Dear Mr. President:

Earlier this year, we established a screening committee to review candidates for federal district court judgeships in the Central District of Illinois (CDIL). Our CDIL screening committee, comprised of five distinguished members of Illinois's legal community, has carefully evaluated candidates by reviewing their professional records and application questionnaires, contacting references, and conducting interviews. The screening committee then submitted its findings and recommendations to us.

We have interviewed the finalists, reviewed their records, and consulted with each other regarding their qualifications. We now submit the following candidates for your consideration for current and future vacancies on the U.S. District Court for the Central District of Illinois, in alphabetical order:

Mohammed G. Ahmed
Christopher R. Doscotch
Jonathan E. Hawley
Katherine G. Legge

We appreciate the opportunity to provide assistance and input in filling these vacancies, and we look forward to working with you to ensure a fair and swift confirmation process after you submit nominations to the Senate.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Durbin
United States Senator

Tammy Duckworth
