Re: Nomination of Antonio Pozos to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania

Dear Chairman Grassley and Ranking Member Durbin:

We write to convey our enthusiastic support for Antonio Pozos, who has been nominated to serve as a District Judge on the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

We are partners and other attorneys at Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP. We have had the privilege of calling Tony our partner since 2018, when Tony joined the firm in our Philadelphia office. As soon as he began his work with us, Tony became widely known across the firm as one of the best litigators at Faegre Drinker. Indeed, Tony has handled cases on behalf of our clients because we and our clients know that Tony approaches all of his cases with outstanding skill and care. Tony has a brilliant legal mind, superb judgment, and a deep commitment to excellence. He has had great success in the most sophisticated, complex, and high-stakes civil and criminal litigation. Importantly, however, Tony works zealously for every client in all matters, no matter the size or subject matter of the case. He treats his colleagues, clients, and all others with the same courtesy and professionalism. Tony has earned the respect not only of his colleagues and clients, but also of opposing counsel and the courts.

Tony has also gone out of his way to mentor younger lawyers who hope to follow in his footsteps. He has served as an official partner mentor to associates and summer associates, and he informally counsels many other associates throughout the firm. Outside of his successful law practice, Tony devotes a significant amount of time to law students. He taught classes at the University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School over the years and is a member of their Inn of Court. He also serves on the Advisory Board for Drexel University's Thomas R. Kline School of Law. Notably, he did not attend either of these institutions. The schools asked Tony to take on these positions because Tony's outstanding reputation preceded him. Tony took on these roles because he cares deeply about the legal profession and the next generation of lawyers.

Despite his accomplishments, Tony remains humble and good-natured. No matter the situation, he brings a steady hand and positive outlook to every challenge. Tony clerked for a federal district court judge and has appeared in federal district courts across the country throughout his career as both a prosecutor and a defense lawyer. As a result, Tony fundamentally understands the importance of judicial independence. We know that he would approach each case with sound judgment, intellectual curiosity, and an open mind. He will treat all parties before him with equal respect.

It is worth noting that the signatories of this letter have a diverse range of political viewpoints and past experiences. Yet we are unanimous and unwavering in our full support of Tony to serve as a federal judge. Tony is a person of the highest caliber and integrity. He represents the very best of the legal profession and of us.

Tony will be an exceptional member of the federal judiciary. We strongly support his confirmation to the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Sincerely,

Daniel H. Aiken
