- iv. whether you served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings and, if so, a description of the 10 most significant matters with which you were involved in that capacity.

I have not served as a mediator or arbitrator in alternative dispute resolution proceedings.

b. Describe:

- i. the general character of your law practice and indicate by date when its character has changed over the years.

Starting in 1983, I interned as a law clerk at the District Attorney's Office of Orleans Parish both during the law school year and during the summer. In 1987, I continued in the District Attorney's Office as an Assistant District Attorney. I began in juvenile court and then worked as a junior and senior assistant in the Trials Division. I subsequently became Deputy Chief of Trials in 1989 and then Chief of Trials in 1990, overseeing the felony trial attorneys while continuing to prosecute cases. From 1987 through 1992, I prosecuted over one hundred felony criminal trials, specializing in homicide trials.

I subsequently expanded my law practice by joining a civil firm, Abbott & Meeks, where most of the work involved maritime litigation, class actions, and products liability in federal court. I was with Abbott & Meeks from 1992 through 1993. During this period, I also reviewed and drafted contracts and I drafted and answered discovery motions.

In 2013, I resumed my law practice and expanded the scope of my practice by becoming General Counsel to the Archdiocese of New Orleans. The focus of my practice is to advise the Archdiocese and its related entities, as well as principals and pastors on a wide range of matters affecting them. In this capacity, I have represented the Archdiocese before federal agencies such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Internal Revenue Service, and the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services as well as in state courts in Orleans, Jefferson, and St. Tammany Parishes. Additionally, I have created and presented online and in-person training on drafting corporate handbooks, Americans with Disabilities Act compliance, health leave policies, and wage and hour compliance.

- ii. your typical clients and the areas at each period of your legal career, if any, in which you have specialized.

During my career as an Assistant District Attorney, I specialized exclusively in criminal law. My clients were all members of the general public and, particularly, victims of crimes and families affected by crime.

As a civil attorney with Abbott & Meeks, I began specializing in maritime law, class actions, and products liability. My clients included oilfield service companies and chemical companies.

As General Counsel for the Archdiocese of New Orleans, my clients include the Archdiocese; its employees; its associated entities, including Second Harvest Food Bank, Catholic Charities, School Food and Nutrition Services of New Orleans, 100 church Parishes, over 60 elementary schools, 13 high schools, three colleges and universities; and three nursing homes. As General Counsel, -my primary focus is on matters involving employment law, religious liberty constitutional law, contract law, and insurance matters.

- c. Describe the percentage of your practice that has been in litigation and whether you appeared in court frequently, occasionally, or not at all. If the frequency of your appearances in court varied, describe such variance, providing dates.

My practice has varied from a practice that was exclusively criminal practice in state courts, to maritime practice in federal courts, to a broad civil practice requiring appearances before federal agencies and courts.

From 1983 to 1992, as both a law clerk and as an Assistant District Attorney, I appeared in court almost daily to assist and then conduct motion hearings and trials. The matters were all criminal matters heard in state court.

From 1992 to 1993, as an attorney in civil practice, I conducted legal research, managed pre-trial discovery, prepared motions and briefs on maritime and other matters, and appeared in federal court for motion hearings and status conferences.

Currently, as General Counsel for the Archdiocese, I occasionally appear in state court on both criminal and civil matters and also prepare position statements and appear before federal and state administrative agencies, such as the EEOC, IRS, and state Department of Education.

- i. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-------------|
| 1. federal courts: | 10% |
| 2. state courts of record: | 80% |
| 3. other courts: |   % |
| 4. administrative agencies: | 10% |

- ii. Indicate the percentage of your practice in:

- | | |
|--------------------------|------------|
| 1. civil proceedings: | 40% |
| 2. criminal proceedings: | 60% |

- d. State the number of cases in courts of record, including cases before administrative law judges, you tried to verdict, judgment or final decision (rather than settled), indicating whether you were sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel.

I have tried over 100 cases to verdict. I was the lead counsel in approximately 80% of these cases.

- i. What percentage of these trials were:

- | | |
|--------------|------------|
| 1. jury: | 80% |
| 2. non-jury: | 20% |

- e. Describe your practice, if any, before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Supply four (4) copies of any briefs, amicus or otherwise, and, if applicable, any oral argument transcripts before the Supreme Court in connection with your practice.

I have never appeared before the Supreme Court of the United States.

17. Litigation: Describe the ten (10) most significant litigated matters which you personally handled, whether or not you were the attorney of record. Give the citations, if the cases were reported, and the docket number and date if unreported. Give a capsule summary of the substance of each case. Identify the party or parties whom you represented; describe in detail the nature of your participation in the litigation and the final disposition of the case. Also state as to each case:

- a. the date of representation;
- b. the name of the court and the name of the judge or judges before whom the case was litigated; and
- c. the individual name, addresses, and telephone numbers of co-counsel and of principal counsel for each of the other parties.

I was one of two attorneys who prosecuted this second degree murder case after defendant's previous conviction from ten years earlier had been overturned. In 1978, Mr. Seward and his co-defendant had been convicted of killing the co-defendant's mother. That murder conviction was overturned in 1987. The matter involved extensive investigation to build a prosecutable case more than ten years after the crime and without the confession that was used to obtain the first conviction. Mr. Seward was again convicted of the murder.

I was one of two attorneys who prosecuted this case involving the first degree murder of a Catholic priest. In an effort to help Mr. Hamilton and his brother, the victim had allowed Mr. Hamilton to stay at the rectory for a few days. On the day that Mr. Hamilton was told that he had to leave, the victim was found bludgeoned, stabbed, and strangled, and the rectory had been ransacked and items had been stolen. Both were convicted of first degree murder. Mr. Hamilton received the death sentence.

I was the lead attorney, prosecuting this attempted first degree murder of a police officer. The officer had stopped the automobile Mr. Laird was driving on a suspicion of drunk driving. While undergoing the field sobriety test, Mr. Laird grabbed the officer's gun, forced him to lie on the ground, then shot him in the back. Officer Pepin was paralyzed from the waist down. As part of his plea, the defendant apologized to the officer in open court, which was important to the victim. Mr. Laird was sentenced to 40 years imprisonment.

(4) State v. Steven Quatrevingt, 670 So.2d 197 (La. 1996).

| Dates of Representation: | 1988 – 1990 |

As the Chief of Trials in the Orleans Parish District Attorney's Office, I tried this first degree murder case with the District Attorney. Mr. Quatrevingt was charged with first degree murder of a 22-year-old mentally challenged girl who lived with her parents. It was the first capital case in Louisiana in which the prosecution attempted to introduce DNA evidence at trial. The trial resulted in a conviction of first degree murder.

(5) Archdiocesan School Teacher (name confidential) v. Archdiocese of N.O.

|-------------------|---|
| Judge: | The Honorable Glenn Ansardi 24th Judicial District Court, State of Louisiana |
| Case No.: | 765-573 "H" |
| Co-counsel: | Michael DeShazo Kinney, Ellinghausen, Richard & DeShazo 1250 Poydras Street, Suite 2450 New Orleans, Louisiana 70113 (504) 524-0206 |

New Orleans, Louisiana 70130
(504) 561-8612

Dates of Representation: 2016 – 2017

As General Counsel of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, I worked with outside counsel Michael DeShazo in this wrongful termination case. A high school religion teacher sued the Archdiocese for wrongful termination of his teaching contract. A pivotal factor which led to the verdict in favor of the Archdiocese was – the teacher's contract, which I had revised significantly less than a year earlier. My revisions clarified that Archdiocesan teachers are ministers of Catholic education. Under the U.S. Supreme Court case, Hosanna-Tabor Evangelical Lutheran Church and School v. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the U.S. Supreme Court unanimously held that courts are barred from interfering with certain decisions of religious organizations that involve religious ministers. The trial judge in this matter held that under the revised teacher's contract, the teacher was a minister and should fall within the Hosanna Tabor ruling.

(6) State v. Leonard Peart, 621 So.2d 780 (1993).

Judge: The Honorable Calvin Johnson

Dates of Representation: 1991 – 1992

I was the lead prosecuting attorney. Mr. Peart was indicted by a Grand Jury on charges of rape, aggravated burglary, and armed robbery. During pre-trial motions, his attorney, a member of the Orleans Parish Indigent Defender Board, declared himself ineffective based on his heavy caseload and lack of office funds. I requested that the Court seek or appoint a private law firm to represent the defendant on a pro bono basis, either solely or to assist the Indigent Defender's Board. The court followed that suggestion. The District Judges of the Eastern District of Louisiana, through an en banc resolution, initiated a similar program years later that remains active and successful. Mr. Peart was found not guilty but subsequently pled guilty to another armed robbery, burglary, and rape. He was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment.

As General Counsel of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, I worked with outside counsel Greg Gremillion in this personal injury case arising from a tragic accident in an Archdiocesan school. After our investigation revealed that the Archdiocese was at fault, we worked with the family to reach a compassionate settlement that best addressed the family's needs. The family greatly appreciated our efforts—so much so that the child remains a student at an Archdiocesan school.

(8) State v. Arthur Lewis

I was one of two attorneys who prosecuted this first degree murder case. Mr. Lewis and two other people robbed four tourists visiting New Orleans. Mr. Lewis shot and killed one of the victims during the armed robbery. He and one of the other perpetrators, a juvenile, were arrested. The juvenile pled guilty to manslaughter and armed robbery and testified that Mr. Lewis was the person who shot and killed the victim. Mr. Lewis was found guilty of first degree murder. I was the lead attorney prosecuting this first degree murder case. Mr. Baker stalked his former girlfriend, eventually finding her at her home. The victim's mother and sister were both present in the home when Mr. Baker killed the victim. The jury convicted the defendant of first degree murder. He received a sentence of life imprisonment.

(10) D. T. v. Ursuline Academy, et al

|--------------------------|--|
| Judge: | The Honorable Piper D. Griffin Orleans Parish Civil District Court |
| Case No. | 15-11704 "I" |
| Other Counsel: | Joanne Rinardo Deutsch Kerrigan Law Firm 755 Magazine Street New Orleans, Louisiana 70130 (504) 581-5141 |
| Dates of Representation: | 2015-2016 |

I represented the Archdiocese of New Orleans and the Superintendent and an Associate Superintendent of the Archdiocese in a civil matter filed by the parent of a student enrolled in a school in the Archdiocese. Plaintiff, as parent of the minor child, requested injunctive relief against the child's school, that school's principal and assistant principal, as well as my clients—claiming breach of contract and that the school had violated the Equal Education Opportunities Act, 20 U.S.C 1703. As lead counsel for the Archdiocese, I drafted and successfully argued a motion to dismiss on behalf of my client. Plaintiff did not appeal. The remainder of the case was removed to federal court, where the court dismissed it.

18. Legal Activities: Describe the most significant legal activities you have pursued, including significant litigation which did not progress to trial or legal matters that did not involve litigation. Describe fully the nature of your participation in these activities. List any client(s) or organization(s) for whom you performed lobbying activities and describe the lobbying activities you performed on behalf of such client(s) or organizations(s). (Note: As to any facts requested in this question, please omit any information protected by the attorney-client privilege.)

Some of my most significant accomplishments, and certainly those that have benefitted the Archdiocese the most, include the numerous matters which I handle on a daily basis that fairly and amicably resolve litigation at a very early stage or avoid it altogether. In addition, on any given day, I may be contacted by supervisors regarding personnel issues, principals regarding school or parent issues, or the Executive Director of an agency regarding federal compliance issues. While I spend a great deal of time drafting and reviewing contracts, an even greater amount of my time is spent communicating with individuals seeking legal counsel. Helping to resolve these matters pre-trial, or even pre-litigation, makes a significant difference to the individuals involved in the matter.

As an Assistant District Attorney, my focus was on representing victims of crime and those families affected by crime. To that end, when it was in the victims' best interest and when they requested to allow the defendant to plead to a charge rather than to proceed to trial, my goal was to assist them when possible.

I have not performed any lobbying activities.

19. Teaching: What courses have you taught? For each course, state the title, the institution at which you taught the course, the years in which you taught the course, and describe briefly the subject matter of the course and the major topics taught. If you have a syllabus of each course, provide four (4) copies to the committee.

I have not taught any courses.

20. Deferred Income/ Future Benefits: List the sources, amounts and dates of all anticipated receipts from deferred income arrangements, stock, options, uncompleted contracts and other future benefits which you expect to derive from previous business relationships, professional services, firm memberships, former employers, clients or customers. Describe the arrangements you have made to be compensated in the future for any financial or business interest.

None.

21. Outside Commitments During Court Service: Do you have any plans, commitments, or agreements to pursue outside employment, with or without compensation, during your service with the court? If so, explain.

I do not have any plans, commitments or agreements to pursue outside employment.

22. Sources of Income: List sources and amounts of all income received during the calendar year preceding your nomination and for the current calendar year, including all salaries, fees, dividends, interest, gifts, rents, royalties, licensing fees, honoraria, and other items exceeding $500 or more (if you prefer to do so, copies of the financial disclosure report, required by the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, may be substituted here).

See attached Income Statement.

23. Statement of Net Worth: Please complete the attached financial net worth statement in detail (add schedules as called for).

See attached Statement of Net Worth.

24. Potential Conflicts of Interest:

- a. Identify the family members or other persons, parties, categories of litigation, and financial arrangements that are likely to present potential conflicts-of-interest when you first assume the position to which you have been nominated. Explain how you would address any such conflict if it were to arise.

If confirmed, I will disqualify myself in any case involving the Archdiocese of New Orleans in matters that arose while I was the General Counsel of the Archdiocese. I will evaluate all other cases where the Archdiocese is a named party on a case-by-case basis under 28 U.S.C. 455, the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, and all other relevant laws, rules, and practices. I will consult with counsel for all parties to the action where appropriate and necessary.

In addition, I will disqualify myself from any case where my husband, who is Of Counsel at a law firm, has directly participated or has a financial interest. I will evaluate all cases involving that law firm on a case-by-case basis under 28 U.S.C. 455, the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, and all other relevant laws, rules, and practices. I will consult with counsel for all parties to the action where appropriate and necessary.

- b. Explain how you will resolve any potential conflict of interest, including the procedure you will follow in determining these areas of concern.

If confirmed, I will carefully review and address any real or potential conflicts under 28 U.S.C. 455, the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, and all other relevant laws, rules, and practices. I will consult with counsel for all parties to the action where appropriate and necessary.

25. Pro Bono Work: An ethical consideration under Canon 2 of the American Bar Association's Code of Professional Responsibility calls for "every lawyer, regardless of professional prominence or professional workload, to find some time to participate in serving the disadvantaged." Describe what you have done to fulfill these responsibilities, listing specific instances and the amount of time devoted to each.

My pro bono work has included representing and advising individuals in matters ranging from traffic tickets to cases in municipal court. I have offered and provided my legal services through programs with the Louisiana Bar Association as well as with charitable and religious organizations such as the Harry Thompson Center.

Beyond legal work, I have volunteered for numerous non-profit entities including the Cancer Association of Greater New Orleans, where I have served on the board for over 20 years, including three years as President, as well as the Legacy Foundation Board (promoting organ donation). I have also volunteered with the American Heart Association, Notre Dame Seminary, St. Vincent de Paul Society, and my children's schools. I have not attempted to keep records of the hours devoted to those matters.

26. Selection Process:

- a. Please describe your experience in the entire judicial selection process, from beginning to end (including the circumstances which led to your nomination and the interviews in which you participated). Is there a selection commission in your jurisdiction to recommend candidates for nomination to the federal courts? If so, please include that process in your description, as well as whether the commission recommended your nomination. List the dates of all interviews or communications you had with the White House staff or the Justice Department regarding this nomination. Do not include any contacts with Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel concerning your nomination.

At some point prior to President Trump's inauguration, I spoke with Senators Cassidy and Kennedy and with Congressman Scalise about my interest in serving on the district court in Louisiana. In March 2017, I communicated with the White House Counsel's Office regarding an interview. On April 7, 2017, I interviewed with attorneys from the White House Counsel's Office and the Office of Legal Policy of the Department of Justice in Washington, D.C.. On June 23, 2017, I interviewed with a committee established by Senator Cassidy to advise him on his recommendation for the position. In mid-September I was informed by the White House Counsel's Office and Senator Cassidy that I had been tentatively selected for the position. Since mid-September, I have been in contact with officials from the White House Counsel's Office and the Office of Legal Policy regarding my candidacy. On January 23, 2018, the President submitted my nomination to the Senate.

- b. Has anyone involved in the process of selecting you as a judicial nominee discussed with you any currently pending or specific case, legal issue or question in a manner that could reasonably be interpreted as seeking any express or implied assurances concerning your position on such case, issue, or question? If so, explain fully.

No.
