

October 16, 2020

The Honorable Lindsey Graham
Chairman
Committee on the Judiciary
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

The Honorable Dianne Feinstein
Ranking Member
Committee on the Judiciary
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Chairman Graham and Ranking Member Feinstein:

Since submitting my response on September 29, 2020 to the Committee's Questionnaire and a brief Supplement to that Questionnaire on October 9, I have been made aware of a small number of additional items that you may have already seen. Out of an abundance of caution, I enclose supplemental responses to the Committee's Questionnaire, although it is not clear these items are formally responsive.

Event calendars from Notre Dame Law School suggest that, while I was a full-time faculty member, I may have participated in a handful of informal meetings with student groups more than a decade ago. I also may have participated in one roundtable conference sponsored by the Notre Dame Program on Constitutional Structure titled "The Constitution and Unwritten Law." Finally, I provided a brief response to a student's presentation at a Notre Dame Student Scholarship Symposium. To the extent such items are responsive, I have provided entries for these events.

Consistent with the practice of prior nominees, I will continue to supplement the information provided to the Committee as appropriate. I thank the Committee for its consideration of my nomination.

Sincerely,

Amy Coney Barrett

Question 12.d.

March 22, 2013: Participant, "The Constitution and Unwritten Law," Notre Dame Program on Constitutional Structure, Notre Dame Law School, Notre Dame, Indiana. I do not have an independent recollection of this event, but a Notre Dame events article suggests that I participated in discussing the papers presented in this small, roundtable gathering of scholars. I have no notes, transcript, or recording from this occasion. The address of Notre Dame Law School is Eck Hall of Law, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556.

February 5, 2013: Presenter, Notre Dame Law School, Notre Dame, Indiana. I have no notes, transcripts, or recording from this occasion. I do not have an independent recollection of this event, but a Notre Dame event calendar suggests that I spoke to my colleagues on the faculty on this date. If I did, I believe I would have spoken about my paper published as Precedent and Jurisprudential Disagreement, 91 Tex. L. Rev. 1711 (2013), and supplied in response to Question 12.a. above.

April 4, 2007: Commenter, Notre Dame Student Scholarship Symposium, Notre Dame Law School, Notre Dame, Indiana. I provided brief comments on a student note. I have no notes, transcripts, or recording from this occasion. The address of Notre Dame Law School is Eck Hall of Law, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556.

January 25, 2007: Guest, Jus Vitae, Notre Dame Law School, Notre Dame, Indiana. I do not have an independent recollection of this event, but a Notre Dame event calendar suggests that I spoke to the Jus Vitae student group at Notre Dame Law School. I have no notes, transcript, or recording from this occasion and do not recall the subject of the discussion. The address of Notre Dame Law School is Eck Hall of Law, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556.

April 5, 2005: Guest, Women's Legal Forum, Notre Dame Law School, Notre Dame, Indiana. I do not have an independent recollection of this event, but a Notre Dame event calendar suggests that I spoke to the Women's Legal Forum at Notre Dame Law School. I have no notes, transcript, or recording from this occasion and do not recall the subject of the discussion. The address of Notre Dame Law School is Eck Hall of Law, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556.

February 1, 2005: "Real Women: Catholic Mothers in the Legal Profession," St. Thomas More Society, Notre Dame Law School, Notre Dame, Indiana. A colleague and I spoke about our experiences as mothers in the legal profession. I have no notes, transcript, or recording from this occasion. The address of Notre Dame Law School is Eck Hall of Law, Notre Dame, Indiana 46556.