I served as a law clerk to the Honorable Pierce Lively, Circuit Judge for the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, from fall of 1994 to fall of 1995. In this capacity, I researched legal issues before the Court, drafted pre-hearing memoranda, attended oral arguments in Cincinnati, Ohio, and drafted post hearing legal memoranda. In between oral arguments, we worked in chambers in Danville, Kentucky, preparing for oral arguments and assisting Judge Lively in writing the final opinions.

In the fall of 1995, I joined King & Spalding in Atlanta, Georgia, as a litigation associate in the products liability and toxic tort teams. My work was typical of a litigation associate at a large firm. I spent most of my time researching legal issues, writing memoranda, motions and briefs, and reviewing and preparing documents produced in discovery. I also, on occasion, interviewed and deposed witnesses. I argued at least one motion in state court. I also served on the Recruiting Committee from approximately 1996 to 1998.

My practice changed significantly when I returned to Kentucky and joined the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Kentucky in the summer of 1998. I later transferred to the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Kentucky in January 2002. I primarily prosecuted complex fraud and financial crimes cases including bank fraud, wire fraud, mail fraud, money laundering, and tax fraud. I handled all aspects of these cases from pre-indictment investigation and motion practice through arraignments, trials, plea hearings, sentencing hearings, and all other aspects of pre-trial and post-trial proceedings. I also conducted grand jury proceedings. When I first joined the United States Attorney's Office, I also prosecuted the federal misdemeanor cases.

In 2002, my practice changed once again when I returned to private practice as a principal at a small real estate law firm, Strother and Shadwick, PSC. I previously worked for Robert S. Strother, PSC during a couple of summers in college. We represented numerous banks and lending institutions in Central Kentucky, handling consumer and commercial real estate transactions. In 2004, I sold my interest in Strother and Shadwick, PSC, and the firm changed its name to Strother and Handel, PSC. I continued to work part time with Strother and Handel, PSC through December 2005.

From 2004 until approximately June 2005, I also served as the Executive Director of the Kentucky Equine Education Project ("KEEP"). From approximately June 2005 to August 2005 I served as Director of Research and Strategy for KEEP. Both positions were non-legal positions. KEEP's mission was to promote Kentucky's horse industry (all breeds) and educate the public about its importance to our Commonwealth.

I joined Frost Brown Todd LLC ("FBT") in 2006, and I became an equity member in late 2008. My current practice includes representing various banks in commercial lending transactions, complicated workouts, and other corporate and regulatory matters. I also represent various businesses, pipeline companies, and insurance companies in transactional matters. Because of my background as an AUSA, I also assist clients regarding criminal issues, internal investigations, and litigation. I have also served in numerous leadership positions within my firm. From 2010 to 2011, I served on FBT's Recruiting Committee. From 2010 to 2012, I served on FBT's Women's Initiative Steering Committee. In 2011, I served on the FBT Nominating Committee, which nominated various candidates for firm leadership positions. Since 2012 to the present, I have been one of 9 equity members serving on the FBT Compensation Committee, the firm Committee that sets compensation for all equity members of the firm. In 2015, my peers selected me to be the Chairman of the Compensation Committee, and I will hold that position till the end of 2017. In 2016, I was selected by my peers to be one of the 8 members serving on a special two year Nominating Committee, which will nominate equity members to fill significant firm leadership positions including CEO, Executive Committee and Compensation Committee.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

From 1995 to 1998, while associated with King & Spalding, my typical clients were chemical and products manufacturers, automobile manufacturers, and oil and gas companies. As an Assistant United States Attorney, from 1998 to 2002, my only client was the United States of America. At Strother and Shadwick, PSC and Strother and Handel, PSC, where I worked from 2002 to 2005, my typical clients were lending institutions. Since starting at Frost Brown Todd LLC in 2006, my typical clients are financial institutions, companies in the energy sector such as oil and pipeline companies, and insurance companies.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

From 1994 to 1995, I served as a law clerk to Honorable Pierce Lively of the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. Approximately 30% of our cases were civil cases and 70% were criminal cases. From 1995 to May 1998 at King & Spalding, approximately 95% of my practice was civil litigation, approximately 70% in federal court and 30% in state court. I appeared in court only on occasion. From 1998 to 2002, I appeared in court frequently as an Assistant United States Attorney, and all of my cases were criminal cases. From the summer of 2002 to 2005, my practice was 100% transactional, and I also served in a non-legal capacity as the Executive Director of the Kentucky Equine Education Project. Since joining my current firm in 2006, my practice has been 85% transactional and 15% litigation and internal investigations. About 70% of the litigation matters have been in state court (and a few administrative proceedings) and the rest have been in federal court. The vast majority have been civil litigation, but I have handled a couple criminal matters.

i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- |                             |     |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| 1. federal courts:          | 80% |
| 2. state courts of record:  | 20% |
| 3. other courts:            | 0%  |
| 4. administrative agencies: | 0%  |

ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- |                          |     |
|--------------------------|-----|
| 1. civil proceedings:    | 30% |
| 2. criminal proceedings: | 70% |

d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I tried approximately four criminal cases to verdict, including at least one federal misdemeanor case. I was chief counsel in three, and co-counsel in one.

i. What percentage of these trials were:

- |              |     |
|--------------|-----|
| 1. jury:     | 75% |
| 2. non-jury: | 25% |

e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have never appeared before the Supreme Court of the United States.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- the date of representation;
- the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and

- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

1. United States v. Peck, 3:00-CR-00023-EHJ-1 (W.D. Ky 2000).

I served as lead counsel in a complex tax fraud case. Mr. Peck was a former IRS employee who later ran his own tax preparation business. He devised a scheme to defraud the government by filing dozens of fraudulent tax returns, and obtained hundreds of thousands in fraudulent refunds. Prior to trial and while out on bond, Mr. Peck failed to appear at a hearing and an arrest warrant was issued. He was ultimately located out of state and returned to stand trial. The case involved multiple pre-trial motions and hearings, along with expert handwriting exemplars and testimony. Although Mr. Peck initially retained counsel, his counsel withdrew prior to trial, and Mr. Peck proceeded pro se. The Court appointed stand-by counsel for the trial. The trial lasted nearly two weeks and involved dozens of witnesses. A jury ultimately convicted Mr. Peck on multiple counts of tax fraud and sentenced him several years in prison. I was the lead AUSA during the investigation and pre-trial phase of the case, as well as trial.

2. United States v. Bryan, 5:99-CR-7-R (W.D. Ky 1999).

I prosecuted the Executive Vice President of a Western Kentucky bank for embezzlement and misapplication of bank funds involving a nominee loan scheme. Mr. Bryan made fictitious loans under the names of straw borrowers and funneled the money to himself. He disguised the loans by pulling the loan notices that would otherwise be sent to the borrower and paying the loans on a regular basis so they remained current. The case presented unique issues because some of the witnesses/victims were reluctant to testify. The case went to trial in February 2000, and Mr. Bryan pleaded guilty on the second day of trial.

3. United States v. Burks, et al., No. 3:99-CR-138-R (W.D. Ky. 1999).

This was a complex defense contractor fraud case against several defendants involving charges of conspiracy to defraud the United States, mail fraud, kickbacks, RICO and extortion related to defense contracts between AM-AR International Corp., the United States government and officials at the Jeddah Air Force base in Saudi Arabia. The pre-trial investigation was extensive, involving out of state and international witnesses and evidence. It was also a highly litigated matter, with dozens of pre-trial motions including motions to suppress evidence and a motion to disqualify the United States Attorney's Office. I was associate counsel on the case, assisting more senior prosecutors, Kent Wicker and Jim Lesousky. My pretrial responsibilities included working with the agents on developing and analyzing the evidence, and assisting in the preparation of multiple witnesses. I also assisted in drafting the United States' brief in opposition to recusal of the United States' Attorney's Office. The recusal motion was denied. The defendants pleaded guilty on the second day of trial to some counts, and other counts were dismissed.

4. United States v. Simon, No. 3:99-CR-00118-JGH (W.D. Ky. 1999).

This was an advance fee scheme where Ms. Simon defrauded the Chilean National Airlines of more than $250,000. The defendant posed as an international airline broker under the alias "Anastasia Alexandra Dubois" and enticed the Chilean National Airlines to send her a deposit on an aircraft she allegedly located for them. When the funds arrived in the United States, Ms. Simon spent the money on unrelated personal items and never produced an aircraft. I served as sole counsel on this case, handling all aspects of the investigation and pre-trial activities. Ms. Simon pleaded guilty in April 2000 and received a 37 month sentence.

5. United States v. Perconti, No. 3:99-CR-00028-EHJ (W.D. Ky. 1999).

This case involved charges of conspiracy, mail fraud and money laundering against two executives of a family owned gas and convenient store chain. Mr. Perconti, President of Thornton Oil, and Mr. Hobbs, its CFO, were charged with conspiring to embezzle company funds to speculate in commodities markets on their own behalf. I served as associate counsel and assisted with all areas of pre-trial preparation including drafting motions and preparing witnesses. At trial, I handled witnesses, including the Chairman of Thornton Oil, and assisted in the management of the evidence. The trial lasted nearly two weeks and involved voluminous evidence, including computer forensics evidence. Prior to trial, the CFO pleaded guilty to some of the charges. The trial resulted in a hung jury, and the United States Attorney's Office elected not to re-try the case.

6. United States v. Keller, et al., No. 5:02-CR-00095-JMH (E.D. Ky. 2002).

This case involved a complex fraudulent scheme to purchase and sell life insurance policies on terminally ill insureds. The policies were obtained by terminally ill individuals who misrepresented their health status on insurance applications. Kelco, Inc. and its representatives, Mr. Keller and others, purchased life insurance policies knowing they had been obtained by fraud and sold them to other investors for profit. Kelco's offices in Lexington, Kentucky were searched and Kelco filed an interlocutory appeal to the United States Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals of two pre-indictment orders relating to the search of Kelco's offices. The United States Attorney's Office filed a motion to dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction and was successful in getting the appeal dismissed. I assisted in the pre-indictment investigation and in drafting the United States' successful motion to dismiss. In Re: In the Matter of the Search of Floors 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and the Basement of the Building Located at 269 West Main Street, Lexington, Kentucky 40507, Case No. 01-6593 (6th CCA, 2002). 8. Marathon Pipe Line LLC v. Scowby, et al., Case No. 11-CI-659 (Ky. Cir. Ct., Jessamine Cty., 2007).

I served as lead counsel to Marathon Pipe Line LLC (MPL), now known as MPLX LP, in connection with the replacement of a section of its common carrier pipeline that runs from Patoka, Illinois to Cattlesburg, Kentucky. This matter spanned over two years and spun off several litigation matters. Part of the pipeline MPL operates is a segment that transports crude oil from Owensboro, Kentucky to a refinery in Cattlesburg, Kentucky. In connection with the replacement of the pipeline, MPL, with our assistance, negotiated new easement agreements with about 100 landowners across Central Kentucky, including large horse farms and other commercial and residential landowners. In several instances, we initiated condemnation actions where we were unable to reach a settlement initially. Ultimately, all of the filed actions were settled, and the pipeline replacement project proceeded.

9. Coffman v. Central Bank & Trust Co., 5:11-CV-00388-KKC (E.D. Ky)

2011).

I served as co-counsel representing Central Bank & Trust Co. against claims by Mr. Coffman, the plaintiff, that Central Bank violated the Right to Financial Privacy Act (“RFPA”) by disclosing his financial records to a federal government agency. In connection with a federal criminal investigation, Central Bank made a disclosure related to a possible violation of law involving plaintiff to a government agency. The plaintiff was later convicted after a jury trial in May 2011 of mail fraud, wire fraud, money laundering, and securities fraud, in connection with the activities underlying Central Bank’s disclosure. In our summary judgment motion, we argued that Central Bank was not liable under the RFPA and was afforded absolute immunity under the Annunzio-Wylie Money Laundering Act, 31 U.S.C. § 5318(g)(3), for disclosing Plaintiff’s suspicious activities and cooperating with law-enforcement efforts. The Court granted summary judgment in our favor, and the plaintiff elected not to appeal.

As co-counsel, I assisted in developing the factual and legal arguments supporting our motion for summary judgment and a motion for protective order.

10. Ventura v. Central Bank & Trust Co., No. 14-CI-122 (Ky. Cir. Ct., Powell Cty., 2015), aff’d No. 2015-CA-001407-MR (Ky. Ct. App. 2017).

I served as co-counsel representing Central Bank & Trust Co. against claims by the Venturas, the plaintiffs, that Central Bank made tortious disclosures of information about plaintiffs' account activity at Central Bank to a task force officer with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal law enforcement officials. The account activity consisted of plaintiffs' repeated cash deposits of amounts slightly under the amount, i.e., $10,000.01, which would have triggered federal CTR (currency transaction reporting) requirements. On behalf of Central Bank, we argued that such disclosures were actually mandated by the provisions of the Bank Secrecy Act, 31 U.S.C. § 5311, et seq. ("the BSA"), and regulations promulgated under the BSA, which require banks like Central Bank to report "any suspicious transaction relevant to a possible violation of law or regulation." 31 U.S.C. §5318(g)(1). We argued that to protect banks that comply with these legal obligations from claims by disgruntled bank customers, precisely like those asserted by Plaintiffs in this case, the BSA grants banks absolute immunity from such claims. The Court granted summary judgment, and the Kentucky Court of Appeals upheld the ruling. As co-counsel, I assisted in developing the factual and legal arguments supporting our motion for summary judgment. I also reviewed discovery and interviewed witnesses.

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

While I served as an Assistant United States Attorney, most of the matters I investigated and indicted were resolved through a plea agreement. Because I mainly prosecuted fraud and financial crimes cases, these matters often involved lengthy investigations with multiple targets and voluminous records and evidence. These cases did not go to trial as often as some of the other criminal matters.

Since joining Frost Brown Todd LLC in 2006, a significant part of my practice has involved transactional work, primarily commercial transactions, real estate, and assisting lenders in financing transactions, work outs and real estate matters. I lead a team of lawyers and legal professionals for one of our bank clients, for whom we function as outside general counsel. Examples of my transactional work include assisting a large energy client in the transfer of millions of dollars of assets to a related company, assisting another energy client in a $90 million acquisition of coal terminals and coal mines in Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia, and handling the large pipeline replacement project for Marathon Pipe Line referenced previously.

Given my prosecutor background, I also assist in internal investigations for firm clients, some of which involve interviewing dozens of witnesses, analyzing vast amounts of documents and e-mails, and counseling clients on potential issues.

I have also served in a number of leadership positions at Frost Brown Todd LLC. I currently serve as Chairman of the firm's Compensation Committee, the Committee that sets compensation for all equity members in our firm. The Committee is comprised of our Chairman, CEO and seven other members from across our various offices who are selected by their peers through a Nominating Committee and election process. I also currently serve on a two-year Nominating Committee that was convened last fall to fill significant leadership positions within our firm over the next two years, including CEO and positions on the Executive Committee and Compensation Committee.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

I served as a legal writing advisor during law school at Vanderbilt University in 1992. Other than this, I have never held a formal teaching position.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

I do not expect to have any income derived from other sources if I were confirmed as an Article III Judge, other than deferred compensation and profits from my current firm that were previously earned but not distributed until 2018 (after the 2017 financial books have been closed).

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

If possible, I would like to continue my volunteer work as Co-President of the Henry Clay High School Volleyball Booster Club, a public high school. If this presents an issue, I can certainly step down from this role.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached Financial Disclosure Report.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

The most likely potential conflicts would arise with my present law firm. For an appropriate amount of time, I would recuse myself from cases in which members of my current firm appear. Additionally, I would recuse myself from matters involving existing firm clients.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If confirmed, I will carefully review any real or potential conflicts by reference to 28 U.S.C. Section 455, Canon 3 Code of Conduct for United States Judges, and any and all other laws, rules, and practices governing such circumstances.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

Several years ago I assisted in retaining our firm as pro bono counsel in obtaining a humanitarian parole visa for a young Honduran girl to come to Lexington, Kentucky to have potentially life-saving heart surgery. Recently, I assisted one of our estate planning lawyers in representing a couple who were both local teachers. The wife had end stage cancer, and the couple needed to get all of their estate documents in order before she passed away, including a trust for the teachers' adult child with special needs. I have also provided informal counsel to The Nile, a center for adult women with substance abuse, including women who are pregnant. I and other members of my family have also volunteered for The Nile for a few years, and served as volunteers at Southland Christian Church. Over the years, I have also volunteered at local public schools in Lexington, Kentucky, including serving most recently as Co-President of the Henry Clay High School Volleyball Team Booster Club, which involved more than 100 hours of volunteer service in 2016.

26. Selection Process:

- a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts?
