PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

In this memorandum of law, Doctors Health, Inc. ("Doctors Health") responds to the opposition papers of NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare"), which were served on plaintiff's counsel after 6:00 p.m. on the day before the return date of this motion.

Contrary to the suggestion of NYLCare, this action was not commenced to resolve "a commercial dispute over monies owed between Maryland residents." (Opposition Memorandum of Law at p. 2). This action was commenced to stop NYLCare from fraudulently drawing down on a letter of credit here in New York.

NYLCare should be enjoined from drawing down on the letter of credit because NYLCare presented fraudulent documents to Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase") in New York in an attempt to draw down on the letter of credit. Under the applicable law, either fraud in the presentment of letter of credit documents or fraud in the underlying transaction between the parties is sufficient for a court to enjoin the payment of a letter of credit. Because the undisputed evidence shows that NYLCare made fraudulent misrepresentations in the presentment of letter of credit documents to Chase, this Court can enjoin NYLCare from drawing down on the letter of credit without addressing the issue of fraud in the underlying transaction.¹

SUMMARY OF FACTS

The facts supporting Doctors Health's application are set out in detail in the affidavit of John R. Dwyer, Jr. sworn to on September 10, 1998 (the "Dwyer Affidavit") and the affidavit of Stewart Gold, sworn to on September 16, 1998 (the "Gold Affidavit"). A brief summary of the facts is provided here.

Under the contract between Doctors Health and NYLCare dated October 1, 1997 (the "Contract"), Doctors Health was obligated to open a letter of credit (the "Letter of Credit") to secure the payment of claims by health providers, which Doctors Health did at Chase. The Letter of Credit expressly provided that NYLCare could draw down on the Letter of Credit only if it fulfilled certain conditions, including presenting a document to Chase stating that NYLCare is not aware of any defenses or offsets to payment raised by Doctors Health.

On or about September 8, 1998, NYLCare did in fact submit a statement to Chase that it was not aware of any defenses or offsets to payment raised by Doctors Health. But that statement was and still is false. NYLCare had been aware, as far back as July 1998, that Doctors Health had raised various defenses and offsets to payment. See Affidavit of John R. Dwyer, Jr. at ¶¶ 21, 22 and exhibits 3 and 4 thereto. In fact, NYLCare had acknowledged that Doctors Health had raised defenses and offsets on numerous occasions.

¹ While Doctors Health previously highlighted both NYLCare's fraud in the presentment and fraud in the underlying transaction, the Court need not consider the latter since the fraud in the presentment is so clear in the record before this Court and provides ample basis to sustain the injunction.

ARGUMENT

I.

NOT ONLY DOES THE ARBITRATION CLAUSE BETWEEN THE PARTIES NOT PRECLUDE DOCTORS HEALTH FROM SEEKING INJUNCTIVE RELIEF, BUT THIS COURT HAS JURISDICTION OVER NYLCARE

NYLCare's argument that the instant application for injunction is subject to the arbitration clause between the parties is refuted by the contract, which contains, in addition to the arbitration clause NYLCare correctly cited, a clause expressly providing for injunctive relief, a provision NYLCare did not even refer to. The clause entitled "Injunctive Relief" provides:

Notwithstanding this agreement to arbitrate, NYLCare Midatlantic and Doctors Health may seek interim and/or permanent injunctive relief pursuant to this Agreement in any court of competent jurisdiction.

See Benz Aff., Exhibit 1 at 6.6 and Exhibit 2 at 8.7. Thus, Doctors Health can pursue injunctive relief as it did here.

NYLCare's claim of lack of personal jurisdiction is likewise belied by the letter of credit agreement and the applicable law. NYLCare sent a letter to Chase here in New York in which it fraudulently misrepresented that it was not aware of "defenses or offsets to payments which have been raised by Doctors Health" (Exhibits B and C to the Capasso Affidavit). As such, NYLCare committed a fraud inside New York and is subject to jurisdiction under CPLR 302(a)(2).

Not only did NYLCare commit a fraudulent act in New York, but the letter of credit agreement with Chase also has a New York jurisdiction choice of law and clause providing for jurisdiction in this Court. See Exhibit O to the Gold Affidavit. In addition, NYLCare had the opportunity to oppose the opening of a letter of credit with a New York bank as provided in § 3.21 of the Agreement. See Benz Affidavit at Exhibit 1. Thus, this Court has jurisdiction to stop NYLCare from fraudulently drawing down on a letter of credit here in New York.

II.

THIS COURT SHOULD ENJOIN CHASE FROM PAYING OUT ON THE LETTER OF CREDIT BECAUSE NYLCARE'S PRESENTMENT OF LETTER OF CREDIT DOCUMENTS WAS FRAUDULENT

NYLCare's recitation of the law concerning enjoining letter of credit payments, which not properly delineate the fraud exception, is misleading. Under UCC § 5-114(2) and the controlling case law, Doctors Health needs to show that "a required document . . . is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction" to enjoin Chase from paying NYLCare.² See, e.g., Takeo Co. Ltd. v. Mead Paper, Inc., 204 A.D.2d 123, 611 N.Y.S.2d 543, 545 (1st Dep't 1994); 410 Sixth Ave. Foods v. 410 Sixth Ave., 197 A.D.2d 435, 602 N.Y.S.2d 835 (1st Dep't 1993); Mount

² Although the Letter of Credit incorporates the Uniform Customs and Practice for Commercial Documentary Credits, UCC § 5-114(2) and case law interpreting the UCC provision control the result here. See, e.g., Mennen v. J. P. Morgan & Co., Inc., 91 N.Y.2d 13, 666 N.Y.S.2d 975, 980-81 (1997), United Bank Ltd. v. Cambridge Sporting Goods Corp., 41 N.Y.2d 254, 258 n.2, 392 N.Y.S.2d 265 (1976). Section 5-114(2) of the UCC provides that:

Unless otherwise agreed when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document . . . is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction:

(a) the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by * * * holder of the draft * * * which has taken the draft * * * under the credit and under circumstances which would make it a holder in due course (Section 3-302) * * *; and

(b) in all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or demand for payment despite notification from the customer of fraud, forgery or other or other defect not apparent on the face of the documents but a court of appropriate jurisdiction may enjoin such honor.

NYLCare's actions are similar to the actions of the seller in Sztejn v. J. Henry Schroder Banking Corp., 177 Misc. 719, 31 N.Y.S.2d 631 (S. Ct. N.Y. County 1941). There the Court enjoined payment on a letter of credit where the seller, who attempted to draw down on the letter of credit, had intentionally procured fraudulent bills of lading and invoices falsely describing the goods called for by the letter of credit, which the seller submitted to the issuing bank.⁴

Doctors Health asks the Court to sustain the injunction restraining Chase from drawing down on the Letter of Credit in favor of NYLCare. In doing so, Doctors Health directs the Court to the long-recognized principle in letter of credit jurisprudence, namely, "[w]hen the issuer of a letter of credit knows that a document, although correct in form, is, in point of fact, false or

Under the general rule the issuer must honor the draft when the documents presented comply with the terms of the letter of credit (Uniform Commercial Code § 5-114[1]). But when a required document does not conform to the necessary warranties or is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction, an issuer acting in good faith may, but is not required to, refuse to honor a draft under a letter of credit when the documents presented appear on their face to comply with the terms of the letter of credit. Further than that, a customer may also enjoin an issuer from honoring such a draft if the issuer fails to do so on its own (Uniform Commercial Code § 5-114 [2][b]. (emphasis added) (citations omitted).

⁴ In fact, NYLCare's fraudulent submission to Chase goes to the heart of the entire transaction. See, e.g., Voest-Alpine Intern. Corp. v. Chase Manhattan Bank, 707 F.2d 680 (2d Cir. 1983). NYLCare's intentional misrepresentation shows that NYLCare's goal is to rob Doctors Health without any regard for the underlying bargain. The underlying transaction would be a complete sham if NYLCare can take the money and run in complete disregard of everything it promised in the underlying transaction. Exactly what NYLCare may be entitled to will be shown by, among other things, the on-going audit, but without protection from improper pay-outs on the letter of credit, the underlying transaction is as worthless as those cases where "virtually worthless" goods were shipped. See Takeo Co., supra at 4.

illegal, he cannot be called upon to recognize such a document as complying with the terms of the letter of credit." Old Colony Trust Co. v. Lawyers' Title & Trust Co., 297 F. 152, 158 (2d Cir.), cert. den., 265 U.S. 585 (1924). As the Second Circuit noted in Voest-Alpine Int'l Corp. v. Chase Manhattan Bank,

Presentation of the fraudulent documents to a bank by a beneficiary subverts not only the purposes which letters of credit are designed to serve in general, but also the entire transaction at hand in particular. Falsified documents are the same as no documents at all.

Here, NYLCare has submitted fraudulent documents to Chase claiming that Doctors Health had not raised any defenses or offsets to payments under the contract of which NYLCare was aware. In fact, NYLCare is well aware of the defenses and offsets raised by Doctors Health to the amounts owed. NYLCare's fraudulent misrepresentation is particularly egregious in light of the ongoing audit of NYLCare's fraudulent payment of past claims by Doctors Health's auditor.

Cases cited by NYLCare, if applicable, in fact support Doctors Health's position. For example, in KMW Int'l v. Chase Manhattan Bank, N.A., 606 F.2d 10 (2d Cir. 1979), the Court recognized the black letter law upon which Doctors Health relies: namely, that a payment on letter of credit may be enjoined "when the documentation presented is fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction." Id. at 16 (emphasis added). Finding that "Chase had received no demand for payment whatsoever," the Court reasoned that the injunction could not be "upheld on the grounds . . . that a required document . . . is forged or fraudulent." Id. The Court then turned to the issue of whether there was fraud in the transaction and found none. Id. Here, because there is clear evidence of fraud in the presentment, the Court need not address the issue of fraud in the transaction.⁵

Thus, this Court should enjoin Chase from payment on the letter of credit.

III.

THE LETTER OF CREDIT IS PLAIN ON ITS FACE AND PROHIBITS NYLCARE FROM DRAWING DOWN ON THE LETTER OF CREDIT WHEN IT IS AWARE OF DEFENSES OR OFFSETS RAISED BY DOCTORS HEALTH

In order for NYLCare to draw down on the letter of credit, it must first produce a statement, in accordance with the terms of the letter of credit, that "[t]here are no defenses or offsets to payment which have been raised by Doctors health and of which NYLCare is aware." This language contained in the Letter of Credit is clear on its face and should not be subject to any other interpretation.⁶

⁵ NYLCare's reliance on Banque Worms v. Banque Commerciale Privee, 679 F. Supp. 1173 (S.D.N.Y. 1988), aff'd, 849 F.2d 787 (2d Cir. 1988), is also misplaced. In Banque Worms, the Court analyzed whether an alleged wrongdoing would amount to fraud in the transaction and found that it did not. Id. at 1180-1183. The Court did not address the issue of fraud in the presentment. NYLCare's reliance on Ross Bicycles, Inc. v. Citibank, N.A., 613 N.Y.S.2d 538, 540-541 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. County 1994) is baseless. In Ross Bicycles, Citibank tried to escape its liability by raising several defenses, all of which were ultimately stricken in an earlier case, which NYLCare failed to cite. See Ross Bicycles v. Citibank 178 A.D.2d 388, 577 N.Y.S.2d 826 (1st Dep't 1991). In the earlier decision, the Appellate Division rejected Citibank's attempt to argue fraud in the transaction finding that it did not meet the threshold for fraud in the transaction. Id. The Court did not address the argument of fraud in the presentment. Id.

⁶ See International Marine Investors & Mgmt. Corp. v. Wirth, 666 N.Y.S.2d 503, 503 (2d Dep't 1997) (held that "[i]t is the primary rule of construction of contracts that when the terms of a written contract are clear and unambiguous, the intent of the parties must be found within the four corners of the contract, giving a practical interpretation to the language employed and the parties' reasonable expectations" and any ambiguity in contract provision should be construed against its drafter); Davis v. Chessari, 239 A.D.2d 457, 457-58, 658 N.Y.S.2d 965, 966 (2d Dep't 1997) ("The interpretation of a written contract is within the province of the court and, if the language of the contract is free from ambiguity, its meaning may be determined as a matter of law on the basis of the writing along without resort to extrinsic evidence."); Charlebois v. J.M. Weller Assocs., Inc., 136 A.D.2d 214, 526 N.Y.S.2d

NYLCare's statements that it was unaware of any defenses or offsets raised by Doctors Health were fraudulent because NYLCare had knowledge of various defenses or offsets. In fact, the record now shows that NYLCare sent its revised draw down letters on September 8, 1998 (Exhibit C to the Capasso Affidavit) well after receiving Doctors Health's letter of September 4, 1998 (Exhibit 7 to the Dwyer Affidavit) in which Doctors Health notified NYLCare that NYLCare's incorrect calculation should be corrected to show a "cash balance in favor of Doctors Health in the amount of approximately $1,443,047.

IV.

DOCTORS HEALTH WILL BE IRREPARABLY HARMED IF CHASE IS NOT ENJOINED FROM PAYMENT ON THE LETTER OF CREDIT

The facts, as initially set forth in the Dwyer Affidavit and further amplified by the Gold Affidavit, show that Doctors Health will be irreparably harmed if this Court does not enjoin Chase from payment on the letter of credit. The injunction is critical to Doctors Health's continuing operation as a medical services provider. Without the injunction, Doctors Health will not be able to attract the financial injections it desperately needs from investors to enable it to continue its operations and may be forced to seek bankruptcy protection.

In addition to the risk of bankruptcy, many if not all of Doctors Health's 480 employees will lose their jobs. These 480 employees provide services critical to approximately 7000 high risk patients and at least 14,000 Medicare patients. It would also be unfair for NYLCare, a party that perpetrated the fraud, to benefit from its fraud.

In the face of such irreparable harm, this Court should enjoin NYLCare from drawing down on the letter of credit. Ansonia Assocs. v. Ansonia Residents' Assoc., 78 A.D.2d 211, 434

648, 649 (3d Dep't 1988) (interpreting contract as a whole to give meaning to clear and unambiguous contract provisions).

N.Y.S.2d 370 (1st Dep't 1980); Grant v. Civil Service Employees Assoc., Inc., 169 Misc. 2d 896, 646 N.Y.S.2d 1018 (S. Ct. 1996) (injunction appropriate remedy where interruption of salary payments to laid off or discharged employees would undoubtedly affect local economy and cause families to fail even temporarily to meet payment obligations).

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Doctors Health respectfully requests that the Court continue to enjoin NYLCare from drawing down on the Letter of Credit.

STEWART GOLD, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the President and Chief Executive Officer of plaintiff Doctors Health, Inc. ("Doctors Health" or "Plaintiff"). I am over the age of eighteen years, have personal knowledge of the facts alleged herein, and, if called as a witness, could competently testify thereto.
2. On or about July 8, 1998, I received the monthly capitation report for July 1998 indicating that Doctors Health owed NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare") $2,615,208. See Exhibit A.
3. I promptly met with NYLCare on July 14, 1998 to explain that Doctors Health believed it had substantial offsets to the July bill of at least $900,000 as result of an ongoing claims audit being conducted by Arthur Anderson.
4. NYLCare indicated to me at the July 14, 1998 meeting that it would work with Doctors Health to promptly resolve any offsets to the July bill.

5. On July 15, 1998, I sent NYLCare a letter reiterating the substantial claims offsets discussed in the July 14 meeting. See Exhibit B.

6. On August 4, 1998, I received the monthly NYLCare capitation report for August, 1998 indicating that Doctors Health earned $506,068 for the period covered by such report and that such amount would be offset from the prior July bill of $2,615,208. See Exhibit C.

7. On August 10, 1998, I sent a letter to NYLCare reiterating the $506,068 offset to the July bill of $2,615,248 and also raising again the additional claims credits which Doctors Health believed would also act as offsets to the July bill. See Exhibit D.

8. On August 13, 1998, I received a letter from NYLCare confirming that the $506,068 payment owed to Doctors Health pursuant to the August capitation report had been offset from the July bill of $2,615,208. The demand letter, however, indicated that the balance of the July bill (e.g. $2,109,140) needed to be paid by Doctors Health or it would be in default within 60 days. See Exhibit E.

9. On August 17, 1998, I wrote NYLCare expressing some dismay at the default letter. I reiterated in the letter that Doctors Health believed it would be imprudent to pay the balance of the July bill because Doctors Health believed it was most likely still be entitled to substantial offsets to the $2,109,140 balance of the July bill and that these offsets needed to be resolved. See Exhibit F.

10. On August 19, I again met with NYLCare to try and resolve the open offsets and to address potential proposals for modifying the parties contract. On August 21, 1998, NYLCare wrote me thanking me for the meeting and my patience in trying to resolve the open issues. See Exhibit G. At this point, I believed that NYLCare was still interested in trying to resolve the legitimate offsets to the balance of the July bill.

11. Sometime in August 1998, I also learned that NYLCare acknowledged that $283,126 of the claims offsets previously asserted by Doctors Health were now agreed to by NYLCare and the parties were still trying to resolve, with the assistance of Arthur Anderson, the additional approximately $700,000 in claims credits which Doctors Health believed it was also owed. See Exhibit H.

12. On September 1, 1998, I received a copy of the September capitation report. See Exhibit I. I was absolutely shocked to see that the September report for the first time included $10,691,965 in deductions for "claims incurred but not paid." The agreement between the parties only allows NYLCare to deduct paid claims and not amounts for unpaid claims. See ¶ 3.4.4 of Exhibit J. NYLCare had never previously included amounts of unpaid claims in any of the prior monthly capitation reports. See Exhibit K. After deleting the improper offset for "claims incurred but not paid", the September report actually showed that Doctors Health had earned $1,443,047. The inclusion for the first time of an unpaid claims deduction was in my view solely for the purpose of NYLCare trying to avoid paying or crediting Doctors Health the $1,443,047 it was owed for the period covered by the September report.

13. On September 4, 1998, I notified NYLCare that the inclusion of unpaid claims in the September capitation report was improper and that Doctors health was entitled to an offset of $1,443,047. See Exhibit L.

14. Subsequently, NYLCare provided a revised September capitation report showing Doctors Health was actually due $1,787,689 in September instead of $1,443,047. The amount owed to Doctors Health, however, was not shown on the bottom line of the report because NYLCare again included the improper $10,691,965 amount for unpaid claims. See Exhibit M. Subsequently, Doctors Health notified NYLCare that the corrected September amount of $1,787,689 should be an offset to the July bill of $2,615,208 rather than the previously claimed offset of $1,443,047. See Exhibit N.

15. The total offsets raised by Doctors Health to the July bill of $2,615,208 are as follows: 1) The $283,126 agreed upon claims offsets; 2) the remaining approximately $700,000 of unresolved claims offsets; 3) the $506,068 monthly amount earned by Doctors Health as reflected in the August capitation report; and 4) the $1,787,689 monthly amount earned by Doctors Health as reflected in the revised September capitation report. As a result, the absolute most that Doctors health owes NYLCare on the July bill is $38,325, even assuming that Doctors Health is not entitled to any of the $700,00 in unresolved claims offsets. .

16. The Letter of Credit provides that it cannot be drawn upon if there are defenses or offsets raised by Doctors Health of which NYLCare is aware. See Exhibit O.

17. Doctors Health has raised all of the foregoing offsets to NYLCare and it was a blatant misrepresentation for NYLCare to represent to Chase on September 4, 1998 and September 8, 1998 that no offsets or defenses have been raised by Doctors Health to the $2,615,208 invoiced amount of which NYLCare is aware.

18. Doctors Health's available working capital as of July 14, 1998 is slightly less than $1 million.

19. Doctors Health's monthly salaries and benefits total approximately $800,000 and its average trade payables are approximately $200,000.

20. Doctors Health's line of credit has to be fully secured by cash, and thus Doctors Health has inadequate excess cash, after factoring in monthly salaries and payables, to fund any additional borrowings on its line of credit.

21. As a result of the above, Doctors Health has inadequate working capital to replenish the letter of credit if NYLCare's fraudulent draw request is not enjoined.

22. Doctors Health has been in active discussions with its largest investor about investing additional capital in the company. Such additional capital is absolutely critical to the continued viability of Doctors Health. The investor has indicated that it would be willing to invest substantial additional capital in Doctors Health provided Doctors Health can convince it that NYLCare will not be allowed to circumvent making monthly payments to Doctors Health by deducting amounts for unpaid claims in violation of the parties contract.

23. In addition, Doctors Health would need to convince the investor that Doctors Health's letter of credit could not be drawn down by NYLCare falsely asserting that it was not aware of any offsets or defenses to payment raised by Doctors Health. Otherwise, the investor would have little assurances that the deal represented in the underlying documents is actually how the deal will work, and little assurances that NYLCare will not amount a raid on the letter of credit in the future by "accounting gimmicks" and fraudently overlooking any offsets or defenses raised by Doctors Health.

24. In short, if NYLCare is allowed to consummate their $2.6 million draw request, Doctors Health's investors will not invest substantial additional dollars in the company, and the financial collapse of Doctors Health will be catastrophic and swift.

25. For the reasons stated above, the majority if not all of the 480 employees of Doctors Health will lose their jobs if the $2.6 million draw request is not enjoined.

26. While Doctors Health does not practice medicine, its employees are essential to the proper provision of medical services. Doctors Health owns ~~approximately 100~~ ^{approximately 100} physicians practices and provides ~~much of the~~ ^{70%} staff to operate these practices. Over 325 of Doctors Health's employees work directly in these ~~100~~ ¹⁰⁰ physician practice groups and are critical to the continued operations of these physicians' practices. The majority if not all of these employees will be laid off if NYLCare's draw request is not enjoined. The loss of such employees to the ~~100~~ ¹⁰⁰ physician practice groups will cause enormous disruptions to the physicians and their patients.

27. Doctors Health also has a Case Management department staffed by 56 employees. These employees are community-based nurses and social workers who coordinate care plans for approximately 7000 high risk patients in their homes or in rehabilitation centers. They provide the infrastructure to keep such patients focused on preventative care and out of the hospital. In addition, the Case Management department provides services, education and equipment to patients with ongoing diseases such as diabetes, congestive heart failure and asthma. Finally, the Case Management Department reviews and approves in-patient admissions, coordinates the provision of home health care, and coordinates such other functions as arranging ambulance services.

28. All of the foregoing valuable services which are critical to the provision of quality medical services will be seriously disrupted with significant confusion, frustration, and negative impacts to thousands of high risk patients if the NYLCare draw request is not enjoined. Finally, the failure of Doctors Health will adversely affect and significantly disrupt the remainder of the other 14,000 Medicare patients which Doctors Health assists who would be forced with little or no notice to look elsewhere for the assistance they have grown accustomed to receiving from Doctors Health.

29. In contrast to the unbelievable irreparable harm which would be inflicted if the injunction is not granted, NYLCare is not likely to suffer any irreparable harm if it is not allowed to immediately collect $2.6 million. NYLCare has annual gross revenues of approximately $700,000 million and it is a wholly owned subsidiary of a company (i.e. Aetna/US Healthcare) with annual gross revenues in excess of $18 billion. NYLCare has not mentioned any irreparable harm if the injunction is granted which is even close to the type Doctors Health is likely to suffer if the injunction is not granted.

I swear that the foregoing is true and correct.

MEMORANDUM

DATE: July 15, 1998
TO: Jeff Emerson, CEO, NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc.
FROM: Stewart B. Gold
RE: July 14, 1998 Meeting
CC: Eric Wilkinson, The Beacon Group

Thanks for the frank discussion of the concerns we have regarding our Network Management Agreement. As a result of the meeting, it is our understanding that NYLCare will run a "CMU" report on the claims that you have paid. This will help determine any trends in utilization and cost that could explain the wide discrepancy between the NYLCare claims experience with its Medicare members and DH's experience with essentially the same population. We also appreciate your offer to provide a "retro-view" of claims paid to assist us in our audit of the claims payment process. Arthur Andersen is designing the audit protocol in cooperation with NYLCare staff to ensure a timely audit report. We will work with your responsible management personnel to move the audit along. Please ensure that they are aware of our offer to provide the "retro-view" if necessary.

We, of course, appreciate your understanding in suspending payments for claims paid on our behalf by NYLCare in excess of the July capitation payment. For your information, the amount of the Letter of Credit is now at $5,250,000.

I was glad to hear that you were concerned about the time it has taken to reconcile the actual amount due at June 30. As you know, we have advanced the full amount that you requested ($3,176,173) pending a prompt resolution of the actual amount. To date, we believe that paid claims have included errors totaling in excess of $900,000.

Doctors Health, Arthur Andersen and your staff will be working in the next months to determine what further adjustments are required.

I have attached copies of the Days/1,000 reports that we provide every month for your information. Additionally, the status of claims preview from our standpoint is that we have been told we will get the first preview in the agreed upon format today.

The lag in claims payment is a continuing problem. The information that we have is very recent and is already under review by both of our organizations. I believe that we need the results of the current review and the Andersen audit to better understand and define the situation.

I have looked into issues surrounding the timely receipt of enrollment information, along with the capitation payment, authorization transmittal, and other information exchange issues. I have been assured that we will promptly address and remedy problems on our part. If not, have someone contact me directly so that I am aware of the open issues and can compare what you are hearing to the reports I get from our joint operations meetings.

Please let me know when you will have some results from your review of the information we provided yesterday and the CMU Report.

Our Agreement with NYLCare is very important to us, as demonstrated by the investment we have each made in providing uninterrupted medical services to Medicare managed care members. While the cost of claims resolution can have the most serious consequences, we remain dedicated to the success of the relationship with NYLCare and the agreement. Despite our dedication we are very concerned about the Network Management Agreement, and based on the information we categorically and unconditionally dispute that Doctors Health is responsible for at least $6,000,000 of the claims paid to date. Therefore, please be on notice that we have not waived any of our rights and privileges under the Agreement. We expect both sides to keep our conversations about these matters confidential. Thanks for your help.

RE: Contract Modifications & Agreement

Dear Susan:

The current situation requires that several concerns be addressed simultaneously. Based on our telephone conversation, the issues seem to be:

1. Percent of premium from July through December 1998.
2. Percent of premium after January 1, 1999.
3. Pharmacy benefit.
4. Aetna members.
5. Payment of the $2.6 million in the July report.
6. The amount in the claims inventory.
7. Inpatient Medical Management.
8. Contract issues.

We need to deal with the contract modifications, the immediate payment for claims paid, and your concerns regarding the LOC together, since NYLCare and potentially the Aetna book of business would represent over 60% of our Medicare operation. Each of these issues is important enough to affect the viability of the contract. To resolve one without the others will not allow us to proceed.

I'd like to address the individual issues:

1. Percent of premium from July through December 1998.

At 92% of total premium and with the cost of pharmacy carved out, we are still projecting a loss of approximately $8.00 PMPM before Doctors Health's administrative expense. Our medical management assumes the risk for making up the required difference. The Medical Expense used for this projection does not include any amounts above our IBNR of approximately $10.4 million to be paid for claims with dates of service from October 1, 1997 through June 30, 1998. We have reserved this amount of cash anticipating the payments. If this amount is inadequate, our projected medical expense will be higher, causing us to reassess the anticipated cost of the contract.

DOCTORS HEALTH, INCORPORATED

2. Percent of premium after January 1, 1999.

After January, at 93.5% of total premium and with the cost of pharmacy carved out, we are projecting that our net premium will only cover the Medical Expense for NYLCare members including the adjustments discussed on July 28, 1998. This amount does not include Doctors Health's administrative expense (estimated at $35.00 PMPM).

3. Pharmacy benefit.

We cannot include the pharmacy risk at the proposed level of premium. It pushes the anticipated Medical Expense of the NYLCare benefit package to a level that moves the end of the tunnel further than we can see the light.

4. Aetna Members.

To assume the risk for approximately 11,400 Aetna members, we need a floor on the premium to Doctors close to the NYLCare level of reimbursement beginning January 1, 1999.

5. Payment of the $2.6 million in the July report.

I have reviewed the July report (attached) indicating a $2,615,209 amount due for paid claims and our recent agreement. At the time I agreed to 5 day reconciliations I did not know that the claims inventory was as large as it has proven to be. We were told that it was at 14 days on June 23. I had also thought that the claims audit would have been completed. The idea was to re-start with claims up to date.

You are correct that the agreement does not require the amount requested to be undisputed. I think that agreeing to pay amounts from the reports at this point was a mistake on my part. My reason is closely linked to one of the basic principles of Doctors Health, i.e., that incentives need to be aligned for success. With NYLCare "holding the money" on disputed amounts as the new agreement envisions, the alignment of incentives is a concern. Our experience to date is that obtaining a credit for any reason is difficult and time consuming. We rely therefore on the diligence of NYLCare management to ensure speedy resolution of differences.

Please consider the following resolution. Assuming that we can agree on the contract modifications as proposed by Doctors Health, can we also agree on the amount due as shown below? If so, I believe that we are well within the LOC.

Amount Due		$2,615,209
Less:	August Capitation Credit (Est.)	$500,000
	Claims paid w/o Authorization	135,000
	122 Letters	170,154
	Claims paid on INOVA	76,433
	Inpatient Claims Paid Incorrectly	22,000
		$903,587

Adjusted Amount Due Before Contract Mods. $1,711,622*

*This amount allows the adjustments we have identified to date that are pending your verification. We will provide detailed support for each amount.

The contract modifications amount estimated at $900,000 can be paid to Doctors Health and then paid to NYLCare immediately or credited directly by NYLCare to the amount due.

Less: July and August Adjusted Capitation Payments (Est.)	900,000
Adjusted Amount Due	$ 811,622

6. The amount in the claims inventory.

The amount indicated in the report (attached) is $11,309,690.87, which is probably about $5.7 million net. This would indicate that a normal claims inventory of 14 working days is about $6-8 million at gross or $3-4 million net. Capitation payments currently paid to Doctors Health are approximately $4.4 million before any contract. Therefore we should be well within the LOC. If there are any additional near term charges that would push the amount of paid claims over $4.4 million, please give us your estimate.

7. Inpatient Medical Management.

As discussed with Jeff, I have included a proposal to include your commercial members in our Inpatient Medical Management program at a guaranteed savings to NYLCare. We have been talking about this for a while and Jeff assured me of a quick decision to join the program if the savings were real.

We had previously submitted individual proposals to Aetna and NYLCare; the newest proposal, which is attached for your review, addresses both the Aetna and NYLCare commercial populations.

8. Contract Issues.

There are several issues covered in our Network Management Agreement that we need to reaffirm in this amendment to ensure uninterrupted operations. Among the issues that we have verbally agreed to:

Prompt resolution of claims payment differences, which should be far fewer with claims preview in place. We need to know what we should expect when a claim does not pass preview.

Subrogation credits will be communicated to us promptly.

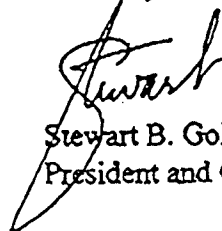

Interest paid on late claims is not Doctors Health's responsibility, unless we are responsible for the delay.

We will be responsible for retroactive enrollment adjustments only for 90 days.

Claims paid in error for any of several reasons will be promptly credited to our account regardless of the age of the claim.

You have made it clear that it is important that we reconcile the amount due as soon as possible. If we can agree to a binding Letter of Intent prior to the actual contract amendment, payment will follow upon acceptance of the LOI by the DH Executive Committee. I think you understand that if we don't have an overall agreement, we have an entirely different situation. I will commit whatever resources are required to get the documentation completed. I realize that the hardest part will be getting Aetna on board with the premium percentages, the pharmacy benefit, and the extension option. As you have said, we don't want to go back to the well. I appreciate the effort and time you are investing in the relationship. It is what encourages me to recommend that Doctors continue to enthusiastically work with NYLCare/Aetna as our business partner. Thanks for your help.

Sincerely,

Dear Stewart:

We are in receipt of your letter of August 10, 1998 restating the issues raised by Doctors Health, Inc. (DH) to be resolved with NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic (NYLCare Mid-Atlantic). This letter is official notification of breach of Section 11 of the Letter of Agreement between NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and DH dated June 29, 1998. According to the language of that Letter of Agreement, DH is required to pay all deficits reflected in the Monthly Capitation Calculation Report (Report) within five (5) business days of receipt of that report. At this time, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic has not received payment of the deficit shown in the ~~July Report~~ and due on July 15, 1998.

Because the payment period has now exceeded the five (5) days allowed, and because the total amount outstanding (deficits plus the claims inventory) exceeds the Letter of Credit (LOC) which DH holds, we are forced to request that you comply with the Letter of Agreement and submit, via wire transfer, all amounts owed. The full amount owed at this time is $2,615,208.69, less the $506,068.53 surplus from the August Report, or $2,109,140.16 in total. Payment is due immediately as stated in our August 5, 1998 letter. We cannot respond to your August 10, 1998 letter until we are in receipt of these monies.

It is incumbent upon you to comply with the terms of the Letter and the Agreement.

Sincerely,

Susan S. Lefkowitz
Executive Vice President, Health Care Delivery Services

Re: Alleged Breach

Dear Susan:

We acknowledge your notification of the alleged breach by Doctors Health, Inc. (Doctors). We were a bit surprised that it was necessary to target this during the negotiations and audit. This neither encourages us in continuing to look toward a positive resolution of the contract issues nor engenders the spirit of partnership I thought we were working to achieve.

Despite Jeff's hope in late June that claims payment information could be resolved in two weeks and my goal of five weeks, we have now been at work for seven weeks with the end not yet defined. The change in the payment provision from sixty days to five days is predicated on our ability to quickly resolve disputed amounts. As noted above and in my August 10, 1998 letter to you, the information supplied to us regarding claims payments for the month of June 1998 before we agreed to the change in payment, has proven to be inaccurate.

What makes the current situation so difficult to understand is that both of us have been working diligently to resolve the open issues. However, there remain several potentially significant issues, e.g., Medicare 26 modifier payments and payments of FFS charges to capitated providers, that could have a material impact on the amount now due NYLCare. The completion of our work is further complicated by the fact that basic information such as the number of service units was not included in the paid claims file provided to us prior to August 10, 1998. While these amounts may be insignificant within the context of NYLCare's $700 million business in this region, the amounts involved are devastating to Doctors.

It would be imprudent for Doctors to pay an amount that could be subject to credits that could exceed the amount due. We are trying to avoid at this time engaging in any further unpleasant exchanges regarding the inaccuracy and unreliability of the data supplied by NYLCare prior to entering the contract and immediately thereafter. At the appropriate time, if necessary, we will provide a list of the concerns regarding this agreement, both prior to its execution and amendment and during operations. These issues have put Doctors in a position that makes it impossible for the Company to continue operations in its present form, without a rapid conclusion to the negotiation of a reformation of the agreement.

We have both acknowledged several times that what we are trying to accomplish is difficult for both our organizations. If you intend the notification of an alleged breach to terminate negotiation of the contract amendment, please let me know. Your letter seems to suggest that that is your intent. If it is intended to put Doctors in a position where we are forced to pay an amount which we believe, with good support, is materially inaccurate, without addressing our contract issues, it is a stretch that we cannot make. I sincerely hope that we can get the situation on the fast track to success for both of us at our meeting next week.

Yours truly,

Dear Stewart:

Thank you for your (and Eric's) cooperation and patience as we work through together the issues facing Doctors Health (DH) and NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. (NYLCare Mid-Atlantic). Your proposal, when we met on August 19 in the NYLCare Mid-Atlantic offices, was a helpful one. However, as we discussed at the meeting (and in several subsequent telephone conversations), NYLCare Mid-Atlantic cannot move quickly enough in its internal review of your proposal (specifically including the Aetna US Healthcare review) to accommodate your schedule.

Therefore, we propose the following arrangement to "buy us the time" (literally and figuratively) to complete our analyses.

- Capitation. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic agrees to increase the DH global risk capitation to 92 percent of the combined AAPCC and member premium effective September 1, 1998 and for that month. That capitation will cover all risk for all covered services under the NYLCare 65 Medicare Risk benefit schedule including, but not limited to, prescription drugs. However, DH's risk for prescription drug expenses will be limited to $21.00 per member per month. All covered prescription drug expenses above that amount will be the responsibility of NYLCare Mid-Atlantic.
- Quiet Period. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic agrees that, commencing at close of business on Monday, August 24, 1998, and for thirty (30) days thereafter, it will not have any communication (either written or oral) with any other party regarding assumption by that party of the duties and responsibilities of DH including, but not limited to, the global risk capitation and network and medical management of NYLCare Mid-Atlantic NYLCare 65 members.

Please understand that NYLCare Mid-Atlantic's agreement to revise the DH capitation will cost NYLCare Mid-Atlantic $230,000 for the month of September. We agree to this revision to our current financial arrangement as a quid pro quo for DH's willingness to be patient while NYLCare Mid-Atlantic completes its analysis of the DH proposal. Nothing in this letter, or in our several conversations, should be taken to prejudice the position of either DH or NYLCare Mid-Atlantic in further discussion of a revision to the financial arrangements after September.

Sincerely,

Jeff D. Emerson

Memorandum

DATE: September 14, 1998
TO: John Dwyer
FROM: Kyle R. Miller
RE: Amounts Due from Nylcare as of September 14, 1998 based on the audit results
CC:

The following items have been substantially agreed to by Nylcare as of September 14, 1998:

Claims Paid without authorizations	$ 36,540
Inappropriate payments/duplicates(122 letters)	$170,153
Claims paid for ineligible members	$ 2,989
Claims paid on INOVA members	$ 73,444
Total	$283,126

In addition to the above items that were agreed to by Nylcare, the following items are open as of today's date:

Cutoff issues at October 31, 1997	$ 90,000
Physician payment issues (26 modifier/type 8)	$ Not yet determined
Payment for services covered under capitated fees	$687,000

I believe with the announcement of the loss of the Medicare business that the three open projects listed above have received little or no attention since August 28.

Findings
DH Eligibility/Claims Audit

Claims paid from October 1997 through May 1998 were examined.

Members Ineligible at Date of Service

$2,989 in claims were found in this category. 84% of this amount was for claims with dates of service between October and December 1997.

INOVA PCPs

Some INOVA PCPs were incorrectly categorized as DH only during October 1997. They were all corrected effective November 1, 1997.

$73,444 in claims were found in this category. All claims except for 3 had dates of service in October 1997. The remaining 3 were for services incurred in April.

DC and PG County

No claims were found to be charged against DH for members whose PCP was categorized as DC/PG. A further search was performed to identify any PCPs who were incorrectly categorized as DH when they should have been categorized as DC/PG. There were no claims found in this regard either.

Termed PCPs at Date of Service

In the process of performing the audit, $18,249 in claims were found to be charged against DH where the PCP was termed at the date of service. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic's position on this issue is that DH should still be responsible for these claims, as it is responsible for all Medicare members unless the member's PCP was INOVA or DC/PG.

Six PCP groups were associated with these claims. They are: 3994, Associates in Medicine or Columbia Primary Care Associates; 9423, Primary Care Mid-Atlantic; 15023, Carroll Primary Care; 27255 Primary Health Group; 41631, GTU Physician Practices or GUMC Primary Care; and 42295, Meadowbridge Family Practice.

The total amount for which NYLCare Mid-Atlantic should be responsible is $76,433, which is the sum of the amounts found to be charged against DH for members who were ineligible and for members who had INOVA PCPs.

- (a) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and Doctors Health shall both follow the time requirements set forth in Section 3.4.2(3) above.
- (b) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and Doctors Health shall ^{if} meet from time to time and confer in good faith to develop policies and procedures to implement the provisions of this Section 3.4.2.

3.4.3 Reimbursement for Doctors Health Repricing Group. Doctors Health shall submit a monthly invoice to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic for its costs associated with the functions of the Doctors Health Repricing Group but such out-of-pocket costs shall conform to commercially reasonable guidelines. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall pay Doctors Health the full amount of the monthly invoice within ten (10) calendar days of receipt.

3.4.4 Payment of Approved Claims. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall make timely payment for all claims approved for payment by Doctors Health in accordance with provisions of Section 3.4.2(4)(a) above, and in accordance with applicable law and regulation. The claim payments will be reviewed by the parties and reconciled on a monthly basis using mutually agreeable procedures. The total payments on such claims made to Participating Providers by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic in any calendar month shall be deducted from the compensation due to be paid to Doctors Health under Section 6.1 on the tenth (10th) day of the following month. In the event that the total amount for claims paid by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic exceeds the total compensation due to be paid to Doctors Health for that month, then NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall invoice Doctors Health for the balance due and Doctors Health shall pay NYLCare Mid-Atlantic within sixty (60) days of the date of receipt of the invoice.

3.4.5 Special Representations of NYLCare Mid-Atlantic. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic represents that it will perform all of its obligations related to claims administration in a commercially reasonable manner, strictly in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Section 3.4, and strictly in accordance with the applicable standards in the health care industry for the timely adjudication and payment of claims. Any penalties, including interest payments required by applicable law, associated with the failure to pay claims in a timely fashion and within the periods required by applicable law, shall, unless caused by the action or inaction of Doctors Health, be borne by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and not Doctors Health. At any time following the first six (6) months of the Initial Term of this Agreement, when conditions warrant, Doctors Health may make one or more of the

RE: September 1998 Monthly
Capitation Calculation

Dear Jeff:

I recently received a copy of the Monthly Capitation Calculation for the month of September, 1998. I was surprised to see that NYLCare has unilaterally decided to change the method of calculation for September. The calculation, if done consistent with the method of calculation for every month of the contract period prior to September, 1998, would have revealed a net positive cash balance in favor of Doctors Health in the amount of approximately $1,443,047.

Without explanation, NYLCare has now charged us for "claims incurred but not paid through August 31, 1998". Please review the enclosed copy of the September, 1998 calculation and compare it to the enclosed copies of the October, 1997 through August 1998 calculations. I would appreciate your prompt assistance in having the September, 1998 Capitation Calculation redone consistent with prior periods to show the above mentioned positive cash balance in our favor.

As you know, we still have a lot of issues to resolve. This is no way to begin that process.

Sincerely,

Stewart B. Gold
Chief Executive Officer

DOCTORS HEALTH

It's the Sure Sign of Caring

VIA FAX AND OVERNIGHT MAIL

Mr. Don Liu
Legal Counsel
Aetna US Healthcare
980 Jolly Road
Blue Bell, PA 19422

September 15, 1998

Dear Don:

I have previously provided you my views in my September 11, 1998 letter as to why Doctors Health does not owe NYLCare $2.6 million and why Doctors Health is entitled to substantial offsets. You indicated to me in a voicemail on late Friday, September 11, 1998 that you were confused by the amounts due between the parties and that you had no knowledge that NYLCare was attempting to draw down the letter of credit. In order to simplify matters for you I am providing you with only those offsets documented by NYLCare's Monthly Capitation report (after excluding the improper unpaid claims amount) for September (dated September 4, 1998 and attached), and audit amounts agreed to by NYLCare that are legitimate offsets which must be credited to Doctors Health. Supporting documentation of these offsets is attached. The accounting below uses the amount due in Susan Lefkowitz's August 13, Demand Letter as a starting point.

August 13, 1998	$2,109,140.16
Amount
Less: Sept. 4, 1998 Report	$1,787,689.48
Surplus
Audit Adjustment	281,000.00
Credits
Total Deductions	$2,068,689.48
Maximum Amount Due NYLCare	$ 40,450.68
before unresolved offsets

I trust you will realize that it would be smart to back off on the improper LOC demand and we are ready to pay promptly the $40,450.68 amount. The relevant documentation is attached. In support of the Audit Adjustment Credits we have attached NYLCare correspondence to us on the matter. We believe that there may be at least an additional $700,000 - $900,000 in credits to be acknowledged by NYLCare in the near future. I have attempted to reach you and David Simon by phone yesterday and today, but you have not responded to any of my calls. I hope that you will call me back so as to try and reconcile the offsets which have been set forth in this letter. NYLCare's actions are unconscionable and your failure to promptly remedy this matter is only exacerbating the damages caused by the improper attempt to draw upon the letter of credit. Your failure to even return phone calls is further evidence of the callous disregard with which NYLCare has treated Doctors Health.

Your immediate attention is requested.

Sincerely,

James A. Gast

Dear Mr. Gold:

I am pleased to advise you that our affiliate, The Chase Manhattan Bank (the "Bank") is prepared to make available to you a line of credit (the "Line") up to a maximum amount of $11,000,000, subject to the following terms and conditions:

Loan Amount: up to $11,000,000

Borrower: Doctors Health, Inc.

Purpose: Refinance existing indebtedness, support the issuance of Letters of Credit, and provide for working capital

Pricing: LIBOR + .50% or Prime Rate

The "Prime Rate" is the rate announced from time to time at the Bank's head office as its prime commercial lending rate.

"LIBOR" shall mean the rate per annum (rounded upwards, if necessary, to the nearest 1/16%) quoted by the Bank at approximately 11:00 a.m. London time three business days prior to the first day of such loan for the offering by the bank to leading banks in the London Inter-bank market of U.S. dollar deposits having a term of one, two, three or six months and an amount comparable to the principal amount of such loan. Accrued interest on LIBOR loans shall be payable at the end of each calendar month and at the maturity of each loan. LIBOR loans are subject to usual protective provisions and prepayment premiums

Letters of Credit: Letters of Credit issued under this line of credit shall reduce availability under the line by the amount of each SBLC issued

Facility Fee Waived

Letter of Credit Fee Upon issuance and any subsequent renewal of any Standby Letter Of Credit, a fee equal to 1% of the face amount of the letter of credit shall be due and payable to the bank

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

PAYMENT TERMS:

1. The Applicant agrees to pay to you on demand in same day funds at your main office in United States currency:

(a) as to drafts or claims payable in United States currency drawn or made under the Credit, the amount paid thereon with interest from the date of such payment at a fluctuating rate per annum equal to 2% above the rate publicly announced by you from time to time in New York as your prime rate, which rate is not intended to be the lowest rate of interest charged by you to your borrowers, calculated on the basis of a 360 day year for the actual number of days elapsed;

(b) the equivalent of drafts or claims payable in currency other than United States currency drawn or made under the Credit consisting of (i) the amount paid on each draft or claim at your then applicable selling rate for cable transfers to the place where and in the currency in which such draft or claim is payable (if you have no such selling rate at such time, the Applicant shall pay you the actual cost to you of settlement of your obligation with respect to the draft or claim); and (ii) interest from the date of such payment at the rate and on the terms set forth in subsection 1 (a) hereof; and (iii) any and all other expenses or charges incurred by you in issuing or effecting payment under the Credit in such foreign currency; and

(c) such commission for the issuance of the Credit and such fees at such rate as you determine and any and all expenses, obligations, charges, and liabilities paid or incurred by you or any of your correspondents, or for which you or they may become liable, together with interest, from the date paid or incurred, at the rate and on the terms set forth in subsection 1 (a) above.

Such payments shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for any present or future foreign taxes, levies, imposts, deductions, charges, withholdings, and all liabilities with respect thereto.

2. You are hereby authorized to charge the Applicant's account(s) maintained with you for any and all amounts due to you hereunder.

EXTENSIONS, INCREASES, OR MODIFICATIONS OF THE CREDIT:

3. In the event of any increase, extension, or other modification of the terms of the Credit at the request or with the consent of any Applicant, the request shall be binding upon all Applicants and guarantors with regard to: (a) the Credit so increased, extended, or otherwise modified; (b) drafts or claims, required statements, and documents covered thereby; and (c) any action taken by you in accordance with such increase, extension, or other modification.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND LIABILITIES:

4. (a) Neither you nor any of your correspondents shall be responsible for, and the Applicant's obligation to reimburse you shall not be affected by: (i) the form, validity, accuracy, sufficiency, legal effect, or genuineness of drafts, claims, documents, or required statements, even if such drafts, claims, documents, or statements should in fact prove to be in any or all respects invalid, insufficient, inaccurate, fraudulent, or forged; (ii) failure of any draft or claim to bear any reference or adequate reference to the Credit; (iii) omissions, interruptions, or delays in transmission or delivery of any message by mail or teletransmission; (iv) any act, error, default, omission, or failure in business of any correspondent or for any consequences arising from causes beyond your control; or (v) any payment against presentation of drafts, claims, documents, or required statements which do not strictly comply with the terms of the Credit provided such drafts, claims, documents, or required statements substantially comply with the terms of the Credit. You shall have sole discretion to decide whether to pay against drafts, claims, documents, or required statements which substantially comply with the terms of the Credit.

(b) You are authorized to accept an authenticated teletransmission claim from the beneficiary containing any required statement(s) in lieu of any required draft and any required signed statement(s). Unless the Credit expressly provides to the contrary, the Applicant agrees that you may pay or pay against, as complying with the terms of the Credit, any draft, claim, required statement, or other document otherwise in order or which substantially complies with the terms of the Credit, even if any draft, claim, required statement, or other document may be purportedly signed or issued by an administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, debtor in possession, assignee for the benefit of creditors, liquidator, receiver, successor, legal representative, or any other party succeeding de facto or de jure to the powers, rights, or privileges of the party who is authorized under the Credit to draw or issue any drafts, claims, required statements, or other documents.

(c) In case of any variation between the Applicant's instructions and the requirements of the Credit or between documents or required statements accepted by you or your correspondents and the requirements of the Credit for which you are otherwise responsible hereunder, the Applicant shall be conclusively deemed to have waived any right to object to such variation unless immediately upon any Applicant's receipt of a copy of the Credit or of such documents or required statements or notice of such variation the Applicant files written objection with you specifying each variation to which objection is made. No legal proceeding or action shall be brought by Applicant against you arising from any such variation unless (i) the Applicant shall have given the written notice as required in this subsection (c) and (ii) such legal proceeding or action shall be commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction sitting in the State of New York within one year after the date when such copy of the Credit or documents or required statements were delivered or mailed to the Applicant.

(d) Any action, inaction, or omission taken or suffered by you or by any of your correspondents under or

Dear Mr. Gold:

I am pleased to advise you that our affiliate, The Chase Manhattan Bank (the "Bank") is prepared to make available to you a line of credit (the "Line") up to a maximum amount of $11,000,000, subject to the following terms and conditions.

Loan Amount: up to $11,000,000

Borrower: Doctors Health, Inc.

Purpose: Refinance existing indebtedness, support the issuance of Letters of Credit, and provide for working capital

Pricing: LIBOR + .50% or Prime Rate

The "Prime Rate" is the rate announced from time to time at the Bank's head office as its prime commercial lending rate.

"LIBOR" shall mean the rate per annum (rounded upwards, if necessary, to the nearest 1/16%) quoted by the Bank at approximately 11:00 a.m. London time three business days prior to the first day of such loan for the offering by the bank to leading banks in the London inter-bank market of U.S. dollar deposits having a term of one, two, three or six months and an amount comparable to the principal amount of such loan. Accrued interest on LIBOR loans shall be payable at the end of each calendar month and at the maturity of each loan. LIBOR loans are subject to usual protective provisions and prepayment premiums.

Letters of Credit: Letters of Credit issued under this line of credit shall reduce availability under the line by the amount of each SBLC issued

Facility Fee Waived

Letter of Credit Fee Upon issuance and any subsequent renewal of any Standby Letter Of Credit, a fee equal to 1% of the face amount of the letter of credit shall be due and payable to the bank

Collateral:

Cash, marketable securities and other collateral held in an Account ("the Account") with the Bank or its affiliates in an amount sufficient to cover the Loan Amount based upon the following maximum advance rates:

- 100% - Cash in the Account and certificates of deposit, market index investments, money market mutual funds managed by the Bank and other cash equivalents in the Account;
- 90% - Maximum against U.S. Government Securities and U.S. Municipal Bonds rated AAA by Standard and Poors or Aaa by Moody's.

The Bank shall have the right to modify the types of collateral and margin requirements at any time.

In the event that the value of the Eligible Collateral shall decline with the effect that the Loan Value defined below shall be less than the amount of the loan balance outstanding, the Bank, at its option: 1) will require the Borrower to provide additional Collateral acceptable to the Bank in its sole discretion, or to make a principal payment to the extent necessary to ensure that the outstandings are in compliance with the Maximum Advance Rate(s); or 2) may sell the collateral and apply the proceeds to the outstanding loans in an amount sufficient to ensure compliance with the Maximum Advance Rate(s). "Loan Value" shall mean the advance rate, as determined by the Bank from time to time. Collateral may be sold by the Bank without regard to the Borrower's basis or holding period.

Loan Term:

One Year

Principal Amortization:

None, this loan shall be interest only.

Conditions:

This loan will have no prepayment penalties (excepting LIBOR provisions, if any)

Events of Default shall include:

- Non-payment of Chase principal and/or interest when due.
- Material adverse change in Borrower's financial condition.
- Failure to deliver audited financial statements with footnotes and schedules and corporate tax returns with schedules on an annual basis.
- Bankruptcy or insolvency of Borrower
- Failure to deliver any other financial information that the Bank may reasonably request.

The foregoing is for your information only and does not constitute a commitment by the Bank. The line is extended at the Bank's sole discretion and is subject to the Borrowers' maintenance of a satisfactory relationship with, and a financial condition acceptable to, the Bank. This letter will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without regard to the principles of conflicts of laws.

You hereby agree to reimburse Chase for the reasonable fees and expenses of its legal counsel arising in connection with Chase's preparation and delivery of this letter and the Facility Documents, preparation and recordation of any UCC filings, and any other expenses necessary for Chase to close this loan regardless of whether or not Facility Documents are executed.

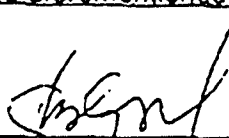

These facilities will be evidenced by documentation in form and substance satisfactory to the Bank.

Please indicate your acceptance of these terms and conditions by signing in the space provided below.

Very truly yours,

Richard M. Ditzio
Vice President

The aforementioned terms and conditions are acceptable:

GRID TIME PROMISSORY NOTE (EURODOLLAR/PRIME RATE)

October __, 1997

For value received, Doctors Health, Inc. (the "Borrower") hereby promises to pay to the order of The Chase Manhattan Bank (the "Bank") at its office at 1211 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10036 for the account of the lending office of the Bank set forth on the signature page hereof (the "Lending Office"), the principal amount of Eleven Million Dollars ($11,000,000.00) or, if less, the principal amount of each loan made by the Bank to the Borrower, on the maturity date of such Loan which shall be (i) one calendar month after the date of such Loan, in the case of a Eurodollar Loan, or (ii) the date recorded by the Bank on its books, in the case of a Prime Loan; each, a "Maturity Date". In no event shall any loan hereunder have a maturity date later than October 31, ~~1997~~, such date being the Final Maturity Date of this note. Excepting receipt by the Bank of notice from the Borrower indicating an alternate selection, the one month Eurodollar rate shall be utilized.

The Borrower promises to pay interest on the unpaid balance of the principal amount of each such Loan from and including the date of such Loan to such Maturity Date at either (i) a floating rate per annum equal to the Prime Rate (such Loan a "Prime Loan"); or (ii) a fixed rate per annum equal to the Adjusted Eurodollar Rate applicable to such Loan plus .50% (such Loan a "Eurodollar Loan"). Any principal not paid when due shall bear interest from and including the date due until paid in full at a rate per annum equal to the Default Rate. Interest shall be payable on the relevant Interest Payment Date. Interest shall be calculated on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days (in the case of Prime Loans) and 360 days (in the case of Eurodollar Loans) for the actual number of days elapsed.

All payments hereunder shall be made in lawful money of the United States and in immediately available funds. Any extension of time for the payment of the principal of this Note resulting from the due date falling on a non-Banking Day shall be included in the computation of interest. The date, amount, type and Maturity Date of, and the interest rate with respect to, each Loan evidenced hereby and all payments of principal thereof shall be recorded by the Bank on its books and, prior to any transfer of this Note (or, at the discretion of the Bank, at any other time), endorsed by the Bank on Schedule A attached to this Note. The Bank may (but shall not be obligated to) debit the amount of any payment under this Note that is not made when due to any deposit account of the Borrower with the Bank.

The Borrower waives presentment, notice of dishonor, protest and any other notice or formality with respect to this Note.

1. Definitions. The terms listed below shall be defined as follows:

"Adjusted Eurodollar Rate" shall mean the Eurodollar Rate for such Loan divided by one minus the Reserve Requirement.

"Banking Day" shall mean any day on which commercial banks are not authorized or required to close in New York City and whenever such day relates to a Eurodollar Loan or notice with respect to any Eurodollar Loan, a day on which dealings in U.S. dollar deposits are also carried out in the London interbank market.

"Collateral Agreement" shall mean the Collateral Agreement (Direct) dated October __, 1997, executed by the Borrower in favor of the Bank.

"Default Rate" means, in respect of any amount not paid when due, a rate per annum during the period commencing on the due date until such amount is paid in full equal to: (a) if a Prime Loan, a floating rate of 2% above the rate of interest thereon (including any margin); (b) if such Loan is a Eurodollar Loan, a fixed rate of 2% above the rate of interest in effect thereon (including any margin) at the time of default until the Maturity Date thereof and, thereafter, a floating rate of 2% above the rate of interest for a Prime Loan (including any margin).

"Eurodollar Rate" shall mean the rate per annum (rounded upwards, if necessary, to the nearest 1/16 of 1%) quoted by the Bank at approximately 11:00 a.m. London time (or as soon thereafter as practicable) two Banking Days prior to the first day of such Loan for the offering by the Bank to leading banks in the London interbank market of U.S. dollar deposits having a term comparable to such Loan and in an amount comparable to the principal amount of such Loan.

"Facility Documents" shall mean this Note, the Collateral Agreement, the line of credit offer letter dated October 17, 1997 and any updates or renewals thereof, and any other documents, instruments, or agreements delivered in connection with this Note or the Collateral Agreement whether by the Borrower or a Third Party.

"Head Office" shall mean the head office of the Bank, currently located at 270 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10017

"Interest Payment Date" shall mean (i) for any Prime Loan hereunder, the last Banking Day of each calendar month; and (ii) for any Eurodollar Loan, the Maturity Date of such loan; and (iii) for any Prime Loan or Eurodollar Loan, on any payment of principal.

"Loan Value" shall mean the advance rate, as determined by the Bank from time to time, assigned to each type of collateral that the Bank accepts as eligible collateral.

"Prime Rate" shall mean that rate of interest from time to time announced by the Bank at the Head Office as its prime commercial lending rate.

"Regulation D" shall mean Regulation D of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

"Regulatory Change" shall mean any change after the date of this Note in United States federal, state or municipal laws or any foreign laws or regulations (including Regulation D) or the adoption or making after such date of any interpretations, directives or requests applying to a class of banks, including the Bank, of or under any United States federal, state or municipal laws or any foreign laws or regulations (whether or not having the force of law) by any court or governmental or monetary authority charged with the interpretation or administration thereof.

"Reserve Requirement" shall mean, for any Eurodollar Loan, the average maximum rate at which reserves (including any marginal, supplemental or emergency reserves) are required to be maintained during the term of such Loan under Regulation D by member banks of the Federal Reserve System in New York City with deposits exceeding one billion U.S. dollars against "Eurocurrency liabilities" (as such term is used in Regulation D). Without limiting the effect of the foregoing, the Reserve Requirement shall reflect any other reserves required to be maintained by such member banks by reason of any Regulatory Change against (x) any category of liabilities which includes deposits by reference to which the Eurodollar Rate is to be determined or (y) any category of extensions of credit or other assets which include Eurodollar Loans.

"Third Party" shall mean any party liable with respect to, or otherwise granting support for, this Note, whether by guaranty, subordination, grant of security or otherwise.

2. Borrowings; and Prepayments. The Borrower shall give the Bank notice of each borrowing by 12:00 noon New York City time three (3) days prior to each requested borrowing of a Eurodollar Loan and by 12:00 noon New York City time on the date of such borrowing of a Prime Loan; provided that no Eurodollar Loan shall be in a minimum amount equal to less than $250,000.00. The Borrower shall have the right to make prepayments of principal at any time or from time to time; provided that: (a) the Borrower shall give the Bank notice of each prepayment by 12:00 noon New York City time two (2) days prior to prepayment of a Eurodollar Loan and by 12:00 noon New York City time on the date of prepayment of a Prime Loan; (b) Eurodollar Loans may be prepaid prior to their Maturity Date only if accompanied by payment of the additional compensation calculated in accordance with paragraph 5 below; (c) prepayments shall be applied to the installments of principal in the inverse order of their maturities; and (d) prepayments for Eurodollar Loans shall be in a minimum amount equal to the lesser of $250,000 or the unpaid principal amount of such Loan.

3. Additional Costs. (a) If as a result of any Regulatory Change which (i) changes the basis of taxation of any amounts payable to the Bank under the Note (other than taxes imposed on the overall net income of the Bank or the Lending Office by the jurisdictions in which the Head Office of the Bank or the Lending Office are located) or (ii) imposes or modifies any reserve, special deposit, deposit insurance or assessments, minimum capital, capital ratios or similar requirements relating to any extension of credit or other assets of, or any deposits with or other liabilities of the Bank, or (iii) imposes any other condition affecting this Note, the Bank determines (which determination shall be conclusive) that the cost to it of making or maintaining a Eurodollar Loan is increased or any amount received or receivable by the Bank under this Note is reduced, then the Borrower will pay to the Bank on demand an additional amount that the Bank determines will compensate it for the increased cost or reduction in amount.

(b) Without limiting the effect of the foregoing provisions of this Section 3 (but without duplication), the Borrower shall pay to the Bank from time to time on request such amounts as the Bank may determine to be necessary to compensate the Bank for any costs which it determines are attributable to the maintenance by it or any of its affiliates pursuant to any law or regulation of any jurisdiction or any interpretation, directive or request (whether or not having the force of law and whether in effect on the date of this Note or thereafter) of any court or governmental or monetary authority of capital in respect of the Loans hereunder (such compensation to include, without limitation, an amount equal to any reduction in return on assets or equity of the Bank to a level below that which it could have achieved but for such law, regulation, interpretation, directive or request).

4. Unavailability, Inadequacy or Illegality of Eurodollar Rate. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, if the Bank determines (which determination shall be conclusive) that:

(a) quotations of interest rates for the relevant deposits referred to in the definition of Eurodollar Rate are not being provided in the relevant amounts or for the relevant maturities for purposes of determining the rate of interest for the Loan; or

(b) the definition of Eurodollar Rate does not adequately cover the cost to the Bank of making or maintaining the Eurodollar Loan; or

(c) as a result of any Regulatory Change (or any change in the interpretation thereof) adopted after the date hereof, the Head Office of the Bank or the Lending Office is subject to any taxes, reserves, limitations, or other charges, requirements or restrictions on any claims of such office on non-United States residents (including, without limitation, claims on non-United States offices or affiliates of the Bank) or in respect of the excess above a specified level of such claims; or

(d) it is unlawful for the Bank or the Lending Office to maintain the Eurodollar Loan at the Eurodollar Rate;

THEN, the Bank shall give the Borrower prompt notice thereof, and so long as such condition remains in effect, the existing Eurodollar Loan shall bear interest as a Prime Loan until the Maturity Date of such Loan and the Bank shall make no Eurodollar Loans

5. Certain Compensation. If for any reason there is a principal payment of a Eurodollar Loan on a date other than its Maturity Date (whether by prepayment, acceleration or otherwise), the Borrower will pay to the Bank such amount or amounts as shall be sufficient (in the reasonable opinion of the Bank) to compensate the Bank for any loss, cost or expense which the Bank determines is attributable to such payment.

Without limiting the generality of the preceding paragraph, such compensation shall include an amount equal to the excess, if any of (i) the amount of interest which otherwise would have accrued on the principal amount so paid for the period from the date of such payment to the Maturity Date at a rate per annum equal to the sum of the then applicable Eurodollar Rate (plus any margin) over (ii) the interest component of the amount the Bank would have bid in the Eurodollar interbank market for deposits in U.S. dollars of leading banks in amounts comparable to such principal amount and with maturities comparable to such period (as reasonably determined by the Bank).

6. Representations. The Borrower represents and warrants that:

(a) none of the proceeds of the Loans shall be used to "purchase" or "carry" "margin stock" as defined by Regulation U of the Federal Reserve Board;

(b) it is duly organized, validly existing and good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, and has all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Facility Documents;

(c) the Facility Documents have been duly executed and delivered by the Borrower and constitute the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Borrower, enforceable against the Borrower in accordance with their terms, except as enforcement hereof and thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and subject to the applicability of general principles of equity;

(d) the execution, delivery and performance by the Borrower of the Facility Documents and all other documents contemplated hereby or thereby, do not and will not (i) conflict with or constitute a breach of, or default under, the articles of incorporation or bylaws, or other organizational documents, of the Borrower; or (ii) conflict with or constitute a breach of, or default under, or require any consent under, or result in the creation of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon the property or assets of the Borrower pursuant to any other agreement or instrument (other than the pledge of and security interest granted in the collateral) to which the Borrower is a party or is bound or by which its properties may be bound or affected; or (iii) violate any provision of any law, rule, regulation (including, without limitation, Regulation U of the Federal Reserve Board), order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination or award presently in effect having applicability to the Borrower;

(e) no consent, approval or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with any governmental authority or other person or entity is required as a condition to or in connection with the due and valid execution, delivery and performance by Borrower of any Facility Document; and

(l) there are no actions, suits, investigations or proceedings pending or threatened at law, in equity, in arbitration or by or before any other authority involving or affecting: (i) the Borrower that, if adversely determined, are likely to have a material adverse effect on the prospects or condition of Borrower; (ii) any part of the collateral or any material part of the other assets or properties of Borrower; or (iii) any of the transactions contemplated in the Facility Documents. Borrower is not in default with respect to any judgment, writ, injunction, order, decree or consent of any court or other judicial authority, which default is likely to have or has had a material adverse effect on the prospects or condition of Borrower.

Each borrowing request by the Borrower under this Note shall constitute a representation and warranty that the statements above are true and correct both on the date of such request and on the date of the borrowing. Each borrowing request shall also constitute a representation that no event of default under this Note has occurred and is continuing or would result from such borrowing.

7. Events of Default. If any of the following events of default shall occur and be continuing:

(a) the Borrower shall fail to pay the principal of, or interest on, this Note, or any other amount payable under this Note, as and when due and payable;

(b) any representation or warranty made or deemed made by the Borrower in this Note or by the Borrower in any Facility Document to which it is a party, or in any certificate, document, opinion or financial or other statement furnished under or in connection with a Facility Document, shall prove to have been incorrect in any material respect on or after the date hereof;

(c) the Borrower shall fail to perform or observe any term, covenant or agreement contained in any Facility Document on its part to be performed or observed;

(d) the Borrower shall fail to pay when due any of its indebtedness (including, but not limited to, indebtedness for borrowed money) or any interest or premium thereon when due (whether by scheduled maturity, acceleration, demand or otherwise);

(e) the Borrower : (i) shall generally not, or be unable to, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as its debts become due; (ii) shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or petition or apply to any tribunal for the appointment of a custodian, receiver or trustee for its or a substantial part of its assets; (iii) shall commence any proceeding under any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, dissolution or liquidation; (iv) shall have had any such petition filed, or any such proceeding shall have been commenced against it, in which an adjudication is made or order for relief is entered or which remains undismissed for a period of 30 days; (v) shall have had a receiver, custodian or trustee appointed for all or a substantial part of its property; or (vi) takes any action effectuating, approving or consenting to any of the events described in clauses (i) through (v);

(f) the Borrower shall become insolvent, dissolve or for any reason cease to be in existence, or shall merge or consolidate;

(g) the Borrower is involved in a proceeding relating to, or which may result in, a forfeiture of part or all of the Borrower's or any general or limited partner's assets;

(h) there is, in the opinion of the Bank, a material adverse change in the business, prospects or financial condition of the Borrower;

(i) the sum of the Loans outstanding hereunder is at any time greater than the aggregate Loan Value of the collateral pledged to secure the Loans;

(j) while this Note is in effect, the Borrower fails to furnish audited annual financial statements of the Borrower including balance sheet, income statement and statement of cash flow to the Bank within 60 days after the end of the each fiscal year of the Borrower

(k) while this Note is in effect, the Borrower fails to furnish interim statements of the Borrower including balance sheet, income statement, and statement of cash flow, covering the previous fiscal quarter and year-to-date results to be furnished to the Bank within 30 days of each fiscal quarter any Facility Document granting a security interest at any time and for any reason shall cease to create a valid and perfected first priority security interest in and to the property purported to be subject to the Facility Document or ceases to be in full force and effect or is declared null and void, or the validity or enforceability of any Facility Document is contested by any party to the Facility Document, or such signatory to the Facility Document denies it has any further liability or obligation under the Facility Document;

(l) any Facility Document granting a security interest at any time and for any reason shall cease to create a valid and perfected first priority security interest in and to the property purported to be subject to the Facility Document or ceases to be in full force and effect or is declared null and void, or the validity or enforceability of any Facility Document is contested by any party to the Facility Document, or such signatory to the Facility Document denies it has any further liability or obligation under the Facility Document;

THEN, the Bank may, by notice to the Borrower, declare the unpaid principal amount of this Note, accrued interest thereon and all other amounts payable under this Note due and payable whereupon the same shall become and be forthwith due and payable without presentment, demand, protest or further notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Borrower, provided that in the case of an event of default described in clause (e) above, the unpaid principal amount of this Note, accrued interest and other amounts payable under this Note shall be immediately due and payable.

8. Expenses. The Borrower agrees to reimburse the Bank on demand for all costs, expenses and charges (including, without limitation, fees and charges of external counsel and costs allocated by internal legal counsel) in connection with the preparation or modification of the Facility Documents, performance or enforcement of the Facility Documents, filing and recordation fees, or the defense or prosecution of any rights of the Bank pursuant to any Facility Documents.

9. Jurisdiction. The Borrower hereby irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of any New York state or United States federal court sitting in New York City over any action or proceeding arising out of this Note, and the Borrower hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of such action or proceeding may be held and determined in such New York state or federal court. The Borrower hereby further irrevocably consents to the service of process in any such action or proceeding in either of said courts by mailing thereof by the Bank by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to the Borrower at its address specified on the signature page hereof, or at the Borrower's most recent mailing address as set forth in the records of the Bank.

The Borrower agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in any other jurisdiction by suit or proceeding in such state on the basis of an inconvenient forum. Nothing herein shall affect the right of the Bank to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law or affect the right of the Bank to bring any action or proceeding against the Borrower or its property in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

10. Waiver of Jury Trial.

THE BORROWER AND THE BANK WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL.

11. Assignments; Participation. The Bank may at any time and from time to time sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of all of any portion of this Note or of the Bank's interest herein. The Bank may furnish any information concerning the Borrower in the possession of the Bank from time to time to assignees (including prospective assignees). The Borrower may not assign or transfer its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Bank. Notwithstanding any other language in this Note, the Bank may at any time assign all or any portion of its rights under this Note to a Federal Reserve Bank as collateral in accordance with Regulation A of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the applicable operating circular of such Federal Reserve Bank.

12. Miscellaneous. (a) The provisions of this Note are intended to be severable. If for any reason any provisions of this Note shall be held invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part in any jurisdiction, such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without in any manner affecting the validity or enforceability thereof in any other jurisdiction or the remaining provisions thereof in any jurisdiction.

(b) No amendment, modification, supplement or waiver of any provision of this Note nor consent to departure by the Borrower therefrom shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Borrower and the Bank, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given.

(c) No failure on the part of the Bank to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof or preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right. The remedies herein provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any remedies provided by law.

(d) As used herein, the term Borrower shall include all signatories hereto, if more than one. In such event, the obligations, representations and warranties of the Borrower hereunder shall be joint and several. This Note shall be binding on the Borrower and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the Bank and its successors and assigns, except that the Borrower may not delegate any of its obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Bank.

(e) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the obligations of the Borrower under this Note shall be subject to the limitation that payments of interest shall not be required to the extent that receipt thereof would be contrary to provisions of law applicable to the Bank limiting rates of interest which may be charged or collected by the Bank.

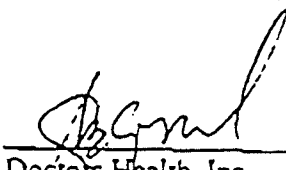

(f) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, notices shall be given to the Bank and the Borrower at their respective addresses set forth in the signature page of this Note, or such other address communicated in writing by either such party to the other. Notices to the Bank shall be effective upon receipt.

(g) The obligations of the Borrower under Sections 3, 5, 8, 9 and 10 hereof shall survive the repayment of the Loans.

13. Governing Law. This Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, provided that such choice of law is not intended to limit the maximum rate of interest which may be charged or collected by the Bank hereunder if the Bank may, under the laws applicable to it, charge or collect interest at a higher rate than is permissible under the laws of said state.

COLLATERAL AGREEMENT

In consideration of one or more loans, letters of credit or other financial accommodations extended by THE CHASE MANHATTAN BANK or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates (the "Bank"), the undersigned and the Bank agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

"Collateral" means each of the following as identified in Exhibit A, and includes all additions, proceeds, renewals, investments and reinvestments, substitutions and any sums of money standing to the credit of any account opened or maintained by any clearing system for the undersigned and under the direction or control of the Bank, whether or not listed on Exhibit A: (a) the deposits of the undersigned with the Bank (whether or not held in trust, or in any custody, subcustody, safekeeping, investment management accounts, or other accounts of the undersigned with the Bank) (the "Deposits"); (b) the stocks, bonds and other instruments and securities (whether or not held in trust or in any custody, subcustody, safekeeping, investment management accounts or other accounts of the undersigned with the Bank or any other custodian or trustee or clearing system) (the "Securities"); (c) all Deposits, Securities and any other assets held in trust, or in any custody, subcustody, safekeeping, investment management accounts, or other accounts of the undersigned with the Bank or any other custodian or trustee or clearing system (the "Account Assets"); and as to all of the foregoing, all certificates, receipts and other instruments evidencing the Deposits, Securities and Account Assets. "Clearing system" includes Cedel Bank, societe anoyne, the Euroclear System, the Depository Trust Company ("DTC") and such other clearing or safekeeping system that may from time to time be used in connection with transactions relating to or the custody of any Securities, and any depository for any of the foregoing.

"Liabilities" means indebtedness, obligations and liabilities of any kind of the undersigned to the Bank, now or in the future, absolute or contingent, direct or indirect, joint or several, due or not due, arising by operation of law or otherwise, and costs and expenses incurred by the Bank in connection with the Collateral, this Agreement or any Liability Document.

"Liability Document" means any instrument, agreement or document evidencing or delivered in connection with the Liabilities.

2. Grant of Security Interest.

As security for the payment of all the Liabilities, the undersigned pledges, transfers and assigns to the Bank and grants to the Bank a security interest in and right of setoff against, the Collateral.

3. Agreements of the Undersigned and Rights of the Bank.

The undersigned agrees as follows and irrevocably authorizes the Bank to exercise the rights listed below, at its option, for its own benefit, either in its own name or in the name of the undersigned, and appoints the Bank as its attorney-in-fact to take all action permitted under this Agreement.

(a) Deposits: The Bank may: (i) renew the Deposits on terms and for periods the Bank deems appropriate; (ii) demand, collect, and receive payment of any monies or proceeds due or to become due under the Deposits; (iii) execute any instruments required for the withdrawal or repayment of the Deposits; (iv) in all respects deal with the Deposits as the owner, provided that, as to (ii) through (iv), until the occurrence of a Default, the Bank will only take that action if, in its judgment, failure to take that action would impair its rights under this Agreement.

(b) Securities: The Bank may: (i) transfer to the account of the Bank any Securities whether in the possession of, or registered in the name of, the DTC or other clearing system or held otherwise; (ii) transfer to the account of the Bank with any Federal Reserve Bank any Securities held in book entry form with any such Federal Reserve Bank; and (iii) transfer to the name of the Bank or its nominee any Securities registered in the name of the undersigned and held by the Bank and complete and deliver any necessary stock powers or other transfer instruments; provided that until the occurrence of a Default, the Bank will only take that action if, in its judgment, failure to take that action would impair its rights under this Agreement.

The undersigned grants to the Bank an irrevocable proxy to vote any and all Securities and give consents, waivers and ratifications in connection with those Securities, provided that until the occurrence of a Default the Bank will only take that action if, in its judgment, failure to take that action would impair its rights under this Agreement.

All payments, distributions and dividends in securities, property or cash shall be paid directly to and, at the discretion of the Bank, retained by the Bank and held by it, until applied as provided in this Agreement, as additional Collateral; provided that until the occurrence of a Default, interest on Deposits and cash dividends on Securities paid in the ordinary course will be paid to the undersigned.

(c) General: The Bank may, in its name, or in the name of the undersigned: (i) execute and file financing statements under the Uniform Commercial Code (the "UCC"), or any other filings necessary or desirable to create, perfect or preserve its security interest, all without notice (except as required by applicable law and not waivable) and without liability except to account for property actually received by it; (ii) demand, sue for, collect or receive any money or property at any time payable or receivable on account of or in exchange for, or make any compromise or settlement deemed desirable with respect to, any item of the Collateral (but shall be under no obligation to do so); (iii) in its sole discretion, modify the terms of any Liability or release any item of the Collateral, without incurring responsibility to, or affecting any liability of, the undersigned; and (iv) make any notification (to the issuer of any certificate or Security, or otherwise) or take any other action in connection with the perfection or preservation of its security interest or any enforcement of remedies, and retain any documents evidencing the title of the undersigned to any item of the Collateral.

The undersigned agrees that it will not sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of, grant any option with respect to, or pledge, or otherwise encumber the Collateral, or file or permit to be filed any financing or like statement with respect to the Collateral in which the Bank is not named as the sole secured party. At the request of the Bank the undersigned agrees to do all other things which the Bank may deem necessary or advisable in order to perfect and preserve the security interest and to give effect to the rights granted to the Bank under this Agreement or enable the Bank to comply with any applicable laws or regulations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Bank does not assume any duty with respect to the Collateral and is not be required to take any action to collect, preserve or protect its or the undersigned's rights in any item of the Collateral. The undersigned releases the Bank and agrees to hold the Bank harmless from any claims, causes of action and demands at any time arising with respect to this Agreement, the use or disposition of any item of the Collateral or any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Bank with respect thereto.

The rights granted to the Bank pursuant to this Agreement are in addition to the rights granted to the Bank in any custody, investment management, trust or similar agreement. In case of conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and of any other such agreement, the provisions of this Agreement will prevail.

Unless the context otherwise requires, all terms used in this Agreement which are defined in the UCC will have the meanings stated in the UCC.

1. Loan Value of the Collateral.

The undersigned agrees that at all times the amount of the Liabilities may not exceed the aggregate Loan Value of the Collateral. The undersigned will, at the Bank's option, either supplement the Collateral or make any payment under the Liabilities to the extent necessary to ensure compliance with this provision or the Bank may liquidate Collateral to the extent necessary to ensure compliance with this provision. "Loan Value" means the value assigned by the Bank from time to time, in its sole reasonable discretion, to each item of the Collateral.

5. Currency Conversion.

For calculation purposes, any currency in which the Collateral is denominated (the "Collateral Currency") will be converted into the currency of the Liabilities (the "Liability Currency") at the spot rate of exchange for the purchase of the Liability Currency with the Collateral Currency quoted by the Bank at such place as the Bank deems appropriate (or, if no such rate is quoted on any relevant date, estimated by the Bank on the basis of the Bank's last quoted spot rate) or another prevailing rate that the Bank deems more appropriate.

6. Representations and Warranties.

The undersigned represents and warrants: (a) the undersigned is the sole owner of the Collateral; (b) the Collateral is free of all encumbrances except for the security interest in favor of the Bank created by this Agreement; (c) no authorizations, consents or approvals and no notice to or filing with any governmental authority or regulatory body is required for the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the exercise by the Bank of its rights and remedies; (d) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement will not violate any provisions of applicable law, regulation or order and will not result in the breach of, or constitute a default, or require any consent, under any agreement, instrument or document to which the undersigned is a party or by which it or any of its property may be bound or affected; (e) as to Deposits and Account Assets, the undersigned has not withdrawn, canceled, been repaid or redeemed all or any part of any Deposits or Account Assets and there is no such pending application; (f) as to Securities, the Securities have been duly authorized and are fully paid and non-assessable and none of the Securities constitutes "restricted securities" and the undersigned is not an "affiliate" in connection with any of the Securities, as such terms are defined in Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933 as amended; and the undersigned understands that Securities held in or by any clearing system may be held on a fungible basis and acknowledges the fungibility regimes pertaining to the Cedel system and the Euroclear system; (g) if the undersigned is a corporation, partnership or limited liability company, it is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, it has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement, the execution, delivery and performance have been duly authorized, will not conflict with any provisions of its governing instruments and the Agreement is a legal, valid and binding obligation of the undersigned, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

7. Default. Each of the following is a default ("Default"):

(i) the undersigned or other person liable on or for any of the Liabilities ("Liability Party") fails to perform or observe any term, covenant, or condition under this Agreement or under any Liability Document; (ii) any sum payable on any of the Liabilities is not paid when due; (iii) any indebtedness of the undersigned or of any Liability Party becomes due and payable by acceleration of its maturity; (iv) any representation and warranty of the undersigned or any Liability Party in this Agreement or in any Liability Document is false or misleading at any time; (v) the undersigned or any Liability Party (if a natural person) dies; (vi) the undersigned or any Liability Party: (a) is generally not, or is unable to, or admits in writing its inability to, pay its debts as its debts become due; (b) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or petitions or applies to any tribunal for the appointment of a custodian, receiver or trustee for its or a substantial part of its assets; (c) commences any proceeding under any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, readjustment of debt, dissolution or liquidation; (d) has any such petition filed, or any such proceeding has been commenced against it, in which an adjudication is made or order for relief is entered or which remains undismissed for a period of 30 days; (e) has a receiver, custodian or trustee appointed for all or a substantial part of its property; or (f) takes any action effectuating, approving or consenting to any of the events described in this section (vi); (vii) the undersigned or any Liability Party is involved in a proceeding relating to, or which may result in, a forfeiture of part or all of the undersigned's or any Liability Party's assets; (viii) the undersigned or any Liability Party (if a corporation, partnership or limited liability company) shall dissolve, or for any reason cease to be in existence or merge or consolidate; or if the undersigned or any Liability Party is a partnership, any general partner shall die, dissolve or for any reason cease to be in existence or cease to be a partner then, unless and to the extent that the Bank otherwise elects, the Bank will be entitled to exercise any of the rights and remedies under this Agreement

8 Remedies.

On a Default, the Bank will have the rights and remedies under the UCC and the other rights granted to the Bank under this Agreement and may exercise its rights without regard to any premium or penalty from liquidation of any Collateral and without regard to the undersigned's basis or holding period for any Collateral.

The Bank may sell in the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, or elsewhere, in one or more sales or parcels, at the price as the Bank deems best, for cash or on credit or for other property, for immediate or future delivery, any item of the Collateral, at any broker's board or at public or private sale, in any reasonable manner permissible under the UCC (except that, to the extent permissible under the UCC, the undersigned waives any requirements of the UCC) and the Bank or anyone else may be the purchaser of the Collateral and hold it free from any claim or right including, without limitation, any equity of redemption of the undersigned, which right the undersigned expressly waives.

The Bank may also, in its sole discretion: (i) convert any part of the Collateral Currency into the Liability Currency; (ii) hold any monies or proceeds representing the Collateral in a cash collateral account in the Liability Currency or other currency that the Bank reasonably selects; (iii) invest such monies or proceeds on behalf of the undersigned; and (iv) apply any portion of the Collateral, first, to all costs and expenses of the Bank, second, to the payment of interest on the Liabilities and any fees or commissions to which the Bank may be entitled, third, to the payment of principal of the Liabilities, whether or not then due, and fourth, to the undersigned.

The undersigned will pay to the Bank all expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by the Bank and the allocated costs of its in-house counsel) in connection with the exercise of any of the Bank's rights or obligations under this Agreement or the Liability Documents. The undersigned will take any action requested by the Bank to allow it to sell or dispose of the Collateral. Notwithstanding that the Bank may continue to hold Collateral and regardless of the value of the Collateral, the undersigned will remain liable for the payment in full of any unpaid balance of the Liabilities.

9. Jurisdiction.

The undersigned consents to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the State and Federal courts sitting in the City of New York and agrees that suit may be brought against the undersigned in those courts or in any other jurisdiction where the undersigned or any of its assets may be found, and the undersigned irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of those courts. The undersigned consents to the service of process by mailing copies of process to the undersigned at its most recent mailing address in the records of the Bank. The undersigned further agrees that any action or proceeding brought against the Bank may be brought only in a New York State or United States Federal court sitting in New York County.

10. Notices.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, notices may be given to the Bank and the undersigned by ordinary mail addressed to the Bank or the undersigned at their addresses on the signature page of this Agreement, or any other address communicated in writing by either party to the other. Notices to the Bank are effective on receipt.

11. Miscellaneous.

(a) The Bank may assign any of the Liabilities or Collateral and will be fully discharged from all responsibility as to the assigned Collateral. That assignee will have all the powers and rights of the Bank hereunder, but only as to the assigned Collateral.

(b) No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement nor consent to any departure by the undersigned will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the undersigned and the Bank and will be effective only in that specific instance and for that specific purpose. No failure on the part of the Bank to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right will operate as a waiver or preclude any other or further exercise or the exercise of any other right.

(c) The rights and remedies in this Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights and remedies which the Bank may have under law or under other agreements or arrangements with the undersigned or any Liability Party.

(d) The provisions of this Agreement are intended to be severable. If for any reason any provision of this Agreement is not valid or enforceable in whole or in part in any jurisdiction, that provision will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of that invalidity or unenforceability without in any manner affecting the validity or enforceability in any other jurisdiction or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

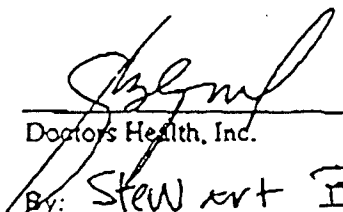

(e) The term "undersigned" will include all signatories, if more than one, and the terms, covenants and conditions and the representations and warranties will be joint and several. The term "undersigned" will also include the heirs, executors, administrators, assigns and successors of the undersigned.

(f) The undersigned hereby waives presentment, notice of dishonor and protest of all instruments included in or evidencing the Liabilities or the Collateral and any other notices and demands, whether or not relating to those instruments.

(g) Unless otherwise agreed, Liabilities will be repayable at the principal office of the Bank at One Chase Manhattan Plaza, New York, New York 10081, on demand and will bear interest at the rate announced by the Bank from time to time at its principal office as its prime commercial lending rate.

(h) This Agreement is governed by and construed according to the laws of the State of New York.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has signed this Agreement this ____ day of _____, ____.

in connection with the Credit or any relative drafts, claims, documents, or property, if in good faith and in conformity with foreign or U.S. laws, regulations, or customs applicable thereto, shall be binding upon the Applicant, shall not affect the Applicant's obligation hereunder to reimburse you, and shall not place you or any of your correspondents under any resulting liability to the Applicant.

(e) You and your correspondents may act in reliance upon any oral, written, or teletransmitted request or notice believed by you in good faith to have been authorized by the Applicant, whether or not given or signed by an authorized person.

(f) In no event shall you be liable for any indirect, special or consequential damages, even if you are advised of the possibility thereof in advance.

INCREASED COSTS:

5. If any change in any law or regulation or in the interpretation or application thereof by any court or administrative or governmental authority charged with the administration thereof shall either (a) impose, modify, or make applicable any reserve, special deposit, assessment, insurance premium, or similar requirement in connection with letters of credit issued by you or (b) impose on you any other condition regarding the Application or the Credit, and the result of any event referred to in subsection (a) or (b) above shall be to increase the cost to you of issuing or maintaining the Credit (which increase in cost shall be the result of your reasonable allocation of the aggregate of such cost increases resulting from such events), then, upon demand by you, the Applicant shall immediately pay to you, from time to time as specified by you, additional amounts which shall be sufficient to compensate you for such increased cost, together with interest on each such amount from the date demanded until payment in full thereof at the rate and on the terms set forth in subsection 1(a) above. A certificate as to such increased cost incurred by you as a result of any event mentioned in subsection (a) or (b) above, submitted by you to the Applicant, shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, as to the amount thereof.

COLLATERAL:

6. As collateral security for the payment of any obligation or liability of the Applicant to you arising under or in connection with the Credit or this Application ("Obligations"), the Applicant hereby grants you a security interest in and you are hereby given a continuing lien for the amount of the Obligations upon any property of the Applicant in your actual or constructive possession or control.

EFFECT OF RELEASES, EXTENSIONS, MODIFICATIONS, OR RENEWALS:

7. The Applicant consents that, without notice to or further assent by the Applicant, the liability of any Applicant for or upon any Obligation may from time to time, in whole or in part, be renewed, extended, modified, released, or settled by you without affecting or releasing in any way the liability of any other Applicant.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT OR FAILURE OF PERFORMANCE:

8. If any Applicant defaults in the punctual payment of any sum payable upon Obligations or fails to perform any agreement entered into with you or another, or upon the happening with respect to any Applicant or guarantor of the Obligations of any of the following: the commencement of any voluntary or involuntary proceedings for reorganization, dissolution, or liquidation; suspension or liquidation of its/ their usual business; insolvency; application for, or appointment of, a conservator, rehabilitator, or receiver of any of them or their property in any jurisdiction; death, termination of existence; offering a composition or extension to creditors; assignment for the benefit of creditors; the making or sending notice of an intended bulk transfer; the making of any misrepresentation to you for the purpose of obtaining credit; or, in your opinion, impairment of financial responsibility of any of them; then, in any of those events, all the Obligations, although contingent and not mature, shall, without notice or demand, be immediately due and payable.

CHANGE IN OWNERSHIP/CONTROL OR FUNDAMENTAL CHANGE:

9. If either (a) a person or entity or combination of persons or entities acting in unison purchases a majority of the voting shares of the Applicant (or of any guarantor or other provider of credit support for the Obligations) or any direct or indirect parent of Applicant (or any such guarantor or other provider of credit support) or otherwise acquires direct or indirect control of the Applicant (or any such guarantor or other provider of credit support) or the ability to direct the operation of the Applicant (or any such guarantor or other provider of credit support) or (b) a Fundamental Change (as hereinafter defined) occurs, the Applicant shall on demand deposit with you, and pledge to you and grant to you a security interest in, an amount deemed sufficient by you, in your discretion, to secure the Obligations. The Applicant (i) shall execute all such documentation which you request to evidence, perfect, and maintain such deposit, pledge, and security interest and (ii) irrevocably authorizes you to act as the Applicant's agent and attorney-in-fact to execute such documentation in the Applicant's name, with or without designation of your authority, and acknowledges that the Applicant shall be obligated in respect of such documentation as if executed by one of its authorized signatories. "Fundamental Change" means the sale or transfer of, or the creation or incurrence of a lien over all or substantially all of the business assets of the Applicant or its subsidiaries (or of any guarantor or other provider of credit support for the Obligations), in one transaction or series of transactions, or the occurrence of any transaction or event (in the nature of a special dividend, share repurchase program or recapitalization or an exchange of equity for debt or other similar transaction or event), as a result of which there is a reduction in the consolidated shareholder's equity (or partnership capital, net worth or similar equivalent term) of the Applicant (or any such guarantor or other provider of credit support), in the manner determined on the date hereof of 5% or more.

NOTICES AND WAIVERS:

10. (a) Any notice to you shall be deemed effective only if in writing sent to and received at your branch, division, or department conducting the transaction or transactions hereunder. If this Application or any amendments or notices with respect thereto or with respect to the Credit is received by you by means of a facsimile transmission, the Applicant hereby authorizes you to accept and to act in reliance upon such Application, amendment or notice and the Applicant shall be bound by the terms of such Application, amendment or notice as if it were the original executed version thereof. The transmission of the Application, any amendments, thereto and any notice with respect to the Credit by facsimile transmission will be entirely at the risk of the Applicant and you shall not be liable for any mistake or omission in such transmission nor for the fact that such transmission was unauthorized or fraudulent. Any notice to or demand on any Applicant shall be binding on all Applicants and shall be deemed effective when made to the person whose name appears first above by mail, teletransmission, telephone or otherwise to the last address or telephone number of such person appearing on your records. No waiver hereunder shall be valid unless in writing, signed by you, and then only to the extent set forth therein. None of the terms or conditions set forth in this Application may be changed orally and no executory agreement unless in writing and signed by you, and no course of dealing between the Applicant and you, shall be effective to change, modify, or discharge in whole or in part this Application.

(b) You and the Applicant in any litigation in which you and any Applicant shall be adverse parties hereby waive trial by jury and the Applicant, in addition, waives the right to interpose any claim, setoff, or counterclaim, of any nature or description, however denominated, and any defense based upon any Statute of Limitations, laches, waiver, estoppel, or setoff, however denominated.

ENFORCEMENT OF RIGHTS AND CLAIMS:

11. (a) The Applicant will bear and pay all expenses of every kind for the enforcement, protection, or defense of any of your rights mentioned herein or of any claim or demand by you against any Applicant, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(b) In the event any Applicant or any guarantor of Obligations acts in any way, including but not limited to seeking an injunction or temporary restraining order, to prevent or delay payment by you of a draft or claim, the Applicant (i) shall on demand deposit with you, and pledge to you and grant to you a security interest in, an amount deemed sufficient by you, in your discretion, to secure the Obligations, shall execute all such documentation which you request to evidence, perfect, and maintain such deposit, pledge, and security interest, irrevocably authorizes you to act as the Applicant's agent and attorney-in-fact to execute such documentation in the Applicant's name, with or without designation of your authority, and acknowledges that the Applicant shall be obligated in respect of such documentation as if executed by one of its authorized signatories; (ii) agrees to bear and pay all expenses on every kind incurred by you, including reasonable attorney's fees, in connection with said action to prevent or delay payment by you of a draft or claim, (iii) consents to your exclusive determination to pay or compromise any claim or obligations of any nature or description relating to the Credit including, without limitation, for costs, attorney's fees, fines, interest, damages, or any other charge, expense, or liability; and (iv) agrees to indemnify you and to reimburse you on demand for the amount of such payments or compromises together with interest at the rate and on the terms set forth in subsection 1 (a) above.

(c) The Applicant submits, in any legal proceeding related to this agreement, the Application, or the Credit, to the non-exclusive in personam jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction sitting in the State of New York and agrees to suit being brought in any such court, waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of such proceeding in any such court or that such proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court; agrees that service of process in any such legal proceeding may be made, and shall be conclusively deemed sufficient and adequate, by mailing of copies thereof (by registered or certified mail, if practicable) postage prepaid, or by teletransmission, to the Applicant at its address set forth herein or such other address of which you shall have been notified in writing, in which event, service shall be deemed complete, upon the filing with the court of a copy of the process mailed or sent and an affidavit attesting to the mailing or sending; agrees that nothing herein shall affect your right to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law; and agrees to commence and maintain any such proceeding in any such court.

CONSTRUCTION:

12. If the Application is signed by more than one Applicant, the term "Applicant" shall be read throughout as "Applicants" as the case may be. If signed by more than one Applicant, this Application shall be the joint and several agreement of all such Applicants. This Application shall, in addition, be binding upon the Applicant and its respective representatives, successors, and assigns. The term "you", as used throughout this Application, shall be deemed to include THE CHASE MANHATTAN BANK and its branches and departments, any individual, partnership, or corporation acting as nominee or agent for THE CHASE MANHATTAN BANK, any subsidiary of THE CHASE MANHATTAN BANK and any company which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by THE CHASE MANHATTAN CORPORATION. The term "Application" shall be deemed to include the first page hereof and all terms and conditions set forth herein.

GOVERNING LAW:

13. This Application shall be governed by and construed in accordance with laws of the State of New York.

14. Any provision hereof which may prove unenforceable under any law shall not affect the validity of any other provision hereof.

15. THE CREDIT SHALL BE SUBJECT TO THE UNIFORM CUSTOMS AND PRACTICE FOR DOCUMENTARY CREDITS (1993 REVISION), INTERNATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PUBLICATION NO. 500 AND ANY AMENDMENTS OR REVISIONS THEREOF, provided, however, that notwithstanding Article 41 thereof, if drawings within given periods are stipulated in the Credit and any installment is not drawn within the period allowed for that installment, the Credit will not cease to be available for any subsequent installment.

AFFIDAVIT OF ANTHONY A. CAPASSO

----- X

STATE OF NEW YORK)
)ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

ANTHONY A. CAPASSO, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a Vice President of defendant The Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase"), and I make this affidavit in response to plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction. I have worked in the Letter of Credit Department of Chase for approximately 25 years. I am familiar with Chase's policies regarding letters of credit and the specific letter of credit at issue, P-343547 (the "Letter of Credit" or "Credit"). Unless otherwise indicated, this affidavit is based upon my personal knowledge and my examination of documents maintained by Chase in the ordinary course of its business.

2. This action was commenced by plaintiff Doctors Health, Inc. ("DHI") by service of a summons and complaint and an order to show cause dated September 11, 1998. The order to show cause contains a temporary restraining order preventing Chase from making any payments under the Letter of Credit to defendant NYLCARE Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCARE"). Chase has and will abide by the Court's order concerning the disposition of the Credit.

3. The Letter of Credit was issued by Chase on October 29, 1997 on behalf of DHI and in favor of NYLCARE in the amount of $4,000,000 and later increased by amendment to $5,250,000. A copy of the Letter of Credit and its subsequent amendment are attached as Exhibit A.

4. According to the Complaint, DHI opened the Credit with Chase to serve as security for the payment of claims of health providers. Complaint, ¶ 12. The Credit permits NYLCARE to draw if, among other things, it submits the following statement purportedly signed by one of its officers:

"The amount of this drawing under the Chase Manhattan Bank letter of credit number P-343547, represents funds due us as (1) Doctors Health, Inc. owes NYLCARE the sum of pursuant to section 3.4.4 of Medicare Network Management Agreement dated as of October 1, 1997, (2) such amount has been invoiced to Doctors Health, (3) Doctors Health is in receipt of such invoice for at least 60 days and (4) there are no defenses or offsets to payment which have been raised by Doctors Health and of which NYLCARE is aware."

5. On September 8, 1998, Chase's Standby Letter of Credit Department received a letter dated September 4, 1998 from Nannette G. Henderson, the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of NYLCARE, seeking to draw on the Letter of Credit in the amount of $2,615,208.69. A copy of the letter is attached as Exhibit B.

6. That same day, Chase informed NYLCARE of discrepancies in its presentation. The following day, September 9, 1998, Chase received NYLCARE's revised presentation.

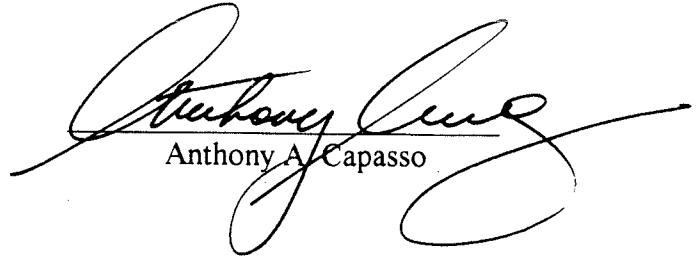

Copies of the documents presented by NYLCARE and received by Chase on September 9, 1998 are attached as Exhibit C.

7. Upon information and belief, later that day, DHI was advised by its relationship manager at Chase, Richard Ditizio ("Ditizio"), of the fact that a drawing had been received under the Letter of Credit. DHI's immediate response was that the drawing constituted a fraud and that any statement submitted by NYLCARE to the effect that "there are no defenses or offsets to payment which have been raised by Doctors Health and of which NYLCARE is aware" would be a knowingly false statement by NYLCARE.

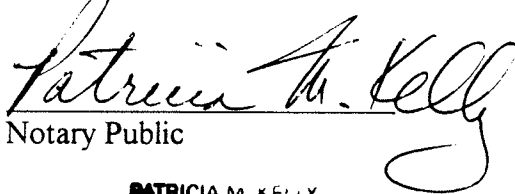

8. On September 10, 1998, John R. Dywer, Jr., the Chief Financial Officer of DHI, faxed a letter to Ditizio outlining the basis for DHI's claim of fraud along with other documents and correspondence which he claim evidenced that "NYLCARE has acknowledged that we have disputed over $6,000,000 in claims, and we have informed NYLCARE that over and above the disputed amounts, offsets exist of at least $2,300,000." A copy of the Dywer letter and its enclosures is attached as Exhibit D.

9. The following day, September 11, 1998, I was informed by the Bank's counsel, Andrew N. Keen, that he had received notification from counsel for DHI that this Court signed an order restraining Chase from making any payments to NYLCARE under the Credit.

10. Chase will, of course, abide by any further order of this Court with respect to the disposition of NYLCARE's drawing under the Credit.

Re: Letter of Credit No. P-343547

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to my conversation with Mr. Ditizio this morning, Doctors Health has notified NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare") that over $6,000,000 of claims obligations they have identified for our account are in dispute. The documentation supporting this dispute, our communication of this dispute to NYLCare, and other relevant correspondence is attached.

In light of the foregoing, Doctors Health hereby formally gives Chase Manhattan Bank notice that pursuant to Paragraph 4 of the Standby Letter of Credit, NYLCare has failed to satisfy the conditions necessary for effectuating a draw. Specifically, Doctors Health has disputed and NYLCare has acknowledged that we have disputed over $6,000,000 in claims, and we have informed NYLCare that over and above the disputed amount, offsets exist of at least $2,300,000. Moreover, we have recently sent NYLCare, Aetna (the recent acquirer of NYLCare) and NYLCare's former parent, notice that they have completely breached the agreement that underpins the Letter of Credit in question here which puts in dispute amounts in excess of $20,000,000.

For all the foregoing reasons, Doctors Health requires that Chase Manhattan Bank not comply with the draw request made by NYLCare, and refrain from complying with any future requests until you receive notice from both NYLCare and Doctors Health that the disputes between the parties are resolved. Please call me if you or your colleges have any questions.

Dear Jeff:

Just a few short weeks ago, you wrote me that you "remain dedicated to trying to make the relationship work." Yet today it pains me to see that we are worlds apart. Aetna's announcement today that it will abandon the MediCare business covered by our contract is like a death blow for us. As I have repeatedly told you, the future of Doctors Health depends upon you. If NYLCare-Aetna abandons us now, we will have no choice but to pursue legal action. We take no comfort in that, but neither should you. The costs to NYLCare-Aetna from such litigation could be enormous.

We need a business meeting with you and an Aetna representative this week to try to reach an immediate resolution of this matter. We have always been able to find business solutions when we met in the past, but the urgency of this situation requires immediate action.

Let me remind you of some of the history between us, dating back to before Doctors Health and NYLCare actually entered into the MediCare Network Management Agreement (the "agreement") in late September 1997. After consistently being unwilling to downstream risk, NYLCare suddenly changed its position in the summer of 1997 -- but only as to its MediCare business. Doctors Health was interested in pursuing such business but required historical cost data from NYLCare to evaluate the economic feasibility of such an arrangement. Indeed, we were so concerned about receiving NYLCare's historical cost data -- and obviously relying upon that data's accuracy in entering into this agreement -- that we insisted upon including the following language in the agreement's "Representations and Warranties" section:

"NYLCare Mid-Atlantic represents and warrants that to the best of its knowledge, the historical pharmacy, institutional, ancillary and capitated carveout costs previously provided to Doctors Health are accurate in all material respects. The parties agree that as soon as practicable after closing they will meet and develop an appropriate schedule to this Agreement to embody any such previously provided cost information."

After consummation of the agreement, however, it became apparent that NYLCare had not provided Doctors Health with accurate cost data -- particularly as to pharmacy costs. It took us months of painstaking work and repeated demands for information from you to learn the truth about this operation's actual costs. In fact, in its historical cost data NYLCare claimed total claims costs PMPM of approximately $350 per month on average over the year prior to the agreement. Yet Doctors Health's estimated total claims costs PMPM were more than $400 the very first month of operation and have remained at that high level ever since. It is no wonder then, that today our contract costs have proven to be much higher than what we expected from our review and reasonable reliance upon NYLCare's historical data, which purported to show much lower costs. Indeed, our total losses under this agreement now exceed $15 million. In short, there was something terribly wrong with the historical data that NYLCare proffered to us to induce Doctors Health to enter into this agreement.

We have encountered and worked to resolve other problems with NYLCare throughout this relationship, and will not attempt to repeat all of them here. I must mention, however, NYLCare's persistent inability to provide information necessary to reconcile capitation payments and the amounts that have been paid for medical benefits. Indeed, your colleague, Susan Lefkowitz, acknowledged in a June 29, 1998 letter to me that "[w]e are aware of the issues that you have had in reconciling eligibility and monthly capitation reports." Yet those problems have persisted, and our calls for one business wee turnabout of the parties' review obligations have largely gone unheeded. We even incurred the cost of a preview process before claims payment to try to avoid the kinds of payment disputes that have arisen in recent months.

Of course, as we proceeded in good faith throughout our relationship with NYLCare to resolve these issues, we were unaware that just months after entering into this agreement, Aetna would be acquiring NYLCare from New York Life. And we were also certainly unaware that within weeks of that takeover, Aetna would be announcing its intention to get out of the MediCare business throughout the country. That sequence of events unknown to us at that time of our agreement may now explain many things: for example, why you changed your position and agreed to contract out the MediCare business just months before the Aetna deal with New York Life, why you withheld information and delayed claims processing so that our full cost ramifications would not become so known until after the Aetna takeover, why there was a huge spike in claims payments after the Aetna takeover, and why our business now hangs in the balance because of Aetna's announcement today. Indeed, I now understand that our agreement saved NYLCare more than $12 million at a most propitious time for New York Life -- just months before the Aetna deal, thereby potentially inflating the price that Aetna paid in that deal.

Of course, Aetna's public pronouncement -- while terribly damaging to our business -- cannot change the fact that Doctors Health continues to have a binding agreement with NYLCare. There is no legal basis for terminating that agreement simply because Aetna wants to get out of that business in selected areas including ours. And any other attempt to terminate our agreement now would clearly be pretextual and in bad faith. So let this letter serve as notice that we can not tolerate for any further damage to our business or business reputation. NYLCare-Aetna's actions have already damaged Doctors Health. It is time to repair the damage -- and to do so immediately before it becomes irreparable.

It is now clear to us that we were fraudulently induced to enter into this agreement with NYLCare and have been on a "slippery slope" of financial losses ever since. To date, based upon our purported good faith negotiations we have refrained from filing litigation, despite the desire of some shareholders to do so. Therefore, we will have to pursue litigation absent prompt resolution of this situation. Our lawyers tell us that we can seek both actual and punitive damages in such a fraudulent inducement action. Indeed, I would welcome the opportunity to explain these facts to Aetna, which only recently acquired NYLCare from New York Life and therefore may be unaware of this history. Moreover, in any future legal proceedings, we would also seek recovery for other tortious and contractual breaches which have cost us so dearly.

As you know, I have worked hard to avoid that road. It is not too late still to find common ground, but time is of the essence. I have employees, physician shareholders and other shareholders to protect, and you have placed all of us in serious jeopardy. We stand ready to be creative in fashioning resolutions that work for all parties. We would even be willing to consider Doctors Health eventually taking over this entire operation and dealing directly with HCFA. We remain ready to talk, although given the enormous ongoing damage that we are now experiencing under this agreement, we need a prompt resolution of our outstanding disputes. Otherwise, we will have to take appropriate legal action in the immediate future.

Sincerely,

Stewart B. Gold

MEMORANDUM

DATE: July 15, 1998
TO: Jeff Emerson, CEO, NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc.
FROM: Stewart B. Gold
CC: Eric Wilkinson, The Beacon Group

Thanks for the frank discussion of the concerns we have regarding our Network Management Agreement. As a result of the meeting, it is our understanding that NYLCare will run a "CMU" report on the claims that you have paid. This will help determine any trends in utilization and cost that could explain the wide discrepancy between the NYLCare claims experience with its Medicare members and DH's experience with essentially the same population. We also appreciate your offer to provide a "retro-view" of claims paid to assist us in our audit of the claims payment process. Arthur Andersen is designing the audit protocol in cooperation with NYLCare staff to ensure a timely audit report. We will work with your responsible management personnel to move the audit along. Please ensure that they are aware of our offer to provide the "retro-view" if necessary.

We, of course, appreciate your understanding in suspending payments for claims paid on our behalf by NYLCare in excess of the July capitation payment. For your information, the amount of the Letter of Credit is now at $5,250,000.

I was glad to hear that you were concerned about the time it has taken to reconcile the actual amount due at June 30. As you know, we have advanced the full amount that you requested ($3,176,173) pending a prompt resolution of the actual amount. To date, we believe that paid claims have included errors totaling in excess of $900,000.

Doctors Health, Arthur Andersen and your staff will be working in the next months to determine what further adjustments are required.

I have attached copies of the Days/1,000 reports that we provide every month for your information. Additionally, the status of claims preview from our standpoint is that we have been told we will get the first preview in the agreed upon format today.

The lag in claims payment is a continuing problem. The information that we have is very recent and is already under review by both of our organizations. I believe that we need the results of the current review and the Andersen audit to better understand and define the situation.

I have looked into issues surrounding the timely receipt of enrollment information, along with the capitation payment, authorization transmittal, and other information exchange issues. I have been assured that we will promptly address and remedy problems on our part. If not, have someone contact me directly so that I am aware of the open issues and can compare what you are hearing to the reports I get from our joint operations meetings.

Please let me know when you will have some results from your review of the information we provided yesterday and the CMU Report.

Our Agreement with NYLCare is very important to us, as demonstrated by the investment we have each made in providing uninterrupted medical services to Medicare managed care members. While the cost of claims resolution can have the most serious consequences, we remain dedicated to the success of the relationship with NYLCare and the agreement. Despite our dedication we are very concerned about the Network Management Agreement, and based on the information we categorically and unconditionally dispute that Doctors Health is responsible for at least $6,000,000 of the claims paid to date. Therefore, please be on notice that we have not waived any of our rights and privileges under the Agreement. We expect both sides to keep our conversations about these matters confidential. Thanks for your help.

Re: July 14, 1998 Meeting

Dear Stewart:

Apparently you and I attended different meetings on July 14, 1998.

Among other assertions in your July 15, 1998 memo with which I do not concur, one assertion clearly stands out: I did not agree to permit Doctors Health (DH) to suspend its payment of its liability to NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. (NYLCare Mid-Atlantic) for that amount by which the NYLCare 65 claims paid by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic exceeds the amount of the capitation paid to DH to cover those claims. What I said was that I will be flexible in permitting DH to repay those monies over a period of time longer than the contractually obligated five (5) days provided that the cumulative amount owed by DH to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic does not exceed the amount of the Irrevocable Letter of Credit.

In addition to other assertions in your memo with which I disagree, the final paragraph contains an assertion which is both a surprise and an absurdity: "we categorically and unconditionally dispute that Doctors Health is responsible for at least $6,000,000 of the claims paid [by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic] to date." Please note that there is no antecedent for this assertion, other than the allegedly erroneously paid claims sample report which you gave to Susan S. Lefkowitz and me on June 12, 1998 from which sample you extrapolated approximately $4,000,000 in allegedly erroneously paid claims. Our analysis of your sample report is almost completed. It will not support even one-tenth of the alleged overpayment amount after one excludes the amount for pharmacy claims which we long since stipulated to DH had been erroneously posted to your account.

In sum, your memo (and our July 14 meeting) was self-serving. About the only thing on which we seem to agree is that both organizations remain dedicated to trying to make the relationship work.

Sincerely,

RE: September 1998 Monthly
 Capitation Calculation

Dear Jeff:

I recently received a copy of the Monthly Capitation Calculation for the month of September, 1998. I was surprised to see that NYLCare has unilaterally decided to change the method of calculation for September. The calculation, if done consistent with the method of calculation for every month of the contract period prior to September, 1998, would have revealed a net positive cash balance in favor of Doctors Health in the amount of approximately $1,443,047.

Without explanation, NYLCare has now charged us for "claims incurred but not paid through August 31, 1998". Please review the enclosed copy of the September, 1998 calculation and compare it to the enclosed copies of the October, 1997 through August 1998 calculations. I would appreciate your prompt assistance in having the September, 1998 Capitation Calculation redone consistent with prior periods to show the above mentioned positive cash balance in our favor.

As you know, we still have a lot of issues to resolve. This is no way to begin that process.

Sincerely,

Stewart B. Gold

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN D. CORSE

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

JOHN D. CORSE, ESQ., having been duly sworn, submits this Affidavit in support of the foregoing Motion for Admission Pro Hac Vice on behalf of plaintiff Doctors Health, Inc. ("Doctors Health") as follows:

1. I respectfully request to be specially admitted pro hac vice to the Bar of the State of New York pursuant to Rule 602.2(a) of the rules of practice of the Supreme Court, Appellate Division, First Department, as counsel for plaintiff Doctors Health in this matter.

2. I am a partner with the law firm of Piper & Marbury L.L.P., Baltimore, Maryland. I was duly admitted to the Bar of the State of Maryland in 1987 and to the Federal District Courts in Maryland in 1988. Since these admissions, I have at all times remained a member in good standing of the above-listed bars.

3. Upon my admission and pursuant to Rule 602.2(a) of the rules of practice of the Supreme Court, Appellate Division, First Department, I will assist and be associated in this matter with New York counsel of record, Monica Petraglia McCabe and Peter M. Corrigan, of Piper & Marbury L.L.P., New York, New York.

4. The plaintiff Doctors Health wishes to have me represent it in the preparation of this matter along with Monica Petraglia McCabe, Esq. and Peter M. Corrigan, Esq.

5. There is good cause for my admission in that plaintiff Doctors Health wishes for me to represent them in the proceedings of this case.

6. If specially admitted to the Bar of this State, I would be admitted solely for the purpose of participating in this particular action in which Doctors Health is a plaintiff.

7. I am willing and able to comply with all rules of this Court relating to admission, professional conduct, and civil procedure.

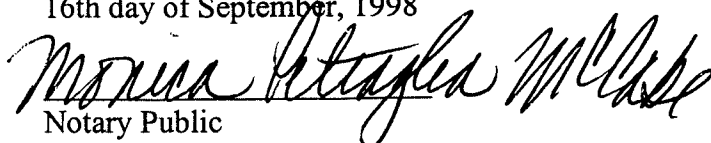

8. Defendant will not be prejudiced in any way if I am specially admitted to the Bar of the State of New York as co-counsel for plaintiff Doctors Health.

9. No good cause exists to deny my special admission as co-counsel in this matter.

10. No prior application has been made for the relief requested herein.

1 Court's Decision

2 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

3 I think I have heard enough to
4 digest the issues.

5 In the first instance, it seems to 6 me that the underlying dispute between
7 the parties concerns money matters
8 arising out of their contractual
9 agreement.

10 Now, what we have are two
11 corporate entities both doing business
12 in Maryland concerning services, HMO
13 services which are being provided and
14 health management services generally,
15 which are being provided in Maryland.

16 The nexus to New York is obviously
17 Chase Manhattan Bank really the nominal
18 stakeholder in this particular case
19 because of the Letter of Credit that 20 was issued from the plaintiffs in favor
21 of Nylcare.

22 Now, this is certainly a basic 23 commercial transaction.

24 The parties have a contractual
25 relationship. It involves the making

Court's Decision

of the ongoing claims being made based upon patients' services being furnished by the plaintiff for which the defendant, Nylcare, receives payment from the federal government and is a pass-through for purposes of the Medicare payments.

The relationship here is ongoing clearly commercial.

The nuance of this particular case concerns the establishment in the contract or the agreement of the Letter of Credit in favor of Nylcare.

Now, this is not the traditional commercial Letter of Credit involving goods and furnishing of goods, et cetera, the normal transaction.

This is in the nature of a standby Letter of Credit.

The standby Letter of Credit functions more like a guarantee than the standard commercial Letter of Credit.

They are obtained to enable the

Court's Decision

beneficiary to make demand for payment under the Letter of Credit upon the happening of a certain contingency, such as the default of the other party in the underlying transaction.

The terms for drawing upon the Letter of Credit is set forth in the agreement.

There are certain requirements; obviously, a presentment to Chase is required in a particular form and the contents must meet at least a requirement of the agreement.

Plaintiff primarily predicates this application for injunctive relief on the fourth requirement, the statement drawing upon the Letter of Credit by Nylcare that they know of no valid offsets to the claims.

The problem here is that to the extent that the documents are properly presented to Chase Bank, the Court must strictly construe the Letter of Credit requirements in accordance with UCC.

Court's Decision

The purpose of it is to have definiteness with respect to commercial transactions here.

Now, it seems to me that the entire arguments, using the CPLR criteria here, with respect to irreparable harm, substantial likelihood of success on the merits and the balance of the equities is predicated upon, of course, what is, in fact, a money dispute between the parties as to what the proper amount due and owing to the defendant is here.

Clearly, the threshold issue in the underlying issue for the plenary action is really based upon a claim for money damages, either in the form of the claim by the plaintiff or what will be a counterclaim on the part of defendant, Nylcare, based upon this dispute.

So there is no question here that there are disputed facts with respect

Court's Decision

to what sum is due and owing and to whom it is due and owing, pursuant to the term of the Agreement.

And I have perused the documentation here, and as I said, there is an ongoing course of conduct between the parties.

Now, the only basis under which the Court can grant an injunction in these circumstances, particularly where there are factual disputes, there must be a clear showing of irreparable harm, a clear showing of irreparable harm.

In this particular instance, the allegation that is being made in the Order to Show Cause, by the plaintiff, is that fraud threatening this irreparable harm involves false statements by defendant, Nylcare Health Plans to defendant, Chase Manhattan Bank.

Now, the distinction here, I believe, is whether or not what we have, does a false statement, even assuming arguendo, we have a false statement, rise to the level of a fraudulent statement to meet the UCC standard and commercial standard in New York to fit within the fraud exception to payment under a Letter of Credit. And I think that's really the critical issue.

"In New York, the sole exception to the independence principle and the issuer's obligation to pay on conforming documents --"

I don't think there is any dispute here we have conforming documents, " -- is an exception for fraud.

"The only authorized means of stopping payment, under a Letter of Credit, is that permitted under the fraud exception.

"If applicable, it can permit an injunction against honor, or it can be relied upon by the issuer as a ground to dishonor, where a document is forged or fraudulent or where there is fraud

1 Court's Decision
2 in the transaction."

3 This case clearly does not involve
4 fraud in the inducement.

5 Fraud in the inducement, would
6 have concerned the terms giving rise to
7 the Letter of Credit, and there is
8 certainly no allegations in that
9 regard.

10 And, therefore, the plaintiff must
11 rely upon the fact that there is fraud
12 in the transaction.

13 And plaintiff's argument has been
14 couched in terms of fraud in the
15 presentment, I assume, that means in
16 the presentment of the documents, to
17 the extent the statement is made that,
18 in fact, there are no known offsets.

19 The problem here, is based upon
20 the factual disputes between the
21 parties, that statement cannot be
22 considered to be a fraudulent
23 statement.

24 In fact, there is no evidence,
25 based upon the submissions by the

Court's Decision

parties here, that that statement has not been made in good faith.

The point being that the position of the defendant, Nylcare here is, of course, there are clearly sums due and owing to Nylcare and, in point of fact, that it's only a question of the actual amount here.

But the amount is an amount clearly due and owing to Nylcare.

It's not a situation that it was presented because there is a possibility that there is deficit on Nylcare's side and the sums may be due and owing to the plaintiff here.

It all surrounds the factual dispute. That factual dispute, by itself, is not sufficient to constitute fraud within the meaning of UCC or the case law in New York. There has to be a showing of actual fraud.

And even the fact that there may be a mere misrepresentation here, a mere misrepresentation, if, unless

Court's Decision

there is a showing that it has been made in bad faith in order to fraudulently induce, in order to fraudulently induce the demand for payment here, there is really no bases under which you can really show that there is irreparable harm in this circumstances.

It seems to me there is a legitimate factual dispute between the parties.

Now, let me say something with respect to this issue of irreparable harm and the arguments made with respect to irreparable harm.

Irreparable harm cannot constitute simple economic harm.

Basically, once again, the threshold arguments offered by plaintiff is that they may be put out of business. May even possibly be forced into insolvency or bankruptcy.

But that does not constitute a basis for irreparable harm.

1 Court's Decision

2 In fact, if anything, it supports
3 the decision that the underlying
4 dispute is based upon money and based
5 upon something that is compensable at
6 law seeking money damages.

7 The additional factor in this case
8 is that since none of these
9 transactions arise other than the
10 issuance of the Letter of Credit,
11 within the State of New York, and the
12 agreement executed in Maryland governs
13 here.

14 That agreement expressly provides
15 for arbitrability of disputes of the
16 parties and disputes surrounding, of
17 course, the particular claims that are
18 really the subject matter here.

19 So that the Court would never
20 reach the merit in this particular
21 case.

22 So the Court cannot conclude, for
23 the plaintiff, that there is a
24 likelihood of success on the merit at
25 this particular time, sufficient to

Court's Decision

issue an injunction.

So it seems to me that in the overall assessment, without a showing of irreparable harm, and an issue of money, does not equal irreparable harm because it's compensable at law.

I understand the argument that is being made with respect to patient care, but the fact of the matter is that the plaintiff is not the actual patient provider here. They do not have that primary responsibility with respect to patient care.

They are the conduit to make arrangements for the patient care.

And certainly it's plausible that alternative arrangements can be made. And we know that in the world of HMO's, changes are made every day with respect to the election of their HMO.

So there is no basis of irreparable harm shown there.

So I think that based upon all of the submissions before the Court, the

Court's Decision

Court is constrained, based upon the reasons cited, to deny the application for a preliminary injunction and to vacate the TRO in this matter.

The record will constitute my Decision and Order.

Settle an order on notice here, please. Thank you.

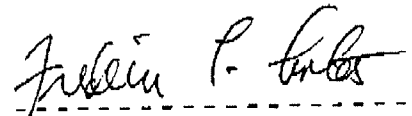

MS McCABE: Your Honor, may we have a stay of the order so that we may file an appeal?

THE COURT: The application for a stay is denied.

(Whereupon, court was adjourned.)

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

In this memorandum of law, Doctors Health, Inc. ("Doctors Health") responds to the opposition papers of NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare"), which were served on plaintiff's counsel after 6:00 p.m. on the day before the return date of this motion.

Contrary to the suggestion of NYLCare, this action was not commenced to resolve "a commercial dispute over monies owed between Maryland residents." (Opposition Memorandum of Law at p. 2). This action was commenced to stop NYLCare from fraudulently drawing down on a letter of credit here in New York.

NYLCare should be enjoined from drawing down on the letter of credit because NYLCare presented fraudulent documents to Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase") in New York in an attempt to draw down on the letter of credit. Under the applicable law, either fraud in the presentment of letter of credit documents or fraud in the underlying transaction between the parties is sufficient for a court to enjoin the payment of a letter of credit. Because the undisputed evidence shows that NYLCare made fraudulent misrepresentations in the presentment of letter of credit documents to Chase, this Court can enjoin NYLCare from drawing down on the letter of credit without addressing the issue of fraud in the underlying transaction.¹

SUMMARY OF FACTS

The facts supporting Doctors Health's application are set out in detail in the affidavit of John R. Dwyer, Jr. sworn to on September 10, 1998 (the "Dwyer Affidavit") and the affidavit of Stewart Gold, sworn to on September 16, 1998 (the "Gold Affidavit"). A brief summary of the facts is provided here.

Under the contract between Doctors Health and NYLCare dated October 1, 1997 (the "Contract"), Doctors Health was obligated to open a letter of credit (the "Letter of Credit") to secure the payment of claims by health providers, which Doctors Health did at Chase. The Letter of Credit expressly provided that NYLCare could draw down on the Letter of Credit only if it fulfilled certain conditions, including presenting a document to Chase stating that NYLCare is not aware of any defenses or offsets to payment raised by Doctors Health.

On or about September 8, 1998, NYLCare did in fact submit a statement to Chase that it was not aware of any defenses or offsets to payment raised by Doctors Health. But that statement was and still is false. NYLCare had been aware, as far back as July 1998, that Doctors Health had raised various defenses and offsets to payment. See Affidavit of John R. Dwyer, Jr. at ¶¶ 21, 22 and exhibits 3 and 4 thereto. In fact, NYLCare had acknowledged that Doctors Health had raised defenses and offsets on numerous occasions.

¹ While Doctors Health previously highlighted both NYLCare's fraud in the presentment and fraud in the underlying transaction, the Court need not consider the latter since the fraud in the presentment is so clear in the record before this Court and provides ample basis to sustain the injunction.

ARGUMENT

I.

NYLCare's argument that the instant application for injunction is subject to the arbitration clause between the parties is refuted by the contract, which contains, in addition to the arbitration clause NYLCare correctly cited, a clause expressly providing for injunctive relief, a provision NYLCare did not even refer to. The clause entitled "Injunctive Relief" provides:

Notwithstanding this agreement to arbitrate, NYLCare Midatlantic and Doctors Health may seek interim and/or permanent injunctive relief pursuant to this Agreement in any court of competent jurisdiction.

See Benz Aff., Exhibit 1 at 6.6 and Exhibit 2 at 8.7. Thus, Doctors Health can pursue injunctive relief as it did here.

NYLCare's claim of lack of personal jurisdiction is likewise belied by the letter of credit agreement and the applicable law. NYLCare sent a letter to Chase here in New York in which it fraudulently misrepresented that it was not aware of "defenses or offsets to payments which have been raised by Doctors Health" (Exhibits B and C to the Capasso Affidavit). As such, NYLCare committed a fraud inside New York and is subject to jurisdiction under CPLR 302(a)(2).

Not only did NYLCare commit a fraudulent act in New York, but the letter of credit agreement with Chase also has a New York jurisdiction choice of law and clause providing for jurisdiction in this Court. See Exhibit O to the Gold Affidavit. In addition, NYLCare had the opportunity to oppose the opening of a letter of credit with a New York bank as provided in § 3.21 of the Agreement. See Benz Affidavit at Exhibit 1. Thus, this Court has jurisdiction to stop NYLCare from fraudulently drawing down on a letter of credit here in New York.

II.

THIS COURT SHOULD ENJOIN CHASE FROM PAYING OUT ON THE LETTER OF CREDIT BECAUSE NYLCARE'S PRESENTMENT OF LETTER OF CREDIT DOCUMENTS WAS FRAUDULENT

NYLCare's recitation of the law concerning enjoining letter of credit payments, which not properly delineate the fraud exception, is misleading. Under UCC § 5-114(2) and the controlling case law, Doctors Health needs to show that "a required document . . . is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction" to enjoin Chase from paying NYLCare.² See, e.g., Takeo Co. Ltd. v. Mead Paper, Inc., 204 A.D.2d 123, 611 N.Y.S.2d 543, 545 (1st Dep't 1994); 410 Sixth Ave. Foods v. 410 Sixth Ave., 197 A.D.2d 435, 602 N.Y.S.2d 835 (1st Dep't 1993); Mount

² Although the Letter of Credit incorporates the Uniform Customs and Practice for Commercial Documentary Credits, UCC § 5-114(2) and case law interpreting the UCC provision control the result here. See, e.g., Mennen v. J. P. Morgan & Co., Inc., 91 N.Y.2d 13, 666 N.Y.S.2d 975, 980-81 (1997), United Bank Ltd. v. Cambridge Sporting Goods Corp., 41 N.Y.2d 254, 258 n.2, 392 N.Y.S.2d 265 (1976). Section 5-114(2) of the UCC provides that:

Unless otherwise agreed when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document . . . is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction:

(a) the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by * * * holder of the draft * * * which has taken the draft * * * under the credit and under circumstances which would make it a holder in due course (Section 3-302) * * *; and

(b) in all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or demand for payment despite notification from the customer of fraud, forgery or other or other defect not apparent on the face of the documents but a court of appropriate jurisdiction may enjoin such honor.

NYLCare's actions are similar to the actions of the seller in Sztejn v. J. Henry Schroder Banking Corp., 177 Misc. 719, 31 N.Y.S.2d 631 (S. Ct. N.Y. County 1941). There the Court enjoined payment on a letter of credit where the seller, who attempted to draw down on the letter of credit, had intentionally procured fraudulent bills of lading and invoices falsely describing the goods called for by the letter of credit, which the seller submitted to the issuing bank.⁴

Doctors Health asks the Court to sustain the injunction restraining Chase from drawing down on the Letter of Credit in favor of NYLCare. In doing so, Doctors Health directs the Court to the long-recognized principle in letter of credit jurisprudence, namely, "[w]hen the issuer of a letter of credit knows that a document, although correct in form, is, in point of fact, false or

Under the general rule the issuer must honor the draft when the documents presented comply with the terms of the letter of credit (Uniform Commercial Code § 5-114[1]). But when a required document does not conform to the necessary warranties or is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction, an issuer acting in good faith may, but is not required to, refuse to honor a draft under a letter of credit when the documents presented appear on their face to comply with the terms of the letter of credit. Further than that, a customer may also enjoin an issuer from honoring such a draft if the issuer fails to do so on its own (Uniform Commercial Code § 5-114 [2][b]. (emphasis added) (citations omitted).

⁴ In fact, NYLCare's fraudulent submission to Chase goes to the heart of the entire transaction. See, e.g., Voest-Alpine Intern. Corp. v. Chase Manhattan Bank, 707 F.2d 680 (2d Cir. 1983). NYLCare's intentional misrepresentation shows that NYLCare's goal is to rob Doctors Health without any regard for the underlying bargain. The underlying transaction would be a complete sham if NYLCare can take the money and run in complete disregard of everything it promised in the underlying transaction. Exactly what NYLCare may be entitled to will be shown by, among other things, the on-going audit, but without protection from improper pay-outs on the letter of credit, the underlying transaction is as worthless as those cases where "virtually worthless" goods were shipped. See Takeo Co., supra at 4.

illegal, he cannot be called upon to recognize such a document as complying with the terms of the letter of credit." Old Colony Trust Co. v. Lawyers' Title & Trust Co., 297 F. 152, 158 (2d Cir.), cert. den., 265 U.S. 585 (1924). As the Second Circuit noted in Voest-Alpine Int'l Corp. v. Chase Manhattan Bank,

Presentation of the fraudulent documents to a bank by a beneficiary subverts not only the purposes which letters of credit are designed to serve in general, but also the entire transaction at hand in particular. Falsified documents are the same as no documents at all.

Here, NYLCare has submitted fraudulent documents to Chase claiming that Doctors Health had not raised any defenses or offsets to payments under the contract of which NYLCare was aware. In fact, NYLCare is well aware of the defenses and offsets raised by Doctors Health to the amounts owed. NYLCare's fraudulent misrepresentation is particularly egregious in light of the ongoing audit of NYLCare's fraudulent payment of past claims by Doctors Health's auditor.

Cases cited by NYLCare, if applicable, in fact support Doctors Health's position. For example, in KMW Int'l v. Chase Manhattan Bank, N.A., 606 F.2d 10 (2d Cir. 1979), the Court recognized the black letter law upon which Doctors Health relies: namely, that a payment on letter of credit may be enjoined "when the documentation presented is fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction." Id. at 16 (emphasis added). Finding that "Chase had received no demand for payment whatsoever," the Court reasoned that the injunction could not be "upheld on the grounds . . . that a required document . . . is forged or fraudulent." Id. The Court then turned to the issue of whether there was fraud in the transaction and found none. Id. Here, because there is clear evidence of fraud in the presentment, the Court need not address the issue of fraud in the transaction.⁵

Thus, this Court should enjoin Chase from payment on the letter of credit.

III.

THE LETTER OF CREDIT IS PLAIN ON ITS FACE AND PROHIBITS NYLCARE FROM DRAWING DOWN ON THE LETTER OF CREDIT WHEN IT IS AWARE OF DEFENSES OR OFFSETS RAISED BY DOCTORS HEALTH

In order for NYLCare to draw down on the letter of credit, it must first produce a statement, in accordance with the terms of the letter of credit, that "[t]here are no defenses or offsets to payment which have been raised by Doctors health and of which NYLCare is aware." This language contained in the Letter of Credit is clear on its face and should not be subject to any other interpretation.⁶

⁵ NYLCare's reliance on Banque Worms v. Banque Commerciale Privée, 679 F. Supp. 1173 (S.D.N.Y. 1988), aff'd, 849 F.2d 787 (2d Cir. 1988), is also misplaced. In Banque Worms, the Court analyzed whether an alleged wrongdoing would amount to fraud in the transaction and found that it did not. Id. at 1180-1183. The Court did not address the issue of fraud in the presentment. NYLCare's reliance on Ross Bicycles, Inc. v. Citibank, N.A., 613 N.Y.S.2d 538, 540-541 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. County 1994) is baseless. In Ross Bicycles, Citibank tried to escape its liability by raising several defenses, all of which were ultimately stricken in an earlier case, which NYLCare failed to cite. See Ross Bicycles v. Citibank 178 A.D.2d 388, 577 N.Y.S.2d 826 (1st Dep't 1991). In the earlier decision, the Appellate Division rejected Citibank's attempt to argue fraud in the transaction finding that it did not meet the threshold for fraud in the transaction. Id. The Court did not address the argument of fraud in the presentment. Id.

⁶ See International Marine Investors & Mgmt. Corp. v. Wirth, 666 N.Y.S.2d 503, 503 (2d Dep't 1997) (held that "[i]t is the primary rule of construction of contracts that when the terms of a written contract are clear and unambiguous, the intent of the parties must be found within the four corners of the contract, giving a practical interpretation to the language employed and the parties' reasonable expectations" and any ambiguity in contract provision should be construed against its drafter); Davis v. Chessari, 239 A.D.2d 457, 457-58, 658 N.Y.S.2d 965, 966 (2d Dep't 1997) ("The interpretation of a written contract is within the province of the court and, if the language of the contract is free from ambiguity, its meaning may be determined as a matter of law on the basis of the writing along without resort to extrinsic evidence."); Charlebois v. J.M. Weller Assocs., Inc., 136 A.D.2d 214, 526 N.Y.S.2d

NYLCare's statements that it was unaware of any defenses or offsets raised by Doctors Health were fraudulent because NYLCare had knowledge of various defenses or offsets. In fact, the record now shows that NYLCare sent its revised draw down letters on September 8, 1998 (Exhibit C to the Capasso Affidavit) well after receiving Doctors Health's letter of September 4, 1998 (Exhibit 7 to the Dwyer Affidavit) in which Doctors Health notified NYLCare that NYLCare's incorrect calculation should be corrected to show a "cash balance in favor of Doctors Health in the amount of approximately $1,443,047.

IV.

DOCTORS HEALTH WILL BE IRREPARABLY HARMED IF CHASE IS NOT ENJOINED FROM PAYMENT ON THE LETTER OF CREDIT

The facts, as initially set forth in the Dwyer Affidavit and further amplified by the Gold Affidavit, show that Doctors Health will be irreparably harmed if this Court does not enjoin Chase from payment on the letter of credit. The injunction is critical to Doctors Health's continuing operation as a medical services provider. Without the injunction, Doctors Health will not be able to attract the financial injections it desperately needs from investors to enable it to continue its operations and may be forced to seek bankruptcy protection.

In addition to the risk of bankruptcy, many if not all of Doctors Health's 480 employees will lose their jobs. These 480 employees provide services critical to approximately 7000 high risk patients and at least 14,000 Medicare patients. It would also be unfair for NYLCare, a party that perpetrated the fraud, to benefit from its fraud.

In the face of such irreparable harm, this Court should enjoin NYLCare from drawing down on the letter of credit. Ansonia Assocs. v. Ansonia Residents' Assoc., 78 A.D.2d 211, 434

648, 649 (3d Dep't 1988) (interpreting contract as a whole to give meaning to clear and unambiguous contract provisions).

N.Y.S.2d 370 (1st Dep't 1980); Grant v. Civil Service Employees Assoc., Inc., 169 Misc. 2d 896, 646 N.Y.S.2d 1018 (S. Ct. 1996) (injunction appropriate remedy where interruption of salary payments to laid off or discharged employees would undoubtedly affect local economy and cause families to fail even temporarily to meet payment obligations).

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Doctors Health respectfully requests that the Court continue to enjoin NYLCare from drawing down on the Letter of Credit.

RESPONSE OF NYLCARE HEALTH PLANS
OF THE MID-ATLANTIC, INC. TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
WHY PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION SHOULD NOT BE GRANTED

NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare"), a corporation indirectly owned by Aetna U.S. Healthcare,¹ by counsel, respectfully submits this response to the Order to Show Cause (Containing Temporary Restraining Order) Why Preliminary Injunction Should Not Be Granted, entered by the Court ex parte on application by plaintiff Doctors Health, Inc. ("Doctors") last Friday, September 11, 1998.²

¹NYLCare is making a special appearance for the sole purpose of responding to the Order to Show Cause (Containing Temporary Restraining Order) Why Preliminary Injunction Should Not Be Granted (September 11, 1998). NYLCare is not waiving its defense of lack of personal jurisdiction and hereby preserves lack of jurisdiction as an affirmative defense. CPLR 3211(e); CPLR 320(b); Crook v. E.I. du Pont de Nemours Co., 181 A.D.2d 1039, 1039, 582 N.Y.S.2d 581 (4th Dep't 1992) (defendants properly preserved their affirmative defense of lack of jurisdiction by asserting it in their answer), aff'd, 81 N.Y.2d 807 (1993).

²Although representatives of Doctors met with representatives of NYLCare's parent company, Aetna US Healthcare, on September 9, 1998 — ostensibly to attempt to resolve contested issues, see Affidavit of Don Liu ("Liu Aff.") at ¶ 2 — Doctors provided no notice to NYLCare before seeking ex parte relief from the Court. It did not provide copies of its

This is a commercial dispute over monies owed between Maryland residents with respect to the administration of medical benefits for Medicare HMO members in Maryland and Virginia. In return for payments from NYLCare, Doctors agreed to assume the liability for the medical claims of certain of NYLCare's Medicare members. While NYLCare continued to pay the claims directly to the health care providers, Doctors agreed to reimburse NYLCare for these claims, to the extent the aggregate claims were equal to or greater than the fixed amount that NYLCare agreed to pay Doctors. That business deal has turned out to be unfavorable for Doctors, and it now wants to avoid it. Ignoring the parties' agreement to arbitrate all their disagreements over payment amounts, the Court's lack of jurisdiction over NYLCare, and decades of precedent in this Court forbidding the issuance of injunctions in these circumstances, Doctors asks the Court to enjoin NYLCare's draw of $2.6 million on a letter of credit issued by co-defendant Chase Manhattan Bank to secure Doctors' overdue payment obligations. Doctors argues that it will be irreparably injured because this draw will place it under financial stress, and thus threatens to halt health care for thousands of Medicare beneficiaries.³ Doctors argues that it is likely to succeed on its claim, because NYLCare "defrauded" Chase pleadings, and counsel did not receive these pleadings until Monday, September 14, 1998.

³Contrary to the false impression in Doctors' papers, Doctors does not provide any treatment to NYLCare HMO members and any financial threat to Doctors would not affect the medical care of such members. Point I.A, infra.

in requesting payment of the overdue amount under the letter of credit, and because NYLCare supposedly induced it to enter into agreements based on false information about the costs it could expect to incur.

The Court should summarily reject Doctors' effort to leverage a Maryland commercial dispute over money -- which must be arbitrated in Maryland, under Maryland law -- into an emergency requiring equitable relief. Doctors has established no irreparable injury; its conclusory claims of potential pecuniary harm are deficient as a matter of law. (Point I.) The balance of equities also compels denial: Doctors claims only, and without support, that it may be pressed to make payments to Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase") if the $2.6 million draw is honored. NYLCare, however, will lose any chance of payment if Doctors is successful in preventing the draw, since the letter of credit expires by its terms on October 31, 1998. Doctors concedes that it lacks the resources itself to make the required payments to NYLCare. Once the letter of credit expires, there will be no other resources from which NYLCare can collect what the contract requires. That represents irreparable injury to NYLCare. (Point II.)

Moreover, Doctors has no case on the merits. The letter of credit requires payment upon demand made in proper form. That demand was made. Doctors' desperate effort to call this "fraud" falls of its own weight. While it claims that it has defenses and offsets to the demanded $2.6 million, it has provided no factual support for this claim. It has not even come close to meeting its burden of a "clear showing" that NYLCare committed fraud in asking for payment of monies it has a right to collect, or that NYLCare fraudulently induced it to enter into agreements underlying the letter of credit. At the very least, all of the supposed facts underlying Doctors' claims are disputed by NYLCare, and this dispute alone requires denial of the requested relief. (Point III.)

Factual Background

NYLCare is a federally-qualified health maintenance organization ("HMO") with its principal place of business in Greenbelt, Maryland. NYLCare includes among its members approximately 14,000 Medicare beneficiaries in the Maryland/Virginia area. In early 1997, NYLCare entered into negotiations with a number of entities that sought to, in substance, assume the risk of paying the health benefits claims of NYLCare's Medicare members in return for a substantial share of the payments NYLCare received, per member, from the federal government. Affidavit of Jeff D. Emerson ("Emerson Aff.") at ¶ 5.

Doctors is a "physician practice management company" ("PPMC"), specializing in Medicare services. It holds itself out as expert in reducing the costs of providing covered medical benefits to Medicare members, and seeks to contract with HMOs for covering the risks of their Medicare members. Doctors was one of several health services companies that sought to assume from NYLCare both the cost burdens and the substantial revenues (in excess of $200 million over three years according to Doctors' own press release) of NYLCare's Medicare members. Id.

NYLCare entered into negotiations with Doctors beginning in the late summer of 1997. NYLCare and Doctors reached a tentative agreement in late August or early September of 1997. At this point, Doctors asked NYLCare to provide certain information regarding the costs that NYLCare had incurred in providing covered medical benefits to its Medicare members. NYLCare complied, fully, accurately, and with information that NYLCare itself used and relied upon. Affidavit of Greg Pastor ("Pastor Aff.") at ¶ 4. NYLCare told Doctors that its cost of providing a Medicare member with services was $420 per member per month ("PMPM"). Pastor Aff. Exh. A (e-mail from Chandra Mileham of Doctors to Greg Pastor, Dec. 11, 1997) ("The information we received from your finance department on the whole population averaged $420 PMPM (including pharmacy of about $40 PMPM)").⁴

After receiving this information, and all other information it had requested, Doctors executed the Administrative Service Provider Contract for Medicare Global Risk Services (Affidavit of Steven Benz ("Benz Aff."), Exh. 1) and Medicare Network Management Agreement (id., Exh. 2) ("Agreements") on September 30, 1997 and October 3, 1997. The essence of the agreement was this:

⁴The information was based on NYLCare's historical experience with its entire Medicare population, and turned out to be remarkably close to the actual cost later experienced by Doctors. Pastor Aff. at ¶ 13.

NYLCare agreed to pay Doctors a fixed percentage of the monthly payments that it received from the federal Health Care Financing Administration ("HCFA"), which administers the Medicare program, less the costs that NYLCare paid on claims for covered medical benefits provided to its Medicare members. If the claims paid by NYLCare exceeded the fixed monthly percentage advanced to Doctors, Doctors was required to pay NYLCare the amount by which the claims exceeded the payments. See Benz Aff., Exh. 2 at ¶ 3.4.4.⁵ If the medical claims paid by NYLCare were less than the fixed monthly percentage, Doctors would retain the difference as profit.

Critically, NYLCare ensured that there would be resources to provide for any payments in the event that Doctors was unable or unwilling to pay the claims. The Agreements provided that, if Doctors failed to pay the excess claims within 60 days after NYLCare submitted them, NYLCare was entitled to draw on a letter of credit Doctors was required to establish.⁶

⁵The Agreements also contain mandatory arbitration provisions, of which paragraph 8.1 requires "[a]ny controversy, dispute or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof" to be arbitrated in Maryland. Benz. Aff., Exh. 2 at ¶ 8.1-8.7; id., Exh. 1 at ¶¶ 6.1-6.7. The Agreements require the parties to "meet and confer in good faith" within 30 days of notice of a dispute in an effort to reach an amicable solution. Benz Aff., Exh. 1 at ¶ 6.2; id., Exh. 2 at ¶ 8.3.

⁶The letter of credit was ultimately established at Chase Manhattan Bank. On November 3, 1997, the Chase Manhattan Bank issued letter of credit No. P-343547 with an available amount of $4.4 million. This amount was subsequently increased to $5.25 million. Benz Aff., Exh. 3 at 2.

Doctors announced to the public that it proposed to make money from the Agreements (where NYLCare had lost money on its Medicare subscribers) by reducing the costs of providing covered medical benefits for NYLCare's Medicare members. In a December 1997 interview with the Washington Post, Doctors' Chief Executive Officer Steward Gold explained that NYLCare contracted with Doctors because NYLCare's "costs were out of control." Benz Aff., Exh. 4. Put simply, Doctors thought it could do a better job managing the Medicare subscribers. Scott Rifkin, then Chairman of Doctors, explained "[t]he difference is, doctors are inherently better than any other group at managing patient care." Id. That same Washington Post article noted that Doctors was "still working to establish its financial footing, [and had] lost $14.8 million on revenue of $12 million in the fiscal year that ended June 30." Id.

For the first few months of the Agreements, Doctors received large monthly payments from NYLCare. Emerson Aff. at ¶ 5. Because the medical claims paid for covered medical benefits were not large during this period, there was little (if any) reduction in the payments based on claims paid by NYLCare. Id.

When the claims began to accumulate at NYLCare, and NYLCare began to pay them, the situation changed dramatically. Despite its public boasts, Doctors had been unsuccessful in reducing the cost of providing covered health benefits to NYLCare's Medicare members. It soon became apparent that Doctors owed NYLCare substantial sums, and would receive no profits on the Medicare business. Id.

Doctors then began to complain. In a July 1998 meeting with Jeff D. Emerson, NYLCare's Chief Executive Officer, Stewart Gold first raised the accusation that NYLCare had misled Doctors by providing Doctors with cost information that understated costs for the Medicare membership. Gold alleged that NYLCare had estimated its costs at $350 PMPM, and stated that Doctors' costs were almost $150 more than that. Gold presented Emerson with a chart reflecting his allegations. Dwyer Aff., Exh. 8. Approximately one week later, however, Chandra Mileham of Doctors faxed NYLCare a "corrected" chart. Pastor Aff., Exh. B. This revised chart alleged that NYLCare's costs were only about $50 less than those Doctors had actually experienced. Id. Neither of these sets of allegations compared Doctors' costs with NYLCare's historical cost that Pastor had provided to Doctors before it entered into the Agreements. Pastor Aff. at ¶¶ 12-14.

On August 31, Doctors' Stewart Gold sent a letter to NYLCare's Jeff Emerson, disputing the accuracy of the cost information that had been provided by NYLCare. Dwyer Aff., Exh. 9. But Gold offered no evidence to support any claim that NYLCare was not entitled to recoup on the claims it had paid for Medicare members.

On September 4, 1998, NYLCare sent a letter to Chase Manhattan Bank, requesting that the sum of $2,615,208.69 be drawn on the letter of credit pursuant to paragraph 3.4.4. of the Medical Network Management Agreement. Affidavit of Susan Lefkowitz ("Lefkowitz Aff.") at ¶ 4. In accordance with paragraph 3.4.4., NYLCare had sent Doctors an invoice sixty days previously in the amount of $2,615,208.69 — the amount of claims that exceeded Doctors' total compensation due under the July Monthly Capitation Calculation Report. Lefkowitz Aff. at ¶ 4.

On September 9, at his request, Gold, accompanied by his investors, met and conferred with David Simon, Missy Shaffer, and Don Liu of Aetna U.S. Healthcare's Law Department. They discussed the issues that had arisen between the parties and requested that Doctors be permitted to continue the Agreements after their December 31, 1998 expiration date. They portrayed Doctors as financially stable, stating expressly that Doctors Health was viable and that its financial backers had sufficient capital to fund Doctors for any additional amounts it may need. They said nothing about any imminent bankruptcy to Doctors, or any need for emergency relief. Liu Aff. at ¶ 4.

The morning of September 11, 1998, Mr. Gold sent a backdated letter to David Simon, thanking Mr. Simon for "setting up the meeting to discuss the situation so promptly." Liu Aff., Exh. A.⁷ At the same time, with no notice or attempted notice to ⁷It is apparent from the face of this letter that it was backdated to September 10. The word-processing code displayed at the bottom left hand corner clearly indicates that the documents was printed from the system on September 11, notwithstanding Gold's claim that he had written it on September 10 and had been trying to fax it to Simon, unsuccessfully, since that afternoon. See Liu Aff., Exh. A.

NYLCare, Doctors' attorneys requested that this Court enter an ex parte TRO based on supposed imminent irreparable injury and their likelihood of proving that NYLCare had defrauded Doctors.

Argument

"It is well established that preliminary injunctive relief is a drastic remedy which will not be granted without a clear showing by the movant that (1) he is likely to succeed on the merits; (2) he will be irreparably harmed without the issuance of the injunction; and (3) the balance of equities favors him." Mr. Dees Stores, Inc. v. A.J. Parker, Inc., 553 N.Y.S.2d 16, 17 (N.Y. App. Div. 1990) (internal citation omitted); Aetna Ins. Co. v. Capasso, 75 N.Y.2d 860, 862 (N.Y. 1990); W. T. Grant Co. v. Srogi, 52 N.Y.2d 496, 517 (N.Y. 1981); NY C.P.L.R. § 6301. A preliminary injunction will not be granted "'unless a clear right thereto is established under the law and the undisputed facts upon the moving papers, and the burden of . . . showing an undisputed right rests on the movant.'" J.S. Anand Corp. v. Aviel Enter., Inc., 148 A.D.2d 496, 496 (N.Y. App. Div. 1989) (quoting First Nat'l Bank v. Highland Hardwoods, 98 A.D.2d 924, 926 (1983); Nalitt v. City of New York, 138 A.D.2d 580, 581 (1988)) (emphasis added); Peldman v. Podolsky, 148 A.D.2d 686, 687 (N.Y. App. Div. 1989) ("A moving party is not entitled to a temporary injunction unless the right is plain from the undisputed facts." (internal quotation marks omitted)). Doctors has not established, and cannot establish any one of the three requisite factors. Numerous issues of disputed fact also preclude injunctive relief.

I. DOCTORS HEALTH CANNOT SHOW IRREPARABLE INJURY

Doctors alleges two kinds of injury if the Court denies injunctive relief: the harm that would supposedly befall 34,000 patients whose medical care would be "disrupted" or who "would not have access to medical services" (Dwyer Aff. at ¶ 19); and the financial losses and "risk" of bankruptcy that Doctors would face if required to replenish the drawn-down letter of credit, as prescribed by the terms of the Agreements (id. at ¶¶ 15-18).

Doctors' arguments are both irresponsible — for suggesting that Medicare beneficiaries will not receive the health care to which they are entitled if Doctors is required to meet its contract obligations — and deficient as a matter of law, to the extent it argues that conclusory threats of financial exigency can support the extraordinary relief it seeks. NYLCare's 14,000 Medicare members who are managed (not medically treated) by Doctors will, as they always have, continue to receive all appropriate medical benefits from their NYLCare participating doctors; and NYLCare will, as it always has, continue to pay those doctors' claims, as it must under law, regardless of Doctors' financial viability. Access to care for Medicare beneficiaries does not and will not depend at all on the financial condition of Doctors. As to plaintiff's claims of financial loss and possible bankruptcy, these allegations are unsupported and disputed; in addition, the claims are pecuniary and can be addressed through an adequate remedy at law. Accordingly plaintiff has failed to meet its burden of showing irreparable harm.

A. There Will Be No Disruption in Care to the Managed by Doctors Health

The claim by Doctors that NYLCare's drawing on the letter of credit would harm the medical care provided to 14,000 Medicare patients and 20,000 non-Medicare patients is false. Emerson Aff. at ¶¶ 2-4. Doctors is a "physician practice management company" that assumes responsibility for some of the administrative burdens of an HMO, like NYLCare, in exchange for receiving a fixed percentage of the funds that the HMO receives from the government. Under the Agreements between Doctors and NYLCare, the Medicare members remain free to choose any NYLCare-participating doctor, the doctors submit their claims to NYLCare, and NYLCare pays the doctors directly. Id.⁸ Even if Doctors were to declare bankruptcy, these patients and their doctors will see no disruption in medical care whatsoever. Emerson Aff. at ¶ 4. Doctors' irresponsible attempt to cloak its attempt to avoid its payment obligation in the mantle of patient welfare is characteristic of its tactics in this matter.⁹

⁸While it is true that Doctors owns some medical practices, those practices represent a tiny percentage of NYLCare-approved health care providers. Moreover, there has been no showing that any of these practices will stop providing care to patients. Even if they did, patients are free to choose from hundreds of other NYLCare participating physicians. Emerson Aff. at ¶ 4.

⁹Consequently, Mr. Dwyer's claim (Dwyer Aff. at ¶ 18) that 14,000 Medicare patients would suffer a "disruption in their

B. Plaintiff's Claim of Financial Injury Is Conclusory, Disputed, and Cannot Support a Finding of Irreparable Injury

Plaintiff's unsupported claims (McCabe Aff. at ¶ 10; Dwyer Aff. at ¶ 18) that, absent an injunction, it will have to "cut[] its overhead," "lay off . . . employees," and possibly "file bankruptcy" cannot demonstrate irreparable injury for three independent reasons: (1) conclusory statements of financial loss or bankruptcy, unsupported by financial records or other evidence, are not sufficient to demonstrate irreparable harm as a matter of law; (2) Doctors has recently represented that the company will not fail even if required to replenish the letter of credit; and (3) these alleged injuries, even if properly supported and true, are pecuniary and thus cannot support the drastic remedy of injunctive relief.

First, conclusory statements of irreparable injury, such as those found in the McCabe and Dwyer affidavits, are legally insufficient to support an injunction. Niagra Falls Power Co. v. White, 292 N.Y. 472, 481 (N.Y. 1944) ("conclusory statements of imminent and irreparable injury" are insufficient to support an injunction). New York courts require financial records or other evidence to demonstrate the imminent harm required for injunctive relief. In Benjamin Kurzban & Son, Inc. v. Board of Educ., 129 medical care" and 20,000 non-Medicare patients "would not have access to medical services" is simply untrue. At the very least, there is a serious factual dispute which means that Doctors has failed to demonstrate, as it must, "a clear right" to a preliminary injunction based on the undisputed facts in the moving papers. J.S. Anand Corp., 148 A.D.2d at 496.

A.2d 756 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 1987), for example, the court held that the plaintiff failed to demonstrate irreparable injury where, as here, the plaintiff submitted nothing more than affidavits from plaintiffs' employee and plaintiff's attorney stating that plaintiff may lose 90% of its work and "would be forced to go out of business" if the defendant were not enjoined. Id. at 757. "No financial statements or other evidence were submitted to substantiate these claims." Id. Accordingly, such "bare, conclusory allegations were insufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's burden of demonstrating irreparable injury." Id.

Likewise in Wurttembergische Fire Ins. Co. v. Pan Atlantic Underwriters, Ltd., 133 A.D.2d 268 (N.Y. App. Div. 1987), the court, presented with facts similar to the instant case, refused either to enjoin a party from drawing against a letter of credit or enjoin the bank from paying on the letter of credit, despite plaintiff's claims of fraud, where "the plaintiff's bare conclusory allegations of [the party's] potential insolvency are insufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's burden of demonstrating irreparable injury." Id. at 269.

Doctors' allegations of "catastroph[y]" are similarly "bare" and "conclusory." While both McCabe and Dwyer allege "drastic[] cut[s]" in overhead, "lay off[s]," and the "risk" of bankruptcy, see McCabe Aff. at ¶ 10; Dwyer Aff. at ¶ 18, neither provides any financial records or other evidence to support these claims -- evidence that is required under New York law. See, e.g., Rockland Development Associates v. Village of Hillburn, 568

N.Y.S.2d 490, 491 (N.Y. App. 1991) (plaintiffs' contention that, without the injunction, they will suffer "financial losses" and be "driv[en] . . . into bankruptcy" was "unavailing," because "[p]laintiffs submitted no financial statement or other evidence to substantiate these claims and the conclusory allegations contained in their supporting affidavits are insufficient to demonstrate irreparable injury"); L & J Roost, Ltd. v. Department of Consumer Affairs, 128 A.D.2d 677, 679 (N.Y. App. Div. 1987) (moving party "fail[ed] to submit sufficient proof" -- in the form of "financial records or other evidence" -- "to show that the plaintiffs would suffer 'irreparable injury' absent granting of this preliminary injunction"; "bare conclusory allegations made by the plaintiffs [in affidavits] were insufficient to satisfy their burden"); Yan's Video, Inc. v. Hong Kong TV Video Programs, Inc., 133 A.D.2d 575, 578 (N.Y. App. Div. 1987) (plaintiffs' "conclusory allegation that they will be out of business within a week" absent injunctive relief failed to show irreparable injury); J. S. Anand, 148 A.D.2d at 496 (court refused to enjoin defendant's enforcement of a security agreement where plaintiff's "bare conclusory allegations" of injury "were insufficient to satisfy its burden"); Gandolfo v. White, 224 A.D.2d 526, 528 (N.Y. App. Div. 1996) ("petitioner's conclusory assertions . . . which were not supported by financial records, did not establish irreparable injury"); Board of Educ. of Tuxedo Union Free School District No. 3 v. State Div. of Human Rights, 68 Misc. 2d 1035, 1039 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 1972) (conclusory statements regarding

Second, Doctors failed to present the necessary financial records or other evidence because that evidence apparently does not exist. On September 9, 1998, representatives of Doctors met with NYLCare's acquiring company (Aetna US Healthcare Inc.) and expressly represented that Doctors' financial backers were willing and able to keep it viable. Liu Aff. at ¶ 4. Consequently, at the very least it is an issue of disputed fact whether Doctors faces the financial straits that it claims. This issue of disputed fact, on its own, precludes the granting of injunctive relief. See Peldman, 148 A.D.2d at 687 ("A moving party is not entitled to a temporary injunction, unless the right is plain from the undisputed facts." (internal quotation marks omitted)); J. S. Anand, 148 A.D.2d at 496 (preliminary injunction will not be granted "unless a clear right thereto is established under the law and the undisputed facts upon the moving papers") (internal quotation marks omitted).

Finally, even if Doctors had presented financial records to support its claim of drastic cuts and lay offs (which it did not), and even if that evidence was undisputed (which it is not), it still would not have demonstrated irreparable injury because its alleged injuries are pecuniary in nature, and plaintiff has an adequate remedy at law. "[M]onetary damages," such as those alleged by plaintiff, "are not irreparable and are an insufficient harm to support the issuing of an injunction."

Winkler v. Kingston Housing Authority, 238 A.D.2d 711, 712 (N.Y. App. Div. 1997). See also Price Paper & Twine Co. v. Miller, 182 A.D.2d 748, 749 (N.Y. App. Div. 1992) ("Where, as here, a litigant can fully be recompensed by a monetary award, a preliminary injunction will not issue."); New York Off-Betting Corp. v. New York Racing Association, 673 N.Y.S.2d 387, 1998 N.Y. App. Div. LEXIS 8376, at *11 (N.Y. App. Div. May 14, 1998) ("[T]here has been no showing that [the moving party] will be irreparably injured absent an injunction, since the injury alleged is pecuniary in nature, and may be adequately compensated by money damages."); SportsChannel America Associates v. National Hockey League, 186 A.D.2d 417, 418 (N.Y. App. Div. 1992) ("Damages compensable in money and capable of calculation, albeit with some difficulty, are not irreparable.").

II. THE BALANCE OF EQUITIES DOES NOT FAVOR PLAINTIFF

Doctors has also failed to show that the balance of equities tips in its favor. Plaintiff alleges that, absent an injunction, it will suffer financial harm because it will be forced to replenish the letter of credit and then recover any award to which it is entitled in an arbitration proceeding against NYLCare. But, if an injunction issues, NLYCare will suffer (and is already suffering) precisely the same degree of harm because it has already paid, or must pay, the claims made by doctors on plaintiff's subscribers, and has not been reimbursed by plaintiff for the amount of such claims as prescribed by the plain terms of the Agreements. Accordingly, the balance of financial injury is, from the very beginning, in equilibrium. See Klein, Wagner & Morris v. Lawrence A. Klein, P.C., 186 A.D.2d 631, 633 (N.Y. App. 1992) (in assessing the balance of equities, plaintiff must "show[] that the irreparable injury to be sustained is more burdensome to the plaintiff than the harm caused to the defendant through the imposition of the injunction").

NYLCare will suffer an added injury if the Court issues an injunction. It is undisputed that the letter of credit will expire on October 31, 1998. Lefkowitz Aff. at ¶ 7. After this date, NYLCare simply cannot draw on the letter of credit: it will be gone. If this Court enjoins NYLCare, it is a certainty that the letter of credit will expire before NYLCare can obtain a judgment in arbitration, have the injunction lifted, and draw on the letter of credit. NYLCare would then have to try to proceed directly against Doctors; but Doctors has alleged that it is on the brink of financial collapse and, without NYLCare's continued business, may become insolvent. Under such a scenario, an injunction will mean that NYLCare is never able to recover the millions of dollars it has already paid for plaintiff, and, in turn, that the very notion of a letter of credit as a guarantee would be defeated. The equitable doctrine of injunctions does not permit such an inequitable result. Where, as here, an injunction would make it "much less certain that [the] defendant will be able to recoup [its] payments" from plaintiff if the defendant ultimately prevails on the merits, the balance of equities does not tip in favor of the plaintiff and the injunction should not issue. Winkler, 238 A.D.2d at 713. See also J. S. Anand, 148 A.D.2d at 496 ("the defendant had a legitimate interest in enforcing [its] security agreement"). Therefore, since "the defendant[] would be likely to suffer more damage than the plaintiff[], a preliminary injunction should not be issued." Price Paper, 182 A.D.2d at 749.

III. PLAINTIFF CANNOT SHOW UNDISPUTED FACTS THAT PROVE LIKELIHOOD OF SUCCESS ON THE MERITS

The "likelihood of success on the merits" test requires the moving party to prove its entitlement to relief is plain from undisputed facts. Peldman, 148 A.D.2d at 687 (moving party "is not entitled to a temporary injunction, unless the right is plain from the undisputed facts") (internal quotation marks omitted). Indeed, appellate courts have repeatedly overturned improvidently granted injunctions on the grounds that "conflicting evidence [exists] in the present record." Id. See also Family Affair Haircutters, Inc. v. Detling, 110 A.D.2d 745 (N.Y. App. Div. 1985) (overturning injunction because disputed issues of fact existed); Shannon Stables Holding Company, Ltd. v. Bacon, 135 A.D.2d 804 (N.Y. App. Div. 1987) (affirming denial of injunction with costs because where "facts . . . are in sharp dispute, a temporary injunction will not be granted"); Jaymar's Inc. v. Schwartz, 37 Misc 2d 314 (Sup. Ct, Queens Div. 1962) (citing additional authority).

Plaintiff does not -- and cannot -- suggest that it is entitled to relief on undisputed facts. Under settled law, the "doctrine of independent contracts" provides that Chase is required to honor NYLCare's letter of credit demands separate and independent from any dispute between NYLCare and Doctors. Ross Bicycles, Inc. v. Citibank, N.A., 613 N.Y.S.2d 538, 540-541 (Sup. Ct., NY Co. 1994). Accordingly, "[i]f the documents called for by the letter of credit" are produced, neither Chase nor plaintiff "have [the] right to inquire" further. Id. at 541. Indeed, "[i]f the customer feels that the beneficiary was not entitled" to an amount claimed on a letter of credit, the proper remedy is not to interfere with the operation of the letter of credit but to "litigate under their contract." Id. Court after court has made clear that this is so because "one of the main purposes of the letter of credit is to place the seller in this stronger position of having the funds while the parties litigate their underlying contract disputes." Id.¹⁰ where the beneficiary has committed "fraud in the transaction." Banque Worms, 679 F. Supp. at 1182. This doctrine, however, is expressly "limited to situations in which the wrongdoing of the beneficiary has permeated the entire transaction." Id. See also KMW International v. Chase Manhattan Bank, 606 F.2d 10, 16 (2d Cir. 1979) (vacating injunction because plaintiff could not make "a clear showing of the active intentional fraud") (citation omitted). If the doctrine were not so narrowly confined, courts would risk the financial usefulness and integrity of the letter of credit mechanism (and only encourage parties to conduct transactions requiring letters of credit outside New York). See supra n.10; supra. Accordingly, New York courts have held that mere business disputes between the parties over the meaning and application of their contracts do not constitute fraud in the transaction. E.g., United Technologies Corp. v. Citibank, N.A., 469 F. Supp. 473, 478 (S.D.N.Y. 1979) (rejecting motion for injunction because it alleges only contractual "dispute as to performance").

New York law permits interference with the independent operation of letters of credit only in the "narrow circumstances"

Plaintiff alleges only two supposed acts of "fraud" by NYLCare: (1) presenting a demand to Chase on September 9, 1998 for $2,615,208.69, and (2) misrepresenting its monthly patient costs to Doctors during initial due diligence. Pl. Mem. at 4. In fact, even cursory scrutiny reveals that these supposed acts are precisely the sorts of garden-variety disputes that New York courts will not allow to interfere with letters of credit. And in neither event has plaintiff offered any evidence — let alone the requisite convincing and uncontested evidence — to support its bare allegations.

1. The September 9, 1998 Demand. Plaintiff contends that NYLCare committed fraud when it wrote Chase on September 4, 1998 seeking to draw down the letter of credit by $2,615,208.69 and asserting that no defenses or offsets existed of which it was aware. Pl. Mem. at 4.¹¹ The only "evidence" plaintiff offers in support of this claim, however, is the fact that on August 13, 1998 NYLCare Executive Vice President Susan Lefkowitz wrote Doctors Health "indicat[ing] that a $506,069.53 credit to Doctors Health" should be deducted from the $2,615,208.69 bill for the month of July, 1998. Dwyer Aff. ¶ 27; id., Exh. 10. Thus, Doctors itself does not dispute that the remaining amount -- fully $2,109,140.16 -- was due and properly drawable from the line of credit.

Nor is there any basis for suggesting NYLCare's representation to Chase concerning the remaining $506,069.53 was fraudulent. To establish fraud, plaintiff must present evidence of an intent to deceive. Benderson Development Company, Inc. v. Hallaway Properties, Inc., 67 N.Y.2d 963 (1986) (dismissing fraud claim for lack of evidence of a "present intent to deceive").

¹¹The Dwyer affidavit also obliquely complains about other bills and estimates sent by NYLCare to Doctors Health for which NYLCare has not yet sought any payment through the letter of credit. See Dwyer Aff. at ¶¶ 22, 26 (complaining about $6 million dispute and $10 million bill). However, New York law makes clear that injunctions can be issued only concerning actual requests made under letters of credit, not hypothetical future requests. KMW International, 606 F.2d at 16 (rejecting as "conjectural" motion seeking injunction to prevent future draw downs not yet made).

See also CPLR 3016(b) (allegations of fraud must be made with particularity). To win a preliminary injunction, plaintiff must provide undisputed facts conclusively establishing this element. See cases cited p. 19, supra. Ms. Lefkowitz explains, however, that the $506,069.53 "credit" is no defense or offset to the July 1998 bill at all, but merely the amount the parties estimated NYLCare would be required to pay Doctors for the month of August 1998 under the Agreements. Lefkowitz Aff. at ¶ 5. In fact, after Ms. Lefkowitz wrote her August 13, 1998 letter, NYLCare determined that no amount would be due to Doctors for the month of August and that, in fact, Doctors would owe NYLCare more than $10 million. Id. There is, thus, no dispute that Doctors owes NYLCare $2,615,208.69 for the month of July, 1998, and that Doctors has no defense or offset to this past-due bill.

Plaintiff's claim of fraud is further doomed by lack of any evidence (let alone conclusive evidence) of reliance. Megarix Furs, Inc. v. Gimbel Brothers, Inc., 172 A.D.2d 209 (N.Y. App. Div. 1991) (reliance on deception necessary element of fraud). Doctors does not (and cannot) suggest it relied on NYLCare's supposed September 4, 1998 "misrepresentation." Nor can Doctors suggest reliance by Chase. Under axiomatic letter of credit principles, Chase relies only on the existence of NYLCare's demand for payment, not on its accuracy. Indeed, it is the very purpose of letters of credit to enable banking institutions like Chase to pay upon any properly drawn demand, regardless of its accuracy, and recover all such sums from the initiator of the letter of credit. See supra n.1; New York Uniform Commercial Code § 5-114(2); Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits § 3.

2. The Monthly Patient Cost Representation. The only other act of fraud plaintiff claims is NYLCare's supposed effort to "induce Doctors Health to enter into the underlying contract by making material misrepresentations about its historical costs." Pl. Mem. at 4. The only "evidence" plaintiff offers, however, is an unsupported allegation that NYLCare presented it with data showing total costs to be $350 per patient per month (Dwyer Aff. at ¶ 33; id., Exhs. 8 & 9). Plaintiff nowhere produces the supposedly fraudulent NYLCare materials for the Court's review. It does not because Doctors is well aware that NYLCare disclosed that its historical costs were $420 per patient per month -- well in excess of plaintiff's claimed current monthly costs of $400 per patient. Pastor Aff. at ¶ 6; id., Exh. A. Far from incontestably proving plaintiff's claim of fraudulent inducement, the evidence disproves it.

Even if plaintiff were correct that NYLCare had represented its historical costs to be $350 per month (and NYLCare did not), plaintiff would still be required to demonstrate that this representation was false, and intentionally so. Megarix Furs, Inc., 172 A.D.2d at 209. Plaintiff, however, supplies no such evidence. The closest it comes is to complain generally about the fact that its costs are $50 higher. Dwyer Aff. at ¶ 34. But the fact that Doctors' current costs are apparently 14.28% higher than NYLCare's were a year earlier could be due to myriad factors having nothing to do with NYLCare (e.g., poor administration and utilization review by plaintiff; normal inflationary pressures in the medical care field).¹² Plaintiff has not offered a shred of evidence (let alone provided the requisite uncontested proof) suggesting that the cost increases it has experienced are the result of a deliberate ploy by NYLCare to hide costs rather than its own ability to manage them.

IV. IF AN INJUNCTION IS GRANTED, THE COURTS SHOULD ORDER PAYMENT OF THE LETTER OF CREDIT INTO THE REGISTRY OF THE COURT

The requested injunction is unsupported in every respect, and under settled teachings of this Court and the appellate courts of this state, cannot be granted. Were the Court to grant such an injunction, however, it is similarly settled that it must order appropriate security to protect NYLCare. CPLR §§ 6312(b), 6313(c); Burmax Co. v B & S Industries, Inc., 135 A.D.2d 599 (N.Y. App Div. 1987) ("the Supreme Court's issuance of a preliminary injunction without mandating compliance with 'New York's long-standing policy of requiring the plaintiff to furnish security as a prerequisite' was improper") (citing 7A Weinstein-

¹²Plaintiff also complains that NYLCare "has refused to provide any explanation" why Doctors Health costs have been higher. Dwyer Aff. at ¶ 34. But Doctors Health had ample opportunity when conducting its due diligence to ask NYLCare anything it wished, Pastor Aff. at ¶ 5; NYLCare is under no affirmative duty now to "explain" year-old data to plaintiff about a business NYLCare spun-off. Cf. Couch v. Schmidt, 204 A.D.2d 951 (N.Y. App. Div. 1994) (silence not fraud when no duty to speak).

Korn-Miller, NY Civ. Prac. para. 6312.08); Sutton, DeLeeuw, Clark & Darcy v. Beck, 155 A.D.2d 962 (N.Y. App. Div. 1989) (holding that trial court erred in granting preliminary injunction without requiring plaintiffs to post undertaking).

Here, it is undisputed that a $5.25 million letter of credit exists to provide security for NYLCare, and to guarantee the availability of funds to pay Doctors' debts under the Agreements. It is similarly undisputed that, after October 31, 1998, the letter of credit will expire. NYLCare will not be able to draw on it, and the entire $5.25 million in security will irretrievably be lost to NYLCare.

According to Doctors (at least in what they say to the Court) that corporation cannot be counted upon to pay $2.6 million, much less the remaining balance of the letter of credit. The only adequate security, therefore, is either a bond posted by Doctors in the full amount of $5.25 million or payment by Chase of the proceeds of the letter of credit into the registry of the Court. If these funds are not delivered to the Court, they will disappear and be lost forever to NYLCare. A preliminary injunction is only to preserve the status quo; that can only be accomplished here by taking the disputed sum into custody of the Court. The funds can be disbursed as directed following completion of the binding arbitration that the parties are required to undertake. To do otherwise is to unfairly release both Doctors and Chase from their obligations, and to deprive NYLCare of a crucial benefit of its bargain.

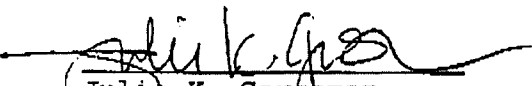

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, NYLCare respectfully requests that the Court deny the motion for preliminary injunction, dissolve the temporary restraining order, grant NYLCare its attorney fees in making this motion, and award such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

4. As required by Section 3.4.4., NYLCare sent Doctors Health an invoice sixty days previously for the amount of $2,615,208.69, which was the amount of claims that exceeded Doctors Health's total compensation due from the July Monthly Capitation Calculation Report.

5. On August 13, 1998, I sent a letter to Stewart Gold, Chief Executive Officer and President of Doctors Health, notifying him that the full amount owed "at this time" was $2,109,140.16. Exh. B. The "$506,068.53 surplus" I referred to was what we then believed to be a surplus from the August Monthly Capitation Calculation Report. In any event, NYLCare was entitled to draw on the $2,615,208.69 amount, because the $506,068.53 surplus had not ripened for purposes of the Section 3.4.4. sixty day invoice requirement. In fact, NYLCare subsequently learned that NYLCare expected claims to exceed $10 million. In the later part of August, NYLCare sent Doctors Health an estimated bill for $11,013,416.24.

6. In accordance with Section 3.4.4., even if there had been an August surplus, it could not have been offset against the requested draw amount of $2,615,208.69. The $2,615,208.69 amount was the only amount for which Doctors Health had received an invoice sixty days previously, and under the Agreement the invoiced amount shall be drawn if unpaid after 60 days.

7. As it turns out, based on our records, Doctors Health owes NYLCare far more than NYLCare can ever hope to draw under the letter of credit, which expires on October 31, 1998.

I swear that the foregoing is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

AFFIDAVIT OF DON LIU

Don H. Liu, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am Vice President and Deputy Chief Legal Officer at Aetna U.S. Healthcare. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and, if called as a witness, I could testify competently thereto.

2. On September 9, 1998, David F. Simon, Aetna U.S. Healthcare's Chief Legal Officer, Missy Shaffer, Regional General Counsel, and I met with Stewart Gold and Jim Gast, Chief Executive Officer and Senior Vice President of Administration and Legal Affairs of Doctors Health, respectively, and Harold Pote and Eric Wilkinson, partners at The Beacon Group (which is the largest investor in Doctor Health). The purpose of this meeting was to give opportunity for Doctors Health to raise any concerns

it has regarding the current arrangement between NYLCare and Doctors Health and to discuss any possible relationships that could be developed between Aetna U.S. Healthcare or NYLCare and Doctors Health other than the arrangement currently in place.

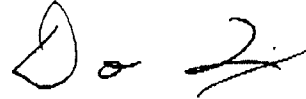

3. During this meeting, Mr. Gold asked Aetna U.S. Healthcare if there was a possibility to continue its business relationship with Doctors Health beyond December 31, 1998, the date on which the current arrangement is scheduled to end. When Mr. Simon inquired about how Doctors Health could succeed in a competitive industry within a geographic area in which other entities have not been able to succeed, Mr. Gold claimed that "we can do it better than others."

4. Indeed, Mr. Gold represented that Doctors Health was viable and that its financial backers had sufficient capital to fund Doctors Health for any additional capital it may need and that should Aetna U.S. Healthcare desire to continue its business relationship with Doctors Health, Doctors Health was more than capable of delivering financial security and collateral that Aetna U.S. Healthcare would seek to address its financial concerns about Doctors Health.

5. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of a letter from Mr. Gold memorializing this meeting. While the letter is dated September 10, 1998, it appears to have been prepared on September 11, 1998 and was faxed to us on September 11, 1998.

of my knowledge and belief.

AFFIDAVIT OF GREG PASTOR

Greg Pastor, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a Health Care Analyst in NYLCare's Cost Management Decision Support Group ("CMDS"). I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and, if called as a witness, I could testify competently thereto.

2. I am the analyst primarily responsible for any assessment of NYLCare's Medicare population. To the extent that Doctors Health requested information from NYLCare concerning the Medicare population prior (and subsequent) to entry into contracts with NYLCare, I was one of the persons primarily responsible for obtaining and providing that information to Doctors Health.

3. I have been involved with plaintiff Doctors Health, Inc. ("Doctors Health") since last August, when NYLCare and Doctors Health began negotiating the Medicare Network Management Agreement. While I have worked closely with a number of individuals at Doctors Health since October of 1997, I spoke with

John R. Dwyer only once, at a May 1998 luncheon for employees of NYLCare and Doctors Health.

4. In any event, Doctors Health's claim that NYLCare "recklessly provided unreliable data to Doctors Health and recklessly asserted that it was accurate," Dwyer Aff. at ¶ 34, is false. The information NYLCare provided to Doctors Health was truthful and accurate in all respects, and was the information we used, and relied upon, ourselves within NYLCare. Moreover, I explained data limitations to Chandra Mileham, Sandie Weisfeld and Cindy Gates on different dates.

5. NYLCare began negotiating with Doctors Health in the late summer of 1997. The companies had reached a tentative agreement in late August or early September of 1997. At this point, NYLCare began providing Doctors Health with cost information as part of its "due diligence" evaluation of the deal. NYLCare gave Doctors Health every piece of information that it requested. Moreover, this information was, to the best of my belief, entirely truthful and accurate.

6. The due diligence information that NYLCare sent to Doctors Health prior to entering into the contract indicated that the cost of providing a Medicare member with services was $420 per month, or $420 per member per month ("PMPM"). See Email from Chandra Mileham to Greg Pastor, December 11, 1997 ("The information we received from your finance department on the whole population averaged $420 PMPM (including pharmacy of about $40 PMPM) (Exh. A). The data were based on NYLCare's historical experience with its entire Medicare population.

7. I have reviewed the Affidavit of John R. Dwyer, Jr., which alleges at ¶ 33 that "NYLCare's represented data shows total cost claims per person enrolled in the HMO to be $350 per month on average while the actual cost per month is $400 per person." This representation is not correct, for the reasons described in paragraph 12 of my affidavit, because the cost information I gave them was provided to calculate lag (delay in claims processing) factors and generate relative medical cost information.

8. I have also reviewed Stewart Gold's letter of August 31, Exhibit 9 to the Dwyer affidavit, in which the first full paragraph on the second page of this letter reads:

After consummation of the agreement, however, it became apparent that NYLCare had not provided Doctors Health with accurate cost data — particularly as to pharmacy costs. It took us months of painstaking work and repeated demands for information from you to learn the truth about this operation's actual costs. In fact, in its historical cost data NYLCare claimed total claims costs PMPM of approximately $350 per month on average over the year prior to the agreement. Yet Doctors Health's estimated total claims costs were more than $400 the very first month of operation and have remained at that high level ever since.

Mr. Gold's representation about information provided after the parties entered into the agreements is also false.

9. I believe the "pharmacy cost" information to which Mr. Gold refers relates to information that was provided to Doctors Health during the due diligence investigation. This information came from three sources: (1) CMDS; (2) the NYLCare financial department; and (3) the NYLCare Pharmacy Director, Richard Reitz. There were discrepancies between the figures provided by these departments — estimated costs ranged from $36 to $50 pmpm. But these discrepancies were resolved to Doctors Health's satisfaction, and the numbers were reconciled. The numbers had varied because the different departments were looking at slightly different member categories and different time periods.

10. The sentence that begins "In fact . . ." in Stewart Gold's letter of August 31, Exhibit 9 to the Dwyer affidavit, simply does not follow from the pharmacy cost issue — there is no logical connection between pharmacy costs and the $350 figure. The $350 apparently refers to a calculation that Doctors Health made based on information I provided to Doctors Health for an entirely different purpose after the contracts were executed. This data was given to Doctors Health after the contract was signed. The data that NYLCare provided to Doctors Health in the course of the due diligence investigation estimated costs at around $420 per member per month. Since Doctors Health made its "$350" calculation after it signed the contract, this figure certainly could not have "induced" Doctors Health to enter into the deal.

11. I am also familiar with Exhibit 8 to the Dwyer Affidavit. Stewart Gold used this graph at a July 14, 1998 meeting to accuse Jeff Emerson of misleading Doctors Health regarding costs. The graph purports to compare the costs that NYLCare had predicted with Doctors Health's actual experience, and shows a discrepancy between the two figures of around $150 pmpm. I believe that Chandra Mileham of Doctors Health prepared this graph based on a misunderstanding of the data that I had given her after the contracts were executed. I supplied her with this data only to estimate lag factors (the time from when a claim is submitted until it is processed) and assess the costs associated with various medical categories. The data were not provided for the purpose of estimating pmpm — that was the information I supplied to Doctors Health during its due diligence investigation.

12. Mr. Dwyer's Exhibit 8 suffers from a number of fundamental errors. The portion of the graph that purports to show NYLCare's estimated costs (1) is not corrected for the "members of record" problem (i.e., members who have died whose costs are higher); (2) is not adjusted for lag factors; (3) does not include prescription drug costs; and (4) is not adjusted to account for the February 1998 addition of the D.C. and Prince George's County members to Doctors Health's population (these members are more costly than members in other areas).

13. On July 21, 1997, Chandra Mileham faxed NYLCare a corrected graph. The graph still shows a discrepancy between the costs that NYLCare had allegedly predicted and Doctors Health's actual experience, but the discrepancy is far smaller — only about $50 pmpm. See Exh. B. In this graph, NYLCare's purported figures have been adjusted to include prescription drug costs. In addition, Doctors Health had used a different lag factor to compute its own costs. Even the second graph suffers from problems. It is not corrected for the members of record problem; the lag factor calculations may be inaccurate; and the data have not been corrected to account for the addition of the D.C. and Prince George's County members to Doctors Health's population. In addition, and most fundamentally, it does not use the information I gave to Doctors Health before they decided to enter into the contracts, and from which they derived a $420 pmpm.

I swear that the foregoing is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Court's Decision

THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

I think I have heard enough to digest the issues.

In the first instance, it seems to me that the underlying dispute between the parties concerns money matters arising out of their contractual agreement.

Now, what we have are two corporate entities both doing business in Maryland concerning services, HMO services which are being provided and health management services generally, which are being provided in Maryland.

The nexus to New York is obviously Chase Manhattan Bank really the nominal stakeholder in this particular case because of the Letter of Credit that was issued from the plaintiffs in favor of Nylcare.

Now, this is certainly a basic commercial transaction.

The parties have a contractual relationship. It involves the making

Court's Decision

of the ongoing claims being made based upon patients' services being furnished by the plaintiff for which the defendant, Nylcare, receives payment from the federal government and is a pass-through for purposes of the Medicare payments.

The relationship here is ongoing clearly commercial.

The nuance of this particular case concerns the establishment in the contract or the agreement of the Letter of Credit in favor of Nylcare.

Now, this is not the traditional commercial Letter of Credit involving goods and furnishing of goods, et cetera, the normal transaction.

This is in the nature of a standby Letter of Credit.

The standby Letter of Credit functions more like a guarantee than the standard commercial Letter of Credit.

They are obtained to enable the

Court's Decision

beneficiary to make demand for payment under the Letter of Credit upon the happening of a certain contingency, such as the default of the other party in the underlying transaction.

The terms for drawing upon the Letter of Credit is set forth in the agreement.

There are certain requirements; obviously, a presentment to Chase is required in a particular form and the contents must meet at least a requirement of the agreement.

Plaintiff primarily predicates this application for injunctive relief on the fourth requirement, the statement drawing upon the Letter of Credit by Nylcare that they know of no valid offsets to the claims.

The problem here is that to the extent that the documents are properly presented to Chase Bank, the Court must strictly construe the Letter of Credit requirements in accordance with UCC.

Court's Decision

The purpose of it is to have definiteness with respect to commercial transactions here.

Now, it seems to me that the entire arguments, using the CPLR criteria here, with respect to irreparable harm, substantial likelihood of success on the merits and the balance of the equities is predicated upon, of course, what is, in fact, a money dispute between the parties as to what the proper amount due and owing to the defendant is here.

Clearly, the threshold issue in the underlying issue for the plenary action is really based upon a claim for money damages, either in the form of the claim by the plaintiff or what will be a counterclaim on the part of defendant, Nylcare, based upon this dispute.

So there is no question here that there are disputed facts with respect

Court's Decision

to what sum is due and owing and to whom it is due and owing, pursuant to the term of the Agreement.

And I have perused the documentation here, and as I said, there is an ongoing course of conduct between the parties.

Now, the only basis under which the Court can grant an injunction in these circumstances, particularly where there are factual disputes, there must be a clear showing of irreparable harm, a clear showing of irreparable harm.

In this particular instance, the allegation that is being made in the Order to Show Cause, by the plaintiff, is that fraud threatening this irreparable harm involves false statements by defendant, Nylcare Health Plans to defendant, Chase Manhattan Bank.

Now, the distinction here, I believe, is whether or not what we have, does a false statement, even

Court's Decision

1 assuming arguendo, we have a false
2 statement, rise to the level of a
3 fraudulent statement to meet the UCC
4 standard and commercial standard in New
5 York to fit within the fraud exception
6 to payment under a Letter of Credit.
7 And I think that's really the critical
8 issue.

10 "In New York, the sole exception
11 to the independence principle and the 12 issuer's obligation to pay on 13 conforming documents --"

14 I don't think there is any dispute
15 here we have conforming documents, " --
16 is an exception for fraud.

17 "The only authorized means of 18 stopping payment, under a Letter of 19 Credit, is that permitted under the 20 fraud exception.

21 "If applicable, it can permit an
22 injunction against honor, or it can be
23 relied upon by the issuer as a ground
24 to dishonor, where a document is forged
25 or fraudulent or where there is fraud

1 Court's Decision
2 in the transaction."

3 This case clearly does not involve
4 fraud in the inducement.

5 Fraud in the inducement, would
6 have concerned the terms giving rise to
7 the Letter of Credit, and there is
8 certainly no allegations in that
9 regard.

10 And, therefore, the plaintiff must
11 rely upon the fact that there is fraud
12 in the transaction.

13 And plaintiff's argument has been
14 couched in terms of fraud in the
15 presentment, I assume, that means in
16 the presentment of the documents, to
17 the extent the statement is made that,
18 in fact, there are no known offsets.

19 The problem here, is based upon
20 the factual disputes between the
21 parties, that statement cannot be
22 considered to be a fraudulent
23 statement.

24 In fact, there is no evidence,
25 based upon the submissions by the

Court's Decision

parties here, that that statement has not been made in good faith.

The point being that the position of the defendant, Nylcare here is, of course, there are clearly sums due and owing to Nylcare and, in point of fact, that it's only a question of the actual amount here.

But the amount is an amount clearly due and owing to Nylcare.

It's not a situation that it was presented because there is a possibility that there is deficit on Nylcare's side and the sums may be due and owing to the plaintiff here.

It all surrounds the factual dispute. That factual dispute, by itself, is not sufficient to constitute fraud within the meaning of UCC or the case law in New York. There has to be a showing of actual fraud.

And even the fact that there may be a mere misrepresentation here, a mere misrepresentation, if, unless

Court's Decision

there is a showing that it has been made in bad faith in order to fraudulently induce, in order to fraudulently induce the demand for payment here, there is really no bases under which you can really show that there is irreparable harm in this circumstances.

It seems to me there is a legitimate factual dispute between the parties.

Now, let me say something with respect to this issue of irreparable harm and the arguments made with respect to irreparable harm.

Irreparable harm cannot constitute simple economic harm.

Basically, once again, the threshold arguments offered by plaintiff is that they may be put out of business. May even possibly be forced into insolvency or bankruptcy.

But that does not constitute a basis for irreparable harm.

1 Court's Decision

2 In fact, if anything, it supports
3 the decision that the underlying
4 dispute is based upon money and based
5 upon something that is compensable at
6 law seeking money damages.

7 The additional factor in this case
8 is that since none of these
9 transactions arise other than the
10 issuance of the Letter of Credit,
11 within the State of New York, and the
13 here.

14 That agreement expressly provides
15 for arbitrability of disputes of the
16 parties and disputes surrounding, of
17 course, the particular claims that are
18 really the subject matter here.

19 So that the Court would never
20 reach the merit in this particular
21 case.

22 So the Court cannot conclude, for
23 the plaintiff, that there is a
24 likelihood of success on the merit at
25 this particular time, sufficient to

Court's Decision

issue an injunction.

So it seems to me that in the overall assessment, without a showing of irreparable harm, and an issue of money, does not equal irreparable harm because it's compensable at law.

I understand the argument that is being made with respect to patient care, but the fact of the matter is that the plaintiff is not the actual patient provider here. They do not have that primary responsibility with respect to patient care.

They are the conduit to make arrangements for the patient care.

And certainly it's plausible that alternative arrangements can be made. And we know that in the world of HMO's, changes are made every day with respect to the election of their HMO.

So there is no basis of irreparable harm shown there.

So I think that based upon all of the submissions before the Court, the

Court's Decision

Court is constrained, based upon the reasons cited, to deny the application for a preliminary injunction and to vacate the TRO in this matter.

The record will constitute my Decision and Order.

Settle an order on notice here, please. Thank you.

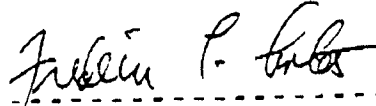

MS McCABE: Your Honor, may we have a stay of the order so that we may file an appeal?

THE COURT: The application for a stay is denied.

or the appeal is dismissed, the appellant or moving party shall pay any installments or part of installments then due or the part of them as to which the judgment or order is affirmed; or

4. the judgment or order directs the assignment or delivery of personal property, and the property is placed in the custody of an officer designated by the court of original instance to abide the direction of the court to which the appeal is taken, or an undertaking in a sum fixed by the court of original instance is given that the appellant or moving party will obey the direction of the court to which the appeal is taken; or

5. the judgment or order directs the execution of any instrument, and the instrument is executed and deposited in the office where the original judgment or order is entered to abide the direction of the court to which the appeal is taken; or

6. the appellant or moving party is in possession or control of real property which the judgment or order directs be conveyed or delivered, and an undertaking in a sum fixed by the court of original instance is given that the appellant or moving party will not commit or suffer to be committed any waste and that if the judgment or order appealed from, or any part of it, is affirmed, or the appeal is dismissed, the appellant or moving party shall pay the value of the use and occupancy of such property, or the part of it as to which the judgment or order is affirmed, from the taking of the appeal until the delivery of possession of the property; if the judgment or order directs the sale of mortgaged property and the payment of any deficiency, the undertaking shall also provide that the appellant or moving party shall pay any such deficiency; or

7. the judgment or order directs the performance of two or more of the acts specified in subparagraphs two through six and the appellant or moving party complies with each applicable subparagraph.

(b) Stay in action defended by insurer. If an appeal is taken from a judgment or order entered against an insured in an action which is defended by an insurance corporation, or other insurer, on behalf of the insured under a policy of insurance the limit of liability of which is less than the amount of said judgment or order, all proceedings to enforce the judgment or order to the extent of the policy coverage shall be stayed pending the appeal, and no action shall be commenced or maintained against the insurer for payment under the policy pending the appeal, where the insurer:

1. files with the clerk of the court in which the judgment or order was entered a sworn statement of one of its officers, describing the nature of the policy and the amount of coverage together with a written undertaking that if the judgment or order appealed from, or any part of it, is affirmed, or the appeal is dismissed, the insurer shall pay the amount directed to be paid by the judgment or order, or the part of it as to which the judgment or order is affirmed, to the extent of the limit of liability in the policy, plus interest and costs;

2. serves a copy of such sworn statement and undertaking upon the judgment creditor or his attorney; and

3. delivers or mails to the insured at the latest address of the insured appearing upon the records of the insurer, written notice that the enforcement of such judgment or order, to the extent that the amount it directs to be paid exceeds the limit of liability in the policy, is not stayed in respect to the insured. A stay of enforcement of the balance of the amount of the judgment or order may be imposed by giving an undertaking, as provided in paragraph two of subdivision (a), in an amount equal to that balance.

(c) Stay and limitation of stay by court order. The court from or to which an appeal is taken or the court of original instance may stay all proceedings to enforce the judgment or order appealed from pending an appeal or determination on a motion for permission intent of the draftsmen (see 7 Weinstein, Korn & Miller, New York Civil Practice -CPLR ¶ 5516.01(Matthew Bender))."

1968 AMENDMENTS

Proposal No. 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1968, made by the Judicial Conference Feb. 1, 1968, Report to the Legislature, inserted word "seven" in place of word "four."

§ 5517. Subsequent orders.

(a) Appeal not affected by certain subsequent order. An appeal shall not be affected by:

1. the granting of a motion for reargument or the granting of an order upon reargument making the same or substantially the same determination as is made in the order appealed from; or
2. the granting of a motion for resettlement of the order appealed from; or
3. the denial of a motion, based on new or additional facts, for the same or substantially the same relief applied for in the motion on which the order appealed from was made.

(b) Review of subsequent orders. A court reviewing an order may also review any subsequent order made upon a motion specified in subdivision (a), if the subsequent order is appealable as of right.

§ 5518. Preliminary injunction or temporary restraining order by appellate division.

The appellate division may grant, modify or limit a preliminary injunction or temporary restraining order pending an appeal or determination of a motion for permission to appeal in any case specified in section 6301.

§ 5519. Stay of enforcement.

(a) Stay without court order. Service upon the adverse party of a notice of appeal or an affidavit of intention to move for permission to appeal stays all proceedings to enforce the judgment or order appealed from pending the appeal or determination on the motion for permission to appeal where:

1. the appellant or moving party is the state or any political subdivision of the state or any officer or agency of the state or of any political subdivision of the state; provided that where a court, after considering an issue specified in question four of section seventy-eight hundred three of this chapter, issues a judgment or order directing reinstatement of a license held by a corporation with no more than five stockholders and which employs no more than ten employees, a partnership with no more than five partners and which employs no more than ten employees, a proprietorship or a natural person, the stay provided for by this paragraph shall be for a period of fifteen days; or
2. the judgment or order directs the payment of a sum of money, and an undertaking in that sum is given that if the judgment or order appealed from, or any part of it, is affirmed, or the appeal is dismissed, the appellant or moving party shall pay the amount directed to be paid by the judgment or order, or the part of it as to which the judgment or order is affirmed; or
3. the judgment or order directs the payment of a sum of money, to be paid in fixed installments, and an undertaking in a sum fixed by the court of original instance is given that the appellant or moving party shall pay each installment which becomes due pending the appeal and that if the judgment or order appealed from, or any part of it, is affirmed, to appeal in a case not provided for in subdivision (a) or subdivision (b), or may grant a limited stay or may vacate, limit or modify any stay imposed by subdivision (a), subdivision (b) or this subdivision, except that only the court to which an appeal is taken may vacate, limit or modify a stay imposed by paragraph one of subdivision (a).

(d) Undertaking. On an appeal from an order affirming a judgment or order, the undertaking shall secure both the order and the judgment or order which is affirmed.

(e) Continuation of stay. If the judgment or order appealed from is affirmed or modified, the stay shall continue for five days after service upon the appellant of the order of affirmance or modification with notice of its entry in the court to which the appeal was taken. If an appeal is taken or a motion is made for permission to appeal from such an order, before the expiration of the five days, the stay shall continue until five days after service of notice of the entry of the order determining such appeal or motion. When a motion for permission to appeal is involved, the stay, or any other stay granted pending determination of the motion for permission to appeal, shall:

(i) if the motion is granted, continue until five days after the appeal is determined; or

(ii) if the motion is denied, continue until five days after the movant is served with the order of denial with notice of its entry.

(f) Proceedings after stay. A stay of enforcement shall not prevent the court of original instance from proceeding in any matter not affected by the judgment or order appealed from or from directing the sale of perishable property.

(g) Appeals in medical, dental or podiatric malpractice judgments. In an action for medical, dental or podiatric malpractice, if an appeal is taken from a judgment in excess of one million dollars and an undertaking in the amount of one million dollars or the limit of insurance coverage available to the appellant for the occurrence, whichever is greater, is given together with a joint undertaking by the appellant and any insurer of the appellant's professional liability that, during the period of such stay, the appellant will make no fraudulent conveyance without fair consideration as described in section two hundred seventy-three-a of the debtor and creditor law, the court to which such an appeal is taken shall stay all proceedings to enforce the judgment pending such appeal if it finds that there is a reasonable probability that the judgment may be reversed or determined excessive. In making a determination under this subdivision, the court shall not consider the availability of a stay pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of this section. Liability under such joint undertaking shall be limited to fraudulent conveyances made by the appellant subsequent to the execution of such undertaking and during the period of such stay, but nothing herein shall limit the liability of the appellant for fraudulent conveyances pursuant to article ten of the debtor and creditor law or any other law. An insurer that pays money to a beneficiary of such a joint undertaking shall thereupon be subrogated, to the extent of the amount to be paid, to the rights and interests of such beneficiary, as a judgment creditor, against the appellant on whose behalf the joint undertaking was executed.

L. 1988, ch. 184, eff. July 1, 1988, added new subdivision (g) governing stays in large-verdict (i.e., one million dollars and above) medical, dental, and podiatric malpractice actions. L. 1988, ch. 493, eff. Sept. 1, 1988, amended 5519(a) paragraph 1 to set at 15 days an automatic stay pending appeal by the state or a political subdivision or agency of the state, of an adverse decision in specified Article 78 proceedings.

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE REPLY OF NYLCARE HEALTH PLANS OF THE MID-ATLANTIC, INC.

Defendant-Respondent NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare"), respectfully moves for leave to file the attached reply brief to Doctors Health Inc.'s Reply Memorandum of Law in Support of its Application for a Stay ("Doctors Opp."). NYLCare submits that a reply is warranted for three reasons.

First, there is confusion between the parties over whether the full appeal is now before the Appellate Division, or only the question of interim relief pending disposition of the appeal. Compare Brief of Defendant-Respondent NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. at 1 (appeal at issue) with Doctors Opp. at 1 (interim relief at issue). NYLCare's attached reply clarifies that, regardless of which matter is formally at issue, because the letter of credit expires on October 31, 1998, the Court's decision will effectively decide the parties' entire appeal. See

Reply of Defendant-Respondent NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare Reply"), Point I.

Second, there is confusion over the correct legal standard the Appellate Division should employ. Doctors represents that the Court should apply CPLR § 5519 to stay a judgment or order below. As NYLCare's attached reply explains, there is no judgment or order below to stay; what Doctors really seeks is a new temporary injunction which it can pursue only under CPLR § 5518 with a clear showing of irreparable injury, likely of success on the merits, and the balance of hardships tipping in its favor. NYLCare Reply, Point II.

Third, under normal motion procedures, the respondent is entitled to respond to a movant's filing papers. See 22 N.Y.C.R.R. § 600.2. Here, an unusual scheduling order required NYLCare, though respondent, to file first. Unless the Court grants leave to file the attached reply, NYLCare will be denied the opportunity customarily afforded respondents. The Court will also be denied the benefit of the sharpening of issues that the traditional adversarial briefing system was designed to ensure. Cf. Herbert v. National Academy of Sciences, 974 F.2d 192, 196 (D.C. Cir. 1992) (permitting appellant to raise arguments without opportunity for appellee to respond "would be manifestly unfair to the appellee [and] would risk the possibility of an improvident or ill-advised opinion, given our dependence . . . on the adversarial process for sharpening the issues for decision") (internal quotation marks omitted); 16 C. Wright, A. Miller, et. al., Federal Practice and Procedure § 3974, 462 & n.4 (1996) (same).

Conclusion

The Court should permit NYLCare to file the attached reply brief.

Dated: September 28, 1998.

REPLY OF NYLCARE HEALTH PLANS OF THE MID-ATLANTIC, INC.

Preliminary Statement

Doctors Health Inc. ("Doctors") claims that the only issue before the Court is whether to grant "interim relief" pending resolution of its appeal. Doctors Health Inc.'s Reply Memorandum of Law in Support of its Application for a Stay ("Doctors Opp.") at 1. In fact, Doctors' letter of credit -- the subject of the instant appeal -- expires on October 31, 1998. Accordingly, any "interim relief" afforded by the Court would be tantamount to a grant of the injunction Justice Cozier refused to supply. By preventing NYLCare from drawing on the letter of credit, the Court would permanently preclude NYLCare from collecting millions of dollars worth of unpaid, overdue bills.¹ See Point I, infra.

Doctors also misstates the applicable legal standard. Doctors seeks not a stay of an order or judgment under CPLR § 5519, but a preliminary injunction pending appeal under CPLR

¹Doctors has represented that it cannot pay those bills and the letter of credit is the only source of funds to pay NYLCare.

Argument

I. WHAT DOCTORS SEEKS IS EFFECTIVELY PERMANENT -- NOT "INTERIM" -- RELIEF

Doctors represents that the only matter before the Appellate Division is whether to grant "interim relief" pending resolution of this appeal in the normal course. Doctors Opp. at 1. According to Doctors, the scheduling order entered by the Appellate Division on September 17, 1998 (Exhibit A at 2) contemplates a decision by October 2, 1998 only as to "interim relief." Counsel representing NYLCare at the September 17, 1998 conference, however, understood the Court's scheduling order to contemplate resolution of the full appeal on an emergency basis by October 2, 1998. Any confusion on this subject is itself the result of Doctors' inappropriate failure to provide proper notice to opposing counsel.²

²After its motion for preliminary injunction motion was denied by Justice Cozier, Doctors asked for an interim injunction pending appeal; Justice Cozier denied that motion as well. Respondent's App. at 14. The hearing before Justice Cozier was concluded before noon. At approximately 4 p.m. the same day, NYLCare's local counsel received a telephone call from Doctors' counsel representing that they were in the Appellate Division.

Even if, formally, the only matter before the Court is whether to grant interim relief pending the appeal, the entire dispute between the parties actually hangs in the balance. It is undisputed that the letter of credit expires on October 31, 1998. Affidavit of Susan S. Lefkowitz ("Lefkowitz Aff.") ¶ 7 (Respondent's App. at 170). After that date, NYLCare cannot draw on the letter of credit: it will be gone. Thus, if the Court enjoins NYLCare from accessing the letter of credit on an "interim" basis pending an appeal in the normal course, it is a certainty that the letter of credit will expire before the appeal is resolved. Granting Doctors "interim relief" is, thus, effectively the same as overruling Justice Cozier's decision finally and entirely. NYLCare will be left only to proceed directly against Doctors in arbitration. But, because Doctor has alleged that it is on the brink of financial collapse and that it does not have $2.6 million to repay the bank if the letter of credit is drawn upon (see Doctors Opp. at 10; Affidavit of Stewart Gold ("Gold Aff.")), the letter of credit appears to be the only source of funds from which NYLCare can collect the sums Doctors owes. Accordingly, an "interim" injunction would permanently jeopardize NYLCare's ability to recover millions of dollars it is indisputably owed and, in turn, would defeat the Doctors counsel stated that they were waiting to be heard on a motion for interim relief pending resolution of Doctors' appeal, and that if NYLCare wished to be heard, it should appear forthwith. Because of Doctors' inappropriate notice, NYLCare's lead counsel was unable to participate, having left New York to return to Washington, D.C.

very notion of a letter of credit as a commercial guarantee.

II. DOCTORS MISREPRESENTS THE APPLICABLE LEGAL STANDARD FOR ITS "INTERIM RELIEF"

Even assuming the only formal issue before the Court is interim relief, Doctors has misrepresented the appropriate legal standard. What Doctors seeks is an injunction preventing NYLCare from accessing the letter of credit pending the disposition of its full appeal. Doctors must therefore proceed under CPLR § 5518, which expressly provides that "[t]he appellate division may grant . . . a preliminary injunction pending an appeal." Pursuant to that provision, Doctors must make a showing that (i) it will be irreparably injured without such relief, (ii) it will likely succeed on the appeal, and (iii) the balance of hardships tips in its favor. Romano v. Sullivan County Harness Racing Ass'n, Inc., 106 A.D.2d 819, 484 N.Y.S.2d 209 (3d Dep't 1984) (Appellate Division reviews "plaintiffs' motions de novo using the same standard as did the Special Term, i.e. was there a reasonable probability of success on the appeal and the existence of irreparable injury"); The Humane Society v. City of Monroe, 192 A.D.2d 1139, 596 N.Y.S.2d 222 (4th Dep't 1993) (same); Matter of Schwartz v Rockefeller, 38 A.D.2d 995, 329 N.Y.S.2d 482 (3d Dep't 1972) (same).

Doctors has not sought a preliminary injunction pending appeal under § 5518; it has not because it cannot make the necessary showings. Indeed, Justice Cozier expressly denied Doctors' request for an injunction at least pending appeal.

Respondent's App. at 14. Doctors instead incorrectly represents that CPLR § 5519 applies to this case. Doctors Opp. at 1, 7-9. Section 5519, however, authorizes the Appellate Division only to "stay all proceedings to enforce the judgment or order appealed from pending the appeal." Here, there are no ongoing trial court proceedings to enforce any judgment or order: the trial court denied the motion for preliminary injunction, and the ex parte TRO entered on September 11, 1998 terminated by its express terms upon the hearing of Doctors' motion for preliminary injunction on September 17, 1998. Exhibit B at 1 (TRO stating that it lasts only "pending the hearing" of the preliminary injunction motion). Doctors, thus, does not and cannot seek to stay enforcement of an order; it seeks to obtain a new injunctive order. For such relief, the only provision under which Doctors can legitimately proceed is CPLR § 5518.³

III. DOCTORS CANNOT MAKE THE REQUISITE SHOWING UNDER CPLR § 5518

In analyzing a request for an interim injunction pending appeal, this Court must apply the "same standard as did the Special Term." Romano, 106 A.D.2d at 820, 484 N.Y.S.2d at 210.

³By avoiding CPLR § 5518, Doctors seeks to achieve through the backdoor that which it could not achieve through the front -- obtaining a preliminary injunction against NYLCare without any showing concerning irreparable harm, likely success, or the balance of hardships. See Doctors Opp. at 7-9 (arguing Court has "broad discretion" whether to grant stay; traditional injunction factors only "relevant" to analysis). This is inconsistent with the plain language of the CPLR. It is also dangerous: permitted to stand, it would enable litigants unable to meet the long-settled standards for preliminary injunctive relief in the trial courts to obtain just such relief from the Appellate Division without making any prescribed showing.

Accordingly, the relief Doctors seeks is "a drastic remedy which will not be granted without a clear showing by the movant that (1) he is likely to succeed on the merits; (2) he will be irreparably harmed without the issuance of the injunction; and (3) the balance of the equities favors him." Mr. Dees Stores, Inc. v. A.J. Parker, Inc., 553 N.Y.S.2d 16, 17, 159 A.D.2d 389, 389 (1st Dep't 1990) (internal citation omitted). See also NYLCare Brief at 13-14 (citing additional authorities).

The new arguments in Doctors' opposition memorandum fail to satisfy any portion of this test. Doctors does not show irreparable injury, likelihood of success, or that the balance of hardships tips in its favor -- let alone make the clear showing required by law.

A. Doctors Has Not Shown, and Cannot Show, Irreparable Injury

Doctors has abandoned its claim made before the trial court that an injunction is necessary to safeguard the medical care to thousands of patients.⁴ It now rests its entire irreparable injury claim on the assertion that, absent an injunction, it will face "dire consequences" -- namely, it will "fail to get additional investments from investors," will be "forced to lay off its employees," and may "seek bankruptcy protection." Doctors Opp. at 10.

⁴Doctors was forced to abandon the argument -- and hence to concede implicitly its lack of merit -- because Doctors has now attempted to rescind unilaterally the contract that it formally claimed was essential to the preservation of patient well being. See Doctors Opp. at 10 n.9.

Additional investments. Doctors has cited no support for the argument -- not even made below to Justice Cozier -- that its failure to attract additional financing constitutes irreparable harm. Injunctions are not tools to enhance the business prospects of financially strapped companies. Moreover, the claim is wholly speculative: Doctors has produced no evidence that an injunction would result in additional investors. There is no affidavit of any investor to that effect. And the affidavit of Mr. Gold simply avers that an unnamed investor "has indicated" that it would be willing to invest provided Doctors "can convince it that NYLCare will not be allowed" to deduct unpaid claims costs and NYLCare will not be allowed to draw down the letter of credit based on false assertions. Gold Aff. ¶¶ 22-23. The temporary injunction sought by Doctors would not even provide those assurances.

Employee lay-offs. Doctors cites no case, and NYLCare knows of none, in which a New York court has issued an injunction to prevent a company from having to lay-off some unidentified portion of its staff. See Gold Aff. ¶ 25. No such case apparently exists because, though unfortunate, lay-offs do not constitute irreparable harm to the corporation itself. Indeed, the United States Supreme Court has repeatedly held that, even with respect to employees, the injury caused by dismissal -- in the form of loss of income and damage to reputation -- "falls far short of the type of irreparable injury which is a necessary predicate to the issuance of a temporary injunction." Office of Personnel Management v. American Federation of Government Employees, 415 U.S. 61, 91-92 (1974). Doctors makes no attempt to explain how possible lay-offs would irreparably harm the corporation, when as a matter of law they do not irreparably harm its employees.

The "risk" of bankruptcy. Doctors' speculative "risk of bankruptcy," Preargument Statement ¶ 9(c) (emphasis added) (see also Affidavit of Monica P. McCabe ¶ 10; Affidavit of John R. Dwyer ¶ 18) is unsupported by financial records or other evidence sufficient to demonstrate irreparable harm. Indeed, the numerous cases cited in NYLCare's opening brief make clear that "bare conclusory allegations of [the party's] potential insolvency are insufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's burden of demonstrating irreparable injury." Wurttembergische Fire Insurance Co. v. Pan Atlantic Underwriters, Ltd., 133 A.D.2d 268, 269, 519 N.Y.S.2d 57, 58 (2d Dep't 1987). See also NYLCare Brief at 18-19 (citing additional authority). Doctors relies almost entirely on Mr. Gold's affidavit. But that states only the amount of working capital Doctors had in July and estimates monthly expenses, providing no supporting records, no indication of Doctors' monthly revenues or expenses, no idea of the income generated from the 16,000 non-NYLCare patients Doctors supposedly manages. Doctors Opp. at 10. Nor does Doctors even guess when its "possible" bankruptcy may arise.

While Doctors criticizes the trial court for not asking for testimony on the company's spectral insolvency, see Doctors Opp.

at 10-11 & n.11, it was Doctors' burden, not the court's, to establish the necessary elements of its claims.⁵ It has not done so, and cannot do so, under settled law.

B. Doctors Has Not Shown, and Cannot Show, Likelihood of Success on the Merits

Doctors does not dispute that the doctrine of independent contracts required Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase") to honor NYLCare's properly-drafted letter of credit demand separate and apart from any billing dispute between NYLCare and Doctors. NYLCare Brief at 23-24 & n.9. Doctors does not dispute that this doctrine is subject to a "narrow exception" only upon a showing that fraud has "permeated the entire transaction." Banque Worms v. Banque Comercial Privee, 679 F. Supp. 1173, 1182 (S.D.N.Y.), aff'd, 849 F.2d 787 (2d Cir. 1988); NYLCare Brief at 24 & n.9. Nor does Doctors dispute the trial court's disposition of its "fraud in the inducement" claim.⁶

Instead, Doctors resorts to mangling the trial court's holding concerning its "fraud in the presentment" claim. Doctors

⁵At the hearing, Doctors never even asked to present testimony on this score, nor did it make a proffer as to what potential witnesses might say. Rather, Doctors only "mention[ed]" that Messrs. Gold and Dwyer were outside the courtroom in case the judge "ha[d] any specific questions that he would like answered." Respondent's App. at 7.

⁶See Doctors Opp. 24 n.19; NYLCare Brief at 23 n.8. Doctors does, however, gratuitously misrepresent that "NYLCare told Doctors Health that its historical costs were $420 per member long after Doctors Health entered into its contract with NYLCare." Doctors Opp. 24 n.19. The uncontested record evidence is patently to the contrary. Affidavit of Greg Pastor ¶ 5 (Respondent's App. at 177) (NYLCare informed Doctors of $420 per member cost before contract).

accuses Justice Cozier of having "misunderstood" its argument or of having improperly chosen to "depart from existing law." Doctors Opp. at 16. Specifically, Doctors asserts that it can show "fraud in the presentment" by demonstrating that NYLCare was "aware" that Doctors had "offsets and defenses" to the July 1998 bill and yet represented to Chase that it was aware of none. Id. at 16-17. Justice Cozier supposedly "misunderstood" this claim because he required Doctors to prove that its offsets or defenses were "valid." Id.

Justice Cozier misunderstood nothing. He never required Doctors to show that its offsets or defenses were "valid."⁷ Justice Cozier found that NYLCare's representation to Chase that it was aware of no offsets or defenses to the July 1998 bill was made in good faith. Respondent's App. at 10 ("there is no evidence, based upon the submissions by the parties here, that [NYLCare's] statement [to Chase] has not been made in good faith"). Without a showing of bad faith, there can be no fraud. Benderson Development Co v. Hallaway Properties, Inc., 67 N.Y.2d 963, 494 N.E.2d 106, 502 N.Y.S.2d 1001 (N.Y. 1986) (dismissing fraud claim for lack of evidence of a "present intent to deceive").

Justice Cozier's holding is unassailably correct. The record below reveals that Doctors indisputably owes NYLCare at least $7 million -- well in excess of NYLCare's $2.6 million draw-down request for the July 1998 bill. See NYLCare Brief at 26-27 (establishing over $13 million in unpaid bills due from Doctors and disputes totaling no more than $6 million). Thus, as Justice Cozier noted, "there are clearly sums due and owing to [NYLCare]" for which no defenses or offsets exist. Respondent's App. at 10.

Besides, as to the July 1998 bill specifically in dispute, Doctors still fails to identify a single supposed offset or defense anywhere in the text of its brief. Instead, it offers only three transparent arguments tellingly buried in a footnote. Doctors Opp. at 18 n.22. First, Doctors claims that there was "no requirement in the letter of credit that the offsets or defenses must relate to any particular bill." Id. This, however, is a novel argument never raised below before Justice Cozier. Accordingly, it is waived. Harris Bay Yacht Club, Inc. v. Harris, 230 A.D.2d 931, 647 N.Y.S.2d 293 (3d Dep't 1996).

Even if the Court could consider it, it is an unsupported assertion belied by the parties' own contract. The parties' agreement expressly required bills to be prepared and paid on a monthly basis and permitted NYLCare to access the letter of credit only for such bills 60-days overdue. NYLCare Brief at 26; Affidavit of Steven Benz, Exh. 2, ¶ 3.4.4; id., Exh. 2, ¶ 6.4. Thus, NYLCare's letter to Chase sought payment for, and made representations concerning, only the 60-day overdue $2.6 million bill for the month of July 1998. And for that month, Doctors had no claimed offset or defense whatsoever.

Second, Doctors touts the fact that NYLCare wrote on August 13, 1998 indicating that it anticipated Doctors would be owed $506,068.53 for August. Doctors Opp. at 18 n.22. But Doctors does not contest that this anticipated credit related only to August, not July. Doctors likewise does not (and cannot) contest that NYLCare subsequently determined that no amount would be due to Doctors for August and, in fact, Doctors would owe NYLCare approximately $10 million. NYLCare Brief at 26; Lefkowitz Aff. ¶ 5 (Respondent's App. at 169).

Third, Doctors claims that "a portion of the defenses and setoffs did in fact relate to the July bill (Gold Aff. ¶¶ 3, 5-10)." Doctors Opp. at 18 n.22. But as fully discussed elsewhere, Doctors has never even attempted to show that the various disputes discussed in the Gold Affidavit relate specifically to the July 1998 bill, nor that it made these supposed defenses and offsets known before NYLCare sent the draw request to Chase. NYLCare Brief at 26-27 & n.10.

Far from "clear[ly] showing" that Doctors "is likely to succeed on the merits," Mr. Dees Stores, 159 A.D.2d at 389, 553 N.Y.S.2d at 17, the record demonstrates that Doctors lacks even a remote chance of establishing fraud on appeal.

C. Doctors Has Not Shown, and Cannot Show, That the Balance of Hardships Tips in Its Favor

Doctors has not even tried to argue before this Court that the balance of hardships tips in its favor. This failure alone disposes of its motion for an interim injunction. See Mr. Dees

Stores, 159 A.D.2d at 389, 553 N.Y.S.2d at 17 (requiring clear showing on three elements, including balance of hardships); NYLCare Brief at 14 (citing further cases to same effect).

Doctors has not sought to make such a showing because it cannot do so. If an "interim" injunction issues NYLCare will be permanently precluded from accessing the sole security it has under the parties' contract for collecting millions of dollars in undisputed, unpaid bills. See Point I, supra (letter of credit expires October 31, 1998). The equitable doctrine of injunctions does not permit such an inequitable result. Indeed, it is settled that where an injunction would make it "much less certain that [the] defendant will be able to recoup [its] payments" from plaintiff, the balance of equities does not tip in favor of the plaintiff and the injunction should not issue. Winkler v. Kingston Housing Auth., 238 A.D.2d 711, 713, 656 N.Y.S.2d 421, 423 (3d Dep't 1997). See also J. S. Anand Corp. v. Aviel Enters., Inc., 148 A.D.2d 496, 538 N.Y.S.2d 840 (2d Dep't 1989) ("the defendant had a legitimate interest in enforcing [its] security agreement"); Price Paper & Twine Co. v. Miller, 182 A.D.2d 748, 749, 582 N.Y.S.2d 746, 748 (2d Dep't 1992) (since "the defendant[] would be likely to suffer more damage than the plaintiff[], a preliminary injunction should not be issued").

Conclusion

The Court should deny Doctors' request for a preliminary injunction pending appeal, affirm in its entirety the trial court's decision denying Doctors' motion for a preliminary injunction, award NYLCare its costs and expenses, and provide such other relief the Court deems appropriate.

Court's Decision

THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

I think I have heard enough to digest the issues.

In the first instance, it seems to me that the underlying dispute between the parties concerns money matters arising out of their contractual agreement.

Now, what we have are two corporate entities both doing business in Maryland concerning services, HMO services which are being provided and health management services generally, which are being provided in Maryland.

The nexus to New York is obviously Chase Manhattan Bank really the nominal stakeholder in this particular case because of the Letter of Credit that was issued from the plaintiffs in favor of Nylcare.

Now, this is certainly a basic commercial transaction.

The parties have a contractual relationship. It involves the making

Court's Decision

of the ongoing claims being made based upon patients' services being furnished by the plaintiff for which the defendant, Nylcare, receives payment from the federal government and is a pass-through for purposes of the Medicare payments.

The relationship here is ongoing clearly commercial.

The nuance of this particular case concerns the establishment in the contract or the agreement of the Letter of Credit in favor of Nylcare.

Now, this is not the traditional commercial Letter of Credit involving goods and furnishing of goods, et cetera, the normal transaction.

This is in the nature of a standby Letter of Credit.

The standby Letter of Credit functions more like a guarantee than the standard commercial Letter of Credit.

They are obtained to enable the

Court's Decision

beneficiary to make demand for payment under the Letter of Credit upon the happening of a certain contingency, such as the default of the other party in the underlying transaction.

The terms for drawing upon the Letter of Credit is set forth in the agreement.

There are certain requirements; obviously, a presentment to Chase is required in a particular form and the contents must meet at least a requirement of the agreement.

Plaintiff primarily predicates this application for injunctive relief on the fourth requirement, the statement drawing upon the Letter of Credit by Nylcare that they know of no valid offsets to the claims.

The problem here is that to the extent that the documents are properly presented to Chase Bank, the Court must strictly construe the Letter of Credit requirements in accordance with UCC.

Court's Decision

The purpose of it is to have definiteness with respect to commercial transactions here.

Now, it seems to me that the entire arguments, using the CPLR criteria here, with respect to irreparable harm, substantial likelihood of success on the merits and the balance of the equities is predicated upon, of course, what is, in fact, a money dispute between the parties as to what the proper amount due and owing to the defendant is here.

Clearly, the threshold issue in the underlying issue for the plenary action is really based upon a claim for money damages, either in the form of the claim by the plaintiff or what will be a counterclaim on the part of defendant, Nylcare, based upon this dispute.

So there is no question here that there are disputed facts with respect

Court's Decision

to what sum is due and owing and to whom it is due and owing, pursuant to the term of the Agreement.

And I have perused the documentation here, and as I said, there is an ongoing course of conduct between the parties.

Now, the only basis under which the Court can grant an injunction in these circumstances, particularly where there are factual disputes, there must be a clear showing of irreparable harm, a clear showing of irreparable harm.

In this particular instance, the allegation that is being made in the Order to Show Cause, by the plaintiff, is that fraud threatening this irreparable harm involves false statements by defendant, Nylcare Health Plans to defendant, Chase Manhattan Bank.

Now, the distinction here, I believe, is whether or not what we have, does a false statement, even assuming arguendo, we have a false statement, rise to the level of a fraudulent statement to meet the UCC standard and commercial standard in New York to fit within the fraud exception to payment under a Letter of Credit. And I think that's really the critical issue.

"In New York, the sole exception to the independence principle and the issuer's obligation to pay on conforming documents --"

I don't think there is any dispute here we have conforming documents, " -- is an exception for fraud.

"The only authorized means of stopping payment, under a Letter of Credit, is that permitted under the fraud exception.

"If applicable, it can permit an injunction against honor, or it can be relied upon by the issuer as a ground to dishonor, where a document is forged or fraudulent or where there is fraud

1 Court's Decision
2 in the transaction."

3 This case clearly does not involve
4 fraud in the inducement.

5 Fraud in the inducement, would
6 have concerned the terms giving rise to
7 the Letter of Credit, and there is
8 certainly no allegations in that
9 regard.

10 And, therefore, the plaintiff must
11 rely upon the fact that there is fraud
12 in the transaction.

13 And plaintiff's argument has been
14 couched in terms of fraud in the
15 presentment, I assume, that means in
16 the presentment of the documents, to
17 the extent the statement is made that,
18 in fact, there are no known offsets.

19 The problem here, is based upon
20 the factual disputes between the
21 parties, that statement cannot be
22 considered to be a fraudulent
23 statement.

24 In fact, there is no evidence,
25 based upon the submissions by the

Court's Decision

parties here, that that statement has not been made in good faith.

The point being that the position of the defendant, Nylcare here is, of course, there are clearly sums due and owing to Nylcare and, in point of fact, that it's only a question of the actual amount here.

But the amount is an amount clearly due and owing to Nylcare.

It's not a situation that it was presented because there is a possibility that there is deficit on Nylcare's side and the sums may be due and owing to the plaintiff here.

It all surrounds the factual dispute. That factual dispute, by itself, is not sufficient to constitute fraud within the meaning of UCC or the case law in New York. There has to be a showing of actual fraud.

And even the fact that there may be a mere misrepresentation here, a mere misrepresentation, if, unless

Court's Decision

there is a showing that it has been made in bad faith in order to fraudulently induce, in order to fraudulently induce the demand for payment here, there is really no bases under which you can really show that there is irreparable harm in this circumstances.

It seems to me there is a legitimate factual dispute between the parties.

Now, let me say something with respect to this issue of irreparable harm and the arguments made with respect to irreparable harm.

Irreparable harm cannot constitute simple economic harm.

Basically, once again, the threshold arguments offered by plaintiff is that they may be put out of business. May even possibly be forced into insolvency or bankruptcy.

But that does not constitute a basis for irreparable harm.

Court's Decision

In fact, if anything, it supports the decision that the underlying dispute is based upon money and based upon something that is compensable at law seeking money damages.

The additional factor in this case is that since none of these transactions arise other than the issuance of the Letter of Credit, within the State of New York, and the agreement executed in Maryland governs here.

That agreement expressly provides for arbitrability of disputes of the parties and disputes surrounding, of course, the particular claims that are really the subject matter here.

So that the Court would never reach the merit in this particular case.

So the Court cannot conclude, for the plaintiff, that there is a likelihood of success on the merit at this particular time, sufficient to issue an injunction.

So it seems to me that in the overall assessment, without a showing of irreparable harm, and an issue of money, does not equal irreparable harm because it's compensable at law.

I understand the argument that is being made with respect to patient care, but the fact of the matter is that the plaintiff is not the actual patient provider here. They do not have that primary responsibility with respect to patient care.

They are the conduit to make arrangements for the patient care.

And certainly it's plausible that alternative arrangements can be made. And we know that in the world of HMO's, changes are made every day with respect to the election of their HMO.

So there is no basis of irreparable harm shown there.

So I think that based upon all of the submissions before the Court, the

Court's Decision

Court is constrained, based upon the reasons cited, to deny the application for a preliminary injunction and to vacate the TRO in this matter.

The record will constitute my Decision and Order.

Settle an order on notice here, please. Thank you.

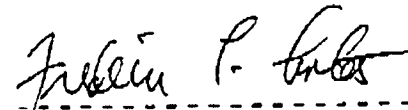

MS McCABE: Your Honor, may we have a stay of the order so that we may file an appeal?

THE COURT: The application for a stay is denied.

(Whereupon, court was adjourned.)

Proceedings

THE COURT: We are on the record.
Doctors Health Care, Inc., versus Chase
Manhattan Bank, Nylcare Health Plans
Mid-Atlantic, Inc. representing Doctors
Health Care.

MS. McCABE: Monica McCabe.

THE COURT: Do you have an initial application?

MS. McCABE: Yes. We have an affirmation for pro hac vice admission from John Corse from Piper & Marbury.
We also have the bond that your honor required be in place. We also have reply papers. We received papers from Nylcare last evening, and we have a reply memorandum of law as well as the affidavit of Stewart Gold with exhibits attached.

THE COURT: Those have been served on both defendants?

MS. McCABE: They were this morning.

THE COURT: Mr. Corrigan.

MR. CORRIGAN: Yes. I'm Peter

Proceedings

Corrigan, sir.

THE COURT: On the application of the plaintiff and based upon the submission that Mr. Corse is a member in good standing of the bars of the State of Maryland and the federal district courts in Maryland, evidenced by the Certificate of Good Standing from the Maryland bar, the application for admission pro hac vice is granted with respect to Mr. Corse.

MS. McCABE: Thank you, your honor.

THE COURT: Now, who is representing Chase?

MR. KEEN: I am, your Honor. My name is Andrew Keen. Your Honor, can I have papers as well.

THE COURT: You don't have any preliminary applications, Mr. Keen?

MR. KEEN: No, your Honor.

THE COURT: And representing Nylcare Health.

MS. GERSHMAN: Good morning, your

Proceedings

Honor. Julie Gershman from Epstein, Becker & Greene. I also have papers for your honor which were served last evening upon the other papers to this action. And we have an initial application to move Mr. Mark Hansen from DC in pro hac vice on this matter.

Unfortunately, we did not have the requisite time to obtain the Requisites of Good Standing.

THE COURT: Mr. Hansen.

MR. HANSEN: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You're a member of which bar?

MR. HANSEN: I'm a member of Massachusetts bar, the District of Columbia bar, the Maryland bar. I served as federal prosecutor in the federal court here for four years between 1986 and 1990.

THE COURT: Where are you currently residing and practicing?

MR. HANSEN: In Washington, D.C.,

Proceedings

your Honor.

THE COURT: How long have you been a member of the Washington, D.C. bar?

MR. HANSEN: Since 1996, your Honor.

THE COURT: You are currently in good standing in the D.C. and Maryland bars?

MR. HANSEN: Yes, as well as Massachusetts, your Honor.

THE COURT: The Court will grant the oral application by Nylcare Health Plans for the pro hac vice admission of Mr. Hansen.

MS. GERSHMAN: Your Honor, this is a limited and special appearance solely for the purposes of opposing the Order to Show Cause containing the temporary restraining order. I notice that your judge's personal rules do not permit a movant, by Order to Show Cause to submit reply papers. I just want to point that out at this time.

THE COURT: Normally that is

Proceedings

correct. It's done by -- I mean, permission of the Court by authorization of the Court. And under normal course, in a matter such as this, I think it's appropriate that replies be filed based on the extensive filing.

Okay, we are ready to proceed.

Ms. McCabe, would you briefly summarize your application.

MS. McCABE: Yes, your Honor.

Would you like some background or should I go into the argument?

THE COURT: The argument.

MS. McCABE: I would also like to mention to you honor outside we have Steward Gold, the president and CEO of Doctors Health, as well as the CFO John Dwyer, so if your Honor has any specific questions that he would like answered they are happy to answer any questions or be put on the stand.

Your Honor, Doctors Health is a physician-driven care management company which oversees the delivery of health care to about thirty thousand enrollees in HMOs.

Nylcare is an HMO with which Doctors Health entered into a contract to manage services for elderly Medicare patients. Under the agreement, Nylcare collects money from the Federal Government who pays for Medicare patients. Then what happens is Nylcare deducts its premiums in the amounts that it has to pay for medical expenses.

And during that proceeding month -- and the balance is paid to Doctors Health.

Under the agreement, Doctors Health was required to open a Letter of Credit which it did at Chase Manhattan Bank. The Letter of Credit, in order to be drawn down requires a statement from Nylcare representing four items, the most important of which -- here, I'll read that, "There are no defenses or offsets to payments which have been raised by Doctors Health and of which Nylcare is aware."

Proceedings

I believe that fourth requirement is clear and a very important requirement of the Letter of Credit.

Nylcare chose to submit to Chase last week a statement that there were no defenses or offsets, and this is simply false. And I will explain why. It is clear here there is fraud in presentment of documents to the bank. Under New York law and UCC section 5-114, which would apply here, and there several cases cited in both of our briefs, you can either show fraud in the presentment of the document or fraud in the underlying transaction.

Here we believe that fraud in the presentment of the documents are so clear that we don't even need to reach the issue of fraud in the underlying transaction. So unless your Honor I would like I would just go straight to the fraud and presentment of the documents.

Now Nylcare here has attempted to change the terms of the letters of credit to include only those offsets to which Nylcare agree, but that's not what the letter credit requires. It requires only that they be aware of the offset and that we have raised it.

Let me go through briefly, they are documented in the affidavits, the offsets which are my client's claim. Those offsets which now Nylcare admits are equal to two five seven six zero zero zero million dollars.

There are basically three categories of offsets provided that are -- you can find in Nylcare's documents. I should mention that Nylcare provides monthly statements to Doctors Health that indicate either surplus to be paid to Doctors Health or deficits to be paid to Nylcare. Those reports have been sent to Doctors

Health since October 1997.

In July Nylcare claimed that Doctors Health owed $2.6 million, approximately. We met with them, discussed with them, told them we had an ongoing audit by Arthur Anderson that there were offsets, that we believe it was estimated by Arthur Anderson that there were $900,000 in offsets. And that was a preliminary report and the audits were continuing.

We sent a confirming letter on July 15, which you will find in the documents. In the August, 1998 report then Nylcare itself indicated an offset of five million zero six zero six eight point five three.

Stewart Gold raised this in a letter to Nylcare on August 10, and several other claims that were being investigated. Susan Lefkowitz, the executive VP of Nylcare confirmed that credit in a letter of Stewart Gold on August 13.

Proceedings

Then on September 1 there was another report issued which imitated an offset of over $1.4 million, one four four three zero four seven. Except what happened is Nylecare, all of a sudden, decides to change its method of accounting and a little bit of creative accounting here. It had been using the same accounting for 11 prior months on the statements submitted to Doctors Health. What they did was instead of deducting amounts for those claims actually paid as required under section 3.44 of the contract, it now deducted more than $10 million for unpaid claims, claims that they said were -- on the face of the documents you can see where it is handwritten in they changed their own documents to say "Claims incurred but not paid." It plainly violates the agreement. It is a fraudulent deduction on the statement and it violates the agreement, because they deducted that amount. They said that Doctors Health owed Nylcare money, which was untrue.

Proceedings

On September 4, Stewart Gold had sent a letter to Nylcare's president informing them of that offset, the over $1.4 million offset and questioned the sudden unilateral change in the accounting methods.

Then on September 4 Nylcare sent yet another calculation to Doctors Health showing a $1.8 million offset. Again, Nylcare tried to falsely deduct the $10 million in unpaid claims that it had never done before.

Let me go to the third offset. Those are improperly paid claims which include claims that were paid to health providers without authorization, that were either duplicate payments, payments to ineligible members or members not covered under the HMO. Those offsets amounted to $283,000 --

THE COURT: (Interrupted) let me stop you for a moment. I get the gist

Proceedings

2 of the argument with respect to the
3 offsets. Obviously, there is a dispute
4 here as to the amounts of the claims
5 and the resulting offsets. My question
6 for you is you are moving for 7 preliminary injunctive relief here, and
8 there is a standard under the CPLR that
9 has to be met. And then of course
10 there is another hurdle because there
11 is a Letter of Credit. And the UCC
12 governs Letters of Credit. So I think
13 you will really have to address those 14 two prongs why you're entitled to 15 injunctive relief, and of course it is 16 a pretty drastic remedy for the Court
17 to enjoin the bank from making payments
18 on the Letter of Credit where you know
19 it's been properly presented. So go
20 ahead and address those issues.

21 MS. McCABE: I would like to go to 22 the irreparable harm issued, your
23 Honor. Doctors Health is responsible
24 for the managing the care of 30,000
25 patients. It owns the assets of the practices of more than a 100 primary care physicians. In that connection it employs all of the support staff for those physicians. That includes nurses, medical assistants, technicians, lab personnel, receptionists for those practices. So 325 of Doctors Health employees work in those physicians' offices.

Proceedings

If Doctors Health is required to replenish the Letter of Credit here, it is going to have to lay off those employees. There will be no one simply to run those doctors' offices.

It also employs social workers, physicians' assistants that coordinate health care plans for 7,000 high risk patients in their homes and nursing homes and rehabilitation centers.

Let me give you an example. Employees of Doctors Health call to remind diabetics to take their medication. They have them manage their diet. They teach them how to measure their blood sugar. They do home surveys to make sure the patient is taking the proper medication, that they are compliant with the medical treatment they have been prescribed.

For chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, they do home checks to make sure there are no, -- is nothing in the environment that will aggravate the condition.

THE COURT: The question is this, is your position that there is irreparable harm because these patients would not be otherwise serviced if the Court doesn't grant injunctive relief here?

MS. McCABE: Your Honor, if I can use an analogy. Doctors Health employees are like the air traffic controllers. They don't fly the plane but they coordinate the plans and the operation. They are vital to the safe operation of health care of these patients. These patients have a phone number. When they get in trouble they need an ambulance they call the phone number on their little magnet on the refrigerator. If that phone number is disconnected, those patients are left hanging. Even if only a couple of days go by, critical patients like diabetics, congestive heart failure patients are going to be in trouble. This is their first line. Before they can be admitted to the hospital, Doctors Health has to approve it. When they get released from the hospital --

THE COURT: That's not my question. My question is is it your position that these patients cannot be serviced in the event that injunctive relief is not granted here?

MS. McCABE: Yes.

THE COURT: So there are no alternative means of servicing these patients?

MS. McCABE: They would have to switch to another HMO eventually, but there is going to be a fallout in between the time that the phone gets disconnected and they try and find another physician to manage their care.

Proceedings

THE COURT: Okay. What about it?

MS. McCABE: May I make one other statement with respect to irreparable harm?

We cited a New York case which says literally we can go over the financial information. I won't do that right now. But Doctors Health has very little working capital at this point. It has to pay its salaries. If the Letter of Credit is drawn down it will have to lay off all of its employees. That, in and of itself, is irreparable harm under New York Law. We have 425 or 480 employees that will be out of work and the business will go into bankruptcy. And that in addition to the harm to the patients there will also be harm to Nylcare and its Doctors Health and its employees, and 108 physicians' practicing groups will have no receptionists, nurses, physicians' assistants to work with them.

Proceedings

I would like to go back to the UCC section 114 which says that a bank can be ordered to stop payment on a Letter of Credit if there is fraud or forged documents presented to the bank or if there is fraud in the underlying transaction.

Could I read your Honor the language, if you'd like.

"Unless otherwise agreed, when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction, the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by a negotiating bank."

Section 5-114(b) states, "In all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or demand for payment despite

1 Proceedings

2 notification from the customer of
3 fraud, forgery or other defect not
4 apparent on the face of the documents,
5 but a court of appropriate jurisdiction
6 may enjoin such honor."

7 Your Honor, I believe, as I said
8 earlier, there is fraud in the 9 presentment of the documents. There
10 are offsets of which Doctors Health
11 raised. There can be no question about 12 them in terms of the documents that 13 have been submitted, the 14 correspondence, the meetings, et 15 cetera.

16 Nylcare admitted, and also the 17 credits we are talking about in 18 accordance and meetings. Yet, their 19 officer, their executive VP said to the 20 bank there are no offsets. She didn't 21 say there are no offsets to which we
22 agree. She said there are no offsets
23 period. It's a clear violation of what 24 is required by the Letter of Credit by 25 the main terms of the Letter of Credit.

Proceedings

THE COURT: Okay, anything further?

MS. McCABE: That's it, your Honor.

THE COURT: I'll hear from Nylcare.

MR. HANSEN: Mark Hansen for Nylcare. This is just a preliminary matter. I don't think we introduced Ed Neugebauer of Aetna U.S. Healthcare and Mr. Heriberto Barbot of U.S. Healthcare and Nylcare. Also I want to just flag for the record there's been an issue raised regarding Piper and Marbury with regard to U.S. Healthcare and Nylcare. I didn't want to address that now, but I don't want that to be waived.

I also want to note we've got whatever they filed, a reply, at 10:15, so I'm not aware of any of it. I'm afraid I'll do my best with what's been put on the table.

Your Honor, may I get to your

Proceedings

question? Will patients somehow be hurt if this Court doesn't intervene in a commercial dispute between two Maryland residents over who owes who what? It's a dispute about whether we owe them money or they owe us money. The answer unequivocally is absolutely not. Doctors Health, despite the doctor and the title, is not practicing medicine, and I can show you where they specifically represent they are not practicing medicine. They can't. Corporations can't practice medicine. They are an administrative services company. They don't go near patients, your Honor, other than to monitor their claims. I can't be more emphatic about this, your Honor. If Doctors Health goes out of business tomorrow, the patients will go to the same doctors they went to before. The doctors will send the claim to Nylcare, as they always have, and we have to pay it. And if we can't go to Doctors Health to recoup, that's our problem. It sure isn't the patient's problem.

Ms. McCabe made an argument about the people who turn the lights on or who monitor the phones. Your Honor, let's get a sense of the dimension of the problem. And I understand it is unrebutted in Mr. Emerson's affidavit, the CEO of Nylcare. We've identified 170 Medicare beneficiaries who go to these practicing groups for which Doctors Health serves not as the doctor but as the people who pay the bills.

First, your Honor, if tomorrow Doctors Health stops paying the bills for those doctors, there are still doctors who can service our members. They are not going to go fishing after the people who run their back office who aren't there anymore. They'll practice medicine Tuesday after Doctors Health goes out of business Monday, and there is no showing they won't.

Secondly, those 170 people who go

Proceedings

2 to doctors, people in our network,
3 change doctors all the time. It's
4 their right. If for some reason nobody
5 answers the phone when they wanted to 6 make a call on Monday, there are 7 hundreds of other doctors who
8 participate in our program who are 9 available to those people. So, your 10 Honor, they haven't made any showing of 11 patients' disruption. There wouldn't 12 be any, their problem being about 13 irreparable injury if they couldn't get 14 a phone call through for an hour.

15 Your Honor, we submit this
16 business entity, although we made a bad
17 business deal, is really disingenuous.
18 It's our responsibility to make sure
19 our members are well cared for.
20 Doctors Health cannot do anything to 21 interfere with that. And, your Honor,
22 Mr. Emerson's affidavit is unrebutted.

23 Your Honor, there are three
24 standards for injunction in this court;
25 irreparable injury, balance of the

Proceedings

hardship finding in favor of the party asking for it and likelihood of success on the merits.

A couple of other standards they didn't address were the facts that are in dispute, we are disagreeing about the facts, and it's not clear on the face of the papers, that the movant is entitled to win. The movant has to lose.

Another important principle of jurisprudence is when people are fighting about money, that's not a proper case for injunctive relief. That's a proper case to let people go out and try to collect their damages which, indeed, will happen.

This case ultimately will be arbitrated in Maryland between these Maryland residents. There is a mandatory arbitration clause. We will fight about money. We think they owe us more than $12 million. They may think they don't owe it. That's all going to get resolved.

Why is it they can't win in preliminary injunction? Because the patient issue is a non-issue because their vague and conclusory claim that someday they might have to cut off heat if they don't comply with the contract.

We've cited dozens of cases in our pleadings that they say people can't come into court to avoid a bad business deal by saying it's going to hurt us to have to make the payment. There is not any substantiation for a claim of imminent bankruptcy.

Ms. McCabe says it, they say it in the papers. But it's not enough. And you know what, your Honor, even if they had come in with charts and spreadsheets and cash flow analyses and all the things New York courts have said, you have to -- even to have that argument considered, that wouldn't be enough, either because it's a money damages case, and what we owe them or

2 what they owe us can adequately be
3 addressed in an arbitration that is
4 going to happen in this case.

5 Let's go to the second fact, your
6 Honor. I think it is a real important
7 factor, where is the balance here?
8 They say we are going to have to pay
9 them money and the bank will come after 10 us and that will be hard for us
11 financially.

12 Look at the flip side, your Honor.

13 At the same time they are telling you
14 they are not good for their financial
15 obligations here where Nylcare sits,
16 Chase which is financially responsible,
17 has a $5.2 million Letter of Credit
18 that we can draw on. That expires like
19 Cinderella at a ball on October 31, six
20 weeks from now. If their ploy works,
21 our security is gone. They say they
22 don't have $2.6 million to pay or draw
23 if Chase asks them. They say they are 24 teetering on the verge. What happens
25 if you grant the injunction and we

Proceedings

2 can't get access to the Letter of
3 Credit which was put for the purpose of 4 making sure this didn't happen? We are
5 left holding the bag, and that's
6 irreparable. Because if Doctors Health
7 is as manage care as a claims
8 management operation essentially goes
9 under, we could have $20 million in 10 claims they owe us based on this
11 business deal, and we wouldn't get a
12 penny of it because they are gone, and 13 that $5.2 million Letter of Credit it's 14 supposed to be re-upped, they're
15 supposed to put more back into it.
16 That's the only way we can be sure of 17 getting paid.

18 We cited the case, the New York
19 courts have said. But what it says
20 couldn't be clearer, the language,
21 whereas here an injunction would make
22 it much less certain defendants will be 23 able to recoup the payments, the 24 balancing of hardships does not trip in 25 favor of the plaintiff, and the injunction shouldn't issue. Those two reasons alone make it virtually impossible for the court to grant, with all due respect, an injunction in these kinds of commercial disputes. And of course never do in these kinds of commercial disputes.

But let me address the explosive argument that we somehow lied to Chase Manhattan Bank. They keep repeating it. It's not true, your Honor, it's not true. The Letter of Credit was presented in proper form when she had to pay it. Ms. McCabe says we said there were no defenses or offsets. That's a lie. It's not, your Honor. It's true. Here's why it's true, I didn't quite frankly understand Ms. McCabe's understanding about offsets, but I can take your Honor through the document. 3.44 of the contract says that a payment that -- we go on a month by month basis.

If I could step back, and I'm sure

. Proceedings

the Court picked up on this, we do business on a monthly basis. Every month there is a payment we get from the Federal Government, and we kick out 88.5 percent during the relevant period to these guys, Doctors Health. Same month we have to pay to our Medicare beneficiaries. If it's less than what we are paying on the 88.5 percent they get the difference, they get the money.

If it's more we go to them with our hands out. That's the way the contract works.

In this case, your Honor, it's undisputed for July of 1998 we sent them a bill for $2.6 million. That was the difference between what we should pay them for what they pay us. That bill was outstanding 60 days. During the time it was outstanding, there was never raised by them a defense or offset to that bill. All of these other arguments there are about prior claims paid or future claims to be

2 paid, there was never a specific claim
3 by Doctors Health that the $2.65
4 million was they had valid offsets to
5 that July amount and those July claims.

6 I'm sure Ms. McCabe will say it as
7 July stands as its own month. They
8 didn't come back and show us an offset
9 due for July. They didn't show us a
10 defense to July. We fought about lots
11 of things, but not July.

12 We get to September we're entitled
13 to draw on the Letter of Credit, and 14 there are no defenses of offsets.

15 I submit, your Honor, that's 16 enough to put the stake in the heart of 17 that vampire. But even if they say no,
18 you should have construed some of what 19 we were telling you as a claim for an 20 offset as to July, we disagree, and 21 that's precisely the kind of 22 disagreement that the courts of this
23 state said is the sort of that thing
24 that presents preliminary injunctions.
25 We will fight about those disagreements

Proceedings

2 in arbitration and if we did wrong,
3 your Honor, we can be called to account
4 for it. We'll be good for the money.
5 It will be sitting in our bank account.

6 If they get an injunction and we are
7 entitled to $12 million from them on 8 the claims we forgot to pay, this is 9 money out of pocket for Nylcare and 10 they are in the wind. We are out of 11 luck.

12 So, your Honor, at the very least,
13 it's completely disputed and factually
14 disputed as to whether they raised a
15 claim or offset. The only thing is 16 when they wrote us a letter on July 15
17 saying we think $6 million in claims
18 have been improperly paid. They don't
19 specifically refer to September claims.

20 We can't even represent when we try
21 to draw on a Letter of Credit --
22 moreover, by the time we draw on the 23 Letter of Credit, your Honor, we 24 believe based on our records they owe
25 us more than $12 million. Any amount

Proceedings

2 they contested to that date, and again
3 we are talking about September 4, when
4 we write the letter, as of that date we
5 think they owe us $12 million. They
6 may have whined about $6 million total
7 over the whole course of the 8 relationship, but they haven't whined
9 about it enough. So we would be $2.6
10 million we were drawing, even if you
11 vitiate the contract and say they don't 12 have to go month by month, but the 13 contract says you have got to go month
14 by month.

15 One other thing that Ms. McCabe
16 raised in the papers, I think, with 17 more focus, they say we recognize these 18 offsets. That's not true. We
19 presented the demand for $2.6 million
20 in August. Ms. McCabe alluded to 21 this. There was correspondence back
22 and forth and one of our executives
23 wrote to Doctors saying we think we're
24 going to owe you $500,000 for September
25 so pay us $2 million.

Proceedings

Here's the problem with that.

What we think we're going to owe them for September is not under the contract an offset to what they owe us for July. That's point one. And point two is that was on August 13, your Honor. But by the time we get to the end of the month hear what we know. We're not going to owe them a penny for September because increasing claims, and again every claim that comes to us we have to pay, that's on them, that's not on us. We know by the end of August we're going to have to pay a fortune in claims and they will owe us $12 million, and at the end of the day we are not going to have to pay them anything for September. There is no offset. By the time we go to Chase and tell them there is no offset, we won't owe them anything. We think they will owe us $12 million. We've invoiced not only for the $2.6 million, but for the $10 million. We have to give them a

1 Proceedings

2 period of time before we can draw on
3 the $10 million bill. But the $2.6
4 million has ripened and it's ready to 5 be drawn. And we told the truth to 6 Chase when we said there is no defense
7 or offset.

8 Your Honor, you alluded to the 9 Letter of Credit Law. This is the 10 home of commercial transactions in New 11 York. Letter of Credit are provided to 12 give parties certainty in financial
13 transactions. If demands are properly
14 presented on their face they have to be 15 paid. There is one little tiny
16 exception to the rule, that's called a
17 pervasive fraud exception. This 18 document wasn't forged. We signed it.
19 It's valid.

20 They cite one case, the Sztejn
21 case from 1941. That tells you why
22 this case is so far afield. In that
23 case, your Honor, 1941, the court said
24 okay, I will carve an exception to the 25 rule, but Letter of Credit is designed

Proceedings

2 to secure a transaction in which
3 somebody is supposed to submit bristles
4 (sic) and instead they send refuse and
5 water up newspapers, and the court said
6 where are transaction is so evasively
7 fraudulent, we are not going to close
8 our eyes to that. But this kind of 9 stuff where people disagree who owes
10 who what in the underlying transaction,
11 that's not pervasive fraud. Those are 12 commercial disagreements and we have a
13 forum to resolve those commercial
14 disagreements. And unless this Court
15 permits us to do so in Maryland under 16 the arbitration and allows us to draw
17 on the Letter of Credit to get our 18 security, they can evade their
19 obligations entirely. Thank you, your 20 Honor.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Keen, do you wish
22 to be heard on behalf of Chase?

23 MR. KEEN: Your Honor, we 24 submitted an affidavit outlining for 25 the Court the chronology of events

Proceedings

2 effecting the bank. Unless the Court
3 feels that the bank's actions or the
4 timing is significant, I'm not sure
5 that I can add anything to the merit of 6 the allegations of the fraud. The 7 bank's concern is or was and remains
8 that a document presented was a
9 fraudulent document because of the 10 protestations received from one
11 customer, and we certainly were not in 12 a position to make a determination as 13 to whether in fact that the statement
14 made was false when made, but that 15 certainly was a concern of ours and 16 remains a concern of ours. Other than 17 that, I don't think there is anything
18 else that I can add.

19 MS. McCABE: Your Honor, I might
20 note for your Honor the contract says,
21 8.7 talks about Nylcare and Doctors
22 Health having the ability to seek
23 interim or permanent injunctive relief
24 in addition to the arbitration
25 clause. So I believe we are properly

Proceedings

here because the Letter of Credit calls for New York jurisdiction. The contract provides for injunctive relief in the courts. That's why we are here before your honor today.

But let me address a few of my adversary's points. I'd like again to read once more the fourth requirement in the Letter of Credit. There are no differences or offsets to payment which have been raised by Doctors Health and of which Nylcare is aware. It doesn't say that they had to be aware of it or have been raised at the same time a monthly statement had been submitted. The offsets or payments could have been raised at any time. There is no qualification in the Letter of Credit as to when an offset or defense could have been raised. So for Nylcare to argue that because some of the offsets were raised after they submitted the July bill simply falls on its face, because that's not what the Letter of

2 Credit requires.

3 Also what Nylcare chooses to 4 ignore is the fact that under the 5 contract if Aetna doesn't breach the
6 contract which it says it will do
7 because it's getting out of the 8 Medicare business, the Letter of Credit
9 must be renewed as of October 31, 1998.

10 So there is not going to be
11 irreparable harm to Nylcare as they
12 claim, like to claim. And even if
13 there was some sort of financial harm
14 to them, it's not irreparable harm. It
15 is just what Nylcare's attorneys said.
16 It's a financial issue for them. So
17 Doctors Health has every intention of 18 renewing the Letter of Credit on
19 October 31. I believe Nylcare's
20 argument on that point falls on its 21 face that it's going to be harmed.

22 In any event, Aetna is a company
23 with $18 billion in annual revenues as 24 compared to Doctors Health, which has
25 about $1 million in annual revenues.

Proceedings

The balance of the equities in this situation of who is going to be harmed clearly falls on the side of Doctors Health.

Let me talk about the remarks that Doctors Health, it doesn't really matter if the people put the lights on and off get fired.

THE COURT: Briefly, please.

MS. McCABE: Yes. Doctors Health employees nurses, lab assistants, technicians, physicians' assistants, all of those employees are going to be gone. The doctors are going to be sitting there with hundreds of patients and no one to back them up.

Now they claim only 170 beneficiaries could be affected by this. Well, your Honor, those 170 beneficiaries are elderly patients that need care. I don't care if it's just one patient. I take Nylcare's attitude to be very cavalier. If they are correct there are 170 beneficiaries that are cared for in this manner, they are going to be harmed, and that is enough for irreparable harm. He says they can just switch the next day. These are elderly patients.

Take a 75 year old man who is a diabetic living alone. It's hard enough for educated people to get through HMO books and find a doctor. What if he needs critical care immediately. There could be substantial drastic harm to that patient and to several other numbers of patients if they don't have immediate access to Medicare.

INDEX NO. 604436/98

AFFIDAVIT OF URGENCY IN SUPPORT OF A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

Monica Petraglia McCabe, duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am an attorney duly admitted to practice before the courts of this state and Of Counsel to the law firm of Piper & Marbury L.L.P., attorneys for the plaintiff Doctors Health, Inc. ("Doctors Health") I submit this affidavit of urgency in support of plaintiff's ex parte application, pursuant to CPLR § 6313, for an order temporarily restraining defendant Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase") from making any payment or taking any further action under a letter of credit issued in favor of NYLCare Health Plans of Mid Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare") pending a hearing on plaintiff's application for a preliminary injunction. I base this affidavit on documents I have reviewed and discussions that my colleagues and I have had with principals of the plaintiff.

Summary

2. Plaintiff seeks this relief on an urgent basis because the letter of credit sought to be restrained is expected to be drawn down upon today. If the Court does not grant the requested relief and the said letter of credit is drawn down upon, then plaintiff will have been victimized by NYLCare's fraud. Without the requested TRO, Doctors Health will be forced to the edge of bankruptcy, will have to lay off a large number of employees, and will be unable to provide services critical to medical care for HMO patients.

3. Because of the pressing circumstances, the irreparable harm that plaintiff will suffer if the temporary restraining order is not granted, and the likelihood that plaintiff will succeed on the merits, the Court should forthwith grant plaintiff's application for a temporary restraining order.

4. The fraud threatening this irreparable harm involves false statements made by defendant NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare") to defendant Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase") in an attempt to obtain payment on a letter of credit opened at Chase by Doctors Health, and NYLCare's fraudulent submission of health cost data and accounting information to Doctors Health. Under the UCC and Court of Appeals case law, this kind of fraud in the underlying transaction justifies a TRO and preliminary injunction stopping the issuing bank - defendant Chase - from paying on a letter of credit. See, e.g., United Bank Ltd. v. Cambridge Sporting Goods Corp., 41 N.Y.2d 254, 392 N.Y.S.2d 265, 360 N.E.2d 943 (1976); Takeo Co. Ltd. v. Mead Paper, Inc., 204 A.D.2d 123, 611 N.Y.S.2d 543 (1st Dept't 1994).

Fraudulent Presentation of Letter-of-Credit Documents

5. The facts are set forth in greater detail in the Affidavit of John R. Dwyer, Jr., sworn to September 10, 1998, and in the annexed Complaint.

6. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to a temporary restraining order prohibiting Chase Manhattan Bank from drawing down on this letter of credit by making any payment to NYLCare under the letter of credit pending a further hearing of the Court.

Likelihood of Success on the Merits

7. As shown in the Dwyer Affidavit, the conditions have not been met for NYLCare to draw down on the letter of credit and, in fact, NYLCare has presented fraudulent documents to Chase Manhattan Bank in its attempt to unlawfully draw down upon the letter of credit.

Irreparable Harm

8. Doctors Health, Inc. will be irreparably harmed if Chase Manhattan Bank is not restrained from honoring NYLCare's demand because if the letter of credit is drawn down upon NYLCare will profit from its admitted fraud.

9. If NYLCare is allowed to draw down upon the Letter of Credit, Doctors Health will suffer irreparable harm in multiple ways and so will the 14,000 Medicare patients which Doctors Health is entrusted with providing medical care.

10. If the letter of credit were allowed to be drawn down by $2.6 million, Doctors Health would be forced to replenish the letter of credit in order to avoid being terminated by NYLCare. As noted in the Dwyer Affidavit, under such circumstances, Doctors Health would be required to try and replenish the letter of credit by drastically cutting its overhead since its working capital is not adequate to cover $2.6 million. As a result, Doctors Health would be required to lay off many of its employees in a desperate effort to raise cash. Such layoffs would include doctors, nurses, nurses assistants and many others who are critical to the quality and timeliness of medical services provided to over 14,000 Medicare patients. Even with such drastic measures, there is a very real risk that Doctors Health would be required to file bankruptcy in order to deal with the grave financial situation it would immediately face. Moreover, the disruption that would occur in the forms of layoffs of many of Doctors Health's employees, the resulting impact that would have on the over 14,000 Medicare patients is frightening.

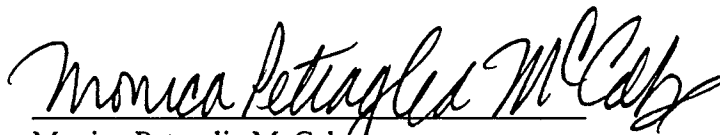

Balancing of Equities

11. All equities weigh in plaintiff's favor. The fraud committed by NYLCare should stop.

12. No previous application has been made to this court for the relief requested herein.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff respectfully requests, pursuant to CPLR § 6313, that the Court issue a temporary restraining order, as prayed for herein.

CITY OF BALTIMORE)
) ss:
STATE OF MARYLAND)

JOHN R. DWYER, JR., being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of plaintiff Doctors Health, Inc. ("Doctors Health" or "Plaintiff"). I am an attorney admitted to practice law in the District of Columbia.

2. I submit this affidavit in support of Doctors Health's application for a temporary restraining order prohibiting Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase"), located in New York, New York, from making any payments to NYLCare Health Plans of The Mid-Atlantic Inc. ("NYLCare") under Letter of Credit No. P-343547 issued by Chase (the "Chase Letter of Credit") in favor of NYLCare for the sum of $5,250,000, or any part of such sum, in connection with NYLCare's request dated September 9, 1998. I have personal knowledge of the facts asserted in this affidavit.

3. Doctors Health is a physician-driven care management company, which oversees the delivery of quality health care to enrollees of health maintenance organizations ("HMOs").

Doctors Health's most significant contract is with NYLCare for the provision of medical services to its HMO known as NYLCare 65 (the NYLCare 65 HMO").

4. The NYLCare 65 HMO has approximately 14,000 Medicare patients throughout Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. As the care manager for the NYLCare 65 HMO enrollees, Doctors Health is responsible for ensuring that timely and quality medical care is provided to a segment of the population that is often most in need of medical services.

5. NYLCare's fraudulent effort to draw down $2,615,208.69 under the Chase Letter of Credit threatens Doctors Health with imminent insolvency and jeopardizes the medical care of approximately 14,000 senior citizens. While it is acknowledged that there are disputes between Doctors Health and NYLCare, it is beyond cavil to engage in the gross fraudulent representations perpetrated by NYLCare with perilous consequences to the health of thousands of Medicare patients and the welfare of over 480 employees of Doctors Health.

Background

6. On or about October 1, 1998, NYLCare, an HMO based in Maryland, entered into an agreement with Doctors Health, a Maryland Corporation, whereby NYLCare retained Doctors Health to manage services for elderly Medicare patients (the "Agreement").

7. Under the Agreement, Doctors Health provides health and related services to approximately 14,000 patients. In total, Doctors Health serves approximately 30,000 patients. Among the most vital services provided by Doctors Health are the services and facilities by the Care Management Department, which is staffed by approximately 56 employees. These employees are physicians, care management nurses, community-based care management nurses, and social workers, who coordinate care plans for approximately 7,000 high risk patients in their homes or in skilled nursing facilities or rehabilitation centers. These employees manage the care of enrollees for the purpose of maintaining the enrollees' health and keeping out of the hospital. In addition, other employees in the Care Management Department provide services, education and equipment to patients with ongoing diseases such as diabetes, congestive heart failure and asthma. Finally, other Care Management Department employees review and approve in-patient and out-patient services.

8. Under the Agreement, NYLCare is entitled to collect monthly premiums from the Health Care Financing Administration for Medicare patients enrolled in the NYLCare 65 HMO. NYLCare initially deducts a specified amount of premium for itself (to cover its administrative expenses and desired profit), leaving a reduced amount of premium (the "Reduced Premium").

9. The Reduced Premium is first to be used to offset medical expenses during the preceding month and the balance of premiums is to be remitted to Doctors Health as its compensation. In the event the paid medical claims exceeded the amount of the reduced premium, NYLCare would send Doctors Health a report of a deficit for the month instead of a surplus. (A true copy of relevant portions of the Agreement and amendment to the Agreement, dated June 29, 1998, is appended as Exhibit 1).

10. Pursuant to Paragraph 6.4 of the Agreement, Doctors Health was required to open an irrevocable standby Letter of Credit at a financial institution. The Agreement states:

The Letter of Credit is intended by the parties to serve solely as security for the payment of claims of [health providers.] NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall not be permitted to draw on the Letter of Credit for any other purpose and may do so only to pay the balance due under Section 3.44 ["Payment of Approved Claims"] following the expiration of the sixty (60) day waiting period.

11. Section 3.4.4 of the Agreement requires NYLCare to make timely payment for all claims approved for payment by Doctors Health. The claim payments are to be reviewed by the parties and reconciled on a monthly basis. In the event that total amounts for claims paid by NYLCare exceeds the total compensation due to be paid to Doctors Health for those months, NYLCare was to invoice Doctors Health for the balance.

12. Pursuant to Paragraph 4.4 of the Agreement, NYLCare represented and warranted that the "historical pharmacy, institutional, ancillary and capitated carve-out costs previously provided to Doctors Health are accurate in all material respects."

Letter of Credit

13. On or about October 29, 1997, Doctors Health opened a Letter of Credit in favor of NYLCare in the amount of $4,400,000. (A true copy of the Letter of Credit is attached at Exhibit 2.) The amount of the Letter of Credit was later increased to $5,250,000 and is at that amount currently.

14. The parties agreed that the Letter of Credit can be drawn upon only if NYLCare submits a statement representing (1) that Doctors Health owes NYLCare a specific sum of money under Section 3.4.4 of the Agreement; (2) that the amount has been invoiced to Doctors Health; (3) that Doctors Health is in receipt of such invoice for at least 60 days; and (4) that there are no defenses or offsets to payment raised by Doctors Health of which NYLCare is aware.

Doctors Health and the Thousands of Patients It Services Will Suffer Irreparable Harm

15. The fourth condition of the Letter of Credit is critical to Doctors Health because, as a small company, it cannot afford to have its Letter of Credit dissipated if there were any disputes as to whether the money was really owed or any disputes as to the proper amount of any amount owed. A reduction of the Letter of Credit would be catastrophic because it would require a company with virtually little excess working capital to try and replenish the Letter of Credit to avoid termination of the NYLCare management contract.

16. NYLCare has attempted to perpetrate a fraud upon Chase and Doctors by submitting documents to Chase, which assert that: 1) there are no defenses to payment, which have been raised by Doctors Health, of which NYLCare is aware; and 2) there are no offsets to payment, which have been raised by Doctors Health, of which NYLCare is aware. If NYLCare is allowed to draw down upon the Letter of Credit, Doctors Health will suffer enormously and so will the many Medicare patients whose health hinges on the medical care provided by Doctors Health.

17. If the Letter of Credit were allowed to be drawn down by $2.6 million, Doctors Health would be forced to replenish the letter of credit in order to avoid being terminated by NYLCare.

18. If such a situation occurred, Doctors Health could only replenish the Letter of Credit by drastically cutting its overhead because its working capital is not adequate to cover $2.6 million. As a result, Doctors Health would be required to lay off many of its employees in a desperate effort to raise cash. Such layoffs would include doctors, nurses, nurses' assistants and many others whose contributions are critical to the quality and timeliness of medical services provided to over 14,000 Medicare patients. Even with such drastic measures, there is a very real risk that Doctors Health would not be successful in its efforts and would be forced to file bankruptcy to cope with the grave financial situation replenishing the Letter of Credit would create.

19. The consequence is painfully grim: many of Doctors Health's employees would be laid off, over 14,000 Medicare patients would suffer as a result of the disruption in their medical care, and approximately 20,000 non-Medicare patients who would ordinarily be taken care of by Doctors Health employees would not have access to medical services.

20. It is precisely because both Doctors Health and NYLCare were aware of the magnitude of the consequences that the parties agreed that the Letter of Credit would not be drawn down unless Doctors Health had raised no defenses or offsets to amounts claimed to be due by NYLCare. In the event that there were defenses and offsets raised, the parties agreed to speedy alternative dispute resolution procedures.

21. NYLCare is well aware of the defenses and offsets raised by Doctors Health to the amounts owed, but has elected to try and defraud Chase into paying it $2.6 million, rather than proceed with the agreed upon alternative dispute resolution procedures. If NYLCare is allowed to succeed with such a brazen fraud, the consequences to Doctors Health, the tens of thousands of Medicare and non-Medicare patients managed by Doctors Health, and the over 480 employees of Doctors Health will be immediate, catastrophic and irreparable.

NYLCare's Fraudulent Attempt to Draw Down Upon The Letter of Credit

22. The General Counsel's Office at Chase has informed us that on September 9, 1998 NYLCare made a request to draw down $2,615,208.69 from the Letter of Credit. (Chase informed us that for confidentiality reasons it could not provide us with a copy.) In the statement required for a draw down, NYLCare has fraudulently represented that there are no defenses or offsets to payment. NYLCare's misrepresentation is particularly egregious in light of an ongoing audit of NYLCare's payment of past claims by Arthur Anderson on behalf of Doctors Health. Doctors Health has disputed and NYLCare has acknowledged that Doctors Health has disputed over $6,000,000 in past claims paid by NYLCare. (Attached as Exhibits 3 and 4 are correspondence dated July 15, 1998 and July 17, 1998 between Doctors Health and NYLCare demonstrating Doctors Health's defenses and offsets to payment and NYLCare's awareness of such defenses and offsets).

23. Due to NYLCare's failure to timely pay claims in a manner required by contract, Doctors Health has been unable to obtain timely cost data under this Agreement further obfuscating the issue.

24. Doctors Health notified Chase of the defenses and offsets to payment and informed Chase that, pursuant to Paragraph 4 of the Letter of Credit, NYLCare had failed to satisfy the conditions necessary for effectuating a draw down. (Attached as Exhibit 5 is a letter dated September 10, 1998 to Chase from Doctors Health.)

NYLCare's Fraudulent Claim In The Amount It Is Owed

25. Further, NYLCare's own documents belie the amount its claims it is owed by Doctors Health.

26. Pursuant to the Agreement, NYLCare is obliged to sent Doctors Health monthly capitation calculations (the "Calculations"), which indicate whether NYLCare or Doctors Health is owed money. (True copies of the Calculations are attached as Exhibit 6.) Paragraph 3.4.4 of the Agreement requires that claim payments actually may be deducted in a monthly basis from the compensation due to Doctors Health. Up until the September 1998 Calculation, NYLCare had been deducting those amounts for claims actually paid as required under the Agreement. As can be seen from the attached September 1998 Calculation, NYLCare fraudulently deducted $10,691,965.56 for claim amounts that were mere estimates and not yet paid. NYLCare added a partially handwritten line for "Claims incurred but not yet paid through 8/31/98 (estimated)." But for NYLCare's fraudulent deduction of more than 10 1/2 million dollars, Doctors Health would be owed at least $1,443,047. On September 4, 1998, Doctors Health notified NYLCare of its improper change in the method of calculation of amounts owed to Doctors Health. (Attached as Exhibit 7 is a letter dated September 4, 1998 from Doctors Health to NYLCare discussing the issue.)

27. It should also be noted that NYLCare's August 1998 Calculation shows a credit to NYLCare in the amount of $506,068.53. NYLCare has also misrepresented that Doctors Health owes it $2,615,208.69 when its own documents indicate a $506,068.53 credit to Doctors Health. (Attached as Exhibit 10 is a true copy of a letter from NYLCare dated August 13, 1998 in which NYLCare admitted this credit.)

28. On September 9, 1998, representatives of Doctors Health met with NYLCare's lawyers to specifically inform them of the aforementioned offsets and credits.

29. It is unconscionable to me that any NYLCare officer could allege, after the above-referenced correspondence and meetings, that Doctors Health has not asserted defenses and offsets to the far in excess amounts claimed to be owed. Any such representations would be a blatant misrepresentation of the truth designed to defraud Chase into releasing money under the Letter of Credit even though NYLCare is well aware that the conditions precedent for a draw down under the Letter of Credit cannot be satisfied.

NYLCare Fraudulently Induced
Doctors Health To Enter Into The Agreement

30. Before entering into the Agreement with NYLCare, Doctors Health required historical case data such as pharmacy, institutional, ancillary and capitated carve-out costs from NYLCare. Doctors Health relied on the data provided by NYLCare in entering into the Agreement and indeed considered it so important that it insisted that NYLCare represent and warrant that such historical data was accurate in all material respects.

31. Doctors Health confirmed its reliance upon the NYLCare data in a letter dated October 1, 1997 to Ms. Lane McAllister and Ms. Beth Winter of NYLCare.

32. Doctors Health has recently learned, after months of work and repeated demands for information, that there is a vast discrepancy between the historical data represented and warranted by NYLCare and the actual cost incurred by Doctors Health.

33. Under my supervision, Doctors Health's Director of Managed Care Financial Analysis calculated and graphed the vast differences between actual per person enrolled monthly cost and the data represented by NYLCare. (A true copy of a chart and graph depicting the differences in actual and represented costs is attached as Exhibit 8.) NYLCare's represented data shows total cost claims per person enrolled in the HMO to be $350 per month on average while the actual cost per month is $400 per person.

34. NYLCare has refused to provide any explanation of the drastic cost variances and instead stated that it will not explain the drastic differences despite repeated requests for explanations. NYLCare's refusal to supply any support for such drastic differences and the immediate and continuous jump in expenses upon Doctors Health signing the contract indicates to Doctors Health that NYLCare recklessly provided unreliable data to Doctors Health and recklessly asserted that it was accurate. Such reckless conduct was designed to induce Doctors Health into signing the contract and amounts to fraudulent inducement.

35. As a result, Doctors Health's contract costs have proven to be much higher than expected based upon Doctors Health's reliance on NYLCare represented data. In fact, Doctors Health's losses under the Agreement presently exceed $15 million. (Attached as Exhibit 9 is a true copy of a letter dated August 31, 1998 from Doctors Health to NYLCare documenting NYLCare's fraud in the inducement.)

Conclusion

36. If NYLCare is not enjoined from drawing down on the Letter of Credit, not only will Doctors Health suffer irreparable injury but the elderly Medicare patients it services will suffer far worse injury because of a disruption in crucial health services.

37. Doctors Health has not made any prior application for similar relief.

Dear Stewart:

The following letter of agreement (Agreement) serves as confirmation of our recent discussions in clarifying the terms of the Medicare Network Management Agreement (Original Agreement) dated October 1, 1997 between Doctors Health, Inc. (Doctors Health) and NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. (NYLCare Mid-Atlantic). This Agreement will become effective as of the date last signed by a party. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, the Original Agreement between the parties, including any prior amendments thereto, shall remain in full force and effect. Terms used in this Agreement that are defined in the Original Agreement shall have the definitions contained in the Original Agreement, unless they are otherwise defined in this Agreement. This Agreement shall terminate at the same time and under the same terms and conditions as the Original Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the Original Agreement and this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall govern.

1. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and Doctors Health agree to limit the network of providers available to the NYLCare 65 members in so far as those providers available in that network are directly contracted with NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and that network meets HCFA adequacy guidelines and NYLCare Mid-Atlantic access and marketing standards.
2. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic agrees to permit Doctors Health to change the authorization guidelines for the network. Doctors Health will prepare and provide, in a timely fashion, to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic a list of their required changes. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic agrees to review the list and to work, in a timely fashion, with Doctors Health representatives to finalize changes to these authorization guidelines.
3. As agreed previously in writing, Doctors Health may change physician compensation. Any changes must be agreed to by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic, and must be made in accordance with current laws and regulations and with NYLCare Mid-Atlantic's usual timing and process for such changes.

4. In accordance with the Original Agreement, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic understands that Doctors Health may assume full responsibility to perform Health Risk Assessment screening. If, in performing this screening, Doctors Health intends to use member written communication materials, they must be provided to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic for submission to and approval by, HCFA.
5. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic agrees to implement a process to enable Doctors Health to preview claims prior to payment. This process will be implemented on July 1, 1998, provided that a mutually agreed upon process, with a maximum turn-around-time of five (5) calendar days for previewing and three (3) calendar days for resolving disputed claims, can be developed.
6. In accordance with the Original Agreement, both parties agree to provide to the other, in a timely fashion, those reports necessary for the successful functioning of the respective organizations to comply with the Original Agreement and this Agreement.
7. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic agrees to continue to submit to HCFA, in a timely fashion, Utilization Management and other materials required for review. Doctors Health agrees to cooperate with this requirement.
8. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic agrees to assign a staff member to ensure the implementation of a computer terminal port on the grounds of Doctors Health for the purposes of viewing claims. By July 1, 1998, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic will communicate to Doctors Health the requirements for implementation.
9. In accordance with the Original Agreement and the accompanying Delegation of Utilization Management Agreement, Doctors Health agrees to comply with the requirements for reporting, notification of significant changes of staff, and adequate access for oversight of utilization management and related activities.
10. Upon execution of this Agreement, Doctors Health will remit, by June 30, 1998, to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic via wire transfer the amount of $3,165,742.84, which constitutes the total deficit indicated in the Monthly Capitation Calculation Report (Report) for the months of May and June 1998. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic agrees to cooperate with an audit of the claims paid that are the basis of this amount and will, if any adjustments are mutually agreed to, reflect corrected amounts on the subsequent month's Report.
11. Every month throughout the term of the Original Agreement, Doctors Health shall pay to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic any deficits reflected in the Report generated by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic. Any such funds shall be payable via wire transfer within five (5) business days of Doctors Health's receipt of the Report.

12. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and Doctors Health will work together on an ongoing basis to reconcile the Reports. Each company will exercise their best efforts to resolve differences between them. Any resulting adjustments will be reflected in the subsequent month's Report.

13. For the period of July 1, 1998 through December 31, 1998, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic agrees to pay Doctors Health an amount equal to 83% (eighty-three percent) of premium. In accordance with the Original Agreement, Doctors Health shall provide or arrange for all covered services to enrollees and shall assume the responsibility for the cost of such services, with the exception of Pharmacy Costs. For the period of July 1, 1998 through December 31, 1998, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic will not deduct Pharmacy Costs from amounts owed to Doctors Health. Reimbursement terms and responsibility for Pharmacy Costs will be in accordance with the Original Agreement from January 1, 1999 through the term of the Original Agreement.

If you are in agreement with these terms, please sign below and return the executed copy to me.

Sincerely,

Susan S. Laskowitz

MEDICARE NETWORK MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is entered into by and between Doctors Health, Inc., a Maryland corporation ("Doctors Health"), and NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc., a Maryland corporation licensed to operate as a health maintenance organization ("NYLCare Mid-Atlantic") on October 1, 1997 (the "Signing Date"), to be effective as of the Effective Date.

WHEREAS, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic is a licensed HMO authorized to market the NYLCare Mid-Atlantic medicare risk product known as NYLCare 65 in the State of Maryland, the Commonwealth of Virginia, and in the District of Columbia;

WHEREAS, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic arranges for the provision of certain health services to persons enrolled in NYLCare 65 by contracting directly, or through intermediaries, with physicians, hospitals, and other health care practitioners and entities (the "NYLCare Mid-Atlantic Network");

WHEREAS, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic has concluded that it is necessary, desirable, and convenient in the operation and administration of NYLCare 65 to enter into an agreement for Medicare Network Management to provide certain management services to the NYLCare Mid-Atlantic Network;

WHEREAS, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic has, prior to the Effective Date, entered into an "Administrative Service Provider Contract for Medicare Global Services" (the "Doctors Health Risk Contract") with Doctors Health under which Doctors Health arranges to provide medical services to Enrollees who choose or are assigned to Doctors Health primary care physicians;

WHEREAS, Doctors Health has the medical management and demonstrated business expertise to perform the role of Medicare Network Manager as set forth herein.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises herein, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and Doctors Health agree as follows:

As used in this Agreement, each of the following terms shall have the meaning set forth below:

- 1.1 Adjusted Average Per Capita Cost (AAPCC) means the methodology used to develop the premium rate paid to health maintenance organizations by the Federal government for Medicare recipients in a given geographic region.
- 1.2 Affiliate means a corporation or other legal entity related by common ownership, management, or control.

3.4 Claims Administration.

3.4.1 Claims Payments. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic is solely responsible for making payments for any and all claims for non-capitated Covered Services in cooperation with Doctors Health and otherwise in accordance with the procedures in this Section 3.4. Claims payments to Participating Providers for non-capitated Covered Services, processed and approved strictly in accordance with this Section 3.4, shall be made by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and then deducted from the compensation due Doctors Health under Section 6.1 of this Agreement subject to all of the conditions set forth in subparagraph 3.4.4 below.

3.4.2 Claims Submission, Review and Disposition.

- (1) Participating Providers shall submit claims to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic for non-capitated Covered Services rendered to Members. Each Participating Provider shall submit such claims in accordance with the Policies and Procedures.
- (2) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall review all claims for non-capitated Covered Services to Enrollees by Participating Providers and make an initial determination:
 - (a) whether the Enrollee is eligible under the Health Plan;
 - (b) whether the Participating Provider provided the Enrollee with a Covered Service;
 - (c) whether the Covered Service was authorized by Doctors Health in accordance with Doctors Health policies and procedures in effect, and provided to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic, and as amended from time to time in the sole discretion of Doctors Health (the "Doctors Health Policies and Procedures"); and
 - (d) whether the claims submitted by hospitals or other institutional providers are accurately coded under the NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and HCFA Billing and Coding Guidelines and, if not, to determine the correct manner to recode the claim so that it satisfies all such billing and coding guidelines or deny the claim.

- (c) what the reimbursement rate is for each claim based on the lesser of the NYLCare Mid-Atlantic rate, or the Medicare rate, to the extent permitted under existing contracts.
- (3) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall give preliminary approval or denial to a claim processed under Section 3.4.2(2) above as soon as practicable but in no event more than ten (10) calendar days following receipt of the claim. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall then transfer all claims which receive their preliminary approval directly to the Doctors Health Repricing Group for pricing validation. Upon receipt of a transferred claim, the Doctors Health Repricing Group shall then make the following determination as soon as practicable but in no event more than ten (10) calendar days following receipt of the transferred claims:
 - (a) setting the price for the Covered Service as the reimbursement rate set by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic in 3.4.2(c) above, or the Doctors Health rate, to the extent permitted under existing contracts.
- (4) Doctors Health shall, once it has made the determination set forth in Section 3.4.2(3)(a) above, transfer the claim back to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic with one of the following designated actions which shall be followed by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic:
 - (a) The claim is approved for payment at the price set in Section 3.4.2(3)(a) above for a Participating Provider, or
 - (b) The claim is denied.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, and to the extent permitted under existing contracts, for the period October 1, 1997 through January 1, 1998, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall establish the lowest available contract rate for each Participating Provider except for those Participating Providers for whom Doctors Health has given notification to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic that its rates are the lowest available contract rates, in which case: (i) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall forward all such Participating Provider claims to the Doctors Health Repricing Group who shall establish the lowest price; (ii) Doctors Health shall return the repriced claims to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic; and (iii) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall approve the claim but only at the price set by Doctors Health.

- (a) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and Doctors Health shall both follow the time requirements set forth in Section 3.4.2(3) above.
- (b) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and Doctors Health shall ^{if} meet from time to time and confer in good faith to develop policies and procedures to implement the provisions of this Section 3.4.2.

3.4.3 Reimbursement for Doctors Health Repricing Group. Doctors Health shall submit a monthly invoice to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic for its costs associated with the functions of the Doctors Health Repricing Group but such out-of-pocket costs shall conform to commercially reasonable guidelines. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall pay Doctors Health the full amount of the monthly invoice within ten (10) calendar days of receipt.

3.4.4 Payment of Approved Claims. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall make timely payment for all claims approved for payment by Doctors Health in accordance with provisions of Section 3.4.2(4)(a) above, and in accordance with applicable law and regulation. The claim payments will be reviewed by the parties and reconciled on a monthly basis using mutually agreeable procedures. The total payments on such claims made to Participating Providers by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic in any calendar month shall be deducted from the compensation due to be paid to Doctors Health under Section 6.1 on the tenth (10th) day of the following month. In the event that the total amount for claims paid by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic exceeds the total compensation due to be paid to Doctors Health for that month, then NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall invoice Doctors Health for the balance due and Doctors Health shall pay NYLCare Mid-Atlantic within sixty (60) days of the date of receipt of the invoice.

3.4.5 Special Representations of NYLCare Mid-Atlantic. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic represents that it will perform all of its obligations related to claims administration in a commercially reasonable manner, strictly in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Section 3.4, and strictly in accordance with the applicable standards in the health care industry for the timely adjudication and payment of claims. Any penalties, including interest payments required by applicable law, associated with the failure to pay claims in a timely fashion and within the periods required by applicable law, shall, unless caused by the action or inaction of Doctors Health, be borne by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and not Doctors Health. At any time following the first six (6) months of the Initial Term of this Agreement, when conditions warrant, Doctors Health may make one or more of the

3.13 Professional Liability and Other Insurance. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic, at its cost and expense, shall procure and maintain such policies of general liability and professional liability insurance and other insurance as shall be necessary to insure NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and its employees against any claim or claims for damages arising by reason of personal injuries or death occasioned directly or indirectly in connection with the performance of any service by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic, the use of any property and facilities or equipment provided by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic, and the activities performed by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic in connection with this Agreement.

3.14 Miscellaneous Responsibilities.

- (a) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall not act in any manner that would prevent Doctors Health from efficiently performing its responsibilities under this Agreement in a business-like manner.
- (b) NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall coordinate with Doctors Health all press releases, public statements and other distributed literature, letters, notices or marketing materials pertaining to the relationship and this Agreement.

4.1 Authority. Each of the parties represents and warrants that it has the corporate authority to enter into this Agreement, and that to the best of its knowledge, no consents or approvals, other than Board of Director approvals is necessary to enter into this Agreement.

4.2 Violation of Preexisting Agreements. Each of the parties represents and warrants that by entering this Agreement they are not violating any preexisting agreement with a third party.

4.3 Compliance with Applicable Laws. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and Doctors Health shall each comply in all material respects with all applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations and restrictions in the conduct of its obligations under this Agreement and shall carry out its duties under this Agreement exercising normal and customary business judgment.

4.4 Historical Costs. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic represents and warrants that to the best of its knowledge, the historical pharmacy, institutional, ancillary and capitated, carveout costs previously provided to Doctors Health are accurate in all material respects. The parties agree that as soon as practicable after closing they will meet and develop an appropriate schedule to this Agreement to embody any such previously provided cost information.

- 4.5 Network Access. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic represents and warrants that Doctors Health will have access to the NYLCare Mid-Atlantic Network, including but not limited to Inova, on the same terms and at the same prices under the agreements between NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and the NYLCare Mid-Atlantic Network.
- 4.6 Provider Information. Doctors Health represents and warrants that it will make all reasonable efforts to cause all Doctors Health Participating Providers to submit timely and accurate tax identification information required for claims administration.
- 4.7 Covered Services. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic represents and warrants that, as of the Effective Date, the only Covered Services provided outside of the Doctors Health Service Area are Emergency Services and Out-of-Area Urgent Services.
- 4.8 Performance of Doctors Health. Doctors Health represents and warrants that in conducting its utilization review and referral authorization activities as defined in §2.4 and elsewhere hereunder, Doctors Health will at all times act in a commercially reasonable manner that (1) is designed to deliver quality healthcare in the most appropriate setting and at the best price; (2) will not adversely affect clinical quality or the health of any employee; (3) is consistent with HCFA rules and NYLCare Mid-Atlantic's responsibilities to Enrollees; and (4) does not effectively deny any Enrollee access to the entire network of Participating Providers.

5.0 PHYSICIAN RECRUITMENT

- 5.1 Doctors Health Physicians. All physicians who are or, at any time during the term of this Agreement, become affiliated with Doctors Health or any Doctors Health Affiliate shall be deemed Doctors Health Physicians, including Primary Care Physicians whose practices are or become owned by or affiliated with the Avanti Group, through NYLCare Mid-Atlantic or directly with Doctors Health, at the Avanti Group's election. Such physicians shall be deemed to be Doctors Health Physicians regardless of whether the Avanti Group is controlled by or under common control with Georgetown University Hospital or the Georgetown Faculty Practice and regardless of whether the physician is located in the District of Columbia or Prince Georges County, Maryland. Once a physician is deemed to be a Doctors Health Physician, then Doctors Health shall only receive compensation for Doctors Health Enrollees who choose or are assigned to such physicians under the Risk Contract attached as Exhibit I and not under Section 6.1 of this Agreement.

- 5.2 Participation in Health Plan. All Doctors Health Primary Care Physicians will participate in the Health Plan by December 31, 1997.
- 5.3 Doctors Health Recruitment. Doctors Health is free to recruit any physician in the Doctors Health Service Area to become a Doctors Health Physician on terms and conditions it deems appropriate in its sole and absolute discretion. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic will transfer a NYLCare Mid-Atlantic Physician who becomes a Doctors Health Physician effective within thirty (30) days of notification from Doctors Health.

6.0 PAYMENT

- 6.1 General. On or before the tenth day of each month during the Term, beginning October 10, 1997, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic will pay Doctors Health the amount set forth in Attachment B. The parties acknowledge that Doctors Health receives all of its compensation for providing Covered Services to Doctors Health Enrollees who have chosen or have been assigned to a Doctors Health Physician under the Doctors Health Risk Contract.
- 6.2 Capitation Payments. The parties recognize that NYLCare Mid-Atlantic may, at the direction of Doctors Health, make certain capitation payments to Participating Providers. To the extent NYLCare Mid-Atlantic actually makes such capitation payments, such capitation payments will be deducted from the capitation payments otherwise due Doctors Health pursuant to Attachment B.
- 6.3 Other Administrative Records. Doctors Health shall, and shall cause each Participating Provider to, maintain accurate accounting and administrative books and records consistent with the Policies and Procedures for all Covered Services rendered to Members for a minimum of six (6) years. Doctors Health shall provide to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic, on a monthly basis, a written report that identifies all payments made and to be made by Doctors Health to Participating Providers, if any. Annual financial statements shall be prepared by Doctors Health in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and shall be provided to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic on an annual basis. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic, Payors, and their agents and representatives, as well as representatives of the federal Department of Health and Human Services and state agencies having jurisdiction over the subject matter of this Agreement or the Parties, shall have the right upon reasonable prior notice to inspect, audit, and copy at mutually agreed upon times all such accounting and administrative books and records of Doctors Health and each Participating Provider.

6.4 Letter of Credit. Doctors Health will, within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date, provide NYLCare with an irrevocable standby Letter of Credit at a financial institution reasonably acceptable to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic. This Letter of Credit is intended by the parties to satisfy Doctors Health's obligations to Participating Providers for Covered Services rendered to Members. Such letter of credit shall comply with applicable state law and the Policies and Procedures. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic acknowledges that the letter of credit required under this Section is sufficient to satisfy Doctors Health's obligations to Participating Providers for Covered Services rendered to Doctors Health Enrollees.

- (a) The initial notional amount of the Letter of Credit will be $2.2 million dollars. The notional amount of the Letter of Credit will be increased to $4.4 million dollars on the sixtieth (60th) day following the Effective Date. Thereafter, on each anniversary of the Effective Date, the notional amount of the Letter of Credit will be adjusted to be an amount equal to sixty (60) days of average claims for the immediately preceding twelve (12) month period, based on the beginning of the contract year in question.
- (b) The Letter of Credit is intended by the parties to serve solely as security for the payment of claims to Participating Providers. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall not be permitted to draw on the Letter of Credit for any other purpose, and may do so only to pay the balance due under Section 3.4.4 following the expiration of the sixty (60) day waiting period.
- (c) The parties acknowledge and agree that the letter of credit referred to in this Agreement satisfies in all respects the obligation of Doctors Health to provide a letter of credit under Section 3.21 of the Doctors Health Risk Contract.
- (d) Doctors Health must maintain the Letter of Credit at all times during the Term of this Agreement. In the event of any termination of this Agreement by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic for cause, or a termination of this Agreement by the expiration of the initial term or any renewal term, the Letter of Credit will remain in effect for one hundred eighty (180) days following the termination date.

6.5 Recompment for Overpayment. If at any time during the term of this Agreement NYLCare Mid-Atlantic determines and demonstrates to Doctors Health that it has made an incorrect overpayment to Doctors Health within one year of such payment, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall have the right, after giving Doctors Health thirty (30) days prior written notice, to recover from Doctors Health the full amount incorrectly overpaid. Such recovery may be in the form of set off, withhold of future payments, or demand for repayment.

- 6.6 Recoupment for Underpayment. If at any time during the term of this Agreement Doctors Health determines and demonstrates to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic that it has made an incorrect underpayment to Doctors Health within one year of such underpayment, then NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall remit to Doctors Health said underpayment within thirty (30) days.
- 6.7 Recoveries from Third Parties. Recoveries of payments from any third party by subrogation shall be retained by Doctors Health, to the extent permitted by regulation.

7.0 TERM AND TERMINATION

- 7.1 Term of Agreement. This Agreement shall begin on the Effective Date and, unless otherwise terminated in accordance with the provisions hereof, shall have an initial term ending on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Date; provided, however, that after the initial term ends as provided in this Section, this Agreement shall continue from year to year thereafter, unless terminated by a party upon 90 days' prior written notice delivered to the other party or otherwise in accordance with the provisions hereof.
- 7.2 Termination for Cause. The parties agree that they will promptly notify the other in the event of any of the following, and that upon the occurrence of any such event, either party may, but shall not be required to, terminate this Agreement upon ninety (90) days written notice to the other:
- (a) Failure to maintain any insurance required under this Agreement;
 - (b) Dissolution, termination of existence, insolvency or business failure of either party, commission of any act of bankruptcy by, or appointment of a receiver or other legal representative for any party of the property of either party;
 - (c) Assignment for the benefit of creditors or commencement of any proceeding under and bankruptcy or insolvency law by or against any party, entry for an order for relief against either party;
 - (d) In the event of a liquidating distribution to the either party's shareholders (or similar event);

- (e) Any purported combination, consolidation or merger of the a party into another entity, in a transaction where such party is not the surviving entity under applicable law; provided, however, that an initial public offering shall not be considered grounds for termination of this Agreement;
- (f) Any sale or issuance of a party's securities that places a majority of the voting power of such shares in the control of persons or entities not having such control on September 30, 1997;
- (g) Any sale, exchange, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the other party's assets;
- (h) Any change in a party's upper management personnel, if such management personnel was key to the continuation of this Agreement and the absence of such management personnel would frustrate the continued provision of the products and services contemplated by this Agreement;
- (i) If a party proposes to act or conducts itself in such a manner as to directly compete with the primary business purpose of non-breaching party;
- (j) The failure of a party to maintain licenses or certifications required to operate in conformity with this Agreement;
- (k) A party engages in such gross misconduct as to reflect negatively on the reputation of the non-breaching party;
- (l) If a party, or any of their respective officers, directors or management employees, is found guilty of a felony, or engages in gross misconduct which directly results in prohibiting the other party from participating in the Medicare program; and
- (m) The commission or omission of any act or any conduct or allegation of conduct for which the a party's license, certification or accreditation, or right to participate in the Medicare program, may be subject to revocation or suspension, whether or not actually revoked or suspended, or if the party is otherwise disciplined by any licensing, regulatory, professional entity, or any professional organization with appropriate jurisdiction.

7.3 Cure Period. If either party to this Agreement substantially fails to perform any material duty or obligation imposed upon it by this Agreement or otherwise is in material breach of this Agreement, other than an event of default set forth in Section 7.2, and such default shall continue for a period of ninety (90) days after written notice thereof specifying the nature of the default has been given to it by the other party, (or such longer time if the failure can not be cured within such 90 days as long as the party in breach has initiated and is diligently pursuing a cure within the 90 day time period which is reasonably likely to cure the breach in a commercially reasonable time frame), the other party may terminate this Agreement upon ninety (90) days prior written notice and seek such relief or pecuniary loss or damages caused by such breaching party, including, without limitation, actual damages. Failure by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic to make the capitation payments due Doctors Health in accordance with this Agreement is grounds for immediate termination after NYLCare Mid-Atlantic has had ninety (90) days to cure such default.

- 7.4 Termination by Agreement. In the event NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and Doctors Health shall mutually agree in writing, this Agreement may be terminated effective on the date specified in such written agreement.
- 7.5 Termination Based on Prospective Regulatory Changes. Notwithstanding the parties' agreement to modify this Agreement when necessary because of prospective legal events as set forth in Section 9.4, if an amendment to this Agreement is required based on regulatory mandate, including a mandate from a State Insurance Commissioner, and such amendment involves a modification which is substantially burdensome on either party and which was not contemplated by the burdened party as of the date of execution of this Agreement, such burdened party may terminate this Agreement upon ninety (90) days written notice to the other party without penalty.
- 7.6 Cross Default. The Doctors Health Risk Contract is hereby incorporated by reference. In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and the Doctors Health Risk Contract, except for Attachment B, this Agreement shall control. In the event that the Doctors Health Risk Contract expires, is not renewed, or is terminated by either party for any reason, the parties agree that this Agreement may be terminated either by Doctors Health or by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic.
- 7.7 Procedure Upon Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement by either party for any reason, the Participating Providers' obligations to follow the policies and procedures adopted by Doctors Health shall remain in full force and effect until the end of the term of such contract, and for a period of ninety (90) days following the date of termination. During this period, Doctors Health shall assist NYLCare Mid-Atlantic in effecting an orderly transition of the Medicare Network Manager functions undertaken by Doctors Health as follows:
- (a) Beginning on the date of receipt of notice of termination for any reason by either party, Doctors Health shall, upon written request of NYLCare Mid-Atlantic, immediately cooperate with NYLCare Mid-Atlantic in transferring

ATTACHMENT BCAPITATION/FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

1. NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall make Capitation payments to Doctors Health on the tenth (10th) day of each month for all Members enrolled in the Health Plan on the first (1st) day of such month and who have selected or been assigned to a NYLCare Mid-Atlantic Physician as their primary care physician in the Doctors Health Service Area. A summary listing showing Enrollees (and their Primary Care Physicians) will be provided (by electronic transfer where possible) with payment from NYLCare Mid-Atlantic. Also on the listing will be a calculation of any retroactive adjustments either adding or deleting Enrollees, provided, however, that such retroactive adjustments must be made within ninety (90) days of payment. Claims payments for non-capitated Covered Services will be deducted from the capitation payments due Doctors Health as provided in Section 3.4 of the Agreement. Doctors Health shall be liable for the cost of all Covered Services provided to any Member who selects or is assigned to a NYLCare Mid-Atlantic primary care physician, provided, however, that Doctors Health shall not receive a capitation payment, and shall not be liable for the cost of Covered Services provided to any Member who, as of the Effective Date, has been assigned a case manager for a procedure and/or is in an institutional setting, including but not limited to a hospital, until such Member has been discharged from care and from the institutional setting or until such time as the parties make a determination that the best interest of the Enrollee would be served by transferring medical management of the Enrollee from NYLCare Mid-Atlantic to Doctors Health. For purposes of this Attachment B, Covered Services shall include Emergency Services and Out-Of-Area Urgent Services (but no other Covered Services) provided outside of the Doctors Health Service Area. For Covered Services to Members which were initiated prior to the Effective Date, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic shall be solely liable for the cost of all such Covered Services for the period after October 1, 1997.
2. In consideration of the above capitation amounts, and except as set forth above, Doctors Health shall provide or arrange for all those Covered Services to Enrollees set forth in Attachment C, and shall assume the responsibility for the cost of said services. Regardless of the number of NYLCare Mid-Atlantic Physicians rendering services, if any, to Enrollee during any month, only one capitation payment will be made to Doctors Health each month for each Member. The capitation payment shall be made regardless of the type or amount of service rendered to the Member during a given month.

3. Capitation Schedule (Per Member Per Month)

Except as provided below, the capitation schedule (per member per month) shall be 88.5% of the Premium.

4. Capitation Schedule (Per Member Per Month) For Eligible Enrollees
In Certain Counties and Cities in the Commonwealth of Virginia

For the period October 1, 1997 through June 30, 1998, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic will pay Doctors Health at least $380 PMPM for NYLCare 65 Enrollees residing in the following counties and cities in Virginia regardless of AAPCC and/or Premium then in effect.

Caroline
Chesterfield
Goochland
Hanover
Henrico
King George
King William
Louisa
New Kent
Powhatan
Prince George
Spotsylvania
Stafford
Westmoreland
Colonial Heights
Fredericksburg
Hopewell
Petersburg
Richmond

With respect to enrollees residing in Virginia counties not listed in this Attachment B, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic will, through December 31, 1997, pay Doctors Health at least $380 PMPM, regardless of the AAPCC and/or Premium then in effect.

MEMORANDUM

DATE: July 15, 1998
TO: Jeff Emerson, CEO, NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc.
FROM: Stewart B. Gold
RE: July 14, 1998 Meeting
CC: Eric Wilkinson, The Beacon Group

Thanks for the frank discussion of the concerns we have regarding our Network Management Agreement. As a result of the meeting, it is our understanding that NYLCare will run a "CMU" report on the claims that you have paid. This will help determine any trends in utilization and cost that could explain the wide discrepancy between the NYLCare claims experience with its Medicare members and DH's experience with essentially the same population. We also appreciate your offer to provide a "retro-view" of claims paid to assist us in our audit of the claims payment process. Arthur Andersen is designing the audit protocol in cooperation with NYLCare staff to ensure a timely audit report. We will work with your responsible management personnel to move the audit along. Please ensure that they are aware of our offer to provide the "retro-view" if necessary.

We, of course, appreciate your understanding in suspending payments for claims paid on our behalf by NYLCare in excess of the July capitation payment. For your information, the amount of the Letter of Credit is now at $5,250,000.

I was glad to hear that you were concerned about the time it has taken to reconcile the actual amount due at June 30. As you know, we have advanced the full amount that you requested ($3,176,173) pending a prompt resolution of the actual amount. To date, we believe that paid claims have included errors totaling in excess of $900,000.

Doctors Health, Arthur Andersen and your staff will be working in the next months to determine what further adjustments are required.

I have attached copies of the Days/1,000 reports that we provide every month for your information. Additionally, the status of claims preview from our standpoint is that we have been told we will get the first preview in the agreed upon format today.

The lag in claims payment is a continuing problem. The information that we have is very recent and is already under review by both of our organizations. I believe that we need the results of the current review and the Andersen audit to better understand and define the situation.

I have looked into issues surrounding the timely receipt of enrollment information, along with the capitation payment, authorization transmittal, and other information exchange issues. I have been assured that we will promptly address and remedy problems on our part. If not, have someone contact me directly so that I am aware of the open issues and can compare what you are hearing to the reports I get from our joint operations meetings.

Please let me know when you will have some results from your review of the information we provided yesterday and the CMU Report.

Our Agreement with NYLCare is very important to us, as demonstrated by the investment we have each made in providing uninterrupted medical services to Medicare managed care members. While the cost of claims resolution can have the most serious consequences, we remain dedicated to the success of the relationship with NYLCare and the agreement. Despite our dedication we are very concerned about the Network Management Agreement, and based on the information we categorically and unconditionally dispute that Doctors Health is responsible for at least $6,000,000 of the claims paid to date. Therefore, please be on notice that we have not waived any of our rights and privileges under the Agreement. We expect both sides to keep our conversations about these matters confidential. Thanks for your help.

Re: July 14, 1998 Meeting

Dear Stewart:

Apparently you and I attended different meetings on July 14, 1998.

Among other assertions in your July 15, 1998 memo with which I do not concur, one assertion clearly stands out: I did not agree to permit Doctors Health (DH) to suspend its payment of its liability to NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. (NYLCare Mid-Atlantic) for that amount by which the NYLCare 65 claims paid by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic exceeds the amount of the capitation paid to DH to cover those claims. What I said was that I will be flexible in permitting DH to repay those monies over a period of time longer than the contractually obligated five (5) days provided that the cumulative amount owed by DH to NYLCare Mid-Atlantic does not exceed the amount of the Irrevocable Letter of Credit.

In addition to other assertions in your memo with which I disagree, the final paragraph contains an assertion which is both a surprise and an absurdity: "we categorically and unconditionally dispute that Doctors Health is responsible for at least $6,000,000 of the claims paid [by NYLCare Mid-Atlantic] to date." Please note that there is no antecedent for this assertion, other than the allegedly erroneously paid claims sample report which you gave to Susan S. Lefkowitz and me on June 12, 1998 from which sample you extrapolated approximately $4,000,000 in allegedly erroneously paid claims. Our analysis of your sample report is almost completed. It will not support even one-tenth of the alleged overpayment amount after one excludes the amount for pharmacy claims which we long since stipulated to DH had been erroneously posted to your account.

In sum, your memo (and our July 14 meeting) was self-serving. About the only thing on which we seem to agree is that both organizations remain dedicated to trying to make the relationship work.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jeff D. Emerson".

Re: Letter of Credit No. P-343547

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to my conversation with Mr. Ditizio this morning, Doctors Health has notified NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic, Inc. ("NYLCare") that over $6,000,000 of claims obligations they have identified for our account are in dispute. The documentation supporting this dispute, our communication of this dispute to NYLCare, and other relevant correspondence is attached.

In light of the foregoing, Doctors Health hereby formally gives Chase Manhattan Bank notice that pursuant to Paragraph 4 of the Standby Letter of Credit, NYLCare has failed to satisfy the conditions necessary for effectuating a draw. Specifically, Doctors Health has disputed and NYLCare has acknowledged that we have disputed over $6,000,000 in claims, and we have informed NYLCare that over and above the disputed amount, offsets exist of at least $2,300,000. Moreover, we have recently sent NYLCare, Aetna (the recent acquirer of NYLCare) and NYLCare's former parent, notice that they have completely breached the agreement that underpins the Letter of Credit in question here which puts in dispute amounts in excess of $20,000,000.

RE: September 1998 Monthly
Capitation Calculation

Dear Jeff:

I recently received a copy of the Monthly Capitation Calculation for the month of September, 1998. I was surprised to see that NYLCare has unilaterally decided to change the method of calculation for September. The calculation, if done consistent with the method of calculation for every month of the contract period prior to September, 1998, would have revealed a net positive cash balance in favor of Doctors Health in the amount of approximately $1,443,047.

Without explanation, NYLCare has now charged us for "claims incurred but not paid through August 31, 1998". Please review the enclosed copy of the September, 1998 calculation and compare it to the enclosed copies of the October, 1997 through August 1998 calculations. I would appreciate your prompt assistance in having the September, 1998 Capitation Calculation redone consistent with prior periods to show the above mentioned positive cash balance in our favor.

As you know, we still have a lot of issues to resolve. This is no way to begin that process.

Sincerely,

Stewart B. Gold
Chief Executive Officer

Dear Jeff:

Just a few short weeks ago, you wrote me that you "remain dedicated to trying to make the relationship work." Yet today it pains me to see that we are worlds apart. Aetna's announcement today that it will abandon the MediCare business covered by our contract is like a death blow for us. As I have repeatedly told you, the future of Doctors Health depends upon you. If NYLCare-Aetna abandons us now, we will have no choice but to pursue legal action. We take no comfort in that, but neither should you. The costs to NYLCare-Aetna from such litigation could be enormous.

We need a business meeting with you and an Aetna representative this week to try to reach an immediate resolution of this matter. We have always been able to find business solutions when we met in the past, but the urgency of this situation requires immediate action.

Let me remind you of some of the history between us, dating back to before Doctors Health and NYLCare actually entered into the MediCare Network Management Agreement (the "agreement") in late September 1997. After consistently being unwilling to downstream risk, NYLCare suddenly changed its position in the summer of 1997 – but only as to its MediCare business. Doctors Health was interested in pursuing such business but required historical cost data from NYLCare to evaluate the economic feasibility of such an arrangement. Indeed, we were so concerned about receiving NYLCare's historical cost data – and obviously relying upon that data's accuracy in entering into this agreement – that we insisted upon including the following language in the agreement's "Representations and Warranties" section:

"NYLCare Mid-Atlantic represents and warrants that to the best of its knowledge, the historical pharmacy, institutional, ancillary and capitated carveout costs previously provided to Doctors Health are accurate in all material respects. The parties agree that as soon as practicable after closing they will meet and develop

After consummation of the agreement, however, it became apparent that NYLCare had not provided Doctors Health with accurate cost data -- particularly as to pharmacy costs. It took us months of painstaking work and repeated demands for information from you to learn the truth about this operation's actual costs. In fact, in its historical cost data NYLCare claimed total claims costs PMPM of approximately $350 per month on average over the year prior to the agreement. Yet Doctors Health's estimated total claims costs PMPM were more than $400 the very first month of operation and have remained at that high level ever since. It is no wonder then, that today our contract costs have proven to be much higher than what we expected from our review and reasonable reliance upon NYLCare's historical data, which purported to show much lower costs. Indeed, our total losses under this agreement now exceed $15 million. In short, there was something terribly wrong with the historical data that NYLCare proffered to us to induce Doctors Health to enter into this agreement.

We have encountered and worked to resolve other problems with NYLCare throughout this relationship, and will not attempt to repeat all of them here. I must mention, however, NYLCare's persistent inability to provide information necessary to reconcile capitation payments and the amounts that have been paid for medical benefits. Indeed, your colleague, Susan Lefkowitz, acknowledged in a June 29, 1998 letter to me that "[w]e are aware of the issues that you have had in reconciling eligibility and monthly capitation reports." Yet those problems have persisted, and our calls for one business week turnabout of the parties' review obligations have largely gone unheeded. We even incurred the cost of a preview process before claims payment to try to avoid the kinds of payment disputes that have arisen in recent months.

Of course, as we proceeded in good faith throughout our relationship with NYLCare to resolve these issues, we were unaware that just months after entering into this agreement, Aetna would be acquiring NYLCare from New York Life. And we were also certainly unaware that within weeks of that takeover, Aetna would be announcing its intention to get out of the MediCare business throughout the country. That sequence of events unknown to us at that time of our agreement may now explain many things: for example, why you changed your position and agreed to contract out the MediCare business just months before the Aetna deal with New York Life, why you withheld information and delayed claims processing so that our full cost ramifications would not become so known until after the Aetna takeover, why there was a huge spike in claims payments after the Aetna takeover, and why our business now hangs in the balance because of Aetna's announcement today. Indeed, I now understand that our agreement saved NYLCare more than $12 million at a most propitious time for New York Life -- just months before the Aetna deal, thereby potentially inflating the price that Aetna paid in that deal.

Of course, Aetna's public pronouncement -- while terribly damaging to our business -- cannot change the fact that Doctors Health continues to have a binding agreement with NYLCare. There is no legal basis for terminating that agreement simply because Aetna wants to get out of that business in selected areas including ours. And any other attempt to terminate our agreement now would clearly be pretextual and in bad faith. So let this letter serve as notice that we can not tolerate for any further damage to our business or business reputation. NYLCare-Aetna's actions have already damaged Doctors Health. It is time to repair the damage -- and to do so immediately before it becomes irreparable.

It is now clear to us that we were fraudulently induced to enter into this agreement with NYLCare and have been on a "slippery slope" of financial losses ever since. To date, based upon our purported good faith negotiations we have refrained from filing litigation, despite the desire of some shareholders to do so. Therefore, we will have to pursue litigation absent prompt resolution of this situation. Our lawyers tell us that we can seek both actual and punitive damages in such a fraudulent inducement action. Indeed, I would welcome the opportunity to explain these facts to Aetna, which only recently acquired NYLCare from New York Life and therefore may be unaware of this history. Moreover, in any future legal proceedings, we would also seek recovery for other tortious and contractual breaches which have cost us so dearly.

As you know, I have worked hard to avoid that road. It is not too late still to find common ground, but time is of the essence. I have employees, physician shareholders and other shareholders to protect, and you have placed all of us in serious jeopardy. We stand ready to be creative in fashioning resolutions that work for all parties. We would even be willing to consider Doctors Health eventually taking over this entire operation and dealing directly with HCFA. We remain ready to talk, although given the enormous ongoing damage that we are now experiencing under this agreement, we need a prompt resolution of our outstanding disputes. Otherwise, we will have to take appropriate legal action in the immediate future.

Sincerely,

Dear Stewart:

We are in receipt of your letter of August 10, 1998 restating the issues raised by Doctors Health, Inc. (DH) to be resolved with NYLCare Health Plans of the Mid-Atlantic (NYLCare Mid-Atlantic). This letter is official notification of breach of Section 11 of the Letter of Agreement between NYLCare Mid-Atlantic and DH dated June 29, 1998. According to the language of that Letter of Agreement, DH is required to pay all deficits reflected in the Monthly Capitation Calculation Report (Report) within five (5) business days of receipt of that report. At this time, NYLCare Mid-Atlantic has not received payment of the deficit shown in the July Report and due on July 15, 1998.

Because the payment period has now exceeded the five (5) days allowed, and because the total amount outstanding (deficits plus the claims inventory) exceeds the Letter of Credit (LOC) which DH holds, we are forced to request that you comply with the Letter of Agreement and submit, via wire transfer, all amounts owed. The full amount owed at this time is $2,615,208.69, less the $506,068.53 surplus from the August Report, or $2,109,140.16 in total. Payment is due immediately as stated in our August 5, 1998 letter. We cannot respond to your August 10, 1998 letter until we are in receipt of these monies.

It is incumbent upon you to comply with the terms of the Letter and the Agreement.

Sincerely,

Susan S. Lefkowitz

5. Method of disposition in Trial Court

The trial court vacated a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction prohibiting Chase from payment on a letter of credit.

6. Court and county from which appeal is taken

Supreme Court, New York County, IAS Part 3 (Barry A. Cozier, J.S.C.).

7. Description of cause of action

To enjoin Chase from making any payments to NYLCare under a letter of credit issued by Chase in favor of NYLCare for the sum of $4,400,000.

8. Description of order below

The trial court vacated a temporary restraining order and denied plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction prohibiting Chase from making any payments to NYLCare under a letter of credit issued by Chase in favor of NYLCare and denied plaintiff's application for a stay of the trial court's order.

9. Grounds seeking reversal

a) The trial court made an error of law and facts in holding that misrepresentation in presentment of documents does not constitute fraud to prevent Chase from paying out on a letter of credit to NYLCare under the fraud exception of UCC § 5-114(2).

b) The trial court made an error of law and facts in holding that the arbitration clause in the contract precludes it from making any determination of the likelihood of success on the merits.

c) The trial court made an error of law and facts in holding that the risk of bankruptcy, loss of up to 480 jobs by plaintiff's employees and the potential disruption of critical medical services by plaintiff's employees to 14,000 Medicare employees does not constitute irreparable harm.

10. Filing of appeal bond

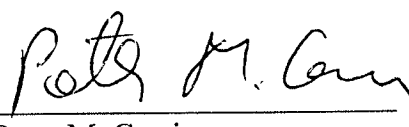

Not applicable.

The undersigned, who is associated with the firm acting as attorneys for plaintiff-appellant, hereby certifies that a transcript of the hearing on the motion, which resulted in the order appealed from, has been ordered.

2 (Pages 2 to 5)

1 Smith

2 A. Leveraged financing.

3 Q. And what are your general

4 responsibilities in the leveraged finance

5 group at Bear Stearns?

6 A. Loan capital markets, loan sales

7 and distribution.

8 Q. Where is your office location at?

9 A. 383 Madison.

10 Q. To whom do you report?

11 A. I report to two people, Larry

12 Alletto and Keith Barnish.

13 Q. How long have you been employed at 14 Bear Stearns?

15 A. Coming up on a year.

16 Q. Do you have any supervisory

17 responsibilities?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. What are those?

20 A. Supervise people in loan capital

21 markets, sales and trade.

22 Q. How many individuals do you

23 supervise?

24 A. About eight.

25 Q. You previously were employed by

Page 7

1 Smith

2 Morgan Stanley?

3 A. I was.

4 Q. When did that employment end?

5 A. About a year ago.

6 Q. Was there any hiatus between the

7 end of your employment at Morgan Stanley and

8 the start of your employment at Bear Stearns?

9 A. A couple of months.

10 Q. You did not have a position at Bear

11 Stearns when you left Morgan Stanley?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Do you have any continuing

14 relationship of any sort with Morgan Stanley?

15 A. What do you mean?

16 Q. Do you receive any money from

17 Morgan Stanley?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Are you potentially entitled to 20 receive any money from Morgan Stanley in the 21 future?

22 A. I think so.

23 Q. What type of arrangement does that

24 involve?

25 A. Some equity investments made in

Page 8

1 Smith

2 some transactions I worked on.

3 Q. When will you know whether you will

4 be receiving any additional funds from Morgan

5 Stanley?

6 A. I have no idea.

7 Q. Do you know over what period of

8 time those investments may yield returns to

9 you?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Is it possible that some of those

12 investments will yield returns to you in the 13 next year?

14 A. Don't know.

15 Q. You don't know whether it's

16 possible then?

17 You have to answer audibly.

18 A. I don't know if it is possible.

19 Q. You are represented today by Morgan

20 Stanley -- is there any other financial

21 arrangement, relationship of any sort today

22 that you have with Morgan Stanley?

23 A. Nope.

24 Q. You are represented today by a

25 Morgan Stanley attorney; is that correct?

1 Smith

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. How did that come about?

4 A. How did that come about? Morgan

5 Stanley contacted me when they said I might

6 be asked to testify, and volunteered to be my

7 counsel.

8 Q. Is Morgan Stanley paying for Mr.

9 Clare's time today?

10 MR. CLARE: Objection, foundation.

11 A. I have no idea.

12 Q. Are you paying for it?

13 A. I'm not paying for it.

14 Q. Who called you from Morgan Stanley

15 to advise you that you would be deposed in 16 this case?

17 A. I don't remember the exact name.

18 Q. Was it somebody in the law

19 department at Morgan Stanley?

20 A. Somebody in the law department.

21 Q. What's your education, Mr. Smith?

22 A. In terms of degrees? BS from

23 the -- undergraduate Air Force Academy, MA

24 from Fletcher School at Tufts, and MBA from

25 Harvard.

3 (Pages 6 to 9)

Page 10

1 Smith

2 Q. Can you summarize for me your

3 employment history prior to your first

4 employment with Morgan Stanley?

5 A. Employment history prior to Morgan

6 Stanley was in the air force for six years.

7 I was going to business school, joined

8 Bankers Trust, I was there I think 17 or 18

9 years, and then Morgan Stanley.

10 Q. When did you leave the air force?

11 A. Oh, 1976.

12 Q. And from there you went to business

13 school?

14 A. Uhm-hmm.

15 Q. And from business school you went

16 to Bankers Trust?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. When would that have been?

19 A. 1978.

20 Q. And you were at Bankers Trust until 21 1996, approximately?

22 A. Yup, 1996.

23 Q. What were your responsibilities at

24 Bankers Trust?

25 A. I was in charge of loan capital

Page 11

1 Smith

2 markets and distribution.

3 Q. Was that your final assignment?

4 A. Uhm-hmm.

5 Q. What do you mean by "loan capital

6 markets," what does that activity involve?

7 A. That activity involves structuring,

8 pricing transactions, and then I distributed

9 them.

10 Q. What kind of transactions are you

11 referring to?

12 A. Mostly leveraged loans.

13 Q. What is a leveraged loan?

14 A. It would be a loan to a

15 noninvestment grade company.

16 Q. And what's a noninvestment grade

17 company?

18 A. It would be a company that was

19 rated less than double -- BBB minus or BAA 3

20 by the two rating agencies, Moody's and S&P.

21 Q. You indicate that your activity

22 also involved distributing the investment if

23 you want, correct?

24 A. Uhm-hmm.

25 Q. What is distributing?

Page 12

1 Smith

2 A. Selling.

3 Q. What does selling mean in this

4 context?

5 A. Selling loans to potential

6 investors.

7 Q. Selling participations in the loan

8 that you've --

9 A. Selling either the participations

10 or the loans themselves.

11 Q. Is that sometimes referred to as

12 syndicating a loan?

13 A. Sometimes referred to as

14 syndicating a loan.

15 Q. Syndicating meaning something

16 distinct in this context, or is that a

17 generic term used to describe the process of 18 selling participations in a loan transaction?

19 A. I think it would probably be

20 generic.

21 Q. At Bankers Trust how large would

22 you say the largest leveraged loan

23 transactions were that you were involved in 24 structuring and syndicating?

25 A. Billions. Billions.

Page 13

1 Smith

2 Q. How many billion dollar plus loan

3 syndications were you involved in while you

4 were at Bankers Trust?

5 A. I don't remember.

6 Q. Would it have been more than five

7 would you say?

8 A. Yup.

9 Q. Why did you leave Bankers Trust?

10 A. Better opportunity at Morgan

11 Stanley.

12 Q. Were you recruited at Morgan

13 Stanley, or did you make an overture to

14 Morgan Stanley?

15 A. Recruited.

16 Q. Who recruited you?

17 A. Steve Newhouse.

18 Q. You had known Mr. Newhouse before

19 that?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Do you know how he came to know of 22 you?

23 A. No.

24 Q. How did he contact you?

25 A. Through an executive recruiter.

4 (Pages 10 to 13)

1 Smith

2 Q. How long before you joined Morgan

3 Stanley do you recall being first contacted

4 by the executive recruiting firm?

5 A. Gee, months.

6 Q. Were you being recruited to fill a

7 particular position at Morgan Stanley?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. What was that?

10 A. To get them into the loan business.

11 Q. What do you mean by getting them in

12 the loan business?

13 A. They wanted to have a lending

14 capability and they hired me to develop that

15 capability for them.

16 Q. Is it your understanding that

17 before you joined Morgan Stanley, Morgan

18 Stanley did not engage in originating loans?

19 MR CLARE: Objection, calls for

20 speculation.

21 Q. I'm asking your understanding.

22 A. I don't know.

23 Q. Did you have an understanding one

24 way or the other when you joined Morgan

25 Stanley, whether Morgan Stanley at the time

1 Smith

2 you were being recruited had not engaged at

3 all in origination of loans?

4 A. Again I don't know.

5 Q. What were you told concerning

6 Morgan Stanley's business objectives with

7 respect to creating a capability of being in

8 the loan business?

9 A. I was told they, that they felt it

10 was important strategically to have a loan

11 origination distribution capability.

12 Q. In what way was it important

13 strategically to Morgan Stanley to have the 14 ability to originate and distribute loans?

15 A. They felt it was necessary to, they

16 felt that was necessary to compete against

17 the commercial banks.

18 Q. It was necessary to have this

19 capability to compete against the commercial

20 banks in what areas?

21 A. In leveraged finance, particularly

22 high yield.

23 Q. Did you -- was it your

24 understanding that Morgan Stanley believed it

25 was important to have the ability to

1 Smith

2 originate and distribute loans in order to

3 compete with commercial banks for investment

4 banking assignments?

5 A. I don't know.

6 Q. Did Bankers Trust provide

7 investment banking services to its clients in

8 addition to the loan services?

9 A. They provided high yield.

10 Q. High yield investment banking

11 services?

12 A. High yield debt raising

13 capabilities.

14 Q. But did they engage in providing

15 investment banking services of the same sort

16 that firms such as Morgan Stanley provide to 17 clients?

18 A. They had investment banking

19 services.

20 Q. Was it your understanding that

21 Bankers Trust used its ability to also assist

22 clients in raising funds for purposes of

23 financing investment banking transactions to

24 compete for the investment banking side?

25 A. Is it my understanding, is that the

Page 17

1 Smith

2 question?

3 Q. Correct. Let me take a step back,

4 sir.

5 While you were at Bankers Trust you

6 were involved in assisting Bankers Trust

7 clients that didn't have investment grade

8 ratings in raising funds, correct?

9 A. Uhm-hmm.

10 Q. Did those activities involve

11 raising funds in connection with business

12 acquisitions?

13 A. Normally.

14 Q. In those transactions was it

15 sometimes the case that Bankers Trust was

16 also providing investment banking services?

17 A. Sometimes.

18 Q. Was it your experience that Bankers

19 Trust used your ability to assist clients in

20 raising funds for purposes of financing

21 acquisitions to also obtain the investment

22 banking side?

23 A. No.

24 Q. You were never involved in making

25 presentations with other Bankers Trust

Page 18

1 Smith
2 representatives who were seeking the
3 investment banking assignment, in which your 4 services were described as an additional 5 benefit that clients could realize by
6 retaining Bankers Trust for the investment
7 banking?
8 A. No.
9 Q. When you went to Morgan Stanley,
10 was it your experience that Morgan Stanley
11 used your ability to assist in raising funds
12 as a way in which to increase its 13 opportunities to be retained to provide
14 investment banking services?
15 A. No.
16 Q. When you first joined Morgan
17 Stanley, what efforts did you engage in to 18 assist Morgan Stanley in developing the 19 capability of originating and distributing
20 loans?
21 A. I set up the group to do that, so
22 recruited and hired people.
23 Q. How large a group did you assemble?
24 A. Probably about 20 at the peak.
25 Q. What would the peak point of time

Page 19

1 Smith
2 have been in terms of the staffing?
3 A. I would say about, probably around
4 2000-ish or so, plus or minus a year.
5 Q. When you joined Morgan Stanley what
6 was your title?
7 A. Managing director.
8 Q. Did you have any other titles?
9 A. I think I was president of Morgan
10 Stanley Senior Fund.
11 Q. Do you know during what time period
12 you had that title?
13 A. Pretty much the whole time I was
14 there.
15 Q. Did you hold any other titles?
16 A. No.
17 Q. Was Morgan Stanley Senior Funding
18 an entity that existed when you first joined
19 Morgan Stanley?
20 A. No.
21 Q. By what Morgan Stanley entity were
22 you employed?
23 A. The dealer-broker.
24 Q. Do you know the name of that
25 entity?

Page 20

1 Smith
2 A. No.
3 Q. Do you know if it is Morgan Stanley
4 & Company, Inc.?
5 A. I don't know.
6 Q. Do you know if you were an employee
7 of Morgan Stanley Senior Funding?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Let me ask a better question.
10 Were you an employee of Morgan
11 Stanley Senior Funding?
12 A. I don't know.
13 Q. Did you receive any compensation
14 for Morgan Stanley Senior Funding?
15 A. No.
16 Q. What were your responsibilities and 17 duties during the period you were employed by
18 Morgan Stanley?
19 A. To manage the loan origination and
20 distribution of it.
21 Q. Did you have any other duties?
22 A. I don't think so.
23 Q. Do you know if you were considered
24 to be assigned to the Morgan Stanley
25 Investment Banking Division?

Page 21

1 Smith
2 A. We were in a joint venture between
3 banking and fixed income.
4 Q. What was the nature of the joint
5 venture?
6 A. It was -- what do you mean?
7 Q. Well, you indicated that you were 8 involved in a joint venture between
9 investment banking and fixed income, correct?
10 A. Uhm-hmm.
11 Q. What was that joint venture?
12 A. Joint venture was, was capital
13 markets.
14 Q. Capital markets function was 15 considered to be a joint venture between 16 investment banking and fixed income?
17 A. Uhm-hmm.
18 Q. And capital markets included what,
19 sir?
20 A. Included the loan origination
21 business.
22 Q. Did it include anything else?
23 A. High yield origination, or high
24 yield capital markets is a better word to 25 think about it.

6 (Pages 18 to 21)

Page 22

1 Smith

2 Q. Anything else?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Loan origination would have been

5 your function, sir?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. High yield capital markets, would

8 that have been part of your responsibilities

9 also?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Who was responsible for that

12 activity while you were at Morgan Stanley?

13 A. A couple of people. Steve Newhouse

14 and Bill Kourakos.

15 Q. Do you know how Mr. Kourakos spells

16 his name?

17 A. No. K-O-U-R-A-K-A-S.

18 Q. What does high yield capital

19 markets involve?

20 A. They are the liaisons between the

21 traders in high yield, the bankers that cover

22 the clients as well as the clients.

23 Q. High yield --

24 A. Is not investment grade securities.

25 Q. How is it different from the

1 Smith

2 leveraged loans that you described?

3 A. They are securities, they weren't

4 loans.

5 Q. Can you give me an example of a

6 high yield security?

7 A. A bond.

8 Q. You indicated you were president of 9 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding?

10 A. Uhm-hmm.

11 Q. And if I understood your testimony,

12 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding did not exist

13 when you first joined Morgan Stanley?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. When was it formed?

16 A. It was formed pretty shortly after

17 I got there.

18 Q. Do you know why it was formed?

19 A. They -- it was felt -- we wanted,

20 the firm wanted a separate entity through

21 which to conduct its lending business.

22 Q. Whose idea was that?

23 A. Don't know.

24 Q. I take it it wasn't yours?

25 A. Unh-unh.

1 Smith

2 Q. Do you know what entity within

3 Morgan Stanley owned Morgan Stanley Senior

4 Funding?

5 A. Nope.

6 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley

7 Senior Funding had any employees?

8 A. I don't know.

9 Q. What were your responsibilities as

10 the president of Morgan Stanley Senior

11 Funding?

12 A. My responsibilities was to, to

13 manage the loan origination business, and so

14 really nothing different than what I did.

15 Q. Do you know what businesses Morgan

16 Stanley Senior Funding engaged in?

17 A. It was a funding vehicle for loans.

18 Q. Did Morgan Stanley Senior Funding

19 engage in any business activities other than

20 the origination and distributing,

21 distribution of the leveraged loans that you

22 were responsible for?

23 A. Not that I know of.

24 Q. So as far as you're aware, the

25 entire business activity of Morgan Stanley

Page 25

1 Smith

2 Senior Funding was the business activity for

3 which you were responsible at Morgan Stanley?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Do you know where Morgan Stanley

6 Senior Funding is incorporated, what state?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you know if it's considered to

9 have a headquarters?

10 A. Do not.

11 Q. Do you know if it's considered to

12 have a principal place of business in a

13 particular location?

14 A. Do not.

15 Q. Were you ever a director of Morgan

16 Stanley Senior Funding?

17 A. I don't remember.

18 Q. Did Morgan Stanley Senior Funding

19 hold meetings of its board of directors?

20 A. Don't know.

21 Q. Other than yourself, do you know of

22 any individuals who held officer positions

23 with Morgan Stanley Senior Funding?

24 A. Yes, Steve Newhouse, Bill Kourakos.

25 Q. Anyone else?

7 (Pages 22 to 25)

Page 26

1 Smith

2 A. I'm sure there were other names. I

3 don't know if I remember.

4 Q. You know there were other officers,

5 you just don't know who they are at this

6 point?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Were you responsible as president

9 of Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, for 10 designating individuals as officers of that

11 entity?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Do you know who was?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Were the officers of Morgan Stanley

16 Senior Funding all employees of other Morgan

17 Stanley entities?

18 A. I -- to the best of my knowledge

19 they were all employees of Morgan Stanley. I

20 don't know anything more about it.

21 Q. Did any of your business

22 responsibilities, sir, at Morgan Stanley

23 involve activities other than the activities

24 of Morgan Stanley Senior Funding?

25 A. No.

1 Smith

2 Q. How did your employment at Morgan

3 Stanley end?

4 A. What do you mean?

5 Q. You indicated your employment at

6 Morgan Stanley ended a couple of months

7 before you started at Bear Stearns, correct?

8 A. Uhm-hmm.

9 Q. And you indicated you didn't have a

10 position at Bear Stearns at the time you left

11 Morgan Stanley, correct?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Were you asked to leave Morgan

14 Stanley?

15 A. Yup.

16 Q. When were you first asked to leave

17 Morgan Stanley?

18 A. Prior to Christmas of '02.

19 Q. Tell me the circumstances.

20 A. I was told that they were reducing

21 staff and I was going to be let go.

22 Q. With whom did you have that

23 conversation?

24 Was it a face-to-face conversation

25 with someone?

Page 28

1 Smith

2 A. No.

3 Q. Did you receive a written

4 communication?

5 A. Nope.

6 Q. Telephone call?

7 A. Telephone call.

8 Q. From whom did you receive the 9 telephone call?

10 A. Steve Newhouse.

11 Q. How long did your conversation with 12 Mr. Newhouse last?

13 A. 15 minutes.

14 Q. Tell me everything you can recall

15 Mr. Newhouse telling you during that

16 15-minute telephone call.

17 A. Described the situation facing the 18 company and it was a hard decision, but they

19 were reducing staff and that I was part of

20 that.

21 Q. Did Mr. Newhouse tell you anything

22 about how you were identified as one of the 23 people who would be let go?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did he tell you anything about

Page 29

1 Smith

2 other people within your business group who

3 were being let go?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Were other people within your

6 business group at that time being let go at 7 the same time?

8 A. Not at that time.

9 Q. Now, at this point in time, Mr.

10 Smith, were you still president of Morgan

11 Stanley Senior Funding?

12 A. I was.

13 Q. Were you still the person primarily

14 responsible and in charge of the leveraged

15 loan business at Morgan Stanley?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Who was in charge of the business

18 at that point?

19 A. The fella in charge was, ultimately

20 was a fellow named Mitch Petrick.

21 Q. Can you recall anything else that

22 Mr. Newhouse told you during your 15-minute

23 conversation with him?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did he offer you a severance

8 (Pages 26 to 29)

Page 30

1 Smith
2 package of any sort?
3 A. The firm did.
4 Q. What was that severance package?
5 A. The severance package was some
6 weeks of salary and some cash.
7 Q. Have you received all of those
8 payments?
9 A. I have received all of those
10 payments.
11 Q. Were they made as a lump sum at 12 some point?
13 A. They were.
14 Q. Do you recall the amount of the
15 payment?
16 A. I -- let's see. Yes, partially.
17 Q. What do you recall the lump sum
18 severance payment being?
19 A. It was about -- the gross was 20 about, I don't know, $875,000.
21 Q. Other than the lump sum severance
22 payment, did you receive anything else by way
23 of a severance package?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Did Mr. Newhouse tell you that Mr.

Page 31

1 Smith
2 Petrick agreed with his decision?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Did Mr. Petrick's name come up
5 during the conversation?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Before this conversation with Mr.
8 Newhouse, had you at any point been asked to 9 consider looking elsewhere for
10 opportunities --
11 A. No.
12 Q. -- by anyone within Morgan Stanley?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Did this come, did Mr. Newhouse's
15 call to you come as a surprise?
16 A. Yup.
17 Q. Had your performance at Morgan
18 Stanley Senior Funding been criticized in any 19 way prior to your conversation with Mr.
20 Newhouse?
21 A. No.
22 Q. Did Mr. Newhouse explain why you
23 were the person chosen to be let go at that 24 point?
25 A. No.

Page 32

1 Smith
2 Q. Do you have any understanding
3 yourself today why you were the person chosen
4 to be let go in December of 2002?
5 A. No.
6 Q. Do you know if Mr. Petrick agreed
7 with Mr. Newhouse's decision to let you go?
8 A. No.
9 Q. Did you have any conversations with 10 Mr. Petrick concerning your conversation with 11 Mr. Newhouse?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. When were those?
14 A. Right after the phone call with Mr.
15 Newhouse.
16 Q. Did you call Mr. Petrick?
17 A. Went to see him, yes.
18 Q. You had a face-to-face meeting with 19 Mr. Petrick?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. Where was that?
22 A. In his office.
23 Q. And where is that?
24 A. At -- what is the address over
25 there? At Morgan Stanley.

Page 33

1 Smith
2 Q. It is here in Manhattan?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. When did that meeting take place?
5 A. Right after the -- within a couple
6 of days of the phone call with Mr. Newhouse.
7 Q. So we are still before Christmas of 8 2002?
9 A. Before Christmas of 2002.
10 Q. Was anyone else present for your
11 meeting with Mr. Petrick?
12 A. No.
13 Q. Was the meeting in his personal
14 office?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. How long did that meeting last?
17 A. Probably about five minutes.
18 Q. How was the meeting arranged?
19 Was there a prior arrangement? Let 20 me ask that question first.
21 A. I don't remember.
22 Q. You don't remember calling and 23 making an appointment to see Mr. Petrick or 24 telling him you wanted to be seen?
25 A. It might have been that, but pretty

9 (Pages 30 to 33)

Page 34

1 Smith

2 informal.

3 Q. Tell me everything you can recall

4 about your meeting with Mr. Petrick.

5 A. He asked if I had spoken to Mr.

6 Newhouse and then we talked about the

7 mechanics of the departure.

8 Q. Did you ask for an explanation for 9 the decision?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Did he offer one?

12 A. No.

13 Q. What was the purpose for your

14 wanting to meet with Mr. Petrick?

15 A. To go over the mechanics of the 16 departure.

17 Q. What were the mechanics that you

18 discussed with him?

19 A. When, and hand off of transactions

20 that I was working on to other members of the 21 team.

22 Q. What was agreed upon with respect

23 to the timing?

24 A. The first of February departure.

25 Q. And who took your responsibilities

1 Smith

2 for the matters that you were handling?

3 A. It varied depending on who I was

4 working with on what transaction.

5 Q. At that point did you have any

6 administrative responsibilities for managing

7 the business?

8 A. No.

9 Q. When did Mr. Petrick become

10 president of Morgan Stanley Senior Funding?

11 A. I don't know. Don't know.

12 Q. Do you recall when he assumed your

13 responsibilities for managing the business

14 group?

15 A. It was in the middle, I think

16 middle of '02.

17 Q. The middle of October 2002?

18 A. No, middle of '02.

19 Q. Oh, middle of '02, I'm sorry.

20 Who made that decision?

21 A. Don't know.

22 Q. Was it your choice?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Had Mr. Petrick been working within

25 the Morgan Stanley Senior Funding business

Page 36

1 Smith

2 group?

3 A. No, he had been in high yield.

4 Q. How were you advised that he would

5 be assuming your responsibilities?

6 A. By one of his bosses.

7 Q. Do you recall who that was?

8 A. Zoe Cruz.

9 Q. Could you move your hand down from

10 there?

11 A. Sure.

12 Q. Sorry.

13 Zoe Cruz you said?

14 A. Uhm-hmm.

15 Q. Is Zoe Cruz a woman?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What did Miss Cruz tell you?

18 A. That they had -- she had decided,

19 the firm had decided to let Mr. Petrick run

20 the loan business.

21 Q. Did you have a face-to-face

22 conversation with Miss Cruz?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Was anyone else present for that?

25 A. No.

Page 37

1 Smith

2 Q. How long before Mr. Petrick took

3 over your responsibilities did this

4 conversation occur?

5 A. Oh, days I guess.

6 Q. But very shortly?

7 A. Very shortly.

8 Q. What did Miss Cruz tell you for the 9 reason for this change of assignment?

10 A. That he was very capable, that they

11 wanted to expand the effort and that she

12 wanted him to do it.

13 Q. What did she mean by "expand the 14 effort," the firm wanted to expand the

15 effort?

17 speculation.

18 Q. What was your understanding?

19 A. They wanted to get into the 20 investment grade lending business.

21 Q. Did she say that to you during this

22 meeting?

23 A. No.

24 Q. That was your understanding though?

25 A. Uhm-hmm.

10 (Pages 34 to 37)

Page 38

1 Smith

2 Q. Were you pleased with this change

3 of circumstances?

4 A. Not entirely.

5 Q. Did you express any disappointment

6 to Miss Cruz?

7 A. Nope.

8 Q. Why were you not entirely pleased?

9 A. Because it would be a change in my

10 situation.

11 Q. Did you consider this to be a

12 demotion?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Did you discuss this change of 15 assignment with anyone else in senior

16 management Morgan Stanley, other than Miss

17 Cruz?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Prior to the assignment, your

20 reassignment and Mr. Petrick's appointment to

21 the position of president of Morgan Stanley

22 Senior Funding, had you been asked to attempt

23 to expand the business activities of Morgan

24 Stanley Senior Funding in ways that you had

25 been unable to accomplish?

Page 39

1 Smith

2 A. No.

3 Q. Who evaluated your performance at

4 Morgan Stanley? Excuse me, during the time

5 you were employed at Morgan Stanley, 1996

6 through February of 2003, who was responsible

7 for evaluating your performance?

8 A. Various people.

9 Q. Can you identify them for me?

10 A. Steve Newhouse, Bill Kourakos.

11 Take a step back. Normally I would have two

12 evaluators, so it would be Newhouse and

13 somebody from fixed income and Kourakos and

14 somebody from fixed income. Towards the end

15 it was Alan Jones and Mitch Petrick.

16 Q. Was Mr. Petrick the fixed income

17 representative?

18 A. He was the fixed income

19 representative.

20 Q. And the other person responsible

21 for your evaluation was from what part of the

22 business?

23 A. That would be from the high yield

24 capital markets area.

25 Q. Were you evaluated on an annual

Page 40

1 Smith

2 basis?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. More often than annual?

5 A. I don't think so.

6 Q. What was the form this evaluation

7 took?

8 A. It was written and it was a

9 meeting.

10 Q. Prior to February '03 do you

11 remember receiving any criticism relating to 12 any aspect of your work during your annual

13 evaluations?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Do you consider yourself to be --

16 let me focus on the time period that we're

17 talking about here, Mr. Smith.

18 In 1998 did you consider yourself

19 to be highly sophisticated with respect to 20 underwriting leveraged loans?

21 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of

22 the question.

23 A. I don't know what you mean.

24 Q. Had your career up until 1998, Mr.

25 Smith, involved underwriting leveraged loans?

1 Smith

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. How experienced did you consider

4 yourself to be in the first part of 1998 with

5 respect to that business activity?

6 A. Pretty experienced.

7 Q. Would you consider yourself to be

8 highly knowledgeable with respect to the

9 process of underwriting large leveraged loans

10 first quarter of 1998?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. That had been your entire career,

13 had it not?

14 A. Well, I used to fly helicopters.

15 Q. Subsequent to leaving the air force

16 that had been your entire business career,

17 correct?

18 A. The last half of the Morgan

19 Stanley -- I mean the last half of Bankers

20 Trust, yes.

21 Q. So approximately?

22 A. Ten years.

23 Q. Ten years at Bankers Trust?

24 A. Trust.

25 Q. Plus three years of Morgan Stanley?

Page 42

1 Smith

2 A. Uhm-hmm.

3 Q. Have you ever been deposed before,

4 Mr. Smith?

5 A. I have.

6 Q. On how many occasions?

7 A. I guess a couple.

8 Q. What did those occasions involve?

9 A. One was a personnel matter and the 10 other was about this.

11 Q. What did the personnel matter

12 involve?

13 A. Oh, lawsuit.

14 Q. By a Morgan Stanley employee?

15 A. Nothing to do with Morgan Stanley.

16 Q. Was it at Bankers Trust?

17 A. Bankers Trust.

18 Q. What kind of personnel lawsuit was 19 it?

20 A. I don't really know. I was just 21 called in as a witness.

22 Q. What was your involvement, why were

23 you called as a witness?

24 A. I worked with the individual.

25 Q. Were any of the claims being made

Page 43

1 Smith

2 in that employment dispute by the Bankers

3 Trust employee related to your treatment of

4 the individual?

5 A. No.

6 Q. You indicated you have been deposed

7 previously relating to Sunbeam?

8 A. Uhm-hmm.

9 Q. When was that?

10 MR. CLARE: A point of

11 clarification, I'm not sure the witness is

12 using deposed in the same way that you are,

13 so you may want to ask a clarifying question

14 or give a clarifying answer to make sure

15 we're clear about the terms we are using.

16 MR. MARKOWSKI: I'll try to do

17 that.

18 Q. Have you testified previously

19 relating to Sunbeam?

20 A. I have.

21 Q. What were the circumstances?

22 A. With the U.S. Attorney.

23 Q. Have you testified in a Grand Jury

24 proceeding?

25 A. No.

Page 44

1 Smith

2 Q. What was the nature of the U.S.

3 Attorney's, what was the nature of the 4 testimony you gave relating to activities of

5 the U.S. Attorney's Office?

6 MR. CLARE: I'll object. Maybe I

7 can shortcut some of this. And you're free

8 to follow up with him. Mr. Smith gave an

9 interview to the U.S. Attorney's Office. It

10 was not testimony in any formal sense, it was

11 an interview that was granted.

12 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

13 Q. Was a court reporter present?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Do you remember when this occurred?

16 A. Three or four years ago.

17 Q. How -- the Sunbeam transactions, to 18 put this in context, closed in the first

19 quarter of 1998?

20 A. Uhm-hmm.

21 Q. Do you recall how soon in

22 relationship to first quarter of 1998 you

23 were interviewed by the U.S. Attorney's

24 Office?

25 A. I assume it would be three or four

Page 45

1 Smith

2 years ago. It would be around '01 or '00, so

3 it would be two or three years afterwards,

4 but that is a very hazy recollection.

5 Q. So that was years after the close

6 of the transactions that you were interviewed

7 by the U.S. Attorney's Office?

8 A. Uhm-hmm.

9 Q. Do you know why U.S. Attorney's

10 Office wanted to interview you?

11 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for

12 speculation.

13 A. No.

14 Q. How much time did you spend in this

15 interview?

16 A. About a day and a half.

17 Q. Were you represented by counsel?

18 A. I was.

19 Q. Was it an in-house attorney by

20 Morgan Stanley?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Who represented you?

23 A. Wachtel, I think.

24 Q. Were any in-house Morgan Stanley

25 lawyers present for the interview?

12 (Pages 42 to 45)

1 Smith

2 A. I don't think so.

3 Q. What subjects were you interviewed

4 about?

5 A. Different facets of the

6 transaction.

7 Q. "The transaction" in this case

8 being what?

9 A. Being the Sunbeam acquisition and

10 financing.

11 Q. The Sunbeam acquisition you're

12 referring to is what?

13 A. Of Coleman and the other two

14 properties.

15 Q. And the financing in this context?

16 A. Would be the loan.

17 Q. The senior loan?

18 A. The senior loan.

19 Q. When you refer to "senior loan,"

20 the senior loan is the loan that Morgan

21 Stanley Senior Funding made to Sunbeam in

22 connection with the acquisition?

23 A. Along with two other existing

24 lenders, Bank of America and Wachovia, yeah.

25 Or First Union at the time.

1 Smith

2 Q. Were there any other matters that

3 you were interviewed about other than those

4 two general topics?

5 A. Nope.

6 Q. Do you know how you were chosen for 7 this interview?

8 A. I have no idea.

9 Q. Do you know if you were volunteered

10 by Morgan Stanley or --

11 A. I have no idea.

12 Q. Excuse me, or someone at the U.S.

13 Attorney's Office specifically requested you?

14 A. Don't know.

15 Q. Do you know what the U.S.

16 Attorney's Office was attempting to 17 investigate?

18 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for

19 speculation.

20 A. No.

21 Q. What was your understanding?

22 A. Didn't have any.

23 Q. Were you told whether Morgan

24 Stanley's conduct was in question?

25 MR. CLARE: Object. You can

Page 48

1 Smith

2 answer the question, but I would instruct you

3 to limit your answer to exclude any

4 conversations or any other information that

5 you learned from in-house Morgan Stanley

6 counsel or outside counsel representing

7 Morgan Stanley at the time. Those

8 conversations are privileged, you're not

9 required to disclose them. I'm instructing

10 you not to disclose them.

11 To the extent you have an

12 understanding outside of any of those

13 privileged communications you are free to 14 answer Mr. Markowski's question.

15 A. What is your question again?

16 Q. Did you have any understanding

17 whether Morgan Stanley's conduct was in

18 question?

19 A. No comment.

20 Q. Sorry?

21 A. No comment.

22 Q. No comment? I'm not sure I know

23 what no comment means.

24 A. I guess I would be following his 25 advice.

1 Smith

2 Q. Is your testimony that other than

3 things you were told by Morgan Stanley's

4 attorneys, you don't have any independent

5 understanding whether Morgan Stanley's

6 conduct was under investigation?

7 A. That would be right.

8 Q. Sir, I think it would be useful for

9 the court reporter if you let me finish my

10 questions before you start to answer them. I

11 know it is very natural for you to anticipate

12 where I'm going and provide the answer.

13 A. You're right, I'm sorry.

14 Q. But it is easier for the court

15 reporter if we speak one at a time.

16 THE WITNESS: Do you think we can

17 take a break now?

18 MR. CLARE: Sure.

19 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is

20 10:21, we're going off the record.

21 (Recess taken.)

22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is

23 10:26, we're back on the record.

24 BY MR. MARKOWSKI:

25 Q. Mr. Smith, other than this day and

Page 51 1 Smith 2 we, Bank of America and First Union, made. 3 Q. Do you know if this inquiry being 4 conducted by the U.S. Attorney's Office was 5 being initiated at the request of Morgan 6 Stanley or Morgan Stanley Senior Funding? 7 MR CLARE: Objection, calls for 8 speculation. 9 A. I do not know. 10 MR CLARE: Make sure you just 11 give me a chance to give my objection. 12 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. 13 Q. Do you know if it was initiated at 14 the request of First Union or Bank of 15 America? 16 MR CLARE: Same objection. 17 A. Don't know. 18 Q. During the course of the day and a 19 half that you spent with the U.S. Attorney's 20 Office with this interview, Mr. Smith, did 21 you express the view that Morgan Stanley 22 Senior Funding had been the victim of fraud 23 in connection with the loan that it made to 24 Sunbeam? 25 A. I'm sorry, say that again, please.	Page 53 1 Smith 2 its financial condition? 3 A. I think I said that Morgan Stanley 4 and the other lenders were misled. 5 Q. Did you explain what, in what way 6 you thought Morgan Stanley Senior Funding had 7 been misled? 8 A. I remember that I said that I felt 9 that the three banks were misled by the 10 financial statements as well as 11 representations made by the company. 12 Q. The financial statements you are 13 referring to are the audited financial 14 statements of Sunbeam? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. What representations by management 17 did you tell the U.S. Attorney's Office you 18 believe were misleading? 19 A. I don't remember the specifics. 20 Q. Do you remember if you offered 21 specifics to the U.S. Attorney's Office with 22 respect to statements made to Morgan Stanley 23 Senior Funding by Sunbeam management that you 24 considered to be misleading? 25 A. No, I cannot remember.

2 Q. Did you indicate to the U.S.

3 Attorney's Office whether any of the

4 information that Morgan Stanley had received

5 from or relating to Coleman company was

6 misleading?

7 A. I don't recall.

8 Q. So as you sit here today you don't

9 recall telling the U.S. Attorney's Office

10 that you remember receiving misleading

11 information from Coleman?

12 A. I don't recall ever telling them

13 that.

14 Q. Is the only misleading information

15 you advised the U.S. Attorney's Office you

16 believe Morgan Stanley Senior Funding had

17 received had come from Sunbeam and related to 18 Sunbeam; is that correct?

19 MR. CLARE: Objection, misstates

20 his testimony.

21 A. It what?

22 MR. CLARE: I objected that it

23 misstates your prior testimony. You can

24 answer.

25 THE WITNESS: What was my prior

Page 55

1 Smith

2 testimony?

3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Can you read the

4 pending question, please.

5 (Record read.)

6 A. Well, no, because they also had the 7 financial statements.

8 Q. Let me break it down.

9 You told the U.S. Attorney's Office

10 that you believe Morgan Stanley Senior

11 Funding had received misleading information

12 from Sunbeam management, correct?

13 A. Yeah, the three banks had received

14 misleading information.

15 Q. And that misleading information

16 related to Sunbeam itself, correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And you also told the U.S.

19 Attorney's Office that you believe Sunbeam's

20 own financial statements were misleading,

21 correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And those financial statements

24 relate to Sunbeam itself, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Smith

2 Q. Is there any other misleading

3 information that you recall advising the U.S.

4 Attorney's Office of that related to the

5 loans that Morgan Stanley Senior Funding

6 received?

7 A. I don't recall anything.

8 Q. Are you familiar with the lawsuit

9 that my client Coleman (Parent) Holdings has

10 filed against Morgan Stanley, sir?

11 A. You mean the one we are here for 12 now?

13 Q. Correct.

14 A. A little bit.

15 Q. What's your understanding of that

16 lawsuit?

17 A. That you're suing Morgan Stanley,

18 that is about it.

19 Q. Do you have any understanding of 20 what the nature of the claims are that my

21 client's asserting against Morgan Stanley?

22 A. Not directly.

23 Q. When you say "not directly," what

24 do you mean?

25 A. No, not -- no.

Page 57

1 Smith

2 Q. Do you understand that my client is

3 alleging that Morgan Stanley misled Coleman

4 (Parent) Holdings in connection with the sale

5 of its interest in Coleman company to

6 Sunbeam?

7 A. Yes, I guess I have heard that.

8 Q. Have you had any discussions with

9 Morgan Stanley personnel relating to Coleman

10 (Parent's) lawsuit?

11 A. No. Well, I guess we had that

12 lawyer from Morgan Stanley, the guy who

13 contacted me, the people who contacted me

14 about showing up here. That would be it.

15 Q. Okay. Other than being advised

16 that we wanted to take your deposition, you

17 have not?

18 A. Nope.

19 Q. Sir, if you let me finish my

20 questions, --

21 A. I'm sorry.

22 Q. -- we'll try and get through this.

23 Other than the telephone call you

24 received from an in-house lawyer at Morgan

25 Stanley advising you we wanted to take your

Page 58

1 Smith
2 deposition, you have not had any discussions
3 with any Morgan Stanley personnel relating to
4 my client's claims against Morgan Stanley?
5 A. Had a face-to-face meeting with a
6 lawyer from Morgan Stanley.
7 Q. When was that?
8 A. It was yesterday.
9 Q. That was to prepare for your
10 testimony today?
11 A. That was to prepare for the
12 testimony today.
13 Q. Other than that conversation, have
14 you had any discussions with anyone at Morgan
15 Stanley relating to my client's claims?
16 A. No.
17 Q. What did you do to prepare for your
18 testimony today, sir?
19 A. Sat down with counsel and reviewed
20 documents.
21 Q. And on what occasions did you meet
22 with counsel to prepare for today?
23 A. I'm sorry, on what occasion?
24 Q. Right.
25 A. You mean like when?

Page 59

1 Smith
2 Q. Yes.
3 A. Yesterday.
4 Q. Any other occasions?
5 A. No.
6 Q. With whom did you meet yesterday?
7 A. With this attorney from Morgan
8 Stanley and counsel.
9 Q. With Mr. Clare?
10 A. Mr. Clare.
11 Q. Do you remember the name of the 12 in-house person at Morgan Stanley?
13 A. Jim Doyle?
14 MR. CLARE: If you remember.
15 A. That's all I remember.
16 Q. Anyone else present at the 17 meetings?
18 A. No.
19 Q. Where did it take place?
20 A. It took place at Bear Stearns.
21 Q. How long did you meet with him?
22 A. About several hours.
23 Q. Can you tell me approximately how 24 many?
25 A. Three-plus.

Page 60

1 Smith
2 Q. Did they show you some documents?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Did any of those documents refresh
5 your recollection on matters?
6 A. In a limited way I guess.
7 Q. What documents did they show you
8 that refreshed your recollection?
9 A. There was a variety of documents.
10 It included the offering memorandum on the 11 bank transaction, some press releases, that 12 type of thing.
13 Q. Did they review any testimony of 14 others with you?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Did they review notes of the 17 meeting that had taken place at the U.S.
18 Attorney's Office?
19 A. No.
20 Q. Do you know if either Mr. Doyle or
21 Mr. Clare had notes relating to the interview
22 you had given to the U.S. Attorney's office?
23 A. No idea.
24 Q. Other than the documents that you
25 were shown during the course of this session

Page 61

1 Smith
2 yesterday with Mr. Doyle and Mr. Clare, did
3 you spend any other time reviewing documents?
4 A. No.
5 Q. Did you use E-mail to communicate
6 back in 1998, sir, while you were at Morgan
7 Stanley?
8 A. No, I don't remember doing it.
9 Q. Did you ever use E-mail while you
10 were at Morgan Stanley?
11 A. Limitly, in a limited manner.
12 Q. During what time period?
13 A. Mostly towards the last two or 14 three years.
15 Q. When you left Morgan Stanley in 16 2003 did you have a personal computer at the 17 office?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. Do you know whether there were any
20 E-mails or electronic documents on that 21 computer that related in any way to the 22 Sunbeam transactions?
23 A. I do not.
24 Q. So it is possible that your
25 personal computer could have had E-mails or

16 (Pages 58 to 61)

Page 62

1 Smith

2 electronic documents relating to the Sunbeam

3 transaction?

4 A. I'm not a computer genius, but the

5 computer I had was, I only had for a couple

6 of years, so I guess it is not.

7 Q. But you don't know?

8 A. Don't know for sure, no.

9 Q. When you left do you know what

10 happened to your personal computer?

11 A. I do not.

12 Q. You didn't take it with you?

13 A. No, it wasn't mine.

14 Q. Do you know if anyone took any

15 steps to preserve the contents of that

16 computer when you left?

17 A. I do not.

18 Q. Do you know if that computer was

19 reviewed at any time after my client filed

20 its lawsuit against Morgan Stanley in 2003,

21 to determine whether it had on it any

22 documents relating to Sunbeam?

23 MR. CLARE: Objection, no

24 foundation, calls for speculation.

25 A. No idea.

Page 63

1 Smith

2 Q. You don't know one way or the

3 other?

4 A. No.

5 Q. You have no knowledge of it being

6 reviewed at least; is that correct?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Mr. Smith, when did you first

9 become aware that a team of Morgan Stanley

10 investment bankers was working with Sunbeam?

11 A. Tough to say, long time ago. My

12 recollection would be that it would be early

13 '98.

14 Q. Is there a particular event that

15 you relate your first knowledge of Morgan

16 Stanley investment bankers working with

17 somebody?

18 A. The event would be a phone call

19 from Bill Strong inquiring whether our

20 interest in arranging a potential financing

21 for Sunbeam in connection with some

22 acquisitions.

23 Q. Did he identify the potential

24 acquisitions?

25 A. I don't recall.

Page 64

1 Smith

2 Q. Do you recall if those acquisitions

3 turned out to be the acquisition of Coleman

4 company, First Alert, Signature Brand?

5 A. Could have been. It is very

6 general and the conversation like this I had

7 all the time about potential acquisitions, so

8 I think in this case it is still a formative

9 stage.

10 Q. You don't recall as you sit here

11 today whether this call from Mr. Strong

12 related to whether you were interested in

13 potentially structuring financing for

14 Sunbeam's acquisition for some company other

15 than the three companies it ended up

16 acquiring?

17 A. Maybe I'll put it a different way.

18 I think those companies were mentioned. It

19 was unclear whether it was going to be all

20 three, two of them or one.

21 Q. But it ended up being, the

22 financing that Mr. Strong was inquiring about

23 ended up being the financing that was in fact

24 put in place by your group, right?

25 A. For those three properties.

Page 65

1 Smith

2 Q. Did you have any knowledge that Mr.

3 Strong and others were working with Sunbeam

4 earlier with respect to other potential

5 target companies?

6 A. Not then.

7 Q. Were you involved in any Sunbeam

8 activities in 1997 that you can recall?

9 A. 1997, no. I do not recall being

10 involved.

11 Q. Do you believe that you were not?

12 A. I believe I was not.

13 Q. Were you aware that Morgan

14 Stanley's ability to arrange large amounts of 15 financing was being promoted to Sunbeam by

16 Morgan Stanley investment bankers as a reason

17 for retaining Morgan Stanley to provide

18 investment banking services?

19 A. I was not.

20 Q. Were you aware that in August of 21 1997 you were identified as a member of the 22 Morgan Stanley Sunbeam team?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Would it surprise you that without

25 your knowledge you have been identified by

Page 67 1 Smith 2 It is the way we received it. 3 A. I don't recollect seeing this. 4 Q. You see it's labelled in the first 5 page "Project Laser Discussion Material 6 August 8, 1997"? 7 A. Uhm-hmm. 8 Q. Do you recall Morgan Stanley's work 9 for Sunbeam was referred to as Project Laser? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Let me direct your attention to the 12 page where it has Bates number 65772, it is 13 towards the end of the document. 14 A. Towards the end of it? 15 Q. 772, correct. 16 A. Uhm-hmm. 17 Q. Do you see that page is entitled 18 "Project Laser, the Morgan Stanley team"? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. You see in the bottom left-hand 21 corner there is a box for debt capital 22 markets banks? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And your name appears there, 25 correct?	Page 69 1 Smith 2 You will also notice here they had 3 people from the credit function and people 4 from Princess Gate on this, so I would view 5 this as a very generic pitch page. 6 Q. Do you know what the purpose would 7 be of listing your group? 8 A. No, I would not. 9 Q. Let me direct your attention to the 10 next page of this document, it bears Bates 11 65773. It is entitled "Project Laser Global 12 Leveraged Lending Capabilities." It states 13 "Morgan Stanley has the ability to provide 14 below investment grade clients with financing 15 at every level of the capital structure." 16 Do you understand that? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Was it your understanding that 19 Sunbeam was a below investment grade company? 20 MR. CLARE: During what time 21 period? 22 MR. MARKOWSKI: 1997, 1998. 23 A. Again I didn't know that this was 24 done. I don't know what Sunbeam's credit 25 ratings were at that time, investment grade,

Page 70 1 Smith 2 noninvestment grade. 3 Q. Do you see the entry that reads 4 "seasoned leverage lending professionals"? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. I would like you to read that, the 7 description next to that to yourself. It has 8 the words "Groups of 12 dedicated 9 professionals"? 10 A. Uhm-hmm. 11 Q. Does that accurately describe your 12 group at the time? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Below that there is another heading 15 that reads "Armed With One-Stop Shopping." 16 Do you see that? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Would you read that to yourself 19 also. Let me read it into the record, so it 20 is clear what we're talking about. 21 It reads "Seamless execution 22 coordinated among MSSF, Morgan Stanley's 23 bridge and private equity funds and top rank 24 high yield public equity M&A groups." 25 Do you see that?	Page 72 1 Smith 2 A. I think the investment banking 3 function is broader, but I don't know. 4 Is there investment banking listed 5 here? 6 Q. Was it common for Morgan Stanley 7 investment bankers to represent to potential 8 clients that Morgan Stanley both could 9 provide investment banking advisory services 10 and then assist the company directly or 11 indirectly in raising the funds necessary to 12 complete the acquisitions that were arranged 13 through the investment banking group? 14 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for 15 speculation. 16 A. Yes, I mean I obviously wasn't on 17 every page so I have no idea how common or 18 uncommon it was. 19 Q. You were part of the financing 20 activity. Was it something that you 21 understood to be taking place? 22 A. When you say "taking place," do you 23 mean taking place 1 percent of the time, 2 24 percent of the time. 25 Q. Common?
Page 71 1 Smith 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Do you have any understanding what 4 the reference to one-stop shopping means in 5 the context of this statement? 6 A. The, again this was a standard 7 pitch page that was included in a lot of 8 presentations to companies. 9 The idea here was that a variety of 10 services could be provided by Morgan Stanley, 11 very similar to what our competitors were 12 also tallying at the time. 13 Q. And those activities would range 14 from what, sir, to what in this context? 15 A. In this context where you just read 16 it would include Morgan Stanley Senior 17 Funding, Morgan Stanley bridge, private 18 equity, high yield, public equity, and M&A. 19 Q. The reference to M&A is to what 20 function, sir, do you know? 21 Do you have any understanding? 22 A. I guess it would be mergers and 23 acquisitions. 24 Q. Is that sometimes referred to as 25 the investment banking function?	Page 73 1 Smith 2 A. I don't know what common means. 3 Q. Was it your understanding that 4 Morgan Stanley -- let me take a step back, 5 sir. 6 Was it your understanding that one 7 of the reasons why Morgan Stanley wanted you 8 to come to Morgan Stanley to establish the 9 ability to fund leveraged loans and to 10 syndicate them, was to assist Morgan Stanley 11 in obtaining investment banking related 12 engagements? 13 A. My understanding was that they want 14 to have the leverage loan capability to help 15 them garner more high yield business per se. 16 Q. Did you understand another 17 objective was to obtain more investment 18 banking engagements as a result of the 19 ability to provide that kind of funding? 20 A. No. 21 Q. That was never expressed to you as 22 an objective? 23 A. No, it was not. 24 Q. Were you aware that -- 25 A. Excuse me, are we finished with

2 this?

3 Q. Yes.

4 Q. You were aware that the Morgan

5 Stanley investment banking team was concerned

6 that it might lose the financing assignments

7 relating to any acquisitions Sunbeam obtained

8 to Chase Securities?

9 A. I don't know if I would have worded

10 it that way. I think they felt that Chase

11 was a competitor that could get the financing

12 business because of their existing

13 relationship with Sunbeam.

14 Q. You understood that Chase

15 Securities had an existing relationship with

16 Sunbeam?

17 A. Yes, I did, as did First Union and

18 Bank of America.

19 Q. What was the nature of Chase

20 Securities' relationship with Sunbeam?

21 MR. CLARE: Objection. Objection,

22 no foundation. You can answer if you know.

23 A. The only thing that I know that

24 they had were they were the lead on their

25 bank loan. And by "the lead" I mean their

Page 75

1 Smith

2 agent or the administrative agent.

3 Q. The bank loan is what, sir?

4 A. They had a, I think a small

5 revolving credit, multi-year. Chase was the

6 admin agent. First Union, Bank America were

7 two large lenders, participants in that, two

8 syndicate members.

9 Q. Do you know who Mark Davis is?

10 A. From where?

11 Q. Chase Securities.

12 A. No, I don't think so.

13 Q. You were never told that Mark Davis

14 of Chase Securities had a relationship with

15 Mr. Dunlap as a result of work that Mr. Davis

16 had done for Mr. Dunlap at other companies?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Have you ever seen the engagement

19 letter between Morgan Stanley and Sunbeam,

20 sir?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. When did you see that?

23 A. I think at various times.

24 Q. What would have been your reason

25 for seeing that engagement letter?

Page 76

1 Smith

2 A. One, getting ready for this, and

3 then when the letter was issued to, as

4 normally as, or I think in this case so it

5 kind of after the fact or right before they

6 signed the final one.

7 Q. I show you what we marked

8 previously as CPH Exhibit 70, it is a letter

9 dated September 5, 1997 Morgan Stanley

10 stationery from Bill Strong to Albert Dunlap.

11 A. Okay.

12 Q. Take a moment to look at this for 13 me, sir.

14 A. Okay.

15 Q. Do you recall seeing the Morgan

16 Stanley engagement letter prior to September

17 5, 1997, sir?

18 A. I do not recall seeing it prior to

19 September 5, 1997.

20 Q. So is it your recollection you did

21 not see the engagement letter prior to it

22 being entered into?

23 A. Yes, that's my recollection.

24 Q. Do you recall now having looked at

25 it, how soon after September 1997 you first

Page 77

1 Smith

2 saw the engagement letter?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Do you recall that in fact you did

5 see it prior to the closing of the 6 transactions in the first quarter of 1998?

7 A. I'm not sure.

8 Q. Were you aware that as part of the 9 Sunbeam engagement letter, Sunbeam had agreed

10 to retain Morgan Stanley on mutually

11 agreeable terms to assist in connection with 12 any necessary financing?

13 MR. CLARE: Objection to the 14 extent it mischaracterizes the document.

15 A. That's not what this says.

16 Q. Let me direct your attention to the

17 second -- the first full paragraph on the 18 third page of the letter.

19 A. Uhm-hmm.

20 Q. It reads "If in connection with

21 this assignment Sunbeam effects a repurchase

22 of or public sale or private placement of any

23 equity referred or debt securities, or

24 Sunbeam effects real estate financings, asset

25 or property sales and some reasonable portion

Page 78

1 Smith

2 of investment banking services, in connection

3 with Sunbeam agrees to offer Morgan Stanley

4 on mutually agreeable terms to assist it with

5 such transaction."

6 Is it your understanding that that

7 did not encompass --

8 A. This is boilerplate. Mutually

9 acceptable terms means you have to come with

10 the transaction so both sides have to agree,

11 so there is nothing that ties them, Sunbeam

12 to Morgan Stanley, to do this.

13 Q. Is it your understanding this

14 didn't create a binding obligation on

15 Sunbeam's part?

16 A. Not at all. This is boilerplate.

17 Q. Is it your understanding that this

18 does relate to the financing activities that

19 Sunbeam may need in the event that it engages

20 in an acquisition covered by the terms of 21 this engagement letter?

22 A. Why don't you say that again.

23 Q. Is it your understanding that the 24 language that I just read to you from this

25 engagement letter pertains to financing

Page 79

1 Smith

2 activities related to any acquisition that

3 Sunbeam executes, that is covered by this

4 engagement letter?

5 A. Well, again I guess I don't know

6 what you're driving at or mean. One, this is

7 boilerplate. Two, what this states is that

8 if there is some financing by the way we, we

9 might be able to strike a mutually acceptable

10 deal with them to help provide the financing.

11 Q. Is it typical that Morgan Stanley

12 seeks to involve itself in financing aspects

13 of the investment banking transactions?

14 A. I'm sorry, do you say is it usual?

15 Q. Yes.

16 A. Don't know.

17 Q. Is the opportunity to provide

18 financing another way that Morgan Stanley

19 realizes fee income?

20 A. Yes, as do other institutions.

21 Q. You're aware, sir, that in first

22 quarter of 1998 Sunbeam signed an agreement

23 to acquire my client's interests in Coleman

24 company?

25 A. Yes.

Page 80

1 Smith

2 Q. And in connection with that

3 transaction Morgan Stanley was in fact

4 retained by Sunbeam to provide financing for

5 it, correct?

6 A. I don't know about the chronology,

7 but -- well, you know what, I don't know if

8 that is right. I don't know when we were

9 retained by them to do the financing.

10 Q. Do you recall that Sunbeam retained

11 Morgan Stanley to arrange financing for its

12 acquisition of Coleman company prior to the

13 closing of the acquisition of my client's

14 interest in Coleman?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Who within Morgan Stanley, sir, was

17 involved in the financing arrangements

18 relating to the acquisition of my client's

19 interests in Coleman company?

20 A. The financing arrangements? Do you

21 mean specifically the loan?

22 Q. Any aspect of the financing.

23 A. Would that include the convertibles

24 as well?

25 Q. Yes.

Page 81

1 Smith

2 A. Then my list would be limited

3 because I don't know all of the people that

4 were involved.

5 Conceptually there were people from

6 our group which would be the Morgan Stanley

7 senior loan, there would be people from

8 credit, there would be people from high yield

9 research, there would be people from the 10 convertible desk, there would be people from

11 equity capital market, and I don't even know

12 if that is exhaustive, as well as the 13 execution group. So to summarize, many, many

14 people involved.

15 Q. Who from the leveraged finance

16 group is involved?

17 A. There were probably three or four

18 of us, myself, Michael Hart -- Michael Hart,

19 Tom Burchill, and towards the end Simon

20 Rankin.

21 Q. Do you recall who was involved in

22 the equity capital markets group?

23 A. I do not.

24 Q. Did you have any interaction with

25 them in connection with the underwriting of

Page 82

1 Smith
2 the senior loan?
3 A. No.
4 Q. So you didn't exchange
5 information -- let me take a step back.
6 Do you recall if Ruth Porat was
7 involved in convertible debt?
8 A. I do, yes.
9 Q. Did you have any communication with 10 her at any point prior to the closing on the 11 senior loan relating to Sunbeam?
12 A. Did I have any communications prior
13 to the closing of the loan, yes.
14 Q. What do you recall about those 15 communications?
16 A. Well, a couple of things. The --
17 because this was a large financing and many 18 individuals at Morgan Stanley from many 19 groups were involved. There was a sharing of
20 information.
21 Number two, when, just before we
22 closed the loan there was some issues
23 regarding sales in the first quarter, some
24 press releases and so worked with the firm I
25 guess, and she was one of the members of the

Page 83

1 Smith
2 group in terms of investigating this.
3 Q. Do you recall any other
4 communications that you had with anyone else
5 in equity capital markets relating to
6 Sunbeam?
7 A. I do not.
8 Q. So the only point of contact you
9 had was with Ruth Porat?
10 A. To the best of my recollection.
11 Q. Do you know if other people within 12 leveraged finance had communications with 13 Miss Porat?
14 A. I do not know.
15 Q. Do you know whether other people
16 within the leveraged finance group had
17 communications with anyone else in equity
18 capital markets relating to this?
19 A. I do not.
20 Q. You indicated that there was 21 sharing of information relating to the 22 financings between leveraged finance and 23 equity capital markets.
24 Did I understand that correctly?
25 A. Yes.

Page 84

1 Smith
2 Q. What was the nature of the
3 information being shared?
4 A. Let me be more specific. At Morgan
5 Stanley there was a group, I don't know what
6 they call it now, the execution group. I
7 think they called it CSG then. And once the 8 transaction was one, then they were the 9 people that chaperoned the process, knew all
10 of the transactions. They were the 11 executioners as we called them.
12 John Tyree was the representative
13 from CSG who was the quarterback of putting 14 together a lot of this. And in this capacity
15 he was the point person and we were able to,
16 we being the loan group as well as equity
17 capital markets, use a lot of the work that 18 he did. And a lot of this we did together,
19 some of it we relied on him, sometimes he 20 relied on us.
21 Again it was a massive effort on 22 the part of the firm. At any one time 10 to 23 20 people working on this thing.
24 Q. We're going to go through that in 25 more detail.

Page 85

1 Smith
2 In the first quarter of 1998 what
3 was the nature of your personal activity
4 relating to the underwriting of the Sunbeam
5 loan?
6 A. Well, as the manager of the group,
7 the ultimate responsibility was, and decision
8 I guess was at least -- decision is the wrong
9 word. The ultimate responsibility was mine.
10 We had a very strenuous credit approval
11 process with many of the individuals that I
12 had mentioned before as part of the credit
13 committee at the time that got involved with 14 the final yes or no.
15 It was our group that was
16 responsible, the people that work for me that 17 were responsible for doing a lot of the due
18 diligence and the structuring and then the 19 rest on the loan. So in that way it was in a
20 supervisory capacity.
21 Q. Do you recall what activities you
22 personally engaged in?
23 A. Partly I guess. Worked with the,
24 specifically on the loan side, what was the 25 right structure, i.e., how much A loan, how

Page 86

1 Smith
2 much B loan, what should be the prices, what
3 should be the fees. More generically asking
4 questions about the credit, the combined
5 entity.
6 And once when one of the team
7 members was unable to attend I went down for 8 a, one of the due diligence meetings down in 9 Florida.
10 Q. There are two principal aspects of 11 the Sunbeam financing which was ultimately
12 put in place, correct, sir, the senior loan
13 and the convertible debenture offering?
14 A. Uhm-hmm.
15 Q. You have to answer audibly.
16 A. I'm sorry, yes.
17 Q. Who was involved in the 18 decision-making with respect to how much
19 money would be raised through the convertible
20 debenture offering and how much money would 21 be provided through the senior loan?
22 A. I'm sorry, you say who made that
23 decision?
24 Q. Yes.
25 A. It was kind of a group, a group

Page 87

1 Smith
2 decision. Obviously people at Morgan Stanley
3 had, were involved as well as the company.
4 Q. Were you involved in that process?
5 A. Tangentially.
6 Q. Did you provide a recommendation
7 concerning how much of the debt should be
8 raised through the senior loan and how much
9 of it should be raised through the
10 convertible debenture?
11 A. Initially we did, which was the 12 original structure, and then when the 13 convertible increased in size, then had input
14 into terms of how much to take of the, or how 15 much they should use and then how to reduce 16 the loan to take advantage of the extra money
17 they were able to raise in the convertible
18 market.
19 Q. What you are referring to is the 20 fact that originally it was contemplated that 21 500 million would be raised through the 22 convertible debenture offering?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. And subsequently that was changed
25 to be something more like 750 million?

Page 88

1 Smith
2 A. Yes.
3 Q. Were you involved in any
4 decision-making or involved in making
5 recommendations with respect to that change?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Do you know who made that decision?
8 A. I think the company eventually made
9 that decision. It is only speculation on my 10 part.
11 Q. Do you know if anyone at Morgan
12 Stanley had a view on that issue?
13 A. No.
14 Q. Did you have a view?
15 A. Not really.
16 Q. Did you consider it to be a good
17 development with respect to the senior loan
18 or a negative development with respect to the 19 senior loan, that the company had raised an 20 additional $250 million through the
21 convertible debenture?
22 A. I thought it was a positive
23 development.
24 Q. Why is that?
25 A. Because it was more junior capital

Page 89

1 Smith
2 in the, in the capital structure so the loans
3 were, were more, were better off.
4 Q. Is that sometimes referred to as
5 there being more cushion?
6 A. I have heard people use that
7 expression.
8 Q. Is that an expression you've used?
9 A. I don't recall.
10 Q. In any event, you consider it to be 11 the fact that the company raised an
12 additional $250 million through the
13 convertible debenture offering to be a
14 positive development with respect to Morgan
15 Stanley's exposure on the senior loan?
16 A. I viewed it as a positive
17 development in terms of a senior lender to 18 the company, which would be ourselves and 19 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Bank of 20 America and First Union. I thought it also 21 enhanced our ability to distribute it.
22 Q. You thought in general senior
23 lenders would view that as a positive?
24 A. As a positive outcome.
25 Q. What due diligence activity did you

1 Smith
 2 personally engage in prior to the closing of
 3 the senior loan, sir?
 4 A. It was rather limited. We had
 5 other people tasked with the job and in my 6 cart, but I did go on that one trip down to
 7 Florida.
 8 Q. Do you recall if that one trip took
 9 place in early March?
 10 A. I don't remember. That's probably
 11 about right.
 12 Q. Let me see if we can pin this down
 13 in time a little bit.
 14 Let me show you, sir, what was
 15 previously marked as CPH Exhibit Number 74.
 16 It is a letter dated March 5, 1998 on Morgan
 17 Stanley stationery, signed by you, directed
 18 to Russell Kersh at Sunbeam.
 19 Can you tell me what this letter
 20 is, sir?
 21 A. Give me a second, please.
 22 Q. Sure.
 23 A. This looks like a highly confident
 24 letter.
 25 Q. Do you recall whether you provided

1 Smith
 2 this letter to Sunbeam before or after your
 3 trip to Florida?
 4 A. I don't recall.
 5 Q. Let me show you what we marked
 6 previously as CPH Number 37. It is a
 7 two-page document bearing Bates Morgan
 8 Stanley confidential 45317 through 45318. It
 9 is an itinerary for Mr. Tyree's travel to 10 Florida on March 4 and March 5, 1998, sir?
 11 A. Uhm-hmm.
 12 Q. You see that in the third line
 13 there is a reference to you, Seth Shaan, Tom 14 Burchill and Michael Hart as part of the 15 team?
 16 A. I do.
 17 Q. Do you believe this is a reference
 18 to the trip to Florida that you took?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. Do you recall that Mr. Tyree was 21 part of the team at the Florida meeting?
 22 A. I do.
 23 Q. Do you recall whether Mr. Hart was
 24 there?
 25 A. I believe he was not.

1 Smith
 2 Q. Do you recall if Seth Shaan, Tom
 3 Burchill were there?
 4 A. I don't recall.
 5 Q. Is the reason why you went on this
 6 trip that Michael Hart could not?
 7 A. That is my recollection.
 8 Q. Prior to the trip to Florida in 9 early March where you visited Sunbeam, had 10 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding itself done
 11 any, do any due diligence relating to the 12 possibility of structuring a senior loan to
 13 Sunbeam?
 14 A. I don't recall the exact sequencing
 15 of it, but we did have -- we -- so I don't 16 remember when we started getting involved in 17 terms of looking at the, looking at the 18 projections and thinking about loan
 19 structures.
 20 Q. Would it be fair to say that by the 21 time you sent your March 5, 1998 highly 22 confident letter to Mr. Kersh, that Morgan
 23 Stanley Senior Funding had substantially
 24 completed its due diligence related to the 25 financing?

1 Smith
 2 A. Oh, quite the contrary. We had
 3 looked at a lot of the available information
 4 and accepted it at face.
 5 As you see here in the letter, we
 6 said there is a lot more work to do. We said
 7 this is our preliminary understanding, that
 8 we had lots of work to do to include getting,
 9 completing due diligence. That no way this
 10 was -- and that's I guess that first full
 11 paragraph on the second page where we talk
 12 about material address change in conditions
 13 and business results and the prospects of the 14 company.
 15 I think we also had in here
 16 someplace about the, we have to complete the 17 due diligence. And that no way could this be 18 construed to be a commitment by Morgan
 19 Stanley to lend the money or to underwrite
 20 the deal.
 21 And I think the operative paragraph
 22 here is that we were highly confident that
 23 this could be syndicated in the general known
 24 market.
 25 Q. Have you finished your answer?

Page 94

1 Smith

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Sir, is it your testimony, sir,

4 that Morgan Stanley Senior Funding had not

5 substantially completed its due diligence as

6 of the time it provided Sunbeam with a highly

7 confident letter?

8 A. It is my testimony that it had not

9 completed its due diligence prior to issuing

10 this letter.

11 Q. Right.

12 A. With the caveats that I just

13 mentioned.

14 Q. My question is whether it was

15 substantially complete by this point in time?

16 A. I don't know what that might mean,

17 but there was a lot more to do and I think

18 this letter reflected that.

19 Q. Let me put it this way: Did you

20 think that most of Morgan Stanley Senior

21 Funding's due diligence relating to the

22 underwriting of the senior loan was completed

23 by the time you provided the highly confident

24 letter to Mr. Kersh on March 5, 1998?

25 A. I don't think that most had been

Page 95

1 Smith

2 done by then, but that is a very vague term.

3 Q. Was it the policy of Morgan Stanley

4 that highly confident letters relating to

5 financings should not be issued until

6 substantially all necessary due diligence was

7 completed?

8 A. It -- why don't we say that again.

9 What did you say?

10 Q. Was it the policy of Morgan Stanley

11 that highly confident letters relating to

12 financings should not be issued by the firm

13 until substantially all necessary due

14 diligence had been completed?

15 A. There -- I don't follow you.

16 Q. Was it the policy of Morgan

17 Stanley -- I think it is a fairly simple

18 statement, sir.

19 A. Why don't you go slow.

20 Q. I will. Was it the policy of 21 Morgan Stanley that highly confident

22 letters --

23 A. Like this.

24 Q. -- relating to financing should not

25 be issued until such time as substantially

Page 96

1 Smith

2 all necessary due diligence was completed?

3 A. Well, I'm having a brain aneurysm,

4 I don't know what you're trying to get to.

5 Q. You don't know one way or the other

6 as you sit here today whether Morgan

7 Stanley's policy was --

8 A. I'm not commenting on Morgan

9 Stanley's policy.

10 Q. I'm asking you --

11 A. No comment, no idea.

12 Q. My question is this and I want your

13 knowledge, I'm entitled to your knowledge.

14 A. As best as I can remember.

15 Q. Yes. Is it your testimony that you

16 have no knowledge as you sit here today,

17 whether it was the policy of Morgan Stanley

18 in March of 1998 that the firm should not

19 issue highly confident letters relating to

20 potential financing until such time as

21 substantially all necessary due diligence was

22 completed?

23 A. My understanding was that there

24 would be letters like this issued after it

25 was vetted internally, and the amount of due

Page 97

1 Smith

2 diligence completed before the issuance of

3 this letter would vary.

4 Q. You have no knowledge that there

5 was a requirement that substantially all of

6 necessary due diligence be complete?

7 A. Those are your terms and I'm not

8 aware of any of those, that concept.

9 Q. Who made the decision to issue the 10 highly confident letter on March 5?

11 A. This was a group decision that was

12 vetted by many of the senior people at the 13 firm.

14 Q. You didn't have the authority

15 yourself to issue the March 5 letter?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Who needed to provide approval?

18 A. This would --

19 Q. Let me ask you a different

20 question. Who did provide approval?

21 A. I don't recall exactly, but it

22 would be the people on the Credit Committee,

23 I don't even remember who was the head then

24 of the Credit Committee, and then other

25 senior members of the Credit Committee.

MARKOWSKI: 10 Q. Mr. Smith, back to the March 5 11 highly confident letter. 12 Describe to me the process that was 13 used at Morgan Stanley in reaching a decision 14 to issue this letter. 15 A. The decision would be a, would be 16 similar to the credit approval process, 17 realizing that we had less than the complete 18 information that we would need to make a 19 credit decision. 20 And by that I mean that a lot of 21 the due diligence would be ongoing, not yet 22 complete, that our views expressed in these 23 highly confident letters such as this, are 24 dated March 5, would, would relate to taking 25 a lot of the information given to us at face	Page 100 1 Smith 2 Q. Do you know who was in 1998? 3 A. I think it had been Mr. Steve 4 Newhouse. 5 Q. How did that process work, did the 6 committee take a vote with respect to whether 7 a letter -- let me ask you a specific 8 question. 9 Do you recall that a committee vote 10 was taken with respect to the authorization 11 issued on March 5 had the confident letter 12 disseminated? 13 A. I don't remember specifically 14 whether there was a vote. I don't remember. 15 Q. Is that typically the way the 16 process works, the committee takes a vote 17 with respect to whether to approve the 18 issuance of a highly confident letter or a 19 credit, or is it something other than that? 20 A. That is typically how it would 21 work. 22 Q. Who initiated the process with 23 respect to review of the question whether to 24 issue a highly confident letter to Sunbeam; 25 did you?
Page 99 1 Smith 2 value, i.e., the audited financials, i.e., 3 the projections, and the rest. 4 And then based on that was our, we 5 would then come up with a decision on the 6 part of the firm, voiced to the Credit 7 Committee, whether we would be authorized to 8 send out a highly confident letter such as 9 the one here. 10 Q. Was there any sign-off process in 11 place that required that formal written 12 approval be given for letters such as this? 13 A. It was not a sign-off procedure. 14 It was a meeting that was, that we had a 15 chairman and that approved credits as well as 16 sending out these highly confident letters. 17 Q. That committee was the Leveraged 18 Finance Committee? 19 A. It sounds right, but don't hold me 20 a hundred percent for the name. It changed a 21 lot. 22 Q. Were you on that committee? 23 A. I was on the committee. 24 Q. Were you the chairman? 25 A. I was not the chairman.	Page 101 1 Smith 2 A. Initiate's a funny word. Probably 3 Mr. Strong and myself were the, would take 4 the lead on this. 5 Q. Why Mr. Strong? 6 A. The procedure at Morgan Stanley was 7 that the banker, i.e., the person who was 8 responsible for the client would be actively 9 involved in all, in proposing extensions of 10 credit or underwritings for their client. 11 Q. So Mr. Strong had to endorse this 12 as part of the internal procedure Morgan 13 Stanley? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Do you recall that Mr. Strong asked 16 you to consider to issue a highly confident 17 letter to Sunbeam? 18 A. I recall that he wanted a highly 19 confident letter from Morgan Stanley to 20 Sunbeam. 21 Q. How did you know that Mr. Strong 22 wanted a highly confident letter? 23 A. I think he -- we talked about it 24 and we thought that was helpful in helping us 25 secure the financing.

26 (Pages 98 to 101)

1 Smith

2 Q. So you and Mr. Strong discussed

3 whether Morgan Stanley should issue a highly

4 confident letter?

5 A. No, Mr. Strong and I discussed

6 whether we should go seek approval from

7 Morgan Stanley to issue a highly confident

8 letter.

9 Q. And Mr. Strong wanted Morgan

10 Stanley to issue a highly confident letter

11 because he thought it would be helpful to 12 Morgan Stanley in obtaining the assignment to 13 arrange for the financing, correct?

14 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for

15 speculation.

16 A. I can't comment for sure what he

17 was thinking.

18 Q. Did Mr. Strong say to you in words

19 or substance I would like us to be able to

20 issue a highly confident letter to Sunbeam in

21 connection with the financing for the Coleman

22 acquisition because that will be helpful to

23 us in our efforts to obtain that engagement?

24 A. I think he said to the committee

25 that form and substance about what you said,

Page 103

1 Smith

2 that this would be useful in positioning

3 ourselves to seek the financing if that's

4 what we wanted to do.

5 Q. Now, was it clear to the committee

6 in connection with the issuance of -- let me

7 ask a foundational question.

8 Was there an actual meeting of the 9 committee in connection with the decision to

10 issue the March 5 highly confident letter?

11 A. Don't recall for sure, but I

12 believe so.

13 Q. Do you recall being present at such

14 a meeting?

15 A. I do recall, yes. If there was a

16 meeting I was there. And I think there was a

17 meeting.

18 Q. To discuss the issuance of the

19 March 5 --

20 A. To discuss the issuance of this

21 highly confident letter.

22 Q. Do you recall whether the committee

23 at that meeting was advised that a

24 substantial amount of due diligence remained

25 to be done before Morgan Stanley could

Page 104

1 Smith

2 actually commit to make the loan?

3 A. I don't know if I would use the

4 word "substantial." They were certainly

5 aware that there was ongoing work and work to

6 be done.

7 And also what happened here is that

8 once that work was complete it was understood

9 because this was the policy, is to come back

10 to the Credit Committee for approval of what

11 exactly was being asked for.

12 Q. How would issuing a highly

13 confident letter be helpful in Morgan

14 Stanley's efforts to obtain the financing

15 engagement?

16 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for

17 speculation.

18 A. I don't know what Bill was thinking

19 with the company. I don't know.

20 Q. Did Mr. Strong explain his thinking

21 to you?

22 A. No

23 Q. Do you have any views of your own,

24 based on your many years of experience in

25 this business that would provide you with a

Page 105

1 Smith

2 basis for understanding how the issuance of a

3 highly confident letter might assist Mr.

4 Strong in obtaining the financing engagement

5 from Sunbeam?

6 A. Not really. It's also situational,

7 so personal, and I had no knowledge of Kersh

8 or Dunlap before that.

9 Q. Before this March 5 letter was

10 issued did you have any direct communications

11 with Mr. Kersh or Mr. Dunlap personally?

12 A. I'm hesitating because the -- I'm

13 trying to remember the first time I met him

14 and that might have been at the board

15 meeting, and I don't remember when that day

16 was.

17 Q. The itinerary for the trip to

18 Florida indicates --

19 A. They might have even been there.

20 Does it say that? I'm sorry.

21 Q. We'll get there. Here is my

22 question: The itinerary for the trip to

23 Florida indicates that the meetings were

24 scheduled for March 4 and March 5. The date

25 of your highly confident letter is March 5.

1 Smith

2 Do you recall bringing the highly
3 confident letter with you and delivering it
4 personally to Mr. Kersh or Mr. Dunlap during
5 your visit to Florida?

6 A. I don't think so. I think the
7 itinerary is wrong. I think I was only there
8 for a day in and out, I didn't spend the 9 night, and so I don't believe I had this with 10 me to give them when I was down there.

11 Q. Was there something about your trip
12 to Florida that, on March 4 that bears on the 13 timing of the issuance of the letter on March 14 5?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. Do you recall you were holding onto 17 the highly confident letter until your trip
18 to Florida?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Do you recall how far in advance of 21 the issuance of a highly confident letter on 22 March 5 that Mr. Strong first approached you
23 about his desire to have Morgan Stanley
24 provide Sunbeam with such a letter?

25 A. I do not.

1 Smith

2 Q. Do you remember if it was more than 3 a week?

4 A. I do not.

5 Q. Is it possible that it was less
6 than a week?

7 A. I can't remember.

8 Q. Was there any disagreement on the 9 part of any members of the committee
10 responsible for making the decision to issue
11 this letter, concerning whether it should be 12 sent?

13 A. Not that I recall.

14 Q. Did you have any reservations
15 personally about it?

16 A. No.

17 Q. I believe you testified earlier
18 that it was your recollection, it is your
19 recollection today that your activity
20 relating to Sunbeam started in the first
21 quarter of 1998?

22 A. That's the best of my recollection.

23 Q. Was it your understanding at the 24 outset of your involvement in first quarter
25 of 1998 relating to Sunbeam, that Mr. Dunlap

1 Smith

2 had claimed to have accomplished a
3 significant improvement in Sunbeam's
4 performance and prospects?

5 A. I'm sorry, did you say prior to my
6 involvement?

7 Q. I'll ask a new question.

8 Was it your understanding at the 9 time you became involved in your work
10 relating to Sunbeam in the first quarter of 11 1998, that Mr. Dunlap had been claiming to 12 have accomplished a significant improvement
13 in Sunbeam's performance and prospects in 14 1997?

15 A. After I got involved, yes.

16 Q. Were you aware that Morgan
17 Stanley's presentation to other companies
18 concerning Sunbeam emphasized the success of 19 Mr. Dunlap's turn-around efforts at Sunbeam?

20 A. I didn't have any knowledge of
21 that.

22 Q. Did you ever become familiar, sir,
23 with statements made by Morgan Stanley to my 24 client concerning the success of Mr. Dunlap's
25 turn-around activities of the Sunbeam?

1 Smith

2 A. No knowledge at all.

3 Q. Mr. Smith, I'm going to show you
4 what we previously marked as CPH Deposition
5 Exhibit Number 71. It's a October 22, 1997
6 interoffice memorandum from the Sunbeam
7 corporation team to Morgan Stanley Worldwide
8 IBD professionals. It bears Bates stamps
9 Morgan Stanley confidential 5984 through 10 5995.

11 I would like you to take a look at 12 this, sir, and tell me whether you have ever
13 seen this document before.

14 A. I, I don't recall.

15 Q. If in fact this Morgan Stanley
16 interoffice memorandum was sent to all
17 Worldwide IBD professionals, would that have 18 included you?

19 A. I think it might have.

20 Q. IBD is a reference to Investment
21 Banking Division?

22 A. Uhm-hmm.

23 Q. You have to answer audibly.

24 A. I'm sorry, yes.

25 Q. In the ordinary course a memorandum

Page 110 1 Smith 2 directed to all IBD professionals would have 3 gone on to you as well? 4 A. That is true, as well as thousands 5 of other things, so, so I don't remember 6 seeing it. 7 Q. Let me direct your attention to the 8 third page of the document. 9 A. This one? 10 Q. The Sunbeam corporation investment 11 rationale. 12 A. Uhm-hmm. 13 Q. Read for me the four main bullet 14 points on this page. "Sunbeam represents an 15 attractive growth story in investment 16 opportunity. Sunbeam has undergone a 17 profound transformation since the arrival of 18 new management in July 1996. Tremendous 19 intrinsic value in the company. And, 20 finally, valuable opportunity to penetrate 21 and become a global market leader of branded 22 consumer devices." 23 Do you see those four bullet 24 points? 25 A. I do.	Page 112 1 Smith 2 sit here today, whether statements of this 3 sort were made by Morgan Stanley to my 4 client? 5 A. No idea. 6 Q. Were any statements of this sort, 7 sir, relating to Sunbeam's financial 8 condition and prospects made to you by any 9 members of the Sunbeam investment banking -- 10 excuse me, let me start over. 11 Were any statements of the sort 12 contained in CPH Exhibit 71 which I just read 13 to you, made to you by any Morgan Stanley 14 personnel? 15 MR. CLARE: You're asking 16 specifically with regard to the third page of 17 the exhibit? 18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Yes, the third 19 page. 20 A. I think that elements of the third 21 page were, were talked about by members of 22 the team during the process. 23 Q. So there were members of Morgan 24 Stanley personnel who were involved in the 25 investment banking activities for Sunbeam,
Page 111 1 Smith 2 Q. Was that consistent with your 3 understanding with the claims Sunbeam was 4 making in the first quarter of 1998 5 concerning the success of its turnaround? 6 A. Consistent with what Sunbeam was 7 representing? I think, yes. Probably 8 consistent. 9 Q. Do you know if these statements are 10 consistent with the statements that Morgan 11 Stanley was making to third parties on behalf 12 of Sunbeam? 13 MR. CLARE: Objection. 14 A. I have no idea. 15 MR. CLARE: No foundation. You 16 can answer. 17 Q. Do you know if the purpose of this 18 memorandum to all investment banking 19 professionals was to communicate to them 20 selling points that they should make to third 21 parties relating to Sunbeam? 22 MR. CLARE: Same objection, 23 foundation, calls for speculation. 24 A. Don't know. 25 Q. Do you have any knowledge as you	Page 113 1 Smith 2 who made statements similar to those we see 3 on the third page of this document to you? 4 A. Yes, and -- but don't forget, if 5 you look at page 3 a lot of these are 6 factual. 7 Number one market share in gas 8 grills. So if somebody tells me they're 9 number one in market share in gas grills, I 10 see it in two or three other places so that's 11 kind of a fact. 12 You can see what they have done in 13 terms of improving profitability and selling 14 some unprofitabilizations. Those are all 15 facts so, yes, a lot of this information was 16 shared by the team with people that weren't 17 as close to the company. 18 Q. Did the members of the Morgan 19 Stanley investment banking team say to you 20 that Sunbeam had accomplished a successful 21 turnaround during Mr. Dunlap's tenure? 22 A. I don't remember anybody saying 23 that specifically to me in words of that. I 24 do remember, however, conversations where we 25 look at the financials and see that margins

1 Smith

2 had improved, profits had gone up and the 3 rest.

4 Q. Did anybody on the Morgan Stanley

5 investment banking team say to you in

6 connection with your underwriting review that

7 Mr. Dunlap had accomplished some, Mr. Dunlap

8 had accomplished a substantial improvement in

9 Sunbeam's performance?

10 A. I don't know if anybody said it

11 like that, but again any comments would have

12 come up as we looked at the numbers. Again

13 those were pretty black and white in terms of 14 what you had been able, what the numbers

15 represented that the company had done under

16 his stewardship.

17 Q. Do you recall anybody on the Morgan

18 Stanley investment banking team saying to you

19 that Mr. Dunlap had accomplished great

20 success during his tenure as the CEO of

21 Sunbeam?

22 A. Never anything like that.

23 Q. That Sunbeam represented an

24 attractive growth story?

25 A. No.

Page 115

1 Smith

2 Q. That Sunbeam represented an

3 attractive investment opportunity?

4 A. Never exactly I guess those words.

5 Q. In substance?

6 A. It was more again looking at the

7 numbers, seeing what the, what that looked

8 like and then commenting, and then commenting

9 on the, what the numbers look like over the 10 last couple of years that he had been there.

11 Q. Had anyone on the investment

12 banking team suggested to you that Mr. Dunlap

13 had successfully transformed Sunbeam?

14 A. No, I don't remember those words.

15 Q. That there was tremendous intrinsic

16 value at Sunbeam?

17 A. I don't remember those words.

18 Q. Were you aware of Mr. Dunlap's

19 prior history before becoming the CEO of

20 Sunbeam?

21 A. Just very peripheral.

22 Q. Did you have any knowledge of his

23 tenure at Scott Paper?

24 A. No, other than what I read in the 25 newspapers.

Page 116

1 Smith

2 Q. Did you have any -- what was your

3 understanding generally of Mr. Dunlap's

4 reputation in the first quarter of 1998?

5 A. Generally was that he was a, he was

6 a -- I don't know how to put it. I think his

7 public image was, it was my understanding his

8 public image was he was pretty bottoms line

9 oriented and was focused on cost-cutting and

10 paring out unprofitable ventures in the

11 company.

12 Q. Was it your understanding that Mr.

13 Dunlap's reputation was as a turn-around

14 specialist?

15 A. I guess you could use that concept,

16 that word. I think that was his general

17 persona. It is certainly now his general

18 persona.

19 Q. That is the way he presents

20 himself, correct?

21 A. Yes, in all of the public stuff.

22 Q. Did you prior to the close on the

23 acquisition of my client's interest in

24 Coleman company at the end of March 1998,

25 have any reason to question Mr. Dunlap's

Page 117

1 Smith

2 turn-around accomplishments at either Sunbeam

3 or any of the other companies he had been

4 previously employed at?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Did you make any inquiry concerning

7 Mr. Dunlap's tenure at Scott Paper?

8 A. I did not personally.

9 Q. Did you have anyone do that for

10 you?

11 A. I did not specifically ask anybody

12 to do that for me.

13 Q. Did you receive any reports

14 regarding Mr. Dunlap's tenure at Scott Paper?

15 A. Not that I recall.

16 Q. Did anyone at Morgan Stanley ever

17 suggest to you that Mr. Dunlap's

18 accomplishments at Scott Paper were phony or

19 exaggerated?

20 A. Not that I recall.

21 Q. Let me show you, Mr. Smith, what we

22 previously marked as CPH Exhibit Number 68.

23 It is out of a Business Week article entitled

24 "Did CEO Dunlap Save Scott Paper Or Just

25 Pretty It Up."

30 (Pages 114 to 117)

Page 118

1 Smith

2 A. Is this July of '97, is that what

3 this says at the bottom?

4 Q. I think there are two dates on this

5 document, sir. The upper left-hand corner is

6 a January 15, 1996 date.

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. And then in the bottom right-hand

9 corner there is a July 16, 1997 date.

10 A. Uhm-hmm.

11 MR. CLARE: Bram, don't mark on

12 the document.

13 Q. It bears Bates number Morgan

14 Stanley 3995 through 4001. Take a moment to 15 look at this.

16 A. Okay.

17 Q. Have you ever seen this before?

18 A. I don't recall directly. Maybe.

19 Q. Do you recall seeing this in

20 connection with your review of Sunbeam prior

21 to the close of Sunbeam's acquisition of my

22 client, client's interests in Coleman

23 company?

24 A. One, I don't remember if I saw it

25 so you can't ask me to speculate when I might

Page 119

1 Smith

2 have seen it.

3 Q. Did you ask, does this refresh your

4 recollection whether you asked any members of

5 the Morgan Stanley due diligence team to

6 investigate reports relating to Mr. Dunlap's

7 tenure at Scott Paper?

8 A. I did not ask anybody to do that.

9 Q. Do you recall being aware that

10 there were questions being raised publicly

11 relating to Mr. Dunlap's claimed

12 accomplishments at Scott Paper?

13 A. I guess tangentially. I knew he

14 was a controversial figure.

15 Q. At the time the transactions closed

16 at the end of March 1998 did you have any

17 personal reason to question on the 18 turn-around claims that Mr. Dunlap had made

19 at Sunbeam?

20 A. Did I personally have any, no.

21 Q. Do you have any reason to question

22 his reputation as a turn-around specialist?

23 A. No.

24 Q. I'm sorry if I asked this

25 previously, but did you have any personal

Page 120

1 Smith

2 contact with Mr. Dunlap in connection with

3 your Sunbeam activities?

4 A. I think you asked that before. I'm

5 trying to remember the first time I met him,

6 it might have been at a board meeting in New

7 York.

8 Q. Was that the board meeting at which

9 the Sunbeam board voted to approve the

10 acquisition of my client's interests in

11 Coleman company?

12 A. Yes, I believe it was.

13 Q. Other than at that meeting, did you

14 have any personal involvement with Mr.

15 Dunlap?

16 A. Did you say prior?

17 Q. Other than at that meeting, prior

18 to or after.

19 A. Other than, yes. Probably on the

20 phone and maybe some face to face, certainly

21 in getting, putting together the presentation

22 for the bank investors' meeting.

23 Q. Prior to March 30 when the

24 acquisition of my client's interests in

25 Coleman company closed, had you had any

Page 121

1 Smith

2 personal contact with Mr. Dunlap other than

3 the board meeting in February?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. Is it the case that most of your

6 contact with Mr. Dunlap postdated the

7 acquisition of my client's interests in the

8 Coleman company?

9 A. Yes, I think that is true.

10 Q. And that would have meant that it

11 also postdated the closing on the senior loan

12 facility, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Did you speak at the February 1998

15 Sunbeam board meeting?

16 A. I did not. To the best of my

17 knowledge, to the best of my memory I don't

18 think I made a presentation. I might have

19 responded to questions at the board meeting.

20 Q. What was the purpose for your

21 attending the meeting?

22 A. I think to be there for questions

23 regarding the doability of the financing.

24 Q. Who asked you to attend?

25 A. Mr. Strong.

Page 122

1 Smith

2 Q. Do you recall whether you were

3 asked any questions relating to the doability

4 of the financing?

5 A. I think I was, but I can't remember

6 whether it was before or after the meeting.

7 Probably both.

8 Q. When you say before, after the 9 meeting, you mean before --

10 A. I misspoke. During the meeting and 11 then after the meeting.

12 Q. Are you referring to further

13 discussions that occurred that day?

14 A. That day, immediately after the 15 meeting when the meeting broke.

16 Q. Who do you recall asking questions

17 relating to the doability of the financing,

18 whether at the meeting itself or shortly

19 after?

20 A. The doability I think was maybe

21 from one of the board members or from Al

22 himself, and was a very short response to

23 that which was an affirmative.

24 And then after the meeting it

25 wasn't so much about the doability, it was

Page 123

1 Smith

2 more tactical with Kersh.

3 Q. So do you recall having a more

4 in-depth conversation with Mr. Kersh the same

5 day as the Sunbeam board meeting relating to

6 financing strategy?

7 A. Yes, and it was primarily related

8 to financing the syndication of this loan.

9 Q. Who else was present for that

10 discussion?

11 A. Might have been, I think it was 12 just Bill, Bill and myself and Kersh.

13 Q. Bill Strong?

14 A. Bill Strong.

15 Q. Where did that discussion take

16 place?

17 A. I think it happened right there in 18 the boardroom after it broke.

19 Q. Was that board meeting at Morgan

20 Stanley's office?

21 A. I believe it was right here in New

22 York.

23 Q. Did Mr. Kersh initiate the

24 conversation?

25 A. Mr. Strong and I might have

Page 124

1 Smith

2 initiated the conversation as I remember.

3 Q. And what was the purpose for

4 talking to Mr. Kersh on that subject?

5 A. The purpose was to outline or

6 briefly outline our thoughts in terms of who

7 would be suitable partners in the

8 underwriting of this, of this loan. And we

9 specifically mentioned Bank of America and

10 First Union.

11 Q. What was Mr. Kersh's reaction?

12 A. I guess noncommittal but

13 appreciative of the input, and I don't think

14 he really cared or thought too much about it.

15 Q. Now, what would -- at that point in

16 time, in February of 1998, what was Morgan

17 Stanley's contemplation with respect to the

18 potential role of Bank of America and First

19 Union concerning the senior loan?

20 A. As partners.

21 Q. What do you mean?

22 A. Co-underwriters.

23 Q. What would that involve?

24 A. That would involve the three of us

25 who would commit to lend the company the

Page 125

1 Smith

2 required amount of bank debt it needed to

3 accomplish these acquisitions. It meant that

4 they would participate alongside us on all of

5 the due diligence, that we could lever all of

6 them because they had been existing more --

7 not more, but existing lenders and I think

8 long-term relations.

9 So there was some institutional

10 knowledge that those institutions had about a

11 company that we could lever off of in terms

12 of in our own due diligence as well as the 13 marketing of the transaction.

14 Q. Was it contemplated that at least

15 initially those three institutions, Morgan

16 Stanley, Bank of America and First Union,

17 would provide the entire senior financing?

18 A. When you say "was it contemplated,"

19 it was certainly our hope, our thought to 20 have both of them there. And the idea was

21 that we would approach both and if one said

22 no, that was still okay.

23 Q. And the financing would then be

24 provided entirely?

25 A. By ourselves and one of the others.

Page 126

1 Smith

2 Q. Is it typical that in a loan that

3 is intended to be syndicated to a larger

4 group of banks -- to a large group of banks,

5 that in the first instance the financing will

6 be entirely provided by a smaller number, in

7 this case one or two, possibly three banks,

8 or is the syndication usually in place before

9 the funding occurs?

10 A. Well, you have asked a few

11 questions. What would normally happen is

12 that you would have a group of two, maybe

13 three banks underwrite or commit to the 14 entire loan facility. It is easier for the 15 company because they don't have to negotiate

16 with so many people.

17 And then those institutions, the

18 underwriters would then normally syndicate

19 for maybe a year prior to the close of the 20 loan and then a close of the transaction.

21 Q. Is it more typically the place that

22 the syndication occurs before the close?

23 A. Yes, it is.

24 Q. Is it fair to say that the

25 situation that you were contemplating with

Page 127

1 Smith

2 respect to Sunbeam, where Morgan Stanley

3 either by itself or perhaps with one or two

4 other banks would provide all of the 5 financing, was unusual?

6 A. I don't know about unusual, but it

7 is not the majority of the cases in the

8 United States.

9 Q. Why is it more typical that the 10 syndication takes place before the funding?

11 A. Because normally you have more time

12 and it's just really driven by the time that

13 was agreed to in the -- or the details or the 14 requirements of the deal.

15 Q. Was it the case here that there

16 wasn't sufficient time to put a syndication

17 in place before the funding was needed?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did you suggest to Mr. Strong or to 20 anyone else that it would be preferable for 21 the syndication to be put in place before the

22 funding was required?

23 A. I don't know if I suggested. We

24 certainly talked about it because it was a

25 certain risk profile to close and then

Page 128

1 Smith

2 syndicate than the flip, than the reverse.

3 But the terms of the mergers

4 required that they needed the money by that

5 certain date, not allowing us to syndicate.

6 Q. Do you know why the transactions

7 themselves were scheduled, were structured

8 that way?

9 A. I do not.

10 Q. Did you ask anyone why the need to 11 rush to close the acquisitions before the 12 funding could be obtained through the

13 syndication?

14 MR. CLARE: I object to the form

15 of the question.

16 A. I don't recall. I recall talking

17 about it, but I don't remember who or I can't

18 remember what the, you know, the final answer

19 was other than that was the terms of the 20 deal.

21 Q. Do you remember talking to -- Mr.

22 Strong in this case was the relationship

23 person at Morgan Stanley and Sunbeam,

24 correct?

25 A. I believe so.

Page 129

1 Smith

2 Q. And you indicated earlier that in

3 terms of Morgan Stanley's internal processes,

4 he was viewed as the responsible person with

5 respect to significant aspects of the 6 financing activity, correct?

7 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of

8 the question. I think that misstates his

9 prior testimony. You can answer:

10 A. Help me out, repeat that thing for 11 me.

12 Q. Let me rephrase it.

13 Mr. Strong was viewed -- let me ask

14 a more general question.

15 From your perspective what was Mr.

16 Strong's responsibility for the various

17 aspects of Morgan Stanley's work for Sunbeam?

18 A. He was the person responsible at

19 the firm for the, for the Sunbeam

20 relationship and -- full stop. So that

21 included M&A or other products, then he was

22 responsible to show those to the company.

23 Q. With respect to Morgan Stanley's

24 internal work, what were Mr. Strong's

25 responsibilities relating to Sunbeam?

Page 130

1 Smith

2 A. His internal work, as I think we

3 talked before, is that the banker, the

4 relationship manager in this case, Mr. Strong

5 has to be an advocate internally and endorse

6 a transaction for his client, and in that

7 role he did that on the senior loan.

8 Q. And he endorsed in this case this

9 plan to have Morgan Stanley loan, if

10 necessary, the entire amount of the senior

11 financing necessary to complete the 12 acquisition of my client, Coleman?

13 A. I don't know if that is exactly

14 right. I think he advocated Morgan Stanley

15 taking a leadership role, maybe even a

16 majority role. I don't remember him ever

17 suggesting that we do the whole, do the whole

18 thing.

19 Q. Did you approach Mr. Strong and

20 inquire whether it would be possible to

21 adjust the schedule for the closing of the

22 acquisitions to permit you the time necessary

23 to complete a syndication of the senior

24 financing before funding was required?

25 A. I remember having conversations

Page 131

1 Smith

2 with the team to include Mr. Strong about the

3 term, of why the need for the fast close.

4 I frankly don't remember what was

5 driving it, whether it was a tax or

6 regulatory or something else. But it was

7 deemed by the group, that's the team, that it

8 was not possible to extend, delay the close

9 to allow for the syndication of the loan.

10 Q. Was it your understanding that

11 Sunbeam wanted the transaction to close as

12 quickly as scheduled?

13 A. I wasn't that close to it, do not

14 know.

15 Q. But your understanding was someone

16 wanted these transactions to close very

17 quickly, correct?

18 MR. CLARE: Objection to the form.

19 A. Don't know.

20 Q. In your conversations with Mr.

21 Dunlap, did you ever learn from Mr. Dunlap

22 that it was Mr. Dunlap who wanted the

23 acquisition of Coleman company to close

24 before the first quarter of 1998 was

25 completed?

Page 132

1 Smith

2 A. No.

3 Q. Did you ever learn from your

4 conversations with Mr. Kersh, that it was Mr.

5 Kersh and Mr. Dunlap who wanted the

6 transaction involving the acquisition of my

7 client's interests in Coleman to close before

8 the first quarter of 1998?

9 A. No.

10 Q. In the period leading up to the

11 closing of the acquisition of my client's

12 interests in Coleman company, Mr. Smith, did

13 you have any communications on any subject

14 with Coleman company management?

15 A. I don't believe so.

16 Q. Did you have any communications

17 with my client, Coleman (Parent), or its

18 representatives?

19 A. I don't believe so.

20 Q. Credit Suisse First Boston was the 21 investment banking firm for my client.

22 Did you have any communications

23 with CS First Boston?

24 A. I do not remember any 25 conversations.

Page 133

1 Smith

2 Q. My client is owned by McAndrews &

3 Forbes, are you aware of that?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did you have any communications

6 with any representatives of McAndrews &

7 Forbes prior to the close of Sunbeam's

8 acquisition of my client's interests in

9 Coleman company?

10 A. I don't believe so.

11 Q. Did you have any conversations with

12 Ronald Perelman?

13 A. No.

14 Q. With Howard Gittis?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Jim Maher?

17 A. No.

18 Q. William Nesbitt?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Do you know Jim Maher?

21 A. I don't think so.

22 Q. Have you ever spoken directly with

23 Mr. Perelman on any subject?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. What was the nature of that?

Page 134

1 Smith

2 A. Gee, I can't remember all of them

3 for various transactions or various meetings.

4 Q. Have you ever been involved in

5 providing financing to any McAndrews & Forbes

6 related entities?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Have you ever sought the business

9 of McAndrews & Forbes?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Unsuccessfully I take it?

12 A. Unsuccessfully.

13 Q. For whom were you working on those

14 occasions?

15 A. Morgan Stanley and Bear Stearns.

16 Q. On what occasions while you were at

17 Morgan Stanley did you seek to obtain

18 business from McAndrews & Forbes?

19 A. I don't recall them now, but -- I

20 don't remember the specifics.

21 Q. Were you working with Morgan

22 Stanley investment bankers in connection with

23 that activity?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Do you remember who that was?

Page 135

1 Smith

2 A. The one, the name was -- what was

3 his name? I'm sorry, Bill Reid.

4 Q. Do you remember if that was before

5 the Sunbeam-related one?

6 A. I think it was.

7 Q. Since going to work at Bear Stearns

8 you have tried to get business from McAndrews

9 & Forbes?

10 A. Yes, I have.

11 Q. What did that relate to?

12 A. The most recent one was a

13 refinancing for PanaVision, a company that

14 McAndrews & Forbes owns.

15 Q. When was that?

16 A. That was last summer and last fall.

17 Q. Any other occasions?

18 A. We're currently working on one now,

19 trying to secure the business.

20 Q. Are you working with Bear Stearns

21 investment bankers in connection with that?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Who is that?

24 A. I'm sorry?

25 Q. Who is that person?

Page 136

1 Smith

2 A. Larry Alletto.

3 Q. How does he spell his last name?

4 A. A-L-L-E-T-T-O.

5 Q. Are there any other occasions that

6 you can recall speaking to Mr. Perelman

7 directly?

8 A. Just to be clear, did not speak to

9 Mr. Perelman regarding the PanaVision and not

10 the current transaction. But no, don't

11 remember speaking to him.

12 Q. Now, you remained -- we'll get into

13 this in some more detail, but I want to cover

14 this point here.

15 After the senior loan closed in

16 March of 1998, you had continuing involvement

17 with respect to Morgan Stanley Senior

18 Funding's loan to Sunbeam, correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you have any communications

21 with anyone from Coleman (Parent) or

22 McAndrews & Forbes in connection with that

23 activity?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Who was that?

Page 137

1 Smith

2 A. Who at McAndrews & Forbes, Howard

3 Gittis. Who is the other guy? Irwin

4 somebody or other. I guess those would be

5 the major ones.

6 Q. I'm sorry, who was the third

7 person?

8 A. His first name was Irwin. I can't

9 remember his last name.

10 Q. We'll get into that in more detail.

11 Were you aware that in late 1997

12 Mr. Dunlap had had a meeting with Mr.

13 Perelman in Florida to discuss Sunbeam's

14 acquisition of Coleman, the possibility of 15 that?

16 A. No.

17 Q. No one has ever reported to you on

18 that meeting?

19 A. Oh, I'm sorry, I misunderstood your

20 question. I didn't know that they had met

21 during a, when we were doing the financing,

22 but reviewing for this case for today found

23 that out.

24 Q. Other than what you learned in

25 preparing for your deposition, do you have

Page 138

1 Smith

2 any knowledge concerning Mr. Perelman's

3 meeting with Mr. Dunlap?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Who at Morgan Stanley, sir, was

6 responsible for making sure that all

7 necessary due diligence was performed?

8 A. I think if you're going to look at

9 it organizationally, it was probably John

10 Tyree. And then in addition to his efforts

11 we basically had a, a person from our group,

12 from Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, in this

13 case Mike Hart, assisted by Burchill and

14 Simon to assist in that effort and do the due

15 diligence from our vantage point, from the 16 financing point.

17 Q. What individuals performed the due

18 diligence in connection with this MSSF?

19 A. Those are the three I just

20 mentioned, Mike Hart, Tom Burchill and Simon

21 Rankin.

22 And I also want to add that the 23 process also included a representative from

24 the credit department.

25 Q. What was the function of the credit

Page 139

1 Smith

2 department with respect to the senior loan?

3 A. They were a, viewing it in a more

4 traditional credit role since our policy

5 stated internally and externally was that we

6 would hold a piece, sometimes a substantial

7 piece of every loan that we made.

8 And it was the credit department's

9 function, role, not only to pass on the 10 underwriting, I need to okay that, but also

11 the long-term view of being a long-term

12 lender to these opportunities such as

13 Sunbeam.

14 So it would not be unusual, I can't

15 remember the name, not be unusual to have

16 them on phone calls, show up at meetings, et

17 cetera, to participate in the due diligence.

18 Q. What portion of the senior loan did

19 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding intend to keep?

20 A. That's -- I'll have to think about

21 that for a second. We committed to 40

22 percent of the transaction and I think we

23 thought that it would probably end up being

24 about 50 to $60 million.

25 Q. So at the end of the day after the

Page 140

1 Smith

2 loan was fully syndicated, you anticipated

3 that Morgan Stanley Senior Funding would hold

4 about 50 or $60 million?

5 A. That is my recollection, at least

6 when the syndication stopped it was

7 completed.

8 Q. And how quickly was it contemplated

9 that would occur?

10 A. Normally from the time you start

11 until you are able to syndicate takes about

12 six to eight weeks.

13 Q. The transactions here closed at the 14 end of March. In terms of the schedule that

15 you envisioned at the time the loan was

16 closed, when did you expect the senior, that

17 the syndication of the senior loan to be

18 completed?

19 A. By the end of May.

20 Q. And at that point Morgan Stanley

21 would be holding about 50 or $60 million of 22 the debt?

23 A. If things went as anticipated.

24 Could be luckier, could be a little less

25 lucky.

Page 141

1 Smith

2 Q. Luckier in this context means what,

3 having less?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. Did Morgan Stanley have any

6 obligation to Sunbeam or anybody else to hold

7 any particular amount of the financing?

8 A. No, other than our stated practice

9 which we communicated to Sunbeam and

10 communicated to other lenders, as well as

11 Bank of America and First Union, that we

12 would end up holding some.

13 Q. But there was no commitment as to 14 the amount?

15 A. No.

16 Q. In terms of the due diligence that

17 Morgan, was done from Morgan Stanley Senior

18 Funding, I don't understand how this worked.

19 The individuals involved were Mr.

20 Hart and Mr. Burchill and Mr. Simon, correct?

21 A. Simon Rankin.

22 Q. Simon Rankin?

23 A. Assisted by a representative of the 24 credit department.

25 Q. There were other people at Morgan

Page 142

1 Smith

2 Stanley involved in doing due diligence,

3 correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Miss Porat's group, for example?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Mr. Tyree?

8 A. Uhm-hmm.

9 Q. Was it the responsibility of Mr.

10 Hart, Mr. Burchill and Mr. Rankin to 11 independently review all of the due diligence

12 that was being done on all aspects of Morgan

13 Stanley's due diligence, or did it work in a

14 different way?

15 A. Well, since I wasn't them it's

16 tough to say what exactly they did. They

17 would -- but what would normally happen is

18 they do some of their own and then work with

19 and look at the information that other parts

20 of the firm had gotten.

21 Q. Was it their responsibility to

22 familiarize themselves with all of the due

23 diligence that was being done by other parts

24 of the firm?

25 A. It was I guess to familiarize and

Page 143

1 Smith

2 take advantage of the other due diligence

3 done on other parts of the firm.

4 Q. That is what you expected of them?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. To whom did Mr. Hart, Mr. Burchill

7 and Mr. Rankin report relating to their due

8 diligence work?

9 A. Well, they worked for me. They,

10 however, were, in cases like this they

11 basically report and stand behind their work

12 to the Credit Committee, which is the final

13 grantor, if you will, of credit authority.

14 Q. Were you giving them direction with

15 respect to the due diligence activity that

16 they were engaged in?

17 A. I don't know about direction. Mike

18 was a very experienced transactor so we would

19 consult, respond to questions from him. We

20 would talk about specific issues that might

21 come up.

22 Q. Did you give him any specific

23 direction to investigate any particular

24 aspect of Sunbeam?

25 A. Not that I recall.

Page 144

1 Smith

2 Q. Did you give any specific direction

3 to any Morgan Stanley personnel to

4 investigate any particular aspect of Sunbeam?

5 A. Not that I recall.

6 Q. The transactions were scheduled to

7 close before the end of the first quarter of

8 1998, correct, sir?

9 A. I believe so.

10 Q. Did you believe it was an important

11 part of the financing due diligence to obtain

12 information regarding Sunbeam's performance

13 in the first quarter of 1998?

14 A. I think that was one element of the 15 overall due diligence.

16 Q. To find out how Sunbeam was doing

17 so far in the first quarter of '98, correct?

18 A. Sure, to get an update on their

19 performance.

20 Q. Did you direct anybody to obtain

21 information concerning Sunbeam's first

22 quarter 1998 performance?

23 A. Not that I recall.

24 Q. Do you recall what information you

25 received relating to Sunbeam's first quarter

Page 145

1 Smith

2 1998 performance, if anything?

3 A. I think we had some phone calls,

4 maybe even some documents regarding how they

5 were doing versus the, versus plan and versus

6 last year.

7 Q. When you went to Florida for the

8 meeting at the beginning of March in 1998,

9 did you personally receive any information

10 from Sunbeam at that point relating to how

11 they had done so far in the first quarter?

12 A. I don't believe so.

13 Q. Did you ask any questions on that

14 subject while you were in Florida?

15 A. In Florida it was a different type

16 of due diligence. It was more specific on

17 the appliance business. So we were looking

18 at more granular, different product lines and

19 in the groups they had it then versus how

20 they were doing versus the first two months

21 in the year.

22 Q. So you don't recall asking while

23 you were present in Florida how have you guys

24 done so far in January or February?

25 A. No.

37 (Pages 142 to 145)

Page 146

1 Smith

2 Q. You don't recall anybody from

3 Sunbeam offering any information on that?

4 A. No

5 Q. When do you recall first receiving

6 information relating to how Sunbeam was doing

7 in the first quarter of 1998?

8 A. I think it was the last half of,

9 the last half of March.

10 Q. When you wrote the highly confident

11 letter to Sunbeam on March 5 did you have any

12 information at all about how Sunbeam had been

13 doing in the first two months of 1998?

14 A. To the best of my recollection, no.

15 Q. Did that concern you?

16 A. I'm sorry, what?

17 Q. Were you concerned when you issued

18 the highly confident letter on March 5, that

19 you personally didn't have any information on

20 how Sunbeam had done in January or February

21 of 1998?

22 A. No, because again you go back to

23 that letter, there was still a lot of due

24 diligence to do.

25 We would have been -- we would

Page 147

1 Smith

2 have -- that would have come up in the

3 general course on how they were, on how they

4 were doing.

5 Q. How high on your list of pieces of

6 information to get would have been obtaining

7 a report from Sunbeam on how they were doing

8 in the first two months of 1998?

9 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of

10 the question.

11 A. I don't know how you would say

12 high. It is just one of the bits of 13 information that go into coming up with the 14 ultimate credit decision, so it's important.

15 Is it more important than something else,

16 less important than something else, it just

17 goes into the mix.

18 Q. Well, did you think in light of

19 Sunbeam's claims that it had substantially

20 improved its performance in 1997, that it was

21 especially important for you in connection

22 with your review of the senior loan to obtain

23 good information about how Sunbeam was doing

24 in the first months of 1998?

25 MR. CLARE: Object to the form.

Page 148

1 Smith

2 A. Again I think it was part of the

3 overall view, the overall information we

4 needed to come up with a credit decision on

5 how the company was performing, whether it

6 was a good credit.

7 So to isolate something like that

8 in and of itself as being the talisman of

9 something, that is the go or no-go decision,

10 it is kind of tough to do that out of

11 context.

12 Q. You wouldn't say it was an

13 especially important piece of information to

14 know?

15 A. I didn't say that. I said it was

16 many bits of information that go into making

17 the ultimate credit decision on whether

18 you're comfortable and willing to go ahead

19 with the underwriting.

20 Q. Was it an important bit or was it

21 an important piece of information?

22 A. I'm not a lawyer, so maybe I would

23 put it in between that. So I would say it is 24 important, I would leave it at that.

25 Q. Would you say that knowing how

Page 149

1 Smith

2 Sunbeam had done in the first weeks of 1998

3 was an essential thing for Morgan Stanley to

4 know before it closed on the senior loan?

5 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of

6 the question.

7 A. Like I think I said before, it was

8 an important, you know, consideration to, in

9 terms of making the overall judgment.

10 Q. Would you say you wouldn't agree to 11 close on a loan unless you had that

12 information?

13 A. I don't know if I would say that.

14 Q. Do you know that Morgan Stanley had

15 requested a comfort letter from Sunbeam's

16 auditors?

17 A. Yes, I did.

18 Q. When did you know that?

19 A. I think I knew it back then.

20 Q. What's the purpose for a comfort

21 letter?

22 A. Well, I didn't ask for it and I'm

23 not on the security side, so...

24 Q. What's your understanding?

25 A. I think it's part of the closing

Page 150

1 Smith
2 process for, involving securities.
3 Q. Do you know that one of the things
4 that the auditors do in connection with the 5 comfort letter is to report on the company's
6 most recent financial results for periods
7 that are not yet complete?
8 MR. CLARE: Objection, foundation.
9 A. No.
10 MR. CLARE: If we're getting to a
11 transition point, maybe we should break for 12 lunch.
13 MR. MARKOWSKI: We can do that if 14 you would like.
15 MR. CLARE: Okay.
16 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is
17 12:35, we're going off the record.

2 AFTERNOON SESSION
3 (Time noted: 1:18 p.m.)
4 R. BRAM SMITH, resumed and
5 testified as follows:
6 THE VIDEOGRAHER: The time is
7 1:18, we're back on the record.
8 EXAMINATION BY (Cont'd.)
9 MR. MARKOWSKI:
10 Q. Mr. Smith, when we broke I had
11 asked you whether you were aware that Morgan
12 Stanley had requested a comfort letter from 13 Sunbeam's outside auditor, Arthur Andersen.
14 Let me show you a copy of what we
15 previously marked as CPH Exhibit Number 17.
16 It's a letter to Morgan Stanley from Arthur
17 Andersen dated March 19, 1998.
18 A. Uhm-hmm.
19 Q. Take a moment to look at this
20 letter, and my first question to you is going
21 to be whether you have ever seen it before.
22 A. Okay.
23 Q. Have you seen this letter before,
24 sir?
25 A. Yup.

Page 152

1 Smith
2 Q. When did you first see it?
3 A. I don't remember when. I do know I
4 saw it yesterday and I don't know whether I
5 saw all of this before or not.
6 Q. Could you take your hand down?
7 A. Oh, sorry.
8 Q. You're not certain as you sit here
9 today, whether you saw this letter back in
10 March of 1998?
11 A. I don't know if I saw the whole
12 thing in March of 1998, yup.
13 Q. Is it possible that you saw
14 portions of this or information drawn from it
15 in March of 1998?
16 A. It might have been.
17 Q. There has been testimony that Mr.
18 Tyree received the signed copy of this letter
19 from Arthur Andersen.
20 Did Mr. Tyree report to you on the 21 substance of the information contained in
22 this March 19 letter?
23 A. Not that I remember.
24 Q. Do you know if anyone working for 25 you received a copy of Arthur Andersen's

Page 153

1 Smith
2 March 19, 1998 comfort letter?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Do you believe it to be the case
5 that the individuals working for you did not
6 receive a copy of the March 19 comfort
7 letter?
8 A. Don't know.
9 Q. Do you know if the people working
10 for you, Mr. Hart and others received a 11 briefing from Mr. Tyree concerning the 12 substance of the March 19 comfort letter?
13 A. Don't know.
14 Q. Did you receive a report from Mr.
15 Hart or the other individuals conducting due
16 diligence for Morgan Stanley Senior Funding
17 concerning the substance of the March 19
18 comfort letter?
19 A. Did not receive a report.
20 Q. Let me draw your attention to 21 paragraph 6C.
22 A. 6E?
23 Q. 6C. It is at the page 5 of the 24 letter. Would you read that to yourself,
25 please.

1 Smith
2 Have you done it?
3 A. I'm just finishing up here. Okay.
4 Q. This portion of the March 19
5 comfort letter advises that Sunbeam's sales
6 for the first two months of 1998 are 7 substantially below Sunbeam's sales for the 8 first two months of 1997, correct?
9 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.
10 A. Well, they list the two numbers for 11 the two different periods, yes.
12 Q. Do you agree with me that the 13 substance of this paragraph advises that
14 Sunbeam sales for the first two months of '98
15 are substantially below Sunbeam sales for the 16 first two months of 1997, or is that 17 something about which you disagree?
18 A. It shows me the two numbers, 72
19 versus 143, so...
20 Q. It advises that the sales for the 21 first two months of 1998 are about $72
22 million, correct?
23 A. Correct.
24 Q. And the sales for the first two
25 months of 1997 were about 143-1/2 million,

1 Smith
2 correct?
3 A. Uhm-hmm.
4 Q. That's about, the sales for the 5 first two months of 1998 are about half of 6 what they had been in the first two months of
7 1997, correct?
8 A. Yup.
9 Q. Would you agree with me that is a
10 substantial decline in sales for a two-month
11 period?
12 A. A substantial difference in sales,
13 yup.
14 Q. It's a substantial negative
15 variance, correct, substantial decline?
16 A. Decline, uhm-hmm.
17 Q. You agree with me that the decline
18 is substantial, or are you disagreeing?
19 A. I guess I agree.
20 Q. Were you aware that Wall Street was 21 expecting Sunbeam to accomplish sales in the 22 first quarter of 1998 that were substantially
23 greater than the sales that Sunbeam had 24 accomplished in the first quarter of 1997?
25 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.

1 Smith
2 Q. As of mid-March 1998?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Did anyone report to you, sir, the
5 information that we've just read in paragraph
6 6C of the Andersen comfort letter, that
7 Sunbeam sales for the first two months of
8 1998 were about half of what they had been in
9 the first two months of 1997?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. When did you first receive that 12 report?
13 A. Don't remember.
14 Q. Was it before the close of the 15 transaction by which Sunbeam acquired my 16 client's interest in Coleman company?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. From whom did you receive a report
19 that Sunbeam sales in the first two months of 20 1998 were about half of what they had been in
21 the first two months of 1997?
22 A. I don't know if I would use the
23 word "report," but through the process with 24 the team, both the leveraged finance team and 25 others, that this issue came up.

1 Smith
2 Q. Well, who told you?
3 A. It's a big group so it is unclear
4 to me, I can't remember who told me, but
5 talked about it to several people.
6 Q. Do you recall that you first
7 learned this information at a group meeting?
8 A. I can't recall how I or when I
9 first learned it.
10 Q. So you may have learned it at a
11 group meeting or it may have been given to 12 you individually in some way?
13 A. Yes.
14 Q. Do you recall if it was given, this 15 information was given to you in writing?
16 A. The -- no, I don't.
17 Q. But you do recall talking about it
18 with others within Morgan Stanley before the 19 closing of Sunbeam's acquisition of my 20 client's interests in Coleman?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. With whom within Morgan Stanley do
23 you recall discussing the fact that Sunbeam
24 sales in the first two months of the quarter
25 were about half of what they had been in the

Page 158

1 Smith

2 first two months of '97?

3 A. Mike Hart for sure and maybe,

4 probably others, but I don't recollect who

5 those were.

6 Q. Do you recall discussing it with

7 Miss Porat?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Do you believe you did not discuss

10 this information with Miss Porat?

11 A. I believe I did not.

12 Q. Did you discuss it with Mr. Strong?

13 A. I believe I might have.

14 Q. Do you believe that Mr. Strong is 15 the person who first advised you of this

16 information?

17 A. No recollection.

18 Q. Do you believe it was Mr. Hart?

19 A. Don't recall.

20 Q. What do you recall discussing, what

21 do you recall about your discussions with Mr.

22 Hart concerning the decline in Sunbeam's

23 sales for the first two months of 1998?

24 A. What I recall is the discussing

25 what happened and the impact of this on their

Page 159

1 Smith

2 projections for 1998.

3 Q. When did these discussions take

4 place?

5 A. After we got notice that their

6 sales were $72 million for the first two

7 months.

8 Q. And that is before the closing of 9 the transactions, correct?

10 A. Before the closing of the 11 transaction.

12 Q. Was it your belief you discussed

13 this with Mr. Hart privately, or was it with 14 a larger group?

15 A. Probably both.

16 Q. How many times do you recall

17 discussing it with Mr. Hart?

18 A. Gee, it's tough. I guess more than

19 several.

20 Q. Do you recall over what period of 21 time you had these conversations, what length

22 of period of time?

23 A. Probably days, but that's a hazy

24 guess.

25 Q. You indicated that you probably

Page 160

1 Smith

2 discussed this with Mr. Hart both privately

3 and with a larger group.

4 Who do you believe was involved in

5 larger group discussions on this topic where

6 both you and Mr. Hart participated?

7 A. Mr. Strong, maybe Mr.

8 Burchill/Rankin, whoever was there at the

9 time, probably somebody from credit, and then

10 a -- I'm sure I kept my bosses involved too.

11 Q. Your bosses would be who during

12 this time period?

13 A. Newhouse, Sipprelle and Rankowitz.

14 Q. I'm sorry, I missed the second

15 name.

16 A. Mr. Sipprelle.

17 Q. What is Mr. Sipprelle's first name?

18 A. Dwight.

19 Q. And the third person?

20 A. Michael Rankowitz.

21 Q. Those are individuals to whom you

22 reported during this time period?

23 A. Uhm-hmm. Yes.

24 Q. Tell me everything you can recall

25 about your conversations on the subject of

Page 161

1 Smith

2 the decline of Sunbeam sales in the first two

3 months of 1998?

4 A. I think the focus of the discussion

5 was really what had happened, what was going

6 to happen for the first quarter, and the

7 implications of that for the full year. When

8 I say that, achieving their projections for

9 the, for 1998.

10 Q. What do you recall being said on

11 each of those topics?

12 A. A lot of questions and then -- a

13 lot of questions and it was basically with

14 members of the team, that would be the big

15 Morgan Stanley team, focus on trying to find

16 these answers.

17 Q. You participated in meetings where

18 people raised questions, correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And the questions are what's

21 happened so far in the first quarter that

22 caused this, right?

23 A. Yup.

24 Q. What's the full quarter going to 25 look like?

41 (Pages 158 to 161)

Page 162

1 Smith

2 A. Uhm-hmm.

3 Q. And what are the implications of 4 this for 1998, correct?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Why were you interested in those

7 things?

8 A. Just as part of our continuing due

9 diligence to make sure we understood what

10 happened.

11 Q. Do you recall getting answers to 12 the questions?

13 A. I recall getting, yes, some answers

14 to the questions from the team.

15 Q. Who provided answers?

16 A. I think it was probably Mr. Hart,

17 who was the -- where I got most of my

18 information. And I don't know how, where did

19 he get it. And he didn't get his directly, I

20 think he was relating from the bigger Morgan

21 Stanley team.

22 Q. Do you recall getting information

23 from anybody other than Mr. Hart concerning

24 answers to these questions?

25 A. No.

Page 163

1 Smith

2 Q. What do you recall Mr. Hart

3 reporting to you?

4 A. Let me go back here. I think

5 probably talked to Strong as well, and in

6 terms of what, what had happened here is

7 that, is that the understanding was that they

8 had some anticipated revenues that were going

9 to come in in the third quarter -- excuse me,

10 the third month of the quarter, the third

11 month of the quarter, and that they would

12 make up a lot of this shortfall then.

13 Q. That's what Mr. Strong reported to

14 you?

15 A. I think that was a combination. We

16 were doing a lot of this in groups of people.

17 Change in composition. So it is very

18 difficult to recall for you exactly who was

19 at each and every one of these meetings.

20 Q. But your best recollection as you

21 sit here is that Mr. Strong said the 22 substance of this to you?

23 A. No. My recollection is that was

24 kind -- that was bits of information that

25 came out of the Morgan Stanley due diligence

Page 164

1 Smith

2 effort that would involve those two

3 individuals at different times and different

4 degrees of involvement as well as others.

5 Q. Did you attempt to speak directly

6 with Sunbeam yourself?

7 A. I did not.

8 Q. Did you direct Mr. Hart to do that?

9 A. I did not.

10 Q. Do you know if Mr. Hart had any

11 direct communications with Sunbeam?

12 A. I do not know.

13 Q. On this topic I'm focusing on?

14 A. I do not know.

15 Q. What do you recall Mr. Hart telling

16 you relating to what had happened in the

17 first two months of the quarter, what the

18 expectations were for the rest of the quarter

19 and what the implications were for '98?

20 A. It's tough for me to remember

21 specifically what his contribution was to

22 that. I think it's more generic, that the

23 Morgan Stanley due diligence team came up

24 with the answers that I described before,

25 that the company was highly confident that

Page 165

1 Smith

2 they were going to make their -- were going

3 to achieve results that were I guess ahead of

4 last year, and that they felt that the rest

5 of the year would come on pretty close to

6 where the projections that they had provided

7 us were going to be.

8 Q. Those are the conclusions that had

9 being provided to you, correct?

10 A. Those were the conclusions

11 provided, yes, by the company to the Morgan

12 Stanley team.

13 Q. Do you know what factual foundation

14 Morgan Stanley had for any of those

15 propositions?

16 A. I think we had gotten some

17 additional information from them, the 18 company, showing how the projected sales for

19 the rest of the quarter.

20 Q. Did you see that information

21 yourself?

22 A. I think so.

23 Q. I thought you had indicated

24 previously that you understood that Miss

25 Porat was assigned to conduct an inquiry

42 (Pages 162 to 165)

Page 166

1 Smith
 2 relating to some of those issues.
 3 Did I misunderstand you?
 4 A. Did I say that? I think that if
 5 she was, she would have been part of the 6 overall Morgan Stanley team. Again I can't
 7 overemphasize that it's a -- it was a huge
 8 commitment of resources by the part of the 9 firm. At any given time there were 10 or 20
 10 people working on it at different levels of 11 seniority.
 12 Certainly Ruth was one of the more
 13 senior people involved and so at various 14 times she might be in the lead, and sometimes 15 it's Mr. Strong or others.
 16 Q. With respect to the question what 17 had happened in the first two months of the 18 quarter, were you told by anyone in the 19 Morgan Stanley team that the primary reason
 20 for the shortfall in January and February in 21 sales was that Sunbeam had accelerated first 22 quarter revenue into the fourth quarter of 23 1998?
 24 A. No. What we were told was that 25 they were trying to sell more, more of these

Page 167

1 Smith
 2 grills, and accelerated the sales faster to
 3 get the jump on the competition.
 4 Q. I didn't ask about the reason for
 5 doing it, but I asked whether you were told
 6 that the reason why Sunbeam sales in January
 7 and February were so far below 1997 levels
 8 was that Sunbeam had accelerated the sale of 9 products into the fourth quarter of 1997.
 10 A. No.
 11 Q. Let me direct your attention to the
 12 March 19 letter, CPH Exhibit 17 which you
 13 have in front of you.
 14 A. Uhm-hmm.
 15 Q. To page 4, paragraph 6B. Let me
 16 read the first sentence for you. "For the 17 period from December 29, 1997 through March 18 16, 1998 consolidated net sales decreased as 19 compared to the corresponding period of the 20 preceding year, primarily due to the 21 company's new early buy program for outdoor
 22 grills which accelerated outdoor grill sales
 23 into the fourth quarter of fiscal 1997."
 24 Do you see that statement?
 25 A. Uhm-hmm.

Page 168

1 Smith
 2 Q. At any time prior to the close of
 3 Sunbeam's acquisition of my client's
 4 interests in Coleman company, were you
 5 advised of the facts contained in that
 6 sentence?
 7 A. Yes.
 8 Q. And who advised you of that?
 9 A. Somebody from the team.
 10 Q. What were you told?
 11 A. That the company had accelerated
 12 the sales of grills to capture market share.
 13 Q. Accelerated the sale of grills into 14 the four quarter of 1997, correct?
 15 A. 1997, yeah.
 16 Q. And that the effect of that was to 17 diminish the sales the company had realized
 18 in the first two months of 1998?
 19 A. Yes.
 20 Q. You don't know who told you that?
 21 A. No.
 22 Q. Do you know if it was part of a
 23 group meeting?
 24 A. No, I don't recall.
 25 Q. Do you know if it was Mr. Strong

Page 169

1 Smith
 2 who told you that?
 3 A. Don't recall.
 4 Q. Do you know if it was Mr. Tyree?
 5 A. Don't recall.
 6 Q. Miss Porat?
 7 A. Don't recall.
 8 Q. Mr. Hart?
 9 A. Don't recall.
 10 Q. Did the fact that Sunbeam's sales
 11 had declined so substantially in the first 12 two months of 1998, sir, as a result of 13 activities that resulted in accelerating the 14 sale of grills in the fourth quarter of 1997,
 15 cause you to have any questions relating to 16 the turn-around claims that Mr. Dunlap was 17 making?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. Why is that?
 20 A. That was because that's one bit of 21 information, and to look at it in the overall
 22 context of what the company was doing, their 23 performance, where they -- and what that
 24 looked like was going to happen in the rest
 25 of '98 is all part of the decision.

Page 170

1 Smith

2 Q. Did learning that Sunbeam had

3 engaged in activities to enhance its 1997

4 revenues cause you to believe that Morgan

5 Stanley needed to make further inquiry into

6 Sunbeam's turn-around claims?

7 MR. CLARE: I object to the form

8 of the question.

9 A. Focus of our inquiry was to test

10 the, or to find out more information about

11 the use of these early sales to enhance, you

12 know, market share and total revenues of the 13 grills. That was the emphasis of the 14 inquiry.

15 Q. Did you think this was potentially

16 good news?

17 A. Didn't know enough.

18 Q. You didn't necessarily conclude

19 that the decline in Sunbeam sales in the 20 first two months of 1998 was a negative

21 development?

22 A. I didn't know enough. And again

23 you want to look at this in the context of 24 all of the information we had.

25 Q. In what way would a 50 percent

Page 171

1 Smith

2 decline in sales of the first two months of

3 1998 be a potentially positive development

4 for Sunbeam?

5 A. I don't know about positive. You

6 asked me if it was potentially negative. It

7 could be a host of things that are going on.

8 Again, I think you have to look at 9 all of the facts you have available to you to

10 come up with any view. Very difficult I

11 think to pick out one item and then make that

12 be the linchpin of everything you are trying

13 to do.

14 Q. Is it your testimony, sir, that

15 when you were advised that Sunbeam's net

16 sales for the first two months of 1997 were

17 half of what they had been in the first two

18 months of 1997, and that the reason for that

19 was that Sunbeam had accelerated -- did I

20 misspeak?

21 MR. CLARE: I think you might have

22 said 1997 in both parts of your question.

23 Q. Let me start over.

24 Is it your testimony, sir, that

25 when you learned that Sunbeam's sales in the

Page 172

1 Smith

2 first two months of 1998 were about half of

3 what they had been in the first two months of

4 1997, and that the reason for that was that

5 Sunbeam had accelerated sales from the first

6 quarter of 1998 into the fourth quarter of

7 1997, you thought that was potentially a

8 positive piece of information relating to

9 Sunbeam's --

10 MR. CLARE: I object to the form,

11 and also to the extent it misstates his prior

12 testimony.

13 Q. -- performance and financial

14 condition?

15 A. Well, your first question before

16 was did I view that negatively. I don't

17 think I said I viewed it positively. Again

18 it is just another bit of information that

19 comes out in this due diligence process, and

20 you put that together with all of the other

21 information that we had. And again emphasize

22 the "we" because we had a big group working

23 on this, coming at it from many angles.

24 Q. Putting aside the prior testimony,

25 I'm asking a standalone question here.

Page 173

1 Smith

2 Is it your testimony, sir, that

3 when you learned that Sunbeam sales for the

4 first two months of 1997 were about half --

5 excuse me, for the first two months of 1998

6 were about half of what they had been in the

7 first two months of 1997, that the reason for

8 that was that Sunbeam had accelerated first

9 quarter sales back into the prior fiscal

10 period, that you thought that was potentially

11 a good thing for Sunbeam?

12 A. I wouldn't characterize it. Didn't

13 even approach it as a potentially good thing,

14 just a potential let's find out what goes on.

15 Q. Because it was a potential concern,

16 right?

17 A. No, because I wanted to find out

18 what was going on.

19 Q. Were you concerned?

20 A. It could have been good, it could

21 have been bad.

22 Q. Did you think it was potentially a

23 negative development?

24 A. As is many things, it could be

25 potentially good, potentially bad, just goes

Page 174

1 Smith

2 back into the mosaic of what we are trying to

3 find out here and ascertain what is happening

4 with the company.

5 Q. So you agree with me that when you

6 learned this information, you recognize that

7 it was potentially a bad piece of

8 information, correct?

9 A. I didn't know enough. It could 10 have been good, it could have been bad.

11 Q. That is my question.

12 Were you -- did you know?

13 A. Didn't know enough at the time.

14 Q. To know whether it was either

15 potentially good or potentially bad?

16 A. Not on the basis of this.

17 Q. So why did you want to make further

18 inquiry?

19 A. To find out.

20 Q. Because it might be potentially

21 bad, correct?

22 A. And it might be potentially good.

23 My job is to find out what is going on.

24 Q. You wanted to find out what was

25 going on with respect to this particular

Page 175

1 Smith

2 information because it was something

3 potentially negative with respect to

4 Sunbeam's --

5 A. Could have been potentially

6 negative.

7 Q. -- condition and performance,

8 correct?

9 MR. CLARE: Objection, asked and

10 answered.

11 A. Could have been potentially

12 negative.

13 Q. I'm sorry, could have been

14 potentially what?

15 A. Whatever you said, negative.

16 Q. Negative. While we're waiting for

17 a document, sir, did you wait for Mr. Hart to

18 obtain further information relating to this

19 so you could understand the potential

20 significance of this disclosure?

21 A. We talked about it and agreed, yes,

22 and asked him to find out as much as he

23 could. And he wanted to do that as well,

24 anyway.

25 Q. So you did ask Mr. Hart to find out

Page 176

1 Smith

2 more information relating to this for you,

3 correct?

4 A. Well, when you say for me, for the

5 firm and do what he could, yes.

6 Q. I'm trying to understand if you

7 spoke to Mr. Hart and said we need to get

8 more information about this, asking him to do

9 that?

10 A. You have to remember I met with Mr.

11 Hart like 50 times a day for weeks on this

12 thing, so I'm sure this would come up as part

13 of the conversation.

14 Q. Was the information, was this

15 information consistent with -- let me ask a

16 foundation question.

17 Had you received any information

18 prior to the time you learned that Sunbeam

19 sales for the first two months were about

20 half that they had been the prior fiscal

21 year, about how Sunbeam was doing in the

22 first quarter of 1998?

23 A. I don't recall. Don't think so.

24 Q. Do you think this was the first

25 information you received from Sunbeam

Page 177

1 Smith

2 relating to its performance in 1998?

3 A. I believe so.

4 Q. When you learned it, did you

5 believe that you had been in some way misled

6 by Sunbeam management concerning how things

7 were going in the first portion of 1998?

8 A. I did not.

9 Q. Did you think that Sunbeam

10 management should have advised you of these

11 facts earlier?

12 A. I had no opinion.

13 Q. Did anyone express the view that

14 Sunbeam, anyone within Morgan Stanley express

15 the view that Sunbeam management should have

16 advised Morgan Stanley of these facts earlier

17 in the process?

18 A. I don't recall.

19 Q. Do you recall that Sunbeam issued a

20 press release on March 19 relating to the 21 status of its first quarter sales?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And did you have any involvement in 24 the events relating to the issuance of that

25 press release?

45 (Pages 174 to 177)

Page 178

1 Smith

2 A. The only involvement I may have had

3 was, was either on the phone or walking in

4 and out when a phone call was going on to

5 discuss this.

6 Q. What phone call are you referring

7 to?

8 A. A internal phone call.

9 Q. Who was on that phone call?

10 A. Members of the team. I was not

11 directly on the call, I was walking in and

12 out, I had other stuff going on.

13 Q. This occurred before the issuance

14 of the March 19 press release?

15 A. It is all part and parcel of that.

16 Q. Do you know if anyone other than

17 Morgan Stanley personnel were on this phone

18 call you heard part of?

19 A. No, I think it was only Morgan

20 Stanley people.

21 Q. Do you have any recollection of 22 hearing Sunbeam -- let me ask a more general

23 question.

24 Did you have any communications

25 yourself directly with Sunbeam management

Page 179

1 Smith

2 relating to what had happened in the first

3 quarter of 1998 prior to the issuance of the 4 March 19 press release?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Can you identify any of the

7 individuals who are on the Morgan Stanley

8 team who were part of this phone call?

9 A. Not with a hundred percent

10 certainty.

11 Q. Who did you believe was involved?

12 A. I would have imagined that it would

13 have been Mike Hart, John Tyree, Bill Strong,

14 probably Tom Burchill/Rankin, maybe somebody

15 from the credit department.

16 Q. Did you make any statements during

17 the phone call?

18 A. I don't believe so.

19 Q. What do you remember hearing

20 discussed?

21 A. I remember hearing discussed, and

22 again in and out kind of what we were talking

23 about, what happened, what's the impact of 24 this for the year.

25 Q. Was there discussion about whether

Page 180

1 Smith

2 the company would issue a press release that

3 you heard?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. What do you remember hearing?

6 A. That should the company issue a

7 press release and what would be the impact of

8 that.

9 Q. So you participated in at least a

10 portion of a conversation where there was

11 internal discussion at Morgan Stanley

12 concerning whether Sunbeam should be asked to 13 issue a press release?

14 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of

15 the question, misstates his testimony about

16 his participation.

17 A. Again I'm in and out. I do think

18 that the concept of a press release was

19 mentioned. I don't know if they were

20 responding to some thoughts that Sunbeam had,

21 some thoughts that they had or anything.

22 Again, I'm not a good witness on that phone

23 call.

24 Q. What do you remember being said by

25 the participants in that phone call

Page 181

1 Smith

2 concerning the pros and cons of a press

3 release and the potential impact?

4 A. I know that they discussed the,

5 discussed the press release, but it wasn't

6 there long enough or consistently enough to

7 pick up any of the pros or cons.

8 Q. What about the potential impact?

9 A. Not that I know of.

10 Q. Did you see a copy of --

11 Let me show you what has previously

12 been marked as CPH Exhibit 14. It's a copy

13 of the March 19 press release that I have

14 been referring to.

15 A. Uhm-hmm.

16 Q. Take a moment to read it.

17 Did you see this press release when

18 it was issued, sir?

19 A. I believe I did.

20 Q. Did you see it prior to its

21 issuance?

22 A. I may have seen a draft.

23 Q. What do you remember about the 24 possibility of seeing a draft of this press

25 release?

46 (Pages 178 to 181)

Page 182

1 Smith

2 A. Not much. The draft just before it

3 was finalized, it was circulated among the

4 team members.

5 Q. Did you offer comments to anyone

6 concerning the draft?

7 A. I don't think so. But again this

8 is from Sunbeam, right? This is a Sunbeam

9 press release?

10 Q. Yes.

11 A. I offered no comments to Sunbeam on

12 this.

13 Q. Do you recall from whom you

14 received the draft?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Do you recall any discussions

17 within Morgan Stanley relating to the draft

18 press release?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Did you offer comments to anyone

21 relating to press release of any sort of,

22 whether it was a suggestion for a change to

23 it or any other observation about it?

24 A. No. And again this is a Sunbeam

25 press release, not a Morgan Stanley press

Page 183

1 Smith

2 release.

3 Q. I'm asking not only for comments

4 you may have had concerning the language, but

5 observations you had about it.

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did you think the press release

8 adequately disclosed the information that

9 Morgan Stanley was aware of relating to

10 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 performance when

11 you read it?

12 MR. CLARE: Objection to

13 foundation. Go ahead, you can answer.

14 A. That is up to Sunbeam, that is 15 their statement, have no opinion.

16 Q. My question to you, sir, is do you

17 think this press release adequately disclosed

18 the information, let me start with you, that

19 you were aware of relating to the status of

20 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 performance?

21 A. Why don't you repeat your question

22 again.

23 Q. Do you think the Sunbeam March 19,

24 1998 press release --

25 A. This thing?

Page 184

1 Smith

2 Q. Correct -- fairly disclosed the

3 information that you, Bram Smith, were aware

4 of on March 19, 1998 concerning the status of

5 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 performance?

6 A. I think I want to take a break.

7 I'll answer that later.

8 Q. No, you have to answer the question

9 before you take a break.

10 A. No comment then.

11 MR. MARKOWSKI: Keep the camera

12 rolling, we are still on the record.

13 MR. CLARE: The witness has asked

14 to take a break. We're going to go off the 15 record.

16 MR. MARKOWSKI: We're not going

17 off the record. It is my record and this

18 camera is going to roll until he comes back.

19 MR. CLARE: Okay, suit yourself.

20 (Witness and counsel leave the 21 conference room at this time.)

22 Q. Are you prepared to answer my

23 question, Mr. Smith?

24 THE WITNESS: Please repeat it.

25 (Record read.)

Page 185

1 Smith

2 THE WITNESS: And what did I say

3 before?

4 (Record read.)

5 A. So I said I had no opinion.

6 Q. Is it your testimony, sir, that you

7 have no opinion concerning whether the March

8 19, 1998 press release fairly disclosed the

9 information concerning Sunbeam's first

10 quarter 1998 performance that you personally

11 were aware of?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. The press release contains no

14 statement whatsoever that Sunbeam sales in

15 January and February were below to any extent

16 the sales in January and February of 1997,

17 correct?

18 A. Yup.

19 Q. Contains no statement that Sunbeam

20 had accelerated revenue from the first

21 quarter of 1998 into the fourth quarter of

22 1997, does it?

23 MR. CLARE: I object. The 24 document speaks for itself. It is a waste of 25 time. You can answer.

Page 186

1 Smith

2 A. It does not relate to that.

3 Q. It doesn't disclose that, does it?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Those are facts you were aware of,

6 correct, on March 19, 1998?

7 A. Those are facts that I was aware

8 of.

9 Q. Those were facts that you were

10 aware might be potentially significant to

11 Morgan Stanley, correct?

12 MR. CLARE: Objection,

13 argumentative and lack of foundation. You

14 can answer.

15 A. Those were, as we discussed before,

16 things we wanted to find out more about.

17 Q. Let me show you, sir --

18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Do you want to 19 change the tape?

20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Yes. The time

21 is 2:06, this completes tape number 2. Thank

22 you.

23 (Pause in the proceedings.)

24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is

25 2:07, this begins tape number 3 of the

Page 187

1 Smith

2 videotaped deposition of Mr. Bram Smith.

3 BY MR. MARKOWSKI:

4 Q. Mr. Smith, I show you a one-page

5 document that we'll marked as CPH Deposition

6 Exhibit Number 152. It bears Bates numbers

7 LAB 43.

8 (Cedman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit

9 152, document bearing Bates number LAB

10 43, marked for identification, as of 11 this date.)

12 Q. You testified earlier, sir, that

13 you believe you received some information

14 from Sunbeam relating to sales for the 15 balance of the first quarter of 1998; is that

16 correct?

17 A. I think I said for the balance of 18 the quarter.

19 Q. If I didn't say that, that is what

20 I meant. I'm sorry.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. Is this the document?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. How did you receive this?

25 A. From the team.

Page 188

1 Smith

2 Q. Do you know when you received it in

3 relationship to Sunbeam's press release?

4 A. My guess is before.

5 Q. Did you participate in any

6 discussions within Morgan Stanley relating to

7 the information contained on CPH Exhibit 152?

8 A. I believe I did.

9 Q. With whom did you discuss it?

10 A. Again members of the greater due

11 diligence team.

12 Q. Can you identify any particular

13 people who you have a recollection of 14 discussing Exhibit 152 with?

15 A. Aside from Mike Hart, the people

16 come and go, so no.

17 Q. What do you recall concerning the

18 discussions that you had with Morgan Stanley

19 personnel relating to the information

20 contained on CPH Exhibit 152?

21 A. The discussion was seeing how they

22 had performed and where the sales were coming

23 from to get to their -- to exceed last year's

24 numbers.

25 Q. What conclusions did you personally

Page 189

1 Smith

2 come to after receiving CPH Exhibit 152?

3 A. I don't recall.

4 Q. Did you conclude, based on your

5 review of CPH Exhibit 152, that Sunbeam would

6 realize all of the sales listed on this page?

7 A. I don't recall.

8 Q. Did you understand that $86 million

9 of sales listed on this page as of the date

10 of this document had not even been ordered

11 yet by Sunbeam customers?

12 A. I'm sorry, did you ask if I was 13 aware of that?

14 Q. Yes. Were you aware that $86

15 million of sales listed on this page had not

16 even been ordered yet by Sunbeam customers?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Did you come to any conclusions

19 after reviewing this page, concerning how

20 probable it was that Sunbeam would exceed its

21 first quarter 1997 sales?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Were you able to come to any

24 conclusion after receiving CPH Exhibit 152,

25 concerning how likely it was that Sunbeam

Page 190

1 Smith

2 would exceed first quarter 1997 sales?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Did you ask for additional

5 information?

6 A. I don't believe I asked for any

7 additional information.

8 Q. If you couldn't come to any

9 conclusion after reviewing CPH Exhibit 152,

10 sir, why didn't you ask for additional

11 information?

12 A. You have got to remember that I'm

13 one of a large group and that there were

14 other people who were taking the lead on

15 investigating this, talking to the company

16 and then comment back to the group, and that

17 wasn't me.

18 Q. So is the reason why you didn't ask

19 for additional information, the fact that you

20 didn't consider it to be your responsibility

21 to pursue this?

22 A. No. The reason I didn't pursue it

23 was other people were taking the lead on

24 this, had more day-to-day contact with the 25 client.

Page 191

1 Smith

2 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley

3 sought additional information from Sunbeam,

4 beyond the information contained on CPH

5 Exhibit 152, concerning the likelihood that

6 Sunbeam would exceed first quarter 1997

7 sales?

8 A. I didn't have any firsthand

9 knowledge of that.

10 Q. You don't know one way or the other

11 whether Sunbeam pursued any additional

12 information on that subject?

13 MR. CLARE: Or whether Morgan

14 Stanley.

15 A. Or whether Morgan Stanley.

16 Q. Sorry, I misspoke.

17 You don't have any knowledge,

18 sitting here today, whether after receiving

19 CPH Exhibit 152 Morgan Stanley pursued any

20 additional information from Sunbeam in order

21 to allow Morgan Stanley to form an opinion

22 concerning the likelihood of Sunbeam

23 exceeding first quarter 1997 sales in the

24 first quarter of 1998?

25 A. I know that there were subsequent

Page 192

1 Smith

2 phone calls with the company. I was not part

3 of it.

4 Q. What do you know about those phone

5 calls?

6 A. That they were had to follow up on

7 this.

8 Q. Do you know whether those phone

9 calls took place before or after the press

10 release?

11 A. I think it was before the press

12 release.

13 Q. Do you know who from Morgan Stanley

14 was involved in those phone calls?

15 A. Again a subset of the team.

16 Q. You don't know any of the people?

17 A. Not directly, not specifically.

18 Q. Do you know with whom they spoke?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Do you know, other than telephone

21 calls with Sunbeam management before the

22 press release was issued concerning CPH

23 Exhibit 152, Morgan Stanley received any

24 other documentary evidence concerning

25 Sunbeam's sales prospects for the balance of

Page 193

1 Smith

2 the first quarter of 1998?

3 A. I am not aware.

4 Q. Did you ever see any?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Is CPH Exhibit Number 152 the sole

7 piece of documentary information you received

8 from Sunbeam relating to its sales prospects

9 for the first quarter of 1998?

10 A. To the best of my memory.

11 Q. Did anyone within Morgan Stanley,

12 sir, to your knowledge express doubts

13 concerning whether Sunbeam was likely to

14 exceed first quarter 1997 sales results in

15 the first quarter of 1998?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did anyone express an opinion on

18 that subject one way or the other to you?

19 A. Not that I remember.

20 Q. Do you remember anyone saying they

21 had concluded that it was probable or likely

22 that Sunbeam would be able to exceed first

23 quarter 1997 sales results in the first

24 quarter of 1998?

25 A. I don't remember any individual

Page 194

1 Smith
2 saying that.
3 Q. Did you ask for assurances on that
4 subject from anyone within Morgan Stanley?
5 A. Well, again the team was coming up
6 with the answers and that was just part of,
7 that was part of the process to talk to the 8 company about their numbers and their -- and 9 what they were, how competent, how
10 comfortable they were in telling us this was 11 going to happen.
12 Q. My question to you, sir, is whether 13 you asked the team or any particular person
14 on the team whether Morgan Stanley had 15 reached a conclusion that it was probable or 16 likely that Sunbeam would exceed its first
17 quarter 1997 sales results in the first
18 quarter of 1998?
19 A. I don't remember asking any
20 specific member of the team.
21 Q. Do you remember asking the people
22 generally for their view on that?
23 A. Yes.
24 Q. When did you ask that question?
25 A. As part of this process.

Page 195

1 Smith
2 Q. Do you remember a specific occasion
3 where you asked that question?
4 A. No.
5 Q. Do you remember a particular
6 meeting where you asked that question?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Do you remember whether you asked
9 that question before or after the press
10 release was issued?
11 A. Prior to the press release.
12 Q. Do you remember someone responding
13 to your question?
14 A. Not specifically.
15 Q. Do you remember receiving a
16 response to your question?
17 A. I remember people talking about the 18 issue.
19 Q. Do you remember whether as a group,
20 the Morgan Stanley team reached a consensus
21 that it was probable or likely that Sunbeam
22 would exceed first quarter 1997 sales
23 results?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Do you remember that in fact was

Page 196

1 Smith
2 the conclusion reached?
3 A. I -- that's my recollection.
4 Q. But you don't remember any
5 particular person expressing that opinion to 6 you, correct?
7 A. I do not.
8 Q. Did you personally have enough
9 information that would permit you to form
10 that opinion?
11 A. No, again I was part of the bigger
12 group and not directly involved with pursuing 13 this avenue of inquiry.
14 Q. So you personally didn't know one
15 way or the other whether that was a
16 reasonable conclusion, correct?
17 A. Did not have any firsthand
18 knowledge of that and was relying on greater
19 due diligence effort of the firm.
20 Q. Did you offer anyone your views
21 concerning the likelihood of Sunbeam
22 exceeding first quarter 1997 sales results?
23 A. I did not because I was too far
24 removed from the direct contact with the 25 company to go over this particular, you know,

Page 197

1 Smith
2 area of inquiry.
3 Q. Do you recall that there was a
4 meeting of the Leveraged Finance Committee on
5 March 20, 1998 to discuss whether approval
6 would be given to underwrite the senior loan
7 of Sunbeam?
8 A. Do I remember the meeting then?
9 Q. Yes.
10 A. I remember we had a meeting, I
11 don't remember for sure when it was.
12 Q. I'm going to show you, Mr. Smith,
13 what we have previously marked as CPH Exhibit
14 Number 76. The cover page is a memorandum
15 dated March 19, 1998 from R.B. Smith to
16 Leveraged Finance Commitment Committee,
17 subject Sunbeam, and it is a document that 18 bears Bates number Morgan Stanley 25829
19 through 25886.
20 I'd like you to look at this
21 document sufficiently, Mr. Smith, to tell me
22 whether you have ever seen it before.
23 A. Yes, I have.
24 Q. Can you tell me what it is?
25 A. It is the Commitment Committee memo

50 (Pages 194 to 197)

Page 198 1 Smith 2 that we, that the leveraged finance, the firm 3 had put together in acquiring or requesting 4 credit approval from the Leveraged Finance 5 Committee. 6 Q. And the credit approval that is the 7 subject of this material is the senior loan 8 of Sunbeam, correct? 9 A. Is the senior loan, yes. 10 Q. You're the author of the March 19 11 cover memo, correct? 12 A. I am the sender of this, yes. 13 Q. And your memorandum advises that 14 there will be a Leveraged Finance Commitment 15 Committee meeting regarding Sunbeam on 16 Friday, March 20 at 7:30 a.m., correct? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Did that meeting in fact take 19 place? 20 A. I believe it did. Let me say it 21 again. It did take place. Can I say it took 22 place on the 20th at 7:30, I don't remember. 23 Q. Did you attend the meeting? 24 A. I did. 25 Q. Now, there are a list of people on	Page 200 1 Smith 2 might have had. And then there is Bill 3 Strong. 4 Q. Are the members of the Leveraged 5 Finance Commitment Committee included among 6 that list? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Who among this group was on the 9 Leveraged Finance Committee? 10 A. To the best of my recollection it 11 was Sippelle, Rankowitz, Kourakos, Felix, 12 Smith, Newhouse were the core members. 13 In addition to that you would have 14 maybe Munger and -- I'm sorry, not Munger. 15 Meguid and maybe Ralph. 16 Q. Why do you distinguish between 17 those two people and the people you referred 18 to as the core group? 19 A. Because they would come 20 periodically to larger transactions or harder 21 transactions or something. They wouldn't 22 come all the time. Whereas the first five or 23 six that I mentioned there were there all the 24 time. 25 Q. Why were the other individuals
Page 199 1 Smith 2 the bottom of that memorandum under the 3 heading Distribution. 4 Do you see that? 5 A. I do. 6 Q. Can you tell me who those 7 individuals are? 8 A. Starting at the top? 9 Q. Yes. 10 A. Dwight Sippelle and Mike Rankowitz 11 were co-head of high yield sales and trading. 12 Bill Kourakos was I think at the time the 13 deputy head of high yield capital markets. 14 Rick Felix was the head of the credit 15 department. You have myself. Steve Newhouse 16 was at the time the head of high yield 17 capital markets. Leslie Bradford was the 18 deputy head of the credit department. Joel 19 Feldmann was a senior member of the high 20 yield capital markets group. S. Brown, I 21 don't remember that. Ralph Pellicchio was a 22 senior lawyer. Steve Munger was one of the 23 senior M&A professionals. Terry Mequid ran 24 IBD. Bill Sanders was his deputy. Ann 25 Short, I don't remember what function she	Page 201 1 Smith 2 included on the distribution list here? 3 A. Because they were participating. 4 Normally the way -- I don't know specifically 5 why these fellows were, but normally other 6 people would be, receive copies because they 7 were going to participate in this particular, 8 in a particular Leveraged Finance Commitment 9 Committee meeting. 10 For example, Bill Strong doesn't 11 show up all the time, but he would show up if 12 it was his client. 13 Q. Mr. Strong is somebody who is on 14 the Sunbeam team, correct? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. There is no one else on this list 17 that was part of the Sunbeam engagement team, 18 is there? 19 A. I don't think so. 20 Q. Why then a larger group than the 21 core group for purposes of this particular 22 Leveraged Finance Committee meeting? 23 A. This was not unusual to have other 24 people there, so I can't comment other than 25 as a matter of fact we'd have additional

51 (Pages 198 to 201)

2 faces there.
3 Leslie Bradford, for example, the
4 deputy head of credit, was there most of the 5 time anyway, whether Rick was there or not.
6 Q. Who made the decision whether to 7 add additional people in this particular
8 Leveraged Finance Commitment Committee
9 meeting?
10 A. I don't know. This was pretty much
11 boilerplate.
12 Q. Were you instructed to include
13 additional people?
14 A. I was not to the best of my
15 recollection.
16 Q. Did you make the choice?
17 A. No, I don't remember.
18 Q. Was there something about the size
19 or nature of this loan that made it one where 20 a group larger than the core group would be 21 involved in the decision-making process?
22 A. I would say that there were -- I
23 don't think it was size per se that got 24 everybody's attention. Just a very, very --
25 what's the word, kind of a -- it was a deal

Page 203

1 Smith
2 that had a lot of visibility outside and
3 inside.
4 Q. Were all of these people then going
5 to be responsible for voting yes or no with 6 respect to this proposed credit arrangement?
7 A. Not all the people on the 8 distribution.
9 Q. Who would have voting rights?
10 A. Sipprelle, Rankowitz, Kourakos,
11 Felix, Smith and Newhouse. And then if
12 Meguid showed up, he would have a vote too.
13 Q. Do you remember what the vote was 14 with respect to this particular loan, the
15 Sunbeam loan?
16 A. The vote here was unanimous to go
17 forward.
18 Q. Do you recognize the handwriting on 19 the first page of this document?
20 A. I do.
21 Q. Whose is it?
22 A. Mine.
23 Q. Do you recall when you put this
24 handwriting on this document?
25 A. I think I put it on the document

Page 204

1 Smith
2 during the meeting.
3 Q. These are notes that you took of
4 things that were said during the Leveraged
5 Finance Commitment Committee meeting?
6 A. Notes might be too strong a word.
7 Doodling.
8 Q. But these are writings you added to 9 this document --
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. -- during the course of the 12 Leveraged Finance Commitment Committee
13 meeting relating to the review of the Sunbeam
14 senior loan?
15 A. Yes.
16 Q. And you believe they reflect things
17 that were being said during the course of the 18 meeting?
19 A. No.
20 Q. These are things that you wrote for 21 what reason then?
22 A. I think it would be the
23 combination, things that I was thinking
24 about, things that might have been said,
25 things to follow up on, reminders to myself.

Page 205

1 Smith
2 Q. Do you recall that -- what, tell me
3 what these notes refer to.
4 A. I don't know. Don Uzzi I think is
5 somebody from the company. I don't know why
6 that came up.
7 Q. It says underneath his name "VP
8 sales"?
9 A. God, you have better eyes than I
10 do. Yup. Then these look like ranges of 11 numbers. So that might have been the street
12 estimates and then in terms of what their 13 first sales were going to be.
14 I don't know what the addition on 15 the other side, the 21, 15 and 10 is. That 16 could be some things that had to do with 17 these. And then the rest of it I don't know.
18 Q. The first entry at the top that is 19 circled is the number 112.5, correct?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. And the word next to that is the 22 word "short"?
23 A. That is what it looks like.
24 Q. Do you recall that that entry
25 relates to the, to how short street

Page 206

1 Smith

2 expectations for sales Sunbeam was as of

3 March 20?

4 A. No, I don't recall.

5 Q. Do you recall that at the Leveraged

6 Finance Commitment Committee meeting on March

7 20 there was discussion relating to the fact

8 that Sunbeam sales for January and February

9 were substantially below the sales for

10 January and February of 1997?

11 A. I believe that was discussed.

12 Q. Who made that point?

13 A. Oh, I think it was -- I don't know

14 who specifically made it. Somebody from the 15 team would have brought that up.

16 Q. Do you recall if it was Mr. Strong

17 who made that statement?

18 A. I do not recall who brought it up.

19 Q. Do you recall if it was you?

20 A. I believe it was not me.

21 Q. Do you recall if it was Mr. Hart?

22 A. I don't recall.

23 Q. Is there anyone else on this list

24 that it could have been in your view other

25 than you, Mr. Hart or Mr. Strong?

Page 207

1 Smith

2 A. This list here on the front page

3 may not have been all the people that

4 attended. There may have been other folks

5 from other disciplines that were there, for

6 example, like John Tyree or the credit person

7 who did the work. So I don't remember

8 everybody who was there, so necessarily who

9 brought it up and/or what type of discussion

10 followed and how many people participated in

11 that discussion.

12 Q. But you do recall that the

13 Leveraged Finance Commitment Committee was

14 advised that Sunbeam sales in January and

15 February of '98 were substantially below --

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. -- Sunbeam sales for January of 18 '97?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Do you recall that they were

21 advised that the primary reason for that was

22 that Sunbeam had accelerated the sale of

23 first quarter product into the fourth quarter

24 of 1997?

25 A. I don't remember exactly how it was

Page 208

1 Smith

2 described to the committee.

3 Q. Do you remember whether any

4 statements were made to the committee to

5 explain the reason why Sunbeam sales in the

6 first two months of 1998 were so far below

7 1997 sales results?

8 A. I remember a lot of conversation

9 about it. I think that some of the causes

10 were discussed, one of them being the sale of 11 the grills earlier, as well as expecting

12 sales at the last half of the month here to

13 get them close -- to get them above, excuse

14 me, where they thought they, where they were

15 last year.

16 Q. Now, there is a list of names at 17 the top of the second page.

18 A. Uhm-hmm.

19 Q. That's a memorandum to Leveraged

20 Finance Committee meeting?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Leveraged Finance Committee dated

23 March 20, 1998, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Do you recall if any of the

Page 209

1 Smith

2 individuals listed on the top portion of this

3 memorandum participated in the Leveraged

4 Finance Committee's meeting?

5 A. I don't -- I don't remember

6 specifically who's there from this group. As

7 I mentioned before, it was a bigger, a better

8 attended meeting than, than the norm because

9 of the visibility. So I think there were

10 members from other groups there. I'm pretty

11 sure there are members from other groups

12 there, but I couldn't specifically tell you

13 who was and who wasn't.

14 Q. Do you recall whether Mr. Strong

15 participated?

16 A. Yes, he did. I do remember him

17 participating.

18 Q. Do you remember if he was there in

19 person?

20 A. I thought he was there in person,

21 but I'm not a hundred percent sure.

22 Q. He might have participated by

23 telephone?

24 A. He could have participated by

25 conference call.

53 (Pages 206 to 209)

Page 210

1 Smith

2 Q. Do you remember if Mr. Strong was

3 asked for his recommendation that the company

4 proceed with the senior loan?

5 A. Mr. Strong, whether he was asked or

6 not, advocated going forward with the senior

7 loan.

8 Q. Do you have any memory of Mr. Tyree

9 being present?

10 A. I thought he was also.

11 Q. Now, if this meeting took place on

12 March 20, it's the day after Sunbeam's March

13 19 press release, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Do you recall if Mr. Tyree made any

16 statement -- let me ask a more general

17 question before we get to this particular

18 meeting.

19 Did Mr. Tyree or anyone else, sir,

20 ever advise you that Arthur Andersen had

21 taken the position that the statements

22 contained in Sunbeam's March 19 press release

23 were incomplete and misleading?

24 A. Your question is did Mr. Tyree

25 share that with me?

Page 211

1 Smith

2 MR. MARKOWSKI: Would you read

3 that question back, please.

4 (Record read.)

5 A. No.

6 Q. You have never heard that from

7 anyone?

8 A. No, this is the first time I'm

9 hearing it.

10 Q. Do you think it was appropriate

11 that the Leveraged Finance Commitment

12 Committee was advised of the performance of

13 Sunbeam in January and February of 1998 in

14 connection with evaluating the proposed loan

15 to Sunbeam?

16 A. I think it was appropriate in the

17 context of a, the overall due diligence and

18 in this part of the underwriting.

19 Q. Do you recall whether there was any

20 discussion at the Leveraged Finance

21 Committee's meeting concerning how quickly

22 Morgan Stanley would be able to syndicate its

23 position in the Sunbeam loan?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Were you asked to address that?

Page 212

1 Smith

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Do you recall who asked you to

4 address that?

5 A. No, but it would have -- not

6 specifically, but it would have been one of

7 the senior members of the committee.

8 Q. One of the core group members?

9 A. One of the core group.

10 Q. Do you recall what you said?

11 A. My best recollection is that we

12 thought it would take six to eight weeks,

13 which is pretty standard, to syndicate this

14 once we, once we got going.

15 Q. That is the same target date you

16 gave me earlier, correct, syndicating the 17 position by the first part of May?

18 A. I think we said the last part of 19 May. Yes.

20 Q. That was your view at that point in 21 time?

22 A. Yes, it was.

23 Q. And you expressed that view to the 24 members of the committee?

25 A. I did.

Page 213

1 Smith

2 Q. Did anyone during the course of the

3 Leveraged Finance Committee's meeting raise

4 the question of deferring or delaying the

5 decision?

6 A. The credit decision?

7 Q. Yes.

8 A. Not that I remember.

9 Q. Did anyone raise a question

10 concerning whether the timing of the 11 financing could be delayed so that the 12 closing would occur later?

13 A. I don't recall.

14 Q. Did anyone express any reservations

15 about proceeding with the loan?

16 A. The vote again was unanimous, so I

17 think the committee was on board to go

18 forward.

19 Q. Other than the final vote, did

20 anyone express any questions or concerns

21 about proceeding that reflected in your view

22 a reservation about the decision?

23 A. There were plenty of questions. I

24 wouldn't classify any of them as any

25 reservations.

54 (Pages 210 to 213)

Page 214

1 Smith

2 Q. Did anyone express any concerns

3 concerning the adequacy of the March 19 press

4 release as a disclosure to Sunbeam

5 shareholders?

6 A. I don't think that came up.

7 Q. After, sir, you became aware of the 8 substantial decline in Sunbeam sales in

9 January and February of 1998, did you raise a

10 question concerning the possibility of 11 deferring the financing to a later point?

12 A. I don't know.

13 Q. You didn't go back to Mr. Strong,

14 for example, and say perhaps we should

15 consider delaying the timing of the loan to

16 Sunbeam?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Did anyone else to your knowledge

19 make, raise such a question?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did you have any reservation, sir,

22 about proceeding with the Sunbeam loan?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Did you give any thought yourself,

25 whether you expressed it to anyone or not,

Page 215

1 Smith

2 whether it might be advisable to delay the

3 financing until Sunbeam's first quarter 1998

4 results were known?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Why not?

7 A. Because we the firm, big team, had

8 done the due diligence and the firm with all

9 of those resources employed was comfortable

10 that this was the, this was a prudent

11 decision. As part of that, but not the front

12 line, I agreed with the decision.

13 Q. You would think it was a prudent

14 decision whether or not Sunbeam in fact was

15 able to exceed its first quarter 1997 sales

16 results in the first quarter of 1998?

17 MR. CLARE: I object to the form

18 of the question. I'm not sure I understand

19 what you're asking.

20 MR. MARKOWSKI: I want to make

21 sure I'm clear on this because it is an

22 important question.

23 Q. Did you think, sir, that the loan

24 to Sunbeam was a prudent decision even if it

25 turned out to be the case that Sunbeam failed

Page 216

1 Smith

2 to exceed its 1997 sales results in the first

3 quarter of 1998?

4 A. I think whether the net exceeded or

5 was off a little bit was just one of many

6 factors and wouldn't have changed anybody's

7 opinion about whether to go forward.

8 Q. Well, you knew based on the

9 information we see on CPH Exhibit 152, that

10 Sunbeam had a lot of work to do, right, in

11 order to exceed first quarter 1997 sales

12 results?

13 Is that a fair statement?

14 MR. CLARE: Objection.

15 A. Sales?

16 Q. Yes.

17 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of

18 the question.

19 Q. A lot of orders to get and a lot of 20 sales to make.

21 A. They had to make some sales to beat

22 last year's.

23 Q. And they had about 10 days to get

24 that done, right?

25 A. Uhm-hmm.

Page 217

1 Smith

2 Q. Did you know it was uncertain at

3 that point whether Sunbeam would have in fact

4 exceeded its first quarter 1997 sales results

5 in the first quarter of 1998?

6 A. First of all, I wasn't part of the 7 phone call of checking with the company; and,

8 number two, everything's uncertain so who

9 knows.

10 It was represented to us, it was

11 represented to members of the team that

12 weren't on the phone call, by people who were

13 on the phone call, that the company had every

14 anticipation of achieving the numbers that

15 they had on that piece of paper.

16 Q. Would you then have prepared to

17 endorse going forward with the Sunbeam loan

18 on March 20, sir, if you knew that Sunbeam

19 would fail to exceed its first quarter 1997

20 sales results?

21 MR. CLARE: Objection, incomplete

22 hypothetical and calls for speculation. You

23 can answer if you can.

24 A. Tough to -- you can't make that

25 call in a vacuum. You have to get more

Page 218

1 Smith

2 information.

3 Q. What more information?

4 A. Why, how far were they off, what's

5 going on, those types of issues.

6 Q. What if they would have been $20

7 million short?

8 A. Again it's just a -- out of context

9 like that it's -- that doesn't mean much.

10 Q. What if they would have been $20

11 million short and the primary reason that

12 they were $20 million short was that they had

13 accelerated first quarter 1998 sales into the 14 fourth quarter of 1997, under those

15 circumstances would you have been comfortable

16 endorsing the senior loan to Sunbeam?

17 MR. CLARE: Same objections.

18 A. Hypothetical, it's -- I don't have

19 a view.

20 Q. You don't have any ability to offer

21 a view on that?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did you consider that possibility

24 that Sunbeam might be $20 million short?

25 A. Based on what the team had found

Page 219

1 Smith

2 out from the company, that while always a

3 possibility, didn't think it was anywhere

4 near a probability.

5 Q. But if Sunbeam -- your view was

6 even though it was uncertain whether Sunbeam

7 would exceed its first quarter 1997 sales in

8 the first quarter of 1998, you were still

9 comfortable recommending to the management of 10 Morgan Stanley making this loan, correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Let me direct your attention to

13 page 16.

14 A. Page 16 is it?

15 Q. Of the March 20 memo.

16 A. Yup.

17 Q. You see a listing at the top of

18 this page with a heading Coleman Synergy,

19 Synergies Rationale 118 million?

20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. Do you see several bullet points

22 below that heading?

23 A. I do.

24 Q. What is your understanding of what

25 those bullet points represent?

Page 220

1 Smith

2 A. Give me a second to refresh my

3 memory.

4 Q. Sure.

5 A. These look like -- the 118 looks

6 like it is the synergy number and then the

7 bullet points below that, for at least the

8 Coleman situation, are specific actions or

9 events that were going to happen, that the 10 company was going to take to realize the net.

11 Q. So these are the synergies that

12 this document reflects Sunbeam will realize

13 upon the acquisition of Coleman company.

14 Is that what this is intended to 15 describe to the members of the Leveraged

16 Finance Committee?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And this is the -- below that $118

19 million total on page 16 is the detail

20 concerning the actions or restructuring

21 events that will generate the $118 million in

22 synergies?

23 A. I wouldn't say the detail, but

24 bullet points where they think the 25 savings/synergies is going to come from.

Page 221

1 Smith

2 Q. And these were the synergies being

3 presented to the Leveraged Finance Committee

4 as those that would pertain to the Coleman

5 acquisition, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Do you know if any of the items

8 that are identified, the bullet point items

9 identified there originated with Coleman

10 company management?

11 A. I wasn't part to any of that. I

12 have no idea.

13 Q. Do you know if any of the ideas

14 listed there originated with my client,

15 Coleman (Parent) Holdings?

16 A. No, no idea.

17 Q. Do you know if any of the items

18 listed on the top of page 116 concerning

19 potential Coleman synergies originated with

20 McAndrews & Forbes?

21 A. No idea.

22 Q. Or Mr. Perelman personally?

23 A. No idea.

24 Q. Mr. Gittes?

25 A. No idea.

56 (Pages 218 to 221)

Page 222

1 Smith

2 Q. Or Jerry Levin?

3 A. No idea.

4 Q. I think I mispronounced his name.

5 Jerry Levin.

6 Do you know who Jerry Levin is?

7 A. Yes, I do.

8 Q. And in March of 1998, the first

9 part of 1998 he was the chief executive

10 officer of Coleman company, correct?

11 A. I believe so.

12 Q. Did you ever have any discussions

13 with Jerry Levin concerning potential

14 synergies?

15 A. Not until after he was in charge of 16 the Sunbeam.

17 Q. After he became chief executive

18 officer of Sunbeam you had some discussions

19 with him about synergies?

20 A. A variety of discussions.

21 Q. But prior to the funding of the 22 senior loan to Sunbeam, you had no

23 discussions with Mr. Levin --

24 A. No discussions.

25 Q. -- concerning potential synergies?

Page 223

1 Smith

2 A. I never met the man.

3 Q. Did you have discussions with any

4 member from Coleman company regarding

5 potential synergies before the senior loan

6 closed?

7 A. I did not.

8 Q. Anybody with Coleman (Parent)?

9 A. I did not.

10 Q. Or McAndrews & Forbes?

11 A. I didn't.

12 Q. Do you remember anyone at the 13 Leveraged Finance Committee -- excuse me.

14 Do you remember anyone at the

15 Leveraged Finance Commitment Committee's

16 meeting saying that with respect to the

17 potential Coleman synergies, we're relying on

18 Coleman management for those concepts or the 19 values associated with them?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Do you recall there being

22 discussion at the Leveraged Finance

23 Commitment Committee's March 20 meeting

24 concerning the fact that the funds raised

25 through the convertible debenture offering

Page 224

1 Smith

2 had been increased from 500 million to $750

3 million?

4 A. I think it came up during the

5 meeting.

6 Q. You have expressed the view that

7 that was a positive development with respect

8 to the security that the senior lenders had,

9 correct?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Was that, is that view also

12 expressed at the Leveraged Finance Commitment

13 Committee's meeting?

14 A. I don't know about directly, but if

15 there is less debt and more junior capital,

16 that's always, that's always a positive from

17 the lender's point of view.

18 Q. Let me direct your attention to 19 page 2 of this memo.

21 Q. It has Bates number MS 25831.

22 Do you see that?

23 A. Uhm-hmm, yes.

24 Q. There is a box at the bottom, it

25 says "Expected economics."

Page 225

1 Smith

2 Do you see that?

3 A. Uhm-hmm.

4 Q. Above that there is a statement in

5 typed text that reads "We're asking the

6 committee to approve underwriting 2 billion

7 in senior secured credit facilities"?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And underneath that there are two

10 boxes, one with the word "April" handwritten

11 in and then an arrow to another box that has

12 the word "mid-May," the words "mid-May"

13 written in it.

14 Do you see that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Is that your handwriting?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What is that a reference to?

19 A. The syndication timetable.

20 Q. And does April mean?

21 A. Starting April.

22 Q. What does mid-May refer to?

23 A. Mid-May when it finishes up.

24 Q. And that would be the point by

25 which Morgan Stanley's participation in the

57 (Pages 222 to 225)

Page 226

1 Smith

2 Sunbeam loan would be reduced to the 50 to

3 $60 million range that you referred to

4 previously?

5 A. Yes, that is when the syndication

6 should be completed.

7 Q. Now, there is several notes made in

8 or around the box that is labeled "Expected

9 Economics."

10 Do you see that?

11 A. I do.

12 Q. Are those your notes again?

13 A. Yes, they are.

14 Q. Can you interpret them for me?

15 A. The -- I think this was trying to 16 go ahead and come up with or play with how

17 much in terms of fees that Morgan Stanley

18 would make for the, for entering into this

19 underwriting.

20 Q. And what does this show?

21 A. Well, let's see. I think in the 22 memo it shows 5-1/2 to 6. My handwriting is

23 6 to 9. For whatever reason I had 5 -- 8-1/2

24 to 9-1/2, just doing, playing around with the 25 numbers in terms of the total compensation

Page 227

1 Smith

2 for us for taking 40 percent of this loan.

3 Q. Does that include, does Morgan

4 Stanley receive additional fees when the loan

5 is syndicated?

6 A. No, no.

7 Q. Mr. Smith, let me show you what

8 we're marking as CPH Deposition Exhibit

9 Number 153. It's another version, another

10 copy of your March 19 memorandum and another

11 copy of the March 20 memorandum to the

12 Leveraged Finance Committee. It bears Bates

13 number Morgan Stanley 18885 through 19 --

14 excuse me -- 18942.

15 (Coleman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit

16 153, document bearing Bates number

17 Morgan Stanley 18885 through 18942,

18 marked for identification, as of this

19 date.)

20 Q. My question, sir, is whether you

21 can identify the handwriting on the first

22 page of this exhibit?

23 A. I cannot.

24 Q. It is not your handwriting?

25 A. Not mine.

Page 228

1 Smith

2 Q. Not any portion of it?

3 A. I haven't looked through every

4 page, but certainly not the first page.

5 Q. I'm just talking about the first

6 page.

7 Did you attend any -- did you

8 understand Morgan Stanley assisted Sunbeam in

9 connection with the marketing of the 10 convertible debentures?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Morgan Stanley was the sole

13 underwriting with respect to the convertible

14 debentures, correct?

15 A. I believe so.

16 Q. And a road show was held to assist

17 Sunbeam in marketing those securities,

18 correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you attend any of the road show

21 presentations?

22 A. I don't believe so.

23 Q. Are you aware of any statements

24 made subsequent to the issuance of the March

25 19 press release, by either Morgan Stanley or

Page 229

1 Smith

2 by Sunbeam representatives, that attempted to

3 minimize the significance of the March 19

4 press release to potential investors and

5 convertible debentures?

6 A. No, I wasn't part of.

7 Q. No one ever reported such

8 statements were being made to you?

9 A. I didn't know.

10 Q. After the March 19 press release,

11 sir, did you think it was especially

12 important for Morgan Stanley to track Sunbeam

13 sales activity in the closing days of the 14 quarter?

15 A. I thought it was important to 16 continue and complete our due diligence

17 before we close the loan.

18 Q. Did you get any undated information

19 after the March 19 press release concerning

20 Sunbeam's efforts to achieve sales at least

21 as great as the first quarter of 1997; for

22 example, a report on how many sales had been

23 made since the March 19 press release?

24 A. I don't recall seeing anything like

25 that.

58 (Pages 226 to 229)

Page 230

1 Smith

2 Q. Did you request daily reports on

3 Sunbeam sales activities?

4 A. I did not. I don't know if the 5 team requested it.

6 Q. Did you receive any reports between

7 the March 19 press release and the closing of

8 my client, the sale of my client's interest

9 in Coleman company, concerning the status of 10 Sunbeam's first quarter sales efforts?

11 A. I don't remember what I got or what

12 the team got.

13 Q. So between -- let me focus your

14 attention to the time period I'm talking

15 about.

16 Between March 19, 1998 and March

17 30, 1998 do you recall receiving any

18 information concerning the status of

19 Sunbeam's sales activities subsequent to

20 March 19?

21 A. I don't -- I remember -- I don't

22 recall getting anything written, but I think

23 members of the teams who were spending time

24 with the company -- maybe I should have said

25 it before, it wasn't just us.

Page 231

1 Smith

2 We focused a hundred percent on the

3 Morgan Stanley efforts. We have two partners

4 here, First Union, Bank of America, going

5 through the same thing. So they, so

6 everybody I think is talking about this and

7 we're thinking about it.

8 And I don't remember any pieces of

9 paper or being part of any particular

10 conversations myself with anybody from the

11 company.

12 Q. Well, let me make sure we're clear

13 on this. Regardless of what the source was,

14 whether it was Sunbeam, Morgan Stanley, Bank

15 of America or First Union or someone else, do

16 you recall whether you received any

17 information subsequent to Sunbeam's March 19

18 press release, prior to the closing of the

19 acquisition of my client's interest in

20 Coleman company on March 30, relating to 21 Sunbeam's sales efforts between March 19 and

22 March 30?

23 A. I don't remember anything specific.

24 Q. Do you remember anything generally?

25 A. No

Page 232

1 Smith

2 Q. Did you instruct anyone to contact

3 any of the customers that were listed on CPH

4 Exhibit Number 152, sir, to find out what

5 their plans were for making purchases from

6 Sunbeam?

7 A. I would not, that would not have

8 been my function.

9 Q. Do you know whether anyone from 10 Morgan Stanley was asked to do that?

11 A. I do not know.

12 Q. Do you disagree, sir, that on

13 monitoring Sunbeam's end of the quarter sale

14 effort should have been Morgan Stanley's

15 highest priority at that point in time?

16 MR CLARE: I object to the form

17 of the question, argumentative.

18 A. I guess I do disagree.

19 Q. Why?

20 A. Because I think that is one part of 21 the continuing due diligence that we were

22 performing right up until the, right up until

23 the end.

24 Q. As you sit here you don't have any

25 recollection of getting any information from

Page 233

1 Smith

2 any source, including the Morgan Stanley due

3 diligence team, relating to Sunbeam's sale

4 efforts between March 19 and March 30,

5 correct?

6 A. No

7 Q. You don't have any recollection of

8 that?

9 A. No, I do not. But again the team,

10 the big team is there doing that work and I

11 have a lot of confidence in the team all the 12 way from the leveraged finance people to the 13 John Tyree and people from the credit

14 department, so that I think the firm was ably

15 served by those folks and its efforts to 16 parse through this.

17 Q. Are you aware, sir, that the agenda

18 prepared by the due diligence team for -- are

19 you familiar with the concept of bring-down

20 due diligence?

21 A. Yes, I am.

22 Q. And what does that term mean to

23 you?

24 A. Just before you close, to get on

25 the phone with the company, maybe sometimes

Page 234

1 Smith
2 their auditors, to make sure and have the
3 opportunity to ask them kind of the last
4 questions, if there has been any changes from 5 what we all thought had been going on in the 6 last -- since the last time we did it.
7 Q. Were you advised by anyone that
8 Sunbeam's -- that Morgan Stanley's bring-down
9 due diligence agenda was revised after March
10 19 to omit the subject of Sunbeam's views
11 concerning its prospects for the second
12 quarter of 1998?
13 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of
14 the question, lack of foundation. I think it
15 also assumes facts not in evidence. You can
16 answer.
17 A. No, no knowledge at all.
18 Q. No one told you that the due
19 diligence team had been told not to make
20 inquiry into Sunbeam's views of its prospects
21 for the first -- second quarter of 1998 after 22 the March 19 press release was issued?
23 MR. CLARE: Same objections.
24 A. Nobody told me that.
25 Q. Do you think that would be an

Page 235

1 Smith
2 appropriate subject to drop?
3 A. I would be flabbergasted if that
4 ever happened to Morgan Stanley.
5 Q. Do you think that would be an
6 important area to keep inquiring about right
7 up to the time the loan closed?
8 A. I would think that would be part of 9 the continuing due diligence process until 10 the loan closed.
11 Q. So you would be shocked if that 12 subject was specifically omitted from the 13 bring-down due diligence agenda?
14 A. Again I'm not part of the 15 bring-down due diligence agenda process, but 16 I would be shocked that that wasn't part of 17 the continuing due diligence.
18 And again I have no knowledge of 19 that document that you're referring to or 20 what was in or taken out.
21 Q. But you didn't participate in any
22 discussion where people discussed dropping
23 that subject?
24 A. No. No, I had no knowledge of it.
25 Q. Well, the senior loan closed on

Page 236

1 Smith
2 March 30, 1998, correct?
3 A. I believe that's right.
4 Q. Did Morgan Stanley make efforts to 5 move forward with the syndication process at 6 that point?
7 A. Yes.
8 Q. Had efforts been undertaken even 9 prior to the closing of the loan, to initiate 10 the syndication process?
11 A. No.
12 Q. And why is that?
13 A. We didn't have enough time. We 14 were too busy scrambling to complete the due
15 diligence, do all the documentation, complete
16 the loan agreement, which was essentially
17 before we could advance the money.
18 There was a time line, I mean a
19 deadline, so that was the primary focus.
20 Once that was completed, then we shaped our 21 resources to putting together, to put
22 together materials to start the syndication
23 of the loan.
24 Q. When did that start?
25 A. Probably the day after we closed

Page 237

1 Smith
2 the loan.
3 Q. Who was responsible for that
4 effort?
5 A. It was under my supervision, then
6 assisted by the team of Mr. Hart, I guess Mr.
7 Rankin by then, and then we also had our two 8 other banks that were taking pieces of the 9 underwriting.
10 Q. First Union and Bank of America?
11 A. First Union, Bank of America.
12 Q. Were the efforts to syndicate the 13 loan, the senior loan, disrupted?
14 A. I'm sorry, were they --
15 Q. Disrupted? Did something happen to 16 affect the plan for completing the 17 syndication of the loan by mid-May?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. What was that?
20 A. Well, we had to -- we had to right
21 the book and continue to get information. We 22 were trying to remember what happened, it was 23 a long time ago, six years ago, is that bits
24 of information came out and then we started
25 getting more and more, had more and more

Page 238

1 Smith

2 questions for the company back and forth.

3 Q. Do you recall that, do you recall

4 if something happened that affected your

5 objective of completing the syndication by

6 mid-May?

7 A. I don't remember specifically, but

8 there were, as I remember there were a series

9 of events that precluded us from going right

10 when we wanted to, which in the normal course

11 would have been two to three weeks after we

12 closed the loan.

13 Q. Do you recall that Sunbeam issued a

14 press release on or about April 3, 1998 in

15 which it announced that it had failed to

16 exceed first quarter 1997 sales results?

17 A. I'm sure I saw it, but I don't

18 remember what it said.

19 Q. Did that have, did that

20 announcement have any effect on the timing

21 for the syndication?

22 A. I think that it was part of the,

23 part of the series of events. It could have

24 been the first series of events. Part of the 25 series is the 3rd is only four days after the

Page 239

1 Smith

2 fact. So we are in the midst of preparing

3 our offering memorandum and the rest.

4 Q. I just want to try and understand

5 what effect that announcement had, if any, on

6 the timing.

7 The objective was to complete the

8 syndication by mid-May, correct, that is what

9 is being told to the Leveraged Finance

10 Committee?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Sunbeam issues a press release on

13 April 3 announcing that it had failed to

14 exceed first quarter 1997 sales results?

15 A. Uhm-hmm.

16 Q. That announcement in and of itself,

17 did that have any effect on your views

18 concerning the achievability of the May 15

19 date for completing the syndication?

20 A. Not then.

21 Q. Do you recall that in the first

22 part of May Sunbeam and the three banks

23 agreed to amend the senior loan agreement to 24 reduce the amount of the financing being

25 provided?

Page 240

1 Smith

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. What precipitated that change in

4 the loan arrangement?

5 A. Let's see. I guess they were able

6 to raise more on the convertible so they

7 didn't need quite so much bank debt. We --

8 and I think they revised the amount of

9 revolving credit they think they needed, so

10 we were able to reduce the bank loan

11 accordingly. I think that's what happened

12 then. Plus --

13 Q. I'm sorry, did you have something

14 else you wanted to say?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did Sunbeam's first quarter 1998

17 results have any bearing on the amendment to 18 the credit agreement to reduce the amount of 19 the financing?

20 A. It was part of the process.

21 Q. Did the fact that Sunbeam had

22 failed to exceed first quarter 1997 sales

23 cause the banks to request Sunbeam to reduce

24 the amount of the financing from 2 billion to 25 1,700,000,000?

Page 241

1 Smith

2 A. No, I think that is a simplistic

3 version of it. I think as more and more

4 information came out and more and more work

5 was done that the banks got, and then the

6 company agreed to reduce the amount of the 7 facilities.

8 Q. What I'm trying to understand, sir,

9 is whether -- Sunbeam, as we discussed,

10 raised an additional $250 million through its

11 convertible debenture?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. What I'm trying to understand is

14 whether that was the reason why the senior

15 loan facility was reduced by $300 million, or

16 whether there was something about the

17 Sunbeam's financial performance that caused

18 the banks to reduce the amount of the

19 financing?

20 A. I'm sorry, I misunderstood your

21 question. The, they only needed so much

22 money to make these acquisitions and the --

23 if they were able to raise more money in the 24 convertible market, then they needed less

25 bank debt, so as -- and the company made the

61 (Pages 238 to 241)

Page 242

1 Smith

2 decision to take more of the convertible, and

3 so consequently we reduced the bank debt.

4 Q. So the reason why the bank debt, at

5 least as far as you can recall, was reduced

6 from 2 billion to 1,700,000,000 was the fact

7 that Sunbeam had raised additional funds

8 through the convertible debenture offering

9 and didn't need the $2 billion until the

10 financing?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Let me show you what we are marking

13 as CPH Deposition Exhibit Number 154, sir.

14 (Coleman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit

15 154, document bearing Bates number FUNB

16 188 through 189, marked for

17 identification, as of this date.)

18 Q. CPH Exhibit Number 154 is a

19 two-page document that is a memorandum from

20 Thomas L. Molitar and Andrew J. Gamble to

21 distribution, and bears Bates number FUNB 188

22 through 189.

23 I assume you have never seen this,

24 sir, but correct me if I'm wrong.

25 A. I have never seen this, this is not

Page 243

1 Smith

2 one of ours.

3 Q. Do you know who Tom Molitar and

4 Andrew Gamble are?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Who are they?

7 A. They worked at First Union. And

8 Tom was on the leveraged finance as corporate

9 side, corporate lending side, and Andrew,

10 Andy was on the syndication side.

11 Q. Did you work with them in 12 connection with the loan to Sunbeam?

13 A. I did.

14 Q. Do you see there are a series of 15 numbered paragraphs in this memorandum?

16 A. I do.

17 Q. I want to focus your attention on 18 the second one.

19 A. Uhm-hmm.

20 Q. It starts with the statement "The

21 parties have agreed to amend the credit

22 agreement that will reduce FUNB exposure from

23 600 million to 510 million."

24 Do you see that statement?

25 A. I do.

Page 244

1 Smith

2 Q. I would like you to explain to me

3 the different items, bullet point items that

4 appear below that with respect to the changes

5 to the Sunbeam senior loan arrangement.

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. The total credit line, you see that

8 bullet?

9 A. Uhm-hmm.

10 Q. From 2 billion to 1.7 billion, that

11 reflects the $300 million reduction we are

12 talking about?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. The second item, LIBOR spread, 150

15 EPS to 225 EPS?

16 A. Yup.

17 Q. Can you explain that to me?

18 A. This is the LIBOR, the spread over

19 LIBOR. So originally LIBOR plus 150 loan to

20 LIBOR plus 225 loan. I'm guessing here

21 because this isn't mine, I haven't seen this

22 before, but that's how I --

23 Q. That's how you interpret this?

24 A. Uhm-hmm.

25 Q. And the reference here is to the

Page 245

1 Smith

2 interest rate being charged?

3 A. Yes, to the company.

4 Q. And this reflects an interest rate

5 increase of about three-quarters of a

6 percent?

7 A. It does.

8 Q. Do you recall why that change was

9 made?

10 A. I think what happened here, I guess

11 this is refreshing my memory a little bit, is

12 they came out with some new numbers and new

13 projections and so the banks were, thought it

14 important to change the rate to enhance their

15 ability to sell this.

16 Q. What -- could you move your hand

17 down from your face, sir. I'm sorry.

18 What power did the banks have under

19 the credit agreement to increase the interest

20 rate being charged on the loan?

21 A. I can't remember whether we had --

22 I don't know what contractual right we had,

23 but... So the, our ability to get them to 24 agree to this, I don't remember all of the 25 bells and whistles that we did to make this

62 (Pages 242 to 245)

Page 246

1 Smith
2 happen.
3 Q. Do you remember if it was, if there
4 was, whether Sunbeam resisted the bank's
5 desire to increase the interest rate on the
6 senior loan?
7 A. I think they negotiated, but I
8 don't see resisted here.
9 Q. You believe it is possible the 10 banks had the right to impose an interest
11 rate increase?
12 A. No, I don't think so. I don't
13 think it was that easy.
14 Q. So you think there was a subsequent 15 negotiation with Sunbeam that resulted in an 16 increase in the interest rate?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. What was the reason why the banks
19 wanted to increase the interest rate?
20 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of 21 the question, calls for speculation with 22 regard to the other banks.
23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Let me rephrase
24 the question.
25 Q. Did Morgan Stanley Senior Funding

Page 247.

1 Smith
2 support the increase in the interest rate on
3 the senior loan?
4 A. Yes, we did.
5 Q. And why?
6 A. To assist our ability to sell the 7 loan into the market.
8 Q. So it would help Morgan Stanley
9 Senior Funding and the others banks sell off
10 their, sell off portions of their loan to 11 Sunbeam to other banks?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. The last statement in this section
14 says "Our up-front fees have been affected by 15 the facility reduction. Those are effective
16 up-front fees, now 132 basis points up from 17 112.5 basis points."
18 Do you see that?
19 A. Yes, I do.
20 Q. Would it have been typically the 21 case that if a facility was reduced so
22 quickly after the loan is made, that the 23 up-front fees would be adjusted accordingly?
24 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of
25 the question.

Page 248

1 Smith
2 A. Well, I guess I would argue that
3 the up-front fees were adjusted. All that 4 happened was they reduced the amount of the 5 facility from 2 to 1.7 and the lenders kept a
6 piece.
7 Q. Right. The up-front fees are
8 typically a percentage of the loan amount,
9 correct?
10 A. Right, the original commitment.
11 Q. And here the commitment is being 12 reduced?
13 A. Right.
14 Q. Shortly after the loan was made?
15 A. Uhm-hmm.
16 Q. Would it typically be the case that 17 the up-front fees would be adjusted under 18 those circumstances or not?
19 A. Well, this is an unusual situation,
20 so I don't know if there is anything
21 customary or normal.
22 The company in Canada, as you
23 probably know, reduced the amount of these 24 commitments at any time and they, as part of 25 this process they elected to do this and

Page 249

1 Smith
2 that's what happened.
3 Q. Did Sunbeam save any money by
4 reducing the amount of the loan commitment
5 from a billion 7 to -- excuse me, from 2
6 billion to 1,700,000,000?
7 MR. CLARE: Objection, no
8 foundation.
9 A. Well, what happened is they reduced
10 their revolving credit I guess and so they 11 didn't have to pay any unfunded on whatever
12 they reduced that to.
13 Q. Sunbeam didn't draw down the full
14 $2 billion or the full $1.7 billion
15 immediately, correct?
16 A. No.
17 Q. Were there fees being charged or 18 interest being charged on the unfunded
19 portion of the facility?
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. So by reducing the facility from 2
22 billion to 1.7 billion would Sunbeam realize
23 a savings on those fees?
24 A. They would realize a savings on 25 those fees, but the net total financing fees

63 (Pages 246 to 249)

Page 250 1 Smith 2 on an annual basis would have gone up because 3 of a change in the interest rates. It would 4 far eclipse that savings. 5 Q. There is a statement -- let me 6 direct your attention to the second page, 7 Exhibit 154. 8 After the last numbered paragraph 9 there is a paragraph that starts with the 10 following sentence: "As a result of the 11 amendments to the credit agreement, we 12 believe that this facility will be syndicated 13 as originally expected." 14 Do you see that statement? 15 A. I do. 16 Q. Was that your view also as of May 17 8, 1998? 18 A. Oh, gee, I have no idea. 19 Q. Mr. Smith, I'm going to show you 20 what we're marking as Coleman (Parent) 21 Holdings Deposition Exhibit Number 155. It's 22 a document, it bears the cover page Sunbeam 23 $1.7 Billion Senior Secured Credit Facilities 24 Confidential Information Memorandum, it is 25 dated June 1998, and it bears Bates number	Page 252 1 Smith 2 A. Uhm-hmm. 3 Q. A schedule, correct? Timetable? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And the timetable reflected here is 6 the timetable for completing the syndication, 7 correct? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And it starts with a lender meeting 10 on June 9 and it ends with the closing and 11 funding on July 9, correct? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Now, this schedule is somewhat 14 different from the one that you were 15 contemplating when the loan was approved by 16 the Leveraged Finance Committee on March 20, 17 correct? 18 A. Yes, it is. 19 Q. And what caused this change in 20 schedule to a target of completing the 21 syndication by July 9 instead of mid-May? 22 A. The biggest change, as I remember, 23 was that the company came up with a new set 24 of projections. 25 Q. And how did that affect the timing?
Page 251 1 Smith 2 FUNB 10440 through 10557. 3 (Coleman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit 4 155, document bearing Bates number FUNB 5 10440 through 10557, marked for 6 identification, as of this date.) 7 Q. My first question, Mr. Smith, is 8 whether you can identify this document for 9 me. 10 A. It appears to be the offering 11 memorandum that was put together for the 12 syndication of the $1.7 billion Sunbeam loan. 13 Q. And the purpose of this would have 14 been what? 15 A. The purpose of this would have been 16 to provide this information to banks and 17 institutional investors who are interested in 18 buying, in being part of the syndicate of 19 this loan. 20 Q. Let me direct your attention to 21 page number 8 of the document. 22 A. I'm sorry. 23 Q. Page number 8 of the document. 24 A. Okay. 25 Q. There is a calendar.	Page 253 1 Smith 2 A. Well, we wanted to make sure, this 3 is now the three lenders, the three 4 underwriters, that they understood completely 5 what was going on, that they had a full 6 knowledge of what was transpiring here, and 7 that we felt very comfortable based on the 8 due diligence and continued talks with the 9 company that these projections were in fact 10 achievable, and so we -- because we wanted 11 that to stop moving around, so we had 12 something we could incorporate into the 13 offering memo to get that into the market. 14 Q. As of the time this document was 15 provided to potential participants in the 16 syndication, was it your view personally that 17 it was still going to be possible -- well, 18 that it would be possible to complete the 19 syndication by July 9? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. Was it your expectation at that 22 point in time also that Morgan Stanley would 23 be able to reduce its participation in the 24 Sunbeam loan to the 50 to $60 million 25 arrangement that you identified as your

64 (Pages 250 to 253)

Page 254

1 Smith

2 objective previously?

3 A. Yes. And I believe it was also the 4 view of the other two underwriters.

5 Q. Let me direct your attention to

6 page 25.

7 A. 25? Okay.

8 Q. You see the second paragraph on

9 page 25 reads as follows, at least the

10 starting part of it. "On May 11, 1998

11 Sunbeam announced the integration with

12 expected annual cost savings of $253 million

13 to be achieved by the middle of 1999.

14 "The company also announced that it

15 expects to achieve incremental revenue of 16 $265 million as a result of revenue

17 opportunities."

18 Do you see those two statements?

19 A. I do.

20 Q. Do you know what the source was of 21 the statement here that the company expected

22 to achieve $253 million in cost savings and

23 $265 million in enhanced revenue through its

24 acquisitions?

25 A. The source I believe was Sunbeam

Page 255

1 Smith

2 because they are intimately, they, the

3 company, the issuer, intimately involved when

4 they put the offering memorandum together.

5 They provided a lot of the information. In

6 fact, most of the information, especially the

7 nonpublic information, this is a nonpublic

8 document. And they review all of this,

9 oftentimes have their lawyers review it. So

10 this to the best of my recollection came

11 right from there.

12 Q. Do you know that, are you aware

13 that Sunbeam was working with Coopers &

14 Lybrand in the spring of 1998 to develop a

15 restructuring plan for Sunbeam and the three

16 companies that it had acquired?

17 A. I, I was aware that they were

18 working on it. I'm not a hundred percent

19 sure when that happened in the March, April,

20 May context.

21 Q. Are you aware that it was Coopers &

22 Lybrand that estimated that the company could

23 expect to achieve $253 million in cost

24 savings and $265 million in enhanced revenues

25 as a result of its three acquisitions?

Page 256

1 Smith

2 A. I may have known that then, but

3 frankly I had forgotten it now.

4 Q. The 253 in cost savings and $265

5 million in revenue opportunities, are those

6 synergies from the three acquisitions?

7 Is that what this is describing?

8 A. I can't remember.

9 Q. Do you recall that Sunbeam in the 10 spring of 1998 announced that it expected to 11 achieve synergies resulting from its

12 acquisitions of Coleman company, Signature

13 Brand, First Alert that substantially

14 exceeded the synergies that were estimated

15 when the acquisitions were first announced?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Mr. Smith, let me show you what

18 we're marking as CPH Deposition Number 156.

19 It's a document that bears the cover page

20 Sunbeam 1.7, 1,700,000,000 Senior Secured

21 Credit Facilities Lender Meeting June 9,

22 1998, it bears Bates number FUNB 10583

23 through 10650.

24 (Coleman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit

25 156, document bearing Bates number FUNB

Page 257

1 Smith

2 10583 through 10650, marked for

3 identification, as of this date.)

4 Q. Have you seen this document before,

5 sir?

6 A. I have.

7 Q. Can you tell me what it is?

8 A. This looks to me to be copies of 9 the slide show that we put on for the loan

10 syndication meeting.

11 Q. Was a loan syndication meeting in 12 fact held on June 9, 1998?

13 A. To the best of my knowledge, yes.

14 Q. Did you participate?

15 A. I was in attendance.

16 Q. Who prepared this document, sir?

17 A. That's an interesting concept. We,

18 the banks would be putting the pages together

19 and then sending them to the company, that

20 would add an awful lot of its comments to

21 check the veracity of the numbers because it

22 was basically their presentation to the

23 banking community, not something for -- it is

24 their document. We assisted.

25 Q. The document itself is actually

65 (Pages 254 to 257)

Page 258 1 Smith 2 assembled by the bankers; is that correct? 3 A. Assembled I would say in terms of 4 printed, in terms of returns, but the 5 information, the content, the tone and all 6 the rest is really set by the company. 7 Q. And the third page of the document, 8 sir? 9 A. The third page? 10 Q. Has the agenda for the meeting? 11 A. Yes, it does. 12 Q. It indicates that Michael Hart at 13 Morgan Stanley make the initial remarks and 14 also make the concluding remarks, correct? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Do you recall if that is in fact 17 what took place that day? 18 A. I believe so. 19 Q. Did you speak at all at the 20 lenders' meeting? 21 A. I don't think so. 22 Q. Do you recall how many banks 23 attended? 24 A. Not specifically, but it was a lot. 25 Many institutions. My guess was there were	Page 260 1 Smith 2 A. That would have been communicated 3 over the phone like you do for a bond. 4 Q. Mr. Smith, I'm going to show you 5 what we're marking as CPH Exhibit Number 157. 6 It is a two-page document, it bears Morgan 7 Stanley Bates number 18702 to 703, and it 8 appears to be a printout of a Bloomberg press 9 announcement relating to the loan 10 syndication. 11 (Coleman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit 12 157, document bearing Morgan Stanley 13 Bates number 18702 to 703, marked for 14 identification, as of this date.) 15 Q. Have you seen this document before, 16 sir? 17 A. I don't remember. Let me 18 familiarize myself here. Okay, I have seen 19 this before. 20 Q. What is it? 21 A. It is a -- I guess it is a 22 Bloomberg, right? A Bloomberg article that 23 came out on the 11th of June, was it, 24 regarding the loan and the syndication 25 thereof.
Page 259 1 Smith 2 50 to 75 between institutions both in person 3 and on the phone. 4 Q. Was it your expectation at the end 5 of the bankers' meeting that day that Morgan 6 Stanley would still be able to successfully 7 complete the syndication of the Sunbeam loan 8 by July 9? 9 A. Yes, it was. 10 Q. Did you think the bankers' meeting 11 went well that day? 12 A. I think the bankers' meeting went 13 fine. We had $500 million worth of 14 commitments from some of the major 15 institutional players, so that was a very 16 nice start to the syndication. 17 Q. Who had made initial commitments? 18 A. The testimony I'm remembering now, 19 my recollection might have been people like 20 VKM, Merrill Lynch, Eaton Vance, that type of 21 institution, but I don't remember 22 specifically. 23 Q. What would be the form of the 24 commitment; how would that have been 25 communicated to you?	Page 261 1 Smith 2 Q. You are quoted in this, correct? 3 A. It looks like it. 4 Q. Do you remember making the 5 statements attributed to you in this article? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. Does the article accurately 8 reflect -- 9 A. Excuse me, can we turn this off? 10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Sure, we can go 11 off the record. 12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 13 3:34 and this completes tape number 2. 14 (Recess taken.) 15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 16 3:39, this begins tape number 3 of the 17 videotaped deposition of Mr. Bram Smith. 18 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 19 Q. Mr. Smith, we were looking at the 20 June 11 Blumberg article, you have it right 21 there. 22 Do you have it in front of you, 23 sir? 24 A. I do. 25 Q. And I believe you indicated that

66 (Pages 258 to 261)

Page 262

1 Smith
 2 the statements that are attributed to you in
 3 this article accurately reflect the
 4 statements that you made at the time?
 5 A. Yes.
 6 Q. The third paragraph contains a
 7 quote attributed to you that reads: "It is a
 8 very good fundamental story, said R. Bram
 9 Smith."
 10 Do you see that?
 11 A. Yes.
 12 Q. The very fundamental story that you
 13 are referring to there was a reference to the 14 bank syndication?
 15 A. No, I was referring to the company,
 16 to the Sunbeam story with its financial 17 strength, cash flow, good market condition in 18 many brands.
 19 Q. It was still your view as of June
 20 11 that Morgan Stanley and the other two 21 banks would be able to successfully complete
 22 the syndication by July 9?
 23 A. Yes.
 24 Q. Now, a couple of paragraphs further 25 down there is a statement that the company is

Page 263

1 Smith
 2 being shared by shareholders.
 3 Do you see that?
 4 A. I do.
 5 Q. The fact that there was a
 6 shareholder lawsuit didn't affect your 7 thinking with respect to the ability of 8 Morgan Stanley and the other banks that
 9 syndicated the senior debt?
 10 A. Well, I thought that we would still 11 be able to achieve our targets. I did
 12 mention in that paragraph that you cited
 13 before that it will be a challenge for some 14 lenders to get approval, and that's part of 15 the reason I thought that it might be a
 16 challenge to get some of the numbers,
 17 especially the banks to participate in this.
 18 But we had the flexibility of 19 increasing the terminal in B, which went to 20 the institutional market, and reducing the 21 amount that went into the bank market, so I
 22 think all three of us, it would be ourselves,
 23 First Union and Bank of America, felt that we
 24 would be able to achieve our syndication
 25 targets by the time advertised to, whatever

Page 264

1 Smith
 2 you said, July 9.
 3 Q. Right. So the shareholder lawsuit
 4 didn't affect that in light of the 5 flexibility you had to sell more of the loan
 6 to institutional investors?
 7 A. I think it made it more of a
 8 challenge, but it was still achievable in our 9 view.
 10 Q. There is also a statement that
 11 Sunbeam stock price had fallen more than 50
 12 percent and Sunbeam shares were trading at 13 18-1/2.
 14 Do you see that?
 15 A. Oh, yes, I do.
 16 Q. Do you recall that Sunbeam shares
 17 had been higher than even $50 a share in
 18 March of 1998?
 19 A. I don't recall that, but I'll take
 20 your word for it.
 21 Q. The fact that Sunbeam share price
 22 had fallen so substantially did not mean that 23 you would be unsuccessful in your efforts to 24 syndicate the bank loan?
 25 A. That was not my opinion at the

Page 265

1 Smith
 2 time. Again we're looking at this from a
 3 senior creditor's point of view. We thought
 4 that the cash flow story, the market story --
 5 excuse me, the market position story, their
 6 balance sheet story and the rest were, made
 7 this a very syndicable loan.
 8 Q. Clearly Sunbeam's shares had been 9 adversely affected by the news that had been 10 coming out about the company since March of
 11 1998, correct?
 12 A. It looks like that.
 13 Q. But the fact that its share price
 14 was being adversely affected did not mean
 15 that the senior lending aspect of the March
 16 transactions would be adversely affected?
 17 A. It doesn't necessarily move in 18 concert.
 19 Q. And why is that?
 20 A. Well, because banks are senior
 21 secured lenders, the leverage was relatively 22 low on a bank basis. The equity is the, are 23 the owners and they take all of the residual 24 risk.
 25 So the impact of a high stock price

67 (Pages 262 to 265)

Page 266

1 Smith

2 or a low stock price on the creditworthiness

3 and the cash flow characteristics of the

4 company are sometimes not related, oftentimes

5 not related.

6 Q. So, for example, Sunbeam's ability

7 to maintain a $50 share price or $40 share

8 price wouldn't be something that was

9 necessarily significant to you in evaluating

10 the creditworthiness of Sunbeam for the 11 purposes of the senior loan?

12 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of 13 the question. You can answer.

14 A. When we evaluate the feasibility of 15 doing these loans, we look at the balance

16 sheet and the business position, cash flow

17 and all the rest, not necessarily.

18 What's going on in the stock

19 market, whether the stock goes up or down is 20 not going to affect the balance sheet of the

21 company.

22 Q. There is a statement right below

23 that under Loan Division, the heading Loan

24 Division.

25 Do you see that?

Page 267

1 Smith

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. The loan is divided in a $750

4 million portion typically sold to

5 institutional investors and a $950 million

6 piece that is typically sold to banks.

7 That is something you just alluded

8 to, correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. The portion from which you had

11 already received an indication of interest

12 that you referred to earlier in your

13 testimony was which piece of this?

14 A. The 750 million piece.

15 Q. And your recollection today is that

16 you had commitments for about 500 million of

17 that 750?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Had you received any commitments

20 for the bank piece?

21 A. Not to the best of my recollection.

22 Normally the banks move much, much slower.

23 Q. Now, two days after this, on June

24 13 Mr. Dunlap was terminated.

25 Do you recall that happening?

Page 268

1 Smith

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. Did that have an effect on the

4 syndication?

5 A. Yup.

6 Q. In what way?

7 A. Well, that would be a -- having the

8 CEO be fired by the board makes it an

9 extremely challenging situation, a lot of 10 uncertainty.

11 Q. Do you know why Sunbeam's board

12 determined that it was appropriate to 13 terminate Mr. Dunlap?

14 MR. CLARE: Objection, no

15 foundation, calls for speculation.

16 A. No

17 Q. Let me show you a one-page

18 document, sir, that we are going to mark as

19 CPH Deposition Exhibit Number 158, it bears

20 Bates number CPH 1392612 and it is a June 15,

21 1998 article from the American Banker. It

22 bears the headline "Morgan Stanley Secures

23 500 Million Commitment for 1.7 Billion

24 Sunbeam Loan."

25 (Cdelema (Parent) Holdings Exhibit

Page 269

2 158, document bearing Bates number CPH

3 1392612, marked for identification, as

4 of this date.)

5 Q. Have you seen this document before,

6 this article before, sir?

7 A. Yup.

8 Q. There are several statements

9 attributable to you in this article.

10 Do they accurately report the 11 statements that you made to the reporter?

12 A. Give me a second and I'll look at 13 it. Okay.

14 Q. This article is dated June 15,

15 1998. Do you know if you made your

16 statements before or after -- the pending

17 question was does the article accurately

18 reflect the statements you made to the 19 reporter?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Do you know if you made those

22 statements before or after Mr. Dunlap was

23 terminated?

24 A. Don't remember.

25 Q. As of the time you made these

Page 270

1 Smith

2 statements to the American Banker reporter,

3 were you still optimistic that Morgan Stanley

4 would be able to complete the loan

5 syndication successfully?

6 A. When was he terminated?

7 Q. On June 13, which was a Saturday I

8 believe.

9 A. I think when you say confident we

10 would be able to do this, I think increasing,

11 some concern that that's going to be a

12 challenge.

13 Q. Do you know if this interview took

14 place before the news of Mr. Dunlap's

15 termination --

16 A. I can't remember.

17 Q. -- had been disclosed?

18 A. Can't remember.

19 Q. How did you learn that Mr. Dunlap

20 had been terminated?

21 A. I think I might have gotten a phone

22 call from Bill Strong over the weekend.

23 Q. What did Mr. Strong tell you?

24 A. That he had been, that Mr. Dunlap

25 had been terminated.

Page 271

1 Smith

2 Q. Did he say anything else?

3 A. Not that I, not that I recall. The

4 news was stunning and very new and I can't

5 remember whether they picked an interim CEO

6 or what they were going to do.

7 Q. Did Mr. Strong tell you how he had

8 learned this news?

9 A. I don't recall.

10 Q. Did Mr. Strong tell you why the 11 Sunbeam board had taken this action?

12 A. Not that I recall.

13 Q. Did he offer his thoughts

14 concerning why it may have happened?

15 A. Not that I recall.

16 Q. Did you and Mr. Strong have any

17 discussion about the effect this would have

18 on the syndication?

19 A. Not that I recall, but I'm sure we

20 did.

21 Q. Did Mr. Dunlap's termination have

22 an immediate effect on Morgan Stanley's plans

23 to syndicate the senior loan?

24 A. I'm going to confuse a little bit

25 of the timing here, but pretty shortly or

Page 272

1 Smith

2 during this period we decided, that would be

3 the three of us, the three underwriters

4 decided to cease the syndication of the loan.

5 So did that happen on the 15th or

6 16th or whenever I don't remember, but it was

7 all in that period of time.

8 Q. Let me show you what we're going to

9 mark as CPH Exhibit 159, it's a one-page

10 document, it bears Bates number CPH 1392969.

11 It appears to be an American Banker article

12 dated June 17, 1998, and it bears the

13 headline "Morgan Stanley Withdraws Loan To

14 Sunbeam After CEO's Firing."

15 (Coleman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit

16 159, document bearing Bates number CPH

17 1392969, marked for identification, as

18 of this date.)

19 Q. Have you finished reviewing it,

20 sir?

21 A. I did, uhm-hmm.

22 Q. Have you seen this before?

23 A. I must have. I don't really

24 remember.

25 Q. Are the statements attributed to

Page 273

1 Smith

2 you in this article accurate?

3 A. I don't think so because I'm

4 confused, I don't know what this one

5 statement attributed to me means.

6 "But I would say the flow of

7 information is typical of today's

8 lender-borrower relationship." A better word

9 might be disappointed, it doesn't even flow.

10 I'm quoted to sell down the loan

11 eventually, I think that is kind of probably

12 true. Am I quoted again?

13 I don't understand what the first

14 one means, I don't remember saying that.

15 Q. You don't remember saying "But I

16 would say the flow of information is typical

17 of today's lender-borrower relationship"?

18 A. No, and then certainly not jump the

19 position to the next sentence I'm imputed to 20 have made when a better word might have been

21 disappointed.

22 Q. What about the statement in the 23 next paragraph that "Morgan Stanley as well

24 as the co-syndicators, Bank of America Corp.

25 and First Union Corp., were not giving up on

69 (Pages 270 to 273)

Page 274

1 Smith
2 the deal?"
3 A. That is not my statement.
4 Q. It says "Mr. Smith stressed."
5 A. But again it is not a quote, that's
6 the writer.
7 Q. Do you recall saying to the author
8 of this article that Morgan Stanley and other
9 banks were not giving up on syndication?
10 A. I don't know what not giving up on 11 the deal means. It says here in my copy not 12 giving up on the deal versus not giving up on 13 the syndication, so this is -- the Sunbeam
14 had our money so it is kind of a meaningless
15 concept, that statement.
16 Q. Well, let me direct your attention
17 to the right-hand column.
18 A. Uhm-hmm.
19 Q. One, two, three, four, five, sixth
20 paragraph. It says "Mr. Smith said his team
21 will have to meet with Sunbeam's new
22 management to develop a strategy. Pending
23 that meeting a new run at the market is 24 likely later this year he said."
25 Do you recall making that

Page 275

1 Smith
2 statement?
3 A. I remember alluding to the fact
4 that they had 'o get to the bottom of what
5 was going on and then try to restart the 6 syndication some time, yeah.
7 Q. So your plan as of June 17, in any
8 event, Mr. Smith, was to attempt to go back
9 to the syndication market at some point in 10 the future?
11 A. Yes.
12 Q. Did you have any idea as of this 13 point in time how quickly you would be able 14 to do that?
15 A. No.
16 Q. Did you have any hope concerning
17 how quickly you would be able to do that?
18 A. Any what?
19 Q. Hope.
20 A. I always have hope. Remember what
21 happened here. Dunlap's fired, right, there
22 is nothing about any numbers, so the issue is 23 who is going to be the new CEO and what is 24 going to be the new strategy, so we have to 25 sort that out and see who that's going to be

Page 276

1 Smith
2 and then, and then get ready and take it to
3 market some time later. Can't do it too much
4 in the summer, so that's what I meant.
5 Q. Now, Mr. Levin had been announced
6 as Mr. Dunlap's replacement by this point; is 7 that correct?
8 A. I don't remember. Is that what it
9 says here? If not, it was pretty darn close.
10 Q. I'm looking for it, I think it is 11 in here somewhere.
12 Putting that aside, whether it is 13 in the article or not, do you recall that 14 fairly shortly, within a matter of days after 15 Mr. Dunlap was terminated, Mr. Levin was 16 identified as the new chief executive officer
17 of Sunbeam?
18 A. Yes, in the fourth paragraph. Yes,
19 I thought it was pretty close, within days if 20 not a week.
21 Q. Did you have any reaction to the
22 appointment of Mr. Levin as the replacement
23 for Mr. Dunlap?
24 A. Not really. I didn't know him.
25 Q. Do you recall anyone at Morgan

Page 277

1 Smith
2 Stanley expressing at this point in time
3 objections to Mr. Levin's appointment as the 4 new chief executive officer of Sunbeam?
5 A. Not that I'm aware of.
6 Q. Or any reservations about that?
7 A. Not that I'm aware of.
8 Q. What, sir -- move to a different
9 topic.
10 What did Morgan Stanley Senior
11 Funding do to attempt to assess the potential
12 synergies that Sunbeam could realize by
13 acquiring Coleman company?
14 A. Morgan Stanley Senior Funding --
15 let's see -- took advantage of what the 16 firm's effort had been on trying to 17 understand the synergies.
18 Also at the time we were exploring
19 the synergy of potential with the other two 20 underwriting banks, because again all of the 21 due diligence regarding the loan was done
22 with them as well.
23 Q. Do you agree that the evaluation of 24 potential synergies when combining two
25 companies, like combining Sunbeam and Coleman

70 (Pages 274 to 277)

Page 278 1 Smith 2 company, is highly dependent on the plans of 3 management? 4 A. The synergy strategy and plans and 5 the execution would rely on the management, 6 yes. 7 Q. So, for example, was Morgan Stanley 8 Senior Funding in a position where it could 9 independently assess the potential synergies 10 that Sunbeam could achieve by combining 11 itself with Coleman company? 12 A. Morgan Stanley, the other two banks 13 would probe the management and ask questions 14 on their synergy plans, remember those are 15 their plans, and therefore test, ask 16 questions to them about their ability to 17 execute it, those synergies on the timetable 18 given. 19 Q. So Sunbeam developed its plan for 20 combining itself with Coleman, correct? 21 A. That is normally how it works, and 22 to the best of my recollection that is how it 23 worked here. 24 Q. And they told Morgan Stanley what 25 their expectations were with respect to	Page 280 1 Smith 2 took with the Leveraged Finance Committee 3 concerning approval of the senior loan to 4 Sunbeam, did you place any weight at all on 5 any information that Sunbeam or Morgan 6 Stanley had received from Mr. Levin 7 concerning potential synergies? 8 MR. CLARE: Objection, foundation. 9 A. Not that I'm aware of. 10 Q. Do you have any basis today, sir, 11 for saying that Morgan Stanley Senior Funding 12 was defrauded as a result of false statements 13 made either to it or Morgan Stanley or to 14 Sunbeam, by Jerry Levin concerning potential 15 synergies? 16 MR. CLARE: Foundation, calls for 17 a legal conclusion. 18 A. I missed that, could you read that 19 back to me. 20 Q. I'll state it again, sir. 21 As you sit here today, do you have 22 any factual basis for -- let me start over. 23 As you sit here today, sir, do you 24 believe that Morgan Stanley Senior Funding 25 was defrauded as a result of statements made
Page 279 1 Smith 2 potential cost savings, correct? 3 A. And First Union and Bank of 4 America. 5 Q. Do you know if any of Sunbeam's 6 plans were estimates of potential cost 7 savings dependent upon ideas or information 8 that Sunbeam obtained from Coleman company? 9 A. I have -- 10 MR. CLARE: Objection, foundation, 11 call for speculation. You can answer. 12 A. I have no idea. 13 THE WITNESS: Sorry. 14 Q. Did you have any discussions 15 yourself with Sunbeam on the subject of 16 potential synergies prior to the funding of 17 the senior loan? 18 A. I don't believe so. 19 Q. Did, do you know if Mr. Hart did? 20 A. I don't know. 21 Q. Did Mr. Hart ever tell you that 22 Sunbeam's plans for potential cost savings 23 had originated with Mr. Levin? 24 A. I don't recall that. 25 Q. In connection with the position you	Page 281 1 Smith 2 by Jerry Levin to either Sunbeam, Morgan 3 Stanley or Morgan Stanley Senior Funding 4 concerning potential synergies that Sunbeam 5 might realize by acquiring Coleman? 6 MR. CLARE: Same objections. 7 A. I have no idea. 8 Q. As you sit here today, sir, do you 9 believe that Morgan Stanley Senior Funding 10 was misled by any statements made by Jerry 11 Levin to Morgan Stanley, to Sunbeam, or to 12 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding concerning 13 potential synergies? 14 MR. CLARE: Same objections. 15 A. No idea. 16 Q. Mr. Smith, let me show you what 17 we're marking as CPH Deposition Exhibit 18 Number 160, it is a one-page document that 19 bears Bates number Morgan Stanley 20 confidential 3143. 21 (Coleman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit 22 160, document bearing Bates number 23 Morgan Stanley confidential 3143, 24 marked for identification, as of this 25 date.)

2 Q. Have you ever seen this document

3 before, sir?

4 A. I don't know. It doesn't look

5 familiar.

6 Q. Put aside the handwriting. Have

7 you ever seen the typed portion of this

8 document before?

9 A. Yes, I guess I did. I guess I

10 have.

11 Q. When was that?

12 A. I saw it yesterday. And I can't

13 remember if I saw it when, during the 14 transaction.

15 Q. As you sit here today, you have no

16 recollection of seeing this during your work

17 in February and March of 1998?

18 A. No, not really.

19 Q. Do you recognize the handwriting?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Looking at the, this list of 15

22 items, sir, --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- do you know whether in

25 connection with Morgan Stanley Senior

Page 283

1 Smith

2 Funding's evaluation of potential synergies,

3 that any of the items on this list were taken

4 into account?

5 A. I really don't know.

6 Q. You have no knowledge that they

7 were, correct, sir?

8 A. I have no knowledge they were, I

9 have no knowledge they weren't.

10 Q. Do you have any information to 11 suggest that the items on this list in any

12 way affected the price that Sunbeam paid for

13 Coleman company?

14 MR. CLARE: Objection, no

15 foundation.

16 A. No, no idea.

17 Q. Do you have any basis for believing

18 that the items on this list were critical to 19 Sunbeam's assessment of Coleman's fair

20 acquisition value?

21 MR. CLARE: Same objection.

22 A. No idea.

23 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley or

24 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding ever suggest to

25 you, sir, that information that Sunbeam or

Page 284

1 Smith

2 Morgan Stanley had received from Coleman

3 relating to potential synergies was grossly

4 overstated?

5 MR. CLARE: Objection to form and

6 foundation.

7 A. I have no idea.

8 Q. Now, you indicated that the

9 syndication was pulled from the market upon

10 Mr. Dunlap's termination, correct?

11 A. It was shortly thereafter, the 12 Monday or Tuesday after the weekend.

13 Q. And the reason for pulling the 14 syndication from the market was Mr. Dunlap's

15 termination, correct?

16 A. That was the, that was the 17 catalyst.

18 Q. It didn't have anything to do with

19 any information that Coleman company had

20 provided to Sunbeam or to Morgan Stanley

21 relating to potential synergies, did it?

22 A. No, not that I was aware of.

23 Q. Your decision to pull the 24 syndication from the market didn't have

25 anything to do with any information that you

Page 285

1 Smith

2 had, you or anyone else from Morgan Stanley

3 had received from the Coleman company related

4 to the synergies?

5 A. No, it did not.

6 Q. Did you ever express to anyone that

7 Jerry Levin should not continue to serve as

8 the chief executive officer of Sunbeam

9 because he had exaggerated the potential

10 synergies that Sunbeam might achieve by

11 acquiring Coleman company?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Do you have any knowledge

14 concerning what synergies Sunbeam in fact did

15 realize as a result of acquiring Coleman

16 company?

17 A. I do not.

18 Q. Do you have any reason to believe

19 that Mr. Perelman and others at McAndrews &

20 Forbes did not expect Sunbeam to achieve

21 substantial synergies from Coleman company?

22 A. Did you say did not?

23 Q. I'll ask the question over.

24 Do you have any reason to believe

25 that Mr. Perelman or others at McAndrews &

72 (Pages 282 to 285)

Page 286

1 Smith

2 Forbes or Coleman (Parent) Holdings did not

3 expect Sunbeam to achieve substantial

4 synergies as a result of its acquisition of

5 Coleman company?

6 MR CLARE: Objection, calls for

7 speculation.

8 A. I really have no idea.

9 Q. My question is whether you have any

10 reason to believe that today?

11 A. I have no reason to believe that

12 today.

13 Q. In your communications with the

14 bankers at Bank of America or First Union,

15 did you ever indicate that the synergy

16 figures that MSSF was relying upon in

17 connection with evaluating the senior loan to 18 Sunbeam had originated with Mr. Levin?

19 A. I don't believe so.

20 Q. Or the Coleman company?

21 A. I don't believe so.

22 Q. Or with McAndrews & Forbes?

23 A. I don't believe so.

24 Q. Or with Coleman (Parent) Holdings?

25 A. I don't believe so.

Page 287

1 Smith

2 Q. Mr. Smith, let me show you what

3 we're going to mark as Coleman (Parent)

4 Exhibit 161, a three-page document, it bears

5 Bates number CPH 1010442 to 444.

6 (Coleman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit

7 161, document bearing Bates number CPH

8 1010442 to 444, marked for

9 identification, as of this date.)

10 Q. Earlier today, sir, you were

11 attempting to recall the name of someone at 12 McAndrews & Forbes named Irwin.

13 Was that Mr. Engelman?

14 A. I believe so. Isn't he the CFO?

15 Q. The reason I'm trying to assert, is

16 this is a memo from Mr. Engelman to Mr. Levin

17 concerning plans for a bank meeting on June

18 19.

19 Do you see that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And there is a list of attendees

22 that are anticipated to have attended that

23 meeting from Morgan Stanley, from Bank of 24 America and from First Union.

25 Do you see that?

Page 288

1 Smith

2 A. I do.

3 Q. And you're listed as an attendee,

4 do you see that?

5 A. I do.

6 Q. Do you recall attending a bank

7 meeting on June 19 with representatives of

8 McAndrews & Forbes, Mr. Levin?

9 A. Had a lot of meetings and my guess

10 is I was probably there.

11 Q. Do you recall attending a meeting

12 shortly after Mr. Dunlap's termination at

13 McAndrews & Forbes offices in Manhattan where

14 Mr. Hart, Mr. Smith, with you, Mr. Rankin and 15 Mr. Kitts were present from Morgan Stanley?

16 A. I remember going to McAndrews &

17 Forbes that week. I couldn't swear that

18 those were the fellows in attendance.

19 Q. Mr. Smith, let me show you what

20 we're going to mark for identification as CPH

21 Exhibit Number 162. It's a document that

22 bears Morgan Stanley Bates number 268988

23 through 891 and it's a Bank of America

24 letterhead, memorandum from Deirdre Doyle to 25 John H. Shannahan.

Page 289

2 (Coleman (Parent) Holdings Exhibit

3 162, document bearing Morgan Stanley

4 Bates number 268988 through 891, marked

5 for identification, as of this date.)

6 Q. I'm not going to ask you to read

7 the whole document, sir, but I'm going to

8 refer you to a couple of entries in this

9 document.

10 The first sentence indicates this

11 is a report on a meeting held by McAndrews &

12 Forbes offices on June 1998. Representatives

13 of Bank of America, First Union and Morgan

14 Stanley attended.

15 Do you see that statement?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. And there is a list of McAndrews &

18 Forbes participants.

19 Do you see that?

20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. Does this refresh your recollection

22 concerning your participation in a meeting at

23 McAndrews & Forbes offices on June 1998?

24 Mr. Gittis, Mr. Levin, Mr. Shapiro,

25 Mr. Engelman, Mr. Slotkin and Mr. Lipton of

Page 290

1 Smith
2 Wachtel Lipton were present?
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. Is it your recollection now that
5 you were in fact present at that meeting?
6 A. Yes. I thought you were referring
7 to a different meeting. I don't remember
8 Kitts, for example, being at this meeting.
9 Q. Do you recall -- put the document
10 down for a second, sir.
11 Do you recall at this meeting that
12 Mr. Levin addressed his views of analysis
13 that Coopers & Lybrand had done for Sunbeam
14 relating to potential synergies or cost
15 savings that Sunbeam might realize through 16 the combination of Sunbeam and Coleman
17 company?
18 A. Do I remember him commenting on it?
19 Q. Yes.
20 A. Yes.
21 Q. What do you remember Mr. Levin
22 saying?
23 A. I think -- it is a long time ago.
24 I think he had doubts about how realistic
25 those were.

Page 291

1 Smith
2 Q. Do you remember what words he used?
3 A. No.
4 Q. Do you remember how strongly he
5 expressed his doubts?
6 A. No.
7 Q. Let me direct your attention to the
8 bottom third of the first page of Exhibit
9 162. It starts out, there is a bullet point
10 that starts "In reviewing Dunlap's 1998 EPS
11 expectations for Sunbeam"?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. I would like you to read beginning
14 there through the bottom of the page.
15 A. Okay.
16 Q. Does this refresh your recollection
17 at all on statements made by Mr. Levin
18 concerning his views of the Coopers & Lybrand
19 synergy analysis?
20 A. Not really. I just remembered at 21 the meeting he was pretty derogatory toward 22 the whole thing. I really can't say that it
23 does jog my memory.
24 Q. Do you recall being advised that
25 Coopers & Lybrand had been fired?

Page 292

1 Smith
2 A. I think I do.
3 Q. And that the company was going to
4 refuse to pay Coopers & Lybrand's fee?
5 A. I think I heard that too. I think
6 I heard that too, yes.
7 Q. And the company was considering an 8 action to recover the fees that Coopers &
9 Lybrand had been paid?
10 A. I don't know about that.
11 Q. And did you understand, sir, from 12 anything Mr. Levin had said concerning
13 Coopers & Lybrand's study, that Mr. Levin was 14 expressing the view that information or ideas
15 that he had provided to Sunbeam concerning
16 potential synergies before the acquisition
17 took place were in any way exaggerated or 18 unreasonable?
19 A. I don't remember him addressing
20 that issue.
21 Q. When you left the meeting did you
22 think that Mr. Levin had confessed to 23 misleading Morgan Stanley --
24 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.
25 Q. -- relating to potential synergies?

Page 293

1 Smith
2 A. I had no, no view on that. I
3 wasn't part of the original synergy
4 discussion way back when. He didn't comment
5 here to the best of my recollection.
6 Q. I'm asking what your take-away was 7 from the meeting.
8 When you walked out did you think
9 that Jerry Levin just told us that he misled
10 Morgan Stanley or Sunbeam concerning the 11 potential synergies that Sunbeam might
12 achieve by acquiring Coleman company?
13 A. That was not my impression.
14 Q. At any point, sir, after Mr.
15 Dunlap's termination were you advised that
16 Coleman (Parent) Holdings wanted to rescind
17 the sale of its interest in Coleman company,
18 get the stock back?
19 A. I think so.
20 Q. What do you recall about that?
21 A. Not much. Basically what you said,
22 that is what they wanted to do.
23 Q. What was Morgan Stanley's or Morgan
24 Stanley Senior Funding's position with 25 respect to whether that was an advisable

74 (Pages 290 to 293)

Page 294

1 Smith
2 thing to do for Sunbeam?
3 MR. CLARE: Object to the form.
4 A. I don't remember.
5 Q. Do you recall Morgan Stanley or 6 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding taking the 7 position that Sunbeam should refuse to
8 rescind the acquisition of Coleman company?
9 A. No.
10 Q. Do you recall coming to the 11 conclusion that it would adversely affect 12 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding's exposure on 13 the senior loan if Sunbeam agreed to rescind
14 the acquisition of my client's interest in 15 Coleman?
16 A. No, I don't remember.
17 Q. When, sir, did Morgan Stanley --
18 let me ask a foundational question.
19 The Sunbeam senior loan has never 20 been syndicated; is that correct?
21 A. True.
22 Q. When did you finally conclude that 23 it would not be possible to syndicate the 24 senior loan?
25 A. I don't know if I had posed it that

Page 295

1 Smith
2 way. I think probably came to the conclusion
3 you couldn't syndicate it in '98, sometime in 4 the fall, and I don't know when we, when I
5 decided that it would be very problematic to 6 syndicate it in its current form.
7 Q. Do you recall whether you still
8 thought throughout the course of 1999 that it
9 might be possible yet to complete the 10 syndication of the loan?
11 A. I didn't think it would be possible
12 to syndicate the loan in the format that we 13 had.
14 Q. And what do you mean by "the format
15 that we had"?
16 A. As an all senior bank deal.
17 Q. What alteration did you think would 18 be necessary?
19 A. I didn't know what would work, but
20 I knew that you couldn't sell that much bank
21 debt into the bank market, so that the bank
22 debt was reduced by a form of, by form of 23 capital markets, high yield or something.
24 Q. When did you come to that
25 conclusion?

Page 296

1 Smith
2 A. I don't remember.
3 Q. Do you think it was sometime in
4 1999?
5 A. It might have been.
6 Q. It might have been later than that?
7 A. I don't think so. Probably
8 mid-'99.
9 Q. Did you have any continuing
10 responsibility for monitoring the Morgan
11 Stanley Senior Funding loan to Sunbeam after 12 the loan closed in March of 1998?
13 A. The monitoring at Morgan Stanley
14 somebody covered for it.
15 Q. Did you have any continuing
16 responsibility of any sort after March of 17 1998 relating to the loan?
18 A. Yes.
19 Q. What was that?
20 A. That was to -- you said after 21 March, so of course go through the 22 syndication, restructuring, probably said
23 syndicate it, pull it, talk to the other
24 banks and to the -- to Levin about what might 25 be -- what might be done, series of

Page 297

1 Smith
2 amendments and waivers, then my involvement
3 lessens as the credit folks and Mitch Petrick
4 get more and more involved.
5 Q. Mitch Petrick's involvement was on
6 behalf of the credit department?
7 A. No, it was on the part of the fixed
8 income/high yield department. He had some,
9 good experience on workouts, so they wanted
10 to take advantage of that because it migrated
11 from a distribution exercise to a recovery
12 phase.
13 Q. Did you ever communicate in writing
14 after March of 1998 relating to the Sunbeam
15 loan?
16 A. I don't believe so.
17 Q. Did you ever communicate by E-mail?
18 A. I don't believe so.
19 Q. Did you ever receive E-mails after 20 March of 1998 relating to the Sunbeam loan?
21 A. I can't recall.
22 Q. Is it possible that you did?
23 A. I guess some possibility.
24 Q. Did Morgan Stanley Senior Funding
25 have any sort of system for rating the loans

75 (Pages 294 to 297)

Page 298

1 Smith
2 in its portfolio?
3 A. That was a credit department
4 function, so I don't recall. I mean if it
5 was, it was a credit department function and
6 I don't recall.
7 Q. You don't recall whether there was
8 a rating system of any sort?
9 A. Right.
10 Q. Do you know if the Sunbeam loan had 11 some initial sort of rating or evaluation
12 from the credit department when you first 13 met?
14 A. Not specifically, but as part and
15 parcel they would sign off and have to say
16 that they were okay. I don't -- I can't
17 recall what, if any, rating they put on it
18 because I don't remember when the rating
19 system started there.
20 Q. Before you left Morgan Stanley
21 Senior Funding was there a rating system in 22 place?
23 A. I believe so.
24 Q. How large a portfolio of loans does
25 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding maintain?

Page 299

1 Smith
2 MR. CLARE: Objection. What time
3 period?
4 A. I don't know.
5 Q. Let's say in 1998. Apart from the
6 Sunbeam loan, do you know how large a loan
7 portfolio Morgan Stanley Senior Funding had
8 at that point?
9 A. Not really, can't remember.
10 Q. Was it modest?
11 MR. CLARE: Object to the form.
12 A. I can't recall the numbers. I
13 guess you could ask them.
14 Q. You just don't have a recollection
15 one way or the other?
16 A. Yes, it's a long time ago.
17 Q. Was part of the business strategy
18 of Morgan Stanley Senior Funding to maintain
19 a substantial loan portfolio?
20 MR. CLARE: I object to the form.
21 A. The strategy of Morgan Stanley was 22 to make loans, distribute them, hold a piece,
23 that was the strategy.
24 Q. And the piece that you would hold
25 would be the smallest piece you could

Page 300

1 Smith
2 possibly hold?
3 MR. CLARE: Objection to form.
4 A. No, it would be a meaningful,
5 meaningful piece.
6 Q. The pieces that were held after the
7 initial syndication, were those sometimes
8 later marketed?
9 A. Depending on the price, depending
10 on the amounts, sometimes.
11 Q. You were the president of Morgan
12 Stanley Senior Funding, --
13 A. Uhm-hmm.
14 Q. -- correct, sir?
15 But you didn't have any
16 responsibility with respect to monitoring the 17 performance of the loans in the Morgan
18 Stanley Senior Funding portfolio?
19 A. That was a function that was the 20 responsibility of the credit department.
21 Q. Who in the credit department would 22 be responsible for evaluating the loans in,
23 that were being carried in the Morgan Stanley
24 Senior Funding portfolio?
25 A. I don't know the specific person

Page 301

1 Smith
2 who was tasked with that responsibility, but
3 the person who had the overall responsibility
4 for the credit department to include the loan
5 portfolio was Rick Felix.
6 Q. Were your views sought at any point
7 by the credit department relating to the 8 quality of any of the loans in the MSSF
9 portfolio?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Were your views sought concerning
12 the quality of the Sunbeam loan at any point?
13 A. I wouldn't say the quality. Views
14 on what to do, sure, all the time.
15 Q. Was there a point, if there was a
16 point, where Sunbeam -- excuse me, where 17 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding wrote off some 18 portion of the Sunbeam senior loan, took a
19 reserve against it?
20 A. I think there were several points
21 that they took off.
22 Q. Do you remember when that took
23 place?
24 A. No, can't remember.
25 Q. Was your input sought at that time

Page 302

1 Smith
2 when the company first took a --
3 A. Yes.
4 Q. What was done, was there a
5 write-off, was there a reserve?
6 A. It was a mark-to-market so we just
7 wrote it down.
8 Q. Do you recall the amount of the
9 first write-down?
10 A. I do not.
11 Q. Do you recall whether it took place
12 in 1999?
13 A. Do not.
14 Q. Do you recall whether it took place
15 later than that?
16 A. I don't remember.
17 Q. Let me go back to 1998. Do you
18 recall whether Morgan Stanley wrote off any 19 portion of the Sunbeam loan in 1998?
20 A. Don't know. I can't remember.
21 Just can't remember.
22 Q. Have you ever seen any reports
23 relating to how much, if any amounts Morgan
24 Stanley Senior Funding has lost on the senior
25 loan of Sunbeam?

Page 303

1 Smith
2 A. No.
3 Q. Morgan Stanley Senior Funding now
4 owns a substantial portion of Sunbeam's
5 successor, American Household, correct?
6 A. Yes, to the best of my
7 understanding.
8 Q. Do you know at what value Morgan
9 Stanley Senior Funding carries its equity
10 ownership in American Household?
11 MR. CLARE: Objection, no
12 foundation, calls for speculation.
13 A. I have no idea.
14 Q. At the time you left Morgan Stanley
15 do you know what Morgan Stanley Senior 16 Funding's plans were for its investment in 17 American Household?
18 A. No idea.
19 Q. You indicated that Mitch Petrick
20 became involved in aspects of the senior
21 loan, correct?
22 A. The senior loan of Sunbeam, yes.
23 Q. And do you know what the nature of 24 his activities has been?
25 MR. CLARE: Objection.

Page 304

1 Smith
2 A. Regarding the Sunbeam loan?
3 Q. Correct.
4 MR. CLARE: Objection on
5 foundation grounds, calls for speculation.
6 A. Not lately.
7 Q. What was it prior to the time you
8 left Morgan Stanley?
9 A. Don't, can't comment about that.
10 Can comment about that summer he started to 11 get involved with the credit people in terms
12 of the meetings with the other banks and then
13 McAndrew, basically Jerry and the company.
14 Q. That, you refer to "that summer,"
15 referring to the summer of 1998?
16 A. Summer of 1998.
17 Q. Did Mr. Petrick remain involved
18 with Morgan Stanley Senior Funding's loan to 19 Sunbeam through the entire time you were at
20 Morgan Stanley?
21 A. To varying degrees I believe that's 22 true.
23 Q. Do you know if he is still involved
24 today?
25 A. Under supervisory conditions would

Page 305

1 Smith
2 be my guess, but that is speculation on my
3 part.
4 Q. But that's your belief, correct?
5 MR. CLARE: Well, objection on 6 foundation grounds.
7 A. That is my speculation.
8 Q. That was the case when you left
9 Morgan Stanley, correct?
10 A. I believe so.
11 Q. Did Mitch Petrick ever express the 12 view to you that Jerry Levin had misled
13 Morgan Stanley or Sunbeam relating to the 14 potential synergies that Sunbeam could
15 achieve in acquiring Coleman company?
16 A. No, I do not believe so.
17 Q. Was there ever a time, sir, where 18 you were asked to preserve any documents or 19 electronic records you had that related to 20 the Sunbeam transactions?
21 A. I believe there were.
22 Q. Do you recall when that first
23 occurred?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Do you recall who made that, gave

77 (Pages 302 to 305)

Page 306

1 Smith
2 you that direction?
3 A. I think it would be somebody from
4 the legal department, so I don't have a name.
5 Q. Do you recall if it was shortly
6 after the transactions closed?
7 A. I, my best recollection is it was
8 late '98, but that's just an educated guess.
9 Q. Do you recall getting a written
10 direction?
11 A. I believe so, as well as
12 telephones, calls.
13 Q. What, if anything, did you do to 14 preserve the documents and electronic
15 records?
16 A. I gathered them up, gave them to 17 whomever wanted them.
18 Q. Do you have a recollection as to 19 who you gave them to?
20 A. Not any specific individual. I
21 think it was somebody in the credit
22 department. Excuse me, somebody in the legal 23 department.
24 Q. Did you gather the materials
25 personally?

Page 307

1 Smith
2 A. Part of them were personal, part of
3 them I had my assistant get.
4 Q. Who was your assistant back then?
5 A. I don't remember. The timing, I
6 don't remember who it was.
7 Q. Is it someone who worked solely for 8 you or did she work for other people also?
9 I'm assuming it is a woman, but I
10 may be incorrect.
11 Was it a woman?
12 A. It was a woman and she worked for 13 the group.
14 Q. Did she also work for Mr. Hart?
15 A. Yes, but more indirectly.
16 Q. Do you recall if there were other
17 occasions after that initial inquiry, where 18 you were asked to gather materials you had
19 relating to Sunbeam?
20 A. My memory is faulty, but I would
21 bet that I was asked at least two more times.
22 When I say "I," anybody involved with the 23 Sunbeam transaction.
24 Q. Why do you say that?
25 A. Why do I say everybody?

Page 308

1 Smith
2 Q. No, why do you say it happened at
3 least two more times?
4 A. Just my recollection that
5 periodically something would come up from the 6 legal department, or we get more phone calls
7 saying are you sure you have given us
8 everything, please double-check.
9 Q. Did you update your search, see if 10 you had any new materials that you didn't
11 have before?
12 A. We would research the files and the 13 desks and all.
14 Q. Do you recall whether you received
15 any such inquiry after my client filed this
16 lawsuit against Sunbeam -- against Morgan
17 Stanley -- I'm going to start over.
18 Do you recall whether you received
19 an inquiry from the legal department after my 20 client filed its lawsuit against Morgan
21 Stanley in 2003, concerning whether you had 22 any additional Sunbeam-related documents or 23 electronic records?
24 A. When in 2003 was the suit filed?
25 Q. The spring of 2003.

Page 309

1 Smith
2 A. So I was no longer there.
3 Q. You left Morgan Stanley?
4 A. First of February.
5 Q. February. How many communications
6 or meetings, sir, would you say that you had
7 with Sunbeam management in 1998 after Mr.
8 Dunlap was terminated?
9 A. Probably 12 to 15.
10 Q. So 12 to 15 what, meetings?
11 A. Meetings.
12 Q. How many telephone conversations
13 would you say you had?
14 A. Double that number probably. And 15 let me be clear. Many of those meetings and 16 almost all of those phone calls were
17 conference calls, so there would be myself,
18 two or three people from Morgan Stanley, the 19 folks from the other banks.
20 Q. Were you cautioned at all, sir, by 21 anyone not to maintain a written record of 22 any of your communications with post Dunlap
23 management at Sunbeam?
24 A. No.
25 Q. Did you make an effort to document

78 (Pages 306 to 309)

Page 310

1 Smith

2 in any way the substance of your

3 communications with Sunbeam management during

4 that time period?

5 A. I did not.

6 Q. Why was that?

7 A. There were other members of the 8 team that were there to take the notes and

9 write any memos that we wanted or needed.

10 Q. Who was doing that?

11 A. Again unclear at any particular

12 time, but it would be folks like Michael

13 Hart, Simon Rankin, or maybe a more junior

14 person assigned to our group.

15 Q. In 1998, sir, were you expecting

16 litigation to arise out of the loan that

17 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding made to

18 Sunbeam?

19 A. I personally was not.

20 Q. What about internal communications

21 within Morgan Stanley, Morgan Stanley Senior

22 Funding, sir, were you cautioned not to

23 memorialize in notes or in memos internal

24 communications relating to the Sunbeam

25 transactions?

Page 311

1 Smith

2 A. No

3 Q. Were you instructed to keep any

4 documents and notes or E-mails that you had,

5 that you were generating and receiving in

6 connection with your communications with

7 Sunbeam management, after Mr. Dunlap was

8 terminated?

9 A. I don't remember.

10 Q. It's possible that you were

11 receiving things or generating things

12 relating to your communications with Sunbeam

13 management, but not preserving them --

14 MR. CLARE: Objection.

15 Q. -- during the time period after Mr.

16 Dunlap was terminated?

17 MR. CLARE: Objection, foundation.

18 Calls for speculation.

19 A. I don't think so.

20 Q. Do you think whatever you had or

21 whatever you generated would still exist

22 today?

23 A. If some -- if somebody took it or

24 we turned it in, then they should have it.

25 Is that what you mean?

Page 312

1 Smith

2 Q. Well, I'm asking you whether if you

3 received any written communication of any

4 sort relating to communications with Sunbeam

5 management after Mr. Dunlap was terminated,

6 took any notes relating to any of those

7 communications, whether you believe that

8 those materials should still exist today, or

9 whether in the ordinary course you may have

10 discarded them from time to time?

11 A. I really don't know. Anything I

12 had when we got these requests were turned

13 in.

14 Q. But in between requests if you were

15 receiving things or generating things, were

16 you under instruction to preserve it, or did

17 you think if you had no need for it at that

18 point in time for your personal use you could

19 discard it?

20 A. Don't recall.

21 Q. Are you familiar with Morgan

22 Stanley's policy with respect to document

23 destruction?

24 A. Not really.

25 Q. Are you familiar with Morgan

Page 313

1 Smith

2 Stanley's policy that employees are to

3 discard drafts, notes, notebooks, diaries,

4 telephone logs, message slips and other

5 documents when they are no longer considered

6 useful?

7 A. Yes, I guess I'm aware of that.

8 Q. Is that the policy that you

9 personally followed while you were at Morgan

10 Stanley?

11 A. Got rid of a lot of stuff when you

12 no longer needed it.

13 Q. Do you recall doing that on any

14 occasion relating to the work you did

15 concerning Sunbeam?

16 A. No, I do not.

17 Q. Did you give instructions to the 18 people in your group to maintain any

19 documentation they had relating to any aspect

20 of the work that was being done relating to

21 Sunbeam?

22 A. No, I did not.

23 Q. You have indicated, sir, that you

24 took one trip to Florida, correct?

25 A. I took one trip to Florida in early

Page 314

1 Smith

2 March, yes.

3 Q. Any other occasions relating to

4 work that you did for Sunbeam where you

5 traveled to Florida?

6 A. I think on at least one more

7 occasion.

8 Q. When was that?

9 A. I think it was sometime in 1998.

10 It could have been more, but at least one.

11 Q. What was the occasion for that

12 trip?

13 A. The occasion was a bank meeting for 14 the three banks and the Sunbeam management.

15 Q. Do you recall whether that was

16 before or after Mr. Dunlap was fired?

17 A. It was after he was fired. This is 18 with Mr. Levin and the team.

19 Q. Do you recall whether there were

20 any other occasions where you visited in

21 Florida concerning work being done for

22 Sunbeam?

23 A. Like I say, at least once, could

24 have been twice, could have been three times,

25 but the years kind of blend.

Page 315

1 Smith

2 Q. Is it the case that before the

3 loans closed, the only occasion for you to

4 travel to Florida was your meeting in March?

5 A. That is the best of my

6 recollection.

7 Q. What about other forms of

8 communication in Florida prior to the closing

9 of the transaction at the end of March 1998?

10 MR. CLARE: The State of Florida?

11 MR. MARKOWSKI: With Sunbeam in

12 Florida.

13 A. I thought we went over that a

14 little bit before, but participate either

15 partly in some of these conversations,

16 conference calls with the company.

17 Q. So there were occasions where you

18 spoke by telephone with people at Sunbeam?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Prior to the loan closing?

21 A. Prior to the closing.

22 Q. And we have seen your March 5

23 letter to Mr. Kersh, the highly confident

24 letter you sent to Mr. Kersh in Florida?

25 A. Yes.

Page 316

1 Smith

2 Q. Were there any other occasions

3 where you corresponded with anyone in Florida

4 prior to the closing of the loans?

5 A. You mean Sunbeam in Florida?

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. Not to the best of my recollection.

8 Q. What about receiving materials from

9 Sunbeam prior to the closing of the loan

10 transaction?

11 A. Not to the best of my knowledge,

12 none.

13 Q. Sir, when you left the room earlier

14 while I had a question pending, did you

15 discuss with Mr. Clare how to respond to the 16 pending question?

17 MR. CLARE: I instruct the witness

18 not to answer the question.

19 A. So I won't.

20 MR. MARKOWSKI: I don't have

21 anything further.

22 MR. CLARE: Neither do I.

23 THE VIDEOGRAHER: The time is

BROWN: Zhonette Brown of Kirkland and 21 Ellis on behalf of Morgan Stanley and Morgan 22 Stanley Senior Funding and the witness. 23 VIDEOGRAPHER: And would the court reporter 24 please swear in the witness. 25

Page 6 1 EUGENE YOO 2 EUGENE YOO, 3 called as a witness, being duly sworn, testified 4 as follows: 5 6 EXAMINATION 7 8 BY MR. O'CONNOR: 9 Q. Mr. Yoo, could you please state your full name 10 and spell it for the record. 11 A. Full name is Eugene Kim Yoo, E-u-g-e-n-e, middle 12 name is K-i-m, the last name is spelled Y-o-o. 13 Q. And what is your current address? 14 A. 99 Waltham Street, Unit Number 1, Boston, Mass., 15 02118. 16 Q. Mr. Yoo, have you ever been deposed before? 17 A. No, I have not. 18 Q. Let's go over some of the basic ground rules. 19 First, if you don't understand any of the 20 questions that I ask you just let me know and 21 I'll try and rephrase or help you out. If you 22 need to take a break, that's fine, I just ask 23 that you don't take breaks while a question is 24 pending. Are those acceptable? 25 A. Yes.	Page 8 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Okay. Did those attorneys ever ask you to 3 search for documents in your possession that 4 might -- 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. I'm sorry. -- that might relate to Sunbeam or 7 the Sunbeam and Coleman transaction? 8 A. Yes, they did. 9 Q. Did you have any documents in your possession? 10 A. No, I did not. 11 Q. Before we get started on some of the more 12 interesting questions, I would like to go 13 through some of your personal background. Not 14 that that's not interesting. But I would like 15 to ask you a few questions about your education 16 after high school. 17 A. Sure. 18 Q. Where did you attend college? 19 A. I went to Boston College for my undergrad 20 degree. 21 Q. And what was your degree in? 22 A. Computer science and business. 23 Q. What year did you graduate from Boston College? 24 A. 1990. 25 Q. Upon graduation what did you do?
Page 7 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Okay. And also, if you could not answer 3 questions until I've completed the question, it 4 will just make the job easier for the court 5 reporter -- 6 A. Sure. 7 Q. -- so she can get our answers and our questions. 8 Have you ever given testimony under oath 9 before? 10 A. No, I have not. 11 Q. Okay. And do you realize that you're under oath 12 today? 13 A. Yes, I do. 14 Q. You're represented today by the law firm of 15 Kirkland and Ellis? 16 A. Yes, I am. 17 Q. Are you paying for that representation? 18 A. No, I am not. 19 Q. Are you aware of who is paying for that 20 representation? 21 A. I am not. 22 Q. Do you understand that they, that Miss Brown 23 represents Morgan Stanley and Morgan Stanley 24 Senior Funding in this case? 25 A. Yes, I do.	Page 9 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I started at Goldman Sachs Co. in New York, I 3 was in their operations group for four years. 4 Q. So until 1994? 5 A. Correct. 6 Q. And where did you go after Goldman Sachs? 7 A. I attended Columbia Business School. 8 Q. Did you graduate from Columbia? 9 A. Yes, I did. 10 Q. And in what year? 11 A. 1996. 12 Q. With an M.B.A.? 13 A. Yes, I did. 14 Q. Any specialization in that program? 15 A. I concentrated in finance. 16 Q. Upon graduation what did you do? 17 A. I started work full-time at Morgan Stanley in 18 their investment banking division. 19 Q. Was that directly after graduation? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. You no longer are currently employed with Morgan 22 Stanley? 23 A. That's correct. 24 Q. Okay. When did your employment with Morgan 25 Stanley cease?

Page 10 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. In February of 2000. 3 Q. When you left Morgan Stanley what did you do? 4 A. I went to work at Bank of America in their 5 investment banking group. 6 Q. Was that in New York? 7 A. Yes, it was. 8 Q. Are you still employed with Bank of America? 9 A. No, I am not. 10 Q. When did you leave Bank of America? 11 A. In January of 2002. 12 Q. And what did you do when you left Bank of 13 America? 14 A. I was an independent consultant for about three 15 years. I should say two years. 16 Q. Is that your current employment? 17 A. No, I'm currently a small business owner. 18 Q. And what type of business do you own? 19 A. It's a retail shop. 20 Q. Any other education other than what you've 21 testified to this morning? 22 A. No. 23 Q. Okay. In 1996 when you first joined Morgan 24 Stanley what was your position at that time? 25 A. I actually started as an intern while I was at	Page 12 1 EUGENE YOO 2 liaison between the lower level team and the 3 managing directors or the senior members of the 4 team. 5 Q. And the same responsibilities in 1997? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And in 1998 did your responsibilities change? 8 A. Well, the description probably is the same, but 9 the scope probably expanded a little bit. 10 Q. And what would -- what did it expand to? 11 A. Well, in 1996 my, during my first year I was 12 rotating through different groups so I was 13 essentially riding alongside with other 14 associates and learning from them and as we 15 moved into 1997 and 1998 I began to take more of 16 that on my own. 17 Q. Okay. I'm sorry, the analysts that you 18 supervised, those typically were college 19 graduates without an M.B.A.? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. What -- who did you report to in 1997 when you 22 were working as an associate? 23 A. There were several people. The ones that I can 24 remember specifically, Bob Kitts, Jim Stynes; I 25 don't remember anybody else.
Page 11 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Columbia and I worked there during my second 3 semester in their debt capital markets group. 4 Then I started full-time in August in the 5 investment banking division, I was an associate 6 at that time. 7 Q. That's August of 1996? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And I'm sorry, your first position was 10 associate? 11 A. First full-time position was associate. 12 Q. Okay. Did you ever receive a promotion at 13 Morgan Stanley? 14 A. No. I left prior to being up for promotion. 15 Q. Can you explain the duties and responsibilities 16 of an associate in the investment banking 17 division at Morgan Stanley back in 1996? 18 A. Well, I guess it's hard to explain because there 19 are a lot of different positions for associates 20 within the investment banking division. 21 Q. I'll make it easier. What were your 22 responsibilities in 1996 as an associate? 23 A. My responsibilities were to manage the deal 24 team, at least manage the analyst at the lower 25 level members of the team and to work as a	Page 13 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Alex Fuchs? 3 A. Alex Fuchs. David McCreary (ph.). that's it. 4 Q. In 1997 do you recall the names of the analysts 5 that you supervised? 6 A. I remember some of them. Tyrone Chang, Lilly 7 Rafii, Andreas Boquist. It's been awhile. I 8 don't remember anybody else, actually. 9 Q. Okay. Why did you leave Morgan Stanley in 10 February of 2000? 11 A. I decided to change my career direction a little 12 bit. I was going down a generalist path at 13 Morgan Stanley and I wanted to focus a little 14 bit more on a particular industry. And an 15 opportunity came up with a friend to go to Bank 16 of America and work in the telecom group, which 17 I was very interested in. 18 Q. Your departure from Morgan Stanley was unrelated 19 to the Sunbeam transaction? 20 A. It was not related at all. 21 Q. Okay. Mr. Yoo, when I refer to the Sunbeam 22 transaction do you understand that to mean 23 Morgan Stanley's engagement with Sunbeam 24 Corporation in 1997 and 1998 and Sunbeam's 25 efforts to sell the company or acquire other

Page 14 1 EUGENE YOO 2 businesses? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Sir, are you familiar with, with my client 5 Coleman Parent Holdings, Inc. which prior to the 6 sale to Sunbeam owned approximately 82 percent 7 of the stock of Coleman Company, Inc.? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Okay. Are you familiar, sir, with my client's 10 claims against Morgan Stanley and Company? 11 A. I am somewhat familiar with them. 12 Q. What is your understanding of that lawsuit? 13 MS. BROWN: I'm going to object and 14 instruct you not to answer to the extent that 15 your answer would reveal any communications that 16 you had with counsel. 17 A. I guess I can't answer that. 18 Q. Okay. Are you aware, sir, that Morgan 19 Stanley -- let me ask you. Are you familiar 20 with the entity Morgan Stanley Senior Funding? 21 A. Somewhat familiar. 22 Q. Okay. What is your understanding of that 23 entity? 24 A. From what I understand it is an organization set 25 up within Morgan Stanley to provide senior	Page 16 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. What happened to your documents when you left 3 the company? 4 A. All of my deal-related documents were left in my 5 office. They were in my files on my, in my 6 bookshelf. I don't know what happened to them 7 after that. 8 Q. Were you told to leave your deal documents in 9 your office? 10 A. I was never really told anything specifically 11 about them, but I just assume that they were 12 documents that I shouldn't be taking with me. 13 Q. Mr. Yoo, when was the first time that you were 14 contacted by attorneys for Morgan Stanley or 15 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding in connection with 16 these lawsuits? 17 A. I don't remember precisely. I believe it was 18 sometime in early 2004. 19 Q. Do you remember who you spoke with? 20 A. Tom Clare. 21 Q. Did you speak with any other attorneys for 22 Morgan Stanley? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Did any in-house attorneys from Morgan Stanley 25 contact you concerning this case?
Page 15 1 EUGENE YOO 2 lending to clients. 3 Q. Were you ever employed, sir, by Morgan Stanley 4 Senior Funding? 5 A. No, I was not. 6 Q. Are you aware that Morgan Stanley Senior Funding 7 has filed a lawsuit against Coleman Parent 8 Holdings and MacAndrews and Forbes Holdings? 9 A. Yes, I was. 10 Q. Are you familiar with that lawsuit? 11 A. Not very familiar. 12 Q. Okay. What is your understanding of that 13 lawsuit? 14 A. From what I understand Morgan Stanley Senior 15 Funding is suing in an effort to recover some of 16 the loan proceeds it had lent out. 17 Q. Have you read that Complaint? 18 A. No, I have not. 19 Q. Did anyone consult you about that Complaint 20 prior to its filing? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Mr. Yoo, when you left Morgan Stanley in 23 February of 2000 did you take any documents with 24 you? 25 A. No.	Page 17 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. No. 3 Q. Mr. Yoo, do you have any continuing contact with 4 your former colleagues at Morgan Stanley? 5 A. I keep in touch with a few folks on a sporadic 6 basis but I don't really talk to anyone on a 7 regular basis. Just whoever I happen to run 8 into. 9 Q. Do you recall any of those people; the names of 10 those people? 11 A. Xavier Stationberg (ph.). Who else did I run 12 into? Davis McCreary, Tyrone Chang. That's 13 probably about it. 14 Q. When is the last time that you spoke with 15 Mr. Chang? 16 A. Let's see, almost a year ago now. It was late 17 spring of last year when I was in Los Angeles. 18 Q. Have you spoken to any current or former Morgan 19 Stanley employees concerning these lawsuits or 20 your testimony here today? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Sir, do you have any business relationships, 23 existing business relationships with Morgan 24 Stanley as a result of any of your prior deals 25 or current business relationships?

Page 18 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. No, nothing. 3 Q. What did you do to prepare for your deposition 4 today? 5 A. I met yesterday with Zhonette Brown and she 6 filled me in on the details of the case and what 7 was -- 8 MS. Brown: You don't need to reveal 9 communications between counsel. 10 A. Right. 11 Q. Did you review any documents? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Did any of those documents refresh your 14 recollection of any of the facts or events 15 concerning the Sunbeam/Coleman transaction? 16 A. Not really. 17 Q. Did you review any deposition testimony? 18 A. No, I did not. 19 Q. Was any deposition testimony read to you or 20 described to you? 21 A. No. 22 Q. How long did you meet with Miss Brown? 23 A. Just a few hours. 24 Q. Have you ever been contacted by any state or 25 federal regulators in connection with your	Page 20 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. There was a document retention policy which, at 3 least for the MNA group; I don't recall what it 4 was now. 5 Q. Did you file those policies? 6 A. I hope I did. 7 Q. Did you receive any specific instructions on 8 preserving e-mail? 9 A. No, not really. 10 Q. Mr. Yoo, I'm going to show you what's been 11 previously marked as CPH Exhibit 6. Mr. Yoo, 12 have you seen this document before? 13 A. No, I haven't seen this one. 14 MS. Brown: Just for the record, when you 15 ask him whether he's seen documents before, he 16 will exclude any documents that he saw during 17 his preparation. 18 MR. O'CONNOR: Correct. That's fine. 19 Q. Sir, could I point your attention to the first 20 paragraph under file maintenance or it reads, 21 "file should be kept lean and unnecessary 22 material should be discarded on a regular 23 basis." Do you see that? 24 A. Yes, I do. 25 Q. Do you recall that being part of the document

Page 23 1 EUGENE YOO 2 prior work at places like Kimberly-Clark or 3 Scott Paper, I guess, to just kind of get a 4 sense of who he was and what he had done. We 5 did quite a bit of analysis on Sunbeam itself; 6 financial analysis. 7 Q. Anything else that you can recall? 8 A. No, not really. 9 Q. Okay. What was the purpose of this research 10 into Sunbeam and Al Dunlap in connection with 11 this pitch to Sunbeam? 12 A. Well, it was really just to make sure that we 13 knew all of the facts before we went into the 14 meeting, to make sure that we knew the 15 situation, knew everything about who it was that 16 we were presenting to and making sure that the 17 presentation was, you know, on top of 18 everything. 19 Q. Do you recall when this presentation occurred? 20 A. I don't know specifically. It was sometime in 21 the spring of 1997. 22 Q. Who else worked with you on preparing this 23 pitch? 24 A. Alex Fuchs, Bob Kitts, Jim Stynes, Tyrone Chang. 25 Q. Anyone else?	Page 25 1 EUGENE YOO 2 working on Sunbeam, the Sunbeam matter? 3 A. We kept time sheets as a regular process in our 4 time keeping process in the U.S. banking group. 5 Q. What information did you record on those time 6 sheets? 7 A. Just the hours that we, we would bill our hours 8 for different clients. That's about it. 9 Q. You wouldn't provide descriptions, general or 10 detailed descriptions of the work that you 11 performed? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Okay. Was that time submitted on a regular 14 basis? Like a weekly basis? 15 A. I don't remember exactly. I think it was either 16 weekly or biweekly. 17 Q. Okay. I'm going to show you what's been 18 previously marked as CPH Exhibit 163. My first 19 question, sir, is have you ever seen this 20 document before? 21 A. No, I have not. 22 Q. You'll notice on the first page of Exhibit 163 23 is a listing of employees at Morgan Stanley and 24 you'll see that the second to the last is your 25 name, Gene Yoo?

Page 26 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Okay. If you follow the line over to 4 year-to-date hours there's an entry for 356? 5 A. Okay. 6 Q. And it appears that this document reflects as 7 you'll see in the right hand, just below the 8 upper right-hand corner for fiscal year 1997? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Does that number seem accurate for your work on 11 the Sunbeam engagement in 1997? 12 A. I couldn't tell. But it seems right. 13 Q. Okay. If you would flip, sir, to the last page 14 of this document. You'll see that there are 15 entries across from your name for August, 16 September and October of 147 in August, 115 in 17 September and 94 in October. Do you see those, 18 sir? 19 A. Yes, I do. 20 Q. Okay. And if you flip to the page previous to 21 that which is 80429. And across from your name 22 for April, May, June and July there are no hours 23 entered? 24 A. Uh-huh. 25 Q. Do you know why there would be no hours entered	Page 28 1 EUGENE YOO 2 about five or six months between. 3 Q. Between the time that you, that Morgan Stanley 4 provided the pitch to Sunbeam and the formal 5 engagement agreement, did you continue to work 6 on the Sunbeam transaction identifying these 7 ideas? 8 A. I don't recall specifically. But, you know, I 9 would think that, I think -- I'm pretty sure I 10 did work on it somewhat. I don't know how much. 11 Q. When you say you worked on ideas for Sunbeam, 12 what do you mean by that? 13 A. Well, in coming out of, coming out of the 14 initial meeting, you know, the idea was that 15 they were either looking to sell the company or 16 to find targets, at least, you know, that was 17 the thought. And so were trying to come up with 18 ideas that might turn into something more 19 tangible in terms of a transaction. 20 Q. Did you attend that pitch to Sunbeam? 21 A. No, I did not. 22 Q. Okay. Do you know what Morgan Stanley's primary 23 mission was coming out of that meeting with 24 Sunbeam? 25 MS. Brown: Object to form.
Page 27 1 EUGENE YOO 2 in for those months in 1997? 3 A. I don't know. 4 Q. Did you work on the Sunbeam engagement in April 5 through July of 1997? 6 A. Yes, I did. 7 Q. Okay. So then on the first page of CPH Exhibit 8 163 the year-to-date hours of 356 probably is 9 not an accurate representation of the hours that 10 you worked on the Sunbeam engagement in 1997? 11 A. I couldn't tell. I'm not sure how the, the time 12 keeping department allocated the hours to the 13 months. 14 Q. Set that aside. I'm trying to get a sense of an 15 overview of the scope of your involvement on the 16 Sunbeam engagement. You testified that you were 17 involved in preparing the pitch to Sunbeam; 18 after that assignment what did you work on? 19 A. For Sunbeam? 20 Q. Yes. 21 A. After the pitch I guess it was just continuing 22 to try to come up with ideas for Sunbeam and 23 seeing if there were any other situations that 24 came up that might peak their interests. But we 25 weren't really formally engaged for I think	Page 29 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I don't know exactly what came out of the 3 meeting. I wasn't there. I didn't hear what 4 they said. 5 Q. Did anyone tell you that the primary focus in 6 1997 was to find a buyer for Sunbeam to sell 7 Sunbeam Corporation? 8 A. They never said that that was the primary focus. 9 Q. Other than identifying these other potential 10 ideas for Sunbeam what else did you do on the 11 engagement? 12 A. From what I remember, before being formally 13 engaged most of the work was really just keeping 14 up with current events on the company or the 15 industry, making sure that we were, you know, on 16 top of getting all of the latest financial 17 filings or earnings releases, any news that came 18 out, any announcements that they made. 19 Q. Did you ever attend any meetings with potential 20 buyers or acquisition targets? 21 A. I personally did not attend any of those 22 meetings. 23 Q. Did you prepare any documents for other members 24 of the Morgan Stanley team in connection with 25 exploring strategic alternatives for Sunbeam?

Page 30 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. Yes, I did. 3 Q. What are the types of documents that you recall 4 drafting? 5 A. Again, I don't recall specifically, but the 6 documents mostly were descriptive materials 7 about Sunbeam, describing the company, 8 financials, that's about it. 9 Q. Did you prepare any of the transaction documents 10 related to the acquisition of the Coleman 11 Company? 12 MS. Brown: Object to the form. 13 A. I'm not sure what you mean by -- 14 Q. Purchase agreement. 15 A. No, I did not. 16 Q. Were you involved in preparing any of the 17 financing documents in connection with that 18 deal? 19 A. No, I was not. 20 Q. Were you involved in preparing any documents 21 analyzing potential synergies of a combination 22 involving Sunbeam and another company? 23 MS. Brown: Object to form. 24 A. I'm not sure what documents you're referring to. 25 Q. Are you aware of the concept of synergies?	Page 32 1 EUGENE YOO 2 growth plan going forward. 3 Q. Any other aspects of due diligence that you 4 recall that you performed? 5 A. And then just the standard, you know, MNA type 6 of due diligence, going through financial 7 filings, public documents. 8 Q. As part of that financial due diligence did you 9 look at anything other than publicly filed 10 documents? 11 MS. Brown: Object to form. 12 A. I'm not sure what you mean. 13 Q. Well, what types of public documents would you 14 look at in conducting the MNA due diligence that 15 you spoke of? 16 A. For -- again, for this transaction, from what I 17 remember, the types of things we looked at were 18 filings with the SEC, any press releases that 19 the company put out or any other, any of the 20 other companies in its industry, any new stories 21 that came out on any of the relevant companies. 22 Any, you know, any publicly available equity 23 research. 24 Q. In addition to those sources of information did 25 you look at any non-public information in

Page 34 1 EUGENE YOO 2 continue to work for Sunbeam in developing 3 strategic options for the company? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Did you work on any other deals other than 6 Sunbeam when you were an associate in 1997 and 7 1998? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. What were those deals? 10 A. I can't recall specifically what was happening 11 at the time. We were -- I think the only two 12 that I can remember specifically we were working 13 on a sale of a division for General Motors and 14 we were looking at strategic alternatives for a 15 technology client on the west coast. 16 Q. In 1997 what percentage of your time did you 17 devote to the Sunbeam engagement? 18 A. In 1997? 19 Q. Yes. 20 A. My best guess, somewhere between a third and a 21 half. 22 Q. In the first three months of 1998 do you recall 23 what percentage of your time was devoted to the 24 Sunbeam engagement? 25 A. Again, my best guess is about the same.	Page 36 1 EUGENE YOO 2 sir, what you were working on in April, May and 3 June of 1998 for Sunbeam? 4 A. From what I can remember I believe what this is 5 was we were looking at, or we were in the middle 6 of selling one of the Coleman divisions. 7 Q. And that was after Sunbeam acquired the Coleman 8 Company? 9 A. That was post closing, yes. 10 Q. Do you recall why Sunbeam was, attempted to sell 11 divisions of Coleman after the transaction was 12 closed in March? 13 A. I don't know the reasons behind it. They were 14 very small, though. 15 Q. Small divisions? 16 A. Very small divisions, yes. 17 Q. In the spring of 1997 while you were preparing 18 the pitch to Sunbeam, did you know why Sunbeam 19 intended to pursue these strategic alternatives? 20 MS. Brown: Objection. Foundation. 21 A. I have no idea. 22 Q. No one ever expressed Sunbeam's intentions to 23 you in the spring of 1997? 24 MS. Brown: Objection. Form. 25 A. I'm not sure what you mean by that.

Page 39 1 EUGENE YOO 2 for the Sunbeam engagement? 3 A. At the time, like I said, I really didn't know 4 who else was competing for the business. 5 Q. Set that aside. I'm going to show you what's 6 been previously marked as CPH Exhibit 78. CPH 7 Exhibit 78 is a, it's a two part e-mail, the 8 first is dated April 13th of 1997, authored by 9 Tyrone Chang and the second is dated April 15th 10 of 1997. Have you seen this e-mail before? 11 A. No, I've never seen this. 12 Q. You did not direct Mr. Chang to send out this 13 e-mail? 14 A. I don't recall. 15 Q. Did Mr. Chang report to anyone else besides 16 yourself on the Sunbeam engagement? 17 A. He also reported directly to Alex Fuchs on 18 occasion. Alex and Tyrone were part of a 19 subgroup called business development. And I was 20 on loan on my rotation to business development. 21 Q. Okay. Set that aside. In 1997 what was your 22 understanding of Al Dunlap's business 23 reputation? 24 A. I didn't know much about him prior to being 25 brought onto the assignment.	Page 41 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Do you have any recollection, sir, of why 3 Mr. Dunlap was hired by the Sunbeam board to be 4 the CEO of Sunbeam in 1996? 5 MS. Brown: Objection. Foundation. 6 A. I don't recall. 7 Q. I'm sorry? 8 A. I don't recall -- I don't recall anything about 9 that. 10 Q. Did you review any documents or speak to anyone 11 in order to determine whether Mr. Dunlap was 12 performing a turn around of Sunbeam? 13 MS. Brown: Objection. Form. 14 A. I, as far as what Al was brought in to do at 15 Sunbeam, again, we didn't, you know, until we 16 had started working on the project I didn't 17 really know much about it. I had just, I knew 18 there was a headline about it, but that was 19 about it. 20 Q. And my question was once you started digging 21 into the information about Sunbeam's historical 22 and anticipated growth, did you come to learn 23 that Al Dunlap was touting the turn around of 24 the Sunbeam Corporation under his leadership? 25 MS. Brown: Object to form.

Page 43 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I don't remember if it was me specifically who 3 asked him or if it was something that Bob or 4 Alex had asked. 5 Q. In the second paragraph there's a reference to a 6 Cavenham Forest Industries? 7 A. Uh-huh. 8 Q. And, quote, the turn around orchestrated by 9 Albert Dunlap and completed under his leadership 10 culminating in the sale of the company in 1990. 11 Do you see that, sir? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Did you investigate the -- did you investigate 14 Dunlap's turn around of Cavenham Forest 15 Industries in connection with the Sunbeam 16 engagement? 17 A. Could you be a little bit more specific when you 18 say "investigate." 19 Q. Did you do anything to review the financial or 20 business condition of that company before and 21 after Al Dunlap's arrival at that company to 22 orchestrate a turn around? 23 A. I don't remember specifically what analysis we 24 had done on his prior tenures. 25 Q. Mr. Yoo, when you testified earlier that you	Page 45 1 EUGENE YOO 2 conducted a successful turn around of Scott 3 Paper Company? 4 MS. Brown: Object to form. 5 A. How do you define successful? 6 Q. Well, what do you recall doing to review 7 Dunlap's turn around of Scott Paper Company? 8 A. The only thing I can remember for sure was sort 9 of a before and after look at the financials of 10 Scott before Dunlap had arrived. And Scott 11 after it had arrived. And the return to the 12 Scott shareholders. 13 Q. What do you recall learning? 14 A. I'm sorry. 15 Q. What do you recall learning from that exercise? 16 A. At the time it seemed like it was a good deal 17 for the Scott shareholders. I don't know how it 18 turned out now, but. 19 Q. Do you recall why you believed that at the time? 20 A. I don't know any specifics. I don't remember 21 anything. 22 Q. Have you come across any information subsequent 23 to that investigation of Scott Paper that leads 24 you to believe that Dunlap did not complete a 25 successful turn around of the company?

Page 46 1 EUGENE YOO 2 MS. Brown: Object to the form. 3 A. I haven't really, you know, I haven't really 4 looked at it since. 5 Q. What was the purpose of Morgan Stanley's 6 research into Mr. Dunlap's background and his 7 performance in turning around companies prior to 8 Sunbeam? 9 MS. Brown: Asked and answered. 10 A. I'm sorry, could you repeat that again. 11 Q. Sure. Could you read back the question. 12 (Prior testimony read back.) 13 "What was the purpose of Morgan 14 Stanley's research into 15 Mr. Dunlap's background and his 16 performance in turning around 17 companies prior to Sunbeam?" 18 A. I think as I said before we were trying to make 19 sure that we understood, you know, we fully 20 understood all of the aspects of the meeting, of 21 the company and the situation and AI before 22 going into the meeting. 23 Q. Were you also trying to understand whether 24 Dunlap's turn around of companies, where he was 25 CEO prior to Sunbeam were in fact true turn	Page 48 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Strong had a relationship with Mr. Dunlap prior 3 to Dunlap's arrival at Sunbeam? 4 A. No, I didn't know that. 5 Q. I'm handing you what's previously been marked as 6 CPH Exhibit 68. Have you seen this document 7 before, Mr. Yoo? 8 A. Yes, I have. 9 Q. When do you recall seeing this document? 10 A. I don't know exactly, but it was maybe a few 11 weeks after the article was published. 12 Q. So that would be a few weeks after January 15th 13 of 1996? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Do you recall why you saw this document? 16 A. No, I don't. 17 Q. Did you read this document in connection with 18 the Sunbeam engagement or did you read it 19 outside of your work at Morgan Stanley? 20 A. I don't recall. 21 Q. Did you read the entire article in 1996? 22 A. In 1997? 23 Q. In 1996. 24 A. No. 25 Q. Just so we're clear, sir, the, it appears the
Page 47 1 EUGENE YOO 2 arounds of those companies? 3 MS. Brown: Object to form. 4 A. I don't know. 5 Q. No one ever mentioned to you that there might be 6 some question as to whether his turnaround at 7 Scott Paper was successful or real? 8 A. No, not as far as I can remember, that never 9 came up. 10 Q. What did you do with the information that you 11 learned about Mr. Dunlap beyond preparing the 12 pitch to Sunbeam? 13 A. All of the information pretty much went to Alex 14 and Bob and Jim. 15 Q. That's Mr. Fuchs, Mr. Kitts and Mr. Stynes? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Do you know what they did with that information? 18 A. I don't know. 19 Q. Did you know, Mr. Yoo, that Morgan Stanley had a 20 prior relationship with Mr. Dunlap before his 21 arrival at Sunbeam? 22 A. I didn't know. 23 Q. Do you know Bill Strong at Morgan Stanley? 24 A. I met him a few times. 25 Q. So you were not aware at the time that Bill	Page 49 1 EUGENE YOO 2 article was written in January of 1996, in the 3 upper left-hand corner. 4 A. Oh, okay. 5 Q. There's also a date on the bottom right-hand 6 corner of July 16th of 1997. Just so we're 7 clear, sir, do you recall reading this document 8 a couple of weeks after January 15th of 1996 or 9 a couple of weeks after July 16th of 1997? 10 A. I don't know, I don't remember exactly when I 11 read it. But probably sometime around the time 12 that it was published. 13 Q. Did you have any discussions with anyone at 14 Morgan Stanley about the contents of this 15 article? 16 A. I don't remember anything specifically. 17 Q. Anything generally? 18 A. Not about this article itself. 19 Q. What do you recall discussing with members at 20 Morgan Stanley about Mr. Dunlap's performance at 21 Scott Paper? 22 MS. Brown: Object to form. 23 A. Other than the analysis that we had done there 24 wasn't really much other discussion on that. 25 After the first meeting we didn't really spend a

Page 50 1 EUGENE YOO 2 lot of time looking back at Scott. 3 Q. You don't recall any discussions about the 4 accuracy of the information in this article? 5 A. Not, there were no discussions about the 6 accuracy of the article. 7 Q. Do you recall what your reaction was after 8 reading this article? 9 A. I recall thinking that it was humorous at the 10 time. And I don't know who I was talking to, 11 but the only thing I can remember talking about 12 the article was how people who went into turn 13 around situations tended to get a bad 14 reputation. But that was the only thing I could 15 remember. 16 Q. Why did you think that the article was humorous? 17 A. The, some of the outrageous, I think if this is 18 the one I'm thinking about, some of the 19 outrageous numbers or some of the things that 20 they were saying about AI seemed to be funny. 21 Q. When you say "outrageous numbers" are you 22 referring to the numbers relating to Scott Paper 23 in the turn around? 24 A. No, just the, you know, they're talking about, 25 for instance, here, 225 percent stock gain and	Page 52 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Mr. Dunlap, you don't recall ever seeking out 3 information to confirm or deny that information? 4 A. I don't think there was any way we could prove 5 either way. 6 Q. Did you ask Mr. Dunlap? 7 A. I didn't really talk to him about this. 8 Q. Did you ever speak to Mr. Dunlap? 9 A. I did speak to him probably once or twice. 10 Q. Did you ever discuss his performance at Scott 11 Paper? 12 A. No. 13 Q. What did you discuss with Mr. Dunlap? 14 A. Nothing, really. It was just, he would walk 15 into a meeting that I was attending and we would 16 say hello. He would ask how things were going 17 and that's it. 18 Q. Did you discuss with anyone the information 19 contained in the Shredder article? 20 MS. Brown: Object to form. 21 A. Again, I don't remember ever talking to anyone 22 specifically about this article. You know, just 23 talking about Sunbeam in general and that's part 24 of the deal. 25 Q. Did you ever tell anyone at Morgan Stanley that
Page 51 1 EUGENE YOO 2 adding 6.3 billion of company value; it was just 3 kind of funny that, you know, it was all being 4 linked to one event, so. 5 Q. And why was that funny to you? 6 A. I don't know. The -- there are a lot of things 7 that can take place over a long period. I just 8 thought it was funny they were putting it all on 9 one thing. 10 Q. What was that one thing? 11 A. It seemed like they were attributing it all to 12 AI. 13 Q. Did you believe that Mr. Dunlap was not 14 responsible for the stock price increase? 15 A. I mean, I didn't know either way. It seemed 16 like that was the assumption that they were 17 making in the article. 18 Q. Did you ever investigate whether Mr. Dunlap had 19 indeed added 6.3 billion in value in stock, or 20 to Scott Paper? 21 MS. Brown: Object to form. 22 A. I don't, I don't remember -- I didn't really 23 know either way, you know. 24 Q. So other than thinking that it was funny that 25 they had attributed these increases to	Page 53 1 EUGENE YOO 2 you thought that this article was humorous? 3 A. I don't remember. I don't remember who I was 4 talking to. 5 Q. Do you recall talking to anyone at Morgan 6 Stanley about the outrageous numbers in this 7 article? 8 MS. Brown: Object to form. 9 Mischaracterization. 10 A. No, I don't really. I just remember, again, I 11 think this was -- I don't recall where -- I 12 don't recall when exactly I read this in 13 relation to the time line. Yeah, I don't recall 14 ever talking about this article specifically, or 15 bringing this up or anything about this article 16 before. 17 Q. You also said that after reviewing this article 18 you thought that people who did turn around work 19 received bad reputations; why is that? 20 MS. Brown: Objection. Vague sentence, 21 mischaracterizes his testimony. 22 A. I don't remember exactly who it was, but I just 23 remember, I think there were a few articles that 24 came out at that time about people who were 25 involved in, you know, difficult situation at

Page 54 1 EUGENE YOO 2 companies. That's the only thing I can remember 3 about that connection or that aspect of it. For 4 some reason I just happened to read a few 5 articles at the time that talked about different 6 people doing, or working in similar situations. 7 And they all seemed to be very negative about 8 those people. 9 Q. Did you believe that Mr. Dunlap was receiving a 10 bad reputation as a result of his turn around 11 work? 12 MS. Brown: Object to form. 13 A. I didn't really know. I mean, I didn't really 14 know, at least at the time I was reading the 15 article I wasn't really thinking about, I wasn't 16 concentrating on the specifics of his work. 17 Q. Was that information you sought to acquire in 18 your review of his performance at companies 19 prior to Sunbeam? 20 MS. Brown: Object to form. 21 A. I'm not sure what you mean. 22 Q. Well, as part of your research into Mr. Dunlap's 23 history did you feel that it was important for 24 you to determine whether Mr. Dunlap received, 25 unfairly received a bad reputation for his turn	Page 56 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Paper prior to its sale? 3 MS. Brown: Object to form. 4 A. That's his opinion. 5 Q. Did you ever reach that opinion one way or the 6 other? 7 A. Did I personally reach that opinion? 8 Q. Right. 9 A. Like I said, at the time I thought he had done a 10 good job. You know, the numbers seemed to work 11 out. 12 Q. Did anyone at Morgan Stanley disagree with that 13 opinion to your knowledge? 14 A. Not that I can remember. 15 MS. Brown: Let's take a break. 16 MR. O'CONNOR: Can I go for about two more 17 minutes? 18 MS. Brown: Okay. 19 Q. Sir, I'm going to show you a copy of an exhibit 20 previously marked CPH 148. Have you seen this 21 document, sir? 22 A. Yes, I have. 23 Q. When did you first see this document? 24 A. I believe I wrote it. 25 Q. This is your handwriting?
Page 55 1 EUGENE YOO 2 around work? 3 MS. Brown: Object to form. 4 A. As part of our work at Morgan Stanley, you know, 5 we weren't really looking at his reputation, you 6 know, whether, we weren't looking really at that 7 angle of it, we were just looking at his results 8 and what had he actually done. 9 Q. Was his reputation immaterial to your work in 10 connection with Sunbeam, the Sunbeam engagement? 11 MS. Brown: Object to form. Argumentative. 12 A. I mean, I don't know what it related to in terms 13 of the engagement with Morgan Stanley and 14 Sunbeam. My part of it was just, you know, my 15 focus at that time in that deal was just to 16 perform the analysis on what we looked at at 17 Scott. 18 Q. What was your conclusion after performing that 19 analysis? 20 A. As I said before, I think at the time it looked 21 like the numbers were pretty good. 22 Q. And what do you mean by "pretty good"? That 23 they were accurate? 24 A. I don't know what you mean by "accurate." 25 Q. Whether Mr. Dunlap truly turned around Scott	Page 57 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I think so. 3 Q. Do you recall why you prepared this document? 4 A. I don't know exactly. It looks like I'm taking 5 notes on something. 6 Q. It appears that you're taking notes on 7 Mr. Dunlap's performance at Scott Paper; is that 8 fair to say, -- 9 MS. Brown: Objection. 10 Q. -- in the left hand column? 11 MS. Brown: Object to form. 12 Mischaracterization. 13 A. I think I was actually taking notes on the 14 article, from the news article. 15 Q. If you flip back to CPH Exhibit 68. The next to 16 the last paragraph which appears on Morgan 17 Stanley 3996. There's information in that 18 paragraph concerning 11,000 people that were 19 eliminated, 11,000 jobs eliminated at Scott 20 Paper, 71 percent headquarter staff, 50 percent 21 of the managers and 20 percent of the hourly 22 workers. That information is also contained in 23 your handwriting notes on CPH Exhibit 148; is 24 that correct? 25 A. Which page are you on? I'm sorry.

Page 59 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. You also see on Exhibit CPH Exhibit 148 fourth 3 from the bottom there is an asterisk which 4 states "volume driven plan, arrow, prop up for 5 sale." 6 A. Uh-huh. 7 Q. Do you know what that refers to? 8 A. Again, I don't know. I think it was just 9 something that I had written from the news 10 article. 11 Q. You don't recall whether you investigated, 12 whether Dunlap pursued a volume driven plan at 13 Scott Paper to prop it up for sale? 14 A. There's nothing here. There was no discussion 15 of that kind of, that I know of. 16 Q. On CPH Exhibit 148 there is a column entitled 17 Kimberly-Clark. Do you recall, sir, that Scott 18 Paper was sold to Kimberly-Clark? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. And you'll see there's a hand notation of 600 21 million in synergies and cost reductions? 22 A. Uh-huh. 23 Q. Synergies and cost reductions appear in quotes. 24 Do you recall why you made that notation? 25 A. Which -- why did I write that line?	Page 61 1 EUGENE YOO 2 connection with the Sunbeam engagement? 3 A. Not that I know of. I'm sure some of the 4 factual information went into some documents. 5 But, you know. 6 Q. Okay. This is a good time to take a break. 7 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is ten fifty-eight, 8 we're off the record. 9 (Short break taken.) 10 VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the record, 11 this is tape number two and the time is seven 12 minutes after eleven. 13 Q. Mr. Yoo, I'm going to show you what's previously 14 been marked as CPH Exhibit 81. This is a 15 document titled, Project Laser, Laser 16 Corporation, Restructuring and Growth Plans. Do 17 you recall, sir, that the code name for the 18 Sunbeam engagement was Project Laser? 19 A. Yes, I do. 20 Q. Okay. Have you seen this document before? 21 A. I think I have. 22 Q. When did you see this document? 23 A. I think at the time that we, it was prepared. 24 Q. Did you prepare it? 25 A. I didn't personally prepare this, no.

Page 63 1 EUGENE YOO 2 almost 2 billion by 1999 without acquisitions? 3 A. I don't remember any of their growth targets or 4 what their plans were. It was such a long time 5 ago. 6 Q. Do you remember conducting any investigation to 7 determine whether Sunbeam's growth targets were 8 attainable? 9 A. We did talk to several people at Sunbeam about 10 the numbers they had given us. We talked to 11 Russ Kirsch and Rich Goudis. Again, I think we 12 spent a day at their office talking to the 13 different division heads about the, their budget 14 plan for the year. 15 Q. Did the information you received from these 16 individuals comport with the growth plans that 17 are indicated in CPH Exhibit 81? 18 A. Again, I don't know if they matched up with 19 this. But I do remember that we were very 20 comfortable with the detailed information they 21 had given us behind their growth plans. 22 Q. Do you recall how you became comfortable with 23 that information? 24 MS. Brown: Object to form. 25 A. How we became comfortable?	Page 65 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. Again, my experience has only been with, and for 3 me this was probably one of the larger 4 transactions that I worked on. So, you know, I 5 can only speak about what I had done. 6 Q. What have you done in the past on deals similar 7 to Sunbeam to determine whether Morgan Stanley 8 is comfortable with the growth plans given to 9 them by the company that's retained them to 10 provide investment counseling or acquisition 11 counseling for the sale of the company? 12 MS. BROWN: Object to form and foundation. 13 A. I guess, it's been a long time since I've done 14 it. I can only really talk about what I've 15 done. But from what I remember on this, as I 16 said, we went through the growth plan, tried to 17 get the detail behind the numbers they were 18 giving us with Russ and with Rich Goudis and we 19 met with the division heads and they walked 20 through how they were going to achieve their 21 numbers. And that's probably pretty typical for 22 any investment bank on an MNA transaction. 23 Q. Is there any independent analysis that Morgan 24 Stanley conducts to confirm the information 25 provided to them by the company?

Page 66 1 EUGENE YOO 2 MS. Brown: Object to form. 3 A. I don't know what else they do. 4 Q. You indicated that you spoke with division heads 5 at Sunbeam, who were the individuals that you 6 spoke with? 7 A. I don't remember specifically. 8 Q. Did you speak with Don Oosi? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. And did Mr. Oosi provide you with any documents 11 to back up the growth targets that are indicated 12 in CPH Exhibit 81? 13 A. I believe he did. 14 Q. Do you recall the form of those documents? 15 A. No. I don't remember what he gave us. 16 Q. Other than Mr. Kirsch and Mr. Goudis did you 17 meet with anyone else in senior management at 18 Sunbeam to determine whether the growth targets 19 were attainable? 20 MS. Brown: Object to form. 21 Mischaracterization testimony. 22 A. Our primary contact was with Russ and Rich on 23 almost anything that was deal related, on almost 24 anything that was Sunbeam related, I should say. 25 And, you know, the managing directors had	Page 68 1 EUGENE YOO 2 document; is that correct? 3 A. I don't know for sure. I don't think I did. 4 Q. Do you know what was done with this document, 5 CPH Exhibit 81? 6 A. I don't remember. 7 Q. Do you recall if this document was provided to 8 any potential buyers? 9 A. I couldn't say for sure, I don't know. 10 Q. Or its potential acquisition targets? 11 A. Again, I don't know. I didn't attend any of 12 those meetings. 13 Q. Handing you what's been previously marked as CPH 14 Exhibit 69, the cover page reads "Project Laser 15 Discussion Materials, September 11, 1997, 16 Conference Call." Setting aside the handwriting 17 on this document, Mr. Yoo, do you recall seeing 18 this document? 19 A. I may have seen this. I couldn't say for sure, 20 but it's possible. 21 Q. Do you recall seeing the document with the 22 handwriting? 23 A. No. 24 Q. You'll notice in the upper right-hand corner 25 there's the notation MS and then a list of names

Page 70 1 EUGENE YOO 2 their exact role in this transaction. But from 3 what I remember I think they were working with 4 Al on the turn around plan. On developing a 5 plan, I think, but I don't remember for sure. 6 Q. That's the turnaround plan at Sunbeam? 7 A. At Sunbeam, right. 8 Q. If you could turn to page 3 of the document 9 which is Morgan Stanley 3897. It's a slide 10 entitled Overview of Proposed Selling Process? 11 A. Uh-huh. 12 Q. Do you see on the left-hand side, sir, 13 handwriting, it says "just get it done"? To the 14 left of Overview of Proposed Selling Process. 15 A. Okay. Yeah. 16 Q. Does that refresh your recollection, sir, of 17 participating in this conference call? Someone 18 making the statement "just get it done"? 19 A. No. I don't know. 20 Q. You don't know what that means? 21 A. No. 22 Q. In about the middle of the page looking at the 23 handwriting again there is two asterisks, the 24 second asterisk says "Kimberly/Scott - won't see 25 anything." Do you recall anyone making that	Page 72 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Stanley prepared a document entitled Strategic 3 Plan or contained the words strategic plan in 4 the title of the document? 5 A. I don't know for sure. I mean, we produced a 6 lot of documents. 7 Q. I'm sorry. How about long range strategic plan; 8 do you recall that document? 9 A. No. 10 Q. And then in the middle of page 3906 of CPH 11 Exhibit 69 there's a box around some 12 handwriting, and the handwriting states "beef up 13 sex appeal." And there's an arrow to "future 14 growth opportunities." Do you know what that 15 refers to? 16 A. I couldn't say for sure. 17 Q. Do you recall anyone at Morgan Stanley 18 discussing beefing up the sex appeal of Sunbeam 19 by touting future growth opportunities? 20 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 21 A. No. I mean, there was really no discussion 22 about that. 23 Q. Did anyone at Morgan Stanley refer to Sunbeam 24 management as amateurs? 25 A. Not that I can remember, no.
Page 71 1 EUGENE YOO 2 statement at Morgan Stanley? 3 A. No, I don't, I don't recall anything about that. 4 Q. You don't know what that means? 5 A. No. I, I don't know what that means. 6 Q. If you can turn to page 12 of the document which 7 is Morgan Stanley 3906. In much larger 8 handwriting on the top left of that page it says 9 "amateurs" and it's underlined; do you see that? 10 A. Okay. 11 Q. Does that refresh your recollection of this 12 September 11th conference call? 13 A. No. 14 Q. Do you know what -- do you know what that refers 15 to? 16 MS. BROWN: Objection. Speculation. 17 A. No. I'm not sure. 18 Q. To the right-hand side in handwriting there's an 19 asterisk with 20 to 25 pages, Strat Plan; 20 possibly strategic plan. Does that -- 21 A. Okay. 22 Q. Does that refresh your recollection of this call 23 and discussion of a Sunbeam strategic plan? 24 A. No. 25 Q. Were you aware, sir, that Sunbeam and Morgan	Page 73 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. If you take a moment, sir, to flip through the 3 rest of the document. My question for you is 4 whether you recall preparing any portions of 5 this document? 6 A. (Witness reviewing.) I don't know specifically 7 where, but I'm sure I had a hand in helping to 8 prepare this somewhere. 9 Q. You mean you don't recall any specific pages 10 that you have a recollection of preparing? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Did anyone at Morgan Stanley or Sunbeam advise 13 Morgan Stanley to not contact Kimberly-Clark in 14 connection with Morgan Stanley's work in trying 15 to find a buyer or an acquisition target for 16 Sunbeam? 17 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation. 18 A. No, there was no discussion of that kind. 19 Q. That you recall? 20 A. That I recall. 21 (Deposition Exhibit 218 marked for 22 identification.) 23 Q. Sir, you've been handed what's been marked as 24 CPH Exhibit 218. 25 A. Uh-huh.

Page 78 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. On the third page of the document, CPH 467092, 3 there's a category entitled, not category, 4 /channel/pricing; do you see that? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And the fourth bullet point it reads "definition 7 of category management? Does it differ from 8 channel management?" Do you recall inquiring 9 into Sunbeam's channel management? 10 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 11 A. I'm not sure. I mean, I still don't fully know 12 what channel management is. That's part of the 13 question was trying to work through their 14 terminology, understanding what it is they were 15 talking about. 16 Q. Did you ever come to an understanding of 17 Sunbeam's channel management practices? 18 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 19 A. Again, I'm not really sure, you know, what 20 channel management, you know, it's more of a 21 marketing term, I believe. I'm not really sure 22 what channel management is. 23 Q. There's another category entitled Other at the 24 bottom of that same page. And next to the 25 fourth bullet point it reads "provide examples	Page 80 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. As far as I remember there was, at least for the 3 Morgan Stanley due diligence, I don't believe 4 there was a formal data room set up. I don't 5 recall if there was ever one set up during the 6 transaction, during the actual consummation of 7 the transaction. 8 Q. Did you, did you ever have any contact with the 9 law firm Skadden Arps in connection with the 10 Sunbeam engagement? 11 A. I believe so, yes. 12 Q. Do you recall that Skadden represented Sunbeam 13 in the transaction? 14 A. That sounds familiar, yeah. 15 Q. Okay. Did you have any discussions with Skadden 16 in connection with the due diligence that you 17 performed? 18 A. I don't think we talked about that, no. 19 Q. Do you recall when you started your due 20 diligence of Sunbeam? 21 A. I mean, for a client -- I'm sorry. 22 Q. No, go ahead. 23 A. For a client I don't think it's a one time 24 event. It's sort of an ongoing thing. As I 25 said, we were learning about the company when we
Page 79 1 EUGENE YOO 2 of how the company has repositioned itself 3 (manufacturing, shipping and billing, R and D 4 and other systems and processes.) For growth as 5 opposed to being viewed as a cost cutter." Do 6 you recall obtaining information in response to 7 this inquiry? 8 A. I don't remember specifically what we got back 9 on this one. 10 Q. Do you recall whether you received any comfort 11 on whether the company repositioned itself for 12 growth as opposed to simply cost cutting? 13 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 14 A. I don't recall. 15 Q. The following document is a list of documents in 16 data room, CPH 467093? 17 A. Uh-huh. 18 Q. And it appears that this document runs through 19 the rest of this exhibit through CPH 467126. Do 20 you recall seeing that document? 21 A. No, I don't think I've seen this before. 22 Q. Did you ever go into a data room in connection 23 with your due diligence of Sunbeam? 24 A. Not that I can remember. 25 Q. Do you know if anyone did?	Page 81 1 EUGENE YOO 2 did our first pitch and then from then it was 3 sort of an ongoing process of trying to stay on 4 top of the progress of the company. 5 Q. Is September 19, 1997 a significant date to you 6 in connection with your due diligence work? 7 When the memo that's attached to CPH Exhibit 220 8 was faxed to Mr. Goudis and Mr. Fannin at 9 Sunbeam? 10 A. I don't recall anything specific or anything 11 special about that day. 12 Q. Did Sunbeam ever refuse to provide any 13 information that you requested in connection 14 with your due diligence work? 15 A. No. Not as far as I can remember. 16 Q. Did Sunbeam limit Morgan Stanley's access to any 17 of Sunbeam's customers or employees? 18 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation. 19 A. There was no -- there was no attempt on 20 Sunbeam's part to limit our access to any of the 21 customers. 22 Q. Did you interview any customers at Sunbeam? 23 A. I did not personally, no. 24 Q. Do you know if anyone did? 25 A. I don't believe anyone did. But I don't think

1 EUGENE YOO
2 that's -- it's not really part of the normal due
3 diligence process for an MNA transaction.
4 Q. You've never contacted companies' customers as 5 part of due diligence?
6 A. I haven't personally and I don't know of anyone
7 that has. I can't think of anybody that has.
8 Q. Okay. How about lower level employees,
9 employees below the division heads, did you have 10 any contact with those employees in connection
11 with your due diligence?
12 A. Occasionally here and there. I don't remember
13 anyone directly.
14 Q. Do you recall any of those employees that you
15 spoke with?
16 A. No.
17 Q. Do you recall the subjects of your conversations
18 with those employees?
19 A. No. It was mainly in the context of when we 20 would request information or specific documents
21 most of our contact was with senior or mid level
22 management and they would have some of their 23 subordinates do the actual work to provide us
24 the information. That was really the main
25 context of our contact with them.

Page 83

1 EUGENE YOO
2 Q. So is it your testimony that you never spoke to
3 those employees, you just obtained information
4 from them through their superiors?
5 MS. BROWN: Objection. Mischaracterizes.
6 A. I don't recall the nature our conversations with 7 them. You know, there was some contact, I don't
8 really remember what it was.
9 MR. O'CONNOR: Mark the next exhibit.
10 (Deposition Exhibit 221 marked for
11 identification.)
12 Q. Mr. Yoo, you've been handed what's been marked
13 as CPH Exhibit 221; do you recall this document?
14 A. No, I don't think I've seen this one.
15 Q. Do you recall traveling to Sunbeam's
16 headquarters in Florida on September 22nd
17 through the 24th, 1997?
18 A. I don't know the dates that I was down there. I
19 made several trips down there.
20 Q. How many trips do you think you made to Florida
21 in connection with the Sunbeam engagement?
22 A. I have to guess. Maybe four or five.
23 Q. And each time you traveled to Florida did you,
24 did you go to Sunbeam's headquarters in Del Ray
25 Beach?

Page 84

1 EUGENE YOO
2 A. Yes, I believe so.
3 Q. What were the purposes of your trips to Florida?
4 A. They were all different. We were down there for 5 different reasons.
6 Q. Did you go to the beach?
7 A. No.
8 Q. Was this a part of your due diligence of
9 Sunbeam?
10 A. Some of it was for due diligence, yes.
11 Q. Besides due diligence why else did you go to
12 Sunbeam?
13 A. Some of it was, I believe there was one meeting
14 or one presentation we made to them and I think
15 one was a, I remember we went down there for a,
16 sort of a preparation session. I think they 17 were having a meeting with someone, I don't 18 recall who.
19 Q. Was this a potential buyer?
20 A. I don't remember who it was. It was really --
21 Jim Stynes was the one that went with me in that 22 meeting and they were asking for Jim's help in 23 just preparing for a meeting.
24 Q. In the presentation, of the trip for the 25 presentation was that for the pitch to Sunbeam?

Page 85

1 EUGENE YOO
2 A. No. What was that about? I think it was --
3 Q. That's my next question.
4 A. I think it was just an update of the progress to 5 that point. Where we were in our discussions.
6 Q. Do you recall when that trip occurred?
7 A. I think it was in the fall sometime that I
8 remember.
9 Q. Do you recall Mr. Dunlap being unhappy with 10 Morgan Stanley because Morgan Stanley could not
11 find a buyer for Sunbeam?
12 A. I never knew, I mean, I never, like I said, I
13 never talked to him.
14 Q. You never talked to him ever?
15 A. About the transaction. It was really just 16 formalities and greetings.
17 Q. Does CPH Exhibit 221 read in connection with CPH
18 Exhibit 220, refresh your recollection that your
19 trip to Florida from September 22nd to the 24th
20 of 1997 was in connection with the information
21 that you requested in the September 19, 1997
22 memo?
23 A. Okay. I believe we did go down there for that 24 trip for a due diligence session.
25 Q. What do you recall about that trip?

Page 86 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. It was pretty nondescript. I mean, it was just 3 information gathering, going through 4 documentation they had given us, a few 5 presentations. Actually, this may have been the 6 trip where we met with the various division 7 heads and they were giving us their growth plan 8 for the year. 9 Q. Do you recall any of the information they 10 provided you on those growth plans? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Do you recall looking at any documents during 13 this trip that you requested in the September 14 19, 1997 memo? 15 A. We did go through quite a few documents during 16 this time. I don't, again, I couldn't tell you 17 specifically what. 18 Q. Did you find any information in those documents 19 that caused you any concern about Sunbeam's turn 20 around or the future growth projections? 21 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 22 A. No. At the time there was nothing really that 23 raised any red flags for us. 24 Q. Was there anything that raised any yellow flags? 25 A. No.	Page 88 1 EUGENE YOO 2 that, it was probably two days. 3 Q. Do you recall whether this trip in late 4 September of 1997 preceded this presentation 5 that you spoke about earlier? 6 A. Which presentation? 7 Q. The trip to Florida where you were involved in a 8 presentation to Sunbeam to update them on the 9 progress? 10 MS. BROWN: With Mr. Stynes. 11 A. I don't remember the exact chronology. 12 Q. How long were you in Florida for that 13 presentation? 14 A. I think it was just a day. 15 Q. In that preparation session? 16 A. I think it was just a day. 17 Q. Other than the trip to Florida on September 18 22nd, do you recall any other trips to Florida 19 in 1997 during which time you performed due 20 diligence of Sunbeam? 21 A. I couldn't say for sure. I don't know. 22 Q. I'm handing you what's been previously marked as 23 CPH Exhibit 71. 24 A. (Witness reviewing.) 25 Q. Have you seen this document before?
Page 87 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Did Mr. Chang accompany you on this trip to 3 Florida in September? 4 A. I believe he did. 5 Q. Did anyone else go to Florida with you on this 6 trip, or did you meet anyone from Morgan Stanley 7 down in Florida on this trip? 8 A. I don't remember. I don't think so, but I'm not 9 sure. 10 Q. CPH Exhibit 221 indicates that you spent 11 Tuesday, September 23rd, at Sunbeam? 12 A. Uh-huh. 13 Q. And you were to see Rich Goudis. And it shows 14 your departure on Wednesday, September 24th, six 15 fifteen flight. 16 A. Uh-huh. 17 Q. Does that refresh your recollection on how much 18 time you spent at Sunbeam's headquarters 19 reviewing documents and meeting with division 20 heads? 21 MS. BROWN: On this trip? 22 Q. On this trip. Thanks. 23 A. I thought we were there for a few days, maybe 24 two days or three days. And -- I've got to look 25 at the time line here. Yeah, it looks like	Page 89 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. Yes, I have. 3 Q. When did you see this document? 4 A. I actually helped put this together. 5 Q. Okay. The first two pages of CPH Exhibit 71 are 6 contents of an e-mail authored by Tyrone Chang 7 dated October 23, 1997, attaching an October 22, 8 1997 memo to worldwide IBD Professionals; do you 9 see that? 10 A. Yes, I do. 11 Q. Do you recall the purpose of sending this e-mail 12 and the attached documents at this time? At 13 that time. 14 A. This was a standard announcement that we would 15 send out when we were engaged by a client. 16 Q. What's the purpose of sending out that 17 announcement? 18 A. I think it was just informative for the rest of 19 the investment banking division. 20 Q. You said that you prepared the materials that 21 are attached to that e-mail? 22 A. Well, I helped put this together. 23 Q. When you say you helped put it together, what 24 does that mean? 25 A. I think most of the actual documentation on the

Page 90 1 EUGENE YOO 2 project, the person who actually physically sat 3 there and drafted these was Tyrone, and I was 4 overseeing that and then Alex was overseeing us, 5 Alex Fuchs. 6 Q. Did you physically type the information that's 7 contained on Morgan Stanley 5986? 8 A. 86? No, I didn't type this. 9 Q. Do you know who did? 10 A. I don't know. 11 Q. Do you recall reading the investment rationale 12 that appears on this page at this point in time? 13 A. I believe I did read this. 14 Q. The first bullet point reads, "Sunbeam 15 represents an attractive growth story and 16 investment opportunity"? 17 A. Uh-huh. 18 Q. Do you know the basis for that statement? 19 A. I don't know. 20 Q. Did you do anything in connection with your due 21 diligence of Sunbeam to confirm that Sunbeam in 22 fact represented an attractive growth story and 23 investment opportunity? 24 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 25 A. Well, all of these I think are just opinion	Page 92 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. You testified earlier as part of your due 3 diligence you were keeping an eye on other 4 companies in the industry? 5 A. (Witness nods in the affirmative.) 6 Q. Is that part of what you did to confirm that 7 Sunbeam presented a tremendous intrinsic value? 8 A. I can't say for sure, but that's a possibility. 9 Q. If you turn, sir, to page 5991, a few pages back 10 in CPH Exhibit 71. There's a summary of recent 11 analyst commentary. 12 A. Uh-huh. 13 Q. And that spans for several pages. Did you draft 14 those pages of this document? 15 A. Actually, I don't think that I worked on this 16 part of it. 17 Q. Did you perform any research into analyst 18 commentaries on Sunbeam or did someone else take 19 care of that? 20 A. Most of that was actually done by the, by our, 21 our financial analysts, Tiruse (ph.), Tyrone and 22 Louie. 23 Q. You can set that aside. During your trip to 24 Sunbeam in September, late September of 1997 did 25 you ever meet with any of the company's internal
Page 91 1 EUGENE YOO 2 about the quality of the company. I think the 3 growth aspect was coming out of the growth plan 4 that Sunbeam had. 5 Q. So the statements, the four bullet point 6 statements that appear on Morgan Stanley 5986 7 are Morgan Stanley's opinion of the condition of 8 Sunbeam Corporation at this time? 9 MS. BROWN: Object. Mischaracter -- 10 Q. I'm sorry. At the time that the document was 11 circulated to the worldwide IBD Professionals? 12 MS. BROWN: Objection. 13 Mischaracterization. Foundation. 14 A. At the time that this was drafted based on the 15 information that we had from the company and 16 what we knew about the company, you know, we 17 felt that these were reasonably accurate. 18 Q. Do you recall anything specifically that you did 19 to confirm that Sunbeam had undergone a profound 20 transformation since the arrival of new 21 management in July of 1996? 22 A. I don't remember specifically. 23 Q. For the next bullet point "tremendous intrinsic 24 value, outpacing nearest competitors"? 25 A. Uh-huh.	Page 93 1 EUGENE YOO 2 auditors? 3 A. No, I don't think we did. 4 Q. You never spoke to Tom Hartshorn? 5 A. Harshorn? 6 Q. Thank you. 7 A. I don't recall ever meeting him face to face. I 8 think I may have spoken to him on the phone once 9 or twice. 10 Q. What did you discuss with him? 11 A. I don't recall. 12 Q. How about Deirdre Dadando, did you ever speak 13 with her on the phone? 14 A. I don't recall that name. 15 Q. Did you ever review Sunbeam's internal audit 16 papers? 17 A. I don't believe we did. 18 Q. Did you ever review the audit work papers 19 prepared by Arthur Andersen, Sunbeam's 20 accountant? 21 A. I don't think we did. We typically don't review 22 the audit papers. 23 Q. Why is that? 24 A. We rely on the auditors who provide us with a 25 comfort on the financials. We couldn't do that

Page 94 1 EUGENE YOO 2 on every transaction to go in and review their 3 work. 4 Q. Did you ever speak to anyone at Arthur Andersen 5 in connection with your due diligence? 6 A. I don't think we did. 7 Q. You don't recall speaking to Larry Bornstein? 8 A. No. I may have on the phone once, but I don't 9 really remember. I didn't really deal with 10 Larry. 11 Q. Do you know who Larry Bornstein is? Have you 12 met him? 13 A. I've never met him, no. 14 Q. Phil Harlow? 15 A. Phil I think I've spoken to. I think he was the 16 person I talked to more. 17 Q. You don't recall what you discussed with 18 Mr. Bornstein? 19 A. No. 20 Q. Do you recall what you discussed with 21 Mr. Harlow? 22 A. I don't remember specifically. It was more in 23 connection with the acquisitions that Sunbeam 24 was making. 25 Q. Was part of your due diligence of Sunbeam and	Page 96 1 EUGENE YOO 2 as part of your due diligence? I'm sorry. I 3 withdraw that question. 4 Is that the same -- does that refer to the 5 trip that we discussed in CPH Exhibit 221? 6 A. I believe that's the same trip, yes. 7 Q. And then the next page lists October 29th? 8 A. Uh-huh. 9 Q. "MS due diligence regarding growth strategies 10 and strategic plan at Sunbeam's headquarters in 11 Florida" and your name, Mr. Chang's name and 12 Miss Rafii's name are listed there. Do you 13 recall traveling to Sunbeam in Florida on 14 October 29th to conduct due diligence on 15 Sunbeam's growth strategies and strategic plan? 16 A. I vaguely remember making the trip. 17 Q. Do you recall what you did on that trip? 18 A. I just remember part of it being sitting with 19 Rich Goudis and with Russ and some of the backup 20 financials they had to the growth plan, 21 understanding how they built up to their final, 22 final numbers. I don't recall what else we did 23 on that trip. 24 Q. Did they provide you with documents reflecting 25 that build up?
Page 95 1 EUGENE YOO 2 its financial condition you didn't have 3 conversation with Mr. Harlow or Mr. Bornstein? 4 MS. BROWN: Objection. Mischaracterizes. 5 A. I don't believe we did. 6 Q. Sir, I'm handing you what's previously been 7 marked as CPH Exhibit 84. Have you seen this 8 document? 9 A. I don't believe I have. 10 Q. This is a document that was produced by Morgan 11 Stanley and it appears to be the chronology of 12 the events, some of the events, Project Laser. 13 On page 2 of the chronology next to the date of 14 September 23rd and 24th, the event reads "MS due 15 diligence at SOC"? 16 A. Uh-huh. 17 Q. First, SOC refers to Sunbeam's stock ticker 18 symbol; correct? 19 A. Correct. 20 Q. And the participants of that due diligence 21 session at Sunbeam are listed as yourself and 22 Mr. Chang -- 23 A. Uh-huh. 24 Q. -- at Sunbeam's headquarters? Do you recall 25 traveling to Sunbeam on September 23rd and 24th	Page 97 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. Yes, I believe they did. 3 Q. Do you recall what those documents contained? 4 A. I don't remember now, no. 5 Q. Did you speak with anyone besides Mr. Goudis and 6 Mr. Kirsch during that trip? 7 A. I may have. I think there was somebody else 8 that worked for Russ that we actually dealt with 9 on a more regular basis for the financials. And 10 we may have talked to, we may have talked to Don 11 as well, Don Oosi. 12 Q. Did you speak with anyone below senior 13 management on that trip to discuss the back up 14 for the strategic plan or the growth strategies? 15 A. I don't recall. 16 Q. Do you recall anything else about that trip or 17 the information you learned? 18 A. No. I don't recall anything else about that. 19 Q. Did anyone else from Morgan Stanley go down to 20 Florida for that trip other than yourself and 21 Mr. Chang and Miss Rafii? 22 A. I don't know. I don't remember. 23 Q. Handing you what's been previously marked as 24 Exhibit CPH 173. Do you recall traveling to 25 Sunbeam's headquarters in Florida on January

25 (Pages 94 to 97)

Page 98 1 EUGENE YOO 2 5th? 3 A. January 5th? I don't remember what the trip was 4 for. 5 Q. You don't recall going down to Florida shortly 6 after New Year's, 1998? 7 A. I may have. I mean.... 8 Q. If you turn to CPH Exhibit 84, -- 9 A. Uh-huh. 10 Q. -- page 33259. 11 A. Uh-huh. 12 Q. Next to January 5th there's an entry that states 13 "meeting with SOC to prepare for potential sell 14 side management presentation to Phillips." Does 15 that refresh your recollection of your trip to 16 Florida on January 5th? 17 A. I'm sorry, I'm drawing a blank on that. I don't 18 remember. 19 Q. Mr. Yoo, did you create any documents to reflect 20 the information that you learned during the due 21 diligence trips to Sunbeam? 22 MS. BROWN: Object to the form. 23 A. The, I mean, on which trip? On -- 24 Q. Any of the trips. 25 A. I may have taken notes. That's all I know.	Page 100 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I'm pretty sure we went through some of them 3 again at some point. 4 Q. You didn't create any summaries of your due 5 diligence findings? 6 A. No. 7 Q. In 1997 and 1998 did Morgan Stanley have any 8 policies documenting due diligence? 9 A. Not that I knew of. 10 Q. Did you receive any training at Morgan Stanley 11 on conducting due diligence or documenting due 12 diligence? 13 A. There was no formal training class on due 14 diligence. You know, just like almost anything 15 else on the job it's sort of learning on the 16 job, learning with somebody else who knows what 17 they're doing. In this case, especially in this 18 case because it was my first MNA transaction, I 19 was working with Alex and also Tyrone who had 20 actually more experience than I did in the MNA 21 group. 22 Q. Were you ever given a manual at Morgan Stanley 23 which provided policies and recommendations on 24 conducting due diligence? 25 A. I don't think we ever received anything like
Page 99 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Was it your practice to take handwritten notes 3 while you were conducting due diligence while 4 reviewing documents and speaking with people? 5 A. Generally I took notes, yeah. 6 Q. But you don't recall doing so in this case? 7 A. Again, I'm speculating. I'm assuming I did but 8 I don't have anything. 9 Q. Nobody at Morgan Stanley was designated as the 10 point person who was responsible for keeping 11 notes of the due diligence activities? 12 A. Typically the analysts were the ones that were 13 responsible for making sure that any and all 14 information that we gathered on a due diligence 15 trip made it back with us to New York. Whether 16 that was notes or physical documents that we 17 received or discs or anything like that. 18 Q. Did the analysts on the Sunbeam engagement do 19 that? 20 A. I believe they did. 21 Q. Do you know where those notes or documents were 22 stored once they were carried back to New York? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Did you ever look at those documents at a 25 subsequent time after the due diligence trip?	Page 101 1 EUGENE YOO 2 that. I don't remember anything like that. 3 Q. Other than the trips that we've looked at on 4 your itineraries or in this chronology, do you 5 recall any other trips to Sunbeam in 1997 where 6 you performed due diligence? 7 A. No. I don't recall any, anything specific. 8 Q. Mr. Yoo, did you prepare presentation books for 9 potential acquisition targets in the Sunbeam 10 engagement? 11 A. I believe we did. 12 Q. Did you personally? 13 A. I am pretty sure that I helped work on them. 14 Q. Who else was involved in preparing presentation 15 books? 16 A. I guess it depends on the book. 17 (Deposition Exhibit 222 marked for 18 identification.) 19 Q. You've been handed what's been marked as CPH 20 Exhibit 222, which is a Morgan Stanley document 21 Bates labeled 3431 through 3464. Have you seen 22 this document before, sir? 23 A. Yes, I believe I have. 24 Q. Did you draft this document? 25 A. I helped put it, I helped put it together.

Page 103 1 EUGENE YOO 2 "Meeting with Sunbeam management to discuss 3 potential Coleman transaction. Sunbeam -- 4 A. Okay. 5 Q. -- initiated talks with Coleman without MS 6 knowledge background presentation on Coleman and 7 preliminary financial analysis presented"? 8 A. Okay. 9 Q. Does that refresh your recollection, sir, on 10 what was done with this document? 11 A. Well, I wasn't actually at the meeting, I don't 12 know what they used this for. It could have 13 either been to inform Sunbeam or sometimes our 14 own team use it to make sure we knew all of the 15 answers if anybody had any questions on Coleman, 16 if they asked us what the sales were last year 17 or anything like that. 18 Q. Do you recall when you first started researching 19 the Coleman Company in connection with the 20 Sunbeam engagement? 21 A. No. I mean, there were so many things happening 22 at the time, I don't remember. 23 Q. If you could turn, sir, to the third page of CPH 24 Exhibit 222. In the overview of the Coleman 25 Company the section entitled Overview of the	Page 105 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Is it your testimony that you were not involved 3 in preparing model outputs that analyzed an 4 acquisition of the Coleman Company and the 5 synergies that are assumed in such an 6 acquisition? 7 MS. BROWN: Objection to form. 8 Mischaracterizes. 9 A. No, that's not what I am saying. I certainly 10 helped work on a good portions of the model. 11 This particular one, though, is one I didn't 12 really work on. 13 Q. When you say you worked on portions of the 14 model, what do you mean by that? 15 A. Well, I was overseeing Tyrone as he would run 16 various analyses. 17 Q. Did you tell Tyrone what data to input into the 18 model? 19 MS. BROWN: Object to the form. 20 A. I didn't, I didn't give him the specific numbers 21 to put in, but I would help him tell, you know, 22 help him figure out where the sources were. 23 Q. What were the sources of that data? 24 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 25 A. I mean, the data for the inputs?

Page 110 1 EUGENE YOO 2 spa business. 3 Q. Were you aware of the meeting on December 12th? 4 A. Sure. I'm pretty sure I was. 5 Q. Do you know if Sunbeam used Exhibits 222, 223 6 and 224 in connection with their meeting with 7 MacAndrews and Forbes? 8 A. I don't know. 9 MS. BROWN: Hold on. 224? 10 MR. O'CONNOR: I'm sorry, Exhibit 222 and 11 Exhibit 223. Thank you. 12 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation. 13 A. I don't know. 14 Q. Do these documents refresh your recollection, 15 sir, that Morgan Stanley was analyzing potential 16 synergies of a Sunbeam/Coleman transaction prior 17 to the first meeting between Sunbeam and 18 MacAndrews and Forbes on December 12, 1997? 19 MS. BROWN: Object to form. Object to 20 foundation. And also I believe mischaracterizes 21 the facts in evidence. 22 A. I mean, I don't know. I mean, which synergies, 23 which? 24 Q. We looked at two documents that indicated that 25 someone at Morgan Stanley, perhaps Mr. Chang,	Page 112 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. It appears that way. 3 Q. A good time to take a lunch break? 4 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is twelve thirty, 5 we're off the record. 6 (Lunch break taken.) 7 VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the record. 8 This is tape number 3, the time is eleven 9 minutes after one. 10 Q. Mr. Yoo, before the lunch break you testified 11 that you had no contacts with representatives of 12 MacAndrews and Forbes Holdings until, except for 13 after the transaction closed; is that correct? 14 A. As far as I can remember that's correct. 15 Q. If you can turn back to CPH Exhibit 84, the 16 chronology. 17 A. Okay. 18 Q. And on page 33259 of that document there's an 19 entry for January 23rd. And next to that entry 20 there is a description, "meeting with Mavco, 21 reinstate talks, Ray Coleman." The location it 22 says Emco headquarters, I believe that to be 23 Mavco headquarters in New York. Your name is 24 listed as an attendee. Is that an error or do 25 you recall meeting with Mavco on January 23rd?

Page 114 1 EUGENE YOO 2 is not listed there, do you have any 3 recollection of any meetings on February 23rd 4 involving those individuals? 5 A. No, I don't. 6 Q. You don't recall any discussions involving 7 MacAndrews and Forbes or anyone from Coleman 8 with members of Morgan Stanley or Sunbeam 9 concerning any details of the transaction such 10 as the price, the timing, the consideration that 11 would be paid? 12 A. No, I don't remember being part of any of those 13 meetings. 14 Q. I'm handing you what's been previously marked as 15 CPH Exhibit 9. Do you recall this document, 16 sir? 17 A. Yes, I think I do. 18 Q. What is this document? 19 A. I think this was our, our company description of 20 Sunbeam and its current situation. 21 Q. Do you call this a presentation book? 22 A. I guess -- what do you mean by presentation 23 book? It appears to be in presentation format. 24 Q. Do you know if this document was provided to 25 Coleman Company representatives or MacAndrews	Page 116 1 EUGENE YOO 2 MS. BROWN: Document or page? 3 MR. O'CONNOR: Page. 4 A. This page, yes. I do recall that. 5 Q. What's the purpose of preparing this document, 6 the discussion materials marked as CPH Exhibit 7 9? 8 A. I don't know specifically what meeting this is 9 for or who the audience was. 10 Q. Was this document an effort by Morgan Stanley to 11 in essence sell Sunbeam Corporation -- I 12 withdraw. 13 Is this document in essence materials 14 prepared to provide prospective buyers or 15 acquisition targets with information concerning 16 Sunbeam's existing financial and business 17 condition? 18 A. I don't know if that was the purpose here. 19 Q. Do you know of any other purpose -- 20 A. It could have been. I'm sorry. 21 Q. Do you know of any other purpose this document 22 would serve? 23 A. February of '98. It could have been given, 24 again, just speculating, it could have been 25 given to anyone just to update them or inform

1 EUGENE YOO
 2 preparing.
 3 A. I'm sorry, what was the question?
 4 Q. In general the documents that were prepared by 5 Mr. Chang and Miss Rafii for your review, if you
 6 found any inconsistencies or errors in those
 7 documents did you change those documents or did
 8 you send them back down to those individuals for 9 editing?
 10 A. I would give them the changes to make.
 11 Q. Showing you what has been previously marked as 12 CPH Exhibit 187. Do you recognize that
 13 document?
 14 A. I think I do.
 15 Q. When do you recall seeing that document?
 16 A. I don't know the exact date. But I think I saw 17 this or some version of this presentation in the 18 fall of 1997.
 19 Q. Did you prepare any of the pages in this
 20 document?
 21 A. I don't think so.
 22 Q. Do you know who did?
 23 A. I don't know.
 24 Q. The same question for CPH Exhibit 9, do you know
 25 who compiled the materials to create this

Page 119

1 EUGENE YOO
 2 discussion material packet?
 3 A. CPH 9?
 4 Q. Correct.
 5 A. The raw data and information that was used to 6 produce this was probably collected by Lilly and 7 Tyrone.
 8 Q. What did you do to confirm that the information
 9 contained in CPH Exhibit 9 and CPH Exhibit 187
 10 was accurate?
 11 A. Accurate meaning?
 12 Q. True.
 13 A. Was it actually -- okay. Not that these and 14 this were the same, or?
 15 Q. Correct. Let's take them one at a time.
 16 A. Okay.
 17 Q. CPH Exhibit 9. What did you do to confirm that 18 the information contained in CPH Exhibit 9 was 19 accurate?
 20 A. Okay. Again, I couldn't give you specific 21 examples, but for the most part we would go back
 22 or I would go back and check the file output of 23 the product, a page like this versus whatever
 24 source data I could get my hands on. Mostly 25 looking for accuracy and figures and text.

Page 120

1 EUGENE YOO
 2 Q. Do you recall any instance where you found
 3 inaccuracies in their materials that you had to 4 change?
 5 A. There were a few instances of typographical
 6 errors or just misinterpreting of some numbers,
 7 maybe. But not many.
 8 Q. And again, with CPH Exhibit 187, what did you do
 9 to confirm that the statements contained in this
 10 document were accurate?
 11 MS. BROWN: Objection. Assumes facts not
 12 in evidence.
 13 Q. I'm sorry, what was the --
 14 (Prior testimony read back.)
 15 "And again, with CPH Exhibit 187,
 16 what did you do to confirm that 17 the statements contained in this
 18 document were accurate?"
 19 A. I don't remember the specific steps that we 20 took. Many of the things in here are just 21 statements that, I don't think anybody can 22 verify one way or the other. The financials, to 23 the extent they're in here, I don't believe we 24 really even used because they're too general and 25 too broad.

Page 121

1 EUGENE YOO
 2 Q. If someone -- I'm sorry.
 3 A. We may have used some of these but I don't
 4 really think we relied on these very much.
 5 Q. If somebody outside of Morgan Stanley or 6 somebody wanted to confirm the accuracy of these
 7 statements, what would they do?
 8 MS. BROWN: Objection. Hypothetical.
 9 Calls for speculation.
 10 A. Well, I mean, in the few cases that I had where 11 we had questions with a company's numbers we 12 would ask for any kind of backup data that they 13 had to support the final numbers that they were 14 showing us and how did they arrive at that 15 particular number, what was the methodology.
 16 Q. So if an individual investor wanted to confirm 17 the accuracy of these statements they would have 18 to ask somebody for the backup information; is 19 that your testimony?
 20 MS. BROWN: Objection. Mischaracterizes.
 21 Also a hypothetical.
 22 A. I don't think an individual investor would ever
 23 see this presentation, but I don't know. I
 24 don't know who it's given to.
 25 Q. If you can turn to page CPH 254636 in Exhibit

Page 123 1 EUGENE YOO 2 with their conclusions on their numbers. 3 Q. Do you recall if in 1998 you believe that 4 Sunbeam's plan to achieve EPS of two twenty a 5 share in 1998 was attainable? 6 A. I can't remember any reason why we thought it 7 was not attainable. 8 Q. But you can't recall what you did to confirm 9 that it was attainable? 10 A. Not specifically, no. I mean, we had our own 11 models that we ran. 12 Q. Where did you obtain the data to run those 13 models? 14 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 15 A. For the models that we ran here on Sunbeam, some 16 of the information was again from public 17 information, some of the information was from 18 analysts reports, equity analyst reports. 19 Q. Was the data also provided by Sunbeam itself? 20 MS. BROWN: Objection. 21 A. It depends on when. 22 Q. I'm sorry? 23 A. It depends on what time period you're talking 24 about. 25 Q. In the first quarter of 1998.	Page 125 1 EUGENE YOO 2 division heads to talk about the growth plans 3 that they had for each individual, each 4 individual division, how they were going to get 5 that. 6 Q. Were their plans for sales consistent with 7 what's reflected on page CPH 254639? 8 A. Were whose plans? 9 Q. Sunbeam. Sunbeam management. The folks that 10 you spoke to. 11 A. These numbers came from them, so I don't 12 remember exactly what the numbers were at the 13 time. 14 Q. If you turn to the next page, CPH 254640. What 15 did you do, if anything, to confirm the 16 attainability of first quarter 1998 earnings as 17 indicated on this page? 18 A. I think it was the same process. For our first 19 quarter '98 we were probably also able to 20 compare the numbers to analyst reports at the 21 time and their projections for the 1998 first 22 quarter. 23 Q. Did you ever speak to any analysts about their 24 reports? 25 A. We never spoke to any research analysts. At

Page 126 1 EUGENE YOO 2 least I did not. 3 Q. You don't know anyone else who did? 4 A. I don't believe anyone did. 5 Q. Did Morgan Stanley attempt to verify or 6 challenge any of the statements made by the 7 analysts? 8 MS. BROWN: Object. Foundation. 9 A. I don't know. 10 Q. And, again, you don't recall if either of these 11 documents were provided to Coleman or MacAndrews 12 and Forbes? 13 A. I don't know. 14 Q. Mr. Yoo, I'm handing you what's previously been 15 marked as CPH Exhibit 92. My first question for 16 you, Mr. Yoo, actually is not related 17 specifically to that document, but other than 18 reviewing the work performed by Mr. Chang and 19 Miss Rafii, were you involved in assessing or 20 estimating the potential synergies of 21 contemplated a transaction involving Sunbeam and 22 Coleman? 23 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 24 A. I, you know, I was not involved in developing 25 any kind of estimates or coming up with any kind	Page 128 1 EUGENE YOO 2 entering it into financial models? 3 MS. BROWN: Object. Compound. 4 A. The actual handling of the models was done by 5 the analysts, mostly Tyrone. But all of his 6 work was then ultimately reviewed by either 7 myself or Alex. 8 Q. Other than Mr. Chang do you know of anyone else 9 that was involved with preparing synergy models? 10 A. Preparing models using the synergy numbers? 11 Q. Correct. 12 A. Not that I can think of, no. 13 Q. Turning to the document that I handed you, CPH 14 Exhibit 92. Do you recall this document? 15 A. I think I do, yes. 16 Q. Do you recall reviewing this document in 1997 in 17 connection with proposed transactions involving 18 Black and Decker, any other companies listed in 19 here? 20 A. I do recall that. 21 Q. In the second paragraph on the first page of 22 Exhibit 92, it states, "enclosed please find our 23 initial attempts at determining the likely 24 synergies associated with the change of control. 25 For each targeted company we have made estimates
Page 127 1 EUGENE YOO 2 of projections on synergies. Our role was 3 simply using synergy numbers that others were 4 providing to us. 5 Q. Who provided you with those synergy numbers? 6 A. I don't remember specifically who. But I think 7 generally synergy numbers were provided by 8 Sunbeam or Coopers and Lybrand. 9 Q. And Coopers was retained by Sunbeam or Morgan 10 Stanley to assist with preparing synergy 11 analyses? 12 MS. BROWN: Object? Facts not in evidence. 13 A. I don't know -- I'm pretty sure they weren't 14 retained by Morgan Stanley. I don't think they 15 were working for us. 16 Q. Other than Sunbeam and Coopers who else provided 17 synergy numbers for Morgan Stanley's models? 18 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 19 Q. If any. 20 A. Well, as far as I knew for the potential 21 transactions we were contemplating there were, I 22 don't think there were any other sources for the 23 synergy numbers. 24 Q. Who was involved at Morgan Stanley with taking 25 that data and reviewing it or manipulating it or	Page 129 1 EUGENE YOO 2 as to the range of attainable synergies and 3 their ensuing financial impact on the combined 4 company." Is that consistent with what Morgan 5 Stanley was doing in connection with the 6 potential transaction with Coleman? 7 A. I'm not sure what you mean by that. 8 Q. Well, in analyzing a potential transaction 9 involving Sunbeam and Coleman, did Morgan 10 Stanley make estimates as to the range of 11 attainable synergies in their financial impact 12 as is indicated in CPH Exhibit 92? 13 MS. BROWN: Object to form and foundation. 14 A. The analysis here is a little different from 15 what might have been done in the Coleman 16 transaction. This is a preliminary look before 17 we had any contact with any company before we 18 have any potential transaction even showing any 19 signs. These were just ideas. And these 20 synergies were also flushed out. We made 21 guesses here at this point and then talked with 22 the Sunbeam management team to make sure that 23 they were reasonable and they adjusted our 24 estimates, our original estimates to what they 25 thought were, you know, at least on a first

Page 130 1 EUGENE YOO 2 broad brush, reasonable assumptions. You know, 3 at the point with, where we were with Coleman it 4 was a much more, I don't want to use the word 5 precise, but it was a different kind of synergy 6 estimate. It wasn't something that we were 7 coming up with. At that point we were relying 8 on Sunbeam or Coopers to give us a more refined 9 number. Where there was an actual tangible 10 transaction. At this point there were just too 11 many companies we were considering. 12 Q. Okay. In the last sentence of that second 13 paragraph it states, "we have also included the 14 background on Scott Paper and Sunbeam which we 15 used as templates for our analysis"? 16 A. Uh-huh. 17 Q. Do you recall if Morgan Stanley used the 18 background information it possessed on Scott 19 Paper in analyzing potential synergies in a 20 transaction involving Sunbeam and Coleman? 21 A. I don't recall that happening. 22 Q. Do you know why Morgan Stanley was using Scott 23 Paper as a template for potential synergies? 24 MS. BROWN: Objection. 25 Q. Involving the companies that are listed in these	Page 132 1 EUGENE YOO 2 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 3 A. I'm not sure I understand the question. 4 Q. Well, if you turn to page Morgan Stanley 3414. 5 Included in this package that was sent to 6 Sunbeam was the Sunbeam restructuring and growth 7 plans which we've seen before. Two pages prior 8 to that are Scott paper restructuring plans and 9 growth projects. Is that information important 10 for Morgan Stanley to consider in attempting to 11 estimate a range of attainable synergies in a 12 potential transaction involving Sunbeam and 13 another company? 14 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 15 Q. Such as the companies that are analyzed in CPH 16 Exhibit 92? 17 MS. BROWN: The same objection. 18 A. For this analysis I don't know how relevant they 19 are or not. I'm trying to remember what we were 20 doing here. I can't read the numbers. Again, I 21 don't know specifically what we were doing. I 22 can't remember what we were doing on this 23 analysis. I would think that's, the 24 restructuring plan and the growth targets might 25 have some impact on potential synergies, but I

Page 138 1 EUGENE YOO 2 identification.) 3 Q. Mr. Yoo, you've been handed what's been marked 4 as CPH Exhibit 226 which is a fax cover sheet 5 for Coopers and Lybrand to Gene Yoo dated 6 October 23, 1997 attaching several pages of 7 documents. Do you recall receiving this fax? 8 A. I think I do recall this. 9 Q. Do you recall the purpose behind this 10 information? 11 A. I don't remember specifically what we requested 12 this for. 13 Q. Is this the type of information that Coopers was 14 providing Morgan Stanley in 1997 on various 15 potential strategic alternatives for Sunbeam? 16 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 17 A. I couldn't say if this was typical or not. 18 Q. Do you recall if they prepared a similar 19 document for a potential acquisition of the 20 Coleman Company? 21 A. I don't remember. 22 Q. Do you recall Al Dunlap ever stating that he 23 believed the transaction -- strike that. 24 Do you recall Al Dunlap ever saying that 25 Sunbeam could attain 2 hundred million dollars	Page 140 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. As compared to what? 3 A. As compared to Sunbeam coming in and 4 implementing their own restructuring plan and a 5 target company. 6 Q. Were those potential savings that were 7 identified by Morgan Stanley? 8 A. No. We didn't identify any savings that I can 9 remember. 10 Q. Were the savings that had already been 11 implemented at Coleman part of the synergies 12 estimates provided by Sunbeam? 13 MS. BROWN: Object to foundation. 14 A. From what I remember of the synergy estimates we 15 actually segregated out, I thought, the cost 16 savings that were already achieved or part of 17 the restructuring plan that was already in 18 place. I thought we had done that. 19 Q. Do you recall ever receiving any synergy 20 estimates or ideas from the Coleman Company? 21 A. I don't recall what we got from Coleman. 22 Q. You don't recall any particular number, an 23 amount of synergies thought to be attainable, 24 where that information came from Coleman or 25 MacAndrews and Forbes?
Page 139 1 EUGENE YOO 2 in synergies as a result of an acquisition of 3 the Coleman Company? 4 A. I don't recall anything like that at all. 5 Q. Do you recall any statements made by any Sunbeam 6 personnel regarding their beliefs on the 7 potential to obtain synergies in a transaction 8 involving the acquisition of the Coleman 9 Company? 10 A. I can't remember specifically what anybody said. 11 Q. Generally? 12 A. I think the only thing that I can remember was 13 that some of the potential cost savings were 14 already implemented on the Coleman side. I 15 don't remember the amount, but that's the only 16 thing that I can remember about the Coleman 17 situation. 18 Q. How did you know that? 19 A. I didn't know it; I remember somebody saying 20 that. 21 Q. You remember someone telling you that some cost 22 savings had already been implemented at Coleman? 23 A. I don't know if it was cost savings or if it was 24 some of the restructuring plan in place at 25 Coleman were already underway.	Page 141 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. No. I don't remember any specific numbers. 3 Q. I show you what's been previously marked as CPH 4 Exhibit 95. Do you recall this document? 5 A. Yes, I do. 6 Q. Did you prepare this document? 7 A. I don't remember if I did this document or not. 8 Q. Where do you recall seeing this document? 9 A. I think this came up somewhere during the 10 negotiations with Coleman, but I don't remember 11 exactly at what point in time. 12 Q. The first column is entitled Item and there are 13 15 items listed under that column. Do you know 14 where those items came from? 15 A. I don't remember the source of the data, no. 16 Q. And the same question with respect to the column 17 entitled original and the numbers listed in that 18 column, do you know the source of those numbers? 19 A. No, I don't. I don't recall. 20 Q. And then with the revision count, do you know 21 the source of those revised numbers? 22 A. Nope. I don't remember. 23 Q. Do you know what was done with this document, if 24 anything? 25 A. I don't remember what we did this for.

Page 143 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I don't believe I did. 3 Q. Do you know who did? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Let me ask a better question. Do you know 6 anyone involved in analyzing potential synergies 7 involving these items that would provide these 8 types of comments? 9 MS. BROWN: Can you.... 10 (Prior testimony read back.) 11 "Do you know anyone involved in 12 analyzing potential synergies 13 involving these items that would 14 provide these types of comments?" 15 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 16 A. At this level of detail we most likely were 17 relying on Sunbeam and/or Coopers for this 18 information. 19 Q. Do you recall having any conversations with 20 anyone at Morgan Stanley or Sunbeam involving 21 these types of comments or issues related to 22 these potential synergy ideas? 23 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 24 A. I don't recall any conversations. 25 Q. Do you recall if Morgan Stanley or Sunbeam used	Page 145 1 EUGENE YOO 2 name for Coleman Company was Camper? 3 A. I believe that was the case, yes. 4 Q. And on this chart there are three boxes, the 5 first box on the left next to the words 6 estimated annual synergies reflects 100 million 7 dollars in the top of the box; do you see that? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And the middle box shows 150 million and the 10 third box shows 200 million? 11 A. Uh-huh. 12 Q. Do you recall the source of those synergy 13 estimates? 14 A. No. I don't, no. 15 Q. You don't recall any conversations with Sunbeam 16 or Morgan Stanley in which the synergy estimates 17 were discussed? The 100, 150 and 200 million 18 dollar estimates? 19 A. Those numbers aren't familiar to me, I don't 20 recall anything about them. 21 Q. Do you recall anyone at Morgan Stanley reaching 22 a decision on the amount of potential synergies 23 that could be attained as a result of Sunbeam's 24 acquisition of the Coleman Company? 25 MS. BROWN: Object to form and foundation.

Page 146 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. As far as I knew we really didn't make any 3 conclusions or decisions on what the synergies 4 were going to be. 5 Q. Do you recall if anyone at Sunbeam came to any 6 conclusion on the amount of potential synergies 7 that could be attained in the acquisition of the 8 Coleman Company by Sunbeam? 9 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation. 10 A. I don't recall who, I don't recall if Sunbeam 11 came up with any definitive answers on the 12 synergies. 13 Q. Do you recall whether anyone at Sunbeam came to 14 a decision as to a range of synergies? 15 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation. 16 A. For the most part as far as any synergy 17 discussions we were relying on Russ and it was 18 from the Sunbeam side. We were relying on Russ 19 Kirsch. 20 Q. Relying on him for what? 21 A. For guidance on synergies or potential synergies 22 in a transaction. 23 Q. Why were you relying on Mr. Kirsch for that? 24 A. He seemed to have the , from our position, he 25 seemed to have the best knowledge of what	Page 148 1 EUGENE YOO 2 where it says "sent by C and L" and then across 3 the top it reads "Coopers and Lybrand, dated 4 2/27/98." Does that refresh your recollection 5 with respect to who created this document? 6 A. No. I don't remember this. I may have seen it 7 but I don't remember. 8 Q. I'm sorry. Were you aware that Coopers 9 estimated potential synergies of 118 million 10 with respect to an acquisition of the Coleman 11 Company by Sunbeam? 12 MS. BROWN: Objection. Form, foundation. 13 Assumes facts not in evidence. 14 A. I did know that Coopers was working in some form 15 on developing the synergy estimates. I didn't 16 know, or at least I don't remember now what the 17 ultimate number was that they came up with. 18 Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone at 19 Coopers concerning potential synergies involving 20 an acquisition of Coleman by Sunbeam? 21 A. I don't remember. 22 Q. Do you know if anyone at Morgan Stanley had 23 communications with Coopers on that issue? 24 A. I couldn't say for sure. 25 Q. Do you know if anyone at Coleman or MacAndrews
Page 147 1 EUGENE YOO 2 potential synergies could be with these 3 different target companies. 4 Q. Why did you believe that to be true? 5 A. He seemed to have a level of knowledge of the 6 companies that was deeper than our view as an 7 outside adviser. 8 Q. Knowledge of Sunbeam? 9 A. Of Sunbeam and of the industry in general. 10 Q. Other than Mr. Kirsch anyone else that Morgan 11 Stanley relied on in obtaining guidance on 12 potential synergies? 13 MS. BROWN: Objection. Form and 14 foundation. 15 A. From Sunbeam, you mean? 16 Q. Correct. 17 A. From the Sunbeam side? 18 Q. Correct. 19 A. Russ was our main point of contact. I don't 20 know if there was anyone else at Sunbeam who was 21 working on coming up with the numbers. 22 Q. I'm handing you what's previously been marked as 23 CPH Exhibit 205. Do you recall this document? 24 A. I'm not sure if I've seen this before or not. 25 Q. The top of CPH Exhibit 205 contains a fax line	Page 149 1 EUGENE YOO 2 and Forbes came to any conclusion on the 3 synergies that could be attained in an 4 acquisition of the Coleman Company by Sunbeam? 5 MS. BROWN: Can I have that question back. 6 (Prior testimony read back.) 7 "Do you know if anyone at Coleman 8 or MacAndrews and Forbes came to 9 any conclusion on the synergies 10 that could be attained in an 11 acquisition of the Coleman Company 12 by Sunbeam?" 13 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation. 14 A. I don't know any conclusions or anything about 15 what they decided or concluded. 16 Q. Did anyone at Morgan Stanley offer to you their 17 opinion on the level of synergies that could be 18 attained in an acquisition of Coleman by 19 Sunbeam? 20 A. Not that I can recall. 21 Q. Mr. Chang didn't ever give you his opinion on 22 the synergies that might be attained? 23 A. I don't remember. No, I don't remember. 24 Q. Mr. Yoo, did you attend the meeting of the 25 Sunbeam board of directors on February 27, 1998

Page 150 1 EUGENE YOO 2 where the issue of acquisition of Coleman was 3 discussed? 4 A. I was present for a part of the meeting. I was 5 not there for the first half of the meeting. 6 Q. Why did you arrive after the start of the 7 meeting? 8 A. There were, I believe, five presentations that 9 Morgan Stanley put together for that meeting and 10 I was finishing the last two while the meeting 11 began. 12 Q. What do you recall being discussed at the board 13 meeting while you were in attendance? 14 A. At the point that I walked in I think Jim Stynes 15 was talking about the details of either 16 FirstAlert or Signature Brands in an 17 acquisition. And then I think, I think after 18 that Bill Strong was talking about financing 19 alternatives. After that I think it was just a 20 general Q and A, or open discussion with the 21 board, I don't remember any of the details after 22 that. 23 Q. Do you recall any of the specifics, anything 24 specific that Mr. Strong told the board in 25 regard to financing alternatives?	Page 152 1 EUGENE YOO 2 preliminary draft, do you have any knowledge if 3 there was drafts subsequent to this that would 4 have been presented to the board or if this was 5 in fact the final version? 6 A. I couldn't say definitively if this was the 7 final version or not. Yeah, I don't know. 8 Q. If you could just take a moment to flip through 9 it. My question would be do you have any reason 10 to believe this was not the final version? 11 A. No, there's no reason to believe it's not the 12 final version. 13 Q. If you could please turn to page 16 of the 14 presentation, which is Morgan Stanley 83982. 15 A. Okay. 16 Q. This page is entitled Summary of Camper 17 Evaluation Analyses. Section 4 on this page is 18 entitled Estimated Value of Synergies, and below 19 this there's 100 million pre tax, 150 million 20 pre tax and 200 million pre tax. Do you see 21 that? 22 A. Yes, I do. 23 Q. Do you recall any discussions about the 24 potential for Sunbeam to realize between 100 and 25 200 million in pre tax synergies at this board

Page 155 1 EUGENE YOO 2 unfathomable. It was really more the use here. 3 It's something that they've been through before 4 and they may or may not be successful again, but 5 it's something that they've done before. They 6 had a track record. 7 Q. Can you recall anything else from board of 8 directors meeting on February 27th on the issue 9 of synergies? 10 A. No, not synergies. 11 Q. Was there any discussion of the value of the 12 Coleman Company and the price that Sunbeam was 13 paying for the acquisition of the Coleman 14 Company? 15 A. No, I, as far as I can remember I wasn't present 16 for that part of the discussion. 17 Q. Did you participate at all in the discussion 18 that day at the board meeting? 19 A. No, I didn't. 20 Q. What was your role at that board meeting? 21 A. I was there simply to observe. 22 Q. Do you recall working with a public relations 23 firm in connection with announcing the 24 transactions that the board approved on February 25 27, 1998?	Page 157 1 EUGENE YOO 2 question upon the announcement of the 3 transaction? 4 A. No, I don't think I was ever part of any 5 discussion on this. 6 Q. Okay. Between the board meeting on February 27, 7 1998 and the announcement, were you involved in 8 any discussions or meetings concerning Sunbeam's 9 first quarter 1998 sales? 10 A. No, not that I can recall. 11 Q. I show you one more previously marked as CPH 12 143. Page 3 of 12. Paragraph 15. If you can 13 just read that to yourself. 14 A. (Witness reviewing.) 15 Q. Do you have any knowledge of why the response 16 changed from CPH Exhibit 142 to what's shown on 17 CPH Exhibit 143? 18 A. No, I don't know why it changed. 19 Q. Okay. Set those aside. Mr. Yoo, did you ever 20 speak to John Tyree in connection with your work 21 on the Sunbeam engagement? 22 A. Yes, I did. 23 Q. What did you discuss with Mr. Tyree? 24 A. John was taking over on the Sunbeam project once 25 they moved into the financing phase and I was

1 EUGENE YOO
2 handing off to him.
3 Q. What were you handing off to Mr. Tyree?
4 A. Mostly, I think the only involvement I had with 5 him was with regard to gathering company
6 information and industry information. They were 7 putting some of the standard descriptions into,
8 I guess, the offering document and he was 9 looking to me to help him fill it in.
10 Q. And the reason for that was because you were the 11 one who had been working with Sunbeam --
12 A. Right
13 Q. -- all along, gathering the information about
14 the company?
15 A. Right. So I had some of that information
16 readily available and I could give it to him
17 rather than having him look it up himself.
18 Q. Were you involved in drafting any portion of the 19 debenture offering memorandum?
20 A. No.
21 Q. And you understand what the debenture offering
22 memorandum was in this deal?
23 A. The convertible notes?
24 Q. Correct.
25 A. Yes.

Page 159

1 EUGENE YOO
2 Q. Other than Mr. Tyree do you know who was
3 involved in drafting that memo?
4 A. No. I wasn't involved with that.
5 Q. Okay. Did you ever speak to Mr. Tyree in 6 connection with any due diligence that may have
7 been performed on Sunbeam's accounting?
8 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
9 A. I never really spoke to him about the financials
10 as far as I can remember.
11 Q. Let me show you what's been previously marked as 12 CPH Exhibit 31. This is a memo from John Tyree
13 to the Sunbeam financing team dated March 7,
14 1998 referencing an accounting due diligence
15 conference call on March 12th; you did not 16 participate in that call; correct?
17 A. I don't believe I did.
18 Q. And you had no conversations with Mr. Tyree or 19 Shani Boone concerning the accounting due
20 diligence call?
21 A. Not that I can remember, no.
22 Q. You don't recall seeing any documents
23 summarizing what was discussed on that call or 24 the information they learned on that call?
25 A. No.

Page 160

1 EUGENE YOO
2 Q. You don't remember that ever being discussed at 3 Morgan Stanley in any meetings, the results of 4 that conference call?
5 A. No. My involvement with Sunbeam after the 6 announcement was limited and then once the 7 transaction closed it was really only focused on 8 the sale of the spa business coming out of 9 Coleman.
10 Q. Okay.
11 VIDEOGRAPHER: Can we take a break for one
12 second? The time is two thirty-seven, we're off
13 the record.
14 (Short break taken.)
15 VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the record.
16 This is tape number four, the time is two
17 forty-two.
18 MR. O'CONNOR: I'll ask the court reporter
19 to please mark the next exhibit.
20 (Deposition Exhibit 227 marked for
21 identification.)
22 Q. Mr. Yoo, take a few minutes to look at what's 23 been marked as CPH Exhibit 227. Do you
24 recognize this document, sir?
25 A. Yes, I do.

Page 161

1 EUGENE YOO
2 Q. What was the purpose of Skadden Arps sending you
3 this document?
4 A. I believe this was part of the due diligence
5 process as we were trying to, I don't know if we
6 were just -- this was post announcement or pre
7 announcement? We were trying to get to a
8 closure on the deal.
9 Q. Were you responsible for conducting legal due
10 diligence of Sunbeam?
11 A. I personally was not responsible for legal due
12 diligence, but one of my roles was helping to 13 make sure that the due diligence process moved
14 forward smoothly.
15 Q. Do you know who was responsible for legal due
16 diligence?
17 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
18 A. I believe it was Skadden. I don't remember who 19 specifically at Skadden.
20 Q. Do you know why Skadden would be sending this 21 document to you if they were responsible for 22 conducting legal due diligence?
23 A. In this case I think they were asking for any 24 documents that we may have collected already in 25 our work so they didn't have to go gather it

Page 162 1 EUGENE YOO 2 again. 3 Q. Are they asking you to request documents from 4 Sunbeam for the due diligence review? 5 MS. BROWN: Object to form. And 6 foundation. 7 A. In this case, no, I don't believe so. As far as 8 I can remember we were just assisting them, but 9 they were the ones ultimately responsible for 10 the due diligence, for the legal due diligence. 11 Q. Okay. I guess I'm confused by the first 12 sentence of her memo. Which states, "the 13 following items should be included as part of 14 your due diligence request for Project Laser." 15 Do you have any understanding of what that 16 means? 17 A. Oh, I do, actually. We were compiling a master 18 list for the due diligence and we were getting 19 lists from the legal team, from, I believe it 20 was Arthur Andersen and our own, we had included 21 our own prior list that we had sent to Sunbeam 22 so that we could, rather than sending four or 23 five different lists from different sources we 24 were going to send them one list for the due 25 diligence.	Page 164 1 EUGENE YOO 2 diligence, legal due diligence list? 3 A. I believe that was the case, if I remember 4 correctly. 5 Q. What else was included in the list? 6 A. I think there was a section that came from 7 Arthur Andersen, I don't recall whether or not 8 there was a section that came from Coopers. We 9 had a -- I believe we had a list that Morgan 10 Stanley worked with Sunbeam to compile for their 11 portion of the due diligence. 12 Q. What materials did you obtain from Arthur 13 Andersen? 14 A. We -- I'm not sure what you mean by "materials." 15 Q. When you said you believe they provided a 16 section? 17 A. Well, they provided a list for us to give to the 18 other side. 19 Q. Okay. My question is what was that list? 20 A. I don't know now. 21 Q. Is it one document? 22 A. I think it was just a few pages they sent us of 23 items that they were looking for from the other 24 side. 25 Q. Looking for from who?
Page 163 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Okay. Who were you sending the list to, the 3 master list? 4 A. Let's see, I think this was going to, I think 5 this was going to Coleman or somebody from the 6 Coleman side. 7 Q. Okay. And what exactly were you compiling for 8 this master list, what would this master list 9 include? 10 A. I'm not sure what you mean. 11 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 12 Q. Well, maybe we're miscommunicating. You 13 referred to a master list, what is the master 14 list? 15 A. A list of all of the items that we would be 16 requesting as part of the due diligence for the 17 MNA transaction. And rather than sending a list 18 for the legal due diligence and a list for the 19 accounting due diligence and a list for any 20 other due diligence, financing, whatever, we 21 were going to send them one list that they could 22 use to compile their information. We were 23 trying to make the process as easy for the other 24 side as possible. 25 Q. Okay. And part of this master list was this due	Page 165 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. From the Coleman side. 3 Q. Seeking information from Coleman? 4 A. Right. 5 Q. Okay. I'm handing you what's been previously 6 marked as CPH Exhibit 28. Do you recognize this 7 document? 8 A. I think I do. I think I've seen this. 9 Q. Where do you recall seeing this document? 10 A. I don't remember the specific instance when I 11 had seen this, but I think this was part of our 12 update process with Sunbeam, just making sure 13 that we were current on company events. 14 Q. And why was that important to you? 15 MS. BROWN: Object. Characterization. 16 A. Again, I don't remember the specific impetus for 17 this meeting, but generally, especially if we're 18 going to go out and talk to other companies 19 about Sunbeam, which I think this is when it was 20 happening. I don't remember. 21 Q. There's a reference there in paragraph 1 to 22 "recent developments review." And in the third 23 line down is "high dependence of recent sales 24 growth on grilles." Do you recall why that was 25 an issue to explore?

Page 166 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. The only thing I can think of was that the sales 3 mix had changed a little bit and we were just 4 curious as to why. 5 Q. Do you recall what response you received from 6 Sunbeam on this issue? 7 A. I don't remember the response. 8 Q. Do you know who was responsible for obtaining 9 the information that is listed in this agenda? 10 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 11 A. I'm not sure if there was anyone responsible, or 12 any single person responsible for getting this 13 information. I think this was just a guide for 14 us to hold a discussion with them. 15 Q. Do you know who created this document? 16 A. No, I don't know. 17 Q. Do you recall any discussions with anyone at 18 Morgan Stanley about the contents of this 19 document? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Paragraph 5, "financial forecast review" lists 22 five items -- 23 A. Uh-huh. 24 Q. -- for inquiry. Do you remember obtaining any 25 information on those issues?	Page 168 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I don't know. I don't know if any of this 3 information was presented to them. 4 Q. Were you concerned about ensuring the accuracy 5 of the presentation books that were being 6 prepared by Morgan Stanley? 7 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 8 A. What do you mean by "concern"? 9 Q. Was one reason why you were performing this due 10 diligence -- withdrawn. 11 Was it important to you that the 12 information contained in presentation 13 statements, or presentation materials provided 14 to third parties was accurate? 15 A. Generally speaking, I mean, that was, I guess, 16 part of my job was to make sure that to the best 17 of our knowledge what we were presenting was 18 accurate. 19 Q. And one way to do that is to conduct due 20 diligence of the company; correct? 21 A. That's correct. 22 Q. And does this agenda reflect the issues that 23 Morgan Stanley needed to explore in order to 24 ensure that the information it had about the 25 company that it was providing to third parties
Page 167 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I think we did get most of this at some point. 3 I don't know if it was directly as a result of 4 this. Other than maybe the sensitivity 5 analysis, I don't seem to remember anything 6 about that. 7 Q. Why is this information important to Morgan 8 Stanley? 9 A. In this case, or? 10 Q. Correct. 11 A. I'm not sure when it was. You know, I think it 12 was really just part of our making sure that our 13 financial models were accurate, that we were 14 representing the company and our analyses in the 15 right way. 16 Q. And why is that important? 17 MS. BROWN: Objection. 18 A. We need to make sure we're presenting accurate 19 data. 20 Q. Who were you presenting the accurate data to? 21 MS. BROWN: Objection to form. 22 A. I'm not sure who it was in this case. 23 Q. Is this the type of information that was being 24 provided to potential acquisition targets? 25 MS. BROWN: Object to form.	Page 169 1 EUGENE YOO 2 was accurate? 3 MS. BROWN: Object to form. Can I hear 4 that back, actually. 5 (Prior testimony read back.) 6 "And does this agenda reflect the 7 issues that Morgan Stanley needed 8 to explore in order to ensure that 9 the information it had about the 10 company that it was providing to 11 third parties was accurate?" 12 A. Again, I don't remember the specific instance 13 when we were using this, but this seems like 14 something we would use more, not to verify 15 accuracy, but more just to stay updated on the 16 company. It wasn't really -- this didn't seem 17 to be a matter of going back and questioning 18 anything that we thought was wrong. This is 19 just trying to make sure that we were as current 20 on the company as possible. 21 Q. If in attempting to remain current on the 22 company you discovered information that was 23 inconsistent with what you were communicating to 24 third parties, what would you do? 25 MS. BROWN: Object to form. Improper

Page 170 1 EUGENE YOO 2 hypothetical. 3 A. I don't know. I haven't been in that situation. 4 I haven't had to deal with that yet. 5 Q. In this transaction you never came across any 6 information about Sunbeam's business or 7 financial condition that was inconsistent with 8 what was being presented to third parties by 9 Morgan Stanley? 10 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 11 A. As far as I knew there were no inconsistencies 12 between what we were presenting and information 13 that we were getting from Sunbeam. 14 Q. And had you come across that information what 15 would you have done? 16 MS. BROWN: Objection. Asked and answered. 17 Improper hypothetical. 18 A. Again, I don't know. I haven't been in that 19 situation before, so I don't know. 20 Q. You may have answered this question as well; you 21 don't recall who was responsible for obtaining 22 this information from Sunbeam? 23 A. I don't think it was any single person. Again, 24 I don't think this was really a list of items to 25 gather, it was really more just talking points	Page 172 1 EUGENE YOO 2 gets completed as a matter of course. If we 3 don't complete that we don't have the 4 information we need to do our work and we're not 5 able to provide our service to our clients. 6 Q. Who is responsible for conducting the follow-up 7 due diligence? 8 A. I'm not sure what you mean by follow-up. 9 Q. Well, you testified earlier that part of your 10 due diligence function was to keep up with 11 current events of the company, their latest 12 filings, earnings and announcements. Who was 13 responsible for ensuring that all of that was 14 reviewed? 15 A. It was really the whole deal team, really. 16 Q. Who was responsible at Morgan Stanley for 17 conducting the accounting due diligence? 18 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 19 A. The accounting due diligence -- well, to a 20 certain extent we would do due diligence on the 21 financials, but typically on an MNA transaction 22 we didn't do any detailed accounting due 23 diligence, we were relying on the auditors to do 24 that for us and provide us comfort. 25 Q. Were you involved in that process?
Page 171 1 EUGENE YOO 2 for a meeting or a discussion with them. 3 Q. Who was responsible for ensuring that all the 4 appropriate due diligence was completed by 5 Morgan Stanley? 6 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 7 A. On the MNA side? Or -- 8 Q. We can start there. 9 A. Okay. For this transaction or, I guess, MNA in 10 general, I don't think there's any person 11 assigned to oversee the completion of due 12 diligence. It's part of our process just, you 13 know, in order to be able to complete all of our 14 work, to have all of the information that we 15 need it's sort of fundamental that we have all 16 of the due diligence completed, and also we have 17 all the information we need. 18 Q. If no one is responsible how does your 19 department know that all of the due diligence 20 has been conducted? 21 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 22 Mischaracterization. 23 A. Like I said, in order for us to be able to 24 complete our work and to be able to do our 25 assignment properly that due diligence sort of	Page 173 1 EUGENE YOO 2 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 3 A. In which process? 4 Q. In the due diligence process in reviewing the 5 financial information and reviewing the 6 auditor's comfort that it was providing to 7 Morgan Stanley? 8 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 9 A. Well, we didn't review the auditors, but we were 10 reviewing financials that they had signed off 11 on. 12 Q. I guess my question is did you review those 13 financials? 14 A. Yes, we did. 15 Q. You personally? 16 A. I looked at some of them. 17 Q. Okay. And those were publicly available 18 documents? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Any other documents that weren't publicly 21 available? 22 MS. BROWN: Asked and answered. 23 A. In terms of financials? 24 Q. Correct. 25 A. There were the growth plans and budget that they

Page 179 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Is that information that would have been 3 relevant to the tasks you were performing in 4 conducting due diligence? 5 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 6 A. If we had that information it probably would 7 have been relevant. 8 Q. If someone at Morgan Stanley had that 9 information would you expect that person to 10 advise you about a 50 percent decrease in net 11 sales over that period of time? 12 MS. BROWN: Object to form. Hypothetical. 13 A. I don't know what they would do. I can't 14 speculate what they would do with that. 15 Q. But is that something you would have liked to 16 have known? 17 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 18 A. As an adviser on the transaction, you mean? 19 Q. Yes. 20 A. Yeah, it would have been good to know if we had 21 known that at the time. 22 Q. What would you have done with that information? 23 MS. BROWN: Object to form. Hypothetical. 24 A. Again, I don't know. I haven't really been in 25 that situation.	Page 181 1 EUGENE YOO 2 expectations were of Sunbeam with respect to 3 first quarter of 1998 sales? 4 A. No, I don't. 5 Q. Does the range of 285 to 295 million refresh 6 your recollection? 7 A. It might be, I don't know for sure. 8 Q. You don't recall anyone at Morgan Stanley 9 discussing the contents of this comfort letter 10 or the subject of Sunbeam's sales shortfall 11 prior to the closing of the Coleman transaction? 12 MS. BROWN: Object to form and foundation. 13 A. I don't recall anything about that letter. 14 Q. The contents of the letter? 15 A. I think there was a public announcement by 16 Sunbeam to that extent or something along those 17 lines around that time. But again, at that 18 point my involvement with Sunbeam was pretty 19 limited. 20 Q. You were not involved in preparing or reviewing 21 a press release in March of 1998? 22 A. No, I didn't have anything to do with that. 23 Q. Let me show you what's previously been marked as 24 CPH Exhibit 14. 25 A. All right.

Page 182 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Do you recall reading this press release at 3 anytime? 4 A. I do recall reading this maybe the day or the 5 day after that it came out. 6 Q. And again, you were not involved in any 7 discussions concerning the issuance of this 8 press release? 9 A. No. 10 Q. You were not involved in any conferences on 11 March 18th, the day before the press release 12 concerning Sunbeam's sales shortfall? 13 A. Not that I remember. 14 Q. What was your reaction to reading this press 15 release? 16 A. Surprise. That's probably about it, just very 17 surprised. 18 Q. Why were you surprised? 19 A. From what I remember up until that point I 20 thought things were going very well. I thought 21 they were on track for a good first quarter. 22 Q. Reading the first paragraph of that press 23 release, what particular language in the press 24 release surprised you? 25 A. It says its possible that its net sales for the	Page 184 1 EUGENE YOO 2 talking about how we were surprised, because we 3 were both very involved in the numbers in the 4 model beforehand. 5 Q. Do you recall what specifically Mr. Chang said? 6 A. I don't remember specifically what he said. 7 Q. Did you feel misled when you read this press 8 release? 9 A. I think at this point I wasn't quite sure what 10 was happening, so I didn't know what to think. 11 Q. Did you talk to anybody at Sunbeam about this 12 press release? 13 A. No. I hadn't really had any contact with 14 anybody from Sunbeam since the board meeting. 15 Q. Other than Mr. Chang did you talk to anyone 16 about the press release; Mr. Fuchs, Mr. Stynes, 17 Mr. Kitts? 18 A. No, not Mr. Kitts. Not Mr. Stynes. I don't 19 believe I talked to Alex about it. 20 Q. Did you tell anyone at Morgan Stanley that the 21 information contained in the press release was 22 inconsistent with what you were being told by 23 Sunbeam? 24 A. I never really -- I'm not sure what you mean. 25 Well.
Page 183 1 EUGENE YOO 2 first quarter of 1998 may be lower than the 3 range of analyst estimates. 4 Q. That came as a surprise to you? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. With respect to the, the language, "the 7 shortfall from analysts estimates, if any, would 8 be due to changes in inventory management in 9 order patterns at certain of the companies major 10 retail customers." Did that statement surprise 11 you? 12 A. Actually, I didn't really understand that 13 statement as much as part of the operations of 14 the company that we weren't really involved in. 15 That was the area where we started to rely more 16 on the management team and team at Coopers to 17 help us understand. But we weren't really 18 involved at that level. 19 Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone at 20 Morgan Stanley about this press release? 21 A. I think the only person I talked to about it was 22 Tyrone Chang. 23 Q. What did you and Mr. Chang discuss? 24 A. Well, he was the one that brought it to my 25 attention, I believe. And we were both just	Page 185 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Well, you said you were surprised to learn of 3 this press release. 4 A. Right. 5 Q. Did you convey that surprise to anyone besides 6 Mr. Chang? 7 A. Not that I can remember, no. 8 Q. And you didn't do anything to follow up on the 9 information contained in the press release? 10 A. No, I didn't. 11 Q. Now, CPH Exhibit 14 does not contain the 12 information on the status of Sunbeam's sales in 13 January and February of 1998 as reflected in the 14 comfort letter; is that correct? 15 A. Can you read that back. 16 (Prior testimony read back.) 17 "Now, CPH Exhibit 14 does not 18 contain the information on the 19 status of Sunbeam's sales in 20 January and February of 1998 as 21 reflected in the comfort letter; 22 is that correct?" 23 A. I believe that's correct. 24 Q. There's no discussion in CPH 14 about the 50 25 percent decline in sales in the first two months

Page 190 1 EUGENE YOO 2 the closing. 3 Q. What did you do to ensure that others were 4 looking at Sunbeam's first quarter sales after 5 your involvement with the transaction tailed 6 off? 7 A. I'm not sure if there was anything I did 8 specifically to point people towards first 9 quarter sales. 10 Q. Who assumed your responsibilities on the matter 11 after the board meeting? 12 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 13 A. There was the financing team which basically 14 took over from the point the transaction was 15 approved by the board. And then I think the 16 legal team took over in terms of getting the 17 deal closed. 18 Q. Who were the members of the finance team? 19 A. I don't know the whole team. I only really 20 interacted with John Tyree. 21 Q. Ruth Porat? 22 A. I do believe she was involved at some point, I 23 don't know how much. 24 Q. What were the other members of the MNA team 25 doing after the board meeting on February 27th?	Page 192 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. Do you recall the law firm of the name Davis 3 Polk? 4 A. I know who they are, yes. 5 Q. Do you recall they were representing Morgan 6 Stanley in connection with the Sunbeam 7 engagement? 8 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 9 A. I don't recall their involvement. 10 Q. Skadden represented Sunbeam; right? 11 A. Yes, I think that's the case. 12 Q. Other than members of the finance team and the 13 legal team, was there anyone else at Morgan 14 Stanley who was responsible for monitoring 15 Sunbeam's business and financial condition after 16 the board approved the transaction on February 17 27th? 18 MS. BROWN: Object to the form and 19 characterization with regard to the legal team 20 and Morgan Stanley. 21 A. I mean, anybody from the Morgan Stanley MNA 22 team? Or everybody from Morgan Stanley in 23 general, or? 24 Q. Well, you testified that members of the finance 25 team and the legal team continued to perform due

1 EUGENE YOO
2 released.
3 Q. What was your reaction to Sunbeam's April 3rd
4 press release?
5 A. Actually, at this point on the announcement of 6 the financials, the sales shortfall, I actually
7 really didn't think much of it at that point. I
8 guess based on the prior press release I knew
9 that there was a possibility that they were 10 going to disappoint. So it didn't surprise me
11 too much.
12 Q. It didn't surprise you that they were now
13 announcing that first quarter sales were 14 expected to be below 1997 levels based on what
15 you read in the March 19th press release?
16 A. From my perspective I wasn't really paying 17 attention to that portion of the press release.
18 I just knew that the sales were disappointing,
19 that's all I remember from reading the press
20 release at that time. I was more focused on 21 just Rich Goudis leaving, that was the part that 22 I was more focused on.
23 Q. Why did you have an interest in his departure?
24 A. Well, he was the person that I had the most 25 contact with from Sunbeam and I had gotten along

Page 195

1 EUGENE YOO
2 quite well with him. I thought he was a good
3 guy.
4 Q. You said Rich Goudis?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. Where in this press release does it discuss
7 Goudis's departure?
8 A. I think it was -- maybe it wasn't in this one.
9 Don had left. Maybe it wasn't in this one.
10 Q. Were you surprised that Mr. Oosi was terminated?
11 A. I guess at the time I don't think I was that 12 surprised. It didn't seem like he had a great
13 relationship with Al. I didn't really know him
14 that well, but, and they seemed to only bring 15 him out in certain situations. He wasn't really
16 present at all of the meetings.
17 Q. Did you believe that their explanation for the 18 shortfall was accurate?
19 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
20 A. You know, again, that's kind of getting to a
21 level of business that we weren't all that 22 involved with. Their inventory management it
23 seems like.
24 Q. Did you discuss this press release with anyone
25 at Morgan Stanley after it was released?

Page 196

1 EUGENE YOO
2 A. Again, I think the only person I really spoke
3 about it with was Tyrone Chang, along the same
4 lines as the prior ones. And I think he was the 5 one that brought it to my attention.
6 Q. What did the two of you discuss?
7 A. I don't really recall what we said at that 8 point. I think for us Sunbeam was pretty far in 9 the rearview mirror at that point.
10 Q. Do you recall hearing that the March, the 11 contents of the March 19, 1998 press release
12 were included in the debenture offering memo?
13 A. I didn't know that they were.
14 Q. Did you hear that Arthur Andersen objected to 15 the inclusion of the press release language into 16 the offering memo?
17 A. I didn't know anything about that.
18 Q. No one ever told you about a confrontation
19 between Mr. Bornstein of Anderson and Mr. Tyree
20 on March 18th or 19th --
21 A. No.
22 Q. -- regarding the contents of the press release
23 or the offering memo?
24 A. No, I didn't know anything about that.
25 Q. Okay. Do you know anything about that now?

Page 197

1 EUGENE YOO
2 A. (Witness shakes head in the negative.) No, this
3 is the first time I'm hearing about it.
4 Q. Have you ever heard Mr. Tyree use profanity
5 around the office?
6 A. Not really. I didn't really work with him that
7 much. I probably talked to him three or four 8 times total in my four years there. I think he 9 was a former, he came out of the Navy or the 10 Army.
11 Q. One of the services?
12 A. Yeah. That's all I really knew about him. I
13 don't think combined I spent more than 30
14 minutes with him in four years.
15 Q. You testified earlier you did not participate on 16 the roadshow; is that correct?
17 A. That's correct.
18 Q. Do you recall hearing that Mr. Kirsch or 19 Mr. Dunlap were downplaying the significance of 20 the March 19th press release during the 21 roadshow?
22 A. I don't think I heard anything about that.
23 Q. Did you have any communications with Andrew 24 Conway at Morgan Stanley on the issue of 25 synergies?

Page 198 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I never talked to Andrew about synergies. 3 Actually, I never even spoke to Andrew. 4 Q. You know who he is? 5 A. I believe he's the equity research analyst. 6 Q. Do you know if Mr. Chang ever spoke to 7 Mr. Conway? 8 A. I don't know. 9 Q. Did you have any involvement preparing materials 10 for the leverage finance commitment committee at 11 Morgan Stanley; materials in connection with the 12 debenture offering or the financing of the 13 acquisition of Coleman? 14 MS. BROWN: Objection. Compound. 15 A. Not that I know of. 16 Q. On either of those issues? 17 A. No. 18 Q. And let me show you what has previously been 19 marked as CPH Exhibit 129. This is a fairly 20 long document. I don't have many questions 21 about it. But do you see that your name is 22 listed, it's spelled incorrectly, under Mar? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And this is a March 10, 1998 equity commitment, 25 a memo to the equity commitment committee?	Page 200 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Restructuring? 3 A. Okay. 4 Q. The second sentence, "the restructuring portion 5 of the plan has been substantially completed 6 with only the final, quote, refinement, unquote, 7 stage remaining." Do you see that? 8 A. Maybe I have the wrong page number. 9 Q. I'm sorry. Page 4? 10 A. Page 4. 11 Q. Right. Restructuring? 12 A. Second sentence, I'm sorry. Right. 13 Q. Do you see that? Do you know what that refers 14 to? The final refinement stage. 15 MS. BROWN: Object. Speculation. 16 A. I can't say for certain. 17 Q. You didn't draft this paragraph, to your 18 knowledge? 19 A. No, not this page, not this paragraph. 20 Q. If you turn to page 11 of the memo, which is 21 Morgan Stanley 523. 22 A. Okay. 23 Q. Under "equity valuation," third bullet point, 24 "the company's current trading levels are 25 warranted given the level of expected synergies,

Page 202 1 EUGENE YOO 2 the 225 to 275 million pre tax range." Do you 3 have any knowledge of where those numbers came 4 from? 5 A. No, I don't. 6 Q. Showing you what's previously been marked as CPH 7 Exhibit 100. It's another lengthy document 8 entitled The Selling Memorandum, dated March 12, 9 1998. Have you seen this document before? 10 A. I don't think I've seen this before. It doesn't 11 look familiar. 12 Q. You don't recall preparing any of the pages that 13 are contained in this document? 14 A. Let me see. I may have prepared some of these 15 pages at some point, but not specifically for 16 this document. 17 Q. Okay. 18 A. This looks like a collection of other pages. 19 Q. Do you know what the purpose of -- strike that. 20 Do you know if the selling memorandum was 21 used in connection with the debenture offering? 22 A. I have no idea. 23 Q. Okay. If you can turn to page 22 of the memo 24 which is Morgan Stanley 62882. 25 A. Okay.	Page 204 1 EUGENE YOO 2 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation. 3 A. I don't know what they discussed at the meeting, 4 no. 5 Q. No one ever talked to you about what was 6 discussed at that meeting? 7 A. No. As far as I remember I've never heard 8 anything about it. 9 Q. I'm handing you what's previously been marked 10 CPH Exhibit 135. In connection with your work 11 on potential divestiture of certain aspects of 12 Coleman or the new Sunbeam, did you attend the 13 analyst meeting on May 11, 1998? 14 A. I don't think I did. 15 Q. Have you seen this document before? 16 A. No, I haven't. 17 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley prepared any of 18 the slides that are contained in this document? 19 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation. 20 A. I don't think we helped them with this. I 21 couldn't tell you. 22 Q. If you could turn to page, Morgan Stanley 63748, 23 please. 24 A. Okay. 25 Q. This indicates an original cost savings and
Page 203 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Q. The paragraph "ability to attain synergies." 3 The last sentence reads "in addition, while 4 Andrew Conway has modeled 150 million in 5 synergies in 1998 he feels that there could be 6 an upside to this figure." Do you recall any 7 conversations with anyone at Morgan Stanley 8 concerning this modeling by Andrew Conway? 9 A. No, I didn't know anything about this. 10 Q. And again you never had any conversations with 11 him about that? 12 A. I never talked to Andrew, no. 13 Q. Showing you what's previously been marked as CPH 14 Exhibit 76. Have you ever seen this document? 15 A. No, I don't think so. 16 Q. The first page is a memorandum to the leverage 17 finance commitment committee from RB Smith or 18 Braum Smith? 19 A. Right. 20 Q. It references a meeting of that committee on 21 March 20th. Did you attend that meeting? 22 A. No, I didn't. 23 Q. Do you know if during that meeting the 24 commitment committee discussed Sunbeam's sales 25 shortfall?	Page 205 1 EUGENE YOO 2 synergies of 150 million dollars and it purports 3 to be an actual cost savings of synergies of 291 4 million. Do you have any knowledge of this page 5 or the, or the 291 million dollar figure that 6 appears on that page? 7 A. No. I don't know either one. 8 Q. Please turn to page 63751. It's entitled 9 Sources of Growth. "Potential 1999 impact of 10 265 million." Do you have any knowledge of the 11 basis for that synergy estimate? 12 A. No, I don't know. 13 MS. BROWN: Object to the characterization. 14 Q. Would you please turn to Morgan Stanley 63755 15 entitled Savings Summary. There's a list of 16 savings on this page with total savings of 17 acquired companies 201 million, Sunbeam sourcing 18 strategy of 52 million with a grand total 19 savings of 253 million. Do you have any 20 knowledge of the basis for that calculation? 21 A. No, I'm not sure where they came up with these 22 numbers. 23 Q. You don't know if Morgan Stanley was involved in 24 providing any of that type of data to Sunbeam? 25 MS. BROWN: Objection. Asked and answered.

1 EUGENE YOO
 2 A. I don't know, I don't know if Morgan Stanley was 3 involved at all or not.
 4 Q. Set that aside. Mr. Yoo, were you involved in
 5 conducting any due diligence of the Coleman
 6 Company prior to the close of the transaction?
 7 A. I had some involvement with that, yes.
 8 Q. And what was your role?
 9 A. At that point it was more of a coordination
 10 role, I think, between Skadden and Arthur
 11 Andersen and Coopers. There were teams that 12 were going through the various corporate
 13 documents or visiting various sites around the 14 country and our job at that point was to make
 15 sure that people were going to the right places
 16 and all the right information was getting 17 gathered.
 18 Q. Did you actually attend any of these site
 19 visits?
 20 A. I did not personally, no.
 21 Q. Did you review any documents provided by Coleman
 22 as part of the due diligence process?
 23 A. I don't recall what documents I went through.
 24 Q. But you did in fact go through some documents,
 25 or you just can't recall if you looked at any

Page 207

1 EUGENE YOO
 2 documents?
 3 A. I know we went through some of the financials
 4 and some of the projections, but we had already
 5 gone through some of that before. I don't
 6 recall if there was anything else that we went
 7 through or I went through personally.
 8 Q. Did you ever request any information from 9 Coleman that you didn't receive?
 10 A. Not that I can remember.
 11 Q. Did you ever form an opinion on the value of the 12 Coleman Company?
 13 MS. BROWN: Object to the form.
 14 A. Did I personally --
 15 Q. Correct.
 16 A. -- come up with an opinion? I probably came up
 17 with some, some opinion of what it was worth. I
 18 don't recall what it was.
 19 Q. Do you have any recollection, ballpark range?
 20 A. No. I don't remember anything about it being 21 significantly different from the transaction.
 22 Q. You never formed an opinion that Sunbeam was 23 overpaying for the Coleman Company?
 24 A. (No response.)
 25 Q. I sorry, I didn't hear your answer.

Page 208

1 EUGENE YOO
 2 MS. BROWN: He didn't yet.
 3 A. I didn't answer. No, I don't think I ever
 4 really had that opinion.
 5 Q. Did anyone express that opinion to you at 6 anytime?
 7 A. Not, not during the transaction, no.
 8 Q. After the transaction closed?
 9 A. I think I remember hearing some people talking
 10 about the value that was ultimately paid, or I
 11 guess the price, the dollar price of the stock
 12 that was announced.
 13 Q. What do you recall hearing?
 14 A. I don't remember exactly what they said, but it
 15 was something along the lines of, it was a, it
 16 was a good price for Pearlman.
 17 Q. What did you take that to mean?
 18 A. I think at the time that I had heard it I was 19 thinking that the, you know, one could argue
 20 that the price was maybe high based on 21 traditional valuation techniques, but we thought
 22 that it was still a good deal for Sunbeam, you
 23 know.
 24 Q. But in your work prior to the close of the 25 transaction in reviewing information about

Page 209

1 EUGENE YOO
 2 Coleman's business and Sunbeam's business, you
 3 never reached that conclusion; right?
 4 A. Which?
 5 Q. The conclusion that -- I'll withdraw it.
 6 During the time that you were reviewing
 7 Coleman's financial and business information and
 8 Sunbeam's business and financial information
 9 prior to the closing of the transaction, you
 10 never formed the conclusion that Sunbeam was 11 overpaying for Coleman; correct?
 12 A. No, I never really thought that.
 13 Q. Did you hear what the basis was for these people
 14 that were saying that, saying that Pearlman,
 15 Mr. Pearlman had received whatever it was that 16 they were saying?
 17 MS. BROWN: Object to form.
 18 Q. It was a bad question. Other than hearing that 19 some people were saying that Mr. Pearlman --
 20 I'll withdraw that.
 21 Did the people that spoke to you about the 22 Coleman purchase price, did they provide any 23 basis for the statements that they were making
 24 about what Sunbeam paid for Coleman?
 25 A. I don't really remember the conversation. If I

Page 210 1 EUGENE YOO 2 remember correctly it was a comment that really 3 wasn't directed towards me. I just happened to 4 overhear it. 5 Q. Do you recall who made the statements? 6 A. I don't know. Actually, I don't think it was 7 somebody that I knew. 8 Q. Where did you overhear this information? 9 A. I think it was just in passing in the hallway or 10 somewhere. 11 Q. This was at Morgan Stanley's offices? 12 A. No. Where was it? I believe it was either at 13 the restaurant or the gym across the street, 14 somewhere over there. 15 Q. Can you recall when you heard these comments? 16 A. No. Again, it was sometime after the 17 announcement, and I think it was, I don't recall 18 if it was before or after the closing. 19 Q. But it was sometime in 1998? 20 A. It was somewhere around that time, yeah. 21 Q. Who was responsible for conducting the due 22 diligence of Coleman? 23 MS. BROWN: Objection. Asked and answered. 24 A. Again, there's no real single person that's 25 assigned that particular task, it's just sort of	Page 212 1 EUGENE YOO 2 exhibit, but if you flip through CPH Exhibit 29, 3 do you recall receiving or seeing any of those 4 materials, either in a larger document or 5 separately? 6 A. No. I haven't seen this. No, I don't think 7 I've seen any of these pages. 8 Q. At any point, sir, did anyone ever suggest that 9 the transaction, the, Sunbeam's acquisition of 10 the Coleman Company be delayed until the end of 11 the first quarter of 1998 at Sunbeam? 12 A. That the transaction be delayed? 13 Q. Right. The close of the transaction be delayed 14 into and pushed back into April until after the 15 close of the first quarter of 1998? 16 MS. BROWN: Objection. Foundation. 17 A. As far as I know I wasn't aware of any 18 discussions about timing of the closing of the 19 transaction. 20 Q. Okay. Were you aware or did you -- strike that. 21 Were you aware that Sunbeam extended the 22 first quarter of 1998 until after the close of 23 the transaction in order to capture additional 24 sales in the remaining days of the calendar 25 year, the calendar of March of 1998?

Page 214 1 EUGENE YOO 2 difficult and demanding situations. Two 3 particular examples are Odyssey and Sunbeam 4 where I helped produce high quality work within 5 extremely short time periods and under less than 6 optimal conditions." Do you see that sentence? 7 MS. BROWN: Two sentences. 8 Q. Two sentences thank you. What did you mean by 9 "less than optimal conditions"? 10 A. I think with regard to the Sunbeam transaction 11 what I was referring to was actually two things, 12 one, the fact that we were going down two 13 parallel paths with Sunbeam for quite some time. 14 And the fact that once we actually got to a 15 tangible transaction it was actually three 16 transactions in one, we sort of tripled the 17 work. 18 Q. Other than that aspect of the transaction, I'm 19 sorry, of the engagement, was there anything 20 else about the Sunbeam engagement that made it 21 difficult or demanding? 22 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 23 A. For me personally I think what was difficult 24 about it was that it was my first real live MNA 25 transaction and so it was a learning experience	Page 216 1 EUGENE YOO 2 second quarter." First, I believe that you were 3 mistaken, the transaction closed before the end 4 of the first quarter. But that's -- 5 A. Right. I may have -- I think I misspoke on 6 that. 7 Q. Okay. My question actually is what about the 8 volatile personalities of Mr. Dunlap and 9 Mr. Pearlman complicated the deal? 10 A. Well, I think it was just being able to perform 11 on a normal professional level with two sort of 12 larger than life people, and I don't know if 13 you've ever met Al Dunlap, and I think I only 14 met Ron Pearlman once. But they were sort of 15 both very strong and very dominating 16 personalities. And with one -- when you're 17 dealing with only one, that's fine. But when 18 you have two and two that are on opposite sides 19 and going in opposite directions it's hard to be 20 the person in the middle sometimes. And that's 21 kind of what I was referring to there. I think 22 at one point they were sort of slinging insults 23 at each other through us. 24 Q. Was there any aspect of Mr. Dunlap's personality 25 which presented problems with Morgan Stanley
Page 215 1 EUGENE YOO 2 and the fact that it was somewhat higher profile 3 than most just made it more important for me to 4 not screw up in any way. And so I just felt a 5 little bit more pressure to perform on that one. 6 Q. Did Mr. Fuchs provide you with adequate guidance 7 in the Sunbeam engagement? 8 A. I believe he did. He was with me pretty much 9 side by side on everything. 10 Q. You can set that aside. And take a look at 11 what's been marked as CPH Exhibit 229, which is 12 your self-evaluation for the 1998 firm wide 13 performance evaluation. 14 A. Okay. 15 Q. And in the first paragraph under section 2, 16 let's see, I believe it's the second full 17 sentence, "as we carried on concurrent 18 negotiations with the sellers, numerous issues 19 and alternatives arose which rippled through 20 each aspect of the deal. Complicating matters 21 were the complex ownership structure of Coleman, 22 the volatile personalities involved, Al Dunlap, 23 Ron Pearlman, and the extremely tight deadline, 24 we had to announce before 1Q earnings 25 announcement, had to close before the end of	Page 217 1 EUGENE YOO 2 with respect to closing the deal? 3 MS. BROWN: Object to form. 4 A. I'm not sure what you mean. 5 Q. Was Morgan Stanley under any pressure from 6 Mr. Dunlap to make a deal happen in the first 7 quarter of 1998? 8 MS. BROWN: Form and foundation. 9 Objection. 10 A. As far as I knew there was no direct order from 11 Al or anything like that to get something done. 12 Just me personally I got the sense that he was 13 getting a little impatient, but I think that was 14 just sort of his personality. 15 Q. What gave you that impression? 16 A. Well, he, I don't know he, but Bob and Jim would 17 sort of step up their efforts a little bit to 18 make sure that we were staying on top of 19 everything with the deal and make sure that 20 nothing was falling behind. They just wanted to 21 make sure there was nothing we were doing that 22 was holding up any potential transaction. 23 Q. And when did you first start to feel that 24 stepping up by Mr. Kitts and Mr. Stynes? 25 A. Mr. Stynes. It was probably towards the end of

Page 218 1 EUGENE YOO 2 the year. No, the end of 2000. I'm sorry, the 3 end of 1997. 4 Q. Okay. And when you refer to the "extremely 5 tight deadline, paren, we had to announce before 6 1Q '98 earnings announcement;" what does that 7 mean? And I'm sorry. "And had to close before 8 end of second quarter." Actually, first 9 quarter. 10 A. Yeah. 11 MS. BROWN: Close paren. 12 Q. Close paren. 13 A. I don't recall what I was referring to with the 14 second half of that with the closing. As far as 15 the first quarter announcement -- I think this 16 was, again, I can't be entirely sure about it, I 17 think this was a case where along with the 18 earnings announcement Al Dunlap wanted to be 19 able to announce something along with that that 20 was above and beyond the typical earnings 21 announcement. He wanted to say -- he wanted to 22 show he was really making progress and he wanted 23 to do something to show that it's not just a 24 first quarter but, you know, we're making 25 progress, we're actually doing something here at	Page 220 1 EUGENE YOO 2 A. I don't know the timing. 3 Q. You don't know whether he wanted an announcement 4 of the transactions and other announcements 5 about its first quarter 1998 prospects to happen 6 at the same time before the close of the 7 quarter? 8 MS. BROWN: Objection. Form and 9 foundation. 10 Q. I guess I'm just confused as to your reference 11 to the first quarter '98 announcement. 12 A. Yeah, I'm not sure about the timing. It doesn't 13 seem, maybe I wrote this incorrectly, it doesn't 14 seem to work. 15 Q. The sentence following "a great deal of negative 16 publicity had surrounded our client focused 17 mainly on the operations and accounting of the 18 company. Also, there is still the outstanding 19 issue of the convertibles that were sold and the 20 outstanding bank debt. Nevertheless, the 21 acquisitions are still looked upon favorably and 22 the MNA was certainly positive." Do you believe 23 that to be true today? 24 MS. BROWN: Objection. Compound and form. 25 Q. Let me try and clarify it. Do you believe today
Page 219 1 EUGENE YOO 2 Sunbeam. 3 Q. And when did he want that announcement to occur? 4 A. Well, the first time he mentioned it was when he 5 first engaged us and he wanted to have something 6 announced day one. As he, you know, he was 7 joking around with us on the first day. But, 8 you know, for him the sooner the better. 9 Q. But this reference to 1Q '98 earnings 10 announcement, your testimony is that doesn't 11 refer to Sunbeam sales in the first quarter? 12 A. No, I don't think -- this here, this reference 13 doesn't have anything to do with that sales 14 reference. Again, from what I remember this was 15 about -- he had already gone through two or 16 three earnings announcements at Sunbeam with 17 regard to the turn around of the company. And I 18 think he was looking for something to add on to 19 just the fact that he turned the company around. 20 He was doing something company transforming. 21 Q. So these earnings announcements were 22 prospective, what he expected the company to 23 earn in the first quarter of 1998, and that 24 announcement was sometime before the close of 25 the first quarter?	Page 221 1 EUGENE YOO 2 that the acquisitions are still looked upon 3 favorably? 4 MS. BROWN: Objection. Calls for 5 speculation. 6 A. I mean, it depends who you ask, I guess. 7 Q. When did you write this self-evaluation? 8 A. Let's see, this would be at the end of 1998. 9 Q. That was after Mr. Dunlap was terminated by the 10 Sunbeam board? 11 A. I believe it was. 12 Q. And after Jerry Levin took over at the new 13 Sunbeam? 14 A. I think that's the case, yes. 15 Q. When you say that there was a great deal of 16 negative publicity focused mainly in operations 17 and accounting of the company, what did you mean 18 by that? 19 A. What I was referring to was all of the negative 20 press that the company had received, I'm not 21 sure exactly what point during the year, but 22 some point during the year surrounding the sales 23 shortfall with Al leaving the company, the drop 24 in the stock price, the accounting issues. So 25 it was just a lot of negativity surrounding

Page 222 1 EUGENE YOO 2 anything related to Sunbeam. 3 Q. In light of what you learned throughout the rest 4 of 1998 and before you wrote this, is there 5 anything you would have done differently? 6 A. Done differently where? 7 Q. At any point in the Sunbeam engagement. 8 A. I don't think there's really anything that I 9 would have done differently. I don't think 10 we -- we went through the entire deal process 11 pretty thoroughly and thought. 12 Q. I have no further questions at this time. 13 MS. BROWN: Just a couple of quick 14 questions. 15 EXAMINATION 16 17 BY MS. BROWN: 18 Q. I think you already told Mr. O'Connor that you 19 do not -- do you know -- strike that. 20 Do you know what information Sunbeam relied 21 on when it determined to acquire Coleman? 22 A. Do I know? 23 Q. What information Sunbeam management or board 24 relied on when it determined to acquire Coleman? 25 A. I don't know firsthand what information they had	Page 224 1 EUGENE YOO 2 certainty." Are you aware of any, anything that 3 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding relied on? 4 A. I can assume that they were using most of the 5 same information that we had, but I don't know. 6 Q. So other than that assumption you don't know? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Okay. No further questions. 9 VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is four 10 twenty-eight. We're off the record. 11 (Whereupon, the deposition concluded at 12 approximately 4:28 p.m.) 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
Page 223 1 EUGENE YOO 2 or what they were using. 3 Q. Do you know what information Morgan Stanley 4 Senior Funding relied upon when it provided a 5 bank facility to Sunbeam? 6 A. No, I can't say with certainty I know. 7 Q. Were you involved in the team that was providing 8 the underwriting service for the convertible 9 note offering? 10 A. No, I was not involved. 11 Q. Are you familiar with the due diligence 12 performed by that team? 13 A. No, not really. 14 Q. Are you familiar with any due diligence 15 performed by Morgan Stanley Senior Funding 16 before giving the bank facility to Sunbeam? 17 A. No, I don't believe so. 18 Q. No further questions. 19 EXAMINATION 20 21 BY MR. O'CONNOR: 22 Q. BORNSTEIN) 24 having been first duly sworn or affirmed, was 25 examined and testified as follows:

Page 9 1 to the pricing of the bonds, coordinating and assisting 2 the other accounting firms in getting the information 3 that's needed in the document. That's pretty much all 4 I can remember. 5 Q. That activity all took place in the first 6 quarter of 1998? 7 A. For the most part, yes. 8 Q. Do you recall when during the first part of 9 1998 that activity was occurring? 10 A. I think it was middle to end of February 11 through late March of I guess -- my year, I think it 12 might have been, I think '98. 13 Q. Mr. Bornstein, did Arthur Andersen -- let me 14 take a step back. 15 Arthur Andersen was involved in these 16 activities because it served as the outside auditor for 17 Sunbeam during that time period; is that correct? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Did Arthur Andersen, in connection with its 20 function as the outside auditor for Sunbeam, do 21 anything special at the end of the first quarter of 22 1998 to monitor Sunbeam's product shipments at the end 23 of the first quarter? 24 MR. CLARE: Objection to the form. 25 THE WITNESS: Can you --	Page 11 1 responsible for the Sunbeam audits? 2 A. No, I was not. 3 Q. Who was? 4 A. The partner was Phil Harlow. 5 Q. Did you recommend to Mr. Harlow that these 6 procedures be used or did you make the decision on your 7 own? 8 A. I recommended to Mr. Harlow that the 9 procedures be done. 10 Q. And what was his reaction to your 11 recommendation? 12 A. I don't remember. 13 Q. But were the procedures in fact employed? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. When did you decide that Arthur Andersen -- 16 excuse me, when did you decide that Arthur Andersen 17 should use these expanded cutoff procedures at the end 18 of the first quarter of 1998? 19 A. I don't know the exact date, but probably 20 March 17th or 18th. 21 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I'm going to show you what 22 we're going to mark as Coleman (Parent) Exhibit 23 Number 118. It's a March 21 e-mail from you to William 24 Biese, B-i-e-s-e. It bears Bates number AA120304. 25
Page 10 1 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 2 Q. I can restate it. 3 At the end of the first quarter of 1998, in 4 its capacity as the outside auditor for Sunbeam, did 5 Arthur Andersen do anything special to monitor the 6 shipments of Sunbeam's products at the end of the first 7 quarter? 8 MR. CLARE: Same objection. 9 THE WITNESS: Yes. 10 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 11 Q. What do you recall that involving? 12 A. I would call them expanded cutoff procedures, 13 expanded I would say shipping and receiving type of 14 procedures at the end of the first quarter. 15 Q. Did you have any role in making the decision 16 to cause those procedures to be implemented? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And what was the role? 19 A. It was my decision to expand procedures 20 sufficient enough to conclude that shipments were made 21 in a timely fashion prior to the end of the quarter and 22 that they were in fact built, shipped and ordered by 23 customer. 24 Q. Now at that point in the first quarter of 25 1998, were you the senior Arthur Andersen person	Page 12 1 (CPH Exhibit No. 118 was marked for 2 identification.) 3 MR. CLARE: Do you have a copy? Thanks. 4 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 5 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I'd like you to take a moment 6 to look at Exhibit 118. 7 Can you tell me what this document is? 8 A. Correspondence with a, I believe, I believe, 9 I think he was the partner for Arthur Andersen that 10 worked, I think he -- let me think about this. He, I 11 think he resided in Mexico City. He was the partner in 12 charge of the work that was done in Mexico for Sunbeam. 13 And based on reading this, it's a memorandum 14 letting him know that we're going to be doing 15 additional work at the end of the quarter on cutoff 16 procedures. 17 Q. The memorandum is dated March 21, 1998; is 18 that correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Sunbeam had facilities in Mexico City, or in 21 Mexico? Excuse me. 22 A. Yeah, they had facilities in Mexico City and 23 I think I recall them having one or two in, I think it 24 was called Maquiladora and a couple of other locations 25 in surrounding Mexico City.

Page 13 1 Q. What was the purpose of your sending this 2 memo to Mr. Biese? 3 A. I believe -- I mean reading this right now, 4 it's to let him know what was going on, let him know 5 there was going to be additional work for him, and then 6 to advise him of, that additional cutoff procedures 7 were going to be needed. And in reading this at this 8 time, it talks about bill and hold transactions as well 9 as the emphasis on sales. 10 Q. Does your memorandum to Mr. Biese explain why 11 Andersen would be conducting additional cutoff 12 procedures at the end of the first quarter of 1998? 13 A. No, not specifically. 14 Q. Does it provide the background concerning the 15 reasons why you wanted to implement additional 16 procedures to monitor cutoffs? 17 A. Not specifically. 18 Q. Does it do it in general terms? 19 A. I believe it does, yes. 20 Q. And what did you advise Mr. Biese as the 21 reason for your desire to do the additional cutoff 22 procedures at the end of the first quarter? 23 A. I don't remember specifically telling him 24 anything, but looking at this memorandum, it's clear 25 that it talks about where they, where they were going,	Page 15 1 you to come to that conclusion, that it was appropriate 2 to do additional work at the end of the first quarter? 3 A. I believe that the spread was extremely 4 aggressive and that it warranted additional work to 5 make sure that they -- mentioned earlier that the 6 product was ordered, was built, and it was properly 7 shipped. 8 Q. What was your concern? 9 MR. MOSCATO: I object. I think he just said 10 so. 11 Do you have anything to add? 12 THE WITNESS: No, I don't believe I have 13 anything. 14 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 15 Q. How did monitoring cutoff procedures have a 16 relationship to what you've just described? 17 A. Monitoring cutoff procedures would in fact 18 give you a much greater assurance that a customer had 19 requested that the product be sold to them; i.e., to 20 clear purchase order, and that the product was in fact 21 built and shipped. 22 Q. Were you concerned that in order to increase 23 the reported sales for the first quarter of 1998, that 24 Sunbeam might attempt to claim shipments had taken 25 place during the first quarter when in fact they had
Page 14 1 where they were planning on going in sales and where 2 they were. And the notation, as you can see, there is 3 a big push on sales and we've been told that they 4 having bill and hold transactions. 5 Q. When you say it says where the company 6 expected to go in sales for the quarter, what are you 7 referring to? 8 A. The company just released an early warning to 9 the street that sales are not going to meet 10 expectations of 285 to 295 million for the quarter. 11 That's specifically where it talks about 12 that. 13 Q. And what does it say about where the company 14 in fact was at that point in time in terms of sales? 15 A. 72 million as of March 1st. 16 Q. And how does, how do those figures relate to 17 your desire to do additional end-of-the-quarter 18 shipping cutoff procedures? 19 A. There is obviously a big spread between what 20 was, what was recorded through March 1st and what the 21 expectations of the company were. 22 So that spread led me to believe that we 23 should be doing additional work at the end of the first 24 quarter. 25 Q. And what is it about that spread that caused	Page 16 1 not? 2 A. Can you repeat that, please? 3 Q. Were you concerned that because of the great 4 spread as of this point in time between Sunbeam's sales 5 for the first two months of the first quarter and 6 Sunbeam's original expectations for sales for the first 7 quarter, that in order to close the gap between those 8 two numbers, that Sunbeam might attempt to claim 9 shipments in the first quarter that had actually not 10 occurred? 11 MR. CLARE: I object to the form. 12 THE WITNESS: I don't believe that that was 13 my thought process at the time. I wanted to make 14 sure that they were actually going to ship the 15 product and the product was ordered. 16 So I guess in thinking about that, then there 17 is a possibility the concern was that there, you 18 know, that it was a possibility that they would 19 ship product that wasn't ordered, as well as 20 logistically being able to ship that much product 21 in such a short period of time, based on my 22 experience with the company at that point in time. 23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Mr. Bornstein, I'll show you 24 what we're marking as CPH Exhibit 119. It's a 25 memorandum from Dennis Pastrana to you dated

Page 17 1 March 24, 1998. The subject is cutoff testing, 2 and it bears Bates number AA55758 through -- 3 actually it looks like it's made up of two 4 documents, first. First page is AA55758, and then 5 the pages behind it are AA36921 through 36925. 6 (CPH Exhibit No. 119 was marked for 7 identification.) 8 THE WITNESS: These are just extra copies? 9 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 10 Q. Yes, right, thank you. If you would, I'd 11 like you to take a moment to take a look at CPH Exhibit 12 Number 119. 13 Mr. Bornstein, can you tell me what CPH 14 Exhibit Number 119 is? 15 A. I apologize. I'm getting a cold, so it's 16 kind of hard for me to hear. Can you repeat that? 17 Q. Can you tell me what CPH Exhibit Number 119 18 is? 19 A. Appears to be a draft of a memorandum 20 outlining the additional procedures on cutoff and 21 shipping that was performed at the end of the first 22 quarter of '98. 23 Q. These are instructions relating to what we've 24 been discussing, the implementation of additional 25 procedures to monitor Sunbeam's	Page 19 1 only and is not to be shared with client personnel at 2 the facilities you visit. Sunbeam's first quarter 3 fiscal 1998 will end on March 29, 1998," in brackets, 4 "the Sunday closest to the end of the month," end of 5 brackets. "As of March 1, 1998, the company reported 6 sales of approximately 72 million versus 143 million 7 for the corresponding period of the preceding year. 8 Despite this decrease, management has announced to the 9 public that it expects first quarter sales for 1998 to 10 exceed first quarter 1997 sales of 253.5 million. That 11 means that the company expects to ship over 12 181 million," in brackets, "greater than 70 percent 13 expected sales for the quarter," end of brackets, "in 14 the month of March." 15 Q. Now the, did you believe the statement that 16 the company had sales of $72 million through the first 17 two months of the year to be an accurate statement? 18 A. I believe at the time domestically the 19 $72 million was the number. 20 Q. Do you know what that number was based on? 21 Let me ask a different question. I asked that poorly. 22 Do you know how Andersen determined that 23 Sunbeam sales for the first two months of 1998 totaled 24 approximately $72 million? 25 A. I believe based on the company's financial
Page 18 1 end-of-the-first-quarter shipping practices? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Who is Dennis Pastrana? 4 A. He was, he was the senior auditor who worked 5 for me during the Sunbeam audit, who, for lack of a 6 better term, did, supervised the field work on a 7 day-to-day basis. 8 Q. Did you ask Mr. Pastrana to prepare 9 instructions for the additional cutoff procedures? 10 A. Yes, based on this memorandum. I don't 11 recall specifics, but based on this, I would say the 12 answer is yes. 13 Q. Did you provide Mr. Pastrana with guidance 14 concerning what you wanted the procedures to involve? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. The -- let me direct your attention to the 17 page that has Bates number 36293. The heading starts 18 General Information. 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Do you have that page in front of you? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Would you read the first two paragraphs under 23 General Information out loud, please. 24 A. "Although the information that follows is 25 public information, it is summarized here for your use	Page 20 1 information that was given to us. 2 Q. Now a statement is made at the beginning of 3 that two paragraphs that I had you read that the 4 information that follows is public information. 5 Do you know whether in fact Sunbeam had 6 announced to the public as of this point in time that 7 its sales for the first two months of 1998 were only 8 $72 million? 9 A. I don't believe it was. I'm not 100 percent 10 sure, though. 11 Q. You don't have any recollection of the 12 company publicly making that statement, correct? 13 A. No. 14 Q. I'd like to direct your attention down to the 15 bottom third of the page. There is a heading that 16 reads Revenue Recognition Policy. Do you see that? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Would you read that first paragraph into the 19 record, please. 20 A. "Because of management pressures to meet 21 earnings expectations, we are taking additional steps 22 in connection with our quarterly review work to ensure 23 that the client achieves a proper sales cutoff." 24 Q. Does that statement accurately reflect the 25 reasons why you decided that Andersen should implement

5 (Pages 17 to 20)

Page 21 1 additional cutoff testing procedures at the end of the 2 first quarter of 1998? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Now, Mr. Bornstein, I note that this document 5 indicates that Sunbeam's first quarter will end on 6 March 29, 1998. 7 Do you see that statement at the top of the 8 page? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Did Sunbeam's first quarter in fact end on 11 March 29, 1998? 12 A. I don't believe it did, no. 13 Q. Do you recall what happened? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Can you explain? 16 A. One second, I'm sorry. 17 Q. Sure. 18 A. As I recall, Sunbeam decided to extend the 19 quarter, I believe it was I think two days, in order 20 to -- because they were going to close the Coleman 21 acquisition I believe on March 31st, they wanted to 22 include the additional two days of revenue related to 23 Coleman in their first quarter. 24 Q. Would extending the quarter also permit 25 Sunbeam to count its first quarter sales, additional	Page 23 1 Q. Did the fact that Sunbeam advised you that it 2 wished to extend the first quarter of 1998 have any 3 effect on your thinking concerning the need to conduct 4 additional cutoff procedures for the quarter? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And what was your thought in that regard? 7 A. Honestly, at that point in time I believe 8 that they needed to come up with some additional ways 9 to make the quarter on the revenue side, and that was 10 one of them, one of a couple as opposed to -- I'm 11 sorry, but that was one of them. 12 Q. And how did that conclusion affect your 13 thinking with respect to the cutoff procedure project? 14 A. The cutoff procedure project was already 15 implemented, but it emphasized the need to do it. 16 Q. Were you concerned that Sunbeam might play 17 games with respect to its first quarter numbers? 18 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 19 THE WITNESS: I don't consider it playing 20 games, but there was never a clear definition of 21 whether or not they intended to include Coleman 22 sales or not when they made their press releases. 23 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 24 Q. Was the fact that Sunbeam had advised you 25 that it wished to extend the first quarter consistent
Page 22 1 sales that Sunbeam itself made during those three days? 2 A. I believe that was their intention, yes. 3 Q. As of the time -- this memorandum appears to 4 have been written on or about March 29 -- well, excuse 5 me, March 24, I believe. 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. As of that point in time, had the first 8 quarter been extended? 9 A. No, I don't believe so. 10 Q. So the decision to extend the first quarter 11 that Sunbeam made was sometime between the time this 12 memorandum was prepared and the end of the quarter? 13 A. Yeah, I believe I testified, somewhere in the 14 records I'm sure there is a paper trail of the date, 15 because I specifically remember the phone call I had. 16 My daughter was in the hospital sick, and I remember 17 getting the phone call related to the request to extend 18 the quarter. 19 Q. Who did you get that call from? 20 A. I don't recall specifically. 21 Q. Do you recall that it was Bob Gluck that 22 called you? 23 A. It's possible that it was Bob Gluck, yes. 24 Q. Who is Bob Gluck? 25 A. He was the corporate controller of Sunbeam.	Page 24 1 with your conclusion that management was being pressed 2 to do whatever it could to maximize first quarter sales 3 results? 4 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 5 THE WITNESS: That they needed to be 6 aggressive, yes. That is the way I would 7 characterize it. 8 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 9 Q. And they needed to be aggressive for what 10 reason, Mr. Bornstein? 11 MR. CLARE: Objection, foundation. 12 MR. MOSCATO: You're asking him what his view 13 is, not his trying to read their minds? 14 MR. MARKOWSKI: That's correct. 15 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 16 Q. Why did you think Sunbeam needed to be 17 aggressive with respect to its first quarter sales 18 activities? 19 A. Because again, that was a big spread of sales 20 that were in fact recorded at March 1st, and what they 21 had told the public they planned on doing for the first 22 quarter. 23 Q. Mr. Bornstein, in general, what did -- let me 24 ask a foundational question. In fact, Andersen did 25 take additional steps to monitor Sunbeam's first

Page 26 1 sounds, cut off when a sale is made and when a sale is 2 not made. 3 Q. And the cutoff moment in this instance was 4 what? 5 A. I believe the policy, the revenue recognition 6 policy was that it had to have been placed in a truck 7 and the truck needed to either be filled or pushed off 8 the dock and title passed to the customer. 9 Q. By what moment in time? 10 A. Technically, midnight of whatever the date 11 was. I think it was March 31st that the quarter ended. 12 Q. It ultimately was March 31st, correct? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. At the time this memo was written, the end of 15 the quarter would have been March 29? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. And it was the extension of the quarter by 18 three days from the 29th to the 31st that resulted in 19 that change, correct? 20 A. Yes, being the 31st as opposed to the 29th, 21 yes. 22 Q. All right. Now did Andersen staff or, 23 Andersen staff ask to be physically present on the 24 Sunbeam shipping docks at midnight on the last day of 25 the quarter?	Page 28 1 it. 2 Q. Sure. 3 A. It's a, looks like a memo from Vance Kistler, 4 who was a, I don't know, a staff accountant or it might 5 have been a higher level, maybe a senior accountant, on 6 his inventory observation work at Hattisburg. 7 Q. Who was Vance Kistler again? I'm sorry, he's 8 an Andersen employee? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Does this report relate to the sales cutoff 11 procedures that we've been talking about? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Does this reflect Mr. Kistler's work and the 14 work of others at the Hattisburg facility? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Hattisburg was a Sunbeam facility? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And what did Sunbeam do at Hattiesburg, do 19 you know? 20 A. I don't remember specifically what they built 21 there, but they manufactured equipment and had a 22 distribution center where product was put on trucks and 23 shipped to customers. 24 Q. Do you recall that Hattiesburg is one of the 25 more significant facilities that Sunbeam had for

Page 30 1 Aurora. I think that might have been a, I believe that 2 was a third-party warehouse. 3 And again, work, additional work done on 4 cutoff, shipping cutoff, as well as additional work 5 done on bill and hold sales. 6 Q. And this relates to the project we've been 7 talking about, correct? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. The monitoring of Sunbeam's end-of-quarter 10 sales shipments, correct? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Is it fair to say that it took a fair amount 13 of effort, Mr. Bornstein, to arrange and implement the 14 additional cutoff monitoring procedures? 15 A. I would characterize it as a huge amount of 16 effort. Probably more effort on a quarterly inventory 17 cutoff than -- probably safe to say on probably any 18 work that was done probably for the previous 15 years 19 in auditing history. 20 Q. And the huge effort was warranted because of 21 what again, Mr. Bornstein? 22 MR. MOSCATO: I object. 23 You can answer again, Larry. 24 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 25 Q. Let me ask a different question,	Page 32 1 entitled to report, correct? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. When did you first learn, Mr. Bornstein, that 4 Sunbeam's sales for the first two months of 1998 were 5 about half of what Sunbeam's sales had been for the 6 first two months of 1997? 7 MR. MOSCATO: The question is focused on the 8 first two months? That's your question? 9 MR. MARKOWSKI: That's correct. 10 MR. MOSCATO: First two months. 11 THE WITNESS: I believe sometime towards 12 maybe the first, the end of the first week of 13 March. Maybe the second, I'd say anywhere between 14 March 7th and maybe March 10th to 13th, in that 15 time frame. 16 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 17 Q. And how did you learn that information? 18 A. From Dennis Pastrana, the senior accountant 19 working for me. 20 Q. Do you recall whether you were present in a 21 room with Mr. Pastrana? 22 A. No, it was via telephone. 23 Q. Where were you at? 24 A. I was working on the 144 offering, I believe 25 in New York.

Page 33 1 Q. And where was Mr. Pastrana? 2 A. In Delray Beach, Florida, at Sunbeam's 3 location. 4 Q. Do you recall whether he called you or 5 whether you called him in connection with that phone 6 call? 7 A. No, I don't recall. 8 Q. What do you recall Mr. Pastrana telling you? 9 A. Just the fact of where they were, where they 10 were from a revenue standpoint. And I don't recall 11 anything else specifically. 12 Generally he was doing work to support the 13 work that we were doing up in New York. He was working 14 on a comfort letter, which entailed reviewing the 15 company's financial information for the most recent 16 periods. 17 Q. Did you consider the information he provided 18 to you about Sunbeam's sales for the first two months 19 of 1998 to be significant in any way? 20 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 21 THE WITNESS: Did I think it was significant, 22 the information that he gave me? 23 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 24 Q. Correct, concerning Sunbeam's sales for the 25 first two months of the first quarter of '98.	Page 35 1 relating to the preparation of a comfort letter? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. What's a comfort letter? 4 A. A comfort letter is, for lack of a better 5 word, it gives the underwriters and underwriter's 6 counsel comfort that the numbers that are within the 7 bond offering are derived from the company's books and 8 records. 9 Q. Now the letter is prepared by whom? 10 A. By Arthur Andersen. 11 Q. And it goes to whom in this case? 12 A. I believe it goes to underwriter's counsel. 13 So I'm not sure who exactly it's addressed to, to be 14 honest with you, but I believe it was underwriter's 15 counsel. 16 Q. The underwriting you are referring to in this 17 case was whom? 18 A. Morgan Stanley. 19 Q. And Morgan Stanley is underwriting what in 20 this context, just so we're clear? 21 A. The bond offering. 22 Q. And by underwriting, what do you mean? 23 A. They were the ones helping the company sell 24 the bonds. 25 Q. Why was Andersen preparing a comfort letter
Page 34 1 A. Yes, I did. 2 Q. In what way? 3 A. That it was much lower than the previous 4 year. 5 Q. Do you know if the public was expecting 6 Sunbeam's sales for the first quarter of 1998 to be 7 lower than Sunbeam's sales for the first quarter of 8 1997? 9 MR. CLARE: Objection, no foundation. 10 THE WITNESS: Did I know at that time? 11 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 12 Q. Right. Did you know if the financial 13 community was expecting Sunbeam's sales in the first 14 quarter of 1998 to be lower or higher than Sunbeam's 15 sales for the first quarter of 1997 had been? 16 MR. CLARE: Same objection. 17 THE WITNESS: I knew that they were expecting 18 I believe to be higher than the previous year. 19 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 20 Q. Your understanding was the financial 21 community was expecting Sunbeam's sales to grow in the 22 first quarter of 1998 over the first quarter of 1997 23 results, correct? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. You said that Mr. Pastrana was doing work	Page 36 1 for Morgan Stanley relating to the bond offering? 2 A. It was requested by Morgan Stanley to 3 prepare. 4 Q. Do you know why Sunbeam was issuing the 5 bonds? 6 A. In order to finance a portion of the three 7 acquisitions you talked about earlier. 8 Q. Including the acquisition of Coleman Company, 9 correct? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. What's the relevance of Sunbeam's sales 12 results in January and February of 1998 to the work 13 Mr. Pastrana was doing on the comfort letter? 14 A. The comfort letter asked for -- the standard 15 comfort letter, there are certain things that are 16 required to be disclosed and certain things that aren't 17 required to be disclosed, but, for example, you'd have 18 to look at net worth of the company compared to the 19 prior year. I forget the exact one. Net assets of the 20 company compared to the prior year. Really any 21 material variation from the same period of the prior 22 year required to disclose to the, to put in the 23 document, put in the comfort letter. 24 Again, the standard things, I don't know what 25 they are. And then if there is anything that's out of

Page 37 1 the ordinary, typically that might go in there. 2 Q. Mr. Bornstein, in connection with -- as I 3 understand your prior testimony in connection with the 4 Sunbeam audits, you were the second-most senior person 5 assigned in the audit; is that correct, the audit team? 6 A. There was a, there were, I think a concurring 7 partner was also assigned to the team, but that partner 8 didn't actually do the field work. He was more of an 9 advisory partner. So I would consider myself probably 10 the third senior person on the team. 11 Q. All right. In connection with the work you 12 did as the third most senior Andersen person on the 13 Sunbeam audit, if we include Mr. -- the concurring 14 partner was Mr. Pruitt; is that correct? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. And the engagement partner was Mr. Harlow, 17 the audit partner? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And Mr. Harlow would have been more actively 20 involved in the actual audit process than Mr. Pruitt, 21 correct? 22 A. Correct. 23 Q. In connection with the work that you did 24 regarding Andersen's audits of Sunbeam, did you try to 25 keep abreast of statements that Sunbeam made to the	Page 39 1 Q. When Mr. Pastrana advised you that Sunbeam's 2 sales for the first two months of 1998 were about half 3 of what they had been in the first two months of 1997, 4 did you report that information to anyone else at 5 Arthur Andersen? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. To whom did you report it? 8 A. I think you can see in the memorandums that 9 we reported that to whoever was on the engagement team 10 working on the cutoff procedures, Mr. Harlow, 11 Mr. Pruitt. I don't specifically remember anyone else, 12 but I'm sure I mentioned it to other people. 13 Q. Did you make certain personally that 14 Mr. Harlow knew that Sunbeam's sales in the first two 15 months of '98 were about half of what they had been in 16 the first two months of '97? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Did you personally make sure that Mr. Pruitt 19 knew that as well? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. Do you recall when you informed Mr. Harlow of 22 that fact? 23 A. As soon as I was aware of it. 24 Q. Do you recall when you advised Mr. Pruitt of 25 that?
Page 38 1 financial community relating to its performance? 2 A. Yes, I did. 3 Q. And is it in that connection that you had an 4 understanding that Sunbeam had led the financial 5 community to expect that its first quarter 1998 sales 6 would be higher than its first quarter 1997 sales? 7 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 8 THE WITNESS: It was a combination of a lot 9 of things, newspaper reports, the budgets, 10 statements Mr. Dunlap had made to the financial 11 community and the world on growth projections. 12 So I mean it's a combination of things how you 13 keep track of things like that. 14 Andersen at the time had a system in place 15 where you would get, you know, consensus, first 16 call type of information that can be supplied 17 also. 18 So I mean we were kept pretty -- you know, it 19 was part of our job to be in tune to that 20 information. 21 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 22 Q. And you considered yourself in the first 23 quarter of 1998 well informed on those issues as they 24 related to Sunbeam? 25 A. Yes.	Page 40 1 A. I believe not until March 17th or 18th. The 2 night before the, the date before the press release 3 went out and prior to the bonds being priced. 4 Q. Can you tell me what the context of that 5 conversation was? Was it a conversation? 6 A. Yes, just in -- Mr. Pruitt, as part of his 7 responsibility, needed to read the comfort letter in 8 its entirety. And I do recall pointing that out to him 9 specifically, that sales were half of what they were, 10 and -- 11 Q. Where were you both at? 12 A. He was in Miami. I believe I was, I was in 13 West Palm Beach. 14 And I recall the conversation that, that the 15 company was at 72 million versus 143 million, and 16 explained to him where they were versus their estimates 17 on the street. And I don't remember specifically the 18 conversation, but I do recall letting him know that I 19 wasn't 100 percent sure if all parties involved in the 20 transaction were informed of that information. 21 Q. What did Mr. Pruitt say to you? 22 A. He told me that he was going to talk to 23 Mr. Harlow and discuss the issue. 24 Q. And did you tell Mr. Pruitt who you weren't 25 certain -- let me rephrase that.

Page 41 1 You indicated, if I understood you correctly, 2 Mr. Bornstein, that you raised with Mr. Pruitt an issue 3 concerning whether everyone involved in the debenture 4 offering was aware of the difference between Sunbeam's 5 sales in the first two months of '98 and the first two 6 months of '97, correct? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Was there somebody specific you had in mind? 9 A. I wasn't 100 percent sure if Morgan Stanley 10 and Morgan Stanley's counsel, as well as any of the 11 other people working on the transaction other than the 12 people at Sunbeam, knew where the company sales were at 13 that point in time. 14 Q. Did you want to make certain that Morgan 15 Stanley was advised of that information? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Is that what you told Mr. Pruitt? 18 A. I didn't tell him that specifically, no. 19 (Thereupon, a cellphone rang.) 20 MR. MARKOWSKI: Can we go off the record. 21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off the 22 video record. The time on the monitor, 10:05 a.m. 23 (Discussion held off the record.) 24 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 25 record. The time on the monitor, 10:05 a.m.	Page 43 1 Q. Have you seen this letter before? 2 A. I don't remember the specific one, but I've 3 seen the form letter before. 4 Q. Were you aware that Morgan Stanley had 5 written to Arthur Andersen to formally request Arthur 6 Andersen provide it with a comfort letter? 7 A. Yes, I was. 8 Q. In connection with the Sunbeam debenture 9 offering? 10 A. Yes. I believe we requested that this form 11 letter be provided to Arthur Andersen. 12 Q. I see. So it was Andersen's request that 13 Morgan Stanley provide it with a written request for a 14 comfort letter? 15 A. Yes, because the issue was that this was a 16 144 offering and not in accordance with the, 17 specifically what -- similar to like an IPO or a 33 Act 18 filing, I believe a 144 offering was a 34 Act filing, 19 which is a requirement of Andersen to make sure that 20 the underwriter would sign off on a letter requesting 21 that they were doing the same amount of work that would 22 have been required in the 33 Act filing. 23 Q. That's what Morgan Stanley represented to 24 Andersen in connection with this bond offering? 25 A. Yes.
Page 42 1 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 2 Q. Mr. Bornstein, did you specifically tell 3 Mr. Pruitt you weren't certain if Morgan Stanley knew 4 these facts? 5 A. No, I didn't specifically say that. 6 Q. Okay. What did Mr. Pruitt say to you when 7 you raised an issue with respect to whether everyone 8 was on notice of this drop in Sunbeam's sales? 9 A. He told me that if everyone wasn't aware, 10 that we wouldn't issue a comfort letter. 11 Q. And did Mr. Pruitt give you any instruction? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Did Mr. Pruitt tell you he intended to take 14 some action? 15 A. He told me he was going to talk to 16 Mr. Harlow. 17 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I'm going to show you what we 18 previously marked as CPH Exhibit Number 12. It's a 19 two-page document on Morgan Stanley stationery bearing 20 Bates number AA31057 through 058, and it's a letter 21 dated March 11, 1998, from John D. Tyree of Morgan 22 Stanley to Arthur Andersen; attention, Phil Harlow. 23 Would you take a moment to take a look at CPH 24 Exhibit Number 12 for me, Mr. Bornstein. 25 A. Okay.	Page 44 1 Q. Did Andersen wait to receive this letter 2 before beginning work on the comfort letter? 3 A. No, I don't believe so. 4 MR. MARKOWSKI: Mr. Bornstein, I'm going to 5 show you what we're marking as CPH Exhibit 6 Number 120. It's a three-page document on Sunbeam 7 stationery dated March 16, 1998, bearing Bates 8 number AA31053 through 055. 9 (CPH Exhibit No. 120 was marked for 10 identification.) 11 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 12 Q. If you would take a moment, sir, I'd like you 13 to review this document, and my first question is 14 whether you can identify it for me. 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Can you tell me what it is? 17 A. It's a management representation letter from 18 Sunbeam to Arthur Andersen utilized to issue our 19 comfort letter. 20 Q. This is the comfort letter that you've been 21 referring to that Morgan Stanley requested? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. In connection with the debenture offering, 24 correct? 25 What's the purpose of this letter?

Page 45 1 A. When you, any time you're, basically you're 2 bringing -- let me back up. 3 The purpose of this letter again is to issue 4 a comfort letter. And basically what you're doing is 5 enough, the same amount of work sufficient that if you 6 were going to issue a consent to update your opinion on 7 the financial statements that were whatever the 8 previous period was. 9 So it's mainly analytical work and work done 10 sufficient to issue a comfort letter. 11 Q. Does this document contain information 12 relating to Sunbeam's sales for the first two months of 13 1998? 14 A. Yes, it does. 15 Q. Where do you see that? 16 A. On paragraph 9C. 17 Q. Would you read that into the record, please? 18 A. "Net sales from December 29, 1997, through 19 March 1, 1998, were 72 million, 72,018,000, as compared 20 to 143,499,000 for the corresponding period of the 21 preceding year." 22 Q. That's the information that we've been 23 talking about that showed that Sunbeam's sales for the 24 first two months of 1998 were approximately half of 25 what they had been in the prior year period, correct?	Page 47 1 I believe it does. 2 3 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 4 Q. What does it say? Would you read that into 5 the record, sir? 6 A. "For the period from December 29th, 1997, 7 through March 16, 1998, consolidated net sales 8 decreased as compared to the corresponding period of 9 the preceding year primarily to the company's Early Buy 10 program for outdoor grills which accelerated outdoor 11 grill sales into the fourth quarter of fiscal 1997. 12 Additionally, decreased consolidated net sales during 13 the period as compared to the corresponding period of 14 the preceding year results, in part, from a 15 nonrecurring sale in January of 1997 of discontinued 16 stock keeping units and excess and obsolete inventory 17 in connection with the company's November 1996 18 restructuring. Net income decreased primarily due to 19 the aforementioned sales decrease and a first quarter 20 compensation charge from restricted stock issued in 21 connection with new employment agreements for key 22 officers." 23 Q. And this is a statement being made to Arthur 24 Andersen by the senior management of Sunbeam, correct? 25 A. Yes.
Page 46 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And this letter is signed by who, sir? 3 A. Signed by Albert Dunlap, Russell Kersh, David 4 Fanin and Bob Gluck, who were all senior executives of 5 Sunbeam. 6 Q. Mr. Dunlap's position at this time was what? 7 A. States here chairman and chief executive 8 officer. 9 Q. Of Sunbeam? 10 A. Of Sunbeam, yes. 11 Q. Mr. Kersh was what? 12 A. Executive vice-president of finance and 13 administration. 14 Mr. Fanin was executive vice-president, 15 general counsel. 16 Mr. Gluck was vice-president and chief 17 accounting officer. 18 Q. Four very senior Sunbeam executives, correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Does this letter offer an explanation for the 21 primary reason for the substantial decline in Sunbeam's 22 sales for the first two months of '98 compared to the 23 first two months of '97? 24 MR. CLARE: Objection to form. 25 THE WITNESS: In the preceding paragraph, 9B,	Page 48 1 Q. What does it mean to be accelerating outdoor 2 grill sales into the fourth quarter of 1997, sir? 3 A. It talks -- what it means is just what it 4 says, accelerating sales of grills to the fourth 5 quarter of the previous year. 6 Q. How does that affect first quarter sales? 7 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. 8 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 9 Q. I'm just trying to understand what the 10 reference to accelerating sales means so that the jury 11 can understand. 12 A. Right. The Early Buy program and the bill 13 and hold program that they had in effect at the end of 14 1997, you know, based on the facts as of the end of 15 February, showed that it did have an impact on moving 16 some of the sales that might have previously been 17 recorded in the fourth quarter -- in the first quarter, 18 excuse me, of the corresponding year might have been 19 accelerated into the previous quarter. 20 Q. So sales that otherwise would have normally 21 taken place in the first quarter of 1998 had in fact 22 already occurred in the fourth quarter of 1997? 23 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 24 THE WITNESS: Yes. 25

Page 49 1 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 2 Q. That's identified here as the primary reason 3 for the drop in Sunbeam's sales in the first two months 4 of 1998, correct? 5 A. That's what it states, yes. 6 THE WITNESS: Could we take like a 7 five-minute break for the restroom? 8 MR. MARKOWSKI: Sure. 9 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off video 10 record. The time on the monitor is 10:17 p.m. 11 (Thereupon, a recess was taken.) 12 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 13 record. The time on the monitor is 10:29 a.m. 14 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 15 Q. Mr. Bornstein, as you just testified, Albert 16 Dunlap was the chief executive officer of Sunbeam in 17 the first quarter of 1998, correct? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Do you recall that Mr. Dunlap at that point 20 had been the chief executive of Sunbeam for something 21 less than two years? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Are you aware of Mr. Dunlap's reputation at 24 that time as a turnaround specialist? 25 A. Yes.	Page 51 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And what were those doubts based upon? 3 A. The financial performance really through the 4 first two months of the, of '98, and as well as me, as 5 well as my observation and review of at least the 6 operations that I had seen, which included several of 7 the domestic facilities as well as the Mexico City 8 facility. 9 Q. First quarter of 1998, did you consider 10 yourself to be familiar with Sunbeam's financial 11 results and performance? 12 A. For what period of time? 13 Q. For the prior year. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And for the first two months of 1998? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. And did you consider yourself generally 18 familiar with Sunbeam's management? 19 A. Some of management, yes, from a corporate 20 standpoint. 21 Q. And you considered yourself to be familiar 22 with Sunbeam's facilities? 23 A. As I mentioned, domestically and in Mexico, 24 part of Mexico anyway. 25 Q. Did you think Mr. Dunlap was overstating his
Page 50 1 Q. What do you know about that? Let me go back 2 to 1998. Back in the first quarter of 1998, what was 3 your understanding of Mr. Dunlap's reputation for 4 turnarounds? 5 A. That he had a reputation for cutting costs, 6 turning around companies and selling them. 7 Q. And doing that all in very short order? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And were you aware of any public statements 10 that Mr. Dunlap had made about his success in turning 11 Sunbeam around during his tenure as Sunbeam's chief 12 executive officer? Focusing again on what your 13 knowledge was in the first quarter of 1998. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. What was your understanding of what 16 Mr. Dunlap had said publicly on that subject? 17 A. That it was turned around and headed for 18 brighter and greater pastures. 19 Q. Mr. Dunlap was projecting significant growth 20 in sales and profits for 1998 for Sunbeam? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Compared to its 1997 performance? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Did you have any personal doubts about that 25 in the first quarter of 1998?	Page 52 1 accomplishments at Sunbeam? 2 A. I thought there was a possibility that he 3 was, yes. 4 Q. And that was your belief in the first quarter 5 of 1998, correct? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. Mr. Bornstein, let me show you what we've 8 previously marked as CPH Exhibit Number 17. It's a 9 document on Arthur Andersen stationery bearing Bates 10 numbers MS375 through 381. 11 If you could take a moment, my first question 12 is going to be whether you can identify that document 13 for me. 14 A. Yeah, this is a copy of a, a copy of the 15 comfort letter. 16 Q. And it's a letter dated March 19, 1998, 17 correct? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And it's from Arthur Andersen to Morgan 20 Stanley & Company, Inc.? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And it's signed Arthur Andersen LLP, correct? 23 A. Yes. I believe it's my handwriting. 24 Q. You believe you signed the name Arthur 25 Andersen LLP to the letter?

Page 53 1 A. This was signed about five o'clock in the 2 morning on the 19th, I believe, the night of the 3 pricing of the bonds, the following subsequent a.m. 4 Q. So that process I think from prior testimony 5 started on the 19th, if it was 5:00 a.m., it would have 6 been 5:00 a.m. on the 20th? 7 A. 20th, I believe. 8 Q. Even though the letter is dated the 19th, 9 correct? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Were you authorized to sign this letter on 12 behalf of Morgan Stanley -- excuse me, I misspoke. 13 Were you authorized to sign this letter on 14 behalf of Arthur Andersen? 15 A. Yes, I was. 16 Q. And who provided you with that authorization? 17 A. Phil Harlow. 18 Q. And Mr. Harlow was the engagement partner, as 19 you've previously testified, correct? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And the letter is addressed to Morgan 22 Stanley. 23 Do you know if the letter was delivered to 24 Morgan Stanley? 25 A. Yes, it was.	Page 55 1 you've read into the record from the March 16 letter 2 from Sunbeam management to Arthur Andersen? 3 A. It's similar. It's not identical. 4 Q. CPH Exhibit Number 120. Are the figures 5 identical? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And the, just so the record is clear, 8 Mr. Bornstein, would you read paragraph 6C into the 9 record. 10 A. Says, "Although the company has not provided 11 us with any financial statements as of any date or for 12 any period subsequent to February 1, 1998, management 13 has provided net sales from the December 29, 1997, 14 through March 1st, 1998, which was 72,018,000 as 15 compared to 143,499,000 for the corresponding period of 16 the preceding year." 17 Q. And that again reflects a decline of about 18 50 percent in sales for the first two months of 1998 19 from the first two months of 1997, correct, sir? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And does this letter also repeat the 22 explanations management provided to Arthur Andersen for 23 that decline? 24 A. Yes, the previous paragraph, 6B. 25 Q. And what is the primary reason that
Page 54 1 Q. When did that occur? I'm talking about this 2 version of it signed by you. 3 A. Four or five o'clock in the morning on the 4 20th. 5 Q. And how do you know it was delivered to 6 Morgan Stanley at that time? 7 A. I handed it to them. 8 Q. Who did you hand it to? 9 A. Probably Bob Lurie. Bob Lurie was an 10 attorney from Davis Polk, I believe. 11 Q. I believe Mr. Lurie's name may be James. 12 A. Maybe. Robert, wasn't it? No? 13 Q. Maybe I'm mistaken, but Mr. Lurie from Davis 14 Polk? 15 A. It's been six years, so yeah. 16 Q. And he was acting at that time as counsel for 17 Morgan Stanley? 18 A. I believe so, yes. 19 Q. Does the March 19 comfort letter contain 20 information relating to Sunbeam's sales results for the 21 first two months of 1998? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And can you tell me where that appears? 24 A. Six, paragraph 6C. 25 Q. Does this contain the identical language that	Page 56 1 management provided again? 2 A. I believe this is the exact wording. 3 "Primarily due to the company's new Early Buy program 4 for outdoor grills, which accelerated outdoor grills 5 sales into the fourth quarter of fiscal 1997." 6 Q. Sir, you indicated that you personally handed 7 this to Morgan Stanley's counsel -- 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. -- in the early morning hours of March 20th, 10 correct? 11 A. Yes, I believe so, yes. 12 Q. Do you know if this letter with these facts 13 and figures, the ones that you've just testified about, 14 had been provided to Morgan Stanley at any earlier 15 point, either that evening or otherwise? 16 MR. MOSCATO: You mean a prior draft? 17 MR. MARKOWSKI: Correct. 18 THE WITNESS: I believe that it was, but I 19 can't be certain. 20 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 21 Q. Had you discussed these numbers with anyone 22 from Morgan Stanley earlier in the evening on 23 March 19th? 24 A. Yes, I had. 25 Q. Who did you discuss them with?

Page 57 1 A. I think his name was John Tyree, specifically 2 from Morgan Stanley. I don't remember anyone else from 3 Morgan Stanley being there. 4 Q. I'm going to take you back in time a little 5 bit from that moment, Mr. Bornstein. 6 You indicated that you had had a conversation 7 two or three days earlier, as I understand it, with 8 Phil Pruitt relating to these facts, correct? 9 A. Bill Pruitt. 10 Q. I'm sorry, Bill Pruitt, the concurring 11 partner on the Sunbeam audit engagement. 12 A. I believe the 17th, two days earlier. 13 Q. And Mr. Pruitt advised you that he was going 14 to speak with Mr. Harlow concerning making sure that 15 everyone involved in the transactions that were 16 underway had notice of these facts, correct? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. What's the next thing you recall happening 19 bearing on this subject? 20 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 21 THE WITNESS: Personally, I remember that on 22 the, I think the 19th -- let me think about this, 23 17th, 18th, 19th. 24 I believe the 19th I recall was the next time 25 I got any information on the subject, when I was	Page 59 1 A. Yes. So that's when I found out about it. I 2 was, saw it on TV. 3 Q. You were there with Mr. Brockelman, you 4 indicated? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. Mr. Brockelman, what was -- he was employed 7 by Arthur Andersen? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And his reason for being there with you was 10 what? 11 A. To assist me in the process, to have an extra 12 set of eyes looking at numbers when they changed. 13 Q. And what happened while you were at the 14 hotel? 15 A. We were watching or I was watching CNBC and 16 saw the crawler on the bottom that Sunbeam had released 17 an early warning release that they weren't going to 18 make the number. I forget what the numbers were, but 19 they were still going to exceed, I think it was first 20 quarter of the prior year. I think that was the, I 21 think that's what it was. I'd have to look at the 22 press release again. 23 And then I, I think I saw a notation that the 24 stock went down significantly. 25 Q. So you recall that there was some notice on
Page 58 1 in a hotel room in New York waiting to go to the 2 printer. 3 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 4 Q. Do you recall what hotel you were in? 5 A. I think it was the Helmsley Palace Hotel. 6 Q. You said you were getting ready to go to the 7 printer. What printer? 8 A. I think it was Global Financial Press is 9 where we were doing the work. And I was with an 10 associate of mine, Mark Brockelman. 11 Q. What was going to be happening at the 12 printer? 13 A. We were going to be finalizing the bond 14 offering. I believe the bonds were being priced. The 15 quantity of the bonds was, what was being sold was 16 going to be finally determined, the interest rate. 17 And we were going to basically change 18 whatever numbers needed to be changed in the document 19 as a result of the pricing, as well as issue a final 20 comfort letter. 21 Q. The document that was being finalized was 22 what? 23 A. The 144 offering memorandum. 24 Q. That's the document that would be provided to 25 potential purchasers of the bonds?	Page 60 1 the CNBC broadcast concerning an announcement by 2 Sunbeam concerning its first quarter performance? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And when you saw that, what was your 5 reaction? 6 A. My reaction was to learn more about what the 7 release was. 8 Q. What did you do? 9 A. I believe I called Mr. Harlow or I called 10 someone back, back at Arthur Andersen. Possibly could 11 have been Bob Gluck, I don't remember, but I wanted to 12 physically get a copy of the press release. 13 Q. Did you speak with someone? Did you succeed 14 in reaching someone to talk to them about the contents 15 of the press release? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. You can't remember at the moment whether that 18 was Mr. Harlow or Mr. Gluck? 19 A. It might have been Dennis Pastrana. I don't 20 remember who, to be honest with you, I spoke with. 21 Q. But you spoke with someone who had the press 22 release itself? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Let me show you what's been previously marked 25 as CPH Exhibit Number 14, Mr. Bornstein. It's a

Page 62 1 why Sunbeam thought that sales might be lower than Wall 2 Street analysts' estimates of 285 to 295 million for 3 the quarter? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. What does it say on that subject? 6 A. It says, "The shortfall from analysts' 7 estimates, if any, would be due to changes in inventory 8 management and order patterns at certain of the 9 company's major retail customers. The company further 10 stated"-- well, actually that's a different sentence, 11 but that's the sentence they put in there. 12 Q. It doesn't mention the Early Buy program, 13 does it? 14 A. No. 15 Q. And it was the Early Buy program that 16 management's letter to Sunbeam identified as the 17 primary reason for sales shortfall in the first quarter 18 of 1998, correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Did Andersen, to your knowledge, sir, have 21 any involvement in the preparation of the Sunbeam 22 March 19 press release? 23 A. Not that I'm aware of, no. 24 Q. Did you personally have any involvement? 25 A. No.	Page 64 1 disclosed? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Do you know why that was not done in this 4 case? 5 A. No, I do not. 6 Q. Mr. Bornstein, does the press release, the 7 March 19 press release, CPH Exhibit Number 14, set 8 forth the January and February sales results numbers 9 that are contained in management's representation 10 letter to Andersen? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Does the press release state that Sunbeam's 13 January and February sales were one half of 1997 sales 14 for the same time period? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Does it state in any way that Sunbeam's sales 17 for the first two months of 1998 were below to any 18 extent Sunbeam's sales for the first two months of 19 1997? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Does the press release state that Sunbeam had 22 in fact determined that it could not accomplish Wall 23 Street analysts' estimates of 285 million to 24 295 million in sales for the quarter? 25 A. They said it's possible.

Page 65 1 Q. They don't say it's not going to happen, do 2 they? 3 A. No. 4 Q. Does the press release say anything about not 5 meeting Wall Street's expectations for earnings for the 6 first quarter of 1998? 7 A. No, it does not. 8 Q. Does the press release say anything about 9 Sunbeam's earnings for the first two months of 1998 10 being below earnings for the first two months of 1997? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Given what you knew at the time, sir, still 13 focusing on the hotel room, the time you were at the 14 hotel room, what was your reaction to what was read to 15 you concerning the contents of Sunbeam's March 19 press 16 release? 17 A. Thought it was very poorly written and 18 described and thought that it was still very 19 aggressive. 20 Q. When you say it was very aggressive, what in 21 particular are you focusing on, sir? 22 A. Exceeding 1997 first quarter sales of 23 253.4 million. 24 Q. When you say you think that's aggressive or 25 at the time you thought that was aggressive, what do	Page 67 1 Q. And your knowledge generally of Sunbeam's 2 operations? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. If you were skeptical of Sunbeam's ability to 5 achieve $253 million in sales, Mr. Dunlap -- excuse me, 6 Mr. Bornstein. Let me start over with that again. 7 A. I wish I had his money. 8 Q. No offense. 9 MR. MOSCATO: Not his personality. 10 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 11 Q. No offense intended, sir. 12 A. No problem. 13 Q. If you were skeptical, Mr. Bornstein, of 14 Sunbeam's ability to accomplish $253 million in net 15 sales for the first quarter of 1998, what was your view 16 of the company's likelihood of accomplishing 285 to 17 $295 million in net sales for the quarter? 18 A. Never considered it. It was, I didn't think 19 the 253 was likely, so I never really even, never 20 really went to the higher number, to be honest with 21 you. 22 Q. Did you think Sunbeam had any chance of 23 achieving 285 to 295 million in sales? 24 MR. MOSCATO: Now I object. He just answered 25 the question.
Page 66 1 you mean? 2 A. Based on, again, the sales where they were 3 for the first two months at 72 million, they needed to 4 sell 100 and whatever it is, 180 million to meet that 5 number. 6 Q. To meet the minimum $253 million number? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. And by aggressive, you mean that it would be 9 difficult to achieve? 10 A. Less likely than not. How's that? 11 Q. You thought it was not probable that Sunbeam 12 could achieve 253 million in sales for the first 13 quarter of 1998? 14 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. 15 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 16 THE WITNESS: I thought it was aggressive. 17 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 18 Q. Were you skeptical? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. And the reason why you were skeptical was 21 because Sunbeam had so far to go? Is that basically 22 it? 23 A. That, and based on my review of the 24 facilities and the distribution capabilities of the 25 company.	Page 68 1 THE WITNESS: Never gave it any thought. 2 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 3 Q. I assume you thought it was less likely than 4 accomplishing 253, right? 5 A. Logic would say that. 6 Q. Even more difficult, even more aggressive? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. After the contents of the press release was 9 read to you, Mr. Bornstein, what happened next? 10 A. We went to the printer's. Mark Brockelman 11 and I took a taxi to the printer's. 12 Q. Do you remember what time of the day that 13 was? 14 A. I believe it was between five and 6:00 p.m. 15 Q. And the printer is Global Financial Press? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Who else was there that evening? 18 A. Myself and Mr. Brockelman, John Tyree from 19 Morgan Stanley, Mr. Lurie from Davis Polk. There were 20 two, I think two attorneys from Scadden Arps. 21 Q. Do you remember their names? 22 A. One guy was foreign, I think his name was 23 Adrien Dietz. I don't remember where he was from. 24 Another guy, I think Todd Freed maybe, and I believe 25 Davis Polk had one or two other people there.

Page 69 1 Q. Do you recall if there was more than one 2 person for Morgan Stanley? 3 A. No, I don't recall. 4 Q. The person you recall from Morgan Stanley 5 being there is John Tyree? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. Was anyone there from Sunbeam? 8 A. No. 9 Q. What happened when you arrived at the 10 printer? 11 A. I think we, we met in a conference room. I 12 don't remember specifically the, what first happened. 13 I know we were told about the success of the offering 14 and that they, it was oversubscribed and that they 15 increased the size to -- I think we were informed about 16 that earlier, but that they, even the fact of the 17 warning release, that everything was still a go. 18 And again, it was oversubscribed and there 19 was no issues. 20 Q. Do you remember how much the offering was 21 originally expected to raise? 22 A. I think the net was about 500 million, I 23 think. 24 Q. And you were told on the 19th when you got to 25 the printer that the marketing activity had been very	Page 71 1 Q. Do you recall who was expressing that to you? 2 A. It was Tyree and Bob Lurie. Bob? Robert? 3 James? Whatever, Mr. Lurie. 4 Q. Let's call him Mr. Lurie today. 5 A. I don't remember his first name. 6 Q. Did the subject at some point of the March 19 7 press release come up? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. How did that happen? 10 A. I asked a couple of questions about, you 11 know, the reaction of the press release when marketing 12 the bonds and doing the final allocation and asked 13 about the press release. 14 And they went into the story of kind of how 15 the press release came to be and what time of the night 16 it was and how difficult it was between Scadden Arps 17 and Morgan Stanley and Sunbeam to actually disclose 18 this information and agree on the wording. 19 Q. Can you paint the picture for me a little bit 20 about the setting? You're in a conference room? 21 A. Yeah, it's a very very large, large 22 conference room, probably similar at the time one we're 23 in now at the printer there, multiple locations of 24 different size conference rooms, hallways. There was 25 also rooms for where there is pool and TV and things
Page 70 1 successful; is that correct? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. That's manage Morgan Stanley's effort to 4 market the debentures on behalf of Sunbeam? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. So you were being told that Morgan Stanley 7 has had great success in marketing Sunbeam's debentures 8 to potential investors, correct? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. So successful that the debenture offering is 11 being substantially increased in size, correct? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. I'm sorry, did you say what the increased 14 amount was? 15 A. I think it was 750 million net. 16 Q. So people are feeling pretty good about the 17 success of the marketing activity, I take it, correct? 18 MR. CLARE: Object to the form and 19 foundation. 20 THE WITNESS: Yeah, they were very excited 21 and pleased with the marketing effort. 22 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 23 Q. That was being expressed to you at the 24 meeting? 25 A. Yes.	Page 72 1 like that, pool table. 2 So this would be kind of to the side, a side 3 conversation with myself and Mr. Lurie and Mr. Tyree. 4 And then everybody else would be sitting around the 5 conference room table. 6 Q. When you asked Mr. the March 19 press 7 release, with whom were you speaking? 8 A. Mr. Tyree and Mr. Lurie. 9 Q. And Mr. Lurie is Mr. Tyree's, Morgan 10 Stanley's attorney? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. And what were you told? 13 A. That it was a very difficult night. It 14 lasted to the morning. And that Mr. Dunlap was 15 incensed and irate and crazed, I guess, for lack of 16 better terminology, and made the comment that he was 17 going to lose $100 million because of this, I think was 18 what I recall. 19 Q. So they told you the background leading up to 20 the issuance of the press release, correct? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Did you ask any other questions concerning 23 the press release? 24 A. No. 25 Q. Was there any discussion about putting the

Page 73 1 information from the press release in any way into the 2 offering memorandum that you were in the process of 3 finalizing? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. How did that subject come up? 6 A. I asked the question of what they intended on 7 putting into the document to disclose where the company 8 was with their sales forecast and what their revised 9 estimates were going to be. 10 Q. So you asked a general question, what the 11 company intended to disclose relating to its 12 performance in the first part of 1998, correct? 13 A. It wasn't really what the company was going 14 to disclose. I mean I understand -- no one from the 15 company was present, but what the consensus of the 16 group was. 17 Q. What would be disclosed in the offering 18 memorandum? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. So you asked a general question, what is the 21 offering memorandum going to say about Sunbeam's 22 performance so far in the first quarter of 1998? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And who did you ask that question of? 25 A. I think it was a general question to Tyree,	Page 75 1 think it was appropriate to put in there. 2 Q. Who was present when you made that statement 3 to Mr. Lurie? 4 A. I made the statement to whoever was in the 5 room at the time. 6 Q. Was Mr. Tyree there? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. What did you say, do you remember? 9 A. I said I don't think it's appropriate to put 10 this in the, in the 2 billion-dollar bond offering, 11 that it was an extremely forward-looking statement, it 12 was aggressive, and that I didn't think it was a good 13 idea. 14 Q. Do you remember anything else you said at 15 that point? 16 A. That I was going to discuss this with Sunbeam 17 as well as Mr. Harlow. 18 Q. What was the reaction from the others 19 present, Mr. Tyree, Mr. Lurie, the Scadden lawyers? 20 A. At that point I don't know. I left the room. 21 Q. Did anyone say to you at that point that your 22 views didn't change their thinking? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Okay. So the next thing that happened is you 25 left the room?
Page 74 1 to the Scadden Arps folks, because I believe they -- I 2 don't even remember who the hell they were 3 representing. They were representing Sunbeam, right? 4 MR. MOSCATO: Scadden, yes. 5 THE WITNESS: And Mr. Tyree. 6 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 7 Q. And what was the response? 8 A. That they were going to put the press release 9 in verbatim into the document. 10 Q. Who said those words to you? 11 A. I think it was Mr. Lurie. 12 Q. Did anyone disagree with that when Mr. Lurie 13 made that statement? 14 A. I did. 15 Q. Did anyone else other than you disagree? 16 A. No, I don't recall. 17 Q. How far into the evening is this conversation 18 taking place? 19 A. Early. 20 Q. What did you say to Mr. Lurie in response to 21 Mr. Lurie's statement to you that the intention was to 22 include the contents of the press release as the 23 disclosure relating to Sunbeam's performance to that 24 point in the first quarter of '98? 25 A. I didn't think it was -- I told him I didn't	Page 76 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And you left the room for what purpose, sir? 3 A. To call Mr. Harlow to discuss the issue of 4 what was going to go into the offering memorandum and 5 to get in touch with Sunbeam, Mr. Gluck. 6 Q. When you said to discuss with him what was 7 going to go into the offering memorandum, were you 8 focusing on what was going to be said in the offering 9 memorandum relating to Sunbeam's first quarter '98 10 performance? 11 A. Yes, the sales numbers. 12 Q. Did you succeed in reaching Mr. Harlow? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Where was he located, do you know? 15 A. I believe he was at his house. 16 Q. In Florida? 17 A. In Florida. 18 Q. And what did you tell Mr. Harlow when you got 19 him on the phone? 20 A. Similarly, that they wanted to put the press 21 release into the document and that I didn't think it 22 was a good idea, given the aggressiveness and the 23 forward-looking statement that was being made. 24 Q. Do you recall what Mr. Harlow said to you? 25 A. He agreed with me, and we got Mr. Gluck on

Page 77 1 the phone. 2 Q. How did you get Mr. Gluck on the phone? 3 A. I don't recall. I don't believe I -- I'm not 4 sure if I had the capability or Phil dialed him in, but 5 we had a three-way conversation. 6 Q. So Mr. Gluck, Mr. Harlow and you are all on 7 the telephone together at that point? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Was anyone else on the phone? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Was anyone else present in the room with you 12 when you had this conversation that you can recall? 13 A. No. I was in the pool room. 14 Q. And as far as you can recall now, you were by 15 yourself? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Tell me what you can recall of the 18 conversation that you had with Mr. Gluck and Mr. Harlow 19 at that point. 20 A. Just went through the press release, it was 21 aggressive and wasn't clear. And it was a very large 22 forward-looking statement and that it wasn't 23 appropriate in a bond offering. 24 And the consensus was at the time that we all 25 agreed; however, that because I don't think Mr. Gluck	Page 79 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. So did that conclude your conversation with 3 Mr. Gluck at that point? 4 A. Yes. Mr. Gluck and Mr. Harlow continued the 5 conversation. I got off the phone to go back to the 6 room to relay that, that my partner as well as 7 Mr. Gluck agreed with me, and that they were going to 8 continue the conversation and get in touch with 9 Mr. Fanin. 10 Q. Who did you make that statement to? 11 A. When I walked back in the room, to the, 12 again, to whoever was in the room. 13 Q. Do you remember if Mr. Tyree was there? 14 A. Yes, he was. 15 Q. What happened at that point that you recall? 16 A. My colleague, Mr. Brockelman, asked me to 17 leave the room with him. And he informed me that the 18 conversation around the table was, was very derogatory 19 towards me and that a lot of bad language was being 20 used about me, who the fuck do I think I am and why 21 didn't he tell me about this prior? And basically that 22 I was, you know, cocky, and so on and so forth. 23 Q. You said it was bad language being used about 24 you, derogatory language. 25 Did Mr. Brockelman tell you what was being
Page 78 1 was involved in the press release, he deferred to get 2 in touch with Mr. Fanin, and I think her name was Janet 3 Kelly. 4 Q. So Mr. Gluck -- is it your testimony that 5 Mr. Gluck agreed with you and Mr. Harlow that it would 6 be inappropriate to include the contents of the press 7 release as the statement concerning where Sunbeam was 8 at so far in the first quarter of '98? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Did Mr. Gluck tell you whether he had been 11 involved in preparing a press release? 12 A. I recall he said he was not intimately 13 involved. I don't know if he was at all. I think he 14 knew about it, but he wasn't really involved. 15 Q. Did Mr. Gluck say anything to you about his 16 views of the press release by itself? Taking it out of 17 the context of whether it's going to go into the 18 offering memorandum, did he offer any views concerning 19 the statements made in the press release? 20 A. Generally I recall that he didn't like the 21 way that it was written. I don't remember specifically 22 on the numbers or anything like that. 23 Q. You don't have a recollection of what he 24 said, but you remember he didn't like the contents of 25 the press release?	Page 80 1 said? Did he use any of the words? 2 A. Basically "Who the fuck does this guy think 3 he is," basically is what I recall. 4 Q. What happened after you had this side 5 conversation with Mr. Brockelman? 6 A. I remember walking back into the conference 7 room and asking Mr. Lurie and Mr. Tyree to have a side 8 conversation in the conference room but over to the 9 side, and asking Mr. Tyree if he had anything to say to 10 me. 11 I said, you know, "My colleague says that you 12 have some words to say about me, and if you have 13 something to say, say it to my face." 14 And he basically asked me, he says, "Are 15 these guys fucking with me," was the exact quote. "Is 16 Sunbeam fucking with us? Is Sunbeam fucking with me? 17 And are these guys, you know, going to make their 18 numbers?" 19 And, you know, I was obviously very upset and 20 pissed off about the comments and the tone. And, you 21 know, obviously we were in disagreement with the press 22 release. 23 Q. I'm sorry, whose comments and tone are you 24 referring to? 25 A. Mr. Tyree specifically.

Page 81 1 And I basically said to Mr. Tyree that, you 2 know, "I'm a conservative accountant, that, you know, I 3 can't specifically answer if they're fucking with you. 4 I haven't seen any of the sales projections that you've 5 seen or whatever it is that they have given you, that 6 I've done basic math, that they have done a million 7 dollars in sales a day for the first 72 days and now 8 they have to do" -- whatever it was, 12 to $15 million 9 in sales for the next-- it was, I don't remember the 10 date, but it was, you know, let's say 17 days, whatever 11 the numbers were, and that I was very skeptical, that I 12 remember saying to him that I don't think this 13 company's turned around. 14 No one has ever seen an Al Dunlap company 15 ever turned around, and if it is turned around and he 16 has the numbers, he's going to make the numbers. And 17 I'm going to make sure that they make the numbers and 18 I'm going to send people to every shipping dock in the 19 country in the world that I have to, if I have to, to 20 make sure that they do make the numbers. 21 I said to him, "You better hope to God that 22 they do, because if not, you're all going to get sued." 23 And I left the room. 24 Q. Did anyone before you left the room say 25 anything in response to your comments to you?	Page 83 1 specifically if I was faxed or handed this by the folks 2 from Morgan Stanley after our conversation that I just 3 discussed with you. 4 Q. Let me show you what's previously been marked 5 as CPH Exhibit Number 16, sir. It's a one-page 6 document, bears Bates number Morgan Stanley 7 confidential 28858. 8 Is that the document that was handed to you 9 that night? 10 MR. MOSCATO: Well, can I just clarify one 11 thing? Are you asking the basic form of the 12 document? Does your question include all of the 13 writing on the document? 14 MR. MARKOWSKI: For now I'm including 15 everything right now. 16 MR. MOSCATO: So the question is do you 17 recall whether this document containing all the 18 writing on the document was handed to you? 19 THE WITNESS: The handwriting, I'm not sure. 20 I mean I've seen several renditions of the same 21 document with different handwriting on it. 22 What I've seen, what I recall is the actual 23 typed numbers and words as well as the writing on 24 the bottom. 25 MR. MARKOWSKI: Let me show you what we're
Page 82 1 A. No, not that I recall. 2 Q. Were your comments well received by 3 Mr. Tyree, as far as you could tell? 4 A. I left the room. He was, for lack of a 5 better word, stunned. 6 Q. Mr. Bornstein, did you tell Mr. Tyree that 7 night that you intended to have Andersen personnel 8 monitor Sunbeam's shipping docks at the end of the 9 first quarter of 1998? 10 A. Yes, I did. 11 Q. Did you explain to him why you intended to do 12 that? 13 A. To make sure that they had borders and the 14 product was built and shipped. 15 Q. Did anyone that night, Mr. Bornstein, provide 16 you with any documents concerning Sunbeam's sales plan 17 for the rest of the first quarter? 18 A. Yeah, I believe after that conversation, I 19 went back and made another phone call. And I believe, 20 as a result of Mr. Fanin, them calling Mr. Fanin and 21 discussing it, that a document or one-page spreadsheet 22 was provided to myself, Phil. I'm not sure who else 23 got it. I know that the folks from Morgan Stanley had 24 it. 25 And I believe I was faxed -- I don't recall	Page 84 1 going to mark for identification as CPH Exhibit 2 Number 121. It also is a one-page document, bears 3 Bates number LAB43. 4 MR. MOSCATO: There is no question pending. 5 MR. MARKOWSKI: We're going to change the 6 videotape right now. 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off video 8 record on tape number one. We'll be back on tape 9 number two. The time on the monitor is 11:15 a.m. 10 (Discussion held off the record.) 11 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 12 record. It is tape number two. The time on the 13 monitor, 11:15 a.m. 14 (CPH Exhibit No. 121 was marked for 15 identification.) 16 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 17 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I've handed you CPH Exhibit 18 Number 121. 19 Have you seen this document before? 20 A. 121, I don't specifically remember. Again, 21 I've seen the general, this general -- this is what I 22 got. I believe the actual copy I got, I attached to a 23 memorandum that I drafted sometime after the night at 24 the printer's. 25 Q. The typed portion of this, does this appear

Page 85 1 to be the information that was provided to you at the 2 printer -- 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. -- on the night of March 19th? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. When you saw this, did it give you comfort 7 with respect to Sunbeam's ability to accomplish Wall 8 Street's expectations for first quarter sales? 9 A. No, it did not. 10 Q. What conclusions did you reach after 11 reviewing this document that night? 12 A. That the numbers were even more aggressive 13 than I thought. 14 Q. And they were more aggressive than you had 15 thought for what reason, sir? 16 A. Because they had close to $100 million of 17 sales that haven't been ordered yet. 18 Q. Built into their sales plan for the balance 19 of the quarter? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. So Sunbeam was counting in its plan to get to 22 at least $253 million, by your count, approximately 23 $100 million in product sales that hadn't even been 24 ordered yet at that point, correct? 25 MR. MOSCATO: Well, you know, I object to the	Page 87 1 trying to get you to back off of the statements that 2 you had made? 3 MR. CLARE: Same objection. 4 THE WITNESS: I believe he was, yes. 5 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 6 Q. Did you? 7 A. No, I did not. 8 Q. What was the final decision that night, sir, 9 concerning what would be put in the offering memorandum 10 relating to Sunbeam's performance to that point in the 11 first quarter of 1998? 12 MR. MOSCATO: Number one, I object. I would 13 like some clarification when you answer as to 14 whose decision it was, who made the decision. 15 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 16 Q. Let me ask a little different, maybe more 17 pointed question, sir. 18 What was ultimately put in the offering 19 memorandum concerning Sunbeam's performance to that 20 date for the first quarter of 1998? 21 A. I believe it was the press release, the 22 wording from the press release, but I'd have to look at 23 the document. 24 Q. I'm going to show you, Mr. Bornstein, what 25 previously has been marked as CPH Exhibit Number 10.
Page 86 1 rounding, but you can answer. 2 THE WITNESS: I'm okay with the rounding, 3 sorry. 86 rounds up to 100 million to me. 4 Yeah, it was just numbers on the page to me. 5 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 6 Q. So this document didn't cause you looking at 7 it to conclude that Sunbeam's statements in the press 8 release about its expectations for the first quarter 9 were reasonable, correct? 10 A. No. 11 Q. What was your reaction, sir, to the manner in 12 which Mr. Tyree had treated you that night? 13 A. Can you repeat the question? 14 Q. What was your reaction, sir, to the manner in 15 which Mr. Tyree had treated you on the night of 16 March 19th when these issues came up? 17 A. I was, felt like I was being treated 18 disrespectfully, not being listened to. 19 Q. Did you think that Mr. Tyree was trying to 20 steamroll you in any way? 21 MR. CLARE: Object to the form and object to 22 foundation, calls for speculation, what Mr. Tyree 23 was trying to do. 24 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 25 Q. By that I mean, sir, do you think he was	Page 88 1 It's a document entitled Offering Memorandum, 2 214 billion-dollar Sunbeam zero coupon convertible 3 senior subordinated debentures, due 2018, dated 4 March 19, 1998, bears Bates number CP33169 through 5 33240. 6 A. I just want to check the press release. 7 I believe the first paragraph of the press 8 release was put in verbatim into the document. 9 Q. And where do you see that, sir? 10 A. On Recent Announcements, page eight of the 11 offering memorandum, Exhibit CPH 10. 12 Q. So the contents of the press release 13 ultimately were placed into the offering memorandum, 14 correct? 15 A. Right. And I recall that the last paragraph 16 on page eight was something that I insisted on being 17 put in there. 18 Q. The last paragraph refers to what, sir? 19 A. It's a reference to the forward-looking 20 statement and risk factor sections, which basically it 21 reads, "Actual results could differ materially from the 22 statements in the press release due to various factors, 23 including those set forth in risk factors, management 24 discussion analysis and financial condition end results 25 of operation and business. Was it your decision, sir, to repeat the 3 contents of the March 19 press release in the offering 4 memorandum as in the manner we see here on page eight? 5 A. No, it was Sunbeam, the company's decision to 6 do that. 7 Q. Did you recommend, by the end of the evening 8 had you changed your mind with respect to that being 9 appropriate? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Did at any point in the evening to your 12 knowledge Arthur Andersen advise the company that that 13 was the appropriate form of disclosure concerning 14 Sunbeam's first quarter results? 15 A. Not that I recall. 16 Q. Do you know, how was that decision 17 communicated to you, the decision to put the contents 18 of the press release in the offering memorandum over 19 the objections that you had raised? 20 A. I don't remember specifically. I think I got 21 a phone call late in the evening, two, three o'clock in 22 the morning from, either directly from Janet Kelly or 23 from Phil Harlow saying that it was the company's 24 decision to put the same wording in. 25 Q. Were you personally at the end of the evening	Page 91 1 answer the question based on those conversations, 2 don't attempt to read his mind. 3 THE WITNESS: Again, I alluded to a 4 memorandum that I wrote about the night, and I 5 believe that would refresh my memory, but I do 6 believe Mr. Harlow was in agreement with myself. 7 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 8 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I'm not going to ask you to 9 read the entire offering memorandum while we sit here. 10 It will speak for itself on this issue, but do you know 11 from your recollection of having worked on it whether 12 that document contains the specific information that's 13 set forth in the management March 16 representation 14 letter to Arthur Andersen and Andersen's March 19 15 comfort letter relating to Sunbeam's actual sales 16 results for the first two months of 1998? 17 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 18 THE WITNESS: I don't believe that it does, 19 no. 20 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 21 Q. Do you know if it contains a statement that 22 Sunbeam's sales for the first two months of 1998 are 23 below Sunbeam's sales for the first two months of 1997? 24 A. I don't believe that it does, no. 25 Q. Do you know if it states that the reason why
Page 90 1 satisfied with that conclusion? 2 A. No, I was not; however, I have the caveat 3 that again, I went along, I went along with the 4 decision by the company. It was the company's 5 decision, the company's document, and that I would 6 strongly advise not putting it in, and also putting 7 the, if it was going to be put in, that it would be 8 cross referenced to the risk factors and have a 9 statement that, you know, that the actual results could 10 differ materially from the wording here. 11 Q. So at the beginning of the evening on 12 March 19 it was your personal view that it was a bad 13 idea to repeat the contents of the press release in the 14 offering memorandum, and it remained your view that 15 that was a bad idea right through the finalization of 16 the document; is that right? 17 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for speculation. 23 MR. MOSCATO: Don't speculate. Just answer 24 the question if you can based on conversations you 25 had with Mr. Harlow that evening. If you can't	Page 92 1 Sunbeam's sales for the first quarter of 1998 may be 2 lower than Sunbeam's sales for the first quarter of 3 1997 at the end of that quarter, that the primary 4 reason for that was Sunbeam's acceleration of grill 5 sales into the fourth quarter of 1997? 6 A. Specifically, no, but someone who actually 7 reads the statement might come to that conclusion. 8 Q. But that statement is not made; is that 9 correct, sir? 10 A. This statement is about the Early Buy 11 program, but one would have to make a thesis that that 12 could in fact be the reason. 13 Q. But the specific statement in the management 14 representation letter that that is the primary reason 15 for the shortfall is not made, correct? 16 A. I don't believe so, no. 17 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as CPH 18 Exhibit Number 122 sir, a two-page document, bears 19 Bates AA105868 -- excuse me. 20 Let me show you a document that we've put 21 together. It's got two different Bates numbers that 22 aren't consecutive, but I believe the document is, was 23 originally part of a single two-page memo. It bears 24 Bates number AA105868 and AA105248, and ask you if 25 you've seen this document before, sir.

Page 93 1 (CPH Exhibit No. 122 was marked for 2 identification.) 3 THE WITNESS: No, I don't recall ever seeing 4 this document. 5 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 6 Q. I take it you don't recognize the 7 handwriting? 8 A. No. 9 Q. It's not yours? 10 A. No, it's not. 11 Q. Mr. Bornstein, let me show you what we 12 previously marked as CPH Exhibit Number 114. 13 A. I'm sorry, I just want to -- just figuring 14 out what this is, but that's okay. 15 Q. There is nothing you want to add to your 16 prior answer? 17 A. No, it appears this was probably something 18 that was used to draft the paragraph that went into 19 this document. 20 Q. That's why I asked you about it, if you 21 remembered seeing it before. 22 A. I don't remember seeing itself, no. 23 Q. Let me show you what we previously marked as 24 CPH Exhibit Number 114, sir. It's a two-page document, 25 the first page of which, the Bates numbers on the	Page 95 1 Q. Can I refer you back, sir, to Exhibit 121? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. The two documents are the same, are they not, 4 sir? 5 A. Yeah, one is a better copy than the other. 6 Q. All right. 7 MR. MOSCATO: Counsel, do you have a copy of 8 this that you could actually read all of the 9 handwritten notes? 10 MR. MARKOWSKI: I think that's the best we've 11 been able to do. 12 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 13 Q. For what purpose did you prepare your 14 March 31 memorandum, Mr. Bornstein? 15 A. To document the material events that occurred 16 the night at the printer. 17 Q. Did you want to have a record of what you had 18 said to Mr. Tyree? 19 A. Yes, I did. 20 Q. And why was that? 21 A. I thought it was a prudent thing to do, given 22 the differences of opinion that transpired the night at 23 the printer. 24 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I want to move on to something 25 different for a moment.
Page 94 1 document are AAR10538 through AAR15040. 2 A. Okay. 3 Q. The first page of the document is, bears 4 Arthur Andersen letterhead and is dated March 31, 1998, 5 and a memorandum from Lawrence A. Bornstein to the 6 files, West Palm Beach. 7 I ask you to look at this document, sir, and 8 tell me whether you can identify it for me. 9 Can you identify it for me, sir? 10 A. It's a memorandum that I drafted, looks like 11 several days after the March 19th night at the printer 12 to document, document the discussions that we've been 13 speaking about. 14 Q. Did you personally draft this document, sir? 15 A. Yes, I did. 16 Q. And in drafting it, did you attempt to be 17 accurate at the time? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. The third page of the document, sir, can you 20 tell me what that is? 21 A. That is the fax that I received from Sunbeam 22 that we were talking about before that showed the 23 estimate of sales, the date and the potential orders to 24 meet the $253 million expectation that they put in the 25 press release.	Page 96 1 A. Okay. 2 Q. Do you recall being involved in a conference 3 call earlier in 1998 with Morgan Stanley personnel 4 relating to Sunbeam's accounting practices? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. Do you recall that call happening on or about 7 March 12? 8 A. I don't remember specifically when it was, 9 but it's possible that was the time frame. 10 Q. Was it approximately a week before the events 11 at the printer? 12 A. It was probably before the original, the 13 original 144 memorandum was released, before they went 14 out to, on the road show or priced the bonds. 15 MR. MOSCATO: Larry, what do you mean by the 16 original 144 memorandum? 17 THE WITNESS: There was a, I think there was 18 one that -- there is a different one than that one 19 that I think talks about the $500 million offering 20 size. 21 Typically you have an original document 22 that's kind of based on the best estimate at the 23 time, and they use that to market the bonds. 24 Then they go out and do the road show and 25 market the bonds, and then they price and they

Page 97 1 update the document. So I believe the due 2 diligence call that you're talking about was done 3 prior to the first document. 4 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 5 Q. Before the road show started? 6 A. Yes. 7 MR. MOSCATO: Sorry, counsel. I just wanted 8 to -- 9 MR. MARKOWSKI: That's fine, appreciate it. 10 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 11 Q. Let me show you what we previously marked, 12 sir, as CPH Exhibit 31. It's a one-page memorandum on 13 Morgan Stanley letterhead from John Tyree to Sunbeam 14 Financing Team; subject, accounting due diligence call, 15 dated March 7, 1998. Bears Bates number SASMF10709. 16 Have you seen this document before, sir? 17 A. I don't remember specifically, no. 18 Q. Does it appear to relate to the accounting 19 due diligence call you participated in? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. Do you see that there is an entry -- there is 22 a schedule on this document, correct? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And there is an entry for a time for a 25 conference call with Arthur Andersen, correct?	Page 99 1 Mr. Harlow and myself went through the list and made 2 notations or discussed what was going to be said on the 3 call. 4 Q. And then Mr. Harlow ultimately was the 5 spokesperson when the call took place? 6 A. Yeah, he did 98 percent of the speaking, and 7 I filled in when necessary. 8 Q. Were you two together when the call took 9 place? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Where was Mr. Harlow? 12 A. He was in Florida in his office. 13 Q. And where were you? 14 A. I was at Global Financial Press working on 15 the document. 16 Q. Just an earlier occasion when you were at the 17 printer working on the offering memorandum? 18 A. Yeah, there was probably several days that we 19 were working at the printer, that being one of them. 20 MR. MARKOWSKI: Let me show you, 21 Mr. Bornstein, what we'll mark as CPH Exhibit 22 Number 123. It's a four-page document, bears 23 Bates number AA55761 through 55764, first page of 24 which is on Arthur Andersen letterhead and is a 25 memorandum from Lawrence A. Bornstein, West Palm
Page 98 1 A. Correct. 2 Q. And that time is 12:00 p.m. on March 12? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And the name identified there is yours, 5 correct? 6 A. Correct. 7 Q. Do you recall, do you see that the time for 8 the next call with KPMG is scheduled for 12:30? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Do you recall there was approximately 30 11 minutes allotted to this accounting due diligence call 12 with Morgan Stanley? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Were you in fact the spokesperson for Arthur 15 Andersen during that telephone call? 16 A. No, I was not. 17 Q. Who was? 18 A. Phil Harlow. 19 Q. What -- did you do anything, sir -- were you 20 involved in the call? Did you personally participate? 21 A. Yes, I was. 22 Q. What did you do to prepare for the call, if 23 anything? 24 A. I believe we were provided a list of 25 questions that were going to be asked, and that	Page 100 1 Beach, to the files; subject, due diligence call 2 with Morgan Stanley. 3 (CPH Exhibit No. 123 was marked for 4 identification.) 5 6 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 7 Q. Can you identify this document for me, sir? 8 A. Yeah, let me take a minute to read it. 9 Q. Sure. 10 A. Okay. 11 Q. Can you identify it for me, sir. 12 A. It was a memorandum that I put together to 13 document the due diligence call from, I guess it's 14 March 12th. Looks like -- I have noted here the 15 request is March 7th, so these dates coincide with the 16 previous exhibit. 17 Q. Right. The March 7th -- your memorandum 18 indicates, CPH Exhibit Number 123 indicates that 19 Andersen was requested on March 7 to participate in a 20 due diligence call with Morgan Stanley, correct? 21 A. Right. 22 Q. And we were just looking at CPH Exhibit 23 Number 31 that set up a date for that call to occur on 24 March 12, correct? 25 A. Correct.

Page 101 1 Q. And the date of that memo is March 7? 2 A. Yes. And then in addition is the list of 3 questions that I mentioned earlier that we were 4 provided with my notations of what was going to be said 5 on the call. 6 You can see a number of the items are crossed 7 out, which means that they were discussed. 8 Q. So the document has two, there is two pieces 9 to the document, sir? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. First two pages are a memo that you prepared 12 in July of '98? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And the second two pages are the list of 15 questions that Morgan Stanley provided to Andersen in 16 advance of the call? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And the notations there relating to what 19 would be said? 20 A. Yeah, and again, I believe that everything on 21 here was, was discussed. 22 Q. And you and Mr. Harlow had agreed that in 23 response to these questions, this is the information 24 that Morgan Stanley would be provided, correct? 25 A. For the most part, yes.	Page 103 1 Q. Someone from Bank of America was on the call, 2 but you don't have that name, correct? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. That's the same John Tyree that you had, you 5 met with and spoke with on March 19 at Global 6 Financial, correct? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Did anyone, sir, from Morgan Stanley suggest 9 to you either during this call or at some other point 10 that it would be inappropriate for Mr. Gluck, as a 11 representative of Sunbeam management, to listen in on 12 Morgan Stanley's due diligence call with Sunbeam's 13 outside auditors? 14 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 15 THE WITNESS: No, I don't recall that. 16 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 17 Q. That issue wasn't raised that you can recall? 18 A. No. I believe we were required to have 19 someone from the company present. 20 Q. Morgan Stanley didn't object, to your 21 knowledge? 22 A. Not that I recall. 23 Q. Do you recall, sir, that Mr. Harlow was 24 asked, among other things, to comment on how aggressive 25 Sunbeam was in its accounting policies?

Page 105 1 A. '97. 2 Q. Can you read the fourth item on that, on your 3 handwritten note, sir? 4 A. Yeah, I think it's -- no, I would be 5 speculating. The first three I can read. It says 6 aggressive/bill and hold, Encore 100 percent right of 7 return, EPI printer's. 8 The fourth one I can't -- it's my 9 handwriting. If you want to give me a few minutes, I 10 can probably figure it out. 11 Q. I'll come back. Let me focus on the first 12 three for a moment. 13 A. Right. 14 Q. The first three entries, aggressive/bill and 15 hold, Encore 100 percent right of return, and EPI 16 printers were all things said by Mr. Harlow to Morgan 17 Stanley during this March 12 conference call as 18 examples of Andersen's view that Sunbeam at least on 19 occasion was aggressive in its accounting positions? 20 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 21 THE WITNESS: Yes, I believe so. 22 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 23 Q. All of those items related to events that 24 occurred in 1997; is that correct? 25 A. Yes.	Page 107 1 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 2 Q. I'm putting aside the accounting. 3 Do you recall that Mr. Harlow or yourself 4 told Sunbeam that it was a poor business practice to 5 engage extensively in bill and hold sales? 6 MR. MOSCATO: I object again. 7 You can answer in your own words. 8 MR. CLARE: I object to the form. 9 THE WITNESS: I believe at one point that it 10 was said, but probably later than this. 11 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 12 Q. Okay. Do you recall -- with respect to 13 Encore and EPI, do you recall that Andersen took the 14 position that Sunbeam should reverse the accounting 15 treatment on these two transactions and not recognize 16 the sales revenue and profits in 1997? 17 A. I believe that was the case, yes. 18 Q. And do you recall that Sunbeam refused to do 19 that? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. In connection with finalizing the 1997 audit? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And you advised or Mr. Harlow advised Morgan 24 Stanley of those three situations during the March 12 25 conference call, correct?
Page 106 1 Q. All of them relate to revenue recognition; is 2 that correct? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Do you recall that on Encore and EPI -- well, 5 let me pause for a moment on bill and hold. 6 Do you recall that Andersen had raised its 7 reservations with Sunbeam relating to Sunbeam's 8 extensive use of bill and hold accounting for sales in 9 1997? 10 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 11 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. 12 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat the question? 13 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 14 Q. Do you recall that Andersen had raised with 15 Sunbeam its reservations about Sunbeam's business 16 practice of using extensively bill and hold accounting 17 and sales transactions for 1997 sales? 18 MR. MOSCATO: I object. 19 Larry, you don't have to adopt his language 20 in answering the question. Answer it in your own 21 words. 22 THE WITNESS: I don't consider it 23 reservation, but understanding of the accounting 24 policy in making sure that it met the rules and 25 that the appropriate testing was done.	Page 108 1 MR. CLARE: I object to the form. 2 THE WITNESS: Yes. 3 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 4 Q. Let me go to the fourth note that you've got 5 there that you're having some trouble deciphering. 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. You said you could speculate, and I guess I 8 invite that at this point, because maybe that will help 9 us figure out what that might be a reference to. 10 Do you have some thought with respect to what 11 this entry is either from your recollection or what you 12 can read here? 13 A. Looks like something, discount accurate, 14 either accuracy or accounting reports. I'm not -- I 15 don't know. 16 Q. Okay. 17 A. Sorry. 18 Q. During the March 12 conference call, sir, did 19 Morgan Stanley request an opportunity to review 20 Andersen's 1997 audit work papers? 21 A. I don't remember that specifically, no. 22 Q. Do you remember at any point Morgan Stanley 23 requesting an opportunity to review Andersen's 1997 24 audit work papers? 25 A. No.

Page 109 1 Q. Do you remember at any point Andersen asking 2 to review -- excuse me, do you remember at any point 3 Morgan Stanley asking to review Andersen's list of 4 proposed audit adjustments relating to the 1997 5 financial statements of Sunbeam? 6 A. No. 7 Q. Is it your recollection that Morgan Stanley 8 in fact did not request an opportunity to review your 9 work papers? 10 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 11 THE WITNESS: I don't believe so. 12 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 13 Q. When you say you don't believe so, you don't 14 believe that request was ever made? 15 A. No, I don't believe it was ever made. 16 MR. MOSCATO: Counsel, when you come to a 17 logical breaking point, can we take a two- or 18 three-minute break? 19 MR. MARKOWSKI: I can be finishing up I think 20 in the next ten minutes or so. 21 MR. MOSCATO: That's fine. 22 MR. MARKOWSKI: If you'd like to break 23 sooner, we can do that and finish up. 24 MR. MOSCATO: I'm indifferent. 25	Page 111 1 Q. This letter contains the same information 2 relating to Sunbeam sales for the first two months of 3 1998, correct? Net sales figures? If you look at 4 paragraph eight. 5 A. Yes. This is updated through, has the same 6 sales number, but it actually has net income or loss 7 through March 1st. 8 Q. Right. In addition, it also provides the net 9 income for Sunbeam's performance in January and 10 February 1998, correct? 11 A. Correct. 12 Q. The March 16 letter only had net income 13 information for January; is that right? 14 A. Yes. 15 MR. MOSCATO: March 19 letter. 16 MR. MARKOWSKI: March 19 letter, I'm sorry. 17 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, it was the March -- 18 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 19 Q. The March 16 representation letter and the 20 March 19 comfort letter both only had net income 21 information through January, correct? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And this letter provides net income 24 information for both January and February of 1998, 25 correct?
Page 110 1 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 2 Q. Mr. Bornstein, do you recall that Arthur 3 Andersen provided a second comfort letter to Morgan 4 Stanley in connection with the debenture offering? 5 A. No. Could be a bring-down letter, but I'm 6 not sure. Have to look at it. 7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Let me show you, sir, what 8 we'll mark as CPH Exhibit Number 124. It's a 9 three-page document bearing Bates number AA30995 10 through 997. And it's a letter on Sunbeam 11 stationery dated March 23, 1998, to Arthur 12 Andersen. 13 (CPH Exhibit No. 124 was marked for 14 identification.) 15 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 16 Q. Can you identify this document for me, sir? 17 A. This appears to be an updated representation 18 letter from Sunbeam to Arthur Andersen in connection 19 with the comfort letter. 20 Q. And this letter is signed by Mr. Dunlap, 21 Mr. Kersh, Mr. Fanin and Mr. Gluck; is that correct? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. The same four people that signed the March 16 24 representation letter, correct? 25 A. Yes.	Page 112 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And it compares Sunbeam's net income for 3 January and February of 1998 to Sunbeam's net income 4 for the first two months of 1997, correct? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And it does that in paragraph eight? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. And what does that comparison show us? 9 A. Net income for the two months ended 10 March 2nd, 1997, of 9,765,000 and net loss of 11 41,190,000 for the two months ended in March of '98. 12 Q. So in the first two months of 1997 -- 13 A. I mean ended February, excuse me, first two 14 months of '98. 15 Q. So for the first two months of 1997, Sunbeam, 16 according to this document, had a profit of $9,765,000, 17 correct? 18 A. Correct. 19 Q. And in the first two months of 1998, this 20 document shows that Sunbeam had a net loss of 21 $41,190,000, correct? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Swaying of more than $50 million; is that 24 correct? 25 A. Yes.

1 Q. In a negative direction, correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I'm going to show you what

4 was -- I'm sorry, it was already marked.

5 Mr. Bornstein, let me show you what has been

6 previously marked as CPH Exhibit Number 112. It's a

7 four-page document bearing Bates number CPH 129613

8 through CPH 129616.

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. We'll mark this and I'll ask you if you can

11 identify it for me.

12 MR. CLARE: I thought this was previously

13 marked.

14 MR. MARKOWSKI: I'm sorry, I got myself

15 confused again.

16 BY MR. MARKOWSKI:

17 Q. Sir, let me show you what we previously

18 marked as Exhibit Number 112. It bears Bates number

19 129613 through 129616, and ask you if you can identify

20 that document for me.

21 A. This appears to be the bring-down letter to 22 Morgan Stanley related to the bond offering.

23 Q. And this letter is dated March 25, 1998; is

24 that correct?

25 A. Yes.

Page 114

1 Q. And in paragraph E of the letter --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. -- at the top of the second page of the 4 letter itself?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. The net sales information and net income

7 information for the first two months of 1998 is

8 provided, correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And that's the same information that Sunbeam

11 provided to Morgan Stanley that we just reviewed in the 12 March 23 representation letter, correct?

13 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. I think you

14 misspoke, Bob.

15 THE WITNESS: Yeah, you provided to Arthur

16 Andersen, not Morgan Stanley.

17 BY MR. MARKOWSKI:

18 Q. I'm sorry. Let me ask a new question.

19 The net income and net sales information in

20 paragraph E of Exhibit CPH Exhibit 112 for the first

21 two months of 1998 is the same as the net sales and net

22 income information contained in the Sunbeam

23 representation letter to Arthur Andersen dated

24 March 23, 1998, correct?

25 A. Correct.

Page 115

1 Q. And it shows a $50 million decline in profits

2 for that time period from the first two months of 1997,

3 correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And it shows the net sales for the first two

6 months of 1998 are about 50 percent of Sunbeam's net

7 sales for the first two months of 1997, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Do you know who signed this letter on behalf

10 of Arthur Andersen?

11 A. Doesn't look like my handwriting. It might

12 have been Phil Harlow's.

13 Q. Do you know what the purpose of this letter

14 dated March 25 is, Mr. Bornstein?

15 A. I don't specifically know, to be honest with 16 you. It's typical that you issue a bring-down letter.

17 I don't recall specifically if this is when the money

18 is released to Sunbeam or not.

19 Q. Do you recall that the debenture offering

20 closed on March 25, 1998?

21 A. It might have. I don't recall.

22 Q. Do you recall that Sunbeam requested that

23 Arthur Andersen give Morgan Stanley a bring-down due

24 diligence letter prior to the actual closing of the 25 bond offering?

Page 116

1 A. I don't recall who requested it, if it was

2 Sunbeam or Morgan Stanley.

3 Q. But you do recall that a request was made

4 either by Morgan Stanley or by Sunbeam that Morgan

5 Stanley provide an updated comfort letter at the time

6 of the closing of the bond offering?

7 A. I believe that's the case, yes.

8 Q. Do you know whether this letter was delivered

9 to Morgan Stanley prior to the close of the bond

10 offering?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Do you know who would have been responsible

13 for delivering this letter to Morgan Stanley?

14 A. It could have been myself or Dennis Pastrana.

15 Q. And as you sit here, you can't recall

16 precisely when this letter was delivered to Morgan

17 Stanley?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Do you know that it was?

20 A. Specifically, no.

21 Q. Would it have been signed by Arthur Andersen

22 if it wasn't finalized for delivery to Morgan Stanley?

23 MR. CLARE: Objection to the form, calls for

24 speculation.

25 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

Page 117 1 MR. MARKOWSKI: Why don't we take our break 2 right now and I'll see if I'm finished. 3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off video 4 record. The time on the monitor is 12:03 p.m. 5 (Thereupon, a recess was taken.) 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 7 record. The time on the monitor, 12:18 p.m. 8 MR. MARKOWSKI: Mr. Bornstein, that concludes 9 my examination for this morning. 10 THE WITNESS: Okay, thank you. 11 CROSS (LAWRENCE A. BORNSTEIN) 12 BY MR. CLARE: 13 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Bornstein. Again, my 14 name is Tom Clare. I'm with the law firm of Kirkland & 15 Ellis in Washington, D.C., and I represent Morgan 16 Stanley in this matter, and I'm going to ask you some 17 questions this afternoon. 18 If you don't understand any of my questions 19 or want me to rephrase them, I'll be happy to do it. 20 I know you've been deposed numerous times before and 21 know the rules. 22 A. Okay. 23 Q. But make sure that you understand my question 24 before you answer it and I'll be happy to try to 25 rephrase and make things more clear.	Page 119 1 Q. Was this a telephone conversation or an 2 in-person meeting? 3 A. Telephone. 4 Q. Was it a single telephone conversation or 5 multiple? 6 A. I believe it was two phone conversations. 7 Q. Same person on both calls? 8 A. I believe so. 9 Q. And you don't recall the name of the person 10 on either call? 11 A. No. 12 Q. During these telephone conversations, both 13 conversations were with lawyers from Mr. Markowski's 14 firm, Jenner & Block? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Were there more than one lawyer on the phone? 17 A. I believe there were. 18 Q. And tell me what you remember about those 19 telephone calls, what was said, what they said to you 20 and what you said back. 21 A. The first one was that they were going to be 22 sending me some documentation and wanted me to take a 23 look at it if I didn't mind, and then give them a call 24 back once I had a chance to look at it, because they 25 wanted to ask me a few questions.
Page 118 1 Mr. Bornstein, were you contacted earlier 2 this year by attorneys representing Coleman (Parent) 3 Holdings about this lawsuit? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And can you place in time for me when you 6 were contacted? 7 A. It was probably two or three months ago. 8 Q. And do you remember the name of the person 9 that called you? 10 A. Not specifically, no. 11 Q. Was it somebody from Mr. Markowski's firm, 12 Jenner & Block? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And you said you think this was a few months 15 ago? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Are you aware that Andersen had entered into 18 a settlement agreement with Coleman (Parent) Holdings 19 relating to these transactions? 20 Were you aware of that fact? 21 A. No, I was not. 22 Q. So you don't have an understanding one way or 23 the other of the timing of when that settlement 24 agreement would have taken place? 25 A. No.	Page 120 1 They asked me if I was represented by counsel 2 at the time. At the time I told them no, I was not, 3 and that I would be willing to give them some time. 4 Q. Did they tell you that Coleman (Parent) 5 Holdings had filed a lawsuit against Morgan Stanley? 6 A. I believe they did, yes. 7 Q. And did they ask whether you would be willing 8 to be a witness against Morgan Stanley in that lawsuit? 9 A. No. 10 Q. So just to make sure I understand correctly, 11 the first telephone call was fairly short, they asked 12 you if you would be willing to spend some time looking 13 at some documents? 14 A. Yes. I believe they were going to tell me 15 they -- they were going to send me the, I think there 16 were two lawsuits, one I think Coleman suing Morgan 17 Stanley, and another one where I think it was Morgan 18 Stanley suing Coleman maybe. 19 I'm not sure. It was two separate lawsuits. 20 Q. Was there anything else discussed on that 21 first telephone call? 22 A. No. 23 Q. And did they in fact send you some documents 24 to look at? 25 A. Yes.

Page 121 1 Q. Do you recall what the documents were? 2 A. I believe it was the two lawsuits that we, I 3 mentioned earlier. 4 Q. So the complaint that was filed by Coleman 5 against Morgan Stanley was one of the documents? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And then a complaint that was filed by Morgan 8 Stanley against Coleman? 9 A. I believe so. 10 Q. Were those the only two documents that you 11 were sent? 12 A. I believe so. 13 Q. Did you receive any of the documents that you 14 were questioned about this morning that were sent to 15 you? 16 A. No. 17 Q. During the second telephone call, did they 18 ask you questions about the lawsuit or the documents 19 that they had sent you? 20 A. No, not specifically. 21 Q. Tell me what you remember about the second 22 telephone call. 23 A. They asked me some general questions on the 24 timing of the comfort letters, when those were released 25 and delivered to Morgan Stanley.	Page 123 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. So your name was put in the complaint without 3 your permission, without your knowledge? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Did, during either of these telephone calls, 6 did anyone representing Coleman ask whether you agreed 7 with the statements that were made in the complaint 8 that was filed against Morgan Stanley? 9 A. No. 10 Q. Did they ask whether you had a belief that 11 Morgan Stanley had conspired with Sunbeam to commit 12 fraud? 13 A. No. 14 Q. Do you believe that Morgan Stanley conspired 15 with Sunbeam to commit fraud as you sit here today? 16 A. I have no knowledge of that, no. 17 Q. So the answer is no, you don't believe that 18 Morgan Stanley conspired with Sunbeam to commit fraud? 19 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 20 question, misstates his testimony. 21 THE WITNESS: You're asking me if I have an 22 opinion today in hindsight? 23 BY MR. CLARE: 24 Q. I'm asking based on everything that you know 25 about the interactions that you had with Morgan Stanley
Page 122 1 And then asked me some questions about my 2 conversation with Mr. Tyree. 3 Q. Is that all you remember? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Did you read the documents that they sent 6 you? 7 A. I believe I did, yes. 8 Q. Did you notice that your name was included in 9 the complaint that Coleman had filed against Morgan 10 Stanley? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Did you have any discussion with the lawyers 13 about that, the fact that your name had been included? 14 A. No, not specifically, no. 15 Q. Did anybody from Coleman, and I'm 16 specifically referring to their lawyers, ask you if you 17 would mind if your name and a description of your 18 testimony was included in the complaint that they were 19 going to file against Morgan Stanley before it was 20 filed? 21 A. No. 22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 23 question. 24 THE WITNESS: No, it wasn't. 25	Page 124 1 and the interactions that you had with Sunbeam, whether 2 you think that Morgan Stanley conspired with Sunbeam to 3 commit fraud. 4 A. I have no idea. I have my opinions of the 5 work that Morgan Stanley did, but I have no idea if 6 they conspired to commit fraud. 7 MR. MOSCATO: Just answer the specific 8 question. 9 THE WITNESS: No, I do not. 10 BY MR. CLARE: 11 Q. And no, you don't have an opinion, or no, you 12 do not believe that Morgan Stanley conspired with 13 Sunbeam to commit fraud? 14 MR. MOSCATO: I think he said he didn't have 15 an opinion. 16 THE WITNESS: I don't have an opinion. 17 BY MR. CLARE: 18 Q. Okay. Do you have any evidence or 19 information in your mind that Morgan Stanley conspired 20 with Sunbeam to commit fraud? 21 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry. 22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to the form of the 23 question. 24 MR. MOSCATO: I don't understand. 25

Page 125 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. I asked if you had a belief or an opinion, 3 and you stated that you did not have an opinion or 4 belief. 5 MR. MOSCATO: And you're not happy with that 6 answer? 7 MR. CLARE: No, I'm fine with that answer, 8 but regardless of whether or not you have an 9 opinion or a belief, is there any information in 10 your mind, is there any evidence in your mind that 11 there was such a conspiracy between Morgan Stanley 12 and Sunbeam, or similarly, do you have no view on 13 that? 14 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 15 question. Are you asking him whether any of the 16 facts he knows are consistent with that? Is that 17 what you're trying to ask? 18 MR. CLARE: No, I'm asking -- he says he has 19 no opinion one way on the other on that. 20 THE WITNESS: I have no idea if they 21 committed fraud. I believe that they were 22 reckless and -- 23 MR. MOSCATO: Larry, answer the question, 24 please. 25 THE WITNESS: I have no idea if they	Page 127 1 an affidavit of any kind? 2 A. No. 3 Q. Is there anything else about those telephone 4 calls that you remember? 5 A. I believe I made a comment about the lawsuit 6 that was being filed by Morgan Stanley against Coleman 7 with respect to representations about synergies. I 8 think I made a comment about that. 9 Q. What was your comment about that? 10 A. That I thought it was a silly thing to make 11 an accusation about, because I never, I never had seen 12 a seller make representation of cost savings, so I just 13 thought that was interesting and not on point, I guess. 14 Q. Do you have any personal knowledge based on 15 your experience in 1997 or 1998 what representations 16 were made by Coleman to Sunbeam about synergies? 17 A. No. 18 Q. So you don't have any firsthand evidence or 19 comment on that? 20 A. No. 21 Q. It was a comment on the legal theory? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. I want to talk about March 1998, and 24 specifically the very beginning of March 1998, the 25 first week. There was some testimony about that this
Page 126 1 committed fraud or not. I can't answer that. 2 MR. MARKOWSKI: That's for the jury to 3 decide. I don't know why we're asking 4 Mr. Bornstein to rule on that. 5 MR. MOSCATO: Larry, you have to be very 6 disciplined on that. It's getting late in the 7 morning, but answer the specific question that 8 you're being asked, please, all right? Thank you. 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. Putting aside the question of fraud, let me 11 ask a more simple question. 12 Do you have any evidence that Morgan Stanley 13 was, intended to deceive Coleman? 14 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 15 question. He's testified about the evidence that 16 he has, and someone else will make a judgment 17 about its legal significance. 18 MR. CLARE: That's fine. 19 THE WITNESS: Will you repeat the question? 20 BY MR. CLARE: 21 Q. Do you have any evidence that Morgan Stanley 22 conspired with Sunbeam to deceive anybody? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Did the lawyers representing Coleman ask if 25 you'd be willing to sign any documents, declaration or	Page 128 1 morning. 2 You were in New York working on the offering 3 memorandum for the debenture offering? 4 A. I believe I was, yes. 5 Q. Mr. Pastrana was in Florida doing some post 6 audit work? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Including working on the comfort letters? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. And was Mr. Pastrana also working with your 11 company to close the books for Sunbeam for January and 12 February? 13 A. No. 14 Q. As part of Mr. Pastrana's work for the bond 15 offering, was one of the things he was tasked to look 16 at were sales figures for January and February 1998? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And Mr. Pastrana reported to you at some 19 point that the January and February 1998 sales figures 20 were lower than they were in the previous year, 21 correct? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And that was the first time you had heard 24 that information from anyone at Sunbeam? 25 A. Yes.

32 (Pages 125 to 128)

Page 129 1 Q. Did you know from any source at the end of 2 January whether the January '98 sales were lower than 3 the January '97 sales? 4 A. No, I don't remember specifically. 5 Q. Did in that time period Sunbeam close its 6 books every month so that January sales would have been 7 available separate from February? 8 A. I believe they were, yes. 9 Q. So January 1998 figures would have been 10 available at some point in February? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. And the February sales would have been 13 available at some point in early March? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And I think you said you believed this was in 16 the first week of March 1998 that you heard this about 17 January and February 1998? 18 A. Might have been the second one week. I'm not 19 100 percent sure. 20 Q. If we had a calendar from March 1998, would 21 that help you in placing the date? 22 A. Probably not. 23 Q. You discussed with Mr. Pastrana that 24 Sunbeam's lower year-over-year sales performance should 25 be disclosed to Morgan Stanley, correct?	Page 131 1 A. Right. 2 Q. And Morgan Stanley personnel were there? 3 A. Right. 4 Q. Was there any consideration given to you 5 informing Morgan Stanley there and then during the 6 drafting session? 7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Consideration by whom? 8 BY MR. CLARE: 9 Q. By you, Mr. Bornstein. 10 A. No. The question was never asked of me. 11 Q. Was that discussed with Mr. Harlow or 12 Mr. Gluck whether that might be one way to communicate 13 this information to Morgan Stanley? 14 MR. MOSCATO: The question was whether you 15 discussed that with Mr. Harlow and Mr. Gluck. 16 THE WITNESS: No. 17 BY MR. CLARE: 18 Q. Was there any discussion about how this 19 information should be disclosed to Morgan Stanley? 20 MR. MOSCATO: Objection, I think he answered 21 that a couple of questions ago, but go ahead. 22 THE WITNESS: That the company should 23 disclose it to them. 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. When you say the company, you're referring to
Page 130 1 A. Say that again. 2 Q. Did you discuss with Mr. Pastrana whether 3 Sunbeam's lower year-over-year sales performance needed 4 to be disclosed to Morgan Stanley? 5 A. I don't recall specifically talking to 6 Mr. Pastrana about that. 7 Q. But you do remember talking to Mr. Harlow 8 about it? 9 A. I remember talking to Mr. Harlow that the 10 company should be disclosing it to Morgan Stanley, yes. 11 Q. And you also had a conversation with 12 Mr. Gluck about that? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And those conversations took place within a 15 day or two of you first learning this information from 16 Mr. Pastrana? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Now you were in New York at the time working 19 on the bond offering? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And you were there working with 22 representatives from Morgan Stanley? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And you were at Global Financial Press 25 attending drafting sessions?	Page 132 1 Sunbeam? 2 A. Sunbeam. 3 Q. So it was your view and Mr. Harlow's view 4 that Sunbeam needed to disclose this information to 5 Morgan Stanley? 6 A. Yeah, to be honest with you, I'm not 7 100 percent sure they were aware of it or not, but it 8 was the company's responsibility to disclose the 9 information. 10 Q. And you and Mr. Harlow communicated that view 11 to Mr. Gluck at Sunbeam? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And you communicated to Mr. Gluck that you 14 believed it was Sunbeam's responsibility to communicate 15 this information to Morgan Stanley? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Did Mr. -- did you tell Mr. Gluck that you, 18 Arthur Andersen, were not going to tell Morgan Stanley 19 and that you were waiting for Sunbeam to disclose that 20 information? 21 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. 22 Did you say those words to Mr. Gluck? 23 THE WITNESS: No. 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. Did Mr. Gluck -- I'll withdraw that.

Page 133 1 Was there any discussion with Mr. Harlow or 2 Mr. Gluck when this disclosure would be made to Morgan 3 Stanley? 4 MR. MARKOWSKI: By whom? 5 MR. CLARE: By the company. 6 THE WITNESS: Again, I had no idea if Morgan 7 Stanley knew or didn't know. I just know they 8 never asked me the question. 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. But you and Mr. Harlow wanted to assure 11 yourselves that Morgan Stanley had been informed? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And you and Mr. Harlow told Mr. Gluck that 14 you thought it was the company's responsibility to tell 15 Morgan Stanley? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. And as part of those conversations, did you 18 or Mr. Harlow express a view as to when the company 19 ought to provide that information to Morgan Stanley? 20 A. As soon as possible. 21 Q. And did you communicate that to Mr. Gluck? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. You and Mr. Harlow told Mr. Gluck that that 24 information should be provided by Sunbeam to Morgan 25 Stanley as soon as possible?	Page 135 1 A. I believe a draft, I believe a draft of the 2 comfort letter was delivered or it was communicated by 3 either -- I don't remember specifically. I just, like 4 I testified earlier, that when I found out about it, my 5 last thing was having a conversation with Bill Pruitt. 6 The next thing I knew, I was seeing it on TV. 7 Q. You testified a moment ago and then also this 8 morning about a belief that a draft comfort letter was 9 provided to Morgan Stanley on March 17th or 10 thereabouts. 11 Did you personally fax or send a draft of the 12 comfort letter to Morgan Stanley? 13 A. I don't remember. 14 Q. As you sit here today, do you have any 15 recollection of having done that? 16 A. Me personally, no. 17 Q. Did anybody tell you at Andersen that they 18 had faxed a copy of the comfort letter, a draft of the 19 comfort letter to Morgan Stanley or its counsel? 20 A. No, I'm not aware of that. 21 Q. And so do you have any personal knowledge as 22 you sit here today whether, that a draft comfort letter 23 was actually sent to Morgan Stanley or its counsel? 24 A. Prior to March 19th, no. 25 Q. So as far as you are able to testify, the
Page 134 1 A. I believe so. 2 Q. Are you able to put a date, an approximate 3 one, on that conversation with Mr. Gluck where you 4 communicated that information? 5 A. Maybe March 12th, March 13th. 6 Q. Okay. And did you, did Mr. Gluck -- what did 7 Mr. Gluck say about what the company was going to do 8 with this information as far as providing it to Morgan 9 Stanley? 10 A. I don't remember. 11 Q. Did he tell you in words or in substance that 12 he agreed and that the company would provide this 13 information to Morgan Stanley? 14 A. Again, I don't recall. 15 Q. Do you recall, now moving forward a couple of 16 days, that there was a follow-up discussion with 17 Mr. Gluck about whether this information had been 18 communicated to Morgan Stanley? 19 A. I don't recall. 20 Q. Do you know when, if at all, Sunbeam told 21 Morgan Stanley this information about January and 22 February 1998 sales? 23 A. I know they were aware of it March 17th or 24 18th, prior to the press release going out. 25 Q. How do you know that?	Page 136 1 first time a comfort letter was physically provided to 2 Morgan Stanley or faxed or sent was March 19th, 1998, 3 at Global Financial Press? 4 A. I do recall going through certain portions of 5 the comfort letter with underwriter's counsel as to the 6 form of pieces of it, but I don't recall specifically 7 issuing them a draft comfort letter personally. 8 Q. These recollections that you have, were these 9 in-person meetings with underwriter's counsel? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. During these in-person meetings, did you 12 observe that underwriter's counsel had a draft of the 13 comfort letter in front of them? 14 A. I don't recall if they had a draft of other 15 comfort letters that they used as a sample or if it was 16 ours, but there was definitely wording, substantive 17 wording, examples communicated back and forth. 18 Q. But as you sit here today, can you testify 19 from your own personal knowledge that Morgan Stanley or 20 its lawyers were provided with a draft of the 21 March 19th comfort letter before March 19th? 22 A. Prior to the night at the printer, no. 23 Q. And you testified about meetings that you had 24 with underwriter's counsel to go through the language. 25 A. Uh huh.

Page 137 1 Q. And am I correct that you don't know whether 2 the documents that underwriter's counsel had in front 3 of them were in fact a draft of the March 19th letter 4 or perhaps sample comfort letters from other 5 transactions and other companies? 6 You just don't know one way or the other? 7 A. No. Again, the only thing I recollect is 8 finalizing the draft that night and them having a draft 9 early that night, if not, if not -- I don't recall 10 sooner than me physically being there that a draft was 11 delivered to them. 12 My point is it wasn't like at five o'clock in 13 the morning, said here it is. As soon as we got there, 14 they had it, you know, and they were making changes and 15 we made changes on realtime. 16 Q. So you were working on the comfort letter 17 with underwriter's counsel at Global Financial Press 18 the night of the 19th? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. These meetings that you described with 21 underwriter's counsel were that evening, March 19th, at 22 the print shop? 23 A. As well as previously. 24 Q. Okay. And those are the meetings that you're 25 just not sure what documents underwriter's counsel had	Page 139 1 A. I am aware that as I sit here today, that the 2 document with the earnings forecast was provided to 3 Morgan Stanley the night before the, the night of the 4 press release going out. 5 Q. When you say the document of an earnings 6 forecast, you're referring to a sales buildup sheet 7 that Mr. Markowski showed you this morning? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. In the form of document that was marked as 10 CPH Exhibit 121? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. That form of document? 13 A. Yes, I'm aware that that was provided to, or 14 at least represented to me that it was provided to 15 Morgan Stanley. 16 Q. And Mr. Tyree told you that? 17 A. No, Mr. Fanin told me that. 18 Q. So Mr. Fanin informed you that the sales 19 buildup, CPH 121, or a document in that form, was sent 20 to Morgan Stanley the day before the press release was 21 issued? 22 A. I don't know if the day before or the night 23 of. That was subsequent to that night. 24 Q. Is that the only information that you have 25 about disclosures that were made by Sunbeam to Morgan
Page 138 1 with them? 2 A. Correct. 3 Q. But you know that that evening at the print 4 shop, you worked on the draft of the comfort letter and 5 it was shared and exchanged -- 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. -- between underwriter's counsel and you? 8 A. Correct. 9 Q. And I think I asked you this, but I can't 10 recall your answer. 11 Do you know when, if at all, anybody from 12 Sunbeam told Morgan Stanley about lower year-over-year 13 sales? 14 A. No, other than prior to the press release 15 going out, I'm not aware of any other time. 16 Q. Okay. What information do you have about 17 disclosures that were made by Sunbeam to Morgan Stanley 18 prior to the press release going out? 19 A. I don't. 20 Q. You don't have any information? 21 A. No. 22 Q. So from your own personal knowledge, you 23 don't have any information about when, if at all, 24 Sunbeam disclosed lower year-over-year sales to Morgan 25 Stanley?	Page 140 1 Stanley about first quarter 1998 sales? 2 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, can I have the 3 question back? 4 I'm concerned there is a little confusion as 5 the timing here. But I just need to hear the last 6 question. 7 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 8 was read by the reporter.) 9 THE WITNESS: I am, other than what I 10 testified earlier that I was told by Mr. Tyree at 11 the printer that they were informed the night 12 before about the sales forecast. 13 BY MR. CLARE: 14 Q. So what Mr. Tyree told you at the printer was 15 consistent with what Mr. Fanin had told you, that 16 Sunbeam had provided this information to Morgan Stanley 17 the night before the press release? 18 MR. MOSCATO: Objection, that's where the 19 confusion is. I'm not sure he said Fanin told him 20 prior to this happening or Fanin told him after. 21 THE WITNESS: It was after. It was during 22 the restatement work when things, things kind 23 of -- I don't remember. I do recall Mr. Fanin 24 specifically drafting a memo and handing me this 25 document and after the fact and wanted it to get

Page 141 1 into the files. 2 BY MR. CLARE: 3 Q. And I appreciate that. I'm not trying to 4 confuse you on the timing. I just want to make sure 5 that I understand that what Mr. Fanin told you was 6 consistent with what Mr. Tyree told you about when 7 Morgan Stanley was provided this information by 8 Sunbeam. 9 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 10 question. I think the reference to this 11 information at this point is kind of detached from 12 what you're referring to. 13 MR. CLARE: Okay, let me address that, 14 because I think that point is well taken. 15 BY MR. CLARE: 16 Q. Mr. Fanin told you that Sunbeam provided 17 information about its January and February 1990 sales 18 to Morgan Stanley the day or night before the press 19 release was issued, correct? 20 MR. MARKOWSKI: I think you misspoke there in 21 terms of the date. 22 THE WITNESS: Yes. You said 1990. 23 MR. CLARE: Thanks. 24 THE WITNESS: I believe so, yes. 25	Page 143 1 MR. MOSCATO: Can we have the question again 2 then? 3 MR. CLARE: Let me rephrase it. 4 MR. MOSCATO: My client made a distinction 5 between Tyree's knowledge and Morgan Stanley's 6 knowledge. I'm afraid -- listen, we're a neutral 7 party here. I just want there to be a clean 8 record, and that's why I'm making these 9 objections. I just want clarity. So if you can 10 ask the question again, I'd appreciate it. 11 MR. CLARE: Sure. 12 BY MR. CLARE: 13 Q. Let me ask it this way and hopefully we can 14 cut through it. 15 Do you have any information from any source 16 that Morgan Stanley or Mr. Tyree or anybody 17 representing Morgan Stanley was advised of Sunbeam's 18 first quarter 1998 sales before the day or the night 19 before the press release was issued? 20 A. No, I'm not aware of anything else. 21 Q. The only information that you have is what 22 you previously testified to about, Mr. Fanin's 23 conversation with you? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. And what Mr. Tyree told you at the print
Page 142 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. Let me make sure I've got the right question 3 so we're all on the same page and in the same decade. 4 Mr. Fanin told you during the restatement 5 investigation that Sunbeam had provided Morgan Stanley 6 with information about January and February 1998 sales 7 the day or night before the press release was issued; 8 is that correct? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. And Mr. Tyree told you at the print shop that 11 Morgan Stanley had been informed of that same 12 information the day or night before the press release 13 was issued? 14 A. I believe he was personally. I don't know 15 about Morgan Stanley, but yes, he was. 16 Q. So what Mr. Tyree was telling -- what 17 Mr. Tyree told you about the timing of Morgan Stanley 18 getting this information was the same as what Mr. Fanin 19 told you? 20 MR. MARKOWSKI: This information is that 21 one-page sheet, the sales buildup that you are 22 referring to? 23 BY MR. CLARE: 24 Q. How about any information about Sunbeam's 25 January or February sales?	Page 144 1 shop? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And in both instances, the timing of those 4 disclosures were the day or night before the press 5 release was issued? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. The press release, and we can look at it, was 8 dated March 19th, 1998? It is CPH Exhibit -- 9 A. I have it here, yes, March 19th. 10 Q. Can you estimate for me the number of days 11 prior to the issuance of the press release that you 12 informed Mr. Gluck that you believed January and 13 February 1998 sales needed to be disclosed to Morgan 14 Stanley? 15 A. Like I said, March 12th or March 13th. 16 Q. So five or six days elapsed between this 17 conversation with Mr. Gluck where you and Mr. Harlow 18 spoke with him and the date that Sunbeam issued the 19 press release, to the best of your recollection? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And during that time period, that five or 22 six-day period, you were working with Morgan Stanley 23 and its counsel on the bond offering documents? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. And you were in New York together?

36 (Pages 141 to 144)

Page 145 1 A. For the most part, yes. 2 Q. And during that five or six-day time period, 3 am I correct that you never discussed with Morgan 4 Stanley or its counsel Sunbeam's January and 5 February 1998 sales performance? 6 A. Not that I recall, no. 7 Q. And it was because you believed it was 8 Sunbeam's responsibility to disclose that information 9 to Morgan Stanley? 10 A. Or if Morgan Stanley asked the question, I 11 would answer it truthfully. 12 Q. But Morgan Stanley didn't bring it up? 13 A. Right. 14 Q. And to your knowledge, Sunbeam did not tell 15 Morgan Stanley at any point during that five or six-day 16 period? 17 MR. MOSCATO: Do you know one way or the 18 other? 19 THE WITNESS: I don't know one way or the 20 other if they did or not. 21 BY MR. CLARE: 22 Q. But again, the only information you have 23 about that topic is that Sunbeam informed Morgan 24 Stanley and John Tyree the day before the press release 25 was issued?	Page 147 1 Global Financial Press. 2 Q. Did you attend any meetings at the offices of 3 Morgan Stanley? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Were representatives of Morgan Stanley 6 present for those meetings, some of them? 7 A. Yeah, I believe Tyree and there might have 8 been someone else in the first couple, but after that, 9 there wasn't anybody there. 10 Q. So the only person that you remember being 11 present at those sessions was John Tyree? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Do you remember anything about your 14 conversations with John Tyree during those drafting 15 sessions? 16 Does anything stick out as having been 17 discussed with Mr. Tyree? 18 A. The form of the pro forma, financial 19 statements and probably certain disclosures or certain, 20 the way certain things were presented. Specifically I 21 remember talking with Mr. Tyree. 22 Q. Now the pro forma information that was put 23 into the offering memorandum, was that pro forma 24 information that was prepared by Andersen? 25 A. No. It was the company's pro formas, but we,
Page 146 1 MR. MOSCATO: Do you really want to keep 2 asking the same question over and over? 3 MR. CLARE: Yeah, I do. I just want to make 4 sure that we're all on the same page. 5 MR. MOSCATO: One last time. Answer the 6 question one more time, Larry. 7 THE WITNESS: Can you read that question 8 again. 9 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 10 was read by the reporter.) 11 THE WITNESS: Yes. 12 BY MR. CLARE: 13 Q. Mr. Bornstein, we talked about these drafting 14 sessions that you attended in New York. How many days 15 were you in New York in that first two- or three-week 16 period in March 1998, approximately? 17 A. I don't know, probably between four and six 18 days. 19 Q. And all of the time that you spent there in 20 New York was working on the bond offering documents? 21 A. For the most part, yes. 22 Q. And where did those meetings take place? 23 A. The preliminary ones took place I believe at 24 Scadden Arps' office, and then there was a, as they 25 further went down the line, I think they moved over to	Page 148 1 we assisted in preparing them. 2 Q. When you say the company's, it was Sunbeam's 3 pro formas? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. So this morning in response to a question 6 from Mr. Markowski, and I may have misheard you, I 7 think you said that the pro forma information was 8 prepared by Morgan Stanley. And I wanted to ask you 9 about that. 10 Was any of the pro forma information that you 11 were reviewing prepared by Morgan Stanley? 12 A. I reviewed pro forma information that 13 included cost savings and synergies that was supplied 14 by a guy named Tyrone Chang from Morgan Stanley. Those 15 were separate and different from pro formas that went 16 into the bond offering, because the pro formas going 17 into the bond offering were specific to the 18 transaction, and the new debt, those types of things, 19 but don't have anything to do with cost savings or 20 synergies or any of those types of things. 21 Q. The information that you indicated Mr. Chang 22 provided, for what purpose were you reviewing that? 23 A. I reviewed it for, if they needed help on the 24 tax treatment to how to show the tax benefit. I don't 25 remember anything else other than that from my review

Page 149 1 of the pro formas. 2 Q. But none of the pro forma information that 3 was prepared or provided to you by Mr. Chang was put 4 into the offering memo? 5 A. Not that I'm aware of, no. 6 Q. So the pro forma information that you 7 discussed, reviewed and that was ultimately included in 8 the offering memorandum was prepared by Sunbeam? 9 A. Sunbeam, and as well as the other companies 10 that were involved. There was Signature Brands, First 11 Alert, Coleman. They were all involved in preparing 12 the pro formas. 13 Q. But as far as the information that went into 14 the offering memorandum, you don't have any information 15 to suggest that Morgan Stanley was involved in 16 preparing those pro forma financial statements? 17 A. As it relates to the numbers, no, but to the 18 disclosures and the footnotes, yes. 19 Q. And you remember discussing those with Morgan 20 Stanley? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And there was give and take during those 23 sessions where you discussed with John Tyree, the 24 lawyers at Scadden, about the narrative of the offering 25 memorandum?	Page 151 1 wouldn't call it frustrated, but unsure if they 2 did or not. 3 BY MR. CLARE: 4 Q. Okay. And you had recommended that to 5 Mr. Gluck or told Mr. Gluck that you believed Sunbeam 6 should disclose that information to Morgan Stanley? 7 A. Yes. 8 MR. MARKOWSKI: Isn't that where we started 9 about half an hour ago? 10 BY MR. CLARE: 11 Q. Were you frustrated that Sunbeam hadn't 12 followed through on that while you were at these 13 drafting sessions working day and night with the people 14 from Morgan Stanley and so far as you could tell, they 15 didn't appear to know? 16 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, I have to object to 17 that. That's, I think that's a real compound 18 question. 19 BY MR. CLARE: 20 Q. Okay. Were you frustrated that you couldn't 21 tell whether Morgan Stanley knew this information or 22 not? 23 A. I said I wasn't frustrated. I just at the 24 time found it amazing that it wasn't a topic of 25 conversation of theirs. No one asked the question. I
Page 150 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And the disclosures that needed to be made? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And during that time everybody was making 5 suggestions and edits to the document? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And that was the purpose of that six-day time 8 period that you believe you were in New York was to do 9 that work on the offering memorandum? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Now during that time you were in New York, 12 you were aware that Sunbeam's January and February 1998 13 sales were lower than for the prior time period in 14 1997, correct? 15 A. Honestly, I don't remember the timing of it. 16 I believe so, but I'm not certain. 17 Q. Is it fair to say that for at least a portion 18 of those drafting sessions, you were aware of that 19 information? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And were you in any way frustrated that you 22 had this information, but Morgan Stanley did not? 23 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. 24 You can answer. 25 THE WITNESS: I don't know if I was, I	Page 152 1 wasn't aware if they knew or didn't know. I just know 2 that it wasn't something that was discussed. 3 Q. Okay. Did you have any follow-up 4 conversations with Mr. Gluck during that time period 5 about whether Sunbeam had provided that information to 6 Morgan Stanley? 7 A. I don't recall specifically, no. 8 MR. MOSCATO: While you're doing that, is 9 there any way we can get a little air in here? 10 BY MR. CLARE: 11 Q. And you testified that at some point during 12 the same time period, you had a discussion with 13 Mr. Pruitt about the same subject matter? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And during that discussion, Mr. Pruitt made a 16 reference to withholding the comfort letter if Sunbeam 17 did not disclose this information to Morgan Stanley? 18 A. I believe I did say that, yes. 19 Q. Is that consistent with your recollection? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And you were a part of that conversation? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Did you agree with Mr. Pruitt that that was 24 an appropriate thing to do if Sunbeam did not disclose 25 the information to Morgan Stanley about its January and

38 (Pages 149 to 152)

Page 153 1 February 1998 sales? 2 A. Did I have an opinion? Is that what you 3 said? 4 No, I left it up to him. 5 Q. Okay. But you didn't think it was 6 inappropriate for Mr. Pruitt to reach that conclusion? 7 A. Honestly, I was unaware whether or not 8 Sunbeam had advised Morgan Stanley at that time. I 9 was, my understanding was that they did not. 10 Q. Your understanding was that Sunbeam had not 11 advised Morgan Stanley? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And your conversation with Mr. Pruitt was 14 that if that situation wasn't remedied, that Andersen 15 would withhold its comfort letter? 16 A. That's what he told me, yes. 17 Q. Some questions this morning about an 18 accounting due diligence call that you had with Morgan 19 Stanley during this time period. 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. You participated in that call? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And that was a due diligence call that was 24 requested by Morgan Stanley? 25 A. Yes.	Page 155 1 A. That was my understanding, yes. 2 Q. Was there any discussion with Morgan Stanley 3 about this topic, about whether Mr. Gluck would be on 4 the call or not? 5 A. Not that I recall. 6 Q. Was there any discussion between you and 7 Mr. Harlow about Mr. Gluck's presence on the call? 8 A. No. 9 Q. And you had been on other due diligence calls 10 with underwriters where there had been representative 11 from management on the phone with you? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. In accordance with Andersen's policy? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Was it your hope at the time that if 16 Mr. Gluck was on the line with you during this due 17 diligence call, that he might take that as an 18 opportunity to tell Morgan Stanley about the company's 19 performance in the first two months of 1998? 20 A. No. I'm not -- no. That wasn't my hope. 21 Q. Okay. I'm going to show you some of your 22 prior deposition testimony on this subject and see if 23 that refreshes your recollection about that topic and 24 I'll ask you some follow-up questions about it. 25 MR. CLARE: Let's mark this as Morgan Stanley
Page 154 1 Q. You and Mr. Harlow were the participants for 2 Andersen? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Do you recall, as of the date of the 5 accounting due diligence call, whether Mr. Pastrana had 6 already advised you about the January and February 1998 7 sales? Does that help you place in time -- 8 A. Yeah, I'm not sure. I'm not 100 percent sure 9 that I knew about this on the 12th. 10 Q. Mr. Gluck was on the call for Sunbeam? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Was there anybody else on the phone from 13 Sunbeam? 14 A. Not that I'm aware of, no. 15 Q. Am I correct that you requested Mr. Gluck be 16 on the call? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And why? 19 A. I believe it was an Andersen policy to have 20 someone present from the company on the call or at the 21 meeting. 22 Q. Was it, and this is a standard practice, at 23 least at the time that you were at Andersen, to have 24 somebody from the company on the call with underwriters 25 in a due diligence situation like this?	Page 156 1 Exhibit 55. 2 (MS Exhibit No. 55 was marked for 3 identification.) 4 THE WITNESS: Okay, where would you like me 5 to look? 6 BY MR. CLARE: 7 Q. I'm going to invite your attention to page 8 780 of this transcript. 9 A. Can you just, someone tell me when and where 10 this took place? Which one was this? 11 Q. Sure. 12 MR. MARKOWSKI: We're celebrating the third 13 anniversary of it. 14 THE WITNESS: Is it really that long? 15 BY MR. CLARE: 16 Q. This is a deposition transcript taken on 17 Monday, January 15, 2001. Appears to be day five of 18 your deposition testimony. 19 A. Okay. Where would you like me to turn? 20 Q. And you can read as much it as you'd like to 21 see if it refreshes your recollection, but specifically 22 I want to invite your attention to page 780 at the top 23 of the page. And it might be helpful if you back up to 24 page 778 for context. 25 A. Okay.

Page 157 1 Q. Have you had an opportunity to review a few 2 pages of your deposition from January of 2001? 3 MR. MARKOWSKI: I think we should be specific 4 about what portion of this he's -- 5 MR. MOSCATO: Now Larry, you've reviewed it. 6 Now close the transcript. 7 BY MR. CLARE: 8 Q. I don't know exactly which pages you reviewed 9 but I invited your attention to pages 778 through 780. 10 A. Yes, that's what I read. 11 Q. Okay. And does having reviewed that 12 deposition testimony, does that refresh your 13 recollection in any way about the sequence of events 14 that we've been discussing; specifically, your 15 conversation with Mr. Gluck about the need to disclose 16 this information to Morgan Stanley and the March 12, 17 1998 accounting due diligence call? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Okay. And now testifying from your refreshed 20 recollection, is it correct that you had discussed this 21 issue with Mr. Gluck prior to March 12, 1998? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And prior to March 12, 1998, you and 24 Mr. Harlow had informed Mr. Gluck that Sunbeam's 25 January and February 1998 sales information needed to	Page 159 1 A. No. 2 Q. And Mr. Gluck didn't raise it? 3 A. No. 4 Q. And you didn't raise it and Mr. Harlow didn't 5 raise it? 6 A. Correct. 7 Q. Were the answers that you provided -- strike 8 that. 9 Were you answers that you and Mr. Harlow 10 provided on the March 12, 1998, accounting due 11 diligence call any different because Mr. Gluck was on 12 the line? 13 A. No. 14 Q. If Mr. Gluck had not been on the line, would 15 you or Mr. Harlow have volunteered information about 16 Sunbeam's first quarter sales performance to date? 17 MR. MARKOWSKI: May I have the question back, 18 please. 19 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 20 was read by the reporter.) 21 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object, calls for -- 22 MR. MOSCATO: Answer as to yourself. 23 MR. MARKOWSKI: I would object that it calls 24 for speculation. 25 THE WITNESS: I can't answer for Harlow. If
Page 158 1 be disclosed to Morgan Stanley? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And is it correct that at least one of the 4 reasons that you wanted Mr. Gluck on the line for the 5 accounting due diligence call was a hope that he would 6 disclose information about Sunbeam's first quarter 7 performance to Morgan Stanley? 8 A. If the question came up, yes. 9 Q. Okay. But it was your view, independent of 10 whether the question came up, that Sunbeam had a 11 responsibility to disclose it to Morgan Stanley? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And was it your hope that independent of 14 whether the question came up, that Mr. Gluck might take 15 this opportunity of talking with Morgan Stanley to 16 disclose that information? 17 A. I believe so, yes. 18 Q. Did Mr. Gluck tell Morgan Stanley about 19 Sunbeam's January and February 1998 sales on the 20 March 12, 1998, accounting due diligence call? 21 A. I don't believe so, no. 22 Q. Do you have any recollection of that topic 23 coming up? 24 A. No. 25 Q. Morgan Stanley didn't raise it?	Page 160 1 asked the question, I would have answered it 2 truthfully. I wouldn't have volunteered anything. 3 BY MR. CLARE: 4 Q. Because you thought it was Sunbeam's 5 responsibility to tell that information? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. But your willingness or unwillingness to 8 volunteer that information had nothing to do with 9 whether Mr. Gluck was on the line or not? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Were you any less truthful with Morgan 12 Stanley because Mr. Gluck was on the phone with you for 13 the March 12, 1998, due diligence call? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Were you any less candid with Morgan Stanley 16 because Mr. Gluck was on that call? 17 A. No. 18 Q. If Morgan Stanley had asked the question on 19 March 12, 1998, about Sunbeam's first quarter 20 performance, would you have deferred the response to 21 that question to Mr. Gluck, since he was on the line? 22 A. I have no idea what I would have done. 23 Q. But you believed it was Sunbeam's 24 responsibility to provide that information? 25 A. Yes.

Page 161 1 Q. Was there any discussion before the March 12, 2 1998, accounting due diligence call how you or 3 Mr. Harlow would respond if Morgan Stanley asked that 4 question? 5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Any discussion between 6 Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Harlow? 7 MR. CLARE: That's correct. 8 THE WITNESS: Specifically on that point, I 9 don't recall. 10 BY MR. CLARE: 11 Q. Even generally? 12 A. No. 13 Q. How about between you and Mr. Harlow or with 14 Mr. Gluck? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I'm going to ask you to dig 17 out CPH Exhibit 123 that we marked and looked at this 18 morning. 19 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, which one was 123? 20 MR. CLARE: CPH Exhibit 123 is the July 2nd, 21 1998. 22 THE WITNESS: This one right on the top. 23 MR. MOSCATO: This one? 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. And Mr. Markowski asked you some questions	Page 163 1 out were placed on there during the call. 2 Q. Okay. 3 MR. MOSCATO: The items were placed there or 4 the crossing out? 5 THE WITNESS: The crossing out. 6 BY MR. CLARE: 7 Q. So the items, the handwriting of the specific 8 items were discussed with you and Mr. Harlow before the 9 call, and then during the call as issues came up, you 10 crossed them off as they were discussed? 11 A. Some of them. These I recall were important 12 issues that I wanted to make sure were discussed. 13 Q. If there is handwriting on pages three and 14 four that's not crossed off, does that mean that they 15 weren't discussed on the call or you just didn't cross 16 them off? 17 A. No, I know that a lot more of these were 18 discussed, but these were items that I wanted to make 19 sure that were discussed by Harlow. 20 Q. Now the date of CPH Exhibit 123 is July 2nd, 21 1998, correct? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And that's the date that you prepared the 24 memo documenting your March 12, 1998, accounting due 25 diligence call?
Page 162 1 about the delay between the date of the call and the 2 date that you started to prepare the memo. Is that 3 correct? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And you can tell me again if I've got this in 6 any way wrong, but you said you felt it was important 7 to have a record of what was said during that call. 8 A. Yeah, I thought it was more important than, 9 you know, to have something other than the 10 contemporaneous documentation from the call. 11 Q. And that contemporaneous documentation were 12 the handwritten notes that appear on the third and 13 fourth page of CPH Exhibit 123? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And those notes that were placed on the third 16 and fourth page of CPH Exhibit 123, some of those notes 17 were prepared there in advance of the call as a result 18 of discussions between you and Mr. Harlow about how you 19 would respond to the questions? 20 A. Yeah, they were all prepared prior. It was 21 all prepared prior to. 22 Q. That's my next question. You anticipated it, 23 whether any of the handwriting on the third or fourth 24 page of Exhibit 123 was placed there during the call. 25 A. I think some of the items that are crossed	Page 164 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. Did you start working on this memo at any 3 point before July 2nd, 1998? 4 A. I don't think so, no. 5 Q. So you did not document your discussions with 6 Morgan Stanley for the accounting due diligence call in 7 this memo format at least until July 2nd, 1998? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And that was after Mr. Dunlap had been fired 10 from Sunbeam on June 15, 1998? 11 A. I believe so, yes. 12 Q. And after Sunbeam had announced that the SEC 13 was investigating its accounting practices on 14 June 22nd, 1998? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. And that was after Sunbeam announced that it 17 was delaying an SEC filing relating to the debenture 18 offering? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. And that was after Sunbeam had announced that 21 its 1997 financial statement should not be relied upon? 22 A. I believe so, yes. 23 Q. That was -- 24 A. I think that was June 30. 25 Q. That was June 30?

Page 165 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. So you did not begin to document that 3 conversation with Morgan Stanley until after Sunbeam 4 announced that its 1997 financial statement could not 5 be relied upon? 6 A. Yes. 7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Can I have the question back, 8 please. 9 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 10 was read by the reporter.) 11 MR. MARKOWSKI: I object, mischaracterizes 12 his prior testimony with respect to this. 13 BY MR. CLARE: 14 Q. So you did not begin to document your 15 discussions with Morgan Stanley in memo form until 16 after Sunbeam had announced that its 1997 financial 17 statements should not be relied upon? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Same question, after Sunbeam announced that 20 its 1997 financial statements may need to be restated, 21 that was also on June 30, 1998. 22 A. I believe so, yes. 23 Q. In drafting your July 2nd, 1998 memo, did you 24 consult with Mr. Harlow about his recollection of what 25 was said on the call?	Page 167 1 their entirety and the responses were as follows." 2 Do you see that? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Item 4A -- 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. Question four relates to the adequacy of 7 internal controls. Do you see that on the agenda? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And the response that was indicated on your 10 memo says in part, "No material weaknesses in internal 11 controls were noted." 12 Do you see that? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Do you recall Mr. Harlow telling Morgan 15 Stanley that no material weaknesses in internal 16 controls were noted by Andersen? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. That's consistent with your recollection of 19 the call? 20 A. I believe so, yes. 21 Q. Do you remember Morgan Stanley asking that 22 question and Mr. Harlow providing that answer? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Number eight asks, "How aggressive is the 25 company in its accounting policies?"
Page 166 1 A. He reviewed it. I don't specifically 2 remember asking him. 3 Q. So you prepared a draft and Mr. Harlow 4 reviewed it? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. Do you remember any discussions with 7 Mr. Harlow about the draft that you had prepared or any 8 changes that he asked to be made to your draft? 9 A. I don't recall, no. 10 Q. What about Mr. Gluck? Did you provide a 11 draft of the July 2nd, 1998, memo to Mr. Gluck? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Why not? 14 A. It was for Arthur Andersen's files. 15 Q. The typewritten memo that's the first two 16 pages of CPH Exhibit 123, this was your effort to 17 distill from the notes the questions that were asked 18 and the responses that were given on the call? 19 A. For the most part, yes. 20 Q. The third paragraph says, "Attached is the 21 agenda as well as notes from that meeting. Mr. Savori 22 and Mr. Lurie asked the questions and Mr. Harlow 23 provided responses." 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. "The questions from the agenda were asked in	Page 168 1 Do you see that? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. There was some testimony this morning about 4 bill and hold and Encore and EPI, and those items are 5 crossed off on page three. 6 A. Right. 7 Q. Do you see that? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Looking at your typewritten memo, the 10 response that appears after item eight, "On a scale of 11 one to ten, around a five or six." 12 Do you see that? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Do you recall Mr. Harlow ranking how 15 aggressive Sunbeam's accounting policies are on a scale 16 of one to ten? 17 A. Yes. That's, I recall him addressing 18 initially the issue that way. 19 Q. Okay. 20 A. And then going into some of the detail we 21 talked about earlier. 22 Q. But it's your recollection that on a scale of 23 one to ten, Mr. Harlow told Morgan Stanley that Sunbeam 24 was about a five or six in terms of the aggressiveness 25 of its accounting policies?

Page 169

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And Mr. Harlow's ranking of the

3 aggressiveness of the accounting policies were part of

4 the same conversation when he was discussing bill and

5 hold, Encore, EPI?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Item ten on the agenda asks whether any major

8 adjustments were recommended.

9 A. Yes.

10 MR. MOSCATO: Material.

11 MR. CLARE: Thank you, material.

12 BY MR. CLARE:

13 Q. Item ten on the agenda -- my copy says major.

14 THE WITNESS: Material.

15 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry. You're right. My

16 abject apologies.

17 MR. CLARE: That's okay.

18 THE WITNESS: The Morgan Stanley letter

19 requesting the question is major and on my

20 typewritten it's material.

21 BY MR. CLARE:

22 Q. Okay. So just to make sure we're all clear,

23 on page three of CPH Exhibit 123, item ten, the

24 question that Morgan Stanley provided to you in writing

25 was whether any major adjustments were recommended.

Page 170

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And in handwriting under that it says, "Not

3 material, Encore or EPI."

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Do you remember discussing that issue with

6 Morgan Stanley; in other words, Andersen's view that

7 the Encore and EPI adjustments were not material?

8 A. Yes, I do remember that.

9 Q. And that recollection is in fact recorded on 10 point 10 of your typewritten memo, which says no

11 material adjustments were recorded?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Now page three of the Exhibit CPH 123 has a

14 header on it that says Project One Time accounting due

15 diligence. Do you see that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What does Project One Time refer to?

18 A. I have no idea.

19 Q. Are you aware that the project name that

20 Sunbeam had given to these acquisitions was Project

21 Laser?

22 A. Yeah, I recollected that from something I

23 just looked at earlier, yes.

24 Q. But that's consistent with your recollection

25 from 1998?

Page 171

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you have an understanding as to why the

3 sheet that you have here as part of your exhibit says

4 Project One Time, when the project name was Project

5 Laser?

6 A. You'd have to ask the person who put it

7 together and sent it to me. I have no idea.

8 Q. That was my question. You don't have any

9 understanding of that?

10 A. No, no idea.

11 Q. I will represent to you and I can show you

12 the documents that other people who were on the call --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- got an agenda sheet that said the word

15 Project Laser --

16 A. Really? Interesting.

17 Q. -- on it, and I wanted to know if you had any

18 explanation for why the document that was attached to 19 CPH 123 from your files says Project One Time.

20 A. No.

21 MR. MARKOWSKI: When you represent, Tom, that

22 other people on the call got a different agenda,

23 what call are you referring to, the Arthur

24 Andersen call, or the call with the other

25 accounting firms?

Page 172

1 MR. CLARE: I'm representing the Arthur

2 Andersen call. In fact, why don't we just mark

3 those as exhibits and I'll ask you about it

4 specifically, the two documents.

5 THE WITNESS: Okay.

6 MR. CLARE: This is 56.

7 (MS Exhibit Nos. 56 and 57 were marked for

8 identification.)

9 THE WITNESS: Okay.

10 BY MR. CLARE:

11 Q. And I'm showing you what's been marked as

12 Morgan Stanley Exhibit 56 and Morgan Stanley 57. These

13 are a series of faxes, two faxes from Shani Boone at

14 Morgan Stanley to Mr. Freed at Scadden Arps in 15 Exhibit 56 and Mr. Molitor at First Union in 57.

16 Do you see that?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Just looking at Exhibit 56 for a moment, the 19 second page of it is the agenda that Mr. Markowski went 20 through with you this morning.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And it shows a series of accounting due

23 diligence calls beginning at 11:30 a.m. and going

24 through start time of 1:00.

25 A. Yes.

Page 173 1 Q. And then after that, there are documents, an 2 agenda for those calls -- 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. -- that are similar in form to the ones that 5 we were just looking at attached to your typewritten 6 memo? 7 A. Yes, similar. 8 Q. Similar in form, but not identical? 9 A. I don't believe identical, but I haven't 10 proofed them both. 11 Q. One of the ways in which they are not 12 identical is the header on the documents that were sent 13 to Mr. Freed and Mr. Moliter say Product Laser 14 accounting due diligence, and the agenda that is 15 attached to your July 2nd memo says Project One Time. 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Do you see that? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And there are other differences in the agenda 20 are that are, speak for themselves. 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And do you have any explanation for why your 23 agenda was different than other participants in the 24 call? 25 A. No. It would only be speculation.	Page 175 1 connection with the telephone call. 2 MR. CLARE: Okay. Well, I'll show that 3 through different witnesses, and we'll take that 4 up not on Mr. Bornstein's time. 5 THE WITNESS: I have no idea. 6 BY MR. CLARE: 7 Q. Do you recall -- you don't have any 8 explanation for that discrepancy as you sit here today? 9 A. No. 10 Q. I want to go back to your July 2nd, 1998, 11 memo for a moment. 12 Question 16 on the agenda asks the question, 13 "Company is conservative and leans to full disclosure," 14 question mark. Do you see that? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. And your handwritten note says yes, and it's 17 circled. Do you see that? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. On July 2nd, 19 -- I'm sorry, new question. 20 On March 12, 1998, did you or Mr. Harlow tell 21 Morgan Stanley that Sunbeam was conservative and leans 22 toward full disclosure? 23 A. As it relates to their financial statements, 24 yes. 25 Q. Okay. Is there a distinction there? Did you
Page 174 1 Q. But you don't have any explanation for the 2 discrepancy between the agenda that First Union and 3 Scadden Arps had and the agenda that's attached to your 4 July 2nd -- 5 A. No. 6 Q. -- '98 memo? 7 MR. MARKOWSKI: I think you've assumed 8 something that you haven't proved yet at this 9 point in time, which is the agenda used in 56 and 10 57 was in fact the agenda used by those other 11 parties in connection with the call as opposed to 12 a draft of what was ultimately sent to 13 Mr. Bornstein and to Mr. Harlow. 14 MR. CLARE: All I'm trying to do is 15 understand whether Mr. Bornstein has any 16 information about that, and he has told me -- and 17 correct me if I'm wrong -- that you don't have any 18 understanding or explanation for why others that 19 were on the call had a different agenda than the 20 one attached to your July 2nd. 21 MR. MARKOWSKI: Well, that's the fact I'm 22 saying, I'm objecting to on the ground it assumes 23 facts not in evidence. You haven't shown that the 24 documents attached to 56 and 57 were in fact the 25 agendas used by Scadden or by First Union in	Page 176 1 make any discussion with Morgan Stanley about ways in 2 which Sunbeam was not conservative and leaned towards 3 full disclosure on the call? 4 A. No, not that I'm aware of. 5 Q. So the question was asked the company is 6 conservative and leans to full disclosure, and the 7 answer that you and Mr. Harlow gave was yes. 8 A. I believe as it relates to the financial 9 statements is what we were talking about. 10 Q. Okay. But did you say that, do you have a 11 recollection of saying that on the call? 12 A. No, I don't. 13 Q. And in fact, your typewritten memo 14 memorializing the answers that were given to Morgan 15 Stanley answers the question yes? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. And that's consistent with your recollection 18 of what was said on the call? 19 A. Yes. 20 MR. CLARE: We need to take a short break to 21 change the videotape. 22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off 23 videotape number two. We'll be back on videotape 24 number three. The time on the monitor is 25 1:30 p.m.

Page 178 1 Sunbeam's bill and hold sales from the first day that 2 you had raised the issue with them until the day that 3 the 10K was filed? 4 A. I don't know about the time period. 5 Q. But you didn't say that to Morgan Stanley? 6 MR. MOSCATO: Did you say those words to 7 Morgan Stanley? 8 THE WITNESS: No, I did not. 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. Did you say anything like that to Morgan 11 Stanley about Sunbeam's bill and hold disclosures? 12 A. No 13 Q. Did you tell Morgan Stanley in words or in 14 substance that Sunbeam had resisted disclosing its 15 reclassification of restructuring reserves in 16 connection with its 10K? 17 A. No 18 Q. And, Mr. Bornstein, I've read your prior 19 deposition testimony, and there are a series of 20 discussions that are reflected in that testimony that I 21 want to ask you about. 22 On several occasions during your interactions 23 with Sunbeam you approached Mr. Gluck relating to 24 disclosure issues; is that correct? 25 A. Yes.	Page 180 1 correct? 2 A. Correct. 3 Q. You had participated in drafting sessions for 4 the offering memo in New York? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And during that session or sessions, did 7 Morgan Stanley ask additional questions of you about 8 Sunbeam? 9 A. No. 10 Q. Is there any documentation of those 11 conversations? 12 A. No. 13 Q. So in the course of preparing the offering 14 memorandum and the back and forth that occurred, your 15 testimony is that at no point during those discussions 16 did Morgan Stanley ask you for information about 17 Sunbeam or its financial statements? 18 A. They asked questions, but nothing specific 19 that I can recall. 20 Q. Okay. But they asked you questions during 21 those drafting sessions? 22 A. Right. 23 Q. And there was a give and take in preparing 24 the offering memorandum? 25 A. Yes.

Page 181 1 Q. And that give and take related to the subject 2 of Sunbeam? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And that how Sunbeam would be described in 5 the offering memorandum that you were collectively 6 working on? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. March 19, 1998, the meeting you had with 9 Mr. Tyree and others at Global Financial Press, that 10 was another opportunity that you had time to spend with 11 Morgan Stanley? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And how many hours would you say that you 14 spent with Morgan Stanley that evening? 15 A. Ten. 16 Q. And during that evening, did Morgan Stanley 17 and its representatives ask you questions about 18 Sunbeam? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Mr. Bornstein, this morning and in prior 21 depositions you've offered your opinion about Morgan 22 Stanley's due diligence, correct? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And your opinion is that Morgan Stanley's due 25 diligence in connection with the bond offering is poor?	Page 183 1 amount of due diligence that the company had done on 2 the three target acquisition companies. 3 Q. Okay. Anything else that forms the basis for 4 your opinion that Morgan Stanley's due diligence was 5 poor? 6 A. No, not that I can think of. 7 Q. What were the simple questions that Morgan 8 Stanley should have asked in your opinion but didn't? 9 A. How is the company doing now? Simple as 10 that. 11 Q. Is that the only one? 12 A. They probably should ask more questions on 13 the financial statement. They should have probably 14 asked more detailed questions on bill and hold 15 transactions. They probably should have asked a lot 16 more questions on the estimates and the projections 17 that Mr. Dunlap had touted. I forget what they were, 18 but basic questions. 19 Q. Were all of the questions that you've just 20 identified suggested by the public statements that 21 Sunbeam had made? 22 A. I don't understand the question. 23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form. 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. You asked, you said that Morgan Stanley
Page 182 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. Can you give me the basis for your belief 3 that Morgan Stanley's due diligence for the bond 4 offering was poor? 5 A. Basically that they never asked very simple 6 questions that should have been asked and that, at 7 least my understanding of the people that were 8 involved, which was basically Mr. Tyree, that he was 9 very distracted and had a lot of other things going on 10 and didn't really know what the hell was going on with 11 this deal basically. 12 Q. So you've identified two reasons why you 13 think Morgan Stanley's due diligence was poor. 14 Are there any others that you can think of? 15 A. You know, that they were aware that the due 16 diligence, financial due diligence that was performed 17 by Arthur Andersen & Company of First Alert, Signature 18 Brands and Coleman was limited at best, and probably, 19 you know, was in a four or five-day period of time. 20 Q. Now you're talking, in your answer to my last 21 question, you're answering specifically with regard to 22 the due diligence that was performed by Morgan Stanley 23 on the target companies, correct? 24 A. I'm not sure what Morgan Stanley did on the 25 target companies, but they were aware of the limited	Page 184 1 should have asked additional questions about the 2 financial statements, correct? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And the assumptions that went into the 5 financial statements? 6 A. They should ask some questions on the 7 financial statements, yes. 8 Q. These were Sunbeam's audited financial 9 statements that you're referring to? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And those financial statements at least for 12 1997 were publicly available? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. You said that Morgan Stanley should have 15 asked some additional questions about bill and hold. 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Bill and hold transactions were also publicly 18 disclosed by Sunbeam in its 1997 10K, correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. And were there any other questions that you 21 think Morgan Stanley should have asked that they didn't 22 beside the ones you've testified to? 23 A. Specifically, no. 24 Q. Do you have any knowledge or information 25 about the trip that Morgan Stanley made to Sunbeam

Page 185 1 headquarters on March 4th and 5th to conduct due 2 diligence? 3 A. No. 4 Q. You weren't present for any of those 5 meetings? 6 A. No. 7 Q. Did anybody ever report to you what was 8 discussed during that due diligence meeting? 9 A. No. 10 Q. Do you have any knowledge or information 11 about Morgan Stanley's bring-down due diligence 12 telephone conference with Sunbeam's management? 13 A. I don't recall if I was part of that. I 14 don't believe so. 15 Q. I don't believe you were either, but do you 16 have any knowledge or information about that? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Did anybody report to you what was said or 19 discussed during those telephone calls? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Specifically, the bring-down telephone calls 22 that were done with Sunbeam management by Morgan 23 Stanley to conduct due diligence. 24 A. No. 25 Q. Do you have any knowledge or information	Page 187 1 diligence process? 2 A. No. 3 Q. Do you have any knowledge or information 4 about other documents that Morgan Stanley reviewed as 5 part of the due diligence process? 6 A. No. 7 Q. And so your opinion about Morgan Stanley's 8 due diligence is based strictly on your personal 9 interaction with representatives from Morgan Stanley? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. So do you have any basis one way or another 12 to evaluate the overall due diligence conducted by 13 Morgan Stanley in connection with the bond offering? 14 A. No. 15 MR. Do you have any knowledge or information 11 about what documents Morgan Stanley requested and 12 received from Sunbeam management? 13 A. No. 14 Q. Were you involved in communicating either 15 requests from Morgan Stanley to Sunbeam management or 16 communicating those documents back from Sunbeam 17 management to Morgan Stanley? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Mr. Bornstein, before the break we were 13 talking about your opinions about Morgan Stanley's due 14 diligence. You indicated in response to one of my 15 questions that one of the bases for your opinion was 16 your observation that Mr. Tyree was distracted. 17 Do you have any basis for that other than 18 your personal observation? 19 A. During the time period trying to communicate 20 with him and talk to him, he was working on another 21 deal I think at the time, I believe, and it was 22 difficult to get in touch with him if needed. 23 Q. Other than the fact that it was difficult to 24 get in touch with Mr. Tyree, do you have any basis for 25 your opinion that he was distracted?

13 MS Exhibit 61	314

Page 193 1 Q. And by that, I mean that Sunbeam would be 2 providing to the owners of Coleman cash as a portion of 3 the purchase price and stock as a portion of the 4 purchase price? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And that is Sunbeam stock? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. And did you know that the acquisition 9 required for Coleman (Parent) Holdings Company which 10 owned a portion of Coleman to receive over 14 million 11 shares of Sunbeam stock as part of the purchase price? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. You knew that back in the first quarter of 14 1998? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. And did you also know that after the sale had 17 taken place that Coleman (Parent) Holdings Company 18 would be a significant shareholder of Sunbeam? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Were you informed in the first quarter of 21 1998 by anybody that Coleman and its corporate parents 22 would be conducting their own due diligence on Sunbeam? 23 A. I wasn't aware of anything, no. 24 Q. You were not told anything by the people at 25 Sunbeam that Coleman or its parent corporations would	Page 195 1 representatives as part of the acquisition transaction? 2 A. No. 3 Q. You were not part of any in-person meetings 4 with Coleman (Parent) Holdings or any of its 5 representatives for that purpose? 6 A. No. 7 Q. Any telephone conferences? 8 A. No. 9 Q. Were you ever asked to participate in an 10 accounting due diligence call with Coleman (Parent) 11 Holdings like the one that Morgan Stanley had conducted 12 that you participated in? 13 A. Not that I recall. 14 Q. Were you aware that Coleman (Parent) Holdings 15 was, and Coleman were being represented in the 16 transaction by Credit Suisse First Boston as their 17 investment advisor? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Did you have any dealings with CSFB during 20 the first quarter of 1998? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Did you receive any inquiries from CSFB 23 during the first quarter of 1998 about Sunbeam or its 24 financial performance? 25 A. No.
Page 194 1 be conducting due diligence? 2 A. Not that I'm aware of, no. 3 Q. Were you ever informed by any source that 4 Morgan Stanley had been tasked to perform due diligence 5 on behalf of Coleman and its corporate parent? 6 A. No. 7 Q. Did you receive any instructions from Sunbeam 8 about any inquiries that you might get from Coleman 9 (Parent) Holdings and its corporate parent? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Did anybody ever tell you in words or in 12 substance not to provide Coleman (Parent) Holdings and 13 its corporate parent with any information that they 14 requested? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Did anybody ever instruct you to channel all 17 information for Coleman (Parent) Holdings through 18 Morgan Stanley? 19 A. No. 20 Q. Do you have a recollection of any inquiry 21 that you received that you understood to be made on 22 behalf of Coleman (Parent) Holdings? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Are you aware of any due diligence that was 25 performed by Coleman (Parent) Holdings or its	Page 196 1 Q. Are you aware of any inquiries that Andersen 2 received, even if you were not personally involved, 3 from anybody representing Coleman (Parent) Holdings? 4 A. Not that I'm aware of. 5 Q. Are you aware of any inquiries from Coleman 6 (Parent) Holdings on the subject of Sunbeam's bill and 7 hold sales? 8 A. No. 9 Q. Are you aware of any inquiries from anyone 10 representing Coleman (Parent) Holdings about the bill 11 and hold disclosures that were in Sunbeam's 1997 10K? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Or whether Sunbeam was engaged in bill and 14 hold sales in the first quarter of 1998? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Or Sunbeam's Early Buy program? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Or the Early Buy program disclosures that 19 were in the 1997 10K? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Or the impact of Sunbeam's Early Buy program 22 on Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 sales? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Or Sunbeam's quarter-to-date sales in the 25 first quarter of 1998?

Page 198 1 its representatives after the March 19, '98 press 2 release? 3 A. No. 4 Q. So no inquiries between March 19, 1998, and 5 the end of the first quarter? 6 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 7 question. 8 THE WITNESS: Not that I'm aware of, no. 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. Are you aware that on April 3rd, 1998, 11 Sunbeam announced that its first quarter 1998 sales 12 were, had fallen short of the first quarter 1997? Were 13 you generally aware of that? 14 A. I believe it was the second press release. I 15 don't remember specifically what it said. 16 Q. But you're aware that shortly after the first 17 quarter, Sunbeam issued a press release like the one I 18 just described? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Were you aware of any inquiries from Coleman 21 (Parent) Holdings or anyone representing 22 Coleman (Parent) Holdings after that April 3rd, 1998 23 press release? 24 MR. MARKOWSKI: I want to make sure we're 25 clear here. You've been focusing on inquiries of	Page 200 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. In the first quarter of 1998, did you, were 3 you surprised by the lack of inquiry from Coleman 4 (Parent) Holdings or its corporate parent? 5 A. I'd say yes. 6 Q. And did you form an opinion about the quality 7 of due diligence done by Coleman (Parent) Holdings on 8 Sunbeam in the first quarter of 1998? 9 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection, lack of 10 foundation. 11 THE WITNESS: I wasn't aware of any that they 12 did, so if you want to repeat the question, I 13 don't know if I answered it. 14 BY MR. CLARE: 15 Q. Sure. You were surprised that they didn't do 16 any due diligence, to your knowledge? 17 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 18 question. Mischaracterizes his answer. 19 THE WITNESS: Yes. 20 BY MR. CLARE: 21 Q. If there had been inquiries that were made by 22 Coleman (Parent) Holdings or any of its representatives 23 to Sunbeam -- strike that, withdrawn. 24 If there had been any inquiries made by 25 Coleman (Parent) Holdings or any of its representatives

Page 201 1 to Andersen about Sunbeam, would you have expected to 2 be notified? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. And because you were the number three person 5 on the Andersen team advising Sunbeam at the time? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And because you were the point person for 8 these acquisition transactions and working with Morgan 9 Stanley on its due diligence, you and Mr. Harlow? 10 A. We were working for Sunbeam on the due 11 diligence, not Morgan Stanley. 12 Q. Correct, but you were working with Morgan 13 Stanley in responding to their inquiries as part of 14 their due diligence? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. And so you would expect that if there were 17 inquiries from Coleman (Parent) Holdings, that you and 18 Mr. Harlow would also be involved in those? 19 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 20 question. 21 THE WITNESS: I would think so, yes. 22 BY MR. CLARE: 23 Q. Okay. Based on the total lack of due 24 diligence that you observed from Coleman (Parent) 25 Holdings, would you agree with me that Morgan Stanley's	Page 203 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. It was more comprehensive than the due 3 diligence performed by Coleman (Parent) Holdings? 4 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objection. 5 THE WITNESS: I wasn't aware of any due 6 diligence done by Coleman that I was aware of. 7 BY MR. CLARE: 8 Q. So Morgan Stanley did due diligence and 9 Coleman (Parent) Holdings did not, from your 10 perspective? 11 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objection. 12 THE WITNESS: From my perspective, yes. 13 BY MR. CLARE: 14 Q. And you were surprised by the fact that 15 Coleman (Parent) Holdings had not done any due 16 diligence that had been directed to you? 17 MR. MOSCATO: I'm not going to make a big 18 deal of it. I kind of have an objection of 19 repeating the same question numerous times. 20 You can answer, Larry. 21 THE WITNESS: I think I just stated I was 22 surprised. 23 BY MR. CLARE: 24 Q. And you were surprised back in the first 25 quarter of 1998?
Page 202 1 due diligence of Sunbeam was more comprehensive than 2 Coleman (Parent) Holdings? 3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object, lack of foundation. 4 BY MR. CLARE: 5 Q. From your observation. 6 A. From my observation, yes. 7 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objection. 8 BY MR. CLARE: 9 Q. Sorry? 10 A. From where I stood, yes. 11 Q. So from your perspective, Morgan Stanley 12 spent more time conducting due diligence of Sunbeam 13 than Coleman (Parent) Holdings? 14 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objection, lack of 15 foundation. 16 THE WITNESS: From my vantage point, yes. 17 BY MR. CLARE: 18 Q. And from your vantage point -- and again, 19 that's all I'm asking you about is what you have 20 personal knowledge of -- from your vantage point, 21 Morgan Stanley conducted more comprehensive due 22 diligence than Coleman (Parent) Holdings? 23 MR. MARKOWSKI: Same objection. 24 THE WITNESS: I would have to say more. I 25 don't know how comprehensive it was, but more.	Page 204 1 A. Yes. 2 MR. MOSCATO: Part of my objection goes to 3 the fact that he's a busy man. I really would 4 appreciate it if you are making points, just not 5 to belabor them. 6 MR. CLARE: I understand. I just want to 7 make sure, as you pointed out earlier, that the 8 record is clear about Mr. Bornstein's testimony. 9 MR. MOSCATO: I think it's more than clear at 10 this point. Go ahead, I'm sorry to interrupt. 11 MR. CLARE: That's okay. 12 BY MR. CLARE: 13 Q. Have you had experience in other engagements 14 when you were at Andersen in which you were advising 15 the client that was involved in an acquisition? 16 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry. 17 BY MR. CLARE: 18 Q. In other words, besides Sunbeam, were you 19 involved in other acquisition transactions while you 20 were at Andersen? 21 MR. MOSCATO: Is that your question? 22 MR. CLARE: Yes. 23 MR. MOSCATO: My objection was to advising 24 the client about an acquisition, because I don't 25 think there is any testimony --

Page 205 1 MR. CLARE: That's fine, I withdraw that. 2 MR. MOSCATO: Okay. 3 BY MR. CLARE: 4 Q. Were you involved in any engagement at 5 Andersen in which Andersen was involved in responding 6 to due diligence inquiries in an acquisition setting 7 besides the Sunbeam one? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. And in those situations, were you involved in 10 receiving or responding to requests that were made by 11 the party that was investing in Andersen's client? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And were you involved in those other 14 situations in responding to requests from the 15 investor's financial advisors? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. And their lawyers? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And in those situations, you had also met 20 with the investing company's accountants? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. But none of that happened in connection with 23 the Sunbeam acquisition of Coleman; is that right? 24 MR. MARKOWSKI: None of what? 25 MR. CLARE: None of those items that I just	Page 207 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. Did you think you had done an adequate job of 3 conducting due diligence on Coleman from an accounting 4 perspective? 5 MR. MOSCATO: I object. 6 BY MR. CLARE: 7 Q. Did you have a view at the time? 8 A. I didn't think it was adequate, no. 9 Q. And did you inform anybody of your view that 10 it was inadequate? 11 A. The people I was traveling with. Yes, the 12 answer is yes. 13 Q. Who? 14 A. Bob Gluck. 15 Q. So you told -- 16 A. Janet Kelly, there was another guy there, Bob 17 Tottie, I believe his name was. 18 Q. Was there anybody from Morgan Stanley present 19 at that meeting? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Did you ever express that view to Morgan 22 Stanley that you thought the due diligence that had 23 been done on Coleman by Sunbeam was inadequate? 24 A. I believe I probably did, yeah. 25 Q. As you sit here today, do you have a
Page 206 1 described. 2 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 3 question. 4 THE WITNESS: That's all over the place, the 5 question, I'm sorry. 6 BY MR. CLARE: 7 Q. Okay. Did you accompany -- let me withdraw 8 that. 9 Were you involved in conducting due diligence 10 on Coleman? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. And you met with Coleman's outside 13 accountants as part of that due diligence? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And you asked questions of them about 16 Coleman's financial condition? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And how many days did you spend doing that 19 with Coleman specifically? 20 A. One. 21 Q. And then you spent one day each with the 22 other acquisition targets? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And that was as part of Sunbeam's due 25 diligence on Coleman, that one day of due diligence?	Page 208 1 recollection of when and where and to whom that 2 information was provided at Morgan Stanley? 3 A. No, not specifically, no. 4 Q. Generally? 5 A. No. 6 Q. So you can't testify about a particular 7 conversation that you had or a particular document that 8 was written to communicate that information to Morgan 9 Stanley? 10 A. No. 11 Q. I want to switch topics to focus on the day 12 at the print shop. 13 A. Okay. 14 Q. And I want to start where you started earlier 15 this morning about when you were in the hotel room with 16 Mr. Brockelman watching television. 17 And again, just to be clear, this was 18 March 19, 1998, the day that the press release was 19 issued? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And you were watching television with 22 Mr. Brockelman? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And it was a report on CNBC? 25 A. I believe so, yeah.

52 (Pages 205 to 208)

Page 209 1 Q. And your recollection is it was a text 2 crawler on the bottom of the screen? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. It was not a news report with a live 5 interview or a news person that was communicating this 6 information, to the best of your recollection? 7 A. Yeah, I think I do remember alive 8 conversation on it, but I'm not 100 percent sure. 9 Q. And you recall that the news report indicated 10 that the first quarter 1998 sales might not meet 11 analysts' expectations? That was part of the news 12 report that you remember hearing? 13 A. Honestly, I just remember early morning 14 release Sunbeam's sales reports, sales are going to be 15 below expectations. I don't remember anything specific 16 about it. 17 Q. That was my question, was whether you 18 remember whether the statement in the press release 19 about first quarter 1997 sales was part of the report 20 that you saw. 21 A. I don't remember. 22 Q. You don't remember one way or the other? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Was there any mention of Morgan Stanley in 25 the press release, the press report that you saw on	Page 211 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. So this news report on CNBC was not the first 3 time you were hearing that information? 4 MR. MARKOWSKI: I'm going to object. He said 5 he can't remember whether the information about 6 the first quarter of '97 was part of the 7 announcement. 8 MR. CLARE: And I didn't ask him about that. 9 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could you read the question 10 back, please. 11 MR. CLARE: Fair enough. Now I understand 12 your objection, Bob, I'm sorry. 13 BY MR. CLARE: 14 Q. Was Mr. Brockelman present when you called 15 Mr. Harlow to ask him about the, what had happened? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. About the press release? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And you said you couldn't remember whether it 20 was Mr. Harlow or Mr. Gluck that you ultimately got in 21 touch with from your hotel room? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Did either Mr. Harlow or Mr. Gluck read you 24 the entire press release over the phone? 25 A. I don't remember if they did or if I got it
Page 210 1 CNBC? 2 A. I don't remember. 3 Q. Do you remember if there were any mention of 4 the debenture offering? 5 A. No. 6 Q. Or the pending acquisitions? 7 A. I don't recall anything, no. 8 Q. Was CNBC reporting on the reaction of the 9 stock to this news? 10 A. I believe so, yeah. 11 Q. And what do you recall was the stock price 12 that day? 13 A. I thought it went down significantly. I 14 don't remember exactly what it was. 15 Q. Is that all you remember about the press 16 report that you saw? 17 A. On TV? 18 Q. Yes. 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. And at the time that you saw the press 21 release -- sorry, withdrawn. 22 At the time that you saw the press report on 23 CNBC, you knew from your prior conversation with 24 Mr. Pastrana that Sunbeam sales for the first two 25 months of 1998 were lower than the prior year, right?	Page 212 1 faxed, I don't recall. 2 Q. Did you learn from any source during that 3 phone conversation who had drafted the press release? 4 A. I don't remember. 5 Q. During that telephone conversation, was there 6 any discussion about what role, if any, Morgan Stanley 7 had in the decision to issue the press release or its 8 content? 9 A. At the hotel room, no. 10 Q. The first time you had a discussion on that 11 topic was at the print shop with Mr. Tyree? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. During that initial telephone call that you 14 had in your hotel room, was there any discussion with 15 Mr. Harlow or Mr. Gluck about Sunbeam's ability to 16 exceed first quarter 1997 sales? 17 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could you read that back? 18 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 19 was read by the reporter.) 20 MR. MARKOWSKI: You're talking about 21 discussion other than reading the text of the 22 press release? 23 MR. CLARE: That's correct. Any discussion 24 about the achievability. 25 THE WITNESS: Not that I'm aware.

Page 213 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. Was there any discussion between you and 3 Mr. Harlow and Mr. Gluck about whether the press 4 release that Sunbeam had issued should be retracted or 5 withdrawn? 6 A. No. 7 Q. Did you think that the press release should 8 be retracted or withdrawn? 9 A. No. 10 Q. Did you think the press release was false? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Did you think the press release was 13 misleading? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Did you discuss your view that the press 16 release was misleading with either Mr. Harlow or 17 Mr. Gluck? 18 A. Again, at the hotel room, talking about the 19 hotel room? 20 Q. Yes, I am. 21 A. Not that I'm aware of. 22 Q. Was there any discussion about withholding 23 Andersen's comfort letter as a result of the issuance 24 of the press release, again focusing on the 25 conversation in the hotel room?	Page 215 1 press release was misleading. 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. But you never asked Sunbeam to withdraw or 4 retract the press release, did you? 5 A. No. 6 Q. And you did not express that suggestion to 7 anybody internally at Sunbeam? 8 A. No. 9 Q. And/or anybody internally at Andersen? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Or anybody at Morgan Stanley? 12 A. No. 13 Q. And the reason that you thought it was 14 misleading is because you thought it was aggressive? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Is there any other reason that you thought it 17 was misleading? 18 A. The language about the reasons for it were I 19 thought misleading. 20 Q. In what way? 21 A. Just I'd have to look at it again, but -- 22 Q. Let's pull it out. It's Exhibit Number 14. 23 A. Just the wording, changes in inventory 24 management and order patterns. I'm not really sure 25 exactly how that impacts sales.
Page 214 1 A. Not that I'm aware of, no. 2 Q. Was there any discussion about what 3 disclosure needed to be made in the offering memorandum 4 of the press release with Mr. Harlow or Mr. Gluck? 5 A. No. 6 Q. So the first time that topic was raised was 7 later at the print shop? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Was there a discussion with you and 10 Mr. Harlow and Mr. Gluck about approaching Morgan 11 Stanley with that question? 12 A. No. 13 Q. You testified that you did ask Mr. Tyree and 14 Mr. Lurie about what would be included in the offering 15 memorandum, correct? 16 A. Yeah, I did that myself. 17 Q. That was on your own initiative? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. In other words, prior to that, you had not 20 had a discussion with anybody from Andersen about 21 asking that question? 22 A. No. 23 Q. Or anybody from Sunbeam? 24 A. No. 25 Q. You stated that you held a view that the	Page 216 1 Q. Could that be a reference to Sunbeam's Early 2 Buy program? 3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 4 question. 5 THE WITNESS: I have no idea exactly at this 6 point. 7 BY MR. CLARE: 8 Q. But is that the way you understood it? 9 A. Yes, and then the whole comment about new 10 products, because I don't believe that at that time any 11 of the new products had significant sales, the new 12 products that they talked about here. 13 Q. Now you testified earlier that you discussed 14 with Morgan Stanley and the Davis Polk lawyers your 15 belief that you had that the statement in the press 16 release was aggressive, correct? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Did you discuss with Morgan Stanley or Davis 19 Polk these additional concerns that you had about the 20 wording of the reasons for the softer sales? 21 A. I don't remember specifically. 22 Q. As you sit here today, can you recall any 23 discussion that you had with Morgan Stanley or Davis 24 Polk about the reasons stated in the press release for 25 the softer sales?

54 (Pages 213 to 216)

Page 217 1 A. No. 2 Q. Did you discuss that issue with Mr. Gluck or 3 Mr. Harlow in your hotel room? 4 MR. MARKOWSKI: That issue being the 5 statement made in the press release? 6 MR. CLARE: About the reasons, yes. 7 THE WITNESS: No. 8 BY MR. CLARE: 9 Q. Did you raise that issue with anybody? 10 A. The reasons in the press release? I don't 11 remember. I just, I just remember focusing on the 12 $253 million number that I didn't think that was going 13 to be met and that they should have just left it at 14 lower, it's going to be lower basically. 15 Q. They, Sunbeam should have just left it at 16 that? 17 A. Yeah. 18 Q. Did anyone ever tell you that Morgan Stanley 19 had been involved in drafting the press release? 20 A. Drafting specifically, no, but Tyree 21 mentioned that they were involved in the conversation 22 that led up to the issuance of the release. 23 Q. With regard to the particular wording of the 24 press release -- 25 A. I have no idea.	Page 219 1 A. No. 2 Q. Mr. Tyree didn't tell you? 3 A. No. 4 Q. Or Mr. Gluck or anybody? 5 A. No. 6 Q. I want to go back to the discussion that you 7 had with Mr. Tyree at the print shop. So we're leaving 8 your hotel room now, and you and Mr. Brockelman go to 9 Global Financial Press. 10 You said that there was a meeting that you 11 had with the individuals present where you discussed 12 the subscription for the bond offering, the fact that 13 it was oversubscribed? That was the first thing that 14 you remember when you arrived at the print shop? 15 A. Yeah, I was very surprised it was 16 oversubscribed. 17 Q. Why were you surprised? 18 A. Because we just had pretty devastating news 19 about the results of the company and the stock price 20 was going down significantly and the bonds were 21 oversubscribed and they were convertible bonds into 22 stocks, so I just thought it was ironic at best that it 23 was, the bonds were oversubscribed. 24 Q. And did the discussion of the press release 25 and what should be put in the offering memo about the
Page 218 1 Q. You have no idea what role, if any, Morgan 2 Stanley played in the drafting of the press release 3 from any source? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Yes, you have -- 6 A. I have no idea. 7 Q. You have no idea, thank you. 8 When was the first time you saw a hard copy 9 of the press release? Was it in your hotel room or at 10 the printer? 11 A. I think it was in my hotel room. 12 Q. Were you informed by anyone who had decided 13 to include the statement about expecting to exceed 1997 14 first quarter sales in the press release? 15 MR. MARKOWSKI: Could you read that back for 16 me, please? 17 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 18 was read by the reporter.) 19 THE WITNESS: No. 20 BY MR. CLARE: 21 Q. That was the portion of the press release 22 that you objected to, correct? 23 A. For the most part, yes. 24 Q. And you don't have any understanding as to 25 who put that clause in the press release?	Page 220 1 press release come up during that conversation? 2 A. No. 3 Q. When did that issue come up? Did it come up 4 in the course of working through the offering 5 memorandum in the manner that you described? 6 A. No, I'd say the first 15 minutes of the 7 conversation were about the surprise of the size of the 8 offering, and then the conversation about what happened 9 the night before and Dunlap yelling and screaming. 10 The next 15 minutes were based on what was 11 going to be put in the offering related to the 12 disclosure of the press release. 13 Q. Tell me about the conversation with Mr. Tyree 14 and others about the night before. Tell me everything 15 you remember about that discussion. 16 A. Just that there was a lot of yelling and 17 screaming, and Dunlap would say, "Who the hell do these 18 guys think they are making us disclose this? We're 19 going to lose $100 million. They don't know our 20 business." Those types of things. 21 Q. So it was your understanding that Mr. Dunlap 22 was reluctant to issue the press release? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. It was your understanding that Morgan Stanley 25 had insisted that Sunbeam issue the press release, is

55 (Pages 217 to 220)

Page 221 1 that what Mr. Tyree told you? 2 A. No, nothing about insisting. 3 Q. Or had suggested? 4 A. I have no idea who suggested it. 5 Q. Well, what I'm trying to get at is you 6 referenced a statement by Mr. Dunlap, "Who do these 7 guys think they are, making me lose $100,000?" 8 A. I think they were talking about Arthur 9 Andersen. 10 Q. So it was your understanding that Mr. Dunlap 11 was upset with Andersen? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Now I'm a little confused, because I thought 14 to your knowledge Andersen had not played any role in 15 the decision to issue the press release or the drafting 16 of it. 17 A. No. The decision was that the information 18 needed to be disclosed to Morgan Stanley and the 19 public, or else they weren't getting that comfort 20 letter. 21 Q. Okay. And so you understood Mr. Dunlap to be 22 upset with Andersen for insisting that it be disclosed 23 to Morgan Stanley? 24 A. And the public. 25 Q. And the public?	Page 223 1 caveat to the $253 million in sales. 2 BY MR. CLARE: 3 Q. And that's the objection that you raised with 4 Morgan Stanley? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. You didn't raise any of your other objections 7 about the wording with Morgan Stanley? 8 A. I don't remember specifically. 9 Q. You don't remember doing it? 10 A. I don't think any of it should be in other 11 than really the facts as they were. 12 Q. Which was what? 13 A. They weren't going to make the top number. 14 Q. So you didn't have any objection to that 15 information being disclosed? 16 A. No. 17 Q. You see here on the second page of CPH 18 Exhibit 14 there is a cautionary statement. 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. You're familiar with those cautionary 21 statements? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. In the press release that you saw on 24 March 19th, the hard copy that you saw included these 25 cautionary statements?
Page 222 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And it was your understanding that unless 3 that information was disclosed to the public, that 4 Andersen would withhold its comfort letter? 5 A. Unless reasonable disclosure was made, yes. 6 Q. And that if reasonable disclosure was made, 7 that Andersen would issue its comfort letter? 8 A. That's my understanding, yes. 9 Q. In terms of the discussion about what portion 10 of the press release ought to be included in the 11 offering memorandum, you didn't have any objection to 12 including the statement that Sunbeam might miss the 13 expectation of Wall Street analysts, did you? 14 Did you have any objection to including that 15 portion of the press release in the offering 16 memorandum? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Your only objection was the clause that 19 follows that about net sales being expected to exceed 20 1997 first quarter sale? 21 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 22 question, mischaracterizes what he has said about 23 his views of various other statements in this. 24 MR. MOSCATO: Well, answer the question. 25 THE WITNESS: My main objection was the	Page 224 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And these are akin to the cautionary 3 statements that you wanted to be included in the 4 offering memorandum -- 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. -- to accompany the press release disclosure? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. You didn't have any objection to including 9 those cautionary statements in the offering memorandum? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk 12 object to your suggestion that you include cautionary 13 language in the offering memorandum about 14 forward-looking statements or risk factors? 15 A. Not that I'm aware of, no. 16 Q. Do you remember anybody resisting that idea? 17 A. No. 18 Q. You testified that after this initial 19 conversation with Mr. Tyree where you raised these 20 objections, it was Mr. Lurie who said the press release 21 would be going in verbatim? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Did Mr. Tyree say anything during that 24 conversation that you remember? 25 A. No, not specifically.

Page 225 1 Q. Do you have any recollection of, even without 2 recalling his specific words, what his position on that 3 was? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Did he ever say he disagreed with you? 6 A. I don't remember. 7 Q. You don't remember him saying that? 8 A. No. 9 Q. Did you have that impression that he 10 disagreed with you? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. But you can't recall what it was that he 13 said? 14 A. It was his counsel sitting right next to him 15 that disagreed with me and he didn't differ his 16 opinion, so -- 17 Q. Did Mr. Lurie explain the reasons for his 18 statement that the press release would go in verbatim? 19 A. That those were the company's 20 representations. 21 Q. So Mr. Lurie told you that these were 22 Sunbeam's representations and that they would be 23 included in Sunbeam's bond offering; is that a fair 24 summary? 25 A. Yes.	Page 227 1 Q. Okay. Did, so you didn't think it was 2 Mr. Tyree's decision to make ultimately? 3 A. No. 4 Q. You testified that there were at least one 5 and maybe more lawyers from Scadden Arps present for 6 this discussion, correct? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. And they were there as lawyers to Sunbeam? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Did they participate in this discussion? 11 A. I don't specifically remember. 12 Q. Do you remember any of the lawyers from 13 Scadden expressing a view as to what ought to be 14 included in the Recent Development section? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Do you remember them agreeing or disagreeing 17 with the objection that you made? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Did you solicit their view? 20 A. I'm pretty sure that I did. I don't remember 21 specifically, though. 22 Q. Do you have an impression about the position 23 that the Scadden lawyers had on this issue that you 24 were discussing with Mr. Lurie and Mr. Tyree? 25 A. I think I was the only one in the room that
Page 226 1 Q. Did Mr. Lurie express an independent view of 2 whether it ought to be included or not? 3 A. He -- yes, he said he -- yes. 4 Q. But he was -- let me put it this way. Did 5 Mr. Lurie communicate to you whether the company 6 believed the press release ought to be included 7 verbatim? 8 A. No. 9 Q. Did you think Mr. Lurie was the final 10 decision maker as to what would go in the offering 11 memorandum? 12 A. No, I thought it was the company's decision. 13 Q. So you didn't think it was Mr. Lurie? 14 A. No. 15 Q. You didn't think it was anybody from Davis 16 Polk? 17 A. Anybody could have said the deal's not going 18 through if we put this in. I mean it's their decision. 19 Q. My question is different. My question is who 20 was the, who was the final decision maker about what 21 would be included in the Recent Development section of 22 the offering memorandum? 23 And I believe your testimony is you believe 24 that it was the company's decision ultimately. 25 A. Yeah, I believe so.	Page 228 1 had a difference of opinion about what should be in 2 there. 3 Q. So it wasn't just Morgan Stanley and Davis 4 Polk. Your impression was that Sunbeam's lawyers, 5 Scadden Arps -- 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. -- had the same view? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Is there anything else about that discussion 10 that we haven't talked about today -- 11 A. No. 12 Q. -- that you can recall? 13 A. No. 14 Q. At that point you left the room and you went 15 into the pool room? 16 A. Uh huh. 17 Q. And you called Mr. Harlow? 18 A. (Witness nods head up and down.) 19 Q. Is that a yes? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. I'm sorry, the court reporter has to take 22 down your verbal answers. 23 A. Sorry, I'm eating ice. 24 Q. And Mr. Harlow conferenced in Mr. Gluck? 25 A. Yes.

Page 229 1 Q. How long did you talk to Mr. Harlow before he 2 conferenced in Mr. Gluck? 3 A. Ten minutes probably. 4 Q. Do you remember anything that you discussed 5 with Mr. Harlow specifically before you brought in 6 Mr. Gluck? 7 A. Other than the fact as we discussed earlier 8 about my opinion not to put that in. 9 Q. Mr. Harlow shared your view? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And why did you conference in Mr. Gluck? 12 A. To get an understanding of the company's, 13 what they believed what should be included, as well as 14 to get more information on the basis for making the 15 statement. 16 Q. Because it was the company's decision about 17 what would be included in the offering memorandum? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And that was the reason you went to the 20 company for that? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Did you and Mr. Harlow attempt to or discuss 23 conferencing in anybody else from Morgan Stanley? 24 A. No. They were in the next room. They knew 25 what I was doing, so they knew who I was speaking with.	Page 231 1 Q. But you thought Mr. Fanin had -- 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. -- some additional information on that? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And was there a consideration or discussion 6 that the question about what should be included in the 7 offering memorandum might have legal implications, and 8 that's why it made sense to bring somebody from 9 Sunbeam's legal department into the conversation? 10 A. I don't know what the thought process was, to 11 be honest with you. 12 Q. Did that thought occur to you? 13 A. No, my understanding was he was part of the 14 discussion in the press release. 15 Q. But did that thought occur to you that the 16 question of what ought to be included in the offering 17 memorandum might have legal implications for Sunbeam 18 and therefore a Sunbeam lawyer needed to be involved in 19 the decision making? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. That thought occurred to you that night? 22 A. As well as other counsel that were there, 23 yes. 24 Q. But again, it was the company's decision 25 about what would be included in the offering
Page 230 1 Q. I understand that, but you or Mr. Harlow 2 didn't suggest to conference in somebody perhaps more 3 senior from Morgan Stanley to discuss this issue? 4 A. Never met anybody more senior from Morgan 5 Stanley so -- 6 Q. That was my next question. Did you know 7 anybody from Morgan Stanley who was working on the deal 8 other than Mr. Tyree? 9 A. And Tyrone Chang, no. 10 Q. Other than what you testified to this 11 morning, do you remember anything about the discussion 12 that you had with Mr. Gluck? 13 A. No. 14 Q. And Mr. Harlow? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Mr. Harlow told you he was going to follow up 17 with Mr. Fanin? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Did he say why he was going to follow up with 20 Mr. Fanin? 21 A. To discuss the issue and get support for the 22 sales estimates. 23 Q. And Mr. Gluck had not been involved in the 24 discussion of the sales estimates the night before? 25 A. I have no idea.	Page 232 1 memorandum? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And so it would make sense that the company's 4 lawyers were involved in that decision? 5 A. Correct. 6 Q. And in fact, later in the evening it was the 7 company's lawyers that communicated to you the 8 company's decision to include the press release 9 verbatim, correct? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And that was either Mr. Fanin or Miss Kelly? 12 A. I believe it was Miss Kelly to Harlow, Harlow 13 to me. 14 Q. But it was your understanding that Miss Kelly 15 was the ultimate decision-maker on including the press 16 release verbatim? 17 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection, lack of 18 foundation. 19 THE WITNESS: My belief, it was Fanin's 20 decision. It was legal counsel, Sunbeam's legal 21 counsel. 22 BY MR. CLARE: 23 Q. Sunbeam's legal counsel? 24 A. In-house legal counsel. 25 Q. Just to be clear action, it's your testimony

Page 233 1 that the final decision to include the entire text of 2 the press release verbatim in the press release was 3 made by Sunbeam's in-house legal counsel? 4 A. Yes. 5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection to lack of 6 foundation. 7 BY MR. CLARE: 8 Q. But from your perspective, that was true? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. You returned to the room with Mr. Brockelman 11 and Mr. Tyree and Mr. Lurie and the Scadden lawyers 12 were and you had a side bar conversation with 13 Mr. Brockelman? 14 A. Outside of the room, yes. 15 Q. And Mr. Brockelman told you that Mr. Tyree 16 was making derogatory comments to you? 17 A. Yes. 18 MR. MARKOWSKI: When you say to you -- 19 THE WITNESS: Toward me. 20 BY MR. CLARE: 21 Q. Directed towards you while you were outside 22 of the room? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Did Mr. Brockelman tell you what he thought 25 Mr. Tyree was upset about?	Page 235 1 A. I don't recall specifically him saying that. 2 Q. Do you recall him saying that in substance? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. After you came back into the room? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And did he elaborate on his reasons for that? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Did Mr. Tyree ever indicate to you that it 9 was his decision to make? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Did he ever say to you, "I don't care what 12 you think, Mr. Bornstein, we're putting it in," in 13 words or in substance? 14 A. For the most part, yeah, that was the gist of 15 what was being told to me. 16 Q. And did you tell Mr. Tyree that the issue had 17 been submitted to Sunbeam's legal counsel? 18 A. He was aware of that, yes. 19 Q. Because you told him? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. You told him that you had spoken with 22 Mr. Fanin? 23 A. I never spoke to Fanin, but someone had, yes. 24 Q. You told Mr. Tyree that Andersen had raised 25 the issue with Mr. Fanin?
Page 234 1 A. I think it was the fact that he wasn't aware 2 of the results of the sales for the first two months, 3 where the company was. 4 Q. And it was, was that your sense as well? Did 5 you share that sense that that's what Mr. Tyree was 6 upset about? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. So Mr. Tyree, in using profanity that was 9 directed towards you outside of your presence and then 10 again to you in your presence, it was your sense that 11 he was upset about not knowing this information sooner? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. He wasn't using this profanity in an argument 14 with you over your objection to including the text of 15 the press release? 16 A. No. 17 Q. That wasn't the context of Mr. Tyree's 18 profanity? 19 A. Not that I believe. 20 Q. How about raising his voice? 21 A. I don't think so. 22 Q. Did Mr. Tyree ever say to you during that 23 discussion after you had reentered the room that he 24 believed that the press release should be included 25 verbatim in the offering memorandum?	Page 236 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And at that point, what happened with regard 3 to this issue? Did everybody sit and wait for -- 4 A. People kept working and it was several hours 5 later that the decision finally came back. 6 Q. So people kept working on other issues 7 related to the offering memorandum? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. At that point in time when Mr. Tyree had this 10 discussion with you, no decision had been made about 11 what would be included in the offering memorandum? 12 A. Correct. 13 Q. During that same discussion with Mr. Tyree, 14 you indicated that he said, "Are these guys fucking 15 with me? Are they going to make their numbers or not?" 16 Is that correct? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Best of your recollection of what he said? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Who did you understand Mr. Tyree to be 21 referring to when he said these guys? 22 A. Sunbeam. 23 Q. So he wasn't saying Andersen? He wasn't 24 referring to Andersen? 25 A. No.

Page 237 1 Q. And he wasn't suggesting that you or 2 Mr. Brockelman might be fucking with him about the 3 numbers? 4 A. Correct. 5 Q. He seemed to be directing his anger towards 6 Sunbeam in raising this question? 7 A. Yeah. It was these guys, so it wasn't you. 8 Q. Okay. And you understood him to be referring 9 to Sunbeam? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Did you -- what did you understand him to be 12 asking, less colloquially, when he asked you that 13 question? 14 A. If I thought they were going to be able to 15 make these numbers. 16 Q. Did you think it was appropriate for him to 17 ask that question? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. Did you think it was legitimate for Mr. Tyree 20 and Morgan Stanley to want to know that information? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Did he appear sincere to you in wanting to 23 know that information? 24 A. He seemed very upset and nervous about it. 25 Q. Did he appear to you to be concerned that	Page 239 1 A. I thought it was aggressive. 2 Q. But did you think that Sunbeam's management 3 was lying to Morgan Stanley about its sales objectives? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Did you have any basis to suspect that that 6 was the case? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Did Mr. Tyree discuss with you in any detail 9 the schedule of sales that's been marked at least in 10 form as CPH Exhibit 121? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Did you have any discussions about these 13 numbers beyond you expressing the view that they were 14 aggressive? 15 A. I believe I mentioned that I think they were 16 numbers on a page and they were aggressive at this 17 point in time. 18 Q. Did Mr. Tyree tell you where this document 19 had come from? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Was there any discussion about the fact that 22 Morgan Stanley had spent several hours on the phone the 23 night before going through this document with Sunbeam's 24 management? 25 A. No.
Page 238 1 Sunbeam's management was fucking with him about their 2 ability to meet the numbers? 3 A. He had a concern, yes. 4 Q. And did you think that, in asking that 5 question, Mr. Tyree was being diligent in wanting to 6 find out that information? 7 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. 8 BY MR. CLARE: 9 Q. Did you have an impression about that? 10 A. No. I don't think he was being diligent 11 about it. 12 Q. But you thought it was appropriate for him to 13 ask that question? 14 A. Sure. 15 Q. And what did you tell him in response to that 16 question? 17 A. I told him what I said before. I didn't 18 think -- I thought it was a stretch. 19 Q. Did you tell him in words or in substance 20 that Sunbeam was lying to Morgan Stanley about its 21 sales objectives for the quarter? 22 A. No. 23 Q. Did you think that Sunbeam was lying to 24 Morgan Stanley about its sales objectives for the 25 quarter?	Page 240 1 Q. Was there any discussion about the fact that 2 Mr. Uzzi and several members of Sunbeam's sales team 3 had given a presentation to Morgan Stanley about this 4 document? 5 A. No. 6 Q. Was there any discussion about Sunbeam's 7 confidence in meeting these numbers that are reflected 8 on the buildup, CPH 121? 9 A. Not that I recall. 10 Q. Did Mr. Harlow ever tell you that Mr. Uzzi 11 was very confident about exceeding the first quarter 12 1997 numbers? 13 A. I believe he did toward later in the night. 14 Q. So later in the evening Mr. Harlow reported 15 back to you that as a result of his additional 16 inquiries, he had been informed that Mr. Uzzi was very 17 confident that Sunbeam would exceed its first quarter 18 1990 sales numbers? 19 MR. MARKOWSKI: You said 1990 again. 20 MR. CLARE: Okay. I apologize. 21 THE WITNESS: I believe that the board got 22 back to Phil. I don't know who he spoke to 23 specifically. I don't know, I don't think he 24 spoke to Uzzi directly. 25

Page 241 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. Okay. Did you provide any other response to 3 Mr. Tyree about the sales buildup document except for 4 what you just testified about to say that it was 5 aggressive? 6 MR. MARKOWSKI: Other than what he testified 7 about this morning? 8 MR. CLARE: Well, let me ask you that. 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. Did you tell Mr. Tyree that you believed, 11 having seen this document, that it was even more 12 aggressive for Sunbeam to be projecting these sales? 13 A. I don't know about more aggressive, but I, as 14 I testified to earlier, I said if they are going to 15 make it, they are going to make it legitimately, 16 because I'm going to do additional procedures to ensure 17 that they do. 18 Q. We're going to get to that part of the 19 conversation in just a second. I just want to focus on 20 CPH Exhibit 121 and the sales buildup sheet. 21 A. Okay. 22 Q. Let me know when you have that in front of 23 you. 24 A. Okay. 25 Q. You testified a moment ago that you told	Page 243 1 that's CPH 121? 2 A. I don't recall specifically. 3 Q. Do you recall at all discussing that issue 4 with Mr. Tyree? 5 A. That it was escalated above where it was 6 before? No. 7 Q. Did you provide Mr. Tyree or any of the Davis 8 Polk lawyers with any information about any of the 9 customers that are listed here on CPH Exhibit 121? 10 A. No. 11 Q. For example, did you tell Morgan Stanley 12 anything that you or Arthur Andersen knew about 13 potential orders at Wal-Mart? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Or past sales to that customer? 16 A. No. 17 Q. Or ordering patterns? 18 A. No. 19 Q. Or trends? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Did you have this information in your mind 22 about any of the customers that are listed here on CPH 23 Exhibit 121? 24 A. No. 25 Q. Did you have any specific information about
Page 242 1 Mr. Tyree that you believed the numbers on CPH 2 Exhibit 121 were just numbers on a page; is that right? 3 A. For lack of a better definition, yeah, 4 because I didn't see support for it. 5 Q. Okay. But you didn't know, Mr. Tyree didn't 6 tell you that he had additional support beyond this 7 document -- 8 A. No. 9 Q. -- from Sunbeam sales force? 10 A. No. 11 Q. I want to get as close as I can to the exact 12 word that you told Mr. Tyree in response to this 13 document. Can you tell me what your best recollection 14 is? 15 A. I think I've already testified to that. 16 Q. Okay. Can you tell me again, please. 17 A. That I thought it was aggressive and a bunch 18 of numbers on a page. 19 Q. Now this morning, in response to a question 20 from Mr. Markowski, you testified to a belief that you 21 had after seeing this document, that it was even more 22 aggressive. 23 And I want to know, did you communicate that 24 belief to Mr. Tyree that your skepticism about the 25 numbers escalated after having seen the sales buildup	Page 244 1 the sales or ordering patterns for these customers that 2 night on March 19, 1998? 3 A. No. 4 MR. MOSCATO: Is it possible to take 30 5 seconds and hunt up a cup of coffee? 6 MR. CLARE: Sure, let's go off the record. 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off video 8 record. The time on the monitor, 3:01 p.m. 9 (Thereupon, a recess was taken.) 10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 11 record. The time on the monitor is 3:11 p.m. 12 BY MR. CLARE: 13 Q. Mr. Bornstein, before the break we were 14 talking about your discussions with Mr. Tyree at the 15 print shop on the evening of March 19th. 16 You testified that you told Mr. Tyree you 17 were skeptical of Sunbeam's abilities to exceed first 18 quarter 1997; is that correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Other than the word skeptical, did you use 21 any other word with Mr. Tyree to describe your views 22 about the achievability of that sales objective? 23 A. I might have used the word conservative. 24 Q. In referring to yourself as a conservative 25 accountant?

Page 245 1 A. I believe so, yes. 2 Q. And did you tell Mr. Tyree in words or in 3 substance that it was impossible for Sunbeam to exceed 4 its first quarter 1997 sales objective, of exceeding -- 5 let me rephrase. 6 Did you tell Mr. Tyree in words or in 7 substance that it would be impossible for Sunbeam in 8 the first quarter of 1998 to exceed first quarter 1997 9 sales? 10 A. I don't believe I used the word impossible. 11 I think I used the words logistically difficult. 12 Q. Okay. So we have skeptical and logistically 13 difficult. 14 A. I think those are the words I used. 15 Q. Are there any other words that you used in 16 talking to Mr. Tyree to describe your view of the 17 achievability of that sales objective? 18 MR. MARKOWSKI: He already -- are you 19 excluding what he already testified to this 20 morning? Just to get him to repeat it as a memory 21 test? Because he testified on this. 22 BY MR. CLARE: 23 Q. No, I'm asking you whether you remember using 24 any other exact words. I'm asking you for exact words. 25 A. I don't remember the exact words, to be	Page 247 1 Q. Now when you said you did the math for them, 2 that was basis for your skepticism; is that correct, 3 the gap that existed at that point in time between 4 sales to date and the number of days left in the 5 quarter? Is that the math that you're referring to? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And you went through that with Mr. Tyree and 8 Mr. Lurie? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Other than that calculation that you did, let 11 me ask you this. Did you actually physically do it out 12 on paper with Mr. Lurie and Mr. Tyree? 13 A. No. I did it in my head. 14 Q. And that's your testimony where you said they 15 would have to ship between 10 and $15 million a day for 16 the rest of the quarter? 17 A. Correct. 18 Q. And that was the basis for your statements to 19 Mr. Tyree and Mr. Lurie about your skepticism? 20 A. That, and I've been to every location 21 throughout the country and thought it would be 22 difficult to ship that much product -- 23 Q. Okay. 24 A. -- so quickly. 25 Q. Was it based on anything else besides that?
Page 246 1 honest with you, so many years. 2 (Thereupon, a cellphone rang.) 3 MR. CLARE: Let's go off the record. 4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off the 5 video record. The time on the monitor is 6 3:12 p.m. 7 (Discussion held off the record.) 8 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 9 record. The time on the monitor, 3:18 p.m. 10 BY MR. CLARE: 11 Q. Mr. Bornstein, before the break I was asking 12 you to the best of your ability to tell me the exact 13 words that you used with Mr. Tyree and Mr. Lurie in 14 describing your views on the achievability of Sunbeam's 15 objective to exceed first quarter 1997 sales. 16 And can you testify beyond what you've 17 already told me that you used the word skeptical and 18 logistically difficult to describe your exact words? 19 A. Healthy skepticism. I did the math for them, 20 and I think I testified to everything else I've said. 21 Q. As you sit here today, other than just do the 22 math, skepticism or healthy skepticism and logistically 23 difficult, do you remember any of the exact words that 24 you used with Mr. Tyree or with Mr. Lurie? 25 A. No.	Page 248 1 A. No. 2 Q. Had you done any study or analysis of sales 3 trends at Sunbeam? 4 MR. MOSCATO: You mean like a formal study or 5 analysis or any kind of understanding? 6 MR. CLARE: Any kind of understanding. 7 THE WITNESS: Yes. 8 BY MR. CLARE: 9 Q. And what had you done? 10 A. Just looked at quarterly results and looked 11 at sales by month. 12 Q. Did you have an understanding that there was 13 a history at Sunbeam of sales being back-ended at the 14 end of the quarter? 15 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 16 question. 17 THE WITNESS: There was a recent history, 18 yes. 19 BY MR. CLARE: 20 Q. An uptake of sales in the last few days or 21 weeks of a quarter? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And you knew that on March 19th? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Was your skepticism based on anything you

Page 249 1 knew about a particular customer of Sunbeam's? 2 A. No. 3 Q. You didn't have any additional information 4 about a customer? 5 A. No. 6 Q. Did you know anything, did you have any 7 additional information about the likelihood of the 8 sales coming in based on a particular customer or 9 conversation that you had had with a customer? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Or with a member of Sunbeam's sales staff? 12 A. No. 13 Q. You testified that you told Mr. Tyree and 14 Mr. Lurie and, in the Scadden lawyer's presence, that 15 you were going to be conducting some additional 16 procedures at the end of the quarter, correct? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. And I believe you said that your statement 19 was something to the effect that if they are going to 20 make their revenue number, they are going to make it, 21 because I'm going to be sending people out to every 22 shipping dock all over the country at midnight at the 23 end of the quarter, correct? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Those were the additional procedures that you	Page 251 1 Q. And you meant it when you said it, right? 2 A. I meant it. 3 Q. And you actually followed through on it? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And did anybody from Morgan Stanley or Davis 6 Polk object to Andersen conducting those additional 7 procedures? 8 A. Not that I'm aware of, no. 9 Q. Well, did they say anything to you in 10 response to your statement that you intended to carry 11 out those additional procedures? 12 A. No, they didn't say a word. 13 Q. But they didn't object? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Do you think it would be fair for the people 16 in the room to believe that you were serious about 17 wanting to carry through on that statement? 18 A. I have no idea what they wanted to believe or 19 not. 20 Q. But you said it in a serious way, you weren't 21 joking around? 22 A. Right. 23 Q. Did you, in doing the math with Mr. Tyree and 24 Mr. Lurie, did you ever indicate a particular number 25 that you believed could be shipped on a per-day basis
Page 250 1 were describing? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And those are the procedures that you 4 discussed with Mr. Markowski this morning? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. What was your intent of telling that to 7 Morgan Stanley? Why did you tell Morgan Stanley you 8 were going to be doing that? 9 A. Because I was skeptical that they were going 10 to be able to make the numbers. 11 Q. And you wanted to take additional steps to 12 make sure that the first quarter 1998 sales numbers 13 that Sunbeam reported were right; is that correct? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And that was due in part to the pressure that 16 you believed management was putting on the sales staff 17 to get product out the door? 18 A. Yes, for the most part, my decision to do 19 that was made at that point in time because of the way 20 I was being treated by the people in the room and my 21 conservatism and wanting to make sure that it was 22 actually going to be achieved. 23 Q. Because you wanted the numbers that Sunbeam 24 reported at the end of the quarter to be right? 25 A. Yes.	Page 252 1 through the end of the quarter by Sunbeam? 2 A. No. 3 Q. And did you have a particular number in your 4 mind about how much could be shipped by Sunbeam on a 5 per-day basis through the end of the first quarter? 6 A. No. 7 Q. So you didn't say that for the Neosho 8 facility? 9 A. I don't remember specifically talking about 10 any specific facility other than I visited, I think I 11 specifically listed off the names of the locations I 12 had visited. 13 Q. Well, that's why I'm asking you the question, 14 because you testified you told Morgan Stanley that you 15 had been to Neosho. 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Did you ever tell Morgan Stanley that the 18 Neosho facility can only ship x dollars' worth of 19 product per day? 20 A. No. Specifically, no. 21 Q. Generally? 22 A. No. 23 Q. How about the Hattiesburg facility? 24 A. No. 25 Q. Did you ever tell anyone from Morgan Stanley

Page 253 1 that you believed that only x dollars' worth of product 2 could be shipped from the Hattiesburg facility on a 3 per-day basis? 4 A. No. 5 Q. You testified that you said that night at the 6 printer that "I hope to God they do make their sales 7 numbers; otherwise, you're all going to get sued." 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Do you recall that testimony? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. That statement is not documented in your 12 March 31st, 1998, memo. 13 A. Correct. 14 Q. And you previously testified that this was an 15 off-the-cuff comment that you had made. 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Do you think the people in the room 18 understood it that way in the context of the discussion 19 that you had? 20 A. I have no idea. 21 Q. Is that the way you intended it to be taken, 22 was as an off-the-cuff comment? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Did you really think that everybody was going 25 to get sued?	Page 255 1 the slower sales performance through that point in the 2 quarter? 3 A. I was surprised that the bond offering was 4 going forward that night, and I made that perfectly 5 clear to people. 6 Q. How did you make that perfectly clear? 7 A. Just surprised how, that the bond offering 8 was continuing to go on and that the amount was much 9 higher given the recent developments. 10 Q. Okay. But I want to be clear. 11 You said you were surprised that the bond 12 offering was going forward because of the announcement 13 that had been made that day. 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And it was bad news that was announced, 16 correct? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. It was an early warning to the markets about 19 Sunbeam's financial performance? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And you were surprised that the pricing and 22 the subscription of the bonds had gone as well as it 23 did in light of that news? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Were you surprised that Sunbeam was
Page 254 1 A. Possibility if the numbers didn't come in, 2 yeah. 3 Q. And did you tell anyone at Andersen of your 4 belief that everybody was going to get sued if the 5 numbers didn't come in? 6 Did you discuss that with anyone internally 7 at Andersen? 8 A. Not before making that comment, no. 9 Q. How about afterwards? 10 A. I don't recall specifically. 11 Q. You didn't tell Mr. Harlow that? 12 A. I'm sure at some point in time I did, that I 13 made the comment, but I don't remember specifically. 14 Q. At that point in time, March 19, 1998, did 15 you think it was necessary to delay the bond offering 16 as a result of Sunbeam's sales performance to date in 17 the first quarter of 1998? 18 A. In March? 19 Q. Uh huh. 20 A. What part of March? 21 Q. On March 19th, that night at the print shop. 22 A. No, I didn't know it was a decision that I 23 needed to make, to be honest with you. 24 Q. Did you, did that thought ever occur to you 25 that the bond offering should be delayed as a result of	Page 256 1 continuing to go forward with the bond offering? 2 That's a separate question. 3 A. Not surprised that Sunbeam was, no. 4 Q. Were you surprised that Sunbeam decided to 5 continue, given the fact that it had a fully subscribed 6 bond offering? 7 A. No, I was surprised that Morgan Stanley was 8 continuing with it, not Sunbeam. 9 Q. Did you tell Morgan Stanley that you were 10 surprised they were continuing with it? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. What did you say? 13 A. That I was surprised that things were 14 proceeding the way they were, given what was going on. 15 Q. Okay. Tell me exactly what you told Morgan 16 Stanley in that regard. 17 MR. MOSCATO: If you remember the exact 18 words, use the exact words. If you remember in 19 substance, just give the substance. 20 THE WITNESS: That was in the first 15 21 minutes of the conversation, we talked about the 22 oversubscriptions of the bonds and what happened 23 that night. I don't know the exact words. 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. But I want to be clear. Your testimony is

Page 257 1 that you told Morgan Stanley that the bond offering 2 should be cancelled or delayed in light of the Sunbeam 3 sales situation? 4 A. No. 5 MR. MOSCATO: I object. 6 THE WITNESS: I said I was surprised that it 7 was continuing to go on. I never said it should 8 be cancelled or delayed. 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. Did you think it should be cancelled or 11 delayed? 12 MR. MOSCATO: I thought he answered that a 13 couple of minutes ago. I mean you keep getting 14 yourself in this because you ask the same question 15 five times. 16 Larry, answer the question again, please. 17 I would really ask you for your sake, if 18 nothing else, not to keep covering the same 19 territory again and again. It's not helpful. 20 BY MR. CLARE: 21 Q. Well, I'm entitled to understand the surprise 22 that you expressed. And I understand and I'm not, have 23 no intention to ask you more questions about your 24 surprise that the bond offering was oversubscribed, 25 okay? We've covered that.	Page 259 1 have an opinion other than being surprised. 2 Q. And as you sit here today, you don't have an 3 opinion one way or the other about whether Morgan 4 Stanley should have delayed or cancelled the bond 5 offering? 6 A. As I sit here today, my opinion is they 7 should have, yes. 8 Q. With the benefit of hindsight. 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. As you sat there in the conference room on 11 March 19, 1998, did you have an opinion as to whether 12 Morgan Stanley should have cancelled or delayed the 13 bond offering? 14 A. No. 15 Q. That opinion was formed after Sunbeam 16 imploded? 17 A. Yes. That's a good way to put it. 18 Q. Do you need to attend to your -- 19 A. No, I'm okay. I'll do it on the next break. 20 Q. You testified that you received a telephone 21 call later that evening from somebody informing you 22 that a decision had been made to include the press 23 release verbatim in the offering memorandum? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Up until that point in time, the group was
Page 258 1 A. Okay. 2 Q. And I understand that you were surprised that 3 the bonds had been priced the way they were, right? 4 A. Right. 5 Q. And you were surprised that the bond offering 6 had been oversubscribed. 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Were you surprised that Morgan Stanley had 9 decided to go forward with the bond offering apart from 10 those two points? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Why were you surprised? 13 A. Just was, given that the stock price went 14 down and the recent announcement of the information of 15 the sales of not meeting their original forecast. 16 Q. So what did you think Morgan Stanley should 17 have done? 18 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. Did you have a 19 feeling as to what Morgan Stanley should do or 20 were you just surprised? 21 THE WITNESS: I was just surprised. 22 BY MR. CLARE: 23 Q. Did you have a feeling what Morgan Stanley 24 should have done? 25 A. No, I've never sold bonds myself, so I didn't	Page 260 1 working on other aspects of the offering memo. 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. You received a telephone call? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And then you came back into the room? 6 A. I don't remember if I left the room or not. 7 Q. And did you inform those present that the 8 decision had been made? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. And what did you say? 11 A. That the decision has been made to use the 12 press release verbatim. 13 Q. And did you inform those present who had made 14 that decision? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. And what did you say? 17 A. That it was made by Janet Kelly. I have 18 no -- don't remember if they corroborated that or not 19 directly with them. 20 Q. Was there any other discussion beyond your 21 informing the room about Miss Kelly's decision? 22 A. Other than to make sure that the 23 forward-looking statement information was cross 24 referenced. 25 Q. And do you know who physically accomplished

Page 261 1 that? 2 In other words, who put in the 3 forward-looking statement cross referencing that you 4 had asked to be included? 5 A. I think I pulled the information and gave it 6 to, I think Todd Freed was the guy that was taking 7 control of what was getting put into the printer and 8 taken out. 9 Q. Mr. Freed was an attorney at Scadden? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Later in the morning you signed and delivered 12 a comfort letter to Morgan Stanley? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Did you disagree with the decision of 15 Andersen to issue a comfort letter in connection with 16 the bond offering? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Did you disagree with the decision that was 19 made by Miss Kelly to include the press release 20 verbatim in the offering memorandum? 21 A. I think I've already said that I disagreed 22 that it shouldn't have been in there. 23 Q. Was it your understanding that your 24 objections to that conclusion had been overruled by the 25 company?	Page 263 1 bond offering to go forward. 2 MR. MOSCATO: I don't think there is anything 3 in the record that the bond offering, that that 4 somehow was a prerequisite to the bond offering 5 going forward. 6 BY MR. CLARE: 7 Q. Did you understand that Morgan Stanley had 8 requested a comfort letter from Andersen in connection 9 with the bond offering? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Did you understand that the offering 12 memorandum would include Sunbeam's audited financials? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Did you understand that that bond offering 15 memorandum would be registered at some later point in 16 time? 17 A. Portions of it would have. 18 Q. Including the portions that included the 19 audited financials? 20 A. The audited financials would definitely be 21 included. I'm not sure about the rest of it. 22 Q. And you knew that evening on, at the print 23 shop that Andersen would have to issue its consent to 24 allow those audited financials to be included in that 25 registered memorandum, correct?
Page 262 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And is that why you were comfortable in 3 issuing the press release, that your objections had 4 been considered and then rejected by the company? 5 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, in issuing the press 6 release? 7 MR. CLARE: In issuing the comfort letter. 8 MR. MOSCATO: Why don't you start again? 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. Is that the reason why you were comfortable 11 in issuing the comfort letter, because your objections 12 had been considered by the company and overruled? 13 MR. MOSCATO: I don't understand the 14 question. 15 BY MR. CLARE: 16 Q. Here's what I'm getting at. 17 You disagreed with the conclusion of the 18 press release in the offering memorandum. We've 19 covered that. 20 A. Yeah. 21 Q. But you signed and delivered a comfort letter 22 to Morgan Stanley on behalf of Arthur Andersen that 23 allowed the bond offering to go forward. 24 MR. MOSCATO: I object to that. 25 THE WITNESS: I don't know if it allowed the	Page 264 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. So did you believe that Andersen should have 3 withheld its consent for the offering memorandum to be 4 finalized with the audited financials that night at the 5 print shop? 6 MR. MOSCATO: Objection, he didn't give his 7 consent to this offering memorandum. They just 8 didn't. So I object. No foundation to your 9 question. 10 BY MR. CLARE: 11 Q. You didn't have an objection to giving the 12 comfort letter to Morgan Stanley that evening? 13 A. No. 14 Q. And you knew when you delivered the comfort 15 letter to Morgan Stanley that Andersen audited 16 financial statements would be included in that offering 17 memo? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And you knew that Andersen's name was going 20 to be used in the offering memorandum as Sunbeam's 21 auditor? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And you had looked at those pages that night 24 at the print shop? 25 A. The audited financials?

Page 265 1 Q. Yes. 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And in fact, you read through the offering 4 memorandum and made cross preferences, you had been 5 working on that for the last couple of days leading up 6 to that, correct? 7 A. Correct, but you're not opining on the 8 information on the front of the document. 9 Q. But again, you knew that Andersen's name was 10 in the offering memorandum? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. And you knew that that document was going to 13 be provided to the debenture investors? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And you knew that at some later point in time 16 portions of that offering memorandum would be 17 registered? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. In fact, you worked on the registration 20 process in June, didn't you? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And you knew that as part of the registration 23 process, Andersen would have to issue a consent? 24 A. Yes. 25 THE WITNESS: I need to get this faxed.	Page 267 1 A. No. 2 Q. When you left the print shop that night, did 3 you take with you a copy of the document CPH 4 Exhibit 121 in that form, the buildup that was provided 5 to you? 6 A. I believe so, yes. 7 Q. And what, if anything, did you do with it 8 after leaving the print shop? 9 A. I don't remember specifically what I did with 10 it. 11 Q. Generally. 12 A. Put it in a file. 13 Q. Did you discuss it with anybody at Sunbeam? 14 A. I don't remember. 15 Q. Did you perform any additional procedures or 16 testing on this document, CPH Exhibit 121? 17 A. No, not that I'm aware of. 18 Q. Putting aside the document, did you have any 19 discussions with anybody from Sunbeam after you left 20 the print shop about Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 21 sales? 22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Ever? 23 MR. CLARE: Between March 19th or 20th, 1998, 24 and the end of the quarter. 25 THE WITNESS: Yeah.
Page 266 1 MR. CLARE: Go off the video record. 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off the 3 video record. The time on the monitor is 4 3:39 p.m. 5 (Discussion held off the record.) 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 7 record. The time on the monitor, 3:42 p.m. 8 BY MR. CLARE: 9 Q. Mr. Bornstein, after the last conversation 10 that we discussed, the one where you informed the 11 participants in the room that night that a decision had 12 been made about the Recent Development section, did you 13 work amicably with Mr. Tyree for the rest of the 14 evening? 15 A. For the most part, yeah. 16 Q. There were no other issues, no other issues 17 that you can recall as you sit here today that came up 18 that night? 19 A. Three o'clock in the morning, they wanted to 20 change the way that we put our debits and credits in 21 the pro formas, and I said no. That was the only other 22 issue I know that came up. It just never would have, 23 you know, just never would have gotten done. 24 Q. Other than that, is there anything else that 25 you remember?	Page 268 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. Who did you talk to? 3 A. Bob Gluck. I don't remember if it was before 4 or after the end of the quarter, but before anything 5 was released, Al LaFever, Lee Griffith, Russ Kersh. I 6 believe counsel from Scadden Arps on the Coleman issue, 7 extra two days of sales before the end of the quarter, 8 a few people. 9 Q. Specifically in any of those conversations 10 did you discuss your skepticism that Sunbeam would 11 exceed its first quarter 1997 sales in the first 12 quarter of 1998? 13 MR. MARKOWSKI: Can you read back the prior 14 question and answer please for me? Sorry. 15 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 16 was read by the reporter.) 17 MR. MARKOWSKI: Now your question was about 18 Sunbeam. Mr. Bornstein gave you an answer that 19 included people other than Sunbeam. 20 Your follow-up question concerns what now, 21 Tom? Sunbeam conversations? 22 MR. CLARE: Yes. My follow-up question is 23 any conversations between March 19th and the end 24 of the first quarter with anyone from Sunbeam 25 about Sunbeam's ability to exceed first quarter

67 (Pages 265 to 268)

Page 269 1 1997 sales. 2 THE WITNESS: Not specifically that I can 3 recall between that period of time. 4 The Coleman stuff we talked about. The sales 5 were probably after March 31st. 6 BY MR. CLARE: 7 Q. You are aware that Andersen issued a 8 bring-down letter to Morgan Stanley, and the date of 9 that was March 25th, 1998, correct? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And you looked at that. At any point between 12 the March 19, 1998, comfort letter and the March 25th, 13 1998 comfort letter, did you receive from any source 14 information about Sunbeam's progress in making sales? 15 A. I don't remember. 16 Q. Do you remember receiving any? 17 A. I don't remember. 18 Q. And then I'll ask the same question between 19 the time of the bring-down comfort letter and the end 20 of the quarter, do you remember receiving any 21 information about Sunbeam's progress and making sales 22 in the first quarter? 23 A. No, not specifically. 24 Q. Generally? 25 A. I don't remember.	Page 271 1 any discussions with anyone from Sunbeam before the end 2 of the quarter about the pace at which orders were 3 coming in? 4 A. Not that I'm aware of, no. 5 Q. Or that shipments were being made? 6 A. Not that I'm aware of, no. 7 Q. So the next information that you had about 8 that was not until after the end of the quarter and 9 after the additional procedures were done by either of 10 your colleagues to do the sales cutoff testing; is that 11 right? 12 A. Sorry, can you repeat that? Losing my train 13 of thought here. 14 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 15 was read by the reporter.) 16 MR. MOSCATO: What do you mean by that? What 17 is that? 18 MR. CLARE: About Sunbeam, about the amount 19 of product that was being shipped by Sunbeam. 20 MR. MARKOWSKI: Tom, why don't you ask at 21 this point a cohesive question so it's clear in 22 the record what you're asking. 23 MR. CLARE: Sure. 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. At any point after -- let me put it this way.
Page 270 1 Q. During that time period, again, before the 2 end of the first quarter, in any of your conversations 3 with Sunbeam, did you ever have them in words or in 4 substance what was the basis for their expectation that 5 was expressed in the press release about exceeding 6 first quarter 1997 sales? 7 A. This was basically it at the time. 8 Q. That was your understanding as to what it 9 was? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. Did you ask anybody from Sunbeam about that 12 document, the document you just indicated, CPH 13 Exhibit 121? 14 A. Specifically, no, but specifically about 15 sales I know between -- you know, you asked 16 specifically, but generally, you know, we were informed 17 after this they were going to continue to do both bill 18 and hold. So there was conversation about that and 19 procedures that needed to be done to ensure that that 20 was in accordance with the rules, and confirmations 21 were going to be signed off, et cetera. 22 Q. And that the bill and hold sales that Sunbeam 23 did would be accounted for properly? 24 A. Correct. 25 Q. But putting aside that question for a moment,	Page 272 1 At any point before the end of the first 2 quarter, did you have any other information besides 3 what is reflected here on CPH Exhibit 121 about actual 4 or potential sales by Sunbeam in the first quarter? 5 A. I think we got information on the bill and 6 hold sales that were going to take place prior to the 7 end of the quarter. 8 Q. But other than the bill and hold sales, did 9 you have any other information? 10 A. Not that I'm aware of. 11 Q. And when did you first learn that Sunbeam had 12 not in fact exceeded its first quarter 1997 sales in 13 the first quarter of 1998? 14 A. Wasn't there a second press release that was 15 sent out? Does anyone have a copy of that? 16 Q. Yes, I can show it to you, but was that the 17 first time you were informed? 18 A. I think it was and I believe that -- I don't 19 believe that that press release was shown to Arthur 20 Andersen either, to be honest with you, so I think that 21 was the time that the company decided that they weren't 22 going to -- I don't know what they said. 23 MR. MOSCATO: So in answer to his question, 24 the April 3rd press release is the first time you 25 learned that Sunbeam in fact was not going to

Page 273 1 exceed in first quarter 1998 its first quarter 2 1997 sales figures? 3 THE WITNESS: Yes. 4 MR. CLARE: Let's mark that press release. 5 (MS Exhibit No. 58 was marked for 6 identification.) 7 BY MR. CLARE: 8 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I'm showing you what's been 9 marked as Exhibit 58. It's a multi-page document. I 10 recognize the first page is a fax cover sheet that you 11 probably have never seen before. 12 A. No. Can I read it, though? 13 Q. Sure. 14 A. I don't want to really read this whole thing, 15 to be honest with you. 16 MR. MOSCATO: Just answer the question. 17 THE WITNESS: What was the question? 18 MR. MOSCATO: Quickly and succinctly, please. 19 MR. CLARE: Well, I do want a complete answer 20 to my questions. 21 MR. MOSCATO: Well, succinctly does imply 22 completeness. 23 BY MR. CLARE: 24 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I've handed you what's been 25 marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 58. It's a fax cover	Page 275 1 below first quarter of '97. Do you see that? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Did you think, did you have a reaction to 4 that figure? 5 A. Yeah. I, I wasn't sure at that point in time 6 if that was accurate or not. 7 Q. The five percent figure? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Why not? 10 A. Because they hadn't closed their books for 11 March yet. 12 Q. Okay. Did you have a reaction as to whether 13 or not you thought that Sunbeam would even be able to 14 get that close to '97 numbers, given where they were on 15 March 19th when you had these discussions with 16 Mr. Tyree? 17 A. At what point in time? In April? 18 Q. Yes. 19 A. I didn't know, I didn't -- it was the same 20 rationale and thought process. I wasn't sure until -- 21 I wasn't sure whether or not they would or would not. 22 Work was still being done. 23 Q. Did you ever get any information as to how 24 close Sunbeam had come at the end of the first quarter 25 to achieving first quarter 1997 sales?
Page 274 1 sheet. Attached to it is an April 3rd, 1997 press 2 release by Sunbeam. Have you seen that? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Have you ever seen this entire document 5 before; in other words, with the cover sheet on it? 6 A. No. 7 Q. But you have seen the press release that's 8 attached to it before? 9 A. I don't -- I remember -- I don't remember 10 seeing the press release. I remember hearing or 11 reading the first paragraph about it. 12 Q. What was your reaction to hearing that news? 13 A. That these guys were all a bunch of fucking 14 morons. How's that? 15 Q. Which guys are you referring to? 16 A. Mostly the people from Sunbeam and their 17 attorneys. 18 Q. Because they had issued the prior press 19 release? 20 A. Right, and they did, they had the same 21 moronic caveat again that we're not going to make this 22 number, but they are still going to make this number. 23 Q. Was it your understanding that -- withdrawn. 24 The April 3rd press release reports that 25 Sunbeam sales expected to be approximately 5 percent	Page 276 1 A. At what point in time? 2 Q. In April of '97. 3 A. Eventually I did, yes. 4 Q. And do you recall in order of magnitude what 5 percentage they were close to reaching first quarter 6 '97 sales? 7 A. At that point in time, no. 8 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I'm handing you what we 9 previously marked yesterday as Morgan Stanley 10 Exhibit 42 and ask that you take a look at it. 11 Do you recognize this document? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Do you recognize this form of document? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Is the signature on the third page over 16 engagement partner or manager, is that your signature? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. So you don't recognize this document at all 19 or this form of document, what it was used for at 20 Andersen? That's going to be my question. 21 A. No, I believe it's a document that you sign 22 after you had a document referenced. Any document 23 where it was issued by Andersen that was needed to be 24 referenced by an independent person to make sure that 25 the form of the letter is in accordance with the rules

Page 277 1 and the numbers tie back, et cetera. 2 Q. And does this document, Morgan Stanley 42, 3 appear to be the form for the documentation of those 4 procedures for the comfort letter dated March 19, 1998? 5 A. Appears that way, yes. 6 Q. Do you recall that comfort letter being 7 referenced in the manner that you described? 8 A. I don't remember specifically, no. 9 Q. Do you know who the person is whose initials 10 appear on pages two and apparently performed these 11 procedures? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Who is that? 14 A. Her name was Patricia Rich. 15 Q. And did you work with Miss Rich on the 16 March 19th, '98 comfort letter? 17 A. She referenced it. I don't remember 18 specifically working with her on it. 19 Q. And when you say she referenced it, can you 20 describe for those not familiar with that procedure 21 what that means? 22 A. You would read the document, make sure it's 23 in accordance with the specific language that's 24 required by -- I don't know what rules they are 25 anymore, to be honest with you, and then to make sure	Page 279 1 A. Those are the letters that we looked at 2 earlier that were on Sunbeam letterhead issued to 3 Arthur Andersen. 4 Q. And as part of Andersen's work on comfort 5 letters, Andersen requests a management representation 6 letter for the items that are discussed in the comfort 7 letter; is that correct, at least some of them? 8 A. Some of them, yeah. 9 Q. And would Andersen be able to issue a comfort 10 letter unless it had a management representation 11 letter? 12 In other words, did Andersen procedures allow 13 that, to your knowledge? 14 A. I don't believe so, but I'm not certain. 15 Q. Have you ever been involved in issuing a 16 comfort letter where there wasn't a management 17 representation letter that would back it up? 18 A. Not that I recall. 19 Q. What role does Andersen have in drafting 20 management representation letters typically? 21 A. They draft quite a bit of it. 22 Q. So the initial draft of a management 23 representation letter is done at Andersen, worked on, 24 and then at some point provided to management for 25 review, approval and signature?
Page 278 1 that the numbers tie back to the supporting work papers 2 at Andersen's work. 3 Q. And it was Miss Rich that performed those 4 procedures for the March 19th comfort letter, to the 5 best of your recollection? 6 A. Yes, what it says here. 7 Q. You don't have a recollection of working with 8 her on that? 9 A. No. 10 Q. Do you have a recollection of Miss Rich 11 raising any issues with you in her work done 12 referencing the March 19th comfort letter? 13 A. I don't recall one way or the other. 14 Q. On the second page, item number four, 15 procedure states that "If applicable, trace information 16 regarding contingencies, litigation or uncertainties to 17 the financial statements and to legal or management 18 representation letters or other source documents in the 19 working papers." 20 Do you see that? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Is that one of the referencing procedures 23 that you just described? 24 A. That's what it says here. 25 Q. What's a management representation letter?	Page 280 1 A. I don't know the procedure, but if it's at 2 Andersen or at the client, but yeah. 3 Q. Do you recall that being done in connection 4 with these comfort letters and these management 5 representation letters that were in March of 1998 in 6 connection with the bond offering? 7 A. I don't recall specifically, but I'm sure 8 that that is what happened. 9 Q. I'm going to hand you the next document that 10 was marked yesterday as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 43. 11 A. This is a good one. 12 MR. MOSCATO: I'll give you my copy. 13 THE WITNESS: Keep that for my files. Okay. 14 BY MR. CLARE: 15 Q. I've handed you what's been marked as Morgan 16 Stanley Exhibit 43, a document entitled Post Audit 17 Review for Subsequent Material Transactions and Events 18 After the Date of the Auditor's Report. 19 Do you see that title on the page? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And do you recognize the handwriting on the 22 bottom of the first page to be yours? 23 A. For the most part, yeah. Phil Harlow, looks 24 like he signed it also. 25 Q. So there is some handwriting and then there

Page 281 1 is a signature by you and a date? 2 A. Yeah, the handwriting is mine. 3 Q. And then there is a signature by Mr. Harlow? 4 A. Correct. 5 Q. And the writing there appears to be the date, 6 is that a three, is that March '98? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. What is this document and how is it used 9 internally at Andersen? 10 A. It's a checklist that's done to go through 11 their requirements to do a post audit review and allow 12 Andersen to issue a consent to update their opinion. 13 Q. And a document like this and the procedures 14 that are described in this document are used in 15 connection with -- 16 A. The registration statement, I think a 133 17 registration statement, or 33 Act registration 18 statement. 19 Q. It was your understanding in March of '98 20 that the Sunbeam convertible debenture offering would 21 be registered in that way? 22 A. Eventually, yes. 23 Q. And did you prepare or mark on this document 24 in March of 1998 in anticipation of that work on the 25 registration?	Page 283 1 Q. Is that the date that you would have made 2 that notation on the document? 3 A. I don't know what I, if I reviewed it the 4 same day or not. 5 Q. Would this document have to be completed 6 under Andersen's internal procedures before a comfort 7 letter like the one on March 19th could be issued to 8 Morgan Stanley? 9 A. The form might not necessarily have to be 10 filled out, but the work should have been done. 11 Q. So that these procedures that are described 12 here in Morgan Stanley Exhibit 43 would need to be 13 completed in March of 1998 before the offering 14 memorandum could be completed? 15 MR. MOSCATO: The offering memorandum or the 16 comfort letter? 17 BY MR. CLARE: 18 Q. Well, let's start with the comfort letter. 19 Before the comfort letter could be issued? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And before the offering memorandum would be 22 finalized? 23 A. I don't recall specifically about that. 24 Q. Your handwriting here indicates that the post 25 audit work and AP187 work was done in its entirety as
Page 282 1 A. No. 2 Q. The handwriting at the bottom of the first 3 page, can you read that as best you can for me? 4 A. Says, "No consent required on section 144 5 offering; however, PAR," which means post audit review, 6 "work and AP 187 work done in its entirety as the 7 firm's name appears in the financial statements 8 included with this document. Work done herein 9 sufficient as if we were to issue our consent." 10 Q. What are you communicating here? 11 MR. MOSCATO: I object. It's perfectly 12 clear. 13 Are you communicating anything other than 14 what's written in the plain wording of this note? 15 THE WITNESS: No. 16 BY MR. CLARE: 17 Q. And you wrote those words in March of 1998? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And you signed your name below those words in 20 March of 1998? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And the date on the front of the document 23 that discusses post audit review having been completed 24 is March 16, 1998, do you see that? 25 A. Yes.	Page 284 1 the firm's name appears in the F1. 2 Can you tell me what AP187 -- 3 A. That's financial statements. 4 Q. Appears in the financial statements included 5 with this document. 6 A. Yeah. 7 Q. Can you tell me what AP187 refers to? 8 A. This document. If you look on the bottom 9 left-hand corner, it says AA & Company, AP187. 10 Q. I see. So you're stating here in the 11 handwritten notation that the post audit work that was 12 done by Andersen and the procedures that were performed 13 that are described in Morgan Stanley Exhibit 43 were 14 done as if Andersen would be issuing a formal consent 15 for the inclusion of its audited financials in the 16 financial offering memorandum; is that correct? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. So the standard of care that Andersen used in 19 going through its internal procedures was the same as 20 if it were required to issue a formal consent? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. That's what you're communicating here in 23 March of 1998? 24 A. Yes. 25 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We have to change the

Page 285 1 tape. 2 We are now going off video record on tape 3 number three. We'll be back on tape number four. 4 The time on the monitor, 4:09 p.m. 5 (Discussion held off the record.) 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 7 record, tape number four. The time on the monitor 8 is 4:10 p.m. 9 BY MR. CLARE: 10 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I want to have you turn over 11 to the second page of Exhibit 43. And the first 12 procedure, I'd like to ask you to read that, please, to 13 yourself. 14 A. Okay. 15 Q. And this procedure requires that somebody 16 from Andersen read the entire registration statement 17 including the prospectus and perform certain 18 procedures, correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. And it requires Andersen to cross reference 21 amounts in the narrative section to similar amounts in 22 the audited financials, correct? 23 A. Correct. 24 Q. And ascertain that there are no 25 inconsistencies or conflict between the narrative	Page 287 1 management representation letter that you looked at 2 this morning with Mr. Markowski. 3 A. Is it exactly the same or is it different? 4 Q. It's another copy. 5 A. Okay. 6 Q. And you see it's signed on page three by the 7 same group of individuals that you discussed this 8 morning. 9 A. Okay. 10 Q. What role did you personally play in drafting 11 the management representation letters for the comfort 12 letters that were issued to Morgan Stanley in the first 13 quarter of 1998? 14 A. I don't remember specifically. 15 Q. Do you remember having seen drafts? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Before they were issued and commenting on 18 them? 19 A. I believe so, yes. 20 Q. Did you discuss as part of your work on the 21 management representation letters with Sunbeam 22 management the contents of the letter? 23 A. I don't remember specifically myself doing 24 that. 25 Q. Who was working with you on the management
Page 286 1 section and the audited financials, correct? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. And your initials are listed to the right? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And did you perform those procedures with 6 regard to the offering memorandum? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. And you performed those procedures in March 9 of 1998? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. On March 19th, 1998, or before? In other 12 words, before the offering memorandum was finalized or 13 printed at Global Financial Press? 14 A. Before and during. 15 Q. Those procedures were not carried out any 16 time after that evening at the printer? 17 A. They were performed after, but on different 18 documents. 19 Q. Correct, but with respect to the offering 20 memorandum, those procedures were performed before you 21 left the printer that morning? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. I'm going to hand you the next exhibit. 24 That's Morgan Stanley Exhibit 44. 25 This is another copy of the March 16, 1998	Page 288 1 representation letter? 2 A. I believe Dennis Pastrana. 3 Q. Did, as far as you know and can recall, did 4 you have any discussions with Mr. Pastrana about what 5 Sunbeam management would or would not be willing to 6 represent in the management letter? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone in 9 Sunbeam management about what Sunbeam management would 10 be willing or not willing to represent in a management 11 letter? 12 A. Not that I recall. 13 Q. I hand you the next document, Morgan Stanley 14 Exhibit 45. Just let me know when you're ready. 15 A. Okay. 16 Q. This is an undated draft, appears to be an 17 undated draft of the management representation, of a 18 management representation letter. Do you see that? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. If you look in format and style, it's similar 21 to the representation letter that we just looked at. 22 A. Okay. 23 Q. If you turn over and look at the second page 24 of the document on item eight, there is a table of 25 information there. Do you see that?

Page 289 1 A. Table of information? 2 Q. Well, there is net sales and net income 3 information for two different time periods. 4 A. I'm sorry, what page? 5 Q. On the second page. 6 A. Right, okay. 7 Q. Okay? And you discussed with Mr. Markowski 8 this morning that net income and loss information was 9 one item that would be included in the management 10 representation letter; do you see that? 11 A. Right. 12 Q. Are you able to place this draft of the 13 management representation letter in time in any way by 14 looking at this? 15 A. No. 16 Q. And you recall that there were two different 17 management representation issues issued? There was one 18 in connection with the first comfort letter and then a 19 second one that was issued in connection with the 20 bring-down letter? 21 Do you remember that from this morning? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Are you able to recognize this as a draft of 24 the second management comfort letter? 25 MR. MOSCATO: One way or the other? Yes or	Page 291 1 described in the preceding paragraph, management 2 believes that net sales for the first quarter of fiscal 3 1998 will exceed net sales of the first quarter of 4 fiscal 1997." 5 Do you see that? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And that's a similar statement to the one 8 that was included in the press release? 9 A. Correct. 10 Q. Do you recall in your work on the management 11 representation letter discussing that provision? 12 A. No, I don't. Sorry. 13 Q. Do you recall any discussion about whether 14 Andersen wanted a representation, an affirmative 15 representation from Sunbeam's management that it had 16 that expectation? 17 A. It was already made in the press release. I 18 don't believe so. 19 MR. MOSCATO: The answer is yes or no. It's 20 getting late in the day. 21 THE WITNESS: I think the answer was no. Can 22 you answer -- read the question again. 23 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 24 was read by the reporter.) 25 THE WITNESS: I don't, I don't remember.

Page 294 1 Q. But that paragraph does not appear in the 2 March 23rd, 1998 representation letter as it was 3 finally signed. 4 Do you have any knowledge or information 5 about how that paragraph got deleted? 6 A. Actually I, it's actually coming back to me 7 what happened here. 8 I remember, I remember getting -- I do 9 remember getting this fax and starting to review it. 10 Q. Okay. Just to be clear -- 11 A. Fax, I remember getting the fax that's dated 12 whatever it is, 3/23/98. 13 Q. Morgan Stanley Exhibit 46? 14 A. Yeah. 15 Q. Okay. I remember reading the first page, I 16 read the first paragraph, and then basically just 17 stopping and calling and saying we've already done a 18 rep letter dated March 16th. You guys are pulling from 19 the wrong file. I remember I stopped reviewing this. 20 Follow me? 21 There is a rep letter dated the 16th. 22 Q. Right. 23 A. We had updated the 23rd. So whoever started 24 working on this pulled a different file to start 25 updating.	Page 296 1 Q. Or why it was taken out? 2 A. No. 3 Q. Or why it does not appear in the March 16th 4 version of the rep letter? 5 A. None whatsoever. 6 Q. Or the March 23rd version? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Now you worked on the 1997 audit? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Do you believe as you sit here today that 11 Sunbeam withheld material information from you in 12 connection with the 1997 audit? 13 A. As I sit here today? Yes. 14 Q. And now those subjects, the audit and the 15 work that was done on the restatement were covered in 16 detail in your prior depositions, and I'm not going to 17 ask you to go through them in detail, but in general, 18 do you believe that Sunbeam withheld material 19 information from Andersen regarding its reserves? 20 MR. MOSCATO: I'm going to make an objection. 21 Years ago in front of the SEC he gave exhaustive 22 testimony about what he thought Sunbeam had 23 misrepresented and concealed from him and what 24 they didn't. 25 I really think it's unfair and really not

Page 297 1 terribly productive to get into it again now. 2 There is a full, complete record of his testimony 3 on that subject when it was a lot closer to the 4 events. 5 And my concern is any testimony he gives now 6 will necessarily be incomplete. I don't believe 7 he has reviewed any of that testimony, and it's 8 been six years now. 9 MR. CLARE: Okay. 10 MR. MOSCATO: That's my objection. So, you 11 know, I guess I'll let him answer, but under the 12 caveat that I can't imagine he is capable of 13 giving anything close to a complete answer at this 14 time. 15 MR. CLARE: Okay, I will accept that, and as 16 I mentioned to you at the outset of this 17 questioning, I'm not going to belabor the point. 18 I've read that prior testimony and I believe that 19 it is a complete recount, recitation of your 20 testimony in this regard, and I'm not intending to 21 replay it and I'm not trying to play gotcha with 22 you and identify other areas. 23 I'm just trying to understand the general 24 subject areas, we talked about a number of them 25 today, in connection with what information Morgan	Page 299 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. And you did a number of additional 3 procedures? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And those interviews and those additional 6 procedures resulted in you and Andersen having 7 information about Sunbeam that it didn't have in 8 connection with the 1997 audit; is that correct? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. A lot more information? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Okay. And those interviews and those 13 additional procedures also resulted in Andersen and you 14 having information about Sunbeam that it didn't have in 15 the first quarter of 1998? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. And it was at that point that you concluded 18 that Sunbeam had withheld material information from 19 Andersen? 20 MR. MOSCATO: That point being during the 21 restatement process? 22 MR. CLARE: During the restatement process. 23 THE WITNESS: For the most part, yes. 24 BY MR. CLARE: 25 Q. Is that a fair statement?
Page 298 1 Stanley asked about and what information we had 2 when we, Morgan Stanley, were doing the due 3 diligence. 4 BY MR. CLARE: 5 Q. So I guess let me just ask you this general 6 question. 7 As you sit here today, do you have any reason 8 to know that Morgan Stanley had more information than 9 Andersen in the first quarter of 1998? 10 MR. MARKOWSKI: On what subject? 11 MR. CLARE: Well, on any subject. 12 THE WITNESS: I have no idea what they had or 13 didn't have. 14 BY MR. CLARE: 15 Q. You felt, though, that Sunbeam had withheld 16 material information from Andersen on a number of 17 different areas, correct? 18 MR. MOSCATO: Objection, can you please pin 19 down when he came to that frame of mind? 20 BY MR. CLARE: 21 Q. You worked on the restatement investigation, 22 correct? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And as part of the restatement investigation, 25 you conducted interviews of Sunbeam employees?	Page 300 1 A. That made it pretty iron clad that that was 2 the case, yes. 3 Q. Did you consider the information that was 4 withheld by Sunbeam from Andersen to be material? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And as you sit here today, do you consider 7 the information that was withheld by Sunbeam from 8 Andersen to be important to an understanding of 9 Sunbeam's business? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. And as you sit here today, do you have any 12 reason to believe as a result of your work on the 13 restatement investigation that Morgan Stanley had 14 information about Sunbeam that was withheld from 15 Andersen? 16 A. I have no idea. 17 Q. Do you have any information that occurs to 18 you today as a result of your work on the restatement 19 investigation where you said Morgan Stanley knew x 20 facts and we, Andersen, did not? 21 MR. MOSCATO: Larry, the question is do you 22 have any information? So the answer is either 23 yes, you do have information, or no, you don't 24 have information. 25 THE WITNESS: I think there is information --

Page 301 1 I've come to understand that there was information 2 given to Morgan Stanley that wasn't given to 3 Arthur Andersen. Is that your question? 4 BY MR. CLARE: 5 Q. Sure. Now tell me what that information was. 6 A. Just reading the -- you know, I can't tell 7 you if it's true or not. Reading the complaints. 8 Q. Oh, the complaints that were filed in this 9 lawsuit? 10 A. Right. 11 Q. So putting aside the allegations that are 12 made in the complaints that were filed in this lawsuit, 13 and I want you to exclude them from your mind, because 14 those are legal allegations that were made and have not 15 been proven and there is no evidence has been submitted 16 yet to support them, but based than your own personal 17 knowledge and recollection of the events -- 18 A. I think -- 19 MR. MOSCATO: Let him finish. 20 BY MR. CLARE: 21 Q. Based on your own personal knowledge and 22 events, involved in these events, are you aware of any 23 information that Morgan Stanley had in 1997 or the 24 first quarter of 1998 that Andersen did not? 25 A. I believe there were, there is correspondence	Page 303 1 restatement report that was issued by Andersen? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Are you generally familiar with the areas in 4 which a restatement of Sunbeam's financial statements 5 were done? 6 A. Generally, yes. 7 Q. Bill and hold transactions and reserves and 8 supplier rebates, those type of areas? 9 A. Correct. 10 Q. In any of the areas that were covered by the 11 restatement investigation and the subsequent 12 restatement report, did you learn any information that 13 Morgan Stanley had that was not available to Andersen? 14 A. I believe there were forecasts and detailed 15 information that was given to Morgan Stanley that we 16 didn't get copies of. 17 Q. Can you identify them? 18 A. Not specifically. I remember meetings with, 19 having meetings with Lisa Galbarth, I think her name 20 was, or I think the -- I forget the name of the other 21 one, a number of documents to go through the forecast 22 and as such to get ready for the bank syndicate. 23 So there were a lot of documents that we 24 never saw, but that we knew were supplied to Morgan 25 Stanley.
Page 302 1 and documentation of previous meetings with Coleman and 2 Al Dunlap, and I recall specifically after going 3 through all of the documents that were furnished to the 4 SEC. 5 Q. I'm not sure I understand your answer. 6 A. Well, I believe that there were documents. I 7 reviewed all the documents that were given to the SEC 8 by everybody, all of Sunbeam, whatever, first, second, 9 third phase. 10 And there was documentation on various 11 meetings and conversations and initial meeting, 12 conversation with Dunlap and representatives of 13 Coleman. I don't remember specifically, but I believe 14 there were also people from Morgan Stanley at those 15 meetings. 16 Q. You're saying that these were documents that 17 related to negotiations between Sunbeam and Coleman for 18 the acquisition? 19 A. Before the contemplated acquisition in March, 20 there was I think another series of conversations 21 before the end of the year. That's all I can recall 22 specifically. 23 Q. Okay. So putting aside information that 24 related to the acquisition, and I want to focus on your 25 work on the restatement investigation, you reviewed the	Page 304 1 Q. What about information that related to the 2 specific restatement items? Putting aside the fact 3 that Andersen -- that Sunbeam may have provided 4 documents that were different than the documents that 5 were provided to Andersen, was there any information 6 relevant to your restatement inquiry that Morgan 7 Stanley had that Andersen did not? 8 A. I have no idea. 9 Q. You don't recall any as you sit here today? 10 A. No. 11 Q. As part of the work that you did on the 12 restatement, did you discover any evidence or 13 information that Morgan Stanley was involved in any of 14 the accounting judgments that led to the restatement? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Or any of the individual transactions that 17 are described in the restatement report? 18 A. I don't believe so, no. 19 Q. We've talked about a couple of them today, 20 EPI and Encore and some of those. Did you uncover any 21 information that Morgan Stanley was involved in any of 22 those transactions? 23 A. No. 24 Q. As part of the work that you did on the 25 restatement, you interviewed Sunbeam employees,

Page 305 1 correct? 2 A. Some. 3 Q. And you participated in a number of those 4 interviews? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. You've seen more than 30 interviews. Can you 7 estimate how many of those you participated in? 8 A. I don't know, six to twelve maybe. 9 Q. And those interviews were conducted in 10 connection, in conjunction with the attorneys at 11 Scadden Arps? 12 A. Among others, yes. 13 Q. And they were conducted after Al Dunlap had 14 been fired? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. And after Kersh was gone? 17 A. I believe so, yes. 18 Q. This was after Mr. Levin had been installed 19 as the CEO? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. After Mr. Levin had instituted what became 22 known as the amnesty program? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Are you familiar with the amnesty program 25 that Mr. Levin instituted generally?	Page 307 1 A. I don't know. 2 Q. We've seen reports in the production showing 3 that you spent more than 1,000 hours on the restatement 4 investigation. Does that sound about right? 5 A. Probably. 6 Q. And in addition to the interviews that we 7 described, you did additional accounting procedures? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. One of the interviews that you conducted was 10 Deborah MacDonald? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Were you present for that interview? 13 A. I believe so, yes. 14 Q. Do you recall Miss MacDonald telling you that 15 the only contact that people from Sunbeam had with 16 investment bankers was through Mr. Kersh and 17 Mr. Goudis? 18 A. Sounds familiar, but I'm not 100 percent 19 sure. 20 MR. CLARE: Mark this as the next exhibit, 21 please. 22 (MS Exhibit No. 59 was marked for 23 identification.) 24 25
Page 306 1 A. I think I might have been the first one to 2 let an employee know about it. 3 Q. But the -- 4 A. Speak now or forever hold your peace type 5 thing. 6 Q. The purpose was to encourage employees to be 7 candid with Andersen and Scadden in conducting these 8 interviews as part of the restatement? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Because Andersen wanted to get as much 11 information as possible from Sunbeam about what was 12 really going on? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Can you describe just generally what your 15 role was in the restatement? 16 A. To help coordinate the efforts, to interview 17 the people you mentioned, to do some additional work 18 myself, to deal with Deloitte & Touche, Scadden Arps, 19 the management team, and basically review and look for 20 items, things that were withheld from Arthur Andersen. 21 Q. And you discovered items that were withheld 22 from Arthur Andersen, correct? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. How much time did you spend, roughly, on the 25 restatement investigation?	Page 308 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. I've handed you what's been marked as Morgan 3 Stanley Exhibit 60. 4 A. Okay. 5 Q. It's a July 24th, 1998, memo from Donald 6 Denkhaus to the files, memorializing an interview 7 conducted with Deborah MacDonald. 8 Have you seen this document before? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. The document states in the first paragraph 11 that "On July 21st, 1998, Larry Bornstein and Chris 12 Malloy, attorney with Scadden Arps, and Mr. Denkhaus 13 conducted an interview." 14 Do you recall being present in the interview 15 with Miss MacDonald? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Flip to page five of the interview memo. 18 Top of the page says, "MacDonald indicated that the 19 only contact that the investment bankers, Morgan 20 Stanley, had with the company was through Kersh and 21 Goudis." 22 Do you see that? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Do you recall Miss MacDonald telling you 25 that?

Page 309 1 A. Not specifically, no. 2 Q. Do you recall generally her telling you that? 3 A. No. 4 Q. In the course of the work that you did on the 5 restatement investigation, did you learn that Morgan 6 Stanley had contact with Sunbeam employees other than 7 Mr. Kersh and Mr. Goudis? 8 A. No, not specifically, no. 9 Q. Is what Miss MacDonald -- let me withdraw 10 that. 11 It's reported here in the interview memo, 12 Miss MacDonald's statement, that all the information 13 for Morgan Stanley had to go through Mr. Kersh and 14 Mr. Goudis. 15 Is that consistent -- well, I don't want 16 to -- is that consistent with what you learned in the 17 restatement investigation about how Sunbeam's 18 management controlled information from outsiders? 19 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 20 question. 21 MR. MOSCATO: I have to object. 22 THE WITNESS: Are you going to object? 23 MR. MOSCATO: I already did object. 24 THE WITNESS: Sorry about that. 25	Page 311 1 so internally inconsistent, I'm not sure what 2 generalizations you can make out of this document 3 and I'm not sure how you can generalize the 4 generalizations in this document to what happened 5 with Andersen. I just think it's very confusing 6 and I don't think it's a fair question as posed. 7 MR. CLARE: Well, I'm not trying to confuse. 8 All I'm trying to get at is if this were in fact 9 the case. 10 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, what? 11 THE WITNESS: If it was the case. 12 BY MR. CLARE: 13 Q. Were you surprised, are you surprised to 14 learn that Sunbeam employees thought that information 15 they had was withheld from Morgan Stanley? 16 Does that surprise you based on what you 17 heard in the restatement investigation? 18 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 19 question. 20 MR. MOSCATO: You can answer that question. 21 THE WITNESS: No. 22 BY MR. CLARE: 23 Q. Why doesn't that surprise you? 24 A. Based on where we sit today, what happened. 25 Q. Okay. Is one of the reasons it doesn't
Page 310 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. Here's my question. You testified before 3 that material information had been withheld from 4 Andersen during 1997 and the first quarter of 1998, 5 correct? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And that information was withheld from 8 Andersen by members of Sunbeam management, right? 9 A. In some cases, yes. 10 Q. Okay. And information that was known to 11 other employees at Sunbeam was shielded from Andersen, 12 correct? 13 A. In some cases, yes. 14 Q. So you, as part of the restatement 15 investigation, you concluded that Sunbeam employees had 16 information that was not provided to Andersen. And 17 what I'm asking is what Miss MacDonald is reporting 18 here, that information had to be channeled through 19 senior management to go to Morgan Stanley, is that 20 consistent with what, the conclusion you formed about 21 how Sunbeam controlled information from outsiders? 22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 23 question. 24 MR. MOSCATO: I have to object to it. I even 25 object to -- I don't know, the memo itself is just	Page 312 1 surprise you is because information was also withheld 2 from Andersen? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. As part of the restatement investigation, did 5 Andersen ultimately reach an opinion as to whether 6 Sunbeam's internal controls were adequate in 1997 and 7 the first quarter of 1998? 8 A. As part of the restatement? I believe they 9 did. 10 Q. And do you recall what that opinion was? 11 A. Not specifically, no. 12 Q. And as part of the restatement investigation, 13 did Andersen reach an opinion as to whether Sunbeam was 14 able to produce accurate financial statements in 1997 15 and the first quarter of 1998? 16 A. I believe we did, yes. 17 Q. And do you know what that opinion was? 18 A. Which opinion is this? 19 Q. Regarding Sunbeam's ability to produce 20 accurate financial statements in 1997, in the first 21 quarter of -- 22 A. I don't remember specifically what the 23 opinion said. 24 Q. Isn't it true that Sunbeam concluded -- 25 strike that.

Page 313 1 Isn't it true that Andersen concluded at the 2 conclusion of the restatement investigation that 3 Sunbeam's internal controls were inadequate in 1997 and 4 the first quarter of 1998? 5 A. I believe so, yes. 6 Q. And isn't it true that Andersen concluded at 7 the end of the restatement investigation that Sunbeam 8 was unable to produce accurate financial statements in 9 1997 and the first quarter of 1998? 10 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form. 11 THE WITNESS: I'm not sure exactly if that's 12 the way it -- I know there was a restatement, so I 13 don't remember what the opinion says. 14 MR. CLARE: I'm going to hand you the next 15 exhibit we'll mark as Morgan Stanley 61. 16 THE REPORTER: 60. 17 MR. MARKOWSKI: If that's right, you might 18 want to adjust the numbering, because he was 19 testifying about a document you were calling 60 20 already, so you might want to make this one 59 and 21 that one 60. 22 THE WITNESS: The Deborah MacDonald document 23 was 59. 24 MR. MARKOWSKI: But it was referred to in the 25 transcript as 60.	Page 315 1 first page says Sunbeam Corporation Management Letter, 2 October 16, 1998. 3 Have you seen this document before? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. And if you turn to the third page of the 6 exhibit, it's a letter dated October 16, 1998, from 7 Andersen addressed to the board of directors, 8 management of Sunbeam Corporation. 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. If you look at page two of the letter, which 11 is Bates number CPH 0084409, second full paragraph, I 12 ask you to read that to yourself. 13 A. Okay. 14 Q. The last sentence there expresses the opinion 15 that "The company's design and effectiveness of its 16 internal controls were inadequate to detect material 17 misstatements in the preparation of the company's 1997 18 annual and quarterly financial statements." 19 Do you see that? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. That was a conclusion that Andersen reached 22 in October of 1998? 23 A. Yes, that's what it says here. 24 Q. Okay. This was at the conclusion of the 25 restatement investigation?
Page 314 1 MR. MOSCATO: Why don't we just correct the 2 transcript then. 3 MR. MARKOWSKI: Either one, one way or the 4 other. 5 MR. CLARE: Let's mark this as 61. 6 (MS Exhibit No. 60 was marked for 7 identification.) 8 MR. MARKOWSKI: What are we doing about the 9 MacDonald exhibit? 10 MR. CLARE: We'll correct it in the 11 transcript. 12 THE WITNESS: She put 60 on here. 13 MR. CLARE: Let's re-mark the October 16, 14 1998 management letter as Morgan Stanley 15 Exhibit 61. 16 (Thereupon, the document was re-marked 61.) 17 THE REPORTER: So there is no 60? 18 MR. CLARE: Not yet. And let's re-mark the 19 Deborah MacDonald interview memo as Exhibit 60 to 20 conform with testimony. 21 (MS Exhibit No. 60 was marked for 22 identification.) 23 BY MR. CLARE: 24 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I'm handing you what has now 25 been marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 61, a document,	Page 316 1 A. I believe so. 2 Q. And did you share that conclusion in 3 October 1998? 4 A. I don't specifically remember if I did or 5 didn't, but I was part of the engagement team, so -- 6 Q. In 1997 while you were working on the Sunbeam 7 audit, did you have any reason based on the work that 8 you performed to question the design or effectiveness 9 of Sunbeam's internal controls? 10 A. In some areas, yes. 11 Q. Can you tell me what they were? 12 A. There was a draft of a management letter that 13 was, I don't think it was ever issued, but given to 14 people from Sunbeam that probably had several of these 15 in there. 16 Q. This was provided to Sunbeam management in 17 19, in connection with the 1997 audit? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And did you believe that the conditions that 20 were described in the draft management letter were 21 material weaknesses as that term is defined in Morgan 22 Stanley Exhibit 61? 23 A. Not at that time, no. 24 Q. At that time those were suggestions by 25 Andersen on how internal control could be improved?

Page 317 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. But the conclusion that there was a material 3 weakness was not reached by you or Andersen until 4 October 1998; is that correct? 5 A. I don't know the specific date, but that's 6 when the report was given. 7 Q. The report here identifies -- you can flip 8 through it -- a number of areas that are identified as 9 material weaknesses. Do you see that? 10 A. I do. 11 Q. Okay. Were any of the material weaknesses 12 that are identified as material weaknesses in this 13 report known to you in 1997? 14 A. Any of the material weaknesses known to me 15 during when? 16 MR. MOSCATO: Any material weaknesses? 17 MR. CLARE: Correct. 18 BY MR. CLARE: 19 Q. I'm asking you while you were working on the 20 1997 audit, were you aware of anything that rose to the 21 level of a material weakness of Sunbeam's internal 22 controls? 23 MR. MOSCATO: I thought he answered that. 24 MR. CLARE: The answer is no? 25 THE WITNESS: That's what I answered a few	Page 319 1 examination. I just think it's a little 2 repetitive. 3 MR. CLARE: This is my last question in this 4 area and I plan to move on, so the objection took 5 longer than the repetitive questioning. 6 MR. MOSCATO: I think it needs to be said, 7 though, but go on. 8 MR. CLARE: Can you reread my question, 9 please. We'll get an answer and move on to the 10 next topic. 11 (Thereupon, a portion of the record 12 was read by the reporter.) 13 THE WITNESS: No. 14 BY MR. CLARE: 15 Q. In August of 1998 were you aware of a 16 settlement between Sunbeam and MacAndrews & Forbes? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Did you have any involvement in -- 19 A. Actually, say that again, in August of -- 20 Q. 1998, were you aware of a settlement that 21 took place in that time period between Sunbeam and 22 MacAndrews & Forbes? 23 A. Generally I did, yeah. 24 Q. And this was a settlement whereby MacAndrews 25 and Forbes received warrants to purchase additional
Page 318 1 minutes ago. 2 BY MR. CLARE: 3 Q. In the first quarter of 1998, were you aware 4 of any material weaknesses in Sunbeam's internal 5 controls? 6 A. No. 7 Q. In 1997, did you believe that Andersen -- I'm 8 sorry, did you believe that Sunbeam was incapable of 9 producing reliable financial statements? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Did you believe that in the first quarter of 12 1998? 13 A. No. 14 Q. Did you have any reason in the first quarter 15 of 1998 to believe that Sunbeam was incapable of 16 producing reliable financial statements? 17 MR. MOSCATO: I object. I just don't see the 18 difference between that question and one he just 19 answered two minutes ago. I'm really, I have to 20 object in the strongest terms of repeating the 21 same thing over and over. 22 We're getting near the eight-hour limit, and 23 I'd ask you to be just a little less repetitive in 24 your questioning. And I do that in all respect. 25 I think you're conducting a very professional	Page 320 1 shares of Sunbeam stock? 2 A. I believe so. 3 Q. Did you have any involvement or do any work 4 on behalf of Sunbeam in connection with that 5 settlement? 6 A. No. 7 Q. Did you have any involvement in valuing those 8 warrants? 9 A. No. 10 Q. Or disclosing that settlement in Sunbeam's 11 financial statements? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Have you ever seen any documents or reports 14 relating to the valuation of those warrants? 15 A. No. 16 Q. You were involved in drafting the disclosures 17 that were in the 1997 10K, weren't you, some of them? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And specifically you were involved in the 20 drafting of disclosures in the 10K about Sunbeam's bill 21 and hold sales? 22 A. I don't know about drafting, but recommending 23 that something be put in there. 24 Q. Okay. At one of your prior depositions you 25 said that you were involved in at least reviewing and

Page 321 1 commenting on the disclosures. Is that correct? 2 A. Yeah, I think that's fair. 3 Q. And the deposition you indicated that you 4 thought those disclosures were very good disclosures. 5 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 6 question. 7 THE WITNESS: I don't know if they were very 8 good, I don't remember what I said, very good or 9 good, but -- 10 BY MR. CLARE: 11 Q. But you thought they were either very good or 12 good? 13 A. Well, they were reasonable. 14 Q. Okay. And at the time were you aware of any 15 bill and hold transactions beyond those that had been 16 disclosed in the 1997 10K? 17 A. No. 18 Q. And do you think that the disclosures that 19 you reviewed and that ultimately ended up in the 1997 20 10K adequately informed investors that Sunbeam had 21 engaged in hold sales? 22 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 23 question. 24 THE WITNESS: Yes. 25	Page 323 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. If you look at the document, the Bates number 3 at the bottom, CPH 1409071. 4 A. Okay. 5 Q. The paragraph at the top of the page, 6 carryover paragraph, if you just read that to yourself. 7 My question is going to be whether you had any 8 involvement in drafting this disclosure. 9 THE WITNESS: I don't remember having any 10 specific involvement in that specific paragraph. 11 BY MR. CLARE: 12 Q. Do you recognize that paragraph as in part a 13 disclosure of the Sunbeam's Early Buy program and the 14 risks associated with the Early Buy program? 15 A. One of the risks. 16 Q. And that risk is that it increases the 17 company's risk of collecting accounts receivable? 18 A. Correct. 19 Q. And this is, this disclosure is contained in 20 the section labeled Cautionary Statements of the 10K? 21 A. Couldn't tell you. There is like eight 22 different fonts here. 23 Q. If you look at the page before, page seven? 24 MR. MOSCATO: I object. You don't need 25 Mr. Bornstein to say where in a publicly-filed
Page 322 1 BY MR. CLARE: 2 Q. Are you aware that the 1997 10K includes 3 disclosures about Sunbeam's Early Buy program? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. You were involved in drafting those 6 disclosures, too? 7 A. I don't remember specifically. 8 Q. Did you play a similar role as you just 9 described with regard to bill and hold? 10 A. I don't remember. 11 Q. This morning Mr. Markowski asked you some 12 questions about the Early Buy program and the, what it 13 means to accelerate sales from one quarter into an 14 earlier quarter. Do you recall that? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Do you recall that that subject, the 17 possibility of sales being advanced into an earlier 18 quarter, was among the information contained in the 19 disclosures? 20 MR. MARKOWSKI: Object to the form of the 21 question, lack of foundation. 22 THE WITNESS: I'd have to look at it. 23 MR. CLARE: Let's look at what was previously 24 marked as Morgan Stanley Exhibit 12. 25	Page 324 1 document with the SEC a particular paragraph 2 exists. This is really becoming abusive now. 3 Can you please ask him factual questions 4 other than identifying that particular words exist 5 in a particular document that's publicly filed. 6 BY MR. CLARE: 7 Q. Do you see on page seven it says the words 8 Cautionary Statements? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. So the disclosure that you just read appears 11 in that section? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. If you turn to the next page, two pages 14 later, page nine of the 10K, the third bullet from the 15 bottom, the bullet that begins "Sales of certain of the 16 company's products," do you see that? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Read that bullet to yourself, and I'm going 19 to ask you if you were involved in drafting that 20 disclosure. 21 A. I don't remember having any involvement in 22 drafting that. 23 Q. The discussion that you had with 24 Mr. Markowski this morning about accelerating sales in 25 one quarter or one financial period into an earlier

81 (Pages 321 to 324)

Page 325 1 period -- 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Is the paragraph that you just read on page 4 nine of the 10K, is that a disclosure that, of that 5 phenomena that you were describing? 6 A. I have no idea. I can read it 100 times. 7 It's too late in the day to give you a conclusion on 8 that. 9 Q. Well, this morning, in response to questions 10 from Mr. Markowski, you testified that in looking at 11 various iterations of the comfort letter -- 12 A. The comfort letter? 13 Q. Yes. There was a discussion there about 14 reasons for the shortfall -- 15 A. Right, right. 16 Q. -- in January and February of 1998. Do you 17 recall that? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. And you testified this morning about the 20 impact of an Early Buy program and how one of the 21 reasons identified in the comfort letter was the 22 acceleration of sales into an earlier time period. 23 Do you recall that? 24 A. Right. 25 Q. And my question is does this disclosure that	Page 327 1 A. I'm not sure about him. Mr. Lurie was. 2 Q. Mr. Lurie was also on the call? 3 A. He was physically present. 4 Q. And he was physically present with you in New 5 York. 6 And the only in-person meeting that you had 7 with Morgan Stanley was the one at Global Financial 8 Press in New York? 9 A. Several meetings, yes. 10 Q. A series of meetings? 11 A. And Scadden Arps. 12 MR. CLARE: Let's take a two-minute break and 13 I think we may be done or close to done. 14 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going off video 15 record. The time on the monitor is 5:05 p.m. 16 (Thereupon, a recess was taken.) 17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now back on video 18 record. The time on the monitor, 5:11 p.m. 19 BY MR. CLARE: 20 Q. Mr. Bornstein, I appreciate your patience. A 21 few final items for now. 22 You discussed earlier in your testimony the 23 decision by Sunbeam to extend first quarter of 1998, do 24 you recall that? 25 A. Yes.
Page 326 1 we've just looked at in the middle of page nine, is 2 that the same phenomena that you were discussing with 3 Mr. Markowski this morning, to your knowledge? 4 MR. MARKOWSKI: Objection, asked and 5 answered, and object to the form of the question. 6 THE WITNESS: It could be similar. 7 BY MR. CLARE: 8 Q. The statement specifically that such a 9 program, meaning the Early Buy program, could have a 10 negative impact on future financial performance. 11 THE WITNESS: Yes, you can read that well. 12 Same thing I read. 13 BY MR. CLARE: 14 Q. You don't have a view one way or the other as 15 to whether that's the same phenomena that you were 16 describing with Mr. Markowski? 17 A. Similar. 18 Q. Similar. Did you ever have an in-person 19 meeting with Morgan Stanley in the state of Florida? 20 A. No. 21 Q. The accounting due diligence call that you 22 participated in, you participated in from New York? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Was Mr. Tyree with you physically at the 25 printer during that due diligence call?	Page 328 1 Q. Did you have any discussions with Morgan 2 Stanley on that subject? 3 A. Bob Lurie and I did, but not Morgan Stanley. 4 Q. And this conversation with Mr. Lurie, was 5 that after Global Financial Press? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. That issue didn't arise until closer to the 8 end of the quarter? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. And tell me about your conversation with 11 Mr. Lurie. 12 A. I don't remember specifics about it, to be 13 honest with you. 14 Q. Did you have an understanding one way or the 15 other about whether Morgan Stanley had a position on 16 extending the quarter? 17 A. No. 18 Q. You described this morning in response to 19 questions from Mr. Markowski and again in response to 20 questions by me this afternoon about the additional 21 procedures, the sales cutoff testing that was done at 22 your direction. 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. At the end of the first quarter. Do you 25 recall that?

Page 329 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. Do you recall either from the documents that 3 we looked at today or from your recollection whether 4 there were any inconsistencies or irregularities that 5 were reported to you as a result of that cutoff 6 testing? 7 A. Not, no irregularities. There was nothing 8 that wasn't resolved. 9 Q. So the additional procedures that you asked 10 to be performed were in fact performed? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. To your satisfaction? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And Mr. Kistler or the other individuals that 15 were informed in those procedures never advised you 16 specifically of an issue with regard to the cutoff 17 testing that led you to believe that Sunbeam's cutoff 18 had been done improperly? 19 A. No. 20 MR. CLARE: Those are all the questions that 21 I have for now. 22 THE WITNESS: Okay. 23 REDIRECT (Lawrence Bornstein) 24 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 25 Q. Mr. Bornstein, hopefully just a few brief	Page 331 1 in its first quarter 1998 net sales results was 2 including Coleman Company sales? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. For the three-day or two-day period at the 5 end of the quarter after the closing of the Coleman 6 transaction, correct? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. So there was an amount of sales that didn't 9 come from Sunbeam's business, but yet came from the 10 business that Sunbeam had acquired Coleman Company, 11 correct? 12 A. Correct. 13 Q. Do you recall approximately how many millions 14 of dollars that was? 15 A. No. 16 MR. CLARE: Objection, foundation. 17 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 18 Q. But you recall that was part of what Sunbeam 19 claimed at its first quarter sales results, correct? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And that was as a result of extending the 22 quarter? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. And there were additional days of Sunbeam 25 sales included first quarter results too, correct?
Page 330 1 items. 2 Do you have Morgan Stanley Exhibit 58 in 3 front of you? It's the April 3 press release 4 announcing the fact that Sunbeam had missed 5 accomplishing first quarter 1997 sales levels. 6 MR. CLARE: Take this one, Larry. 7 THE WITNESS: Okay. 8 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 9 Q. Do you see the first paragraph purports that 10 Sunbeam expected to be approximately five percent below 11 1997's first quarter net sales result? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. And I think you testified that the books had 14 been close at that point, correct? 15 A. Correct. 16 Q. Do you recall that the actual shortfall was 17 greater than five percent? 18 A. At that point, at the end of the day, you 19 mean? 20 Q. At the end of the day do you recall that the 21 actual shortfall was something greater than 22 five percent? 23 A. It depend how it was defined. 24 Q. That's what I was going to get at next. 25 Whatever the shortfall was, do you recall that Sunbeam	Page 332 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. Do you recall as you sit here today what the 3 shortfall from 1997 first quarter results was if 4 Sunbeam had not extended the quarter, thereby including 5 Coleman Company sales and additional days of Sunbeam 6 sales? 7 A. No. 8 Q. But the shortfall would be even greater as a 9 result of that adjustment, correct? 10 A. I don't even know if it was a shortfall. I 11 don't know what the numbers were. 12 Q. Well, this press release announces that there 13 is a shortfall. 14 A. Five percent lower, yeah, right. 15 Q. Without waiving my objection to the questions 16 that Mr. Clare asked on these subjects, you recall that 17 he asked you questions concerning whether you had 18 information indicating that Morgan Stanley had been 19 involved in committing a fraud on my client. 20 Do you recall those questions? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. With respect to that, do you have any 23 knowledge, sir, concerning the statements that Morgan 24 Stanley made to my client concerning the success of 25 Sunbeam's turnaround?

Page 333 1 A. That Morgan Stanley -- can you read that 2 back? 3 Q. Let me ask it again. 4 Do you have any knowledge, Mr. Bornstein, of 5 the statements that were made by Morgan Stanley to my 6 client concerning the success of Mr. Dunlap's 7 turnaround of Sunbeam? 8 A. No. 9 Q. You don't have any knowledge of what Morgan 10 Stanley said to my client on that subject, do you? 11 A. No. 12 Q. Do you have any knowledge of what Morgan 13 Stanley said to my client on Sunbeam's performance in 14 the first quarter of 1998? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Or that Sunbeam said to my client concerning 17 its performance in the first quarter of 1998 in Morgan 18 Stanley's presence? 19 A. No idea. 20 Q. Do you have any knowledge of the statements 21 that were made by Morgan Stanley to my client about 22 Sunbeam's prospects for 1998? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Do you have any knowledge of the statements 25 made in Morgan Stanley's presence by Sunbeam concerning	Page 335 1 to be a real risk at that point in time? 2 A. No. 3 Q. And that's the way you meant it when you said 4 it to Mr. Tyree, correct? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. You said, sir, that you found it amazing that 7 Morgan Stanley during the course of its communications 8 with you or contacts with you didn't inquire about the 9 status of Sunbeam's first quarter sales results. 10 Do you recall that testimony today? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Why did you find it amazing that Morgan 13 Stanley didn't make that inquiry during the various 14 times it was in contact with you or others from Arthur 15 Andersen? 16 A. Should have been the first question on the 17 list. 18 Q. And why did you think that, sir? 19 A. Why did I think that? 20 Q. Why did you think it was the first question 21 that Morgan Stanley should have been asking you? 22 A. Because they were selling bonds based on 23 current and future performance. 24 Q. Now we're getting a document that I want to 25 use for another question, sir.
Page 334 1 Sunbeam's prospects for the full fiscal year 1998? 2 A. No. 3 Q. When you left -- Mr. Clare asked you some 4 questions about the statement that you made to 5 Mr. Tyree that you hoped to God that Sunbeam at least 6 accomplished sales equal to first quarter 1997 sales or 7 otherwise people should expect to be sued. 8 Do you recall the questions on that, relating 9 to this comment? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. You did make a comment to that effect during 12 the session at Global Financial Press on March 19, 13 correct? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And you made that comment to Mr. Tyree, 16 correct? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. When you made it, were you joking? 19 A. No. 20 Q. Was Mr. Tyree laughing? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Was it said in jest? 23 A. No. 24 Q. When you said it was an off-the-cuff 25 statement, was it something that you didn't understand	Page 336 1 Mr. Clare asked you whether Morgan Stanley 2 objected during, to your statement, during the session 3 at the printer on March 19, to your statement that you 4 intended to implement special procedures to monitor 5 Sunbeam's end-of-the-quarter shipments. 6 Do you recall that? 7 A. That they objected? 8 MR. MOSCATO: I'm sorry, say that again? 9 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 10 Q. Do you recall that Mr. Clare asked you 11 whether Morgan Stanley objected when you told Mr. Tyree 12 that you intended to implement special procedures to 13 monitor Sunbeam's shipments at the end of the first 14 quarter? Do you recall that question? 15 MR. CLARE: I object to the form. 16 THE WITNESS: I remember the question, yes. 17 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 18 Q. Did Morgan Stanley say to you when you told 19 Mr. Tyree -- strike that. 20 Did Mr. Tyree say to you when you told him 21 that that was your intention that he thought that was a 22 good idea and that you should for sure go ahead and do 23 that? 24 A. No, they were silent. 25 Q. Did the lawyers from Davis Polk say that's a

Page 337 1 great idea, go ahead and do that? 2 A. No. Silent. 3 Q. That list of, the sales buildup that you were 4 shown for -- let me see if I can get it in front of 5 me -- that you were provided at the printer on 6 March 19th, the one-page list of potential sales, do 7 you recall that? 8 MR. MOSCATO: Does he need it in front of him 9 for this question? 10 THE WITNESS: I have it here. 11 MR. MARKOWSKI: Let me see if I can find it. 12 MR. MOSCATO: He's got it. 13 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 14 Q. Have you got it? 15 A. Yeah. 16 Q. Did -- one of the things you said you told 17 Mr. Tyree was he should just do the math with respect 18 to trying to determine whether this was a reasonable 19 forecast of Sunbeam's sales expectations for the first 20 quarter, correct? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Mr. Clare asked you this morning or this 23 afternoon questions concerning the fiscal capability of 24 Sunbeam's facilities to ship a certain level of product 25 per day.	Page 339 1 calculation in my head, yes. 2 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 3 Q. Okay. Do you know whether that was in fact 4 what Sunbeam would be able to do based on where it 5 stood with respect to having booked orders for product? 6 Did you know that one way or the other? 7 MR. MOSCATO: Objection. 8 THE WITNESS: No. 9 BY MR. MARKOWSKI: 10 Q. I don't think we need to mark this as an 11 exhibit, sir, but I want to show you your, a transcript 12 of your testimony before the, your prior testimony on 13 October 13, 1999, in connection with related 14 proceedings. 15 MR. MOSCATO: Counsel, for what purpose are 16 you showing him the document? 17 MR. MARKOWSKI: There is just one question I 18 want to show him to see if I can refresh his 19 recollection to a particular aspect of the 20 testimony. 21 MR. MOSCATO: If you can ask the question 22 first. 23 MR. MARKOWSKI: It was asked. I'll ask it 24 again. 25

In March 1998, Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ("MS & Co."), Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc. ("MSSF"), and Morgan Stanley — in direct reliance on certified financial statements that were audited by Defendant Arthur Andersen LLP (an Illinois limited-liability partnership) ("Andersen") with the assistance of and in coordination with the other Defendants named in this Complaint¹ — underwrote a multi-million dollar offering of convertible notes and provided a $680 million loan to Sunbeam Corporation, Inc., in connection with Sunbeam's acquisition of three companies. As Sunbeam's subsequent restatement of its financial results showed, these certified financial statements grossly misrepresented Sunbeam's true financial condition. Andersen and the other Defendants had full knowledge of these misstatements, and they intended that MS & Co. and MSSF would rely on these unqualified audit opinions. Plaintiffs — as a direct consequence of this deceit — have lost hundreds of millions of dollars. Accordingly, Plaintiffs bring this action and allege the following:

Nature of Action

1. In March 1998, Sunbeam announced the acquisition of The Coleman Company, Inc., Signature Brands USA, Inc., and First Alert, Inc. In order to finance these acquisitions, Sunbeam issued $750 million of convertible notes, which MS & Co. underwrote, and borrowed $1.2 billion in secured financing, including a loan of $680 million from MSSF.
2. In serving as an underwriter (which required MS & Co. to act as the initial purchaser of the convertible notes) and in agreeing to extend the loan, MS & Co. and MSSF relied on the accuracy of Sunbeam's financial statements, including its 1996 and 1997 financial statements that had been audited and certified by Andersen, as well as other representations made to them by Andersen. The Andersen-certified Sunbeam financial statements portrayed Sunbeam as a financially sound company in the midst of an extraordinary financial turnaround.

First Amended Complaint

3. In reality, unbeknownst to Plaintiffs, Sunbeam's "turnaround" was an illusion facilitated by the Defendants. As became apparent in the summer of 1998 and as confirmed by Sunbeam's subsequent restatement of its financial results, the 1996 and 1997 statements that Andersen had certified — and upon which MS & Co. and MSSF had relied — did not, contrary to the representations that Andersen made to MS & Co. and MSSF, conform with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). Andersen, with full knowledge of the material misstatements contained in Sunbeam's financial reports, issued unqualified audit opinions for both 1996 and 1997. In so doing, it failed to perform its audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards ("GAAS").

4. In fact, the statements that Andersen audited and certified as in compliance with GAAP and as representing Sunbeam's true financial condition, were replete with accounting improprieties. As a consequence, and contrary to the representations that Andersen made to MS & Co. and MSSF, Sunbeam's true financial condition was misstated by millions of dollars.

5. Andersen's fraud was knowingly caused by Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus. Harlow (the Sunbeam engagement partner) and Pruitt (the Sunbeam concurring partner) were senior partners of Andersen and members of Andersen-Worldwide and undertook direct responsibility for directing, managing, and approving the work that was done on the Sunbeam audits. Denkhaus, who also was a senior partner of Andersen and a member of Andersen-Worldwide, was the Audit Division Head and manager of Andersen's audit practice for the entire South Florida region and in this role undertook responsibility for supervising and monitoring the work performed at Harlow's and Pruitt's direction. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus each knew or recklessly disregarded the accounting violations contained in Sunbeam's 1996 and 1997 financial statements. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus also knew or recklessly disregarded that the erroneous financial statements that they had caused Andersen to certify would be relied upon by MS & Co. in deciding to underwrite the convertible notes and by MSSF in deciding to loan Sunbeam hundreds of millions of dollars.

6. This fraud was also knowingly perpetrated by the foreign Andersen branches named in this complaint, Andersen-Canada, Andersen-Hong Kong, Andersen-Mexico, and Andersen-Venezuela (collectively, the "Foreign Andersen Branches"). Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches reviewed and audited financial statements prepared for Sunbeam's foreign subsidiaries for 1997, all of which contained significant accounting violations. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches knew of or recklessly disregarded the fact that the financial statements that they had reviewed and audited were not prepared in accordance with GAAP or reviewed in accordance with GAAS. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches also knew that the financial statements that they had audited would be incorporated into Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements and that lenders, such as MSSF, and underwriters, such as MS & Co., would rely on these financial statements.

7. The fraud was also knowingly perpetrated by Andersen-Worldwide through the actions of its members, including Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhau, and its member firms, including Andersen and the Foreign Andersen Branches.

8. This fraud ultimately forced Sunbeam and several of its subsidiaries to seek relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, in February 2001. As part of the bankruptcy court-approved reorganization plan, MSSF's $680 million loan to Sunbeam was discharged in full, and MSSF received Sunbeam stock valued at a fraction of the original loan. In addition, the convertible notes issued by Sunbeam and held by MS & Co. had been rendered substantially less valuable.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

9. By this complaint, Plaintiffs seek compensatory damages of several hundreds of millions of dollars.

THE PARTIES AND OTHER RELEVANT ENTITIES

10. MS & Co. is a financial services firm that engages in underwriting, investment banking, financial advisory services, securities sales and trading, and research. In late 1997 and early 1998, MS & Co. assisted Sunbeam in identifying potential acquisition targets and served as Sunbeam's financial advisor with respect to certain aspects of Sunbeam's acquisitions of Coleman, Signature Brands, and First Alert. MS & Co. also served as the underwriter of a $750 million offering of convertible notes that Sunbeam used to finance these acquisitions. MS & Co. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal place of business in New York.

11. MSSF is a company that provides credit services to its clients. In 1998, MSSF entered into a credit agreement with Sunbeam under which MSSF agreed to provide a loan to Sunbeam in connection with Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman, Signature Brands, and First Alert. Pursuant to the credit agreement, Sunbeam borrowed $680 million from MSSF, with the borrowings used by Sunbeam to fund certain costs relating to the acquisitions. MSSF is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal place of business in New York.

12. Morgan Stanley is a financial services company. It owns 100 percent of the stock of both MS & Co. and MSSF. Morgan Stanley is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, with its principal place of business in New York.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

13. Andersen was a member in or business unit of Andersen-Worldwide. Andersen is a partnership formed under the laws of the State of Illinois. Once one of the world's largest accounting firms, almost all of its partners have left the firm. Andersen participated in and coordinated the 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam and the 1998 restatement of the reports of those audits. In addition, Andersen's partners and employees provided consulting services to Sunbeam as part of due diligence work performed in conjunction with Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman, as well as on other projects.

14. Andersen-Worldwide is a cooperative corporation organized under the laws of Switzerland. Its members included more than 2,000 individuals from 390 offices in 84 countries. Various individuals who were members of Andersen-Worldwide participated in the 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam and the 1998 restatement of the reports of those audits. Andersen-Worldwide and Andersen dictated the policies and procedures to be used by Andersen members and affiliates throughout the world. Andersen and Andersen-Worldwide at all relevant times (a) held themselves out to the public as a single, integrated, full-service, professional business enterprise comprising "one firm" with "one voice" and "common values and vision," (b) completely dominated and controlled each other's assets, operations, policies, procedures, strategies, and tactics, (c) failed to observe corporate formalities, and (d) used and commingled the assets, facilities, employees, and business opportunities of each other, as if those assets, facilities, employees, and business opportunities were their own.

15. Andersen-Canada was a member in or part of Andersen-Worldwide. Andersen-Canada is a partnership organized under the laws of the province of Ontario, Canada. Andersen-Canada audited the 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam's Canadian subsidiary for inclusion in

First Amended Complaint

Andersen's 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements. It also participated in the 1998 restatement of the reports of those audits.

16. Andersen-Hong-Kong was a member in or part of Andersen-Worldwide.

Andersen-Hong Kong is a partnership organized under the laws of Hong Kong. Andersen-Hong Kong audited the 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam's Hong Kong subsidiary for inclusion in Andersen's 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements. It also participated in the 1998 restatement of the reports of those audits.

17. Andersen-Mexico was a member in or part of Andersen-Worldwide. Andersen-Mexico is a partnership organized under the laws of Mexico. Andersen-Mexico audited the 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam's Mexican subsidiary for inclusion in Andersen's 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements. It also participated in the 1998 restatement of the reports of those audits.

18. Andersen-Venezuela was a member in or part of Andersen-Worldwide. Andersen-Venezuela is a partnership organized under the laws of Venezuela. Andersen-Venezuela audited the 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam's Venezuelan subsidiary for inclusion in Andersen's 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements. It also participated in the 1998 restatement of the reports of those audits.

19. Defendant Harlow is a resident of Florida and at all times material hereto was a partner in Andersen and a member in Andersen-Worldwide. He served as the engagement partner on the audits of Sunbeam's financial statements from 1993 to 1998. As engagement partner, Harlow undertook the primary responsibility for supervising the 1996 and 1997 audits of Sunbeam, including directing and overseeing the activities with respect to the Sunbeam work performed by numerous persons at Andersen. Harlow also participated as a member of Sunbeam's due diligence team in connection with Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman.

20. Defendant Pruitt is a resident of Florida and at all times material hereto was a partner in Andersen and a member of Andersen-Worldwide. He served as the concurring partner on the Sunbeam audits for at least 1996 and 1997. As such, he undertook responsibility for independently reviewing the Sunbeam audit work that had been conducted under Harlow's supervision and ensuring that it complied with GAAP and GAAS.

21. Defendant Denkhaus is a resident of Florida and at all times material hereto was a partner in Andersen and a member of Andersen-Worldwide. Denkhaus was Audit Division Head and manager of Andersen's audit practice for the entire South Florida region. As such, Denkhaus undertook responsibility for ensuring that the audit work performed by Andersen in the South Florida region was conducted in accordance with GAAP and GAAS. Denkhaus also served as the engagement partner on Sunbeam's ultimate restatement of its financial statements.

22. At all times material hereto, Sunbeam Corporation was headquartered in Palm Beach County, Florida. Sunbeam Corporation, through its operating subsidiaries and affiliates, manufactured, marketed, and distributed durable household and outdoor leisure consumer products through mass-market and other consumer channels. On February 6, 2001, Sunbeam and several of its affiliates filed a petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. Sunbeam has since emerged from bankruptcy and now operates under the name American Household.

23. The Coleman Company, Inc. was a leading manufacturer and marketer of consumer products for the worldwide outdoor recreation market. Coleman was a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business in Kansas. Prior to March 30, 1998, Coleman (Parent)

First Amended Complaint

Holdings Inc. ("Coleman-Parent") owned 44,067,520 shares (or approximately 82 percent) of Coleman. Coleman-Parent is a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business in New York and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of MacAndrews and Forbes Holdings, Inc. ("MAFCO"). MAFCO is a global investment firm owned and operated by financier Ronald O. Perelman. Through its various subsidiaries and affiliates, MAFCO owns and/or controls a number of multi-billion dollar global corporations, including Revlon, Inc., the international consumer cosmetics company. MAFCO is a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business in New York.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to section 26.012(2)(a), Florida Statutes, because Plaintiff seeks damages in excess of $15,000 exclusive of interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

25. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Andersen, Andersen-Worldwide, Andersen-Canada, Andersen-Hong Kong, Andersen-Mexico, and Andersen-Venezuela pursuant to section 48.193(1)(a), (b), and (f), Florida Statutes, because each of them, directly or through its partners, members, agents, or employees, (1) operated, conducted, engaged in, or carried on a business or business venture in Florida from which the acts and injuries complained of in this action arose, (2) committed within Florida the tortious acts complained of in this action, or (3) by an act or omission outside of Florida, caused the complained-of injuries to Plaintiffs to occur within Florida at or about the time that it was engaged in service activities in Florida or that its services were used or consumed within Florida in the ordinary course of commerce, trade, or use.

26. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus, because each of them is a resident of Florida.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

27. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to section 47.011, Florida Statutes, because Andersen maintained an office with more than 30 employees and partners in Palm Beach County, and the cause of action accrued in Palm Beach County.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Andersen's and Sunbeam's Fraudulent Scheme

28. In July 1996, to address its growing financial difficulties, Sunbeam hired Albert Dunlap as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Dunlap was a well-known "turnaround" specialist who had a history of apparent success at other companies. He was nicknamed "Chainsaw Al" because of his practice of cutting staff and closing plants to achieve quick turnaround results.

29. Immediately after he was hired, Dunlap publicly predicted that, as a result of the Company's restructuring, Sunbeam would attain significant increases in its margins and sales. Dunlap replaced almost all of top management with his own selections, hiring Russell A. Kersh (Chief Financial Officer); Donald R. Uzzi (Vice President, Marketing and Product Development, and later Executive Vice President, Consumer Products Worldwide); Lee B. Griffith (Vice President, Sales); and Robert J. Gluck (Principal Accounting Officer).

30. Unbeknownst to the public and to Plaintiffs, Sunbeam's new senior management embarked upon a scheme designed to misrepresent Sunbeam's financial condition. Sunbeam's subsequent November 1998 restatement of its 1996 and 1997 financial statements revealed the plan that Sunbeam's management had adopted and Andersen facilitated. In 1996, Sunbeam's management, with Andersen's knowing assistance, caused Sunbeam to overstate its operating losses by at least $40 million, thereby establishing an overly bleak financial backdrop against which the company's performance in 1997 would be measured. In 1997, by contrast, management caused Sunbeam dramatically to overstate its earnings. When 1997 operating earnings were eventually corrected and restated, they were $95 million less than the earnings originally reported — and approximately half of the figure that Andersen had previously certified.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXMB
First Amended Complaint

31. In order to convince the public that Sunbeam's turnaround was real, Sunbeam needed an outside auditor to validate its financial reports. Andersen — desperate to retain a valuable client — stood ready to assist Sunbeam in its scheme.

32. After Dunlap assumed control of Sunbeam, Andersen had reason to fear that its relationship with Sunbeam was in jeopardy. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew that Dunlap had employed Coopers & Lybrand, one of Andersen's major competitors, as a financial consultant and independent auditor in past turnaround assignments. In fact, Dunlap had already engaged Coopers & Lybrand to assist in planning Sunbeam's massive restructuring.

33. Andersen had a significant stake in retaining Sunbeam, a long-time major client. Being dropped by a high-profile client such as Sunbeam would have been a severe blow to Andersen's reputation. The company generated substantial income for Andersen's Florida office, paying over $1 million in fees for its 1995 audit alone and providing it with substantial income from lucrative consulting assignments. Indeed, Andersen was so eager to keep Sunbeam as its client that it agreed to a 30-percent reduction in its 1996 audit fees.

34. Andersen's fees were particularly important to Andersen's partners, whose incomes were dependent on the continued business from Sunbeam. Andersen tied part of its audit partners' compensation to the solicitation and marketing of non-audit consulting services, and created other revenue-sharing arrangements between audit and consulting partner groups.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

35. Andersen put tremendous pressure on partners to generate more fees. A "depth chart" was developed for each audit client based upon the level of services provided to that client. Partner compensation was determined based on the additional services sold, and the ability of an Andersen partner to increase his income depended directly upon the level of fees that the partner "controlled" or sold to his or her assigned clients. These pressures led directly to a conflict of interest for the auditors on the Sunbeam engagement and were a significant factor that caused Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus, as well as the Foreign Andersen Branches, to abandon their independence, objectivity, and integrity on the Sunbeam financial statement audits and reviews.

Andersen's Worldwide Operations

36. Andersen was formed in Illinois in 1913 as an accounting and consulting partnership under the name "Arthur Andersen & Co." In 1977, as Andersen increased its global presence, it created a new structure called the "Andersen Worldwide Organization." The Andersen Worldwide Organization was overseen by Andersen-Worldwide, which acted as an umbrella organization for the Andersen, the other Andersen Worldwide Organization member firms, the members and contract partners of Andersen-Worldwide, and the individual members and partners of the Andersen Worldwide Organization member firms. The model adopted by the Andersen Worldwide Organization was intended to preserve "The Heart of Partnership Culture," including income sharing among the member firms of the Andersen Worldwide Organization and a common governance model. Thus, partners (or equivalents) in the various branches of the Andersen Worldwide Organization were also members of Andersen-Worldwide, resulting in a global partnership of more than 2,000 individuals from 390 offices in 84 different countries. In addition to overlapping partners and members, Andersen-Worldwide and Andersen shared officers in common. For example, the former CEO and Managing Partner of Andersen-Worldwide, Joseph Berardino, was also the CEO and Managing Partner of Andersen.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

37. Andersen-Worldwide and Andersen also shared the same address. In its promotional literature, Andersen-Worldwide stated that its headquarters were located at 33 West Monroe Street, Chicago, Illinois 60603. That is the same address as the headquarters of Andersen.

38. Andersen-Worldwide set uniform professional standards for all its offices and required the members and partners in its international offices to agree to be bound by those professional standards and principles. Andersen-Worldwide coordinated the sharing of costs and allocation of revenues and profits among its members and partners and its offices around the world. Andersen-Worldwide operated under a worldwide tax structure. In addition, Andersen-Worldwide handled all borrowing on behalf of its international offices and maintained those offices' financial records, payroll, and employee health-benefits plans. All of Andersen's offices also shared global computer operations and training facilities.

39. The components of the Andersen Worldwide Organization ignored corporate formalities in referring to themselves and each other. For example, personnel affiliated with Andersen and Andersen-Worldwide regularly exchanged correspondence and e-mails that were labeled "Andersenwo" — short for "Andersen World Organization." Documents prepared by Andersen often bore the insignia and logos of Andersen-Worldwide, including "Andersen-Worldwide," "Andersen," and "Arthur Andersen." In its promotional literature, Andersen used the names "Andersen Worldwide," "Andersen," and "Arthur Andersen" interchangeably. In addition, Andersen sometimes used only the name "Andersen" when referring to all or part of the

First Amended Complaint

Andersen Worldwide Organization and did not differentiate between Andersen-Worldwide and its offices around the globe.

40. In promotional literature, Andersen, Andersen-Worldwide, and the member firms of the Andersen Worldwide Organization marketed themselves as "one firm," "a single worldwide operating structure," that "think[s] and act[s] as one."

41. News releases issued by Andersen, Andersen-Worldwide, and other member firms confirmed that the Andersen Worldwide Organization and Andersen operated as a single worldwide organization:

- Andersen referred to the brand identity adopted by the member firms of the Andersen "global client service network."
- "With world-class skills in assurance, tax, consulting and corporate finance, Arthur Andersen has more than 77,000 people in 84 countries who are united by a single worldwide operating structure that fosters inventiveness, knowledge sharing, and a focus on client success."
- "Arthur Andersen is significantly different from the other firms in structure, governance and culture — differences which can be pivotal in terms of the quality of service a client company receives. Important distinctions mark our firm from the rest. We have evolved a unique organizational culture that today unites the people of Andersen Worldwide. We are the only true global firm, sharing knowledge and doing business across borders, sharing costs which fund methodologies, research and development, lines and industry groups."
- Andersen spokesman David Tabolt stated: "We conduct more than 30,000 audits around the world every year."
- "AA is already much more integrated globally than the rest of the Big Five. As Mr. Berardino [Andersen-Worldwide's former CEO, who resigned in March 2002] points out, 'there is one name over the door. We're not an alphabet soup.' The cohesiveness of AA's culture has been a source of humor to outsiders, who have labeled its bean counters 'Androids.' While some rivals are still struggling with a complicated array of national partnerships, and thus different systems for sharing pay, AA partners enjoy a single, and possibly unique, system of remuneration: they receive a list of what each of them has earned in the past year."

- “Arthur Andersen is a global professional services organization consisting of over 100 member firms and more than 61,000 people united by a single worldwide operating structure and a common culture of innovation and knowledge sharing. This unique ‘one-firm’ approach qualifies the people of Arthur Andersen to serve clients by bringing together any of more than 40 competencies in a way that transcends geographic borders and organizational lines. Arthur Andersen’s people provide effective business solutions to over 100,000 clients in 81 countries around the world. Since its beginning in 1913, Arthur Andersen has realized 85 years of uninterrupted growth. With revenues of more than US $6 billion, it stands today as a world leader in professional services. Arthur Andersen is a business unit of Andersen Worldwide.”

The Andersen-Worldwide website (Andersen.com) confirmed that there was a single worldwide organization:

- “Our 390 offices may be scattered amid 84 different countries, but our voice is the same. No matter where you go, or who you talk to, we act with one vision. Without boundaries.”
- “One world. One organization.”

Andersen’s recruiting brochures reflected that it was a single worldwide organization:

- “We will, in Arthur Andersen’s own words, ‘act as one firm and speak with one voice. It is a united family that operates across hierarchies, geographical boundaries, client groupings, service lines and competencies and feels the kinship of understanding and shared responsibility.’”

42. Andersen-Worldwide managed its operations by practice groups, as well as by geographical region. Each practice group was headed by a global practice director who oversaw, directed, and controlled the operations of each practice group worldwide. Regional practice directors (e.g., Denkhuis was the director of Andersen-Worldwide’s audit practice in South Florida) reported to the global practice director and managed the practice group within their regions.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

43. As a result of the "one firm" approach, all actions taken by members of Andersen-Worldwide, as well as all actions taken by member firms of Andersen-Worldwide, may be attributed to Andersen-Worldwide.

44. Andersen applied the "one firm" approach in its work with Sunbeam. Top partners responsible for the Sunbeam audits and restatement were partners of Andersen and members of Andersen-Worldwide, including the engagement partner on the Sunbeam audits, Harlow, the concurring partner on those audits, Pruitt, and the Audit Division Head and manager of Andersen's audit practice for the entire South Florida region, Denkhaus.

45. In addition, various international offices of Andersen-Worldwide did substantial work for Sunbeam. Sunbeam was a multinational corporation with operations in Canada, Mexico, Venezuela, and Hong Kong. The Sunbeam engagement required the participation of auditors from each of those countries and numerous American cities. Harlow, on behalf of both Andersen and Andersen-Worldwide, developed work plans that he circulated to Andersen's branches in other countries, including the Foreign Andersen Branches. Those offices worked closely with Harlow and others within Andersen and Andersen-Worldwide to complete the tasks outlined in the plans. They sent their work product to Harlow for inclusion in an Andersen-Worldwide Management Letter, as well as for incorporation in Andersen's audit work.

The Fraudulent 1996 Financial Statements

46. In 1996, after Dunlap took control of Sunbeam, Andersen permitted Sunbeam management to employ numerous accounting practices that — as Sunbeam's November 1998 restatement of its 1996 financial statements and an SEC investigation later showed — did not comply with GAAP. The objective of these accounting violations was to set an artificially bleak financial backdrop against which Sunbeam's 1997 performance would be judged.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

47. Among other things, Sunbeam's 1996 financial statements, certified by Andersen, did not comply with the accounting principles of (1) reliability, Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 58-97; Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Statement No. 4, §§ 109, 138, 189; (2) completeness, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 79, 80; APB Statement No. 4, § 94; (3) conservatism, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 91-97; APB Statements No. 9, §§ 35, 71; (4) neutrality, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 98-110; or (5) relevance, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 47, 48.

48. Among the accounting frauds that Andersen knowingly allowed was the artificial inflation of Sunbeam's reserves. Because the reserves were charged as an expense against income, this accounting practice allowed Sunbeam to overstate the 1996 loss against which its 1997 financial results would be compared.

49. For example, Sunbeam created a $338 million reserve for "restructuring" charges. As the November 1998 restatement made clear, included in these charges were costs of redesigning product packaging; costs of relocating employees and equipment; bonuses to be paid to employees who were told that they were being laid off but were asked to stay on temporarily; advertising expenses; and certain consulting fees. Because these items benefited future activities, GAAP did not permit them to be classified as restructuring charges. Andersen also permitted Sunbeam to violate GAAP by creating a $12 million reserve for a lawsuit alleging that

First Amended Complaint

Sunbeam was liable for cleanup costs associated with a hazardous waste site, even though Sunbeam's estimated liability was, at best, half that amount.

50. Andersen also permitted Sunbeam improperly to write down its household products inventory in 1996. In connection with the restructuring, Sunbeam had decided to eliminate half of Sunbeam's product lines and to liquidate its inventory of those product lines. Although only half of Sunbeam's product lines were eliminated, Andersen allowed Sunbeam to apply, at year-end 1996, the special accounting treatment that it had accorded the eliminated lines to its entire inventory of household products. As a result, as the November 1998 financial restatement later showed, Sunbeam understated the balance sheet value of its inventory at year-end 1996 by approximately $2 million and overstated its 1996 loss by the same amount.

51. Andersen also allowed management improperly to recognize, as a 1996 expense, $2.3 million in 1997 advertising expenses and related costs. In addition, Andersen permitted Sunbeam to manipulate its 1996 liabilities for "cooperative advertising." It was Sunbeam's practice to fund a portion of its retailers' costs of running local promotions. As required by GAAP, Sunbeam accrued its estimated liabilities for this expense. At year-end 1996, Sunbeam set its cooperative advertising accrual at an inflated value of $21.8 million. According to the November 1998 restatement, this accrual was improper under GAAP because it was approximately 25 percent higher than the prior year's accrual amount, without a proportional increase in sales providing a basis for the increase. Ultimately, as the November 1998 restatement showed, $5.8 million of that excessive accrual was used (without disclosure) to inflate Sunbeam's 1997 income.

Andersen's 1996 Unqualified Audit Opinion

52. In the course of auditing Sunbeam's 1996 financial statements, Andersen became aware of these and other improper accounting practices. Indeed, an Andersen employee questioned a Sunbeam employee about the restructuring reserves and was told that the reserve included "everything but the kitchen sink." Harlow, the Andersen engagement partner, knew of this statement.

53. Harlow informed Kersh and Gluck, who were part of Sunbeam's senior management, that certain of the restructuring reserves that Sunbeam had established were not properly accounted for as restructuring costs under GAAP because they benefited Sunbeam's future operations. He proposed that Sunbeam reverse the accounting entries on its books and records reflecting the establishment of these reserves. However, when Kersh and Gluck refused to reverse these items, Harlow caused Andersen to acquiesce to Sunbeam's fraudulent accounting for the reserves.

54. In March 1997, Andersen issued an unqualified audit opinion regarding Sunbeam's 1996 financial statements and authorized the inclusion of its audit opinion in Sunbeam's 1996 Form 10-K filed with the SEC. A copy of the 1996 Audit Opinion is exhibit "A" attached hereto. Consistent with Andersen's internal procedures, the Audit Opinion was issued at the direction of Harlow and Pruitt. Denkhaus, as Audit Division Head and manager of Andersen's audit practice for the entire South Florida region, had undertaken responsibility for supervising the audit work performed in Andersen's South Florida region and thus also bore responsibility for the issuance of this opinion.

55. Despite its knowledge of the many improper accounting practices that Sunbeam's management had employed, Andersen's opinion stated:

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements . . . present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Sunbeam Corporation and subsidiaries as of December 31, 1995 and December 29, 1996, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three fiscal years in the period ended December 29, 1996 in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

56. Andersen also knowingly provided false descriptions of certain of Sunbeam's specific accounting practices. For example, it characterized Sunbeam's treatment of its restructuring charges in Note 2 to the audited 1996 consolidated financial statements as follows:

In conjunction with the implementation of the restructuring and growth plan, the Company recorded a pre-tax special charge to earnings of approximately $337.6 million in the fourth quarter of 1996. This amount is allocated as follows in the accompanying Consolidated Statement of Operations: $154.9 million to Restructuring, Impairment and Other Costs as further described below; $92.3 million to Cost of Goods Sold related principally to inventory write-downs from the reduction in SKUs and costs of inventory liquidation programs; $42.5 million to Selling, General and Administrative expenses principally for increases in environmental and litigation reserves (see Notes 12 and 13) and other reserve categories; and the estimated pre-tax loss on the divestiture of the Company's furniture business of approximately $47.9 million.

In fact, however, Andersen knew that Sunbeam had improperly inflated its restructuring costs by millions of dollars.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

57. Andersen's 1996 audit violated GAAS because, among other things, Andersen failed (1) to perform the audits with an attitude of professional skepticism as required by the Statement on Auditing Standards ("SAS") No. 53; (2) to conclude that there was a significant risk that Sunbeam management would intentionally distort the company's financial statements, in violation of American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Professional Standards, AU §§ 316.10 and 316.12; (3) to recognize that the accounting policies employed by Sunbeam were not acceptable in the circumstances, in violation of AU § 316.19; (4) to obtain sufficient competent evidential matter through inspection, observation, inquiries, and confirmations to afford a reasonable basis for its opinions regarding Sunbeam's financial statements, in violation of AU § 150.02; (5) to exercise due professional care in the performance of the audit, in violation of AU § 150.02; (6) to plan the work adequately to uncover the errors and irregularities in Sunbeam's accounting information, in violation of AU § 150.02; and (7) to obtain a sufficient understanding of Sunbeam's internal control structure to plan the audits and to determine the nature, timing, and extent of tests to be performed, in violation of AU § 150.02.

58. In addition, in conducting the 1996 audit, Andersen (1) improperly relied on management representations rather than applying the auditing procedures necessary to afford a reasonable basis for an opinion on Sunbeam's financial statements, in violation of SAS No. 19 (AU § 333.02); (2) failed to recognize that misstatements resulting from misapplication of GAAP, departures from fact, and omissions of necessary information, in aggregate, caused Sunbeam's financial statements to be materially misstated, in violation of SAS No. 47 (AU § 312.04); (3) failed to issue a qualified or adverse opinion, in violation of SAS No. 47 (AU § 312.31); and (4) improperly concluded that the accounting principles applied by Sunbeam were appropriate in the circumstances and that Sunbeam's financial statements were informative of matters that could affect their use, understanding, and interpretation, in violation of SAS No. 69 (AU § 411.04(b) and (c)).

First Amended Complaint

59. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew of or recklessly disregarded numerous red flags that should have caused them to prevent Andersen from certifying Sunbeam's 1996 financial statements. However, they did nothing to stop Andersen's unqualified 1996 audit opinion from being included in Sunbeam's Form 10-K filing with the SEC, despite the fact that they knew or were reckless in not knowing that the financial statements that Andersen had certified were materially misleading. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus also knew that the false financial statements that they had caused Andersen to issue would be incorporated into Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements and that lenders, such as MSSF, and underwriters, such as MS & Co., would rely on these financial statements.

60. In all, the 1996 financial statements audited by Andersen were materially false and misleading and overstated Sunbeam's operating losses for 1996 by at least $40 million. Moreover, Andersen's unqualified audit opinion was false in at least two material respects. First, the financial statements that Andersen audited did not "fairly" present Sunbeam's financial position in conformity with GAAP, as it represented. Second, Andersen had not, as it claimed, conducted its audit in accordance with GAAS.

The Fraudulent 1997 Financial Statements

61. The accounting frauds in which Andersen permitted Sunbeam to engage in 1997 were aimed at inflating the company's earnings. To accomplish this — as the November 1998 restatement and an SEC investigation subsequently showed — Andersen allowed Sunbeam to record fraudulent sales, to account improperly for one-time events, and improperly to use "cookie-jar" reserves, all in violation of GAAP.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

62. Among other things, Sunbeam's 1997 financial statements, certified by Andersen, did not comply with the accounting principles of (1) reliability, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 58-97; APB Statement No. 4, §§ 109, 138, 189; (2) completeness, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 79, 80; APB Statement No. 4, § 94; (3) conservatism, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 91-97; APB Statements No. 9, §§ 35, 71; (4) neutrality, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 98-110; or (5) relevance, FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Concepts No. 2, §§ 47, 48.

63. One of the revenue inflation tactics permitted by Andersen in 1997 was improper accounting for "bill-and-hold" sales. A bill-and-hold sale occurs when a seller bills a customer for a purchase while retaining the merchandise for later delivery. During 1997, Dunlap's management team offered financial incentives to various customers to purchase products. Under GAAP, revenue under bill-and-hold transactions may be recognized only if, among other things, the buyer — not the seller — requests a sale on that basis. As Andersen subsequently learned in the course of its 1997 audit, the purported bill-and-hold customers had not requested that treatment, and, in numerous cases, the risks of ownership and legal title were never passed to the customer. Sunbeam added more than $29 million to its 1997 sales and $4.5 million to income by improperly accounting for these transactions.

64. Another income-boosting tactic that Andersen sanctioned was Sunbeam's improper use of its inflated 1996 reserves, which artificially increased the company's 1997 income by almost $5 million. Andersen also let Sunbeam improperly treat $19 million that it received from the sale of discounted and obsolete inventory as ordinary income. Although the recognition of that revenue was permitted under GAAP, Sunbeam was required to disclose that revenue as a non-recurring event. Sunbeam failed to do so, again with Andersen's blessing.

First Amended Complaint

65. In addition, Andersen and Andersen-Hong Kong allowed Sunbeam's Hong Kong subsidiary to book sales that violated applicable accounting principles because they included an unlimited right to return unsold merchandise and because the amount of future returns on such sales could not reasonably be estimated. On Andersen's and Andersen-Hong Kong's watch, Sunbeam's Hong Kong subsidiary improperly recorded sales revenue of $8.6 million from various sales made during the fourth quarter of 1997. Andersen and Andersen-Hong Kong also permitted Sunbeam's Hong Kong subsidiary to under-provide for warranty and product liability expenses; improperly to include in 1997 net sales of $0.5 million of goods that were not shipped until 1998; and improperly to defer 1997 advertising costs to future periods.

66. Andersen and Andersen-Canada also permitted Sunbeam's Canadian subsidiary improperly to book sales that did not meet the applicable sales recognition criteria because they included an unlimited right to return unsold merchandise and because the amount of future returns on such sales could not reasonably be estimated.

67. Andersen and Andersen-Mexico also permitted Sunbeam to employ several improper accounting tricks with respect to its Mexican subsidiary. Sunbeam's Mexican subsidiary engaged in $900,000 in bill-and-hold transactions in 1997 that should not have been recognized as income until 1998. In addition, the subsidiary's inventory was overvalued by $2 million, and the financial statements for Sunbeam's Mexico operations failed to include a $3 million expense for the profit-sharing obligations of that business.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

68. Andersen and Andersen-Venezuela also permitted Sunbeam's Venezuela subsidiary improperly to value its inventory of raw materials. Its books reflected purchases of raw materials that were held at various suppliers. Andersen failed to confirm that the booked amounts represented materials that were actually in the possession of suppliers. Had it done so, it would have discovered that the materials did not exist.

69. One of the most egregious accounting abuses that Andersen permitted in 1997 was to allow Sunbeam to record a profit on a sham sale of its warranty and spare parts business to its spare parts provider, EPI Printers, Inc. Prior to 1997, EPI satisfied spare parts and warranty requests of Sunbeam customers on a fee basis. To raise additional revenue at year-end 1997, however, Sunbeam entered into a sham "sale" of the warranty and spare parts inventories already in EPI's warehouse. As a result of the transaction, management fraudulently recognized millions of dollars of bogus sales and profits in 1997.

70. The problem with the EPI transaction was that the transaction was not a sale at all, for at least three reasons. First, there was never a final agreement between Sunbeam and EPI. The closest the parties ever came to a meeting of the minds was the execution of a mere "agreement to agree." Second, by its terms, the proposed sale was to terminate on January 23, 1998, with no payment obligation on the part of EPI, absent a subsequent agreement between Sunbeam and EPI on the value of the inventory. In other words, the sale could be completely unwound just after year-end without EPI ever having paid a cent. Third, Sunbeam had agreed as part of the proposed sale to pay certain fees to EPI and to guarantee a 5-percent profit to EPI on the eventual resale of the inventory. In essence, even after the proposed sale, EPI remained a contractor compensated by Sunbeam on a fee basis for its services. In sum, the relationship between EPI and Sunbeam was not materially altered by the purported "sale."

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

71. As a result of these and other violations of accounting standards, in 1997, Sunbeam reported $186 million in income, much of which was, according to the November 1998 restatement, improper under GAAP. In all, the overstatements included over $90 million of improper net income, including approximately $10 million from a sham sale of inventory to a contractor, approximately $4.5 million from non-GAAP bill-and-hold sales, approximately $35 million in income derived from the use of non-GAAP reserves and accruals taken at year-end 1996, and approximately $6 million from improper revenue recognition.

Sunbeam's Purchase of Coleman

72. Toward the end of 1997, Sunbeam engaged MS & Co. to advise it with respect to the possible sale of its core businesses and/or the initiation of one or more major acquisitions. Ultimately, Coleman, Signature Brands, and First Alert were identified as three companies interested in being acquired by Sunbeam.

73. On January 28, 1998, Sunbeam announced its financial results for 1997, reporting total revenues of $1.168 billion, and total earnings from continuing operations of $189 million (or $1.41 per share).

74. On February 3, 1998, Harlow met with key officers of Sunbeam to discuss the acquisition of Coleman and its financial impact on Sunbeam. By that time, as a result of reviewing Sunbeam's 1997 financial statements in the course of its audit, Harlow and Andersen knew that Sunbeam's 1997 results were false.

75. On February 20, 1998, Andersen agreed to act as a Sunbeam financial advisor and perform financial due diligence in connection with Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman, First Alert, and Signature Brands, further compromising Andersen's duty as an auditor to maintain its independence from its client. In agreeing to undertake that assignment, Andersen became an active member of the team working to assist Sunbeam in its acquisitions. Harlow and other Andersen employees who worked on Sunbeam's audit also served as members of Sunbeam's due diligence team.

First Amended Complaint

76. On February 27, 1998, Sunbeam's Board of Directors met in New York to discuss Sunbeam's possible purchase of Coleman. During the February 27, 1998 meeting, MS & Co. provided Sunbeam's Board of Directors with a written "fairness" opinion regarding the fair acquisition price of Coleman. The opinion made clear that, even in the context of issuing a fairness opinion on the Coleman acquisition price, MS & Co. had relied upon Andersen's representations regarding Sunbeam's financial health. The fairness opinion explicitly stated that MS & Co. had reviewed "certain publicly available financial statements and other information" of Sunbeam. The opinion advised that MS & Co. had "assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information reviewed by us for the purposes of this opinion."

77. The Sunbeam Board of Directors approved the Coleman acquisition. That same day, Coleman-Parent — the 82-percent shareholder of Coleman — agreed to sell Coleman to Sunbeam for a purchase price of $2.2 billion. Sunbeam agreed to provide Coleman-Parent with $160 million in cash, to assume $584 million in Coleman-related debt, and to provide Coleman-Parent with 14,099,749 shares of Sunbeam stock. Sunbeam also agreed to purchase Signature Brands and First Alert for approximately $300 million.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB

Andersen's 1997 Unqualified Audit Opinion

78. In the first week of March 1998, shortly after the agreement for Sunbeam's purchase of Coleman was signed, but before the transaction closed, Andersen rendered an unqualified audit opinion for Sunbeam's 1997 financial statements. With Andersen's express consent, management included that opinion in Sunbeam's 1997 Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 6, 1998.

79. Andersen was well aware of the potential for fraud in Sunbeam's 1997 books, including the risk that Sunbeam management would attempt to claim profits and revenue on transactions before the earnings process was completed. Harlow had specifically advised Andersen's foreign offices (including Andersen-Canada, Andersen-Hong Kong, Andersen-Mexico, and Andersen-Venezuela), for example, that Dunlap had made promises to the public regarding earnings-per-share to be attained in 1997, and that management had a vested interest in achieving the promised earnings levels because management's primary form of compensation was based on the company's stock price. Harlow had also noted the presence of the possibility of a third-party purchase of the company's stock or assets.

80. In the course of its audit of Sunbeam's 1997 financial records, Andersen learned that Harlow's concerns were well-founded. It discovered that Sunbeam had improperly accounted for certain bill-and-hold sales, had misused its reserves, and had overvalued its inventories. Harlow discussed these problems with Sunbeam's senior management and proposed that Sunbeam reverse these improper entries.

81. For example, as part of Andersen's 1997 year-end audit, Harlow raised with Sunbeam's management the improper accounting treatment accorded to the EPI transaction. He proposed that Sunbeam reverse the accounting entries reflecting the revenue recognition for that

CASE NO. S02004CA002257XXXXMB

transaction, pointing out that the profit guarantee and the indeterminate value of the contract rendered revenue recognition inconsistent with GAAP. Kersh and Gluck refused to reverse the transaction. Harlow caused Andersen to acquiesce in management's actions. As a result, Sunbeam's 1997 audited financial statements reflect almost $10 million of false profit on the sham EPI transaction.

82. Harlow also raised with Kersh and Gluck Sunbeam's inappropriate use of reserves and recorded the full $4.9 million of costs that Sunbeam had improperly offset against reserves on the list of proposed audit adjustments. Kersh and Gluck, however, refused to make the proposed adjustments. Harlow again failed to insist on honest, accurate accounting. Instead, he caused Andersen to acquiesce in Sunbeam's refusal to reverse these improper reductions in current-period costs, although he knew or recklessly disregarded facts indicating that this improper accounting would materially distort Sunbeam's reported results of operations. In fact, this use of reserves increased 1997 fourth-quarter income by almost 8 percent.

83. Harlow also proposed adjustments to reverse $2.9 million related to Sunbeam's inventory overvaluation by its Mexican subsidiary and $563,000 related to various miscellaneous terms. Kersh and Gluck refused to make appropriate adjustments, and Harlow again caused Andersen to acquiesce in their refusal to reverse these errors — despite the fact that these items added over 5.4 percent to Sunbeam's reported earnings for the fourth quarter and contributed to the larger misstatement of Sunbeam's reported results of operations stemming from the fraudulent conduct of Sunbeam's management.

84. These improper accounting techniques raised clear red flags that should have — and must have — alerted Andersen to the need for greater scrutiny regarding all of Sunbeam's revenue recognition decisions. At a minimum, Andersen should have been on guard as to all of the proposed audit adjustments that Harlow initially proposed but later rejected, and any previously recognized improper items that were ultimately dismissed as "immaterial."

First Amended Complaint

85. Despite these clear red flags, Andersen once again gave Sunbeam a clean bill of financial health, issuing an unqualified audit opinion regarding Sunbeam's 1997 financial statements and authorized the inclusion of its audit opinion in Sunbeam's 1997 Form 10-K filed with the SEC. A copy of the 1997 Audit Opinion is exhibit "B" attached hereto. The Audit Opinion is signed by Andersen. Consistent with Andersen's internal procedures, the Audit Opinion was issued at the direction of Harlow and Pruitt. Denkhau, as Audit Division Head and manager of Andersen's audit practice for the entire South Florida region, had undertaken responsibility for supervising the audit work performed in Andersen's South Florida region and thus also bore responsibility for the issuance of this opinion.

86. In this opinion, Andersen stated:

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements . . . , present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Sunbeam Corporation and subsidiaries as of December 29, 1996 and December 28, 1997, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three fiscal years in the period ended December 28, 1997 in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

87. In fact, Andersen's 1997 audit violated GAAS because, among other things, Andersen had failed (1) to perform the audits with an attitude of professional skepticism as required by SAS No. 53; (2) to reach a conclusion that there existed a significant risk of intentional distortion of financial statements by Sunbeam management, in violation of AU §§ 316.10 and 316.12; (3) to recognize that the accounting policies employed by Sunbeam were not acceptable in the circumstances, in violation of AU § 316.19; (4) to obtain sufficient competent evidential matter through inspection, observation, inquiries, and confirmations to afford a reasonable basis for its opinions regarding Sunbeam's financial statements, in violation of AU § 150.02; (5) to exercise due professional care in the performance of the audit, in violation of AU § 150.02; (6) to plan the work adequately to uncover the errors and irregularities in Sunbeam's accounting information, in violation of AU § 150.02; and (7) to obtain a sufficient understanding of Sunbeam's internal control structure to plan the audits and to determine the nature, timing, and extent of tests to be performed, in violation of AU § 150.02.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

88. In addition, in conducting the 1997 audit, Andersen (1) improperly relied on management representations rather than applying the auditing procedures necessary to afford a reasonable basis for an opinion on Sunbeam's financial statements, in violation of SAS No. 19 (AU § 333.02); (2) failed to recognize that misstatements resulting from misapplication of GAAP, departures from fact and omissions of necessary information, in aggregate, caused Sunbeam's financial statements to be materially misstated, in violation of SAS No. 47 (AU § 312.04); (3) failed to issue a qualified or adverse opinion, in violation of SAS No. 47 (AU § 312.31); (4) improperly concluded that the accounting principles applied by Sunbeam were appropriate in the circumstances and that Sunbeam's financial statements were informative of matters that could affect their use, understanding and interpretation, in violation of SAS No. 69 (AU § 411.04(b) and (c)); and (5) failed to report that a change in the application of accounting principles in Sunbeam's 1997 financial statements had materially affected their comparability with the financial statements for prior periods, especially 1996, due to a different treatment of sales and reserves in those periods, in violation of SAS Nos. 1 and 43 (AU § 420.02).

First Amended Complaint

89. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew of or recklessly disregarded numerous red flags that should have caused them to withhold Andersen's unqualified certification of Sunbeam's 1997 financial statements. However, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus did nothing to stop Andersen's unqualified 1997 audit opinion from being included in Sunbeam's Form 10-K filing with the SEC, despite the fact that they knew or were reckless in not knowing that the financial statements that Andersen had certified were materially misleading. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus also knew that the false financial statements that they had caused Andersen to issue would be incorporated into Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements and that MSSF, as a lender, and MS & Co., as an underwriter, would rely on these financial statements.

90. The Foreign Andersen Branches also knew of or recklessly disregarded the fact that the financial statements of Sunbeam's foreign subsidiaries, which they had reviewed and audited, were not prepared in accordance with GAAP or reviewed in accordance with GAAS. The Foreign Andersen Branches nevertheless certified that their audit work complied with GAAP and GAAS. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches also knew that the false financial statements that they had audited would be incorporated into Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements and that lenders, such as MSSF, and underwriters, such as MS & Co., would rely on these financial statements.

91. In all, the 1997 financial statements audited by Andersen reported operating income of $186 million — an overstatement of at least 50 percent. Like its 1996 unqualified audit opinion, Andersen's 1997 opinion was false in two material respects. First, the financial statements Andersen audited did not "fairly" present Sunbeam's financial position in conformity with GAAP, as it represented. Second, Andersen had not, as it claimed, conducted its audit in accordance with GAAS.

Reliance by Plaintiffs on Andersen's Unqualified Audit Opinions

92. After it agreed to acquire Coleman, First Alert, and Signature Brands, Sunbeam needed to raise approximately $2.3 billion to refinance existing debt and to fund these acquisitions. To accomplish these financing objectives, Sunbeam's management elected to issue $500 million in subordinated convertible notes (an amount later increased to $750 million) (the "Convertible Note Offering") and to enter into a new $2 billion senior credit agreement (later reduced to $1.7 billion) with secured lenders (the "Bank Facility"). MS & Co. served as the lead underwriter for the Convertible Note Offering. MSSF served as the Syndication Agent for the Bank Facility and coordinated the Bank Facility with First Union and Bank of America, Sunbeam's other secured lenders.

93. Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew of these proposed financing arrangements. Specifically, they knew that the Coleman and other acquisitions would not close unless Sunbeam secured the financing necessary to cover the acquisition prices. They knew that MS & Co. would underwrite a notes offering that Sunbeam would use to finance the transaction. Moreover, they knew that MSSF was a principal participant in the Bank Facility, and that MSSF would be relying on the representations Andersen made regarding Sunbeam's financial condition.

94. In addition, Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew that documents issued in connection with the Convertible Note Offering clearly stated that "[Sunbeam] is currently negotiating the terms of the New Credit Facility with a group of banks which [Sunbeam] expects will provide for borrowings by [Sunbeam] or one or more of its subsidiaries in the aggregate principal amount of $2.0 billion. The New Credit Facility is being arranged by an affiliate of [Morgan Stanley]." Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew that the affiliate referred to in this document was MSSF.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

95. In addition to their knowledge of MS & Co.'s and MSSF's roles in Sunbeam's acquisitions, Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus had many reasons to know that MS & Co. and MSSF would rely on Sunbeam's audited financial statements. To begin with, Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus, in their substantial experience working on multi-billion dollar mergers and acquisitions, understood that Sunbeam's lenders and underwriters would rely on an auditor's certification of Sunbeam's financial condition. As would any lender engaged in a deal of this scale, MSSF looked to the financial statements provided by Sunbeam and audited by Andersen to evaluate annual cash flow and to assess Sunbeam's ability, following the acquisition, to promptly and comfortably pay interest and, ultimately, pay back the loan. Indeed, reasonable and professional lenders such as MSSF, Bank of America, and First Union would not have loaned over $1 billion dollars to any person or entity without strong assurance that their money would be returned. Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew that MS & Co., the underwriter of the Convertible Note Offering, would similarly refuse to underwrite a $750 million offering without strong assurance that Sunbeam's financial condition was sound.

96. Not only were Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus aware that any prudent business in MS & Co.'s or MSSF's position would rely on Andersen's financial statements, but they also knew that MS & Co. and MSSF were specifically relying on Andersen's certifications. In a letter dated March 11, 1998, MS & Co. wrote a letter to Andersen — to the attention of

First Amended Complaint

Harlow — notifying Andersen that MS & Co. would be “reviewing certain information relating to Sunbeam that will be included in the Offering Memorandum.” MS & Co. requested that Andersen deliver to it a “‘comfort’ letter concerning the financial statements” of Sunbeam.

97. In response to this request, Andersen expressly represented to MS & Co. that Sunbeam’s financial statements were truthful and that Andersen’s unqualified audit opinions were reliable. On March 19, 1998, Andersen sent MS & Co. a “comfort” letter stating that, in Andersen’s opinion, “the consolidated financial statements [for 1996 and 1997] audited by [Andersen] and included in the Offering Memorandum comply as to form in all material respects with the applicable accounting requirements of the [Securities Act of 1933] and the related published rules and regulations.” Andersen knew that MS & Co. would rely on the comfort letters in deciding to underwrite the Convertible Note Offering. Andersen also knew that Sunbeam’s acquisitions were contingent on Sunbeam’s obtaining the necessary financing for the transactions, including the underwriting of the convertible notes. Andersen knew that, absent its representations, MS & Co. would not have underwritten the notes, and therefore the financing, including MSSF’s loan to Sunbeam, would not have gone forward. A copy of the March 19, 1998 letter is exhibit “C” attached hereto.

98. Harlow and Pruitt authorized the issuance of the March 19, 1998 comfort letter, which was signed by Andersen. Upon information and belief, Denkhaus knew of this letter and did nothing to stop its issuance.

99. In a follow-up letter to MS & Co. dated March 25, 1998, Andersen reaffirmed its previous representation, stating that it “reaffirm[ed] as of the date hereof (and as though made on the date hereof) all statements made in that letter.” Again, Andersen knew that MS & Co. would rely on the comfort letters in deciding to underwrite the Convertible Note Offering and that,

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

absent its representations, the financing, including MSSF's loan to Sunbeam, would not have gone forward. A copy of the March 25, 1998 letter is exhibit "D" attached hereto.

100. Again, Harlow and Pruitt authorized the issuance of this letter, which was likewise signed by Andersen. Upon information and belief, Denkhaus also knew of this letter and did nothing to stop its issuance.

101. In addition to Andersen's written representations regarding Sunbeam's financial condition, Andersen partners and employees, including Harlow, participated in meetings and telephone calls in which they represented to MS & Co. and MSSF that Sunbeam's audited financial statements were accurate. For example, on March 12, 1998, representatives of MS & Co. participated in a conference call with Harlow and another Andersen employee to discuss Sunbeam's financial statements. In this call, Harlow assured MS & Co.'s representatives that there were no material inaccuracies in Sunbeam's financial statements. Upon information and belief, Harlow made these statements with the knowledge and approval of Pruitt and Denkhaus.

102. Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus also knew that MS & Co. had stated in a February 27, 1998 "fairness" opinion that MS & Co. had presented to Sunbeam's Board of Directors that MS & Co. had assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of Sunbeam's audited financial statements that were available at that time.

103. In addition, Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew that Sunbeam had expressly represented, in loan negotiations with MSSF, that Andersen's audit opinions were accurate. Specifically, Andersen knew that, in the Sunbeam-MSSF credit agreement, Sunbeam had warranted that it had provided MSSF with accurate information regarding Sunbeam's consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as its consolidated balance sheets. According to Sunbeam, its financial statements — certified by

First Amended Complaint

Andersen — “present[ed] fairly, in all material respects, the financial position and results of operations and cash flows . . . in accordance with GAAP.”

104. Similarly, Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew that, in connection with the Convertible Note Offering, Sunbeam had included its 1996 and 1997 audited financial statements in its March 19, 1998, offering memorandum and had represented to MS & Co. that its audited financial statements were reliable.

105. Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus also knew that, as part of the Coleman merger agreement executed on February 27, 1998, Sunbeam had represented and warranted that all of its filings with the SEC, which included the 1996 financial statements audited by Andersen, were accurate and not misleading, and that they would continue to be accurate and not misleading as of the transaction’s closing date. Sunbeam further represented that its audited financial statements were prepared in accordance with GAAP, and that at the time of the closing of the transaction, that representation would continue to be true and correct.

106. Although it knew that MS & Co. and MSSF had based multi-million dollar financing decisions on its representations, Andersen did not tell Plaintiffs’ of the accounting concerns that it had raised with Sunbeam management in the course of its 1996 and 1997 audits or that Sunbeam’s financial statements had not been fairly stated in 1996 and 1997.

107. On March 25, 1998, the $750 million Convertible Note Offering closed. In justifiable reliance on Andersen’s 1996 and 1997 unqualified audit opinions, on Andersen’s March 19, 1998, and March 25, 1998, “comfort” letters, and on the oral representations made by Harlow and other partners, members or employees of Andersen and Andersen-Worldwide, MS & Co. underwrote this offering to finance Sunbeam’s acquisitions of Coleman, Signature Brands, and First Alert.

CASE NO. S02004CA002257XXXMB
First Amended Complaint

108. Sunbeam closed its acquisition of Coleman on March 30, 1998. On that date, Sunbeam, through a wholly owned subsidiary, acquired approximately 81 percent of the then-outstanding shares of Coleman common stock. These shares were acquired by Sunbeam in exchange for 14,099,749 shares of Sunbeam's common stock and approximately $160,000,000 in cash. In addition, Sunbeam assumed or repaid approximately $1,016,000,000 in debt belonging to Coleman and Coleman-Parent. Included in the repaid debt portion of the transaction was an immediate cash payment by Sunbeam to Coleman-Parent of $590 million.

109. MSSF and Sunbeam closed the Bank Facility on March 31, 1998. In accordance with the terms of the Bank Facility, MSSF — unaware of the falsity of Sunbeam's financial statements and Andersen's audit reports and in justifiable reliance on Andersen's representations — loaned Sunbeam $680 million in immediately available funds to be used for the acquisitions. First Union, which served as the Administrative Agent for the Bank Facility, loaned Sunbeam an additional $510 million. Bank of America, which served as the Documentation Agent for the Bank Facility, loaned Sunbeam an additional $510 million.

110. As Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus knew, MS & Co. had relied on Sunbeam's 1996 and 1997 financial statements in deciding to underwrite the Convertible Note Offering. Andersen, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus further knew that MSSF had relied on Sunbeam's 1996 and 1997 financial statements in deciding to loan Sunbeam $680 million. Moreover, they knew that the Sunbeam-MSSF credit agreement provided that a condition precedent to MSSF's obligations under the agreement was the absence of any event, change, or development that would have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operation, or financial condition of Sunbeam. Andersen knew that an additional condition precedent to

First Amended Complaint

MSSF's obligations was the absence of any material misrepresentation or omissions in Sunbeam's SEC filings, including Andersen's 1996 and 1997 audit reports in the Form 10-Ks.

111. But for Andersen's fraud and its failure to issue qualified or adverse reports exposing the falsity of Sunbeam's financial statements, MS & Co. and MSSF would have had notice of an adverse material change affecting Sunbeam before funding, and of a material misstatement in Sunbeam's SEC filings. Not only would MS & Co. never have agreed to underwrite the Convertible Note Offering, but MSSF's obligation to loan Sunbeam $680 million also would have been discharged by the failure of conditions precedent to its obligations under the credit agreement. Andersen's fraud directly caused the extensive losses that Plaintiffs suffered.

112. Andersen's fraud was knowingly caused by Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhau. Harlow, as engagement partner, and Pruitt, as concurring partner, had direct responsibility for directing, managing, and approving of the work that was done on the Sunbeam audits. They caused Andersen to represent to MS & Co. and MSSF that Sunbeam's financial statements were reliable. Denkhau, who was a senior partner of Andersen and a member of Andersen-Worldwide, as well as the Audit Division Head and manager of Andersen's audit practice for the entire South Florida region, had undertaken responsibility for supervising and monitoring the work that was performed at Harlow's and Pruitt's direction. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhau each knew of or recklessly disregarded the accounting violations contained in Sunbeam's 1996 and 1997 financial statements. They each also knew that the financial statements that they had caused Andersen to certify would be relied upon by MS & Co. in deciding to underwrite the Convertible Note Offering and by MSSF in deciding to loan Sunbeam hundreds of millions of dollars.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXMB
First Amended Complaint

113. This fraud was also knowingly perpetrated by the Foreign Andersen Branches. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches reviewed and audited financial statements prepared for Sunbeam's foreign subsidiaries for 1997, all of which contained significant accounting violations. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches knew of or recklessly disregarded the fact that the financial statements that they had reviewed and audited were not prepared in accordance with GAAP or reviewed in accordance with GAAS, but nevertheless certified that their audit work complied with these standards. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches also knew that the financial statements that they had audited would be incorporated into Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements and that lenders, such as MSSF, and underwriters, such as MS & Co., would rely on these financial statements.

114. The fraud was also knowingly perpetrated by Andersen-Worldwide through the actions of its members, including Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus, and its member firms, including Andersen and the Foreign Andersen Branches.

Andersen's Improper Accounting and Misrepresentations Are Revealed

115. In an April 3, 1998 conference call with securities analysts, Sunbeam revealed that sales for the first quarter of 1998 were 5 percent below reported sales for the same period of the prior year.

116. On April 22, 1998, a class of Sunbeam shareholders sued Sunbeam and its senior officers in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, alleging that the company had violated the securities laws by issuing materially false and misleading statements regarding Sunbeam's financial condition. Andersen was subsequently added as a defendant in that lawsuit.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB

117. On June 8, 1998, an article was published in Barron's that raised serious questions regarding Sunbeam's apparent success under Dunlap, suggesting that it was the result of "accounting gimmickry." On June 15, 1998, Sunbeam's Board announced that it had removed Dunlap as Chairman and CEO. On June 17, 1998, Sunbeam received a letter from the SEC informing it that the SEC had initiated an investigation into the company.

118. Andersen continued to stand behind its fraudulent audit opinions. On June 15, 1998, Andersen allowed Sunbeam's Board of Directors to assert that Andersen had "assured the Board that Sunbeam's audited financial statements [were] accurate in all material respects." Andersen made this statement knowing that it was false. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhau likewise knew the statement was false, but caused Andersen to make this statement. It was not until June 25, 1998 — when Andersen withheld its consent for use of its 1997 audit opinion in a registration statement that was to have been filed with the SEC — that Andersen gave any hint that its unqualified audit opinions were unreliable.

119. On June 30, 1998, Sunbeam announced that the Audit Committee of its Board of Directors would conduct an inquiry into the accuracy of its 1997 financial statements. The Audit Committee subsequently retained Deloitte & Touche LLP to assist in the review, in addition to Andersen. Sunbeam stated that "pending the completion of the review, its 1997 financial statements and the report of Arthur Andersen LLP should not be relied upon." Sunbeam added that the review "could result in a restatement of the 1997 financial statements and the first quarter 1998 Form 10-Q."

120. On August 6, 1998, Sunbeam announced that its Audit Committee had determined that Sunbeam would be required to restate its audited financial statements for 1997 and possibly for 1996, as well as its unaudited financial statements for the first quarter of 1998. On

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

October 20, 1998, Sunbeam and Andersen announced a restatement of its 1996 and 1997 financial statements.

121. Holders of the convertible notes sued Sunbeam on October 30, 1998, and Andersen was later named as a defendant in that suit.

122. On November 12, 1998, Sunbeam released its restated 1996 and 1997 financial results, again audited by Andersen. The restated 1996 financial statements reported operating losses for 1996 that were approximately $40 million less than originally reported, losses from continuing operations that were approximately $26 million less than previously reported and net losses that were approximately $20 million less than previously reported.

123. For 1997, the restated financial statements reported operating earnings that were approximately $95 million less than originally reported, earnings from continuing operations that were approximately $70 million less than previously reported and net earnings that were approximately $70 million less than previously reported. The new operating income figure for 1997 was approximately half the amount that Andersen had previously certified.

Sunbeam Declares Bankruptcy

124. On February 6, 2001, as a direct result of the deceit that Andersen had committed, with the knowledge and assistance of the other Defendants named in this Complaint, Sunbeam and several of its subsidiaries were forced to seek relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York. As part of the bankruptcy court-approved reorganization plan, MSSF's $680 million loan to Sunbeam was discharged in full, and MSSF received Sunbeam stock valued at a fraction of the original loan. In addition, as a result of Andersen's actions, the convertible notes issued by Sunbeam and held by MS & Co. had been rendered substantially less valuable. The shareholders of Sunbeam saw the value of their stock decline by over $5 billion from its peak in early March 1998 to February 5, 2001.

Subsequent Censure of Andersen's Conduct

125. Both courts and regulators have scrutinized Andersen's facilitation of Sunbeam's fraud. In their judgments against the firm and Harlow, they have denounced Andersen's conduct.

126. In December 1999, for example, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, which presided over the Sunbeam shareholders' class action securities fraud lawsuit, refused to dismiss any claims against Andersen. The court found that the plaintiff class had, by alleging the material misstatements made by Andersen in its unqualified audit opinions, describing the violations of GAAP and GAAS that had occurred, and setting forth why the statements in the audit opinions were false and misleading, pled fraud against Andersen with sufficient particularity to satisfy Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 9(b)'s pleading requirements. See In re Sunbeam Sec. Litig., 89 F. Supp. 2d 1326, 1344 n.11 (S.D. Fla. 1999).

127. The In re Sunbeam court also rejected Andersen's argument that the plaintiffs had merely alleged that Andersen violated GAAP and GAAS and had not set forth facts sufficient to show that it acted with knowing fraudulent intent or recklessness. The court ruled that Andersen's arguments "fail[ed] to appreciate the breadth" of the plaintiffs' allegations, which described much more than "innocent auditing and accounting slip-ups." In re Sunbeam Sec. Litig., 89 F. Supp. 2d at 1344. The court concluded (id. at 1344-45) that the following facts established that Andersen had acted with requisite scienter:

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

- Andersen violated a GAAS requirement that it have a sufficient understanding of Sunbeam's internal control structure;
- Andersen failed to adhere to GAAS by not identifying numerous fraud risk factors suggesting that there was a significant risk that Sunbeam had fraudulently misstated its financials;
- Andersen was alerted by Sunbeam employees to material misstatements in Sunbeam's financial statements;
- Andersen failed to stop Sunbeam from recognizing, in violation of GAAP, revenues from guaranteed sales and consignment transactions, with the result that its sales were substantially overstated;
- Andersen ignored a June 8, 1998, Barron's article that accused Sunbeam of accounting improprieties, continued to stand behind its audit opinions, and did not give any hint that its unqualified audit opinions were unreliable until June 25, 1998, when it withheld consent to the use of its audit opinion in an SEC registration statement; and
- The sheer magnitude of the restatements of Sunbeam's financial statements indicated that Andersen was at least severely reckless not to know that its unqualified audit opinions were misleading.

128. The United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida concluded that these facts were sufficient to "demonstrate that Arthur Andersen acted with severe recklessness in issuing its misleading Unqualified Audit Opinion," and therefore supported a valid federal securities law fraud claim. In re Sunbeam Sec. Litig., 89 F. Supp. 2d at 1344. Andersen subsequently settled this lawsuit in 2001 for $110 million.

129. On May 15, 2001, the SEC filed a civil action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida against five former Sunbeam officers and Harlow, Andersen's engagement partner. The SEC alleged that Harlow, by causing Andersen to issue materially incorrect audit opinions, had engaged in fraud in violation of the federal securities laws.

130. In January 2003, Harlow consented to an injunction and agreed not to contest the SEC's charges against him. In the SEC's consent order, it made numerous factual findings

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

regarding Harlow's improper conduct. It concluded that Harlow had proposed, on many occasions, adjustments to rectify Sunbeam's false financial statements. After management refused to make these adjustments, Harlow improperly acceded to that decision. In re Phillip E. Harlow, Rcl. No. 34-47261, 2003 WL 169818, at *1-*3 (SEC Rel. Jan. 27, 2003).

131. The SEC's assessment of Harlow's conduct was damning. Among many other things, it concluded that Harlow (1) "failed to exercise professional skepticism when performing audit procedures and gathering and analyzing audit evidence," (2) "accepted uncorroborated representations of Sunbeam's management in lieu of performing appropriate audit procedures," (3) "failed to exercise due professional care in performing the audit and preparing the audit report," (4) "failed to perform sufficient audit procedures to determine whether the financial statements were in conformity with GAAP," even after he had "identified a number of audit risks and accounting issues associated with the Sunbeam engagement," and (5) "failed to obtain sufficient competent evidential matters through inspection, observation, inquiries, and confirmation to afford a reasonable basis for an audit opinion." Id. at *4. Based on these factual findings, the Commission concluded that the 1996 and 1997 financial statements that Harlow had audited were not in conformity with GAAP, and the audit was not performed in accordance with GAAS. Id. (citing AU §§ 410, 411, 508.07).

132. Other participants in the Coleman acquisition have also sued Andersen for its fraudulent conduct. On June 8, 2001, Coleman-Parent sued Andersen and Harlow for fraudulent misrepresentation, fraudulent inducement to contract (conspiracy and concerted action), and negligent misrepresentation. See Coleman (Parent) Holdings, Inc. v. Arthur Andersen LLP, No. 502001CA006062XXOCAN (Fla. 15th Cir. Ct., filed June 8, 2001). That case was assigned to Judge Stephen A. Rapp. Andersen and Harlow moved to dismiss. However, after an October 29, 2001, hearing on their motion, Andersen and Harlow answered Coleman-Parent's complaint. On March 15, 2002, the complaint in this matter was amended to add Andersen-Worldwide, Andersen-Canada, Andersen-Hong Kong, Andersen-Mexico, Andersen-Venezuela, and Andersen's United Kingdom branch as defendants. See Amended Complaint, CPH v. Andersen (filed Mar. 15, 2002). The Court denied Andersen-Worldwide's Motion To Dismiss on June 19, 2002, and the matter was voluntarily dismissed on January 28, 2003, after the parties had settled for an undisclosed amount.

Tolling Agreements

133. On March 8, 2001, Morgan Stanley, MSSF, and all of "their respective successors, predecessors, subsidiaries, affiliates, and assigns" executed the first of a series of tolling agreements with the Defendants. Additional tolling agreements were executed on April 4, 2001, April 19, 2001, April 24, 2001, April 23, 2002, October 16, 2002, April 10, 2003, and October 21, 2003. Copies of these Tolling Agreements are exhibits "E" through "L" attached hereto.

134. These agreements were signed by Andersen. The individuals that signed the agreements on behalf of Andersen represented that they had the "authority to bind and act on behalf of" Andersen and all of its "successors, predecessors, subsidiaries, affiliates, assigns, partners, employees, agents, officers, or directors."

135. Taken together, these agreements show that, in consideration for forbearance from commencing an action against the Defendants, Andersen agreed to toll from March 8, 2001, to March 1, 2004, the statute of limitations on all Morgan Stanley entities' claims against Andersen, its partners and agents (including Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhau), and its affiliates (including

140. Andersen knew that Sunbeam's financial statements were replete with accounting irregularities and that the information in Sunbeam's 1996 and 1997 financial statements and in Andersen's 1996 and 1997 unqualified audit opinions was materially false and misleading.

141. Although Andersen knew that MS & Co. and MSSF would rely and had relied on its false statements, it did not inform MS & Co. or MSSF that the unqualified audit opinions it had provided were materially false or that Sunbeam's financial statements contained numerous misstatements of material facts.

142. Andersen made its materially false representations regarding its unqualified audit opinions and the accuracy of Sunbeam's financial statements with the intent to deceive Plaintiffs.

143. Andersen knew that the false information that had been provided to Plaintiffs would be critical to Plaintiffs' decisions to participate in the financing of Sunbeam's acquisitions. But for Andersen's fraudulent representations, MS & Co. would not have underwritten the Convertible Note Offering, nor would MSSF have loaned Sunbeam $680 million.

144. Andersen's fraud was knowingly caused by Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus. Harlow, as engagement partner, and Pruitt, as concurring partner had direct responsibility for directing, managing, and approving of the work that was done on the Sunbeam audits. Denkhaus, who was a senior partner of Andersen and a member of Andersen-Worldwide, as well as the Audit Division Head and manager of Andersen's audit practice for the entire South Florida region, had undertaken responsibility for supervising and monitoring the work performed at Harlow's and Pruitt's direction. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus each knew of or recklessly disregarded the accounting violations contained in Sunbeam's 1996 and 1997 financial statements. They each also knew that the financial statements that they had caused Andersen to certify would be relied senior Sunbeam executives to create the appearance that Sunbeam was performing at a high level. The purpose of this conspiracy was artificially to inflate the stock price of Sunbeam and thereby to induce MS & Co. to underwrite the Convertible Note Offering and MSSF into loaning Sunbeam $680 million to finance Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman, First Alert, and Signature Brands. Andersen, Andersen-Worldwide, the Foreign Andersen Branches, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus agreed to become part of the conspiracy to defraud Plaintiffs and committed overt acts in furtherance of this fraudulent scheme.

150. In furtherance of the conspiracy, Dunlap, Kersh, Gluck, and the other Sunbeam executives agreed to misstate Sunbeam's true financial condition by millions of dollars in order to create the illusion that Sunbeam had undergone a radical financial turnaround. Pursuant to this scheme, Dunlap, Kersh, Gluck, and other Sunbeam executives caused Sunbeam, in 1996, to overstate its operating losses by at least $40 million, thereby establishing an overly bleak financial backdrop against which the company's performance in 1997 would be measured. In 1997, by contrast, Dunlap, Kersh, Gluck, and the other Sunbeam executives caused Sunbeam dramatically to overstate its earnings.

151. In late 1997 to early 1998, in furtherance of the conspiracy, Dunlap, Kersh, Gluck, and the other Sunbeam executives decided to acquire Coleman, First Alert, and Signature Brands. They communicated this decision to Andersen and Harlow. Thereafter, Andersen, Andersen-Worldwide, the Foreign Andersen Branches, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus agreed to become part of the conspiracy to defraud Plaintiffs.

152. In March 1998, in furtherance of the conspiracy, Andersen and Andersen-Worldwide, through their partners/members Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus, committed overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy, including, but not limited to, issuing Andersen's false and provided MSSF with accurate information regarding its consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as its consolidated balance sheets. They caused Sunbeam to include its 1996 and 1997 audited financial statements in its March 19, 1998, offering memorandum and to represent to MS & Co. that its audited financial statements were reliable. As part of the Coleman merger agreement executed on February 27, 1998, they caused Sunbeam to represent and warrant that all of Sunbeam's filings with the SEC, which included the 1996 financial statements audited by Andersen, were accurate, not misleading, and prepared in accordance with GAAP, and that they would continue to be accurate and not misleading as of the transaction's closing date. Andersen and the other Defendants named in this Complaint had full knowledge and approved of these false representations.

157. In reasonable and justifiable reliance on the co-conspirators' representations that Sunbeam's financial statements and Andersen's audit reports were accurate and truthful, MS & Co. agreed to underwrite the Convertible Note Offering, and MSSF agreed to loan Sunbeam $680 million to finance Sunbeam's acquisition of Coleman. But for the co-conspirators' fraudulent representations, MS & Co. would not have underwritten the Convertible Note Offering, nor would MSSF have loaned Sunbeam $680 million.

158. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus had full knowledge of and participated in this conspiracy. Harlow, as engagement partner, and Pruitt, as concurring partner, had direct responsibility for directing, managing, and approving of the work that was done on the Sunbeam audits. Denkhaus, who was a senior partner of Andersen and a member of Andersen-Worldwide, as well as the Audit Division Head and manager of Andersen's audit practice for the entire South Florida region, had undertaken responsibility for supervising and monitoring the work performed at Harlow's and Pruitt's direction. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus each knew of or recklessly disregarded the accounting violations contained in Sunbeam's 1996 and 1997 financial statements. They each also knew that the financial statements that they had caused Andersen to certify would be relied upon by MS & Co. in deciding to underwrite the Convertible Note Offering and by MSSF in deciding to loan Sunbeam hundreds of millions of dollars.

159. The Foreign Andersen Branches also knowingly participated in this scheme. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches reviewed and audited financial statements prepared for Sunbeam's foreign subsidiaries for 1997, all of which contained significant accounting violations. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches knew or recklessly disregarded the fact that the financial statements that they had reviewed and audited were not prepared in accordance with GAAP or reviewed in accordance with GAAS, but nevertheless certified their audit work as in compliance with these standards. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches also knew that the financial statements that they had audited would be incorporated into Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements and that lenders, such as MSSF, and underwriters, such as MS & Co., would rely on these financial statements.

160. Andersen-Worldwide also participated in this conspiracy through the actions of its members, including Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus, and its member firms, including Andersen and the Foreign Andersen Branches.

161. As a direct result of this conspiracy of fraudulent inducement, Plaintiffs have collectively suffered hundreds of millions of dollars in damages.

COUNT III

Aiding and Abetting Fraud

162. Paragraphs 1 through 135 are repeated and alleged as if set forth herein.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

163. To induce MSSF into loaning Sunbeam $680 million to finance its acquisition of Coleman, First Alert, and Signature Brands, Sunbeam represented to MSSF in loan negotiations that Sunbeam's audited financial statements were accurate and not misleading. In the Sunbeam-MSSF credit agreement, Sunbeam warranted that it had provided MSSF with accurate information regarding its consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as its consolidated balance sheets. Sunbeam included its 1996 and 1997 audited financial statements in its March 19, 1998, offering memorandum and represented to MS & Co. and MSSF that its audited financial statements were reliable.

164. As part of the Coleman merger agreement executed on February 27, 1998, Sunbeam expressly represented and warranted that all of its filings with the SEC, which included the 1996 financial statements audited by Andersen, were accurate, not misleading, and prepared in accordance with GAAP, and that they would continue to be accurate and not misleading as of the transaction's closing date. Sunbeam knew that its many representations regarding its 1996 and 1997 financial statements were materially false when made and/or made those representations with reckless disregard as to their truth. It also knew that Andersen's 1996 and 1997 unqualified audit opinions were materially false and misleading.

165. Sunbeam knew that MS & Co. would rely on Sunbeam's representations in determining whether to act as Sunbeam's underwriter and that MSSF would rely on its representations in deciding to loan Sunbeam $680 million to finance its acquisitions. Although Sunbeam knew that MS & Co. and MSSF would rely and had relied on its false statements, it did not inform them that the unqualified audit opinions it had provided were materially false or that Sunbeam's financial statements contained numerous misstatements of material facts.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

166. Sunbeam made its materially false representations regarding its financial statements and Andersen's unqualified audit opinions with the intent to deceive MS & Co. and MSSF and to induce them to participate in the financing of Sunbeam's acquisitions.

167. Sunbeam knew that the false information that it had provided to MS & Co. and MSSF, and its intentional failure to correct the misrepresentations contained in Sunbeam's financial statements, would be critical to their decision to participate in the financing of Sunbeam's acquisitions. But for Sunbeam's fraudulent representations, MS & Co. would not have underwritten the Convertible Note Offering, nor would MSSF have loaned Sunbeam $680 million.

168. Andersen and Andersen-Worldwide, through their partners/members Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus, knowingly and substantially assisted Sunbeam in its fraud. Andersen itself expressly represented to MS & Co., in letters dated March 19, 1998, and March 25, 1998, that Sunbeam's financial statements were truthful and that Andersen's unqualified audit opinions were reliable. In addition, employees, partners, and members of Andersen and Andersen-Worldwide, including Harlow, participated in meetings and telephone calls in which they represented to MS & Co. and MSSF that Sunbeam's audited financial statements were accurate.

169. Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus substantially and knowingly assisted Sunbeam's fraud. They each knew of or recklessly disregarded the accounting violations contained in Sunbeam's 1996 and 1997 financial statements. They each also knew that the financial statements that they had caused Andersen to certify would be relied upon by MS & Co. in deciding to underwrite the Convertible Note Offering and by MSSF in deciding to loan Sunbeam hundreds of millions of dollars.

CASE NO. 502004CA002257XXXXMB
First Amended Complaint

170. The Foreign Andersen Branches substantially and knowingly assisted Sunbeam's fraud. They each reviewed and audited financial statements prepared for Sunbeam's foreign subsidiaries for 1997, all of which contained significant accounting violations. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches knew of or recklessly disregarded the fact that the financial statements that they had reviewed and audited were not prepared in accordance with GAAP or reviewed in accordance with GAAS, but nevertheless certified their audit work as in compliance with these standards. Each of the Foreign Andersen Branches also knew that the financial statements that they had audited would be incorporated into Sunbeam's consolidated financial statements and that lenders, such as MSSF, and underwriters, such as MS & Co., would rely on these financial statements.

171. As a direct result of Sunbeam's fraud, aided and abetted by Andersen, Andersen-Worldwide, the Foreign Andersen Branches, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus, MS & Co., MSSF, and Morgan Stanley collectively have suffered hundreds of millions of dollars in damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, MS & Co., MSSF, and Morgan Stanley, demand judgment against Andersen, Andersen-Worldwide, Andersen-Canada, Andersen-Hong Kong, Andersen-Mexico, Andersen-Venezuela, Harlow, Pruitt, and Denkhaus, jointly and severally, for:

- (A) compensatory damages;
- (B) prejudgment interest;
- (C) attorneys' fees and costs; and
- (D) such other relief as may be just and appropriate.

Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend their complaint pursuant to section 768.72, Florida Statutes, to assert claims for punitive damages in excess of $1.2 billion as allowed by law.

BUS 03/98 SUNBEAM STATES FIRST QUARTER REVENUES MAY BE LOWER THAN STREET

Estimates

Business Editors

DELRAY BEACH Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--March 19, 1998--Sunbeam Corporation (NYSE:SOC) said today that it is possible that its net sales for the first quarter of 1998 may be lower than the range of Wall Street analysts' estimates for $285 million to $295 million, but net sales are expected to exceed 1997 first quarter net sales of $253.4 million. The Company stressed that sales of its products at retail remains very strong. The shortfall from analysts' estimates, if any, would be due to changes in inventory management and order patterns at certain of the Company's major retail customers. The Company further stated that based on the strength of its new product offerings and powerful brand names, it remains highly confident about the overall sales outlook for its products for the entire year.

Sunbeam Corporation is a leading consumer products company that designs, manufactures and markets, nationally and internationally, a diverse portfolio of brand name products. The Company's Sunbeam(R) and Oster(R) brands have been household names for generations, both domestically and abroad, and the Company is a market leader in many of its product categories.

Cautionary Statements - Statements contained in this press release, including statements relating to the Company's expectations regarding anticipated performance in the future, are "forward looking statements," as such term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Actual results could differ materially from the Company's statements in this release regarding its expectations, goals, or projected results, due to various factors, including those set forth in the Company's Cautionary Statements contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1997 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Yes, it was civil litigation. 11 Q. Was it litigation brought by 12 purchasers of the debt? 13 A. One of the lawsuits was brought 14 by purchasers of the debt. 15 Q. What was the nature of the 16 allegations in that matter? 17 MR. WISE: If you want to find 18 that out you can go look at the court 19 records. That is wasting his time. 20 BY MR. JOHNSON: 21 Q. Can you go ahead and answer? 22 A. The case involved allegations 23 that there had been material misstatements 24 and omissions in a prospectus relating to a 25 debt offering for the Bank of New England
Page 7 1 Dean 2 A. I can't remember. It was several 3 years ago. 4 Q. How about the first of the 5 occasions? 6 A. It was more than ten years ago. 7 Q. Were both of those depositions 8 given concerning your work as an attorney 9 for Davis Polk? 10 A. Yes, they were. 11 Q. What matters were involved in 12 those depositions? 13 A. Well, the matters that -- the 14 matter that the depositions emerged out of 15 was a representation of Morgan Stanley in 16 connection with a Bank of New England -- 17 Bank of New England debt offering. 18 MR. WISE: Let's stop for a 19 minute. The reporter has asked that we 20 switch mics. 21 (Pause) 22 BY MR. JOHNSON: 23 Q. Mr. Dean, before the brief 24 interruption you indicated that your, was 25 it the most recent deposition, was in	Page 9 1 Dean 2 Corporation. 3 Q. Did those depositions occur in 4 the 1990s? 5 A. May have occurred in the 1980s 6 and there was -- the depositions occurred 7 in a different lawsuit arising out of the 8 same facts sometime in the '90s, I think. 9 I can't remember the precise dates. It was 10 years and years ago. 11 Q. One of the lawsuits was brought 12 by investors? 13 A. I am sure that one of the 14 lawsuits was brought by investors. I have 15 forgotten whether or not the other lawsuit 16 was also brought by investors. 17 There may have been a different 18 party -- a different defendant involved in 19 the second lawsuit. 20 Q. You as a Davis Polk attorney were 21 counsel to Morgan Stanley, the underwriter 22 for the Bank of New England debt offering; 23 is that correct? 24 A. That is correct. 25 Q. Who from Morgan Stanley was

Page 10 1 Dean 2 involved in that debt offering? 3 MR. WISE: I am going to object 4 to that and direct him not to answer. 5 MR. JOHNSON: The basis for that 6 instruction? 7 MR. WISE: It is totally 8 irrelevant. It is not what he is here 9 to testify about today. 10 We are not going to have a rehash 11 of the Bank of New England matter. 12 BY MR. JOHNSON: 13 Q. Was Ruth Porat involved in the 14 Bank of New England debt offering? 15 A. No, she was not. 16 Q. Was John Tyree? 17 A. No, he was not. 18 Q. Was Brooks Harris? 19 A. No, he was not. 20 Q. Is it fair to say, Mr. Dean, you 21 are familiar with the deposition process? 22 A. I haven't given very many 23 depositions so I would say that I am not as 24 familiar with the process as you are. 25 Q. If you don't understand any of my	Page 12 1 Dean 2 Q. What did you do to prepare for 3 the deposition today? 4 A. There was a meeting that I had on 5 Monday with Mr. Wise and a brief meeting 6 that I had with Mr. Wise this morning. 7 Q. How long did you meet with 8 Mr. Wise on Monday? 9 A. I believe it was for about 10 two-and-a-half hours. 11 Q. This morning? 12 A. Less than half an hour. 13 Q. When was the first time you met 14 Mr. Clare? 15 A. On Monday. 16 Q. Did he attend the meeting with 17 you and Mr. Wise? 18 A. He attended the Monday meeting 19 with Mr. Wise and myself. 20 Q. Was he present at the meeting 21 this morning? 22 A. No, he was not. 23 Q. Other than Mr. Wise have you 24 spoken with any attorneys concerning this 25 deposition?
Page 11 1 Dean 2 questions let me know and I will try to 3 rephrase them. 4 If you want to take a break at 5 any time let me know that and we will try 6 to accommodate your request. 7 The court reporter is obviously 8 taking down what everyone says. As a 9 result, your responses to my questions need 10 to be stated out loud rather than a nod of 11 the head or shrug of the shoulders, that 12 sort of thing. 13 Are you represented by counsel 14 today? 15 A. Yes, I am represented by counsel 16 today. 17 Q. Who is your counsel? 18 A. Robert Wise is my counsel. 19 Q. Mr. Clare is not your counsel? 20 A. No, Mr. Clare is not my counsel. 21 Q. Have you testified in any 22 judicial proceedings? 23 A. No, I have not. 24 Q. Any arbitrations? 25 A. No, I have not.	Page 13 1 Dean 2 A. No, I have not. 3 Q. No in-house lawyers for Morgan 4 Stanley? 5 A. No, I have not. 6 Q. Did you sign a protective order 7 in this litigation? 8 A. I did sign a protective order. I 9 don't know if it is the one that you are 10 referring to but I was furnished a copy of 11 an order by Mr. Clare on Monday which I 12 signed. 13 Q. Do you know what other Morgan 14 Stanley lawyers -- strike that. 15 What other Davis Polk lawyers 16 have signed that protective order? 17 A. I am unaware of which lawyers 18 have signed it. 19 Q. Do you know whether Mr. Wise has 20 signed the protective order? 21 A. I don't know. 22 Q. Is Morgan Stanley compensating 23 you or Mr. Wise for your time spent in 24 connection with this deposition? 25 A. I don't know whether or not they

Page 14 1 Dean 2 will be or not. 3 MR. WISE: That is an excellent 4 question. I would like to know the 5 answer to that question. 6 BY MR. JOHNSON: 7 Q. So as far as you know there is no 8 understanding with Morgan Stanley 9 concerning Davis Polk's efforts in 10 connection with this litigation? 11 A. There is no -- there are no 12 compensation arrangements that I am aware 13 of in connection with this deposition. 14 MR. WISE: We are not saying that 15 we will not have discussions with the 16 client about -- 17 MR. JOHNSON: I will not stop you 18 from that. That is between you and 19 Mr. Clare. 20 BY MR. JOHNSON: 21 Q. Did you review any materials that 22 refreshed your memory concerning the 23 Sunbeam transaction? 24 A. I was furnished two documents I 25 believe on Monday to try to refresh my	Page 16 1 Dean 2 in this litigation? 3 A. I am not specifically aware of 4 any Morgan Stanley person that has been 5 deposed. 6 Q. Do you have any general awareness 7 of who has been deposed so far? 8 A. I have been told that Heather 9 Stack and James Lurie may have been noticed 10 for depositions and I was told by Mr. Wise 11 that Heather Stack had given her 12 deposition. 13 Q. Did he describe any of her 14 testimony? 15 A. No, he did not. 16 Q. How about Arthur Andersen 17 personnel; do you know of any Andersen 18 personnel that have been deposed? 19 A. I am unaware of any depositions 20 that have been taken in this case except my 21 own. 22 Q. Among the Davis Polk attorneys 23 who worked on the Sunbeam subordinated debt 24 offering do you think you are the most 25 knowledgeable person concerning Davis
Page 15 1 Dean 2 recollection about Sunbeam. 3 I was also furnished a closing 4 binder of the closing documents relating to 5 Sunbeam but I didn't look at those very -- 6 in any depth at all. 7 Q. You didn't look at any of those 8 materials in any depth or the closing 9 binder? 10 A. The closing binder I did not look 11 at in depth nor did I really study the 12 other documents that had been furnished to 13 me. 14 Q. Did those documents refresh your 15 memory in any way concerning the events of 16 March of 1998? 17 A. They -- I don't think that they 18 did. 19 Q. Do you have an understanding as 20 to who has been deposed in the litigation 21 that brings us here today? 22 A. I don't know who has been deposed 23 in this -- in this matter today. 24 Q. You are not aware of any Morgan 25 Stanley witness who has been deposed so far	Page 17 1 Dean 2 Polk's work? 3 A. Well, I was the partner in charge 4 of the matter. That does not necessarily 5 mean that I was knowledgeable about all 6 aspects of the transaction. 7 There is delegation that goes on 8 in any transaction. 9 Q. Did you have a team of lawyers 10 working on the subordinated debt offering? 11 A. Yes. There was a Davis Polk team 12 that was working on the subordinated debt 13 offering. 14 Q. Who was on the team? 15 A. I was on the team. James Lurie 16 was on the team. Heather Stack was on the 17 team. There was another woman, an 18 associate who has left the firm, whose name 19 I have forgotten now. 20 Q. Nicole Duncan? 21 A. Yes, that is Nicole Duncan. 22 Q. Anybody else? 23 A. I can't recall anybody else. I 24 mean, there may have been paralegals 25 involved in it.

Page 18 1 Dean 2 It has been a long time since the 3 transaction occurred. The names that we 4 have just gone over are the ones that I 5 recall at this time. 6 MR. JOHNSON: Let's mark this as 7 CPH Exhibit 213. 8 (CPH Exhibit 213 marked for 9 identification) 10 BY MR. JOHNSON: 11 Q. Mr. Dean, I have given you a 12 document we have marked as CPH Exhibit 213 13 which has the Bates stamp Morgan Stanley 14 confidential 0029159 through 162. 15 Have you ever seen this document 16 before? 17 A. I can't recall whether or not I 18 have seen this document before. 19 Q. Feel free to consult any portion 20 of Exhibit 213 but I would like to call 21 your attention particularly to the last 22 paragraph on the first page carrying over 23 to the top of page 2 and ask whether the 24 information set forth there refreshes your 25 recollection as to which Davis Polk lawyers	Page 20 1 Dean 2 Q. What was the division of 3 responsibility among the team that is set 4 forth here at the top of page 2 of Exhibit 5 213? 6 A. Well, I can't -- it has been a 7 long time since the transaction happened so 8 it is hard for me to precisely say who was 9 responsible for what. 10 In general terms Heather Stack 11 and Nicole were responsible for the 12 documentary due diligence in connection 13 with the transaction. 14 Mr. Lurie was involved in 15 drafting the convertible -- the documents 16 underlying the convertible security. 17 All of us were involved in 18 disclosure matters and reviewing the 19 offering memorandum. 20 Q. Did any other Davis Polk lawyers 21 work on any Sunbeam related issues to your 22 knowledge? 23 A. What Sunbeam issues? I am not 24 sure I understand the question. 25 Q. Let me just ask it more
Page 19 1 Dean 2 were in fact working on the subordinated 3 debt offering? 4 A. The list of lawyers, I think, on 5 the top of page 2 is consistent with what 6 we were talking about. 7 Mr. Megevick had been consulted. 8 I can't recall whether Ms. Fassberg and 9 Mr. Hall and Mr. Morrison and Mr. Small 10 were consulted. 11 Q. Mr. Morrison and Mr. Small were 12 consulted in connection with the press 13 release; is that correct? 14 A. That may be an area of privilege. 15 I am not sure whether or not -- 16 MR. WISE: Certainly what is in 17 the letter I think we do not disagree 18 with. 19 BY MR. JOHNSON: 20 Q. The question is whether that is a 21 correct statement. Mr. Wise has already 22 answered that but if you would answer it as 23 well I would appreciate it. 24 A. Yes, they were consulted in 25 connection with the proposed press release.	Page 21 1 Dean 2 specifically. 3 Are you aware of any Davis Polk 4 attorneys representing any officers of 5 Sunbeam Corporation at any time? 6 A. I am not aware of any Davis Polk 7 lawyers who would have represented any 8 Sunbeam officers at the time they were 9 Sunbeam officers. 10 Q. Are you aware of anyone's 11 representation of Janet Kelley? 12 A. I think that Ms. Kelley may have 13 been represented by Dennis Glazer of Davis 14 Polk. 15 Q. Did you have any conversations 16 with Mr. Glazer concerning that 17 representation? 18 A. I don't recall whether or not I 19 did or not. He may have consulted me. I 20 don't remember at this time. 21 Q. At the time that the subordinated 22 debt offering was proceeding Sunbeam was 23 also looking to syndicate a credit 24 facility; is that correct? 25 A. Yes, that is correct.

Page 22 1 Dean 2 Q. Was Davis Polk involved in that 3 work as well? 4 A. Yes. Davis Polk was involved in 5 that work as well representing Morgan 6 Stanley and the syndicate of banks. 7 Q. Was there a partner in charge, so 8 to speak, of that aspect of the work? 9 A. I believe it was Peter Levin that 10 was in charge of that work. 11 Q. Was there any protocol in place 12 to share information among Mr. Levin's team 13 and your team? 14 A. No, there was not. 15 Q. Let's back up. We will come back 16 to this. Let's back up to a little more 17 background if we could. 18 I would like you to describe your 19 educational background for me. 20 A. Starting from when? 21 Q. Graduation from high school. 22 A. I graduated from Stuyvesant High 23 School in New York City. 24 I then attended Harvard College 25 and received an undergraduate degree there.	Page 24 1 Dean 2 work? 3 A. Davis Polk has a world reputation 4 for doing securities work. 5 Q. I assume you are proud of that 6 reputation? 7 A. Yes, I am proud of that 8 reputation. 9 Q. Do you have any particular areas 10 of expertise in corporate and securities 11 law? 12 A. Well, I give general corporate 13 advice to corporations. I have a 14 specialization in providing advice in doing 15 securities offerings both for issuers and 16 for underwriters. 17 Q. Do you view most of your clients 18 as highly sophisticated? 19 A. Most of my clients are very 20 sophisticated. 21 Q. Morgan Stanley is a sophisticated 22 client, isn't it? 23 A. Yes, I believe Morgan Stanley is 24 a sophisticated client. 25 Q. How many securities offerings
Page 23 1 Dean 2 Then I went to the University of 3 California at Berkeley where I received a 4 Master's degree in mathematics, and then I 5 received a law degree at Harvard Law 6 School. 7 Q. Would you kindly put years on 8 each of these degrees for me? 9 A. I graduated from high school in 10 1969. I graduated from college in 1973. I 11 received a Master's degree from Berkeley in 12 1974 and I received my law degree from 13 Harvard in 1978. 14 Q. Have you been with Davis Polk 15 your entire legal career? 16 A. Yes, I have been, since 17 graduating from Harvard Law School. 18 Q. At some point you became a 19 partner at Davis Polk? 20 A. I did. 21 Q. When was that? 22 A. In 1986. 23 Q. Is it your view that Davis Polk 24 is one of the premier law firms in the 25 world in the area of corporate securities	Page 25 1 Dean 2 have you been involved in either for the 3 issuer or underwriter? 4 A. I can't count. I mean, it is 5 scores, probably 100 offerings. 6 Q. Over the past 25 years? 7 A. Yes, for the past 25 years. 8 Q. Tell me about Davis Polk's 9 relationship with Morgan Stanley. 10 A. Davis Polk is one of the counsel 11 that Morgan Stanley routinely uses in 12 connection with public offering work and 13 Davis Polk also counsels Morgan Stanley on 14 other legal matters as well. 15 Q. How long has Davis Polk been a 16 counsel of choice for Morgan Stanley? 17 A. I don't know. I think that our 18 relationship with Morgan Stanley extends 19 back to when Morgan Stanley was founded. 20 Morgan Stanley has used many 21 counsel over the years and I wouldn't 22 necessarily characterize Davis Polk as 23 being Morgan Stanley's exclusive counsel of 24 choice. 25 Q. When you joined Davis Polk in

Page 26 1 Dean 2 1978 Morgan Stanley was a client of the 3 firm? 4 A. Yes. Morgan Stanley was a client 5 of the firm in 1978. 6 Q. And has been a client 7 continuously since then? 8 A. Yes, it has been. 9 Q. Have you worked on Morgan Stanley 10 matters your entire tenure at Davis Polk? 11 A. I don't remember which was the 12 first Morgan Stanley transaction that I 13 worked on but certainly -- I don't remember 14 whether or not my first year as an 15 associate, whether or not I worked on -- on 16 a Morgan Stanley transaction but I 17 certainly began working on Morgan Stanley 18 transactions shortly after I joined the 19 firm. 20 Q. You personally have worked on 21 Morgan Stanley matters for upwards of 20 22 years? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. Do you consider Morgan Stanley a 25 major client of Davis Polk?	Page 28 1 Dean 2 partners at Davis Polk on an annual basis 3 or not? 4 A. Yes, there is an evaluation. 5 Q. Tell me about that process. 6 A. The evaluation process involves 7 questionnaires today sent out to the 8 partners of the firm where each partner is 9 allowed to evaluate their own work at the 10 firm and then to comment on other partners. 11 Q. That is done on an annual basis? 12 A. That is done on an annual basis. 13 Q. Did your 1998 self-evaluation 14 reference the Sunbeam transaction in any 15 way? 16 A. I don't believe that at the time 17 we had a -- I don't remember that. I don't 18 remember whether or not my evaluation in 19 that year involved the Sunbeam transaction. 20 Q. Have you ever mentioned Sunbeam 21 in any of your evaluations? 22 A. I don't remember doing so. 23 Q. Do you know whether any of your 24 partners discussed your work on the Sunbeam 25 transaction in evaluating you?
Page 27 1 Dean 2 A. Morgan Stanley is a -- I don't 3 know what you mean by "major client." It 4 is -- we represent Morgan Stanley in many 5 matters. 6 Q. In terms of fees are they in the 7 top ten percent of clients for Davis Polk? 8 A. Yes. Morgan Stanley would be in 9 the top ten percent. 10 Q. As an approximate matter how much 11 in fees does Davis Polk collect from Morgan 12 Stanley on an annual basis? 13 MR. I assume that it does. I am 19 not -- I am frankly -- I don't know what 20 the exact number is. 21 Q. Within Davis Polk how is the fee 22 credit for Morgan Stanley apportioned? 23 A. There is no fee credit allocation 24 among the partners. 25 Q. Is there any evaluation of the	Page 29 1 Dean 2 A. I am not aware of it. 3 Q. As you sit here today do you 4 think there is anything noteworthy about 5 the Sunbeam transaction you worked on? 6 MR. Was there anything particularly 12 challenging about that transaction? 13 A. All transactions are challenging 14 in their own way. 15 Q. That is why I said 16 "particularly." 17 Was there anything distinctive 18 about the transaction? 19 A. Well, I think the fact that 20 lawsuits were brought in connection with 21 the transaction is significant and 22 noteworthy. 23 Q. Were you ever interviewed by 24 anyone in relation to those lawsuits? 25 A. A reporter attempted to interview

Page 30 1 Dean 2 me but our standard firm policy is not to 3 comment on matters that involve client 4 representation. 5 Q. Who was the reporter? 6 A. I have forgotten his name. I 7 believe it was -- I think it was a reporter 8 for Business Week but I have forgotten. 9 Q. Did you view the time frame for 10 completing the offering to be unreasonably 11 short? 12 A. No, I did not. 13 Q. Was it a fairly standard time 14 frame? 15 A. Yes, it was a fairly standard 16 time frame. 17 Q. Did the fact that the offering 18 you were working on was made in connection 19 with the acquisition of three companies by 20 Sunbeam present any complexity? 21 A. Since the transaction did involve 22 the acquisition of three companies and the 23 three companies were going to be part of 24 the new combined Sunbeam entity there 25 was -- there were due diligence efforts	Page 32 1 Dean 2 securities and the price at which they sold 3 them but in the overall scheme of things -- 4 I mean, they could have lost money in 5 connection with the transaction even though 6 the securities were purchased at a price 7 that was lower than the public offering 8 price. 9 It really depends on how the 10 transaction went. 11 Q. Do you have any basis to state 12 that Morgan Stanley & Company lost money on 13 the transaction? 14 A. I have no basis to know how much 15 money Morgan Stanley made on the 16 transaction. 17 I can state what -- if I looked 18 at the cover page of the prospectus I can 19 tell what the spread was on the 20 underwriting transaction. 21 Q. They made that spread to your 22 knowledge? 23 A. I have no basis to conclude one 24 way or the other. I assume that they did. 25 Q. Do you have any basis to conclude
Page 31 1 Dean 2 that needed to be done in connection with 3 those three companies. 4 Q. It was not simply the 5 preacquisition issuer that needed 6 diligence; it was the three targets as 7 well? 8 A. That is correct. 9 Q. Did you view the offering as 10 successful for Morgan Stanley? 11 A. I don't know how Morgan Stanley 12 views success in characterizing 13 transactions. 14 The transaction was successfully 15 placed by Morgan Stanley. 16 Q. I don't know what you mean by 6 "successful." 7 We were able to -- we gave advice 8 to Morgan Stanley in connection with the 9 transaction. We sent a fee for our 10 services in connection with the 11 transaction. 12 That is what we did in connection 13 with the transaction. 14 Q. I assume you collected the fee? 15 A. Yes, we did collect the fee. 16 Q. What was the fee on this 17 transaction? 18 A. I don't recall. 19 Q. Can you give me an estimate? 20 A. I just don't have any idea. I am 21 sure if we looked at our billing records we 22 could figure out what the fee was. 23 Q. Based on your experience in 24 transactions of this sort do you have a 25 sense of whether a million dollars would be	Page 36 1 Dean 2 don't remember which complaints I have read 3 but I know that I have read the 4 complaints -- a complaint. 5 Q. Was it a complaint of the 6 bondholders or was it an equity holder 7 complaint? 8 A. I don't remember. 9 Q. How did you come to read a copy 10 of one of those complaints? 11 A. I don't know how I -- I don't 12 know who furnished me a copy of the 13 complaint. I just don't know. I don't 14 remember right now. 15 Q. Based on your work on the 16 transaction did you have any opinion as to 17 the accuracy of the allegations in the 18 complaint? 19 A. Well, I can't -- I don't remember 20 what the allegations in the complaint were 21 at this time so I would have to take a look 22 at the complaint and then -- I am sure that 23 my opinion would have been that the 24 allegations were false at least insofar as 25 Morgan Stanley was concerned.
Page 35 1 Dean 2 a fee typical in this sort of transaction? 3 A. A fee charged by Davis Polk in 4 this transaction? 5 Q. Right. 6 A. For the subordinated debt 7 offering, that would be very high. 8 Q. You mentioned that one 9 potentially noteworthy thing about this 10 transaction was the lawsuits that were 11 brought concerning it. 12 When did you first hear about 13 those lawsuits? 14 A. I don't remember when I heard 15 about them. I assume that was shortly 16 after the lawsuits were brought. 17 Q. Do you know when the lawsuits 18 were brought? 19 A. I don't have any recollection of 20 that now. I mean, I would have at the time 21 but I don't now. 22 Q. Did you ever read any of the 23 lawsuits that -- complaints that were 24 filed? 25 A. Yes. I have read complaints. I	Page 37 1 Dean 2 Q. Can you explain that 3 qualification for me? 4 A. I don't know who the lawsuits 5 were brought against and my only knowledge 6 about the transaction relates to my 7 representation of Morgan Stanley and no one 8 else. 9 Q. As you sit here today do you have 10 an opinion as to whether the offering 11 memorandum for this offering was materially 12 false and misleading? 13 A. I think that at the time that the 14 offering memorandum was issued we believed 15 that it -- that it did not contain any 16 material misstatements or omissions. 17 Q. Would you acknowledge as you sit 18 here today and with the benefit of 19 hindsight that it does contain materially 20 false and misleading information? 21 A. If the allegations against the 22 company are correct, yes, it does 23 contain -- one could allege that it 24 contains material misstatements or 25 omissions.

Page 38 1 Dean 2 Q. Are you saying you have no 3 opinion as to whether there was a fraud at 4 Sunbeam? 5 A. From -- from what I have read in 6 the newspapers and -- it does appear there 7 was a fraud at Sunbeam. 8 Q. That was a fraud that came to 9 light within months of the debt offering; 10 isn't that correct? 11 A. The allegations -- the facts 12 surrounding that fraud became -- began 13 coming out after the offering. 14 Q. Do you regret Davis Polk's 15 involvement in the offering? 16 A. No, I don't. I think that we did 17 the job we were asked to do in the 18 connection with the offering. 19 Q. What was the job that you were 20 asked to do? 21 A. To assist Morgan Stanley in 22 reviewing the offering memorandum and to 23 render an opinion to Morgan Stanley 24 about -- that the securities were validly 25 issued and that the offering memorandum in	Page 40 1 Dean 2 A. Well, I think that the financial 3 officers at Sunbeam did. I don't remember 4 their names. 5 Q. Russ Kersh, does that ring a 6 bell? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. He is the CFO; is that right? 9 A. The CFO. There was a -- I don't 10 remember. There was a treasurer or 11 controller. 12 Q. Bob Gluck; is that right? 13 A. Bob Gluck, yes, that is right. 14 Q. Anyone else? 15 A. I have forgotten -- there was 16 also a legal vice chairman or legal 17 officer. 18 Q. David Fannin? 19 A. That name doesn't ring a bell. 20 There were a number of Sunbeam 21 personnel who were involved in 22 conversations relating to the offering and 23 I can't call up all of their names at this 24 time. 25 Q. We will get to that in a little
Page 39 1 Dean 2 our opinion did not contain any material 3 misstatements or omissions. 4 Q. Did anyone at Sunbeam provide 5 false information to you, meaning Davis 6 Polk, or Morgan Stanley? 7 A. I think, viewed in hindsight, it 8 appears that people at Sunbeam did not -- 9 were not, did not provide accurate 10 information to us at the time. 11 Q. Any particular Sunbeam personnel 12 do you think provided you false 13 information? 14 A. I mean, I know I can't speak to 15 the frame of mind of the Sunbeam personnel 16 who provided the information and whether or 17 not they in fact believed it to be true at 18 the time. 19 We were certainly -- we were 20 given assurances by them and we believed 21 them, that the statements that they gave us 22 at the time of the preparation of the 23 offering memorandum were accurate. 24 Q. Who in particular gave you 25 assurances?	Page 41 1 Dean 2 more detail shortly. 3 Did Davis Polk have any 4 responsibility for determining what 5 diligence would be appropriate in 6 connection with the offering? 7 A. Due diligence is a team effort in 8 connection with an offering and the advice 9 that we would give about the scope of 10 diligence is probably a privileged matter. 11 I think. 12 MR. WISE: He hasn't asked you 13 for the advice. 14 BY MR. JOHNSON: 15 Q. Whether you gave advice on the 16 scope is all I am asking. That is a yes or 17 no question. 18 A. Yes, we did. 19 Q. Did Davis Polk perform diligence 20 on the transaction as well as advising on 21 the scope of diligence? 22 A. Yes, we were assigned tasks to 23 perform in connection with the diligence 24 investigation. 25 Q. Did Morgan Stanley provide you

Page 42 1 Dean 2 with a due diligence plan for your review? 3 MR. WISE: Answer that yes or no. 4 THE WITNESS: I don't remember 5 whether or not they did or not. 6 MR. JOHNSON: You have to answer 7 yes or no. 8 THE WITNESS: I don't remember. 9 It would have been -- in many 10 transactions it is customary for Morgan 11 Stanley to prepare questions for due 12 diligence that we might review. 13 BY MR. JOHNSON: 14 Q. You just don't recall whether 15 that happened in this transaction or not? 16 A. I just don't recall. There are 17 so many transactions. Some transactions it 18 happens and some transactions it doesn't. 19 Q. Have you ever been involved in an 20 offering by a consumer products company 21 other than Sunbeam? 22 A. I can't remember whether or not I 23 had or not. I have done offerings in a 24 very wide range of industries. 25 Q. No consumer products companies	Page 44 1 Dean 2 purchase agreement between Morgan Stanley 3 and Sunbeam. 4 We also drafted the indenture 5 that set forth the terms of the 6 subordinated notes that were issued and 7 there were -- we would have been -- we 8 would have also drafted a closing 9 memorandum for the transaction. 10 Q. Lockup agreements to draft those? 11 A. That would be part of the 12 purchase agreement. 13 Q. What is the purpose of due 14 diligence? 15 A. The purpose of due diligence is 16 to provide a basis upon which the 17 underwriter -- the underwriters in 18 connection with the securities offering 19 have liability in connection with the 20 offering unless they are able to establish 21 a due diligence defense. 22 The purpose of diligence is to -- 23 both to provide a basis for establishing 24 the due diligence defense but also as well 25 to prevent misstatements from occurring.
Page 43 1 Dean 2 come immediately to mind? 3 A. There may well have been but I 4 just don't remember any right now. 5 Q. Is it fair to say that the 6 industry sector of the issuer is a 7 consideration that informs what due 8 diligence might be appropriate? 9 A. Yes, it is. 10 Q. You mentioned that Davis Polk's 11 job in the transaction was to assist Morgan 12 Stanley in reviewing the offering 13 memorandum? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Did Davis Polk have any other 16 responsibilities in connection with the 17 transaction? 18 A. We were assigned the 19 responsibility of doing diligence on 20 reviewing legal documents at Sunbeam and at 21 the three acquired companies. 22 Q. Did Davis Polk negotiate or draft 23 any ancillary contracts in connection with 24 the offering? 25 A. We would have drafted the	Page 45 1 Dean 2 Q. So it is to, to a reasonable 3 degree, confirm that the offering 4 memorandum is fair and accurate? 5 A. That is correct. 6 Q. Would you say it is typical in 7 due diligence to talk to an issuer's 8 customers? 9 A. It depends on the -- it depends 10 on the issuer and the business they are in. 11 Q. How about for a consumer products 12 company? Don't you think that would be 13 appropriate due diligence? 14 A. Depends on the concentration 15 of -- depends on whether or not there was a 16 concentration of clients or not. 17 Q. How would that circumstance 18 inform whether talking to customers would 19 be appropriate? 20 A. The materiality of the customers 21 to a company's revenues would be a factor 22 in determining whether or not customer due 23 diligence was appropriate. 24 Q. If an issuer had sales 25 concentrated in five or six major companies

Page 46 1 Dean 2 such as Wal-Mart, Home Depot, et cetera, it 3 would make sense to talk to those 4 customers? 5 A. Yes, it might make sense in those 6 particular companies. 7 I think one of the other issues 8 is that many of those companies have 9 arrangements where they won't talk to third 10 parties or -- and it is also widely known 11 in the industry that they do not 12 necessarily serve -- tell people what their 13 purchase commitments are. 14 Q. Are you, as you sit here today, 15 aware of any policy within Home Depot that 16 prevents Home Depot from advising an 17 underwriter as to, say, the amount of 18 inventory it has on hand? 19 A. I am not aware of any policy that 20 Home Depot has. 21 I have certainly been told that 22 Home Depot, in particular, may have 23 policies against that. 24 Q. It depends on the statements that 21 are made and whether or not an 22 investigation is one that would be 23 reasonable under those circumstances so I 24 don't think that there is a rigid answer to 25 that question.

CLARE: Same objections. 8 THE WITNESS: I think it is 9 impossible to generalize and give a yes 10 or no answer to a question like that. 11 It really depends on the 12 particular facts and circumstances of 13 the situation. 14 MR. WISE: I would add that we 15 have produced Mr. Dean here today as a 16 fact witness in a case. 17 If you are interested in hiring 18 Davis Polk to be an expert witness in 19 the case so that you may ask 20 hypothetical questions we could discuss 21 that but I think we would be unable to 22 do that given our continuing 23 representation of Morgan Stanley so I 24 would appreciate it if we can move to 25 the fact issues rather than

Page 50 1 Dean 2 hypotheticals. 3 MR. JOHNSON: We are moving there 4 shortly. I am trying to get a basis of 5 this witness' understanding of the 6 requirements which we will then put in 7 the context of what happened in this 8 transaction. 9 MR. WISE: I think you can assume 10 Mr. Dean, based upon the testimony you 11 have already elicited, is an 12 experienced practitioner in the area of 13 securities transactions of this type so 14 I think you probably can skip some of 15 this and move to the facts. 16 BY MR. JOHNSON: 17 Q. I will take that advice. 18 Did Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk 19 ever talk to a Sunbeam customer? 20 MR. CLARE: Objection; calls for 21 speculation. 22 THE WITNESS: I am not aware 23 of -- I can't recall at this time 24 whether or not we were involved in any 25 conversations with -- whether or not	Page 52 1 Dean 2 Mr. Dunlap. Janet Kelley was involved. 3 There was a sales manager at Sunbeam whose 4 name I can't recall was involved. 5 Q. Don Uzzi? 6 A. Yes. 7 I am sure there must have been 8 others. It is six years ago and I have met 9 a lot of people in transactions since then. 10 Q. When you say you are sure there 11 must be others, why do you say that? 12 A. It -- just in the context of the 13 offering process. You wind up consulting 14 with many people during an offering. 15 Q. You mentioned Mr. Dunlap. Did 16 Davis Polk ever have any communications 17 with Mr. Dunlap? 18 A. I don't remember any direct 19 communications that anybody at Davis Polk 20 had with Mr. Dunlap. 21 Q. Apparently you would remember 22 them if you had them? 23 A. I don't know. 24 Q. In seriousness, had you heard 25 anything about Mr. Dunlap's reputation?
Page 51 1 Dean 2 Davis Polk was involved in any 3 conversations with the Sunbeam 4 customer, and I don't recall at this 5 time. 6 I can't say for sure whether or 7 not Morgan Stanley did or did not talk 8 to a Sunbeam customer. 9 BY MR. JOHNSON: 10 Q. As you sit here today you can't 11 identify any customers that either Davis 12 Polk or Morgan Stanley spoke with? 13 A. I can't identify any right now 14 and I don't remember any. 15 Q. Can you name for me all of the 16 Sunbeam personnel that Morgan Stanley and 17 Davis Polk spoke with in connection with 18 diligence? 19 A. No, I can't. I mean, there were 20 a host of individuals. 21 Q. Name as many as you can for me. 22 A. I think that we talked about 23 Russell Kersh, we talked about Bob Gluck. 24 I think that -- I was told that there was a 25 conversation with the CEO of Sunbeam,	Page 53 1 Dean 2 A. I don't know whether or not I 3 knew it at the time of the transaction or 4 whether or not it was after the transaction 5 but he was regarded to be a very hard 6 taskmaster. 7 Q. Did Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley 8 investigate his business background prior 9 to Sunbeam? 10 A. I think -- I don't recall whether 11 or not Davis Polk did any investigation 12 into his background. 13 I think I was aware of the fact 14 that he had been involved in a turnaround 15 situation, I think it was Scott Paper. I 16 have forgotten what the name of the company 17 was. 18 I don't know to what extent 19 Morgan Stanley did an independent 20 investigation. 21 Q. Other than what we have already 22 talked about can you tell me any other due 23 diligence that Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk 24 performed on Sunbeam? 25 A. We would have read the minutes at

Page 54 1 Dean 2 Sunbeam and I believe that we would have 3 read them at the acquired companies. I am 4 not certain at this time. 5 Other things -- I just don't 6 remember right now but I would have 7 remembered back at the time what we had 8 looked at. 9 Accountants management letters 10 would have been an area that we would have 11 looked at. I am sure we did it but, you 12 know, I can't say that I positively sort of 13 remember doing that right now. 14 It would have been our routine 15 practice to do it. 16 Q. Anything else? 17 A. We probably reviewed the 18 acquisition agreements. 19 Again, there are many documents 20 that we would review in connection with an 21 offering and I would remember exactly which 22 documents we had looked at if we had been 23 closer in time to the transaction but we 24 would have done the -- we would have done 25 the -- we would have reviewed the documents	Page 56 1 Dean 2 Q. Mr. Dean, how is it that you 3 first got involved in the Sunbeam 4 transaction that we are talking about 5 today? 6 A. I have forgotten who assigned the 7 Sunbeam matter to me. Somebody came to my 8 office and said that Davis Polk had been 9 retained to represent Morgan Stanley in 10 connection with a new offering. 11 I don't remember who did that. 12 Q. It was one of your law partners? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. When did that occur? 15 A. I don't know right now. I assume 16 shortly -- I just don't have any 17 recollection of that. I mean, it was just 18 a long time ago. 19 We could take a look at our time 20 records and the time records might indicate 21 that. 22 Q. I have something that maybe is a 23 little more concise than your time records 24 that may refresh your memory. 25 This is a document that has been
Page 55 1 Dean 2 that in our professional opinion would have 3 been required to be reviewed in connection 4 with an offering of this sort. 5 Q. What work did you do concerning 6 the company's business projections? 7 A. That is primarily a financial 8 sort of analysis and so that part of the 9 due diligence would fall more on Morgan 10 Stanley's shoulders and they would not 11 really rely upon a law firm to do that. 12 Q. Do you know what work Morgan 13 Stanley did in that regard? 14 A. No. 15 Can we take a brief break to get 16 some water? 17 MR. JOHNSON: Sure. 18 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 19 10:41 a.m. We are going off the video 20 record. 21 (Recess) 22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 23 10:58 a.m. We are back on the video 24 record. 25 BY MR. JOHNSON:	Page 57 1 Dean 2 previously marked as Exhibit 24. Have you 3 ever seen Exhibit 24 previously? 4 A. I have seen it before. I don't 5 know if I have -- I have seen a version of 6 this document before. 7 I don't know whether or not I 8 have seen this exact document. 9 Q. When did you see a version of 10 this document, Exhibit 24? 11 A. I saw it on Monday, I think, in 12 connection with the deposition preparation. 13 I may have seen it before when it was 14 prepared. 15 Q. You weren't involved in preparing 16 it in August of 2000? 17 A. No, I was not. 18 Q. This -- this is a chronology 19 prepared by Davis Polk; is that correct? 20 A. The document says that it was 21 prepared by Davis Polk. I assume that it 22 was. 23 Q. The chronology prepared here has 24 as its first date February 25, 1998. 25 Is that when you first became

Page 58 1 Dean 2 involved in this matter? 3 A. I still don't have any specific 4 recollection as to whether or not that was 5 the date. 6 Q. Do any of the other dates listed 7 in Exhibit 24 appear to be more likely your 8 first involvement in the matter? 9 A. No. There is no other date that 10 is more likely than not. 11 It could well be that my -- it 12 really depends on what the time records 13 show. It is just so long ago. 14 Q. Did you have any role in 15 connection with the public announcement of 16 the acquisitions? 17 A. No, I did not. 18 Q. Did anyone at Davis Polk? 19 A. I am not aware of anyone. 20 Somebody at Davis Polk might have been but 21 I am not aware of anyone. 22 Q. Did you attend the press 23 conference where the acquisitions were 24 announced? 25 A. No, I did not.	Page 60 1 Dean 2 diligence investigations, due diligence 3 meeting in Florida, and I don't remember 4 what date that meeting occurred on. 5 That would have been a routine 6 question that would have been asked in the 7 context of doing an offering like this and 8 so I assume that it was asked at that 9 meeting. 10 I don't have any specific 11 recollection that the question was actually 12 asked. 13 Q. Were you at that meeting? 14 A. Yes, I was. 15 Q. That was your only trip to 16 Florida in connection with this 17 transaction? 18 A. Yes, it was. 19 Q. That was in the first half of 20 March? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Do you know what date it was? 23 A. No, I don't recall what date it 24 was. Again, it is six years ago. 25 Q. I certainly don't see a reference
Page 59 1 Dean 2 By "the acquisitions," I assume 3 that you are talking about the three 4 acquisitions. 5 Q. That's correct. 6 A. That were disclosed in the 7 offering memorandum? 8 Q. Correct. 9 Did anyone from Davis Polk play 10 any role in the question and answer script 11 to be used at the press conference? 12 A. Not that I am aware of. 13 Q. You didn't personally? 14 A. No, I did not. 15 Q. I am going to focus on the first 16 half of March, if I can, prior to March 15. 17 At any time prior to March 15 did 18 Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk inquire of 19 Sunbeam concerning how its first quarter of 20 1998 was looking? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Tell me about those inquiries. 23 A. Well, my recollection would be 24 that the first inquiry probably would have 25 been made in connection with the due	Page 61 1 Dean 2 to a trip to Florida in Exhibit 24. 3 Does one of those meetings refer 4 to a meeting in Florida? 5 A. No. There doesn't seem to be any 6 reference to a Florida meeting. 7 Q. You recall one? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Who attended the Florida meeting? 10 A. From Davis Polk, I attended it, 11 Mr. Lurie attended it. I don't remember 12 whether or not Heather Stack or Nicole 13 Duncan, whether or not they attended it, 14 but those would be the two other people who 15 might have attended it. 16 Q. Who from Morgan Stanley was 17 present? 18 A. Well, I will try to remember. 19 Some of the names based on the names that 20 we have talked about earlier this morning. 21 John Tyree was definitely there. 22 I don't remember whether or not Andy 23 Savarie was there. 24 Bram Smith who was in charge of 25 the lending effort at Morgan Stanley

Page 62 1 Dean 2 attended that meeting. 3 I can't recall the other names. 4 Q. Was Lily Rafii, does that name 5 ring a bell? 6 A. I don't remember. 7 Q. Gene Yoo? 8 A. Again, I don't remember. 9 Q. Tyrone Chang? 10 A. I don't remember. 11 Q. Michael Hart? 12 A. I don't remember. 13 Q. This was a meeting at Sunbeam's 14 headquarters in Del Ray Beach, Florida? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. How long did the meeting last? 17 A. I have forgotten. It was a day 18 meeting in Florida. 19 I can't -- well, I don't actually 20 remember whether or not we flew down the 21 night before or we flew down the day of. 22 It was just a single-day meeting. 23 Q. With whom did you meet, the Davis 24 Polk -- the Morgan Stanley contingent? 25 A. We met with representatives of	Page 64 1 Dean 2 was consistent with Wall Street's 3 expectations about the first quarter 4 performance. 5 Q. You don't remember what Sunbeam 6 said in response to that question? 7 A. No. I assume what Sunbeam said 8 in response to the question was that, yes, 9 they were on track to meet expectations. 10 Q. Do you assume that because you 11 don't remember any alarming information 12 coming out of the meeting? 13 A. Well, I don't remember anything 14 eventful coming out of the meeting. I 15 don't know if "alarming" is -- I don't know 16 what you mean by "alarming." It was a 17 routine meeting. 18 Q. Why is it customary to ask 19 whether the current outlook is consistent 20 with Wall Street estimates? 21 A. It is customary because investors 22 would find it -- might find it to be a 23 material fact if in fact the company 24 believed that its results were not going to 25 be in line with expectations of research
Page 63 1 Dean 2 Sunbeam. I don't remember whether or not 3 Arthur Andersen, the accountants to 4 Sunbeam, were there or not. They may have 5 been there for a portion of the meeting. I 6 would have known back then but I don't now. 7 There were also representatives 8 of some of the other lending institutions. 9 I just don't remember. 10 It was a meeting that was 11 attended by a very large number of people. 12 Q. As best as you can recall who 13 were the Sunbeam representatives? 14 A. Bob Gluck was certainly there. I 15 think Janet Kelley came in and out. I 16 don't -- there were other representatives 17 of Sunbeam that came into the session. I 18 don't recall their names. 19 Q. What was said about Sunbeam's 20 first quarter 1998 results? 21 A. I don't recall what exactly was 22 said at the time. 23 The standard questions that would 24 have been asked at the time would have been 25 whether or not Sunbeam's current outlook	Page 65 1 Dean 2 analysts. 3 Q. So it would be information that 4 would need to be disclosed? 5 A. Yes. Normally that would be 6 information that would be disclosed. 7 Q. Other than the participants and 8 the length of the meeting in Florida what 9 else do you recall about that trip? 10 A. I don't have any other specific 11 recollections about the trip. 12 Q. You left that meeting without any 13 concerns about Sunbeam's performance? 14 A. I don't remember having any 15 concerns about Sunbeam's performance after 16 leaving that meeting. 17 Q. Did you have a primary contact at 18 Morgan Stanley? 19 A. There -- the primary transaction 20 person would have been -- I guess it was 21 John Tyree and maybe Andy Savarie were 22 contacts on the transaction. 23 In different parts of the 24 transaction we would have contact with 25 different people at Morgan Stanley

Page 66 1 Dean 2 depending what part of the transaction was 3 involved. 4 Q. Did you ever talk to Bill Strong 5 in connection with this transaction? 6 A. Yes, we did. 7 Q. On how many occasions? 8 A. I can't recall. 9 Q. Numerous occasions? 10 A. No, a handful occasions. I mean 11 I don't remember how many times I talked to 12 him. I don't remember whether or not I had 13 any direct conversations with him or 14 whether or not it was in the context of 15 conference calls that he participated in. 16 Q. Did you have any contact with Bob 17 Kitts in connection with this transaction? 18 A. No, not that I am aware of. 19 Q. Alex Fuchs? 20 A. No. I may have. I mean, in the 21 course of a transaction you wind up talking 22 to a lot of people. 23 Q. How about Jim Stynes? 24 A. I don't remember talking to 25 Mr. Stynes. Again, it was a long time ago	Page 68 1 Dean 2 shortfall at Sunbeam? 3 A. That's correct. I can only speak 4 to Davis Polk. 5 I mean, I assume that Morgan 6 Stanley would have informed us, yes. 7 Q. Why do you say that? 8 A. Because it -- one would have had 9 to evaluate whether or not it was a 10 material fact that needed to be disclosed. 11 Q. Prior to March 18 Morgan Stanley 12 had on at least one occasion asked how 13 Sunbeam's first quarter looked? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. That was the meeting in Florida? 16 A. I don't have a specific 17 recollection as to whether or not the 18 question was asked. That would be a 19 standard forum in which that question would 20 be aired and there might be other 21 opportunities as well. 22 Q. We are going to come back to 23 March 18 but I want to back up again just 24 for a few minutes. 25 Were you aware that Morgan
Page 67 1 Dean 2 and I could well have spoken to any one of 3 these individuals. 4 Q. When did you first become aware 5 of problems with Sunbeam's first quarter 6 1998 results? 7 MR. CLARE: I object to the form 8 of the question. 9 THE WITNESS: I first became 10 aware of the fact that Sunbeam's 11 revenues might not be -- first quarter 12 revenues for 1998 might not be 13 consistent with Street estimates 14 sometime in March. 15 I think it was the day before the 16 offering memorandum was finalized. 17 BY MR. JOHNSON: 18 Q. Looking at Exhibit 24, the Davis 19 Polk chronology, that would be March 18, 20 1998? 21 A. Yes, yes. Looking at the 22 chronology the date appears to be March 18. 23 Q. Prior to March 18 then to your 24 knowledge neither Davis Polk nor Morgan 25 Stanley had any inkling of any sales	Page 69 1 Dean 2 Stanley signed -- strike that. 3 Are you familiar with the term "a 4 highly confident letter?" 5 A. Yes, I am familiar with the term 6 "highly confident letter." 7 Q. Are you aware that Morgan Stanley 8 provided Sunbeam a highly confident letter 9 in connection with financing the 10 acquisitions? 11 A. I would have known at the time. 12 I don't recall now. 13 It wouldn't surprise me if Morgan 14 Stanley furnished a highly confident 15 letter. 16 Q. Were you involved in -- let me 17 show it to you. 18 Do you recall being involved in 19 issuing this? 20 Counsel, I apologize. I only 21 have one copy of this which -- if you could 22 look at what has been previously marked as 23 Exhibit 74 and tell me whether you 24 recognize that? 25 A. I don't recognize it. I don't

Page 70 1 Dean 2 know what the question is. 3 Do I recognize it in what 4 context? 5 Q. Let me ask it a little 6 differently. 7 Does that letter, Exhibit 74, 8 refresh your recollection of your role, if 9 any, in preparing the highly confident 10 letter? 11 A. The letter does not refresh my 12 recollection and as far as I am aware I was 13 not involved in preparing the highly 14 confident letter. 15 Q. In connection with this 16 transaction did you have any communications 17 with anyone from MacAndrews & Forbes 18 Holding? 19 A. Not that I recall. 20 Q. Do you know whether anyone from 21 Davis Polk had any communications with 22 anyone from MacAndrews & Forbes? 23 A. As far as I know no one had had 24 any contact with MacAndrews & Forbes. 25 Q. At some point during the due	Page 72 1 Dean 2 A. I can't recall which of these 3 conference calls I participated in. My 4 recollection is that Mr. Lurie who also 5 worked on the transaction with me and the 6 rest of the Davis Polk team, that we split 7 up these conference calls. 8 Q. So as you sit here today you have 9 no idea what was discussed on the March 12 10 accounting due diligence call? 11 A. I can't -- I don't have any 12 specific recollection as to what was 13 discussed. 14 Q. Do you have a general idea? 15 A. I don't even know -- I am not 16 positive I actually participated in that 17 due diligence phone call. 18 Q. Would it be expected that 19 Mr. Lurie or Ms. Stack would report to you 20 the events of the call? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Based on your own participation 23 and that of other Davis Polk lawyers do you 24 know what happened during the March 12 25 accounting due diligence conference call?
Page 71 1 Dean 2 diligence process did you speak with anyone 3 from Arthur Andersen? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. When was that? 6 A. I don't recall exactly when. We 7 talked to Arthur Andersen. 8 Q. Was it on more than one occasion? 9 A. I can't recall how many occasions 10 I personally talked to Arthur Andersen. 11 Q. Do you know how many Davis 12 Polk -- how many conversations attorneys 13 from Davis Polk had with auditors from 14 Arthur Andersen? 15 A. No. I am sure that we had 16 several conversations with Arthur Andersen 17 during the course of the transaction. 18 Q. This has been marked as Exhibit 19 31 previously. 20 Mr. Dean, I have handed you 21 Exhibit CPH31 which appears to be a memo 22 from John Tyree to the Sunbeam financing 23 team scheduling an accounting due diligence 24 call for March 12, 1998. 25 Did you participate in that call?	Page 73 1 Dean 2 A. Well, I don't remember anything 3 out of the ordinary being raised in the 4 accounting due diligence phone calls. 5 Q. Do you remember ever speaking to 6 Larry Bornstein, the Andersen auditor 7 listed on the conference call schedule? 8 A. The name is familiar but I don't 9 personally remember whether or not I 10 actually spoke to Mr. Bornstein or not. I 11 could well have spoken to him during the 12 course of the transaction. 13 Q. Can you say with certainty that 14 you spoke with any Andersen auditor? 15 A. I don't recall now whether or not 16 I did or not. 17 Q. I thought you testified there 18 were several conversations with Andersen. 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. What is your basis for that 21 testimony? 22 A. In the course of preparing the 23 comfort letter for the transaction there 24 would have been numerous phone calls with 25 Andersen and the fact that there was --

Page 74 1 Dean 2 that there was a due diligence phone call 3 with the accountants, and in the ordinary 4 course of doing a transaction like this 5 from time to time I would -- I could easily 6 be involved in the phone call with one of 7 the accountants. 8 Q. You say in the course of 9 preparing the comfort letter you would 10 expect multiple conversations? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. Why do you say that? 13 A. There is just give and take in 14 first scoping out what the comfort letter 15 covers and then reviewing the letter as -- 16 through its drafts until it becomes 17 finalized. 18 Q. It is kind of an ongoing process 19 between counsel and the auditor? 20 A. Yes, it is. 21 Q. Do you have a sense of how many 22 drafts are ordinarily provided during the 23 process? 24 MR. CLARE: Object to form; an 25 incomplete hypothetical.	Page 76 1 Dean 2 Q. You may have, you just don't 3 remember? 4 A. I just don't remember. 5 Q. You don't remember any reports 6 from your Davis Polk colleagues about any 7 conversations with Andersen? 8 A. I don't recall any specific 9 conversations. It would have been my 10 ordinary course to sit down with other 11 Davis Polk people who had the conversations 12 to make -- to review what was discussed on 13 the conference calls. 14 Mr. Lurie was a very senior 15 lawyer at the time and that was a task that 16 could be delegated to Mr. Lurie. 17 Q. Do you remember Mr. Lurie 18 conveying to you any information that he 19 learned from the auditors? 20 A. I don't remember his -- I am sure 21 that we sat down and reviewed what occurred 22 during those conversations. 23 I don't have any specific 24 recollection of what was communicated in 25 those conversations.
Page 75 1 Dean 2 THE WITNESS: It depends on the 3 transaction. I don't think that there 4 is a standard number of drafts. 5 BY MR. JOHNSON: 6 Q. This can occur over a several-day 7 period? 8 MR. CLARE: Same objections. 9 THE WITNESS: It can occur over a 10 several-day period or several-week 11 period depending on the course of the 12 transaction. 13 BY MR. JOHNSON: 14 Q. I apologize if I have already 15 asked this. 16 The conversations with Andersen 17 in March of 1998, you can't recall 18 specifically your own involvement in any of 19 those telephone calls? 20 A. I can't but I have been involved 21 in scores of accounting due diligence phone 22 calls since then. 23 If we had asked this question in 24 1998, I mean, I probably would remember 25 whether or not I did or not.	Page 77 1 Dean 2 Q. Do you have any recollection of 3 what occurred during any of those 4 conference calls? 5 A. I don't have a -- I don't have 6 any specific recollection of what occurred 7 during those conference calls. 8 Q. Do you have any recollection 9 whatsoever as to what occurred? 10 A. I don't have. At the time, I 11 mean, as I have said before, there have 12 been probably hundreds of these due 13 diligence phone calls that I have been on. 14 Q. Is half an hour in your view a 15 typical time for speaking with an issuer's 16 auditors in an accounting due diligence 17 call? 18 MR. CLARE: Objection to form; 19 incomplete hypothetical. 20 THE WITNESS: I think that there 21 is no set period of time that is -- 22 that one can say is a normal period of 23 time that an accounting due diligence 24 phone call would take. 25 A half an hour would not be

Page 78 1 Dean 2 unusual. It depends on the 3 circumstances of the transaction and it 4 would not necessarily be the only 5 opportunity that you would have a 6 chance to talk to the accountants about 7 issues in connection with the 8 transaction. 9 BY MR. JOHNSON: 10 Q. So even time less than a half 11 hour might be appropriate is what you are 12 saying? 13 MR. CLARE: Same objections. 14 THE WITNESS: It depends on the 15 transaction. 16 Yes, it might be. 17 BY MR. JOHNSON: 18 Q. With respect to Sunbeam does half 19 an hour strike you as appropriate with the 20 benefit of hindsight? 21 MR. CLARE: Same objection. 22 THE WITNESS: I don't know. I 23 can only speak as to what we did at 24 that time and I think that we concluded 25 that what we did at the time was a	Page 80 1 Dean 2 Q. Putting aside the accounting 3 treatment and complexity of bill and hold, 4 is there any business concern associated 5 with bill and hold? 6 A. Well, I think you would have to 7 describe the nature of the bill and hold 8 transaction. 9 There can be situations where 10 bill and hold may raise concerns. 11 Q. Channel stuffing concerns? 12 A. Yes. Channel stuffing would be a 13 concern in bill and hold transactions. 14 Q. Did Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk 15 investigate whether Sunbeam engaged -- had 16 engaged in any channel stuffing? 17 A. I don't recall whether or not we 18 specifically asked about channel stuffing. 19 We would have -- Davis Polk and 20 Morgan Stanley would have been involved in 21 making sure -- well, in making a reasonable 22 investigation into whether or not Sunbeam's 23 revenue recognition practices were 24 appropriate. 25 Q. Putting aside revenue recognition
Page 79 1 Dean 2 reasonable amount of time. 3 BY MR. JOHNSON: 4 Q. At any point in your 5 conversations with Arthur Andersen did you 6 learn that Sunbeam engaged in bill and hold 7 transactions? 8 A. I don't remember now. I would 9 have remembered when we did this 10 transaction in 1998. 11 Q. You would have remembered because 12 that is something out of the ordinary? 13 A. No. I mean, I think that I just 14 would have been closer to the transaction 15 and remembered things. 16 Q. Bill and hold doesn't have any 17 negative connotation with you? 18 A. It depends on the nature of the 19 bill and hold transaction. 20 The bill and hold is used in 21 reference to transactions that -- where 22 revenue recognition is inappropriate but 23 there may also be situations where a bill 24 and hold situation is a situation where 25 revenue can be recognized, I believe.	Page 81 1 Dean 2 practices and focusing specifically on 3 channel stuffing, can you tell me anything 4 that Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk did to 5 determine whether Sunbeam had stuffed its 6 channels? 7 A. No. I don't remember at this 8 time what specific inquiry if any we made 9 at the time. 10 I think, again, in 1998 I could 11 have been much more specific about it. Six 12 years has gone by and I don't remember. 13 Q. You don't remember any specific 14 inquiry. Do you remember any effort 15 undertaken whatsoever on the issue of 16 whether Sunbeam's channels were stuffed? 17 A. Well, I don't remember one way or 18 the other. That is six years that has 19 elapsed. 20 Q. Did Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley 21 suggest to Sunbeam any revisions to the 22 offering memorandum? 23 A. Yes. We did suggest a revision 24 to the preliminary offering memorandum. 25 Q. What was the nature of that

Page 82 1 Dean 2 revision? 3 A. We suggested many revisions to 4 the document. I am sure the one that comes 5 to mind that was of some controversy was to 6 add disclosure in the offering memorandum 7 with respect to Sunbeam's expected first 8 quarter 1998 results. 9 Q. We are going to get that one. 10 Prior to that one, let's say 11 prior to March 15, can you think of any 12 particular changes that Morgan Stanley or 13 Davis Polk proposed to Sunbeam? 14 A. I am sure that we -- in the 15 ordinary course of a transaction, reviewing 16 the documents, we would -- Morgan Stanley 17 and/or Davis Polk might make suggestions to 18 an offering document. 19 I don't have any specific 20 recollection of what suggestions we might 21 have made other than the one that we have 22 just discussed. 23 Q. Let's look at what has been 24 marked previously as Exhibit 11. 25 Mr. Dean, CPH Exhibit 11 appears	Page 84 1 Dean 2 spoke about the appropriateness of these 3 revisions. 4 Q. Did you -- again, a yes or no 5 question. 6 Did you speak with him as to the 7 factual predicate of the revisions that he 8 was proposing? 9 A. I don't remember having 10 conversations about these revisions. I may 11 have. I may not have. 12 I just don't have any specific 13 recollection six years after these facts 14 occurred. 15 Q. With respect to rider 1 Mr. Tyree 16 states that the addition is proposed in 17 order to "communicate to the investor the 18 recent restructuring success of the 19 management team." 20 Do you see that? 21 A. Yes, I see that reference in the 22 exhibit. 23 Q. Did Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley 24 satisfy itself that the restructuring of 25 Sunbeam was authentic?
Page 83 1 Dean 2 to be a memo from John Tyree to Ms. Kelley, 3 Mr. Gluck, you and Mr. Fernicola. 4 Does that document Exhibit 11 5 refresh your memory as to any changes that 6 Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk proposed to 7 the offering memorandum? 8 A. Well, the memorandum on its face 9 contains a number of riders, suggested 10 riders to the offering memorandum. 11 It does reflect -- refresh my 12 recollection that a memorandum like this 13 was presented in the course of the drafting 14 process. 15 Q. We have already spoken about 16 Ms. Kelley and Mr. Gluck. 17 Who is Mr. Fernicola? 18 A. Mr. Fernicola is a partner at 19 Skadden, Arps who represented Sunbeam. 20 Q. Did -- this is a yes or no 21 question. 22 Did you have any conversations 23 with Mr. Tyree as to the appropriateness of 24 these revisions? 25 A. I don't recall whether or not we	Page 85 1 Dean 2 A. I can't -- I don't know what the 3 term "authentic" means in this context. 4 I mean, Davis Polk and Morgan 5 Stanley -- I can speak to Davis Polk. 6 I mean, we did the normal 7 investigation that we would do in 8 connection with preparing -- assisting 9 Morgan Stanley in preparing an offering 10 memorandum and we concluded at the time 11 that there were no material misstatements 12 or omissions. 13 Q. Were you aware in March of 1998 14 of Morgan Stanley's investment banking work 15 for Sunbeam in the months leading up to the 16 announcement of Sunbeam's acquisitions? 17 A. Well, I knew that Morgan Stanley 18 was involved as a financial adviser to 19 Sunbeam in connection with the acquisition 20 transactions in the context of doing the 21 subordinated debt offering and I also knew 22 that Morgan Stanley was involved in 23 providing bank lending to finance these 24 transactions. 25 Q. Do you know how long Morgan

Page 86 1 Dean 2 Stanley had been a financial adviser to 3 Sunbeam? 4 A. No, I do not. 5 Q. Did you ever learn that Morgan 6 Stanley was initially hired to sell Sunbeam 7 to another party? 8 A. I don't have any firm 9 recollection of that. 10 I mean, now that you mention it, 11 I may have been aware that one of the 12 assignments was to sell Sunbeam but I 13 wouldn't have had any recollection of that 14 without being refreshed by you. 15 Q. Referring again to Exhibit 11, 16 was there any hesitation on the part of 17 Sunbeam or Skadden to include the riders 18 that are set forth in Exhibit 11? 19 A. There may have been. I just 20 don't have any recollection again because 21 it was six years ago. 22 Q. Did anyone from Morgan Stanley 23 propose to tone down the offering 24 memorandum as far as the reports of 25 Sunbeam's success?	Page 88 1 Dean 2 know that I did take a look at the comfort 3 letter that was delivered in connection 4 with the pricing of the transaction and I 5 could well have looked at drafts of the 6 comfort letters prepared before. 7 I don't have any -- I just don't 8 have any specific recollection. 9 And the nature of the process is, 10 a lot of times you get these things at the 11 last minute. 12 Q. I will provide what has been 13 marked previously as CPH Exhibit 110. 14 Mr. Dean, CPH Exhibit 110 has 15 been marked previously and appears to be a 16 draft of the comfort letter from Arthur 17 Andersen to Morgan Stanley. 18 The letter is dated March 19, 19 1998. It bears a fax header of March 17, 20 1998. Do you see that? 21 A. I do. 22 Q. Does this document refresh your 23 recollection in any way as to whether or 24 when you saw drafts of Andersen's comfort 25 letter related to the Sunbeam offering?
Page 87 1 Dean 2 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 3 THE WITNESS: I don't know what 4 "tone down" means but Morgan Stanley -- 5 Davis Polk did review the offering 6 memorandum and we concluded that did it 7 not contain any material misstatements 8 or omissions. 9 BY MR. JOHNSON: 10 Q. It was fair and accurate in all 11 material respects? 12 A. Insofar as we knew at the time. 13 Q. You said a few minutes ago that 14 it is customary to receive drafts of the 15 comfort letter and have a dialogue with the 16 auditor in the course of finalizing an 17 offering memorandum; is that correct? 18 A. Yes, that is correct. 19 Q. Do you recall receiving drafts of 20 any of the comfort letters prepared by 21 Arthur Andersen in connection with this 22 offering? 23 A. I don't have any specific 24 recollection of drafts that I did review. 25 I know that I did take a look at the -- I	Page 89 1 Dean 2 A. No, it doesn't. 3 Q. The top of the first page bears a 4 header. In fact each of the pages bears a 5 header Preliminary and Tentative for 6 Discussion Purposes Only. 7 A. Yes, I see that. 8 Q. That is discussion between 9 Andersen and Morgan Stanley? 10 MR. CLARE: Objection; calls for 11 speculation. 12 MR. WISE: There is no indication 13 that this witness knows who wrote this 14 or what the person who wrote it 15 intended by that. 16 THE WITNESS: I don't know who 17 wrote it and I don't know what was 18 intended by it. 19 MR. JOHNSON: Nice coach. 20 MR. WISE: You wouldn't have 21 gotten the question anyway because it 22 is an improper question. 23 THE WITNESS: I can say that the 24 language that appears at the legend, 25 and I have not studied the legend, is a

Page 90 1 Dean 2 standard legend that accounting firms 3 place on drafts of comfort letters. 4 Whether or not this draft was 5 delivered -- I mean, this could have 6 been an internal draft prepared by 7 Arthur Andersen prior to being 8 submitted for -- to review by the 9 underwriters. 10 BY MR. JOHNSON: 11 Q. If you would look at page 3 of 12 the letter which has the Bates stamp 13 CPH38672, there is handwriting at the 14 bottom of that page that states, "We had 15 fire sale of inventory." 16 Do you know what that refers to? 17 A. No. I don't have -- I don't know 18 what that refers to. 19 Q. During the course of your work on 20 the Sunbeam transaction did you ever hear 21 that Sunbeam had had a fire sale of 22 inventory? 23 A. No. I don't recall that. 24 I know that he had engaged in 25 some transactions where they, at the end of	Page 92 1 Dean 2 that the company had accelerated sales into 3 the fourth quarter of 1997? 4 A. I don't recall when I learned 5 that. 6 Q. You did learn it at some point? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Were you aware of that 9 information prior to the March 19 press 10 release? 11 A. I can't recall. I assume that I 12 was but I can't recall when exactly I 13 learned about it. 14 Q. You were aware of it by the time 15 the offering memorandum was finalized? 16 A. When the final offering 17 memorandum was being prepared. 18 Q. Did you have any reaction to that 19 information? 20 A. Reaction to what information? 21 The fact that there was -- 22 Q. There was acceleration of sales 23 into 1997. 24 A. It is a timing issue about 25 recognition of sales and it might impact
Page 91 1 Dean 2 a quarter, they would discount some of the 3 merchandise to make sure that sales 4 occurred by the end of the quarter; not an 5 unusual practice for any manufacturer. 6 Q. You mentioned that you first 7 became aware of a potential sale shortfall 8 at Sunbeam on March 18. 9 Was that in connection with 10 reviewing drafts of the comfort letter? 11 A. No, it was not. 12 Q. Was that information communicated 13 to you by Morgan Stanley? 14 A. Yes. I think I was alerted to it 15 by Morgan Stanley. 16 Q. Prior to that time you hadn't 17 seen any numbers depicting the shortfall? 18 A. No, we had not, none that I 19 recall at this time. 20 Q. If you would look at paragraph 6B 21 for me, you have it already, 5B, I think, 22 is a necessary predicate of 6B. 23 If you would look at those two 24 paragraphs for me? 25 Prior to March 18 had you heard	Page 93 1 Dean 2 upon what the first quarter sales would be 3 so it would be an area of interest. 4 Q. Did Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk 5 investigate the extent to which sales had 6 been accelerated into the fourth quarter of 7 1997? 8 A. I don't recall now what 9 investigations were done. We did the 10 investigations that we thought were 11 appropriate at the time. 12 I don't have any specific 13 recollection of what exactly we did then. 14 Q. On what basis do you say that you 15 did do some investigation? 16 A. I am not -- I can't -- I think 17 that in the context of doing an offering of 18 this sort we did the level of investigation 19 that was appropriate to ensure that there 20 were no material misstatements or omissions 21 and can I point to a specific investigation 22 that we did? I can't now. 23 Q. You are saying you did what you 24 viewed to be appropriate but you can't tell 25 me what you did?

Page 94 1 Dean 2 A. I am saying that I don't remember 3 what was done because it was six years ago. 4 Q. You do remember that it was 5 appropriate? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. How do you remember that? 8 A. I think that to the extent that 9 we were comfortable in delivering a legal 10 opinion in connection with the offering 11 memorandum I didn't contend any material 12 misstatements or omission -- one of the 13 predicates to that in our professional 14 responsibility is to have concluded that a 15 reasonable investigation was made. 16 Q. Let's talk about March 18. You 17 testified that you learned from Morgan 18 Stanley that there was a potential 19 shortfall in Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 20 results; is that correct? 21 A. In its revenues. 22 Q. Revenue. 23 Who from Morgan Stanley conveyed 24 that information to you? 25 A. I don't recall at this time who	Page 96 1 Dean 2 say? 3 MR. WISE: That is your 4 assumption. 5 MR. JOHNSON: That is a question. 6 THE WITNESS: I have no basis 7 upon which to know where the 8 information came from. 9 BY MR. JOHNSON: 10 Q. The second phone call that you 11 mentioned on March 18, who was involved in 12 that phone call? 13 A. Representatives of Morgan 14 Stanley, representatives of Sunbeam, 15 representatives from Skadden, Arps, and 16 those are the parties that I remember being 17 on the phone call. And did I mention 18 representatives of Davis Polk? 19 Q. I assumed at least you were on. 20 Was there anyone from Davis Polk 21 other than you on that phone call? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Who was that? 24 A. James Lurie was on the phone 25 call. I believe Heather Stack was in the
Page 95 1 Dean 2 called me to alert me to that possibility. 3 Q. What did you or Morgan Stanley do 4 as a result of that possibility? 5 A. Another telephone conference 6 call, due diligence phone call was 7 established to have Sunbeam review its 8 first quarter results. 9 Q. That call was also on March 18? 10 A. Yes, it was. 11 Q. The first call where you were 12 alerted to the possibility of a shortfall, 13 it is your testimony that you don't 14 remember who conveyed that information to 15 you? 16 A. That's correct. 17 Q. Do you know who else was on that 18 call? 19 A. The phone call where the 20 information was communicated to me? 21 Q. Correct. 22 A. I don't have any -- I don't have 23 any specific recollection. 24 Q. Presumably that information came 25 from Sunbeam originally; is that fair to	Page 97 1 Dean 2 room as well and at some point. I don't 3 know whether or not it was this phone call 4 or another phone call. Jeffrey Small and 5 Frank Morrison were in the room. 6 Q. Were there more than two phone 7 calls concerning Sunbeam's first quarter 8 results on March 18? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. How many calls were there? 11 A. I can't recall how many. I don't 12 remember all of the participants. Some of 13 them may have been -- I am certain there 14 were many phone calls that just involved 15 Davis Polk and Morgan Stanley. 16 Q. He won't let me ask about those 17 probably. 18 We will see about that. 19 Who were the Morgan Stanley 20 representatives on the all-hands phone 21 call, for lack of a better term? 22 A. Ruth Porat, Brooks Harris. I 23 don't remember specifically whether or not 24 John Tyree and/or Andy Savarie were 25 involved in that phone call but they could

Page 98 1 Dean 2 well have attended. 3 I am certain -- my recollection 4 right now is I am certain that Ruth Porat 5 and Brooks Harris were on that phone call. 6 Q. On March 18 did you have 7 conversations with Mr. Tyree concerning 8 Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 revenue 9 situation? 10 MR. WISE: You can answer that 11 yes or no. 12 THE WITNESS: I don't remember. 13 I think I must have had phone calls 14 with him about the subject. 15 BY MR. JOHNSON: 16 Q. How about Mr. Savarie? 17 A. Again, I don't remember specific 18 conversations but I could well have had 19 conversations with Mr. Savarie directly. 20 Q. How about Bill Strong? 21 A. I think I did have -- I think I 22 was involved in the conference call with 23 Mr. Strong but I am not positive again. 24 MR. JOHNSON: Why don't we change 25 the tape?	Page 100 1 Dean 2 phone call as well. 3 Q. How about Skadden, Arps? 4 A. Skadden, Arps, I am aware that 5 Finn Fogg and Greg Fernicola were on the 6 phone call. 7 I can't say whether or not they 8 were on the phone call for the entire 9 duration of it or not. 10 Q. When you say you are aware they 11 were on the phone call, do you remember 12 that or was your memory refreshed? 13 A. No. I remember that they were on 14 that phone call. 15 Q. This phone call strikes me as 16 more memorable than some of the events from 17 that time period. How long did that 18 telephone call last? 19 MR. CLARE: I move to strike the 20 preamble to the question. 21 THE WITNESS: I don't have a 22 recollection of how long the phone call 23 lasted. 24 BY MR. JOHNSON: 25 Q. Was it minutes, hours?
Page 99 1 Dean 2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 3 11:53 a.m. and this completes tape 4 number one. 5 (Pause) 6 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 7 11:55 a.m. and this begins tape number 8 two. 9 BY MR. JOHNSON: 10 Q. Mr. Dean, referring again to the 11 all-hands meeting on March 18, that was a 12 meeting that took place by telephone? 13 A. Yes, it was. 14 Q. You have already identified, I 15 believe, the Morgan Stanley participants 16 and the Davis Polk participants. 17 Could you tell me please the 18 Sunbeam and Skadden participants? 19 A. Well, that will tax my memory. 20 I mean, I can't say for certain 21 but I think Gluck must have been on the 22 phone call. 23 There was a salesperson who was 24 on that phone call so I suspect that was 25 Mr. Uzzi and I think Mr. Kersh was on the	Page 101 1 Dean 2 A. It was not minutes. It was also 3 not two or three hours. Somewhere in 4 between. 5 I don't have a specific 6 recollection as to exactly how long it 7 lasted. 8 Q. Tell me about what you can 9 remember about the substance of the 10 conversation. 11 A. I remember that the purpose of 12 the phone call was to review Sunbeam's 13 first quarter results and to get an update 14 from Sunbeam with respect to what their 15 expectations were with respect to first 16 quarter. 17 I believe it was at that phone 18 call where Sunbeam led the group through 19 what their current expectations were for 20 the first quarter of 1998 on the revenue 21 side. 22 Q. Was there any discussion during 23 that call concerning the earnings side for 24 the quarter? 25 A. I don't have any specific

Page 102 1 Dean 2 recollection of whether or not we talked 3 about earnings. I do remember that -- 4 being told -- 5 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 6 11:58 and we are going off the video 7 record. 8 (Discussion off the record) 9 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 10 11:59 a.m. and we are back on the video 11 record. 12 BY MR. JOHNSON: 13 Q. Mr. Dean, before the slight 14 interruption I posed a question which I 15 will ask the court reporter to read back 16 for you. 17 (Record read) 18 THE WITNESS: Let's start over 19 again. 20 BY MR. JOHNSON: 21 Q. Okay. 22 A. I don't have any specific 23 recollection of whether or not we discussed 24 earnings in that telephone conference. 25 I do remember being aware during	Page 104 1 Dean 2 information that Sunbeam's revenue appeared 3 not to be growing in the first quarter of 4 1998? 5 A. It was significant information to 6 know that Sunbeam's revenues were going to 7 not grow at the pace that research analysts 8 expected them to grow. 9 Q. Or perhaps not grow at all? 10 A. Or not grow at all. 11 Q. That was a possibility that you 12 learned during the all-hands call on March 13 18? 14 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 15 You asked him multiple questions 16 and now you are asking what that was a 17 possibility. 18 It is unclear to me at least what 19 you are referring to. 20 BY MR. JOHNSON: 21 Q. Did you know what I was referring 22 to? 23 A. No. Could you restate the 24 question? 25 Q. If you don't understand at any
Page 103 1 Dean 2 the phone conversation that Sunbeam was 3 really valued in the marketplace on the 4 basis of its revenues and that it was a 5 so-called momentum play and that revenues 6 were more significant than that income. 7 Q. Can you explain to me why you -- 8 why Sunbeam was viewed as being -- strike 9 that. 10 Can you explain to me why Sunbeam 11 revenue was viewed as more significant to 12 the market than Sunbeam earnings? 13 A. I don't know -- there are some 14 companies in the marketplace who -- whose 15 valuation really depends on a forecast of 16 increasing revenues over time and that the 17 marketplace is less sensitive to net income 18 for those types of companies. 19 Sunbeam was one of those 20 companies that was measured more on 21 revenues than on net income. 22 Q. On revenue growth more 23 specifically? 24 A. Revenue growth. 25 Q. So you viewed it was significant	Page 105 1 Dean 2 time let me know. 3 The possibility that Sunbeam 4 would have a decline in revenues as opposed 5 to a growth in revenues was something that 6 was recognized during the all-hands 7 telephone call on March 18? 8 A. I don't have a specific 9 recollection. I would have to sort of 10 refresh my recollection in taking a look at 11 the press release and what the numbers 12 actually showed, but my recollection is 13 that it was news to the group that Sunbeam 14 was not going -- that its revenues were not 15 going to grow at the rate that the Wall 16 Street research analysts expected it to 17 grow. 18 Q. Did you look at the press release 19 this week to prepare for your deposition? 20 A. I don't remember looking at the 21 press release. I may have. 22 Q. I am going to hand you what has 23 been marked previously as Exhibit 16. 24 Mr. Dean, can you identify 25 Exhibit 16 for me?

Page 106 1 Dean 2 A. Exhibit 16 appears to be a 3 document that was prepared by Sunbeam with 4 net sales numbers for January, February and 5 March. 6 And it is -- I can't -- since it 7 is six years from when these events 8 occurred we discussed a similar sheet of 9 information on the conference call, the 10 all-hands conference call on March 18. 11 Q. It could have been this sheet, 12 Exhibit 16, or a document like it is what 13 you are saying? 14 A. That's correct. 15 Q. Is that your fax number written 16 in the -- written by hand in the upper 17 right-hand corner? 18 A. Yes, it is. 19 Q. Do you see the handwriting in the 20 center of the page, I guess, center right 21 of the page? It says Porat sees this or 22 Porat sees through. 23 Do you know what that refers to? 24 A. No, I do not. 25 Q. Do you know whose handwriting	Page 108 1 Dean 2 "potential orders?" 3 A. Yes, I see a column with 4 potential orders. 5 Q. That shows potential orders of 6 $86 million? 7 A. It shows 86. I assume that it is 8 86 million. 9 Q. This document also shows 10 international sales forecasts in the second 11 half of March of 1998 of $39.5 million, do 12 you see that? 13 A. Yes, I do see that. 14 Q. Let's start with the 15 international number. 16 What was said during the 17 conference call about the feasibility of 18 selling $39.5 million of product in the 19 last two weeks of March? 20 A. I don't have any specific 21 recollection of a discussion about the 22 international sales, the achievability of 23 the international sales. 24 At the time, immediately after 25 this phone call, I would have had a
Page 107 1 Dean 2 this is? 3 A. No, I do not. 4 Q. It was a document, either Exhibit 5 16 or a document like Exhibit 16, that was 6 used during the course of the all-hands 7 conference call? 8 A. That's correct. 9 Q. What was said about this 10 document? 11 A. Well, the subject of the 12 conference call was to try to have an 13 update on Sunbeam's first quarter 1998 14 results on the revenue side. 15 This sheet was a breakdown of 16 what Sunbeam's forecasts were for its 17 revenues at the time. 18 Q. The primary listing here is of 19 potential orders. Do you see that? 20 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of 21 the question. 22 BY MR. JOHNSON: 23 Q. Let me strike that. That is a 24 fair objection. 25 Do you see the column for	Page 109 1 Dean 2 recollection but I don't now. 3 Q. Did Mr. -- strike that. 4 Did anyone from Sunbeam during 5 this conference call assure you that 6 Sunbeam could achieve $39.5 million in 7 international sales in the last two weeks 8 of March? 9 A. I don't remember any specific 10 assurances with respect to the 11 international sales. 12 There were assurances that the 13 numbers -- the revenue numbers that we were 14 shown during the course of the meeting were 15 completely achievable. 16 Q. There were assurances that they 17 were achievable. Were there any assurances 18 that they would be achieved? 19 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of 20 the question. 21 THE WITNESS: There were 22 assurances during the course of the 23 conference -- during the course of the 24 conference call that the revenue 25 numbers would be achieved.

Page 110 1 Dean 2 BY MR. JOHNSON: 3 Q. To the best of your recollection 4 who provided those assurances that the 5 numbers would be achieved? 6 A. All of the representatives of 7 Sunbeam who participated in that phone 8 call. 9 Q. Did Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley 10 do anything to confirm those assurances? 11 A. I don't have any specific 12 recollection of anything that Davis Polk 13 did at the time. I can't say what Morgan 14 Stanley did. 15 Q. You know as you sit here today 16 that these numbers were not achieved, don't 17 you? 18 A. Yes, I do know that these numbers 19 were not achieved. 20 Q. So is it your view that Sunbeam 21 lied to you during this conference call? 22 A. I think that Sunbeam assured us 23 that these numbers would be achieved. 24 Whether or not they believed -- 25 whether or not they knew they couldn't be	Page 112 1 Dean 2 comfortable with to place in the final 3 offering memorandum. 4 Q. The -- in the right column 5 towards the bottom there is a -- 6 A. Let me correct myself. 7 We did not craft the disclosure 8 that finally appeared in the disclosure 9 document but we reviewed the disclosure 10 that was prepared by Sunbeam. 11 Q. Okay. 12 Who -- so Sunbeam crafted the 13 disclosure in the offering memorandum? 14 A. Yes, they did. 15 Q. Did -- 16 A. Sunbeam and their 17 representatives. I don't know who. 18 Q. That would be Skadden, Arps, 19 wouldn't it? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. That is the same -- the 22 disclosure you are referring to is the same 23 disclosure that appeared in the press 24 release; is that correct? 25 A. That is correct.
Page 111 1 Dean 2 achieved at the time, I guess that is a 3 question that you have to ask people from 4 Sunbeam. 5 We certainly felt as if we had 6 been misled. 7 Q. Going back to the potential 8 orders column for a minute, that shows $86 9 million in sales? 10 A. Yes, I see a total for that 11 column to 86. 12 Q. That is of possible orders, 13 potential orders, right? 14 A. The column is labeled Potential 15 Orders and we were probably given 16 assurances that these potential orders had 17 a very high probability of being 18 consummated. 19 Q. You say you were probably given 20 assurances of a very high probability that 21 the potential orders would be consummated. 22 Why do you say that? 23 A. We must have been given 24 assurances to that effect because we 25 crafted disclosure that we later became	Page 113 1 Dean 2 Q. Did Davis Polk have any role in 3 preparing the press release? 4 A. No. We may have been furnished 5 copies of the press release and given an 6 opportunity to review it. I don't know 7 whether or not -- I can't recall at this 8 time whether or not we were given the 9 opportunity to propose revisions to it. 10 Q. Did you have any revisions to it? 11 A. I don't recall at the time, at 12 this time. 13 Q. We will get to the press release 14 itself in a little more detail in a minute. 15 Exhibit 16 shows at the bottom 16 right, prior year Q1-97, $253.5 million. 17 Do you see that? 18 A. Yes, I do. 19 Q. That was Sunbeam's revenue for 20 the first quarter of 1997? 21 A. I haven't verified it but I 22 assume that is true. 23 Q. So the -- I assume -- strike 24 that. 25 Were there discussions on the

Page 114 1 Dean 2 March 18 all-hands call concerning whether 3 the prior year first quarter results would 4 be met or exceeded in the first quarter of 5 1998? 6 A. Yes. I think that what we 7 discussed during the conference call was 8 what the first quarter 1998 revenue results 9 would be and then there is a question as to 10 how that would compare with historical 11 performance. 12 Q. This shows that if all of the 13 potential orders are made and recognized 14 prior to the end of the quarter and the 15 international sales forecast is accurate 16 that Sunbeam would exceed the prior year's 17 quarter by just over a million dollars? 18 A. If these numbers are accurate, 19 yes. 20 The sheet may not reflect all of 21 the sales possibilities that were possible 22 at Sunbeam but simply the ones that had the 23 highest probability of being achieved. 24 Q. Did anyone from Sunbeam explain 25 on an account-by-account basis why each of	Page 116 1 Dean 2 Q. Who discussed that possibility? 3 A. Well, I certainly raised that 4 possibility as a way of disseminating the 5 information out in the marketplace. 6 I think I was the one who 7 actually raised the issue during the 8 conference call. 9 Q. Other than what is set forth in 10 Exhibit 16 did you have any other 11 information that caused you to raise the 12 idea of a press release? 13 A. No. I don't recall of any other 14 information. 15 Q. What was the reaction to the idea 16 that you raised? 17 A. Sunbeam was opposed to it as well 18 as their counsel, Skadden, Arps, who flatly 19 rejected it as being inappropriate. 20 Q. That is Finn Fogg and Greg 21 Fericola? 22 A. That is correct. 23 Q. When -- did anyone give any 24 explanation as to why a press release would 25 be unnecessary or inappropriate?
Page 115 1 Dean 2 these potential orders was highly probable 3 to be consummated? 4 A. I don't have any specific memory 5 of that but Uzzi could well have done that 6 during the phone call and it would be 7 customary for a salesperson to do this in 8 the context of reviewing a sheet like this. 9 Q. But, again, you are not aware of 10 anyone verifying what Home Depot, for 11 example -- what Home Depot's order plans 12 were for the last two weeks of March of 13 1998? 14 A. I am not aware of anyone at Davis 15 Polk who verified that. 16 Q. Are you aware of anyone verifying 17 that? 18 A. No, I am not aware. 19 Q. During the all-hands call was the 20 possibility of issuing a press release 21 discussed? 22 A. My memory is that, yes, the 23 possibility of issuing a press release was 24 discussed in the context of that conference 25 call.	Page 117 1 Dean 2 A. The best recollection I have is 3 that somebody from Skadden said it was very 4 unusual within a quarter to announce 5 intraquarter results and that there was 6 no -- in light of the fact that the company 7 felt that it was comfortable that it was 8 going to make these numbers, that they 9 didn't think it was appropriate to put a 10 press release out at this time. 11 Q. Obviously the company was 12 dissuaded from that position. How did that 13 happen? 14 A. I don't know when that happened. 15 I mean, after the end of this all-hands 16 conference call -- I mean we were at a 17 stalemate about the issue and then I was 18 later informed that Bill Strong had had a 19 conversation with Al Dunlap and Dunlap 20 agreed -- acceded to having the disclosure 21 appear. 22 Q. How were you later informed of 23 that conversation between Strong and 24 Dunlap? 25 A. I don't know who at Morgan

Page 118 1 Dean 2 Stanley called me to inform me of that. 3 Q. Someone from Morgan Stanley 4 called you? 5 A. Someone from Morgan Stanley then 6 called me up and told me. 7 Q. If I understand your testimony 8 Sunbeam had been telling you in the first 9 two weeks of March of 1998 that they were 10 on target with Street estimates for the 11 first quarter results; is that correct? 12 A. That is correct. 13 Q. Then you received this sheet on 14 March 18 which showed that they would need 15 to strive to beat first quarter 1997 16 results; is that correct? 17 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of 18 the question, the characterization of 19 the document. 20 You can answer. 21 THE WITNESS: Can you repeat -- 22 now that I have been interrupted can I 23 hear the question again? 24 MR. JOHNSON: Sure. 25 Could you read that for us?	Page 120 1 Dean 2 quarter or the last week of a quarter, 3 frankly, and so it is quite possible that 4 Sunbeam didn't have visibility about this. 5 Q. Did you have any sense of whether 6 as a physical matter Sunbeam could ship the 7 amount of product necessary for it to meet 8 first quarter 1997 results in the last two 9 weeks of March of 1998? 10 A. I was not aware of Sunbeam's 11 physical capacity to ship product. 12 Q. Did anyone ask that question 13 during the all-hands conference call? 14 A. I don't have any specific 15 recollection, no, as to whether that 16 question was asked. 17 Again it was six years ago. It 18 could have been asked. I just don't have 19 any memory of it now. 20 Q. What was Morgan Stanley's view as 21 to whether a press release would be 22 appropriate? 23 A. Morgan Stanley's view was that it 24 was appropriate to issue a press release if 25 there was uncertainty with respect to
Page 119 1 Dean 2 (Record read) 3 MR. CLARE: Same objection. 4 THE WITNESS: I am not sure what 5 the question is. 6 The question -- did we receive a 7 sheet that showed that their revenue 8 outlook was now comparable to what they 9 achieved in the first quarter of 1997. 10 Yes, that is the document we 11 received on March 18. 12 BY MR. JOHNSON: 13 Q. What I am getting at is: Isn't 14 Exhibit 16 contrary to what the company had 15 been telling you just a week or two weeks 16 before concerning it being on target with 17 Street estimates? 18 A. Yes, it was. 19 Q. Didn't that cause you concern 20 about the veracity of Sunbeam management? 21 A. Well, not necessarily. 22 I mean, there is obviously 23 skepticism about the numbers but it is not 24 uncommon for manufacturers to make a lot of 25 their sales in the last two weeks of a	Page 121 1 Dean 2 whether or not Sunbeam would achieve its 3 revenue results. 4 Q. Was there any concern about the 5 press release and the effect it would have 6 on pricing the debt offering? 7 A. I wouldn't characterize it as 8 concern. I think that Morgan Stanley felt 9 that it was important to have this news out 10 in the marketplace so that the marketplace 11 could digest it before a pricing of the 12 offering. 13 Q. Was there any concern that 14 Sunbeam's first quarter results could 15 constitute a materially adverse change 16 prior to the closing of the acquisitions? 17 A. There was a concern, in the 18 context of doing the subordinated debt 19 offering, disclosing this information might 20 have an impact on the stock price of 21 Sunbeam and as a result of that Morgan 22 Stanley and we felt that disclosure was 23 appropriate. 24 Q. The disclosure that was made in 25 the press release in fact did have some

Page 122 1 Dean 2 impact on Sunbeam's equity trading price; 3 is that correct? 4 A. Yes, it did. I am not 5 familiar -- I can't recall now what impact 6 it did have but it did have a depressing 7 impact on the price of Sunbeam's stock. 8 Q. In relation to -- you are aware 9 that Sunbeam also issued a press release 10 after the first quarter detailing its first 11 quarter 1998 results? 12 A. Yes, I am. 13 Q. Are you aware that that press 14 release had a substantially more severe 15 depressive impact on Sunbeam's trading 16 price as compared to the March 19 press 17 release? 18 MR. CLARE: Object to the form. 19 THE WITNESS: I am aware there 20 was a subsequent press release that was 21 put out after the first quarter results 22 were recorded at Sunbeam and that 23 Sunbeam actually recorded revenues that 24 were lower than the 254.7 that was 25 covered in the press release and as a	Page 124 1 Dean 2 disclosure and quite adamant that they felt 3 as if -- that they were going to achieve 4 these numbers and the fact that there was a 5 discount from these numbers versus the 6 Street estimates, they did not think that 7 that was appropriate to put out in the 8 marketplace. 9 They probably made the argument 10 but I don't recall whether or not they did 11 or not that they -- that maybe they could 12 still make their numbers. 13 I am just not certain whether or 14 not they made that argument or not but that 15 would be the kind of argument that I would 16 expect them to make. 17 Q. You can't recall them actually 18 saying that they would still possibly make 19 the Street estimates? 20 A. I don't have a specific 21 recollection of that but that could well 22 have been something that they said on that 23 phone call. 24 Q. Based on Exhibit 16 was there any 25 information that would lead you to believe
Page 123 1 Dean 2 result the stock price of Sunbeam fell 3 even more. 4 BY MR. JOHNSON: 5 Q. Sunbeam, in fact, showed a loss 6 for the first quarter of 1998; isn't that 7 correct? 8 A. I don't remember. We could take 9 a look at the press release. That could 10 well have been the case. 11 Q. The April press release, do you 12 know how many days after the March 19 press 13 release that one issued? 14 A. No, I don't know. 15 Q. After the all-hands telephone 16 call -- by the way, can you remember 17 anything else about that phone call that we 18 haven't already talked about? 19 A. I don't have any other specific 20 recollections of that phone call. 21 Q. Was it combative in any way? Was 22 the discussion heated? 23 A. It was heated on the disclosure 24 question. 25 Sunbeam was clearly resisting	Page 125 1 Dean 2 that Sunbeam could still make the Street 3 estimates? 4 A. What Exhibit -- again, this was 5 six years ago but I think what Exhibit 6 16 -- the case that it laid out was a -- 7 the confidence that Sunbeam had that they 8 would actually make the 254.7 number at 9 least. 10 Q. So that they would beat first 11 quarter 1997? 12 A. I forget what the words were that 13 were used in the press release that was 14 issued after we reviewed this information 15 but it was language along the lines that 16 they expected revenues to be comparable, I 17 think, to the first quarter of 1997 18 revenues. I just don't remember the 19 language. 20 Q. Was there any basis to believe 21 that Sunbeam could still make Street 22 estimates for the first quarter of 1998? 23 A. I don't recall whether or not 24 they presented a case that Sunbeam could 25 still make its numbers.

Page 126 1 Dean 2 Q. Was there -- during the all-hands 3 phone call was there any discussion about 4 possibly delaying the subordinated debt 5 offering? 6 A. I don't remember whether or not 7 that subject came up. It may have. I 8 don't have any specific recollection of it. 9 Q. Was there any procedure installed 10 to closely monitor Sunbeam's sales for the 11 remainder of the quarter? 12 A. Well, there were -- as part of 13 the normal sort of closing process for the 14 transaction we would have had another bring 15 down -- we did have another bring-down 16 conference to discuss the numbers again and 17 make sure they were comfortable. 18 That would have been six days 19 after the pricing of the offering. 20 Q. Again, that would be a call with 21 Gluck, Kersh or Uzzi? 22 A. Some combination of those people. 23 Q. Other than a subsequent telephone 24 call did Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley do 25 anything else to monitor Sunbeam's sale	Page 128 1 Dean 2 being troubled by anything in the press 3 release? 4 A. No. I -- my recollection is that 5 we reviewed the press release in light of 6 the facts that were disclosed in the 7 conference call and were comfortable that 8 it was consistent with what we had learned. 9 Q. Andersen, to your knowledge, was 10 not consulted in any way in connection with 11 the issuance of the press release? 12 A. I don't know whether or not 13 Andersen was consulted or not in connection 14 with the press release. 15 Q. You mentioned two of your 16 partners who were involved in the press 17 release. 18 If you look at Exhibit 213, your 19 attorney over here says, "Two other 20 partners, Frank Morrison and Jeff Small, 21 did not work on the offering generally but 22 appeared to have been consulted briefly on 23 March 18, 1998 in connection with the 24 proposed March 19, 1998 press release by 25 Sunbeam."
Page 127 1 Dean 2 situation after March 19? 3 A. I am not aware of any efforts 4 that were made. I think that during the 5 course of an offering like this there are 6 day-to-day contacts between Morgan Stanley 7 and Sunbeam officials and so that could 8 well have been something that they did on a 9 day-to-day basis. 10 Q. You are not aware of it actually? 11 A. I am not aware of that actually 12 occurring. 13 Q. Did you look at a draft of the 14 March 19 press release before it was 15 issued? 16 A. I don't remember whether or not 17 we were furnished a draft of it before or 18 whether or not we were told what the 19 contents would be and whether or not it was 20 read to us over the telephone and then it 21 was issued. 22 I don't have any specific 23 recollection as to what protocol was 24 followed there. 25 Q. Do you have any recollection of	Page 129 1 Dean 2 Can you tell me again who Messrs. 3 Morrison and Small are? 4 A. Mr. Morrison and Small are two of 5 my partners who also practice in the 6 securities area. 7 Q. Were they on any of the phone 8 calls with anyone from Sunbeam or Skadden? 9 A. They -- I don't know how -- 10 whether or not they participated in the 11 phone calls from the very beginning of the 12 phone call, whether or not they joined in 13 late as the phone call was in process after 14 having received an update as to what was 15 being discussed. 16 Q. At some point they were on some 17 portion of calls with Skadden and/or 18 Sunbeam? 19 A. That's correct. 20 Q. What were their positions on 21 those calls? 22 A. I remember -- I don't remember 23 anything about Frank Morrison saying 24 anything on the phone call. 25 I do remember that Jeff Small was

Page 130 1 Dean 2 also -- had echoed my position that we felt 3 that disclosure was appropriate here. 4 Q. You testified a few minutes ago 5 that Skadden and Sunbeam were very 6 resistant to doing a press release. 7 Did that fact in and of itself 8 cause you any concern about what was going 9 on at the company? 10 A. No. I thought it was consistent 11 with the aggressive style of representation 12 that Skadden adopts with its clients and 13 its client, Sunbeam, clearly did not want 14 to have the disclosure made and Skadden 15 presented the best possible case as to why 16 disclosure was not appropriate. 17 Q. Let's put Skadden aside then. 18 How about Sunbeam? Sunbeam's 19 strong reluctance to do a press release, 20 did that in and of itself cause you any 21 concern about your dealings with this 22 company? 23 A. No. I think at the time -- I 24 mean, there was still a high degree of 25 confidence in the management at Sunbeam,	Page 132 1 Dean 2 throughout the day, Bob. 3 BY MR. JOHNSON: 4 Q. Having now talked about the 5 heated nature of this conference call and 6 Sunbeam's reluctance, can you remember 7 anything else at all about that conference 8 call, and that two of your partners also 9 participated in portions of it? 10 A. No. I don't recall any specific 11 details. 12 We may well have gone into the 13 reasons why some comparison of January and 14 February of 1998 versus January and 15 February of 1997, the reasons behind why 16 there was a shortfall compared to the prior 17 year. 18 Q. Was there any discussion on the 19 all-hands call as to what the press release 20 should say? 21 A. There was -- there was a 22 discussion about the level of detail that 23 should be in the press release. 24 I think that there was -- I think 25 I may have proposed that we disclose what
Page 131 1 Dean 2 that they would make statements that were 3 truthful and that they would not make 4 assurances if they didn't feel as if the 5 statements had no basis. 6 Q. During the all-hands phone call 7 did anyone ask anyone from Sunbeam whether 8 they would guarantee that the first quarter 9 1998 results would exceed first quarter 10 1997 results? 11 A. I don't recall that question 12 being asked but the level of certainty that 13 one would want to have from management with 14 respect to revenue numbers of this sort is 15 at the level of a guarantee. 16 Q. I think you said earlier that 17 assurances were made that the numbers would 18 be achieved; is that correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. After this phone call -- let's 21 back up. 22 I will probably end up asking 23 this question several times. 24 MR. WISE: I hope not. 25 MR. JOHNSON: At different points	Page 133 1 Dean 2 January and February sales actually were so 3 that one would have a sense of how much -- 4 what sales would have to be achieved in 5 March and that was soundly rejected by 6 Skadden and by Sunbeam. 7 Q. Tell me again why you thought it 8 might be appropriate to give the actual 9 numbers for January and February. 10 A. To put the numbers in context. 11 Q. Was there any discussion of the 12 possibility of putting earnings information 13 in the press release? 14 A. I don't recall whether or not we 15 discussed earnings as a possibility or not. 16 Q. Why did Skadden and/or Sunbeam 17 strongly reject your idea of putting in 18 January and February sales numbers? 19 A. Because it was not -- it was not 20 standard practice for a public company to 21 begin disclosing monthly performance 22 results. 23 Q. Didn't anyone have a concern that 24 the numbers in and of themselves show a 25 dramatic shortfall?

Page 134 1 Dean 2 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of 3 the question. 4 THE WITNESS: I don't recall 5 whether or not anyone on the phone call 6 raised the question as to whether or 7 not it would be appropriate -- the 8 appropriateness of disclosing the 9 actual January and February results. 10 BY MR. JOHNSON: 11 Q. Didn't you just say that you 12 raised the idea that it would be 13 appropriate to disclose that? 14 A. I raised the issue but I don't 15 recall whether or not anybody else on the 16 phone call other than Skadden who rejected 17 the idea -- whether or not anyone else on 18 the phone call supported disclosure of 19 January and February. 20 Q. Skadden's stated reason for 21 opposing that is because it would put the 22 company in the position of releasing 23 monthly results? 24 A. That is my recollection. 25 Q. They weren't concerned that the	Page 136 1 Dean 2 Q. During the all-hands call was 3 there any discussion as to the impact of 4 the first quarter 1998 on the remainder of 5 the year? 6 A. I don't remember at this time 7 whether or not there was a discussion of 8 that. 9 Q. That was -- it was after this 10 call that the size of the subordinated debt 11 offering rose from 500 million to 750 12 million? 13 A. My recollection was that there 14 was an increase in the size of the offering 15 and I don't know the specific amount and it 16 would have happened between the time that 17 the preliminary was prepared and the deal 18 was actually priced. 19 Q. Didn't it, in fact, happen after 20 the conference call concerning Sunbeam's 21 sales situation? 22 A. I can't say for certain. That 23 would not be unusual. 24 It is frequently a tactic in 25 doing securities offerings to go out with
Page 135 1 Dean 2 numbers themselves were too negative to put 3 in the press release? 4 A. No. That is -- I don't have any 5 recollection as to that, to that effect. 6 Q. How about a discussion of, during 7 the all-hands call, as to whether the press 8 release should identify reasons for the 9 poor revenue performance? 10 A. I don't have a specific 11 recollection as to whether or not -- what 12 reasons, if any, would be stated in the 13 press release for the revenue shortfall. 14 Q. You didn't, for example, propose 15 that the press release state that this 16 shortfall resulted in part from 17 acceleration of sales into 1997? 18 A. I don't have any recollection of 19 that. 20 Q. You don't remember anyone 21 discussing whether the press release should 22 identify a reason for the shortfall? 23 A. I don't have any specific 24 recollection now. I would have six years 25 ago but I just don't now.	Page 137 1 Dean 2 an offering that is smaller than the one 3 you would like to achieve rather than going 4 out with the full size offering and then 5 failing to achieve that. 6 Q. The ability to increase the size 7 of the offering is contingent upon the 8 market's excitement about the offering? 9 A. Excitement? I don't know if 10 "excitement" is the right word. 11 Q. Debt offerings are almost never 12 exciting. 13 A. This was a convertible debt 14 offering. 15 Q. You can take the top down? 16 A. There is an equity component 17 associated with it. You clearly cannot 18 increase the size of an offering without 19 having investor demand for the securities. 20 Q. There was high demand for these? 21 A. There was demand for the 22 securities sufficient to allow Morgan 23 Stanley to raise the size of the offering. 24 Q. By 50 percent? 25 A. I don't know if 50 percent is the

Page 138 1 Dean 2 right number or not but to raise the 3 offering. 4 Q. By the way, did the amount of 5 money that Morgan Stanley would make on 6 this transaction depend on the size of the 7 debt offering? 8 A. The gross spread that they would 9 earn from doing an underwriting transaction 10 on the convertible bond would vary directly 11 with the size of the convertible debt 12 offering. 13 Q. The bigger the offering the more 14 money Morgan Stanley makes? 15 A. Yes. The percentage would be 16 fixed but -- since the spread is calculated 17 as a percentage of the offering size. 18 Q. Morgan Stanley also was leading a 19 bank facility in connection with financing 20 the acquisitions; is that correct? 21 A. Yes. There was a concurrent bank 22 financing that was going on. 23 Q. That was senior to the debt 24 offering you were working on? 25 A. I can't say for sure but I think	Page 140 1 Dean 2 To the extent that you increase 3 the amount that was raised by the 4 subordinated financing it reduces the 5 funding need from other sources and if the 6 other funding source was a bank loan, yes, 7 that is the case. 8 It is also the case that Sunbeam 9 would find the convertible financing more 10 attractive to itself because it was 11 subordinated financing and not subject to 12 the covenants that a senior facility would 13 provide. 14 Q. How did you learn that the size 15 of the debt offering, convertible debt 16 offering, would be increased? 17 A. I don't recall at this time. 18 Somebody at Morgan Stanley must have told 19 us or told somebody at Davis Polk who later 20 communicated it to me. 21 Q. That is a decision that Morgan 22 Stanley would make independent of your 23 counsel? 24 A. Yes. I don't think that we have 25 great insight into market demand for
Page 139 1 Dean 2 that was the case. 3 Q. So by increasing the size of the 4 debt offering Morgan Stanley also reduces 5 its exposure on its own loans to Sunbeam; 6 is that correct? 7 MR. CLARE: Object to the form of 8 the question. 9 THE WITNESS: I would say that 10 there was a specific dollar amount that 11 Sunbeam needed to raise in order to 12 consummate the acquisition 13 transactions. 14 How that money was raised and 15 divided up among the various pieces 16 really was a function of which piece, 17 the size of the individual pieces of 18 the debt offering and the bank loan. 19 BY MR. JOHNSON: 20 Q. So if the subordinated debt 21 offering were increased to $750 million, 22 doesn't that mean that the secured loan is 23 reduced by $250 million? 24 A. I think it is just a mathematical 25 calculation.	Page 141 1 Dean 2 securities. 3 Q. I will give what you has been 4 marked previously as Exhibit 14. 5 You got page 2 this time. 6 MR. CLARE: You know that is my 7 issue. It is about time. 8 MR. JOHNSON: That is all you 9 got. 10 BY MR. JOHNSON: 11 Q. Mr. Dean, is Exhibit 14 the March 12 19, 1998 Sunbeam press release we have been 13 speaking about? 14 A. Yes. It appears to be a copy of 15 the press release that was issued. 16 Q. This press release leaves open 17 the possibility that Sunbeam would still 18 meet the range of analyst estimates for the 19 first quarter of 1998; is that correct? 20 A. Let me read the release. 21 Q. Sure. 22 A. I think the release doesn't 23 really answer the question. I think the 24 release -- the words of the release say 25 that it may be lower than the range of Wall

Page 142 1 Dean 2 Street analyst estimates. 3 By its terms it leaves open the 4 possibility that they still may achieve it. 5 Q. It further says, "A shortfall 6 from estimates, if any, would be due to 7 changes in inventory management and order 8 patterns at certain of the companies major 9 retail customers." 10 Do you see that? 11 A. Yes, I do see those words. 12 Q. Did you have any discussion with 13 anyone from Sunbeam or Skadden concerning 14 this stated reason for the potential 15 shortfall from analyst estimates? 16 A. I don't recall now. I mean, we 17 must have had conversations at the time to 18 make ourselves comfortable that the press 19 release was consistent with what we had 20 been told by Sunbeam and what we could 21 confirm independently. 22 Q. Didn't Andersen say that the 23 sales decline was the result of 24 acceleration of sales into 1997? 25 A. Is that what was in -- I don't	Page 144 1 Dean 2 shortfall after the press release? 3 A. Well, it is -- I am aware of the 4 fact that there was information in the 5 Andersen comfort letter about a shortfall. 6 I am not aware of when during the 7 process I became aware of that, whether or 8 not that was in the context of the 9 all-hands meeting or not. I just don't 10 have a specific recollection. 11 Q. But it is your testimony that 12 even if you were aware of Andersen's stated 13 reason for the shortfall prior to the press 14 release you would still be comfortable with 15 the press release? 16 A. It depends on the Andersen 17 statements and whether or not they were 18 consistent with the -- with the substance 19 of the press release. 20 If they were consistent I would 21 have felt comfortable with it. 22 Q. I guess that is the question. Is 23 it your view that the Andersen statement 24 that we looked at is consistent with the 25 press release?
Page 143 1 Dean 2 remember whether or not that was in the 3 comfort letter, the final comfort letter 4 that was delivered. 5 If it was, I mean, that would be 6 consistent with the press release. 7 Q. It is your testimony that this 8 press release fairly discloses that the 9 reason for the shortfall in sales was 10 because Sunbeam accelerated sales into the 11 fourth quarter of 1997? 12 A. My testimony is that based on 13 what we knew at the time we felt 14 comfortable with the substance of the press 15 release. 16 I can't recall right now all of 17 the constellation of facts that we took 18 into account when we made that 19 determination but I would not have felt 20 comfortable proceeding with the offering 21 unless I felt that the disclosure in the 22 press release was consistent with what we 23 had learned. 24 Q. It is possible you may have 25 learned of Andersen's stated reason for the	Page 145 1 Dean 2 A. I don't know whether or not this 3 Andersen statement was one that we saw 4 prior to the issuance of the press release. 5 Q. I understand that. 6 A. So let me take a look at the 7 Andersen draft. 8 Q. Paragraph 6B, I believe; maybe 9 6C? 10 MR. WISE: 6B. 11 THE WITNESS: If the language in 12 paragraph 6B of Exhibit -- what exhibit 13 number is this? 14 BY MR. JOHNSON: 15 Q. 110. 16 A. 110, that statement appears to be 17 consistent with the disclosure that is in 18 the press release. 19 Q. You think it fairly discloses the 20 acceleration of sales into 1997? 21 A. I think that the disclosure is 22 consistent with the Andersen accounts. 23 I mean, there frequently -- there 24 can be variations between what is disclosed 25 and more detail.

Page 146 1 Dean 2 Q. It is consistent with -- the 3 statements are consistent with one another 4 is your testimony? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. You testified already that you 7 favored putting January and February sales 8 information in the press release? 9 A. Well, I -- what I did was I 10 suggested that as a course of action that 11 the group might consider. 12 I was not wedded to having the 13 January and February numbers being 14 disclosed. 15 Q. That information though would be 16 more specific and less subjective than the 17 information that ultimately ended up in the 18 press release concerning sales results? 19 A. It would -- if we had reported 20 January and February numbers, yes, that 21 would have been more specific. 22 Q. Would you agree that Andersen's 23 statement for the reason for the shortfall 24 is more specific than the statement that 25 ended up in the press release concerning	Page 148 1 Dean 2 does state that some of the revenues could 3 have been accelerated into 1997. 4 Q. The press release doesn't refer 5 in any way to 1997 results, correct? 6 MR. CLARE: Objection. That 7 misstates the document. 8 THE WITNESS: Could you repeat 9 the question? 10 BY MR. JOHNSON: 11 Q. Yes. 12 The press release doesn't 13 indicate in any way that sales were 14 accelerated into 19 -- the fourth quarter 15 of 1997, does it? 16 A. I think that it is -- what the 17 press release -- the language in the press 18 release could be construed to capture that, 19 the 1997 increases in sales under the words 20 due to changes in the inventory management 21 and order patterns. 22 It is not -- it is not specific 23 as to what happened in 1997. 24 Q. You are not suggesting, are you, 25 that that sentence would be sufficient to
Page 147 1 Dean 2 the reasons for the shortfall? 3 A. Yes. I would say there is more 4 detail in the Andersen sort of explanation 5 than what appeared in the press release. 6 Q. The press release obviously 7 doesn't call into question the quality of 8 Sunbeam's 1997 results, does it? 9 MR. WISE: Are you going to argue 10 with him about it? Is that a fact 11 question? 12 MR. JOHNSON: That was a 13 question. 14 MR. CLARE: I object to the 15 question on form and foundation. 16 MR. JOHNSON: Let me state it 17 slightly differently. 18 BY MR. JOHNSON: 19 Q. The Andersen draft, Exhibit 110, 20 has the potential to call into question the 21 quality of Sunbeam's 1997 results, doesn't 22 it? 23 A. I don't know what you mean by 24 "the quality of 1997 results." 25 I mean, it -- the Andersen letter	Page 149 1 Dean 2 put investors on notice that sales had been 3 accelerated into 1997? 4 MR. CLARE: Objection to the form 5 of the question. 6 THE WITNESS: I think that the 7 press release does not specifically 8 state that there was an early buy 9 program in effect for 1997 and it does 10 talk about inventory management and 11 ordering patterns at the major retail 12 customers which could encompass that 13 behavior. 14 BY MR. JOHNSON: 15 Q. You are not aware of any market 16 reaction or analyst reaction to the press 17 release that called into question the 18 validity of 1997 results, are you? 19 A. I am not aware of anything at 20 this time. 21 MR. JOHNSON: We will mark this 22 as CPH Exhibit 214. 23 (CPH Exhibit 214 marked for 24 identification) 25 BY MR. JOHNSON:

Page 150 1 Dean 2 Q. Mr. Dean, I have given you a 3 document we have marked as CPH1257359. 4 Can you identify that document 5 for us? 6 A. It appears to be a memorandum 7 prepared by Morgan Stanley from John Tyree 8 and Ben Derito to Bob Gluck, myself and Ben 9 Fernicola. 10 Q. Who is Ben Derito? 11 A. I don't know. I assume he was a 12 Morgan Stanley person, an employee of 13 Morgan Stanley at the time. 14 Q. How about the name at the bottom, 15 Shani Boone; do you know who that is? 16 A. She was also -- I forget what her 17 position was, whether or not she was also 18 an employee of Morgan Stanley at the time 19 of the Sunbeam transaction. 20 Q. This memo schedules a conference 21 call, a bring-down due diligence conference 22 call for March 19, 1998. 23 Do you see that? 24 A. I do. 25 Q. Did that call go forward?	Page 152 1 Dean 2 Q. Did anyone from Davis Polk? 3 A. Not that I am aware of. 4 Q. Do you have any knowledge as to 5 what happened at the road show? 6 A. No, I do not. 7 Q. Did you or anyone from Davis Polk 8 attend any road shows? 9 A. I did not attend any road shows. 10 I don't think anybody else from Davis Polk 11 did either. 12 Q. Did you ever hear what happened 13 at any of the road shows? 14 A. I don't remember hearing about 15 what happened at the road shows. 16 Q. Did you ever hear that Sunbeam 17 talked about the March 19 press release at 18 any of the road shows? 19 A. I don't remember whether or not 20 they -- I have no recollection as to 21 whether or not they did or not. 22 I assume they had to address it 23 after the press release was issued. 24 Q. Would it concern you if Sunbeam 25 downplayed the press release in any way?
Page 151 1 Dean 2 A. I don't have any recollection as 3 to whether or not it did or not. 4 Q. I ask because the Davis Polk 5 chronology, Exhibit 24, doesn't appear to 6 list that conference call if you look at 7 Exhibit 24. 8 A. My time records would not 9 necessarily have sufficient detail to 10 identify whether or not my time related to 11 a particular conference call or not. 12 Q. It is your testimony as I 13 understand it that as of the date of this 14 memo, March 17, 1998, you had no inkling 15 that there were any problems with Sunbeam's 16 first quarter 1998 results? 17 A. That's right. I mean, the first 18 inkling that I had was on March 18. 19 Q. That was the same day as the New 20 York road show for the debt offering? 21 A. I don't know when the New York 22 road show was. If it was on March 18, yes. 23 Q. Did you attend the New York road 24 show? 25 A. No, I did not.	Page 153 1 Dean 2 A. I think that the press release 3 speaks for itself. How Sunbeam responded 4 to it, I really can't sort of say what 5 would be in Sunbeam's minds. 6 Q. If you had heard that Sunbeam 7 said that they issued the press release 8 only because the lawyers made them do it, 9 would that give you any concern? 10 A. I think that the press release 11 speaks for itself and that the marketplace 12 would evaluate it on that basis and then 13 the marketplace could evaluate what Sunbeam 14 said at the same time. 15 Q. I take that as a no. 16 MR. WISE: No. You take that as 17 the answer that he gave. 18 You -- actually, you can take it 19 any way you want. I don't care how you 20 take it. His answer stands the way he 21 gave it. 22 BY MR. JOHNSON: 23 Q. Let me try it again slightly 24 differently and see if I can get a direct 25 answer.

Page 154 1 Dean 2 MR. WISE: I object to that. 3 You got a direct answer. You just 4 didn't like it. 5 MR. JOHNSON: He didn't like it. 6 MR. WISE: I said you got a 7 direct answer. You just didn't like 8 it. 9 BY MR. JOHNSON: 10 Q. Would you be concerned in any way 11 if you had learned that Sunbeam tried to 12 downplay the significance of the press 13 release after its issuance? 14 A. I would be concerned if Sunbeam 15 said something inconsistent with the press 16 release. 17 How Sunbeam decided how to 18 characterize the press release would be -- 19 I didn't represent Sunbeam so I don't know 20 how they were advised. 21 I think that the press release 22 that Sunbeam put out speaks for itself and 23 any comments that Sunbeam made in 24 connection with the press release would be 25 absorbed by the marketplace in whatever	Page 156 1 Dean 2 AFTERNOON SESSION 3 2:07 p.m. 4 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 5 2:07 p.m. and we are back on the video 6 record. 7 BY MR. JOHNSON: 8 Q. Mr. Dean, before lunch we were 9 talking about the press release and the 10 telephone conferences leading up to the 11 press release. Do you recall that 12 testimony? 13 A. Yes, I do. 14 Q. Did Davis Polk and Morgan 15 Stanley's diligence work continue after the 16 press release issued after March 19? 17 A. Yes, it did. 18 Q. I assume you had telephone 19 conferences with somebody in management in 20 connection with that due diligence? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Did you ask them how the first 23 quarter was progressing? 24 A. Yes, we did. 25 Q. Did you ask them how the first
Page 155 1 Dean 2 fashion the marketplace -- whatever weight 3 the marketplace wanted to put on it. 4 Q. Don't you as counsel to the 5 underwriter have concern with the candor of 6 issuer management? 7 A. Yes, we do. 8 MR. JOHNSON: Do you want to take 9 your lunch break? 10 MR. WISE: Sure. Let's do that. 11 THE WITNESS: If it is another 12 15, 20 minutes -- 13 MR. JOHNSON: It is not. I don't 14 think it is more than another 90 15 minutes or so but -- so you guys do 16 what you want to do. I do need to use 17 the restroom. 18 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 19 1:02 p.m. We are going off the video 20 record. 21 (Luncheon recess: 1:02 p.m.) 22 23 24 25	Page 157 1 Dean 2 half of 1998 was progressing? 3 A. I don't remember. That would 4 have been a natural question to ask. 5 Q. How about 1998 as a whole, did 6 you ask them how that was looking? 7 A. I don't recall whether or not 8 that was the subject of any of the 9 conversations. 10 Q. When you say that asking about 11 the first half of 1998 would be a natural 12 question what do you mean by that? 13 A. I think that in the -- at Sunbeam 14 generally there were Street estimates out 15 with respect to the full year or the first 16 half and that would have been a natural 17 series of questions to ask as well. 18 Q. Did you have any concern that 19 Sunbeam was stretching to make first 20 quarter numbers with the result that the 21 second quarter would be severely impacted? 22 A. I had -- I had no recollection as 23 to any specific conversations we had about 24 the second quarter and so I wouldn't have 25 any comment about whether or not they were

Page 158 1 Dean 2 trying to stretch -- whether or not they 3 would need to stretch to get the second 4 quarter results. 5 Q. I guess the question is a little 6 different. 7 Did you have any concern that the 8 push to make numbers in the first quarter 9 of 1998 would have a negative impact on 10 Sunbeam's performance in the second quarter 11 of 1998? 12 A. I don't recall any concern about 13 that. 14 Q. Let me show you what was marked 15 previously as Exhibit 35. Actually that is 16 Exhibit 33, believe it or not. That is a 17 poor copy. I will represent to you that is 18 33. 19 Exhibit 33 is a memo from John 20 Tyree and Johannes Groeller to you among 21 others; is that correct? 22 A. That is correct. 23 Q. I think Johannes Groeller will be 24 a new name for us today. 25 Who is Johannes Groeller?	Page 160 1 Dean 2 are -- these would be typical sort of areas 3 of review in the due diligence phone call. 4 Q. By "top and bottom line" that 5 refers to revenue and earnings? 6 A. Yes. Some sort of bottom line 7 would refer to some sort of earnings 8 measure. 9 Q. The third bullet refers to any 10 significant customer account, wins, losses. 11 During any of the conference 12 calls you had after the press release 13 issued do you recall any customer account 14 wins or losses identified by Sunbeam? 15 A. I don't recall any at this time. 16 Q. Do you recall that question being 17 discussed? 18 A. I don't recall it being discussed 19 and based on this memorandum it looks like 20 it was one of the issues that was discussed 21 and I would have been able to comment on it 22 closer to the 1998 time frame than now. 23 Q. Now you just don't remember? 24 A. I just don't remember now. 25 Q. The sixth bullet point states,
Page 159 1 Dean 2 A. Since this is a Morgan Stanley 3 memorandum I assume that Johannes Groeller 4 is another employee of Morgan Stanley who 5 worked on the financing team. 6 Q. I take it from your answer though 7 you don't recall ever dealing with him? 8 A. I don't remember dealing with 9 him. 10 Q. This memo is dated March 19, the 11 same day as the press release, do you see 12 that? 13 A. I do see that. 14 Q. That is also the day of the 15 pricing of the debt offering, isn't it? 16 A. Yes, it is. 17 Q. The first agenda item provides 18 top and bottom line outlook for first 19 quarter first half of the year, do you see 20 that? 21 A. I do see that. 22 Q. Do you recall any conversation on 23 that topic during this telephone call? 24 A. I don't have any recollection now 25 since the events were six years ago. These	Page 161 1 Dean 2 "Are the expected synergy estimates for the 3 three acquisitions still up to date." 4 What does that refer to? 5 A. Well, I can't read into the minds 6 of the person who wrote this memorandum but 7 what I would interpret that question to 8 revolve around is whether or not the -- 9 after the closing of the acquisitions 10 whether or not there would be any 11 efficiencies realized by eliminating some 12 of the duplicative functions. 13 Q. Did you or anyone at Davis Polk 14 do any analysis of synergies to be achieved 15 from the acquisitions? 16 A. It would not have been our role 17 to do a financial analysis into a 18 synergy -- into a synergy analysis. In the 19 course of the offering we might well have 20 reviewed the pro forma financial 21 statements. 22 Q. Did you, in fact, review the pro 23 forma financial statements? 24 A. I can't -- I am sure that I did 25 because it would be part of a normal sort

Page 162 1 Dean 2 of process of preparing the offering 3 memorandum but I can't -- I can't say that 4 I remember positively doing it. 5 Q. Can you recall any revisions to 6 the pro formas during the course of March 7 of 1998? 8 A. I don't recall any revisions. 9 There might have been some. 10 Q. The phrase "the expected synergy 11 estimates," who had made synergy estimates 12 on this transaction? 13 A. I don't know who made the synergy 14 estimates. Typically the acquirer, 15 Sunbeam, would have synergy estimates 16 prepared in order to evaluate the financial 17 aspects of the acquisition transaction. 18 Q. Let me give you what we marked 19 previously as Exhibit 111. 20 Mr. Dean, Exhibit CPH111 is 21 another draft of the comfort letter. This 22 draft has a fax header From Global 23 Financial Press New York at about 11:48 in 24 the evening of March 19. Do you see that? 25 A. I do see that.	Page 164 1 Dean 2 second or you don't recall? 3 A. I attended the first. 4 Q. The first session, that was not 5 the session on March 19; is that correct? 6 A. That's correct. The first 7 session would have been to prepare the 8 preliminary prospectus. 9 Q. Who was at the first session? 10 A. From Davis Polk? 11 Q. I want to know everyone who was 12 at the first session. 13 A. Again, since the events were six 14 years ago I will try to remember as many as 15 I can but I may not get them all. 16 I attended that meeting from 17 Davis Polk. Heather Stack also attended 18 that meeting. 19 I know that Jim Lurie from Davis 20 Polk did not attend that meeting because we 21 decided to split up attendance at the 22 printing sessions. 23 There was a representative of 24 Skadden, Arps there. I can't recall who it 25 was.
Page 163 1 Dean 2 Q. Did you receive this draft? 3 A. I don't recall at this time 4 whether or not I have seen -- whether or 5 not I saw the draft. 6 Q. What is Global Financial Press? 7 A. Global Financial Press is a 8 financial printing firm. 9 Q. Located here in New York? 10 A. Located in New York City. 11 Q. Have you ever been to Global 12 Financial Press? 13 A. Yes, I have. 14 Q. Did you go to Global Financial 15 Press in connection with the Sunbeam 16 transaction? 17 A. I did go at least once to Global 18 Financial Press in connection with Sunbeam. 19 Q. Do you know on how many different 20 occasions Davis Polk lawyers attended 21 drafting sessions at Global Financial 22 Press? 23 A. I believe we attended drafting 24 sessions twice at Global Financial Press. 25 Q. Did you attend the first or the	Page 165 1 Dean 2 I don't remember whether or not 3 any Sunbeam personnel came up for the 4 meeting. There may have been an Arthur 5 Andersen representative there but I can't 6 recall for sure. That would have been 7 Mr. Bornstein who we talked about earlier 8 today. 9 Q. Right. 10 Other than Mr. Bornstein did you 11 ever deal with anyone else from Andersen in 12 connection with the Sunbeam transaction? 13 A. I don't recall whether or not I 14 did or not. There may have been conference 15 calls I participated in but Mr. Bornstein 16 is the only one that I have a definitive 17 recollection of today. 18 Q. Can you visualize Mr. Bornstein? 19 A. No. I don't think so. There 20 have been many accountants since 21 Mr. Bornstein. 22 Q. They all seem to run together. 23 The CPH Exhibit 111 differs from 24 the earlier comfort letter draft that we 25 looked at in several respects. One is the

Page 166 1 Dean 2 addition of paragraph 6C on page 5. 3 A. Yes, I see paragraph 6C. 4 Q. This draft was circulated 5 apparently after the press release issued? 6 A. It appears to have -- it appears 7 to have been faxed after the press release 8 was issued. 9 I don't know who it was faxed to. 10 It appears to have been faxed from the 11 printer. 12 Q. Do you know whether Morgan 13 Stanley saw this draft? 14 A. I don't know whether or not 15 Morgan Stanley saw it or not. It would be 16 our normal practice at Davis Polk if we had 17 received a copy of this to forward it on to 18 Morgan Stanley. 19 Q. Did Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley 20 receive any information after the press 21 release was issued that they thought needed 22 to be enclosed in the offering memorandum? 23 A. Not that I am aware of. 24 Q. Did you have any discussions with 25 any Davis Polk personnel the night of March	Page 168 1 Dean 2 what happened at the printer. 3 He could have well reviewed what 4 happened at the printer but I don't have 5 any specific memory of that. 6 Q. He didn't convey to you any 7 disagreements or heated discussions that 8 occurred at the printer? 9 A. I don't recall. Nothing that I 10 recall at this time. 11 Q. You don't recall Mr. Lurie 12 telling you that Mr. Bornstein said that 13 everybody in the room would get sued if 14 Sunbeam didn't beat the first quarter 1997 15 number? 16 A. No. I don't recall that having 17 been said. 18 Q. Did Mr. Lurie tell you that 19 Mr. Bornstein advised skepticism as to 20 Sunbeam's ability to beat the first quarter 21 1997 number? 22 A. I don't recall such a 23 conversation. Having said that, this was 24 six years ago. 25 Q. Did you have any discussion with
Page 167 1 Dean 2 19? 3 A. I don't recall. I probably did. 4 Q. Who from Davis Polk was at the 5 printer on March 19? 6 A. Jim Lurie was at the printer and 7 I don't know whether or not Heather Stack 8 went to the printer that evening or not. 9 Q. Do you recall any discussion with 10 Mr. Lurie calling you either at the office 11 or at home from the printer? 12 A. I don't remember a phone call. 13 He very well could have made a phone call 14 to me in the course of the transaction. 15 Q. Nothing stands out to you today 16 as a phone call occurring from the printer? 17 A. I don't recall a phone call at 18 this time but again it was six years ago. 19 Lots of phone calls from the printer since 20 then. 21 Q. Did you ever talk to Mr. Lurie or 22 anyone else about what happened at the 23 printer? 24 A. I don't remember any specifics -- 25 specific conversation with Mr. Lurie about	Page 169 1 Dean 2 anyone from Skadden or Sunbeam as to 3 whether the full text of the press release 4 should be contained in the recent 5 developments section of the offering 6 memorandum? 7 A. Yes, we did have discussions with 8 Skadden about whether or not the substance 9 of the press release should be in the 10 offering memorandum. 11 Q. What was Skadden's position on 12 that? 13 A. I don't remember what Skadden's 14 position on it was. 15 Our position was that it should 16 be in the document. 17 Q. Was there any discussion about 18 changing the substance of the press 19 release? 20 A. I don't recall any discussion 21 about that, that I was involved in. 22 Q. This has been marked previously 23 as Exhibit 17. 24 Mr. Dean, Exhibit 17 is a letter 25 from Arthur Andersen to Morgan Stanley

Page 174 1 Dean 2 transaction. 3 Q. If you look back at Exhibit 33 4 that we looked at which was also a bring 5 down due diligence agenda, Exhibit 33 6 refers to results for the first quarter, 7 the first half and the year whereas Exhibit 8 34 refers only to the first quarter 9 revenues and earnings. 10 Do you know why that is? 11 A. No, I don't, but we could well 12 have covered the first half of the year in 13 the conference call. 14 Q. Do you have any recollection of 15 doing that? 16 A. I don't have any recollection 17 now. I would have back then. It strikes 18 me as it is a standard thing that would 19 have been done. 20 Q. You have no idea why the agenda 21 that is Exhibit 34 doesn't refer to the 22 first half of 1998? 23 A. No. 24 Q. This has been marked previously 25 as Exhibit 35.	Page 176 1 Dean 2 quarter? 3 A. No, they did not. I can't -- 4 that is something that I would have 5 remembered. 6 Q. Why do you say that? 7 A. Because Sunbeam had been 8 projected to earn money during the first 9 quarter. 10 Q. You would have been surprised by 11 a loss as of that point in the quarter? 12 A. Yes, I would have been surprised. 13 It would have been inconsistent with the 14 information that we just received on the 15 18th. 16 Q. You think on the 23rd they were 17 telling you that they were going to show a 18 profit for the quarter? 19 A. Well, I can't recall at this 20 time, six years down the road but that must 21 have been what they said, otherwise, we 22 would not have felt comfortable closing the 23 transaction given the disclosure that was 24 in the marketplace. 25 Q. I will show you what has been
Page 175 1 Dean 2 Exhibit 35 appears to be another 3 due diligence agenda from a slightly 4 different set of authors and slightly 5 different set of recipients although you 6 are a recipient on Exhibit 35 as well. 7 A. Yes, I see that. 8 Q. Exhibit 35 is a March 23, 1998 9 memo. Do you see that? 10 A. I do see that. 11 Q. Like Exhibit 34, Exhibit 35 12 refers to the first quarter revenues and 13 earnings but not the first half of 1998 14 results. Do you see that? 15 A. Yes, I do see that. 16 Q. What was -- on March 23, what was 17 Sunbeam saying about its first quarter 18 earnings and -- revenue and earnings? 19 A. I don't have a specific 20 recollection as to what they said. I am 21 sure that they confirmed the matters that 22 they had assured us would occur in the 23 March 18 bring down phone call. 24 Q. Did they tell you that as of 25 March 23 Sunbeam was showing a loss for the	Page 177 1 Dean 2 marked previously as Exhibit 112. 3 Can you identify Exhibit 112 for 4 the record, Mr. Dean? 5 A. Exhibit 112 appears to be a bring 6 down comfort letter delivered at the 7 closing of the subordinated debt offering 8 reconfirming the matters in the comfort 9 letter, earlier comfort letter delivered on 10 the pricing date of the offering. 11 Q. The bring down letter includes, 12 doesn't it, a paragraph -- at paragraph E a 13 revision to the sales and income statement 14 set forth in the March 19 comfort letter? 15 A. I would have to see where -- 16 which revision are you referring to? 17 Q. The bring down comfort letter has 18 sales and income figures through March 1 19 whereas the comfort letter had sales and 20 incomes through February 1 and sales 21 through March 1? 22 A. Could you repeat that? I will 23 sort of double-check. 24 Q. I am not trying to be tricky 25 here.

Page 178 1 Dean 2 A. I understand. 3 Q. I want to highlight a comparison. 4 A. I haven't looked at these 5 documents in a while. So -- 6 Q. Sure. 7 Exhibit 17 which is the March 19 8 comfort letter -- 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. -- at paragraph 5B includes a 11 table for sales and income through February 12 1, 1998? 13 A. Right. 14 Q. The bring down letter includes at 15 paragraph E an update on that table through 16 March 1? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. It shows through March 1 a loss 19 of $41 million for Sunbeam, do you see 20 that? 21 A. I do see that. 22 Q. Did Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley 23 do anything in reaction to that 24 information? 25 A. I don't remember doing anything	Page 180 1 Dean 2 quarter of 1998? 3 A. That is my recollection. This 4 comfort letter also -- this bring down 5 comfort letter also tries to explain the 6 magnitude of the $41 million loss by saying 7 there was a one time $30.2 million item. 8 Q. Excluding that, it is a little 9 over a $11 million shortfall? 10 A. Right. Just taking a look at the 11 sales, shortfalls, it would not be -- it 12 wouldn't be -- it would not have been 13 surprising to see a loss for the first two 14 months. 15 Q. Sales were running about half of 16 the prior year period? 17 A. Right. 18 Q. The bring down comfort letter is 19 delivered in connection with the closing of 20 the debt offering; is that correct? 21 A. That's correct. 22 Q. After the debt offering closed, 23 what, if anything, did you do in connection 24 with the Sunbeam transaction? 25 A. Probably filed my documents away
Page 179 1 Dean 2 in reaction to that information. 3 It would have been -- I just 4 don't have any recollection at this time. 5 It may have been consistent with the sales 6 shortfall relative to the prior year 7 period. 8 Q. Did you ask what earnings looked 9 like as of March 25 as opposed to as of 10 March 1? 11 A. I don't recall whether or not we 12 would have. It would not be a question 13 that we would address to Arthur Andersen if 14 the cutoff of this letter was March 1. 15 Q. Did you ask Sunbeam? 16 A. We may -- we may well have asked 17 Sunbeam that question. I assume we did ask 18 Sunbeam that question. 19 Q. But you can't recall who asked 20 whom? 21 A. No, I can't recall who asked 22 whom. 23 Q. Your testimony is that as of late 24 March the Street was still expecting 25 Sunbeam to show a profit for the first	Page 181 1 Dean 2 and I don't think that I paid -- I didn't 3 do any substantive work on Sunbeam 4 immediately after the closing. 5 Q. Did you track the company in any 6 way or keep an eye out for Sunbeam news? 7 A. I don't remember doing that. I 8 may have at the time. I don't recall at 9 this time whether or not I did or not. 10 Q. I believe you testified already 11 today that you recall an early April press 12 release with the actual first quarter 1998 13 results? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Did you get that on or about the 16 time that it was issued? 17 A. Yes, I did. 18 Q. If I can find my copy of it. 19 This has been marked as Exhibit 36 20 previously. 21 How did you -- let me -- I will 22 identify it for the record. 23 Exhibit 36 is the April 3, it 24 says, 1997 but it is in fact a 1998, press 25 release.

Page 182 1 Dean 2 It also has a fax cover sheet 3 from David Fannin to four Morgan Stanley 4 personnel and two Skadden personnel. 5 A. Yes, I see that. 6 Q. How did you come to see the April 7 3 press release? 8 A. I can't recall how I got a copy 9 of this press release, whether or not 10 Morgan Stanley gave it to me or who 11 notified me about it. 12 Q. Did you talk to anyone with 13 Morgan Stanley about the substance of the 14 press release? 15 A. After the press release was 16 issued? I don't recall any specific 17 conversations now. 18 I must have had conversations 19 with personnel from Morgan Stanley about 20 it. 21 Q. How about before the press 22 release was issued did you know this press 23 release was coming out? 24 A. No, I did not. 25 Q. Did you know that Sunbeam would	Page 184 1 Dean 2 about what happened to Sunbeam after this 3 press release was issued. 4 Q. Let's mark this as 215. 5 (CPH Exhibit 215 marked for 6 identification) 7 BY MR. JOHNSON: 8 Q. Mr. Dean, what is Exhibit 215? 9 A. Exhibit 215 appears to be a fax 10 cover sheet to Donald Uzzi from me 11 attaching -- faxing a copy of a lockup 12 agreement that Mr. Uzzi signed in 13 connection with the offering. 14 Q. The fax cover sheet is dated 15 April 2, 1998, 7:00 p.m. 16 A. Yes, it is. 17 Q. The lockup agreement restricts 18 Mr. Uzzi's ability to sell Sunbeam's 19 securities? 20 A. Yes, it does. 21 Q. Did you have any concerns about 22 Mr. Uzzi's request for a copy of his lockup 23 agreement on April 2? 24 A. I don't recall any concerns at 25 the time. I don't even recall sending this
Page 183 1 Dean 2 issue a press release with its first 3 quarter results in it? 4 A. Sunbeam would be required to 5 issue a release with its first quarter 6 results in it. 7 I wasn't aware of what the timing 8 of that would be. 9 Q. That is what I am getting at. 10 Did you have any reaction to the 11 press release? 12 A. I was surprised when I saw the 13 press release. 14 Q. Did you -- I take it then you 15 didn't have an opportunity to review or 16 comment on the April 3 press release? 17 A. No, I did not. 18 Q. Did you call anyone at Skadden 19 concerning this press release? 20 A. I don't remember whether or not I 21 did or not. 22 Q. Did you continue to follow 23 Sunbeam after the April 3 press release? 24 A. I don't recall now whether or not 25 I did. I know that I read press reports	Page 185 1 Dean 2 fax out. 3 Q. Did you have any conversations 4 with anyone in connection with sending this 5 out? 6 A. Well, the fax cover sheet 7 suggests that I must have had conversations 8 with John Tyree because it is at his 9 request that I was faxing Mr. Uzzi a copy 10 of the lockup agreement. 11 Q. Other than what is on the face of 12 the fax cover sheet you don't have any 13 memory of talking to John Tyree? 14 A. I don't have any specific 15 recollection of it, no. Again, it was six 16 years ago. Many phone calls since then. 17 Q. This is the day before Mr. Uzzi 18 is terminated as well; is that correct? 19 A. I am not aware of the date that 20 Mr. Uzzi was terminated. 21 Q. I want to change gears just 22 slightly and talk for a few moments about 23 the purchase agreement between Morgan 24 Stanley and Sunbeam. 25 I believe you have already

Page 186 1 Dean 2 testified today that Davis Polk counseled 3 Morgan Stanley in connection with the 4 negotiation and drafting of that agreement? 5 A. Yes, we did. 6 Q. Do you remember as you sit here 7 the negotiation points that were in dispute 8 with Sunbeam or Skadden, Arps? 9 A. Sitting here I don't remember, 10 nor do I recall any specific negotiations 11 that I may have participated in in 12 connection with the purchase agreement. 13 Q. Let me see if I can refresh your 14 memory a little bit. 15 This would be 216. 16 (CPH Exhibit 216 marked for 17 identification) 18 BY MR. JOHNSON: 19 Q. Mr. Dean, I recognize I have 20 given you a fairly voluminous exhibit. I 21 will call your attention just to one 22 provision in particular but feel free to 23 look at any of the document. 24 As an initial matter, can you 25 identify for the record what we have marked	Page 188 1 Dean 2 Skadden articulate why that change was 3 desired? 4 A. I don't remember negotiating this 5 point. This is a standard comment that is 6 received in negotiating purchase 7 agreements. 8 Q. Sorry. You say it is a standard 9 comment? 10 A. It is a standard comment that an 11 issuer's counsel would raise in connection 12 with negotiating a purchase agreement, 13 crossing out the words or any development 14 involving a prospective material adverse 15 change. 16 Q. Did that proposed revision give 17 you any concerns? 18 A. Well, I don't know if I -- I was 19 copied on this memorandum. I don't know if 20 I reviewed this specifically. 21 I can't recall at the time 22 whether or not it would have raised any 23 concern today looking at it again in the 24 context of standard practices and 25 negotiating purchase agreements, an issuer
Page 187 1 Dean 2 as CPH Exhibit 216? 3 A. Yes, it appears to be a 4 memorandum from Skadden, Arps to Davis Polk 5 and to John Tyree at Morgan Stanley 6 attaching comments on a draft of the 7 purchase agreement. 8 Q. These would be Sunbeam's comments 9 on the draft purchase agreement? 10 A. Yes, Sunbeam's comments and 11 Skadden's comments. 12 Q. Looking at page 4 of the draft 13 which has the Bates stamp CPH0632913 -- 14 A. It is the page that has page 4 on 15 it? 16 Q. Correct. 17 A. 7729, the Skadden, Arps Bates 18 stamping? 19 Q. That is exactly right. 20 Paragraph L has a proposed 21 revision that I want to ask you about. If 22 you would read that for me? 23 A. Yes, I can see the proposed 24 revision. 25 Q. Did Sunbeam articulate or did	Page 189 1 Dean 2 requesting this change, this would not set 3 off any concern on my part. 4 Q. If this deal were to close -- 5 strike that. 6 Were there any discussions with 7 Skadden or Sunbeam concerning whether 8 Sunbeam's deteriorating financial condition 9 in the first quarter of 1998 constituted a 10 material adverse change? 11 A. The condition in the underwriting 12 contract would have been a condition that 13 applied after the underwriting agreement 14 was signed and before the transaction 15 closed and typically this kind of 16 representation has an exception for 17 disclosures made in the final offering 18 memorandum. 19 Q. The final offering memorandum 20 does not disclose that Sunbeam would likely 21 show a loss for the first quarter of 1998? 22 A. The Sunbeam offering -- the final 23 Sunbeam offering memorandum did not 24 disclose that there might be a loss. 25 MR. JOHNSON: Why don't we change

Page 190 1 Dean 2 the tape? 3 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 4 2:53 p.m. and this completes tape 5 number two. 6 (Pause) 7 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 8 2:55 p.m. and this begins tape number 9 three. 10 BY MR. JOHNSON: 11 Q. Mr. Dean, I am going to show you 12 another draft of the purchase agreement if 13 I can. This was marked previously as CPH 14 Exhibit 211. 15 Exhibit 211 includes a fax cover 16 sheet from Nicole Duncan to Lurie, Stack 17 and Dietz at Global Financial Press. 18 Then behind the fax cover sheet 19 is a memorandum on which you are copied 20 with an attachment which includes a draft 21 of the purchase agreement. 22 Do you see that? 23 A. I do see that. 24 Q. Do you recall reviewing this 25 draft?	Page 192 1 Dean 2 release that was issued that contained 3 additional information and Sunbeam wanted 4 to make it clear that the material adverse 5 change condition did not apply to the 6 disclosures that had already been made and 7 had been absorbed by the marketplace and 8 there may have been an argument that could 9 have been made that that disclosure could 10 have constituted a material adverse change. 11 Q. The phrase that is proposed says, 12 "The press release shall not in and of 13 itself constitute a material adverse change 14 or prospective material adverse change." 15 Do you know why that phrasing is 16 used? 17 A. No. I have no insight to add on 18 that. 19 Q. Did you ever hear from any source 20 that Arthur Andersen sent personnel to 21 monitor Sunbeam's shipping docks at the end 22 of the first quarter of 1998? 23 A. I am not aware of that. 24 Q. Other than having to give a 25 deposition in this matter do you have any
Page 191 1 Dean 2 A. I don't recall at this time 3 whether or not I reviewed this draft or 4 not. 5 Q. I want to call your attention 6 again to paragraph L. That would be 1L. 7 A. Is that the page that is 8 identified 019? 9 Q. Correct. On the CPH Bates stamp 10 it is 633019. 11 A. Yes, I see that. 12 Q. Do you see the proposed revisions 13 there? 14 A. I see a -- an L and addition at 15 the end of the paragraph. 16 Q. How did that proposed revision 17 come to be? 18 A. I can't say with accuracy why. 19 It occurred back six years ago. 20 Looking at it now it is clearly 21 understandable why that was put in. It is 22 because this material adverse change clause 23 applied to the disclosures that were in the 24 preliminary memorandum. 25 There was a subsequent press	Page 193 1 Dean 2 regrets concerning the Sunbeam transaction? 3 MR. CLARE: I object to the form 4 of the question. 5 THE WITNESS: I have no regrets 6 about the Sunbeam transaction. 7 BY MR. JOHNSON: 8 Q. You do feel that Sunbeam lied to 9 you? 10 A. We -- Sunbeam -- the document, 11 with the benefit of hindsight, I don't 12 know -- I can't say what was in the minds 13 of the Sunbeam people once -- when they 14 disclosed what they disclosed to us on the 15 eve of the offering. 16 I don't know, I can't say whether 17 or not they in good conscience really 18 believed and we were convinced that they 19 were going to make the numbers. 20 Q. Do you wish that Morgan Stanley 21 or Davis Polk had done more to verify the 22 assurances that Sunbeam management gave 23 you? 24 A. No. I think we did what was 25 reasonable at the time and that in our

Page 194 1 Dean 2 professional judgment that enabled us -- 3 enabled Davis Polk to render an opinion 4 that there were no material misstatements 5 or omissions based on our investigation at 6 the time. 7 Q. That investigation consisted of 8 one or more telephone conferences with 9 Sunbeam management? 10 A. The investigations included those 11 conference calls. I can't recall all of 12 the other things that Davis Polk or Morgan 13 Stanley may have done. 14 Q. Again, focusing specifically on 15 the representations made to you on March 18 16 by Sunbeam management, what else did Morgan 17 Stanley or Davis Polk do to confirm the 18 accuracy of the assurances that Sunbeam 19 management gave? 20 A. We -- apart from the conference 21 calls? 22 Q. Correct. 23 A. Page 6 1 2 MR. BRODY: Good morning. 3 Michael Brody, for Coleman (Parent) 4 Holdings and MacAndrews & Forbes 5 Holdings, Inc. 6 MR. CLARE: Good morning. 7 Thomas Clare, Kirkland & Ellis LLP, 8 here for Morgan Stanley & Company, 9 Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, and 10 also appearing on behalf of the 11 witness, Heather Stack. 12 MR. WISE: I am Bob Wise, of 13 Davis Polk & Wardwell, representing 14 Ms. Stack in her individual capacity. 15 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: 16 Will the court reporter please swear 17 in the witness. 18 HEATHER M. STACK , 19 business address at Goldman, Sachs 20 & Co., 85 Broad Street, New York, 21 New York 10004, having been first 22 duly sworn by the Notary Public, 23 (Wendy D. Boskind), was examined 24 and testified as follows: 25	Page 8 1 Stack 2 of your ability. If at any time you don't 3 understand my questions, let me know and I 4 will try to clarify them. If you need to 5 take a break, also let us know and we will 6 find a convenient time to do that. And 7 for the benefit of the court reporter, 8 (indicating the court reporter), you and I 9 have to try hard not to step on each 10 other's questions and answers. So I will 11 try not to interrupt you and you try not 12 to interrupt me. 13 Are those all acceptable? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Thank you. I take it you have 16 never been deposed before? 17 A. No, I haven't. 18 Q. Have you ever provided any 19 testimony under oath in any context? 20 A. Actually, when I was 12 years 21 old I did once, (smiling). It's been a 22 long time. 23 Q. I take it it did not involve 24 Morgan Stanley, Davis Polk, or the 25 practice of law.
Page 7 1 Stack 2 EXAMINATION BY 3 MR. BRODY: 4 Q. Good morning, Ms. Stack. 5 Will you please state your name 6 and spell your last name for the court 7 reporter? 8 A. Heather Stack, S-T-A-C-K. 9 Q. Ms. Stack, have you gone by any 10 other names? 11 A. No. 12 Q. I understand you are a 13 practicing attorney? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. Does your practice involve the 16 litigation of cases? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Have you ever participated in a 19 deposition, like we are doing today, 20 before? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Well, I assume your counsel told 23 you about it, but during this session I 24 will be asking questions, and it's your 25 responsibility to answer them to the best	Page 9 1 Stack 2 A. No. 3 (Laughter.) 4 Q. Well, then, I won't ask you 5 about it. I once had a witness who was 6 asked to explain that, and he explained 7 how he found a dead body in the woods, and 8 the deposition got off to a bad start. 9 Okay, we won't go there. 10 Ms. Stack, have you provided any 11 documents to your attorneys in connection 12 with this case? 13 A. No, I haven't. 14 Q. I take it you are no longer with 15 Davis Polk? 16 A. No. 17 Q. At the time you left Davis Polk, 18 did you take any or retain any documents 19 relating to your employment there? 20 A. I may have kept some closing 21 sets from some transactions that I worked 22 on, but.... 23 Q. Do you recall retaining any 24 documents relating to Davis Polk's 25 representation of Morgan Stanley in

Page 10 1 Stack 2 connection with the Sunbeam transactions? 3 A. No. 4 Q. Do you remember retaining any 5 documents relating to how to conduct due 6 diligence or how to conduct -- how a 7 lawyer is to conduct an offering? 8 A. Um -- I may have kept some 9 training materials like that. 10 Q. Training materials from Davis 11 Polk? 12 A. Yes, yes. 13 Q. So we don't get bogged down in 14 abbreviations, I represent Coleman 15 (Parent) Holdings. 16 Are you familiar with that 17 company? 18 A. Sure, yeah. 19 Q. If I were to refer to them as 20 "CPH", would that be acceptable? 21 A. That's fine. 22 Q. I also represent MacAndrews & 23 Forbes Holdings, Inc. If I refer to them 24 as "MAFCO", would that be an 25 understandable abbreviation?	Page 12 1 Stack 2 Q. Are you paying for his services? 3 A. No, I am not. 4 Q. When did you retain, to your 5 knowledge, Mr. Wise in connection with 6 this deposition? 7 A. Um -- a few months ago, I was 8 contacted by Mr. Wise to tell me that this 9 may happen and, so, around that time. 10 Q. And since that time you have 11 been working with him. 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. Have you spoken with any other 14 lawyers in Mr. Clare's firm, Kirkland & 15 Ellis, about this case? 16 A. I don't think so. 17 We had a call, a few months ago, 18 where there were -- where Mr. Clare was 19 on, and Mr. Wise was on and I was on, and 20 there may have been other lawyers on the 21 phone, but I don't remember. 22 Q. What was the subject matter of 23 that call? 24 A. We discussed what I remembered 25 from this situation.
Page 11 1 Stack 2 A. Sure. 3 Q. Ms. Stack, you are represented 4 by both these counsel today? 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. When did you first retain 7 Mr. Clare as one of your counsel? 8 A. Yesterday. 9 Q. Who is paying for Mr. Clare's 10 services on your behalf today? 11 MR. CLARE: Objection, calls for 12 speculation. 13 You can answer. 14 THE WITNESS: Oh, okay, yeah. 15 A. Actually, I assume Morgan 16 Stanley is but I don't know the answer to 17 that. 18 Q. You are not? 19 A. No, I am not, sorry, I am not. 20 Q. And Mr. Wise is here also on 21 your behalf? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. And he is with your former law 24 firm? 25 A. Yes.	Page 13 1 Stack 2 Q. Do you remember what Mr. Clare 3 or Mr. Wise asked you? 4 MR. WISE: I am going to object 5 to that. I think the substance of 6 the conversation goes to a 7 conversation that we would claim is 8 privileged under a joint-interest 9 privilege, since Davis Polk at the 10 time represented Morgan Stanley, I 11 understand Mr. Clare represents 12 Morgan Stanley, so we would object to 13 the substance of the conversation. 14 MR. CLARE: Morgan Stanley joins 15 in that objection. 16 MR. BRODY: Is that an 17 instruction? 18 MR. WISE: Yes. 19 MR. BRODY: Just so we can make 20 this move along, I don't have to ask 21 her if she's going to follow your 22 instruction in each instance? 23 MR. WISE: You can ask her, but 24 I think -- 25 A. I am going to follow.

Page 14 1 Stack 2 MR. WISE: -- she's going to 3 follow each instruction. 4 MR. BRODY: And that dispenses 5 with the need to keep asking that 6 litany? 7 MR. WISE: That's correct. 8 Q. The call that you said was a few 9 months ago, about how long did it take? 10 A. Maybe 25 minutes, 30 minutes. 11 Q. Before that call, did you review 12 any materials, any documents, to refresh 13 your recollection? 14 A. No. 15 Q. After that call, did you review 16 any documents about this case that 17 refreshed your recollection? 18 A. Not until yesterday, when I saw 19 a few documents. 20 Q. We will get to that in a moment. 21 Aside from that call with 22 Mr. Clare and others, a few months ago, 23 until yesterday, did you have any other 24 communications with Mr. Clare or attorneys 25 in his office?	Page 16 1 Stack 2 Mr. Clare and Mr. Wise, have you had any 3 contacts with attorneys for Morgan Stanley 4 who may work in-house for Morgan Stanley? 5 A. Actually, I think that there was 6 one guy on the call that we had a few 7 months back, and I don't remember his 8 name, Jim something. 9 Q. Mr. Doyle? 10 A. Yes, that's the right name. 11 Q. Aside from that conversation 12 with Mr. Doyle, have you had any other 13 communications with in-house Morgan 14 Stanley lawyers? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Ms. Stack, what did you do to 17 prepare for today's deposition? 18 A. I came here yesterday afternoon 19 and (indicating) met with Mr. Clare and 20 Mr. Wise, and we talked a little bit about 21 what today would be like, and I looked at 22 a few documents relating to the 23 transaction. 24 Q. The meeting was here at Davis 25 Polk?
Page 15 1 Stack 2 A. No. 3 Q. You may have answered this, but 4 was it your conversation with Mr. Wise a 5 few months ago that you learned that your 6 deposition was being sought in this case? 7 A. I think we thought that we might 8 need to -- I might need to give a 9 deposition, so it was sort of the first 10 time I heard of it, and I guess then maybe 11 a month ago I heard that it was -- that 12 you-all were seeking to do the deposition. 13 Q. Prior to the first conversation 14 a few months ago with Mr. Wise, were you 15 aware of this lawsuit between Coleman 16 (Parent) and Morgan Stanley? 17 A. I wasn't aware of this specific 18 lawsuit. I knew there had been issues 19 with Sunbeam and had read things in the 20 newspaper about it. 21 Q. In the prior Sunbeam litigation, 22 were you ever interviewed or asked for 23 information about your work on the matter? 24 A. No, hmm-mm. 25 Q. Aside from contacts with	Page 17 1 Stack 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. How long did it take for the 4 meeting to end? 5 A. About three hours, I think. 6 Q. Do you know of anyone who 7 participated in person, besides Mr. Clare 8 and Mr. Wise? 9 A. Billy Frendrich, who is an 10 associate here, was also there. 11 Q. Is that Mr. or Ms. Frendrich? 12 A. Mr. 13 Q. Do you know if Mr. Frendrich had 14 any involvement in the underlying 15 transaction? 16 A. No, he did not. 17 Q. During that conversation 18 yesterday, did others participate by 19 telephone? 20 A. No. 21 Q. I believe you testified earlier 22 that you reviewed some documents 23 yesterday? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Did you review any documents

HEATHER M. STACK, MAY 25, 2004
CONFIDENTIAL

Page 18 1 Stack 2 that refreshed your recollection about 3 events in this matter? 4 A. Yeah, a couple of them. A few 5 of them I looked at and probably had 6 looked at in the past, but didn't really 7 remember them. 8 Q. Which documents, if any, 9 refreshed your recollection? 10 A. There was one sheet of paper 11 that had a list of sales numbers on it for 12 Sunbeam for I think the first part of the 13 first quarter of I guess 1998, and when I 14 saw that I remembered that it had -- we 15 had looked at that as a part of a series 16 of conference calls to discuss Coleman -- 17 or, I'm sorry, Sunbeam's numbers for that 18 quarter. 19 Q. Any other documents that you 20 remember that refreshed your recollection? 21 A. You know, some of the others 22 looked familiar but nothing specific came 23 to mind. 24 Q. Okay. Aside from the documents 25 that you reviewed in the meeting	Page 20 1 Stack 2 argument at the printer surrounding 3 something that they said. 4 Q. Anything else that was related 5 to you from prior testimony? 6 A. Nothing really specific comes to 7 mind. 8 I think others have been asked 9 about the same thing and heard bits and 10 pieces of their responses. 11 Q. Are you aware what any of the 12 Morgan Stanley witnesses have testified 13 about that evening at the printer? 14 A. Actually, nothing specific. 15 Q. When did you leave Davis Polk? 16 A. August of 2000. 17 Q. Since August of 2000, have you 18 spoken with any people at Morgan Stanley 19 about -- aside from Mr. Clare, as counsel, 20 about the Sunbeam transaction? 21 A. No. 22 Q. And since August of 2000, have 23 you spoken with anyone at Davis Polk, 24 again, aside from Mr. Wise, about the 25 Sunbeam transaction?
Page 19 1 Stack 2 yesterday, have you reviewed any other 3 documents in preparation for this session? 4 A. No. 5 Q. And have you discussed the 6 upcoming deposition with anyone else, 7 other than Mr. Wise and Mr. Clare? 8 A. No, other than the fact that I 9 was going to be out of work today. 10 Q. I understand. 11 A. Yeah. 12 Q. In connection with your 13 preparation, did you review any 14 transcripts of prior depositions? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Are you aware of any testimony 17 given by other witnesses that has been 18 described to you? 19 A. Um -- yeah, a few bits and 20 pieces here and there. 21 Q. Any that come to mind? 22 A. Um -- I know there is some 23 dispute as to what took place at the 24 printer one night and that one of the 25 accountants has said that there was an	Page 21 1 Stack 2 A. No. I may have mentioned to 3 Alan Dean that I had got a call on 4 Sunbeam, because he was the partner on the 5 transaction, and I work with him from time 6 to time, but other than that no. 7 Q. You continue to work with 8 Mr. Dean? 9 A. Yeah, once in a while he 10 represents -- I currently work at Goldman 11 Sachs, and he has served as underwriter's 12 counsel on other transactions that I have 13 worked on there. 14 Q. In your current position at 15 Goldman Sachs, do you have responsibility 16 for retaining outside counsel? 17 A. Sometimes I do sort of the task 18 of making the call to outside counsel, and 19 sometimes I give suggestions on who to 20 hire for outside counsel, but I wouldn't 21 say I have responsibility for it. 22 Q. Have you ever suggested Mr. Dean 23 or others at Davis Polk to assist Goldman 24 Sachs in transactions? 25 A. Actually, no.

Page 22 1 Stack 2 (Laughter.) 3 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. 4 MR. WISE: You put her on the 5 spot. 6 Q. Okay. Aside from your 7 communications with Mr. Dean from time to 8 time on transactions, have you remained in 9 contact with other lawyers at Davis Polk 10 that worked on the Sunbeam deal? 11 A. No. I have actually -- also, 12 Jim Lurie, who was also on the Sunbeam 13 transaction, is at another firm now, and I 14 have been on the opposite side of 15 transactions from him, so I have had to 16 negotiate against him from time to time, 17 but otherwise no. 18 Q. And you have not discussed the 19 Sunbeam transaction with Mr. Lurie? 20 A. No. 21 Q. After yesterday's meeting, did 22 you take with you or retain any documents 23 that you were shown? 24 A. No. There may have been a copy 25 of a protective order.	Page 24 1 Stack 2 concentrated? 3 A. No. I took a variety of 4 courses. 5 Q. I understand. 6 A. Mm-hmm. 7 Q. After you graduated from Duke 8 with your law degree, were you first 9 employed in the practice of law at Davis 10 Polk? 11 A. Yes. 12 Q. And you were at Davis Polk from 13 sometime in 1997? 14 A. Yeah, I think it was the end of 15 September of 1997 I started. 16 Q. Until August of 2000. 17 A. Yes. And I also was a summer 18 associate at Davis Polk, after my second 19 year. 20 Q. So that would be the summer of 21 '96? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Throughout that three-year 24 tenure at Davis Polk, you were an 25 associate?
Page 23 1 Stack 2 Q. Did you sign that protective 3 order? 4 A. I did. 5 Q. Now, before we get into the 6 specifics of your work on the Sunbeam 7 transaction, I would like to address your 8 background a little. 9 Where did you go to college? 10 A. Duke University. 11 Q. And when did you receive a 12 degree from Duke? 13 A. 1994. 14 Q. In what area? 15 A. Political science and German. 16 Q. After you graduated from Duke, 17 did you go the next year to law school? 18 A. I did. 19 Q. And where did you attend law 20 school? 21 A. Duke. 22 Q. And when did you graduate? 23 A. 1997. 24 Q. At Duke in law school, did you 25 have any particular area of study that you	Page 25 1 Stack 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. I am not sure how Davis Polk 4 organizes its practice, were you assigned 5 to a particular area? 6 MR. WISE: Sometimes we are not 7 sure how we organize our practice. 8 MR. BRODY: Badly, I think is 9 the answer. 10 A. At the time, I was in the 11 corporate department, and then I spent one 12 year in the capital markets and securities 13 group, one year in the mergers and 14 acquisitions group, and then the third 15 year I came back to the securities and 16 capital markets group. 17 Q. So are the capital market and 18 securities group and the M&A group parts 19 of the corporate department? 20 A. Yeah, they are all under the 21 corporate department. 22 They are two separate groups 23 within the corporate department, and there 24 is a third group, that's the credit 25 department I think.

1 Stack 2 Q. You didn't spend time in that 3 group. 4 A. No. 5 Q. Using September '97 as your 6 approximate start date, you started in the 7 capital markets group? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Approximately how long did you 10 remain in that until you rotated to the 11 M&A group? 12 A. About a year. 13 Q. So roughly the fall of '97 to 14 the fall of '98? 15 A. Right. 16 Q. And then how long were you in 17 the M&A group? 18 A. Again, about a year. 19 Q. That would be approximately the 20 fall of '99? 21 A. Yeah. 22 Q. And then back in the capital 23 markets group? 24 A. Yes. 25 Q. Why did you make those changes?	1 Stack 2 division and work on securities and 3 capital markets transactions as well as 4 limited involvement with M&A transactions, 5 working on engagement letters and 6 confidentiality agreements with clients. 7 Q. Within the securities and 8 capital markets work in the investment 9 banking division, what are your duties and 10 responsibilities at Goldman Sachs? 11 A. I am sort of a -- the in-house 12 lawyer, someone in my group is staff to 13 each underwriting transaction that comes 14 through the firm, and we serve as sort of 15 supervisor liaison to outside counsel, 16 consulting on certain issues of, you know, 17 significance and reputational issues and 18 policy issues relating to Goldman Sachs as 19 well as reviewing certain documents in 20 each transaction, like the underwriting 21 agreement, the opinions, comfort letters, 22 and any other documents that pertain 23 specifically to our underwriting 24 obligations. 25 Q. In connection with the work that
1 Stack 2 A. There was a rotation system, as 3 a junior associate, so I chose two 4 different groups in the corporate 5 department to rotate through and then 6 decided to permanently assign to the 7 capital markets security group after the 8 second year. 9 Q. When you were in the M&A group, 10 so beginning in the fall of '98 -- 11 A. Mm-hmm. 12 Q. -- did you do any work for 13 Morgan Stanley? 14 A. I don't remember anything 15 specifically. 16 It's certainly possible, but I 17 don't remember anything specific. 18 Q. Okay. What is your current 19 position? 20 A. I am vice president and 21 assistant general counsel at Goldman Sachs 22 & Co. 23 Q. Within Goldman Sachs, is there a 24 particular area that you are assigned to? 25 A. I cover the investment banking	1 Stack 2 you do, are you always counsel to Goldman 3 Sachs, as opposed to its clients? 4 A. Yes, yes. 5 Q. In connection with the position 6 you are now in, do you consult on 7 disclosure issues? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. I assume some of that is in 10 conjunction with outside counsel. 11 A. It's almost always in 12 conjunction with outside counsel. 13 Q. Goldman Sachs is a competitor of 14 Morgan Stanley's? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Do you currently have business 17 dealings with Morgan Stanley? 18 A. We are often co-underwriters on 19 the same transaction and, so, once in a 20 while I will have to talk to an in-house 21 lawyer at Morgan Stanley and often on 22 those transactions outside counsel is 23 representing both of us as part of the 24 underwriting syndicate. 25 Q. Ms. Stack, I would like to focus

Page 30 1 Stack 2 on the work you did at Davis Polk. I 3 assume it's primarily the work in that 4 first year you were in the capital markets 5 securities area. In that '97 and '98 time 6 frame, did you work on Morgan Stanley 7 engagements other than the Sunbeam 8 transaction? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Approximately how many? 11 A. Maybe three or four. 12 That's really a guess, it's hard 13 to remember. There have been a lot of 14 transactions. 15 Q. Aside from the Sunbeam 16 transaction, do any come to mind by name? 17 A. There is one that I worked on, 18 just prior to the Sunbeam transaction, 19 which was an IPO for a company called 20 Unicapital. 21 Q. Unit Capital? 22 A. Unicapital, U-N-I-C-A-P-I-T-A-L, 23 all one word. 24 Q. And Morgan Stanley was the 25 underwriter?	Page 32 1 Stack 2 not close, but it wouldn't be unusual to 3 have something not close. 4 Q. I understand. 5 During this time frame, the '97 6 and '98 time frame, was Morgan Stanley a 7 major client of Davis Polk? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Do you have an understanding as 10 to how much legal work Davis Polk provided 11 for Morgan Stanley during that time frame? 12 A. Certainly in the securities and 13 capital markets area, we represented 14 Morgan Stanley quite often as -- when they 15 were underwriting transactions. I don't 16 really have a sense as to how that relates 17 to, you know, any other parts of the firm 18 or to Morgan Stanley as business 19 generally. 20 Q. I understand. 21 Do you have an understanding 22 that Davis Polk was a counsel of choice 23 for Morgan Stanley? 24 A. Yeah, I thought that they were. 25 Q. At the time, in '97 and '98, do
Page 31 1 Stack 2 A. They were. 3 I don't -- 4 Q. Any others that you remember? 5 A. I don't remember any others by 6 name. 7 Q. In any of the other transactions 8 that you worked on, for Morgan Stanley, 9 did you work with the same Morgan Stanley 10 bankers that worked on the Sunbeam deal? 11 A. I don't think so. The teams 12 that come to mind on the other 13 transactions are not the same as the folks 14 from Sunbeam. 15 Q. Now, the transactions that you 16 worked on for Morgan Stanley during this 17 time period, did they all close? 18 A. The one I mentioned did. 19 Q. That's Unicapital? 20 A. Yeah, Unicapital did. 21 I don't remember if they closed 22 or not. 23 Q. Do you remember any that did not 24 close, any come to mind? 25 A. No, none come to mind that did	Page 33 1 Stack 2 you have any understanding as to how much 3 Davis Polk was billing Morgan Stanley? 4 A. I have no idea how much they 5 were billing. 6 Q. Do you know what Davis Polk's 7 fee was on this particular engagement? 8 A. Actually, I don't. 9 Q. Okay. 10 A. I don't remember. 11 Q. One more billing question. At 12 the time, in the '97/'98 time frame, do 13 you know if Davis Polk typically billed 14 Morgan Stanley on an hourly basis or on a 15 deal charge? 16 A. I believe it was an hourly 17 basis, although, you know, there may have 18 been arrangements by partners and other 19 staff that I didn't know about. 20 Q. I understand. 21 Now, focusing on the work on the 22 Sunbeam transaction, do you remember when 23 your work on Sunbeam started? 24 A. Just from looking at documents 25 yesterday, it seems like, you know,

Page 34 1 Stack 2 February of I guess '98. 3 Q. And do you know when it ended? 4 A. I think the transaction closed 5 the end of March. 6 Q. Let me ask it a little 7 differently. 8 Did you personally work on any 9 matters relating to Sunbeam, that is, 10 Morgan Stanley's work for Sunbeam, after 11 the deal closed? 12 A. Not that I recall. 13 Q. Okay. Well, focusing on the -- 14 sometime in February to the end of March 15 time period, can you estimate what 16 percentage of your time was spent on the 17 Sunbeam transaction? 18 A. It was certainly a significant 19 percentage of my time. And it was 20 probably the transaction that I was most 21 involved in at that time. I can't 22 remember what else I was working on, but 23 it would be unusual for me to only have 24 been working on one thing, so there was 25 probably something else, so, but it would	Page 36 1 Stack 2 there was a flat rate, did you, 3 nonetheless, keep track of the time you 4 spent? 5 A. Yes, I did. 6 Q. Did you keep track of it any 7 differently than if it were a charge-by- 8 the-hour matter? 9 A. No. 10 Q. I mean -- by that I mean, less 11 specificity in what you wrote down, that 12 sort of thing. 13 A. No, I often didn't -- I guess 14 when I first started doing those 15 transactions that I am thinking of I 16 didn't even know it was a flat rate, so 17 no, exactly the same. 18 Q. Okay. Now, during that first 19 year of your tenure at the law firm, when 20 you were in the securities group, can you 21 estimate what percentage of your time was 22 spent on Morgan Stanley matters? 23 A. Um -- I did a significant amount 24 of work for them. 25 I mean, I could guess around 50
Page 35 1 Stack 2 be a majority, certainly, of my time. 3 Q. So more than 50 percent of your 4 time. 5 A. Yes. 6 Q. And I know this is going back 7 into the past, but do you recall how many 8 hours you spent on the deal? 9 A. I don't. 10 I know there were many and many 11 into the night, but no, I don't, I don't 12 remember. 13 Q. Okay. All right. At Davis 14 Polk, I take it there were some 15 transactions where the firm charged a 16 certain amount, flat rate, for the deal; 17 is that correct? 18 A. Yes, there were some repeat 19 issuers that I did work for where there 20 would be a flat rate for each 21 transaction -- 22 Q. Okay. 23 A. -- because they would happen 24 often. 25 Q. On those transactions in which	Page 37 1 Stack 2 percent, but it certainly could be more or 3 less. 4 Q. I understand. 5 Was there an attorney at Davis 6 Polk that had overall responsibility for 7 the relationship with Morgan Stanley? 8 A. I don't know. I don't know. 9 Q. You don't know if there was a 10 particular person that received the fee 11 credit or was the main relationship person 12 for Davis Polk with Morgan Stanley? 13 A. I actually don't know. As a 14 first-year, those were things I wasn't 15 very focused on. 16 Q. I understand. Okay. 17 I am going to focus, primarily, 18 on the February/March time period that you 19 were working on this transaction. 20 A. Mm-hmm. 21 Q. And I believe you testified your 22 work on the Sunbeam matter began in 23 February of 1998? 24 A. I think so, yes. 25 Q. Do you remember what was the

Page 38 1 Stack 2 beginning of your involvement, what you 3 were asked to do at the beginning? 4 A. You know, I don't have a lot of 5 specific recollections. 6 I know that I did a lot of 7 documentary due diligence. So I read many 8 documents. I think a lot of it was done 9 at the offices of Skadden, Skadden, Arps, 10 but I don't remember specifically, you 11 know, from the first few days exactly what 12 we did. 13 Q. Okay. And the matter continued 14 through the closing, your involvement 15 continued -- 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. -- through the closing. 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. You have described some of this 20 but what were your job responsibilities on 21 the deal? 22 A. Well, certainly, the due 23 diligence, and I, you know, remember going 24 through documents -- I don't remember a 25 lot of specifics as to exactly what I did.	Page 40 1 Stack 2 Now, you said you did 3 documentary due diligence. 4 A. Mm-hmm. 5 Q. Explain to us what that means. 6 A. Boxes of documents in a room 7 and, you know, reading through material 8 contracts to make sure that any of the -- 9 you know, that the transaction we were 10 about to undertake wouldn't somehow affect 11 the validity of the contract or call 12 anything into question, reading board 13 minutes of the company, you know, to make 14 sure that we had all the material 15 information we needed in order to disclose 16 it in the offering memorandum, just 17 reviewing any other sort of general -- you 18 know, I think we asked -- we would ask for 19 a list of documents relating to the 20 business. 21 Q. And, when you refer to "the 22 business", are you referring to Sunbeam? 23 A. Yes, yes. And I -- you know. 24 Q. Did you do any due diligence of 25 Coleman?
Page 39 1 Stack 2 I can say that generally, as a first-year 3 associate, I would review documents for 4 due diligence and participate in drafting 5 sessions for the offering memorandum and 6 handle sort of logistical items, like 7 closing and going to the printer, and that 8 sort of thing, but I don't remember a lot 9 of specifics from this particular 10 transaction. 11 Q. Did you have any involvement in 12 the road-show? 13 A. Um -- I certainly didn't attend 14 any road-show meetings, and I don't 15 remember reviewing any road-show 16 presentations. 17 Q. Did you travel for this matter? 18 Did you go to meetings or sessions outside 19 of New York City? 20 A. I don't remember leaving 21 New York for this one. 22 Q. For example, did you ever go to 23 Sunbeam's offices in Florida? 24 A. Not that I remember. 25 Q. Fair enough.	Page 41 1 Stack 2 A. I think so, because I know they 3 were being acquired and, so, there was 4 information about them in the offering 5 memorandum, so it was part of the overall 6 documentary due diligence that I did, 7 though I don't really remember anything 8 specific about it. 9 Q. Do you know where you did that 10 document review? 11 A. I don't, I don't remember where. 12 Q. Do you remember doing any due 13 diligence of the other acquisition 14 companies, First Alert or Signature 15 Brands? 16 A. Those names definitely sound 17 familiar. We would have asked to see all 18 those. I don't remember anything 19 specific. 20 Q. Fair enough. 21 Aside from the work you have 22 described -- the documentary due 23 diligence, participation in drafting 24 sessions, the logistical work you did -- 25 do you remember anything else you did on

Page 42 1 Stack 2 the transaction? 3 A. I helped in drafting certain 4 documents, I think the registration rights 5 agreement, probably helped in turning 6 drafts of the underwriting agreement. I 7 don't remember anything specific. I can 8 tell you what I think I probably would 9 have done, but I don't specifically 10 remember. 11 Q. Okay. Well, I appreciate that. 12 The work that you did on the 13 transaction, was it limited to the 14 financing of the transaction or did you 15 also get involved in the negotiation of 16 the -- or consummation of the mergers 17 between Morgan Stanley -- excuse me, 18 between Sunbeam and Coleman and the other 19 companies? 20 A. It was limited to the financing 21 transaction. 22 Q. Okay. At the time you worked on 23 this deal, you were within your first year 24 of beginning legal practice? 25 A. Yes.	Page 44 1 Stack 2 Davis Polk, did you understand that there 3 was a policy on keeping or not keeping 4 documents relating to deals that you 5 worked on? 6 A. Um -- there was certainly 7 guidance given by various partners, and we 8 certainly kept all the final deal 9 documents. I think, generally, drafts of 10 things were not retained. 11 Q. When you said there was 12 "guidance given", what do you mean by 13 that? 14 A. I actually don't remember 15 specifically if we were sort of given that 16 guidance formally or not, but often, at 17 the end of transactions, I would ask the 18 partner involved, you know, which 19 documents we should retain and which we 20 should give back or, you know, destroy. 21 Q. Do you remember having that 22 conversation about this transaction? 23 A. I don't specifically remember 24 talking about that here. 25 Q. Now, at the time of this
Page 43 1 Stack 2 Q. Did you report to people in the 3 law firm who were more senior than you? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Who did you report to on this 6 transaction? 7 A. On this transaction, Jim Lurie 8 and Alan Dean. 9 Q. At the time, was Mr. Lurie an 10 associate or a partner? 11 A. He was an associate. He may 12 have been a sort of senior counsel level 13 associate. 14 Q. And Mr. Dean was a partner? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Did you report to anyone else, 17 besides those two individuals? 18 A. Not that I remember, those were 19 the only two. 20 Q. Did anyone, to your knowledge, 21 report to you? 22 A. We may have had a paralegal, but 23 I was generally the bottom of the chain of 24 lawyers, (laughing). 25 Q. Okay. Now, when you were at	Page 45 1 Stack 2 transaction, the spring of 1998, do you 3 know if you used e-mail? 4 A. Yes, yes. 5 Q. Do you know if you used it to 6 communicate with people outside of Davis 7 Polk concerning the transaction? 8 A. I would think that we did, 9 although I think at that time we were 10 still doing sort of hard copies of 11 documents and hand-delivering them every 12 where. 13 It's hard to remember when that 14 exact transition was, but there came a 15 point when everything was done by e-mail, 16 and I don't think it was yet on this 17 transaction, but I can't say for sure. 18 Q. Okay. Do you know what happened 19 to e-mails relating to this case? Do you 20 know -- this matter, do you know if they 21 were saved or archived? 22 A. I don't know. 23 Q. Okay. Your involvement in the 24 Sunbeam transaction was in connection with 25 the financing; is that correct?

Page 46 1 Stack 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. Do you know if others at Davis 4 Polk did work on behalf of Morgan Stanley 5 on this transaction relating to the merger 6 agreement? 7 A. Not that I am aware of. 8 Q. Do you know if others at Davis 9 Polk did work for Morgan Stanley in this 10 matter relating to anything else for 11 Sunbeam? 12 A. I think there was a bank loan at 13 the same time that I did not work on, but 14 I think there were others at Morgan 15 Stanley -- I'm sorry, at Davis Polk who 16 were working on that. 17 Q. Do you know who worked on that? 18 A. I think the associate was Bill 19 Megevick. 20 Q. Did Mr. Megevick also report to 21 Mr. Lurie and Mr. Dean? 22 A. No, I think there was another 23 partner on it. And, actually, just from 24 looking through a few things yesterday, I 25 think Peter Levin was the partner.	Page 48 1 Stack 2 meeting anyone specifically in person. I 3 remember talking to Janet Kelley, I guess, 4 a few times, following up on due diligence 5 items, and a few other names ring a bell, 6 but I don't remember specifically who I 7 met or.... 8 Q. Did you ever speak with 9 Mr. Uzzi? 10 A. Yeah, that name sounds familiar. 11 I believe that he was on at least one 12 conference call that I remember. 13 Q. Did you speak with 14 Ms. MacDonald, Deborah MacDonald? 15 A. That name doesn't sound 16 familiar. 17 Q. Mr. Kersh, Russell Kersh? 18 A. That name sounds familiar. He 19 may have been on the conference calls I am 20 thinking of, but.... 21 Q. Mr. Goudis, G-O-U-D-I-S? 22 A. Also, sounds familiar. 23 I don't have any specific 24 recollection of sort of meeting these 25 people but, you know, the names -- I
Page 47 1 Stack 2 Q. Did you do any work on the bank 3 loan? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Were Mr. Megevick and Mr. Levin 6 in the corporate and securities -- excuse 7 me, the capital markets and securities 8 area, as you were? 9 A. No, I think they were both in 10 sort of that credit department, both still 11 in the corporate department. 12 Q. I understand. 13 Do you know if anyone from Davis 14 Polk was involved in Morgan Stanley's 15 efforts to try to find a buyer for 16 Sunbeam? 17 A. I don't know. I don't know. 18 Q. Now, in the work that you did on 19 the Sunbeam transaction, did you ever meet 20 Al Dunlap? 21 A. No. 22 Q. Who from the client -- excuse 23 me, who from Sunbeam did you meet, if 24 anyone? 25 A. You know, I don't remember	Page 49 1 Stack 2 recognize the names. 3 Q. I understand. 4 Now, when you refer to Mr. Uzzi 5 and perhaps Mr. Kersh or Mr. Goudis being 6 on conference calls, do you remember one 7 conference call or more than one 8 conference call? 9 A. I am certain there were many 10 conference calls that I was on for this, 11 but the one that I specifically remember 12 relates to their first quarter, I guess, 13 sales numbers, and I remember a series of 14 conference calls and I believe that at 15 least Mr. Uzzi was on that call and 16 probably the others. 17 Q. You said "a series of calls". 18 Were they all in one day? 19 A. The ones that I remember, yes. 20 Q. When you were working on this 21 deal, did you have an understanding of 22 Mr. Dunlap's reputation? 23 A. A little bit, and mostly just 24 from reading about him in the newspapers, 25 and I think he had -- might have had a

No. I think I saw it in the 7 windows of bookstores, so.... 8 Q. Did you read any of the books 9 about him? 10 A. No. 11 Q. Based on what you read or heard, 12 what was your understanding of 13 Mr. Dunlap's reputation? 14 A. Well, I think he had sort of 15 just turned around another company and was 16 known for sort of cutting the bottom line 17 and firing a lot of people. I think they 18 called him "chain saw Al", from what I 19 remember, and that pretty much sums up his 20 reputation I think. 21 Q. Did you have an understanding of 22 what he was like to work for? 23 A. I didn't have any personal 24 understanding, but just from what I read 25 in the newspaper I imagine he would be	Page 52 1 Stack 2 showing the work that you had done? 3 A. Yes. I mean, I kept time sheets 4 and certainly took notes from time to time 5 in the due diligence investigation. 6 Q. Did you retain any of those 7 notes when the deal was over? 8 A. I don't have them now, and I 9 don't remember if I kept any of them. 10 Q. Okay, and let me refine that 11 question a little. 12 I am not asking whether you -- 13 A. Mm-hmm. 14 Q. -- have them in your possession, 15 but at the time when the deal was over, 16 did you keep in the file notes showing the 17 due diligence work that you had done? 18 MR. WISE: What do you mean "the 19 file"? 20 Q. Whatever documents were retained 21 by the law firm? 22 A. I don't remember, I don't 23 remember. 24 Q. Was it your practice to keep a 25 due diligence file, a file reflecting the
Page 51 1 Stack 2 somewhat difficult. 3 Q. Okay, but you never encountered 4 that. 5 A. No. 6 Q. You referred to his prior 7 experience. Are you familiar, that was at 8 a company called Scott Paper? 9 A. Yeah, I think I have heard about 10 that, I don't remember much specifically 11 about it. 12 Q. Aside from what you have heard 13 since, when you were working on the 14 transaction, did you do any investigation 15 or due diligence into what had happened at 16 Scott Paper? 17 A. Not that I recall, not that I 18 recall. 19 Q. Did you ever hear anyone, in 20 connection with this transaction, question 21 whether Mr. Dunlap's turnaround at Scott 22 Paper was real? 23 A. Not that I remember. 24 Q. At the time you were working on 25 this deal, did you keep notes or calendars	Page 53 1 Stack 2 due diligence work that you had done? 3 A. I think often I would keep a 4 list of all the documents reviewed. I 5 don't think I generally kept handwritten 6 notes after the transaction was completed, 7 although I don't remember specifically on 8 this one. 9 Q. And the list of documents that 10 you reviewed, do you know if that was 11 retained by Davis Polk after the deal was 12 over? 13 A. I don't know. 14 And I, frankly, don't remember 15 preparing one specifically for this deal, 16 either, so.... 17 Q. I understand. 18 Now, have you, in connection 19 with your tenure at Davis Polk, through 20 August of 2000, ever been asked to 21 contribute to a calendar or chronology of 22 the events? 23 A. No. 24 Q. Have you seen a chronology 25 prepared by Davis Polk of what transpired

Page 54 1 Stack 2 on this deal? 3 A. I did yesterday, I saw a short 4 chronology. 5 Q. Prior to yesterday, had you seen 6 it before? 7 A. No. 8 Q. Prior to yesterday, were you 9 aware that it even existed? 10 A. No. 11 Q. So you weren't, to your 12 recollection, consulted in connection with 13 putting it together? 14 A. No, I don't think so. 15 Q. When the transaction was 16 concluded, was there a closing dinner? 17 A. I don't -- I don't remember 18 going to one. I don't remember going to 19 one. I don't know if they had one or not. 20 Q. Is it customary that there is 21 one? 22 A. Probably about 50/50 -- 23 Q. Okay. 24 A. -- on the deals I have worked 25 on.	Page 56 1 Stack 2 anything. 3 Q. Do you recall any contact in 4 connection with this transaction with 5 investment bankers from Credit Suisse 6 First Boston? 7 A. No, no. 8 Q. I believe you testified earlier 9 that you had done some due diligence of 10 Coleman, you believed you tracked down 11 some information relating to the offering 12 memorandum. Do you know where you did 13 that work? 14 A. I don't remember. 15 Q. Was that work limited to the 16 review of documents or did you talk to 17 individuals? 18 A. I don't remember. 19 I wouldn't be surprised if we 20 had due diligence meetings or calls with 21 folks from Coleman and Sunbeam, but I 22 don't remember anything specific. 23 (Deposition Exhibit 24, 24 chronology prepared by Davis Polk, 25 previously marked for
Page 55 1 Stack 2 Q. You are aware that the financing 3 that you worked on was, among other 4 things, to help finance an acquisition by 5 Sunbeam of certain interests in Coleman. 6 A. Mm-hmm, yes. 7 Q. And I believe, from your prior 8 answers, you testified that you were not 9 involved with negotiating or advising 10 concerning that merger. 11 A. Right. 12 Q. In connection with the work that 13 you did on this transaction, did you have 14 any contact with anyone from Coleman? 15 A. I don't remember anything 16 specific. 17 Q. Do you remember any contact with 18 anyone from MacAndrews & Forbes or its 19 companies? 20 A. No, I don't remember anything. 21 Q. Any contact with the lawyers for 22 MacAndrews & Forbes? 23 A. Who were the lawyers? 24 Q. Wachtell. 25 A. Wachtell -- no, I don't remember	Page 57 1 Stack 2 identification.) 3 Q. Ms. Stack, I am going to give 4 you what's previously been marked in a 5 prior deposition as Exhibit 24. 6 Do you recognize this as the 7 chronology prepared by Davis Polk? 8 A. Yes, I saw this yesterday, this 9 one. 10 Q. And it says at the beginning 11 that it was prepared in response to a June 12 30 subpoena, and the first line recites 13 that it was prepared in August 2000. 14 At that time, you were still 15 employed at Davis Polk? 16 A. Yes, I left in I think the 17 middle of August, if I remember. 18 Q. You don't remember being 19 consulted about the preparation of this 20 document? 21 A. I don't remember. 22 Q. And, likewise, prior to 23 yesterday, you have not seen it before? 24 A. Right. 25 Q. Did this document, when you

It looked about right. There 6 wasn't anything specific in here that sort 7 of jogged any memories, it's sort of a 8 relatively general -- 9 Q. Okay. 10 A. -- chronology. 11 Q. The first entry, at the bottom 12 of the first page, refers to a February 25 13 call and introductory telephone calls. I 14 take it those were received by people 15 other than you? 16 A. I don't remember specifically, 17 but I am sure that the first call wouldn't 18 have gone to me. 19 Q. I understand. 20 A. So.... 21 Q. Now, using the February 25th 22 entry and the ones that are after, does 23 that help refresh your recollection as to 24 when you became involved in this 25 transaction?	Page 60 1 Stack 2 Q. Ms. Stack, the court reporter 3 has given you what's been marked as 4 Exhibit 207. Have you ever seen that 5 before, to your recollection? 6 A. I don't remember seeing it 7 specifically, but it looks like something 8 you would see at the beginning of most 9 transactions. 10 Q. Okay. Having now seen this 11 document, does it refresh your 12 recollection whether you actually did 13 participate in an organizational call or 14 not? 15 A. Actually, it doesn't, I don't 16 remember that specific call. 17 Q. I'm sorry, you said it does not? 18 A. It does not. 19 Q. If you turn to the -- actually, 20 the third page of the exhibit, in the 21 bottom right it has a production number 22 ending with 16. 23 Are you there? 24 MR. Page 59 1 Stack 2 A. Yeah, I don't really remember 3 specific dates, but seems about right. 4 Q. Okay. The next entry, the item 5 at the top of the second page for March 2, 6 refers to an organizational call with 7 Skadden Arps. 8 Do you remember that call? 9 A. I don't remember that call, 10 although it would have been normal for me 11 to have been on it. 12 Q. Okay. Well, let me show you a 13 document, Ms. Stack, that may refresh your 14 recollection about it. 15 MR. BRODY: Oh, this has not 16 been marked. Please mark this as 17 Exhibit 207. 18 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 207, 19 document which looks like something 20 you would see at the beginning of 21 most transactions, the third page of 22 the exhibit, in the bottom right, it 23 has a production number ending with 24 16, marked for identification, as of 25 this date.)	Page 61 1 Stack 2 THE WITNESS: Am I on the wrong 3 page? 4 A. The second item is the size of 17 the offering, 500 million net proceeds. 18 Do you see that? 19 A. Mm-hmm. 20 Q. Do you remember any discussions 21 at any time in this transaction about the 22 size of the offering? 23 A. I don't remember anything about 24 that. 25 Q. Page 62 1 Stack 2 point the anticipated size of the offering 3 changed? 4 A. Yeah. I mean, I saw a copy I 5 think of the final offering memorandum 6 yesterday, and it was much larger, but I 7 don't remember any discussions about it. 8 Q. Okay, you have no understanding 9 as to how the number increased from 500 to 10 whatever it finished at? 11 A. I don't. 12 Q. In the structure of a deal such 13 as this, who decides what the size of the 14 offering is going to be? Is that a 15 decision for the underwriter or a decision 16 for the issuer, a decision for counsel? 17 A. In a deal like this, it would 18 generally be a decision made between the 19 company and the underwriters and counsel 20 would be consulted, but generally the 21 underwriters and the company would 22 probably make the decision. 23 Q. And, as you sit here, you don't 24 remember any of those conversations. 25 A. No.	Page 64 1 Stack 2 announcement about the first quarter but 3 perhaps an announcement about the fourth 4 quarter -- 5 A. Fair enough. 9 The next item refers to ratings 10 agency -- rating agency presentations. 11 Did you do any work on the rating 12 agencies? 13 A. Not that I remember, no. 14 Q. The next item is sales force 15 presentation. Do you remember doing any 16 work in connection with the presentation 17 of this deal to Morgan Stanley's sales 18 force? 19 A. No, and we typically wouldn't be 20 involved in that. 21 Q. Item G, it refers to 22 institutional investor conference calls. 23 Did you participate in or were you a 24 witness to any such calls? 25 A. No.
Page 63 1 Stack 2 Q. If you turn to the next page of 3 the document, the tentative time schedule 4 portion. 5 Do you see that? 6 A. Mm-hmm. 7 Q. You participated in items A and 8 B, due diligence and drafting sessions? 9 A. Yes, I think so, yeah. 10 Q. Did you participate in any of 11 the meetings of the boards of directors? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Did you participate in any 14 events concerning quarterly earnings 15 announcements? 16 A. No, no. 17 Q. Are you aware of whether Sunbeam 18 made a quarterly earnings announcement 19 during this offering? 20 A. I don't remember it. 21 I would think that they wouldn't 22 have, just because we were so far into the 23 first quarter, but I don't remember 24 specifically. 25 Q. Between counsel for Sunbeam and 3 counsel for Morgan Stanley, how was 4 division of responsibility made for the 5 drafting of the documents in this 6 transaction? 7 A. I don't remember specific 8 conversations about this, but typically, 9 in a transaction like this, issuer's 10 counsel, so Sunbeam's counsel, would take 11 primary responsibility for drafting the 12 offering memorandum, and then we would 13 have drafting sessions where the 14 underwriters and underwriters' counsel and 15 the company all participated in it and 16 talked about what it should say. 17 Underwriter's counsel would typically have 18 responsibility for drafting the 19 underwriting agreement, the registration 20 rights agreement, indenture, those sort 21 of -- actually, indenture -- I think the 22 indenture, too -- yeah, documents, 23 governing the underwriting obligations. 24 Q. Do you have a recollection in 25 this transaction of whether that division

Page 66 1 Stack 2 of responsibility was followed? 3 A. Um -- I think it generally was. 4 I remember that we worked on the 5 underwriting agreement and the 6 registration rights agreement. I know 7 that we all participated in drafting 8 sessions. I think Skadden, primarily, did 9 the actual pen-to-paper drafting of 10 those -- of the offering memorandum. I am 11 sure there may have been sections -- there 12 is probably an underwriting section in 13 there that Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk, 14 on Morgan Stanley's behalf, may have 15 drafted or provided. 16 Q. You can put document 207 aside. 17 A. Okay. 18 Q. Ms. Stack, I am going to show 19 you some documents that I think we can 20 make quick work of. 21 (Deposition Exhibit 140, 22 document with handwriting, previously 23 marked for identification.) 24 Q. The first document I have given 25 you has previously been marked as Exhibit	Page 68 1 Stack 2 done this. 3 Q. Okay. 4 A. I wouldn't -- it's probably 5 something more the company's counsel would 6 do, and I was usually on the underwriter's 7 side, so.... 8 Q. You can put that document aside. 9 A. Okay. 10 (Deposition Exhibit 141, draft 11 document with handwriting, previously 12 marked for identification.) 13 Q. I show you another draft of the 14 document, that same document, Ms. Stack. 15 A. Thanks. 16 Q. And my question for you is 17 similar. Have you ever seen this document 18 before? 19 A. I don't think so, no. 20 Q. And, again, do you recognize the 21 handwriting on the document? 22 A. No. 23 Q. Okay. Put that one aside, 24 please. 25 A. Okay.
Page 67 1 Stack 2 140. Have you seen that document before? 3 And exclude -- I mean prior to yesterday, 4 if you had seen it yesterday. 5 A. Um -- I do not remember seeing 6 it. 7 Q. Do you recognize the handwriting 8 on the document as being the handwriting 9 of someone you know? 10 A. No. 11 Q. In your work at Davis Polk, were 12 you ever involved -- do you know if your 13 firm was ever involved in reviewing 14 proposed questions and answers for a 15 company to use in communication with the 16 press or with investors? 17 A. Um -- I don't remember on this 18 transaction. 19 I, frankly, don't ever really 20 remember looking at questions for the 21 press you said? 22 Q. The press or institutional 23 investors or analysts, people outside the 24 company. 25 A. I don't remember ever having	Page 69 1 Stack 2 Q. I have two more. -- I'm sorry, 3 I may not have explained, for the record, 4 the document I have just given you. It's 5 previously marked as Exhibit 141. 6 (Deposition Exhibit 142, 7 document with handwriting, previously 8 marked for identification.) 9 Q. And now I have given you what's 10 been marked as 142. 11 Do you recognize this as 12 something you have seen before? 13 A. Not before today, no. 14 Q. And do you recognize the 15 handwriting? 16 A. No. 17 Q. Okay, put Exhibit 142 aside. 18 (Deposition Exhibit 143, 19 document which has no handwriting, it 20 appears to be a final or near-final 21 version of previous marked documents, 22 previously marked for 23 identification.) 24 And the last one in the series 25 is Exhibit 143, marked in prior

Mm-hmm. 7 Q. Have you ever seen this before? 8 A. No. 9 Q. Okay. You can put that aside. 10 Now, we have -- in some of your 11 prior answers, you have talked about the 12 work that was done in drafting. And I 13 believe you said that Skadden Arps, as the 14 company counsel, was primarily responsible 15 for the offering memorandum? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. And Davis Polk participated in 18 drafting sessions and made suggestions. 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. Who on behalf of Davis Polk 21 participated in those drafting sessions? 22 A. I think generally Alan, Jim, and 23 myself were probably all there. I think 24 Alan and Jim did most of the talking. 25 Q. Do you remember whether you ever	Page 72 1 Stack 2 Q. Tyrone Chang? 3 A. That name sounds familiar. I 4 can't tell you if he was at any drafting 5 sessions, I don't know. 6 Q. Andrew Savarie, or Savarie? 7 A. I don't remember that one. 8 Q. Aside from Mr. Tyree, do you 9 remember meeting any other Morgan Stanley 10 individuals in connection with this deal? 11 A. Not that I -- there was -- there 12 was a junior person, I think Shawnee? 13 Q. Shawnee Boone? 14 A. Yeah, yeah, and I think she was 15 generally around. I wouldn't have 16 remembered her name but for the fact that 17 I saw it yesterday on a list, I think, but 18 otherwise I don't remember anyone 19 specifically. 20 Q. Okay. And I take it no one from 21 MacAndrews & Forbes or Coleman attended 22 these sessions. 23 A. I don't think so. 24 Q. Ms. Stack, if you look at the 25 chronology that's been marked as Exhibit
Page 71 1 Stack 2 spoke up at any of those meetings? 3 A. I don't remember anything 4 specific. 5 Q. Do you know if employees of 6 Morgan Stanley ever attended any drafting 7 session? 8 A. Um -- yeah, I remember that John 9 Tyree was generally around at most 10 meetings that we had. He is the person 11 that I remember most from Morgan Stanley. 12 Q. Aside from Mr. Tyree, do you 13 remember any other Morgan Stanley 14 individuals attending a drafting session? 15 A. I don't. 16 I think there may have been a 17 junior person with him, but I don't 18 remember who, who that was. I don't 19 remember anybody else. 20 Q. Okay. Let me mention some 21 names, and see if you remember them 22 attending drafting sessions. 23 Do you remember Mr. Webber, 24 Joshua Webber? 25 A. I don't remember.	Page 73 1 Stack 2 24, there are a number of entries that 3 reference drafting sessions. And I refer 4 you to -- there is a reference on March 5 12, I believe there are earlier 6 references, March 5th there is a reference 7 to a draft offering memorandum being 8 communicated. 9 Do you remember -- 10 MR. WISE: March 5th says that 11 Davis Polk transmitted an 12 underwriter-prepared portion of the 13 draft offering memorandum. 14 MR. BRODY: Thank you. 15 Q. Do you remember participating in 16 any drafting sessions on any particular 17 dates? 18 A. No, I don't. 19 Q. As your counsel pointed out, on 20 March 5, Davis Polk communicated -- 21 transmitted certain underwriter-prepared 22 portions of the draft offering memorandum. 23 Did you have any role in drafting those 24 portions? 25 A. I don't remember.

Page 74 1 Stack 2 Q. Do you remember any discussions 3 about them? 4 A. No, I don't remember anything 5 about that. 6 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 11, 7 March 9, communication from 8 Mr. Tyree, previously marked for 9 identification.) 10 Q. Ms. Stack, I have given you what 11 has been marked in a prior deposition as 12 CPH Exhibit 11, which is a March 9, 13 communication from Mr. Tyree. 14 Have you ever seen this before? 15 A. (Pause.) 16 I don't remember it. I wouldn't 17 be surprised to know that I had seen it, 18 but I don't remember this. 19 Q. Well, it's shown as being sent 20 to Mr. Dean, who was the partner in your 21 firm. 22 A. Mm-hmm. 23 Q. Do you remember receiving any 24 draft riders from Mr. Tyree? 25 A. Not specifically, but it	Page 76 1 Stack 2 identification, as of this date.) 3 MR. BRODY: Sorry, counsel, I 4 only have one extra copy of that, but 5 I don't expect to spend a lot of 6 time. 7 Q. Ms. Stark, I have given you 8 what's been marked as Exhibit 208. And I 9 am just going to ask you some questions 10 primarily about the beginning although, as 11 you see, there is a lengthy attachment 12 provided. 13 A. Mm-hmm. 14 Q. If you turn to the second page 15 of the document, there is a distribution 16 list, and you were one of the individuals 17 on the distribution list from Davis Polk; 18 is that correct? 19 A. Yes. 20 Q. And you have previously 21 described Mr. Dean, Mr. Levin, Mr. Lurie, 22 Mr. Megevick. I would like to ask you 23 about a couple of the other individuals. 24 A. Okay. 25 Q. Who is Po Sit, P-O S-I-T?
Page 75 1 Stack 2 wouldn't be unusual. 3 Q. Do you know what involvement 4 Mr. Tyree had in proposing language to the 5 offering memorandum? Mr. Tyree or others 6 at Morgan Stanley. 7 A. Um -- I don't really remember 8 anything specifically. 9 I mean, typically, we would all 10 sort of participate in drafting together 11 and the bankers often put together certain 12 pieces of disclosure for everyone's 13 consideration. 14 Q. Do you remember if Mr. Tyree or 15 others at Morgan Stanley were concerned 16 about particular points in the offering 17 memorandum? 18 A. I don't remember anything 19 specific. 20 MR. I don't remember specifically, 7 but I think there are certain tax 8 consequences to this sort of security that 9 we had to consult with him on. 10 Q. Do you remember if he attended 11 any of the drafting sessions? 12 A. I don't remember. 13 Q. The next individual I would like 14 to ask you about is Alexander Kwit, 15 K-W-I-T. 16 Is Mr. Kwit a Davis Polk person? 17 A. Yeah, he was an associate, I 18 think maybe a year or two senior to me, 19 although I don't remember him being very 20 involved in this transaction. 21 Q. Do you know if he is still with 22 Davis Polk? 23 A. I don't know. 24 Q. Do you remember what involvement 25 he had in the deal, if any?

Page 78 1 Stack 2 A. I don't. I don't -- I don't 3 remember him being involved in this one, 4 actually. 5 Q. Okay. The two individuals below 6 you, Charles -- how is that pronounced, 7 Si -- 8 A. Yeah, I don't know him, I don't 9 remember who he is. 10 Q. You don't remember his 11 involvement in the deal? 12 A. No. 13 Q. And Gail Flesher? 14 A. Gail, she is a partner at Davis 15 Polk in the environmental group. I don't 16 remember specifically consulting her, but 17 it would be pretty typical to have an 18 environmental person consulting on due 19 diligence issues or disclosure issues, if 20 that were appropriate. 21 Q. Okay. Two groups above you, 22 Sunbeam and Morgan Stanley, do you 23 remember the Sunbeam people, either 24 Mr. Gluck or Ms. Kelley or others, 25 attending the drafting sessions?	Page 80 1 Stack 2 drafting sessions? 3 A. I don't remember specifically if 4 they were there. It would have been 5 pretty common for them to have been there, 6 but -- 7 Q. But you don't know, one way or 8 the other? 9 A. I don't remember. 10 I remember that -- I remember 11 they were at the printer, I remember Larry 12 Bornstein. 13 Q. Do you remember ever meeting 14 Mr. Harlow? 15 A. Not specifically. 16 Q. Okay, fair enough. 17 Turn to the beginning of this 18 document, the first page, sent from the 19 letters at Skadden Arps. It recites that 20 it's a first draft, and then, in the 21 second sentence, it states that: "The 22 various sections of the offering 23 memorandum prepared by Skadden Arps and 24 Davis Polk have not been reviewed or 25 discussed with their respective clients",
Page 79 1 Stack 2 A. You know, I don't remember 3 specifically if they were at the sessions. 4 I remember Janet Kelley's name came up 5 quite a lot, so it's possible she was 6 there, I just don't remember. 7 Q. Do you remember her position at 8 the time? 9 A. I think she was a lawyer at 10 Sunbeam in-house. 11 Q. And then the next group is the 12 Morgan Stanley individuals. Looking at 13 those names, has that refreshed your 14 recollection as to who attended the 15 drafting sessions? 16 A. John Tyree is really the only 17 name on there that I remember as having a 18 lot of involvement. 19 Q. Okay. Then you go to the bottom 20 of this list, Arthur Andersen is 21 identified, the names Phil Harlow and 22 Larry Bornstein. 23 A. Mm-hmm. 24 Q. Do you remember if individuals 25 from Arthur Andersen actually attended the	Page 81 1 Stack 2 and so on. 3 Is it your understanding that 4 portions of the offering memorandum were 5 drafted by Davis Polk? 6 A. I don't remember specifically. 7 Again, it would have been pretty common 8 for at least the underwriting section to 9 have come from Davis Polk, and maybe in 10 the form of the cover (indicating) page, 11 that sort of thing. 12 Q. Did you personally draft them? 13 A. I don't remember. 14 Q. Do you remember any portion of 15 the offering memorandum that you were 16 initially charged with drafting? 17 A. I don't remember. 18 Q. Now, turning to the drafting 19 sessions that you do remember, do you 20 remember any particular issues being 21 raised by Morgan Stanley as items that 22 needed to be put in the draft or taken out 23 of the draft? 24 A. I really don't remember anything 25 specific.

Page 82 1 Stack 2 I have been to many many 3 drafting sessions on many deals. 4 Q. I understand. 5 A. It's hard to remember 6 specifically. 7 Q. If you return to the chronology 8 that we have marked, at March 12 there is 9 a reference to a drafting session at 10 Skadden and accounting due diligence 11 calls. 12 Did you participate in those 13 accounting due diligence calls, to your 14 recollection? 15 A. I don't remember specifically, 16 but it would have been pretty ordinary 17 course for me, or at least others from 18 Davis Polk, to have participated. 19 Q. I will have some documents about 20 that in a moment, but do you remember any 21 issues raised by the accountants that 22 found their way into the offering 23 memorandum that were discussed, as 24 insertions or deletions from the offering 25 memorandum?	Page 84 1 Stack 2 next number is, 209? 3 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 209, 4 preliminary version of the 5 prospectus, marked for 6 identification, as of this date.) 7 Q. Ms. Stack, I have given you what 8 has been marked as Exhibit 209. Do you 9 recognize this as the preliminary version 10 of the prospectus? 11 A. Yeah, it looks like the red 12 herring, yes. 13 Q. And the type on the left, which 14 is a little chopped off by copying, that's 15 the indication that it's a preliminary 16 draft? 17 A. Right, that and the (indicating) 18 "subject to completion" line at the top in 19 the center. 20 Q. Okay. And you understand this 21 to be the -- what's referred to as the 22 "red herring"? 23 A. Yes, it looks like it, yeah. 24 They are usually -- it's usually a book 25 taped down, so it's hard to tell, but I
Page 83 1 Stack 2 A. I don't remember anything 3 specific. 4 Q. The next item on your 5 chronology -- on the Davis Polk 6 chronology, says: "Offering 7 memorandum" -- "Offering memo reds subject 8 to completion distributed". Do you know 9 what that means? 10 A. Yes, it's the preliminary 11 offering circular that you send to 12 investors. 13 Q. And, by "red", do you have an 14 understanding what that means? 15 A. Yes, the -- well, it's not on 16 here. 17 There is a -- there is usually a 18 red type along the side that says it's 19 subject to the completion, and that's why 20 they are called "reds". 21 MR. BRODY: I have to mark that 22 one, too, I'm sorry. I thought 23 everything had been previously 24 marked. 25 Can we mark that as whatever our	Page 85 1 Stack 2 assume this is it. 3 Q. I understand. 4 If you look at this document at 5 the top, it indicates that the total 6 amount is $1.3 billion. Do you understand 7 that to be the amount of the securities at 8 maturity? 9 A. Yes, I think that's what is 10 offered. 11 Q. And the proceeds to Sunbeam 12 obviously from the offering would be less; 13 is that correct? 14 A. Yes. It depends on what they 15 sell the prices to the public of those 16 securities. 17 Q. Well, these bonds were zero 18 coupon bonds? 19 A. Mm-hmm. 20 Q. So the amount at issuance would 21 be substantially less than the total value 22 of the bonds? 23 A. Yeah, I believe that's right. 24 Q. And if you turn to the page 25 that's page 23 of the document, it's Bates

Page 86 1 Stack 2 stamped CPH 1348426. 3 A. Okay. 4 Q. There is a table setting forth 5 the use of proceeds, the sources and uses 6 of proceeds, and the proceeds from this 7 debenture offering as of the date of the 8 red herring was $500 million; is that 9 correct? 10 A. Yes. 11 Q. So between the time you guys 12 first started working on the deal and the 13 date the red herring was distributed, the 14 amount of the offering had not changed, it 15 was still 500 million. 16 A. Well, I think -- I mean, they 17 are offering $1.3 billion of bonds; right? 18 I think the proceeds -- 19 Q. I asked the question badly. 20 A. Sorry. 21 Q. From the beginning of the deal 22 until the date of this red herring, the 23 proceeds were anticipated to be 500 24 million; is that correct? 25 A. BRODY: Well, we are taking 12 witnesses who should know the answers 13 to these questions. 14 MR. WISE: Well, you have got 15 someone here who was in her first 16 year with the firm. Obviously, you 17 are free to ask her her recollections 18 of any events or meetings she 19 attended, maybe she will remember 20 something that somebody else hasn't, 21 but questions going to the structure 22 of the deal and so on, I -- again, if 23 you want to, we are here, but I think 24 it's a little bit of a waste of all 25 of our time, because she is probably
Page 87 1 Stack 2 think I just saw something that said that. 3 Q. Okay. 4 A. One of the things -- sorry. 5 Q. Let me ask the question a little 6 less -- with less complexity. 7 As of the date this offering 8 memorandum was issued in its preliminary 9 form, on March 16, 1998, the parties were 10 still anticipating raising $500 million 11 for Sunbeam through this offering. 12 A. Yes, about 500 million, that's 13 what it looks like. 14 MR. WISE: You are basing that 15 on what you are reading? 16 THE WITNESS: Yes, exactly. 17 MR. WISE: You can -- obviously, 18 this is your deposition, you can take 19 it any way you want. Ms. Stack 20 worked on this transaction some six 21 years ago, and it should be apparent, 22 from the last hour's worth of 23 questioning, her recollection of this 24 as opposed to the scores of other 25 transactions she has worked on since	Page 89 1 Stack 2 one of the least able to answer those 3 questions. 4 MR. BRODY: I understand your 5 statement. I will be coming back to 6 this point when I show her other 7 documents that were circulated to 8 her, and we will see what she 9 remembers about the changes. 10 MR. WISE: Okay. 11 Q. Ms. Stack, do you remember any 12 conversations with individuals from Morgan 13 Stanley about whether this offering was 14 fully subscribed? 15 A. No, I don't remember. 16 Q. You can put that document aside 17 for a moment. 18 You referred to documentary due 19 diligence that you performed in this 20 transaction. What does it mean to you to 21 perform due diligence? 22 A. Again, just to, you know, read 23 through documents, contracts, to make sure 24 that the transaction we are about to 25 perform doesn't have any impact on it, to

Page 90 1 Stack 2 make sure that we have all the material 3 information that we need to include in the 4 offering memorandum. 5 Q. And do you have an understanding 6 as to what the purpose is for the due 7 diligence that you performed in this 8 transaction? 9 A. Again, I think it's, you know, 10 to make sure and confirm that everything 11 we have got in the offering document is 12 correct and make sure we have got 13 everything for investors. 14 Q. I'm sorry, I didn't hear the 15 last part. 16 A. Make sure that we have got 17 everything that investors needs to know. 18 Q. Okay. 19 A. You know, there are obviously 20 many conversations with the company, as 21 well, the documentary due diligence is 22 sort of in addition to that to confirm 23 everything that's said. 24 Q. Okay, and your involvement was 25 limited to the documentary due diligence;	Page 92 1 Stack 2 due diligence that were the responsibility 3 of the law firm and others that were the 4 responsibility of the bank? 5 A. We generally participated in 6 things together. As far as reviewing 7 documents, certainly the lawyers were 8 involved in that. I don't remember if 9 there may have been a person from Morgan 10 Stanley participating in that or not. 11 Sometimes you would have a junior person 12 from the investment bank come to the -- do 13 the document review as well. I don't 14 remember if that happened here. 15 Q. Before you began working on this 16 deal, what training had you received in 17 how to perform due diligence? 18 A. We had a general training 19 session when we first arrived at Davis 20 Polk. They talked about, you know, the 21 things to do and look for, one of those 22 things that's hard to teach you how to do 23 until you have actually done it once, but 24 I had worked on a few transactions before 25 the Sunbeam transaction, so....
Page 91 1 Stack 2 is that correct? 3 A. I don't really remember. It 4 wouldn't have been unusual for me to also 5 have participated in the management 6 discussions and meetings, but I don't 7 remember anything specific. 8 Q. I'm sorry, did you say would or 9 would not have? 10 A. It would have been pretty normal 11 for me to have participated -- 12 Q. Okay. 13 A. -- along with the more senior 14 members of the Davis Polk team. 15 Q. Now, at the time you were 16 working on this transaction, you 17 represented the investment banker. 18 A. Yes, the bank, Morgan Stanley. 19 Q. How did the responsibility for 20 performing due diligence -- how was it 21 divided between Morgan Stanley and Davis 22 Polk? 23 A. We all -- we all performed due 24 diligence. 25 Q. Were there particular areas of	Page 93 1 Stack 2 Q. Do you remember issues coming up 3 in performing due diligence that you had 4 to take to someone more senior than you at 5 the law firm? 6 A. In due diligence generally or 7 due diligence on this transaction? 8 Q. On this transaction. 9 A. I don't remember anything 10 specific, but it was often the case that I 11 would see something and hadn't have heard 12 a reference to it before, so I would raise 13 it to the attention of someone more senior 14 or I had to ask for additional 15 documentation to clarify it, so that would 16 have been pretty standard, but I don't 17 remember it specifically on this one. 18 Q. So you don't remember any issues 19 that came up? 20 A. No. 21 Q. Did you ever review or were you 22 made aware of whether Morgan Stanley had 23 manuals or procedures for performing due 24 diligence? 25 A. I don't know.

1 Stack 2 MR. BRODY: We have been going 3 for a while. Why don't we take a 4 break now, if that's acceptable. 5 MR. WISE: Sure. 6 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: 7 Okay. The time is now 11:13, and we 8 are off the record. 9 (Recess taken.) 10 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The 11 time is 11:25, and we are back on the 12 record. 13 Q. Ms. Stack, before we broke, we 14 were talking about due diligence -- 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. -- and the division of 17 responsibility on due diligence between 18 Morgan Stanley and its counsel. 19 Who at Morgan Stanley performed 20 due diligence on this deal that you 21 remember? 22 A. I don't remember specifically. 23 Again, I remember that John Tyree was 24 around at most meetings and calls, so, 25 presumably he was a part of it, but I	1 Stack 2 specifics of it. 3 Q. Do you remember the names of any 4 management people you met with? 5 A. No. Again, you know, I 6 remember -- recognized some of the names 7 you read earlier from the phone calls, but 8 I don't remember who was present at any of 9 the sessions. 10 Q. I am going to ask you about some 11 specific topics, and my question is going 12 to be do you remember what due diligence 13 was done in these areas. 14 A. Okay. 15 Q. What due diligence do you 16 remember being done into Sunbeam's sales? 17 A. The only thing that I 18 specifically remember is a phone call on 19 the night before pricing, talking about 20 how their sales were going to go in the 21 first quarter. 22 Otherwise, I don't remember 23 specifically all the meetings or anything 24 leading up to that. 25 Q. Okay, we will return to that
1 Stack 2 don't remember anyone else. 3 Q. Aside from Mr. Tyree, you don't 4 remember anyone else involved in due 5 diligence? 6 A. I just don't remember, no. 7 Q. Do you know what due diligence 8 Morgan Stanley performed? 9 A. Um -- again, there were 10 definitely sort of meetings, management, 11 due diligence meetings, where we asked 12 questions. I think Morgan Stanley 13 typically sent over a request list of 14 financial items that they reviewed, that 15 we had less of a role in reviewing, just 16 by the nature of our jobs but, otherwise, 17 I don't remember specifically anything 18 else. 19 Q. You referred to meetings of 20 management. As you sit here, do you 21 remember who from management Morgan 22 Stanley and/or Davis Polk met with in 23 connection with due diligence on this 24 deal? 25 A. I really don't remember the	1 Stack 2 call in a moment. But, aside from that, 3 do you remember anything else -- 4 A. No. 5 Q. -- about sales? 6 A. No, nothing specific, no. 7 Q. Do you remember any due 8 diligence into Sunbeam's earnings per 9 share or earnings? 10 A. I don't remember anything, no. 11 Q. Do you remember any due 12 diligence into Sunbeam's practices 13 involving revenue-recognition or bill-and- 14 hold transactions? 15 A. I don't remember anything 16 specific about it. 17 Q. Do you remember anything in 18 general on that topic? 19 A. I think I remember it being 20 mentioned but, beyond that, I just don't 21 remember. 22 Q. Do you remember any due 23 diligence done into whether Sunbeam had 24 accelerated sales from 1998 into prior 25 periods?

Page 98 1 Stack 2 A. You know, I think I looked -- I 3 may have looked at something yesterday 4 that talked about that but, beyond that, I 5 didn't really remember anything from that 6 time. 7 Q. Do you remember what you looked 8 at that referenced that? 9 A. Actually, I don't. 10 I just looked at that yesterday, 11 if that tells you anything, but I think 12 there was an issue if they had sold some 13 things that were recognized in the fourth 14 quarter that may have been accelerated 15 sales, I don't remember exactly. 16 Q. But, as you sit here, do you 17 remember any work that was done -- due 18 diligence work that was done, at the time 19 of the deal on that topic? 20 A. No, no. 21 Q. Do you know if anyone from 22 Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk did any 23 investigation into the extent to which 24 Sunbeam was managing its earnings? 25 A. I don't know. But, again, as	Page 100 1 Stack 2 documents at Skadden". I believe you 3 testified that you reviewed documents at 4 Skadden? 5 A. Yes, that was probably me, 6 but -- 7 Q. Was there a document repository 8 there? 9 A. Um -- I think there was a room 10 set up where they had a lot of documents, 11 yes. 12 Q. Having seen that document, does 13 that refresh your recollection as to who 14 else might have been involved in that due 15 diligence effort, either for Morgan 16 Stanley or Sunbeam or anyone else? 17 A. I just don't remember who else 18 was there. 19 Q. The next item on March 9th: 20 "Due diligence meeting at Skadden". Do 21 you remember a due diligence meeting at 22 Skadden? 23 A. Um -- yeah, I vaguely remember a 24 meeting there. 25 I mean, you have a big due
Page 99 1 Stack 2 the junior person, I probably wouldn't 3 have been involved in those discussions. 4 Q. Okay. And you testified earlier 5 about Mr. Dunlap's reputation with 6 companies. Do you know if anyone did any 7 work, either at Davis Polk or at Morgan 8 Stanley, looking into how Mr. Dunlap and 9 his management team had restructured 10 Sunbeam in his time there? 11 A. I don't know. I don't know. 12 Q. Now, if you look at the document 13 that's been marked as Exhibit 24, there 14 are a number of entries that refer to due 15 diligence meetings, and I am just going to 16 ask you what you remember about them, if 17 anything. 18 March 6 references: "Due 19 diligence conference calls with Sunbeam 20 re: acquisitions and environmental 21 issues". Do you remember anything that 22 was discussed at that meeting? 23 A. No. 24 Q. The next entry is March 8. It 25 refers to: "Due diligence review of	Page 101 1 Stack 2 diligence meeting on every deal that you 3 work on, so it's hard to distinguish. 4 Q. Focusing on this deal -- 5 A. Mm-hmm. 6 Q. -- do you remember who was 7 there? 8 A. I don't remember specifically. 9 I mean, I could speculate but I don't 10 remember. 11 Q. Do you remember anything that 12 was discussed at that meeting? 13 A. Again, I could tell you those 14 are types of things that we would 15 typically discuss, but I don't remember 16 anything specific. 17 Q. I am asking for your 18 recollection, your recollection is what I 19 am asking. 20 A. No. 21 Q. Are there any documents, notes 22 or documents, that you are aware of that 23 would refresh your recollection as to what 24 was discussed at the due diligence 25 meetings we have addressed?

Page 102 1 Stack 2 A. Not that I am aware of, no. 3 Q. The next item on March 10th 4 refers to: "Due diligence conference 5 calls with First Alert, Signature, and 6 Sunbeam". 7 Do you remember if you 8 participated in those calls? 9 A. I don't. I don't remember 10 specifically. 11 It sounds like something I 12 probably would have done, but.... 13 Q. Focusing on the call with 14 Sunbeam, do you remember anything that was 15 discussed with Sunbeam? 16 A. No. 17 Q. And are there any documents that 18 would refresh your recollection as to what 19 happened in that call, that you are aware 20 of? 21 A. Not that I am aware of, no. 22 Q. Okay. March 11, there is a 23 reference to an additional due diligence 24 call with Skadden. Do you remember if you 25 were on that call?	Page 104 1 Stack 2 Q. Do you recall participating in 3 an accounting due diligence call in this 4 matter? 5 A. I don't remember it, no. 6 Q. Do you know if it was held? 7 A. I don't remember it 8 specifically. 9 I would assume that it was, but 10 it's pretty standard on deals. 11 (Deposition Exhibit 123, 12 document, the first two pages is a 13 memorandum from Lawrence A. 14 Bornstein, at Arthur Andersen, 15 previously marked for 16 identification.) 17 Q. Ms. Stack, let me show you 18 another Exhibit. It's previously marked 19 as Exhibit 123. 20 MR. BRODY: Counsel. 21 Q. And before you spend a lot of 22 time looking at it, let me just walk you 23 through it. 24 The first two pages of this 25 exhibit is a memorandum from Larry
Page 103 1 Stack 2 A. I don't remember. 3 Q. And, again, anything that might 4 refresh your recollection about that? 5 A. Not that I am aware of. 6 Q. The March 12th entry refers to: 7 "Coleman due diligence calls". Do you 8 remember any Coleman due diligence calls? 9 A. Again, not specifically. 10 Q. Do you remember anything in 11 general that was discussed with Coleman? 12 A. No, no. 13 Q. And then the last sub-entry of 14 March 12th refers to "accounting due 15 diligence calls". Based on your 16 experience in doing transactions, what are 17 "accounting due diligence calls"? 18 A. Um -- generally, calls that the 19 underwriters and their counsel have with 20 the company's accountants, often outside 21 the presence of the company, so that you 22 can hopefully get a more robust answer to 23 the questions and just ask about the 24 company's accounting practices generally 25 and any issues that the accountants see.	Page 105 1 Stack 2 Bornstein, Lawrence A. Bornstein, at 3 Arthur Andersen, and then the third and 4 fourth pages of the exhibit is something 5 else, and I would like you to start there. 6 A. On the third page? 7 Q. Third and fourth. 8 A. Okay. 9 Q. It appears to be some sort of 10 agenda or list. 11 A. Correct. 12 Q. Starting on the third and fourth 13 page, have you ever seen that before? 14 A. I don't remember this one 15 specifically, but it looks like a lot of 16 accounting due diligence-type questions 17 that we would ask. 18 Q. Having seen this document, does 19 it refresh your recollection whether, in 20 fact, you participated in an accounting 21 due diligence call on this transaction or 22 not? 23 A. Page 106 1 Stack 2 handwriting? 3 A. No. 4 Q. Now, if you turn to the first 5 two pages of the document, and I would ask 6 you to read to yourself the first three 7 paragraphs. And then tell me when you 8 have done that. 9 A. (Pause.) 10 Okay. 11 Q. Okay. Now, having read that, 12 does that refresh your recollection 13 whether, in fact, you participated in the 14 accounting due diligence calls? 15 A. I don't remember participating. 16 Q. Do you remember being advised by 17 Mr. Lurie, Mr. Tyree, or others about what 18 happened in that call, if indeed it took 19 place? 20 A. No, I don't remember. 21 Q. I am going to ask you about a 22 couple of items here, and let me just 23 indicate what I understand to be the 24 testimony of others, but the numbered 25 items here, 1 through 17, appear to	Page 108 1 Stack 2 that task yourself? 3 A. No. 4 Q. Item 8 appears to relate to the 5 question: "How aggressive is the company 6 in its accounting policies?" To which the 7 answer appears: "On a scale of 1 to 10, 8 around a 5 or 6." Do you remember that 9 type of discussion being held in 10 connection with this deal? 11 A. No, I don't. 12 Q. Do you remember any follow-up by 13 Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley into Arthur 14 Andersen or the company's accounting 15 policies or practices? 16 A. No, I don't remember anything 17 about this. 18 Q. Now, the document I have given 19 you, marked as Exhibit 123, recites that 20 the accounting due diligence call was on 21 March 12, which is the same date in the 22 Davis Polk chronology, that we have marked 23 as Exhibit 24. 24 A. Mm-hmm. 25 Q. You previously, in one of your
Page 107 1 Stack 2 correspond to the numbered items in the 3 agenda. And, you know, since I was not on 4 the call I can't represent to you that 5 that, in fact, was the case, but I am 6 going to ask you about item 3 and item 8. 7 And item 3 appears to relate to the 8 question: "Anything peculiar to the 9 company that is not generally the way the 10 industry accounts for: A, revenue 11 recognition; B, capitalizing costs versus 12 expensing deferring costs", and you see 13 the answers on the first page of the 14 exhibit. 15 Does that refresh your 16 recollection about any discussion in 17 connection with this deal relating to 18 Sunbeam's bill-and-hold practices? 19 A. No. 20 Q. Do you know if anyone at Morgan 21 Stanley or Davis Polk was charged with 22 doing further investigation into 23 bill-and-hold? 24 A. I don't know. 25 Q. You don't remember being given	Page 109 1 Stack 2 answers, described a "comfort letter". 3 What is a "comfort letter"? 4 A. A "comfort letter" is a letter 5 issued by the accountants stating that 6 they audited the company's financials for 7 the prior year and saying that they 8 reviewed the company's interim financials 9 since their audit and have performed 10 certain procedures on them, and then they 11 also go through the document, the offering 12 document, and circle various numbers and 13 tie those back to either the company's 14 accounting policy -- or, accounting 15 records or do some sort of calculation on 16 them to make sure that they tie to the 17 company's numbers. 18 Q. In your experience at Davis 19 Polk, were comfort letters typically 20 provided in connection with offerings? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. Do you know if a comfort 23 letter -- if Arthur Andersen provided 24 comfort letters in connection with the 25 zero coupon convertible senior

Page 110 1 Stack 2 subordinated debentures? 3 A. Yes, they did. I actually saw 4 it yesterday. 5 Q. Do you know when Morgan Stanley 6 or Davis Polk received the comfort letter? 7 A. I don't know when we received 8 it. 9 It's typically dated the same 10 date as the final offering memorandum, 11 which is the pricing date. 12 Q. Is it typical that the 13 accountants provide a draft prior to 14 pricing? 15 A. Generally, yes. 16 Q. Do you know if, in this case, 17 Arthur Andersen provided a draft of its 18 comfort letter to Morgan Stanley or to 19 Davis Polk? 20 A. I don't remember. 21 Q. Aside from any due diligence 22 that was done in connection with this 23 call, (indicating) -- well, let me 24 withdraw that. 25 We have now had a chance to look	Page 112 1 Stack 2 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 210, fax 3 Ms. Stack sent to Mr. Freed at 4 Skadden Arps, marked for 5 identification, as of this date.) 6 MR. BRODY: Counsel. 7 Q. Ms. Stack, I have given you 8 what's been marked as Exhibit 210. Do you 9 recognize this as a document that you 10 sent? 11 A. It looks like a document I sent. 12 I don't remember it, but yes. 13 Q. Do you understand it to be a fax 14 you sent to Mr. Freed at Skadden Arps? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. The document recites what you 17 are asking for. Do you have a 18 recollection as to why you requested the 19 information that you requested in Exhibit 20 210? 21 A. I don't remember it but, in 22 reading it, it's just probably things that 23 were missing from the due diligence room 24 or items that were mentioned that I didn't 25 get to read while I was there.
Page 111 1 Stack 2 at the Davis Polk chronology in Exhibit 3 123. After having looked at those, does 4 that refresh your recollection about any 5 accounting due diligence done on this deal 6 by you or others? 7 A. No, it doesn't. 8 Q. Aside from what may be recited 9 in the documents I have shown you, do you 10 have any understanding of any follow-up or 11 accounting due diligence done in 12 connection with this deal? 13 A. No. As I said before, the only 14 thing I remember is that call the night 15 before pricing about the company's sales. 16 I suppose you could classify that as 17 "accounting due diligence". 18 Q. Okay, we are going to get to 19 that momentarily. We have one more 20 document to show you before we finish up 21 on this topic. 22 MR. BRODY: 210? 23 THE COURT REPORTER: Yes. 24 MR. BRODY: Please mark that as 25 Exhibit 210.	Page 113 1 Stack 2 Q. In your first sentence, you say 3 that: These are certain things you would 4 like to obtain today "in order to finish 5 our due diligence review before pricing." 6 What do you mean by that? 7 A. We wanted to make sure before we 8 priced the deal that we had all the 9 information that we were requesting. 10 Q. Do you recall whether you 11 received them or not? 12 A. I don't remember. 13 Q. If you look at the top of the 14 document, it appears to have been sent at 15 2:11 in the afternoon; is that correct? 16 A. Yes, that's what it says. 17 Q. And is that the day, March 19th, 18 the day the deal was priced? 19 A. Uh -- I believe so, yes. 20 Q. On the day of pricing, were you 21 at the printer? 22 A. Um -- yes, I was there that 23 night, I think, yes. 24 Q. Do you know when you went to the 25 printer?

Page 114 1 Stack 2 A. Um -- I don't remember 3 specifically. It was sometime in the 4 evening, after pricing. 5 Q. I'm sorry, you said "after 6 pricing"? 7 A. Yeah, I think. 8 Q. Pricing took place somewhere 9 else? 10 A. Yeah, generally there is a 11 conference call between the bankers and 12 the company to price the deal that I would 13 not typically have participated in. 14 Q. I'm sorry, can you repeat what 15 you said? 16 A. I'm sorry. Generally, where 17 would be a conference call between the 18 bankers and the company to decide on the 19 price for the transaction and I would not 20 typically have participated in that. 21 Q. Okay, you don't recall 22 participating in that? 23 A. Yeah, I don't remember. 24 Q. Fine. Do you know if between 25 2:11 in the afternoon and whenever the	Page 116 1 Stack 2 Q. Do you remember any work you did 3 to look into that, you or others? 4 A. No. 5 Q. Was this call that you 6 referenced the first time you learned of 7 how Sunbeam's sales were proceeding in the 8 first quarter of 1998? 9 A. I think I learned of it just 10 prior to those calls on that day. 11 Q. How? 12 MR. WISE: I caution the witness 13 to be careful not to reveal any 14 material that is subject to the 15 attorney/client privilege. 16 Can you answer the question 17 without revealing a communication 18 that was had with Morgan Stanley or 19 internally at Davis Polk for purposes 20 of giving Morgan Stanley advice? 21 THE WITNESS: No. 22 MR. WISE: So I object to the 23 question, and direct her not to 24 answer. 25 (DIRECTION NOT TO ANSWER.)
Page 115 1 Stack 2 deal was priced you got the materials you 3 request here in Exhibit 210? 4 A. I don't remember. I would 5 assume that we did -- 6 Q. Okay. 7 A. -- but.... 8 Q. You have testified that you were 9 aware of some conference calls or calls in 10 which Sunbeam sales in the first quarter 11 were discussed. 12 A. Mm-hmm. 13 Q. Do you recall the day on which 14 those calls took place? 15 A. I believe it was the day before 16 pricing. 17 Q. So if we use the chronology 18 Davis Polk prepared, indicating pricing 19 was on the 19th, the calls were on the 20 18th? 21 A. Yes, I think so. 22 Q. Prior to the 18th, did you have 23 any knowledge of how Sunbeam's first 24 quarter 1998 sales were performing? 25 A. Not that I remember, no.	Page 117 1 Stack 2 Q. Well, without disclosing the 3 substance of the conversation, with whom 4 did you have communications about the 5 first quarter sales on the 18th of March? 6 THE WITNESS: Is it okay for me 7 to answer that? 8 MR. WISE: Yes, you can answer 9 that question. 10 A. Alan Dean, I think. 11 Q. Was there anyone else in the 12 conversation besides Mr. Dean? 13 A. When I first heard it, I don't 14 think so. 15 Q. Okay, so it was just the two of 16 you. 17 A. Possibly Jim Lurie, but I just 18 don't remember specifically. 19 Q. In that communication or 20 conversation with Mr. Dean and possibly 21 Mr. Lurie, did Mr. Dean or Mr. Lurie 22 advise you the source of his information 23 about first-quarter sales? 24 A. I don't remember, actually. 25 Q. Did Mr. Lurie or Mr. Dean advise

And, just so 10 we are clear here, Tom, are these 11 objections that Morgan Stanley is 12 joining, as well? 13 MR. CLARE: Yes. 14 MR. WISE: As a matter of fact, 15 my objections are based upon the 16 privilege which belongs to Morgan 17 Stanley. 18 MR. BRODY: I understand. 19 MR. CLARE: If you would like, I 14 would be happy to join in each of the 15 objections that Mr. Wise makes. I 16 think, for economy, we can assume 17 going forward, and with -- objections 18 and instructions that Mr. Wise has 19 made, that Morgan Stanley joins in 20 the instructions and concurs in them, 21 but if you would like me to state 22 specifically Morgan Stanley's 23 position with respect to each, we 24 would be happy to do that. 25 MR. WISE: -- to direct any 9 dispute towards Mr. Clare and Morgan 10 Stanley. 11 MR. BRODY: Right. But I just 12 want the -- 13 MR. WISE: As counsel for 14 Ms. Stack here and, also, for the 15 firm Davis Polk, given that the 16 subject matter here relates to a 17 representation that Davis Polk had of 18 Morgan Stanley at the time, we are 19 bound to respect the attorney/client 20 privilege on behalf of our client, 21 Morgan Stanley. We have been advised 22 that Morgan Stanley is not waiving 23 that privilege and, therefore, we 24 must respect it. 25 MR. The conversation you indicated 9 that you indicated you learned certain 10 facts from Mr. Dean, was that on the 11 telephone or in person? 12 A. In person. 13 Q. Do you know how long -- do you 14 remember how long that conversation took? 15 A. No. I mean, there were hours of 16 calls that evening. 17 Q. Do you know if any of the 18 information that Mr. Dean gave you had 19 been provided to him by Arthur Andersen? 20 A. I don't know. 21 Q. Do you know if any of the 22 information that Mr. Dean provided to you 23 in that conversation had been provided to 24 him by someone at Sunbeam, directly or 25 indirectly?

Page 122 1 Stack 2 A. Yeah, not that I recall. 3 Q. How long after the communication 4 with Mr. Dean and perhaps Mr. Lurie did 5 you participate in the first call? 6 A. I think we quickly got on the 7 phone with our client, and then sometime 8 after that there was a larger call 9 involving the company and Sunbeam and 10 Skadden and us and Morgan Stanley. 11 Q. I'm sorry, you said -- 12 A. I'm sorry. 13 Q. -- Sunbeam, Skadden, Davis Polk? 14 A. Davis Polk, Morgan Stanley. 15 Q. Thank you. 16 A. I don't remember if anyone else 17 was on it. 18 Q. The communication, the larger 19 call, with Sunbeam and Morgan Stanley and 20 Skadden, and so on, was that one call or 21 more than one call? 22 A. I don't remember specifically. 23 There were communications going 24 on all evening. 25 Q. What was the result of all these	Page 124 1 Stack 2 Does that entry refresh your 3 recollection that, in fact, on or before 4 the 18th, Davis Polk had a copy of the 5 draft comfort letter? 6 A. I don't have any reason to 7 believe this isn't true, but I just don't 8 remember it. 9 Q. I understand. 10 (Deposition Exhibit 110, draft 11 comfort letter, and it bears a fax 12 transmittal of 3-17-98 at what 13 appears to be about 8:30 at night, 14 previously marked for 15 identification.) 16 Q. Ms. Stack, I have handed you 17 what's previously been marked as Exhibit 18 110, CPH Exhibit 110, which is a draft 19 comfort letter, and it bears a fax 20 transmittal of 3-17-98 at what appears to 21 be about 8:30 at night. 22 My first question is, have you 23 ever seen this before? Again, excluding 24 communications with counsel yesterday. 25 A. I just don't remember it. I
Page 123 1 Stack 2 calls? 3 What was done as a result of all 4 these calls? 5 A. I think the group decided that 6 the best course of action was for Sunbeam 7 to issue a press release, telling the 8 market that their -- I guess their numbers 9 that the street expected were not going to 10 be met, and to put that out prior to 11 pricing so that the market had the 12 information. 13 Q. Are you aware whether, prior to 14 your conversation with Mr. Dean, Arthur 15 Andersen had provided a draft of its 16 comfort letter? 17 A. I just don't remember. 18 Q. If we refer to the chronology 19 that's been marked as Exhibit 24, the 20 March 18 entry, among other things, says: 21 "Review of draft comfort letters from 22 Arthur Andersen and KPMG." 23 I am not going to ask you about 24 KPMG. Do you remember -- let me withdraw 25 that.	Page 125 1 Stack 2 wouldn't -- I probably did see it, but I 3 just don't remember it. 4 Q. There is some handwriting on the 5 document on the first page -- 6 MR. WISE: Are you representing, 7 by the way, that the fax transmittal 8 time at the top of the page was to 9 anybody in particular? Because I see 10 that the number is an area code, I 11 believe that's 561? 12 MR. BRODY: That's South 13 Florida. I am not sure if that's the 14 sending fax or the receiving fax, and 15 I am not sure if it was faxed on to 16 others. I am not making any 17 representations about it. 18 MR. WISE: I also notice that a 19 little bit further to the right there 20 is an abbreviation SBA, Inc. I 21 assume, without knowing, that that's 22 one of the Sunbeam entities? 23 MR. BRODY: (Gesturing.) I 24 can't speak to that. 25 MR. WISE: All right.

No. 11 Q. Having flipped through this 12 document, as you have, do you have any 13 recollection of whether you saw this 14 document at any time? 15 A. Yeah, I just don't remember. 16 Q. Would you please turn to the 17 third page of the document. There is a 18 paragraph 5, and I am referring in 19 particular to 5 B. It depends. 19 It's customary to see it prior 20 to the day of pricing, because that's the 21 day it's delivered. It just depends on 22 how the transaction is getting done as to 23 when exactly that is prior to pricing. 24 Q. I don't know. I don't know. 6 Q. If you turn a couple of pages 7 further -- I'm sorry, one page further, 8 page 4 of the document, paragraph 6, and 9 in particular paragraph 6 B, it describes, 10 and I am paraphrasing, that consolidated 11 net sales decreased as compared to the 12 corresponding prior period due to the 13 early buy program, and then it describes 14 why net income decreased. 15 A. (Nodding.) 16 Q. Do you know if you received that 17 information prior to the conference calls 18 on the 18th? 19 A. I don't know. 20 MR. But, in this case, you don't 9 remember any conversations in which it was 10 requested. 11 A. No. 12 Q. You have testified that you 13 learned of the events of -- let me 14 withdraw that. 15 You testified that you learned 16 about Sunbeam's sales on the 18th and you 17 have identified a conversation with 18 Mr. Dean and some later calls. Aside from 19 what you learned in that conversation with 20 Mr. Dean and in the later calls, did you 21 ever learn any other information from any 22 other source about how Sunbeam's sales 23 were going in the first quarter? 24 A. Not that I remember. 25 That general discussion is

Page 130 1 Stack 2 really the source of my knowledge on the 3 subject. 4 Q. Do you remember any other source 5 of information that you had for -- let's 6 me withdraw that. 7 Okay. Returning to the night of 8 the 18th. I believe you indicated that 9 you called -- excuse me, you had a 10 conversation with Mr. Dean. We have 11 talked about that. There was later a call 12 with the client. That's Morgan Stanley? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Is that correct? 15 A. Yes. 16 Q. Who was on the call with Morgan 17 Stanley? 18 A. I think -- I believe John Tyree 19 was on the call. I also looked at a piece 20 of paper I looked at yesterday, and that 21 caused me to remember that Ruth Porat was 22 on some of the calls. And I don't know if 23 it was the calls just between Davis Polk 24 and Morgan Stanley, or on the later calls, 25 but I remember she -- I remember that she	Page 132 1 Stack 2 participated in the call? 3 A. That name sounds very 4 familiar -- yeah, that name sounds 5 familiar, although I can't tell you for 6 sure. 7 Q. Mr. Stynes, S-T-Y-N-E-S? 8 A. I don't remember that one. 9 Q. Mr. Kitts, K-I-T-T-S? 10 A. I also don't remember that. 11 Q. Fair enough. 12 Or Mr. Fuchs, F-U-C-H-S. 13 A. That name sounds familiar, but I 14 don't remember for sure if he was on. 15 Q. So, as you sit here, you recall 16 Mr. Tyree and Ms. Porat and you are not 17 certain about Mr. Strong, Mr. Fuchs, and 18 perhaps others. 19 A. Right, right. 20 Q. Who participated in the call on 21 behalf of Davis Polk? 22 A. Alan Dean, Jim Lurie, and myself 23 were on the call, although I am sure I 24 didn't say anything, (smiling). 25 Q. Did Mr. Dean and Mr. Lurie do
Page 131 1 Stack 2 participated. 3 Q. Do you remember anyone else from 4 Morgan Stanley on the call? 5 A. There may have been others, but 6 I don't remember specifically. 7 Q. You said you saw a piece of 8 paper that said Ms. Porat participated. 9 Do you remember what that piece of paper 10 was? 11 A. It was actually a sheet of paper 12 that listed the sales for Sunbeam, and I 13 think her name might have been handwritten 14 on it and then I saw that name and 15 remembered. 16 Q. Okay. Aside from Ms. Porat's 17 participation in that conference call, did 18 you have any other conversations with 19 Ms. Porat about this deal? 20 A. I didn't specifically that I 21 remember, but I was the junior person, so 22 I probably would not have had those 23 conversations. 24 Q. Do you know if Mr. Strong, 25 William Strong or Bill Strong,	Page 133 1 Stack 2 the talking? 3 A. Yes, yes. 4 Q. Aside from individuals from 5 Morgan Stanley and individuals from Davis 6 Polk, were there any other individuals on 7 the call? 8 This is the initial call. 9 A. Oh, the initial call? 10 Q. Yes. 11 A. No, I don't think so. 12 I think there was one call 13 between us and then there was a larger 14 all-hands call. 15 Q. Okay, I am referring to the call 16 before the all-hands call. 17 A. Yeah, I don't think so. 18 Q. Do you recall, in words or 19 substance, what was discussed in the call, 20 the initial call? 21 MR. WISE: You can answer that 22 "Yes" or "No". 23 MR. BRODY: That's my intention. 24 A. Vaguely, yes. 25 Q. Did you take any notes of that

Page 134 1 Stack 2 call? 3 A. I don't remember, I don't 4 remember. 5 Q. Do you know if anyone else took 6 notes? 7 A. I don't remember. 8 Q. You have no reason to think that 9 it was recorded or transcribed by anyone? 10 A. No, no. 11 Q. How long did the call take? 12 This is the initial call. 13 A. I don't remember. It's hard to 14 divide it up. 15 Q. Can you estimate? More than an 16 hour? Less than an hour? 17 A. I just don't remember -- 18 Q. Fair enough. 19 A. -- the time. 20 Q. What do you recall -- I believe 21 you said your recollection was vague, but 22 what do you recall about the substance of 23 the call? 24 MR. And this is a call on the 18th? 4 A. Yes, the night before pricing, 5 yes. 6 Q. Do you know when it started, 7 what hour? 8 A. I would have to say sometime in 9 the evening, but I don't know exactly 10 when. 11 Q. I assume close to printing 12 people working on these deals were putting 13 in pretty long hours? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. And that's customary on a 16 transaction such as this? 17 A. Yes. 18 Q. Do you recall if it was before 19 or after dinner? 20 A. I don't, I don't remember. 21 Q. Who was on the call, the 22 "all-hands call"? 23 A. The people from Davis Polk that 24 I mentioned, Alan and Jim Lurie, and then 25 the Morgan Stanley team, and I think that
Page 135 1 Stack 2 privileged conversation. 3 (DIRECTION NOT TO ANSWER.) 4 Q. Do you have an understanding as 5 to what the -- let me withdraw that. 6 As a result of the call, was it 7 decided between the two of you to take 8 certain action? 9 A. Uh -- 10 MR. WISE: Why don't you just 11 ask her what happened next. 12 MR. BRODY: Well, okay. 13 Q. What happened next? 14 A. We got on a call with the 15 company and their lawyers. 16 Q. Okay. Whose idea was it to have 17 that call? Was it Davis Polk's idea or 18 had it been set up by the company or 19 someone else? If you remember. 20 A. I don't remember. 21 Q. Now, referring to the second 22 call, I think you earlier called that the 23 "all-hands call"? 24 A. (Nodding.) 25 Q. Is that a fair shorthand?	Page 137 1 Stack 2 John and Ruth were on, and then, as to 3 others, I can't speak to who else was on, 4 but I wouldn't be surprised but I would 5 guess that there were others, and then 6 there were some folks from Skadden, but I 7 don't really remember names of those 8 people. Then there were some people from 9 Sunbeam. 10 Q. Let me just mention some -- 11 A. Okay. 12 Q. -- names from Skadden Arps. 13 Todd Freed, was he on the call? 14 A. You know, he was probably my 15 counterpart junior associate, from the 16 things I have seen, so he may have been, 17 and he probably didn't say anything, 18 either. 19 Q. Adrian Dietz? 20 A. Yeah, that name sounds familiar. 21 Q. Gregory Fernicola, 22 F-E-R-N-I-C-O-L-A? 23 A. Yes, that name sounds familiar, 24 too. 25 Q. Page 138 1 Stack 2 the call? 3 A. Yeah. There were a couple of -- 4 I wouldn't say -- there was at least one 5 partner from Skadden and maybe two, and 6 that name sounds like it may have been 7 him, I can't be sure. 8 Q. Peter Neckles, N-E-C-K-L-E-S? 9 A. I don't remember that one. 10 Q. Michele Gartland? 11 A. I don't remember that name. 12 Q. Leander Gray? 13 A. Hmm -- that sounds familiar, but 14 I don't -- I couldn't tell you whether he 15 was on the call or not. 16 Q. How about Bill Weiss? 17 A. Bill Weiss -- also, I don't 18 know. 19 Q. Who from Sunbeam was on the 20 call? 21 A. Just from yesterday, I 22 remembered that the name Uzzi was familiar 23 to me. I remember him, I think, talking 24 quite a lot. And there were a few other 25 names that I heard yesterday that sounded	Page 140 1 Stack 2 A. I think it went on for a couple 3 of hours. 4 Q. And do you know when it 5 finished? 6 A. I don't know, I don't know the 7 exact time. 8 Q. During the call, did you review 9 any papers or documents that had been sent 10 to you? 11 A. Yesterday, I saw that sheet of 12 paper that has the list of sales on it, 13 and I didn't remember until then, but that 14 looked like -- I think I remembered seeing 15 that during those series of calls. 16 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 16, 17 document, previously marked for 18 identification.) 19 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 63, 20 document, previously marked for 21 identification.) 22 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 64, 23 document, previously marked for 24 identification.) 25 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 65,
Page 139 1 Stack 2 familiar. Janet Kelley sounds familiar. 3 I don't know whether she was on that call. 4 And there were a couple of other names 5 that now I am not remembering. 6 Q. Okay. Mr. Kersh? 7 A. Yes, that name sounds familiar. 8 Q. You believe Kersh was on the 9 call? 10 A. I think so. I believe so. 11 Q. Mr. Gluck, G-L-U-C-K? 12 A. Yeah, that name sounds familiar, 13 as well. I can't tell you for sure 14 whether he was on it. 15 Q. Do you know if Mr. Dunlap was on 16 the call? 17 A. I don't think so. 18 Q. Mr. Goudis? 19 A. Goudis sounds familiar, as well. 20 Q. Ms. MacDonald, Deborah 21 MacDonald? 22 A. Yeah, that name just doesn't 23 ring a bell with me. 24 Q. How long did the call or series 25 of calls last?	Page 141 1 Stack 2 document, previously marked for 3 identification.) 4 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 66, 5 document, previously marked for 6 identification.) 7 Q. Okay. Ms. Stack, I am giving 8 you a slug of documents that have been 9 marked in prior depositions. And let me 10 just recite, for the record, what I have 11 done, and then I will ask you a question 12 about it. 13 Various versions of a document 14 similar to what I think you described have 15 been marked in other depositions, and I 16 have given you copies of documents that 17 have been previously marked as CPH Exhibit 18 16, CPH Exhibit 63, CPH Exhibit 64, 19 CPH Exhibit 65, and CPH Exhibit 66. From 20 looking at those documents, can you tell 21 me if any of them were, in fact, the 22 document that you saw that evening. 23 MR. Page 142 1 Stack 2 MR. BRODY: In the form in which 3 I have given it to her or -- well, 4 let me ask that question. Thank you, 5 Tom. 6 Q. The document that you saw that 7 evening, did it have handwriting on it? 8 A. Um -- I don't remember, when I 9 saw it, if it did. 10 Q. Okay. Well, then, looking at 11 these documents, do any of them strike you 12 as the document that you saw that evening? 13 A. Um -- yeah, I mean, the first 14 one looked familiar to me when I saw it 15 yesterday. It's possible that the last 16 one almost looks like my handwriting, not 17 on the sort of the stuff that's very hard 18 to read. 19 Q. And the other ones, do you 20 believe those were ones that you saw that 21 evening? 22 Obviously, there are great 23 similarities between the documents. 24 A. Yeah, they all look generally 25 the same.	Page 144 1 Stack 2 Q. Can you read into the record 3 what it says, to the best of your 4 knowledge? 5 A. That looks like over on the 6 sides it says: "25 million on" something 7 "grills", and then I see a number "60" and 8 the word "more", but I can't really read 9 the rest of it. 10 Q. Does the word before it -- is 11 the word before it "expect", as in "expect 12 60 more"? 13 A. Yeah, that could be "expect", 14 "expect 60 more". 15 Q. And is there a question mark 16 after "60"? 17 A. Yeah, it looks like there could 18 be. 19 Q. Having read through that, do you 20 now believe that is your handwriting or 21 you are still not certain? 22 A. You know, it looks a lot like 23 mine. I wish I could see it. It's just 24 very hard to read. 25 Q. I understand. I don't know who
Page 143 1 Stack 2 The first one sort of looks the 3 most familiar to me. I am not sure about 4 that next -- I guess it's 63 -- 5 Q. Yes. 6 A. That looks like more detail of 7 the same thing. 8 I don't specifically remember 9 that, but, you know, it could have been 10 there. 11 Q. Okay. Well, let's focus on the 12 first one and the last one, on CPH 13 Exhibit 16 and CPH Exhibit 66. If I could 14 ask you, we will just talk about the last 15 one first -- 16 A. Okay. 17 Q. -- the CPH Exhibit 66. 18 The handwriting at the top that 19 appears to be some phone numbers, that's 20 not your handwriting. 21 A. No, no. 22 Q. The other handwriting that is 23 fainter, is that what you believe may be 24 your handwriting? 25 A. Yeah, that could be mine.	Page 145 1 Stack 2 has the original, but we do not. 3 Okay. The writing at the 4 bottom, can you read that? 5 A. It looks like "plus 30 million", 6 and then there is an arrow, and it says 7 something that I just can't make out. 8 Q. And the items below that? 9 A. Yeah, and it's again "plus", I 10 don't know if that's "35" or "15", and 11 then, down below that, it looks like it 12 says "5" I guess "million", maybe "Latin 13 America", so it looks like just trying to 14 come up with numbers and they must have 15 been telling us on the call. 16 Q. Do you believe those are notes 17 that you took on the evening of the call? 18 A. Yeah, I think it probably is. 19 Q. And then looking at the document 20 that's marked as Exhibit 16, the first 21 one, I believe, that appears to be the 22 same document -- 23 A. Right. 24 Q. -- without the handwriting. 25 A. Right.

Page 146 1 Stack 2 Q. And then, is that the copy -- 3 the document, rather, you believe that you 4 saw that evening? 5 A. Sorry, it's -- it looks like 6 it's the same as the document in the back, 7 it's just that there is some additional 8 handwriting on it. 9 Q. Okay. 10 A. That is -- I guess has come from 11 someone else. 12 Q. And by that, you are referring 13 to the reference to "Porat" in the middle? 14 A. Right, and then that circle of 15 that number with the question mark and the 16 reference at the top to "72". 17 Q. That's not your handwriting. 18 A. No. 19 Q. Okay. One last thing on Exhibit 20 66, the one that you thought may be your 21 handwriting. 22 A. Mm-hmm. 23 Q. To the left of the list of 24 names, there is some handwriting, it's 25 difficult to read. Do you recognize that?	Page 148 1 Stack 2 about, you know, where they stood at their 3 numbers at the time. And I think that's 4 where this (indicating) piece of paper 5 comes in, and how they expected to get to 6 whatever number they expected to get to, 7 which I believe was something in excess of 8 the same quarter from the prior year. 9 And, so, we -- I think we walked through a 10 lot of that detail. And then, at the end 11 of the day, all determined that the best 12 way to go was to put out a press release 13 to let the market know that they were not 14 going to hit that first quarter target 15 that was out there and let the market 16 react to that before pricing the 17 transaction. 18 Q. During the call, did anyone from 19 Morgan Stanley -- let me withdraw that. 20 During the call, did you learn 21 when this news had reached Morgan Stanley 22 and/or Davis Polk? 23 MR. WISE: I'm sorry, do you 24 understand that question? 25 THE WITNESS: I am not exactly
Page 147 1 Stack 2 A. No, I can't. 3 Q. Okay. 4 A. No, I don't know what that says. 5 Q. Aside from the documents that we 6 have just looked at -- Exhibit 16 and 7 Exhibit 66 -- do you remember any other 8 documents you looked at that evening 9 during the call, during the all-hands 10 call? 11 A. No, not that -- I don't remember 12 anything else. 13 Q. Okay. What do you remember 14 being discussed in the all-hands call? 15 A. The night I generally remember, 16 and I have to say I don't remember the 17 specifics of the conversation, but I 18 remember that we had learned that Sunbeam 19 wouldn't be -- hit their sales numbers for 20 the first quarter or were going to be 21 lower, I guess, than the expectations on 22 the street and, so, we discussed how we 23 should -- you know, what we should do 24 about that, given that we were supposed to 25 price a deal the next day. And we talked	Page 149 1 Stack 2 sure -- 3 Q. Then let me ask it. 4 A. Yeah. 5 Q. Was it a surprise to people on 6 the call that Sunbeam was not going to 7 meet the street's expectations? 8 MR. WISE: She can answer as to 9 her own reaction to it. Obviously, I 10 am not sure how she can react -- or, 11 I am not sure how she can answer as 12 to whether the other people were 13 surprised. 14 A. Yes, it was a surprise. 15 Q. Was it a surprise to you? 16 A. To me, yes. 17 Q. Did others express in the 18 meeting that this was news to them, that 19 they didn't know this before? 20 A. Um -- 21 THE WITNESS: I think that might 22 go to some privileged conversations. 23 MR. WISE: This is -- 24 Q. I am not asking -- 25 MR. WISE: No, no, only during

Page 150 1 Stack 2 the course of the call -- 3 THE WITNESS: Oh. 4 MR. WISE: -- did anybody say 5 anything in front of all the other 6 people -- 7 THE WITNESS: I see, surprise. 8 MR. WISE: -- expressing 9 surprise. 10 A. Gosh, I don't remember 11 specifically. 12 I think that was the general 13 tone of the discussions. 14 Q. Who in the call was answering 15 questions about Sunbeam's sales to date 16 and sales prospects? 17 Who provided that information? 18 A. You know, I can't say for 19 certain. 20 It was definitely a man from 21 Sunbeam and, upon hearing the names 22 yesterday, I guess Uzzi and Goudis and 23 Kersh, I believe it was some combination 24 of the three of them. 25 Q. Okay. What did the Sunbeam	Page 152 1 Stack 2 to get to that number. And there was a 3 lot of discussion around that topic. 4 I don't remember a lot of 5 specifics. 6 Q. Turn to the document marked as 7 Exhibit 66. 8 The numbers at the top, January 9 consolidated net sales actual, February 10 consolidated net sales actual, and March 11 international net sales through 3-15. Do 12 you remember any discussion about those 13 numbers that appear to be actual numbers? 14 A. Yeah, again, I mean, I remember 15 general discussions of what they had sold 16 to date so, presumably, those are the 17 actual numbers listed here. 18 Q. The next item is March 19 international net sales forecast. And I 20 believe it's 3-16-98 through 3-28 or 29, 21 '98. 22 Do you remember any discussions 23 about that nearly $40 million in sales? 24 A. Yeah, not specifically on 25 international sales. Presumably, it was
Page 151 1 Stack 2 man -- either Mr. Uzzi, Goudis, or 3 Kersh -- represent or state about the 4 state of Sunbeam's first quarter sales? 5 A. Again, I can't tell you 6 specifically but, you know, generally, it 7 was that they were lower than expected and 8 that, you know, these were the 9 (indicating) numbers that they had gotten 10 to, and I think everybody was looking at 11 sort of this sheet of paper, and then 12 there was a general explanation of how 13 they expected to get to that -- I think 14 what they had told us was that they 15 weren't going to hit the numbers that the 16 street had out there currently, but they 17 would still be in excess of the sales from 18 the prior year during that period. And, 19 so, I believe that's what went out in the 20 press release and, so, there was an 21 explanation to how they were going to get 22 from the numbers here, (indicating), which 23 were the actual sales, I guess, as of -- 24 it looks like March 17th on here, to I 25 guess the end of March to get to those --	Page 153 1 Stack 2 part of the discussion of how they were 3 going to get to that number, but I don't 4 remember specifically talking about that 5 one. 6 Q. You don't remember anyone asking 7 questions about that number or whether 8 that forecast was going to happen or not? 9 A. I am sure that those questions 10 were asked, I just don't remember the 11 detail of it. 12 Q. The next item refers to March 13 domestic net sales through 3-17-98. Do 14 you remember any discussion about that 15 number? 16 A. Again, I think it was the 17 general discussion of how they would get 18 to the number they were going to tell the 19 market and -- but I don't remember 20 specifically -- 21 Q. I understand. 22 A. -- conversations. 23 Q. And the next item is March 24 domestic open orders. Do you have an 25 understanding of what it meant to be an

Page 154 1 Stack 2 "open order"? 3 Do you remember what they said? 4 A. I don't. I don't remember what 5 the explanation was, no. 6 Q. Do you understand that those 7 items were orders that Sunbeam had already 8 received or were they orders to be 9 expected? 10 A. Frankly, I just don't remember. 11 Q. Okay. The next -- excuse me, I 12 skipped over something. 13 The international net sales item 14 and the domestic net sales and open order 15 items have little notes, "1" and "2", 16 after them, which refer down to the bottom 17 of a "waterfall". Do you recall what a 18 "waterfall" is or means in this context? 19 A. You know, I could guess, but I 20 don't remember. 21 Q. I am not asking you to guess. 22 A. Yeah, I just don't remember what 23 that means. 24 Q. Do you remember any discussion 25 in the meeting, the all-hands call, about	Page 156 1 Stack 2 potential orders? 3 A. Again, I am sure they did, this 4 was a source of great concern for 5 everybody, but I don't remember it 6 specifically. 7 Q. Okay. Now, there is an 8 identification of a variety of customers, 9 starting at Home Depot and going through 10 other. Do you remember any discussion 11 about any of those particular customers? 12 A. No. 13 Q. Do you remember anyone raising 14 at the meeting whether some or all of 15 these customers had existing inventory of 16 Sunbeam products or not? 17 A. No, I don't remember that. 18 Q. Do you remember any discussion 19 in the meeting -- in the conference call, 20 rather, about whether some of these 21 individual customers would require 22 discounts from Sunbeam in order to make 23 additional purchases? 24 A. I don't remember anything 25 specific about that, no.
Page 155 1 Stack 2 what that "waterfall" meant and whether it 3 would require deduction from those sales 4 that are referenced? 5 A. Not specifically, I don't. 6 Q. Okay. Now, the items below, 7 under Potential orders, list a variety of 8 customers, and they appear to total 86.0. 9 Do you see that? 10 A. Mm-hmm. 11 Q. Do you recall any discussion 12 about what it meant to be a "potential 13 order"? 14 A. Again, I am sure it was 15 discussed, but I just don't remember it 16 specifically. 17 Q. Do you have an understanding 18 whether these were orders that Sunbeam had 19 actually received or whether they were 20 orders they hoped to receive, fill, and 21 ship in the next 10 or 11 days? 22 A. I actually don't remember. 23 Q. Do you remember if anyone on the 24 call asked questions about that, about 25 whether those were real orders or	Page 157 1 Stack 2 Q. Do you recall any discussion in 3 the conference call or questions being 4 asked by anyone about whether, in order to 5 make these sales, Sunbeam would have to 6 offer price discounts? 7 A. I just don't remember. 8 Q. Do you remember any discussion 9 in the conference call about Sunbeam's 10 expected earnings for the first quarter? 11 A. You know, we were very focused 12 on these sales numbers. I wouldn't be 13 surprised to hear the earnings was also -- 14 I mean, obviously, that's also an 15 important metric, but I don't remember 16 specific conversations about it. 17 Q. Do you remember if anyone asked, 18 you know: We have been talking about what 19 the street expects on sales, will you meet 20 what the street expects on earnings? 21 A. I don't remember. 22 Q. You have discussed in general 23 terms -- or, rather, your general 24 recollection of what you recall from this 25 conversation. Do you remember anything

Page 158 1 Stack 2 else that was said, in words or in 3 substance, in the call? 4 A. I think I have given you 5 everything that I remember. 6 Q. You indicate that, as a result 7 of this conversation, it was resolved to 8 send -- to issue a press release? 9 A. Yes. 10 Q. Who made that decision? 11 A. I mean, it was a decision made 12 by I think everyone on the call jointly 13 thought it was the best -- the best action 14 to take. 15 I can't remember if somebody 16 pushed it more than others, but at the end 17 of the day it was decided by everyone to 18 do that. 19 Q. And do you recall who was 20 charged with drafting the press release? 21 A. I think it was probably Skadden, 22 as the company's counsel. 23 Q. Do you recall -- 24 A. Yeah, I am probably just 25 speculating, I don't remember	Page 160 1 Stack 2 A. Again, I just don't remember a 3 specific conversation about it. 4 Q. Now, the document that we have 5 been looking at, marked as Exhibit 66, 6 reflects some numbers about actual sales 7 to date and some numbers about expected 8 sales, that is, sales between that point 9 and the end of the quarter. 10 From the point of this all-hands 11 conference call on, do you know if anyone 12 at Davis Polk or Morgan Stanley did 13 anything to see if those sales actually 14 materialized? 15 A. I don't, no. 16 Q. Did you? 17 A. Not that I recall. I mean, 18 there is typically a bringing-down due 19 diligence call where I am sure this was 20 asked about, but I don't remember 21 specifically. 22 Q. In the conference call, did 23 Mr. Uzzi or Mr. Goudis or Mr. Kersh or any 24 other participant refer to what 25 information Sunbeam kept track of on a
Page 159 1 Stack 2 specifically. 3 Q. Do you know if Morgan Stanley or 4 its counsel, Davis Polk, reviewed drafts 5 of the press release? 6 A. I am sure that we did. I don't 7 remember reviewing it myself. But, again, 8 as the junior person, it probably would 9 have gone to the more senior people. 10 Q. In the conversation, the "all- 11 hands" conference call, did anyone state 12 what they expected Mr. Dunlap's reaction 13 would be to this? 14 A. I don't remember specifically 15 anybody saying anything about it. 16 Q. Do you remember anyone saying: 17 Oh, gee, we are going to have to talk to 18 Dunlap about this, or: I need to talk to 19 Dunlap? 20 A. It sounds like something that 21 might have been said, but I just don't 22 remember it specifically. 23 Q. Do you remember anyone saying 24 that Dunlap would be upset or disappointed 25 if this press release were issued?	Page 161 1 Stack 2 daily basis to show how its sales were 3 going? 4 A. That was the sort of information 5 I feel like we were discussing, but I 6 don't remember specifics. 7 Q. But did they report to you, for 8 example, that, in fact, they kept track of 9 sales on a daily basis, they had a daily 10 scorecard? 11 A. I just don't remember 12 specifically. 13 Q. Do you remember ever looking at 14 any daily scorecards or daily sales 15 reports for Sunbeam? 16 A. I don't, no. 17 Q. Now, aside -- do you remember 18 anything else that took place in this all- 19 hands conference call? 20 A. No, I don't. 21 Q. Aside from the conference call, 22 do you remember any other discussions 23 about Sunbeam's first-quarter sales 24 between that point and the closing? 25 A. Um -- I think there were

Page 162 1 Stack 2 probably privileged discussions about 3 it -- um -- I guess at the printer that 4 evening, the evening of pricing, so it 5 would be the day after the set of 6 conference calls went on, there was a 7 brief mention of it. 8 Q. Okay, I will return to that in a 9 moment. 10 Aside from the conversations at 11 the printer -- 12 A. Mm-hmm. 13 Q. -- and other conversations with 14 individuals within your law firm, do you 15 remember any other conversations about the 16 first quarter sales? 17 A. No. 18 Q. Now, the conversations within 19 your law firm that you identified as 20 "privileged communications", I want to 21 establish some foundation on those, see 22 the nature of the privilege. 23 Can you identify a specific 24 conversation that you recall? 25 A. Not specifics.	Page 164 1 Stack 2 that you remembered, was that just 3 yourself, Mr. Lurie, and Mr. Dean? 4 A. Um -- yeah -- Morgan Stanley may 5 have been a part of it, as well, I just 6 don't remember. 7 Q. Do you remember -- and this can 8 be answered "Yes" or "No" -- do you 9 remember, in words or substance, what was 10 discussed in that call -- in that 11 conversation? 12 A. Yes, substance. 13 Q. What is the substance of the 14 call that -- let me ask one more question. 15 Did that call -- 16 MR. WISE: (Laughing.) You can 17 ask as many questions as you like, 18 you are anticipating that I will have 19 an objection I guess to the one you 20 were going to ask. 21 MR. BRODY: I saw you shake your 22 head. 23 Q. In that wrap-up call, did you 24 discuss things that people had said in the 25 all-hands call?
Page 163 1 Stack 2 You know, they are sort of the 3 wrap-up that you have after a large 4 conference call like that, that sort of 5 thing. 6 Q. Okay. So after you had the all- 7 hands conference call, you recall that you 8 had a wrap-up with Davis Polk lawyers? 9 A. Mm-hmm. 10 Q. Aside from that conversation, do 11 you recall any other conversations within 12 the firm about Q 1 sales? 13 A. Um -- I mean, not specifically. 14 Obviously, it was sort of a big 15 issue that had come up and everyone was 16 very focused on it, so it was mentioned 17 from time to time, but nothing -- no sort 18 of specific large conversations come to 19 mind. 20 Q. And do you remember anyone 21 within Davis Polk or within Morgan Stanley 22 being tasked to follow the first quarter 23 sales after that conference call? 24 A. I don't remember. 25 Q. Now, the wrap-up conversation	Page 165 1 Stack 2 MR. WISE: I am going to object, 3 and direct her to not answer as to 4 what anybody discussed in the wrap-up 5 call. 6 (DIRECTION NOT TO ANSWER.) 7 MR. BRODY: Okay, I think that 8 calls for her to disclose 9 non-privileged communications, so I 10 guess I would ask you to withdraw 11 that objection. 12 MR. WISE: I think the 13 communication itself was a 14 communication, if I understood her 15 testimony, that occurred after the 16 persons outside the privilege were no 17 longer participating in the 18 conversation, so all of that 19 communication is privileged. 20 MR. BRODY: I don't know if I 21 agree with that, but I understand -- 22 MR. WISE: That's okay, I don't 23 need you to agree with it, I am just 24 telling you she is not going to 25 answer that question.

Page 166 1 Stack 2 MR. BRODY: Fair enough. 3 Q. Well, let me the more general 4 question. What do you recall being 5 discussed in substance in that wrap-up 6 call? 7 MR. WISE: Same direction, same 8 instruction, same objection. 9 (DIRECTION NOT TO ANSWER.) 10 Q. Now, after the all-hands call, 11 it was decided to issue a press release; 12 is that correct? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. Aside from the press release, 15 were there any other action items or any 16 other actions taken as a result of the 17 conference call? 18 A. That's the one that I remember. 19 Q. In the conference call, the 20 all-hands call, did the parties discuss 21 the Arthur Andersen comfort letter? 22 A. I don't remember. 23 Q. In the all-hands call, did the 24 parties discuss the size of the offering? 25 A. I don't remember that, either.	Page 168 1 Stack 2 Q. Was there any discussion, in 3 that conference call, about whether 4 companies that had attended prior sessions 5 of the road-show would have to get a call 6 and receive information about this? 7 A. I don't remember. 8 It sounds like a reasonable 9 thing to do, but I don't remember if we 10 talked about it. 11 Q. Okay. Now, aside from the 12 all-hands call, and the pre-meeting and 13 the post-meeting that you have testified 14 about, do you recall discussing -- and the 15 event at the printer that we will come to, 16 do you recall discussing the first quarter 17 sales issue with anyone else? 18 A. No, nothing specific comes to 19 mind. 20 MR. BRODY: Why don't we go off 21 the record, we will take a break, 22 maybe a lunch break. 23 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The 24 time is now 12:38, and we are off the 25 record.
Page 167 1 Stack 2 Q. At the time this conference call 3 was taking place, Sunbeam and Morgan 4 Stanley were in the middle of the 5 road-show; weren't they? 6 A. Yes, I think so, just from the 7 way deals work. I don't remember 8 specifically that they were on the road, 9 but.... 10 Q. Do you recall any 11 discussions -- I'm sorry, I didn't mean -- 12 A. No, go ahead. 13 Q. Do you recall any discussions 14 during the all-hands conference call about 15 the road-show, how it was going? 16 A. I don't remember. 17 Q. Do you recall any discussions 18 within that all-hands conference call 19 about how the press release or the 20 information that gave rise to the press 21 release would affect the road-show going 22 forward? 23 A. I really don't remember 24 anything about the road-show or talking 25 about it.	Page 169 1 Stack 2 (Luncheon recess: 12:38 p.m.) 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

Page 170 1 Stack 2 AFTERNOON SESSION 3 (1:34 p.m.) 4 5 HEATHER M. STACK, 6 resumed, having been previously duly 7 sworn, was examined and testified as 8 follows: 9 10 CONTINUED EXAMINATION 11 BY MR. BRODY: 12 THE LEGAL VIDEO SPECIALIST: The 13 time is 1:34, and we are back on the 14 record. 15 Q. Ms. Stack, before we broke for 16 lunch, we were talking about the 17 conference calls on the 18th and some 18 related topics. I would just like to 19 return briefly to the all-hands call. 20 In that conversation, did 21 Mr. Uzzi or anyone else from Sunbeam 22 indicate why there had been a sale 23 shortfall in the first quarter? 24 A. I am sure that was something 25 that was discussed, I don't remember	Page 172 1 Stack 2 with that, but I don't remember with 3 respect to these potential orders 4 specifically. 5 Q. What assurances do you remember 6 they gave about getting to last year's 7 numbers? 8 A. Again, I don't remember 9 specifically. 10 It was, you know, a general 11 topic of discussion, that I remember. 12 Q. Do you remember beyond the fact 13 that it was discussed what was discussed 14 in substance? 15 A. No. 16 Q. Looking at Exhibit 66 briefly, 17 if you look at the numbers at the top, 18 they appear to total around $169 million? 19 A. Mm-hmm. 20 Q. And then the potential orders 21 appear to be 86 million or so? 22 A. Right. 23 Q. And then you see the numbers 24 below those, and the bottom one appears to 25 refer to Q1 '97, 253.-something, .5, I
Page 171 1 Stack 2 specifically. 3 Q. And we looked at Exhibit -- a 4 variety of exhibits. 5 I think you have Exhibit 66 in 6 front of you? 7 A. Correct. 8 Q. We talked about the category of 9 "potential orders". Do you remember any 10 conversation in that conference call about 11 how likely it was that those potential 12 orders would become actual fulfilled 13 orders? 14 A. Again, I don't remember 15 specifically. It was probably discussed. 16 Q. Do you remember anyone giving 17 assurances in that call that all of those 18 sales would be accomplished? 19 A. Not specifically. 20 We certainly discussed how they 21 planned to get from the number they were 22 currently at, at that date, to the number 23 that was in line with the prior period's 24 numbers. So, you know, I am sure there 25 were some assurances given in connection	Page 173 1 Stack 2 believe? 3 A. Right. 4 Q. Do you remember any discussion 5 about where in relation to 253.5 Sunbeam 6 expected to land? 7 A. As I recall, they expected that 8 they were going to at least meet the prior 9 quarter -- or the prior period's numbers. 10 So, if that 253.5 is the first quarter of 11 '97, I think we are now talking about the 12 first quarter of '98, I think they 13 expected to be in line or exceed that 14 number. 15 Q. Okay. And if you look at the 16 numbers here, the 168.7 at the top, plus 17 the 85, totals 254.7, which is a little 18 over a million dollars more than the prior 19 quarter; correct? 20 A. Right. 21 Q. So, in order to -- on these 22 numbers, in order to get to a number in 23 excess of the prior quarter, all of those 24 potential orders would have to come in and 25 all of the open orders at the top would

Page 174 1 Stack 2 have to be filled; isn't that correct? 3 A. Yeah, I guess that's right, if 4 there was nothing else. 5 Q. Do you remember any discussion 6 about that or how likely that was? 7 A. Again, I remember the general 8 topic being discussed, but I just don't 9 remember the substance. 10 Q. Okay. We have spent a fair 11 amount of time talking about that 12 all-hands conference call. Do you 13 remember anything else, as you sit here, 14 that was discussed in that conference 15 call? 16 A. I think we have covered 17 everything that I can remember. 18 Q. Okay. Now, we also talked some, 19 before the break, about the comfort 20 letter, and I would like to return to that 21 topic. 22 Are you aware that, in the 23 course of preparing comfort letters, 24 accountants sometimes receive 25 representation letters or some letter from	Page 176 1 Stack 2 marked for identification.) 3 Q. Well, let me show you a 4 previously-marked Exhibit, a document 5 marked as Exhibit 120, which is a letter 6 signed by Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, 7 Mr. Fannin, and Mr. Gluck. And my 8 question is, do you know if Morgan Stanley 9 or its counsel received this document 10 prior to closing. 11 A. I don't know. 12 Q. You can put that aside. 13 Before the break, I showed you a 14 draft of the comfort letter that had a fax 15 transmittal of the 17th of March. 16 A. Right. 17 Q. I would like to show you one 18 additional draft of the comfort letter to 19 see if that refreshes your recollection 20 any. 21 (Deposition Exhibit Morgan 22 Stanley 48, draft of the comfort 23 letter, previously marked for 24 identification.) 25 MR. BRODY: Counsel.
Page 175 1 Stack 2 the management of the company as to what 3 they expect their numbers to be? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Did you see any such -- does 6 that type of letter have a name? 7 A. I think they usually just call 8 them "rep letters from management". 9 Q. Okay. I have heard a similar 10 name. 11 Are you aware of any rep letter 12 or management letter being issued in this 13 case? 14 A. Um -- 15 Q. In connection with the comfort 16 letter. 17 A. Yeah, I don't think we ever saw 18 one. 19 I think that the accountants 20 have to get them to issue comfort letters, 21 so they probably did but -- 22 Q. Okay. 23 (Deposition Exhibit 120, letter 24 signed by Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Kersh, 25 Mr. Fannin, and Mr. Gluck, previously	Page 177 1 Stack 2 Q. I have shown you what's 3 previously been marked as Morgan Stanley 4 Exhibit 48, which also appears to be a 5 draft. 6 Do you know if you have ever 7 seen this document before? 8 A. Again, I don't remember 9 specifically looking at the comfort letter 10 in this case. 11 Q. Okay. I believe you testified 12 that -- let me withdraw that. 13 Is the comfort letter typically 14 delivered in final signed form at the 15 printer? 16 A. Yeah, it often is. 17 Q. Do you know if the comfort 18 letter in this case was delivered in final 19 form at the printer? 20 A. I don't remember. 21 Q. Now, you previously testified 22 that, as a result of the conference calls 23 on the 18th of March, a press release was 24 issued. Do you recall reviewing drafts of 25 the press release personally?

Page 178 1 Stack 2 A. I don't remember personally 3 reviewing drafts. 4 Q. Do you recall giving any 5 comments on a draft of the press release? 6 A. I don't. 7 Probably the more senior people 8 at Davis Polk did. 9 Q. Well, that was going to be my 10 next question. Who at Morgan Stanley or 11 Davis Polk do you know was actually 12 involved in the process of preparing the 13 press release? 14 MR. WISE: I don't know that 15 anybody was in the process of 16 preparing it. You mean reviewing it? 17 Q. Let's start with preparing it, 18 putting pen to paper, writing it. 19 A. As I recall, I think Skadden 20 prepared it and then I think others 21 commented on it but I, frankly, don't have 22 any specific knowledge of who those 23 persons might have been. 24 Q. Well, I think you answered my 25 next question. You don't know who at	Page 180 1 Stack 2 for the record, the document was 3 marked this way, although it's 4 somewhat out of order, but the 5 production number appears to be 6 reversed. But, in any event, Exhibit 7 13 appears to transmit to Mr. Tyree a 8 draft press release. 9 Q. Have you ever seen this before? 10 A. I don't remember seeing it. 11 Q. I'm sorry? 12 A. I don't remember seeing it. 13 Q. Do you remember any discussions 14 with Mr. Freed at Skadden Arps about the 15 press release or its content? 16 A. I don't remember. 17 Q. If you look at the fax 18 transmittal message from Mr. Freed to 19 Mr. Tyree, it refers to the fact that the 20 press release should not be disseminated 21 prior to its sign-off by Mr. Dunlap and/or 22 Mr. Fannin. Do you remember any 23 conversation about whether that was 24 necessary for the press release? 25 A. I don't remember any
Page 179 1 Stack 2 Morgan Stanley or Davis Polk reviewed the 3 Skadden Arps draft of the press release? 4 A. No, I don't know who it was. I 5 could probably guess. 6 Q. I am not asking you to guess 7 here. 8 A. Yeah. 9 Q. Do you know if a draft was, in 10 fact, circulated on the night of the 18th 11 of March? 12 A. I think it must have been, 13 because I think it went out first thing 14 the next morning, but I don't remember. 15 I don't remember seeing it, 16 so.... 17 (Deposition Exhibit CPH 13, 18 document which appears to transmit to 19 Mr. Tyree a draft press release, 20 previously marked for 21 identification.) 22 Q. Ms. Stack, I am showing you 23 what's previously been marked as Exhibit 24 13, CPH Exhibit 13. 25 MR. BRODY: And I will state,	Page 181 1 Stack 2 conversation. 3 Q. Okay. And did you have any 4 conversation with Mr. Fannin about the 5 press release? 6 A. I don't think so. I don't 7 remember any. 8 Q. Do you recall any discussions, 9 either on the conference call or at a 10 later time, about any wording or content 11 in the press release? 12 A. I think on the conference call 13 generally the content of it was discussed, 14 but I don't remember specific 15 conversations about it. 16 Q. When the conference call was 17 over, had the parties drafted a press 18 release or had they just discussed types 19 of things to include in there? 20 A. I think we had just discussed 21 it. I think a draft was circulated. It 22 must have been later, because I don't 23 remember seeing it. 24 Q. And I may have touched on this 25 but, do you recall any conversations with

Page 186 1 Stack 2 after pricing. 3 Q. Who was there? 4 A. Um -- I think that Jim Lurie was 5 there with me. I think John Tyree was 6 there. I think there was an associate 7 from Skadden there, although I am not sure 8 which one it was or if there were more 9 than one. And I think there were two guys 10 from Arthur Andersen there, and I think 11 one of them was Larry. I remember a 12 Larry, I guess Bornstein is his last name. 13 Q. Do you remember the name of the 14 other one? 15 A. You know, after seeing it here a 16 couple of times, Phil, or something, but I 17 wouldn't have -- 18 Q. You think Mr. Harlow was there? 19 A. Oh, gosh, I wouldn't know. 20 I know there was a second person 21 with Larry, and it could have been someone 22 different. 23 Q. Okay. 24 A. I don't remember. 25 I have just seen Phil Harlow's	Page 188 1 Stack 2 printer, there is definitely smaller 3 break-out rooms all over the place, but I 4 think there was one room that people were 5 generally organized in here, as I recall. 6 Q. Were you there the whole time 7 that Mr. Lurie was there? 8 Did you arrive together and 9 leave together. 10 A. Um -- I think I was probably 11 there till the very end, and he may have 12 left a little before that. I believe we 13 arrived together or somewhere around the 14 same time. 15 Q. What conversations do you 16 remember taking place at the printer? 17 A. I guess I remember, you know, 18 general conversations about just the 19 pricing and how the evening was going to 20 go. 21 Specifically, I do remember one 22 comment made by one of the guys from 23 Arthur Andersen, I believe it was Larry, 24 who was sort of a gregarious gentleman, 25 and sort of made a joke about: Oh, yeah,
