The Honorable Dianne Feinstein
Ranking Member
Committee on the Judiciary
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman and Ranking Member Feinstein:

I have reviewed the questionnaire submitted to the Senate Judiciary Committee on October 26, 2018, in connection with my nomination to be a judge on the United States Court of International Trade. Incorporating the additional information listed below and in the attachments to this letter, I certify that the information contained in the questionnaire is, to the best of my knowledge, true and accurate.

Question 12(d)

On October 29, 2018, I spoke to a class in the Master of Science program at the Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University about the role of the Office of the United States Trade Representative in the making and execution of United States trade policy. I have no notes, transcript, or recording. The address of the Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University is ICC 301, 37th and O Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20057.

On November 1, 2018, I spoke to a class at the Howard University School of Law to describe the content and role of the Office of the United States Trade Representative in making United States trade policy, and to recruit students to be interns, externs and legal fellows at the Office of the United States Trade Representative. I have no notes, transcript, or recording. The address of the Howard University School of Law is 2900 Van Ness Street, Washington, D.C. 20008.

On November 2, 2018, I spoke to a class at Georgetown Law School on aspects of United States trade policy, Georgetown Law School, Washington, D.C. Notes supplied.

The Honorable Lindsey Graham
