23 A. Yes, I was. 24 Q. And when was that, to your recollection? 25 A. I don't know the exact date. It was the	Page 20 1 Q. Prior to this comfort letter being signed and 2 given to Morgan Stanley at the printer, do you know if 3 a draft was sent to Morgan Stanley? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And was a draft sent to Morgan Stanley? 6 A. To my knowledge. 7 Q. Do you know when that was sent? 8 A. No, I do not. 9 Q. Do you know how long in advance of the 10 meeting at the printer's it was sent? 11 A. No, I do not. 12 Q. Could you estimate in terms of days or weeks? 13 MR. CLARE: Objection. 14 BY MR. BRODY: 15 Q. Anything? 16 A. No, I really can't. 17 Q. Prior to Mr. Bornstein delivering the signed 18 copy of the letter to Morgan Stanley at the printer's, 19 do you know if Morgan Stanley had a copy of the comfort 20 letter? 21 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for speculation. 22 THE WITNESS: I do not know. 23 BY MR. BRODY: 24 Q. Did you ever see someone from Morgan Stanley 25 or their lawyers with a copy?

Page 25 1 that evening, what do you remember being discussed? 2 A. With regard to changes to the comfort letter? 3 Q. Yes, sir. 4 A. My specific part was to ensure that all the 5 numbers were correct. My job was to place all the tick 6 marks throughout the actual exhibit part of the comfort 7 letter. 8 I wanted to point out this wasn't the entire 9 comfort letter, so specifically that was my job to 10 change the comfort letter in that fashion, to dropping 11 the tick marks on the exhibits. 12 Q. Just so we're clear, the document we've 13 marked as Exhibit 115 doesn't have the tick marks on 14 it, does it? 15 A. It has the, the narrative on it, but it does 16 not have the actual comfort letter pages that had the 17 tick marks on it. 18 Q. And if we return to the document that had 19 been marked as Exhibit 17, the signed copy of the 20 comfort letter. 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And turn to page six and seven of the 23 document. 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Does that have the key for the tick marks?	Page 27 1 Q. Okay, thank you. 2 Okay. Now let's talk a little more generally 3 about the discussions that took place that evening at 4 the printer's. You've already testified that you were 5 present at the printer's? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And the printer's name was Global Financial 8 Press? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Where, what city is Global Financial Press 11 located in? 12 A. New York City. 13 Q. And who did you attend that meeting with? 14 Who went with you to that meeting? 15 A. Larry Bornstein. 16 Q. Now for those not familiar with an evening at 17 the printer's, what is it like? Do you go to a print 18 shop or do you go to offices? 19 What type of facility did you visit? 20 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 21 THE WITNESS: It was a print facility, and we 22 were in a conference room. 23 BY MR. BRODY: 24 Q. Were there more rooms than just the one 25 conference room?
Page 26 1 A. That is correct. 2 Q. And was it your job to place those 3 appropriate marks on the exhibits in the areas to which 4 they correspond? 5 A. That's correct. 6 Q. And is that something you did the evening you 7 were at the printer? 8 A. That is correct. 9 Q. Do you remember any discussions, aside from 10 that topic, do you remember any discussions about the 11 language of the comfort letter or the statements made 12 in the comfort letter at the printer? 13 A. I do. 14 Q. What do you recall being discussed? 15 A. I do want to preface that my knowledge is a 16 little bit hazy at this point, but I do remember 17 discussions regarding disclosure. 18 Q. Disclosure of what? 19 A. Are we talking about the comfort letter or 20 the offering memorandum in general? 21 Q. Let's just try to narrow it first to the 22 comfort letter. 23 A. To the comfort letter itself. 24 As far as the comfort letter, no, no 25 significant discussions related to the comfort letter.	Page 28 1 A. Yes, correct. 2 Q. How long were you there, from the time you 3 arrived to the time you left? 4 A. I don't recall precisely, but I estimate 5 about ten hours. 6 Q. And what was your purpose in going to the 7 printer's that evening? 8 A. To update the comfort letter. 9 Q. Anything else? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Did you look at draft documents that the 12 printer had prepared and decide whether they were 13 appropriate or not? 14 A. Yes, as part of the comfort letter. 15 Q. Can you explain how it is you did that, what 16 you were doing? 17 A. A final update to the pro forma information. 18 As pages turned, you would compare what you submitted 19 to the final version. 20 Q. Okay. 21 MR. BRODY: Can we go off the record for just 22 a second. 23 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off video 24 record. The time on the monitor is 9:38 a.m. 25 (Discussion held off the record.)

1 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video
 2 record. The time on the monitor is 9:44 a.m.
 3 BY MR. BRODY:
 4 Q. Mr. Brockelman, before we went off the
 5 record, we were talking about the evening at the 6 printer's. I'd like to return to that topic.
 7 What document was being printed?
 8 A. The offering memorandum.
 9 Q. And that was the offering memorandum by which 10 Sunbeam raised money to finance its acquisitions?
 11 A. That's correct.
 12 Q. And was the pro forma that you worked on 13 being included in that offering memorandum?
 14 A. Yes, it was.
 15 Q. Now you indicated in a response to a prior 16 question that as certain pages were turned, you checked
 17 them.
 18 What was it that you meant by that? What did
 19 you do?
 20 A. The historical and pro forma financial 21 information that was in the document, if there was any
 22 changes or adjustments to those numbers, I would check
 23 and ensure that they were properly changed.
 24 Q. So as the printer prepared draft pages, you
 25 checked them to make sure they were still accurate?

Page 30

1 A. That's correct.
 2 Q. Now at the time of this meeting at the
 3 printer in New York, you were officed in Florida; is
 4 that correct?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. And you traveled to New York to go to the 7 printer's?
 8 A. Yes, I did.
 9 Q. Did you travel with Mr. Bornstein?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. Are you aware that the day you visited the 12 printer, Sunbeam issued a press release about its sales
 13 results?
 14 A. Yes, I am.
 15 Q. And did you have any involvement in drafting
 16 or revising the press release?
 17 A. No, I did not.
 18 Q. Were you aware of the press release before it
 19 was issued?
 20 A. No, I was not.
 21 Q. Do you remember where you were when you
 22 learned that Sunbeam had issued the press release?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. And where was that?
 25 A. At the hotel. I do not recall what hotel I

Page 31

1 was staying at with Larry Bornstein, but we were in his
 2 room in the hotel.
 3 Q. Then how did you learn about the press
 4 release?
 5 A. We saw on a news channel the disclosure on
 6 the press release.
 7 Q. What do you remember the news channel or the 8 news story reported about Sunbeam's press release?
 9 A. It gave a forecasted number. That's all I
 10 recall.
 11 Q. Do you remember after you and Mr. Bornstein
 12 saw the mention of the press release whether you had a
 13 discussion about it at that time in the hotel?
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. What do you remember discussing?
 16 A. Larry made a comment that he didn't believe
 17 the number that was disclosed would be obtainable.
 18 Q. And that was after Mr. Bornstein saw the
 19 press release?
 20 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.
 21 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. It's 22 inconsistent with his testimony.
 23 BY MR. BRODY:
 24 Q. When was that discussion with Mr. Bornstein?
 25 A. After we saw the news report.

Page 32

1 Q. Okay.
 2 MR. MOSCATO: Did you see the press release
 3 at all?
 4 THE WITNESS: No, I just want to make sure
 5 we're talking about a news release, not a press
 6 release.
 7 BY MR. BRODY:
 8 Q. I understand. You didn't see the actual
 9 press release?
 10 A. That's correct.
 11 Q. Released at that time.
 12 I'd now like to focus on -- let me withdraw
 13 that.
 14 Did you go from the hotel to the printer?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. I'd now like to focus on the events that took 17 place at the printer.
 18 Sir, was the, were these events at the 19 printer the same day as the press release came out?
 20 A. Again, I don't recall a press release. The 21 same day of that news release, yes.
 22 Q. Okay. And who participated in these meetings
 23 at the printer? Who was there?
 24 A. I was there certainly, Larry Bornstein. We 25 were the team from Arthur Andersen.

Page 33 1 There was representatives from Morgan 2 Stanley. Several attorneys. I couldn't name 3 everybody. That really wasn't my job there. 4 Q. Sure. Do you know who was there from Morgan 5 Stanley? 6 A. I don't recall any names, no. 7 Q. If I mentioned name John Tyree, does that 8 refresh your recollection? 9 A. Yes, John Tyree was there. 10 Q. Do you remember if there was anyone else 11 there from Morgan Stanley? 12 A. There was. Again, I don't recall any names. 13 Q. Were there lawyers there on behalf of Morgan 14 Stanley? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Were there lawyers there on behalf of 17 Sunbeam? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Do you know if there was any business person 20 there on behalf of Sunbeam? 21 A. No, there was not. 22 Q. As you sit here, do you remember the names of 23 the lawyers there on behalf of either Sunbeam or Morgan 24 Stanley? 25 A. No, I do not.	Page 35 1 A. Larry Bornstein to myself. 2 Q. So Mr. Bornstein discussed with you? 3 A. That's correct. 4 Q. What do you remember Mr. Bornstein saying? 5 A. I don't recall the exact substance of the 6 conversation. Just it related to disclosures in the 7 offering memorandum. 8 Q. Do you remember Mr. Bornstein participating 9 in a discussion with the Morgan Stanley representatives 10 about disclosures in the offering memorandum? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Would this be between Mr. Bornstein and 13 Mr. Tyree? 14 A. Yes. There were also other people involved 15 in the conversation. He's the only one I remember. 16 Q. What do you remember being discussed? 17 A. I don't recall specifically. It just again 18 related to disclosures within the offering memorandum. 19 Q. Do you remember what position Mr. Bornstein 20 was taking? 21 A. No, I do not. 22 Q. Do you remember what position Mr. Tyree was 23 taking? 24 A. No, I do not. 25 Q. Mr. Brockelman, this conversation at the
Page 34 1 Q. And do you remember the names of their law 2 firms? 3 A. No, I do not. 4 Q. If I were to suggest that attorneys from 5 Scadden Arps represented Sunbeam, would that refresh 6 your recollection? 7 A. Yes, that does. 8 Q. Were there lawyers from Scadden there? 9 A. There was. 10 Q. Do you remember the names? 11 A. No, I do not. 12 Q. Are you familiar with the firm of Davis Polk? 13 A. Yes, they were the attorneys for the 14 underwriters, I believe. 15 Q. Again, do you remember the names of the 16 individuals lawyers? 17 A. No, I do not. 18 Q. At the printer's that evening, do you recall 19 discussion about what disclosure should be put in the 20 offering memorandum? 21 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 22 THE WITNESS: Yes, I remember a discussion, 23 yes. 24 BY MR. BRODY: 25 Q. Who participated in this discussion?	Page 36 1 printer's took place in 1998; is that correct? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And we're now sitting here in 2004. Between 4 then and now, did you give other testimony in which you 5 described what happened that evening at the printer's? 6 A. Yes, I did. 7 Q. All right. And it's correct, sir, isn't it, 8 that you were deposed in connection with other 9 litigation arising out of this transaction in which you 10 testified about a number of topics, including the 11 events at the printer's? 12 A. Yes, I did. 13 Q. Do you remember when that deposition took 14 place? 15 A. It was a couple of years ago. 16 MR. BRODY: Do you need a copy? 17 MR. MOSCATO: I wouldn't mind if you have an 18 extra one. 19 BY MR. BRODY: 20 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I'm giving you -- may I have 21 that back? I'm going to mark it. 22 THE WITNESS: Certainly. 23 MR. BRODY: Ask the court reporter to mark 24 this, please, as our next exhibit. 25

Page 37 1 (CPH Exhibit No. 116 was marked for 2 identification.) 3 BY MR. BRODY: 4 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I've given you what's been 5 marked as CPH Exhibit 116, which appears to be a 6 transcript of the deposition you gave nearly three 7 years ago on January 23rd, 2001. Is that correct? 8 A. Yes, correct. 9 Q. And at the time you gave that testimony, the 10 events of March 1998 were closer in time; is that 11 correct? 12 A. Yes, correct. 13 Q. I'd ask you, please, to review your prior 14 testimony and then I'm going to ask if it refreshes 15 your recollection of the events of that evening. So if 16 you would please turn to page 190. Let me give you a 17 more specific page and line, and see if you recall. 18 I believe you might want to start reading on 19 either page 190 or beginning on page 191. 20 MR. MOSCATO: Why don't you start at the top 21 of 190. 22 MR. BRODY: That would be fine. 23 THE WITNESS: Okay. 24 MR. MOSCATO: How far do you want him to go? 25 MR. BRODY: Well, I'm going to ask you to	Page 39 1 conversations held there? 2 A. It generally related to the projections for 3 the first quarter, but as far as the actual figures and 4 amounts, I don't recall. 5 Q. Putting aside the figures and amounts, did 6 Mr. Bornstein express a view about whether the 7 projections of sales for the first quarter should be 8 included or not? 9 A. He felt that they should not be included and 10 that they were not going to make analyst expectations 11 for the first quarter. 12 Q. Do you remember anything else Mr. Bornstein 13 said in words or in substance about that subject? 14 A. No. That's the extent of my knowledge. 15 Q. Do you remember what Mr. Tyree from Morgan 16 Stanley said in response to what Mr. Bornstein said? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Did there come a time that evening in which 19 Mr. Tyree discussed Mr. Bornstein out of the presence 20 of Mr. Bornstein; that is, in your presence, but while 21 Mr. Bornstein was not there? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. What do you remember happening in that 24 conversation? 25 A. I wasn't involved in the conversation, but I
Page 38 1 read to page 202. 2 MR. MOSCATO: 202? 3 MR. BRODY: Yes, sir. 4 MR. MOSCATO: Off the record. 5 (Discussion held off the record.) 6 BY MR. BRODY: 7 Q. Have you had a chance to look at those pages, 8 sir? 9 A. Yes, I did. 10 Q. Does reviewing your testimony from 2001 11 refresh your recollection about the events of the 12 evening of March 19, 1998? 13 A. To a certain extent. 14 Q. Do you recall, having refreshed your 15 recollection to that extent, do you recall what 16 discussion Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Tyree had on the 17 evening of March 19 about what should be disclosed in 18 the offering memorandum concerning Sunbeam sales? 19 MR. MOSCATO: Mark, why don't you close the 20 thing and then tell him. 21 BY MR. BRODY: 22 Q. I think that's a good idea. 23 A. Yeah. Honestly, I still do not recall the 24 exact conversations held there. 25 Q. Do you remember in substance the	Page 40 1 was in the same conference room when he was making the 2 comments. 3 Basically John Tyree was very upset and used 4 certain profanity directed at Larry Bornstein. 5 Q. Do you remember what he was upset about? 6 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for speculation. 7 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. 8 MR. BRODY: Let me rephrase it. 9 BY MR. BRODY: 10 Q. Did, in that conversation did Mr. Tyree 11 communicate what he was upset about? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And what was that? 14 A. It related to disclosure in the offering 15 memorandum. 16 Q. Was he upset with Mr. Bornstein? 17 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for speculation. 18 THE WITNESS: It appeared he was upset at 19 Larry Bornstein, yes. 20 BY MR. BRODY: 21 Q. Do you remember in words or substance what he 22 said in that conversation? 23 A. No, I do not. 24 Q. As you sit here, I know it's been a number of 25 years, do you remember any of the precise things that

Page 41 1 he said? 2 A. All I could remember is, you know, him saying 3 Larry Bornstein is a fucking asshole. That's the 4 extent of my recollection of the words he used. 5 Q. So those words stuck with you? 6 A. Yeah, exactly. 7 Q. Do you remember other participants in this 8 conversation? Let me withdraw that. 9 Do you remember other participants at the 10 printer's aside from Mr. Tyree, for example, the 11 Scadden lawyers, the Davis Polk lawyers, saying 12 anything about the disclosure issue? 13 A. No, I don't recall. 14 Q. Was Mr. Tyree upset about the things that 15 Mr., the position Mr. Bornstein was taking? 16 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for speculation. 17 THE WITNESS: He appeared upset. 18 BY MR. BRODY: 19 Q. On what do you base that? Why do you believe 20 he appeared upset? 21 A. Profanity he used. 22 Q. Did he raise his voice? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. When Mr. Tyree made these comments, you were 25 in the conference room; is that correct?	Page 43 1 Q. Aside from the discussions you've recounted 2 so far, do you recall any other discussions that 3 evening at the printer? 4 A. Not specifically. 5 Q. Do you remember when in the evening or in the 6 morning hours you and Mr. Bornstein left the printer? 7 Was it the following morning or was it -- 8 A. It was in the morning time. I'm not quite 9 sure what exact time. 10 Q. Now, Mr. Brockelman, a moment ago you had a 11 chance to review the testimony you gave in 2001 about 12 this subject; is that correct? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And having done that, that refreshed your 15 recollection to an extent and you've testified about 16 that; is that correct? 17 A. To a certain extent, yes. 18 Q. And it's my understanding you don't recall 19 anything else concerning those events? 20 A. That's correct. 21 Q. At the time you gave the testimony that you 22 gave in 2001, did you testify based on your 23 recollection of the events at that time? 24 A. Yes, I did. 25 Q. And does the transcript I showed you, the
Page 42 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. Were the comments directed to you or were 3 they directed to others? 4 A. Directed to others. 5 Q. Do you know to whom they were directed? 6 A. No, I do not. 7 Q. One or another of the lawyers? 8 A. The other attorneys, that's correct. 9 Q. At the time Mr. Tyree made these statements, 10 was Mr. Bornstein present? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein later return to the room? 13 A. Yes, he did. 14 Q. And did you relate what Mr. Tyree had said to 15 Mr. Bornstein? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Do you know how the disclosure issue was 18 resolved? 19 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 20 MR. BRODY: Let me withdraw that. 21 BY MR. BRODY: 22 Q. Do you know how the issue that Mr. Bornstein 23 and Mr. Tyree discussed that evening was resolved in 24 the offering memorandum? 25 A. I don't recall.	Page 44 1 transcript from 2001 contain your testimony, record 2 your past recollection about those events? 3 A. Yes, it does. 4 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 5 MR. BRODY: And what's that objection? 6 MR. CLARE: You only asked him to read a few 7 pages of his deposition transcript, and I think 8 it's improper to ask him whether the entire 9 transcript is consistent with his current 10 recollection. 11 MR. BRODY: Okay, well, I don't think that 12 was my question. 13 MR. CLARE: Or whether it was based on his 14 recollection at that point in time, when he's only 15 had a chance to review a few pages of it. 16 BY MR. BRODY: 17 Q. Have you reviewed the transcript of your 2001 18 deposition at any time within the last six months? 19 A. No. 20 Q. Sir, to deal with Mr. Clare's objection, I'd 21 ask you to go back, and I hate to do this to you but 22 just to read a few additional pages of the transcript. 23 I'd ask you to read your transcript beginning 24 at page 187. I believe you started reading at 190. So 25 just read from 187 to 190, and I'm going to ask you a

Page 46 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And aside from the extent to which it has 3 refreshed your recollection, you do not have 4 recollection of those events; is that correct? 5 A. That's correct. 6 Q. At the time you testified in 2001, the events 7 were sufficiently fresh in your memory that your 8 testimony was, to your knowledge, true and correct? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. And does those pages from Exhibit 116 11 correctly reflect the testimony you gave in 2001 12 concerning the events at the printer? 13 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 14 THE WITNESS: Yes. 15 BY MR. BRODY: 16 Q. Sir, after the, after you gave your testimony 17 in 2001, do you know if you had an opportunity to 18 review the transcript? 19 A. It was provided to me, but I did not review 20 it. 21 Q. As you sit here, do you recall ever making 22 any changes or corrections in the transcript to change 23 things that were not correct? 24 A. I did not. 25 Q. After the events at the printer, did you	Page 48 1 MR. CLARE: That was marked as CPH 114? 2 MR. BRODY: Yes, I'm going to describe that. 3 I'm sorry, sir, could I have Exhibit 114 back 4 just so I can make my statement on the record. 5 Just for the record, Exhibit 114 which was 6 previously marked is another version of the 7 document I've given counsel a copy of, the one 8 that was marked for purposes of the deposition 9 exhibit, bears a Bates stamp Morgan Stanley 10 confidential 0027048 through 50. 11 The one I've handed to counsel is slightly 12 different dates, but it appears to be the same 13 document. You can check. 14 MR. CLARE: I'll note for the record CPH 15 Exhibit 114 bears some fax transmittal pages from 16 the 2001 time period that I believe were there in 17 connection with the prior litigation. It's not on 18 the copy that was provided to counsel, but I don't 19 think it's material. 20 MR. BRODY: I don't think so either, and I 21 don't intend to ask about that, but thank you, 22 Tom. 23 BY MR. BRODY: 24 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I've given you what's been 25 marked as Exhibit 114. Did you see this at or about

Page 50 1 1998? 2 A. That's correct. 3 Q. And at that time the events were fresh in 4 your mind? 5 A. That is correct. 6 Q. And to your recollection, does Exhibit 114 7 accurately describe the events that took place that 8 evening? 9 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 10 MR. MOSCATO: To the extent you had 11 involvement in those events. 12 MR. BRODY: Thank you for that. I'll accept 13 that friendly amendment. 14 THE WITNESS: Yes, to the extent I had 15 involvement, I confirmed at that time this was the 16 proper discussion. 17 BY MR. BRODY: 18 Q. And by the, to the extent you have 19 involvement, there are certain conversations in here 20 that Mr. Bornstein relates that took place out of your 21 presence? 22 A. That is correct. 23 Q. And as to those, you can neither confirm nor 24 deny them? 25 A. That's correct.	Page 52 1 Are the second and third pages of this 2 exhibit the bring-down letter? 3 A. Yes, it is. 4 Q. And the first and the fourth pages of those 5 just part of the work papers of Arthur Andersen? 6 A. It appears to be. 7 Q. Focusing on the letter portion, the second 8 and third pages, do you believe that was sent to Morgan 9 Stanley on or about March 25th, 1998? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Looking at item E, which begins on the bottom 12 of the first page and continues to the top of the 13 second page, do you see that? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And that item E was intended to amend prior 16 statements contained in the March 19th letter; is that 17 correct? 18 A. Yes, that is correct. 19 Q. And turning to the second page of the 20 document, sir -- excuse me, the third page of the 21 document, page two of the letter, it recites the net 22 sales and net income through March 1997 for one period 23 and through March 1998 in the other period for Sunbeam; 24 is that correct? 25 MR. CLARE: I object. Mischaracterizes the

Page 54 1 A. Yes, I do. 2 Q. Is that information that you had anything to 3 do with collecting? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Net of that $30 million charge, this letter 6 shows Sunbeam suffering a loss of nearly $11 million 7 through the first two months of 1998; is that correct? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Did you have any discussions with anyone at 10 Morgan Stanley about this letter or the subject matter, 11 the contents of the letter? 12 A. No, I did not. 13 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley ever call you 14 and ask you a question about this letter or the prior 15 comfort letter that you looked at? 16 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 17 THE WITNESS: I don't recall. 18 BY MR. BRODY: 19 Q. Do you know if anyone at Morgan Stanley ever 20 called anyone at Arthur Andersen to discuss the sales 21 and net income figures for these months that are 22 contained in Exhibit 112? 23 MR. CLARE: Objection, foundation. 24 THE WITNESS: Not to my knowledge. 25	Page 56 1 BY MR. BRODY: 2 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I've given you what's been 3 marked as Exhibit 117. Do you recognize the 4 handwriting on this document? 5 A. No, I do not. 6 Q. I take it none of it is yours? 7 A. It is not. 8 Q. Does any of this reflect the changes that you 9 personally made on the document? 10 A. I don't recall. 11 Q. Okay. You can put that document aside. 12 After the bring-down due diligence letter 13 that we've marked as Exhibit 112 was sent to Morgan 14 Stanley, do you remember anything else that you did in 15 connection with the bond offering or the transaction by 16 which Sunbeam acquired its interest in Coleman? 17 MR. MOSCATO: Sunbeam acquired its interest? 18 MR. BRODY: Yes. 19 MR. MOSCATO: Sorry. 20 MR. BRODY: That's okay. 21 THE WITNESS: I don't recall. 22 MR. BRODY: Can we go off the record for a 23 second. 24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off video 25 record. The time on the monitor is 10:22 a.m.

Page 57 1 (Discussion held off the record.) 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 3 record. The time on the monitor is 10:33 a.m. 4 BY MR. BRODY: 5 Q. Mr. Brockelman, during this deposition I've 6 asked you a number of questions about the events at the 7 printer. You testified based on your recollection and 8 your recollection as refreshed by your prior testimony 9 and by Mr. Bornstein's memorandum. 10 Are you aware of anything else out there, 11 piece of paper, notes, anything, that might refresh 12 your recollection of what happened at the printer aside 13 from the things that I've already shown you? 14 A. No. 15 MR. BRODY: Thank you, Mr. Brockelman. I 16 have no further questions. 17 CROSS (MARK BROCKELMAN) 18 BY MR. CLARE: 19 Q. Hi, Mr. Brockelman. We met this morning. My 20 name is Tom Clare. I'm here representing Morgan 21 Stanley, and I have some questions for you this 22 morning. 23 I'd like to proceed in two parts. I'm going 24 to ask you some follow-up questions to the questions 25 Mr. Brody asked you this morning, and then I have some	Page 59 1 with your work on the bond offering memo? 2 A. No. 3 Q. All of that information was provided by 4 Sunbeam to you, correct? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. How many days were you in New York, the 7 events surrounding the evening at the printer that you 8 discussed with Mr. Brody this morning? 9 A. Approximately 24 hours. 10 Q. So it was just the one day? 11 A. That's correct. 12 Q. And the work that you did in connection with 13 the March 19th comfort letter, was all of that work 14 done in New York or was a portion of it done in 15 Florida? 16 A. Most was done in Florida. 17 Q. And then a draft of it was brought to New 18 York with you and Mr. Bornstein, and you continued to 19 work on it in New York? 20 A. Yes, that's correct. 21 Q. Was there any work that was done on the 22 comfort letter in New York before you arrived at the 23 printer? 24 A. No. 25 Q. The pro forma review that you had done, did
Page 58 1 additional questions. We might get into a couple of 2 different areas that Mr. Brody didn't touch on. 3 You mentioned to Mr. Brody this morning that 4 you worked on the pro forma financials in connection 5 with the bond offering; is that correct? 6 A. That's correct. 7 Q. Did Morgan Stanley provide any information to 8 you in connection with the pro forma financial work 9 that you did? 10 A. No. 11 Q. All of the information that you received for 12 your work on the pro forma financials came from 13 Sunbeam? 14 A. That's correct. 15 Q. In the course of your work on the bond 16 offering, did you discuss with anybody at Morgan 17 Stanley the pro forma financials that you were 18 preparing? 19 A. No. 20 Q. You also indicated that you verified the 21 historical financial information that would be included 22 in the offering memorandum; is that correct? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Did Morgan Stanley provide any of the 25 historical financial information to you in connection	Page 60 1 any of that work take place in New York? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Again, that evening at the printer, that was 4 part of the duties that you were there to perform? 5 A. Yes, that's correct. 6 Q. Did Morgan Stanley provide you with any 7 information to be included in the comfort letter that 8 was delivered to it that night? 9 A. No. 10 Q. All of that information came from Sunbeam, 11 correct? 12 A. Yes, that's correct. 13 Q. Other than the discussion at the printer, did 14 you have any other face-to-face meetings with anyone 15 from Morgan Stanley? 16 A. No, I did not. 17 Q. So in connection with all of your work on 18 Sunbeam-related engagements, the only time you were 19 ever in the same room as anybody from Morgan Stanley 20 was that night at Global Financial Press in New York; 21 is that correct? 22 A. That's correct. 23 Q. Did you attend any drafting session related 24 to the offering memo other than the one that occurred 25 at the printer that evening in New York?

1 A. I believe that's the only drafting session I
 2 attended.
 3 Q. Do you know if Mr. Bornstein had attended
 4 other drafting sessions related to the offering memo?
 5 A. Yes, he did.
 6 Q. Was Mr. Bornstein in New York already and did
 7 you fly up from Florida to join him, or did you travel
 8 from Florida together?
 9 A. I believe we traveled together.
 10 Q. Do you know if these additional drafting
 11 sessions that you think Mr. Bornstein attended, can you
 12 place them in time to the evening at the print shop
 13 that we've been discussing?
 14 A. It preceded.
 15 Q. For some number of days?
 16 A. Certainly.
 17 Q. And Mr. Bornstein had then returned to 18 Florida to your recollection and then you traveled up
 19 together?
 20 MR. BRODY: Objection to foundation, form.
 21 THE WITNESS: Yes, that's correct.
 22 BY MR. CLARE:
 23 Q. If you have the exhibits that Mr. Brody
 24 marked this morning in front of you, I'd like you to 25 look at CPH Exhibit 115.

1 Do you have that in front of you?
 2 A. Yes, I do.
 3 Q. You've already testified about the
 4 handwriting on the document. There is a fax line on 5 CPH Exhibit 115 which indicates that it was faxed from 6 Global Financial Press in New York.
 7 Do you recall that evening a draft of the 8 comfort letter being faxed to somebody else that wasn't
 9 there that night?
 10 A. Yes.
 11 Q. Do you know who CPH Exhibit 115 was faxed to 12 that night?
 13 A. It was either Phil Harlow or Bill Pruitt. I
 14 don't recall which one, but it was a two-way partner
 15 with Arthur Andersen.
 16 Q. To your recollection, were there multiple 17 copies of the comfort letter that were faxed to 18 partners at Arthur Andersen that evening or was it one
 19 draft as reflected here in CPH 115?
 20 A. I don't recall.
 21 Q. You don't remember there being a series of 22 them, but you do remember the fact that a draft was at 23 one point faxed to a partner at Arthur Andersen?
 24 A. That's correct, yes.
 25 Q. What was the purpose, to the best of your

Page 63

1 recollection, in faxing a draft of the comfort letter
 2 to either Mr. Harlow or to Mr. Pruitt?
 3 A. For their review of the changes that we made
 4 that night.
 5 Q. Mr. Bornstein was the person in charge on 6 site, correct?
 7 A. That is correct.
 8 Q. And you were junior to him at that point?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. You testified that Mr. Bornstein had 11 authorization to sign the comfort letter on behalf of 12 Arthur Andersen; is that correct?
 13 A. Yes.
 14 Q. And you were present when he signed it?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 Q. And you signed it there in the offices of 17 Global Financial Press in New York, correct?
 18 A. Yes.
 19 Q. You indicated that Mr. Bornstein had 20 authorization from a partner or the partners to sign
 21 the comfort letter; is that correct?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. Is it, is partner authorization required
 24 under the rules of Arthur Andersen internal procedures
 25 before a comfort letter like the one that was delivered

Page 64

1 to Morgan Stanley can be signed and delivered?
 2 A. Yes, it is.
 3 Q. Do you have an understanding as to why
 4 partner authorization is required?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. Can you tell me why?
 7 A. Certainly. Partners are the only people
 8 allowed to sign opinions or reports, and having 9 authorization basically is as if the partner is 10 signing, you're signing in their place.
 11 Q. So the comfort letter that was delivered to 12 Morgan Stanley on March 19th, 1998, was considered to 13 be an opinion or report that required partner approval
 14 at Arthur Andersen within the internal procedures?
 15 A. Yes, that's correct.
 16 Q. And without that authorization or approval,
 17 Mr. Bornstein could not have signed it on behalf of 18 Arthur Andersen?
 19 A. Well, I don't know if he could not, but it
 20 would be against our internal control procedures if he 21 had signed on behalf.
 22 Q. And that's because a comfort letter like the 23 one that was delivered to Morgan Stanley is deemed to 24 be an opinion or report of Arthur Andersen?
 25 A. Yes, that's correct.

Page 65 1 Q. That's why it requires partner approval? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. That evening at the printer you indicated 4 that you reviewed the financial information contained 5 in the offering memo. 6 Did you review any of the narrative portions 7 of the offering memo as well? 8 A. No. Only the numerical information. 9 Q. We'll look at some documents in a few minutes 10 and I'll get you to go through and maybe you can 11 identify for us the sections that you looked at. That 12 will probably be a more efficient way to proceed. 13 I'd like you to look at CPH Exhibit 114 that 14 Mr. Brody showed you this morning, a copy of 15 Mr. Bornstein's March 31st, 1998, memo. 16 Do you have that in front of you? 17 A. Yes, I do. 18 Q. And you testified that to the best of your 19 knowledge, this is an accurate account of the events of 20 that evening; is that correct? 21 A. At that time, best of my knowledge, yes, 22 correct. 23 Q. But if I understand your testimony correctly, 24 CPH Exhibit 114 makes reference to a number of 25 conversations and telephone conversations that you were	Page 67 1 Q. Were you part of any of those discussions? 2 A. No, I was not. 3 Q. The second paragraph talks about Sunbeam 4 having issued a press release. And I believe you 5 testified this morning, previously testified that you 6 had no involvement or discussion in any of the meetings 7 or telephone conferences that led to the issuance of 8 the press release; is that correct? 9 A. That's correct. 10 Q. Third paragraph talks about the evening of 11 March 19th and the drafting session at Global Financial 12 Press in New York. And that we've talked about some 13 this morning and we'll talk about a little bit more, 14 that you were present for at least portions of the 15 discussions that took place there? 16 A. Yes, that is correct. 17 Q. And the fourth paragraph makes reference to a 18 telephone conversation between Mr. Bornstein and 19 Mr. Harlow. And it appears that that conversation took 20 place on the evening of March 19th while Mr. Bornstein 21 and you were at the print shop. 22 Were you part of that conversation that 23 Mr. Bornstein is recording here with Mr. Harlow? 24 A. No, I was not. 25 Q. Am I correct that Mr. Bornstein called
Page 66 1 not a party to; is that right? 2 A. That's correct. 3 Q. And do you have any basis one way or the 4 other to say or comment on the accuracy of CPH 5 Exhibit 114 with regard to those conversations that you 6 were not a part of? 7 A. No. 8 Q. So to the extent that CPH 114 reflects those 9 conversations, you can't comment one way or the other 10 as to whether or not it's accurate? 11 A. That's correct. 12 Q. And we would have to ask Mr. Bornstein about 13 those conversations to the extent that he was a party 14 to them? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. I'd like to look at CPH Exhibit 114 in a 17 little bit of detail and understand which of the 18 conversations that you were present for and which ones 19 you weren't. 20 There is a reference to some post audit 21 review work in the first paragraph where conversations 22 with Mr. Gluck, Mr. Harlow, and Mr. Pruitt preceding 23 the events of March 19th. 24 Do you see that? 25 A. Yes, I do.	Page 68 1 Mr. Harlow or spoke with Mr. Harlow from the print shop 2 that evening? 3 A. That's what Mr. Bornstein told me. 4 Q. Did you see Mr. Bornstein on the phone that 5 evening? 6 A. He left the room and told me he was going to 7 call, but I did not see him on the phone. 8 Q. Okay. And you don't know who he was talking 9 to or have any knowledge about what was said on that 10 telephone call? 11 A. That's correct. 12 Q. You were not only not on the line for the 13 phone call, but you were not even in the same room with 14 Mr. Bornstein when he was on the phone? 15 A. That's correct. 16 Q. So you couldn't even hear what Mr. Bornstein 17 was saying on his half of the conversation? 18 A. That's correct. 19 Q. There is a reference in that same paragraph 20 to a conversation, a telephone conversation between 21 Mr. Harlow, Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Gluck that evening. 22 Were you a part of that telephone 23 conversation? 24 A. No, I was not. 25 Q. Was that part of the telephone conversation

Page 69 1 that Mr. Bornstein told you he was placing that 2 evening? 3 A. That's what Mr. Bornstein told me, yes. 4 Q. Did he tell you this the night of March 19th? 5 In other words, did he come back into the 6 room and said, "I just spoke with Mr. Harlow and 7 Mr. Gluck," or was it at some point after? 8 A. He told me that night. 9 Q. There is references here to conversations 10 that took place between Mr. Harlow, Mr. Fanin, 11 Mr. Kersh, and Janet Kelly, and it's unclear from the 12 memo whether Mr. Bornstein was even a part of those 13 conversations. 14 On the night of March 19th, were you part of 15 any conversation or telephone conversation with 16 Mr. Harlow, Mr. Fanin, Mr. Kersh or Miss Kelly? 17 A. No. 18 Q. So you can't testify one way or the other 19 whether or not the conversation that's reflected here 20 in CPH 114 that relate to those individuals is accurate 21 or correct? 22 A. That's correct. 23 Q. And there is a reference here about 24 Mr. Harlow being advised something about Mr. Izzi. I 25 think that's a typo error. I think it's Mr. Uzzi.	Page 71 1 your mind as you sit here today some recollection of 2 the events of March 19th, correct? 3 A. That's correct. 4 Q. And that recollection was refreshed to some 5 extent by some of the materials that Mr. Brody showed 6 you; is that correct? 7 A. I agree. 8 Q. Okay. Is there anything else that you 9 remember currently about the events of that evening 10 that we haven't discussed this evening? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Now, Mr. Brody showed you a deposition 13 transcript from -- 14 (Thereupon, a cellphone rang.) 15 MR. CLARE: Let's go off the record. 16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off video 17 record. The time on the monitor is 10:50 a.m. 18 (Discussion held off the record.) 19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 20 record. The time on the monitor, 10:52 a.m. 21 BY MR. CLARE: 22 Q. Thank you, Mr. Brockelman. Before the break, 23 I was about to ask you about your prior deposition. 24 Mr. Brody showed you a transcript from 25 January 2001, and you recall giving that deposition?
Page 70 1 But you have no recollection of any 2 discussion with Mr. Uzzi that night? 3 A. That's correct. 4 Q. Now Mr. Brody showed you a copy of your 5 deposition transcript from 2001, and you indicated that 6 the pages he referred you to refreshed your 7 recollection to an extent. 8 And I just want to understand as you sit here 9 today in 2004, are there any other -- have we exhausted 10 the extent of your recollection of that evening at the 11 print shop, even as refreshed by your deposition 12 testimony that Mr. Brody showed you and also the 13 memorandum that we just looked at, CPH 114? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. So even as refreshed, you are unable to 16 testify today or presumably at any point in the future 17 from your current recollection about any additional 18 detail or events from that evening; is that correct? 19 MR. BRODY: Object to the form. 20 MR. MOSCATO: Wait a minute, I object, 21 because I don't understand the question. 22 BY MR. CLARE: 23 Q. Okay, let me withdraw and make, ask a better 24 question. I don't intend to confuse. 25 What I'm trying to understand is you have in	Page 72 1 A. Yes, I do. 2 Q. Do you recall that it was multiple days? It 3 was a two-day deposition? 4 A. Yes, I do. 5 Q. Other than those two days of deposition 6 testimony, were you ever deposed in any other 7 proceeding relating to Sunbeam-related work? 8 A. No, I was not. 9 Q. And other than that deposition testimony, 10 have you brought in any other sworn testimony in any 11 other setting about your Sunbeam-related work? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Or submitted any sworn written declarations 14 or affidavits? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Have you ever been asked to provide a sworn 17 written declaration relating to your Sunbeam-related 18 work? 19 A. No. 20 Q. Were you ever interviewed by the SEC or any 21 other law enforcement authority related to your 22 Sunbeam-related work? 23 A. No. 24 Q. What did you do to prepare for your 25 deposition today?

1 A. Nothing. I was provided a package by Mike
2 Moscato, but I reviewed it maybe in about two minutes
3 and didn't take much time, quite honestly.
4 Q. Did you review any of your prior deposition
5 testimony, either the portion that Mr. Brody showed you
6 this morning or any other portion?
7 A. No, I did not.
8 Q. In preparing for your deposition, did you
9 speak with anybody from Mr. Brody's firm, Jenner &
10 Block, in Chicago?
11 A. No, I did not.
12 Q. Have you spoken with anyone from Mr. Brody's
13 firm at any time this year or last year in 2003?
14 A. No, I did not.
15 Q. Does Mr. Bornstein also work at American
16 Media?
17 A. No.
18 Q. At one point did he?
19 A. Yes.
20 Q. And you worked with him?
21 A. Yes, that is correct.
22 Q. We'll have a chance to talk with 23 Mr. Bornstein separately.
24 When did Mr. Bornstein leave American Media?
25 A. Approximately four and a half months ago.

Page 74

1 Q. And while he was at American Media, what
2 position did you have?
3 A. He was the vice-president, general manager of 4 American Media.
5 Q. Did you report to him?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Were you equal within the company?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. When was the last time you spoke with
10 Mr. Bornstein?
11 A. Last night at about 10:30.
12 Q. About your deposition today?
13 A. No. We maintain friendly relationships.
14 Q. When was the last time you spoke to 15 Mr. Bornstein about the work that the two of you did on 16 Sunbeam-related matters?
17 A. I don't recall. We did talk that we both 18 were being deposed, but we didn't talk about the actual
19 events on Sunbeam.
20 Q. So other than the fact that you both were,
21 had been asked to be deposed in this lawsuit, there was 22 no discussion with you and Mr. Bornstein about the 23 events that took place in 1998 that you were a part of?
24 A. I'm sure there were. I don't recall any 25 discussions, but I'm sure we had some discussion since

Page 75

1 then, but nothing specifically that I recall.
2 Q. As you sit here today, you don't remember any
3 discussion with Mr. Bornstein about the night at the 4 printer's specifically, since 1998?
5 A. That's correct.
6 Q. And in the discussion that had you with 7 Mr. Bornstein last evening, any discussion of events of 8 1998 in any way?
9 A. No.
10 Q. You're a certified public accountant in 11 Illinois?
12 A. I believe my -- it's lapsed. I haven't had 13 the proper CPE credit, so I need to have that renewed.
14 Q. So it's on basically an inactive status?
15 A. Exactly, yes.
16 Q. But you are licensed as a certified public
17 accountant?
18 A. Yes, that's correct.
19 Q. And you went to Andersen directly after 20 college?
21 A. Yes, that's correct.
22 Q. And you worked at Andersen for eight years,
23 approximately?
24 A. Approximately, yes.
25 Q. Started off as a staff accountant and then

Page 76

1 were promoted through the ranks as you described for
2 Mr. Brody?
3 A. Yes, correct, to manager.
4 Q. And while you were at Andersen, did you think
5 it was a good company?
6 A. Absolutely.
7 Q. Did you think it was an ethical company?
8 A. Absolutely.
9 Q. You thought the people you worked with were 10 competent?
11 A. Very.
12 Q. And you thought the company did good work in 13 serving its clients?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. While you were at Andersen, did you have an 16 opinion about Andersen's reputation for competence?
17 A. Yes, I felt we had the best reputation.
18 Q. Did you form an opinion about Andersen's
19 reputation for integrity?
20 A. Yes, extremely high.
21 Q. So you felt that Andersen had a strong
22 reputation for integrity and competence?
23 A. Yes, certainly.
24 Q. And in 1998 while you were working on the 25 Sunbeam-related engagements that we discussed, you had

Page 77 1 the title of manager, correct, for a portion of it at 2 least? 3 A. I'm sorry, for the restatement work or for 4 the -- 5 Q. Well -- 6 A. During the restatement work I was promoted to 7 manager, but during the offering memorandum, I was 8 senior. 9 Q. Senior -- 10 A. I was a senior accountant. 11 Q. Okay, thank you for that clarification. 12 At the time that you were at Sunbeam, did 13 you -- I'm sorry, withdraw, strike that. 14 At the time that you were at Andersen working 15 on Sunbeam-related engagements, were you, did you have 16 aspirations to become a partner at Andersen? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And that's what you were working towards? 19 A. At the time, yes. 20 Q. And when you were promoted to manager in 21 1998, you had managerial tasks, internal firm 22 administrative tasks in addition to client-related 23 work; is that correct? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Did you have similar internal	Page 79 1 A. No. 2 Q. Or knowingly damage Andersen's integrity? 3 A. No. 4 Q. What does it mean for, at the time that you 5 were working at Andersen, what did it mean for Andersen 6 to consent? Is that a term that's familiar to you? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Can you explain to me what that means in your 9 own words? 10 A. Consent in context with an opinion or a 11 letter means that we give the authorization to release 12 that opinion or letter in a filing. 13 Q. And the comfort letter that we've been 14 describing, the March 19th, is that a form of consent? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. And there are procedures that have to be 17 followed before a consent can be issued by Andersen? 18 A. Yes, there are. 19 Q. And partner approval is required for the 20 reasons we talked about earlier? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. In the circumstances of the comfort letter, 23 is a concurring partner approval required for that type 24 of a consent? 25 A. For consents, yes.
Page 78 1 management-related tasks when you were a senior? In 2 other words, did you supervise other Andersen personnel 3 on client-related engagements? 4 Did you do reviews for other people? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. That type of work? 7 And in 1997 and in 1998 your responsibilities 8 included -- would you agree that your responsibilities 9 included carrying out client-related work in a 10 professionally competent manner? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. And following Andersen's internal policies 13 and procedures? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Protecting Andersen's reputation that you 16 described? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And protecting Andersen's integrity? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. While at Anderson, did you ever knowingly 21 take any action that violated Andersen's internal 22 policies or procedures? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Or take any action that, where you would 25 knowingly damage Andersen's reputation?	Page 80 1 Q. Do you recall who the concurring partner was 2 for the comfort letters that we've been discussing? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Who was that? 5 A. Bill Pruitt. 6 Q. Mr. Harlow was the partner and Mr. Pruitt was 7 the concurring partner? 8 A. That is correct. 9 Q. And the reason that a concurring partner 10 approval is also required is because it's important 11 when Andersen issues a consent? 12 A. A consent or opinion, any kind of report to 13 have a concurring partner for internal control 14 purposes. 15 Q. The reason is because it's a statement that's 16 being made on behalf of Arthur Andersen? 17 MR. BRODY: Object to the form. 18 BY MR. CLARE: 19 Q. Is that fair? 20 A. Yes, that's fair. 21 Q. And in issuing a consent, is it fair to say 22 that Anderson would want to know how its financial 23 statements or how the opinion -- let me withdraw that. 24 In issuing a consent, is it fair to say that 25 Andersen wants to be informed as to how its opinion is

Page 82 1 own, a similar memo to the one that Mr. Bornstein 2 prepared describing the events of that evening at the 3 print shop? 4 A. No, I did not. 5 Q. Did you take any notes or make any record of 6 it in any way in March or thereafter? 7 A. No. 8 Q. In '98? 9 A. No. 10 Q. Have you seen in your time at Andersen either 11 on your work on the restatement or on any other work 12 any other documentation of the events of that evening 13 other than Mr. Bornstein's March 31st, '98 memo? 14 A. No. 15 Q. I want to go back and talk in a little bit 16 more detail about the events of that afternoon and into 17 the evening, and I'm going to try to take it one step 18 at a time, just to make sure that we've exhausted your 19 knowledge and recollection of those events. 20 You testified that the first mention that you 21 heard of a Sunbeam press release was on a news show in 22 Mr. Bornstein's hotel room? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And this was, do you remember what time of 25 day this was?	Page 84 1 A. Generally, yes. 2 Q. Do you remember whether the news account that 3 you heard in the hotel room also included any 4 information about how first quarter 1998 sales might 5 relate to first quarter 1997 sales? 6 Do you remember whether that was a part of 7 the news report that you heard? 8 A. I don't recall. 9 Q. You don't know one way or the other? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Was there any mention of Morgan Stanley in 12 the news report? 13 A. I don't recall any mention. 14 Q. Was there any mention of the bond offering? 15 A. I don't recall any mention. 16 Q. Any mention of the pending acquisitions that 17 related to the bond offering? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Did the news report include a report on how 20 the market was reacting to the news? 21 A. Not that I recall. 22 Q. Do you remember independently how the market 23 was reacting to the news? 24 A. No. 25 Q. Are you aware generally that the stock of

Page 85 1 Sunbeam was trading down on this announcement? 2 A. I didn't have knowledge on that day. 3 Subsequent to the bond offering, I have knowledge that 4 the stock decreased. 5 Q. Based on your experience in the business 6 world, was the kind of announcement that you heard that 7 day good news or bad news for the financial market? 8 MR. BRODY: Object to the form, foundation. 9 MR. MOSCATO: For the financial market, you 10 said? 11 MR. CLARE: Correct. 12 THE WITNESS: For the financial market as a 13 broad or is as it related to Sunbeam? 14 BY MR. CLARE: 15 Q. Let me ask a better question. 16 Based on your experience in the business, was 17 the type of announcement that you heard good news or 18 bad news? 19 MR. BRODY: Same objection. 20 THE WITNESS: Certainly bad news for the 21 company. 22 BY MR. CLARE: 23 Q. Is this the kind of announcement that's known 24 as an early warning? 25 A. Yes, correct.	Page 87 1 the comfort letter that was issued. In connection with 2 your work on preparing drafts, was that information in 3 the drafts that you had been working on? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Prior to the 19th? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. So you did have some information about first 8 quarter sales prior to that day? 9 A. That's correct, as it was in the comfort 10 letter. 11 Q. Had you focused on that issue at all in 12 internal discussions with Andersen? 13 Had you been part of any discussions where 14 that concept or that subject was discussed? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Are you aware one way or the other whether 17 Andersen had previously told Sunbeam that that 18 information about first quarter sales needed to be 19 disclosed to Morgan Stanley? 20 MR. BRODY: Object to the form. 21 THE WITNESS: Previous to the -- 22 BY MR. CLARE: 23 Q. The events of the 19th. 24 A. Not that I recall. 25 Q. You weren't part of any of those discussions?
Page 86 1 Q. Is there anything else that you remember 2 about the press report that you heard in 3 Mr. Bornstein's hotel room? 4 A. No. 5 Q. What was your reaction to hearing the report? 6 Again, we're still in Mr. Bornstein's hotel room. 7 A. I didn't have a basis for reaction. 8 Q. One way or the other? 9 A. That's correct. 10 Q. Now at that point did you already know that 11 Sunbeam sales for the first quarter of 1998 were soft? 12 A. I didn't have a basis. 13 Q. So in connection with the work that you had 14 done getting ready for this printer meeting, you didn't 15 have any knowledge one way or the other as to whether 16 or not Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were -- what 17 they were? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Did you know, as a result of the work that 20 you had done on the comfort letter, that Sunbeam sales 21 for the first two months of the first quarter of 1998 22 were lower than they were in the previous period? 23 A. I believe that was in the comfort letter, 24 yes. 25 Q. That information was ultimately contained in	Page 88 1 A. No, I was not. 2 Q. If they took place. 3 So you don't know one way or the other what 4 Andersen might have said to Sunbeam about disclosures 5 that needed to be made to Morgan Stanley about first 6 quarter 1998 sales? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Did you have an understanding that day about 9 who had drafted the press release? 10 A. Sunbeam. I don't know who at Sunbeam. 11 MR. BRODY: I'm sorry, I'm going to object to 12 foundation and form on that. 13 BY MR. CLARE: 14 Q. Were you ever told that anybody from Morgan 15 Stanley had a role in drafting the press release? 16 A. No. 17 Q. Were you ever told or informed by any source 18 what role, if any, Morgan Stanley had in the decision 19 to issue the press release or its content? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Other than what you described for Mr. Brody 22 this morning, was there any discussions about the press 23 release that took place in Mr. Bornstein's hotel room 24 that you can recall? 25 A. Not that I recall.

1 Q. There has been some testimony that from his
2 hotel room, Mr. Bornstein placed a telephone call to
3 others at Andersen after hearing the news report.
4 Do you have any recollection of Mr. Bornstein
5 placing a telephone call in your presence from the 6 hotel room to discuss a news report that you had heard?
7 A. I remember Larry making a telephone call. I
8 don't recall who he called, but he was on the phone
9 afterwards.
10 Q. Do you recall anything that was said at least
11 on Mr. Bornstein's side?
12 A. No, I do not.
13 Q. And you don't have any understanding or 14 knowledge as to who he spoke to?
15 A. No, I do not.
16 Q. Do you recall that his telephone conversation
17 was about the press release?
18 A. I don't recall.
19 Q. So it might have been, might not have been?
20 A. I assume it was right after the press, after 21 we saw the news release.
22 Q. Did he say anything to you before he placed 23 the phone call like "We have to talk to Harlow about 24 this," or anything that might indicate who he talked to 25 or what his purpose was in having that conversation?

Page 90

1 A. I don't recall.
2 Q. And how about after he got off the phone, did
3 he relate to you the substance of any discussion that 4 he had with the person he was talking to?
5 A. Again, I don't recall.
6 Q. At this point, you're still in
7 Mr. Bornstein's hotel room.
8 Did you have an actual hard copy, a paper
9 document of the press release?
10 A. I did not.
11 Q. Do you know if Mr. Bornstein did?
12 A. I don't know.
13 Q. When Mr. Bornstein finished with his 14 telephone conversation, did he indicate to you that he
15 had more information about what the press release said
16 or what the contents of it was other than what was on 17 the news report?
18 A. I don't recall.
19 Q. When was the first time you did see a hard
20 copy of the press release, if you ever did?
21 A. I don't recall seeing any press release. I
22 might have. I don't recall seeing one.
23 Q. Okay. In all the time that you were at the 24 print shop, spilling over now into the next morning,
25 you don't recall ever having been provided with a hard

Page 91

1 copy, a paper copy of the press release?
2 A. That's correct.
3 Q. Okay.
4 MR. CLARE: Let's mark this as Morgan Stanley
5 Exhibit 39.
6 (MS Exhibit No. 39 was marked for
7 identification.)
8 BY MR. CLARE:
9 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I've handed you what's been 10 marked as Morgan Stanley Deposition Exhibit 39 and ask
11 you to take a look at it. It's a press release on 12 Sunbeam paper dated March 19, 1998.
13 Now you've had a chance to look at a hard
14 copy of the press release. Does this refresh your 15 recollection in any way about ever having seen a hard
16 copy of the press release?
17 A. No, it does not.
18 Q. Okay. Do you recall whether there were 19 copies of it at the printer that evening?
20 In other words, as part of any of the 21 discussions that took place that evening, do you
22 remember ever seeing copies, whether or not you ever
23 actually looked at it?
24 A. No, I don't remember seeing a copy of this.
25 Q. And do you know if Mr. Bornstein had a hard

Page 92

1 copy of it during the course of events that you've
2 described this morning?
3 A. Not to my knowledge.
4 Q. You just don't know one way or the other?
5 A. That's correct.
6 Q. Okay. Does Morgan Stanley Exhibit 39, the 7 press release, is this in substance the press release
8 that you recall was summarized in the news report that
9 you heard in Mr. Bornstein's hotel room?
10 In other words, this was the announcement
11 that was being reported on?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. Does seeing Morgan Stanley Exhibit 39 refresh
14 your recollection in any way about what was being 15 reported that day; in other words, what portion of the 16 announcement was summarized in the news report?
17 A. No. My recollection is the same.
18 Q. There is a contact person at the bottom,
19 Richard Goudis. Do you see that?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Did you know Mr. Goudis to be a Sunbeam
22 employee?
23 A. No, I did not.
24 Q. Do you know who he was?
25 A. No, I do not.

Page 93

1 Q. So as far as you are aware, Mr. Brockelman,
2 that during the events at the printer at the print shop
3 that evening, nobody from Andersen had a hard copy of 4 the entire press release; is that correct, to your 5 knowledge?
6 MR. BRODY: Object to the form of the
7 question.
8 THE WITNESS: To my knowledge, yes.
9 BY MR. CLARE:
10 Q. Was there additional discussion at the print
11 shop about what was being said in the press release?
12 MR. BRODY: What had been said or what was --
13 MR. CLARE: What had been said in the press
14 release. In other words -- let me withdraw that 15 and ask a better question.
16 BY MR. CLARE:
17 Q. As part of the discussions, did Mr. Bornstein
18 or you ask anyone else present or discuss with those 19 present what had been disclosed in the press release
20 other than what you had heard on the news show?
21 A. Mr. Bornstein discussed the press release. I
22 don't recall the exact discussion held, but he did
23 discuss it.
24 Q. Okay. Do you remember anything about those 25 discussions?

Page 94

1 A. No, I do not.
2 Q. Did -- on March 19th at Global Financial
3 Press, did you think that Sunbeam had issued a false
4 press release? Did that thought ever occur to you that
5 evening?
6 A. I had no basis.
7 Q. No basis one way or the other to know whether 8 it was false or not?
9 A. That's correct.
10 Q. Did you have any basis to form an opinion as 11 to whether or not Sunbeam had issued a misleading press
12 release?
13 A. I had no basis except for talking to Larry
14 Bornstein.
15 Q. Did you have a discussion with Mr. Bornstein
16 about that topic, about whether the press release was
17 misleading?
18 A. Larry Bornstein told me he felt it was
19 misleading.
20 Q. What did he tell you?
21 A. That he felt it was misleading.
22 Q. Was there any discussion that had you with 23 Mr. Bornstein or anybody else at Andersen about asking
24 Sunbeam to retract or withdraw the press release that 25 it had issued?

Page 95

1 A. No, I did not.
2 Q. You were not part of any of those
3 discussions?
4 A. I was not part of the discussion.
5 Q. Are you aware from any source whether any
6 discussion like that took place?
7 A. Only through Larry Bornstein.
8 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein tell you that he had asked
9 the company to withdraw or retract its press release?
10 A. That I don't recall. I know he had a
11 discussion with Mr. Harlow relating to that context
12 that I heard secondhand from Larry Bornstein.
13 Q. And he told you, again, secondhand, that one
14 of the topics was discussed as to whether or not 15 Sunbeam should withdraw or retract the press release?
16 A. That's correct.
17 Q. Did you have an opinion in that regard?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Did you have any basis to --
20 A. No basis for an opinion.
21 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein tell you that he felt the 22 press release ought to be withdrawn or retracted?
23 A. That I don't recall.
24 Q. Did he tell you whether Mr. Harlow had a view
25 as to whether or not Sunbeam ought to withdraw or

Page 96

1 retract the press release?
2 A. That I don't recall either.
3 MR. CLARE: Mark this as the next exhibit,
4 Morgan Stanley 40.
5 (MS Exhibit No. 40 was marked for
6 identification.)
7 BY MR. CLARE:
8 Q. Mr. Brockelman, we've handed you what's been 9 marked as Morgan Stanley Deposition Exhibit 40, and 10 it's a fairly thick document. Feel free to take as 11 much time as you want to review it. I'm only going to 12 ask you questions about a certain number of pages of it
13 and I'll identify them for you and give you an 14 opportunity to look at it, but if you want to take the 15 time to read any portion of it, let me know and we'll 16 make sure you have that opportunity.
17 Do you recognize Morgan Stanley Exhibit 40 as 18 the offering memo for the bond offering that Sunbeam
19 was making in March of 1998?
20 A. Yes, I do.
21 Q. And is this the document that you were there
22 at the print shop that evening to work on?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. I'd like you to turn if you would, please, to 25 the table of contents, which is page three of Morgan

Page 97 1 Stanley Exhibit 40. 2 And I'd like you to identify for me to the 3 best that you can which sections of the offering memo 4 that you read or worked on in any way at the printer's 5 that evening. 6 MR. BRODY: Object to the form. 7 THE WITNESS: I couldn't tell you which 8 sections. Again, any historical financial 9 information within here, I verified that night. 10 Throughout each one of these sections there is 11 historical information contained. 12 BY MR. CLARE: 13 Q. Okay. That's fair, and I appreciate that. 14 So if I understand you correctly, that 15 through the course of that day and into the next 16 morning, that part of your task was to essentially read 17 through the entire offering memorandum and verify any 18 historical information that was contained in the 19 offering memo; is that correct? 20 A. That's correct, and also the pro forma 21 information, which of course is not historical. 22 Q. Thank you. Thank you for that clarification. 23 And that includes the entire content of the 24 offering memo, because historical information, 25 financial information is contained in various sections?	Page 99 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. In other words, were you part of discussions 3 where the contents of it, particular paragraphs were 4 discussed or edited back and forth? Was that, were 5 those conversations or meetings that you were a part 6 of? 7 A. Certainly that night there were discussions 8 on the narrative. 9 Q. But prior to that evening, were there any 10 discussions about the narrative that you were involved 11 in? 12 A. Not that I recall. 13 Q. And do you recall as you sit here today any 14 discussions about the narrative other than the one at 15 the print shop that evening? 16 A. No, I don't. 17 Q. Throughout your work on the offering memo, do 18 you remember any discussion of errors or 19 inconsistencies in the offering memo? 20 MR. BRODY: Prior drafts or in the final 21 product? 22 MR. CLARE: In prior drafts. 23 THE WITNESS: Yes. 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. Do you remember any specific errors or
Page 98 1 A. Yes, that's correct. 2 Q. So it's not limited to an appendix to the 3 report or what I believe are the F1 pages that are 4 pages that come after? 5 A. That's correct. Throughout the document is 6 historical information. 7 Q. This was, was this the first time that 8 evening at the print shop that you had seen a copy of 9 the offering memo? 10 A. No. 11 Q. You had seen copies of it prior to arriving 12 in New York that day? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And you had been performing that same 15 function that you've described? 16 A. Yes, correct. 17 Q. Do you have any information as you sit here 18 today about the content of the offering memo; in other 19 words, who supplied the content of it, the narrative, 20 other than the financial information that you worked 21 on? 22 MR. BRODY: The entire document? 23 MR. CLARE: Any portion of it. 24 MR. BRODY: Object to the form. 25	Page 100 1 inconsistencies? 2 A. Nothing specifically, but there is numerous 3 numbers throughout here. And as I would find 4 something, I would make a correction to a number. 5 Q. And it needed to be corrected? 6 A. That's correct. 7 Q. To your knowledge, were all the errors and 8 inconsistencies that you identified actually corrected 9 in the final version of the offering memo? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Were there any unresolved errors or 12 inconsistencies in the offering memo that were not 13 resolved when you left the print shop that evening? 14 A. No. 15 MR. CLARE: We have to take a short break to 16 change the videotape and we'll reconvene. 17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off the 18 video record on tape number one. We'll be back on 19 tape number two. The time on the monitor, 20 11:25 a.m. 21 (Discussion held off the record.) 22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 23 record. This is tape number two. The time on the 24 monitor, 11:26 a.m. 25 MR. MOSCATO: I'm going to run get a cup of

Page 101 1 coffee. Do you want some coffee? 2 THE WITNESS: No, thanks. 3 MR. MOSCATO: Sorry about that, go ahead. 4 BY MR. CLARE: 5 Q. Mr. Brockelman, before the short break, we 6 were talking about errors and inconsistencies in the 7 offering memo. And you testified that to your 8 knowledge, that evening when the offering memo was 9 finalized and you left the print shop, that all errors 10 and inconsistencies that you were aware of had been 11 resolved to your satisfaction. 12 A. That's correct. 13 Q. Now there was this issue with regard to 14 disclosures that would be made in the offering memo 15 related to first quarter sales. Do you recall that? 16 A. Roughly. 17 Q. Mr. Brody asked you some questions about that 18 this morning. 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Was that issue resolved before the print 21 shop, before you and Mr. Bornstein left the print shop 22 that morning? 23 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, I missed something. 24 Can you be specific as to when you say that issue? 25 MR. CLARE: Sure.	Page 103 1 MR. MOSCATO: I'd like to make a 2 clarification. I'm not trying to be an 3 obstructionist. When you use the word consent, is 4 that synonymous in your mind with the conform 5 letter. 6 THE WITNESS: Releasing the opinion report, 7 allowing the use of the financial statements that 8 were referred to in the registration statement. 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. So again, I'm trying to make sure I 11 understand your testimony, that it's your understanding 12 that the disclosure issue that you've testified about 13 was resolved to Andersen's satisfaction because the 14 comfort letter was issued that night? 15 MR. BRODY: Object to the form. 16 THE WITNESS: Yes. 17 BY MR. CLARE: 18 Q. And it's been your experience that the 19 comfort letter, a comfort letter is not issued until 20 all outstanding issues are resolved to Andersen's 21 satisfaction? 22 A. Any material or significant issues certainly. 23 Q. Okay. Now this discussion about disclosures 24 came up in the context of what would be put in the 25 Recent Developments section of the offering memo; is
Page 102 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. There was a discussion that you've testified 3 about regarding what disclosure would be made in the 4 offering memo as it related to the events that were 5 reported in the press release; is that correct? 6 A. That's correct. 7 Q. Had that discussion been resolved and a 8 decision made at the time that you and Mr. Bornstein 9 left the print shop the next morning? 10 MR. BRODY: Object to the form of the 11 question. 12 THE WITNESS: It wasn't a part of the 13 resolution, but I can only assume it was resolved 14 as we gave our consent that night. 15 BY MR. CLARE: 16 Q. Okay. So if that issue had not been resolved 17 and there was still a disagreement between Andersen and 18 the company about the disclosures to be made, the 19 consent would not have been issued? 20 MR. BRODY: Object to the form of the 21 question, foundation. 22 THE WITNESS: Yes. 23 BY MR. CLARE: 24 Q. That's correct? 25 A. Yes, it's correct.	Page 104 1 that correct?. 2 A. To my recollection, yes. 3 Q. Now can you place in time for me when that 4 issue came up in the course of the evening? 5 In other words, was this the first topic of 6 discussion when you and Mr. Bornstein arrived at the 7 printer's, or did it come up in the ordinary course of 8 working on the offering memo that evening? 9 A. I don't recall when. 10 Q. You don't recall one way or the other? 11 A. That's correct. 12 Q. Did you, Mr. Brockelman, as opposed to 13 Mr. Bornstein, have a view one way or the other on what 14 ought to be included in the Recent Development section 15 of the offering memo? 16 A. I had no basis for an opinion one way or 17 another. 18 Q. Did you express a view that evening? 19 A. I did not. 20 Q. Mr. Bornstein did all the talking on that 21 issue? 22 A. That's correct. 23 Q. Do you remember whether Mr. Bornstein 24 objected to including the entire press release in the 25 Recent Development section or just a portion of it that

26 (Pages 101 to 104)

Page 105 1 he was objecting to? 2 A. I don't recall one way or another. 3 Q. Let's look at what we have just marked as 4 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 39, which is the hard copy of 5 the press release. 6 I invite your attention to the first four or 7 five lines of the press release. 8 There is an announcement here by Sunbeam that 9 net sales for the first quarter may be lower than 10 analysts estimates of 285 million to 295 million. 11 Do you see that? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Do you recall any discussions about whether 14 it was appropriate to include that piece of information 15 in the offering memo? 16 A. Yes, I believe our opinion was to have that 17 in the offering memorandum. 18 Q. Okay. And you remember Mr. Bornstein 19 expressing that view that evening? 20 A. Somewhat, yes. 21 Q. So there was no discussion or disagreement 22 between Andersen and anybody else who was present that 23 evening about whether that piece of information ought 24 to be included in the offering memo? 25 A. I don't totally recall, but I believe that's	Page 107 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. Do you recall any discussion at the printer 3 that evening about whether that additional topic, 4 Sunbeam's expectation about its first quarter sales 5 exceeding the first quarter prior year sales, should be 6 included in the offering memo? 7 A. I don't recall discussions on that portion of 8 the announcement. 9 Q. So as you sit here today, you don't have a 10 recollection one way or the other as to what the basis 11 of discussion was about what ought to be included in 12 the offering memo, what portion of the press release? 13 You couldn't differentiate between different 14 portions of the press release? 15 A. That's correct. 16 Q. So your recollection is not detailed enough 17 to permit you to testify today or at trial in this 18 matter about which portion of the press release would 19 be included in the offering memo in the different views 20 that were expressed this evening? 21 MR. BRODY: Object to the form. 22 THE WITNESS: That's correct. 23 MR. MOSCATO: That's a little inconsistent 24 with his testimony. I thought he said that the 25 first part of the sentence was okay.

Page 109 1 Q. But was there any discussion that evening 2 about whether cautionary language like this ought to be 3 included in the offering memo? 4 A. I don't recall. 5 Q. Have you seen language like this in other 6 press releases? 7 A. Yes, I have. 8 Q. And do you have experience in drafting or 9 reviewing disclosures as part of your business? 10 A. At American Media I draft press releases for 11 our company, yes. 12 Q. And you are familiar with cautionary 13 statements of this kind? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Do you have an understanding what the purpose 16 of these kind of cautionary statements are? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. What's your understanding? 19 MR. BRODY: Object to the form, foundation. 20 THE WITNESS: To provide prospective 21 financial information. Obviously the actual 22 results could differ from those prospective 23 numbers you provide. 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. Do you have a view as you sit here today	Page 111 1 A. I believe so. 2 Q. When you were provided with a hard copy of 3 the March 19th press release, were you surprised to see 4 cautionary statements like this in the press release? 5 MR. BRODY: Object to the form of the 6 question. 7 MR. MOSCATO: I'm confused. 8 BY MR. CLARE: 9 Q. Does it surprise you that Morgan Stanley 10 Exhibit 39 includes two paragraphs of cautionary 11 statements? 12 MR. BRODY: Same objection. 13 THE WITNESS: It doesn't surprise me, because 14 there is prospective -- 15 MR. MOSCATO: That's the answer. Just keep 16 your answer short in this connection. 17 BY MR. CLARE: 18 Q. It doesn't surprise you? 19 A. No, it does not surprise me. 20 Q. And the forward-looking statements that are 21 referred to here, the statement about the expectations 22 for first quarter 1998 sales, is that an example of the 23 type of forward-looking statement? 24 MR. BRODY: Object to the form of the 25 question.
Page 110 1 about whether it is appropriate to include cautionary 2 statements like this on Morgan Stanley Exhibit 39 in a 3 press release of this kind? 4 MR. BRODY: Same objection. 5 MR. MOSCATO: I object. I made the same 6 objection as to Mr. Pruitt yesterday, so I'm not 7 playing favorites. Mr. Brockelman is appearing 8 here as a fact witness. He's not appearing as an 9 expert witness. We can negotiate his fee for 10 expert testimony if you want to pursue this, but 11 as it stands now, I really don't want him 12 testifying on matters such as this. 13 If we could keep it to the facts, I'd 14 appreciate it, and I would prefer not to have a 15 fight over it. I would prefer if you can move on 16 to something else. 17 MR. CLARE: I don't think it's necessary to 18 have a fight over it. 19 BY MR. CLARE: 20 Q. I guess let me put it this way, 21 Mr. Brockelman. I've now provided you with a copy of 22 Morgan Stanley 39, which is the Sunbeam press release. 23 Is this the first time that you've seen a 24 hard copy of the press release other than in connection 25 with your prior depositions?	Page 112 1 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. 2 BY MR. CLARE: 3 Q. Let me ask you this way. Do you recall any 4 discussion about whether it was appropriate to include 5 cautionary language like this in the offering memo? 6 A. I don't recall. 7 Q. One way or the other? 8 A. One way or another. 9 Q. Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Tyree had a 10 conversation about the Recent Development section of 11 the offering memo, correct? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And you testified about that conversation 14 already. 15 Other than -- after that conversation took 16 place, did Mr. Bornstein leave the room? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And did he go by himself? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Did he tell you where he was going? 21 A. Yes, to a conference room. 22 Q. And to make a telephone call? 23 A. Yes, correct. 24 Q. Now did Mr. Tyree or any of the other 25 attorneys go with him?

Page 113 1 A. No. 2 Q. Was there ever a point in time where 3 Mr. Tyree or any of the other attorneys who were 4 present that evening joined Mr. Bornstein in the 5 conference room outside of your presence? 6 A. Not to my knowledge. 7 Q. Some your recollection is that Mr. Tyree and 8 the other individuals who were present stayed in the 9 room with you the entire time and Mr. Bornstein then 10 rejoined? 11 A. To my knowledge, yes. 12 Q. You don't have a recollection of 13 Mr. Bornstein having a conversation with Mr. Tyree or 14 anybody else outside of your presence, out in the 15 hallway or in a conference room? 16 MR. BRODY: Object to the form and 17 foundation. 18 THE WITNESS: Not that I had knowledge of. 19 BY MR. CLARE: 20 Q. You testified this morning that Mr. Tyree was 21 using profanity while Mr. Bornstein was out of the 22 room. Do you recall that? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And I believe you said he called him a 25 fucking asshole.	Page 115 1 A. It was the timing. 2 Q. So at least from your perspective, your 3 understanding was Mr. Tyree was unhappy that he was 4 finding out about this at such a late date? 5 MR. MOSCATO: I object. 6 MR. BRODY: Join. 7 MR. MOSCATO: You can testify based on words 8 you heard, all right? Don't try to put yourself 9 into someone else's mind. 10 BY MR. CLARE: 11 Q. No, that's fair. I'm not asking you to do 12 that. 13 You formed an impression, sir, as you sat 14 there about what was happening, right? 15 A. That's correct. 16 Q. And I think you testified your impression was 17 that Mr. Tyree was unhappy with the timing of this 18 issue being raised with him. That was your impression? 19 A. That's correct. 20 Q. Was it your impression that Mr. Tyree was 21 unhappy with the position that Mr. Bornstein was taking 22 on disclosure? 23 A. It appeared to me it was more based on the 24 timing of the events. 25 Q. Do you recall Mr. Tyree using any other
Page 114 1 A. That's correct. 2 Q. Do you recall anything else that Mr. Tyree 3 said besides that phrase? 4 A. No, I don't. 5 Q. Did Mr. Tyree direct his comments at you or 6 were they directed more generally to those present in 7 the room? 8 A. They were not directed towards me. 9 Q. They were directed towards the lawyers and 10 the other people that were present there? 11 A. That's correct. 12 Q. Did you have an understanding or a belief 13 about what Mr. Tyree was upset about? I recognize I'm 14 not asking you to put yourself in his mind or speculate 15 about it, but as you sat there in the press release -- 16 I'm sorry, strike that and withdraw. 17 As you sat there listening to this, did you 18 have an understanding about what Mr. Tyree was upset 19 about? 20 A. Only generally. It related to the 21 disclosures in the offering memorandum. 22 Q. Was it your understanding that Mr. Tyree was 23 upset about the position that Mr. Bornstein was taking, 24 or was it that he was upset about the timing of this 25 issue coming to his attention?	Page 116 1 profanity other than the phrase that you just 2 described? 3 A. Not that I can recall right now. 4 Q. There was some discussion, there has been 5 some testimony that Mr. Tyree said that evening to 6 Mr. Bornstein, "Are these guys fucking with me? Are 7 they going to make their numbers or not?" 8 Do you recall Mr. Tyree saying anything like 9 that in words or substance? 10 A. I only heard that secondhand from Larry 11 Bornstein. 12 Q. So you were not present when that 13 conversation took place? 14 A. Not that I recall. 15 Q. Does that refresh your recollection at all 16 about whether or not there were conversations that took 17 place outside of your presence or in a different room? 18 A. No. 19 Q. There were attorneys there representing 20 Morgan Stanley, I believe you said you thought they 21 were from Davis Polk? 22 A. That's correct. 23 Q. Do you remember the names James Lurie? Is 24 that one of the names of the individuals that you 25 remember?

Page 117 1 A. I only know that by reading the memo you 2 provided me. That's the only recollection I have. 3 Q. Putting the names aside, do you remember 4 anything that was said by any of the lawyers from Davis 5 Polk that evening on this topic of disclosures? 6 A. Not that I recall. 7 Q. Do you remember any comments or statements 8 that were made by any of the lawyers that were there 9 representing Sunbeam? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Was there anybody else present that evening 12 from the printer who was working in the room with you 13 that evening? 14 A. At various times, yes. They would come in 15 and out of the conference room. 16 Q. These would be Global Financial Press 17 employees? 18 A. That's correct. 19 Q. Do you remember whether any of those 20 individuals were present for this discussion about the 21 disclosures? 22 A. No, I do not. 23 Q. Can you place a time frame for this 24 conversation for us? 25 In other words, how long did it last from	Page 119 1 A. Yes, I did. 2 Q. Is there anything else that you remember 3 about that conversation with Mr. Bornstein? 4 A. Not that I currently recall. 5 Q. Did he tell you what he had been doing 6 outside of the room? 7 A. He had mentioned he was on the phone with, 8 with Gluck and with Harlow. That's all I recall. 9 Q. Did he tell you what position Mr. Gluck or 10 Mr. Harlow had taken on this, on the issue that was 11 being discussed? 12 A. Not that I recall. 13 Q. What was his reaction when you told him that 14 Tyree was upset? 15 A. Mr. Bornstein was also upset. 16 Q. Did you communicate to Mr. Bornstein in words 17 or in substance that Mr. Tyree appeared to be upset 18 because of the timing of the issue? 19 A. I don't recall. 20 Q. So you don't recall being more specific with 21 Mr. Bornstein one way or the other about what Tyree was 22 saying? 23 A. That's correct. 24 Q. After Mr. Bornstein rejoined the folks in the 25 conference room, did Mr. Bornstein say in words or in
Page 118 1 beginning to end, the whole topic of disclosures? 2 A. Unfortunately, I cannot. 3 Q. Do you have a, even a general sense of 4 whether this was a topic that was discussed on and off 5 throughout the evening or was it bounded in some finite 6 period of time? 7 A. It was on and off throughout the evening, 8 yes. 9 Q. At any point that evening at the print shop, 10 did you join Mr. Bornstein in a telephone conference? 11 A. No, I did not. 12 Q. There has been testimony that Mr. Bornstein 13 talked that evening with Mr. Harlow and Mr. Gluck, and 14 it's recorded in his memo. 15 And I apologize if I've asked you this 16 before, but you were not part of any telephone 17 conversations that Mr. Bornstein had that evening on 18 this topic of disclosures? 19 A. That's correct. 20 Q. Mr. Bornstein returned, came back to the 21 conference room at some point, correct? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And you had a side conversation with him? 24 A. Yes, I did. 25 Q. You told him that Tyree was upset?	Page 120 1 substance that Mr. Gluck did not agree with how the 2 press release had been worded? 3 A. I don't recall. 4 Q. Do you recall him saying anything like that? 5 A. No, no. 6 Q. Do you recall Mr. Bornstein saying in words 7 or in substance that Mr. Harlow did not agree with how 8 the press release had been worded? 9 A. Again, I don't recall. 10 Q. Do you recall him saying anything like that? 11 A. I don't recall one way or another. 12 Q. Do you recall Mr. Bornstein relaying a view 13 by Mr. Gluck that forward-looking statements should not 14 be included in the offering memo? 15 A. That I do recall. That did refresh my 16 memory. I remember Larry making such a comment to me, 17 but not -- this is all secondhand. 18 Q. Okay. You recall Mr. Bornstein telling that 19 to you? 20 A. That's correct. 21 Q. That evening at the print shop or at some 22 later -- 23 A. That evening at the print shop. 24 Q. Did he, Mr. Bornstein, make that comment to 25 anybody other than you in your presence?

Page 121 1 MR. BRODY: Can we define what that comment 2 is? 3 MR. CLARE: Sure, the comment about 4 Mr. Gluck's view on forward-looking statements 5 appearing in the offering memo. 6 THE WITNESS: No, I don't remember. 7 BY MR. CLARE: 8 Q. So to your recollection, Mr. Bornstein 9 expressed that view to you, but to nobody else, to the 10 best of your recollection? 11 A. Best of my recollection, yes. 12 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein also tell you that 13 Mr. Harlow did not think that forward-looking 14 statements should appear in the offering memo? 15 A. Yes. What I recall now is that Mr. Gluck and 16 Mr. Harlow both agreed that forward-looking statements 17 should not be in the offering memorandum. 18 Q. Okay. Do you recall Mr. Bornstein being that 19 specific with Mr. Tyree or any of the other individuals 20 in the room about Mr. Gluck's view or Mr. Harlow's 21 view? 22 A. That I don't recall. 23 Q. Do you recall Mr. Tyree asking in words or in 24 substance whether Sunbeam would meet or exceed the 25 prior year's first quarter sales numbers?	Page 123 1 MR. MOSCATO: Let me just interrupt. When 2 you say this document, you mean this particular 3 one with this particular handwriting or some 4 iteration of this document? 5 MR. CLARE: Let's start with some particular 6 iteration of this handwriting -- of this document 7 without the handwriting. 8 MR. BRODY: Any iteration? 9 MR. CLARE: Any iteration of this document. 10 THE WITNESS: No, I did not. 11 BY MR. CLARE: 12 Q. Do you recall seeing a document that looked 13 like this the night at the print shop? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Do you remember that evening whether 16 Mr. Tyree provided any documents to Mr. Bornstein or to 17 you? 18 A. Not to my knowledge. 19 Q. Was there a discussion about a schedule of 20 actual and anticipated first quarter 1998 sales? 21 Putting aside whether a document was discussed or not. 22 A. Not to my knowledge. 23 Q. Do you recall Mr. Tyree saying that Sunbeam 24 had provided Morgan Stanley with information about 25 first quarter 1998 sales?
Page 122 1 A. No. 2 Q. Do you recall Mr. Tyree asking in words or in 3 substance whether Andersen had a view as to whether or 4 not Sunbeam would meet analysts' expectations? 5 A. No. 6 Q. Do you recall Mr. Tyree asking Mr. Bornstein 7 any questions at all? 8 A. Only generally, but I don't recall the 9 questions. 10 Q. Do you recall the topics of the questions 11 that Mr. Tyree asked that evening, any of the questions 12 that he asked? 13 A. No, I don't. 14 Q. Do you remember whether they related in any 15 way to Sunbeam's first quarter '98 sales? 16 A. No, I don't. 17 MR. CLARE: 18 (MS Exhibit No. 41 was marked for 19 identification.) 20 BY MR. CLARE: 21 Q. This is Morgan Stanley Exhibit 41. 22 Mr. Brockelman, I'm handing you what's been 23 marked as Morgan Stanley Deposition Exhibit 41 and 24 asking you to take a look at it. 25 Have you seen this document before?	Page 124 1 A. Not to my knowledge. 2 Q. Do you recall Mr. Bornstein making any 3 comments about first quarter 1998 sales? 4 A. Not to my knowledge. 5 Q. Do you remember Mr. Bornstein saying he was 6 skeptical of Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales 7 objectives? 8 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, can you repeat that 9 question? 10 MR. CLARE: Sure. Can you read it back? 11 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 12 was read by the reporter.) 13 MR. MOSCATO: That's a little vague. 14 You can answer, I guess. 15 BY MR. CLARE: 16 Q. Are you able to answer the question or would 17 you like me to rephrase it? 18 MR. MOSCATO: I have a problem with -- which 19 sales objectives? There has been some testimony 20 about some sales objectives, but that's such a 21 broad term, but go ahead. I mean if you want an 22 answer to that question, you can answer it. I'm 23 suggesting it's fairly vague. 24 THE WITNESS: Do you mean comparatively to 25 the prior year as far as --

Page 125 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. Well, I want to start broad and I'll work my 3 way more narrow. 4 Do you remember Mr. Bornstein saying he was 5 skeptical of any Sunbeam sales objectives? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. What do you remember about Mr. Bornstein's 8 comments in that regard? 9 A. I know he made a comment to me. As far as 10 who he made a comment to in the group, I don't recall. 11 Q. What do you remember about his comment? 12 A. That he was skeptical that Sunbeam would be 13 beat the prior year's first quarter results. 14 Q. Other than what you just testified to, do you 15 remember anything else about Mr. Bornstein's comments 16 to you about that topic? 17 A. No. 18 Q. And as you sit here today, do you have a 19 recollection one way or the other about whether 20 Mr. Bornstein addressed those or similar comments to 21 others in the room? 22 A. I don't recall. 23 Q. So as you sit here today, you don't recall a 24 discussion between Mr. Tyree and Mr. Bornstein about 25 Mr. Bornstein's skepticism?	Page 127 1 other time? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Tell me what you remember. 4 A. As part of the first quarter procedures, I 5 know Dennis Pastrano was performing certain procedures 6 related to the bill and hold. I wasn't party to that, 7 but I know just generally that was a discussion leading 8 up to the night at the printer's. 9 Q. Okay. Do you know what additional procedures 10 Mr. Pastrano was performing leading up to the night at 11 the printer's? 12 A. No, I do not. 13 Q. Did you ever discuss with Mr. Bornstein 14 whether or not Sunbeam's bill and hold practices might 15 make it easier or more difficult for Sunbeam to exceed 16 or meet its prior year first quarter sales numbers? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein say what his skepticism was 19 based on? 20 A. I believe he did, but I don't recall. 21 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein say that his skepticism was 22 based on any study or analysis that he had done of 23 Sunbeam's sales trends? 24 A. Again, I don't recall. 25 Q. Or something that he knew about a particular
Page 126 1 A. That's correct. 2 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein ever say to you in words or 3 in substance that it would be impossible for Sunbeam to 4 exceed first quarter 1997 sales numbers? 5 A. I don't recall the exact words he used. I 6 know he was skeptical. 7 Q. Do you recall him saying the word skeptical? 8 A. That's correct. 9 Q. Do you recall Mr. Bornstein saying to anyone 10 in the room that he was skeptical about Sunbeam's 11 ability to ship any particular quantity of product on a 12 per-day basis? 13 A. No. 14 Q. Do you remember Mr. Bornstein addressing 15 comments like that to you? 16 A. No, I don't recall. 17 Q. Did you ever discuss with Mr. Bornstein that 18 evening the impact of Sunbeam's bill and hold practices 19 on its ability to meet sales objectives for the first 20 quarter of 1998? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Do you remember that topic being discussed at 23 all that evening? 24 A. No. 25 Q. Do you remember it being discussed at any	Page 128 1 Sunbeam customer? 2 A. I don't recall. 3 Q. Or anything he knew about the likelihood of 4 potential orders? 5 A. I don't recall. 6 Q. Or anything that he knew about the timing of 7 potential orders? 8 A. I don't recall. 9 Q. Or any conversations that he had had with 10 people in the Sunbeam sales team about the likelihood 11 of future orders? 12 A. I don't recall. 13 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein say that evening in words 14 or in substance that Sunbeam was intentionally 15 misleading Morgan Stanley about its sales objectives 16 for the first quarter 1998? 17 A. I don't recall him saying that. 18 Q. Do you recall Mr. Bornstein saying that 19 privately to you? 20 A. No. 21 Q. In any setting? 22 A. No. 23 Q. That evening at the print shop, did you have 24 any reason to think that Sunbeam was intentionally 25 misleading Morgan Stanley about its sales objectives

Page 129 1 for first quarter 1998? 2 A. I had no basis one way or another. 3 Q. Do you remember Mr. Bornstein saying 4 something to the effect of if Sunbeam is going to make 5 its first quarter revenue number, they are going to 6 make it, because I'm going to be sending people to 7 shipping docks at the end of the quarter to enforce the 8 cutoffs? 9 A. Mr. Bornstein said that? 10 Q. Yes. 11 A. No, I don't recall that being said. 12 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein suggest that night in words 13 or in substance that the bond offering ought to be 14 cancelled as a result of his skepticism? 15 A. No, I don't recall that. 16 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein ever suggest that evening 17 in words or in substance that the bond offering ought 18 to be delayed as a result of this skepticism? 19 A. I don't recall that either. 20 Q. Was there any discussion that you can 21 remember even at a different time period about whether 22 the bond offering ought to be delayed or cancelled as a 23 result of this information about first quarter 1998 24 sales? 25 A. No, I don't recall.	Page 131 1 profanity, you continued to work on the offering memo 2 for the remainder of the evening and into the next 3 morning; is that correct? 4 A. That's correct. 5 Q. Can you describe what the atmosphere of the 6 room was like? 7 In other words, did you continue to work 8 amicably together on the rest of the offering memo that 9 evening? 10 A. Yes, we continued to work together on it. 11 Q. So whatever tension there had been as it 12 relates to the disclosure issue had been resolved by 13 the time the offering memo was finalized? 14 MR. BRODY: Object to the form, foundation. 15 THE WITNESS: I don't recall if it was 16 resolved, but it appeared everything was 17 professional and continued to work on the offering 18 memorandum. 19 BY MR. CLARE: 20 Q. As far as you could tell, was there, were 21 there any other heated discussions that evening other 22 than the one that you've described? 23 A. Not that I recall. 24 Q. Prior to your providing the comfort letter to 25 Morgan Stanley that evening, were there any discussions

Page 133 1 Q. That's what I'm trying to get at. Do you 2 have a recollection of in this case, as opposed to 3 what's typically done, about whether a draft of the 4 press release was ever provided to Morgan Stanley? 5 MR. MOSCATO: You misspoke. 6 MR. BRODY: Object to form. You said press 7 release. 8 MR. CLARE: Appreciate that, thank you. 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. I want to put aside what's typically done and 11 I want to focus specifically on this comfort letter and 12 any comfort letter that was provided by Andersen to 13 Morgan Stanley in connection with the Sunbeam bond 14 offering. 15 Do you have any personal knowledge about 16 whether a draft of the comfort letter was sent to 17 Morgan Stanley before March 19th? 18 A. No firsthand knowledge. 19 Q. Do you have any second-hand knowledge? Have 20 you ever heard that it was? 21 A. Yes, through Dennis Pastrana. 22 Q. Did Mr. Pastrana ask you to send it? In 23 other words, did you physically send it to them? 24 A. I recall that Dennis sent it to them. 25 Q. Mr. Pastrana told you that he had?	Page 135 1 Q. Mr. Pastrana told you that? 2 A. Mr. Pastrana told me that, yes. 3 Q. But you don't have any firsthand knowledge of 4 a draft of the comfort letter being sent to Davis Polk? 5 A. That's correct. 6 Q. And again, no firsthand knowledge of it being 7 sent to Morgan Stanley? 8 A. That's correct. 9 Q. And Mr. Pastrana didn't tell you the 10 individual at Morgan Stanley that he had sent it to? 11 A. That's correct. 12 Q. Or the individual at Davis Polk that he had 13 sent it to? 14 A. That's correct. 15 Q. And you don't recall the context of this 16 discussion with Mr. Pastrana? 17 A. No. 18 Q. About how this topic came up? 19 Mr. Bornstein signed the comfort letter on 20 behalf of Arthur Andersen at the printer's? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And then provided a copy to Morgan Stanley? 23 A. I believe Morgan Stanley and their attorneys. 24 Q. Do you recall him doing that? Do you recall 25 him physically handing the comfort letter to --
Page 134 1 A. That's correct. 2 Q. Did you ever see the copy that Mr. Pastrana 3 said that he had sent to Morgan Stanley? 4 A. Not the actual final draft copy that was sent 5 to them, no. 6 Q. Am I correct then that the only comfort 7 letter that you're aware of having been delivered to 8 Morgan Stanley was the final signed version that night 9 at Global Financial Press? 10 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that, but go ahead. 11 THE WITNESS: The only firsthand knowledge 12 report that was sent to them. 13 BY MR. CLARE: 14 Q. Okay. How did the subject come up with 15 Mr. Pastrana about whether a draft comfort letter would 16 be provided to Morgan Stanley before the evening at the 17 print shop? 18 A. It's part of our typical procedures to send a 19 draft version to the underwriter and their attorney. 20 Q. Do you know who at Morgan Stanley it was sent 21 to? 22 A. No, I do not. 23 Q. Do you know whether a copy was also sent to 24 Davis Polk? 25 A. Yes, yes.	Page 136 1 A. I believe I handed it to them after Larry 2 signed it. 3 Q. Was there any discussion about the contents 4 of the comfort letter at the printer's that evening 5 with Morgan Stanley or its attorneys? 6 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, repeat the question, 7 please. 8 BY MR. CLARE: 9 Q. Was there any discussion about the contents 10 of the comfort letter with Morgan Stanley or its 11 attorneys that evening at the print shop? 12 A. Yes, there was. 13 Q. What do you recall? 14 A. I don't recall the conversations. 15 Q. The comfort letter that you were working on 16 at the print shop, was it a collaborative effort in 17 drafting that document between Andersen and Morgan 18 Stanley or was it Andersen's work? 19 A. Andersen's work. 20 Q. So with regard to the offering memo, Morgan 21 Stanley was working on it and Andersen was working on 22 it together, correct? 23 A. And the company. 24 Q. And the company, yes, thank you. 25 A. Certainly mostly the company.

1 Q. So the offering memo was a collective effort
 2 between Morgan Stanley, Andersen and the company?
 3 A. That's correct.
 4 Q. But the comfort letter, you and Mr. Bornstein
 5 were working on, correct?
 6 A. Along with several other people, yes,
 7 correct.
 8 Q. Several other Andersen people?
 9 A. Andersen people, correct.
 10 Q. Prior to the time that you handed the comfort
 11 letter to Morgan Stanley, had Mr. Tyree or any of the 12 attorneys representing Morgan Stanley looked at a copy
 13 that evening at the print shop?
 14 A. I believe so. I don't recall, though, who 15 looked at it.
 16 Q. Do you recall generally, though, reviewing 17 iterative drafts of it with Morgan Stanley and its 18 attorneys that evening at the print shop before the 19 final version was handed to them?
 20 A. Yes. Again, I don't recall who from each
 21 team looked at it, but yes, I do recall.
 22 Q. Did Andersen -- I'm sorry, strike that.
 23 Do you recall any discussion about the 24 comparison of first quarter 1998 sales to first quarter
 25 1997 sales with Morgan Stanley or its attorneys as it

Page 138

1 relates to the information disclosed in the comfort
 2 letter?
 3 A. No, I don't recall.
 4 Q. Do you remember specifically flagging that
 5 issue for Morgan Stanley or its attorneys?
 6 A. No.
 7 Q. Do you remember Mr. Bornstein doing that?
 8 A. No.
 9 Q. Do you recall what time you left Global
 10 Financial Press that evening or the next morning?
 11 A. It was the next morning. I'm not quite sure
 12 what time.
 13 Q. Did you stay there with Mr. Bornstein the 14 entire time or did you leave at separate times?
 15 A. We left together, but I believe I took a nap
 16 for an hour or two.
 17 Q. That evening?
 18 A. That evening, as I was separate from him for 19 a little period of time.
 20 Q. Do you recall at the time that you took a nap
 21 whether the question of the recent development section
 22 had been resolved or not at that time?
 23 A. I assume so. We delivered the comfort letter
 24 with our consent.
 25 MR. MOSCATO: No, the question was at the

Page 139

1 time you took your nap.
 2 THE WITNESS: My nap followed the release of
 3 the comfort letter.
 4 BY MR. CLARE:
 5 Q. So that issue had been resolved?
 6 A. That's correct.
 7 Q. And then you took your nap, and then at some
 8 point you and Mr. Bornstein left together?
 9 A. That's correct.
 10 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein talk to you about any 11 events that had taken place during your nap?
 12 A. I'm sorry? Repeat one more time.
 13 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein tell you what had happened
 14 or any discussions that occurred while you were taking 15 a nap and out of the room?
 16 A. No.
 17 MR. CLARE: Why don't we take a few-minute
 18 break and see if I can streamline some of this.
 19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off video
 20 record. The time on the monitor is 12:13 p.m.

 25 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I'm going to show you what's

Page 140

1 previously been marked as Morgan Stanley Deposition
 2 Exhibit Number 9. It's a copy of the March 19, 1998,
 3 comfort letter. I'd like you to turn to page three,
 4 please.
 5 Do you recall any discussion with Morgan
 6 Stanley or its attorneys at the printer's about
 7 paragraph 5B of the March 19, 1998, press release?
 8 A. No, I do not.
 9 Q. Do you recall whether you or Mr. Bornstein
 10 identified paragraph 5B to Morgan Stanley and its 11 attorneys as an issue they should focus on?
 12 A. No, I don't recall.
 13 Q. Same question with regard to paragraph 6B.
 14 A. I don't recall.
 15 Q. Do you recall any discussion about paragraph
 16 6B with Morgan Stanley or its attorneys on March 19th?
 17 A. No.
 18 Q. Same question with regard to paragraph 6C.
 19 Do you remember any discussion with Morgan Stanley or 20 its attorneys about paragraph 6C?
 21 A. No.
 22 Q. After March 19th, you returned to Florida?
 23 A. Yes, correct.
 24 Q. Did you recall any discussions with anyone at 25 Arthur Andersen about additional procedures or testing

Page 142 1 period after the end of February about Sunbeam's sales 2 in the first quarter? 3 A. For the first quarter, yes. 4 Q. Okay. What do you recall about that? 5 A. In connection with the first quarter review. 6 I thought we're not talking about that. 7 Q. Yeah, let me ask it this way. 8 Did you get involved in any procedures or 9 testing to obtain information about Sunbeam's first 10 quarter 1998 sales for the time period after 11 February 1st, 1998, which is the period that's 12 discussed in the comfort letter? 13 A. I was not involved, that's correct. 14 Q. Were you involved in drafting the bring-down 15 comfort letter? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. And the sales figures that are reflected in 18 the bring-down comfort letter when provided by 19 Mr. Pastrana? 20 A. Provided by the company to Mr. Pastrana. 21 Q. Thank you. And did you have any discussions 22 or involvement in determining what sales Sunbeam had 23 made in March of 1998 up to the point of the bring-down 24 comfort letter? 25 A. I had no involvement.	Page 144 1 as to Sunbeam's sales for any time period after 2 March 1st, 1998? 3 A. At that time? 4 Q. At that time. 5 A. No. 6 Q. It was not until the first quarter review 7 that you obtained information about Sunbeam sales for 8 effectively March 1998? 9 A. That's correct. 10 (MS Exhibit No. 42 was marked for 11 identification.) 12 BY MR. CLARE: 13 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I'm handing you what's been 14 marked as Morgan Stanley Deposition Exhibit 42, a 15 document entitled Form for Documentation of Referencing 16 Procedures. 17 Do you recognize this document? 18 A. This specific document or the form? 19 Q. This form of document. 20 A. Yes, I recognize the form. 21 Q. Okay. Can you tell me briefly how this 22 document is used internally at Andersen? 23 MR. BRODY: How the form is used? 24 MR. CLARE: How this form is used, thank you. 25 THE WITNESS: An independent person within

Page 145 1 Arthur Andersen will reference the opinion or 2 letter or report being issued to ensure they match 3 our professional standards, make sure they're 4 accurate, and independently verify numerical data 5 in the report, and this form is their 6 documentation of that review. 7 BY MR. CLARE: 8 Q. Does the review that you just described take 9 place before the opinion is issued? 10 A. Yes, correct. 11 Q. And this is one of the procedures that we 12 talked about earlier that Andersen does prior to 13 issuing an opinion? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Did you have any involvement with the 16 preparation of the procedures here in Morgan Stanley 17 Exhibit 42? 18 A. No, I believe Larry Bornstein directly 19 supervised the person referencing this. 20 Q. And the person referencing it is somebody who 21 is independent of the group of Andersen team members 22 who were working on the actual opinion? 23 A. That's correct. 24 Q. Do you know who was the person listed here as 25 the referencer? Do you recognize that signature or	Page 147 1 A. No. 2 Q. You weren't involved in drafting them or 3 reviewing them or providing comments on them? 4 A. That's correct. 5 Q. Do you know who was? 6 A. No, I do not. 7 (MS Exhibit No. 43 was marked for 8 identification.) 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. I'm handing you what's been marked as Morgan 11 Stanley Exhibit 43. It's a document entitled Post 12 Audit Review For Subsequent Material Transactions and 13 Events After the Date of the Auditor's Report. 14 Are you familiar with this form of document? 15 A. Yes, I am. 16 Q. Can you tell me how this form of document is 17 used at Arthur Andersen? 18 A. Yes. If our opinion is to be used in a 19 registration statement subsequent to its initial 20 issuance, this form is required to be used to basically 21 bring our report more current, to identify any 22 significant events or items that might impact our 23 opinion of the audited financial statements. 24 Q. In connection with the registration of it? 25 A. Yes, that's correct.
Page 146 1 handwriting on page three? 2 A. No. 3 Q. Do you recognize the signature at the bottom 4 of the page under engagement partner or manager of 5 Mr. Bornstein's? 6 A. Yes, I do. 7 Q. That is consistent with your testimony that 8 Mr. Bornstein supervised the referencing procedures 9 that you described? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. On page two of Morgan Stanley Exhibit 42 12 there is a reference to management representation 13 letters in item four. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Do you see that? 16 A. In item four? Oh, yes, yes, I see. 17 Q. It says, "If applicable, trace information 18 regarding contingencies, litigation or uncertainties to 19 the financial statements and to legal or management 20 representation letters or other source documents in the 21 working papers." 22 Did you have any involvement with the 23 management representation letters that were prepared 24 for the comfort letters that were provided to Morgan 25 Stanley as part of the bond offering?	Page 148 1 Q. Did you have any involvement in completing 2 the procedures that are described here in Morgan 3 Stanley Exhibit 43 for the registration of the bond 4 offering? 5 A. No, I did not. 6 Q. Is any of the handwriting on Morgan Stanley 7 Exhibit 43 yours? 8 A. No. 9 Q. Was it your understanding in the first 10 quarter of 1998 when you were working on the comfort 11 letters for the bond offering that the bond offering 12 memo and offering materials would be registered and 13 that these type of procedures would be required? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Do you see the handwriting at the bottom of 16 the first page? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Do you recognize that as Mr. Bornstein's 19 handwriting? 20 A. Yes, I do. 21 Q. Okay. Mr. Gluck and Miss Kelly are 22 identified by name here. 23 Did you have any discussions with Mr. Gluck 24 or Miss Kelly about any of the comfort letters that 25 were provided to Morgan Stanley in connection with the

Page 149 1 bond offering? 2 A. I had some discussions with Mr. Gluck. 3 Q. And what was the context of those 4 discussions? 5 A. I don't recall. Mostly it related to the 6 tick marks that I applied on the exhibit, the offering 7 memorandum itself. 8 Q. So these were discussions that took place 9 after the events at the print shop? 10 A. No, before, in the actual drafting. 11 Q. I see. In the drafting of the offering memo? 12 A. That's correct. 13 Q. Prior to going to New York? 14 A. Yes, that's correct. 15 Q. Do you recall any specifics about the topics 16 that you discussed with Mr. Gluck? 17 A. No, I don't. 18 Q. Did Mr. Gluck have a copy of the offering 19 memo in draft form when you had those discussions with 20 him? 21 A. Yes, he did. 22 Q. Were these in-person meetings or telephone 23 conferences? 24 A. In person. 25 Q. Who during that time period had document	Page 151 1 0041651 through 654. 2 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 46 is a document with 3 Bates numbers CPH 0038712 through 15. 4 And then Morgan Stanley Exhibit 47 is a 5 March 23rd, 1998, letter on Sunbeam letterhead 6 addressed to Arthur Andersen. 7 I'd like you to first look at Morgan Stanley 8 Exhibit 44, which is a March 16, 1998, letter from a 9 group of individuals at Sunbeam to Arthur Andersen. 10 Do you recognize Morgan Stanley Exhibit 44 as 11 being in the form of a management representation 12 letter? 13 A. Yes, I do. 14 Q. Have you ever seen Exhibit 44 before today? 15 A. I don't recall seeing it before. 16 Q. Did you have any involvement in drafting it 17 or reviewing it or receiving it on behalf of Andersen? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Okay. Look at the next document, which is a, 20 appears to be a draft of a management representation 21 letter in connection with the Sunbeam bond offering. 22 Have you seen this document before, Exhibit 23 45? 24 A. No. 3 Q. In a typical engagement, does Andersen get 4 involved in drafting the management representation 5 letter for its client? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And have you done that in connection with 8 other engagements? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. But not the Sunbeam-related matter? 11 A. That's correct. 12 Q. You had no involvement in that? 13 A. That's correct. 14 Q. Do you recall any discussion about the 15 contents of the management representation letter 16 internally at Andersen during the first quarter of 17 1998? 18 A. No. 19 Q. If you'd look at the last -- sorry, 20 next-to-the-last page of Exhibit 45, paragraph ten of 21 this draft, it's a paragraph that reads, "Despite the 22 decrease in net sales described in the preceding 23 paragraph, management believes that net sales for the 24 first quarter of fiscal 1998 will exceed net sales of 25 the first quarter of fiscal 1997."

Page 153 1 Do you recall any discussion at Andersen 2 about including that statement in a management 3 representation letter for the Sunbeam bond offering? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Do you recall any discussions with anyone 6 from Sunbeam about whether that was a true statement or 7 not? 8 A. No. 9 Q. About whether Sunbeam management had that 10 belief? 11 A. No. 12 Q. If you look at the next exhibit, Morgan 13 Stanley Exhibit 46, similar draft of a management 14 representation letter for the Sunbeam bond offering. 15 You see there is some handwritten edits. 16 Is that your handwriting? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Do you recognize the handwriting? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Is that Mr. Bornstein's handwriting? 21 A. Yes, it is. 22 Q. Did Mr. Bornstein ever discuss with you the 23 contents of the management representation letter for 24 the Sunbeam bond offering? 25 A. No.	Page 155 1 Do you have any knowledge one way or the 2 other as to why that paragraph was not included in the 3 final version of the representation letters? 4 A. Yes, I believe I have. 13 Q. And when do you recall having seen it before? 14 A. Prior to the release of the offering 15 memorandum. 16 Q. You see that this draft of the March 19, '98 17 comfort letter has a header on it. 18 Did you draft any portion of this document? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Did you draft this first paragraph of Morgan 21 Stanley Exhibit 48? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And do you know to whom this document was 24 provided? 25 A. I believe I provided it to Larry Bornstein.
Page 154 1 Q. Or any views that he had about what ought or 2 ought not to be included in them? 3 A. No. 4 Q. No. 10 Q. And whether it ought to be included in the 11 engagement letter? 12 A. No. 13 Q. I'm sorry, not the engagement letter, in the 14 management representation letter. 15 A. I understand. 16 Q. Okay, but no, the answer is -- 17 A. The answer is no. 18 Q. Okay. If you look at Morgan Stanley 19 Exhibit 47, it's a signed version of a management 20 representation letter dated March 23rd, 1998. 21 And going back to Morgan Stanley Exhibit 44, 22 the March 16th version of the final representation 23 letter, you see neither of these exhibits have that 24 paragraph that we just looked at regarding management's 25 expectations for first quarter 1998 sales.	Page 156 1 I only have secondhand knowledge it was provided to 2 Morgan Stanley. 3 Q. Again, that was the conversation we talked 4 about earlier with Mr. Pastrana? 5 A. That's right. 6 Q. But you didn't send it to Morgan Stanley? 7 A. No, I did not. 8 Q. And you didn't send it to Davis Polk? 9 A. No, I did not. 10 Q. And you didn't provide it to Scadden Arps? 11 A. No, I did not. 12 Q. Did you provide a draft of a comfort letter 13 to anybody at Sunbeam? 14 A. No, I did not. 15 Q. So as far as your own personal knowledge 16 goes, you can only testify about providing drafts of 17 the comfort letter to other people at Arthur Andersen? 18 A. To Larry Bornstein, yes. 19 Q. Okay. Do you recall any discussions with 20 Mr. Bornstein about this draft, Morgan Stanley 21 Exhibit 48? 22 A. Not any specific discussion. 23 Q. Any changes or comments about what additional 24 information to be included or not included in here? 25 A. No.

Page 157 1 Q. You described some work on the first quarter 2 review that you did after the close of the first 3 quarter 1998. 4 A. Not that I did. 5 Q. Okay. You had no involvement in the first 6 quarter review? 7 A. That's correct. Only knowledge of it. 8 Q. You worked on the restatement investigation 9 at Sunbeam? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And you were assigned to work on specific 12 areas by Mr. Denkhause; is that correct? 13 A. Yes, correct. 14 Q. You worked on customer chargeback deductions? 15 That's one of the topics that you worked on? 16 A. Yes, I did. 17 Q. Co-op advertising? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Bill and hold? 20 A. I served in certain parts of bill and hold, 21 yes. 22 Q. Warranty reserves? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Freight analysis? 25 A. Yes.	Page 159 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I understand that you were 3 not involved in the decision to recommend the 4 restatement to Sunbeam; is that correct? 5 A. That's correct. 6 Q. That decision was made by other people at 7 Andersen? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And your role was limited to investigation 10 and procedures in some of the areas that we've talked 11 about and documenting that, providing it to other 12 people at Andersen to make decisions on; is that a fair 13 summary? 14 A. That's correct, yes. 15 Q. In connection with your work on the 16 restatement, did you ever discuss any of those areas 17 with Morgan Stanley? 18 A. No. 19 Q. As a result of your work on the restatement, 20 did you ever discover any information that Morgan 21 Stanley was involved in any way in any of those areas? 22 A. No. 23 MR. Page 158 1 Q. Shipment confirmations and analysis? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Sales return reserves? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Are there any other areas as you sit here 6 today that you remember working on in connection with 7 the restatement investigation? 8 A. Not without refreshing my memory. 9 Q. And you reported to Mr. Denkhause in the 10 performance of those duties? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Can you approximate for me how much time you 13 spent working on the restatement investigation? 14 Hundreds of hours? Thousands of hours? Do you have 15 any sense? 16 A. I would say hundreds of hours. 17 Q. We've seen some time reports, and I'll just 18 represent to you it shows more than 600 hours that you 19 worked on. 20 Does that sound about right to you? 21 A. Sounds reasonable, yes. 22 MR. MOSCATO: Tom, I trust you don't have a 23 lot to cover. 24 MR. CLARE: I do not. 25	Page 160 1 MR. Mr. Brockelman, I've handed you what's been 10 marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibits 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 11 and 54. They are a series of memos you are shown as an 12 author or a coauthor of. 13 Do you recognize these documents, Exhibit 49 14 through 54 as memos that you prepared in connection 15 with your work on the restatement? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Is any of the handwriting that appears on any 18 of these exhibits yours? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Can you just identify for me briefly? 21 A. Which handwriting? 22 Q. Correct, on which exhibits? 23 A. Exhibit MS 49. Do you want me to actually 24 say each -- 25 Q. No, I don't think it's necessary.

Page 161 1 A. Okay. On Exhibit 50 is mine. 2 Exhibit 51 is mine. Let me flip the pages 3 also. 4 Exhibit 51 is mine. I don't know if I 5 mentioned that. 6 Exhibit 52 at the top is mine and at the 7 bottom. 8 Exhibit 53 at the very top is not mine. 9 And Exhibit 54 is mine. 10 Q. As a result of the work that you did on the 11 restatement, did you learn information from Sunbeam 12 that you determined was not previously known to 13 Andersen? 14 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. 15 THE WITNESS: Well, certainly, because we 16 were using hindsight. It wasn't known to either 17 party. 18 BY MR. CLARE: 19 Q. As a result of the work that you did on the 20 restatement, did you form an opinion whether Sunbeam's 21 internal controls were adequate in 1997 or in the first 22 quarter of 1998? 23 MR. Or in the first quarter of 1998? 12 A. At that time either. 13 Q. Did not form an opinion? 14 A. Did not form an opinion. 15 Q. Did you form an opinion as to whether or not 16 Sunbeam had withheld information from Andersen during 17 the 1997 audit? 18 A. No, I did not form an opinion. 19 Q. Or during the first quarter of 1998? 20 A. I did not form an opinion at that time 21 either. 22 Q. As a result of the work that you did on the 23 restatement, did you identify any information to 24 suggest that Morgan Stanley had conspired with Sunbeam 25 employees with respect to any of the issues identified	Page 164 1 don't recall what time that was. It was prior to the 2 acquisition. 3 Q. And what was the purpose of those 4 discussions? 5 A. I don't recall. There is certain due 6 diligence procedures that I was directed to perform, 7 but I don't recall the substance of it. 8 Q. So this was a due diligence that you were 9 asked to perform on Coleman on behalf of Sunbeam; is 10 that correct? 11 A. To what I recall, yes. 12 Q. Were you part of any discussions or meetings 13 that were due diligence performed by Coleman on 14 Sunbeam? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Did you ever talk with anybody representing 17 the Coleman company about Sunbeam? 18 A. Not that I recall, no. 19 Q. Did you ever talk with anyone who identified 20 themselves as being from Coleman (Parent) Holdings 21 Company? 22 A. Not that I recall. 23 Q. Or MacAndrews & Forbes? 24 A. No. 25 Q. Do you have an understanding that MacAndrews

Page 165 1 & Forbes was the ultimate parent of Coleman, at least 2 for a portion of the stock? 3 A. I understand that. 4 Q. Okay. And you don't recall having spoken 5 with anybody from MacAndrews & Forbes about Sunbeam? 6 A. That's correct. 7 Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone 8 from Credit Suisse First Boston about Sunbeam? 9 A. No. 10 Q. Did you know or understand that Credit Suisse 11 First Boston was advising Coleman in connection with 12 the acquisition? 13 A. No. 14 Q. Did you have any discussion or conversation 15 or meetings with anybody from the law firm of Watchell, 16 Lipton, Rosen & Katz in connection with the 17 acquisition? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Are you aware of any due diligence that 20 anybody representing Coleman did on Sunbeam? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Not aware of any in-person meetings for that 23 purpose? 24 A. No. 25 Q. Are you aware of any accounting due diligence	Page 167 1 should be doing yesterday. 2 I'm not playing favorites. This is across 3 the board. These guys are fact witnesses and 4 that's it. That's my basis. 5 BY MR. CLARE: 6 Q. Let me ask it this way to try and avoid the 7 objection and an unnecessary dispute that we don't need 8 to have. 9 Did the thought ever occur to you in the 10 first quarter of 1998 regarding the due diligence that 11 was or was not performed by Coleman on Sunbeam? 12 MR. MOSCATO: Answer that yes or no. 13 THE WITNESS: No. 14 BY MR. CLARE: 15 Q. You didn't think about that topic? 16 A. Didn't have any thought about it. 17 Q. Am I correct that you had no involvement in 18 the accounting due diligence that was conducted by 19 Morgan Stanley with Andersen in connection with the 20 Sunbeam transactions? 21 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry. You have to -- the 22 word with Andersen threw me. 23 BY MR. CLARE: 24 Q. Were you involved in any way with the 25 accounting due diligence that Morgan Stanley performed
Page 166 1 for that purpose? 2 A. No. 3 Q. Are you aware of any inquiries by Coleman 4 about Sunbeam's bill and hold practices? 5 A. No. 6 Q. Are you aware of any inquiries by Coleman 7 about Sunbeam's Early Buy program? 8 A. No. 9 Q. Are you aware of any inquiries by Coleman 10 after the press release dated March 19th, 1998? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Did you understand that as part of the 13 acquisition, that Coleman would be receiving Sunbeam 14 stock? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Did you have a view or expectation that 17 Coleman would or should be conducting due diligence on 18 Sunbeam as a result of taking Sunbeam stock? 19 MR. MOSCATO: I object. I'm going to 20 instruct him not to answer that. 21 MR. CLARE: On what basis? 22 MR. MOSCATO: He's not an expert witness. 23 You can take it to the court. I instructed 24 Mr. Pruitt not to answer a very similar question 25 that was directed towards what Morgan Stanley	Page 168 1 in the first quarter of 1998? 2 A. No. 3 Q. On Sunbeam? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Are you aware that Morgan Stanley had a 6 telephone conference with individuals from Andersen to 7 conduct accounting due diligence on Sunbeam? 8 A. I recall somewhat hearing secondhand from 9 Larry Bornstein. 10 Q. You recall hearing that back in the first 11 quarter of 1998? 12 A. That's right. 13 Q. What did he tell you about it? 14 A. I don't recall, just that they had the 15 conversation. 16 Q. Did he tell you any specifics about it? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Were you involved in any way in preparing for 19 that telephone call? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Were you involved in any way in documenting 22 the telephone call after the fact? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Other than what you told me about your 25 conversation with Mr. Bornstein, did you have any

Page 170 1 Stanley outside of the Sunbeam engagement? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Business dealings? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Do you have, have you ever had dealings with 6 Morgan Stanley as an underwriter? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. In what context? 9 A. I believe they are the underwriter on one or 10 two other deals while I was at Arthur Andersen. I 11 don't recall which deals. I did several while I was at 12 Arthur Andersen. 13 Q. Based on those other deals, did you have more 14 involvement with Morgan Stanley in connection with the 15 due diligence that were performed as underwriter? 16 A. No. 17 Q. Did you perform a similar function on those 18 deals as you did on the Sunbeam bond offering? 19 A. Yes. 20 MR. MOSCATO: Just about finished on that 21 topic? 22 MR. CLARE: Yes, we are. Why don't we take 23 five minutes and then come back on. I think I'm 24 either done or essentially done. I just want to 25 consult for a minute.	Page 172 1 quarter review that was done; is that right? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And that was in connection with your work on 4 the restatement? 5 A. Yes, correct. 6 Q. So it was not contemporaneous with the first 7 quarter review being done? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. It was months after the fact, while you were 10 working on the restatement? 11 A. That's correct. 12 Q. You also testified that you remember being 13 involved in a meeting with people from Coleman or 14 telephone conversation with people from Coleman in 15 performing due diligence on Coleman; is that correct? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Is it just a single meeting or telephone 18 conference that you remember? 19 A. No. Actually it was numerous meetings over 20 the course of a couple of days. 21 Q. And where were the meetings located? 22 A. I forgot where Coleman's headquarters were. 23 Q. Wichita? 24 A. I believe it was via telephone conference to 25 their headquarters.

Page 173 1 Q. So you were -- do you recall who at Coleman 2 you spoke to? 3 A. No, I don't recall. 4 Q. Any names? 5 A. No names whatsoever. 6 Q. Who else at Andersen was participating in 7 those meetings? 8 A. I don't recall. 9 Q. During those series of telephone video 10 conferences, do you recall whether -- 11 A. It was a telephone conference, not a video. 12 I don't know if that was invented at the time. 13 Q. Sorry. Do you recall those telephone 14 conferences that you had with Coleman, do you recall 15 whether there were any advisors to Coleman that were on 16 the call as well? 17 I mentioned CSFB and a law firm of Watchell 18 Lipton. Do you recall them being participants in those 19 telephone conversations? 20 A. Not that I recall, no. 21 Q. As you sit here today, you don't recall any 22 inquiries that were directed to Andersen by Coleman 23 about Sunbeam during those telephone conferences? 24 A. That's correct. 25 MR. CLARE: That's all I have.	Page 175 1 expense reports would reflect whatever reality was. 2 Q. But the rest of the work that you did over 3 the month or two that you worked on the project, you 4 did in Florida? 5 A. That's correct, yes. 6 Q. And on the night of the 19th from the 7 printer's when someone called, I guess it was 8 Mr. Bornstein called Mr. Harlow and Mr. Pruitt, they 9 weren't in New York, were they? 10 MR. CLARE: Objection, no foundation. 11 THE WITNESS: I did know they were in 12 Florida. 13 BY MR. BRODY: 14 Q. How do you know that? 15 A. Just from knowing their schedule. 16 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I'm going to give you copies 17 of several of the exhibits that have already been 18 marked. And we'll just walk through a couple of 19 things. 20 Exhibit 114, which I believe is at the top, 21 Mr. Clare took you through there and asked you about 22 certain things in that meeting and whether you were -- 23 excuse me, in that memorandum and whether you were 24 present when the referenced conversations took place, 25 but he didn't ask you about all of them. I'd like to
Page 174 1 REDIRECT (MARK BROCKELMAN) 2 BY MR. BRODY: 3 Q. Mr. Brockelman, I'll try your patience with 4 just a few follow-up questions. 5 Sir, is it correct to say that in connection 6 with your work on the transaction that led to the bond 7 offering, you only worked on limited projects that were 8 assigned to you? 9 A. That's correct. 10 Q. Prior to that point, you weren't generally 11 assigned to the Arthur Andersen engagement for Sunbeam; 12 is that correct? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. That's correct? 15 A. That's correct, yes. 16 Q. Okay. Mr. Clare asked you some questions 17 about trips to New York and so on. 18 Is it correct that during the work you did in 19 connection with the transaction, not the restatement, 20 but the transaction, you made only one visit to New 21 York? 22 A. I'm a little hazy on that, quite honestly. 23 There is a potential I might have had a second trip 24 before the finalization of the bond offering. I'm not 25 too sure on that point. Certainly my time reports and	Page 176 1 ask you about a couple more. 2 On the first page of the document, the third 3 paragraph that begins with the text "On the evening of 4 March 19," do you see that? 5 A. Yes, I do. 6 Q. You were present for those conversations, 7 correct? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And on the following page, I believe it's the 10 first full paragraph, begins with "Mr. Tyree and 11 Mr. Lurie were very upset," you were present for those 12 conversations as well, were you not? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Okay. You can put that document aside. 15 You were asked some questions by Mr. Clare 16 and by me about the comfort letters. And I believe in 17 your testimony you indicated that typically Arthur 18 Andersen would send drafts of comfort letters and get 19 comments from the underwriter; is that correct? 20 A. Yes, that is correct. 21 Q. And I believe you said that Mr. Pastrana, you 22 learned secondhand that Mr. Pastrana had indeed sent 23 the drafts? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Can you explain the basis for your

Page 177 1 understanding that Mr. Pastrana sent the drafts? 2 A. He told me that. 3 Q. Do you know when he told that you? 4 A. No, I don't recall. 5 Q. Okay. But in March 1998? 6 A. Approximate to the date of the draft version 7 that I was presented. 8 Q. Okay. And after Mr. Pastrana told you that, 9 that was the sort of information you relied on; is that 10 correct? 11 A. Absolutely, yes. 12 Q. Now, I believe, sir, in front of you are 13 Morgan Stanley Exhibits 9 and 10 Mr. Clare showed you, 14 and I think I showed you other versions of some of 15 those letters, maybe the same thing, but let's use 16 those for the time period. 17 Exhibits 9 and 10 are the final versions of 18 the comfort letter from the 19th and the bring-down 19 letter from the 25th; is that correct? 20 A. That's correct. 21 Q. Minus their exhibits? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Did you participate in any conversations with 24 Morgan Stanley in which it was discussed that the 25 information in these letters should be put in the	Page 179 1 A. No. 2 Q. And likewise, on Exhibit 10 at the top of the 3 second page, there are sales and net loss information 4 for '97 and '98. 5 Anyone at Morgan Stanley discuss with you or 6 Arthur Andersen to your knowledge putting that 7 information in the offering memorandum? 8 A. No. 9 Q. After the comfort letters were delivered, did 10 you ever hear anyone from Morgan Stanley suggest that 11 Morgan Stanley would withdraw the offering? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Or delay it? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Mr. Clare also showed you the management rep 16 letter, and I've pulled out of the stack Exhibit 47, 17 which is one of the versions that he showed you. 18 This document is signed by four very senior 19 executives at Sunbeam, is it not? 20 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 21 THE WITNESS: Yes, it is. 22 BY MR. BRODY: 23 Q. For example, Mr. Dunlap and Mr. Kersh are the 24 number one and number two most senior people there? 25 MR. CLARE: Object to the form.
Page 178 1 offering memorandum? 2 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 3 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, ask one more time. 4 BY MR. BRODY: 5 Q. After these letters were transmitted, did you 6 participate in any conversations with anyone from 7 Morgan Stanley in which Morgan Stanley or anyone else 8 suggested putting this information, the information 9 from these letters, in the offering memorandum? 10 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 11 THE WITNESS: The actual comfort letter into 12 the offering memo? 13 BY MR. BRODY: 14 Q. For example, that would be one thing, put the 15 comfort letter in in toto. 16 A. I wasn't part of any such discussions. 17 Q. Or if you turn to the comfort letter, for 18 example, on page three of Exhibit 9 towards the bottom, 19 in paragraph 5B there is discussion about sales through 20 February 1, 1998, and then on page five of that 21 document at the top, paragraph 6C, there is mention of 22 sales through March 1. 23 Did anyone at Morgan Stanley discuss with you 24 whether that information should be put in the offering 25 memorandum?	Page 180 1 BY MR. BRODY: 2 Q. Is that correct? 3 A. I don't know who number two is. Certainly I 4 consider Dunlap number one. 5 Q. Mr. Kersh was an executive vice-president? 6 A. Yes, correct. 7 Q. And Mr. Fanin was the head lawyer for the 8 company? 9 A. Yes, that's correct. 10 Q. And Mr. Gluck was the chief accounting 11 officer? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And they signed this letter that they sent to 14 Arthur Andersen on the 23rd; is that correct? 15 MR. CLARE: Objection, foundation. 16 THE WITNESS: It appears to be. 17 BY MR. BRODY: 18 Q. Okay. What I believe is finally -- Mr. Clare 19 and I have both had discussions about the meetings at 20 the printer and the print shop. 21 Just for people who are not familiar with how 22 transactions like this have a better understanding, 23 when you went to the print shop, were you in the 24 vicinity of the printing presses? 25 A. No.

Page 181 1 Q. You weren't looking at the guys wearing the 2 hats made out of news print stopping the presses? 3 A. Yes, correct. 4 Q. You were in a series of conference rooms and 5 executive offices? 6 A. That's correct. 7 Q. And information was brought to you, copies of 8 draft pages were brought to you for your review? 9 A. That's correct. 10 Q. One moment. 11 MR. BRODY: I have no further questions. 12 Thank you, Mr. Brockelman. 13 RECROSS (MARK BROCKELMAN) 14 BY MR. CLARE: 15 Q. Very briefly returning to CPH Exhibit 114, 16 Mr. Bornstein's memo. 17 Mr. Brody had directed your attention to two 18 paragraphs. The third paragraph on the first page, 19 paragraph beginning "On the evening of March 19th." 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. You indicated that you were present for that 22 conversation, correct? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Do you recall Mr. Bornstein making the 25 statements that are reflected in this conversation --	Page 183 1 MR. MOSCATO: I give up. 2 BY MR. CLARE: 3 Q. Do you recall Mr. Bornstein telling Mr. Lurie 4 that the caveat that the company would still exceed 5 prior year first quarter sales was a forward-looking 6 statement and was not appropriate for an offering 7 document? 8 Do you recall Mr. Bornstein making that 9 statement? 10 A. No. 11 Q. And then on the second page of CPH 12 Exhibit 114, do you recall Mr. Bornstein stating that 13 it was Andersen's recommendation to eliminate that 14 statement in the offering memorandum? 15 A. No. 16 MR. CLARE: Thank you. That's all I have. 17 MR. BRODY: Thank you, Mr. Brockelman. 18 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is the conclusion of 19 the videotaped deposition of Mr. Brockelman. We 20 are now going off video record. The time on the 21 monitor, 1:25 p.m. 22 23 (Witness excused.) 24 (Deposition was concluded.) 25
Page 182 1 in this paragraph? 2 MR. BRODY: Objection, asked and answered. 3 BY MR. CLARE: 4 Q. Well, what I'm trying to get at is you just 5 testified in response to Mr. Brody's question that you 6 were present for the conversation that's described 7 here, but I've asked you a series of questions today 8 about whether you remember Mr. Bornstein making certain 9 statements or taking certain positions, and you've said 10 that you couldn't recall. 11 So what I'm trying to understand is in 12 response to Mr. Brody's question, were you saying that 13 you were present for these conversations or that you 14 recall them exactly as Mr. Bornstein has relayed them? 15 A. I was present for that paragraph, what's 16 being described in that paragraph. Also I confirmed 17 the events of that paragraph at the time this memo was 18 written. 19 MR. MOSCATO: But that's not his question. 20 Why don't you answer his question? 21 THE WITNESS: Yes, I was present at that 22 time. 23 MR. MOSCATO: That wasn't his question. 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. Company Description: Sunbeam Corporation (NYSE: SOC) designs, manufactures, and markets consumer products. The Company had 1997 sales of $1.1 billion and net income of $123 million. SOC's products are primarily sold through mass merchants and other distributors in the United States and internationally. Key product categories include Appliances (25% of sales); Health and Home (8.3% of sales); Personal Care and Comfort (15% of sales); Outdoor Cooking (23% of sales) and Away from Home (4.3% of sales). Wal-Mart (NYSE: WMT) is SOC's largest customer, accounting for about 19% of sales. During 1996, the Company installed a new management team led by Al Dunlap as Chairman. Also in 1996, the Company completed a restructuring and growth plan that should lead to annual cost savings on the order of $225 million.

Investment Highlights

- Company pre-announces sales shortfall for first quarter. Today the Company indicated that its sales for 1Q 1998 may be below "Street" estimates of $285 million to $295 million, but would be higher than last year's $253 million. SOC indicated that any shortfall would be due to changes in retail customers' buying patterns including increased inventory management. While we do not yet know the products that have been impacted, retail customers may have sharply drawn down inventories of electric blankets, due to warmer-than-expected weather. The Company expressed confidence in its full year revenue outlook due to new product launches and confidence in its brand strength. In reaction to today's announcement, we have cut our 1Q sales assumption to $259 million from $290 million, and we have reduced our EPS estimate by $0.04 to $0.28. We are maintaining our $2.00 EPS estimate for the full year for several reasons. First, our $2.00 estimate was back-weighted towards the second half. Secondly, we expect new products to boost sales, along with increased distribution strength from the Coleman (NYSE: CLN) acquisition. The Company should benefit from increased sourcing of its manufacturing in lower-cost Asia/Pacific countries. Furthermore, SOC should realize cost synergies from an increased focus on outsourcing, with a year-end goal of 50% outsourced product versus 30% at the end of 1997.
- Focus on the big picture. We believe it makes sense to look beyond the first quarter's likely earnings disappointment and focus on value-creation through pending acquisitions of CLN, Signature Brands (NASDAQ: SIGB) and First Alert (NASDAQ: ALRT). Post-transactions, SOC should post 1999 revenues on the order of $4.1 billion, versus $2.1 billion in 1997. SOC should achieve at least $150 million in cost-savings in the acquired companies. Additionally, the acquired companies should be platforms for international growth. SOC has a weak presence in Asia/Pacific and Europe, although its Oster brand has strong recognition in Latin America. Combining forces with CLN should provide SOC with a platform for distribution in Europe and Asia. Our 1999 EPS estimate does not include any further acquisitions, although we expect Al Dunlap to pursue additional accretive acquisitions.
- We recommend buying on weakness. After today's announcement, SOC shares hit an intra-day low of $45 3/4, a drop of 8.6% from yesterday's close. That level implied a valuation of just 16X our 1999 EPS estimate. In our view, SOC shares still warrant a 25X multiple of our 1999 EPS estimate of $2.80, a sharp discount to its growth rate. We expect the Company's shares to recover from recent weakness and we believe they can reach $70 over the next 12 months. We reiterate our Strong Buy rating.

Davis Polk & Wardwell
Chronology Prepared in Response to June 30, 2000 Subpoena
Sunbeam Securities Litigation

The chronology below was prepared in August 2000 in accordance with discussions among counsel concerning the response by Davis Polk & Wardwell to a subpoena dated June 30, 2000, served by Arthur Andersen in the Sunbeam securities litigation pending in the Southern District of Florida. It is based on a review of Davis Polk & Wardwell ("DPW") time records and file documents. The time records were in most cases very general in their descriptions of activities and did not provide sufficient detail to identify with greater particularity timing, place, or attendance. Moreover, the time records may not reflect all meetings and conversations that may have occurred during the relevant period. Similarly, the files may not contain copies of all documents, transmittal letters, memoranda, etc., that may have existed at the time. Consequently, the chronology is only a best efforts attempt to reconstruct events based on available information and may be incomplete or inaccurate to the extent events occurred differently than reflected in the time records and documents that were retained in the file.

Pursuant to the understandings reached among counsel, the chronology covers the period from the inception of DPW's work on the issuance of Sunbeam's zero coupon convertible debentures at the end of February 1998 through April 15, 1998. It identifies communications between DPW and Sunbeam, Arthur Andersen, or debenture purchasers during that time.

In addition to the events specifically listed below, the time records indicate numerous phone calls and document reviews, as to which details do not exist, but many of which may have involved communications between DPW and Sunbeam and its counsel, or Arthur Andersen. Because no detail exists, however, it is impossible at this time to provide specific times and dates for such communications other than to say that such communications took place on a regular basis throughout the period.

1 Lurie
2 Q. And where do you reside?
3 A. Hewlett, Long Island, 130 Cedar
4 Avenue, H-E-W-L-E-T-T.
5 Q. And you've given a deposition before;
6 is that correct?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. On how many occasions?
9 A. Once.
10 Q. About how long ago was that?
11 A. Ten, twelve years ago, I think.
12 Q. And what -- that was the Avon matter;
13 is that correct?
14 A. Correct.
15 Q. Have you testified in any kind of 16 court proceeding?
17 A. No.
18 Q. Arbitration, any type of --
19 A. No.
20 Q. -- judicial proceeding?
21 A. No. The reason I stuttered, I was 22 called before a -- you know, a jury. And they 23 asked me questions. But that wasn't really
24 testifying --
25 Q. So you've been voir dired but not

Page 7

1 Lurie
2 testified?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Well, as Mr. Wise has probably told
5 you, as you will recall from your prior
6 experience --
7 MR. JOHNSON: Let's take a short
8 break here for one second. We'll go off the 9 record.
10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're going off
11 the record. The time is 9:53.
12 (Discussion off the record.)
13 (Whereupon, Mr. Marmer joined the 14 deposition.)
15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 9:54.
16 We're back on the record.
17 BY MR. JOHNSON:
18 Q. Mr. Lurie, before the break, I was 19 explaining some of the ground rules of the 20 deposition. Obviously, if you don't understand
21 one of my questions, let me know, and I'll try to 22 rephrase it. If you need to take a break, let me
23 know that, and we can try to accommodate it.
24 The Avon matter where you were 25 previously deposed, that was a matter where

Page 8

1 Lurie
2 Morgan Stanley represented Avon; is that correct?
3 A. That's correct.
4 Q. What do you recall about the Avon
5 litigation?
6 A. It had to do -- with my recollection,
7 it had to do with some language that was in the 8 certificate of designations for the security,
9 which was called a percs security, and what
10 certain language meant is my recollection what 11 this suit was about.
12 Q. And it was a securities fraud case?
13 A. I don't remember what the claim in 14 this case was.
15 Q. Was Morgan Stanley a defendant in 16 that case?
17 A. I believe so. But what was that?
18 Ten, twelve years ago?
19 Q. Do you know how that case was 20 resolved?
21 A. Actually, I don't.
22 Q. Have you served as an expert witness?
23 A. No.
24 Q. Why don't you take me briefly through 25 your educational background from graduation of

Page 9

1 Lurie
2 college to the present.
3 A. Graduated Washington University in
4 St. Louis in 1974. I spent two years working at 5 Irving Trust, in the bank there. Then I went to 6 law school. I went to Rutgers Camden, the Camden
7 campus, graduated in '77, spent two years as a
8 law clerk to Henry Bramwell in the Eastern
9 District of New York.
10 During that period while as a law
11 clerk, I started going to NYU for an LLM. I
12 started at Davis Polk in 1979, I believe. Yeah,
13 1979. I was at Davis Polk through May of --
14 through April of 1998; then went to O'Sullivan
15 Graev & Karabell, which, in 2002, merged with 16 O'Melveny & Meyers. So I was with O'Melveny &
17 Meyers through about -- just about a year ago and 18 joined Holland & Knight a year ago, the end of 19 this June, and got my L.L.M. from NYU. I think
20 it was 1986.
21 Q. What was the area of specialty, if
22 any, for your L.L.M.
23 A. Corporate.
24 Q. So you have -- is it a B.A. or B.S.
25 from Washington?

Page 10 1 Lurie 2 A. B.A., A.B., whatever. 3 Q. And a J.D.? 4 A. And a J.D. and an L.L.M. 5 Q. Any other degrees? 6 A. No. 7 Q. Do you have any professional 8 certifications of any sort? 9 A. No. 10 MR. WISE: He's member of the bar, I 11 suppose. 12 A. Yeah. Well, that's a professional. 13 Yes. Thank you. 14 MR. JOHNSON: We'll have you raise 15 your right hand as well. 16 MR. WISE: Just trying to be 17 helpful. 18 A. No. That would be a professional 19 certification. 20 BY MR. JOHNSON: 21 Q. What titles did you hold at Davis 22 Polk? 23 A. I was an associate. When I left, I 24 was a senior attorney. 25 Q. And you went to O'Sullivan as a	Page 12 1 Lurie 2 Q. Did you review any documents? 3 A. Yes. Yesterday I was shown some 4 documents. 5 Q. Did those help your memory on the 6 events in question? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Do you have an understanding of who's 9 given depositions in this law suit so far? 10 A. I was told that some of my former 11 colleagues -- two of my former colleagues at 12 Davis Polk had given depositions and that there 13 had been others. I don't recall -- if you told 14 me who the other ones were -- 15 Q. And which colleagues from Davis Polk? 16 A. Alan Dean. 17 Q. Right. 18 A. Heather Stack. 19 Q. And did you get a sense of what their 20 testimony was in their depositions? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Have you spoken with anyone from 23 Morgan Stanley about this deposition? 24 A. No. 25 Q. How is it that you learned you were
Page 11 1 Lurie 2 partner? 3 A. Correct. 4 Q. Why did you leave Davis Polk? 5 A. I got a great opportunity at 6 O'Sullivan. 7 Q. Why was it a great opportunity? 8 A. I got to go head their corporate 9 securities, SEC practice. It was a niche firm 10 specializing in private equity and needed to 11 build up their securities practice. 12 Q. What did you do to prepare for your 13 deposition today? 14 A. Really just was yesterday. I came 15 over, met with Bob and Tom, and just sort of 16 reviewed what the deposition was going to be. 17 They -- 18 MR. WISE: Well, let's not discuss 19 what the substance of our discussions were. 20 BY MR. JOHNSON: 21 Q. So you met with Mr. Wise and 22 Mr. Clare? 23 A. (Indicating.) 24 Q. What else did you do? 25 A. To prepare? Nothing.	Page 13 1 Lurie 2 going to be deposed in this matter? 3 A. James Murray from Davis Polk called 4 -- I don't know -- three, four months ago and 5 said it was possible and then called again about 6 six, eight weeks ago and asked if we could 7 schedule something. And here I am. 8 Q. Since you left Davis Polk, have you 9 done any legal work for Morgan Stanley? 10 A. They may have been involved in one or 11 more transactions deals that I have done. I'd 12 have to go back and look. I don't recall 13 specifically. 14 Q. Have you represented Morgan Stanley 15 since leaving Davis Polk? 16 A. No. Not directly, no. 17 Q. What do you mean by that? 18 A. They could have been an underwriting 19 syndicate. They could have been a colead manager 20 in an offering. 21 Q. But as you sit here, you can't think 22 of any transaction -- 23 A. Not specifically, no. 24 Q. Since leaving -- 25 A. There actually was one.

1 Lurie
2 Q. Okay.
3 A. We were representing a client -- and
4 I can't think of the name of the client right now
5 -- in a high-yield offering. Morgan Stanley was 6 the -- was going to be the lead underwriter.
7 Q. And you represented the issuer?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Was that at Holland & Knight or 10 O'Melveny or O'Sullivan --
11 A. It was O'Sullivan.
12 Q. A high-yield offering, a junk bond
13 offering?
14 A. High yield.
15 Q. Those are different terms?
16 A. I like high yield.
17 Q. Who was that issuer?
18 A. It could have been one of a couple of 19 different ones. I'd have to go back and look to 20 see which one it was.
21 Q. And so is that transaction the last 22 time you've had any interaction with anyone from
23 Morgan Stanley?
24 A. On a business level, yes. I mean, I
25 know some people from other places, you know,

Page 15

1 Lurie
2 through personal associations.
3 Q. So you've had personal contacts with 4 Morgan Stanley personnel?
5 A. Absolutely. Yes.
6 Q. Okay. And which Morgan Stanley
7 personnel?
8 A. I'm literally dealing with one on
9 another matter at Holland & Knight.
10 Q. And who is that?
11 A. Fred Whittemore (phonetic).
12 Q. But that's not in his capacity as a
13 Morgan Stanley --
14 A. No.
15 Q. -- employee?
16 A. No -- well, he is a Morgan Stanley
17 employee, but he's a director of another company
18 we're representing.
19 Q. Since leaving Davis Polk, have you
20 had any contact of any sort with Ruth Porat?
21 A. No.
22 Q. John Tyree?
23 A. No.
24 Q. Bill Strong?
25 A. No.

Page 16

1 Lurie
2 Q. Andy Savare?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Bob Kitts?
5 A. No.
6 Q. Jim Stynes?
7 A. No. I presume these are all Morgan
8 Stanley people, but the answer is still no.
9 Q. How about Alex Fuchs?
10 A. No.
11 Q. And other than Mr. Wise and 12 Mr. Clare, have you spoken to anyone about the 13 fact that you're giving a deposition today?
14 MR. WISE: James Murphy, my office.
15 A. Right. And I advised a couple of my 16 partners that I would be out this morning because
17 I was being deposed.
18 BY MR. JOHNSON:
19 Q. Anyone else?
20 A. Not that I can recall. My wife.
21 Q. When you were at Davis Polk -- and 22 the remainder of the day, there are going to be
23 questions focused on your time at Davis Polk --
24 is it fair to say that Morgan Stanley was a major
25 client of the firm?

Page 17

1 Lurie
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. And you personally had worked on
4 numerous matters for Morgan Stanley?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. We talked about the Avon matter
7 already. Obviously, there's the Sunbeam matter.
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Can you think of any other matters
10 that you handled for Morgan Stanley?
11 A. Well, not for Morgan Stanley. I
12 believe Morgan Stanley was the lead underwriter
13 on the Irvine Apartment Communities offering that 14 we represented Irvine Apartment Communities.
15 Morgan Stanley was the lead underwriter. We 16 represented them in the IPO of an entity called
17 TIG, T-I-G.
18 Q. Was that a Transamerica entity --
19 A. Yeah. It was a Transamerica spin-off
20 of their P&C company. Those are the ones that
21 come quickly to mind. There are enumerable
22 others. I did a lot of work for Morgan Stanley
23 in the swap area.
24 Q. So your work for Morgan Stanley was 25 not limited to public offerings. It was M&A work

Page 18

1 Lurie
2 as well?
3 A. I didn't do a great deal of M&A work
4 here at Davis Polk.
5 Q. I take that to mean that you did
6 some?
7 A. Yes, I did some.
8 Q. Can you estimate for me the number of 9 public offerings that you worked on while at 10 Davis Polk.
11 A. Any kind of public offering?
12 Q. Yes.
13 A. Registered with the SEC?
14 Q. Yes.
15 A. Seventy-five, a hundred -- I don't
16 know. Seventy-five. Pick a number.
17 Q. How is it that you came to work on
18 the Sunbeam transaction?
19 A. This is -- it's six years ago.
20 Someone would have come in and said, You've got 21 some time to work on this matter.
22 Q. You didn't receive a call from Morgan
23 Stanley?
24 A. I have no recollection six years
25 later how I specifically got involved.

Page 19

1 Lurie
2 Q. You recall it was in the late
3 February, early March '98 time frame?
4 A. Yes.
5 Q. Do you have any more specific
6 recollection on when you started your work?
7 A. Not specifically other than having
8 been told it started around February 25th, seeing 9 it in a letter, I guess, that we looked at
10 yesterday.
11 Q. That was a Davis Polk chronology?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. So that document refreshed your 14 memory --
15 A. It didn't refresh it. That's the 16 date it said. I still have no specific
17 recollection of when I actually would have begun.
18 Q. But that's not inconsistent with 19 whatever recollection you had?
20 A. It's not inconsistent with the lack 21 of recollection when specifically, but that would 22 be the time frame about when. Whether it was 23 February or January or early February, I couldn't
24 tell you.
25 Q. And when you initially got involved,

Page 20

1 Lurie
2 what did you understand Davis Polk's assignment
3 to be?
4 A. We were underwriter's counsel.
5 Q. Did you have a sense of the nature of 6 the offering contemplated?
7 A. I -- absolute -- I mean, I would have
8 had to have had. We were doing a convertible --
9 zero coupon convertible debt offering.
10 Q. I guess what I'm asking is, Did, to 11 your knowledge, Davis Polk advise Morgan Stanley
12 on the nature of the offering; or was Davis Polk
13 advised of the nature of the offering and --
14 A. You need to explain to me what you
15 mean by nature of the offering.
16 Q. Sure. Sure. When Davis Polk was 17 first assigned, it was already decided that there
18 would be a convertible debt offering; is that
19 correct?
20 A. I presume so. I have no recollection
21 of the timing of the assignment and what we were 22 told.
23 Q. So you don't recall any discussion
24 about how Sunbeam ought to finance the 25 acquisition in question?

Page 21

1 Lurie
2 A. I don't recall any specific
3 discussions.
4 Q. So, to your knowledge, the issue of
5 how the financing would operate had already been 6 decided?
7 A. I don't recall any specific
8 discussions. So I can't tell you six years later
9 how the decision was made to determine it would 10 be a convertible debt offering and who was 11 involved and who made those decisions.
12 Q. But you don't recall Davis Polk being 13 involved in those decisions?
14 A. I don't have any recollection
15 personally of being involved in those decisions.
16 Q. Who from Davis Polk was on the 17 convertible debt offering team?
18 A. The only one I know specifically
19 remember being on it was Alan Dean. I understand
20 that Heather Stack was involved. But to be 21 honest, I don't recall her involvement at this
22 point.
23 Q. How about Nicole Duncan? Do you
24 recall her involvement?
25 A. I don't recall.

Page 22 1 Lurie 2 Q. Do you know who she is? 3 A. I don't even remember the name. I 4 apologize. 5 Q. Do you remember the name Heather 6 Stack? 7 A. I remember the name Heather Stack. I 8 know Heather Stack. I've had dealings with 9 Heather Stack since she's been at Goldman. 10 Q. Have you spoken with her about this 11 deposition? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Have you spoken with her about 14 Sunbeam at all? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Alan Dean was the head of the 17 convertible team; is that correct? 18 A. Correct. 19 Q. And did you have an understanding of 20 Morgan Stanley's responsibilities in connection 21 with the convertible debt offering? 22 A. If you simply mean were they the lead 23 underwriter, the sole underwriter, yes. I don't 24 know quite what you mean by an understanding of 25 their responsibilities.	Page 24 1 Lurie 2 they should conduct? 3 A. I do not recall now six years later 4 what specific advice on this transaction we might 5 have given to anyone at Morgan Stanley. 6 Q. In your prior dealings with Morgan 7 Stanley, was it customary for you to comment on 8 or provide advice in connection with what due 9 diligence would be performed? 10 A. Generally, you would discuss with the 11 people from the underwriters, whether it was 12 Morgan Stanley or another underwriter, the scope, 13 the level, who would do what, who would be 14 involved. 15 Q. But you don't have a recollection of 16 that happening in this transaction? 17 A. No specific recollection, though, 18 again, it -- since it's general practice to talk 19 to them about that. 20 Q. So you assume that you did, but you 21 just don't remember? 22 A. Correct. 23 Q. And who was your primary contact, if 24 you had one, at Morgan Stanley in this 25 transaction?
Page 23 1 Lurie 2 Q. As lead or sole underwriter, what 3 were they supposed to do in order to make the 4 convertible debt offering happen? 5 A. They were going to market. We were 6 going to do the necessary due diligence with 7 them, prepare an offering memo. They would then 8 potentially do a road show, market the security, 9 sell it, close it. 10 Q. And Davis Polk was to provide legal 11 advice along the way -- 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. -- is that correct? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Did -- and this is a yes-or-no 16 question. 17 Did Davis Polk comment on the scope 18 of the due diligence that would be appropriate in 19 connection with this transaction? 20 A. I don't -- when you say "comment on 21 the scope," we did due diligence. 22 Q. Davis Polk did due diligence? 23 A. Davis Polk did due diligence. 24 Q. And, again, yes or no: Did you 25 advise Morgan Stanley as to what due diligence	Page 25 1 Lurie 2 A. Simply because I remember the name, 3 it would be -- John Tyree would be the name that 4 I remember the best out of the transaction. So 5 I'm assuming my recollection is that he was sort 6 of the lead corporate finance guy from Morgan 7 Stanley. So my dealings would have been often 8 with him. 9 Q. Did you -- as you sit here, can you 10 give me the names of any other Morgan Stanley 11 personnel who you dealt with? 12 A. Who I dealt with? I mean, the only 13 other name that comes to mind, as you mentioned a 14 second ago, was Ruth Porat. But I don't remember 15 any specific dealings that I individually just 16 had with Ruth on the transaction. You mentioned 17 a bunch of other names a few minutes ago. And 18 several of them, the names rang a bell, but a lot 19 of them didn't. And I don't remember any 20 specific dealings with any of them. 21 Q. Your answer now, you just said -- you 22 gave a qualification, any individual dealings 23 with -- 24 A. Right. 25 Q. -- Let's put aside a one-on-one type

1 Lurie
2 dealing.
3 What kind of meetings or telephone
4 conferences did you have -- strike that.
5 Give me the names of Morgan Stanley
6 personnel with whom you had telephone conferences
7 or other meetings.
8 A. I do not recall today who was at any 9 specific due diligence meetings, organizational 10 meetings or conference calls from Morgan Stanley.
11 The only call I do recall was one on the night
12 of, I believe, March 18th. And Ruth -- at least
13 Ruth Porat I know was on the phone.
14 Q. Did you have any dealings with Shani
15 Boone?
16 A. Would you repeat that name.
17 Q. Shani Boone?
18 A. The name doesn't even ring a bell.
19 Q. Jean Ewe (phonetic)?
20 A. The name doesn't ring a bell.
21 Q. Lily Rafii?
22 A. No.
23 Q. You mentioned one of Morgan Stanley's
24 responsibilities was to prepare an offering
25 memorandum for the convertible offering?

Page 27

1 Lurie
2 A. Correct.
3 Q. Did Morgan Stanley have any
4 responsibility to determine that the offering
5 memorandum was fair and accurate?
6 A. Under the '33 Act, they have a due
7 diligence obligation, yes.
8 Q. And what did you understand that to 9 be?
10 A. To undertake a reasonable
11 investigation.
12 Q. A reasonable investigation into what?
13 A. The affairs of the company.
14 Q. In order to determine that the 15 offering memorandum is fair and accurate?
16 A. That's a fair way to put it.
17 Q. To your knowledge, was there anything
18 secret or confidential about the fact that Morgan
19 Stanley was contemplating a convertible debt
20 offering?
21 Let me give you a better question.
22 To your knowledge, was there anything
23 secret or confidential about the fact that
24 Sunbeam was contemplating a convertible debt
25 offering?

Page 28

1 Lurie
2 A. I don't recall today anything being
3 secret or confidential.
4 Q. And at some point, they would
5 obviously try to sell it?
6 A. Yes. Other than it was a 144A
7 offering. So you can't do a general
8 solicitation. So there were those Security Act
9 obligations.
10 Q. When you first began working on the 11 Sunbeam transaction, did you gain any 12 understanding of Morgan Stanley's existing
13 relationship with Sunbeam?
14 A. I don't recall those -- any
15 discussions along those lines. I have no
16 specific knowledge at this point. I may have at 17 an earlier date, but certainly not now.
18 Q. Did you understand that Morgan
19 Stanley had been Sunbeam's representative in 20 connection with the acquisitions that were to be 21 financed?
22 A. I recall that they were financial
23 advisor to Sunbeam.
24 Q. And when I refer to the acquisitions
25 --

Page 29

1 Lurie
2 A. There were three.
3 Q. And those were?
4 A. Coleman, Signature Brands and --
5 Q. -- First Alert?
6 A. First Alert. Thank you.
7 Q. Did you gain any understanding about
8 how long Morgan Stanley had been working with
9 Sunbeam?
10 A. Today, I don't recall that specific 11 discussions or understanding. Again, I may have 12 known something back then about how long the 13 relationships were, but I do not recall anything
14 today.
15 Q. Would the length of the relationship
16 between Morgan Stanley and Sunbeam be significant 17 to you in connection with your work on the 18 convertible offering?
19 A. Not necessarily. It all depends.
20 That's one fact that may be relevant, given a
21 whole bunch of other facts in any individual
22 situation and depending upon what you're doing.
23 But that one fact would not today raise an issue
24 in my mind, and I do not think it would have 25 raised an issue in my mind.

Page 30

1 Lurie

2 Q. Well, would you take any comfort in

3 the fact that Morgan Stanley was familiar with

4 the company's operations having worked with it in

5 the M&A context?

6 A. I might have. I don't know again

7 what I thought back then.

8 Q. Did you have any understanding as to

9 how Morgan Stanley was to be compensated in

10 connection with the convertible debt offering?

11 A. I do not recall anything specific

12 today. Normally -- and you can confirm -- there

13 would be an underwriting fee that they would

14 receive in a 144A offering. That would be

15 standard. And I -- without having gone back and

16 looked, that is what I'm assuming they received

17 here.

18 Q. That fee would be contingent upon

19 closing the convertible offering?

20 A. Generally, it would be.

21 Q. Did you have any understanding as to

22 how Morgan Stanley was compensated in connection

23 with the M&A work it did for Sunbeam?

24 A. Again, today I don't have any

25 recollection. Normally, they would have received

Page 31

1 Lurie

2 a financial advisory fee. That would be a

3 standard market practice.

4 Q. And that would be contingent upon

5 closing?

6 A. Again, it depends. And I don't

7 recall how it might have been structured here.

8 Q. Do you think you had some knowledge

9 about the fee arrangement six years ago?

10 A. I probably back then would have, but

11 today I don't recall. It might have been

12 described in the offering memo.

13 Q. Did you understand that Morgan

14 Stanley had attempted to sell Sunbeam to a third

15 party in connection with its M&A work?

16 A. I do not today recall that being

17 discussed. It may have been. But it's six years

18 later. I don't remember what the background to 19 the offering at this point was.

20 Q. Would Morgan Stanley's fee

21 arrangements inform in any way the due diligence

22 that Davis Polk performed?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Would the fact that Morgan Stanley

25 had unsuccessfully tried to sell Sunbeam inform

Page 32

1 Lurie

2 what due diligence might be appropriate for the

3 convertible offering?

4 A. I don't believe it would have. We

5 were doing a convertible offering.

6 Q. Did you, when you initially began

7 working on the Sunbeam transaction, know who Al

8 Dunlap was?

9 A. I knew the name.

10 Q. How did you know the name?

11 A. His name was well known.

12 Q. He had a reputation at the time?

13 A. I believe he still had the reputation

14 back then, yes.

15 Q. What's the reputation?

16 A. Well, he had some nicknames, "Chain

17 Saw Al."

18 Q. Do you know what the basis of that

19 nickname was?

20 A. I believe it was he came into some

21 other companies and fired a lot of people very

22 quickly, very rapidly, very harshly, cut expenses

23 very quickly. A chain saw.

24 Q. So he was known as a turnaround

25 specialist?

1 Lurie

2 A. I think that's correct, yes.

3 Q. When you began working on the Sunbeam

4 convertible offering, did you investigate

5 Mr. Dunlap's background in any way?

6 A. I do not recall doing any

7 investigation. We -- it may have -- I just --

8 but six years later, I just don't recall what we

9 may have looked into his background or if anybody

10 else did.

11 Q. But do you think that would be an

12 appropriate due diligence step?

13 A. Under certain aspects, certain

14 transactions, yes. If there are questions, you

15 might look into whether at the time we thought

16 there was an issue we should look into. I just

17 do not recall at this point.

18 Q. What do you mean, "if there are

19 questions"?

20 A. I'm not focusing specifically on the 21 Sunbeam transaction. But if there are in general

22 reasons that give rise to questionable practices

23 in the past, it often might be an appropriate due

24 diligence investigation to check into the history

25 of a senior officer.

Page 34

1 Lurie

2 Q. So if there were questions about

3 the --

4 A. Again, I don't recall us ever having

5 that concern -- I don't recall today having that

6 concern that we would have done that.

7 Q. You may have; you just don't recall?

8 A. I do not recall doing anything.

9 Q. If there were questions about the

10 authenticity of Mr. Dunlap's turnaround at other

11 companies, would you look into those questions?

12 A. I would have investigated -- I think

13 we might have investigated if there were

14 questions. I do not recall there ever having

15 been any questions.

16 Q. How would you determine if there were

17 questions?

18 A. At this point, I have no

19 recollection. I have no idea how I might

20 necessarily determine that. If there was another

21 company, and there were issues, you may have read

22 something in the newspaper. There are a lot of 23 possible ways.

24 Q. Business Week, something like that?

25 A. Possibly.

Page 35

1 Lurie

2 Q. Did you gain an understanding about

3 the structure of the acquisitions? And by that I

4 mean, how it was as a legal matter Sunbeam was

5 going to acquire the three companies.

6 A. We would have at the time, because it

7 would have had to have been described in the 8 offering circular.

9 Q. And would you look at the source

10 documents of the description and the offering

11 memorandum?

12 A. We would have looked at the 13 acquisition agreements, if that's what you mean

14 by the "source documents."

15 Q. Merger agreement?

16 A. Merger agreement, whatever. If it

17 were a merger, it could have been a cash purchase

18 of stock. I just don't remember what the 19 agreements were.

20 Q. Were you involved in the public

21 announcement of the acquisitions?

22 A. Not -- Jim Lurie -- when you say

23 "you," you mean Jim Lurie?

24 Q. We'll start there.

25 A. Yeah. I do not recall being involved

Page 36

1 Lurie

2 in the public announcements.

3 Q. Do you, Jim Lurie, recall being

4 involved before the acquisitions were publicly

5 announced?

6 A. I don't recall when the acquisitions

7 were publicly announced. So I can't answer when,

8 whether it was before or after.

9 Q. I'll tell you it's March 2, 1998.

10 A. March 2nd is when the three

11 acquisitions were publicly announced, right.

12 Q. Does that help you recall whether you

13 were involved before or after the announcement?

14 A. Only through having seen Mr. Wise's

15 letter saying the process started before that.

16 Q. So the chronology you're referring

17 to, does that help you recall that you probably

18 were involved prior to the public announcement?

19 A. It indicates. I do not recall when I

20 started.

21 Q. Did you understand that Hill &

22 Knowlton was helping with the publicity

23 surrounding the acquisitions?

24 A. I have no recollection today of that.

25 Q. You may have known it then?

Page 37

1 Lurie

2 A. I may have known it then, but it's

3 six years. I don't remember who else was

4 involved.

5 Q. Have you worked with Hill and

6 Knowlton in the public announcement of

7 transactions in the past?

8 A. From time to time, yes.

9 Q. You don't recall doing it here?

10 A. Not in this deal, no.

11 Q. And, again, this is a question you're

12 going to hear a lot today: Does that mean it

13 didn't happen or that it may have happened; you

14 just don't remember?

15 A. That Hill and Knowlton was involved?

16 I do not recall. Did I have any contact with 17 Hill and Knowlton? I do not recall.

18 Q. Let me see if I can show you some

19 documents that would help you recall. This has

20 been marked previously as Exhibit 140.

21 MR. JOHNSON: For the record, Exhibit

22 140 is marked CPH 0483399 through '407.

23 BY MR. JOHNSON:

24 Q. Mr. Lurie, does this document look

25 familiar to you at all?

Page 38 1 Lurie 2 A. No, it does not. 3 Q. Does this look like a script that 4 Davis Polk may have prepared? 5 A. That's too speculative. I mean, a 6 script that Davis Polk may have prepared? It's a 7 script that anyone could have prepared. 8 Q. So you have no recollection of who 9 prepared this? 10 A. None whatsoever. I don't even recall 11 this document. 12 Q. Did you or anyone at Davis Polk have 13 any discussions with Morgan Stanley or anyone 14 else concerning what statements should or should 15 not be made at the public announcement of the 16 acquisitions? 17 A. I do not recall any specific 18 discussions, any general discussions regarding 19 those matters six years -- today. I just don't 20 recall anything specific. 21 Q. And so you don't know whether those 22 discussions occurred or not? 23 A. I do not recall whether they occurred 24 or not. 25 Q. Is that different from my question?	Page 40 1 Lurie 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. So you would expect to ask about the 4 first quarter as one of your first questions on 5 the transaction? 6 A. I would expect to ask about it many 7 times to get updates during the course of it. I 8 wouldn't necessarily say it's one of the first 9 questions. 10 Q. Early and often? 11 A. Early and often is fair. 12 Q. And did Sunbeam give you answers to 13 those questions? 14 A. I presume they gave us answers to 15 whatever questions we would ask -- we would have 16 asked. 17 Q. Was it your custom to ask specific 18 questions about what the numbers were or more 19 general trends or both? 20 A. Both. As a general matter, it would 21 be both. 22 Q. And in the specific context of this 23 transaction, do you have any reason to believe 24 that you didn't ask both specific numbers and 25 trends?
Page 39 1 Lurie 2 A. I don't recall. Something may have 3 happened. I may have known something closer to 4 1998 or remembered something in '98, '99, 2000 5 that I just don't know today. So I'm using the 6 word, I don't recall those discussions. 7 Q. Well, let give you something a little 8 more specific. 9 Do you recall any discussions in your 10 first days on the Sunbeam transaction concerning 11 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 performance? 12 A. I again don't recall any specific 13 discussions relating to first quarter or year 14 numbers estimates at that point in time or later 15 on. We generally would have had those kind of 16 discussions, though that would be part of the 17 normal due diligence investigation in any 18 offering. 19 Q. So while you don't recall those 20 discussions today, you believe that you would 21 have had those discussions in this transaction? 22 A. I believe that is correct. 23 Q. Would that be an ongoing discussion 24 or subject of inquiry during the course of the 25 transaction?	Page 41 1 Lurie 2 A. I believe we would have asked both. 3 Q. Did you make any trips to Florida? 4 A. I don't recall making. I may have. 5 I just don't recall where the due diligence -- 6 where the organizational meeting was, which often 7 might have been at the issuer in Florida. 8 Q. It was still late winter in New York, 9 and you don't remember a trip to South Florida? 10 A. Not now, not six years later. 11 Q. So, again, that may have happened; 12 you just don't remember? 13 A. It might happened. I do not recall 14 today where those meetings took place. 15 Q. But you did have organizational 16 meetings early in the assignment? 17 A. Organizational meeting, yes, would 18 have been the first thing in the assignment. And 19 then there would have been other meetings 20 throughout the process. 21 Q. And the organizational meeting would 22 be among Davis Polk, Morgan Stanley, Sunbeam and 23 Skadden Arps. Is that -- 24 A. Correct. And their accountants. 25 Q. So Arthur Andersen would be at the

1 Lurie
2 your knowledge, working on that side of the deal?
3 A. I believe they were, yes.
4 Q. Do you know within Morgan Stanley
5 whether a different group of Morgan Stanley
6 personnel were working on the senior credit
7 facilities?
8 A. I don't specifically today recall if
9 there was. Generally, it would have been a
10 different group.
11 Q. Would you expect any interface, so to 12 speak, between the different teams at Davis Polk
13 or at Morgan Stanley?
14 A. Interface amongst the Davis Polk
15 teams and amongst the Morgan Stanley teams or 16 cross --
17 Q. The first.
18 A. Yes. I can't speak for Morgan
19 Stanley, but I think there would be interface
20 between the offering side at Davis Polk and the 21 debt -- the credit facility side. We had to work
22 together to -- so they would have to give me
23 description of documents or review the 24 description in an offering memo of the credit
25 facilities, or I would have potentially drafted

Page 47

1 Lurie
2 it. I don't recall what I did. And they would
3 have reviewed it.
4 Q. But you can't speak to what Morgan
5 Stanley did as far as interaction between the 6 senior credit and the debt --
7 A. I can't speak to what they did.
8 Generally, in a deal, any deal, there would have
9 been interaction between the underwriting
10 providing part of the bank and the credit
11 facility provider part of the bank.
12 Q. Why do you say that?
13 A. Practice.
14 Q. Just experience?
15 A. Experience and practice.
16 Q. If you could look under the zero
17 coupon convertible column again on Page 3 of 18 Exhibit CPH 207. There's an Item D that states,
19 "next quarterly earnings announcement."
20 What does that refer to?
21 A. The next announcement that the
22 company would make regarding quarterly earnings.
23 Q. Okay. And as I read this list of 24 Items A through J, that is arranged in roughly
25 chronological order of events; is that correct?

Page 48

1 Lurie
2 A. A through J?
3 Q. Correct.
4 A. Yeah. That's pretty close, yes.
5 Q. So it was contemplated, at least as
6 of March 3, 1998, that Sunbeam would make a
7 quarterly earnings announcement during the 8 process of writing the convertible?
9 A. It looks like that way.
10 Q. Do you know whether that earnings
11 announcement occurred?
12 A. Well, there was -- my recollection is 13 there was an announcement. It was pre the end of 14 the quarter. I believe they were a March 30 or a
15 March 28th, 29, whatever the last Friday of March
16 was. So their quarterly earnings announcement
17 normally would have been after that.
18 Q. When you say you recall something
19 before the end of the quarter --
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. -- what are you referring to?
22 A. The press release that went out the 23 18th or 19th of March regarding expectations,
24 estimates, forecasts for the quarter.
25 Q. That press release did not refer to

Page 49

1 Lurie
2 earnings in any way, did it?
3 A. I don't believe -- I don't recall.
4 But I don't believe it did. I'd have to look at 5 it to remember exactly what it covered.
6 Q. So that certainly is not the 7 quarterly earnings announcement referenced by 8 Item D on Page 3?
9 A. Probably not. This was probably
10 talking about a later postquarter announcement.
11 Q. So at least as of March 3, it was 12 contemplated there would be a quarterly earnings
13 announcement before the close of the convertible?
14 A. It looks that way, yeah. I mean, to 15 be fair, you can look at this, and they could 16 just have been asking the question, When would be 17 the next earnings quarterly announcement? And 18 someone might have said, depending when we close,
19 it could be before or after. I mean, it's in 20 here on the list. But they might have just 21 wanted to know when the next announcement was to 22 be able to take it into consideration.
23 Q. Didn't you tell me, though, that
24 Items A through J are in roughly chronological
25 order?

Page 50

1 Lurie

2 A. They are. But it doesn't necessarily

3 mean to me, just looking at it -- yes, you can

4 look and see there might have been. But whether

5 that would have been before rating agency

6 presentations and before sales force

7 presentations -- I wouldn't necessarily say just

8 because D is there that that means that would be

9 chronologically before that. It may have been

10 simply that this would occur.

11 Q. Although you mentioned the rating

12 agency presentation as an example.

13 Do you see the parenthetical after

14 that?

15 A. It says, "none?"

16 Q. Exactly. I don't see any question

17 concerning whether Item D would occur.

18 Do you recall any question about that

19 issue?

20 A. I don't recall specifically

21 discussing the issue.

22 Q. Now, under the title on the same Page

23 3 of Exhibit 207, there is a section called

24 "Composition of Working Group."

25 Do you see that?

Page 51

1 Lurie

2 A. Uh-huh.

3 Q. Item C in the left column, the

4 initial purchaser is Morgan Stanley?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And D, initial purchaser's counsel,

7 that's Davis Polk?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. If you would flip back to the 10 calendar that we looked at briefly, which is on

11 Page 9 continuing on to 10 of Exhibit 207. The 12 timetable entry for March 5th provides "business

13 due diligence, including projections."

14 Do you see that?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. And Davis Polk is listed among those

17 having responsibility?

18 A. Uh-huh.

19 Q. For that item?

20 A. Uh-huh.

21 Q. And Morgan Stanley is as well?

22 A. Yes.

23 MR. WISE: So is Skadden --

24 A. And so is Skadden.

25 MR. WISE: I mean, we can all read

Page 52

1 Lurie

2 this document.

3 BY MR. JOHNSON:

4 Q. Sure. Sure. Why was --

5 A. I mean, you also used the word

6 "responsibility." And I know the word

7 "responsibility" is there. This probably just

8 means who would be attending the business due

9 diligence, not necessarily who had responsibility

10 for preparing projections.

11 Q. Well, let's focus on that.

12 Did Morgan Stanley have any

13 responsibility for business due diligence on

14 Sunbeam's projections?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And did Davis Polk?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Why is due diligence performed on

19 projections?

20 A. Well, due diligence is performed on a

21 lot of different things. And you sit and you ask

22 questions. You understand the assumptions used.

23 You try to get a feeling for the basis upon which

24 the projections are prepared.

25 Q. And the reason you do those things?

Page 53

1 Lurie

2 A. As part of your due diligence for

3 your offering.

4 Q. And that is, with respect to

5 projections in particular, to determine that the

6 projections are well-grounded, in fact?

7 A. That they're fair, reasonable

8 projections.

9 Q. What specifically did Morgan Stanley

10 do in terms of due diligence on projections?

11 A. I have today, six years later, no

12 recollection to date of any discussion regarding

13 the projections, what we might have done, who we

14 might have spoken to.

15 Q. Do you remember anybody from Sunbeam

16 who worked with Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk on 17 due diligence?

18 A. No one specific. There were people

19 from Sunbeam, obviously, involved.

20 Q. Do you remember Al Dunlap?

21 A. I do not recall ever speaking to or

22 meeting or being in a meeting with Mr. Dunlap on 23 the phone or at present.

24 Q. How about Russ Kersh?

25 A. The name rings a bell. I assume --

Page 54

1 Lurie
2 and he was on a number of meetings and phone
3 calls. But I could not today tell you which 4 ones.
5 Q. He was the CFO of the company?
6 A. I believe so.
7 Q. You would expect to have multiple
8 conversations with the CFO of the company?
9 A. Absolutely.
10 Q. How about Bob Gluck, the controller?
11 A. The name doesn't ring a bell. But,
12 again, it would be very normal to have the 13 controller involved throughout the process.
14 Q. Do those names trigger the memory of 15 any other names from Sunbeam?
16 A. I want to say Hennesy, but I can't
17 recall. I may be confusing deals at this point.
18 Q. Did you deal with Janet Kelly?
19 A. The name does not ring a bell.
20 Q. David Fanin?
21 A. That names rings a bell. He would
22 have been involved. I don't recall what his tile
23 was. But it's a name that came up and, I think,
24 would have been involved.
25 Q. I'll tell you, he was the general

Page 55

1 Lurie
2 counsel of the company.
3 A. Okay.
4 Q. And, again, you would expect multiple
5 conversations with the general counsel of the 6 issuer?
7 A. I would have expected he would have
8 been involved in a variety of different aspects
9 of the transaction.
10 Q. Can you recall any communications
11 that, in fact, occurred with Mr. Fanin?
12 A. Not today.
13 Q. How about Don Uzzi? Do you remember
14 that name?
15 A. That name does ring a bell.
16 Q. Do you remember who Mr. Uzzi was?
17 A. Fairly senior -- the name rings a
18 bell. He was a fairly senior -- I don't know --
19 marketing guy, maybe, or something.
20 Q. He was the VP of sales.
21 Does that help you remember whether
22 you had any conversations with him --
23 A. He would have certainly been involved
24 throughout the process on the due diligence
25 process.

Page 56

1 Lurie
2 Q. You mentioned that Mr. Uzzi was a
3 senior executive.
4 Is it fair to say that Morgan Stanley
5 talked to personnel other than senior executives?
6 A. They generally would talk to a
7 variety of different people.
8 Q. Do you know whether Morgan Stanley
9 did so in this transaction?
10 A. I have no -- have recollection today
11 of who they would have spoken to back then.
12 Q. So as you sit here, you have no basis
13 to -- strike that.
14 As you sit here, you have no basis to 15 believe that Morgan Stanley did not talk to 16 low-level employees of the company?
17 A. Could you repeat that? There were a
18 couple of double-negatives there. So I have no
19 recollection today whether they spoke to or did
20 not speak to junior people. Or you used
21 "lower-level employees."
22 Q. But you would expect those
23 conversations to occur as part of due diligence?
24 A. Well, in part. It sort of means --
25 what do you mean by lower level and junior level

Page 57

1 Lurie
2 employees? I mean, they would not necessarily
3 have spoken to someone in a factory.
4 Q. But they wouldn't limit their
5 communications to senior management?
6 A. There would have been communications
7 to a variety of people.
8 Q. But, again, you don't know any
9 specifics?
10 A. Correct. I don't recall anything
11 specific.
12 Q. Going back again to Page 9 of Exhibit
13 207. The entry on March 9th includes an item
14 indicating that Davis Polk would receive drafts
15 of auditors' comfort letters.
16 Do you see that?
17 A. Yes, I do.
18 Q. Did you, in fact, receive drafts of 19 the auditors' comfort letters?
20 A. I would have certainly during the 21 course received one or more drafts. Whether I
22 received one on May -- excuse me -- March 9, I
23 could not tell you. But I would have received
24 drafts and reviewed drafts during the course.
25 Q. This timetable here on Page 9 and 10

Page 58

1 Lurie
2 provides that you would receive drafts exactly
3 two weeks before the pricing of the convertible
4 transaction.
5 Do you see that?
6 A. I see the 9th. And the pricing two
7 weeks is 23.
8 Q. So is that two weeks time frame
9 customary as far as when you would start
10 receiving drafts of the comfort letter?
11 A. Customary is a very broad term. I've 12 received them three months in advance. I've 13 received them 48 hours in advance. I've received
14 them two weeks in advance on various deals.
15 Q. Is there any reason why you would 16 expect to receive a draft two weeks in advance of 17 a closing?
18 A. That's just when it was on here. I
19 have no reason -- no recollection of why they 20 picked that date for the first draft, even if it
21 was received that date.
22 Q. You say that sometimes you receive a
23 draft as late 48 hours before a pricing?
24 A. Uh-huh.
25 Q. Is that the shortest time period

Page 59

1 Lurie
2 you've ever had on a draft?
3 A. Yeah. Maybe I may have had one the
4 day before pricing. Different kind of deals, you
5 get different kind of things.
6 Q. How about this convertible offering?
7 Is that -- does that inform how soon --
8 A. Two weeks doesn't say a lot to me. I
9 mean, it doesn't mean anything that I got it two 10 weeks. If I had gotten it in the week before, we 11 would have still gone through the same process.
12 Q. So the nature of the transaction
13 doesn't give you an idea of how far in advance of 14 pricing you would get a draft?
15 A. No.
16 Q. I note here that the responsibility
17 for receiving drafts of the auditors' comfort
18 letter rests with Andersen, Davis Polk and 19 Skadden.
20 Do you see that?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Would you share drafts, if you
23 received them, with Morgan Stanley?
24 A. Would I?
25 Q. If you received drafts of the comfort

Page 60

1 Lurie
2 letter, would you share that with Morgan Stanley?
3 A. I would have sent them a copy. That
4 would be my practice.
5 Q. And you have no reason to believe
6 that you deviated from your practice in the 7 context of the Sunbeam transaction?
8 A. Correct. Again -- but I don't recall
9 having sent it to them. But that would have been 10 my practice.
11 Q. Did Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley
12 provide any content or revisions to the offering
13 memorandum?
14 A. We would have clearly reviewed the 15 offering memorandum. We would have given
16 components on the offering memorandum. We would 17 potentially have provided suggested revisions,
18 riders. We would have received comments and 19 looked at comments from Skadden, from the 20 company, from the accountants, from whoever else
21 might have been involved.
22 There was probably descriptions of 23 the three companies being acquired. We might 24 have received comments from those management --
25 the management of those companies on their

Page 61

1 Lurie
2 sections.
3 Q. But Skadden or Sunbeam was the
4 keeper, so to speak, of the offering memorandum?
5 A. I believe Skadden was sort of. It
6 was their master.
7 Q. But you had opportunity to comment on
8 the offering memorandum?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Do you recall, as you sit here, any 11 of the revisions or suggestions you had on the 12 offering memorandum?
13 A. I couldn't tell you six years later
14 what my comments were.
15 Q. Let's see if I can refresh your
16 memory a little bit.
17 MR. JOHNSON: We're going to mark
18 this as CPH Exhibit 230.
19 (CPH Exhibit 230, 3/10/98 memo re:
20 Draft Customer Concentration Risk Factor,
21 Bates-stamped CPH 0635890 through CPH
22 0635891, marked for identification, as of 23 this date.)
24 BY MR. JOHNSON:
25 Q. Mr. Lurie, we've given you what we've

Page 62 1 Lurie 2 marked CPH Exhibit 230, which, for the record, 3 has the Bates stamp CPH 0635890 through '891. 4 I'd ask you just to review that for me. 5 A. Okay. 6 Q. Does this Exhibit 230 refresh your 7 memory about a proposed revision that you had on 8 the offering memorandum? 9 A. Other than it's got my name 10 (indicating), it seems to -- appears to be 11 something that I would have sent out. I have no 12 recollection of this memo or specifically 13 drafting this proposed rider insert. 14 Q. And this is a customer concentration 15 risk factor insert? 16 A. That's what it says. 17 Q. Do you have any recollection as to 18 why you would propose this revision? 19 A. In this specific transaction, 20 Sunbeam's transaction, I have no recollection of 21 how this came up or why we decided to put this 22 in. I will tell you, generally risk factors or 23 paragraphs like that are very common in public 24 offerings, in 144A offering memos. 25 Q. Did you view -- based on your	Page 64 1 Lurie 2 A. They went bankrupt. It was after 3 their IPO. It was after at least one other, 4 possibly two other offerings after their IPO. 5 But they did, I believe, ultimately go bankrupt. 6 Q. Did Morgan Stanley get sued in 7 connection with their IPOs? 8 A. I believe they did get sued -- 9 MR. WISE: Not in connection with the 10 IPO. 11 BY MR. JOHNSON: 12 Q. Do you recall, based on Mr. Wise's 13 testimony -- 14 A. I recall they got sued. I do not -- 15 I believe from what Bob said, it would not have 16 been in connection with the IPO. 17 Q. Other than what Bob said, do you have 18 any basis for believing it was not in connection 19 with the IPO -- 20 A. I have no recollection. That was 21 literally 1981 or '82, '83, maybe. 22 Q. If you look at the last sentence of 23 your proposed revision in Exhibit 230. And if 24 you would be good enough to read that for the 25 record, I'd appreciate that.
Page 63 1 Lurie 2 investigation of Sunbeam, did you view customer 3 concentration as a genuine risk with Sunbeam? 4 A. I can't tell you today what my 5 thoughts were about risks back then. I have no 6 specific recollection regarding what the thinking 7 was or why we would have proposed this. 8 Q. Had you in your practice had 9 experience with customer concentration problems? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And can you recall a specific example 12 of that? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Who was the issuer in that 15 transaction? 16 A. MiniScribe. 17 Q. Why are you laughing? 18 A. It's a long story. 19 Q. In the MiniScribe transaction, did 20 you represent Morgan Stanley? 21 A. Yes. I believe it was, actually. 22 Q. Was that a public offering? 23 A. It was an IPO. 24 Q. And MiniScribe, did they go bankrupt 25 after their IPO?	Page 65 1 Lurie 2 A. The last sentence? 3 Q. Yes. 4 A. "If any of these customers or any of 5 the company's other significant customers were to 6 substantially reduce their orders or cease buying 7 from the company, such an occurrence would have a 8 material adverse effect on the company's business 9 should the company be unable to replace that 10 business with other customers." 11 Q. Was there any discussion about that 12 sentence in particular in connection with your 13 circulation of this proposed revision? 14 A. Today, I don't recall -- again, I 15 don't recall drafting this (indicating). I don't 16 recall any specific discussions on this sentence 17 (indicating) or any other sentence. I don't 18 recall if this was actually drafted by me or 19 someone else, that I reviewed that and we just 20 attached to a memo that appears to be under my 21 signature, that I would have sent out. 22 Q. Do you have any reason to believe 23 that last sentence that you just read for the 24 record there was not an accurate statement? 25 A. It was not an accurate statement?

17 (Pages 62 to 65)

Page 66 1 Lurie 2 Q. Correct. 3 A. It seems that that would be the 4 normal conclusion. "You might have in this kind 5 of risk factor" is the way I phrased it. 6 Q. I'll represent to you that sentence 7 does not appear in the offering memorandum. 8 A. Okay. 9 Q. Do you have any idea why that is? 10 A. I have no recollection regarding any 11 discussions about putting this in or why that 12 might have been deleted. 13 Q. I'll also represent to you -- and 14 this is just to save time. If you want to see 15 the offering memorandum, I'm happy to show it to 16 you. 17 A. Okay. No. 18 Q. The title of the risk factor as it 19 appears in the offering memorandum is "no long 20 term contracts" as opposed to what you have here 21 -- 22 A. -- "customer concentrations." 23 Q. Do you have any idea why that change 24 was made? 25 A. This is six years later. I don't	Page 68 1 Lurie 2 underwriter's counsel, to be on the phone, to 3 call customers. It would be also customary 4 probably to call suppliers. 5 Q. To determine what inventory they have 6 on hand and what their buying expectations are? 7 A. Generally. Or to find out what the 8 relationship is, how the relationship is going, 9 what do they think of the company. 10 Q. And did that happen in connection 11 with the Sunbeam transaction? 12 A. I today, 2004, don't have any 13 recollection of what -- who or what calls may 14 have occurred and who would have made them and 15 who would have been on them. 16 Q. Do you have any reason to believe 17 those calls didn't occur? 18 A. I have no reason to believe they did 19 not occur, no reason at this point to recollect 20 whether they did occur. 21 Q. If you look at the first page of 22 Exhibit 230 -- 23 A. Which is this, this one 24 (indicating)? 25 Q. Correct.
Page 67 1 Lurie 2 recall. That to me is no big deal to change the 3 heading. 4 Q. When there is customer concentration, 5 is it appropriate to diligence the customers to 6 determine what their plans are? 7 MR. CLARE: Objection to form; 8 incomplete; hypothetical. 9 You can answer. 10 A. Can you now repeat the question. 11 BY MR. JOHNSON: 12 Q. Sure. 13 When there is a risk associated with 14 customer concentration, is it appropriate to 15 diligence the customers? 16 A. It would generally be the case that 17 there would be calls with major customers. If 18 there's specific concentrations in any 19 transaction with any issuer, you would obviously 20 want to call the top ones. 21 Now, there is concentration here -- I 22 don't know if these are the right numbers. But 23 ten customers accounting for 35 percent, 24 according to this draft, it would be normal to 25 call -- for the underwriter, possibly the	Page 69 1 Lurie 2 A. Okay. 3 Q. The memorandum is addressed to Janet 4 Kelly, who we've already mentioned today? 5 A. It still doesn't ring a bell who it 6 is. 7 Q. In case you're curious -- 8 A. Who is it? 9 Q. She was an assistant general counsel 10 at Sunbeam at the time. 11 A. Okay. 12 Q. Do you know who Greg Femicola is? 13 A. He was the partner at Skadden. 14 Q. And Todd Freed? 15 A. He was an associate at Skadden. 16 Q. Having looked at that proposed 17 revision, do you recall any other revisions that 18 Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley proposed to the 19 offering memorandum? 20 A. No. 21 Q. I'm going to give you what we marked 22 previously as CPH Exhibit 11 (handing). 23 A. Do you want me to read each of 24 these? 25 Q. That won't be necessary. I'm going

1 Lurie
2 accounting due diligence call in this
3 transaction; is that correct?
4 A. I assume I did.
5 Q. Why do you assume?
6 A. Because I don't have any
7 recollections from today what I did in 1998.
8 Q. But in that time frame --
9 A. It would have been normal. And I
10 assume I did participate in one or more calls
11 with the accountants.
12 Q. When you say "one or more," is it
13 typical, is it customary to have more than one
14 phone call?
15 A. Oh, God, yeah. It's more than just 16 calls. There could have been drafting sessions.
17 You could have been discussing MD&A and 18 financials with them. You could have called them
19 on those things. You could have questions. You
20 could get phone calls to discuss comfort letters,
21 to give comments on comfort letters, to ask for 22 additions to comfort letters. There's a myriad 23 of reasons to be talking with accountants.
24 Q. So it's customary to be in frequent
25 communications with the accountants?

Page 75

1 Lurie
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. We're going to deal with some of this
4 stuff in more detail, but I want to see what you
5 can specifically remember as to your dealings
6 with the accountants in this case. We talked
7 about the accountant due diligence call. And 8 your testimony is you assume you participated in 9 at least one call, but you don't remember; is
10 that correct?
11 A. That's right.
12 Q. What other interactions did you have 13 with Sunbeam's accountants in connection with 14 this transaction?
15 A. As I said just a minute ago, it could
16 have been a whole myriad of them.
17 Q. I don't want to interrupt. Let's
18 put the could-have-beens aside for a second.
19 Do you remember any other meetings
20 with any other accountants?
21 A. I remember the accountants. I don't 22 remember who being at the printers the night we 23 printed. I recall generic -- I recall speaking
24 to them. I couldn't tell you which ones I spoke
25 to. I couldn't tell you today what the substance

Page 76

1 Lurie
2 of the conversations were. It could have been --
3 it would have been on a variety of different
4 issues relating to the offering.
5 Q. We've already mentioned that Arthur
6 Andersen was the auditor of Sunbeam.
7 Do you recall that?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Do you remember the names of any of 10 the auditors from Andersen?
11 A. Other than I was reminded the names
12 yesterday, I'm not even sure I remember today
13 what their names were, but I remember there were 14 three -- there were two people principally --
15 they were managers, I believe their title was --
16 and there was a partner.
17 Q. So you had dealings with three folks
18 from Andersen?
19 A. Probably all three, yeah.
20 Q. Did you learn at any point prior to 21 the closing of the convertible offering that
22 Sunbeam had bill-and-hold sales?
23 A. That rings a bell. But I don't
24 remember specifically what was going on at that 25 point in time.

Page 77

1 Lurie
2 Q. Are you familiar with the term
3 "bill-and-hold sales"?
4 A. Yeah.
5 Q. And so your testimony is you may have
6 been aware of bill-and-hold sales, but you don't
7 remember?
8 A. That's correct.
9 Q. Do bill-and-hold sales have any
10 negative connotation with you?
11 A. Well, you want to understand what 12 they are, why -- who the parties are, why they're 13 set up that way. The accountants would usually 14 have some issues relating to those.
15 Q. Is there a concern with channel
16 stuffing when you hear about bill-and-hold sales?
17 A. It raises a question about channel
18 stuffing.
19 Q. As you sit here today, can you tell
20 me anything that Davis Polk did or Morgan Stanley
21 did to determine whether Sunbeam had engaged in
22 channel stuffing?
23 A. I don't recall any specific
24 discussions or investigations from 1998 that we 25 would have done regarding channel stuffing,

Page 78

1 Lurie
2 bill-and-hold sales, customer concentrations.
3 Q. Did you in March 1998 gain any sense
4 as to whether Sunbeam was aggressive in its
5 accounting practices?
6 A. I don't recall what my thinking was 7 back then. We would have asked questions of the 8 accountants. As a general practice, you would 9 ask questions of the accountants regarding the 10 accounting policies, procedures that are used by 11 an issuer, whether Sunbeam or any other. You
12 often ask the accountants whether, in their mind,
13 they consider it conservative or nonconservative,
14 whether they had suggested any alternative
15 accounting practices, GAP requirements that the 16 company -- alternatives that the company could be 17 doing.
18 Q. And why does the underwriter ask
19 those questions?
20 A. It's part of their due diligence
21 investigation. And when you say "the 22 underwriter," it could have been equally me.
23 Q. And I take it, the answers to those 24 questions could inform what other due diligence
25 may be required?

Page 79

1 Lurie
2 A. Absolutely.
3 Q. Did there come a point that you
4 learned of a potential sales shortfall at Sunbeam
5 in the first quarter of 1998?
6 A. I'm sorry. Did I learn of a
7 potential --
8 Q. -- sales shortfall?
9 A. At some point we must have learned
10 about some questions and issues regarding 11 potential shortfalls, yes.
12 Q. And how did you learn about the 13 potential sales shortfall?
14 A. I have no recollection today of how 15 in 1998 it came up in the course, either of the 16 transaction to me specifically or to -- within 17 Davis Polk or to Morgan Stanley.
18 Q. Do you have any idea when, in the 19 process of underwriting, Davis Polk or Morgan
20 Stanley learned of the sales shortfall?
21 A. I don't know when we would have 22 learned -- I mean, I do recall right around the 23 18th of March -- 19th of March there were 24 meetings and discussions regarding potential
25 sales for the quarter.

Page 80

1 Lurie
2 My Blackberry is going crazy.
3 Q. Actually, do you want to take a
4 break?
5 A. No. Let's continue.
6 Q. Did you learn of a potential sales
7 shortfall through receiving drafts of the comfort
8 letter?
9 A. I apologize. Again, I do not recall
10 how I or anyone else may have learned about a
11 potential, you know, shortfall. I'm sure shortly
12 after the transaction and for a year or so, I
13 probably would have remembered, but I just don't 14 remember today.
15 Q. By the way, let me jump back for a
16 second. I apologize. I see a note to myself --
17 A. Go right ahead.
18 Q. Was someone from Sunbeam management
19 on the accounting due diligence call?
20 A. I don't recall whether anyone was.
21 It is often the case that at least for a portion 22 of the phone call someone from management would 23 be on the phone. Often, though, and generally,
24 we would recommend that an underwriter have an 25 executive session, so to speak, just with the

Page 81

1 Lurie
2 accountants, without management.
3 So whether they were -- if they were,
4 they would have been asked to step off the phone
5 or if it was a meeting, to step out of the 6 meeting. Again, I don't remember if it was a
7 phone call or a meeting.
8 Q. So you view it a good practice to 9 have a session between strictly the underwriter
10 and the auditor?
11 A. Correct.
12 Q. Why is that?
13 A. Just because sometimes the auditors
14 will be a little more forthcoming without
15 management there. They may be willing to say
16 things -- they often do say things in slightly
17 different way without management being in the 18 room.
19 Q. And in connection with the accounting
20 due diligence call with Sunbeam, do you have any 21 idea whether management was or was not on the 22 call?
23 A. Again, I don't recall whether they
24 were -- whether it was a call or meeting. I'm 25 assuming -- you're saying it was a call. So I'll

Page 82

1 Lurie
2 assume it was a call. I don't recall if they
3 were on that phone call today. If they were, I
4 don't recall if they were asked to step off.
5 Q. I take it, the accounting due
6 diligence call session is a fairly involved
7 undertaking?
8 A. Fairly involved? I mean, it's an
9 important session. I don't know what you mean by 10 "fairly involved."
11 Q. Well, do you have any sense of how 12 long it should take or how much time you should 13 spend with the auditor?
14 A. It varies from transaction to 15 transaction. You know, fifteen minutes would be 16 short. Three hours might be long. In IPOs, it
17 might be four or five hours. I mean, it varies.
18 Q. Do you have any recollection of the 19 length you spent -- length of time you spent on 20 the accounting due diligence call with Sunbeam's
21 auditors?
22 A. Not today.
23 Q. I take it, the length of the call
24 turns on the complexity of the issuer?
25 A. The complexity of the issuer, the

Page 83

1 Lurie
2 familiarity that the underwriter and the 3 underwriter's counsel might have with the issuer,
4 whether it was the first or second, third or
5 fourth offering. It varies.
6 Q. You said fifteen minutes is short.
7 Have you ever had a fifteen-minute
8 accounting due diligence phone call?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. Is that a common occurrence?
11 A. That's fairly rare that it's that 12 short.
13 Q. Jumping back to the sales shortfall
14 issue --
15 A. Go right ahead.
16 Q. -- you told me earlier today that you
17 were having early and often conversations with 18 Sunbeam concerning how it was doing in the first
19 quarter?
20 A. Uh-huh.
21 Q. And you also testified that those 22 conversations would be specific as to numbers and 23 general as to trends.
24 Do you recall that?
25 A. I recall that, yeah. I recall saying

Page 84

1 Lurie
2 that. I don't remember what the --
3 Q. Okay. Does that testimony in any way
4 inform when you would have learned of the sales
5 shortfall at Sunbeam?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Is it safe to assume that you learned
8 of it as it was happening?
9 A. I don't even want to venture a guess.
10 Safe to assume? I can't tell you
11 today in 2004 when I learned of potential sales
12 shortfalls in 1998 in the first quarter in the 13 midst of an offering. It could have been at any 14 point in time, and it could have come from a
15 variety of different people.
16 Q. Do you think that anyone at Sunbeam
17 gave you false numbers as to sales in the first
18 quarter of 1998?
19 A. I don't -- I don't have any thoughts
20 about false numbers today. I didn't think they 21 were false back then, certainly.
22 Q. Prior to mid-March, did the company
23 say anything in general terms other than that it
24 was doing fine?
25 A. To who?

Page 85

1 Lurie
2 Q. To Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk?
3 A. I don't recall any specific comments
4 that the company made back in 1998 regarding
5 their first quarter and how they were doing.
6 Q. So you may have known then, in March
7 1998, that the company was expecting a loss for 8 the quarter?
9 A. I may have known a lot of different
10 things. I may have known that it was not a
11 loss. But there could have been other reasons
12 that it would have been a flat quarter in 13 earnings. There could have been offsetting
14 adjustments. Expenses could have gone down even 15 though sales had gone down. There could have 16 been a lot of different things.
17 Q. Did anything happen in the first
18 quarter of '98 that caused you to question the 19 candor of Sunbeam's management?
20 A. There was discussions regarding the 21 first quarter. I don't know if we were thinking
22 there were questions. I don't recall any
23 questions we had about the candor of Sunbeam's
24 management. I don't recall what I thought back
25 then about the candor of Sunbeam's management.

Page 86

1 Lurie
2 We just inquired regarding the quarter and the 3 full year.
4 Q. And those questions -- the answers to 5 those questions didn't cause you any concern
6 about whether Sunbeam management was being
7 candid?
8 A. I don't recall any concerns today
9 that I might have had back then.
10 Q. Is it fair to say the underwriter is 11 supposed to have skepticism in dealing with 12 management?
13 A. Absolutely.
14 Q. Since March of 1998, have you formed
15 any opinion about the candor of Sunbeam's
16 management you were dealing with?
17 A. To be honest, other than being told,
18 I haven't thought about Sunbeam too much and 19 Sunbeam's management.
20 Q. You did learn that the SEC had sued
21 Al Dunlap and Ron Kersh?
22 A. Absolutely. I had not thought about
23 it.
24 Q. You followed the Wall Street Journal
25 articles --

Page 87

1 Lurie
2 A. Uh-huh.
3 Q. -- on the demise of Sunbeam?
4 A. Uh-huh.
5 Q. Did that cause you to question
6 anything that you were told in March of 1998?
7 A. I don't recall what I would have
8 thought when I read those articles. I probably 9 looked at the articles and went "wow" and knew
10 that there was a problem. I don't recall it
11 doing anything to my thinking about candor at the 12 time of the offering.
13 Q. When you say you've read the articles
14 and knew there was a problem, what do you mean by
15 that?
16 A. Well, whatever was in the articles
17 about the problems -- I think you mentioned the 18 word "channel stuffing" before. I think that 19 became a really significant issue. I think there 20 was clearly some revenue -- my recollection is 21 there were revenue recognition issues with 22 Sunbeam. There may have been others. I remember
23 there were questions about Mr. Dunlap's resume.
24 Q. And reading that information didn't
25 cause you to rethink any of the work that you

Page 88

1 Lurie
2 performed?
3 A. It may have. I do not recall what it
4 caused me to rethink about what I had done back
5 in 1998.
6 Q. Did you learn any lessons from
7 Sunbeam that have informed your practice today?
8 A. That despite as good a due diligence
9 as you think you can do -- you don't necessarily 10 find out -- you do the best you can, but you
11 don't always find out everything that occurred.
12 And sometimes bad things do occur.
13 Q. And so I take it from your testimony
14 then that you believe Morgan Stanley did the best
15 due diligence they could on this transaction?
16 A. I would think with Davis Polk and 17 Morgan Stanley doing it, it would have been-- our 18 due diligence would have been appropriate.
19 Q. By "appropriate," do you mean
20 thorough?
21 A. Thorough, complete.
22 Q. We've already touched on briefly
23 today the press release that issued on March
24 19th?
25 A. Okay.

Page 89

1 Lurie
2 Q. And I want to focus for a few minutes
3 on the events that led to the issuance of that
4 press release.
5 A. Okay.
6 Q. Why don't you tell me how it came to
7 pass that Sunbeam issued a press release on March
8 19th.
9 A. I can't today remember exactly what
10 -- this exact time frame of when and who 11 proposed the press release and how it was put 12 together. There was -- there were phone calls
13 the night of the 18th regarding the quarter --
14 the sales quarter, how they were, and if they 15 were going to be able to meet their earnings or 16 their revenues, I guess.
17 At some point in time, someone
18 prepared a draft of a press release. I don't 19 recall today if that was prepared by Skadden, by 20 the company, by Morgan Stanley or by us. It most 21 likely have been -- the first draft would have 22 come from Skadden, but I don't recall if they
23 did.
24 Q. But the issuance of the press release
25 would be a joint effort?

Page 90 1 Lurie 2 A. It would have been a joint discussion 3 of the press release and what should be in the 4 press release, because then you'd have to 5 consider whether the press release -- how it 6 would impact the offering and the offering memo. 7 Q. So Morgan Stanley and Davis Polk had 8 an opportunity to comment on the press release 9 before its issuance -- 10 A. I assume we did, yes. I don't recall 11 any comments that we may have made or when we 12 would have been given the press release to 13 comment on. 14 Q. You said that there were phone calls 15 on the night of March 18th? 16 A. Correct. 17 Q. What event animated the phone calls? 18 A. What event? I have -- there was -- 19 Q. Let me phrase it slightly different. 20 Did any event or information cause 21 those phone calls to occur? 22 A. I think it just related to the issue 23 of what the first quarter revenues were going to 24 be. I don't know what event precipitated a 25 specific phone call occurring or what piece of	Page 92 1 Lurie 2 Small's office, at least the specific phone call 3 I'm recollecting right now. Jeff Small. I 4 believe Frank Morrison was in that office. Maybe 5 Rich Sandler was in. I just don't specifically 6 recall him, but maybe he was there. 7 Q. We haven't heard Mr. Small's name yet 8 today. 9 A. Okay. 10 Q. He is a Davis Polk partner? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. And does he have an area of 13 expertise? 14 A. Corporate and securities. 15 Q. How about Frank Morrison? 16 A. He was managing partner at the time, 17 right? In corporate and securities? Wasn't he 18 managing partner back then? 19 MR. WISE: I don't remember. 20 A. I think he may have been managing 21 partner back then, but he was also corporate 22 securities expert. 23 BY MR. JOHNSON: 24 Q. And prior to March 18th, Mr. Small 25 and Mr. Morrison had no involvement in this
Page 91 1 Lurie 2 information we might have had at any point in 3 time that would have caused us to make a phone 4 call in 1990 -- or have a conference call in 5 1998. 6 Q. So you don't know why it was the 18th 7 as opposed to the 13th -- 8 A. I don't know. I couldn't tell you. 9 Q. Do you know how many calls there were 10 on the 18th on the issue of the potential sales 11 shortfall? 12 A. It was one or more. And I say one or 13 more because I don't know if we -- I don't recall 14 today whether it was we had first phone calls 15 with Morgan Stanley or first phone calls with 16 Sunbeam, and then they may have dropped; or first 17 Morgan Stanley, and then maybe Sunbeam hooked in 18 and Skadden hooked in, or whether it was a series 19 of phone calls. It was just one or more phone 20 calls that a variety of people were involved in. 21 Q. Let's try and get more specific on 22 who was involved in the phone calls. 23 Who from Davis Polk was involved in 24 the March 18th phone calls? 25 A. Myself, Alan Dean. It was in Jeff	Page 93 1 Lurie 2 transaction -- 3 A. I have no recollection of whether 4 they would have been involved earlier. 5 Q. And you don't have any recollection 6 of them, in fact, being involved earlier? 7 A. No, I don't. 8 Q. Are Mr. Small and Morrison senior to 9 Mr. Dean? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And they were on calls with Sunbeam 12 and Skadden as well? 13 A. Again, the phone call or the meeting 14 in Mr. Small's office, I don't recall if it was 15 one phone call -- one long phone call that people 16 kept coming in and out of the multiple phone 17 calls. But my recollection, there would have 18 been a variety of different people at different 19 points in time on one or more phone calls. 20 Q. Was Heather Stack or Nicole Duncan on 21 any of the phone calls? 22 A. I do not recall whether Heather and 23 Nicole were involved in those phone calls. 24 Q. How about from Morgan Stanley? Who 25 from Morgan Stanley was involved in the March

Page 98 1 Lurie 2 the company would be considering. 3 Q. That information could have a 4 negative impact on the ability to complete the 5 transaction? 6 A. Possibly. 7 Q. Was that possibility discussed? 8 A. I do not recall any discussions today 9 about not completing the transactions. They may 10 have occurred; they may have not occurred. I do 11 not recall. 12 Q. Was there any discussion concerning 13 the impact of first quarter performance on 14 Sunbeam's ability to close the acquisitions? 15 A. Again, I don't recall whether those 16 discussions occurred or did not occur. 17 Q. Would you be surprised if they did 18 occur? 19 A. I'm not sure I would be surprised or 20 not surprised. If they occurred, they occurred; 21 if they didn't occur, they didn't occur. 22 Q. But the sales situation was 23 sufficiently significant to be a material event? 24 MR. CLARE: Object to form. 25 You can answer.	Page 100 1 Lurie 2 the idea? 3 A. I don't recall any resistance. I 4 don't recall any train to say, let's issue it. 5 Q. I assume, given these discussions, it 6 was something that was discussed at some length? 7 A. I would presume there were 8 discussions regarding a press release. I know we 9 did issue a press release -- 10 Q. Did you later learn that there was 11 resistance to the press release? 12 A. Did I later learn? I don't recall 13 that there was. I mean, I've been now advised 14 there may have been resistance. 15 Q. Who advised you of that? 16 A. I think it was in conversations 17 yesterday that there may have been some, but I'm 18 not sure. I was talking to Bob and Tom, but I 19 don't think I should go any further. 20 Q. But you never learned from Morgan 21 Stanley and Sunbeam -- 22 A. I haven't spoken to Morgan Stanley in 23 years regarding this transaction. 24 Q. Let's put aside the years -- 25 A. Okay.
Page 99 1 Lurie 2 A. It was. Obviously, as I said 3 earlier, the first quarter and full year 4 expectations are areas of -- that underwriters 5 and underwriters' counsel will be reviewing 6 through the entire process of an offering. So, 7 yes, changes in expectations, changes in company 8 forecasts are things that underwriters want to 9 understand the reasons for. 10 Q. And that's -- 11 A. If it's a half a penny change versus 12 a ten cent change, you know, some things are 13 material, the size of the company, than others. 14 I mean, if they're going to be within a range 15 that's out on the street, what can I say? 16 Q. But, in essence, you would agree it's 17 important information? 18 A. Absolutely. Underwriters are 19 interested in. 20 Q. Whose idea was it to issue a press 21 release? 22 A. I have no recollection from today 23 back in 1998 who said to issue a press release or 24 who wanted to or who didn't want to. 25 Q. So you don't recall any resistance to	Page 101 1 Lurie 2 Q. In the days following -- 3 A. In the time frame of 1998. 4 Q. We're starting to talk over each 5 other. So the Court Reporter is going to wince, 6 if she hasn't already. 7 In the days following the issuance of 8 the press release, did you ever learn that 9 Sunbeam was upset about having to issue the press 10 release? 11 A. I don't recall ever having heard or 12 been told by anyone that they were upset. 13 Q. Would that fact be of any 14 significance to you? 15 MR. WISE: What fact? 16 A. That they were upset? 17 BY MR. JOHNSON: 18 Q. Yes. 19 A. It might have. I might have raised 20 an eyebrow and tried to understand why they were 21 upset. But I don't know what my thinking was 22 back then. It's one fact in a myriad of things 23 that are going on in an offering that you have to 24 weigh and consider. So how I would have 25 reacted? I can't tell you.

1 Lurie

2 Q. But it would have been in the mix?

3 A. It would have been in the mix.

4 Q. Do you recall reviewing any documents

5 during the course of the March 18th phone call?

6 A. I recall that there was a sheet of 7 paper, maybe a couple of sheets of paper, that we

8 all had that was sort of the basis on which we

9 were discussing the first quarter numbers.

10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: I'm going to 11 change tape.

12 MR. JOHNSON: Sure.

13 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This is 11:45.

14 This completes tape number one.

15 (Recess taken.)

16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 12

17 p.m. We're back on the record. This begins

18 tape number two.

19 BY MR. JOHNSON:

20 Q. Before the break, we were talking

21 about the March 18th phone calls. And I want to 22 return to that subject.

23 Was there any discussion during the 24 course of those calls concerning Sunbeam's

25 earnings situation for the first quarter of 1998?

Page 103

1 Lurie

2 A. Again, I don't recall any specific

3 discussions that were had that evening. It would

4 have been generally about the first quarter,

5 probably discussions also about the year estimate

6 forecasts.

7 Q. When you say "about the first

8 quarter," do you mean revenue or earnings or one

9 or the other?

10 A. It could have been both.

11 Q. You don't remember?

12 A. I do not recall today.

13 Q. Did you know what Sunbeam's earnings

14 situation was as of March 18th for the first

15 quarter?

16 A. Did I know then? I probably had an

17 idea what their earnings for 2002 were -- or

18 excuse me -- 1997. I probably had an idea then

19 what their expectations for both 2000 -- or 1998

20 the full year and probably the first quarter. I

21 have no recollection today what those were.

22 Q. Was there any discussion during any

23 of the March 18th phone calls concerning whether

24 Sunbeam's actual sales through the first two

25 months of 1998 should be included in the press

Page 104

1 Lurie

2 release?

3 A. I'm sorry. Could you repeat that

4 question.

5 Q. Sure. Was there any discussion

6 during any of the March 18th phone calls

7 concerning whether the press release should

8 include Sunbeam's actual sales figures for

9 January and February?

10 A. I do not recall any discussion today

11 regarding whether -- about what should be

12 included in the press release, whether it related

13 to the first two months of 1998 or otherwise.

14 Q. As you sit here today, do you have

15 any negative reaction or an idea as to why that

16 information would not be included in the press

17 release?

18 A. Often you don't want to include just

19 interim monthly numbers, because it doesn't

20 necessarily represent what a full quarter is

21 going to be. Sometimes, depending upon the facts

22 of a given situation, you might include interim

23 by interim, I mean, part of month sales numbers.

24 Q. Or part of quarter sales --

25 A. Excuse me. Part of quarter sales

Page 105

1 Lurie

2 numbers.

3 Q. So it just depends on the particular

4 circumstances?

5 A. And the facts and everything else

6 that's going on in the company.

7 Q. Can you think of any facts, as you

8 sit here today, indicating that it would be

9 inappropriate to give interim quarter sales

10 information in the March 19th press release?

11 A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat that

12 question again.

13 Q. Sure.

14 A. It was a little convoluted at the 15 beginning to the end.

16 Q. I apologize. These questions are

17 getting longer.

18 Can you think of any reason why

19 Sunbeam did not include January and February

20 sales information in the March 19th press

21 release?

22 A. Can I recall any reasons why we did

23 not include it?

24 Q. Correct.

25 A. I today don't recall what we said or

Page 106

1 Lurie
2 what the thinking was or the reasons for how the
3 ultimate press release came out or any specific
4 discussions regarding what should or should not
5 be included in 2004. I don't recall what we were 6 thinking back in 1998.
7 Q. I guess here's what I'm getting at.
8 You testified that it may be appropriate to give
9 interim results depending on the circumstance.
10 What I'm getting at, Were there any
11 circumstances that indicated it would be 12 inappropriate to give that information in this
13 press release?
14 A. I don't recall, truthfully, what the 15 other circumstances going around the time in 16 March of 1998, middle of March 1998, were of what 17 the thinking would have been and whether we even 18 discussed the question of including the first two 19 -- the specific numbers for the first two 20 months.
21 Q. So is it fair to say, then, as you
22 sit here today, you can't think of any reason why
23 that information was not included?
24 A. I can't think of any information
25 today why we would not have included it.

Page 107

1 Lurie
2 Q. Why doesn't the press release refer
3 to the earnings situation at Sunbeam?
4 A. It doesn't? I don't recall. I have
5 no -- again, the thinking of what we were going
6 to say in the press release and why we decided to 7 say what was said and who made the ultimate
8 decision to say what was said or that we all
9 agreed upon, I don't recall why it was made the 10 way it was today. I'm sure back in 1998 and '99,
11 maybe even 2000, I could have told you more. But 12 six years later, the specific thinking is just 13 beyond me at this point. I don't recall.
14 Q. As you sit here today, can you think 15 of any reason why it would be inappropriate to 16 give interim earnings information in the March
17 19th press release?
18 A. In general? Specifically related to 19 Sunbeam? Specifically related to -- I mean,
20 there are a lot of companies that do 85 percent
21 of their sales in the last two weeks of the 22 quarter.
23 Q. Do you know whether that's the 24 situation --
25 A. I have no recollection of how

Page 108

1 Lurie
2 Sunbeam's sales in 1998 were staggered during the
3 quarter.
4 Q. Well, why was a press release issued
5 at all?
6 A. I --
7 MR. WISE: To the extent that you
8 know.
9 A. I'm trying to recollect. And it's 10 more surmising at this point why it might have 11 been issued.
12 I think there were questions about
13 whether they would meet it -- let me phrase that 14 differently -- whether they would meet the 15 analysts' expectations what was out on the 16 street. And I think there was a feeling if they 17 were not going to be within the range. And 18 analysts generally have ranges, first call
19 numbers where what people would look at for 20 earnings or revenues, whatever was out on the 21 street. And if they were not, there was probably 22 a feeling, one, maybe the offering memo needed to 23 include it. And if we wanted to include the 24 information in an offering memo, which was in a
25 144A, in effect, private placement, we had to get

Page 109

1 Lurie
2 similar information out to the street in
3 general.
4 So to the extent you were going to be
5 putting it in an offering memo, you would also be 6 issuing a press release. That very likely could
7 have been the thinking. I just don't recall
8 specifically what it was.
9 Q. So you don't know as a matter of fact
10 whether inclusion of the offering memorandum
11 motivated the issuance of the press release?
12 A. I don't recall which way, whether it
13 was the issuance of the press release motivated
14 putting it in the offering memo or whether we 15 felt we needed to put something in the offering
16 memo and therefore motivated the press release --
17 Q. And to the extent --
18 A. -- or whether something else even 19 motivated it.
20 Q. To the extent Sunbeam was not going
21 to make analysts' estimates on earnings, that 22 would also be information that should be in the
23 press release?
24 A. If they didn't think they were going
25 to make the earnings, that might be something you

Page 110 1 Lurie 2 would also include. Again, I don't remember what 3 estimates were out on the street. I think we 4 were focused on revenues. But whether we also 5 had earnings estimates for the quarter and for 6 the year, I just don't recall. 7 Q. Can you think of any reason why you 8 would advise the street that revenue estimates 9 would not be met but not advise them that 10 earnings estimates would not be met? 11 A. I'm sure there are a variety of 12 scenarios where you know what's going to happen 13 with revenues but you're not sure what's going to 14 happen with earnings. There could be expense 15 reductions. There could be other things going 16 on. 17 Q. But if you know that earnings 18 estimates are not going to be met, why wouldn't 19 you include that in the same press release? 20 A. If you know. I don't recall what we 21 knew. 22 Q. Did you know that the street was 23 expecting Sunbeam to have a profit for the first 24 quarter? 25 A. What I knew back then I can't tell	Page 112 1 Lurie 2 to represent? 3 A. I can tell you what I think this 4 represents looking at it today. I can't remember 5 exactly what I might have thought this 6 represented back then, but this looks like an 7 estimate of actual sales for the first two months 8 of 1998. It says, "January consolidated, 9 February consolidated net sales actual." And 10 then there appears to be some interim 11 international sale numbers for the first 15 days 12 of March and some forecasted international sales 13 through the rest of March, actual domestic sales 14 for the first 17 days of March. And then I guess 15 open orders is probably forecasted sales for the 16 remainder of March or through -- I guess the 17 remainder of March. 18 Q. What does the potential orders 19 represent? 20 A. Those look like to me would mean they 21 were orders that are possibly coming in but 22 haven't yet been booked by the company. They 23 haven't received a formal sales order yet from 24 any of these listed companies. 25 Q. When you say they haven't received
Page 111 1 Lurie 2 you. I don't recall what we thought, what I knew 3 back then of what the expectations on the street 4 for the first quarter of 1998 were. 5 Q. I want to show you what's been marked 6 previously as Exhibit 16, Mr. Lurie, Exhibit 16, 7 the document that you mentioned that was 8 discussed during the March 18th phone call. 9 A. This looks like the document. It 10 seems to be the document, but I don't recall 11 specifically today what was on the document. But 12 this does look like something we would have 13 looked at. 14 Q. And do you see the handwriting in the 15 upper right corner: "Ruth," "Alan," "David"? 16 A. "Ruth," "Alan," "David," okay. 17 Q. Do you know who those are? 18 A. Ruth, I presume, is Ruth Porat. 19 Allen, I presume, is Alan Dean. Because that's 20 his phone number. And David -- I'm not sure who 21 David is. 22 You're not going to tell me? 23 Q. It's David Fanin. 24 A. Okay. 25 Q. What did you understand this document	Page 113 1 Lurie 2 the formal sales order, do you know whether 3 there's been any discussion with respect to any 4 of these accounts with respect to any orders in 5 the last 12 days of the quarter? 6 A. I'm sorry. Can you repeat the 7 question again? Because -- 8 Q. Sure. Actually, I'll have her read 9 this one. 10 (Record read.) 11 (Interruption at the door.) 12 (Record read.) 13 A. Are you asking me did I have any 14 discussions regarding these accounts? Did I 15 speak to these accounts? Did anyone speak to 16 these accounts? 17 BY MR. JOHNSON: 18 Q. All of those questions. 19 A. I do not recall any specific 20 discussions that I had or that anyone else had 21 with any of these, let's say, 15, 18 companies 22 (indicating). I don't recall any specific 23 discussions we had on the phone in March 18th of 24 1998 regarding any of these specific companies 25 and order numbers that are listed under potential

1 Lurie
2 orders.
3 I do know we were discussing them,
4 but I don't recall what was said. I don't know
5 whether there were ever any actual calls in the 6 last 12 days of the quarter with any of these
7 entities by -- certainly, I do not recall having 8 those phone calls. I don't believe anyone, to my 9 knowledge, from Davis Polk had them. Whether
10 Morgan Stanley in the last 12 days of the quarter
11 spoke to any of these companies, I don't know if 12 they did. I don't know if Sunbeam spoke to any 13 of these companies. I don't recall.
14 Q. Do you have any view as to whether it
15 would be appropriate to contact those customers
16 to see what their plans would be for the last 12
17 days of the quarter?
18 A. It's something that would often be 19 done. But, again, it really depends on facts of 20 a given situation. For example -- I mean, we 21 could have been told or we could have known
22 through prior other due diligence that Home Depot
23 puts in their biggest order in the last 12 days
24 of the quarter. And we might have had evidence.
25 I don't know if we had any of this. But there

Page 115

1 Lurie
2 are a myriad of facts with every one of these
3 that would lead us to make one decision versus
4 another decision. I just don't recall what
5 transpired during these phone calls or in the 6 days after the phone calls or the days before the 7 phone calls with regard to these companies and 8 these potential orders.
9 Q. This sheet is designed to show how
10 the company can make $254.7 million in revenues
11 for the first quarter?
12 A. Uh-huh. That's what it looks like.
13 That's the subtotal, I presume.
14 Q. And that was below the street
15 estimates, wasn't it?
16 A. If the next lines down appear to be
17 where it says -- the handwriting looks like it
18 says, "low and high." Those look like the street
19 estimates between 167 and 193 for revenues --
20 MR. WISE: 267 and 293.
21 THE WITNESS: What did I say?
22 A. 267 and 293. And then the last line
23 looks like what the first quarter of 1997 was,
24 which says 253.5.
25 BY MR. JOHNSON:

Page 116

1 Lurie
2 Q. So this sheet would indicate that if
3 all of the potential orders are obtained, and if 4 the international net sales forecast is met, the 5 company would beat the first quarter of '97?
6 A. Would be slightly above the first
7 quarter of '97, it looks like.
8 Q. But would be below the street
9 estimates?
10 A. Correct.
11 Q. Was there any discussion on March 18
12 concerning whether the company could, in fact,
13 still beat the street estimates in the first
14 quarter of '98?
15 A. There may have been in 2004. I don't
16 today recall what those discussions -- I wish I
17 could give you more, but I just don't recall what 18 those discussions in 1998, March 18th or 17th or 19 22nd, regarding first quarter numbers.
20 Q. But you would agree with me that 21 Exhibit 16 does not illustrate any way for the 22 company to meet street estimates for the first
23 quarter of '98?
24 A. It clearly -- based on the buildup to 25 the 254.7, it's clearly below the low. So it

Page 117

1 Lurie
2 would look like there was nothing on this sheet
3 that would indicate they could beat it. Whether
4 there was other information provided us in 1998
5 that led us to believe that 254.7 was low, I
6 don't recall. There may have been.
7 Q. You just don't know?
8 A. I just don't recall.
9 Q. Was there any discussion on March
10 18th concerning the company's ability to obtain
11 orders and ship product in the amount of $86
12 million in the last 12 days of the quarter?
13 A. Again, there may have been; there may 14 not have been. I don't recall the substance of 15 the discussions that related to this
16 (indicating), which, I believe, was the subject
17 of the March 18th phone call in Mr. Small's
18 office that we were talking about before. But I
19 don't remember the specifics of who said what,
20 what questions were asked. I'm sure there were a 21 lot of questions that were asked. I just don't 22 recall what they were.
23 Q. So you don't recall whether there was 24 any discussion about the company's physical
25 ability to ship this much product in this time

Page 118 1 Lurie 2 period? 3 A. I do not recall if we had those. We 4 may have. We may have looked into a variety of 5 different questions. I don't know if it's a 6 shipping issue, a manufacturing issue. It could 7 have been a variety of issues. 8 Q. The last item in the potential 9 buildup shows $10.4 million for "other"? 10 A. Yup. 11 Q. Was there any discussion about 12 entities that would comprise the "other" 13 category? 14 A. I do not recall what we discussed 15 regarding the "other" category. 16 Q. Was there any discussion or 17 skepticism as to whether the "other" category 18 would exceed Wal-Mart's purchases? 19 A. Would exceed the 10.4 -- where is 20 Wal-Mart? Oh, it's up -- the 9.4? I don't 21 recall any relationship between Wal-Mart and the 22 other category. There may be; there may not be. 23 Q. You don't remember any skepticism on 24 that issue? 25 A. I don't remember the specifics of the	Page 120 1 Lurie 2 concerning Sunbeam's first quarter sales 3 situation with either of those banks? 4 A. I don't know what -- I presume they 5 did. But I have no knowledge of what sharing and 6 what information and what discussions transpired 7 between Morgan Stanley and the other two banks 8 that you mentioned. 9 Q. Why do you assume that they did? 10 A. Because they were normal discussions 11 that would go on between an arranger and the 12 other banks. I mean, there is an information 13 flow between them, just like there's an 14 information flow if you have comanagers of an 15 offering. 16 Q. So any important information would be 17 shared? 18 A. Normally, yeah. 19 Q. Do you recall how the street reacted 20 to the March 19th press release? 21 A. I do not recall today how the street 22 reacted. 23 Q. Obviously, the reaction was not 24 significant enough to impair the closing of the 25 convertible offering; is that correct?
Page 119 1 Lurie 2 phone call. I mean, we would have had a long 3 discussion. What we would have discussed and 4 responses that the company gave, whatever they 5 were got us comfortable. 6 Q. At any point in the first quarter of 7 '98, did Morgan Stanley share Sunbeam's sales 8 information with any other banks? 9 A. I have no idea. I have no 10 recollection of that. I wouldn't necessarily 11 know. When you say "other banks," you mean 12 another investment bank or -- 13 Q. Well, I'll give you a more specific 14 question. 15 Did you understand that other banks 16 were participating in the senior credit facility? 17 A. I think I was told, yeah. I mean, 18 senior credit facility, I don't recollect that, 19 that Morgan Stanley was providing the whole 20 thing. So there may have been other banks -- 21 Q. I'll tell you, it was First Union and 22 Bank of America. 23 A. Okay. 24 Q. Do you have any reason to believe 25 that Morgan Stanley shared any information	Page 121 1 Lurie 2 A. I'm sorry. The market reaction was 3 not -- 4 Q. -- sufficiently dramatic to impair 5 your ability to close the convertible offering? 6 A. I don't know if there's a necessary 7 relationship between the two, but we closed the 8 offering. 9 Q. You didn't delay the offering, even? 10 A. I don't believe we delayed the 11 offering. 12 Q. Was the subject of delaying the 13 offering discussed at any point? 14 A. Today, I cannot recall any 15 discussions on that. There may have been. I 16 don't recall today. 17 Q. When you say "there may have been" -- 18 A. Well, there may have been or there 19 may not have been. I just don't recall. 20 Q. I'll show you what's been marked as 21 Exhibit 14 previously. 22 A. Okay. 23 Q. Exhibit 14 is the March 19th press 24 release that we've been discussing? 25 A. It appears to be, yeah.

1 Lurie

2 Q. You would agree with me that the

3 press release indicates that Sunbeam may still

4 meet first quarter '98 street estimates in

5 revenue?

6 A. May still?

7 Q. Correct.

8 A. Well, it's expected to be lower. So

9 I guess there's -- it's possible the net sales

10 would be lower. So, yeah, they could maybe still

11 meet it. But they're saying their reading is 12 it's going to be lower than the estimates that

13 were on the street.

14 Q. Well, if you look at midway through

15 the first paragraph it says, "the shortfall from 16 analysts' estimates, if any, would be due to" --

17 A. Yeah. I mean, there is still a

18 possibility they'll be within the range.

19 Q. What's the basis for that statement?

20 A. Today, I recall nothing about the 21 discussions that would have led to that statement

22 or how the statement -- this press release got

23 prepared. I'm sure we had a basis for belief

24 back then. This, I believe, did go into the 25 offering memo. We would have wanted to be

Page 123

1 Lurie

2 comfortable with the statements. So we would

3 have done due diligence. That was probably part

4 of the phone call.

5 I mean, I'm looking at the language

6 here. I'm assuming there were discussions in the 7 phone call that led us to be comfortable with the

8 inventory management and other pattern issues

9 that this was the statement we were comfortable

10 in disclosing and putting in an offering memo.

11 But today I can't tell you what the basis was 12 from what we knew in 1998.

13 Q. Can you tell me what diligence was

14 performed to get comfortable with those

15 statements?

16 A. Today, no. Other than I know we had

17 at least one or more phone calls on the night of 18 the 18th. There were probably a variety of other

19 things going on, phone calls, discussions, either

20 internally with the company. There may have been

21 other pieces of information that we had that back

22 this up that I don't recall today (indicating).

23 Q. But other than a conversation with

24 senior management, you can't tell me any specific

25 diligence that was performed?

Page 124

1 Lurie

2 A. Again, as I said before, I do not

3 recall anyone calling these customers. That may

4 have been done; they may not have been done. We

5 may have been able to see the -- what their

6 earlier patterns of buying were, but I don't

7 recall what we did in 1998.

8 Q. Was there any -- strike that.

9 Does this press release indicate --

10 strike that too.

11 Did you have drafts of comfort

12 letters from Andersen when this press release was

13 issued?

14 A. I resume we did. But I don't recall

15 when we received the drafts. I mean, there was

16 an indication, I believe, in the letter earlier

17 that I was supposed to get a draft on March 9, I

18 think it said. I don't remember if I actually

19 received one March 9.

20 Q. I'm going to give you something we

21 marked previously as CPH 110.

22 Does Exhibit 110 appear to be a draft

23 comfort letter to Morgan Stanley in connection

24 with the convertible debt offering?

25 A. It appears to be a draft of a comfort

Page 125

1 Lurie

2 letter addressed to Morgan Stanley.

3 Q. And the fax header shows a date of

4 March 17, 1998.

5 Do you see that?

6 A. I do see that.

7 Q. Does that refresh your memory in any

8 way as to when you received the drafts of the

9 comfort letter?

10 A. No, it doesn't at all. But if you

11 look -- continue, it's a 561 fax. I don't know

12 who this came to. I don't know if I received

13 this. 561 is South Florida. So I presume it's

14 either Sunbeam's or Arthur Andersen's office down

15 there. Whether it was sent to me, I can't tell.

16 Whether I saw this specific draft, I have no

17 idea.

18 Q. This is sent, as it notes at the top,

19 "for discussion purposes only."

20 Do you see that?

21 A. Yup.

22 Q. Is that a customary header for draft

23 cover letters?

24 A. Some don't put the bold headings.

25 Some just have the draft paragraph. Accountants

Page 126 1 Lurie 2 have different ways they handle it. Some say for 3 what this says; others don't. 4 Q. So your testimony is that while you 5 think you had a draft of the comfort letter 6 before the press release, you don't know that for 7 sure; and you don't know when you had this draft, 8 Exhibit 110. Is that correct? 9 A. That's correct. 10 Q. If you look at the third page of the 11 comfort letter, the draft comfort letter, Exhibit 12 CPH 110, there is handwriting at the bottom that 13 says, "we had fire sale of inventory"? 14 A. Yup. 15 Q. Do you know what that refers to? 16 A. I can guess. I have no idea. At 17 some point in time, there was an inventory fire 18 sale that means. 19 Q. Is that an explanation as to why 20 first quarter '98 revenues were low? 21 A. It could. I have absolutely no idea 22 who wrote this or what their reasons for it. 23 Maybe that there was sales were made in the first 24 quarter as part -- 25 MR. WISE: You don't need to	Page 128 1 Lurie 2 potential effect of early buy programs. When I 3 first heard of the concept of early buy programs 4 in the course of the offering, I have no 5 recollection today. 6 Q. Was there any discussion about 7 including in the March 19th press release that 8 sales had been accelerated into the fourth 9 quarter of 1997? 10 A. Again, I do not recall what the 11 discussions relating to including or excluding 12 information in that press release were. I don't 13 recall today what those discussions in '98 were. 14 Q. Does the acceleration of sales into 15 the fourth quarter of '97 raise any concerns 16 about the quality of 1997 earnings or revenue? 17 A. The quality of 1997? 18 Q. Correct. 19 A. I'm not even quite sure what you're 20 getting at. But I can't -- I don't know how to 21 respond to that. 22 Q. Let me try and rephrase it, then. 23 Does information indicating sales had 24 been accelerated into the fourth quarter of '97 25 raise any concerns about the sustainability of

1 Lurie

2 Q. The significance of forward-looking

3 statement.

4 A. Because it's in the middle of a

5 quarter, you're giving estimates about what your

6 expectations are for a quarter. It is for the 7 full quarter. That is a forward-looking

8 statement.

9 Q. Does that relieve any obligation to 10 provide fair and accurate information?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did -- in the days following the

13 issuance of the press release, Exhibit 14, did

14 you ever hear any comments to the effect that

15 lawyers made the company do it?

16 A. I don't recall ever hearing those

17 comments, but I don't recall any comments

18 regarding the press release after it was issued.

19 Q. You never heard any effort by Sunbeam

20 to downplay the significance of the press

21 release?

22 A. I don't recall any efforts by anyone,

23 Sunbeam or otherwise, the downplay, up-play of

24 the press release.

25 Q. Would the efforts by the company to

Page 131

1 Lurie

2 downplay the significance of the press release

3 concern you in any way?

4 A. I guess I might have wanted to

5 understand what their thinking was and what they

6 were doing. I mean, I don't know how they were

7 downplaying the significance of the press

8 release. I don't know what they did or didn't

9 do.

10 Q. But, again, depending on the 11 circumstances, that may be an issue that concerns

12 you?

13 A. Of all the facts that we had at the 14 time, it's something that we might have looked

15 into or tried to understand.

16 Q. This has been marked previously as

17 Exhibit 17. Mr. Lurie, Exhibit 17 is the March

18 19th comfort letter that was presented to you; is

19 that correct?

20 A. This is -- appears to be a signed

21 copy of the final comfort letter provided by

22 Arthur Andersen to Morgan Stanley. Whether this

23 was, quote, presented to me, an actual signed

24 copy, I don't recall.

25 Q. So you don't have any recollection of

Page 132

1 Lurie

2 the final letter being signed and delivered to

3 you by hand?

4 A. No, I do not. It may have been. But

5 I don't recall if it did or whether it didn't.

6 Q. Or when it did, for that matter?

7 A. When -- no. I don't recall.

8 Generally, it would have been the day of pricing.

9 Q. And that was March 19th?

10 A. That's my recollection. Correct.

11 Q. I assume you've seen many comfort

12 letters in your career?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Is there anything about this comfort

15 letter that is out of the ordinary?

16 A. Are you going to give me 10, 15

17 minutes to review it?

18 Q. Sure.

19 A. Do you want to point me to anything?

20 Q. I'm asking: Based on your

21 experience, is there anything about it that is

22 out of the ordinary?

23 A. The Page 3 at the top, I wouldn't

24 necessarily say out of the ordinary, but there

25 were notations of it, an interim period,

Page 133

1 Lurie

2 shareholder's equity had decreased as well as

3 long term debt having increased.

4 The next paragraph, 5(a), the numbers

5 in 5(a). Then in 5(b), there is an indication

6 that net sales for the two months of 1998 were

7 below the period -- the corresponding period of

8 1997 as well as a net income going from a gain, a

9 net income from last year to a net loss this

10 year.

11 So those are clearly -- you know,

12 those are clearly somewhat out of the ordinary

13 disclosures that you would be looking into.

14 Do you want me to continue? Is there

15 anything further?

16 Q. Let's focus on 6(b). We looked at an

17 earlier draft of that?

18 A. 6(b)?

19 Q. Correct.

20 A. Okay. That's the next page.

21 Q. Is there anything out of the ordinary

22 about Paragraph 6(b)?

23 A. It's an explanation. I can't tell

24 you today if I thought it was out of the 25 ordinary. There is the early buy program

Page 134

1 Lurie
2 reference. I don't recall if the next sentence
3 was in the earlier version of the document that
4 you showed me before -- of this document that you
5 showed me before.
6 Okay. There is this additional
7 sentence regarding -- somewhat out of the 8 ordinary, I'm using that -- nonrecurring January
9 of 1997 sales of excess inventory.
10 And then there is the compensation
11 charge discussion. Again, I'd have to go back
12 and look to see if it was in the earlier version.
13 Q. And I'm going to ask the same
14 question about 6(c).
15 A. 6(c)? It's showing that now
16 throughout the first two full months of '97, that 17 net sales continue to be down, I guess, the 18 first.
19 Q. So 6(c) says that through the first 20 two months of '98, the company's sales are at 21 half of what they were in the prior period?
22 A. Correct.
23 Q. Was that an out-of-the-ordinary
24 revelation to you?
25 A. I have no recollection today of what

Page 135

1 Lurie
2 -- when I first would have received this. But 3 if this came the 19th, this (indicating) is 4 subsequent to having had conversations regarding
5 Exhibit 16 (indicating). So I -- at least if the 6 timing of these came in accordance with what we 7 have been discussing, that this was the 18th and 8 this was the 19th (indicating), we would have had
9 more detailed information based on what Exhibit
10 16 and the discussions that related to that.
11 And I believe -- I'm just curious --
12 the 72 million is what is shown for this list
13 (indicating) is what actually occurred. So this 14 is a more recent version.
15 Q. So it was not news to you that 16 Sunbeam's sales were running at half for the 17 first two months of '98 over '97?
18 A. I'm assuming, given the timing, that 19 by the time I had received this, we had already 20 received that (indicating). So we knew there
21 were some discussions that we had the night
22 before regarding first quarter sales. So getting 23 this delivered to me, if it was delivered to me,
24 or seeing a copy of this on the 19th would not
25 necessarily have surprised me, given what we knew

Page 136

1 Lurie
2 from the days beforehand.
3 Q. So you can't recall any specific
4 reaction to the comfort letters --
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. -- as opposed to other information?
7 A. I cannot recall any specific reaction
8 to this comfort letter (indicating).
9 Q. This letter is addressed to Morgan
10 Stanley.
11 Why is that?
12 A. The underwriter -- the comfort letter
13 is always addressed to the underwriter.
14 Q. Why is it always addressed to the 15 underwriter?
16 A. That's what FAS, now 110, says. It's 17 FAS 72. It's addressed to someone with a due
18 diligence obligation. Morgan Stanley had to give 19 them a representation letter. They had a due
20 diligence obligation. So...
21 Q. And did Morgan Stanley give this 22 letter -- this comfort letter, Exhibit 17, to 23 anyone besides Davis Polk?
24 A. I have no idea who Morgan Stanley
25 would have given this to. I have no recall of

Page 137

1 Lurie
2 any discussion of who they should or should not
3 have given it to. I don't recall giving it to 4 anyone. I don't remember if Morgan Stanley gave
5 it to me or I gave it Morgan Stanley. A signed
6 copy is what I'm getting at.
7 Q. Well, you have no reason to believe
8 that Morgan Stanley and Davis Polk lacked copies
9 of the signed comfort letter?
10 A. I have no reason to believe that we 11 did not have a signed comfort letter.
12 Q. The first page of the comfort letter,
13 Exhibit 17, indicates the offering memorandum is 14 for --
15 A. -- two billion.
16 Q. -- two billion, fourteen million.
17 Did the size of that offering
18 increase at any point in time?
19 A. Apparently it did. I had forgotten
20 that. But when I saw the original offering memo
21 and the final, it had increased. Yes, there had 22 been an increase in the offering size.
23 Q. How did that come about?
24 A. I have no -- I apologize. I have no
25 recollection today of when we were advised, how

Page 138 1 Lurie 2 or why we were advised it was increasing. 3 Q. Do you recall the convertible portion 4 of the offering increased while the senior credit 5 facility decreased? 6 A. I have no recollection of the two 7 being tied or how that all transpired. 8 Q. Or when it transpired? 9 A. Or when it transpired. 10 Q. Or why it transpired? 11 A. Or why it transpired. 12 Q. You mentioned already today that you 13 were at the printer for the final printing of the 14 offering memorandum? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. And that was on March 19th? 17 A. I believe so. That's correct. 18 Q. Who was at the printer? 19 A. I have to be honest. I don't 20 recall. I remember one or two people from Arthur 21 Andersen were there. At some point there must 22 have been one or more people from Skadden. I 23 don't remember who it was. 24 Morgan Stanley would have either been 25 there in the beginning, or someone from Morgan	Page 140 1 Lurie 2 recall. 3 Q. And Morgan Stanley? 4 A. I don't recall how many. 5 Q. And this was on the evening of March 6 19th; is that correct? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. And was there any decision about 9 whether the March 19th press release should be 10 included verbatim in the offering memorandum? 11 A. At the printers? 12 Q. Yes. 13 A. I have no recollection of any 14 discussions relating to that. 15 Q. Did anyone from Andersen advise you, 16 or anyone from Morgan Stanley, that the press 17 release should not be included verbatim in the 18 offering memorandum? 19 A. I have no recollection of any 20 discussions relating to the press release at all 21 at the printers the night of the 19th. 22 Q. The press release did end up verbatim 23 in the offering memorandum? 24 A. That's my recollection, yes. 25 Q. How did that come to pass?

Page 143 1 Lurie 2 whether Dunlap had truly turned Sunbeam around? 3 A. I do not recall any discussions about 4 that back in March 19th or 18th or 22nd of 1998. 5 Q. Did anyone from Andersen indicate 6 that Andersen was going to send personnel to all 7 of Sunbeam's shipping docks to monitor the 8 quarter close? 9 A. No. I don't recall that anyone -- I 10 don't recall ever being told that Andersen was 11 going to do that. 12 Q. Did anyone explain that certain 13 personnel within Sunbeam objected to the 14 inclusion of the press release in the offering 15 memorandum? 16 A. Did anyone from Andersen say that 17 people from Sunbeam -- 18 Q. Let's start even broader than that. 19 A. Okay. 20 Q. Did you hear from anyone at the 21 printer that there were Sunbeam personnel who 22 objected to the inclusion of the press release in 23 the offering memorandum? 24 A. I do not recall any discussions 25 relating to anyone objecting or anyone	Page 145 1 Lurie 2 Sunbeam personnel objected to including the press 3 release in the offering memorandum? Is that 4 something that would have been significant to 5 you? 6 A. It depends upon why, the reason for 7 the objection, what their concern was. I mean, 8 again, yes, as an individual, it's something that 9 I might have questioned. But you have to give me 10 more of the facts that relate to what was going 11 on the night of the 19th or the evening of the 12 18th, I guess, whatever day it was. 13 Q. And if you had heard that Andersen 14 doubted whether Dunlap had really turned Sunbeam 15 around, if you had heard that at the printer, 16 would that be something that you would want to 17 investigate further? 18 A. Again, it depends what the context 19 was, what they were saying with those words. 20 You're asking me to speculate what we were all 21 thinking and what we all knew at the time and 22 what due diligence we had done to get 23 comfortable. 24 Q. So it's possible, if Andersen told 25 you they didn't believe the turnaround was

1 Lurie
2 authentic, that wouldn't have mattered to you?
3 A. Using those words, it's probably
4 something that would have raised some eyebrows.
5 And I might have asked some more questions and
6 looked into it. Depending on who said it, I
7 might have wanted to speak to more senior people
8 or have Alan or others at Davis Polk or Morgan
9 Stanley speak to more senior people. There's a
10 lot of things that I can speculate today of what 11 I might have done, but I just don't recall any of 12 this occurring.
13 Q. In connection with either the press
14 release or the offering memorandum, was there any 15 discussion about issuing a release that simply 16 stated that the company would not meet the street
17 estimates for the company revenue?
18 A. There may have been -- again, I
19 apologize. I do not recall the specific 20 discussions relating to the content or what the 21 wording of the press release would be. All I can 22 tell you, you showed me what appears to be the 23 press release. I assume it's the press release.
24 We somehow reached the conclusion as a group that 25 this would be the press release. The basis for

Page 147

1 Lurie
2 determining the words in there, I can't tell you
3 today.
4 Q. Although Andersen was not involved in
5 the press release issuance?
6 A. I have absolutely no idea if that's
7 the case. They may have been involved. They may 8 have seen it early. The more senior people at 9 Andersen -- I forgot the name of the gentlemen
10 you mentioned before -- may have seen it before.
11 Whether the two younger people from Andersen had 12 seen it, I just don't know.
13 Q. Can you remember anything that 14 happened at the press release that is a specific 15 event -- excuse me -- anything that happened at 16 the printer that is a specific event?
17 A. Anything that happened at the printer
18 that's a specific event? No. I mean, it was an 19 uneventful evening.
20 Q. So as you sit here today, you don't 21 remember nothing out of the ordinary?
22 A. Nothing out of the ordinary.
23 Q. Does that mean that nothing out of 24 the ordinary happened or that you can't remember
25 anything out of the ordinary?

Page 148

1 Lurie
2 A. That I can't remember anything out of
3 the ordinary. But that likely means that if
4 something out of the ordinary happened, that I
5 probably would have remembered it.
6 THE WITNESS: Can I ask that we take
7 a break? My wife is trying to reach me
8 about a room for my daughter --
9 MR. JOHNSON: Sure.
10 THE WITNESS: -- at law school for
11 next year.
12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is
13 12:57. We're going off the record.
14 (Luncheon recess taken.)
15 AFTERNOON SESSION
16 (1:42 p.m.)
17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 1:42.
18 We're back on the record.
19 JAMES M. LURIE,
20 resumed, having been previously duly sworn,
21 was examined and testified further as 22 follows:
23 EXAMINATION (Cont'd.) BY
24 MR. JOHNSON:
25 Q. Mr. Lurie, on our break I gave you an

Page 149

1 Lurie
2 exhibit marked CPH Exhibit 114 to review.
3 Have you had a chance to look at
4 that?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And this is a letter from Lawrence
7 Bornstein to the files dated March 31, 1998.
8 Do you see that?
9 A. Yes.
10 Q. And this memorandum concerns events
11 at the printer on March 19, 1998; is that
12 correct?
13 A. That's what it purports to discuss.
14 Q. Does this memorandum, Exhibit 114,
15 refresh your memory in any way about any of the 16 events that happened at the printer?
17 A. What's in here does not refresh my
18 recollection, and what's in here is news to me.
19 Q. What's in Exhibit 114, is it
20 inconsistent with your recollection?
21 A. My recollection, it was a very
22 uneventful meeting at the printer. I do not 23 remember any of -- no specific recollection of 24 any of the discussions that he refers to here in 25 this memo. I -- he says, "Mr. Tyree and Mr.

Page 150 1 Lurie 2 Lurie were very upset." I have no recollection 3 of there being any upset. It being uneventful 4 and cordial is my recollection of the meeting at 5 the printers. 6 Q. Is it possible that your recollection 7 six years later is mistaken? 8 A. I don't want to say it's mistaken. I 9 would think, if this was an event, something 10 transpired that would have suggested that I was 11 upset, it is probably something that I would have 12 remembered. 13 Q. So are you saying that 14 Mr. Bornstein's memo prepared or dated 12 days or 15 so after the event is incorrect? 16 A. I have no recollection of any of what 17 he says here occurring. And I certainly do not 18 remember any discussions about or me being upset. 19 I have no knowledge of him talking to any of 20 these other people. But I've read the memo, and 21 it was interesting reading in places, but -- 22 Q. Is it possible that the memo is 23 correct? 24 A. I have no way of knowing what his 25 thinking of what transpired that evening were or	Page 152 1 Lurie 2 Can you identify Exhibit 216 for the 3 record. 4 A. It's a letter from, it looks like -- 5 who's it from? -- from Adrian Deitz, who is an 6 attorney at Skadden, to Alan Dean, myself, the 7 Davis Polk team, John Tyree of Morgan Stanley, 8 attaching the draft of a purchase agreement with 9 their comments, "their" being Skadden and 10 Sunbeam's comments on the purchase agreement. 11 Q. I wonder if you could look at 12 subparagraph (I), which appears on Page 4 of the 13 draft. And that's the Bates page CPH 0632913. 14 A. Page 4, you said, correct? 15 Q. Correct. 16 A. Okay. 17 Q. In subparagraph (I), there is a 18 handwritten notation deleting the phrase "or any 19 development involving a prospective material 20 adverse change." 21 Do you see that? 22 A. Yes, I do. 23 Q. Do you have any understanding as to 24 why Sunbeam or Skadden was proposing deleting 25 that phrase?
Page 151 1 Lurie 2 what his recollection was or what he thought was 3 going on that night. 4 Q. So it is possible that this is 5 Mr. Bornstein's recollection? 6 A. This is obviously what he wrote 7 down. That is all I can tell you. This is words 8 that he put on this piece of paper. I don't know 9 what his thinking was or why he phrased it the 10 way he did. 11 Q. And you have no reason to believe 12 that Mr. Bornstein was making this up? 13 A. I don't want to criticize 14 Mr. Bornstein at all. I don't want to question 15 Mr. Bornstein at all. There are things in here 16 that I just have no recollection. And I think I 17 would. It didn't happen. 18 Q. Were you involved in preparing the 19 purchase agreement whereby Morgan Stanley 20 purchased the convertible offering from Sunbeam? 21 A. I would have probably -- I think I 22 was the primary draftsman of the purchase 23 agreement, correct. 24 Q. I want to show you a draft of that, 25 if I could, previously marked as Exhibit 216.	Page 153 1 Lurie 2 A. Because every issuer and every 3 issuer's counsel proposes to delete that phrase. 4 Q. And why is that? 5 A. It's prospective, forward-looking, 6 and they think it's too generic. And there may 7 be other references in this document to prospects 8 and prospective. What does that mean? It is a 9 standard comment from underwriters -- to 10 underwriters' counsel from issuers and their 11 counsel. 12 Q. And there is obviously a bit of humor 13 associated with that? 14 A. I saw it crossed out. And you asked 15 me about it. I'm just chuckling, because it's 16 always crossed out. 17 Q. Were there any discussions concerning 18 the applicability of that clause to this 19 transaction? 20 A. I would have -- I have absolutely no 21 recollection of any discussions on the 22 underwriting agreement, generically or on this 23 clause in particular, with either Morgan Stanley, 24 Skadden or the company. 25 Q. Was there any discussion to the

Page 155 1 Lurie 2 before the printers? Somewhere in the interim I 3 probably worked on it. 4 Q. Let me show you what we've marked as 5 211. 6 MR. JOHNSON: And I'm going to have 7 to ask you guys to share. For some reason I 8 don't have a spare. 9 A. Okay. 10 BY MR. JOHNSON: 11 Q. Exhibit 211 is a markup of the 12 purchase agreement and fax cover sheet; is that 13 correct? 14 A. It's a fax cover sheet. It's a cover 15 memo from Nicole Duncan addressed to Adrian Deitz 16 with cc's to me and other people with a, quote, 17 marked copy of the purchase agreement. It's 18 dated two days later. I have no recollection 19 whether there were interim versions between the 20 one we just looked at and this one. 21 Q. And it's faxed to you, among others, 22 at the printer? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. I wonder if you could look at 25 subparagraph (I) again for me. This time it's on	Page 157 1 Lurie 2 those words today. I don't remember what we 3 discussed in 2004 -- 4 MR. WISE: In 1998. 5 A. -- in 1998. Excuse me. And I can 6 read them and try to come up with reasons why I 7 think they're there. But I'm speculating now. 8 It's not what I know from before. 9 BY MR. JOHNSON: 10 Q. Have you seen that phrase in other 11 purchase agreements? 12 A. Yes, I've seen the term "in and of 13 itself." 14 Q. What's its significance in other 15 context? 16 A. That it could be one of many things. 17 It would be considered as part of something that 18 might lead to a conclusion that a material 19 adverse change in the financial condition or 20 results of operations, earnings, business or 21 prospects of the company had occurred. 22 Q. Is this revision designed to avoid 23 any dispute about whether the press release 24 constituted a material adverse change? 25 A. I can speculate that that may have

1 Lurie
2 been suggested why this should be put in, so it
3 could not be debated.
4 Q. Because, otherwise, it might have
5 been debated?
6 A. It might have been a debate.
7 Q. Did Morgan Stanley keep track of 8 Sunbeam's sales buildup after March 19th?
9 A. I today do not know exactly -- do not 10 recall what Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk would 11 have been doing on the 19th, 20th through the end
12 of the quarter or actually through, I guess, the 13 closing on the sales buildup. What we might have 14 done, I just do not recall.
15 Q. Do you have any expectation about
16 what would be done?
17 A. Do I have any expectation?
18 Q. Sure.
19 A. I could guess about things you might
20 want to do. But I don't know what we thought
21 about back then or what we advised to do. I
22 don't recall any discussions relating to it.
23 Q. What did Morgan Stanley do on this
24 transaction after March 19th?
25 A. I have no recollection of what Morgan

Page 159

1 Lurie
2 Stanley did with regard to the sales buildup,
3 because I think we're still premised that's the
4 question.
5 Q. I'm asking more generally now.
6 Putting aside the sales buildup,
7 what, if anything, did Morgan Stanley do in
8 connection with the convertible debt offering
9 after March 19th?
10 A. There would have been a closing.
11 They would have had to fund. They would have had 12 to distribute the preliminary prospectus to the 13 purchasers and the offering. There would have 14 been a bring down due diligence phone call.
15 There would have been a bring down comfort
16 letter. There would have potentially been calls
17 with the company on a variety of different
18 matters. I mean, you know.
19 Q. But as you sit here today, you don't
20 know which of those events occurred?
21 A. Well, I mean, there was a closing.
22 Q. Right.
23 A. There was a bring down due diligence
24 phone call. There would have been that. There
25 would have been Morgan Stanley distributing the

Page 160

1 Lurie
2 preliminary -- I mean, the final prospectus or 3 offering memo. I mean, there would have been
4 virtually all of those things.
5 Q. The bring down due diligence phone
6 call, did you participate in that?
7 A. I believe I did, but I don't know
8 specifically recall. Again, it would have been 9 normal for me to participate in that phone call.
10 So I'm assuming I did.
11 Q. Do you have any recollection of when 12 that occurred?
13 A. Well, if the closing was the 25th, if 14 I recall we discussed before, then it would 15 probably have been the morning of the 25th or 16 more possibly the evening before.
17 Q. Was there any discussion about 18 Sunbeam's sales situation in the first quarter as 19 part of the bring-down call?
20 A. I apologize. But I don't remember
21 the specifics of that 1998 March 23rd, 24th,
22 whatever day it was, phone call.
23 Q. This has been marked as Exhibit 35
24 previously.
25 Does Exhibit 35 refresh your memory

Page 161

1 Lurie
2 in any way concerning the subjects of the bring
3 down due diligence calls?
4 A. Other than reading and seeing this is
5 what they would have liked to discuss, it doesn't
6 make me any more recollect what actually
7 transpired on that phone call.
8 Q. Do you have any reason to believe
9 that buildup of first quarter revenues was not a
10 subject?
11 A. I have no reason to believe it was 12 not a subject. I would assume it was a subject.
13 Q. So is it fair to say that Morgan
14 Stanley knew as of the last week of March where 15 Sunbeam was with its first quarter sales?
16 A. They would have known through the 17 date of the bring down comfort letter, which 18 would have brought through a date prior to that 19 date of that comfort letter.
20 Generally, I think back then -- I
21 think it was maybe two days, that the accountants
22 would have been able to confirm -- there would 23 have been discussions with the company. So they 24 would have known through the date of the phone
25 call, which may again, as we were looking at

1 Lurie
2 before, may be actually more information than 3 would be in the bring down comfort letter. They
4 would have, obviously, a better sense March 23rd,
5 24th what the quarter was than March 19th or
6 18th.
7 Q. Do you recall learning that Sunbeam
8 was $75 million below first quarter '97 numbers
9 during the bring-down call?
10 A. I have no recollection of that
11 discussion during the bring-down call.
12 Q. Would that information warrant an
13 additional press release?
14 A. Again, I can't tell you what other
15 discussions went on. I see this piece of paper
16 (indicating). Whether there were other pieces of 17 paper that had more detailed information, for 18 example, similar to the buildup numbers page we 19 had before -- again, I just have no specific 20 recollection. And for you to just simply say it
21 was 75 million, I don't know what else we knew
22 back in 1998 when those calls were occurring.
23 Q. So simply knowing that with less than 24 a week to go in the quarter Sunbeam was $75
25 million behind in revenue to make the first

1 Lurie
2 potentially raised issues about a new press
3 release. It could have raised issues about
4 stickering the offering memo, because this is now
5 after the final offering memo had been printed.
6 But, again, I don't know what other information
7 we had. And I don't know where the 75 million
8 number comes from.
9 Q. And you don't know whether any 10 additional due diligence was performed after 11 March 24th?
12 A. After March 24th?
13 Q. Correct.
14 A. We closed the next morning, I
15 recall. So I'm not sure what more due diligence
16 would have been done between the night of -- 17 assuming it was the evening of the 24th, when the 18 bring-down call occurred, and 10 o'clock the next
19 morning, when the underwriters like to close, or 20 9 o'clock, whatever.
21 Q. Aside from the bring down due
22 diligence phone call on the 24th or 25th, did
23 Morgan Stanley do any other diligence activities
24 between March 19th and the bring-down call?
25 A. Again, I do not recall today what

1 Lurie
2 quarter '97 number, that alone is insufficient
3 for you to determine whether that is material
4 that needs to be disclosed?
5 MR. WISE: He says he doesn't know
6 where the 75 million -- I don't know whether 7 you're testifying or on what basis you are 8 presenting that to him, but he's already
9 told you he doesn't recognize that number.
10 The question is, at best, hypothetical,
11 assuming that your information is correct.
12 BY MR. JOHNSON:
13 Q. Can you answer the question?
14 A. I'm not sure what the question is at 15 this point. Because, again, where is the 75
16 million? How do we get that information?
17 Q. If Sunbeam advised you that it was 18 $75 million below first quarter '97 numbers as of 19 March 24, would information, in and of itself, be 20 sufficient for you to determine that it needed to 21 be disclosed?
22 A. It would have certainly raised at 23 March 23rd, 24th, with seven days left in the 24 quarter, questions about further due diligence on 25 the quarterly numbers, and it would have

1 Lurie
2 other work either Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley
3 did back in the March 1998, between the dates,
4 the 19th and the 23rd, 24th, what we would have
5 done, what we did back then.
6 Q. Were there any discussions in March
7 1998 concerning the impact on Sunbeam's second
8 quarter of its efforts to make first quarter
9 numbers?
10 A. I don't again recall any specific
11 questions today that were discussed back in 1998
12 relating to impact on second quarter of first
13 quarter.
14 Q. Would you expect that to be an area
15 of inquiry?
16 A. Well, it's just part of the whole
17 issue that we were talking about earlier on that 18 was in the offering memo about what one of the 19 earlier sales programs, whatever they were 20 called. I mean, it would be issues and questions
21 that you would be looking into as part of the 22 whole process.
23 Q. I'm going to give you what we've
24 marked previously as Exhibit 33. Exhibit 33 is 25 another bring down due diligence call agenda; is

Page 166

1 Lurie
2 that correct?
3 A. Yeah. From -- dated previous, it
4 looks like. This is dated March 19th. The 5 earlier memo is dated four days later, March
6 23rd.
7 Q. And the first bullet point in Exhibit
8 33 refers to the top and bottom line outlook for 9 first quarter, first half and the year?
10 A. Uh-huh.
11 Q. That doesn't appear in Exhibit 35?
12 A. That was the other one?
13 Q. Correct.
14 A. Those specific words obviously don't 15 appear in 35.
16 Q. Why is that?
17 A. Why? I don't know. I can't recall
18 why it got changed, why it was different. I
19 mean, the concepts are in the Exhibit 35: Are 20 you still comfortable with 1998 earning
21 estimates? So that's a bottom-line number for a
22 full fiscal year.
23 Q. So you don't recall any discussions
24 concerning revisions to the bring down due
25 diligence call agenda?

Page 167

1 Lurie
2 MR. WISE: Besides which, if he did,
3 I would tell him not to answer.
4 BY MR. JOHNSON:
5 Q. Looking again at Exhibit 35, the
6 March 23 agenda, the first bullet provides,
7 "Please update us on the build up of first
8 quarter revenue and earnings"?
9 A. Uh-huh.
10 Q. What did you hear about Sunbeam's
11 earnings in that bring down due diligence call?
12 A. I don't recall any specific
13 discussions in that bring-down call regarding 14 earnings.
15 Q. Do you think you would recall if you
16 learned that Sunbeam was showing a loss?
17 A. Well, again, it depends. I mean,
18 what we knew, when we knew -- I mean, if that was 19 the first time I had heard of a loss, yes, it
20 might have caused me to be surprised. But I
21 don't remember when in the whole process we knew
22 what was going on and what the issues were. So I
23 can't tell you if I was surprised --
24 Q. But you don't recall anything out of 25 the ordinary?

Page 168

1 Lurie
2 A. No.
3 Q. Did you ever learn that Sunbeam was
4 extending the ending date of its first quarter?
5 A. I do not recall ever being told that
6 or hearing that or learning that.
7 Q. So you had no discussions with
8 Andersen about whether the first quarter time
9 frame would be extended?
10 A. I have no recollection. That would
11 be very surprising to me.
12 Q. Surprising that the quarter would be 13 extended or surprising that you had the 14 discussions, or both?
15 A. Certainly extending the quarter would 16 have surprised me.
17 Q. Why do you say that?
18 A. Because you can't do that.
19 Q. So if you had known that, that would 20 be something that would cause you to make further
21 inquiry?
22 A. I would have inquired, How can you do
23 that under the accounting rules?
24 Q. Do you know how much bill-and-hold
25 revenue Sunbeam recognized in the first quarter

Page 169

1 Lurie
2 of '98?
3 A. Absolutely no recollection.
4 Q. Did you make any inquiry as to how
5 much bill-and-hold revenue was being recognized
6 in the first quarter of 1998?
7 A. I have no recollection of any
8 discussions -- any specific discussions on that
9 subject at this point.
10 Q. Would the amount of the bill-and-hold
11 revenue in the first quarter be an area of 12 inquiry or concern?
13 A. Again, depends on the context of all
14 the other pieces of information you have at the 15 point in time. You can't necessarily just take 16 one fact and say that's -- it may change the mix
17 of facts that are going to have you do certain 18 things because of that.
19 Q. So if you had known there was $30
20 million of bill-and-hold revenue in the first 21 quarter, that fact by itself wouldn't cause you
22 any concern?
23 A. Depends on what bill and hold were in 24 the prior quarter. It depends on what we had 25 heard about why there was going to be that amount

Page 170 1 Lurie 2 of bill and hold and if that was a large amount. 3 I don't recall any of that. 4 Q. Did you receive a bring-down letter 5 from Andersen? 6 A. We would have received a bring-down 7 comfort letter. 8 Q. Do you recall, in fact, receiving it 9 in this case? 10 A. I don't recall specifically, but 11 practice with Morgan Stanley and other 12 underwriters would be to receive a bring-down 13 comfort letter. 14 Q. But you don't remember how you got it 15 or where you were when you first received a copy? 16 A. It would have been delivered at the 17 closing, often coming in by fax. Whether that's 18 how it was delivered in this. But that's often 19 how it's handled. 20 Q. I'm going to show you Exhibit 112. 21 Does this appear to be the bring-down 22 comfort letter delivered to Morgan Stanley? 23 A. Yes, it does. 24 Q. Do you recall anyone from Davis Polk 25 or Morgan Stanley having any reaction to the	Page 172 1 Lurie 2 information that we would have had. Their 3 procedures and work actually is only through the 4 23rd. That's back in paragraph (c). So we 5 actually had potentially more updated information 6 than was in here. 7 Q. So this information didn't cause you 8 any shock? 9 A. Again, I don't recall it causing any 10 shock, annoyance or surprise. 11 Q. Did Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk 12 share this information in the comfort letter with 13 anyone? 14 A. I mean, I would have obviously given 15 a copy to Alan and probably the other people on 16 our team. Morgan Stanley would have probably 17 given it around in-house. Whoever else they 18 might have shared it with, I have no knowledge. 19 I don't think we would have shared it with 20 anyone. 21 Q. Why do you say that? 22 A. Because it wouldn't be our practice 23 to share a comfort letter with anyone else. I 24 mean, if there were other underwriters that 25 weren't in this offering, they would have
Page 171 1 Lurie 2 information in this letter? 3 A. I have no recollection of anyone's 4 reaction, positive or negative, to this letter. 5 Q. You don't recall anyone being 6 surprised by it? 7 A. I don't recall anyone being surprised 8 by it. 9 Q. Were there any discussions at all 10 surrounding its contents? 11 A. I don't recall any specific 12 discussions relating to the contents of this or 13 the drafts that we had most likely received 14 beforehand. 15 Q. And you don't recall any shock over 16 the loss of $40 million in the first two months 17 of 1998? 18 A. No. I'd have to go back also and 19 look at what the earlier March 19th one said. 20 Again, this is through -- the period that they're 21 covering is through March 1 of '98. The buildup 22 that we talked about is from the April -- excuse 23 me -- from the March 18th meeting had more 24 updated information. The bring down due 25 diligence call would have had more updated	Page 173 1 Lurie 2 received copies, but -- 3 Q. But, otherwise, it's for 4 underwriters? 5 A. Yeah. 6 Q. At any point during your work on the 7 Sunbeam transaction, did you have any dealings of 8 any sort with anyone from MacAndrews & Forbes? 9 A. I don't recall speaking to anyone 10 from Andrews [sic] & Forbes. There may have been 11 -- they may have been on the phone at some point 12 in time, but I don't recall today. 13 Q. You can't tell me the name of any 14 MacAndrews & Forbes person who was on any phone 15 call with you? 16 A. Not that I recall today, no. I'm 17 sorry. 18 Q. How about Wachtel Lipton? Did you 19 have any dealings with them in connection with 20 the Sunbeam transaction? 21 A. Not to my recollection. 22 Q. How about Credit Suisse First Boston? 23 A. Today, not to my recollection. We 24 may have, but I know that they represented. 25 Q. Anyone associated with the Coleman

1 Lurie
2 company? Did you have any dealings with anyone
3 from Coleman?
4 A. Well, at some point in time during
5 the due diligence process, we would have done due
6 diligence. And we would have had phone calls
7 with management of Coleman, First Alert and --
8 what's the --
9 MR. WISE: Signature Brands.
10 A. -- Signature Brands. We would have
11 done due diligence on those companies. There
12 would have been someone from management of those 13 companies on the phone that we would have spoken
14 to. So, yes, at some point, I presume we had 15 conversations with people from Coleman.
16 BY MR. JOHNSON:
17 Q. But as you sit here today --
18 A. I don't recall specifically who it
19 would have been.
20 Q. Or even if it, in fact, occurred?
21 A. I'm only assuming. And knowing the 22 practice and the process for an offering related
23 to three acquisitions, or even one acquisition
24 that's described, we would have spent time with 25 the management, with the accountants of the

Page 175

1 Lurie
2 acquired target company.
3 Q. Are you aware of anyone outside of
4 Morgan Stanley, Skadden Arps, Davis Polk or
5 Sunbeam who was aware of -- and Andersen -- who 6 was aware of the sales shortfall during the first
7 quarter of 1998?
8 MR. WISE: You said there was a press
9 release that went out. Assuming anyone read
10 that press release.
11 BY MR. JOHNSON:
12 Q. Let me phrase the question
13 differently.
14 Do you know of anyone outside of 15 Andersen, Skadden, Sunbeam, Morgan Stanley and 16 Davis Polk who was aware of the fact through the 17 first two months of '98 sales were running at 18 half of the prior year period?
19 A. I have no knowledge of who else might
20 have been advised or been told of those facts.
21 Q. But, to your knowledge, Davis Polk
22 and Morgan Stanley didn't advise anyone of those 23 facts?
24 A. I do not recall advising anyone. I
25 cannot tell you what Morgan Stanley might have

Page 176

1 Lurie
2 done, whether they advised the other bank
3 syndicate members. Often, they probably would
4 have. But I can't tell you, because I don't know
5 what they did and have no recollection of what
6 they might have done.
7 Q. From your perspective, was the 8 Sunbeam convertible offering a successful one for
9 Morgan Stanley?
10 A. At the time I thought it was.
11 Q. How about today?
12 A. Today, knowing what happened,
13 probably wasn't so successful for them.
14 Q. Why do you say that?
15 A. I have a sneaking suspicion they may 16 have had to buy back a good portion of the bonds.
17 Q. What's your basis for that suspicion?
18 A. Just word of mouth and understanding
19 what often happens in failed deals. In failed
20 deals, in the sense that the company does not
21 meet its expectations.
22 Q. This was a failed deal, it's safe to 23 say?
24 A. Ultimately, you could say that
25 Sunbeam did not meet its expectations. And,

Page 177

1 Lurie
2 therefore, there might have been some significant
3 issues. And Morgan Stanley, I'm assuming, had to 4 buy back a number of bonds.
5 Q. When you say you're assuming that, do
6 you actually know one way or the other whether
7 Morgan Stanley did buy back bonds?
8 A. I do not know as a fact, just word of 9 mouth, understanding this may have occurred.
10 Q. When you say word of mouth,
11 understanding that this may have occurred, can 12 you tell me in any more detail?
13 A. Generally in the market, I could have
14 been -- by the time that might have occurred, I
15 was no longer at Davis Polk. I might have heard
16 it through other underwriters -- other investment
17 banks. Excuse me. And I don't recall how I
18 heard. But that's just what my understanding is,
19 that that's what happened.
20 Q. That it did happen or -- are you
21 assuming that it happened, or did you hear that 22 it happened?
23 A. Well, that is semantics. I'm
24 assuming it happened, because that's what I
25 understood happened. So I don't know as a fact,

Page 178

1 Lurie
2 because I was not at Morgan Stanley, hearing them
3 specifically tell me they bought back X dollars
4 of those bonds.
5 Q. But you heard that happened?
6 A. That is -- I heard that happened.
7 Q. Do you know when that happened?
8 A. I don't know. I don't recall. I
9 presume it was within the first few months after 10 -- three to six months after the offering.
11 Q. And can you give me any more detail
12 on the word of mouth or from whom you heard it?
13 A. I apologize. This is 2004. This is 14 a long time ago. I don't recall.
15 Q. Do you know one way or the other
16 whether Morgan Stanley & Company lost money on
17 the Sunbeam transaction?
18 A. I have no -- I have no knowledge of 19 those facts. I don't know if they made money,
20 lost money, whatever.
21 Q. To your knowledge, was Morgan Stanley
22 or Davis Polk denied access to any information or 23 personnel at Sunbeam?
24 A. Not to my knowledge. I have no
25 recollection of being denied access to anyone.

Page 179

1 Lurie
2 And if I was, it would certainly have raised a
3 question in my mind. But I have no recollection
4 of having that concern.
5 Q. Have you formed the view, with
6 hindsight, that Sunbeam lied to Morgan Stanley,
7 though?
8 A. I really haven't thought about 9 whether they were lying or whether they just 10 missed their sales expectations. I know there
11 were issues later on with channel stuffing and 12 revenue recognition and potentially sales that 13 didn't occur or that were empty boxes, sort of,
14 but I don't know when those -- I don't recall
15 today when those occurred, whether they were in 16 connection with the offering -- or in connection
17 with the first quarter, not saying in connection
18 with the offering. It's just a long time ago.
19 And I don't remember the specifics of the time
20 frame.
21 Q. So as you sit here, you are not in a
22 position to say that Sunbeam lied to Morgan
23 Stanley?
24 A. At the time I didn't -- not think
25 they were lying. I don't know again what all the

Page 180

1 Lurie
2 transactions were and when all the questionable
3 practices occurred. I don't recall, at least.
4 Q. And you were nodding your head "no,"
5 which the Court Reporter can't pick up.
6 A. Oh, I'm sorry.
7 Q. You left Davis Polk in April of '98?
8 A. End of April.
9 Q. Were you negotiating with O'Sullivan
10 while you were -- during March of '98?
11 A. I had agreed -- I think I told people
12 that I was leaving back in February. I think it
13 was like two months before. In fact, Sunbeam was 14 the last real deal I did at Davis Polk.
15 Q. So you had already given notice
16 before you worked on the transaction?
17 A. Yeah. Yeah.
18 Q. But you were still at Davis Polk when 19 the April 3 press release came out; is that
20 correct?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. That was the press release -- well,
23 let me just show it to you.
24 This was marked previously as Exhibit
25 36.

Page 181

1 Lurie
2 A. Do you want me to read this whole
3 thing?
4 Q. If you could. Thanks.
5 A. Okay.
6 Q. Did you see this press release at 7 around the time it was issued?
8 A. I have absolutely no recollection of 9 seeing this press release.
10 Q. Do you have any recollection, then,
11 of being surprised by Sunbeam's first quarter '98
12 results when they were announced?
13 A. I do not today -- recall today when I
14 heard about the first quarter or this press
15 release or anything else about the Sunbeam.
16 Q. So it's safe to say, then, that you
17 don't recall any surprise about hearing the 18 results?
19 A. That's correct. I don't remember any 20 surprise.
21 Q. I want to ask you about one sentence
22 which is on -- in the second paragraph of the 23 release itself.
24 A. Okay.
25 Q. Towards the middle there is a

Page 182

1 Lurie
2 sentence that states, "We were offered
3 opportunities to sell additional product at 4 margins which we felt were unacceptable and we
5 rejected that business."
6 Had you heard anything like that
7 during the course of your diligence?
8 A. I don't recall any discussion
9 relating to that.
10 Q. How about the next sentence and, in 11 particular, the phrase that "Sunbeam felt it was 12 important to preserve the integrity of our brands
13 and not to sacrifice the future of our business
14 for short term results."
15 Do you see that?
16 A. Yeah.
17 Q. At any time in March of 1998 did you
18 have any discussions concerning Sunbeam's
19 long-term performance as opposed to its 20 short-term results?
21 A. Well, we obviously talked about, as I
22 said earlier, the full year expectations versus 23 quarterly expectations. We very well may have 24 seen projections for 1999 during the course of 25 the due diligence process. So you're always

Page 183

1 Lurie
2 looking at both short-term projections and
3 long-term forecast projections.
4 Q. Did you satisfy yourself that Sunbeam
5 was -- strike that.
6 Did you determine whether Sunbeam was
7 a company being run on a short-term basis?
8 A. I don't remember making -- I don't
9 remember what determination or conclusions we
10 reached back in 1998.
11 Q. Did you have any discussions with 12 anyone at Davis Polk after the convertible
13 offering closed concerning Sunbeam, excluding the 14 past few months?
15 A. I don't recall any discussions. I
16 mean, the last month I was pretty much packing up
17 my office, passing on other transactions, other
18 clients I had been working on. I don't remember
19 really today anything that might have happened
20 regarding Sunbeam during my last month at Davis
21 Polk.
22 Q. So you don't recall any discussions
23 with, say, Mr. Dean after the first quarter
24 closed?
25 A. I do not recall any discussions with

Page 184

1 Lurie
2 Mr. Dean.
3 Q. Did Davis Polk do any kind of 4 postmortem on the convertible offering?
5 A. Not to my recollection. I'm also --
6 I'm not sure what you mean by "postmortem." But 7 I'll assume -- I don't remember anything out of 8 the ordinary. Let's put it that way.
9 Q. You testified earlier today that you
10 looked at the acquisition documents to get a
11 sense of -- the merger documents to get a sense
12 of how they were described in the offering
13 memorandum?
14 A. Uh-huh.
15 Q. I'm going to show you one of those,
16 if I could.
17 A. Sure.
18 Q. It's been marked previously as MS
19 117. And, obviously, it's a lengthy document.
20 So we're not going to have you read the whole
21 thing now.
22 A. Thank you. Thank you.
23 Q. Does this look to be the merger
24 agreement between Sunbeam and Coleman?
25 A. It looks to be the merger agreement

Page 185

1 Lurie
2 between Sunbeam and Coleman, yes.
3 Q. And this would be the document that
4 you reviewed in March of '98?
5 A. Well, again, I can't tell you
6 specifically that I actually looked at that
7 agreement. It could have been looked at by 8 Heather or someone else at Davis Polk. And they 9 may have summarized any provisions to me. I
10 don't recall when I specifically read this 11 document. It varies from deal to deal and 12 transaction to transaction of what I do or 13 someone else may do.
14 Q. But it would be at least subject for 15 discussion within Davis Polk?
16 A. It would have been reviewed as part
17 of the due diligence process. Whether it would 18 have been a subject of discussion is another
19 question, but it clearly would have been
20 reviewed.
21 Q. I wonder if you could look at 22 paragraph -- excuse me -- Section 7.3, which is 23 on Page 29 --
24 A. Uh-huh.
25 Q. -- and, in particular, 7.3(b) and

Page 186

1 Lurie
2 read that for me.
3 A. You want me to read it out loud?
4 Q. Just read it to yourself.
5 A. Oh. Okay.
6 Q. Laser --
7 A. I was just going to look back.
8 Laser, I presume, is Sunbeam?
9 MR. WISE: If you look on the first 10 page, Laser is Sunbeam. The company is the 11 Coleman company.
12 BY MR. JOHNSON:
13 Q. As long as we're looking at 14 definitions, I want to call your attention to the 15 definition of information statement, which is on
16 Page 4.
17 A. Okay.
18 Q. And, of course, that refers you to 19 another section?
20 A. 4.9.
21 Q. 4.9.
22 A. Why should it be any different than
23 any other merger agreement? Uh-huh.
24 Q. Do you see the definition of 25 information statement in 4.9?

Page 187

1 Lurie
2 A. Uh-huh.
3 Q. And that's the information statement
4 referred to in 7.3(b)?
5 A. I have to go back and look. I don't
6 see (b). Is there a reference -- oh, there it
7 is. Yeah. That would be the same definition.
8 Q. Based on the definition of 9 information statement in 4.9, do you have a sense
10 of what that document is?
11 A. It would be the information statement
12 that was distributed in connection with the 13 merger. They must have needed shareholder
14 approval of the merger. So there was some 15 information statement that was being delivered.
16 That appears to be, on a quick reading, what's 17 being referred to. I guess 13(e)(3) is a going
18 private provision of the securities law. So
19 there must have been -- the Coleman transaction
20 must have constituted going private transaction.
21 Were they a public company? I don't
22 even recall beforehand.
23 Q. If you look at Section 4.9, it also 24 refers to a Section 14F, "Notice."
25 Do you see that?

Page 188

1 Lurie
2 A. Yes, I do.
3 Q. That's a different document than the
4 information statement?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. I want to mark a document, if I
7 could. This will be CPH 231.
8 (CPH Exhibit 231, Coleman Company,
9 Inc. Notice of Merger and Appraisal Rights
10 and Information Sheet, Bates-stamped CPH
11 1398266 through CPH 1398501, marked for 12 identification, as of this date.)
13 BY MR. JOHNSON:
14 Q. Exhibit 231, for the record, is 15 entitled "Coleman Company, Inc. Notice of Merger
16 and Appraisal Rights and Information Statement."
17 And it has the Bates stamp CPH 1398266 through 18 '501. And I recognize this too is a lengthy
19 document.
20 Does this appear to be the 21 information statement referred to in 7.3(b) of 22 the agreement and plan of merger?
23 MR. CLARE: I object to the form of 24 the question, and foundation, as it relates
25 to Mr. Lurie's involvement. He has already

Page 189

1 Lurie
2 testified he didn't have any involvement in
3 the merger agreement. So I think it's
4 improper for you to ask him any questions.
5 BY MR. JOHNSON:
6 Q. You can answer.
7 A. It appears to be the information
8 statement registration statement S4 that's being
9 referred to, or whatever in this other document,
10 in the merger agreement.
11 Q. In 7.3(b) of the merger agreement?
12 A. 4.9.
13 Q. Actually both.
14 MR. WISE: Okay. If you're
15 testifying, then we can all leave --
16 MR. JOHNSON: No, no, no.
17 MR. WISE: And since you know the 18 answers to the questions --
19 MR. JOHNSON: I'm trying --
20 MR. WISE: I'm sorry. I'm talking.
21 Since you seem to know the answers to the 22 questions, there's no sense in, you know,
23 holding us here. So maybe we could wrap it
24 up, then, since you already know the 25 answers.

Page 191 1 Lurie 2 of that. 3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 2:35. 4 This completes tape number two. 5 (Recess taken.) 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 2:44. 7 We're back on the record. This begins tape 8 number three. 9 MR. JOHNSON: I have no questions. 10 MR. CLARE: Mr. Lurie, I just have a 11 few questions for you. 12 THE WITNESS: Okay. 13 EXAMINATION BY 14 MR. CLARE: 15 Q. Did you work on any aspect of the 16 merger and acquisition part of the transaction 17 between Coleman and Sunbeam? 18 A. No, not to my recollection. I had no 19 involvement in that part of the transaction. 20 Q. Did you ever represent Coleman in any 21 portion of this transaction? 22 A. Absolutely not. 23 Q. Are you aware of what, if any, 24 filings Coleman made with the SEC related to that 25 transaction?	Page 193 1 Lurie 2 why Exhibit 231 is dated, as you say, about 18 3 months after the transaction? 4 A. I do not ever recall seeing this 5 document. I'd have to go through and figure out 6 what this is all. I'm assuming this is the 7 information memo. 8 Q. Did you learn at some point that 9 Arthur Andersen withheld its consent to the 10 filing of the registration statement on the 11 convertible offering? 12 A. On the registration statement on the 13 -- on the convertible offering? 14 Q. Yes. 15 A. It was a 144A. I don't recall there 16 being a registration related to it. 17 Q. You don't recall any subsequent 18 registration? 19 A. I don't recall any subsequent 20 registration. 21 Q. Do you recall more generally Andersen 22 withholding its consent to any SEC filings for 23 Sunbeam? 24 A. I don't recall anything. This is, to 25 my knowledge, the first I've heard that they

Page 194 1 Lurie 2 withheld their consent. 3 Q. As you sit here today, do you have an 4 opinion as to whether the offering memorandum 5 that you worked on was materially false and 6 misleading at the time it was issued? 7 A. I'm sorry. Could you repeat the 8 question. 9 Q. As you sit here today, with the 10 benefit of hindsight, do you have opinion as to 11 whether, when it issued, the offering memorandum 12 was materially false and misleading? 13 A. I haven't really thought about it. 14 There are obviously questions I might want to 15 reconsider today, but I haven't really thought 16 about it. It depends on what we knew and what we 17 felt at the time we issued the offering 18 memorandum that was issued that we had done the 19 appropriate, necessary thorough due diligence, 20 and we thought it was an appropriate offering 21 memo. 22 Q. But with the benefit of hindsight, 23 you now acknowledge it may not have been an 24 accurate offering memorandum? 25 A. I don't want to acknowledge anything.	Page 196 1 Lurie 2 and that's not a fair way to put the 3 question. And you've gone way beyond the 4 questions that Mr. Clare had asked. So I 5 would suggest you wrap it up. 6 BY MR. JOHNSON: 7 Q. Can you answer the question? 8 DI MR. WISE: No. I'm going to direct 9 him not to answer that. 10 BY MR. JOHNSON: 11 Q. As you sit here today, you don't know 12 where the Sunbeam fraud fits in relation to the 13 work that you did for Sunbeam? 14 MR. WISE: He just said that. That's 15 repetitive. I object and direct him not to 16 answer. 17 Do you have some new questions for 18 this witness? 19 MR. JOHNSON: No, I don't. And if -- 20 DI MR. WISE: Then if you don't, we're 21 finished. I direct him not to answer. It's 22 repetitive. He answered that. It's in the 23 transcript. You already have that answer. 24 MR. JOHNSON: Okay. No further 25 questions.
Page 195 1 Lurie 2 I mean, again, I'd have to go back and understand 3 what the issues related to Sunbeam's actual 4 problems were, which I don't specifically recall 5 today, what the related SEC concerns and 6 investigations were, have to tie it back to what 7 was in the offering memo and what we may have 8 known at the time. And I just haven't spent any 9 time, to be honest, thinking about those. 10 Q. So, as you sit here today, you don't 11 have an opinion as to whether there was, in fact, 12 a massive fraud at Sunbeam? 13 A. I understand there was significant 14 fraud at Sunbeam through the papers, through the 15 SEC proceeding, that there was fraud related to 16 Sunbeam. I do not recall today where and how and 17 what period that fraud related to or specifically 18 how it might have related to the audited 19 financials that were in our offering memo. I'd 20 have to go back and review all of that if you 21 want a specific answer. 22 Q. And so you don't have a recollection 23 of Sunbeam unraveling within months of the 24 offering memorandum? 25 MR. WISE: That's not what he said,	Page 197 1 Lurie 2 MR. WISE: Thank you. 3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 2:49 4 p.m. This completes the videotaped 5 deposition of Mr. James Lurie. 6 7 8 JAMES M.  2 MR. LIPMAN: Good morning. It is June 9th,
 3 approximately 10 to 10:00. We are back on the record to
 4 continue the testimony of Mr. Harlow.
 5 This is an investigation by the United States
 6 Securities and Exchange Commission in the matter of Sunbeam
 7 Corporation, HO-3433, to determine whether there have been
 8 violations of certain provisions of the federal securities
 9 laws. However, the facts developed in this investigation may 10 constitute violations of other federal or state civil or 11 criminal laws.

12 Sir, as yesterday, I am going to put a copy of the 13 formal order and all the exhibits on the table for you to 14 reference if you wish and also Exhibit I, which is the 15 supplemental information form. And I am Alex Lipman, this is 16 Deb Heilizer, Ray Hamm, Kyra Armstrong. We are officers of 17 the Commission for the purposes of this proceeding.

18 Is the witness represented by counsel?

19 MR. HAYNES: Good morning. I am Barney Hayes of 20 King and Spalding. I represent Mr. Harlow and Arthur
 21 Andersen, LLP, and to my left is George Vrana, who is a
 22 partner with Arthur Andersen who is an expert advising me in 23 connection with my representation.

24 MR. LIPMAN: Okay. Sir, I just need to remind you
 25 that you are still under oath.

3 PHILLIP E. HARLOW

4 was called as a witness and, having been previously duly
 5 sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. LIPMAN:

8 Q Before we broke yesterday, we were talking about 9 the Form 10-K that was filed on March 6th by Sunbeam and the 10 disclosure in the form that related to the Early Buy program.

11 A Right.

12 Q Have you -- I know it is a large form. Have you
 13 had the chance to look it over since we adjourned yesterday?

14 A Yes. I have had -- I spent a few minutes flipping
 15 through the document this morning.

16 Q Were there any disclosures relating to the Early
 17 Buy program or the Bill and Hold, other than what we have 18 discussed, that you found in your review of the document?

19 A There was a discussion in the MD&A section on
 20 page 15.

21 MR. HAYNES: Mr. Lipman, before we get into this.

22 MR. LIPMAN: Yes, sir.

23 MR. HAYNES: I know there may be clarifications
 24 that the witness may want to put on the record with respect
 25 to several matters. It is up to you as to when you would

1 like that.

2 BY MR. LIPMAN:

3 Q Well, if you would like to do that right away, why

4 don't we get, you know, get it done so that -- go ahead.

5 A Okay. With respect to the WinSmart document that

6 was discussed yesterday, I talked with Larry Bornstein last

7 night to ascertain whether or not that represented the final

8 WinSmart document and the original WinSmart document in our

9 files. And it does. So to remove the question of doubt as

10 to whether that was the filed WinSmart document in our files,

11 it, in fact, is and I am satisfied that what I saw yesterday

12 represents that document.

13 BY MS. HEILIZER:

14 Q What did Mr. Bornstein tell you that assured you

15 that that was the final document?

16 A We discussed the dates at the top of the schedule,

17 and what he found in the files corresponded with the dates on

18 the form that I reviewed yesterday.

19 Q Okay. Was your lawyer in on this call?

20 MR. HAYNES: No.

21 THE WITNESS: No.

22 BY MS. HEILIZER:

23 Q Who else was on the call, other than you and

24 Mr. Bornstein?

25 A I believe Jim Gorsline. He was -- I was on a

1 speakerphone.

2 MR. HAYNES: I am sorry, I didn't realize that.

3 THE WITNESS: He was -- he is one of Mr. Haynes'

4 associates.

5 BY MS. HEILIZER:

6 Q Now were you having a conversation with

7 Mr. Bornstein or with Mr. Gorsline?

8 A With Mr. Bornstein with Mr. Gorsline present with 9 Mr. Bornstein in south Florida.

10 Q Was the purpose of this call either to give or to 11 obtain legal advice?

12 A The purpose was to clarify the doubt in my mind as

13 to whether or not that represented the final WinSmart

14 document in our files.

15 Q Do you know whether Mr. Bornstein had the original

16 work papers with him when he was talking to you?

17 A Yes, he did.

18 Q So where was he when he was talking to you?

19 A Mr. Bornstein was in our Ft. Lauderdale office in 20 Florida.

21 Q And what did you say to him and what did he say to 22 you about the date of the documents?

23 A I, sometime yesterday, left a voice mail for 24 Mr. Bornstein to check our files for 1996 and determine if we

25 had more than one WinSmart form in our files and also to

1 check the dates on the WinSmart form in our files. And last

2 night I talked to Mr. Bornstein and he confirmed that the

3 WinSmart form in our original files was dated -- the first

4 page was dated the same date as the first page of the copy I

5 looked at yesterday. And the subsequent pages were dated

6 with the same date as the copy that I reviewed yesterday.

7 And there was not another WinSmart form in our files.

8 Q Did you talk to him about any other subject matters

9 of your testimony yesterday?

10 A No, I did not.

11 Q Did you talk to him about anything else?

12 A No, I did not. No.

13 BY MR. LIPMAN:

14 Q Sir, there were other things, I believe, that you

15 wanted to clarify.

16 A I wanted to clarify -- there was a question

17 yesterday pertaining to the need for additional disclosure in

18 the 10-K on the shortfall in sales that took place during the 19 first quarter. And I don't know if I misunderstood the 20 question or it was after the point in time I indicated I was

21 somewhat tired, but I believe I answered that question saying

22 it would have been wonderful to have some additional

23 disclosure.

24 When I answered that question, I was taking into

25 consideration or thinking about all of the subsequent events

Page 178

1 during the restatement that I was aware of, and answered in

2 that way. Had I known only what I knew at that point in

3 time, I don't feel that it is a requirement that that

4 information would be disclosed in the 10-K. But had I known

5 everything I knew up to this point in time during our

6 extended procedures on the 1997 audit, not only would

7 additional disclosure have been great, but a restatement

8 would have been necessary.

9 Also, I would like to clarify I believe there was a

10 question on was I comfortable with the disclosures in the 11 10-K. And I believe I testified that I was not a hundred

12 percent comfortable. And I just want to clarify what I meant

13 by that, because comfortable can mean different things and

14 there are many degrees of being comfortable.

15 My answer was not to mean that I felt that the 16 disclosure was incorrect, inadequate, or misleading. You

17 know, my testimony that I was not a hundred percent

18 comfortable, it would have been nice to have, you know,

19 perhaps better wording and different wording in the document,

20 but I did not believe that what ended up in the document was

21 misleading or inadequate.

22 The question on -- there was a question related to

23 the relationship of disclosures in the front part of the 10-K

24 and the financial statements or footnotes to the financial

25 statements. And it is my opinion that the disclosures in the

Diversified Reporting Services, Inc. (202) 296-9626, 6-9-99

1 10-K in the front part and the footnote disclosures are not
2 misleading and are not -- there is not a situation that it
3 creates an inconsistency between the financial statements and 4 the rest of the document.

5 BY MS. HEILIZER:

6 Q Do you believe that as you sit here today that the 7 disclosures in the 10-K for the 1997 fiscal year are not
8 misleading?

9 A As I sit here today, based on what I know today, as 10 compared to what I knew at the time the document was 11 prepared, there is a difference.

12 Q Well, that is why I am asking. You said it is not
13 misleading.

14 A My opinion is different. My opinion is different
15 today than what it was at the time I did the audit work.

16 Q So your statement as of a moment ago that it wasn't
17 misleading was referring back to your knowledge at the time
18 it was filed?

19 A That is correct.

20 Q And your opinion today is what?

21 A Well, my opinion today is --

22 MR. HAYNES: Based on what he knows after the fact.

23 THE WITNESS: Based on --

24 MS. HEILIZER: Based upon what he knows today.

25 THE WITNESS: Based on what I know today, based on

Page 180

1 the expanded audit procedures we performed on Bill and Hold
2 transactions, it is misleading because an adjustment was made
3 to reverse those sales. The disclosure would not even have 4 been in the document had I known what I know today. Had the 5 company not booked those sales, disclosure would not even be
6 there.

7 MR. LIPMAN: Let's --

8 MR. HAYNES: Now I will be more careful in trying
9 to listen to your questions in terms of timing because I

10 think that creates a problem. In other words, what he knew 11 back at the time of the issuance of the 10-K as to what he 12 knows today. Sometimes the questions are clear enough and I
13 don't want to object when you are on one train of thought,
14 but on other occasions, if you would be more specific, I will 15 try to be more alert. And I think it will be more helpful to 16 the witness because the witness is having difficulty in terms
17 of time, in terms of the question in time.

18 BY MR. LIPMAN:

19 Q Well, I appreciate that because my questions
20 yesterday have -- you know, what I wanted to know was how 21 this related -- how this was or should have been affected by 22 what you knew. But also there are -- you know, if it is not
23 clear, then please ask me to clarify it because there is a
24 difference between what you knew and what the company knew or 25 there may be a difference between what you knew and what the

Page 181

1 company knew. And if the question is not clear, then, you
2 know, I will clarify it.

3 A There is one other thing that I would like to 4 clarify and that was related to a question on who did I talk
5 to regarding Mr. Dunlap. And another partner that I talked
6 to was Bill Ramsaur, R-a-m-s-a-u-r. And Bill was an Andersen
7 consulting partner that had worked on the Assistance project
8 in Hattiesburg, Mississippi and worked on Sunbeam for several 9 years as a consulting engagement partner.

10 And as I recall, Bill indicated that he knew the 11 partner that had worked on the Scott Paper project when 12 Mr. Dunlap arrived and became the CEO of Scott Paper. I do
13 not recall any negative references or negative comments made
14 about Mr. Dunlap or Andersen's consulting experience with 15 Mr. Dunlap.

16 BY MS. HEILIZER:

17 Q Now how did you come to remember this contact with 18 Mr. Ramsaur?

19 A I was laying in bed last night just trying to think
20 through the sequence of events and what happened, and I
21 remember that I did mention it to Bill Ramsaur.

22 Q Now you said Mr. Ramsaur was a consulting partner
23 in Hattiesburg?

24 A Hattiesburg.

25 Q Hattiesburg. Now that work hadn't started yet at

Page 182

1 the time Mr. Dunlap became CEO of Sunbeam, right?

2 A The work at Hattiesburg was systems work and it had
3 been started several years before Mr. Dunlap arrived.

4 Q So you had this conversation with Mr. --

5 A Ramsaur.

6 Q -- Ramsaur when?

7 A The conversation would have been about the time
8 Mr. Dunlap joined the company. It would not have been before 9 he joined the company, it would have been after he joined the 10 company.

11 Q Do you recall the name of the partner in Scott
12 Paper?

13 A I do not.

14 MR. LIPMAN: Sir, we started talking about the 15 10-K. You indicated, I believe, that page 15 -- oh, yes. I
16 am sorry. Let me hand you the exhibit, it is Exhibit 136.
17 You said that it was -- was it page 15 did you say?

18 MS. HEILIZER: I would like you to look at the 19 exhibit copy, sir, because that is what we are examining you
20 off of.

21 MR. HAYNES: He needs to look at this copy for his 22 reference purpose. Then he can track it to the exhibit copy.
23 This copy being the paper that you gave us.

24 THE WITNESS: Page 19.

25 BY MR. LIPMAN:

Page 183

1 Q And where is the language that you are --
 2 A It is the second full paragraph that begins, "The
 3 company appliance category sales."
 4 Q Was there anything else that we hadn't mentioned
 5 yesterday that deals with Early Buy or Bill and Hold?
 6 A No.
 7 Q Okay. Now I think you -- what you said earlier,
 8 clarifying what -- your testimony yesterday, you said that 9 the wording could have been better. And let me preface my 10 question by saying that I understand that the wording of the 11 10-K is the company wording. But what did you mean when you
 12 said that the wording could have been better?
 13 A Well, what I meant is everybody has their own
 14 opinions on how you word things, how things are said, how 15 things are disclosed. And you can ask 10 different people
 16 and you are going to get 10 different answers. And you are 17 not going to have the exact same wording on those 10
 18 different people. I mean, I -- had I spent a lot of time
 19 thinking about this, I am sure I could come up with a 20 different verbiage, which would be more succinct and perhaps 21 easier to understand than what is in this document.
 22 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 23 Q Are you talking about style, sir, or substance?
 24 A I am talking about writing style, ease of 25 understanding, possibly, to some extent substance, but not to

Page 184

1 a significant extent.
 2 Q Okay. What areas were you concerned about or 3 dissatisfied with the substance of the disclosures of the 4 10-K at the time of this filing?
 5 MR. HAYNES: Based on information he knew at the 6 time of the filing.
 7 MS. HEILIZER: Yes, I was asking at the time it was 8 filed.
 9 MR. HAYNES: Right.
 10 THE WITNESS: I don't believe I was dissatisfied.
 11 You used the term "dissatisfied." I don't recall being 12 dissatisfied.
 13 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 14 Q What about uncomfortable, as you used that term and 15 as you define its meaning here today?
 16 A I believe I was asked a question yesterday was a
 17 comfortable. I was not uncomfortable and I -- you know, I
 18 was not uncomfortable and I was not dissatisfied.
 19 Q With any of it?
 20 A Pardon me?
 21 Q With any of the disclosures in the K?
 22 A Do I have time to flip the document to answer that
 23 question?
 24 Q Certainly.
 25 MR. HAYNES: Well, let's take a break. It is 354

Page 185

1 pages.
 2 MS. HEILIZER: Fine.
 3 MR. HAYNES: Okay.
 4 MR. LIPMAN: We are off the record.
 5 (A brief recess was taken.)
 6 MR. LIPMAN: We are back on the record at 7 approximately 10 after 10:00. And counsel asked how much of 8 the document the staff would like the witness to review. And 9 I think we should make this into a manageable task. There
 10 are 354 pages in here. A lot of the pages in here are 11 attachments. There is the portion of the document before the 12 attachments begin that is actual -- that is the actual 10-K
 13 financials, MD&A discussion, all that stuff. So if you could 14 please look over the portion of the document before the 15 exhibits. The exhibit index starts on page 61. Okay?
 16 MR. HAYNES: And what do you want him to do?
 17 MS. HEILIZER: Well, the pending question is, what 18 areas he thought the disclosure should have been better in.
 19 And he asked if he could look at the document. The staff has 20 agreed. He should look at whatever areas he needs to look at 21 to answer the question. But that is entirely up to him. And 22 if you would like to go off the record for him to have that 23 opportunity, we are happy to do so.
 24 MR. HAYNES: How many pages are we talking about 25 before the exhibits?

Page 186

1 MS. HEILIZER: Sixty-one is what Mr. Lipman just
 2 indicated.
 3 MR. HAYNES: Okay. He needs to read 61 pages.
 4 MS. HEILIZER: That is fine. We can go off the
 5 record.
 6 MR. HAYNES: Let's just take a break.
 7 MR. LIPMAN: We are off the record.
 8 (A brief recess was taken.)
 9 MR. LIPMAN: We are back on the record at
 10 approximately 11:15. And while we were off the record, there
 11 were no discussions of substance between the staff and the
 12 witness or counsel. Is that correct?
 13 MR. HAYNES: That is correct.
 14 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 15 Q Mr. Harlow, have you had a chance to review the 16 10-K, the Exhibit 136?
 17 A Yes, I have had a chance to review Exhibit 136
 18 through page 61. I have not reviewed pages 62 to page 354.
 19 I would also like to comment that this is an incomplete copy.
 20 There are numbers in columns, information missing from this
 21 document.
 22 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 23 Q You are referring to the tabular content at the 24 back from the EDGAR printout?
 25 A Yes.

1 Q Okay. Well, is there anything missing from the 2 first 61 pages that you reviewed? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Is that what you are talking about? 5 A Yes. 6 Q From the -- okay. Well, we were asking you about 7 the disclosures, the textual disclosures, sir. Is there 8 anything missing from the textual disclosures? 9 A I didn't understand that to be the question. I 10 thought the question was anything related to the document. 11 Q No, we were asking you about the disclosures and 12 you were talking about whether it was grammar or substance. 13 And we asked you to tell us about the substance of the 14 disclosures that you weren't happy with at the time this 15 document was filed. 16 A I guess I consider financial information to be 17 disclosure. 18 Q Okay. 19 A I consider this entire document to be disclosure. 20 All the information in here, regardless of whether it is 21 numbers or verbiage. 22 Q Can you give us your refreshed recollection as to 23 what disclosures you were not happy with at the time this 24 document was filed? 25 A Is that the same question that was asked of me an	1 identify any such disclosures for me? 2 A Can we take each one of those at a time? 3 Q However you would like to answer the question. 4 A The first one is inaccurate? I don't know of any 5 disclosures in here that I think are inaccurate. 6 Q Okay. 7 A And once again, it is at the time this document was 8 prepared. 9 Q At the time it was filed, sir. That is the 10 question. 11 A At the time it was filed. I actually reviewed it 12 several days before it was filed. Your second question? 13 Q Incomplete. 14 A Incomplete. I am not aware of anything that I 15 thought was incomplete in this document at the time I 16 reviewed it. 17 Q Should have been improved. 18 A Should have been improved. Exactly what does that 19 mean? 20 Q Do you know what the word "improved" means? 21 A Well, in my mind it means to make better. 22 Q Okay. Were the substance of any disclosures you 23 think should have been made better at the time this document 24 was filed? 25 A Nothing significant.
1 hour and fifteen minutes ago? 2 Q Can you answer the question I just posed to you? 3 A I was not unhappy with this document. I was not 4 unhappy at the time I reviewed it. 5 Q Okay. Are there disclosures for which you think 6 the substance should have been changed at the time the 7 document was filed? 8 MR. HAYNES: Based on information he knew then. 9 MS. HEILIZER: Correct. 10 THE WITNESS: Based on information at that time. 11 Nothing significant. 12 BY MS. HEILIZER: 13 Q Well, even if it is insignificant, which 14 disclosures do you think the substance should have been 15 changed for? 16 A I would have to go through the document again and 17 identify those areas. 18 Q Well, if you would like to show us, please do so. 19 A I didn't understand that we were going to talk 20 about insignificant items. 21 Q Well, I am talking about the substance of a 22 disclosure, sir. Are there any disclosures that you can 23 point me to for which you found at the time they were filed 24 that the substance was inaccurate, should have been approved, 25 was incorrect, omitted information in any respect? Can you	1 Q Is there anything you can think of, whether you 2 consider it significant or otherwise, as you sit here today? 3 A We can talk about insignificant things all day, if 4 that is what you want to talk about. 5 Q I am talking about the substance of disclosures, 6 sir. If you can think of anything -- 7 A Nothing significant is my testimony. 8 Q Can you think of anything insignificant as you sit 9 here today? 10 A Anything insignificant. I guess how insignificant 11 do we want to get? 12 Q Well, I want to find out, sir, if you think any -- 13 the substance of any of the disclosures should have been 14 changed in any way, regardless of whether you characterize 15 the change as significant or insignificant. So if you can 16 give me any examples, I would appreciate it. 17 MR. HAYNES: Let me ask the question, you are not 18 asking him to rewrite it in terms of how he would change 19 words to make insignificant things -- 20 MS. HEILIZER: Sir, I am asking -- 21 MR. HAYNES: -- in his own words. 22 MS. HEILIZER: That is correct. I am asking about 23 the substance. 24 MR. HAYNES: She is asking you about substantive 25 things that would bear on whether it is a reasonable

1 presentation of the contents of the 10-K.
 2 MS. HEILIZER: I am asking about substance as he
 3 used the term.
 4 MR. HAYNES: Okay. All right.
 5 MS. HEILIZER: He distinguished it from style and
 6 grammar. And I am not asking about those, sir.
 7 MR. HAYNES: Okay. Thank you.
 8 THE WITNESS: Well, I think I am getting confused
 9 with semantics here. If I say something is insignificant, I
 10 guess I mean that it is not of substance.
 11 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 12 Q Okay. So you are --
 13 A You can have various degrees of substance, you can 14 have various degrees of significance.
 15 Q Okay.
 16 A And in my mind, this type of document, you can have 17 insignificant items, which may be disclosed one way, could be 18 disclosed another way, and the effect is insignificant to the 19 reader and to the quality of the document.
 20 Q Okay. So can you think of any disclosures for 21 which the substance should have been changed at the time it
 22 was filed?
 23 A In substance, no, at the time it was filed.
 24 Q Can you think of any disclosures from which 25 information was omitted that you think should have been

Page 192

1 included at the time it was filed?
 2 A No. At the time it was filed, I cannot think of
 3 any omissions.
 4 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 5 Q Sir, I believe you mentioned earlier that the 6 relationship of the front of the documents and the footnotes
 7 was not misleading or inconsistent. That was one of the 8 things you said.
 9 A That is correct.
 10 Q This morning. Could you tell me what you meant by 11 that and what parts you were referring to?
 12 A I was referring to the footnote in the financial
 13 statements that describes Bill and Hold transactions, and I
 14 was referring to your discussion yesterday on the Early Buy
 15 program described here in the front part of the 10-K. And my 16 point was that the disclosure in the front part and the 17 disclosure in the financial statement footnote does not
 18 represent an inconsistency or inaccuracy in my mind.
 19 Q Well, is there -- if you look at page 37, is that 20 the back part of the disclosure that you were talking about,
 21 the revenue recognition part?
 22 A This is the footnote disclosure.
 23 Q Right.
 24 A Footnotes to the financial statements disclosing
 25 the Bill and Hold transactions.

1 Q Right. Is that what you were talking about when
 2 you said the front part of the document and the back part of
 3 the document. Is this the back part of the document?
 4 A No, this is the financial statement. The back
 5 part, I guess, would be all these exhibits, which I haven't
 6 reviewed. But this represents a footnote to the financial
 7 statement and a disclosure that there were -- Bill and Hold
 8 transactions amount to approximately 3 percent of revenues.
 9 Q Okay. Well, when you testified this morning, you
 10 know, clarifying your previous testimony, and you said that 11 the disclosure of the front part was not misleading and 12 inconsistent with the footnotes, is this the footnote you
 13 were referring to?
 14 A Yes, this is the footnote I was referring to.
 15 Q Now that you have had a chance to review this 16 document, is there any reference in this portion of the 17 document, the footnotes, to -- that connects the Bill and 18 Hold transaction with the Early Buy program?
 19 A I can't answer that. The Bill and Hold is separate 20 from the Early Buy. There were Early Buy transactions that 21 were not Bill and Hold transactions. Bill and Hold is --
 22 those were sales where delivery was not made to the customer
 23 as of year end. But there were Early Buy sales that were 24 made and delivered to the customer prior to year end.
 25 Q Do you recall --

Page 194

1 A One is an accounting issue and the other is a
 2 program developed by the company, an Early Buy program of a
 3 marketing program.
 4 Q Do you remember what portion of the Early Buy
 5 program was done on a Bill and Hold basis?
 6 A Well, approximately, you know, 32 million.
 7 Q Out of --
 8 A I think there was a little over 50 million in the 9 Early Buy program.
 10 Q Now if you would turn to page 9 of the document.
 11 Now when we spoke yesterday, one of the things that we 12 discussed was the risk that the Bill and Hold program has for 13 impact on future financial performance. Do you recall that?
 14 A What I recall is a discussion on -- I think we 15 talked about potential impact a Bill and Hold policy could 16 have on future sales by the company.
 17 Q Do you recall the discussion?
 18 A I don't recall all the discussion. If you want to 19 refresh my memory.
 20 Q What I mean is do you recall that you testified
 21 about it yesterday and in that regard, you testified about
 22 what conversations you had with management on January 22,
 23 1998?
 24 A I don't think that is entirely accurate in my
 25 testimony, what I testified to yesterday. Maybe we better go

Diversified Reporting Services, Inc. (202) 296-9626, 6-9-99

1 back and replay it.

2 MR. HAYNES: Let me say to you that he did testify

3 about conversations with management, but I don't recall that

4 it was in the context of discussions about risk of Bill and

5 Hold and the impact in which it was going. But you combined

6 different parts of his testimony into one question and asking

7 him to assume -- and asking him if he recalled that

8 conversation. So I think we should break it out into parts

9 to be clear.

10 THE WITNESS: If I could have one question at a

11 time, that would be good.

12 BY MR. LIPMAN:

13 Q Okay. Do you recall testifying about the 14 December -- I am sorry, the January 23rd meeting with --

15 January 22nd meeting with management? Do you remember

16 testifying about that?

17 A I remember testifying on it, but I don't

18 remember -- if you were to ask me to repeat all the specifics

19 of my testimony today at this point, I can't.

20 Q I am not asking.

21 A Okay.

22 Q Do you recall that we spoke about the -- Arthur

23 Andersen talking to the company that -- about additional

24 disclosure to be made relating to the revenue recognition

25 policy MD&A in the MD&A and risk factors? Do you recall

1 that?

2 MR. HAYNES: Related to the January 22nd meeting?

3 MR. LIPMAN: Yes. Yes.

4 THE WITNESS: I -- yes, I remember it being part of

5 that memo and there was some discussion at that meeting on

6 those issues.

7 BY MR. LIPMAN:

8 Q Well, let me ask you this then. Do you think now

9 that a Bill and Hold program may impact -- a Bill and Hold

10 program in one period may impact financial results in a

11 subsequent period?

12 A I believe a Bill and Hold program in one period

13 could impact a subsequent period.

14 Q Okay. Now could you please look at page 9. The 15 last sentence on that page, it says, "During 1997, the

16 company initiated an Early Buy program for highly seasonal

17 products, such as grills and warming blankets, in order to 18 more levelize production and distribution activities." Do

19 you see that?

20 A Yes, I do.

21 Q Is there any discussion of potential impact on

22 future sales of the Early Buy program?

23 A No, there is not, but the Early Buy program was not

24 designed to be a Bill and Hold program. The Early Buy

25 program was a marketing program. Bill and Hold, as I

Page 197

1 testified earlier, that is an accounting treatment for sales

2 that happen to be part of this Early Buy program. There are

3 many other sales that were not Bill and Hold, part of the

4 Early Buy program.

5 Q Okay. Other than the footnote that we spoke about

6 earlier, the footnote relating to revenue recognition, which

7 is on page 37, is there any other mention of the Bill and

8 Hold program? Well Bill and Hold treatment anywhere in this

9 document?

10 A Treatment. I don't believe there are any

11 disclosures outside of the financial statements that used the 12 term "Bill and Hold" in this document.

13 Q Okay.

14 A And that is based on my review of 30 minutes ago of 15 61 pages out of 354 pages. And for the record, they do have

16 information missing from this document.

17 Q The information that appears in tabular form

18 contains numbers; is that right?

19 A It appears to be numbers in tabular form.

20 Q Okay. Now does the -- would the Early Buy program

21 implemented to appear in one period, could that affect a

22 future financial performance in subsequent periods?

23 A I believe it is possible that it could. It is like

24 any sale to a customer. It can potentially have an impact in 25 a subsequent period. It becomes how much the customer buys.

Page 198

1 when they buy it, and if they buy right.

2 Q Yes. Sir, in the -- in this document, there is no

3 risk factor disclosure; is that right?

4 A There is no section entitled, "Risk Factor" in this

5 document.

6 Q Do you recall that a risk factor disclosure was

7 part of the conversation with management on January 22, 1998?

8 A I recall that being part of that memo. What I

9 don't recall is the conversation being in the context that it

10 had to appear in a risk factor section in a 10-K document.

11 Q Well, what do you recall about the risk factor

12 disclosure conversation?

13 A I don't recall very much. I mean, the discussion

14 was along the general terms, and not necessarily in that

15 meeting. As I testified earlier, the discussion of Bill and

16 Hold transactions took place over an extended period of time

17 during the month of January.

18 At the time we found out about it until this

19 meeting and even beyond that meeting, they -- several

20 subsequent meetings with audit committee, in terms of

21 discussion of that particular item, it was along the lines

22 that there is a risk that Bill and Hold can have an impact on

23 subsequent sales and Bill and Hold, by the nature of their

24 payment terms, represent a risk since the collection period

25 is longer than what it is for some of the other sales.

Page 199

1 And as I testified yesterday, things can happen
 2 from the time the transaction is recorded until the time that
 3 the product is ultimately delivered and accepted by the 4 customer. And those were the types of things we discussed.
 5 You know, I don't recall saying that the company is going to 6 put a risk factor section in the 10-K and that is going to be 7 item number 1 in the 10-K. I don't think we had that
 8 discussion.
 9 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 10 Q Did you ever ask the company to include an explicit
 11 risk factor section in the 10-K?
 12 A No, I did not.
 13 Q Did anybody else from Andersen do that?
 14 A I don't have that knowledge.
 15 Q Are you aware of anyone else from Andersen doing
 16 that?
 17 A I am not aware of it. In the front part of this 18 document, there are risks identified. Throughout the front
 19 part, it talks about certain risks. And perhaps I would have 20 to go back and ask Mr. Bornstein what did he mean by risk
 21 factor. Did he mean a formal risk factor as in an S filing
 22 or a specific section put in a 10-K? I don't think there is 23 a requirement to have a risk factor section in a 10-K.
 24 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 25 Q Sir, let me hand you back Exhibit 114. And if I

Page 200

1 may ask you to turn to page AA026760.
 2 A I am sorry. say again the --
 3 Q AA026760. That is the first page of the 4 January 23, 1998, memo to file from Mr. Bornstein. Do you
 5 see that? I would like you to look back at the Bill and Hold
 6 sales paragraph, particularly the sentence that starts with,
 7 it is, "We further explain that additional disclosure would
 8 need to be made to the company's revenue recognition policy.
 9 Additional disclosure in the MD&A as well as the risk
 10 factors." Do you see that sentence?
 11 A Yes, I see it.
 12 Q Does that sentence refer to the Bill and Hold
 13 sales?
 14 A Yes. that refers to Bill and Hold sales.
 15 Q Thank you.
 16 MS. HEILIZER: You can take that exhibit back.
 17 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 18 Q Yes. We can take, actually, both those exhibits
 19 back. Now sir, was Arthur Andersen at this time still 20 involved in working on the Coleman transaction?
 21 A At what point in time are we?
 22 Q This is the first or second week of March 1998.
 23 What would you like?
 24 A Do you have a copy of the S-4?
 25 Q Yes, sir.

Page 201

1 A I just -- I need some point of reference.
 2 Q Yes. I am handing the witness Exhibit 135. And
 3 sir, if you could just -- we are done with 136. So I will
 4 just take it from you. Thank you.
 5 MS. HEILIZER: Mr. Haynes, do you have a copy?
 6 MR. HAYNES: Thank you.
 7 (The witness reviewed the document.)
 8 THE WITNESS: I am having difficulty with the exact
 9 dates. You mentioned the first week in March.
 10 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 11 Q Right.
 12 A And your question was, was Arthur Andersen working 13 on the Coleman deal. Is that correct?
 14 Q Right.
 15 A I guess. what do you mean by working on the Coleman
 16 deal in terms of -- I am not quite sure what you mean.
 17 Q Well, what I mean is was there anything that Arthur
 18 Andersen was doing for Sunbeam that related to the Coleman
 19 deal?
 20 MR. HAYNES: In the first week of March of 1998?
 21 MR. LIPMAN: In the beginning first two weeks of
 22 March of 1998.
 23 THE WITNESS: I can't recall in the first two weeks
 24 we were doing anything specific related to Coleman. I would 25 have to refer to, you know, notes.

Page 202

1 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 2 Q Well, what is it you would look at, sir?
 3 A I would look at my time reports.
 4 Q Anything else?
 5 A I think that would be primarily it.
 6 Q Now, even if Andersen --
 7 A And discussions with Mr. Bornstein.
 8 Q And where would you look at discussions with 9 Mr. Bornstein? What is it you would look at?
 10 A I would discuss.
 11 Q Right, but I am asking what you could look at to 12 help you remember when you were doing something specifically
 13 for Coleman. So what is it you would look at about 14 discussions? Are there notes or other compilations?
 15 MR. HAYNES: That is a disconnect.
 16 THE WITNESS: I would have a discussion.
 17 MR. HAYNES: He said he would have a discussion
 18 with Mr. Bornstein.
 19 MS. HEILIZER: Oh, I see, to refresh his
 20 recollection?
 21 MR. HAYNES: Right.
 22 THE WITNESS: Yes.
 23 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 24 Q Sir, was Arthur Andersen working on the first
 25 quarter of financials for Sunbeam sometime in early March

Diversified Reporting Services, Inc. (202) 296-9626, 6-9-99

1 1998?

2 A No. we were not. To clarify, the first quarter was
3 not complete at that time. So our work on the first quarter
4 was not done until after the first quarter was over.

5 Q Did Arthur Andersen work on a private debt
6 placement for Sunbeam sometime in early March 1998?

7 A Yes. I believe that our work started in early
8 March on the zero coupon convertible debt.

9 Q What work was that?

10 A I don't recall all the work that Mr. Bornstein was 11 involved in directly with the company, but the initial work
12 in the preparation of pro forma financial statements for the 13 combined companies, that there was some subsequent review
14 activity that took place and we also were requested to do
15 some comfort letter work for the underwriters on the 16 transaction. But I don't recall the time frame. I don't 17 think that necessarily started in early March. I think that 18 might have been later in March.

19 MR. LIPMAN: Let's mark this as the next exhibit.
20 (SEC Exhibit No. 137 was marked for 21 identification.)

22 BY MR. LIPMAN:

23 Q Sir, let me hand you what has just been marked as 24 Exhibit 137. And it is a multi-page document. It appears to 25 be a copy of an offering -- a draft of an offering

1 BY MR. LIPMAN:

2 Q Yes.

3 A On the question -- that is helpful -- yes. I have 4 seen this before.

5 Q Do you see the date at the top that says, "Issued
6 March 6, 1998?"

7 A Yes.

8 Q Does that help you in any way to recall what
9 time -- at what time Arthur Andersen was involved with work?

10 A Yes, that is helpful.

11 Q So let me ask you now, what time do you believe
12 Arthur Andersen began working on the private placement?

13 A Okay. That is different than the question you
14 asked me before, what time did we start working on the -- we 15 were working on the Coleman deal.

16 Q Yes.

17 A Do you consider this to be the Coleman deal or a
18 private placement?

19 Q No. I believe that we -- I asked you about the 20 Coleman deal, I asked you about the first quarter work, then 21 I asked you about the private placement. And this relates to 22 the private placement. So the question I would like you to 23 answer is, when did you, meaning Arthur Andersen, begin
24 working on the private placement?

25 A To the best of my recollection, several weeks prior

1 memorandum. It says, "Issued March 16, 1998, subject to
2 completion." And it is Bates stamped AA031294 through
3 AA031466. Sir, is this -- does this document relate to the 4 private placement -- debt private placement that we just 5 spoke about?

6 MR. HAYNES: Let me ask you, for all these
7 questions when you are handing him these multi-page
8 documents, you say does this document relate to debt private 9 placement. Are you asking him also to authenticate the
10 document?

11 In other words, does he need to go through it page
12 by page and accept that as a draft of a private placement
13 memorandum because I don't believe we have laid for the 14 foundation for that. Has he seen it before, does he know it,
15 can he compare it with what he looked at, is this the 16 document? My question is, are you asking him to authenticate
17 the document?

18 MR. LIPMAN: Well, I haven't asked him to 19 authenticate the document yet.

20 MR. HAYNES: Okay.

21 MR. LIPMAN: I just asked him to -- the front page
22 of the document has some information on it, including a date.
23 And that is all I wanted him to look at.

24 THE WITNESS: So we are just dealing with the front
25 page.

1 to this point in time.

2 BY MS. HEILIZER:

3 Q By this point, you are looking at the date on the
4 document of March 16th?

5 A March 16, 1998. Several weeks before that. I
6 don't know the precise date.

7 BY MR. LIPMAN:

8 Q Now was -- I think that you mentioned that in 9 connection with the private placement, Arthur Andersen was 10 asked to provide the comfort letter. Is that right?

11 A That is right. As I recall, we were asked to 12 provide a comfort letter.

13 Q Okay. And also to give consent; is that right?

14 A We were asked -- well, we -- I think we were asked
15 to, although I wasn't asked directly, we assumed that we 16 would be asked to give a consent to the use of our financial 17 statements in connection with this.

18 Q What kind of work was Arthur Andersen going to do
19 in order to be able to give a comfort letter?

20 A We were going to perform a review of the financial 21 activity of the company subsequent to December 31 or year end
22 December '97. Review minutes of the company's board of 23 directors. In connection with our review, inquire of 24 management whether there had been any significant changes in 25 policies, any significant events which could impact the

Page 207

1 reliability of the 1997 financial statements and obtain the
 2 representation letters from management.
 3 We had discussions with the sales executives
 4 regarding subsequent activity, subsequent sales activity. We
 5 assisted the -- I am sorry, that is not -- we are just on the 6 comfort letter at this point. I believe we updated our legal 7 representation letters. I am not a hundred percent sure on 8 that point, but I believe we did.
 9 Q Anything else?
 10 A I am sure there is more, but I think those are the 11 primary things.
 12 Q What were the things that you, meaning Arthur
 13 Andersen, do in order to put yourself in the position to give 14 consent to these -- of the financial statements in the 15 private placement?
 16 A We performed subsequent review activity. Much of 17 what I described was done in connection with the comfort
 18 letter. You know, we get financial information from the 19 company, we ask about variations from comparable periods, and 20 asked the company to explain the reasons for those variations
 21 and try to understand those.
 22 Once again, we ask about any significant
 23 transactions, we ask about subsequent events, which could
 24 have an impact on the previously issued financial statements.
 25 In this case, I mean the 1997 financial statements. And we

1 also get updated legal representation letters. In a general
 2 sense, those are the types of things that we do.
 3 Q In the course of doing this work either for the 4 comfort letter or for the consent, did anything come to 5 Arthur Andersen's attention that was in any way out of the 6 ordinary?
 7 A Can you define out of the ordinary for me?
 8 Q Well, anything unusual?
 9 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 10 Q Sir, I think the staff is asking what you remember
 11 about learning during the process rather than anything in the 12 document. I don't think you are reviewing the Exhibit 137.
 13 A I thought the question related to this document.
 14 So I was just trying to refresh my memory.
 15 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 16 Q Well, you know, if you are going to refresh your
 17 memory, let's authenticate the document. Have you seen it
 18 before today?
 19 A Once again, I haven't gone through all the pages.
 20 Q Well, why don't you do that then.
 21 (The witness reviewed the document.)
 22 MR. HAYNES: If you ask anybody to look at a
 23 document and say was there anything out of the ordinary, with 24 an open question like that, you need to list all types of 25 focus on a whole document.

Page 209

1 MR. LIPMAN: I did not ask him about the document.
 2 MS. HEILIZER: The staff did not ask the gentleman
 3 to look at the document. He asked to look at it in order to 4 answer the question about whether anything unusual had 5 occurred. It was not an exercise that the staff asked him to 6 go to; however, if he wants to consult the document --
 7 MR. HAYNES: No, I agree.
 8 MS. HEILIZER: -- we are making it available to 9 him.
 10 MR. HAYNES: I agree. But my point is if there is 11 a focus on any particular area to refresh his recollection --
 12 MS. HEILIZER: And we are not attempting to refresh
 13 his recollection.
 14 MR. HAYNES: Okay.
 15 MS. HEILIZER: He apparently is attempting to do so
 16 with the document.
 17 MR. HAYNES: That is very satisfactory to me.
 18 MS. HEILIZER: If he has an independent
 19 recollection of anything unusual happening during the course
 20 of the services for the comfort letter and the consent, I
 21 would appreciate knowing.
 22 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 23 Q Also, Mr. Harlow, if your answer is that you do not 24 recall anything and indicate that your memory needs to be 25 refreshed, then we can do that too.

Page 210

1 A Well, I guess my position is, I want to be as
 2 helpful as I can. And to just give partial testimony is not
 3 productive on my part or your part.
 4 Q Well, I appreciate that.
 5 A What I would like to do is identify -- there are --
 6 you know, there are things that I will be able to testify to,
 7 but I want to make sure that -- I mean, it has been a long
 8 time since I looked at this document. And just to recall
 9 back over a year ago and what happened in a two or three-day
 10 period or a week's period, is very difficult to do. And, you
 11 know, I want to be helpful and I want to be -- I want to try 12 to bring out those events that are responsive to your 13 question. That is all I am attempting to do.
 14 MS. HEILIZER: Do you need a few minutes, sir?
 15 MR. HAYNES: Let's just take a break and let him
 16 finish that document.
 17 MR. LIPMAN: Yes.
 18 MS. HEILIZER: Sure.
 19 MR. LIPMAN: We are off the record.
 20 (A brief recess was taken.)
 21 MR. LIPMAN: We are back on the record at
 22 approximately 12:20. And while we were off the record, there
 23 were no discussions of substance between the staff and
 24 witness or counsel; is that correct?
 25 MR. HAYNES: That is correct.

Page 211

1 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 2 Q Sir, have you had a chance to review Exhibit 137?
 3 A Yes. I have looked through the Exhibit 137.
 4 Q Is this a copy of the offering memorandum for
 5 Sunbeam zero coupon convertible senior subordinated
 6 debentures to 2018 issued on March 16, 1998?
 7 A Yes, it is.
 8 Q Now did you see this document on or about March 16,
 9 1998?
 10 A Yes, I did.
 11 Q Did you see previous drafts of this document?
 12 A I believe I saw one or two previous drafts. I am
 13 not sure. I am not sure how many previous drafts I saw.
 14 Q Did you see any subsequent drafts of this document?
 15 A I believe I did.
 16 Q Sir, before you started looking at the document, I
 17 asked you whether there was anything unusual that came to the 18 attention of Arthur Andersen in connection with the work that
 19 Arthur Andersen was doing for the -- for Sunbeam for the zero
 20 coupon private placement. Was there anything unusual?
 21 A If -- can you define what you consider to be
 22 unusual?
 23 Q Well, sir, do you understand the meaning of the 24 word "unusual?"
 25 A It has meanings of meaning things are different.

Page 212

1 What do you want me to testify to as an unusual event?
 2 Q My question is, was there anything unusual. If
 3 unusual is, you know, if that is not clear, what I asked
 4 before was anything out of the ordinary.
 5 A Well, the difficulty that I am having is when
 6 precisely events happened, precisely when I found out about
 7 certain things, which I guess I would consider to be unusual
 8 or different, in the context of a draft of the document --
 9 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 10 Q Sir, the question --
 11 A I can tell you some unusual things I found out
 12 about in March, if that is what you would like to hear, but I
 13 can't tell you the exact date I found out. I don't -- I
 14 can't give you an exact date.
 15 Q The question wasn't limited to the context of the 16 draft of the document. I think Mr. Lipman was asking about 17 during the comfort letter or consent letter process.
 18 MR. HAYNES: Well, that wasn't the question --
 19 MS. HEILIZER: The question was not asked simply --
 20 MR. HAYNES: -- as I understood it. Let me also 21 say that that points out the lack of clarity in the question
 22 because the question was anything unusual that came to the 23 attention of Andersen.
 24 MS. HEILIZER: Right.
 25 MR. HAYNES: While working on the zero coupon debt.

Page 213

1 MS. HEILIZER: That is fine.
 2 MR. HAYNES: And that is a greater period of time.
 3 And that might elicit a different answer than the answer that
 4 would have been responsive to the question you just asked.
 5 MS. HEILIZER: That is fine. I was simply --
 6 MR. HAYNES: That is the difficulty.
 7 MS. HEILIZER: I was simply trying to make a point,
 8 Counsel, that we weren't asking about a particular document,
 9 which is what the witness keeps going back to.
 10 MR. HAYNES: But the witness is trying to be as 11 precise as possible to the questions. And some of the 12 questions are imprecise. Not intentionally, but they are.
 13 And so that is the difficulty.
 14 MS. HEILIZER: Well, if he gives us the 15 information, then we can sort when he learned it.
 16 MR. HAYNES: Well, then the question is what?
 17 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 18 Q Well, the question -- let's do this. Do you recall
 19 anything out of the ordinary that came to your attention,
 20 meaning Arthur Andersen and/or you personally, prior to the 21 time that this offering memorandum was prepared, which is
 22 March 16, 1998?
 23 A I don't recall precisely prior to March 16th. I do
 24 recall some unusual events, but --
 25 Q Okay.

Page 214

1 A -- whether it is March 16th or March 17th or
 2 March 20th, I don't recall.
 3 Q Okay. So the next question then is, is there
 4 anything unusual that came to the attention of Arthur
 5 Andersen in March?
 6 A Yes.
 7 Q Okay. What was that?
 8 A In March, sometime in March 1998, we became aware 9 that the company's year to date sales were less than the 10 prior year's year to date sales.
 11 Q How did you become aware of that?
 12 A Mr. Bornstein informed me in connection with 13 preparing the comfort letter draft and doing the detailed 14 work at the company on the year to date sales numbers.
 15 Q What did he tell you he had done specifically that 16 brought this information before you?
 17 A I don't think we had a discussion on what he had 18 done specifically. I think our discussion centered around
 19 the results of his work. I don't think we discussed the 20 mechanics and how the numbers were derived for the purposes
 21 of the comfort letter.
 22 Q Did he indicate to you whether there were any
 23 particular problem areas?
 24 A Well, I think if you consider a reduced sales level
 25 in 1998 to be a problem area, yes.

Page 215

1 Q Well, did he identify any particular product that
 2 were performing particularly poorly?
 3 A I don't recall that discussion.
 4 Q Did he mention anything about grills or blankets?
 5 A I don't recall. Once again, at some point in time
 6 we talked about blankets and grills. Whether it was on
 7 March 16th, March 20th, or March 27th, I can't give you a
 8 date, but at some point there was a discussion on that.
 9 Q Sir, just so that I understand your testimony, are 10 you saying that you did discuss the performance of Sunbeam's
 11 performance as it related to the sales of blankets and grills
 12 sometime in March of 1998?
 13 A That is correct.
 14 Q What did you and Mr. Bornstein decide would need to 15 be done, if anything, in response to finding out this
 16 information?
 17 A We were concerned that the company had not made
 18 disclosures of this particularly at this point in time. And 19 in light of filing documents with the SEC, we felt that it
 20 was a disclosure that should be included in the documents to 21 be filed.
 22 Q Now, when you say that you were concerned that the 23 company had not made disclosure about this up to this time,
 24 what were you referring to, if anything, specifically?
 25 A The company's chairman, Mr. Dunlap, was not shy

1 about touting his abilities on improving the performance of
 2 the company. And although I don't recall precise predictions
 3 and analyst estimates and things of that nature, I believe
 4 that the expectations of the company were more than reality
 5 at the point in time we looked at the -- at the point in time
 6 we prepared our work on the comfort letter.
 7 Q Did you think that Mr. Dunlap's public statements
 8 were misleading because they were incomplete?
 9 A I think his statements were misleading because they
 10 were inaccurate.
 11 Q Inaccurate in what way?
 12 A Well, I can't quantify the extent they were 13 inaccurate, but I believe that a picture had been painted
 14 that presented a more optimistic future financial performance
 15 of the company than what was taking place when we uncovered a
 16 shortfall in sales.
 17 Q Well, do you know whether Mr. Dunlap understood
 18 what the true situation was at the time that he was making
 19 these statements?
 20 A I don't know that.
 21 Q Did you discuss this issue with anyone at the 22 company management?
 23 A Yes, I did.
 24 Q Who did you discuss this with?
 25 A I discussed it with Mr. David Fannin, Mr. Russ

Page 217

1 Kersh, Mr. Jane Kelly, and Mr. Bob Gluck.
 2 Q Was this one conversation or meeting or successive
 3 conversations or meetings?
 4 A There were several conversations. Not meetings.
 5 they were telephonic conversations.
 6 Q Do you remember what was said about this topic in
 7 your conversations with Mr. Fannin?
 8 A When I discussed this issue with Mr. Fannin,
 9 Mr. Kersh and, I believe, Ms. Kelly was on the telephone. I
 10 was in Florida in my office and Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin were 11 in New York in their hotel. Ms. Kelly was in -- I believe 12 she was in Florida at her home at the time the call took 13 place.
 14 I previously had discussions with Mr. Gluck
 15 regarding the company's sales up through, and I am going to 16 say approximately mid-March. It may be in the time frame of 17 March 16th, 17th through the 20th. I had received
 18 information about the level of sales and I believe I had seen
 19 a report which showed weekly sales. But I am not sure if it 20 was weekly sales or the monthly sales and then the month to 21 date sales for March.
 22 I was somewhat surprised at the level of the sales
 23 compared to the prior year, same period prior year 1997. And 24 I was skeptical that the company would be able to meet the 25 analyst estimates for the first quarter sales.

Page 218

1 Mr. Gluck as I recall, somewhat shared my
 2 skepticism, although I don't believe he came out and said
 3 that he doesn't believe it is possible or made an emphatic
 4 statement. But I took away from that conversation that he
 5 shared some of my skepticism on the company's ability to meet
 6 analyst estimates on first quarter sales.
 7 I told him I was obviously concerned. And he told
 8 me that I would have to talk to Mr. Kersh in order to get 9 additional disclosures, you know, in the documents to be
 10 filed. So after that conversation, there was -- I believe it
 11 was late at night, ten o'clock, eleven o'clock at night when 12 I was able to finally hook up on the phone with initially 13 Mr. Fannin, and then he dialed into Mr. Kersh's room in the 14 hotel. And I expressed my concerns that I was skeptical,
 15 that for the remainder of March the company would have a very 16 difficult time making the sales level that was, in effect, on 17 the street.
 18 Mr. Kersh assured me that Don Uzzi has spent the 19 entire day in New York going over sales plans and the 20 strategy for making the first quarter sales plan with 21 Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fannin, attorneys from Skadden
 22 Arps. I believe the attorney was with Mr. Finn Fogg. I
 23 believe that is where the meeting took place, in Mr. Fogg's 24 office. And I believe Mr. Fannin attended that meeting as 25 well, but I don't recall.

Page 215 - Page 218

Diversified Reporting Services, Inc. (202) 296-9626, 6-9-99

Page 219

1 But he assured me that Mr. Uzzi was very confident
 2 that his staff, his sales people could make those goals and
 3 he had a plan to do that. And that was pretty much the end
 4 of that conversation.
 5 Q Sir, you began with the conversation that involved
 6 Ms. Kelly and then I think you spoke about the conversation
 7 with Mr. Gluck. Just to clarify for me, are we talking about 8 three different conversations or --
 9 A We are probably talking about more than three. I
 10 had more than one conversation with Mr. Gluck. And then, I
 11 believe, mechanically the way it happened is I got in touch
 12 with Ms. Kelly with the admonition that she would track down
 13 Mr. Fannin and Mr. Kersh.
 14 I believe Ms. Kelly was in on the conversation with 15 Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin, although she did not -- other than 16 listening, did she not participate in the conversation. It
 17 was primarily Mr. Kersh. Mr. Fannin did not contribute much
 18 to the conversation or have much to say about the issue. It
 19 was primarily dialogue between Mr. Kersh and myself.
 20 Q Now is this the conversation that Ms. Kelly located 21 Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin, was that the conversation in which 22 Mr. Kersh advised you that Mr. Uzzi had been in New York
 23 going over the numbers at the offices of Finn Fogg?
 24 MR. HAYNES: I am sorry. You have got two
 25 different concepts all combined into one question. You

Page 220

1 dropped the first predicate, retracted it without telling him
 2 you were retracting it. So the question was, was this the
 3 conversation arranged by Ms. Kelly possibly? And then
 4 separately, was this the conversation in which there was a
 5 meeting?
 6 MR. LIPMAN: Oh, I will rephrase it.
 7 MR. HAYNES: Two different questions.
 8 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 9 Q I will rephrase it. Which was the conversation
 10 that involved the discussion of Mr. Uzzi going over financial 11 information at the offices of, I guess it is, Skadden Arps
 12 with Mr. Fogg?
 13 A That was the -- my conversation with Mr. Fannin and 14 Mr. Kersh. And like I just testified, I believe Ms. Kelly
 15 facilitated the telephone call, but I don't precisely
 16 remember if -- because she did not participate in the call.
 17 My conversation with Ms. Kelly had been in an earlier point
 18 in time telling her that I would like to get in touch with 19 Mr. Fannin and Mr. Kersh because they were out of town in New 20 York.
 21 Q When you say earlier point in time, was that 22 earlier in that day?
 23 A Yes. Earlier in that day.
 24 Q And how far in advance of this conversation with 25 Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin, did you speak with Mr. Gluck?

Page 221

1 A The last time I spoke to him would have been
 2 several hours before that conversation with Mr. Fannin and
 3 Mr. Kersh.
 4 Q Was that the first time you spoke with him about
 5 the issue of how well the company was doing in Q-1 '98
 6 compared to Q-1 '97?
 7 A It was not the first time I discussed with 8 Mr. Gluck the sales shortfall of 1998 to 1997 and also the 9 street estimates. I believe I spoke with him earlier the 10 same day and possibly the day before.
 11 Q And the day before, was that the first time that he 12 discussed that -- a potential for the company not meeting the 13 street expectation?
 14 A The day I spoke with Mr. Gluck -- the first time I
 15 spoke with Mr. Gluck on that issue was shortly -- by that I
 16 mean the same day. Whether it was one hour or two hours, I
 17 don't recall. But it was shortly after I found out about the 18 situation from Mr. Bornstein.
 19 Q Can you recall how many days before the 20 conversation with Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin was that?
 21 A I believe it was no more than a day.
 22 Q Was there anything else discussed in the 23 conversation with Mr. Fannin and Mr. Kersh?
 24 A I think, as I testified, a discussion of disclosure
 25 and the need to, in effect, give some information, either in

Page 222

1 the document or a press release, which would bring the
 2 estimates more in line with reality. And that was the gist
 3 of the discussion. First of all, the company's ability to 4 make the sales projection and bring the sales projection more
 5 in line with reality through additional disclosures.
 6 Q Now what did Mr. Kersh say Mr. Uzzi had told the 7 participants in the meeting at Skadden Arps about the 8 company's ability to meet the street's expectation?
 9 A Mr. Kersh told me that Mr. Uzzi was convinced that 10 he could meet or beat the street expectations. And I don't
 11 recall the number, but I believe it was either 285 or $295
 12 million of sales. But he said that the company, you know,
 13 would put out a press release. In fact, the company had put 14 out a press release that day, without me seeing it, that --
 15 me having an opportunity to review it -- that the company
 16 would beat the first quarter results from the prior year.
 17 And they came down from the street estimates of 295.
 18 Q What did you think of Mr. Uzzi's assertion that he 19 could beat the -- well, of Mr. Uzzi's assertions made at the 20 meeting with Skadden Arps?
 21 A I thought Mr. Uzzi was going to be a pretty busy
 22 boy the last two months -- or the last few days of March.
 23 Q What do you mean by that?
 24 A What I mean by that is the company was going to 25 have to sell a fair amount of product to, you know, to beat

Page 223

1 the prior quarter, the prior year's quarter.
 2 Q At that time, did you think it was possible?
 3 A Initially, when I saw the -- what the company had
 4 to sell, and I believe it was approximately ninety to a
 5 hundred million dollars of sales in the last ten or eleven
 6 days of March, I thought it would be a real stretch for the 7 company to do that. But after the education that I received
 8 from Mr. Kersh, I wasn't as skeptical as when I first saw the 9 numbers. I was still skeptical, however, but not as 10 skeptical.

11 Q Were there any reasons, other than seeing the 12 actual numbers, that you had for your skepticism?

13 A My skepticism related to the ability to sell that 14 level of product within a relatively short window. And one
 15 of the things that entered my mind at that point was, you
 16 know, the impact of Bill and Hold transactions that took 17 place at the end of '97.

18 And Arthur Andersen -- in connection with the end
 19 of the first quarter, we insisted on having auditors in the 20 field to test the cutoff of revenues, to test the Bill and 21 Hold transactions, to observe that the inventory was treated
 22 in accordance with accounting requirements. But the primary 23 basis of my skepticism related to the level and the amount of 24 sales that they needed in a 10 or 11-day period.

25 Q When you say that the Bill and Hold transactions

Page 224

1 entered your mind in this regard, why was that?

2 A Well, as I discussed with the -- certain members of
 3 management earlier in the year, I felt that the Bill and Hold
 4 sales could have an impact on subsequent sales. So in my
 5 mind, I guess I was starting to see that, you know, see that
 6 bird come home to roost.

7 Q Do you recall how far out the Bill and Hold sales
 8 went up?

9 A I am sorry. How far the Bill and Hold sales --

10 Q Yes. In terms of do you know how far the Bill and 11 Hold -- the deliveries that were a product that were sold on 12 a Bill and Hold basis. Do you remember where --

13 A At that time I didn't know. Subsequent, in 14 connection with our expanded procedures on the '97 audit,
 15 most of the product was delivered, I believe, by the end of 16 March. And there were some very minor product cancellations,
 17 purchase orders canceled, which I believe were less than $2
 18 million, the total sales. But also the number that had been 19 represented to us as Bill and Hold sales was not correct.
 20 There were additional Bill and Hold sales that we were not
 21 aware of at the time we did the '97 audit. And we found
 22 those in our expanded procedures as well.

23 So by the point in time I became aware of this 24 problem, most of the Bill and Hold as of -- that had been 25 made as of the end of '97 were out of the warehouse, but we

Page 225

1 didn't find out that they were going to do more Bill and Hold
 2 transactions in the first quarter of '98.

3 Q Now you mentioned that you had discussions with 4 management about the impact of Bill and Hold, and we spoke
 5 earlier about the January 22nd meeting and other meetings
 6 that you have had with management in January. Were there any 7 other meetings that you haven't talked about, that you
 8 haven't testified about yet between January and sometime in 9 March when you discussed the impact of Bill and Hold on 10 future sales with management of the company?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Do you recall what they were?

13 A I don't recall precise dates, but I did have 14 discussions with Mr. Gluck regarding the company's policies
 15 and procedures related to Bill and Hold transactions.
 16 Mr. Gluck asked Arthur Andersen to review a draft copy or a 17 draft of the company's policies and procedures relative to 18 Bill and Hold transactions.

19 And this policy was primarily geared to provide 20 instruction to members of other parts of the company,
 21 primarily the sales customer service people and also 22 distribution people as to how Bill and Hold sales should be 23 handled so that they were handled in accordance with 24 generally accepted accounting principles.

25 I don't recall precisely what was said, but I made

Page 226

1 comments to him from time to time that I didn't think it made
 2 a whole lot of business sense to do this. And I think
 3 Mr. Gluck shared my viewpoint on that to some extent. But 4 you know, those discussions were after we signed off on the 5 '97 audit. It took place probably sometime in February.

6 We had discussions through -- well, throughout the 7 period of extended procedures, but, you know, discussions up
 8 to the point in time we refused to consent on our report.
 9 But I even discussed with the audit committee that I thought
 10 it was not a good practice and that there was an adverse 11 impact on the company's sales by entering into those type of 12 transactions. I discussed that at the May 1998 audit
 13 committee meeting.

14 Q When you were having these discussions with 15 Mr. Gluck, you know, sometime in February or, I guess,
 16 sometime between January and -- as you testified before,
 17 Arthur Andersen decided to refuse to consent, the discussions
 18 that took place prior to the -- prior to the first
 19 conversation that you had with Mr. Gluck following what you
 20 learned about the results, right?

21 A Results of?

22 Q At some point in March, I think you testified that 23 you learned that the company wasn't doing all that well in 24 the first quarter of '98, right?

25 A Sometime in March.

Page 227

1 MR. HAYNES: The first two months of 1998.
 2 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 3 Q Yes. I am sorry. Sometime in March you found
 4 out -- you couldn't remember the precise date, but I thought
 5 you testified that it was sometime in March that you found
 6 out that the company's sales so far that year shed some doubt
 7 upon the company's ability to meet expectations; is that
 8 right?
 9 A Well, the sales themselves didn't shed that. It
 10 was the level of sales -- I have testified to a couple of 11 things relative to the 1998 sales up through some point in 12 time in March. Number one is that I testified we identified
 13 that there was a lower level of sales year to date in 1998 as 14 compared to year to date, same period, 1997.
 15 I also testified that relative to 1998 sales year
 16 to date through sometime mid to, you know, during that week
 17 of the 16th through the 22nd or 23rd, that I did not believe 18 the sales that the company had at that point in time gave 19 them the base for making their first quarter estimates.
 20 Q Okay. In your conversations with Mr. Gluck between 21 the end of January and the time in March when you found out
 22 that the level of sales was not going to be -- was not 23 keeping up with the level of sales of the previous year, what
 24 was the reason that you discussed with him the impact of Bill
 25 and Hold on subsequent period sales?

Page 228

1 A I didn't like Bill and Hold sales. I thought it
 2 was a lousy business practice. And I communicated that
 3 several times to Mr. Gluck, Mr. Kersh, and others within the
 4 company.
 5 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 6 Q What was going on that led to these conversations
 7 with Mr. Gluck during this period? Were there accounting
 8 auditing services being provided? What was the impetus?
 9 A Well, one exchange or one discussion I think took 10 place -- pardon me because I have difficulty with precise
 11 dates. But took place at the time he prepared the policies
 12 and procedures for Bill and Hold. And I think I said
 13 something to the effect, "Bob, you know, why are you going to 14 continue to do this? Why is the company going to continue to 15 do this? It doesn't make sense because, you know, it catches
 16 up with you at some point in time."
 17 Q And what was his answer when you said that?
 18 A I don't recall his answer, but it was -- I don't 19 believe Mr. Gluck was the pioneer of the Bill and Hold 20 program. I think, you know, he, as corporate controller, had 21 to live with Bill and Hold, and basically try to construct
 22 for other members of management the sales department,
 23 Mr. Kersh and ultimately Mr. Dunlap.
 24 He had to provide the accounting structure to try
 25 to make it work. I don't believe he was thrilled with Bill

Page 229

1 and Hold transactions either. But when the topic would come
 2 up I, you know, I was not shy in voicing my opinion in what I
 3 thought of those types of transactions.
 4 Q Was there a reason the topic was coming up between
 5 the end of January and the time you learned about the sales
 6 figures being off comparable '98 to '97?
 7 A Well, as I just testified, it was in connection
 8 with developing this formal policy for the company. We had 9 an accounting policy and procedure manual that we would
 10 attempt to you know, indicate what the company's procedures
 11 were going to be relative to those types of transactions.
 12 And he asked us to review them.
 13 So I think that prompted a discussion. And my 14 comments -- you know, we probably had several conversations
 15 on that particular draft and, you know, it would come up from 16 time to time. But I can't point to any precise event that -- 17 other than the policy and procedure manual when we talked
 18 about it.
 19 Q Well, why was the company doing a policy manual on 20 Bill and Hold at that time? Was there some intent to 21 continue doing Bill and Holds?
 22 A Yes.
 23 Q What do you know about that?
 24 A Yes. At the point in time, sometime in February 25 after we signed off on the 1997 audit, Mr. Gluck wanted to

Page 230

1 formalize procedures related to that because, well, it is my
 2 understanding that he wanted to make sure the sales people
 3 understood what needed to be done in terms of discussing
 4 those types of sales with customers.
 5 So, you know, he didn't want to have to explain
 6 every time a new salesman would join the company or explain
 7 it every time the topic came up at a management meeting.
 8 They wanted to have a written document that explained the 9 whole -- what a Bill and Hold transaction was and what
 10 qualified from a generally accepted accounting principle
 11 standpoint what procedures needed to be followed within the 12 company in terms of purchase order requirements, shipping
 13 requirements, you know, the whole -- all the aspects
 14 associated with those types of transactions.
 15 So at that point in time, it was my understanding
 16 the company intended to have future Bill and Hold sales. And 17 the first quarter they did have Bill and Hold sales.
 18 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 19 Q Sir, in the conversation that you had with 20 Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin where Mr. Uzzi's report at the 21 meeting with Skadden Arps was discussed, did you tell
 22 Mr. Kersh what you just told us you were telling Mr. Gluck?
 23 A On the telephone conversation, I did not have a
 24 conversation with -- about Bill and Hold transactions.
 25 Q Do you know what --

1 A As I recall. There might have been a comment made
2 about it, but did I -- I don't think I said at that point in
3 time to Mr. Kersh that "You need to stop the business
4 practice."

5 Q Do you know whether --

6 A I may have said something like "Do you believe that 7 your Bill and Hold sales had an impact on the results here to 8 date?" That may have been part of the conversation, but I
9 don't recall precisely.

10 Q Do you know whether Mr. Uzzi had discussed the 11 impact or potential impact of Bill and Hold on the company's 12 performance at that meeting at Skadden Arps?

13 A I can't testify to that. I was not at the meeting
14 and I don't recall hearing from those in attendance at that 15 meeting that that aspect was discussed.

16 MR. LIPMAN: Why don't we break for lunch now. We 17 are off the record.

18 (Whereupon, at 1:06 p.m., a luncheon recess was 19 taken.)

1 conversations that took place in March that involved
2 Mr. Fannin, Ms. Kelly, or -- and/or Mr. Kersh, either
3 together or in combination or singly that dealt with how the 4 company was doing at that point in 1998?

5 A I believe that I had had a conversation with 6 Ms. Kelly, prior to my conversation with Mr. Fannin and 7 Mr. Kersh, and explained to Ms. Kelly why I wanted to discuss
8 or why I wanted to get in touch with Mr. Kersh and 9 Mr. Fannin. I had a discussion with her on the sales
10 shortfall issue.

11 Beyond that, in conversations with those three 12 individuals prior to that time, prior to that telephone call,
13 I would say, other than the Ms. Kelly conversation, no.
14 Subsequent to that time, there were some discussions that I
15 had with Mr. Fannin, Ms. Kelly, and not necessarily a 16 discussion, but a meeting attended by Mr. Kersh where the 17 topic was discussed.

18 Q Now this is subsequent. You had mentioned the 19 press release was -- the subsequent conversations that you
20 were talking about, these conversations took place after the 21 press release or before the press release?

22 A These conversations -- I believe your question was,
23 did I have any other conversations. The conversations I am
24 referring to now were after the press release.

25 Q In your conversation with Ms. Kelly, did you tell

1 AFTERNOON SESSION

2 MR. LIPMAN: We are back on the record at
3 approximately 2:25. And while we were off the record, there
4 were no discussions of substance between the staff and the
5 witness or counsel; is that correct?

6 MR. HAYNES: That is correct.

7 BY MR. LIPMAN:

8 Q Before we broke for lunch, sir, we were talking
9 about the meeting -- I am sorry, the telephone conference
10 that you had with Mr. Fannin and Mr. Kersh and possibly 11 Ms. Kelly. Were there any other conversations involving 12 Mr. Kersh, Ms. Kelly, and/or Mr. Fannin that related to the 13 impact on the Bill and Hold that you can recall that took 14 place in March of 1998?

15 A Let me clarify that the conversation was not 16 necessarily a conversation about Bill and Hold. That 17 conversation was primarily a conversation about a potential
18 shortfall in sales for the first quarter and a disclosure of 19 such. I believe, as I testified earlier, we did not have,
20 that I can recall, a discussion of Bill and Hold on that 21 telephone conversation. Although, it might have possibly 22 been mentioned, but I cannot testify that we discussed Bill
23 and Hold on that particular conversation.

24 Q I apologize, sir. I didn't mean to misstate your 25 testimony. Let me ask you then, were there any other

1 her anything about what you thought to be disclosed by the
2 company about its performance in 1998?

3 A I discussed with Ms. Kelly that I thought the 4 company should make clear in its disclosures on any documents
5 to be filed that the company was going to incur a sales level
6 different than the street anticipated and also be very
7 careful in -- and this was referring to the press release
8 that was put out, I believe, on March 19th or 20th.

9 Be very careful that the company not put itself
10 into a box in trying to meet an expectation in which it can't
11 meet. Something to that effect. And I had that conversation
12 with Ms. Kelly subsequent to the March 19th and March 20th
13 press release. And that would have been before the end of
14 March.

15 Q Now in the conversations with Ms. Kelly -- in the 16 conversation with Ms. Kelly that you had that preceded the 17 press release, did you also discuss the sales level of --
18 that the company was experiencing?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And did you --

21 A That was the crux of the conversation and the need
22 for disclosure of that fact.

23 Q What was her response to what you told her?

24 A Her response was that the situation had been 25 reviewed by Skadden Arps and that based on their advice from

Page 235

1 counsel, they thought the disclosure -- or the disclosure and
 2 the press release was adequate.
 3 Q I am sorry. I am asking about your conversations
 4 that you had -- conversation that you had with her prior to 5 the issuance of the press release.
 6 A Okay. Well, there are a number of press releases.
 7 Can you tell me which press release?
 8 Q I am sorry. There was -- I believe you said that
 9 there was a press release that came out on either March 19th
 10 or 20th.
 11 A Yes.
 12 Q And, well, what I am asking about is your 13 conversation with Ms. Kelly that took place before the 14 conference call that may have involved Ms. Kelly and also 15 involved Mr. Fannin and Mr. Kersh.
 16 A Okay.
 17 Q Did you discuss the sales level, the Sunbeam sales
 18 level, with Ms. Kelly in that conversation?
 19 A Yes.
 20 Q And did you also discuss with her the -- your 21 thoughts on having to have disclosure put out by the company?
 22 A Yes.
 23 Q What was her reaction in that conversation?
 24 A Her reaction was the same as I mentioned before.
 25 that Skadden Arps was of the opinion that the press release

Page 236

1 that was put out that day was sufficient and that there was
 2 no need for additional disclosures in documents to be filed
 3 with the SEC.
 4 Q When did the idea of putting out the press release
 5 spring up?
 6 A I don't know precisely when it sprung up. But I
 7 believe that it was a result of Arthur Andersen's discussions
 8 with the underwriters and the draft of the comfort letter
 9 indicating that there was a decline in sales in 1998 as 10 compared to 1997. I believe that was the genesis of top
 11 management and counsel of putting out some type of press
 12 release.
 13 Q When was the first time that Arthur Andersen
 14 discussed this information with the underwriters?
 15 A I cannot precisely answer with a date, but it was 16 very close. And by close, I mean within several days of the 17 point in time the press release was put out on the 19th or 18 20th.
 19 Q Realizing that you don't know the specific date
 20 right now when you say several days, more like seven or more
 21 like three?
 22 A More like three. More like two.
 23 Q Was Arthur Andersen involved in any discussions
 24 relating to the content of the press release?
 25 A Arthur Andersen was not consulted on the content of

Page 237

1 the press release.
 2 MR. HAYNES: Now this is the March 19th press
 3 release?
 4 MR. LIPMAN: Yes, sir.
 5 MR. HAYNES: Okay.
 6 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 7 Q Now who was the Arthur Andersen individual who
 8 spoke with the underwriters?
 9 A Larry Bornstein spoke with the underwriters as well
 10 as the underwriters' attorneys.
 11 Q Did you have any personal contact with either the 12 underwriters or their attorneys?
 13 A I did not have face to face contact. Larry 14 actually met with them in New York and Larry patched me into
 15 a telephone call. I was in Florida and he was at -- I
 16 believe he was at Morgan Stanley's office, although I am not 17 a hundred percent certain on that. And I did have a great
 18 conversation with one of the underwriters.
 19 Q Do you recall who was on that conference call?
 20 A I do not recall. That is something I could 21 research to help my memory, but offhand, I don't recall the 22 name of the underwriter.
 23 Q Do you mean the firm or the individuals on the 24 call?
 25 A The individuals.

Page 238

1 Q Let me show you what has been previously marked as
 2 Exhibit 125 and ask you to please look at the last page of
 3 that exhibit. There are names --
 4 A Do you want me to read the entire document?
 5 Q No-no. There are some names at the top of the 6 exhibit. And if you could look at those and tell me whether 7 any -- whether that list refreshes your memory as to who may 8 have been on that conference call with -- that we were just
 9 talking about.
 10 A The only one that -- well, first of all, no one
 11 from the company was on that call. And the call I am
 12 referring to is Larry Bornstein in New York either at the 13 underwriters or the printers. One of the two. And I am in 14 Florida and Larry patches me in. I believe John Tyree was 15 one of the individuals, but these other names I don't believe 16 they were.
 17 Q Were any lawyers on the call?
 18 A I believe there was an attorney representing the 19 underwriters.
 20 Q Representing Morgan Stanley?
 21 A Morgan Stanley, right.
 22 Q Was it someone from Davis Polk?
 23 A That was the firm that represented Morgan Stanley.
 24 I believe. I believe there was one of their attorneys on the 25 call.

1 Q Do you recall what happened on the call, what you
2 said, what Mr. Bornstein said?

3 A I don't remember a detailed conversation, but the
4 objective of the call was to discuss the need for better
5 company disclosure relative to the sales issue.

6 Q Was Morgan Stanley aware of the level of sales
7 issue before that conversation?

8 A I believe that they were because we had prepared a
9 draft comfort letter. And one of the paragraphs in the draft
10 comfort letter identified a decrease in the 1998 sales as 11 compared to the 1997 sales for the same period.

12 Q Do you know if they --

13 A I believe that John Tyree had reviewed a copy of 14 that prior to that point in time.

15 Q Do you know if Morgan Stanley was made aware of the 16 level of the company's sale before they saw a draft of the 17 comfort letter that you were talking about?

18 A I don't know that, but based on -- I mean, based on 19 hearsay, and this is primarily from Larry Bornstein, Larry 20 felt that they were somewhat surprised and was not aware of 21 the sales situation prior to receiving our comfort letter.

22 Q Now did you and the underwriters, you meaning you
23 and Mr. Bornstein, discuss the reasons for the fall off in 24 the sales level?

25 A No, not that I can recall. If a reason was

1 remember if the press release had been sent out, had been
2 prepared. The draft was given to the underwriters at the 3 time Larry and I had our call. Actually, Larry was in New
4 York. I don't recall the precise timing, but specifically on
5 the Bill and Hold issue, I don't recall discussing the Bill
6 and Hold directly with Morgan Stanley.

7 Q Sir, other than the level of sales, which you
8 identified as one of the things that were different that you
9 learned during this period, was there anything else that you
10 learned during this period that falls into the same different
11 category?

12 A Okay. Can you give me the period?

13 Q The period is from the -- from January 22, 1998,
14 through March 1998.

15 A Well, back to our definition of unusual. We did --
16 or the company did enter into discussions with Coleman, in 17 addition to First Alert and Signature Brands, and proceeded
18 to perform due diligence and basically enter into a purchase
19 agreement on those three companies. That was certainly a
20 significant event or unusual event.

21 Another event that occurred was sometime in 22 February, there were some pretty significant upper level
23 management employment contract agreements struck with 24 Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, and Mr. Fannin. During that period of 25 time, there were significant stock options granted to

1 discussed, it was not a significant component of discussion.

2 Q Were the underwriters in agreement that additional
3 disclosure would be required?

4 A I don't believe they were in agreement with that.

5 Q Do you recall what they said on that score?

6 A I believe the position that they were taking was 7 the company's position along with the company's counsel's
8 position.

9 Q Which was?

10 A Which was that the March 19th or 20th disclosure
11 was, you know, would be adequate. And in other words, no
12 special need to put additional information or disclosure in 13 the document.

14 Q Now that answer assumes that they know at the time
15 that you had spoke with them what the content of that 16 disclosure would be. Did they?

17 A I don't know. I don't know if it was based on the 18 discussion with the company's attorneys, Janet Kelly. We 19 were talking about a matter of a day or two. I just don't 20 know.

21 Q Did you at any time, prior to the issuance of the 22 March 19th press release, discuss the impact of the Bill and 23 Hold on the sales level of the company with anyone, with any 24 of the underwriters?

25 A Well, just as I have just testified, I don't

1 Mr. Gluck and Ms. Kelly. I think those are the more unusual
2 events that I can recall.

3 Q Was there anything else, other than the sales
4 level, that had to do with the company's results --
5 performance?

6 A Once again, what period of time?

7 Q The same period of time. From the third week of 8 January to -- through the -- through March 19.

9 A Okay. Some of the issues -- unusual events that I
10 just mentioned clearly would have an impact on the company's 11 performance for that time period. There were rather large 12 compensation charges, which would have an adverse impact on 13 the company's performance in the first quarter. And those 14 would be recorded at the time they were entered into. So
15 those had a very significant impact on 1998.

16 The purchase transactions obviously would, although 17 they weren't recorded until the end of that period. But as 18 of the time they were recorded in the books and records of 19 the company, it totally changed the balance sheet and the 20 operating results of the company. From a comparability
21 standpoint, it was a different company at that point. I
22 think those are the primary things that would affect 23 performance in that time frame that I was aware of at the 24 time.

25 Q Sir, if you can look back at Exhibit 125. There is

Page 243

1 one of the pages in that exhibit, I think it is the third
 2 page.
 3 A This one?
 4 Q I am sorry. It would be the next page. The last
 5 page. I am sorry. It sets out a -- it sets out an agenda
 6 for a bring down due diligence meeting, I believe. Is this
 7 the meeting that took place at Skadden Arps where Mr. Uzzi
 8 gave a report that you testified about before?
 9 A I can't answer that. I did not participate in this 10 meeting and I have never seen this agenda. So I can't answer
 11 that.
 12 Q Okay.
 13 BY MS. ARMSTRONG:
 14 Q Mr. Harlow, when Mr. Bornstein called you in this
 15 phone call that you testified to having received Mr. Tyree's
 16 phone call, what was Mr. Bornstein seeking from you? Was it
 17 advice? Do you recall?
 18 A Larry was working on the document. And he would 19 call me from time to time with just an update on the status
 20 of the project. And he was working closely with, you know,
 21 representatives from the underwriters and also their counsel
 22 in conjunction with putting the document together.
 23 So he may call -- he might call with a question.
 24 "How this should be disclosed?" And, you know, "What should 25 be done here?" And, "Keep me apprised as to where we were in

Page 244

1 the process." And one of those calls, I don't know if he was
 2 in a conference room or an office, and we had a -- he had --
 3 I believe it was John Tyree, but I am not 100 percent
 4 confident. A representative from Morgan Stanley. And I
 5 believe a representative from their law firm wanted to 6 discuss the sales issue relative to that point in time. And 7 that was -- that is the way I recall it was prefaced to me.
 8 Q Did you come to any conclusion about whether or not
 9 there was a need for more disclosure relative to the sales
 10 issue at that time?
 11 A At that time, I felt there was more need for
 12 disclosure.
 13 Q And did you tell Mr. Bornstein? Did you tell, you
 14 know, someone else in New York that this is what, you know,
 15 Andersen wants to do?
 16 A Mr. Bornstein was of the same frame of mind, and I
 17 didn't have to tell him because we had previously discussed
 18 it previous to that call. And Mr. Bornstein had communicated
 19 that to these individuals at that point in time.
 20 Q And what about the individual who is on the call
 21 with Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Tyree, did he have a response to 22 your decision or the decision that there was a need for more
 23 disclosure on this issue?
 24 A As I testified earlier, to the best of my 25 recollection, his attitude and his say what he thought would

Page 245

1 be necessary was consistent with the company and the
 2 company's counsel's advice and approach. I mean, that is
 3 what is in my mind that I recall. But I don't remember
 4 exactly how he said it and what words he used. But that is
 5 what I walked away from with that conversation.
 6 Q Was there anything else that was discussed that you
 7 haven't already testified to having occurred during that
 8 phone call?
 9 A Not that I can recall.
 10 Q Was there any other phone calls that day from 11 Mr. Bornstein relative to this issue of disclosure?
 12 A I am sure there were.
 13 Q Do you recall anything specific about other phone
 14 calls that you received --
 15 A I am sorry?
 16 Q That you received from Mr. Bornstein that day.
 17 A I don't recall anything specific. You know, Larry,
 18 like I said, he was calling me from time to time just to 19 update me on the status of the project and, you know, how the 20 document was coming together and the timing and so forth.
 21 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 22 Q Sir, do you recall whether Arthur Andersen
 23 participated in a March 18, 1998, conference call that
 24 involved Don Uzzi and Deborah McDonald and Mr. Fannin?
 25 A That was March 18th?

Page 246

1 Q Yes, sir.
 2 A I have no knowledge of that call with those
 3 individuals.
 4 Q Let me show you what has previously been marked as
 5 Exhibit 86.
 6 MR. HAYNES: Do you want any of this back?
 7 MR. LIPMAN: Yes.
 8 MR. HAYNES: This being these exhibits before they 9 get --
 10 MR. LIPMAN: Yes.
 11 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 12 Q Sir, if you could please turn to page AAR015941.
 13 Have you ever seen this memorandum?
 14 A Is it just this one page that you are referring to?
 15 Q Well, that one page and then there is some 16 documents attached. And I think it is a total of three
 17 pages. And they go from 5941 through 5943.
 18 A Can I take just a few minutes to read it?
 19 Q Absolutely.
 20 (The witness examined the document.)
 21 THE WITNESS: I believe I saw this during the 22 period of time in which we were doing the extended procedures
 23 on the 1997 audit. Prior to that time, I have not seen it.
 24 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 25 Q Would that -- was that --

Page 247

1 A But this letter -- this memo is dated July 27,
 2 1998, which was during the period of time we were doing the
 3 extended procedures.
 4 Q Right. So would you -- do you think you saw this
 5 memo around or about July 27, 1998?
 6 A No, it was sometime after that. And I would be 7 guessing, but it was probably late in October, sometime in 8 September.
 9 Q Does this memo refresh your recollection at all
 10 about there being a conference call regarding Arthur Andersen
 11 that took place on March 18, 1998?
 12 A I am sorry, the question again?
 13 Q Well, now that you have seen this memo, do you
 14 recall whether there was a March 18, 1998, conference call
 15 that involved Arthur Andersen and also Don Uzzi and Deborah 16 McDonald?
 17 A Where does it say Arthur Andersen participated?
 18 Q Well, it is addressed to Skadden Arps and Arthur
 19 Andersen.
 20 A Yes, on July 27, 1998.
 21 Q Right.
 22 A This was a document that Mr. Fannin prepared in 23 connection with our extended procedures on the 1997 audit.
 24 Q Okay. Is this -- well --
 25 A I don't see any mention in here that Arthur

Page 248

1 Andersen was on this call.
 2 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 3 Q Sir, but the question is something different. The 4 question is do you remember whether Andersen was in on the 5 call, whether or not that is reflected in the memo?
 6 A That wasn't the question as I heard it, but to my 7 knowledge, we did not participate in a call with Don Uzzi and 8 Deborah McDonald. To my knowledge, I didn't.
 9 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 10 Q Sir did you -- on or about March 18, 1998, did you
 11 know anything about Mr. Dunlap's and Mr. Kersh's
 12 participation in the drafting of the press release that was 13 being contemplated?
 14 Actually, if you can do me a favor and just make 15 sure that -- yes, it is part of the exhibit -- they are all
 16 kept in order.
 17 A All right.
 18 Q Thank you.
 19 A Can you be more precise on a press release, press
 20 release date?
 21 Q March 19, 1998.
 22 A And the question is, do I have knowledge of whether 23 Mr. Kersh and Mr. Dunlap participated in the drafting?
 24 Q Yes.
 25 A I have no knowledge -- I had no knowledge at that

Page 249

1 point in time. Subsequent to that point in time, I learned
 2 that Mr. Dunlap -- I don't think he drafted it, but he was
 3 aware that the press release was going out. Mr. Kersh was 4 aware. And Mr. Dunlap was very upset that that press release
 5 was sent out.
 6 Q Where did you learn this information?
 7 A I learned that at a board meeting in New York.
 8 Q When was that?
 9 A That was in early June 1998.
 10 Q Was Mr. Dunlap there?
 11 A Yes, he was.
 12 Q Before we go to the board meeting, what was your --
 13 well, did you know that Mr. Kersh participated in the 14 drafting of the press release?
 15 A I don't know that for a fact if he participated. I
 16 believe that he reviewed a draft and, in his position with 17 the company, had some input into the draft. But that is a
 18 conjecture on my part.
 19 MR. LIPMAN: Let's mark this as the next exhibit.
 20 Thank you.
 21 (SEC Exhibit No. 138 was marked for
 22 identification.)
 23 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 24 Q Let me show you what has just been marked as 25 Exhibit 138. And this is a one-page document that purports

Page 250

1 to be a business wire reprint of the March 19th press release
 2 put out by Sunbeam. Would you please take a second and
 3 review this document.
 4 A Okay.
 5 Q Is this the March 19th press release that we have 6 been talking about?
 7 A I believe it is.
 8 Q And is the beginning of the press release the 9 announcement, the words that say that Sunbeam Corporation
 10 said today that -- well, I guess it should say it is possible
 11 that its net sales for the first quarter of 1998 may be lower
 12 than the range that Wall Street analysts estimates for 285
 13 million to 295 million. But the net sales are expected to 14 exceed 1997 first quarter sales of 453.4 million. Is that 15 the disclosure that you had discussed with Skadden Arps -- I
 16 am sorry, with the underwriters and Ms. Kelly and Mr. Fannin
 17 and Mr. Kersh?
 18 MR. HAYNES: By disclosure, do you mean the 19 specific words in this press release?
 20 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 21 Q No. I am sorry. The subject of that disclosure.
 22 Is that what you discussed with those individuals?
 23 A Let me clarify because you misread the first 24 sentence.
 25 Q I am sorry.

Page 247 - Page 250

Diversified Reporting Services, Inc. (202) 296-9626, 6-9-99

1 A You misread the 1997 first quarter sales to be 453
2 million.

3 Q I am sorry.

4 A It is 253.4 million. Once again, at what point in
5 time?

6 Q Well --

7 A Give me a point in time that you want me to testify
8 to.

9 Q You have mentioned several conversations in 10 which -- with Ms. Kelly, with Mr. Kersh, with Mr. Fannin, 11 with the underwriters, including Mr. Bornstein, in some of 12 these conversations. And you have indicated that the subject
13 matter of these conversations had to do with level of sales
14 and required disclosure.

15 So my question now, as to those conversations that 16 you have already testified about, is this the subject
17 matter -- the disclosure that is in this press release, does 18 it cover the subject matter that you were talking about in 19 those conversations?

20 A This press release covers the sales issue but prior
21 to March 19th, this press release didn't exist. So to say
22 that precisely what is in here was discussed part of that
23 point in time, I can't say that, but I did have discussions
24 on the disclosure, on the shortfall, on the analyst
25 estimates.

1 possibly after. And the record is all screwed up on this
2 because he is dealing with a document that he reviewed at 3 some point in time after it was published. And that is not
4 clear. He said when he read this. And now we are dealing
5 with before and after. So we have got the chronology all
6 jumping.

7 MR. LIPMAN: Well, the record will reflect what I
8 asked. I don't believe I asked before, but if I did, I will 9 withdraw that.

10 BY MR. LIPMAN:

11 Q And the question is, you had been -- you have 12 testified saying that you had some reaction to the -- to this 13 press release. And what I am asking is whether you had 14 communicated with Mr. Kelly -- with Ms. Kelly or communicated
15 to Ms. Kelly what your reaction was.

16 A So that is obviously after the press release.

17 Q That would be after the press release.

18 A After I had read the press release. Yes, I did.

19 Q And what did you tell her?

20 A Well, at one point in time, I told her, "Janet," I
21 said, "I told you so." That was after the actual results
22 were out. Prior to that point in time between the time the 23 press release was put out and, you know, what time I knew --
24 at the point in time I knew the first quarter results, I let 25 her know that I wasn't real pleased with the disclosure that

1 I was not real excited about the statement
2 "possible" when I read this. And the other issue I had with
3 this, as I testified earlier, when I discussed with Janet
4 Kelly the statement in here that the company expected to 5 exceed 1997 first quarter net sales of 253.4 million.

6 Q Well, why were you not excited about these
7 particular items?

8 A As I testified earlier, I believe the company had 9 much work to do to make that number. There was a degree of 10 skepticism that I had in my mind on their ability to achieve
11 these results.

12 Q Did you tell Ms. Kelly in any of the conversations
13 that you have testified about before that the company may not
14 make these numbers that are stated here?

15 A I -- repeat the question. Repeat the first part of 16 it. Did I --

17 Q Did you tell Ms. Kelly that the company might not 18 make these results?

19 MR. HAYNES: Let me ask are you withdrawing that 20 earlier question that used the term "before?"

21 MR. LIPMAN: That used --

22 MR. HAYNES: Your earlier question was, "Did you 23 tell Ms. Kelly before?" And then now you are removing the 24 "before." My only concern is, you have identified a 25 document, now you are asking about conversations before and

1 they were going to exceed first quarter 1997.

2 Q Was that a conversation that took place soon after
3 this press release came out?

4 A I believe it took place within several days after 5 receiving a copy of this.

6 Q And what did you tell her?

7 A Well, I don't remember the exact wording, but I
8 tried to scold her in a nice way that I didn't think it was 9 real smart to put estimates out in a press release like this
10 one when they represented a stretch.

11 Q At the time that you had that conversation with 12 Ms. Kelly, which was after March 19th and this was, you know,
13 your first conversation with her after the press release came 14 out, did you think that the company was going to be able to 15 exceed its 1997 first quarter net sales?

16 A I don't believe I had -- at that point in time I
17 knew. But going back to my earlier testimony, I had a degree
18 of skepticism in my mind about their ability to do so. But I
19 received -- I had some conversations with the people that 20 supposedly knew what was going to happen with sales and the 21 executives that were controlling the sales effort. And they 22 appeared to be very confident that the company could beat
23 this number.

24 Q Did you communicate to Ms. Kelly in that 25 conversation that took place a few days after March 19th,

Page 255

1 that you were skeptical about the company being able to meet
2 its 1997 first quarter 1998 sales results?

3 A Yes.

4 Q What did she say to that?

5 A I don't recall her exact words, but in fact, she
6 made me believe that she was relying on the sales executives
7 and their estimates and also counsel regarding this
8 disclosure, the counsel being Skadden Arps, that this was 9 adequate. It was not a significant issue.

10 Q Did you discuss with her any of the reasons why the 11 company might not be able to do what it said it would do in 12 this press release?

13 A Yes.

14 Q What did you discuss with her?

15 A I referred to the year to date estimates -- year to 16 date sales information that had been made known to me. And 17 once again, I don't remember the exact wording, but he 18 company has a long way to go to make this number based on 19 where they are at that point in time.

20 Q Did you talk to her about the impact of the Bill
21 and Hold sales on the company's results in that conversation?

22 A I don't recall discussing Bill and Hold.

23 Q Did you have a conversation with Mr. Kersh about 24 this press release that at any time -- I am sorry. Did you
25 have a conversation with Mr. Kersh about the wording of this

Page 256

1 press release that took place any time within, say, a week of
2 this press release being issued?

3 A The subsequent week?

4 Q Yes.

5 A I don't recall if I had a discussion with 6 Mr. Kersh. I believe that Janet Kelly indicated she was
7 going to relay my comments to Mr. Kersh, but I don't recall
8 having a direct conversation with Mr. Kersh on that point in 9 the following week.

10 Q When was the first time that you spoke with 11 Mr. Kersh about this press release?

12 A I don't recall having a direct conversation with 13 him on this particular press release. I can't recall talking
14 to him specifically about this, other than that call that I
15 mentioned was -- must have been the night of the 18th where 16 he referred to, you know, the press release that was going to 17 go out or it had already been sent out. But I don't think I
18 had a specific conversation on this press release with him
19 after it went out.

20 Q Now before the press release went out, did you tell
21 him about your misgivings or skepticism, as you put it, about 22 the company being able to --

23 A Yes.

24 Q What did you tell him about that?

25 A That was the call we talked about an hour or so.

Page 257

1 It was before lunch. That the year to date sales through

2 March 18th, 19th, whatever the date was at that point,

3 represented a significant shortfall in analyst estimates.

4 Now that is what we primarily focused on. And at the time I

5 discussed it with him, I didn't know they were going to put

6 the first quarter -- exceed first quarter results, but year

7 to date the company was behind the prior year's quarter for

8 the company period.

9 Q What was your reaction when you read this press
10 release to the next sentence in the press release, which is 11 that the company's trust that sales on the products at retail
12 remains very strong?

13 A My reaction was that you know, unless there was --
14 something was going to happen in the last few days of the 15 quarter that I didn't know about, that it wasn't a very 16 accurate statement.

17 Q Well, this sentence is in the present tense. It
18 does not deal with what would happen in -- for the rest of 19 the quarter. Was this sentence truthful as of March 19th?

20 A If you made this statement saying that the sales
21 through March 19th were stronger than they were in the prior 22 year, that would be untruthful. And I guess you would have 23 to define what strong means. But in the context of saying
24 first quarter results from a prior year are going to be 25 exceeded, in my opinion, is a little misleading.

Page 258

1 Q Now the next --

2 A In hindsight, I know it was misleading.

3 Q The next sentence says that the shortfall from 4 analyst estimates, if any, would be due to changes in 5 inventory management and order patterns at certain of the 6 company's major retail customers. Was that true as of as of
7 March 19, 1998?

8 A That was probably true because if you want to go
9 back and analyze the customers period to period, I believe
10 there were some changes in their ordering patterns. And I
11 believe that, you know, there were probably some changes in 12 inventory management of retailers. But that is not something
13 I audited or studied or necessarily reviewed. So this 14 statement could be true.

15 BY MS. HEILIZER:

16 Q What does inventory management mean to your
17 understanding?

18 A Inventory management would be having the right
19 level of inventory at any one time to meet the needs of your 20 business. If you are a retailer, you would want to have the 21 right merchandise in your showrooms at the point in time in 22 which your customers are most likely prone to buy that 23 particular product. It also means not having an excess
24 amount of inventory on hand to manage your inventory levels
25 so you do not have an inefficient investment in the level of

Diversified Reporting Services, Inc. (202) 296-9626, 6-9-99

1 inventory.

2 Q So did you understand the shortfall that is being

3 referred to there being due to changes in inventory

4 management, did you understand that to mean that retailers

5 were reducing their inventory level of Sunbeam products?

6 A I don't think I really studied that particular item

7 in this press release at the time.

8 Q I am not asking whether you studied it, I am asking

9 what you understood it to mean.

10 A I don't think I really focused on it at the time.

11 BY MR. LIPMAN:

12 Q Well, let's -- well, how about now? Looking at

13 that sentence right now, does that sentence put the onus of 14 the reasons for the shortfall on Sunbeam or on its customers?

15 A This one refers to Sunbeam's customers.

16 Q Do you think that as of what you know today, do you

17 think that the shortfall was attributable to customers or to

18 Sunbeam?

19 A Based on what I know today, I think it is a

20 combination of those two.

21 BY MS. HEILIZER:

22 Q Well, as you sit here today, do you understand this

23 sentence to mean that customers are reducing their inventory

24 level of Sunbeam products?

25 A Sitting here today, I would say that the analyst

Page 260

1 estimates were unrealistic in the first place. So to say

2 there was a change. I just -- I can't say if there was a

3 change.

4 Q No, I am asking what your understanding of the 5 sentence is, not what the reality was.

6 A You said sitting here today.

7 Q Right.

8 A And I --

9 Q How do you understand the sentence? Yes, you said

10 you didn't understand the sentence at the time or didn't

11 study it at the time you read it.

12 A I didn't focus on the meaning.

13 Q Right. I am asking you to focus on it now and tell

14 me what it means.

15 A It means that analysts had estimates of 285 million

16 to $295 million in net sales for the first quarter of 1997

17 for Sunbeam.

18 BY MR. LIPMAN:

19 Q 1997 or 1998, sir?

20 A I am sorry. 1998. So that was for the sales

21 estimates, analyst estimates. And the company made the

22 statement in here that some of their major retail customers

23 were changing their ordering patterns and they were managing

24 their inventory.

25 BY MS. HEILIZER:

Page 261

1 Q Okay. Does that mean -- do you understand that to

2 mean reducing the level of inventory of Sunbeam products as

3 you sit here today?

4 A In the context of a shortfall, that would be my

5 understanding.

6 Q Do you understand reducing the level of Sunbeam

7 products to be a result of the company's Bill and Hold

8 program in the fourth quarter of 1997?

9 A I am sorry, do I understand the what?

10 Q The reduction in the level. The change in the 11 inventory management that is referred to here to be a

12 consequence of the company's Bill and Hold program in the 13 fourth quarter of '97.

14 A I can't say that without studying that situation.

15 Q What would you do to study it?

16 A I would have to go talk to these customers.

17 Q Do you have an understanding as to whether the Bill

18 and Hold program increased Sunbeam's customers' inventory for 19 those participating in the program?

20 A I don't have an answer for that. I haven't studied

21 their inventory levels.

22 Q Do you know whether the customers took the products

23 into inventory that they purchased under the Bill and Hold

24 program?

25 A At some point in time they did. But to -- in order

Page 262

1 to evaluate inventory levels of suppliers, you would have to

2 do it on a weekly basis, a monthly basis, and have some basis

3 for comparison. We haven't done that study and I can't -- I

4 don't think I have the data to respond to that.

5 Q Do you have any understanding, apart from this

6 hypothetical study you have just described, as to the effect

7 of the Bill and Hold program on customers' inventory levels?

8 A I can assume effect, but I can't say precisely that

9 Bill and Hold had a direct correlation to the decrease in the

10 analyst -- the company not meeting the analyst estimates. I

11 can't testify to that because I don't have that knowledge.

12 Q That is not what I was asking. I was asking for

13 your understanding of the effect of the Bill and Hold program

14 on the customers' inventory levels.

15 A So you want a theoretical answer.

16 Q I want your understanding.

17 MR. HAYNES: I mean, he has testified that he can't

18 testify to it and then you said, "Besides the theoretical

19 that you have answered, do you have any other information?"

20 He has answered it and you just keep asking the same

21 question.

22 MS. HEILIZER: I don't think that is true, Counsel,

23 I think that misstates what --

24 MR. HAYNES: Well, I think the record will speak

25 for itself. I mean, you make it appear as if he has

Page 263

1 knowledge he is not giving you. And he said he didn't have
2 that knowledge.
3 MS. HEILIZER: I am trying to find out what 4 understanding this gentleman has.
5 MR. HAYNES: Well, that is just another way to 6 restate the same question. If he says, "I don't know," if
7 you ask him then his understanding, he has already given you
8 his understanding.
9 MS. HEILIZER: Well, let me make sure that I have 10 his understanding, okay?
11 MR. HAYNES: Sure.
12 BY MS. HEILIZER:
13 Q Sir, do you have any understanding as to the effect
14 of the Bill and Hold program on customers' inventory levels
15 in the first quarter of 1998?
16 A No, I do not.
17 Q Where would you go to find that out?
18 A I would have to go to all of the customers that
19 participated in the program and basically get their inventory
20 records and determine what their inventory levels of the 21 Sunbeam products were on a week to week day to day basis,
22 depending on how these records were maintained, and then take 23 a look at historic ordering patterns and compare that with 24 current ordering patterns.
25 Q Did you have an understanding as to the effect of

Page 264

1 the Bill and Hold program on the inventory level of customers
2 at the end of the fiscal year 1996?
3 A I did not have an understanding as to the
4 customers' inventory levels at that point in time.
5 Q Now did you ask anybody what this -- given that you
6 didn't focus on the sentence and understand what it meant,
7 did you ask anybody what it meant or what information that 8 sentence was referring to when you first read the release or 9 at any time thereafter?
10 A Well, as I testified earlier, I don't think I
11 really focused on that particular sentence.
12 MR. HAYNES: Let me object before you answer.
13 THE WITNESS: All right.
14 MR. HAYNES: Let me just go on the record and say
15 you have just misstated his testimony. I know it wasn't 16 intentional, but you said he didn't focus on it. And your 17 question was that he admitted that he didn't know what it
18 meant. He hadn't admitted that. That is not the record. He 19 needs to use his own words and have the record use his own
20 words, and the questions need to relate to that too.
21 MS. HEILIZER: I think I melded two different
22 sentences that he said, but I believe he said as he sat here,
23 he didn't know exactly what it referred to.
24 BY MS. HEILIZER:
25 Q And I am asking whether you asked anybody either at

Page 265

1 the time you first read the release or thereafter.
2 A I can't answer that because I -- as I testified
3 earlier, I haven't -- I didn't focus on that particular
4 sentence at the time.
5 Q Okay. You can answer the question. The question
6 is, did you ask anybody about the sentence either at the time
7 you first read the release or after that?
8 A I don't recall.
9 Q Did you find out from anybody what the information
10 was that was referred to in the sentence, either at the time
11 you first read this release or thereafter?
12 A Well, after the release, I got an understanding of 13 what that means.
14 Q Okay. And have you relayed to me your complete
15 understanding as to what that means?
16 A I think I have. The company had sales estimates of 17 up to $295 million in the first quarter of 1998. And 18 customers' ordering patterns were not such that they were 19 able to sustain that level of sales. Why? I don't know. I
20 don't have the answer to that. I haven't gone to the 21 customers to ascertain why they didn't order more product.
22 It could be --
23 Q Did you go to the company?
24 A -- because of Bill and Hold, but I don't know that 25 for a fact.

Page 266

1 Q Did you ask the company?
2 A I -- subsequent to this period of time, we talked
3 about shortfalls and the impact on sales.
4 Q And what information did you get?
5 A Well, current management believes that there was
6 channel stuffing taking place in 1997. Once again, I haven't
7 verified that information. That is what present management
8 of the company believes.
9 MR. LIPMAN: Now --
10 MR. HAYNES: Let's take a break.
11 MR. LIPMAN: Okay. That is fine. We are off the 12 record.
13 (A brief recess was taken.)
14 MR. LIPMAN: We are back on the record at
15 approximately 4:00 p.m. And while we were off the record,
16 there were no discussions of substance between the staff and 17 the witness or counsel.
18 MR. HAYNES: That is correct.
19 MR. LIPMAN: Go ahead.
20 THE WITNESS: Could I clarify --
21 MS. HEILIZER: Sure.
22 THE WITNESS: -- something from yesterday. And 23 this is something I thought about in the cab ride over this
24 morning. There -- a question was asked had I ever personally
25 resigned from clients. And there are two more that I would

Diversified Reporting Services, Inc. (202) 296-9626, 6-9-99

Page 267

1 like to put on the record that Arthur Andersen -- you know,
2 these were clients that I was involved in -- resigned.
3 One is a company called Dry Clean Depot. And I was 4 driving by a dry cleaners on the way over and I -- that 5 jogged my memory. And we resigned from that client because
6 of management integrity issues. Another one was a company
7 called College Bound. And it was a company for which we 8 never performed work, but we were retained as auditors, and 9 then in the investigative process, we found some integrity
10 issues and resigned.
11 BY MS. HEILIZER:
12 Q Was Dry Clean Depot public at the time Andersen
13 resigned?
14 A Yes.
15 Q Is there anything else you wanted to clarify, sir?
16 A No, just those points.
17 BY MR. LIPMAN:
18 Q Sir, going back to the March 19, 1998, memo, we
19 spent some time before we broke talking about the explanation
20 for the shortfall from analyst estimates. Is there any 21 indication in this memo -- in this memo. I am sorry. Is 22 there any indication in this press release that the shortfall
23 might be in any aspect attributable to the company's own
24 policies?
25 A Yes, there is something in here that indicates that

Page 268

1 as a possibility.
2 Q Where is that?
3 A In the last paragraph when it discusses actual
4 results could differ materially from the company's statements
5 due to various factors. One of those factors -- a number of 6 those factors could be company issues.
7 Q Well, do you understand that sentence to be part of 8 the information, part of the -- what the company was trying
9 to convey with the press release or is this a cautionary
10 statement?
11 MR. HAYNES: Let me ask a question for the record.
12 He didn't see the press release beforehand, he didn't draft
13 the press release. Why -- what relevance in any regard would 14 there be as to what his belief is as to what the company's 15 intentions are, which he wouldn't know?
16 MR. LIPMAN: Well, he is --
17 MR. HAYNES: I am just asking the question.
18 MR. LIPMAN: I understand. And the answer is that 19 he is a witness to events that led up and followed the issues
20 of this press release.
21 MR. HAYNES: A witness to just part of the scene, 22 that actual -- the question would be, properly does he -- has 23 he discussed the matter with anybody so that he could express
24 their intention. And that predicate has not been laid.
25 MR. LIPMAN: Well, respectfully, sir, there -- you

Page 269

1 know, I think that the questions that we find appropriate are
2 the questions that --
3 MR. HAYNES: Well, we are not in a court of law.
4 but I have made my objection.
5 MR. LIPMAN: No. I appreciate that.
6 BY MR. LIPMAN:
7 Q But going back to the question, is that a
8 cautionary statement or is that part of the information that 9 the company was trying to convey with that press release?
10 A Well, it is part of the press release. Why they 11 put that statement in the press release, I assume their 12 attorneys advised them to do so. Clearly they thought about 13 it. It is in the press release.
14 Q Well, is it a factual statement? Does it refer
15 back to -- well, is it a factual statement?
16 A Yes, it is a factual statement because actual
17 results did differ materially.
18 Q Well, does it refer specifically to the information
19 in the first part of this exhibit up to the words "cautionary
20 statement?"
21 A I believe it does because it starts out by saying,
22 "Statements contained in this press release." And the 23 previous two paragraphs are "Statements contained in this
24 press release."
25 Q Do you know if the cautionary statement language is

Page 270

1 different in this press release from other press releases
2 issued by Sunbeam?
3 A The only way I can answer that question is to go
4 through and review every press release sent out by Sunbeam.
5 The answer to that question is no.
6 Q Sir, have you -- in your practice, have you seen
7 other press releases put out by other companies?
8 A I have seen other press releases.
9 Q Have you seen press releases that have cautionary
10 language in them?
11 A Yes, I have.
12 Q Is that cautionary language dealing with the 13 possibility that -- or that actual results might differ from 14 the results that are in the press release that are being
15 announced in the press release?
16 MR. HAYNES: Are we talking now about
17 hypothetical --
18 MR. LIPMAN: No, we are talking about this witness'
19 knowledge. He suggests that he would need to review all of 20 the company's press releases to know whether this is a
21 cautionary statement. I am asking him based on his many 22 years of experience, what he understands this language to be.
23 MR. HAYNES: The question you asked was whether 24 this -- the cautionary statement was different from what the 25 company had in other press releases. That is what he

1 answered.

2 BY MS. HEILIZER:

3 Q Sir, do you know of any other or are you aware of

4 any other instance in this release where the shortfall is

5 attributed to actions of Sunbeam rather than the customers?

6 A Do I know of other instances other than.

7 Q Yes. You pointed that out in some examples.

8 A Other than --

9 Q Is there anything else?

10 A -- this example I pointed out. Other than that

11 example. I don't see a specific reference to the sales

12 shortfall being attributable to actions of the company.

13 Q Okay. At the time of the release, of the issuance

14 of this release, did you have an understanding as to the 15 reason or reasons for the sale shortfall that is referred to 16 in this release?

17 A As I testified earlier. I had not focused on this

18 particular sentence.

19 Q I am asking you to step back for a minute now. And 20 what I am asking is what you understood at the time this

21 release came out as to the reason or reasons for the

22 shortfall. I am not asking you to interpret the release for 23 me.

24 A I did not have a full understanding of the reason

25 for the shortfall. You know, there were things discussed

Page 272

1 saying that the -- some of the products that were introduced

2 early in the year did not take off as quickly as anticipated.

3 One of my understandings -- one of the things in my mind was

4 the company's Early Buy program perhaps contributed to this

5 factor.

6 Q Are you using Early Buy to include Bill and Hold in

7 your answer?

8 A That would include Bill and Hold as well as a -- it

9 would include Bill and Hold and all the Early Buy -- all the 10 sales under the Early Buy program.

11 Q Anything else?

12 A I think those were the two main items.

13 Q Can you think of any other items?

14 A Well, I heard -- and this is hearsay, I never

15 substantiated this -- that Mr. Dunlap apparently was -- had

16 perhaps rubbed some of his customers the wrong way. And that

17 could have contributed to the shortfall. That is hearsay. I

18 have no way to substantiate that.

19 Q Any other items that contributed to the shortfall

20 in your understanding?

21 A No. I think the, you know, slow introduction of new

22 models, new products, the Early Buy program, and Dunlap's

23 interaction with some of his customers had impact. I think

24 we discussed weather as well. I think that was the 25 explanation that was given.

Page 273

1 Q Did you credit that explanation? Is that part of

2 your understanding as to what actually caused the shortfall?

3 A I am sorry, did I credit?

4 Q Yes. Did you believe it?

5 A I believed that that could have impacted it. I

6 didn't go back and study the weather patterns throughout the

7 U.S., but that was one of the reasons that I was made aware

8 of. I think that is -- those are the reasons.

9 Q At the time you first read this release, did you

10 form an opinion as to whether the release was misleading?

11 A I am sorry, the release was?

12 Q Misleading.

13 A I did not form that conclusion.

14 Q Did you form any opinion as to whether the release

15 was misleading?

16 A I think I just testified that I didn't form the 17 conclusion that the release was misleading.

18 Q Did you ever come to an opinion in that regard?

19 A Subsequent to?

20 Q Yes.

21 A Any point in time?

22 Q Yes.

23 A Today?

24 Q Including today.

25 A Yes.

Page 274

1 Q And what is your opinion and when did you form it?

2 A Well, I had an issue with the first quarter net

3 sales, but -- because they were not met, but that is based on

4 hindsight. At the time the press release went out, I didn't

5 know that. Today I would say that a statement that sales of 6 its product at retail remains very strong is misleading.

7 Based on hindsight, I know that not to be true.

8 Q At the time the statement was made?

9 A No. Today. Based on my understanding today.

10 Q Right. You know the statement was not true in the 11 press release at the time it was made. In other words, what

12 I am asking you, sir, is do you now understand that the 13 statement is false as contained in the press release?

14 A I believe that there were executives at the company

15 that knew this statement was misleading at the time it was

16 drafted. And that understanding is based on our extended

17 review -- audit of '97 financial statements. I would say

18 today that the puffing up of the analyst estimates, the

19 original analyst estimates, which are identified in this

20 press release, was misleading.

21 Q You mean that the analysts were misled in arriving

22 at those estimates or are you telling me something else?

23 A I believe that the -- I believe the analysts were

24 misled. And I believe there -- some of the reasons I

25 mentioned earlier as to why there was a shortfall from the

Diversified Reporting Services, Inc. (202) 296-9626, 6-9-99

1 estimates are not present in this press release based on what
2 I know today.

3 Q And do you think the release is misleading for that
4 reason?

5 A I believe that there perhaps should have been some 6 disclosure on disappointment in new products, which is not in 7 this press release. Not only disappointment, but just
8 failure of some new products because in the -- there is a
9 sentence. "The company further stated that based on the 10 strength of its new product offerings." Based once again on 11 hindsight, the new product offerings didn't really
12 materialize.

13 Q Do you understand specific new product offerings to 14 be referred to here? Is there a particular item or items
15 that you understand to be referred to here?

16 A Yes. I believe that they were referring to their 17 countertop filter devices, their new grill designs, their ice
18 cream makers. There were some other new products as well,
19 but I think that those three categories would have comprised
20 the bulk of the new offerings covered in this period. I
21 think that is pretty much it.

22 BY MR. LIPMAN:

23 Q Sir, you mentioned that channel stuffing before.
24 What do you understand by the term "channel stuffing?"

25 A I understand channel stuffing to be the sale of a

1 marketing program.

2 MR. HAYNES: Counsel, he has testified to that four
3 or five times. I mean, do we continually have to go through 4 the same questions?

5 MR. LIPMAN: We do if he is going to classify
6 things differently at different times.

7 MR. HAYNES: Well, the record will speak for 8 itself.

9 MR. LIPMAN: It certainly will.

10 MR. HAYNES: I am just objecting on the grounds of 11 repetitive questions on the same subject.

12 MR. LIPMAN: This is not -- I respectfully
13 disagree. This is not a repetitive question.

14 BY MR. LIPMAN:

15 Q Weren't there $50 billion in -- $50 million in the 16 Early Buy program?

17 A Based on what we know, we believe it was $50
18 million of sales under the Early Buy program.

19 Q Isn't that what you also believed in March of 1998?

20 A No. In March of 1998, we believed it to be a 21 different number because the client misrepresented to us the 22 total amount of the Early Buy program.

23 Q Well, what number did you think it was for --

24 A It was a smaller amount, lesser, than 50 million.

25 Q Do you have any recollection of within $5 million,

1 high level product, the sale of a product at a higher level
2 than what could be reasonably expected to be consumed or 3 utilized by the ultimate consumer in a reasonable period of 4 time.

5 Q Did you, at the time that the -- of this press
6 release, which is, you know, the third week of March, did you
7 think that by engaging in the Early Buy/Bill and Hold
8 program, that by engaging in the Early Buy programs and Bill
9 and Hold sales, that Sunbeam was channel stuffing?

10 A At the point in time of this press release?

11 Q Yes.

12 A At that point in time?

13 Q Yes. I am asking what you thought as of that time.

14 A No. No, it was not a significant thought in my 15 mind at that time.

16 Q What do you mean not a significant thought?

17 A I didn't believe $30 million of Bill and Hold sales
18 as of the end of the year could result in a channel stuffing
19 situation to any significant degree. It was 3 percent of the 20 company's sales, a relatively immaterial amount of gross
21 margin. So I didn't think that created a significant channel
22 stuffing situation.

23 Q Well, I thought -- well, isn't Bill and Hold part
24 of the Early Buy?

25 A Bill and Hold sales fell under the Early Buy

1 do you recall what it was?

2 A I believe the additional amounts that we identified
3 was $4 million, perhaps. Somewhere -- 4 to 5 million.

4 Q Four to five million dollars? Is that -- was that
5 your understanding of the total of the Early Buy program, 4
6 to $5 million?

7 A Yes. I need to clarify. We identified, in
8 connection with our additional audit procedures, 4 to $5
9 million additional Bill and Hold sales. I can't tell you
10 right now if all of that fell under the Early Buy program
11 because some of those products were not grills. So I just 12 don't recall if that was part of the Early Buy program.
13 These were sales that we were not told about as being treated
14 on a Bill and Hold basis at the time we did our original
15 audit work.

16 Q Well, as of the time that you were discussing end
17 of the year results with the company, on January 22, 1998,
18 what did you think was the total scope of the Early Buy
19 program?

20 A I think it was in the 45 to $50 million range.

21 Q As of the time of this press release, which is 22 March 19, 1998, did you think that the 45 to $50 million of 23 the Early Buy program was an example of channel stuffing?

24 A As of this date. I thought that it might be a

25 contributing factor, but I didn't think it was an overriding

Page 279

1 significant factor related to channel stuffing. But even so
2 of a sale over and above what a company needs is going to
3 result in a, you know, a channel stuffing situation.

4 On an isolated basis, Bill and Hold/Early Buy. I
5 did not think was a significant factor related to channel
6 stuffing at this point in time. Now I am not stupid enough
7 to think that it can't contribute to it because it could
8 contribute to it. If you have a channel stuffing situation
9 with a particular customer that has participated in a Bill
10 and Hold transaction, that would be channel stuffing.

11 But you would have to go back and look at each
12 customer and, like I testified earlier, see what inventory
13 levels they had at a particular point in time. Because not
14 all the customers participated in the Early Buy program.
15 There were only certain customers that participated. But in 16 my mind, I thought the Bill and Hold/Early Buy could have 17 some impact on channel stuffing.

18 Q In the conversations that you have testified about 19 that you had with Mr. Gluck between January and March of 20 1998, did you ever discuss channel stuffing?

21 A At what point in time again? At what point in 22 time?

23 Q Between January 23, 1998, and March 18, 1998.

24 A I can't answer that precisely, but prior to --
25 within several days of this press release going out, I

Page 280

1 believe that I talked to Bob about channel stuffing. Now did
2 we use the term "channel stuffing?" I don't recall. Channel
3 stuffing was not a term that I had in my vocabulary until I
4 started reading some of the Barron's articles, subsequent
5 articles about Sunbeam.

6 Q I am sorry, but I missed what you said about the --
7 when was it that you recall speaking with Mr. Gluck about
8 channel stuffing?

9 A I believe that I discussed the concept -- like I
10 say, I didn't use the phraseology channel stuffing -- within 11 several days prior to this press release being prepared or 12 released.

13 Q And what did you discuss?

14 A I don't recall.

15 Q I am sorry?

16 A I don't recall.

17 Q Well, I am not asking for you to recall the 18 conversation verbatim. If you could just give us the 19 substance of the conversation, that would be good enough.

20 A I just don't have a recollection of the direct
21 conversation, but I am sure it was along the lines of, "What 22 is the deal with the sales? Why aren't they there?" And 23 trying to get some explanation from Mr. Gluck as to why the 24 sales level was not being achieved.

25 Q And well, what do you recall Mr. Gluck saying on

Page 281

1 that some of

2 A I don't recall what his comment was.

3 Q Well, do you recall what the substance of what he
4 said was?

5 A Well, I think the substance of what he had to say
6 was what I referred to earlier. I believe he mentioned the 7 core product sales on the new product. That was a big part
8 of the sales plan. And their results had been very 9 disappointing. There had been technical difficulties with 10 some of the products. They didn't perform as anticipated.

11 I don't recall if he mentioned the suppliers or 12 customers had a higher level of inventory on hand at that
13 point in time in that conversation, but we had conversations
14 about that at other points in time. He didn't talk about it
15 at that point in time. I think those were the two reasons he 16 gave.

17 Q Well, what in that conversation related to channel
18 stuffing?

19 A As I said, I think we talked about customers, some 20 customers having a higher level of inventory on hand than 21 perhaps what they needed.

22 Q And why was it that they had --

23 A I want to preface by saying I am not absolutely
24 clear when I had that discussion with him. I have had that 25 discussion with Mr. Gluck, but I am not clear on the date or

Page 282

1 dates of those discussions.

2 Q You are not clear meaning you don't know -- well,
3 do you know whether it happened before or after this press
4 release went out on March 19th?

5 A I am very confident that I had a discussion with 6 Mr. Gluck about a sales shortfall prior to seeing this press
7 release. I don't specifically recall if he mentioned channel
8 stuffing or similar phraseology to explain the reason for 9 that. I believe that he did, but I don't know with a hundred
10 percent confidence on that. I know that we have discussed it
11 since that point in time subsequent to this point in time.

12 Q Was the concept of channel stuffing -- I don't mean
13 those words, I just mean the concept. Was that discussed
14 with either Mr. Fannin, Ms. Kelly, or Mr. Kersh prior to the 15 issuance of this press release?

16 A I can't say that I had a conversation on that issue
17 with those individuals prior to this release.

18 Q Do you have any knowledge of those individuals, any 19 of them or all together, discussing channel stuffing as it
20 related to Sunbeam in -- before the press release was issued,
21 this press release?

22 A I have no knowledge of that prior to this press
23 release being issued.

24 Q Did you ever discuss the concept of channel
25 stuffing with Mr. Bornstein before this press release was

Diversified Reporting Services, Inc. (202) 296-9626, 6-9-99

1 issued?

2 A I don't recall having a conversation on that issue.

3 We may have, but I don't recall specifically having that

4 conversation with Mr. Bornstein.

5 BY MS. HEILIZER:

6 Q Did you talk about the concept of channel stuffing

7 with anyone during the 1997 audit of Sunbeam?

8 A Would you define during the 1997 audit? What time

9 frames are we covering at this point?

10 Q Whatever you consider to be during the 1997 audit.

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay. And have you told us about all those 13 conversations already?

14 A No.

15 Q Could you tell us about those, please?

16 A Well, those conversations took place May, June,

17 July, August, September, and maybe even October of 1998. And 18 it includes many people.

19 MR. HAYNES: I think we have got, I think, possibly

20 a disconnect. You are talking about additional procedures

21 related to the 1997 audit and she is using 1997 audit as a

22 term of art, I believe.

23 MS. HEILIZER: Let's clean that up. Is your

24 counsel's characterization accurate?

25 MR. HAYNES: We don't know what term of art you are

1 using.

2 THE WITNESS: Well, the 1997 audit covers a long

3 period of time.

4 BY MR. LIPMAN:

5 Q How about the 1997 audit prior to the time that the

6 10-K was filed? Did you discuss from the time that you --

7 Arthur Andersen began working on the -- on auditing Sunbeam,

8 which I assume was sometime in 1997, and until that work was

9 completed and the 10-K was filed, did you have any

10 conversations about the concept of channel stuffing?

11 A The filing of the 10-K on March 6, 1998. Not that 12 I can recall.

13 BY MS. HEILIZER:

14 Q In describing channel stuffing, sir, you used the 15 term "reasonable time" or "reasonable period of time." What

16 did you mean by that?

17 A I think a reasonable period of time in this context

18 would be the amount of time that it would take for -- if you

19 want to deal with Sunbeam customers, the amount it would take

20 a retailer to turn over their inventory. And a reasonable

21 amount of time is going to vary depending on the season, it

22 is going to vary depending on the product, and it is going to

23 vary depending on what point in time we are talking about

24 because business concepts have changed over time.

25 And we discussed earlier the management inventory.

Page 285

1 Retailers typically are trying to reduce their level of

2 inventory that they carry. So what was reasonable five years

3 ago is probably not a reasonable amount today.

4 Q So by reducing inventory levels, that means that

5 the turnover is faster today than it was five years ago?

6 A I would say that it is, although there is probably

7 some retailers that haven't achieved those results. I don't

8 want to testify that those results have been achieved by

9 every retailer out there because I don't know that.

10 Q I wasn't asking you to do that, I was asking for 11 your general understanding.

12 A It is my general understanding that inventory

13 levels of retailers, as measured in terms of turnover, has

14 improved today as compared to five years ago.

15 Q Do you have an understanding as to what Sunbeam's

16 grill customers general experience is for inventory turnover,

17 what that period of time is?

18 A I couldn't answer that.

19 Q Could anybody at Andersen answer that?

20 A I could answer the question if I had the data, and

21 there are probably many people at Andersen that could answer

22 the question if they had the data as well, but it is not

23 something that I have the data on at this point.

24 Q What about for blankets?

25 A Same. The same answer. I cannot answer that.

Page 286

1 Q Do you have an understanding as to whether a

2 reasonable period for channel stuffing purposes can ever

3 extend beyond a quarter?

4 A I don't know the answer to that.

5 Q I am asking for your understanding when you say a

6 reasonable period of time.

7 A Well, I am not an experienced retailer. It is an

8 industry that I don't have experience with. I imagine there

9 may be some retailers out there where that is reasonable and

10 I imagine there is some retailers where that is not

11 reasonable. I don't know the answer.

12 Q Okay.

13 BY MR. LIPMAN:

14 Q Sir, do you remember getting -- do you remember

15 that Arthur Andersen received a management representation

16 letter in connection with the private placement in March of 17 1998?

18 A I don't precisely remember that, but I assume that 19 we did.

20 Q You don't remember which?

21 A I don't -- I would have to see the document to

22 refresh my memory, but we should have a management

23 representation letter relative to that work.

24 Q Well, do you recall any discussions about getting a

25 management representation letter?

Page 287

1 A I don't recall any specific discussion. I had.
 2 That is something that generally our managers and seniors
 3 take the lead role in. They typically are the ones that take
 4 care of that particular document.
 5 Q Do you recall any discussions with anyone,
 6 including Mr. Bornstein, about what would be in a management
 7 representation letter relating to private placement?
 8 A I don't recall the specific discussion. I think we 9 may have requested something relative to this sales shortfall
 10 issue. There may have been some additional language relative
 11 to the acquisitions. It has been a long time since I have 12 looked at that document. I just -- I don't recall all the 13 additional representations in that letter.
 14 Q Well, what, if anything, do you recall about asking
 15 for representation relating to the information that is 16 contained in the March 19, 1998, press release?
 17 MR. HAYNES: I am going to have to ask you to speak
 18 up. It is getting late in the day, the witness is tired, you
 19 are tired. It is easier for him to follow if you could speak
 20 up a little bit.
 21 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 22 Q Well, did you hear me? Did you hear the question?
 23 A Could you repeat the question, please?
 24 MR. LIPMAN: Sure. Actually, you know what? Do me
 25 a favor. Let's have that question replayed.

Page 288

1 (The reporter read back the record.)
 2 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 3 Q Go ahead, please.
 4 A I don't recall a specific conversation on that.
 5 MR. LIPMAN: Let's please mark this as the next
 6 exhibit. Thank you.
 7 (SEC Exhibit No. 139 was marked for
 8 identification.)
 9 MR. LIPMAN: Let me hand you what has been just 10 marked as Exhibit 139. If you could take a look at that
 11 exhibit.
 12 (The witness examined the document.)
 13 MR. LIPMAN: Why don't we go off the record.
 14 (A brief recess was taken.)
 15 MR. LIPMAN: Okay. We are back on the record at
 16 approximately 5:00 p.m. And while we were off the record,
 17 there were no discussions of substance relating to this 18 investigation between the staff, the witness and/or counsel;
 19 is that correct?
 20 MR. HAYNES: That is correct.
 21 BY MR. LIPMAN:
 22 Q Have you had a chance to review this exhibit, sir?
 23 A Yes, I have.
 24 Q Is this a copy of a management representation
 25 letter given to Arthur Andersen by Sunbeam, on or about

Page 289

1 March 23, 1998, relating to the private placement?
 2 A Yes. This is a copy of a management letter signed
 3 by Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fannin, and Mr. Gluck, dated
 4 March 23rd, related to the $2,014,000,000 Sunbeam Corporation
 5 zero coupon convertible senior subordinated debentures to 6 2018.
 7 Q When was the first time you saw this document, sir?
 8 A I don't recall.
 9 Q Was it about the date of the document?
 10 A I am not sure I have ever seen this document.
 11 Q Is there anything that would refresh your 12 recollection as to whether or not you have seen it before?
 13 A Some of the language in here is very familiar to 14 me, but I can't testify that I have seen this document.
 15 Q Okay. Let's, please, turn to page Bates stamped
 16 SB086582. There is a paragraph at the top of the page
 17 designated with a lower case "b." If you could look at that 18 language in that paragraph and tell me whether that language
 19 is familiar to you.
 20 (The witness examined the document.)
 21 THE WITNESS: I believe I have seen similar
 22 language, but in the context of this letter, I can't testify
 23 that I have. As I testified earlier, this is a letter that 24 typically is handled by, you know, our managers and seniors.
 25 BY MR. LIPMAN:

Page 290

1 Q Well -- I am sorry. When do you think you saw a
 2 similar language to the language that you just reviewed?
 3 A Well, I may have seen it at the time we prepared
 4 the comfort letter. But I don't recall.
 5 BY MS. HEILIZER:
 6 Q Sir, even if you didn't see or don't recall seeing
 7 this letter, Exhibit 139, prior to today, were you aware of 8 the substance of the representations contained in the small
 9 paragraph "b" on the last page of the exhibit at the time
 10 Andersen issued its consent for the purpose of the private
 11 placement?
 12 A Well, I believe that I had some discussions with 13 Larry Bornstein regarding a representation letter, but I
 14 don't recall a detailed conversation as to the content of the 15 representation letter in its entirety.
 16 Q Were you aware that a representation had been
 17 obtained with respect to consolidated net sales decreasing?
 18 A I was aware that there was disclosure in the 19 comfort letter relative to a decrease in consolidated sales.
 20 And typically our representation will identify abnormal or 21 disclosable items included in the comfort letter that will be
 22 included in the management letter or the representation
 23 letter. So the linkage of that, I guess in my mind, I would 24 believe what is in that comfort letter has been reiterated in 25 the arrangement letter.

1 Q And your conclusion is based on your understanding
2 of what is in the comfort letter and Andersen's practice with 3 obtaining -- with respect to obtaining representations that
4 parallel the disclosures in the comfort letter?
5 A We don't parallel all the disclosures in the 6 comfort letter, just those items that we believe should be 7 incorporated in the representation letter. So not every --
8 the comfort letter in its entirety is not included in this
9 letter.
10 Q Do you believe at the time the consent was issued
11 that a representation had been obtained with respect to 12 consolidated net sales decreasing?
13 A I am sorry, do I believe what?
14 Q Did you believe there had been a rep obtained with 15 respect to this subject?
16 A I don't recall focusing on that particular issue
17 relative to a rep letter.
18 BY MR. LIPMAN:
19 Q Well, did you have an understanding around that 20 time, which is March 23, 1998, or thereabouts, about why
21 Mr. Bornstein might have wanted a representation as to this 22 fact from management?
23 A I don't recall a conversation, as I testified
24 earlier, a specific conversation with Mr. Bornstein on the 25 content of the rep letter.

Page 292

1 Q My question was not about conversations that you
2 may have had with Mr. Bornstein, the question was about your
3 understanding of why Mr. Bornstein may have wanted this rep.
4 A And this is my understanding as of March 23rd.
5 Q March 23rd.
6 A I can -- I mean, I don't really have an
7 understanding or recall an understanding, as of March 23rd,
8 why Larry Bornstein had this put in the letter, but it
9 appears to me what Larry was attempting to do was to get an 10 explanation for a sales shortfall as of this date and having 11 Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fannin, and Mr. Gluck sign off on 12 it. But I don't recall a conversation on that particular
13 paragraph.
14 Q Sir, who signs the comfort letter?
15 A The engagement partner signs the comfort letter.
16 Q And who was that?
17 A That was me.
18 Q Do you recall signing the comfort letter?
19 A No, I don't recall signing it, but I probably did.
20 Q At the time that you signed the comfort letter, did
21 you know that this representation was made by the company?
22 A As I testified earlier, on March 23rd I don't
23 recall reading this representation letter. I don't recall.
24 BY MS. HEILIZER:
25 Q Sir, did you rely on any of the statements in the

Page 293

1 rep letter at the time you signed the comfort letter?
2 A Is that a question or --
3 Q It is a question.
4 A Did I rely on any of the statements in the
5 representation letter.
6 Q At the time you signed the comfort letter.
7 A I am sure I did.
8 Q How did you do that if you didn't see the
9 representation letter?
10 A The question that I testified to earlier, I don't
11 recall. It wasn't that I didn't see it, I just don't recall.
12 That is my testimony. I don't recall.
13 Q Do you have a practice or procedure by which you
14 can assure yourself as a general matter that you see 15 representation letters prior to signing opinions on behalf of 16 Andersen or other documents?
17 A Do I personally or as a program policy?
18 Q Either one.
19 A We have a policy to get general representation
20 letters. And I am not aware of any policy that the review
21 has to review, every aspect of the representation letter, in 22 order to sign off on a report.
23 Q Okay. So you don't have a personal knowledge, and 24 you are not aware of any firm having a policy in that regard
25 either.

Page 294

1 A I know it is a policy to get a representation
2 letter, but to review every aspect of the representation
3 letter, I don't think is a necessity.
4 Q Do you recall putting reliance on any of the 5 representations contained in this letter at the time you
6 signed the comfort letter?
7 A I don't recall.
8 BY MR. LIPMAN:
9 Q Sir, the -- this representation that we have been 10 talking about, which is the first sentence in this paragraph,
11 does this deal with what we had been talking about earlier,
12 which is the concept of channel stuffing?
13 A You said the first paragraph?
14 Q The first sentence.
15 A The first sentence. I think that is what Larry was 16 attempting to do, although we had an Early Buy program in
17 1996 as well.
18 Q I am sorry, what was that last thing you said?
19 A The company had early buy programs from prior years
20 as well.
21 Q But this is not dealing with prior years, right?
22 This is only dealing with the period from December 29, 1997,
23 through March 23, 1998; is that right?
24 A No, that is not right.
25 Q Well, let's go through it then. For the period

1 from December 29, 1997, through March 23, 1998, "Consolidated
 2 net sales decreased, as compared to the corresponding period
 3 from the preceding year, primarily due to the company's new
 4 Early Buy program for outdoor grills, which accelerated
 5 outdoor grill sales into the fourth quarter of fiscal 1997."
 6 Does this sentence describe a situation whereby the sales
 7 made in the fourth quarter of 1997 had resulted in a decrease
 8 in sales made from December 29, 1997, through March 23, 1998?
 9 A Yes, I believe that is the gist of that point.
 10 Q And that concept of sales in the fourth quarter of 11 1997 resulting in a decrease in sales in the period from 12 December 29, 1997, through March 23, 1998, that would be --
 13 that concept is what we have been talking about as channel
 14 stuffing, isn't it?
 15 A I am not sure I got all that question.
 16 Q Well, this sentence deals with the -- I will
 17 restate the question. Does this sentence describe an example
 18 of what we have been discussing and termed "channel
 19 stuffing?"
 20 A It could.
 21 Q How could it not?
 22 A Well, if we were dealing with different customers
 23 from 1996 to 1997, if any of those customers had different
 24 buying requirements, different inventory management styles,
 25 philosophy, different product requirements.

1 Q Well, do you know if that was in fact the case
 2 here?
 3 A I don't know. In fact, I don't know if that in 4 fact was the case.
 5 Q Do you have any reason to believe that it was?
 6 A Do I have any reason to believe that it was the 7 case?
 8 Q Mm-hmm.
 9 A I don't have a basis at this point for that belief.
 10 Q Now is there any reference in here to new
 11 customers?
 12 A Once again, there could be.
 13 Q Well, is there?
 14 A When you say new Early Buy program, we would have 15 to go back and see what customers were off the program in the 16 year before as compared to this year.
 17 Q So is it your testimony that the word "new" in the 18 new Early Buy program refers to new customers for the Early
 19 Buy program?
 20 A It could. It is a new program. It may have only 21 been offered to certain customers this year as opposed to 22 different customers the prior year. Between '96 and '97,
 23 there were substantial changes in the customer sales mix. So
 24 it is possible.
 25 Q Now do you recall calling customers in connection

1 with confirming the Bill and Hold sales, the Bill and Hold
 2 treatment for certain of the Early Buy sales?
 3 A Yes, I do.
 4 Q Do you recall why you picked the customers that you
 5 picked?
 6 A I believe we picked those because they represented
 7 the larger customers -- I say larger customers. The 8 customers with the larger amount of sales.
 9 Q Was one of those customers Wal-Mart?
 10 A I believe it was.
 11 Q Was Wal-Mart a customer of Sunbeam's in 1996?
 12 A 1996. Yes, it was.
 13 Q Who was some of the other customers if you recall?
 14 A In 1996?
 15 Q Customers you called when you were confirming Bill
 16 and Hold sales. Do you recall calling Home Depot?
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q Do you recall whether Home Depot was a new customer
 19 of Sunbeam's or an old customer?
 20 A I believe Home Depot was a customer in a prior
 21 year.
 22 Q Do you remember Fred Meyer?
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q Was Fred Meyer a new customer or an old customer?
 25 A I don't recall. I don't. I don't remember if that

1 was a '96 customer or not.
 2 Q Now you recall that one of the justifications for
 3 the Bill and Hold program that Mr. Kersh gave you was that 4 the customers were running out of stock the year before and
 5 this was a program designed to address that problem?
 6 A I don't know if it was a case -- I don't think I
 7 said it was a case where they were running out of stock. It
 8 was a case where the customer was not able to deliver a
 9 product when the customer requested it. I don't know if they
 10 had -- I don't recall him describing a situation where they 11 had stock on hand and then ran out.
 12 Q Well, are you familiar with the concept of 13 stock-out?
 14 A I have heard the term.
 15 Q What does that mean?
 16 A That is a situation where a particular product that 17 is normally carried in a company's product line is either
 18 totally sold out or they are without that particular
 19 inventory item.
 20 Q Were stock-outs the reason used -- one of the 21 reasons used by Mr. Kersh to explain the business reason for 22 introducing Bill and Hold?
 23 A I am sorry, there was some paper rattling. Was one
 24 of the reasons --
 25 Q Stock-outs. Was that identified by Mr. Kersh as

1 one of the reasons for the Bill and Hold program?

2 A Stock-outs by whom?

3 Q By Sunbeam's customers.

4 A I can't recall if he used the term "stock-out." I

5 know that the company itself, we were told, had stock-out

6 conditions with certain grill inventories in the prior year.

7 Whether he used that term with stock-out of his customers, he

8 may have. I mean, it was generally discussed in terms of not

9 being able to provide the grill product to their customers

10 when their customers needed it. Could there have been a

11 stock-out situation? Possibly.

12 Q Would new customers of Sunbeam have any reason to 13 ask for the Bill and Hold transactions if they had no

14 experience with stock-outs?

15 A They could.

16 Q Why would that be?

17 A One reason might be to take advantage of the 18 benefits made available to Sunbeam's customers.

19 Q And how would that be different from a regular

20 discount being offered by a company to increase its sales?

21 A It would be different because there would be a

22 different program.

23 Q How would any individual sale that is made because

24 the company comes to a new client and it offers a discount,

25 extend the terms, or other favors, how would that be

1 a shortage of warehouse space.

2 Q Now is it your testimony then that the customer

3 request aspect of the Bill and Hold requirements is satisfied

4 if a company offers discounts to a customer, but because the

5 customer does not have the space in its warehouse, the

6 company keeps it in a third-party warehouse? Strike that. I

7 am sorry.

8 MR. HAYNES: Look, it is 5:30 and this is beyond

9 the document. You are going back --

10 MR. LIPMAN: Well, I am sorry.

11 MR. HAYNES: Let's wrap this up very quickly and 12 then let's begin in the morning, if you would like.

13 MR. LIPMAN: All right. I will wrap this up. But 14 it is not beyond this document. We will get back to the 15 document in a minute.

16 BY MR. LIPMAN:

17 Q Is it your testimony then that a customer request

18 requirement is satisfied, even if it is the company that

19 approaches the customer and offers incentives, and merely the

20 fact that the customer cannot take the inventory into its own

21 warehouse and ask for the inventory to be held is sufficient

22 to satisfy the customer request aspect of the Bill and Hold

23 requirement?

24 A No, that is not my testimony.

25 Q Okay. Then how is the Bill and Hold -- how is the

1 different from any other time when the company offers a
2 discount to a customer?

3 A One of the things that would be different is that

4 under the Sunbeam transactions, inventory was put into a

5 third-party warehouse and titled transferred to the customer.

6 In your example of just a straight discount being offered to

7 a customer, the transfer of the title would take place at the

8 time it was shipped directly to the customer.

9 Q Isn't one of the elements for satisfying the Bill

10 and Hold transactions -- the Bill and Hold treatment that the 11 customer has to request that the inventory be held?

12 A You want to clarify that question? Be held -- what

13 about might be held?

14 Q Isn't one of the -- I will withdraw the question

15 and ask this question. Isn't one of the elements that needs

16 to be satisfied in order for a transaction to qualify as a

17 Bill and Hold that the customer has to request a transaction?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. So why would a customer who had no

20 experience with stock-outs with Sunbeam request a transaction

21 on a Bill and Hold basis?

22 A As explained to me by company management, customers

23 requested this program in order to participate in the Early

24 Buy program. However, customers that didn't take shipment of 25 the merchandise until after year end were customers that had

1 customer request aspect satisfied in a transaction where, as

2 you described, Sunbeam approached the customers, offered them

3 incentives, and then the customers asked to have the

4 inventory held?

5 A I don't know if -- I don't know who made the

6 initial approach or initial -- had the initial discussion on

7 all the aspects of the Early Buy program and the Bill and

8 Hold sales. What I believe and what I was told at the time,

9 and also signed by Sunbeam's customers, that these

10 transactions were at their request. And there was a program

11 offered by the company.

12 If a company wanted to participate in an Early Buy,

13 if they took delivery of the product prior to year end, they

14 could participate in the Early Buy program. By definition,

15 they are buying product earlier than what they might have in

16 past seasons. Those customers that did not have their own

17 sufficient warehouse space to store the inventory and

18 participate in -- and be able to participate in the program,

19 that is the inventory that was sent to a third-party

20 warehouse.

21 Q Okay.

22 A So at the request is a chicken and egg type

23 question in my mind. I mean, a customer has to submit a

24 purchase order. Okay. Is a purchase order sent to Sunbeam

25 at request? I believe it is.

1 BY MS. HEILIZER:

2 Q That is your understanding is that --

3 A A purchase order represents a request for 4 merchandise.

5 Q Is it a request for purposes of satisfaction on the 6 Bill and Hold criteria?

7 A Well, I think it is a component of the 8 satisfaction. I mean, you have got copies of all the 9 requirements that need to be met for Bill and Hold
10 transactions. And, you know, we can go through each one of 11 those items, but this at the request issue is something that 12 can be debated from now until who knows when. Obviously, a 13 customer has to make some kind of request to get the 14 merchandise. And whether or not Sunbeam had a program, a
15 discount program, I think is irrelevant.

16 BY MR. LIPMAN:

17 Q Well, let's go back to -- do you remember calling
18 Lowe's Companies to verify that the Bill and Hold preface was 19 proper?

20 A Well, that was one of them, I believe, but I don't
21 remember all the details in the conversation.

22 Q Okay. Do you remember whether they were a new 23 customer or an old customer?

24 A I believe they were a -- they have been a
25 continuing customer of Sunbeam.

1 Q Do you know if Montgomery Ward's was an old
2 customer or a new customer?

3 A I believe that Montgomery Ward's was a customer in 4 '96. I just don't recall the sales level in '97, if it was
5 significant. Montgomery Ward's went into Chapter 11.

6 Q What about BJ's Wholesale Club?

7 A I don't recall. I can't answer. That is not a
8 significant customer.

9 Q Do you remember Quality Stores?

10 A I don't remember that one specifically.

11 Q Palmeda Stores?

12 A Palmeda?

13 Q Palmeda.

14 A I have heard the name. Once again, I don't think
15 that is one of the top 10 or 15 customers.

16 Q Do you remember Arena Distributors?

17 A I recall the name.

18 Q Do you remember whether they were a '96 customer as 19 well?

20 A I don't. I don't know.

21 Q Do you remember Home Depot?

22 A Yes.

23 Q We went over Home Depot already. Do you remember
24 Encore Promotions?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Old customer or new customer?

2 A Well, I remember that one was not a valid sale.

3 Were they making invalid sales the year before? I don't
4 recall. It was not a significant customer.

5 Q K-Mart?

6 A Yes. It was a customer in both '96 and '97.

7 Q Okay. Now going back to the rep letter here,
8 having -- do you recall now that at least a significant
9 portion of the customers with whom the company did Bill and 10 Hold sales were old customers?

11 A That wasn't the point I raised an hour ago or 45
12 minutes ago. The point I raised was that between '96 and 13 '97, the mix of the sales to the top customers changed. In 14 fact, the mix changed to almost all of the customers.

15 Wal-Mart, I can't tell you. We got an analysis in the work
16 papers showing the percentage of sales made to Wal-Mart in 17 1996, percentage of sales represented by 1997, and you are 18 going to see that those top customers change from year to 19 year.

20 So to address your point on channel stuffing and
21 comparing it with a particular customer from year to year, I
22 believe depends on their buying patterns. And those can be 23 different from year to year. Now I will agree that Bill and 24 Hold, as I have testified earlier, can contribute to channel
25 stuffing. I mean, that is my testimony that it can

1 contribute. And I will agree with that.

2 But I have not done adequate work to go through
3 customer by customer and determine that we had channel
4 stuffing in Wal-Mart, to determine we had channel stuffing in
5 Home Depot. I haven't done that work and I can't answer
6 those questions.

7 Q I was asking you about your understanding about the 8 representation made in this letter.

9 A As I testified earlier, I do not recall reading
10 this letter.

11 Q I understand, but you --

12 A At this point in time we were looking at thousands
13 of documents. And with three significant acquisitions
14 underway in all this work, I probably looked at this, but I
15 don't recall it. And I -- you know, I will agree that the 16 practice of Bill and Hold can contribute to channel stuffing.
17 I also testified earlier that I told the board I thought it
18 was a lousy business practice. I didn't say it was a bad
19 accounting answer, I said it was a lousy business practice.

20 Q Because?

21 A Because it can contribute to this situation.

22 Q This situation being what?

23 A As I said 30 seconds ago, I will testify to the 24 fact that Bill and Hold can contribute to channel stuffing.

25 Q Did it in this case?

Page 307

1 A I don't know. I haven't analyzed it.
2 Q What does that sentence mean to you?
3 A Well, Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, and Mr. Fannin and
4 Mr. Gluck signed off and said that that was the primary
5 reason.
6 Q Okay. What was the primary -- did Mr. Gluck,
7 Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fannin, and Mr. Dunlap -- did I get all of 8 them -- did they sign a letter saying that channel stuffing
9 contributed to the fall off in the -- no?
10 A No.
11 Q Then tell me what it is that they signed.
12 MR. HAYNES: Counsel, the letter speaks for itself.
13 It is late in the day.
14 THE WITNESS: The letter doesn't say channel
15 stuffing.
16 BY MR. LIPMAN:
17 Q Well, what is it that -- you were just telling us
18 what they thought and you said "this" and you were pointing
19 to the letter. All I am asking you --
20 A Mr. Dunlap --
21 Q -- to do is to articulate.
22 A I am sorry. Go ahead and finish your question.
23 Q Go ahead. All I am asking you to do is to 24 articulate what it is that you were saying that they were 25 signing to this and pointing to the page.

Page 308

1 A Okay. Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fannin, and
2 Mr. Gluck signed this letter, which states, "For the period
3 from December 29, 1997, through March 23, 1998, consolidated
4 net sales decreased as compared to the corresponding period
5 of the preceding year primarily due to the company's new
6 Early Buy program for outdoor grills, which accelerated
7 outdoor grills into the fourth quarter of fiscal 1997." Now
8 I can go on. Do you want me to read the rest of it?
9 Q No.
10 A Or is that enough. That is precisely what is --
11 Q That is right.
12 A -- in this particular letter.
13 Q And that is right. My question for you was and 14 remains whether this describes the concept of channel
15 stuffing as we discussed it?
16 A And as I testified, I think this can contribute to 17 the concept of channel stuffing. I haven't analyzed it.
18 MR. HAYNES: Shall we see you in the morning?
19 MR. LIPMAN: Yes.
20 MR. HAYNES: Okay.
21 MR. LIPMAN: We are off the record.
22 (A brief recess was taken.)
23 MR. LIPMAN: We are back on the record because I am
24 a bozo. I am sorry.
25 MR. HAYNES: Do you want any response? Is that a

Page 309

1 question?
2 MR. LIPMAN: No.
3 MS. ARMSTRONG: We are adjourning your testimony
4 until tomorrow. Even though we are adjourning your testimony
5 until tomorrow, you remain under subpoena.
6 MR. HAYNES: Okay. Thank you very much.
7 MR. LIPMAN: Thank you.
8 (Whereupon, at 5:45 p.m., the examination was 9 adjourned.)

AMENDED ANSWER OF MORGAN STANLEY & CO. INCORPORATED

Defendant Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ("MS & Co.") responds to Plaintiff Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc.'s ("CPH") Complaint by denying generally that MS & Co. engaged in any fraudulent or negligent misrepresentations, any conspiracy to defraud, that MS & Co. assisted Sunbeam Corporation ("Sunbeam") or any employee, director or agent of Sunbeam in the commission of a fraudulent scheme, or that MS & Co. otherwise defrauded CPH in any manner. Specifically, MS & Co. responds to CPH's allegations as follows:

Nature of the Action

1. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 1.
2. MS & Co. admits that, beginning in mid-1997, MS & Co. served as an investment banker for Sunbeam. MS & Co. admits that it attempted to identify a party interested in purchasing Sunbeam, and that those efforts were ultimately unsuccessful. MS & Co. admits that it recommended that Sunbeam's management consider acquiring other companies instead and suggested, as is common in corporate mergers and acquisitions, that Sunbeam consider, among other options, using Sunbeam stock as part of the consideration for such an acquisition. MS & Co. denies that it had any knowledge as to the accuracy of the value of Sunbeam's stock, or that MS & Co. knew (or even suspected) that the value of Sunbeam's stock had been "fraudulently inflated." MS & Co. admits that it facilitated communications between Sunbeam and Coleman, but denies that it in any way "persuaded" CPH to sell its interest in Coleman. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 2 and consequently denies them.

3. MS & Co. admits that it agreed to serve as underwriter of a $750 million debenture offering for Sunbeam. MS & Co. admits that, as an advisor to Sunbeam, it had access to certain financial documents, and further states that those same documents were made available to CPH during the acquisition negotiations. Further, in that regard, MS & Co. specifically disclaimed any independent evaluation of Sunbeam's financial records, and expressly stated that it relied solely on documentation and information provided by Sunbeam and Sunbeam's audited financial statements. MS & Co. admits that on March 18, 1998, it learned that Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were "soft." Sunbeam insisted that its sales would meet expectations, but MS & Co. insisted that Sunbeam issue a press release to warn the market of the softening sales. Additionally, MS & Co. received two "comfort letters" from Sunbeam's auditors, Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. performed all of its obligations as an underwriter of Sunbeam securities. MS & Co. denies that it had any role in the accounting judgments described in the complaint, or any obligations to audit or independently examine Sunbeam's accounting records. MS & Co. denies that it owed any duties to CPH. MS & Co. denies that it had any independent knowledge as to the reasons behind Sunbeam's soft sales, that Sunbeam had a "practice of accelerating sales," or that it "materially misrepresent[ed]" information to CPH. Further, MS & Co. specifically denies that it in any manner assisted Sunbeam in concealing its 1998 first quarter sales numbers in order to close the transaction. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 3 and consequently denies them.

4. MS & Co. admits that CPH has brought this action against MS & Co. alleging fraudulent misrepresentation, aiding and abetting, conspiracy, and negligent misrepresentation, but denies that there is any merit to the suit. MS & Co. specifically denies that it made any fraudulent or negligent representations to CPH, that it in any way aided or abetted a fraudulent scheme against CPH, or that it participated in a conspiracy to defraud CPH. MS & Co. denies that any losses that CPH suffered resulted from fraud or any wrongful conduct on the part of MS & Co. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 4.

5. MS & Co. admits that CPH purports to seek compensatory damages against MS & Co., but denies that such claim is valid, for MS & Co. denies that it was engaged in any wrongful conduct. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 5.

Jurisdiction and Venue

6. MS & Co. admits the allegations contained in Paragraph 6. MS & Co. further admits that it is incorporated in Delaware and has its principal place of business in New York.

7. MS & Co. denies that venue is proper in this district.

Parties and Other Key Participants

8. MS & Co. admits that CPH represented, in negotiations with Sunbeam, that it owned, directly or indirectly, approximately 82% of Coleman prior to March 30, 1998. MS & Co. admits that on March 30, 1998, Sunbeam acquired CPH's interest in Coleman by paying

CPH with 14.1 million shares of Sunbeam common stock and other consideration, including a cash payment by Sunbeam to CPH in the amount of $159,956,756.00. (See Feb. 27, 1998 Merger Agmt. § 3.1(a)(i) (Ex. 1).) MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 8 and consequently denies them.

9. MS & Co. admits that it is an investment banking firm providing financial and securities services. MS & Co. admits that, as part of its business operations, it at times provides advice on mergers and acquisitions, and raises capital in equity and debt markets, depending on the needs of its clients. MS & Co. admits that it served as Sunbeam's investment banker for certain aspects of Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman, and served as underwriter of certain securities issued by Sunbeam in connection with the acquisition. MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 9.

10. MS & Co. admits that Sunbeam was a publicly-traded company which manufactures and markets household and specialty consumer products, including outdoor cooking products. MS & Co. admits that Sunbeam marketed these products under several brand names, including Sunbeam and Oster. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 10 and consequently denies them.

11. MS & Co. admits that Albert Dunlap had served as the Chief Executive Officer of Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 11 and consequently denies them.

12. MS & Co. admits that Russell Kersh had served as the Executive Vice President of Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 12 and consequently denies them.

13. MS & Co. admits that Arthur Andersen LLP served as Sunbeam's auditors and provided independent/outside accounting services to Sunbeam. MS & Co. further admits that, during the performance of its engagement, it received "comfort letters" from Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. never served as auditor for Sunbeam, and never provided Sunbeam with any accounting or accounting-related services. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to know the location of Lawrence Bornstein or to form a belief as to the truth of any allegations pertaining to him, and consequently denies them. MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 13.

Factual Background

14. MS & Co. admits the allegations contained in Paragraph 14.

15. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 15 pertain to publicly available information, and refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 15 and consequently denies them.

16. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 16 pertain to publicly available information, and refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 16 and consequently denies them.

17. MS & Co. admits, on information and belief, that Albert Dunlap was hired as Sunbeam's Chief Executive Officer on or about July 18, 1996. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 17 and consequently denies them.

18. MS & Co. admits, on information and belief, that Russell Kersh was hired as Sunbeam's Chief Financial Officer. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 18 and consequently denies them.

19. MS & Co. admits, on information and belief, that Albert Dunlap and members of his senior management team entered into employment agreements with Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 19 and consequently denies them.

20. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 20 and consequently denies them.

21. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 21 and consequently denies them.

22. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 22 and consequently denies them.

23. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 23 and consequently denies them.

24. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 24 and consequently denies them.

25. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 25 and consequently denies them.

26. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 26 and consequently denies them.

27. MS & Co. admits, on information and belief, that Sunbeam reported a loss of $18.1 million in the third quarter of 1996, and that it had a $34.5 million gain in the third quarter 1997. MS & Co. further admits, on information and belief, that Sunbeam reported an increase in profits from $6.5 million in 1996 to $67.7 million in 1997. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 27 regarding stock prices pertain to publicly available information and MS & Co. refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 27 and consequently denies them.

28. MS & Co. admits that it was engaged by Sunbeam to explore a possible sale of Sunbeam's core business or the initiation of one or more acquisitions. MS & Co. denies that it ever served as Dunlap's "shell." MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 28 and consequently denies them.

29. MS & Co. admits that William Strong and other MS & Co. employees met with Sunbeam in the spring of 1997 to discuss Sunbeam's investment banking requirements. Further, MS & Co. admits that, although it was not engaged in a previous relationship with Sunbeam, William Strong had worked with Dunlap before, during Strong's previous employment with

Salomon Brothers. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 29 and consequently denies them.

30. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 30 and consequently denies them.

31. MS & Co. admits that William Strong and other MS & Co. employees met with Sunbeam in the spring of 1997 to discuss Sunbeam's investment banking requirements. MS & Co. admits that it was engaged by Sunbeam to explore a possible sale of Sunbeam's core business or the initiation of one or more acquisitions. MS & Co. admits that it initially sought a buyer for Sunbeam. To the extent this Paragraph alleges that MS & Co. was motivated to participate in a fraud in order to retain a single client and receive a customary fee, that allegation is foreclosed, among other reasons, by the fact that MS & Co.'s own affiliate lent hundreds of millions of dollars to Sunbeam two days after the Coleman acquisition closed. (June 1998 Credit Facilities Mem. (Ex. 2).) MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 31.

32. MS & Co. admits that it searched for a buyer for Sunbeam. MS & Co. further admits that it assembled marketing materials based on financial documentation and audited financial statements provided to MS & Co. by Sunbeam and Arthur Andersen, for use in meetings with potential acquirers. MS & Co. admits that, despite contacting many companies, it was unable to find a buyer for Sunbeam. MS & Co. specifically denies CPH's allegation that MS & Co. knew that it would not be compensated if "it failed to deliver a major transaction," or that "Davis and Chase were standing by . . . to reclaim their position as Dunlap's investment banker of choice." MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 32.

33. MS & Co. denies that it provided the "solution" to any "problem" alleged in Paragraph 33. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 33 and consequently denies them.

34. MS & Co. admits after its unsuccessful attempts to locate a purchaser for Sunbeam, it suggested that Sunbeam acquire one or more other companies instead. MS & Co. admits that it proposed to Sunbeam, among other options, the possibility of paying for any such acquisition in part with Sunbeam's stock. MS & Co. specifically denies any knowledge to the effect that a "failure to find a buyer for Sunbeam could prove fatal to [their] relationship." MS & Co. further denies any involvement in or knowledge of fraudulently inflated Sunbeam stock or concealment of any fraud at Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 34 and consequently denies them.

35. MS & Co. admits that, beginning in mid-1997, MS & Co. served as an investment banker for Sunbeam. MS & Co. admits that it attempted to identify a party interested in purchasing Sunbeam, and that those efforts were ultimately unsuccessful. MS & Co. admits that it recommended that Sunbeam's management consider, among other options, acquiring other companies instead and suggested, as is common in corporate mergers and acquisitions, that Sunbeam consider using Sunbeam stock as part of the consideration for such an acquisition. MS & Co. denies that it developed "acquisition strategies" for Sunbeam or that the services or potential transactions it discussed with Sunbeam's management were deceptive or in any way designed to facilitate fraud. MS & Co. specifically denies that it in any way knew of or knowingly assisted Dunlap to "camouflage Sunbeam's results" thereby making it "difficult to detect any shortfall in Sunbeam's performance," or that it knew of or assisted Dunlap in taking

"new massive restructuring charges," which thereby created increased "cookie jar reserves." MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 35.

36. MS & Co. admits that, in its capacity as advisor to Sunbeam, it identified Coleman as a potential acquisition candidate. MS & Co. admits that it communicated with representatives of Coleman to discuss a potential acquisition, but denies that it "persuade[d] CPH to sell its interest in Coleman to Sunbeam." MS & Co. admits that CPH represented, in negotiations with Sunbeam, that it owned, directly or indirectly, approximately 82% of Coleman prior to March 30, 1998. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 36.

37. MS & Co. admits that it facilitated a meeting between representatives from Sunbeam and MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings, Inc. ("MAFCO") in December 1997. MS & Co. admits that it prepared Sunbeam's representatives for that meeting. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 37 and consequently denies them.

38. MS & Co. admits that discussions between Sunbeam, MAFCO and CPH resumed in early 1998. MS & Co. further admits that its Managing Directors James Stynes and Robert Kitts worked on MS & Co.'s engagement for Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 38 and consequently denies them.

39. MS & Co. denies that it "persuade[d]" CPH to sell Coleman in exchange for Sunbeam stock. MS & Co. denies that it "prepared" financial information for CPH. There is, in any event, no factual allegation contained in Paragraph 39 or elsewhere that identifies such alleged information at all, let alone with particularity. MS & Co. further denies that it knowingly "provided" CPH with false financial and business information, or otherwise knowingly relayed false information to CPH which created an appearance that "Sunbeam was prospering and that Sunbeam's stock had great value." Specifically, MS & Co. denies that it knowingly provided CPH with false 1996 and 1997 sales and revenue figures or with false projections. MS & Co. denies that it "falsely assured CPH that Sunbeam's 'early buy' sales program would not hurt Sunbeam's future revenues," that "Sunbeam would meet or exceed" first quarter 1998 estimates, that 1998 earnings estimates were accurate, that a plan to earn $2.20/share was attainable or even low, or that it "specifically advised CPH that Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were 'tracking fine' and running ahead of analysts' estimates."

In any event CPH could not have relied on such alleged representations in light of (i) the Merger Agreement's representations and warranties (Merger Agmt. §§ 5.1-5.4), none of which refer to any alleged representation contained in this Paragraph, (ii) the representations and warranties in a separate agreement that was executed by Coleman and Sunbeam (Feb. 27, 1998 Company Merger Agmt. § 5.1-5.12 (Ex. 3)), which are expressly incorporated into the Merger Agreement and none of which refer to any alleged representation contained in this Paragraph, and (iii) the Merger Agreement's broad integration clause which forecloses reliance on any alleged representation contained in this Paragraph (Merger Agmt. § 12.5). MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 39 and consequently denies them.

40. MS & Co. admits that CPH agreed to sell its shares in Coleman to Sunbeam, and that CPH agreed to accept Sunbeam stock as partial payment for the sale, but denies that MS & Co. "persuaded" CPH to make the deal. CPH is a sophisticated party and was represented by its own expert advisors and attorneys. (Id. §§ 1.1; 4.11.) CPH and its advisors also enjoyed full access to Sunbeam's "books, records, properties, plants and personnel." (Id. § 6.7.) CPH also expressly disclaimed reliance on statements allegedly made during negotiations. (Id. § 12.5.) MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 40 regarding stock value pertain to publicly available information, and refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 40 and consequently denies them.

41. MS & Co. admits that on February 27, 1998, Sunbeam's Board of Directors met at Morgan Stanley's New York offices to discuss Sunbeam's possible purchase of Coleman. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 41.

42. MS & Co. admits it made a presentation during the February 27, 1998 Sunbeam Board of Directors Meeting. MS & Co. further admits that MS & Co. representatives, including William Strong, Robert Kitts, James Stynes and Ruth Porat, were present at this meeting. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 42 and consequently denies them.

43. MS & Co. admits that at that February 27, 1998 New York meeting, it provided Sunbeam with a written "fairness opinion" regarding the fair acquisition price of Coleman. This opinion was based on financial information provided to MS & Co. by Sunbeam, Coleman, and Arthur Andersen, and on synergy analyses which MS & Co. received from CPH. The written fairness opinion explicitly stated that MS & Co. "[has] not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of [Sunbeam]." (Feb. 27, 1998 Fairness Op. at 3 (Ex. 4).) MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 43.

44. MS & Co. admits that the Sunbeam Board of Directors approved the Coleman acquisition at the February 27, 1998 meeting in New York. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 44 and consequently denies them.

45. MS & Co. admits that it continued to provide investment banking services to Sunbeam after the Coleman acquisition was approved. MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 45.

46. MS & Co. admits that the Coleman acquisition was announced on March 2, 1998. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 46 regarding stock prices pertain to publicly available information, and refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 46 and consequently denies them.

47. MS & Co. admits that it agreed to serve as underwriter for Sunbeam's subordinated debentures. The "cash portion" of the consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement was also financed in part through a $680 million loan made by Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, an affiliate of MS & Co. (See Credit Facilities Mem.) MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 47 and consequently denies them.

48. MS & Co. admits that the money raised from the sale of the debentures was used in part to finance Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman.

49. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 49 and consequently denies them.

50. MS & Co. admits that the convertible debentures were presented to potential investors at a series of "road show" meetings and conference calls. MS & Co. admits that it

reviewed and commented on the offering memorandum and other materials used to present the debentures to potential investors. MS & Co. denies that it "misrepresented Sunbeam's financial performance" or "emphasized Dunlap's purported 'turnaround' accomplishments." To the contrary, the offering memorandum expressly stated that MS & Co. assumed no responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of Sunbeam's audited financial information and warned investors not to rely on any projections of future performance. (March 19, 1998 Note Offering Mem. at 2-3, 12-17, 72 (Ex. 5).) MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 50.

51. MS & Co. admits that it launched the debenture offering with a presentation to the Morgan Stanley sales force, but denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 51.

52. MS & Co. admits that the debenture offering was increased from $500 million to $750 million. MS & Co. admits that the debentures were offered to investors nationwide. MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 52.

53. MS & Co. admits that its employees traveled on one occasion to Sunbeam's Florida offices. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 53, except to the extent that they constitute legal conclusions to which no response is required.

54. MS & Co. admits that William Strong worked on MS & Co.'s engagement for Sunbeam. MS & Co. also admits that Strong has provided deposition testimony discussing conversations with Sunbeam officials. MS & Co. denies that Strong or any other MS & Co. employee was accurately apprised of Sunbeam's financial condition because MS & Co. at all times relied on information provided by Sunbeam management and Arthur Andersen, including Sunbeam's audited financial statements. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 54 and consequently denies them.

55. MS & Co. denies CPH's allegation that it was "telling CPH and the investing public . . . that Sunbeam's turnaround was a success, that Sunbeam's sales for the first quarter of 1998 were ahead of expectations of outside analysts, and that Sunbeam was poised for record sales." Furthermore, any information communicated by MS & Co. was based on financial data and information provided to it by Sunbeam and Arthur Andersen — a fact that MS & Co. regularly publicized through disclaimer statements. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 55 and consequently denies them.

56. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 56.

57. MS & Co. admits that it received a facsimile schedule regarding Sunbeam's finances on or about March 18, 1998. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 57 and consequently denies them.

58. MS & Co. admits that on or about March 18, 1998, it received a faxed financial schedule which reflected that Sunbeam's January and February 1998 sales were below those of January and February 1997. MS & Co. denies that it made assertions or otherwise disseminated information to CPH or others that it knew to be false. MS & Co. denies any knowledge of the fact that Sunbeam had not undergone a successful turnaround, or that Sunbeam's financial performance had not improved in the manner presented by Sunbeam's management and audited financial statements. MS & Co. admits that on March 18, 1998, it learned that Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were "soft." Sunbeam insisted that its sales would meet expectations, but MS

& Co. insisted that Sunbeam issue a press release to warn the market of the softening sales. Additionally, MS & Co. received two "comfort letters" from Sunbeam's auditors, Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. performed all of its obligations as an underwriter of Sunbeam securities. MS & Co. denies that it had any role in the accounting judgments described in the complaint, or any obligations to audit or independently examine Sunbeam's accounting records. MS & Co. denies that it owed any duties to CPH. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 58 and consequently denies them.

59. MS & Co. admits that on March 18, 1998, it learned that Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were "soft." Sunbeam insisted that its sales would meet expectations, but MS & Co. insisted that Sunbeam issue a press release to warn the market of the softening sales. Additionally, MS & Co. received two "comfort letters" from Sunbeam's auditors, Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. performed all of its obligations as an underwriter of Sunbeam securities. MS & Co. denies that it had any role in the accounting judgments described in the Complaint, or any obligations to audit or independently examine Sunbeam's accounting records. MS & Co. denies that it owed any duties to CPH. MS & Co. denies all remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 59.

60. MS & Co. admits that Sunbeam issued a press release on March 19, 1998 that included language selectively quoted in Paragraph 60. MS & Co. further states that the March 19, 1998 press release contained the following additional statement, omitted in the Complaint:

Cautionary Statements - Statements contained in this press release, including statements relating to the Company's expectations regarding anticipated performance in the future, are "forward looking statements," as such term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform act of 1995. Actual results could differ materially from the Company's statements in this release regarding its expectations, goals or projected results, due to various factors, including those set forth in the Company's Cautionary Statements contains in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1997 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(March 19, 1998 Press Release (Ex. 6).)

61. MS & Co. admits that Sunbeam issued a press release on March 19, 1998 that included language selectively quoted in Paragraph 61. MS & Co. further states that the March 19, 1998 press release contained the following additional statement, omitted in the Complaint:

Cautionary Statements - Statements contained in this press release, including statements relating to the Company's expectations regarding anticipated performance in the future, are "forward looking statements," as such term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform act of 1995. Actual results could differ materially from the Company's statements in this release regarding its expectations, goals or projected results, due to various factors, including those set forth in the Company's Cautionary Statements contains in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1997 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(Id.) MS & Co. denies all remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 61.

62. MS & Co. denies the allegation that it knew that the "shortfall from analysts' estimates was . . . caused by Sunbeam's acceleration of 1998 sales into the fourth quarter of 1997." MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 62 and consequently denies them.

63. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 63.

64. MS & Co. specifically denies that it "knew that a full and truthful disclosure . . . would doom the debenture offering," or that it had any knowledge that the press release was untruthful or otherwise misleading. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 64.

65. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 65. To the extent that this Paragraph quotes the Merger Agreement, that document speaks for itself and contradicts the allegations contained in the Complaint.

66. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 66 and consequently denies them.

67. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 67.

68. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 68 and consequently denies them.

69. MS & Co. admits that it continued to serve as Sunbeam's investment banker, and continued to prepare to close the debenture offering and the acquisition of Coleman, but denies any knowledge as to the alleged falsity of the March 19, 1998 press release. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 69.

70. MS & Co. admits that throughout its service to Sunbeam, MS & Co. employees, including Tyree, spoke via telephone with representatives of Sunbeam. MS & Co. denies any knowledge that the press release was untruthful or otherwise misleading. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 70 and consequently denies them.

71. MS & Co. admits that it received "comfort letters" from Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. denies the allegation that it knew that "Sunbeam's earnings for the first quarter of 1998 were going to miss Wall Street analysts' earning expectations." MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 71 and consequently denies them.

72. MS & Co. admits that it continued to prepare to close both the debenture offering and the acquisition of Coleman. MS & Co. denies any allegation of its "having directly participated in misleading CPH and other investors." MS & Co. responds that the allegation that MS & Co. "had a duty to disclose the true facts" to CPH is a legal conclusion to which no response is required. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 72.

73. MS & Co. admits that it received compensation for investment banking work performed by MS & Co. for Sunbeam. MS & Co. denies the allegation that it facilitated Sunbeam's fraud. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 73 and consequently denies them.

74. MS & Co. admits that on March 19, 1998, Sunbeam issued a press release which stated that "net sales for the first quarter of 1998 may be lower than the range of Wall Street analysts' estimates of $285 million to $295 million." MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 74 and consequently denies them.

75. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 75 and consequently denies them.

76. MS & Co. admits that it advocated issuing a press release to warn the market of the softening sales, but denies that it represented that Sunbeam's sales would exceed analysts' projections. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 76.

77. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 77 and consequently denies them.

Count I -- Fraudulent Misrepresentation

78. MS & Co. repeats and realleges its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 77 as if set forth herein.

- 79. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 79.
- 80. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 80.
- 81. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 81.
- 82. MS & Co. denies the allegation contained in Paragraph 82.
- 83. MS & Co. denies the allegation contained in Paragraph 83.

Count II -- Aiding and Abetting Fraud

84. MS & Co. repeats and realleges its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 77 as if set forth herein.

85. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 85 and consequently denies them.

86. MS & Co. denies the allegation contained in Paragraph 86.

87. MS & Co. admits that, beginning in mid-1997, MS & Co. served as an investment banker and underwriter for Sunbeam. MS & Co. admits that it attempted to identify a party interested in purchasing Sunbeam, and that those efforts were ultimately unsuccessful. MS & Co. admits that it recommended that Sunbeam's management consider acquiring other companies instead and suggested, as is common in corporate mergers and acquisitions, that Sunbeam consider using Sunbeam stock as part of the consideration for such an acquisition. MS & Co. denies that it had any knowledge as to the accuracy of the value of Sunbeam's stock, or that MS & Co. knew (or even suspected) that the value of Sunbeam's stock had been "fraudulently inflated."

MS & Co. admits that it facilitated communications between Sunbeam and Coleman, but denies that it in any way "persuaded" CPH to sell its interest in Coleman.

MS & Co. admits that on March 18, 1998, it learned that Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were "soft." Sunbeam insisted that its sales would meet expectations, but MS & Co. insisted that Sunbeam issue a press release to warn the market of the softening sales. Additionally, MS & Co. received two "comfort letters" from Sunbeam's auditors, Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. performed all of its obligations as an underwriter of Sunbeam securities.

MS & Co. admits that the convertible debentures were presented to potential investors at a series of "road show" meetings and conference calls. MS & Co. admits that it reviewed and commented on the offering memorandum and other materials used to present the debentures to potential investors. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 87.

88. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 88.

Count III -- Conspiracy

89. MS & Co. repeats and realleges its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 77 as if set forth herein.

90. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 90.

91. MS & Co. admits that it served as a financial advisor to Sunbeam and an underwriter of Sunbeam securities, but denies that it in any way committed "overt acts in furtherance of a conspiracy." MS & Co. denies that it performed an independent financial analysis of Sunbeam; to the contrary, MS & Co. informed CPH that it was relying solely on financial data and information provided to it by Sunbeam and Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. admits that it underwrote the $750 million convertible debenture offering. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 91.

92. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 92.

Count IV -- Negligent Misrepresentation

93. MS & Co. repeats and realleges its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 77 as if set forth herein.

94. MS & Co. admits that it served as a financial advisor to Sunbeam and an underwriter of Sunbeam securities. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 94 constitute legal conclusions to which no response is required. Alternatively, MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 94.

95. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 95.

96. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 96.

DEFENSES AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In addition to the foregoing responses, MS & Co. asserts the following defenses and affirmative defenses to the claims stated in CPH's Complaint. MS & Co. does not assume the burden of proof on these defenses when the substantive law provides otherwise.

First Defense

CPH's alleged claims must be dismissed on forum non conveniens grounds pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.061(a).

Second Defense

CPH's alleged claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to state a cause of action.

First Affirmative Defense

CPH's alleged claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of waiver. In particular, CPH contractually waived its alleged claims when it agreed in Section 12.5 of the Merger Agreement and Section 10.4 of the Company Merger Agreement that the Agreements contained the entire agreement and understanding between CPH and Sunbeam and that the provisions of the Agreements superseded "all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written" with respect to the subject of the Agreements. (Merger Agmt. § 12.5; see Company Merger Agmt. § 10.4.)

Additionally, CPH waived its alleged claims when CPH failed to exercise its contractual rights under the Merger Agreement and Company Merger Agreement to examine Sunbeam's books, records, and facilities and then failed to invoke the "material adverse effect" clause of the Merger Agreement. CPH failed to make a reasonable inquiry into information concerning Sunbeam's financial statements, results of operations, projections, facilities, and business plans (hereinafter "Sunbeam Information") after signing the Merger Agreement and Company Merger Agreement, after Sunbeam issued its March 19, 1998 press release, and before CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman. CPH then failed to invoke Section 8.2(c) of the Merger Agreement, a remedy available solely to CPH, thereby permitting the transaction to close and waiving its alleged claims.

Second Affirmative Defense

CPH's alleged claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of estoppel. In particular, CPH, is estopped from asserting its claim for the following reasons.

(a) By virtue of the customs and practices in the New York financial markets observed in connection with the negotiation of mergers and acquisitions among sophisticated parties, CPH as an affiliate of MAFCO, understood and agreed that MS & Co., as Sunbeam's investment banker, did not make any representations or warranties to CPH about the accuracy or completeness of the Sunbeam Information supplied to CPH. CPH further understood and agreed MS & Co. would not have any liability to CPH by reason of CPH's use of the Sunbeam Information that MS & Co. provided to CPH. MS & Co. relied upon CPH's understanding and agreement to the customs and practices in the New York financial markets when MS & Co. provided Sunbeam Information to CPH. CPH is now estopped from claiming to have relied upon Sunbeam Information that MS & Co. supplied to CPH.

(b) By virtue of a letter agreement with Sunbeam dated February 23, 1998, and acknowledged in the Merger and Company Merger Agreements (Merger Agmt. §§ 6.7, 11.2 12.5; Company Merger Agmt. §§ 7.2, 9.2 10.4), CPH, as an affiliate of Coleman, agreed that Sunbeam and its representatives, including MS & Co., did not make any representations or warranties about the accuracy or completeness of the information that they supplied to CPH. CPH further agreed that Sunbeam and its representatives, including MS & Co., would not have any liability to CPH by virtue of CPH's use of the information that they provided to CPH. MS & Co. relied upon CPH's agreement when it provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, and CPH is estopped from now claiming to have relied upon information supplied to CPH outside of Merger Agreement or the Company Merger Agreement.

(c) By virtue of Section 12.5 of the Merger Agreement and Section 10.4 of the Company Merger Agreement, CPH agreed that the Merger Agreement and the Company Merger Agreement contained the entire agreement and understanding between CPH and Sunbeam and that the provisions of the Agreements superseded "all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written" with respect to the subject of the Agreements. (Merger Agmt. § 12.5; see Company Merger Agmt. § 10.4.) MS & Co. relied upon CPH's agreement when MS & Co. provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, and CPH is estopped from now claiming to have relied upon information supplied to CPH outside of the Agreements.

(d) CPH bargained for and received access to Sunbeam Information pursuant to Section 6.7 of the Merger Agreement and to Sections 7.2 and 7.3 of the Company Merger

Agreement. When MS & Co. provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, MS & Co. relied upon CPH's contractual undertaking and ability to verify independently all statements that MS & Co. or Sunbeam made to CPH. CPH is estopped from now claiming to have relied upon information supplied to CPH by MS & Co. or Sunbeam when CPH, a sophisticated party, had equal access to Sunbeam Information and equal ability to evaluate Sunbeam Information.

(e) CPH held itself out to be and is a commercially and financially sophisticated party, capable of protecting its own interests. MS & Co. relied upon these representations when it provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, and CPH is estopped from now disclaiming these representations.

(f) CPH represented to Sunbeam and MS & Co. that it had retained and would rely upon its own sophisticated advisors, including an investment banker and a law firm capable of protecting CPH's interests. CPH and its advisors represented that they were doing their own due diligence on CPH's behalf through the meetings and information that they requested from Sunbeam and its advisors. MS & Co. relied upon these representations when it provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, and CPH is estopped from now disclaiming these representations.

Third Affirmative Defense

To the extent that CPH sustained any cognizable damages, the damages claimed by CPH were the result, in whole or in part, of CPH's failure to mitigate its damages. In particular, CPH investigated but failed to pursue reasonable available measures to hedge its position with regard to its ownership of Sunbeam stock. Had CPH implemented the potential hedges available, CPH would not have suffered the loss of the value of Sunbeam stock that occurred during and after June of 1998. In addition, CPH failed to mitigate its damages when it chose to install its own executives at Sunbeam and to accept warrants from Sunbeam to settle its alleged claims against Sunbeam. CPH chose to keep and indeed increase its holdings in

Sunbeam, taking its chances that Sunbeam stock would increase in value, rather than selling its Sunbeam stock and reasonably limiting its losses.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

Any future claim by CPH for punitive damages is barred, in whole or in part, because (i) MS & Co. did not engage in intentional misconduct; (ii) the allegedly tortuous conduct is not gross, wanton, willful, reckless or otherwise morally culpable; and (iii) the alleged conduct was not part of a pattern directed at the public generally.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

To the extent that CPH sustained any cognizable damages, the damages claimed by CPH were the result, in whole or in part, of the comparative negligence, fault or culpable conduct of CPH (including its parent corporations and its direct or indirect wholly and majority owned subsidiaries) at the times and places set forth in the Complaint. As a result thereof, MS & Co. is entitled to have its liability to CPH, if any, reduced pursuant to N.Y. C.P.L.R. § 1411 and Florida Statute § 768.81. In particular, fault should be apportioned to CPH for its negligence or fault in failing to request, review or make use of available Sunbeam Information. The negligence of CPH, itself or by or through its agents and advisors, caused or contributed to CPH's damages in the following ways:

(a) CPH was negligent in failing to make a reasonable independent inquiry into Sunbeam Information including but not limited to failure to request access to Sunbeam's books and records, before agreeing to accept over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman and signing the Merger Agreement, and directing the signing of the Company Merger Agreement.

(b) CPH was negligent in failing to make a reasonable inquiry into the Sunbeam Information available to CPH after signing the Merger Agreement and Company Merger

Agreement, including but not limited to information available pursuant to Section 6.7 of the Merger Agreement and to Sections 7.2 and 7.3 of the Company Merger Agreement, and before CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman.

(c) CPH was negligent in failing to make a reasonable inquiry into Sunbeam Information after Sunbeam issued its March 19, 1998 press release and before CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman.

(d) CPH was negligent in failing to make a reasonable inquiry concerning the existence or absence of a "material adverse effect" as defined in the Merger Agreement and the Company Merger Agreement before the closing of the Merger Agreement at which time CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman.

(e) CPH was negligent in failing to make use of the means available to CPH to investigate or confirm statements about Sunbeam Information made to CPH by Sunbeam or MS & Co. during late 1997 and the first quarter of 1998 before CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

To the extent that CPH sustained any cognizable damages, the damages claimed by CPH were the result, in whole or in part, of the negligence or fault of one or more third parties for whom MS & Co. bears no responsibility and over whom MS & Co. had no dominion, authority, or control. As a result thereof, MS & Co. is entitled to have its liability to CPH, if any, reduced pursuant to N.Y. Gen. Oblig. § 15-108 or Florida Statute § 768.81. More specifically, fault should be apportioned to Sunbeam and its subsidiaries and successors in interest

(collectively "Sunbeam") for its negligence or fault in preparing and providing Sunbeam Information to CPH, MS & Co. and third parties, and its negligence in making disclosures required by federal securities laws. Sunbeam's negligence caused or contributed to CPH's damages in the following ways:

(a) Federal laws and regulations imposed upon Sunbeam, a publicly held company, a duty to prepare and publicly file financial statements that present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial condition of Sunbeam. Sunbeam negligently breached that duty when it filed inaccurate or incomplete financial statements for 1996, 1997, and the first quarter of 1998.

(b) Beginning in the fall of 1997 Sunbeam engaged MS & Co. to serve as its investment banker. As a result of this engagement, MS & Co. acted as an advisor to Sunbeam in certain aspects of Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman and two other companies. Sunbeam later engaged MS & Co. to purchase for resale ("underwrite") $2,014,000,000 face value of Sunbeam Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Subordinated Debentures, which were issued by Sunbeam in March of 1998. As part of its activities as an investment banker and an underwriter, MS & Co. made inquiries of Sunbeam concerning Sunbeam Information. Sunbeam had a duty to provide MS & Co. with true and accurate Sunbeam Information. In response to MS & Co.'s inquiries and on its own initiative, Sunbeam provided MS & Co. with Sunbeam Information that Sunbeam knew or should have known, in the exercise of reasonable care was inaccurate or incomplete. Sunbeam provided such Sunbeam Information, including but not limited to the publicly filed financial statements identified in subparagraph (a), to MS & Co. with the knowledge and understanding that MS & Co. would provide such Sunbeam Information to third parties, including CPH. Sunbeam failed to use reasonable care in providing MS & Co. with truthful and accurate Sunbeam Information.

(c) On March 18, 1998, MS & Co. made inquiries of Sunbeam concerning Sunbeam's sales to date and total projected sales for the first quarter of 1998. In response to MS & Co.'s inquires, Sunbeam provided Sunbeam Information concerning its first quarter 1998 sales which, in the exercise of reasonable care, Sunbeam knew or should have known was incorrect. Sunbeam failed to use reasonable care in providing MS & Co. with truthful and accurate Sunbeam Information.

(d) During the course of Sunbeam's negotiations with CPH, Sunbeam provided CPH with Sunbeam Information, which, in the exercise of reasonable care, Sunbeam knew or should have known was incorrect. Sunbeam failed to use reasonable care in providing CPH with truthful and accurate Sunbeam Information.

(e) In June of 1998, a special committee of Sunbeam's board of directors engaged in an investigation of Sunbeam Information for 1996, 1997, and the first quarter of 1998. As a result of this investigation, Sunbeam determined and announced publicly that it would be required to amend its publicly filed financial statements for 1996, 1997 and the first quarter of 1998. Through these restatements Sunbeam acknowledged in October of 1998 that the Sunbeam Information that it had provided to MS & Co., to CPH, and to the public was inaccurate and incomplete.

(f) Sunbeam's negligence in preparing, filing, and providing inaccurate and incomplete Sunbeam Information as aforesaid is the sole proximate cause of CPH's damages.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

* * * * *

Eighth Affirmative Defense

MS & Co. is entitled to a set-off for any settlement by any party or non-party to CPH for any claim arising out of the transactions that are the subject of the Complaint pursuant to N.Y. Gen. Oblig. § 15-108 or Florida Statutes § 46.015, 768.31 and 768.041. The basis for such set-off is set forth fully in these Affirmative Defenses. In particular, MS & Co. is entitled to a set-off as a result of the settlement between CPH and Sunbeam dated August 12, 1998 (Ex. 7) and the settlement between CPH and Arthur Andersen dated October 10, 2002 (see Dec. 4, 2003 Order on Defendant's Motion to Compel Production of Settlement Agreement).

WHEREFORE, MS & Co. denies that CPH is entitled to any relief whatsoever, and to the extent that CPH should recover any damage award, that award should be offset by CPH's failure to take appropriate steps to mitigate its damages, CPH's own negligence, the comparative fault of third parties, and the settlements that CPH has already received. MS & Co. respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment for MS & Co. dismissing the complaint with prejudice, and grant such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

AMENDED ANSWER OF MORGAN STANLEY & CO. INCORPORATED

Defendant Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ("MS & Co.") responds to Plaintiff Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc.'s ("CPH") Complaint by denying generally that MS & Co. engaged in any fraudulent or negligent misrepresentations, any conspiracy to defraud, that MS & Co. assisted Sunbeam Corporation ("Sunbeam") or any employee, director or agent of Sunbeam in the commission of a fraudulent scheme, or that MS & Co. otherwise defrauded CPH in any manner. Specifically, MS & Co. responds to CPH's allegations as follows:

Nature of the Action

1. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 1.
2. MS & Co. admits that, beginning in mid-1997, MS & Co. served as an investment banker for Sunbeam. MS & Co. admits that it attempted to identify a party interested in purchasing Sunbeam, and that those efforts were ultimately unsuccessful. MS & Co. admits that it recommended that Sunbeam's management consider acquiring other companies instead and suggested, as is common in corporate mergers and acquisitions, that Sunbeam consider, among other options, using Sunbeam stock as part of the consideration for such an acquisition. MS & Co. denies that it had any knowledge as to the accuracy of the value of Sunbeam's stock, or that MS & Co. knew (or even suspected) that the value of Sunbeam's stock had been "fraudulently inflated." MS & Co. admits that it facilitated communications between Sunbeam and Coleman, but denies that it in any way "persuaded" CPH to sell its interest in Coleman. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 2 and consequently denies them.

3. MS & Co. admits that it agreed to serve as underwriter of a $750 million debenture offering for Sunbeam. MS & Co. admits that, as an advisor to Sunbeam, it had access to certain financial documents, and further states that those same documents were made available to CPH during the acquisition negotiations. Further, in that regard, MS & Co. specifically disclaimed any independent evaluation of Sunbeam's financial records, and expressly stated that it relied solely on documentation and information provided by Sunbeam and Sunbeam's audited financial statements. MS & Co. admits that on March 18, 1998, it learned that Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were "soft." Sunbeam insisted that its sales would meet expectations, but MS & Co. insisted that Sunbeam issue a press release to warn the market of the softening sales. Additionally, MS & Co. received two "comfort letters" from Sunbeam's auditors, Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. performed all of its obligations as an underwriter of Sunbeam securities. MS & Co. denies that it had any role in the accounting judgments described in the complaint, or any obligations to audit or independently examine Sunbeam's accounting records. MS & Co. denies that it owed any duties to CPH. MS & Co. denies that it had any independent knowledge as to the reasons behind Sunbeam's soft sales, that Sunbeam had a "practice of accelerating sales,” or that it “materially misrepresent[ed]” information to CPH. Further, MS & Co. specifically denies that it in any manner assisted Sunbeam in concealing its 1998 first quarter sales numbers in order to close the transaction. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 3 and consequently denies them.

4. MS & Co. admits that CPH has brought this action against MS & Co. alleging fraudulent misrepresentation, aiding and abetting, conspiracy, and negligent misrepresentation, but denies that there is any merit to the suit. MS & Co. specifically denies that it made any fraudulent or negligent representations to CPH, that it in any way aided or abetted a fraudulent scheme against CPH, or that it participated in a conspiracy to defraud CPH. MS & Co. denies that any losses that CPH suffered resulted from fraud or any wrongful conduct on the part of MS & Co. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 4.

5. MS & Co. admits that CPH purports to seek compensatory damages against MS & Co., but denies that such claim is valid, for MS & Co. denies that it was engaged in any wrongful conduct. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 5.

Jurisdiction and Venue

6. MS & Co. admits the allegations contained in Paragraph 6. MS & Co. further admits that it is incorporated in Delaware and has its principal place of business in New York.

7. MS & Co. denies that venue is proper in this district.

Parties and Other Key Participants

8. MS & Co. admits that CPH represented, in negotiations with Sunbeam, that it owned, directly or indirectly, approximately 82% of Coleman prior to March 30, 1998. MS & Co. admits that on March 30, 1998, Sunbeam acquired CPH’s interest in Coleman by paying

CPH with 14.1 million shares of Sunbeam common stock and other consideration, including a cash payment by Sunbeam to CPH in the amount of $159,956,756.00. (See Feb. 27, 1998 Merger Agmt. § 3.1(a)(i) (Ex. 1).) MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 8 and consequently denies them.

9. MS & Co. admits that it is an investment banking firm providing financial and securities services. MS & Co. admits that, as part of its business operations, it at times provides advice on mergers and acquisitions, and raises capital in equity and debt markets, depending on the needs of its clients. MS & Co. admits that it served as Sunbeam's investment banker for certain aspects of Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman, and served as underwriter of certain securities issued by Sunbeam in connection with the acquisition. MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 9.

10. MS & Co. admits that Sunbeam was a publicly-traded company which manufactures and markets household and specialty consumer products, including outdoor cooking products. MS & Co. admits that Sunbeam marketed these products under several brand names, including Sunbeam and Oster. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 10 and consequently denies them.

11. MS & Co. admits that Albert Dunlap had served as the Chief Executive Officer of Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 11 and consequently denies them.

12. MS & Co. admits that Russell Kersh had served as the Executive Vice President of Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 12 and consequently denies them.

13. MS & Co. admits that Arthur Andersen LLP served as Sunbeam's auditors and provided independent/outside accounting services to Sunbeam. MS & Co. further admits that, during the performance of its engagement, it received "comfort letters" from Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. never served as auditor for Sunbeam, and never provided Sunbeam with any accounting or accounting-related services. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to know the location of Lawrence Bornstein or to form a belief as to the truth of any allegations pertaining to him, and consequently denies them. MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 13.

Factual Background

14. MS & Co. admits the allegations contained in Paragraph 14.

15. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 15 pertain to publicly available information, and refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 15 and consequently denies them.

16. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 16 pertain to publicly available information, and refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 16 and consequently denies them.

17. MS & Co. admits, on information and belief, that Albert Dunlap was hired as Sunbeam's Chief Executive Officer on or about July 18, 1996. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 17 and consequently denies them.

18. MS & Co. admits, on information and belief, that Russell Kersh was hired as Sunbeam's Chief Financial Officer. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 18 and consequently denies them.

19. MS & Co. admits, on information and belief, that Albert Dunlap and members of his senior management team entered into employment agreements with Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 19 and consequently denies them.

20. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 20 and consequently denies them.

21. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 21 and consequently denies them.

22. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 22 and consequently denies them.

23. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 23 and consequently denies them.

24. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 24 and consequently denies them.

25. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 25 and consequently denies them.

26. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 26 and consequently denies them.

27. MS & Co. admits, on information and belief, that Sunbeam reported a loss of $18.1 million in the third quarter of 1996, and that it had a $34.5 million gain in the third quarter 1997. MS & Co. further admits, on information and belief, that Sunbeam reported an increase in profits from $6.5 million in 1996 to $67.7 million in 1997. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 27 regarding stock prices pertain to publicly available information and MS & Co. refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 27 and consequently denies them.

28. MS & Co. admits that it was engaged by Sunbeam to explore a possible sale of Sunbeam's core business or the initiation of one or more acquisitions. MS & Co. denies that it ever served as Dunlap's "shill." MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 28 and consequently denies them.

29. MS & Co. admits that William Strong and other MS & Co. employees met with Sunbeam in the spring of 1997 to discuss Sunbeam's investment banking requirements. Further, MS & Co. admits that, although it was not engaged in a previous relationship with Sunbeam, William Strong had worked with Dunlap before, during Strong's previous employment with

Salomon Brothers. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 29 and consequently denies them.

30. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 30 and consequently denies them.

31. MS & Co. admits that William Strong and other MS & Co. employees met with Sunbeam in the spring of 1997 to discuss Sunbeam's investment banking requirements. MS & Co. admits that it was engaged by Sunbeam to explore a possible sale of Sunbeam's core business or the initiation of one or more acquisitions. MS & Co. admits that it initially sought a buyer for Sunbeam. To the extent this Paragraph alleges that MS & Co. was motivated to participate in a fraud in order to retain a single client and receive a customary fee, that allegation is foreclosed, among other reasons, by the fact that MS & Co.'s own affiliate lent hundreds of millions of dollars to Sunbeam two days after the Coleman acquisition closed. (June 1998 Credit Facilities Mem. (Ex. 2).) MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 31.

32. MS & Co. admits that it searched for a buyer for Sunbeam. MS & Co. further admits that it assembled marketing materials based on financial documentation and audited financial statements provided to MS & Co. by Sunbeam and Arthur Andersen, for use in meetings with potential acquirers. MS & Co. admits that, despite contacting many companies, it was unable to find a buyer for Sunbeam. MS & Co. specifically denies CPH's allegation that MS & Co. knew that it would not be compensated if "it failed to deliver a major transaction," or that "Davis and Chase were standing by . . . to reclaim their position as Dunlap's investment banker of choice." MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 32.

33. MS & Co. denies that it provided the “solution” to any “problem” alleged in Paragraph 33. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 33 and consequently denies them.

34. MS & Co. admits after its unsuccessful attempts to locate a purchaser for Sunbeam, it suggested that Sunbeam acquire one or more other companies instead. MS & Co. admits that it proposed to Sunbeam, among other options, the possibility of paying for any such acquisition in part with Sunbeam’s stock. MS & Co. specifically denies any knowledge to the effect that a “failure to find a buyer for Sunbeam could prove fatal to [their] relationship.” MS & Co. further denies any involvement in or knowledge of fraudulently inflated Sunbeam stock or concealment of any fraud at Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 34 and consequently denies them.

35. MS & Co. admits that, beginning in mid-1997, MS & Co. served as an investment banker for Sunbeam. MS & Co. admits that it attempted to identify a party interested in purchasing Sunbeam, and that those efforts were ultimately unsuccessful. MS & Co. admits that it recommended that Sunbeam’s management consider, among other options, acquiring other companies instead and suggested, as is common in corporate mergers and acquisitions, that Sunbeam consider using Sunbeam stock as part of the consideration for such an acquisition. MS & Co. denies that it developed “acquisition strategies” for Sunbeam or that the services or potential transactions it discussed with Sunbeam’s management were deceptive or in any way designed to facilitate fraud. MS & Co. specifically denies that it in any way knew of or knowingly assisted Dunlap to “camouflage Sunbeam’s results” thereby making it “difficult to detect any shortfall in Sunbeam’s performance,” or that it knew of or assisted Dunlap in taking

“new massive restructuring charges,” which thereby created increased “cookie jar reserves.” MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 35.

36. MS & Co. admits that, in its capacity as advisor to Sunbeam, it identified Coleman as a potential acquisition candidate. MS & Co. admits that it communicated with representatives of Coleman to discuss a potential acquisition, but denies that it “persuade[d] CPH to sell its interest in Coleman to Sunbeam.” MS & Co. admits that CPH represented, in negotiations with Sunbeam, that it owned, directly or indirectly, approximately 82% of Coleman prior to March 30, 1998. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 36.

37. MS & Co. admits that it facilitated a meeting between representatives from Sunbeam and MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings, Inc. (“MAFCO”) in December 1997. MS & Co. admits that it prepared Sunbeam’s representatives for that meeting. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 37 and consequently denies them.

38. MS & Co. admits that discussions between Sunbeam, MAFCO and CPH resumed in early 1998. MS & Co. further admits that its Managing Directors James Stynes and Robert Kitts worked on MS & Co.’s engagement for Sunbeam. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 38 and consequently denies them.

39. MS & Co. denies that it “persuade[d]” CPH to sell Coleman in exchange for Sunbeam stock. MS & Co. denies that it “prepared” financial information for CPH. There is, in any event, no factual allegation contained in Paragraph 39 or elsewhere that identifies such alleged information at all, let alone with particularity. MS & Co. further denies that it knowingly “provided” CPH with false financial and business information, or otherwise knowingly relayed false information to CPH which created an appearance that “Sunbeam was prospering and that Sunbeam’s stock had great value.” Specifically, MS & Co. denies that it knowingly provided CPH with false 1996 and 1997 sales and revenue figures or with false projections. MS & Co. denies that it “falsely assured CPH that Sunbeam’s ‘early buy’ sales program would not hurt Sunbeam’s future revenues,” that “Sunbeam would meet or exceed” first quarter 1998 estimates, that 1998 earnings estimates were accurate, that a plan to earn $2.20/share was attainable or even low, or that it “specifically advised CPH that Sunbeam’s first quarter 1998 sales were ‘tracking fine’ and running ahead of analysts’ estimates.”

In any event CPH could not have relied on such alleged representations in light of (i) the Merger Agreement’s representations and warranties (Merger Agmt. §§ 5.1-5.4), none of which refer to any alleged representation contained in this Paragraph, (ii) the representations and warranties in a separate agreement that was executed by Coleman and Sunbeam (Feb. 27, 1998 Company Merger Agmt. § 5.1-5.12 (Ex. 3)), which are expressly incorporated into the Merger Agreement and none of which refer to any alleged representation contained in this Paragraph, and (iii) the Merger Agreement’s broad integration clause which forecloses reliance on any alleged representation contained in this Paragraph (Merger Agmt. § 12.5). MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 39 and consequently denies them.

40. MS & Co. admits that CPH agreed to sell its shares in Coleman to Sunbeam, and that CPH agreed to accept Sunbeam stock as partial payment for the sale, but denies that MS & Co. “persuaded” CPH to make the deal. CPH is a sophisticated party and was represented by its own expert advisors and attorneys. (Id. §§ 1.1; 4.11.) CPH and its advisors also enjoyed full access to Sunbeam’s “books, records, properties, plants and personnel.” (Id. § 6.7.) CPH also expressly disclaimed reliance on statements allegedly made during negotiations. (Id. § 12.5.) MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 40 regarding stock value pertain to publicly available information, and refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 40 and consequently denies them.

41. MS & Co. admits that on February 27, 1998, Sunbeam's Board of Directors met at Morgan Stanley's New York offices to discuss Sunbeam's possible purchase of Coleman. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 41.

42. MS & Co. admits it made a presentation during the February 27, 1998 Sunbeam Board of Directors Meeting. MS & Co. further admits that MS & Co. representatives, including William Strong, Robert Kitts, James Stynes and Ruth Porat, were present at this meeting. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 42 and consequently denies them.

43. MS & Co. admits that at that February 27, 1998 New York meeting, it provided Sunbeam with a written "fairness opinion" regarding the fair acquisition price of Coleman. This opinion was based on financial information provided to MS & Co. by Sunbeam, Coleman, and Arthur Andersen, and on synergy analyses which MS & Co. received from CPH. The written fairness opinion explicitly stated that MS & Co. "[has] not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of [Sunbeam]." (Feb. 27, 1998 Fairness Op. at 3 (Ex. 4).) MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 43.

44. MS & Co. admits that the Sunbeam Board of Directors approved the Coleman acquisition at the February 27, 1998 meeting in New York. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 44 and consequently denies them.

45. MS & Co. admits that it continued to provide investment banking services to Sunbeam after the Coleman acquisition was approved. MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 45.

46. MS & Co. admits that the Coleman acquisition was announced on March 2, 1998. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 46 regarding stock prices pertain to publicly available information, and refers to such information for the truth or falsity of such allegations. To the extent that further response is required, MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 46 and consequently denies them.

47. MS & Co. admits that it agreed to serve as underwriter for Sunbeam's subordinated debentures. The "cash portion" of the consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement was also financed in part through a $680 million loan made by Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, an affiliate of MS & Co. (See Credit Facilities Mem.) MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 47 and consequently denies them.

48. MS & Co. admits that the money raised from the sale of the debentures was used in part to finance Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman.

49. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 49 and consequently denies them.

50. MS & Co. admits that the convertible debentures were presented to potential investors at a series of "road show" meetings and conference calls. MS & Co. admits that it

reviewed and commented on the offering memorandum and other materials used to present the debentures to potential investors. MS & Co. denies that it “misrepresented Sunbeam’s financial performance” or “emphasized Dunlap’s purported ‘turnaround’ accomplishments.” To the contrary, the offering memorandum expressly stated that MS & Co. assumed no responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of Sunbeam’s audited financial information and warned investors not to rely on any projections of future performance. (March 19, 1998 Note Offering Mem. at 2-3, 12-17, 72 (Ex. 5).) MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 50.

51. MS & Co. admits that it launched the debenture offering with a presentation to the Morgan Stanley sales force, but denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 51.

52. MS & Co. admits that the debenture offering was increased from $500 million to $750 million. MS & Co. admits that the debentures were offered to investors nationwide. MS & Co. denies any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 52.

53. MS & Co. admits that its employees traveled on one occasion to Sunbeam’s Florida offices. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 53, except to the extent that they constitute legal conclusions to which no response is required.

54. MS & Co. admits that William Strong worked on MS & Co.’s engagement for Sunbeam. MS & Co. also admits that Strong has provided deposition testimony discussing conversations with Sunbeam officials. MS & Co. denies that Strong or any other MS & Co. employee was accurately apprised of Sunbeam’s financial condition because MS & Co. at all times relied on information provided by Sunbeam management and Arthur Andersen, including Sunbeam’s audited financial statements. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 54 and consequently denies them.

55. MS & Co. denies CPH's allegation that it was "telling CPH and the investing public . . . that Sunbeam's turnaround was a success, that Sunbeam's sales for the first quarter of 1998 were ahead of expectations of outside analysts, and that Sunbeam was poised for record sales." Furthermore, any information communicated by MS & Co. was based on financial data and information provided to it by Sunbeam and Arthur Andersen — a fact that MS & Co. regularly publicized through disclaimer statements. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 55 and consequently denies them.

56. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 56.

57. MS & Co. admits that it received a facsimile schedule regarding Sunbeam's finances on or about March 18, 1998. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 57 and consequently denies them.

58. MS & Co. admits that on or about March 18, 1998, it received a faxed financial schedule which reflected that Sunbeam's January and February 1998 sales were below those of January and February 1997. MS & Co. denies that it made assertions or otherwise disseminated information to CPH or others that it knew to be false. MS & Co. denies any knowledge of the fact that Sunbeam had not undergone a successful turnaround, or that Sunbeam's financial performance had not improved in the manner presented by Sunbeam's management and audited financial statements. MS & Co. admits that on March 18, 1998, it learned that Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were "soft." Sunbeam insisted that its sales would meet expectations, but MS

& Co. insisted that Sunbeam issue a press release to warn the market of the softening sales. Additionally, MS & Co. received two "comfort letters" from Sunbeam's auditors, Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. performed all of its obligations as an underwriter of Sunbeam securities. MS & Co. denies that it had any role in the accounting judgments described in the complaint, or any obligations to audit or independently examine Sunbeam's accounting records. MS & Co. denies that it owed any duties to CPH. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 58 and consequently denies them.

59. MS & Co. admits that on March 18, 1998, it learned that Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were "soft." Sunbeam insisted that its sales would meet expectations, but MS & Co. insisted that Sunbeam issue a press release to warn the market of the softening sales. Additionally, MS & Co. received two "comfort letters" from Sunbeam's auditors, Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. performed all of its obligations as an underwriter of Sunbeam securities. MS & Co. denies that it had any role in the accounting judgments described in the Complaint, or any obligations to audit or independently examine Sunbeam's accounting records. MS & Co. denies that it owed any duties to CPH. MS & Co. denies all remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 59.

60. MS & Co. admits that Sunbeam issued a press release on March 19, 1998 that included language selectively quoted in Paragraph 60. MS & Co. further states that the March 19, 1998 press release contained the following additional statement, omitted in the Complaint:

Cautionary Statements - Statements contained in this press release, including statements relating to the Company's expectations regarding anticipated performance in the future, are "forward looking statements," as such term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform act of 1995. Actual results could differ materially from the Company's statements in this release regarding its expectations, goals or projected results, due to various factors, including those set forth in the Company's Cautionary Statements contains in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1997 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(March 19, 1998 Press Release (Ex. 6).)

61. MS & Co. admits that Sunbeam issued a press release on March 19, 1998 that included language selectively quoted in Paragraph 61. MS & Co. further states that the March 19, 1998 press release contained the following additional statement, omitted in the Complaint:

Cautionary Statements - Statements contained in this press release, including statements relating to the Company's expectations regarding anticipated performance in the future, are "forward looking statements," as such term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform act of 1995. Actual results could differ materially from the Company's statements in this release regarding its expectations, goals or projected results, due to various factors, including those set forth in the Company's Cautionary Statements contains in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1997 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(Id.) MS & Co. denies all remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 61.

62. MS & Co. denies the allegation that it knew that the "shortfall from analysts' estimates was . . . caused by Sunbeam's acceleration of 1998 sales into the fourth quarter of 1997." MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 62 and consequently denies them.

63. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 63.

64. MS & Co. specifically denies that it "knew that a full and truthful disclosure . . . would doom the debenture offering," or that it had any knowledge that the press release was untruthful or otherwise misleading. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 64.

65. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 65. To the extent that this Paragraph quotes the Merger Agreement, that document speaks for itself and contradicts the allegations contained in the Complaint.

66. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 66 and consequently denies them.

67. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 67.

68. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 68 and consequently denies them.

69. MS & Co. admits that it continued to serve as Sunbeam's investment banker, and continued to prepare to close the debenture offering and the acquisition of Coleman, but denies any knowledge as to the alleged falsity of the March 19, 1998 press release. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 69.

70. MS & Co. admits that throughout its service to Sunbeam, MS & Co. employees, including Tyree, spoke via telephone with representatives of Sunbeam. MS & Co. denies any knowledge that the press release was untruthful or otherwise misleading. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 70 and consequently denies them.

71. MS & Co. admits that it received "comfort letters" from Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. denies the allegation that it knew that "Sunbeam's earnings for the first quarter of 1998 were going to miss Wall Street analysts' earning expectations." MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 71 and consequently denies them.

72. MS & Co. admits that it continued to prepare to close both the debenture offering and the acquisition of Coleman. MS & Co. denies any allegation of its “having directly participated in misleading CPH and other investors.” MS & Co. responds that the allegation that MS & Co. “had a duty to disclose the true facts” to CPH is a legal conclusion to which no response is required. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 72.

73. MS & Co. admits that it received compensation for investment banking work performed by MS & Co. for Sunbeam. MS & Co. denies the allegation that it facilitated Sunbeam’s fraud. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of any remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 73 and consequently denies them.

74. MS & Co. admits that on March 19, 1998, Sunbeam issued a press release which stated that “net sales for the first quarter of 1998 may be lower than the range of Wall Street analysts’ estimates of $285 million to $295 million.” MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 74 and consequently denies them.

75. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 75 and consequently denies them.

76. MS & Co. admits that it advocated issuing a press release to warn the market of the softening sales, but denies that it represented that Sunbeam’s sales would exceed analysts’ projections. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 76.

77. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 77 and consequently denies them.

Count I -- Fraudulent Misrepresentation

78. MS & Co. repeats and realleges its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 77 as if set forth herein.

- 79. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 79.
- 80. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 80.
- 81. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 81.
- 82. MS & Co. denies the allegation contained in Paragraph 82.
- 83. MS & Co. denies the allegation contained in Paragraph 83.

Count II -- Aiding and Abetting Fraud

84. MS & Co. repeats and realleges its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 77 as if set forth herein.

85. MS & Co. lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 85 and consequently denies them.

86. MS & Co. denies the allegation contained in Paragraph 86.

87. MS & Co. admits that, beginning in mid-1997, MS & Co. served as an investment banker and underwriter for Sunbeam. MS & Co. admits that it attempted to identify a party interested in purchasing Sunbeam, and that those efforts were ultimately unsuccessful. MS & Co. admits that it recommended that Sunbeam's management consider acquiring other companies instead and suggested, as is common in corporate mergers and acquisitions, that Sunbeam consider using Sunbeam stock as part of the consideration for such an acquisition. MS & Co. denies that it had any knowledge as to the accuracy of the value of Sunbeam's stock, or that MS & Co. knew (or even suspected) that the value of Sunbeam's stock had been "fraudulently inflated."

MS & Co. admits that it facilitated communications between Sunbeam and Coleman, but denies that it in any way "persuaded" CPH to sell its interest in Coleman.

MS & Co. admits that on March 18, 1998, it learned that Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales were "soft." Sunbeam insisted that its sales would meet expectations, but MS & Co. insisted that Sunbeam issue a press release to warn the market of the softening sales. Additionally, MS & Co. received two "comfort letters" from Sunbeam's auditors, Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. performed all of its obligations as an underwriter of Sunbeam securities.

MS & Co. admits that the convertible debentures were presented to potential investors at a series of "road show" meetings and conference calls. MS & Co. admits that it reviewed and commented on the offering memorandum and other materials used to present the debentures to potential investors. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 87.

88. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 88.

Count III -- Conspiracy

89. MS & Co. repeats and realleges its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 77 as if set forth herein.

90. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 90.

91. MS & Co. admits that it served as a financial advisor to Sunbeam and an underwriter of Sunbeam securities, but denies that it in any way committed "overt acts in furtherance of a conspiracy." MS & Co. denies that it performed an independent financial analysis of Sunbeam; to the contrary, MS & Co. informed CPH that it was relying solely on financial data and information provided to it by Sunbeam and Arthur Andersen. MS & Co. admits that it underwrote the $750 million convertible debenture offering. MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 91.

92. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 92.

Count IV -- Negligent Misrepresentation

93. MS & Co. repeats and realleges its responses to Paragraphs 1 through 77 as if set forth herein.

94. MS & Co. admits that it served as a financial advisor to Sunbeam and an underwriter of Sunbeam securities. MS & Co. responds that the allegations contained in Paragraph 94 constitute legal conclusions to which no response is required. Alternatively, MS & Co. denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 94.

95. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 95.

96. MS & Co. denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 96.

DEFENSES AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In addition to the foregoing responses, MS & Co. asserts the following defenses and affirmative defenses to the claims stated in CPH's Complaint. MS & Co. does not assume the burden of proof on these defenses when the substantive law provides otherwise.

First Defense

CPH's alleged claims must be dismissed on forum non conveniens grounds pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.061(a).

Second Defense

CPH's alleged claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to state a cause of action.

First Affirmative Defense

CPH's alleged claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of waiver. In particular, CPH contractually waived its alleged claims when it agreed in Section 12.5 of the Merger Agreement and Section 10.4 of the Company Merger Agreement that the Agreements contained the entire agreement and understanding between CPH and Sunbeam and that the provisions of the Agreements superseded “all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written” with respect to the subject of the Agreements. (Merger Agmt. § 12.5; see Company Merger Agmt. § 10.4.)

Additionally, CPH waived its alleged claims when CPH failed to exercise its contractual rights under the Merger Agreement and Company Merger Agreement to examine Sunbeam’s books, records, and facilities and then failed to invoke the “material adverse effect” clause of the Merger Agreement. CPH failed to make a reasonable inquiry into information concerning Sunbeam’s financial statements, results of operations, projections, facilities, and business plans (hereinafter “Sunbeam Information”) after signing the Merger Agreement and Company Merger Agreement, after Sunbeam issued its March 19, 1998 press release, and before CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman. CPH then failed to invoke Section 8.2(c) of the Merger Agreement, a remedy available solely to CPH, thereby permitting the transaction to close and waiving its alleged claims.

Second Affirmative Defense

CPH’s alleged claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of estoppel. In particular, CPH, is estopped from asserting its claim for the following reasons.

(a) By virtue of the customs and practices in the New York financial markets observed in connection with the negotiation of mergers and acquisitions among sophisticated parties, CPH as an affiliate of MAFCO, understood and agreed that MS & Co., as Sunbeam’s investment banker, did not make any representations or warranties to CPH about the accuracy or completeness of the Sunbeam Information supplied to CPH. CPH further understood and agreed MS & Co. would not have any liability to CPH by reason of CPH’s use of the Sunbeam Information that MS & Co. provided to CPH. MS & Co. relied upon CPH’s understanding and agreement to the customs and practices in the New York financial markets when MS & Co. provided Sunbeam Information to CPH. CPH is now estopped from claiming to have relied upon Sunbeam Information that MS & Co. supplied to CPH.

(b) By virtue of a letter agreement with Sunbeam dated February 23, 1998, and acknowledged in the Merger and Company Merger Agreements (Merger Agmt. §§ 6.7, 11.2 12.5; Company Merger Agmt. §§ 7.2, 9.2 10.4), CPH, as an affiliate of Coleman, agreed that Sunbeam and its representatives, including MS & Co., did not make any representations or warranties about the accuracy or completeness of the information that they supplied to CPH. CPH further agreed that Sunbeam and its representatives, including MS & Co., would not have any liability to CPH by virtue of CPH's use of the information that they provided to CPH. MS & Co. relied upon CPH's agreement when it provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, and CPH is estopped from now claiming to have relied upon information supplied to CPH outside of Merger Agreement or the Company Merger Agreement.

(c) By virtue of Section 12.5 of the Merger Agreement and Section 10.4 of the Company Merger Agreement, CPH agreed that the Merger Agreement and the Company Merger Agreement contained the entire agreement and understanding between CPH and Sunbeam and that the provisions of the Agreements superseded "all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written" with respect to the subject of the Agreements. (Merger Agmt. § 12.5; see Company Merger Agmt. § 10.4.) MS & Co. relied upon CPH's agreement when MS & Co. provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, and CPH is estopped from now claiming to have relied upon information supplied to CPH outside of the Agreements.

(d) CPH bargained for and received access to Sunbeam Information pursuant to Section 6.7 of the Merger Agreement and to Sections 7.2 and 7.3 of the Company Merger

Agreement. When MS & Co. provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, MS & Co. relied upon CPH's contractual undertaking and ability to verify independently all statements that MS & Co. or Sunbeam made to CPH. CPH is estopped from now claiming to have relied upon information supplied to CPH by MS & Co. or Sunbeam when CPH, a sophisticated party, had equal access to Sunbeam Information and equal ability to evaluate Sunbeam Information.

(e) CPH held itself out to be and is a commercially and financially sophisticated party, capable of protecting its own interests. MS & Co. relied upon these representations when it provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, and CPH is estopped from now disclaiming these representations.

(f) CPH represented to Sunbeam and MS & Co. that it had retained and would rely upon its own sophisticated advisors, including an investment banker and a law firm capable of protecting CPH's interests. CPH and its advisors represented that they were doing their own due diligence on CPH's behalf through the meetings and information that they requested from Sunbeam and its advisors. MS & Co. relied upon these representations when it provided Sunbeam Information to CPH, and CPH is estopped from now disclaiming these representations.

Third Affirmative Defense

To the extent that CPH sustained any cognizable damages, the damages claimed by CPH were the result, in whole or in part, of CPH's failure to mitigate its damages. In particular, CPH investigated but failed to pursue reasonable available measures to hedge its position with regard to its ownership of Sunbeam stock. Had CPH implemented the potential hedges available, CPH would not have suffered the loss of the value of Sunbeam stock that occurred during and after June of 1998. In addition, CPH failed to mitigate its damages when it chose to install its own executives at Sunbeam and to accept warrants from Sunbeam to settle its alleged claims against Sunbeam. CPH chose to keep and indeed increase its holdings in

Sunbeam, taking its chances that Sunbeam stock would increase in value, rather than selling its Sunbeam stock and reasonably limiting its losses.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

Any future claim by CPH for punitive damages is barred, in whole or in part, because (i) MS & Co. did not engage in intentional misconduct; (ii) the allegedly tortuous conduct is not gross, wanton, willful, reckless or otherwise morally culpable; and (iii) the alleged conduct was not part of a pattern directed at the public generally.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

To the extent that CPH sustained any cognizable damages, the damages claimed by CPH were the result, in whole or in part, of the comparative negligence, fault or culpable conduct of CPH (including its parent corporations and its direct or indirect wholly and majority owned subsidiaries) at the times and places set forth in the Complaint. As a result thereof, MS & Co. is entitled to have its liability to CPH, if any, reduced pursuant to N.Y. C.P.L.R. § 1411 and Florida Statute § 768.81. In particular, fault should be apportioned to CPH for its negligence or fault in failing to request, review or make use of available Sunbeam Information. The negligence of CPH, itself or by or through its agents and advisors, caused or contributed to CPH's damages in the following ways:

(a) CPH was negligent in failing to make a reasonable independent inquiry into Sunbeam Information including but not limited to failure to request access to Sunbeam's books and records, before agreeing to accept over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman and signing the Merger Agreement, and directing the signing of the Company Merger Agreement.

(b) CPH was negligent in failing to make a reasonable inquiry into the Sunbeam Information available to CPH after signing the Merger Agreement and Company Merger

Agreement, including but not limited to information available pursuant to Section 6.7 of the Merger Agreement and to Sections 7.2 and 7.3 of the Company Merger Agreement, and before CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman.

(c) CPH was negligent in failing to make a reasonable inquiry into Sunbeam Information after Sunbeam issued its March 19, 1998 press release and before CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman.

(d) CPH was negligent in failing to make a reasonable inquiry concerning the existence or absence of a “material adverse effect” as defined in the Merger Agreement and the Company Merger Agreement before the closing of the Merger Agreement at which time CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman.

(e) CPH was negligent in failing to make use of the means available to CPH to investigate or confirm statements about Sunbeam Information made to CPH by Sunbeam or MS & Co. during late 1997 and the first quarter of 1998 before CPH accepted over 14 million shares of Sunbeam common stock as partial consideration for the sale of its interest in Coleman.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

To the extent that CPH sustained any cognizable damages, the damages claimed by CPH were the result, in whole or in part, of the negligence or fault of one or more third parties for whom MS & Co. bears no responsibility and over whom MS & Co. had no dominion, authority, or control. As a result thereof, MS & Co. is entitled to have its liability to CPH, if any, reduced pursuant to N.Y. Gen. Oblig. § 15-108 or Florida Statute § 768.81. More specifically, fault should be apportioned to Sunbeam and its subsidiaries and successors in interest

(collectively "Sunbeam") for its negligence or fault in preparing and providing Sunbeam Information to CPH, MS & Co. and third parties, and its negligence in making disclosures required by federal securities laws. Sunbeam's negligence caused or contributed to CPH's damages in the following ways:

(a) Federal laws and regulations imposed upon Sunbeam, a publicly held company, a duty to prepare and publicly file financial statements that present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial condition of Sunbeam. Sunbeam negligently breached that duty when it filed inaccurate or incomplete financial statements for 1996, 1997, and the first quarter of 1998.

(b) Beginning in the fall of 1997 Sunbeam engaged MS & Co. to serve as its investment banker. As a result of this engagement, MS & Co. acted as an advisor to Sunbeam in certain aspects of Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman and two other companies. Sunbeam later engaged MS & Co. to purchase for resale ("underwrite") $2,014,000,000 face value of Sunbeam Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Subordinated Debentures, which were issued by Sunbeam in March of 1998. As part of its activities as an investment banker and an underwriter, MS & Co. made inquiries of Sunbeam concerning Sunbeam Information. Sunbeam had a duty to provide MS & Co. with true and accurate Sunbeam Information. In response to MS & Co.'s inquiries and on its own initiative, Sunbeam provided MS & Co. with Sunbeam Information that Sunbeam knew or should have known, in the exercise of reasonable care was inaccurate or incomplete. Sunbeam provided such Sunbeam Information, including but not limited to the publicly filed financial statements identified in subparagraph (a), to MS & Co. with the knowledge and understanding that MS & Co. would provide such Sunbeam Information to third parties, including CPH. Sunbeam failed to use reasonable care in providing MS & Co. with truthful and accurate Sunbeam Information.

(c) On March 18, 1998, MS & Co. made inquiries of Sunbeam concerning Sunbeam's sales to date and total projected sales for the first quarter of 1998. In response to MS & Co.'s inquiries, Sunbeam provided Sunbeam Information concerning its first quarter 1998 sales which, in the exercise of reasonable care, Sunbeam knew or should have known was incorrect. Sunbeam failed to use reasonable care in providing MS & Co. with truthful and accurate Sunbeam Information.

(d) During the course of Sunbeam's negotiations with CPH, Sunbeam provided CPH with Sunbeam Information, which, in the exercise of reasonable care, Sunbeam knew or should have known was incorrect. Sunbeam failed to use reasonable care in providing CPH with truthful and accurate Sunbeam Information.

(e) In June of 1998, a special committee of Sunbeam's board of directors engaged in an investigation of Sunbeam Information for 1996, 1997, and the first quarter of 1998. As a result of this investigation, Sunbeam determined and announced publicly that it would be required to amend its publicly filed financial statements for 1996, 1997 and the first quarter of 1998. Through these restatements Sunbeam acknowledged in October of 1998 that the Sunbeam Information that it had provided to MS & Co., to CPH, and to the public was inaccurate and incomplete.

(f) Sunbeam's negligence in preparing, filing, and providing inaccurate and incomplete Sunbeam Information as aforesaid is the sole proximate cause of CPH's damages.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

* * * * *

Eighth Affirmative Defense

MS & Co. is entitled to a set-off for any settlement by any party or non-party to CPH for any claim arising out of the transactions that are the subject of the Complaint pursuant to N.Y. Gen. Oblig. § 15-108 or Florida Statutes § 46.015, 768.31 and 768.041. The basis for such set-off is set forth fully in these Affirmative Defenses. In particular, MS & Co. is entitled to a set-off as a result of the settlement between CPH and Sunbeam dated August 12, 1998 (Ex. 7) and the settlement between CPH and Arthur Andersen dated October 10, 2002 (see Dec. 4, 2003 Order on Defendant's Motion to Compel Production of Settlement Agreement).

WHEREFORE, MS & Co. denies that CPH is entitled to any relief whatsoever, and to the extent that CPH should recover any damage award, that award should be offset by CPH's failure to take appropriate steps to mitigate its damages, CPH's own negligence, the comparative fault of third parties, and the settlements that CPH has already received. MS & Co. respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment for MS & Co. dismissing the complaint with prejudice, and grant such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this "Agreement"), dated as of February 27, 1998, among Sunbeam Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Laser"), Laser Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Laser ("Laser Merger Sub"), Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Parent Holdings"), and CLN Holdings Inc. ("Holdings"), a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent Holdings.

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Laser, Laser Merger Sub, Parent Holdings and Holdings deem it advisable and in the best interests of their respective stockholders that Laser Merger Sub merge with and into Holdings (the "Holdings Merger"), and such Boards of Directors have approved the Holdings Merger upon the terms and conditions set forth herein;

WHEREAS, Parent Holdings, as the sole stockholder of Holdings, and Laser, as the sole stockholder of Laser Merger Sub, have approved this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby;

WHEREAS, at the Closing (as hereinafter defined), Laser and Parent Holdings shall enter into a registration rights agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement") relating to the registration of the Laser Shares (as hereinafter defined) issuable to Parent Holdings in the Holdings Merger, in the form of Exhibit A hereto;

WHEREAS, for United States federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Holdings Merger provided for herein shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and that this Agreement shall constitute a plan of reorganization; and

WHEREAS, Laser, Laser Merger Sub and Holdings desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with the Holdings Merger and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Holdings Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the respective representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS AND TERMS

Section 1.1. Certain Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth or as referenced below:

"1998 Notes" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.4(a) hereof.

"Affiliate" shall mean, as to any Person (as hereinafter defined), any other Person which, directly or indirectly, is in control of, is controlled by, or is under common control with, such Person. The term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as applied to any Person, means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities or other ownership interest, by contract or otherwise.

"Affiliate Agreements" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.10 hereof.

"Agreement" shall mean this Agreement, as the same may be amended or supplemented from time to time in accordance with the terms hereof.

"Business Day" shall mean any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which banks in the City of New York are authorized or obligated by law or executive order to close.

"Cash Payment" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 3.1(a) hereof.

"Certificate of Incorporation" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.4 hereof.

"Company" shall mean The Coleman Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation.

"Company Common Stock" shall mean the common stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Company.

"Company Merger" shall mean the consummation of the merger contemplated by the Company Merger Agreement.

"Company Merger Agreement" shall mean the Agreement and Plan of Merger among Laser, Merger Sub, and the Company, dated as of the date hereof.

"Competition Laws" shall mean foreign statutes, rules, regulations, orders, decrees, administrative and judicial doctrines, and other foreign laws that are designed or intended to prohibit, restrict or regulate actions having the purpose or effect of monopolization, lessening of competition or restraint of trade.

"Confidentiality Agreements" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 6.7 hereof.

"Consents" shall mean any consent, approval, waiver, authorization or permit of, or to make any filing with or notification to, any Governmental Entity or third party.

"Contract" shall mean any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, license, contract, or other agreement or other instrument or obligation.

"Credit Suisse First Boston" shall mean Credit Suisse First Boston Corporation, the Company's financial advisor.

"Damages" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.1(a) hereof.

"DGCL" shall mean the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

"Exchange Act" shall mean the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

"Filed Holdings SEC Reports" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.7(b) hereof.

"Filed Worldwide SEC Reports" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.7(b).

"GAAP" shall mean United States generally accepted accounting principles and practices in effect from time to time, consistently applied.

"Governmental Entity" shall mean any court, arbitral tribunal, administrative agency or commission or other governmental or regulatory authority or agency.

"Holdings" shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals hereof.

"Holdings Common Stock" shall mean the common stock, par value $1.00, of Holdings.

"Holdings Disclosure Schedule" shall mean the disclosure schedule being delivered by Holdings concurrently with the execution of this Agreement.

"Holdings Effective Time" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.3 hereof.

"Holdings Material Adverse Effect" shall mean a material adverse effect on the business, results of operation or financial condition of Holdings and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

"Holdings Merger" shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals hereof.

"Holdings SEC Reports" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.7(a) hereof.

"Holdings Shares" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.2(a).

"HSR Act" shall mean the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended.

"Indebtedness" of any Person at any date shall include (a) all indebtedness of such Person for borrowed money or for the deferred purchase price of property or services (other than current trade liabilities incurred in the ordinary course of business and payable in accordance with customary practices), (b) any other indebtedness of such Person that is evidenced by a note, bond, debenture or similar instrument, (c) all obligations of such Person in respect of acceptances issued or created for the account of such Person, (d) all liabilities secured by any Lien (as hereinafter defined) on any property owned by such Person even though such Person has not assumed or otherwise become liable for the payment thereof, and (e) all direct or indirect guarantees of any of the foregoing for the benefit of another Person.

"Indemnifying Party" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 9.2(c) hereof.

"Indenture" shall mean the Indenture between Holdings, as successor to Coleman Escrow Corp., and First Trust National Association dated May 20, 1997 relating to the Notes.

"IRS" shall mean the Internal Revenue Service of the United States.

"Laser" shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals hereof.

"Laser Common Stock" shall mean the common stock, par value $.01 per share, of Laser.

"Laser Designees" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 8.3(d) hereof.

"Laser Group" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.1(a) hereof.

"Laser Material Adverse Effect" shall mean a material adverse effect on the business, results of operation or financial condition of Laser and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

"Laser Merger Sub" shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals hereof.

"Laser Merger Sub Common Stock" shall mean common stock, par value $.01 per share, of Laser Merger Sub.

"Laser Shares" shall have the meaning set forth in the first clause of Section 3.1 hereof.

"Laws" shall mean any federal, state, local or foreign law, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree, administrative order or decree, administrative or judicial decision, and any other executive or legislative proclamation.

"Liens" shall mean any lien, security interest, mortgage, pledge, charge or similar encumbrance.

"LYONs" shall mean the Liquid Yield Option™ Notes due 2013 of Worldwide.

"LYONs Escrow Fund" shall mean the funds held in the escrow account established in connection with the redemption and exchange of the LYONs.

"Mafco Demand Note" shall mean the demand note issued by an Affiliate of Parent Holdings, and held by Worldwide on the date hereof, in connection with the Tax Sharing Arrangement among certain Affiliates of Parent Holdings.

"Merger Consideration" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 3.1(a)(i) hereof.

"Morgan Stanley" shall mean Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, Laser's financial advisor.

"Notes" shall mean the Senior Secured First Priority Discount Notes due 2001, Senior Secured Second Priority Discount Notes due 2001, Senior Secured First Priority Discount Exchange Notes due 2001; and Senior Secured Second Priority Discount Exchange Notes due 2001 of Holdings, as successor to Coleman Escrow Corp.

"NYSE" shall mean the New York Stock Exchange, Inc.

"Parent Holdings" shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals hereof.

"Person" shall mean an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust or other entity or organization.

"Pre-Closing Period" shall mean any taxable year or period that ends on or before the Closing Date and, with respect to any Straddle Period, the portion of such Straddle Period deemed to end on and include the Closing Date.

"Post-Closing Period" shall mean any taxable year or period that begins after the Closing Date and, with respect to any Straddle Period, the portion of such Straddle Period deemed to begin after the Closing Date.

"Registration Rights Agreement" shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals hereof.

"SEC" shall mean the Securities and Exchange Commission.

"Securities Act" shall mean the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

"Straddle Period" shall mean any taxable year or period beginning before and ending after the Closing Date.

"subsidiary" shall mean, with respect to any party, any corporation or other organization, whether incorporated or unincorporated, of which (i) such party or any other subsidiary of such party is a general partner or (ii) at least 50% of the securities or other interests having by their terms ordinary voting power to elect a majority of the Board of Directors or others performing similar functions with respect to such corporation or other organization or at least 50% of the value of the outstanding equity is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by such party or by any one or more of its subsidiaries, or by such party and one or more of its subsidiaries.

"Surviving Corporation" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.1 hereof.

"Tax" (and, with correlative meaning, "Taxes" and "Taxable") shall mean:

(i) any federal, state, local or foreign net income, gross income, receipts, windfall profit, severance, property, production, sales, use, license, excise, franchise, employment, payroll, withholding, alternative or add-on minimum, ad valorem, transfer, stamp, or environmental tax, or any other tax, custom, duty, governmental fee or other like assessment or charge of any kind whatsoever, together with any interest or penalty, addition to tax or additional amount imposed by any Governmental Entity; and

(ii) any liability for the payment of amounts with respect to payments of a type described in clause (i) as a result of being a member of an affiliated, consolidated, combined or unitary group, or as a result of any obligation under any Tax Sharing Arrangement or Tax indemnity arrangement.

"Tax Claim" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 9.3(b) hereof.

"Tax Proceeding" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 9.3(a) hereof.

"Tax Return" shall mean any return, report or statement required to be filed with respect to any Tax (including any attachments thereto), including, without limitation, any information return, claim for refund, amended return or declaration of estimated Tax.

"Tax Sharing Arrangement" shall mean any written or unwritten agreement or arrangement for the allocation or payment of Tax liabilities or payment for Tax benefits with respect to a consolidated, combined or unitary Tax Return.

"Termination Date" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.1(b) hereof.

"Third-Party Claims" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.2 hereof.

"Transfer" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 7.1 hereof.

"Treasury Regulations" shall mean the regulations promulgated by the Treasury Department with respect to the Code.

"Worldwide" shall mean Coleman Worldwide Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings.

"Worldwide Common Stock" shall mean the common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Worldwide.

"Worldwide SEC Reports" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.7(b) hereof.

"Worldwide Shares" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.2(b).

Section 1.2. Other Terms. Other terms may be defined elsewhere in the text of this Agreement and, unless otherwise indicated, shall have such meaning throughout this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

THE HOLDINGS MERGER

Section 2.1. The Holdings Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, and in accordance with the DGCL, at the Holdings Effective Time (as defined in Section 2.3 hereof), Laser Merger Sub shall be merged with and into Holdings. Following the Holdings Effective Time, Holdings shall continue as the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation"), and the separate corporate existence of Laser Merger Sub shall cease. The Holdings Merger shall have the effects set forth in Section 259 of the DGCL.

Section 2.2. Closing. The closing of the Holdings Merger (the "Closing") will take place at 10:00 a.m. on a date to be specified by the parties (the "Closing Date"), which (subject to satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VIII) shall be no later than the third NYSE trading day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Section 8.1, at the offices of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, 919 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022, unless another time, date or place is agreed to in writing by the parties hereto.

Section 2.3. Effective Time of the Holdings Merger. The Holdings Merger shall become effective on the date and at the time at which a properly executed certificate of merger (the "Certificate of Merger") is duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The Certificate of Merger shall be filed as soon as practicable on or after the Closing Date. When used in this Agreement, the term "Holdings Effective Time" shall mean the date and time on which the Certificate of Merger is so filed.

Section 2.4. Certificate of Incorporation. From and after the Holdings Effective Time, the certificate of incorporation of Holdings as in effect at the Holdings Effective Time (the "Certificate of Incorporation") shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until amended as provided by the DGCL and the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 2.5. By-Laws. From and after the Holdings Effective Time, the by-laws of Laser Merger Sub as in effect at the Holdings Effective Time shall be the by-laws of the Surviving Corporation until amended as provided by the DGCL, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation and the terms thereof.

Section 2.6. Directors. The directors of Laser Merger Sub at the Holdings Effective Time shall be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation and shall hold office from the Holdings Effective Time until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualify in the manner provided in the Certificate of Incorporation and by-laws of the Surviving Corporation or as otherwise provided by Law.

Section 2.7. Officers. The officers of Laser Merger Sub at the Holdings Effective Time shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation and shall hold office from the Holdings Effective Time until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualify in the manner provided in the Certificate of Incorporation and by-laws of the Surviving Corporation, or as otherwise provided by Law.

Section 2.8. Holdings Merger Election. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to the Holdings Effective Time, Holdings may elect, in its sole discretion, upon notice to Laser, to effectuate the Holdings Merger such that Holdings will be merged with and into Laser Merger Sub, with Laser Merger Sub as the "Surviving Corporation" for all purposes hereunder. In such event, the parties hereto shall execute an appropriate amendment to this Agreement to reflect the foregoing.

ARTICLE III

CONVERSION OF SHARES

Section 3.1. Effect on Capital Stock. At the Holdings Effective Time, by virtue of the Holdings Merger and without any action on the part of any holder thereof:

(a) Conversion of Holdings Common Stock.

(i) The Holdings Shares shall be converted into the right to receive an aggregate of (A) 14,099,749 fully paid and nonassessable shares of Laser Common Stock (the "Laser Shares") and (B) $159,956,756 in cash, without interest thereon (the "Cash Payment" and, together with the Laser Shares, the "Merger Consideration").

(ii) If, prior to the Holdings Effective Time, Laser shall (A) pay a dividend in, subdivide, combine into a smaller number of shares or issue by reclassification of its shares, any shares of Laser Common Stock, the number of Laser Shares to be issued pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(i) hereof shall be adjusted appropriately or (B) pay an extraordinary dividend (other than regular quarterly dividend payments, consistent with past practice), whether in cash or property, the amount of the Cash Payment shall be adjusted appropriately, such that the aggregate amount of cash, or if a dividend shall have been paid in other property, cash and other property, shall be equal to that which would have been received had the dividend been paid following the Holdings Effective Time at a time when the Laser Shares were already issued to and the Cash Payment made to Parent Holdings.

(iii) The shares of Holdings Common Stock converted in accordance with paragraph (i) of this Section 3.1(a) shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and Parent Holdings, as the holder thereof, shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

(b) Conversion of Laser Merger Sub Common Stock. Each share of Laser Merger Sub Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Holdings Effective Time shall be converted into and become one fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of the Surviving Corporation.

(i) Exchange of Certificates. At the Closing, Parent Holdings shall surrender certificates representing the Holdings Shares, and Laser shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Parent Holdings a duly executed stock certificate or stock certificates representing the Laser Shares, and the Cash Payment, in immediately available funds by wire transfer to an account specified in writing by Parent Holdings at least one day prior to the Closing Date. In connection with the delivery by Laser of the Laser Shares, Laser shall utilize all shares of Laser Common Stock held by Laser as treasury shares before issuing any authorized but unissued shares of Laser Common Stock.

ARTICLE IV

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF HOLDINGS AND PARENT HOLDINGS

Holdings and Parent Holdings hereby represent and warrant to Laser as follows:

Section 4.1. Organization and Qualification.

(a) Each of Holdings and Worldwide is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has the corporate power to carry on its business as it is now being conducted.

Section 4.2. Capitalization.

(a) The authorized capital stock of Holdings consists of 1,000 shares of Holdings Common Stock (the "Holdings Shares"), all of which are issued and outstanding and beneficially owned by Parent Holdings. All of the issued and outstanding shares of Holdings Common Stock are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. Except as set forth above, there are no other shares of capital stock of Holdings issued or outstanding nor any options, warrants, subscriptions, calls, rights, convertible securities or other agreements or commitments obligating Holdings to issue, transfer, sell, redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or securities.

(b) The authorized capital stock of Worldwide consists of 1,000 shares of Worldwide Common Stock (the "Worldwide Shares"), all of which are issued and outstanding and beneficially owned by Holdings, free and clear of all Liens, other than the pledge in connection with the Notes. All of the issued and outstanding shares of Worldwide Common Stock are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. Except as set forth above, there are no other shares of capital stock of Worldwide issued or outstanding nor any options, warrants, subscriptions, calls, rights, convertible securities or other agreements or commitments obligating Worldwide to issue, transfer, sell, redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or securities.

Section 4.3. Authority Relative to this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement. Each of Holdings and Parent Holdings has the requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and, if a party thereto, the Registration Rights Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and, if a party thereto, thereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and, if a party thereto, thereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Holdings and Parent Holdings, and no other corporate action on the part of Holdings or Parent Holdings (including on the part of their respective stockholders) is required to authorize the execution, delivery and performance hereof and thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by each of Parent Holdings and Holdings and, assuming that it constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Laser and Laser Sub, constitutes the valid and binding obligation of Parent Holdings and Holdings enforceable against Parent Holdings and Holdings in accordance with its terms, except that such enforcement may be subject to any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws now or hereafter in effect relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally and the remedy of specific performance and injunctive and other forms of equitable relief may be subject to equitable defenses and to the discretion of the court before which any proceedings therefor may be brought. Prior to the Holdings Effective Time, the Registration Rights Agreement will have been duly executed and delivered by Parent Holdings and, assuming that it constitutes the valid and binding agreement of Laser, will constitute the valid and binding obligation of Parent Holdings enforceable against Parent Holdings in accordance with its terms, except that such enforcement may be subject to any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws now or hereafter in effect relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally and the remedy of specific performance and injunctive and other forms of equitable relief may be subject to equitable defenses and to the discretion of the court before which any proceedings therefor may be brought.

Section 4.4. No Business Activities of Holdings and Worldwide.

(a) Since its formation, Holdings has engaged in no business activities or operations, other than in connection with holding the Worldwide Shares and the stock of its predecessor corporation and in connection with the Senior Secured Discount Notes due 1998 of Holdings and the Series B Senior Secured Discount Notes due 1998 of Holdings (collectively, the "1998 Notes") and the Notes. Holdings has no material assets other than Worldwide Common Stock, and has no liabilities other than under the Notes and other de minimis liabilities. Worldwide is the beneficial owner of 44,067,520 shares of Company Common Stock, free and clear of all Liens, other than the pledge pursuant to the LYONs and the Notes.

(b) Since its formation, Worldwide has engaged in no business activities or operations, other than in connection with holding shares of Company Common Stock and in connection with the 1998 Notes, the Notes and the LYONs. Worldwide has no material assets other than the Company Common Stock (other than, as of the date hereof, the Mafco Demand Note and the LYONs Escrow Fund), and has no liabilities other than under the LYONs, the Notes and other de minimis liabilities.

Section 4.5. Consents and Approvals; No Violations. Except for applicable requirements of the HSR Act, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, Competition Laws and state securities or blue sky Laws, no filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any Governmental Entity is necessary for the consummation by Parent Holdings or Holdings of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except for such filings, permits, authorizations, consents or approvals the failure of which to be made or obtained would not individually or in the aggregate (i) have a Holdings Material Adverse Effect or (ii) delay in any material respect or prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Except as set forth on Section 4.5 of the Holdings Disclosure Schedule, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent Holdings or Holdings, nor the consummation by Parent Holdings or Holdings of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by Parent Holdings or Holdings with any of the provisions hereof, will (a) conflict with or result in any breach of any provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Parent Holdings, Holdings or Worldwide; (b) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any Contract or of any license, franchise, permit, concession, certificate of authority, order, approval, application or registration of, from or with any Governmental Entity to which Parent Holdings, Holdings or Worldwide is a party or by which any of them or any of their properties or assets may be bound; or (c) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Holdings, Parent Holdings or Worldwide or any of their properties or assets, except in the case of clauses (b) and (c) for violations, breaches or defaults which would not individually or in the aggregate have a Holdings Material Adverse Effect.

Section 4.6. No Litigation. As of the date hereof, there is no suit, action, proceeding or investigation pending against or affecting Holdings or Worldwide.

Section 4.7. SEC Reports.

(a) Holdings has filed all reports, forms, registrations, schedules, statements and other documents required to be filed by it with the SEC since January 1, 1997 (the "Holdings SEC Reports"). As of their respective dates, the Holdings SEC Reports complied in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and the applicable rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Except to the extent that information contained in any Filed Holdings SEC Report has been revised, amended or superseded by a later Filed Holdings SEC Report, none of the Filed Holdings SEC Reports, when filed, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, except that no representation or warranty is made herein with respect to any information relating to the Company and its subsidiaries. For purposes of this Agreement, the Holdings SEC Reports filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement (as revised, amended or superseded by the Holdings SEC Reports filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement) are hereinafter referred to as the "Filed Holdings SEC Reports."

(b) Worldwide has filed all reports, forms, registrations, schedules, statements and other documents required to be filed by it with the SEC since January 1, 1997 (the "Worldwide SEC Reports"). As of their respective dates, the Worldwide SEC Reports complied in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and the applicable rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Except to the extent that information contained in any Filed Worldwide SEC Report has been revised, amended or superseded by a later Filed Worldwide SEC Report, none of the Filed Worldwide SEC Reports, when filed, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, except that no representation or warranty is made herein with respect to any information relating to the Company and its subsidiaries. For purposes of this Agreement, the Worldwide SEC Reports filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement (as amended, revised or superseded by the Worldwide SEC Reports filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement) are hereinafter referred to as the "Filed Worldwide SEC Reports."

Section 4.8. Acquisition of Shares for Investment. Parent Holdings is not acquiring the Laser Shares with any present intention of distributing or selling any of such Laser Shares in violation of federal or state securities laws.

Section 4.9. Taxes.

(a) Except as would not have a Holdings Material Adverse Effect or as set forth on Section 4.9 of the Holdings Disclosure Schedule:

(i) Each of Holdings and Worldwide (A) has filed (or there has been filed on its behalf) with the appropriate Governmental Entities all Tax Returns required to be filed by it, and all such Tax Returns are true, correct and complete and (B) has paid all Taxes due by it;

(ii) There are no outstanding waivers in writing or comparable consents regarding the application of any statute of limitations in respect of Taxes of Holdings or Worldwide;

(iii) There is no action, suit, investigation, audit, claim or assessment pending or proposed in writing or threatened in writing with respect to Taxes of Holdings or Worldwide and to the best of Holdings' knowledge, no basis exists therefor;

(iv) There are no Liens for Taxes upon the assets of Holdings or Worldwide except Liens relating to current Taxes not yet due;

(v) All Taxes which Holdings or Worldwide are required by law to withhold or to collect for payment have been duly withheld and collected, and have been paid or accrued, reserved against and entered on the books of Holdings in accordance with GAAP; and

(vi) No power of attorney which is currently in force has been granted by or with respect to Holdings or Worldwide with respect to any matter relating to Taxes.

(b) Except as would not have a Holdings Material Adverse Effect, Holdings and its subsidiaries have previously delivered or made available to Laser (and its representatives) complete and accurate copies of:

(i) all audit reports, letter rulings, technical advice memoranda relating to United States federal, state, local and foreign Taxes due from or with respect to Holdings or its subsidiaries;

(ii) United States federal Tax Returns (to the extent that such Tax Returns relate to Holdings and its subsidiaries), and those state, local or foreign Tax Returns filed by (or on behalf of) Holdings or any of its subsidiaries (to the extent that such Tax Returns relate to Holdings and its subsidiaries) (including, in each case, workpapers related to such Tax Returns);

(iii) any closing agreements entered into by Holdings or any of its subsidiaries with any taxing authority, in each case existing on the date hereof; and

(iv) any Tax Sharing Arrangements and Tax indemnity arrangements to which Holdings or any of its subsidiaries was a party at any time prior to the Closing Date. Holdings and its subsidiaries will deliver or make available to Laser (and its representatives) all similar materials for all matters arising after the date hereof.

Section 4.10. Affiliate Agreements. Section 4.10 of the Holdings Disclosure Schedule sets forth a true and complete list of all agreements, Contracts, arrangements, payables, obligations and understandings between Holdings or any of its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and Parent Holdings or any of its Affiliates (other than Holdings or its subsidiaries), on the other hand (the "Affiliate Agreements").

Section 4.11. Brokers. No broker, investment banker or other person, other than Credit Suisse First Boston, the Company's financial advisor, the fees and expenses of which will be paid by the Company (as reflected in an agreement between Credit Suisse First Boston and the Company, a copy of which has been furnished to Laser), is entitled to any broker's, finder's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

Section 4.12. LYONs Escrow Fund. The LYONs Escrow Fund is sufficient to fund the redemption, exchange or other retirement in full of the LYONs and related expenses.

ARTICLE V

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF LASER

Laser hereby makes the same representations and warranties to Parent Holdings and Holdings as the representations and warranties made by Laser to the Company in the Company Merger Agreement, and also represents and warrants to Parent Holdings and Holdings as follows:

Section 5.1. Laser Merger Sub. Laser Merger Sub is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware. Laser Merger Sub is a newly incorporated company formed solely for purposes of consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and has engaged in no activity other than as provided in, or contemplated by, this Agreement. The authorized capital stock of Laser Merger Sub consists of 1,000 shares of Laser Merger Sub Common Stock, all of which are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights and are owned by Laser. Except as set forth above there are no shares of capital stock of Laser Merger Sub issued or outstanding or any options, warrants, subscription, calls, rights, convertible securities or other agreements or commitments obligating Laser Merger Sub to issue, transfer, sell, redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or securities.

Section 5.2. Authority Relative to this Agreement. Each of Laser and Laser Merger Sub has the corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and, if a party thereto, the Registration Rights Agreement, to perform its obligations hereunder and, if a party thereto, thereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and, if a party thereto, thereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, thereby and by the Company Merger Agreement, have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Laser and Laser Merger Sub and no other corporate action on the part of Laser or Laser Merger Sub (including on the part of their respective stockholders) is required to authorize the execution, delivery and performance hereof or thereof and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Laser and Laser Merger Sub and constitutes the valid and binding obligation of Laser and Laser Merger Sub, assuming it is the valid and binding obligation of Parent Holdings and Holdings, enforceable against Laser and Laser Merger Sub in accordance with its terms, except that such enforcement may be subject to any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws now or hereafter in effect relating to creditors' rights generally and other forms of equitable relief may be subject to equitable defenses and the discretion of the court before which any proceedings therefore may be brought. Prior to the Holdings Effective Time, the Registration Rights Agreement will have been duly executed and delivered by Laser and, assuming that it constitutes the valid and binding agreement of Parent Holdings, will constitute the valid and binding obligation of Laser enforceable against Laser in accordance with its terms, except that such enforcement may be subject to any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other laws now or hereafter in effect relating to or limiting creditors' rights generally and the remedy of specific performance and injunctive and other forms of equitable relief may be subject to equitable defenses and to the discretion of the court before which any proceedings therefor may be brought.

Section 5.3. Consents and Approvals; No Violations. Except for applicable requirements of the HSR Act, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, Competition Laws and state securities or blue sky Laws, no filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any governmental or regulatory authority is necessary for the consummation by Laser and Laser Merger Sub of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except for such filings, permits, authorizations, consents or approvals the failure of which to be made or obtained would not (i) individually or in the aggregate have a Laser Material Adverse Effect or (ii) delay in any material respect or prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Laser and Laser Merger Sub nor the consummation by Laser and Laser Merger Sub of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by Laser and Laser Merger Sub with any of the provisions hereof, will (a) conflict with or result in any breach of any provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Laser or Laser Merger Sub; (b) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any Contract or of any license, franchise, permit, concession, certificate of authority, order, approval, application or registration of, from or with any Governmental Entity to which Laser or Laser Merger Sub is a party or by which either of them or any of their properties or assets may be bound; or (c) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Laser, Laser Merger Sub or any of their properties or assets, except, in the case of clauses (b) and (c), for violations, breaches or defaults which would not individually or in the aggregate have a Laser Material Adverse Effect.

Section 5.4. Acquisition of Shares for Investment. Laser is acquiring the Holdings Shares for its own account for investment purposes only and not with a view toward or for a sale in connection with, any distribution thereof, or with any present intention of distributing or selling any of such in violation of federal or state securities laws.

ARTICLE VI

COVENANTS

Section 6.1. Conduct of Business. Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or with the prior written consent of Laser, during the period from the date of this Agreement to the Holdings Effective Time, Holdings shall and shall cause Worldwide to conduct its business only in the ordinary course consistent with past practice, except that Holdings and Worldwide shall be permitted (but not required) to (i) effect the merger of Worldwide with

Holdings, and (ii) take all action necessary in connection with the redemption or exchange of the LYONs and payment of any amounts thereunder and distribution to Parent Holdings from the LYONs Escrow Fund of any excess thereof. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement, during the period from the date of this Agreement through the Holdings Effective Time, Holdings shall not and shall cause Worldwide not to, without the prior written consent of Laser:

- (a) declare, set aside or pay any dividend or other distribution (whether in cash, securities or property or any combination thereof) in respect of any class or series of its capital stock, other than in respect of the LYONs Escrow Fund or the Mafco Demand Note;
- (b) settle or compromise any Tax liability or agree to any adjustment of any Tax attribute or make any election with respect to its Taxes other than in the ordinary course of business;
- (c) amend its certificate of incorporation or by-laws;
- (d) acquire by merging or consolidating with, or by purchasing a substantial portion of the assets or securities of, or by any other manner, any corporation, partnership or other entity;
- (e) create, incur, assume or guarantee any Indebtedness;
- (f) except as otherwise required by Law or GAAP, change any of the accounting or Tax principles, practices or methods used by Holdings or Worldwide or fail to maintain the accounts, books and records of Holdings or Worldwide in the usual, regular and ordinary manner on a basis consistently applied;
- (g) make any payments, loans, advances or other distributions to, or enter into any transaction, agreement or arrangement with, any of its Affiliates, officers, directors, or stockholders or it or its Affiliates or any associates or family members of any of the foregoing, or make any changes in or modify any of the Affiliate Agreements, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or as required by the Affiliate Agreements, other than in respect of the LYONs Escrow Fund or the Mafco Demand Note;
- (h) adjust, split, combine, subdivide or reclassify any shares of its capital stock;
- (i) issue, sell, deliver, transfer, repurchase, redeem, acquire or pledge or authorize or propose the issuance, sale, delivery, transfer, repurchase, redemption, acquisition or pledge of shares of capital stock of any class or series, or any securities (other than the LYONs) convertible into capital stock of any class or series, or grant or enter into any rights, warrants, options, agreements or commitments with respect to the issuance of such capital stock or convertible securities;

(j) take any action that would make any representation or warranty of Parent Holdings or Holdings contained in this Agreement untrue or incorrect in any material respect and which could reasonably be expected to prevent the satisfaction of any condition to closing set forth in Article VIII hereof or otherwise prevent or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; or

(k) enter into any agreement or commitment to take any of the foregoing actions.

Section 6.2. Reasonable Best Efforts.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, each of the parties hereto agrees to, and Holdings agrees to cause Worldwide and the Company and its subsidiaries to, use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Laws to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Company Merger Agreement, as applicable, as promptly as practicable (including satisfaction, but not waiver, of the conditions set forth in Article VIII hereof and Article VIII of the Company Merger Agreement).

(b) Laser shall perform all of its obligations under the Company Merger Agreement in accordance with their terms.

Section 6.3. Consents.

(a) Without limiting the generality of Section 6.2(a) hereof, each of the parties hereto shall, and Holdings shall and shall cause Worldwide and the Company and its subsidiaries to, use reasonable best efforts to obtain all Consents of all Governmental Entities and, to the extent that the failure to obtain such Consents would have a Holdings Material Adverse Effect or a Laser Material Adverse Effect, as applicable, all third parties necessary in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Company Merger Agreement prior to the Holdings Effective Time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the parties hereto nor Worldwide nor the Company or any of its subsidiaries shall have any obligation to pay any fee to any third party (other than filing or similar fees payable to Governmental Entities) for the purpose of obtaining any Consent or any costs and expenses of any third party resulting from the process of obtaining such Consents. Each of the parties hereto shall make or cause to be made all filings and submissions under laws and regulations applicable to it as may be required for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to require any party hereto to enter into any agreement with any Governmental Entity which requires, or to consent to any order, decree or judgment which requires, such party to hold, separate or divest, or to restrict the dominion or control of such party or any of its Affiliates over, any of the assets, properties or businesses of such party or its Affiliates in existence on the date hereof.

Section 6.4. HSR Notification. As soon as reasonably practicable, Laser and Parent Holdings shall make, or cause to be made, all filings and submissions under the HSR Act and any other applicable Competition Laws as may be reasonably required to be made in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. Subject to Section 6.7 hereof, Parent Holdings will furnish to Laser and Laser will furnish to Parent Holdings, such information and assistance as the other may reasonably request in connection with the preparation of any such filings or submissions. Subject to Section 6.7 hereof, Parent Holdings will provide Laser, and Laser will provide Parent Holdings, with copies of all correspondence, filings or communications (or memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between such party or any of its representatives, on the one hand, and any Governmental Entity or authority or members of their respective staffs, on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. Parent Holdings and Laser shall consult with one another with respect to any such correspondence, filings or communications and shall engage in any discussions with any Governmental Entity on a joint basis.

Section 6.5. LYONs Refund. Promptly following redemption, exchange or other retirement in full of the LYONs, Laser shall cause to be paid to Parent Holdings all amounts remaining in the LYONs Escrow Fund by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account(s) designated in writing by Parent Holdings. Until the making of such payment, Laser shall cause Holdings and Worldwide to comply with all of their obligations under the Indenture relating to the LYONs, the Indenture and the related Escrow Agreement, shall not take any action to amend such indenture or agreement in any manner adverse to Parent Holdings and shall use reasonable best efforts to take action to cause the redemption or retirement in full of the LYONs as promptly as practicable. Promptly following the Holdings Effective Time, at the request of Parent Holdings, Laser shall cause Holdings and Worldwide to give the escrow agent under such Escrow Agreement irrevocable written notice of the assignment of all right, title and interest in and to any such amounts to and for the benefit of Parent Holdings, on which notice Parent Holdings may rely. Following the redemption or retirement in full of the LYONs, the Mafco Demand Note shall be canceled automatically without the further action of any Person, and shall be of no further force or effect whatsoever, and, until the time of such cancellation, no demand or request for payment of any kind shall be made with respect to the Mafco Demand Note.

Section 6.6. Listing Application. Laser shall prepare and submit to the NYSE a listing application covering the Laser Shares to be issued in connection with the Holdings Merger, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as practicable approval for the listing of such Laser Shares, subject to official notice of issuance.

Section 6.7. Access to Information; Confidentiality. Holdings and Laser shall each afford, and Holdings shall cause Worldwide, the Company and each of its subsidiaries to afford, to the other and to the other's financial advisors, legal counsel, accountants consultants and other representatives full access at all reasonable times throughout the period prior to the Holdings Effective Time to all of its books, records, properties, plants and personnel (provided that all such access shall be on reasonable advance notice and shall not disrupt normal business operations) and, during such period, each shall furnish promptly to the other (a) a copy of each report, schedule and other document filed or received by it pursuant to the requirements of federal or state securities laws, and (b) all other information as such other party may reasonably request, provided that no investigation pursuant to this Section 6.7 shall affect any representations or warranties made herein or the conditions to the obligations of the respective parties to consummate the Holdings Merger. Each party and their respective affiliates, representatives and agents shall hold in confidence all nonpublic information in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality Agreements between Laser and the Company dated February 4, 1998 and February 23, 1998. (the "Confidentiality Agreements").

Section 6.8. Advice of Changes. Upon obtaining knowledge of any such occurrence, Holdings or Laser shall promptly advise the other party orally and in writing of (i) any representation or warranty made by it contained in this Agreement that is qualified as to materiality becoming untrue or inaccurate in any respect or any such representation or warranty that is not so qualified becoming untrue or inaccurate in any material respect, (ii) the failure by it to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under this Agreement or (iii) any change or event (x) having, or which, insofar as can reasonably be foreseen, would have, in the case of Laser, a Laser Material Adverse Effect and, in the case of Holdings, a Holdings Material Adverse Effect, (y) having, or which, insofar as can reasonably be foreseen, would have, the effect set forth in clause (i) above or (z) which has resulted, or which, insofar as can reasonably be foreseen, would result, in any of the conditions set forth in Article VIII not being satisfied; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement.

Section 6.9. Affiliate Agreements; Intercompany Accounts. Parent Holdings and Holdings shall cause all intercompany accounts to be settled, and all Affiliate Agreements to be treated, as set forth in Section 4.10 of the Holdings Disclosure Schedule.

Section 6.10. Registration Rights Agreement. Immediately prior to the Holdings Effective Time, Parent Holdings and Laser shall execute and deliver the Registration Rights Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

Section 7.1. Sales of Laser Shares. Parent Holdings agrees not to, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise dispose of or otherwise transfer (other than, in any such case, in connection with a pledge to secure bona fide indebtedness or other obligations) (collectively, "Transfer"), any Laser Shares received pursuant to the terms hereof as consideration for the Holdings Merger, other than to one of its Affiliates who agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this Section 7.1, for a period of nine (9) months from and after the Holdings Effective Time, except that Parent Holdings may Transfer (A) from and after the date that is three (3) months following the Holdings Effective Time, twenty-five percent (25%) of the total number of the Laser Shares, and (B) from and after the date that is six (6) months following the Holdings Effective Time, an additional twenty-five percent (25%) of the total number of the Laser Shares (such that a total of fifty percent (50%) of the total number of the Laser Shares shall be Transferable from and after the date that is six (6) months following the Holdings Effective Time).

Section 7.2. Restrictive Legend. Pursuant to Section 7.1 hereof, each certificate representing the Laser Shares received by Parent Holdings shall be stamped or otherwise imprinted with the following legend:

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO THE RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER CONTAINED IN THE AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER DATED AS OF FEBRUARY 27, 1998 AMONG SUNBEAM CORPORATION, LASER ACQUISITION CORP., CLN HOLDINGS INC., AND COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS INC. AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD, TRANSFERRED, PLEDGED, ASSIGNED, OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED OF OR TRANSFERRED (OTHER THAN, IN ANY SUCH CASE, IN CONNECTION WITH A PLEDGE TO SECURE BONA FIDE INDEBTEDNESS OR OTHER OBLIGATIONS) ("TRANSFERRED") EXCEPT AS PERMITTED BY THE TERMS THEREOF. THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), OR THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE. THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED, AND THE COMPANY WILL NOT REGISTER THE TRANSFER OF SUCH SECURITIES, EXCEPT (A) PURSUANT TO AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT UNDER THE ACT, (B) PURSUANT TO RULE 144 UNDER THE ACT, OR (C) UPON RECEIPT BY THE COMPANY OF AN OPINION OF COUNSEL, REASONABLY SATISFACTORY TO THE COMPANY, THAT SUCH TRANSFER IS EXEMPT FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE ACT.

Upon request of Parent Holdings, Laser shall cause to be issued certificates representing such Laser Shares as to which the restrictions set forth herein are no longer applicable without such legend.

ARTICLE VIII

CONDITIONS TO CONSUMMATION OF THE HOLDINGS MERGER

Section 8.1. Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Holdings Merger. The respective obligations of each party to effect the Holdings Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction or waiver, to the extent permitted by Law, at or prior to the Holdings Effective Time of the following conditions:

(a) Any waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Holdings Merger under the HSR Act shall have expired or been terminated.

(b) All of the Laser Shares shall have been previously approved for listing on the NYSE, subject only to official notice of issuance, if required.

(c) No preliminary or permanent injunction or other order by any federal or state court in the United States of competent jurisdiction which prohibits the consummation of this Agreement or the Holdings Merger shall have been issued and remain in effect.

(d) All authorizations, consents, orders, declarations or approvals of, or filings with, or terminations or expirations of waiting periods imposed by, any Governmental Entity, which the failure to obtain, make or occur would have the effect of making this Agreement or the Holdings Merger Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby illegal.

Section 8.2. Conditions to Obligation of Holdings to Effect the Holdings Merger. The obligation of Holdings to effect the Holdings Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction by Laser or waiver by Holdings or Parent Holdings, to the extent permitted by Law, at or prior to the Holdings Effective Time of the following additional conditions:

(a) The representations and warranties of Laser in this Agreement and the Company Merger Agreement that are qualified as to materiality shall be true and correct, and the representations and warranties of Laser in this Agreement and the Company Merger Agreement that are not so qualified shall be true and correct in all material respects, in each case as of the date hereof, and, except to the extent such representations and warranties refer to a specific date, as of the Closing Date as though made on the Closing Date; provided, however, that this condition shall be deemed satisfied unless the failure or failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct (disregarding for this purpose all qualifications in such representations and warranties relating to materiality or knowledge), in the aggregate, would have a Laser Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Laser shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement or under the Company Merger Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Except as disclosed in the Filed Laser SEC Reports, since the date of the most recent audited financial statements included in the Filed Laser SEC Reports, there shall not have been any event, change or development which individually or in the aggregate has had or reasonably would be expected to have a Laser Material Adverse Effect or would impair the ability of Laser to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or to satisfy its obligations hereunder.

(d) The Registration Rights Agreement shall have been duly executed and delivered by each of the parties thereto.

Section 8.3. Conditions to Obligation of Laser to Effect the Holdings Merger.
The obligation of Laser to effect the Holdings Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction by Holdings and Parent Holdings or waiver by Laser, to the extent permitted by Law, at or prior to the Holdings Effective Time of the following additional conditions, unless:

(a) The representations and warranties of Holdings and Parent Holdings in this Agreement and the representations of the Company in the Company Merger Agreement that are qualified as to materiality shall be true and correct, and the representations and warranties of Holdings and Parent Holdings in this Agreement and the representations of the Company in the Company Merger Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects, in each case as of the date hereof, and, except to the extent such representations and warranties refer to a specific date, as of the Closing Date as though made at and as of the Closing Date; provided, however, that this condition shall be deemed satisfied unless the failure or failures of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct (disregarding for this purpose all qualifications in such representations and warranties relating to materiality or knowledge), in the aggregate, would have a Holdings Material Adverse Effect or Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Company Merger Agreement), as the case may be.

(b) Parent Holdings and Holdings shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by them under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) The Company shall have performed in all material respects those obligations required to be performed by it under the Company Merger Agreement on or prior to the Closing Date.

(d) Up to six (6) individuals designated by Laser (the "Laser Designees") shall have been duly elected members of the Board of Directors of the Company and all other members of such Board shall have resigned, all effective as of the later of (i) the Closing and (ii) the eleventh (11th) day following the date on which the Section 14(f) Notice (as defined in the Company Merger Agreement) shall have been filed with the SEC and mailed to all stockholders of record of the Company in accordance with the Company Merger Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

TAX MATTERS

Section 9.1. Taxes.

(a) Parent Holdings shall indemnify and hold Laser and Laser's subsidiaries and Affiliates harmless from and against the following:

(i) any liability for Taxes of any member of the "affiliated group" (within the meaning of Section 1504(a) of the Code) (except for the Company and its subsidiaries) of which Mafco Holdings Inc. (or any predecessor or successor) is the common parent that arises under the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-6(a) (or any successor provision) or comparable provisions of foreign, state or local law; and

(ii) except to the extent provided in Section 9.1(b)(iii), any liability for Taxes (other than Taxes that arise under the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-6(a) (or any successor provision) or comparable provisions of foreign, state or local law) imposed on Holdings or Worldwide or for which Holdings or Worldwide may otherwise be liable for any Pre-Closing Period (including, without limitation, any Taxes resulting from Holdings or Worldwide ceasing to be a member of the "affiliated group" of which Mafco Holdings Inc. (or any successor) is the common parent, any income Taxes that arise in the Holdings Merger, and any Taxes imposed on Holdings or Worldwide as a result of any transaction effected between (and including) the date hereof and the Closing Date).

(b) Laser shall indemnify and hold Parent Holdings and its Affiliates harmless from and against the following:

(i) Taxes imposed on Holdings or Worldwide for any Post-Closing Period;

(ii) except to the extent provided in Section 9.1(a)(i), any liability for Taxes of the Company and any of its subsidiaries; and

(iii) any liability for Taxes resulting from transactions or actions taken by Holdings or Worldwide on the Closing Date but after the Holdings Effective Time, except for transactions or actions undertaken in the ordinary course of business.

(c) To the extent permitted by law or administrative practice, (i) the taxable year of Holdings or Worldwide which includes the Closing Date shall be treated as closing on (and including) the Closing Date and (ii) all transactions not in the ordinary course of business occurring after the Holdings Effective Time shall be reported on Laser's consolidated United States federal income Tax Return to the extent permitted by Treasury Regulation Section 1.1502-76(b)(1)(ii)(B) and shall be similarly reported on other Tax Returns of Laser or its Affiliates to the extent permitted by Law. For purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b)(i), where it is necessary to apportion between Parent Holdings and Laser the Tax liability of an entity for a Straddle Period (which is not treated under the immediately preceding sentence as closing on the Closing Date), such liability shall be apportioned between the period deemed to end at the close of the Closing Date and the period deemed to begin at the beginning of the day following the Closing Date on the basis of an interim closing of the books, except that Taxes (such as real property Taxes) imposed on a periodic basis shall be allocated on a daily basis.

(d) For purposes of Sections 9.1(a) and (b), whenever it is necessary to allocate an item of income, gain, deduction, loss or credit to either a taxable year or period that is not part of a Straddle Period and that ends on or before the Closing Date or a taxable year or period that is not part of a Straddle Period and that begins after the Closing Date, such allocation shall be made consistent with the Law.

(e) Any real property transfer or gains Tax, sales Tax, use Tax, stamp Tax, stock transfer Tax, or other similar Tax imposed on Holdings or any of its subsidiaries arising out of or in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be borne by the party primarily obligated for such Tax under applicable Law, and each party shall indemnify the other party for any such Tax for which it is so liable.

(f) (i) Except as set forth in Section 9.1(f)(iii), Laser shall be entitled to any refund of Taxes or the benefit of the utilization of any Tax attribute (including, without limitation, any net operating loss, investment Tax credit, foreign Tax credit, or other credit or deduction) of (x) the Company or any of its subsidiaries and (y) for a Post-Closing Period, Holdings or Worldwide. If Parent Holdings or any of its Affiliates or subsidiaries receives any refund of Tax to which Laser is entitled pursuant to this Section 9.1(f)(i) or utilizes any Tax attribute to which Laser is entitled pursuant to this Section 9.1(f)(i), Parent Holdings shall promptly notify Laser and shall pay the amount of such refund or the benefit realized from such utilization within five (5) days of the receipt of such refund or the realization of such benefit.

(ii) Except as set forth in Section 9.1(f)(iii), Parent Holdings shall be entitled to any refund of Taxes or the benefit of the utilization of any Tax attribute of Holdings or Worldwide for a Pre-Closing Period. If Laser or any of its Affiliates or subsidiaries receives any refund of Tax to which Parent Holdings is entitled pursuant to this Section 9.1(f)(ii) or utilizes any Tax attribute to which Parent Holdings is entitled pursuant to this Section 9.1(f)(ii), Laser shall promptly notify Parent Holdings and shall pay the amount of such refund or the benefit realized from such utilization within five (5) days of the receipt of such refund or the realization of such benefit.

(iii) No payment shall be made in respect of a Tax deduction, Tax credit or other Tax benefit pursuant to this Section 9.1(f) in duplication of payments previously made in respect of the same Tax deduction, Tax credit or other Tax benefit.

(g) Any indemnity payment required under this Article IX as a result of an adjustment shall be paid seven (7) days after a "determination" within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code. Any payment required to be made under this Article IX by one party to the other party that is not made on or before the date specified in this Article IX shall bear interest after such date at the rate specified in Code Section 6621(a)(2) for underpayments.

Section 9.2. Tax Returns. (a) Parent Holdings shall file or cause to be filed when due (i) all Tax Returns that are required to be filed on or before the Closing Date by or with respect to Holdings or any of its subsidiaries and (ii) all consolidated, combined or unitary Tax Returns that are required to be filed by or with respect to Parent Holdings or any entity that will be its Affiliate after the Holdings Merger, on the one hand, and Holdings or any of its subsidiaries, on the other hand, for taxable years or periods that include or precede the Closing Date. Parent Holdings shall remit (or cause to be remitted) any Taxes shown as due on such Tax Returns. In the case of Tax Returns described in clause (ii) above, Laser shall pay Parent Holdings no later than five (5) days prior to the due date (including extensions) of any such Tax Return the Tax in connection with such Tax Return for which Laser is liable pursuant to this Article IX (or Parent Holdings shall pay Laser on such date the excess, if any, of any estimated Tax payments by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, relating to the period covered by such Tax Return, over the Tax in connection with such Tax Return for which Laser is liable pursuant to this Article IX). Holdings and its subsidiaries shall cooperate in the preparation of any Tax Returns for which Parent Holdings has filing responsibility hereunder. Such cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, furnishing in a timely manner return preparation packages in the form and of the quality provided prior to the Holdings Merger. Such packages shall be prepared in good faith in a manner consistent with past practice.

(b) Laser shall file or cause to be filed when due all other Tax Returns that are required to be filed by or with respect to Holdings or any of its subsidiaries. Laser shall remit (or cause to be remitted) any Taxes shown as due on such Tax Returns. Parent Holdings shall pay Laser no later than five (5) days prior to the due date (including extensions) of any such Tax Return the Tax in connection with such Tax Return for which Parent Holdings is liable pursuant to this Article IX.

(c) The party with filing responsibility under this Section 9.2 for a Tax Return shall, 20 days prior to the due date (including extensions) of such Tax Return, present to the other party (the "Indemnifying Party") for the approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) of the Indemnifying Party the portion, if any, of the Tax Return reflecting solely the items and positions for which the Indemnifying Party is liable pursuant to this Article IX.

(d) From and after the date hereof, Parent Holdings and each of its Affiliates shall not amend any Tax Return with respect to Taxes for which Laser or any of its Affiliates is liable pursuant to this Agreement, without the written consent of Laser, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(e) From and after the date hereof, any payment (including any estimated payment) in respect of Taxes pursuant to a Tax Sharing Arrangement that includes Holdings or any of its subsidiaries shall be reduced by any payment that would be owed by the other party pursuant to a Tax Sharing Arrangement.

Section 9.3. Tax Claims.

(a) In the case of any Tax audit, examination or judicial or administrative proceeding (a "Tax Proceeding") relating to a combined, consolidated or unitary Tax Return that includes Mafco Holdings Inc. (or any predecessor or successor thereto), Laser shall be entitled to control the portion of the Tax Proceeding, if any, relating solely to items for which Laser is liable pursuant to this Agreement, and Parent Holdings shall be entitled to control every other portion of the Tax Proceeding; provided, however, that neither Parent Holdings nor any of its Affiliates shall settle or otherwise dispose of any issue in any such Tax Proceeding that could materially affect the Tax liability hereunder of Laser, without the prior written consent of Laser, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Parent Holdings shall be entitled to control the Pre-Closing Period portion of a Tax Proceeding relating to a Straddle Period Tax Return, or a Tax

Return for a Pre-Closing Period ending before the Closing Date, of Holdings or Worldwide; provided, however, that neither Parent Holdings nor any of its Affiliates shall settle or otherwise dispose of any issue in any such Tax Proceeding that could materially affect the Tax liability hereunder of Laser, without the prior written consent of Laser, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(b) Parent Holdings or Laser, as the case may be, shall promptly notify the other party in writing of any tax claim that could result in liability of the other party under this Agreement (a "Tax Claim"). With respect to any Tax Claim, the party controlling the Tax Proceeding with respect thereto shall (i) not make any submission to any taxing authority without offering the other party the opportunity to review it, (ii) keep the other party informed as to the progress of such Tax Claim, (iii) provide the other party with any information that it receives in connection with the Tax Proceeding, (iv) permit the other party to participate (at its own expense) in all conferences, meetings or proceedings with any taxing authority in which the indemnified Tax Claim is or may be a subject, and (v) permit the other party to participate (at its own expense) in all court appearances in which the indemnified Tax Claim is or may be a subject. With respect to any Tax Claim, the party not controlling the Tax Proceeding with respect thereto shall not take any action or make any representations in connection with such Tax Claim with respect to issues affecting the other party's indemnity hereunder. With respect to any Tax Claim relating to a Pre-Closing Period for which Laser is or may be liable pursuant to this Agreement, Parent Holdings or any of its Affiliates shall either file (or cause to be filed) submissions at Laser's direction or appoint (or cause to be appointed) Laser or its authorized representatives as additional authorized representatives entitled to communicate fully with the Internal Revenue Service or the appropriate state, local or foreign taxing authority with respect to such Tax Claim.

(c) Nothing contained in this Section 9.3 shall be construed as limiting any party's right to indemnification under Section 9.1.

Section 9.4. Assistance and Cooperation. After the Closing Date, each of Parent Holdings and Laser shall (and shall cause their respective Affiliates to):

(a) timely sign and deliver such certificates or forms as may be necessary or appropriate to establish an exemption from (or otherwise reduce), or file Tax Returns or other reports with respect to, Taxes described in Section 9.1(e) (relating to sales, transfer and similar Taxes);

(b) assist the other party in preparing any Tax Returns which such other party is responsible for preparing and filing in accordance with Section 9.2;

(c) cooperate fully in preparing for any audits of, or disputes with taxing authorities regarding, any Tax Returns of Holdings and each of its subsidiaries;

(d) make available to the other and to any taxing authority as reasonably requested in connection with any Tax Return described in Section 9.4(b) or any proceeding described in Section 9.4(c), all information relating to any Taxes or any Tax Returns of Holdings and each of its subsidiaries, including, without limitation, records, returns, schedules, documents, work papers or other relevant materials;

(e) provide timely notice to the other in writing of any Tax audits or assessments of Holdings and each of its subsidiaries that are pending or proposed in writing for taxable periods for which the other may have a liability under this Article IX; and

(f) furnish the other with copies of all correspondence received from any taxing authority in connection with any Tax audit or information request with respect to any such taxable period.

Section 9.5. Adjustment to Merger Consideration. For all Tax purposes, any payment by Laser or Parent Holdings under this Agreement will be an adjustment to the Merger Consideration.

Section 9.6. Survival of Obligations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, and notwithstanding Article X of this Agreement, the obligations of the parties set forth in this Article IX shall be unconditional and absolute and shall remain in effect until 90 days after the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations.

Section 9.7. Reorganization. Laser shall not, and shall not permit any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates to, take any action that could prevent the Holdings Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Laser and Parent Holdings shall treat, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to treat, the Holdings Merger as a reorganization for all Tax and reporting purposes.

Section 9.8. Tax Sharing Agreements. All rights and obligations of Parent Holdings (and the entities that will be its Affiliates after the Holdings Effective Time) pursuant to any of the Tax Sharing Arrangements or any Tax indemnity arrangements involving Holdings or any of its subsidiaries will terminate on the Closing Date.

Section 9.9. Information. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or the Company Merger Agreement, neither Laser nor any of its Affiliates nor any other Person shall have any right to receive or obtain any information relating to Taxes of Parent Holdings or any of its Affiliates other than information relating solely to Holdings or any of its subsidiaries.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION: SURVIVAL

Section 10.1. Parent Holdings' Agreement to Indemnify.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Article X, from and after the Closing Date, Parent Holdings shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Laser and its subsidiaries (including after the Closing Date, the Company and its subsidiaries) and each of their respective successors and permitted assigns, directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents, Affiliates and associates (collectively, the "Laser Group") from and against any and all losses, liabilities, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), claims and damages (collectively, "Damages") asserted against, resulting to, imposed upon or suffered by the Laser Group, or any one of them, arising out of or related to any liability or obligation of Holdings or Worldwide existing on or prior to the Closing Date other than any such liability or obligation (i) arising in connection with the Notes, the LYONs and the 1998 Notes, (ii) which is also a liability or obligation of the Company or its subsidiaries (on a joint basis or otherwise), or (iii) which relates to the conduct, operations or activities of the Company or its subsidiaries.

(b) If there are any conflicts between the provisions of this Section 10.1 and Section 9.3 with respect to Tax Claims, the provisions of Section 9.3 shall control.

(c) Any payment by Parent Holdings under Article IX or this Section 10.1 will be an adjustment to the Merger Consideration.

(d) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, the liability of Parent Holdings to indemnify the Laser Group pursuant to this Section 10.1 against any Damages sustained by reason of any Laser Claim shall be limited to Laser Claims as to which the Laser Group has given Parent Holdings written notice, setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for such Laser Claim, on or prior to the fourth (4th) anniversary of the Closing Date.

Section 10.2. Conditions of Indemnification With Respect to Third-Party Claims. The obligations and liabilities of Parent Holdings with respect to Laser Claims for Damages which arise or result from claims made by third parties ("Third-Party Claims") shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) The Laser Group shall give Parent Holdings prompt notice of any such Third-Party Claim, and Parent Holdings shall have the right to undertake the defense thereof by representatives chosen by it; provided, however, that failure to provide prompt notice shall not affect Parent Holdings' obligations hereunder except to the extent that Parent Holdings is actually prejudiced by such failure;

(b) If Parent Holdings undertakes the defense of any such Third-Party Claim, the Laser Group shall, to the best of its ability, assist Parent Holdings, at the expense of Parent Holdings, in the defense of such Third-Party Claim, and shall promptly send to Parent Holdings, at the expense of Parent Holdings, copies of any documents received by the Laser Group which relate to such Third-Party Claim;

(c) If Parent Holdings, within a reasonable time after notice of any such Third-Party Claim, fails to defend the member(s) of the Laser Group against which such Third-Party Claim has been asserted, the Laser Group shall (upon further notice to Seller) have the right to undertake the defense, compromise or settlement of such Third-Party Claim on behalf of and for the account and risk of Parent Holdings, subject to the right of Parent Holdings to assume the defense of such Third-Party Claim at any time prior to settlement, compromise or final determination thereof; and

(d) Anything in this Article X to the contrary notwithstanding, (i) if there is a reasonable probability that a Third-Party Claim may materially and adversely affect the Laser Group other than as a result of money damages or other money payments, the Laser Group shall have the right, at its own cost and expense, to defend, compromise or settle such Third-Party Claim, and shall by doing so release Parent Holdings from any liability to provide indemnification with respect to such Third-Party Claim; and (ii) Parent Holdings shall not, without the written consent of the Laser Group, settle or compromise any Third-Party Claim or consent to the entry of any judgment which does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or the plaintiff to the Laser Group a release from all liability with respect to such Third-Party Claim.

Section 10.3. Survival of Representations; Covenants. The representations and warranties in this Agreement shall terminate upon and not survive the Closing Date. This Section 10.3 shall not limit any covenant or agreement of the parties contained herein which by its terms contemplates performance after the Holdings Effective Time.

ARTICLE XI

TERMINATION

Section 11.1. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Holdings Effective Time:

- (a) by mutual written agreement of Laser and Holdings;
- (b) by either Laser or Holdings if the Holdings Merger shall not have been consummated on or before August 31, 1998 (the "Termination Date"); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 11.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur on or before the Termination Date;
- (c) by either Laser or Holdings if a court of competent jurisdiction or governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or commission shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action (which order, decree or ruling the parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to lift), in each case permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable;
- (d) by either Laser or Holdings in the event of a breach by the other party or any of its subsidiaries (including, in the case of Holdings, the Company and its subsidiaries) of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in this Agreement or the Company Merger Agreement, as applicable, which would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 8.2(a) or Section 8.3(a) hereof or Section 8.1 thereof, as applicable, and is not capable of being cured (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in this Agreement).

Section 11.2. Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 11.1 hereof, this Agreement shall forthwith become void, provided that the last sentence of Section 6.7 and Article XII shall continue, and there shall be no liability on the part of any of the parties, nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for any willful breach hereof.

ARTICLE XII

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 12.1. Notices. All notices or other communications hereunder shall be deemed to have been duly given and made if in writing and if served by personal delivery upon the party for whom it is intended, if delivered by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by a national courier service, or if sent by telecopier; provided that the telecopy is promptly confirmed by telephone confirmation thereof, to the person at the address set forth below, or such other address as may be designated in writing hereafter, in the same manner, by such person:

Any such notification shall be deemed delivered (i) upon receipt, if delivered personally, (ii) on the next business day, if sent by national courier service for next business day delivery or (iii) the business day received, if sent by telecopier.

Section 12.2. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties pursuant to a writing adopted by action taken by all of the parties at any time before the Closing Date. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the Parties.

Section 12.3. Extension; Waiver. At any time before the Closing Date, any party hereto may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only as against such party and only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

Section 12.4. Assignment. No party to this Agreement may assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party hereto.

Section 12.5. Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including all Schedules and Exhibits hereto) contains the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written, with respect to such matters, except for the Confidentiality Agreements which will remain in full force and effect for the term provided for therein.

Section 12.6. Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any Person other than Laser, Holdings, Worldwide, their respective subsidiaries or their successors or permitted assigns, any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 12.7. Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be borne by the party incurring such expenses.

Section 12.8. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, its rules of conflict of laws notwithstanding.

Section 12.9. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Section 12.10. Headings. The heading references herein and in the table of contents hereto are for convenience purposes only, do not constitute a part of this Agreement and shall not be deemed to limit or affect any of the provisions hereof.

Section 12.11. Further Assurances. From time to time after the Closing Date, at the request of the other party hereto and at the expense of the party so requesting, Holdings and Laser shall execute and deliver to such requesting party such documents and take such other action as such requesting party may reasonably request in order to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 12.12. Specific Performance. Each party hereto acknowledges that money damages would be both incalculable and an insufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by such party and that any such breach would cause the other party hereto irreparable harm. Accordingly, each party hereto also agrees that, in the event of any breach or threatened breach of the provisions of this Agreement by such party, the other party hereto shall be entitled to equitable relief without the requirement of posting a bond or other security, including in the form of injunctions and orders for specific performance.

Section 12.13. Certain Terms. As used herein: (i) the term "material adverse effect" (including as used in any definition) with respect to any Person, shall exclude any change, event, effect or circumstance (a) arising in connection with the announcement or performance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Company Merger Agreement and (b) affecting in the United States economy generally or such Person's industries generally; and (ii) "to the knowledge of Holdings" shall mean to the actual knowledge of Paul E. Shapiro, Jerry W. Levin and Steven R. Isko.

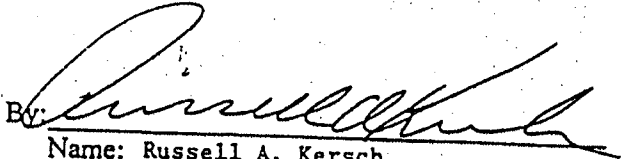

Section 12.14. Interpretation. When a reference is made to this Agreement to an Article or Section, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of, this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation". The words "hereof", "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The phrase "made available" in this Agreement shall mean that the information referred to has been made available if requested by the party to whom such information is to be made available. All terms defined in this Agreement shall have the defined meanings used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant hereto unless otherwise defined therein. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. Any agreement, instrument or statute defined or referred to herein or in any agreement or instrument that is referred to herein means such agreement, instrument or statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including (in the case of agreements or instruments) by waiver or consent and (in the case of statutes) by succession of comparable successor statutes and references to all attachments thereto and instruments incorporated therein. References to a person are also to its permitted successors and assigns and, in the case of an individual, to his heirs and estate, as applicable.

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT, dated as of _____, 1998 (the "Agreement"), among SUNBEAM CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("Laser"), and COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS INC., a Delaware corporation ("Parent Holdings").

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 (the "Holdings Merger Agreement"), by and among Laser, LASER ACQUISITION CORP., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Laser ("Laser Merger Sub"), CLN HOLDINGS INC., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent Holdings ("Holdings"), and Parent Holdings, Laser Merger Sub will be merged immediately after the execution of this Agreement with the surviving corporation becoming an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Laser, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Holdings Merger Agreement (the "Holdings Merger"); and

WHEREAS, upon consummation of the Holdings Merger, the shares of Holdings Common Stock (as defined herein) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Holdings Merger shall be converted into the right to receive an aggregate of (A) 14,099,749 fully paid and nonassessable shares of Laser Common Stock (as defined herein) and (B) $159,956,756 in cash, without interest hereon; and

WHEREAS, it is a condition to the obligations of Holdings to consummate the Holdings Merger that this Agreement be duly executed and delivered by each of the parties hereto; and

WHEREAS, in order to induce Holdings to enter into the Holdings Merger Agreement, Laser has agreed to provide registration rights with respect to the shares of Laser Common Stock to be issued to Parent Holdings upon consummation of the Holdings Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein and for good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

CERTAIN DEFINITIONS

Section 1.1 Definitions.

As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

The term "Affiliate" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Rule 12b-2 of the General Rules and Regulations under the Exchange Act.

The term "Agreement" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the first paragraph of the Preamble.

The term "Camper" shall mean The Coleman Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation.

The term "Effective Date" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Section 2.2.

The term "Exchange Act" shall mean the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder.

The term "Holdings" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the second paragraph of the Preamble.

The term "Holdings Common Stock" shall mean common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Holdings.

The term "Holdings Merger" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the second paragraph of the Preamble.

The term "Holdings Merger Agreement" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the second paragraph of the Preamble.

The term "Laser" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the first paragraph of the Preamble.

The term "Laser Common Stock" shall mean common stock, par value $.01 per share, of Laser.

The term "Laser Merger Sub" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the second paragraph of the Preamble.

The term "Laser Offering" shall mean the sale of equity securities of Laser, or securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for equity securities of Laser, pursuant to a registration statement filed by Laser under the Securities Act (other than a registration statement filed on Form S-8 or any successor form) respecting an underwritten offering, whether primary or secondary, that is declared effective by the SEC.

The term "Losses" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Section 2.6(a).

The term "Parent Holdings" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the first paragraph of the Preamble.

The term "Person" shall mean an individual, trustee, corporation, partnership, business trust, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, joint stock company, trust, unincorporated association, union, business association, firm or other entity.

The term "Shelf Registration Statement" shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Section 2.1(a).

The term "Transfer" shall mean any attempt to, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer, pledge, assign or otherwise dispose of or otherwise transfer any of the Registrable Securities.

ARTICLE II

REQUIRED REGISTRATION

Section 2.1 Required Registration.

(a) Form S-3. Laser shall prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement (the "Shelf Registration Statement") on Form S-3 or another appropriate form permitting registration of the Registrable Securities so as to permit the resale of the Registrable Securities by Parent Holdings pursuant to an offering on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 (or any successor rule) under the Securities Act (a "Rule 415 Offering") and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Shelf Registration Statement to be declared effective by the SEC on or before the date on which any of the Registrable Securities may be transferred by Parent Holdings pursuant to Article VII of the Holdings Merger Agreement. Laser shall use reasonable best efforts to permit the Shelf Registration Statement to be used by Affiliates of Camper for resales of shares of Laser Common Stock issued to such Affiliates in the merger of a wholly owned subsidiary of Laser with Camper; provided, however, that any such Affiliate using the Shelf Registration Statement shall agree in writing to be bound by all of the restrictions, limitations and obligations of Parent Holdings contained in this Agreement.

(b) Effectiveness. Laser shall use reasonable best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement continuously effective under the Securities Act until the date that is the earliest to occur of (i) the date by which all Registrable Securities covered by the Shelf Registration Statement have been sold and (ii) the second anniversary of the consummation of the Holdings Merger.

(c) Amendments/Supplements. Laser shall amend and supplement the Shelf Registration Statement and the prospectus contained therein if required by the rules, regulations or instructions applicable to the registration form used by Laser for such Shelf Registration Statement, if required by the Securities Act.

(d) Offerings. At any time from and after the date on which the Shelf Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC (the "Effective Date"), Parent Holdings, subject to the restrictions and conditions contained herein and in the Merger Agreement, and subject further to compliance with all applicable state and federal securities laws, shall have the right to dispose of all or any portion of the Registrable Securities.

Section 2.2 Holdback Agreement.

From and after the Effective Date, upon the request of Laser, Parent Holdings shall not effect any public sale or distribution (including sales pursuant to Rule 144) of Registrable Securities that are equity securities of Laser, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities (other than any such sale or distribution of such securities pursuant to registration of such securities on Form S-8 or any successor form) during the period commencing on the date on which Laser commences a Laser Offering through the sixty (60)-day period immediately following the closing date of such Laser Offering; provided, however, that Parent Holdings shall not be obligated to comply with this Section 2.2 on more than two (2) occasions in any twelve (12)-month period; and provided, further, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.2 or Section 2.3, in no event shall Parent Holdings be disabled from effecting offers or sales of Registrable Securities for more than one-hundred-and-fifteen (115) days during any twelve (12)-month period.

Section 2.3 Blackout Provisions.

In the event that, at any time while the Shelf Registration Statement remains effective, Laser determines in its reasonable judgment and in good faith that the sale of Registrable Securities would require disclosure of material information which Laser has a bona fide business purpose for preserving as confidential, Parent Holdings shall, upon receiving written notice from Laser of such good faith determination, suspend sales of the Registrable Securities for a period beginning on the date of receipt of such notice and expiring on the earlier of (i) the date upon which such material information is disclosed to the public or ceases to be material or (ii) forty-five (45) days after the receipt of such notice from Laser; provided, however, that Parent Holdings shall not be obligated to comply with this Section 2.3 on more than two (2) occasions in any twelve (12) month period; and provided, further, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.3 or Section 2.2, in no event shall Parent Holdings be disabled from effecting offers or sales of Registrable Securities for more than one-hundred-and-fifteen (115) days during any twelve (12)-month period.

Section 2.4 Registration Procedures.

(a) Procedures. In connection with the registration of the Registrable Securities pursuant to this Agreement, Laser shall use reasonable best efforts to effect the registration and sale of the Registrable Securities in accordance with Parent Holdings' intended method of disposition thereof and, in connection therewith, Laser shall:

(1) prepare and file with the SEC the Shelf Registration Statement and use reasonable best efforts to cause the Shelf Registration Statement to become and remain effective in accordance with Sections 2.1(a) and (b) above;

(2) prepare and file with the SEC amendments and supplements to the Shelf Registration Statement and the prospectuses used in connection therewith in accordance with Section 2.1(c) above;

(3) before filing with the SEC the Shelf Registration Statement or prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto, Laser shall furnish to one (1) counsel selected by Parent Holdings and one (1) counsel for the underwriter or sales or placement agent, if any, in connection therewith, drafts of all such documents proposed to be filed and provide such counsel with a reasonable opportunity for review thereof and comment thereon, such review to be conducted and such comments to be delivered with reasonable promptness;

(4) promptly (i) notify Parent Holdings of each of (w) the filing and effectiveness of the Shelf Registration Statement and each prospectus and any amendments or supplements thereto, (x) the receipt of any comments from the SEC or any state securities law authorities or any other governmental authorities with respect to any such Shelf Registration Statement or prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto, (y) any oral or written stop order with respect to such registration, any suspension of the registration or qualification of the sale of the Registrable Securities in any jurisdiction or any initiation or threatening of any proceedings with respect to any of the foregoing, and (z) of the happening of any event that requires the making of any changes in such Shelf Registration Statement, prospectus or documents incorporated or deemed to be incorporated therein by reference so that they will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (ii) use reasonable best efforts to obtain the withdrawal of any order suspending the registration or qualification (or the effectiveness thereof) or suspending or preventing the use of any related prospectus in any jurisdiction with respect thereto;

(5) furnish to Parent Holdings, the underwriters or the sales or placement agent, if any, and one (1) counsel for each of the foregoing, a conformed copy of the Shelf Registration Statement and each amendment and supplement thereto (in each case, including all exhibits thereto) and such additional number of copies of such Shelf Registration Statement, each amendment and supplement thereto (in such case, without such exhibits), the prospectus (including each preliminary prospectus) included in such Shelf Registration Statement and prospectus supplements and all exhibits thereto and such other documents as Parent Holdings, its underwriters, agent or such counsel may reasonably request in order to facilitate the disposition of the Registrable Securities by Parent Holdings;

(6) in connection with a sale of Registrable Securities by or through an underwriter, if requested by Parent Holdings or the managing underwriter or underwriters of a Rule 415 Offering, subject to approval of counsel to Laser in its reasonable judgment, promptly incorporate in a prospectus, supplement or post-effective amendment to the Shelf Registration Statement such information concerning underwriters and the plan of distribution of the Registrable Securities as such managing underwriter or underwriters or Parent Holdings reasonably shall furnish to Laser in writing and such request to be included therein, including, without limitation, information with respect to the number of Registrable Securities being sold by Parent Holdings to such underwriter or underwriters, the purchase price being paid therefor by such underwriter or underwriters and with respect to any other terms of the underwritten offering of the Registrable Securities to be sold in such offering; and make all required filings of such prospectus, supplement or post-effective amendment as soon as reasonably practicable after being notified of the matters to be incorporated in such prospectus, supplement or post-effective amendment;

(7) use reasonable best efforts to register or qualify the Registrable Securities for offer and sale under such securities or "blue sky" laws of such jurisdictions as Parent Holdings reasonably requests and do any and all other acts and things which may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable Parent Holdings to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions in which the Registrable Securities are to be sold and keep such registration or qualification in effect for as long as the Shelf Registration Statement remains effective under the Securities Act (provided that Laser shall not be required to (i) qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to qualify but for this paragraph, (ii) subject itself to taxation in any such jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be subject to taxation but for this paragraph or (iii) consent to the general service of process in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be subject to general service of process but for this paragraph);

(8) notify Parent Holdings, at any time when a prospectus relating to the Shelf Registration Statement is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, upon the discovery that, or of the happening of any event as a result of which, the Shelf Registration Statement, as then in effect, contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or any fact necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and promptly prepare and furnish to Parent Holdings a supplement or amendment to the prospectus contained in the Shelf Registration Statement so that the Shelf Registration Statement shall not, and such prospectus as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such Registrable Securities shall not, contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(9) cause all of the Registrable Securities to be listed on each national securities exchange and included in each established over-the-counter market on which or through which the Laser Common Stock is then listed or traded;

(10) in connection with a sale of Registrable Securities by or through an underwriter, make available for inspection by Parent Holdings, any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement, and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by Parent Holdings or its underwriter, all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of Laser as shall be reasonably necessary to enable either of them to exercise their due diligence responsibility, and cause Laser's officers, directors, employees, attorneys and independent accountants to supply all information reasonably requested by Parent Holdings, its underwriters, attorneys, accountants or agents in connection with the Shelf Registration Statement; information which Laser determines, in good faith, to be confidential shall not be disclosed by such persons unless (i) the disclosure of such information is required by applicable federal securities laws or is necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission in such Shelf Registration Statement or (ii) the release of such information is ordered pursuant to a subpoena or other order from a court of competent jurisdiction; Parent Holdings agrees, on its own behalf and on behalf of all of its underwriters, accountants, attorneys and agents, that the information obtained by any of them as a result of such inspections shall be deemed confidential unless and until such is made generally available to the public; Parent Holdings further agrees, on its own behalf and on behalf of all of its underwriters, accountants, attorneys and agents, that Parent Holdings will, upon learning that disclosure of such information is sought in a court of competent jurisdiction, give notice to Laser and allow Laser, at Parent Holdings' expense, to undertake appropriate action to prevent disclosure of the information deemed confidential; nothing contained herein shall require Laser to waive any attorney-client privilege or disclose attorney work product;

(11) use reasonable best efforts to comply with all applicable laws related to the Shelf Registration Statement and offering and sale of securities and all applicable rules and regulations of governmental authorities in connection therewith (including, without limitation, the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC) and make generally available to its security holders as soon as practicable (but in any event not later than fifteen (15) months after the effectiveness of the Shelf Registration Statement) an earnings statement of Laser and its subsidiaries complying with Section 11(a) of the Securities Act;

(12) in connection with a sale of Registrable Securities by or through an underwriter, use reasonable best efforts to furnish to Parent Holdings a signed counterpart of (x) an opinion of counsel for Laser (including a "Rule 10b-5" opinion) and (y) a "comfort" letter signed by the independent public accountants who have certified Laser's financial statements included or incorporated by reference in such registration statement, covering such matters with respect to such registration statement and, in the case of the accountants' comfort letter, with respect to events subsequent to the date of such financial statements as are customarily covered in opinions of issuer's counsel and in accountants' comfort letters delivered to the underwriters in underwritten public offerings of securities for the account of, or on behalf of, an issuer of common stock, such opinion and comfort letters to be dated the date that such opinion and comfort letters are customarily dated in such transactions; and

(13) take other actions as Parent Holdings or the underwriters, if any, reasonably request in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of the Registrable Securities.

(b) Further Agreements. Without limiting any of the foregoing, in the event that the sale of Registrable Securities is to be made by or through an underwriter, Laser shall enter into an underwriting agreement with a managing underwriter or underwriters selected by Parent Holdings containing representations, warranties, indemnities and agreements customarily included (but not inconsistent with the agreements contained herein) by an issuer of common stock in underwriting agreements with respect to offerings of common stock for the account of, or on behalf of, such issuers; provided, however, that Parent Holdings shall not utilize the Shelf Registration Statement for more than two (2) underwritten offerings during the term of this Agreement. In connection with the sale of Registrable Securities hereunder, Parent Holdings may, at its option, require that any and all representations and warranties by, and the other agreements of, Laser to or for the benefit of such underwriter or underwriters (or which would be made to or for the benefit of such an underwriter or underwriter if such sale of Registrable Securities were pursuant to a customary underwritten offering) be made to and for the benefit of Parent Holdings and that any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such underwriter or underwriters (or which would be so for the benefit of such underwriter or underwriters under a customary underwriting agreement) be conditions precedent to the obligations of Parent Holdings in connection with the disposition of Parent Holdings' securities pursuant to the terms hereof. In connection with any offering of Registrable Securities registered pursuant to this Agreement, Laser shall, upon receipt of duly endorsed certificates representing the Registrable Securities, (i) furnish to the underwriter, if any (or, if no underwriter, Parent Holdings), unlegended certificates representing ownership of Registrable Securities being sold, in such denominations as requested, and (ii) instruct any transfer agent and registrar of the Registrable Securities to release any stop transfer order with respect thereto.

Parent Holdings agrees that upon receipt of any notice from Laser of the happening of any event of the kind described in paragraph (8) of Section 2.4(a), Parent Holdings shall forthwith discontinue its disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement and prospectus relating thereto until Parent Holdings' receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by paragraph (8) of Section 2.4(a) and, if so directed by Laser, deliver to Laser all copies, other than permanent file copies, then in Parent Holdings' possession of the prospectus current at the time of receipt of such notice relating to the Registrable Securities.

Section 2.5 Registration Expenses.

All expenses incidental to Laser's performance of, or compliance with, its obligations under this Agreement including, without limitation, all registration and filing fees, all fees and expenses of compliance with securities and "blue sky" laws (including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of counsel for underwriters or placement or sales agents in connection therewith), all printing and copying expenses, all messenger and delivery expenses, all fees and expenses of underwriters and sales and placement agents in connection therewith (excluding underwriters' discounts and commissions and the fees and expenses of counsel therefor), all fees and expenses of Laser's independent certified public accountants and counsel (including, without limitation, with respect to "comfort" letters and opinions) and other Persons retained by Laser in connection therewith (collectively, the "Registration Expenses"), shall be borne by Laser. Laser shall not be responsible for and shall not pay underwriters' discounts and commissions and the fees and expenses of counsel therefor and fees and expenses of legal counsel, accountants, agents or experts retained by Parent Holdings in connection with the sale of the Registrable Securities. Laser will pay its internal expenses (including, without limitation, all salaries and expenses of its officers and employees performing legal or accounting duties, the expense of any annual audit and the expense of any liability insurance) and the expenses and fees for listing the Registrable Securities on the New York Stock Exchange or, if the Laser Common Stock is then not so listed, included in an established over-the-counter market.

Section 2.6 Indemnification.

(a) By Laser. Laser agrees to indemnify Parent Holdings and Parent Holdings' directors, officers, employees and agents and each Person who controls (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act) Laser or such other indemnified Person to the fullest extent lawful, against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, judgments, and reasonable costs (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) (collectively, the "Losses") as incurred, caused by, arising out of, resulting from or relating to any untrue or alleged untrue statement of material fact contained in the Shelf Registration Statement, any prospectus or preliminary prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, except insofar as the same are based upon any information furnished in writing to Laser by Parent Holdings or its underwriter or other agent expressly for use therein or by Parent Holdings' failure to deliver, or its underwriter's or other agent's failure to deliver, a copy of the Shelf Registration Statement or prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto after Laser has furnished Parent Holdings with the requested number of copies of the same. In connection with an underwritten offering and without limiting any of Laser's other obligations under this Agreement, Laser shall indemnify such underwriters, their officers, directors, employees and agents and each Person who controls (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act) such underwriters or such other indemnified Person to the same extent as provided above with respect to the indemnification of Parent Holdings.

(b) By Parent Holdings. In connection with the Shelf Registration Statement, Parent Holdings shall furnish to Laser in writing information regarding Parent Holdings' ownership of Registrable Securities and Parent Holdings' intended method of distribution thereof and shall indemnify Laser, its directors, officers, employees and agents and each Person who controls (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act) Laser or such other indemnified Person against all Losses caused by, arising out of, resulting from or relating to any untrue or alleged untrue statement of material fact contained in the Shelf Registration Statement, any prospectus or preliminary prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, but only to the extent that such untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission (i) is caused by, arises out of, results from or relates to, or is alleged to be omitted from, such information so furnished in writing by Parent Holdings or (ii) arises out of or results from Parent Holdings' failure to deliver, or Parent Holdings' underwriter's or other agent's failure to deliver, a copy of the Shelf Registration Statement or prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto after Laser has furnished Parent Holdings with the requested number of copies of the same. In connection with an underwritten offering and without limiting any of Parent Holdings' other obligations under this Agreement, (i) Parent Holdings shall indemnify such underwriters, their officers, directors, employees and agents and each Person who controls (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act) such underwriters or such other indemnified Person to the same extent as provided above with respect to the indemnification of Laser and (ii) Parent Holdings shall cause each underwriter of an underwritten offering to indemnify Laser, its directors, officers, employees and agents and each Person who controls (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act) Laser or such indemnified Person, on terms and subject to conditions customary for such indemnification by nationally known investment banking firms, against all Losses caused by, arising out of, resulting from or relating to any untrue or alleged untrue statement of material fact contained in the Shelf Registration Statement, any prospectus or preliminary prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, but only to the extent that such untrue statement or omission or alleged untrue statement or omission (x) is caused by, arises out of or results from information furnished in writing by such underwriter specifically for inclusion in the Shelf Registration Statement or (y) arises out of or results from such underwriter's failure to deliver a copy of the Shelf Registration Statement or prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto after Laser has furnished such underwriter with the requested number of copies of the same.

(c) Notice. Any Person entitled to indemnification hereunder shall give prompt written notice to the indemnifying party of any claim with respect to which it seeks indemnification; provided, however, the failure to give such notice shall not release the indemnifying party from its obligation, except to the extent that the indemnifying party has been prejudiced by such failure to provide such notice.

(d) Defense of Actions. In any case in which any such action is brought against any indemnified party, and it notifies an indemnifying party of the commencement thereof, the indemnifying party shall be entitled to participate therein, and, to the extent that it may wish, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party, and after notice from the indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying party shall not (so long as it shall continue to have the right to defend, contest, litigate and settle the matter in question in accordance with this paragraph) be liable to such indemnified party hereunder for any legal or other expense subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation, supervision and monitoring (unless such indemnified party reasonably objects to such assumption on the grounds that there may be defenses available to it which are different from or in addition to the defenses available to such indemnifying party, in which event the indemnified party shall be reimbursed by the indemnifying party for the reasonable expenses incurred in connection with retaining one separate legal counsel). An indemnifying party shall not be liable for any settlement of an action or claim effected without its consent. The indemnifying party shall lose its right to defend, contest, litigate and settle a matter if it shall fail to diligently contest such matter (except to the extent settled in accordance with the next following sentence). No matter shall be settled by an indemnifying party without the consent of the indemnified party unless such settlement contains a full and unconditional release of the indemnified party.

(e) Survival. The indemnification provided for under this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the indemnified Person and will survive the transfer of the Registrable Securities.

(f) Contribution. If recovery is not available under the foregoing indemnification provisions for any reason or reasons other than as specified therein, any Person who otherwise would be entitled to indemnification by the terms thereof shall nevertheless be entitled to contribution with respect to any Losses with respect to which such Person would be entitled to such indemnification but for such reason or reasons. In determining the amount of contribution to which the respective Persons are entitled, there shall be considered the Persons' relative knowledge and access to information concerning the matter with respect to which the claim was asserted, the opportunity to correct and prevent any statement or omission, and other equitable considerations appropriate under the circumstances. It is hereby agreed that it would not necessarily be equitable if the amount of such contribution were determined by pro rata or per capita allocation. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not found guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

ARTICLE III

TRANSFERS OF REGISTRABLE SECURITIES

Section 3.1 Transferability of Registrable Securities

Parent Holdings may not Transfer the Registrable Securities except in accordance with Article VII of the Holdings Merger Agreement and under the following circumstances:

- (a) pursuant to Rule 144;
- (b) pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement; or
- (c) upon receipt by Laser of an opinion of counsel, reasonably satisfactory to Laser, that such Transfer is exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

Section 3.2 Restrictive Legends.

Parent Holdings hereby acknowledges and agrees that, during the term of this Agreement, each of the certificates representing Registrable Securities shall be subject to stop transfer instructions and shall include the legend set forth in Section 7.2 of the Holdings Merger Agreement.

ARTICLE IV

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 4.1 Effectiveness of Agreement.

The provisions of this Agreement shall be effective as of the date hereof.

Section 4.2 Recapitalization.

In the event that any capital stock or other securities are issued as a dividend or distribution on, in respect of, in exchange for, or in substitution of, any Registrable Securities, such securities shall be deemed to be Registrable Securities for all purposes under this Agreement.

Section 4.3 Notices.

All notices, requests, demands, waivers and other communications required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered personally, by mail (certified or registered mail, return receipt requested), by reputable overnight courier or by facsimile transmission (receipt of which is confirmed):

(a) If to Laser, to:

New York, New York 10019-6150
Attention: Adam O. Emmerich, Esq.
Facsimile: (212) 403-2000

or to such other person or address as any party shall specify by notice in writing, given in accordance with this Section 4.3, to the other parties hereto. All such notices, requests, demands, waivers and communications shall be deemed to have been given on the date on which so hand-delivered, on the third business day following the date on which so mailed, on the next business day following the date on which delivered to such overnight courier and on the date of such facsimile transmission and confirmation, except for a notice of change of person or address, which shall be effective only upon receipt thereof.

Section 4.4 Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral and written, with respect to its subject matter.

Section 4.5 Binding Effect; Assignment.

This Agreement and all of the provisions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, successors and permitted assigns, but, except as expressly contemplated herein, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned, directly or indirectly, by Laser or Parent Holdings without the prior written consent of the other; provided, that in connection with a bona fide pledge of any Registrable Securities to secure indebtedness or other obligations, Parent Holdings may assign its rights, interests and obligations hereunder to the beneficiary of such pledge. Upon any permitted assignment (other than in connection with any such bona fide pledge), this Agreement shall be amended to substitute the assignee as a party hereto in a writing reasonably acceptable to the other party.

Section 4.6 Amendment, Modification and Waiver.

This Agreement may be amended, modified or supplemented at any time by written agreement of the parties hereto. Any failure by Parent Holdings, on the one hand, or Laser, on the other hand, to comply with any term or provision of this Agreement may be waived by Laser or Parent Holdings, respectively, at any time by an instrument in writing signed by or on behalf of Laser and Parent Holdings, but such waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with such term or provision shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure to comply.

Section 4.7 Third-Party Beneficiaries.

Except with respect to Affiliates which have agreed to be bound in accordance with Section 2.1(a), this Agreement is not intended, and shall not be deemed, to confer upon or give any person except the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, any remedy, claim, liability, reimbursement, cause of action or other right under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 4.8 Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 4.9 Interpretation.

The article and section headings contained in this Agreement are solely for the purpose of reference, are not part of the agreement of the parties and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 4.10 Governing Law.

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof.

Section 4.11 Termination; Restrictive Legend.

Subject to the provisions of Section 2.1(b) hereof, this Agreement shall terminate on the second anniversary of consummation of the Merger; provided, however, that the provisions of Section 2.6 hereof shall survive termination of this Agreement. It is understood and agreed that any restrictive legends set forth on any Registrable Securities shall be removed by delivery of substitute certificates without such legends and such Registrable Securities shall no longer be subject to the terms of this Agreement, upon the resale of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or, if not theretofore removed, on the third anniversary of the date hereof.

[SIGNATURE PAGE FOLLOWS]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned hereby agree to be bound by the terms and provisions of this Registration Rights Agreement as of the date first above written.

Notice from the Agents

Unless the context otherwise requires: (i) all references to the "Company" and "Sunbeam" refer collectively to Sunbeam Corporation and its subsidiaries; and (ii) all information relating to the Company contained in this Memorandum, other than historical financial information, gives effect to the Acquisitions described below.

Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc. ("MSSF") as Arranger and Syndication Agent, BancAmerica Robertson Stephens ("BARS") as Co-Arranger, Bank of America NT & SA ("BoFA") as Documentation Agent, and First Union ("First Union") as Co-Arranger and Administrative Agent (together with the Syndication Agent, the "Agents"), have been requested by the Company to arrange $1,700,000,000 in Senior Secured Credit Facilities (the "Credit Facilities") in connection with its acquisition (the "Acquisitions") of CLN Holdings Inc. ("CLN Holdings"), the parent of The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman"), the publicly held shares of Coleman, Signature Brands USA, Inc. ("Signature Brands") and First Alert, Inc. ("First Alert"). The Confidential Information Memorandum (the "Information Memorandum") that follows provides details of the Acquisitions and provides information on the Company.

This Information Memorandum is being furnished on a confidential basis. In all cases, prospective lenders should conduct their own investigation and analysis of the Company and of the information set forth in this Information Memorandum. No representation or warranty, express or implied, is made by MSSF, BARS, First Union or by any of their respective affiliates (including in the case of MSSF, Morgan Stanley Dean Witter & Co. Incorporated (together with MSSF, "Morgan Stanley")) as to the accuracy or completeness of this Information Memorandum or the information contained herein, and nothing contained in this Information Memorandum is, or shall be relied upon as, a promise or representation as to past or future performance of the Company. None of Morgan Stanley, BARS, First Union or their respective affiliates have independently verified any such information and assume no responsibility for its accuracy or completeness. In addition, Morgan Stanley may, at times, act as financial advisor and underwriter for the Company.

This Information Memorandum contains statements, estimates, and projections provided by the Company with respect to the Company's future performance. Such information and data reflect various assumptions made by the Company, which assumptions may not prove to be correct, and are subject to many economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies that are beyond the control of the Company. None of Morgan Stanley, BARS, First Union or the Company make any representations as to the reasonableness of such assumptions or to any other financial information contained in such statements, estimates and projections. There can be no assurances that such statements, estimates and projections will be realized and actual results may vary materially from those indicated.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Notice from the Agents (continued)

None of Morgan Stanley, BARS, First Union or the Company, their respective affiliates or any other person undertakes to review the accuracy or attainability or condition (financial or otherwise) or affairs of the Company except for their own respective purposes or to advise any syndicate member or participant in the Senior Secured Credit Facilities of any information coming to Morgan Stanley, BARS, First Union, the Company, their respective affiliates or any other person's attention. This Information Memorandum is not intended by Morgan Stanley, BARS, First Union, the Company or their respective affiliates to provide the sole basis of any credit decision or other evaluation, and should not be considered a recommendation by Morgan Stanley, BARS, First Union, the Company, their respective affiliates, or any other person that any recipient of this Information Memorandum participate in the Senior Secured Credit Facilities. By acceptance of this Information Memorandum, the recipient hereby agrees that none of Morgan Stanley, BARS, First Union, or the Company shall have liability for any misstatement or omission of fact, or for any opinion expressed herein.

This Information Memorandum is submitted to selected prospective lenders solely for their confidential use in connection with the syndication of the Senior Secured Credit Facilities and may not be reproduced or used, in whole or in part, for any other purpose, or furnished to any persons other than those to whom copies have been sent by the Agents. By acceptance of a copy of this Information Memorandum, the recipient agrees that the information contained herein will be kept confidential and shall not, without the prior written consent of the Agents and the Company, be reproduced or disclosed by the recipient in any manner whatsoever, in whole or in part, and shall not be used other than in connection with evaluating the transaction described herein. The recipient further agrees that if it does not wish to pursue its participation in the Senior Secured Credit Facilities, it will promptly return this Information Memorandum, together with any other confidential information relating to the Company which the recipient may have received from the Agents or the Company, and all reproductions, extracts or summaries thereof, to Morgan Stanley. The recipient's acceptance of the enclosed information will constitute its agreement to be bound by the foregoing.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Confidentiality Agreement

Much of the information contained in the enclosed Information Memorandum is confidential, non-public or proprietary in nature. In consideration for providing you with this Information Memorandum, you agree that:

1. This Information Memorandum shall be kept confidential and shall not, without the prior written consent of the Agents and Sunbeam, be reproduced or disclosed by you, or your agents, representatives or employees, in any manner whatsoever, in whole or in part, and shall not be used by you, or your agents, representatives or employees, other than in connection with evaluating the transaction described above. Moreover, you agree to reveal the information in this Information Memorandum only to your agents, representatives and employees who need to know the information in this Information Memorandum for the purpose of evaluating the transaction described above, who are informed by you of the confidentiality of this Information Memorandum. You agree to apply the same degree of care to maintain the confidentiality of the information contained in this Information Memorandum as you do to maintain the confidentiality of your own confidential information. You agree to be responsible for any breach of the terms hereof by any of your agents, representatives or employees, and to indemnify and hold Sunbeam, the Agents and their representatives, agents, partners and employees harmless from and against all liabilities, claims, causes of action, costs and expenses (including attorney's fees and expenses) arising out of the breach of the terms hereof by you or your agents, representatives or employees.
2. Without the Agents' and Sunbeam's prior written consent, you and your agents, representatives and employees shall not disclose to any other person or entity the fact that this Information Memorandum has been made available, the fact that discussions are taking place concerning a possible transaction or any other terms, conditions or other facts with respect to any such possible transactions (including the status thereof).
3. This Agreement shall be inoperative as to such portions of this Information Memorandum that: (i) are or become generally available to the public through no fault or action by you or by your agents, representatives or employees or (ii) become available to you on a non-confidential basis from a source, other than Sunbeam, the Agents or any of their representatives, which is not prohibited from disclosing such portions to you by a contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation to Sunbeam or the Agents.
4. If you or anyone to whom you transmit the information in this Information Memorandum pursuant to the terms hereof becomes legally compelled to disclose any of the information in this Information Memorandum, you shall provide the Agents and Sunbeam with prompt prior notice so that the Agents and Sunbeam may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the provisions of the terms hereof. You agree to cooperate with the Agents and Sunbeam to take all reasonably available actions to obtain a protective order or other appropriate remedy. If such protective order or other

Cautionary Statements

Certain of the information contained herein may contain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as the same may be amended from time to time (the "Act") and in releases made by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") from time to time. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance, or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future results, performance, or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. The words "estimate," "project," "intend," "expect" and similar expressions, when used in connection with the Company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Any such forward-looking statements are based on various factors and derived utilizing numerous important assumptions and other important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. These Cautionary Statements are being made pursuant to the Act, with the intention of obtaining the benefits of the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the Act. The Company cautions investors that any forward-looking statements made by the Company are not guarantees of future performance and that actual results may differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including, but not limited to, those set forth below. Important assumptions and other important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: (i) risks associated with leverage, including cost increases due to rising interest rates; (ii) risks associated with Sunbeam's ability to continue its strategy of growth through acquisitions; (iii) risks associated with Sunbeam's ability to successfully integrate all of its recent acquisitions; (iv) risks associated with Sunbeam's ability to increase revenues by leveraging sales of Sunbeam, Signature Brands and First Alert products through Coleman's existing distribution channels, and by leveraging sales of Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert products through Sunbeam's existing distribution channels, particularly in foreign markets; (v) risks associated with Sunbeam's ability to realize the anticipated cost savings of its restructuring program, including the timing thereof; (vi) risks associated with Sunbeam's ability to implement its planned divestitures, including the amount of the net proceeds to be realized and the timing thereof; (vii) Sunbeam's ability to make effective acquisitions in the future and to successfully integrate newly acquired businesses into existing operations and the risks associated with such newly acquired businesses; (viii) Sunbeam's and Coleman's ability to maintain and increase market share for their respective products at anticipated margins; (ix) Sunbeam's ability to successfully introduce new products and to provide on-time delivery and a high level of customer service; (x) changes in laws and regulations, including changes in tax rates, accounting standards, environmental laws, occupational, health and safety laws; (xi) access to foreign markets together with foreign economic conditions, including currency fluctuations; (xii) uncertainty as to the effect of competition in Sunbeam's or Coleman's existing and potential future lines of business; (xiii) fluctuations in the cost and availability of raw materials and/or products in relation to historical levels; (xiv) changes in the availability and relative costs of labor; (xv) effectiveness of advertising and marketing programs; (xvi) the effect of, or changes in, general economic conditions; (xvii) economic uncertainty in Japan, Korea and other Asian countries, as well as Mexico, Venezuela and other Latin American countries; (xviii) weather conditions that are adverse to the specific businesses of Sunbeam and Coleman; and (xix) risks related to product quality, including excess warranty costs, product liability expense and costs of possible product recall. Other factors and assumptions not identified above were also involved in the derivation of these forward-looking statements, and the failure of such other assumptions to be realized as well as other factors may also cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. The Company assumes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, changes in assumptions or changes in other factors affecting such forward-looking statements.

Re: Sunbeam Corporation
$1.7 billion Senior Secured Credit Facilities

Dear Mr. Gilbert:

_____ ("Lender") is pleased to confirm its commitment of $_____ million, on a pro rata basis to the $400 million Revolving Credit Facility and to the $550 million Term Loan A, for Sunbeam Corporation (the "Company"), the terms of which are outlined in the Summary of Terms and Conditions accompanying the Information Memorandum dated June 1998.

The Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon Morgan Stanley, BARS, First Union, the Company, or any of their respective affiliates or any other person, and based on the financial statements of the Company and its affiliates and such other documents and information as the Lender has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this commitment. The Lender acknowledges and agrees that the commitment may be reduced so that the aggregate commitments do not exceed the aggregate amount of the required Senior Secured Credit Facilities. The Company and the Agents reserve the right to allocate commitments at their sole discretion.

The Lender confirms that it has not marketed or discussed this transaction in the secondary market, and will not do so until specific written notice is provided by the Agents.

Our commitment is subject to our satisfaction (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) with final documentation.

Very truly yours,

Re: Sunbeam Corporation
$1.7 billion Senior Secured Credit Facilities

Dear Mr. Gilbert:

_____ ("Lender") is pleased to confirm its commitment of $_____ million toward the $750 million Term Loan B for Sunbeam Corporation (the "Company"), the terms of which are outlined in the Summary of Terms and Conditions accompanying the Information Memorandum dated June 1998.

The Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon Morgan Stanley, BARS, First Union, the Company, or any of their respective affiliates or any other person, and based on the financial statements of the Company and its affiliates and such other documents and information as the Lender has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this commitment. SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Executive Summary

Transaction Overview

Sunbeam Corporation is a leading designer, manufacturer, marketer and distributor of branded consumer products. Prior to the Acquisitions, the Company's principal brands included Sunbeam®, Oster® and Grillmaster® products marketed in five categories. Each of these products has a leading market share in its category and enjoys high levels of brand name recognition among consumers. The Company distributes primarily through mass merchandisers, home centers and club channels, including Wal-Mart, Kmart, Sears, Target and Home Depot. In 1996 Sunbeam commenced a restructuring under the guidance of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Albert J. Dunlap (the "1996 Restructuring"). As a result, Sunbeam's net revenues increased to $1.2 billion from $984 million and EBITDA increased to $239 million from $48.0 million in 1997 over 1996, respectively.

On March 2, 1998, Sunbeam announced the acquisition of three leading branded consumer products companies. The acquisitions included The Coleman Company, Inc., a leading manufacturer and marketer of products for the outdoor recreation market ("Coleman"); Signature Brands USA, Inc., a leading manufacturer of a comprehensive line of consumer and professional products, including the Mr. Coffee® brand ("Signature Brands"); and First Alert, Inc., the market leader in smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in the United States ("First Alert" and collectively with Coleman and Signature Brands, the "Acquisitions"). Sunbeam believes that the Acquisitions consist of leading brands in underperforming companies that present significant opportunities for cost savings through the elimination of inefficient and redundant operations. Sunbeam also believes that significant additional revenue can be derived from synergistic use of the global distribution channels that result from the combination of Sunbeam's domestic and the Acquisitions' international distribution networks. On a pro forma basis, Sunbeam's product portfolio consists of 13 leading brand names competing in 10 broad categories with 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of approximately $2.7 billion and $426 million, respectively.

On May 11, 1998, Sunbeam announced a comprehensive integration program (the "Integration") with expected annual cost savings of $253 million (the "Integration Cost Savings"), to be achieved by the middle of 1999. The Company also announced that it expects to achieve incremental revenue of $265 million as a result of improved sales management techniques, distribution synergies resulting from the Acquisitions and new product introductions ("Revenue Opportunities"). As part of the Integration and Revenue Opportunities, Sunbeam intends to implement a new set of strategic initiatives which it believes will further drive the growth of the Company, including (i) focusing the Company's global marketing effort on six "Power Brands", (ii) the introduction of dedicated, multifunctional sales teams to serve each of Sunbeam's top six customers, and (iii) the introduction of new products. Sunbeam also announced its intention to divest three non-core Coleman businesses.

The total consideration for the Acquisitions is approximately $2.6 billion (based on the market price of Sunbeam common stock on the date the Acquisitions were announced) consisting of a combination of cash and Sunbeam stock. The cash portion of the consideration was raised through the $1.7 billion Senior Secured Credit Facilities (the "Facilities") underwritten by Morgan Stanley, BARS and First Union and the issuance of the Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated Debentures due 2018.

Acquisition Summary

Coleman is a leading manufacturer and marketer of consumer products for the worldwide outdoor recreation market. Coleman's principal brands include Coleman®, Camping Gaz®, EastPak® and Peak I®. The total consideration for Coleman is approximately $2.1 billion (based on the market price of Sunbeam common stock on the date the Acquisitions were announced). The Company expects to issue approximately 21.3 million shares of common stock with the balance of the consideration paid in cash. Coleman had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $1.2 billion and $99.0 million, respectively.

Signature Brands is a leading manufacturer of a comprehensive line of consumer and professional products. Signature Brands' principal brands include Mr. Coffee®, Health o meter®, Pelouze®, Counselor® and Borg®. The Signature Brands consideration was approximately $253 million. Signature Brands had fiscal 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $276 million and $31.0 million, respectively.

First Alert is the market leader in smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in the United States. First Alert's principal brands include First Alert®, Family Guard®, Suregrip® and BRK®. The First Alert transaction was valued at approximately $178 million. First Alert had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $187 million and ($2.7) million, respectively.

On March 2, 1998, Sunbeam announced the Acquisitions including Coleman, a leading manufacturer and marketer of products for the outdoor recreation market; Signature Brands, a leading manufacturer of a comprehensive line of consumer products, including the Mr. Coffee® brand; and First Alert, the market leader in smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in the United States. On a pro forma basis Sunbeam had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of approximately $2.7 billion and $426 million, respectively.

On May 11, 1998, Sunbeam announced the Integration with expected annual cost savings of $253 million to be achieved by the middle of 1999. The Company also announced that it expects to achieve incremental revenue of $265 million as a result of Revenue Opportunities. As part of the Integration and the Revenue Opportunities, Sunbeam intends to implement a new set of strategic initiatives which it believes will further drive the growth of the Company, including (i) focusing the Company's global marketing effort on six "Power Brands", (ii) the introduction of dedicated, multifunctional sales teams for Sunbeam's top six customers, and (iii) the introduction of new products.

Sunbeam also announced its intention to divest three non-core businesses acquired with Coleman. The businesses to be divested include EastPak®, spas and air compressors (the "Dispositions"). The Company has retained Morgan Stanley to evaluate the businesses and expects to complete the sales by late 1998.

The Acquisitions

Sunbeam believes that Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert comprise leading brands in underperforming companies that present significant opportunities for cost savings through the elimination of inefficient and redundant operations. Sunbeam also believes that significant additional revenue can be derived from synergistic use of the global distribution channels that results from the combination of Sunbeam's domestic and the Acquisitions' international distribution networks. Coleman's products fall principally under Sunbeam's Outdoor division, while Signature Brands and First Alert products fall under Sunbeam's Indoor division.

Coleman. Coleman is a leading manufacturer and marketer of consumer products for the worldwide outdoor recreation market. Its products have been sold domestically and internationally under the Coleman brand name since the 1920s. Coleman had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $1.2 billion and $99.0 million, respectively.

- Outdoor Recreation: Includes lanterns and stoves, propane and butane fuel, coolers and jugs, recreational soft goods (including tents, sleeping bags, backpacks and duffel bags), outdoor furniture, electric lights, spas and camping accessories. Coleman believes it is the leading worldwide manufacturer of lanterns and stoves for outdoor recreational use and a leading supplier to the worldwide camping and outdoor recreation market of propane and butane cartridges and camping fuel. Coleman's products are marketed under the brand names Coleman[®], Camping Gaz[®] and EastPak[®]. The Company intends to dispose of EastPak[®] and spas.
- Hardware: Includes portable generators and air compressors. Coleman is a leading worldwide manufacturer and distributor of portable generators. These products are distributed predominantly through mass merchandisers and home center chains under the Powermate[®] brand name. The Company intends to dispose of the air compressor business.

In March 1998, Coleman sold its subsidiary, Coleman Safety Security Products, Inc. for approximately $105 million. This subsidiary had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $88.4 million and $11.6 million, respectively. The EastPak[®], spas and air compressors businesses of Coleman which Sunbeam intends to divest had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $190 million and $12.2 million, respectively.

Signature Brands. Signature Brands, founded in 1919, is a leading manufacturer of a comprehensive line of consumer and professional products. Signature Brands had fiscal year end September 28, 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $276 million and $31.0 million, respectively.

- Consumer Products: Signature Brands markets its consumer products under the Mr. Coffee®, Health o meter®, Counselor® and Borg® brand names. Mr. Coffee, Inc. has been the leading producer of automatic drip coffeemakers in the U.S. since 1975. In addition, Mr. Coffee® is the leading brand of basket-type coffee filters in the United States. Signature Brands also manufactures a comprehensive line of Health o meter® brand analog (mechanical) and digital (electronic) floor scales and waist-high and eye-level scales.
- Professional Products: Professional products include the Pelouze® and Health o meter® brands of office, foodservice and medical scales and Mr. Coffee® brand commercial coffeemakers. Signature Brands' office products, marketed under the Pelouze® brand name, include analog and digital scales designed to provide mailing solutions for small, commercial establishments, home offices and departments within larger companies that process a small to medium volume of letters and packages daily. Pelouze® foodservice products include analog and digital portion control scales, thermometers and timers for commercial and non-commercial applications.

First Alert. First Alert is the market leader in smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in the United States. First Alert's market position is supported by the strength of the First Alert® brand name, which First Alert believes is the most widely recognized consumer brand in the home safety market. First Alert has capitalized on its brand name and its leading smoke detector market share to develop and market a broad range of residential safety products. First Alert is also one of the leading participants in the United States retail fire extinguisher market. First Alert had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $187 million and ($2.7) million, respectively.

- Smoke Detectors. First Alert's smoke detector product line consists of UL listed photoelectric and ionization smoke detectors and has the leading U.S. market share in its markets. First Alert markets its smoke detectors under three principal brand names: First Alert®, Family Gard® and BRK®.
- Carbon Monoxide Detectors: These products include carbon monoxide detectors, first introduced by First Alert in September 1993, with biomimetic sensors sold under the First Alert® and Family Gard® brand names. First Alert holds the leading market position in the carbon monoxide detector market.
- Fire Extinguishers: First Alert's disposable fire extinguisher product line was introduced in 1985 to complement its First Alert® brand smoke detectors. These products are sold under the Sure Grip® brand name which is one of the leading brand names in the U.S. retail fire extinguisher market.

Integration Cost Savings

Management intends to capitalize on its extensive experience in cost containment and operational improvement by eliminating redundant or inefficient operations of the Acquisitions and Sunbeam's Mexican operations. The Company has announced that it expects to achieve annual cost savings of $253 million by the middle of 1999. The cost savings will be generated from nine categories: procurement, sourcing strategy, staff reduction, facility rationalization, controllable expenses, transportation expense reduction, marketing and sales expense savings, working capital reductions and the implementation of new information technology. In 1998, $60.0 million of these savings have been included in the projections contained herein, with $150.0 million per annum included thereafter.

The Company expects to incur approximately $280 million in charges related to implementing the Integration (the "Implementation Charges"). The Implementation Charges consist of cash charges of approximately $150 million and approximately $130 million in non-cash charges. (See Appendix A for detailed description of the Integration Cost Savings and Implementation Charges).

Revenue Opportunities

Sunbeam expects distribution synergies with the Acquisitions, improved sales management techniques and planned new product introductions to generate at least $265 million in annual incremental revenues commencing in 1999. The distribution synergy is derived predominantly from using Sunbeam's domestic and Latin American distribution networks to promote the Acquisitions' products and the Coleman European and Asian distribution network to promote the Sunbeam, Signature Brands and First Alert brand portfolio. The Company expects to generate

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Executive Summary

$140 million in incremental 1999 revenues through these cross-marketing initiatives. Sunbeam is also establishing dedicated, multifunctional sales teams to serve each of its six largest customers. The Company expects this and other sales management techniques to generate $50.0 million in incremental 1999 revenues. The Company also expects new products to contribute $75.0 million in additional 1999 revenues. In 1999, $80.0 million of incremental revenues have been included in the projections contained herein. (See Appendix B for detailed description of Revenue Opportunities)

New Management Structure

As part of the Integration and Revenue Opportunities, the Company has established a new corporate organizational structure to improve communications and increase decision-making responsibility. As of February 1, 1998, certain key members of management including Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, and Mr. Fannin, signed new three year employment contracts with the Company which include substantial equity-based compensation incentives.

Dispositions

In connection with the Integration, Sunbeam plans to divest three non-core businesses that do not fit its strategic focus. The businesses comprise the EastPak[®] backpack, spa and compressor businesses that were acquired as a part of Coleman. The Company believes that the divestitures will generate aggregate pre-tax proceeds of $250 to $350 million based on preliminary estimates. These businesses had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $190 million and $12.2 million, respectively. Proceeds from Dispositions will be applied toward Mandatory Repayment of the facilities, subject to certain baskets as outlined in the Credit Facilities.

The Company considers each of the businesses to be non-core as follows:

EastPak[®] - The EastPak[®] product is "fashion" oriented rather than "outdoor recreation" oriented. The Company recognizes that the fashion nature of this offering does not meet the need of the outdoor recreation consumer for highly functional and durable products. Also, the distribution channels for the EastPak[®] product are different from those of the Company's other outdoor recreation products. Neither the product nor the channels fit within Sunbeam's long-term strategic focus.

Spas - The distribution channels through which the spa products are sold are incompatible with the Company's other outdoor recreation channels. These channels do not fit within Sunbeam's long-term strategic focus.

Compressors - The Company considers the product to be "power tool" oriented rather than "outdoor recreation" oriented. This sort of product does not fit within Sunbeam's long-term strategic focus.

Recent Financial Developments

Actual revenues for the first quarter of 1998 (excluding any pro forma adjustments for the Acquisitions) were $244.3 million, compared with $253.5 million in the first quarter of 1997. Before one-time charges of $36.8 million for early retirement of debt and compensation expense relating to new three-year employment agreements with Sunbeam's top three executives, there was a net loss from continuing operations of $7.8 million in the 1998 quarter versus net income from continuing operations of $20.6 million in the year-ago quarter. After the one-time charges of $.43 per share, the loss per share was $0.52 in the 1998 quarter compared with earnings per share of $0.08 in the 1997 period.

Domestic sales, representing 74% of total revenues (excluding Coleman) in the 1998 quarter, declined 15.4% from the 1997 quarter due to lower price realization and unit volume declines. Most of the domestic sales decline was in outdoor cooking products due to lower than anticipated retail sell-through of these products. International sales, representing 26% of total revenues during the first quarter, grew 14.0% over the first quarter of 1997. This sales growth was driven primarily by improved distribution and new products sales in Latin America, partially offset by lower sales of outdoor cooking products in Europe and Canada. The gross margin for the first quarter of 1998 decreased 13.3 percentage points to 13.4%, primarily due to margin erosion in the appliance, health at home and outdoor cooking categories. (See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" contained in Sunbeam's 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 1998.)

Recent Legal Proceedings

On May 15, 1998 a purported class action entitled Claybrook et al. v. BRK, Inc. et al. ("Claybrook") was filed in the Circuit Court of Tuscaloosa County, Alabama against the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary BRK Brands, Inc. The complaint alleges misrepresentation, breach of express and implied warranties, and unjust enrichment due to purported defects in First Alert® Ionization Smoke Detectors. The plaintiff has expressly excluded all claims for personal injury or wrongful death from this action. The complaint alleges that ionization smoke detectors do not perform adequately and that the Company concealed and misrepresented information about the alleged limitations of First Alert® Ionization Smoke Detectors. The plaintiff seeks economic damages in an unspecified amount. The Company is currently investigating this action and anticipates preparing a vigorous defense to the lawsuit.

Investment Considerations

- Experienced, Committed Management Team Has Proven Success with Restructurings

The Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Albert Dunlap, and management team, have had significant success in restructuring underperforming corporations. Under the guidance of Mr. Dunlap, Sunbeam significantly increased revenues, EBITDA margins, productivity, capacity utilization and reduced product development time as part of the 1996 Restructuring. As of February 1, 1998, the Company entered into new three-year employment contracts with Mr. Dunlap, Russell A. Kersh, the company's Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer, and David C. Fannin, the Company's Executive Vice President, Chief Legal Officer and Secretary, each of which include substantial equity-based compensation incentives.

The 1996 Restructuring included the rationalization of Sunbeam's core products, divestiture of non-core businesses, and the closing of 18 factories, 43 warehouses and 5 headquarters offices. The Company also reduced the number of stock keeping units ("SKU's") from approximately 11,400 to 2,000, consolidated all purchasing functions, and outsourced certain of the administrative, manufacturing and distribution activities. These actions led to a reduction of nearly half the work force from 12,000 to 7,000 employees.

	12/31/96	12/31/97	Change
Sales	$984MM	$1,168MM	+$184MM

of Employees	12,000	7,000	-5,000
of SKUs	11,400	2,000	-9,400

In 1997, net sales grew 18.7% and operating margin improved to 17.1% from 0.5% (excluding the impact of special charges) in 1996, with operating margins reaching 20% in the fourth quarter of 1997 up from 0.2% before the turnaround. EBITDA margins also increased from 4.9% in 1996 to 22.3% in the fourth quarter of 1997. The Company also signed 25 new international distribution/licensing agreements which added $35.0 million in revenue, introduced 89 new products (35 U.S., 54 international) which added $150 million in revenue. The Company conducted significant expansion of distribution with key retailers such as Wal-Mart, Kmart, Target, Costco and Home Depot. The Company improved capacity utilization to 75% in 1997 (from 50% in 1996) and increased factory productivity by over 20% as a result of more efficient manufacturing processes. New product development time was decreased to 6 months from over 2 years, and Sunbeam gained market share in each of its principal product categories in 1997.

- Compelling Acquisition Rationale

Each of Coleman's, Signature Brands' and First Alert's principal products are leaders within their markets and compliment Sunbeam's existing portfolio of leading brand names. On a combined basis Sunbeam has the number one market share in 10 of 13 categories and is number two in the remaining three. The Company believes that leading branded products generate higher margins and have greater influence with distribution channels regarding shelf location, shelf space and promotional activities.

- Exceptional Brand Recognition Profile

Coleman, Mr. Coffee and First Alert are highly recognized among consumers with brand recognition ratings ranging from 67% for Coleman to 95% for Mr. Coffee. These products fit well with the Sunbeam and Oster brand portfolios which rate 95% and 90%, respectively. Sunbeam believes that these recognition ratings result in consumers seeking out and purchasing the Company's consumer products.

- Critical Mass/Consolidated Supplier to Retail Chains

On a pro forma basis, Sunbeam had 1997 net revenues of $2.7 billion with 13 leading consumer brands in 10 broad categories. The Company believes that it will be well-positioned as a consolidated consumer products supplier to the relatively concentrated retail channels to which it sells its products. The Company believes that these retail channels prefer to deal with fewer suppliers, with more comprehensive product lines, and therefore, expect the Acquisitions to improve its relationships with these customers. In particular, the Company believes its dedicated, multifunctional sales teams will maximize its sales to its six key customers.

- Substantial Integration Cost Savings

The Company, with the assistance of Coopers and Lybrand, has completed a comprehensive Integration plan which by the middle of 1999 is expected to generate annualized cost savings of $253 million from the following categories:

Savings Category	Savings ($ in millions)
Procurement	$ 66
Sunbeam Sourcing Strategy ⁽¹⁾	52
Staff Reduction	50
Facility Rationalization	32
Controllable Expenses	24
Transportation	11
Marketing and Sales Expenses	8
Working Capital Reduction	7
Information Technology	3
Total Cost Savings	$253

(1) Commenced prior to the Coopers and Lybrand study.

Sunbeam management has specific experience from the 1996 Restructuring to enable it to implement the Integration. The actions required to realize the cost savings are underway and the Company expects the actual savings to impact EBITDA commencing in the third quarter of 1998, with the full impact expected by the middle of 1999. For projection purposes $60.0 million of Integration Cost Savings have been included in 1998 with $150.0 million per annum included thereafter. (See Appendix A for a detailed description of the Integration Cost Savings.)

Sunbeam is implementing initiatives that it expects will increase its order fill efficiency from 79% to 90%. Sunbeam is also establishing dedicated, multifunctional sales teams to serve each of its six largest customers and is improving telesales coverage of its smaller accounts. The Company expects these opportunities to generate $50.0 million in incremental 1999 revenues.

The Company also expects new product introductions to contribute $75.0 million in additional 1999 revenues. In addition, Sunbeam has significant air cleaner and water purification product introductions underway which are expected to add $50.0 million in incremental revenues in the Health at Home category in the second half of 1998.

Sunbeam has a strong existing distribution system in North America and Latin America which it intends to use to promote the Acquisition brands. Coleman has a strong existing distribution system in Europe and Asia which the Company intends to use to promote the remaining Sunbeam brand portfolio. The Company expects to generate $140.0 million in incremental revenues through these cross-marketing initiatives. (See Appendix B for detailed description of Revenue Opportunities.)

- Conservative Capital Structure

The Credit Facilities are senior to the Company's recently issued $750 million Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated Debentures which mature in 2018 and require no debt service during the tenor of the Credit Facilities. While the holders of the Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated Debentures have the right to put the securities in year five, the Company (which can satisfy the put in either cash or stock) is prohibited under the Credit Agreement from making this payment in cash while the Facilities remain outstanding. (See Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated Debentures Offering Memorandum for further detail.)

Pro forma for the Acquisitions, Sunbeam is projected to generate 1998 net revenues of over $2.8 billion and EBITDA of $459 million. Pro forma 1997 Total Debt to EBITDA is 5.2x. Senior Leverage is 3.4x, reducing to 1.1x within three years. Cash Interest coverage is 3.7x pro forma 1997, and is 2.9x after subtracting capital expenditures. The Company is projected to generate approximately $1.8 billion in cumulative free cash flow by 2003.

Note (1) Assumes conversion of Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated Debentures into common equity in 2002.

Term Loan A Facility. A single drawing under the Term Loan B Facility was made on the Closing Date relating to the acquisition of Signature and First Alert. Amounts prepaid or repaid may not be borrowed.

Interest:

Base Rate and LIBOR loans will be available, as follows:

A. Base Rate Option

Interest shall be at the Base Rate of the Administrative Agent plus the applicable interest margin, payable quarterly in arrears. The Base Rate is defined as the higher of the Federal Funds Rate, as published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, plus $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1%, or the prime commercial lending rate of the Administrative Agent (the "Prime Rate"), as announced from time to time at its head office. Interest will be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 360 days; provided that interest at the Prime Rate will be calculated on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be. Base Rate borrowings and repayments shall be made available on one business day's prior notice and shall be in minimum amounts to be agreed.

B. LIBOR

Interest shall be determined for periods (subject to availability to each Lender) ("Interest Periods") of one, three or six months (as selected by the Borrower) and shall be at an annual rate equal to the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") for the corresponding deposits of U.S. Dollars plus the applicable interest margin. LIBOR will be determined by the Reference Lenders at the start of each Interest Period. Interest will be paid at the end of each Interest Period or quarterly, whichever is earlier, and will be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 360 days. LIBOR will be adjusted for maximum statutory Regulation D reserve requirements (if any). LIBOR borrowings and repayments shall require three business days' prior notice and shall be in minimum amounts to be agreed.

Reference Lenders:

A representative sample of Lenders will be selected as Reference Lenders to establish LIBOR.

Interest Margins:

Initial margins under each of the Revolving Credit Facility and the Term Loan A Facility will be 1.00% for Base Rate loans and

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

2.25% for LIBOR loans. Initial margins under the Term Loan B Facility will be 1.25% for Base Rate loans and 2.50% for LIBOR Loans. Upon delivery of a compliance certificate for fiscal year ended December 31, 1998 of Sunbeam (the "Grid Date"), margins will be determined in accordance with the attached Pricing Grid, based upon Sunbeam's consolidated total leverage ratio. Upon Sunbeam's achievement of an investment grade rating or a leverage ratio of 2.0 to 1 or lower, Sunbeam and the Lenders will amend the Credit Agreement to incorporate a competitive bid loan facility.

Default Interest:

2.00% per annum in excess of the rate (including the applicable interest margin) otherwise applicable on any amount which is not paid when due.

Letter of Credit Fees:

For the account of each Lender, the applicable margin for LIBOR loans, less the fronting fee payable to the issuing bank; and, in each case for the account of the issuing bank, a fronting fee of 1/4% of and all other reasonable and customary fees.

Commitment Fees:

Initially, 0.500% per annum on the daily aggregate unused amounts of the commitments under the Facilities (other than the Term Loan B Facility), payable to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the Lenders, from and after the Initial Closing Date; beginning on the Grid Date, rate to be determined in accordance with the attached Pricing Grid. Accrued commitment fees will be payable quarterly in arrears (calculated on a 360 day basis).

Mandatory Prepayments:

An amount equal to (i) 100% of the net proceeds in excess of $15,000,000 received from the sale or disposition of all or any part of any asset of Sunbeam or any of its subsidiaries (with exceptions, including (a) in the ordinary course of business and for reinvestment of up to $50,000,000 per year and (b) sales of accounts receivables up to $100,000,000), (ii) 100% of the net proceeds received from the issuance of debt (other than permitted debt, which shall include, without limitation, (a) the zero coupon convertible senior subordinated debentures due 2018 of Sunbeam, (b) up to $6,235,000 of general obligation bonds of Sunbeam Products, Inc., (c) up to $4,265,000 of Wayne County Development Bonds, (d) local currency loans to foreign subsidiaries, up to an aggregate principal amount to be agreed and (e) up to $100,000,000 in connection with accounts receivable financing by Sunbeam or any of its subsidiaries after the Initial

Term Loan Facilities prepayments shall be applied to reduce scheduled amortization payments pro rata across all maturities. The Reduction Percentage of Excess Cash Flow shall be 50% until the Leverage Ratio (as defined in the Credit Agreement) is less than 2.75 to 1.0, and 25% thereafter.

Voluntary Prepayments: Permitted in whole or in part, with prior notice and without premium or penalty other than payment of LIBOR breakage costs (if any), subject to limitations as to minimum amounts (to be determined) of prepayments. Partial prepayments of the Term Loan Facilities are to be applied in a manner satisfactory to Sunbeam.

Voluntary Reduction of Commitments: Permitted in whole or in part upon three business days' prior notice, subject to minimum amounts to be agreed.

Security: The Senior Facilities, the guarantees referred to below and any interest rate protection provided by a Lender will be secured by perfected first priority (i) pledges of the stock of Sunbeam's direct and indirect material subsidiaries (subject to limitations for tax purposes in the case of foreign subsidiaries), and security interests in all obligations owed to any Borrower from any of its direct or indirect material subsidiaries, whether outstanding on the Initial Closing Date or made thereafter, and (ii) upon the request of the Requisite Lenders, security interests in and liens upon substantially all other assets (subject to exceptions, including for accounts receivables financing and for real property securing or permitted to secure industrial revenue bonds or other similar debt, up to amounts to be agreed) now or hereafter owned by Sunbeam and such subsidiaries, including, but not limited to, accounts receivable, inventory, general intangibles and real property of Sunbeam and such subsidiaries. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no pledge of stock of CLN Holdings, Coleman Worldwide, or Coleman or any Coleman subsidiary shall be created until the later of (i) consummation of the second-step Coleman merger and (ii) the redemption of the CLN Holdings Notes and the Coleman Worldwide LYONs. Since the closing of the second-step Signature merger and the second-step First Alert merger, pledges in the stock of each of the direct and indirect material subsidiaries of Signature and First Alert have been created. The Lenders intend to exercise their rights to require that Sunbeam and the Subsidiary Guarantors grant security interests in and liens upon all of their assets (other than real property assets).

Guarantees:

The Senior Facilities are guaranteed, on a joint and several basis, by all of Sunbeam's direct and indirect material subsidiaries (subject to limitations for tax purposes in the case of foreign subsidiaries) and, any loans made to Coleman, Signature and First Alert, will be guaranteed by Sunbeam. Such guarantees will (i) if requested by the Agents, provide for a complete waiver by the guarantors thereunder of any rights to subrogation, reimbursement or indemnification, (ii) upon the request of the Requisite Lenders, be secured by substantially all assets owned by such guarantors and (iii) be limited to the largest amount that would not render the obligations subject to avoidance under applicable bankruptcy law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no guarantee will be given by CLN Holdings, Coleman Worldwide, Coleman or any Coleman subsidiary until the later of the consummation of the second-step Coleman merger and the redemption of the CLN Holdings Notes and the Coleman Worldwide LYON's. Since the consummation of the second-step Signature merger and the second-step First Alert merger, guarantees have been given by each of Signature and First Alert and their direct and indirect material domestic subsidiaries.

Documentation:

The Senior Facilities are subject to a Credit Agreement (including schedules, exhibits and ancillary documentation) and related security agreements, guarantees and other supporting documentation satisfactory to the Lenders. The Credit Agreement contains representations and warranties (including, without

- (v) All conditions to the acquisition of Coleman were met or waived with the concurrence of the Lenders.
- (vi) The Agents' and Lenders' review of and reasonable satisfaction with solvency certificates of officers of Sunbeam, supporting the conclusions that, after giving effect to the Acquisition, the borrowings under the Senior Facilities and the other transactions contemplated hereby, none of the entities liable to the Lenders is insolvent or will be rendered insolvent thereby, will be left with unreasonably small capital with which to engage in its business or will have incurred debts beyond its ability to pay such debts as they mature.
- (vii) The Agents' satisfaction that (i) the borrowings under the Senior Facilities and the other funding for the Acquisition are in full compliance with all legal requirements, including (without limitation) Regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and (ii) all necessary and material licenses, permits and government and third party consents and approvals in connection with such borrowings and the Acquisition have been obtained and remain in effect.
- (viii) Evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Agents of compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, including all applicable environmental laws and regulations, subject to exceptions which are deemed immaterial by the Agents.
- (ix) The Lenders' review of and satisfaction with environmental risks (including the potential levels of environmental liabilities) with respect to the Targets, Sunbeam and their subsidiaries.

- (x) The Agents' receipt of favorable legal opinions, including, without limitation, opinions of Borrowers' counsel.
- (xi) The Agents' satisfaction with all litigation and proceedings against or affecting the Targets, Sunbeam and their subsidiaries deemed material by the Agents.
- (xii) The Administrative Agent, for the benefit of Lenders, receipt of a perfected, first priority security interest as required above under the heading "Security"; supported by appropriate lien searches.
- (xiii) All reasonable costs, fees, expenses (including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses) and other compensation payable to the Lenders or the Agents were paid to the extent due.
- (xiv) The Agents' review of and reasonable satisfaction with the form, scope and substance of a pro forma balance sheet (as of a date to be mutually agreed), reflecting the transactions contemplated hereby, of Sunbeam, prepared by an accounting firm acceptable to the Agents.
- (xv) Concurrently with the initial funding of the Senior Facilities, the acquisition of control of Coleman shall be consummated.

The conditions to the funding of each subsequent extension of credit under the Senior Facilities shall include all conditions which are appropriate for this type of transaction, including, without limitation, the absence of a default or unmatured default and the restatement of all representations and warranties and, in the case of the borrowings under the Term Loan B Facility, included consummation of the acquisition of control of Signature and First Alert, and conditions relevant to those acquisitions.

B. Covenants:

Appropriate for this type of transaction, including, without limitation:

- (i) Financial and other information: certified quarterly and audited annual financial statements, annual budgets and such other reports and compliance certificates, all at Sunbeam's expense, as the Agents shall reasonably specify.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Company Description

Overview

The Company was organized in 1989 as Sunbeam-Oster Company, Inc. In September 1990, Sunbeam acquired the assets and assumed certain liabilities, through a reorganization, of Allegheny International, Inc. In August 1992, the Company completed a public offering of 20,000,000 shares of its common stock. In May 1995, the Company changed its name from Sunbeam-Oster Company, Inc. to Sunbeam Corporation.

Sunbeam Corporation is a leading designer, manufacturer, marketer and distributor of branded consumer products. Prior to the Acquisitions, the Company's principal brands included Sunbeam®, Oster® and Grillmaster® products marketed in five categories. Each of these products has a leading market share in its category and enjoys high levels of brand name recognition among consumers. The Company distributes primarily through mass merchandisers, home centers and club channels, including Wal-Mart, Kmart, Sears, Target and Home Depot. As a result of the 1996 Restructuring, Sunbeam's net revenues increased to $1.2 billion from $984 million and EBITDA increased to $239 million from $48.0 million in 1997 over 1996, respectively.

On March 2, 1998, Sunbeam announced the Acquisitions. Sunbeam believes that the Acquisitions consist of leading brands in underperforming companies that present significant opportunities for cost savings through the elimination of inefficient and redundant operations. Sunbeam also believes that significant additional revenue can be derived from synergistic use of the global distribution channels that result from the combination of Sunbeam's domestic US and the Acquisitions' international distribution networks. On a pro forma basis, Sunbeam's product portfolio consists of 13 leading brand names competing in 10 brand categories with 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of approximately $2.7 billion and $426 million, respectively.

On May 11, 1998, Sunbeam announced the Integration with expected annual cost savings of $253 million to be achieved by the middle of 1999. The Company also announced that it expects to achieve incremental revenue of $265 million as a result of Revenue Opportunities. As part of the Integration and the Revenue Opportunities, Sunbeam intends to implement a new set of strategic initiatives which it believes will further drive the growth of the Company, including (i) focusing the Company's global marketing effort on six "Power Brands", (ii) the introduction of dedicated, multifunctional sales teams for Sunbeam's top six customers, and (iii) the introduction of new products.

The total consideration for the acquisitions of Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert is approximately $2.6 billion which Sunbeam funded with a combination of cash and Sunbeam common stock. The cash portion of the consideration was raised through the Facilities and the Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated Debentures.

The 1996 Restructuring

The 1996 Restructuring resulted in a significant reduction in employees, facilities and costs and is expected to generate approximately $225 million in annual savings for the Company. As a part of the 1996 Restructuring, the Company divested certain non-core business and assets.

The 1996 Restructuring included the rationalization of Sunbeam's core products, the closing of 18 factories, 43 warehouses and 5 headquarters offices. The Company also reduced the number of SKU's from approximately 11,400 to 2,000, consolidated all purchasing functions, and outsourced certain of the administrative, manufacturing and distribution activities and included the divestiture of non-core businesses. These actions led to a reduction of nearly half the work force from 12,000 to 7,000 employees.

	12/31/96	12/31/97	Change
Sales	$984MM	$1,168MM	+$184MM
EBITDA	48MM	239MM	+ 191MM

of Employees	12,000	7,000	-5,000
of SKU's	11,400	2,000	-9,400

The Company also signed 25 new international distribution/licensing agreements which added $35MM in revenue, introduced 89 new products (35 U.S., 54 international) which added $150MM in revenue. The Company conducted significant expansion of distribution with key retailers such as Wal-Mart, Kmart, Target, Costco and Home Depot. The Company improved capacity utilization to 75% in 1997 (from 50% in 1996) and increased factory productivity by over 20% as a result of more efficient manufacturing processes. New product development time was decreased to 6 months from over 2 years and Sunbeam gained market share in each of its principal product categories in 1997.

institutional and commercial channels. Sales of Away from Home products described above accounted for approximately 6% of the Company's domestic net revenues in 1997.

International

The Company markets a variety of products (primarily small kitchen appliances, Personal Care and Comfort products, grills, professional clippers and related products) outside the U.S. While the Company sells many of the same products domestically and internationally, it also sells products designed specifically to appeal to foreign markets. The Company, through its foreign subsidiaries, has manufacturing facilities in Mexico and Venezuela, and sales offices in Canada, the United Kingdom, Hong Kong and Australia. The Company's international products are sourced from the Company's United States, Mexican or Venezuelan manufacturing operations or from vendors primarily located in Asia. International sales accounted for approximately 19% of the Company's total net sales in 1997.

Prior to the Acquisitions the Company's activities outside the United States were primarily focused in Mexico, Latin America and Canada. The Company enjoys a strong market position in a number of product categories in Latin America. The Oster® brand has the leading market share in small appliances in a number of Latin American countries.

The Acquisitions

Coleman is a leading manufacturer and marketer of consumer products for the worldwide outdoor recreation market. Coleman's principal brands include Coleman®, Camping Gaz® and Peak I®. The total consideration for Coleman is approximately $2.1 billion (based on the market price of Sunbeam common stock on the date the Acquisitions were announced). The Company expects to issue approximately 21.3 million shares of common stock with the balance of the consideration paid in cash. Coleman had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $1.2 billion and $99.0 million, respectively.

Signature Brands is a leading manufacturer of a comprehensive line of consumer and professional products. Coleman

Coleman is a leading manufacturer and marketer of consumer products for the worldwide outdoor recreation market. Its products have been sold domestically and internationally under the Coleman brand name since the 1920s. Coleman attributes its leading market position to the strength of its brand names, the breadth of products sold, product quality and innovation, marketing, distribution and manufacturing expertise. Coleman had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $1.2 billion and $99.0 million, respectively.

- Outdoor Recreation: Includes lanterns and stoves, propane and butane fuel, coolers and jugs, recreational soft goods (including tents, sleeping bags, backpacks and duffel bags), outdoor furniture, electric lights, spas and camping accessories. Coleman is the leading worldwide manufacturer of lanterns and stoves for outdoor recreational use and a leading supplier to the worldwide camping and outdoor recreation market of propane and butane cartridges and camping fuel. Coleman's products are marketed under the brand names Coleman®, Camping Gaz® and EastPak®. The Company intends to dispose of its EastPak® and spas businesses.
- Hardware: Includes portable generators and air compressors. Coleman is a leading worldwide manufacturer and distributor of portable generators. These products are distributed predominantly through mass merchandisers and home center chains under the Powermate® brand name. The Company intends to dispose of the air compressor business.

In March 1998 Coleman sold its subsidiary, Coleman Safety Security Products, Inc. for approximately $105 million. This subsidiary had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $88.4 million and $11.6 million, respectively. The EastPak®, spas and air compressors businesses of Coleman which Sunbeam intends to divest had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $190 million and $12.2 million, respectively.

Distribution outlets for Signature Brands products include Sears, J.C. Penney, Macy's, Bed, Bath & Beyond, Caldor, Wal-Mart, Costco, Staples and Office Depot. Signature Brands' products are promoted primarily through national television advertising, magazine advertising, cooperative advertising with retailers and consumer promotions.

- Professional Products: Professional products include the Pelouze® and Health o meter® brands of office, foodservice and medical scales and Mr. Coffee® brand commercial coffeemakers. Signature Brands' reputation for quality and its Health o meter® brand name recognition have been based on its participation in the medical scale market for over 75 years. Products sold as professional products include analog and digital scales for a full range of medical uses, including traditional balance beam scales, pediatric scales, wheelchair ramp scales, chair and sling scales for non-ambulatory patients, and home healthcare scales. Signature Brands' office products, marketed under the Pelouze® brand name, include analog and digital scales designed to provide mailing solutions for small, commercial establishments, home offices and departments within larger companies that process a small to medium volume of letters and packages daily. Pelouze® foodservice products include analog and digital portion control scales, thermometers and timers for commercial and non-commercial applications. Professional scale products are marketed through a combination of direct sales and independent manufacturers' representatives to distributors, dealers, office megastores, mail order companies and major buying groups.

First Alert

First Alert is the market leader in smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in the United States. First Alert's market position is supported by the strength of the First Alert® brand name, which Sunbeam believes is the most widely recognized consumer brand in the home safety market. First Alert has capitalized on its brand name and its leading smoke detector market share to develop and market a broad range of residential safety products. First Alert is also one of the leading participants in the United States retail fire extinguisher market. First Alert had 1997 net revenues and EBITDA of $187 million and ($2.7) million, respectively.

- Smoke Detectors: First Alert's smoke detector product line consists of UL listed photoelectric and ionization smoke detectors and has the leading U.S. market share in its markets. First Alert markets its smoke detectors under three principal brand names: the First Alert® premium brand name, which is featured in media and public relations promotional campaigns; the Family Gard® brand name, which is marketed as a lower priced, functional alternative for those consumers who are price sensitive; and the BRK® brand name, which is sold to the wholesale electrical market.
- Carbon Monoxide Detectors: These products include carbon monoxide detectors, first introduced by First Alert in September 1993, with biomimetic sensors sold under the First Alert® and Family Gard® brand names. First Alert holds the leading market position in the carbon monoxide detector market.

- Fire Extinguishers: First Alert's disposable fire extinguisher product line was introduced in 1985 to complement its First Alert® brand smoke detectors. First Alert currently markets a full range of fire extinguisher products for use by the consumer, including fire extinguishers for use in the kitchen, garage, workshop, automobiles and boats. These products are sold under the Sure Grip® brand name which is one of the leading brand names in the U.S. retail fire extinguisher market.

Sunbeam Post-Acquisition

On a pro forma basis, Sunbeam has 13 leading brands competing in 10 broad categories.

Integration Cost Savings

Management intends to capitalize on its extensive experience in cost containment and operational improvement by eliminating redundant or inefficient operations of the Acquisitions. The Company believes that there are significant opportunities to realize cost savings at the Acquisitions and has announced that it expects to achieve annual cost savings of $253 million by mid-1999. The cost savings will be generated from nine categories: procurement, sourcing strategy staff reduction, facility rationalization, controllable expenses, transportation expense reduction, marketing and sales expense savings, working capital reductions and the implementation of new information technology.

Based on its experience during the 1996 Restructuring the Company estimates that procurement spending can be reduced by approximately 10% or $66 million through centralized raw material and component purchasing, increased percentages of goods sourced from third parties, and improved management of existing sourced goods relationships.

The Company intends to close two factories in Mexico and outsource the production of certain components and finished goods. When complete, Sunbeam will have reduced in-house manufacturing from 70% to 50% and increased outsourced manufacturing from 30% to 50%. The Mexican facilities employ approximately 2,800 employees. Sunbeam will benefit by utilizing low-cost manufacturers of small electric appliances and external component fabricators. Sunbeam expects to generate $52 million in savings from these actions.

The Company intends to reduce its number of employment positions by 1,293 through the sale of businesses, with an additional 2,330 positions reduced by rationalization and outsourcing (in addition to the Mexican closures). Sunbeam expects annual labor costs savings of $50 million to be achieved through these methods.

Sunbeam intends to consolidate 10 headquarters into one, 28 manufacturing facilities into 15, 47 distribution centers into 14 and 35 sales offices into 18. The total facility rationalization through the reduction of facilities from 120 to 48 will generate cost savings of $32 million.

The Company estimates that controllable expenses can be reduced by $24 million. The principal categories include training, subscription, travel, entertainment, professional services and office supplies.

The Company believes that it can generate $11 million in transportation savings through the optimization of its and the Acquisitions' transportation and distribution networks. An additional $18 million in cost savings is expected from marketing, working capital and MIS.

The Company expects to incur a total of $280.5 million in charges related to the Integration consisting of cash charges of $150.1 million and $130.4 million in non-cash charges. (See Appendix A for detailed description of the Integration Cost Savings and Integration Charges)

Revenue Opportunities

Sunbeam expects distribution synergies with the Acquisitions, improved sales management techniques and planned new product introductions to generate at least $265 million in annual incremental revenues commencing in 1999.

The Company has one of the premier mass merchant distribution networks serving large national retailers in the United States and Canada. The Company also has a strong network of well-established distributors and service organizations in Latin America. The Acquisitions will significantly expand the Company's global distribution network, adding Brazil, western Europe, Scandinavia, Australia, South Africa, the Middle East and Asia. The Company believes that it can generate $100 million in incremental 1999 revenue through marketing current products in new geographies.

Asia/Pacific	$13 million Revenue 2 Brands	$115 million Revenue 3 Brands
Total Revenue	$197 million	$525 million

The Company also believes that it can generate $40 million of incremental 1999 revenue by marketing acquired products through existing domestic channels.

Sunbeam is also establishing dedicated, multifunctional sales teams to serve each of its six largest customers, which together currently represent a total of approximately $1 billion in annual revenues to Sunbeam. The Company expects this and other sales management techniques to generate $50.0 million in incremental 1999 revenues.

In 1999, Sunbeam intends to introduce new products under five of its six Power Brands. The Company believes its new products will create significant revenue opportunities by providing new product innovations and value-added features to compete at higher price-points. Sunbeam's goal is to have 30% of its sales generated from new products within five years and to double new products to 20% of sales by 2000. (See Appendix B for detailed description of Revenue Opportunities.)

Power Brands: The Company intends to arrange its brand portfolio into six "Power Brands", which are Sunbeam®, Grillmaster®, Oster®, Mr. Coffee®, Coleman® and First Alert®. The Sunbeam® brand includes irons, blenders and mixers and is positioned as a provider of innovative products. Grillmaster® includes gas and charcoal grills and accessories positioned as premium performance products. The Oster® brand includes blenders, bread makers and clippers and is positioned as professional performance products for the home. Mr. Coffee® includes a variety of coffee makers positioned for mass distribution. Coleman includes stoves, coolers and lanterns, positioned as family recreation products. First Alert® includes smoke detectors, carbon monoxide ("CO") detectors and fire extinguishers, positioned for family safety. Sunbeam plans to use a single global advertising agency for all of its products to maximize the effectiveness of its $160 million annual marketing support spending to drive the growth of its Power Brands on a worldwide basis.

Sales Management: Sunbeam has reorganized its sales organizations to focus on three principal areas: strategic accounts, opportunity accounts and maintenance accounts. The Company's strategic accounts, which include Wal-Mart, Kmart, Target, Sears, Home Depot and club channels accounted for approximately 38% of pro forma 1997 net revenues. Each of these accounts will be supported by a dedicated, multifunctional sales team with account managers focused on each of the Company's principal brands and a business analyst who will align and integrate customer team planning to customer business plans. This initiative is intended to drive incremental growth through brand focus, supply chain efficiency and improved customer relationships.

Customer Team Example

Sunbeam intends to realign its sales representative coverage on its opportunity accounts to improve order-fill rates and maximize category management. The Company intends to expand its telesales to its maintenance accounts to ensure that these accounts receive regular calls and are aware of the Company's entire product line-up.

New Management Structure

As part of the Integration and Revenue Opportunities, the Company has established a new corporate organizational structure to improve communications and increase decision-making responsibility. Although some of the positions in the chart remain vacant, the Company believes that all significant positions will be filled in the near term. As of February 1, 1998, certain key members of management including Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, and Mr. Fannin, signed new three year employment contracts with the Company which include substantial equity-based compensation incentives.

Environmental Matters

The Company's operations, like those of comparable businesses, are subject to certain federal, state, local and foreign environmental laws and regulations in addition to laws and regulations regarding labeling and packaging of products and the sale of products containing certain environmentally sensitive materials ("Environmental Laws"). The Company believes it is in substantial compliance with all Environmental Laws which are applicable to its operations. Compliance with Environmental Laws involves certain continuing costs; however, such costs of ongoing compliance have not resulted, and are not anticipated to result, in a material increase in the Company's capital expenditures or to have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, financial condition or competitive position. In addition to ongoing environmental compliance at its operations, the Company is also actively engaged in certain environmental remediation activities. (For a detailed description of Environmental Matters see disclosure contained in the Additional Available Information).

Year 2000

The company has assessed and continues to assess the impact of the Year 2000 computer issues on its operations, including the development and implementation of project plans and cost estimates required to make its information systems infrastructure Year 2000 compliant. The Company recently completed acquisitions whereby it obtained control of Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert and is currently completing preliminary plans for the integration of the computer systems of these acquired companies into Sunbeam. Based on preliminary estimates, the Company believes that anticipated spending necessary to integrate the computer systems of these acquired companies into Sunbeam systems and to upgrade all such systems to become Year 2000 compliant will be approximately $25 million, however the Company has not yet completed detailed analysis and integration plans with respect to such acquired companies.

Legal Proceedings

The Company and its subsidiaries are involved in various lawsuits arising from time to time. In the opinion of the Company, the resolution of these matters, and of certain matters relating to prior operations of the Company's predecessor, individually or in the aggregate, will not have a material adverse effect upon the financial position or results of operation of the Company. The Company has established reserves for pending litigation which the Company considers to be adequate to cover loss contingencies determined by the Company associated with such proceedings.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Industry Overview

Outdoor Cooking

The U.S. outdoor cooking industry had net revenues of $800 million in 1996 and is expected to exceed $1.0 billion in 1998. Of the total industry, gas grills represent 84% of revenues and 51% of units. The gas grilling segment is growing at over 9% per year while charcoal grilling is declining at a rate of 6% per year as consumers become more diverse in what and how they grill. Key competitors within the industry include Weber, Charbroil and Sunbeam. Weber's best-selling grill is priced at approximately $499. Charbroil and Sunbeam sell grills primarily below $350. The average grill sells for $140 but the fastest selling segment is the $379-and-up segment as increased disposable income translates into upgraded purchases of household products.

Source: IMR

The U.S. outdoor cooking customer base is highly concentrated within the mass merchant and home center channels. Within these channels, the top 3 customers, Wal-Mart, Sears and Home Depot represent 55% of the market. The top 10 represent 83% of sales. Two-thirds of grills are purchased by men with an increasing emphasis on upgraded features and accessories.

The household penetration of grills is 84% in the U.S. It is expected that the average price point of grills will rise as two significant consumer trends continue:

- (i) Consumers are "moving outdoors" and making patios as sophisticated as their kitchens.
- (ii) With 84% penetration, the "trade-up" gas griller is more experienced in grilling and demands a superior product.

Globally, the outdoor cooking market had 1996 revenues of $1.5 billion. Outside the U.S., grilling is primarily charcoal, yet in places such as Europe and Latin America, gas grilling is becoming increasingly popular.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Industry Overview (continued)

Kitchen Devices

The U.S. appliance industry had net revenue of $4.0 billion in 1996. The industry is highly fragmented across 30+ categories, with the largest category representing less than 15% of sales. Among the 12 principal manufacturers with greater than $100 million in consumer sales, Sunbeam with 18% market share is the largest competitor. Others include Black & Decker, Kitchen Aid, Krups, Braun and Cuisinart.

Source: IMR

The U.S. kitchen appliance channel consists predominantly of mass merchants (approximately 50%), C&D and department stores. The overall industry is growing at a pace slower than inflation, yet the consumer will pay premiums for brand names and value added products. In particular, consumers pay premiums for those products which provide convenience (speed, simplicity, reliability) or health benefits (healthy food preparation). New product development which capitalizes on those perceived benefits will likely be key to maintenance and growth of market share and profitability. Companies also compete by adding innovative features to existing products and changing design specifications.

Global markets in Latin American and Asia represent significant growth opportunities for all competitors. Europe is more highly competitive, but also represents growth opportunity.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Industry Overview

Personal Care

The U.S. personal care industry had net revenues of $1.5 billion in 1996. The industry has three principal subcategories, which account for 50% of the industry. Each sub-category has one dominant player: Conair in hair dryers, Norelco in shavers, and Teledyne in shower massagers. Other key competitors include Sunbeam, Wahl, Revlon, and Sassoon.

- Clipper (Oster® vs. Wahl) and mustache/beard trimmer categories (Wahl vs. Norelco) are most competitive for market share leadership
- In hair dryers, Conair's focus is price. Helen of Troy uses licensing (Revlon and Sassoon) and Braun strives for innovation (volumizer)

Source: IMR

The U.S. personal care distribution channels are predominantly mass merchants, department stores, and drug stores.

- Accounts place a premium on innovation
- Traditionally an attractive, high margin category for retailers

The overall industry has grown at a 5 year annual rate of 8% with styling, fashion, and innovation playing a key role in the consumer purchase decision.

Globally, only the U.S. and European markets are well-developed. Significant growth opportunity exists for those manufacturers able to export personal care innovations, that meet local needs, on a global basis.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Health at Home

The U.S. Health at Home industry had net revenues of $2.0 billion in 1996. The industry is highly fragmented with limited brand awareness across nine categories. Only Sunbeam has breadth of product, with representation in all nine categories, including air cleaners, water purifiers, humidification devices, heating pads, scales, massagers, thermometers, dental products and blood pressure monitors. Sunbeam has #1 or #2 share in 3 out of 9 categories.

Other key competitors within the industry include Holmes (#1 in air cleaners) and Brita (#1 in water purifiers).

Source: IMR

With recent consumer interest in health-related products, the industry has grown at rates greater than inflation across virtually all categories. Further, major mass merchandisers view the category as a significant growth opportunity due to the following trends:

1. 76% of consumers feel they should take primary responsibility for their health.
2. Consumer trust is shifting from doctor to pharmacist.

Globally, only the U.S. is well-developed. While Canada, Europe, and Japan represent modest growth opportunities, Latin America and most of Asia remain undeveloped and represent significant growth opportunities to export the "health at home" concept globally.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Professional Care

The U.S. Professional Care industry (Clippers, Blades, Accessories) had 1997 net revenues of $175 million. The primary product within this category is the clipper. Key competitors within the industry include Oster® (49% share in Pet clippers, 33% Barber and Beauty clippers (B&B), 59% Large Animal clippers), Wahl (19% Pet, 33% B&B) and Andis (11% Pet, 10% B&B). Market shares of blades tend to follow those of clippers (both original equipment and replacement manufacturers).

Source: IMR

Distribution of Professional Care products is concentrated in three channels: 38% through Direct Catalog, 38% through Specialty Retail and 24% through Distributors. Professional Care consumers typically value quality and service over price. The Professional Care consumer is willing to pay a premium for a quality "tool" which will be utilized for income generation. For this consumer, time is money: the more heads/pets groomed, the more revenue earned.

International markets remain partially developed. Moser (acquired by Wahl) is the leader in European B&B. Oster® and Lister are Professional Care leaders in Latin America.

Outdoor Recreation and Leisure (excluding Outdoor Cooking)

The U.S. Outdoor Recreation and Leisure industry had had 1997 net revenues of $3.1 billion. Major categories included Camping Gear (Outdoor Furniture, Coolers/Jugs, Sleeping Bags, Tents, and Outdoor Camping Lights), Accessories, Camping Appliances (liquid/propane stoves and lanterns), Propane Fuel, and Liquid Fuel.

Source: IMR

Revenues and growth rates in the major categories are as follows:

Camping Gear	$2,700 million (overall growth +4-5%, with sleeping bags +2%, air beds +26%, tents +10%, coolers and lights +5%)
Accessories	$198 million (growth +7%)
Appliances	$119 million (growth +0%)
Fuel (All)	$86 million (growth +2%)

Key competitors within the Outdoor Recreation industry include *Coleman with 50% to 85% share in Accessories, Appliances, and Fuel; 35% Sleeping Bags (#1), 26% Tents (#1), 50% in Furniture, 24% in Coolers/Jugs, Igloo (36% Coolers/Jugs), and Rubbermaid (21% Coolers/Jugs).

Outdoor Recreation products are distributed primarily through Mass Merchandisers and Sporting Goods outlets.

Research indicates that consumers in the industry are searching for brands which provide durable, reliable products which help them feel prepared, comfortable, and safe while engaging in Outdoor Recreation activities.

Outdoor recreation is popular on a global scale. European markets are well-developed and growing, while developing markets elsewhere in the world (especially Latin America) are emerging rapidly.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Industry Overview (continued)

Smoke Alarms

The U.S. smoke alarm industry experienced 1997 net revenues of $119 million. Key competitors within the industry include First Alert® (72% share), Kidde (6%), and American Sensor (6%).

Source: IMR

The industry has grown significantly over recent years as household penetration has risen from 10% in 1975 to over 90% in 1997. This growth has been fueled by a combination of increased public awareness of the value of smoke detectors and by state and local legislation requiring installation of smoke detectors. The trend to increasingly stringent smoke detector requirements is continuing as more governmental entities adopt legislation and as legislation increasingly covers existing as well as new homes and mandates more smoke detectors per residence. Further growth is expected as the 77 million alarms which are greater than 10 years old are replaced.

Smoke alarms are sold primarily through Mass Merchants (30%) and Home Centers (28%). Purchase of smoke alarms also takes place through Discount Department Stores (12%), Hardware Stores (7%), Warehouse Clubs (5%), Grocery/Drug Stores 1% and various other channels (16%).

International markets are in a much earlier stage of development than the United States market, and the level of development varies greatly from country to country. Market penetration is greatest in the United Kingdom and Canada, where penetration is estimated at 77% and 94% of households, respectively. It is estimated that the penetration rate in developed countries such as France, Germany, and Japan is generally less than 5%. As countries adopt tougher building standards and consumer awareness of fire safety and the value of smoke detectors increases, usage of smoke detectors is certain to increase in developed countries within Europe and Latin America.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

Industry Overview

Carbon Monoxide Detectors

The U.S. carbon monoxide industry experienced consumer revenues of $90 million in 1997. Key competitors within the industry include First Alert® (49% share), Kidde (27% share), and American Sensor (9% share).

Source: JMR

The industry has grown significantly over recent years as household penetration has grown from almost 0% in 1993 to 17% in 1997. This growth has been fueled by increased public awareness of the dangers of carbon monoxide poisoning. As awareness and promotion increase, it is expected the industry will grow to 40+% penetration by 2000 based upon the growth experienced in the smoke detector industry from 1973 to 1980.

Carbon Monoxide (CO) Detectors are sold primarily through the Mass Market and Home Center channels, with Wal-Mart, Kmart, Home Depot, and Target representing 62% of industry sales. Due to the relative newness of the industry, 73% of purchases are first-time purchases.

Carbon monoxide is produced by the incomplete combustion of fuel. Any device which burns fuel, such as a stove, furnace, water heater, or fireplace, is a potential source of harmful CO gas. Accordingly, consumer purchases of CO alarms are more seasonal than those of smoke detectors, with the majority of sales occurring in winter months when consumers spend more time indoors.

International markets are virtually undeveloped. As a consumer awareness of the dangers of CO gas grows in the global marketplace, demand for the product will most likely follow that of smoke detectors (i.e. Canada and the U.K. first, followed by other developed countries in Europe and Latin America).

Financial Projections and Assumptions

Overview

The financial projections are based upon a number of assumptions and estimates prepared by the Company that, while presented with numerical specificity and considered reasonable by the Company when taken as a whole, are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive, regulatory and operational uncertainties, contingencies and risks, many of which are beyond the control of the Company. The assumptions described herein constitute all the assumptions that the Company believes are significant to the Financial Projections. Actual results may vary from the financial projections.

General

The Dispositions have not been separated in the projections. In 1997 the Dispositions had net revenues and EBITDA of $190 million and $12.2 million respectively and are expected to generate $250-350 million in pre-tax proceeds based on preliminary projections. The Dispositions are subject to the Asset Sale provisions contained in the Facilities.

While the Company expects to derive incremental 1999 revenues of $265 million from the Revenue Opportunities, for projection purposes, only $80 million has been included in the 1999 revenue growth assumptions outlined below. (See Appendix B for a detailed description of Revenue Opportunities.)

While the Company expects total cost savings to be approximately $253 million, to be achieved by the middle of 1999, for projection purposes $60.0 million of savings is assumed for 1998 and $150 million is assumed in the years thereafter. (See Appendix A for a detailed description of Integration Cost Savings.)

The Company expects Implementation charges to be $280 million of which $150 million are cash charges in 1998. (See Appendix A for a detailed description of Implementation Charges.)

Income Statement:

- Revenues

Indoor 1998:

Appliances: Revenues increase $55.4 million over 1997 as international growth more than offsets domestic revenue decline as domestic retailers sell off excess inventories.

Health and Safety: Revenues increase $104 million over 1997 as new products and improved distribution of First Alert products increase sales.

PCC/Professional: Revenues are projected to increase $3.5 million as availability of personal and professional clippers is improved over 1997. Blanket revenues are assumed to be flat.

*Indoor
1999 - 2004:*

Revenues for the Indoor category increase by $88.6 million, or 6% in 1999 over 1998. Of this increase (i) $50.0 million is derived from incremental sales of the Company's new air and water filtration products, (ii) $45.0 million comes from increased international sales, and (iii) $28.6 million is projected to come from 2% assumed growth in the core Indoor businesses. 1998-1999 growth is reduced by $35.0 million due to non-core SKU rationalization and forecasted cannibalism of certain coffee-maker SKUs. From the year 2000 onwards, Indoor revenues are projected to grow at a constant 5% per annum.

*Outdoor
1998:*

Revenue projected to decrease by $40.3 million due to a decline in grill sales and prices, partially offset by increased sales of Coleman products through improved distribution.

*Outdoor
1999 - 2004:*

Revenues for the Outdoor business increase by $61.0 million in the 1998-1999 period, amounting to a 4.5% increase. Of this increase, (i) $10.0 million is projected to come from increased sales of core Sunbeam accessories to major retail customers, (ii) $25.0 million is expected to come from international growth, supported by larger and more efficient distribution networks and cross-distribution into Coleman channels, (iii) $10.0 million comes from growth of Sunbeam's accessories using Coleman's name and distribution channels, and (iv) $26.0 million comes from 2% growth assumed in the core Outdoor businesses. 1998-1999 growth is reduced by $10.0 million due to non-core SKU rationalization. From the year 2000 onwards, Outdoor revenues are projected to grow at a constant 5%.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

- COGS: Cost of goods sold is projected at 71.3% of sales for 1998, and below 70.0% in the years thereafter. The projections assume that one-time margin reductions that were experienced in the first quarter of 1998 do not recur in 1999 and thereafter. Variance in COGS as a percentage of sales is caused by depreciation and capital expenditure assumptions.
- SG&A: SG&A assumptions for both the Indoor and the Outdoor categories are identical. For both categories, total SG&A expenses are split evenly between fixed expenses and variable expenses. Fixed expenses are projected to grow at 5% per annum. Variable expenses grow at the rate of revenue growth.
- Depreciation: Plant, property and equipment is depreciated over its useful life, which ranges from 15 to 40 years. The absolute level of depreciation is driven primarily by Capital Expenditures.
- Amortization: Goodwill resulting from the Company's acquisition of Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert is amortized over 40 years. Fees associated with the Acquisitions, including financing fees, are amortized over the life of the issues. The Company's trademarks are amortized over 25 years.
- Interest: Interest expense on the Revolving Credit facility and the Term Loan A is calculated at the rate of 7.98% (L+2.25%) per annum for 1998 and 7.48% thereafter. Interest on the Term Loan B is calculated at the rate of 8.23% (L+2.50%) per annum for 1998 and 7.73% thereafter. LIBOR is assumed to be 5.73%. Actual interest rates for the Facilities will depend on actual LIBOR and leverage.
- Taxes: The nominal tax rate is assumed at 35%.
- Dividends: Dividends are assumed at the current rate of 1 cent per share per quarter.

Balance Sheet:

- Inventory: Inventory turnover, which was 3.0x in 1997, is assumed to be 3.1x for 1998, 3.2x for 1999 and 3.3x for 2000, remaining constant in the years thereafter. The improvement in turnover over the 1997-2000 period comes from improved inventory forecasting.
- Capital Expenditures: Capital expenditures which were $95.0 million in 1997, are projected to be $100 million in 1998, $120 million in 1999, and $135 million in 2000, increasing by $15.0 million per year thereafter. Maintenance capital expenditures are projected to be approximately 60% of the annual projected expenditures, while the balance is driven by increased investment in new products, technologies and growth.
- Accounts Receivable: Days Outstanding, which was 80.7 days in 1997, is projected to be 83.0 in 1998, 82.0 in 1999 and 81.0 in 2000. The increase in 1998 Days Outstanding is assumed to allow for full integration and coordination of the four financial systems currently in use at Sunbeam, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert. Days Outstanding returns to its historical levels by 2000.
- Accounts Payable: Days Payable, which was 44.1 in 1997, increases to 48.0 in 1998 and remains constant thereafter. This increase results from integration of various Sunbeam financial systems and also from improved negotiation of payment terms with Sunbeam suppliers.

Cost Savings Summary

The Company, in consultation with Coopers and Lybrand, has completed a comprehensive Integration analysis with $253 million in Integration Cost Savings generated from the following categories:

Savings Category	Savings ($ in millions)
Procurement	$66
Sunbeam Sourcing Strategy ⁽¹⁾	52
Staff Reduction	50
Facility Rationalization	32
Controllable Expenses	24
Transportation	11
Marketing and Sales Expenses	8
Working Capital Reduction	7
Information Technology	3
Total Cost Savings	$253

(1) Analysis completed prior to the Acquisitions, not included in Coopers and Lybrand report.

Implementation Charges

One-time implementation charges associated with the Integration and sourcing strategy are expected to total approximately $280.5 million pre-tax, including pre-tax cash costs of approximately $150.1 million.

Procurement Cost Reduction

Annual $663 million procurement spending is expected to be reduced by approximately 10%, saving $66 million per annum.

Purchase Category	Base Spend ($ in millions)	Savings ($ in millions)
Raw Materials & Components	$354	$34
Sourced Goods	273	27
Capital Equipment	21	3
Maintenance, Repair, Operations (MRO)	15	2
Total	$663	$66

Raw material, components and major commodity categories spending can be reduced by implementing the following:

- Centralize purchasing, consolidate fragmented vendor base, rationalize vendor population to concentrate buying power and leverage vendors
- Establish preferred vendor agreements to drive cost reduction, quality, shared R&D, supply reliability, performance metrics with penalties and efficiency
- Institute commodity bid process with target pricing program for savings
- Use Total Cost of Ownership ("TCO") analyses to identify key cost drivers and maximize savings options within cost components
- Migrate qualified suppliers towards vendor certification to eliminate inspection cost overheads
- Drive standardization of materials/parts for leveraging of common items; reduce material cost through specification revisions of item content
- Implement monetary penalties for vendor performance failure, reject material and consequential downtime
- Manage upstream raw material suppliers for component vendors to facilitate finished component cost reduction

Sourced goods spending is expected to be reduced by implementing the following:

- Eliminate foreign agent commission structure (3-5%) by shifting from trade companies to direct factory relationships
- Establish and improve product specifications to hold vendor accountable for quality and to facilitate Design For Manufacturability and Assembly considerations
- Implement well defined vendor agreements to enforce performance accountability and to shift vendor caused expediting costs to vendors
- Establish blanket contracts with preferred suppliers to reduce supplier premiums built in for lack of advance raw material buying possibilities
- Implement pre-shipment inspection overseas to reduce logistics costs on reject product
- Institute professional negotiating and procurement practices to restructure and renegotiate informal, unstructured supply relationships
- Reduce cost and lead-times by controlling/limiting frequency of change orders

Sunbeam Sourcing Strategy

Currently, 70% of Sunbeam products sold to U.S. retailers are manufactured at the Company's own facilities in North America. However, the Company's goal is to source approximately 50% of parts and/or products from third parties in order to reduce capital investment in plants' cost of goods sold. Sunbeam expects incremental annual cost savings of approximately $52 million per annum from closing two factories in Mexico (which have 2,800 employees) and from outsourcing production of certain components and finished goods to less expensive specialized or international producers.

Staff Reductions

Total number of positions will be reduced by 6,423, consisting of 1,293 through sale of businesses, 2,330 by rationalization and outsourcing and 2,800 from the Mexican factory closings.

	Positions

Controllable Expense Reduction

Annual $107 million controllable expenses expected to be reduced by approximately 22%, saving approximately $24 million per annum.

Category	Baseline ($ in millions)	Savings ⁽¹⁾ ($ in millions)
Training, Subscription and Employee Expenses	$ 10.8	$ 6.9
Travel and Entertainment	13.1	5.1
Professional/Outside Services	20.6	3.0
Telephone/Postage	7.0	2.2

Public Relations	0.9	0.8
Utilities	8.1	0.8
Insurance	5.4	0.4
Other	7.7	1.7
Total	$ 107.1	$ 23.6

(1) $26 million facility related expense savings are included in the facility rationalization savings.

The proposed controllable expense reductions are expected to be achieved by implementing the following:

- Eliminate most of controllable expenses associated with the facilities proposed to be closed with minimal offsets experienced for plant integration to existing operations
- Reduce people-related expenses in proportion to the headcount reduction (Telecom, Office Supplies, Travel, Gifts, Awards, Training, Recruiting Relocation)
- Institute aggressive spending policies, controls and budget mechanisms
- Leverage existing Sunbeam contracts and outsourcing arrangements to eliminate the highly localized, fragmented spending
- Capitalize on additional spending volume to renegotiate existing Sunbeam contract rates and agreements

Total	$6.8	$4.2	$11.0

Inbound/outbound transportation expense are expected to be reduced by a total of $11 million per annum.

- Ocean container freight
 - Use inbound freight to leverage export shipment rates
 - Use independent carriers instead of cartel carriers
- Over-the-road Less than Truckload (LTL) freight
 - Consolidation of most acquired firm's product into Sunbeam appliance DCs will generate more economical ship sizes
 - Load center planning for consolidation of inbound shipments
- Over-the-road Truckload (TL) freight
 - Improved negotiating leverage on inbound and outbound freight
 - Procurement group takes over freight contract negotiation
- Small parcel shipments (UPS/RPS)

THE COMPANY MERGER

Section 2.1 The Company Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, and in accordance with the DGCL, at the Company Effective Time, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company. Following the Company Effective Time, the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation"), and the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease. The Company Merger shall have the effects set forth in Section 259 of the DGCL.

Section 2.2 Closing. The closing of the Company Merger (the "Closing") will take place at 10:00 a.m. on a date to be specified by the parties (the "Closing Date"), which shall be no later than the third NYSE trading day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Section 8.1, at the offices of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, 919 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10022, unless another time, date or place is agreed to in writing by the parties hereto.

Section 2.3 Company Effective Time of the Company Merger. The Company Merger shall become effective on the date and at the time at which a properly executed certificate of merger (the "Certificate of Merger") is duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The Certificate of Merger shall be filed as soon as practicable on or after the Closing Date. When used in this Agreement, the term "Company Effective Time" shall mean the date and time on which the Certificate of Merger is so filed.

Section 2.4 Certificate of Incorporation. From and after the Company Effective Time, the certificate of incorporation of the Company as in effect at the Company Effective Time (the "Certificate of Incorporation") shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until amended as provided by Law and the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 2.5 By-Laws. From and after the Company Effective Time, the by-laws of Merger Sub as in effect at the Company Effective Time shall be the by-laws of the Surviving Corporation until amended as provided by the DGCL, the Certificate of Incorporation and the terms thereof.

Section 2.6 Directors. The directors of Merger Sub at the Company Effective Time shall be the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation and shall hold office from the Company Effective Time until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualify in the manner provided in the Certificate of Incorporation and by-laws of the Surviving Corporation or as otherwise provided by the DGCL (it being understood that the directors of the Company shall resign upon the later of (i) the Holdings Effective Time and (ii) the eleventh (11th) day following the date on which the Section 14(f) Notice shall have been filed with the SEC and mailed to all stockholders of record of the Company in accordance herewith).

Section 2.7 Officers. The officers of the Company at the Company Effective Time shall be the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation and shall hold office from the Company Effective Time until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualifies in the manner provided in the Certificate of Incorporation and by-laws of the Surviving Corporation, or as otherwise provided by Law.

ARTICLE III

CONVERSION OF SHARES

Section 3.1 Effect on Capital Stock. At the Company Effective Time, by virtue of the Company Merger and without any action on the part of any holder thereof:

(a) Conversion of Company Common Stock.

(i) Subject to Section 3.1(b) hereof, each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Company Effective Time (other than Dissenting Shares and Company Common Stock to be cancelled in accordance with Section 3.1(c) hereof) shall be converted into the right to receive (A) 0.5677 (the "Conversion Number") of a fully paid and nonassessable share of Laser Common Stock and (B) $6.44 in cash, without interest thereon (the consideration referred to in this Section 3.1(a) being sometimes referred to herein as the "Per Share Merger Consideration").

(ii) If, prior to the Company Effective Time, Laser shall (A) pay a dividend in, subdivide, combine into a smaller number of shares or issue by reclassification of its shares, any shares of Laser Common Stock, the Conversion Number shall be adjusted appropriately or (B) pay a dividend (other than regular quarterly dividend payments, consistent with past practice), whether in cash or property, the amount of the cash portion of the Per Share Merger Consideration shall be appropriately adjusted such that the amount of cash to be received with respect to each share of Company Common Stock, or if a dividend shall have been paid in other property, cash and other property to be received with respect to each share of Company Common Stock, shall be equal to that which would have been received in the aggregate with respect to each share of Company Common Stock (on a per share equivalent basis) had the dividend been paid following the Company Effective Time at a time when the Laser Shares to be issued pursuant hereto had been issued to the holders of the shares of Company Common Stock.

(iii) Each of the shares of Company Common Stock converted in accordance with paragraph (i) of this Section 3.1(a) shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate representing any such shares of Company Common Stock shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration and cash in lieu of any fractional share of Laser Common Stock (determined in accordance with Section 3.4 hereof), to be issued or paid in consideration therefor upon the surrender of such certificate in accordance with Section 3.2 hereof, without interest.

(b) Company Common Stock Held by Worldwide or Holdings to Remain Outstanding. Notwithstanding Section 3.1(a) hereof, at the Company Effective Time all shares of Company Common Stock held by Worldwide or Holdings shall remain outstanding and unchanged as a result of the Company Merger.

(c) Cancellation of Treasury Stock and Company Common Stock Held by Laser and Company Subsidiaries. Each share of Company Common Stock, if any, held in the treasury of the Company, by any subsidiary of the Company, by Laser or by any subsidiary of Laser (other than Worldwide or Holdings) immediately prior to the Company Effective Time shall be cancelled and retired and cease to exist.

(d) Cancellation of Merger Sub Common Stock. Each share of Merger Sub Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Company Effective Time shall be cancelled and retired and cease to exist.

Section 3.2 Exchange of Certificates Representing Shares.

(a) As of the Company Effective Time, Laser shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with an exchange agent selected by Laser and reasonably satisfactory to the Company (the "Exchange Agent"), for the benefit of the holders of shares of Company Common Stock, for exchange in accordance with this Article III: (i) certificates representing the number of Laser Shares issuable in the Company Merger to be issued in respect of all shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Company Effective Time and which are to be exchanged pursuant to the Company Merger (exclusive of shares to remain outstanding pursuant to Section 3.1(b) hereof or to be canceled pursuant to Section 3.1(c) hereof); and (ii) cash in an amount sufficient to make any cash payment due under Sections 3.1(a)(i)(B) and 3.4 hereof (such cash and certificates for Laser Shares being hereinafter referred to collectively as the "Exchange Fund").

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Company Effective Time, Laser shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail (or deliver to its principal office) to each holder of record of a certificate or certificates representing shares of Company Common Stock (i) a letter of transmittal which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates for shares of Company Common Stock shall pass, only upon delivery of the certificates for such shares of Company Common Stock to the Exchange Agent and which shall be in such form and have such other provisions, including appropriate provisions with respect to back-up withholding, as Laser may reasonably specify, and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the certificates for shares of Company Common Stock. Upon surrender of a certificate for shares of Company Common Stock for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions thereto, the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor that portion of the Exchange Fund which such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of this Article III, after giving effect to any required withholding Tax, and the certificate for shares of Company Common Stock so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash portion of the Exchange Fund. In the event of any transfer of ownership of shares of Company Common Stock which has not been registered in the transfer records of the Company, certificates representing the proper number of shares of Laser Common Stock, if any, and a check in an amount equal to the proper amount of the cash component, if any, of the Exchange Fund, will be issued to the transferee of the certificate representing the transferred shares of Company Common Stock, only upon presentation to the Exchange Agent of a certificate or certificates representing such shares of Company Common Stock, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect the prior transfer thereof and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer Taxes associated with such transfer were paid.

Section 3.3 Dividends; Transfer Taxes. No dividends that are declared on Laser Common Stock will be paid to persons entitled to receive certificates representing shares of Laser Common Stock until such persons surrender their certificates representing shares of Company Common Stock. Upon such surrender, there shall be paid to the person in whose name the certificates representing such shares of Laser Common Stock shall be issued, any dividends which shall have become payable with respect to such shares of Laser Common Stock between the Company Effective Time and the time of such surrender. In no event shall the person entitled to receive such dividends be entitled to receive interest on such dividends. If any certificates for any shares of Laser Common Stock are to be issued in a name other than that in which the certificate representing shares of Company Common Stock surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of such exchange that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the issuance of certificates for such shares of Laser Common Stock in a name other than that of the registered holder of the certificate surrendered or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) neither the Exchange Agent nor any party hereto shall be liable to a holder of shares of Company Common Stock for any shares of Laser Common Stock or dividends thereon, any cash payments to be made pursuant to Section 3.1(a)(i)(B) hereof or, in accordance with Section 3.4 hereof, any cash in lieu of fractional share interests, in each case, delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable escheat Laws and (ii) any shares of Laser Common Stock held by the Exchange Agent prior to surrender of certificates representing shares of Company Common Stock shall not be deemed issued.

Section 3.4 No Fractional Shares. No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Laser Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of certificates representing shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to this Article III, and no dividend, stock split or other change in the capital structure of Laser shall relate to any fractional security, and such fractional interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a security holder. In lieu of any such fractional shares of Laser Common Stock, each holder of shares of Company Common Stock who would otherwise have been entitled to a fraction of a share of Laser Common Stock upon surrender of stock certificates for exchange pursuant to this Article III will be paid cash upon such surrender in an amount equal to the product of such fraction multiplied by the closing sale price of one share of Laser Common Stock on the NYSE on the day of the Company Effective Time, or, if shares of Laser Common Stock are not so traded on such day, the closing sale price of one such share on the next preceding day on which such share was traded on the NYSE. For purposes of this Section 3.4, shares of Company Common Stock of any holder represented by two or more certificates shall be aggregated, and in no event shall any holder be paid an amount of cash pursuant to this Section 3.4 in respect of more than one share of Laser Common Stock.

Section 3.5 Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of the Company Common Stock for six (6) months after the Company Effective Time shall be delivered to Laser, upon demand, and any holders of the Company Common Stock who have not theretofore complied with this Article III shall thereafter look only to Laser for payment of their claim for the shares of Laser Common Stock and cash and dividends or other distributions, if any, pursuant to this Article III.

Section 3.6 Investment of Exchange Fund. Without prejudice to the rights of any holder of Company Common Stock to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration, the Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund, as directed by Laser, on a daily basis. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Laser.

Section 3.7 Closing of Company Transfer Books. At the Company Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and no transfer of shares of Company Common Stock shall thereafter be made. If, after the Company Effective Time, certificates representing shares of Company Common Stock are presented to the Surviving Corporation, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for the Per Share Merger Consideration applicable thereto.

Section 3.8 Dissenting Shares. Each outstanding share of Company Common Stock as to which a written demand for appraisal is filed in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL and not withdrawn, and with respect to which a consent is not given in favor of the Company Merger shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration unless and until the holder thereof shall have failed to perfect, or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost, the right to appraisal of and payment for each such share of Company Common Stock under Section 262, at which time each such share shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration. All such shares of Company

Common Stock as to which such a written demand for appraisal is so filed and not withdrawn and with respect to which a consent is not given in favor of the Company Merger, except any such shares of Company Common Stock the holder of which, prior to the Company Effective Time, shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such right to appraisal and payment for such shares of Company Common Stock under Section 262, are herein referred to as "Dissenting Shares." The Company shall give Laser prompt notice upon receipt by the Company of any written demands for appraisal rights, withdrawal of such demands, and any other written communications delivered to the Company pursuant to Section 262, and the Company shall give Laser the opportunity, to the extent permitted by Law, to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Except with the prior written consent of Laser, the Company shall not voluntarily make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisal rights and shall not settle or offer to settle any such demands. Each holder of Dissenting Shares who becomes entitled, pursuant to the provisions of Section 262, to payment for such shares of Dissenting Shares under the provisions of Section 262 shall receive payment therefor from the Surviving Corporation and such shares of Company Common Stock shall be cancelled thereafter.

ARTICLE IV

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as otherwise disclosed to Laser in a schedule delivered to Laser prior to the execution hereof (which schedule shall contain appropriate references to identify the representations and warranties herein to which the information in such schedule relates) (the "Company Disclosure Schedule"), the Company represents and warrants to Laser and Merger Sub as follows:

Section 4.1 Organization. The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware and has the corporate power to carry on its business as it is now being conducted. The Company is duly qualified as a foreign corporation to do business, and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction where the character of its properties owned or held under lease or the nature of its activities makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified would not individually or in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole (a "Company Material Adverse Effect").

Section 4.2 Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 80,000,000 shares of Company Common Stock and 20,000,000 shares of Company Preferred Stock. As of February 23, 1998, (i) 53,488,170 shares of Company Common Stock were issued and outstanding; (ii) 3,282,930 shares of Company Common Stock were issuable upon exercise of Employee Stock Options to acquire 3,282,930 shares of Company Common Stock outstanding under the Company Stock Option Plans (of which options to acquire 2,399,380 were vested); and (iii) no shares of Company Preferred Stock were issued or outstanding. As of such date, no shares of Company Common Stock were held as treasury shares. All of the issued and outstanding shares of Company Common Stock are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. As of the date hereof, except as set forth above, there are no shares of capital stock of the Company issued or outstanding or any options, warrants, subscriptions, calls, rights, convertible securities or other agreements or commitments obligating the Company to issue, transfer, sell, redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or securities. There are no notes, bonds, debentures or other indebtedness of the Company having the right to vote (or convertible into or exchangeable for securities having the right to vote) on any matters upon which stockholders of the Company may vote.

Section 4.3 Subsidiaries. All the outstanding shares of capital stock of, or other ownership interests in, each of the Company's subsidiaries have been validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable and such shares (other than directors' qualifying shares and similar interests) are owned directly or indirectly by the Company, free and clear of all Liens. Except for the capital stock of the Company's subsidiaries and except as set forth in Section 4.3 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company does not own, directly or indirectly, any capital stock or other ownership interest in any corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture or other entity. Each of the Company's subsidiaries that is a corporation is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation. Each of the Company's subsidiaries that is a partnership or a limited liability company is duly formed and validly existing under the Laws of its jurisdiction of formation. Each of the Company's subsidiaries has the corporate power or the partnership power, as the case may be, to carry on its business as it is now being conducted or presently proposed to be conducted. Each the Company's subsidiaries that is a corporation is duly qualified as a foreign corporation to do business, and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction where the character of its properties owned or held under lease or the nature of its activities makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified would not individually or in the aggregate have a Company Material Adverse Effect. Each of the Company's subsidiaries that is a partnership is duly qualified as a foreign partnership authorized to do business, and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction where the character of its properties owned or held under lease or the nature of its activities makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified would not individually or in the aggregate have a Company Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in Section 4.2 hereof, there are no outstanding options, warrants, subscriptions, calls, rights, convertible securities or other agreements or commitments obligating the Company or any of its subsidiaries to issue, transfer or sell any securities of any Company subsidiary. There are no voting, stockholder or other agreements or understandings to which the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries is a party or is bound with respect to the voting of the capital stock of the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries.

Section 4.4 Authority Relative to this Agreement. The Company has the corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company, and no other corporate actions or proceedings on the part of the Company (including any action on the part of its stockholders) are necessary to authorize this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and, assuming the due authorization and valid execution and delivery by Laser and Merger Sub, constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar Laws now or hereafter in effect relating to creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity.

Section 4.5 Consents and Approvals; No Violations. Except for applicable requirements of the HSR Act, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, Competition Laws and state securities or blue sky Laws, and the filing and recordation of the Certificate of Merger as required by the DGCL, no filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any governmental or regulatory authority is necessary for the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except for such filings, permits, authorizations, consents or approvals the failure of which to be made or obtained would not individually or in the aggregate have a Company Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in Section 4.5 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company, nor the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by the Company with any of the provisions hereof, will (a) conflict with or result in any breach of any provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the Company or the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of any of the Company's subsidiaries; (b) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any material (as defined for purposes of Form 10-K) Contract to which the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries is a party or by which any of them or any of their properties or assets may be bound; or (c) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Company, any of the Company's subsidiaries or any of their properties or assets, except in the case of clauses (b) and (c) for violations, breaches or defaults which would not individually or in the aggregate have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

Section 4.6 Reports and Financial Statements.

(a) The Company has filed all reports, forms, registrations, schedules, statements and other documents required to be filed by it with the SEC since January 1, 1997 (the "Company SEC Reports"). As of their respective dates, the Company SEC Reports complied in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and the applicable rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Except to the extent that information contained in any Company SEC Report has been amended, revised or superseded by a later Company SEC Report filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement (as amended, revised or superseded by a later Company SEC Report filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement, the "Filed Company SEC Reports"), none of the Filed Company SEC Reports, when filed, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(b) The consolidated financial statements of the Company included in the Filed Company SEC Reports complied as to form in all material respects with the applicable accounting requirements and the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto have been prepared in accordance with GAAP (except, in the case of the unaudited statements, as permitted by Form 10-Q of the SEC) applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved (except as may be indicated therein or in the notes thereto) and fairly present the consolidated financial position of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries as of the dates thereof and the consolidated results of their operations and their consolidated cash flows for the periods then ended (subject, in the case of the unaudited statements, to normal year-end audit adjustments and to any other adjustments described therein).

(c) Except as set forth in the Filed Company SEC Reports and except for liabilities and obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice since the date of the most recent consolidated balance sheet included in the Filed Company SEC Reports (the "Company Balance Sheet Date"), neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries has any material liabilities or obligations of any nature (whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise) required by GAAP to be recognized or disclosed on a consolidated balance sheet of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries or in the notes thereto.

Section 4.7 Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Except as set forth in the Filed Company SEC Reports, since the Company Balance Sheet Date, the business of the Company and its subsidiaries has been conducted only in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, and there has not been any event, change or development which individually or in the aggregate has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect or would impair or delay the ability of the Company to consummate the transactions contemplated by, or to satisfy its obligations under, this Agreement. Except as set forth in Section 4.7 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, during the period from the Company Balance Sheet Date through the date of this Agreement, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries has:

(i) declared, set aside or paid any distributions (whether in cash, stock or property) with respect to its capital stock or (y) split, combined, or reclassified any of its capital stock or issued or authorized the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for shares of its capital stock (other than dividends or stock issuances by a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company to the Company or another wholly owned subsidiary of the Company);

(ii) issued, delivered, sold, pledged or otherwise encumbered any shares of its capital stock, any other voting securities or any securities convertible into, or any options, warrants or rights to acquire, any such shares, voting securities or convertible securities (other than the issuance of Company Common Stock upon the exercise of Employee Stock Options in accordance with their terms and issuances by a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company to the Company or another wholly owned subsidiary of the Company);

(iii) in the case of the Company, amended its certificate of incorporation or by-laws;

(iv) acquired or agreed to acquire by merging or consolidating with, or in purchasing a substantial portion of the assets of, or in any other manner, any business or any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association or other business organization or division thereof material to the Company;

(v) other than in the ordinary course of business, (x) incurred any indebtedness or (y) made any loans, advances or capital contributions to, or investments in, any other person (other than the Company or a subsidiary of the Company), in any case in an amount material to the Company;

(vi) other than in the ordinary course of business or consistent with the Company's capital budgets heretofore disclosed to Laser, made or agreed to make any capital expenditure or capital expenditures;

(vii) other than in the ordinary course of business, made any Tax election or settled or compromised any material income Tax liability;

(viii) except in the ordinary course of business or except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect, entered into any Contracts or amended or terminated any material Contract or agreement to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or waived, released or assigned any material rights or claims thereunder;

(ix) except as required by Law or contractual obligation or in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (a) increased the compensation of any of its employees, (b) entered into any Contract with any of its employees regarding his or her employment, compensation or benefits, or (c) adopted any plan, arrangement or policy which would become a Company Plan or amended any Company Plan to the extent such adoption or amendment would create or increase any material liability or obligation on the part of the Company or its subsidiaries;

(x) entered into any transaction or Contract with, or (except pursuant to the Affiliate Agreements) made any payment to, any Affiliate of the Company (other than to the Company's subsidiaries or its or their officers or directors in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice); or

(xi) agreed to do any of the foregoing.

Section 4.8 Litigation. Except as disclosed in the Filed Company SEC Reports and as set forth in Section 4.8 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, as of the date hereof, to the Company's knowledge there is no suit, action, proceeding or investigation pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against or affecting the Company or any of its subsidiaries that individually or in the aggregate would reasonably be expected to (i) have a Company Material Adverse Effect (taking into account any reserve therefor as of the Company Balance Sheet Date), or (ii) delay in any material respect or prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, nor is there any judgment, order, decree, statute, Law, ordinance, rule or regulation of any Governmental Entity or arbitrator outstanding against the Company or any of its subsidiaries having, or which would reasonably be expected to have, any effect referred to in clause (i) or (ii) above.

Section 4.9 Information in Disclosure Documents and Registration Statement.

None of the information to be supplied by the Company for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the information statement to be distributed in connection with the Company Merger (as amended or supplemented, the "Information Statement") or the related filing on Schedule 13E-3 (as amended or supplemented, the "Schedule 13E-3") or the notice to be provided to the Company's stockholders pursuant to Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act (as amended or supplemented, the "Section 14(f) Notice") or the registration statement on Form S-4 under the Securities Act for the purpose of registering the shares of Laser Common Stock to be issued in the Company Merger (as amended or supplemented, the "Registration Statement") will, in the case of the Registration Statement, at the time it becomes effective and at the Company Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, or, in the case of the Information Statement, the Schedule 13E-3, the Section 14(f) Notice, at the time of the mailing thereof and, in the case of the Information Statement, the Schedule 13E-3 at the Company Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. The Information Statement, the Schedule 13E-3 and the Section 14(f) Notice will comply as to form in all material respects with the provisions of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Section 4.10 Taxes. Except as would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect or as set forth in Section 4.10 of the Company Disclosure Schedule:

(a) Each of the Company and each of its subsidiaries has (i) filed (or there has been filed on its behalf) with the appropriate Governmental Entities all Tax Returns required to be filed by it, and all such Tax Returns are true, correct and complete and (ii) has paid all Taxes due by it;

(b) there is no action, suit, investigation, audit, claim or assessment pending or proposed in writing or threatened in writing with respect to Taxes of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and, to the best of the Company's knowledge, no basis exists therefor;

(c) there are no Liens for Taxes upon the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries except Liens relating to current Taxes not yet due;

(d) the United States federal income Tax Returns which include the Company and the Company's subsidiaries have been examined, and such examinations have been completed, by the Internal Revenue Service (or the applicable statutes of limitation for the assessment of federal income Taxes for such periods have expired) for all periods through and including 1985.

Section 4.11 Compliance with Applicable Law. Except as disclosed in the Filed Company SEC Reports, the Company and its subsidiaries have received such certificates, permits, licenses, franchises, consents, approvals, orders, authorizations and clearances from appropriate Governmental Entities (the "Company Licenses") as are necessary to own or lease and operate their respective properties and to conduct their respective businesses substantially in the manner described in the Company SEC Reports and as currently owned or leased and conducted, and all such Company Licenses are valid and in full force and effect, except for any such certificates, permits, licenses, franchises, consents, approvals, orders, authorizations and clearances which the failure to have or to be in full force and effect would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect. Except as disclosed in Filed Company SEC Reports, the Company and the Company's subsidiaries are in compliance with their respective obligations under the Company Licenses, with only such exceptions as, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. Except as disclosed in the Filed Company SEC Reports, the Company and its subsidiaries are in compliance with all judgments, orders, decrees, statutes, Laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of any Governmental Entity applicable to them, except for such noncompliance which individually or in the aggregate would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

Section 4.12 Labor Matters. Except as disclosed in the Filed Company SEC Reports, neither the Company nor any of the Company's subsidiaries has any labor contracts, collective bargaining agreements or material employment or consulting agreements with any persons employed by or otherwise performing services primarily for the Company or any of the Company's subsidiaries (the "Company Business Personnel") or any representative of any Company Business Personnel. Except as set forth in the Filed Company SEC Reports, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries has engaged in any unfair labor practice with respect to Company Business Personnel, and there is no unfair labor practice complaint pending against the Company or any of its subsidiaries with respect to Company Business Personnel which, in either such case, would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in the Filed Company SEC Reports, there is no material labor strike, dispute, slowdown or stoppage pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company or any of its subsidiaries, and neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries has experienced any material primary work stoppage or other material labor difficulty involving its employees during the last three (3) years.

Section 4.13 ERISA Compliance.

(a) The Company has delivered to Laser or will deliver to Laser prior to the Company Effective Time each "employee pension benefit plan" (as defined in Section 3(2) of ERISA) (a "Pension Plan"), each "employee welfare benefit plan" (as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA) (a "Welfare Plan"), each material bonus, stock option, stock purchase, stock ownership, stock bonus, restricted stock, deferred compensation plan or arrangement and each other material employee fringe benefit plan or arrangement maintained, contributed to or required to be maintained or contributed to by the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any other person or entity that, together with the Company, is or was treated as a single employer under Section 414(b), (c), (m) or (o) of the Code (each, a "Commonly Controlled Entity") which is currently in effect for the benefit of any current or former directors, officers, employees or independent contractors of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company Plans"). The Company has delivered to Laser or will deliver to Laser prior to the Company Effective Time true, complete and correct copies of (x) the two most recent annual reports on Form 5500 filed with the Internal Revenue Service with respect to each Company Plan (if any such report was required), (y) the most recent summary plan description for each Company Plan for which such summary plan description is required and (z) each currently effective trust agreement, insurance or group annuity contract and each other material funding or financing arrangement relating to any Company Plan.

(b) No Commonly Controlled Entity has incurred any liability under Title IV of ERISA, other than for contributions not yet due to a defined benefit pension plan subject to Title IV of ERISA and other than for the payment of premiums to the PBGC not yet due, and no condition exists that presents a material risk of incurring any such liability, which liability, to the extent currently due, has not been fully paid as of the date hereof and would individually or in the aggregate be reasonably likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(c) Except as set forth in Company SEC reports or in Section 4.13 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries has any obligation to provide any welfare benefits to employees or former employees following termination of employment except (i) for benefits the cost of which is borne entirely by the employee or former employee, (ii) as required under Section 4980 of the Code or other applicable law or (iii) obligations to provide such benefits to Company employees employed in non-U.S. jurisdictions.

(d) No Commonly Controlled Entity has engaged in a transaction described in Section 4069 of ERISA that could subject the Company or any of its subsidiaries or Laser to liability at any time after the date hereof, which liability would be reasonably likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(e) No Commonly Controlled Entity has withdrawn from any multiemployer plan where such withdrawal has resulted in any actual or potential "withdrawal liability" (as defined in Section 4201 of ERISA) that has not been fully paid, which liability would be reasonably likely to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(f) Except as set forth in Section 4.13 of the Company Disclosure Schedule or as specifically provided in this Agreement, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not, either alone or in connection with another event, cause there to be paid or become payable any additional benefits or any acceleration of the time of payment or vesting of any benefits under any Company Plan or under any employment, severance, termination or compensation agreement to which the Company is a party as of the Company Effective Time.

Section 4.14 Environmental Matters.

- (a) Except as disclosed in the Filed Company SEC Reports, the Company and its subsidiaries are in compliance with all applicable Environmental Laws, which compliance includes the possession of permits and governmental authorizations required under applicable Environmental Laws ("Environmental Permits") and compliance with the terms and conditions thereof, except where such non-compliance would not result in a Company Material Adverse Effect.
- (b) Except as disclosed in the Filed Company SEC Reports, there are no Environmental Claims pending or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company or any of its subsidiaries that would reasonably be expected to result in a Company Material Adverse Effect.
- (c) Except as disclosed in the Filed Company SEC Reports, the properties presently or to the knowledge of the Company formerly owned, leased or operated by the Company or its subsidiaries (including groundwater under the properties) (the "Properties") do not contain any Hazardous Substance other than as permitted under applicable Environmental Law; provided, however, that with respect to Properties formerly owned, leased or operated by the Company or its subsidiaries, such representation is limited to the period prior to the disposition of such Properties by the Company or its subsidiaries.
- (d) Except as disclosed in the Filed Company SEC Reports, to the knowledge of the Company, no Hazardous Substance has been disposed of or transported from any of the Properties during the time any such Property was owned, leased or operated by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, other than as permitted under applicable Environmental Law and in effect at the time of such disposal or transportation.
- (e) Except as disclosed in the Filed Company SEC Reports, to the knowledge of the Company, the Company and its subsidiaries have not become obligated, whether by operation of Law or through contractual agreement, to indemnify any other person or otherwise to assume liability for any claim brought pursuant to any Environmental Law which could reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

Section 4.15 Intellectual Property. The Company has previously delivered to Laser a list, which, to the knowledge of the Company, is true and correct as of the date hereof in all material respects, of all material issued patents and registered trademarks of the Company. Except as set forth in Section 4.15 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company and its subsidiaries own or have sufficient rights to use all material Intellectual Property used in connection with the business of the Company and its subsidiaries as currently conducted. As used in this Section 4.15, the term "material," when applied to Intellectual Property, means that such Intellectual Property is used in a significant manner to conduct the business of the Company and its subsidiaries as it is currently conducted.

Section 4.16 Contracts. Except as set forth in Section 4.16 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries is a party to or bound by any material Contract, other than (i) the Affiliate Agreements listed in Section 4.10 of the Holdings Disclosure Schedule, (ii) any Contract filed or incorporated by reference as an exhibit to any Filed Company SEC Report or (iii) any Contract (other than the Affiliate Agreements listed in Section 4.10 of the Holdings Disclosure Schedule) entered into in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice.

Section 4.17 Opinion of Financial Advisor. The Board of Directors of the Company has received the opinion of Credit Suisse First Boston, dated the date hereof to the effect that the Per Share Merger Consideration is fair to the holders of shares of Company Common Stock (other than Worldwide) from a financial point of view.

Section 4.18 Takeover Statute. The Board of Directors of the Company has approved the Holdings Merger solely for the purpose of rendering inapplicable, and such approval is sufficient to render inapplicable, to the Company Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL. To the best of the Company's knowledge, no other state takeover statute or similar statute or regulation applies or purports to apply to the Company Merger, this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, and no provision of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the Company or certificates of incorporation or by-laws (or comparable organizational documents) of any subsidiary of the Company would, directly or indirectly, restrict or impair the ability of Laser to vote, or otherwise to exercise the rights of a stockholder with respect to, shares of capital stock of the Company or any of its subsidiaries that may be acquired or controlled by Laser.

Section 4.19 Brokers. No broker, investment banker or other person, other than Credit Suisse First Boston, the fees and expenses of which will be paid by the Company (as reflected in an agreement between Credit Suisse First Boston and the Company, a copy of which has been furnished to Laser), is entitled to any broker's, finder's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of the Company.

ARTICLE V

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF LASER AND MERGER SUB

Laser and Merger Sub represent and warrant to the Company as follows:

Section 5.1 Organization. Laser is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware and has the corporate power to carry on its business as it is now being conducted. Laser is duly qualified as a foreign corporation to do business, and is in good standing, in each jurisdiction where the character of its properties owned or held under lease or the nature of its activities makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified would not individually or in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations or financial condition of Laser and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole (a "Laser Material Adverse Effect").

Section 5.2 Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of Laser consists of 200,000,000 shares of Laser Common Stock, and 2,000,000 shares of Laser Preferred Stock. As of February 23, 1998, (i) 85,988,627 shares of Laser Common Stock were issued and outstanding; (ii) 16,129,197 shares of Laser Common Stock were issuable upon exercise of employee and non-employee stock options (the "Laser Stock Options") outstanding under all stock option plans of Laser (the "Laser Stock Option Plans") or granted pursuant to employment agreements; and (iii) no shares of Laser Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding. As of such date, 4,568,959 shares of Laser Common Stock were held as treasury shares. All of the issued and outstanding shares of Laser Common Stock are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. All of the shares of Laser Common Stock issuable as consideration in the Company Merger at the Company Effective Time in accordance with this Agreement will be, when so issued, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. As of such date, except as set forth above, there are no shares of capital stock of Laser issued or outstanding or, as of such date or as of the date hereof, except as set forth above, any options, warrants, subscriptions, calls, rights, convertible securities or other agreements or commitments obligating Laser to issue, transfer, sell, redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or securities, or the capital stock or securities of Laser. There are no notes, bonds, debentures or other indebtedness of Laser having the right to vote (or convertible into or exchangeable for securities having the right to vote) on any matters upon which stockholders of Laser may vote.

Section 5.3 Merger Sub. Merger Sub is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Delaware. Merger Sub is a newly incorporated company formed solely for purposes of consummating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and has engaged in no activity other than as provided in, or contemplated by, this Agreement. The authorized capital stock of Merger Sub consists of 1,000 shares of Merger Sub Common Stock, all of which are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and are owned by Laser. Except as set forth above there are no shares of capital stock of Merger Sub issued or outstanding or any options, warrants, subscription, calls, rights, convertible securities or other agreements or commitments obligating Merger Sub to issue, transfer, sell, redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or securities.

Section 5.4 Authority Relative to this Agreement. Each of Laser and Merger Sub has the corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Laser and Merger Sub and the consummation by Laser and Merger Sub of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by the Boards of Directors of Laser and Merger Sub, and no other corporate action or proceedings on the part of Laser or Merger Sub (including any action on the part of its stockholders) is necessary to authorize this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Laser and Merger Sub and, assuming it is a valid and binding obligation of the Company, constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Laser and Merger Sub, enforceable against Laser and Merger Sub in accordance with its terms, except that such enforcement may be subject to any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar Laws now or hereafter in effect relating to creditors' rights generally and other forms of equitable relief may be subject to equitable defenses and the discretion of the court before which any proceedings therefor may be brought.

Section 5.5 Consents and Approvals; No Violations. Except for applicable requirements of the HSR Act, the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, Competition Laws, and state securities or blue sky Laws, and the filing of the Certificate of Merger in such form as required by, and executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of, the DGCL, no filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any governmental or regulatory authority is necessary for the consummation by Laser or Merger Sub of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except for such filings, permits, authorizations, consents or approvals the failure of which to be made or obtained would not (i) individually or in the aggregate have a Laser Material Adverse Effect or (ii) delay in any material respect or prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Laser or Merger Sub nor the consummation by Laser or Merger Sub of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by Laser with any of the provisions hereof, will (a) conflict with or result in any breach of any provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Laser or Merger Sub; (b) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any material (as defined for purposes of Form 10-K) Contract to which Laser, Merger Sub or any of their subsidiaries is a party or by which any of them or any of their properties or assets may be bound; or (c) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Laser, Merger Sub, any of their subsidiaries or any of their properties or assets, except, in the case of clauses (b) and (c), for violations, breaches or defaults which would not individually or in the aggregate have a Laser Material Adverse Effect.

Section 5.6 Reports and Financial Statements.

(a) Laser has filed all reports, forms, registrations, schedules, statements and other documents required to be filed by it with the SEC since January 1, 1997 (the "Laser SEC Reports"). As of their respective dates, the Laser SEC Reports complied in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and the applicable rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Except to the extent that information contained in any Laser SEC Report has been amended, revised or superseded by a later Laser SEC Report filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement (as amended, revised or superseded by a later filed Laser SEC Report to the date of this Agreement, the "Filed Laser SEC Reports"), none of the Filed Laser SEC Reports, when filed, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(b) The consolidated financial statements of Laser included in the Filed Laser SEC Reports complied as to form in all material respects with the applicable accounting requirements and the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto, have been prepared in accordance with GAAP (except, in the case of the unaudited statements, as permitted by Form 10-Q of the SEC) applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved (except as may be indicated therein or in the notes thereto) and fairly present the consolidated financial position of Laser and its consolidated subsidiaries as of the dates thereof and the consolidated results of their operations and their consolidated cash flows for the periods then ended (subject, in the case of the unaudited statements, to normal year-end audit adjustments and to any other adjustments described therein).

(c) Except as set forth in the Filed Laser SEC Reports and except for liabilities and obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice since the date of the most recent consolidated balance sheet included in the Filed Laser SEC Reports (the "Laser Balance Sheet Date"), neither Laser nor any of the Laser subsidiaries has any material liabilities or obligations of any nature (whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise) required by GAAP to be recognized or disclosed on a consolidated balance sheet of Laser and its consolidated subsidiaries or in the notes thereto.

Section 5.7 Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Except as set forth in the Filed Laser SEC Reports, since the Laser Balance Sheet Date, the business of Laser and its subsidiaries has been conducted only in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, and there has not been any event, change or development which individually or in the aggregate has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Laser Material Adverse Effect or would impair or delay the ability of Laser to consummate the transactions contemplated by, or to satisfy its obligations under, this Agreement.

Section 5.8 Litigation. Except as disclosed in the Filed Laser SEC Reports, there is no suit, action, proceeding or investigation pending or, to the knowledge of Laser, threatened against or affecting Laser or any of its subsidiaries that individually or in the aggregate would reasonably be expected to (i) have a Laser Material Adverse Effect (taking into account any reserve therefor as of the most recent balance sheet included in the Filed Laser SEC Reports) or (ii) delay in any material respect or prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, nor is there any judgment, order, decree, statute, Law, ordinance, rule or regulation of any Governmental Entity or arbitrator outstanding against Laser or any of its subsidiaries having, or which would reasonably be expected to have, any effect referred to in clause (i) or (ii) above.

Section 5.9 Information in Disclosure Documents and Registration Statement. None of the information to be supplied by Laser for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (a) the Registration Statement or (b) the Information Statement, the Schedule 13E-3 or the Section 14(f) Notice will, in the case of the Registration Statement, at the time it becomes effective and at the Company Effective Time contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, or, in the case of the Information Statement, the Schedule 13E-3 and the Section 14(f) Notice, at the time of the mailing thereof and, in the case of the Information Statement and the Schedule 13E-3, at the Company Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

The Registration Statement will comply as to form in all material respects with the provisions of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. The Schedule 13E-3 will comply as to form in all material respects with the provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Section 5.10 Taxes.

(a) Laser and its subsidiaries have filed (or there have been filed on their behalf) with the appropriate governmental authorities all material Tax Returns required to be filed by them and such Tax Returns are true, correct and complete in all material respects and disclose all Taxes required to be paid by them for the periods covered thereby; and

(b) all material Taxes (whether or not shown on any Tax Return) owed by Laser and its subsidiaries and required to be paid on or before the Closing Date have been (or will be) timely paid or, in the case of Taxes which Laser or any of its subsidiaries is presently contesting in good faith, an adequate reserve has been established for such Taxes in accordance with GAAP.

Section 5.11 Compliance with Applicable Law. Except as disclosed in the Filed Laser SEC Reports, Laser and its subsidiaries have received such certificates, permits, licenses, franchises, consents, approvals, orders, authorizations and clearances from appropriate Governmental Entities (the "Laser Licenses") as are necessary to own or lease and operate their respective properties and to conduct their respective businesses substantially in the manner described in the Laser SEC Reports and as currently owned or leased and conducted, and all such Laser Licenses are valid and in full force and effect, except for any such certificates, permits, licenses, franchises, consents, approvals, orders, authorizations and clearances which the failure to have or to be in full force and effect would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Laser Material Adverse Effect. Except as disclosed in the Filed Laser SEC Reports, Laser and its subsidiaries are in compliance in all material respects with their respective obligations under the Laser Licenses, with only such exceptions as, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Laser Material Adverse Effect. Except as disclosed in the Filed Laser SEC Reports, Laser and its subsidiaries are in compliance with all judgments, orders, decrees, statutes, Laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of any Governmental Entity applicable to them, except for such noncompliance which individually or in the aggregate would not have a Laser Material Adverse Effect.

Section 5.12 Brokers. No broker, investment banker or other person, other than Morgan Stanley, the fees and expenses of which will be paid by Laser (as reflected in an agreement between Morgan Stanley and Laser) is entitled to any broker's, finder's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Laser.

ARTICLE VI

COVENANTS RELATING TO CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Section 6.1 Conduct of Business by the Company. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Holdings Effective Time, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or with the prior written consent of Laser or as set forth in Section 6.1 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company shall, and shall cause its subsidiaries to, carry on the business of the Company and its subsidiaries in the usual, regular and ordinary course in substantially the same manner as heretofore conducted and in compliance in all material respects with all applicable Laws and regulations and, to the extent consistent therewith, use all reasonable efforts to preserve intact the current business organizations of the Company and its subsidiaries, and to preserve its relationships with those persons having business dealings with the Company and its subsidiaries to the end that the goodwill and ongoing businesses of the Company and its subsidiaries shall be unimpaired at the Holdings Effective Time. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, during the period from the date of this Agreement to the Holdings Effective Time, the Company agrees as to itself and its subsidiaries that, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or with the prior written consent of Laser or as set forth in Section 6.1 of the Company Disclosure Schedule:

(i) Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries shall (x) declare, set aside or pay any distributions (whether in cash, stock or property) with respect to its capital stock or (y) split, combine, or reclassify any of its capital stock or issue or authorize the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for shares of its capital stock (other than dividends or stock issuances by a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company to the Company or another wholly owned subsidiary of the Company);

(ii) Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries shall issue, deliver, sell, pledge or otherwise encumber any shares of its capital stock, any other voting securities or any securities convertible into, or any options, warrants or rights to acquire, any such shares, voting securities or convertible securities (other than the issuance of Company Common Stock upon the exercise of Employee Stock Options in accordance with their terms and issuances by a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company to the Company or another wholly owned subsidiary of the Company);

(iii) The Company shall not amend its certificate of incorporation or by-laws;

(iv) Other than as would not be material to the Company, the Company and its subsidiaries shall not acquire or agree to acquire (x) by merging or consolidating with, or by purchasing a substantial portion of the assets of, or in any other manner, any business or any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, association or other business organization or division thereof or (y) any assets that individually or in the aggregate are material to the Company and its subsidiaries;

(v) Other than as would not be material to the Company, the Company and its subsidiaries shall not sell, lease, license or otherwise encumber or subject to any Lien or otherwise dispose of any of the properties or assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or pursuant to existing contractual obligations, if any, set forth in Section 6.1 of the Company Disclosure Schedule;

(vi) Other than in the ordinary course of business or as would not be material to the Company, the Company and its subsidiaries shall not (x) incur any indebtedness or (y) make any loans, advances or capital contributions to, or investments in, any other person (other than the Company or a subsidiary of the Company), other than to officers and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries for travel, business or relocation expenses in the ordinary course of business;

(vii) Other than in the ordinary course of business or consistent with the Company's 1998 capital budget;

(viii) Other than in the ordinary course of business, the Company and its subsidiaries shall not make any material Tax election or settle or compromise any material income Tax liability;

(ix) Except in the ordinary course of business or except as would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect, the Company and its subsidiaries (i) shall not enter into any Contracts and (ii) shall not modify, amend or terminate any material Contract or agreement to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is, or as of the Company Effective Time will be, a party or waive, release or assign any material rights or claims thereunder;

(x) Except as required by Law or previously existing contractual arrangements, in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or as disclosed or otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Company will not, nor will it permit any of its subsidiaries to, (a) increase the compensation of any of its employees, (b) enter into any Contract with any of its employees regarding his or her employment, compensation or benefits, or (c) adopt any plan, arrangement or policy which would become a Company Plan or amend any Company Plan to the extent such adoption or amendment would create or materially increase any material liability or obligation on the part of the Company or its subsidiaries;

(xi) The Company and its subsidiaries shall not make any change to their accounting methods, principles or practices, except as may be required by GAAP or Regulation S-X promulgated by the SEC or by Law;

(xii) The Company shall not, and shall not permit any of its subsidiaries to, create, incur, suffer to exist or assume any material Lien on any of their assets, except as would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect or materially impair the

Company's conduct of the business and operations of the Company and its subsidiaries, as presently conducted;

(xiii) The Company shall not, and shall not permit any of its subsidiaries to enter into any transaction or contract with, or (except pursuant to the Affiliate Agreements) make any payment to, any Affiliate of the Company (other than the Company's subsidiaries or its or their officers or directors in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice); and

(xiv) The Company and its subsidiaries shall not authorize, or commit or agree to take, any of the foregoing actions.

Section 6.2 Other Actions. During the period from the date hereof to the Holdings Effective Time, the Company and Laser shall not, and shall not permit any of their respective subsidiaries to, take any action that would, or that could reasonably be expected to, result in (i) any of the representations and warranties of such party set forth in this Agreement that are qualified as to materiality becoming untrue, (ii) any of such representations and warranties that are not so qualified becoming untrue in any material respect or (iii) any of the conditions to the Company Merger set forth in Article VIII hereof not being satisfied.

Section 6.3 Advice of Changes. Upon obtaining knowledge of any such occurrence, the Company and Laser shall promptly advise the other party orally and in writing of (i) any representation or warranty made by it contained in this Agreement that is qualified as to materiality becoming untrue or inaccurate in any respect or any such representation or warranty that is not so qualified becoming untrue or inaccurate in any material respect, (ii) the failure by it to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under this Agreement or (iii) any change or event (x) having, or which, insofar as can reasonably be foreseen, would have, in the case of Laser, a Laser Material Adverse Effect and, in the case of the Company, a Company Material Adverse Effect, (y) having, or which, insofar as can reasonably be foreseen, would have, the effect set forth in clause (i) above or (z) which has resulted, or which, insofar as can reasonably be foreseen, would result, in any of the conditions set forth in Article VIII hereof not being satisfied; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement.

Section 6.4 Conduct of Business of Merger Sub. From the date hereof to the Company Effective Time, Merger Sub shall not (i) engage in any activities of any nature, (ii) acquire any assets, or (iii) incur any indebtedness or assume any liabilities or obligations, in each case, except as provided in or contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 6.5 Section 14(f) Notice. Promptly after the date hereof, Laser shall provide to the Company in writing the information with respect to the Laser Designees (as defined in the Holdings Merger Agreement) required by Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 of the SEC. Promptly after its receipt of such information, the Company shall file with the SEC and mail to all stockholders of record of the Company the Section 14(f) Notice.

ARTICLE VII

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

Section 7.1 Preparation of the Registration Statement, the Information Statement, the Schedule 13E-3 and the Section 14(f) Notice. As soon as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement, Laser and the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC the Information Statement and Laser shall prepare and file with the SEC the Registration Statement, in which the Information Statement will be included as a prospectus (including the financial statements and pro forma financial information required to be set forth therein), and the Schedule 13E-3 and the Section 14(f) Notice. Laser shall use all reasonable best efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective under the Securities Act and the Schedule 13E-3 and the Section 14(f) Notice cleared by the SEC and mailed as promptly as practicable after such filing. The Company will use all reasonable best efforts to cause the Information Statement and the Schedule 13E-3 and the Section 14(f) Notice to be mailed to the Company's stockholders as promptly as practicable after it has been cleared by the SEC. Each of Laser and the Company shall also take any action (other than qualifying to do business in any jurisdiction in which it is not now so qualified or to file a general consent to service of process) required to be taken under any applicable state securities Laws in connection with the issuance of Laser Common Stock in connection with the Company Merger and the Holdings Merger. The Company shall furnish all information concerning the Company, its subsidiaries and the holders of the Company Common Stock and Laser shall furnish all information concerning Laser and its subsidiaries, in each case, as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

Section 7.2 Access and Information; Confidentiality. The Company and Laser shall each afford to the other and to the other's financial advisors, legal counsel, accountants, consultants and other representatives full access at all reasonable times throughout the period prior to the Company Effective Time to all of its books, records, properties, plants and personnel (provided that all such access shall be on reasonable advance notice and shall not disrupt normal business operations) and, during such period, each shall furnish promptly to the other (a) a copy of each report, schedule and other document filed or received by it pursuant to the requirements of federal or state securities Laws, and (b) all other information as such other party may reasonably request, provided that no investigation pursuant to this Section 7.2 shall affect any representations or warranties made herein or the conditions to the obligations of the respective parties to consummate the Company Merger. Each party and their respective affiliates, representatives and agents shall hold in confidence all nonpublic information in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality Agreements between Laser and the Company dated February 4, 1998 and February 23, 1998.

Section 7.3 Comfort Letters.

(a) The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause to be delivered to Laser "comfort" letters of Ernst & Young, LLP, the Company's independent public accountants, dated the date on which the Registration Statement shall become effective and as of the date on which the Information Statement is mailed to the Company's stockholders, and addressed to

Laser and the Company, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Laser and as is reasonably customary in scope and substance for letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with transactions such as those contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Laser shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause to be delivered to the Company "comfort" letters of Arthur Andersen, LLP, Laser's independent public accountants, dated the date on which the Registration Statement shall become effective and as of the date on which the Information Statement is mailed to the Company's stockholders, and addressed to the Company and Laser, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company and as is reasonably customary in scope and substance for letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with transactions such as those contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 7.4 Listing Application. Laser shall prepare and submit to the NYSE a listing application covering the Laser Shares to be issued in connection with the Company Merger, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain, prior to the Company Effective Time, approval for the listing of such Laser Shares, subject to official notice of issuance.

Section 7.5 Affiliates. Prior to the Company Effective Time, the Company shall cause to be prepared and delivered to Laser a list (reasonably satisfactory to counsel for Laser) identifying each person who, at the time the Information Statement is mailed to the Company's stockholders, may be deemed to be an "affiliate" of the Company, as such term is used in paragraphs (c) and (d) of Rule 145 under the Securities Act (the "Company Rule 145 Affiliates"). The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause such person who is identified as a Company Rule 145 Affiliate in such list to deliver to Laser on or prior to the Company Effective Time a written agreement, in customary form, that such Company Rule 145 Affiliate will not (i) sell, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of, or in any other way reduce such Company Rule 145 Affiliate's risk relative to, any Laser Shares issued to such Company Rule 145 Affiliate in connection with the Company Merger, except pursuant to an effective registration statement or in compliance with such Rule 145 or another exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act or (ii) sell or in any other way reduce such Rule 145 Affiliate's risk relative to any Laser Shares received in the Company Merger (within the meaning of Section 201.01 of the SEC's Financial Reporting Release No. 1) during the period commencing thirty (30) days prior to the Company Effective Time and ending at such time as the financial results (including combined sales and net income) covering at least thirty (30) days of post-Merger operations have been published, except as permitted by Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 76 issued by the SEC.

Section 7.6 HSR Act; Competition Laws. As soon as reasonably practicable, the Company, Laser and Merger Sub shall make or cause to be made all filings and submissions under the HSR Act (if applicable) and any other applicable Competition Laws as may be reasonably required to be made in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. Subject to Section 7.2 hereof, the Company will furnish to Laser and Laser will furnish to the Company, such information and assistance as the other may reasonably request in connection with the preparation of any such filings or submissions. Subject to Section 7.2 hereof, the Company will provide Laser, and Laser will provide the Company, with copies of all correspondence, filings or communications (or memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between such party or any of its representatives, on the one hand, and any governmental agency or authority or members of their respective staffs, on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. The Company and Laser shall consult with one another with respect to any such correspondence, filings or communications and shall engage in discussions with any Governmental Entity on a joint basis.

Section 7.7 Employee Matters.

(a) From and after the Holdings Effective Time, Laser shall honor, and shall cause the Company to honor, all employment, severance, termination, consulting and retirement agreements to which the Company is a party as of the Holdings Effective Time; provided, however, that (i) neither Laser nor the Company shall have any responsibility for the Company's obligations under that certain employment agreement entered into as of October 1, 1997, between the Company and Jerry W. Levin (except for the incentive payment provided for in section 3.2(b) thereof (relating to the divestiture of Coleman Safety & Security Products, Inc.), which shall be the responsibility of the Company and paid in accordance with the terms of section 3.2(b) thereof), and (ii) neither Laser nor the Company shall have any responsibility for the Company's obligations under that certain employment agreement entered into as of July 1, 1997, between the Company and Paul E. Shapiro. Except as provided in the first sentence of Section 7.7(b) or the proviso to this sentence, from and after the Holdings Effective Time, Laser will cause the Company to allow Company employees to participate in Laser employee benefit plans on substantially the same basis as similarly situated Laser employees; provided, however, that Laser will cause the Company to continue the Company Plans for at least six (6) months following the Holdings Effective Time. Laser will or will cause the Company to give Company employees full credit for purposes of eligibility and vesting of benefits and benefit accrual for service with the Company and its affiliates prior to the Holdings Effective Time under each Laser employee benefit plan; provided, however, that no such crediting of service results in duplication of benefits. With respect to any welfare benefit plans maintained for the benefit of Company employees from and after the Holdings Effective Time, Laser shall (i) cause there to be waived any pre-existing condition limitations and (ii) give effect, in determining any deductible and maximum out-of-pocket limitations, to claims incurred and amounts paid by, and amounts reimbursed to, such employees with respect to similar plans maintained by the Company for such employee's benefit immediately prior to the Holdings Effective Time. Laser acknowledges that, for the purposes of certain of such Company Plans and certain of such other employment, severance, termination, consulting and retirement agreements to which the Company is currently a party, the consummation of the Holdings Merger will constitute a "change in control" of the Company (as such term is defined in such plans and agreements). Laser agrees to cause the Company, after the Holdings Effective Time, to pay all amounts provided under such Company Plans and agreements as a result of a change in control of the Company in accordance with their respective terms and to honor, and to cause the Company to honor, all rights, privileges and modifications to or with respect to any such Company Plans or agreements which become effective as a result of such change in control.

(b) Laser shall cause the Company to continue the Company's Executive Annual Incentive Policy for the remainder of 1998, and participants therein shall not be eligible for participation in an analogous Laser incentive plan in respect of 1998. Laser shall honor, and shall cause the Company to honor, the Company's Executive Severance Policy without any amendment adverse to participants. Laser shall provide severance benefits for employees of the Company, who are not participants in Company's Executive Severance Policy and who do not have employment agreements with the Company, under the Laser severance policy on the same basis as similarly situated Laser employees provided that severance benefits shall be no less than those set forth on Schedule 7.7(b).

(c) Effective as of the ninety-first (91st) day following the Holdings Effective Time, the participants in the Executive Severance Policy set forth on Schedule 7.7(c) may voluntarily terminate their employment, which termination will be deemed to be for "Good Reason" under the Executive Severance Policy as a result of the consummation of the Holdings Merger.

(d) Laser and the Company agree to take all necessary action to provide that, effective as of the Holdings Effective Time, all outstanding Employee Stock Options shall be vested and exercisable as of the Holdings Effective Time, and between the Holdings Effective Time and the Company Effective Time, Laser shall cause the Company to maintain a broker-dealer cashless exercise procedure for the exercise of Employee Stock Options. Laser and the Company agree to take all other actions necessary to provide for the cancellation, effective at the Company Effective Time, of each outstanding Employee Stock Option and, in settlement therefor, a payment to the holder of the Employee Stock Option in cash by Laser or the Company at the Company Effective Time equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Employee Stock Option, and (ii) the excess of $27.50 over the exercise price per share of Company Common Stock subject to such Employee Stock Option, less any applicable withholding taxes.

(e) Laser agrees that, at or prior to the Holdings Effective Time, Holdings may cause the Company to (i) assume sponsorship of the pension, retirement, savings, retiree health care and life insurance and other plans maintained by New Coleman Holdings, Inc. that are reflected in footnotes 7 and 12 to the 1996 financial statements included in the Company's 1996 Annual Report on SEC Form 10-K (as such plans may have been changed in the ordinary course of business since December 31, 1996) (the "Plans"), and (ii) assume the liabilities and obligations of New Coleman Holdings, Inc. under the Plans to the extent reflected in such footnotes (as such liabilities and obligations may have changed in the ordinary course of business since December 31, 1996). The documents used to effect such assumption shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent Holdings and Laser.

Section 7.8 Continuance of Existing Indemnification Rights.

(a) For six (6) years after the Company Effective Time (and during the period following the Holdings Effective Time but prior to the Company Effective Time), Laser shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, indemnify, defend and hold harmless any person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof, or who becomes prior to the Company Effective Time, a director or officer of the Company (an "Indemnified Person") against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses), judgments, fines, losses and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any actual or threatened action, suit, claim, proceeding or investigation (each, a "Claim") to the extent that any such Claim is based on, or arises out of: (i) the fact that such Indemnified Person is or was a director or officer of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise; or (ii) this Agreement or the Holdings Merger Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, in each case to the extent that any such Claim pertains to any matter or fact arising, existing or occurring prior to or at the Company Effective Time, regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Company Effective Time, to the full extent permitted under the DGCL, the Company's certificate of incorporation or by-laws or any indemnification agreement in effect at the date hereof, including provisions relating to advancement of expenses incurred in the defense of any such Claim; provided, however, that neither Laser nor the Surviving Corporation shall be required to indemnify any Indemnified Person in connection with any proceeding (or portion thereof) involving any Claim initiated by such Indemnified Person against the Company unless the initiation of such proceeding (or portion thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company or unless such proceeding is brought by an Indemnified Person to enforce rights under this Section 7.8; and provided further that in the event any Claim is asserted or made within such period, all such rights, liabilities and limitations in respect of any such Claim shall continue until disposition thereof. Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, in the event any Indemnified Person becomes involved in any Claim after the Company Effective Time, Laser shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, periodically advance to such Indemnified Person its legal and other expenses (including the cost of any investigation and preparation incurred in connection therewith), subject to the providing by such Indemnified Person of an undertaking to reimburse all amounts so advanced in the event of a final non-appealable determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that such Indemnified Person is not entitled thereto.

(b) Laser and the Company agree that all rights to indemnification, and all limitations with respect thereto, existing in favor of any Indemnified Person, as provided in the Company's certificate of incorporation or by-laws and any indemnification agreement in effect at the date hereof, shall survive the Holdings Merger and the Company Merger and shall continue in full force and effect, without any amendment thereto, for a period of six (6) years from the Company Effective Time (and during the period following the Holdings Effective Time but prior to the Company Effective Time) to the extent such rights and limitations are consistent with the DGCL; provided, however, that in the event any Claim is asserted or made within such period, all such rights, liabilities and limitations in respect of any such Claim shall continue until disposition thereof; provided further that any determination required to be made with respect to whether an Indemnified Person's conduct complies with the standards set forth under the DGCL, the Company's certificate of incorporation or by-laws or any such agreement, as the case may be, shall be made by independent legal counsel selected by such Indemnified Person and reasonably acceptable to Laser; and provided further that nothing in this Section 7.8 shall impair any rights or obligations of any current or former director or officer of the Company.

(c) Laser or the Surviving Corporation shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain a liability insurance policy ("D&O Insurance") for the benefit of the Company's existing and former directors and officers commencing at the Holdings Effective Time and for a period of not less than six (6) years after the Company Effective Time providing substantially similar coverage in amounts and on terms no less advantageous than that currently provided to such existing and former directors and officers; provided further that neither Laser nor the Surviving Corporation shall be required to pay an annual premium for D&O Insurance in excess of 200% of the last annual premium paid prior to the date hereof, but in such case shall purchase as much coverage as possible for such amount.

(d) The provisions of this Section 7.8 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Person, his or her heirs and his or her personal representatives.

Section 7.9 Expenses. Whether or not the Company Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses.

Section 7.10 Public Announcements. Laser and the Company shall consult with each other before issuing their respective initial press releases to be issued with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Holdings Merger.

Section 7.11 Reasonable Best Efforts. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of the parties hereto agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable, to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Company Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, but not limited to: (i) the obtaining of all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents and approvals from all Governmental Entities and the making of all necessary registrations and filings with; and the taking of all other reasonable steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any Governmental Entity (including those in connection with the HSR Act, if applicable); (ii) the obtaining of all necessary consents, approvals or waivers from persons other than Governmental Entities; (iii) the defending of any lawsuits or other legal proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including seeking to have any stay or temporary restraining order entered by any court or other Governmental Entity vacated or reversed; and (iv) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to require any party hereto to enter into any agreement with any Governmental Entity or to consent to any order, decree or judgment requiring such party to hold, separate or divest, or to restrict the dominion or control of such party or any of its Affiliates over, any of the assets, properties or businesses of such party or its Affiliates in existence on the date hereof.

ARTICLE VIII

CONDITIONS TO CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER

Section 8.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Company Merger. The respective obligations of each party to effect the Company Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction or waiver, to the extent permitted by Law, at or prior to the Company Effective Time of the following conditions:

(a) The Registration Statement shall have become effective in accordance with the provisions of the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall be in effect and no proceeding for such purpose shall be pending before or threatened by the SEC; and all applicable time periods required under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act following the mailing of the Information Statement to the Company's stockholders shall have lapsed.

(b) The Laser Shares shall have been approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance.

(c) No preliminary or permanent injunction or other order by any federal or state court in the United States of competent jurisdiction which prohibits the consummation of the Company Merger shall have been issued and remain in effect.

(d) The Holdings Merger shall have been consummated in accordance with its terms and the applicable provisions of the DGCL.

ARTICLE IX

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

Section 9.1 Termination. This Agreement shall terminate automatically upon the termination of the Holdings Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms.

Section 9.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 9.1 hereof, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and there shall be no liability on the part of any of the parties; provided that the provisions of Sections 7.2 and 7.9 and of this Article IX shall continue and that nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for any willful breach hereof.

Section 9.3 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties pursuant to a writing adopted by action taken by all of the parties at any time prior to (but not following) the consummation of the Holdings Merger. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by all the parties hereto.

Section 9.4 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to (but not following) the consummation of the Holdings Merger any party hereto may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only as against such party and only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

ARTICLE X

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 10.1 No Survival of Representations and Warranties. No representations or warranties contained herein shall survive beyond the Company Effective Time. This Section 10.1 shall not limit any covenant or agreement of the parties which by its terms contemplates performance after the Company Effective Time.

Section 10.2 Notices. All notices or other communications hereunder shall be deemed to have been duly given and made if in writing and if served by personal delivery upon the party for whom it is intended, if delivered by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by a national courier service, or if sent by telecopier; provided that the telecopy is promptly confirmed by telephone confirmation thereof, to the person at the address set forth below, or such other address as may be designated in writing hereafter, in the same manner, by such person:

Any such notification shall be deemed delivered (i) upon receipt, if delivered personally, (ii) on the next business day, if sent by national courier service for next business day delivery or (iii) the business day received, if sent by telecopier.

Section 10.3 Descriptive Headings. The headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 10.4 Entire Agreement; No Third-Party Beneficiary. This Agreement (including the Exhibits, Disclosure Schedules and other documents and instruments referred to herein) (a) constitutes the entire agreement and supersedes all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties or any of them, with respect to the subject matter hereof; (b) except for the provisions of Sections 7.7(c) and 7.8 hereof, is not intended to confer upon any other person any rights or remedies hereunder.

Section 10.5 Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to an Article, Section or Annex, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of, or an Annex to, this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation". The words "hereof", "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The phrase "made available" in this Agreement shall mean that the information referred to has been made available if requested by the party to whom such information is to be made available. All terms defined in this Agreement shall have the defined meanings used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant hereto unless otherwise defined therein. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. Any agreement, instrument or statute defined or referred to herein or in any agreement or instrument that is referred to herein means such agreement, instrument or statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including (in the case of agreements or instruments) by waiver or consent and (in the case of statutes) by succession of comparable successor statutes and references to all attachments thereto and instruments incorporated therein. References to a person are also to its permitted successors and assigns and, in the case of an individual, to his heirs and estate, as applicable.

Section 10.6 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions hereof, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it has been held invalid or unenforceable, shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated thereby. Upon any such determination, the parties shall negotiate in good faith in an effort to agree upon a suitable and equitable substitute provision to effect original intent of the parties.

Section 10.7 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement shall be assigned, in whole or in part, by operation of Law or otherwise by any of the parties without the prior written consent of the other parties. Any assignment in violation of the preceding sentence shall be void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 10.8 Disclosure Schedules. Matters reflected on the Company Disclosure Schedule are not necessarily limited to matters required by this Agreement to be reflected therein and the inclusion of such matters shall not be deemed an admission that such matters were required to be reflected on the Company Disclosure Schedule. Such additional matters are set forth for informational purposes only and do not necessarily include other matters of a similar nature. Capitalized terms used in the Company Disclosure Schedule but not otherwise defined therein shall have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in this Agreement.

Section 10.9 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to the provisions thereof relating to conflicts of Law.

Section 10.10 Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and that the parties shall be entitled to specific performance of the terms hereof, in addition to any other remedy at Law or equity.

Section 10.11 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Section 10.12 Certain Terms. As used herein, (i) the term "material adverse effect" (including as used in any definition), with respect to any Person, shall exclude any change, event, effect or circumstance (a) arising in connection with the announcement or performance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Holdings Merger Agreement and (b) affecting the United States economy generally or such Person's industries generally; and (ii) "to the knowledge of the Company" shall mean to the actual knowledge of Paul E. Shapiro, Jerry W. Levin and Steven R. Isko.

[SIGNATURE PAGE FOLLOWS]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the parties hereto has caused this Agreement to be executed on its behalf by its officers thereunto duly authorized, all as of the date first above written.

Board of Directors
Sunbeam Corporation
1615 South Congress Avenue
Suite 200
Delray Beach, FL 33445

Members of the Board:

We understand that CLN Holdings Inc. ("Holdings"), Sunbeam Corporation ("Buyer"), Laser Acquisition Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Buyer ("LAC"), and Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc. have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 (the "Holdings Merger Agreement"). Pursuant to the Holdings Merger Agreement, LAC will merge with and into Holdings (the "Holdings Merger") and all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Holdings (the "Holdings Common Stock") will be converted into the right to receive $159,956,756 in cash and 14,099,749 shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Buyer Common Stock"), of Buyer (collectively, the "Holdings Consideration").

We also understand that Buyer, Camper Acquisition Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Buyer ("CAC"), and The Coleman Company, Inc. ("the Company") have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 ("the Company Merger Agreement"). Pursuant to the Company Merger Agreement, CAC will be merged with and into the Company (the "Company Merger" and, together with the Holdings Merger, the "Mergers") and each outstanding share of common stock, par value $.01 per share of The Coleman Company, Inc. (the "Company Common Stock"), will be converted into the right to receive (i) 0.5677 shares of Buyer Common Stock and (ii) $6.44 in cash. Upon consummation of the Holdings Merger and Company Merger, Buyer will indirectly beneficially own 100% of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the Consideration to be paid by the Buyer pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the Buyer.

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information of the Company and the Buyer, respectively;
- (ii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning the Company and the Buyer prepared by the managements of the Company and the Buyer, respectively;
- (iii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial data concerning Holdings prepared by management of Holdings;
- (iv) reviewed certain financial projections prepared by the managements of the Company and the Buyer, respectively;
- (v) discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of the Company with senior executives of the Company;
- (vi) reviewed with the management of the Buyer their estimates of the synergies and cost savings expected to be achieved from the Merger;
- (vii) discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of the Buyer with senior executives of the Buyer;
- (viii) reviewed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the Buyer's earnings per share, cash flow, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios;
- (ix) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for the Company Common Stock and the Buyer Common Stock;
- (x) compared the financial performance of the Company and the Buyer and the prices and trading activity of the Company Common Stock and the Buyer Common Stock with that of certain other comparable publicly-traded companies and their securities;
- (xi) reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain comparable acquisition transactions;
- (xii) participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of the Company and the Buyer and their financial and legal advisors;
- (xiii) reviewed the Company Merger Agreement and Holdings Merger Agreement;
- (xiv) reviewed evaluations prepared by Coopers & Lybrand of the potential synergy opportunities present in the Mergers; and
- (xv) performed such other analyses as we have deemed appropriate.

We have assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information reviewed by us for the purposes of this opinion. With respect to the financial projections including the estimates of synergies and cost savings expected to be achieved in the Mergers, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of the Company. With respect to the potential operational improvements associated with the Mergers we have relied upon the evaluation of both Coopers & Lybrand and the Company. We have not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of the Company; however, we have reviewed the valuation of Coopers & Lybrand with respect to operational benefits expected to be achieved in the Mergers, and have relied without independent verification upon such valuations for purposes of this opinion. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of the date hereof.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Buyer in connection with this transaction and will receive a fee for our services.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Buyer and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent.

Based on the foregoing, we are of the opinion on the date hereof that the Consideration to be paid by the Buyer pursuant to the Merger Agreements is fair from a financial point of view to the Buyer.

Very truly yours,

ZERO COUPON CONVERTIBLE SENIOR SUBORDINATED DEBENTURES DUE 2018

The Debentures are convertible at any time after 90 days following the latest date of original issuance thereof and prior to maturity, unless previously redeemed or otherwise purchased, into shares of the Company's common stock, $0.01 par value (the "Common Stock"), at a conversion rate of 6.575 shares per $1,000 principal amount at maturity. The conversion rate will not be adjusted for accrued Original Issue Discount (as defined), but will be subject to adjustment in certain events. See "Description of Debentures—Conversion of Debentures." The Company's Common Stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "SOC." The reported last sale price of the Company's Common Stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange Composite Tape on March 19, 1998 was $45¹/₁₆ per share.

The Debentures are being issued at an original price of $372.43 per $1,000 principal amount at maturity (the "Issue Price"), which represents an original issue discount of 62.757% from the principal amount thereof payable at maturity (the "Original Issue Discount"). The Issue Price represents a yield to maturity of 5.0% per annum (computed on a semi-annual bond equivalent basis).

Prior to March 25, 2003, the Debentures are not redeemable at the option of the Company. On or after such date, the Debentures are redeemable on at least 30 days' notice at the option of the Company, in whole or in part at any time, at redemption prices equal to the Issue Price plus accrued Original Issue Discount to the date of redemption. See "Description of Debentures—Redemption of Debentures at the Option of the Company."

The Debentures may be purchased by the Company, at the option of the holder, as of March 25, 2003, March 25, 2008 and March 25, 2013 for purchase prices equal to the Issue Price plus accrued Original Issue Discount to such dates. Subject to certain conditions, the Company may elect to pay any such purchase price in cash or Common Stock, or any combination thereof. See "Description of Debentures—Purchase of Debentures at the Option of the Holder." The Debentures may also be redeemed at the option of the holder if there is a Fundamental Change (as defined) at redemption prices equal to the Issue Price plus accrued Original Issue Discount to the date of redemption, subject to adjustment in certain circumstances as described herein. See "Description of Debentures—Redemption at Option of the Holder Upon a Fundamental Change." The Debentures will be subordinated in right of payment to all existing and future Senior Indebtedness (as defined) of the Company and effectively subordinated in right of payment to all indebtedness and other liabilities of the Company's subsidiaries. At December 28, 1997, on a pro forma basis after giving effect to the Acquisitions (as defined), the Bank Financing (as defined), the offering of the Debentures and the application of the net proceeds therefrom, approximately $1,294 million of Senior Indebtedness would have been outstanding and the total indebtedness and other liabilities of the Company's subsidiaries would have been approximately $731 million.

The Debentures are eligible for trading in Private Offerings, Resales and Trading through Automated Linkages ("PORTAL") Market.

SEE "RISK FACTORS" BEGINNING ON PAGE 12 FOR A DISCUSSION OF CERTAIN FACTORS THAT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED BY PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS.

THE DEBENTURES AND THE COMMON STOCK ISSUABLE UPON CONVERSION OF THE DEBENTURES HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED OR SOLD EXCEPT PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM, OR IN A TRANSACTION NOT SUBJECT TO, THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT. ACCORDINGLY, THE DEBENTURES MAY BE OFFERED AND SOLD ONLY TO (i) "QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYERS" (AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 144A AND (ii) A LIMITED NUMBER OF OTHER INSTITUTIONAL "ACCREDITED INVESTORS" (AS DEFINED IN RULE 501(A)(1), (2), (3) OR (7) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) THAT, PRIOR TO THEIR PURCHASE OF THE DEBENTURES, DELIVER TO THE INITIAL PURCHASER A LETTER CONTAINING CERTAIN REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS. FOR A DESCRIPTION OF CERTAIN RESTRICTIONS ON RESALE OR TRANSFER, SEE "TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS."

PRICE 37.243% AND ACCRUED ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT, IF ANY

The Company has granted Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated (the "Initial Purchaser") an option to purchase up to an additional $302,100,000 aggregate principal amount at maturity of Debentures to cover over-allotments, if any. See "Plan of Distribution."

The Debentures are offered, subject to prior sale, when, as and if accepted by the Initial Purchaser and subject to approval of certain legal matters by Davis Polk & Wardwell, counsel for the Initial Purchaser. It is expected that delivery of the Debentures will be made on or about March 25, 1998 at the office of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, New York, N.Y., against payment therefor in immediately available funds.

THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN OFFER TO SELL, OR A SOLICITATION OF AN OFFER TO BUY, ANY OF THE SECURITIES OFFERED HEREBY BY ANY PERSON IN ANY JURISDICTION IN WHICH IT IS UNLAWFUL FOR SUCH PERSON TO MAKE SUCH AN OFFERING OR SOLICITATION. NEITHER THE DELIVERY OF THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM NOR ANY SALE MADE HEREUNDER OF THE SECURITIES DESCRIBED HEREIN SHALL UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES IMPLY THAT THE INFORMATION HEREIN IS CORRECT AS OF ANY DATE SUBSEQUENT TO THE DATE HEREOF.

This Offering Memorandum is highly confidential and has been prepared by the Company solely for use in connection with the proposed private placement of the Debentures described herein. The Company and the Initial Purchaser reserve the right to reject any offer to purchase Debentures, in whole or in part, for any reason and to sell less than the principal amount at maturity of the Debentures offered hereby. This Offering Memorandum is personal to each offeree and does not constitute an offer to any other person or to the public generally to subscribe for or otherwise acquire the Debentures or the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures. Distribution of this Offering Memorandum to any person other than the offeree and those persons, if any, retained to advise such offeree with respect thereto is unauthorized, and any disclosure of any of its contents without the prior written consent of the Company is prohibited. Offerees represent that they are basing their investment decision solely on this Offering Memorandum and their own examination of the Company and the terms of the offering. Each prospective purchaser, by accepting delivery of this Offering Memorandum, agrees to the foregoing and, if the offeree does not purchase Debentures or this offering is terminated, to return this Offering Memorandum and all documents delivered herewith to: Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, 1585 Broadway, New York, New York, 10036, Attention: Syndicate Department.

Each person receiving this Offering Memorandum acknowledges that (i) such person has been afforded an opportunity to request from the Company and to review all additional information considered by it to be necessary to verify the accuracy of or to supplement the information herein, (ii) it has not relied on the Initial Purchaser or any person affiliated with the Initial Purchaser in connection with its investigation of the accuracy of such information or its investment decision and (iii) no person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representation concerning the Company or the Debentures or the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures offered hereby other than as contained or incorporated by reference herein and information given by duly authorized officers and employees of the Company in connection with investors' examination of the Company and the terms of the offering, and, if given or made, such other information or representation should not be relied upon as having been authorized by the Company or the Initial Purchaser.

No representation or warranty, express or implied, is made as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained or incorporated by reference herein, and nothing contained in this Offering Memorandum, or incorporated by reference herein, is, or shall be relied upon as, a promise or representation. The Initial Purchaser assumes no responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of such information.

IN MAKING AN INVESTMENT DECISION, INVESTORS MUST RELY ON THEIR OWN EXAMINATION OF THE COMPANY AND THE TERMS OF THE OFFERING, INCLUDING THE MERITS AND RISKS INVOLVED. THESE SECURITIES HAVE NOT BEEN RECOMMENDED BY THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION. FURTHERMORE, THE FOREGOING AUTHORITIES HAVE NOT PASSED UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THIS DOCUMENT. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

CERTAIN PERSONS PARTICIPATING IN THIS OFFERING MAY ENGAGE IN TRANSACTIONS THAT STABILIZE, MAINTAIN OR OTHERWISE AFFECT THE PRICE OF THE DEBENTURES AND COMMON STOCK OF THE COMPANY. SPECIFICALLY, THE INITIAL PURCHASER MAY OVERALLOT IN CONNECTION WITH THE OFFERING AND MAY BID FOR AND PURCHASE DEBENTURES AND SHARES OF COMMON STOCK IN THE OPEN MARKET. FOR A DISCUSSION OF THESE ACTIVITIES, SEE "PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION."

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

The Company is subject to the informational requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), and in accordance therewith files reports, proxy statements and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). Such reports, proxy statements and other information filed with the Commission by the Company can be inspected and copied at the public reference facilities maintained by the Commission at 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549, and at the Commission's regional offices located at 500 West Madison Street, Room 1400, Chicago, Illinois 60661 and at 7 World Trade Center, Suite 1300, New York, New York 10048. Copies of such material can be obtained from the Public Reference Section of the Commission at 450 Fifth Street, Washington, D.C. 20549, at prescribed rates, or the Commission's site on the World Wide Web at <http://www.sec.gov>. Copies of other materials concerning the Company can be inspected at the offices of the New York Stock Exchange, 20 Broad Street, New York, New York 10005.

The Company has entered into separate definitive agreements to acquire CLN Holdings, Inc. ("CLN Holdings"), the parent of The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman"), Signature Brands USA, Inc. ("Signature Brands") and First Alert, Inc. ("First Alert"), subject to various customary closing conditions, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals. Each of CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert is subject to the informational requirements of the Exchange Act and in accordance therewith files reports, proxy statements and other information with the Commission. The information contained herein with respect to CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert is derived from such filings with the Commission or from information supplied by them for inclusion herein. Neither the Company nor the Initial Purchaser warrant that there have not occurred events, not yet publicly disclosed by CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert which would affect the accuracy of the statements concerning CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert included herein. Investors are referred to each of CLN Holdings', Coleman's, Signature Brands' and First Alert's complete filings with the Commission which are available from the sources described in the immediately preceding paragraph.

INCORPORATION OF CERTAIN DOCUMENTS BY REFERENCE

The following document has been filed by the Company with the Commission (File No. 1-52) pursuant to the Exchange Act and is incorporated herein by reference: the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 28, 1997. All documents filed by the Company pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act subsequent to the date of this Offering Memorandum but prior to the termination of the offering to which this Offering Memorandum relates shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in this Offering Memorandum and to be part hereof from the date of filing of such documents. Any statement contained in a document incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this Offering Memorandum to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed document which also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein modifies or supersedes such statement. Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this Offering Memorandum. The Company will provide without charge to each person, including any beneficial owner, to whom this Offering Memorandum is delivered, upon written or oral request of such person, a copy of any and all of the documents that have been or may be incorporated by reference herein (other than exhibits to such documents unless such exhibits are specifically incorporated by reference into such documents). Requests for such documents should be directed to Rich Goudis, at the principal executive offices of the Company in writing at Sunbeam Corporation, 1615 South Congress Avenue, Suite 200, Delray Beach, Florida 33445 or by telephone at (561) 243-2100.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Offering Memorandum, including the documents incorporated by reference herein, contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. The statements contained in this Offering Memorandum or incorporated by reference herein that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act, including without limitation statements regarding the expectations, beliefs, intentions, plans or strategies of the Company, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert, or their directors or officers regarding the future. All forward-looking statements included in this document or incorporated by reference herein are based on information available to the Company on the date hereof or thereof, and the Company assumes no obligation to update any such forward-looking statements. Prospective investors are cautioned that any such forward looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks and uncertainties and that actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors. The information included in this Offering Memorandum, including without limitation the information set forth under the headings "Risk Factors," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Business" identifies important factors that could cause such differences.

Except as otherwise indicated, (i) all references to the "Company" or "Sunbeam Corporation" refer to Sunbeam Corporation and its subsidiaries, unless the context otherwise requires, and (ii) all information in this Offering Memorandum assumes that the Initial Purchaser's over-allotment option will not be exercised.

SUMMARY

The following information does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the more detailed financial and other information appearing elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum and in the documents incorporated by reference herein. The offering of the Debentures is referred to herein as the "Offering." For a discussion of certain important factors that should be considered by prospective purchasers of the Debentures, see "Risk Factors" beginning on page 12.

THE COMPANY

The Company is a leading designer, manufacturer and marketer of branded consumer products. The Company's primary business is the manufacture, marketing and distribution of durable household consumer products through mass merchandisers, home centers and other channels (such as Wal-Mart, Kmart and Home Depot) in the United States and internationally. The Company also sells its products to commercial end users such as hotels and other institutions. Sunbeam products enjoy a long-standing reputation for quality, and a majority of the Company's sales are from products which hold the number one or two market share in their respective product categories. In 1997, the Company's net sales were approximately $1,168 million.

The Company's five product categories are: (1) Appliances (mixers, blenders, food steamers, bread makers, rice cookers, coffee makers, toasters, irons and garment steamers); (2) Health at Home (vaporizers, humidifiers, air cleaners, water filters, massagers and scales); (3) Personal Care and Comfort (shower massagers, hair clippers and trimmers, electric warming blankets); (4) Outdoor Cooking (electric, gas and charcoal grills and grill accessories); and (5) Away From Home (clippers and related products for professional beauty, barber and veterinarian trade and sales of products to commercial and institutional channels). The International Group is responsible for sales (primarily of small appliances, personal care, grills and comfort products, professional clippers and related products) in all countries other than the United States.

The Company has a management team with extensive consumer products experience and proven expertise in cost containment and operational improvement. On February 20, 1998, each of the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Dunlap; the Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Kersh; and the Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, Mr. Fannin, signed new three year employment contracts with the Company which include substantial equity-based compensation.

Competitive Strengths

Sunbeam competes in markets with well-established United States and foreign companies on the basis of various strengths, depending on the country, product category and distribution channels. The Company believes that it is well-positioned to pursue continued growth as a result of these competitive strengths, which include the following:

Market Leadership. The majority of Sunbeam sales are from products in which the Company holds the number one or two market share position. The Company believes that this combination of leading brand-name products and breadth of product offerings makes Sunbeam an attractive vendor to all retailers, particularly those who are consolidating their suppliers.

Brand Name Recognition. The Sunbeam® and Oster® brands have been household names for generations. The Company believes that these brands, along with its other well-known secondary brand names such as Mixmaster®, Osterizer® and Grillmaster®, draw customers into retail stores specifically to purchase products bearing these brand names. During 1997, the Company spent over $56 million, or approximately 5% of its 1997 net sales, for advertising and sales promotion to support brand recognition.

Distribution Network. The Company has one of the premier mass merchant distribution networks serving large national retailers in the United States. The Company also has a strong network of well-established distributors and service organizations in Latin America. The Company supports its customers' needs with strong warehousing and distribution capabilities, a broad, high-quality product portfolio, electronic data interchange and just-in-time product delivery capabilities. The Company markets its products through virtually every category of retailer including mass merchandisers, catalog showrooms, warehouse clubs, department stores, catalogues, Company-owned outlet stores and pet supply retailers, as well as independent distributors and military post exchange outlets.

Strong Position in Consolidating Retail Environment. The consolidation trend in the retail industry has resulted in the emergence and global expansion of large mass merchandisers. These merchandisers demand financially strong, efficient suppliers who offer a broad range of innovative, quality products, have the ability to make timely shipments in large volumes and provide strong customer, promotional and merchandising support. The Company continues to benefit from this trend and believes it has the opportunity to further expand distribution with a number of major retailers while increasing its penetration of existing accounts. In 1997, the Company sold products to virtually all of the top 100 U.S. retailers, including Wal-Mart, Price Costco, Kmart, Target Stores, Home Depot and Sears.

Restructuring and Growth Plan

In the fall of 1996, Sunbeam announced a major restructuring and growth plan under newly appointed Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Albert Dunlap. The restructuring, which was recently completed, included the redefinition of Sunbeam's core products, divestiture of non-core businesses, assembling a new management team, and the closing of 18 factories, 43 warehouses and 5 headquarters offices. The Company also consolidated all purchasing functions, reduced the number of stock keeping units ("SKU's") from approximately 11,400 to 2,000 and outsourced certain of the administrative, manufacturing and distribution activities. These actions led to a reduction of nearly half the work force (approximately 6,000 jobs). In 1997, net sales grew 18.7% and operating margin improved to 17.1% from 0.5% (excluding the impact of special charges) in 1996, with operating margins reaching 20% in the fourth quarter of 1997.

The Acquisitions

Following the successful restructuring of the Company, the management team has extended its strategic focus to identify underperforming companies with strong brand names. The Company intends to capitalize on its proven capability in cost containment and operational improvement by acquiring such companies and their premier brand names, thereby broadening the Sunbeam product offering spectrum and presenting opportunities to eliminate redundant or inefficient operations.

On March 2, 1998, the Company announced that it had entered into separate agreements to acquire Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert (collectively, the "Acquisitions"). The Company is acquiring these companies primarily due to their strong and established brand names, the potential opportunity to streamline operations, the diversification they provide to the Company's product base and the potential for revenue and operational synergies. In addition, the Company believes that its existing international geographic marketing and distribution strengths and those of the acquired companies will significantly complement each other. The Company's management team believes that these Acquisitions will give the Company a platform from which to capitalize on the fragmentation and potential consolidation of the durable household consumer products sector.

Coleman. With 1997 net revenues of approximately $1.154 billion, Coleman is a leading manufacturer and marketer of consumer products for the worldwide outdoor recreation market. Its products have been sold domestically and internationally under the Coleman brand name since the 1920s. Coleman attributes its leading market position to the strength of its brand name, the breadth of products sold, product quality and innovation, marketing, distribution and manufacturing expertise.

- Outdoor Recreation: This product category includes lanterns and stoves, propane and butane fuel, coolers and jugs, recreational soft goods (including tents, sleeping bags, backpacks and duffel bags), outdoor furniture, electric lights, spas and camping accessories. Coleman believes it is the leading worldwide manufacturer of lanterns and stoves for outdoor recreational use and a leading supplier to the worldwide camping and outdoor recreation market of propane and butane cartridges and camping fuel. Coleman's products are marketed under the brand names Coleman®, Camping Gaz® and East Pak®.
- Hardware: This product category includes portable generators and air compressors marketed under the Powermate® brand name. Coleman is a leading worldwide manufacturer and distributor of portable generators. These products are distributed predominantly through mass merchandisers and home center chains.

Based on the assumption that all presently exercisable Coleman options will be exercised prior to the closing of the Coleman acquisition, the Company expects to issue and deliver approximately 21.3 million shares of Common Stock (with an aggregate value of approximately $1 billion based on current market prices) and to pay an aggregate of $221 million in cash in connection with the Coleman acquisition. On such basis, the Coleman acquisition is valued at approximately $2.2 billion (including the assumption of approximately $976 million of indebtedness). If none of the presently exercisable Coleman options are exercised prior to closing of the Coleman acquisition, the Company would expect to issue and deliver approximately 19.4 million shares of Common Stock and pay aggregate cash consideration of $261 million in connection with the Coleman acquisition.

Signature Brands. With net sales of approximately $276 million for its fiscal year ended September 28, 1997, Signature Brands is a leading manufacturer of a comprehensive line of consumer and professional products. Signature Brands attributes its leading market position to its strong brand name recognition, distribution in major domestic high volume retail outlets, marketing and sales promotion efforts, electronic data interchange capabilities, merchandise flow systems and established relationships with its retail customers.

- Consumer Products: Signature Brands markets its consumer products under the Mr. Coffee®, Health o meter®, Counselor® and Borg® brand names. Signature Brands produces and markets an extensive line of Mr. Coffee® brand automatic drip coffeemakers, espresso/cappuccino makers and iced and hot teamakers. Mr. Coffee, Inc. has been the leading producer of automatic drip coffeemakers in the U.S. since 1975. In addition, Mr. Coffee® is the leading brand of basket-type coffee filters in the United States. Other consumer products marketed under the Mr. Coffee® brand name include water filtration products, coffeemaker related accessories such as replacement decanters and mug warmers, and other kitchen countertop appliances such as food dehydrators. In addition, Signature Brands manufactures a comprehensive line of Health o meter® brand analog (mechanical) and digital (electronic) floor scales and waist-high and eye-level scales. Capitalizing on the recently acquired rights to the Borg® and Counselor® brand names, Signature Brands intends to introduce in 1998 a new line of Borg® scales that are distinctly European in design for department and specialty stores. Counselor® scales, to be introduced in 1998, will represent opening price point scales for the mass market.
- Professional Products: Professional products include the Pelouze® and Health o meter® brands of office, foodservice and medical scales and Mr. Coffee® brand commercial coffeemakers. Products sold as professional products include analog and digital scales for a full range of medical uses, including traditional balance beam scales, pediatric scales, wheelchair ramp scales, chair and sling scales for non-ambulatory patients, and home healthcare scales. Signature Brands' office products, marketed under the Pelouze® brand name, include analog and digital scales designed to provide mailing solutions for small, commercial establishments, home offices and departments within larger companies that process a small to medium volume of letters and packages daily. Pelouze® foodservice products include analog and digital portion control scales, thermometers and timers for commercial and non-commercial applications.

The Signature Brands transaction is valued at approximately $253 million, consisting of approximately $84 million in cash and the assumption of approximately $169 million of indebtedness.

First Alert. With 1997 net sales of approximately $187 million, First Alert is the market leader in smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in the United States. First Alert's market position is supported by the strength of the First Alert® brand name, which First Alert believes is the most widely recognized consumer brand in the home safety market. First Alert has capitalized on the First Alert® brand name and its leading smoke detector market share to develop and market a broad range of residential safety products.

- Smoke Detectors: First Alert's smoke detector product line consists of UL listed photoelectric and ionization smoke detectors. First Alert has the leading U.S. market share for these products. First Alert markets its smoke detectors under three principal brand names: the First Alert® premium brand name, which is featured in media and public relations promotional campaigns; the Family Guard® brand name, which is marketed as a lower priced, functional alternative for those consumers who are price sensitive; and the BRK® brand name, which is sold to the wholesale electrical market.
- Carbon Monoxide Detectors: These products include carbon monoxide detectors, first introduced by First Alert in September 1993, with biomimetic sensors sold under the First Alert® and Family Guard® brand names. First Alert holds the leading market position in the carbon monoxide detector market.
- Fire Extinguishers: First Alert's disposable fire extinguisher product line was introduced in 1985 to complement its First Alert® brand smoke detectors. First Alert currently markets a full range of fire extinguisher products for use by the consumer, including fire extinguishers for use in the kitchen, garage, workshop, automobiles and boats. These products are sold under the Sure Grip® brand name which is one of the leading brand names in the U.S. retail fire extinguisher market.

The First Alert transaction is valued at approximately $178 million, consisting of approximately $133 million in cash and the assumption of approximately $45 million of indebtedness.

Although the Company has entered into separate definitive agreements to acquire Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert, subject to various customary closing conditions, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals, there can be no assurance that any or all of such transactions will be consummated.

For further information with respect to the effects of the Acquisitions, see "Capitalization," "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Financial Statements" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources."

Financing Plan

In order to finance the cash portion of the Acquisitions and the repayment of all or substantially all of the outstanding indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert, the Company intends to negotiate a new bank credit facility (the "New Credit Facility") and to issue the Debentures offered hereby. See "Risk Factors—New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed." For a summary description of the expected terms of the New Credit Facility, see "Description of Other Indebtedness—New Credit Facility."

The Company intends to repay all or substantially all of the currently outstanding indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert as promptly as practicable following consummation of each Acquisition, subject to applicable notice provisions and other prepayment terms of the applicable indebtedness. Such repayments are expected to be funded with borrowings under the New Credit Facility and from the net proceeds of the Offering of the Debentures. See "Risk Factors—New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed," "Financing Plan and Use of Proceeds" and "Description of Other Indebtedness—New Credit Facility."

The following table sets forth the expected sources and uses of cash in connection with the financing of the Acquisitions:

Sources	Uses
(in millions)
New Credit Facility(a)	Repayment of existing indebtedness(b)
Debentures offered hereby	Cash Acquisition consideration(c)
	Fees and expenses(d)
Total	Total

(a) The New Credit Facility is expected to consist of a $1.5 billion term debt facility, and a $500 million revolving credit facility. See "Risk Factors—New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed" and "Description of Other Indebtedness—New Credit Facility."

(b) Represents the repayment of existing indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings, Signature Brands and First Alert of $202.2 million, $1,077.2 million, $179.9 million and $45.0 million, respectively. Existing indebtedness reflects amounts outstanding as of December 28, 1997, except for indebtedness of CLN Holdings issued at an original issue discount which reflects principal accreted through an assumed repayment date of May 15, 1998. The foregoing amounts include $7.0 million, $100.3 million and $5.5 million of estimated prepayment premiums related to the early retirement of indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings and Signature Brands, respectively. As of the actual date of repayment, the outstanding amount of existing indebtedness to be repaid is likely to be greater than the amount shown above due to increased borrowings to finance working capital requirements. The Company intends to refinance any such additional indebtedness using its unused borrowing capacity under the New Credit Facility. In particular, as of March 16, 1998 the outstanding indebtedness of the Company and CLN Holdings had increased by approximately $100 million and $60 million, respectively. See "Risk Factors—New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed" and "Description of Other Indebtedness—New Credit Facility."

(c) Represents the estimated net cash consideration payable (including the cash-out of options) in connection with the Acquisitions in the amounts of $261.1 million, $83.8 million and $132.8 million for Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert, respectively.

(d) Represents estimated transaction costs in connection with the Acquisitions and debt refinancing, including financial advisory fees, Initial Purchaser's commissions, bank fees, and legal and accounting fees and expenses.

Recent Announcement

On March 19, 1998 the Company issued a press release in which it stated that it is possible that its net sales for the first quarter of 1998 may be lower than the range of Wall Street analysts' estimates of $285 million to $295 million, but that net sales are expected to exceed 1997 first quarter net sales of $253.4 million. The Company stressed that sales of its products at retail remains very strong. The shortfall from analysts' estimates, if any, would be due to changes in inventory management and order patterns at certain of the Company's major retail customers. The Company further stated that based on the strength of its new product offerings and powerful brand names, it remains highly confident about the overall sales outlook for its products for the entire year.

Actual results could differ materially from the statements in the press release due to various factors including those set forth in "Risk Factors," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Business." See "Forward-Looking Information."

SUMMARY HISTORICAL AND PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The summary historical financial data of the Company for each of the fiscal years listed below have been derived from the Company's audited financial statements. The pro forma financial information has been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the unaudited pro forma condensed financial statements, including the notes thereto, appearing elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum. The summary unaudited pro forma financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred had the Acquisitions, the initial borrowings under the New Credit Facility used to fund a portion of the Acquisitions (the "Bank Financing") and the Offering been consummated as of the dates indicated, nor is the summary unaudited pro forma financial information necessarily indicative of future operating results or financial position. This summary should be read in conjunction with the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum and the information set forth under "Capitalization," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Financial Statements."

(a) Includes special charges of $337.6 million before taxes. See Notes 8 and 9 to Notes to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

(b) Gives pro forma effect to (i) the Acquisitions, (ii) the Bank Financing, (iii) the Offering and (iv) the use of net proceeds from the Offering and the Bank Financing as described under "Financing Plan and Use of Proceeds" (collectively, the "Pro Forma Transactions"), as if they had occurred on December 30, 1996.

(c) Reflects the adoption of SFAS No. 128, Earnings Per Share. See Note 1 to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

(d) In computing the ratio of earnings to fixed charges: (a) earnings represent income from continuing operations before income taxes and fixed charges (exclusive of interest capitalized); and (b) fixed charges consist of interest expense, capitalized interest and the estimated interest portion of rental expense. For the fiscal year ended December 29, 1996, earnings were insufficient to cover fixed charges by $285.6 million.

(e) Gives pro forma effect to the Pro Forma Transactions as if they had occurred as of December 28, 1997.

THE OFFERING

Securities Offered	$2,014,000,000 principal amount at maturity (plus up to an additional $302,100,000 principal amount at maturity if the Initial Purchaser's over-allotment option is exercised in full) of Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Subordinated Debentures due 2018 (the "Debentures"). There will be no periodic interest payments on the Debentures. See "Description of Debentures—General."
Yield to Maturity of Debentures	5.0% per annum (computed on a semi-annual bond equivalent basis) calculated from March 25, 1998.
Conversion	The Debentures are convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time after 90 days following the latest date of original issuance thereof and prior to maturity, unless previously redeemed or otherwise purchased by the Company, into Common Stock at the rate of 6.575 shares per $1,000 principal amount at maturity of the Debentures (the "Conversion Rate"). The Conversion Rate will not be adjusted for accrued Original Issue Discount (as defined), but will be subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events. Upon conversion, the holder will not receive any cash payment representing accrued Original Issue Discount; such accrued Original Issue Discount will be deemed paid by the Common Stock received upon conversion. See "Description of Debentures—Conversion of Debentures."
Subordination	The Debentures will be subordinated in right of payment to all existing and future Senior Indebtedness (as defined) of the Company and effectively subordinated in right of payment to all indebtedness and other liabilities of the Company's subsidiaries. The Debentures will rank pari passu with liabilities owed to trade creditors of the Company. At December 28, 1997, on a pro forma basis after giving effect to the Acquisitions, the Bank Financing, the Offering and the application of the net proceeds therefrom, approximately $1,294 million of Senior Indebtedness would have been outstanding and the Company's subsidiaries would have had approximately $731 million of indebtedness and other liabilities outstanding (excluding intercompany liabilities and liabilities of a type not required to be reflected on a balance sheet in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles) to which the Debentures would have been effectively subordinated. See "Description of Debentures—Subordination of Debentures."
Original Issue Discount	The Debentures are being issued at an Original Issue Discount for Federal income tax purposes equal to the excess of the stated redemption price at maturity of the Debentures (which is expected to be the principal amount at maturity) over the amount of their issue price (which is expected to be the Issue Price). Prospective purchasers of Debentures should be aware that, although there will be no periodic payments of interest on the Debentures, accrued Original Issue Discount will be included periodically in a holder's gross income for Federal income tax purposes prior to conversion, redemption, other disposition or maturity of such holder's Debentures, whether or not such Debentures are ultimately converted, redeemed, sold (to the Company or otherwise) or paid at maturity. See "Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations."

Sinking Fund	None.
Redemption	The Debentures will not be redeemable by the Company prior to March 25, 2003. On or after such date, the Debentures will be redeemable for cash on at least 30 days' notice, at the option of the Company, in whole at any time or in part from time to time, at redemption prices equal to the Issue Price plus accrued Original Issue Discount to the date of redemption. See "Description of Debentures—Redemption of Debentures at the Option of the Company."
Fundamental Change	The Debentures may be redeemed for cash at the option of the holder if there is a Fundamental Change (as defined) at a price equal to the Issue Price plus accrued Original Issue Discount to the date of redemption, subject to adjustment in certain circumstances. See "Description of Debentures—Redemption at Option of the Holder Upon a Fundamental Change."
Purchase at the Option of the Holder...	The Company will purchase Debentures at the option of the holder as of March 25, 2003, March 25, 2008 and March 25, 2013, at purchase prices equal to the Issue Price plus accrued Original Issue Discount to such dates. The Company may, at its option, elect to pay any such purchase price in cash or Common Stock, or any combination thereof. See "Description of Debentures—Purchase of Debentures at the Option of the Holder."
Financing Plan and Use of Proceeds ...	The net proceeds from the Offering, together with the Bank Financing, will be used to finance the Acquisitions and related transactions. "See Financing Plan and Use of Proceeds."
Registration Rights	The Company will, for the benefit of the holders, file with the Commission as soon as practicable, but in any event within 90 days after the first date of original issuance of the Debentures, a shelf registration statement (the "Shelf Registration Statement") covering resales of the Debentures and the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures (the "Registrable Securities"). The Company will use its best efforts to cause the Shelf Registration Statement to become effective as promptly as is practicable, but in any event within 180 days after such first date of original issuance, and to keep the Shelf Registration Statement effective until the earlier of (i) the sale pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement of all the securities registered thereunder and (ii) the expiration of the holding period applicable to such securities held by non-affiliates of the Company under Rule 144(k) of the Securities Act, or any successor provision, subject to certain permitted exceptions. See "Registration Rights."
Transfer Restrictions	The Debentures and the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures have not been registered under the Securities Act and are subject to restrictions on transfer. See "Transfer Restrictions."

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Debentures offered hereby involves a high degree of risk. Prospective investors should carefully consider the following risk factors, in addition to the other information set forth in this Offering Memorandum, in connection with an investment in the Debentures offered hereby.

Substantial Leverage; Ability to Service Indebtedness. Following the Acquisitions, the Bank Financing and the Offering, the Company will be highly leveraged, with indebtedness that is very substantial in relation to its shareholders' equity. After giving pro forma effect to the Acquisitions, the Bank Financing and the Offering, as of December 28, 1997, the Company's aggregate outstanding indebtedness would have been $2,044 million and the Company's shareholders' equity would have been $1,278 million. The Company expects that the New Credit Facility will permit the Company to incur or guarantee additional indebtedness, subject to certain limitations. The Indenture does not restrict the ability of the Company to incur additional indebtedness. See "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Financial Statements," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources," "The Acquisitions," "Description of Other Indebtedness" and "Description of Debentures."

The Company's high degree of leverage could have important consequences to holders of the Debentures, including but not limited to the following: (i) the Company's ability to obtain additional financing for working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions or general corporate purposes may be impaired in the future; (ii) a substantial portion of the Company's cash flow from operations must be dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on its indebtedness, thereby reducing the funds available to the Company for its operations and other purposes; (iii) the Company may be substantially more leveraged than certain of its competitors, which may place the Company at a competitive disadvantage; (iv) the Company may be hindered in its ability to adjust rapidly to changing market conditions; and (v) the Company's substantial degree of leverage could make it more vulnerable in the event of a downturn in general economic conditions or its business.

The Company's ability to repay or to refinance its obligations with respect to its indebtedness will depend on its future financial and operating performance, which, in turn, will be subject to prevailing economic and competitive conditions and to financial, business and other factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control. These factors could include operating difficulties, increased operating costs, product pricing pressures, the response of competitors, and delays in implementing strategic projects. The Company's ability to meet its debt service and other obligations will depend in significant part on the extent to which the Company can implement its business strategy and successfully integrate the Acquisitions. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to implement its strategy fully, that the anticipated results of its strategy will be realized or that the Acquisitions will be successfully integrated.

If the Company's cash flow and capital resources are insufficient to fund its debt service obligations, the Company may be forced to reduce or delay capital expenditures, sell assets, or seek to obtain additional equity capital, or to refinance or restructure its debt. There can be no assurance that the Company's cash flow and capital resources will be sufficient for payment of principal of, and premium, if any, and interest on, its indebtedness in the future, or that any such alternative measures would be successful or would permit the Company to meet its scheduled debt service obligations. In addition, because the Company's obligations under the New Credit Facility will bear interest at floating rates, an increase in interest rates could adversely affect, among other things, the Company's ability to meet its debt service obligations.

Holding Company Structure; Subordination. The Debentures will be exclusively the obligations of Sunbeam Corporation and not of any of its subsidiaries. The Company is a holding company that conducts substantially all of its operations through its subsidiaries. As a holding company, the Company holds no significant assets other than its investments in and advances to its subsidiaries. The Company is, therefore, dependent upon its receipt of sufficient funds from its subsidiaries to meet its own obligations, including its obligation to pay the accreted value of the Debentures upon maturity or earlier redemption or repurchase. The ability of the Company's subsidiaries to pay dividends or to make other payments or advances to the Company will depend on the operating results of its subsidiaries and any restrictions on paying such dividends or making such payments as may be applicable to such subsidiaries, including those expected to be contained in the New Credit Facility.

The Debentures will be unsecured and subordinated in right of payment to all existing and future Senior Indebtedness of the Sunbeam Corporation. As a result of such subordination, in the event of bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of the Company and in certain other events, the assets of the Company will be available to pay its obligations with respect to the Debentures only after all Senior Indebtedness has been paid in full, and there may not be sufficient assets remaining to pay amounts due on any or all of the Debentures then outstanding. The Debentures will be expressly subordinated to borrowings under the New Credit Facility and will be also effectively subordinated to all existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities and commitments of the Company's subsidiaries. The Company expects that the New Credit Facility will permit the Company to incur or guarantee additional indebtedness, subject to certain limitations. The Indenture does not prohibit or limit the incurrence of Senior Indebtedness by the Company or the incurrence of other indebtedness and other liabilities by the Company or its subsidiaries, and the incurrence of additional indebtedness and other liabilities by the Company or its subsidiaries could adversely affect the Company's ability to pay its obligations with respect to the Debentures. After giving pro forma effect to the Acquisitions, the Bank Financing and the Offering, as of December 28, 1997 the Company would have had $1,294 million of Senior Indebtedness outstanding, and as of the same date the Company's subsidiaries would have had approximately $731 million of indebtedness and other liabilities outstanding (excluding intercompany liabilities and liabilities of a type not required to be reflected on a balance sheet in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles) to which the Debentures would have been effectively subordinated. The Company anticipates that from time to time it will incur indebtedness, including Senior Indebtedness, and that it and its subsidiaries will from time to time incur other additional indebtedness and liabilities. See "Description of Debentures—Subordination of Debentures."

The Company expects that borrowings under the New Credit Facility will be, and the Company's and its subsidiaries' future indebtedness may be, secured by liens and other security interests over the assets of the Company's subsidiaries and the Company's equity interests in the Company's subsidiaries. Moreover, the Company expects the New Credit Facility will be guaranteed by each of the Company's wholly-owned U.S. subsidiaries and that such subsidiary guarantees will be secured as described above. The ability of the Company, and therefore the holders of the Debentures to benefit from distributions of assets of the Company's subsidiaries may be limited to the extent that the outstanding shares of any of its subsidiaries and such subsidiary's assets are pledged to secure other debt of the Company or its subsidiaries. Any right of the Company to receive assets of any subsidiary upon such subsidiary's liquidation or reorganization will be structurally subordinated to the claims of that subsidiary's creditors.

Risks Associated with Acquisitions. The Company faces significant risks associated with the recently announced acquisitions of Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert. The Company must, among other things, return these companies to profitable operations; realize synergies from combining these companies with the Company's current operations; integrate the products manufactured by these companies into its existing product lines; consolidate duplicate facilities, systems and personnel; improve the operating efficiencies of such companies; develop new products; and shorten the product development cycle of the acquired companies. This process will require substantial attention from the Company's management team. The diversion of the attention of management from the day-to-day operations of the Company or difficulties encountered in the integration process could have an adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations, which effect could be material. In addition, consummation of the Acquisitions will result in a substantial increase in the size of the Company's operations placing challenges on the Company to effectively use its employees, management, operational and financial resources to manage the expanded operations of the Company. Failure to use such resources effectively could have a material adverse effect on the Company. Other potential risks of the Acquisitions include the presence of unknown liabilities and the possibility of the incurrence of significant charges associated with write-downs of the recorded values of assets acquired or restructurings of the acquired companies. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Company will realize the desired benefits of these acquisitions.

Although the Company has entered into separate definitive agreements to acquire Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert, subject to various customary closing conditions, there can be no assurance that any or all of such transactions will be consummated.

New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed. The Company has been advised by an affiliate of the Initial Purchaser that, subject to customary qualifications, it is highly confident that under current market and economic conditions the New Credit Facility can be successfully syndicated to financial institutions, and the Company is currently discussing the terms of the New Credit Facility with prospective lenders. While the Company is confident that it will be able to obtain the New Credit Facility on a timely basis to complete the Acquisitions, the Company has no commitments yet from lenders to provide the New Credit Facility. The offering of the Debentures is not conditioned upon the availability of the New Credit Facility and the Acquisitions are not conditioned on the availability of adequate financing. If the Company were unable to secure the New Credit Facility on a timely basis, the Company would be required to secure alternative financing sources to fund the Acquisitions or to delay the closing of the Acquisitions until funds became available.

Risks of International Operations and Expansion. The Company currently manufactures some products and has sales in countries such as Mexico and Venezuela whose economies have been unstable or hyperinflationary in recent years. The economies of other foreign countries important to the Company's expansion plans, including other countries in Latin America and Asia, could suffer similar instability in the future. Such factors as currency devaluation, new tariffs, changes in monetary policies, inflation, governmental instability and similar matters could negatively affect the Company's operations in foreign markets. Although the Company plans to take advantage of recent economic and currency fluctuations in certain Asian countries by increasing the Company's purchase of products from such countries at a lower price, there is no guarantee that such purchasing advantage will be fulfilled or will fully overcome any lost sales opportunities in those same countries. As a result, the economic conditions discussed above or any of these circumstances could have an adverse effect on future financial performance, which effect could be material.

The Company's goal is to substantially increase the amount of business conducted by it outside North America. If the Company fails to achieve anticipated market penetration in areas of the world into which the Company currently expects to expand its sales, such event is likely to have an adverse effect on the Company's future financial performance, which effect could be material. Expansion of the Company's sales in foreign markets depends upon many factors, including economic conditions in foreign countries, the strength of consumer demand in those countries for products which the Company sells (or expects to sell in those markets), the strength of competition from other global consumer product companies and other factors which may negatively affect the Company's anticipated performance in those markets. Although the recent financial instability in Asia has not currently had any material impact on the Company, if such conditions continue and/or worsen they could negatively impact the Company's ability to achieve anticipated sales growth in such countries, the effect of which could be material to the Company's future financial performance.

Risks Associated with New Product Development. The Company's plans to increase its revenues depend on its ability to develop new and innovative products. The Company anticipates that it will be able to rapidly develop and introduce a substantial number of new and innovative products in the future. However, the Company may prove unable to meet its aggressive schedules for future product development. Failure to develop and manufacture new products that achieve market acceptance in the amounts and with the quality required by its customers would likely have an adverse effect on future financial performance, which effect could be material.

Dependence on Key Personnel. The Company depends heavily on the services of its senior management, including Albert J. Dunlap, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer; Russell A. Kersh, the Company's Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer; David C. Fannin, the Company's Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, and Donald R. Uzzi, the Company's Executive Vice President, Consumer Products Worldwide. The loss of any member of the Company's senior management, including Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fannin or Mr. Uzzi, could have an adverse effect on the Company, which effect could be material. On February 20, 1998, each of Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin signed new three year employment contracts with the Company which include substantial equity-based compensation.

Economic Conditions. The Company's performance should be expected to be affected by the strength of the retail economy, primarily in the United States, but also in Canada, Latin America and Asia and, subsequent to the consummation of the acquisition of Coleman, Europe. Weakness in consumer confidence and retail outlets (including the financial weakness or bankruptcy of retail outlets, especially mass merchants) should be expected to adversely impact the Company's future financial results. In addition, the extended credit terms provided by the Company in connection with its "early buy" program increase the Company's risk of collection of related accounts receivable.

Competition. The Company operates in a highly competitive environment with numerous domestic and foreign competitors which are financially strong and capable of competing effectively with the Company in the marketplace. Such competitors may take actions to meet the Company's new product introductions and other initiatives. Some competitors may be willing to accept lower margins and to reduce prices to compete with the Company. As a result, the Company could fail to achieve anticipated sales increases, to realize anticipated price increases, or otherwise fail to meet its anticipated goals. Any of such circumstances would likely have an adverse effect on future financial performance, which effect could be material. The Company's future success will depend to a significant extent upon its ability to remain competitive in the areas of price, quality, marketing, product development, manufacturing, distribution and order processing. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to compete effectively in all such areas in the future.

The Company anticipates realizing price increases from time to time for certain of its products. The Company operates in a highly competitive industry, and its ability to realize price increases may be limited due to competitive pressures. If there is a material failure to realize anticipated price increases, margins likely will be lower than anticipated by the Company, and this will likely have an adverse effect on future financial performance, which effect could be material.

The Company's profitability may be negatively impacted by under-absorption of manufacturing costs resulting from underutilization of manufacturing capacity if the Company's sales growth is less than anticipated.

No Long Term Contracts with Customers. The Company markets its products through virtually every category of retailer including mass merchandisers, warehouse clubs, department stores, home centers and hardware stores. Due to the consolidation of the U.S. retail industry, the Company's customer base is relatively concentrated with its largest customer Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. accounting for 21%, and its five largest customers accounting for 36% of 1997 net sales. The Company's customers, including all of its large retail customers, place orders for products on an as-needed basis and have no long term supply contracts with the Company. As a result, the Company relies on its ability to obtain a continuing flow of new orders from its large, high-volume retailing customers. While the Company has positioned itself to respond to the challenges of its markets by pursuing strategic relationships with large high-volume merchandisers, there can be no assurance that the Company will continue to be able to successfully meet the needs of its customers.

Raw Material Costs. A significant portion of the cost of goods manufactured by the Company in North America is the cost of raw materials and/or components. The Company has implemented changes in its purchasing function which have enabled the Company to purchase materials more efficiently and economically than it has in the past. The future success of the Company's purchasing initiatives may be affected by many factors beyond the Company's control, such as commodity pricing generally and higher prices for the specific materials required by the Company. Although there are numerous suppliers available for the materials and components sourced by the Company, any unanticipated change in suppliers could be disruptive and costly to the Company. In addition, the Company's future initiatives to reduce the cost of materials simply may not achieve savings in amounts comparable to those previously obtained by the Company. A significant failure by the Company to maintain material costs as anticipated would likely have an adverse effect on anticipated future financial performance, which effect could be material.

Dependence on Third-Party Suppliers and Service Providers. The Company currently manufactures approximately 70% of its products. One of the Company's goals for 1998 is to source approximately 50% of the Company's parts and/or products from third parties. The Company's ability to realize sales and operating profits at anticipated levels is dependent upon its ability to timely manufacture, source and deliver products which may be sold for a profit. Labor difficulties, delays in delivery or pricing of raw materials and/or sourced products, scheduling and transportation difficulties, management dislocation and delays in development and manufacture of new products can negatively affect operating profits. Although the Company will use its best efforts to select suppliers for sourced products which are reliable and dependable, the Company's planned increase in the percentage of sourced products will decrease the Company's immediate control of products and, if such suppliers fail to deliver products as anticipated, could have an adverse effect on future financial performance, which effect could be material.

The Company has entered into various arrangements with third parties for the provision of back-office administrative services previously provided with internal resources, including provision of all necessary computer systems. Failure of any of these third-party service providers to perform in accordance with their respective agreements with the Company could result in disruptions of the Company's normal business operations with a consequent impact on sales, collections, cash flow and/or profitability.

Seasonality. Sales of certain of the Company's products can be negatively impacted by unseasonable weather conditions during different seasons and quarters of the year. For instance, the Company's sales of warming blankets were negatively impacted in the fourth quarter of 1997 by moderate temperatures in the northern states. The Company has attempted to levelize production, marketing and other activities related to seasonal products by implementing an "early buy" program; such a program shifts certain of the weather related risks of negative sales impact for such seasonal products to later months of the season and, as result, could have a negative impact on future financial performance.

Litigation. As a consumer goods distributor, the Company's results of operations can be negatively impacted by product liability lawsuits, product recall actions and/or by higher than anticipated rates of warranty returns or other returns of goods. Certain of the product lines to be acquired in the Acquisitions may increase the Company's potential exposure to litigation.

Limitations on Repurchases and Redemptions of Debentures. On March 25, 2003, March 25, 2008 and March 25, 2013 (each, a "Purchase Date"), the Company will become obligated to purchase, at the option of the holder thereof, outstanding Debentures, subject to certain conditions. In addition, upon a Fundamental Change, each holder of the Debentures will have the right, at the holder's option, to require the Company to redeem all or a portion of such holder's Debentures. There can be no assurance that the Company will have sufficient funds to pay the repurchase price on any Purchase Date (in which case, the Company could be required to issue shares of Common Stock to pay the repurchase price at valuations based on then prevailing market prices) or, in the event of a Fundamental Change, the redemption price for all the Debentures tendered by the holders thereof. The New Credit Facility is expected to contain, and future agreements relating to other indebtedness (including Senior Indebtedness) to which the Company becomes a party may contain, restrictions or prohibitions on the repurchase or redemption of the Debentures. It is also expected that the New Credit Facility will prohibit the purchase of the Debentures by the Company in the event of a Fundamental Change, unless and until such time as the indebtedness under the New Credit Facility is paid in full. In addition, it is expected that the New Credit Facility will prohibit the Company's right to purchase Debentures on a Purchase Date for cash, but will not prohibit the purchase of Debentures with Common Stock. If a Purchase Date occurs at a time when the Company is prohibited from repurchasing the Debentures for cash or the Company is prohibited from redeeming the Debentures after the occurrence of a Fundamental Change, the Company could seek the consent of its then existing lenders to repurchase or redeem the Debentures or could attempt to refinance the borrowings that contain such prohibition. If the Company does not obtain such a consent or repay such borrowings, the Company would remain prohibited from repurchasing the Debentures for cash or redeeming the Debentures. In such case, the Company's failure to repurchase or redeem Debentures required to be repurchased or redeemed under the terms of the Indenture would constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture and would likely constitute a default under the New Credit Facility and may also constitute a default under any other indebtedness of the Company outstanding at such time. In addition, it is expected that the occurrence of a Fundamental Change would constitute a default under the New Credit Facility and might constitute a default under other future indebtedness of the Company. In such circumstances, the subordination provisions in the Indenture would likely prohibit or restrict payments to the holders of Debentures. The inability to repay the indebtedness under the New Credit Facility, if accelerated, would have a material adverse effect on the Company and the holders of the Debentures. The term "Fundamental Change" is limited to certain specified transactions and does not include all events that could adversely affect the Company's financial condition or operating results. The requirement that the Company offer to redeem the Debentures upon a Fundamental Change will not necessarily protect holders of the Debentures in the event of a highly leveraged transaction, reorganization, merger or similar transaction involving the Company. See "Description of Debentures—Redemption at Option of the Holder Upon a Fundamental Change."

Proposed Tax Legislation. On February 2, 1998, the Clinton Administration announced a legislative proposal (the "Administration Proposal") that would generally defer interest deductions for original issue discount on convertible debt, such as the Debentures, until such interest is paid in cash or other property. Payment would not include the conversion of such debt into equity of the issuer or the payment of an amount which is determined by reference to the value of the Common Stock. The Administration Proposal would be effective for convertible debt issued on or after the date of "first committee action." If enacted in its current form and if "first committee action" is taken with respect to the Administration Proposal on or before the date on which the Debentures are issued, such legislation would apply to the Debentures and the original issue discount accruing in respect of the Debentures would not be deductible by the Company for federal income tax purposes. Nevertheless, it is not possible to predict when or if the Administration Proposal will be enacted, or, if enacted, what form it may take. The federal income tax treatment of holders of Debentures would not be affected by the Administration Proposal if enacted in its current form.

Certain Tax Consequences to the Company. Section 279 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") limits the deductibility of interest paid or incurred with respect to certain convertible debt incurred to finance the acquisition of stock of another corporation if such debt constitutes "corporate acquisition indebtedness." It is possible that the Internal Revenue Service could take the position that, as a result of the Acquisitions, the Debentures should be treated as "corporate acquisition indebtedness," which position, if sustained, could limit the Company's ability to deduct all or a portion of the original issue discount on the Debentures. Although the issue is not free from doubt, the Company believes that section 279 of the Code should not limit the Company's ability to deduct original issue discount.

Absence of a Public Market. Prior to the Offering, there has been no trading market for the Debentures. Although the Initial Purchaser has advised the Company that it currently intends to make a market in the Debentures, it is not obligated to do so and may discontinue such market making at any time without notice. In addition, such market making activity will be subject to the limits imposed by the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that any market for the Debentures will develop or, if one does develop, that it will be maintained. If an active market for the Debentures fails to develop or be sustained, the trading price of the Debentures could be adversely affected.

The Debentures and the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures have not been registered under the Securities Act and, unless and until so registered, may not be offered or sold except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, registration under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. See "Registration Rights," "Plan of Distribution" and "Transfer Restrictions."

Initial Ratings Risks. The Company believes it is likely that one or more rating agencies may rate the Debentures. There can be no assurance that any such agency or agencies will rate the Debentures or, if they do, what rating or ratings they will assign to the Debentures. If one or more rating agencies assign the Debentures a rating lower than generally expected by investors, such event would likely have an adverse effect on the market price of the Debentures.

Restrictions on Ability to Pay Dividends. The New Credit Facility is expected to restrict the payment of dividends unless certain financial ratios are achieved. In addition, the Company may in the future issue additional indebtedness which contains similar restrictions.

In addition to the limitations imposed on the payment of dividends by the New Credit Facility and any future agreements governing indebtedness of the Company, under Delaware law the Company is permitted to pay dividends on its capital stock only out of its surplus or, in the event that it has no surplus, out of its net profits for the year in which a dividend is declared or for the immediately preceding fiscal year. Surplus is defined as the excess of a company's total assets over the sum of its total liabilities plus the par value of its outstanding capital stock. In order to pay dividends in cash, the Company must have surplus or net profits equal to the full amount of cash dividend at the time such dividend is declared. In determining the Company's ability to pay dividends, Delaware law permits the board of directors of the Company to revalue the Company's assets and liabilities from time to time to their fair market values in order to create surplus. The Company cannot predict what the value of its assets or the amount of its liabilities will be in the future and, accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to pay cash dividends on the Common Stock.

THE ACQUISITIONS

On March 2, 1998, the Company announced the signing of separate definitive agreements to acquire Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert. The three transactions are subject to customary conditions, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals, and are expected to close early this spring of 1998.

The Company is acquiring these companies primarily due to their strong and established brand names, the potential opportunity to streamline operations, the diversification they provide to the Company's product base and the potential for revenue and operational synergies. In addition, the Company believes that its existing international geographic marketing and distribution strengths and those of the acquired companies will significantly complement each other. The Company's management team believes that these Acquisitions give the Company a platform from which to capitalize on the fragmentation and potential consolidation of the durable household consumer products sector.

Coleman

With 1997 net revenues of approximately $1,154 million, Coleman is a leading manufacturer and marketer of consumer products for the worldwide outdoor recreation market. Its products have been sold domestically and internationally under the Coleman brand name since the 1920s. Coleman attributes its leading market position to the strength of its brand name, and breadth of products sold, product quality and innovation, marketing, distribution and manufacturing expertise.

- Outdoor Recreation: This product category includes lanterns and stoves, propane and butane fuel, coolers and jugs, recreational soft goods (including tents, sleeping bags, backpacks and duffle bags), outdoor furniture, electric lights, spas and camping accessories. Coleman believes it is the leading worldwide manufacturer of lanterns and stoves for outdoor recreational use and is a leading supplier to the worldwide camping and outdoor recreation market of propane and butane cartridges and camping fuel. Coleman's products are marketed under the brand names Coleman®, Camping Gas® and East Pak®.
- Hardware: Following the divestiture of the safety and security products business anticipated in March 1998, this product category will include portable generators and air compressors marketed under the Powermate® brand name. Coleman is a leading worldwide manufacturer and distributor of portable generators. These products are distributed predominantly through mass merchandisers and home center chains.

The following table summarizes Coleman's net revenues for the year ended December 31, 1997 by product category and geographic area (in millions):

Product Category	Amount	%	Geographic Area	Amount	%

Signature Brands

With net sales of approximately $276 million for its fiscal year ended September 28, 1997, Signature Brands is a leading manufacturer of a comprehensive line of consumer and professional products. Signature Brands attributes its leading market position to its strong brand name recognition, distribution in major domestic high volume retail outlets, marketing and sales promotion efforts, electronic data interchange capabilities, merchandise flow systems and established relationships with its retail customers. Signature Brands, founded in 1919, is one of the oldest and largest domestic manufacturers of scales for home and medical use.

- Consumer Products: Signature Brands markets its consumer products under the Mr. Coffee®, Health o meter®, Counselor® and Borg® brand names. Signature Brands produces and markets an extensive line of

Mr. Coffee® brand automatic drip coffeemakers, espresso/cappuccino makers and iced and hot teamakers. Sales of automatic drip coffeemakers accounted for approximately 43% of Signature Brands' net revenues in 1997. Mr. Coffee, Inc. has been the leading producer of automatic drip coffeemakers in the U.S. since 1975. Mr. Coffee® is the leading brand of basket-type coffee filters in the United States. Other consumer products marketed under the Mr. Coffee® brand name include water filtration products, coffeemaker related accessories such as replacement decanters and mug warmers, and other kitchen countertop appliances such as food dehydrators. Under the Health o meter® brand name, Signature Brands manufactures a comprehensive line of analog (mechanical) and digital (electronic) floor scales and waist-high and eye-level scales, and offers a range of health and wellness therapeutic products. Capitalizing on the recently acquired rights to the Borg® and Counselor® brand names, Signature Brands intends to introduce in 1998 a new line of Borg® scales that are distinctly European in design for department and specialty stores. Counselor® scales, to be introduced in 1998, will represent opening price point scales for the mass market. Sales of consumer scales accounted for approximately 19% of Signature Brands' net sales in fiscal 1997. Signature Brands offers its consumer products through a combination of direct sales and independent manufacturers' representatives to distributors and major retail outlets, including mass merchants, national hardware chains, drugstore chains, catalogue showrooms, warehouse clubs, retail grocery chains, specialty stores, department stores and various mail-order companies.

- Professional Products: Professional products include the Pelouze® and Health o meter® brands of office, foodservice and medical scales and Mr. Coffee® brand commercial coffeemakers. Signature Brands' reputation for quality and its Health o meter® brand name recognition have been based on its participation in the medical scale market for over 75 years. Products sold as professional products include analog and digital scales for a full range of medical uses, including traditional balance beam scales, pediatric scales, wheelchair ramp scales, chair and sling scales for non-ambulatory patients, and home healthcare scales. Signature Brands' office products, marketed under the Pelouze® brand name, include analog and digital scales designed to provide mailing solutions for small, commercial establishments, home offices and departments within larger companies that process a small to medium volume of letters and packages daily. Pelouze® foodservice products include analog and digital portion control scales, thermometers and timers for commercial and non-commercial applications. Professional scale products are marketed through a combination of direct sales and independent manufacturers' representatives to distributors, dealers, office megastores, mail order companies and major buying groups.

The following table summarizes Signature Brands' net sales for its fiscal year ended September 28, 1997 by product category (in millions):

Product Category	Amount	%
Consumer Products	$236.0	85.6%
Professional Products	39.7	14.4

First Alert

With 1997 net sales of approximately $187 million, First Alert is the market leader in smoke and carbon monoxide detectors in the United States. First Alert's market position is supported by the strength of the First Alert® brand name, which First Alert believes is the most widely recognized consumer brand in the home safety market. First Alert has capitalized on the First Alert® brand name and its leading smoke detector market share to develop and market a broad range of residential safety products. First Alert is also one of the leading participants in the United States retail fire extinguisher market. The markets for residential smoke and carbon monoxide detectors outside the United States are in a much earlier stage of development than the United States. First Alert's market penetration is greatest in the United Kingdom and Canada. First Alert sells its products to mass merchants, home center and hardware chains, catalog showrooms, warehouse clubs, and electrical wholesale distributors. First Alert also supplies its products to its wholly-owned, non-U.S. subsidiaries and to independent foreign distributors.

- Smoke Detectors: First Alert's smoke detector product line consists of UL listed photoelectric and ionization smoke detectors. First Alert has the leading U.S. market share for their products. First Alert markets its smoke detectors under three principal brand names: the First Alert® premium brand name which is featured in media and public relations promotional campaigns; the Family Guard® brand name, which is marketed as a lower priced, functional alternative for those consumers who are price sensitive; and the BRK® brand name which is sold into the wholesale electrical market.
- Carbon Monoxide Detectors: These products include carbon monoxide detectors, first introduced by First Alert in 1993, with biomimetic sensors sold under the First Alert® and Family Guard® brand names. First Alert holds the leading market position in the carbon monoxide detector market.
- Fire Extinguishers: First Alert's disposable fire extinguisher product line was introduced in 1985 to complement its First Alert® brand smoke detectors. First Alert currently markets a full range of fire extinguisher products for use by the consumer, including fire extinguishers for use in the kitchen, garage, workshop, automobiles and boats. These products are sold under the Sure Grip® brand name which is one of the leading brand names in the U.S. retail fire extinguisher market.

Acquisition Structures and Agreements

The Acquisitions will be accounted for by the Company using the purchase method of accounting.

Coleman. Pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 (the "Holdings Merger Agreement"), among the Company, Laser Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("LAC"), Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Parent Holdings"), and CLN Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent Holdings ("CLN Holdings"). LAC will be merged with and into CLN Holdings (the "Holdings Merger"). CLN Holdings is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Masco Holdings, Inc., a corporation wholly owned by Ronald O. Perelman ("Masco"), and is the indirect beneficial owner of 44,067,520 shares of common stock of Coleman, representing approximately 82.4% of the total number of outstanding shares of common stock of Coleman.

In the Holdings Merger, all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of CLN Holdings will be converted into the right to receive (i) 14,099,749 fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock of the Company and (ii) $159,956,756 in cash, without interest thereon. As a result of the Holdings Merger, CLN Holdings will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and the Company will become the indirect owner of 82.4% of the outstanding common stock of Coleman.

At the same time that it entered into the Holdings Merger Agreement, the Company also entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 (the "Coleman Merger Agreement"), with Coleman and Camper Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("CAC"). Pursuant to the Coleman Merger Agreement, following the consummation of the Holdings Merger, CAC will be merged with and into Coleman (the "Coleman Merger"), with Coleman continuing as the surviving corporation. In the Coleman Merger, each outstanding share of Coleman common stock (other than shares held indirectly by the Company and dissenting shares, if any) will be converted into the right to receive (i) 0.5677 of a share of Common Stock of the Company and (ii) $6.44 in cash, without interest thereon. Upon consummation of the Coleman Merger, Coleman will become an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Consummation of the Holdings Merger is subject to the expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"), and the satisfaction of certain other customary conditions. It is currently anticipated that the Holdings Merger will be completed in early this spring of 1998. Consummation of the Coleman Merger is subject to the completion of the Holdings Merger and the preparation and filing of definitive documents with the Commission. It is anticipated that the Coleman Merger will be consummated this spring of 1998. Parent Holdings (the direct holder of all outstanding stock of CLN Holdings) and Coleman Worldwide Corporation (the direct holder of 82.4% of the outstanding common stock of Coleman) have approved the Holdings Merger and the Coleman Merger, respectively, and no other stockholder approvals will be required in connection therewith.

Based on the assumption that all presently exercisable Coleman options will be exercised prior to the closing of the Coleman acquisition, the Company expects to issue (and deliver from its treasury) approximately 21.3 million shares of Common Stock (with an aggregate value of approximately $1 billion based on current market prices) and to pay an aggregate of $221 million in cash in connection with the Coleman acquisition. On such basis, the Coleman acquisition is valued at approximately $2.2 billion (including the assumption of approximately $976 million of indebtedness). If none of the presently exercisable Coleman options are exercised prior to closing of the Coleman acquisition, the Company would expect to issue and deliver approximately 19.4 million shares of Common Stock and pay aggregate cash consideration of $261 million in connection with the Coleman acquisition.

Signature Brands. Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 28, 1998 (the "Signature Brands Merger Agreement"), among the Company, Java Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("Java Acquisition"), and Signature Brands, Java Acquisition commenced a tender offer (the "Signature Brands Tender Offer") on March 6, 1998 to acquire all of the outstanding shares of common stock of Signature Brands (the "Signature Brands Common Stock") for $8.25 per share in cash. Java Acquisition's obligation to purchase shares of Signature Brands Common Stock is subject to there being validly tendered and not withdrawn prior to the expiration of the Signature Brands Tender Offer that number of shares which when added to any shares owned by the Company or Java Acquisition represents at least 51% of the outstanding shares of Signature Brands Common Stock (assuming exercise of all outstanding options and warrants) on the date shares are accepted for payment. In addition, Java Acquisition's obligation to purchase shares of Signature Brands Common Stock is conditioned upon the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act prior to the expiration of the Signature Brands Tender Offer and certain other customary conditions.

Pursuant to the Signature Brands Merger Agreement, following the expiration of the Signature Brands Tender Offer, which is initially scheduled to expire at midnight on April 2, 1998, unless extended, and any necessary Signature Brands stockholder approval and provided that Java Acquisition has purchased shares of Signature Brands Common Stock in the Signature Brands Tender Offer and certain other customary conditions are met, Java Acquisition will be merged with and into Signature Brands (the "Signature Brands Merger"), with Signature Brands as the surviving corporation. As a result of the Signature Brands Merger, Signature Brands will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and each outstanding share of Signature Brands Common Stock, which is not owned by Signature Brands or any of its subsidiaries or the Company or any of its subsidiaries, other than shares with respect to which dissenter's rights have been exercised and perfected, will be converted into the right to receive $8.25 in cash.

Timing of consummation of the Signature Brands Merger is dependent, among other things, upon whether the Signature Brands Tender Offer is extended beyond its initial expiration date and whether, depending on the number of shares tendered and accepted for payment, Signature Brands stockholder approval of the Signature Brands Merger will be required. It is anticipated, however, that the Signature Brands Merger will be consummated early this spring of 1998.

First Alert. Pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 28, 1998 (the "First Alert Merger Agreement"), among the Company, Sentinel Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("Sentinel Acquisition"), and First Alert, Sentinel Acquisition commenced a tender offer (the "First Alert Tender Offer") on March 6, 1998 to acquire all of the outstanding shares of common stock of First Alert (the "First Alert Common Stock"), for $5.25 per share in cash.

Sentinel Acquisition's obligation to purchase shares of First Alert Common Stock is subject to there being validly tendered and not withdrawn prior to the expiration of the First Alert Tender Offer that number of shares which when added to any shares owned by the Company or Sentinel Acquisition represents at least a majority of the outstanding shares of First Alert Common Stock (assuming exercise of all outstanding options) on the date shares are accepted for payment. In addition, Sentinel Acquisition's obligation to purchase shares of First Alert Common Stock is conditioned upon the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act prior to the expiration of the First Alert Tender Offer and certain other customary conditions.

Pursuant to the First Alert Merger Agreement, following the expiration of the First Alert Tender Offer, which is initially scheduled to expire at midnight on April 2, 1998, unless extended, and any necessary First Alert stockholder approval, and provided that Sentinel Acquisition has purchased shares of First Alert Common Stock in the First Alert Tender Offer and certain other customary conditions are met, Sentinel Acquisition will be merged with and into First Alert (the "First Alert Merger"), with First Alert as the surviving corporation. As a result of the First Alert Merger, First Alert will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and each outstanding share of First Alert Common Stock, which is not owned by First Alert or any of its subsidiaries or the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or other than shares with respect to which dissenter's rights have been exercised and perfected, will be converted into the right to receive $5.25 in cash.

Timing of consummation of the First Alert Merger is dependent, among other things, upon whether the First Alert Tender Offer is extended beyond its initial expiration date and whether, depending on the number of shares tendered and accepted for payment, First Alert stockholder approval will be required, which would require the preparation and filing of definitive documents with the Commission. It is anticipated, however, that the First Alert Merger will be consummated early this spring of 1998.

Although the Company has entered into separate definitive agreements to acquire Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert, subject to various customary closing conditions, there can be no assurance that any or all of such transactions will be consummated.

For further information with respect to the effects of the Acquisitions, See "Capitalization," "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Financial Statements" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources."

Each of CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert is subject to the informational requirements of the Exchange Act. The information contained herein with respect to CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert is derived from filings by Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert with the Commission or from information supplied by them for inclusion herein. Neither the Company nor the Initial Purchaser warrants that there have not occurred events, not yet publicly disclosed by CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert, which would affect the accuracy of the statements concerning CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert included herein. See "Available Information."

FINANCING PLAN AND USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from the Offering are expected to be $726.6 million ($835.7 million if the Initial Purchaser's overallotment option is exercised in full), after deducting discounts and commissions and expenses related to the sale of the Debentures. The net proceeds from the Offering, together with the Bank Financing, will be used to finance the Acquisitions and related transactions.

The Company intends to repay all or substantially all of the currently outstanding indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert as promptly as practicable following consummation of each Acquisition, subject to applicable notice provisions and other prepayment terms of the applicable indebtedness. Such repayments are expected to be funded with borrowings under the New Credit Facility and from the net proceeds of the Offering. See "Risk Factors—New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed" and "Description of Other Indebtedness—New Credit Facility."

The following table sets forth the expected sources and uses of cash in connection with the financing of the Acquisitions:

Sources		Uses
	-- (in millions)
New Credit Facility(a)	$1,294.3	Repayment of existing indebtedness(b) ...	$1,504.3
Debentures offered hereby	750.1	Cash Acquisition consideration(c)	477.6
		Fees and expenses(d)	62.5
Total	$2,044.4	Total	$2,044.4

(a) The New Credit Facility is expected to consist of a $1.5 billion term debt facility and a $500 million revolving credit facility. See "Risk Factors—New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed" and "Description of Other Indebtedness—New Credit Facility."

(b) Represents the repayment of existing indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings, Signature Brands, and First Alert in the amount of $202.2 million, $1,077.2 million, $179.9 million and $45.0 million, respectively. Existing indebtedness reflects amounts outstanding as of December 28, 1997, except for indebtedness of CLN Holdings issued at an original issue discount which reflects principal accreted through an assumed repayment date of May 15, 1998. The foregoing amounts include $7.0 million, $100.3 million and $5.5 million of estimated prepayment premiums related to the early retirement of indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings and Signature Brands, respectively. As of the actual date of repayment, the outstanding amount of existing indebtedness to be repaid is likely to be greater than the amount shown above due to increased borrowings to finance working capital requirements. The Company intends to refinance any such additional indebtedness using its unused borrowing capacity under the New Credit Facility. In particular, as of March 16, 1998 the outstanding indebtedness of the Company and CLN Holdings had increased by approximately $100 million and $60 million, respectively. See "Risk Factors—New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed" and "Description of Other Indebtedness—New Credit Facility."

(c) Represents the estimated net cash consideration payable (including the cash-out of options) in connection with the Acquisitions in the amounts of $261.1 million, $83.8 million and $122.7 million for Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert, respectively.

(d) Represents estimated transaction costs in connection with the Acquisitions and debt refinancing, including financial advisory fees, Initial Purchaser's commissions, bank fees, and legal and accounting fees and expenses.

For a description of the expected terms of the New Credit Facility and other indebtedness of the Company, see "Description of Other Indebtedness—New Credit Facility" and the Notes to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum. See also "Risk Factors—New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed."

PRICE RANGE OF COMMON STOCK AND DIVIDEND POLICY

The Company's Common Stock is listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") under the symbol "SOC."

The following table sets forth the reported high and low sale prices per share for the Common Stock on the NYSE Composite Tape and the cash dividends declared on the Common Stock for the calendar quarters indicated:

	Price Range		Dividends Per Common Share

On March 19, 1998, the last reported sale price of Common Stock on the NYSE was \$45 $\frac{1}{8}$ per share. On February 27, 1998, there were approximately 1,311 shareholders of record of Common Stock.

The Company presently intends to continue to pay cash dividends at a quarterly rate of $.01 per share; however, future payments of cash dividends will be at the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors and dependent upon the Company's results of operations, financial condition and other relevant factors, including restrictions expected to be contained in the New Credit Facility.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth the capitalization of the Company as of December 28, 1997 on a historical basis and on a pro forma basis after giving effect to (i) the Acquisitions, (ii) the initial borrowings under the New Credit Facility, (iii) the Offering and (iv) the use of the net proceeds from the Offering and from the initial borrowings under the New Credit Facility as described under "Financing Plan and Use of Proceeds." This table should be read in conjunction with "Financing Plan and Use of Proceeds," "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Financial Statements," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto of the Company, CLN Holdings, Signature Brands and First Alert included elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

(a) Excludes approximately $59 million from the sale of trade accounts receivable through a revolving trade accounts receivable securitization program. The proceeds from the sale were used to reduce borrowings under the Existing Revolving Credit Facility. The maximum amount of receivables that can be sold under the program is $70 million.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The following unaudited pro forma condensed balance sheet as of December 28, 1997 was prepared to illustrate the estimated effects of (i) the Acquisitions, accounted for under the purchase method of accounting, (ii) the Bank Financing, (iii) the Offering and (iv) the use of net proceeds from the Offering and from the Bank Financing as described under "Financing Plan and Use of Proceeds" (collectively, the "Pro Forma Transactions"), as if the Pro Forma Transactions had occurred on December 28, 1997. The following unaudited pro forma statement of operations for the year ended December 28, 1997 was prepared to illustrate the estimated effects of the Pro Forma Transactions as if they had occurred as of December 30, 1996.

The fiscal year of the Company ended on December 28, 1997 and the fiscal years of CLN Holdings and First Alert ended on December 31, 1997. The fiscal year of Signature Brands ended on September 28, 1997. The unaudited pro forma condensed financial statements have been derived from the audited financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended December 28, 1997, the audited financial statements of CLN Holdings and First Alert as of and for the year ended December 31, 1997 and the unaudited financial statements of Signature Brands as of and for the year ended December 31, 1997. The unaudited statement of operations of Signature Brands for the year ended December 31, 1997 has been derived from the audited statement of operations for the year ended September 28, 1997 and the unaudited statements of operations from the thirteen weeks ended December 31, 1997 and December 31, 1996 in order to present Signature Brands operating results on a basis consistent with the Company's fiscal year.

The pro forma condensed financial statements were prepared utilizing the accounting principles of the respective entities as outlined in each entity's historical financial statements. Certain reclassifications were made to sales, cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses as reported in the historical financial statements of CLN Holdings, First Alert and Signature Brands to conform to the classifications of the Company as follows:

	Decrease
	Sales	Cost of Sales	Selling, General and Administrative
	(in thousands)
CLN Holdings.....	$(71,488)	$(63,886)	$(7,602)
First Alert	(9,902)	(4,760)	(5,142)
Signature Brands	(23,171)	(3,725)	(19,446)

Included in the historical Statement of Operations of CLN Holdings are cash and non-cash restructuring and other charges totaling $36.4 million and related tax benefits of $13.9 million. These costs have been allocated to cost of goods sold and selling, general and administration expense in the amounts of $19.5 million and $16.9 million, respectively. These costs primarily relate to closing and relocating certain administrative and sales offices, closing several manufacturing facilities, write-down of inventory and fixed assets, as well as severance costs. Additionally, the expense of the early extinguishment of debt of $15.2 million shown on the CLN Holdings' historical statement of operations has been excluded from the unaudited pro forma condensed statement of operations.

The pro forma adjustments are based upon available information and certain assumptions that the Company believes are reasonable under the circumstances. For purposes of developing the unaudited pro forma condensed financial statements, the assets and liabilities of CLN Holdings, First Alert and Signature Brands have been recorded at historical cost. The allocation of purchase price for the Acquisitions will be revised when additional information concerning asset and liability valuations is obtained. Adjustments, which could be significant, will be made during the allocation period based on detailed reviews of the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed and could result in a substantial increase in goodwill. The pro forma condensed financial statements do not include a one-time after-tax $30 million first quarter 1998 charge by the Company related to the execution of new employment contracts with the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and two other senior officers of the Company as further discussed in Note 14 of the Company's audited financial statements for the year ended December 28, 1997 or any adjustments for potential synergies or cost savings as a result of the Acquisitions.

The unaudited pro forma financial statements should be read in conjunction with "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," the financial statements of each of the Company, CLN Holdings, First Alert and Signature Brands and the notes thereto, and the other financial information included elsewhere or incorporated by reference in this Offering Memorandum. This pro forma financial information is provided for informational purposes only and does not purport to be indicative of the results of operations or financial position which would have been obtained had the Pro Forma Transactions been completed on the dates indicated or the financial condition or results of operations for any future date or period.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(in thousands, except percentages and as noted)

- (a) Represents the elimination of the assets and liabilities related to the announced sale of CLN Holdings' Safety/Security Division as of December 31, 1997 and reflects the net proceeds from the sale as a reduction of long-term debt. The sale of this division is expected to be completed prior to the acquisition of CLN Holdings.
- (b) Represents the tax benefit at 37.6% of (1) the cash out of stock options as a result of the Acquisitions and (2) the prepayment penalty on refinanced indebtedness of the Company, Coleman and Signature Brands.
- (c) Represents the elimination of an intercompany tax receivable ($35,395) and payable on the financial statements of CLN Holdings relating to a tax sharing agreement with Mafco that will be cancelled in connection with the Holdings Merger. The net tax receivable will be assigned to Mafco in connection with the Holdings Merger.
- (d) Represents the elimination of the historical goodwill and organizational costs of First Alert, Signature Brands and CLN Holdings in amounts of $23,018, $139,005 and $306,358, respectively.
- (e) Represents the excess of cost over book value of the net assets acquired of First Alert, Signature Brands and CLN Holdings in the amounts of $73,457, $181,954 and $1,604,436, respectively and an additional $4,368 relating to the Company's debt prepayment penalty. No estimate has been made in these pro forma statements of the one-time expenses that will be incurred in the rationalization of the businesses that will result from these Acquisitions. The amount of goodwill will change once the Company completes the final allocation of purchase price.
- (f) Represents the estimated capitalizable debt issuance costs.
- (g) Represents the repayment of the existing indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings, Signature Brands and First Alert in the amount of $195,248, $958,563, $169,060 and $45,026, respectively.
- (h) Represents the issuance of new long-term debt to fund the Acquisitions and the refinancing of outstanding indebtedness in the amounts of $202,248, $1,338,263, $263,531 and $177,896 for the Company, CLN Holdings, Signature Brands, and First Alert, respectively, and to fund approximately $62.5 million in transaction costs. This new debt will be funded by borrowings of $1,294,000 under the New Credit Facility at an assumed interest rate of LIBOR plus 1.25% (6.9325% at March 13, 1998) and the Debentures offered hereby at a yield to maturity of 5.0% (or approximately $2,014,000 principal amount at maturity).
- (i) Represents the elimination of the minority interest of Coleman's equity held by the public shareholders. Amount also includes the elimination of the minority interest loss for the period ended December 31, 1997.
- (j) Represents the elimination of the historical equity balances of First Alert, Signature Brands and CLN Holdings.
- (k) Includes the issuance of 14,099,749 and 5,366,721 shares of the Company's Common Stock to Mafco and public shareholders, respectively, with a total equity value of $756.7 million less estimated transaction costs of approximately $10.2 million. This equity value was derived by using the average ending stock price as reported by the NYSE Composite Tape for the day before and day of the public announcement of the acquisition. Additionally, the shares held by Mafco have been discounted 15% due to the restrictive nature of the securities.
- (l) Represents the elimination of the 1997 results of operations relating to the sale of CLN Holdings' Safety/Security Division. The Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Statement of Operations reflects the sale of CLN Holdings' Safety/Security Division as of January 1, 1997. The sale of this division is expected to be completed prior to the acquisition of CLN Holdings.
- (m) Represents amortization, on a straight-line basis, for goodwill (see Note (e)) over a period of forty years.

(in thousands, except percentages and as noted)

- (n) Represents the reduction in amortization expense resulting from the elimination of the historical goodwill and organizational costs as discussed in Note (d) above.
- (o) Represents interest expense on $2,044,000 estimated borrowing under the New Credit Facility at the assumed rate set forth in Note (h) above and the Debentures in the aggregate amount of $132,039 ($89,797 with respect to the New Credit Facility and $37,504 with respect to the Debentures). Amount also includes estimated debt issuance costs aggregating $4,738 related to the New Credit Facility amortized on a straight-line basis over a period of seven-years and the Debentures amortized on a weighted average accreted basis over a twenty-year period.
- (p) The interest rate on borrowings under the New Credit Facility may differ from the assumption set forth in Note (h) above. The effect on income of a $\frac{1}{4}$ percent variance in interest rate is approximately \$1.6 million with respect to the borrowings under the New Credit Facility.
- (q) Represents the reduction in interest expense resulting from the debt refinancing as discussed in Note (g) above.
- (r) Represents the incremental change in the consolidated entity's provision for income taxes at 37.6% as a result of the pre-tax earnings of First Alert, Signature Brands and Coleman, and all pro forma adjustments as described above.
- (s) Represents basic and diluted weighted average shares outstanding of the Company as of December 28, 1997 plus the additional equity issued in connection with the acquisition of CLN Holdings as discussed in Note (k) above. The incremental shares relating to the Debentures have not been included, as they would be anti-dilutive.

(d) In computing the ratio of earnings to fixed charges: (a) earnings represent income from continuing operations before income taxes and fixed charges (exclusive of interest capitalized); and (b) fixed charges consist of interest expense, capitalized interest and the estimated interest portion of rental expense. For the fiscal year ended December 29, 1996, earnings were insufficient to cover fixed charges by $285.6 million.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Year Ended December 28, 1997 Compared to the Year Ended December 29, 1996

In November 1996, the Company initiated a major restructuring and growth plan designed to substantially reduce its cost structure and grow the business in order to restore higher levels of profitability for the Company. By July 1997, the Company completed the major phases of the restructuring plan. The $225.0 million of annualized cost savings anticipated from the restructuring results primarily from the consolidation of administrative functions within the Company, the rationalization of manufacturing and warehouse facilities (including a reduction in the number of production facilities from 26 to 8 and warehouses from 61 to 18), the elimination of over 6,000 positions (including 3,300 from the divestiture of non-core businesses described below and approximately 2,800 other positions), the centralization of the Company's procurement function and re-negotiation of supply contracts resulting in procurement savings for raw materials, components and sourced finished products and the reduction of the Company's product offerings and stock keeping units ("SKU's"). The restructuring and growth plan also included a redefinition of the Company's core product categories and the elimination of those businesses and product lines that did not fit the core categories. Sunbeam's core product categories are Appliances, Health at Home, Personal Care and Comfort, Outdoor Cooking and Away From Home. Product categories and businesses determined to be non-core were divested in 1997, including the Company's furniture business and its time and temperature, decorative bedding and Counselor® and Borg® scale product lines. In addition, the Company sold its textile mill in Biddeford, Maine in 1997.

Net sales from continuing operations for 1997 were $1,168.2 million, an increase of $183.9 million or 18.7% over 1996. Net sales on a normalized basis, after excluding divested product lines which are not classified as discontinued operations (time and temperature products, decorative bedding and Counselor® and Borg® branded scales), increased 22.4% during the year.

Global sales, on a normalized basis, increased during 1997 in all five of the Company's product categories primarily from new product introductions, improved distribution (particularly with the Company's top ten customers), international geographic expansion and improved price realization for certain products. Global sales growth on a normalized basis exceeded 25% in the Appliance, Outdoor Cooking and Away From Home categories with sales increases of 26.8%, 27.2% and 28.6%, respectively. Sales in the Health at Home category increased 10.7% on a normalized basis and sales in the Personal Care and Comfort category increased 3.4% during 1997.

The Company's Appliance category sales increases were driven by new products, such as re-designed blenders and mixers, coffeemakers, irons, deep fryers and toasters, and by increased distribution with large national mass retailers. Sales of Outdoor Cooking products increased in 1997 after three straight years of declines as a result of increased merchandising and advertising programs, new distribution and the introduction of an entirely new line of grills and accessories for the 1998 season that began to ship in the fourth quarter of 1997 under a new "early buy" marketing program that included, among other things, extended credit terms with due dates in the second quarter of 1998. The Company sold approximately $50.0 million of Outdoor Cooking Products under this program in the fourth quarter of 1997. The early buy program for Outdoor Cooking products is designed to improve customer service levels and production efficiencies with more level seasonal production and distribution activities that have historically peaked in the first half of each year and to drive additional retail sell-through of Outdoor Cooking products by reducing the likelihood of retail stock-outs during the important first and second quarter 1998 selling season.

Sales of Personal Care and Comfort products were up over 30% through September 1997, but suffered during the fourth quarter as a result of lower than expected retail sell-through of electric blankets in key northern markets in late 1997 coupled with the inability to service demand for king and queen sized blankets due to shortages of blanket shells. The Company anticipates shifting to a more level production for blankets in 1998 in order to more adequately service the seasonal demand for bedding products. Health at Home category sales increased as a result of new products and improved distribution in the drug channels. Away From Home sales increased in 1997 as a result of new products, including cordless clippers and titanium blades, coupled with increased distribution of commercially rated appliances. Also contributing to the Company's sales growth in 1997 were its new retail outlet stores, of which 22 were open by the end of 1997.

International sales, which represented 21% of total revenues in 1997, grew 31.2% during the year. This sales growth was driven primarily by 54 new 220 volt product introductions and the execution of 25 new international distribution and license agreements. Revenue growth of approximately 34% was achieved both in Mexico and by the Company's Latin American export sales organization, and sales in Venezuela and Canada increased approximately 23% each. European sales fell slightly in 1997, however the Company expects that expanded electric blanket and clipper sales along with the help of additional new distribution agreements will benefit European sales in 1998.

The gross margin percentage for 1997 increased 19.8 percentage points to 28.3%. This increase reflects the results of many cost savings and margin enhancement initiatives undertaken as part of the Company's restructuring plan coupled with the incremental margin attributable to new products and higher revenues associated with the Company's growth plan. The Company initiated a manufacturing refinement program in the second quarter of 1997 targeted at aggressively improving factory productivity at all of its remaining operations, including the Neosho, Missouri Outdoor Cooking Products facility which suffered from poor productivity and operating inefficiencies during the 1997 grill season. The benefits of the refinement program began to favorably impact factory productivity in several factories during the third quarter of 1997. The refinement of the Neosho facility, which was completed prior to the initiation of production for the 1998 grill season in the fourth quarter, included a revised plant layout to improve material flow, increased usage of common parts in the manufacturing process and modifications to the paint system to increase capacity and throughput.

Operating earnings for 1997 were $199.4 million, an increase of $195.0 million over 1996, excluding the impact of the 1996 special charge. As a percentage of sales, the operating margin of 17.1% increased 16.6 percentage points above last year's operating margin, excluding 1996 special charges. The operating margin improvements for 1997 were the result of the improved gross margin discussed above and lower selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") costs in 1997 associated with the consolidation of six divisional and regional headquarters into one corporate headquarters and one administrative operations center, reduced staffing levels, the outsourcing of certain administrative and distribution functions, a reduction in the number of warehouses, and Company wide cost control initiatives. In addition, SG&A during 1996 included incremental compensation costs associated with restricted stock awards and other costs related to the employment of a new senior management team, higher than normal expenditures for market research, packaging and other initiatives related to the launch of the Company's growth plan, and higher bad debt expenses associated with certain of the Company's customers. The cost reduction initiatives and one time items in 1996 coupled with increased sales in 1997 resulted in SG&A decreasing as a percentage of sales from 17.4% in 1996 (excluding the impact of special charges) to 11.2% for 1997.

Interest expense decreased from $13.6 million in 1996 to $11.4 million in 1997 primarily as a result of lower average borrowing levels in 1997 due to improved cash flows.

The effective income tax rate of 35% for 1997 and 1996 for earnings (loss) from continuing operations was lower than the statutory federal and state rates as a result of lower foreign taxes from the utilization of foreign tax credits and loss carryforwards and lower state income taxes as a result of certain state income tax credits.

The Company's diluted earnings per share from continuing operations was $1.41 per share versus a loss per share from continuing operations in 1996 of $2.37. The Company's share base utilized in the diluted earnings per share calculation increased approximately 6% during 1997 as a result of an increase in the number of shares of common stock and common stock equivalents outstanding due to the exercise of stock options and a higher market value of the Company's common stock in 1997.

The Company's discontinued furniture operations, which were sold in March 1997, had revenues of $51.6 million in the first quarter of 1997 prior to the sale and break-even earnings. In 1996, the discontinued furniture operations had net income of $.8 million on revenues of $227.5 million and an estimated loss on disposal of the business of $32.4 million, net of applicable income tax benefits. The sale of the Company's furniture business assets (primarily inventory, property, plant and equipment) was completed in March 1997.

The Company received $69 million in cash and retained accounts receivable related to the furniture business of approximately $50.0 million as of the closing date. The final purchase price for the furniture business was subject to a post-closing adjustment based on the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement and in the first quarter of 1997, after completion of the sale, the Company recorded an additional loss on disposal of $13.7 million, net of income tax benefits. See discussion of Restructuring, Impairment and Other Costs in Note 8 and Discontinued Operations and Assets Held For Sale in Note 9 to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum for further information regarding the individual components of the 1996 special charge and details of the 1997 activity in the Company's restructuring accrual.

The Company's operating results for 1996 include the effects of a pre-tax special charge of $337.6 million recorded in conjunction with the implementation of its restructuring and growth plan announced in November 1996. Approximately 20% of the charge was for cash items primarily for severance costs and lease and other facility exit costs. The special charge to earnings in 1996 is included in the following categories on the consolidated statement of operations:

	Pre-tax Dollar Amount	After-tax Per Share Amount
	(in millions)
Restructuring, impairment and other costs	$154.9	$(1.21)
Cost of sales	92.3	(0.72)
Selling, general and administrative	42.5	(0.33)
Estimated loss from discontinued operations	47.9	(0.39)
Total	$337.6	$(2.65)

Net sales from continuing operations of $984.2 million for 1996 represents a decrease of $32.7 million, or 3.2%, from 1995. The Company experienced a loss from continuing operations of $196.7 million or $2.37 per share for 1996 versus earnings from continuing operations of $37.6 million or $0.45 per share (diluted) in 1995 primarily as a result of the restructuring activities discussed above. The net loss for 1996 was $228.3 million, or $2.75 per share, compared to net earnings of $50.5 million, or $0.61 per share (diluted), for 1995. Excluding the impact of special charge items for 1996, earnings from continuing operations before income taxes decreased from $60.6 million in 1995 to a loss of $12.9 million in 1996.

Domestic sales represented approximately 80% of total sales of the Company in 1996 and decreased $28.5 million or 3.4% from 1995. This sales decline was driven by lower sales of outdoor cooking products, which declined 7.3% and lower sales of bedding products which declined 9.0% from 1995, primarily as a result of lower decorative bedding sales (divested in December 1996). Domestic sales of appliance products were flat with sales increases from new products such as vegetable steamers and toaster ovens being offset by reduced pricing on breadmakers. Sales of other product categories such as health and personal care products and time and temperature products (divested in March 1997) were either flat or declined slightly from 1995 levels.

International sales decreased $4.2 million or 2.2% from 1995 primarily as a result of lower sales in Latin America due to political and/or economic instability in several countries such as Ecuador, Peru, Columbia and Venezuela (which suffered a bolivar devaluation in April 1996), a sales decline of 11.2% in Canada as a result of the bankruptcy filing of the Company's then largest Canadian customer offset by a 55.0% increase in sales in Mexico as a result of a more stable economic environment in 1996.

The Company's gross margin percentage, excluding the impact of special charges, was 17.9% of sales in 1996, down from 20.4% in 1995, primarily from the underabsorption of higher manufacturing costs and excess manufacturing capacity that has been realigned for 1997 and beyond by the Company's restructuring and growth plan cost reduction initiatives.

SG&A expenses, excluding the impact of special charges described above, were 17.6% of sales in 1996 primarily as a result of an inflated cost structure that has been realigned for 1997 and beyond. In addition, a $12.0 million fourth quarter 1996 media advertising campaign and one-time expenditures for market research, new packaging, and other growth plan initiatives resulted in higher than normal SG&A spending in 1996. Also included in 1996 SG&A costs were $7.7 million of compensation expense resulting from restricted stock awards made in connection with the employment of a new senior management team.

Interest expense for 1996 increased from $9.4 million in 1995 to $13.6 million as a result of increased indebtedness of the Company for working capital requirements and non-recurring capitalized interest in 1995 related to the construction of the Hattiesburg, Mississippi manufacturing and distribution center.

The effective income tax rate for 1996 decreased 3 percentage points from 1995 to 35.0% as a result of certain foreign and state operating losses for which no tax benefits were recorded and the non-deductibility of compensation expense related to restricted stock awards.

The Company's discontinued furniture operations had revenues of $227.5 million in 1996, up 22.6% from $185.6 million in 1995. This revenue growth was the result of the acquisition of the Samsonite® furniture business in November 1995. Excluding the impact of this acquisition, furniture business sales declined 2.1%. Earnings from the discontinued furniture operations, net of taxes, declined from $12.9 million in 1995 to $.8 million in 1996 primarily as a result of lower gross margins from reduced pricing, underabsorption of higher manufacturing costs and higher raw material costs. In addition, SG&A costs increased due to the inclusion of the Samsonite® furniture business, higher distribution and warehousing costs, particularly with resin furniture products and higher bad debt expenses.

Foreign Operations

During 1997 approximately 90% of the Company's business was conducted in U.S. dollars (including both domestic sales, U.S. dollar denominated export sales primarily to certain Latin American markets, Asian sales and the majority of European sales). The Company's exposure to market risk from changes in foreign currency and interest rates is generally insignificant. The Company's non-U.S. dollar denominated sales are made principally by subsidiaries in Mexico, Venezuela and Canada. Venezuela is considered a hyperinflationary economy for accounting purposes for 1995, 1996 and 1997 and Mexico reverted to hyperinflationary status for accounting purposes in 1997; therefore, translation adjustments related to Venezuelan and Mexican net monetary assets are included as a component of net earnings. Such translation adjustments were not material to 1995, 1996 and 1997 operating results.

On a limited basis, the Company selectively uses derivatives (foreign exchange option and forward contracts) to manage foreign exchange exposures that arise in the normal course of business. No derivative contracts are entered into for trading or speculative purposes. The use of derivatives did not have a material impact on the Company's financial results in 1995, 1996 and 1997. See Note 4 to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of December 28, 1997, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $52.4 million and total debt of $195.2 million. Cash used in operating activities during 1997 was $8.2 million compared to $14.2 million provided by operating activities in 1996. This decrease is primarily attributable to an increase in earnings before non-cash charges in 1997 and the utilization of tax benefits generated from the implementation of the Company's restructuring plan, offset by higher accounts receivable due to increased sales in 1997 and certain seasonal dating terms, increased inventory levels in 1997 necessary to support continued anticipated sales growth and the Company's initiatives to improve customer service levels and 1997 cash expenditures required to implement the restructuring plan. In addition, cash used in operating activities reflects $59 million of proceeds from the sale of trade accounts receivable under the Company's revolving trade accounts receivable securitization program entered into in December 1997 as more fully described in Note 3 to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Capital spending totaled $58.3 million in 1997 and was primarily for new products, cost reduction and capacity expansion initiatives. Capital spending in 1996 was $75.3 million (including $14.5 million related to the discontinued furniture operations) and was primarily attributable to new product development, cost reduction initiatives and a $5.0 million warehouse expansion financed with a capital lease. Capital spending in 1995 reflected approximately $59.4 million associated with the Hattiesburg facility, $27.4 million related to new product development and $10.8 million attributable to the discontinued furniture business. The remaining 1995 capital spending was related to cost reduction projects, productivity initiatives and environmental compliance including $14.4 million for a powder coat paint system for Outdoor Cooking products. The Company anticipates 1998 capital spending to be approximately 5% of sales and primarily related to new product introductions, capacity additions and certain facility rationalization initiatives.

Cash provided by investing activities also reflects $91.0 million in proceeds from sales of businesses, assets and product categories determined to be non-core to the Company's ongoing operations in conjunction with the 1996 restructuring plan. Cash used in investing activities for 1995 includes the purchase of a portion of the Company's furniture business, which was subsequently divested in full in March 1997.

Cash provided by financing activities totaled $16.4 million in 1997 and reflects net borrowings of $5.0 million under the Company's revolving credit facility, $12.2 million of debt repayments related to the divested furniture operations and other assets sold and $26.6 million in cash proceeds from the exercise of stock.

options, substantially all by former employees of the Company. In 1996, cash provided by financing activities of $45.3 million was primarily from increased revolving credit facility borrowings to support working capital and capital spending requirements, $11.5 million in new issuances of long-term debt and $4.6 million in proceeds from the sale of treasury shares to certain executives of the Company. In July 1997, the Company reduced the amount of available borrowings under its September 1996 unsecured five year revolving credit facility from $500 million to $250 million.

The Company is a party to various environmental proceedings, substantially all related to previously divested operations. In connection with the Company's restructuring plan a comprehensive review of environmental exposures was undertaken and the Company accelerated its strategy for the resolution and settlement of certain environmental claims. This review and change in strategy resulted in additional environmental reserves being recorded in 1996 as more fully described in Note 12 to the consolidated financial statements. In management's opinion, the ultimate resolution of these environmental matters will not have a material adverse effect upon the Company's financial condition.

On March 2, 1998, the Company announced the signing of definitive agreements to acquire Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert which are subject to various customary conditions including regulatory approvals. The Company's ability to complete the Acquisitions, which is expected in the early spring of 1998, is contingent on acquisition debt issuances. In connection with the Acquisitions, the Company plans to refinance existing indebtedness of the acquired companies as well as all or substantially all of its existing long-term debt. The Company expects to finance the cash portion of the Acquisitions and all debt refinancings through a combination of the Bank Financing and the Offering. For additional information regarding the Acquisitions, see Note 14 to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company included elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

The Company believes its cash flow from operations, existing cash and cash equivalent balances, its receivable securitization program, together with expected available borrowings under the revolving credit portion of the New Credit facility, will be sufficient to support working capital needs, capital spending, debt service and acquisition related cash requirements for the foreseeable future.

The Company is currently discussing the terms of the New Credit Facility. See "Risk Factors—New Credit Facility Not Yet Committed" and "Description of Other Indebtedness—New Credit Facility."

New Accounting Standards

See Note 1 to the Company's consolidated financial statements for a discussion of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income and SFAS No. 131, Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information, both of which are required to be adopted for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1997. The adoption of these standards will not impact the Company's consolidated results of operations, financial position, or cash flows.

Year 2000

The Company has assessed and continues to assess the impact of the Year 2000 issue on its operations, including the development and implementation of project plans and cost estimates required to make its information systems infrastructure Year 2000 compliant. Based on existing information, the Company believes that anticipated spending necessary to become Year 2000 compliant will not have a material effect on the financial position, cash flows or results of operations of the Company, nor will the Year 2000 issues cause any material adverse effect on the future business operations of the Company.

Subsequent Events

For a discussion of the Acquisitions and the new three year employment contracts between the Company and each of Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin, see Note 14 to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements included elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

BUSINESS

General

The Company is a leading designer, manufacturer and marketer of branded consumer products. The Company's primary business is the manufacture, marketing and distribution of durable household consumer products through mass merchandisers, home centers and other channels (such as Wal-Mart, Kmart and Home Depot) in the United States and internationally. The Company also sells its products to commercial end users such as hotels and other institutions. Sunbeam products enjoy a long-standing reputation for quality, and a majority of the Company's sales are from products which hold the number one or two market share in their respective product categories. In 1997, the Company's net sales were approximately $1,168 million.

The Company's five product categories are: (1) Appliances (mixers, blenders, food steamers, bread makers, rice cookers, coffee makers, toasters, irons and garment steamers); (2) Health at Home (vaporizers, humidifiers, air cleaners, water filters, massagers and scales); (3) Personal Care and Comfort (shower massagers, hair clippers and trimmers, electric warming blankets); (4) Outdoor Cooking (electric, gas and charcoal grills and grill accessories); and (5) Away From Home (clippers and related products for professional beauty, barber and veterinarian trade and sales of products to commercial and institutional channels). The International Group is responsible for sales (primarily of small appliances, personal care, grills and comfort products, professional clippers and related products) in all countries other than the United States.

The Company was organized in 1989 (as Sunbeam-Oster Company, Inc.) and in September 1990, Sunbeam acquired the assets and assumed certain liabilities, through a reorganization, of Allegheny International, Inc. (the "Predecessor"). In August 1992, the Company completed a public offering of 20,000,000 shares of its common stock. In May 1995, the Company changed its name from Sunbeam-Oster Company, Inc. to Sunbeam Corporation.

The Company has a management team with extensive consumer products experience and proven expertise in cost containment and operational improvement. On February 20, 1998, each of the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Dunlap; the Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Kersh; and the Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, Mr. Fannin, signed new three year employment contracts with the Company which include substantial equity-based compensation. See "Management—New Employment Contracts."

Restructuring and Growth Plan

In the Fall of 1996, under newly elected Chairman, Albert J. Dunlap, the Company announced a major restructuring and growth plan. The restructuring portion of the plan was completed during 1997, resulting in a significant reduction in employees, facilities and costs, all of which is anticipated to generate approximately $225 million in annual savings for the Company. As a part of the restructuring plan, the Company divested its non-core business and assets, including furniture, time and temperature, decorative bedding, gas heaters and logs, Counsellor® and Borg® scale business and the Company's Biddeford, Maine textile mill.

The Company's restructuring plan included the closure of 18 factories, 43 warehouses and 5 headquarters, resulting in the consolidation of all corporate offices into a single headquarters office located in Delray Beach, Florida and an operations facility at its Hattiesburg, Mississippi manufacturing and distribution facility. The number of manufacturing facilities has been reduced from twenty-six to eight (four in the US and four international). See "—Properties" below.

The Company has also consolidated all purchasing functions, substantially reduced the number of stock keeping units maintained by the Company and outsourced certain administrative, manufacturing and distribution activities.

The Company has developed a comprehensive three year growth plan for its core business. Sunbeam's goal is for revenues to double, reaching $2 billion by 1999, with operating margins improving to 20% of sales. This revenue growth is anticipated to be derived, in large part, by the development of new innovative products and the globalization of the Company. Domestically, the goal is to introduce at least 30 new products each year; during 1997, the Company introduced 35 new domestic products and 54 new international products. In its international business, the Company has a goal to triple international sales to $600 million by 1999. During 1997, the Company entered into 25 new international distribution/license agreements. The Company has also identified new channels of distribution as additional sales growth opportunities, including commercial organizations and "direct to the consumer" channels such as catalogs, the Internet and Sunbeam® factory outlet stores. The foregoing contains certain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, see "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" for cautionary remarks concerning these statements.

Both international expansion and new product introductions will be supported by a significant investment in a major new advertising program that is geared to strengthen the Sunbeam®, Oster® and Grillmaster® brands in the marketplace.

Products

The Company's core product categories are as follows:

Appliances

Small kitchen appliances including Mixmaster® stand mixers, hand mixers, Osterizer® blenders, food processors, rice cookers, food steamers, toasters, can openers, coffee makers, bread makers, waffle makers, ice cream makers, frying pans, deep fryers and culinary accessories, are sold primarily under the Sunbeam® and Oster® brand names. The Company holds the number one or two market positions in blenders, mixers and bread makers. The Appliance category also encompasses garment care appliances consisting of irons and steamers. Sales of appliances accounted for approximately 32% of the Company's domestic net sales in 1997.

Health at Home

The Company markets its home health products under the Sunbeam® name and the trademark Health at Home®. These products include heating pads, bath scales, blood pressure and other health-monitoring instruments, massagers, vaporizers, humidifiers and dental care products. This product category also includes the recently introduced AllergySmart™ air detector and air cleaner and the FreshSource™ power water filter. Sales of health care products accounted for approximately 10% of the Company's domestic net sales in 1997.

Personal Care and Comfort

The Company's Personal Care and Comfort products include a broad line of electric blankets, comforters and Cuddle-Up® heated throws, shower massagers, and hair clippers and trimmers for animals and humans which are sold through retail channels. The Company holds the number one market position in electric blankets, heated throws and retail hair clippers. Sales of Personal Care and Comfort products accounted for approximately 18% of the Company's domestic net sales in 1997.

Outdoor Cooking

Sunbeam is a leading supplier of outdoor barbecue grills. Sunbeam has the leading market share position in the gas grill industry. Barbecue grills consist of propane, natural gas, electric and charcoal models sold primarily under the Sunbeam® and Grillmaster® brand names. Sales of outdoor cooking products accounted for approximately 34% of the Company's domestic net sales in 1997.

Away from Home

The Company markets a line of professional barber, beauty and animal equipment, including the electric and battery clippers, replacement blades and other grooming accessories sold to both conventional retailers and through professional distributors. In addition, the Company is expanding the market of its appliances, scales and Personal Care and Comfort products to institutional and commercial channels. Sales of Away from Home products described above accounted for approximately 6% of the Company's domestic net sales in 1997.

International

The Company markets a variety of products (primarily small kitchen appliances, Personal Care and Comfort products, grills, professional clippers and related products) outside the U.S. While the Company sells many of the same products domestically and internationally, it also sells products designed specifically to appeal to foreign markets. The Company, through its foreign subsidiaries, has manufacturing facilities in Mexico and Venezuela.

and sales offices in Canada, the United Kingdom, Hong Kong and Australia. The Company's international products are sourced from the Company's United States, Mexican or Venezuelan manufacturing operations or from vendors primarily located in Asia. International sales accounted for approximately 21% of the Company's total net sales in 1997.

To date, the Company's activities outside the United States have been primarily focused in Mexico, Latin America and Canada. The Company enjoys a strong market position in a number of product categories in Latin America. The Oster® brand has the leading market share in small appliances in a number of Latin American countries.

The Company's pending acquisitions of Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert are anticipated to provide new opportunities for international expansion of the Company's activities. See "The Acquisitions."

Competitive Strengths

Sunbeam competes in markets with well-established United States and foreign companies on the basis of various strengths, depending on the country, product category and distribution channels. The Company believes that it is well-positioned to pursue continued growth as a result of these competitive strengths, which include the following:

Market Leadership. The majority of Sunbeam sales are from products in which the Company holds the number one or two market share position. The Company believes that this combination of leading brand-name products and breadth of product offerings makes Sunbeam an attractive vendor to all retailers, particularly those who are consolidating their suppliers.

Brand Name Recognition. The Sunbeam® and Oster® brands have been household names for generations. The Company believes that these brands, along with its other well-known secondary brand names such as Mixmaster®, Osterizer® and Grillmaster®, draw customers into retail stores specifically to purchase products bearing these brand names. During 1997, the Company spent over $56 million, or approximately 5% of its 1997 net sales, for advertising and sales promotion to support brand recognition.

Distribution Network. The Company has one of the premier mass merchant distribution networks serving large national retailers in the United States. The Company also has a strong network of well-established distributors and service organizations in Latin America. The Company supports its customers' needs with strong warehousing and distribution capabilities, a broad, high-quality product portfolio, electronic data interchange and just-in-time product delivery capabilities. The Company markets its products through virtually every category of retailer including mass merchandisers, catalog showrooms, warehouse clubs, department stores, catalogues, Company-owned outlet stores and pet supply retailers, as well as independent distributors and military post exchange outlets.

Strong Position in Consolidating Retail Environment. The consolidation trend in the retail industry has resulted in the emergence and global expansion of large mass merchandisers. These merchandisers demand financially strong, efficient suppliers who offer a broad range of innovative, quality products, have the ability to make timely shipments in large volumes and provide strong customer, promotional and merchandising support. The Company continues to benefit from this trend and believes it has the opportunity to further expand distribution with a number of major retailers while increasing its penetration of existing accounts. In 1997, the Company sold products to virtually all of the top 100 U.S. retailers, including Wal-Mart, Price Costco, Kmart, Target Stores, Home Depot and Sears.

Customers

The rapid growth of large mass merchandisers and warehouse clubs and changes in customer shopping patterns have contributed to a significant consolidation of the U.S. retail industry and formation of dominant multi-category retailers. Sunbeam has positioned itself to respond to the challenges of this changing retail environment by pursuing strategic relationships with large, high-volume merchandisers. The Company markets its products through virtually every category of retailer including mass merchandisers, catalog showrooms, warehouse clubs, department stores, hardware stores, catalogues, television shopping channels, home centers, drug and grocery stores, and pet supply retailers, as well as independent distributors and military post exchange services. The Company's largest customer, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., accounted for approximately 21% of the sales in 1997.

Retailers are pursuing a number of strategies in their competition to deliver the highest-quality, lowest-cost brand name products. A growing trend among retailers is to purchase on a "just-in-time" basis in order to reduce inventory cost and increase returns on investment. This trend has required increased working capital investments for manufacturers and requires manufacturers to more closely monitor consumer buying patterns as retailers shorten their lead times for orders. Currently, most Sunbeam products sold to U.S. retailers are manufactured at the Company's own facilities in North America. However, one of the Company's goals for 1998 is to "source" approximately 50% of parts and/or products from others, including suppliers in Asia, in order to reduce capital investment in plants while growing sales volume and to improve operating margins. The Company intends to continue to support its retail partners' "just-in-time" inventory strategies through investments in, among other things, improved forecasting systems, more responsive manufacturing and distribution capabilities and electronic communications. Currently, Sunbeam has approximately 90% of its U.S. customer sales on electronic data interchange (EDI) systems.

The amount of backlog orders at any point in time is not a significant factor in the Company's business.

Patents and Trademarks

Sunbeam believes that an integral part of its strength is its ability to capitalize on the Sunbeam® and Oster® trademarks which are registered in the United States and in numerous foreign countries. Widely recognized throughout North America, South and Central America and Europe, these registered trademarks, along with Osterizer®, Mixmaster®, Toast Logic®, Steammaster®, Oskar®, Grillmaster® and Blanket with a Brain® brands are important to the success of the Company's products. Other important trademarks within Sunbeam include Oster Designer® line, Cuddle-Up® and A5®.

Sunbeam holds numerous patents covering a wide variety of products, the loss of any one of which would not have a material adverse effect on the Company's business taken as a whole.

Employees

The Company currently has approximately 3,300 full-time domestic employees and 4,200 international employees. None of the Company's domestic full-time workforce has union representation. Sunbeam has had no material labor-related work stoppages and, in the opinion of management, relations with its employees are generally good.

Seasonality

On a consolidated basis, Sunbeam sales do not exhibit substantial seasonality. However, sales of outdoor cooking products are strong in the first half of the year, while sales of appliances and Personal Care and Comfort products are strongest in the second half of the year. In addition, sales of an number of Company's products, including warming blankets, vaporizers, humidifiers and grills may be impacted by unseasonable weather conditions. During 1997, the Company initiated early buy programs for highly seasonal products such as grill and warming blankets in order to more levelize promotion and distribution activities.

Raw Materials

The raw materials used in the manufacture of the Company's products are available from numerous suppliers in quantities sufficient to meet normal requirements. The Company's primary raw materials include aluminum, steel, resin, copper, and corrugated cardboard for cartons.

Environmental Matters

The Company's operations, like those of comparable businesses, are subject to certain federal, state, local and foreign environmental laws and regulations in addition to laws and regulations regarding labeling and packaging of products and the sale of products containing certain environmentally sensitive materials ("Environmental Laws"). The Company believes it is in substantial compliance with all Environmental Laws which are applicable to its operations. Compliance with Environmental Laws involves certain continuing costs; however, such costs of ongoing compliance have not resulted, and are not anticipated to result, in a material increase in the Company's capital expenditures or to have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, financial condition or competitive position.

In addition to ongoing environmental compliance at its operations, the Company also is actively engaged in certain environmental remediation activities relating primarily to divested operations. As of December 31, 1997, the Company had been identified by the United States Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") or a state environmental agency as a potentially responsible party ("PRP") in connection with seven (7) sites subject to the federal Superfund law and two (2) sites subject to state Superfund laws comparable to the federal law (collectively the "Environmental Sites"), exclusive of sites at which the Company has been designated (or expects to be designated) as a de minimis (less than 1%) participant.

The Superfund Act, and related state environmental remediation laws, generally authorize governmental authorities to remediate a Superfund site and to assess the costs against the PRPs or to order PRPs to remediate the site at their expense. Liability under the Superfund Law is joint and several and is imposed on a strict basis, without regard to degree of negligence or culpability. As a result, the Company recognizes its responsibility to determine whether other PRPs at a Superfund site are financially capable of paying their respective shares of the ultimate cost of remediation of the site. Whenever the Company has determined that a particular PRP is not financially responsible, it has assumed for purposes of establishing reserve amounts that such PRP will not pay its respective share of the costs of remediation. To minimize the Company's potential liability with respect to the Environmental Sites, the Company has actively participated in steering committees and other groups of PRPs established with respect to such sites. The Company currently is engaged in active remediation activities at nine (9) sites, four (4) of which are among the Environmental Sites referred to above, and five (5) of which have not been designated as Superfund sites under federal or state law.

In addition, the Company is engaged in environmental remediation activities at a site located in Newburgh Heights, Ohio, where a subsidiary formerly conducted operations. The Company has been actively cooperating with the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission and state regulatory authorities in developing and implementing a plan for remediation of this site; which remediation is anticipated to be substantially completed in 1998.

The Company's costs for environmental remediation activities have not had a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, financial conditions or competitive position. The Company has established reserves to cover the anticipated probable costs of remediation, based upon periodic review of all sites for which the Company has, or may have, remediation responsibility. As of December 28, 1997, the amount of such reserves was approximately four percent (4%) of the Company's total liabilities as set forth in the consolidated financial statements. Such environmental reserves do not anticipate any offsets for potential insurance recoveries from certain of the Company's liability insurance carriers which the Company continues to pursue.

Due to uncertainty over the remedial measures to be adopted at some sites, the possibility of changes in Environmental Laws, and the fact that joint and several liability with the right of contribution is possible at federal and state Superfund sites, the Company's ultimate future liability with respect to sites at which remediation has not been completed may vary from the amounts reserved at fiscal year end 1997. In addition, the Company may be required to incur costs relating to remediation of other properties currently or previously owned or leased, including the properties to be acquired in the Acquisitions, as well as properties at which the Company and each of Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert have disposed of waste. However, the Company believes, based on existing information, that the costs of completing the environmental remediation of all sites for which the Company has a remediation responsibility have been adequately reserved and that the ultimate resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect upon the Company's financial condition.

In December 1996, the Company reached a negotiated settlement with the EPA with regard to a notice of violation concerning the construction and operation of two paint lines at the Company's Neosho, MO facility prior to obtaining the necessary permits for construction and operation. The negotiated settlement amount of $829,825 was agreed upon in connection with the Company's implementation of the "supplemental environmental project" which consisted of the Company's installation of nominal emission powder coating lines to replace solvent paint lines. In October 1997, the Company executed a Consent Decree documenting the settlement and is awaiting the EPA's execution of the Consent Decree; the Company anticipates formal resolution of this matter by the second quarter of 1998.

The Company is not a party to any other administrative or judicial proceedings to which a governmental authority is a party and which involves potential monetary sanctions, exclusive of interest and costs, of $100,000 or more.

Properties

Active United States and International manufacturing, warehouse, and office locations are set forth below. In addition to the facilities set forth below, the Company leases warehouse space on a short-term basis when needed. Except as otherwise noted, each location is used for manufacturing, warehousing and related administrative office space.

In addition, the Company has 17 United States and 5 Canadian retail outlet stores under lease totaling 103,000 square feet.

The Company believes that its existing facilities will adequately provide sufficient suitable capacity to implement its operating plans.

Legal Proceedings

The Company and its subsidiaries are involved in various lawsuits arising from time to time which the Company considers to be ordinary routine litigation incidental to its business. In the opinion of the Company, the resolution of these matters, and of certain matters relating to prior operations of the Company's predecessor, individually or in the aggregate, will not have a material adverse effect upon the financial position or results of operations of the Company. The Company has established reserves for pending litigation which the Company considers to be adequate to cover loss contingencies determined by the Company associated with such proceedings.

See "—Environmental Matters" for a description of certain legal proceedings related to environmental matters.

MANAGEMENT

Executive Officers and Directors

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the directors and executive officers of the Company as of February 1, 1998.

Name	Age	Position
Albert J. Dunlap	60	Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and Director
Russell A. Kersh	44	Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer
David C. Fannin	52	Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary
Donald R. Uzzi	45	Executive Vice President, Consumer Products Worldwide

Mr. Elson has been a Professor of Law at Stetson University College of Law since 1990 and serves as Of Counsel to the law firm of Holland & Knight (since May 1995). He is also a Member of the American Law Institute and the Advisory Council and Commission on Director Compensation and Director Professionalism of the National Association of Corporate Directors. Mr. Elson is Trustee of Talladega College and a Salvatori Fellow of the Heritage Foundation. Mr. Elson has served as a Director of Circon Corporation (a medical manufacturer) since October 1997.

Howard G. Kristol has been a Director of the Company since his appointment on August 6, 1996. Mr. Kristol has been a partner in the law firm of Reboul, MacMurray, Hewitt, Maynard & Kristol since 1976.

Peter A. Langerman has been a Director of the Company since 1990 and served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors from May 22, 1996 until July 18, 1996. Since November 1996, Mr. Langerman has been Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Franklin Mutual Advisers, Inc., a registered investment advisor and a wholly owned subsidiary of Franklin Resources, Inc., a diversified financial services organization. Mr. Langerman was a Senior Vice President of Heine Securities Corporation, an investment advisory service company, from 1986 to November 1996, and a Vice President of Mutual Series Fund from 1988 until its acquisition by Franklin Resources, Inc. in 1996. He has been a Director of Franklin Mutual Series Fund, Inc. (previously Mutual Series Fund Inc.) since 1988 and a Director of Metallurg Inc. (a metals and related materials manufacturer) since 1997.

William T. Rutter has been a Director of the Company since his appointment on April 8, 1997. Mr. Rutter is a Senior Vice President/Managing Director, Private Banking of First Union National Bank of Florida, a position he has held since 1986.

Faith Whittlesey has been a Director of the Company since her appointment in December 1996. Mrs. Whittlesey has served as the Chief Executive Officer of the American Swiss Foundation, a charitable and educational foundation, since 1991. She is a member of the Board of Directors of Valassis Communications, Inc. (a publishing and printing company).

New Employment Contracts

On February 20, 1998, each of the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Dunlap; the Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Kersh; and the Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, Mr. Fannin, signed new three-year employment contracts with the Company, which include substantial equity-based compensation. These employment contracts replaced previous employment contracts entered into in July 1996 that were scheduled to expire in July 1999.

The new employment contract with Mr. Dunlap provides for, among other items, the acceleration of vesting of 200,000 shares of restricted stock and the forfeiture of the remaining 133,333 shares of unvested restricted stock granted under the July 1996 agreement as further described in Note 2 to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements, a new equity grant of 300,000 shares of unrestricted stock, a new grant of a ten-year option to purchase 3,750,000 shares of Common Stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the stock at the date of grant and exercisable in three equal annual installments beginning on the date of grant and the acceleration of vesting of 833,333 outstanding stock options granted under the July 1996 agreement as further described in Note 5 to the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements. In addition, the new employment contract with Mr. Dunlap provides for tax gross-ups with respect to any tax assessed on the equity grant and acceleration of vesting of restricted stock.

The new employment contracts with Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin provide for, among other items, the grant of a total of 180,000 shares of restricted stock that vest in four equal annual installments beginning on the date of grant, the acceleration of vesting of 44,000 shares of restricted stock and the forfeiture of the remaining 29,332 shares of unvested restricted stock granted under their July 1996 employment contracts, new grants of ten-year options to purchase a total of 1,875,000 shares of Common Stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the stock at the date of grant and exercisable in four equal annual installments beginning on the date of grant and the acceleration of vesting of 383,334 outstanding stock options granted under the July 1996 employment contracts. In addition, the new employment contracts with Mr. Kersh and Mr. Fannin provide for tax gross-ups with respect to any tax assessed on the restricted stock grants and acceleration of vesting of restricted stock.

Compensation expense attributed to the equity grant, the acceleration of vesting of restricted stock and the related tax gross-ups will be recognized in the first quarter of 1998 and compensation expense related to the new restricted stock grants and related tax gross-ups will be amortized to expense beginning in the first quarter of 1998 over the period in which the restrictions lapse. Total after-tax compensation expense to be recognized in the first quarter of 1998 related to these items is expected to be approximately $30 million.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS

The following table sets forth information as of February 27, 1998, with respect to beneficial ownership of the Company's Common Stock by all persons known by the Company to be the record or beneficial owner of more than 5% of the outstanding Common Stock. - (a) All Directors and Named Executives have the sole power to vote and to dispose of the shares of Common Stock listed above except as follows: (i) Mr. Dunlap holds 1,491,564 of the listed shares jointly with his wife; (ii) 151,600 shares listed as owned by Mr. Kersh are held by the Russell A. Kersh Irrevocable Trust as to which Mr. Kersh is the sole beneficiary (the power to vote and to dispose of such shares is held by Howard G. Kristol, Trustee of such Trust) and Mr. Kersh holds 5,000 of the listed shares jointly with his spouse and children; (iii) Mr. Fannin holds 20,433 shares jointly with his wife; and (iv) 5,000 of the shares listed as owned by Mr. Griffith are owned by Mr. Griffith's wife and minor children.
- (b) Includes shares which Directors and Named Executives have the right to acquire under options which are currently exercisable (including options which may be exercised within the next sixty days). Includes 3,750,000, 781,250, 328,500, 16,666 and 50,000 shares which may be acquired by Messrs. Dunlap, Kersh, Fannin, Uzzi and Griffith, respectively, upon the exercise of options which are currently exercisable. Options which are not currently exercisable and will not become exercisable within sixty days are not included in the table.
- (c) Includes 112,500 and 22,500 restricted shares held by Messrs. Kersh and Fannin, respectively, that are subject to restrictions.
- (d) Includes shares of restricted stock granted to each of Directors Elson, Kristol, Rutter and Whittlesey upon their respective elections, appointments and subsequent reelections to the Company's Board of Directors, all of which were immediately vested.
- (e) Does not include shares owned by the Russell A. Kersh Irrevocable Trust (of which Mr. Kristol serves as Trustee) and as to which Mr. Kristol disclaims beneficial ownership.
- (f) Does not include shares owned by the Funds Group as to which Mr. Langerman disclaims beneficial ownership. See "Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners."
- (g) Includes Russell A. Kersh listed above under Directors.
- (h) Includes shares which all Directors and current executive officers of the Company have the right to acquire under options which are currently exercisable (including options which may be exercised within the next sixty days) and shares which are subject to restrictions.

DESCRIPTION OF OTHER INDEBTEDNESS

New Credit Facility

The Company is currently negotiating the terms of the New Credit Facility with a group of banks which the Company expects will provide for borrowings by the Company or one or more of its subsidiaries in the aggregate principal amount of $2.0 billion. The New Credit Facility is being arranged by an affiliate of the Initial Purchaser who has advised the Company that it is, subject to customary qualifications, highly confident that under current market and economic conditions a $2.0 billion credit facility can be successfully syndicated to financial institutions. It is expected that the facility will provide for one or more term loans in the aggregate principal amount of $1.5 billion which, together with the net proceeds of the Offering, will be used to finance the cash portion of the Acquisitions and the repayment of all or substantially all of the indebtedness of the Company and the acquired companies (see "Financing Plan and Use of Proceeds") and a $500 million revolving credit facility which will be available for general corporate purposes. It is expected that the term borrowings under the New Credit Facility will mature based on an amortization schedule to be negotiated, subject to certain mandatory earlier repayments customary for facilities of a similar nature, and that the revolving credit borrowings will mature seven years from the closing date of the New Credit Facility. It is expected that interest will accrue, at the Company's option, at LIBOR plus a spread margin to be negotiated or at the Agent's (as defined below) Base Rate (generally the higher of the Agent's prime rate or the Federal Funds Rate plus 1/2 of 1%) plus a spread to be negotiated. The Company does not yet have commitments from lenders to provide the New Credit Facility and, in any event, the New Credit Facility is subject to the negotiation and execution of definitive documentation and other customary conditions.

Securities and Guarantees. Borrowings under the New Credit Facility may be secured by (i) a pledge of the stock of each of the Company's subsidiaries and (ii) security interests in substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Company expects the New Credit Facility will be guaranteed by each of the Company's wholly-owned U.S. subsidiaries and that such subsidiary guarantees will be secured as described above. To the extent borrowings are made by any subsidiaries of the Company, the obligations of such subsidiaries will be guaranteed by the Company.

Covenants. The Company expects that the definitive New Credit Facility will contain various covenants customary for facilities of this type, including (among others) covenants restricting the incurrence of indebtedness, the payment of dividends and other restricted payments, the incurrence of liens, dispositions of assets, mergers and acquisitions, capital expenditures and loans and investments. In addition, it is expected that the New Credit Facility will require the Company to maintain various financial ratios, including a maximum leverage ratio, a minimum interest coverage ratio and a maximum fixed charge coverage ratio.

Defaults. The Company expects that the New Credit Facility will provide for events of default customary for transactions of this type, including nonpayment, misrepresentation, breach of covenant, cross-defaults, bankruptcy, ERISA, judgments and change of ownership and control (including for this purpose a Fundamental Change.)

Other Debt

The Company intends to repay all or substantially all of the currently outstanding indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert as promptly as practicable following consummation of each Acquisition, subject to applicable notice provisions and other prepayment terms of the applicable indebtedness. Until such indebtedness is repaid, the Company will continue to be subject to the covenants and restrictions and limitations contained in the terms of such indebtedness. For additional information concerning outstanding indebtedness of the Company, CLN Holdings, Coleman, Signature Brands and First Alert see the consolidated financial statements set forth elsewhere herein.

DESCRIPTION OF DEBENTURES

The Debentures are to be issued under an indenture to be dated as of March 25, 1998 (the "Indenture"), between the Company and The Bank of New York, as trustee (the "Trustee"). A copy of the form of Indenture will be available from the Trustee upon request by a registered holder of the Debentures. The following summary of certain provisions of the Debentures and the Indenture does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, all the provisions of the Debentures and the Indenture including the definitions therein of certain terms that are not otherwise defined in this Offering Memorandum. Wherever particular provisions or defined terms of the Indenture (or of the form of Debenture which is a part thereof) are referred to, such provisions or defined terms are incorporated herein by reference. As used in this "Description of Debentures," the "Company" refers to Sunbeam Corporation only and does not, unless the context otherwise indicates, include its subsidiaries.

Holders of the Debentures will also have the benefit of a Registration Rights Agreement between the Company and the Initial Purchaser. Under the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company will agree to file the Shelf Registration Statement with the Commission covering resales of the Debentures and the Common Stock issuable upon conversion thereof. See "Registration Rights."

General

The Debentures will be unsecured general obligations of the Company subordinate in right of payment to the New Credit Facility and certain other secured obligations of the Company as described under "Subordination of Debentures" and convertible into Common Stock as described under "Conversion of Debentures." The Debentures will be limited to $2,316,100,000 aggregate principal amount at maturity (including $302,100,000 aggregate principal amount at maturity if the Initial Purchaser's over-allotment option is exercised in full) and will mature on March 25, 2018.

The Indenture does not contain any financial covenants or restrictions on the payment of dividends, the incurrence of indebtedness, including Senior Indebtedness (as defined below under "Subordination of Debentures"), or the issuance or repurchase of securities of the Company. The Indenture contains no covenants or other provisions to afford protection to holders of the Debentures in the event of a highly leveraged transaction or a change in control of the Company except to the extent described under "Redemption at Option of the Holder Upon a Fundamental Change."

The Debentures are being issued at a substantial discount from their stated redemption price at maturity. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the excess of the stated redemption price at maturity of each Debenture over its issue price (which is expected to be the Issue Price) constitutes Original Issue Discount ("OID"). See "Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations." Maturity, conversion, purchase by the Company at the option of a holder or redemption of a Debenture will cause Original Issue Discount and interest, if any, to cease to accrue on such Debenture, under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Indenture. The Company may not reissue a Debenture that has matured or been converted, purchased by the Company at the option of a holder, redeemed or otherwise canceled (except for registration of transfer, exchange or replacement thereof).

The principal amount at maturity of each Debenture will be payable at the office or agency of the paying agent, initially the Trustee, in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, or any other office of the paying agent maintained for such purpose. Debentures may be presented for conversion into Common Stock at the office of the conversion agent and Debentures in definitive form may be presented for exchange for other Debentures or registration of transfer at the office of the registrar, each such agent initially being the Trustee. The Company will not charge a service charge for any registration of transfer or exchange of Debentures; however, the Company may require payment by a holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax, assessment or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

Form, Denomination and Registration

The Debentures will be issued in fully registered form, without coupons, in denominations of $1,000 principal amount at maturity and whole multiples thereof.

Global Debenture; Book-Entry Form. Debentures held by "qualified institutional buyers," as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act ("QIBs"), will be evidenced by a global Debenture (the "Global Debenture"), which will be deposited with, or on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York ("DTC") and registered in the name of Cede & Co. ("Cede"), as DTC's nominee. Except as set forth below, the Global Debenture may be transferred, in whole or in part, only to another nominee of DTC or to a successor of DTC or its nominee.

QIBs may hold their interests in the Global Debenture directly through DTC, or indirectly through organizations which are participants in DTC (the "Participants"). Transfers between Participants will be effected in the ordinary way in accordance with DTC rules. The laws of some states require that certain persons take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. Consequently, the ability to transfer beneficial interests in the Global Debenture to such persons may be limited.

QIBs who are not Participants may beneficially own interests in the Global Debenture held by DTC only through Participants or certain banks, brokers, dealers, trust companies and other parties that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Participant, either directly or indirectly ("Indirect Participants"). So long as Cede, as the nominee of DTC, is the registered owner of the Global Debenture, Cede for all purposes will be considered the sole holder of the Global Debenture. Except as provided below, owners of beneficial interests in the Global Debenture will not be entitled to have certificates registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of certificates in definitive form, and will not be considered the holders thereof.

Payment of the redemption price and the purchase price of the Global Debenture as well as any Liquidated Damages (as defined) due on the Global Debenture arising out of the Company's failure to meet its obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement will be made to Cede, the nominee for DTC, as the registered owner of the Global Debenture by wire transfer of immediately available funds. Neither the Company, the Trustee nor any paying agent will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in the Global Debenture or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

The Company has been informed by DTC that, with respect to payment of Liquidated Damages (if any) on and the redemption price or the purchase price of the Global Debenture, DTC's practice is to credit Participants' accounts on the payment date therefor with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interest in the Debentures represented by the Global Debenture as shown on the records of DTC (adjusted as necessary so that such payments are made with respect to whole Debentures only), unless DTC has reason to believe that it will not receive payment on such payment date. Payments by Participants to owners of beneficial interests in Debentures represented by the Global Debenture held through such Participants will be the responsibility of such Participants, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in "street name."

Holders who desire to convert their Debentures into Common Stock should contact their brokers or other Participants or Indirect Participants to obtain information on procedures, including proper forms and cut-off times, for submitting such request.

Because DTC can only act on behalf of Participants, who in turn act on behalf of Indirect Participants and certain banks, the ability of a person having a beneficial interest in the Debentures represented by the Global Debenture to pledge such interest to persons or entities that do not participate in the DTC system, or otherwise take actions in respect of such interest, may be affected by the lack of a physical certificate evidencing such interest.

Neither the Company nor the Trustee (or any registrar, paying agent or conversion agent under the Indenture) will have any responsibility for the performance by DTC or its Participants or Indirect Participants of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations. DTC has advised the Company that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of Debentures (including, without limitation, the presentation of Debentures for conversion as described below) only at the direction of one or more Participants to whose account with DTC interests in the Global Debenture are credited and only in respect of the principal amount of the Debentures represented by the Global Debenture as to which such Participant or Participants has or have given such direction.

DTC has advised the Company as follows: DTC is a limited purpose trust company organized under the laws of the State of New York, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. DTC was created to hold securities for its Participants and to facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between Participants through electronic book-entry changes to accounts of its Participants, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of certificates. Participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations and may include certain other organizations such as the Initial Purchaser. Certain of such Participants (or their representatives), together with other entities, own DTC. Indirect access to the DTC system is available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through, or maintain a custodial relationship with a Participant, either directly or indirectly.

Although DTC has agreed to the foregoing procedures in order to facilitate transfers of interests in the Global Debenture among participants of DTC, DTC is under no obligation to perform or continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time. If DTC is at any time unwilling or unable to continue as depository and a successor depository is not appointed by the Company within 90 days, the Company will cause Debentures to be issued in definitive form in exchange for the Global Debenture.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to Participants, by Participants to Indirect Participants and Indirect Participants to beneficial owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements that may be in effect from time to time. Redemption notices shall be sent to Cede. If less than all of the Debentures are being redeemed, DTC will reduce the amount of the interest of each Participant in such Debentures in accordance with its procedures.

Certificated Debentures. Debentures sold to investors that are not QIBs will be issued in definitive registered form and may not be represented by the Global Debenture. QIBs may request that any Debentures they hold in definitive registered form be exchanged for interests in the Global Debenture. Certificated Debentures may be issued in exchange for Debentures represented by the Global Debenture if a depository is unwilling or unable to continue as a depository for the Global Debenture as set forth above under "Global Debenture; Book-Entry Form."

Restrictions on Transfer; Legends. The Debentures will be subject to certain transfer restrictions as described below under "Transfer Restrictions" and certificates evidencing the Debentures will bear a legend to such effect.

Conversion of Debentures

A holder of a Debenture may convert it into Common Stock of the Company at any time after 90 days following the latest date of original issuance of the Debentures through the close of business on March 25, 2018; provided that if a Debenture is called for redemption, the holder may convert it only until the close of business on the last trading day prior to the Redemption Date unless the Company defaults in the payment of the redemption price. A Debenture in respect of which a holder has delivered a Purchase Notice exercising the option of such holder to require the Company to purchase such Debenture may be converted only if such notice is withdrawn in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. Similarly, a Debenture in respect of which a holder is exercising its option to require redemption upon a Fundamental Change may be converted only if such holder withdraws its election to exercise its option in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. A holder may convert such holder's Debentures in part so long as such part is $1,000 principal amount at maturity or a whole multiple thereof.

The initial Conversion Rate is 6.575 shares of Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount at maturity of Debentures, subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events, as described below. A holder entitled to a fractional share of Common Stock shall receive cash equal to the then current market value of such fractional share.

On conversion of a Debenture, a holder will not receive any cash payment representing accrued Original Issue Discount. The Company's delivery to the holder of the fixed number of shares of Common Stock into which the Debenture is convertible (together with the cash payment, if any, in lieu of fractional Common Stock) will be deemed to satisfy the Company's obligation to pay the principal amount of the Debenture including the accrued Original Issue Discount attributable to the period from the Issue Date to the Conversion Date. Thus, the accrued Original Issue Discount is deemed to be paid in full rather than canceled, extinguished or forfeited. The Conversion Rate will not be adjusted at any time during the term of the Debentures for such accrued Original Issue Discount.

To convert a certificated Debenture into Common Stock, a holder must (i) complete and manually sign the conversion notice on the back of the Debenture (or complete and manually sign a facsimile thereof) and deliver such notice to the conversion agent, (ii) surrender the Debenture to the conversion agent, (iii) if required, furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents, and (iv) if required, pay all transfer or similar taxes. The procedure for converting a Global Debenture is described above under "Form, Denomination and Registration—Global Debenture; Book-Entry Form." Pursuant to the Indenture, the date on which all of the foregoing requirements have been satisfied is the Conversion Date.

The Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures has not been registered under the Securities Act and is subject to certain restrictions on transfer. See "Registration Rights" and "Transfer Restrictions."

The Conversion Rate is subject to adjustment under formulae as set forth in the Indenture in certain events, including: (i) the issuance of Common Stock of the Company as a dividend or distribution on the Common Stock; (ii) certain subdivisions and combinations of the Common Stock; (iii) the issuance to all holders of Common Stock of certain rights or warrants to purchase Common Stock; (iv) the distribution to all holders of Common Stock of capital stock (other than Common Stock), of evidences of indebtedness of the Company or of assets (including securities (other than Common Stock), but excluding those rights and warrants referred to in clause (iii) above or paid in cash); (v) distributions consisting of cash, excluding any quarterly cash dividend on the Common Stock to the extent that the aggregate cash dividend per share of Common Stock in any quarter does not exceed the greater of (x) the amount per share of Common Stock of the next preceding quarterly cash dividend on the Common Stock to the extent that such preceding quarterly dividend did not require an adjustment of the Conversion Rate pursuant to this clause (v) (as adjusted to reflect subdivisions or combinations of the Common Stock), and (y) 3.75 percent of the average of the last reported sales price of the Common Stock during the ten trading days immediately prior to the date of declaration of such dividend, and excluding any dividend or distribution in connection with the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company; (vi) payment in respect of a tender offer or exchange offer by the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company for the Common Stock to the extent that the cash and value of any other consideration included in such payment per share of Common Stock exceeds the Current Market Price (as defined) per share of Common Stock on the trading day next succeeding the last date on which tenders or exchanges may be made pursuant to such tender or exchange offer; and (vii) payment in respect of a tender offer or exchange offer by a person other than the Company or any Subsidiary (as defined) of the Company in which, as of the closing date of the offer, the Board of Directors is not recommending rejection of the offer. If an adjustment is required to be made as set forth in clause (v) above as a result of a distribution that is a quarterly dividend, such adjustment would be based upon the amount by which such distribution exceeds the amount of the quarterly cash dividend permitted to be excluded pursuant to clause (v) above. If an adjustment is required to be made as set forth in clause (v) above as a result of a distribution that is not a quarterly dividend, such adjustment would be based upon the full amount of the distribution. The adjustment referred to in clause (vii) above will only be made if the tender offer or exchange offer is for an amount that increases the offeror's ownership of Common Stock to more than 25% of the total shares of Common Stock outstanding, and if the cash and value of any other consideration included in such payment per share of Common Stock exceeds the Current Market Price per share of Common Stock on the business day next succeeding the last date on which tenders or exchanges may be made pursuant to such tender or exchange offer. The adjustment referred to in clause (vii) above will generally not be made, however, if as of the closing of such offer, the offering documents with respect to such offer disclose a plan or an intention to cause the Company to engage in a consolidation or merger of the Company or a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets.

No adjustment in the Conversion Rate will be required unless such adjustment would require a change of at least 1% in the rate then in effect; provided that any adjustment that would otherwise be required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment. Except as stated above, the Conversion Rate will not be adjusted for the issuance of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock or carrying the right to purchase any of the foregoing.

In the case of (i) a reclassification of the Common Stock, or (ii) a consolidation or merger involving the Company or a sale or conveyance to another corporation of the property and assets of the Company as an entirety or substantially as an entirety, in each case as a result of which holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive stock, securities, other property or assets (including cash) with respect to or in exchange for such Common Stock, the holders of the Debentures then outstanding will be entitled thereafter to convert such Debentures into the kind and amount of shares of stock, securities or other property or assets (including cash) which they would have owned or been entitled to receive upon such reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or conveyance had such Debentures been converted immediately prior to such reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or conveyance assuming that a holder of Debentures would not have exercised any rights of election as to the stock, securities or other property or assets (including cash) receivable in connection therewith.

In the event of a taxable distribution to holders of Common Stock or in certain other circumstances requiring an adjustment to the Conversion Rate, the holders of Debentures may, in certain circumstances, be deemed to have received a distribution subject to United States income tax as a dividend; in certain other circumstances, the absence of such an adjustment may result in a taxable dividend to the holders of Common Stock. See "Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations."

The Company from time to time may, to the extent permitted by law, increase the Conversion Rate by any amount for any period of at least 20 days, in which case the Company shall give at least 15 days' notice of such increase, if the Company's Board of Directors has made a determination that such increase would be in the best interests of the Company, which determination shall be conclusive. The Company may, at its option, make such increases in the Conversion Rate, in addition to those set forth above, as the Board of Directors deems advisable to avoid or diminish any income tax to holders of Common Stock resulting from any dividend or distribution of stock (or rights to acquire stock) or from any event treated as such for income tax purposes. See "Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations."

Redemption of Debentures at the Option of the Company

No sinking fund is provided for the Debentures. Prior to March 25, 2003, the Debentures will not be redeemable at the option of the Company. Beginning on March 25, 2003, the Company may (subject to applicable contractual restrictions including under agreements governing Senior Indebtedness) redeem the Debentures for cash as a whole at any time, or from time to time in part, upon not less than 30 days' nor more than 60 days' notice of redemption given by mail to holders of Debentures. The Debentures will be redeemable in whole multiples of $1,000 principal amount at maturity.

The table below shows Redemption Prices of a Debenture per $1,000 principal amount at maturity thereof, at March 25, 2003 and at each March 25, thereafter prior to maturity and at maturity on March 25, 2018, which prices reflect the accrued Original Issue Discount calculated to each such date. The Redemption Price of a Debenture redeemed between such dates would include an additional amount reflecting the additional Original Issue Discount accrued since the next preceding date in the table to the actual Redemption Date.

Redemption Date	(1) Debenture Issue Price	(2) Accrued Original Issue Discount At 5.0%	(3) Redemption Price (1)+(2)
March 25, 2003	$ 372.43	$ 104.32	$ 476.75
March 25, 2004	372.43	128.45	500.88
March 25, 2005	372.43	153.81	526.24
March 25, 2006	372.43	180.45	552.88
March 25, 2007	372.43	208.44	580.87
March 25, 2008	372.43	237.84	610.27
March 25, 2009	372.43	268.74	641.17
March 25, 2010	372.43	301.20	673.63
March 25, 2011	372.43	335.30	707.73
March 25, 2012	372.43	371.13	743.56

March 25, 2016	372.43	533.52	905.95
March 25, 2017	372.43	579.39	951.82
March 25, 2018	372.43	627.57	1,000.00

If less than all of the outstanding Debentures held in certificated form are to be redeemed, the Trustee shall select the Debentures held in such form to be redeemed in principal amounts at maturity of $1,000 or whole multiples thereof by lot, pro rata or by another method the Trustee considers fair and appropriate (as long as such method is not prohibited by the rules of any stock exchange on which the Debentures are then listed, if any). If a portion of a holder's certificated Debentures is selected for partial redemption and such holder converts a portion of such certificated Debentures, such converted portion shall be deemed to be the portion selected for redemption. Debentures registered in the name of DTC or its nominee will be redeemed pro rata as described under "—Form, Denomination and Registration—Global Debenture; Book-Entry Form."

Redemption at Option of the Holder Upon a Fundamental Change

If a Fundamental Change (as defined) occurs at any time prior to March 25, 2018, each holder of Debentures shall have the right, at the holder's option, to require the Company to redeem any or all of such holder's Debentures on the date (the "Repurchase Date") that is 45 days after the date of the Company's notice of such Fundamental Change. The Debentures will be redeemable in whole multiples of $1,000 principal amount at maturity at their accreted value on the Repurchase Date.

The Company shall redeem such Debentures at a price equal to the Issue Price plus accrued Original Issue Discount to, but excluding, the Repurchase Date, provided that if the Applicable Price (as defined) in connection with the Fundamental Change is less than the Reference Market Price (as defined), the Company shall redeem such Debentures at a price equal to the foregoing Redemption Price multiplied by the fraction obtained by dividing the Applicable Price by the Reference Market Price.

The Company shall mail to all holders of record of the Debentures a notice of the occurrence of a Fundamental Change and of the redemption right arising as a result thereof on or before the tenth day after the occurrence of such Fundamental Change. The Company shall deliver to the Trustee a copy of such notice. To exercise the redemption right, holders of Debentures must deliver, on or before the 30th day after the date of the Company's notice of a Fundamental Change (the "Fundamental Change Expiration Time"), the Debentures to be so redeemed, duly endorsed for transfer, together with the form entitled "Option to Elect Redemption Upon a Fundamental Change" on the reverse thereof duly completed, to the Company (or an agent designated by the Company for such purpose). Payment for Notes surrendered for redemption (and not withdrawn) prior to the Fundamental Change Expiration Time will be made promptly following the Repurchase Date.

The term "Fundamental Change" means the occurrence of any transaction or event in connection with which all or substantially all of the Common Stock shall be exchanged for, converted into, acquired for or constitute solely the right to receive consideration (whether by means of an exchange offer, liquidation, tender offer, consolidation, merger, combination, reclassification, recapitalization or otherwise) which is not all or substantially all common stock of a company listed (or, upon consummation of or immediately following such transaction or event, which will be listed) on a United States national securities exchange or approved for quotation on the Nasdaq National Market or any similar United States system of automated dissemination of quotations of securities prices.

The term "Applicable Price" means (i) in the event of a Fundamental Change in which the holders of the Common Stock receive only cash, the amount of cash received by the holder of one share of Common Stock and (ii) in the event of any other Fundamental Change, the average of the reported last sale price for the Common Stock during the ten trading days prior to the record date for the determination of the holders of Common Stock entitled to receive cash, securities, property or other assets in connection with such Fundamental Change, or, if there is no such record date, the date upon which the holders of the Common Stock shall have the right to receive such cash, securities, property or other assets in connection with the Fundamental Change.

The term "Reference Market Price" shall initially mean $30.2083 (which is equal to 66⅔% of the last sale price of the Common Stock as reflected on the cover page of this Offering Memorandum) and in the event of any adjustment to the Conversion Rate pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture, the Reference Market Price shall also be adjusted so that the Reference Market Price shall be equal to the initial Reference Market Price multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the Conversion Rate specified on the cover of this Offering Memorandum (without regard to any adjustment thereto) and the denominator of which is the Conversion Rate following such adjustment.

The Company will comply with the provisions of Rule 13e-4 and any other tender offer rules under the Exchange Act which may then be applicable in connection with the redemption rights of Debenture holders in the event of a Fundamental Change.

The redemption rights of the holders of Debentures could discourage a potential acquirer of the Company. The Fundamental Change redemption feature, however, is not the result of management's knowledge of any specific effort to obtain control of the Company by means of a merger, tender offer, solicitation or otherwise, or part of a plan by management to adopt a series of anti-takeover provisions.

The term "Fundamental Change" is limited to certain specified transactions and may not include other events that might adversely affect the financial condition of the Company, nor would the requirement that the Company offer to repurchase the Debentures upon a Fundamental Change necessarily afford the holders of the Debentures protection in the event of a highly leveraged transaction, reorganization, merger or similar transaction involving the Company.

No Debentures may be redeemed at the option of holders upon a Fundamental Change if there has occurred and is continuing an Event of Default described under "—Events of Default; Notice and Waiver" below (other than a default in the payment of the Fundamental Change Redemption Price with respect to such Debentures). In the event of a Fundamental Change and exercise by holders of the Debentures of their associated rights to require the Company to redeem all or a portion of their Debentures, there can be no assurance that the Company would have sufficient funds to pay the redemption price for all the Debentures tendered by the holders thereof. The Company expects that the New Credit Facility will provide, and any future credit agreements (including an extension of the New Credit Facility) or other agreements relating to indebtedness (including Senior Indebtedness) to which the Company becomes a party also may provide, that a Fundamental Change would constitute an event of default thereunder permitting the lenders thereunder to accelerate the maturity thereof and thereby cause the subordination provisions in the Indenture to apply, preventing redemption of the Debentures until Senior Indebtedness thereunder is paid in full. Any such provisions could restrict or prohibit the redemption of the Debentures. If the Company is prohibited from redeeming the Debentures upon the occurrence of a Fundamental Change, the Company could seek the consent of its then existing lenders to redeem the Debentures or could attempt to refinance the borrowings that contain such prohibition. If the Company does not obtain such a consent or repay such borrowings, the Company would remain prohibited from redeeming the Debentures. In such case, the Company's failure to redeem Debentures required to be redeemed under the terms of the Indenture would constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture and would likely constitute a default under the terms of any other indebtedness of the Company outstanding at such time, including Senior Indebtedness. In such circumstances, or if a Fundamental Change would in and of itself constitute an event of default under agreements governing Senior Indebtedness then outstanding, the subordination provisions in the Indenture would prohibit or restrict payments to the holders of Debentures.

Purchase of Debentures at the Option of the Holder

On March 25, 2003, March 25, 2008 and March 25, 2013 (each, a "Purchase Date"), the Company will become obligated to purchase, at the option of the holder thereof, any outstanding Debenture for which a written Purchase Notice has been delivered by the holder to the office of the paying agent (initially the Trustee) at any time from the opening of business on the date that is 20 Business Days (as defined) prior to such Purchase Date until the close of business on such Purchase Date and for which such Purchase Notice has not been withdrawn, subject to certain additional conditions.

The Purchase Notice shall state (i) the certificate numbers of the Debentures to be delivered by the holder thereof for purchase by the Company; (ii) the portion of the principal amount at maturity of Debentures to be purchased, which portion must be $1,000 or a whole multiple thereof; (iii) that such Debentures are to be purchased by the Company pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Debentures; and (iv) in the event the Company elects, pursuant to the Company Notice (as defined), to pay the Purchase Price to be paid as of such Purchase Date in Common Stock, in whole or in part, but such Purchase Price is ultimately to be paid to such holder entirely in cash because any of the conditions to payment of the Purchase Price (or portion thereof) in Common Stock is not satisfied by the Purchase Date, as described below, whether such holder elects (x) to withdraw such Purchase Notice as to some or all of the Debentures to which it relates (stating the principal amount at maturity and certificate numbers of the Debentures as to which such withdrawal shall relate), or (y) to receive cash in respect of the entire Purchase Price for all Debentures subject to such Purchase Notice. If the holder fails to indicate, in the Purchase Notice and in any written notice of withdrawal relating to such Purchase Notice, such holder's choice with respect to the election described in clause (iv) above, such holder shall be deemed to have elected to receive cash in respect of the entire Purchase Price for all Debentures subject to such Purchase Notice in such circumstances. For a discussion of the tax treatment of a holder receiving cash or Common Stock pursuant to its election to tender its Debentures to the Company on a Purchase Date, see "Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations."

Any Purchase Notice may be withdrawn by the holder by a written notice of withdrawal delivered to the paying agent prior to the close of business on the Purchase Date. The notice of withdrawal shall state the principal amount at maturity and the certificate numbers of the Debentures as to which the withdrawal notice relates and the principal amount at maturity, if any, which remains subject to the Purchase Notice.

The Purchase Price payable in respect of a Debenture shall be equal to the Issue Price plus accrued Original Issue Discount to the Purchase Date. The table below shows the Purchase Prices of a Debenture as of the specified Purchase Dates. The Company may elect to pay the Purchase Price payable as of any Purchase Date in cash or Common Stock or any combination thereof.

Purchase Date	Purchase Price
March 25, 2003	$476.75
March 25, 2008	610.27
March 25, 2013	781.20

If the Company elects to pay the Purchase Price, in whole or in part, in Common Stock, the number of shares to be delivered in respect of the portion of the Purchase Price to be paid in Common Stock shall be equal to such portion of the Purchase Price divided by the Market Price (as defined) of the Common Stock. However, no fractional shares of Common Stock will be delivered upon any purchase by the Company of Debentures through the delivery of Common Stock in payment, in whole or in part, of the Purchase Price. Instead, the Company will pay cash based on the Market Price for all fractional shares of Common Stock.

The Company will give notice (the "Company Notice") not less than 20 Business Days prior to the Purchase Date (the "Company Notice Date") to all holders at their addresses shown in the register of the registrar (and to beneficial owners as required by applicable law) stating, among other things, whether the Company will pay the Purchase Price of the Debentures in cash or Common Stock, or any combination thereof (specifying the percentage of each) and, if the Company elects to pay in Common Stock, in whole or in part, the method of calculating the Market Price of the Common Stock.

The "Market Price" means the average of the Sale Prices (as defined) of the Common Stock for the five trading day period ending on the third Business Day prior to the applicable Purchase Date (if the third Business Day prior to the applicable Purchase Date is a trading day or, if it is not a trading day, then on the last trading day prior to such third Business Day), appropriately adjusted to take into account the occurrence during the period commencing on the first of such trading days during such five trading day period and ending on such Purchase Date of certain events that would result in an adjustment of the Conversion Rate under the Indenture with respect to the Common Stock. The "Sale Price" of the Common Stock on any date means the closing per share sale price (or if no closing sale price is reported, the average bid and ask prices or, if more than one in either case, the average of the average bid and average ask prices) on such date as reported in the composite transactions for the principal United States securities exchange on which the Common Stock is traded or, if the Common Stock is not listed on a United States national or regional stock exchange, as reported by the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System. Because the Market Price of the Common Stock is determined prior to the applicable Purchase Date, holders of Debentures bear the market risk with respect to the value of the Common Stock to be received from the date of determination of such Market Price to such Purchase Date. The Company may elect to pay the Purchase Price in Common Stock only if the information necessary to calculate the Market Price is reported in a daily newspaper of national circulation.

Upon determination of the actual number of shares of Common Stock in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the Company will publish such determination in a daily newspaper of national circulation.

The Company's right to purchase Debentures with Common Stock is subject to the satisfaction of various conditions, including: (i) the registration of the Common Stock under the Securities Act, if required; and (ii) compliance with other applicable federal and state securities laws, if any. If such conditions are not satisfied by a Purchase Date, the Company will pay the Purchase Price of the Debentures to be purchased on such Purchase Date entirely in cash. See "Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations." The Company will comply with the provisions of Rule 13e-4 and any other tender offer rules under the Exchange Act which may then be applicable and will file a Schedule 13E-4 or any other schedule required thereunder in connection with any offer by the Company to purchase Debentures at the option of holders.

Payment of the Purchase Price for a Debenture for which a Purchase Notice has been delivered and not withdrawn is conditioned upon book-entry transfer or delivery of such Debenture (together with necessary endorsements) to the paying agent at its office in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, or any other office of the paying agent maintained for such purpose, at any time (whether prior to, on or after the Purchase Date) after delivery of such Purchase Notice. Payment of the Purchase Price for such Debenture will be made promptly following the later of the Purchase Date or the time of book-entry transfer or delivery of such Debenture. If the paying agent holds, in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, money or securities sufficient to pay the Purchase Price of such Debenture on the Business Day following the Purchase Date, then, on and after such date, such Debenture will cease to be outstanding and Original Issue Discount on such Debenture will cease to accrue whether or not book-entry transfer of such Debenture is made or such Debenture is delivered to the paying agent, and all other rights of the holder shall terminate (other than the right to receive the Purchase Price upon delivery of the Debenture).

No Debentures may be purchased at the option of the holder for cash if there has occurred (prior to, on or after the giving by the holders of such Debentures of the required Purchase Notice) and is continuing an Event of Default described under "Events of Default; Notice and Waiver" below (other than a default in the payment of the Purchase Price with respect to such Debentures).

If the Company becomes obligated to purchase any outstanding Debenture on a Purchase Date, there can be no assurance that the Company would have sufficient funds to pay the Purchase Price on that Purchase Date (in which case, the Company could be required to issue shares of Common Stock to pay the Purchase Price at valuations based on then prevailing market prices) for all the Debentures tendered by the holders thereof. The Company expects that the New Credit Facility will prohibit the purchase of the Debentures for cash but will permit the purchase of Debentures with shares of Common Stock on a Purchase Date. There can be no assurance that any future credit agreements (including an extension of the New Credit Facility) or other agreements relating to indebtedness (including Senior Indebtedness) to which the Company becomes a party will not contain prohibitions on or defaults with respect to the repurchase of the Debentures or provide that prepayment or redemption would constitute an event of default. In the event a Purchase Date occurs at a time when the Company is prohibited from repurchasing the Debentures, the Company could seek the consent of its then existing lenders to repurchase the Debentures or could attempt to refinance the borrowings that contain such prohibition. If the Company does not obtain such a consent or repay such borrowings, the Company would remain prohibited from repurchasing the Debentures. The Company's failure to repurchase Debentures required to be repurchased under the terms of the Indenture would constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture and would likely constitute a default under the terms of any other indebtedness of the Company outstanding at such time, including Senior Indebtedness. In such circumstances, the subordination provisions in the Indenture would prohibit or restrict payments to the holders of Debentures.

Subordination of Debentures

The Indebtedness evidenced by the Debentures is subordinated to the extent provided in the Indenture to the prior payment in full in cash or other payment satisfactory to the holders of Senior Indebtedness of all existing and future Senior Indebtedness. Such subordination will not prevent the occurrence of any Event of Default under the Indenture.

Upon any distribution of assets of the Company upon any dissolution, winding up, voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, receivership or similar proceeding relating to the Company or its property, an assignment for the benefit of creditors or any marshaling of the Company's assets or liabilities, the holders of Senior Indebtedness will be entitled to receive payment in full, in cash or other payment satisfactory to the holders of Senior Indebtedness, of all obligations due in respect of such Senior Indebtedness before the holders of Debentures will be entitled to receive any payment of the principal amount at maturity, Issue Price, accrued Original Issue Discount, Redemption Price, Purchase Price, Fundamental Change Redemption Price, interest, if any, Liquidated Damages, if any, or any other payment in respect of the Debentures (a "Payment on the Debentures"), and until all obligations with respect to Senior Indebtedness are paid in full in cash or other payment satisfactory to the holders of Senior Indebtedness, any Payment on the Debentures to which the holders of Debentures would be entitled shall be made to the holders of Senior Indebtedness. By reason of the subordination, in the event of the Company's dissolution, winding up, bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganization, receivership or similar proceeding relating to the Company or its property, an assignment for the benefit of creditors or any marshaling of the Company's assets or liabilities, holders of Senior Indebtedness may receive more, ratably, and the holders of Debentures may receive less, ratably, than the other creditors of the Company.

In the event that the Debentures are declared due and payable prior to their stated maturity by reason of the occurrence of an Event of Default, then the Company is obligated to notify promptly holders of Senior Indebtedness of such acceleration. The Company may not pay monies owed pursuant to the Debentures until 120 days have passed after such acceleration occurs and may thereafter pay the Debentures if the terms of the Indenture otherwise permit payment at that time.

The Company also may not make any Payment on the Debentures if (i) a default in any payment obligations in respect of Senior Indebtedness occurs and is continuing, without regard to any applicable period of grace (whether at maturity or at a date fixed for payment or by declaration or otherwise) (each a "payment default") or (ii) any other default occurs and is continuing with respect to Designated Senior Indebtedness that permits holders of the Designated Senior Indebtedness as to which such default relates to accelerate its maturity and the Trustee receives a notice of such default (a "Payment Blockage Notice") from the Company or from a representative for any issue of Designated Senior Indebtedness. Payments on the Debentures may and shall be resumed (a) in case of a payment default, the earlier of the date on which such default is cured or waived in accordance with the terms of the governing instrument or ceases to exist and (b) in case of a nonpayment default, the earlier of the date on which such nonpayment default is cured or waived in accordance with the terms of the governing instrument or ceases to exist or 179 days after the date on which the applicable Payment Blockage Notice is received by the Trustee if the terms of the Indenture otherwise permit payment at that time. No new period of payment blockage may be commenced pursuant to a Payment Blockage Notice unless and until 365 days have elapsed since the initial effectiveness of the immediately prior Payment Blockage Notice. No nonpayment default that existed or was continuing on the date of delivery of any Payment Blockage Notice to the Trustee shall be, or shall be made, the basis for a subsequent Payment Blockage Notice unless such default shall have been cured or waived for a period of not less than 90 days (it being acknowledged that (x) any action of the Company or any of its subsidiaries occurring subsequent to delivery of a Payment Blockage Notice that would give rise to any event of default pursuant to any provision of Senior Indebtedness under which an event of default previously existed (or was continuing at the time of delivery of such Payment Blockage Notice) shall constitute a new event of default for this purpose and (y) any breach of a financial covenant giving rise to a nonpayment default for a period ending subsequent to the date of delivery of the respective Payment Blockage Notice shall constitute a new event of default for this purpose).

The term "Senior Indebtedness" means the principal of, premium, if any, interest (including all interest accruing subsequent to, or which would accrue but for, the commencement of any bankruptcy or similar proceeding, whether or not a claim for post-petition interest is allowable as a claim in any such proceeding), original issue discount, rent and end of term payments payable on or in connection with, and, to the extent not included in the foregoing, all amounts payable as fees, costs, expenses, liquidated damages, indemnities, repurchase and other put obligations and other amounts to the extent accrued or due on or in connection with Secured Indebtedness (as defined) of the Company, whether outstanding on the date of the Indenture or thereafter created, incurred, assumed, guaranteed or in effect guaranteed by the Company (including all deferrals, renewals, extensions or refundings of, or amendments, modifications or supplements to, the foregoing). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term Senior Indebtedness shall not include (i) Indebtedness of the Company to any subsidiary of the Company, a majority of the voting stock of which is owned, directly or indirectly, by the Company, (ii) accounts payable or other indebtedness to trade creditors created or assumed by the Company in the ordinary course of business and (iii) any particular Indebtedness in which the instrument creating or evidencing the same or the assumption or guarantee thereof expressly provides that such Indebtedness shall not be senior in right of payment to, or is pari passu with, or is subordinated or junior to, the Debentures.

The term "Indebtedness" means, with respect to any Person (as defined) and without duplication: (a) all indebtedness, obligations and other liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of such Person for borrowed money (including obligations of the Company in respect of overdrafts, foreign exchange contracts, currency exchange agreements, interest rate protection agreements, and any loans or advances, whether or not evidenced by notes or similar instruments) or evidenced by bonds, debentures, notes or similar instruments (whether or not the recourse of the lender is to the whole of the assets of such Person or to only a portion thereof); (b) all reimbursement obligations and other liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of such Person with respect to letters of credit, bank guarantees, bankers' acceptances or similar facilities; (c) all obligations and liabilities (contingent or otherwise) in respect of leases of such Person (i) required, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, to be accounted for as capitalized lease obligations on the balance sheet of such Person, or (ii) required, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, to be accounted for as an operating lease, provided either (A) such operating lease requires, at the end of the term thereof, that such Person make any payment other than accrued periodic rent in the event that such Person does not acquire the leased real property and related fixtures subject to such lease or (B) such Person has an option to acquire the leased real property and related fixtures, whether such option is exercisable at any time or under specified circumstances; (d) all obligations of such Person (contingent or otherwise) with respect to an interest rate swap, cap or collar agreement or other similar instrument or agreement or foreign currency hedge or exchange agreement or other similar instrument or agreement; (e) all direct or indirect guaranties or similar agreements by such Person in respect of, and obligations or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of such Person to purchase or otherwise acquire or otherwise assure a creditor against loss in respect of, indebtedness, obligations or liabilities of another Person of the kind described in clauses (a) through (d); (f) any indebtedness or other obligations described in clauses (a) through (d) secured by any mortgage, pledge, lien or other encumbrance existing on property which is owned or held by such Person, regardless of whether the indebtedness or other obligation secured thereby shall have been assumed by such Person; and (g) any and all deferrals, renewals, extensions and refundings of, or amendments, modifications or supplements to, any indebtedness, obligation or liability of the kind described in clauses (a) through (f).

The term "Designated Senior Indebtedness" means (i) Senior Indebtedness incurred under the New Credit Facility or (ii) any other particular Senior Indebtedness in which the instrument creating or evidencing the same or the assumption or guarantee thereof (or related agreements or documents to which the Company is a party) expressly provides that such Senior Indebtedness shall be "Designated Senior Indebtedness" for purposes of the Indenture; provided that such instrument, agreement or other document may place limitations and conditions on the right of such Senior Indebtedness to exercise the rights of Designated Senior Indebtedness.

The term "Secured Indebtedness" means, with respect to any Person, Indebtedness of such Person secured by any mortgage, pledge, lien or other encumbrance existing on the property or assets which is owned or held by such Person.

The Debentures are obligations exclusively of the Company. Since the operations of the Company are conducted through subsidiaries, the cash flow and the consequent ability to service debt, including the Debentures, are dependent upon the earnings of its subsidiaries and the distribution of those earnings to, or upon loans or other payments of funds by those subsidiaries to, the Company. The subsidiaries are separate and distinct legal entities and have no obligation, contingent or otherwise, to pay any amount pursuant to the Debentures or to make any funds available therefor, whether by dividends, loans or other payments. In addition, the payment of dividends and making of loans and advances to the Company by its subsidiaries are subject to statutory or contractual restrictions, including those expected under the New Credit Facility, are contingent upon the earnings of those subsidiaries and are subject to various business considerations.

Any right of the Company to receive assets of any of its subsidiaries upon their liquidation or reorganization (and the consequent right of the holders of the Debentures to participate in those assets) will be effectively subordinated to the claims of that subsidiary's creditors (including trade creditors), except to the extent that the Company is itself recognized as a creditor of such subsidiary, in which case the claims of the Company would still be subordinate to any security interests in the assets of such subsidiary and any indebtedness of such subsidiary senior to that held by the Company.

At December 28, 1997, on a pro forma basis after giving effect to the Acquisitions, the Bank Financing, the Offering and the application of the net proceeds therefrom, approximately $1,294 million of Senior Indebtedness would have been outstanding and the Company's subsidiaries would have had approximately $731 million of indebtedness and other liabilities outstanding (excluding intercompany liabilities and liabilities of a type not required to be reflected on a balance sheet in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles) to which the Debentures would have been effectively subordinated. The Debentures rank pari passu with all outstanding indebtedness and other liabilities of the Company, including trade payables. Upon the consummation of the Offering, on a pro forma basis the Company will have no outstanding indebtedness or other liabilities other than trade payables. The Indenture will not limit the amount of additional indebtedness, including Senior Indebtedness, which the Company can create, incur, assume or guarantee, nor will the Indenture limit the amount of indebtedness which any subsidiary can create, incur, assume or guarantee.

In the event that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee or any holder of the Debentures receives any payment or distribution of assets of the Company of any kind in contravention of any of the subordination provisions of the Indenture, whether in cash, property or securities, including, without limitation, by way of set-off or otherwise, in respect of the Debentures before all Senior Indebtedness is paid in full in cash or other payment satisfactory to the holders of Senior Indebtedness, then such payment or distribution will be held by the recipient in trust for the benefit of holders of Senior Indebtedness or their representatives to the extent necessary to make payment in full in cash or other payment satisfactory to the holders of Senior Indebtedness of all Senior Indebtedness remaining unpaid, after giving effect to any concurrent payment or distribution, or provision therefor, to or for the holders of Senior Indebtedness.

The Company is obligated to pay reasonable compensation to the Trustee and to indemnify the Trustee against certain losses, liabilities or expenses incurred by it in connection with its duties relating to the Debentures. The Trustee's claims for such payments will generally be senior to those of holders of the Debentures in respect of all funds collected or held by the Trustee.

Events of Default; Notice and Waiver

The Indenture provides that, if an Event of Default specified therein shall have occurred and be continuing, either the Trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount at maturity of the Debentures then outstanding may declare the Issue Price of the Debentures plus the Original Issue Discount on the Debentures and any liquidated damages under the Registration Rights Agreement accrued to the date of such declaration to be immediately due and payable, but if the Company shall cure all defaults (except the nonpayment of Issue Price and accrued Original Issue Discount which shall have become due by acceleration) and certain other conditions are met, such declaration may be annulled and past defaults may be waived by the holders of a majority in principal amount at maturity of the Debentures then outstanding. In the case of certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency, the Issue Price of the Debentures plus the Original Issue Discount accrued thereon to the occurrence of such event shall automatically become and be immediately due and payable. Under certain circumstances, the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount at maturity of the outstanding Debentures may rescind any such acceleration with respect to the Debentures and its consequences. Interest shall accrue at the rate of 5.0% per annum and be payable on demand upon a default in the payment of the Issue Price, accrued Original Issue Discount, accrued liquidated damages, if any, or any Redemption Price, Purchase Price or Fundamental Change Redemption Price to the extent that payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable.

Under the Indenture, Events of Default are defined as: (i) default in payment of the principal amount at maturity, Issue Price, accrued Original Issue Discount, accrued Liquidated Damages, if any, Redemption Price, Purchase Price or Fundamental Change Redemption Price with respect to any Debenture when such becomes due and payable (whether or not payment is prohibited by the subordination provisions of the Indenture), provided that in the case of any failure to pay Liquidated Damages, such failure continues for a period of 30 days; (ii) failure by the Company to comply with any of its other agreements in the Debentures or the Indenture upon the receipt by the Company of notice of such default by the Trustee or by holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount at maturity of the Debentures then outstanding and the Company's failure to cure such default within 60 days after receipt by the Company of such notice; or (iii) certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency.

The Trustee shall give notice to holders of the Debentures of any continuing default known to the Trustee within 90 days after the occurrence thereof, provided that the Trustee may withhold such notice if it determines in good faith that withholding the notice is in the interests of the holders.

The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount at maturity of the outstanding Debentures may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee; provided that such direction shall not be in conflict with any law or the Indenture and subject to certain other limitations. Before proceeding to exercise any right or power under the Indenture at the direction of such holders, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from such holders reasonable security or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in complying with any such direction. No holder of any Debenture will have any right to pursue any remedy with respect to the Indenture or the Debentures, unless (i) such holder shall have previously given the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default; (ii) the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount at maturity of the outstanding Debentures shall have made a written request to the Trustee to pursue such remedy; (iii) such holder or holders have offered to the Trustee reasonable indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee; (iv) the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount at maturity of the outstanding Debentures have not given the Trustee a direction inconsistent with such request within 60 days after receipt of such request; and (v) the Trustee shall have failed to comply with the request within such 60-day period.

In the event that the Debentures are declared due and payable prior to their stated maturity by reason of the occurrence of an Event of Default, then the Company is obligated to notify promptly holders of Senior Indebtedness of such acceleration. The Company may not pay monies owed pursuant to the Debentures until 120 days have passed after such acceleration occurs and may thereafter pay the Debentures if the terms of the Indenture otherwise permit payment at that time.

However, the right of any holder (x) to receive payment of the principal amount at maturity, Issue Price, accrued Original Issue Discount, Redemption Price, Purchase Price, Fundamental Change Redemption Price and any interest in respect of a default in the payment of any such amounts on a Debenture, on or after the due date expressed in such Debenture, (y) to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payments or conversion or (z) to convert Debentures shall not be impaired or adversely affected without such holder's consent. The holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount at maturity of the outstanding Debentures may waive an existing default and its consequences, other than (i) any default in any payment on the Debentures, (ii) any default with respect to the conversion rights of the Debentures or (iii) any default in respect of certain covenants or provisions in the Indenture which may not be modified without the consent of the holder of each Debenture as described in "Modification" below. The Company will be required to furnish to the Trustee annually a statement as to any default by the Company in the performance and observance of its obligations under the Indenture.

Mergers and Sales of Assets by the Company

The Company may not consolidate with or merge into any other person or convey, transfer or lease its properties and assets substantially as an entirety to another person, unless, among other items, (i) the resulting, surviving or transferee person (if other than the Company) is organized and existing under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (ii) such successor person assumes all obligations of the Company under the Debentures and the Indenture and (iii) the Company or such successor person shall not immediately thereafter be in default under the Indenture. Upon the assumption of the Company's obligations by such person in such circumstances, subject to certain exceptions, the Company shall be discharged from all obligations under the Debentures and the Indenture. Certain such transactions which would constitute a Fundamental Change would permit each holder to require the Company to redeem the Debentures of such holder as described under "Redemption at Option of the Holder Upon a Fundamental Change."

Modification

Modification and amendment of the Indenture or the Debentures may be effected by the Company and the Trustee with the consent of the holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount at maturity of the Debentures then outstanding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such amendment may, without the consent of each holder affected thereby: (i) reduce the principal amount at maturity, Issue Price, Purchase Price, Fundamental Change Redemption Price or Redemption Price, or extend the stated maturity of any Debenture or alter the manner or rate of accrual of Original Issue Discount or interest, or make any Debenture payable in money or securities other than that stated in the Debenture; (ii) make any change to the principal amount at maturity of Debentures whose holders must consent to an amendment or any waiver under the Indenture or modify the Indenture provisions relating to such amendments or waivers; (iii) make any change that adversely affects the right to convert any Debenture or the right to require the Company to purchase a Debenture or the right to require the Company to redeem a Debenture upon a Fundamental Change; (iv) modify the provisions of the Indenture relating to the subordination of the Debentures in a manner adverse to the holders of the Debentures in any material respect; or (v) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment with respect to, or conversion of, the Debentures. The Indenture also provides for certain modifications of its terms without the consent of the holders. No amendment may be made to the subordination provisions of the Indenture that adversely affects the rights of any holder of Senior Indebtedness then outstanding, unless the holders of such Senior Indebtedness (as required pursuant to the terms of such Senior Indebtedness) consent to such change.

Limitations of Claims in Bankruptcy

If a bankruptcy proceeding is commenced in respect of the Company, the claim of the holder of a Debenture is, under Title 11 of the United States Code, limited to the Issue Price of the Debenture plus that portion of the Original Issue Discount that has accrued from the date of issue to the commencement of the proceeding. In addition, the Debentures will be subordinated in right of payment to Senior Indebtedness to the extent set forth in the Indenture and effectively subordinated to the indebtedness and other obligations of the Company's subsidiaries. See "Subordination of Debentures" above.

Taxation of Debentures

See "Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations" for a discussion of certain tax considerations relevant to a holder of Debentures.

Rule 144A Information Requirement

The Company has agreed to furnish to the holders or beneficial holders of the Debentures or Common Stock issued upon conversion thereof and prospective purchasers of the Debentures or such Common Stock designated by such holders, upon their request, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act until such time as such securities are no longer "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act (assuming such securities have not been owned by an affiliate of the Company).

Information Concerning the Trustee

The Bank of New York, as Trustee under the Indenture, has been appointed by the Company as paying agent, conversion agent, registrar and custodian with regard to the Debentures. The Indenture provides that, except during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Trustee thereunder will exercise such rights and powers vested in it under the Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in its exercise as a prudent person would exercise under the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs.

The Indenture and provisions of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended ("TIA"), incorporated by reference therein contain limitations on the rights of the Trustee thereunder, should it become a creditor of the Company, to obtain payment of certain claims in certain cases or to realize on certain property received by it in respect of any such claims, as security or otherwise. The Trustee is permitted to engage in other transactions; provided, however, that if it acquires any conflicting interest (within the meaning of the TIA) it must eliminate such conflicting interest or resign.

REGISTRATION RIGHTS

A copy of the Registration Rights Agreement will be available from the Trustee upon request by a registered holder of the Debentures. The following summary of certain provisions of the Registration Rights Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, all the provisions of the Registration Rights Agreement, including the definitions of certain terms that are not otherwise defined in this Offering Memorandum. The Company will enter into a registration rights agreement with the Initial Purchaser (the "Registration Rights Agreement") pursuant to which the Company, at its expense, will, for the benefit of the holders, file with the Commission the Shelf Registration Statement covering resale of the Registrable Securities as soon as practicable, but in any event within 90 days after the first date of original issuance of the Debentures. The Company will use its best efforts to cause the Shelf Registration Statement to become effective as promptly as is practicable, but in any event within 180 days of such first date of original issuance and to keep the Shelf Registration Statement effective until the earlier of (i) the sale pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement of all the securities registered thereunder and (ii) the expiration of the holding period applicable to such securities held by persons that are not affiliates of the Company under Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act, or any successor provision, subject to certain permitted exceptions. The Company will be permitted to suspend the use of the prospectus that is a part of the Shelf Registration Statement under certain circumstances relating to pending corporate developments, public filings with the Commission and similar events for a period not to exceed 30 days in any three-month period or not to exceed an aggregate of 90 days in any 12-month period; provided, however, that the Company will be permitted to suspend the use of the prospectus for a period not to exceed 60 days in any 3-month period or 90 days in any 12-month period under certain circumstances relating to probable acquisitions, acquisitions, financings or similar transactions. The Company will agree to pay predetermined liquidated damages as described herein ("Liquidated Damages") to holders of Debentures and holders of Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Debentures if the Shelf Registration Statement is not timely filed or made effective or if the prospectus is unavailable for periods in excess of those permitted above. Such Liquidated Damages shall accrue until such failure to file or become effective or unavailability is cured, (i) in respect of any Debenture, at a rate per annum equal to 0.25% for the first 90 day period after the occurrence of such event and 0.5% thereafter on an amount equal to the sum of the Issue Price of the Debenture plus accrued Original Issue Discount thereon and, (ii) in respect of each share of Common Stock, at a rate per annum equal to 0.25% for the first 90 day period and 0.5% thereafter on the then applicable conversion price for a share of Common Stock which equals the Issue Price of $1,000 principal amount at maturity of Debentures plus accrued Original Issue Discount thereon divided by the Conversion Rate in effect. A holder who sells Debentures and Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Debentures pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement generally will be required to be named as a selling stockholder in the related prospectus, deliver a prospectus to purchasers of such Debentures and/or Common Stock issued upon conversion thereof and be bound by certain provisions of the Registration Rights Agreement that are applicable to such holder (including certain indemnification provisions). The Company will pay all expenses of the Shelf Registration Statement, provide to each registered holder copies of such prospectus, notify each registered holder when the Shelf Registration Statement has become effective and take certain other actions as are required to permit, subject to the foregoing, unrestricted resales of the Debentures and the Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Debentures. The plan of distribution of the Shelf Registration Statement will permit resales of Registrable Securities by selling security holders through brokers and dealers.

Attached to this Offering Memorandum as Appendix B is a notice and questionnaire (the "Questionnaire") to be completed and delivered by a holder to the Company at least three business days prior to any intended distribution of Registrable Securities pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement. Holders are required to complete and deliver the Questionnaire prior to the effectiveness of the Shelf Registration Statement so that such holders may be named as selling stockholders in the related prospectus at the time of effectiveness. Upon receipt of such a completed Questionnaire, together with such other information as may be reasonably requested by the Company, from a holder following the effectiveness of the Shelf Registration Statement, the Company will, as promptly as practicable but in any event within five business days of such receipt, file such amendments to the Shelf Registration Statement or supplements to the related prospectus as are necessary to permit such holder to deliver such prospectus to purchasers of Registrable Securities (subject to the Company's right to suspend the use of the prospectus as described above). The Company has agreed to pay Liquidated Damages in the amount set forth above to such holder if the Company fails to make such filing in the time required or, if such filing is a post-effective amendment to the Shelf Registration Statement required to be declared effective under the Securities Act, if such amendment is not declared effective within 45 days of the filing thereof. Any holder that does not complete and deliver a Questionnaire or provide such other information will not be named as a selling stockholder in the prospectus and therefore will not be permitted to sell any Registrable Securities pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

The Company's authorized capital stock consists of 200,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $.01 per share.

Common Stock

As of February 27, 1998, there were 86,457,201 shares of Common Stock outstanding. Each share of Common Stock has one vote on all matters upon which stockholders are entitled or permitted to vote, including the election of directors. There are no cumulative voting rights. Shares of Common Stock would participate ratably in any distribution of assets in a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, subject to prior distribution rights of any shares of preferred stock then outstanding. The Common Stock has no preemptive rights or conversion rights nor are there any redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the Common Stock. Holders of Common Stock are entitled to participate in dividends as and when declared by the Company's Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor. The Company's ability to pay cash dividends is subject to certain restrictions. The Company expects that the New Credit Facility will contain limitations on the ability of the Company to pay dividends. The Company's Proxy Statement for its next annual meeting which is scheduled for May 13, 1998, includes an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation increasing the total number of authorized shares of Common Stock to 500,000,000 shares from 200,000,000 shares.

The transfer agent and registrar for the Common Stock is The Bank of New York.

Preferred Stock

There are no shares of preferred stock currently outstanding. The Certificate of Incorporation provides that the Board of Directors of the Company may authorize the issuance of one or more series of preferred stock having such rights, including voting, conversion and redemption rights, and such preferences, including dividend and liquidation preferences, as the Board may determine without any further action by the stockholders of the Company.

Delaware General Corporation Law Section 203

Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") prohibits certain transactions between a Delaware corporation and an "interested stockholder," which is defined as a person who, together with any affiliate and/or associates of such person, beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, 15% or more of the outstanding voting shares of a Delaware corporation. This provision prohibits certain business combinations (defined broadly to include mergers, consolidations, sales or other dispositions of assets having an aggregate value in excess of 10% of the consolidated assets of the corporation or the aggregate value of all of the outstanding capital stock of the corporation, and certain transactions that would increase the interested stockholder's proportionate share ownership in the corporation) between an interested stockholder and a corporation for a period of three years after the date the interested stockholder acquired its stock, unless (i) the business combination is approved by the corporation's board of directors prior to the date the interested stockholder acquired shares, (ii) the interested stockholder acquired at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation in the transaction in which it became an interested stockholder or (iii) the business combination is approved by a majority of the board of directors and by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by disinterested stockholders at an annual or special meeting. Any future election to opt out of Section 203 can be effected only by an amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws. Any such election would not be effective until 12 months after the adoption of such amendment and would not apply to a business combination with any interested stockholder who became such on or prior to the date of adoption.

CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Debentures and Common Stock to a holder of a Debenture or Common Stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i) a citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation, partnership or other entity created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof, (iii) an estate, the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source, or (iv) a trust, the administration of which is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and which has one or more United States persons with authority to control all substantial decisions. This summary is based on laws, regulations, rulings and decisions now in effect, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. There can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") will not challenge one or more of the tax consequences described herein, and the Company has not obtained, nor does it intend to obtain, a ruling from the IRS or an opinion of counsel as to any U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to the Debentures.

This summary deals only with holders of Debentures who purchase the Debentures pursuant to the Offering and hold the Debentures and any Common Stock into which the Debentures are converted as capital assets. This summary does not address tax considerations applicable to investors that may be subject to special tax rules (including, without limitation, banks, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, regulated investment companies, common trust funds, dealers in securities, or persons who hold Debentures or Common Stock as part of a hedge conversion or constructive sale transaction, straddle or other risk reduction transaction). This discussion also does not address the tax consequences arising under the laws of any foreign, state or local jurisdiction.

INVESTORS CONSIDERING THE PURCHASE OF A DEBENTURE SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF ACQUIRING, HOLDING, CONVERTING OR OTHERWISE DISPOSING OF THE DEBENTURES AND COMMON STOCK, INCLUDING THE EFFECT AND THE APPLICABILITY OF STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAX LAWS.

Original Issue Discount on the Debentures. The Debentures are being issued at a substantial discount from their stated redemption price at maturity. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the excess of the stated redemption price at maturity of each Debenture over its issue price (which is expected to be the Issue Price) constitutes Original Issue Discount ("OID"). The issue price of the Debentures will equal the initial price at which a substantial amount of the Debentures is sold for cash (other than to bond houses, brokers or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers), and the stated redemption price at maturity of a Debenture will be the sum of all payments due under the Debenture (which is expected to be the principal amount at maturity).

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, each holder of a Debenture must include in gross income a portion of the OID in each taxable year during which the Debenture is held in an amount equal to the OID that accrues on the Debenture during such period, determined by using a constant yield to maturity method. The OID included in income for each year will be calculated under a compounding formula that will result in the allocation of less OID to the earlier years of the term of the Debenture and more OID to later years. For the approximate cumulative total amount of OID accrued annually, see the chart under "Description of Debentures—Redemption of Debentures at the Option of the Company." Any amount included in income as OID will increase a holder's tax basis in the Debenture.

Sale, Exchange or Retirement of the Debentures. A holder's tax basis for determining gain or loss on the sale or other disposition of a Debenture will generally equal the holder's cost of the Debenture increased by any accrued OID includible in such holder's gross income and reduced by payments, if any. Except as described in the next paragraph, upon the sale, exchange or retirement of a Debenture, a holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on the sale or other disposition of the Debenture and the holder's tax basis in such Debenture. Gain or loss realized on the sale, exchange or retirement of a Debenture will generally be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Debenture is held for more than one year.

If a holder elects to exercise its option to cause the Company to purchase its Debentures on a Purchase Date and the Company issues Common Stock in satisfaction of all of the Purchase Price, the exchange of the Debentures for Common Stock should generally not be a taxable event (except with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share). A holder's tax basis in the Common Stock received in such exchange of a Debenture should be the same as the holder's tax basis in the Debenture at the time of the conversion (except for any tax basis allocable to a fractional share) and the holding period for the Common Stock received in such exchange should include the holding period of the Debenture exchanged. If the Purchase Price is paid with a combination of Common Stock and cash, gain (but not loss) realized by the holder should be recognized, but only to the extent of the cash received (including cash received in lieu of a fractional share). A holder's tax basis in the Common Stock received should be the same as such holder's tax basis in the Debenture at the time of the conversion (except for any portion allocable to a fractional share of Common Stock), increased by the amount of gain recognized (other than with respect to a fractional share) and decreased by the amount of any cash received (except cash received in lieu of a fractional share). The holding period for Common Stock received in the exchange should include the holding period of the Debenture tendered to the Company in exchange therefor. The receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Common Stock should generally result in capital gain or loss, measured by the difference between the amount of cash received for the fractional share and the holder's tax basis in the fractional share interest.

Conversion of Debentures. A holder's conversion of a Debenture into Common Stock will generally not be a taxable event (except with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share). A tax basis in the Common Stock received on conversion of a Debenture will be the same as the holder's tax basis in the Debenture at the time of conversion (except for any tax basis allocable to a fractional share) and the holding period for the Common Stock received on conversion will include the holding period of the Debenture converted, except that it is possible that the Internal Revenue Service may argue that the holding period of the Common Stock allocable to OID will commence on the date of the conversion and a holder would be required to hold such Common Stock for more than twelve months before long-term capital gain (or loss) treatment could be obtained upon a sale of such Common Stock. The receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Common Stock should generally result in capital gain or loss, measured by the difference between the cash received for the fractional share interest and the holder's tax basis in the fractional share interest.

Dividends; Adjustment of Conversion Price. Dividends, if any, paid on the Common Stock generally will be includible in the income of a holder as ordinary income to the extent of the Company's current or accumulated earnings and profits.

If at any time the Company makes a distribution of property to shareholders that would be taxable to such shareholders as a dividend for federal income tax purposes (for example, distributions of evidences of indebtedness or assets of the Company, but generally not stock dividends or rights to subscribe for Common Stock) and, pursuant to the anti-dilution provisions of the Indenture, the Conversion Rate of the Debentures is increased, such increase may be deemed to be the payment of a taxable dividend to holders of Debentures. If the Conversion Rate is increased at the discretion of the Company or in certain other circumstances, such increase may also be deemed to be the payment of a taxable dividend to holders of Debentures. Moreover, in certain other circumstances, the absence of such an adjustment to the Conversion Rate of the Debentures may result in a taxable dividend to holders of the Common Stock.

Sale of Common Stock. Upon the sale or exchange of Common Stock, holders generally will recognize capital gain or capital loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on such sale or exchange and the holder's adjusted tax basis in such shares.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Under the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement between the Company and Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated (the "Initial Purchaser") dated March 19, 1998 (the "Purchase Agreement"), the Initial Purchaser has agreed to purchase, and the Company has agreed to sell to the Initial Purchaser, $2,014,000,000, aggregate principal amount at maturity of Debentures at a purchase price of 37.243% of the principal amount at maturity thereof. After the initial offering of the Debentures, the offering price and other selling terms may from time to time be varied by the Initial Purchaser.

The Purchase Agreement provides that the obligation of the Initial Purchaser to pay for and accept delivery of the Debentures is subject to approval of certain legal matters by its counsel and to certain other conditions. The Initial Purchaser is obligated to take and pay for all of the Debentures offered hereby if any are taken (other than the Debentures covered by the over-allotment option described below).

The Company has granted to the Initial Purchaser an option, exercisable within 30 days of the date of the Purchase Agreement, to purchase up to an additional $302,100,000 aggregate principal amount at maturity of the Debentures solely for the purpose of covering over-allotments, if any.

The Purchase Agreement provides that the Company will indemnify the Initial Purchaser against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

The Company has been advised by the Initial Purchaser that the Initial Purchaser proposes to resell the Debentures initially at the price set forth on the cover page hereof to "qualified institutional buyers" (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act and to a limited number of other institutional "accredited investors" within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act, that agree in writing to comply with the transfer restrictions and other conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement. See "Transfer Restrictions."

The Debentures and the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except as described in the immediately preceding paragraph.

The Debentures are eligible for trading in The Portal Market. The Initial Purchaser has advised the Company that it presently intends to make a market in the Debentures as permitted by applicable laws and regulations. The Initial Purchaser is not obligated, however, to make a market in the Debentures and any such market making may be discontinued at any time at the sole discretion of the Initial Purchaser. Accordingly, no assurance can be given as to the liquidity of, or trading markets for, the Debentures.

The Company and the directors and current executive officers referred to under "Security Ownership of Management" will agree that they will not (a) offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, lend, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Common Stock, or (b) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of the Common Stock, whether any such transaction described in clause (a) or (b) above is to be settled by delivery of Common Stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise, for a 90-day period after the date of this Offering Memorandum, without the prior written consent of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated, other than (i) the Debentures offered hereby, (ii) the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures, (iii) securities of the Company (and the agreement to provide such securities) as full or partial consideration in connection with any future acquisitions or strategic investments by the Company or securities of the Company issuable upon exercise or conversion of the foregoing securities; provided that the market value of such securities does not exceed $500 million in the aggregate, (iv) options granted or stock issued upon the exercise of outstanding stock options or otherwise pursuant to the Company's stock option or employee stock purchase plans or other executive compensation arrangements existing at the date of this Offering Memorandum and (v) in connection with the acquisition of CLN Holdings and Coleman.

In order to facilitate the offering of the Debentures and the Common Stock, the Initial Purchaser may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the Debentures or the Common Stock.

Specifically, the Initial Purchaser may over-allot in connection with the offering, creating a short position in the Debentures for its own account. In addition, to cover over-allotments or stabilize the price of the Debentures and the Common Stock, the Initial Purchaser may bid for, and purchase, the Debentures or shares of the Common Stock in the open market. Finally, the Initial Purchaser may reclaim selling concessions allowed to dealers for distributing the Debentures in the offering, if the Initial Purchaser repurchases previously distributed Debentures in transactions to cover short positions established by the Initial Purchaser, in stabilization transactions or otherwise. Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the market price of the Debentures or the Common Stock above independent market levels. The Initial Purchaser is not required to engage in these activities, and may discontinue any of these activities at any time.

The Initial Purchaser has performed various investment banking and other services for the Company in the past, and may do so from time to time in the future. In particular, the Initial Purchaser is acting as the Company's financial advisor in connection with the Acquisitions. In addition, an affiliate of the Initial Purchaser is arranging the New Credit Facility and expects to be a lender thereunder.

TRANSFER RESTRICTIONS

The Debentures and the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures have not been registered under the Securities Act. The Debentures and Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons, except (i) in compliance with the registration requirements of the Securities Act and all other applicable securities laws, or (ii) pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws. Accordingly, the Debentures are being offered and sold only (1) to "qualified institutional buyers" (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) ("QIBs") in compliance with Rule 144A and (2) to a limited number of other institutional "accredited investors" (as defined in Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act) ("Institutional Accredited Investors") that, prior to their purchases of Debentures, deliver to the Initial Purchaser a letter attached hereto as Appendix A, which contains certain representations and agreements.

Each purchaser of Debentures will be deemed to (1) represent that it is purchasing the Debentures for its own account or an account with respect to which it exercises sole investment discretion, and that it or such account is a QIB, or an institutional accredited investor, (2) acknowledge that the Debentures and the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures have not been registered under the Securities Act, and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except as set forth below, (3) agree that if it should resell or otherwise transfer the Debentures or the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Debentures within the period prior to the expiration of the holding period applicable to sales thereof under Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act (or any successor provision), it will do so within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons only (a) to the Company or any subsidiary thereof, (b) to a QIB in compliance with Rule 144A, (c) to an institutional accredited investor that, prior to such transfer, furnishes to the Trustee, as registrar for the Debentures (or in the case of the Common Stock, the transfer agent for the Common Stock (the "Transfer Agent")), a signed letter containing certain representations and agreements relating to the restrictions on transfer of the Debentures (or the Common Stock, as the case may be) (the form of which letter can be obtained from the Trustee for the Debentures or the Transfer Agent for the Common Stock), (d) pursuant to an exemption from registration provided by Rule 144 under the Securities Act (if available) or (e) pursuant to a registration statement which has been declared effective under the Securities Act (and which continues to be effective at the time of such transfer), and (4) agree that it will give each person to whom it transfers such Debentures or Common Stock issuable on conversion of the Debentures notice of any restrictions on transfer of such Debentures and such Common Stock. Each institutional accredited investor (other than a QIB) that is an original purchaser of the Debentures will be required to sign an agreement to the foregoing effect in the form attached hereto as Appendix A. In the case of any certificated Debentures, prior to any proposed transfer of Debentures within the period prior to the expiration of the holding period applicable to sales thereof under Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act (or any successor provision), the holders thereof must check the appropriate box set forth on the certificate representing the Debentures relating to the manner of such transfer and submit the certificate representing the Debentures to the Trustee. If (i) such transfer is to an institutional accredited investor or (ii) any holder proposes to transfer Common Stock issued upon conversion of Debentures in either case prior to the expiration of the holding period applicable to sales thereof under Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act (or any successor provision), the holder (or beneficial holder, as the case may be) will be required to furnish to the Trustee (or, in the case of the Common Stock, the Transfer Agent) such certifications, legal opinions or other information as it may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed transfer is being made pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Each certificate representing a Debenture will bear the following legend (unless such Debenture has been sold pursuant to a registration statement that has been declared effective under the Securities Act):

THE DEBENTURE EVIDENCED HEREBY HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), OR ANY STATE SECURITIES LAWS, AND, ACCORDINGLY, MAY NOT BE OFFERED OR SOLD WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OR BENEFIT OF, U.S. PERSONS EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN THE FOLLOWING SENTENCE. BY ITS ACQUISITION HEREOF, THE HOLDER (I) REPRESENTS THAT (A) IT IS A "QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER" (AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) OR (B) IT IS AN INSTITUTIONAL "ACCREDITED INVESTOR" (AS DEFINED IN RULE 501(a)(1), (2), (3) OR (7) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) ("INSTITUTIONAL ACCREDITED INVESTOR"); (2) AGREES THAT IT WILL NOT, PRIOR TO EXPIRATION OF THE HOLDING PERIOD APPLICABLE TO SALES OF THE DEBENTURE EVIDENCED HEREBY UNDER RULE 144(k) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (OR ANY SUCCESSOR PROVISION), RESELL OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER THE DEBENTURE EVIDENCED HEREBY OR THE COMMON STOCK ISSUABLE UPON CONVERSION OF SUCH DEBENTURES WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF, U.S. PERSONS EXCEPT (A) TO SUNBEAM CORPORATION OR ANY SUBSIDIARY THEREOF, (B) TO A QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, (C) TO AN INSTITUTIONAL ACCREDITED INVESTOR THAT, PRIOR TO SUCH TRANSFER, FURNISHES TO THE BANK OF NEW YORK, AS TRUSTEE (OR A SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE, AS APPLICABLE), A SIGNED LETTER CONTAINING CERTAIN REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER OF THE DEBENTURE EVIDENCED HEREBY (THE FORM OF WHICH LETTER CAN BE OBTAINED FROM SUCH TRUSTEE OR A SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE, AS APPLICABLE), (D) PURSUANT TO THE EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION PROVIDED BY RULE 144 UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (IF AVAILABLE) OR (E) PURSUANT TO A REGISTRATION STATEMENT WHICH HAS BEEN DECLARED EFFECTIVE UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (AND WHICH CONTINUES TO BE EFFECTIVE AT THE TIME OF SUCH TRANSFER); (3) PRIOR TO SUCH TRANSFER (OTHER THAN A TRANSFER PURSUANT TO CLAUSE 2(E) ABOVE), IT WILL FURNISH TO THE BANK OF NEW YORK, AS TRUSTEE (OR A SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE, AS APPLICABLE), SUCH CERTIFICATIONS, LEGAL OPINIONS OR OTHER INFORMATION AS THE TRUSTEE MAY REASONABLY REQUIRE TO CONFIRM THAT SUCH TRANSFER IS BEING MADE PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM, OR IN A TRANSACTION NOT SUBJECT TO, THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT AND (4) AGREES THAT IT WILL DELIVER TO EACH PERSON TO WHOM THE DEBENTURES EVIDENCED HEREBY ARE TRANSFERRED A NOTICE SUBSTANTIALLY TO THE EFFECT OF THIS LEGEND. IN CONNECTION WITH ANY TRANSFER OF THE DEBENTURE EVIDENCED HEREBY PRIOR TO THE EXPIRATION OF THE HOLDING PERIOD APPLICABLE TO SALES OF THE DEBENTURE EVIDENCED HEREBY UNDER RULE 144(k) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (OR ANY SUCCESSOR PROVISION), THE HOLDER MUST CHECK THE APPROPRIATE BOX SET FORTH ON THE REVERSE HEREOF RELATING TO THE MANNER OF SUCH TRANSFER AND SUBMIT THIS CERTIFICATE TO THE BANK OF NEW YORK, AS TRUSTEE (OR A SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE, AS APPLICABLE). IF THE PROPOSED TRANSFEREE IS AN INSTITUTIONAL ACCREDITED INVESTOR OR IS A PURCHASER WHO IS NOT A U.S. PERSON, THE HOLDER MUST, PRIOR TO SUCH TRANSFER, FURNISH TO THE BANK OF NEW YORK, AS TRUSTEE (OR A SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE, AS APPLICABLE), SUCH CERTIFICATIONS, LEGAL OPINIONS OR OTHER INFORMATION AS IT MAY REASONABLY REQUIRE TO CONFIRM THAT SUCH TRANSFER IS BEING MADE PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM, OR IN A TRANSACTION NOT SUBJECT TO, THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT. THIS LEGEND WILL BE REMOVED UPON THE EARLIER OF THE TRANSFER OF THE DEBENTURE

EVIDENCED HEREBY PURSUANT TO CLAUSE 2(E) ABOVE OR UPON ANY TRANSFER OF THE DEBENTURE EVIDENCED HEREBY UNDER RULE 144(K) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (OR ANY SUCCESSOR PROVISION). AS USED HEREIN, THE TERMS "UNITED STATES" AND "UNITED STATES PERSON" HAVE THE MEANINGS GIVEN TO THEM BY REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT.

Each stock certificate representing Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Debenture will bear the following legend (unless such Common Stock has been sold pursuant to a registration statement that has been declared effective under the Securities Act):

THE COMMON STOCK EVIDENCED HEREBY HAS NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), OR ANY STATE SECURITIES LAWS, AND, ACCORDINGLY, MAY NOT BE OFFERED OR SOLD WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OR BENEFIT OF, U.S. PERSONS EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN THE FOLLOWING SENTENCE. THE HOLDER HEREOF AGREES THAT UNTIL THE EXPIRATION OF THE HOLDING PERIOD APPLICABLE TO SALES OF THE SECURITY EVIDENCED HEREBY UNDER RULE 144(K) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (OR ANY SUCCESSOR PROVISION), (1) IT WILL NOT RESELL OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER THE COMMON STOCK EVIDENCED HEREBY WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OF, U.S. PERSONS EXCEPT (A) TO SUNBEAM CORPORATION OR ANY SUBSIDIARY THEREOF, (B) TO A "QUALIFIED INSTITUTIONAL BUYER" (AS DEFINED IN RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 144A, (C) TO AN INSTITUTIONAL "ACCREDITED INVESTOR" (AS DEFINED IN RULE 501(a)(1), (2), (3) OR (7) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) THAT PRIOR TO SUCH TRANSFER, FURNISHES TO THE BANK OF NEW YORK AS TRANSFER AGENT (OR A SUCCESSOR TRANSFER AGENT, AS APPLICABLE), A SIGNED LETTER CONTAINING CERTAIN REPRESENTATIONS AND AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER OF THE COMMON STOCK EVIDENCED HEREBY (THE FORM OF WHICH LETTER CAN BE OBTAINED FROM SUCH TRANSFER AGENT OR A SUCCESSOR TRANSFER AGENT, AS APPLICABLE), (D) PURSUANT TO THE EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION PROVIDED BY RULE 144 UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (IF AVAILABLE), OR (E) PURSUANT TO A REGISTRATION STATEMENT WHICH HAS BEEN DECLARED EFFECTIVE UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (AND WHICH CONTINUES TO BE EFFECTIVE AT THE TIME OF SUCH TRANSFER); (2) PRIOR TO SUCH TRANSFER (OTHER THAN A TRANSFER PURSUANT TO CLAUSE 1(E) ABOVE), IT WILL FURNISH TO THE BANK OF NEW YORK AS TRANSFER AGENT (OR A SUCCESSOR TRANSFER AGENT, AS APPLICABLE), SUCH CERTIFICATIONS, LEGAL OPINIONS OR OTHER INFORMATION AS THE TRANSFER AGENT MAY REASONABLY REQUIRE TO CONFIRM THAT SUCH TRANSFER IS BEING MADE PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM, OR IN A TRANSACTION NOT SUBJECT TO, THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT AND (3) IT WILL DELIVER TO EACH PERSON TO WHOM THE COMMON STOCK EVIDENCED HEREBY IS TRANSFERRED (OTHER THAN A TRANSFER PURSUANT TO CLAUSE 1(E) ABOVE) A NOTICE SUBSTANTIALLY TO THE EFFECT OF THIS LEGEND. THIS LEGEND WILL BE REMOVED UPON THE EARLIER OF THE TRANSFER OF THE COMMON STOCK EVIDENCED HEREBY PURSUANT TO CLAUSE 1(E) ABOVE OR UPON ANY TRANSFER OF THE COMMON STOCK EVIDENCED HEREBY AFTER THE EXPIRATION OF THE HOLDING PERIOD APPLICABLE TO SALES OF THE SECURITY EVIDENCED HEREBY UNDER RULE 144(K) UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (OR ANY SUCCESSOR PROVISION). AS USED HEREIN, THE TERMS "UNITED STATES" AND "UNITED STATES PERSON" HAVE THE MEANING GIVEN TO THEM BY REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of
Sunbeam Corporation:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Sunbeam Corporation (a Delaware corporation) and subsidiaries as of December 29, 1996 and December 28, 1997 and the related consolidated statements of operations, shareholders' equity and cash flows for each of the three fiscal years in the period ended December 28, 1997. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Sunbeam Corporation and subsidiaries as of December 29, 1996 and December 28, 1997, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three fiscal years in the period ended December 28, 1997 in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

1. Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

Sunbeam Corporation ("Sunbeam" or the "Company") is a leading manufacturer and marketer of branded consumer products. The Sunbeam® and Oster® brands have been household names for generations, and the Company is a market share leader in many of its product categories.

The Company markets its products through virtually every category of retailer including mass merchandisers, catalog showrooms, warehouse clubs, department stores, catalogs, television shopping channels, Company-owned outlet stores, hardware stores, home centers, drug and grocery stores, pet supply retailers, as well as independent distributors and the military. The Company also sells its products to commercial end users such as hotels and other institutions.

Approximately 79% of total Company sales are generated in the United States. The remaining sales are generated primarily in Latin America, Mexico, Canada, Europe and Asia.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and all majority-owned subsidiaries that it controls. All material intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Presentation of Fiscal Periods

The Company's fiscal year ends on the Sunday nearest December 31. Fiscal years 1997, 1996 and 1995 ended on December 28, 1997, December 29, 1996, and December 31, 1995 respectively, which encompassed 52-week periods.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant accounting estimates include the establishment of the allowance for doubtful accounts, reserves for product warranty, product liability, excess and obsolete inventory, litigation and environmental exposures.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Substantially all of the Company's trade receivables are due from retailers and distributors located throughout the United States, Latin America and Canada. Approximately 36% of the Company's sales in 1997 were to its five largest customers. The Company establishes its credit policies based on an ongoing evaluation of its customers' creditworthiness and competitive market conditions and establishes its allowance for doubtful accounts based on an assessment of exposures to credit losses at each balance sheet date. The Company believes its allowance for doubtful accounts is sufficient based on the credit exposures outstanding at December 28, 1997. However, certain retailers filed for bankruptcy protection in the last several years and it is possible that additional credit losses could be incurred if the trends of retail consolidation continue.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market with cost being determined principally by the first-in, first-out method.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost. The Company provides for depreciation using primarily the straight-line method in amounts that allocate the cost of property, plant and equipment over the following useful lives:

Buildings and improvements	20 to 40 years
Machinery, equipment and tooling	3 to 15 years
Furniture and fixtures	3 to 10 years

Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life or the term of the lease.

Long-lived Assets

The Company accounts for long-lived assets pursuant to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 121, Accounting for the Impairment of Long-lived Assets and for Long-lived Assets to Be Disposed Of. See Notes 8 and 9 for a discussion of asset impairment charges in 1996.

Capitalized Interest

Interest costs for the construction of certain long-term assets are capitalized and amortized over the related assets' estimated useful lives. Total interest costs during 1997 and 1996 amounted to $12.3 million and $14.0 million respectively, of which $.9 million and $.4 million respectively, was capitalized into the construction cost of the long-term assets.

Amortization Periods

Trademarks and trade names are being amortized on a straight-line basis over 40 years.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues from product sales principally at the time of shipment to customers. In limited circumstances, at the customers request the Company may sell seasonal product on a bill and hold basis provided that the goods are completed, packaged and ready for shipment, such goods are segregated and the risks of ownership and legal title have passed to the customer. The amount of such bill and hold sales at December 29, 1997 was approximately 3% of consolidated revenues.

Net sales is comprised of gross sales less provisions for expected customer returns, discounts, promotional allowances and cooperative advertising.

Warranty Costs

The Company provides for warranty costs in amounts it estimates will be needed to cover future warranty obligations for products sold during the year. Estimates of warranty costs are periodically reviewed and adjusted, when necessary, to consider actual experience.

Advertising Costs

Media advertising costs included in "Selling, General and Administrative Expense," are expensed as incurred. Co-operative advertising costs are expensed ratably over the year in relation to revenues.

Foreign Currency Translation

The assets and liabilities of subsidiaries, other than those operating in highly inflationary environments, are translated into U.S. dollars at year-end exchange rates, with resulting translation gains and losses accumulated in a separate component of shareholders' equity. Income and expense items are converted into U.S. dollars at average rates of exchange prevailing during the year.

For subsidiaries operating in highly inflationary environments, (Venezuela and Mexico) inventories and property, plant and equipment are translated at the rate of exchange on the date the assets were acquired, while other assets and liabilities are translated at year-end exchange rates. Translation adjustments for those operations are included in "Other (income) expense, net" on the Accompanying Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Stock-Based Compensation Plans

SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation allows either adoption of a fair value method for accounting for stock-based compensation plans or continuation of accounting under Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations with supplemental disclosures.

The Company has chosen to account for its stock options using the intrinsic value based method prescribed in APB Opinion No. 25 and, accordingly, does not recognize compensation expense for stock option grants made at an exercise price equal to or in excess of the fair market value of the stock at the date of grant. Pro forma net income and earnings per share amounts as if the fair value method had been adopted are presented in Note 5 herein. SFAS No. 123 does not impact the Company's results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

Earnings Per Share of Common Stock

In 1997, the Company adopted SFAS No. 128, Earnings Per Share. Basic earnings per common share calculations are determined by dividing earnings available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock. Diluted earnings per share are determined by dividing earnings available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock and dilutive common stock equivalents outstanding (all related to outstanding stock options and restricted stock discussed in Note 5). The Company's reported primary earnings per share for 1995 has been restated to comply with the requirements of SFAS No. 128. SFAS No. 128 had no impact on the Company's reported loss per share for 1996 and no impact on the diluted earnings per share reported in 1995. The effect of this accounting change on previously reported earnings per share (EPS) for 1995 was as follows:

Earnings per share from continuing operations
Primary EPS as reported	$0.45
Effect of SFAS No. 128	0.01
Basic EPS as restated	0.46
Earnings per share
Primary EPS as reported	$0.61

Reclassification

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with the 1997 presentation.

New Accounting Standards

In June 1997, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued SFAS No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income. SFAS No. 130 establishes standards for reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components in the financial statements. SFAS No. 130 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1997. Reclassification of financial statements for earlier periods provided for comparative purposes is required. The Company is in the process of determining its preferred format. The adoption of SFAS No. 130 will have no impact on the Company's consolidated results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

In June 1997, the FASB issued SFAS No. 131, Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information. SFAS No. 131 establishes standards for the way that public business enterprises report information about operating segments in annual financial statements and requires that those enterprises report selected information about operating segments in interim financial reports issued to shareholders. It also establishes standards for related disclosures about products and services, geographic areas, and major customers. SFAS No. 131 is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1997. Financial statement disclosures for prior periods are required to be restated. The Company is in the process of evaluating the disclosure requirements. The adoption of SFAS No. 131 will have no impact on consolidated results of operations, financial position or cash flow.

2. Shareholders' Equity

The Company has 200,000,000 shares of $.01 par value common stock authorized. At December 28, 1997 there were 9,404,068 shares of common stock reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding stock options.

In June 1995, the Company retired 7,376,395 shares of common stock held in treasury, and such shares were returned to the status of authorized but unissued shares. As a result, $103.7 million assigned to treasury stock has been eliminated with a corresponding decrease to common stock, paid-in capital and retained earnings. In 1995, the Company repurchased 905,600 shares of its common stock at a total cost of $13.1 million.

In July 1996, the Company sold 321,786 shares of common stock for total proceeds of approximately $4.4 million, and granted 1,100,000 shares of restricted stock in connection with the employment of a new Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and certain other officers of the Company. Compensation expense attributable to the restricted stock awards is being amortized to expense beginning in 1996 over the periods in which the restrictions lapse (which in the case of 333,333 shares, was immediately upon the date of grant, in the case of 666,667 shares, is equally over two years from the date of grant and in the case of the remaining restricted shares, is equally over three years from the dates of grant).

On February 20, 1998 the Company entered into new three-year employment agreements with its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and two other senior officers of the Company. These agreements replaced previous employment agreements entered into in July 1996 that were scheduled to expire in July 1999. Refer to Note 14 for additional information regarding the new employment contracts, including the acceleration of vesting of restricted stock grants discussed above.

3. Credit Facilities and Long-Term Debt

In 1994, the Mississippi Business Finance Corporation ("MBFC") issued $75 million of 7.85% Industrial Development Revenue Notes (the "Notes") maturing serially in eleven equal annual installments beginning June 1999 to certain institutional investors through a private placement. The MBFC loaned the proceeds of the Notes to a subsidiary of the Company under a non-recourse loan agreement (the "Hattiesburg Loan") restricting the use of such funds to the acquisition, design, construction and equipping of the Hattiesburg, Mississippi manufacturing and distribution center. The Notes are guaranteed by the Company and the Hattiesburg Loan is secured by the Hattiesburg facility.

In September 1996 (as subsequently amended), the Company entered into a $500 million syndicated unsecured five year revolving credit facility (the "Credit Agreement") which replaced a previous credit facility of $500 million. In July 1997, the Company reduced the amount of available borrowings under the facility to $250 million. Under the Credit Agreement, the Company can borrow under a competitive bid option, or at a spread above LIBOR (currently .5%) or at a bank base rate. In addition, the Company pays an annual facility fee (currently .25%). The Credit Agreement contains certain financial covenants.

During 1997, the Company repaid $12.2 million of long-term borrowings related to the divested furniture operations and other assets sold.

The aggregate annual principal payments on long-term debt, excluding amounts outstanding under the Credit Agreement, due in each of the years 1998-2002, are $5.7 million, $7.5 million, $7.6 million, $7.6 million and $7.7 million, respectively.

3. Credit Facilities and Long-Term Debt—(Continued)

Long-term debt at the end of each fiscal year consists of the following (in thousands):

	1997	1996
Revolving credit facility, weighted average interest rate of 5.99% and 5.60% for 1997, and for 1996, respectively	$110,000	$105,000
Hattiesburg industrial revenue bond due 2009, fixed interest rate of 7.85%	75,000	75,000
Other long-term borrowings, due through 2012, weighted average interest rate of 3.92% and 4.95%, at December 28, 1997 and December 29, 1996, respectively	10,248	22,036
	$195,248	$202,036

In December 1997, the Company entered into a revolving trade accounts receivable securitization program to sell without recourse, through a wholly-owned subsidiary, certain trade accounts receivable. The maximum amount of receivables that can be sold through this program is $70 million. At December 28, 1997, the Company had received approximately $59 million from the sale of trade accounts receivable. The proceeds from the sale were used to reduce borrowings under the Company's revolving credit facility. Costs of the program, which primarily consist of the purchaser's financing cost of issuing commercial paper backed by the receivables, totaled $2 million during 1997, and have been classified as interest expense in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company, as agent for the purchaser of the receivables, retains collection and administrative responsibilities for the purchased receivables.

4. Financial Instruments

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments as of December 28, 1997 approximate market values based upon the following methods and assumptions:

Cash and Cash Equivalents—The carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents is assumed to approximate fair value as cash equivalents include all highly liquid, short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less.

Short and Long Term Debt—The carrying value of the Company's various debt outstanding as of December 28, 1997 approximates market. The fair value of the Company's fixed rate debt is estimated using discounted cash flow analysis, based upon the market yield of public debt securities of comparable credit quality and maturity. The carrying value of the Company's variable rate debt is assumed to approximate market based upon periodic adjustments of the interest rate to the current market rate in accordance with the terms of the debt agreements.

Letters of Credit—The Company utilizes stand-by letters of credit to back certain financing instruments and insurance policies and commercial letters of credit guaranteeing various international trade activities. The contract amounts of the letters of credit approximate their fair value.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company selectively uses derivatives to manage interest rate and foreign exchange exposures that arise in the normal course of business. The use of derivatives did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations in 1997, 1996 and 1995. No derivatives are entered into for trading or speculative purposes. Foreign exchange option and forward contracts are used to hedge a portion of the Company's underlying exposures denominated in foreign currency. Although the market value of derivative contracts at any single point in time will vary with changes in interest and/or foreign exchange rates, the difference between the carrying value and fair value of such contracts at December 29, 1996 and December 31, 1995 is not considered to be material, either individually or in the aggregate. The Company had no derivative financial instruments outstanding at December 28, 1997. The Company enters into derivative contracts with counterparties that it believes to be creditworthy. The Company does not enter into any leveraged derivative transactions.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

4. Financial Instruments—(Continued)

As of December 28, 1996, $10.0 million of the Company's outstanding floating rate debt was subject to interest rate swap agreements.

In order to mitigate the transaction exposures that may arise from changes in foreign exchange rates, the Company purchases foreign currency option contracts to hedge anticipated transactions. The option contracts typically expire within one year. Any realized gains on options are not deferred but are recognized in income in the period when the hedged exposure is recognized. The Company purchased options with a notional value of $16.6 million in 1997, $18.2 million in 1996 and $11.7 million in 1995. Options with notional value of $17.9 million, $25.4 million and $3.2 million expired in 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively. The Company held purchased option contracts with a notional value of $1.4 million at December 29, 1996.

5. Employee Stock Options and Awards

The Company has one stock-based compensation plan, the Amended and Restated Sunbeam Corporation Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"). Under the Plan, all employees are eligible for grants of options to purchase up to an aggregate of 11,300,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price equal to or in excess of the fair market value of the stock on the date of grant. The term of each option commences on the date of grant and expires on the tenth anniversary of the date of grant. Options generally become exercisable over a three to five year period.

The Plan also provides for the grant of restricted stock awards of up to 200,000 shares, in the aggregate, to employees and non-employee directors. See Note 2 for a discussion of restricted stock awards made outside the Plan.

In July 1996, options to purchase an aggregate of 3,000,000 shares (of which 2,750,000 options were outstanding at December 28, 1997) were granted outside of the Plan at exercise prices equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant in connection with the employment of a new Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and certain other executive officers of the Company. These outstanding options have terms of ten years and, with respect to options for 2,500,000 shares, are exercisable in three annual installments beginning July 17, 1996. Options for the remaining 250,000 shares still outstanding are exercisable in three annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the July 22, 1996 grant date. On February 20, 1998 the vesting provisions of the options granted outside the plan were accelerated as further described in Note 14.

The Company applies APB Opinion No. 25 and related interpretations in accounting for its stock options. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for outstanding stock options. Had compensation cost for the Company's outstanding stock options been determined based on the fair value at the grant dates for those options consistent with SFAS No. 123, the Company's net earnings (loss) and diluted earnings (loss) per share would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts indicated below (in thousands except per share amounts):

6. Employee Benefit Plans

Retirement Plans

The Company sponsors several defined benefit pension plans covering eligible U.S. salaried and hourly employees. Benefit accruals under such plans covering all U.S. salaried employees were frozen, effective December 31, 1990. Therefore no credit in the pension formula is given for service or compensation after that date. However, employees continue to earn service toward vesting in their interest in the frozen plans as of December 31, 1990. Employees of non-U.S. subsidiaries generally receive retirement benefits from Company sponsored plans or from statutory plans administered by governmental agencies in their countries.

The funded status of the Company's U.S. defined benefit pension plans at the end of each fiscal year follows (in thousands):

	1997	1996
Actuarial present value of benefit obligations:
Vested	$126,941	$122,379

The Company funds its pension plans in amounts consistent with applicable laws and regulations. Pension plan assets include corporate and U.S. government bonds and cash equivalents.

The assets, liabilities and pension costs of the Company's non-U.S. defined benefit retirement plans are not material to the consolidated financial statements.

Other Postretirement Benefits

The Company provides health care and life insurance benefits to certain former employees who retired from the Company prior to March 31, 1991. The Company has consistently followed a policy of funding the cost of postretirement health care and life insurance benefits on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Effective July 1993, various amendments to the Company's postretirement benefits program were adopted. The amendments included increases in retiree contribution levels for certain retiree groups and the discontinuation of medical and/or life insurance coverage for certain retirees who qualify for Medicare. These amendments resulted in an unrecognized reduction in prior service cost which is being amortized over future years.

The following table presents the funded status reconciled with the amounts recognized in the Company's consolidated balance sheet at the end of each fiscal year (in thousands):

	1997	1996
Accumulated postretirement benefit obligation	$14,220	$14,555

6. Employee Benefit Plans—(Continued)

The assumed health care cost trend rate used in measuring the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation is 8.8% for 1998 and is assumed to decrease gradually to 6% by 2003 and remain at that level thereafter. A one percentage point increase in the assumed health care cost trend rate for each year would increase the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation as of December 28, 1997 and the net periodic postretirement benefit cost for 1997 by approximately 8%. The weighted average discount rate used in determining the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation was 7.25% at December 28, 1997 and December 29, 1996.

Defined Contribution Plans

The Company sponsors defined contribution profit sharing plans covering eligible employees. Company contributions to these plans include employer matching contributions as well as discretionary profit sharing contributions depending on the performance of the Company, in an amount up to 10% of eligible compensation. The Company provided $1.8 million in 1997, $1.7 million in 1996 and $4.1 million in 1995 for its defined contribution plans.

Non-cash Transactions

In connection with a warehouse expansion related to the electric blanket business, the Company entered into a $5 million capital lease obligation in 1996.

8. Restructuring, Impairment and Other Costs

In November, 1996, the Company announced the details of its restructuring and growth plan. The cost reduction phase of the plan included the consolidation of administrative functions within the Company, the rationalization of manufacturing and warehouse facilities, the centralization of the Company's procurement function, and reduction of the Company's product offerings and stock keeping units ("SKU's"). The Company also announced plans to divest several lines of business which it determined are not core for Sunbeam (see Note 9).

In connection with the restructuring plan, the Company consolidated six divisional and regional headquarters functions into a single worldwide corporate headquarters in Delray Beach, Florida and outsourced certain back-office activities resulting in a 50% reduction in total back-office/administrative headcount. Overall, the restructuring plan calls for a reduction in the number of production facilities from 26 to 8 and the elimination of over 6,000 positions from the Company's workforce, including 3,300 from the disposition of non-core business operations and the elimination of approximately 2,800 other positions. The Company completed the major phases of the restructuring plan by January 1997.

In conjunction with the implementation of the restructuring and growth plan, the Company recorded a pre-tax special charge to earnings of approximately $337.6 million in the fourth quarter of 1996. This amount is allocated as follows in the accompanying Consolidated Statement of Operations: $154.9 million to Restructuring, Impairment and Other Costs as further described below; $92.3 million to Cost of Goods Sold related principally to inventory write-downs from the reduction in SKU's and costs of inventory liquidation programs; $42.5 million to Selling, General and Administrative expenses principally for increases in environmental and litigation reserves (see Note 12) and other reserve categories; and the estimated pre-tax loss on the divestiture of the Company's furniture business of approximately $47.9 million. During the first quarter of 1997, upon completion of the sale, the Company provided for additional losses on the disposal of the furniture business of $13.7 million, net of applicable income tax benefits as a result of lower than anticipated sales proceeds.

Amounts included in Restructuring, Impairment and Other Costs in 1996 in the accompanying Consolidated Statement of Operations include cash items such as severance and other employee costs of $43.0 million, lease obligations and other exit costs associated with facility closures of $12.6 million, $7.5 million of start-up costs on back-office outsourcing initiatives and other costs related to the implementation of the restructuring and growth plan. Non-cash Restructuring, Impairment and Other Costs in 1996 include $91.8 million related to asset write-downs to net realizable value for disposals of excess facilities and equipment and non-core product lines, write-offs of redundant computer systems from the administrative back-office consolidations and outsourcing initiatives and intangible, packaging and other asset write-downs related to exited product lines and SKU reductions. The following table sets forth the details and the cumulative activity in the restructuring accrual as of December 28, 1997 (in millions):

	Accrual Balance at December 29, 1996	Cash Reductions	Non-Cash Reductions	Accrual Balance at December 28, 1997

Total	$63.8	$43.4	$9.5	$10.9

9. Discontinued Operations and Other Assets Held For Sale

As part of the restructuring plan and redefinition of its core businesses, the Company also announced the divestiture of the furniture business, by a sale of assets. In February 1997, the Company entered into an agreement to sell the business to U.S. Industries, Inc. which was completed on March 17, 1997. In connection with the sale of these assets (primarily inventory, property, plant and equipment), the Company received $69 million in cash. The Company retained accounts receivable related to the furniture business of approximately $50.0 million as of the closing date.

In connection with the furniture divestiture, the Company recorded a provision for estimated losses to be incurred on the sale of $32.4 million in 1996, net of applicable income tax benefits and an additional loss of $13.7 million, net of applicable income tax benefits in the first quarter of 1997 as a result of lower than anticipated sales proceeds. Earnings from the discontinued furniture business were $.8 million in 1996 and $12.9 million in 1995, net of applicable income taxes of $.5 million and $7.9 million, respectively. Earnings from the discontinued furniture business in 1997 were not material. Revenues for the discontinued furniture business were $51.6 million in 1997, $227.5 million in 1996 and $185.6 million in 1995. These revenues are not included in net sales as reported in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Operations.

In addition to the furniture business divestiture, the Company also completed the sale of other non-core product lines and assets in 1997 as part of its restructuring plan, including time and temperature products, Counselor® and Burg® scales and a textile facility. Losses incurred on the disposal of these assets, which consist primarily of write-downs of assets to net realizable value, are included in Restructuring, Impairment and Other Costs in 1996 in the Consolidated Statements of Operations as described in Note 8.

10. Income Taxes—(Continued)

Deferred U.S. income taxes are not provided on the undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiaries, since such earnings are considered to be permanently reinvested. At December 28, 1997, the cumulative amount of undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiaries on which U.S. federal income taxes have not been provided was approximately $51.5 million. Determination of the amount of unrecognized deferred U.S. income tax liability is not practical because of the complexities associated with its hypothetical calculation; however, unrecognized foreign tax credit carryovers would be available to reduce some portion of the U.S. liability.

11. Customer and Geographic Data

Classes of products which contributed more than 10% to consolidated sales were outdoor home use durable products and indoor home use durable products. Sales of outdoor home use durable products amounted to $325.8 million in 1997, $256.9 million in 1996 and $269.0 million in 1995. Sales of indoor home use durable products were $769.6 million in 1997, $680.7 million in 1996 and $688.3 million in 1995.

The Company's largest customer accounted for approximately 21% of consolidated net sales in 1997 and 19% in 1996 and 1995.

The Company's operations are conducted in the United States and international markets, principally in Latin America, Canada and Mexico. Information about the Company's domestic and international operations for each fiscal year is as follows (in thousands):

Unallocated expenses and eliminations include corporate administrative expenses, intangible amortization, certain pension and postretirement benefit costs or credits, and eliminations of intercompany income and expense. Identifiable assets are those used directly in the operations, and exclude non-operating corporate and deferred tax assets. Sales between geographic areas are not material and are made primarily at cost plus a markup.

12. Commitments and Contingencies

Environmental Matters

The Company's operations, like those of comparable businesses, are subject to certain federal, state, local and foreign environmental laws and regulations. As of December 28, 1997, the Company had been identified as a potentially responsible party ("PRP") in connection with seven sites subject to the federal Superfund law and two sites subject to state Superfund laws comparable to the federal law (collectively the "Environmental Sites"), exclusive of sites at which the Company has been designated (or expects to be designated) as a de minimis (less than 1%) participant. Substantially all of these sites relate to divested operations of the Company.

The Company currently is engaged in active remediation activities at nine sites, four of which are among the Environmental Sites referred to above, and five of which have not been designated as Superfund sites under federal or state law. In addition, the Company is engaged in environmental remediation activities at a site in Newburgh Heights, Ohio, where a subsidiary formerly conducted operations. The Company has been actively cooperating with the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission and state regulatory authorities in developing a plan for remediation of this site; which remediation is expected to be substantially completed during 1998.

The Company has established reserves, in accordance with SFAS No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies, to cover the anticipated probable costs of remediation, based upon periodic reviews of all sites for which the Company has, or may have remediation responsibility. As of December 28, 1997, the amount of such reserves was less than 5% of the Company's total liabilities as set forth in the consolidated financial statements. Liability under the Superfund law is joint and several and is imposed on a strict basis, without regard to degree of negligence or culpability. As a result, the Company recognizes its responsibility to determine whether other PRP's at a Superfund site are financially capable of paying their respective shares of the ultimate cost of remediation of the site. Whenever the Company has determined that a particular PRP is not financially responsible, it has assumed for purposes of establishing reserve amounts that such PRP will not pay its respective share of the costs of remediation. To minimize the Company's potential liability with respect to the Environmental Sites, the Company has actively participated in steering committees and other groups of PRP's established with respect to such sites. The Company continues to pursue the recovery of some environmental remediation costs from certain of its liability insurance carriers; however, such potential recoveries have not been offset against potential liabilities and have not been considered in determining the Company's environmental reserves.

Due to uncertainty over remedial measures to be adopted at some sites, the possibility of changes in environmental laws and regulations and the fact that joint and several liability with the right of contribution is possible at federal and state Superfund sites, the Company's ultimate future liability with respect to sites at which remediation has not been completed may vary from the amounts reserved as of December 28, 1997. In connection with the Company's restructuring plan, in the fourth quarter of 1996 a comprehensive review of all environmental exposures was performed, and the Company accelerated its strategy for the resolution and settlement of certain environmental claims. As a result, the Company recorded additional environmental reserves of approximately $9.0 million in the fourth quarter of 1996. The Company believes, based on existing information, that the costs of completing environmental remediation of all sites for which the Company has a remediation responsibility have been adequately reserved, and that the ultimate resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect upon the Company's financial condition.

Leases

The Company rents certain facilities, equipment and retail stores under operating leases. Rental expense for operating leases amounted to $7.4 million in 1997, $8.0 million for 1996 and $8.6 million for 1995. The minimum future rentals due under noncancelable operating leases as of December 28, 1997 aggregated $30.9 million. The amounts payable in each of the years 1998-2002 and thereafter are $4.8 million, $4.6 million, $4.2 million, $3.9 million, $3.4 million and $10.0 million, respectively.

12. Commitments and Contingencies—(Continued)

Certain Debt Obligations

Responsibility for servicing certain debt obligations of the Company's predecessor were assumed by third parties in connection with the acquisition of former businesses, although the Company's predecessor remained the primary obligor in accordance with the respective loan documents. Such obligations, which amounted to approximately $19.0 million at December 28, 1997, and the corresponding receivables from the third parties, are not included in the consolidated balance sheets since these transactions occurred prior to the issuance of SFAS No. 76, Extinguishment of Debt. Management believes that the third parties will continue to meet their obligations pursuant to the assumption agreements.

Letters of credit aggregating $28.6 million were outstanding as of December 28, 1997.

Litigation

The Company is involved in various lawsuits arising from time to time in the ordinary course of business and/or related to divested operations of the Company. The Company has established reserves, in accordance with SFAS No. 5, Accounting for Contingencies, to cover the anticipated probable costs of litigation matters, based upon periodic reviews of all cases.

The Company believes, based on existing information, that anticipated probable costs of litigation matters have been adequately reserved, and that the ultimate resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect upon the Company's financial condition.

Product Liability Matters

The Company is party to various personal injury and property damage lawsuits relating to its products and incidental to its business. Annually, the Company sets its product liability insurance program based on the Company's current and historical claims experience and the availability and cost of insurance. The Company's program for 1997 was comprised of a self-insurance retention of $1 million per occurrence.

Cumulative amounts estimated to be payable by the Company with respect to pending and potential claims for all years in which the Company is liable under its self-insurance retention have been accrued as liabilities. Such accrued liabilities are necessarily based on estimates (which include actuarial determinations made by independent actuarial consultants as to liability exposure, taking into account prior experience, numbers of claims and other relevant factors); thus, the Company's ultimate liability may exceed or be less than the amounts accrued. The methods of making such estimates and establishing the resulting liability are reviewed continually and any adjustments resulting therefrom are reflected in current operating results.

Historically, product liability awards have rarely exceeded the Company's individual per occurrence self-insured retention. There can be no assurance, however, that the Company's future product liability experience will be consistent with its past experience. Based on existing information, the Company believes that the ultimate conclusion of the various pending product liability claims and lawsuits of the Company, individually or in the aggregate, will not have a materially adverse effect on the financial position or results of operations of the Company.

14. Subsequent Events

New Employment Agreements

On February 20, 1998 the Company entered into new three-year employment agreements with its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and two other senior officers of the Company. These agreements replaced previous employment agreements entered into in July 1996 that were scheduled to expire in July 1999.

14. Subsequent Events—(Continued)

The new employment agreement for the Company's Chairman provides for, among other items, the acceleration of vesting of 200,000 shares of restricted stock and the forfeiture of the remaining 133,333 shares of unvested restricted stock granted under the July 1996 agreement as further described in Note 2, a new equity grant of 300,000 shares of unrestricted stock, a new grant of a ten-year option to purchase 3,750,000 shares of the Company's common stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the stock at the date of grant and exercisable in three equal annual installments beginning on the date of grant and the acceleration of vesting of 833,333 outstanding stock options granted under the July 1996 agreement as further described in Note 5. In addition, the new employment agreement with the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer provides for tax gross-ups with respect to any tax assessed on the equity grant and acceleration of vesting of restricted stock.

The new employment agreements with the two other senior officers provide for, among other items, the grant of a total of 180,000 shares of restricted stock that vest in four equal annual installments beginning the date of grant, the acceleration of vesting of 44,000 shares of restricted stock and the forfeiture of the remaining 29,332 shares of unvested restricted stock granted under the July 1996 agreements, new grants of ten-year options to purchase a total of 1,875,000 shares of the Company's common stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the stock at the date of grant and exercisable in four equal annual installments beginning on the date of grant and the acceleration of vesting of 383,334 outstanding stock options granted under the July 1996 agreements. In addition, the new employment agreements provide for tax gross-ups with respect to any tax assessed on the restricted stock grants and acceleration of vesting of restricted stock.

Compensation expense attributed to the equity grant, the acceleration of vesting of restricted stock and the related tax gross-ups will be recognized in the first quarter of 1998 and compensation expense related to the new restricted stock grants and related tax gross-ups will be amortized to expense beginning in the first quarter of 1998 over the period in which the restrictions lapse. Total after-tax compensation expense to be recognized in the first quarter of 1998 related to these items is expected to be approximately $30.0 million.

Pending Acquisitions

On March 2, 1998, the Company announced the signing of three definitive agreements to acquire The Coleman Company, Inc., Signature Brands USA, Inc. and First Alert, Inc. Completion of the acquisitions, which is expected in the second quarter of 1998, is contingent on customary conditions, including regulatory approvals, and acquisition financings. Each of the acquisitions will be accounted for under the purchase method, whereby the purchase price will be allocated to the underlying assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon their estimated fair values.

The acquisition of The Coleman Company, Inc., the global leader in outdoor recreational and hardware products is valued at approximately $2.0 billion, consisting of the Company's common stock valued at approximately $811 million, cash of approximately $260 million and assumed debt. Shareholders of The Coleman Company, Inc. will receive $6.44 in cash and .5677 shares of the Company's stock for each share of Coleman stock.

The acquisition of Signature Brands USA, Inc., the North American leader in coffeemakers marketed under the Mr. Coffee® brand and a leader in consumer health products marketed under the Health o Meter® brand is valued at approximately $250 million, consisting of cash of $8.25 per share of Signature Brand common stock and the assumption of existing debt.

The acquisition of First Alert, Inc., the worldwide leader in residential safety equipment, including smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors is valued at approximately $175 million, consisting of cash of $5.25 per share of First Alert common stock and the assumption of existing debt.

The Company plans on refinancing all or substantially all of the assumed debt of the acquired companies concurrent with the transactions closings.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Board of Directors and Stockholder
CLN Holdings Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of CLN Holdings Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 1997 and 1996, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholder's deficit, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 1997. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of CLN Holdings Inc. and subsidiaries at December 31, 1997 and 1996, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 1997, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

1. Significant Accounting Policies

Background:

CLN Holdings Inc. (formerly known as Coleman Escrow Corp. ("CLN Holdings")), is a holding company formed in May 1997 in connection with the offering of Senior Secured First Priority Discount Notes due 2001 (the "Old First Priority Notes") and Senior Secured Second Priority Discount Notes due 2001 (the "Old Second Priority Notes" and together with the Old First Priority Notes, the "Old Escrow Notes") to hold all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Coleman Holdings Inc. ("Coleman Holdings"). Coleman Holdings was a holding company formed in July 1993 in connection with the offering of Senior Secured Discount Notes due 1998 (the "Holdings Notes") to hold all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Coleman Worldwide Corporation ("Coleman Worldwide"). On July 15, 1997, Coleman Holdings was merged into CLN Holdings. Coleman Worldwide is a holding company formed in March 1993 in connection with the offering of Liquid Yield Option™ Notes due 2013 (the "LYONs™"). Coleman Worldwide also holds 44,067,520 shares of the common stock of The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman" or the "Company") which represents approximately 82% of the outstanding Coleman common stock as of December 31, 1997. CLN Holdings and Coleman Worldwide are holding companies with no business operations of their own. In connection with an initial public offering ("IPO"), Coleman was formed in December 1991 to succeed to the assets and liabilities of the outdoor products business of New Coleman Holdings Inc. ("Holdings") an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Mafco Holdings Inc. ("Mafco"). Holdings (then named The Coleman Company, Inc.) was acquired in 1989 by MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings Inc. ("MacAndrews Holdings", and together with Mafco, "MacAndrews & Forbes"), a corporation wholly owned through Mafco by Ronald O. Perelman. Coleman is a subsidiary of Coleman Worldwide Corporation which is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings. In March 1992, the Company completed an IPO of its common stock.

Principles of Consolidation:

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of CLN Holdings and its subsidiaries after elimination of all material intercompany accounts and transactions.

Cash and Cash Equivalents:

All highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase are considered to be cash equivalents. The Company's cash equivalents consist primarily of investments in money market funds and commercial paper. The Company's cash equivalents are generally held until maturity and are carried at cost, which approximates fair value.

Inventories:

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined by the first-in, first-out method.

Property, Plant and Equipment:

Property, plant and equipment is recorded at cost and depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of such assets as follows: land improvements, 5 to 25 years; buildings and building improvements, 7 to 45 years; and machinery and equipment, 3 to 15 years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over their estimated useful lives or the terms of the leases, whichever is shorter. Repairs and maintenance are charged to operations as incurred, and significant expenditures for additions and improvements are capitalized.

1. Significant Accounting Policies—(Continued)

Intangible Assets:

Intangible assets primarily represent goodwill which is being amortized on a straight-line basis over periods not in excess of 40 years. The carrying amount of goodwill is reviewed if facts and circumstances suggest it may be impaired. If this review indicates goodwill will not be recoverable over the remaining amortization period, as determined based on the estimated undiscounted cash flows of the entity acquired, the carrying amount of the goodwill is reduced to estimated fair value based on market value or discounted cash flows, as appropriate. Accumulated amortization aggregated $48,148 and $39,520 at December 31, 1997 and 1996, respectively.

Revenue Recognition:

The Company recognizes revenues at the time title passes to the customer. Net revenues comprise gross revenues less provisions for estimated customer returns and allowances.

Research and Development:

Research and development expenditures are expensed as incurred. The amounts charged against operations for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995 were $11,871, $11,082, and $6,548, respectively.

Advertising and Promotion Expense:

Production costs of future media advertising are deferred until the advertising occurs. All other advertising and promotion costs are expensed when incurred. The amounts charged against operations for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995 were $53,408, $58,823, and $37,544, respectively.

Insurance Programs:

The Company obtains insurance coverage for catastrophic exposures as well as those risks required to be insured by law or contract. It is the policy of the Company to retain a significant portion of certain losses related primarily to workers' compensation, employee health benefits, physical loss and property, and product and vehicle liability. Provisions for losses expected under these programs are recorded based upon the Company's estimates of the aggregate liability for claims incurred.

Foreign Currency Translation:

Assets and liabilities of foreign operations are generally translated into United States dollars at the rates of exchange in effect at the balance sheet date. Income and expense items are generally translated at the weighted average exchange rates prevailing during each period presented. Gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions are included in the results of operations. Gains and losses resulting from translation of financial statements of foreign subsidiaries and branches operating in non-highly inflationary economies are recorded as a component of stockholder's equity. Foreign subsidiaries and branches operating in highly inflationary economies translate nonmonetary assets and liabilities at historical rates and include translation adjustments in the results of operations.

Derivative Financial Instruments:

The Company uses derivative financial instruments to reduce interest rate and foreign exchange exposures. The Company maintains a control environment which includes policies and procedures for risk assessment and for the approval, reporting and monitoring of derivative financial instrument activities. The Company does not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading purposes.

Amounts to be received or paid under interest rate swap and cap contracts designated as hedges are recognized over the life of the contracts as adjustments to interest expense. Gains and losses on terminations of interest rate swap and cap contracts designated as hedges are deferred and amortized as adjustments to interest expense over the remaining life of the terminated contracts. Unrealized gains and losses on outstanding interest rate contracts designated as hedges are not recognized.

Foreign currency forward contracts are marked to market and gains and losses on foreign currency forward contracts to hedge firm foreign currency commitments are deferred and accounted for as part of the related foreign currency transaction. Gains and losses on all other forward contracts to hedge third-party and intercompany transactions are recorded in operations as foreign exchange gains and losses. Gains and losses on purchased foreign currency option contracts are deferred and recognized as adjustments to cost of sales upon the sale of the related inventory to the third-party customers.

Credit Risk:

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of trade receivables and derivative financial instruments. Credit risk on trade receivables is minimized as a result of the large and diversified nature of the Company's worldwide customer base. Although the Company has one significant customer (See Note 15), there have been no credit losses related to this customer. With respect to its derivative contracts, the Company is also subject to credit risk of non-performance by counterparties and its maximum potential loss may exceed the amount recognized in the financial statements. The Company controls its exposure to credit risk through credit approvals, credit limits and monitoring procedures. Collateral is generally not required for the Company's financial instruments.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments:

The following methods and assumptions were used by CLN Holdings in estimating its fair value disclosures for financial instruments:

Cash and cash equivalents: The carrying amount reported in the balance sheet for cash and cash equivalents approximates its fair value.

Long- and short-term debt: The carrying amounts of CLN Holdings' borrowings under its foreign bank lines of credit, revolving credit agreement and other variable rate debt approximate their fair value. The fair value of the Company's senior notes issues (see Note 9) are estimated using discounted cash flow analysis based on the Company's estimated current borrowing rate for similar types of borrowing arrangements. The fair value of the publicly traded LYONs debt and Escrow Notes is based on quoted market prices.

Foreign currency exchange contracts: The fair values of CLN Holdings' foreign currency contracts are estimated based on quoted market prices of comparable contracts, adjusted through interpolation where necessary for maturity differences.

The carrying amounts and fair values of CLN Holdings' financial instruments are as follows:

	December 31, 1997		December 31, 1996
	Carrying Amount of Asset/ (Liability)	Fair Value of Asset/ (Liability)	Carrying Amount of Asset/ (Liability)	Fair Value of Asset/ (Liability)

Stock-Based Compensation:

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," encourages, but does not require companies to record compensation cost for stock-based employee compensation plans at fair value. The Company has chosen to account for stock-based compensation plans using the intrinsic value method prescribed in Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related Interpretations. Accordingly, compensation cost for stock options is measured as the excess, if any, of the quoted market price of Coleman's stock at the date of the grant over the amount an employee must pay to acquire the stock.

Reclassifications:

Certain prior year amounts in the financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ materially from those estimates.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards:

In June 1997, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the "FASB") issued SFAS No. 130 "Reporting Comprehensive Income". SFAS No. 130 establishes standards for reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components in the financial statements. SFAS No. 130 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1997. Reclassification of financial statements for earlier periods provided for comparative purposes is required.

In June 1997, the FASB issued SFAS No. 131, "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information". SFAS No. 131 establishes standards for the way public business enterprises report information about operating segments in annual financial statements and requires those enterprises report selected information about operating segments in interim financial reports. It also establishes standards for related disclosures about products and services, geographic areas, and major customers. SFAS No. 131 is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1997. Financial statement disclosures for prior periods are required to be restated.

In February 1998, the FASB issued SFAS No. 132, "Employers' Disclosures about Pensions and Other Postretirement Benefits". SFAS No. 132 revises employers' disclosures about pension and other postretirement benefits to the extent practicable. It also requires additional information on changes in the benefit obligations and fair value of plan assets and eliminates certain other disclosures. SFAS No. 132 is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1997. Financial statement disclosures for prior periods are required to be restated.

CLN Holdings has not yet determined the impact of adoption of these standards; however, the adoption of these standards will have no impact on CLN Holdings' consolidated results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

2. Acquisitions and Divestitures

On November 2, 1994, the Company purchased substantially all the assets of Eastpak, Inc. and all the capital stock of M.G. Industries, Inc. (collectively, "Eastpak"), a leading designer, manufacturer and distributor of branded daypacks, sports bags and related products. The Company also entered into an agreement with the predecessor owner of Eastpak to make additional payments based upon the achievement of certain annual sales levels of Eastpak products and other products substantially similar to the Eastpak products during the years ended December 31, 1995, 1996, and 1997. A total of $23,000 was earned by the predecessor owner of Eastpak under the terms of this agreement. This amount has been recorded as additional goodwill.

During 1995, the Company purchased all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Sierra Corporation of Fort Smith, Inc., a manufacturer of portable outdoor and recreational folding furniture and accessories, and substantially all of the assets of Active Technologies, Inc. ("ATI"), a manufacturer of technologically advanced lightweight generators and battery charging equipment. The aggregate purchase price for these acquisitions was $19,516 including fees and expenses. These acquisitions were accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. The purchase price and expenses associated with these acquisitions exceeded the fair value of net assets acquired by $11,186 and the excess has been assigned to goodwill and is being amortized over 20 to 30 years on the straight-line method. In connection with the ATI purchase, the Company may also be required to make payments to the predecessor owner of ATI of up to $18,750 based on the Company's sales of ATI related products and royalties received by the Company for licensing arrangements related to ATI patents. As of December 31, 1997, the amounts recorded, as additional goodwill, under the terms of this agreement have been immaterial. The results of operations of these companies on a pro forma basis as if their acquisitions had occurred at the beginning of 1995 individually and in the aggregate were not significant to CLN Holdings.

On January 2, 1996, the Company purchased substantially all the assets and assumed certain liabilities of Seatt Corporation ("Seatt"), a leading designer, manufacturer and distributor of safety and security related electronic products for residential and commercial applications. The Seatt acquisition, which was accounted for under the purchase method, was completed for approximately $65,300 including fees and expenses. The results of operations of Seatt have been included in the consolidated financial statements from the date of acquisition. In connection with the purchase price allocation of the Seatt acquisition, the Company recorded goodwill of approximately $38,800. The Company is amortizing this amount over 40 years on the straight-line method.

On February 18, 1998, the Company announced an agreement was signed for the sale of Coleman Safety & Security Products, Inc., the successor to Seatt, to Ranco Incorporated, a U.S. subsidiary of Siebe plc, a United Kingdom diversified engineering group. The sale price is approximately $105,000 and is subject to adjustment upon closing which is expected to occur by the end of March 1998. Net assets of Coleman Safety & Security at December 31, 1997 were approximately $73,000.

On February 28, 1996, the Company purchased approximately 70% of the outstanding shares of Application des Gaz, S.A. ("ADG" or "Camping Gaz"), a leading manufacturer and distributor of camping appliances in Europe. The Company completed the necessary steps to acquire the remaining 30% of the outstanding shares during the second quarter of 1996. The cost of acquiring all the shares of ADG was approximately $100,000 including fees and expenses.

The acquisition of Camping Gaz was accounted for under the purchase method. In connection with the final allocation of purchase price to the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, the Company recorded goodwill of approximately $78,900, which is being amortized over 40 years on the straight-line method. At acquisition, the Company recognized liabilities in the amount of $21,898 representing severance and other termination benefits for certain production and administrative employees of Camping Gaz. As of December 31, 1997, the Company had paid termination costs of approximately $13,350 and anticipates all remaining termination costs will be paid during 1998.

The Company has included the results of operations of Camping Gaz in the consolidated financial statements from March 1, 1996, the date on which the Company obtained control of Camping Gaz, and has recognized minority interest related to the remaining shares for the period March 1, 1996 through June 30, 1996.

2. Acquisitions and Divestitures—(Continued)

The following summarized, unaudited pro forma results of operations of CLN Holdings for the years ended December 31, 1996 and 1995 assume the acquisition of Seatt and the acquisition of all the outstanding shares of Camping Gaz occurred as of the beginning of the respective periods. The pro forma results include certain adjustments, primarily reflecting increased amortization and interest expense and a lower income tax provision, and are not necessarily indicative of what the results of operations would have been had the Seatt and Camping Gaz acquisitions occurred at the beginning of the respective periods. Moreover, the pro forma information is not intended to be indicative of future results of operations.

	Year Ended December 31,
	1996	1997
Net revenues	$1,246,370	$1,193,295
(Loss) earnings before extraordinary item	(57,091)	9,996
Net (loss) earnings	(58,335)	9,209

3. Restructuring and Other Charges

During 1997, the Company recorded restructuring charges of $32,791 and certain other charges of $3,628, collectively, (the "1997 Restructuring Charges") and related tax benefits of $13,918. The Company reflected $19,493 of the 1997 Restructuring Charges in cost of sales and reflected $16,926 in selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses. The 1997 Restructuring charges of $36,419 consisted of (i) $15,735 to exit various low margin products, including pressure washers, (ii) $14,943 to close and relocate certain administrative and sales offices, and (iii) $5,741 to close several manufacturing facilities. Most of these activities were substantially complete as of December 31, 1997, and remaining actions are expected to be completed in 1998.

During 1996, the Company recorded restructuring charges of $66,202 and certain other charges of $7,998 (collectively, the "1996 Restructuring Charges") and related net tax benefits of $21,684. The Company reflected $44,005 of the 1996 Restructuring Charges in cost of sales and $30,195 in SG&A. The pre-tax restructuring charges of $66,202 consisted of (i) $29,067 to integrate Camping Gaz and Coleman operations into a global recreation products business, (ii) $19,000 to exit the low end electric pressure washer business, (iii) $14,135 to exit a portion of the Company's battery powered light business and (iv) $4,000 to settle certain litigation with respect to the battery-powered light business. The charges to integrate the Camping Gaz and Coleman operations reflect primarily the cost to dispose of duplicate manufacturing, distribution and administrative facilities and the related severance costs, which actions were substantially completed in 1997 and are expected to be fully completed in 1998. The low end pressure washer and battery powered light businesses were exited by discontinuing the manufacturing and distribution of these products in 1997. The other pre-tax charges of $7,998 related primarily to certain asset write-offs. These charges were incurred in the Company's normal course of business, although the amounts involved were higher than similar charges the Company had recorded in prior years. The provision for income taxes included $21,684 of tax benefits resulting from these restructuring and other charges, net of an increase in the valuation reserve related to certain foreign deferred tax assets and other foreign tax charges totaling $5,595.

3. Restructuring and Other Charges—(Continued)

The components of the combined 1997 Restructuring Charges and 1996 Restructuring Charges and an analysis of the amounts charged against the reserve are outlined in the following table:

	1996 Original Reserve	Charges During Year Ended 12/31/96	Balance at 12/31/96	1997 Additional Reserves	Charges During Year Ended 12/31/97	Balance at 12/31/97

The termination costs recognized in 1996 related to approximately 200 employees and the 1997 termination costs related to approximately 525 employees. As of December 31, 1997, $11,362 of termination costs were paid on behalf of the approximately 700 employees who were terminated as of that date.

During 1995, the Company recognized an asset impairment charge of $12,289 related to its Brazilian operations. The Brazilian operations had not performed to the Company's expectations since acquisition of this business in April of 1994, and in the fourth quarter of 1995, the Company initiated actions to reduce the operating losses in Brazil. These actions included replacing management, increasing prices, downsizing the manufacturing operations and reducing SG&A and other expenses. Because of these actions, the Company performed an impairment review and concluded recognition of an asset impairment charge was appropriate. The basis of the fair values used in the computation of the charge were appraisals for property and equipment and estimated discounted cash flows for goodwill. The charge has been included in the statement of operations under the caption "Asset Impairment Charge".

(a) On August 8, 1995, the Company completed a private placement issuance and sale of $200,000 aggregate principal amount of 7.26% Senior Notes due 2007 (the "2007 Notes"). Interest on the 2007 Notes is payable semiannually, and the principal is payable in annual installments of $40,000 each commencing August 8, 2003, with a final installment payment of $40,000 due on August 8, 2007. If there is a default, the interest rate will be the greater of (i) 9.26% or (ii) 2.0% above the prime interest rate.

The 2007 Notes are unsecured and are subject to various restrictive covenants including, without limitation, requirements for the maintenance of specified financial ratios and levels of consolidated net worth and certain other provisions limiting the incurrence of additional debt and sale and leaseback transactions under the terms of the note purchase agreement.

(b) On June 13, 1996, the Company completed a private placement issuance and sale of $85,000 aggregate principal amount of 7.10% Senior Notes due 2006 (the "2006 Notes"). Interest on the 2006 Notes is payable semiannually, and the principal is payable in annual installments of $12,143 each commencing June 13, 2000, with a final installment payment of $12,143 due on June 13, 2006. If there is a default, the interest rate will be the greater of (i) 9.10% or (ii) 2.0% above the prime interest rate.

The 2006 Notes are unsecured and are subject to various restrictive covenants including, without limitation, requirements for the maintenance of specified financial ratios and levels of consolidated net worth and certain other provisions limiting the incurrence of additional debt and sale and leaseback transactions under the terms of the note purchase agreement.

(c) On June 13, 1996, the Company completed a private placement issuance and sale of $75,000 aggregate principal amount of 7.25% Senior Notes due 2008 (the "2008 Notes"). Interest on the 2008 Notes is payable semiannually, and the principal is payable in annual installments of $15,000 each commencing June 13, 2004, with a final installment payment of $15,000 due on June 13, 2008. If there is a default, the interest rate will be the greater of (i) 9.25% or (ii) 2.0% above the prime interest rate.

9. Long-Term Debt—(Continued)

The 2008 Notes are unsecured and are subject to various restrictive covenants including, without limitation, requirements for the maintenance of specified financial ratios and levels of consolidated net worth and certain other provisions limiting the incurrence of additional debt and sale and leaseback transactions under the terms of the note purchase agreement.

- (d) In April 1996, the Company amended its credit agreement to: a) provide a term loan of French Franc 385,125 ($64,894 at December 31, 1997 exchange rates) (the "Term Loan"), b) provide a $275,000 unsecured revolving credit facility line (the "Credit Facility"), c) allow for the Camping Gaz acquisition and d) extend the maturity of the credit agreement (as amended, the "Company Credit Agreement"). In connection with the Company recording the restructuring and other charges as discussed in Note 3 and lower than expected operating results, the Company further amended the Company Credit Agreement in October 1996 and again in March 1997.

The Company Credit Agreement is available to the Company until April 30, 2001. The outstanding loans under the Company Credit Agreement bear interest at either of the following rates, as selected by the Company from time to time: (i) the higher of the agent's base lending rate or the federal funds rate plus .50% or (ii) the London Inter-Bank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") plus a margin ranging from .25% to 2.125% based on the Company's financial performance. If there is a default, the interest rate otherwise in effect will be increased by 2% per annum. The Company Credit Agreement also bears an overall facility fee ranging from .15% to .375% based on the Company's financial performance.

In addition, the Company Credit Agreement provides, subject to certain exceptions, for the net cash proceeds from disposition of assets other than in the ordinary course of business, to be used to prepay any outstanding Term Loan balances with any remaining excess net cash proceeds to be applied to outstanding borrowings under the Credit Facility with a corresponding reduction in the overall amount of the Credit Facility line.

The Company Credit Agreement contains various restrictive covenants including, without limitation, requirements for the maintenance of specified financial ratios, levels of consolidated net worth and profits, and certain other provisions limiting the incurrence of additional debt, purchase or redemption of the Company's common stock, issuance of preferred stock of the Company, and also prohibits the Company from paying any dividends until on or after January 1, 1999 and limits the amount of dividends the Company may pay thereafter. The Company Credit Agreement also contains an event of default upon a change of control of the Company (as defined in the Company Credit Agreement) and other customary events of default. In addition, substantially all of the shares of the Company's common stock owned by Coleman Worldwide are pledged to secure indebtedness of Coleman Worldwide and of its parent, CLN Holdings Inc. The indentures governing this indebtedness contain various covenants including a covenant placing certain limitations on the Company's indebtedness.

- (e) On May 20, 1997, CLN Holdings issued approximately $600,475 in principal amount at maturity of Old First Priority Notes and approximately $131,560 in principal amount at maturity of Old Second Priority Notes resulting in aggregate net proceeds of approximately $455,257 in a private placement offering. The Old First Priority Notes and Old Second Priority Notes were issued at a discount from their principal amount at maturity to yield 11 1/8% and 12 7/8%, respectively, per annum calculated from May 20, 1997. Subsequent to the private placement offering, a registration statement on Form S-1 was filed to exchange the Old First Priority Notes for Senior Secured First Priority Discount Exchange Notes due 2001 (the "First Priority Notes") and to exchange the Old Second Priority Notes for Senior Secured Second Priority Discount Exchange Notes due 2001 (the "Second Priority Notes" and together with the First Priority Notes, the "Escrow Notes"). The indenture governing the Escrow Notes (the "Indenture") requires, subject to certain exceptions, that the retirement of the remaining outstanding LYONs be consummated no later than June 10, 1998. The Indenture requires CLN Holdings to hold, directly or indirectly, a majority of the voting power of the Company at all times, unless and until CLN Holdings exercises its right to substitute U.S. Government obligations for all of the pledged collateral. The Indenture, to which Coleman is not a party, also contains certain covenants that, among other things, generally prohibit the incurrence of additional debt by CLN Holdings and the issuance of preferred stock by Coleman Worldwide, and limit (i) the incurrence of additional debt and the issuance of preferred stock by the Company, (ii) the payment of dividends on the capital stock of CLN Holdings and its subsidiaries and the redemption or repurchase of the capital stock of CLN Holdings, (iii) the sale of assets and subsidiary stock, (iv) transactions with affiliates, (v) the creation of liens on the assets of CLN Holdings and Coleman Worldwide, and (vi) consolidations, mergers and transfers of all or substantially all of CLN Holdings' assets. The foregoing limitations and prohibitions, however, are subject to a number of qualifications. The Escrow Notes also contain customary events of defaults and a put right by the holders at a price specified in the Indenture in the event of a change of control of CLN Holdings (as defined in the Indenture).

Approximately $262,194 of the net proceeds of the Escrow Notes were contributed to Coleman Holdings, then a subsidiary of CLN Holdings, and used by it to redeem, on July 15, 1997, the Discount Notes (as defined below). Coleman Holdings recorded an extraordinary loss of $4,300, net of tax benefits of $2,315, relating to the excess of the redemption price over the accreted value of the Discount Notes and the write-off of deferred charges related to the Discount Notes. Approximately $191,278 of the net proceeds of the Escrow Notes were contributed to Coleman Worldwide and used by it to accept for exchange, $554,053 aggregate principal amount at maturity of LYONs, including redemption fees and expenses. Coleman Worldwide recorded an extraordinary loss of $10,939, net of tax benefits of $7,076, relating to the excess of the exchange offer price over the accreted value of the LYONs, the write-off of deferred charges related to the LYONs exchanged and redemption fees and expenses. The $7,500 principal amount at maturity of LYONs which remain outstanding are secured by a pledge of 7,692,854 shares of Coleman common stock owned by Coleman Worldwide. The Escrow Notes are secured by a pledge of all the shares of common stock of Coleman Worldwide and guaranteed pursuant to a non-recourse guaranty of Coleman Worldwide (the "Guaranty"), which Guaranty is currently secured by a pledge of 36,374,666 shares of Company common stock and will be secured by the shares currently securing the LYONs upon their redemption.

(f) On May 27, 1993, Coleman Worldwide issued and sold $500,000 principal amount at maturity of LYONs in an underwritten public offering. On June 7, 1993, an additional $75,000 principal amount at maturity of LYONs was sold upon exercise of the underwriter's over-allotment option. During 1997, Coleman Worldwide redeemed $554,053 principal amount at maturity of LYONs as described above. The $7,500 principal amount at maturity of LYONs which remain outstanding are secured by a pledge of 7,692,854 shares of Coleman common stock owned by Coleman Worldwide. There are no periodic payments of interest on the LYONs. The aggregate principal amount of the LYONs represents a yield to maturity of 7.25% per annum (computed on a semi-annual bond equivalent basis) calculated from May 27, 1993. Coleman Worldwide plans to redeem the remaining $7,500 aggregate principal amount at maturity of LYONs no later than May 27, 1998 with the remaining proceeds from the issuance of the Escrow Notes which are being held in escrow. The LYONs, to which the Company is not a party, provide that it is an Additional Purchase Right Event (as defined below) if, among other things, the amount of debt incurred by the Company exceeds certain limitations. The Indenture governing the LYONs, to which the Company is not a party, provides the holders of LYONs with the option to require Coleman Worldwide to purchase the LYONs at a price specified in the Indenture after the occurrence of certain events ("Additional Purchase Right Events"). Additional Purchase Right Events occur, among other things, upon the Company's Consolidated Debt Ratio (as defined) exceeding 0.75 to 1.0 or the Consolidated Net Worth (as defined) of Coleman Worldwide as of the end of any fiscal quarter being less than a specified amount which is $70,000 at December 31, 1997.

- (g) On July 22, 1993, Coleman Holdings issued and sold $281,281 principal amount at maturity of Old Notes in a private placement offering. Subsequent to the private placement offering, a registration statement on Form S-1 was filed to exchange the Old Notes for Series B Senior Secured Discount Notes (the "Discount Notes"). During 1997, Coleman Holdings redeemed the Discount Notes as described above.

The aggregate scheduled amounts of long-term debt maturities in the years 1998 through 2002 are $3,026, $78, $12,207 $632,376, and $12,159, respectively.

10. Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company periodically enters into a variety of foreign currency exchange contracts to reduce its foreign currency exposure resulting primarily from firm commitments, intercompany foreign sales transactions expected to occur within the next twelve months, and intercompany accounts receivable and payable.

At December 31, 1997 and December 31, 1996, the Company did not have any outstanding foreign currency exchange contracts related to firm commitments.

During the fourth quarter of 1995, the Company elected to adopt the provisions of the Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 95-2, "Determination of What Constitutes a Firm Commitment for Foreign Currency Transactions Not Involving a Third Party" ("EITF 95-2") which narrowed the scope of intercompany foreign currency commitments eligible to be hedged for financial reporting purposes. As a result of this change, the Company increased net income by $3,796 in the fourth quarter of 1995. Prior to the adoption of EITF 95-2, the gains and losses associated with these contracts were accounted for under the deferral method. At December 31, 1997, the Company did not have any outstanding foreign currency forward contracts related to intercompany foreign sales transactions. At December 31, 1996, the Company had forward exchange contracts to sell $8,500 in Canadian dollars maturing on February 28, 1997, for which the Company has recognized a net gain of $40 as a component of cost of sales.

At December 31, 1997, the Company did not have any outstanding option contracts. At December 31, 1996, the Company had outstanding option contracts for the sale of Japanese yen at fixed exchange rates totaling $20,038 for specified periods of time which expired during 1997. Net unrealized gains deferred at December 31, 1996 were $653.

With respect to intercompany accounts receivable and payable, at December 31, 1997, the Company had foreign currency forward contracts to sell $1,580 in foreign currencies, which contracts matured in February 1998, and had deferred a net gain of $128. At December 31, 1996, the Company had foreign currency forward contracts to sell $26,623 and to buy $3,898 in foreign currencies, which contracts matured at various dates in 1997, and had deferred a net gain of $185.

At December 31, 1997, $25,000 of the Company's outstanding long-term debt was subject to an interest rate swap agreement and $25,000 of the Company's outstanding long-term debt was subject to an interest rate cap. Under the interest rate swap agreement, the Company pays the counterparty interest at a fixed rate of 6.115%, and the counterparty pays the Company interest at a variable rate equal to the three month LIBOR for a seven-year period commencing January 2, 1996. The agreement is with a major financial institution which is expected to fully perform under the terms of the agreement, thereby mitigating the credit risk from the transaction. The interest rate cap agreement entitles the Company to receive from a major financial institution the amount, if any, by which the Company's interest payments on $25,000 of its variable rate debt exceed 7.35%. The $509 premium paid for this interest rate cap agreement is included in other assets and was amortized to interest expense over the three-year term of the cap, which commenced January 3, 1995.

11. Taxes

CLN Holdings is included in the consolidated federal and certain consolidated state income tax returns of Mafco and/or its affiliates. CLN Holdings and Mafco and subsidiaries provide taxes as if they were a separate taxpayer. CLN Holdings will pay to Mafco amounts equal to the taxes that CLN Holdings would otherwise have to pay if it were to file separate tax returns for itself. To the extent that CLN Holdings is entitled to a tax benefit from Mafco as a result of its tax losses, such amounts are recorded as a reduction in the provision for income taxes and a distribution to its parent. During 1997 and 1996, respectively, CLN Holdings recorded a benefit of $18,769 and $9,013 for income taxes, and similar amounts were recorded as distributions to its parent. Coleman Worldwide and Mafco are parties to a tax sharing agreement (the "Tax Sharing Agreement"), pursuant to which Coleman Worldwide is required to pay to Mafco amounts equal to the taxes Coleman Worldwide would otherwise have to pay if it were to file separate consolidated federal, state or local income tax returns including only itself and its domestic subsidiaries. Pursuant to the LYONs indenture agreement, at any time the LYONs are outstanding, the amounts Coleman Worldwide would be required to pay to Mafco under the Tax Sharing Agreement, together with any remaining funds paid to Coleman Worldwide by the Company under the tax sharing agreement between Coleman Worldwide and the Company, may not be paid as tax sharing payments, but Coleman Worldwide may advance such funds to Mafco as long as the aggregate amount of such advances at any time does not exceed the issue price plus accrued OID of the LYONs. Such advances are evidenced by noninterest bearing unsecured demand promissory notes (the "Mafco Demand Notes") from Mafco in the amount of $35,395 at December 31, 1997. Following the redemption or retirement in full of the LYONs, expected to occur no later than May 27, 1998, the Mafco Demand Notes shall be canceled automatically without further action of any person, and shall be of no further force or effect whatsoever, and, until the time of such cancellation, no demand or request for payment of any kind shall be made with respect to the Mafco Demand Notes. As a result of the restriction on the payment of the tax sharing amounts, income taxes provided pursuant to the Tax Sharing Agreement are reflected as a non-cash charge. For all periods presented, federal and state income taxes are provided as if Coleman Worldwide filed its own income tax returns. The accompanying consolidated balance sheet includes approximately $13,317 and $18,528 of federal and state income taxes payable to Mafco pursuant to the Tax Sharing Agreement at December 31, 1997 and 1996, respectively.

11. Taxes—(Continued)

The deferred tax account balance at December 31, 1997 differs from the account balance at December 31, 1996 due primarily to the 1997 deferred tax provision, the tax effects of the foreign exchange gain recorded as a component of stockholder's equity, the tax effects of adjustments related to the finalization of the purchase accounting related to the acquisition of Camping Gaz and the deferred tax asset recorded related to the acquisitions in 1997 of inactive companies which were recorded as a capital contribution (see Note 12).

During 1997, CLN Holdings increased the valuation allowance related to certain foreign deferred tax assets due to uncertainties over realization. At December 31, 1997, CLN Holdings had net operating loss carryforwards ("NOL's") of approximately $107,229 for certain foreign income tax purposes. These NOL's expire beginning in 1998.

CLN Holdings has not provided for taxes on undistributed foreign earnings of approximately $20,860 at December 31, 1997, as CLN Holdings intends to permanently reinvest these earnings in the future growth of the business. Determination of the amount of unrecognized deferred U.S. income tax liability is not practicable because of the complexities associated with its hypothetical calculation.

12. Related Party Transactions

Capital Contributions

As of March 31, 1997, the Company purchased an inactive subsidiary from an affiliate for net cash consideration of $1,031, including transaction costs. The Company expects to realize certain foreign tax benefits from this transaction in future years. Under certain circumstances, a portion of these tax benefits will be payable to the affiliate to the extent such tax benefits are realized by the Company. During the fourth quarter of 1997, the Company purchased an inactive subsidiary from an affiliate in a transaction in which the Company expects to realize certain foreign tax benefits in future years and for which the Company agreed to pay 50% of those realized benefits to the affiliate. The Company has recorded a liability to the affiliate in the amount of $219 which represents 50% of the estimated amount of future tax benefits. The Company has accounted for these transactions in a manner similar to a pooling-of-interests due to the Masco Holdings Inc. common control over each of the parties involved in the transactions. The $2,799 excess value of estimated realizable tax benefits acquired over the total acquisition costs have been accounted for as a capital contribution.

Insurance Programs

The Company participates in certain of Holdings' insurance programs, including health and life insurance, workers compensation, and liability insurance. The Company's expense represents its expected costs for self-insured retentions and premiums for excess coverage insurance. The expense was $13,339, $13,923 and $9,875 for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

Services Agreement

From time to time, Coleman purchases, at negotiated rates, specialized accounting and other services provided by an affiliate. Coleman also provides, at negotiated rates, services to an affiliate. The net expense for such services was $394 during 1997 and was immaterial in prior years.

Management Agreement

The Company provided management services to certain affiliates pursuant to a management agreement through June 30, 1995. The consolidated financial statements reflect the management fees as a reduction in selling, general and administration expenses. For the year ended December 31, 1995, management fees earned by the Company were $2,400.

12. Related Party Transactions—(Continued)

Licensing Agreement

During 1997, the Company engaged an affiliate of MacAndrews & Forbes to provide licensing services. The Company recorded expenses of $650 related to these services in 1997.

Other

In 1996, the Company entered into an agreement with an affiliate in which the Company realized approximately $1,800 of net tax benefits associated with certain foreign tax net operating loss carryforwards that had not previously been recognized.

The Company purchases and sells products from and to certain affiliates. These amounts are not, in the aggregate, material.

The Company subleases six thousand square feet of office space in New York City from an affiliate pursuant to a month-to-month occupancy memorandum (the "Lease") entered into during 1997. The rent paid by the Company during the year ended December 31, 1997 pursuant to the Lease was $158.

During 1997, Coleman used an airplane owned by a corporation of which a director of Coleman is a stockholder, for which Coleman paid approximately $158.

13. Employee Benefit Plans

Pension Plans

Holdings maintains pension and other retirement plans in various forms covering employees of the Company who meet eligibility requirements. The U.S. salaried retirement plan is a non-contributory defined benefit plan and provides benefits based on a formula of each participant's final average pay and years of service. The U.S. hourly pension plan is a non-contributory defined benefit plan and contains a flat benefit formula. The salaried and hourly plans provide reduced benefits for early retirement and the salaried plan takes into account offsets for Social Security benefits. The Company's policy is to contribute annually the minimum amount required pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, as amended. Under certain circumstances, the Company may make additional contributions to the pension plans up to the maximum deductible amounts for income tax purposes.

13. Employee Benefit Plans—(Continued)

Holdings also has an unfunded excess benefit plan covering certain of the Company's U.S. employees whose benefits under the plans described above are limited by provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The following table reconciles the funded status of the pension plans with the amount recognized in CLN Holdings' consolidated balance sheets as of the dates indicated:

	December 31,
	1997	1996
Actuarial present value of benefit obligation:
Accumulated benefit obligation, including vested benefits of $24,296 and $18,686	$(27,843)	$(21,933)
Projected benefit obligation for service rendered to date	$(43,246)	$(37,092)
Plan assets at fair value	23,102	16,197
Projected benefit obligation in excess of plan assets	(20,144)	(20,895)
Unrecognized prior service cost	130	50
Unrecognized net loss	6,259	7,999
Accrued pension cost	(13,755)	(12,846)

Amount reflected as minimum pension liability adjustment	(1,526)	(470)
Amount reflected as pension liability	$(15,424)	$(13,604)

The weighted-average discount rate used in determining the actuarial present value of the projected benefit obligation was 7.5% as of December 31, 1997 and 1996. The rate of increase in future compensation levels reflected in such determination was 5% as of December 31, 1997 and 1996. The expected long-term rate of return on assets was 9% as of December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995. Plan assets consist primarily of common stock, mutual funds and fixed income securities stated at fair market value, and cash equivalents stated at cost, which approximates fair market value. Unrecognized items are being recognized over the estimated remaining service lives of active employees.

Net pension expense includes the following components:

	Year Ended December 31,
	1997	1996	1995
Service cost-benefits attributed to service during the year	$3,081	$3,098	$2,125

Net amortization and deferrals	1,537	844	834
Net pension expense	$5,495	$4,894	$3,616

Net pension expense for the year ended December 31, 1997 includes $972 curtailment loss associated with certain executive officer changes during the year.

Savings Plan:

Holdings maintains an employee savings plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. This plan covers substantially all of the Company's full-time U.S. employees and allows employees to contribute up to 10% of their salary to the plan. The Company matches, at a 34% rate, employee contributions of up to 6% of their salary. Amounts charged to expense for matching contributions were $1,401, $1,314, and $1,165 for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

Retiree Health Care and Life Insurance:

The Company, through Holdings, provides certain unfunded health and life insurance benefits for certain retired employees. Approximately 55% of the Company's U.S. employees may become eligible for these benefits if they reach retirement age while working for the Company.

The following table reconciles the funded status of the Company's allocable portion of Holdings' postretirement benefit plans with the amount recognized in CLN Holdings' consolidated balance sheets as of the dates indicated:

	December 31,
	1997	1996
Accumulated postretirement benefit obligation:
Retirees	$ (6,852)	$ (6,682)
Fully eligible active plan participants	(3,308)	(3,015)
Other active plan participants	(10,322)	(10,664)
Total accumulated postretirement benefit obligation	(20,482)	(20,361)
Unrecognized transition benefit	(3,707)	(3,973)
Unrecognized prior service cost	(404)	(492)
Unrecognized net gain	(2,415)	(976)
Net postretirement benefit liability	$ (27,008)	$ (25,802)

Net periodic postretirement benefit expense includes the following components:

	Year Ended December 31,
	1997	1996	1995
Service cost-benefits attributed to service during the year	$ 927	$1,044	$ 756
Interest cost on accumulated postretirement benefit obligation	1,453	1,454	1,352
Amortization of transition benefit and other net gains	(358)	(354)	(455)
Net periodic postretirement benefit expense	$2,022	$2,144	$1,653

The discount rate used in determining the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation ("APBO") was 7.5% as of December 31, 1997 and 1996. At December 31, 1997, the assumed health care cost trend rate used in measuring the APBO was 7.5% starting in 1998 then gradually decreasing to 5% by the year 2003 and remaining at that level thereafter. The health care cost trend rate assumption has a significant effect on the amount of the obligation and periodic benefit expense reported. An increase in the assumed health care cost trend rates by 1% in each year would increase the APBO as of December 31, 1997 by approximately 19% and the service and interest cost components of net periodic postretirement benefit expense by approximately 22%.

Stock Option Plans:

The Company adopted The Coleman Company, Inc. 1992 Stock Option Plan (the "1992 Stock Option Plan") in 1992. During 1993, the shareholders approved the 1993 Stock Option Plan (the "1993 Stock Option Plan") and during 1996, the shareholders approved The Coleman Company, Inc. 1996 Stock Option Plan (the "1996 Stock Option Plan"). Under the terms of the 1992 Stock Option Plan, the 1993 Stock Option Plan and the 1996 Stock Option Plan (collectively the "Stock Option Plans"), incentive stock options ("ISOs"), non-qualified stock options ("NQSOs") and stock appreciation rights may be granted to key employees of the Company and any of its affiliates from time to time. Stock options have been granted under the Stock Option Plans with vesting terms and maximum terms of approximately five years and ten years, respectively. The aggregate number of shares of common stock as to which options and rights may be granted under the Stock Option Plans may not exceed 4,700,000.

13. Employee Benefit Plans—(Continued)

As described in Note 1, the Company follows APB Opinion No. 25 in accounting for stock compensation arrangements. Pro forma financial information regarding net income and earnings per share has been determined as if the Company had accounted for its employee stock options under the fair value method of SFAS No. 123. The fair value of ISOs and NQSOs granted during 1997, 1996 and 1995 were estimated at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions: risk-free interest rates of 6.53%, 6.11% and 5.91 % for 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively, dividend yield of 0.0%, volatility of the expected market price of the Company's common stock of 31.3%, 20.2% and 30.8% for 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively, and a weighted-average expected life of the option of 7.7, 5.5 and 5.5 years for 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

SFAS No. 123 requires the use of option valuation models, one of which is the Black-Scholes model, that were not developed for use valuing ISOs or NQSOs. Further, these option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the expected stock price volatility. In management's opinion, based on the above, the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of its ISOs or NQSOs.

The following summarized, unaudited pro forma results of operations assume the estimated fair value of the ISOs and NQSOs granted during the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995 is amortized to expense over the ISOs' and NQSOs' vesting period. SFAS No. 123 does not require disclosure of the effect of any grants of stock based compensation prior to 1995 and, therefore, the pro forma effect of SFAS No. 123 on net earnings is not representative of the pro forma effect on net earnings in future years.

	Year Ended December 31,
	1997	1996	1995
Pro forma net (loss) earnings	$(55,045)	$(58,918)	$9,742

14. Commitments and Contingencies

Leases:

The Company leases manufacturing, administrative and sales facilities and various types of equipment under operating lease agreements expiring through 2007. Rental expense was $15,620, $14,164, and $11,526 for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively. Minimum rental commitments under all noncancellable operating leases with remaining lease terms in excess of one year from December 31, 1997, aggregated $31,506; such commitments for each of the five years subsequent to December 31, 1997 are $7,571, $6,683, $4,622, $2,848, and $3,560, respectively, and $6,222 thereafter.

The Company leases its former corporate office building in Denver, Colorado under agreements which give the Company the right, subject to certain qualifications, to renew or terminate the lease, or purchase the property. Upon termination, the Company has guaranteed the lessor certain residual values.

Environmental Matters:

Gilbert and Mosley Site. As a result of investigations undertaken in 1986, the Kansas Department of Health and Environment ("KDHE") discovered that groundwater in the downtown Wichita area (the "Gilbert and Mosley Site") was contaminated with volatile organic chemicals ("VOCs"). Coleman occupied a facility within the boundaries of the Gilbert and Mosley Site. Subsequent investigations in the area, including investigations in November 1988 by Coleman, indicated the groundwater beneath the Coleman property is contaminated with VOCs. Coleman is in the process of remediating the contamination on its property.

The City of Wichita has entered into a voluntary agreement with KDHE in which the City agreed to investigate and then remediate contamination in the Gilbert and Mosley Site. Coleman has entered into an agreement with KDHE in which Coleman agreed to perform a similar study for the Coleman property and to implement remedial activities at its property. In addition, Coleman entered into an agreement with the City of Wichita in which Coleman agreed to fund its proportionate share of the City's study and remediation of the Gilbert and Mosley site.

Maize Site. Coleman has undertaken a soil and groundwater investigation at its facility in Maize, Kansas (the "Maize Site"). Results indicate that limited VOC contamination is present in the groundwater under and to the southeast of the facility. The data has been reported to the KDHE, and Coleman has entered into an agreement with KDHE to implement appropriate remedial actions. The remediation system has been installed, and Coleman is in the process of remediating the contaminated groundwater.

Northeast Site. In 1990, Coleman undertook a soil and groundwater investigation of its facility in northeast Wichita (the "Northeast Site"). Results indicated the presence of VOCs in the groundwater and soils. Although some of the contamination may be a result of Coleman's operations at the facility, the data also indicated that contamination was migrating onto the Coleman property from up gradient sources. Coleman reported the initial results of its study to KDHE. Coleman has also provided copies of all data to the United States Environmental Protection Agency (the "EPA"), at its request. The EPA has not initiated any actions against the Company with respect to the Northeast Site. An agreement has been entered into with KDHE to undertake additional investigatory activities, and an interim remediation system has been installed.

The Company has not been named as a potentially responsible party ("PRP") by the EPA nor does it have joint and several liability with any other PRP for remediation at any of the above sites.

The Company has adopted an environmental policy designed to ensure the Company operates in full compliance with applicable environmental regulations and, where appropriate, the Company's own internal standards. Coleman has also undertaken an environmental compliance audit program. The Company makes expenditures it believes are necessary to comply with environmental management practices. Environmental expenditures that relate to current operations are expensed or capitalized as appropriate and were not significant in 1997 and are not expected to be significant in the foreseeable future. The Company accrues for losses associated with environmental remediation obligations when such losses are probable and reasonably estimable. Accruals for estimated losses from environmental remediation obligations generally are recognized no later than completion of the remedial feasibility study. Such accruals are adjusted as further information develops or circumstances change. Costs of future expenditures for environmental remediation obligations are not discounted to their present value. Recoveries of environmental remediation costs from other parties are recognized as assets when their receipt is deemed probable.

While it is possible the Company reserves may change in the near term, the Company believes the reserves established for environmental matters are adequate. This belief is based on estimates provided by the state governmental authorities referred to above, results of environmental investigations of the groundwater and soils at the manufacturing facilities operated by Coleman conducted by independent consultants specializing in environmental investigations and remediation and estimates provided by such independent consultants, together with estimates provided by Coleman's environmental engineering staff.

Other:

The Company and Holdings are involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. The Company believes the ultimate disposition of these matters is not expected to have a material adverse effect on CLN Holdings' consolidated financial condition or results of operations. The Company has entered into a cross-indemnification agreement with Holdings pursuant to which it will indemnify Holdings against all liabilities related to businesses transferred to the Company, and Holdings will indemnify the Company against all liabilities of Holdings other than liabilities related to the businesses transferred to the Company.

The Company is party to a license agreement which requires payments of minimum guaranteed royalties aggregating to $11,778 at December 31, 1997; such commitments for each of the five years remaining under the agreement subsequent to December 31, 1997 are $1,040, $1,745, $2,434, $3,010 and $3,549, respectively.

15. Significant Customers

The Company's U.S. and Canadian operations have one significant customer which accounted for approximately 13%, 15%, and 19% of net revenues in the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

16. Cash Flow Reporting

CLN Holdings uses the indirect method to report cash flows from operating activities. Interest paid was $42,217, $37,608, and $23,976 and net income taxes paid were $3,206, $2,857, and $4,606 for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively. Certain non-cash transactions relating to acquisitions, the issuance of long-term debt and income taxes have been reported in Notes 2, 9 and 11.

17. Geographic Segments

CLN Holdings, through the Company, designs, manufactures and markets a wide variety of multiuse products and accessories, which are primarily marketed through independent retail markets for outdoor recreation and hardware consumers. CLN Holdings, through the Company, is a leading manufacturer and marketer of brand name consumer products for the camping and related outdoor recreation markets in the United States, Canada, Europe, and Japan.

Operating profit, as indicated below, represents net revenues less operating expenses and amortization of goodwill. Generally, sales between geographic areas are made at cost plus a share of operating profit. Identifiable assets are those used by each geographic segment. Corporate assets are principally cash, certain property and equipment, income tax refunds receivable—affiliate, and deferred charges.

19. Impact of Year 2000 (Unaudited)

Some of the Company's older computer programs were written using two digits rather than four to represent the applicable year. As a result, those computer programs recognize a date represented by "00" as the year 1900 rather than the year 2000. This situation, known as the "Year 2000" issue, could cause a system failure or miscalculations causing disruptions of operations, including, among other things, a temporary inability to process transactions, send invoices, or engage in similar normal business activities.

Based on ongoing assessments of the Company's operations, the Company has determined it will be required to modify or replace portions of its computer software so the computer systems will function properly with respect to dates in the year 2000 and thereafter. The Company believes that, in most instances, with minor modifications to existing software, the Year 2000 issue will not pose significant operational problems for its computer systems. The Company has identified one location with significant Year 2000 software issues. Failure to complete a timely conversion of this location to a Year 2000 compliant system could have a material impact on the operations of the Company; however, the Company has begun to replace the software at this location, and such replacement software is expected to be installed prior to December 31, 1999.

The Company has initiated formal communications with some of its significant suppliers and large customers to determine the extent to which the Company's interface systems are vulnerable to those third parties' failure to remediate their own Year 2000 issues. There can be no guarantee that the systems of other companies on which the Company's systems rely will be timely converted and would not have an adverse effect on the Company's systems.

In 1996, the Company began a project to select and install a Company-wide enterprise resource computer software system designed to improve operational efficiency. The selected system is Year 2000 compliant and complete installation of this software system is expected to take three years. The cost of the purchase of the software and installation costs is expected to range from $20,000 to $25,000. The Company will capitalize a significant portion of these costs and does not believe the costs of this project will have a significant impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

The costs of the project and the date on which the Company believes it will be Year 2000 compliant are based on management's best estimates, which were derived utilizing numerous assumptions of future events, including the continued availability of certain resources, third party modification plans and other factors. However, there can be no guarantee that these estimates will be achieved and actual results could differ materially from those anticipated. Specific factors that might cause such material differences include, but are not limited to, the availability and cost of personnel trained in this area, the ability to locate and correct all relevant computer codes, and similar uncertainties.

20. Subsequent Event (Unaudited)

On February 27, 1998, the Company, Sunbeam Corporation ("Sunbeam"), and a wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam ("Merger Sub"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Coleman Merger Agreement") providing that, among other things, Merger Sub will be merged (the "Coleman Merger") with the Company. Pursuant to the Coleman Merger Agreement, each share of the Company's Common Stock, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Coleman Merger (other than certain shares) will be converted into the right to receive (a) 0.5677 shares of Sunbeam common stock, with cash paid in lieu of fractional shares, and (b) $6.44 in cash, without interest.

Coincident with the execution of the Coleman Merger Agreement, CLN Holdings and Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc., the parent company of CLN Holdings, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Holdings Merger Agreement" and with the "Coleman Merger Agreement", collectively the "Merger Agreements"), with Sunbeam and a wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam ("Laser Merger Sub"). The Holdings Merger Agreement provides that, among other things, Laser Merger Sub will be merged (the "Holdings Merger") with CLN Holdings. Pursuant to the Holdings Merger Agreement, the shares of CLN Holdings' common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Holdings Merger (other than certain shares) will be converted into the right to receive in the aggregate 14,099,749 shares of Sunbeam's common stock and $159,957 in cash, without interest.

Following consummation of the Holdings Merger, CLN Holdings will be a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Sunbeam. Following consummation of the Coleman Merger, the Company will be an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Sunbeam.

The Holdings Merger is subject to the expiration of antitrust waiting periods and certain other customary conditions. The Coleman Merger Agreement is subject to consummation of the Holdings Merger. These transactions will constitute a change in control as defined in the Company Credit Agreement, the Lyons and the Escrow Notes. Per the terms of the Merger Agreements, certain arrangements with related parties may be altered or terminated. In addition, outstanding, unvested stock Company options immediately vest upon consummation of the Holdings Merger.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors
Signature Brands USA, Inc. and Subsidiary:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Signature Brands USA, Inc. and subsidiary (formerly Health o meter Products, Inc.) as of September 28, 1997 and September 29, 1996, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows in the years ended September 28, 1997, September 29, 1996 and October 1, 1995. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Signature Brands USA, Inc. and subsidiary as of September 28, 1997 and September 29, 1996, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years ended September 28, 1997, September 29, 1996, and October 1, 1995, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 28, 1997 and September 29, 1996
(Amounts in thousands, except share and per share data)

I. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Description of Business

Signature Brands USA, Inc. (the Company) is a holding company which, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Signature Brands, Inc. (Signature Brands), designs, manufactures, markets, and distributes a comprehensive line of consumer and professional products. The Company's consumer products, marketed under the Mr. Coffee® and Health o meter® brand names, include automatic drip coffeemakers, iced and hot teapots, coffee filters, water filtration products, accessories, and other kitchen countertop appliances as well as bath, kitchen, and gourmet scales and therapeutic devices. Professional products include the Pelouze® and Health o meter® brands of office, foodservice, and medical scales.

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

(c) Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from product sales upon shipment to the customer. Costs or losses estimated to be incurred in connection with product returns and warranties are charged against revenues at the time of sale, based upon consideration of historical experience and information available from customers.

(d) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method.

(e) Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. The Company calculates depreciation using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets.

(f) Excess of Cost over Fair Value of Net Assets Acquired

The Company's excess of cost over the fair value of net assets acquired primarily represents the value of its brand names, created by advertising and product performance over many years, and is being amortized on the straight-line basis over a 40-year period. The Company assesses the recoverability of this intangible asset by determining whether the brand name dominance in terms of market share and the national distribution secured can generate sufficient revenues, growth, and cash flow to recover the intangible asset balance over its remaining life. Accumulated amortization amounted to $15,195 and $11,258 at September 28, 1997 and September 29, 1996, respectively.

(g) Deferred Financing and Stock Issuance Costs

Financing costs related to the issuance of debt are capitalized and amortized over the term of the debt. Accumulated amortization of financing costs amounted to $2,606 and $1,750 at September 28, 1997 and September 29, 1996, respectively. Issuance costs related to the sale of common stock reduce paid-in capital.

(Amounts in thousands, except share and per share data)

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies—(Continued)

(h) Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method whereby deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amount of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates in effect at the end of the period. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that the new tax rate is enacted.

(i) Product Liability Costs

Costs estimated to be incurred with respect to product liability claims are accrued based upon actuarially determined estimates derived from experience factors. The current portion represents product liability costs estimated to be paid within one year.

(j) Net Income (Loss) per Common Share

Net income per common share is calculated by dividing net income by the weighted average of outstanding common stock and common stock equivalents using the treasury stock method, except when the effect of common stock equivalents would be antidilutive or when dilution is less than 3 percent. Net loss per common share is based on the weighted average of outstanding common shares.

(k) Use of Estimates

Generally accepted accounting principles require management to make a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period in preparing these financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(l) Stock-Based Compensation

During 1995, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, which provides a basis for measurement and recognition of all stock-based employee compensation plans. The disclosure requirements of this Statement are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1995. The Company chose to maintain its current accounting method for stock-based compensation and disclose the pro forma effects on net income and net income per share of the fair market value method, if material, as permitted by the Statement.

(m) Advertising Costs

The Company expenses reimbursement of customers' advertising costs at the time the related revenues are recognized. Advertising expense was $23,450, $20,087 and $18,458 for the years ended September 28, 1997, September 29, 1996 and October 1, 1995, respectively.

2. Name Change

On March 6, 1997, the stockholders of the Company approved an amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to change the name of the Company to "Signature Brands USA, Inc." In view of the Company's name change, on April 30, 1997, Health o meter, Inc., the Company's operating subsidiary, was merged with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, Signature Brands, Inc., an Ohio corporation, formed by the Company solely for the purpose of changing the name of Health o meter, Inc. to "Signature Brands, Inc."

3. Accounting Change

As of September 30, 1996, the Company changed its method of determining the cost of certain inventories from the last-in, first-out (LIFO) method to the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method. Management believes that the change in accounting for inventories is preferable because it will more appropriately measure operating results and inventory value, better match revenues and expenses, and conform all inventories of the Company to the same accounting method.

The change in the method of valuing inventories has been applied retroactively by restating financial statements for prior years. The effect of this restatement was to reduce retained earnings as of September 29, 1996 by $363. The following summarizes the effect of changing the accounting method for certain inventories:

	1996	1995
Net income as previously reported	$2,959	$ 712

Bank Credit Agreement

Signature Brands' Bank Credit Agreement (the Agreement) includes a $60.0 million revolving credit facility (including an $18.0 million letter of credit subfacility) and a $75.0 million term loan facility. The revolving credit facility includes a charge of 0.5 percent on the unused line and 2.5 percent for letter of credit guarantees.

Signature Brands is required to make prepayments on the term loan and revolving credit facility with a percentage of Excess Cash Flow, as defined, and 100 percent of the proceeds from certain asset sales, issuances of debt and equity securities, and extraordinary items outside the ordinary course of business. There is no required prepayment for fiscal 1998. Signature Brands may also make optional prepayments, in full or in part, on the term loan.

Borrowing availability under the revolving credit facility at September 28, 1997 was $13.6 million after giving effect to outstanding letters of credit of $1.2 million, actual borrowings of $33.7 million, and sufficiency of collateral.

Signature Brands is subject to certain customary affirmative and negative covenants contained in the Agreement. These include, without limitation, covenants that restrict, subject to certain exceptions, incurrence of additional indebtedness; mergers, consolidations, or asset sales; changes in the nature of the business; granting of liens to secure any other indebtedness; and transactions with affiliates. In addition, the Agreement requires that the Company maintain certain specified financial ratios, including minimum interest and fixed charge coverage ratios, maximum leverage ratios, minimum net worth levels, and ceilings on leverage and capital expenditures. At September 28, 1997, the Company was in compliance with such covenants.

In December 1997, the Agreement was amended to increase the term loan facility by $1.0 million and to modify the amortization schedule such that the annual aggregate payments are $5.0 million, $8.75 million, $14.5 million, and $33.0 million during fiscal 1998 through fiscal 2001, respectively. A portion of the annual payment for fiscal 2001 may be accelerated into fiscal 2000 if certain EBITDA levels are not achieved in fiscal 1999. In addition, the revolving credit facility was reduced to $55.0 million, however, because the advance rate on collateral was increased, the Company's availability thereunder should not be materially impacted.

Senior Subordinated Notes

The Senior Subordinated Notes (the Notes) are general obligations of Signature Brands. Signature Brands' payment obligations under the Notes are unconditionally guaranteed by the Company. The Notes and the Company's guaranty are subordinated to the prior payment of the Company's amounts outstanding under the Agreement. The Indenture governing the Notes contains customary provisions restricting mergers, consolidations, or sales of assets; issuances of preferred stock or the incurrence of additional indebtedness; payment of dividends; creation of liens; and transactions with affiliates. Provided that certain financial tests are met, the Indenture does not limit the amount of additional indebtedness that Signature Brands and its subsidiaries may incur.

The Notes are generally not redeemable at the option of the Company until August 15, 1999. Under certain limited circumstances, the Company may be required to use a portion of the proceeds from asset sales to make an offer to purchase a portion of the Notes, at a price of 101 percent of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest. In addition, in the event of a change in control of the Company, each holder will have the right to require Signature Brands to repurchase its Notes at a price of 101 percent of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon. Except for the foregoing circumstances, Signature Brands is not required to make mandatory redemption or sinking fund payments with respect to the Notes.

The Agreement currently prohibits the Company from purchasing any Notes prior to the expiration thereof and also provides that certain change in control events with respect to the Company would constitute a default thereunder.

9. Warrants

The Company, in conjunction with the issuance of the Notes, issued 70,000 warrants. Each warrant entitles the holder thereof to purchase 10.96 shares of common stock at $6.25 per share, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances. The warrants expire on August 15, 2002.

10. Income Taxes

Income tax expense (benefit) for the years ended September 28, 1997, September 29, 1996, and October 1, 1995, respectively, consisted of:

	1997	1996	1995

State	215	326	40
Deferred	(283)	349	2,547
	$788	$4,727	$2,687

The principal items accounting for the difference in taxes on income computed at the U.S. statutory rate and as recorded for the years ended September 28, 1997, September 29, 1996, and October 1, 1995, respectively, are as follows:

	1997	1996	1995
Tax expense (benefit) at statutory rate of 35%	$ (498)	$2,607	$1,285

Other	(41)	363	(59)
	$ 788	$4,727	$2,687

The tax effects of temporary differences that give rise to significant portions of the deferred tax assets and liabilities at September 28, 1997 and September 29, 1996 are as follows:

	1997	1996
Deferred tax assets
Compensation and vacation	$1,096	$ 340
Warranties and sales reserves	2,259	2,897

taxable income to fully utilize the established net asset. Accordingly, no valuation allowance for the net deferred tax asset has been provided.

11. Lease Commitments

The Company leases various buildings and equipment under leases expiring at various dates. At September 28, 1997, minimum rental commitments under noncancelable leases are as follows:

Fiscal Year Ending
1998	$ 2,031
1999	1,903
2000	1,800
2001	1,790
2002	1,750
Thereafter	18,400
	$27,674

Rental expense amounted to approximately $1,630, $1,438, and $1,447, for the years ended September 28, 1997, September 29, 1996, and October 1, 1995, respectively.

12. Contingencies

The Company is involved in various claims and items of litigation. Management believes that the ultimate outcome of such matters will not have a material adverse effect upon the operations or financial position of the Company.

13. Stock Incentive Plans

The Company has five stock-based compensation plans. Options granted under these plans have ten-year terms and generally have graded vesting schedules of either four or five years. Options scheduled over five years require achievement of company-wide performance goals in order for options to vest.

The Company applies APB Opinion 25 (APB 25) in accounting for its stock incentive plans and, accordingly, recognizes compensation costs only to the extent that the market price of shares granted exceeds the exercise price at the grant date. During 1995, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS 123), which permits the continued use of APB 25 and requires disclosure of the pro forma effects on net income and net income per share had the fair value method of accounting prescribed under SFAS 123 been used. Under SFAS 123, an option's fair value is estimated at the grant date using an option pricing model, the resulting fair value is then recognized as compensation cost over the vesting period of the related option. In the Company's case these pro forma disclosures are required to be applied only to options granted after October 1, 1995 (fiscal 1996). In estimating fair value, the Company has used the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions for 1997 and 1996, respectively; risk free interest rate of 6.21 percent and 6.10 percent, expected lives of 4.1 years and 4.7 years, and stock price volatility of 29.3 percent. The weighted average fair value of options granted during 1997 and 1996 was $1.18 and $1.70, respectively. The following chart depicts the pro forma affects on net income of applying the provisions of SFAS 123.

At September 28, 1997, the range of exercise prices and weighted average remaining contractual life of outstanding options was $2.61—$14.50 and 8.5 years.

1992 Incentive Stock Option Plan

In February 1992, the Company adopted a new incentive stock plan (1992 Plan). The 1992 Plan provides that incentive stock options and nonqualified stock options may be granted to such officers and key employees as the administrators of the 1992 Plan may select. The 1992 Plan is administered by a committee of the board of directors which selects the participants and determines (i) the type of options; (ii) the vesting schedule of options; (iii) the exercise price (which may not be less than fair market value on the date of grant); and (iv) the duration of the options (which cannot exceed 10 years). A total of 220,000 shares of common stock have been reserved for issuance under the 1992 Plan. No options may be granted under the 1992 Plan after December 31, 2001.

1994 Nonqualified Stock Option Grant

In August 1994, the Company granted an executive officer of the Company 362,353 nonqualified stock options at an exercise price of $2.61 per share in exchange for canceled options of Mr. Coffee. The difference between the aggregate exercise price of such new options and the fair value of the Company's stock was equal to the option spread for the canceled Mr. Coffee options. The options are exercisable immediately, but may not be exercised more than one year after termination or death while in the employ of the Company or more than 10 years from date of grant.

13. Stock Incentive Plans—(Continued)

1995 Stock Option and Incentive Plan

In April 1995, the Company adopted a new stock option and incentive plan (1995 Plan). The 1995 Plan provides authority for the grant of stock options and stock appreciation rights to directors, employees, and consultants by the Compensation Committee (Committee) of the board of directors. The total number of shares of common stock that may be subject to awards granted under the 1995 Plan is equal to 750,000 shares of common stock, subject to certain adjustments. The Committee selects the participants and determines (i) the type of option; (ii) the vesting schedule of options; (iii) the exercise price; and (iv) the duration of the options. No options may be granted under the 1995 Plan after April 27, 2005.

1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan

In March 1997, the Company adopted a new stock option and incentive plan (1997 Plan). The 1997 Plan provides the Compensation Committee (Committee) of the board of directors the authority to grant stock options and stock appreciation rights to directors, employees, and consultants. The Committee selects the participants and determines (i) the type of award; (ii) the vesting schedule of awards; (iii) the exercise price; and (iv) duration of the award. The total number of shares of common stock that may be subject to awards granted under the 1997 Plan is equal to 270,000 shares of common stock, subject to certain adjustments. No awards may be granted under the 1997 Plan after March 5, 2007.

1997 Nonqualified Stock Option Grant

In August 1997, the Company granted an executive officer of the Company 500,000 nonqualified stock options at an exercise price of $3.50 per share. One-half of the options become exercisable on September 30 of each year following the date of grant, but may not be exercised more than ten years from the date of grant.

15. Business and Credit Concentrations

The Company distributes and sells its products through major retail outlets, including discounters/mass merchants, department stores, warehouse clubs, specialty stores, catalog showrooms, mail order catalog companies, and national hardware, drugstore, and retail grocery chains. Approximately 39 percent, 36 percent, and 33 percent of the Company's revenues were from two customers in the years ended September 28, 1997, September 29, 1996, and October 1, 1995, respectively. The largest of these two customers accounted for 27 percent, 23 percent, and 23 percent of the Company's revenues in those same years, respectively.

16. Related Party Transactions

Signature Brands pays a management fee to a related party for certain administrative and professional services performed by the related party. Amounts paid to this related party for management fees, including reimbursed expenses, were $252, $263, and $305 for the years ended September 28, 1997, September 29, 1996, and October 1, 1995, respectively.

17. Financial Instruments

Management has determined that at September 28, 1997 and September 29, 1996, the fair value of financial instruments included in the balance sheets approximated their carrying values. With respect to cash, receivables, payables, and accrued liabilities, this determination was based on the short maturity of the instruments. With respect to debt, the assessment was based on management's judgment as to currently available rates on debt with similar maturities.

18. Condensed Consolidated Financial Information

Condensed consolidated financial information for Signature Brands, Inc. at September 28, 1997 and September 29, 1996, and for the years ended September 28, 1997, September 29, 1996, and October 1, 1995 is as follows:

SIGNATURE BRANDS USA, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)
(Amounts in thousands, except per share data)

1. Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Signature Brands USA, Inc. (the "Company") and its wholly owned subsidiary. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

In the opinion of management, the information furnished herein includes all adjustments of a normal recurring nature that are necessary for a fair presentation of results for the interim periods shown in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the same accounting principles that were used in preparation of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 28, 1997, and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto. Because of the seasonal nature of the small appliance and consumer scale industries, the results of operations for the interim period are not necessarily indicative of results for the full fiscal year.

2. Inventories

The components of inventories are as follows:

	December 28, 1997	September 28, 1997
Raw materials and purchased parts	$10,040	$11,233
Finished goods	27,811	28,374
	$37,851	$39,607

Work-in-process inventories are not significant and are included with raw materials.

3. Earnings per share

The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128, Earnings per Share ("SFAS No. 128"), in the quarter ended December 28, 1997. SFAS No. 128 requires the Company to disclose two earnings per share amounts, basic and diluted. Basic earnings per share is based on net income available to common stockholders and weighted average common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share includes the effect of all dilutive securities which are convertible to common stock of the Company such as stock options and warrants.

Below is a table which reconciles basic earnings per share with diluted earnings per share for the thirteen weeks ended December 28, 1997 and December 29, 1996.

	Net Income		Shares		Per Share Amounts

Price Waterhouse LLP

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of First Alert, Inc.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated balance sheet and related consolidated statements of operations, of cash flows and of stockholders' equity present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of First Alert, Inc. and its subsidiaries at December 31, 1997 and 1996 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 1997, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for the opinion expressed above.

FIRST ALERT, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(All dollar amounts in thousands unless otherwise indicated, except per share data)

Note 1—The Company

Effective July 31, 1992, THL-FA Operating Corp. acquired substantially all the net assets of the BRK Electronics Division and all the issued and outstanding shares of certain non-U.S. subsidiaries of the Fire Safety Group of Pittway Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "Predecessor" or the "Division") for approximately $92,500 ("Acquisition"). THL-FA Operating Corp. is a wholly owned subsidiary of THL-FA Holding Corp. THL-FA Operating Corp. subsequently changed its name to BRK Brands, Inc. and THL-FA Holding Corp. subsequently changed its name to First Alert, Inc. ("Company" or "First Alert"). After this acquisition, the Company was owned by Thomas H. Lee Company and related entities, Pittway Intellectual Property Corporation, a subsidiary of Pittway Corporation ("Pittway") and management of the Company. On April 5, 1994, the Company completed an initial public offering ("IPO") of 5,180,000 shares of its common stock. An additional 3,100,000 shares of the Company's common stock were sold by Pittway as part of the same offering.

The Company, through its subsidiaries, manufactures and markets residential safety products including smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, fire extinguishers, motion sensing lighting control devices, timers, fire security safes and chests, fire escape ladders, child safety products and rechargeable flashlights. The Company's manufacturing operations are located in Juarez, Mexico and Aurora, Illinois.

While the Company has a number of customers in the retail and wholesale markets, a significant amount of its net sales are concentrated in three major U.S. national retail chains comprising 13%, 7% and 7% of consolidated net sales for the year ended December 31, 1997; 15%, 7% and 5% for the year ended December 31, 1996 and 13%, 8% and 6% for the year ended December 31, 1995.

Most of the components used in the Company's products are available from multiple sources; however, the Company has elected to purchase integrated circuit components used in the Company's smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors, and certain other components used in the Company's products, from single sources. The Company has developed an alternative source of supply for these integrated circuit components. However, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to continue to obtain these components on a timely basis given the unpredictability of the demand for carbon monoxide detectors. In addition, the biomimetic sensor, which is the key component used in the Company's battery-powered carbon monoxide detector, is obtained by the Company pursuant to a license from Quantum Group, Inc. (Quantum), its sole supplier of this component. Commencing on January 1, 1997, Quantum was permitted to sell its sensors to other customers. There is no alternative supply for the biomimetic sensor. An extended interruption or termination in the supply of any of the components used in the Company's products, or a reduction in their quality or reliability, would have an adverse effect on the Company's business and results of operations.

Note 2—Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements of the Company include those assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses of the Company and its subsidiaries and its foreign operations after eliminating significant intercompany accounts and transactions. The financial statements include the operations in the United States, Canada, Europe, Mexico and Australia.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recorded at the time products are shipped to customers and title passes. Net sales include estimates for returns, warranties, discounts and volume rebates. The Company grants credit terms to its customers consistent with normal industry practices.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Only highly liquid investments with initial maturities of less than three months are considered as cash and cash equivalents. Substantially all of the Company's cash is held by one bank at December 31, 1997. The Company does not believe that as a result of this concentration, it is subject to any unusual credit risk beyond the normal risk associated with commercial banking relationships.

Earnings per Share

In 1997, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 128 (SFAS 128), "Earnings per Share." This statement establishes standards for computing earnings per share (EPS) and simplifies the standards for computing EPS previously found in APB Opinion No. 15 (APB 15), "Earnings per Share." It replaces the presentation of Primary EPS with a presentation of Basic EPS. It also requires dual presentation of Basic and Diluted EPS on the face of the income statement for all entities with complex capital structures. Basic EPS is based on the weighted average number of shares of common stock while Diluted EPS is based on the weighted average number of shares of common stock and dilutive potential shares of common stock outstanding during the periods. In accordance with the requirements of SFAS 128, the Company has restated all EPS data for prior periods.

A reconciliation of both the income and shares used in the calculation of Basic and Diluted EPS are as follows:

	1997	1996	1995
Basic EPS calculation:
Numerator:
Net income (loss)	$ (7,836)	$ (18,702)	$ 11,437

Diluted EPS calculation:
Numerator:
Net income (loss)	$ (7,836)	$ (18,702)	$ 11,437
Denominator:
Common shares outstanding	24,242	24,119	24,043
Dilutive Options	0	0	788
Total shares	24,242	24,119	24,831
Diluted EPS	$ (0.32)	$ (0.78)	$ 0.46

Stock options were outstanding at December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, as discussed in Note 11.

Translation of Foreign Currencies

The functional currency of the foreign operations included in these financial statements is the U.S. dollar. Translation adjustments and transaction gains and losses are reflected in net income and consisted of a loss of $1,149 in the year ended December 31, 1997, a gain of $733 in the year ended December 31, 1996, and a loss of $39 in the year ended December 31, 1995.

Inventories

Company inventories are valued at the lower of cost, determined on the first-in, first-out (FIFO) basis, or market.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Properties are stated at cost. Depreciation of all assets is computed over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method for financial reporting and accelerated methods for income tax reporting.

Upon sale or retirement of property, plant and equipment, a gain or loss is recognized. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense.

Useful lives for property, plant and equipment are as follows:

	Years
Buildings	Up to 40
Building improvements	20
Furniture and fixtures	10
Machinery and equipment	10
Tools, jigs and dies	3

Goodwill

Goodwill, representing the difference between the total purchase price and the fair value of assets (tangible and intangible) and liabilities at the date of acquisition, is being amortized on a straight-line basis over 40 years. Amortization expense totalled $638 for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 1997.

Impairment of Assets

In 1996, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of." This statement requires that long-lived assets and certain identifiable intangibles be reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstance indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Under provisions of the statement, impairment losses are recognized when expected future cash flows are less than the assets' carrying value.

Patents, Trademarks and Other Intangibles

Patents, trademarks and other intangibles are carried at cost less accumulated amortization, which is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets, not to exceed 40 years (see Note 5). Amortization expense was $704, $682 and $1,054 for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and payable and accrued liabilities approximate fair value due to the short-term maturities of these assets and liabilities. The aggregate fair value of the Credit Facility approximates its carrying amount because of the recent and frequent repricing based on market conditions.

Stock Based Compensation

Effective January 1, 1996, the Company adopted the "disclosure method" provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 123 "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation." As permitted under this statement, the Company continues to recognize stock-based compensation costs under the intrinsic value based method of accounting as prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees."

Income Taxes

Income taxes of the Company are accounted for using Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes."

Advertising and Research and Development Costs

Advertising costs, including advertising allowances granted to customers, are accrued at the date of sale of certain products to reflect advertising commitments made to customers. Research and development costs are charged to expense as incurred. Expense charged to operations for the periods presented were as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
	1997	1996	1995
Advertising and product promotion	$12,796	$22,899	$33,258
Research and development	$ 2,012	$ 3,121	$ 2,866

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Impact of New Accounting Standards

Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 130 (SFAS 130), "Reporting Comprehensive Income" and Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 131 (SFAS 131), "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information," were issued in June 1997 and are effective for the Company's fiscal year 1998. SFAS 130 establishes standards for the reporting and display of comprehensive income, which includes net income and changes in equity except those resulting from investments by, or distributions to, stockholders. SFAS 131 establishes standards for disclosures related to business operating segments. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that these statements will have on the consolidated financial statements.

Note 3 — Restructuring Charge

During the fourth quarter of 1996, the Company adopted a plan to revitalize the Company's core product lines of smoke and carbon monoxide detectors and discontinue, reposition or outsource non-performing product lines, right-size and consolidate manufacturing operations, reduce the Company's selling, general and administrative cost structures and aggressively address inventory levels. As a result of this plan, the Company recorded a pre-tax restructuring charge of $4,497 including a provision of $1,998 for inventory write-downs which was appropriately charged to cost of sales, excluding depreciation. The remaining restructuring charge of $2,499 includes $1,789 for the write-down of the net book value of manufacturing equipment for product lines that will be outsourced or eliminated, $410 for severance costs for approximately 600 manufacturing and corporate office employees who were released from employment in the fourth quarter of 1996 and $300 for contractual plant restoration costs. The provision for inventory write-downs relates primarily to inventory for product lines that either have been or will be outsourced or eliminated. The following table sets forth the details of activity for 1997:

	Balance at December 31, 1996	1997 Charges	Balance at December 31, 1997
Manufacturing equipment write-down	$1,789	—	$1,789
Inventory write-down	1,998	$1,283	715
Severance	93	93	—
Plant restoration	300	135	165
Total	$4,180	$1,511	$2,669

Of the 1997 charges, $93 of severance was a cash charge with the remainder being non-cash charges.

During the fourth quarter of 1997, the Company released $1,005 of inventory write-down and plant restoration cost accruals which were determined by the Company's management as no longer being required. The release, reflected as a non-cash charge in the above table, was recorded through cost of sales, excluding depreciation. These accruals were deemed no longer necessary as the Company, in light of market conditions faced in 1997, reassessed its original cost estimates associated with repositioning certain product lines and consolidating its manufacturing operations.

Long-term revolving credit facility	$ —	$40,000

On May 14, 1997, the Company entered into an $80.0 million revolving three-year credit facility (the "Credit Facility") with an agent financial institution, replacing its Former Credit Facility (as defined below). Advances under the Credit Facility are limited to (a) 85% of eligible accounts receivable plus (b) the lesser of 60% of eligible inventory or $35.0 million. During the period of May 1997 through October 1997, $10.0 million in additional borrowing was available and from June 1998 through September 1998, $5.0 million in additional borrowing will be available under the Credit Facility. All obligations under the Credit Facility are secured by first priority liens upon certain of the Company's assets. Amounts outstanding under the Credit Facility bear interest at prime rate plus 1/2% or the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 2%. The Company is subject to a commitment fee of 0.375% per annum on the unused portion of the Credit Facility less $2.0 million. The Credit Facility agreement contains covenants for, among other things, total liabilities to tangible net worth and fixed charge ratios; maintenance of tangible net worth; and restrictions on additional indebtedness, capital expenditures and payment of dividends.

At December 31, 1997, the Company was not in compliance with the total liabilities to tangible net worth, fixed charge coverage ratio and minimum tangible net worth covenants set forth in the Credit Facility. While a waiver was obtained from the lender for the noncompliance with these covenants at December 31, 1997, it is not expected that the Company will be able to meet the restrictive covenants throughout 1998. Accordingly, the Credit Facility has been classified as a current liability. The Company is currently negotiating the terms of an extension of the Credit Facility, as well as a modification of the restrictive covenants and fully expects that a new agreement with its current lender will be in place by the second quarter of 1998.

At December 31, 1996, under the terms of the Company's former revolving credit facility (the "Former Credit Facility"), the Company was able to borrow up to $77.5 million until January 31, 1997, when the amount available was reduced to $70.0 million. In connection with a September 4, 1996 amendment, the Company granted a security interest in all of its assets which included the stock of wholly owned subsidiaries to secure the obligations to the lenders under the Former Credit Facility. Similarly, Electronica BRK de Mexico S.A. de C.V., a wholly owned subsidiary, agreed to pledge all of its assets to secure repayment of advances under the Former Credit Facility.

Under the Former Credit Facility, the Company was subject to a commitment fee of 0.35% per annum on the unused portion of the Former Credit Facility. The Former Credit Facility carried an interest rate of LIBOR plus 1.5% for amounts up to $70.0 million (LIBOR plus 2.0% for amounts in excess of $70.0 million) on the LIBOR based portion of the Former Credit Facility and the higher of the lender's corporate borrowing rate or the Federal Funds Rate plus 0.75% for amounts up to $70.0 million (Federal Funds Rate plus 1.25% for amounts in excess of $70.0 million) on the remaining balance. Additionally the Former Credit Facility contained covenants restricting, among other things, the payment of dividends, the sale of assets, mergers and acquisitions and required maintenance of interest coverage ratios, leverage ratios and a minimum tangible net worth. At December 31, 1996, the Company was not in compliance with the interest coverage ratio and the leverage ratio covenants. On May 14, 1997, proceeds from the Credit Facility were used to fully reduce the Company's indebtedness under the Former Credit Facility.

Note 10—Retirement Plans

The Company has retirement plans covering substantially all U.S. employees of its subsidiaries. No other post-retirement benefits are offered to retirees.

Eligible U.S. employees may participate in the Company's defined contribution plans. Company contributions to the plans are based upon a percentage of the employee contribution and vest over a five-year period commencing with date of employment. Such contributions amounted to $182, $210, and $154 for the years 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

There are two non-contributory defined benefit plans covering substantially all U.S. employees. Benefits are based on years of service and annual compensation as defined by such plans. Employees vest in plan benefits after five years of service.

Pursuant to the terms of the purchase agreement with Pittway, all retirement obligations earned by Company employees through July 31, 1992, were retained by Pittway. Obligations arising subsequent to that date are the responsibility of the Company. Pension costs recorded for the fiscal years 1997, 1996 and 1995 aggregated $307.

Note 10—Retirement Plans—(Continued)

$379 and $346, respectively. The components of net pension cost for the fiscal years 1997, 1996 and 1995 consist of:

	Year ended December 31,
	1997	1996	1995
Service cost of benefits earned during the year	$ 346	$ 378	$ 328
Interest cost on projected benefit obligation	89	74	50

Unrecognized net gain	531	145
Accrued pension cost included in the consolidated balance sheet	$ 285	$ 147

The cost of benefit plans covering non-U.S. employees is not significant.

Note 11—Stock Options

Following the Acquisition, the Company established the 1992 Time Accelerated Restricted Stock Option Plan ("1992 Plan") under which it is authorized to grant non-qualified options to purchase shares of Company common stock at a price equal to the market value of a share of such stock on the date of grant. Such options vest over a five-year period if certain provisions are met and are generally exercisable once vested, or, in the case of a terminated employee, become exercisable pursuant to the terms of the plan.

During 1994, the Company established the 1994 Stock Option Plan ("1994 Plan") which provides for the grant of options to purchase up to 1,226,666 shares of common stock. During 1997, the Company established the 1997 Stock Option Plan ("1997 Plan") which provides for the grant of options to purchase up to 1,300,000 shares of common stock. The 1994 and 1997 Plans allow for the issuance of incentive stock options and non-qualified options. Options granted under the 1994 and 1997 Plans are generally issued at an exercise price of not less than the current market price and vest over periods determined by the Board of Directors. Under the 1994 and 1997 Plans, no option shall be exercisable after ten years from the date on which it was granted.

During 1996, the Company established the Nonqualified Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors ("Non-Employee Director Plan") which provides for the grant of options for the purchase of an aggregate of 100,000 shares of common stock by all independent directors of the Company. Options to purchase 12,912 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $1.78 per share 6,456 of which have expired and 6,827 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $1.17 per share were granted in 1997 under the Non-Employee Director Plan. Options granted under the Non-Employee Director Plan are generally granted at an exercise price of one half of the market price of a share of common stock at the date of grant and become fully exercisable on the first anniversary of the date of grant. Under the Non-Employee Director Plan, options expire ten years after the date granted.

In February 1997, options for 314,000 shares of common stock were repriced to $3.19 per share, the market price of the Company's common stock on the date of repricing. Of these options, 114,000 shares have a time-based vesting schedule while 200,000 shares were only to become exercisable in the event of a change in control of the Company consummated on or before December 31, 1997. Options for those 314,000 shares were granted apart from any Company stock option plan. The option for 114,000 shares was outstanding at December 31, 1997, while the one for 200,000 shares expired by its terms on December 31, 1997.

In February 1997, 505,200 options under the 1994 Plan were repriced to $3.19 per share, the market price of the Company's common stock on the date of the repricing.

Stock option activity for fixed plans is as follows:

	Year ended December 31,
	1997	1996	1995
Outstanding at beginning of period.....	1,587,224	1,541,864	1,238,364

Options exercisable at end of year	483,346	643,457	725,963

The weighted average exercise price per share related to this stock option activity is as follows:

	At December 31,
	1997	1996	1995
Outstanding at beginning of period.....	$5.55	$ 6.34	$ 4.25
Granted	3.11	6.83	14.12

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS—(Continued) (All dollar amounts in thousands unless otherwise indicated, except per share data)

The following tables summarize information about employee stock options outstanding for fixed plans at December 31, 1997:

Range of Exercise Price	Shares Outstanding at December 31, 1997	Weighted-Average Remaining Life	Weighted-Average Exercise Price
$1.17-8.50	1,699,662	7.7 years	$ 3.33
13.50	45,000	7 years	13.50
Range of Exercise Price	Shares Exercisable at December 31, 1997	Weighted-Average Exercise Price
$1.17-8.50	460,846	$ 3.66
13.50	22,500	13.50

Shares of common stock have been reserved for future issuance under all of the foregoing options.

The Company applies APB Opinion No. 25 and related interpretations in accounting for the aforementioned stock option plans. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for its fixed stock option plans while compensation expense has been recognized for its compensatory plans. Had compensation cost for the Company's fixed stock option plans been determined based on the fair value based method, as defined in Statement No. 123, the Company's net earnings (loss) and earnings (loss) per share would not be significantly different from those reported and consequently pro forma amounts have not been disclosed.

The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions used for grants: expected volatility of 27.0% in 1997, 29.3% in 1996 and 28.0% in 1995; expected lives of seven years for 1997, 1996 and 1995 and risk free interest rate of 6.3% in 1997, 6.4% in 1996 and 7.8% in 1995. It has been assumed that no dividends will be paid for the expected term of the options.

Note 12—Lease Commitments

The Company leases certain warehouses, office space and equipment under noncancelable operating leases expiring at various dates through the year 2010. Minimum annual rental commitments under all noncancelable leases for the next five years beginning with 1998 are as follows:

1998	1999	2000	2001	2002	Thereafter
$2,879	$2,852	$2,483	$2,172	$2,165	$11,547

Total rent expense including taxes, insurance and maintenance when included in rent amounted to $3,223, $3,801 and $2,681 for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

Note 13—Contingencies

In November 1994, the Company and certain of its officers and directors were named as defendants in four purported class action lawsuits filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division. The plaintiffs in these actions, pursuant to a Court order, filed a consolidated and amended complaint resulting in the consolidation of the four actions. The consolidated case is entitled Gilbert et al. vs. First Alert, Inc. et al. ("Gilbert"). The amended complaint sought compensatory damages, costs and attorneys' fees on behalf of the purchasers of the Company's Common Stock during the period from October 12, 1994 through November 10, 1994. By order dated August 21, 1995, the Court certified the class. Subsequently, the plaintiff's motion to amend the complaint to expand the class period to September 20, 1994 through December 7, 1994, was granted and a second consolidated and amended complaint was filed on January 16, 1996. The new class was certified by the Court. The complaint alleges generally that the Company and other defendants disseminated false and misleading information to the investing public regarding the First Alert® Carbon Monoxide Detector in connection with an anticipated secondary public offering of the Company's Common Stock in late 1994 in violation of various provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules promulgated thereunder. The Registration Statement with respect to the proposed secondary public offering was declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 9, 1994, but was subsequently withdrawn by the Company at the request of the selling stockholders. The public offering was solely to facilitate the sale of shares by certain selling stockholders and the Company would not have received any proceeds therefrom.

The Company vigorously contested all claims and denied liability. Nevertheless, to avoid further expense and the burdens of litigation, in November 1996, the Company agreed to a tentative settlement of the consolidated class actions. An executed settlement agreement was filed with the Court on February 11, 1997 and the Court entered an order on February 25, 1997, giving preliminary approval to the settlement.

Pursuant to the Court's February 25, 1997, order, members of the class had until May 12, 1997, to opt out of the class and until July 28, 1997, to file proofs of claim if they wished to receive a share of the settlement amount. The Court held a hearing on June 20, 1997, to consider the fairness of the settlement and, at that time, the Court approved the settlement.

Under the terms of the settlement agreement, defendants will pay a fixed amount per share to class members, depending on when they bought or sold their shares, with a maximum amount of $3.0 million (including attorney's fees and costs for class counsel) to be paid out in settlement. The majority of the settlement amount is being paid by the Company's directors and officers liability insurance carrier. The pendency of the Gilbert complaint has not had a material effect on the Company's financial results for any period and adequate reserves exist at December 31, 1997, for the Company's share of the settlement amount.

A purported class action entitled Belley et al. vs. First Alert, Inc. et al. ("Belley") was filed in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois on January 3, 1995, against the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, BRK Brands, Inc., alleging common law fraud, breach of warranties, and a statutory violation of the Illinois Consumer Fraud Act, all related to alleged defects in the original First Alert® Carbon Monoxide Detector (Model FACO) design and the manner in which the detector was marketed. The Company does not believe that the plaintiffs claim any personal injuries or property damage; nor do the plaintiffs claim that their detectors failed to detect dangerous levels of carbon monoxide. Instead, they claim (i) that the Company failed to disclose that the product alarms in non-life threatening conditions (which they state in their complaint to be a "nuisance"), (ii) that the Company falsely proclaims the product resets "automatically" when, in fact, the product can take several hours or days to reset after it has gone into alarm and (iii) that the Company falsely claims that the product met Underwriters Laboratories' listing criteria for residential carbon monoxide detectors in effect at the time the Model FACO was manufactured. The plaintiffs seek a refund of their purchase price, other out-of-pocket expenses, punitive damages, and attorneys' fees. The Company has raised numerous defenses to this claim and will continue to oppose it forcefully.

In February 1997, the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, BRK Brands, Inc., were named as defendants in a purported class action lawsuit entitled Houlihan et al. vs. First Alert, Inc. et al. ("Houlihan") in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, alleging breach of express warranty and statutory violations of various states' consumer protection statutes due to alleged misrepresentations and product defects involving First Alert® Carbon Monoxide Detectors. The Company does not believe the plaintiff claimed any personal injuries or property damage; nor did he claim specifically that his detector failed to detect dangerous levels of carbon monoxide. Rather, the plaintiff sought "rescissory damages" and attorneys' fees. The plaintiff's original complaint was stricken by the Court on April 9, 1997, but the Court gave the plaintiff leave to re-plead the case which was done. The Company filed a Motion to Dismiss the amended complaint and that motion was granted on August 22, 1997. The case has now been settled by refunding the plaintiff's purchase price of the detector.

On February 11, 1998, a jury returned a verdict against the Company's BRK Brands, Inc., subsidiary, awarding damages totaling $16.9 million in the case of Mercer et al. vs. BRK Brands, Inc. et al., which was tried in the Iowa District Court for Scott County. The verdict includes $12.5 million of punitive damages. The case alleged negligence, breach of warranty and fraudulent nondisclosure in connection with a BRK® Electronics smoke detector that alarmed during a residential fire. The punitive damage award was based upon the jury finding a preponderance of clear, convincing and satisfactory evidence the Company's conduct constituted willful and wanton disregard for the rights or safety of others. Substantially all of the cost of defense and the damages assessed in this case are covered by the Company's insurance. The Company intends to continue to vigorously contest this case by pursuing a number of post-trial motions to overturn the verdict and appealing the decision, if necessary.

In addition to the Gilbert, Betley and Mercer actions, the Company and its subsidiaries, including BRK Brands, Inc., are parties to various product liability and other types of lawsuits and are from time to time subject to investigations by various governmental agencies, including investigations regarding environmental matters. Although the ultimate liabilities, if any, arising out of the Gilbert, Betley, Mercer and other pending legal actions or investigations cannot presently be determined, based on its past experience and assessment of such matters, the Company believes that the outcome of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position.

Note 14—Related Party Transactions

Certain administrative fees were paid to Thomas H. Lee Company aggregating $214, $195 and $326, for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

The First Alert trademark is owned by the First Alert Trust in which the Company has a 75% beneficial interest. The Company entered into a license agreement with the First Alert Trust and Pittway which permits the Company in perpetuity and on an exclusive, royalty-free basis, to manufacture and market under the First Alert brand name any products other than products which are designed to be monitored by an alarm or building control system or to work in conjunction with a communication panel or other building control system ("Professional Products"). Pittway owns the remaining 25% beneficial interest in the First Alert Trust and is a party to such license agreement with the First Alert Trust under which Pittway has, in perpetuity, an exclusive, royalty-free license to manufacture and market Professional Products under the First Alert Professional® and First Alert Professional Security System® brand names. Either Pittway or the Company may terminate their further obligations and rights under the license by providing notice to the other party.

Income per share amounts for each quarter are required to be computed independently and, therefore, may not equal the amount computed for the entire year.

Results of operations in the three month period ended December 31, 1997 include costs associated with inefficiencies incurred in manufacturing operations, premium freight out charges and key customer allowances which were partially offset by the release of $4.5 million of reserves established in prior years deemed no longer necessary. These reserves had been established over a period of years and their initial recording was not significant to any individual prior reporting period.

Results of operations during the three months ended December 31, 1996, include a pre-tax restructuring charge of $4,497, including inventory write-down, and a pre-tax charge to operations of $4,972. The pre-tax charge to operations includes additional inventory related costs, anticipated product allowances for sales made prior to December 31, 1996, severance and asset impairment costs.

Note 17—Subsequent Events

On March 2, 1998, the Company announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement with Sunbeam Corporation (the "Agreement") providing for the acquisition of the Company by Sunbeam in a transaction valued at approximately $175 million including the assumption of existing debt. The consummation of the offer is subject to certain customary conditions, including expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act. The Agreement provides that the Company pay a fee of $3.75 million in the event that the acquisition is terminated.

New York, New York 10036

Ladies and Gentleman:

We are delivering this letter in connection with an offering by Sunbeam Corporation (the "Company") of its Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Subordinated Debentures due 2018 (the "Debentures"), which are convertible into shares of the Company's common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), all as described in the Offering Memorandum (the "Offering Memorandum") relating to the Offering. We hereby confirm that:

(i) we are an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") or an entity in which all of the equity owners are accredited investors within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act (an "Institutional Accredited Investor") able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Debentures;

(ii) (A) any purchase of Debentures by us will be for our own account or for the account of one or more other Institutional Accredited Investors for each of which we exercise sole investment discretion (and have authority to make, and do make, the statements contained in this letter) or as fiduciary for the account of one or more trusts, each of which is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(7) under the Securities Act and for each of which we exercise sole investment discretion or (B) we are a "bank," within the meaning of Section 3(a)(2) of the Securities Act, or a "savings and loan association" or other institution described in Section 3(a)(5)(A) of the Securities Act that is acquiring Debentures as fiduciary for the account of one or more institutions for which we exercise sole investment discretion;

(iii) in the event that we purchase any Debentures, we will acquire Debentures having a minimum purchase price of not less than $100,000 for our own account or for any separate account for which we are acting;

(iv) we have such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that we are capable of evaluating the merits and risks of purchasing Debentures;

(v) we are not acquiring Debentures with a view to distribution thereof or with any present intention of offering or selling Debentures or the Common Stock issuable upon conversion thereof, except as permitted below; provided that the disposition of our property and property of any accounts for which we are acting as fiduciary shall remain at all times within our control; and

(vi) we have received a copy of the Offering Memorandum and acknowledge that we have had access to such financial and other information, and have been offered the opportunity to ask such questions of representatives of the Company and receive answers thereto, as we deem necessary in connection with our decision to purchase Debentures.

We understand that the Debentures are being offered in a transaction not involving any public offering within the meaning of the Securities Act and that the Debentures and the Common Stock issuable upon conversion thereof have not been registered under the Securities Act, and we agree, on our own behalf and on behalf of each account for which we acquire any Debentures, that if in the future we decide to resell or otherwise transfer such Debentures or the Common Stock issuable upon conversion thereof, such Debentures or Common Stock may be resold or otherwise transferred within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons only (i) to the Company or any subsidiary thereof, (ii) to a person who is a "qualified institutional buyer" (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act) in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A, (iii) to an Institutional Accredited Investor that, prior to such transfer, furnishes to the Trustee for the Debentures (or in the case of Common Stock, the transfer agent therefor) a signed letter containing certain representations and agreements relating to the restrictions on transfer of such securities (the form of which letter can be obtained from the Trustee or transfer agent, as the case may be), (iv) pursuant to an exemption from registration provided by Rule 144 under the Securities Act (if available) or (v) pursuant to a registration statement that has been declared effective under the Securities Act (and which continues to be effective at the time of such transfer), and in each case, in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any State of the United States or any other applicable jurisdiction and in accordance with the legends set forth on the Debentures and any Common Stock, as the case may be. We further agree to provide to any person purchasing any of the Debentures or the Common Stock issuable upon conversion thereof (other than pursuant to clause (v) above) from us a notice advising such purchaser that resales of such securities are restricted as stated herein. We understand that the registrar and transfer agents for the Debentures and the Common Stock will not be required to accept for registration of transfer any Debentures or any Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Debentures, except upon presentation of evidence satisfactory to the Company that the foregoing restrictions on transfer have been complied with. We further understand that any Debentures and any Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Debentures will be in the form of definitive physical certificates and that such certificates will bear a legend reflecting the substance of this paragraph other than pursuant to clause (v) above.

We acknowledge that the Company, others and you will rely upon our confirmations, acknowledgments and agreements set forth herein, and we agree to notify you promptly in writing if any of our representations or warranties herein ceases to be accurate and complete.

THIS LETTER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SUNBEAM CORPORATION

SELLING SECURITYHOLDER NOTICE AND QUESTIONNAIRE

The undersigned beneficial holder of Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Subordinated Debenture due 2018 (the "Debenture") of Sunbeam Corporation (the "Company" or "Registrant") or Common Stock, $0.01 par value (the "Common Stock" and, together with the Debentures, the "Registrable Securities") of the Company understands that the Registrant has filed or intends to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") a registration statement on Form S-3 (the "Shelf Registration Statement") for the registration and resale under Rule 415 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), of the Registrable Securities, in accordance with the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March , 1998 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), between the Company and the Initial Purchaser named therein. A copy of the Registration Rights Agreement is available from the Company upon requests at the address set forth below. All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the Registration Rights Agreement.

Each beneficial owner of Registrable Securities is entitled to the benefits of the Registration Rights Agreement. In order to sell or otherwise dispose of any Registrable Securities pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement, a beneficial owner of Registrable Securities generally will be required to be named as a selling securityholder in the related prospectus, deliver a prospectus to purchasers of Registrable Securities and be bound by those provisions of the Registration Rights Agreement applicable to such beneficial owner (including certain indemnification provisions, as described below). Beneficial owners that do not complete this Notice and Questionnaire and deliver it to the Company as provided below will not be named as selling securityholders in the prospectus and therefore will not be permitted to sell any Registrable Securities pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement. Beneficial owners are encouraged to complete and deliver this Notice and Questionnaire prior to the effectiveness of the Shelf Registration Statement so that such beneficial owners may be named as selling securityholders in the related prospectus at the time of effectiveness. Upon receipt of a completed Notice and Questionnaire from a beneficial owner following the effectiveness of the Shelf Registration Statement, the Company will, as promptly as practicable but in any event within five business days of such receipt, file such amendments to the Shelf Registration Statement or supplements to the related prospectus as are necessary to permit such holder to deliver such prospectus to purchasers of Registrable Securities. The Company has agreed to pay liquidated damages pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement under certain circumstances as set forth therein.

Certain legal consequences arise from being named as a selling securityholder in the Shelf Registration Statement and the related prospectus. Accordingly, holders and beneficial owners of Registrable Securities are advised to consult their own securities law counsel regarding the consequences of being named or not being named as a selling securityholder in the Shelf Registration Statement and the related prospectus.

NOTICE

The undersigned beneficial owner (the "Selling Securityholder") of Registrable Securities hereby gives notice to the Company of its intention to sell or otherwise dispose of Registrable Securities beneficially owned by it and listed below in Item 3 (unless otherwise specified under Item 3) pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement. The undersigned, by signing and returning this Notice and Questionnaire, understands that it will be bound by the terms and conditions of this Notice and Questionnaire and the Registration Rights Agreement.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the undersigned has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless the Company's directors, the Company's officers who sign the Company Registration Statement, and each person, if any, who controls the Company within the meaning of either Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), from and against certain losses arising in connection with statements concerning the undersigned made in the Company's Registration Statement or the related prospectus in reliance upon the information provided in this Notice and Questionnaire.

6. Plan of Distribution:

Except as set forth below, the undersigned (including its donees or pledgees) intends to distribute the Registrable Securities listed above in Item (3) pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement only as follows (if at all): Such Registrable Securities may be sold from time to time directly by the undersigned or, alternatively, through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents. If the Registrable Securities are sold through underwriters or broker-dealers, the Selling Securityholder will be responsible for underwriting discounts or commissions or agent's commissions. Such Registrable Securities may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices. Such sales may be effected in transactions (which may involve crosses or block transactions) (i) on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the Registrable Securities may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, (ii) in the over-the-counter market, (iii) in transactions otherwise than on such exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market, or (iv) through the writing of options. In connection with sales of the Registrable Securities or otherwise, the undersigned may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, which may in turn engage in short sales of the Registrable Securities in the course of hedging in positions they assume. The undersigned may also sell Registrable Securities short and deliver Registrable Securities to close out short positions, or loan or pledge Registrable Securities to broker-dealers that in turn may sell such securities.

State any exceptions here: _____

Note: In no event will such method(s) of distribution take the form of an underwritten offering of the Registrable Securities without the prior agreement of the Company.

The undersigned acknowledges that it understands its obligation to comply with the provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules thereunder relating to stock manipulation, particularly Regulation M thereunder (or any successor rules or regulations), in connection with any offering of Registrable Securities pursuant to the Shelf Registration Agreement. The undersigned agrees that neither it nor any person acting on its behalf will engage in any transaction in violation of such provisions.

The Selling Securityholder hereby acknowledges its obligations under the Registrable Rights Agreement to indemnify and hold harmless certain persons as set forth herein.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company has agreed under certain circumstances to indemnify the Selling Securityholder against certain liabilities.

In accordance with the undersigned's obligation under the Registration Rights Agreement to provide such information as may be required by law for inclusion in the Shelf Registration Statement, the undersigned agrees to promptly notify the Company of any inaccuracies or changes in the information provided herein that may occur subsequent to the date hereof at any time while the Shelf Registration Statement remains effective. All notices hereunder and pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement shall be made in writing at the address set forth below.

By signing below, the undersigned consents to the disclosure of the information contained herein in its answers to Items (1) through (6) above and the inclusion of such information in the Shelf Registration Statement and the related prospectus. The undersigned understands that such information will be relied upon by the Company in connection with the preparation or amendment of the Shelf Registration Statement and the related prospectus.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, by authority duly given, has caused this Notice and Questionnaire to be executed and delivered either in person or by its duly authorized agent.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sunbeam States that First Quarter Revenues
May Be Lower than Street Estimates

Delray Beach, Florida; March 19, 1998 - - Sunbeam Corporation

(NYSE: SOC) said today that it is possible that its net sales for the first quarter of 1998 may be lower than the range of Wall Street analysts' estimates of $285 million to $295 million, but net sales are expected to exceed 1997 first quarter net sales of $253.4 million. The Company stressed that sales of its products at retail remains very strong. The shortfall from analysts' estimates, if any, would be due to changes in inventory management and order patterns at certain of the Company's major retail customers. The Company further stated that based on the strength of its new product offerings and powerful brand names, it remains highly confident about the overall sales outlook for its products for the entire year.

Sunbeam Corporation is a leading consumer products company that designs, manufactures and markets, nationally and internationally, a diverse portfolio of brand name products. The Company's Sunbeam® and Oster® brands have been household names for generations, both domestically and abroad, and the Company is a market leader in many of its product categories.

Cautionary Statements - Statements contained in this press release, including statements relating to the Company's expectations regarding anticipated performance in the future, are "forward looking statements," as such term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Actual results could differ materially from the Company's statements in this release regarding its expectations, goals, or projected results, due to various factors, including those set forth in the Company's Cautionary Statements contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1997 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT, dated as of August 12, 1998, by and between Sunbeam Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Sunbeam" or the "Company"), and Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Coleman Parent").

For the purposes of this Agreement, Sunbeam, together with each direct or indirect parent, subsidiary, division, or affiliated corporation or entity, and each employee, agent, attorney, representative, administrator, executor, receiver, officer, director, or stockholder of any such corporation or entity, and any other person, firm, corporation or entity now or hereafter affiliated in any manner with any of them or claiming through or in the right of any of them and all of their respective predecessors, successors, assigns, heirs, executors and administrators (but excluding for all purposes under this Agreement, Mr. Albert J. Dunlap, former Chief Executive Officer of Sunbeam, Mr. Russell A. Kersh, former Executive Vice President of Sunbeam, Arthur Andersen LLP, Sunbeam's independent auditors, PriceWaterhouseCoopers, consultants to Sunbeam, and any financial advisor to Sunbeam, and each employee, agent, attorney, representative, administrator, executor, receiver, officer, director, or stockholder of any such corporation or entity, and any other person, firm, corporation or entity now or hereafter affiliated in any manner with any of them or claiming through or in the right of any of them and all of their respective predecessors, successors, assigns, heirs, executors and administrators), are collectively hereinafter referred to as the "Sunbeam Group"; and Coleman Parent, together with each direct or indirect parent, subsidiary, division, or affiliated corporation or entity, and each employee, agent, attorney, representative, administrator, executor, receiver, officer, director, or stockholder of any such corporation or entity, and any other person, firm, corporation or entity now or hereafter affiliated in any manner with any of them or claiming through or in the right of any of them and all of their respective predecessors, successors, assigns, heirs, executors and administrators, are collectively hereinafter referred to as the "Coleman Group".

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, CLN Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CLN Holdings"), was the indirect beneficial owner of approximately 82% of the outstanding common stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Coleman Common Stock"), of The Coleman Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Coleman"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 (the "Holdings Merger Agreement"), by and among Sunbeam, Laser Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and, as of such date, a wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam ("Laser Acquisition"), CLN Holdings, as of such date, a wholly owned subsidiary of Coleman Parent, and Coleman Parent, CLN Holdings was merged with and into Laser Acquisition (the "Holdings Merger"), with the surviving corporation becoming an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam, and pursuant to which Coleman Parent received certain shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of Sunbeam ("Sunbeam Common Stock"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 (the "Coleman Merger Agreement"), by and among Sunbeam, Camper Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam ("Camper Acquisition"), and Coleman, Camper Acquisition is to be merged with and into Coleman (the "Coleman Merger"), with the surviving corporation becoming an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the Holdings Merger, Sunbeam acquired an indirect approximately 82% interest in Coleman (the "Coleman Acquisition"); and

WHEREAS, Sunbeam and Coleman Parent are parties to a Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of March 29, 1998 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), pursuant to which Sunbeam agreed to provide certain registration rights to Coleman Parent; and

WHEREAS, following the dismissal by Sunbeam of certain of its executive officers in mid-June 1998, Coleman Parent has made available to Sunbeam certain senior officers employed by members of the Coleman Group to serve as senior executive officers of Sunbeam (the "Senior Executives") and has provided certain other management support to Sunbeam, and Sunbeam desires to continue the service of the Senior Executives and such management support; and

WHEREAS, Coleman Parent and Sunbeam believe it is desirable that Sunbeam put in place as promptly as possible a permanent management team to prevent jeopardizing the ongoing operations and financial viability of Sunbeam; and

WHEREAS, Coleman Parent believes that it possesses legal and equitable claims against Sunbeam arising out of the Coleman Acquisition and out of what it contends were certain breaches of contract and fraudulent and negligent or other misrepresentations and omissions made to Coleman Parent and its representatives in connection therewith (the "Claims"), and Sunbeam disputes such Claims; and

WHEREAS, there are also now pending or may be filed putative class actions in which Sunbeam is named as a defendant and in which Coleman Parent is a class member (the "Class Actions"), and Sunbeam denies liability with respect to and intends to contest the claims that have been asserted in the Class Actions; and

WHEREAS, the accountants who audited Sunbeam's 1997 financial statements, assisted by another firm of accountants, are in the process of reviewing those financial statements, and believe, as has been publicly announced, that it will be necessary to restate those financial statements by reflecting a variety of adjustments the magnitude of which has not yet been determined; and

WHEREAS, Sunbeam and Coleman Parent desire to terminate the disputes between them, and desire to assure one another that Coleman Parent will not prosecute the Claims or any related or potential claims arising out of or relating to the Coleman Acquisition, directly or indirectly in any capacity, against the Sunbeam Group, so as to avoid the substantial burdens and expense of litigation and the interference with the business and operations of Sunbeam and with the work of its management and employees and to obtain the continued services of certain executives and employees of the Coleman Group, and in accordance with the terms and provisions hereof, that Coleman Parent and Sunbeam each forever release, waive and discharge any and all manner of actions, causes of action, proceedings, suits, claims, demands, liens, debts, accounts, obligations, rights, costs, contracts, agreements, promises, controversies, judgments, expenses, demands, damages and liabilities, of any nature whatsoever, in law or in equity, whether or not now foreseen, known, suspected, matured, accrued or claimed, and whether or not asserted in litigation, including court costs and attorneys' fees (each an "Action and Liability" and collectively, "Actions and Liabilities"), which any member of the Coleman Group controlling, controlled by or under common control with Coleman Parent (such persons, together with Coleman Parent, the "Coleman Controlled Group") may have against any member of the Sunbeam Group and which any member of the Sunbeam Group controlled by Sunbeam (such persons, together with Sunbeam, the "Sunbeam Controlled Group") may have against any member of the Coleman Group as of the effective date hereof or prior thereto in any manner arising out of or relating to the Coleman Acquisition, irrespective of any present lack of knowledge on the part of either of them of any such possible Action and Liability, but excluding any claim for breach of this Agreement or the agreements and documents entered into or delivered pursuant hereto;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the respective covenants, agreements and conditions hereinafter set forth and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, and intending to be bound hereby, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Issuance of Warrants; Closing.

(a) On the basis of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements and subject to the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted) of the applicable conditions expressly set forth herein, at the closing of the transactions contemplated by this Section 1 (the "Closing"):

(i) Sunbeam shall issue to Coleman Parent certain warrants to purchase shares of Sunbeam Common Stock (the "Warrants") by duly executing and delivering to Coleman Parent a Warrant Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit A hereto (the "Warrant Agreement");

(ii) Sunbeam and Coleman Parent shall enter into an amendment to the Registration Rights Agreement, in the form attached as Exhibit B hereto (as so amended, the "Amended Registration Rights Agreement");

(iii) Sunbeam and Coleman Parent agree to be bound by the releases and covenants set forth in Section 2 of this Agreement;

(iv) Coleman Parent agrees to supply management services of the Senior Executives, and to the covenants and provisions of Section 3 of this Agreement; and

(v) Sunbeam and Coleman Parent agree to be bound by the provisions regarding the restrictions on transfer on the shares of Sunbeam Common Stock received by Coleman Parent in the Holdings Merger and the Warrants set forth in Section 4 of this Agreement.

(b) The Closing shall take place on the first day when all conditions thereto set forth herein shall be satisfied or waived or such other date as Sunbeam and Coleman Parent may agree in writing (the "Closing Date"), but in no event sooner than the tenth day following the mailing of the letter to Sunbeam shareholders contemplated by Section 7. The Closing shall take place on the Closing Date at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, at the offices of Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, 51 West 52nd Street, New York, New York and shall be deemed effective as of the opening of business on the Closing Date.

(c) At the Closing, Sunbeam shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Coleman Parent, in addition to the Warrant Agreement, such other instruments or documents as Coleman Parent may reasonably request.

2. Granting of Releases and Indemnification.

(a) At the Closing, simultaneously with receipt by Coleman Parent of the Warrants, and without any further action by any of the parties hereto, each of the following shall be fully and legally effective:

(i) Coleman Parent shall, on behalf of itself and on behalf of each other member of the Coleman Controlled Group, remise, release and forever discharge the Sunbeam Group of and from all debts, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, accounts, covenants, contracts, agreements, damages, and any and all claims, demands and liabilities whatsoever of every name and nature, both in law and in equity, against any of the Sunbeam Group or any of their predecessors, successors or assigns, which Coleman Parent or any other member of the Coleman Controlled Group has or ever had from the beginning of the world to the Closing with respect to or arising out of the Coleman Acquisition or any alleged misrepresentations and omissions and/or breach of contract by any member of the Sunbeam Group and parties acting on behalf of any member of the Sunbeam Group in connection with the Coleman Acquisition, including with respect to the Actions and Liabilities; provided that neither the foregoing release nor the dismissals or withdrawals described in this Section 2(a) shall apply to the rights of Coleman Parent and any other member of the Coleman Controlled Group under Article IX of the Holdings Merger Agreement, any breach or failure to comply with this Agreement, the Warrant, the Amended Registration Rights Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the transactions contemplated by the Coleman Merger Agreement (including the Coleman Merger), which shall not be terminated or amended in any respect hereby, or shall otherwise affect Coleman Parent's right to enforce this Agreement, the Warrant or the Amended Registration Rights Agreement in accordance with its or their terms.

(ii) In the event any member of the Coleman Controlled Group pursues a claim against any person(s) not released hereby involving the matters that are the subject of the release set forth in Section 2(a)(i) and it is finally judicially determined that such person(s) are entitled directly or indirectly to indemnification or contribution from any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group for any amounts they are required to pay to any member of the Coleman Controlled Group in connection with such claims, or to reimbursement of litigation expenses solely attributable to such claims of any member of the Coleman

Controlled Group (each a "Sunbeam Group Indemnification Obligation"), Coleman Parent will indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group against such Sunbeam Group Indemnification Obligation. No member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group will enter into any settlement of a Sunbeam Group Indemnification Obligation without the prior written consent of Coleman Parent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any amounts so paid by a member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group in a settlement so consented to by Coleman Parent shall be treated for purposes hereof as a Sunbeam Group Indemnification Obligation.

(iii) Sunbeam, on behalf of itself and on behalf of each other member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group, shall remise, release and forever discharge the Coleman Group of and from all debts, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, accounts, covenants, contracts, agreements, damages, and any and all claims, demands and liabilities whatsoever of every name and nature, both in law and in equity, against any of the Coleman Group or any of their predecessors, successors or assigns, which Sunbeam or any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group has or ever had from the beginning of the world to the Closing with respect to or arising out of the Coleman Acquisition or any alleged misrepresentations and omissions and/or breach of contract by any member of the Coleman Group and parties acting on behalf of any member of the Coleman Group in connection with the Coleman Acquisition, including with respect to the Actions and Liabilities; provided that neither the foregoing release nor the dismissals or withdrawals described in this Section 2(a) shall apply to the rights of Sunbeam and any other member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group under Article IX of the Holdings Merger Agreement, any breach or failure to comply with this Agreement, the Warrant, the Amended Registration Rights Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the transactions contemplated by the Coleman Merger Agreement (including the Coleman Merger), which shall not be terminated or amended in any respect hereby, or shall otherwise affect Sunbeam's right to enforce this Agreement, the Warrant or the Amended Registration Rights Agreement in accordance with its or their terms.

(iv) In the event any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group pursues a claim against any person(s) not released hereby involving the matters that are the subject of the release set forth in Section 2(a)(iii) and it is finally judicially determined that such person(s) are entitled directly or indirectly to indemnification or contribution from any member of the Coleman Controlled Group for any amounts they are required to pay to any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group in connection with such claims, or to reimbursement of litigation expenses solely attributable to such claims of any member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group, (each, a "Coleman Group Indemnification Obligation"), Sunbeam will indemnify and hold harmless each member of the Coleman Controlled Group against such Coleman Group Indemnification Obligation. No member of the Coleman Controlled Group will enter into any settlement of a Coleman Group Indemnification Obligation without the prior written consent of Sunbeam, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Any amounts so paid by a member of the Coleman Controlled Group in a settlement so consented to by Sunbeam shall be treated for purposes hereof as a Coleman Group Indemnification Obligation.

(v) Sunbeam, on behalf of itself, and on behalf of each other member of the Sunbeam Controlled Group, and Coleman Parent, on behalf of itself and on behalf of each other member of the Coleman Controlled Group, agree to indemnify and hold harmless one another from and against any and all Actions and Liabilities arising from, or in connection with, any action or proceeding, brought by, or prosecuted by, or on the initiative of, either of them, or by any of their predecessors, successors or assigns, contrary to the provisions of this Agreement. It is further agreed that this agreement of indemnity shall be deemed breached and a cause of action shall be deemed to have accrued thereon immediately upon the commencement of any action contrary to this Agreement, and that in any such action this Agreement may be pleaded by either of them as a defense, or either of them may assert this Agreement by way of counterclaim or cross-claim in any such action.

(vi) This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon Sunbeam and Coleman Parent, and to the benefit of and shall be binding upon each person or entity in the Sunbeam Group and the Coleman Group.

(b) Coleman Parent agrees that it shall opt out, as to and only as to any claims against any member of the Sunbeam Group, of any class that may be certified in any of the Class Actions or in any other action that may be certified as a class action with respect to or arising out of any other matter released hereby.

3. Provision of Management Services.

(a) The parties hereto acknowledge that Coleman Parent has caused other members of the Coleman Group to make available to Sunbeam the services of certain employees and Senior Executives and has encouraged such persons to continue to provide services to Sunbeam as employees of Sunbeam.

(b) Coleman Parent agrees that it shall, and it shall use its reasonable efforts to cause the other members of the Coleman Group to, continue to, for a minimum period of 36 months from the date hereof, make available to Sunbeam the services of Coleman Group's employees who are Senior Executives, or who become Senior Executives, for so long as they remain employees of a member of the Coleman Group and otherwise to continue to provide advice and assistance to Sunbeam in connection with the business and operations of Sunbeam consistent with that provided to date; provided, however, that, other than pursuant to the employment arrangements currently in place between such employees and members of the Coleman Group, no member of the Coleman Group shall be required bear any incremental expense with respect to any Senior Executive in order to comply with the foregoing.

(c) Sunbeam agrees to pay the compensation of any such persons who become employees of Sunbeam in accordance with the terms of the employment arrangements entered into by Sunbeam with such persons. This Agreement shall not prevent any of the Senior Executives from continuing to perform services for members of the Coleman Group to the extent that the provision of such services does not materially interfere with the performance of services by the Senior Executive for Sunbeam under his employment arrangements with Sunbeam.

(d) Coleman Parent agrees to use its reasonable efforts to cause the other members of the Coleman Group to continue, for a period of 36 months from the date hereof, to provide assistance and support to Sunbeam on a basis consistent with the manner in which such assistance and support are generally provided to other companies in which members of the Coleman Group have a substantial interest (and without the payment of additional consideration by Sunbeam to Coleman Parent, other than with respect to the reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses paid to third parties) and of a similar nature to those which have been so provided to Sunbeam from time to time from mid-June 1998 through the date hereof, including as to the following matters:

- (i) financings, and dealings with financing sources and the capital markets;
- (ii) investor and public relations;
- (iii) acquisitions, divestitures and other extraordinary transactions;
- (iv) executive benefits and compensation and other personnel matters; and
- (v) compliance, litigation, insurance, regulatory and other legal matters.

4. Restrictions on Transfer of Securities. Coleman Parent hereby agrees not to, directly or indirectly, for a period of three (3) years from the date hereof, Transfer (as such term is defined in Section 7.1 of the Holdings Merger Agreement) (A) any shares of Sunbeam Common Stock received pursuant to the terms of the Holdings Merger Agreement or (B) any of the Warrants or the Warrant Shares (as defined in the Warrant Agreement), in either case in whole or in part, other than to one of its Affiliates (as such term is defined in the Holdings Merger Agreement) who agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this Section 4, except that (A) the holder or holders of such shares of Sunbeam Common Stock may at any time or from time to time Transfer so many of such shares of Sunbeam Common Stock as represent in the aggregate seventy-five percent (75%) of such shares of Sunbeam Common Stock, and (B) the holder or holders of the Warrants or the Warrant Shares may at any time or from time to time Transfer so many of the Warrants or the Warrant Shares as represent in the aggregate fifty (50%) of the Warrant Shares Amount (as defined in the Warrant Agreement). The provisions of this Section 4 shall not be applicable, and Coleman Parent shall be free to Transfer any and all shares of Sunbeam Common Stock, Warrants and Warrant Shares, (i) following any change of control of Sunbeam or (ii) in connection with any transaction in which the holders of all of the outstanding shares of Sunbeam Common Stock have the opportunity to Transfer at least 50% of their shares of Sunbeam Common Stock on the same terms. The provisions of this Section 4 shall supersede any and all other restrictions on Transfer that Coleman Parent or any of its Affiliates may have agreed to with Sunbeam or any of its Affiliates.

5. Representations and Warranties of Sunbeam. Sunbeam hereby represents and warrants to Coleman Parent as follows:

(a) Due Authorization. This Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Sunbeam, and no other corporate actions or proceedings on the part of Sunbeam (including any action on the part of its stockholders) are necessary to authorize this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed by a duly authorized officer of Sunbeam and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Sunbeam enforceable against it in accordance with its terms. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Sunbeam (the "Audit Committee") has expressly approved the transactions contemplated hereby as contemplated by Paragraph 312 ("Paragraph 312") of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") Listed Company Manual and has determined that delay in securing shareholder approval of the transactions contemplated hereby would seriously jeopardize the financial viability of the Company. Upon application duly made by Sunbeam, the NYSE has advised that it has accepted Sunbeam's reliance on the exception to the shareholder approval policy of Paragraph 312 as contained therein in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby (the "Exception").

(b) Due Organization. Sunbeam is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has the requisite corporate power to enter into and perform this Agreement and to carry on its business as it is now being conducted.

(c) No Conflicts. No filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any governmental or regulatory authority is necessary for the consummation by Sunbeam of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than as may be required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act with respect to the exercise of the Warrants. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Sunbeam nor the consummation by Sunbeam of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by Sunbeam with any of the provisions hereof, will (i) conflict with or result in any breach of any provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Sunbeam; (ii) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any material contract or of any material license, franchise, permit, concession, certificate of authority, order, approval, application or registration of, from or with any governmental authority to which Sunbeam is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets may be bound; or (iii) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Sunbeam or any of its properties or assets.

(d) Validity of Warrants and Underlying Shares. At the Closing, the issuance of the Warrants will have been duly authorized and, upon their issuance pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the Warrants will be validly issued and will not be subject to any preemptive or similar right other than the rights and obligations under the Warrant Agreement. All shares of Sunbeam Common Stock to be issued upon the exercise of the Warrants, when issued, will be duly authorized and validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and will not be subject to any preemptive or similar right.

(e) Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of Sunbeam consists of 500,000,000 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock, and 2,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $.01 per share, of Sunbeam. As of the date hereof, (i) 100,860,129 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were issued and outstanding (excluding any shares of Sunbeam Common Stock issued upon the exercise of Sunbeam Stock Options (as defined below) since August 6, 1998); (ii) 7,199,452 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were issuable upon the consummation of the Coleman Merger Agreement; (iii) 13,242,050 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were issuable in accordance with the terms of the Zero Coupon Convertible Senior Subordinated Debentures due 2018 of the Company; and (iv) no shares of Sunbeam preferred stock were issued and outstanding. As of the date hereof, not more than 9,000,000 shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were issuable upon exercise of vested and unvested employee and non-employee stock options (the "Sunbeam Stock Options") outstanding under all stock option plans of Sunbeam or granted pursuant to employment agreements (although Sunbeam is contesting the validity of certain of such Sunbeam Stock Options). As of the date hereof, no shares of Sunbeam Common Stock were held as treasury shares. All of the issued and outstanding shares of Sunbeam Common Stock are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and free of preemptive rights. As of the date hereof, except as set forth above, there are no shares of capital stock of Sunbeam issued or outstanding or, except as set forth above, any options, warrants, subscriptions, calls, rights, convertible securities or other agreements or commitments obligating Sunbeam to issue, transfer, sell, redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock or securities, or the capital stock or securities of Sunbeam. There are no notes, bonds, debentures or other indebtedness of Sunbeam having the right to vote (or convertible into or exchangeable for securities having the right to vote) on any matters upon which stockholders of Sunbeam may vote.

(f) Brokers. Other than Blackstone Financial Group, which has acted as financial advisor to the Special Committee of the Sunbeam Board, no broker, investment banker or other person is entitled to any broker's, finder's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Sunbeam or any member of the Sunbeam Group.

6. Representations and Warranties of Coleman Parent. Coleman Parent hereby represents and warrants to Sunbeam as follows:

(a) Due Authorization. This Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Coleman Parent, and no other corporate actions or proceedings on the part of the Coleman Parent (including any action on the part of its stockholders) are necessary to authorize this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed by a duly authorized officer of Coleman Parent and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Coleman Parent enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

(b) Due Organization. Coleman Parent is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of State of Delaware and has the requisite corporate power to enter into and perform this Agreement.

(c) No Conflicts. No filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any governmental or regulatory authority is necessary for the consummation by Coleman Parent of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than as may be required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act with respect to the exercise of the Warrants. Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Coleman Parent nor the consummation by Coleman Parent of the transactions contemplated hereby, nor compliance by Coleman Parent with any of the provisions hereof, will (i) conflict with or result in any breach of any provisions of the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Coleman Parent; (ii) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration) under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any material contract or of any material license, franchise, permit, concession, certificate of authority, order, approval, application or registration of, from or with any governmental authority to which Coleman Parent is a party or by which it or any of its properties or assets may be bound; or (iii) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Coleman Parent or any of its properties or assets.

(d) Acquisition of Warrants for Investment. Coleman Parent is acquiring the Warrants (and will acquire any Warrant Shares upon exercise of the Warrants) for its own account for investment purposes only and not with a view toward or for a sale in connection with, any distribution thereof, or with any present intention of distributing or selling any of such in violation of federal or state securities laws.

(e) Brokers. No broker, investment banker or other person is entitled to any broker's, finder's or other similar fee or commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Coleman Parent or any member of the Coleman Group.

7. Covenants.

(a) Within one day following the date hereof, Sunbeam shall cause to be mailed to all shareholders of Sunbeam a letter informing them of the transactions contemplated hereby as contemplated and required by Paragraph 312 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual and indicating that the Audit Committee has expressly approved the Exception in light of the Audit Committee's determination that delay in securing shareholder approval of the transactions contemplated hereby would seriously jeopardize the financial viability of the Company and that the NYSE has accepted the Company's reliance on the Exception .

(b) The anti-dilution provisions of the Warrant shall be given retroactive effect to the date hereof.

8. Specific Performance. The parties acknowledge that money damages are an inadequate remedy for breach of this Agreement. Therefore, the parties agree that each of them has the right, in addition to (and not in lieu of) any other right they may have under this Agreement or otherwise, to specific performance of this Agreement in the event of any breach hereof by any other party.

9. Conditions to the Obligations of both Parties. The obligations of each of Sunbeam and Coleman Parent to effect the transactions contemplated hereby shall be conditioned on the non-existence of any order, decree or injunction of a court of competent jurisdiction which restrains the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

10. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing:

(a) by mutual agreement of the Boards of Directors of Coleman

Parent and Sunbeam; or

(b) by Coleman Parent if the Warrants to be issued to Coleman Parent pursuant hereto have not been issued or will not be issued at the Closing or if there has been a material violation or breach by Sunbeam of any agreement, representation or warranty contained in this Agreement which has rendered the satisfaction of any condition to the obligations of Coleman Parent impossible and such violation or breach has not been waived by Coleman Parent; or

(c) by Sunbeam if there has been a material violation or breach by Coleman Parent of any agreement, representation or warranty contained in this Agreement which has rendered the satisfaction of any condition to the obligations of Sunbeam impossible and such violation or breach has not been waived by Sunbeam.

In the event of termination and abandonment of this Agreement by Coleman Parent or Sunbeam or both of them pursuant to the terms of this Section 10, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given to the other party and this Agreement shall terminate and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be abandoned, without further action by any of the parties hereto.

11. Expenses. All costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby will be paid by the party incurring such costs and expenses.

12. Tax Matters. Coleman Parent shall in good faith provide to Sunbeam information concerning the tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), of the transactions contemplated hereby. Sunbeam shall report such transactions for all tax purposes consistent with such information and take no position with any taxing authority inconsistent therewith. Coleman Parent and Sunbeam shall report the Holdings Merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Code Section 368(a) for all tax purposes.

13. Best Efforts. Each of the parties hereto agrees to use its best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all action, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In case at any time after the Closing any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, the proper officers and directors of each corporation which is a party to this Agreement shall take all such necessary action.

14. Parties in Interest; Assignments. This Agreement is binding upon and is solely for the benefit of the parties hereto, the Sunbeam Group and the Coleman Group and their respective successors and legal representatives.

15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the agreements to be entered into and delivered pursuant hereto constitutes the entire agreement between Sunbeam and Coleman Parent with respect to the subject matter hereof, and it is expressly understood and agreed that this Agreement may not be altered, amended, modified, or otherwise changed in any respect or particular whatsoever, except by a writing duly executed by authorized representatives of both Sunbeam and Coleman Parent. No party to this Agreement has relied upon any representation or warranty, written or oral, except as expressly included herein.

16. Amendments. This Agreement may not be modified, amended, altered or supplemented except upon the execution and delivery of a written agreement executed by the parties hereto.

17. Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given (and shall be deemed to have been duly given upon receipt) by delivery in person, by telecopy or other standard form of telecommunication, or by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, addressed as follows:

18. Governing Law; Forum.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its conflict of law rules.

(b) The parties hereto irrevocably and unconditionally consent to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and/or of the United States of America located in the State of Delaware for any actions, suits or proceedings out of or relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

19. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together shall constitute but one agreement.

20. Effect of Headings. The descriptive headings contained herein are for convenience only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

21. Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to an Article or Section, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation". The words "hereof", "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. References to a person are also to its permitted successors and assigns and, in the case of an individual, to his heirs and estate, as applicable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be duly executed on the day and year first above written.

EXHIBIT A

SUNBEAM CORPORATION
WARRANT FOR THE PURCHASE OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK OF SUNBEAM CORPORATION

ISSUE DATE: AUGUST__, 1998

WARRANT NO. W-1

23,000,000 WARRANT SHARES

THIS WARRANT AND THE SHARES OF COMMON STOCK PURCHASEABLE HEREUNDER HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR UNDER THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OR OTHER JURISDICTION AND MAY NOT BE SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED OR DISPOSED OF UNLESS REGISTERED OR QUALIFIED UNDER SAID ACT AND APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS OR UNLESS SUCH REGISTRATION, QUALIFICATION OR OTHER SUCH ACTIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED UNDER ANY SUCH LAWS.

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, SUNBEAM CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), hereby certifies that Coleman (Parent) Holdings Inc., its successor or permitted assigns (the "Holder"), is entitled, subject to the provisions of this Warrant, to purchase from the Company, at the times specified herein, a number of the fully paid and non-assessable shares of Common Stock of the Company, par value $.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), equal to the Warrant Share Amount (as hereinafter defined) at a purchase price per share equal to the Exercise Price (as hereinafter defined).

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS. (a) The following terms, as used herein, have the following meanings:

"AFFILIATE" shall have the meaning given to such term in Rule 12b-2 promulgated under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

"BUSINESS DAY" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in The City of New York are authorized by law to close.

"CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION" means the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company.

"CLOSING PRICE" on any day means (1) if the shares of Common Stock then are listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. ("NYSE"), the Closing Price on such day as reported on the NYSE Composite Transactions Tape; (2) if shares of Common Stock then are not listed and traded on the NYSE, the Closing Price on such day as reported by the principal national securities exchange on which the shares of Common Stock are listed and traded; (3) if the shares of Common Stock then are not listed and traded on any such securities exchange, the last reported sale price on such day on the National Market of The National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotation System ("NASDAQ"); or (4) if the shares of Common Stock then are not traded on the NASDAQ National Market, the average of the highest reported bid and the lowest reported asked price on such day as reported by NASDAQ.

"COMMON SHARE EQUIVALENT" means, with respect to any security of the Company and as of a given date, a number which is, (i) in the case of a share of Common Stock, one, (ii) in the case of all or a portion of any right, warrant or other security which may be exercised for a share or shares of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock receivable upon exercise of such security (or such portion of such security), and (iii) in the case of any security convertible or exchangeable into a share or shares of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock that would be received if such security were converted or exchanged on such date.

"COMMON STOCK" shall have the meaning set forth in the first paragraph hereof.

"COMPANY" shall have the meaning set forth in the first paragraph hereof.

"CONVERTIBLE SECURITIES" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 7(d).

"DETERMINATION DATE" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 7(f).

"EXERCISE PRICE" means a price per Warrant Share equal to $7.00.

"EXPIRATION DATE" means 5:00 p.m. New York City time on August __, 2003 [the fifth anniversary of the date of this Warrant].

"FAIR MARKET VALUE" as at any date of determination means, as to shares of the Common Stock, if the Common Stock is publicly traded at such time, the average of the daily Closing Prices of a share of Common Stock for the ten (10) consecutive trading days ending on the most recent trading day prior to the date of determination. If the shares of Common Stock are not publicly traded at such time, and as to all things other than the Common Stock, Fair Market Value shall be determined in good faith by an independent nationally recognized investment banking firm selected by the Company and acceptable to a majority of the Holders and which shall have no other substantial relationship with the Company.

"HOLDER" shall have the meaning set forth in the first paragraph hereof.

"OPTIONS" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 7(d).

"PERSON" means an individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, trust, joint stock company, association, joint venture, or any other entity or organization, including a government or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof.

"SECURITIES ACT" means the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

"SUBSIDIARY" means, with respect to any Person, any corporation or other entity of which a majority of the capital stock or other ownership interests having ordinary voting power to elect a majority of the board of directors or other persons performing similar functions are at the time directly or indirectly owned by such Person.

"WARRANT SHARE AMOUNT" means 23,000,000 (Twenty Three Million) shares of Common Stock as such number may be adjusted pursuant to Sections 7 and 8.

"WARRANT SHARES" means the shares of Common Stock deliverable upon exercise of this Warrant, as adjusted from time to time.

SECTION 2. EXERCISE OF WARRANT. (a) The Holder is entitled to exercise this Warrant in whole or in part at any time, or from time to time, until the Expiration Date or, if such day is not a Business Day, then on the next succeeding day that shall be a Business Day. To exercise this Warrant, the Holder shall deliver to the Company this Warrant, including the Warrant Exercise Subscription Form forming a part hereof duly executed by the Holder, together with payment of the applicable Exercise Price. Upon such delivery and payment, the Holder shall be deemed to be the holder of record of the number of Warrant Shares equal to the Warrant Share Amount

(or, in the case of a partial exercise of this Warrant, a ratable number of such shares), notwithstanding that the stock transfer books of the Company shall then be closed or that certificates representing such shares shall not then be actually delivered to the Holder.

(b) At the option of the Holder, the Exercise Price may be paid in cash (including by wire transfer of immediately available funds) or by certified or official bank check or bank cashier's check payable to the order of the Company or by any combination of such cash or check. At the option of the Holder, the Exercise Price may in the alternative be paid in whole or in part by reducing the number of shares of Common Stock issuable to the Holder by a number of shares of Common Stock that have a Fair Market Value equal to the Exercise Price which otherwise would have been paid (so that the net number of shares of Common Stock issued in respect of such exercise shall equal the number of shares of Common Stock that would have been issuable had the Exercise Price been paid entirely in cash, less a number of shares of Common Stock with a Fair Market Value equal to the portion of the Exercise Price paid in kind); provided that this option shall be available only with respect to the exercise of this Warrant with respect to not more than one-half of the total number of Warrant Shares. The Company shall pay any and all documentary, or similar issue or transfer taxes payable in respect of the issue or delivery of the Warrant Shares. The Company shall not, however, be required to pay any transfer tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue or delivery of Warrants or Warrant Shares (or other securities or assets) in a name other than that in which the Warrants so exercised were registered, and no such issue or delivery shall be made unless and until the person requesting such issue has paid to the Company the amount of such transfer tax or has established, to the satisfaction of the Company, that such transfer tax has been paid.

(c) If the Holder exercises this Warrant in part, this Warrant shall be surrendered by the Holder to the Company and a new Warrant of the same tenor and for the unexercised number of Warrant Shares shall be executed by the Company. The Company shall register the new Warrant in the name of the Holder or in such name or names of its transferee pursuant to Section 6 as may be directed in writing by the Holder and deliver the new Warrant to the Person or Persons entitled to receive the same.

(d) Upon surrender of this Warrant in conformity with the foregoing provisions, the Company shall, subject to the expiration of any applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act, transfer to the Holder of this Warrant appropriate evidence of ownership of the shares of Common Stock or other securities or property (including any money) to which the Holder is entitled, registered or otherwise placed in, or payable to the order of, the name or names of the Holder or such transferee as may be directed in writing by the Holder, and shall deliver such evidence of ownership and any other securities or property (including any money) to the Person or Persons entitled to receive the same, together with an amount in cash in lieu of any fraction of a share as provided in Section 5, subject to any required withholding.

SECTION 3. RESTRICTIVE LEGEND. Each certificate representing shares of Common Stock issued pursuant to this Warrant, unless at the time of exercise such shares are registered under the Securities Act, shall bear a legend substantially in the form of the legend set forth on the first page of this Warrant.

SECTION 4. RESERVATION OF SHARES. The Company hereby agrees that at all times there shall be reserved for issuance and delivery upon exercise of this Warrant such number of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company from time to time issuable upon exercise of this Warrant as will be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of this Warrant. The Company hereby represents and agrees that all such shares shall be duly authorized and, when issued upon such exercise, shall be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, free and clear of all liens, security interests, charges and other encumbrances or restrictions on sale and free and clear of all preemptive or similar rights, except to the extent imposed by or as a result of the status, act or omission of, the Holder.

SECTION 5. FRACTIONAL SHARES. No fractional shares or scrip representing fractional shares shall be issued upon the exercise of this Warrant and in lieu of delivery of any such fractional share upon any exercise hereof, the Company shall pay to the Holder an amount in cash equal to such fraction multiplied by the Fair Market Value thereof; provided, however, that, in the event that the Company combines or reclassifies the outstanding shares of its Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, it shall be required to issue fractional shares to the Holder if the Holder exercises all or any part of its Warrants, unless the Holder has consented in writing to such reduction and provided the Company with a written waiver of its right to receive fractional shares in accordance with this Section 5.

SECTION 6. TRANSFER, EXCHANGE OR ASSIGNMENT OF WARRANT. (a) Each taker and holder of this Warrant by taking or holding the same, consents and agrees that the registered holder hereof may be treated by the Company and all other persons dealing with this Warrant as the absolute owner hereof for any purpose and as the person entitled to exercise the rights represented hereby.

(b) Subject to the requirements of state and federal securities laws, the Holder of this Warrant shall be entitled, without obtaining the consent of the Company to assign and transfer this Warrant, at any time in whole or from time to time in part, to any Person or Persons. Subject to the preceding sentence, upon surrender of this Warrant to the Company, together with the attached Warrant Assignment Form duly executed, the Company shall, without charge, execute and deliver a new Warrant in the name of the assignee or assignees named in such instrument of assignment and, if the Holder's entire interest is not being assigned, in the name of the Holder and this Warrant shall promptly be canceled.

(c) Upon receipt by the Company of evidence satisfactory to it (in the exercise of its reasonable discretion) of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of this Warrant, and (in the case of loss, theft or destruction) of indemnification or security reasonably required by the Company, and upon surrender and cancellation of this Warrant, if mutilated, the Company shall execute and deliver a new Warrant of like tenor and date.

(d) The Company shall pay all expenses, taxes (other than transfer taxes) and other charges payable in connection with the preparation, issuance and delivery of Warrants hereunder.

SECTION 7. ANTI-DILUTION PROVISIONS. So long as any Warrants are outstanding, the Warrant Share Amount shall be subject to change or adjustment as follows:

(a) Common Stock Dividends, Subdivisions, Combinations. In case the Company shall (i) pay or make a dividend or other distribution to all holders of its Common Stock in shares of Common Stock, (ii) subdivide or split the outstanding shares of its Common Stock into a larger number of shares, or (iii) combine the outstanding shares of its Common Stock into a smaller number of shares (which shall not in any event be done without the express written approval of Holders of a majority of the outstanding Warrants), then in each such case the Warrant Share Amount shall be adjusted to equal the number of such shares to which the holder of this Warrant would have been entitled upon the occurrence of such event had this Warrant been exercised immediately prior to the happening of such event or, in the case of a stock dividend or other distribution, prior to the record date for determination of shareholders entitled thereto. An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(a) shall become effective immediately after the effective date of such event retroactive to the record date, if any, for such event.

(b) Reorganization or Reclassification. In case of any capital reorganization or any reclassification of the capital stock of the Company (whether pursuant to a merger or consolidation or otherwise), or in the event of any similar transaction, this Warrant shall thereafter be exercisable for the number of shares of stock or other securities or property receivable upon such capital reorganization or reclassification of capital stock or other transaction, as the case may be, by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock into which this Warrant was exercisable immediately prior to such capital reorganization or reclassification of capital stock; and, in any case, appropriate adjustment (as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company) shall be made for the application of the provisions herein set forth with respect to the rights and interests thereafter of the Holder of this Warrant to the end that the provisions set forth herein shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as reasonably practicable, in relation to any shares of stock or other securities or property thereafter deliverable upon the exercise of this Warrant. An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(b) shall become effective immediately after the effective date of such event retroactive to the record date, if any, for such event.

(c) Distributions of Assets or Securities Other than Common Stock. In case the Company shall, by dividend or otherwise, distribute to all holders of its Common Stock shares of any class of its capital stock (other than Common Stock), or other debt or equity securities or evidences of indebtedness of the Company, or options, rights or warrants to purchase any of such securities, cash or other assets, then in each such case the Warrant Share Amount shall be adjusted by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to the date of such dividend or distribution by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the Fair Market Value per share of Common Stock at the record date for determining shareholders entitled to such dividend or distribution, and of which the denominator shall be such Fair Market Value per share less the Fair Market Value of the portion of the securities, cash, other assets or evidences of indebtedness so distributed applicable to one share of Common Stock. An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(c) shall become effective immediately after the effective date of such event retroactive to the record date, if any, for such event.

(d) Below Market Issuances of Common Stock and Convertible Securities. In case the Company shall issue Common Stock (or options, rights or warrants to purchase shares of Common Stock (collectively, "Options") or other securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for shares of Common Stock (such other securities, collectively, "Convertible Securities")) at a price per share (or having an effective exercise, exchange or conversion price per share together with the purchase price thereof) less than the Fair Market Value per share of

Common Stock on the date such Common Stock (or Options or Convertible Securities), is sold or issued (provided that no sale of securities pursuant to an underwritten public offering shall be deemed to be for less than Fair Market Value), then in each such case the Warrant Share Amount shall thereafter be adjusted by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to the date of issuance of such Common Stock (or Options or Convertible Securities) by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be (x) the sum of (i) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such issuance and (ii) the number of additional Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities so issued multiplied by (y) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to the date of such issuance, and the denominator of which shall be (x) the product of (A) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to the date of such issuance and (B) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such issuance plus (y) the aggregate consideration received by the Company for the total number of securities so issued plus, (z) in the case of Options or Convertible Securities, the additional consideration required to be received by the Company upon the exercise, exchange or conversion of such securities; provided that no adjustment shall be required in respect of issuances of Common Stock (or options to purchase Common Stock) pursuant to stock option or other employee benefit plans in effect on the date hereof, or approved by the Board of Directors of the Company after the date hereof. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (1) no further adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made upon the issuance or sale of Common Stock pursuant to (x) the exercise of any Options or (y) the conversion or exchange of any Convertible Securities, if in each case the adjustment in the Warrant Share Amount was made as required hereby upon the issuance or sale of such Options or Convertible Securities or no adjustment was required hereby at the time such Option or Convertible Security was issued, and (2) no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made upon the issuance or sale of Common Stock upon the exercise of any Options existing on the original issue date hereof, without regard to the exercise price thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made pursuant to this paragraph upon the issuance or sale of Common Stock, Options, or Convertible Securities in a bona fide arm's-length transaction to any Person or group that, at the time of such issuance or sale, is not an Affiliate of the Company (including any possible issuance of Common Stock, Options, or Convertible Securities to the public stockholders of The Coleman Company, Inc. ("Coleman") in connection with the acquisition of their shares of Coleman common stock pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 27, 1998 (the "Coleman Merger Agreement"), by and among Sunbeam, Camper Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam, and Coleman, or otherwise). An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(d) shall become effective immediately after such Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities are sold.

(e) Below Market Distributions or Issuances of Preferred Stock or Other Securities. In case the Company shall issue non-convertible and non-exchangeable preferred stock (or other debt or equity securities or evidences of indebtedness of the Company (other than Common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) or options, rights or warrants to purchase any of such securities) at a price per share (or other similar unit) less than the Fair Market Value per share (or other similar unit) of such preferred stock (or other security) on the date such preferred stock (or other security) is sold (provided that no sale of preferred stock or other security pursuant to an underwritten public offering shall be deemed to be for less than its fair market value), then in each such case the Warrant Share Amount shall thereafter be adjusted by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to the date of issuance of such preferred stock (or other security) by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the product of (i) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such issuance and (ii) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to the date of such issuance, and the denominator of which shall be (x) the product of (A) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such issuance and (B) the Fair Market Value of a share of the Common Stock immediately prior to the date of such issuance minus (y) the difference between (1) the aggregate Fair Market Value of such preferred stock (or other security) and (2) the aggregate consideration received by the Company for such preferred stock (or other security). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made pursuant to this paragraph upon the issuance or sale of preferred stock (or other securities of the Company other than common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) in a bona fide arm's-length transaction to any Person or group that, at the time of such issuance or sale, is not an Affiliate of the Company (including any possible issuance of preferred stock (or other securities of the Company other than common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) to the public stockholders of Coleman in connection with the acquisition of their shares of Coleman common stock pursuant to the Coleman Merger Agreement, or otherwise). An adjustment made pursuant to this Section 7(e) shall become effective immediately after such preferred stock (or other security) is sold.

(f) Above Market Repurchases of Common Stock. If at any time or from time to time the Company or any Subsidiary thereof shall repurchase, by self-tender offer or otherwise, any shares of Common Stock of the Company (or any Options or Convertible Securities) at a purchase price in excess of the Fair Market Value thereof, on the Business Day immediately prior to the earliest of (i) the date of such repurchase, (ii) the commencement of an offer to repurchase, or (iii) the public announcement of either (such date being referred to as the "Determination Date"), the Warrant Share Amount shall be determined by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to such Determination Date by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the product of (1) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such Determination Date minus the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by the securities repurchased or to be purchased by the Company or any Subsidiary thereof in such repurchase and (2) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Determination Date, and the denominator of which shall be (x) the product of (A) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to the Determination Date and (B) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Determination Date minus (y) the sum of (1) the aggregate consideration paid by the Company in connection with such repurchase and (2) in the case of Options or Convertible Securities, the additional consideration required to be received by the Company upon the exercise, exchange or conversion of such securities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made pursuant to this paragraph upon the repurchase, by self-tender offer or otherwise, of Common Stock (or any Options or Convertible Security) in a bona fide arm's-length transaction from any Person or group that, at the time of such repurchase, is not an Affiliate of the Company.

(g) Above Market Repurchases of Preferred Stock or Other Securities. If at any time or from time to time the Company or any Subsidiary thereof shall repurchase, by self-tender offer or otherwise, any shares of non-convertible and non-exchangeable preferred stock (or other debt or equity securities or evidences of indebtedness of the Company (other than Common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) or options, rights or warrants to purchase any of such securities), at a purchase price in excess of the Fair Market Value thereof, on the Business Day immediately prior to the Determination Date, the Warrant Share Amount shall be determined by multiplying the Warrant Share Amount immediately prior to the Determination Date by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the product of (i) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such Determination Date and (ii) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Determination Date, and the denominator of which shall be (x) the product of (A) the number of Common Share Equivalents represented by all securities outstanding immediately prior to such Determination Date and (B) the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock immediately prior to such Determination Date minus (y) the difference between (1) the aggregate consideration paid by the Company in connection with such repurchase and (2) the aggregate Fair Market Value of such preferred stock (or other security). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no adjustment to the Warrant Share Amount shall be made pursuant to this paragraph upon the repurchase, by self-tender offer or otherwise, of non-convertible and non-exchangeable preferred stock (or other securities of the Company other than Common Stock or Options or Convertible Securities) in a bona fide arm's-length transaction from any Person or group that, at the time of such repurchase, is not an Affiliate of the Company.

(h) Readjustment of Warrant Share Amount. If (i) the purchase price provided for in any Option or the additional consideration, if any, payable upon the conversion or exchange of any Convertible Securities or the rate at which any Convertible Securities, in each case as referred to in paragraphs (b) and (f) above, are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock shall change at any time (other than under or by reason of provisions designed to protect against dilution upon an event which results in a related adjustment pursuant to this Section 7), or (ii) any of such Options or Convertible Securities shall have irrevocably terminated, lapsed or expired, the Warrant Share Amount then in effect shall forthwith be readjusted (effective only with respect to any exercise of this Warrant after such readjustment) to the Warrant Share Amount which would then be in effect had the adjustment made upon the issuance, sale, distribution or grant of such Options or Convertible Securities been made based upon such changed purchase price, additional consideration or conversion rate, as the case may be (in the case of any event referred to in clause (i) of this paragraph (h)) or had such adjustment not been made (in the case of any event referred to in clause (ii) of this paragraph (h)).

(i) Exercise Price Adjustment. Upon each adjustment of the Warrant Share Amount pursuant to this Section 7, the Exercise Price of each Warrant outstanding immediately prior to such adjustment shall thereafter be equal to an adjusted Exercise Price per Share determined (to the nearest cent) by multiplying the Exercise Price for the Warrant immediately prior to such adjustment by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Warrant Share Amount in effect immediately prior to such adjustment and the denominator of which shall be the Warrant Share Amount in effect immediately after such adjustment.

(j) Consideration. If any shares of Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities shall be issued, sold or distributed for cash, the consideration received in respect thereof shall be deemed to be the amount received by the Company therefor, before deduction therefrom of any reasonable, customary and adequately documented expenses incurred in connection therewith. If any shares of Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities shall be issued, sold or distributed for a consideration other than cash, the amount of the consideration other than cash received by the Company shall be deemed to be the Fair Market Value of such consideration, before deduction of any reasonable, customary and adequately documented expenses incurred in connection therewith. If any shares of Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities shall be issued in connection with any merger in which the Company is the surviving corporation, the amount of consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Market Value of such portion of the assets and business of the non-surviving corporation as shall be attributable to such Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities, as the case may be. If any Options shall be issued in connection with the issuance and sale of other securities of the Company, together comprising one integral transaction in which no specific consideration is allocated to such Options by the parties thereto, such Options shall be deemed to have been issued without consideration.

(k) No Impairment. The Company will not, by amendment of its Certificate of Incorporation or through any reorganization, transfer of assets, consolidation, merger, dissolution, issue or sale of securities or any other voluntary action, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms to be observed or performed hereunder by the Company, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all the provisions of this Section 7 and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate in order to protect the conversion rights of the Holder against impairment. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company will not increase the par value of any shares of Common Stock receivable on the exercise of the Warrants above the amount payable therefor on such exercise.

(l) Certificate as to Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment or readjustment of the Warrant Share Amount pursuant to this Section 7, the Company at its expense shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance with the terms hereof and furnish to the Holder a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Company shall, upon the written request at any time of the Holder, furnish or cause to be furnished to Holder a like certificate setting forth (1) such adjustments and readjustments and (2) the number of shares of Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other property which at the time would be received upon the exercise of this Warrant.

(m) Proceedings Prior to Any Action Requiring Adjustment. As a condition precedent to the taking of any action which would require an adjustment pursuant to this Section 7, the Company shall take any action which may be necessary, including obtaining regulatory approvals or exemptions, in order that the Company may thereafter validly and legally issue as fully paid and nonassessable all shares of Common Stock which the Holders are entitled to receive upon exercise thereof.

(n) Notice of Adjustment. Upon the record date or effective date, as the case may be, of any action which requires or might require an adjustment or readjustment pursuant to this Section 7, the Company shall forthwith file in the custody of its Secretary or an Assistant Secretary at its principal executive office and with its stock transfer agent or its warrant agent, if any, an officers' certificate showing the adjusted number of Warrant Shares determined as herein provided, setting forth in reasonable detail the facts requiring such adjustment and the manner of computing such adjustment. Each such officers' certificate shall be signed by the chairman, president or chief financial officer of the Company and by the secretary or any assistant secretary of the Company. Each such officers' certificate shall be made available at all reasonable times for inspection by the Holder or any Holder of a Warrant executed and delivered pursuant to Section 6(b) and the Company shall, forthwith after each such adjustment, mail a copy, by first-class mail, of such certificate to the Holder or any such holder.

(o) Payments in Lieu of Adjustment. The Holder shall, at its option, be entitled to receive, in lieu of the adjustment pursuant to Section 7(c) otherwise required thereof, on (but not prior to) the date of exercise of the Warrants, the evidences of indebtedness, other securities, cash, property or other assets which such Holder would have been entitled to receive if it had exercised its Warrants for shares of Common Stock immediately prior to the record date with respect to such distribution. The Holder may exercise its option under this Section 7(o) by delivering to the Company a written notice of such exercise simultaneously with its notice of exercise of this Warrant.

SECTION 8. CONSOLIDATION, MERGER OR SALE OF ASSETS. In case of any consolidation of the Company with, or merger of the Company into, any other Person, any merger of another Person into the Company (other than a merger which does not result in any reclassification, conversion, exchange or cancellation of outstanding shares of Common Stock) or any sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company to the Person formed by such consolidation or resulting from such merger or which acquires such assets, as the case may be, the Holder shall have the right thereafter to exercise this Warrant for the kind and amount of securities, cash and other property receivable upon such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock for which this Warrant may have been exercised immediately prior to such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer. Adjustments for events subsequent to the effective date of such a consolidation, merger, sale or transfer of assets shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Warrant. In any such event, effective provisions shall be made in the certificate or articles of incorporation of the resulting or surviving corporation, in any contract of sale, merger, conveyance, lease, transfer or otherwise so that the provisions set forth herein for the protection of the rights of the Holder shall thereafter continue to be applicable; and any such resulting or surviving corporation shall expressly assume the obligation to deliver, upon exercise, such shares of stock, other securities, cash and property. The provisions of this Section 8 shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, sales, leases or transfers.

SECTION 9. WARRANT AGENT. At the written request of the Holders of a majority of the outstanding Warrants, the Company shall as soon as is reasonably practicable:

(i) appoint a warrant agent to act as agent for the Company in connection with the issuance, transfer and exchange of the Warrants and shall enter into an agreement with such warrant agent reflecting the terms and conditions of such appointment, which terms and conditions shall be customary for such appointments, and such other matters as are customarily included in such agreements so as to facilitate the transfer and registration of the Warrants; and

(ii) use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Warrants to be eligible to be publicly traded, including, without limitation, amending this Warrant to provide terms and conditions necessary and appropriate for the Warrants to be publicly traded.

SECTION 10. NOTICES. Any notice, demand or delivery authorized by this Warrant shall be in writing and shall be given to the Holder or to the Company, as the case may be, at its address (or facsimile number) set forth below, or such other address (or facsimile number) as shall have been furnished to the party giving or making such notice, demand or delivery:

SECTION 11. RIGHTS OF THE HOLDER. Prior to the exercise of any Warrant, the Holder shall not, by virtue hereof, be entitled to any rights of a shareholder of the Company, including, without limitation, the right to vote, to receive dividends or other distributions, to exercise any preemptive right or to receive any notice of meetings of shareholders or any notice of any proceedings of the Company except as may be specifically provided for herein.

SECTION 12. GOVERNING LAW. THIS WARRANT AND ALL RIGHTS ARISING HEREUNDER SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, AND THE PERFORMANCE THEREOF SHALL BE GOVERNED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

SECTION 13. AMENDMENTS; WAIVERS. Any provision of this Warrant may be amended or waived if, and only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by the Holder and the Company, or in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective. No failure or delay by either party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

SECTION 14. Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Warrant to a Section such reference shall be to a Section of this Warrant unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Warrant, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation". The words "hereof", "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Warrant shall refer to this Warrant as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Warrant. The definitions contained in this Warrant are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. References to a person are also to its permitted successors and assigns and, in the case of an individual, to his heirs and estate, as applicable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has duly caused this Warrant to be signed by its duly authorized officer and to be dated as of the date first above written.

EXHIBIT B

AMENDMENT TO REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

AMENDMENT, dated as of August ____, 1998 (this "Amendment"), to the REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT, dated as of March 29, 1998 (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), by and among SUNBEAM CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("Laser" or "Sunbeam"), and COLEMAN (PARENT) HOLDINGS INC., a Delaware corporation ("Parent Holdings"). Capitalized terms used in this Amendment have the meanings ascribed to them in the Registration Rights Agreement unless otherwise defined herein. References to Articles and Sections shall, unless otherwise stated, be to the Articles and Sections of the Registration Rights Agreement. In all respects not inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Amendment, the Registration Rights Agreement shall continue to be in full force and effect in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof, and is hereby ratified, adopted, approved and confirmed. From and after the date hereof, each reference to the Registration Rights Agreement therein or in any other instrument or document shall be deemed a reference to the Registration Rights Agreement as amended hereby, unless the context otherwise requires, and this Amendment and the Registration Rights Agreement shall for all purposes and matters be considered as one agreement, including that all of the ministerial and miscellaneous provisions of the Registration Rights Agreement shall apply equally thereto as so amended and to this Amendment.

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Holdings Merger Agreement, by and among Sunbeam, a subsidiary of Sunbeam, CLN HOLDINGS INC., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent Holdings ("Holdings"), and Parent Holdings, the Holdings Merger was consummated on March 30, 1998 and Holdings became an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Sunbeam; and

WHEREAS, following consummation of the Holdings Merger, the shares of Holdings Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Holdings Merger were converted into an aggregate of (A) 14,099,749 fully paid and nonassessable shares of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of Sunbeam ("Laser Common Stock") and (B) $159,956,756 in cash, without interest thereon; and

WHEREAS, following the dismissal by Sunbeam of certain of its executive officers in mid-June 1998, Sunbeam retained certain senior officers employed by Affiliates of Parent Holdings as executive officers of Sunbeam; and

WHEREAS, Sunbeam and Parent Holdings have entered into a Settlement Agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") pursuant to which Sunbeam will issue to Parent Holdings certain warrants to purchase shares of Laser Common Stock (the "Warrants") and has agreed to enter into this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, in order to induce Parent Holdings to enter into the Settlement Agreement, Sunbeam has agreed to amend the Registration Rights Agreement and modify the registration rights with respect to the shares of Laser Common Stock issued to Parent Holdings in the Holdings Merger and to provide for registration rights with respect to the Warrants and Laser Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

Section 1.1 is amended with respect to certain of the definitions therein as follows:

The definition of the term "Agreement" is amended and restated in its entirety to mean the Registration Rights Agreement as amended by this Amendment.

The definition of the term "Registrable Securities" is amended and restated in its entirety to mean (i) the Holdings Merger Stock, (ii) the Warrants, and (iii) any shares of Laser Common Stock issued pursuant to the Warrants, and, in each case, any other securities issued or issuable upon or in respect of such securities by way of conversion, exchange, dividend, split or combination, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, other reorganization or otherwise. As to any particular Registrable Securities, such securities shall cease to be Registrable Securities when such securities have been sold or otherwise transferred by Parent Holdings pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement or pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act.

The following defined term shall be added to the list of definitions in their respective alphabetically ordered positions:

The term "Holdings Merger Stock" shall mean the shares of Laser Common Stock issued to Parent Holdings in the Holdings Merger.

The term "Warrants" shall mean the warrants to purchase 23,000,000 (Twenty-Three Million) shares of Laser Common Stock issued to Parent Holdings pursuant to Warrant No. W-1 dated August ____, 1998.

ARTICLE II

REQUIRED REGISTRATION

Sections 2.1, 2.2 and 2.3 of Article II are amended and restated to read in their entirety as follows:

Section 2.1 Required Registration.

(a) Form S-3. Promptly following a demand to such effect from any holder of Registrable Securities, Laser shall prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement (the "Shelf Registration Statement") on an appropriate form permitting registration of the Registrable Securities so as to permit the resale of the Registrable Securities pursuant to an offering on a delayed or continuous basis under the Securities Act and shall use reasonable best efforts to (i) cause the Shelf Registration Statement to be declared effective by the SEC as promptly as practicable thereafter and (ii) permit the Shelf Registration Statement to be used by Affiliates of Camper for resales of shares of Laser Common Stock held by such Affiliates; provided, however, that any such Affiliate using the Shelf Registration Statement shall agree in writing to be bound by all of the restrictions, limitations and obligations of Parent Holdings contained in this Agreement.

(b) Effectiveness. Laser shall use reasonable best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement continuously effective under the Securities Act until the date that is the earliest to occur of (i) the date by which all Registrable Securities have been sold and (ii) the date by which all Registrable Securities are eligible for immediate sale to the public without registration under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, with such sale not being limited by the volume restrictions thereunder or otherwise.

(c) Amendments/Supplements. Laser shall amend and supplement the Shelf Registration Statement and the prospectus contained therein if required by the rules, regulations or instructions applicable to the registration form used by Laser for such Shelf Registration Statement, if required by the Securities Act.

(d) Offerings. At any time from and after the date on which the Shelf Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC (the "Effective Date"), Parent Holdings, subject to the restrictions and conditions contained herein and in the Merger Agreement and the Warrants to the extent applicable, and subject further to compliance with all applicable state and federal securities laws, shall have the right to dispose of all or any portion of the Registrable Securities.

Section 2.2 Holdback Agreement.

From and after the Effective Date, upon the request of Laser, Parent Holdings shall not effect any public sale or distribution (including sales pursuant to Rule 144) of Registrable Securities that are equity securities of Laser, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities, including the Warrants, (other than any such sale or distribution of such securities pursuant to registration of such securities on Form SB-8 or any successor form) during the period commencing on the date on which Laser commences a Laser Offering through the sixty (60)-day period immediately following the closing date of such Laser Offering; provided, however, that Parent Holdings shall not be obligated to comply with this Section 2.2 on more than two (2) occasions in any twelve (12)-month period; and provided, further, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.2 or Section 2.3, in no event shall Parent Holdings be disabled from effecting offers or sales of Registrable Securities for more than one-hundred-and-twenty (120) days during any twelve (12)-month period.

Section 2.3 Blackout Provisions.

In the event that, at any time while the Shelf Registration Statement remains effective, Laser determines in its reasonable judgment and in good faith that the sale of Registrable Securities would require disclosure of material information which Laser has a bona fide business purpose for preserving as confidential, Parent Holdings shall, upon receiving written notice from Laser of such good faith determination, suspend sales of the Registrable Securities for a period beginning on the date of receipt of such notice and expiring on the earlier of (i) the date upon which such material information is disclosed to the public or ceases to be material or (ii) forty-five (45) days after the receipt of such notice from Laser; provided, however, that Parent Holdings shall not be obligated to comply with this Section 2.3 on more than two (2) occasions in any twelve (12) month period; and provided, further, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.3 or Section 2.2, in no event shall Parent Holdings be disabled from effecting offers or sales of Registrable Securities for more than one-hundred-and-twenty (120) days during any twelve (12)-month period.

Section 2.4(a) of Article II is hereby amended by deleting the word "and" from the end of paragraph (12) thereof, replacing the period at the end of paragraph (13) thereof with "; and" and adding the following additional paragraph:

(14) will enter into customary agreements (including an underwriting agreement in customary form) and take such actions as are reasonably required in order to expedite or facilitate the sale of such Registrable Securities, including, without limitation, cooperation, and causing its officers, employees and advisors to cooperate, with the sellers of such Registrable Securities and the underwriter(s), if any, including participation in meetings and road shows held in connection with such sale.

ARTICLE III

TRANSFERS OF REGISTRABLE SECURITIES

Sections 3.1 and 3.2 of Article III are amended and restated to read in their entirety as follows:

Section 3.1 Transferability of Registrable Securities.

(a) Parent Holdings may not Transfer the Registrable Securities, other than

(1) pursuant to Rule 144;

(2) pursuant to the Shelf Registration Statement; or

(3) in any other Transfer exempt from registration under the Securities Act, and as to which Laser has received an opinion of counsel, reasonably satisfactory to Laser, that such Transfer is so exempt;

and shall in no event Transfer any Registrable Securities in violation of the Settlement Agreement.

Section 3.2 Restrictive Legends.

Parent Holdings hereby acknowledges and agrees that, during the term of this Agreement, all of the Registrable Securities shall include the legend set forth in Section 7.2 of the Holdings Merger Agreement, the legend set forth on the Warrants or as provided in the Warrants or as may otherwise be reasonably appropriate to reflect the fact that such Registrable Securities have not been issued in transactions registered under the Securities Act, unless at the time such Registrable Securities have been registered under the Securities Act.

ARTICLE IV

MISCELLANEOUS

Sections 4.5 and 4.11 of Article IV are amended and restated in their entirety to read as follows:

Section 4.5 Binding Effect; Assignment.

This Agreement and all of the provisions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, successors and permitted assigns, but, except as expressly contemplated herein, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned, directly or indirectly, by Laser or Parent Holdings without the prior written consent of the other (except in the case of any assignment in whole or in part by Parent Holdings to any Affiliate, as to which no such consent shall be required); provided, that in connection with a bona fide pledge of any Registrable Securities to secure indebtedness or other obligations, Parent Holdings may assign its rights, interests and obligations hereunder to the beneficiary of such pledge in whole or in part. Upon any permitted assignment (other than in connection with any such bona fide pledge), this Agreement shall be amended to substitute or add the assignee as a party hereto in a writing reasonably acceptable to the other party.

Section 4.11 Termination; Restrictive Legend.

This Agreement shall terminate only following such time as Sunbeam shall have no further obligation under Section 2.1(b) to use its reasonable best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement effective; provided, however, that the provisions of Section 2.6 hereof shall survive termination of this Agreement. It is understood and agreed that any restrictive legends set forth on any Registrable Securities shall be removed by delivery of substitute certificates without such legends and such Registrable Securities shall no longer be subject to the terms of this Agreement or upon the resale of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

OTHER

The following provisions shall also apply to this Amendment:

Section 5.1 Effectiveness of this Amendment. The provisions of this Amendment shall be effective as of the date hereof.

Section 5.2 Counterparts. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 5.3 Governing Law. This Amendment shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof.

Section 5.4 No Waiver. The execution, delivery and performance of this Amendment shall not operate as a waiver of any condition, power, remedy or right exercisable in accordance with the Registration Rights Agreement, and shall not constitute a waiver of any provision of the Registration Rights Agreement, except as expressly provided herein.

Section 5.5 Descriptive Headings. The article and section headings contained in this Amendment are solely for the purpose of reference, are not part of the agreement of the parties and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of this Amendment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned hereby agree to be bound by the terms and provisions of this Amendment as of the date first above written.
