b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

Since graduating law school in 2008, I have spent close to five years in government practice: approximately two and a half years as a law clerk, and approximately three and a half years as an attorney in the Office of Legal Counsel. Between my first two clerkships, I spent approximately a year and a half at a law firm representing private clients. For exact dates please see response to question 14(a).

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

In law firm practice, my clients included private companies and individuals. Please see responses to questions 15-16 for more detail. During my work as an attorney in the Office of Legal counsel, I specialized in counterterrorism and intelligence matters, the use of military force abroad, and the Emoluments Clause.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1. federal courts;
2. state courts of record;
3. other courts;
4. administrative agencies

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

1. civil proceedings;
2. criminal proceedings.

In the nearly ten years since I graduated law school, I have devoted about a year and a half to litigation. The majority took place as an associate at Kellogg, Hansen, Todd, Figel & Frederick. To my best recollection, the matters were civil and in federal courts. I did not appear in court. I also participated, to a limited degree, in some litigation-related matters as an attorney in the Office of Legal Counsel. To my best recollection, the matters were civil and in federal courts.

As a result, to the best of my recollection, approximately 15% of my practice has been in litigation. Of that, approximately 100% has been in federal court and 100% has involved civil matters; and 0% has been in state courts and 0% has involved criminal matters.

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

- i. What percentage of these trials were:
1. jury;
  2. non-jury.

I have not tried a case in district court or trial court to final decision. (I have worked on cases at the appellate level that have resulted in a final decision from a court of law, but do not read the question to encompass those matters.) As a result, the question of percentages is not applicable.

- e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States. Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

As an associate at Kellogg, Hansen, Todd, Figel & Frederick, I assisted in drafting briefs at the certiorari and merits stages:

- Bruesewitz v. Wyeth, No. 09-152: Merits briefs for petitioners
- Fernandez v. Frost National Bank, No. 10-674: Petition for a writ of certiorari

15. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
  - b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
  - c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.
- i. Bruesewitz v. Wyeth
- Supreme Court, No. 09-152
  - Citation of reported decision: 562 U.S. 223 (2011)
  - Approximate dates of representation: 12/09 – 4/11

As an associate at Kellogg, Hansen, Todd, Figel & Frederick, I assisted in drafting petitioners' merits briefs. In a 7-2 decision, the Court answered in the affirmative.

This response does not include work conducted as a law clerk or as an attorney in the Office of Legal Counsel.

Aside from matters listed elsewhere on this form, as an associate at Kellogg, Hansen, Todd, Figel & Frederick, I assisted in the firm's representation of the Bank of New York Mellon in connection with an investigation by the New York Attorney General's office into actions taken by the Bank in the foreign exchange markets. Largely after I departed the firm, other entities and individuals also had begun to investigate or file suit against the Bank, and the matter moved from the investigative phase to litigation. In addition, largely after I departed the firm, the firm also represented various then-current and former employees of the Bank. I was an associate on the matter, and I principally engaged in fact gathering, drafted white papers, and met with the clients and attorneys from the New York Attorney General's office. For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

First-Year Legal Research and Writing, Harvard Law School, 2016-17 academic year.

As described on the law school's website,

The First-Year Legal Research and Writing Program is a series of sequenced, interrelated exercises introducing students to the way lawyers conduct legal research, analyze and frame legal positions, and present their work in writing and in oral argument. The course includes weekly meetings led by Climenko Fellows, library staff, and upper class teaching assistants. Students actively learn research and writing skills by preparing multiple drafts of memoranda and other documents and by becoming familiar with accessing both print and electronic research materials.<sup>4</sup>

In connection with this nomination process, I have consulted with the Office of Government Ethics and the Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board's designated agency ethics official to identify potential conflicts of interest. Any potential conflicts of interest will be resolved in accordance with the terms of an ethics agreement that I have entered into with the Board's agency ethics official. I am not aware of any other potential conflicts of interest.

23. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each. If you are not an attorney, please use this opportunity to report significant charitable and volunteer work you may have done.

As an associate at Kellogg, Hansen, Todd, Figel & Frederick, I assisted in the pro bono representation of an inmate incarcerated in state prison. He had filed a pro se 42 U.S.C. §1983 lawsuit alleging that prison officials had mistreated him. The district court dismissed his case. We represented one of the inmate's claims on appeal and won a reversal by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. I spent a total of approximately 140 hours on the matter. I conducted additional pro bono work at the law firm for approximately 15 hours.
