COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

WASHINGTON, DC 20510-6275

February 12, 2024

Ryan McNerney
Chief Executive Officer
Visa Inc.
P.O. Box 8999
San Francisco, CA 94128

Dear Mr. McNerney:

I write to extend a formal invitation for you to appear and testify on Tuesday, April 9, 2024, at a Senate Committee on the Judiciary hearing on the topic of competition in the credit card market. The hearing is scheduled to begin at 10:00 a.m. in Room G50 of the Dirksen Senate Office Building. I am writing to you directly because I understand that your staff have declined my prior requests for you to testify at this hearing and, instead, have offered to send Bill Sheedy, your Senior Advisor, in your place.

You have aggressively opposed efforts to bring competition to the credit card market in order to protect the dominant market position you share with Mastercard. Visa and its allies have spent millions of dollars opposing my Credit Card Competition Act, including through false and misleading advertising claiming the bill would “ban” credit card rewards programs.<sup>1</sup>

It is therefore critical that the Committee, and the American people, hear directly from you in defense of a status quo that allowed Visa and Mastercard to levy a total of $93 billion in credit card fees on consumers, small businesses, and others in 2022 alone.

Please confirm that you will attend and testify at that hearing no later than Monday, March 4, 2024.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Durbin
Chair
