13. Judicial Office: State (chronologically) any judicial offices you have held, including positions as an administrative law judge, whether such position was elected or appointed, and a description of the jurisdiction of each such court.

In February 2016, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware appointed me to the position of Special Master. To date, I have declined every request to serve as a Special Master in specific cases because of conflicts. On or about the day I was nominated, I informed the court of my intention to resign as a Special Master.

- a. Approximately how many cases have you presided over that have gone to verdict or judgment?

- i. Of these, approximately what percent were:

jury trials:	_____ %
bench trials:	_____ % [total 100%]
civil proceedings:	_____ %
criminal proceedings:	_____ % [total 100%]

- b. Provide citations for all opinions you have written, including concurrences and dissents.
- c. For each of the 10 most significant cases over which you presided, provide: (1) a capsule summary of the nature the case; (2) the outcome of the case; (3) the name and contact information for counsel who had a significant role in the trial of the case; and (3) the citation of the case (if reported) or the docket number and a copy of the opinion or judgment (if not reported).
- d. For each of the 10 most significant opinions you have written, provide: (1) citations for those decisions that were published; (2) a copy of those decisions that were not published; and (3) the names and contact information for the attorneys who played a significant role in the case.
- e. Provide a list of all cases in which certiorari was requested or granted.
- f. Provide a brief summary of and citations for all of your opinions where your decisions were reversed by a reviewing court or where your judgment was affirmed with significant criticism of your substantive or procedural rulings. If any of the opinions listed were not officially reported, provide copies of the opinions.

- g. Provide a description of the number and percentage of your decisions in which you issued an unpublished opinion and the manner in which those unpublished opinions are filed and/or stored.
- h. Provide citations for significant opinions on federal or state constitutional issues, together with the citation to appellate court rulings on such opinions. If any of the opinions listed were not officially reported, provide copies of the opinions.
- i. Provide citations to all cases in which you sat by designation on a federal court of appeals, including a brief summary of any opinions you authored, whether majority, dissenting, or concurring, and any dissenting opinions you joined.

14. Recusal: If you are or have been a judge, identify the basis by which you have assessed the necessity or propriety of recusal (If your court employs an "automatic" recusal system by which you may be recused without your knowledge, please include a general description of that system.) Provide a list of any cases, motions or matters that have come before you in which a litigant or party has requested that you recuse yourself due to an asserted conflict of interest or in which you have recused yourself sua sponte. Identify each such case, and for each provide the following information:

- a. whether your recusal was requested by a motion or other suggestion by a litigant or a party to the proceeding or by any other person or interested party; or if you recused yourself sua sponte;
- b. a brief description of the asserted conflict of interest or other ground for recusal;
- c. the procedure you followed in determining whether or not to recuse yourself;
- d. your reason for recusing or declining to recuse yourself, including any action taken to remove the real, apparent or asserted conflict of interest or to cure any other ground for recusal.

As noted in response to Question 13, in February 2016, I was appointed by the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. Pursuant to this appointment, when the court requests a special master for a case, I am notified. Upon receiving the notification I review the docket for the case. To date I have declined to serve because in each case I, or my firm, previously represented, or represented at the time I was requested to serve as a special master, one of the parties to the case (though not necessarily in the litigation at issue).

15. Public Office, Political Activities and Affiliations:

- a. List chronologically any public offices you have held, other than judicial offices, including the terms of service and whether such positions were elected or appointed. If appointed, please include the name of the individual who appointed you. Also, state chronologically any unsuccessful candidacies you have had for elective office or unsuccessful nominations for appointed office.

1987 – 1988:

Special Assistant to the Secretary of Finance – Department of Finance, State of Delaware. I do not recall who appointed me.

2001 – 2009:

United States Attorney, District of Delaware. I was appointed by President George W. Bush, after confirmation by the United States Senate.

- b. List all memberships and offices held in and services rendered, whether compensated or not, to any political party or election committee. If you have ever held a position or played a role in a political campaign, identify the particulars of the campaign, including the candidate, dates of the campaign, your title and responsibilities.

2000 Senate campaign of Bill Roth: I was Senator Roth's New Castle County Honorary Chairman and a member of his finance committee. My responsibilities consisted of introducing Senator Roth at his New Castle County campaign kick-off rally and attending finance committee meetings.

2000 Congressional campaign of Mike Castle: I was a member of Congressman Castle's finance committee. My responsibilities consisted of attending finance committee meetings and soliciting contributions to Congressman Castle's campaign.

2000 Presidential campaign of George W. Bush: I was co-chair of Delaware Lawyers for Bush. My responsibilities consisted of recruiting lawyers in Delaware to support President Bush's campaign.

16. Legal Career: Answer each part separately.

- a. Describe chronologically your law practice and legal experience after graduation from law school including:
- i. whether you served as clerk to a judge, and if so, the name of the judge, the court and the dates of the period you were a clerk;

From 1991 to 1992, I served as a law clerk to Judge Walter K. Stapleton, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit,

- ii. whether you practiced alone, and if so, the addresses and dates;

I have never practiced alone.

- iii. the dates, names and addresses of law firms or offices, companies or governmental agencies with which you have been affiliated, and the nature of your affiliation with each.

- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have never served as a mediator or arbitrator.

- b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

From 1992 to 1999, I represented the United States as an Assistant United States Attorney ("AUSA"). With the exception of habeas corpus matters, my caseload was entirely criminal. I handled all phases of criminal matters, including grand jury and non-grand jury investigations, pre-trial litigation, trials, and appeals. I prosecuted more than 100 defendants for various offenses, including money laundering, mail and wire fraud, tax evasion, robbery, extortion, arson, civil rights violations, and drug and firearms crimes. At the beginning of my tenure as an AUSA, I focused on appellate work. I argued ten cases and briefed more than 40 cases on behalf of the United States in the Third Circuit.

In late 1997, I was cross-designated by Delaware's Attorney General to serve as a Special Assistant Attorney General to co-prosecute a first-degree murder case, State v. Capano, in Delaware Superior Court. I had supervised the 18-month federal investigation which led to the indictment of the defendant by the State of Delaware in that case. For most of 1998 and the first two months of 1999, I worked almost exclusively on the Capano case. In February 1999, after a 15-week trial, the jury returned a verdict of guilty and recommended the death penalty.

From 1999 to 2001, I worked in private practice as a partner with Morris, Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell, LLP. My caseload generally consisted of civil litigation matters, intellectual property disputes, and internal corporate investigations.

From 2001 until 2009, I represented the United States in both criminal and civil matters as United States Attorney. As United States Attorney, I set the priorities for the U.S. Attorney's Office and reviewed all major cases prosecuted and defended by the office. I also handled personally a number of cases before the grand jury, in the District Court, and on appeal.

Since 2009, I have worked in private practice as a partner with Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP. My caseload generally consists of civil litigation matters, intellectual property disputes, and white collar matters.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

From 1992 to 1999, as an AUSA, and from 2001 to 2009, while serving as the United States Attorney, my client was the United States.

From 1999 to 2001 as a partner with Morris, Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell

LLP, and since 2009 as a partner at Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP my clients have included multinational corporations (e.g., Nationwide, Motiva, and LG Electronics), local companies and law firms (e.g., Bayhealth Medical Center and Potter, Anderson & Corroon LLP), emerging high-tech companies (e.g., AstroPower, Inc. and EM Photonics, Inc.), government agencies (e.g., the Delaware River and Bay Authority), and individuals (e.g., a former CEO of financial institution, a doctor who was subject of federal healthcare investigation, a 17-year old Cameroonian boy who sought and won political asylum, and the founder of an alternative fuel company).

I consider myself a general litigator and do not purport to specialize in any substantive area of the law.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

Approximately 85% of my practice has been in litigation.

As an Assistant United States Attorney from 1992 to 1999, I appeared in court frequently. I generally appeared in the United States District Court once or twice a week. I also presented oral argument before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit on 10 occasions.

In my first two years of private practice from 1999 to 2001, I appeared less frequently in court. I had two patent trials, represented a solar power company in a court-supervised mediation, represented a partnership in a court-supervised arbitration, and made approximately 20 appearances on behalf of clients in discovery matters.

As United States Attorney from 2001 to 2009, I appeared in court frequently. I co-prosecuted a seven-day jury trial of a major drug dealer, argued two appeals before the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Second and Third Circuits, and handled numerous hearings and arguments in the District Court.

Since 2009, I have appeared in court occasionally. I have tried one case in the District Court for Delaware (2013), one case in state court (2014), and a month-long arbitration in Texas (2016); orally argued two appeals in the Delaware Supreme Court (2015); appeared regularly in hearings in patent cases in the District Court for Delaware; and appeared occasionally in state court hearings and federal court criminal proceedings.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1. federal courts: 90%

- 2. state courts of record: 10%
- 3. other courts: 0%
- 4. administrative agencies: 0%

ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- 1. civil proceedings: 50%
- 2. criminal proceedings: 50%

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I have tried to verdict or judgment approximately 14 cases in the United States District Court for Delaware and two cases in Delaware's Superior Court. In 12 of those cases I was lead or solo counsel; in four of the cases I was associate or local counsel.

I have also tried an unknown number of criminal and/or violation cases as an Assistant United States Attorney in United States Magistrate Court. I would estimate the number of such trials to be somewhere between 20 and 50. Finally, I have tried an unknown number of Protection from Abuse Cases in the Family of Court of Delaware. I would estimate the number of such trials to be somewhere between 20 and 50.

i. What percentage of these trials were:

- 1. jury: 80%
- 2. non-jury: 20%

- e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

Brief Amicus Curiae of the Delaware River and Bay Authority in Support of Petition for Writ of Certiorari, Delaware River Port Authority v. Fraternal Order of Police Penn-Jersey Lodge 30, 530 U.S. 1275 (2000) (No. 99-1758) (cert. denied). Brief available at 2000 WL 34014336.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
  - b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
  - c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.
1. State v. Capano, No. 9711006198 (Del. Super. Ct.).

I led an 18-month, multi-agency federal grand jury investigation into the disappearance of the Governor's scheduling secretary, Anne Marie Fahey. The evidence uncovered by that investigation resulted in the indictment of the defendant by the State of Delaware for her murder. I was cross-designated as a Special Assistant Attorney General to co-prosecute the defendant, a millionaire and prominent attorney. The defendant was convicted and sentenced to death after a 15-week jury trial. The case was notable because there was no body, no weapon, and no witness to the killing.

3. In re Grand Jury, 111 F.3d 1083 (3d Cir. 1997).

I wrote the briefs and argued for the United States in this appeal from a contempt order issued by the District Court for the District of Delaware against a witness before a federal grand jury. The Court of Appeals (Sloviter, J.) held, as a matter of first impression, that the government's grant of use and derivative use immunity whereby it promised the grand jury witness that it would not use her testimony, or the fruits thereof, in any criminal proceeding against her husband or seek an indictment of her husband before the same grand jury before which she was testifying, was sufficient to defeat her privilege against adverse spousal testimony and to compel the witness to testify.

4. In re Grand Jury, 111 F.3d 1066 (3d Cir. 1997).

I wrote the briefs and argued for the United States in this appeal from the District Court's denial of motions by two victims of a privately executed wiretap to quash a subpoena duces tecum to obtain for the grand jury recordings of unlawfully intercepted communications. The District Court had denied the motions on the ground that the government played no role in the interception of the recordings at issue and therefore the government's "clean hands" removed the recordings from the federal wiretap law's prohibition on the introduction of unlawfully intercepted communications into a grand jury proceeding. The Third Circuit (Stapleton, J.) held that there is no "clean hands" exception under the federal wiretap laws and reversed the District Court's decision.

I wrote the briefs and argued on behalf of the United States in this appeal from the denial of a motion to quash a subpoena requiring the grand jury testimony of the daughter of the target of the grand jury's investigation. The Third Circuit affirmed the District Court's order to compel the daughter's testimony, and held, as a matter of first impression, that it would not recognize a new parent-child privilege.

I acted as sole counsel for the United States in the two-week trial of two defendants on mail fraud, wire fraud, money laundering and tax charges. The case involved more than 1,400 victims of the defendants' telemarketing scheme. A jury convicted the defendants on all counts and the Third Circuit affirmed the defendants' conviction and sentences

7. United States v. Renfro, 46 F.3d 1120 (3d Cir. 1994)

I wrote the brief and argued on behalf the United States in this appeal from the defendant's conviction and sentence for bribery. The defendant was a prominent Philadelphia lawyer who attempted to bribe a witness in a federal criminal proceeding. The Third Circuit affirmed the conviction and sentence.

8. United States v. Stewart, No. 02-CR-62-JJF-1 (D. Del.)

I co-prosecuted the defendant on drug distribution, money laundering, and racketeering charges. The case was challenging because it was a "dry" drug conspiracy – that is, there were no drug seizures to corroborate the testimony of the cooperating witnesses. After an eight-day trial, the jury convicted the defendant on all counts alleged in the indictment. The District Court sentenced the defendant to life imprisonment.

I co-prosecuted the defendant for his theft of trade secrets valued at more than $400 million from his former-employer, the DuPont Company. I oversaw the investigation, drafted the prosecution memorandum, drafted and negotiated the plea agreement, assisted in drafting the government's sentencing briefs, and represented the government at the plea and sentencing hearings.

10. Nationwide Emerging Managers, LLC v. NorthPointe Holdings, LLC, 112 A.3d 878 (Del. 2015)

I wrote the brief and argued on behalf of three Nationwide entities in this appeal from a Superior Court judgment which had imposed a $10.4 million cash judgment and canceled a $19 million note held by a Nationwide affiliate. The case arose out of Nationwide's sale of its majority ownership of an investment advisory firm, NorthPointe Capital, and Nationwide's subsequent termination of NorthPointe's sub-advisory agreements for certain mutual funds. The Superior Court (Rocanelli, J.) ruled that Nationwide had violated the express terms of the applicable purchase agreement as well as the implied covenant of good faith. I was counsel for the Nationwide entities at trial. The Supreme Court reversed, holding that the plain and unambiguous terms of the purchase agreement permitted Nationwide to terminate the sub-advisory agreements in question.

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

As United States Attorney for Delaware (2001 – 2009), I supervised more than 40 employees, including 16 Assistant United States Attorneys. I spent the majority of my time on case-related matters. I also established the priorities and policies of the office within the parameters set by the Department of Justice. I devoted considerable time and effort to working with federal investigative agencies, local and state police, and the Delaware Attorney General's Office to address in a cooperative manner law enforcement and terrorism issues in our state.

I have spent significant time and effort in private practice (1999 – 2001, 2009 – present) representing individuals and corporations in confidential criminal investigations that did not result in charges against my clients. I have also conducted internal investigations for numerous corporate clients. From 1999 to 2001, I conducted a number of internal investigations for the Delaware River & Bay Authority (“DRBA”), a bi-state entity for which my firm at the time (Morris, Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell, LLP) served as Delaware counsel. I also provided the DRBA with advice on contract, employment, and constitutional issues and conducted numerous training sessions with members of the DRBA's police department on a variety of subjects.

I have also spent significant time and effort in private practice working on litigation matters that did not progress to trial. Those matters include:

State v. MERSCORP, Inc., C.A. No. 6987-CS (Del Ch.). In 2012, I was the principal author of the briefs filed in support of the defendants' motion to dismiss and I argued orally the motion to dismiss before then-Chancellor Strine. The case was settled and the complaint was dismissed after Chancellor Strine expressed doubts at the conclusion of oral argument as to the viability of the deceptive trade practices claims alleged in the State's complaint.

Motiva Enters. LLC v. SR Int'l Bus. Ins. Co. PLC, C.A. Nos. 12-1097 and 12-1460 (D. Del.). In 2013, I co-wrote the briefs and conducted oral argument on behalf of Motiva in these consolidated removal proceedings for two actions which arose out of an insurance coverage dispute among Motiva and 14 insurance companies. Judge Stark granted Motiva's motions to remand the two actions to the Delaware Superior Court and the Court of Chancery, and the Third Circuit affirmed that ruling. The case was ultimately resolved on a confidential basis.

Salomone v. Wolfe, C.A. No. 16C-05-229 PRW CCLD (Del. Super. Ct.). In 2016, I represented all defendants, a law firm partnership and several partners, in this dispute with a former partner that was resolved on a confidential basis.

Johnson v. Preferred Prof. Ins. Co., C.A. No. N13C-01-119 RBY (Del. Super. Ct.). From 2013 through 2015, I represented defendants Mason Turner and, until a potential conflict arose, his former law firm, Prickett, Jones & Elliott, P.A., in this fraud case which arose out of allegations concerning a 2008 medical negligence case in which Turner represented a physician's assistant. The case was resolved in November 2015 on a confidential basis.

Fangman v. Mitchell, C.A. No. N16C-03-014 VLM (Del. Super. Ct.). I represented defendants Aramark Educational Services, LLC and the University of Delaware in this case which arose out of the alleged sexual assault of a special needs employee at a dining facility run by Aramark on the grounds of the University. The case was ultimately resolved on a confidential basis.

United States v. Crusader Servs. Corp., 2:12-cr-00644-DMC (D.N.J.). From 2009 to 2012, I represented Royal Bank America and its subsidiaries, including Crusader Services Corporation, in connection with an investigation by the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice into alleged antitrust violations arising out of tax lien auctions in New Jersey. The matter was resolved in 2012 with the entry of guilty pleas in federal court by Crusader Corporation Services and its co-owner and President, Robert Stein.

Delaware patent cases. Since 2010, I have acted as Delaware counsel in more than 30 patent cases which did not, or have not yet, progressed to trial.

During the past three years, I have spent considerable time and effort on two significant pending litigation matters that have not yet progressed to trial:

United States v. Tommaso, Cr. No. 15-602-2 (E.D. Pa.). I represent defendant Ralph Tommaso in this criminal fraud and tax case.

In re Wilmington Trust Secs. Litig., Civil Action No. 10-cv-00990-SLR (D. Del.). I represent defendant Ted Cecala, the former CEO of Wilmington Trust Company, in this class action securities fraud case.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

I have not taught any courses.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

I am vested in the Federal Employee Retirement System, the Thrift Savings Plan, the Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP Tax-Saver Retirement Plan, the Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP Defined Contribution Plan, and the Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP Cash Balance Plan.

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

No.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached Financial Disclosure Report.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

The parties likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest during my initial service as a District Court Judge would include Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP and individuals and entities with whom I have a financial, familial, and/or personal relationship. To identify parties which present an actual or potential conflict-of-interest and to address any conflict were it to arise, I would consult with the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, 28 U.S.C. § 455, and the relevant rules, practices, procedures, and personnel of the District Court, the Third Circuit, the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, and the Judicial Conference.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If confirmed I will carefully review and address any real or potential conflicts by reference to 28 U.S.C. § 455, Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, and any and all other laws, rules, and practices governing such circumstances.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

As an Assistant United States Attorney ("AUSA") and United States Attorney, I served numerous disadvantaged victims of crime, but I am unable to recall specific names of most of these victims and unable to estimate with any degree of accuracy the amount of time I spent working on behalf of these victims. Conflict-of-interest considerations limited my ability to serve in a professional capacity non-victims who were disadvantaged. I did, however, make an effort to serve the disadvantaged in other, non-professional ways. For example, throughout my tenure as an AUSA, I was active with Delaware Hospice, Inc. as a hospice care worker volunteer, special events coordinator, long range planning committee member, and board director; I estimate that I spent an average of 25 to 30 hours per year on these activities. From 1994 to 1996, I served as president of the board of trustees for Mom's House of Wilmington, a non-profit organization which ran a free day-care facility for unwed mothers who were completing their education. During that three-year period, I spent approximately 40 to 50 hours each year attending board meetings, negotiating the purchase of the building to house the day-care center, and working to open the center. In 1997, I joined the board of directors of the Wilmington Music School, a community school dedicated to bringing musical opportunities to the city's diverse population. I estimate that I spent approximately 20 hours per year for the Music School, attending board meetings, giving counsel, and fundraising.

When I first moved to private practice in 1999, I continued to serve on the boards of Delaware Hospice and the Wilmington Music School. I also joined the St. Francis Healthcare Services Foundation in 1999 to help raise funds to support the hospital of St. Francis and, specifically, its outreach efforts with the poor and minority communities in the city of Wilmington. I estimate that I spent five to ten hours each year attending meetings and giving counsel for the Foundation.

While in private practice in 1999 and 2000, I represented on a pro bono basis Friedrich Ebede in connection with his application for political asylum, which was granted December 14, 2000. Friedrich was then a 17 year-old boy who, at the direction and insistence of his mother, fled his native country of Cameroon in 1999 to escape political persecution. Cameroonian authorities had tortured Friedrich physically and mentally because his father had declared himself a candidate for the presidency of Cameroon in 1997. Friedrich eventually arrived in the United States with less than fifty dollars in his pocket, no family, no friends, and no means of support. His father's whereabouts are unknown, and he has had very limited contact by telephone with his mother, who remains in Cameroon. A family in Wilmington, Delaware opened its home to Friedrich, and a local private school gave him a scholarship to complete his final year of high school. My representation of Friedrich included conducting a factual investigation, researching Cameroon's political situation, drafting Friedrich's asylum application and affidavit, and accompanying Friedrich to his asylum hearing. I spent approximately 35 hours representing Friedrich.

I also represented, on a pro bono basis, during that timeframe Steven Sarbaugh. He was a house painter whom an attorney in Wilmington refused to pay for extensive work Steven did on the attorney's home. I spent approximately 34 hours litigating Steven's case, which settled on favorable terms for him after the Court of Common Pleas ordered the defendant attorney to pay the costs incurred in connection with the attorney's discovery violations.

I was required to resign from all non-profit boards when I became United States Attorney in 2001 and could not represent pro bono clients when I held that position.

Since returning to private practice in 2009, I have devoted at least 20 hours each year to pro bono matters. Between 2009 and 2015, most of those matters were protection from abuse cases I prosecuted on behalf of domestic violence victims in Delaware's Family Court. In 2015, at the request of Delaware's Supreme Court, I wrote an amicus curiae brief in support of a pro se defendant's appeal of his criminal conviction. The Court adopted the argument set forth in that brief and vacated the defendant's conviction (Grimes v. State, No. 416, 2013, 2015 WL 2231801 (Del. May 12, 2015)).

In 2016, I devoted approximately 100 hours to two court-sponsored initiatives: (1) Delaware's Access to Justice Commission, and (2) the revision of the Local Rules for the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware.

Upon moving back to private practice in 2009, I rejoined the Board of Delaware Hospice and also became a board member of the Ministry of Caring. For the past decade, I have been a volunteer at the Ministry's Emmanuel Dining Room, serving breakfast every other Monday morning to homeless and impoverished persons.

26. Selection Process:

- a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

On or about November 28, 2016, I submitted to the office of Senator Tom Carper an Expression of Interest in response to an email solicitation from Senator Carper's office distributed to all members of the Delaware Bar. In the summer of 2017, I was interviewed by a judicial selection commission convened by Senators Carper and Coons. I was subsequently interviewed by Senators Carper and Coons and members of their staffs. I was later informed by Senator Carper's Office that the commission had recommended my nomination and that I would be one of three names submitted by Senators Carper and Coons to the White House Counsel's office.

On August 21, 2017, I was interviewed by members of the White Counsel's Office and the Department of Justice. On September 15, 2017, I was informed by Senator Carper and the White House Counsel's Office that the President had decided to nominate me for the District Court pending completion of a background check. On December 20, 2017, the President submitted my nomination to the Senate.

Throughout this process I have been in contact with attorneys from the White House Counsel's Office and the Office of Legal Policy at the Department of Justice.

- b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
