I have made financial contributions to charitable organizations over the years. I have not included in the list above any organizations to which I gave funds and did not otherwise participate in organization activities, although the organization may label me as a member by virtue of my financial contributions.

- b. Indicate whether any of these organizations listed in response to 11a above currently discriminate or formerly discriminated on the basis of race, sex, religion or national origin either through formal membership requirements or the practical implementation of membership policies. If so, describe any action you have taken to change these policies and practices.

None to my knowledge.

12. Published Writings and Public Statements:

- a. List the titles, publishers, and dates of books, articles, reports, letters to the editor, editorial pieces, or other published material you have written or edited, including material published only on the Internet. Supply four (4) copies of all published material to the Committee.

I have done my best to identify all titles, publishers and dates of books, articles, reports, letters to the editor, editorials or other published material, including through a review of my personal files and searches of publicly available electronic databases. Despite my searches, there may be other materials I have been unable to identify, find or remember. I have located the following:

James B. Comey, Letter to the Editor, "Leave Emotion out of the Abortion Debate," The New York Times, May 2, 1982.

James B. Comey, "Wide-eyed Visitor to Africa Discovers Blessings of America," The Wall Street Journal, September 12, 1983 opinion/editorial page.

“Intelligence Under The Law,” 10 GREEN BAG 2D 439 (2007) (Deputy AG speech at NSA Law Day, May 2005).

“The Role of General Counsel in a Crisis,” book chapter in “Defending Corporations and Individuals in Government Investigations” (West 2011).

- b. Supply four (4) copies of any reports, memoranda or policy statements you prepared or contributed in the preparation of on behalf of any bar association, committee, conference, or organization of which you were or are a member. If you do not have a copy of a report, memorandum or policy statement, give the name and address of the organization that issued it, the date of the document, and a summary of its subject matter.

None.

- c. Supply four (4) copies of any testimony, official statements or other communications relating, in whole or in part, to matters of public policy or legal interpretation, that you have issued or provided or that others presented on your behalf to public bodies or public officials.

I have done my best to identify any testimony, official statements or other communications relating to public policy or legal interpretation, including through a review of my personal files and searches on publicly available electronic databases. Despite my searches, there may be other items I have been unable to identify, find or remember. I have located the following:

June 19, 2002, testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee Subcommittee on Crime and Drugs concerning “Penalties for White Collar Criminal Offenses.”

November 14, 2002, testimony before the United States Sentencing Commission Ad Hoc Advisory Group on Organizational Sentencing Guidelines.

- d. Supply four (4) copies, transcripts or recordings of all speeches or talks delivered by you, including commencement speeches, remarks, lectures, panel discussions, conferences, political speeches, and question-and-answer sessions. Include the date and place where they were delivered, and readily available press reports about the speech or talk. If you do not have a copy of the speech or a transcript or recording of your remarks, give the name and address of the group before whom the speech was given, the date of the speech, and a summary of its subject matter. If you did not speak from a prepared text, furnish a copy of any outline or notes from which you spoke.

I have done my best to identify transcripts or recordings of all speeches or talks delivered, including through a review of personal files and searches of publicly available electronic databases. Despite my searches, there may be other material I have been unable to identify, find or remember. The records of my speeches that I have located are set forth below.

In addition, during my service in the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York and as the Deputy Attorney General, I gave essentially the same or very similar speeches on some topics on multiple occasions. They are described below to the best of my ability, but I cannot reconstruct the specific dates and other details of each such speech. I have supplied documents relevant to these speeches whenever possible.

13. Public Office, Political Activities and Affiliations:

- a. List chronologically any public offices you have held, other than judicial offices, including the terms of service and whether such positions were elected or appointed. If appointed, please include the name of the individual who appointed you. Also, state chronologically any unsuccessful candidacies you have had for elective office or unsuccessful nominations for appointed office.

United States Attorney, Southern District of New York; appointed by President George W. Bush (1/02 to 12/03)

Deputy Attorney General of the United States; appointed by President George W. Bush (12/03-8/05)

- b. List all memberships and offices held in and services rendered, whether compensated or not, to any political party or election committee. If you have ever held a position or played a role in a political campaign, identify the particulars of the campaign, including the candidate, dates of the campaign, your title and responsibilities.

None.

14. Legal Career: Answer each part separately.

- a. Describe chronologically your law practice and legal experience after graduation from law school including:

- i. whether you served as clerk to a judge, and if so, the name of the judge, the court and the dates of the period you were a clerk;

Law Clerk, Hon. John M. Walker, Jr., Southern District of New York (1985-86)

- ii. whether you practiced alone, and if so, the addresses and dates;

I have not practiced alone.

- iii. the dates, names and addresses of law firms or offices, companies or governmental agencies with which you have been affiliated, and the nature of your affiliation with each.

- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have not served as a mediator or arbitrator.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

I have spent much of my career as an attorney with the Department of Justice, first as an AUSA investigating and prosecuting a wide range of matters in New York and Virginia, then as the United States Attorney in Manhattan, and finally as the Deputy Attorney General. My time with the Department of Justice was preceded by a year as an associate at a big law firm focused on civil litigation and then broken up by a three-year stint with a large law firm in Richmond, where I did mostly civil trial work. Since leaving government service in 2005, I have been general counsel of a prominent public company and a well-known private investment manager. The focus in both those general counsel roles was on managing lawyers, both inside and outside the companies, supervising complex matters, and advising the senior leadership of the firm on a wide variety of matters.

1986-87: commercial litigation
1987-93: criminal prosecution
1993-96: commercial litigation and criminal defense
1996-2001: criminal prosecution
2001-05: supervising government lawyers/agents/employees
2005-13: general counsel to companies
2013: academic

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

For much of my career, my client was the United States. Outside of government service, I have represented mostly institutions, both as outside counsel and as in-house general counsel. I also did a small amount of criminal defense work representing individuals during my time at a Richmond law firm.

1986-87: large accounting firm, accountant's liability defense
1987-93: federal criminal prosecution

1993-96: manufacturing company, toxic tort defense; railroad, FELA defense; various corporate clients, internal investigations and representation during government investigations; criminal defense trial
1996 to 2001: federal criminal prosecution
2001-05: United States government
2005-13: the companies where I was employed

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

1986-2001: all litigation, 100%
2002-13: supervising litigation as well as many other areas, est. 75%

Court appearance frequency:

1986-87: not at all
1987-93: frequently as prosecutor
1993-96: occasionally
1996-2003: occasionally
2003-05: once
2005-13: not at all

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

For the periods during which I litigated:

1. federal courts: 100% when with the government; 20% when in private practice);
2. state courts of record: 0% when with the government; 80% when in private practice;
3. other courts;
4. administrative agencies.

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

For the periods during which I litigated:

1. civil proceedings: 0% when with the government; 80% when in private practice;
2. criminal proceedings: 100% when with the government; 20% when in private practice.

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

25 (sole counsel in 18; chief counsel in 4; co-counsel in 3)

- i. What percentage of these trials were:
 - 1. Jury, 95%; and
 - 2. non-jury, 5%.
- e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

Represented the United States at Oral Argument in Devenpeck v. Alford, November 2004.

Brief of Amici Curiae Kenneth B. Mehlman et al. as Amici Curiae Supporting Respondents, Hollingsworth v. Perry, No. 12-144 (2012). Copies attached.

15. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

(1) United States v. John Gambino, et al. , 88 CR 919 (Judge Leisure, Southern District of New York) (1991-93). Served as lead prosecutor in racketeering, murder, and drug trafficking case against members of La Cosa Nostra in New York. Case was tried during first six months of 1993. Lead defendants John and Joe Gambino were convicted of bail jumping, but jury hung on remaining charges. They and one other defendant (Mannino) then pled guilty before retrial and the fourth defendant (Romano) was convicted at a trial after I left the Southern District of New York for Richmond.

(9) United States v. Khoroush Bakhtiari , 88 CR 395 (Judge Sand, Southern District of New York) (1988-90). Served as sole prosecutor of weapons and prison escape case against Iranian national. Bakhtiari was an aspiring terrorist who was arrested with a frightening array of weapons as he tried to rent a high-floor apartment near the United Nations. While in federal custody, he escaped by sliding down a rope made of dental floss from 7th floor of federal jail, but was apprehended. Case was tried in August 1989 in U.S. District Court in Manhattan and Bakhtiari was convicted. Affirmed in part, vacated in part (for resentencing), United States v. Bakhtiari, 913 F.2d 1053 (2d Cir. 1990).

Coates was a felon connected to a firearm by Richmond police. Case was fairly simple, but very significant because it was one of the early Exile cases and I tried it before a hostile federal judge in an effort to show management support for Project Exile. Coates was convicted after a jury trial. Affirmed, United States v. Coates, 1998 WL 454793 (4th Cir. 1998) (unpublished).

16. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

As an attorney, I have participated in a wide range of legal activities, from the trials listed above, to internal investigations, to counseling boards and senior executives, to overseeing mergers, acquisitions, and equity investments. I have been fortunate to touch nearly every area of the law in and out of government. As a government leader, I participated in analysis and decision-making on a host of subjects, from national security to criminal investigative and policy matters. My exposure to legal issues after my government service was similarly broad and also involved leading complex organizations and advising the senior leadership of enterprises. Describing matters in any detail from the periods in which I served as General Counsel would risk breaching my duty of confidentiality to my clients. I have not engaged in lobbying activities.

17. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

I taught trial practice for seven years (1995-2001) at the University of Richmond Law School and appellate advocacy for about three of those years. Copies attached.

18. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

Upon reaching the age of 55, in December 2015, I expect to receive my lump-sum pension payment from Lockheed Martin in the amount of $400,000.

I expect to receive from Bridgewater Associates, LP, $163,000 on June 30, 2013, and, if I am confirmed, I will also receive a full payout of my interests in its profit sharing plan, in the amount of $3,072,654, prior to the date that I assume the position of the Director of the FBI.

19. Outside Commitments During Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service? If so, explain.

No.

20. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached SF 278.

21. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Net Worth Statement.

22. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, affiliations, pending and categories of litigation, financial arrangements or other factors that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

In connection with the nomination process, I have consulted with the Office of Government Ethics and the Department of Justice's designated agency ethics official to identify potential conflicts of interest. Any potential conflicts of interest will be resolved in accordance with the terms of an ethics agreement that I have entered into with the Department's designated agency ethics official. I am not aware of any other potential conflicts of interest.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

In connection with the nomination process, I have consulted with the Office of Government Ethics and the Department of Justice's designated agency ethics official to identify potential conflicts of interest. Any potential conflicts of interest will be resolved in accordance with the terms of an ethics agreement that I have entered into with the Department's designated agency ethics official. I am not aware of any other potential conflicts of interest.

23. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each. If you are not an attorney, please use this opportunity to report significant charitable and volunteer work you may have done.

I have tried to help the disadvantaged in many ways during my life, including using my skills as a lawyer. Much of my career was devoted to working long hours to protect the disadvantaged from the ravages of violent crime, work that is among the most meaningful I have ever done. I started with the legal aid clinic in law school, have done tutoring, mentoring, and pro bono projects, but I think it is fair to say the work I have tried to do for others in non-legal roles has been more extensive than any pro bono work I have done. For example, my wife and I are licensed foster parents and care for infants and toddlers placed with us by the Connecticut Department of Children and Families. As part of that commitment, in late 2011, we took into our home a newborn boy born prematurely with cocaine in his blood stream and cared for him for six months until he could be placed with a foster/adoptive mother. Because of our interest in foster care, we donated money to create a charitable foundation devoted to supporting children who "age out" of foster care, but struggle to survive. In Richmond, I served on the Board of The Healing Place, a non-profit devoted to reducing drug addiction among the homeless population, and as Acting Chairman of Weed & Seed of Richmond Inc., a non-profit dedicated to reviving crime-ridden neighborhoods. In nearly all the communities in which we have lived, I have taught Sunday school and done volunteer work through our churches.
